Said notice shall set forth that plans and specifications of the work to be done can be seen at the office of the board, and that the board will receive sealed proposals therefor, and that the contract may be let to the lowest responsible bidder, stating the time and place for opening said proposals, which, at the time and place appointed, shall be opened in public; and as convenient thereafter the board may let said work either in portions or as a whole to the lowest responsible bidder, or it may reject any or all bids and make and enter into contracts with private persons or construction companies for amounts equal to or less than the lowest bid price rejected or enter into contracts upon a guaranteed unit price basis which unit price will not exceed the total overall lowest rejected bid or may proceed to construct the work under its own superintendency, provided, that in case of emergency or urgent necessity the board of directors, by unanimous vote of those present at any regular or special meeting, may award contracts without advertising for bids, but the amount of any contract so awarded shall not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

The work shall be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of, and be approved by the board.

SEC. 29. In case of condemnation proceedings, the board of directors shall proceed in the name of the district under the provisions of Title 7, Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 30. SEC. 32 The district must adopt for the government and control of its affairs a code of by-laws, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the State or the provisions of this act. Sixty days after they shall have qualified for office the board of directors shall prepare by-laws for the written approval of the board of supervisors of the county in which the district was organized, and, when said by-laws are approved, shall adopt the same by resolution entered in the minutes of the meeting, unless, prior thereto, by-laws shall have been adopted and filed with the secretary of the district by the written assent of the holders of title or evidence of title, including such aforesaid possessory rights, to a majority in area of the lands embraced in said district. The board of directors shall have the power and it shall be its duty to establish equitable rules and regulations for the distribution and use of water among the owners of lands within the district, which rules and regulations shall recognize and shall be subject to such priorities in the right to water between the different consumers of the water as may legally exist. In the event that the volume of water under the control of any water storage and conservation district is in any season so diminished below normal, by reason of water shortage or otherwise, as to make it probable that all the lands within such district can not receive the full amount of water which they may need and to which they would otherwise be entitled, such deficiency shall be borne ratably by all the lands within such district except in so far as priorities in the right to water as between different lands may prevent, and the board of directors shall have the power to make rules and regulations to provide for so distributing the burden of such deficiency and also for the most economical and efficient use of the water which is or probably will be available.

After rules and regulations as above provided have been established by the board of directors, any violation thereof shall be and is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor, and the person committing the same shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

SEC. 34 The board of directors, when they deem it advisable for the best interests of the district, may regulate the amount of water in use or to be used for the purpose of irrigating crops on lands within the district when the seepage from such irrigation would damage adjacent lands or it may require, as a condition precedent to the delivery of water, the construction of adequate drainage facilities to prevent damage to adjacent lands. The board shall have power to make the necessary rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 35 For any of the purposes of this act, including payment of interest and principal on bonds issued under this act, the board of directors of any water storage and conservation district may, in lieu (either in whole or in part) of collecting assessments as herein provided, fix and collect rates of tolls or charges for use of water which may include a stand-by or carrying charge notwithstanding the water is not actually used, or any other public use of which the district is in charge, under such reasonable rules and regulations as the board may prescribe, which may provide, in the case of water for irrigation, that tolls or charges will be payable only in case of the delivery of water in excess of a specified quantity per unit of land.

SEC 36. SEC 38 No supervisor, recorder, auditor or clerk of any county shall receive any fee for any service required to be performed by him under the provisions of this act.

The county treasurer of any county in which any of the lands contained in the district are located during the time for the collection of assessments of the district may require the board of directors of such district to provide and pay for such additional help as may be required to care for the matters relating to the collection of the said assessments.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, April 21, 1941

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly, State of California
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

GREETINGS: Pursuant to the provisions of Section 312 of the Political Code of California, you are hereby notified that on the nineteenth day of April, 1941, at 5.45 p m, Assembly Bill No. 562 was returned without my signature and, together with a statement of my objections thereto, was delivered to Honorable Alfred W. Robertson, member of the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted

CULBERT L. OLSON, Governor of California

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, April 19, 1941

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
Sacramento, California

GREETINGS. I am returning herewith, without my signature, Assembly Bill No. 562, entitled "An act to authorize nonprofit membership medical service corporations organized under Division 1, Part 4, Title 12 of the Civil Code, to enter into and perform medical service contracts and to contract with Federal agencies and to receive and administer, in trust, Federal funds; and to authorize nonprofit hospital service corporations organized under Division 2, Part 2, Chapter 11a of Article 3 of the Insurance Code to enter into and perform contracts with Federal agencies and to receive and administer, in trust, Federal funds."

My objections to this bill are as follows:

The bill purports to authorize nonprofit membership corporations operating medical and surgical service plans with participation available to licensed physicians and surgeons to enter into and perform medical and surgical service contracts with any agency or instrumentality of the United States of America, and, in aid or in furtherance of such contracts, to accept, receive and administer in trust funds directly or indirectly made available by any agency or instrumentality of the United States of America. The bill declares such corporation, in the administration and trust of such funds, shall be conclusively deemed to be, for the purpose of all the laws of this State, an instrumentality of the United States of America.

I do not believe the State of California can by legislative fiat declare any corporation or organization an agency of the Federal Government, and certainly such legislation should not be necessary in the case of a corporation or association which is lawfully operating under the laws of this State.

Provisions of this act to the effect that nonprofit membership corporations "may make, enter into and perform medical and surgical service contracts" would have the effect of removing from the courts of this State jurisdiction to determine litigation now pending involving the question of whether such corporations are subject to the Insurance Laws of this State. This litigation was instituted by the California Physicians' Service, apparently the only nonprofit membership corporation which could enter into the contracts which are the subject of Section 1 of the bill.

The characterization of these corporations as instrumentalities of the United States "for the purposes of all laws of this State" leads into questions the complexity of which are unlimited For example, the question has been raised as to whether such corporation and its member physicians would be liable for or subject to the tort liability applicable to other physicians and surgeons in the ordinary practice of their professions Upon further reflection, other problems of like nature will certainly appear to the Legislature.

Section 2 of the bill relates to nonprofit hospital service corporations organized under the appropriate provisions of the Insurance Code to make similar contracts. It also declares them to be an instrumentality of the United States.

The same question as to tort liability exists in respect to these corporations, although, as they are licensed under the Insurance Laws of this State, no question exists as to the legality of their operations or their power to enter into such contracts.

I have always been in sympathy with the objectives of the Farm Security Administration in seeking to bring to its clients low cost medical and hospital services which are so sorely needed by them, but I do not believe this bill necessary to enable such services to be contracted by a California corporation which is lawfully operating under the laws of this State. My objections to the bill are that it would be a vehicle for consequences unintended, and inimical to objectives that were intended in the enactment of the bill.

Respectfully submitted

CULBERT L. OLSON, Governor of California

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, April 21, 1941

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
State of California, State Capitol, Sacramento, California

GREETINGS: Pursuant to the provisions of Section 312 of the Political Code of California, you are hereby notified that on the nineteenth day of April, 1941, at 11 12 a m., Assembly Bill No. 1648 was returned without my signature and, together with a statement of my objections thereto, was delivered to Honorable Alfred W. Robertson, member of the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted.

CULBERT L. OLSON, Governor of California

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, April 17, 1941

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
Sacramento, California

GREETINGS: I am returning herewith, without my signature, Assembly Bill No. 1648, entitled 'An act to repeal Section 48.2 of the California Irrigation District Act, relating to property sold or deeded to an irrigation district for delinquent assessments." My objections to this bill are as follows:

This bill repeals Section 48.2 of the California Irrigation District Act.

Section 48.1 of the act places a one-year statute of limitations upon any action or proceeding to attack the validity or regularity of any transfer of complete title to an irrigation district by the collector thereof for the failure to pay delinquent taxes or assessments. Not only are actions to cancel such deeds to the district affected, but also any defense, counterclaim, or cross complaint to any other type of an action is affected: that is, after the period of one year has elapsed, no defense based on the invalidity of any such deed may be maintained

Section 47.1 of the act provides that no sale, lease, or option by the district of property so acquired can be attacked unless action is commenced within one year of the date of the deed, lease or option.

Section 48.2 of the act, which is repealed by the bill, reads as follows:

"The provisions of Sections 47 1 and 48.1 do not apply in the following cases:

(a) Where the assessments or taxes for which the land was sold or the certificate issued were paid before the sales.

(b) Where the land was redeemed after the sales.

(c) Where the land was not subject to assessment or taxation at the time it was assessed.

(d) Where no taxes or assessments were due on the land at the time of sale.

(e) Where fraud is established

(f) Where the deed is void on its face.

(g) Where the owner of the land is, at the time of the sale, a minor or insane person, in which case the statute of limitations begins to run when such disability is removed.

(h) In any other case where there is a total lack of jurisdiction to make the sale or the deed."

The effect of the repeal, therefore, will be to include certain types of causes of action based on the irregularity of proceedings to foreclose delinquent property within the one year statute of limitations.

It appears that the reason for the bill is that certain superior courts have held that subdivision (h) of Section 48 2 practically nullifies the effect of the other two sections. However, this bill repeals the entire section rather than amending subdivision (h) out of it.

It is stated that the other subdivisions of the section would still be applicable due to the fact that the courts would read into Sections 47 1 and 48 1 the exceptions now listed in Section 48.2. The note in 27 L. R. A. (N. S.) 339 is cited as authority. While it is true that certain of the conditions mentioned in Section 48 2 have been held in other States to nullify short statutes of limitations, many of these decisions are based upon statutory construction of the statutes of the various States. These cases in the main, however, would apply only to subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), and (f). It is doubtful that if this bill is enacted an action could be brought after the one year limitation had run, based on fraud, where the deeds to and from the district appear regular on their face I also believe that the one year limitation would apply to a minor or an insane person, thus removing the protection offered by subdivision (g).

It is a rule of statutory construction that the Legislature intends to make some change by any statute that it enacts and the argument could certainly be made that the repeal of Section 48 2 was intended to make the statute of limitations apply to all cases

If subdivision (h) is the only subdivision of Section 48 2 that is giving trouble, the bill should be limited to deleting that subdivision from the section.

Furthermore, as noted, this bill will not only outlaw actions regarding deeds, but it will have the same effect on leases made by irrigation districts. Your honorable body now has a committee investigating the subject of tax-deeded lands, and I understand that an important phase of the investigation will be as to the manner of the leasing of lands by irrigation districts Other departments of the State have similar investigations under way Furthermore, the association of boards of supervisors is very much concerned with the manner in which the irrigation districts have dealt with the tax-deeded lands, and I believe have a committee investigating the subject. It would seem highly undesirable to place a short statute of limitations on actions involving the validity of the leases with which the investigations may in part be concerned, for if irregularities are established, the statute of limitations might, under this bill, bar any effective action.

Respectfully submitted.

CULBERT L. OLSON, Governor of California

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was received and read, and on motion of Mr. Bennett, ordered printed in the Journal:

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA, April 20, 1941

Honorable F. Ray Bennett, Assembly Chamber
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

SUBJECT: Senate Bill No. 1292, Appropriation for Senate Contingent Expenses
REQUEST: No. 2572

DEAR MR. BENNETT: You have asked us to advise you whether Senate Bill No. 1292, as amended in Senate on April 9th and April 10th, was so amended in violation of Joint Rule No. 9.

As introduced, Senate Bill No 1292 made an appropriation for mileage of members and officers of the Senate. As amended on April 9th and 10th and as passed by the Senate the bill made an appropriation for the contingent expenses of the Senate.

Rule No. 9 of the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly provides "a substitute or amendment must relate to the same subject as the original bill, constitutional amendment or resolution under consideration."

The answer to your question depends upon whether the Legislature elects to place a strict or liberal interpretation upon Joint Rule No. 9.

Under a strict interpretation of the rule that amendments must be germane we believe that the amendments to this bill which change its purpose from an appropriation for mileage for the members of the Senate to an appropriation for the contingent expenses of the Senate are in violation of Joint Rule No. 9. We note for instance that the Budget Bill carries separate items of appropriation for this purpose and also that Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution speaks of appropriations "for the salaries, mileage and expenses of the Senate and Assembly." Further the summary of rulings in Congress as to whether or not amendments are germane commencing at page 193 of "Cannon's Procedure in the House of Representatives" 3d Edition tend to confirm this conclusion On the other hand if the Legislature elects to follow a liberal construction of Joint Rule No. 9 we believe that the amendments to Senate Bill No. 1292 do not violate the rule as so construed since the bill as amended relates to the same general subject (although a different phase of that subject) as did the bill as introduced.

Neither the Joint Rules nor the precedents of the houses in the Journals of previous sessions indicate the policy of the Legislature or either house as to the interpretation of Joint Rule No. 9. There have been very few rulings in recent years that appear in the Journals upon points of order as to the violation either of this Joint Rule or of the rules regarding germaneness of amendments adopted by the two houses.

An examination of the amendments adopted to bills in both houses during this and previous sessions without objections having been raised that the amendments violated the rules regarding germaneness is strong evidence in support of a conclusion that the Legislature has interpreted these rules in a very liberal fashion. Many of these amendments would most certainly be held out of order under even a reasonably strict interpretation of the rule. However, until such time as the policy of the Legislature with respect to this question is definitely expressed either in the form of a rule or by precedents appearing in the Journals, it can not be definitely stated whether that policy is a strict or a liberal one.

We are sending a copy of this opinion to the Honorable William P. Rich, the author of Senate Bill No. 1292, pursuant to Joint Rule No. 37, as appears in Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26.

Very truly yours,

FRED B. WOOD, Legislative Counsel
By LAWRENCE G. ALLYN, Deputy

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF ASSEMBLY RULE NO. 33

On motion of Mr. Lyon, Assembly Rule No. 33 was temporarily suspended by unanimous consent to allow the placing of more than one call of the Assembly on Senate Bill No. 1292.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1292

In compliance with a notice given on a previous day, Mr. Bennett moved that the vote whereby Senate Bill No. 1292 was passed be reconsidered.

Senate Bill No. 1292 refused reconsideration by the following vote:

Communication From Legislative Counsel

Report on Assembly Bill No. 271. Tenney, Bashore, Phillips.

Subject: New act known as the Subversive Organization Registration Act, requiring the registration with the Secretary of State of every organization consisting of two or more persons which:

(a) Directly or indirectly advocates, advises, teaches, or practices, the duty, necessity or propriety of controlling, conducting, seizing, or overthrowing the Government of the United States, or of this State or of any political subdivision thereof by force or violence; or

(b) Solicits or accepts financial contributions, loans or support of any kind, directly or indirectly from, or is affiliated directly or indirectly with, or whose policies are determined by or at the suggestion of, or in collaboration with, an agency or instrumentality of a foreign government or political subdivision thereof, or a political party of a foreign country or an international political organization.

Form: Approved. Title: Approved.

Constitutionality: Approved. See comment.

Analysis: The bill requires every existing organization of a type hereinabove referred to to file with the Secretary of State within 30 days after this act takes effect and every new organization of such type to file within 10 days after its organization:

(a) A detailed statement giving the address of all of its branches, the names, addresses and nationalities of its officers, the qualifications required for membership in the organization, the assets owned by it, contributions received by it and other similar information. (Section 2, subdivision a.)

Within 10 days after any change is made in its officers or in its aims, purposes, property holdings, sources of financial support, etc., a sworn statement of such changes must be filed with the Secretary of State. (Section 5.)

(b) A certified copy of its charter, by-laws or other instrument under which it is organized and exists, and a copy of all written material directly or indirectly distributed by it. (Section 2, subdivision b.)

Within 10 days after its charter, by-laws, etc., are changed, a certified copy of the same as so changed must be filed with the Secretary of State (Section 4).

(c) A description of its uniforms and other regalia, if any (Section 2, subdivision c).

(d) The manner in which it is subject to control by, or support from any foreign government, political subdivision, agency, or party thereof or an international political organization (Section 2, subdivision d).

At least once every six months every registered organization must file a certified list of its new members or a statement that it has no new members (Section 6).

Every such organization shall file within 10 days after adoption thereof, every resolution adopted, or the minutes of any meetings held by it, authorizing or providing for concerted action on its part or the part of its officers or membership in promoting or preventing the passage of legislation or the election or defeat of any candidate for public office (Section 7).

No such organization shall distribute by mail or otherwise any anonymous document, and all documents distributed by the organization and intended to come to the attention of persons who are not members shall bear the name of the organization and the names and addresses of its officers (Section 8).

All documents filed with the Secretary of State are public records and open to public inspection (Section 9).

The Secretary of State may adopt rules and regulations to carry out the act (Section 10).

The bill imposes heavy fines on those organizations which violate its provisions (Section 11), as well as upon its officers which permit or acquiesce in such violation (Section 12).

Any person who, with knowledge that any organization has failed to comply with the act becomes or remains a member of, attends meetings of any such organization is guilty of a misdemeanor (Section 13).

Labor unions, religious, fraternal and patriotic organizations, societies or associations whose objectives and aims do not contemplate the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of this State or of a political subdivision thereof by force or violence are specifically exempted from the act (Section 3).

The act imposes cumulative obligations on organizations which are subject to it and the fact that such organizations are otherwise subject to governmental control or regulations does not excuse compliance with its provisions (Section 14).

The bill contains the usual severability provisions (Section 15) and a declaration that it is enacted in the exercise of the police power (Section 16).

Comment: We are aware of the similarity of this bill in various respects, to the act of Congress known as the Voorhis Act (Public Act No. 870, Seventy-sixth Congress), and of the question represented by a recent decision of the U. S. Supreme Court (Hines vs. Davidowitz, 85 Law Ed. 366) holding invalid the Pennsylvania Alien Registration Act (Pa. Laws, 1939, No. 304) upon the ground that Congress had taken over that field of Federal regulation by enacting the Federal Alien Registration Act (Public Act No. 670, Seventy-sixth Congress, Third Session).

We do not think the two situations analogous.

The Hines decision is based upon "The supremacy of the National power in the general field of foreign affairs, including power over immigration, naturalization and deportation" (85 Law Ed. 369). In this field "any concurrent State power that may exist is restricted to the narrowest of limits" (85 Law Ed. 372) "The power to restrict, limit, regulate, and register aliens as a distinct group is not an equal and continuously existing concurrent power of the State and Nation, but whatever power a State may have is subordinate to supreme National law" (85 Law Ed. 373).

But Assembly Bill No. 271, we believe, is not in a field in which the Federal Government is supreme. It seems quite unlike the field of interstate commerce or of bankruptcy or of foreign affairs.

Certainly it is a matter of "State" concern to take steps for the protection of itself and of its own political subdivisions, to prevent the overthrow or attempted overthrow thereof by force or violence. That is one of the purposes of this bill

Nor has the State an illegitimate concern with threatened overthrow of the United States Government. Her citizens happen also to be citizens of the United States. But that should not strip the State of power to enact measures for the protection of her own citizens or for the maintenance of their morale, or for the prevention of breaches of the peace.

