The digest shall be printed on the bill as introduced in distinctive type upon the lower part of the first page thereof

Introduction and Reference of Bills

55 Each bill shall be signed by the member, or each of the members, who is an author of the bill before it is introduced. If any bill is introduced, which does not contain the signature of such author or coauthor, the same, on motion of the member whose name appears thereon without such signature, shall be stricken from the file by a recorded vote of a majority of the elected membership In each legislative session, on the first day when bills are introduced under "Introduction and Reference of Bills," the roll shall be called from A to Z and then back from Z to A, and as each member's name is called, he may introduce one bill, constitutional amendment, concurrent or joint resolution

After these two roll calls, any member desiring to introduce bills, constitutional amendments, concurrent and joint resolutions may at any time during a session send the same to the Clerk's desk

When received at the Clerk's desk it shall, under the proper order of business, be numbered, read the first time, referred to a standing committee, be printed, and a copy placed upon the desk of each member before final passage

All bills, constitutional amendments, concurrent and joint resolutions introduced before the standing committees of the Assembly are appointed, shall be referred to committees, references to take effect when the committees shall be appointed.

Introduction of House Resolutions

Each House resolution shall be signed by the member, or each of the members, who is an author of the House resolution before it is introduced, if there are more than four (4) coauthors, then a special roll call form providing a space for additional signatures must be attached to the House resolution before introduction. These forms may be obtained at the Clerk's desk

Number of Resolutions by Member

55 5 With the exception of resolutions relating to Members or former Members of the Legislature, no member shall introduce more than five resolutions in any session which are for the purpose of commendation or congratulation of any person or organization or for the purpose of expressing sympathy, regret, or sorrow upon the death of any person

Reference of Bills to Committee

56 Immediately following its first reading, the Speaker shall refer each bill to a committee, unless upon a motion the Assembly, by a majority vote of its entire elected membership, shall refer it to some other committee Such motion to refer a bill shall not be debatable.

Digests of Bills Amended in Senate

56 1. Whenever the Senate amends and passes an Assembly bill the Legislative Counsel shall, within one day after the bill is passed by the Senate, prepare and transmit to the Speaker and to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, a brief digest summarizing the effect of the Senate amendment The Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall cause said digest to be printed in the Daily File immediately following any reference in said file to the bill covered by the digest. No such bill may be acted upon until said digest has been received This rule shall not be applicable during the last seven days of the session.

Delivery of Bills to State Printer

57 After introduction, first reading and reference to committee, all bills shall be delivered to the State Printer.

Standing Committee Functions

Standing Committee Rules

58 The Rules of the Assembly shall govern the conduct of all committee meetings Each committee may adopt, by a majority vote of its entire membership, such additional rules, not in conflict with the Standing Rules, as it may deem necessary for the conduct of any business referred to such committee

A majority of the committee members present may order a call of the committee

Meetings of Standing Committees

59 All standing committees shall meet at the hour and place provided by schedule, unless otherwise ordered by the Assembly No committee shall meet during any session of the Assembly without first obtaining permission from the Assembly

Every scheduled committee meeting shall be open to the public, unless the committee, by a majority vote of its entire membership, shall order an executive session

All bills set for hearing by any Assembly committee must be published in the Daily File Two full days, exclusive of Sundays on which no session of the Assembly is held, shall intervene between the day of the first publication and the day upon which the bill is heard in committee, and publication shall be made in each Daily File which is published on the intervening days No bills shall be set for hearing nor shall any notice thereof be published by any Assembly committee until that bill has been referred to such committee Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent a committee from acting with regard to a bill referred to it where the only action taken is to cause the bill to be reported to the Assembly with the recommendation that amendments be adopted and the bill be reprinted as amended and re-referred to the committee.

The several standing committees and their chairmen are directed to adopt a procedure which assures that no committee shall commence the hearing of any bill after the hour of six o'clock p m at an afternoon meeting of the committee or after the hour of 11 o clock p m at an evening meeting, but the hearings on a bill commenced prior thereto may be continued thereafter for such period of time as the committee deems necessary

Withdrawal of Bills for Amendment

59 5 Upon request of the author of a bill, the chairman of the committee to which the bill has been referred may, by his individual action taken independently of any committee meeting, cause the bill to be reported to the Assembly with the recommendation that amendments submitted by the author be adopted and the bill be reprinted as amended and re-referred to the committee

The provisions of Rule 59 do not apply to action taken under this rule

Notwithstanding the provisions of any other rule, such bill shall not be placed on the second reading file for the adoption of such amendments.

Committee Quorum

60 A majority of the membership of any standing committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of its business, including the decision to recommend the adoption of any amendments to any bill At least a majority of all members constituting such committee shall be required to report a bill out of committee

Bills Reported Back to Assembly

61 All committees shall act upon bills referred to them as soon as practicable, and when acted upon each bill shall be reported back to the Assembly forthwith, and the chairman of each committee is charged with the observance of this rule The chairman of each committee shall, insofar as practicable, report back bills in the same order as they were acted upon by the committee

Subject Matter of Bill Recommended for Interim Study

62 Whenever it is the decision of a standing committee that a bill referred to such committee shall not be given a do-pass recommendation but that the subject matter of the bill should be referred to an appropriate interim committee for study, such standing committee shall retain the bill in its possession and report its recommendation to the Assembly that the subject matter of the bill be referred to the Committee on Rules for assignment by it of such subject matter to an appropriate interim committee

Nothing in this rule shall be construed to prohibit a committee from subsequently reconsidering a bill and reporting it to the Assembly with a do-pass or do-pass as amended recommendation or from reporting it out of committee without further action on the final day of the session

Committee Chairman as Author

63 No chairman of a standing committee, except the Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, shall preside at a committee hearing to consider a bill of which he is the sole author or the lead author

Reports of Committees

64 Reports of standing and special committees shall be delivered to the Chief Clerk or an assistant, and shall be read and ordered printed in the Journal unless otherwise ordered by the Speaker or a majority vote of the members present.

Signing Bills Out of Committee

65 No bill shall be signed out of committee unless the committee has failed to hold a meeting on two consecutive scheduled dates, or having so met, has failed to have a quorum present for the transaction of business.

Committee of the Whole

66 The Assembly may resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole at any time by a majority vote of the members present While sitting as such committee, persons other than members may address the committee. The Speaker of the Assembly, or any member named by the Speaker, shall preside as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole.

A motion that the Committee of the Whole "do now rise and report back to the Assembly," shall always be in order, and shall be decided without debate. All actions of the Committee of the Whole shall be reported to the Assembly by the chairman, but shall not be entered in the Journal except upon motion and a majority vote of the members present

Committee on Ways and Means

67 The Committee on Ways and Means shall consider all bills to appropriate money, other than the contingent expenses of the Assembly Any bill which would require the expenditure of additional state moneys in any manner, including any bill which creates any additional state agency or office, or adds any functions, duties, or responsibilities to an existing agency or office, shall be referred to the Ways and Means Committee before being placed on third reading

Committee Expenditures

68. No member or committee shall be permitted to incur any expense without first receiving the consent of the Assembly

Reports of Interim Committees

69 All interim committees, unless otherwise authorized, shall report to the next succeeding Legislature on or before the fifth legislative day after the convening thereof.

Printing of Reports

70 All requests for the printing of reports of Assembly interim committees shall be referred to the Committee on Rules The Committee on Rules shall determine the number of copies needed; and whether or not the report shall be printed in the Journal In no event shall more than 1,000 copies of any interim committee report be authorized by the Committee on Rules on the first printing, exclusive of the Journal copies, if the report is to be printed therein, unless the Committee on Rules finds and determines that there is a special need for that report in greater numbers

Upon determination by the Committee on Rules that additional copies of an Assembly interim committee report are required at any time following the first printing of the authorized number of copies, the Committee on Rules may authorize one or more additional printings in the numbers found by it to be necessary and may make funds available therefor.

The State Printer shall hold the type for each Assembly interim committee report for a period of 90 days from the date of the first printing or for such time as the Committee on Rules deems necessary

No Assembly interim committee report shall contain more than 100 pages, including the front and back cover thereof and any appendix, unless a greater number of pages has been approved and authorized by the Committee on Rules

Passage of Bills

Daily File

71. There shall be printed an Assembly Daily File for each legislative day when ordered by the Speaker The Committee on Rules shall have charge of the Daily File of the Assembly. The following listing shall constitute the order of the Daily File·

1 Special Orders of the Day
2 Second Reading, Assembly Bills
3 Second Reading, Senate Bills
4 Unfinished Business
5. Third Reading, Assembly Bills
6 Third Reading, Senate Bills
7. Adoption of Resolutions

All bills on the Daily File shall be called for consideration, provided compliance has been had with Rule 61, in the order of their listing, unless otherwise ordered by unanimous consent or an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present.

Copies of Bills for Action Upon Bill on Floor

72 No bill may be considered or acted upon on the floor of the Assembly unless and until a copy of the printed bill as introduced and a printed copy of each amended form of the bill has been placed upon the desks of the members.

Inactive File

73. Whenever a bill has been passed twice on third reading file, it shall forthwith be placed upon a special file to be known as the inactive file When a bill has been placed on the inactive file, it may be returned to the third reading file by a request of the author; but the bill shall then be placed at the foot of the third reading file.

Record of Bills

74. The Chief Clerk shall cause to be kept a permanent record of every action taken by the Assembly on every bill, and the date of such action Every such action and the date thereof shall also be indorsed upon such bill.

Second Reading of Bills

75. All bills shall be read the second time in the order of their appearance upon the second reading file Upon second reading, Assembly bills reported without amendments shall be ordered engrossed, and Senate bills reported without amendments shall be ordered to third reading All bills reported out of committee shall be placed on the second reading file for the next legislative day and shall not be read a second time except under that order of business

Committee Amendments

76 Committee amendments reported with bills shall be considered upon their second reading and such amendments may be adopted by majority vote of the members present Assembly and Senate bills amended on second reading, whether by committee amendment or amendment from the floor, shall be ordered reprinted and returned to the second reading file. Assembly bills so amended shall be engrossed after printing

Committee amendments reported with bills shall be prepared by, or approved as to form by, the Legislative Counsel Four copies of the committee amendments to Assembly bills and five copies of the committee amendments to Senate bills must be delivered to the Clerk's desk

Adoption of amendments to any bill in the Assembly prior to third reading, other than by a roll call, shall not preclude subsequent consideration in committee or on the third reading of the bill, of such amendments, or any part thereof, by the Assembly.

Amendments From the Floor

77 Any member may move to amend a bill during its second or third reading and such motion to amend may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present

No amendments to a bill offered from the floor, except committee amendments reported with bills, amendments offered with a motion to amend and re-refer a bill to committee, amendments deleting any number of words, amendments adding a total of not more than 25 words, or amendments previously printed in the Journal, shall be in order unless and until a copy of the proposed amendments has been placed upon the desks of the members If a copy of amendments adding a total of 25 words or less is not placed on the desks of the members, it shall be made available to the author of the bill, and the amendments shall be read in their entirety by the Clerk prior to debate.

Amendments offered from the floor during a bill's second or third reading either (a) shall be prepared by, or approved as to form by, the Legislative Counsel or (b) shall be submitted on a form available from the Chief Clerk

Before debate four copies of the proposed amendment to Assembly bills, and five copies of the proposed amendment to Senate bills, must be delivered to the Clerk's desk. Bills so amended upon second or third reading shall be reprinted and re-engrossed The Chief Clerk shall order printed as many copies of all amended bills as he may determine to be necessary.

Consideration of Bills Re-referred to Committee

78 Whenever a bill which has been amended, and re-referred to committee, is reported out by that committee, it shall be placed on the second reading file and shall not be transferred therefrom to the regular third reading file until the following day.

Consideration of Constitutional Amendments, Concurrent and Joint Resolutions

79 Constitutional amendments, concurrent and joint resolutions may be amended by a majority of the members present and shall be treated the same as bills, except that they shall be read but once The ayes and noes shall not be called upon the adoption of concurrent resolutions, except those presenting charter amendments or authorizing expenditures of money, unless regularly demanded or required by statute or by the Constitution

Bills Transmitted to the Senate

80. Upon the final passage of any bill if no notice of motion to reconsider such bill be given, the Speaker shall order the bill transmitted to the Senate under the signature of the Chief Clerk. Senate bills refused passage shall forthwith be returned to the Senate under similar signature

Bills Considered During Period Prior to Final Adjournment

81 See Joint Rule 23 for provisions governing bills considered during this period.

Concurrence in Senate Amendments

82 It shall require the same affirmative recorded vote to concur in any Senate amendment to an Assembly bill as the vote required by the Constitution for the passage of such bill It shall require an affirmative recorded vote of two-thirds of the entire elected membership of the Assembly to concur in any Senate amendment to an Assembly bill which contains an item or items of appropriation subject to reduction or elimination under the provisions of Section 34a of Article IV of the Constitution The vote on concurrence shall be deemed the vote upon final passage of such bill When Senate amendments to an Assembly bill are concurred in the bill shall be forthwith ordered enrolled, and the Chief Clerk shall notify the Senate of such concurrence

Nonconcurrence in Senate Amendments

83 If the Assembly refuse to concur in Senate amendments to an Assembly bill, and when notified that the Senate has refused to concur in Assembly amendments to a Senate bill, the Speaker shall appoint a committee of three (3) on conference, and the Chief Clerk shall immediately notify the Senate of the action taken by the Assembly and request the appointment of a like committee

Committee on Conference

84 The Speaker, in appointing a committee on conference, shall select two members from those voting with the majority on the point about which the difference has arisen, and the other member from the minority, in the event there is a minority vote

Whether a member has voted with the majority or minority on the point about which the difference has arisen is determined by his vote on the appropriate roll call, as follows

(a) The roll call on the question of final passage of a Senate bill amended in the Assembly when the Senate has refused to concur with the Assembly amendments;

(b) The roll call on the question of concurrence with Senate amendments to an Assembly bill

Meetings and Reports of Committees on Conference

85. The chairman of the Senate committee on conference for the same bill shall arrange the time and place of meeting of such committee It shall require an affirmative vote of not less than two of the Assembly members and two of the Senate members constituting the committee on conference to agree upon a report, and the report shall be submitted to both the Senate and the Assembly Such report is not subject to amendment, and if either house refuses to adopt such report, the conferees shall be discharged and other conferees appointed. No member who has served on a committee on conference shall be appointed a member of another committee on conference on the same bill The presentation and consideration of any report of a committee on conference shall always be in order, except during a roll call or when a member has the floor It shall require the same affirmative recorded vote to adopt any conference report as required by the Constitution upon the final passage of the bill affected by such report It shall require an affirmative recorded vote of two-thirds of the entire elected membership of the Assembly to adopt any conference report affecting any Assembly bill which contains an item or items of appropriation which are subject to reduction or elimination under the provisions of Section 34a of Article IV of the Constitution.

The vote on concurrence or upon the adoption of such conference report by the Assembly shall be deemed the vote upon final passage of such bill

Engrossing and Enrolling Bills

86 The Engrossing and Enrolling Clerk shall engross and enroll all bills which shall come to his hands for such purpose, in compliance with provisions of Section 9503 of the Government Code, and in the order of time in which the same shall be acted upon by the Assembly.

Enrollment

87 After final passage by both houses, any Assembly bill not amended by the Senate shall be forthwith ordered by the Speaker to be enrolled, as provided in Sections 9508 and 9509 of the Government Code The Committee on Engrossment and Enrollment shall report both the day and hour each enrolled bill is presented to the Governor, which report shall be entered in the Journal

Adoption of Resolutions

88 House resolutions and concurrent resolutions that do not require a recorded roll-call vote, such as resolutions of congratulation or sympathy, except resolutions regarding Members or former Members of the Legislature, shall be listed under a separate heading in the printed Daily File They shall be considered for adoption under that order of business, or at any other time as determined by the Speaker.

88 1. When any previously printed House resolution is before the Assembly for adoption it shall be printed in the Assembly Daily Journal only if amendments to it have been adopted, in which case it shall be printed as amended In the absence of such amendments, House resolutions before the Assembly for adoption shall be referred to by day and page of the Journal as printed upon introduction For the purposes of this rule the adding of a co-author shall not be deemed an amendment

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Motions and Questions

Precedence of Motions During Debate

89. When a question is under debate or before the Assembly, no motions shall be received but the following, which shall take precedence in the order named·

First—To adjourn;
Second—To recess to a time certain,
Third—To lay on the table,
Fourth—For the previous question,
Fifth—To set as a special order;
Sixth—To postpone indefinitely;
Seventh—To refer to or re-refer;
Eighth—To amend.

Questions of Order Decided Without Debate

90 All incidental questions of order, arising after a motion is made for any of the questions named in Rule 89 and pending such motion, shall be decided by the Speaker without debate, whether on appeal or otherwise

Appeal From Decision of the Speaker

91. Any member may appeal from a decision of the Speaker without waiting for recognition by the Speaker, even though another member has the floor No appeal is in order when another is pending, or when other business has been transacted by the Assembly prior to the appeal being taken.

Upon the appeal being seconded, the Speaker may give his reasons for the decision, and the member taking the appeal may give his reasons for making his appeal, and the Speaker shall forthwith put this question to the Assembly: "Shall the decision of the Speaker be sustained?"

An appeal cannot be amended and yields only to a motion to recess or adjourn, to lay on the table, or a question of personal privilege If an appeal be laid on the table, such action shall have no effect on the pending question

An appeal cannot be debated when relating to indecorum, transgression of rules, or priority of business A majority vote of the members present shall decide any appeal.

Speaker Explains Order of Business

92 The Speaker may, on his own motion or upon the motion of any Member of the Assembly, explain the order of business when the motion pending before the Assembly is not debatable. Such explanation is not to consume more than two minutes

To Adjourn

93 A motion to adjourn is not debatable and cannot be amended, and is always in order, except (a) when another member has the floor, (b) when the Assembly is voting, (c) during a call of the Assembly The name of any member moving an adjournment and also the hour at which the motion was made and adjournment taken shall be entered in the Journal A motion to adjourn must be adopted by a majority vote of the members present

When a motion to adjourn is made and seconded, it shall be in order for the Speaker, before putting the question, to permit any member to state to the Assembly any fact relating to the condition of the business of the Assembly which would seem to render it improper or inadvisable to adjourn. A statement shall not occupy more than two minutes and shall not be debatable

To Recess to a Time Certain

94. A motion to recess to a time certain shall be treated the same as a motion to adjourn, except that such motion is debatable when no business is before the Assembly, and can be amended as to the time and duration of the recess It yields only to a motion to adjourn

To Lay on the Table

95. A motion to lay on the table is not debatable and cannot be amended

A motion to table a bill, constitutional amendment, concurrent or joint resolution requires a majority vote of the entire elected membership.

Any motion to lay on the table, if carried by a majority vote of the entire elected membership, carries with it the main question and everything that adheres to it; provided, however, that a motion to lay an amendment on the table, if adopted, does not carry with it a bill, constitutional amendment, concurrent, joint, or House resolution

A motion to lay an amendment on the table may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present.

The Previous Question

96 The previous question shall be put only when demanded by five members, and in this form "Shall the question be now put?" and its effect, when sustained by a majority of the members present, shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the House to a vote only on the question then pending, except that the proponent of the matter pending shall be allowed not to exceed five minutes to close the debate

Motion to Set Special Order

97 A motion to set any matter before the Assembly as a special order of business must be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members elected It is debatable only as to the propriety of setting the main question as a special order of business, and may be amended only as to the time

Motion to Postpone to a Time Certain

98 A motion to postpone to a time certain shall be deemed and treated as a motion to set as a special order

Motion to Postpone Indefinitely

99 When a motion is made to postpone indefinitely any bill, motion, or amendment, it opens the main question to debate Should the motion to postpone indefinitely prevail by a majority vote of the entire elected membership, the main question shall not be acted upon again during the session

Motion to Amend

100 A motion to amend may itself be amended, but no "amendment to an amendment" can be amended A motion to amend is debatable, except where the main question to be amended is not debatable Any motion to amend may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present

A motion to amend having been decided in the negative, shall not again be in order on the same day, or at the same stage of proceeding A motion to amend by striking out certain words having been decided in the negative, shall not preclude a motion to amend by adding words, or a motion to amend by striking out and inserting words, but in no case shall a further amendment be substantially the same as the one rejected

Subject to the above provisions of this rule, a motion to amend is in order during the second or third reading of any bill

A motion to lay an amendment on the table may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present, as provided in Rule 95

Amendment to Be Germane

101 No amendment to any bill, whether reported by a committee or offered by a member, shall be in order when such amendment relates to a different subject, or is intended to accomplish a different purpose, or requires a title essentially different from the original title of any bill

No amendment shall be in order which adds or deletes the name of a member as an author or co-author, or which changes the original number of any bill

Substitute Motion

102 A motion to substitute shall be deemed and treated as a motion to amend.

Motions in Writing

103 Upon request of the Speaker all motions shall be reduced to writing and shall be read to the Assembly by the Speaker before the same are acted upon.

Constitution of Motions

104 No motion, whether oral or written, shall be adopted until the same shall be seconded and distinctly stated to the Assembly by the Speaker.

Division of Question

105 Any member may call for a division of the question, and the Speaker shall order the question divided if it comprehend propositions in substance so distinct that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the Assembly

Withdrawal of Motions

106 After a motion is stated by the Speaker, or a bill, resolution, or petition read by the Clerk, it shall be deemed to be in the possession of the Assembly.

Motion to Be Germane

107 No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted as an amendment

Motion to Withdraw and Recall Bills

108 A motion to withdraw a bill or resolution from committee, or to re-refer a bill or resolution from one committee to another committee may be made during the regular order of business A motion to re-refer shall only be debatable as to the propriety of such reference, and shall require a recorded vote of a majority of the elected members

No bill or resolution shall be withdrawn from committee and placed upon the file except upon two days' notice thereof and except by a recorded vote of a majority of the elected members

Re-reference of Measures on File

109 A motion to re-refer a bill or resolution that is on the Assembly Daily File to committee may be made during the regular order of business The motion shall only be debatable as to the propriety of such reference, and shall require a recorded vote of a majority of the elected members

Bills Stricken From File

110 A motion to strike from the file any bill or House resolution requires a majority vote of the entire elected membership Such bill shall not be acted upon again during the session

Motion to Rescind Action and Expunge Record

111 Previous to the approval of the Journal by the Assembly any action may be rescinded and its record ordered expunged by an affirmative recorded vote sufficient to take such action originally; except that no action shall be rescinded and the record expunged by a vote less than a majority of the entire elected membership. No motion to rescind the action and expunge the record shall be made twice on the same proposition

Whenever any action of the Assembly is rescinded and its record ordered expunged, the record of the action expunged shall not appear in any form whatsoever, but the record of the proceedings on the motion to rescind and expunge shall appear in the Assembly Journal as and when printed

Reconsideration of Vote

112 (a) A motion to reconsider on the next legislative day (1) the vote whereby any bill was passed or refused passage, or (2) the vote whereby any motion, amendment, concurrence, Assembly resolution or proposition other than a bill was passed or refused passage, must be made on the same day the vote to be reconsidered was taken No motion to reconsider shall be in order on the last day, or the day preceding the last day, for consideration of Assembly or Senate bills in the Assembly No motion to reconsider shall be adopted unless it receives an affirmative recorded vote of 41 members, except that it shall require such a vote of 54 members or 60 members, respectively, to reconsider the vote on any matter originally requiring 54 votes or 60 votes, as the case may be A motion to reconsider may be voted on without a second.

A motion to reconsider a vote must be made by a member voting on the question, and shall take precedence over all motions, except a motion to adjourn Upon such motion being made, the matter to be reconsidered shall forthwith be placed upon the unfinished business file, and no further action shall be taken prior to the next legislative day When a motion to reconsider has once been made, the same shall be considered to be the property of the Assembly When reconsideration is granted, the matter to be reconsidered shall resume its exact position before the Assembly previous to its being voted upon

(b) Any member voting on any motion, amendment, concurrence, Assembly resolution or proposition other than a bill may move to take up on the same day the motion to reconsider such a question, previously made by another member The motion to take up the reconsideration on the same day shall take precedence over the motion to reconsider and upon demand of any member the motion to take up the reconsideration on the same day must be put to an immediate vote If the motion to take up the reconsideration on the same day is adopted, the motion to reconsider shall be the next order of business before the House

Call of Assembly

113 After the roll has been called, and prior to the announcement of the vote, any member may move a call of the Assembly A majority of the members present may order a call of the Assembly, and the Speaker shall immediately order the Sergeant at Arms to lock all doors and shall direct the Clerk to prepare a list of absentees as disclosed by the last roll call, which list of absentees shall be furnished to the Sergeant at Arms Thereupon no members shall be permitted to leave the Assembly Chamber except by written permission of the Speaker, and no person shall be permitted to enter except such member as is taken into custody as herein provided, or Senators, officers, attachés, or employees of the Legislature in the official performance of their duties

Those members who are found to be absent, and for whom no leaves of absence have been granted, shall be forthwith taken into custody wherever found by the Sergeant at Arms or his assistants or any person designated by the Sergeant at Arms, including members of the California Highway Patrol, the State Police, and sheriffs or their deputies, and brought to the Assembly Chamber No recess or adjournment shall be taken during a call of the Assembly During such call, the Assembly may consider and transact any matter of business by unanimous consent No call of the Assembly shall be ordered on any matter while the Assembly is already under call. A call of the Assembly may be dispensed with at any time upon a majority vote of the members present, such action to become effective upon the completion of the roll call and the announcement of the vote upon the matter for which the call was ordered

Resolutions

114 The adoption of any resolution authorizing the expenditure of money shall require an affirmative recorded vote of a majority of all members elected to the Assembly All House resolutions shall be numbered and shall be referred to the appropriate committee by the Speaker

Motions and Resolutions

115 Any motion or resolution not otherwise provided for under the Rules shall be placed before the Assembly only under this order of business Unless otherwise provided by law or Assembly rule, any motion or resolution may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present

Adjournment

116 Adjournment sine die shall be ordered by concurrent resolution The resolution for adjournment sine die shall be adopted by the Assembly not less than seven days before the date set therein for such adjournment

Members' Decorum and Privileges

Order in Speaking to Questions

117 When a member desires to address the Assembly, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to "Mr Speaker" Upon being recognized, he may speak, confining himself to the question under consideration When two or more members rise at the same time, the Speaker shall designate the member who is entitled to the floor

No member shall speak more than once during the consideration of any one question on the same day and at the same stage of proceeding, except that the author of a bill or resolution or the mover of a question shall have the right to open and close the debate thereon No member shall be allowed to speak more than 10 minutes to open and five minutes to close the debate thereon, and no member other than the author or the mover of the question shall be allowed to speak more than five minutes thereon No member shall yield to any other member the time for which he is entitled to speak on any matter

Motions

118 When a member desires to make a motion, he shall obtain recognition as provided in Rule 117 Upon being recognized he shall open by stating his motion, except in the case of a nomination, and in any other case shall not speak to the merits of the motion at that time and shall confine his remarks to those necessary to explain the motion If the motion is in order and is seconded, it shall be stated to the Assembly by the Speaker If the motion is debatable, the member who made it shall then be entitled to recognition to open the debate thereon

When a member obtains the floor during debate upon any question that is pending before the Assembly and addresses the Assembly regarding the merits of the pending question, he shall not be permitted to conclude his debate by making any motion or by demanding the previous question

Leave of Absence

119 No member shall absent himself from attendance at any session of the Assembly without leave of the Assembly, and no member shall obtain such leave of absence or be excused for nonattendance, except by a two-thirds vote of all members elected to the Assembly, or by unanimous consent

Personal Privilege

120. Any member may rise to explain a matter personal to himself and shall forthwith be recognized by the Speaker, but shall not discuss a question in such explanation Such matters of personal privilege yield only to a motion to recess or adjournment

Objection to Reading of Any Paper

121 Any member upon recognition by the Speaker may object to the reading of any paper before the Assembly After such objection, the question of reading shall be determined without debate by a majority vote of the members present, upon a brief statement of its substance by the Speaker

Members Called to Order for Transgressing Rules

122 a If any member transgresses the Rules of the Assembly, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call the offending member to order The member so called to order shall immediately take his seat, until the Speaker without debate, shall have determined whether he is in order or not Such decision by the Speaker shall be subject to an appeal to the Assembly

b If any member be called to order for offensive words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall state to the Assembly the words to which exception is taken No member shall be held to answer, or be subject to censure by the Assembly, for language used in debate, if other business shall have been transacted by the Assembly prior to exception being taken to the words spoken

Members Voting

123 Every member in the Assembly Chamber when a roll call is required shall record his vote openly and without debate, unless the Assembly shall, by a majority vote of the members present, excuse him

The name of any member who refuses to vote as required by this rule, after being requested by the Speaker to do so, shall be entered in the Journal of the Assembly, together with a statement that he was present and did so refuse to vote Any member who refuses so to vote may, if he so desires, and immediately after the announcement of the vote, submit a written explanation of his failure to vote and have such explanation printed in the Journal, provided no such explanation shall exceed 50 words in length.

In addition to the entry of his name in the Journal, any member who refuses so to vote when required, and who has not been excused from doing so, may, immediately after the announcement of the vote, in the discretion of the Speaker or upon demand of any member, be summoned to appear before the bar of the Assembly for public censure by the Speaker or by any member designated by the Speaker Censure of a member as provided by this rule shall not constitute a bar to proceedings for his expulsion from the Assembly pursuant to Section 9 of Article IV of the Constitution

A member may submit a written explanation of his vote on any bill or House resolution, and have such explanation printed in the Journal immediately following such vote, provided no such explanation shall exceed 50 words in length

Compensation and Expenses of Member Convicted of Felony

124 If a Member of the Assembly is convicted of a felony by a superior court, his right to further compensation or expenses is thereupon suspended and his membership on any interim committee is suspended If such conviction becomes final, the right of the member to further compensation or expenses shall terminate and any compensation or expenses withheld shall be forfeited to the State If a conviction is reversed by an appellate court or a motion for a new trial is granted and the member is thereafter found not guilty or the charges against him are dismissed, the amounts of the withheld compensation or expenses shall be paid to the member and the suspension of his committee membership shall terminate

Whenever a member is convicted of a felony in the superior court, the Assembly Rules Committee shall give written notice to the State Controller, directing him to discontinue any further payments to the member unless and until the Rules Committee notifies the State Controller that the member has been found not guilty or that the charges against him are dismissed. The State Controller shall not draw any warrant payable to any such member except as provided in this rule.

Ayes and Noes

125 The ayes and noes shall be recorded by the electrical voting system on the final passage of all bills, or by viva voce when demanded by three members or when ordered by the Speaker, and on any other question when called for by three members or ordered by the Speaker, the names of which members shall be entered in the Journal

Voting Not to Be Interrupted

126. When once begun, voting shall not be interrupted, except that before the vote is announced, any member may have the total pending vote flashed on the visible vote recorder Prior to the announcement of the vote the Speaker shall inquire if all members have voted Any member may move a call of the Assembly after the completion of the roll and prior to the final recording, but no member shall be allowed to change his vote, or have his vote recorded after the vote is announced.

Members at Clerk's Desk

127 No member or other person shall be allowed at the Clerk's desk while the ayes and noes are being recorded or the votes counted.

Tie Vote

128 In case of an equal division, or tie vote, the question shall be lost

"Two-thirds of the Entire Elected Membership" Defined

129 Wherever the words or figures, "two-thirds of the entire elected membership" appear in any rule, it shall mean 54 votes

Assembly Expenses Between Sessions

130 Pursuant to the powers vested in the Assembly Committee on Rules, and during such times as the Assembly is not in session, the committee is authorized and directed to incur and pay such expenses of the Assembly not otherwise provided for as the committee determines are reasonably necessary, including repair, alteration, improvement and equipping of the Assembly Chamber and the offices provided for the Assembly in the State Capitol

House Resolution No. 13

Relative to the Assembly General Research Committee

The Assembly General Research Committee, consisting of 80 members, is hereby created as a permanent factfinding committee pursuant to Section 37 of Article IV of the California Constitution The committee is allocated all subjects within the scope of legislative regulation and control but shall not undertake any investigation which another committee has been specifically requested or directed to undertake. The Assembly General Research Committee may act through subcommittees appointed by the Speaker in consultation with the Assembly Committee on Rules and such subcommittees may act only on the particular study or investigation assigned by the Speaker in consultation with the Assembly Committee on Rules, to such subcommittees. The Speaker is the Chairman of the Assembly General Research Committee and may be a voting member of any subcommittee Each Member of the Assembly General Research Committee is authorized and directed to receive and investigate requests for legislative action made by individuals or groups and to report thereon to the full committee

The Assembly Committee on Rules is authorized to allocate to any such subcommittee from the Contingent Funds of the Assembly such sums as the Committee on Rules deems necessary to complete the investigation or study conferred upon that subcommittee The Assembly Committee on Rules shall further allocate, from time to time to the Assembly General Research Committee from the Contingent Funds of the Assembly such sums as are necessary to permit the Assembly General Research Committee and the members thereof to carry out the duties imposed on them

The committee has continuous existence until such time as its existence is terminated by resolution adopted by the Assembly, and the committee is authorized to act both during and between sessions of the Legislature, including any recess

The committee and its members shall have and exercise all of the rights, duties, and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the provisions of the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly and of the Standing Rules of the Assembly which provisions are incorporated herein and made applicable to said committee and its members

The committee has the following additional powers and duties

(a) To contract with such other agencies, public or private, as it deems necessary for the rendition and affording of such services, facilities, studies and reports to the committee as will best assist it to carry out the purposes for which it is created

(b) To co-operate with and secure the co-operation of county, city, city and county, and other local law enforcement agencies, in investigating any matter within the scope of this resolution and to direct the sheriff of any county to serve subpoenas, orders and other process issued by the committee

(c) To meet and act at any place within or without the State of California

(d) To report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature and to the people from time to time and at any time

ADDRESS BY LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Lieutenant Governor Glenn M Anderson then proceeded to address the Joint Convention as follows

Inaugural Address—Lieutenant Governor Glenn M Anderson
Inaugural Ceremony, State Capitol, January 7, 1963

Thank you, Senator Burns:

Governor Brown, United States Senator Clair Engle, Fellow Constitutional Officers, Mr Speaker, Mr Speaker pro Tem, Chief Justice Gibson, Members of the Legislature, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Twenty years ago I was first sworn in here at the Capitol as a State Legislator on a similar occasion—although I don't believe the sun was shining so brightly as it is here today The years between have been filled with many happy, exciting, and nostalgic memories—memories of challenges—challenges seemingly becoming larger and larger, year by year, as our State and nation grew, as our society became more and more complex—more demanding And yet, year by year we have witnessed even greater progress, as our State pushes ever forward.

At no time during these twenty years have we seen a greater demonstration of decision, of achievement—than during the past four years under the leadership of Governor Pat Brown

I remember during my inaugural remarks following the Governor's address four years ago that I predicted his administration would come to be identified as, "the one that drew New Lines of Vision, New Goals for a Greater California"

You will remember, Governor Brown stated that his administration would never stay on "dead center," nor would it blindly stumble, but would always move forward meeting each crisis head-on

Well, this is what we in California have witnessed these past four years An administration that has moved forward boldly, meeting each crisis head-on I don't have to relate the record The Master Plan for Higher Education, sound fiscal responsibility, the California Water Program, the Civil Rights Program, all in all, a humane and just administration It has been, without doubt, the greatest era of achievement in California's history

I am proud of whatever part I have been able to take in these achievements I know of the great teamwork demonstrated by our legislators the Assemblymen, their leaders, the Senators, their leaders; together with the Constitutional Officers of the State—all under the decisive, determined, and aggressive drive of our great Governor

So much for the past

I'm sure when we hear the Inaugural Address that Governor Brown is about to give, that it will give us the feeling that although we have witnessed a glorious four years of accomplishment—that this is actually the beginning—the real beginning of the Golden Era of California.

