~~1475. (a) In lieu of the contributions required of employers, the State of California shall pay into the Unemployment Fund in the State Treasury at the times and in the manner provided in subdivision~~

~~(b), an amount equal to the additional cost to the Unemployment Fund of the benefits (including extended duration benefits and federal-state extended benefits) paid based on base period state wages with respect to employment of state employees. Benefits otherwise payable, irrespective of this chapter, shall be charged to employers' reserve accounts in accordance with other sections of this part and shall be the liability of governmental entities or nonprofit organizations pursuant to Sections 710, 711, and 713, but the additional cost to the Unemployment Fund of the benefits paid based on base period state wages pursuant to this chapter shall be borne solely by the State of California.~~

~~(b) In making the payments prescribed by subdivision (a), there shall be paid or credited to the Unemployment Fund, either in advance or by way of reimbursement, as may be determined by the director, such sums as he estimates the Unemployment Fund will be entitled to receive from the State of California for each calendar quarter, reduced or increased by any sum by which he finds that his estimates for any prior calendar quarter were greater or less than the amounts which should have been paid to the fund. Such estimates may be made upon the basis of statistical sampling, or other method as may be determined by the director.~~

~~Upon making such determination, the director shall certify to the Controller or other responsible disbursing officer the amount determined with respect to the State of California. The Controller or other responsible disbursing officer shall pay to the Unemployment Fund the contributions due from the State of California. The director shall charge to any special fund, which is responsible for the salary of any employee, the amount of additional cost to the Unemployment Fund of the benefits paid with respect to that state employee.~~

~~(c) The director may require from each employing unit subject to this chapter employment, wage, financial, statistical, or other information and reports, properly verified, as may be deemed necessary by the director to carry out his duties under this chapter, which shall be filed with the director at the time and in the manner prescribed by him.~~

~~(d) The director may tabulate and publish information obtained pursuant to this chapter in statistical form and may divulge the name of the employing unit.~~

~~(e) Each employing unit shall keep such work records as may be prescribed by the director for the proper administration of this chapter.~~

~~(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the State of California shall not be liable for that portion of any extended duration benefits or federal-state extended benefits which is reimbursed or reimbursable by the federal government to the State of California.~~

SEC. 2 Section 1475 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

1475 (a) In lieu of the contributions required of employers, the State of California shall pay into the Unemployment Fund in the State Treasury at the times and in the manner provided in subdivision (b), an amount equal to the additional cost to the Unemployment Fund of the benefits (including extended duration benefits and federal-state extended benefits) paid based on base period state wages with respect to employment of state employees. Benefits otherwise payable, irrespective of this chapter, shall be charged to employers' reserve accounts in accordance with other sections of this part, and shall be the liability of governmental entities or nonprofit organizations pursuant to Section 803, but the additional cost to the Unemployment Fund of the benefits paid based on base period state wages pursuant to this chapter shall be borne solely by the State of California

(b) In making the payments prescribed by subdivision (a), there shall be paid or credited to the Unemployment Fund, either in advance or by way of reimbursement, as may be determined by the director, such sums as he estimates the Unemployment Fund will be entitled to receive from the State of California for each calendar quarter, reduced or increased by any sum by which he finds that his estimates for any prior calendar quarter were greater or less than the amounts which should have been paid to the fund Such estimates may be made upon the basis of statistical sampling, or such other method as may be determined by the director

Upon making such determination, the director shall certify to the State Controller or other responsible disbursing officer the amount determined with respect to the State of California. The State Controller or other responsible disbursing officer shall pay to the Unemployment Fund the contributions due from the State of California The director shall charge to any special fund not funded by any budget act or other state appropriation, which is responsible for the salary of any employee, the amount of additional cost to the Unemployment Fund of the benefits paid with respect to that state employee.

(c) The director may require from each employing unit subject to this chapter employment, wage, financial, statistical, or other information and reports, properly verified, as may be deemed necessary by the director to carry out his duties under this chapter, which shall be filed with the director at the time and in the manner prescribed by him

(d) The director may tabulate and publish information obtained pursuant to this chapter in statistical form and may divulge the name of the employing unit.

(e) Each employing unit shall keep such work records as may be prescribed by the director for the proper administration of this chapter.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the State of California shall not be liable for that portion of any extended duration benefits or federal-state extended benefits which is reimbursed or reimbursable by the federal government to the State of California

SEC 3. Section 5 of Chapter 1815 of the Statutes of 1971 is repealed.

~~SEC 5. This act shall become effective only if General Fund revenues are increased by statutes enacted at the 1971 Regular Session of the Legislature above the amounts necessary to maintain programs in dollar amounts allocated by Chapter 266 of the Statutes of 1971, as determined by the State Controller.~~

SEC 4. There is appropriated from the General Fund to the Director of the Department of Human Resources Development the sum of one hundred ninety-one thousand dollars ($191,000) to be used to pay the benefits provided by Chapter 1815 of the Statutes of 1971 which are charged to any special fund funded by any budget act or other state appropriation.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Layoffs in state institutions of higher education are imminent. The lack of unemployment benefits for state higher education employees is detrimental to morale, causes a deterioration in the quality and quantity of services, and is a deterrent to the recruitment of qualified candidates for employment. Unless there is prompt adjustment of this serious inequity, and sufficient moneys to fund such adjustment, this area of public service will suffer serious and irreparable harm."

Bill ordered reprinted, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Finance and Insurance.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Committee on Judiciary

Assembly Chamber, April 18, 1972

Mr. Speaker: The Chairman of your Committee on Judiciary reports:

AB No 366
AB No. 1223

With author's amendments with the recommendation: Amend, and re-refer to the Committee on Judiciary.

WARREN, Chairman

SECOND READING OF BILLS—AUTHOR'S AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 366—An act to add Chapter 3 5 (commencing with Section 536) to Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to civil proceedings.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendment, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, was read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out lines 5 to 10, inclusive; and strike out all of pages 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8, and insert

"CHAPTER 3 5 ENVIRONMENTAL ACTIONS

Article 1 General Provisions and Findings

536 This chapter may be cited as the "California Conservation Act"

536.1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) It is the policy of this state to conserve, protect, and enhance its environment. It is the policy of this state to prevent destruction, pollution, or irreparable impairment of the environment and the natural resources of this state.

(b) It is in the public interest to provide the people of the State of California with adequate remedy to protect the natural resources of the State of California from pollution, impairment, or destruction.

(c) Conservation of natural resources and protection of the environment are pursuits often beyond the scope of inquiry, legislation, or enforcement by local government; several local public entities existing in the same ecological community have acted in differing and, sometimes, conflicting manners; uniform, coordinated, and thorough response to the questions of protection of environment and preservation of natural resources must be assured; and these matters are of statewide concern.

536.2. The provisions of this chapter are not exclusive, and the remedies provided for in this article shall be in addition to any other remedies provided for in any other law or available under common law.

536.3. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held to be unconstitutional, the remainder of the chapter and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby 536.4. This chapter shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes.

Article 2. Definitions

536.5. As used in this chapter, "person" includes any person, firm, association, organization, partnership, business trust, corporation, company, district, county, city and county, city, town, the state, and any of the agencies and political subdivision of such entities.

536.6. As used in this chapter, "public entity" means any county, city and county, city, municipal water district, irrigation district, public utility district, and any other public corporation, or any state agency, district, commission, or department.

536.7. As used in this chapter, "natural resource" includes land, water, air minerals, vegetation, wildlife, silence, historic or aesthetic sites, or any other natural resource which, irrespective of ownership, contributes, or in the future may contribute, to the health, safety, welfare, or enjoyment of a substantial number of persons, or to the balance of a substantial ecological community.

536.8. As used in this chapter, "substantial" means considerable in amount, time, number or degree of importance; material; real; significant; serious as opposed to trival.

536.9. As used in this chapter, "pollution" means the substantial alteration of the physical, chemical, or biological properties of the air, water or land in a manner contrary to the promotion of the health, safety, or welfare of a substantial number of persons, and to the balance of an ecological community.

536.10. As used in this chapter, "destruction" means a use, abuse, waste, or omission of duty substantially changing the environment in a manner contrary to the promotion of the health, safety, or welfare of a substantial number of persons, and to the balance of an ecological community.

Article 3. Remedies

536.11 Any person may maintain an action for equitable relief against any person for the protection of the natural resources of the state from pollution, impairment, or destruction.

536 12. In any action maintained under Section 536.11, the defendant may show, by way of an affirmative defense, that there is no more feasible and prudent alternative to the defendant's conduct, and that such conduct is consistent with the protection of the public health, safety, and welfare.

536.13. In granting temporary and permanent equitable relief, the court may impose such conditions upon the defendant as are required to protect the natural resources of the state from pollution, impairment, or destruction.

536.14. (a) No action may be maintained under this chapter where any conduct, product, or project is expressly authorized by state statute. For purposes of this subdivision, where the particular conduct, product, or project in question is undertaken administratively only by virtue of a general statutory authorization, such conduct, product, or project shall not be held to be expressly authorized by state statute.

(b) No action may be maintained under the provision of this chapter against any person for any conduct, product, or project expressly authorized by any rule, regulation, order, permit, or variance of any state agency, board, district, commission, or department, except against the public entity which issued the rule, regulation, order, permit, or variance.

(c) No action may be maintained under the provision of this chapter against any person for any conduct, product, or project expressly authorized by any rule, regulation, order, permit, or variance of any public entity which imposes more stringent conditions, restrictions, or limitations with respect to the protection of the environment than any state statute or rule, regulation, order, permit or variance of any state agency, board, district, commission, or department, except as against the public entity which issued the rule, regulation, order, permit, or variance

(d) No action may be commenced against any public entity prior to 60 days after the plaintiff has given notice of intent to commence an action under this chapter to such public entity and to any person whose conduct or product is alleged to have destroyed or polluted or, unless restrained, will destroy or pollute the environment. Such notice shall contain a specific description of defendant's conduct or product which is the subject of the action.

536 15. The complaint in any action commenced under this chapter shall be supported by the affidavits of not less than two technically qualified persons stating that to the best of their knowledge defendant's conduct or product complained of did, or unless restrained will, destroy or pollute the environment.

Article 4. Review of Administrative Decisions

536.16. (a) In any administrative, licensing, or other such proceeding or in any proceeding for judicial review thereof which is made available by law, any person may be permitted to intervene upon showing that the proceeding or action for judicial review involves conduct, programs, or products which may have the effect of impairing, polluting, or destroying the natural resources of the state.

(b) In any proceeding described in subdivision (a), the agency or court shall consider the alleged impairment, pollution, or destruction of the natural resources of the state, and no conduct, program, or product shall be authorized or approved which does, or will have, such effect unless it is consistent with the protection of the public health, safety, or welfare.

(c) Where intervention was available in another action or proceeding and the plaintiff in an action under this chapter neglected to intervene in such other action or proceeding, the court may dismiss with prejudice the action of such plaintiff.

(d) In any judicial review under this section, the evidence before the court shall consist of the record before the agency and any other relevant evidence which, in the judgment of the court, should be considered to effectuate and implement the policies of this article.

536.17. Any action brought pursuant to Section 536 11 to review, set aside, void or annul any decision in any zoning matter of an administrative body or of a legislative body, or concerning any of the proceedings, acts or determinations taken, done or made prior to such decision, or to determine the reasonableness, legality or validity of any such decision shall not be maintained unless such action is commenced within 180 days after the date of such decision

536 18. (a) Whenever proceedings before an administrative agency are pending or available to determine the legality of the defendant's conduct, program, or product, the court shall stay the action brought pursuant to Section 536.11 pending the completion of such proceedings unless such stay will result in irreparable pollution, impairment or destruction to any natural resource

(b) In the order staying the proceedings under subdivision (a), the court may grant temporary equitable relief where appropriate to prevent irreparable pollution, impairment or destruction of any natural resource.

Article 5 Procedure

536.19. An action under this chapter shall be brought in the superior court of any county where the alleged conduct relating to destroying or polluting the environment is alleged to have occurred

536.20. An action brought pursuant to this chapter shall take special precedence over all civil matters on the calendar of the court, except those matters to which equal precedence on the calendar is granted by law.

536 21. No restraining order or preliminary injunction shall issue except upon the giving of security by the applicant in such sum as the court deems proper. In no event shall such sum be more than five hundred dollars ($500). Such security shall be given for the payment of such costs and damages as may be incurred or suffered by any person who is found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained. No such security shall be required of: (1) the Attorney General or (2) any public entity or officer thereof or (3) the applicant, upon the issuance of a permanent injunction.

536.22. In any action brought under the provisions of this chapter, the party filing the pleading shall furnish a copy to the Attorney General of the State of California. Such copy shall be furnished by the party filing the pleading within 10 days after filing.

536.23. In any action brought under the provisions of this chapter, a party may object to the appointment of any person as referee on the ground that he is not technically qualified with respect to the particular subject matter of the proceeding.

536.24. The court in its discretion may award costs of litigation, including reasonable attorney fees and expert witness fees, to the prevailing party in any action under this chapter.

536.25. In any action commenced pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, the defendant may move the court for an order, upon notice and hearing, dismissing the complaint as hereinafter provided. Such motion shall be based upon the grounds that there is no reasonable possibility that the prosecution of the cause of action alleged in the complaint against the moving party will conserve or protect the environment from destruction or pollution.

The court on application of the plaintiff may, for good cause shown, extend such 30-day period for an additional period or periods not exceeding 60 days.

At the hearing upon such motion, the court shall consider such evidence, written or oral, by witnesses or affidavit, as may be material to the ground upon which the motion is based. If such motion is filed, no pleadings need be filed by the moving party and the prosecution of such action shall be stayed, until 10 days after such motion shall have been disposed of.

An order dismissing the complaint is an appealable judgment."

Bill ordered reprinted, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

SECOND READING OF BILLS—AUTHOR'S AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 954—An act to amend Sections 17301 and 17303.5 of the Education Code, relating to financial support for the public schools.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the heading of the printed bill, strike out "Assemblyman Leroy F. Greene", and insert "Assemblyman MacDonald (Coauthor: Senator Lagomarsino)"

Amendment No. 2

In lines 1 and 2 of the title, strike out "Sections 17301 and 17303.5 of the Education Code", and insert "Section 2 of Chapter 1423 of the Statutes of 1971".

Amendment No. 3

In line 2 of the title, after "schools", insert ", and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately".

Amendment No. 4

On page 1, strike out line 1, and insert

"SECTION 1. Section 2 of Chapter 1423 of the Statutes of 1971 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. For purposes of determining eligibility for apportionments of funds appropriated in Item 270 of the Budget Act of 1971 (Chapter 266 of the Statutes of 1971), and more particularly, in determining the average daily attendance in school districts for which equalization aid was computed, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall compute the same by considering solely individual school district wealth, disregarding the effects of the areawide school support mechanism, and as though no areawide school support programs were in operation anywhere in the state- ; except that school districts which receive equalization aid only because of the operation of the areawide school support mechanism shall likewise be eligible.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect The facts constituting such necessity are:

Section 2 of Chapter 1423 of the Statutes of 1971 will, unless amended, exclude certain school districts from the additional equalization aid for cost increases due to inflation prescribed by Item 270 of the Budget Act of 1971, which these school districts had budgeted for use during the 1971–1972 fiscal year. In order to prevent this unfortunate result, and to facilitate the orderly administration of the school finance system during the current fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately."

Amendment No. 5

On page 1, strike out lines 2 to 6, inclusive; and strike out all of pages 2 to 5, inclusive.

Bill ordered reprinted, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Education.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Father Leo McAllister:

Father, Ours is not the first generation to discover the chance and tragedy of this world. Save us from being the first generation to be conquered by it. Let not our time be consumed by nostalgically recalling the golden ages of the past. For, indeed, they were so designated by people who never lived in them. Give us the courage to face the tragedies, ironies, and absurdities of life. Save us from self-pity which precludes self-improvement.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Acting Speaker Fenton, Mr. Quimby then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

SECOND READING OF BILLS—AUTHOR'S AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 384—An act to amend Section 23801 of the Education Code, relating to state colleges.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendment, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, was read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

On page 3 of the printed bill, after line 2, insert

"SEC. 2 Section 23801 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23801 A student body organization may be established at any state college under the supervision of the college officials for the purpose of providing essential activities closely related to, but not normally included as a part of, the regular instructional program of the college Such an organization may also operate a campus store, a cafeteria, and other projects not inconsistent with the purposes of the college, and property of the college may be leased to such an organization for such purposes.

The trustees may fix fees for voluntary membership in such organization established at a state college

Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, if a student body organization is established at any state college, upon the favorable vote of two-thirds of the students voting in an election held for this purpose, in such manner as the trustees shall prescribe, and open to all regular students enrolled in such college, the trustees shall fix a membership fee which shall be required of all regular, limited, and summer session students attending such college No increase in the fees shall become effective until approved by the favorable vote of two-thirds of the students voting in an election held for that purpose. No fees shall be charged to students registering solely in extension classes.

Such required fee shall be subject to referendum at any time upon the presentation of a petition to the president of the college containing the signatures of 20 percent of the regularly enrolled students at such college. A successful referendum shall take effect with the beginning of the academic year following that in which the election was held.

Payment of membership fees pursuant to this section shall be a prerequisite to enrollment in the college, except that if sufficient funds are available any state college student may at his option and subject to the regulations of the trustees establishing standards in that regard, agree to work off the amount of the fee at the prevailing rate of the college for student assistants. The trustees may adopt regulations setting standards for determining which students shall be eligible to work off the amount of the fee No student shall be required to pay student body membership fees in an aggregate amount exceeding ~~twenty dollars ($20)~~ thirty dollars ($30) per academic year

The revenues raised pursuant to this section may, in addition to expenditures for other lawful purposes involved in the operations of the student body organization, be expended to provide for the support of governmental affairs representatives who may be attending upon the State Legislature or upon offices and agencies in the executive branch of the state government.

SEC 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No 401 are both chaptered and amend Section 23801 of the Education Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 401, that the amendments to Section 23801 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 23801 in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act Therefore, Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 401 are both chaptered, both amend Section 23801, and Assembly Bill No. 401 is chaptered before this bill, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative "

Amendment No. 2

On page 1, line 1, after "SECTION 1.", insert "Section 17226 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17226. (a) Every taxpayer at his election, shall be entitled to a deduction with respect to the amortization of the amortizable basis of any certified pollution control facility (as defined in subdivision (d)), based on a period of 60 months. Such amortization deduction shall be an amount with respect to each month of such period within the taxable year, equal to the amortizable basis of the pollution control facility at the end of such month divided by the number of months (including the month for which the deduction is computed) remaining in the period. Such amortizable basis at the end of the month shall be computed without regard to the amortization deduction for such month. The amortization deduction provided by this section with respect to any month shall be in lieu of the depreciation deduction with respect to such pollution control facility for such month provided by Section 17208. The 60-month period shall begin, as to any pollution control facility, at the election of the taxpayer, with the month following the month in which such facility was completed or acquired, or with the succeeding taxable year.

(b) The election of the taxpayer to take the amortization deduction and to begin the 60-month period with the month following the month in which the facility is completed or acquired, or with the taxable year succeeding the taxable year in which such facility is completed or acquired, shall be made by filing with the Franchise Tax Board in such manner, in such form, and within such time, as the Franchise Tax Board may by regulations prescribe, a statement of such election.

(c) A taxpayer which has elected under subdivision (b) to take the amortization deduction provided in subdivision (a) may, at any time after making such election, discontinue the amortization deduction with respect to the remainder of the amortization period, such discontinuance to begin as of the beginning of any month specified by the taxpayer in a notice in writing filed with the Franchise Tax Board before the beginning of such month. The depreciation deduction provided under Section 17208 shall be allowed, beginning with the first month as to which the amortization deduction does not apply, and the taxpayer shall not be entitled to any further amortization deduction under this section with respect to such pollution control facility.

(d) For purposes of this section—

(1) The term "certified pollution control facility" means a new identifiable treatment facility which is used, in connection with a plant or other property in operation before January 1, 1971, to abate or control water or atmospheric pollution or contamination by removing, altering, disposing, or storing of pollutants, contaminants, wastes, or heat and which the State Department of ~~Public~~ Health has certified as having been constructed, reconstructed, erected, or acquired in conformity with the state program or requirements for abatement or control of water or atmospheric pollution or contamination.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "new identifiable treatment facility" includes only tangible property (not including a building and its structural components, other than a building which is exclusively a treatment facility) which is of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in Section 17208, which is identifiable as a treatment facility, and which—

(A) Is property—

(i) The construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed by the taxpayer after December 31, 1970, or

(ii) Acquired after December 31, 1970, if the original use of the property commences with the taxpayer and commences after such date, and

(B) Is placed in service by the taxpayer before January 1, 1975.

In applying this section in the case of property described in clause (i) of subparagraph (A), there shall be taken into account only that portion of the basis which is property attributable to construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1970.

(e) The State Department of ~~Public~~ Health shall not certify any property to the extent it appears that by reason of profits derived through the recovery of wastes or otherwise in the operation of such property, its costs will be recovered over its actual useful life.

(f) (1) For purposes of this section, the term "amortizable basis" means that portion of the adjusted basis (for determining gain) of a certified pollution control facility which may be amortized under this section.

(2) (A) If a certified pollution control facility has a useful life (determined as of the first day of the first month for which a deduction is allowable under this section) in excess of 15 years, the amortizable basis of such facility shall be equal to an amount which bears the same ratio to the portion of the adjusted basis of such facility, which would be eligible for amortization but for the application of this subparagraph, as 15 bears to the number of years of useful life of such facility.

(B) The amortizable basis of a certified pollution control facility with respect to which an election under this section is in effect shall not be increased, for purposes of this section, for additions or improvements after the amortization period has begun.

(g) The depreciation deduction provided by Section 17208 shall, despite the provisions of subdivision (a), be allowed with respect to the portion of the adjusted basis which is not the amortizable basis.

(h) In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction under this section shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowable to the life tenant.

(i) For special rule with respect to certain gain derived from the disposition of property the adjusted basis of which is determined with regard to this section, see Section 18211.

SEC. 2. Section 18244 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18244. (a) This article shall apply to the taxable year only if the taxpayer chooses to have the benefits of this article for such taxable year. Such choice may be made or changed at any time before the expiration of the period prescribed for making a claim for credit or refund of the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year.

(b) If the taxpayer chooses the benefits of this article for the taxable year, the following provisions shall not apply to him for such year:

(1) Section 17048 (relating to the optional tax table) and

(2) Subdivision (b) of Section 17112.7 (relating to limitation of tax in case of certain distributions with respect to contributions by self-employed individuals).

(c) (1) Paragraph (2) of this subdivision shall apply in the case of any individual who was married for any base period year or the computation year; except that such paragraphs shall not apply in respect of a base period year if—

(A) Such individual and his spouse make a joint return for the computation year, and

(B) Such individual was not married to any other spouse for such base period year.

(2) For purposes of this article, the base period income of an individual for any base period year shall not be less than 50 percent of the base period income which would result from combining his income and deductions for such year—

(A) With the income and deductions for such year of the individual who is his spouse for the computation year, or

(B) If greater, with the income and deductions for such year of the individual who was his spouse for such base period year.

(C) With respect to computation years beginning after December 31, 1971, for the purposes of subparagraphs (A) and (B), for base years beginning after December 31, 1967, and ending before November 30, 1972, the percentages provided for in Section 18162.5 shall be used to determine the amount of capital gains for such taxable years.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, Section 17173 shall apply in determining whether an individual is married for any taxable year.

(d) In the case of a joint return, the three thousand dollars ($3,000) figure contained in Section 18241 shall be applied to the aggregate averageable income.

(e) (1) Section 17112.5 (relating to penalties applicable to certain amounts received by owner-employees) shall be applied as if this article had not been enacted.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this article, the order and manner in which items of income or limitations on tax shall be taken into account in computing the tax imposed by this part on the income of any eligible individual to whom Section 18241 applies for any computation year shall be determined under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(f) In the case of any computation year or base period year which is a short taxable year, this article shall be applied in the manner provided in regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 3. Section 19523 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19523. The amount of assistance shall be based on claimant's household income for the period set forth in Section ~~19501~~ 19501.5. The percentage of assistance for which each claimant shall be eligible shall be based on the following scale:

If the total household income (as defined in this part) is not more than:	The percentage of tax on the first $7,500 of value (as determined for tax purposes) used to provide assistance is:
2,000	92
2,500	88
3,000	80
3,500	70
4,500	52
5,000	45
5,500	38
6,000	32
6,500	26
7,000	21
7,500	16
8,000	12
8,500	8
9,000	6
9,500	5
10,000	4

SEC. 4. Section 19526 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19526. Notwithstanding the definition of income set forth in Section 19501.5, no assistance shall be allowed for property taxes accrued and paid if the gross household income from all sources for the periods set forth in Section ~~19501~~ 19501.5 is twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or more; provided, however, that in the case of a person whose principal trade or business is farming, such amount is thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) or more.

SEC. 5. Section 19531 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19531. Each claimant applying for assistance under Article 2 (commencing with Section 19521) of this part shall file a claim under penalty of perjury with the Franchise Tax Board on a form supplied by such board. The claim shall contain:

(a) Evidence acceptable to the Franchise Tax Board that the claimant was a resident of California and 62 years of age or older on or before the first day of January preceding the end of the fiscal year for which the claim is filed.

(b) A statement showing the household income for the period set forth in Section ~~19501~~ 19501.5.

(c) A statement describing the property on which the claim is based and showing at least the assessed value of the homestead; the size and nature of the homestead; together with the tax bill. No interest shall be allowed on any payment made to any claimant pursuant to this part.

If a claimant submits a statement containing the essential data set forth in this section under penalty of perjury within the period set forth in Section 19532, the Franchise Tax Board shall compute the amount of assistance and authorize payment. The amount of any assistance otherwise payable under this part may be applied by the Franchise Tax Board against any liability due from the claimant under any law administered by the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 6."

Amendment No. 3

On page 2, after line 6, insert

"SEC. 7. Section 23701r of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23701r. Corporations organized and operated to support or defeat a political candidate or candidates or to support or recall an elective public officer or officers which are supported solely by contributions and no part of the income of which inures to the benefit of any individual other than through the political support or opposition.

SEC. 8. Section 23732 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23732. (a) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the term "unrelated business taxable income" means the gross income derived by any organization from any unrelated trade or business (as defined in Section 23734) regularly carried on by it, less the deductions allowed by this article which are directly connected with the carrying on of such trade or business, both computed with the modifications provided in subdivision (b)

(2) (A) In the case of an organization described in Section 23701g or 23701i, the term "unrelated business taxable income" means the gross income (excluding any exempt function income), less the deductions allowed by this article which are directly connected with the production of the gross income (excluding function income), both computed with the modifications provided in paragraphs (9), (10), and (11) of subdivision (b).

(B) For purposes of subparagraph (A), the term "exempt function income" means the gross income from dues, fees, charges, or similar amounts paid by members of the organization as consideration for providing such members or their dependents or guests goods, facilities, or services in furtherance of the purposes constituting the basis for the exemption of the organization to which such income is paid. Such term also means all income (other than an amount equal to the gross income derived from any unrelated trade or business regularly carried on by such organization computed as if the organization were subject to paragraph (1)), which is set aside—

(i) For a purpose specified in subdivision ~~(c)~~ (d) of Section 17214, or

(ii) In the case of an organization described in Section 23701i, to provide for the payment of life, sick, accident, or other benefits, including reasonable costs of administration directly connected with a purpose described in clause (i) or (ii).

If during the taxable year, an amount which is attributable to income so set aside is used for a purpose other than that described in clause (i) or (ii), such amount shall be included, under subparagraph (A), in unrelated business taxable income for the taxable year.

(C) If property used directly in the performance of the exempt function of an organization described in Section 23701g or 23701i is sold by such organization, and within a period beginning one year before the date of such sale, and ending three years after such date, other property is purchased and used by such organization directly in the performance of its exempt function, gain (if any) from such sale shall be recognized only to the extent that such organization's sales price of the old property exceeds the organization's cost of purchasing the other property. For purposes of this subparagraph, the destruction in whole or in part, theft, seizure, requisition, or condemnation of property, shall be treated as the sale of such property and rules similar to the rules provided by Sections 18092, 18093, 18095, and 18100 shall apply.