Upon that principle was a Minnesota law upheld which penalized advocacy against enlistment in the Military or Naval forces of the United States. (Gilbert vs. Minnesota, 1920, 254 U. S. 325.)

The State statute was not abrogated by the Federal Espionage Law of 1917. The same act "may be an offense or transgression of the laws of both" Nation and State, and "both may punish it without a conflict of their sovereignties" (254 U. S. 330).

The derailment of a train carrying United States mail may be punishable under a Federal statute, and the death of the engineer produced thereby may be punishable as murder under a State statute. (Crossley vs. California, 168 U. S. 640.)

The same principle is exemplified by a California decision of 1889. Possessing or making any device used in "counterfeiting bank notes or bills" was proscribed, as a felony, by Section 480 of our Penal Code. This, it was held, applied to the bank notes of a foreign government, even though a Federal statute proscribed the very same thing:

"Such acts, although denounced by Federal laws, and punishable under such laws in Federal courts alone, may nevertheless be punished by State laws in State courts, where the punishment of such acts pertain to the police power of a State; that for such an act as here alleged to have been committed, the Federal law may punish, for the protection of foreign nations and their people, and the State law for the act as one which may result in a fraud upon its citizens by passing upon them counterfeit bills of a foreign bank or corporation." (People vs. McDonnell, 80 Cal. 285, 289.)

"The State is not inhibited from passing laws to punish an act which may result in fraudulent imposition upon its citizens, because the Federal Government has the exclusive right to punish for an infraction of its laws made in consequence of a duty it owes under the law of nations. The act is the same for which the person is punished, but the laws are different and for a different purpose." (Same, p. 292.)

In addition, the bill contains a separability clause (Section 15). If some part of the bill should be held invalid, the remainder would not fall but would continue operative.

MOTION TO PRINT REPORT IN JOURNAL

On motion of Mr. Kepple, the following report of the Assembly Committee on the Investigation of Whittier State School was ordered printed in the Journal:

Report of Assembly Committee on the Whittier State School

The Assembly Committee on the Whittier State School files herewith a preliminary report of its investigation. The committee will subsequently file a more detailed report containing recommendations or propose legislation to carry out its recommendations.

The committee makes this immediate report because of a serious emergency which it feels neither the Legislature nor the public fully comprehends.

Since its appointment the Assembly Committee has conferred with Judge Robert H. Scott of the Los Angeles County Juvenile Court, Karl Holton, Chief Probation Officer of Los Angeles County, Kenyon J Scudder, formerly Superintendent of the Whittier State School and newly appointed Executive Officer of the Southern California Prison at Chino, Judges Frank G Swain, Benj. J. Scheinman, Samuel R. Blake of the Los Angeles Superior Court, Dr. Thos. W. Haggerty, Medical Superintendent of the Camarillo State Hospital, Dr. G. M. Webster, Medical Superintendent at Patton, Dr. Glenn E Myers, Medical Director of the Compton Sanitarium, and others. It has visited the Whittier State School where it conferred with the Flanagan Committee and others connected with the school. It has conferred with the city officials of the City of Whittier and others interested in the Whittier State School, and has made certain investigations at the State Narcotic Hospital at Spadra and the Pacific Colony to obtain certain facts and data.

The committee found the Whittier State School in a most demoralized and chaotic condition.

The normal population of the school is approximately 350. This has dwindled to a little more than 200 due to escapes and the refusal of authorities to send boys to the school under present conditions. During the few hours the committee was in Los Angeles and in Whittier about 100 boys, almost one-half of the remaining population, escaped from the school When apprehended and returned they leave again as soon as they feel like it. Yesterday (Sunday) a total of 60 boys left the school The "Lost privilege" and "Receiving cottages" at the school have been closed and there is no physical restraint of any kind. Several thousand dollars worth of automobiles have been stolen in Whittier alone by escaped inmates and burglaries have been numerous in recent weeks. Police officers are kept busy night and day hunting such escapes; a number of them were caught in the act of stealing automobiles with which to get away. Officials and citizens of Whittier are rightfully indignant and voiced their emphatic objections to what has become an intolerable situation.

This committee believes that before any other steps are taken to correct conditions which may be wrong at Whittier that Governor Olson and the Director of Institutions be called upon by this Assembly to place in charge at Whittier someone legally responsible and capable of restoring discipline.

For obvious reasons, no attempt has been made, except incidentally, to go into the chain of events which have brought about the present turmoil in the Whittier State School However, a brief review is necessary to any understanding of the present situation. A boy committed suicide in the school in August, 1939, and another alleged suicide occurred a few months later. Since the day of the first suicide, the school has been the target of almost constant investigations, notably by the Leo Gallagher-Scully Committee, the Judge Lindsey Committee and, more recently, the committee headed by Father Flanagan of Boys Town—all appointed by Governor Olson.

In passing it may be pointed out that the Assembly Committee did not consult a single individual, including the members of the Flanagan Committee, who were not loud in their praise of the splendid attainments and the international reputation of the Whittier State School a few years ago under the leadership of the late Fred C. Nelles. Many of the individuals who assisted Fred Nelles in bringing the Whittier State School to its former splendid standing are available—a number of them here on the coast. These include such nationally known individuals as Dr. Grace M. Fernald of U. C. L. A., Dr. Ellen B. Sullivan of U. C. L. A., formerly director of the California Bureau of Juvenile Research who spent several years at Whittier, Dr. Norman Fenton, Dr. Katherine Cox Miles, Director of Research and Professor of Psychology in the Child Welfare Department of Yale University, Judge Wm. James, Juvenile Judge of Santa Clara County, August Vollmer, Professor of Criminology at Berkeley, William Healy and others. Your committee is perplexed to understand why none of these competent authorities has been consulted in connection with the numerous investigations at Whittier.

After the Lindsey investigation, charges based upon the voluminous report of that committee were filed by Frank Scully against E. J. Milne, Superintendent of the Whittier State School. The position is under civil service. Another extensive investigation has been conducted by the Personnel Board with the aid of a special investigator, and it is understood the Personnel Board has about completed this investigation. On April 4th, without any further charges being filed, the Director of Institutions on demand of Governor Olson "suspended" Superintendent Milne. We are informed that this suspension was not legally made and that the records of the Personnel Board show that Superintendent Milne is on vacation. Since the attempted suspension, the Flanagan Committee consisting of Father Flanagan, Wm. B. Cox of the Osborne Association of New York, Mrs. Helen Mellinkoff together with P. J. Norton has been in charge at the school. Mrs. Mellinkoff is a member of the Judge Lindsey Committee. Mr. Norton, also connected with Boys Town, was named acting director by Governor Olson through the Director of Institutions. The committee has been unable to determine how this was accomplished under civil service regulations. The institution has an assistant superintendent who has held the position for a number of years.

During the past few days events have moved with startling rapidity. Last Thursday night press reports stated that Governor Olson at the request of the Flanagan Committee had appointed T. A. Duffy, 33 year old Los Angeles teacher and social welfare worker, as permanent superintendent of the school. This order a few hours later was reported rescinded and Governor Olson by telephone engaged Wm. B. Cox, a member of the Flanagan Committee, to become permanent superintendent beginning June 1st. In the meantime Mr. Duffy is supposed to remain on as acting superintendent in place of Mr. Norton who left to return to Boys Town with Father Flanagan last night. All this is a little too fast for your committee, which is of the opinion that Governor Olson under the civil service laws of the State has no authority to make any such appointments.

Juvenile authorities of Los Angeles County agree with the Flanagan Committee and others that there are needed changes in the administration of the school but emphasized that needed corrections do not include the abolition of all discipline. It was further emphasized that Whittier is a correctional school where boys are sent only as a last resort. Many of them have committed serious felonies and have been in difficulty with the law many times. Almost without exception qualified authorities emphasize that one of the contributing factors to the trouble at Whittier has been an increasing percentage of what are commonly termed defective and psychopathic delinquents—many of whom were formerly not sent to Whittier. The necessity of segregation for this type of inmate was emphatically stressed. Many other constructive suggestions were made, upon which this committee will attempt to act. However, the immediate problem at Whittier is the restoration of some sort of discipline if the school is to be saved. It was reported to the press that Governor Olson told Father Flanagan that he would like to have Whittier turned into a boys town. We are not acquainted with Boys Town, except through the movies, but we do not believe that an institution like Whittier, which is in many instances the place of last resort for juvenile offenders, can be run without discipline. It is hardly necessary for this committee to say that it is opposed to brutality or to cruel or unusual punishment in any institution but enlightened treatment and understanding approach to the problem of delinquent boys can not be void of discipline. We found the Father Flanagan Committee very critical toward any suggestion that physical restraint of any kind be employed even temporarily to bring order back to the institution. It is easy to dramatize to the point of public hysteria conditions which need correcting but it is most important that a balance be maintained between the elimination of maladministration on the one hand and the protection of society on the other. Many boys at Whittier come from bad environment and are the unfortunate victims of inherent weakness which gets them into trouble oftentimes through no fault of their own, but when such boys break away from restraint, steal automobiles, commit murder, burglaries and other felonies with knives and at the point of guns, it seems absurd to the committee to maintain that physical restraint in such cases is unnecessary. When the chairman of your committee emphasized this fact, he was told by the Father Flanagan Committee that he had a "warped mind."

Last Thursday night a woman nurse in the hospital at the Whittier School was attacked by a 15-year-old inmate, beaten over the head with a flashlight and threatened with death if she attempted to prevent his escape. The boy has been in a great deal of difficulty with the law and has a long record of escapes from various detention homes and institutions other than Whittier. On Friday night while a student dance was in progress at the Whittier Union High School, at which the daughter of your committee chairman was present, police warned all of the youngsters present not to leave without escort and stated that if anyone had an unlocked automobile in the vicinity they should immediately go with the officer and lock same as a large number of inmates of the Whittier State School had escaped and were on the loose throughout the town. It is unnecessary to prolong a recitation of what has been going on at Whittier. Enough has been related to indicate the complete demoralization of the institution. It is the opinion of your committee that if Whittier State School is to be turned into a Boys Town a large percentage of the present inmates will have to be transferred elsewhere. The difficulties in doing this are obvious when Preston, the only other available institution, is already overcrowded. The committee hardly believes that anyone desires that juvenile delinquents not over 16 years of age be sent to State prisons. We believe that order can be restored at Whittier and that those things which are wrong can be corrected to bring the institution back to a high state of efficiency and accomplishment in the rehabilitation of juvenile offenders. Your committee has received valuable suggestions from the various reports which have been made and from experts with whom it has consulted. It is the hope of the committee that action upon at least the more important suggestions can be taken at this session of the Legislature. Any action, however, will be futile until order and discipline are restored in the institution.

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was received and read, and on motion of Mr. Kepple, ordered printed in the Journal:

WHITTIER, CALIFORNIA, April 21, 1941

Hon. Gerald Kepple
State Assembly, Sacramento, California

Our police department received following calls from State school about escapes: Sunday 10 54 a.m., 12 boys left; 12.55 p.m., approximately, 40 left; 2 40 p.m., eight left; 6 30 p.m., about 20 left. Entire police department all yesterday afternoon and night trying to round up the boys and get them back. The sheriff's office and State school employees did likewise. Police department was told not to keep boys or bring them back but to turn them loose and tell them to go back to school. Sheriff's office and police department refused to release them and eventually State school came and picked up boys. Scores of phone calls at police department and sheriff's office from persons whose cars were being prowled and tampered with. Many cars worked over around Whittier Theatre and citrus house. Gangs of boys were cornered in open fields by Montebello police. All calling for help. Groups of half dozen were marching down Beverly Boulevard between Whittier and Montebello. Chief went to State school when they refused to answer phone and found approximately two cottages had gone with no report being made. No one knows how many escaped and how many are back. You really missed a show and the people in town really have blood in their eyes this morning. Almost everybody feels that the entire institution should be closed until publicity dies down and order established. Will write and wire you daily.

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was received and read, and on motion of Mr. Phillips, ordered printed in the Journal:

OFFICE OF THE CONTROLLER
SACRAMENTO, April 22, 1941

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

GREETINGS: The Governor, in a letter to your honorable body on March 4th, announced that at his direction an investigation of the State Controller's administration of tax-deeded property had been made by the Director of Finance.

A report on this investigation, which he had made public six days earlier, was given by the Governor as the basis for a proposal that control of this distressed property be lifted from the independently elected State Controller and handed over to a commission dominated by the Administration.

Neither the Governor nor the Director of Finance discussed the report with me before it was made public or provided me with a copy of it as required by law. When, 10 days after its publication, I had not been furnished a copy, I so notified your honorable body.

Not until March 12th, two weeks after its public release, did I receive a copy of the report.

Accusations of a serious nature are made in that report. Detailed statements and financial schedules purporting to show huge financial loss to the State through the Controller's handling of specified parcels of tax-deeded property are included.

I have studied the report of the Department of Finance carefully. Civil service employees of the Controller, in an effort to learn the facts concerning the rental and administration of each parcel of property, examined records which had been equally available to the Department of Finance auditors, and consulted qualified and independent authorities on property values, rentals and management.

A detailed report of our findings has been furnished to the Director of Finance and the Chairman of the Assembly's Governmental Efficiency and Economy Subcommittee on Tax-deeded Lands, and is now submitted for the consideration of your honorable body. The report is documented by photostatic copies of deeds, correspondence and other official records together with statements of appraisals from authorities. I am now prepared to go into the matter fully with the Legislative Committee to which it has been referred

The evidence indicates that the Department of Finance report made under the Governor's direction is based upon careless investigation, inaccurate reporting and irresponsible accounting, obviously prepared for the purpose of placing control of the distressed holdings of unfortunate property owners in the hands of the State Lands Commission which the Governor dominates

By employing false statements the report creates the impression that huge losses have been suffered by the State through the Controller's handling of tax-deeded property.

The Department of Finance report reads:

> "The auditors confidently, if inexactly, estimate." . . . (losses in a sum) . . . "almost certainly over one million dollars, very probably over two million dollars, and quite possibly much larger."

That statement and others of an equally serious nature are not supported by the facts as disclosed by our own civil service employees

Glaring errors of fact are contained in the Governor's report:

(1) Asserted losses were computed on property not involved in this problem. In San Diego and elsewhere the Department of Finance auditors listed property which was not tax-deeded, and over which the Controller never had jurisdiction.

(2) In many instances, false deed dates were used. Accountability for rent of 18 properties was charged for a five year period during which each was privately owned. False dates were used although the correct ones were known to the auditors.

(3) Incorrect property income figures were used on commercial property. The auditors ignored costs of operation and upkeep and used gross revenue figures as rental value of property.

(4) Erroneous property descriptions were used As a result accountability was charged to the Controller for rent on entire properties, of which the State actually owned only a small portion.

(5) Accountability likewise was charged to the Controller on property which has previously been removed from the Controller's jurisdiction by redemption proceedings.

(6) Inaccurate appraisals of rental values were made on acreage to support charges of asserted losses.

The Governor's Department of Finance report appears to be based upon the fallacy that the primary object of the tax-deeded land program is to squeeze the last drop of money from the unfortunate property owners who are struggling to hold their homes or business property.

Actually the main purpose of the Controller's program is the return of property to the tax rolls in order that individuals may salvage their holdings and cities and counties may regain their tax bases.

Success of our program is proved by the fact that $7,500 000 worth of nontax-producing property has been returned to the rolls in the last three years alone

To keep custody of and retain in good repair the unfortunately large volume of tax-deeded property until the financially embarrassed owner can redeem it is of prime concern. Rather than allow buildings to remain unused and to fall to pieces for lack of care the Controller has rented them under terms which require the tenant to bear the expense of maintenance and repair in addition to rental Preservation of the property thus has been assured without expenditure of public money.

Taxpayers' money likewise has been saved for instance through an agreement between the Controller and the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors whereby low value urban property has been used for housing of indigents whose care otherwise would have been a drain on public funds

Rental of tax-deeded property is difficult because of its nature. The bulk of it unfortunately is almost worthless from an income point of view. To secure tenants willing to pay for use of property which over a period of many years had produced insufficient money to pay even the taxes is difficult and in many cases impossible.

In commercial property this is particularly true. Unless a tenant can be assured of making a small profit or at least of breaking even through operation of a property he will not lease it.

Because the record owner of property can take possession at any time he chooses to start redemption through payment of a small portion of the delinquent taxes, the Controller is legally unable to guarantee a renter tenancy for a month, a week or even a day.

Merchants, business operators, farmers and working people alike are reluctant to occupy or install equipment or plant crops on property from which they can be ejected on a moment's notice Under these conditions it obviously is impossible to obtain the same rental from tax-deeded property as from normal productive property in which a tenant securely can invest his money with assurance of tenure

Because of this it is especially difficult to rent farm lands or hotels, clubs, apartment houses and other commercial property, the operation of which require furniture and equipment. Outsiders refuse to risk an investment on insecure tenancy, thus the owner of furniture or equipment which may have outfitted a property when it became tax-deeded is the only person to whom the property can be rented.

Allowance must be made for this situation in determining what rent can be obtained from commercial property.

Questionable validity of tax deeds makes it impossible to collect more than a nominal rental in some cases. In Los Angeles and San Diego counties the court held that the taxing procedures were invalid with the result that tax deeds issued in those particular years are of doubtful value The Controller was thereby prevented from collecting any rent on some properties.

The threat of court action to invalidate the tax deed has in some instances forced the Controller to accept whatever rental the tenant was willing to pay rather than none at all. In certain cases the Attorney General advised the Controller to follow that course.

The Governor's report questions the legality of the system adopted by the former Controller for management of tax-deeded property by representatives who received as compensation a commission amounting to 25 per cent of rentals collected. Nothing was paid them for the handling of the property redeemed through their efforts, which amounted to as much as 70 per cent of the property managed. It must also be realized that the full cost of maintaining office facilities and employees to carry on this work was borne by the agents themselves.

The plan for the commission agents was discussed with and approved by Department of Finance attorneys and by the Attorney General before being placed in operation.

Criticism by the Department of Finance that the 25 per cent commission for property management was excessive seems odd in view of the fact that the Department of Finance itself, under authority of Section 662 of the Political Code, has for years paid, and is today paying a 50 per cent commission for the collection of delinquent property taxes due the State.

Although I had and continue to have complete faith in the integrity of the gentlemen who served the State as agents, I requested funds with which to hire full-time civil service employees to carry on this function. As soon as the Department of Finance made the requested appropriation available I immediately employed a full-time civil service staff.

The Department of Finance report specifically mentions the administration of tax-deeded property in Los Angeles County by the former Controller's agent, Hayden F. Jones. Our investigation indicates that his operations were entirely in conformity with the former Controller's agreement previously approved by the Department of Finance. We commend Mr Jones for the manner in which he handled a difficult problem.

There are not now and have not been for nearly a year any commission agents handling tax-deeded property for the State Controller.