An era of increased business and prosperity,

An era of confidence,

An era of greater building and greater growth

All this toned with a new emphasis, a new cultural setting, blended with California's splendid tradition and history of the past

It is with pride that I give you California's great Governor—Edmund G "Pat" Brown

ADDRESS BY THE GOVERNOR

Governor Brown then proceeded to address the Joint Convention as follows

Inaugural Message to the California State Legislature by Edmund G. Brown, Governor, Delivered to the Senate and Assembly in Joint Session, January 7, 1963

Mr President, Mr Speaker, Mr Chief Justice, fellow constitutional officers, Members of the Legislature, my fellow Californians·

Since we met here four years ago, many historic changes have taken place in this growing, golden State First among them is California's emergence as the largest of the 50 states of the union The western rim of a continent, which a century ago was as much legend as land to a handful of pioneers, now assumes the role of leader on that continent.

Leadership is never an unmixed blessing I know there are those among us who yearn for things as they used to be, or at least as we see them now through the haze of memory Who does not sometimes share a longing for the day when the only cars on the silver hills of my native San Francisco were cable cars? Who did not mourn the passing of a San Diego youngster's lizard preserve?

But nostalgia has never been a way of life for Californians

We have always been pioneers and sons of pioneers, a vigorous, dynamic people who respect tradition, but scorn the status quo

Through the turmoil of change, and sometimes chaos, Californians have pressed on toward the good society—not for the few, not for the many, but for all

Offered chances to lie at anchor, we have chosen full sail Offered comfort, we have chosen challenge Offered leisure, we have chosen the extra effort that meets not only present but future needs

In the spirit of California's history then, we are here today to bear a lantern for the future, not carry a torch for the past

We are here to prove that a civilization which can create a machine to fulfill a job can create a job to fulfill a man

The world now looks to California as a beachhead on the future, with all the future's promises—and perils

You and I are here to help realize the promises and to diminish the perils

The last four years have demonstrated that we have resolve and resources in abundance.

Under the banner of responsible liberalism, we have moved strongly and confidently

The California Water Project, which once threatened to divide our state, now unites it

We are on schedule with a bold program to duplicate in ten short years a tuition-free system of higher education which already is the best in the world.

Our public schools have begun shoring up their curricula to meet the stern demands of an age in which the only public cost greater than education is ignorance

Men and women of all races are guaranteed equal access to jobs under a law you and I wrote together four years ago

We have new master plans not only for education but for highways and parks, hospitals and mental health clinics

Our social welfare programs place new emphasis on the principle that those receiving public assistance want a chance for honest work, not government charity for life

Our social insurance programs for the unemployed, sick and injured, have been returned to their earlier proud position in the vanguard of the states

The economy which supports all these programs, and is, in turn, supported by them, leads the Nation

In the last four years we have created more new jobs in more new enterprises than any other state Our personal income has risen far faster than that in the rest of the Nation And our leadership in research and the technology of the new space industry is measured by the envy of other great states which failed to make the public investments in education, water, highways, recreation and other government services which nourish and sustain our leadership

Let me underscore that all this has been done with sound, prudent financing. Fiscal responsibility has been, and must continue to be, our first concern

My annual budget message will be delivered to you later this month, but I assure you now that once again it will be balanced, that it will call for tax reforms but no new or higher taxes; and that it will honor my pledge to seek elimination of income taxes for families of four or more now earning less than $5,700 a year

I list these achievements not out of complacency, but as a reminder that we have reason to be confident of our ability to build and advance together

The tasks of the last four years have not been easy, but the years ahead offer no easier problems or simpler solutions. And from this inaugural vantage point, it seems to me that the very accomplishments of the past may obscure the difficulty of the tasks ahead.

In 1959, there was a great and growing consensus on our highest priority problems and their solutions

We differed on details, but most Californians agreed then that we needed more revenues, a state water plan, a fair employment practices act—and a good many other things now achieved

With the old priorities behind us, however, I am not certain that we have reached a similar community of understanding, a comparable consensus on the new priorities before us.

Progress now, more than before, calls for bold, controversial leadership

Let me say now that I intend to offer such leadership And I therefore will invite and expect disagreement, not for its own sake, but for the health of our commonwealth

When there is no consensus, only urgency, I will speak out.

I will not seek controversy, but I will not fear it.

My concern is not with personal prestige, but with public progress.

My concern is not with special interests, but with the general interest.

If members of this legislature or the citizens of California disagree, I will respect that disagreement, but I will continue to press the issue toward consensus and resolution

The legislative process not only achieves, it educates. Let you and me and the people of California learn from one another by speaking out of the fullness of our experience and conviction.

The greater the debate, the more thorough the education, and the more effective the workings of our democratic process.

I will now indicate, briefly, the principal areas of challenge and my proposals for resolving those challenges The details will be spelled out in subsequent special messages and specific legislation I will submit to you in the near future

I.

Again, as in the past, I assign first priority to public education, with the emphasis on primary and secondary schools

No other major state can claim a higher percentage of college graduates or a lower percentage of high school drop-outs, yet the shocking fact remains that one in four of our children does not finish high school We clearly still have a tremendous task ahead of us.

Perhaps the most crucial area of reform, and the most difficult, is in the method of financing public education.

Too many taxpayers in too many districts now bear a disproportionate burden of school costs We must legislate further means of tax equalization I will again recommend to you enactment of a county-wide equalization formula, and propose, further, that all new state funds for education go into equalization rather than basic assistance The state, using its broader tax base, should help ease the property taxpayers' burden, and I pledge that we will provide substantial new state contributions in the forthcoming budget

Next, to guarantee that we do not train our young men and women for occupations that may no longer exist after they graduate, we must overhaul our entire system of vocational training, adding a new and higher level of technological instruction

Many vocational courses have not been changed in 20 or 30 years and are wasteful of both parents' dollars and students' time Updating of such courses will reduce drop-outs and guarantee our youth a greater degree of job security

For those who already have left high school without graduating, I propose a pilot youth conservation work program which will combine outdoor work with an opportunity for additional education

We must also give special attention to children who live in an economic atmosphere hostile to learning. Too often the rate of accomplishment in low income area schools is far below what it could be

We must assume responsibility for helping local districts develop special assistance programs for the culturally disadvantaged in both urban and rural settings

I will also ask you to approve funds to improve library services throughout the state, and I will submit legislation to create a statewide educational television network The latter is an urgent need, particularly in meeting the requirement that all public schools begin teaching a foreign language in the school year of 1965

II

Despite our achievements of the past four years, there is another area in which action is critically needed With nearly 90 of every 100 Californians today living in a city or a suburb, it is clear that our state can only be as healthy and strong as our cities

I therefore propose that we give a high priority for action in the next four years to those problems which state government shares with government at the local level

Until recent years, Americans were free to push west and build new cities when the old became too crowded or too blighted But California is the last frontier It is here or nowhere, now or never, that men will stand up to the challenge of the city

As we move to meet the challenge, let us remember that cities are not civic centers or planning maps, but men, women and children It is not the city that suffers from smog but people

It is not the city that is cheated of a full, rich life by slums, it is the people who live in the city

Many local governments in California are moving with imagination and vigor to meet the challenge of the city

Where they fail, the reason often can be summed up in three words Too much government Overlapping agencies of government breed waste and inefficiency as surely as slums breed crime. Yet there is no law to curb such abuses of home rule as the formation of cities solely to avoid taxes on industrial property Therefore, I urge you to enact laws to end the haphazard formation of new cities and service districts

I ask you again to approve legislation under which units of local government would join to provide various services on a regional basis

To lead fuller lives, urban citizens need fast, safe transportation to and from work Three San Francisco Bay area counties have approved a rapid transit system which will set the pace for the entire nation The Metropolitan Transit Authority of Los Angeles has completed plans for a 58-mile rapid transit system to serve that area During this session, the MTA will ask for changes in its enabling act to permit a limited taxing power to clear the way for construction I have studied the proposal and find it sound I urge you to approve it The people of Los Angeles need it

The people of our cities need sound land planning to protect neighborhoods, encourage industrial growth and preserve open space Most local governments now have master plans but they stop at the county line I urge you to enact laws which will encourage regional planning.

Under present laws, city governments often pay bonus prices for new schools, roads, parks and sewage systems because a minority of voters have the power to block approval of bond issues I urge that you take steps to cut the affirmative votes needed to pass a locally-sponsored bond issue from 66⅔ per cent to 60 per cent.

Decent housing is fundamental to decent cities During the next 18 years, California must build more than 5,000,000 residential units to provide adequate housing for our growing population

The Governor's Advisory Commission on Housing Problems will release a report soon which documents disturbing trends in California housing, and offers concrete proposals for reversing those trends. I urge you to study the report I will send you a separate message asking for specific action at a later date

III.

We will reach the ambitious goals we have set for ourselves only if we exploit to the fullest our economic potential In order to achieve full employment, we must accelerate our efforts to attract new industries; to maintain a secure and skillful work force; create new foreign and domestic markets for the products of our farms and factories, and maintain our first rank in tourism.

To this end, I propose creation of the Office of California Development which will combine the present functions of the Economic Development Agency and the World Trade Authority and undertake new efforts to promote California tourism, both in this country and abroad

Development of the European Common Market, and the opportunities and perils it poses for California agriculture and industry, require that we extend and expand our efforts to win new markets Tourism, already one of California's major industries, will similarly benefit from central planning and direction.

To prepare the work force for our rapidly shifting technology, I propose that our present Committee on Automation and Technological Developments be given statutory recognition as a full commission

Its labors can, and will, insure that higher productivity does not mean a lower standard of living It would determine the new skills we will need in the future to insure that California's work force remains equal to the demands of the space age

I believe, too, that we must increase social insurance minimums, and move more vigorously to retrain the disabled worker as well as the worker displaced by automation

To this end, I will propose a grouping and expansion of all vocational rehabilitation functions in state government in a single department in the Health and Welfare Agency.

IV.

As in so many fields of government, California is pioneering new methods of treatment for the mentally ill, our number one health problem I ask you today to extend the programs under which we have reduced the number of mentally ill in our hospitals and increased the number of patients who are able to live useful productive lives in their own communities

To that end, I will submit legislation to increase the state's contribution to new local mental health programs under the Short-Doyle Act from the present 50 percent to 75 percent

California also pioneers in welfare programs During the first term of this administration, new emphasis was placed on rehabilitation of people on government assistance and the results are gratifying I anticipate major recommendations for further changes in the content and administration of our welfare programs in the final report of the Governor's Commission on Social Welfare Problems I will submit a special message dealing with those recommendations after I have analyzed the report

V.

Four years ago, we created the Office of Consumer Counsel to protect the public from fraud and other abuses in the market place It has been an effective guardian of the public interest

But important areas remain in which the legislative process can be brought to bear to give the consumer still further protections

It is my personal conviction that present statutes governing interest rates are obsolete—that the public pays too high an interest premium Many home owners lose, rather than gain by early repayment of loans I believe maximum interest rates for charge accounts and other loans are also excessive and I urge that you re-examine existing law in this field

I am equally convinced that the cost of natural gas is too high and that we have a responsibility to implement demands for lower rates

We must also address ourselves to reforms in the savings and loan industry

We must apply greater control both to the issuance of charters and to the operating practices of savings and loan associations

VI

California is the most beautiful state in this nation Because we hold this resource in trust for the future, it is not ours to conserve or squander as we see fit. I propose several steps to make sure we are not as reckless with this asset in the future as we have been in the past

When a man throws an empty cigarette package from an automobile in California, he is liable to a fine of $50 When a man throws a billboard across a view, he is liable to be richly rewarded I believe that litter and clutter can both destroy beauty I ask you, therefore, to apply strict controls on the placement of billboards This one step alone will produce great dividends in scenic beauty which is now hidden from the people

Winston Churchill has said "We shape our buildings and then our buildings shape us" If this were literally true, the people of California in this generation would be a curious collection I do not believe good design and economy are incompatible I do believe the State of California must take the lead in a campaign to improve the quality of architecture in this state, both public and private

I intend to insist on the highest quality of design for state buildings and I urge your cooperation toward that end

One of the most important elements in the construction of our 5,000-mile scenic highway system will be the preservation of natural landscape along the system's route To aid in this venture, I ask you to amend state laws to permit the purchase of scenic easements which would serve our purpose at a considerable saving of taxpayers' money

I urge you to place a bond issue on the 1964 ballot for the purchase of park and beach land for future development The supply of land, especially along our coastline, once seemed endless in California It now seems meager when measured against the growth in future years Last year, 4,000,000 people used our state parks In just 20 years, that figure will reach 11,000,000

I will send detailed recommendations to you for a park and beach program and the methods of financing it in the near future

I believe, also, that the state should actively foster interest and participation in the performing and graphic arts in California I will support legislation for that purpose

In 1962, California agriculture grossed $3 billion for the fourth consecutive year and we must be vigilant to protect our position as the nation's leading farm state

One major aid to agriculture is the California Water Project Not only will it make new supplies available for farming, it will furnish water for new industries and millions of new residents who will provide expanded markets for food and fiber

I believe water development must be pursued at all levels of government, federal, state and local For that reason, I urge you to encourage local district development by further liberalizing the Davis-Grunsky Act

I also ask you to take new steps to broaden the guarantee of pure water in California I propose that the State Water Pollution Control Board and the nine regional boards be consolidated under one State Water Quality Control Board

This administration intends to give high priority to fish and wildlife development wherever water projects are built Further, under the Porter-Dolwig Act, we will continue to improve ground water levels in the Central Valley, the coastal area and Southern California.

VIII.

In the field of highway safety, my proposals are not new to you I have made them repeatedly and earnestly. I will continue to offer them as long as I am Governor.

In the year just past, more than 4,000 persons met violent death in traffic accidents in California—a senseless and shameful slaughter Every year, the growing toll gives a new urgency to the problem

Once again, I ask that you permit radar speed control by the California Highway Patrol; the use of a trial number of patrol cars without distinguishing markings, and chemical tests in drunk driving cases I urge also that seat belts be made mandatory in all automobiles

IX.

There has been no overall revision of our substantive criminal law during the 90 years since the California Penal Code was adopted and no overall revision of criminal procedure in 35 years. The mass of court decisions required to interpret the code since 1872 should alone indict its contents.

I urge the Legislature to take the initiative in this vital work to assure California a forward, enlightened and just criminal law with fair and expeditious procedures

Two years ago, you enacted the most advanced narcotics control laws in the Nation, which are now the model for other states But increased penalties for narcotics sales have forced many peddlers to turn to the sale of dangerous drugs I therefore urge you to recognize that the peddler of dangerous drugs is a threat equal to the peddler of narcotics and to make the penalties for their sale comparable to the penalties for illegal sale of narcotics

The program of compulsory treatment for addicts which we enacted in 1961 is proving itself a valuable weapon in the fight against narcotics I ask you now to amend the law to permit confinement of persons under the age of 18 for treatment now available only to adults

I am, as you know, concerned that our present legal definition of insanity is obsolete in the light of advanced scientific knowledge A distinguished commission has recommended changes and I will present specific proposals to you at a later time

You are all aware of my position on capital punishment I do not believe it deters crime I do believe it degrades man

In almost 20 years in public life—as District Attorney, as Attorney General, as Governor—I have upheld my sworn duty to enforce the death penalty But, with the passing of time, my own conviction has grown stronger that capital punishment affronts the conscience of man Most often we execute the felon whose skin is darker than our own—whose position in life is lower than our own And, to our shame, we let live the felon whose crime we believe less odious because he is more like us

I will ask this Legislature to enact at least a moratorium on capital punishment, substituting for it the sentence of life imprisonment without possibilty of parole and retaining the death penalty only where necessary to protect the staffs and inmates of our penal institutions

. On January 1, 1863, an order signed by President Lincoln promised all slaves in warring states that they would be "forever free" One hundred years and one week have passed since the Emancipation Proclamation became law In conscience, we cannot say today that we have redeemed Lincoln's promise

Four years ago, you and I prohibited discrimination in employment because of race, creed or national origin, but further action is now necessary

I ask you to strengthen and extend existing law against discrimination in housing by expanding the Fair Employment Practices Commission into a Human Rights Commission with authority to move against discriminatory practices in housing

In the same spirit, we must work to eliminate de facto segregation in our public schools and I promise to give the State Board of Education my full support in its efforts in that direction

This spring, I will issue an executive order to all state administrators in the form of a "Governor's Code of Fair Practices" Its intent will be to wipe out all vestiges of discrimination in state government In addition, I urge you to require all persons and businesses licensed by the state to adopt strict policies against discrimination.

XI

I recommend most strongly, that we turn our attention to the code governing political activity in California Most of our laws are a half-century old, written in the Hiram Johnson administration to correct abuses which no longer exist Their practical effect today is to inhibit rather than encourage broader participation in our political life.

The excessive cost of the recent campaigns for both major parties is evidence that an overhaul of our political procedures is long overdue.

As a further step toward election reform, I believe we must enact a purity of elections statute which would require that candidates report not only a list of contributors but the amount of each contribution

Finally, I urge that California become one of the first states in the nation to ratify the proposed Amendment to the United States Constitution, which outlaws the poll tax in all states.

XII.

State government and the rules under which it operates need constant re-examination and revision to remain responsive to the will of the electorate

We have taken massive strides toward the streamlining of state government in the last two years, and I plan to seek your approval of another series of major reorganization steps at this session.

We should also proceed with the simplification of the State Constitution through methods made available by voter approval of Proposition 7 in November

We must act in this session to establish reasonable exceptions to sovereign immunity of the state and local governments against damage suits, but we must also establish careful limits

The potential added cost to the taxpayers of services provided by the state will otherwise mount many millions of dollars annually

I also ask again for an end to a special privilege written into our condemnation statutes Under present law, utility property needed for water projects is given special status, which results in excessive costs, delays, and difficulties in obtaining such property.

I ask that the present law be repealed, and that such condemnation proceedings be carried out exactly as when non-utility property is needed for water project development

In concluding this series of recommendations, I offer one more that could easily prove to be of transcendent importance in the modern history of California.

Our present structure of taxation at the city, county and state levels is based on relationships determined decades ago

This system, in my judgment, now places too great a share of the burden on local property taxpayers and often distributes that burden unevenly

As a result, local school districts, cities and counties have turned increasingly to the state to finance or help collect the taxes for what they themselves recognize as local responsibilities and functions

In many cases, citizens can no longer identify the taxes they pay with the purpose for which they are spent, or the officials charged with their expenditure

For these and many other equally pressing reasons, I will ask the Legislature to join with me in establishing a joint Tax Commission to undertake a comprehensive review of our entire tax structure and to recommend reforms and revisions which will adjust it to a new era of California history

The Commission should advise us before the 1964 election of what constitutional amendments should be presented to the people at that time

By 1965 we should be ready to meet this great and overriding problem on a mutually informed basis

You have heard my proposals for new legislation—my assignments of priority for the long session before us The Legislature will initiate programs of its own in these and other areas

In the system of checks and balances traditional to our government, we may often disagree

But I am confident we will agree more often than we will disagree. And I say this in the presence of legislators of the opposite political party brief weeks after one of the most vigorous political campaigns in the history of our state

We are partisans but we are also men of good will and common dedication. In the session before us, we may argue the best method of doing a thing that is good for California but we must never argue the necessity for doing it.

In whatever partisan disputes we may have, the people of this state are a vital third party and must always have the last word

Let me conclude by saying that the future all men want—a productive life in harmony with neighbor and nature—will not be wrought in our lifetime. The clock of man's destiny ticks off centuries, not seconds

But here and now we can put our hands to good work What we do here may not have its full impact on our own lives Our children and their children will be the better judges of what we do

They will measure our actions by the security of the lives they live; by the wisdom they acquire; by the way they invest their leisure; by the quality of the very air they breathe

Let us accept no limitations except those of our own imagination and enterprise. Let us say This golden state—a symbol of man's striving toward a better life—shall not only lead our nation, but deserve to lead, in the challenging time before us Let us determine, with God's guidance, to be equal to this splendid prospect.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev Robert R Ferguson

Eternal God, Our Creator

"When we consider Thy heavens, the moon and the stars which Thou hast ordained, what is man that Thou are mindful of him?"

We thank Thee that through revelation we know that we have been created in Thy spiritual image Thus Thou hast made it possible for us to have communion and fellowship with Thee, the eternal love maker

Since each of us is in Thy image, this gives us the price tag of infinite worth Help us to realize this in our dealings with one another, especially those with whom we may disagree

As throughout this day we face problems and react to people, may we never lose this sense of human value and dignity and from this beginning may all of our actions proceed

We pray in the name of Christ, the Son of man —AMEN

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS

Mr Arthur A Ohnimus
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento

DEAR MR OHNIMUS On April 19, 1962, I acknowledged receipt of House Resolution No 23, which was introduced by Assemblyman Lanterman and adopted by the Assembly on April 12, 1962 The resolution, in short, urges the California Highway Commission, in the matter of highway route adoptions, to give as much consideration to the long-range economic impact of proposed highway routes on local government as is given to factors of traffic service and economics Full text of the resolution appears on pages 48 and 49 of the Assembly Daily Journal for April 11, 1962

At the time this resolution was read to members of the California Highway Commission the opinion was expressed that the text of the resolution was to a certain extent in agreement with established procedures of the commission and that the Assembly should be informed of this fact Accordingly, the following is submitted to the Assembly as relating to the intent of Assemblyman Lanterman's resolution

(1) The State Highway Engineer, at the initiation of studies to determine a highway route location, is required to call to the attention of the appropriate local governing bodies, in writing, their privilege in having factual data presented regarding the effect the selection of any alternate route might have upon community values This includes, but is not limited to property values, state and local public facilities, and city street and county highway traffic

(2) The State Highway Engineer is required, in the instance of a highway route adoption, to submit to the commission a written report covering the results of conferences and meetings with the local governing bodies including the relationship of all proposed alternate highway locations with any master or general plans of the affected local agencies and, in particular, to report any information obtained regarding the economic effect of the highway routes under consideration upon community values

(3) At any public hearing for highway route adoption held by the State Highway Engineer or his authorized representative, material transmitted by an affected city or county bearing on the subject of community values is required to be orally presented by the person conducting the hearing to permit transcript for permanent record and invite discussion

The object of these procedural requirements of the commission is to assure that the engineer representatives of the Highway Division grant adequate time and weight to the public presentation of factual data concerning the economic impact of a proposed route on a locality as compared with the time and emphasis given to economics and the so-called driver benefit rates

The House resolution is pertinent in that it emphasizes the importance of "community values" aspect of highway route planning and illustrates the interest of the Assembly in this field Copies of the resolution are being circularized in the Division of Highways

ROBERT B BRADFORD

State Capitol, Sacramento

DEAR MR OHNIMUS I have the honor to transmit herewith Appendix B, "Safe Yield Determinations," a portion of Bulletin No 104, "Planned Utilization of the Ground Water Basins of the Coastal Plain of Los Angeles County"

Appendix B presents results of a comprehensive hydrologic study of the Coastal Plain of Los Angeles County These results summarize the detailed studies of the seasonal amounts of each of the items of water supply, use, and disposal of surface and ground water, and the seasonal change in the amounts of ground water in storage This information was used to develop estimates of seasonal overdraft and safe yield for the Coastal Plain under the physical conditions that prevailed in 1957 and 1961

The information in this appendix will be utilized during the operational phase of the overall investigation of planned utilization of the ground water basins of the Coastal Plain of Los Angeles County The results of this comprehensive hydrologic study provide a firm base from which the operational study may proceed towards the goal of optimum management of these ground water basins

Bulletin No. 107—Recommended Well Construction and Sealing Standards for Protection of Ground Water Quality in West Coast Basin, Los Angeles County

THE RESOURCES AGENCY OF CALIFORNIA
DEPARTMENT OF WATER RESOURCES
SACRAMENTO, November 29, 1962

Hon Arthur A Ohnimus

DEAR MR OHNIMUS I am pleased to transmit for the information of the California State Assembly, Bulletin No 107 of the Department of Water Resources, entitled "Recommended Water Well Construction and Sealing Standards for the Protection of Ground Water Quality in West Coast Basin, Los Angeles County" The investigation was conducted under authority of Section 231 of the Water Code and at the request of interested agencies operating in the county.

This is one of a series of reports designed to formulate and recommend water well construction and sealing standards for particular localities of the State where regulation is deemed necessary for the protection of ground water quality. In the West Coast Basin, Los Angeles County, where no such regulation exists, many water wells, which have been constructed improperly or sealed inadequately, are contributing to quality impairment of ground water by allowing interchange of water between aquifers The report concludes that water well construction and sealing standards must be employed The standards presented are based on physical conditions and well construction practices found in the West Coast Basin, Los Angeles County, and supplement the minimum standards presented in Bulletin No 74, entitled "Recommended Minimum Well Construction and Sealing Standards for the Protection of Ground Water Quality, State of California"

The report recommends that the Los Angeles Regional Water Pollution Control Board, local agencies, local water producers, and water well drillers accept these standards, and apply them in a manner that will assist them in preserving and improving the quality of the common ground water supply

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM E WARNE, Director

Bulletin No. 74—Recommended Minimum Well Construction and Sealing Standards for Protection of Ground Water Quality, State of California—Preliminary Edition, July, 1962

SACRAMENTO, December 12, 1962

State Capitol, Sacramento

DEAR MR OHNIMUS I have the honor to transmit herewith a copy of Department of Water Resources Bulletin No 74 entitled "Recommended Minimum Well Construction and Sealing Standards for Protection of Ground Water Quality, State of California—Preliminary Edition," dated July, 1962

This report was prepared under authority of Section 231 of the Water Code, and presents recommendations for minimum standards for water well construction and for sealing of wells

The protection of the quality of our ground waters becomes increasingly necessary in view of the developing demands on our ground water basins as a primary source of supply and their anticipated use in conjunctive operation with surface waters Adequate standards for the construction and sealing of water wells contribute to the protection of ground water quality by preventing the movement of poor quality waters from one aquifer to another. Although there are local regulations in some counties and cities in California, there are no regulations which provide for minimum standards of construction and sealing of water wells on a statewide basis

It is believed that the minimum standards recommended in this report may provide a basis for future legislation However, to be of value, these recommendations must be able to stand the test of public opinion Accordingly, this report is issued in preliminary form to serve as a guide to good practice for those engaged in the drilling of wells, and to assist those communities and counties promulgating well construction ordinances After sufficient time has elapsed, the Department of Water Resources will conduct hearings throughout the State prior to issuing these standards in final form This procedure should take approximately two years and is set forth in the preface of the report

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM E WARNE, Director

Commending General Kenneth B Wolfe

WHEREAS, It is fitting that the Legislature pay tribute to General Kenneth B Wolfe, outstanding American patriot who has served well his Country in a time of dire crisis and who, after his retirement, has contributed his vast knowledge to private enterprise, and

WHEREAS, General Wolfe was born in Denver, Colorado on August 12, 1896 of George Frank Wolfe and Selma Wilhelmina (Franzen) Wolfe, and

WHEREAS, General Wolfe graduated in 1915 from San Diego High School, and

WHEREAS, General Wolfe's military career began as a Flying Cadet in 1918 and culminated as a Lieutenant General in 1951, and

WHEREAS, After many and varied peacetime assignments between 1918 and 1941, including service in the Philippines, the Second World War found him in the position of Assistant Chief, and later Chief, of the Production Division of the Air Materiel Command, and

WHEREAS, With the birth of the Boeing B-29, the famed aerial raider which dropped the atomic bomb on Japan, General Wolfe was put in complete charge of the B-29 program by General H "Hap" Arnold to expedite production at a time when production was lagging and the planes were badly needed as a striking arm of America's potent weapons arsenal; and

WHEREAS, General Wolfe's energy and organizational ability soon had increased the production of the B-29 to meet military needs, and General Wolfe, the "Father of the B-29," was named Commanding General of the 20th Bomber Command, the first B-29 organization to bomb Japan from bases in China and India, and

WHEREAS, After the Second World War, General Wolfe commanded the Materiel Command, served overseas as the Commander of the Fifth Air Force during the occupation of Korea and Japan, and at the time he retired from active duty in 1951, General Wolfe was Deputy Chief of Staff, Materiel, for the Air Force, and

WHEREAS, After retirement from the military service, General Wolfe entered private business as President of the Oerlikon Tool and Arms Company and in 1957, he became Vice President and Special Assistant to the President of the Garrett Corporation, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly commend General Kenneth B Wolfe for his many years of invaluable service to his Country as a soldier and to private enterprise as an executive and wish him continued good health and success in all future endeavors, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk is hereby directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to General Kenneth B Wolfe, Mrs Edwina Ray Wolfe, his wife, and to his daughter

Memorializing United States Senator Robert S Kerr

WHEREAS, The Members of the Assembly of the State of California were greatly saddened to hear of the death on January 1, 1963, of United States Senator Robert S Kerr, a man who was honored and respected not only in his home state of Oklahoma but throughout our Country, and

WHEREAS, Robert S Kerr was born 66 years ago in Ada, Oklahoma, where he spent his childhood and learned the many skills that formed the foundation of his long career as an executive and businessman in the vital oil and gas industry and later, as a distinguished leader and representative of the citizens of Oklahoma and the United States, and

WHEREAS, He began his career in 1922 when he was admitted as an attorney to the Oklahoma State Bar and thereafter he turned to drilling wells and producing oil in the then infant oil and gas industry where he formed, and later became Chairman of, Kerr-McGee Oil Industries, Inc and a partner in the firm of Kerr-McGee and Co , and

WHEREAS, Not content to remain merely a successful businessman, he entered political life and sought, and was elected to, the office of Governor of Oklahoma in 1943 , and

WHEREAS, Under his leadership Oklahoma prospered and in recognition of his many services to his party he was asked to give the keynote speech at the 1944 Democratic National Convention , and

WHEREAS, In 1947 he was elected by the people of Oklahoma as their United States Senator, an office which he retained, and in which he served with energy and effectiveness, until his death , and

WHEREAS, As Senator from Oklahoma Robert Kerr was widely respected and well known in many legislative fields, including those of water—where he served as Chairman of the 1949 Senate Select Committee on National Water Resources , space—where he served as Chairman of the Senate Space Committee and sought to speed our space program and better provide for the national security, communication, weather forecasting and control, and rivers, harbors and flood control—where he was Chairman of the Rivers and Harbors Subcommittee of the Senate Public Works Committee and was instrumental in the undertaking of many federal public works projects , now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That its members express their sorrow at the passing of Senator Robert S Kerr and extend their deepest sympathies to the members of his family , and be it further

Relative to the death of Judge Peter J Shields

WHEREAS, The Members of the Assembly were saddened to learn of the death on September 28, 1962, of Judge Peter J Shields, one of California's great citizens, and

WHEREAS, Judge Shields was born on April 4, 1862—the second year of Abraham Lincoln's presidency—of pioneer parents, on the family homestead at Hangtown Crossing, California, a long obliterated Sacramento suburb , and

WHEREAS, At the age of 17, Judge Shields was graduated from the Christian Brothers College in Sacramento, and then studied law in the office of Judge Amos P. Catlin, a distinguished jurist , and

WHEREAS, In his twenties he was forced to abandon his law practice for a few years because of illness , and on regaining his health he continued thereafter throughout his life the austere way of living that he adopted during such illness, following an extremely simple diet and never smoking or drinking , and

WHEREAS, He was successively Private Secretary to Governor James H Budd, Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, and law partner of Hiram W Johnson ; and

WHEREAS, In 1900, at the age of 38, Judge Shields was elected to the superior court bench in Sacramento, on which he served with distinction for almost 50 years, longer than any other judge in the history of California, and

WHEREAS, In 1901, Judge Shields married the lovely Carolee Wiltsie of Sacramento, who remained his devoted wife throughout his life, and

WHEREAS, Judge Shields was always a vigorous partisan of young people, was active in promoting and establishing the Boy Scout Movement in the Sacramento area, and pioneered many of the modern techniques for dealing humanely and justly with young delinquents, and

WHEREAS, Judge Shields never sought high political office, believing that his life and service belonged to the people of Sacramento County, and

WHEREAS, Of all his accomplishments Judge Shields was most proud of being known as the Father of the College of the University of California at Davis, which he founded, almost single-handed, in 1906, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of this Assembly express their deep regret at the passing of Judge Peter J. Shields and extend their sincere condolences to his family and many friends, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Mrs. Carolee Shields

Commending Karl Holton

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Assembly of the State of California that Mr Karl Holton will retire from his position as Chief Probation Officer of Los Angeles County after 34 years of dedicated public service to his community, our State and this Nation, and

WHEREAS, Karl Holton's long professional career first began in 1928, when he was employed by Los Angeles County as a Deputy Probation Officer, and

WHEREAS, From this modest beginning he advanced to the position of Chief Probation Officer for Los Angeles County in 1938, was appointed a member of the California Youth Correction Authority in 1941, and was appointed the first Director of the then new California Youth Authority in 1943, with which he remained until 1952, thereafter, at the invitation of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, returning to his former post as Chief Probation Officer of that county, and

WHEREAS, Mr Holton's innumerable contributions to the citizens of this State our Country and the world in the difficult and complex but most essential field of corrections work reflect his humanitarianism and concern for the welfare of his fellow man, and

WHEREAS, He has been a major contributor to the excellent correctional system of our State by assisting in the effecting of reforms and improvements of the Los Angeles correctional program, including the organization of the world's first forestry camps for boys, through his service as a member of several professional groups and advisory bodies on youth problems in Los Angeles, by aiding in the organization of the Department of Corrections and the State Recreation Department and in the reorganization of the Department of Mental Hygiene, and by exhibiting great leadership and foresight while a member of such distinguished bodies as the Governor's Advisory Committee on Children and Youth and the State Board of Corrections, and

WHEREAS, Karl Holton's activities have extended beyond the boundaries of this State through his counseling the States of Washington and New York and the City of New York with respect to improving their correctional systems, while serving three times as a delegate to the White House Conference on Youth and Children, and in representing the United States as its delegate to the United Nations Congress on Crime and Delinquency in 1955, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That its members hereby commend and thank Mr Karl Holton for his many and distinguished services on behalf of the people of this State and elsewhere, and hope that in all his future endeavors he will enjoy the fullest of happiness and success, and be it further

Relating to first transcontinental railroad

WHEREAS, January 8, 1863, marked the beginning of construction of the Central Pacific Railroad Company of California, the western portion of the Great Pacific Railroad which was designed to span the continent as a great lifeline across the United States, and

WHEREAS, Inaugural ceremonies were held in Sacramento on the corner of Front and K Streets on January 8, 1863, at which time Governor Leland Stanford, who, with Collis P Huntington, Charles Crocker, and Mark Hopkins had the foresight and the courage to begin this railroad, turned the first spade of earth to start actual construction of the Central Pacific Railroad, and

WHEREAS, This railroad tied the State of California to the rest of the United States and started the State of California on the path to economic and political greatness and made possible the early contributions of the State of California to our growing nation, and

WHEREAS, The Assembly of the State of California, in recognizing the great indebtedness of the State of California to the early pioneers who built this railroad, will honor them and all who participated with them in this tremendous Pacific Railroad project, by participation in the ceremonies which will honor the 100th Anniversary of the start of construction of this railroad in Sacramento on January 8th, 1863, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Assembly of the State of California do adjourn at 10:30 a.m. on January 8th, 1963, and attend as a body and participate in the ceremonies marking the 100th Anniversary of the beginning of construction of the first transcontinental railroad

Eternal God, Our Father. Many of us come to our strategic tasks as strangers with one another Let this be only a momentary experience May the inevitable walls of fear, uncertainty, and threats be dissolved In their place may an open hand and warm heart be present to receive each other in friendship and trust as we face our common responsibilities in these momentous hours

Give us the ability to disagree and yet not be disagreeable, to be relentless in seeking for the best solutions to problems—yet not intentionally destroy others in the process, to have a resilience of life enabling us to receive heavy blows, yet not be shattered

Give all of us grace to put the overall cause and well-being of the people of this State before our petty prides May these, Thy servants, truly be men to match our mountains

In the name of Christ, our Lord —AMEN

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Regional Development of Hospitals and Related Health Facilities in California

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH
BERKELEY, January 9, 1963

Hon Hugh M Burns, President pro Tempore
State Senate, Sacramento
State Assembly, Sacramento

GENTLEMEN · Attached is a report by the Southern California Hospital Planning Committee and the San Francisco Bay Area Regional Hospital Planning Committee, developed in compliance with Section 431 8, Chapter 1754, Statutes of 1961 The statute directed these committees to report their activities to the Legislature and to the Advisory Hospital Council

The State Advisory Hospital Council received the report December 6, 1962 and adopted the following resolution:

The California Advisory Hospital Council receives with appreciation the report of the Southern California Regional Hospital Planning Committee and the San Francisco Bay Area Regional Hospital Planning Committee, submitted in compliance with Section 431 8, Chapter 1754, Statutes of 1961

The activities and report of the committees will provide valuable assistance to the Advisory Hospital Council in statewide planning of hospitals and related health facilities The experience of these committees provides a sound basis for further development of planning methods involving greater local community participation

The council recognizes the tremendous volume of work involved in a study of community health needs and resources and appreciates the contributions of the committee members in the diligent consideration of these problems The development of a joint report containing viewpoints on which agreement of all members was achieved is especially appreciated. The council also recognizes the valuable assistance and service which the committees have provided local communities

The council agrees with the findings and recommendations of the committees The council is cognizant of the tremendous problems involved in the assessment of needs for health facilities and the development of effective planning objectives The council also recognizes the need for continuous study and looks forward to continuing relationship with regional planning committees, if the Legislature considers it desirable to extend the legislation

Respectfully submitted,

MALCOLM H MERRILL, M D
Director of Public Health and Chairman, State Advisory Hospital Council

GENTLEMEN: In compliance with the 1961 Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 72 relative to air pollution, I take pleasure in submitting this report, "The Diesel Vehicle and Its Role in Air Pollution." Resolution No. 72 directed the department to obtain data on pollutants and irritants from diesels and to define maximum allowable emissions for smoke, odorous compounds and other pollutants from diesel powered motor vehicles.