(3) If a corporation exempt under Section 23701h—

(A) Pays any amount of its net income for a taxable year to an organization (parent) exempt from taxation under Section 23701 or 17631 (or in case of an organization located outside the state the exemption may be under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code) or which would pay such amount but for the fact that the expenses of collecting its income exceeded its income, and

(B) Such corporation and such organization file a consolidated federal return for the year and furnish a copy of the consolidated return with its return, such corporation shall be treated, for the purposes of the tax imposed by Section 23731, as being organized and operated for the same purposes as such organization in addition to the purposes described in Section 23701h.

(b) The modifications referred to in subdivision (a) are the following:

(1) There shall be excluded all dividends, interest, and annuities, and all deductions directly connected with such income.

(2) There shall be excluded all royalties (including overriding royalties) whether measured by production or by gross or taxable income from the property, and all deductions directly connected with such income.

(3) In the case of rents—

(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), there shall be excluded—

(i) All rents from real property, and

(ii) All rents from personal property leased with such real property, if the rents attributable to such personal property are an incidental amount of the total rents received or accrued under the lease, determined at the time the personal property is placed in service.

(B) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply—

(i) If more than 50 percent of the total rent received or accrued under the lease is attributable to personal property described in subparagraph (A) (ii), or

(ii) If the determination of the amount of such rent depends in whole or in part on the income or profits derived by any person from the property leased (other than an amount based on a fixed percentage or percentages of receipts or sales).

(C) There shall be excluded all deductions directly connected with rents excluded under subparagraph (A).

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (5), in case of debt-financed property (as defined in Section 23735) there shall be included, as an item of gross income derived from an unrelated trade or business, the amount ascertained under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 23735, and there shall be allowed, as a deduction, the amount ascertained under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 23735.

(5) There shall be excluded all gains or losses from the sale, exchange or other disposition of property other than—

(A) Stock in trade or other property of a kind which would properly be includable in inventory if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or

(B) Property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the trade or business.

This paragraph shall not apply with respect to the cutting of timber which is considered, on the application of Section 17711, as a sale or exchange of such timber.

(6) There shall be excluded all income derived from research for (A) the United States, or any of its agencies or instrumentalities, or (B) any state or political subdivision thereof; and there shall be excluded all deductions directly connected with such income.

(7) In the case of a college, university, or hospital, there shall be excluded all income derived from research performed for any person, and all deductions directly connected with such income.

(8) In the case of an organization operated primarily for purposes of carrying on fundamental research the results of which are freely available to the general public, there shall be excluded all income derived from research performed for any person, and all deductions directly connected with such income.

(9) In the case of any organization (other than a trust) subject to tax under Section 23731, the deduction allowed by Section 24357 (relating to charitable, etc., contributions and gifts) shall be allowed (whether or not directly connected with the carrying on of the trade or business), but shall not exceed 5 percent of the unrelated business taxable income computed without the benefit of this paragraph.

(10) In the case of any trust subject to taxation under Section 23731 or subdivision (a) of Section 17651, the deduction allowed by Sections 17214 and 17215 (relating to charitable, etc., contributions and gifts) shall be allowed (whether or not directly connected with the carrying on of the trade or business) and for such purpose a distribution made by the trust to a beneficiary described in Section 17214 shall be considered a gift or contribution The deduction allowed by this paragraph shall be allowed with the limitations prescribed in Section 17215 determined with reference to the unrelated business taxable income computed without the benefit of this paragraph (in lieu of with reference to adjusted gross income).

(11) There shall also be allowed a specific deduction of one thousand dollars ($1,000). In the case of a diocese, province of a religious order, or a convention or association of churches, there shall be allowed, with respect to each parish, individual church, district, or other local unit, a specific deduction equal to the lower of—

(A) One thousand dollars ($1,000), or

(B) The gross income derived from any unrelated trade or business regularly carried on by such local unit.

(12) In the case of an organization which is described in Section 23701a, there shall be excluded all income used to establish, maintain, or operate a retirement home, hospital, or other similar facility for the exclusive use and benefit of the aged and infirm members of such an organization, which is derived from agricultural pursuits conducted on ground contiguous to the retirement home, hospital, or similar facility and further provided that such income does not provide more than 75 percent of the cost of maintaining and operating the retirement home, hospital, or similar facility; and there shall be excluded all deductions directly connected with such income.

(13) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), (2), or (3), amounts of interest, annuities, royalties, and rents derived from any organization (in this paragraph called the controlled organization) of which the organization deriving such amounts (in this paragraph called the controlling organization) has control (as defined in Section 24564) shall be included as an item of gross income (whether or not the activity from which such amounts are derived represents a trade or business or is regularly carried on) in an amount which bears the same ratio as—

(A) (i) In the case of a controlled organization which is not exempt from taxation under Section 23701 or 17631, the excess of the amount of taxable income of the controlled organization over the amount of such organization's taxable income which if derived directly by the controlling organization would not be unrelated business taxable income, or

(ii) In the case of a controlled organization which is exempt from taxation under Section 23701 or 17631, the amount of unrelated business taxable income of the controlled organization, bears to

(B) The taxable income of the controlled organization (determined in the case of a controlled organization to which subparagraph (A) (ii) applies as if it were not an organization exempt from taxation under Section 23701 or 17631), but not less than the amount determined in clause (i) or (ii), as the case may be, of subparagraph (A), both amounts computed without regard to amounts paid directly or indirectly to the controlling organization There shall be allowed all deductions directly connected with amounts included in gross income under the preceding sentence.

SEC. 9. Section 24372 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24372. (a) Every taxpayer at its election, shall be entitled to a deduction with respect to the amortization of the amortizable basis of any certified pollution control facility (as defined in subdivision (d)), based on a period of 60 months. Such amortization deduction shall be an amount, with respect to each month of such period within the income year, equal to the amortizable basis of the pollution control facility at the end of such month divided by the number of months (including the month for which the deduction is computed) remaining in the period. Such amortizable basis at the end of the month shall be computed without regard to the amortization deduction for such month. The amortization deduction provided by this section with respect to any month shall be in lieu of the depreciation deduction with respect to such pollution control facility for such month provided by Section 24349. The 60-month period shall begin, as to any pollution control facility, at the election of the taxpayer, with the month following the month in which such facility was completed or acquired, or with the succeeding income year.

(b) The election of the taxpayer to take the amortization deduction and to begin the 60-month period with the month following the month in which the facility is completed or acquired, or with the income year succeeding the income year in which such facility is completed or acquired, shall be made by filing with the Franchise Tax Board in such manner, in such form, and within such time, as the Franchise Tax Board may by regulations prescribe, a statement of such election.

(c) A taxpayer which has elected under subdivision (b) to take the amortization deduction provided in subdivision (a) may at any time after making such election, discontinue the amortization deduction with respect to the remainder of the amortization period, such discontinuance to begin as of the beginning of any month specified by the taxpayer in a notice in writing filed with the Franchise Tax Board before the beginning of such month. The depreciation deduction provided under Section 24349 shall be allowed, beginning with the first month as to which the amortization deduction does not apply, and the taxpayer shall not be entitled to any further amortization deduction under this section with respect to such pollution control facility.

(d) For purposes of this section—

(1) The term "certified pollution control facility" means a new identifiable treatment facility which is used, in connection with a plant or other property in operation before January 1, 1971, to abate or control water or atmospheric pollution or contamination by removing, altering, disposing, or storing of pollutants, contaminants, wastes, or heat and which the State Department of Public Health has certified as having been constructed, reconstructed, erected, or acquired in conformity with the state program or requirements for abatement or control of water or atmospheric pollution or contamination.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "new identifiable treatment facility" includes only tangible property (not including a building and its structural components, other than a building which is exclusively a treatment facility) which is of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in Section 24349 which is identifiable as a treatment facility, and which—

(A) Is property—

(i) The construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed by the taxpayer after December 31, 1970, or

(ii) Acquired after December 31, 1970, if the original use of the property commences with the taxpayer and commences after such date, and

(B) Is placed in service by the taxpayer before January 1, 1975.

In applying this section in the case of property described in clause (i) of subparagraph (A), there shall be taken into account only that portion of the basis which is properly attributable to construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1970

(e) The State Department of ~~Public~~ Health shall not certify any property to the extent it appears that by reason of profits derived through the recovery of wastes or otherwise in the operation of such property, its costs will be recovered over its actual useful life.

(f) (1) For purposes of this section, the term "amortizable basis" means that portion of the adjusted basis (for determining gain) of a certified pollution control facility which may be amortized under this section

(2) (A) If a certified pollution control facility has a useful life (determined as of the first day of the first month for which a deduction is allowable under this section) in excess of 15 years, the amortizable basis of such facility shall be equal to an amount which bears the same ratio to the portion of the adjusted basis of such facility, which would be eligible for amortization but for the application of this subparagraph, as 15 bears to the number of years of useful life of such facility.

(B) The amortizable basis of a certified pollution control facility with respect to which an election under this section is in effect shall not be increased, for purposes of this section, for additions or improvements after the amortization period has begun.

(g) The depreciation deduction provided by Section 24349 shall, despite the provisions of subdivision (a), be allowed with respect to the portion of the adjusted basis which is not the amortizable basis.

(h) In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction under this section shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowable to the life tenant.

SEC. 10. Section 24378 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24378. (a) Amounts paid or incurred during the ~~taxable~~ income year on account of a transfer, sale, or other disposition of a franchise, trademark, or trade name which are contingent on the productivity, use, or disposition of the franchise, trademark, or trade name transferred shall be allowed as a deduction.

(b) Any payment not described in subdivision (a) which is made in discharge of a principal sum agreed upon in the transfer agreement shall be allowed as a deduction—

(1) In the case of a single payment made in discharge of such principal sum, ratably over the ~~taxable~~ income years in the period beginning with the ~~taxable~~ income year in which the payment is made and ending with the ninth succeeding ~~taxable~~ income year or ending with the last ~~taxable~~ income year beginning in the period of the transfer agreement, whichever period is shorter;

(2) In the case of a payment which is one of a series of approximately equal payments made in discharge of such principal sum, which are payable over—

(A) The period of the transfer agreement, or

(B) A period of more than 10 ~~taxable~~ income years, whether ending before or after the end of the period of the transfer agreement, in the income ~~taxable~~ year in which the payment is made; and

(3) In the case of any other payment, in the ~~taxable~~ income year or years specified in regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, consistently with the preceding provisions of this paragraph.

(c) This section shall not apply to the transfer of a franchise to engage in professional football, basketball, baseball, or other professional sport.

SEC. 11. Section 24438 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24438. (a) No deduction shall be allowed for any interest paid or incurred by a taxpayer during the income year with respect to its corporate acquisition indebtedness to the extent that such interest exceeds—

(1) Five million dollars ($5,000,000), reduced by

(2) The amount of interest paid or incurred by such corporation during such year on obligations (A) issued after December 31, 1967, to provide consideration for an acquisition described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), but (B) which are not corporate acquisition indebtedness.

(b) For purposes of this section, the term "corporate acquisition indebtedness" means any obligation evidenced by a bond, debenture, note, or certificate or other evidence of indebtedness issued after October 9, 1969, by a corporation (hereinafter in this section referred to as "issuing corporation") if—

(1) Such obligation is issued to provide consideration for the acquisition of—

(A) Stock in another corporation (hereinafter in this section referred to as "acquired corporation"), or

(B) Assets of another corporation (hereinafter in this section referred to as "acquired corporation") pursuant to a plan under which at least two-thirds (in value) of all the assets (excluding money) used in trades and businesses carried on by such corporation are acquired,

(2) Such obligation is either—

(A) Subordinated to the claims of trade creditors of the issuing corporation generally, or

(B) Expressly subordinated in right of payment to the payment of any substantial amount of unsecured indebtedness, whether outstanding or subsequently issued, of the issuing corporation,

(3) The bond or other evidence of indebtedness is either—

(A) Convertible directly or indirectly into stock of the issuing corporation, or

(B) Part of an investment unit or other arrangement which includes, in addition to such bond or other evidence of indebtedness, an option to acquire, directly or indirectly, stock in the issuing corporation, and

(4) As of a day determined under paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) either—

(A) The ratio of debt to equity (as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c)) of the issuing corporation exceeds 2 to 1, or

(B) The projected earnings (as defined in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c)), do not exceed three times the annual interest to be paid or incurred (determined under paragraph (4) of subdivision (c)).

(c) For purposes of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b)—

(1) Determinations are to be made as of the last day of any income year of the issuing corporation in which it issues any obligation to provide consideration for an acquisition described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of stock in, or assets of, the acquired corporation.

(2) The term "ratio of debt to equity" means the ratio which the total indebtedness of the issuing corporation bears to the sum of its money and all its other assets (in an amount equal to their adjusted basis for determining gain) less such total indebtedness.

(3) (A) The term "projected earnings" means the "average annual earnings" (as defined in subparagraph (B)) of—

(i) The issuing corporation only, if clause (ii) does not apply, or

(ii) Both the issuing corporation and the acquired corporation, in any case where the issuing corporation has acquired control (as defined in Section 24564), or has acquired substantially all of the properties of the acquired corporation.

(B) The average annual earnings referred to in subparagraph (A) is, for any corporation, the amount of its earnings and profits for any three-year period ending with the last day of an income year of the issuing corporation described in paragraph (1), computed without reduction for—

(i) Interest paid or incurred,

(ii) Depreciation or amortization allowed under this part,

(iii) Liability for tax under this part, and

(iv) Distributions to which subdivision (a) of Section 24453 applies (other than such distributions from the acquired to the issuing corporation), and reduced to an annual average for such three-year period pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board. Such regulations shall include rules for cases where any corporation was not in existence for all of such three-year period or such period includes only a portion of an income year of any corporation.

(4) The term "annual interest to be paid or incurred" means—

(A) If subparagraph (B) does not apply, the annual interest to be paid or incurred by the issuing corporation only, determined by reference to its total indebtedness outstanding, or

(B) If projected earnings are determined under clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3), the annual interest to be paid or incurred by both the issuing corporation and the acquired corporation, determined by reference to their combined total indebtedness outstanding.

(5) With respect to any corporation which is a bank or is primarily engaged in a lending or finance business—

(A) In determining under paragraph (2) the ratio of debt to equity of such corporation (or of the affiliated group of which such corporation is a member), the total indebtedness of such corporation (and the assets of such corporation) shall be reduced by an amount equal to the total indebtedness owed to such corporation which arises out of the banking business of such corporation, or out of the lending or finance business of such corporation, as the case may be;

(B) In determining under paragraph (4) the annual interest to be paid or incurred by such corporation (or by the issuing and acquired corporations referred to in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (4) or by the affiliated group of which such corporation is a member) the amount of such interest (determined without regard to this paragraph) shall be reduced by an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount of such interest as the amount of the reduction for the income year under subparagraph (A) bears to the total indebtedness of such corporation; and

(C) In determining under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3), the average annual earnings, the amount of the earnings and profits for the three-year period shall be reduced by the sum of the reductions under subparagraph (B) for such period.

For purposes of this paragraph, the term "lending or finance business" means a business of making loans or purchasing or discounting accounts receivable, notes, or installment obligations.

(d) In applying this section—

(1) The deduction of interest on any obligation shall not be disallowed under subdivision (a) before the first income year of the issuing corporation as of the last day of which the application of either subparagraph (A) or subparagraph (B) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) results in such obligation being corporate acquisition indebtedness.

(2) Except as provided in paragraphs (3), (4), and (5), if an obligation is determined to be corporate acquisition indebtedness as of the last day of any income year of the issuing corporation, it shall be corporate acquisition indebtedness for such income year and all subsequent income years.

(3) If an obligation is determined to be corporate acquisition indebtedness as of the close of an income year of the issuing corporation in which clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3) of ~~subvision~~ subdivision (c) applied, but would not be corporate acquisition indebtedness if the determination were made as of the close of the first income year of such corporation thereafter in which clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) could apply, such obligation shall be considered not to be corporate acquisition indebtedness for such later income year and all income years thereafter.

(4) If an obligation which has been determined to be corporate acquisition indebtedness for any income year would not be such indebtedness for each of any three consecutive income years thereafter if paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) were applied as of the close of each of such three years, then such obligation shall not be corporate acquisition indebtedness for all income years after such three consecutive income years.

(5) In the case of obligations issued to provide consideration for the acquisition of stock in another corporation, such obligations shall be corporate acquisition indebtedness for an income year only if the issuing corporation owns 5 percent or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote of such other corporation.

(e) An acquisition of stock of a corporation of which the issuing corporation is in control (as defined in Section 24564) in a transaction in which gain or loss is not recognized shall be deemed an acquisition described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) only if immediately before such transaction (1) the acquired corporation was in existence, and (2) the issuing corporation was not in control (as defined in Section 24564) of such corporation.

(f) For purposes of this section, the term "corporate acquisition indebtedness" does not include any indebtedness issued to any person to provide consideration for the acquisition of stock in, or assets of, any foreign corporation substantially all of the income of which, for the three-year period ending with the date of such acquisition or for such part of such period as the foreign corporation was in existence, is from sources without the United States

(g) In any case in which the issuing corporation is a member of an affiliated group, the application of this section shall be determined, pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, by treating all of the members of the affiliated group in the aggregate as the issuing corporation, except that the ratio of debt to equity of, projected earnings of, and annual interest to be paid or incurred by any corporation (other than the issuing corporation determined without regard to this subdivision) shall be included in the determinations required under subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) as of any day only if such corporation is a member of the affiliated group on such day, and, in determining projected earnings of such corporation under paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), there shall be taken into account only the earnings and profits of such corporation for the period during which it was a member of the affiliated group. For purposes of this section, the term "affiliated group" has the meaning assigned to such term by Section 1504 of the Internal Revenue Code except that all corporations other than the acquired corporation shall be treated as includable corporations and the acquired corporation shall not be treated as an includable corporation.

(h) For purposes of this section—

(1) Any extension, renewal, or refinancing of an obligation evidencing a preexisting indebtedness shall not be deemed to be the issuance of a new obligation.

(2) Any obligation which is corporate acquisition indebtedness of the issuing corporation is also corporate acquisition indebtedness of any corporation which becomes liable for such obligation as guarantor, endorser, or indemnitor or which assumes liability for such obligation in any transaction.

(i) No inference shall be drawn from any provision in this section that any instrument designated as a bond, debenture, note, or certificate or other evidence of indebtedness by its issuer represents an obligation or indebtedness of such issuer in applying any other provision of this part.

(j) The provisions of this section shall apply to the determination of the allowability of the deduction of interest paid or incurred with respect to indebtedness incurred after December 31, 1970.

SEC. 12. Section 24837.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24837.5. (a) (1) At the election of the taxpayer, expenditures paid or incurred during the income year for the purpose of ascertaining the existence, location, extent, or quality of any deposit of ore or other mineral, and paid or incurred before the beginning of the development stage of the mine, shall be allowed as a deduction in computing net income. This subdivision shall apply only with respect to the amount of such expenditures which, but for this subdivision, would not be allowable as a deduction for the income year. This subdivision shall not apply to expenditures for the acquisition or improvement of property of a character which is subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in Sections 24349 to 24354.2, inclusive, but allowances for depreciation shall be considered, for purposes of this subdivision, as expenditures paid or incurred. In no case shall this subdivision apply with respect to amounts paid or incurred for the purpose of ascertaining the existence, location, extent, or quality of any deposit of oil or gas or of any mineral with respect to which a deduction for percentage depletion is not allowable under Section 24832 or 24833

(2) (A) Any election under this subdivision shall be made in such manner as the Franchise Tax Board may by regulations prescribe.

(B) The election provided by paragraph (1) for the income year may be made at any time before the expiration of the period prescribed for making a claim for credit or refund of the tax imposed by this part for the income year. Such an election for the income year shall apply to all expenditures described in paragraph (1) paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the income year or during any subsequent income year.

(C) The statutory period for the assessment of any deficiency for any income year, to the extent such deficiency is attributable to an election or revocation of an election under this subdivision, shall not expire before the last day of the three-year period beginning on the day after the date on which such election or revocation of election is made; and such deficiency may be assessed at any time before the expiration of such three-year period, notwithstanding any law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent such assessment.

(b) (1) If, in any income year, any mine with respect to which expenditures were deducted pursuant to subdivision (a) reaches the producing stage, then—

(A) If the taxpayer so elects with respect to all such mines reaching the producing stage during the income year, it shall include in gross income for the income year an amount equal to the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such mines, and the amount so included in income shall be treated for purposes of this part as expenditures which (i) are paid or incurred on the respective dates on which the mines reach the producing state, and (ii) are properly chargeable to capital account.

(B) If subparagraph (A) does not apply with respect to any such mine, then the deduction for depletion under Section 24831 with respect to the property shall be disallowed until the amount of depletion which would be allowable but for this subparagraph equals the amount of the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such mine.

(2) (A) Any election under this subdivision shall be made in such manner as the Franchise Tax Board may by regulations prescribe.

(B) The election provided by paragraph (1) for any income year may be made or changed not later than the time prescribed by law for filing the return (including extensions thereof) for such income year.

(c) If an election has been made under subdivision (a) with respect to expenditures relating to a mining property and the taxpayer receives or accrues a bonus or a royalty with respect to such property, then the deduction for depletion under Section 24831 with respect to the bonus or royalty shall be disallowed until the amount of depletion which would be allowable but for this subdivision equals the amount of the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to the property to which the bonus or royalty relates.

(d) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision if mining property is disposed of the lower of—

(A) The adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such property, or

(B) The excess of—

(i) The amount realized (in the case of a sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion), or the fair market value (in the case of any other disposition), over

(ii) The adjusted basis of such property, shall be treated as gain from the sale or exchange of property Such gain shall be recognized notwithstanding any other provision of this part.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1)—

(A) In the case of the disposition of a portion of a mining property (other than an undivided interest), the entire amount of the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such property shall be treated as attributable to such portion to the extent of the amount of the gain to which paragraph (1) applies.

(B) In the case of the disposition of an undivided interest in a mining property (or a portion thereof), a proportionate part of the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such property shall be treated as attributable to such undivided interest to the extent of the amount of the gain to which paragraph (1) applies.

This paragraph shall not apply to any expenditure to the extent the taxpayer establishes to the satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board that such expenditure relates neither to the portion (or interest therein) disposed of nor to any mine, in the property held by the taxpayer before the disposition which has reached the producing stage.

(3) This subdivision shall apply notwithstanding any other provisions of this part.

(e) (1) The basis of any property shall not be reduced by the amount of any depletion which would be allowable but for the application of this section.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe such regulation as it may deem necessary to provide for adjustments to the basis of property to reflect gain recognized under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d).

(f) For purposes of this section—

(1) The term "adjusted exploration expenditures" means, with respect to any property or mine—

(A) The amount of the expenditures allowed for the income year and all preceding income years as deductions under subdivision (a) to the taxpayer or any other person which are properly chargeable to such property or mine and which (but for the election under subdivision (a)) would be reflected in the adjusted basis of such property or mine, reduced by

(B) For the income year and for each preceding income year, the amount (if any) by which (i) the amount which would have been allowable for percentage depletion under Section 24832 or 24833 but for the deduction of such expenditures, exceeds (ii) the amount allowable for depletion under Section 24831; properly adjusted for any amounts included in gross income under subdivision (b) or (c) and for any amounts of gain to which subdivision (d) applied.

(2) The term "mining property" means any property (within the meaning of Section 614 of the Internal Revenue Code after the application of subsections (c) and (e) thereof) with respect to which any expenditures allowed as a deduction under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) are properly chargeable.

(g) (1) In the case of any property or mine received by the taxpayer in a distribution with respect to part or all of its interest in a partnership, the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such property or mine include the adjusted exploration expenditures

(not otherwise included under paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of this section) with respect to such property or mine immediately prior to such distribution, but the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to any such property or mine shall be reduced by the amount of gain to which Section 17912 applied realized by the partnership (as constituted after the distribution) on the distribution of such property or mine.

(2) In the case of any property or mine held by a partnership after a distribution to a partner to which Section 17912 applied, the adjusted exploration expenditures with respect to such property or mine shall, under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board be reduced by the amount of gain to which Section 17912 applied realized by such partner with respect to such distribution on account of such property or mine.

(h) (1) Subdivision (a) shall apply to any amount paid or incurred after December 31, 1970, with respect to any deposit of ore or other mineral located outside the United States, only to the extent that such amount, when added to the amounts which are or have been deducted under subdivision (a) of this section and subdivision (a) of Section 24837 and the amounts which are or have been treated as deferred expenses under subdivision (b) of Section 24837 or the corresponding provisions of prior law, does not exceed four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000)

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), there shall be taken into account amounts deducted and amounts treated as deferred expenses by—

(A) The taxpayer, and

(B) Any individual or corporation who has transferred to the taxpayer any mineral property.

(3) Subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) shall apply with respect to all amounts deducted and all amounts treated as deferred expenses which were paid or incurred before the latest such transfer from the individual or corporation to the taxpayer Subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) shall apply only if the taxpayer acquired any mineral property from the individual or corporation under circumstances which make Section 18135 of the Personal Income Tax Law, or subdivision (b) of Section 24504, ~~Section~~ Sections 24552, 24553, 24575, subdivision (a) of Section 24577, Section 24961, or 24988 apply to such transfer.

(i) This section shall apply with respect to exploration expenditures paid or incurred after December 31, 1970.

SEC 13 Section 25553 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read

25553 (a) Beginning with the calendar year 1965 and fiscal years beginning in 1965, in the case of taxpayers subject to the tax imposed by Article 3 of Chapter 2, there shall be due and payable on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of the preceding year from each such taxpayer a percentage of its net income as disclosed by its return which is equal to the rate applicable to corporations subject to the tax imposed by Article 2 of Chapter 2 plus the personal property tax rate equivalent included in the bank and financial corporation tax rate determination by the Franchise Tax Board in December of the preceding year pursuant to Sections 23186 and 23186a, less the credit allowable by Section 23184 The payment by financial corporations, other than credit unions whose gross income is twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or less, shall not be less than the minimum tax of one hundred dollars ($100). The payment by credit unions whose gross income is twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or less shall not be less than twenty-five dollars ($25).

(b) For income years beginning after December 31, 1971, the one hundred dollars ($100) specified in the second sentence of subdivision (a) shall be two hundred dollars ($200) instead of one hundred dollars ($100)."

"SECTION 1. Section 17055 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17055 (a) Any individual, other than an active member of the armed forces of the United States or any auxiliary branch thereof, and his or her spouse, who is a nonresident for all or any portion of the taxable year shall deduct the minimum standard deduction provided by Section 17171 and the credits for personal exemptions set forth in this chapter, and the credit for qualified contributions to tax-exempt organizations described in Section 18020, in the proportion that such individual's adjusted gross income from California sources bears to his adjusted gross income from all sources

(b) An individual subject to the provisions of subdivision (a) must apportion the deduction provided for by Section 17171, regardless of the amount of his adjusted gross income, and shall not be permitted to determine his tax under the tax table provided in Section 17048.

SEC. 2. Section 18020 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18020. (a) There shall be allowed to an individual as a credit against the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year an amount equal to 75 percent of the qualified contributions to certain tax-exempt organizations, as defined in subdivision (c), made by such individual during the taxable year.

(b) The credit allowed by subdivision (a) shall not exceed seven dollars and fifty cents ($7 50) for any taxable year, except for married persons filing a joint return, in which case the amount allowed by subdivision (a) shall not exceed fifteen dollars ($15) for any taxable year. In no case shall the credit allowed an individual exceed the amount of tax payable in taxable year after all other applicable credits and deductions have been taken.

(c) Under this section, the term "qualified contributions to certain tax-exempt organizations" means a contribution of money to a charitable, educational, or other organization which is exempt from taxation under Section 23701d, excepting those organizations which would be deemed a "private foundation" under Section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code, for use by that organization exclusively for the following purposes.

(1) Appearances before, submission of statements to, or communicating with the committees, or individual members, of the United States Congress or of any legislative body of the State of California or any other state, or a political subdivision of any of the foregoing, with respect to legislation or proposed legislation of interest to the organization, or

(2) Communication of information between the organization and its members, contributors, or the press, with respect to legislation or proposed legislation of interest to the organization. For purposes of this section, matters "of interest to the organization" are those affecting any purpose for which it is organized and operated.