The Department of Finance investigation, started in October, 1939, has involved the expenditure of public funds to pay salaries and traveling expenses of a crew of auditors over a period of 18 months It would be interesting to know what the compilation of this information, much of it wholly inaccurate and leading to erroneous conclusions, has cost the taxpayers of the State.

During the course of the investigation, the Department of Finance auditors removed without authorization official records and documents of the State Controller, some of which have not been returned.

The Controller firmly believes that every agency of government should be audited periodically and completely. The records of this office are open to examination at all times. As a protection to the taxpayers of the State and to the office, I feel good business practice demands such examination. I welcome any sincere audit, but object strenuously to the misuse of such a function.

The report of the Department of Finance illustrates graphically the urgent need of an independent means of auditing all State departments.

Respectfully,

HARRY B. RILEY, Controller

COMMUNICATIONS

The following statement was received and read by the Speaker, and ordered printed in the Journal:

Statement by Hon. Gordon H. Garland

Announcement of the staggering extent of the National Defense Tax Program which the Federal Government must impose during the next few years has removed any question from my mind as to the imperative need for reducing State taxes in California.

It no longer is a matter for controversial debate as to the amount of tax burden our people can carry, the limit has almost been reached on the basis of our present National income.

Hence, in our efforts as loyal supporters of the National Government and in due recognition of the problems of the individual citizens, it is up to us to do what we can to meet a situation now clearly presented to us.

It is my conviction, based on careful study, that certain tax reductions should be made on a tentative schedule to be made permanent or to be adjusted by legislative action in the light of actual experience

It is my conviction that these reductions should apply to all taxes alike and be for a limited period of time. Experience will determine how long they should continue and when other changes should be made by the Legislature.

Such reductions, calculated from revenue estimates by the Department of Finance, will represent savings to California taxpayers of not less than $60,000,000. I believe these estimates are below what the actual revenues will show and, hence, that the savings under the proposed Tax Reduction Program I am submitting to the Assembly may run as high as $75,000,000.

That this tremendous reduction in the amount of taxes to be collected from the people of California can be accomplished with no corresponding loss in the efficiency of State governmental services may be readily shown.

It is possible to hold the State expenditures well below the proposals submitted in the present Biennial Budget and, at the same time, give the people a much higher standard of public service.

While there may be some objection, from one standpoint or another, to the program I am recommending, I am sure the general citizenry of California, confronted as it is by the great financial sacrifices it must make for National defense, will wholeheartedly support such a plan for its protection and relief.

In the bill which I have drawn, it is proposed to drop the present 3 cent sales tax to 2½ cents, and thus effect a saving to the taxpayers of approximately $37,000,000.

It is proposed to effect a straight 15 per cent reduction in other brackets, including the banking and corporation franchise tax, the personal income tax, inheritance tax, gross premiums tax on insurance, excise tax on distilled spirits and on beer and wine.

The combined savings from these last reductions, on the basis of the Department of Finance revenue estimates, would approximate an additional $24,265,000.

"SECTION 1. A new article to be numbered Article 6 is hereby added to Division 3 of the Agricultural Code, to read as follows.

Article 6. Stallion Registration

380.70. Every person offering for use for public service any stallion or jack in this State shall register with the director the name, description, pedigree, and physical condition of such stallion or jack, and shall secure from the director a license as provided in Section 380.72 of this article. The word "stallion" whenever used in this act shall be construed to include "jack." The word "mare" whenever used in this act shall be construed to include "jenny." The breeding of any mare with any stallion shall be construed as offering said stallion for public service, except as hereinafter provided.

380.71. It shall be the duty of the director to verify and register pedigrees; to pass upon certificates of veterinary examination; to provide, when necessary, for veterinary inspection; to issue stallion license certificates and tags; to make all necessary rules and regulations; and to perform such other duties as may be necessary to carry out and enforce the provisions of this article.

380.72. In order to obtain the license certificate and tag herein provided for, the owner of each stallion shall forward an affidavit on a form which shall be furnished by the director. The affidavit shall be made by a veterinarian legally qualified to practice in this State, stating that he has personally examined such stallion. If said stallion is free from communicable diseases and is not affected with any of the diseases or unsoundnesses mentioned in Section 380.73 of this code, a statement to this effect shall be made on said affidavit by the examining veterinarian. If said examining veterinarian after examination finds such stallion affected with any communicable disease or with any of the diseases or unsoundnesses mentioned in Section 380.73 of this article, a statement shall be inscribed on such affidavit by said veterinarian specifying the disease or unsoundness so found. There shall accompany said affidavit a certificate of negative complement-fixation test for dourine conducted within 30 days prior to submitting the affidavit.

The owner of said stallion shall also furnish to the director the studbook certificate of registry of the pedigree of said stallion when said stallion is registered and all other necessary papers relative to his breeding and ownership. Upon verification of pedigree and certificate of breeding (in case of purebred stallions), and receipt of veterinarian's affidavit as provided for in this article, a license certificate shall be issued to the owner; provided, however, that no license certificate shall be issued to the owner of any stallion in case said animal is affected with any communicable disease; and provided further, that when any stallion is found to be affected with any of the diseases or unsoundnesses mentioned in Section 380.73 of this article, the license certificate so issued to the owner of said animal shall specify the disease or unsoundness with which said animal is affected.

380.73. Any stallion found to be affected with any of the following diseases or unsoundnesses is hereby deemed unsound and likely to transmit such disease or unsoundness to its progeny, and the license certificate issued to the owner of such a stallion shall specify the disease or unsoundness as provided for in Section 380.72 of this article:

Periodic ophthalmia (moon blindness); cataract; laryngeal hemiplegia (roaring or whistling); pulmonary emphysema (heaves, broken wind); chorea (St. Vitus's dance, cramp iness, shivering, stringhalt); bone spavin; ringbone; sidebone; navicular disease; osteoporosis; curb, when accompanied with faulty confirmation of hock.

380.74. The director shall make and keep records of all stallions registered in the State; said stallions to be registered as "purebred," "crossbred," "nonstandard bred," "grade," or "mongrel," according as the facts may have been determined.

380.75. The owner of any stallion used for public service in this State shall post and keep affixed, during the entire breeding season, a copy of the license certificate of such stallion issued under the provisions of this article, in a conspicuous place, both within and upon the outside of the main door leading to every stable or building where the said stallion is used for public service, and at all times during the breeding season shall have attached to the harness or bridle of said stallion a tag which shall be issued with the certificate. Each bill and poster and each advertisement shall show the registration number and state whether the license reads "purebred," "grade," "crossbred," "nonstandard bred," or "mongrel," and it shall be illegal to print or advertise any misleading reference to the breeding of said stallion, his dam or sire.

380.76. A license certificate issued for a stallion whose dam and sire are of pure breeding, and whose pedigree is registered in a studbook recognized by the director, shall be in such form as the director may determine for each of the classes mentioned in Section 380.74 of this article for which registration is requested.

380.77. A fee of fifteen dollars ($15) shall be paid to the director for the registration of each stallion pedigree, and for issuance of a license certificate and tag, in accordance with the breeding of the stallion as above provided. The license certificate and tag shall be in force and effect for a period of one year from its date. The fee shall be paid to the director at the time the application is made for registration. Upon a transfer of the ownership of any stallion registered under the provisions of this article, the certificate of registration may be transferred to the transferee by the director upon submittal of satisfactory proof of such transfer of ownership, and upon payment of a fee of two dollars fifty cents ($2.50). A fee of five dollars ($5) shall be paid annually for the renewal of a license certificate and tag. At the time of each annual renewal of a license certificate and tag there shall be submitted to the director by the owner a health certificate issued by a veterinarian legally qualified to practice in this State, including a certificate of negative complement-fixation test for dourine conducted within 30 days prior to said application for renewal. A fee of two dollars fifty cents ($2.50) shall be paid for a duplicate license certificate and tag upon proof of the loss or destruction of the original certificate.

380.78. Whenever the director has reason to believe, or whenever complaint is made, that any stallion has been provided with a license certificate under false or erroneous representation, the director is hereby authorized and empowered to cause an investigation to be made, and if in the conduct of such investigation it is deemed necessary by the director to examine said stallion, he shall have a veterinarian of the department make such examination. If as a result of such examination it shall be found that such stallion is not entitled to the license certificate as provided for in this article, then the director shall revoke the license in force, or shall provide the owner of said animal with the proper form of license certificate.

380.79. "SECTION 1. The term "industrial loan company" as used in this act means any corporation which in the regular course of its business loans money and issues its own installment investment certificates with loans under the provision of this act.

SEC. 2. Corporations may be incorporated under and by virtue of this act in same manner as corporations under and by virtue of Chapter 2 of Title 1 of Part 4, Division 1 of the Civil Code, except as otherwise herein provided; but there shall be set forth in the articles of incorporation a statement that such corporation is incorporated under and by virtue of this act.

SEC. 3. The capital stock of any corporation incorporated under the provisions of this act shall not be less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) when such corporation is transacting business in any city having population of 25,000 inhabitants or more, and less than 50,000; and shall not be less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) when such corporation is transacting business in any city having 50,000 or more inhabitants, and less than 100,000; and shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) when such corporation is transacting business in any city having 100,000 or more inhabitants, according to the last official census. The capital stock of any such corporation transacting business in more than one city shall not be less than the aggregate capital stock required for the transaction of business by separate corporations, in each of such cities. The capital stock of any such corporation transacting business in more than one city, however, shall not be required to exceed in the aggregate one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) The establishment and operation of an office outside of an incorporated city area within five miles of such incorporated city limits shall require the same minimum capital for such outside office as would be required if said office were located within such incorporated city. The capital stock of any such corporation shall be divided into shares of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100) each. Before the articles of incorporation of any corporation, incorporated under the provisions of this act, are filed, there must be paid in cash for the benefit of the corporation to a treasurer, elected by the subscribers, not less than 25 per cent of the amount of the minimum capital stock required under the provisions of this section; the balance of the capital stock shall be paid in cash to the corporation at the rate of not less than 10 per cent per month, following the initial payment. No corporation organized hereunder shall create more than one class of stock.

SEC. 4. Every corporation under the provisions of this act shall have power: Subject to the supervision and control of the Corporation Commissioner of the State of California:

First—To loan money on personal property security, including the pledge of its installment investment certificates, or without security other than the pledge of its installment investment certificates, or on real property security or loans over three hundred dollars ($300) with or without the pledge of its installment investment certificates, and to charge and deduct interest therefor in advance at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, or less. A certificate of investment shall be issued with each loan, except that the issue of installment investment certificates with real estate loans or loans over three hundred dollars ($300) shall be optional with the industrial loan company. Such certificates of investment shall require uniform weekly, semi-monthly or monthly payments over the period of the loan, final payment not to be payable until the maturity date of the loan. Such certificates of investment shall be purchased by the borrower simultaneously with each loan transaction, of a face value not exceeding the principal amount of the loan advanced to the borrower, and shall be pledged with the corporation as security for said loan.

Second—To sell or negotiate investment certificates either in certificates, or in receipt book form in addition to the sale of installment investment certificates with loans, for the payment of money at any time, either fixed or uncertain, and to receive payments therefor in installments or otherwise, with or without an allowance of interest upon such installments. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize corporations hereunder to receive deposits or to issue certificates of deposit. The investment certificates herein authorized shall bear the indorsement on the face of the instrument, "this is not a certificate of deposit."

Third—In addition to the interest rate charged, to charge and deduct in advance for the making of any loan pursuant to this section, for fees, bonuses, commissions, brokerage, discounts, expenses, and other forms of costs charged, contracted for, or received by an industrial loan company and all other persons from the borrower, in connection with the investigating, arranging, negotiating, procuring, guaranteeing, making, servicing and collecting of a loan or forbearance of money, credit, goods or things in action, or for any other service or services rendered in relation thereto, except as hereinafter provided.

However, it is hereby provided that the interest, brokerage and all other charges by the industrial loan company, broker and all other persons in the aggregate on any loan, forbearance of money, credit, goods or things in action, under this act shall not exceed in the aggregate 2½ per cent per month on the unpaid principal balance up to one hundred dollars ($100), 2 per cent per month on the unpaid principal balance between one hundred dollars ($100) and three hundred dollars ($300), and 10 per cent per annum on the unpaid principal balance over three hundred dollars ($300). All payments made by the borrower on the installment investment certificate purchased by the borrower concurrently with the making of the loan, are deductible from the principal of the loan advanced to the borrower in determining the "unpaid principal balance" as hereinabove referred to. If, however, any property securing a loan made by an industrial loan company is insured against loss in favor of the industrial loan company, the latter may only contract for and receive thereon charges at a rate not exceeding 2 per cent per month on the unpaid principal balance up to three hundred dollars ($300) and 10 per cent per annum on the unpaid principal balance in excess of three hundred dollars ($300). Such amount hereinabove allowed to be collected including interest within the aggregate maximum limit herein provided in this paragraph shall be in full for all charges including brokerage from the borrower by the industrial loan company, broker and all other persons in the investigating, arranging, negotiating, brokering, guaranteeing, making, servicing, collecting and enforcing of a loan, or a forbearance of money, credit, goods or things in action, or for any other service or services rendered by the lender, broker, or any other person, in relation thereto, except attorneys' fees and court costs if allowed by the court in enforcing loans over three hundred dollars ($300).

However, it is provided that nothing in this section denies the right to the industrial loan company in addition to interest, brokerage and all other charges herein provided to contract for, collect and receive at the time of making the loan or at any time thereafter, the statutory fee paid by it to any public officer for acknowledging, filing, recording or releasing in any public office any instrument securing the loan or executed in connection therewith. Also, nothing in this section prohibits the lender from collecting in addition to the interest, brokerage and all other charges herein provided the costs for insurance, of tangible personal property offered as security for a loan, reasonably insured against loss for a reasonable term considering the circumstances of the loan; provided, such insurance is sold at standard rates through a duly licensed insurance agent.

No charge shall be collected unless a loan shall have been made. Whenever the interest and/or charges deducted in advance shall exceed the maximum provided by this section, by reason of subsequent repayment of the loan or any portion thereof prior to maturity or prepayment of installments on the investment certificate purchased with the loan, such excess shall be refunded to the borrower or credited on any balance owing by the borrower to the company.

Fourth—To establish offices or places of business within the county in which its principal place of business is located but not elsewhere.

Fifth—To purchase, sell or discount trust receipts, bona fide choses in action, secured or unsecured, chattel mortgages or conditional sales contracts, which shall have a maturity within two years from the date of said purchase and such purchase, sale or discount shall be subject to the maximum rates of interest, discount, brokerage and all other charges provided in this act, as between the seller of said chose in action, chattel mortgage, trust receipt or conditional sales contract and the industrial loan company, for which not more than three hundred dollars ($300) is paid by the industrial loan company.

In addition to the powers herein enumerated, every corporation under the provisions of this act shall have the general powers conferred upon corporations by Chapter 10, Title 1, Part 4, Division 1 of the Civil Code except as herein otherwise provided.

SEC. 5. No corporation under the provisions of this act shall:

(a) Hold at any one time the obligation or obligations of any person, firm or corporation, as primary debtor, in excess of 5 per cent of the amount of the capital stock of such industrial loan company actually paid in and unimpaired and 5 per cent of its unimpaired surplus fund: provided, however, that the limitation upon obligations secured by collateral of a market value at no time less than 115 per cent of the face amount of said obligations shall be not to exceed 20 per cent of such capital and surplus.

(b) Make any loan, under the provisions of this act, for a longer period than two years from the date of making said loan.

(c) Deposit any of its funds with any other moneyed corporation, unless such corporation has been designated as such depositary by a vote of the majority of the directors or of the executive committee, exclusive of any director who is an officer, director or trustee of the depositary so designated.

(d) Invest any of its funds, otherwise than as herein authorized, except in such investments as are by law legal investments for savings banks, or in the choses in action issued by any other corporation organized under this act.

(e) Have outstanding at any time its investment certificates in an aggregate sum in excess of 10 times the aggregate amount of its paid-up capital, exclusive of those hypothecated with the company issuing them

SEC. 6. Every corporation, under the provisions of this act, may purchase, hold and convey real estate for the following purposes, but for no other:

First—Such as shall be conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its business.

Second—Such as it shall purchase at sale under judgments, decrees or mortgage foreclosures under or foreclosures of trustees' sales under deeds of trust securities held by it, but no such corporation shall bid at any such sale a larger amount than shall be necessary to satisfy its debt and costs.

Third—Such as shall be necessary as premises for the transaction of its business: but no company shall invest directly or indirectly an amount exceeding one-third of its paid-up capital and surplus in the lot and building in which the business of the company is carried on, furniture and fixtures, and vaults necessary and proper to carry on its business; and hereafter the authority of a three-fourths vote of all the directors shall be necessary to authorize the purchase of such lot and building or the construction of such building.

Real estate shall be conveyed under the corporate seal of such corporation and the hand of its president or vice president and manager or treasurer. No real estate acquired in the cases contemplated by subsection first and second hereof shall be held for a longer period than five years.

SEC. 7. The directors of every corporation, under the provisions of this act, may at certain times and in such manner as its by-laws prescribe, declare and pay dividends to the stockholders of such corporation, of so much of the net profits of the corporation as may be appropriated for that purpose under its by-laws, but before any such dividend is declared, not less than 10 per cent of the net profits of such corporation for the preceding half year, or for such period as is covered by the dividend, shall be carried to its surplus until such surplus shall equal the amount of the paid-up capital stock.

SEC. 8. No company organized hereunder shall reduce its capital stock to an amount less than is required by this act to be maintained by such company or less than any indebtedness of such company other than its investment certificates.

SEC. 9. Corporations, under the provisions of this act, shall be taxed the same as other general corporations.

SEC. 10. Corporations under the provisions of this act shall be subject to the provisions and regulations of "An act providing for the regulation and supervision of companies, brokers, agents and sales of securities as same are therein defined, and to prevent fraud in the sale of securities; providing for the enforcement of said act and penalties for the violation thereof; and creating a State Corporation Department and the office of 'Commissioner of Corporations,'" approved May 18, 1917, as amended.

Corporations under the provisions of this act shall not be subject to the provisions or regulations of an act entitled "An act to define personal property brokers and to regulate their charges and business," approved April 16, 1909, as amended.

Corporations under the provisions of this act shall not be subject to the provisions or regulations of acts entitled "California Small Loan Act," approved July 21, 1939, and July 24, 1939.

The commissioner shall have the power to establish such rules and regulations as may be reasonable or necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this act.