During the past several years, the Legislature has taken significant steps toward the control of motor vehicle emissions which are recognized as major contributors to photochemical smog in California. In 1959 it directed the State Department of Public Health to establish a state program to control emissions from vehicles and in 1960 it created the Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board to test and to approve control devices.

As will be noted in the ensuing report, much still needs to be learned about air pollution from diesels. Their exhaust cannot always be evaluated by the same procedures that are in present use for gasoline powered vehicles. Only limited data are available on emissions from diesels, their role in air pollution and their effects on health. Little is known about the control of the odorous compounds. Exact answers to these questions require additional investigation.

Nevertheless, it is known at this time that diesels present special kinds of air pollution problems, chiefly those concerned with smoke, odor and irritation of the eyes, nose and throat. Almost everyone, at one time or another, has been annoyed by the plumes of black smoke and the odor from diesels. Any statewide program to control the emissions from motor vehicles, therefore, must also take into account the special problems associated with the operation of diesel vehicles on our streets and highways.

Very sincerely yours,

MALCOLM H. MERRILL, M.D.
Director of Public Health

Above transmitted report referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Public Health.

Eternal God, Father of All Time, May this moment of prayer not be looked upon as "lost time." A lesson from life teaches that a football team will inevitably lose if its players become so involved in "the game" that they take no time for the "huddle" to get their signals We pray for these Assemblymen engaged in a game of life involving the welfare of millions of citizens for infinitely higher stakes May they not lose because business precludes a moment for gaining vision, and a real sense of destiny in serving in these perilous, yet potentially rewarding hours Allow our minute of prayer not to be looked upon as "time-out," but as an intensive "time-in" Let this be our "tuning in" for a sense of Thy direction, and our composure and our dedication for facing the demands of this day This we pray in the name of Him who came in the fullness of time —AMEN

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Carlos Bee, Mr Deukmejian then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag

The following resolutions were offered:

By Messrs Rumford, Bee, Crown, Petris, and Mulford:

House Resolution No. 23

Relative to the retirement of Sheriff Harold P. Gleason

WHEREAS, The Members of the Assembly of the State of California have learned of the retirement, on January 1, 1963, of one of the most able and distinguished men ever to hold office as a sheriff in this State, Sheriff Harold P. Gleason of Alameda County; and

WHEREAS, Sheriff Gleason, who is affectionately known as "Jack" by his many friends, was first elected by the people of Alameda County in 1940 and has held office for six successive terms; and

WHEREAS, This dedicated and devoted public servant is held in the highest esteem by the people of Alameda County and the State of California for his enviable record of outstanding innovations and achievements during his 23 years as sheriff, and

WHEREAS, Sheriff Gleason established the Santa Rita Rehabilitation Center, which has become a model for prison farm operation in the United States and which has the first women's division in a prison farm, first full-time psychiatrist, first nalline treatment program for narcotics addicts, and the first full-time chaplain in a county jail; and

WHEREAS, He was the first sheriff to adopt two-man patrol cars and hook them up with a two-way radio communication with the Department of Motor Vehicles in Sacramento for the recovery of stolen cars; the first sheriff to adopt a 40-hour week for field deputies; and the first sheriff to appoint a Negro or a woman as a captain; and

WHEREAS, He also established the first peace officers' training school for Northern California, established a county crime laboratory with a full-time criminologist, and published a jail manual which is used nationally under the sponsorship of the National Sheriffs Association, and

WHEREAS, Sheriff Gleason has served as President of the Peace Officers Association of California, President of the California State Sheriffs Association, and Chairman of Governor Warren's Law Enforcement Advisory Committee, and

WHEREAS, The exemplary record of Sheriff Gleason is an inspiration to all of the people of this State, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly take this means to offer their highest commendation to Sheriff Harold P Gleason for his many years of exemplary service to the people of Alameda County and the State of California and to wish him much happiness in his coming retirement, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Sheriff Harold P Gleason.

Request for Unanimous Consent

Mr Rumford was granted unanimous consent to take up House Resolution No 23 without reference to committee or file.

Resolution read, and adopted

NOTE On January 14, 1963, Assembly Journal, page 174, the Chief Clerk was authorized to make certain technical changes in House Resolution No 23.

By Mr. Knox:

Commending Kimberly Dakis

WHEREAS, In the summer of 1961, little Kimberly Dakis of Orinda, California, was acclaimed a heroine by the people of this State for her fast action which saved her father from probable death, and

WHEREAS, This seven-year-old girl, who weighs but 50 pounds, rescued her 215-pound father from drowning when no one else was nearby to give assistance, and

WHEREAS, After receiving a severe head injury from a dive in the backyard swimming pool at their home, Mr. Dakis was pulled to the shallow end of the pool by his daughter who then propped him against the side of the pool and ran for help, and

WHEREAS, The heroic action of this little girl which saved the life of her father deserves the highest recognition, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the members hereby commend Kimberly Dakis for her quick thinking and efficient action, and express their hope that she may be equally successful in all of her future undertakings; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Kimberly Dakis

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules.

The following letters of transmittal were presented by the Speaker and ordered printed in the Journal.

Letter of Transmittal
Final Report of the Welfare Study Commission

LOYALTON, CALIFORNIA, January 1, 1963

Hon. Jesse M. Unruh, Speaker

Pursuant to Section 143 10 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the Welfare Study Commission herewith submits its final report

The establishment of the commission reflected an awareness on the part of the Governor and the Legislature that public welfare has become over the years a major activity and responsibility of the State of California and its counties State and local operations in the welfare field must necessarily be influenced by the development of national policy as Congress reshapes the terms upon which the federal government will share the costs of certain categories of aid Nevertheless, there remain for determination in California questions of public welfare policy both difficult enough and significant enough to absorb our closest attention Yet, despite increasing public concern with the cost of welfare programs and frustration over their continuing proportions in a basically healthy economy, there has not been, before the work of the commission, another comparable effort, in California or elsewhere, to analyze systematically the needs, goals, and performance of a comprehensive set of public welfare programs

Our work has comprised two major areas first, we have sought to define the goals appropriate for public welfare in California, as set by the needs and expectations of our people and the fiscal resources of government; second, we have studied in depth current practices in welfare administration, so that where better management is possible reforms can be proposed

I cannot omit mention of the devotion to the public service shown by the members and staff of the commission in the course of this work, their willingness to invest endless hours in the study, their anxiety to find truly realistic answers to complex questions, and their good humor in controversy have made the tasks of the chairman unexpectedly light and pleasant

We hope that our study will contribute to California's continuing efforts to improve all its people's chances in the pursuit of happiness and a decent, productive life

Respectfully submitted,

WINSLOW CHRISTIAN, Chairman
Welfare Study Commission

Above transmitted report referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Social Welfare.

Objective Limits for Motor Vehicle Noise

CALIFORNIA HIGHWAY PATROL
SACRAMENTO, January 9, 1963

Hon. Jesse M Unruh
Speaker of the House
The State Assembly
Sacramento, California

DEAR SIR Section 27160 of the California Vehicle Code directed this department to develop standards and specifications for maximum permissible limits of motor vehicle exhaust noise for various classes of vehicles and to establish methods of determining compliance with such limits

In accordance with this directive the department contracted with Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc to conduct a comprehensive study of motor vehicle exhaust noise

Submitted herewith is a report which contains technical data from the test program in which more than 500 noise measurements were performed on a total of 26 passenger cars, sports cars, motorcycles, and trucks

The test program defined

(1) The noise produced by the test vehicles under various operating conditions
(2) The current practice and obtainable limits on truck muffling
(3) The minimum noise produced, exclusive of exhaust, by the various classes of vehicles operating under highway conditions

This report is presently being reviewed by representatives of the University of California, Institute of Transportation and Traffic Engineering, and the Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, Materials and Research Department, who will forward for our consideration their comments and recommendations

Very truly yours,

BRADFORD M CRITTENDEN, Commissioner

Above transmitted report referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Transportation and Commerce

By Mr Z'berg

Relative to the death of Earl Lee Kelly

WHEREAS, The Members of the Assembly have learned with deep regret of the death of Earl Lee Kelly on November 1, 1962, and

WHEREAS, Earl Lee Kelly, who was born in Riverton, Oregon, and raised and educated in California, graduating from the University of California in 1915, had been for many years a prominent figure in many phases of California life, and

WHEREAS, During World War I he served as a noncommissioned officer in the 12th Infantry, 8th Division, and

WHEREAS, He became President of the Shasta Title Company in Redding in 1919, a post in which he served until 1960, and from 1938 until he retired from the position in 1967, he was a Vice President of the Bank of America, and

WHEREAS, He was elected Mayor of the City of Redding in 1925 and was an active leader in the Republican Party of California, and

WHEREAS, He devoted many years of his life to energetic and distinguished state service, being named Chairman of the State Highway Commission in 1931 and State Director of Public Works in 1932, and serving as President of the California State Fair Board in 1956, 1959, and 1960, and

WHEREAS, His interests and activities were varied and widespread, reflecting his constant interest in civic, fraternal, and social affairs and in the welfare of his community, and included membership in the Sacramento City-County Chamber of Commerce, the Sacramento Rotary Club, the Commonwealth Club of San Francisco, the Sutter Club, the Del Paso Country Club, the St Francis Yacht Club of San Francisco, the Ben Ali Temple of the Shrine, the Bohemian Club of San Francisco, the Sacramento Riding Club and the Tennessee Walking Horse Breeders Association, the Sacramento County Horsemen's Association, the California Walnut Growers' Association, and the Carmichael Presbyterian Church, and

WHEREAS, He further demonstrated his unusual energy and leadership abilities by serving as President of the Sacramento City-County Chamber of Commerce, as President and a Director of the Sacramento Civic Theater, as a Trustee of the Sacramento State College, and as a Director of the San Francisco Theological Seminary, and

WHEREAS, Earl Lee Kelly was held in high esteem by all those who were privileged to know and work with him, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly wish to express their heartfelt sorrow at the passing of Earl Lee Kelly, and desire by this resolution to convey to his widow Mrs Elsie Kathryn Kelly, and the other members of his family their deepest sympathy, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Mrs Elsie Kathryn Kelly

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules.

House Resolution No. 28

Relative to congratulating the City of Pomona on its 75th Anniversary

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Assembly that the City of Pomona is celebrating its 75th birthday, having been incorporated on January 6, 1888, and

WHEREAS, In the early years, the people of Pomona turned thousands of acres of sagebrush into a verdant valley of oranges, lemons, avocados, and walnuts, and made their city one of the prime agricultural areas in California, with the largest county fair in the world; and

WHEREAS, Pomona's citizens always adjusting to the times, have now transformed their community into a modern financial, commercial, governmental and industrial center, and

WHEREAS, Its citizens have worked tirelessly to solve successfully their own problems, such as sewage disposal, water development and centralized transportation facilities, and

WHEREAS, With their spirit and self-sufficiency, Pomona's people have always taken care of their own, building a 400-bed hospital and fine recreational facilities, and

WHEREAS The City of Pomona has pioneered in such fields as off-street parking, railroad underpasses, mental health and, most recently, their new pedestrian mall which is fostering a downtown renaissance and serving as a model for cities all over the nation, and

WHEREAS, The people of Pomona have always cherished their independence, becoming a charter city in 1911 and forever upholding the principle of municipal home rule, and

WHEREAS, Pomona's leaders have always sought to advance the interests of the entire region and not only those of their own city, and

WHEREAS, The City of Pomona has grown to a population of 75,000 during its first 75 years, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of this Assembly congratulate the City of Pomona on its 75th birthday and commend its citizenry for their outstanding record of civic achievement and wish the city and its people a bright and prosperous future, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to the Mayor of the City of Pomona

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

Relating to congratulating Raymond B Johnson

WHEREAS, Raymond B Johnson, on December 31, 1962, completed a most enviable record of tireless devotion to public duty in the service of the citizens of the City of Martinez and County of Contra Costa for 35 years, and

WHEREAS, Raymond B Johnson, who was never defeated in any of the 16 elections he has entered for city, county, and Republican party offices, commenced his illustrious career with his election to the office of City Clerk of Martinez in 1924, an office that he ably held for 34 years, and

WHEREAS, He was appointed as Public Administrator of Contra Costa County in May, 1926, a responsibility he fulfilled until his retirement in 1962, including service as public administrator while a deputy to the county coroner when the two offices were consolidated, and

WHEREAS, His activities in public life, chosen as "a vocation—not avocation," also included service as a member of the Martinez City Council, as the Mayor of the City of Martinez, as the Secretary of the East Bay League of California Cities for two terms, and as State President of the Finance Officers of California, and

WHEREAS, Such service to the public is deserving of the highest acclamation and is truly worthy of emulation by all who would wish to aid in bettering their community and to help their fellow citizens, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly take this opportunity to salute Raymond B Johnson as a distinguished public servant who is to be most heartily congratulated on his most remarkable career of public service, and to wish him many happy years in his well deserved life of retirement, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Mr Johnson

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

By Messrs Cusanovich, Carrell, Waite, Thelin, Garrigus, Bane, and Conrad

House Resolution No. 30

Relating to the death of Dr Leo Wolfson

WHEREAS, The Members of the Assembly were grieved to learn of the passing of Dr Leo Wolfson, Vice President of San Fernando Valley State College, on October 23, 1962, and

WHEREAS, Dr Wolfson was born January 29, 1906, in Arizona, and was educated in Arizona receiving his baccalaureate degree from the University of Arizona, and

WHEREAS, Dr Wolfson came to California to attend the University of Southern California and received his Master of Science and Doctor of Education degrees, and

WHEREAS, Dr Wolfson, prior to his association with San Fernando Valley State College, was President of the Junior College at Reedley and Dean of Students and Director of Admissions and Records at Fresno State College, and

WHEREAS, Dr Wolfson and his devoted wife, Nell, were the parents of three children, James Wolfson of Fresno, William Wolfson of Oakland, and Mrs Cyma Russel of Wisconsin, and

WHEREAS, In addition to his service to education and his fine family life, Dr Wolfson was an outstanding citizen in other respects, having served his country in World War II as a navy air navigator, and having held at the time of his death the rank of Commander in the U S Naval Reserve, having served his community in Southern California by being active in civic affairs, and having been liaison representative to the San Fernando Valley Industrial Association, and

WHEREAS, Dr Wolfson was, above all, a man of high principles, loyal friendships, a kindly disposition, and a loyal defender of whatever he deemed to be right, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly express deep regret at the passing of Dr Leo Wolfson and extend heartfelt sympathy to his wonderful family, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit prepared copies of this resolution to Mrs Nell Wolfson, his widow, Mr William Wolfson and Mr James Wolfson, his sons, Mrs Cyma Russel, his daughter, and Mrs Ralph Goldman, his sister

PRAYER

Eternal God and Father, We know Thou art not only the God of outer space, but of our inner lives We pray this morning for a basic integrity We confess so often we wear masks to cover our inner shallowness We are often more interested in keeping up appearances, than in keeping up quality; more impressed with velocity than with a sense of direction, in being popular than in being right May the Light of Thy Truth dispel the darkness of our inner being and allow us to take off our masks and face the world of difficult decisions with an outer candidness, because through Thy grace we are inwardly secure.
In our Saviour's Name we pray.—AMEN.

January 15, 1963

Mr Arthur A Ohnimus

DEAR MR OHNIMUS It was my intention to waive one-half of my constitutional mileage on the opening of the 1963 Session, but through inadvertence this waiver was not put across the desk I want the record to show that I have waived my constitutional mileage.

F. DOUGLAS FERRELL

Hon Jesse M Unruh
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento

DEAR SPEAKER UNRUH AND MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY I wish to state that although I had waived my mileage to Sacramento for the legislative session, the check for the amount was inadvertently delivered to me Therefore I am returning the check

Very truly yours,

LESTER A MCMILLAN

Report of Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board

MOTOR VEHICLE POLLUTION CONTROL BOARD

Hon Edmund G Brown, Governor of California
and Members, California State Senate
and Members California State Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento

GENTLEMEN A report submitted by Surgeon General Luther L Terry at the National Conference on Air Pollution in Washington, D C., Dec 10 indicated that air pollution "may be costing the nation more than $7 billion each year" At the same time, the report went on to commend California for its program to reduce motor vehicle-created pollution

The California Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board is happy to be responsible for this pioneer program The board has made steady and encouraging progress since its organization in July, 1960 It wishes to acknowledge the dedication of individual members and the many private groups and individuals who have been associated with the board They have given encouragement, sound advice, and much of their time to the mutual goal of returning clean air to California We believe that with such leadership we have moved that goal closer

In accordance with the directive contained in Chapter 3, Section 24386 5 of the Health and Safety Code submitted herewith is the second Report of the Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board This report covers the activities, problems and accomplishments of the board during the period from January 1, 1961, to January 1, 1963

Respectfully submitted,

DR J B ASKEW, Chairman
Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board

Scope, Functions, and Procedures for the Coordinating Council for Higher Education

COORDINATING COUNCIL FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

Hon. Glenn M. Anderson
President of the Senate and Members of the Senate
Senate Chamber, Sacramento

Hon Jesse M Unruh
Speaker of the Assembly and
Members of the Assembly
Assembly Chamber, Sacramento

GENTLEMEN: Assembly Concurrent Resolution No 133, adopted at the 1961 Regular Session of the Legislature, directed the Trustees of the California State Colleges and the Coordinating Council for Higher Education to undertake a joint study of the subject matter of Assembly Bill No 504 of the 1961 Regular Session and of the need and feasibility for establishment of a State College in San Mateo County and to report to the 1963 Regular Session of the Legislature.

The Donahoe Higher Education Act (Education Code Section 22703) provides

"The Coordinating Council shall have the following functions, advisory to the governing boards of the institutions of public higher education and to appropriate state officials; . . (3) development of plans for the orderly growth of public higher education and the making of recommendations on the need for and location of new facilities and programs"

The act further provides, in Section 22501, that

"It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Legislature not to authorize or acquire sites for new institutions of public higher education unless such sites are recommended by the Coordinating Council for Higher Education.

In order to carry out these provisions, the council has adopted procedures requiring that any new proposals for institutions take into consideration, at a minimum, the following general factors

(1) The overall needs of the State for higher education;
(2) All existing facilities, both public and private, and
(3) The differentiation of functions as set forth in the Donahoe Act

The procedures of the council are presented in full in the attached document, pages 16-19

The council has also stated that new proposals will be governed by the following principle "Each new facility shall be located and established where the need is greatest for the proposed facility as delineated in the Master Plan for Higher Education and subsequent revisions, and where it will be of maximum service to the people of the State"

The Master Plan called for the Coordinating Council to undertake studies in 1965 and again in 1970, if applicable, to determine the need for new state colleges and new University facilities However, in light of A C R. 133 and other requests for the study of specific areas, a statewide study has been initiated by the council staff in co-operation with the staff of the Trustees of the California State Colleges and the University of California. The Department of Finance has been asked for certain new projections consisting of updated statistical series essential to any new study

The council study, which will be submitted to the Legislature not later than April 15 of this year, will consider not only the San Mateo area but other areas in the State as well

Sincerely,

JOHN R RICHARDS, Director

O God Who Art the Creator, Sustainer, and Redeemer of This Universe, We confess our dealing with legislation is like building castles of sand unless we have an adequate foundation We confess our need for a spiritual telescope which can penetrate beyond the low clouds and smog and our ever myopic vision Enable us to see the stars and be guided by Thy great magnetic north of truth, righteousness, and concern for the well-being of the individual With the inevitable forces which cause us to drift off course, may we often look to Thee who art the same yesterday, today, and forever

Perhaps this is the meaning of the scriptural admonition, "Pray without ceasing" In Our Saviour's Name —AMEN

By Mr. Hinckley:

Congratulating William H Thorn on his 100th birthday

WHEREAS, It has been called to the attention of the Members of the Assembly that January 10th marked the 100th birthday of William H. Thorn, U S. Cadastral Engineer, retired, who is a resident of Redlands, and

WHEREAS, Mr Thorn was born on January 10, 1863, in a log cabin on a farm near Montezuma, Iowa, and in 1884 moved to Kansas, and

WHEREAS, Mr. Thorn's long and illustrious career as a surveyor and engineer commenced on June 1, 1886, when he was appointed deputy county surveyor of Comanche, Kansas; and

WHEREAS, He joined the U S Geological Survey in 1895 and became commissioned as a U S Surveyor in 1895 and U S Cadastral Engineer in 1922; and

WHEREAS, Mr Thorn served in the U S General Land Office of the Department of Interior for 32 years, retiring in 1927, and

WHEREAS, Mr Thorn played an important role in the settlement of many western states by conducting numerous surveys of the territory now comprising these states, and at the time of his retirement he held the record for most miles of original survey of anyone in the U S Geological Survey, and

WHEREAS, Mr Thorn continues to take an active part in community life by his membership in numerous fraternal and civic clubs, being lauded by the Knights of Pythias of Highland as the oldest active Pythian in the Supreme Domain, having been a member for 75 years, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly take this occasion to join with his friends and acquaintances in extending congratulations and birthday greetings to Mr William H Thorn on his 100th birthday and wish him many more years of happiness, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Mr William H Thorn

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

By Messrs Flournoy and Hinckley (Coauthor Senator Backstrand)

Relating to the 75th Anniversary of the founding of Pomona College

WHEREAS, Pomona College is this year observing the 75th Anniversary of its founding, and

WHEREAS, Pomona College has made available to young men and women of California a liberal arts education of unexcelled quality, and

WHEREAS, Pomona College alumni, by outstanding service to society, have observed their college's injunction to "bear their added riches in trust for mankind", and

WHEREAS, Pomona College has made an outstanding contribution to the organization of higher education by founding the group of institutions known as The Claremont Colleges, and

WHEREAS, Pomona College is an educational asset of great import and prestige to the State of California, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the California State Assembly does hereby commend and extend every good wish to Pomona College, its trustees, faculty, students, and alumni, on the occasion of the 75th Anniversary of the institution, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to E Wilson Lyon, President of Pomona College, and Paul Fussell, Chairman of the Pomona College Board of Trustees

Relative to extending the time for the filing of a report by the Joint Legislative Budget Committee

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Joint Legislative Budget Committee shall file its final report relative to the interim study of the State's communication requirements including a microwave system, pursuant to House Resolution No 414 of the 1961 Regular Session, with the Assembly not later than February 15, 1963

Resolution read, and adopted unanimously

The following resolution was offered

By Mr. Lunardi

Relating to designating the slopes of the Sierra Nevada Mountains a sun-disaster area

WHEREAS, Just as surely as flood, storm, tornado, hurricane and other acts of God have raised economic havoc and brought business to a standstill and inflicted great hardships upon merchants and businessmen at various times in areas of this State, so also has the fair weather "devastated" the snow country during this current winter season, and caused a condition which, by reason of its magnitude, is beyond the ability and control of local authorities, and

WHEREAS, Due to the extremely fair, sunny days for the past several weeks very little seasonal business has been had in the resort areas of the Sierra Nevadas, thereby causing great financial losses for merchants, resort and motel owners and other businesses economically connected with winter recreation, and many small operators who have invested heavily are threatened with bankruptcy due to lack of anticipated business and the possession of large inventories, and

WHEREAS, In the absence of any corporate body or governing political division specifically organized, the Truckee-Donner Chamber of Commerce, representing the hub of the Northern California winter resort area, and more specifically the popular and renowned Donner Summit-Squaw Valley region, has petitioned the Assembly of the State of California to urge the newly inaugurated Governor of California, the First State in the Nation, to designate the east and west slopes of the Sierra Nevada Mountains as a sun-disaster area, thereby bringing into play the various provisions of law authorizing relief of disaster stricken areas, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the members urge the Governor of this State to designate the east and west slopes of the Sierra Nevada Mountains as a sun-disaster area, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor of the State of California

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

Eternal God, Enable our legislators who have come here with high purposes and noble aims, not to lose these goals because of the minutiae and tedium of daily life May they not be painting so intently on a little section of canvas that they lose the perspective of the entire picture It gives us inner strength and stability to realize that before the mountains were brought forth, or ever Thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, Thou art God We run so feverishly, and can be like the fanatic who has lost his goals, so redoubles his efforts From Thy vantage point, a thousand years is but as yesterday, and as a watch in the night Against the background of this eternal canvas, may we do our painting this day
We pray in the spirit of Christ—AMEN

Hon. Jesse M Unruh
Speaker of the Assembly
and

The subject of financing public rapid transit systems in California was assigned to the Interim Committee on Revenue and Taxation by the Assembly Committee on Rules under the terms of House Resolution No 381 of the 1961 Session

Three public hearings were held on this subject before the Subcommittee on Revenue Sources (consisting of Messrs Charles H Wilson, Chairman, Dills, Hawkins, Holmes, Knox, Pattee, and Petris). Hearings in Los Angeles on October 12-13, 1961, and September 11, 1962, gave attention to the financial plans of the Los Angeles Metropolitan Transit Authority. A hearing in San Francisco on October 25-26, 1961, explored the proposed general obligation bond issue of the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District

The committee withheld its report on this subject pending the action of the electorate regarding the San Francisco bonds In the Final Report of this committee it was noted that a report on this specific subject would be issued separately.

The committee submits herewith the Report on Financing Rapid Transit Systems in California

Respectfully submitted,

Hon Jesse M Unruh
Speaker of the Assembly
Members of the Assembly:

I do not choose to sign the Report of the Assembly Interim Committee on Revenue and Taxation on Financing Rapid Transit systems in California, as I do not have all the facts pertaining to rapid transit systems in California

Sincerely,

1961 Regular Session

By Mr. Charles H Wilson:

Relative to local or state taxation to finance rapid transit systems

WHEREAS, The question of the financing of rapid transit systems in various communities in the State by local and state taxes has not as yet been resolved, and

WHEREAS, Although local or state taxes may be utilized to finance such a system, other methods of finance, such as general obligation bonds, as well as revenue bonds are available, and

WHEREAS, The financing of such rapid transit systems by local or state taxes raises questions of equity and uniformity of taxation, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Assembly Committee on Rules is hereby directed to assign to an appropriate interim committee for study the subject of the financing of rapid transit systems by state or local taxes, including the availability and desirability of such financing by any other method, including general obligation bonds as well as revenue bonds, and to direct such committee to report thereon to the Assembly not later than the fifth legislative day of the 1963 Regular Session

FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

The committee finds that the financial plan of the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District (composed of the Counties of San Francisco, Alameda, and Contra Costa) has substantial public endorsement

On November 6, 1962, the voters in the district approved a $792 million general obligation bond issue by more than the required 60 percent margin. The three major counties of the San Francisco Bay area will thereby finance one of the first all new rapid transit systems to be built in the United States in many years The committee views this action on the part of the voters in the Bay area as a progressive step

While the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District will build an almost complete system under the bond issue, the Los Angeles Metropolitan Transit Authority, lacking the legal authority to propose general obligation bonds, is attempting to build a first-step 12-mile "backbone" route through the issuance of revenue bonds in the amount of $300 million

The "backbone" route will begin in the vicinity of Beverly Hills and will end in the vicinity of El Monte, passing through downtown Los Angeles The line will consist of conventional rails, part underground, part surface, and part elevated

The officers of the Los Angeles Metropolitan Transit Authority testified that they were seeking funds to guarantee the revenue bond issue from the federal government, and that congressional action of this proposal was and is pending.

At no time did the officers or staff or the Metropolitan Transit Authority indicate that they would seek legislation to assist in financing their system from the California Legislature In fact, they testified that they were thoroughly satisfied with present state legislation.

The committee believes that the responsibility for planning the financial structure of rapid transit for the Los Angeles area rests with the Los Angeles Metropolitan Transit Authority and that any proposals for revising state laws to give the Authority greater financial freedom should be initiated by the Authority or by responsible officials of local government.

The subcommittee heard other testimony in Los Angeles concerning a proposal made by County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn that motor vehicle fuel tax revenues be partially diverted to support rapid transit The subcommittee voted unanimously to recommend against any such diversion

The committee believes that the proposal recently studied by the City Council of Los Angeles relative to using rapid transit facilities in the "off-peak" hours for the transportation of goods—what is termed "rapid transport"—for additional revenues is one worthy of considerable further study by the Authority

In this brief summary, the committee has attempted to avoid going beyond the bounds of the study of transit funding We recommend that the committee of the Assembly having the subject matter assignment of transportation should be assigned to study whether or not the present Authority should not be replaced or drastically restructured along the lines of a transit district operating under the general direction of the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles County

Eternal God, For the strength which comes from being with friends and loved ones, we are grateful. We thank Thee for families who help inspire us to make from the lumber of our lives not taverns but temples, and out of the moments of life not a reproach but a song

Inspire Thy servants with inward qualities for growth, understanding and righteousness, else

'Why build these cities glorious
If man unbuilded goes'
In vain we build the work, unless The builder also grows"

In the name of Thy Son, the Builder of Men—AMEN

Bulletin 111—Sacramento River Water Pollution Survey

DEAR MR OHNIMUS I have the honor to transmit herewith Bulletin No 111, entitled, 'Sacramento River Water Pollution Survey" The investigation described in the report was authorized by Chapter 1909, Statutes of 1959 and by subsequent actions providing for appropriations from the general fund

This report concludes that water quality of the Sacramento River is eminently satisfactory for present beneficial uses The increases in dissolved mineral concentrations that do occur are related to irrigation practices Below Sacramento, dissolved oxygen levels are approaching the minimum values set for fish

The future increased utilization of Sacramento River waters requires an adequate program of water quality management To this end, specific recommendations for water quality monitoring and for special investigations are presented

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM E WARNE Director

POEM BY MR. CHARLES B. GARRIGUS

GLENN COOLIDGE

Once more a comrade from this floor
Has passed beyond the inscrutable door
Again the unheard bell has tolled—
Life's final words upon the scroll of time, unrolled.
And those of us who saw the final curtain fall
Applaud in vain the actor who should take his call

Yet, not in vain our Glenn played well his part,
He of the friendly wave and valiant heart
Courage was the order of his day,
While work performed with zest came close to play.
What more has man from man the right to ask
Than that each one with honor does his task?

How well he served, and how he loved to serve!
This cheerful, kindly man of quiet reserve
No shaft or stone can rightly mark his place;
He sleeps within the conscience of his race
That life wins peace which ends the task begun
His work is done, for he was Duty's son,
And we who seek to do the best we can Shall better serve because we knew this man

REQUEST TO ADJOURN IN MEMORY OF GLENN E. COOLIDGE

Mr. Holmes was granted unanimous consent that when the Assembly does this day adjourn, it do so out of respect to the memory of the late Assemblyman Glenn E Coolidge of Santa Cruz

By Mr. Lunardi

Relative to congratulating Ernie Caddel

WHEREAS, The Members of the Assembly were pleased to learn that Ernie Caddel, one of the greatest halfbacks in the history of Stanford University, has been elected to membership in the Stanford University Athletic Hall of Fame, and

WHEREAS, The Stanford University Athletic Hall of Fame was founded to honor "the Farm's" greatest athletes, and

WHEREAS, Ernie Caddel, in 1930 as a junior, led the Stanford football team to an impressive record of nine wins, one loss and one tie, including a 41-0 scalping of the California Golden Bears in the Big Game, and

WHEREAS, In 1931, Ernie Caddel again led Stanford to a successful year, including the trouncing of a heavily favored Dartmouth Indian team in which Ernie Caddel scored three touchdowns, and was named as an All-American halfback, and

WHEREAS, After graduation Ernie Caddel played several seasons with the Detroit Lions of the National Football League and in 1935 was named as an All-pro Halfback, and

WHEREAS, Today Ernie Caddel is a successful automobile dealer and civic leader in Roseville, California, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of this Assembly congratulate Ernie Caddel upon his election to the Stanford University Athletic Hall of Fame and wish him continued good health and success in the years ahead, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Mr. Ernie Caddel

Relative to the San Pedro-Terminal Island Bridge

WHEREAS, The construction of the San Pedro-Terminal Island Bridge is nearing completion, and

WHEREAS, Upon the completion of this bridge, the operation of the existing ferry system between San Pedro and Terminal Island by the Harbor Department of the City of Los Angeles will be discontinued, and

WHEREAS, Such discontinuance of the existing ferry system will result in the loss of employment in such system of many city employees, and

WHEREAS, While the city and the State will benefit immeasureably from the existence of the San Pedro-Terminal Island Bridge, it is not desirable or in the best interests of either the city or the State, that such benefit should be at the expense of the many loyal and hard-working employees of the city who have for many years provided the sole direct means of transportation between San Pedro and Terminal Island, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the City of Los Angeles and the Department of Public Works be requested to take all steps legally possible in order to provide for the continued employment of the city employees presently engaged in the operation of the ferry system between San Pedro and Terminal Island, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly be directed to transmit copies of this resolution to the Honorable Samuel W Yorty, Mayor of the City of Los Angeles, and to Mr Robert B Bradford, Director of Public Works

Quorum present

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev Robert R. Ferguson

O God, We want answers, we have our prejudices, our unsubstantiated opinions based on half-founded hypotheses God, give us Wisdom
We want shortcuts to thought Thinking is so taxing and confining, jumping at conclusions, so exhilarating God, give us Truth
We want Happiness We live for it seek it, pursue it, would be willing to die for it, but all of our rushing seems to end in frustration God, give us Thy Peace
In the Name of the Prince of Peace —AMEN

By Messrs Waldie, Gaffney, Meyers, Bane, Belotti, Carrell, Chapel, Cologne, Frew, Kennick, Lunardi, Mills, and Rumford (By request of the Assembly Interim Committee on Transportation and Commerce).