(d) The credit allowed by subdivision (a) shall be allowed, with respect to any qualified contribution to certain tax-exempt organizations, only if such contribution is verified by a statement from the organization showing the name of the organization to whom the contribution was made, the date on which it was made, and the amount of the contribution The statement shall state that the contribution was used exclusively for the purposes enumerated in subdivision (c) and shall be signed by a duly authorized officer, treasurer or an assistant thereof, of the organization The taxpayer must submit such statement to the Franchise Tax Board upon demand, but the Franchise Tax Board shall not require that such receipts routinely accompany tax returns

(e) Any amount claimed as a credit under this section shall not also be claimed as a deduction from tax under Section 17214.

SEC 3 Section 18021 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18021. Any person who willfully or knowingly makes, supplies, signs or verifies any false or fraudulent return, statement, information or receipt under Section 18020 is punishable as provided by Section 19406.

SEC 4 The provisions of this act shall apply to tax years beginning after this act takes effect.

SEC 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect."

Bill ordered reprinted, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Revenue and Taxation.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Mr. Thomas was granted unanimous consent that the following letter of transmittal be printed in the Journal:

Joint Legislative Audit Committee

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California

Sirs: Transmitted herewith is a performance audit report prepared by the Auditor General on a review of Medi-Cal payments for laboratory services. The purpose of the review was to determine whether Medi-Cal policies and procedures result in excessive reimbursements to providers of clinical laboratory services and to determine the adequacy and effectiveness of the Medi-Cal reimbursement system applied by California Blue Shield

The report concludes that the Medi-Cal program is paying too much for clinical laboratory services. Changes in the Schedule of Maximum Allowances effective October 1, 1971 to meet the requirements of the Medi-Cal Reform Plan were inadequate The changes affect only 16 laboratory tests out of a total of about 690 tests In recent years, automation of clinical laboratory tests and group testing has brought about tremendous cost savings. Little of this cost saving has been passed down to the consumer—individuals, health insurance companies or governmental programs. All rates for laboratory tests need to be reviewed and adjusted to conform more closely to current costs.

It was also found that the Blue Shield payment system was cumbersome and lacking in control because of excessive manual pricing of claims for laboratory services The Department of Health Care Services has given Blue Shield permission to set payment policy providing that the policy does not conflict with the department's policy or that prices do not exceed the Schedule of Maximum Allowances Blue Shield has made changes without the department's knowledge which are in conflict with the regulations.

The report contains nine recommendations that the DHCS and California Blue Shield should follow to reduce excessive laboratory reimbursement rates and to eliminate inefficient payment procedures.

Respectfully submitted,

VINCENT THOMAS, Chairman
Joint Legislative Audit Committee

Above report referred to the Committee on Efficiency and Cost Control.

WITHDRAWAL AND RE-REFERENCE OF BILLS

Acting Speaker Fenton was granted unanimous consent that Assembly Bill No. 1292 be withdrawn from the Committee on Government Administration, and re-referred to the Committee on Governmental Organization; and that Assembly Bill No 1759 be withdrawn from the Committee on Government Administration, and re-referred to the Committee on Rules.

"The Legislature reserves, with respect to any member subject to this section, the right to provide for such adjustment of industrial disability retirement allowances because of earnings of a retired person and modification of the conditions and qualifications required for retirement for disability as it may find appropriate because of the earlier ages of service retirement made possible by the benefits under this section.

SEC 3 5. Section 21300 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21300 If, prior to attaining the minimum age for voluntary retirement for service applicable to members of his class, a recipient of a disability retirement allowance ~~other than one for industrial disability~~ engages in a gainful occupation not in state service, the board shall reduce his monthly disability retirement pension to an amount which, when added to the compensation earned monthly by him, shall not exceed the amount of the maximum compensation earnable by a person holding the position which he held at the time of his retirement, or if that position has been abolished, the maximum compensation earnable by a person holding it immediately prior to its abolition

If his earnings are further altered, the board may further alter his disability retirement pension to the lower of the following amounts:

(a) The amount of the disability retirement pension upon which he was originally retired

(b) An amount which, when added to the compensation earned by him, shall equal the amount of the maximum compensation earnable by a person holding the position which he held at the time of his retirement, or, if that position has been abolished, the maximum compensation earnable by a person holding it immediately prior to its abolition.

When he reaches the minimum age for voluntary retirement for service applicable to members of his class his retirement allowance shall be made equal to the amount it would be if not reduced under this section, and shall not again be modified for any cause.

The amendments to this section enacted at the ~~1961~~ 1972 Regular Session of the Legislature shall not apply to ~~contracting agencies with respect to safety members but shall not apply to any contracting agency with respect to any other members unless and until the agency elects to be subject to such amendments with respect to other members by amendment to its contract made in the manner prescribed for approval of a contract or, in the case of contracts made after the date such amendments take effect, by express provision in such contract, making the contracting agency subject to such amendments with respect to other members~~ any recipient of any industrial disability allowance on the operative date of such amendments and who retired prior to the application of Section 21252.01 to persons in his employment."

On page 2 of the printed bill, as amended in Assembly April 4, 1972, strike out lines 1 to 32, inclusive; strike out page 3; and on page 4, strike out lines 1 to 38, inclusive, and insert

"SECTION 1. Section 39052 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

39052. The board shall:

(a) Conduct studies and evaluate the effects of air pollution upon human, plant, and animal life and the factors responsible for air pollution. The board may call upon the ~~Department of Public Health~~ state department, Department of Agriculture, the University of California, and such other state agencies it may deem necessary.

(b) Encourage a cooperative state effort in combating air pollution.

(c) Inventory sources of air pollution within the basins of the state and determine the kinds and quantity of air pollutants The board shall use, to the fullest extent, the data of local agencies in fulfilling this purpose.

(d) Monitor air pollutants in cooperation with other agencies to fulfill the purpose of this division.

(e) Coordinate and collect research data on air pollution.

(f) Review rules and regulations of local or regional authorities filed with it pursuant to Sections 39314 and 39461 to assure that reasonable provision is made to control emissions from nonvehicular sources and to achieve the air quality standards established by the board. If the board finds, ~~after public hearing~~ pursuant to Section 39054, that any rule or regulation of a local or regional authority submitted to it will not achieve applicable air quality standards, it may repeal such rule or regulation and promulgate a rule or regulation which it finds would achieve such standards. Such rule or regulation shall have the same force and effect as a rule or regulation adopted by the local or regional authority, and shall be enforced by the local or regional authority.

(g) Adopt formal procedures, after consultation with the Department of Motor Vehicles, for making timely and decisive mutual agreements on vehicle air pollution matters with which both agencies are concerned.

(h) Adopt formal procedures, after consultation with the ~~Department of Public Health~~ state department, for the performance of services required by the board and for evaluating and resolving air pollution matters with which both agencies are concerned.

(i) Adopt formal procedures, after consultation with the Department of the California Highway Patrol, for making timely and decisive mutual agreements on vehicle air pollution matters with which both agencies are concerned.

(j) Publish annually a report of the results of the tests administered pursuant to subdivision (k) of this section, which shall include all of the following:

(1) The total number of motor vehicles tested.

(2) The total number of each engine and transmission combination tested.

(3) The average emissions of all motor vehicles tested.

(4) The average emissions of each engine and transmission combination tested.

(5) An analysis of the emissions of each engine and transmission combination tested.

(k) Adopt test procedures specifying the manner in which new motor vehicles shall be approved based upon the emission standards contained in Article 2 (commencing with Section 39100) of Chapter 4 of this part. The board shall base its test procedures on driving patterns typical in the urban areas of California, and shall weight approval standards appropriately to reflect normal engine deposit accumulation. The board shall administer the test for new motor vehicles in accordance with such procedures. The board may revise any test procedures which it has adopted when the development and improvement of testing techniques and testing instruments warrants such revision in the judgment of the board. If the board revises such test procedures, it may establish revised emission standards for new motor vehicles which standards shall be applicable when such revised test procedures are used in testing vehicles. The revised standards may be expressed in terms and numerical values other than the terms and numerical values prescribed by, but shall not be less stringent than the standards prescribed by, Article 2 (commencing with Section 39100) of Chapter 4 of this part.

(l) Adopt regulations specifying the manner in which used motor vehicles shall be accredited based upon their emissions.

(m) Adopt, by regulation, emission standards and test procedures applicable to motor vehicles manufactured for sale in this state. Such regulations shall provide for the testing of vehicles on factory assembly lines or in such other manner as the board determines best suited to carry out the purposes of this part. The standards established by the board may deviate from the standards established as a condition of approval as the board determines is necessary to implement this section. The test procedures shall be adopted after consideration of the recommendations of the Technical Advisory Panel to the Assembly Transportation and Commerce Committee of April 14, 1968. Any manufacturer or distributor failing to comply with the standards or test procedures established under this subdivision shall be subject to a civil penalty of fifty dollars ($50) for each vehicle which does not comply with the regulations and which is first sold in this state. The payment of such penalties shall be a condition to the further sale of motor vehicles in this state.

(n) Adopt exhaust emission standards for hydrocarbons, carbon monoxide, and oxides of nitrogen for new diesel-powered vehicles, and diesel engines for vehicles first sold and registered in this state; ~~no later than January 1, 1971~~.

(o) Adopt emission standards for motor vehicles which shall be applicable only to motor vehicles for which emission standards have not been specified in Article 2 (commencing with Section 39100) of Chapter 4 of this part.

(p) Adopt low emission standards for the purpose of carrying out Section 14808.1 of the Government Code and Section 6377 of the Revenue and Taxation Code for each model year motor vehicle beginning in 1970.

(q) The board shall adopt test procedures to establish that motor vehicles which have been modified or altered to use a fuel other than gasoline or diesel are in compliance with Section 39110 giving consideration to relative reactivity and air-fuel correction factor of the fuel being tested."

Bill ordered reprinted, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Assembly Bill No. 580—An act to add Sections 39079, 39080, and 39276 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Bill read second time.

SECOND READING OF BILLS—AUTHOR'S AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 1172—An act to amend Section 1513 of the Probate Code, relating to deposit of ward's funds.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "Section", and insert "Sections 1510 and".

Amendment No. 2

In line 2 of the title, strike out "deposit of ward's funds", and insert "guardians and wards".

Amendment No. 3

"SECTION 1 Section 1510 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1510. If the court approves a compromise of, or the execution of a covenant not to sue on, a minor's disputed claim for damages, money or other property, or approves a compromise of a pending action or proceeding to which a minor, or insane or incompetent person is a party, or gives judgment for such a person, and the money or the value of other property to be paid or delivered under such compromise, covenant, order or judgment does not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000), and there is no guardian of the estate of the minor, or insane or incompetent person, such court, in its discretion, may require that the remaining balance of any money paid or to be paid under such compromise, covenant, order or judgment, after payment of all expenses, costs and fees as approved and allowed by the court, be deposited in a bank or banks, or a trust company or companies, or be invested in an account or accounts in an insured savings and loan association or associations, or be invested in shares of an insured credit union, subject to withdrawal only upon the order of the court, or it may require a guardian of the estate to be appointed and the money or the other property to be paid or delivered to such guardian, or prescribe such other conditions as the court in its discretion deems to the best interests of the minor, or insane or incompetent person; provided, however, that if the money or the value of other property to be paid or delivered under such compromise, covenant, order or judgment does not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), and such money or property is to be paid or delivered for the benefit of a minor, the court may direct that all or any part of the money or the property be paid or delivered to a parent of the minor, without bond, upon the terms and under the conditions specified in Section 1430 of the Probate Code. If the money or the value of other property to be paid or delivered under such compromise, covenant, order or judgment exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000), and there is no guardian of the estate of the minor, or insane or incompetent person, such court shall require a guardian of the estate to be appointed and shall direct that the money or the other property be paid or delivered to the guardian, or in lieu of the appointment of a guardian of the estate, shall require that the remaining balance of any money paid or to be paid under such compromise, covenant, order or judgment, after payment of all expenses, costs and fees as approved and allowed by the court, be deposited in a bank or banks, or a trust company or companies, or be invested in an account or accounts in an insured savings and loan association or associations, or be invested in shares of an insured credit union, subject to withdrawal only upon order of the court, and as to other property to be paid or delivered, the court shall prescribe such conditions as it may deem to the best interests of the minor, or insane or incompetent person.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including Section 25 of the Civil Code, upon approval of a compromise of, or the execution of a covenant not to sue on, a minor's disputed claim, or approval of a compromise of a pending action or proceeding to which a minor is a party, or giving judgment for such a person, providing for the payment or delivery of money or other property, in any case to which this section applies, the court making the order or giving judgment, and as a part thereof, may expressly retain jurisdiction of any part or all of the money paid, delivered, deposited, or invested until the minor reaches the age of 21 years

Upon approval of a compromise of, or the execution of a covenant not to sue on, a minor's disputed claim, or approval of a compromise of a pending action or proceeding to which a minor, or insane or incompetent person is a party, or giving judgment for such a person, providing for the payment or delivery of money or other property, the court making the order or giving judgment, and as a part thereof, shall make a further order authorizing and directing a parent of the minor or guardian of the minor, or insane or incompetent person, or the payer of any money to be paid for the benefit of such person, to pay, from the money or other property to be paid or delivered, such reasonable expenses (medical or otherwise and including reimbursement to a parent or guardian), costs and attorney's fees as the court shall approve and allow therein The remaining balance of such money or other property shall be paid, delivered or deposited as hereinabove provided

The term "account in an insured savings and loan association" used in this section means shares issued by a federal savings and loan association, or investment certificates issued by a state-chartered building and loan association or savings and loan association doing business in this state which is an "insured institution" as defined in Title IV of the National Housing Act, or shares issued by a state-chartered building and loan association or savings and loan associations doing business in this state which does not issue investment certificates and which is an "insured institution" as defined in Title IV of the National Housing Act.

The term "shares of an insured credit union," as used in this section, means shares issued by a credit union, either federally chartered or state licensed, which are insured under Title II of the Federal Credit Union Act or by a fund approved by the state

On page 1, strike out lines 1 and 2, and insert

"SECTION 1. Section 621 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

621. "Employee" means all of the following:

(a) Any officer of a corporation.

(b) Any individual who, under the usual common law rules applicable in determining the employer-employee relationship, has the status of an employee.

(c) (1) Any individual, other than an individual who is an employee under subdivision (a) or (b), who performs services for remuneration for any employing unit if the contract of service contemplates that substantially all of such services are to be performed personally by such individual either:

(A) As an agent-driver or commission-driver engaged in distributing meat products, vegetable products, fruit products, bakery products, beverages (other than milk), or laundry or drycleaning services, for his principal

(B) As a traveling or city salesman, other than as an agent-driver or commission-driver, engaged upon a full-time basis in the solicitation on behalf of, and the transmission to, his principal (except for sideline sales activities on behalf of some other person) of orders from wholesalers, retailers, contractors, or operators of hotels, restaurants, or other similar establishments for merchandise for resale or supplies for use in their business operations.

(2) An individual shall not be included in the term "employee" under the provisions of this subdivision if such individual has a substantial investment in facilities used in connection with the performance of such services, other than in facilities for transportation, or if the services are in the nature of a single transaction not part of a continuing relationship with the employing unit for whom the services are performed

(d) Any individual who is an employee pursuant to Section 601.5 or 680.

SEC. 2. Section 803.1 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

803.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, if an entity acquires or succeeds to another entity in any manner, the method of reimbursement financing, in lieu of contributions required of employers, elected by the acquiring entity shall apply to all service performed in the employ of the acquiring entity The acquiring entity shall be liable for the reimbursement of all benefits chargeable to the entity acquired under any method of reimbursement financing elected by the entity acquired. "Entity" as used in this section means any entity as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 803.

SEC. 3. Section 803.2 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

803.2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, an entity which elected any method of reimbursement financing under Section 803 and which has acquired a previously accumulated favorable reserve account under Section 712 or subdivision (e) of Section 803 shall be liable for the reimbursement of benefits pursuant to such election for any benefits chargeable to the reserve account and based upon wages paid prior to such election, to the extent that such benefits exceed the previously accumulated favorable reserve account. "Entity" as used in this section means any entity as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 803.

SEC. 4. Section 1260.1 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:".

Amendment No. 3

On page 2, strike out lines 7 to 13, inclusive, and insert

"SEC. 5. Section 1277 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1277. ~~Wages~~ Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1281, if the base period of a new claim includes wages which were paid prior to the ~~filing~~ effective date of ~~a valid claim~~ and not used in the computation of the award ~~may be used for the purpose of computing the amount of any other award only if within the 12-month~~ for a previous valid claim, the new claim shall not be valid unless, during the 52-week period immediately following the effective date of the ~~filing of the~~ previous valid claim, the individual was paid sufficient wages to meet the eligibility requirement under subdivision (a) of Section 1281 and had some work. For the purpose of this section only the term "wages" includes any and all compensation for personal services performed as an employee for the purpose of meeting the eligibility requirement under subdivision (a) of Section 1281 This section is not applicable to the computation of an award for disability benefits but the establishment of a valid claim for disability benefits shall not constitute a valid claim for unemployment compensation benefits unless the claimant was paid sufficient wages and performed some work to entitle the claimant to an award under this section.

SEC. 6. Section 1277.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1277.5. In determining, under Section 1277, whether ~~wages paid prior to the filing of a valid claim may be used in computing the amount of any other award~~ a new claim is valid, if the individual had some work during the ~~12-month~~ 52-week period immediately following the ~~filing~~ effective date of the previous valid claim, then twice the amount which an individual was entitled to receive under Part 2 (commencing with Section 2601) of this division or under Division 4 (commencing with Section 3201) of the Labor Code, or under any workmen's compensation law, employer's liability law, or disability insurance law of any other state or of the federal government, during the ~~12-month~~ 52-week period immediately following the ~~filing~~ effective date of the previous valid claim, shall be considered as wages paid to the individual during that ~~12-month~~ 52-week period for purposes of meeting the eligibility requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 1281. The amounts so included shall not be considered wages for the purpose of computing the weekly benefit amount of the individual under Section 1280."

Bill ordered reprinted, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Finance and Insurance.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Mr. Knox was granted unanimous consent that the following statement of legislative intent be printed in the Journal:

Statement of Legislative Intent on AB 889

April 20, 1972

Gentlemen: Some question has arisen as to the purpose and intent of Assembly Bill 889, which amends the Environmental Quality Act of 1970. Assembly Bill 889 does two things:

1. Clarifies the applicability of the environmental impact report requirements of the Environmental Quality Act of 1970;

2. Makes environmental impact reporting requirements applicable to local governments regardless of whether or not a general plan with a conservation element has been approved.

With respect to objective #1, as principal author of the Environmental Quality Act of 1970, it is my own feeling that it was always clear that the environmental impact report requirement of that Act extended to the situation where a State or local public agency by lease, permit, funding or comparable entitlement for use, was authorizing or facilitating a private undertaking, so long as it had a significant impact on the environment.

Apparently some persons have contended that this is not the case, and that the Act applies in this respect only to those projects which local public agencies directly undertake. Assembly Bill 889 would clarify applicability of the Act in that respect, without making a substantive change in the present law.

JOHN T. KNOX

Mr. Ketchum was granted unanimous consent that his motion to reconsider the vote on Assembly Bill No. 230 be continued until the next legislative day.

By unanimous consent, the motion to reconsider the vote on Assembly Bill No. 196 was continued until the next legislative day.

SECOND READING OF BILLS—AUTHOR'S AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 406—An act to amend Section 2804 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted.

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "amend Section 2804 of", and insert "add Division 12 5 (commencing with Section 28700) to".

Amendment No. 2

In line 2 of the title, after "vehicles", insert ", and making an appropriation therefor".

Amendment No. 3

On page 1, strike out line 1, and insert

"SECTION 1. Division 12.5 (commencing with Section 28700) is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

DIVISION 12 5. MOTOR VEHICLE INSPECTION AND MAINTENANCE PROGRAM

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PURPOSE AND INTENT

28700. It is the intent and purpose of the Legislature, in enacting this division, to provide a substantial demonstration program in the South Coast Air Basin of California relating to annual inspection of motor vehicles.

28701 (a) The Legislature finds and declares that an effective system of periodic inspection, maintenance, and consumer education will reduce the level of vehicular air pollution, improve the safety characteristics of motor vehicles, and provide motorists with objective maintenance information regarding motor vehicles

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that the federal government has delegated to the several states the ultimate responsibility for periodic inspection and maintenance, and that federal funds from various sources are available for approved demonstration programs.

(c) The Legislature, therefore, intends to create a special state commission, combining the expertise of several departments regarding motor vehicles with the service of public members, to carry out this project.

CHAPTER 2 MOTOR VEHICLE INSPECTION AND MAINTENANCE COMMISSION

Article 1. Organization

28705 There is in the state government, a Motor Vehicle Inspection and Maintenance Commission The purpose of the commission shall be to plan and operate an experimental motor vehicle inspection, diagnostic, and repair system to achieve the following.

(a) Reduction of vehicular air pollution

(b) Improvement in safety characteristics of motor vehicles.

(c) Providing motorists with reliable motor vehicle diagnostic information in order to obtain proper maintenance at a reasonable cost.

28706 The commission shall consist of seven members, three of whom shall be members of the public and four of whom shall be state officers or employees

With respect to the state officers or employees, there shall be one officer or employee from each of the following:

(a) The Department of Motor Vehicles.
(b) The Department of the California Highway Patrol.
(c) The Department of Consumer Affairs.
(d) The State Air Resources Board.

The state officers or employees shall be appointed by the Governor.

One public member shall be appointed by the Governor, one by the President pro Tempore of the Senate, and one by the Speaker of the Assembly.

Each member of the commission shall serve at the pleasure of his appointing power.

28707. The commission shall elect a chairman and vice chairman from among its public members.

28708. Each public member shall receive an annual salary of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000).

28709 The commission shall maintain its office in the City of Los Angeles.

28710. Upon the approval of the Director of Finance, the Department of Motor Vehicles, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, the Department of Consumer Affairs, and the State Air Resources Board shall provide the commission with such qualified, experienced personnel as may be necessary to assist the commission in the discharge of its duties. The Department of Finance may increase the staffing of the agencies to replace any persons who are provided to the commission.

Article 2. Powers and Duties

28715. The commission may, as the Director of Finance approves, appoint such employees as may be necessary for the proper discharge of the duties of the commission.

28716. The commission shall do the following, in the order specified, and shall complete each function specified before it may proceed to the next function:

(a) Plan a state operated motor vehicle inspection program for a substantial area within the South Coast Air Basin. For the purposes of this subdivision, a substantial area is an area of not less than one entire county having not less than 1,000,000 cars

(b) Apply to the federal government, under the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966 (15 U.S.C, Sec. 1381 et seq.), the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C, Sec. 1857 et seq) and the Clean Air Act Amendments of 1970, and, if approved, Title 3 of S 976 which is presently pending before Congress, for matching funds to accomplish at least two of the following three functions.

(1) Pollution inspection.
(2) Safety inspection.
(3) Consumer information.

(c) Implement such a state operated motor vehicle inspection program upon receiving a commitment from the federal government that federal funds amounting to not less than 50 percent of the total program cost will be provided to California for the program for a period of at least three years.

(d) Lease, buy, or construct, if necessary, facilities and advanced inspection equipment capable of providing diagnostic information for motorists.

28717. The commission may adopt such reasonable regulations as are necessary to carry out the program specified in this division.

28718. The commission may exempt from inspection approved commercial fleets of vehicles if, on the basis of random spot checking, they are found to be in compliance with equipment and safety requirements and allowable levels of emissions of pollutants.

28719. The commission may authorize approved private business establishments which provide motor vehicle diagnostic services to process and forward to the Department of Motor Vehicles, applications for the transfer or renewal of registration of motor vehicles which are made subject to the inspection program specified in this division.

28720. The commission shall, by regulation, establish standards, based upon income level, under which owners of motor vehicles who have low incomes and who would lose, or fail to gain, employment for lack of reasonable transportation, may qualify for assistance in the repair and replacement of motor vehicles which do not meet vehicular safety or pollution emission standards. The commission may operate, or contract with the Department of Public Works for the operation of, one centralized repair shop for such motor vehicles

28721. The commission shall, after the first full year's operation, submit a written report to the Legislature on air pollution results, safety findings, and consumer costs and benefits, including whether automotive repair shop laws should be amended to provide automatic disqualification of shops having excessively poor repair records. The commission shall also report on wages, tool requirements, and working conditions of automotive mechanics in relation to comparable skilled crafts.

CHAPTER 3 REGISTRATION AND INSPECTION

28730. The Department of Motor Vehicles shall, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, provide, by regulation, for a staggered vehicle registration system for motor vehicles whose owners reside within the area selected by the commission for the motor vehicle inspection program specified in this division Such system shall become operative on March 1, 1974, and shall provide for the proration of fees to avoid requiring a vehicle owner to pay fees for any period for which he has already paid fees.

28731 The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall eliminate random inspections in the area selected by the commission for the motor vehicle inspection program specified in this division The commission shall compile comparative data from annual inspections and compare such data with data for the same area obtained the previous year.

CHAPTER 4. COMMENCEMENT OF INSPECTION PROGRAM AND REGISTRATION SYSTEM

28740. The inspection program and the registration system specified in this division shall, if the commission proceeds to subdivision (c) of Section 28716, become operational on March 1, 1974

SEC 2. The sum of six million two hundred thousand dollars ($6,200,000) is hereby appropriated from the Motor Vehicle Account in the Transportation Tax Fund to the Motor Vehicle Inspection and Maintenance Commission for expenditure, without regard to fiscal year, in accordance with the following schedule:

Schedule:

(a) Personal services, operating expenses, and equipment ---------- $200,000

(b) For implementation of Section 28720 of the Vehicle Code ---------- 1,000,000

(c) For implementation of the remaining provisions of Division 12 5 (commencing with Section 28700) of the Vehicle Code ---------- 5,000,000 provided, that expenditure of the amount scheduled in (c) is contingent upon receipt of federal funds, to implement the remaining provisions of Division 12.5 (commencing with Section 28720) of the Vehicle Code, in an amount equal to or greater than allocations from the appropriation scheduled in (c)."

Amendment No. 4

On page 1, strike out lines 2 to 9, inclusive.

Bill ordered reprinted, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Transportation.

SECOND READING OF BILLS—AUTHOR'S AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 2137—An act relating to open-space lands and taxation thereof.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, after "act", insert "to add Part 16 (commencing with Section 36001) to Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code,".

Amendment No. 2

On page 1, strike out lines 1 to 4, inclusive, and insert

"SECTION 1. Part 16 (commencing with Section 36001) is added to Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

PART 16. REALTY TRANSFER TAX LAW

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS

36001. This part is known and may be cited as the State Open Space and Resources Conservation Fund Act.

36002. Except where the context otherwise requires, the definitions given in this chapter govern the construction of this part.

"County" shall include a city and county.

"Recorder" means the recorder of a county.

"Person" includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint venture, association, fraternal organization, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, assignee for the benefit of creditors, trustee, trustee in bankruptcy, executor, administrator, syndicate, the United States, this state, any county, city, city and county, district, or other political subdivision of this state or any group or combination acting as a unit

"Document" means and includes any deed, contract of sale, instrument, or writing by which real property in this state is transferred.

"Real property" is as defined in Section 104 of this code and includes any interest in real property.

"Transfer" includes any conveyance, grant, assignment, or quitclaim of the ownership of or title to real property for a consideration and any contract for such conveyance, grant, assignment, or quitclaim or any lease or other contract under which possession of the property is given to the purchaser, or any other person by his direction, for a consideration, while title is retained by the vendor as security for the payment of the purchase price It does not include a conveyance of a leasehold interest other than of a type described above, or a mortgage, deed of trust, or other conveyance of an interest in real property merely to secure an obligation.

"Transferor" means any person who transfers real property.

"Value" means the total consideration, valued in money, paid or delivered or contracted to be paid or delivered in return for the transfer of real property and shall include the amount of any lien, mortgage, contract indebtedness or other encumbrance, either given to secure the purchase price or remaining unpaid at the time of transfer. If the amount of the consideration is nominal or cannot be definitely determined, or is to be fixed by future contingencies, "value" means the full market value of the property at the time of the transfer.

"Board" means the State Board of Equalization

"Dwelling" means a building, structure or other shelter constituting a place of abode, and any land on which it may be situated.