SEC. 11. If it shall appear to the Commissioner of Corporations that any company hereunder has violated or failed to comply with the provisions of its articles of incorporation, or any law of this State, or whenever it shall appear from the report of any company hereunder, or the commissioner shall have reason to conclude, that the capital of any company hereunder is impaired or reduced below the amount required by law, he may, by an order under his hand and official seal, addressed to such company, direct such company to discontinue such violation and to comply with the law, or to make good the deficiency or impairment of capital alleged by him to exist within 60 days after the date of such requisition; or

If it shall appear to the commissioner that such company is conducting business in an unsafe or injurious manner, he may, in like manner, direct the discontinuance of any such unsafe or injurious practices. Such orders shall require such company to show cause, before the commissioner, at a time and place to be fixed by him, why said order should not be observed. If upon such hearing it shall appear to the commissioner that such order should be made final he shall proceed to do so, and such company shall immediately comply with such order made by the Commissioner of Corporations.

Such company shall have 10 days after any such order is made final in which suit may be commenced to restrain enforcement of such order and unless such action be so commenced and enforcement of such order be enjoined within 10 days by the court in which such suit is brought, then such company shall comply with such order.

Upon failure of any company to comply with such order or if any such company shall refuse to submit its books, papers and concerns to the inspection or examination of the Commissioner of Corporations, or to anyone authorized by him to make such examination, or if any officer of such company shall refuse to be examined upon oath touching the concerns of such company, or if any such company shall neglect or refuse to observe any order made by the Commissioner of Corporations pursuant to his supervision as authorized by this act, the Commissioner of Corporations may forthwith take possession of the property and business of such company and retain such possession until such company shall resume business or its affairs be finally liquidated. On taking possession of the property and business of any such company, the Commissioner of Corporations may proceed to liquidate the same in the manner provided by the Bank Act.

SEC. 11a. The Corporation Commissioner whenever it may appear that such action is necessary for the protection of the interests of the investment certificate holders, stockholders, investors or any other creditors of any industrial loan company or to protect such company itself which is organized and/or operating under this act or that such action is in the public interest, order such company or companies forthwith to suspend as herein set forth the payment in lawful money of the liabilities of such company or limit the payment of same in such manner as he may prescribe. Such order shall become effective upon receipt by such company of notice hereof and shall continue in full force and effect until rescinded or modified by the Corporation Commissioner in writing and delivered to the manager or executive officer thereof. Whenever in the judgment of the Corporation Commissioner the condition of any such company warrants such action, the liabilities, the payment of which has been so suspended, may be paid in lawful money by such company in whole or pro rata in part upon such terms and conditions as the Corporation Commissioner may prescribe.

Nothing herein contained shall affect the right of any such company to pay its current operating expenses and liabilities incurred during such period of suspension or limitation.

After such order of suspension or limitation and until such order of suspension or limitation shall be rescinded, no assignment or hypothecation shall be made by such company of any indebtedness due to it from an investor without first crediting thereon the investment liability of the company to such investment-borrower.

The Corporation Commissioner is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit the powers of the commissioner pursuant to this act or any other laws now in effect.

The authority herein contained is in addition to the other powers provided in this act, and in the discretion of the commissioner, may be exercised by him in conjunction therewith or independently thereof.

Whenever the commissioner shall believe from evidence satisfactory to him that any company, director, officer, agent or employee thereof has violated or is about to violate any of the provisions of this act, or any order, license, permit, decision, demand or requirement of the commissioner, or any part or provision thereof, he may bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court of the State of California against such company, director, officer, agent or employee thereof to enjoin such company, director, officer, agent or employee thereof from continuing such violation or engaging therein or the attempt to violate said act or doing any act or acts in furtherance thereof. In said action an order or judgment may be entered awarding such preliminary or final injunction as may be proper.

SEC. 12. Nothing in this act contained shall be deemed or construed as a limitation or restriction of or as in any way affecting the power or discretion of the Commissioner of Corporations under the Corporate Securities Act or any other statute now or hereafter in effect, to issue a permit authorizing any corporation under the provisions of this act to issue and dispose of choses in action, including certificates of investment to be used in connection with loan transactions, in such amount and upon such terms and conditions as he may in such permit provide and to impose such conditions as he may deem necessary to the issue of such securities and to establish such rules and regulations as may be reasonable or necessary to insure the disposition of the proceeds of such securities in the manner and for the purposes provided in such permit and from time to time for cause to amend, alter or revoke any permit issued by him or to refuse to issue such permit or otherwise authorize the issue of such securities.

SEC. 13. At the time of filing an application for a permit to issue securities, the applicant shall file with the Commissioner of Corporations a bond to be approved by the commissioner in which the applicant shall be the obligor, in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) with one or more sureties, to be approved by the commissioner, whose liability as such sureties need not exceed the said sum in the aggregate. The said bond shall run to the State for the use of the State and of any person or persons who may have cause of action against the obligor of said bond under the provisions of this act. Such bond shall be conditioned that the said obligor will faithfully conform to and abide by the provisions of this act and of the Corporate Securities Act and of all rules and regulations lawfully made by the commissioner under either of said acts, and will pay to the State and to any such person or persons any and all moneys that may become due or owing to the State or to such person or persons from said obligor under and by virtue of the provisions of this act and of the Corporate Securities Act.

If the commissioner shall find at any time that the bond is insecure or exhausted in whole or in part or otherwise doubtful, an additional bond to be approved by him, with one or more sureties to be approved by him and of the character specified in this section, in the sum of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), shall be filed by the industrial loan company within 10 days after written demand upon the industrial loan company by the commissioner.

If a bond or additional bond as hereinabove required is already on file, no further bond may be required to be filed with subsequent application. This provision, however, does not prevent the commissioner from requiring additional bonds as above provided in connection with or without any relation to any application to sell and issue securities.

SEC. 14. In addition to the matters and information required by the Corporate Securities Act, applications for permits to issue securities made by corporations organized under this act shall set forth therein:

(a) The addresses of all offices at which business is proposed to be transacted;

(b) The names, residence addresses and business addresses of all officers and directors;

(c) The names and addresses of subscribers to its capital stock, the amount of capital stock subscribed, the amount paid thereon, the balance due and copies of the subscription agreements;

(d) Statements as to the experience, character, general fitness and financial responsibility of the officers, directors and managers.

The application shall set forth such further information as the commissioner may require.

In addition to the duty of the commissioner to examine the application pursuant to the provisions of the Corporate Securities Act, it shall be his duty to investigate the matters and facts set forth in the application as required by this act and to conduct such further investigation as he may deem necessary, and if he shall find that the financial responsibility, experience, character and general fitness of the applicant, and of the officers and directors thereof, are not such as to command the confidence of the community and to warrant the belief that the business will be operated honestly, fairly and efficiently within the purposes of this act, he shall deny the application and refuse the permit.

The existence of any fact or condition which, if it had existed at the time of filing the application for a permit, would have warranted the commissioner in refusing to issue such permit shall be ground for the amendment, alteration, revocation or suspension of such permit in addition to the grounds specified by the Corporate Securities Act.

SEC. 15. For the purpose of discovering violations of this act or securing information lawfully required by him hereunder, the commissioner may at any time, either personally or by a person or persons duly designated by him, investigate the loans and business and examine the books, accounts, records and files used therein, of every corporation which shall be engaged in the business of an industrial loan company or broker, whether such corporation shall act or claim to act as principal or agent, or under or without the authority of this act. For that purpose the commissioner and his duly designated representatives shall have free access to the offices and places of business, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes and vaults of all such corporations. The commissioner shall have authority to require the attendance of witnesses and to examine under oath all persons whomsoever whose testimony he may require relative to such loans or such business or to the subject matter of any examination, investigation, or hearing.

The commissioner shall make such an examination of the affairs, business, office and records of each industrial loan company at least once each year. The actual cost of that examination shall be paid to the commissioner by every industrial loan company so examined, and the commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of such costs in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Whenever, after an examination, investigation or hearing under this act, the commissioner deems it of public interest or advantage, he may certify a record to the proper prosecuting official of the county, city and county, or city in which the act or acts complained of, examined or investigated, occurred.

SEC. 16. Each industrial loan company shall keep and use in its business such books, accounts and records as will enable the commissioner to determine whether such industrial loan company is complying with the provisions of this act and with the rules and regulations lawfully made by the commissioner hereunder. Every industrial loan company shall preserve such books, accounts and records, including cards used in the card system, if any, for at least two years after making the final entry on any loan recorded therein.

Each industrial loan company shall annually on or before the fifteenth day of March file a report with the commissioner giving such relevant information as the commissioner reasonably may require concerning the business and operations during the preceding calendar year of each place of business conducted by such industrial loan company within the State. Such report shall be made under oath and shall be in the form prescribed by the commissioner, who shall annually make and file with the Division of Corporations as a public record a composite of such reports and any comments thereon that he may deem to be in the public interest.

SEC. 17. No industrial loan company or other person shall advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, or broadcast or cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, or broadcast, in any manner whatsoever any statement or representation with regard to the rates, terms, or conditions for making or negotiating loans, which is false, misleading, or deceptive, or which refers to the supervision of such business by the State of California or any department or official thereof. The commissioner may order any industrial loan company to desist from any conduct which he shall find to be a violation of the provisions of this act or of the Corporate Securities Act or of the rules of the commissioner under said acts.

The commissioner may require that rates of charge or discount, if stated by an industrial loan company, be stated fully and clearly in such manner as he may deem necessary to prevent misunderstanding thereof by prospective borrowers.

If any industrial loan company or other person engaged in the business regulated by this act shall in any advertising refer to rates of interest or discount or charges or costs of loans, the commissioner shall require that such rates or costs be stated fully and clearly in such manner as he may deem necessary in order to give adequate information to prospective borrowers; and if the rates or costs advertised do not apply to loans of all classes made or negotiated by such industrial loan company or other person, this fact shall be clearly indicated therein. No such advertising copy shall be used after the use thereof has been disapproved by the commissioner and the industrial loan company notified in writing of such disapproval. The commissioner may require the industrial loan company to maintain a file of all advertising copy for a period of 90 days from the date of its use, to be available to the commissioner upon request.

No industrial loan company shall conduct the business of making loans under this act within any office, room, or place of business in which any other business is solicited or engaged in, or in association or conjunction therewith, except as may be authorized in writing by the commissioner upon his finding that the character of such other business is such that the granting of such authority would not facilitate evasions of this act or of the rules and regulations lawfully made hereunder.

No industrial loan company shall transact such business or make any loan provided for by this act under any other name than that set forth in the articles of incorporation or amended articles of incorporation as filed with the Commissioner of Corporations. Nor shall any industrial loan company transact such business or make any loan provided for by this act at any other place of business than that designated in its application filed with the Commissioner of Corporations, without having obtained the prior written approval of the commissioner.

No industrial loan company shall take any confession of judgment or any power of attorney, except a power of attorney taken to effectuate the transfer of the ownership of any motor vehicle or the transfer of the ownership of securities, at the time of making the loan. No industrial loan company shall take any note, promise to pay, or security that does not accurately disclose the actual amount of the loan, the time for which it is made, and the agreed rate of charge nor any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after execution.

SEC. 18. No industrial loan company shall induce or permit any borrower to split up or divide any loan. No industrial loan company shall induce or permit any person, nor any husband and wife jointly or severally, to become obligated, directly or contingently or both under more than one contract of loan at the same time, with the result of obtaining a higher rate of charge than would otherwise be permitted by this act.

SEC. 19. Every industrial loan company hereunder shall:

(1) Deliver or cause to be delivered to the borrowers, or any one thereof, at the time the loan is made, a statement in the English language showing in clear and distinct terms the name and address of such industrial loan company and the broker, if any; the date, amount and maturity of the loan contract, how and when repayable, the nature of the security, if any, for the loan, and the agreed rate of charge.

(2) Obtain from the borrower a signed statement as to whether any person has performed any act as a broker in connection with the making of the loan, and if such statement discloses a broker or other person has participated, then a full statement of all sums paid or payable to the broker or other person shall be obtained and kept by the industrial loan company for a period of two years from and after the date the loan has been paid in full or has matured according to the terms thereof or has been charged off.

(3) Permit payment to be made in advance in any amount on any contract of loan at any time, but the industrial loan company must apply such payment first to all charges due at the agreed rate up to the date of such payment, not to exceed the maximum rate herein permitted.

(4) Deliver or cause to be delivered to the person making any payment in person in cash at any office of the industrial loan company, at the time each such payment is made on account of any loan, a plain and complete receipt showing the total amount received and identifying the loan contract upon which such payment is applied, and showing the unpaid principal balance, if any, of such loan.

(5) Upon repayment of any loan in full, cancel or plainly mark "paid" and return to the borrower or person making final payment, the note evidencing such loan and if such borrower is not otherwise obligated to such industrial loan company release all security for such loan, indorse and return any certificate of ownership, and return to the borrower any chattel mortgage, assignment or order signed by the borrower, except such as are a part of the court record in any action, or such as have been delivered to a third person for the purpose of carrying out the terms thereof.

Every industrial loan company shall display prominently in each place of business a full and accurate schedule, to be approved by the commissioner, of the charges to be made and the method of computing the same.

SEC. 20. The payment of money, credit, goods or things in action as consideration for any sale or assignment of, or order for, the payment of wages, salary, commissions or other compensation for services, whether earned or to be earned shall, for the purposes of regulation under this act, be deemed a loan secured by such assignment, and the amount by which such assigned compensation exceeds the amount of such consideration actually paid shall, for the purposes of regulation under this act be deemed interest and charges upon or for such loan from the date of such payment to the date such compensation is payable. Such transaction shall be governed by and subject to the provisions of this act. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as modifying or affecting existing statutes governing wage assignments in the State of California, or as authorizing such assignments.

SEC. 21. No industrial loan company or any other person in connection with or incidental to the making of any loan, may require the borrower to contract for, purchase, or agree to purchase any other thing in connection with the loan, other than an installment investment certificate of a face value equal to the principal amount of the loan, and no industrial loan company or any other person in connection with or incidental to the making of such loan shall require the borrower to enter into any collateral sales agreement or contract, other than the contract of pledge, assignment or mortgage of personal or real property by the borrower to the lender as security for the repayment of the loan and charges thereon.

Any profit or advantage of any kind whatsoever that any industrial loan company or broker or any other person may contract for, collect, receive or in any wise obtain by a collateral sale, purchase or agreement, in connection with the negotiating, arranging, making or otherwise in connection with any loan, except commissions received as a licensed insurance agent or broker or insurance written as hereinafter permitted, shall be deemed to be charges for the purposes of regulation under this act. Such transactions shall be governed by and subject to the provisions of this act. However, security consisting of tangible personal or real property offered as security may be reasonably insured against loss for a reasonable term, considering the circumstances of the loan, and such insurance shall not be deemed such collateral sale, purchase, or agreement when the policy is payable to the borrower or any member of his family, even though the customary mortgagee clause is attached or the industrial loan company is a coassured: provided, that such insurance is sold at standard rates through duly licensed insurance agents.

SEC. 22. Any person and the several members, officers, directors, agents, and employees thereof, who shall wilfully violate or wilfully participate in the violation of any of the provisions of the rules, orders and regulations of the commissioner, or of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any contract of loan in the making or collection of which an amount in excess of the charges permitted by this act, including interest, is charged, contracted for or received, shall be void, and neither the industrial loan company nor any other person shall have any right to collect or receive any principal, interest or charges whatsoever.

SEC. 23. Every order, decision, license or other official act of the commissioner shall be subject to review in accordance with law. Upon such review, the burden of proof shall lie upon the appellant, and the court shall receive and consider any pertinent evidence which was introduced in the formal hearing before the commissioner, whether oral or documentary, concerning the action of the commissioner under review, but shall be limited to a consideration and determination of the question whether there has been an abuse of discretion on the part of the commissioner in making such order, decision, finding, requirement, or rule.

SEC. 24. If any clause, sentence, section, provision, or part of this act is adjudged to be unconstitutional or invalid for any reason by any court of competent jurisdiction, such judgment shall not impair, affect, or invalidate the remainder of this act, which shall remain in full force and effect thereafter.

SEC. 25. Nothing in this act impairs or affects any loan contract entered into between any industrial loan company and a borrower prior to the effective date of this act.

SEC. 26. Short Title. This act shall be known as the "Industrial Loan Act"

SEC. 27. COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication from the War Department relative to Assembly Joint Resolution No. 22, was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

WAR DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF ENGINEERS
WASHINGTON, April 18, 1941

Mr. Arthur A. Ohnimus, Chief Clerk
Assembly, California Legislature
Assembly Chamber, State Capitol, Sacramento, California

DEAR SIR: The department has received by reference from the White House your letter of April 1, 1941, with which you inclosed a copy of the Assembly Joint Resolution No. 22 adopted on March 28, 1941, by the California Legislature. In that resolution the State Legislature memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to construct a dam on the upper reaches of the Stanislaus River in order to retain the usual annual excess flow of water of the Stanislaus River.

You may be assured that the department is always glad to be informed of the interest of local authorities in projects and investigations under its jurisdiction. Your courtesy in presenting Assembly Joint Resolution No. 22 for the information and consideration of the President is greatly appreciated. As you may know, the department is now preparing a report on the San Joaquin River and its tributaries, the Mokelumne, Stanislaus, Tuolumne, Merced, Chowchilla, and Fresno Rivers in the interest of flood control, pursuant to the authority contained in several Congressional acts. The report of the Division Engineer, South Pacific Division, and the District Engineer at Sacramento has been reviewed by the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors as required by law and was recently forwarded to the Bureau of Reclamation and the Federal Power Commission for their comments. In that report full consideration is given to the feasibility of constructing the New Melones Dam on the Stanislaus River in Iron Canyon about two-thirds of a mile below the present Melones Dam and about 14 miles above the town of Knights Ferry. Immediately upon receipt of the comments of those two agencies the Department will submit the report to the Bureau of the Budget as required by Executive Order No. 8455 prior to its transmission to Congress.

The department does not have at the present time the necessary authority from Congress to construct the New Melones Dam In the event that a favorable recommendation for this construction is contained in the report of the department to Congress, the initiation of that construction must await authorization and appropriation of funds.

You may be assured that full consideration will be given to the request contained in the Assembly Joint Resolution No. 22 in any recommendations the department may make to Congress in the pending report on the San Joaquin River and its tributaries.

For the Chief of Engineers:

Very respectfully,

MILES REBER, Major, Corps of Engineers
Assistant Chief, Construction Section

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, April 22, 1941

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
Sacramento, California

GREETINGS. I transmit to you herewith copies of the preliminary report received by the Director of Finance from his staff of accountants upon the findings of their investigation so far conducted into the manner in which tax-deeded lands have been administered by the State Controller. This report was referred to in my communication to you on this subject dated March 4, 1941.

I have asked the Attorney General to review the legal aspects involved in the Controller's administration of tax-deeded lands in California.

In the preliminary report received from the Department of Finance which I am submitting herewith I direct your attention to the attached summary of findings.

It has been pointed out by the Director of Finance that possible public hearings, calling witnesses, and requiring testimony under oath, appears to be the proper means of eliciting complete factual information on this important subject.

Respectfully submitted.

CULBERT L OLSON, Governor of California

MOTION TO REFER TO COMMITTEE

Mr. Phillips moved that the preliminary report on tax-deeded lands, transmitted from the Governor's Office, be referred to the Subcommittee on Governmental Efficiency and Economy.