Relative to a continuing analysis of emergency calling aid stations on state highways

WHEREAS, House Resolution No 20 was adopted by the Assembly on March 31, 1962, calling for a study of the subject of the placing of emergency calling aid stations on state highways, and

WHEREAS, The Assembly Committee on Rules assigned the subject matter of House Resolution No 20 to the Assembly Interim Committee on Transportation and Commerce for study and report, and

WHEREAS, The Assembly Interim Committee on Transportation and Commerce has issued its final report to the 1963 Legislature (Volume 3, No 9), which report contains on pages 20-23 an analysis of the Los Angeles Freeway Pilot Project and New Jersey Field Test of emergency calling aid stations, and

WHEREAS, During the interim committee hearing on the subject, a progress report was rendered concerning the radio-operated, solar-powered one-way experimental call system jointly sponsored by the City of Los Angeles, the County of Los Angeles and the State Division of Highways, and

WHEREAS, During that interim committee hearing, members of the committee and other legislators present raised certain questions regarding the authority of the State Department of Public Works and the California Highway Commission to install an experimental call system on certain freeways in the Los Angeles area without specific legislative approval; and

WHEREAS, The interim committee has been informed of other experimental systems such as closed circuit television and airborne surveillance, and of the voice-type telephonic communication system used successfully for years on the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, and

WHEREAS, The interim committee report contains a recommendation for continued research and development to increase the practical usage of these devices in promoting driving safety and convenience, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That when sufficient data has been accumulated to make a proper analysis of the Los Angeles Freeway Pilot Project, the State Department of Public Works is hereby directed to submit a report to the Assembly Transportation and Commerce Committee, such report to contain not only the results of the pilot project, but also comments on the authority of the Department of Public Works and the California Highway Commission to install experimental call systems on state highways, and a feasibility and cost report on telephone-type facilities for freeways, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of the Department of Public Works

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

By Mr Elliott

Relative to congratulating Mrs. Marie Louise Kilbride

WHEREAS, The Members of the Assembly have learned to their great pleasure that Mrs. Marie Louise Kilbride has received the Calco award of the Southern California Adult Education Association for her outstanding contribution to education in California, and

WHEREAS, Mrs Kilbride was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and her academic background includes work at the following universities: Penn State, Ohio State, Cornell and Columbia, and

WHEREAS, For 34 years, Mrs Kilbride has devoted her entire professional career to adult education and is one of very few "full time" adult education school teachers, and

WHEREAS, When Roosevelt Adult School first opened in Los Angeles, Mrs Kilbride stood on street corners and talked to each passing adult regarding their attending an adult school, and

WHEREAS, She has taught a multitude of students the subjects of American Literature, English, American History, United States Government, and Public Speaking, and

WHEREAS, Mrs Kilbride, believing that an educated population is basic to a free democratic society, has helped many adults to further their educational aim by extending finacial aid, and

WHEREAS, Mrs Kilbride has been a leader in the development of adult education programs in the Los Angeles area and has been active in numerous community affairs, having served as President of the Adult Education Association, Chairman of A T O L A, Chairman of the Adult Education Section of the C T A, Southern Section, Chairman of Coordinating Council, Delta Kappa Gamma, and President of the World Friendship Club, and

WHEREAS, It is fitting that the Assembly should honor this outstanding woman, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of this Assembly extend their heartiest congratulations to Mrs Marie Louise Kilbride for her selection as the recipient of the prized Calco award of the Southern California Adult Education Association, and wish her continued success and good health, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to Mrs Kilbride and her sons, George Kilbride and Fred Kilbride

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

Eternal God, Father of All Mankind, As a team cannot score unless it is certain of its goal, how can we achieve the purposes which brought us here to serve the people of this State unless we have a sense of direction? Give to these legislators, Thy servants, a "way" in life, and then they will be able to find an adequate "how" "Thou didst create us for Thyself and our hearts are restless til they find fulfillment in Thee" Give us big goals and purposes and we are not so apt to stumble over the daily tedium of life As we go about our work this day, let us not lose the basic commandment, to love Thee, our God, unconditionally, and our neighbor as ourself
In Thy Son's Name—AMEN

Report on Surplus Proprietary Lands

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

Hon Glenn M Anderson
President of the Senate
Hon Jesse M Unruh
Speaker of the Assembly

GENTLEMEN In accordance with the requirements of Section 11011 of the Government Code, submitted herewith by the Department of Finance, is the "Annual Report to the State Legislature on Surplus Proprietary Lands"

On August 13, 1962, the department instructed each state agency, under the subject "Annual Inventory and Report of Excess State Land " to review all lands under its jurisdiction and submit a report thereon to the Department of Finance The instructions read in part as follows "The report will in all cases include a statement that a review of all lands owned by the agency has been made, and will list those lands determined to be excess Lands previously reported as excess shall not be included in the current report"

In response to the above, the various agencies have declared three properties comprising 70 8 acres to be surplus to their foreseeable needs These properties having an estimated value of approximately one quarter of a million dollars, are described in detail in the body of this report It is recommended that bills be passed in the manner prescribed in said Section 11011 by each house of the Legislature, in this, its current session, authorizing the sale, exchange or other disposition of these properties The Department of Finance has caused such bills, now before you, to be introduced for this purpose

Since the present surplus property disposal program was established by the Legislature in 1951, the Department of Finance, through its Property Acquisition Division, has completed real estate transactions producing a total revenue of $7,474,-591 Although there have been some major transactions in which the purchaser was another governmental agency, the majority of these surplus state lands have been returned to private ownership and local tax rolls Transactions concluded in the past calendar year produced $642,100 This latter amount includes proceeds from the sale of six parcels to state agencies operating almost entirely on funds derived from vehicular or gas tax funds All parcels conveyed in fee to private purchasers were first made available to the various state and local governmental agencies unless legislation authorizing their disposal directed conveyance to specified parties All sales, except those to other governmental jurisdictions, were consummated under open competitive bidding conditions

In addition to the disposal of surplus state lands the Property Acquisition Division is also charged with investigating surplus federal properties to ascertain whether they can be used by state agencies The General Services Administration of the United States Government, in administering its program for disposal of installations and property no longer needed for federal use, first offers these properties to public agencies before exposing them for sale on the open market If there is a state need, and depending on the State's intended use, discounts on the purchase price (fair market value) ranging to as high as 100 percent, may be obtained In that there is an existing program need for these facilities for which capital outlay funds would otherwise be appropriated from tax revenues, the parcel so acquired represents a savings, or in effect, a "reverse income" to the State During this calendar year 20 properties were investigated Acquisition of two federal installations, comprising 0,506 7 acres, was completed These properties were acquired with a 100 percent discount resulting in a savings of state funds in the amount of $12,204,000 Negotiations are in process for the acquisition of one parcel which would result in additional savings to the State of $500,000 A summary of federal surplus properties offered to the State last year, and of the land acquired, is contained in Supplement "C" of this report

In accordance with the program initiated last year by the Property Acquisition Division, surplus properties of the Division of Highways and the Reclamation Board, which two agencies are exempt from the provisions of Section 11011, are first made available to other state agencies before being offered for sale on the open market These properties, as a rule, are unique in location size and shape, and often have limited ingress and egress The majority of them are, therefore, not adaptable to other agency use However this program is important and worthwhile, as it protects the State from disposing of properties that might possibly be needed for continued state use Thirty-six parcels were brought to the attention of the Property Acquisition Division by these agencies and were investigated by the division

Your attention is directed to Supplements "A" and "B" herein, which respectively set forth in detail all parcels disposed of in 1962, and the status of those yet unsold

Respectfully,

HALE CHAMPION
Director of Finance

House Resolution No 57

Relative to the cost of medical care

WHEREAS, A number of health and welfare, medical care and similar plans have been established and are in existence for the benefit of employees throughout the State of California, and

WHEREAS, Since the establishment of such funds and plans, many of which have a fixed basis of contribution, the cost of obtaining medical care, hospital care, and insurance policies providing for medical care and hospital care have greatly and disproportionably increased; and

WHEREAS, If such conditions are allowed to continue, many such plans and funds will be jeopardized and many will be forced to cease operations thus increasing the burdens and hardships upon the participants and beneficiaries thereof, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Assembly Committee on Rules is directed to refer to the appropriate interim committee for study the subject of the costs of providing medical care and hospital care, as well as the costs of premiums for policies of insurance providing for medical care and hospital care in this State, and to direct such interim committee to report thereon to the Assembly not later than the fifth calendar day of the 1965 Regular Session

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev Robert R Ferguson:

Eternal God, Father of Us All. At the outset of this new day, give us vision commensurate with our duties and opportunities We pray as a Civil War general prayed at the beginning of a battle, "Lord, I'm very busy today, if I forget Thee, wilt Thou not forget me" We so often confess Thee with our words, yet live a practical atheism, as if Thou dost not exist or have any claim upon us Forgive us for pretending to be a little Atlas, believing ourselves sufficient to carry the problems of the State and World on our miniature shoulders Grant us not plenty, but stark realism, and through experience verify that "Thy grace is sufficient for us, for Thy strength is made perfect in our weakness" Wilt Thou not forget us this day

In the Name of Thy Son, our Lord —AMEN

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker Jesse M Unruh, Mr Marks then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

By Mr Carrell

House Resolution No 59

Relating to a study of possible methods of taxation

WHEREAS, The present method of property tax assessment in the various municipalities and school districts of the State works great hardships upon pensioners and other taxpayers on low fixed incomes, and

WHEREAS, In many instances property taxation has become so burdensome as to constitute confiscation; and

WHEREAS, There is an evident necessity to spread the tax burden more equitably in the cases of pensioners and others on low fixed incomes, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Assembly Committee on Rules is directed to assign to the appropriate interim committee the subject and the duty to investigate possible alternative methods of taxation which would finance education and other necessary public services with due regard to the peculiar plight of pensioners and other taxpayers on low fixed incomes, and to direct the interim committee to report to the Assembly on the fifth calendar day of the 1965 Regular Session

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Rules

By Mr Quimby

Relative to the 25th Anniversary of the March of Dimes

WHEREAS, In 1938, Franklin D Roosevelt founded a nonprofit corporation, called The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, to lead, direct and unify the fight against polio, the dread crippler of children and adults, and

WHEREAS, The appeal touched the hearts of Americans everywhere and they responded with such an avalanche of dimes that the small coin became the symbol of man's fight against the crippling disease and resulted in a new name for the program, The National Foundation—March of Dimes, and

WHEREAS, A monument to American generosity, the foundation was recently rewarded for its years of effort and sacrifice by the discovery of the Salk and Sabin vaccines, and

WHEREAS, Since the breakthrough in polio, the foundation has channeled its vast resources into the fight against birth defects and rheumatoid arthritis and hopes, with the continued generous backing of the American people, to have the same brilliant success in these fields as with infantile paralysis, and

WHEREAS, It is only fitting that during this, the 25th Anniversary of the founding of the foundation, the members of this body congratulate those who have actively participated in the program, particularly those Californians who have unselfishly given their time and those who have just as unselfishly given their money to make the various campaigns the overwhelming success they have been during the past fourth of a century, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That this Assembly congratulates The March of Dimes on the occasion of its 25th Anniversary and commends it for the invaluable contributions which it has made to the welfare of mankind, and be it further

Resolved That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to send copies of this resolution to Basil O'Connor, the President of the National Foundation, to the Governor, Edmund G Brown the Honorable State Chairman, and to the Honorable George Christopher, the State Chairman of the March of Dimes

COMMUNICATIONS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Speaker, and ordered printed in the Journal·

Interim Report on Coastal Harbors of Refuge

DEPARTMENT OF PARKS AND RECREATION
SMALL CRAFT HARBORS COMMISSION

Hon Hugh M Burns
President pro Tempore

State Assembly, Sacramento

GENTLEMEN In compliance with the 1961 Assembly Concurrent Resolution No 48 requesting a study of harbors of refuge, the Small Craft Harbors Commission takes pleasure in submitting this report "California Small Craft Harbors and Facilities Plan Interim Report on Coastal Harbors of Refuge" Assembly Concurrent Resolution No 48 requested the Small Craft Harbors Commission to conduct a survey to determine the need, location, and major components needed for harbors of refuge along the California coastline for small craft and to report their findings and recommendations thereon to the Legislature.

This report establishes the need for a program incorporating the development of thirteen (13) new and improvement of four (4) existing harbors of refuge

This program will provide a chain of coastal harbors of refuge spaced approximately 35 miles from one another over the length of our 1100-mile coastline

The commission wishes to emphasize that the basic criteria for this program is the provision of safety for commercial and recreational boats In addition, there are other benefits which accrue to the communities and regions in which harbors of refuge are developed

The cost of this program reflects the fundamental requirement that a harbor of refuge be a place of safety in storms Therefore, the estimate of capital expenditure required for new refuge harbors or for improvements to existing ones was based on the minimal items necessary to achieve this end at given sites

This report is the initial phase of the 'California Small Craft Harbors and Facilities Plan" which will be completed in November 1963 The purpose of the total plan will be to guide the Small Craft Harbors Commission's programs for development of harbors and boating facilities, both coastal and inland, as regards their financing and priority of development

The commission in presenting the findings of the attached report emphasizes that the harbors proposed therein are in the strictest sense refuge harbors and should be financed as such notwithstanding other commission programs for developing additional coastal and inland commercial and recreational harbors

Sincerely,

JOHN P SCRIPPS, Chairman

LOUIS L HABER, Vice Chairman

Eternal God, Who hast concern for each of us, grant that we may have love for Thee and appreciation for each other We confess that often we seem to be living in a house of mirrors In whatever direction we gaze, there we see reflected back our own problems and interests Give us the grace to remove the silver from behind these mirrors until they become windows Then we can see ourselves in our relation to other people May we be interested in their concerns and see them as individuals similar to ourselves Lend wisdom to Thy stewards in this chamber that with the pressures and momentous decisions facing them, they may act for the total well-being of our citizens

We pray in our Master's Name —AMEN

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Mr Waldie was granted unanimous consent that the following opinion of the Legislative Counsel be ordered printed in the Journal

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Assembly Chamber

Assembly Rule No. 56—No. 2725

DEAR MR UNRUH.

Question

You ask if Assembly Rule No 56 is violated when a bill is held at the desk for 24 hours before being assigned to a committee

Opinion

It is our opinion that the rule is not violated

Analysis

Assembly Rule No 56 provides

> "Immediately following its first reading, the Speaker shall refer each bill to a committee, unless on a motion the Assembly, by a majority vote of its entire elected membership, shall refer it to some other committee. Such motion to refer a bill shall not be debatable "

The literal meaning of the word "immediately" is "without interval of time; without delay; straightaway" (Webster's New International Dictionary, 2nd Ed , Unabridg).

However, the courts have often construed the word to mean "within a reasonable time," stating that the word is not a word of precise signification and its meaning must be determined by the context in which it is used, having regard to all of the circumstances (see cases collected in 20 Words and Phrases, pp 150 et seq ; 50 Cal Digest, p 351)

The Legislature has at past extraordinary sessions held bills at the desk for more than 24 hours with no challenge made to such action. At the 1954 First Extraordinary Session, A B 's 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15, and A C A 1, all were introduced on March 1 and referred to committee on March 3 (Assembly Journal, March 1, 1954, pp 18 et seq ; Assembly Journal, March 3, 1954, p 31)

At the 1960 First Extraordinary Session, A B 4 to A.B 15, inclusive, were introduced on February 29 and March 1, and referred to committee on March 2 (Assembly Journal, February 29, 1960, p. 27; Assembly Journal, March 1, 1960, pp 30 to 32, inclusive, Assembly Journal, March 2, 1960, p 39) At the 1960 First Extraordinary Session the Speaker announced that pending his reactivation and appointment of the standing committees at the session, he would order that all bills be held at the desk without referral to a committee (Assembly Journal, March 1, 1960, p 30) On March 2, 1960, the Speaker announced the appointment of committee memberships and thereafter assigned the bills to committee (Assembly Journal, March 2, 1960, pp. 38 and 39)

In view of the many cases holding that "immediately" means within a reasonable time, and in view of the precedents in the Assembly, it is our opinion that Assembly Rule 56 is not violated when a bill is held at the desk for 24 hours before referral to committee

Very truly yours,

A C MORRISON
Legislative Counsel
By BARBARA COCHRANE CALAIS
Deputy Legislative Counsel

INTRODUCTION, FIRST READING, AND REFERENCE OF ASSEMBLY BILLS (RESUMED)

The following bills were introduced, and read the first time:

Assembly Bill No. 543: By Messrs Porter and Willson—An act to add Article 9 (commencing with Section 2400) to Chapter 5 of, and Article 7 (commencing with Section 2930) to Chapter 8 of, Division 3 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to pest abatement

Held at desk by order of the Speaker pro Tempore

Assembly Bill No. 544: By Mr Belotti—An act to amend Section 12300 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to Yurok Indians

The following communication was presented by the Speaker, and ordered printed in the Journal

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Honorable Jesse M Unruh
Speaker of the Assembly
California State Legislature

Subject House Resolution No 61 (Relating to the State Capitol Grounds)

DEAR MR UNRUH: We have been able to restore the lighting of the Capitol Dome from the Division of Buildings and Grounds' maintenance funds Four individual sockets are not burning, but will be fixed during the next general relamping; no additional appropriation will be necessary for this.

The indirect lighting of the palm trees would cost $100,000 and is not recommended for several reasons These trees are becoming quite old, an average three per year die from penicillin fungus Trees and shrubs do grow and cannot be confined to one particular size and shape without disfiguring them The maintenance required to prevent such girdling would be excessive There are 179 palm trees spread out over 1 1 8 miles

In 1933-34 fifty-six bases for additional electroliers were installed around the perimeter of the Capitol Park but funds for the installation have never been provided for the electroliers themselves Thirty-six electroliers are needed within the park from 12th Street eastward This would not only light the park but discourage any unauthorized activities. This would require an expenditure of approximately $36,000, leaving the perimeter lighting to be considered at a later date

Very truly yours,

HALE CHAMPION, Director of Finance

O Thou, Who are so great that the universe cannot contain Thee, yet who wilt dwell in any life that will receive Thee, sustain us this day As we deal with so much that is routine, and with problems we can solve, may we not lose the sense of majesty and grandeur in life As Einstein reminded us, "the most beautiful thing we can experience is the mysterious It is the source of all true art and science He to whom this emotion is a stranger, who can no longer pause to wonder and stand rapt in awe, is as good as dead, his eyes are closed" May we not settle for the little things we can see and understand Give depth to our lives through stretching our minds concerning ultimate problems and mysteries which lead to the threshold of revelation

In the name of our Redeemer—AMEN

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Carlos Bee, Mr Moreno then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag

Gracious God, Father of Mercies, We are grateful for the storm which has brought rain and nourishment to our thirsty land Give us needed trust to see that the mental and spiritual storms which so disrupt lives, can also bring depth, and open vistas otherwise left dormant The seeming blackness of the Cross, where all seemed lost, has been the one Event which, though stormy, has revealed Thy love for mankind and given to those who see beyond the blackness—sustenance, peace, and a faith adequate for all life's trials

In our Savior's Name —AMEN

By Messrs Porter and Lanterman

Relating to a study of the effect of ocean marinas on groundwater basins

WHEREAS, The construction of salt water marinas is of increasing importance in California; and

WHEREAS, Some of these marinas are being located along the ocean beaches and bays adjacent to important groundwater basins, and

WHEREAS, The construction of such marinas may adversely affect these important groundwater basins by permitting sea water to intrude beyond the normal beach lines, and

WHEREAS, There is a need to study this problem to bring about a better understanding of it and to develop policies which will both protect groundwater basins and facilitate construction of marinas, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the subject matter of the effect of ocean marinas on groundwater basins be assigned to the Committee on Rules for reassignment to an appropriate interim committee, which committee shall undertake such a study and report thereon to the Assembly not later than the fifth calendar day of the 1965 Regular Session

Relating to congratulating John F Henning on his appointment as Undersecretary of Labor

WHEREAS, Mr John F Henning has been appointed Undersecretary of Labor of the United States Department of Labor, and

WHEREAS, Mr Henning, a graduate of St Ignatius High School, in his native San Francisco, and of St Mary's College in Moraga, has a long and distinguished record of service to the citizens of this State and in the labor movement; and

WHEREAS, Mr Henning has served this State with great diligence and distinction as Director of the Department of Industrial Relations since 1959, and as such he has made an important and lasting contribution to the labor-management relations of employees and employers throughout the State, and

WHEREAS, In addition to his notable activities as Director of the Department of Industrial Relations, Mr Henning has served as research director of, and administrative assistant to, the executive officer of the California State Labor Federation, as President of the San Francisco Board of Permit Appeals and of the St. Mary's College Alumni Association, and as a member of the Public Welfare Commission, the Committee for Equal Employment Opportunity, the San Francisco Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Men, the Press and Union League of San Francisco, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and the Council for Civic Unity, San Francisco, and

WHEREAS, He has received many awards in recognition of his activities, including the St John Francis Regis Award for "distinguished service in the field of labor-management relations" and an award from the government of the State of Israel for "friendship for and support of the State of Israel"; and

WHEREAS, The California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO, is to honor John F Henning with a testimonial dinner on the seventh day of February, 1963, in the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco, and

WHEREAS, It is therefore most fitting that in recognition of his past services to the citizens of our State and in anticipation of his future contributions to the citizens of these United States, John F Henning should be appointed Undersecretary of Labor, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly thank Mr John F Henning for his years of public service, congratulate him upon his appointment as Undersecretary of Labor of the United States Department of Labor, and wish him well in his future endeavors, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Mr John F Henning

ANNOUNCEMENT

Speaker pro Tempore Bee announced that Speaker Unruh has announced his appointment of the Standing Committees of the Assembly, and directed that the following statement by Speaker Unruh be ordered printed in the Journal, and that the Clerk read the list of committee assignments

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER UNRUH

During the last four weeks I have met with every Member of the Assembly and repeatedly with the Assembly leadership to arrive at these assignments, the first I have made on a large scale since I became Speaker 16 months ago The problems this year were compounded greatly by the nearly 50 percent turnover in Assembly membership at the last election

In my consultations with individual members I have, I believe, gone as far as possible in satisfying their individual desires while still giving primary consideration to the interests of the State of California I have tried to appoint committees which would be sympathetic to the problems of the metropolitan areas on such things as transportation, planning, housing and other sociological and economic considerations while at the same time preserving the vigorous moderation which has been the principal theme of the Democratic administration by making those committees dealing with taxation and appropriations responsible and yet responsive

I have limited all members to four committees and have tried to give adequate representation on major committees to the principal geographical areas of the State In addition, these assignments preserve the bipartisan aspect of the Assembly leadership by giving chairmanships to four Republicans and vice chairmanships to eight Republicans

It was possible to grant approximately 75 percent of the first, second and third choices of the individual members In many cases members got all four of their first choices Most committees follow the nearly two to one Democratic ratio which exists in the Assembly membership In many, however, partisanship has been of very minor importance This is particularly true in the fields of water, natural resources and education Here there are very few distinctions along partisan lines, with the principal interests dedication and sectional representation

I believe these committees will give the people of California the opportunity to move forward to make California the greatest as well as the most populous State in the Nation

In addition to the assignments I am making today it is my intention to appoint Assemblyman Carl Britschgi to the Joint Legislative Representation Committee, with a recommendation that he be named chairman, when that committee has been approved by the Senate It is my belief that the interests of the people of the State of California can best be served by putting regulation of legislative advocates under the auspices of a joint committee so that both houses can supervise these activities

I also intend to indicate my preference for Assemblyman Vincent Thomas as Chairman of the Joint Audit Committee, a post which has traditionally been occupied by a Member of the Assembly

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr Bagley arose to the following parliamentary inquiry Is there a constitutional question involved regarding the validity of setting a bill for hearing in committee when the 30 days following its introduction have elapsed, if the bill has not been in print for 30 days?

Reply by Speaker

Speaker Unruh replied that all bills may legally be set for hearing on the 31st day after their introduction at this session, and directed the members' attention to page 37 of the Daily File for today, where the 31st day after the introduction of each bill has been listed

Parliamentary Inquiry

Mr Bagley arose to the following parliamentary inquiry Do you have a ruling that a bill may legally be heard in committee when the 30 days after its introduction have elapsed, regardless of whether or not the bill has been in print for 30 days?

Reply by Speaker

Speaker Unruh replied that the constitutional provision relative to the setting of a bill for hearing on the 31st day after its introduction is very clear, and read aloud the pertinent portion of Article IV, Section 2(a) of the Constitution

PRAYER

God of Our Life, Through all these passing days, we trust in Thee We confess on occasion the light of faith grows dim and our little egos burn so brightly that Thy light is nearly eclipsed We would say with that Father of old, 'Lord, I believe, help take mine unbelief"

When our anchors of faith are straining under the pressures of life, give us a quiet confidence to hold fast to a few basic certainties At our better moments we know that integrity, a good conscience, and a high sense of duty are not among our options May we not rationalize these, but use them as the launching platform for making our decisions and fulfilling our mission in life

In Christ's name we pray—AMEN

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker Jesse M Unruh, Mr. Dills then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag

Proposed Program for Library Development—California State Colleges

THE CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGES
INGLEWOOD, January 29, 1963

Hon Glenn M Anderson
President of the Senate, and
Senate Chamber, Sacramento

Hon Jesse M Unruh
Speaker of the Assembly, and
Assembly Chamber, Sacramento

GENTLEMEN During the 1962 Budget Session of the California State Legislature, the Trustees of the California State Colleges were directed to study the library requirements of the state colleges and to report to the 1963 Regular Session of the Legislature

In compliance with such request, I transmit herewith a copy of our report, entitled Proposed Program for Library Development—California State Colleges. This report was adopted by the Board of Trustees of the California State Colleges at its meeting in December, 1962 A copy of this resolution is attached to the report

The report confirms my preliminary determination that the per capita book volume in the libraries of the state colleges is below the median of comparable academic institutions Accordingly, I am listing the primary features of the proposed plan which will form the basis for a long-range program of library development in the state colleges

1 Each new state college is to have a collection of 50,000 volumes by the time the college opens
2 Each new state college is to be provided with at least 4,000 volumes annually until the enrollment reaches 1,000 FTE
3 All colleges above 1,000 FTE are to be supported by a library book formula which will provide five volumes per graduate student, four volumes for each of the first 1 000 undergraduates, three volumes for each of the next 4,000 undergraduates, and two volumes for each undergraduate over 5,000, all on an annual basis
4 Those state colleges which cannot reach 40 volumes per student by 1972-73 under the formulas are to be given a supplementary allowance to attain this level

This desire for excellence and the growing size of the state colleges make it essential that a positive program of augmentation be undertaken The library program, as approved by the Trustees, represents an important step forward for the state colleges

Sincerely,

GLENN S DUMKE, Chancellor

By Messrs. Garrigus and Frew

House Resolution No. 74

Relating to designating the central-eastern and southeastern portions of the San Joaquin Valley as a cold-drouth disaster area

WHEREAS, There has been the longest sustained period of low sub-freezing temperatures of record in the citrus belt of the southern and central portions of the San Joaquin Valley, and

WHEREAS, Millions of dollars have been invested recently in the development of new citrus lands in this area, and

WHEREAS, The severe cold has caused an estimable loss of $25,000,000 in this year's citrus crop and an inestimable loss in young citrus trees to the citrus growers of this area, and

WHEREAS, Citrus is one of the major crops contributing to the economy of the State of California, and

WHEREAS, Young olive and walnut buds have been severely damaged, causing great losses to growers of these crops, and

WHEREAS, The severe cold has been accompanied by a sustained period of drouth throughout the same area, and

WHEREAS, This foothill area of the San Joaquin Valley is also the locale of a traditional pasturage area of sheep and cattle grazing, and

WHEREAS, Normal pasturage for this area has disappeared, thus necessitating sheepmen and cattlemen to buy large amounts of hay, and

WHEREAS The price of hay has advanced to where purchase of hay makes cattle and sheep production economically insupportable, and

WHEREAS, Such production makes a substantial contribution to the economy of California, and

WHEREAS, The afflicted citrus growers and affected cattle and sheep producers are in such a degree of economic distress dangerous to their continuance as growers and producers that they are urgently requesting the Assembly of the State of California to designate the co-ordinate citrus belt and grazing area of the central-eastern and southeastern portions of the San Joaquin Valley as a cold-drouth disaster area, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the members urge the Governor of this State to designate the foothill grazing areas and the adjacent and co-ordinate citrus producing areas of the San Joaquin Valley as a cold-drouth disaster area, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor of the State of California

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

By Mr Danielson

House Resolution No 75

Relating to the Lithuanian Declaration of Independence

WHEREAS, The 45th Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence of the Republic of Lithuania will be celebrated by Californians of Lithuanian ancestry at Los Angeles, California, on February 10, 1963, and

WHEREAS, This is the 710th Anniversary of the founding of an independent Lithuanian state by King Mindangas, and

WHEREAS, The Lithuanian people have bravely fought tyranny in the past and relentlessly fight the Communist tyranny of the present, and

WHEREAS, One of the noted signers of the Lithuanian Declaration of Independence, Dr Mykolas Birziska, lived his latter years in Los Angeles, and

WHEREAS, Now more than 12,000 Americans of Lithuanian ancestry live within the State of California and, instilled with the principles of freedom and human dignity, contribute to and greatly enrich our economy and our culture, and

WHEREAS, Although freedom from the tyrant has not yet come, their spirit of freedom is the seed of independence, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly congratulate and pay tribute to the Lithuanian people on their 45th Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence of the Republic of Lithuania and the 710th Anniversary of the founding of an independent Lithuanian state, and wish them every success in their fight for freedom, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to the American Lithuanian Council, St Casimir's Lithuanian Catholic Church, and to Victor Birziska, brother of Dr Mykolas Birziska

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr Waldie announced that copies of the Governor's Budget and Budget Message have been placed in the members' desks

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following Budget Message of the Governor was received, and read:

BUDGET MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR EDMUND G BROWN

To the Senate and Assembly of the Legislature of California

I present with this message my Budget for the 1963-64 fiscal year

It recommends expenditures of $2,945,027,761 from current income, and $305,374,208 from capital outlay bond issues—a total of $3,250,401,969

Of that total, $3,167,000,000 represents program commitments already made by the Legislature or the electorate of the State of California through the Constitution, statutes or bond authorizations

Of the remaining $83 4 million, $30 7 million is for salary increases and $52 7 million is for new program or improved levels of service Of this last amount $30 million is for additional aid to local school districts

I emphasize that the new and improved services represent only 1 6 percent of the total Budget

This Budget is once again soundly but narrowly in balance It proposes no new or higher taxes, but requires acceleration of collection of personal income, bank, corporation and insurance taxes to put them on a current basis The State of California can no longer afford the luxury of permitting payment of some taxes more than a year after it must meet the cost of providing essential services

This Budget conforms to the strictest standards of austerity Additional hundreds of millions of dollars in requests were eliminated through refusal or drastic scaling down of the amounts sought

In my judgment, this Budget recognizes both the most pressing requirements of our growing population and the necessity of maintaining the traditional quality of government services in California

This is the largest State Budget in the history of the Nation, but this State now has the largest population of any state in the Nation

This Budget again sets a new record, but every budget in the foreseeable future of California will either set a new record or ignore the minimum annual requirements of our astounding growth

Despite the sheer size of recent budgets, moreover, it is noteworthy that in the last decade California's tax burden has dropped from a position of 19th among the states in 1953 to 31st today And its net debt of $2 68 per $100 of personal income is 33rd among the states and compares to an average of all the states of $4 04 per $100 of personal income

Not only in the last decade, but since World War II, it would appear that California has used its resources wisely to provide the base on which we have built an economy steadily expanding at a more rapid rate than the rest of the Nation

In education, water highways, social insurance, public health, employment and safety we have invested in programs which have not just repaid us, but have provided unmatched economic dividends

Personal income for the Nation is expected to rise 3 5 percent this year By coincidence, California's population is also expected to rise 3 5 percent, but the State's personal income will rise an anticipated 5 7 percent It is this trend which has carried California's share of the national income from 9 24 percent 10 years ago to an expected 11 4 percent this year, again a percentage greater than our proportion of the population

It is in terms of this remarkable performance of California's economy and of the role played by governmental services in that performance that this Budget should be evaluated

Whether the proposed expenditures are in the area of current operating expenditures or in the financing of capital projects the tests are the same

Do they economically and efficiently provide direct and necessary services to the people of California today? Do they constitute prudent investments in human and natural resources to meet the long range demands of the future of the leading state in the Nation? If the expenditures proposed here do neither, I invite you to delete them

As in past years, I again seek your counsel on how to produce true economies, economies that do not impair today's needed services or add unduly to the already certain burdens of tomorrow

I ask you to remember always that ours is a growing family We have no option but to build and to provide

Our growth and price increases alone account for an automatic addition of about $135 million or 4 6 percent of proposed operating expenditures

As for capital projects, they are almost all for growth Sale of $157 million in water bonds will more than double our pace in the California Water Plan's race against time and population trends Approximately 85 percent of the $148 million in state building bonds will go to keep California first in providing facilities for tuition-free higher education

We must remember also that growth imposes as heavy a burden on local government as it imposes on the State This Budget provides an increase of $153 million in subventions to cities, counties and local districts for education, health, welfare and flood control

This will raise the total amount of local assistance money spent not by the State but by its subdivisions to $1,652,000,000 or 56 percent of total operating expenditures

Look for economies, yes, but not at the expense of necessary functions of government—either State or local

In the same spirit, I renew my own pledge to economize as fully as possible in the administration of this Budget In my first term of office, our average management savings were more than $24 million a year, and I will do my best not only to maintain that average, but to improve upon it

I want to add another promise at this time

Both you and I have encountered steadily increasing difficulty in dealing with the complexities and intertwined detail of the massive itemized Budget which accompanies this message

I commend to your attention the introductory summary program statements on revenues and expenditures in the Budget document, but I do not believe they satisfactorily meet this problem

I intend to submit a budget to you next year which will more clearly establish the lines between operating expenditures and long term capital investment programs—a budget which will make easier our joint task of searching for economies and measuring program effectiveness against program costs

At the close of this message, I propose to discuss briefly specific proposals for major new expenditure programs and increased levels of services or local subventions It will also detail my salary recommendations

First, however, let us examine projections of revenue from our present tax system and a series of tax reform and conformity measures

These two elements are essential to the support of the proposed expenditure program, and deserve your fullest consideration

To begin, although the rate of growth in our economy is substantially ahead of the Nation as a whole, it will not move as rapidly during the coming year as it did last year

The gross national product advanced from $518 billion to $554 billion in the 1962 calendar year, a gain of $36 billion Our projections are based on a GNP of $575 billion in 1963, a gain of only $21 billion That means a relatively lean year in growth of revenues from California's present tax structure and collection system While the longer term prospects are good, collections for the 1963-64 fiscal year would leave a gap of about $150 million between revenues and the proposed expenditure program were we to make no changes in our revenue system

I am recommending to you, however, a series of long overdue reforms in our present procedures for collecting personal income, bank, corporation and insurance taxes which will close the gap, not only for the 1963-64 fiscal year, but for the succeeding fiscal year

Let it be clear at the outset that there are no new or increased taxes involved in these proposals To the contrary, I propose to remove 850,000 low income taxpayers from the rolls this year and to forgive one-quarter of all personal income taxes due for the year 1964

Of these reforms, two are most important

The first would end California's present unusual system of permitting personal, corporate and bank taxpayers to pay on an installment basis after the date due

In other words, a man who moved to California in January of this year and immediately received the benefit of all state services, would not have to pay any income tax until April 15, 1964, and even then could pay in two installments thereafter without any additional penalty or interest

The State would not receive its first payment for 15 months and its final payment for 24 months, yet would be paying the bills for services rendered for the whole 24 months

No newspaper would or could be as generous to a new subscriber No other manufacturer or supplier of services could function successfully on such a basis No union could accept a new member on these terms Yet we get 600,000 new citizens every year and they are entitled to immediate service—whether educational or institutional, whether in the form of highways or an adequate water supply

The first major step in this tax reform program would simply be a requirement that all taxpayers meet their full tax for 1963 by April, 1964 Tax collections would then be current on at least an annual basis

The second major step would be to install a withholding system on July 1, 1964, accompanied by a system for a quarterly estimating and payment system for individuals and semi-annually for banks and corporate taxpayers

This would operate just as the long-established federal system does, and would, in fact, make the handling of the two tax obligations simpler and easier for the taxpayer

Since the state income tax has little impact on family incomes under $10,000, and a much lesser impact on incomes above that amount than the federal tax, installation of the withholding tax in mid-year after more than a year's notice would cause little difficulty

Moreover, because of the extra revenue generated by the acceleration to a pay-as-you-go system, the State could provide a 25 percent forgiveness, and I recommend that this be done The forgiveness I propose would amount to $85 million for individuals and $65 million tax credit for banks and corporations which in the past paid a double tax when they started operations in California

I should note here that 26 of the 32 states having a general personal income tax provide for withholding Of the 26 only three forgave any part of the previous year's taxes when they began withholding and all three did so because they coupled withholding with tax increases I propose no such increase, but I believe the 25 percent forgiveness is justified nonetheless

There are other compelling reasons for adopting these measures Although we in California are proud of our excellent tax enforcement, it is estimated that at least 100,000 Californians leave the State annually, many of them without paying state income taxes before they depart

In almost every one of the states which have adopted withholding, the new revenue produced has exceeded expectations substantially

If California is to avoid levying new taxes, it must receive full and equitable return from its present revenue structure and this is the only satisfactory way to insure full compliance at a reasonable cost

Some have been concerned about the cost of withholding to business It will cost the State, which employes more than 130,000 persons, only about 30 cents per employee a year, certainly not an amount which would indicate an undue burden on other employers, Large or small

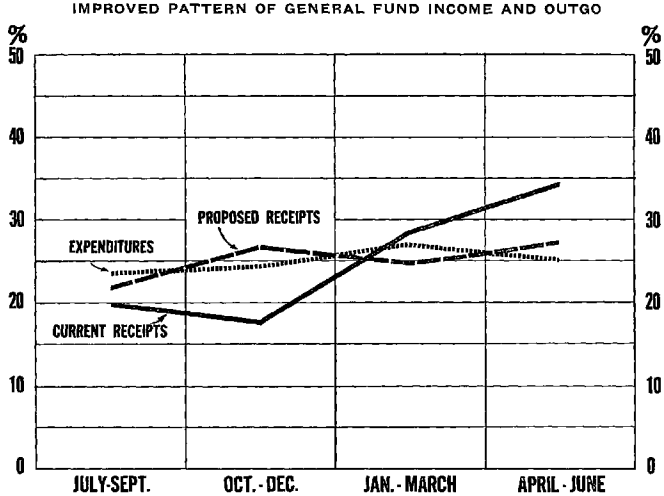
The proposals would solve another difficult problem

We now not only must wait up to 24 months to collect for today's services, but we must borrow from ourselves in order to maintain a reasonably even relationship between revenues and expenditures within a given year

We receive the bulk of our revenues in the second half of the fiscal year In order to keep up with demands in months of minimum revenue receipts, the General Fund must borrow from special funds and repay not only the principal, but the interest which would have accrued if the funds had been left invested in securities or in bank deposits

This fiscal juggling as illustrated in the chart below is contrary to all sound money management policy, and the time has come to end it

IMPROVED PATTERN OF GENERAL FUND INCOME AND OUTGO



This chart shows the improvement in the flow of State General Fund revenue which will result from income tax withholding and current tax payments by banks, general corporations and insurance companies. The revenue trough experienced in the October-December quarter under the present system will be eliminated, and the peak flow of the April-June quarter will be materially reduced by the proposed plan. At the same time revenue receipts in every quarter will more closely align with expenditure requirements of that quarter.