"Fund" means the State Open Spaces and Resources Conservation Fund.

"Minimal development" means the provision of facilities for public access, sanitary and water facilities and public safety requirements.

"District" means the planning districts as adopted by the State Council on Intergovernmental Relations.

"Secretary" means the Secretary of the Resources Agency.

CHAPTER 2 IMPOSITION OF THE TAX

36003. For the privilege of transferring real property in this state, there is hereby imposed upon the transferor a tax at the rate of 1 percent upon the value of the real property transferred Where the transferor is exempted from the tax under this part, the person to whom the real property is transferred shall be liable for the tax imposed by this part.

CHAPTER 3. EXEMPTIONS

36004 The first twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) of the value of real property transferred shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this part if the real property transferred is:

(a) A single-family dwelling occupied by the transferor as his principal place of residence;

(b) A multiple-dwelling unit occupied by the transferor as his principal place of residence provided that such exemption shall apply only to the value of the portion of such real property occupied by such person;

(c) A condominium occupied by the transferor as his principal place of residence.

36005 In computing the tax, the exemption allowed by Section 36004 shall be deducted from the value of the property transferred and the tax shall be computed with respect to the balance of that value.

36006. The tax imposed by this part shall not apply to:

(a) Transfers to make effective any plan of corporate reorganization or adjustment:

(1) Confirmed under the Bankruptcy Act, as amended;

(2) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a railroad corporation, as defined in Section 77(m) of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended;

(3) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a corporation, as defined in Section 106(3) of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended, or

(4) Whereby a mere change in identity, form or place or organization is effected;

if the transfer occurs within five years from the date of such confirmation, approval, or change.

(b) Any transfer of property from one spouse to the other in accordance with the terms of a decree of dissolution or in fulfillment of a property settlement incident thereto; provided, such transfer is made within three months of the date of the granting of the final decree of dissolution and such property was acquired by the husband and wife or husband or wife prior to such decree.

(c) Transfers which confirm or correct a deed without consideration.

(d) Transfers from the United States, this state, any city, county, city and county, district, or any other political subdivision of this state.

(e) Transfers made pursuant to an order by the court in any mortgage or lien foreclosure proceeding or upon execution or a judgment, or a transfer in lieu of foreclosure.

(f) Transfers recorded prior to the effective date of this act.

(g) Transfers of cemetery lots

36007. In the case of real property held by a partnership, the tax imposed by this part shall not apply by reason of any transfer of an interest in a partnership or otherwise, if

(a) Such partnership is considered as a continuing partnership within the meaning of Section 17867 of this code, and,

(b) Such continuing partnership continues to hold the real property concerned.

36008 If there is a termination of any partnership within the meaning of Section 17867 of this code, such partnership shall be treated as having executed a document whereby there was conveyed for full market value all real property held by such partnership at the time of such termination, but no more than one tax shall be imposed by this part by reason of such termination, and any transfer pursuant thereto, with respect to the real property held by such partnership at the time of termination.

CHAPTER 4. COLLECTION

Article 1. Payments

36051. The tax imposed by this part is due and payable at the time a transfer of real property is made and is delinquent three months thereafter.

36052 The tax imposed by this part shall be paid to the county recorder of the county in which the real property transferred is situated. The recorder shall furnish a receipt for the tax and shall transmit the tax payments to the county treasurer pursuant to regulations prescribed by the board.

36053 The person paying the tax shall file with the county recorder with respect to each transfer a statement, in triplicate, on forms prescribed by the board, executed by the transferor or purchaser under penalty of perjury, setting forth the names and addresses of the transferor and purchaser, a description of the property transferred, the value of the property, and such other information as may be required by the board

36054. A document of transfer shall not be accepted by the county recorder for filing or recording unless (a) an executed statement is filed as required by Section 36053 and (b) the tax is paid on the amount of the taxable value as shown by the statement, or exemption from the tax is claimed in the statement When the document is accepted for filing or recording by the recorder, he shall indicate thereon compliance with this section in a manner prescribed by the board

36055 The county recorder shall retain one copy of the statement and shall transmit two copies to the county assessor The assessor, pursuant to regulations prescribed by the board, shall insert on both copies of the statement the most recent assessed value for each parcel, or portion thereof, of the real property transferred The assessor shall forthwith transmit one copy of the completed statement to the board.

Article 2. Deficiency Determinations

36101. If the board is not satisfied with the statement presented to the recorder pursuant to Section 36053 or the amount of tax paid with respect to any transfer, it may compute and determine the amount required to be paid on the basis of any information within its possession or that may come within its possession

36102 If no statement is presented to the recorder the board may make an estimate of the value of the real property transferred and determine the amount to be paid on the basis of this estimate or upon any information within its possession or that may come into its possession. One or more deficiency determinations may be made of the amount due with respect to any transfer

36103 The board shall give notice to a person liable under this part of its determination The notice may be served personally or by mail, if by mail service shall be made pursuant to Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure and shall be addressed to the person at his address as it appears in the records of the board, but the service shall be deemed complete at the time of the deposit of the notice in the mail without extension of time for any reason

36104 Every notice of a deficiency determination shall be mailed within three years of the filing of a statement with the county recorder pursuant to Section 36053.

Article 3. Redeterminations

36126. Any person against whom a determination is made under this chapter or any person directly interested may petition for a redetermination within 30 days after service upon the person of notice thereof If a petition for redetermination is not filed within the 30-day period, the determination becomes final at the expiration of the period

36127 If a petition for redetermination is filed within the 30-day period, the board shall reconsider the determination and, if the person has so requested in his petition, shall grant the person an oral hearing and shall give him 10 days' notice of the time and place of the hearing. The board may continue the hearing from time to time as may be necessary

36128 The board may decrease or increase the amount of the determination before it becomes final, but the amount may be increased only if a claim for the increase is asserted by the board at or before the hearing

36129 The order or decision of the board upon a petition for redetermination becomes final 30 days after service upon the petitioner of notice thereof.

36130 Any notice required by this article shall be served personally or by mail in the manner prescribed for service of notice of a deficiency determination.

Article 4. Interest and Penalties

36151 There shall be collected by the board from any person who fails to pay a tax imposed by this part prior to the time the tax becomes delinquent a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the tax, and interest at the rate of one-half of 1 percent a month, or fraction thereof, from the date the tax becomes delinquent to the date of payment

Article 5 Suit for Tax

36176 At any time within three years after any tax or any amount of tax required to be collected becomes delinquent, or within three years after the last recording of a certificate under Section 36202, the board may bring an action in the courts of this state, or any other state, or of the United States in the name of the people of the State of California to collect the amount delinquent together with penalties and interest

36177 The Attorney General shall prosecute the action; and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings.

36178. In the action a writ of attachment may issue, and no bond or affidavit previous to the issuing of the attachment is required 36179. In the action a certificate by the board showing the delinquency shall be prima facie evidence of the determination of the tax or the amount of tax, of the delinquency of the amounts set forth, and of the compliance by the board with all the provisions of this part in relation to the computation and determination of the amounts.

Article 6. Priority and Lien of Tax

36201. The amounts required to be paid by any person under this part together with interest and penalties shall be satisfied first in any of the following cases:

(a) Whenever the person is insolvent

(b) Whenever the person makes a voluntary assignment of his assets.

(c) Whenever the estate of the person in the hands of executors, administrators, or heirs is insufficient to pay all of the debts due from the deceased.

(d) Whenever the estate and effects of an absconding, concealed, or absent person required to pay any amount under this part are levied upon by process of law.

This section does not give the state a preference over any recorded lien which attached prior to the date when the amounts required to be paid became a lien.

The preference given to the state by this section shall be subordinate to the preferences given to claims for personal services by Sections 1204 and 1206 of the Code of Civil Procedure

36202. If any amount required to be paid to the state under this part is not paid when delinquent, or within three years after the amount of a determination becomes final, the board may within three years after the amount is delinquent, or within three years after the amount of a determination becomes final, file for record in the office of any county recorder a certificate specifying the amount, interest, and penalty due, the name and address as it appears on the records of the board of the person liable for the same, and the fact that the board has complied with all provisions of this part in the determination of the amount required to be paid. From the time of the filing for record, the amount required to be paid together with interest and penalty constitutes a lien upon all real property in the county owned by the person or afterward and before the lien expires acquired by him The lien has the force, effect, and priority of a judgment lien and shall continue for 10 years from the time of the filing of the certificate unless sooner released or otherwise discharged The lien may, within 10 years from the date of the filing of the certificate or within 10 years from the date of the last extension of the lien in the manner herein provided, be extended by filing for record a new certificate in the office of the county recorder of any county and from the time of such filing the lien shall be extended to the real property in such county for 10 years unless sooner released or otherwise discharged

Article 7. Warrant for Collection of Tax

36226 At any time within three years after any person is delinquent in the payment of any amount herein required to be paid, or within 10 years after the last recording of a certificate under Section

36202, the board or its authorized representative may issue a warrant for the enforcement of any liens and for the collection of any amount required to be paid to the state under this part The warrant shall be directed to any sheriff, marshal or constable and shall have the same effect as a writ of execution The warrant shall be levied and sale made pursuant to it in the same manner and with the same effect as a levy of and a sale pursuant to a writ of execution.

36227. The board may pay or advance to the sheriff, marshal or constable, the same fees, commissions, and expenses for his services as are provided by law for similar services pursuant to a writ of execution. The board, and not the court, shall approve the fees for publication in a newspaper.

36228. The fees, commissions, and expenses are the obligation of the person required to pay any amount under this part and may be collected from him by virtue of the warrant or in any other manner provided in this part for the collection of the tax.

Article 8. Miscellaneous Provisions

36251. The remedies of the state provided for in this chapter are cumulative, and no action taken by the board or Attorney General constitutes an election by the state to pursue any remedy to the exclusion of any other remedy for which provision is made in this part 36252. In all proceedings under this chapter the board may act on behalf of the people of the State of California.

CHAPTER 5. OVERPAYMENTS AND REFUNDS

Article 1. Claim for Refund

36276. If the board determines that any amount has been paid more than once or has been erroneously or illegally collected or computed, the board shall set forth that fact in the records of the board and shall certify to the State Board of Control the amount collected in excess of the amount legally due and the person from whom it was collected or by whom paid. If approved by the State Board of Control the excess amount collected or paid shall be credited by the board on any amounts then due and payable from the person from whom the excess amount was collected or by whom it was paid under this part, and the balance shall be refunded to the person, or his successors, administrators, or executors

In the case, however, of a determination by the board that an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) was not required to be paid under this part, the board without obtaining approval of the State Board of Control may credit the amount on any amounts then due and payable under this part from the person by whom the amount was paid and may refund the balance to the person or his successors, administrators, or executors 36277 No refund shall be approved by the board after six months from the date of overpayment, unless a claim therefor is filed with the board within such period. No credit shall be approved by the board after the expiration of such period unless a claim for credit is filed with the board within such period.

36278. Every claim shall be in writing and shall state the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded.

36279. Failure to file a claim within the time prescribed in this article constitutes a waiver of any demand against the state on account of overpayment.

36280. Within 30 days after disallowing any claim in whole or in part the board shall serve notice of its action on the claimant in the manner prescribed for service of notice of a deficiency determination.

36281. Interest shall be paid upon any overpayment of any amount of tax at the rate of one-half of 1 percent per month, or fraction thereof, from the delinquency date of the tax with respect to which the overpayment was made to the date upon which the person making the overpayment, if he has not already filed a claim, is notified by the board that a claim may be filed or the date upon which the claim is approved by the board, whichever is the earlier.

36282. If the board determines that any overpayment has been made intentionally or by reason of carelessness, it shall not allow any interest thereon.

Article 2. Suit for Refund

36301. No injunction or writ of mandate or other legal or equitable process shall issue in any suit, action, or proceeding in any court against this state or any county or against any officer of the state or of any county to prevent or enjoin the collection under this part of any tax or any amount of tax required to be collected.

36302. No suit or proceeding shall be maintained in any court for the recovery of any amount alleged to have been erroneously or illegally determined or collected unless a claim for refund or credit has been duly filed pursuant to Article 1 of this chapter.

36303. Within 90 days after the mailing of the notice of the board's action upon a claim filed pursuant to Article 1 of this chapter, the claimant may bring an action against the board on the grounds set forth in the claim in a court of competent jurisdiction in any city or city and county of this state in which the Attorney General has an office for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount with respect to which the claim has been disallowed.

Failure to bring action within the time specified constitutes a waiver of any demand against the state on account of alleged overpayments.

36304. If the board fails to mail notice of action on a claim within six months after the claim is filed, the claimant may, prior to the mailing of notice by the board of its action on the claim, consider the claim disallowed and bring an action against the board on the grounds set forth in the claim for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount claimed as an overpayment

36305. In any judgment, interest shall be allowed at the rate of 6 percent per annum upon the amount found to have been illegally collected from the date of payment of the amount to the date of allowance of credit on account of the judgment or to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than 30 days, the date to be determined by the board.

36306 A judgment shall not be rendered in favor of the plaintiff in any action brought against the board to recover any amount paid when the action is brought by or in the name of an assignee of the person paying the amount or by any person other than the person who paid the amount.

Article 3. Cancellations

36326. If any amount in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) has been illegally determined either by the person filing the return or by the board, the board shall set forth that fact in its records and certify to the State Board of Control the amount determined to be in excess of the amount legally due and the person against whom the determination was made. If the State Board of Control approves, it shall authorize the cancellation of the amount upon the records of the board. If an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) has been illegally determined either by the person filing a return or by the board, the board without certifying this fact to the State Board of Control shall authorize the cancellation of the amount upon the records of the board.

CHAPTER 6. ADMINISTRATION

36331. The board shall enforce the provisions of this part and may prescribe, adopt, and enforce rules and regulations relating to the administration and enforcement of this part. The board may prescribe the extent to which any ruling or regulation shall be applied without retroactive effect.

36332. The board may examine the books, papers and records of any person to verify the accuracy of any statement filed pursuant to Section 36202, or for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not any amount of tax imposed by this part may be due.

CHAPTER 7. DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS

36351. On or before the 10th day of each month, the recorder shall account to the auditor for all money collected in the preceding month by submitting a statement of total daily collections, together with the dates and amounts of payments to the county treasurer.

36352 On or before the 15th day of each month, the county treasurer, shall deduct an amount equal to 1 percent of all the money collected the preceding month, to be used to defray the costs of administering this part The remainder of the money collected the preceding month shall be remitted by the county treasurer to the State Treasurer. The county treasurer shall submit with the payment a statement in such form as the Controller shall prescribe and shall also transmit a copy of the statement to the Controller.

36353. All money received by the State Treasurer shall be reported to the Controller and deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the State Open Space and Resources Conservation Fund, which is hereby created 36354. All amounts in the State Open Space and Resources Conservation Fund are hereby continuously appropriated for refunds under this part, for the administration of this part, and for the allocations pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 36376) of this part.

CHAPTER 8. ALLOCATION OF STATE OPEN SPACE AND RESOURCES CONSERVATION FUND

36376. State agencies and regional and local jurisdictions shall be eligible to receive financial assistance from the fund up to 100 percent for projects for: (1) acquisition of fee title in lands and waters of significance for open space and resource conservation purposes; (2) acquisition of less than fee title in lands and waters sufficient to provide long-term protection to significant open space and natural resource values; and (3) minimal development of lands and waters acquired through the fund.

36377. Projects eligible for assistance through the fund shall be those which are identified within a statewide, regional or local open space plan as having significant value for the following purposes: (1) preservation of natural resources, including fish and wildlife habitat; ecologic and other scientific study purposes; rivers, streams, bays, estuaries and coastal beaches; (2) managed resource production, including high quality agricultural lands, forest lands and commercial fisheries; (3) health and welfare, including areas required for the protection of air and water quality; and (4) scenic protection and as connections between major open space reservations. Projects which will provide outdoor recreation opportunities are encouraged; however, recreation use shall be incidental to the main project purpose of open space and resource conservation

36378. The total amount of the fund shall be allocated annually as follows: regional and local open space projects—40 percent; state open space projects—40 percent; contingency open space projects—20 percent.

36379. The portion of the fund designated for regional and local open space projects shall be allocated by the state annually to the ten planning districts of the state as adopted by the State Council on Intergovernmental Relations. The allocation to the districts shall be based on the proportion that the population of each district bears to the total population of the state, such allocation to be computed annually based on the Population Estimates for California Counties, Final Figures, published by the State Department of Finance However, the annual allocation to any district shall not be less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

36380. Of the 20 percent of the fund reserved for contingency projects, one-half shall be available for distribution to districts for regional and local projects which are identified in a regional open space plan The allocation shall be distributed annually among districts in proportion to population as specified in Section 36379, and the annual allocation to any planning district may be increased by a maximum of 25 percent for such purposes. This additional allocation shall, however, only be made where there is in the district an officially-adopted regional open space plan and a five-year ongoing action program to implement the plan, including a realistic financial program

36381. In the event that one or more districts are not eligible to receive additional allocation specified in Section 36380, the unexpended funds shall be returned to the fund for allocation to contingency projects as specified in Section 36382.

36382 In those planning districts where there is a regional authority with powers to plan and acquire open space and, in addition, where there is an official regional open space plan and action program as specified in Section 36380, the state shall, upon request of the authority, transfer the annual fund allocation of that district to the authority for distribution to public jurisdictions within the district for open space purposes. Such distribution, however, shall conform to general open space project eligibility criteria established by the state.

36384. The allocation of fund assistance to regional and local projects in districts which do not meet the requirements specified in Section 36380, shall be administered by the Secretary of the Resources Agency. The secretary shall establish and promulgate procedures and criteria for annually receiving, evaluating and approving open space project applications from regional and local jurisdictions. However, no local open space project shall be approved which is not included within an open space plan and action program adopted in accordance with Article 10 5 (commencing with Section 65560) of Chapter 3 of Title 7 of the Government Code.

36385. Costs incurred by the Secretary of the Resources Agency in administering the fund program shall be prorated against each district's annual allocation in the same proportion as the allocation of project funds.

36386. Fund assistance allocated to districts shall be available for eligible open space projects in the fiscal year in which the allocation is made, plus the following fiscal year. At the expiration of this time, funds which have not been committed to projects approved by the secretary or by a regional open space authority shall revert to the fund and shall be allocated by the state to districts for regional and local open space purposes as provided in Section 36379.

36387 The Secretary of the Resources Agency shall annually provide the Director of Finance with the number of regional and local open space projects approved under the fund program and the total amount committed to such projects

36389. Of the 20 percent of the fund reserved for contingency projects, one-half shall be available for distribution to state, regional and local agencies for up to 100 percent of the cost of projects which offer unique and high quality open space values The Director of Finance, in consultation with the Secretary of the Resources Agency, the Director of the Office of Planning and Research and the Policy Advisory Council on Open Space and Resource Conservation, shall establish procedures for submission and evaluation of such projects

36391. In evaluating state, regional and local open space projects for funding under the provisions of Section 36389, consideration shall be given to the following factors: (1) the availability of other sources of funding for the project; (2) the degree to which the project has open space values which are of multi-county or regional significance; and (3) the expectation that the open space values may be lost due to urban expansion or incompatible use or development.

36392. Financial assistance provided under the fund program may be used by state agencies and regional and local jurisdictions for purposes of matching federal grants for open space purposes."

"5779. The State Board of Education shall require that uniform tests be administered to each pupil not later than his third month of attendance in the first grade. The first grade entry level test shall obtain a composite estimate for each pupil of skills related to learning and memory, attention, visual perception, and auditory comprehension The answer sheets shall be transmitted to the Department of Education for scoring. If no published test is deemed suitable, the State Board of Education may combine parts of available tests or develop a new test.

The State Board of Education shall also require that uniform tests in reading be administered annually to pupils in grades two and three Such tests shall be recommended by the Department of Education and shall be submitted to the State Board of Education for approval and adoption. Any test so adopted shall be in national use and nationwide norms shall have been developed for such test. The tests which have been approved and adopted by the board shall be printed or purchased and distributed to the various school districts in the state by the Department of Education.

The State Board of Education shall determine the form in which the answer sheets for the first grade entry level test shall be transmitted to the Department of Education for scoring, and the form in which the results of the uniform tests in reading for grades two and three shall be reported to the Department of Education.

The State Board of Education shall analyze the progress achieved by third grade pupils using the first grade entry level test results as a basis for identifying comparable pupils receiving various kinds of reading instruction.

The State Board of Education shall adopt rules and regulations governing the time, place, and methods for administration of the testing program under this article."

~~5779.1. The governing board of each school district, in conducting a testing program in the district pursuant to Section 5779 shall be allowed to conduct achievement reading tests at school district expense printed in the Initial Teaching Alphabet for those pupils who are accustomed to learning in that alphabet in lieu of the uniform tests prescribed by Section 5779.~~

SEC 3. Section 5779 2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

5779.2 Scores for individual pupils on the first grade entry level test shall not be used by school districts or teachers for individual diagnosis or placement or as a basis for any other decisions which would affect the pupil's elementary school experience. Scores from this test shall not in any manner be included on the pupil's cumulative school record

The State Board of Education shall determine which, if any, of the scores attained by pupils on the tests administered in grades two and three may be recorded on the pupil's cumulative school record.

SEC. 4 Section 5779 3 is added to the Education Code, to read·

5779 3 The State Board of Education shall direct each school district to report annually its methods used to assess pupil performance in reading during grades one, two, and three The Department of Education shall assist the school districts to improve their local programs of assessing pupil performance in reading.

SEC. 5 Section 5780 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5780 Commencing with the school year 1966–67, and in each year thereafter, a standardized reading achievement test, which shall be adopted by the State Board of Education and distributed to the various school districts, shall be administered to all third-grade pupils ~~completing the third grade~~ .

The scores of those pupils who have participated in a remedial program shall be maintained and treated separately.

From a study of the results of these tests in districts which conduct a basic reading program pursuant to this chapter, and the test results in districts which do not conduct such a program, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall evaluate ~~the~~ basic reading ~~program provided by this chapter~~ programs , and he shall report his findings annually to the State Board of Education

The State Board of Education shall report its findings regarding the implementation of, and experience under, ~~the~~ basic reading ~~program provided by this chapter~~ programs , together with any recommendations for any adjustments in the program, to the Legislature at each regular session This report and the report required pursuant to Section 12848 may be consolidated into a single annual report.

SEC 6 Section 5780 1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

5780 1. Except for the first grade entry level test required by Section 5779, the State Board of Education may replace the grade specification for the administration of specific tests pursuant to this article with a specification of age or time elapsed since the pupil entered school where such a specification is more consistent with patterns of school organization.

The Department of Education shall submit a report to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee explaining the reasons for replacing the grade specification. The report shall be submitted at least six months prior to any such change

SEC. 7. Section 5780.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

5780.2. The State Board of Education shall develop a testing method that will obtain an accurate estimate of statewide performance, school district performance, and school performance of pupils in grades two and three.

Under such a testing method, the Department of Education shall annually administer a statewide test to all pupils in grades two and three. The department shall determine whether pupils in a given school shall be administered the entire test or whether the pupils shall be administered a portion of the test which will be representative of all the test objectives, goals, or categories of items on the entire test.

The procedure required by this section shall be implemented not later than the 1974–1975 school year.

SEC. 8. Section 5782 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5782. For the 1967–68 school year and school years thereafter, for any school district in which thirty percent (30%) or more of the first grade pupils received scores falling below the first quartile of scores established on a statewide basis for the ~~reading section of the reading achievement test given~~ tests administered during the preceding school year pursuant to ~~Article 3 (commencing with~~ Section 5779 ~~) of this chapter~~, the basic quota established pursuant to Section 5781 shall be increased by one specialist teacher for each 300 units of average daily attendance in grades 1, 2, and 3, and fractional part thereof, maintained by the district.

For the 1967–68 school year and school years thereafter any school district in which forty percent (40%) or more of the first grade pupils received scores falling below the first quartile of scores established on a statewide basis for the ~~reading section of the statewide achievement test given~~ tests administered during the preceding school year pursuant to ~~Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 12820) of Division 9~~ Section 5779, the basic quota established pursuant to Section 5781 shall be increased as ordered by the Department of Education following an investigation of the circumstances of the district.

Amendment No. 10

On page 3, line 26, strike out "For such purposes, the", and strike out lines 27 and 28, and insert

"SEC. 10. Section 5792 of the Education Code is amended to read

5792. Allowances under this article shall be made by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in accordance with a system of priorities that he shall by rule and regulation adopt, designed to carry out the intent and purpose of the Legislature stated in Section 5771.

The system shall be designed to give priority to districts in the following order.

(a) First, to insure that the districts participating in the program during the preceding ~~fiscal~~ school year, which continue to be eligible, will not be required to reduce programs below the level of the preceding year

(b) Second, to insure that applications for expansion of programs and applications for new programs in eligible ~~schools~~ be considered on a priority basis in terms of the percentage of pupils in ~~grades 2 and 3 in the school that, based upon test results in~~ grade 1 who received scores which fell below the first quartile of scores established on a statewide basis for the tests administered during the preceding school year pursuant to ~~Article 3 (commencing with~~ Section 5779 ~~)~~ ~~of this chapter, failed to progress at least one year for each year in school~~.

Allowances computed for a district that received only basic aid in the preceding fiscal year shall be reduced by one-half.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall make no allowances in any year in excess of the amount appropriated by the Legislature for the purposes of this chapter

SEC. 11 Section 8574 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8574 The governing board of any school district maintaining a high school shall adopt minimum academic standards for graduation from the high schools within its school district Such minimum academic standards shall include separate courses of study including, but not limited to, a course of study designed to prepare prospective students for admission to state colleges and the state university and for vocational training Such standards shall be made available to the public. ~~Such minimum academic standards shall be equal to or exceed the minimum academic standards prescribed by the State Board of Education pursuant to Section 8575 of this code.~~

SEC. 12 Section 8575 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8575 The State Board of Education shall, on or after July 1, 1970, prepare, and distribute to each school district maintaining a high school for its consideration, ~~model~~ examples of minimum academic standards for graduation These examples shall be provided solely to assist each school district in the development of its own minimum academic standards for graduation as required by Section 8574 ~~of this code~~.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize or require the State Board of Education to adopt statewide minimum academic standards for graduation from high school

SEC. 13 Section 12821 of the Education Code is repealed

~~12821. The objectives of this chapter are:~~

~~(a) To afford a means and procedure for evaluating the effectiveness of the public schools as shown by the competence and progress of public school pupils in basic skills and content courses.~~

~~(b) To make such evaluations available to educational agencies and the public as a basis for the correction of deficiencies in, and the improvement of, all phases of the state educational system and as a basis for research.~~

~~(c) To afford to the Legislature facts from which it may determine the proper allocation and expenditure of public funds for public school education.~~

SEC. 14. Section 12821 is added to the Education Code, to read

12821. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter to determine the effectiveness of school districts and schools in assisting pupils to master the fundamental educational skills towards which instruction is directed The program of statewide testing shall provide the public, the Legislature, and school districts evaluative information regarding the various levels of proficiency achieved by different groups of pupils of varying socioeconomic backgrounds, so that the Legislature and individual school districts may allocate educational resources in a manner to assure the maximum educational opportunity for all pupils. The program of statewide testing shall identify unusual success or failure and the factors which appear to be responsible, so that appropriate action may be taken at the district and state level to obtain the highest quality education for all public school pupils

SEC. 15. Section 12822 of the Education Code is amended to read:

12822. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Achievement test" means any standardized test which measures or attempts to measure the level of performance which a pupil has attained in one or more courses of study It shall include (1) tests in basic skills courses administered annually and (2) tests in content courses administered from time to time as designated by the State Board of Education.

(b) "Physical performance test" means any test which measures or attempts to measure the physical fitness of a pupil

(c) ~~"Scholastic aptitude test" means any standardized test which measures or attempts to measure the scholastic aptitude of a pupil~~

~~(d)~~ "Testing program" means the systematic achievement ~~and scholastic aptitude~~ testing of all pupils in grades 6 and 12, and the physical performance testing of all pupils in any three grades designated by the State Board of Education, required by this chapter in all schools within ~~a~~ each school district by means of tests designated by the State Board of Education.

(d) "Basic skills courses" means those subjects which involve, among other skills, memorization and mastery of specific functions, including but not limited to, reading, spelling, basic mathematics, and ~~grammar~~ effectiveness of written expression.