Motion carried.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, April 23, 1941

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
State of California, Sacramento, California

GREETINGS. I am returning herewith without my signature Assembly Bill No. 102 entitled "An act to add Section 844 to the Political Code, relating to qualifications for public office, to take effect immediately."

My objections to this bill are as follows:

From the provisions of this bill allowing a renunciation of an oath, and restoring eligibility to office it is evident that it was not the intent of the Legislature that immediately upon the signing of this bill persons holding offices who had taken an oath mentioned in the bill should be ousted from their offices, and be guilty of a felony if they thereafter performed any of the duties of the offices. The author of the bill has also informed me that it was the intent that a reasonable length of time should be given for the renunciation of the oaths mentioned before a forfeiture of office or a penalty should accrue under this bill.

However, in the bill no time is set within which the person could appear before the court to renounce the oath and under this bill, the office would be forfeited upon the signing of the bill and the officeholder would be guilty of a felony if he thereafter performed the duties of the office. The renunciation proceedings would not restore the office which he would lose on the signing of the bill, nor would it purge him of the felony which he might unwillingly have committed within a few minutes of the signing.

I am thoroughly in sympathy with the aims of this bill, that is, the ousting of "fifth columnists" from the public service. The author of the bill has stated that he can introduce a bill at this session of the Legislature which will carry out such aims and I respectfully suggest that its provisions be made broad enough to cover not only the holders of offices, but all public servants and employees.

Respectfully submitted

CULBERT L. OLSON, Governor of California

MOTION TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Mr Dilworth moved that the particulars regarding the delivering of the Governor's veto message on Assembly Bill No. 102 be printed in the Journal.

Motion carried.

Such average weights shall be determined in accordance with rules and regulations established by the director. From the reports received from the county sealers, the director shall establish a seasonal tare for each kind of picking box used by tomato canners, and shall notify each canner of the seasonal tare for the picking boxes used by him. Such tare when established shall be stated on a certificate issued by the director, a copy of which shall be conspicuously posted at each cannery or loading platform where tomatoes for canning purposes are received.

2638. The department shall secure from the California Employment Commission and supply the counties with information concerning unemployment insurance benefits under the Unemployment Insurance Act which may be available for or are being paid to persons applying for or receiving relief under this chapter.

2639. The department and every county is authorized to make grants to, and to receive and expend funds made available to both or either from, the Federal Government or any agency or department or board thereof for relief, work relief, rehabilitation or cooperation with the Federal Government for the relief of persons in need, and in this connection the department and every county shall cooperate with the Federal Government.

Every county grant under this section constitutes a direct relief expenditure for which the State shall be responsible to the same extent as it is responsible for the direct relief costs in that county under subdivision (b) of Section 2652.

2640. Except as otherwise provided in this section, until budgets and standards are prepared by the department under Section 2559 and approved by the board of supervisors for the county, the board of supervisors may determine its own policies with reference to the resources and amount of relief a person may be permitted to have.

When budgets and standards under Section 2559 are prepared by the department for the county, they shall be submitted to the board of supervisors and, within 30 days after the date of submission, the board of supervisors shall approve or reject in whole or in part such budgets and standards. Those budgets and standards approved by the board of supervisors shall take effect upon the date of approval. All budgets and standards not approved within 30 days shall be deemed rejected.

If any budgets and standards are rejected by the board of supervisors, and the department and the board of supervisors can not agree upon modifications, a relief standards board of three members for the particular county shall be established as follows. The department shall select a member of the Social Welfare Board, an officer or employee of the department to represent the department upon the relief standards board. The board of supervisors shall select a member of the board of supervisors, an officer or employee of the county to represent the county upon the relief standards board. The representative of the department and the representative of the county shall select an impartial third person, other than a public officer or employee, to act as chairman of the relief standards board. Neither the representative of the department nor the county shall receive any compensation for his services as a member of the relief standards board but he shall be entitled to his expenses if otherwise entitled thereto by law. The chairman of the relief standards board shall be paid twenty-five dollars ($25) per day with a minimum of one hundred dollars ($100), from the day the relief standards board convenes until the disputed budget and standards are taken under submission. While the budgets and standards are under submission, the chairman shall receive no compensation. He shall receive his actual and necessary expenses in an amount not to exceed eight dollars ($8) per day. All expenses of the relief standards board shall be borne 50 per cent by the State from the money available for expenditure under this chapter and 50 per cent by the county from county funds. Expenses incurred by a county for a relief standards board shall not be a county relief expenditure for which reimbursement may be had from the State.

The disputed budgets and standards shall be submitted to the relief standards board for hearing and decision. The relief standards board may approve, reject or modify the disputed budgets and standards. It may make its decisions by a majority vote and its decision shall take effect immediately, shall be final and shall be binding upon the department and the county.

If the budgets and standards rejected by the board of supervisors are not agreed upon by negotiation or settled by the relief standards board within 60 days after submission to the board of supervisors, the department may put them into effect in the form submitted or modified by the department at any time after the expiration of 60 days from the date upon which the budgets and standards were submitted to the board of supervisors, and, if put into effect, shall be binding upon the county. If the department does put into effect any budgets and standards without the approval of the board of supervisors and it subsequently appears when the budgets and standards are finally determined, either by negotiation or by decision of the relief standards board, that higher direct relief costs have been imposed upon the county than would have been imposed had such budgets and standards as finally determined been in effect from the date upon which the budgets and standards determined by the department were imposed, the State shall reimburse the county for the full amount of the difference borne by county funds.

2641. The provisions of Sections 114, 115 and 116 of this code do not apply to relief activities or to appropriations for expenditure under this chapter. The department and the counties may enforce the rights and obligations and powers and duties granted or imposed upon one or the other under this chapter and this code by appropriate actions at law or suits in equity."

MOTION TO PRINT MINORITY REPORT IN JOURNAL

Mr. Hawkins moved that the minority report of the Committee on Conference concerning Senate Bill No. 133 be printed in the Journal

Motion carried.

Minority Report of Committee on Conference

The undersigned of the Committee on Conference Concerning Senate Bill No 133 dissent from the report made by the majority of the committee, and as reasons for their difference with other members of the committee set forth the following points.

The first thing to be borne in mind in connection with Senate Bill No. 133 is the difference of opinion as to whether relief can be better administered by and through State Relief Administration or by and through county administration. The supporters of the position of State administration of relief, among whom are the signers of this minority report, have always contended and repeat here that relief administration requires a single centralized State unit, because of the interchangeability of our population, especially transient workers, among whom the need for relief so greatly exists in certain periods of the year

We feel that a return to county administration as is proposed under Senate Bill No. 133 will set up 58 different methods of handling relief and open the door to a more wide-spread suffering and hardship. We can not agree with the majority of the committee's recommendation of Senate Bill No. 133, because we feel the bill does not set up any definite minimum relief standard to which 58 different counties must adhere

We call your attention to Section 2559, Article 2.5, on page 5 of the printed bill which says that "The department may fix for each county maximum relief case budgets and minimum standards of relief within the range of which the board of supervisors may establish its own policy."

We feel that this and other provisions of the bill will open the door to possible use of 58 different types of political expediency in the handling of relief problem, and will, no doubt, result in the large metropolitan areas having to absorb a relief load which have, by one means or another been pushed into these counties.

We call your attention to Section 2651 which we feel would set up 58 different standards of medical aid for needy persons

We call your attention to the provisions set forth in Section 2640, page 10 of the printed bill, for setting up an Arbitration Board for the purpose of deciding any existing disputes between the State department and a county, and point out that in the event of the boards being unable to agree on a neutral chairman, there is not provision for deciding this deadlock; the result thereby being that the county can continue to maintain its position and the State is denied the right to shut off any aid to bring about a determination of the issue.

Until 24 hours ago the county supervisors of California had refused to take any stand on this matter. Despite the action of the Executive Committee of the County Supervisors' Association yesterday indorsing the provisions of Senate Bill No 133, we believe that every metropolitan county and many of the smaller counties are still opposed to take over this burden

We believe that even the Supervisors' Executive Committee would have refused to take action, had there not been pressure and coercion from certain elements in the Legislature, who are offering as bait a State subsidy for aged aid, which will relieve the counties of approximately $15,000,000 of their present financial burden per biennium, in that category of assistance

This huge sum of State money is, in our opinion, little less than a legalized form of bribery, and offered without any consideration whatsoever of the State's ability to contribute, to the counties' need for assistance

We could point out at length technical objections to this bill. We are content to rest our case, however, on our fundamental belief that decentralization of the administration of the unemployment relief is unwise

No claim against any money, irrespective of the date upon which the claim against the State arose, shall be paid after the date upon which the money reverts.

This section does not affect or apply to:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, April 2, 1941

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly

MILLER, Chairman

Above reported bill ordered to second reading

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE, SACRAMENTO

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly

GREETINGS I am returning without my signature of approval Assembly Bill No 1614 entitled "An act to add Section 385 to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, relating to certificates of compliance"

My objections to this bill are:

1 That while this bill may not be technically classified as trade barrier legislation, that is, legislation which, on its face discriminates against the products of another State, it is so interpreted by the producers and manufacturers of various California products which are being marketed in our sister States, as well as by manufacturers of those States whose products are being marketed in California.

It is feared that operations under the bill would result in discriminations.

I am firmly of the opinion that while we should protect California producers and manufacturers against practices in the marketing of the products of out-of-State producers and manufacturers which would circumvent the laws of our State to which our own producers and manufacturers are subject, we should and can do so by measures which can not be construed as impractical, onerous or intended in their operation to be discriminating.

It is important to all industries of California that no unnecessary legislation be enacted which might be so construed by other States and invite retaliatory legislation against the marketing of our products in those States.

2. There appears to be some justification for the objections made that operations under this bill would be impractical and onerous from the standpoint of out-of-State manufacturers and that compliance therewith might be impossible in all cases. For instance, it is asserted without contradiction that under prevailing business practices many eastern brewers sell their beer to eastern jobbers who in turn import or sell their merchandise to California importers; that the manufacturer therefore has no means of knowing the amount of his products that may be imported or sold to California wholesalers or importers after they have been sold to out-of-State jobbers.

Yet a failure of the manufacturers to accurately report the quantity of his product sold or delivered in California would operate to deny the right to have his product purchased by California dealers. I believe a vintner of California wines or a producer or manufacturer of any other California product who sells his merchandise to jobbers and wholesalers for their resale and distribution by their purchasers in other States would seriously object to similar laws being enacted in other States.

3 I do not believe this particular bill necessary to accomplish the principal purpose of this bill as that purpose is stated to me by its proponents It is to prevent the distribution by out-of-State manufacturers to retail beer dealers of favors in the form of decorations, paintings, signs, calendars, etc., contrary to the provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act and regulations thereunder. Without going into the details of pointing out how this may be effectively prevented by strengthening, if necessary, the provisions of that act as it applies to importers, wholesalers and retailers of beer manufactured in other States, I am positive this can be done by a measure to which the foregoing objections could not possibly be raised, and I would readily approve such a bill if enacted.

Respectfully submitted.

CULBERT L. OLSON, Governor of California

Explanation of Vote With Reference to Assembly Bill No. 1234

My reasons for voting against Assembly Bill No. 1234 are that I consider it class legislation. It does not carry an emergency clause, so therefore it will not become a law until 90 days after the present Legislature adjourns, so therefore it does not include the men which entered the Military Service prior to that date.

Each such revenue district, however, shall retain an equitable lien in the property and there shall be paid by the county to each such district its pro rata share of the proceeds of any re-sale by the State, or redemption from the State, and such lien and right shall be terminated in the manner and at the time that the county's rights in the property are terminated."

(d) Easements constituting servitudes upon or burdens to the property; water rights, the record title to which is held separately from the title to the property; and restrictions of record.

SEC. 5 This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore take effect immediately.

The facts constituting such necessity are as follows:

At the present time large amounts of property are tax-delinquent and are not bearing their share of the tax burden, thus placing a staggering burden upon those whose property appears upon the tax rolls. One of the chief impediments to returning such delinquent property to the tax rolls is that great doubt exists as to the title obtained by the State on deed to the State of tax-delinquent property due to the uncertainty as to what encumbrances are extinguished by such deed. This act clearly expresses what encumbrances are extinguished upon the deed to the State of tax-delinquent property and the encumbrances such property is subject to on deed to private purchaser after sale by the State. Thus, it is imperative that this act go into effect immediately as it will enable large amounts of tax-delinquent property to be quickly returned to the tax rolls for the ensuing fiscal year.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS IN JOURNAL

Mr. Kepple moved that the following remarks by Mr. Desmond, relative to Assembly Bill No. 560, be printed in the Journal:

Motion carried.

Remarks by Mr. Desmond

There has been a great deal of talk and a great deal of controversy over this Assembly Bill No. 560 When I first introduced this bill I did so because my work on the Revenue and Taxation Interim Subcommittee to Investigate Unemployment Insurance convinced me that there were a great many serious loopholes in the present Unemployment Insurance Law and that there were a great many abuses taking place I felt that drastic revision of certain sections of the act was necessary in order to correct this situation.

Assembly Bill No. 560 as originally introduced was more or less a blanket bill designed to cover practically all of the situations which it was felt needed correcting under the law.

Your Committee on Unemployment held public hearings on this one bill which lasted for five full and long evenings These meetings were so well attended that it was necessary in each case to hold the meeting here in the Assembly Chamber Representatives of business and representatives of labor turned out en masse for the hearings and in addition the Department of Employment was represented by its director, its chief rules and regulations officer and its statistician. The Social Security Board from Washington was represented by one of its attorneys. All of these various persons appeared before the committee and gave the committee the benefit of their respective views on the subject

Following these public hearings, the committee met in some four or five executive sessions to try to coordinate and consolidate the ideas that had been presented to us by the various witnesses A great number of proposed amendments were submitted by the various groups interested in the bill, and during our executive sessions we attempted to sort out these amendments and to arrive at a conclusion which would come closest to meeting the views of all of the various interested persons.

There were three provisions in the original bill which met with the most serious opposition. One of these was the proposed redefinition of the term "agricultural labor." Feeling that the full facts on this question had perhaps not been yet presented to the committee by either side, and since we had before us for later consideration another bill involving that same question the proposed redefinition of this term was amended entirely out of Assembly Bill No. 560. There was also considerable objection to a proposed reduction in benefit rates, and this was amended entirely out of Assembly Bill No. 560. The present bill contains the identical benefit structure both as to weekly rates and maximum benefits rates as is now in the present law. The third proposal which appeared undesirable in the original bill would have required the commission to apply strict rules of evidence in hearings held before its referees. This provision also has been eliminated from the bill.

The committee now feels that the bill in its present form meets the needs of the situation and is truly a bill for the combined advantage of the honest worker and the honest employer.

Although the bill is quite lengthy it really can be summarized rather easily since a great many of its pages are occasioned through necessity of reprinting of entire sections which actually are not in any substantial way amended by the bill. There are really only three or four important changes which should be noted.

In the first place on page 5 of the amended bill, lines 18 to 25, there are two new exemptions written into the law. These exemptions tie back in with the language on page 3 beginning at line 49 which makes the exemptions contingent upon continued existence of similar exemptions under the Federal law. Actually these exemptions are of little significance in so far as their effect in California is concerned. The commission by rule has practically precluded commission insurance salesmen from drawing benefits, and the commission by rule has heretofore exempted newsboys from the act.

On page 7 of the amended bill, the language that was stricken out at lines 22 to 25 was stricken out at the request of the department because it is directly inconsistent with the language contained in the preceding sentence and in the paragraph at lines 37 to 39 on the same page. The language that was stricken in lines 26 to 29 was stricken by your committee because it was felt that the tests of "suitable employment" specified in Section 13 are sufficiently broad in their application and scope so that they can be applied in every instance and there is no need to empower the commission to set these tests aside.

The only other change made by the bill in Section 13 of the act was to eliminate the possibility of a worker moving away from his customary residence and then claiming that work previously offered to him at his place of residence is unsuitable because of distance from his new residence. The amendment that was written into the bill on page 8 at lines 3 to 7 was designed to take care of all of the objections that were raised to the original section during the committee hearings, and it is felt that with this amendment the section now has the approval of all of the interested persons who appeared.

There are certain situations where an employee works for more than one employer during a calendar year which sometimes results in the employee being forced to pay a tax on more than just his first $3,000 of earnings. A provision is proposed beginning at line 42 on page 9 which would permit the worker to obtain a refund in such case of the excess amount of tax which he has been required to pay. This is in exact accordance with a similar provision in the Federal law.

On page 10, beginning at line 7, there is a provision exempting from the employee's share of the tax services performed by students. It should be noted that the employer must still pay his share of the tax on any such services. The reason for the exemption from the employee's tax is that in almost every instance these students are not entitled to draw benefits. The director of the department testified before the committee that last year only five students qualified for benefits during the entire year. Since they are not eligible for benefits it is believed fair and proper that they should not be forced to pay contributions and accordingly this provision has been inserted in the bill.

As I have already stated, the benefit structures shown on pages 13 and 14 of the bill are now identical with those contained in the present law.

On pages 16, 17, and at the top of 18, present Sections 56, 57, 57.5 and 58 are recast to more nearly express what your committee feels has always been the actual intention of the law. Section 1 of the California act contains a provision stating that the purpose of the act is to pay benefits to persons who are unemployed through no fault of their own. This same language has not heretofore appeared in Sections 56 or 57 of the act. We have now amended Section 56 to incorporate a direct statement that "only an individual who is unemployed through no fault of his own shall be eligible to receive benefits."

One of the most serious abuses which has heretofore existed under the act has been in the payment of benefits to persons who were so physically disabled that they were definitely out of the labor market at least in so-far as any of their usual trades or occupations are concerned. In this connection it must be noted that unemployment insurance is not health insurance and the actuarial tables on which unemployment insurance is based would not be broad enough to include health benefits even if the payment of those benefits seemed desirable. As a matter of fact even the Social Security Board has stated that the Unemployment Insurance Act should not be used for the payment of health insurance benefits. To meet this situation we have added a requirement on page 16, beginning on line 28, which requires the claimant to be physically and mentally capable of performing some work of the same kind or nature as the work which he was performing during at least one month of the time when his base period earnings were being accumulated.

In the paragraph beginning at line 7, on page 17 of the bill, we have reworded and reworked the trade dispute disqualification in a way which we believe makes it operate much more fairly. Under the present law it is possible for a worker to remain disqualified for life if the trade dispute at his previous place of employment continues that long. Under the language of Assembly Bill No. 560, the maximum period of disqualification would be 15 months, regardless of the continuance of the trade dispute. On the other hand, the disqualification would remain in force so long as the worker's unemployment is directly attributable to the continuance of the trade dispute, and this we feel is and always has been definitely the intention of the law.