The following table shows what these proposed tax reforms plus a number of supplementary reforms and changes would provide in added revenue for the next two fiscal years

TWO-YEAR PLAN TO BRING TAX COLLECTIONS CURRENT WITH OBLIGATIONS

An outline of revenue sources, changes recommended and amounts involved in each of the two ensuing fiscal years are given in the following summary

	(In millions)
Bank and Corporation Tax	1963-64	1964-65
Eliminate installment payment privilege effective January 1, 1964	$82 5	$10 8

‡ No change anticipated at this time

The most important of the other changes is a proposal to change the handling of our tidelands oil and gas bonuses and royalties

Under present statutes, most of the revenues are assigned to the California Water Fund.

Because of stepped-up tideland leasing activity, however, more money is going into the California Water Fund than was contemplated earlier or is now required

I therefore propose enactment of a new statute which would guarantee to the Water Fund the approximately $9 million needed to meet our standing commitments to the California Water Plan, but divert whatever remains from the conservation of natural resources to the conservation of human resources, or, to be more specific, to education

This will be increasingly important as development proceeds on the rich new Long Beach tidelands area

If the entire revenue program proposed above is enacted, California will be able to meet its fiscal commitments without hardship through the next two fiscal years.

Since this plan was first set forth publicly, however, concern has been expressed that most of the revenue advantages would be behind us by 1965, and that we would then face a major new tax problem

Our economic studies show just the opposite The career economists in the Department of Finance believe that the gap between expenditures and revenues will lessen rather than widen Instead of today's gap of $150 million, they estimate a gap of perhaps less than $100 million in 1965

There are three basic reasons for this projection First, the President's tax cut program, with its favorable impact on our revenues and the Nation's growth pattern, would substantially improve the ratio of growth between California's revenues and our expenditures, thus narrowing the present gap Second, we will have learned how much income tax is being evaded, and have added that extra amount to our revenue projections Third, we will begin to receive much more substantial revenues from Long Beach and other rich tidelands leases

It would be foolish to predict now whether or not we will need some additional taxes in 1965

But it would be even more foolish to increase taxes or impose new taxes today when this two-year program makes it not only unnecessary, but unwise to do so

By 1965, there is a reasonable chance that there will be no need for additional taxes, or that the need will be minimal

I recommend that we adopt the changes I propose today, then reappraise our total position in 1965

In the meantime, however, we must take added precautions to make our position in 1965 as strong as possible We must keep the expenditure base set forth in this Budget firmly under control Only in this way can we prevent added expenses from erasing the advantages of the added revenues we foresee

There is yet another excellent reason to defer consideration of any other fundamental changes in our tax structure until 1965

As I noted in my inaugural message, I believe this session of the Legislature should authorize creation of a Tax Commission to undertake during the next two years a fundamental analysis of our local and state tax structures and their increasingly complex relationships

That commission should report both to the budget session next year and the General Session of 1965 on possible methods of apportioning responsibilities for support and tax resources equitably among the State and its various subdivisions

We all know that the property tax is the principal source of local revenue, is frequently burdensome and often unfairly applied

At the same time we know that this fact continues to force local officials to ask for state tax funds to finance activities which most would agree are local responsibilities

I will later send you a special message on this subject, but the proposed creation of a Tax Commission to report in 1965 is one more strong and central reason to adopt the revenue reform recommendations contained in this Budget

Against this background, I now ask you to consider the following noteworthy expenditure proposals

EDUCATION

In this Budget, as in my past four budgets, I assign first priority to public education The dramatic increases in our school population, and the public's wise insistence on the highest academic standards, compel this emphasis

I recommend expenditure of $1,233,000,000 for public education from current income—an increase of $98 million The total figure amounts to more than 42 percent of total revenues for 1963-64 Four-fifths of the increase or $78 million will augment present apportionments for average daily attendance

Our public schools, from kindergarten through junior college, will have an attendance of more than 4 million in the next fiscal year—a growth of more than 220,000 Under present law, this growth would require an additional state contribution of $48 million I propose, however, that we add $30 million more to that amount to relieve demands on the local property taxpayer

But I firmly believe you should not make the additional $30 million available unless you also enact a realistic program of county wide equalization, which in itself would produce still another $25 million a year

Islands of assessed wealth should contribute their fair share to the cost of public education The present system enables rich districts to contribute a negligible fraction of assessed valuation to the schools while property owners in poor districts pay three and four times as high a percentage

Democracy requires that we share the cost of schools just as we share the cost of public recreation or public health

I also propose that the State strengthen its long-neglected public library system by encouraging regional co-operation and the formation of adequate library service areas Funds to implement this program have been included, subject to your approval of a formula for distribution of these grants

Continued growth of our college-age students will again require substantial additional support for the university and state college systems. With 12,000 more students, these institutions will require operating funds of $266 million. Commitments for future enrollments will also require additional classrooms and other educational facilities totaling $125 million from the state building bond issue approved at last November's election. This includes $67.5 million for the University of California and $57.6 million for the state colleges. I again include a modest amount to establish and encourage faculty research within our state college system, as recommended by the master plan under which we are now operating. Research opportunities must be provided if we are to compete and maintain our position in the intellectual market.

One other educational program will provide the means for a statewide attack on the problem of culturally deprived students who, because of economic, racial, migratory, or other background, fail to realize their educational potential. Leadership within the State Department of Education has been provided to assemble data needed to solve the many facets of the problem, and to conduct research studies in selected school districts. I strongly recommend this program for your approval.

HEALTH AND WELFARE

This Budget carries improved programs in the general field of human welfare. It recognizes the need for greater participation in state-local co-operative programs directed toward both mentally ill and mentally retarded persons.

State participation in the Short-Doyle mental health program should be increased by $2,000,000, with the additional money to be applied to new and expanded local programs, including recently authorized multipurpose centers for the mentally retarded.

Those handicapped, either vocationally or socially, will receive recognition by an increase of $7.5 million in aid to the totally disabled and aid to needy children. This amount will also make a substantial contribution to cost sharing between the counties and the State.

Provision is also made, at a cost of $375,000, for an intensified review and rehabilitation of the industrially injured.

Increased emphasis in this general field also includes special projects for vocationally adaptable mental hospital patients and recipients of Old Age and Survivors Insurance or public assistance to help make them at least partially self-supporting.

WATER DEVELOPMENT

I propose construction of $193 million in state water plan projects—more than double the $87 million for the current year.

Of this investment in water facilities, $36 million will come from the California Water Fund and $157 million from the initial sales of water bonds. Inclusion of these self-liquidating bonds in the Budget totals, incidentally, is an excellent example of the confusion caused by mixing expenditures from current income with long-term capital investment.

Among major expenditures for 1963-64 are $79,908,000 for the Oroville Division, including $29,908,000 for the dam proper, $47,975,000 for the San Luis Project, $17,451,000 for the South Bay Aqueduct, and $15,490,000 for the North San Joaquin Division of the California Aqueduct.

Until now, work on the water project has been largely preparatory. But the coming year marks the beginning of major project construction.

The Oroville Dam will be the largest earthfill dam in the world. The aqueduct system will channel more water to farm, home and factory than any other public project in history.

I can report to you with pride that this plan, historic in conception and scope, is proceeding on schedule, and bids on major units continue to come in under estimate.

AGRICULTURE

The Budget contains allocations for research in two areas of vital concern to the future of California's $3 billion agricultural economy. One involves the European Common Market and the other a system of domestic freight rates that I believe to be harmful to California farmers in the national market.

I propose, first, that we employ an economist and staff to protect and promote California agriculture in Common Market and all other foreign trade negotiations.

The Federal Government is now discussing tariff adjustments with the Common Market and we expect requests from member countries that would impair the marketing position of at least 20 of California's farm products. The staff I propose to create would develop and assist industry in presenting the case against unfair tariffs in Washington. If we can show a damaging impact on our economy from tariff adjustments, I am certain Washington will resist many of the Common Market demands.

I recommend also that we employ a staff to analyze the effects of restrictive interstate freight rates on California agriculture, particularly poultry, dairy and livestock producers

Definite inequities presently exist and we must move as quickly as possible to present the case for adjustment to federal officials

Finally, I recommend that we augment our present inspection safeguards against pesticide contamination of milk fruits and vegetables

In the current year, we are able to inspect less than one percent of such products reaching the consumer, and find excessive contamination in one out of 20 inspections

Employment of seven additional chemists in the Department of Agriculture, and purchase of new testing equipment, will enable us to double the present number of inspections

SALARIES

The State Personnel Board has made recommendations which would require increases of $62 million if all comparable state employees were to be covered Of that amount, $45 million would be from the General Fund and $17 million from special funds

The board has recommended a 10 percent increase for many, a 5 percent increase for some, and no increase for still others

In view of the difficult financial problems facing the State, I am compelled to reduce the total to $30,750,000, $21,830,000 from the General Fund and $8,920,000 from special funds

The amount provided will permit 5 percent increases for all those classes designated by the Personnel Board as lagging furthest behind, and another $2,000,000 for apportionment among the other classes to meet inequities causing management problems

I also propose to submit limited salary increase measures for statutory officials and judges These measures will be designed to bring these salaries into more equitable relationships with executive and judicial salaries paid in other governmental jurisdictions

Finally, I propose 5 percent increases in academic salary funds which will be available for independent apportionment by the University of California and the California State College System

This message has dealt in detail only with broader expenditure categories But you will find in the budget other proposals of decisive impact on the State and its future

Among them are creation of a Human Rights Commission, urban affairs and housing, more highway patrolmen, promotion of tourism, educational television, a youth conservation work program, a broader scope of activity for the Committee on Automation and Technology, continued government reorganization, and enhancement of opportunities for minorities through broader emphasis on apprenticeship training

Following is a summary of the General Fund condition

GENERAL FUND CONDITION

Thank you for your consideration of these proposals I submit them without regard for partisanship and trust that you will evaluate them in the same spirit

They represent many hundreds of decisions reached in an effort to answer the single most dominant question of modern California government How can we maintain the quality of life in California at a time when momentous growth imposes a relentless pressure on all our resources?

Together, Republicans and Democrats, we have done remarkably well And we have done best when we have avoided the rancors and bitterness of extreme partisanship

Let us once more do our best Let us once more act in California s traditional spirit of affirmation

We are not here to turn back or stand still but to move boldly forward This Budget is designed to help us do just that, and I herewith submit it to you with pride and with confidence

Respectfully submitted,

EDMUND G BROWN, Governor

Above transmitted Governor's Budget ordered filed with the Secretary of State

Mr Conrad arose to direct a parliamentary inquiry to either the Majority Floor Leader or the Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means

On request of Mr McMillan, Mr Conrad agreed to withhold his inquiry until the Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means had returned to the Chamber

WITHDRAWAL AND RE-REFERENCE OF ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 528

On request of Speaker Unruh, Speaker pro Tempore Bee directed that Assembly Bill No 528 be withdrawn from the Committee on Social Welfare, and re-referred to the Committee on Revenue and Taxation

STATEMENT ON CAPITAL PUNISHMENT BY GOVERNOR EDMUND G. BROWN

To the Senate and Assembly of the Legislature of California

I ask this Legislature to enact a moratorium on capital punishment

It is my personal conviction we should abolish the death penalty entirely I am willing, however, to set aside temporarily my opposition to all state executions in order that we may put this highly emotional and divisive issue to the test of a moratorium I would hope that even the most adamant defenders of capital punishment would, similarly, accept this opportunity to prove their case

There is now before you a proposal to limit imposition of the death penalty the next four years to those who commit first degree murder after a prior conviction for the same offense, to those who commit first degree murder involving two or more victims, to those who murder in the course of a kidnaping, to those who murder while in lawful custody, and to those who murder a peace officer or a person assisting a peace officer in the performance of his duty

I support this proposal and will carry the case for its enactment not only to this Legislature but to all the citizens of California

But let this be understood I accept the five exemptions not because I believe they will deter the crimes in question I accept them because the remove the most common objections to total abolition It is better that we move one step away from the barbaric practice of capital punishment than not move at all

I.

The trend among humane and forward-looking state and national governments is toward diminution of the death penalty Even jurisdictions which refuse to abolish it have become increasingly selective in its application In the three decades since 1930, the national average of state executions has shrunk from 167 to 72 a year

Yet California, a model for the nation in social and correctional reform, continues to run counter to the trend We have led all other states the past three years in the number of executions In the years 1960 through 1962, 28 persons were put to death in our gas chamber But there were only eight executions in New York—a state similar to ours in population, ethnic concentration and socio-economic structure. We had 11 executions last year alone and New York had none

Is it not time to ask ourselves why California broadens its application of capital punishment in an age when most states and nations are turning away from it as an effective deterrent to capital crime?

You know where I stand. I oppose capital punishment because it weakens the very society it is meant to protect, because it shames the public conscience and denies the entire rehabilitative concept of modern penology.

I oppose capital punishment because it is more vengeful than punitive, because it is more an act of hate than of justice. We kill the murderer because we fear him, not because he is beyond rehabilitation or control. We kill him not for his crime but in the blind hope that others may not commit his crime.

And we can take no pride from the knowledge that we often equate the darkness of a man's crime with the darkness of his skin—his right to live with the rightness of his status in life.

I oppose capital punishment, too, because it brutalizes man, because a society that takes human life cannot invest its citizens with respect for human life.

To those who invoke the ancient code, "an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth," I answer that society must live by an ethic and an intelligence above that of the homicidal psychotic. The murderer most often kills in the heat of passion and with only a moment's forethought. But we who judge him kill coolly and with long premeditation.

Let us invoke, rather, the Biblical commandment, "Thou shalt not kill," and apply it as rigidly to the State as we now apply it to citizens of the State.

I recognize there is no clear consensus among us on the moral justice or injustice of capital punishment. Nor is there consensus on the compassion we should or should not feel for those who have died, and who now await death, at our hands.

For that reason, I will not center my present argument for a moratorium on the controversial grounds of public morality or pity for the lowest members of an imperfect society. Rather, I will confine my case in chief to that which is not debatable in the light of reason and of historical knowledge.

The failure of capital punishment to deter capital crime.

The unjust and unpredictable enforcement of the death penalty in California.

II

Punishment is a deterrent to crime only if it is swift and certain. But of all major crimes, the punishment for homicide is most subject to the law's delay and to the inconsistencies of our courts.

The evidence is clear. In 1961 there were 609 homicides in California. Only 106 defendants were found guilty of first degree murder and only 20 were given the sentence of death.

How can it be argued that our gas chamber is an effective deterrent if only one murderer in 30 is actually sent to Death Row?

Of the 20 who did receive death sentences for murder in 1961, only five went to the gas chamber by January 1 1963. Of the remaining 15, one already has won a reversal of penalty and three more will win reversals if the historical ratio pertains. As Governor, I have given executive clemency to another four, commuting their sentences to life without possibility of parole.

It is probable, then, that only 12 of the 609 murderers actually will surrender their lives to the State. What possible deterrence can there be in a penalty we invoke only 2 percent of the time?

My argument would not stand if we put to death all murderers who were found to be sane. Then, at least, punishment would be certain, if not swift. But I cannot believe a person contemplating murder is much afraid of a penalty he has 49 chances in 50 of escaping.

I will concede our random enforcement of the death penalty in California is not in itself an all-convincing argument against deterrence.

The incontrovertible proof is to be found in those states and nations which have given up the death penalty. In no instance has there been a meaningful increase in homicides after abolition. To the contrary, many states and nations without capital punishment have an incidence of murder below that of contiguous and comparable jurisdictions where the death penalty is in effect.

States without the death penalty, or with minimum enforcement of it, rank among the lowest in homicides. Yet 12 southern states, all of whom enforce the death penalty vigorously, have the highest incidence of murder.

If capital punishment is not a deterrent, what arguments are left to its defenders?

Society has no such right. The purpose of punishment is to rehabilitate or control, not destroy.

Self-protection—the certainty that a dead murderer can never repeat his crime?

Recidivism is rare among first degree murderers who are given parole. The bandit or kidnaper is far more likely to commit murder after his release—and the record proves it. Should we, then, execute all who have been found guilty of crimes of violence?

Capital punishment not only fails to deter capital crime but is actually an obstruction to the swift and certain administration of justice

The reluctance of many juries to impose it often permits the first degree murderer to escape with a second degree or manslaughter conviction

The division of murder cases into three separate trials for guilt, sanity and penalty is costly to the taxpayer and wasteful of the time and resources of a court system whose calendar is already oppressive

We confine the issue of sanity almost entirely to murder cases, requiring the services of psychiatrists for both defense and prosecution and giving rise to the persistent controversy over the modern application of the M'Naghten Rules

Only last week a man went to his death in our gas chamber who was found to be mentally sick but legally sane The sophistry of such distinctions should torture the conscience of us all

A moratorium would largely eliminate the sanity phase of murder trials and insure a swifter and more precise determination of crime and punishment

I believe, too, a moratorium would end our modern equivalent of the Roman Circus, the lurid and emotional atmosphere in which society must render the most awesome of its judgments—life or death for one of its citizens

Let us restore such trials to their proper setting of order and dignity

And let us admit the law is subject to error—the ugly chance we might condemn the innocent

In 1958 a man by the name of John Henry Fry was sent to San Quentin for the willful slaying of his wife He was under the influence of alcohol at the time of the crime and was uncertain of his own guilt or innocence But he chose to plead guilty to manslaughter and was given a sentence of one to 10 years

A year later another man was found to be guilty and I issued a full pardon to John Henry Fry

The point to remember is this An innocent man could have been sent to his death, on the evidence in the case, had he chosen to plead not guilty and gone to trial on a first degree murder indictment

Our hit or miss enforcement of the death penalty in California is not unlike a wheel of chance

We execute the man but let the woman live for identical crimes

Indeed, the odds against the murderer change with the weapon he chooses If he shoots his victim, the odds favor his execution If he bludgeons or poisons his victim, the odds favor life imprisonment

Even in advance of his trial he gambles with his life Should he plead guilty and hope for leniency from the court? Or should he plead not guilty and risk death?

There are in Death Row today felons awaiting execution for crimes identical in degree and extenuation to those for which other prisoners are serving life terms with possibility of parole

The murderer even gambles on the jurisdiction in which he commits his crime There are counties in California in which juries have never sent a murderer to Death Row

Is it just that such abstract elements should decide the issue of life or death? I think not

We come now to one of the most damning indictments of the death penalty It is a fact that we sentence to death members of minority races, the poor, the unintelligent and the friendless for crimes we are prone to minimize in defendants who are more like ourselves

The Negro who kills in a robbery is much more likely to die in our gas chamber than the influential executive who kills for community property

In California last year we took the lives of six Caucasians and five members of minority races Nationally in 1961 civil authorities took the lives of 42 persons Of this number 20 were Caucasians and 22 were Negroes—a ratio far out of proportion both to population and division of offenses

Can we deny that capital punishment imposes a further, and fatal, discrimination against those among us who already are the most common victims of bigotry and prejudice?

As for the poor of all races, it is clear we execute them in disproportionate numbers because they lack the resources to retain the most skilful counsel or to press their cases to the ultimate

I do not intend this as criticism of our public defenders or of attorneys the courts appoint to defend the indigent But one has only to compare the extent of appeals in cases involving private as against public counsel to illustrate the point

I submit to you, then, that a moratorium not only would support the case against deterrence but would banish the inequities that plague our present enforcement of the death penalty And we must banish them as an act of public conscience

I have had to live intimately with capital punishment for all the 19 years of my public life As district attorney, Attorney General and Governor, I have upheld the death penalty because it is my sworn duty to uphold it And I will continue to do what the law commands whatever decision this Legislature may reach

In my early years as a district attorney, I was an advocate of the death penalty But with the passing of time and my close association with hundreds of death penalty cases, I have come to believe that capital punishment is a failure—and the preponderance of evidence bears me out

This Legislature and I have agreed in the past that prejudice, poverty and ignorance are direct causes of criminal behavior

We are agreed that we must outlaw racial discrimination, that we must legislate against the slum and the ghetto; that we must improve our systems of vocational rehabilitation, and that we must raise the living standards of all our citizens

Can we, then, not agree on a more realistic and humane philosophy toward the victims of the very conditions we deplore in common and act in common to improve?

The case I argue is controversial There is strong public disagreement over the entire question of capital punishment and that disagreement finds its partisans in this Legislature

But can we not submit our differences to the test of time? Can we not join those states and nations which recognize that no society is infallible in its judgments and that no man is beyond hope—beyond our power and God's to redeem him?

Respectfully submitted,

By Mr. Z'berg.

House Resolution No 76

Relative to congratulating the California Optometric Association

WHEREAS, The California Optometric Association will hold its 64th Annual Congress this year from February 20th to 23d at the El Dorado Hotel in Sacramento, and

WHEREAS, This year the California Optometric Association is celebrating its 60th Anniversary of existence under California law, the Optometry Act of 1903, and

WHEREAS, During the past 64 years, the number of professionally practicing optometrists throughout the State has grown to around 1500, and

WHEREAS, The California Optometric Association is composed of 28 affiliate societies from Oregon to the Mexican border, and

WHEREAS, Because of the highly specialized services which the optometrist renders to society's need for correct vision in this age of automation and speed, he has become increasingly important to the health and welfare of society, striving for the visual welfare of the public, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of this House take this opportunity to express their sincere congratulations to the California Optometric Association on the occasion of its 64th Annual Congress and its 60th Anniversary under California law; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to Dr Bernard A Garrett, President of the California Optometric Association, and to Mr Paul Yarwood, Administrative Director of said association

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs Powers, Greene, and Z'berg

House Resolution No. 77

Relative to commending the City of Sacramento on its efforts to establish an arts and community center

WHEREAS, The City of Sacramento not only is the capital of California but also a major population center in the western United States, and

WHEREAS, Along with its tremendous growth in recent years has come a demand for facilities in which to present cultural, recreational, entertainment and other community events, and a need for more and greater facilities for people and organizations holding their conventions in the capital of the State of California, and

WHEREAS, All California would benefit by the establishment of such facilities; and

WHEREAS, The people of Sacramento, on February 19, 1963, will have an opportunity to vote upon a bond issue to furnish funds for the construction of buildings which will provide, in the downtown area of Sacramento, both a theater-concert complex with seating for 2,500 persons and an exhibition-convention complex with facilities for 3,000 people and, as well, will afford a visual arts complex at the famous and historic Crocker Art Gallery, and

WHEREAS, These new facilities will enable the City of Sacramento to be the focal point of the cultural activities of an expected population of 1,380,000 people within the Sacramento urban area and a convention and exhibition site for all the western United States, and

WHEREAS, Members of the Legislature are delighted that these additional facilities will be available to them, to their families, and to all others coming to the capital for governmental and legislative business during the legislative sessions and throughout the year, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That its members commend the City of Sacramento on its progressive and enlightened efforts to establish an arts and community center in Sacramento, and express their hope that every Sacramento citizen will find it possible to cast his vote in favor of the proposal to be voted upon on February 19, 1963, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to James B McKinney, Mayor of the City of Sacramento, and to Judge Thomas J MacBride, Chairman of the Citizens' Committee for the Arts and Community Center.

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

By Mr Young

Commending Kenneth Dixon and Wilbur Manson

WHEREAS, On February 1, 1963, during the serious crisis caused by the flooding of the Napa River, Kenneth Dixon, who is 11 years old, and Wilbur Manson displayed great courage and heroism by the parts they played in extricating Mrs Laverne Berg and her six young passengers from her car which, because of the overflowing of the Napa River and the resulting flooding of downtown Napa, was sinking and was in danger of being washed into the river; and

WHEREAS, Kenneth Dixon left Mrs Berg's car and swam and waded for help and Wilbur Manson, who was passing the scene in his truck, rescued Mrs Berg and her passengers in his truck and drove them to higher ground; and

WHEREAS, The courageous action of these two heroes averted a possible tragedy and deserves the highest recognition, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the members hereby commend Kenneth Dixon and Wilbur Manson for their quick thinking and effective action, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to Kenneth Dixon and Wilbur Manson

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

Speaker Presiding

At 11 55 a m, Hon Jesse M. Unruh, Speaker of the Assembly, presiding

STATEMENT OF SPEAKER UNRUH

Speaker Unruh stated that, in his appointment of the standing committees, he has limited each member to four committees, with one exception This policy has been maintained in an effort to relieve the workload placed on the individual members and on the so-called major committees

The Speaker requested that the members be punctual in their attendance at committee meetings, and impressed upon the chairmen of the committees the importance of enforcing early attendance, and the starting of meetings with a quorum present at the designated time He urged strict adherence to this policy in order to avoid, insofar as possible, the necessity for night meetings of any committees other than the Committee on Ways and Means

Speaker Unruh stated that, to the best of his knowledge, there are only 13 conflicts in the schedule of committee meetings—the lowest in recent years He suggested that if any member who has a conflict can find another member of the same party who is agreeable to exchanging a committee appointment with him, the Speaker will be happy to talk with both members, and attempt to reach a satisfactory disposition of the question If a member has a conflict which is too harsh to maintain, the Speaker will consider removing the member from one of the conflicting committees on request of the member

Mr Gonsalves arose to the following parliamentary inquiry If a conflict occurs, will there be the same conflict at all times?

Reply by Speaker

Speaker Unruh replied that the only variance would be when the conflict is between two committees, one of which meets twice a week, while the other meets only once a week, or does not meet regularly

ANNOUNCEMENT

Speaker Unruh announced a meeting of committee chairmen at 10 a m tomorrow morning in Room 2170, at which time committee rules and procedure will be discussed

Relating to commending Judge Elmer Wilson Heald

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Members of the Assembly that Judge Elmer Wilson Heald is retiring as Superior Court Judge of Imperial County after 20 years of distinguished service on the bench; and

WHEREAS, He served in the United States Army from 1917 to 1919, and was discharged as a first lieutenant; and

WHEREAS, Judge Heald began his practice of the law in 1920 in the City of Calipatria, and later ably served for 14 years as the District Attorney of Imperial County, and

WHEREAS, In 1922 he journeyed to Washington, D C and successfully fought for the passage of the Swing-Johnson Bill, which led to the Boulder Canyon Act and the building of the All-American Canal, and

WHEREAS, Judge Heald has actively worked in youth leadership programs, and established the Conciliation Court in order to save marriages, and

WHEREAS, In addition to his superior record of achievements in his professional life, Judge Heald has been a leader in civic, fraternal and service organizations in his community and State, serving during this year as the Grand Master of the Masonic Lodge of California and actively participating in the Salvation Army Advisory Board, as an Elder of the Presbyterian Church, as a member of the American Legion, the El Centro Masonic Lodge No 384, the Eagles and the Elks lodges, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly do hereby convey to Judge Elmer Wilson Heald their highest commendation for the outstanding record of professional accomplishment and community service which he has compiled, and further extend to him their best wishes for the years to come, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to prepare and transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Judge Heald

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Rules

House Resolution No. 80

Relative to 17th Annual Lakewood Pan-American Festival

WHEREAS, The 17th Annual Lakewood Pan-American Festival and Parade will take place this coming April, in the week of April 15th through the 21st, and

WHEREAS, The citizens of the City of Lakewood and the Greater Lakewood area graciously sponsor this week-long celebration with the deep understanding "that the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations", and

WHEREAS, What began as a friendly hand-shake across a fence has grown into a friendship program that stretches across the boundaries of the United States into Latin America, and

WHEREAS, Thousands of people from the Lakewood area extend this American hand of friendship to our Latin American neighbors and display an enlightened interest in the culture and heritage of our neighbors to the south, and

WHEREAS, This week-long celebration, with the Latin American Consular Corps of Los Angeles as honored guests, commences with the El Comenzio Luncheon and is highlighted by the Flag Exchange Program, the Consular Ball and Banquet introducing each Consul with his flag and national anthem, and the "Saludos Amigos" parade uniquely famous for cars decorated with the many flags of the countries of the consuls riding therein, and

WHEREAS, The residents of the Lakewood area have successfully demonstrated for 17 years their belief that "we on these two continents share a common bond and that when we learn to know one another better, the stronger these bonds of friendship and understanding will be"; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly hereby congratulate the citizens of the City of Lakewood and the Greater Lakewood area on the holding of the 17th Annual Lakewood Pan-American Festival, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to the Lakewood City Council and to the Lakewood Pan-American Festival, Inc

January 11, 1963

Hon Jesse M Unruh
State Capitol, Sacramento

DEAR MR SPEAKER Transmitted herewith is a Report of the Assembly Interim Committee on Elections and Reapportionment on the subject of Political Party Organization The committee has spent a major portion of its time studying this important subject

We anticipate that this report will be both interesting and helpful to Members of the Assembly in their legislative work

Our authority for this study is House Resolution No 361 of the 1961 Legislative Session and subsequent correspondence from the Rules Committee Further supporting data not contained in this report are in the committee files and available to any interested party on request

Sincerely,

NICHOLAS C PETRIS, Chairman

FRANK LUCKEL
WILLIAM S GRANT
ROBERT W CROWN
PHILLIP BURTON
THOMAS M. REES

Assemblyman Edward E Elliott wishes to be recorded as opposed to the proposal that members of county central committees be elected for staggered four-year terms He states that he can recall no testimony presented to the Assembly Interim Committee on Elections and Reapportionment sufficient to sustain such a recommendation He believes that the principle of staggered terms is detrimental because it acts as a brake on the clear reflection of the public will, and is usually designed for that purpose He believes the terms should remain at two years

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

Speaker pro Tempore Bee introduced Mrs Rose Ohanian, mother-in-law, and Mrs Gladys C Danielson, wife of Assemblyman George E Danielson, to the Members of the Assembly, who joined in welcoming them on their visit to the Assembly Chamber

Eternal God, We know that the greatest resource in our State is not water, minerals, or agriculture, but our youth We are grateful for the agencies of Boy and Girl Scouts, YMCA, YWCA, and other groups working for the inspiring and strengthening of youth

Give to our legislators wisdom to be building for our youth a State where all will not be easy, but where their potentials can be realized.

May they be encouraged to dream dreams, not merely of social security, but of social service May they be daring and courageous in striving to bring about a world without race discrimination, and equal opportunities for all

In the Name of Him who said, "A little child shall lead them"—AMEN

WHEREAS, Saint Mary's College has been in the forefront in developing new approaches to education, as witnessed by its World Classics Program, its use of closed circuit television for biology experiments, and its foreign language teaching laboratories, and

WHEREAS, Often described as a "gem of a liberal arts college," Saint Mary's cultivates the character, as well as the intellect, in developing the whole man; and

WHEREAS, The students of Saint Mary's College will be among tomorrow's leaders, schooled in the sciences but appreciative of the humanities, capable of communicating with the scientist, the businessman, or the artist in a world so specialized that even the learned often misunderstand one another; and

WHEREAS, Saint Mary's College stands with enviable eminence among liberal arts colleges in this State and in the Nation, and

WHEREAS, This State is justly proud of having within its borders an institution such as Saint Mary's College which has made so many contributions to the welfare of mankind and the State during the one hundred years of its existence; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly hereby congratulate Saint Mary's College on its Centennial Anniversary and express their sincere admiration of the achievements of that institution, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Brother Timothy Michael, F S C, President of Saint Mary's College

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

ASSEMBLY INTERIM COMMITTEE ON CIVIL SERVICE AND STATE PERSONNEL
December, 1962

Hon Jesse M Unruh

MR SPEAKER AND MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY Pursuant to House Resolution No 361 of the 1961 General Session, directing the Assembly Interim Committee on Civil Service and State Personnel to ascertain, study and analyze facts relating to the State Civil Service System and state personnel, your committee transmits herewith the final report of its findings and recommendations

Legislation recommended by the committee is set forth in this report, along with committee observations and committee recommendations Legislative action has not been recommended for some of the subjects studied, because such action has been deemed unnecessary or inappropriate at this time, or because further research and study appear necessary.