~~(f)~~

(e) "Content courses" means those subjects which require the integration of factual matter, logical analysis, the solution by the student of posed problems, and the communication of ideas, including, but not limited to, literature, history, advanced mathematics, and science.

SEC. 16. Section 12823 of the Education Code is amended to read:

12823. The State Board of Education shall:

(a) Require a testing program in all school districts.

(b) Designate the achievement, ~~scholastic aptitude,~~ and physical performance tests to be used during the ensuing school year

(e) Adopt regulations for the conduct and administration of the testing program.

SEC. 17 Section 12826 of the Education Code is amended to read:

12826 The governing board of a each school district shall report on a school-by-school basis to the Department of Education, pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Education, the ~~scores~~ results of the achievement ~~and scholastic aptitude~~ tests administered pursuant to this article.

The districtwide results of the testing program, but not the score or relative position of individual pupils, shall be reported to the governing board of the district at least once a year at a regularly scheduled meeting.

SEC. 18. Section 12827 of the Education Code is amended to read:

12827. During either the month of March, April, or May, the governing board of each school district maintaining any grade designated by the State Board of Education pursuant to subdivision ~~(d)~~ (c) of Section 12822 shall administer to each pupil in those grades the physical performance test designated by the State Board of Education. Each physically handicapped pupil and each pupil who is physically unable to take all of the physical performance test shall be given as much of the test as his condition will permit.

Upon request of the Department of Education, a school district shall submit to the department at least once every two years the results of its physical performance testing.

SEC. 19 Section 12831 is added to the Education Code, to read:

12831. The State Board of Education shall develop a testing method that will obtain an accurate estimate of statewide performance, school district performance, and school performance of pupils in grades six and 12.

Under such a testing method, the Department of Education shall annually administer a statewide test to all pupils in grades six and 12. The department shall determine whether pupils in a given school shall be administered the entire test or whether the pupils shall be administered a portion of the test which will be representative of all the test objectives, goals, or categories of items on the entire test.

The procedure required by this section shall be implemented not later than the 1974–1975 school year

SEC 20 Section 12832 is added to the Education Code, to read:

12832. The State Board of Education shall determine which, if any, of the results attained by pupils on the achievement tests administered in grades six and 12 may be recorded on the pupil's cumulative school record

SEC 21 Section 12833 is added to the Education Code, to read:

12833 The State Board of Education may replace the grade specification for the administration of specific tests pursuant to this article with a specification of age or time elapsed since the pupil entered school where such a specification is more consistent with patterns of school organization

The Department of Education shall submit a report to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee explaining the reasons for replacing the grade specification The report shall be submitted at least six months prior to any such change.

SEC. 22. Section 12842 of the Education Code is amended to read:

12842. In making reports to the Legislature pursuant to Section 12841, the board shall maintain the anonymity of all individual students involved; ~~as well as the participating school districts~~. The board may make analyses involving other factors, including, but not limited to, general categories of pedagogies in use, type of district organization, geographic area, socioeconomic data, size of school district, or other analytical items which may prove useful.

SEC. 23. Section 12848 of the Education Code is amended to read:

12848. The Department of Education shall prepare and submit an annual report to the Legislature, the State Board of Education, and to each school district in the state containing an analysis, on a district-by-district basis, of the results and test scores of the testing program in basic skills courses, including tests administered pursuant to the Miller-Unruh Basic Reading Act of 1965 (Chapter 5 8 (commencing with Section 5770) of Division 6). The report shall include; ~~but is not limited to, an analysis of the following operational factors having a substantive relationship to or bearing on such results.~~

~~(a) Maximum and minimum salary paid teachers.~~

~~(b) Average class size in grades 1 to 3, inclusive.~~

~~(c) Pupil-teacher ratio in grades 4 to 8, inclusive.~~

~~(d) Number of nonteaching certificated personnel per 100 full-time teachers.~~

~~(e) Total general fund tax rate and total general purpose tax rate.~~

~~(f) Assessed valuation per unit of average daily attendance.~~

~~(g) Percentage of minority enrollment.~~

~~(h) Index of family poverty, derived from dividing funds received under Title 1 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (Public Law 89-10) by the average daily attendance in the district.~~

~~(i) Average scholastic ability.~~

~~(j) Average transitory factors as derived from dividing the average daily attendance of the district or selected schools by the total annual enrollment of the district.~~

~~(k) The rate of turnover of staff.~~

an analysis of the operational factors that appear to have a significant relationship to or bearing on the results The analysis may include, but need not be limited to, the following factors:

(a) Demographic characteristics.

(b) Financial characteristics.

(c) Pupil and parent characteristics.

(d) Instructional and staff characteristics.

(e) Specially funded programs.

School districts shall submit to the Department of Education whatever information the department deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 24. Section 12848.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

12848 5. The report to the Legislature required by Section 12848 and the report to the Legislature required pursuant to Section 5780 may be consolidated into a single annual report.

SEC 25. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in the State Treasury the sum of one hundred seventy thousand dollars ($170,000) to the Department of Education, to be expended for purposes of the development of a baseline test to be given to all pupils in grade one under the provisions of Chapter 5 8 (commencing with Section 5770) of Division 6 of the Education Code and for research and analysis, scoring, and the purchase and distribution of test materials under the Miller-Unruh Basic Reading Act of 1965 (Chapter 5.8 (commencing with Section 5770) of Division 6 of the Education Code) and the California School Testing Act of 1969 (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 12820) of Division 9 of the Education Code)."

Assembly Bill No. 1946—An act to amend Section 29001 of the Education Code, relating to private education.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "Section 29001 of", and insert "Sections 29007, 29012, and 29013 of, to add Sections 29007.2 and 29014.5 to, and to repeal Section 29009 of,".

Amendment No. 2

"SECTION 1. Section 29007 of the Education Code is amended to read:

29007. Except as otherwise provided by law, no person, firm, association, partnership or corporation may issue, confer or award an academic or honorary "degree" or "title" (meaning any designation, mark, appellation, series of letters or words such as, but not limited to, associate, bachelor, master, doctor or fellow) which signifies, purports or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, technological, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level unless such person, firm, association, partnership or corporation meets the requirements of any one of the ~~three~~ two subdivisions of subdivision (a) of this section.

No person, firm, association, partnership or corporation may issue, confer, or award any "diploma" bearing the words diploma, certificate, transcript, document or other writing, other than the awarding of a "degree" title, representing that any person has completed any course of study beyond high school unless such person, firm, association, partnership or corporation meets the requirements of one of the subdivisions (b), (c), or (d) of this section or Section 29007.5.

(a) (1) A person, firm, association, partnership or corporation which at the time of the issuance of a "degree" has full accreditation of the institution, program, or specific course of study upon which the "degree" is based by a national or applicable regional accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Office of Education, and provided further that the educational institution has filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction an affidavit by the administrative head of the institution stating that the institution is so accredited.

(2) A person, firm, association, partnership or corporation approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to award or issue specified degrees. Such permission shall be granted by the Superintendent of Public Instruction for one year upon the initial approval and shall be granted for periods of three years upon each subsequent renewal. Application for such authorization shall be on forms furnished by the State Department of Education. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall not approve an institution to issue degrees until it is determined, based on information submitted to him, that the ~~course of instruction~~ institution has the facilities ~~and the~~ , financial resources, administrative capabilities, faculty , and other necessary and appropriate educational expertise and resources to afford students and require of students the completion of a program of education which will prepare them for the attainment of a recognized professional, vocational, technical, or educational objective; and the curriculum is consistent in ~~content and~~ quality with curricula offered by established institutions that issue the appropriate degree upon the satisfactory completion thereof. For the purpose of this subdivision the Superintendent of Public Instruction may compare the applicant institution with the requirements and standards of an accrediting agency generally ~~accepted by~~ applicable to the class of institution concerned. This shall include the determination that the course for which the degree is granted achieves its professed or claimed objective for higher education The provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall be applicable to any determination of the Superintendent of Public Instruction made pursuant to this subdivision.

~~(3) A corporation which has filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction an affidavit by the president or other head of the corporation, stating that the corporation owns an interest in real or personal property or both real and personal property used exclusively for the purpose of education, of a fair market value of not less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). Such affidavit shall be accompanied by an appraisal by a state inheritance tax appraiser appointed for the county in which the institution is located, describing the real or personal property or both, and showing the value of the interest of the corporation therein to be at least fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). The value of the interest of the property required to be owned by the corporation for the purposes of this section shall be deemed to be the appraised value of the interest owned by the corporation less the unpaid balance on any note secured by a mortgage or deed of trust thereon or the unpaid balance on a contract of sale thereof. Such a corporation shall file a statement of "full disclosure" by recording with the county recorder, in the county in which the school operates, an affidavit describing the institutional objectives and proposed methods of achieving~~

~~them, the curriculum, instruction, faculty (with qualifications), physical facilities, administrative personnel, educational records, tuition and fee schedule, scholastic regulations, diplomas and degrees to be conferred, graduation requirements and financial stability. Certified copies of all statements and affidavits required to be filed by this section shall be forwarded by United States mail to the Department of Education within 48 hours after the filings are made with the county recorder. Filing pursuant to this section shall not be interpreted to mean, and it shall be unlawful for any corporation to expressly or impliedly represent by any means whatsoever, that the State of California, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Board of Education, the California State Department of Education, or any division or bureau thereof, has made any evaluation, recognition, accreditation, approval, or endorsement of the course of study.~~

(b) A hospital licensed under the provisions of Division 2, Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1400) of the Health and Safety Code, which issues diplomas in connection with the operation of a hospital.

(c) A person, firm, association, partnership or corporation which is accredited, approved, or licensed by a state board or agency as a school and which issues or confers diplomas in the profession, vocation or occupation controlled by the board or agency accrediting, approving, or licensing it; provided, that this subdivision shall not be construed as authorizing the issuing of a diploma which is not customarily granted for the training given and which is limited to the profession, vocation or occupation controlled by the accrediting, approving, or licensing board.

(d) A person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation which at the time of the issuance of a "diploma," as "diploma" is defined in Section 29001, has accreditation of the institution, program or specific course of study upon which the "diploma" is based by a national or applicable regional accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Office of Education; provided, that the educational institution has filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction an affidavit by the administrative head of the institution stating that the course of study is so accredited.

SEC. 2. Section 29007.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

29007.2. Those institutions which, on the effective date of the statutes enacted at the 1972 Regular Session of the Legislature, were operating under the provisions of subdivision (a)(3) of Section 29007 may continue to operate only until January 1, 1976. After such date, the institutions may continue to operate as such only if they have applied for approval by the Superintendent of Public Instruction under the provisions of Section 29007 as amended by the chapter adding this section. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall approve or disapprove such institutions by January 1, 1978. After such date, only those institutions so approved may continue to operate.

SEC. 3. Section 29009 of the Education Code is repealed.

~~29009. Every corporation meeting the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 29007, issuing or conferring degrees or honorary degrees, shall between the 1st and 31st days of January of each year, commencing on January 1, 1971, file with the Superintendent of Public Instruction the following affidavits:~~

~~(a) An affidavit by the president or other head setting forth the corporation's financial statement covering the full preceding year.~~

~~(b) An affidavit by the president or other head setting forth the following information covering the preceding calendar year:~~

~~(1) All names, whether real or fictitious, of the person, firm, association, partnership or corporation under which it has done and is doing business.~~

~~(2) The address, including city and street, of every place of doing business of the person, firm, association, partnership or corporation, within the State of California.~~

~~(3) The address, including city and street, of the location of the records of the person, firm, association, partnership or corporation, and the name and address, including city and street, of the custodian of such records.~~

~~(4) The names and addresses, including city and street, of the directors, if any, and principal officers of the person, firm, association, partnership or corporation.~~

~~(5) That the records required by Section 29010 of this article are maintained at the address stated, and are true and accurate.~~

~~Any change in the items of information required to be included in the affidavit filed pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be reported to the Superintendent of Public Instruction within 20 days of such change.~~

SEC. 4. Section 29012 of the Education Code is amended to read:

29012. No person, firm, association, partnership or corporation may sell, barter, offer to sell or barter, or conspire to sell or barter, any diploma, license, permit, charter, or degree as defined in this article.

SEC. 5. Section 29013 of the Education Code is amended to read:

29013. No person, firm, association, partnership or corporation may buy, obtain by barter, attempt to buy or obtain by barter, or conspire to obtain by barter or buy, any diploma, license, permit, charter, or degree as defined in this article.

SEC. 6. Section 29014.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

29014.5. No person, firm, association, partnership or corporation may use the term "university" as part of the name of the institution without the express permission of the Superintendent of Public Instruction unless such institution is accredited by the Western Regional Accreditation Agency.

SEC. 7. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act that private institutions offering postsecondary education in this state be subject to fair and meaningful licensing and regulation in order that the people of this state may be assured that they are receiving educational programs of a quality commensurate with the financial consideration offered and that they and the proprietors of quality educational enterprises are protected against fraudulent and unscrupulous operators."

SECOND READING OF BILLS—AUTHOR'S AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 144—An act to add Sections 23062 and 23753.5 to the Education Code, and to add Section 896.3 to the Military and Veterans Code, relating to tuition.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

In lines 1 and 2 of the title of the printed bill, as amended in Assembly February 29, 1972, strike out "add Sections 23062 and 23753 5 to the Education Code, and to add Section 896.3 to", and insert "amend Sections 890, 891, and 894 of, to add Sections 890.1, 896.3, and 896.4 to, and to repeal Section 896.1 of,".

Amendment No. 2

In line 3 of the title, after the comma, insert "and to amend Section 10652 of the Education Code,".

Amendment No. 3

On page 2, strike out line 1, and insert

"SECTION 1. Section 890 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read.

890 As used in this article:

(a) "Veterans" means (1) any person who served in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States and was killed in action or died as a result of war service in the World War since April 6, 1917, or (2) any member of the Army, Navy, Coast Guard or Marine Corps of the United States, or any of their auxiliaries who was killed in action in World War II on or after December 7, 1941, and prior to January 1, 1947, or who died at any time as a result of war service during such period, or (3) any California serviceman who is declared missing in action, captured in the line of duty by hostile forces, or forcibly detained or interned in the line of duty by a foreign government or power, or (4) any member of the armed forces of the United States who was killed in action during any period of hostilities in which the United States is engaged, or who died or was totally disabled at any time as a result of active service during any such period or during the induction period.

(b) "Dependent of a veteran" means the natural or adopted child of a veteran, or stepchild of a veteran as defined by the U S Veterans Administration for compensation purposes, the unmarried widow of a veteran, or the wife of a totally disabled veteran.

(c) "Induction period" means (1) the period beginning September 16, 1940, and ending December 6, 1941, and the period beginning January 1, 1947, and ending June 26, 1950, and (2) the period beginning on February 1, 1955, and ending on the day before the first day thereafter on which individuals (other than individuals liable for induction by reason of a prior deferment) are no longer liable for induction for training and service into the armed forces under the Universal Military Training and Service Act.

SEC 2. Section 890.1 is added to the Military and Veterans Code, to read:

890 1 "California serviceman," as used in Section 890 means any person who, at the time of his or her induction or enlistment into the armed forces of the United States, was a resident of California.

SEC. 3. Section 891 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

891. A dependent of a veteran applying for aid under the provisions of this article shall be over 14 or shall have entered the ninth grade, and shall be a native of or shall have lived in this state for five of the nine years immediately preceding the date upon which the application is filed. Any dependent of a veteran, except a dependent widow of a veteran, who has attained eligibility, pursuant to this article while under 21 years of age may continue to receive the benefits of this article until the needed training is completed or until he attains the age of 27 years, whichever first occurs, except that a dependent who has honorably served in the armed forces of the United States may be granted an extension of training through age 30.

A dependent widow of a veteran shall be limited to not more than 48 months or the equivalent thereof in part-time training.

This section shall not apply to the dependent of a veteran (as "veteran" is defined in subdivision (a)(3) of Section 890).

SEC. 4. Section 894 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

894. For students of collegiate, junior college, business and trade school rank the amount expended by the department as an allowance for living expenses shall not exceed ~~fifty~~ ~~dollars~~ ~~($50)~~ one hundred dollars ($100) per month Dependents enrolled in the fifth year of any course requiring five years may be considered to be at the undergraduate level. For students of high school rank the amount shall not exceed ~~twenty~~ ~~dollars~~ ~~($20)~~ forty dollars ($40) per month, during the time the student is in actual attendance at a day school Absence during the month on account of illness shall be included as part of such attendance.

SEC. 5. Section 896.1 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

~~896.1. No dependent of a veteran shall be eligible to receive the benefits of this article during the time that he is entitled to receive federal educational benefits under Chapter 35, Title 38, United States Code, as amended, or duplicate assistance from any other government source.~~

SEC. 6. Section 896.3 is added to the Military and Veterans Code, to read:

896.3. Upon application to the department by a dependent of a veteran (as "veteran" is defined by subdivision (a)(3) of Section 890), the department shall reimburse such person for the costs of tuition and fees incurred by such person at a public or private educational institution in the amount provided for in Section 895.

SEC. 7. Section 896.4 is added to the Education Code, to read:

896.4. Any person who is reimbursed by the department for tuition and fees or on whose account the department has paid tuition and fees, shall not at the same time be eligible for any other allowances provided for in this article if, at such time, such person is also receiving educational assistance under Chapter 35, Title 38, United States Code, as amended.

SEC. 8. Section 10652 of the Education Code is amended to read:

10652. No state-owned college, university, or other school shall charge any tuition, or incidental fees to any dependent receiving assistance under Article 2 (commencing with Section 890) of Chapter 4 of Division 4 of the California Military and Veterans Code or to any child of any veteran of the United States military service who has a service-connected disability, and whose annual income not including governmental compensation for such service-connected disability, does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000). Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the Regents of the University of California from charging to and collecting from nonresident students an admission fee and rate of tuition nor shall anything in this section prevent the charging and collecting of fees required of nonresident students admitted to schools under the jurisdiction of the Department of Education or the Director of Education or to a state college under the jurisdiction of the Trustees of the California State Colleges.

This section is not applicable to the dependent of a veteran as "veteran" is defined in subdivision (a) (3) of Section 890 of the Military and Veterans Code."

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was offered:

By Assemblyman Bill Greene:

House Resolution No. 41

Relative to employment tax incentives

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Department of Human Resources Development, in cooperation with the Department of Industrial Relations, the Commission on Economic Development, the State Personnel Board, the Advisory Coordinating Council on Public Personnel Management, the California Advisory Council on Vocational Education and Technical Training, the Coordinating Council for Higher Education, and the Franchise Tax Board shall:

(a) Study the federal and state provisions respecting unemployment insurance taxes and personal and corporate income taxes, and state capabilities and the costs of institutional, on-the-job, and home-study occupational competency training programs, at both vocational and professional levels; and

(b) Recommend those statutory and administrative regulatory changes, both federal and state, needed, whereby employers are given an incentive, through the taxation system, for reducing the employability risk of persons with inadequate occupational competencies to become gainfully employed; and be it further

Resolved, That the Director of the Department of Human Resources Development, and the agencies cooperating in the employment tax incentive study, submit to the Legislature by January 1, 1973, interim findings and recommendations, based upon an interagency task force study and public hearings; and be it further

Resolved, That the Director of the Department of Human Resources Development report his final findings and recommendations to the Legislature by June 1, 1973; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of the Department of Human Resources Development, the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations, the Lieutenant Governor, the Chairman of the State Personnel Board, the Chairman of the Advisory Coordinating Council on Public Personnel Management, the Chairman of the California Advisory Council on Vocational Education and Technical Training, the President of the Coordinating Council on Higher Education, and the Chairman of the Franchise Tax Board.

Resolution read, and referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Rules.

CHAPTER 5 SAFETY INSPECTION REQUIREMENTS

6700 The division shall by January 1, 1973, develop a priority inspection system for high hazard employers or places of employment, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 6701 Inspection of such employers or places of employment shall be made at least every three years

6701 (a) "High hazard employers" or "places of employment" mean any employer or place of employment where the accident rate per million man-hours worked is more than 10 percent above the statewide average for that industry or any employer required to pay rates 10 percent or more above his industry average under the California Experience Rating Bureau's workmen's compensation insurance plan.

(b) "High hazard industries" mean those industries exceeding the previous year's statewide average accident rate per million man-hours worked for all industries in the state

6702. Notwithstanding Section 6700, any employer convicted of gross negligence for safety violations shall be included in the division's priority inspection systems.

6703. All employers covered under division regulations shall be inspected at least once every five years, if their accident rate per million man-hours worked is higher than the statewide average for all industries for the three previous years.

6704. (a) A "permit of operation" shall be required of any contractor licensed under Contractors License Law (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code) before the actual work or construction may be started whenever a contract is awarded for fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more.

(b) A "permit of operation" means a permit granted to a contractor licensed under the Contractors License Law by the division upon its approval of the contractor's safety program for his employees and the adequacy and safety of the equipment to meet existing state safety standards.

(c) A contractor shall submit plans for a safety program and proof of necessary safety equipment to the division awarded a contract on a project of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more.

(d) A "prejob safety conference" shall be held before a permit of operation is granted whenever a contract is awarded for a bid of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more.

(e) A "prejob safety conference" is a meeting between authorized division personnel and the contractor or his authorized representative to discuss the contractor's safety program and equipment. When a contract is amended by a public agency, authorized representatives of such agency shall be included in the conference.

6705. In preparing bids for any public project the public agency awarding the contract shall include separate specification of safety equipment costs and the cost of safety programs for the work No bid submitted shall be considered unless it contains adequate safety program cost estimates for the project.

6706. (a) Failure to operate within an approved safety program or to provide safety equipment indicated to the division in order to obtain a permit of operation shall be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or six months in the county jail, or both.

(b) If an employee suffers serious injury or death in an accident while the employer is in violation of a subdivision (a) of Section 6705, the employer is guilty of a felony punishable by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years, or both.

CHAPTER 6. EDUCATION AND RESEARCH

6750 The division shall maintain an education and research unit which shall be responsible for the training of new inspectors and increasing the expertise of existing inspectors, in addition to conducting a safety education program The unit's activities shall include:

(a) Responsibility for preparation and distribution of safety materials, providing speakers for safety programs, and assisting the board in programs required under Section 147. Outside consultants may be used for development of safety materials, including films, speeches, tapes or educational programs whenever the division or the board deems it necessary.

(b) Within guidelines approved by the division chief and the board, development of an in-service training program for all new and existing safety inspectors.

6751. The board shall review activities of the education and research unit annually to assure a coordinated program is being carried out 6752. The board shall review and recommend an annual budget for the division, including an education and research budget for in-service training, as well as one for the preparation, publication and distribution of an adequate supply safety materials.

6753 The director shall negotiate with the Department of Public Health for investigatory services in the field of industrial hygiene and preventive medicine. These services shall include but need not be limited to identification, evaluation and methods of controlling health hazards created by toxic materials or harmful physical agents.

6754 The Department of Public Health shall have the same rights of access and powers to investigate as authorized members of the division in carrying duties of the contract.

6755. The Department of Public Health shall be responsible for establishment of standards which will control problems of occupational illness or fatalities created by exposure to toxic substances or harmful physical agents and the division shall enforce such established standards.

6756. A contract detailing the responsibilities of the division and of the Department of Public Health as described in Sections 6707, 6708, and 6709 shall be implemented as soon as possible, but no later than July 1, 1973. The contract shall be renewable annually but may be amended at the request of either party

SEC 11 Section 7304 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

7304 ~~The division shall cause all elevators to be inspected at least once each year. If an elevator is found upon inspection to be in a safe condition for operation, a permit for operation for not longer than one year shall be issued by the division.~~ The board shall fix the inspection frequency of elevators to be inspected by the division accordingly. Elevators found upon inspection to be in safe operating conditions shall be issued a permit not to exceed the inspection frequency period set by the board.

SEC. 12. Section 7314 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

7314. The division may ~~fix and~~ collect ~~such~~ fees for the inspection of elevators ~~as it deems necessary, but the charge for the first inspection of each new elevator installation shall not exceed thirty-five dollars ($35) or twenty dollars ($20) for each inspection of existing elevators or subsequent inspections of new elevator installations. No charge shall be made in any one year for more than one inspection except where safety orders have not been complied with and subsequent inspections are necessary. An additional fee not to exceed twenty dollars ($20) may, in the discretion of the division, be charged, for not more than one subsequent inspection annually~~ in accordance with a schedule adopted by the board. Fee collections shall be limited to one for each inspection period except where violations of the safety orders are found A fee shall be charged for each inspection necessary to assure an elevator or elevators are in safe operating conditions.

SEC. 13. Section 7344 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

7344. The ~~division shall cause all aerial passenger tramways to be inspected at least once each year. If an aerial passenger tramway is found upon inspection to be in a safe condition for operation, a permit for operation for not longer than one year shall be issued by the division.~~ board shall fix the inspection schedule of all aerial passenger tramways and shall cause all aerial passenger tramways to be inspected. A permit for operation shall be issued for the period established by the board when it is determined to be in safe operating condition.

SEC. 14. Section 7350 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

7350. The ~~division may fix and collect such fees for the inspection of aerial passenger tramways as it deems necessary, but the charge for each inspection shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50) for the first inspection of each new aerial passenger tramway installation and twenty-five dollars ($25) for the re-inspection of existing equipment and subsequent inspections of new equipment. No charge shall be made in any one year for more than one inspection except where safety orders have not been complied with and subsequent inspections are necessary. Then an additional fee not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) may, in the discretion of the division, be charged for not more than one subsequent inspection annually.~~ board may fix and adopt a schedule for the inspection of aerial passenger tramways Collection of fees shall be by the division and limited to one fee for the permit period determined by the board when a tramway is determined to be in safe operating condition. Whenever an aerial passenger tramway is determined to be unsafe the division shall collect fees for each inspection necessary to assure it is in safe operating condition.

SEC. 15. Part 3.1 (commencing with Section 7400) is added to Division 5 of the Labor Code, to read:

PART 3.1. MISCELLANEOUS SAFETY PROVISIONS

7400. (a) Any employer who causes or allows the use of any inflammable or combustible material for the installation acceptance pressure test of any gas houseline or piping shall be conclusively presumed to be maintaining an unsafe place of employment.

(b) Any employer who causes or allows gas pipelines to be tested with gas at pressures in excess of that permitted by applicable sections of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers Code for Pressure Piping shall be conclusively presumed to be maintaining an unsafe place of employment.

7401. It shall be the duty of the division to determine by the maximum allowable standards of emissions of contaminants from portable and from mobile internal combustion engines used inside factories, manufacturing plants, warehouses, buildings and other enclosed structures, which standards are compatible with the safety of employees.

The standards shall be developed after the division has held public hearings and afforded an opportunity for all interested persons to appear and file statements or be heard The division shall publish such notice of the hearings as it determines to be reasonably necessary.

The division after notice and hearing may revise the standards, and shall publish the revised standards, from time to time.

7402 All portable and all mobile internal combustion engines that are used inside factories, manufacturing plants, warehouses, buildings and other enclosed structures shall be equipped with a certified exhaust purifier device after the certification of such a device by the State Air Resources Board.

The Division of Industrial Safety shall be responsible for the enforcement of the provisions of this section.

7403. Sections 7402 and 7403 shall apply to all portable and all mobile internal combustion engines used inside factories, manufacturing plants, warehouses, buildings and other enclosed structures unless the operation of such an engine used inside a particular factory, plant, warehouse, building or enclosed structure does not result in harmful exposure to concentrations of dangerous gases or fumes in excess of maximum acceptable concentrations as determined by the division

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "56003.2", and insert "56003 1, 56003.2, 56080".