Similarly with respect to the paragraph beginning at line 13 on page 17 under the wording of the present law an individual who refuses suitable employment is ineligible to receive benefits, and in so far as the language of the law is concerned that ineligibility would continue indefinitely and forever. The Department of Employment has refused to carry out the mandate of the law in this respect, and has swung too far in the opposite direction by providing that a refusal of suitable employment operates as a disqualification only for a period of four weeks The true answer is, and Assembly Bill No. 560 so provides, that an individual who has refused an offer of suitable employment is not unemployed through no fault of his own and therefore should not be entitled to receive insurance based on his earnings prior to that date. If he wants to go out and get another job he will then become entitled to benefits based on those earnings, but as far as his earnings prior to that date are concerned his unemployment is through his own fault and he should not be considered an insured individual under the act. The same of course is true where he has voluntarily left a job without good cause attributable to the employer, and that is so provided in the paragraph beginning with line 20 on page 17

Where a worker has been discharged for misconduct connected with his work he also can not be said to be unemployed through no fault of his own. The present law provides merely for a maximum of an additional five weeks of waiting period Assembly Bill No. 560 proposes to increase this to run from five to 10 weeks, and in addition his benefit account will be charged by that same number of weeks This is necessary for the reason that mere delay in most instances does not result in any true penalty. The exact amount of the penalty within the range of five to 10 weeks is left up to the commission for determination.

In Section 57.5, at line 7, on page 18, there is a great increase in the penalty imposed on workers who wilfully and fraudulently misrepresent in order to obtain benefits. Under the present law, the only penalty for this type of fraud would be a three weeks delay in receipt of benefits. The bill would change this to 52 weeks.

Pages 19, 20, 21, 22, and the first half of 23, are all concerned with the revision of the procedural sections of the act relating to the filing of claims for benefits and the hearing of appeals in the case of disputed claims. There is little need in going through this procedure in detail because so far as I am aware there is no substantial objection to it. Very briefly it might be said that the new procedure provides for a clearer spelling out of what is to be done and by whom it is to be done, leaving considerably less up to department rule and regulation; it provides for somewhat more detailed information to be furnished by the claimant at the time of original filing of claim; it provides for more detailed information to be furnished to employers regarding claims; and it provides for a somewhat more orderly procedure during the course of the appeal As I stated before, the one provision which seemed definitely objectionable and on which there was considerable controversy, was the requirement that strict rules of evidence should apply in claims hearings, and you will note on page 22, line 31, that this language has been stricken from the bill.

On page 23, beginning at line 21, we have included a provision to protect the unemployment insurance benefit rights of persons who volunteer for or are drafted into Military Service. There was considerable discussion as to the exact mechanical means that should be used in carrying out this provision, and after hearing all of the arguments and discussions the committee determined that the procedure now specified in the bill is the only practicable solution to the problem The effect of the section is to freeze a worker's benefit rights as of the time when he goes into the service so that when he leaves the service whatever his rights would have been on entering he will have those same rights if he is unemployed after leaving

On page 9, beginning at line 5, there is an amendment to Section 41 of the act. Under this amendment when benefits are charged against the separate account of individual employers only 73 per cent of the benefits in each instance are to be so charged. Seventy-three per cent represents the proportion of employer and employee contribution. Inasmuch as the benefit structure is predicated on a use of almost the entire current income of the fund, which includes both employer and employee contributions, it is obviously no longer proper to make a 100 per cent charge against an employer's account, and the amendment to Section 41 is designed to cure this inequity. The effect of this amendment is offset by the new paragraph (a) in Section 61 which appears on page 18, beginning at line 26, and which provides for a discontinuance by the commission of all reduced rates of contribution if at any time the solvency of the fund becomes impaired. The section specifies as the test of solvency that there must be on hand in reserve an amount equal to at least one and one-half times the total amount of benefits paid out during the preceding year.

It is very difficult in a comprehensive bill such as this one to attempt to cover the details of every point. I have attempted merely to give a summary of the more important features of the bill. So far as I am aware, as I stated before, I believe that the amendments which were made in committee have removed almost in toto the controversial elements from the bill If it develops that any member desires further information as to any of the points which I have discussed or any of the ones I have omitted from discussion I will naturally be glad to answer any questions.

I want to say again, however, that this bill as it now stands represents the result of probably the longest series of hearings that has ever been held on any bill before any committee of this Legislature The committee I feel has done an excellent job in listening to the arguments and in trying to arrive at fair and proper conclusions with respect to each of the issues, and I think that the bill as it now stands deserves your favorable vote. It is a bill which will not in any respect hurt or impair the rights of any honest, legitimate working man who wants to work and who is looking for employment. On the contrary it is a bill which will protect that type of man, and he is the one we should want to protect, because it will eliminate the possibility of the fund becoming insolvent through the claims of undeserving persons who do not want to work, who are not really in the labor market, and who should not be deemed entitled to receive unemployment insurance.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, April 29, 1941

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
State of California, Sacramento, California

GREETINGS: I am returning herewith, without my signature, Assembly Bill No. 88, entitled: "An act to amend Section 470 of the Civil Code by clarifying the language thereof with respect to certain restrictions on the power of railroad corporations."

My objections to this bill are as follows:

It was apparently the intent of the proponents of this bill to remove certain doubts as to whether under Section 470 of the Civil Code, as it now exists, a railroad corporation may use private property within a city or town without the consent of the town or city authorities, and it was apparently the intent to remove such doubt by restricting its operation to municipally owned property.

However, it is very doubtful if the use of the word "public" in this bill would confine the application of the statute to municipally owned lands, and the use of such word would raise the implication that the city might limit the use of land owned by the State or by some other governmental subdivision.

Furthermore, it raises the implication that the municipalities have certain rights in public lands, such as tidelands, swamp and overflowed lands, which are not municipally owned.

I believe that the purposes intended could be carried out by a bill whose provisions would not be susceptible of doubtful interpretations, but would be limited in application to municipally owned property.

Respectfully submitted,

CULBERT L. OLSON, Governor of California

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, April 29, 1941

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
State of California, Sacramento, California

GREETINGS: I am returning herewith, without my signature, Assembly Bill No. 243, entitled: "An act to repeal Sections 10, 11 and 12 of, and to add Sections 10, 11, 12 and 13 to, the Fish and Game Code, relating to the transfer to the Fish and Game Commission created by the Constitution of this State of the powers, duties, and jurisdiction of the Fish and Game Commission heretofore existing, to take effect immediately."

My objections to this bill are as follows:

According to an opinion of the Attorney General, upon the signing of this bill there would result a hiatus in the office of the Fish and Game Commission of California. In other words, until the appointment and confirmation of a Fish and Game Commission there would not be in existence any State Fish and Game Commission.

Furthermore, according to said opinion, if the bill were signed and nominations should be submitted to the Senate of persons to serve as members of the Fish and

Game Commission, and should the Senate confirm some but not all of the five nominations, serious questions would arise as to how many nominations would have to be confirmed before there would come into legal existence the new commission contemplated by the Constitution, and it is possible that under such conditions the new commission or several members thereof might perform many acts which might thereafter be held invalid, and seriously affect many persons who might rely upon the legality of such acts

A copy of the opinion of the Attorney General is attached hereto.

Today I was orally informed that the office of the Attorney General has expressed some doubt as to the validity of the urgency clause, but has reaffirmed the view that if the court approves the validity of the urgency clause, the results set forth in the opinion might follow

Under such circumstances I can not approve of the bill

Respectfully submitted

CULBERT L. OLSON, Governor of California

The following remarks were read by Mr. Dills, and, on motion of Messrs. Robertson and Tenney, ordered printed in the Journal:

Remarks by Mr. Dills

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly

I am possessed today of such deep and conflicting emotions that lest I become too talkative, I have put my thoughts to writing

It is with great sadness that I call your attention to the ugly fact that the Swastika floats atop the Greek Acropolis. The symbol of brutal aggression is waving from the rocky crags where the Goddess Athena once dwelt in that perfect edifice, the Parthenon.

The roar of tanks and other machines of destruction can be heard in the city where Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle lived and gave of their great wisdom The ruins of structures where Pericles, and Solon helped to fashion the first democracy, now are under the control of conquering hordes whose actions belie their faith in the wisdom and goodness of the common man

These facts I could not dismiss from my mind at any time during these past few days Then, by a strange coincidence, there arrived in the mail, my local newspapers, themselves symbols of American freedom, upon the pages of which I read of events that gladden the heart. For they tell of the honors that have come to three young ladies whose essays on American citizenship and National unity have won just recognition.

The papers tell of the daughter of a Greek immigrant with two brothers in the Greek Army, the youthful Gloria Theod, whose essay on "Why National Unity Is Important in My Country" has won first place in National competition. They tell of her classmate, Marjorie Fraedrick, who won first place in the State essay contest on the same subject They tell, also, of Josephine Hunt, whose essay on "American Citizenship—Its Advantages and Obligations" has won first place in the Nineteenth District American Legion Auxiliary Americanism Essay Contest and first honorable mention in the State.

This news heartens me, for my intimate connection with school children convinces me that these are not just isolated cases but rather are common examples of what our young people are thinking They are examples of the studied opinion of our young Americans regarding the advantages of living in this great land.

So long as there are parents and teachers and young people such as these, our Country, I am sure, will be able to meet any demands made upon it.

I have joined eagerly with you, Mr Speaker, and the other Members of the Assembly, in welcoming school children to our Capitol. Only distance prevents the young people of my district from the experience of seeing our State Government at work. I, therefore, ask you to join with me in honoring these young ladies, their parents and teachers by adopting this resolution

Mr. Weybret asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to take up Senate Concurrent Resolution No 31, at this time.

REMARKS

On motion of Mr. Kellems, the following remarks by Mr. Johnson were ordered printed in the Journal:

Remarks of Mr. Johnson in Support of House Resolution No. 169, Relative to the Diamond Jubilee Anniversary of the City of Berkeley

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly

Commencing on Sunday next the citizens of the City of Berkeley will present, under the auspices of the Berkeley Festival Association, an impressive spectacle commemorating the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of our city.

In keeping with the educational and cultural background of the City of Berkeley, the program will include brilliant dramatic and musical productions. The setting of the celebration will be the Greek Theatre on the University Campus, which was donated to the University of California by William Randolph Hearst in memory of his mother, Phoebe Apperson Hearst, whose name throughout the long history of this State, remains as one of the most generous donors to education and the cultural aspects of our years.

This Legislature is interested in fostering the artistic and cultural development of our youth. Every one of us, therefore, will commend the Berkeley Festival Association for its plan to afford to the talented young artists of the Bay Region an opportunity to gain valuable training and experience under the direction of outstanding artists.

It was George Berkeley, Bishop of Cloyne, after whom our city is named, who, in one of his poems, wrote the line: "Westward the course of empire takes its way." Those words have never been more apt than on this day when the Parthenon, the Acropolis and the original Greek theaters are being invaded by those who would overthrow culture, art and civilization itself. For the preservation of all that is beautiful and artistic we must turn to the West. No more appropriate setting for this brilliant pageant could be found than the City of Berkeley and its Greek Theatre.

I move the adoption of the resolution.

COMMUNICATIONS

The following invitation was received and read, and on motion of Mr. Clarke, ordered printed in the Journal:

It's May Day in Los Banos

The rich San Joaquin Valley which lies in Central California is divided into two sections, the east and west side, and no city on the west side is better known than Los Banos, which lies midway between the Cities of Dos Palos on the south, Gustine and Newman on the north, Merced on the east, and Gilroy and Hollister on the west. Los Banos, on the Pacheco Pass Highway, better known as the Yosemite to the Sea Highway, has grown fast and is now an important center for travel from Los Angeles to San Francisco; it has had a great spotlight thrown on it through the annual historical celebrations that are held in Los Banos each May Day. These festivals carry out faithfully the tradition of the founding of the vast systems of irrigation canals by Henry Miller in 1878 and which led to the colonization of the west side valleys.

A drouth which had plagued California for several years threatened to destroy the settlers until Miller stirred to action, borrowed huge sums of money, and turned water into the canals on May 1, 1878, celebrating the occasion with a free barbecue, picnic, and dance, and declared a three-day holiday for all his employees on ranches that stretched from Bakersfield to Oakland, California. This is the historical occasion that Los Banos fetes each May Day on almost the exact spot where Miller first acted as host, and gave these festive affairs at his own expense for over 30 years.

Upon his death in 1924, various fraternal organizations carried on the May Day Picnics until 1938 when the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West took over, as an historical duty, the management of these widely known celebrations. Publicized throughout the country, crowds said to be in ratio to population, the greatest in America, throng Los Banos every year on the week-end nearest the first day of May to either participate in or to watch the many features of the Fiesta, almost all of which, true to the tradition of Western hospitality, remain free. The cost of these celebrations are borne by public spirited citizens and business firms.

This year's picnic and barbecue will be held on May 1st, 2d, 3d, and 4th, and on Sunday, May 4th, the civic, Western historical, and floral parade that will precede the free barbecue will be labeled, "A Pageant of Yesterday and Tomorrow," and following the barbecue a strictly amateur Western stock horse show will be held which will be participated in by real horsemen from the various ranches throughout this section of California.

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was offered:

By Messrs. Dills and King:

House Resolution No. 170

WHEREAS, Under the present Federal Social Security Act no provision is made for retirement income for those who already have reached retirement age, or for those who later will attain that age, who have as farmers or business or professional men or women or in other capacities created jobs for themselves and others, nor for those who have been employed on farms or in homes, churches, public offices or other employment excluded from Title 2 of the Federal Social Security Act, except by submitting to poverty registration of themselves and all members of their families, while retirement income and widows' pensions are made available to all employed in business and industrial establishments without question as to their economic status, thereby discouraging individual initiative and private enterprise; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the President and the Congress of the United States are hereby respectfully memorialized to enact legislation so to amend Title 1 of the Social Security Act as to make a minimum of thirty dollars ($30) per month available, as a matter of right, to every retired citizen 60 years of age or older, who is not drawing annuities in that amount under any other Federal Retirement System; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Senators and Congressmen from California in the Congress of the United States and that they be and they are hereby requested to support legislation which will effectuate the purposes of this resolution; and be it further

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be sent to the Governor and the Presiding Officer of the Senate and the Assembly in each of the States now having a legislative session and to the Governors of all the other States and that the said officers be and they are hereby respectfully requested to present the same to their respective legislative bodies with a request that each of them promptly take similar action to the end that there shall be a known definite public demand upon our Federal Government from these States for prompt elimination, in the manner herein indicated, of the injustice herein complained of; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly of this State be and he is hereby instructed to forward a certified copy of this resolution to the President and the Vice President of the United States, to the Chief Clerk of the Senate of the United States, to the Speaker and to the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States and to all other persons to whom this resolution is specifically directed.

Resolution read, and re-referred to Committee on Rules.

Amendment No. 5

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out line 13, and insert

"SEC. 3. Section 2 of the Motor Vehicle Fuel License Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec 2. Every distributor before April 1, 1931, and after this act becomes effective every person, firm, association or corporation before becoming a distributor shall make an application to the State Board of Equalization for a license authorizing such distributor, person, firm, association or corporation to engage in business as a distributor Applications for such licenses must be made to the State Board of Equalization on forms to be prescribed, prepared and furnished by said board. It shall be unlawful from and after April 1, 1931, for any person, firm, association or corporation to be a distributor without first securing from the State Board of Equalization a license for which provision is made in this section. Before granting any license authorizing any person, firm, association or corporation to engage in business as a distributor, the State Board of Equalization must require such person, firm, association or corporation to file with said board, in such form as shall be prescribed by said board, a bond duly executed by such person, firm, association or corporation as principal and a corporation such as is mentioned in Section 1056 of the Code of Civil Procedure of this State, as surety, payable to the people of the State of California, conditioned upon faithful performance of all the requirements of this act and expressly providing for the payment of all license taxes, penalties and other obligations of such person, firm, association or corporation arising out of this act.

The total amount of the bond or bonds required of any distributor shall be fixed by the State Board of Equalization and may be increased or reduced by said board at any time subject to the limitations herein provided. In fixing the total amount of the bond or bonds required of any distributor, the State Board of Equalization must require a bond or bonds equivalent in total amount to twice his estimated monthly license tax determined in such manner as said board may deem proper; provided, however, that, subject to such terms and conditions as the State Board of Equalization may prescribe, any distributor may undertake to pay on each Tuesday the license tax accruing on all of his distributions of motor vehicle fuel during the week ending the Saturday next preceding, and, if any distributor shall so bind himself, said board shall fix his bond or bonds in a total amount equivalent to twice the license tax accruing on account of his estimated weekly distributions determined in such manner as said board may deem proper; and further provided that the total amount of the bond or bonds required of any distributor shall never be less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) nor more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). [No recoveries on any bond or any execution of any new bond shall invalidate any bond and no revocation of any license shall affect the validity of any bond.]

Any recovery on a bond shall decrease the liability of the surety thereon to the extent of the recovery, but the mere recovery of part of the penalty of a bond shall not of itself cancel the remaining liability under the bond; neither shall the execution of a new bond nor the revocation of any license affect existing liabilities under any bond. A surety, however, may relieve itself of further liability pursuant to Section 2851 of the Civil Code.

In lieu of any such bond or bonds in total amount as fixed hereunder, any distributor may deposit with the State Treasurer, under such terms and conditions as said board may prescribe, a like amount of lawful money of the United States, or bonds or other obligations of the United States, the State of California, or any county or city and county of this State, of an actual market value not less than the amount so fixed by said board. All licenses issued to distributors under this section shall be valid until revoked by the State Board of Equalization.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as relieving any distributor of the duty of filing the sworn monthly statement required by Section 6 of this act. The assessment of any distributor who makes weekly payments shall be shown on the assessment roll prepared under said Section 6 in the same manner as the assessments of other distributors are shown thereon, and the Controller shall apply such payments to the credit of such distributor on the assessment roll for the month during which the distributions covered by such payments were made. Whenever any distributor undertaking to pay his license tax in weekly installments, as provided in this section, shall fail to pay the full amount thereof in accordance with the terms and conditions prescribed by the State Board of Equalization, his license may be revoked forthwith, unless he complies immediately with the requirement of this section relating to the filing of a bond or bonds equivalent in total amount to twice the estimated monthly license tax. In the event of nonpayment of any weekly installment of the license tax, or any part thereof, pursuant to the undertaking of any distributor, the full amount of the license tax accrued against such distributor shall become immediately due and payable and the Controller and the Attorney General shall proceed forthwith to collect the license tax due from such distributor in the manner prescribed by Section 4 of this act with reference to delinquency in the payment of the monthly license tax. All provisions of said Section 4 shall apply with full force and effect to collections required to be made under this section; provided, however, that the 10 per cent penalty for delinquency for which provision is made under Section 4 hereof shall accrue only as provided in said section, and there shall be added to any weekly installment of license tax remaining unpaid at 5 o'clock in the afternoon of the Tuesday following the close of such week, a penalty of 5 per cent on account of such delinquency, the accrual of any such penalty of 5 per cent shall not in anywise affect the 10 per cent penalty for delinquency imposed under Section 4 hereof, but such 10 per cent penalty shall not be computed upon any amount added to such weekly license tax as a penalty under this section.