The committee spent a considerable part of its time hearing the subjects of public employee representation, health insurance, liberalized benefits for retired state employees, oral examinations, salary adjustment procedures, polygraph tests, retirement bills, and other related matters

Bills recommended by this interim committee will be introduced at the 1963 Regular Session as interim committee sponsored bills

Transcripts of the hearings and other information submitted are available in the office of the chairman of the committee, Charles W. Meyers, State Capitol, Room 2126, Sacramento, California

ASSEMBLY, CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE

Hon Speaker of the Assembly
Hon Members of the Assembly
Assembly Chamber
State Capitol, Sacramento

In accordance with the provisions of House Resolution 361(g) of the 1961 Regular Session, your Committee on Finance and Insurance hereby submits its Final Report covering its activities during the 1961-1962 interim

On March 27, 1962, your committee published a preliminary report on three studies which it had concluded These reports dealt with fire insurance, land sale contracts, and Cal-Vet insurance That report is hereby incorporated by reference into this report

In approving this report, Assemblyman Levering wishes it to be noted that he dissents on subsections two and three of the conclusions section in the report on prepaid health plans; subsections one and three of the conclusions section in the report on check sellers and cashers.

While the Committee on Finance and Insurance is obligated to many persons and organizations for the assistance rendered in the inquiries pursued this past interim, we should like especially to express our appreciation to the Institute of Industrial Relations, University of California at Los Angeles, for the conference it sponsored on November 29 and 30, 1962, which helped immeasurably to crystallize our study of prepaid, direct service health plans

Hon Jesse M. Unruh,
Speaker of the Assembly; and
Hon Members of the Assembly

DEAR SPEAKER UNRUH AND MEMBERS Pursuant to House Resolution No 361 of the 1961 California Legislature, your Assembly Interim

[1] Deceased
[2] Resigned April 22, 1962
[3] Resigned September 1, 1962

Committee on Public Utilities and Corporations submits its report covering its functions and activities during the 1961-63 interim

All studies were conducted by the full interim committee and the recommendations submitted in this report have been approved by all members of the committee except for a qualified approval by Assemblyman Paul J Lunardi

Former Assemblyman Rex M Cunningham presided as chairman of this committee from the start of the interim period until his resignation on April 22, 1962 Assemblyman Montivel A Burke acted as chairman of this committee from April 22, 1962 to August 29, 1962. Assemblyman John C Williamson presided as chairman of this committee from August 29, 1962, to the end of the interim period

Respectfully submitted,

REVENUE AND TAXATION
November 1, 1962

Hon Jesse M Unruh
Speaker of the Assembly, and
Members of the Assembly:

The Assembly Interim Committee on Revenue and Taxation was constituted under the provisions of House Resolution No 361, Section (1) adopted by the Assembly on June 9, 1961, for the purpose of considering the subject matter embraced in the Revenue and Taxation Code and certain specific subjects related thereto

The addition of Messrs Holmes, Kilpatrick, and Pattee to those members who had served on the Standing Committee on Revenue and Taxation during the 1961 session brought the interim committee membership from 16 to 19 The death of Mr Hicks and the resignation from the Assembly of Messrs Dahl, DeLotto, and Munnell brought the committee membership to the present 15

This committee issued a Progress Report to the Legislature, printed in the Assembly Journal for the 1962 Regular (Budget) Session for February 6, 1962, pp 119-124 In addition, this committee was required to report to the 1962 session on the subject matter of House Resolution No 445 of the 1961 session The committee issued this report under the title, Report of the Assembly Interim Committee on Revenue and Taxation on State Assistance for County Road and City Street Construction and Improvement, printed in the Assembly Journal for the 1962 Regular (Budget) Session for March 12, 1962, pp 207-211

Under the terms of House Resolution No 381 of the 1961 session, this committee was directed to study the financing of rapid transit systems in California Because of the fact that the success or failure of the proposed bond issue submitted by the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District to the electorate at the November 1962 general election would have an important bearing on the findings of the committee on this subject, the committee will issue a separate report on the subject matter of House Resolution No 381 of the 1961 session at a later date, but not later than the fifth legislative day of the 1963 session. That report will be entitled, Report of the Assembly Interim Committee on

Revenue and Taxation on Financing Public Rapid Transit Systems in California

The committee herewith submits its final report to the 1963 Session of the Legislature

ASSEMBLY INTERIM COMMITTEE ON WATER
October 5, 1962

Hon Jesse M Unruh
Speaker of the Assembly, and
Members of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento

GENTLEMEN· The Assembly Interim Committee on Water submits herewith its report on Ground Water Problems in California. This report and the hearings which preceded it were authorized by House Resolution No 179, 1961 Also included in this report are the committee's consideration of Assembly Bills Nos 3042 and 1995 and Assembly Concurrent Resolution No 120

As more fully set forth in the body of the report and the summary, your committee has thoroughly studied the legal, physical, economic management and other aspects of ground water management in California No legislation is being recommended because the approaches to ground water management currently used in the State, when properly understood and applied, appear to be adequate If specific problems arise in the future, legislation can be drafted to handle them at that time In the meantime, your committee finds much progress is being made on ground water management and feels that state agencies, local districts and the public can gain further experience and make substantial progress from continuation of the present approaches

This report is partially an educational document intended to explain ground water management problems for the Legislature and the public by evaluating the ground water management tools now available in California and by synthesizing the various technical disciplines involved into a comprehensive, integrated treatment of all facets of ground water management. From its two-year study, the committee concludes that local, basin-wide districts can best replenish overdrawn ground water basins by using revenues collected through replenishment assessments (1) to finance purchase of water for spreading, (2) to equalize the burden of using high cost imported surface supplies with low cost ground water and (3) to transport surface supplies of water whenever ground water basins have inadequate transmission capacity. The objective is maximum utilization of the low cost ground water basins without destroying the basins.

Your committee wishes to express its appreciation to the numerous organizations, state agencies and to private citizens who have contributed generously of their time and talents. The chairman and the committee wish to thank the committee staff, the Legislative Counsel Bureau and the Office of the Legislative Analyst for their services.

Honorable Jesse M Unruh
Speaker of the Assembly, and
Members of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento

GENTLEMEN Your Assembly Interim Committee on Water herewith submits its report, Study of Water District Laws, which was prepared pursuant to House Resolution No 434 (1961).

The report represents a comprehensive summary of selected provisions of major water district laws Although this report is primarily intended to serve as a background reference for use of the Legislature in considering district bills, it is hoped it will also be of value to the many water districts of the State

January 4, 1963

Hon Jesse M Unruh
Speaker of the Assembly
Members of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento

GENTLEMEN Submitted herewith is the report of the Subcommittee on Saline Conversion and Nuclear Energy of the Assembly Interim Committee on Water

In submitting this report I should like to call the attention of the Assembly to the last section of the report pertaining to nuclear energy The Assembly can take just pride in the foresight of Assemblyman Beaver, the Subcommittee Chairman, who six years ago foresaw the possibility that in 1972 nuclear energy might power the Tehachapi Mountain pump lifts of the state water facilities Assemblyman Beaver acted as far back as 1957 to secure passage of House Resolution No 88 which first authorized an Assembly subcommittee to study this possibility

During the ensuing years Assemblyman Beaver has worked hard to assure that nuclear energy was properly evaluated as a source of pumping energy Today, the Department of Water Resources and its engineering contractors are carefully studying its potential for the Tehachapi pump lifts and the prospect is very promising as the subcommittee's report details Although Assemblyman Beaver is retiring from the Legislature, I feel it appropriate to call your attention to his significant contribution

Sincerely,

CARLEY V PORTER, Chairman
Assembly Interim Committee on Water

ASSEMBLY INTERIM COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS
January 7, 1963

To the Speaker and Members of the Assembly

DEAR MR SPEAKER AND MEMBERS Your Interim Committee on Ways and Means, in accordance with the provisions of House Resolution No. 361(x), 1961 Regular Session, herewith respectfully submits its report on Implementation of the California State Capitol Plan

In accordance with House Resolution No 62, introduced by Assemblyman Z'berg during the Second Extraordinary Session in 1962, the Capital Outlay Subcommittee conducted a special study of land acquisition problems relating to the implementation of the California State Capitol Plan A hearing was held in Sacramento on September 7, 1962, and in addition, the subcommittee contracted with the firm of Alfred W Baxter, Jr , and Associates for the conduct of economic research and analyses During the subcommittee's studies, close liaison was maintained with representatives of the City and County of Sacramento and with the Capitol Building and Planning Commission

In transmitting the subcommittee's report, it is important to note that recommendations were made by the subcommittee and concurred in unanimously by the Ways and Means Committee at its meeting in Palm Springs on November 28, 1962 The substance of these formal actions is summarized on page (A)

The committee expresses its appreciation to the witnesses whose testimony contributed to a better understanding of the several problems involved in moving from an approved State Capitol Plan toward its embodiment in lands, landscaping, and buildings

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT W CROWN, Chairman

By Messrs Mulford, Bee, Petris, Crown, and Rumford

Relative to congratulating William F Knowland

WHEREAS, It is with the most sincere and profound pleasure that the Members of the Assembly of the State of California have learned that William F Knowland, the distinguished editor and assistant publisher of the Oakland Tribune, has been named Oakland's Outstanding Citizen of 1962" for his long-standing personal efforts in the field of public service, and

WHEREAS, This award, which is sponsored by the Oakland Inter-Service Club Council and the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, is intended to give public recognition to citizens who give freely of their time, talents, and funds to civic work and to inspire others to enter this field of service, and

WHEREAS, There are but few men in the history of this State who have given so freely and unselfishly of their time, talents, and funds in the service of their fellow man, and but fewer still who have been as able and done as effective a job, as William F Knowland, and

WHEREAS, His exemplary record of public service encompasses outstanding service as a Member of the Assembly and Senate of the California Legislature, a Member of the United States Senate for 13 years, during the course of which he served with distinction as both the Majority and Minority Leader, and as Representative of the United States to the 11th Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations, and

WHEREAS, His nomination to be "Oakland's Outstanding Citizen for 1962," which was submitted by several groups included the following citations of his beyond-the-call-of-duty public services in 1962

"As editor, assistant publisher and general manager of the Oakland Tribune, he gave leadership and promotion which carried a large number of civic and humanitarian projects to success, including the rapid transit issue, and advanced others including the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum Inc multipurpose facility, the Oakland Museums complex, the United Crusade and the Boy Scouts campaign for new camp facilities Without this publicity and encouragement, many of these all-important projects would have failed

"To the solving of Oakland's civic and welfare problems he gave freely of the vast knowledge and experience he attained in a political career that was climaxed by his selection as the majority leader of the world's most powerful body, the United States Senate

"His civic roles in 1962 included Director and member of the executive committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce; Secretary of Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum Inc , Chairman of the Regional Committee for Better Service at Oakland International Airport, Chairman of the Oakland Central Business District Committee, Foreman of the Alameda County Grand Jury, member of the Board of Directors of California State Chamber of Commerce, member Board of Governors, Bay Area Council, and key roles in a host of other committees and organizations that worked for a bigger and better Oakland and for the welfare of the citizenry," and

WHEREAS, William F Knowland is deserving of the highest commendation for his dedicated and devoted public service, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly of the State of California do hereby extend their heartiest congratulations to William F Knowland upon his selection as Oakland's "Outstanding Citizen of 1962" and commend him for his exemplary record of service to his fellow man, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to William F Knowland

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules.

Relative to expressing the Assembly's appreciation to the Reverend Robert R Ferguson, the Chaplain of the Assembly

WHEREAS, It has been the privilege and good fortune of the members of this legislative body to have had the Reverend Robert R Ferguson serving as their Chaplain during the 1963 General Session of the California Legislature, and

WHEREAS, His efforts have provided this Assembly with the guidance, inspiration and spiritual sustenance required for the proper performance of its elective duties, and

WHEREAS, The Reverend Ferguson's prayers have served to remind the members of this body of their obligations to their God, fellow men, their Nation and their State and to one another, and

WHEREAS, His example has encouraged the Members of the Assembly to merit the trust and confidence placed in them by the people of the State of California, and

WHEREAS, His devotion and humility have assisted the members in treating the problems of government with a greater tolerance and a deeper degree of understanding, and

WHEREAS, His sincerity, intelligence and ability have won for him the respect and admiration of each and every Member of the Assembly, now, therefore be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly, by means of this resolution, do officially manifest their deepest appreciation to the Reverend Robert R Ferguson for the inspiration and spiritual leadership he has provided the members of this House through his prayers, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk be instructed and he is hereby authorized to have printed 500 copies of a booklet containing the text of the prayers offered by the Reverend Robert R Ferguson during the 1963 Session of the Assembly, and that he be further instructed to send one copy of this booklet to each Member of the Assembly, and one copy to each newspaperman and attaché employed on the Assembly Desk, the booklets remaining to be delivered to the Reverend Robert R Ferguson accompanied by a suitably prepared copy of this resolution and the congratulations of the Members of the Assembly

Relative to the creation of the Assembly Committee on Interstate Co-operation

1 The Assembly Committee on Interstate Co-operation is hereby created and authorized and directed to ascertain, study and analyze all facts relating to co-operation between this State and the other states and with the Federal Government, including but not limited to the operation, effect, administration, enforcement and needed revision of any and all laws in any way bearing upon or relating to the subject of this resolution, and to report thereon to the Assembly, including in the reports its recommendations for appropriate legislation.

2 The committee shall consist of the same seven Members of the Assembly as authorized by Section 8001 of the Government Code, except that, in the interest of keeping the State of California adequately represented at Interstate meetings, if any such member is unable to attend such a meeting the chairman, with the consent of the Speaker, may select another Member of the Assembly to serve temporarily and to attend the meeting Such temporary member shall have all the rights and duties of a regular member

3 The committee is authorized to act during this session of the Legislature, including any recess, and after final adjournment until the commencement of the 1963 Regular Session, with authority to file its final report not later than the 30th calendar day of that session

4 The committee and its members shall have and exercise all of the rights, duties and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the provisions of the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly and of the Standing Rules of the Assembly as they are adopted and amended from time to time at this session, which provisions are incorporated herein and made applicable to this committee and its members

(a) To contract with such other agencies, public or private, as it deems necessary for the rendition and affording of such services, facilities, studies and reports to the committee as will best assist it to carry out the purposes for which it is created

(b) To co-operate with and secure the co-operation of county, city, city and county, and other local law enforcement agencies in investigating any matter within the scope of this resolution and to direct the sheriff of any county to serve subpoenas, orders and other process issued by the committee

(c) To report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature and to the people from time to time and at any time, not later than herein provided

(d) To do any and all other things necessary or convenient to enable it fully and adequately to exercise its powers, perform its duties, and accomplish the objects and purposes of this resolution

6 The committee, and any subcommittee when so authorized by the committee, may meet and act without as well as within the State of California, and is authorized to leave the State in the performance of its duties

7 The sum of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby made available from the Contingent Fund of the Assembly for the expenses of the committee and its members and for any charges, expenses or claims as may incur under this resolution, to be paid from said Contingent Fund and disbursed, after certification by the chairman of the committee, upon warrants drawn by the State Controller upon the State Treasurer

Relating to commemorating Engineers' Week

WHEREAS, The week of Washington's birthday has been selected by the societies of professional engineers as National Engineers' Week, and

WHEREAS, Man's progress from caves of the stone age to the modern homes and office buildings of today has been marked by the growth of the profession of engineering, which has long provided the means by which man has reshaped his environment in response to the ever-increasing demands of a mobile and complex society, and

WHEREAS, Many of the immense problems of California's phenomenal growth are engineering problems, water development, reclamation, flood control, air and water pollution programs, land use planning, highways, recreational facilities, school construction, state building construction, and protection of the public from natural and enemy disasters, and

WHEREAS, The continuation of our scientific program requires that highly capable young men and women with fine minds and talents choose the profession of engineering, and

WHEREAS, The celebration of Engineers' Week in California is to be marked during the week of February 16 to 23, 1963, by numerous community events which are designed to inform the public on the vital role of the engineer in our society, as well as to offer guidance to graduating high school students who may in a short while enter the honored profession of engineering, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That Members of the Assembly commend the professional engineering societies of the State of California during Engineers Week, February 16 to 23, 1963, and urge all Californians to attend the events of this special week and to promote a broader understanding of the role of the engineer in our society, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk is directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to the Engineering Council of Sacramento Valley, the Engineering Council of San Diego, the Engineering Council of Los Angeles, and the Fresno Joint Council of Architects and Engineers of Fresno

Relating to the death of Edwin Bernard Weinberg

WHEREAS, The Members of the Assembly were deeply saddened to learn of the death on November 13, 1962, of Edwin Bernard Weinberg, who, at the time of his death, was Chairman of the Division of Engineering at Sacramento State College, and

WHEREAS, Edwin Bernard Weinberg was born in Boston, Massachusetts, was raised and educated in California and received degrees in mechanical engineering from the University of California; and

WHEREAS, Before coming to Sacramento State College as a lecturer in 1947, he did research work for national agencies and taught engineering at St Mary's College, Modesto Junior College, and San Francisco Junior College; and

WHEREAS, He maintained active memberships in Tau Beta Phi, the national honorary engineering society, the American Society for Engineering Education; the American Society for Mechanical Engineers, and the California Society of Professional Engineers, and

WHEREAS, During his long and useful career in the fields of engineering and education, Edwin Bernard Weinberg served with distinction and effectiveness and earned the respect of the many persons in this State who were privileged to know and work with him; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly wish to express their heartfelt sorrow at the passing of Edwin Bernard Wemberg and desire by this resolution to convey to his widow, Mrs Naomi Wemberg, and to his daughter, Miss Nadine Wemberg, their deepest sympathy, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to Mrs Naomi Weinberg and Miss Nadine Weinberg

Hon. Carl A. Britschgi

Joint Committee on Legislative Representation—No. 8988

DEAR MR BRITSCHGI You have asked two questions regarding the Joint Committee on Legislative Representation which would be created by Assembly Concurrent Resolution No 18 of the 1963 General Session, as amended January 29, 1963 We shall state and discuss the questions in series.

Question No 1

What rights, powers or duties, if any, would be delegated to the joint committee which are not vested in the corresponding committees of the Assembly and Senate?

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No 18, as amended January 29, 1963, would repeal Rule 37 5 of, and add Rule 37 6 to the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly At the present, Rule 37 5 directs the Legislative Analyst, so long as he is designated as "clerk" or "secretary" pursuant to Section 9900(d) of the Government Code, to carry out the filing duties, with respect to legislative representatives, imposed by Sections 9900 through 9907 of the Government Code Rule 37 6, in creating the Joint Committee on Legislative Representation, provides that the joint committee shall succeed to the duties of the Legislative Analyst resulting from his designation as "clerk" and "secretary" pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 9900 of the Government Code These duties are not at present vested in the Special Senate Committee on Legislative Representation or the Special Assembly Committee on Legislative Representation The nature of the duties to be transferred from the Legislative Analyst to the joint committee will be discussed more fully below

Under the proposed Rule 37 6, the joint committee would be given the authority to make rules to govern its own proceedings and its activities under the provisions of Rule 37 6, subject to the approval of the Joint Committee on Legislative Organization Both of the single house committees, by reference to the powers of investigating committees under the Joint Rules, presently have the power to adopt and amend rules governing their procedure in carrying out their duties (Senate Standing Rule No 57; Assembly Standing Rule No 22, Joint Rule No 36). Thus, the specific grant of power in Assembly Concurrent Resolution No 18 to the proposed joint committee to make rules would not in itself constitute a power not presently held by the two single house committees

However, the present law and the rules of the Legislature in assigning filing functions under the Lobby Law to the Legislative Analyst do not specifically grant to the Legislative Analyst any rule-making powers Since Assembly Concurrent Resolution No 18 transfers this filing function to the proposed joint committee, the specific grant of power to the joint committee to make rules concerning its activities would cover this filing function and, to this extent, would constitute a power not presently possessed by the single house committees

It is also to be noted that the joint committee is specifically authorized to appoint the Legislative Analyst as its executive secretary, to act without compensation and to perform duties assigned by the committee The Assembly committee has the power to appoint the Legislative Analyst as its executive secretary, to act without compensation (Rule 22, Temporary Rules for the 1963 General Session) The Senate committee does not have this power

What duties or powers of the Legislative Analyst would be transferred to the Joint Committee on Legislative Representation?

Presently, Rule 37 5 of the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly provides in part

> "* * * the Legislative Analyst is directed, so long as he is designated to be "clerk" or "secretary" pursuant to Section 9900(d) of the Government Code, to assign one or more members of his staff to carry out the filing duties imposed by Sections 9900 through 9907 of the Government Code * * * "

The Government Code sections mentioned in Rule 37 5 are concerned with the regulation of legislative advocates They are required to keep detailed accounts of contributors and amounts they receive in connection with their lobbying activities and detailed statements of the contributions they receive and expenses they incur are to be filed with the Chief Clerk of the Assembly and the Secretary of the Senate or such other person as the Rules of the two houses provide (Gov C Secs 9906, and 9900, subd (d)) Presently, the Legislative Analyst is assigned the duties of filing the required statements (Assembly Standing Rule 30; Senate Standing Rule 9 7) Under Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 18 this function would be transferred to the Joint Committee on Legislative Representation.

Very truly yours,

Eternal God, Father of All, We realize that as we tend to become like the God we worship, so we reflect our ideals May we never have a slavish worship of the pillars of our past, for we know they also had feet of clay, but may we never become cynical about their hopes As we remember Abraham Lincoln, may something of his faith inspire us Give us his honesty in not being so interested whether or not Thou art on our side, but vitally concerned that we are on Yours Give us spiritual stature of "malice toward none and charity toward all" Then may we go forth with the motivation to "bind up the Nation's wounds, and do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and all nations"
Through the Prince of Peace, we pray —AMEN

REPORT OF SUBCOMMITTEE ON TAX EXEMPTIONS

SUBCOMMITTEE ON TAX EXEMPTIONS
January 4, 1963

Hon Jesse M. Unruh
State Capitol, Sacramento

DEAR JESSE In compliance with the assignment that the Subcommittee on Tax Exemptions pinpointing the effect of exemptions of improvements and/or personal property from taxation, wish to inform you that the committee entered into a contract with Griffenhagen-Kroeger, Inc, for a field study and report using the City and County of Fresno for the pilot operations

After a two-day hearing in the City of Fresno, it is the committee's recommendation that

"It is recommended that the Legislature of the State of California at its 1963 Regular Session seriously consider the subject matter of Assembly Constitutional Amendment No 43 of the 1961 Regular Session

"It is further recommended that the Legislature at that session also consider legislation designed to insure equitable assessment practices in view of the questions raised by the Griffenhagen-Kroeger, Inc, report as to present assessment practices"

Only three members of the committee (Nicholas Petris, Don Mulford, and your chairman) were present throughout the hearing These three members have signed the above statement and it is hoped that the forthcoming session will give a much-needed tax study similar to the provisions of Assembly Constitutional Amendment No 43 of the 1961 session, which was the basis of our fieldwork and deliberations

Cordially,

VERNON KILPATRICK, Chairman

Mr Greene was granted unanimous consent to take up House Resolution No 86 without reference to file

CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 86

By Messrs Greene and Waite.

House Resolution No. 86—Relating to commemorating Engineers' Week

Consideration of Committee Amendments

Amendment No. 1

In the resolution, as printed on page 530 of the Assembly Journal of February 11, 1963, in line 3 of the third "WHEREAS" clause, strike out "programs", and insert "control"

Amendment No. 2

In line 5 of the third "WHEREAS" clause, strike out "enemy", and insert "man-made"

Consideration of House Resolution No. 86, as Amended

By Messrs Greene and Waite:

Relating to commemorating Engineers' Week

WHEREAS, The week of Washington's birthday has been selected by the societies of professional engineers as National Engineers' Week, and

WHEREAS, Man's progress from caves of the stone age to the modern homes and office buildings of today has been marked by the growth of the profession of engineering, which has long provided the means by which man has reshaped his environment in response to the ever-increasing demands of a mobile and complex society, and

WHEREAS, Many of the immense problems of California's phenomenal growth are engineering problems; water development, reclamation, flood control, air and water pollution control, land use planning, highways, recreational facilities, school construction, state building construction, and protection of the public from natural and man-made disasters, and

WHEREAS, The continuation of our scientific program requires that highly capable young men and women with fine minds and talents choose the profession of engineering, and

WHEREAS, The celebration of Engineers' Week in California is to be marked during the week of February 16 to 23, 1963, by numerous community events which are designed to inform the public on the vital role of the engineer in our society, as well as to offer guidance to graduating high school students who may in a short while enter the honored profession of engineering, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That Members of the Assembly commend the professional engineering societies of the State of California during Engineers' Week, February 16 to 23, 1963, and urge all Californians to attend the events of this special week and to promote a broader understanding of the role of the engineer in our society, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk is directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to the Engineering Council of Sacramento Valley, the Engineering Council of San Diego, the Engineering Council of Los Angeles, and the Fresno Joint Council of Architects and Engineers of Fresno

Resolution read, as amended, and adopted unanimously

The following resolution was offered:

By Messrs. Knox and Bagley.

Relating to salaries of teachers employed at correctional institutions

WHEREAS, The salaries paid teachers employed at San Quentin and other correctional institutions, under a contract arrangement between the Department of Corrections and school districts, to teach adult classes for inmates are less than the salaries of teachers of other adult classes employed by the same district, and

WHEREAS, This pay-scale differential between teachers employed by the same district to teach classes for adults is not only inequitable to the teachers affected, but may also affect the recruiting of teachers to teach in correctional institutions, and

WHEREAS, The lower pay scale for teachers teaching inmate classes for adults is also detrimental to the maintenance of high standards in correctional facilities, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Department of Corrections take all necessary steps to correct the inequity existing in the salaries of teachers employed at San Quentin and other correctional facilities and to increase such salaries to a level equivalent to those of other teachers in the area holding comparable positions in the public schools; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly be directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of the Department of Corrections

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Rules

Gracious God and Everlasting Father, Thou hast provided the means by which all Thy children can live with fulfillment upon this good earth We have been created with different colors and cultures, not to discriminate, but to bring out the symphonic melodies and to add richness to life Thou hast created of one blood all nations to dwell upon the face of the earth In these days when we desperately need understanding among people, give us the gift of Christian love and compassion Then, instinctively, we have love for our fellow man, a motive for existence, a guide to action, a reason for courage, and an imperative for intellectual honesty

We pray in our Master's name—AMEN

Relating to the Council of California Growers

WHEREAS, The Council of California Growers has, since its organization in 1960, consistently devoted itself to the cause of improving public understanding of California's agricultural economy, and

WHEREAS, The public comprehension of the problems and aspirations of those citizens of this State who depend, both directly and indirectly, upon agricultural production for their livelihood, has been thereby measurably increased, and

WHEREAS, In addition to its use of news stories, regular newspaper, radio and television feature stories, billboards, advertisements, and many public appearances by agricultural leaders for this purpose, the Council of California Growers has recently completed and premiered a 28-minute color film entitled "Horizon," and narrated by the prominent actor and rancher Joel McCrea, and

WHEREAS, This film has already helped to eliminate some of the traditional misunderstandings between the rural and urban segments of our society, and

WHEREAS, It is anticipated that it will be particularly valuable as a means of providing our youngest citizens with factual information about California agriculture, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly congratulate and commend the Council of California Growers for their outstanding work in augmenting public understanding of California agriculture, and particularly for the production of the film "Horizon", and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Mr Keith Mets, President, Council of California Growers, and to Mr Joel McCrea

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

By Mr Conrad:

By Mr Dills

House Resolution No 85

Relative to the creation of the Assembly Committee on Interstate Co-operation

1 The Assembly Committee on Interstate Co-operation is hereby created and authorized and directed to ascertain, study and analyze all facts relating to co-operation between this State and other states and with the federal government, including but not limited to the operation, effect, administration, enforcement and needed revision of any and all laws in any way bearing upon or relating to the subject of this resolution, and to report thereon to the Assembly, including in the reports its recommendations for appropriate legislation

2 The committee shall consist of the same seven Members of the Assembly as authorized by Section 8001 of the Government Code, except that, in the interest of keeping the State of California adequately represented at Interstate meetings, if any such member is unable to attend such a meeting the chairman, with the consent of the Speaker, may select another Member of the Assembly to serve temporarily and to attend the meeting Such temporary member shall have all the rights and duties of a regular member

3 The committee is authorized to act during this session of the Legislature, including any recess, and after final adjournment until the commencement of the 1965 Regular Session, with authority to file its final report not later than the 18th calendar day of that session

4 The committee and its members shall have and exercise all of the rights, duties and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the provisions of the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly and of the Standing Rules of the Assembly as they are adopted and amended from time to time at this session, which provisions are incorporated herein and made applicable to this committee and its members

(a) To contract with such other agencies, public or private, as it deems necessary for the rendition and affording of such services facilities, studies and reports to the committee as will best assist it to carry out the purposes for which it is created

(b) To co-operate with and secure the co-operation of county, city, city and county, and other local law enforcement agencies in investigating any matter within the scope of this resolution and to direct the sheriff of any county to serve subpoenas, orders and other process issued by the committee

(c) To report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature and to the people from time to time and at any time, not later than herein provided

(d) To do any and all other things necessary or convenient to enable it fully and adequately to exercise its powers, perform its duties, and accomplish the objects and purposes of this resolution

6 The committee, and any subcommittee when so authorized by the committee, may meet and act without as well as within the State of California, and is authorized to leave the State in the performance of its duties

or claims as may incur under this resolution, to be paid from said Contingent Fund and disbursed, after certification by the chairman of the committee, upon warrants drawn by the State Controller upon the State Treasurer

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Unruh, the following prayer was offered by the Reverend F Douglas Ferrell, Member of the Assembly from the 55th Assembly District

Dear God Our Father, Thou, the Infinite, the Unsearchable, the Inscrutable, before whose unseen presence we bow in brief but humble worship and quiet trust

Guide us as we grope and seek for light to understand what is our duty in difficult circumstances, guide us surely through our increasing discontent with the wrong, and our increasing thirst and fervor for the right, and direct and bless all efforts thus inspired to meet and remedy suffering conditions

Bless us in all things. Thou fountain of good, in our efforts to help and succor, in our attempts to project and invent for the improving of what is imperfect around us, in our daily work with steadfast integrity and purity of ambition and aim

We ask Thee and thank Thee it is done, through the power of Thy Grace Divine —AMEN

PRAYER

O God, Our Father, We recognize our human frailties and limitations A smiling exterior may conceal a civil war going on within We pray for a measure of composure this day

May we see the folly of holding ill will for anyone Malice and hatred are luxuries we can't afford, like cancer they poison our system and unfit us for our best In our close dealings with others, may we speak our minds, stand for our convictions, yet not harbor lingering animosities May this body be a family where the crucial issues of life are lived, the greatest stresses faced yet the deepest loyalties developed

In the name of our Master —AMEN

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Carlos Bee, Mr Whetmore then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag

Report on Albany Unified School District Pursuant to House Resolution No. 91, 1962 Regular Session

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Hon Jesse M Unruh
Speaker of the Assembly
Assembly Chamber
State Capitol, Sacramento

DEAR MR SPEAKER The attached report is forwarded in compliance with House Resolution No 91 of the 1962 Regular Session, relating to financial burdens of the Albany Unified School District arising from the attendance of pupils residing on property of the University of California

The report includes the deliberations and recommendations of a co-operative committee representing the State Department of Education, State Department of Finance, University of California at Berkeley, and Albany City Unified School District

Sincerely yours,

MAX RAFFERTY

cc Assemblyman W Byron Rumford

Above transmitted report referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Education

The following communications were presented by the Chief Clerk, and ordered printed in the Journal

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS

Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento

DEAR MR. OHNIMUS: With your letter of February 5, 1963, receipt of which was acknowledged on February 6, you enclosed a copy of House Resolution No 43, which was adopted by the California Assembly on January 30

The Division of Highways advises that it always has been its policy in such cases to make every effort to provide for continued employment in state service of employees of other agencies who have previously furnished services which are superseded by a state operation

The division has written to the City of Los Angeles requesting information concerning the number of employees who will be remaining in the city's organization and the number who might desire to work for the State While it is not possible to blanket such employees into state service, every possible opportunity to secure positions for which they can qualify will be extended to them

Respectfully,

ROBERT B BRADFORD

SANTA CRUZ, February 12, 1963

Mr Arthur A Ohnimus
3165 State Capitol
Sacramento 14, California

DEAR MR OHNIMUS Yesterday the copies of the Resolution No 14 arrived and I have distributed them to his family here and sent one to Oregon, and will deliver the others when I go to Sacramento next week

I appreciate so much expressions of esteem and respect of Glenn, and wish I could thank each legislator personally

Yours very truly,

MARGARET COOLIDGE

CONSIDERATION OF DAILY FILE

SECOND READING OF ASSEMBLY BILLS

By Messrs Rumford, Petris, Mulford, Crown, and Bee:

House Resolution No. 93—Relating to the First District Agricultural Association

Resolution read

Consideration of Committee Amendments

Amendment No. 1

In the resolution, as printed on pages 548 and 549, of the Assembly Journal for February 12, 1963, in the third "WHEREAS" clause, in the second line, after "Waters' ", insert a comma.

Amendment No. 2

In the second "Resolved" clause, strike out lines 3 to 5, inclusive, and insert "Directors of the First District Agricultural Association, George T Oakes, Vice President; Howard Gilkey, Designer of Show, John I Hennessy, Secretary-Treasurer and General Manager, and members Kimiko Fujii, John Graziano, Michael"

House Resolution No. 93, as Amended

Relating to the First District Agricultural Association

WHEREAS, The greatest garden show on earth, the California Spring Garden and Home Show, was recently presented by the First District Agricultural Association; and

WHEREAS, The coveted Bulkley Medal, America's highest garden award, has been given to both the 1961 and 1962 California Spring Garden and Home Show by the judges of the Garden Club of America, and

WHEREAS, In making the 1962 award the judges stated that "the theme, 'Western Woods and Waters', carried out in the Exposition Building, with its naturalistic background, dramatic use of water, and perfection of plant material, presents, in the opinion of the judges, harmonious display of extraordinary merit", and

WHEREAS, This is the second time in Garden Club history that an entire floral exposition has been given the award, which is customarily given only to individual exhibits, now therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Directors of the First District Agricultural Association and all others contributing to the great success of the 1961 and 1962 California Spring Garden and Home Show are sincerely commended for their efforts, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to Mr Howard Kerrigan, President of the Directors of the First District Agricultural Association, George T Oakes, Vice President, Howard Gilkey, Designer of Show; John I Hennessy, Secretary-Treasurer and General Manager, and members Kimiko Fujii, John Graziano, Michael Tilles, Anthony Polvorosa, and Florence B Robinson

Held at desk by order of the Speaker.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 40: By Mr Burton—Relative to the compilation, publication, and distribution of the official state roster Referred by the Speaker to Committee on Rules.

By Mr. Waldie.