Amendment No. 2

On page 1, after "SECTION 1.", insert "Section 56003.1 of the Government Code, as amended by Chapter 176 of the Statutes of 1971, is amended to read:

56003.1. Except as provided in this section, this division shall have no application to the incorporation of cities, the annexation or detachment of territory to or from cities, minor changes of city boundaries or the consolidation or disincorporation of cities or to the formation of districts (except when any such formation is a part of a reorganization) or to proceedings for any of the foregoing. An annexation to a city or a detachment from a city which is proposed as a part of a plan of reorganization may be conducted in accordance with the procedures for reorganization set forth in this division unless the affected city objects thereto. The incorporation of a new city, which is proposed as a part of a plan of reorganization, may also be conducted in accordance with the procedures for reorganization set forth in this division unless the board of supervisors objects thereto. In any commission order giving approval to any of the matters provided for in subdivision (a) of Section 56250, the commission may make any such approval conditional upon:

(a) The initiation, conduct or completion of proceedings for the incorporation of any city, the annexation or detachment of territory to or from any city, the consolidation of any cities or the disincorporation of any city or for the formation of any district; and

(b) The approval or disapproval, with or without election, as may be provided by law, of any resolution or ordinance ordering ~~any such incorporation, annexation, detachment, consolidation, disincorporation or formation of a district~~ the incorporation of any city, the annexation or detachment of territory to or from any city, the consolidation of any cities or the disincorporation of any city or the formation of a district.

If a commission shall so condition its approval, the commission may order that any further action pursuant to this division shall be continued and held in abeyance for such period of time as the commission may designate, not to exceed six months from the date of such conditional approval.

Any such commission order may also provide that any election called upon the question of confirming a change of organization or a reorganization pursuant to the provisions of this division shall be called, held and conducted before, upon the same date as, or after the date of any election to be called, held and conducted upon the incorporation of any city, the annexation or detachment of territory to or from any city, the consolidation of any cities or the disincorporation of any city or upon the formation of any district.

SEC. 1.5."

CONSIDERATION OF DAILY FILE

ASSEMBLY BILLS RETURNED TO SECOND READING FILE PURSUANT TO THE RULES

Pursuant to the Assembly Rules, the following Assembly Bills were this day on the second reading file.

Assembly Bills Nos. 614 and 246, ordered to third reading.

Assembly Bill No. 893, ordered to the Consent Calendar.

SECOND READING OF ASSEMBLY BILLS

Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 25—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the state, by adding Section 43 to Article XIII thereof, Article XIX thereto, and Section 7 to Article XXIV thereof, and by repealing Section 22 of Article XX (as amended November 6, 1956) thereof, relating to alcoholic beverages.

Resolution read.

Consideration of Committee Amendments

The following amendments, proposed by the Committee on Governmental Organization, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

In the heading of the printed measure, as amended in Assembly February 29, 1972, strike out "Assemblyman Knox", and insert "Assemblymen Knox, Cline, Badham, Stacey, and Ralph".

Amendment No. 2

In line 3 of the title, strike out "adding"; strike out line 4, and in line 5, strike out "Section 7 to Article XXIV thereof, and by repealing", and insert "amending".

Amendment No. 3

On page 1, line 7, strike out "as follows", and insert "by amending Section 22 of Article XX, as amended November 6, 1956, thereof, to read".

Amendment No. 4

On page 1, strike out line 8, and insert

"SEC. 22. The State of California, subject to the internal revenue laws of the United States, shall have the exclusive right and power to license and regulate the manufacture, sale, purchase, possession and transportation of alcoholic beverages within the state, and subject to the laws of the United States regulating commerce between foreign nations and among the states shall have the exclusive right and power to regulate the importation into and exportation from the state, of alcoholic beverages. In the exercise of these rights and powers, the Legislature shall not constitute the state or any agency thereof a manufacturer or seller of alcoholic beverages.

All alcoholic beverages may be bought, sold, served, consumed and otherwise disposed of in premises which shall be licensed as provided by the Legislature. In providing for the licensing of premises, the Legislature may provide for the issuance of, among other licenses, licenses for the following types of premises where the alcoholic beverages specified in the licenses may be sold and served for consumption upon the premises:

(a) For bona fide public eating places, as defined by the Legislature

(b) For public premises in which food shall not be sold or served as in a bona fide public eating place, but upon which premises the Legislature may permit the sale or service of food products incidental to the sale and service of alcoholic beverages. No person under the voting age ~~of 21 years~~ shall be permitted to enter and remain in any such premises without lawful business therein.

(c) For public premises for the sale and service of beers alone.

(d) Under such conditions as the Legislature may impose, for railroad dining or club cars, passenger ships, common carriers by air, and bona fide clubs after such clubs have been lawfully operated for not less than one year.

The sale, furnishing, giving, or causing to be sold, furnished, or giving away of any alcoholic beverage to any person under the voting age ~~of 21 years~~ is hereby prohibited, and no person shall sell, furnish, give, or cause to be sold, furnished, or given away any alcoholic beverage to any person under the voting age ~~of 21 years~~, and no person under the voting age ~~of 21 years~~ shall purchase any alcoholic beverage. The Legislature may provide exceptions to the provisions of this paragraph for persons under parental control or engaging in religious ceremony.

The Director of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall be the head of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, shall be appointed by the Governor subject to confirmation by a majority vote of all of the members elected to the Senate, and shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor The director may be removed from office by the Governor, and the Legislature shall have the power, by a majority vote of all members elected to each house, to remove the director from office for dereliction of duty or corruption or incompetency The director may appoint three persons who shall be exempt from civil service, in addition to the person he is authorized to appoint by Section 4 of Article XXIV

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control shall have the exclusive power, except as herein provided and in accordance with laws enacted by the Legislature, to license the manufacture, importation and sale of alcoholic beverages in this state, and to collect license fees or occupation taxes on account thereof. The department shall have the power, in its discretion, to deny, suspend or revoke any specific alcoholic beverages license if it shall determine for good cause that the granting or continuance of such license would be contrary to public welfare or morals, or that a person seeking or holding a license has violated any law prohibiting conduct involving moral turpitude It shall be unlawful for any person other than a licensee of said department to manufacture, import or sell alcoholic beverages in this state.

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board shall consist of three members appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by a majority vote of all of the members elected to the Senate. Each member, at the time of his initial appointment, shall be a resident of a different county from the one in which either of the other members resides. The members of the board may be removed from office by the Governor, and the Legislature shall have the power, by a majority vote of all members elected to each house, to remove any member from office for dereliction of duty or corruption or incompetency.

When any person aggrieved thereby appeals from a decision of the department ordering any penalty assessment, issuing, denying, transferring, suspending or revoking any license for the manufacture, importation, or sale of alcoholic beverages, the board shall review the decision subject to such limitations as may be imposed by the Legislature In such cases, the board shall not receive evidence in addition to that considered by the department. Review by the board of a decision of the department shall be limited to the questions whether the department has proceeded without or in excess of its jurisdiction, whether the department has proceeded in the manner required by law, whether the decision is supported by the findings, and whether the findings are supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record. In appeals where the board finds that there is relevant evidence which, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, could not have been produced or which was improperly excluded at the hearing before the department it may enter an order remanding the matter to the department for reconsideration in the light of such evidence In all other appeals the board shall enter an order either affirming or reversing the decision of the department. When the order reverses the decision of the department, the board may direct the reconsideration of the matter in the light of its order and may direct the department to take such further action as is specially enjoined upon it by law, but the order shall not limit or control in any way the discretion vested by law in the department. Orders of the board shall be subject to judicial review upon petition of the director or any party aggrieved by such order.

A concurrent resolution for the removal of either the director or any member of the board may be introduced in the Legislature only if five Members of the Senate, or 10 Members of the Assembly, join as authors.

Until the Legislature shall otherwise provide, the privilege of keeping, buying, selling, serving, and otherwise disposing of alcoholic beverages in bona fide hotels, restaurants, cafes, cafeterias, railroad dining or club cars, passenger ships, and other public eating places, and in bona fide clubs after such clubs have been lawfully operated for not less than one year, and the privilege of keeping, buying, selling, serving, and otherwise disposing of beers on any premises open to the general public shall be licensed and regulated under the applicable provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, insofar as the same are not inconsistent with the provisions hereof, and excepting that the license fee to be charged bona fide hotels, restaurants, cafes, cafeterias, railroad dining or club cars, passenger ships, and other public eating places, and any bona fide clubs after such clubs have been lawfully operated for not less than one year, for the privilege of keeping, buying, selling, or otherwise disposing of alcoholic beverages, shall be the amounts prescribed as of the operative date hereof, subject to the power of the Legislature to change such fees.

The State Board of Equalization shall assess and collect such excise taxes as are or may be imposed by the Legislature on account of the manufacture, importation and sale of alcoholic beverages in this state.

The Legislature may authorize, subject to reasonable restrictions, the sale in retail stores of alcoholic beverages contained in the original packages, where such alcoholic beverages are not to be consumed on the premises where sold; and may provide for the issuance of all types of licenses necessary to carry on the activities referred to in the first paragraph of this section, including, but not limited to, licenses necessary for the manufacture, production, processing, importation, exportation, transportation, wholesaling, distribution, and sale of any and all kinds of alcoholic beverages

The Legislature shall provide for apportioning the amounts collected for license fees or occupation taxes under the provisions hereof between the state and the cities, counties and cities and counties of the state, in such manner as the Legislature may deem proper

All constitutional provisions and laws inconsistent with the provisions hereof are hereby repealed.

The provisions of this section shall be self-executing, but nothing herein shall prohibit the Legislature from enacting laws implementing and not inconsistent with such provisions

~~This amendment shall become operative on January 1, 1957.~~

Upon the adoption of a Budget Act, the Department of Public Works shall revise the proposed program budget prepared pursuant to Section 143.1 to conform to the provisions of the Budget Act, and shall submit the revised budget to the Department of Finance, which shall administer the revised budget as the fiscal year budget of the Department of Public Works.

In administering the budget of the Department of Public Works, the Director of Finance shall not limit expenditures or incurrence of obligations thereunder to quarterly, semiannual, or other periods of the fiscal year and shall not require any greater detail than that specified in Sections 143 1 and 143 2.

The commission shall designate the specific work to be undertaken under the budget item for construction and improvements, and shall allocate the funds available for such work. With respect to funds for construction and improvements allocated for capital outlay projects, the commission may change such work and allocations from time to time on its own initiative. Funds allocated by the commission for capital outlay projects within the budget item for construction and improvements shall be available for expenditure during the fiscal year for which they are appropriated and during the two next succeeding fiscal years.

The commission may by a two-thirds vote of its membership, with the approval of the Director of Finance, transfer funds from one budget item to another and within a budget item. For each transfer approved by the commission and the Director of Finance, a full accounting of the reasons for the transfer, the costs incurred, the funds transferred, and the budgeted programs delayed, shall be submitted to the Governor in the next report submitted pursuant to Section 143 2."

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly and Senate:

Assembly Bill No. 379, "An act making an appropriation for the Colton Joint Unified School District, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately," in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 12 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

I, therefore, recommend consideration of Assembly Bill No. 379 as an emergency measure.

Respectfully,

RONALD REAGAN
Governor

SECOND READING OF BILLS—AUTHOR'S AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 1650—An act to amend Section 540 of the Public Resources Code, relating to recreation.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Set No. 1

Amendment No. 1

In lines 1 and 2 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "to amend Section 540 of the Public Resources Code, relating to recreation", and insert "making an appropriation for the operation and maintenance of state park system facilities at Silverwood Lake, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately".

Amendment No. 2

On page 1, strike out line 1, and insert

"SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in the State Treasury to the Department of Parks and Recreation the sum of three hundred and five thousand dollars ($305,000) for the operation and maintenance of state parks system facilities at Silverwood Lake.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The provisions of the Budget Bill of 1972 do not make adequate provision for an existing and an anticipated shortage of state park system facilities. It is essential that the funds appropriated by this act be made available for expenditure at the earliest possible date in order that the existing program will not be delayed The expeditious correction of such shortage of facilities and the efficient operation of the state park system require the immediate availability of these funds and it is therefore necessary that this act go into immediate effect."

Amendment No. 3

On page 1, strike out lines 2 to 12, inclusive.

Set No. 2

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the heading of the printed bill, strike out "Assemblyman Lewis", and insert "Assemblymen Lewis and Quimby".

"SECTION 1. Article 5 (commencing with Section 25529) is added to Chapter 3 of Division 18.5 of the Education Code, to read.

Article 5 Community College Television Consortium

25529. It is the intent and purpose of the Legislature to make general and vocational educational materials available to large numbers of adults without placing increased demands on the physical facilities of community colleges It has been demonstrated that college telecourses can be economically presented by several community college districts acting jointly, on a cooperative basis It is the intent and purpose of the Legislature to assist such existing cooperative efforts and to encourage the formation of additional community college television consortia

25529 1. As used in this article, the following definitions, unless the content otherwise requires, shall govern the construction of the provisions of this article.

(a) "Television consortium" means an agency organized by five or more community college districts for the purpose of developing and conducting college credit courses through the media of television

(b) "Telecourse" means a college credit course broadcast on open or closed circuit television to the community at large

(c) "Chancellor" means the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges.

25529.2. A television consortium, formally and regularly organized under provisions of Section 892 6 of the Education Code and Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, may apply to the chancellor for a planning grant to assist in the formation and development of such a consortium Such planning grants may be made annually for more than one year, but under no circumstances shall any consortium be eligible to receive more than five such grants.

25529 3. Planning grants shall be used to organize a consortium, develop long-range curriculum plans, carry out utilization training activities, conduct evaluation of telecourses, and coordinate with other consortia and the chancellor's office Planning grant funds shall not be used for telecourse production, television instructor salaries, or underwriting any cost of preparation of telecourses

25529.4. The chancellor shall provide statewide coordination of television consortia to minimize unnecessary and costly duplication of effort and to maximize interchange of information and telecourse materials throughout the state

25529.5 The chancellor shall produce at least one exemplary telecourse each year, directed at an area of high priority educational need as defined by the chancellor, to be made available to all community college districts in the state However, the chancellor may establish independent television production facilities to carry out this mandate.

25529 6 The chancellor shall adopt rules and regulations governing the administration of this article

SEC. 2 There is hereby appropriated the sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) from the General Fund in the State Treasury to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, to be expended to carry out the purposes of the provisions of Article 5 (commencing with Section 25529) of Chapter 3 of Division 18 5 of the Education Code."

"16130. The Secretary of the Resources Agency shall direct the Controller to pay annually out of the funds appropriated by Section 16100, to each eligible county, city, or city and county the amounts claimed pursuant to Section 16131 for land within its regulatory jurisdiction that is assessed pursuant to Section 423 or 423.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code."

Amendment No. 4

On page 9, line 4, strike out "school district and".

Amendment No. 5

On page 9, between lines 24 and 25, insert

"16132. On or before October 31, 1972, and annually thereafter, the governing body of each county, city, or city and county shall submit a report to the Secretary of the Resources Agency itemizing the land under its regulatory jurisdiction which it believes to be qualified for state payments pursuant to Section 16131, together with such supporting documentation as the secretary by regulation may require. The secretary, after reviewing the report and determining the eligibility of the local government to receive payment and the actual amount to which it is entitled, shall certify that amount to the Controller for payment, and the Controller shall make such payment by December 31, 1972, and annually thereafter.

The secretary may make such supplemental reports to the Controller as it deems necessary throughout the year to give effect to new or additional information received from local governing bodies, correct errors, and dispose of contested or conditional situations. Upon receiving such reports, the Controller shall pay any amount certified therein, and may withhold and deduct any certified overpayment from the amount that would otherwise be paid to the local government in the next succeeding year.

16133. The Secretary of the Resources Agency may determine, after notice and hearing, that a local government is ineligible to receive state payments pursuant to this article by reason of its failure to comply with the provisions of Article 10 5 (commencing with Section 65560) of Chapter 3 of Title 7 of this code, or with the provisions of any program which establishes an enforceable restriction upon which the assessment of land within its jurisdiction pursuant to Section 423 or 423.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is based This section shall not be construed to require the disqualification of any land from assessment pursuant to Section 423 or 423.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code as a consequence of any determination of ineligibility by the secretary.

16134. The Secretary of the Resources Agency may request the Attorney General to bring any action in court necessary to enforce any enforceable restriction as defined in Section 422 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, upon land for which the secretary has certified payment of state funds to the local governing body during the current or any preceding fiscal year. Such action may include, but is not limited to, an action to enforce the contract by specific performance or injunction 16135 The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine the amount of the school district tax rate for general fund purposes for each school district in which lands are assessed pursuant to Section 423 or 423.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall then determine the product of such amount multiplied by the open-space adjustment determined pursuant to Section 16136.

16136 On or before October 31, 1972, and on or before the last day of October of each year thereafter, the assessor shall report the open-space adjustment for each school district located in the county to the Controller and to the Superintendent of Public Instruction The open-space adjustment shall be calculated by determining the difference between:

(a) The adjusted assessed value of all land in the district in the base year, which shall be the last assessment year prior to the application of Section 423 or 423.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code to any land within the district, and

(b) The assessed value of all land within the district for the current assessment year

For the purposes of subdivision (a), "adjusted assessed value" shall be computed by multiplying the actual assessed value of land in the district in the base year by the percentage which the gross assessed value of all land in the state on the local roll outside of municipalities without deductions for any exemptions for the current assessment year is of the gross assessed value of all land on the local roll outside municipalities without deductions for any exemptions in the base year. The Controller shall announce the factors to be used by the assessors on or before October 15th of each year

For purposes of determining the "actual assessed value of land in the district in the base year," any assessor who had announced that he was using an assessment ratio of less than 25 percent in the base year pursuant to the Revenue and Taxation Code shall adjust the actual assessed value of the land in the district in the base year to the assessed value which would have been on the roll had the assessor announced a 25-percent assessment ratio

If the value of land within the district for the current assessment year is greater than the adjusted assessed value of the base year, there shall be no reimbursement.

16137. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion and allow to each eligible school district the amount derived pursuant to Section 16135 as part of the second principal apportionment."

"CHAPTER 4. EDUCATIONAL EQUALIZATION FUND

16140. Out of funds appropriated by Section 16100, the Controller shall place in an Educational Equalization Fund, which is hereby created, a sum of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) for the 1973–74 fiscal year; the sum of five hundred eighty million dollars ($580,000,000) for 1974–1975 fiscal year For each fiscal year thereafter, the Controller shall place in the Educational Equalization Fund the amount placed in said fund in 1974–1975 plus an additional amount to allow for the cost of living, as determined by the Controller

In creating the Educational Equalization Fund, the Legislature recognizes the disparity in wealth of various school districts throughout California and that such disparities make it impossible to provide equal educational opportunities with equal tax effort

Funds in the Educational Equalization Fund shall be used, when appropriated by the Legislature, only for the implementation of a school finance plan to reduce substantially existing disparities in resources between school districts and to meet the differing educational needs of children."

Explanations of Vote—Assembly Joint Resolution No. 17

April 24, 1972

Honorable Bob Moretti
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

Dear Bob: Because of a special commitment in Monterey to attend a meeting of the California Arts Commission on Thursday, April 20, 1972, I was not present at the time of the floor debate on AJR 17 (Ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment to the Constitution of the United States)

It was impossible for me to be in the Capitol, however, had I been present, I would have argued in favor of the ratification and would have voted aye.

Sincerely,

JIM KEYSOR, Assemblyman
Forty-first District

GONSALVES, Chairman

SECOND READING OF BILLS—AUTHOR'S AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 1737—An act to amend Section 15606 of the Government Code, relating to the duties of the State Board of Equalization.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

On page 2, between lines 25 and 26 of the printed bill, insert

"(i) Prescribe rules and regulations which will provide retailers who sell both taxable items and items exempt pursuant to Section 6359 of the Revenue and Taxation Code an alternative method or methods whereby they can compute their sales tax liability in a simplified manner. Such rules and regulations shall be in such clarity and detail as to be easily understood by the average taxpayers. Such rules and regulations shall be applied equally to all taxpayers who choose to report their sales tax liability under such rules."

On page 2, after line 26, insert

"SEC. 2. The Legislature, by adding subdivision (i) to Section 15606 of the Government Code at the 1972 Regular Session intends to direct the State Board of Equalization, in addition to allowing taxpayers to report and pay sales taxes on the retail method, to adopt a method or methods for taxpayers to use in reporting their sales tax liability that is simple and equitable. This is not to direct the board to repeal Rule 52E but to direct the board to adopt additional rules and regulations relating to Rule 52E to make such rule clear to taxpayers and to substantially restrict the staff interpretations of the rule. The Legislature also intends to direct the board to apply the existing and new rules uniformly to all taxpayers who choose to pay taxes under such rules.

The Legislature further does not endorse the present practice of the staff of the board which is to make substantial changes in their interpretation of the rules and to apply such new interpretations retroactively on audit. Such changes in rules and regulations and interpretations shall be prospective."

Bill ordered reprinted, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Revenue and Taxation.

128. Every court shall have power:

1. To preserve and enforce order in its immediate presence;

2. To enforce order in the proceedings before it, or before a person or persons empowered to conduct a judicial investigation under its authority;

3. To provide for the orderly conduct of proceedings before it, or its officers;

4. To compel obedience to its judgment, orders, and process, and to the orders of a judge out of court, in an action or proceeding pending therein;

5. To control in furtherance of justice, the conduct of its ministerial officers, and of all other persons in any manner connected with a judicial proceeding before it, in every matter appertaining thereto;

6. To compel the attendance of persons to testify in an action or proceeding pending therein, in the cases and manner provided in this code;

7 To administer oaths in an action or proceeding pending therein, and in all other cases where it may be necessary in the exercise of its powers and duties;

8. To amend and control its process and orders so as to make them conformable to law and justice.

If an order of contempt is made affecting an attorney, his agent, investigator, or any person acting under the attorney's direction in the preparation of an action or proceeding, the execution of any sentence shall be stayed pending a hearing on a petition for extraordinary relief testing the lawfulness of the court's order, the violation of which is the basis of the contempt, except for such conduct as may be proscribed by subdivision (b) of Section 6068 of the Business and Professions Code."

SEC 3. Section 955.5 is added to the Evidence Code, to read:

955.5. (a) An attorney, his agents, or his investigators, or any person acting under the attorney's direction in the preparation of an action or proceeding cannot be adjudged in contempt in any proceeding, as defined in Section 901, for refusing to disclose any information obtained from the attorney's client or procured during the investigation or preparation of an action or proceeding.

(b) Subdivision (a) of this section shall not apply to any information which comes under the provisions of Section 956.

SEC. 4 Section 166 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

166 Every person guilty of any contempt of court, of either of the following kinds, is guilty of a misdemeanor:

1 Disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior committed during the sitting of any court of justice, in immediate view and presence of the court, and directly tending to interrupt its proceedings or to impair the respect due to its authority;

2. Behavior of the like character committed in the presence of any referee, while actually engaged in any trial or hearing, pursuant to the order of any court, or in the presence of any jury while actually sitting for the trial of a cause, or upon any inquest or other proceedings authorized by law;

3. Any breach of the peace, noise, or other disturbance directly tending to interrupt the proceedings of any court,

4. Willful disobedience of any process or order lawfully issued by any court;

5. Resistance willfully offered by any person to the lawful order or process of any court;

6. The contumacious and unlawful refusal of any person to be sworn as a witness; or, when so sworn, the like refusal to answer any material question;

7. The publication of a false or grossly inaccurate report of the proceedings of any court;

8. Presenting to any court having power to pass sentence upon any prisoner under conviction, or to any member of such court, any affidavit or testimony or representation of any kind, verbal or written, in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment to be imposed upon such prisoner, except as provided in this code.

If a conviction of criminal contempt is obtained affecting an attorney, his agent, investigator, or any person acting under the attorney's direction in the preparation of an action or proceeding, the execution of any sentence shall be stayed pending a hearing on an appeal testing the lawfulness of the court's order, the violation of which is the basis of the contempt, except for such conduct as is proscribed by subdivision (b) of Section 6068 of the Business and Professions Code."

Amendment No. 2

On page 1, strike out lines 1 to 13, inclusive, and insert

"SECTION 1. Section 5100 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5100. Husband and wife contract toward each other obligations of mutual respect, fidelity, and support.~~

SEC. 2 Section 5100 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

5100. (a) Marital property is community property of husband and wife or separate property of one spouse.

(b) Separate property of a married person consists of:

(1) Property owned before marriage, and property acquired during marriage by gift, bequest, devise or descent, the rents, issues and profits thereof, and property obtained in exchange therefor.

(2) The earnings and accumulations of a spouse and of the minor children living with, or in the custody of, the spouse, while living separate and apart from the other spouse or after judgment of legal separation.

(3) Damages for or payments received in settlement of claims for personal injuries inflicted by his or her spouse, and community property personal injury damages (as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 4800) received while living separate and apart from the other spouse or after judgment of legal separation; except that the other spouse is entitled to reimbursement of his or her separate property or the community property, as the case may be, from the property so received for any expenses incurred in connection with the injuries to his or her spouse.

(c) All other marital property is community property

(d) Husband and wife may also hold property as joint tenants or tenants in common.

SEC. 3 Section 5101 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5101. The husband is the head of the family. He may choose any reasonable place or mode of living, and the wife must conform thereto.~~

SEC. 4. Section 5101 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

5101. (a) Property acquired during marriage by a spouse or by both husband and wife while domiciled in this state, and property held in trust pursuant to Section 5108, is presumed to be community property.

(b) Property in the possession of either spouse during the marriage or at the time of termination of the marriage is presumed to have been acquired during the marriage.

(c) A single family residence acquired by husband and wife as joint tenants is presumed to be community property for purposes of property division upon marriage dissolution or separation only.

(d) The presumption that property acquired during marriage is community property does not apply to any property to which legal or equitable title is held by a person at the time of his or her death if the marriage during which the property was acquired was terminated by dissolution of marriage more than four years prior to such death

SEC 5. Section 5102 of the Penal Code is amended and renumbered to read:

~~5102~~ 5104 Neither husband nor wife has any interest in the separate property of the other, but neither can be excluded from the other's dwelling except as provided in Section 4518 or, in proceedings under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4400) or Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4425) of Title 2 of this part, or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4500) of Title 3 of this part, upon application of either party in the manner provided by Section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the court may order the temporary exclusion of either party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other upon a showing that physical or emotional harm would otherwise result, until the final determination of the proceeding.

SEC. 6. Section 5102 is added to the Penal Code, to read·

5102. Where community property, before or after the effective date of this section is transferred by the husband and wife to a trust, regardless of the identity of the trustee, which trust originally or as amended prior or subsequent to such transfer (a) is revocable in whole or in part during their joint lives, (b) provides that the property after transfer to the trust shall remain community property and any withdrawal therefrom shall be their community property, (c) is subject to amendment or alteration during their joint lifetime upon their joint consent, the property so transferred to such trust, and the interests of the spouses in such trust, shall be community property during the continuance of the marriage, unless the trust otherwise expressly provides. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect community property which, before or after the effective date of this section, is transferred in a manner other than as described in this section or to a trust containing different provisions than those set forth in this section; nor shall this section be construed to prohibit the trustee from conveying any trust property, real or personal, in accordance with the provisions of the trust without the consent of the husband or wife unless the trust expressly requires the consent of one or both spouses.

SEC. 7. Section 5103 of the Civil Code is amended and renumber to read:

~~5103~~ 5105. Either husband or wife may enter into any engagement or transaction with the other, or with any other person, respecting property, which either might if unmarried; subject, in transactions between themselves, to the general rules which control the actions of persons occupying confidential relations with each other, as defined by Title 8 (commencing with Section 2215) of Part 4 of Division 3.

SEC. 8. Section 5103 is added to the Civil Code, to read·

5103. A full and complete inventory of the separate personal property of either spouse may be made out and signed by such spouse, acknowledged or proved in the manner required by law for the acknowledgement or proof of a grant of real property, and recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the parties reside.

The filing of the inventory in the recorder's office is notice and prima facie evidence of the title of the party filing such inventory.

SEC. 9. Section 5104 of the Civil Code is repealed

~~5104. A husband and wife may hold property as joint tenants, tenants in common, or as community property.~~

SEC. 10. Section 5105 of the Civil Code is amended and renumbered to read:

~~5105~~

5106. The respective interests of the husband and wife in community property during continuance of the marriage relation are present, existing and equal interests ~~under the management and control of the husband as is provided in Sections 5125 and 5127~~. This section shall be construed as defining the respective interests and rights of husband and wife in community property.