The license issued hereunder to any distributor shall not be transferable. Whenever a distributor ceases to engage in business as a distributor within the State of California by reason of the discontinuance, sale or transfer of such business, he shall give notice in writing thereof to the State Board of Equalization on or before the date of such discontinuance, sale or transfer. Such notice shall give the date of discontinuance and, in the event of a sale or transfer of the business, the date thereof and the name and address of the purchaser or transferee. All taxes and penalties under this act, not yet due and payable under other provisions hereof, shall become due and payable concurrently with such discontinuance, sale or transfer, and the distributor shall forthwith make a report and pay all such taxes and penalties, and shall surrender to the State Board of Equalization the license theretofore issued. Unless such notice shall have been given as hereinbefore provided, such purchaser or transferee shall be liable for all taxes and penalties under this act accrued against the vendor or transferor to the date of such sale or transfer, but only to the extent of the value of the property and business thereby acquired.

Every producer and every broker before April 1, 1931, and thereafter every person, firm, association or corporation before becoming a producer or broker shall register as such with the State Board of Equalization and make application for a license on forms to be prepared and furnished by the State Board of Equalization. Each such application shall be accompanied by a registration fee of ten dollars ($10).

Upon the receipt of the application of any such producer or broker, accompanied by such license fee, the State Board of Equalization shall issue to every such applicant a license to engage in such business from the date of the issuance thereof, until and including the following December 31, and on or before January 1, of each and every year and before any such producer or broker shall engage in business, an application shall be filed and a license obtained for the calendar year

If any producer or broker shall fail to apply for the license hereby required and to pay the fee hereby specified prior to January 1 of each year, then there shall be added to the amount of such fee a penalty of 25 per cent on account of such delinquency. Any license so issued shall not be transferable and may be revoked by the State Board of Equalization as hereinafter provided All registration fees collected under the provisions of this section shall be credited to the "Motor Vehicle Fuel Fund" hereinafter created.

The said engineer shall also in his said order establish the boundaries of the proposed district or describe the lands included therein, specify the location proposed for the storage, if any, of water to be used for any of the purposes of this act, the proposed source or sources of water supply, and provide an estimate to the probable cost of the proposed project. The said State Engineer shall also in his said order divide said proposed district into five, seven, nine, or eleven divisions in such manner as to segregate into separate divisions lands possessing the same general character of water rights or interests in and to the waters of such common source, which divisions shall be numbered first, second, third, fourth, and fifth, and sixth, seventh,

SEC. 3. Section 17 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 17. The board of directors shall upon the organization of a water storage district as in this act provided, proceed to make or cause to be made, all such examinations, surveys, detailed plans and specifications, and estimates of costs for the acquisition, appropriation, diversion, storage, conservation and distribution of water, any drainage or reclamation works connected therewith, and the generation of hydroelectric energy incident thereto, and the sale and distribution thereof, as may be necessary or requisite to enable said board of directors to ascertain and estimate the requirements and works necessary as aforesaid, for the purpose of said water storage district, and the probable cost and expense thereof, and to make a report thereof as hereinafter provided, in which connection said board may use and adopt all previous estimates, surveys, reports and other data it may have acquired or which are available to it, adapted to that purpose, and may employ all necessary engineers, attorneys and other assistants for the accomplishment of said purposes, and the cost thereof shall be deemed a part of the expense of said project, and such board may issue warrants therefor, which shall be payable out of the funds of said district and may be included in any bond issue authorized for the purposes of said district.

If the board of directors proposes to acquire any property of any kind or character, or any interest or easement therein for the purposes or use of said water storage district by purchase or lease, or in any manner other than by condemnation proceedings, that fact shall be stated in their said report and a true copy or copies of any instrument or instruments evidencing such proposed acquisition of such property, interest or easement therein, or the right to acquire same shall be made a part of said report.

Except where it is proposed to be acquired by eminent domain proceedings no property of any kind or interest therein belonging to any water corporation which is a public utility, shall be acquired by a water storage district, nor shall any such properties of such public utility be included in the report of the directors in this paragraph provided for, unless and until the Railroad Commission of California shall have first made its order authorizing such sale and such abandonment or curtailment of service by such public utility as would result from the acquisition by said water storage district or said properties of such public utility.

A certified copy of any order of authority so made by the said Railroad Commission shall be made a part of and filed with said report of said board of directors and unless such order of the Railroad Commission in effect finds and declares that such sale and such abandonment or curtailment of service of such public utility through the acquisition of such properties by the water storage district will be to the interest of the consumers of such public utility and that the terms and conditions of such acquisition of such properties of such public utility by the water district is fair, just and equitable to the consumers of such public utility, such report shall be deemed insufficient for any of the purposes of this act.

Said board of directors may at their option segregate and divide the plans, specifications and estimates of cost into one or more units of construction, and may in said plan provide that one or more individual units of construction shall not be entered upon immediately, but shall be authorized and undertaken in such order and at such future time as the board of directors shall thereafter determine. Upon the completion of said examination and study of the proposed project by the said board of directors, the said board shall prepare and file in the office of the State Engineer, and a true copy thereof in the office of the secretary of said board, a report thereof, in which said report shall be set forth in full and in detail the character and nature of the proposed works, a description of the rights both to waters and lands it will be necessary to acquire to carry said project to completion, accompanied by detailed plans and specifications, and a detailed estimate of the cost of said project, including the acquisition of all rights, necessary to the completion and operation thereof. The board of directors shall attach to said report a recommendation that said projects shall be carried out in accordance with the plans and specifications in said report contained, or that said project be abandoned. Such report when completed shall be signed by a majority of the board of directors, and entered in full upon the minutes of said board. If said board shall determine to segregate and divide the plans, specifications and estimates into more than one unit of construction, such plans, specifications, and estimates shall be complete as to each unit, and the board shall in its report specify the particular unit or units the construction of which shall be immediately entered upon and the particular unit or units reserved for future action.

If the board of directors of any district organized under this act shall fail, neglect, or refuse to complete and file its said report within [10]15 years from the date of the filing of the order of the State Engineer declaring said district duly organized as provided in Section 11 hereof, the project of said district shall be deemed abandoned and the board of directors thereof shall within ninety (90) days thereafter, pay all outstanding debts and claims against said district and shall within said time remit to the assessment payers of said district in proportion to the amount paid by said assessment payers on the last call or assessment levied by said board of directors, the balance of any funds then remaining with the treasurer of said district or to its credit with the county treasurer or county treasurers within which the lands of said district are situated. Nothing herein contained shall affect, impair, modify or invalidate in any way any report which has already been adopted or approved at an election within the district, and the district and the directors thereof may proceed with such report as so originally adopted

SEC 4 A new section is hereby added to the act cited in the title hereof to be numbered 25(a) and to read as follows:

Sec. 25(a). The term "United States" as used in this act shall include besides the United States any board, bureau, agency, officer or officers, department or corporation of the United States

The board of directors shall generally perform all such acts as shall be necessary to carry out the enlarged powers in this section enumerated Said board may enter into any obligation or contract with the United States for the aforesaid purposes and may provide therein for the delivery and distribution of water for the lands of such district under any acts of Congress and under any rules and regulations established thereunder Before entering into any such contract on behalf of the district, the board of directors shall make a report thereon complying with the provisions of Section 17 of this act and setting forth the substantial terms and provisions of such proposed contract, which report may be either the original report of the board of directors or a supplemental or additional report, and which may embody other features in addition to such proposed contract Thereupon the same proceedings for the adoption or rejection of such report, and in case of the adoption thereof, for the levying, apportionment and collection of any assessment or assessments which may be necessary to meet any payments in the nature of capital charges required by such contract, and the other costs of the project described in said report, and for the issuance of bonds, shall be taken with respect to such report as are hereby provided to be taken in connection with the acquisition or construction of works contemplated by an original project

If such contract, in addition to payment of capital charges, also requires the payment by the district of periodic service charges the amount thereof shall be levied from time to time as an assessment on lands in the district on the same basis as any assessment of capital charges shall already have been levied pursuant to the provisions of this section; and such assessment shall thereafter be collected as provided in Section 21 of this act.

If such contract does not provide for any payment or payments in the nature of capital charges, the assessment commissioners appointed under Section 19 hereof shall determine the portion of the total benefits to accrue to the district under such contract which will be realized by each parcel of land in separate ownership in the district, which determination shall be stated in apportionment rolls to be prepared, certified and filed and substantially in form and manner as provided in Section 19, except that the apportionment of benefits shall be stated in percentages of benefits to the district as a whole, or in such other manner as may be determined upon by the commissioners; and thereafter all assessments levied in order to meet the payments due or to become due under such contract shall be apportioned among the respective tracts of land in accordance with said rolls.

In case any contract is made with the United States, bonds of the district which have been authorized either under Section 23 or Section 24 of this act may be transferred to, or deposited with, the United States if so provided by said contract, at not less than their par value, to the amount to be paid by the district to the United States or to any part thereof, and the interest or principal, or both, of said bonds, may be regularly paid to the United States and applied as provided in said contract but said bonds may call for the payment of such interest not exceeding 6 per cent per annum, may be of such denomination, and may call for the repayment of the principal at such times as shall be specified in said contract The contract with the United States may likewise call for the payment of the amount or amounts to be paid by the district to the United States or any part thereof at such times and in such installments and with such interest charges not exceeding the aforesaid rate, as may be provided in said contract The board may accept on behalf of the district appointment of the district as fiscal agent of the United States or authorization of the district by the United States to make collection of moneys for and on behalf of the United States and to assume the duties and liabilities incident to such action, and said board shall have full power to do any and all things required by the Federal statutes now or hereafter enacted in connection therewith and all things required by any rules or regulations now or hereafter established under any said Federal statutes

All water, the right to use of which is acquired by the district under any contract with the United States, may be distributed and apportioned by the district in accordance with the acts of Congress applicable thereto and any rules or regulations thereunder, and provision may be made in the contract between the district and the United States for the refusal of water service to any or all lands which may become delinquent in the payment of any assessment levied for the purpose of carrying out any contract between the district and the United States

As partial consideration for any privileges obtained by the district under any said contract with the United States any rights of way or rights to water or other property owned or acquired by the district may be conveyed by the board to the United States in so far as the same may be needed for the construction, operation and maintenance of works by the United States for the benefit of the district under any contract that may be entered into with the United States pursuant to the provisions hereof

Where a contract shall have been entered into between the district and the United States the contract may provide that the district shall not be dissolved nor shall the boundaries be changed except upon written consent of a specified official of the United States filed with the official records of the district If such consent be given and lands be excluded the areas excluded shall be free from all liens and charges for payments to become due to the United States under any such contract"

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,
SACRAMENTO, May 5, 1941

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
State of California, Sacramento, California

GREETINGS. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 312 of the Political Code of California, you are hereby notified that on the third day of May, 1941, at 11.10 p m., Assembly Bill No. 375 was returned without my signature and, together with a statement of my objections thereto, was delivered to Honorable John Edward Cain, member of the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted.

CULBERT L OLSON, Governor of California

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,
SACRAMENTO, May 3, 1941

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
Sacramento, California

GREETINGS I am returning herewith, without my signature, Assembly Bill No. 375, entitled "An act to add Sections 552.1, 1296.1 and 1299.1 to the Labor Code, relating to the sale or distribution of newspapers and other publications by minors."

My objections to this bill are as follows:

Existing law of this State prevents the employment of children under the age of 14 years during the school year and under the age of 12 years during the school vacations. There is no question that this prohibits the employment of children to sell newspapers or periodicals if they are under such ages. However, it is contended that these laws do not prohibit the selling of publications to boys over 10 years of age and such boys from selling the same, on the theory that in such cases there is no employment, but that the boys are "little merchants" or independent contractors. The Department of Industrial Relations, which administers the laws prohibiting child labor, does not agree with this contention, and for very sound reason. Contrary to an opinion issued from the Office of the Attorney General, which is in conflict with a previous opinion from that office, the Department of Industrial Relations contends that the provision of Section 1.220 of the School Code which says "no person, firm or corporation shall employ, suffer or permit any minor under the age of 16 years to work" without a permit as provided in the code, and a similar provision in the Labor Code, means that newsboys, as well as other minors, shall not be suffered or permitted to work without such permits, whether they are called "little merchants" or not. The School Code does not allow the issuance of permits to children under 14 years of age to work during the school year or to those under 12 years of age during the vacations or on school holidays A test case will undoubtedly come before the courts to settle this question.

This bill would reduce to 10 years the age at which children would be allowed to sell newspapers and periodicals. The bill provides that a boy over 10 years of age may sell or distribute newspapers, periodicals or circulars without receiving any consent from the Labor Commissioner or any school work permit from the school authorities The bill does provide that when a minor is first supplied with newspapers or periodicals, the person so supplying him shall give written notice thereof to the person now authorized to issue school work permits under existing law, and to give a card containing the notice to the minor or his parent or guardian, but the bill does not provide for the issuance of any school or Labor Commissioner's permit.

The bill further provides that the person notified is in turn required to notify the minor's school principal, who is then required to check the minor's health and school record. Whenever either of the latter is certified by the school physician or other school authority to be adversely affected by the minor's outside work, a certificate to that effect is required to be delivered to the minor's parent or guardian and to the person who supplied the newspapers, periodicals or circulars. If the parent or guardian fails to have the minor cease working within five days, the person supplying him with papers, etc., must cease doing so.

I am convinced that those provisions of this bill in practical operation would supply little, if any, protection to the child. As for the protection afforded by the requirement that the consent of the parent be obtained, that, it is regrettable to state, in many instances would afford no protection. All Child Labor Laws have been enacted because parents from economic necessity or demoralization have permitted their children to do work dangerous to their life, destructive of their health or injurious to their moral well being The working of children of tender years in the mines, mills and factories, which is now prohibited in most States, was done with the consent of parents.

Under this bill no permit of any kind is required. The minor is given the papers to sell, and unless affirmative action to prevent it is taken by the school authorities, according to the impractical procedure specified in the bill the child can continue to sell papers It is likely that with the difficulties placed in his way by this bill a school principal could not effectively prevent this kind of child labor where it should not obtain. Assuming that school principals should feel free to tell the parent or the publisher this or that child must stop the work he is doing, I do not believe that the cursory examination that the principal could give the child's health and school record under this bill would afford sufficient insight into whether the child was being harmed by the work A large number of things could injure the child for the rest of his life which would never show on the school records They would not show the harm done by his trudging in and out of saloons, beer halls and places of prostitution or his away-from-home associations with undesirable persons. They do not show, and they will not protect him from the dangers of traffic into which his immature judgment and discretion may lead him.

I am well aware that there are times and places when and where children of not too tender years may sell newspapers without injury and even with benefit to themselves, but such employments may occur under the administration of the present school and labor codes.

Without going into further detail, I must say that the provisions of this bill seem to be regressive and wholly ineffective to protect children. The people of the State of California have been proud of the success of their efforts to safeguard women and children in industry, as well as of the progressiveness of our laws for the protection of all people who labor. If our legislation on these subjects should prove to be invalid or ineffective, we should not enact cumbersome, impractical or weak measures to supplant them, but we should enact measures which will clearly and effectively extend the needed protection. If there is a doubt as to whether children employed in selling newspapers and periodicals are not fully protected by existing Child Labor Laws, on the theory that they are independent contractors, the law should be amended to specifically include them and remove that doubt.

The experiences of those who have studied child labor and child labor legislation throughout the Nation has shown that, in addition to rigid prohibitions against children of tender years engaging in labor, the laws should establish a system whereby the school authorities issue permits to those children who should be allowed to work, so that the check as to age, consent of the parent, nature of the occupation, and the effect on the child could be made before the child is permitted to work.

Aside from the fact that this bill would prevent the enforcement of laws now on our statute books which seem adequate and substitute a law establishing the policy that children over 10 years of age should work and providing no effective method for their protection, a serious question of ambiguity arises under this bill. From the use of the word "hereafter" in the first sentence of Section 3, the bill, literally read, is easily susceptible of an interpretation that its provisions would not affect minors already engaged in selling newspapers or periodicals. Such interpretation could follow from the fact that this is a criminal statute, which must be strictly construed. I am sure that it was not the intent of the Legislature to so limit the effect of the bill, but from the face of the bill, as I have said, it could be so interpreted.

Respectfully submitted.

CULBERT L. OLSON, Governor of California

Communications

The following communication was received and read, and on motion of Mr Bennett, ordered printed in the Journal:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO, May 1, 1941

Honorable F. Ray Bennett, Assembly Chamber
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

Subject: Motions to table
Request. No. 2907

DEAR MR BENNETT: This morning you asked whether if a motion is made to table a series of amendments to a bill the question can be divided so that a separate vote on the tabling of each amendment would be required While a technical consideration of the rules of parliamentary law appears to indicate that a motion to divide the question is not applicable to a motion to table, our analysis of the several parliamentary steps involved indicates that the same result, as a division of the question, may properly be reached.

A motion to table a question may be made only when the question is pending before the House. It is not in order to table a class of questions because they are not pending. (Robert—Section 28).

Therefore it would not be in order, if objected to, to move to table all amendments at the desk to a particular bill until after those amendments had been read and the question of their adoption or rejection is before the House.

If all the amendments at the desk are read and are pending any member may require that the question of their adoption be divided. Upon such division, separate motions could of course be made to table each amendment.

Yours very truly,

FRED B. WOOD, Legislative Counsel
By LAWRENCE G. ALLYN, Deputy

Request to Withdraw Amendments

Mr Bashore requested that all of his amendments to Assembly Bill No 1800 that had been read, as well as those pending action, be withdrawn.

Point of Order

Mr. Lyon arose to the following point of order: That Mr Bashore's request was out of order.

The Speaker pro tempore ruled the point of order well taken.

Motion to Withdraw Amendments

Mr. Cronin requested that his amendments to Assembly Bill No. 1800 be withdrawn.

Mr. Evans withheld unanimous consent

Ruling by Speaker pro tempore

The Speaker pro tempore ruled that unanimous consent would not be required as amendments are the property of the author prior to the time of being read across the desk, and can therefore be withdrawn by the author without the consent of the House.

Appeal from Decision of the Chair

Mr. Bennett appealed from the decision of the Chair.

The question being: Shall the decision of the Chair be sustained?