Relative to unemployment insurance

WHEREAS, In 1935 the Legislature in first enacting the Unemployment Insurance Act declared "that in its considered judgment the public good and general welfare of the citizens of the State require the enactment of this measure under the police power of the State, for the compulsory setting aside of funds to be used for a system of unemployment insurance providing benefits for persons unemployed through no fault of their own, and to reduce involuntary unemployment and the suffering caused thereby to a minimum", and

WHEREAS, The experience of more than a quarter of a century has shown that unemployment arises from quite different economic causes, for example the depressed state of the national economy, the seasonal nature of specific industries, the impact of automation, as well as for other reasons, and

WHEREAS, Virtually all the revenue for payment of unemployment insurance benefits and for the administration of the unemployment insurance system is derived from a payroll tax upon employers, and

WHEREAS, Unemployment payroll taxes both state and federal now exceed more than 8 percent for many employers in California, and

WHEREAS, These payroll taxes by reason of the existing limitation upon taxable wages have an inequitable impact upon California employers, and

WHEREAS, In some instances these payroll taxes for unemployment insurance adversely affect the competitive position of California employers with respect to employers in other states, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Assembly Rules Committee is hereby directed to assign to the appropriate interim committee for study the financing of unemployment insurance benefits, including an examination of the existing merit rating system, limit upon taxable and base period wages, the extension of the principle of contributory financing, and the desirability of financing some unemployment insurance benefits by means other than a payroll tax upon employers

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Rules

By Mr Belotti·

Relative to Mrs Nicholas (Anna) Chetkovich

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Assembly that Mrs Nicholas (Anna) Chetkovich has been chosen by the Eureka Quota Club as the "Woman of Achievement", and

WHEREAS, Mrs Chetkovich, a native Californian, was born at Fairhaven, California the daughter of Mr and Mrs William Monich, who had migrated to Humboldt County in the 1880's, and

WHEREAS, Mrs Chetkovich was educated in Fairhaven and Eureka, and in 1916 married the late and respected Nicholas Chetkovich, and

WHEREAS, During her marriage Mrs Chetkovich assisted her husband in the work of a ranch and with the operation of his grocery business, and raised a son, Michael, and

WHEREAS, Mrs Chetkovich has been very active in civic and community affairs, serving on the board of directors of the Y W C A, a member of the Historical Society, an officer and member of the Eastern Star, a member of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, a member of the Daughters of the Nile, and a former member of the P T A and several farm organizations, and

WHEREAS, Mrs Chetkovich has been a faithful member of Christ Episcopal Church for more than 50 years, serving her church through such organizations as St Elizabeth Guild, Guild of the Good Shepherd, Altar Guild, and an earnest worker in the church store, The Bargain Box, and

WHEREAS, Mrs Chetkovich's selection was based on many factors, including her long and faithful service to her church, her participation in many organizations of the community, and her loyal co-operation in all of these groups and her unfailing thoughtfulness to the untold numbers of friends in this community, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of this Assembly wish, by this resolution, to extend to Mrs Nicholas (Anna) Chetkovich their heartiest congratulations on her being honored as "Woman of Achievement" by the Eureka Quota Club and to convey to her their best wishes for continued success and happiness in the future, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to Mrs Nicholas (Anna) Chetkovich and to her son, Michael Chetkovich

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Rules

Relative to congratulating Mrs Eric (Imogene) Quist

WHEREAS, The Members of the Assembly have learned that Mrs Eric (Imogene) Quist was recently honored by being chosen as "Quotarian of the Year" by the Quota Club of Eureka, and

WHEREAS, This gracious and charming woman has been an active member of the Quota Club since 1954 and has also participated in other civic enterprises, and

WHEREAS, She has played an important part in the leadership of the American Legion Auxiliary in California, including presidency of the Fort Humboldt unit 212 and presidency of district one, Department of California, and

WHEREAS, As a member of an old California pioneer family which took an active part in the raising of the California Bear Flag in Sonoma, Mrs Quist has a particular interest in the historical events of this State, and

WHEREAS, Throughout all of her activities, she has won many friends and admirers by her generosity and dependability and her gentle and kind nature, and

WHEREAS The State of California is indeed fortunate that she is possessed of citizens of the caliber of Imogene Quist who are not only willing to give unselfishly of their time and efforts to the improvement of their community, but, as well, are possessed of sufficient competence, ingenuity and willingness to make a success of their efforts, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That its members congratulate Imogene Quist on being named Quotarian of the Year and commend her for her untiring efforts in behalf of the improvement of her community, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to prepare and transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Mrs Eric (Imogene) Quist

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Rules.

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Bee, the following prayer was offered by Rev. Robert Burns McAulay, D.D., of the Fremont Presbyterian Church:

God of Our Fathers and Our God, We lift up our hearts to Thee for all Members of the Assembly that those who feel successful may lay hold of the humility of Thy Son and realize their dependence on Thee, and that those who feel a failure may take hold of the patience of Thy Son and our Saviour, and realize Thy will concerns their faithfulness and loyalty to the best interests of the people of our State. Grant that all may care for Thine approval more than for that of man.

So for all of the Assembly may this day be one of happy and rewarding service without overanxious bustling but fulfilling the demands of their loyalty to Thee and the people.

We ask for Christ's sake—AMEN.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

MR Petris was granted unanimous consent that the following letter of transmittal be ordered printed in the Journal, and that the Biennial Report of the Joint Legislative Audit Committee be printed as a separate document

JOINT LEGISLATIVE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Honorable President of the Senate
The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Senate and the Assembly of the Legislature of California

SIRS. We transmit herewith our report covering the activities of your Joint Legislative Audit Committee for the calendar years 1961 and 1962

During this period, the committee with the able assistance of the Office of the Auditor General has continued its program of independent auditing of the agencies of state government. The objectives have been to aid the Legislature in its basic duty to oversee the operations of the executive branch and to aid the executive branch in establishing sound fiscal and administrative policies

This report shows once again that the Auditor General and his office are performing a most valuable function, especially in bringing about a great many improvements in the administration and safeguarding of state funds

It is the purpose of your committee and the Office of the Auditor General to protect the best interests of our citizens and taxpayers This summary report, and the many audits which it reviews, are presented to further that purpose

Respectfully submitted,

HUGH P. DONNELLY, Acting Chairman
RONALD B CAMERON
LUTHER E GIBSON

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Mr. Petris was granted unanimous consent that the following tributes to the Memory of Assemblyman Glenn E Coolidge and Senator J Howard Williams, as printed in the Biennial Report of the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, be ordered printed in the Journal.

TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF ASSEMBLYMAN GLENN E. COOLIDGE

In Memoriam

Death took Assemblyman Glenn E Coolidge as he was about to realize one of his greatest ambitions His sudden passing occurred in the middle of a campaign for election as Representative to the United States Congress He died, however, still doing what he liked best—serving the people of California

It is fitting that one of his last assignments in the public interest was as chairman of the Joint Legislative Audit Committee For a decade he fought for economy and efficiency in state government Throughout his legislative career Glenn Coolidge stood for the very essence of this committee's goals and purposes

That career saw him cut back state spending, completely rewrite California's assessment practices, revise laws on pornography, lead harbor development, and work for expanded facilities for the University of California He held a chairmanship, including that of the Committee on Ways and Means, every year he was in office The Legislature once said of him "For all his achievements in behalf of this State and its people, Glenn E Coolidge merits the gratitude and respect of this body and Californians everywhere"

He was a vital statesman whose personal warmth accomplished as much as his political vigor "There are a lot of incumbents," wrote one newspaper, "who could use some of his special magic"

More than 500 bills and resolutions bear his name He will always be remembered for his work in support of care for the needy, alcoholic rehabilitation and narcotics control It was the common man, often the less fortunate and friendless, who benefited from the efforts of Assemblyman Coolidge No one who came to him for help was ever turned away, no matter what the hour

His spirit will not be known in the United States Congress But it will never be forgotten in the California Legislature.

TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF SENATOR J. HOWARD WILLIAMS

For many reasons the passing of Senator J Howard Williams constituted a great loss to this committee and to the State His keen perception, his vast knowledge of government in all its aspects, his dedication to the highest principles of public service and his unwavering devotion to duty are all irreplaceable

Senator Williams was exacting in his requirements on state agencies for the performance of their responsibilities He worked constantly for quality in service to the public and for the very minimum expenditure necessary to achieve that end His extreme demands on himself while fighting for these principles may have had much to do with his early passing

He will be remembered both as a great legislator and for his influence upon the development of almost every agency in California government over the past 15 years. The standards he established for budgetary procedures and policy evaluations—and his eminently fair and time-proven technique of review and analysis—should inspire men vested with these responsibilities in the future to seek an end result "as Senator Williams would have so determined."

Perhaps the qualities which may have accounted most for his greatness were his deep and abiding faith in God and his unwavering respect and love for his fellow man. In no instance did he conduct himself other than as a gentleman in the true meaning of the term. Fair and complete attention was afforded by him to every aspect of an issue. He received all men with sincere warmth and understanding.

This committee and the Legislature will sorely miss Senator Williams as a true friend who was one of the ablest of legislators.

His minister quoted a passage of the Holy Scripture which sums up his rich and rewarding life: "What doth the Lord require of thee, oh man, but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with God?"

The following message from the Governor was received, and read

STATEMENT OF GOVERNOR EDMUND G. BROWN ON HUMAN RIGHTS

Transmitted to the California Legislature
Thursday, February 14, 1963

"As a nation we began by declaring that 'all men are created equal' We now practically read it 'all men are created equal, except negroes' When the Know-Nothings get control, it will read 'all men are created equal, except negroes and foreigners and Catholics' When it comes to this, I shall prefer emigrating to some country where they make no pretence of loving liberty . "

ABRAHAM LINCOLN
Letter to Joshua F. Speed
August 24, 1855

Statement of Governor Edmund G. Brown on Human Rights

I propose that at this session of the Legislature, we complete this State's unfinished business in guaranteeing equal rights and opportunity to every California citizen

In 1959 and 1961, California made great strides toward our goal of full citizenship The list of progressive laws which you passed at my request is an impressive one It includes —The State's first Fair Employment Practices Commission, —The Unruh Civil Rights Act,

—The Hawkins Housing Act,

—Old age and disability pensions for noncitizen residents;
—The end of a discriminatory challenge at the polls;
—Tighter anti-discrimination safeguards in urban redevelopment

In addition, my administration has strengthened fair practices throughout the state government, has fought discrimination in apprenticeship training, has appointed many qualified members of minority groups to key positions, and has backed the FEPC in its effort to make California's position in human rights the first in the nation

With so much accomplished, it might seem that we can now rest from our labors while the remaining problems solve themselves

This will not happen

Today, as the leading state in the nation, the state with the most flourishing economy, California shares with the other urban states the problems of crowded cities in which minority groups are forced to live in ghettos. Imposed segregation breeds further segregation in the schools. It breeds poverty, family breakdown, dependency and "social dynamite."

These questions threaten the very life of the central core of our cities. They will not right themselves, they demand a solution now.

It is to these questions that I ask that the Legislature address itself in 1963.

I intend to continue to take the actions appropriate to the executive. Soon, for example, I will issue a formal directive to all state administrators in the form of a "Governor's Code of Fair Practices." It will contain new administrative guarantees of nondiscrimination within the state government, and we hope that it will prove to be a national model.

In other fields, however, only the Legislature may properly act. I shall accordingly offer or endorse a series of proposals, a few of which are now before you, with others to come in the days and weeks just ahead.

I earnestly hope that these proposals will draw strong support from the Legislature, without regard to partisan affiliation. Following are the measures which I consider most urgent.

I propose that you pass legislation to eliminate discrimination in the private housing market in California.

In 1963 a law to prevent discrimination in private housing failed to pass the Legislature. During the past two years, the need for such legislation has grown increasingly urgent. To those who argued that the existing laws and attitudes are adequate, I think we have demonstrated that they are not.

When discrimination exists in private housing, the disadvantages to our whole society are obvious.

Tensions are aggravated. Our American principles of equality are ignored. Urban renewal projects are largely thwarted. De facto segregation in the schools is encouraged.

The result is a serious injustice, which threatens the vitality of our cities, and proves costly to the entire population.

We have made a start toward solving this problem through the Hawkins Act and the Unruh Act. But we must do more. At present, a citizen who is prevented from buying a house because of discrimination must hire an attorney and go to court. And the unfortunate truth is that those who most frequently need to take such action are those who can least afford it. This is an expensive, time-consuming practice, and far less workable than solving the question through commission enforcement.

I ask that the commission be given the same authority with respect to housing that it has with respect to employment. This means commission administration, with emphasis on education and conciliation, and, when necessary, enforcement.

Experience in eight other states—New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Minnesota, Colorado and Oregon—proves that properly drawn fair housing laws are effective. We should provide just as strong protection for citizens' rights in California.

I therefore ask that you broaden the present Hawkins Housing Act to cover most housing which goes on the market for sale or rental, and that you place administration of the new act under the commission.

Next, I ask that you broaden the scope of the present Fair Employment Practices Commission, giving the commission authority to move against other discriminatory practices than those involving employment. The name should be changed to the California Human Rights Commission.

Increasing the number of members from five to seven will give us broader representation in the commission, and the new name will reflect the increased responsibility which I believe should be vested in that body.

Further, I hope you will give the commission new authority to proceed on its own against discriminatory practices.

Under the present law, the commission cannot initiate complaints The experience of other states proves that the commission will work more effectively if it can initiate complaints, and complete the process of investigation, hearing and enforcement

Next, I ask you to act to eliminate de facto segregation in our schools, and to assist students who come from unusually deprived backgrounds

Already before you, at my request, is a bill providing that the existing commission on Equal Employment Opportunities for Teachers in the Department of Education be expanded into a Commission on Inter-Group Relations

This is one important part of our effort to assist local school districts in the effort to eliminate de facto segregation The new commission would help the districts develop new plans and procedures to prevent segregation, and I hope you will give it your support

We must, however, go much farther in recognizing the problem posed by children from underprivileged homes—children who are ill equipped to take advantage of our school curricula

I urge you to give your support to legislation, already before you, providing compensatory funds for the disadvantaged children from poor social and economic backgrounds We already recognize our obligation to provide assistance to physically handicapped or mentally retarded children Just as clear is our obligation to the children who are so handicapped by background that they cannot take advantage of our system of education

Many of these children become so discouraged that they end up as "dropouts" The next step, almost inevitably, is unemployment Sometimes this is followed by delinquency and crime I must stress the fact that the youth's lack of opportunity is expressed in incompetence and in misdeeds for which the rest of society pays a high price

We should assist the schools so that they can furnish special services, including a higher ratio of school personnel, smaller classes, more remedial help in reading and mathematics, and more intensive counseling both of the child and his parents We should, in short, do everything possible to develop the child's motivation so that he will see his education through and become an independent, contributing member of society

An important feature of the bill is its provision for a permanent consultant service in the Department of Education The consultant will work with school districts to assist in developing local programs Through special research projects, we will develop new information to help us make progress in this pioneering program

I strongly urge your support of this essential measure

Further, we must now take legal steps to prevent discrimination by all persons and businesses licensed by the State

If it is essential that we prevent discrimination in such fields as housing and employment, it is surely of equal importance that the State itself guard against discrimination in its own business

I believe we must make sure that businesses and professions licensed by the State assure equality to all our citizens The licensing agencies should, in the case of repeated offenses, have the power to suspend, and in some instances revoke, the business or professional license

Here are some examples

If trade, business or vocational schools are found to be engaging in discrimination, the Director of Professional and Vocational Standards should be empowered to take disciplinary action—through suspension or revocation of the license

The same authority should be given to the Commissioner of Real Estate, with respect to licenses held by real estate brokers and salesmen

Financial institutions, including savings and loan associations licensed by the state, should be subject to discipline if their lending practices discriminate against members of minority groups

I therefore propose that you enact a reasonable law which will enable us to discharge our constitutional responsibility to all citizens, yet impose no unfair burden upon the licensee

In summary, then, I ask you to move against discrimination in private housing, broaden the scope of the Fair Employment Practices Commission, changing its name to the California Human Rights Commission, giving it two additional members and the authority to initiate complaints,

I urge that you move to prevent de facto segregation in our schools, that you begin a new program to help culturally deprived children, and that you pass legislation to eliminate discrimination in businesses and professions licensed by the State

These steps, if you take them, will propel California a good distance toward its goal of national leadership in guaranteeing equal rights and opportunity

I realize that virtually every one of these proposals will meet opposition But I urge in the course of the legislative debate that you consider the alternatives to these actions

The problems posed here are essentially urban in character They are closely allied to the problems of crime and delinquency, poverty, overcrowding and unemployment that to some degree plague every American city

If we do not act, the core areas of our great cities will deteriorate steadily, despite the best-intentioned local efforts toward urban renewal If we do not act, the economy of the cities is certain to sicken, becoming a drag on the presently expanding and healthy economy of the State

First and foremost, however, we must consider the humanitarian values involved Justice demands that we act Democratic values demand that in California we put to work the principles set forth in the Bill of Rights

I am proud of our State's increasing momentum in these matters, but I am deeply conscious of the task yet ahead Partisan considerations aside, I hope that your study of this legislation will convince you that the time for forthright action is now

Years of controversy, you will remember, preceded our action in 1959 in establishing FEPC That conflict has long since died down

As you debate my housing proposal and the other measures involving human rights, let me remind you that the current conflicts will also fade away once the new laws have proved themselves

We have the opportunity to give to our fellow-citizens the guarantees of freedom and opportunity which have been denied them for a century I hope you will join me in acting now to end the racial nightmare which has so long plagued our nation

These laws will be testimony to the faith of California that all men are indeed created equal I urge you to join me in my determination to uphold the dignity of every individual Californian I urge you, following full legislative debate, to give your approval to these measures and send them to my desk

Sincerely,

EDMUND G PAT BROWN

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Bee, the following prayer was offered by Hon E Richard Barnes, Member of the Assembly from the 78th District

Almighty God, Our Heavenly Father, By whose providence we all share the rich heritage of this blessed land,

Increase our understanding dedication, and faith in our Country—these United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed, a democracy in a republic, a perfect union, one and inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes

Help us to love our Country, to support its Constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its Flag and defend it against all enemies

Bind us more closely together in one common dedication to God and freedom's victory Help us to keep sacred the priceless trust committed unto us in this crucial hour and may we be uplifted with the reassurance that when we obey Thee, we are never left alone, never alien from Thy thought, never out of Thy sight, never orphaned from Thy care, never bereft of Thy concern, never deprived of Thy guiding love

In Thy holy name, we pray.—AMEN.

RESOLUTIONS

By Messrs Z'berg, Powers, and Greene

Memorializing Police Officer Arnold Gamble

WHEREAS, Arnold Gamble was born in Sacramento and graduated from the Christian Brothers School in Sacramento in 1938, and in 1943 he joined the Sacramento Police Force, thus following in the footsteps of his father who had served on the force for 25 years, and

WHEREAS, On February 16, 1963, Arnold Gamble tragically lost his life in the line of duty during a gun battle with an armed robber, and

WHEREAS, He had served with honor and integrity on the police force for 20 years, first, as a patrolman, then in the detective bureau and the bad check detail and, more recently, as a training officer for police recruits, and

WHEREAS, During these years, he was often called upon to, and did in the course of his duties, risk his life in order to safeguard the peace and well-being of other members of his community, and

WHEREAS, It was on one such occasion that he lost his life, and he, therefore, may truly be said to have died a hero, now, therefore be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly wish by this resolution to express their profound regret at the occurrence of the tragic event described herein and to convey to Arnold Gamble's wife, Leona, and to the other members of his family their heartfelt sympathy, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to Mrs Leona Gamble

Memorializing Blaine McGowan

WHEREAS, The Members of the Assembly have learned with sadness of the death on February 7, 1963, of the noted Humboldt attorney, Blaine McGowan, and

WHEREAS, Blaine was born on June 2, 1892, in Eureka, California, the son of the late Senator and Mrs Frank McGowan, and

WHEREAS, Following in the footsteps of his father, Blaine pursued a brilliant career as an attorney and civic leader, but his real love was the ranch country of southern Humboldt County where he passed his later years, and

WHEREAS, His wisdom and knowledge earned for him high esteem in the legal profession as well as the gratitude of his clients, and

WHEREAS, His absence will be sorely felt by his many friends throughout California, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the members hereby express their deep sorrow at the passing of Blaine McGowan and convey their heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved family and friends, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Mr Blaine's daughters, Mrs Patricia Britton and Mrs Mildred Westfall, and to his son, Dr Blaine McGowan

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

By Mr Booth

House Resolution No. 106

Relative to 75th Anniversary of the founding of the Chico State College

WHEREAS, Chico State College has designated the academic year, 1962-63, to celebrate the 75th Anniversary of its founding on April 8, 1887, as Northern Branch State Normal School of California, and

WHEREAS, The bill to establish the Northern Branch of the State Normal School to be located in a county north of the city of Marysville was sponsored by Senator A J Jones of Oroville and Assemblyman Allen Henry of Chico at the 1887 Special

Session of the Legislature and signed by Governor Washington Bartlett on March 9, 1887, and

WHEREAS, Today Chico State College is the second oldest of the California State Colleges, and

WHEREAS, Chico State College is the only four-year and graduate degree granting college in its service area of over 26,000 square miles embracing the counties of Butte, Shasta, Siskiyou, Trinity, Modoc, Plumas, Tehama, Glenn, Lassen, and

WHEREAS, In its capacity as an institution of higher education, Chico State College has, from the time of its establishment as a normal school throughout its growth and development as a state college, been dedicated to enriching and improving the quality of living and of life for the people of northeastern California, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Assembly and the members thereof take this occasion to express to Chico State College appreciation on their own behalf and on behalf of the people of California for 75 years of outstanding contribution to the intellectual and cultural growth of the State of California, and be it further

Resolved, That the Assembly and the members thereof also offer encouragement to Chico State College to build upon this foundation and heritage of over three-quarters of a century to move forward with determination and purpose and to meet the ever-increasing needs of the youth and society of the decades to come, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Dr. Glenn Kendall, President of Chico State College

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

By Messrs. Kennick and Deukmejian

House Resolution No. 107

Relative to California's participation as a state exhibitor at the California World's Fair—Long Beach, 1967-1968

WHEREAS, Worldwide interest and attention will focus upon the State of California during the years 1967 and 1968 as this State plays host to at least an estimated 40 million visitors from all nations at an exposition of exceptional magnitude and grandeur, the California World's Fair, which will be held in Long Beach from April 3 through October 30, in 1967 and in 1968, and

WHEREAS, This spectacular exposition will rank with the greatest of past international expositions due to the careful long-range planning of Fair officials, the enthusiastic local and regional support which has been engendered for the Fair, the fact that it will be held in the second largest metropolitan area in this Country, the increased emphasis on leisure-time activities throughout the world, the known magic of Southern California in attracting tourists, the breathtaking oceanfront setting in Long Beach which has been selected as the site of the Fair, and the unexcelled, year-round, refreshing climate of the area in which the Fair will be held, and

WHEREAS, It is imperative not only because of its role as the host State, but also because of the eminence of California as the most populous state of the United States, that California's participation as a state exhibitor at the Fair should be unmatched in its beauty and excellence and should clearly reflect the position of leadership of this State and its people, and

WHEREAS, In order that this ambitious goal may be achieved and this State's exhibit shall be such as will earn the admiration and respect of all, it is vital that a careful study should be undertaken relative to California's participation as a state exhibitor at the Fair, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Assembly Rules Committee is directed to assign to an appropriate interim committee for study the subject of the participation by the State of California as a state exhibitor at the California World's Fair which will be held in Long Beach during the years 1967 and 1968 and to require such interim committee to report its findings and recommendations thereon to the Assembly not later than the fifth legislative day of the 1965 Regular Session of the Legislature

Grant, O God, to Thy Servants. A profound sense of awe in dealing with laws In this age of conformity, may we not be afraid to hammer out truths on the anvil of hard thought and debate Give us convictions, yet may we not be brittle and unable to change attitudes when new light is given Without any consciousness of wearing a halo, may we have the insight to be willing to lose in a cause which will ultimately win, rather than to win in a cause which will ultimately lose
We pray in our Lord's name—AMEN

THIRD READING OF ASSEMBLY BILLS

Assembly Bill No. 584—An act relating to the acquisition and improvement of real property in the City of Sacramento, making an appropriation and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately

Bill read third time.

Recommendation of the Governor

In accordance with Article IV, Section 34, of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the consideration of Assembly Bill No 584

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly and Senate

Assembly Bill No. 584, "An act relating to the acquisition and improvement of real property in the City of Sacramento, making an appropriation and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately,"

in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

I, therefore, recommend consideration of Assembly Bill No 584 as an emergency measure

Respectfully submitted,

By Mr Burton.

Commending the Reverend Hamilton T Boswell and the Jones Memorial Methodist Church

WHEREAS The Members of this Assembly have learned that under the inspired leadership of the Reverend Hamilton T Boswell, the Jones Memorial Methodist Church of San Francisco has purchased the block surrounding the church building and envision the construction of a 30-unit apartment building for the elderly , and

WHEREAS, The Jones Memorial Methodist Church, founded in February, 1943, and moved to its present site, 1975 Post Street in 1947, has been a source of continued inspiration in responding to the church's challenge 'to build . to beautify . to serve . . . to save."; and

WHEREAS, The apartments will bear witness to a community endeavor, showing light for others to follow, and will blend in with the Western Addition Redevelopment Project A-1, which is completely transforming the Fillmore District area, and

WHEREAS, In the words of the Reverend Hamilton T Boswell "The first phase is to serve the community with a 30-unit apartment building for the elderly The second phase will be to erect or drastically renovate the present church building In this newly developed area, we must face the challenge of new horizons in Christian service Together under God's guidance we must meet the challenge in the full confidence that God, time and numbers are on our side", and

WHEREAS, It is fitting that the Assembly should pay tribute to the initiative of this church organization to help meet a pressing social need, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of this Assembly take this opportunity to commend the Reverend Hamilton T Boswell and the Jones Memorial Methodist Church on their plans to construct low-rent apartments for elderly persons, and wish them great success in their endeavor, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk is hereby directed to send suitably prepared copies of this resolution to the Reverend Hamilton T Boswell, Floyd Pierce, Ella Finley, Arthur Washington, Ruby Markham, Emmett Ott, Essie McKee, Robert Hunt, Jr., Joseph Kennedy, Bernice Johns, Andrew Jacobs, Willie Brown, Roy Thomas, Eldridge Johns, Leoma Smith, Thelma Bimon, Delmar Robinson, Mabel Taylor, and John Waters

By Mr Willson

House Resolution No. 110

Relating to need for further interim study of placement in independent adoptions

WHEREAS, The Assembly Interim Committee on Judiciary has devoted more time and effort to the study of placement in independent adoptions than to any other aspect of its interim activities, and

WHEREAS The committee work, resulting in many pages of testimony and background information has made the committee aware of the enormous complexity of the placement problem, and

WHEREAS, The committee deems it impossible to write a clear placement statute until the issue of what type and degree of assistance can lawfully be rendered to natural parents is resolved, and

WHEREAS, The committee feels that further study is necessary before a responsible solution can be suggested, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Committee on Rules is requested to refer for further study to an appropriate interim committee the subject of placement in independent adoptions

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker pro Tempore to the Committee on Rules

By Messrs Gaffney, Foran, Meyers, Burton, Elliott, and Marks

House Resolution No. 111

Relative to passing of Gus Katsarsky

WHEREAS, The Members of the Assembly have been grieved to learn of the passing of Gus Katsarsky who was Assistant Secretary of the San Francisco Labor Council and Vice President and Executive Board Chairman of Plumbers and Steamfitters, Local 38, and

WHEREAS, This well-liked and respected member of the fraternity of labor became a member in 1941 of Local 590 of the Plumbers and Steamfitters, a predecessor of Local 38 and served as a business agent for the local until his appointment as assistant secretary to the Labor Council in 1950, and

WHEREAS, Gus Katsarsky's skill as a negotiator has contributed materially to peaceful settlements with management, in the best interest of the union he represented, and

WHEREAS, He did not limit his service to the affairs of the union, but he served his community in many ways including his membership on the board of directors of the San Francisco Chapter of the American Cancer Society, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the members thereof take this occasion to mark the loss to Labor and to his community of Gus Katsarsky whose service and spirit will be sorely missed, and to extend to the members of his family, their sympathy, and the hope that the knowledge, that the sense of loss invoked by his passing, is widely felt, will bring comfort, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to send suitably prepared copies of this resolution to his widow, Irene Katsarsky, his son Fred Katsarsky, and to his mother Mrs George Dines, to the San Francisco Labor Council and to the San Francisco Building and Construction Trades Council

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev Robert R Ferguson.

Eternal God, Our Father, We are Thy children who find it so easy to get off course We know Thou art a God not only of wisdom, righteousness and justice but Thy attributes are also of mercy, compassion and love

So we pray that—

Where we have sinned, forgive us,
Where we have weakness, strengthen us,
Where we have pride, humble us,
Where we have low motives, elevate us,
Where we have a sense of futility, give us purpose;
And to what we may become through Thy grace, encourage us

We pray in our Master's name —AMEN

The following message from the Governor was received:

STATEMENT OF GOVERNOR EDMUND G. BROWN ON SOCIAL WELFARE

Transmitted to the California Legislature

"Justice is what we want, not patronage and condescension and pitiful helpfulness. Every one of the great schemes of social uplift which are now so much debated by noble people amongst us is based, when rightly conceived, upon justice, not upon benevolence It is based upon the right of men to breathe pure air, to live, upon the right of women to bear children and not to be overburdened so that disease and breakdown will come upon them, upon the right of children to thrive and to grow up and to be strong upon all these fundamental things which appeal, indeed, to our hearts, but which our minds perceive to be part of the fundamental justice of life"

WOODROW WILSON

Statement of Governor Edmund G. Brown on Social Welfare

Three years ago, I proposed to the Legislature that California undertake a thorough, intensive inspection of social welfare problems and programs I was prompted by urgent concern over this paradox in a basically healthy and expanding economy, the number of Californians requiring public assistance has not diminished and, following each recession, has reached succeedingly higher proportions of the working population

This paradox has failed to yield to increasingly large expenditures on welfare programs and to the best efforts of the many dedicated men and women who carry them out, creating a mounting sense of public frustration with welfare, frustration which carries with it the potential of irresponsible action like that which took place in Newburgh, New York

The need for action was obvious But clearer still was the need for detailed facts and thoughtful, objective consideration from which we could proceed to responsible and effective action

You shared my concern for this kind of action and authorized the establishment of a Welfare Study Commission It was charged with three responsibilities First, to determine the causes of dependency in California Second, to define the goals for public welfare which are appropriate to the needs and the aspirations of the people of California and their financial resources Third, to study the administration of welfare programs and recommend the reforms needed to make programs responsive to the needs they should serve

In its report to the Legislature and the Governor, the commission has discharged its responsibility fully and with great distinction

The men and women of the study commission devoted great amounts of time and effort to preparing this report and even greater amounts of serious thought and deliberation The result is a landmark in California's welfare history and the first study of this depth and scope to be undertaken in any state

In this effort, representatives of county government joined wholeheartedly with state officials and private citizens Their accomplishment carries forward the tradition of active citizen participation in government which is one of California's great assets It has gained the members of the commission the gratitude of their government and their fellow citizens

In years past, it was not difficult for the citizen to see the reasons for the number of people on the welfare rolls He had only to look in his newspaper to learn that 'hard times" had come to the American economy and because of them, people were out of work and were turning to their fellow citizens for temporary help

They got that help food for the table and a little money—very little—to buy absolute necessities until the hard times were past and the family breadwinner could find a job

This was the case in the early thirties when most of this country's social welfare legislation was enacted and when the single, clear purpose of public assistance was temporary aid to tide over the family of the man who was forced out of work

What was the case in 1933 is not the case in 1963, and, though circumstances have changed, the goals of welfare programs have remained much the same

It is between these two facts that the heart of the controversy over social welfare programs in California and the entire nation dwells

The worker who lost his job in 1933 knew the reason The factory was forced to shut down or cut back drastically because the economy of the area—if not of the whole country—was in a slump When the slump ended, as everyone knew it would eventually, he could look forward to returning to work and to the dignity and self-supporting status which work brings to a man

The California worker who loses his job in 1963 has no such clear understanding of his personal misfortune His factory has not shut down It has never been doing better The economy of his State is not in a slump It, too, has never been better

He looks around him to see a State whose economy produces enough each year to care more than adequately for the needs of everyone A billion pounds of cotton is grown every year Three billion quarts of milk is produced Five billion dollars worth of construction goes up every year and twelve billion dollars worth of manufactured goods rolls out of factories He sees a State whose citizens earn enough money to put the average annual income for every man, woman, and child at $3,000 and the average annual family income at more than $7,000

He understands clearly enough that his job has been taken by a machine or that the rapidly changing technology of his industry no longer requires his particular skill

That understanding will not sustain him very long as his savings melt away and, at the end of them, he turns to his government for the wherewithal to keep his family and himself going

Nor will it ease the frustration of being unable to find a new place of work in which his skill is useful

More frustrating and even harder are the circumstances faced by the Californian who never had a skill, the man who since childhood has lacked education, training, encouragement, and opportunity The only kind of job he can hold is the job which does not exist any more

The plights of both these men illustrate a truth about poverty in modern California—a truth which we must grasp if we are to deal with the dependency which results from poverty These twin plagues, poverty and dependency, do not stem from the ancient problem of an economy with low production levels

They stem from the problem of individuals with low levels of production or none at all Poverty and dependency in California today are as modern as the missile factory and de facto segregation, as up to date as the automatic ditch digger and the zip gun Of all the products of this State, they are the ugliest and the most costly

Who are the nonproducers and the low-producers of California? What are the forces which impoverish them and make them dependent?

They are the workers whose skills and training do not match the jobs available

They are the aged who have been unable to accumulate, in the productive years of their lives, the money to satisfy the needs which exist as much after retirement as before it, those inadequately covered by social security, those without money for the extremely high costs of medical care which age demands

They are the mothers and their children who have lost their breadwinner or whose breadwinner can no longer provide for their needs

They are the physically and mentally disabled without adequate financial resources

They are those whose educations do not match the demands of an increasingly technical economy and an increasingly complex society The likeliest recruits to their ranks are the 50 percent of our population 25 years and older who have less than a high school education, the 15 percent of the same age group who never even graduated from grade school, a group replenished annually by a distressingly high dropout rate in our schools

They are those whose low economic status, low educational status, and slight employment opportunity are matched by restricted opportunity for social contacts—those who are not permitted a full stake in our life as a community These are the residents of the "trap" ghetto where the way out is blocked by racial restraints, by lack of economic opportunity, and by a circle of hopelessness bred of these two factors

They are the half million Californians who have what can only be described as poverty incomes There are another half million who have incomes which permit only bare subsistence These are the men, women and children who form the leading edge of poverty and dependency in this State Standing behind them are an additional three million whose incomes are barely adequate In sum, they are the four million Californians who have no hedge, no cushion against loss of income or other financial catastrophe They live precariously on the margin of our economy

The forces which put them where they are—lack of training, education and a stake in our society—operate most forcefully among our minority citizens, specifically Negroes and Mexican-Americans

At a time when the less skilled are increasingly liable to be without jobs, the Negro and the Mexican-American are disproportionately underskilled And at a time when the less educated are increasingly liable to be without jobs, these same people are disproportionately undereducated

The figures are clear 60 percent of the Negroes in California 25 years old and older have not finished high school compared with 47 percent of whites in the same age group The actual disparity here is concealed because the figures for whites include Mexican-Americans who are even more the victims of lack of education than the Negroes. In 1950, 50 percent of our population with Spanish surnames in the 25 years-or-older age bracket had less than eighth grade educations compared with 35 percent for the corresponding age bracket among Negroes and 15 percent for whites.