SEC. 11. Section 5106 of the Civil Code is amended and renumbered to read:

5118. Notwithstanding the provisions of ~~Sections 5105 and 5125~~ Section 5107, whenever payment or refund is made to an employee, former employee or his beneficiary or estate pursuant to a written retirement, death or other employee benefit plan or savings plan, such payment or refund shall fully discharge the employer and any trustee or insurance company making such payment or refund from all adverse claims thereto unless, before such payment or refund is made, the employer or former employer, where the payment is made by the employer or former employer, has received at its principal place of business within this state, written notice by or on behalf of some other person that such other person claims to be entitled to such payment or refund or some part thereof or where a trustee or insurance company is making the payment, such notice has been delivered by the employer to the home office of such trustee or such insurance company or has otherwise been received thereby. Nothing contained in this section shall affect any claim or right to any such payment or refund or part thereof as between all persons other than the employer and the trustee or insurance company making such payment or refund.

SEC. 12. Section 5107 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5107. All property of the wife, owned by her before marriage, and that acquired afterwards by gift, bequest, devise, or descent, with the rents, issues, and profits thereof, is her separate property. The wife may, without the consent of her husband, convey her separate property.~~

SEC. 13. Section 5107 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

5107. (a) Husband and wife have equal powers of management and control of the community property heretofore or hereafter acquired and may by agreement divide or otherwise provide for the exercise of these powers in any manner they desire; but neither spouse may make a gift of community property or dispose of the same without valuable consideration without the written consent of the other, and both spouses shall join in transactions involving community real property as provided in Section 5108.

(b) In the absence of agreement or written power of attorney, husband and wife shall join together in the management, control and disposition of the community property except that each spouse has authority to manage, control and dispose of community personal property to provide necessaries of life for the family.

(c) In dealing with the community property, whether pursuant to an agreement between husband and wife or without agreement, each spouse acts as a trustee for the other and is subject to the rules governing fiduciary relationships prescribed in Title 8 (commencing with Section 2215) of Part 4 of Division 3. If a spouse violates his or her fiduciary obligation under this section the other spouse may petition the superior court for an accounting or other equitable relief, if informal methods of adjustment, including arbitration, are unavailable or have proved unsuccessful The court may make any order necessary to protect the rights of both spouses.

SEC. 14. Section 5108 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5108. All property owned by the husband before marriage, and that acquired afterwards by gift, bequest, devise, or descent, with the rents, issues, and profits thereof, is his separate property. The husband may, without the consent of his wife, convey his separate property.~~

SEC. 15. Section 5108 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

5108 Husband and wife shall join in executing any instrument by which community real property or any interest therein is leased for a longer period then one year, or is sold, conveyed, or encumbered; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to apply to a real property transaction between husband and wife; provided, also, that the sole lease, contract, mortgage or deed of the husband or wife, holding the record title to community real property, to a lessee, purchaser, or encumbrancer, in good faith without knowledge of the marriage relation, shall be presumed to be valid. No action to avoid any instrument mentioned in this section, affecting any property standing of record in the name of the husband or wife alone, executed by the record owner alone, shall be commenced after the expiration of one year from the filing for record of such instrument in the recorder's office in the county in which the land is situate, or after the expiration of one year from the date on which the addition of this section in 1972 takes effect, whichever date is later.

SEC 16. Section 5109 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5109. All money or other property paid by or on behalf of a married person to his spouse in satisfaction of a judgment for damages for personal injuries to the spouse or pursuant to an agreement for the settlement or compromise of a claim for such damages is the separate property of the injured spouse.~~

SEC. 17. Section 5109 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

5109. (a) Where one or both of the spouses are incompetent, the procedure for dealing with and disposing of community property is that prescribed in Chapter 2a (commencing with Section 1435.1) of Division 4 of the Probate Code.

(b) If a spouse is unable, due to absence, separation or other causes not included in subdivision (a), to join in the management, control, and disposition of community property, the other spouse may petition the superior court for permission to manage, control, and dispose of community property alone. If good cause is shown by the petitioner, the court may, after proper notice and a hearing, enter an order authorizing the petitioning spouse to undertake the sole management and disposition of described community property and may issue any other orders it deems just and equitable, or necessary to protect the rights of the other spouse. In its order, the court may impose any restrictions or conditions, including the requirement of a bond conditioned on faithful administration of any proceeds of community property or may require that the proceeds be deposited in a special account subject to withdrawal only upon order of the court. The court may modify its order from time to time or may vacate its order

(c) An order authorized by subdivision (b) of this section affecting real property is void as against a good faith purchaser for value or against a creditor without notice unless the order is recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the real property is located.

SEC. 18 Section 5110 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5110. All other real property situated in this state and all other personal property wherever situated acquired during the marriage by a married person while domiciled in this state, and property held in trust pursuant to Section 5113.5, is community property; but whenever any real or personal property, or any interest therein or encumbrance thereon, is acquired by a married woman by an instrument in writing, the presumption is that the same is her separate property, and if acquired by such married woman and any other person the presumption is that she takes the part acquired by her, as tenant in common, unless a different intention is expressed in the instrument; except, that when any of such property is acquired by husband and wife by an instrument in which they are described as husband and wife, unless a different intention is expressed in the instrument, the presumption is that such property is the community property of said husband and wife and that when a single family residence of a husband and wife is acquired by them during marriage as joint tenants, for the purpose of the division of such property upon dissolution of marriage or legal separation only, the presumption is that such single family residence is the community property of said husband and wife. The presumptions in this section mentioned are conclusive in favor of any person dealing in good faith and for a valuable consideration with such married woman or her legal representatives or successors in interest, and regardless of any change in her marital status after acquisition of said property.~~

~~In cases where a married woman has conveyed, or shall hereafter convey, real property which she acquired prior to May 10, 1880, the husband, or his heirs or assigns, of such married woman, shall be barred from commencing or maintaining any action to show that the real property was community property, or to recover the real property from and after one year from the filing for record in the recorder's office of such conveyances, respectively.~~

~~As used in this section, personal property does not include and real property does include leasehold interests in real property.~~

SEC. 19. Section 5110 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

5110. (a) The property rights of husband and wife are governed by this title, unless there is a marriage settlement containing stipulations contrary thereto.

(b) All contracts for marriage settlements must be in writing, and executed and acknowledged or proved in like manner as a grant of land is required to be executed and acknowledged or proved

(c) When such contract is acknowledged or proved, it must be recorded in the office of the recorder of every county in which any real estate may be situated which is granted or affected by such contract

(d) The recording or nonrecording of such contract has a like effect as the recording or nonrecording of a grant of real property

(e) A minor capable of contracting marriage may make a valid marriage settlement.

SEC 20 Section 5111 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5111. The presumption that property acquired during marriage is community property does not apply to any property to which legal or equitable title is held by a person at the time of his death if the marriage during which the property was acquired was terminated by dissolution of marriage more than four years prior to such death.~~

SEC. 21. Section 5112 of the Civil Code is amended an renumbered to read:

5117 ~~5112~~. If a married person is injured by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of a person other than his or her spouse, the fact that the negligent or wrongful act or omission of the spouse of the injured person was a concurring cause of the injury is not a defense in any action brought by the injured person to recover damages for such injury except in cases where such concurring negligent or wrongful act or omission would be a defense if the marriage did not exist.

SEC. 22. Section 5112 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

5112. (a) A married person's separate property is liable for his or her own debts but is not liable for the debts of his or her spouse contracted before or after the marriage; but such separate property is liable for the payment of debts contracted by either spouse for the necessaries of life furnished to them or either of them while they are living together when there is no community property.

(b) The earnings and community property personal injury damages of a married person are liable for his or her contracts made before or after marriage, but are not liable for the debts of his or her spouse contracted before the marriage.

(c) The community property is liable for the payment of debts heretofore or hereafter contracted by either spouse for the necessaries of life of the family while they are living together, any debts jointly contracted, and any debts contracted by one spouse on behalf of himself or herself and as agent of the other.

(d) The liability of a married person for death or injury to person or property shall be satisfied, first, from the separate property of such married person; second, from the earnings of such married person; and thereafter, from other community property.

(e) As used in this section, "community property personal injury damages" has the meaning given that term by subdivision (b) of Section 4800.

SEC. 23. Section 5113 of the Civil Code is amended and renumbered to read:

5116. (a) Where an injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of his or her spouse, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the tortfeasor spouse to the injured spouse or his or her liability to make contribution to any joint tortfeasor until the separate property of the tortfeasor spouse, not exempt from execution, is exhausted.

(b) This section does not prevent the use of community property to discharge a liability referred to in subdivision (a) if the injured spouse gives written consent thereto after the occurrence of the injury.

(c) This section does not affect the right to indemnity provided by any insurance or other contract to discharge the tortfeasor spouse's liability, whether or not the consideration given for such contract consisted of community property.

SEC 24 Section 5113 5 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5113 5. Where community property, before or after the effective date of this section, is transferred by the husband and wife to a trust, regardless of the identity of the trustee, which trust originally or as amended prior or subsequent to such transfer (a) is revocable in whole or in part during their joint lives, (b) provides that the property after transfer to the trust shall remain community property and any withdrawal therefrom shall be their community property, (c) grants the trustee during their joint lives powers no more extensive than those possessed by a husband under Sections 5125 and 5127, except as to property described in Section 5124 respecting which the trustee's powers shall be no more extensive than those possessed by a wife under Section 5124, and (d) is subject to amendment or alteration during their joint lifetime upon their joint consent, the property so transferred to such trust, and the interests of the spouses in such trust, shall be community poperty during the continuance of the marriage, unless the trust otherwise expressly provides. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect community property which, before or after the effective date of this section, is transferred in a manner other than as described in this section or to a trust containing different provisions than those set forth in this section, nor shall this section be construed to prohibit the trustee from conveying any trust property, real or personal, in accordance with the provisions of the trust without the consent of the husband or wife unless the trust expresly requires the consent of one or both spouses.~~

SEC. 25 Section 5114 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5114. A full and complete inventory of the separate personal property of either spouse may be made out and signed by such spouse, acknowledged or proved in the manner required by law for the acknowledgment or proof of a grant of real property, and recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the parties reside.~~

SEC. 26 Section 5115 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5115. The filing of the inventory in the recorder's office is notice and prima facie evidence of the title of the party filing such inventory.~~

SEC 27 Section 5115 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

5115 A married person is not liable for any injury or damage caused by the other spouse except in cases where he or she would be liable therefor if the marriage did not exist

SEC 28 Section 5116 of the Civil Code is repealed

~~5116. The property of the community is not liable for the contracts of the wife, made after marriage, unless secured by pledge or mortgage thereof executed by the husband. Except as otherwise provided by law, the earnings of the wife are liable for her contracts heretofore or hereafter made before or after marriage.~~

SEC 29. Section 5117 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5117. The earnings and community property personal injury damages of the wife are not liable for the debts of the husband; but, except as otherwise provided by law, such earnings and damages shall be liable for the payment of debts, heretofore or hereafter contracted by the husband or wife for the necessities of life furnished to them or either of them while they are living together. As used in this section, "community property personal injury damages" has the meaning given that term by subdivision (b) of Section 4800.~~

SEC. 30. Section 5118 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5118. The earnings and accumulations of a spouse and the minor children living with, or in the custody of, the spouse, while living separate and apart from the other spouse, are the separate property of the spouse.~~

SEC. 31. Section 5119 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5119. After the rendition of a judgment decreeing legal separation of the parties, the earnings or accumulations of each party are the separate property of the party acquiring such earnings or accumulations.~~

SEC 32. Section 5120 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5120. Neither the separate property of the husband nor his earnings after marriage is liable for the debts of the wife contracted before the marriage.~~

SEC. 33. Section 5121 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5121. The separate property of the wife is liable for her own debts contracted before or after her marriage, but is not liable for her husband's debts; provided, that the separate property of the wife is liable for the payment of debts contracted by the husband or wife for the necessaries of life furnished to them or either of them while they are living together; provided, that the provisions of the foregoing proviso shall not apply to the separate property of the wife held by her at the time of her marriage or acquired by her by devise, succession, or gift, other than by gift from the husband, after marriage.~~

SEC. 34. Section 5122 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5122. (a) A married person is not liable for any injury or damage caused by the other spouse except in cases where he would be liable therefor if the marriage did not exist.~~

~~(b) The liability of a married person for death or injury to person or property may be satisfied only from the separate property of such married person and the community property of which he has the management and control.~~

SEC. 35. Section 5123 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5123. The separate property of the wife is not liable for any debt or obligation secured by a mortgage, deed of trust or other hypothecation of the community property, unless the wife expressly assents in writing to the liability of her separate property for such debt or obligation.~~

SEC. 36. Section 5124 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5124. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 5105 and 5125, the wife has the management and control of the community personal property earned by her, and the community personal property received by her in satisfaction of a judgment for damages for personal injuries~~

~~suffered by her or pursuant to an agreement for the settlement or compromise of a claim for such damages, until it is commingled with community property subject to the management and control of the husband, except that the husband may use such community property received as damages or in settlement or compromise of a claim for such damages to pay for expenses incurred by reason of the wife's personal injuries and to reimburse his separate property or the community property subject to his management and control for expenses paid by reason of the wife's personal injuries.~~

~~The wife may not make a gift of the community property under her management and control, or dispose of the same without a valuable consideration, without the written consent of the husband. The wife may not make a testamentary disposition of such community property except as otherwise permitted by law.~~

~~This section shall not be construed as making such earnings or damages or property received in settlement or compromise of such damages the separate property of the wife, nor as changing the respective interests of the husband and wife in such community property, as defined in Section 5105.~~

SEC 37 Section 5125 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5125. Except as provided in Sections 5113.5, 5124, and 5128, the husband has the management and control of the community personal property, with like absolute power of disposition, other than testamentary, as he has of his separate estate; provided, however, that he cannot make a gift of such community personal property, or dispose of the same without a valuable consideration, or sell, convey, or encumber the furniture, furnishings, or fittings of the home, or the clothing or wearing apparel of the wife or minor children that is community, without the written consent of the wife.~~

SEC. 38. Section 5126 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5126. (a) All money or other property received by a married person in satisfaction of a judgment for damages for his personal injuries or pursuant to an agreement for the settlement or compromise of a claim for such damages is the separate property of the injured person if such money or other property is received as follows:~~

~~(1) After the rendition of a decree of legal separation or a final judgment of dissolution of a marriage.~~

~~(2) While the wife, if she is the injured person, is living separate from her husband.~~

~~(3) After the rendition of an interlocutory decree of dissolution of a marriage and while the injured person and his spouse are living separate and apart.~~

~~(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), if the spouse of the injured person has paid expenses by reason of his spouse's personal injuries from his separate property or from the community property subject to his management and control, he is entitled to reimbursement of his separate property or the community property subject to his management and control for such expenses from the separate property received by his spouse under subdivision (a).~~

SEC. 39. Section 5127 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5127. Except as provided in Sections 5113.5 and 5128, the husband has the management and control of the community real property, but the wife, either personally or by duly authorized agent, must join with him in executing any instrument by which such community real property or any interest therein is leased for a longer period than one year, or is sold, conveyed, or encumbered; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to apply to a lease, mortgage, conveyance, or transfer of real property or of any interest in real property between husband and wife; provided, also, however, that the sole lease, contract, mortgage or deed of the husband, holding the record title to community real property, to a lessee, purchaser, or encumbrancer, in good faith without knowledge of the marriage relation, shall be presumed to be valid. No action to avoid any instrument mentioned in this section, affecting any property standing of record in the name of the husband alone, executed by the husband alone, shall be commenced after the expiration of one year from the filing for record of such instrument in the recorder's office in the county in which the land is situate, and no action to avoid any instrument mentioned in this section, affecting any property standing of record in the name of the husband alone, which was executed by the husband alone and filed for record prior to the time this act takes effect, in the recorder's office in the county in which the land is situate, shall be commenced after the expiration of one year from the date on which this act takes effect.~~

SEC. 40. Section 5128 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5128. Where one or both of the spouses are incompetent, the procedure for dealing with and disposing of community property is that prescribed in Chapter 2a (commencing with Section 1435.1) of Division 4 of the Probate Code.~~

SEC. 41. Section 5129 of the Civil Code is amended and renumbered to read:

5111 ~~5129~~. No estate is allowed the husband as tenant by courtesy upon the death of his wife, nor is any estate in dower allotted to the wife upon the death of her husband.

SEC. 42. Section 5130 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5130. If the husband neglects to make adequate provision for the support of his wife, except in the case mentioned in Section 5131, any other person may in good faith, supply her with articles necessary for her support, and recover the reasonable value thereof from the husband.~~

SEC. 43. Section 5131 of the Civil Code is amended and renumbered to read:

~~5131~~ 5114. A ~~husband~~ married person is not liable for his ~~wife's~~ or her spouse's support when ~~she~~ is they are living separate ~~from him~~ by agreement unless such support is stipulated in the agreement.

SEC. 44. Section 5132 of the Civil Code is amended and renumbered to read:

~~5132~~ 5113. ~~The wife~~ Husband and wife contract toward each other obligations of mutual support. Each must support the ~~husband~~ other while they are living together out of his or her separate property when ~~he~~ the spouse has no separate property, and there is no community property or quasi-community property and ~~he~~ the spouse is unable, from infirmity, to support himself or herself.

For the purposes of this section, the terms "quasi-community property" and "separate property" have the meanings given those terms by Sections 4803 and 4804.

SEC. 45. Section 5133 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5133. The property rights of husband and wife are governed by this title, unless there is a marriage settlement containing stipulations contrary thereto.~~

SEC 46. Section 5134 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5134. All contracts for marriage settlements must be in writing, and executed and acknowledged or proved in like manner as a grant of land is required to be executed and acknowledged or proved.~~

SEC. 47. Section 5135 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5135. When such contract is acknowledged or proved, it must be recorded in the office of the recorder of every county in which any real estate may be situated which is granted or affected by such contract.~~

SEC 48 Section 5136 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5136. The recording or nonrecording of such contract has a like effect as the recording or nonrecording of a grant of real property.~~

SEC. 49. Section 5137 of the Civil Code is repealed.

~~5137. A minor capable of contracting marriage may make a valid marriage settlement.~~

SEC. 50. Section 5138 of the Civil Code is amended and renumbered to read:

5119 ~~5138~~. For the purpose of application of the laws of succession set forth in the Probate Code to a decedent, and for the purpose of determining the validity of a marriage under the laws of this state, an alliance entered into prior to 1958, which, by custom of the Indian tribe, band, or group of which the parties to the alliance, or either of them, are members, is commonly recognized in such tribe, band, or group as marriage, is deemed a valid marriage under the laws of this state. In the case of such marriages and for such purpose a separation, which, by custom of the Indian tribe, band, or group of which the separating parties, or either of them, are members, is commonly recognized in such tribe, band, or group as a dissolution of marriage, is deemed a valid divorce under the laws of this state."

"SECTION 1. Division 7.5 (commencing with Section 9051) is added to the Education Code, to read:

DIVISION 7.5. READING INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Statement of Legislative Intent

9051 It is the intent and purpose of the Legislature in enacting this division to provide for the acquisition of instructional materials for reading in the elementary schools.

9052. For purposes of any provision of the California Constitution which requires the adoption of a series of textbooks for use in the elementary schools, the state board shall have the power, subject to the provisions of this division, to adopt reading textbooks for the elementary schools. For such purposes the term "elementary schools" shall have the meaning prescribed by Section 9072.

9053. The Legislature hereby recognizes that, because of the common needs and interests of the citizens of this state and the nation, there is a need to establish general educational guidelines for the selection of reading instructional materials in the public elementary schools.

Article 2. Definitions

9061. For the purpose of this division the definitions set forth in this article shall govern the construction of this division

9062. "Instruction material" means all materials designed for use by pupils and their teachers as a learning resource and which help pupils to acquire facts or skills or to develop cognitive processes Instructional materials may be printed or nonprinted and may include textbooks, educational materials and tests.

9063. "Instructional materials system" means a comprehensive collection of related instructional materials which are designed to improve learning in one or more subjects and are so designed that all parts of the system are necessary to produce the results intended.

9064. "Textbook" means a book designed for use by pupils as a source of instructional material, or a teachers edition of the same book.

9065 "Educational material" means any audiovisual or manipulative device including, but not limited to films, tapes, flashcards, kits, phonograph records, study prints, graphs, charts and multimedia systems Educational materials do not constitute equipment as defined in the California School Accounting manual.

9066. "Test" means any device used to measure the knowledge or achievement of students.

9067. "State board" means the State Board of Education.

9068. "Commission" means the Curriculum Development and Supplemental Materials Commission.

9069. "District board" means that board of education or governing board of any county, city and county, city or other district which has the duty to provide for the education of the children in its county, city and county, city or district.

9070. "Governing boards" means the state board and any one or more district boards.

9071. "School official" means any member of any governing board, any city, county, city and county or district superintendent of schools, and any principal, teacher or other employee under his charge.

9072. "Elementary school" means all public and nonpublic schools in which instruction is given through grade eight or in any one or more of such grades.

9073. "Nonpublic school" means a school satisfying the requirements of Section 12154 of the Education Code, if such school is exempt from taxation under Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

Article 3. Content Requirements for Reading Instructional Materials

9081. No reading instructional materials shall be adopted by any governing board for use in the schools which contains:

(a) Any matter reflecting adversely upon persons because of their race, color, creed, national origin, ancestry, sex or occupation.

(b) Any sectarian or denominational doctrine or propaganda contrary to law.

9082. All reading instructional materials adopted by any governing board for use in the schools shall be suited to the needs and comprehension of pupils according to their abilities. Such materials shall be accurate and objective.

9083. If any reading instructional material offered for adoption or sale violates the requirements of this article the state board shall order the publisher or manufacturer to cease to offer or sell such reading instructional materials If such an order is made, it shall be unlawful for any school to purchase or order such reading instructional material or to continue the use of such reading material beyond the close of the current school year.

Article 4. Bond of Publisher or Manufacturer

9091. Every publisher or manufacturer of reading instructional materials offered for adoption or sale in California shall file with the state board a bond in a form approved by the Attorney General payable to the State of California in a sum to be determined by the state board. The sum of the bond shall be not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

9092. The bond shall provide that the publisher or manufacturer will comply with all the requirements and provisions of this division.

9093. The bond shall further provide that the publisher or manufacturer will maintain an office and depository in California or arrange with an independently owned and operated depository in California to receive and fill orders for reading instructional materials.

9094. The bond shall further provide that the publisher or manufacturer will:

(a) Furnish the reading instructional materials offered by him at a price at the depository in California which, including all costs of transportation to that place, shall not exceed the lowest price at which the publisher offers such reading instructional materials for adoption or sale to any state or school district in the United States.

(b) Automatically reduce the price of such reading instructional materials to any governing board to the extent that reductions are made elsewhere in the United States.

(c) Provide any reading instructional materials or services free of charge in California to the same extent as that received by any state or school district in the United States.

(d) Guarantee that all copies of any reading instructional materials sold in California shall be at least equal in quality to the copies of such reading instructional materials that are sold elsewhere in the United States.

(e) Not in any way, directly or indirectly, become associated or connected with any combination in restraint of trade in reading instructional materials, and that he will not enter into any understanding, agreement, or combination to control prices or restrict competition in the sale of reading instructional materials for use in the State of California.

(f) Upon the willful failure of the publisher or manufacturer to comply with the requirements of this section, be liable to the governing board in the amount of three times the total sum which the publisher or manufacturer was paid in excess of the price required under subdivisions (a) and (b) and (c), and in the amount of three times the total value of the reading instructional materials and services which the governing board is entitled to receive free of charge under subdivision (c).

9095. The provisions of Section 9094 shall apply to the purchase of reading instructional materials under Sections 7203 and 7352 of this code.

9096 It is a misdemeanor for any publisher or manufacturer of reading instructional materials, or his representative, to offer for adoption or sale any reading instructional material in California unless the publisher or manufacturer has placed on file with the state board a valid bond, conditioned as provided in Article 4 (commencing with Section 9091) of this chapter, in full force and effect.

Article 5. Prohibited Acts

9101. No school official shall require any pupil, except pupils in classes for adults or community colleges, to purchase any reading instructional material for the pupils' use in the schools.

9102. No publisher or manufacturer of reading instructional materials, nor any of his representatives, shall offer or give any emolument, money or other valuable thing, or any inducement, to any school official to directly or indirectly introduce, recommend, vote for, or otherwise influence the adoption or purchase of any reading instructional material.

9103. No school official shall accept any emolument, money or other valuable thing, or any inducement to directly or indirectly introduce, recommend, vote for, or otherwise influence the adoption or purchase of any reading instructional material.

9104. Any publisher or manufacturer of instructional materials, or his representative, or any school official, who violates any of the provisions of this article is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any school official shall, in addition to any other penalty, be removed from his official position.

9105. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any publisher, manufacturer, or agent from supplying for purposes of examination necessary sample copies of reading instructional materials to any school official.

9106. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a school official from receiving sample copies of reading instructional materials. All copies of reading materials so received shall be returned within 30 days after adoption or purchase.

9107. Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to prohibit or restrict a teacher from receiving royalties or other compensation from the publisher or manufacturer of reading instructional materials written, designed, or prepared by such teacher, and adopted or purchased by any governing board, other than compensation paid as commission to the teacher for negotiating sales to governing boards No district shall have or claim the right to receive any such royalty or other compensation due to any teacher employed by the district unless the reading instructional material was written or prepared during the normal schoolday during which the teacher is required by the district to be on duty.

Article 6. Reports

9111. Each district board shall make reports, whenever required, directly to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, concerning the reading instructional materials used in its schools.

CHAPTER 2. ELEMENTARY READING INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

Article 1. State Adoption and Selection

9121. The state board annually shall adopt a list of reading instructional materials and reading instructional materials systems for reading which shall be utilized in the following manner.

(a) The state list, accompanied by samples of reading instructional materials and reading instructional materials systems, shall be sent to district boards as resource material for determining selection of reading instructional materials and reading instructional materials systems for elementary schools within districts.

(b) District boards may amend the state list by deleting or adding reading instructional materials and reading instructional materials systems.

(c) Copies of district-approved lists shall be furnished to every elementary school within a district.

(d) Staffs of every elementary school shall determine which reading instructional materials and reading instructional materials systems most adequately meet the needs of their students and requisition those materials.

(e) Before requisitions are submitted to district boards, local schools shall make such materials available for public inspection for 15 school days on school grounds.

9122. In adopting the annual list of reading instructional material the state board may do any one or more of the following:

(a) Retain any reading instructional materials from the previous years' list.

(b) Delete from the previous years' list any material which it determines is obsolete pursuant to law, or which received no order from any district board during the previous year

(c) Add reading instructional materials not previously submitted for adoption, or reading materials previously submitted which have been revised to comply with any recommendations of the board

9123. Before final adoption of any reading instructional materials not currently listed, the state board shall make such materials available for public inspection for 30 days in offices of each county superintendent of schools.

9124. The state board shall give the Curriculum Development and Supplemental Materials Commission a public hearing before making any adoption of reading instructional materials for use in the elementary schools of the state

9125. The commission shall:

(a) Develop criteria for evaluating reading instructional materials submitted for adoption so that the materials adopted shall adequately develop basic reading skills Such criteria shall be public information and shall be provided in written or printed form to any person requesting such information

(b) Study and evaluate all reading instructional materials submitted for adoption.

(c) Recommend to the state board reading instructional materials which it approves for adoption for each grade level from kindergarten to eighth grade

9126. The commission may, in order to fulfill its duties pursuant to Section 9125, appoint task forces or committees of reading experts to assist and advise them Each task force or committee appointed by the commission shall not exceed 50 members and shall include classroom teachers as defined in Section 321 as a majority of each task force or committee Accurate records of the advice and recommendations of each task force or committee member shall be maintained by the commission, and made available to the state board at its request.

Article 2 Duties of Publishers and Manufacturers

9131. All publishers and manufacturers submitting reading instructional materials for adoption by the state board shall comply with the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 9051) of this division.

9132. Publishers and manufacturers submitting reading instructional materials for adoption shall provide sample copies of such materials.

9133. Publishers and manufacturers shall, at the time that they submit sample copies of their reading instructional materials, submit the following information:

(a) Detailed specifications of the physical characteristics of such material. Such specifications shall be complied with by the publisher or manufacturer if the material is adopted and purchased in completed form by the state board or any district board. If the material is adopted under a lease contract, the Department of General Services shall follow comparable specifications in manufacturing the material. Changes in specifications may be made when approved by the state board.

(b) A price schedule for the sale of completed materials to the state.

(c) A price schedule for the lease and or purchase by the state of plates, films, and other materials.