The roll was called, and the decision of the Chair sustained by the following vote:

AYES—Allen, Bashore, Burns, Hugh M., Call, Carlson, Clarke, Collins, Sam L., Cronin, Daley, Dickey, Dilworth, Doyle, Green, Hastain, Houser, Frederick F., Howser, F. This intent is expressed in each instance in the form of a declaration that "no money appropriated by this act is available for expenditure for any of the following purposes in excess of the amount set opposite each designated purpose, respectively" (or similar form of expression), followed by a designation of the officer, department, division, bureau or other agency (such as "State Controller" or "Department of Education"), a designation of the function, if any (such as "Headquarters" or "Instruction"), the designated purpose (such as "Salaries and Wages," "Operating Expenses," or "Equipment"), and the maximum allowable expenditure for that purpose (such as "Nothing" or "$20,000.00"), using in that connection the same words, terms and phrases as are used in the detailed budget of such officer, department, division, bureau or other agency contained in that document entitled "State of California Budget for the Biennium July 1, 1941, to June 30, 1943, Ninety-third and Ninety-fourth Fiscal Years," submitted by the Governor to the Legislature at the Fifty-fourth Session, except, however, that the terms "Materials and Supplies" and "Service and Expense," as used in that document, are combined under the designation "Operating Expenses" for the purposes of this act. For the purpose of interpreting the meaning of such words, terms and phrases, reference is hereby made to such document and the appropriate portions thereof.

Each such provision of this act is a prohibition, restriction or limitation upon the expenditure of the appropriations made by this act, does not itself appropriate any money and is not itself an item of appropriation.

Except as may otherwise be provided in this act, each such provision of this act prohibiting, limiting or restricting the expenditure of money for any designated purpose is absolute, and where "nothing" may be expended or a maximum is provided for any purpose, no money or no money in excess of such maximum, as the case may be, shall be withdrawn from the State Treasury for such purpose, whether from the appropriations made by this act, from unexpended balances of previous appropriations, by creation of deficiencies under Section 661 of the Political Code, or otherwise.

SEC. 13.5. The expenditure of the appropriations made by this act is hereby further restricted and limited as follows:

Wherever the appropriation for the support of an officer, department, division, bureau, or other agency, is not expressly limited by this act in the manner provided by Section 13 as to the total amount that may be expended for "Salaries and Wages," "Operating Expenses," or "Equipment," no expenditure shall be made from any appropriation made by this act, except from any emergency fund created hereby, by such officer, department, division, bureau, or other agency, in an amount in excess of that provided for "Salaries and Wages," or "Operating Expenses," or "Equipment," for such officer, department, division, bureau, or other agency in that document entitled, "State of California Budget for the Biennium July 1, 1941, to June 30, 1943, Ninety-third and Ninety-fourth Fiscal Years," submitted by the Governor to the Legislature at the Fifty-fourth Session and particularly in that portion thereof entitled "Detailed budgets of departments and other State agencies."

For the purpose of this section, "Materials and Supplies" and "Service and Expense," as used in the document mentioned in the preceding paragraph in respect to any one officer, department, division, bureau, other agency or function, shall be deemed combined under the single designation "Operating Expenses."

SEC. 13.6. Except when necessary for the employment of such temporary help as may be required and for whose employment money is made available by this act, no money appropriated by this act for the support of any officer, department, division, bureau, other agency or function during the Ninety-third and Ninety-fourth Fiscal Years may be used at any one time during either of such years for the employment or the payment of salaries of a greater number of persons than the maximum number for such officer, department, division, bureau, other agency or function specified in that document entitled, "State of California Budget for the Biennium July 1, 1941, to June 30, 1943, Ninety-third and Ninety-fourth Fiscal Years," submitted by the Governor to the Legislature at the Fifty-fourth Session.

SEC. 13.7. The provisions of Sections 13, 13.5 and 13.6 are not applicable to the appropriations made by Items 57, 81 and 212 (except as to amounts available for the use of the Bureau of Child Welfare, Division of Child Welfare, and the Bureau of Probation, Division of Adult and Family Welfare, Department of Social Welfare).

SEC. 13.8. Any funds received by any officer, department, division, bureau or other agency of this State during the Ninety-third and Ninety-fourth Fiscal Years from any other officer, department, division, bureau, or other agency of this State, from any county, city and county or city of this State, or any agency of any thereof, from the Federal Government, or any agency thereof, from any appropriation (other than one contained in this act) made by the Legislature at the Fifty-fourth Session, or from any other source, the expenditure of which is not provided or accounted for or taken into consideration for the receiving agency in that document entitled, "State of California Budget for the Biennium July 1, 1941, to June 30, 1943, Ninety-third and Ninety-fourth Fiscal Years," submitted by the Governor to this Legislature at the Fifty-fourth Session, may be expended by the receiving agency free from the provisions of Sections 13, 13.5 and 13.6. However, the expenditure of such funds is exempt from the provisions of Section 13.6 only when it is necessary for the receiving agency to hire additional personnel in order to earn, or as a condition to or as a consequence of the receipt of, such funds."

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was received and read, and on motion of Mr. Crowley, ordered printed in the Journal:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE
SACRAMENTO, April 19, 1941

Honorable Seth Millington, Chairman
Assembly Ways and Means Committee
Sacramento, California

DEAR MR. MILLINGTON: Since the preparation and presentation to the Legislature of the Budget for the Ninety-third and Ninety-fourth Fiscal Years by Governor Culbert L. Olson, there has been brought to our attention by the Department of Public Works a dangerous seepage and foundation condition which exists along the east levee of the Sutter By-pass and the levees of the Wadsworth Canal of the Sacramento River Flood Control Project. The maintenance of these levees has been considered the duty and responsibility of the State of California.

These important levees protect from flood waters of the Sacramento River an area of more than 50,000 acres of developed and valuable agricultural land in Sutter County. The total length of the levees affected is about 20 miles. Continued high flood stages in the Sutter By-pass have contributed to partial failure of the levees in some places with imminent danger of sectional failure at several points should a flood condition arise. Should these failures occur there would possibly be loss of life, and certainly tremendous property damage. It is estimated that the repair and restoration of the levee will cost approximately $200,000.

Because of the serious situation outlined above, which requires immediate action, I am presenting for your consideration an amendment to the Budget Bill to provide for the appropriation of $200,000 necessary to rectify the dangerous condition which has been pointed out to us by the Department of Public Works.

A further situation has been brought to our attention by the Department of Public Works and Lieutenant Colonel R. C. Hunter of the California Debris Commission with reference to the need for an additional $30,000 for the storage of mining debris along the Yuba River Debris Control Project.

The Legislature in 1935 appropriated under Chapter 686, $24,000 to provide for the construction, renewal, and repair of works for reconstruction, impounding, and control of debris resulting from mining operations, natural erosion, and other causes along the Yuba River. The appropriation was subject to provision that it be matched by an equal amount from the Federal Government. It was not until March 22, 1941, that our attention was called to the fact that this appropriation would be exhausted July 1, 1941, and that $60,000 will be required to carry on this work during the next biennial period, of which amount $30,000 is to be provided by the Federal Government.

In view of this situation I am inclosing an additional amendment to the Budget Bill to provide the required $30,000, subject to this sum being matched by contributions from the Federal Government. I ask that you request the Assembly to adopt this amendment.

There is inclosed a further amendment to the Budget Act to restore to the Budget of the Division of Water Resources those items which the Committee on Ways and Means recommended be reduced. The Division of Water Resources carries on a wide program of activities affecting the water rights, water resources, safety of dams, reclamation and flood control, and other projects throughout the entire State of California. The work of this division should not be crippled to the extent which would be necessary if the reduction recommended by the Ways and Means Committee should prevail The appropriation recommended in the Budget of this division, we believe, is its minimum need for the next biennial period, $78,962 having been eliminated from the request of the division by the Department of Finance before the Budget was sent to the Legislature.

Your cooperation in securing the adoption of the three inclosed amendments to the Budget Bill now before you will be appreciated.

Yours very truly,

GEORGE KILLION, Director of Finance

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, May 5, 1941

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
Sacramento, California

GREETINGS: On March 18th I advised you that the appropriation contained in Assembly Bill No. 253 was insufficient to cover unemployment relief needs for the fourth quarter of the current fiscal year and that the amount should have been $4,617,000 instead of $2,042,000, a difference of $2,575,000 (page 1031 of the Assembly Journal). You did not see fit to heed my recommendation and enacted this bill at the lower figure.

The present relief load of approximately 39,000 cases is 3,000 cases in excess of the best estimates of the Relief Administration and the Department of Finance, despite all efforts by the Administration and the Department of Employment to return persons on the rolls to private employment. This is due to the facts that farm employment has been delayed by stormy weather and that the Work Projects Administration quotas have been drastically curtailed, reducing the number of cases closed by the SRA to the WPA and returning many of the cases eliminated by the WPA to the SRA rolls. The WPA rolls have been reduced in excess of 14,000 cases in the past two months.

Expenditures for the month of April total approximately $2,057,000 as against an original estimate of $2,044,000. Although expenditures for direct relief total $125,000 in excess of estimates, strict economy in administration and increased collections of board from WPA workers in single men's camps have held the net increase in total expenditures to approximately $13,000. The number of employees of the State Relief Administration has been reduced to 2,595 as of April 30th, (including approximately 200 separated as of the termination of their vacations), and the total administrative costs have been reduced to a much lower figure than at any previous date in the history of this agency.

After reservation for April expenditures unpaid on May 1st, a balance of approximately $560,000 remains which is estimated to last until May 10th. This does not include the amount of $650,000 set aside as a Federal Stamp Revolving Fund which the Attorney General has just advised is not available for expenditure or encumbrance for any other purpose.

I therefore recommend again that an additional appropriation of $2,575,000 be granted immediately for the balance of the fourth quarter and that a separate revolving fund be appropriated to release the $650,000 mentioned above. It appears that the first item can be best accomplished by Assembly Bill No. 1910 and the second by Senate Bill No. 1165. One or both of these bills must be enacted into law by May 7th to prevent the stoppage of relief disbursements.

Your are therefore advised that ASSEMBLY BILL No. 1910—

> "An act making an appropriation for the relief of hardship and destitution due to and caused by unemployment, and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately."

and SENATE BILL No. 1165—

> "An act to add Section 2.5 to the California Unemployment Relief Act of 1935, establishing a revolving fund for use in the operation of the Federal Stamp Plan, making an appropriation therefor, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately," in my opinion constitute emergency bills within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await final enactment of the Budget Bill.

Respectfully submitted

CULBERT L. OLSON, Governor of California

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communications were received and read, and on motion of Mr. Bashore, ordered printed in the Journal:

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT, April 4, 1941

Dr. Jesse Randolph Kellems, California Legislature
State Capitol, Sacramento California

DEAR DR KELLEMS. The following information is sent to you in response to your letter of April 2d, and a similar letter from Assemblyman Alfred W. Robertson, asking me to state the position of the University on Assembly Bill No 1931, which proposes to create a branch of the University of California at Santa Barbara in place of the Santa Barbara State College.

The Regents of the University have stated that position by voting unanimously "their willingness, if the State desires them to do so, to add one of the existing State colleges to the University System, provided said college comes into the system as an integral part of the university subject to the same control and jurisdiction as all other parts."

As to my own position, which you also request me to state, I subscribe to the conclusions of the Commission of Seven and to the recommendation in the so-called Suzzallo Report of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, that the teachers colleges (now called State colleges) should be brought under The Regents and made part of the University of California. These conclusions and recommendations, it should be remembered, were the fruits of months of careful, well-financed, highly intelligent study by a group of leading educators from parts of the United States other than California, whose thinking was not obscured by personal or institutional interests or prejudices.

As a member of the Council on Educational Planning and Coordination, I have consistently and vigorously advocated the proposals of the Suzzallo Report as the best solution for the problem of higher educational organization in our State I have had, also, an open mind toward alternative proposals for bringing order out of the chaos which now exists, but only toward proposals which would bring all higher education into the State University System.

In response to questions from you, and from others properly interested, I have said on a number of occasions that, if the Legislature wished to transfer Santa Barbara State College to The Regents with instructions to make it an integral part of the University of California, we should endeavor to maintain and improve the college so that it might, like the other parts of the university, be an institution of which the people of California could justly be proud. I have said, also, that it seemed clear to me that the college should continue to be a four year, degree granting institution, not patterned exactly after any other unit of the university, but expressing its own individuality and, in particular, developing the courses in which it has already demonstrated unusual success.

I trust that the foregoing paragraphs will help to clarify for you and your colleagues a situation which has been much beclouded by unauthorized statements and conflicting claims

With kind personal regards, I am

Yours sincerely,

ROBERT G SPROUL

Memorandum Prepared by University of California Officials Presenting Views of Board of Regents Concerning Assembly Bill No. 1931

The University of California has for many years been interested in the coordination of higher education in this State, and has believed that all higher education above the junior college level should be under the administration of a single board

There have been two reports presented to the Legislature of the State of California in past years, both reports recommending that all higher education be under one board.

The position of The Regents of the University of California in connection with Assembly Bill No. 1931 is one of cooperation in the interest of higher education. This matter was discussed two years ago and The Regents' position at that time, as well as now, can be stated as follows: "that The Regents expressed their willingness, if the State desires them to do so, to add one of the existing State colleges to the university's system provided said college comes into the system as an integral part of the university, subject to the same control and jurisdiction as all other parts"

If Assembly Bill No. 1931 becomes law, the University of California will endeavor to do the very best job possible in the preservation of the splendid work and activities now carried on by the Santa Barbara State College There is no attempt to destroy the worthwhile activities of this agency of the State Educational System, but merely to coordinate its activities along its present lines with that of the University of California. The work in vocational training is essential to the activities of this institution and The Regents of the University of California are privileged to carry on such activities, if that is their desire Likewise, the entrance requirements for these specialized fields can be adjusted to meet the demands and without handicap to students desiring to carry on work in these vocational fields

It is the desire of the University of California and all those connected with it to render the best service possible in the educational field, and, if it is the wish of the Legislature that Santa Barbara State College be under the jurisdiction of the University of California, you can rest assured that every effort will be made to coordinate its activities for the best interest of education for the people of the State of California.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO, May 5, 1941

MEMORANDUM

IN RE: Assembly Bill No 150—Reclassification of Counties

There is herewith presented a series of amendments to Assembly Bill No. 150, reclassifying the counties according to the Federal Census of 1940 and changing the county government sections with respect to this new classification.

These amendments and this bill, if and when enacted into law, have operative effect only upon the noncharter counties.

These amendments give full effect to the 1933 Amendment of Section 5 of Article XI. Under this amendment the Legislature is required to regulate the compensation in every county of (1) members of the board of supervisors, (2) the auditor and (3) the district attorney. The Legislature is authorized, but not required, to regulate the compensation of grand and trial jurors.

The compensation of all other county officers, except those above noted, and of all deputies, assistants and employees is subject to regulation by the board of supervisors.

For the foregoing reason, there has been eliminated from those sections still containing them, references to all officers and to all deputies, assistants and employees. Although this language will have been eliminated, Section 5 of Article XI of the Constitution and Section 4056d of the Political Code will preserve their full and complete effect as ordinances of the county unless and until the board of supervisors acts

Where this obsolete language referring to compensation subject to regulation by the board of supervisors has already been eliminated, no change is made in the section

In preparing these amendments, no compensation has been changed.

For convenience of the members, the counties, are listed alphabetically in two groups, those whose classification is not changed and those whose classification is changed Detailed comments with reference to those counties whose classifications are changed appear below.

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was received and read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

ASSEMBLY, CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE, May 6, 1941

Honorable Mr Speaker and Members of the Assembly
Assembly Chamber, State Capitol

My attention has been called today to the fact that through an error, an invoice from T. E Cain, Inc, has been rendered to the State of California, in the amount of $2.98, to cover a piece of glass for the Speaker's desk.

It has been my intention at all times that this would be a contribution to the Speaker's desk as a sentimental gift. Will you, therefore, disregard the erroneous invoice and accept this gift which I am so highly honored to be in a position to furnish.

I respectfully request that this letter be read before the Assembly and published in the Assembly Daily Journal in order that my position will not be misconstrued

Sincerely,

JOHN EDWARD CAIN, Assemblyman, Eighth District

The Department of Finance shall apportion any money appropriated by the State for the encouragement of county, district or combined county and district fairs to the various agricultural fairs on the basis of the amount which each fair actually paid in premiums for agricultural, horticultural, mineral and live stock exhibits, and exhibits of domestic arts and agricultural mechanics made or manufactured for other than commercial purposes, in each year. The money so apportioned shall be paid to the several counties and district agricultural associations as soon as such apportionment is determined.

The Department of Finance, out of any money on hand to be apportioned may advance to any county or district agricultural association, for the purpose of paying premiums, at any time during the year, any portion of the money to which, in the opinion of the Director of Finance, the county or district agricultural association will become entitled for that year. The county or district agricultural association shall deposit such money in a separate bank account approved by the Director of Finance in accordance with the provisions of Section 10 of an act entitled "An act to authorize and control the deposit in banks of money belonging to or in the cusbody of the State and to repeal all acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act," approved April 12, 1923, as amended. Such money may be expended for premiums, capital outlay, including purchase of land, construction, improvements, equipment, or other purposes for the encouragement of county or district agricultural association fairs pursuant to a budget submitted to, and approved by, the Department of Finance subject to the provisions of Section 677.5 of the Political Code.

All sums expended from such moneys for construction and improvements by counties shall be subject to the provisions of Section 4041.18 of the Political Code. The county auditor or secretary of any such fair desiring to share in any such appropriation shall file with the Department of Finance on or before December 31st, of each year, a sworn statement setting forth the actual amount paid for premiums by such fair held in that year.

Six thousand dollars ($6,000) shall be the maximum base of allocation paid any fair for its first year of operation, and thereafter in each subsequent year in which a fair is held the maximum base of allocation shall increase by 10 per cent over the maximum base for the year in which a fair was last held.

In the event the premiums paid during any year in which a fair is held are less than the maximum base of allocation for that year, the base of allocation for that year shall be the premiums so paid during such year. For any fair operated prior to 1933 which received, or was qualified to receive, money from appropriations for the support of agricultural fairs, the basis may be increased 10 per cent for each year in which a fair was held from the time the fair was first held, except that if no fair was held by the county or district for a period of five or more years the percentage of increase shall apply only from the first fair held after said period. Any fair may pay premiums in an amount greater than that used as the base of apportionment to it.

The Department of Finance shall prescribe rules and regulations for the judging of exhibits, and the maximum amount of premiums which may be offered and paid for all classes, sections, and types of exhibits. No fair shall receive any apportionment of funds under this section unless it complies with such rules and regulations.

No allotment from the appropriation herein provided shall be made for more than one fair in any one year in any county or district. The fact that a county or district contracts one with the other or with a county fair association, to hold an agricultural fair shall not bar it from receiving a proper proportion of the moneys herein appropriated, except that no county or district may hold a joint or combined fair and receive an allotment of money under the provisions of this section. No fair for which a separate appropriation is made by the State shall participate in the apportionment of any money appropriated for the encouragement of county and district agricultural fairs.

The Department of Finance, in its discretion, may at any time examine the books and records of any fair to determine the correctness of any statement or report filed with the Department of Finance."