Whether white, Negro, Mexican-American, Japanese or Chinese, the poor of California face a common situation increasingly they tend to be trapped in their poverty, increasingly they tend to be concentrated among definable groups, increasingly they tend to be insulated from the rest of the community

As this insulation develops and poverty becomes more concentrated, it also becomes less visible to the rest of us Those who live in the suburbs begin to think that poverty has been eradicated because they do not see it where it exists increasingly in the central cities In the midst of the Affluent Society, the presence of the Other America of poverty and dependence tends to slip from the consciousness and from the conscience of the community If this happens, the problem slips, perhaps irretrievably, beyond the reach of timely corrective action

California in 1963 faces modern problems of poverty and dependency which do not yield to the solutions applied in former days to other problems It is clear that to continue to apply those solutions is to continue the waste of human and financial resources they entail

There is an alternative action which is keyed to present problems This is the action I recommend to you Its purpose is to get people off welfare rolls and back on their own feet

First, we must complete the change in emphasis in our public assistance programs from the cash dole philosophy which has ruled them since their beginning in the 1930s We must place the emphasis on restoring the individual's capacity to support himself and on preparing children for futures of self reliance

Second, we must seek out and correct the causes of poverty lack of education, lack of training, and lack of economic opportunity.

Third, we must make our programs in the field of social welfare, and the administration of them, sounder fiscally, more effective, and more efficient

These are the goals toward which the following recommendations are aimed

I ask you to amend the Welfare and Institutions Code to state rehabilitation as a major objective of public assistance and the right of the State to require this as the objective in local administration of programs

This new emphasis on self reliance, self care and self support means more than vocational or physical restoration It means helping individuals to understand their social, physical, and psychological problems and to apply personal will to their solution so they may achieve their maximum potential for self support and normal living It means helping strengthen family life by assisting parents to understand the needs of their children and to improve the care of their children so they, in turn, may live normal lives, develop their capacities to the maximum, and achieve personal and economic independence

It is my firm conviction, based on the best professional advice, that such programs will go far toward ending a sorrowful waste of human resources and, in the long run, reduce the taxpayers' welfare burden

Putting the emphasis on rehabilitation will bring the goals of social welfare in California in line with the new goals of federal welfare programs and make available additional federal funds with which counties can double the amounts they can spend for rehabilitative programs

This is an important first step, both legally and symbolically, toward placing the accent where it belongs in assistance programs I urge you, as men responsible for welfare programs, to go out in your counties, as members of the study commission did, to see welfare recipients at first hand and get a clear idea of their needs I also urge you and the welfare officials of the State and counties to join me in increasing public understanding of the practical benefits of aiding people to get off welfare and preventing dependency

I ask you to authorize the payment of aid in federally assisted programs as soon as need and apparent eligibility are established Present requirements mean that aid is delayed until the applicant's need is formally established or that county general relief funds are used in the interim This change will allow speedier diagnosis and treatment of needs and will avoid the extreme hardship like that which recently caused one mother to throw a bottle through a shop window to attract attention and help to her family This change is made necessary by the inadequacy of general relief programs in a number of counties Aid paid as a result of the change would be chargeable against county general relief only if the applicant is later determined to be ineligible for a federally aided program In such instances, I recommend that the State share assistance costs

Through administrative action, I will seek the establishment in each county of a unit where the needs of aid recipients can be diagnosed and rehabilitative treatment begun as soon as application for aid is made

Well trained social workers are the backbone of an effective restoration program The training facilities in our state University and State Colleges need substantial expansion The study commission will report soon on discussions of this subject now underway with university and college officials I expect this report to provide a basis for future proposals which will permit use of federal funds now available for training

My administration will, in the coming months, increase its attention to the need for more pre-induction training and on-the-job training of social workers and for stimulating social workers to take additional professional training

The dependent family is the concern not only of the welfare agencies but also of probation officers, educators, health officials and employment and corrections agents All of them share a responsibility to co-operate in planning needed programs and services I will ask the Social Welfare Board and the appropriate government agencies to make an extensive study of the problems of families and the protection of children and to define more clearly the roles each agency should play This study group also will be asked to consider the feasibility of a unified jurisdiction and body of procedure in cases involving families and children

By far the larger part of California's welfare burden is carried in the federally aided categories of assistance The State must conform to federal policies in these programs in order to get federal funds Therefore, it must insure that the administration of these programs in the 58 counties meets federal requirements This state responsibility to the federal government is balanced by its responsibility under California's strong tradition of home rule to promote and protect vigor, initiative and creativity in local administration of aid programs within the framework of the federal requirements

In the interests of better and more efficient welfare administration, the relationship of state and county government must be more clearly stated Therefore, I ask you to amend the Welfare and Institutions Code to

1 Declare the administration of public welfare to be a matter of statewide concern

2 Continue vesting county authority in the boards of supervisors with the provision that the boards shall assign the responsibility for administering this authority to a specified department of county government with a director who shall administer and enforce the law and the regulations of the State Department of Social Welfare

3 Specify the methods by which the State shall meet its responsibility of securing statewide provision of assistance and service in these aid categories

At present, state-county cost-sharing arrangements are a cumbersome patchwork of separate formulas negotiated individually over the years as long established welfare programs have been expanded The result is that in our seven major aid categories, such as Old Age Security, Aid to the Needy Blind and so forth, there are some 20 different formulas governing the sharing of costs for assistance, medical care and administration where one formula would do

This situation causes waste of administrative effort and makes sound fiscal planning difficult Worse, the county contributions, and thus the property taxpayer's burden, are subject to startling fluctuations over short periods of time and to unfair variations from county to county

The recommendations of the Welfare Study Commission do not go far in the direction of intercounty equalization of welfare burdens Nevertheless, I urge adoption of the principles of those recommendations as an important measure of reform A single formula should govern sharing of costs in all the federally aided welfare programs County costs of administering those programs should be shared on the same basis In each county, the State's proportionate contribution should increase by steps as county costs increase in terms of cents on the property tax rate

I will offer this statutory revision in draft form so fiscal information which will become available during this session can be combined by state and county authorities with recommended program changes in the setting of a new cost sharing arrangement

If we are to succeed in getting individuals off the welfare rolls and back to self support, we must have continuous study of the needs of the poor and constant appraisal of how well our service programs meet those needs We need a group of knowledgeable and dedicated citizens charged with the responsibility of guiding the Governor and the Legislature and serving as a sounding board for the social welfare needs in our State In short, this group should serve as the conscience of the people of California in social welfare

I firmly believe that this vital function is best performed by the State Social Welfare Board The board should be freed of the day-to-day work which now consumes its time so the able men and women who are its members can concentrate on this task

For these reasons, I ask you to transfer to the director of the Department of Social Welfare the board's functions of adopting regulations, setting personnel standards, hearing appeals and determining policy

Such a change would vest the authority and responsibility for making social welfare policy in the director of social welfare who is responsible to the Governor In the last analysis, it is the Governor whom the people hold responsible for the exercise of this authority

We now have a number of different categories of need and corresponding categories of aid which often bear little relation to the actual needs and circumstances of the individual This fact causes unnecessary complexity in our welfare programs and complications in their administration which might be remedied by adoption of a single classification of aid for adults and one for children The problem merits close study and experiment before comprehensive changes can be recommended In the meantime, I ask the Legislature to

1 Provide for recodification of the Welfare and Institution Codes to consolidate and simplify legislative requirements for eligibility and standards

2 Authorize the Department of Social Welfare to join the federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare in an experiment with a single aid classification in selected counties This entails allowing the department to waive or modify conflicting legal provision of the separate aid categories for the purpose of the experiment

3 Adopt for all aid categories the plan now in effect in the Aid to the Totally Disabled program to control aid expenditures In other programs, the Legislature has set arbitrary payment ceilings which cannot be exceeded In the ATD plan, control is exerted through a ceiling on the average of all payments rather than on individual payments This allows the department flexibility in meeting the needs of individuals in exceptional situations.

A prime purpose of achieving simplification and uniformity in programs is to free the social worker of paperwork and give him more time with people who need his help I will instruct the Department of Social Welfare to do everything within its authority to achieve that end

There are provisions in two of our categorical aid programs which, because they entirely overlook the economic causes of dependency, work unnecessary and harsh penalties upon those in need of aid I refer to the Aid to Needy Children program, which does not recognize the parent's unemployment as a justification for aid, and the Aid to the Totally Disabled program, which does not recognize unemployability due to permanent disability as justification for aid unless the disability is so severe that it requires personal care or supervision

In both cases, the strictures of our laws, in addition to going against California's generally humane concept of public assistance, place many disabled citizens and unemployed breadwinners and their families in dire circumstances Unable to qualify for aid in the ATD or ANC programs, they are forced to apply for county general relief for their subsistence In many instances, the study commission found that general relief levels meet so little need that they cannot be considered anything more than emergency programs In addition, general relief carries fixed time limitations in most counties When those limitations are reached the disabled and the unemployed breadwinner face the blank wall of privation for themselves and their families

It is clear that in many areas of our State where general relief provisions are both inadequate and of fixed duration, the denial of ANC to the families of the unemployed promotes family disintegration and moral degradation

The average amount of county general relief aid which a destitute California family can get is $66 a month for the entire family and this only for a limited time Some counties offer no aid regardless of the intensity of the need As a result, it is now the fact in California that a father, who sees his children in want because he cannot find work knows that if he deserts his family, they will receive perhaps $160 a month plus medical care That is a small amount But it is enough to make up the mind of a father in those circumstances

These legal strictures also make the State ineligible for large sums of federal money which would ease the burden of those counties which try to provide a reasonably high level of general relief out of their own resources

For these reasons, I urge you to close the gaps in these two programs by

1 Extending Aid to Needy Children to the children of unemployed parents subject to strict safeguards to prevent chiseling and coupled with a program of work relief, training, and rehabilitation

2 Widening the definition of disability in the Aid to the Totally Disabled program to cover persons unemployable because of permanent disability

With the adoption of ANC and ATD extensions a major portion of the present county general relief program caseload will be shifted to the federally aided categories After the effects of these proposed shifts have been observed for a time, a new study of general relief should be made

In the face of the Welfare Study Commission's findings about poverty and the relationship of dependency to the broad problems of underprivilege and lack of opportunity, the problems of securing support from absent parents and preventing fraud appear in a new perspective On the whole, the state and county officials responsible for welfare and law enforcement have done creditable and consistent work which ranks California high among the states in fraud prevention

Although fraud and willful failure to provide are negligible factors in the high costs of dependency, the policing of them has caused occasional confusion and conflict between welfare and law enforcement officials The study commission's work in this area has provided a much better understanding of the problems involved and a basis on which future work can proceed in harmony and with common purpose

My recommendations for providing aid to families of the unemployed will make important contributions to preventing desertion and fraud

With the co-operation of welfare officials, law enforcement agents and caseworkers, we can police our programs effectively and constructively without resorting to the unfortunate spectacles and unwarranted intrusions involved in so-called "mass raids"

I urge you to adopt the provisions of Assemblyman Crown's A B 366 and to adopt revisions of the Welfare and Institutions Code and the Penal Code which I will submit to you shortly

These amendments aim to clarify the respective responsibilities of welfare departments and district attorneys and provide a base for their joint action to deal with chiselers, to assure the use of collected funds for the improvement of the family, and to co-ordinate action by the courts, prosecutors and welfare departments

Your enactment of these recommendations will be a forward step in assuring strong action to protect the honest recipient, the taxpayer and the welfare system

Dependency is an economic problem Unless we work vigorously and effectively to correct the causes of dependency, we will fail in our efforts to restore people to dignity and self-support

All the skill and best efforts of the most dedicated and talented social worker toward this goal cannot avail it the conditions which first created the dependency are left unreformed

That is why I have coupled the proposals in this message with other programs of action which aim at the causes of dependency, programs which will continue the work in education, human rights, full employment, industrial development, and youth conservation in which you and I have engaged over the last four years

Basic to the success of this new departure in social welfare is your approval of other measures which have been, or shortly will be, put before you in this session

California's great system of public education is our most potent asset in reforming the causes of poverty and dependence But that great force is seriously weakened if conditions at home and in the community result in grudging school attendance and early dropout Without education and training, young people are likely to wander into the blind alleys of ignorance, uselessness and, ultimately, dependency

I have proposed programs of compensatory education and youth conservation which bear directly on the dropout problem, as does the study of vocational training programs being undertaken by the Committee on Automation and Technological Changes

I have asked you to give statutory status to that committee in recognition of the far-reaching importance of its work in searching out the tools with which we may harness the great power of automation and technological change for the benefit of all our people

I have asked you to continue the job of rolling back the bounds of discrimination and prejudice which deny equal economic and social opportunity to all our citizens

I have asked you for an Office of California Development to stimulate industrial expansion and employment

I soon will ask you for the means of aiding our great private building industry to provide decent housing opportunities in a variety equal to the wide range of need which exists in our State

I ask you, again, to join me in doing everything within our combined power to secure passage of a national program of health insurance for the aged under social security, the surest and best method of allowing our people to set aside during their productive years the reserves necessary to meet the high costs of medical care in later life and the method most in keeping with American ideals and traditions

I ask your support of all these measures and the measures in this message as individual items of action and, together, as an assault on the roots of poverty, dependency, and suffering in our State

It is our responsibility to act with courage and decisiveness "upon all these fundamental things which appeal indeed, to our hearts, but which our minds perceive to be part of the fundamental justice of life"

Respectfully submitted.

SEC 3 This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect The facts constituting such necessity are

At the present time there are many persons unemployed in California and the nation as the result of automation and technological changes in general Recent alterations in federal defense programs have had a detrimental effect upon employment in California Present economic trends indicate that these conditions might become more acute This unemployment causes many serious sociological consequences It has become evident that meeting it requires programs for the matching of the employment needs of industry with training programs of persons available in the employment market and involves the assessment of human resources and also activities to encourage and facilitate the development of new industry In order for the State to perform its responsibilities in the most effective way, it is necessary that there be created immediately a state agency on the matters of manpower, automation, and technological developments Delay in the creation of such an agency accentuates these problems and makes it more difficult for the State to take effective measures

Such an agency is also needed immediately for co-operation with the United States Manpower Development and Training Act enacted by the Congress in 1962

It is therefore, necessary in order to protect the public interest that this act take effect immediately "

Amendment No. 3

On page 2, line 19, after "SEC 2 ", insert

"Section 43005 of said code is repealed

~~43005. Notwithstanding any other contrary provisions of law, the city legislative body may by ordinance provide that every person of the city who prior to July 1, 1952 was the owner of, or had in his possession or under his control, any taxable property, which property was thereafter damaged or destroyed by any earthquake prior to November 1, 1952, may on or before a date to be specified in such ordinance make application for the reassessment of such property and deliver to the assessing official of the city a written statement under oath, accompanied by a certificate of a disinterested competent person or authority showing the condition and value, if any, of the property immediately after the damage or destruction, which damage must be shown thereon to be in excess of five hundred dollars ($500), and that the assessor shall, on or before March 1, 1953, assess the property, or reassess it if it has already been assessed, according to the condition and value immediately after the damage or destruction, and upon such notice as it may find to be proper the Board of Equalization for the city may, until April 1, 1953, equalize any such assessment or reassessment. It may also be provided in such ordinance that the tax rate fixed for property on the roll on which the property so assessed appears or the property so reassessed appeared at the time of its original assessment shall be applied to the amount of equalized assessment or reassessment determined in accordance with this section. In the event that the resulting figure is less than the tax theretofore computed, the ordinance may provide that the taxpayer shall be liable for tax only for the lesser amount and that the difference shall be canceled. If the taxpayer has already paid the tax previously computed, the ordinance may provide that such difference shall be refunded to the taxpayer. This section shall be applicable to all cities to which the Constitution does not prevent it from being applied.~~

On page 3, after line 4, insert

"SEC 4 Section 155 6 of said code is repealed

~~155 6. Notwithstanding anything in this code to the contrary, every person who at 12 o'clock meridian of the first Monday in March, 1952, was the owner of, or had in his possession or under his control, any taxable property which property was thereafter damaged or destroyed by any earthquake prior to November 1, 1952, may, on or before February 15 1953, make application for reassessment of such property and deliver to the assessor a written statement under oath, accompanied by a certificate of a disinterested competent person or authority, showing the condition and value, if any, of the property immediately after the damage or destruction, which damage must be shown therein~~

~~to be in excess of five hundred dollars ($500). The assessor shall, on or before March 1, 1953, assess the property, or reassess it if it has already been assessed, according to the condition and value immediately after the damage or destruction, and the assessor, if he reassesses the property, shall transmit to the board a description of the property so reassessed, the name of the person making the application in connection with the property, and the value of the property as so reassessed. Upon such notice as it may find to be proper, the local board of equalization may, until April 1, 1953, equalize any such assessment or reassessment.~~

~~The tax rate fixed for property on the roll on which the property so assessed appears or the property so reassessed appeared at the time of its original assessment shall be applied to the amount of the equalized assessment or reassessment determined in accordance with the last paragraph. In the event that the resulting figure is less than the tax theretofore computed, the taxpayer shall be liable for tax only for the lesser amount, and the difference shall be canceled. If the taxpayer has already paid the tax previously computed, such difference shall be refunded to him pursuant to Chapter 5 of Part 9 of this division, as an erroneously collected tax.~~"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Reply by Speaker pro Tempore

Speaker pro Tempore Bee replied in the affirmative.

Parliamentary Inquiry

Mr. Conrad arose to the following parliamentary inquiry: Since the amendments were adopted by a voice vote, could an attempt to repeal the amendments be made from the floor on third reading of the bill?

Reply by Speaker pro Tempore

Speaker pro Tempore Bee replied that Rule 76 provides that the adoption of an amendment by a voice vote prior to third reading of the bill does not preclude subsequent consideration of the amendment on third reading

Quorum present

Thou, Who Art Infinite, Eternal and Unchangeable, We pray to Thee each morning through custom, but may something of Thy Infinity break through into our unimaginative little lives Give us the perspective of the ancient Jewish seer who said, "O Lord, Thou hast searched me and known me! Thou knowest when I sit down and when I rise up, Thou discernest my thoughts from afar * * * and art acquainted with all my ways ' * * Whither shall I flee from Thy Presence? If I ascend to Heaven, Thou art there! If I make my bed in hell, Thou art there! If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there Thy hand shall lead * * If I say, 'Let only darkness cover me, and the light about me be night,' even the darkness is not dark to Thee, the night is bright as day, for darkness is as light with Thee"

Give us something of this majestic truth as we make our decisions this day—AMEN

NOES—None

Article IV, Section 2(a) of the Constitution was declared dispensed with

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO WITHDRAW ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 1194 FROM COMMITTEE

Mr Knox was granted unanimous consent that Assembly Bill No 1194 be withdrawn from the Committee on Municipal and County Government for purpose of amendment, and that the bill be re-referred to the committee

CONSIDERATION OF ASSEMBLY BILL NO 1194

Assembly Bill No. 1194—An act to add Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 53270) to Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, relating to firemen

Bill read second time.

Motion to Amend

Mr Knox moved the adoption of the following amendments·

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, after "add", insert "Section 18027, and to add"

Amendment No. 2

In line 2 of the title, after "Title 5 of", insert a comma

18027 On and after July 1, 1968, no employee of the Division of Forestry who is classified as a Schedule A employee shall be required to work more than 56 hours per week If prior to July 1, 1964, the maximum number of hours which any such employee may be required to work exceeds 56 hours per week, the State Personnel Board shall, commencing on July 1 1964, and on July 1 of each year thereafter, reduce the number of hours which the employee may be required to work in excess of 56 hours per week by at least 5 percent so that, effective July 1, 1968, the employee shall not be required to work more than 56 hours per week

Any such employee may be required to work more than the maximum number of hours per week prescribed in the preceding paragraph if his services are required by any conflagration, riot, or other emergency However, he shall be allowed the same number of hours that he is required to work in excess of 56 hours in any week as time off with pay within one year after the cessation of the emergency

On page 1, line 2, strike out "Government Code", and insert "said code"

On page 1, strike out lines 6 to 10, inclusive, and insert

"53270 Except as otherwise provided in this article, on and after July 1, 1968, no county, city, fire protection district, or other political subdivision, shall require any employee of any fire department or fire service which it maintains and operates to work more than 56 hours per week If prior to July 1, 1964, the maximum number of hours which any such employee may be required to work exceeds 56 hours per week, the governing body which maintains and operates the fire department or fire service shall, commencing on July 1, 1964, and on July 1 of each year thereafter, reduce the number of hours which the employee may be required to work in excess of 56 hours per week by at least 5 percent so that, effective July 1, 1968, the employee shall not be required to work more than 56 hours per week

53271 Any employee of the fire department or fire service may be required to work more than the maximum number of hours which is prescribed by Section 53270 in any week if his services are required by any conflagration, riot, or other emergency The governing body which maintains and operates the fire department or fire service shall, however, allow the employee the same number of hours that he is required to work in excess of 56 hours in any week as time off with pay within one year after the cessation of the emergency

53272 This article does not amend, supersede, or repeal any charter or ordinance of any city or county, or any ordinance or regulation of any fire protection district, under which the hours of labor of employees of a fire department or fire service are limited to a maximum of 56 hours or less per week

53273 It is a matter of general knowledge that the ownership of property in a municipality is not wholly confined to its inhabitants but some of it is owned by nonresidents, that the ownership of shares in corporations owning the large business and manufacturing properties of the cities are widely held, that large numbers of people residing outside the municipalities are constantly going within their boundaries, entering places of business and places of abode, and being exposed to the hazards of disastrous fires; and that through the growth of urban populations, the boundary lines of separate corporations are often coincidental with each other with the result that the residents of one municipality are constantly exposed to fire hazards of contiguous municipalities

For these reasons, fire protection is deemed a matter of statewide concern, and it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this article that the article shall apply to every city, county, and city and county, whether operating under charter or the general law"

Amendments read, and adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, engrossed, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Municipal and County Government.

Relating to commending the California Midwinter Fair at Imperial, California

WHEREAS, The world-renowned, mild winter climate of Imperial County provides a unique opportunity for a midwinter fair and agricultural exposition and the people of Imperial County have established such a fair and exposition, the California Midwinter Fair and Exposition; and

WHEREAS, The fair will be held this year from March 1, to March 10, 1963, at Imperial, California, which is the site of the world's largest fair and zoo located below sea level, and

WHEREAS, This unique California midwinter exposition, with its displays of agriculture, floriculture, livestock, home economics, and arts and crafts, will attract the attention of thousands of visitors to the resources, productivity, ingenuity, and ability of the people of Imperial County, and

WHEREAS, A feature of the fair will be the Lettuce Saladero championship lettuce salad tossing contest to celebrate the important winter lettuce growing, packing, and shipping industry located in Imperial Valley; and

WHEREAS, Presiding over the festivities this year will be the county's finest young ladies, the California Midwinter Fair and Saladero Queen, Miss Imperial Valley, Shirley Ritter, and the Rodeo Queen, Miss Judy Wake, who will be surrounded by a court of princesses presiding over the international festival of nations and representing the principal national groups which have settled in Imperial County and have converted the rugged desert into America's most productive acres, and

WHEREAS, A feature of the fair will be a display of livestock, agricultural, and home economics projects by the young people of the county representing the 4-H program and the Future Farmers of America, and

WHEREAS, The stadium, exhibition halls, and flower-studded gardens are in readiness for the finest production of this annual event, and

WHEREAS, This year the California Midwinter Fair, under the direction of William Dumond, promises to be greater than any in the past, and

WHEREAS, The officers and directors of the 45th District Agricultural Association have worked tirelessly to make possible the presentation of this exposition, and

WHEREAS, The splendor and excitement of this event will be available to all from March 1, to March 10, 1963; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the County of Imperial is commended on the excellence of its Midwinter Fair and the efforts of its people in presenting this unique and outstanding exposition; and be it further

Resolved, That the Members of the Assembly acknowledge and commend the outstanding efforts of the manager and entire staff of the California Midwinter Fair, Queen Shirley Ritter, Rodeo Queen Judy Wake, the International Princesses, Carmen Aquino, Sally Wong, Pamela Sakuka, Zanab Mohammed, Anne Miller, Xochitl Artesesia Rossette, Virginia Singh, and Christine Emerson, and all the good people who devoted their time and efforts to making the fair a great attraction to visitors from all over the world, and be it further

Relative to making freedom really ring

WHEREAS, On the Fourth of July of each year this Nation pauses to remember its heritage of freedom and independence, and

WHEREAS, For decades fireworks were a dominant Fourth of July sound which instilled in everyone who observed the colorful display a pride of national feeling, but this practice of "illuminations" has largely disappeared from the American scene, and

WHEREAS, It has been suggested that a new sound, a chorus of bells, mark this important observance from coast to coast and border to border, and

WHEREAS, The idea envisions the simultaneous ringing of all church bells, all bells in government buildings and all carillon bells in colleges and universities for four minutes throughout the Country, and

WHEREAS, It is hoped that the sound created by this chorus will stir a new wave of patriotic feeling, bring a deeper awareness of what the Fourth of July stands for, and serve to remind us of the heroic resolve formed by the men who pledged their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor 187 years ago; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That this State take every step necessary to insure that California participate to the full extent of its ability in this national effort to make freedom really ring on July 4, 1963, and each year thereafter; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor of this State

Assembly Bill No. 227—An act to add Section 13339 to the Education Code, relating to the employment of persons to serve as reader assistants to teachers.

Bill read second time.

Motion to Amend

Mr. Porter moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, after line 12, of the printed bill, insert

"It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section not to authorize an increase in the number of pupils who may be assigned to any class, but to provide an opportunity for improvement in the quality of student writing through more frequent assignments of compositions made possible by the employment of suitably trained persons to assist the instructor in the careful marking and analysis of the increased amount of written work Furthermore, the means adopted for employing persons as reader assistants is not intended as an encroachment upon the merit system of public employment, but is adopted as the most practical arrangement, since most work of such nature will be done as part-time work and in the home"

Amendment read, and adopted

Bill ordered reprinted, engrossed, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Education

BILLS ON SECOND READING FILE PURSUANT TO RULE NO. 76

Pursuant to Rule No. 76, the following bills were this day on the second reading file

Assembly Bills Nos. 108, 49, 80, 173, and 15.

Assembly Bills Nos. 108, 49, 173, and 15 ordered to third reading

Assembly Bill No 80 ordered to the Consent Calendar

POINT OF ORDER

Mr Conrad arose to the following point of order That, under Rule 67, Assembly Bill No 15 should be re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

Ruling by Speaker

The Speaker ruled the point of order well taken

Assembly Bill No 15 ordered re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

Appeal From Decision of Speaker

Mr Burton appealed from the decision of the Speaker.

Parliamentary Inquiry

Mr. Collier arose to the following parliamentary inquiry. Is an appeal from the decision of the Speaker debatable?

Reply by Speaker

Speaker Unruh replied that the appeal is not debatable, but that Rule 91 provides that, upon the appeal being seconded, the Speaker may give his reasons for the decision, and the member taking the appeal may give his reasons for making his appeal.

Ruling on Appeal

Speaker Unruh then ruled that the appeal from the decision of the Speaker had died for lack of a second

Motion to Rescind Action on Re-reference of Assembly Bill No. 15

Mr Burton moved to rescind the action whereby Assembly Bill No. 15 was this day re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

Motion ruled not in order, since the only recourse would be through an appeal from the decision of the Speaker

Mr Z'berg announced that the camellias placed in the members' offices were presented through the courtesy of the Sacramento Camellia Festival Association

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

Mr Z'berg then presented the nine Camellia Princesses and their escorts to the Members of the Assembly, who joined in welcoming them on their visit to the Assembly Chamber

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mr Conrad announced that yesterday was the birthday of Assemblyman Nicholas C Petris, whereupon the Members of the Assembly joined in extending best wishes and belated birthday greetings to Mr. Petris.

Mr Conrad announced the birth, on February 22, 1963, of a baby boy to Assemblyman and Mrs Howard J Thelin, whereupon the Members of the Assembly joined in extending their congratulations and best wishes to Mr Thelin

Consideration of House Resolution No 101, as Amended

By Mr Barnes

House Resolution No. 101

Relating to commending Mrs George Thackeray (Grace Lawrence) for being named "San Diego's Woman of the Year"

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Assembly that Mrs George Thackeray (Grace Lawrence) was named "San Diego's Woman of the Year" for 1963 at the annual banquet sponsored by the Presidents' Council of Women's Service and Business Clubs, and

WHEREAS, The "Woman of the Year" award is reserved for working women who have made outstanding contributions in community service and accomplishments in their careers, and

WHEREAS, The new "Woman of the Year" is an interior decorator who has contributed professional skills and materials to help redecorate and furnish rooms in several agencies and who has won national recognition in her field in being elected to membership in the National Society of Interior Designers and in participating in that group's assignment of furnishing the Diplomatic Reception Room of the White House, and

WHEREAS, A former Woman Marine who served for more than three years during World War II, Mrs Thackeray continues to place emphasis on patriotic endeavors and works incessantly to inspire alertness to the threat of Communism, and was Public Affairs Chairman for the Soroptimist Club's American Heritage programs, and

WHEREAS, Translating her beliefs into action, she collected funds and assisted in arrangements to bring five members of a Cuban family to the United States and helped to find them jobs, and

WHEREAS, In addition to membership in the San Diego Soroptimist Club, Mrs. Thackeray has been of service in aiding, among others, the Crossroads Foundation for the rehabilitation of alcoholic women, the Salvation Army Door of Hope Home and Hospital, Heart Association, United Community Services, Blind Industries, Juvenile Hall and Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Thackeray also is a charter member of the Women's Auxiliary to Big Brothers and is a member of the board of Junior Achievement of San Diego, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of this Assembly commend Mrs George Thackeray (Grace Lawrence) for her many years of valuable service to her community and congratulate her upon being named "San Diego's Woman of the Year", and be it further

Hon Charles J. Conrad
Assembly Chamber

Reference of Bills to Ways and Means Committee—No. 10440

DEAR MR. CONRAD: You have asked whether A B. 15, as amended in Assembly February 25, 1963, should be referred to the Assembly Committee on Ways and Means.

Rule No. 67 of the Assembly Standing Rules requires the reference to the Ways and Means Committee of all bills appropriating money and any bill requiring the expenditure of additional state moneys, including any bill which creates an additional state agency or adds any functions to an existing agency.

A B 15, as amended, provides that the willful violation of Section 51 of the Civil Code shall constitute grounds for the suspension or revocation of any license issued by the State Section 51 provides that all persons no matter what their race, color, religion, ancestry or national origin are entitled to the full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges or services in all business establishments of every kind whatsoever

The existing law gives the state agencies affected by the bill the power to revoke and suspend licenses and enumerates the grounds for such action The bill does not give such agencies any new or additional duty or power but merely provides additional grounds for the exercise of such power We note that a similar bill, A B 69 of the 1961 Session, was not referred to the Assembly Committee on Ways and Means for the same reason Therefore, in our opinion the bill need not be referred to the Assembly Committee on Ways and Means

Very truly yours,

A C MORRISON, Legislative Counsel
BY JOHN R PIERCE, Deputy Legislative Counsel

Two copies to Honorable Phillip Burton pursuant to Joint Rule 34.

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev Robert R Ferguson:

God of all Wisdom, We are grateful for the physical progress of Mr Stewart Hinckley

We confess we need guidance in life As decisions are made in this Assembly involving the lives and well-being of the people of this State, we confess our shortcomings Give us a more adequate platform from which to make evaluations We often major in the minors of life, and minor in the majors May we be discerning as to how to utilize our time Sometimes we give a person only a minute when we should talk with him for an hour; and with another we talk for hours when we should spend only minutes

We say we are too busy to spend time with our families, as we are here, but often when the opportunity is given, we try to gain the love of wife and children with things rather than with ourselves

We ask for wisdom in dealing with the unretrievable time Make us good stewards of this precious ingredient

We pray in Thy holy name —AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Carlos Bee, Mr Flournoy then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

By Mr. Collier:

House Resolution No. 120

Relative to congratulating the City of South Pasadena on its 75th Anniversary

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Assembly that the City of South Pasadena is celebrating its 75th birthday, having been incorporated on March 2, 1888, and

WHEREAS, The City of South Pasadena has a colorful background stemming back to the days before California was a Spanish possession, and

WHEREAS, The City of South Pasadena has developed into a city of beautiful residential areas and as a place of refinement and culture; and

WHEREAS, Its citizens have worked tirelessly and successfully to solve their local problems; and

WHEREAS, Once only a bedroom community, the City of South Pasadena has developed and progressed industrially over the years, and

WHEREAS, South Pasadena's leaders have always sought to advance the interests of the entire region in which the city is located, and

WHEREAS, The City of South Pasadena has grown from a population of 1,009 in 1900 to a current population of 20,700, and in 25 years will reach a population of 40,000, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of this Assembly congratulate the City of South Pasadena on its 75th Anniversary, commend its citizenry for their outstanding record of achievement, and wish the city and its people a bright and prosperous future, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to the Mayor of the City of South Pasadena.

Request for Unanimous Consent

Mr. Collier was granted unanimous consent to take up House Resolution No 120 without reference to committee or file.

Resolution read, and adopted.

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly and Senate

Assembly Bill No. 116, "An act to add Sections 2020 001 and 3084 05 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to attendant and other special services for recipients of public assistance, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately,"

in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill

The failure to act at once will result in the loss of certain federal matching funds in the OAS-PAMC Program

I, therefore, recommend consideration of Assembly Bill No 116 as an emergency measure

Respectfully submitted,

By Messrs Greene, Winton, and Danielson

House Resolution No. 121

Relative to bail, fines, and sentencing

WHEREAS, The use of fixed bail schedules creates a double standard of justice which favors the rich , and

WHEREAS, Almost no use is being made of the procedure provided in Section 853 6 of the Penal Code for citations and forfeitures of bail in misdemeanor cases , and

WHEREAS, Courts in California have widely divergent practices with respect to amounts of bail and fines and to sentencing , and

WHEREAS, Monetary fines often are too slight a punishment for the wealthy and too severe for the poor , and

WHEREAS, Since bail is primarily a guarantee of appearance, there is a serious question as to whether it is set far too high in many cases , now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That it is appropriate, at this time, that a study be undertaken of the law and practices in the State regarding bail, fines and sentencing , and be it further

Resolved, That the Assembly Rules Committee is directed to assign the subject matter of this resolution to the appropriate interim committee for study and to direct such interim committee to report its findings thereon, together with its suggestions for proposed legislation, to the Assembly not later than the fifth legislative day of the 1965 Regular Session of the Legislature

Resolution read, and referred by the Acting Speaker to the Committee on Rules

O, Thou Holy God, At the beginning of this week give to us a new sense of purpose and a deeper dedication to face the decisions and problems confronting us Thou seest the world under the aspect of eternity We find difficulty seeing it beyond our own prejudices We want honesty, yet rationalizing seems logical, we desire purity, but sin is so enticing, we would be just and honorable in all our dealings, yet compromising seems compelling We pray for courage not to yield to immediate temptations but to take the longer look and the steeper path if we would reach the heights of service and benefit to our fellow man

Inspire us anew, we pray in our Lord's name—AMEN

By Mr Dymally

House Resolution No. 122

Relative to discriminatory practices in home loans and sales

WHEREAS, It has been charged that some lending institutions employ discriminatory practices in making home loans and that the sales policies of some builders and realtors have also been discriminatory, and

WHEREAS, Such practices would have the effect of promoting de facto segregation in the schools, thereby denying equal educational opportunity, which in turn lessens employment prospects for certain minority groups, and

WHEREAS, These factors have contributed substantially to juvenile delinquency and other social ills which act as a deterrent to the State's attaining its full measure of sound social and economic growth, and

WHEREAS, Consideration of the practices in respect to home loans and sales by the financial and real estate industries must be made in a thorough and therefore time-consuming manner, if it is to fairly assess whether discriminating practices exist and if so what means would be effective to minimize or eliminate such practices, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Committee on Rules is requested to refer for study to an appropriate interim committee the subject of discriminatory practices in the financial and real estate industries in respect to loans on and sales of residential property