(d) A price schedule of royalty costs to be paid to the publisher or manufacturer whenever the state manufactures and distributes to school districts any such materials

9134. Publishers and manufacturers shall make available for purchase by any governing board any diagnostic, criterion or other tests that they may develop.

9135. At the request of any district board, publishers and manufacturers shall provide in-service training in the use of reading instructional materials produced by them.

9136. Publishers and manufacturers shall, in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the state board, develop plans to improve the quality and reliability of reading instructional materials through learner verification. The state board may, with the consent of the district board, permit publishers and manufacturers to have limited access to classrooms for necessary testing and observation. The state board shall require publishers and manufacturers to provide it with copies of test results and evaluations made as part of learner verification.

Article 3. State Reading Instructional Materials Fund

9141. There is hereby created the State Reading Instructional Materials Fund, effective July 1, 1973, Allotments per pupil enrolled in the elementary schools will be determined by the Curriculum Development and Supplemental Materials Commission. The fund shall be a means of annually funding the acquisition of instructional materials as required by the Constitution of the State of California The fund shall be permanent. Any balance remaining at the end of any fiscal year may be carried over into the subsequent fiscal year as part of the State Reading Instructional Materials Fund, before such funds revert to the General Fund.

9142. The fund shall be administered by the State Department of Education under policies established by the state board It is the intent of the Legislature that the fund shall provide for flexibility of reading instructional materials. The fund shall constitute:

(a) A credit for use by district boards from which to order reading instructional materials adopted by the state board.

(b) A cash allotment, not to exceed 50 percent of the district board's credit, for use in purchasing reading instructional materials from any source.

(c) A credit or cash allotment for use by district boards for the purchase of tests or in-service training pursuant to Sections 9134 and 9135.

(d) An allotment to the Department of Education of not to exceed 10 percent of the fund, for state operating and overhead expenses, including warehousing and shipment.

9143. The State Department of Education shall annually apportion to each elementary school district, after deductions allowed by subdivision (d) of Section 9142, a credit based on an allotment per pupil determined by the Curriculum Development and Supplemental Materials Commission of all unencumbered moneys in the fund.

9145. District boards which do not use their entire credit in any fiscal year shall have the unexpended balance encumbered in their favor and shall be carried over into the subsequent fiscal year as part of the credit of the district.

9146. To carry out the provisions of this article, all appropriations made by the Legislature for the acquisition of reading textbooks or other reading instructional materials are hereby transferred to the State Reading Instructional Materials Fund.

Article 4. Local Ordering Procedures

9151. It is the intent of the Legislature in adopting this article that district boards order reading instructional materials which meet the needs of pupils in their district, and which relate to their courses of study as adopted pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 7500).

9153. District boards shall provide for substantial teacher involvement in selecting reading instructional materials.

9154 District boards shall order reading instructional materials on forms provided by the Department of Education Such forms shall include, or be accompanied by, information concerning the grade or grades for which each reading instructional material is intended, and the unit cost of such material, as computed pursuant to Section 9144, which will be deducted from the credit of the district when ordered.

9155.. All district orders for reading instructional materials shall be forwarded to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for procurement of such materials pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 9161) of this chapter. However, in cases where the district does not qualify as a city school district and is an elementary district with fewer than 901 average daily attendance or a unified district with fewer than 1,501 average daily attendance, the county superintendent of schools shall approve the orders for reading instructional materials by such districts before forwarding to the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Article 5. State Procurement of Reading Instructional Materials

9161. The state board shall cause to be acquired and distributed any reading instructional materials ordered by district boards pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 9131) of this chapter.

9162. The state board may acquire reading instructional materials included in any list adopted by the board for use in the elementary schools, by any one or more of the following means determined by the board to be in the best interests of the state:

(a) Purchase them.

(b) Compile them, or cause them to be compiled and manufacture them.

(c) Lease plates, films, maps, engravings, or copyright matter for use in manufacturing them.

(d) Contract for, or lease copyrights for use in compiling printing, or publishing them.

(e) Provide for the payment of royalties or for the leasing of plates or for making the whole or any part of the material and do any or all things that may be necessary for the purpose of procuring materials for use in the elementary schools.

(f) Arrange for the printing of reading textbooks by the Department of General Services.

(g) Produce or contract for the production of reading textbooks in braille, large print, recordings or other media for the use of handicapped minors, including the visually handicapped.

9163 The cost of reading instructional materials acquired in any manner pursuant to Section 9162 shall be paid out of the State Reading Instructional Materials Fund.

9164. The State Board of Education, before purchasing reading instructional materials from any source other than the Department of General Services, shall file with the Department of General Services a statement showing:

(a) The price which will be paid for the materials

(b) The cause preventing its production by the Department of General Services.

(c) Evidence that will support the fact that the publisher or manufacturer actually refused to lease copyright matter, if such refusal is assigned as a cause preventing the production of the material by the Department of General Services.

9165. Subject to the approval of the state board or a representative of the state board appointed to supervise the work, the Department of General Services shall have supervision of all the mechanical work connected with the printing of such reading textbooks as may be compiled and adopted. The Department of General Services, after printing and binding the reading books, shall deliver them to the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

9166. The Department of General Services shall receive payment on the approval of the items of cost by the state board or its duly authorized agent.

9167. The amount fixed for royalty and costs of plates or copyright matter in favor of any company, or individual, shall be presented by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to the state board for its approval. Claims shall be paid quarterly, in the same manner as other claims upon the State Treasury.

9168. The Department of General Services shall furnish one copy of a cost-finding report showing items of work and the materials and the exact cost of each item for each of the lot of reading books, to the state board.

9169. On receiving a copy of the cost-finding report and the estimated cost of the publishing of any reading book, the state board shall determine and fix the cost price of the books The cost price shall be determined by adding: (a) the cost of manufacture, (b) the contract price to be paid as royalty or for the use of platea maps, engravings, or copyrighted matter, and (c) overhead expense, which shall be computed at 10 percent of items (a) and (b).

9170. The cost price shall be deemed to be the whole cost of publication of the reading book at Sacramento.

9171. The Department of General Services shall on the first day of each month furnish to the state board a detailed statement showing the name and number of reading books published by it during the preceding month, and the number in course of publication.

9172. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall arrange for the warehousing and shipping of all reading instructional materials in the most economical and timely manner.

9173. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall arrange for the redistribution of surplus reading instructional materials to districts reporting insufficient quantities of such materials.

Article 6. Other Uses of Elementary Reading Instructional Materials

9181. The following individuals or organizations may order reading instructional materials from lists adopted by the state board:

(a) The head of any state institution offering reading instruction in the elementary grades or giving instruction in the teaching of reading.

(b) District boards of high school districts offering special reading programs where such materials would be necessary.

(c) Private schools, individuals or dealers.

Such materials shall be purchased at the unit cost determined pursuant to Section 9144.

9182. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall keep an accurate account of the amount of money received from the sale of reading instructional materials and report to the Controller in accordance with provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 16300) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The amount of money collected therefor shall be paid into the Treasury to the credit of the State Reading Instructional Materials Fund.

9183. The state board shall make available copies of adopted reading textbooks in large print for pupils enrolled in the elementary schools whose visual acuity is 20/70 or less or who have other visual impairment making the use of such textbooks necessary. The state board shall make available adopted textbooks in braille characters for pupils enrolled in elementary schools whose corrected visual acuity is 20/200 or less.

9184. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish and maintain a central clearinghouse-depository and duplication center for reading instructional materials and reading instructional material systems for the use of visually handicapped students enrolled in the public schools of California who may require their use as shall be determined by the state board.

Such reading instructional materials in specialized media shall be available to other handicapped minors enrolled in the public schools of California who are unable to benefit from the use of conventional print copies of reading instructional materials and reading instructional materials systems in a manner determined by the state board.

9185. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall make available to pupils entitled to attend the public schools of California, but in attendance at a school other than a public school under the provisions of Section 12154, the items specified in Section 9184 without cost to the pupils or to the nonpublic school which they attend.

9186. The state board shall make available to pupils entitled to attend the public elementary schools of the district, but in attendance at a school other than a public school under the provisions of Section 12154, reading instructional materials adopted by the board for use in the public elementary schools. No charge shall be made to any pupil for the use of such adopted materials.

Reading materials shall be made available pursuant to this section only to the same extent that materials are made available to students in attendance in public elementary schools, except that no cash allotment may be made to any nonpublic school.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Committee on Government Administration

Assembly Chamber, April 25, 1972

Mr Speaker: The Chairman of your Committee on Government Administration reports:

AB No 515

With author's amendments with the recommendation: Amend, and re-refer to the Committee on Government Administration.

RUSSELL, Chairman

SECOND READING OF BILLS—AUTHOR'S AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 515—An act to add Article 6 (commencing with Section 53100) to Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, relating to local emergency telephone systems.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out line 8, and insert "it is in the public interest to shorten the time required for a citizen to request and receive emergency aid. There currently exist thousands of different emergency phone numbers throughout the state, and present telephone exchange boundaries and central service areas do not necessarily correspond to public safety and political boundaries. Provision of a single, primary three-digit emergency number through which emergency services can be quickly and efficiently obtained would provide a significant contribution to law enforcement and other public-service efforts by making it less difficult to quickly notify public-safety personnel. Such a simplified means of procuring emergency services will result in the saving of life, a reduction in the destruction of property, quicker apprehension of criminals, and ultimately the saving of money The Legislature further finds and declares that the establishment of a uniform, statewide emergency number is a matter of statewide concern and interest to all inhabitants and citizens of this state. It is the purpose of this act to establish the number "911" as the primary emergency telephone number for use in this state and to encourage units of local government and combinations of such units to develop and improve emergency communication procedures and facilities in such a manner as to be able to respond to any person calling the telephone number "911" seeking police, fire, medical, rescue, and other emergency services.

53101 "Public agency," as used in this article, means the state, and any city, county, city and county, municipal corporation, public district, or public authority located in whole or in part within this state which provides or has authority to provide firefighting, police, ambulance, medical, or other emergency services.

53102. "Public safety agency," as used in this article, means a functional division of a public agency which provides firefighting, police, medical, or other emergency services

53103. "Direct dispatch method," as used in this article, means a telephone service providing for the dispatch of an appropriate emergency service unit upon receipt of a telephone request for such services and a decision as to the proper action to be taken

53104. "Relay method," as used in this article, means a telephone service whereby pertinent information is noted by the recipient of a telephone request for emergency services, and is relayed to appropriate public safety agencies or other providers of emergency services for dispatch of an emergency service unit

53105. "Transfer method," as used in this article, means a telephone service which receives telephone requests for emergency services and directly transfers such requests to an appropriate public safety agency or other provider of emergency services

53106. "Referral method," as used in this article, means a telephone service which, upon the receipt of a telephone request for emergency services, provides the requesting party with the telephone number of the appropriate public safety agency or other provider of emergency services.

53107. "Basic system" as used in this article, means a telephone service which automatically connects a person dialing the digits "911" to an established public safety answering point through normal telephone service facilities.

53108. "Sophisticated system," as used in this article, means a basic system with the additional capability of automatic identification of the caller's number, holding the incoming call, reconnection on the same telephone line, clearing a telephone line, or automatic call routing or combinations of such capabilities.

53109. Every public agency within its respective jurisdiction shall establish and have in operation by December 31, 1982, a basic or sophisticated system as specified in this article

The establishment of such systems shall be centralized to the extent feasible. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit or discourage in any way the formation of multijurisdictional or regional systems, and any system established pursuant to this article may include the territory of more than one public agency or may include a segment of the territory of a public agency.

53110. Every system shall include police, firefighting, and emergency medical and ambulance services, and may include other emergency services, in the discretion of the affected local public agency, such as poison control services, suicide prevention services, and civil defense services The system may incorporate private ambulance service.

53111. The digits "911" shall be the primary emergency telephone number within the system, but a public agency or public safety agency may maintain a separate secondary backup number.

53112. All systems shall be designed to meet the specific requirements of each community and public agency served by the system. Every system, whether basic or sophisticated, shall be designed to have the capability of utilizing at least three of the methods specified in Sections 53103 to 53106, inclusive, in response to emergency calls. The Legislature finds and declares that the most critical aspect of the design of any system is the procedure established for handling a telephone request for emergency services.

In addition, to maximize efficiency and utilization of the system, all pay telephones within each system shall, by December 31, 1982, enable a caller to dial "911" for emergency services without the necessity of inserting a coin.

53113 The Legislature finds that, because of overlapping jurisdiction of public agencies, public safety agencies, and telephone service areas, a general overview or plan should be developed prior to the establishment of any system In order to insure that proper preparation and implementation of such systems is accomplished by all public agencies by January 1, 1982, the Attorney General shall secure compliance by public agencies as provided in this article.

53114. The Attorney General shall coordinate the implementation of systems established pursuant to the provisions of this article. The Attorney General shall assist local public agencies and local public safety agencies in obtaining financial help to establish emergency telephone service, and shall aid such agencies in the formulation of concepts, methods, and procedures which will improve the operation of systems required by this article and which will increase cooperation between public safety agencies

To accomplish the responsibilities specified in this section, the Attorney General is directed to consult at regular intervals with the State Fire Marshal, the Communications Division of the Department of General Services, the State Department of Public Health, the Governor's Office of Traffic Safety, the Office of Emergency Preparedness, the California Council on Criminal Justice, the public utilities in this state providing telephone service, the League of California Cities, the County Supervisors' Association of California, the Associated Public Safety Communications Officers, and the Bureau of Emergency Medical Service.

53115 (a) On or before January 31, 1975, all public agencies shall submit tentative plans for the establishment of a system required by this article to the public utility or utilities providing public telephone service within the respective jurisdiction of each public agency. A copy of each such plan shall be filed with the Attorney General.

(b) On or before January 31, 1977, all public agencies shall submit final plans for the establishment of the system to such utilities, and shall make arrangements with such utilities for the implementation of the planned emergency telephone system no later than December 31, 1982. A copy of the plan required by this subdivision shall be filed with the Attorney General.

(c) If any public agency has implemented or is a part of a system required by this article on a deadline specified in subdivision (a) or (b), such public agency shall submit in lieu of the tentative or final plan a report describing the system and stating its operational date.

53116. The Attorney General may obtain a mandatory injunction to enforce the provisions of Sections 53109 and 53115. The injunction may, in addition to securing the compliance of a public agency, order a public utility providing telephone service to cooperate with a public agency in establishing a system pursuant to this article.

53117. (a) On or before February 16, 1975, and again on or before February 16, 1977, the Attorney General shall report to the Legislature the progress in the implementation of systems required by this article. Such reports shall contain his recommendations for additional legislation.

(b) In December of 1973 and in December of 1974 the Attorney General shall submit recommendations to the Department of Finance and to the Governor specifying amounts necessary to further implement the organization of telephone systems specified in this article during the succeeding fiscal year.

53118. The Legislature declares that a major purpose in enacting this article is to eliminate instances in which a responding emergency service refuses to render aid to the requester because the requester is outside of the jurisdictional boundaries of the emergency service. Therefore, in implementing systems pursuant to this article, all public agencies in a single system shall annually enter into a joint powers agreement or any other form of written cooperative agreement which is applicable when need arises on a day to day basis. In addition, such agreements shall be entered into between public agencies and public safety agencies which are part of different systems but whose jurisdictional boundaries are contiguous. The agreements shall provide that, once an emergency unit is dispatched in response to a telephone request through the system, such unit shall render its services to the requesting party without regard to whether the unit is operating outside its normal jurisdictional boundaries.

53119. Copies of the annual agreement required by Section 53118 shall be filed with the Attorney General. Commencing with the year 1983, all such agreements shall be so filed prior to the 31st day of January. The Attorney General shall obtain a mandatory injunction ordering compliance by any public agency or public safety agency which fails to enter into an agreement as required by Section 53118."

"SECTION 1. Section 13107 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed

~~13107. If there is reason to believe that any fire has resulted from crime or that crime has been committed in connection with any fire, the State Fire Marshal shall report that fact in writing to the district attorney of the county in which the fire occurred. If the fire occurred in a city or county having a regularly organized fire department, such investigations and reports shall be made in conjunction with the fire official of that area.~~

SEC. 2 Section 13107 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

13107. (a) The State Fire Marshal shall investigate every explosion or fire occurring in those areas of the state not under the jurisdiction of a legally organized fire department or fire protection district in which there is suspicion that the crime of arson or attempted arson has been committed.

(b) Upon request of the chief fire official of a legally organized fire department, or the governing body of a fire protection district, the State Fire Marshal shall investigate any explosion or fire occurring within the jurisdiction of the fire department or fire protection district in which there is suspicion that the crime of arson or attempted arson has been committed.

(c) The State Fire Marshal shall establish a program for training local fire department personnel in arson investigation and detection.

(d) In order to carry out his responsibilities and duties pursuant to this section, the State Fire Marshal shall establish an arson investigation unit within his office, which shall be staffed with necessary personnel to perform the function for which the unit is established."

Bill ordered reprinted, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Criminal Justice.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following Message from the Governor was received, and by unanimous consent, ordered printed in the Journal, and the accompanying report ordered filed with the Secretary of State:

Governor's Office, Sacramento
April 26, 1972

The Honorable Ed Reinecke, President of the Senate, and Members of the Senate
The Honorable Bob Moretti, Speaker of the Assembly, and Members of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

Gentlemen: Pursuant to Chapter 1534, Statutes of 1970, I am pleased to transmit the State of California's First Environmental Goals and Policy Report

The report provides environmental goals and policies for all levels of government in the state for use in planning future growth and development. It contains basic principles which set forth in concise language the roles of state and local government in dealing with environmental concerns.

The report is divided into four sections:

1. Environmental Pollution
2. Environmental Resources
3. Environmental Resources Planning
4. Maps

The environmental pollution section probes the root causes of specific areas of concern and contains detailed goals and specific policies designed to achieve the stated goals Areas of concern include air, land use, noise, pesticides, population, solid waste, transportation, and water.

Identified in the environmental resources section are the following areas of critical concern · scientific, scenic and educational resources; wildlife habitats, forest and agriculture, open space surrounding metropolitan areas; beaches, lakes and riverbank access; connecting links for recreation; historic, archaeological and cultural resources; lands of hazardous concern.

The environmental resources planning section contains major recommendations on land use, including the creation of a state Department of Environmental Protection to be the focal point for pollution abatement activities and programs of state government.

Another major recommendation in this section is the establishment of the Environmental Resources Protection Plan, a realistic approach to protecting the state's land and water resources.

The map section assembles up-to-date information never before brought together in one state document. It is a compilation of succinct data relating directly to the social, economic and environmental attributes and problems that make up the fabric of California.

I look forward to your review and constructive criticism of this report, and shall await your comments prior to the formal adoption of the recommended goals and policies.

Respectfully submitted,

RONALD REAGAN
Governor

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Mr. Thomas was granted unanimous consent that the following letter of transmittal be printed in the Journal:

Joint Legislative Audit Committee

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California

Sirs: We herewith transmit a report on the analysis of the investment program of the State Highway Fund. The California Highway Commission's policy of maintaining a separate investment program for excess highway funds has resulted in a loss of over $1 million of income in recent years.

Investment of excess funds in the State's Surplus Money Investment Fund would have produced $458,000 more income in 1971 In a 1969 study it was reported that $629,000 more should have been earned in 1968, and that in 1967, $350,000 more should have been earned. Recommendations made in 1969 by the California Commission on State Government Organization and Economy (the Little Hoover Commission), and by the Highway Commission's investment review committee to increase investment income were not implemented

Pooling of state highway funds with other state funds for investments permits the purchase of long-term securities which usually yield a higher return Larger balances may be invested because the needed cash on hand can be held at a minimum under a pooled investment program.

Larger sums will be available for investments in future years because of reduced general fund borrowing of excess highway funds. General fund cash flow has improved with the earlier collection of taxes under withholding which started in 1972. With more money available for investment a change in policy is needed to prevent even larger losses of income this year and in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

VINCENT THOMAS, Chairman
Joint Legislative Audit Committee

Above report referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Recommendation of the Governor

In accordance with Article IV, Section 12(c), of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the consideration of Senate Bill No 331·

Governor's Office, Sacramento
April 13, 1972

To the Honorable Members of the Senate and Assembly:

Senate Bill No. 331, "An act to add Section 24045.2 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately,"

in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 12 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill

I, therefore, recommend consideration of Senate Bill No. 331, as amended, as an emergency measure.

Respectfully,

RONALD REAGAN
Governor

The question being on the adoption of the urgency clause to Senate Bill No. 331.

Urgency clause adopted by the following vote:

Amendment No. 2

On page 1, strike out line 1, and insert

"SECTION 1. In its concern for the quality and availability of health care services in California, the Legislature finds that a number of factors prevent the full utilization of the service capabilities of nursing personnel, as well as preventing full career development for nurses. First, the ability of a licensed vocational nurse has been hampered because responsibility for licensing these two occupations was divided between two licensing boards Second, basic differences in the content and duration of various training programs for registered nurses prevents development of a nursing "career ladder," and is particularly discouraging to minorities who wish to become registered nurses Third, the legal status of nurses performing certain procedures or acting in certain roles is ambiguous at this time, despite the demonstrated competence of many nurses to perform them Fourth, the lack of any legal standards for nurse aides prevents them from receiving credit for their knowledge and skill in attempting to advance to a licensed category of nursing, as well as failing to provide adequate standards for public protection. Fifth, the full development of career opportunities and service utilization of psychiatric technicians is limited because they are licensed by the same licensing board as licensed vocational nurses.

It is the purpose of the Legislature in enacting this act that:

(a) Responsibility for licensing vocational and registered nurses be combined under one licensing board, with a view of nursing education as a continuous process for training nurses to perform at successively higher levels of responsibility.

(b) Training programs for registered nurses are encouraged to offer courses enabling students to become licensed as vocational nurses after the first year of training, to give vocational nurses maximum opportunity for advancing to the registered nursing field

(c) Licensing requirements for categories of nurses should not include graduation from an educational program if the courses required for graduation do not relate to the capability of graduates to perform as nurses.

(d) Nursing education programs offering a baccalaureate degree are encouraged to offer licensure-related courses first, as lower division courses, so that registered nurses who are graduated from other types of nursing programs can transfer to these schools for advanced training without loss of credit.

(e) The licensing board for nursing personnel should develop a standard equivalency test for licensure as a vocational nurse, and for licensure as a registered nurse, to eliminate the problems that have occurred by delegating this function to schools. The parts of these tests should relate to the educational qualifications for licensure, so that an individual should not have to take courses for licensure if he demonstrates his proficiency by passing that part, or parts, of the equivalency examination

(f) The state should issue a State Associate of Science degree to every nurse who is a graduate of a diploma nursing education program and does not already possess a degree. This associate degree will be equivalent to associate degrees issued by community colleges to nursing graduates for purposes of matriculating to schools offering a baccalaureate in nursing and shall be accepted by all universities and colleges in California with a nursing program

(g) Responsibility for licensing psychiatric technicians should be separated from the agency licensing nurses, and phased into an appropriate licensing body.

(h) Training programs for nurse aides should be certified to allow graduates to achieve recognition for their capabilities in advancing to higher levels of nursing.

SEC. 2 Article 1 5 (commencing with Section 2721) is added to Chapter 6 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 1 5. Nursing Practice Administration

2721. As used in this chapter:

(a) Associate Nursing Education Program means an accredited program for training registered nurses, lasting two years, and based in a community college which offers an associate degree in nursing.

(b) Diploma Nursing Education Program means an accredited program for training registered nurses, lasting three years, and based in a licensed hospital.

(c) Baccalaureate Nursing Education Program means an accredited program for training registered nurses, lasting four years, and based in a college or university which offers a bachelor's degree in nursing.

2721 1 The California Board of Nursing Education and Nurse Registration and the Board of Vocational Nurse and Psychiatric Technician Examiners are abolished.

2721 2 There is hereby created in the Department of Consumer Affairs, a Board of Nursing Examiners of the State of California consisting of thirteen members Within the meaning of this article, "board," refers to the Board of Nursing Examiners of the State of California The board shall perform all of the functions and duties heretofore performed by the California Board of Nursing Education and Nurse Registration pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 2700) of this division, and the Board of Vocational Nurse and Psychiatric Technician Examiners of the State of California pursuant to Chapter 6 5 (commencing with Section 2840) of this division. Any reference in state law, except Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 4500) of this division, to either the California Board of Nursing Education and Nurse Registration or the Board of Vocational Nurse and Psychiatric Technician Examiners shall be construed to refer to the Board of Nursing Examiners of the State of California

2721 3 Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of the State of California Three members shall represent the public at large, and shall not be licensed under any board under this division or any board referred to in Sections 1000 or 3000, and shall have no pecuniary interests in the provision of health care services Three members shall be licensed registered nurses, under the provisions of this chapter, one of whom shall be a graduate of an associate nursing education program, one of whom shall be a graduate of a diploma nursing education program, and one of whom shall be a graduate of a baccalaureate nursing education program, and each of whom shall have had at least five continuous years' experience in the active practice of his profession, and who shall not be engaged as an educator or administrator of a nursing education program under the provisions of this chapter Three members shall be licensed vocational nurses, under the provisions of Chapter 6 5 (commencing with Section 2840) of this division, each of whom shall be actively practicing his profession and shall have had at least five continuous years' experience. One member shall be a licensed registered nurse, who shall be an administrator or an educator of a program for training registered nurses with at least five years' continuous experience One member shall be a licensed vocational nurse who is functioning as an administrator or an educator of a program for training licensed vocational nurses, with at least five years' experience. One member shall be a licensed physician with at least five years' experience One member shall be a hospital administrator with at least five years' experience. No person shall serve more than two consecutive terms.

2721.5. (a) On and after the effective date of this article registered nurses shall be licensed pursuant (1) to this article and (2) any other provision of this chapter which is not inconsistent with the provisions of this article.

(b) On and after the effective date of this article licensed vocational nurses shall be licensed pursuant (1) to this article and (2) any other provision of Chapter 6 5 (commencing with Section 2840) of this division which is not inconsistent with the provisions of this article.

2721.6. (a) Licensed vocational nurses shall be capable of providing basic nursing services, including, but not limited to, care for basic health needs, interpersonal relation skills, and ability to perform simple health tests.

(b) Registered nurses shall be capable of providing all basic nursing services which licensed vocational nurses are licensed to perform, and shall be capable of providing advanced nursing services, including, but not limited to, collecting data regarding health status, administering treatment procedures under orders, and recognizing and reporting abnormalities in the physical condition of patients under the care of licensed physicians.

2721.7. The board shall determine, by regulation, the respective functions and duties of licensed vocational nurses and licensed registered nurses, in accordance with specifications set forth in Section 2721.6, and the provisions of this article regulating functions and duties of nurses.

2721.8. The board shall prescribe a written examination for licensure as a registered nurse.

2721.9. (a) An applicant for licensure as a registered nurse shall comply with each of the following.

(1) Have completed general education requirements as shall be determined by the board

(2) Have successfully completed the courses of instruction prescribed by the board for licensure, in a program in this state accredited by the board for training registered nurses, or have successfully completed courses of instruction outside of this state which, in the opinion of the board, are equivalent to the minimum requirements of the board for licensure established for an accredited program in this state

(3) Have committed no act, which, if committed by a licensee, would be grounds for disciplinary action

(b) An applicant who has received his training from a school of nursing in a country outside the United States and who has complied with the provisions of subdivision (a) shall qualify for licensure by successfully passing the examination prescribed by the board

2721.10 (a) An applicant for a licensed vocational nurse license shall comply with each of the following:

(1) Be at least 17 years of age.

(2) Have completed such general education requirements as shall be determined by the board.

(3) Have completed the courses of instruction prescribed by the board for licensure in a program in this state accredited by the board for the training of licensed vocational nurses, or have completed courses of instruction outside of this state which the board determines are equivalent to the minimum requirements of the board for licensure established by regulation for an accredited program in this state.

(4) Have committed no act, which, if committed by a licensee, would be grounds for disciplinary action.

2721 11. An applicant for a license under this article who completes the prescribed course of instruction in a program located outside of this state shall be deemed to have complied with the provisions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 2721 9 or provisions of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 2721.10, as the case may be, if the program in which the applicant completed his prescribed courses of instruction was a program which, in the opinion of the board, was equivalent to the minimum requirements of the board for an accredited program in this state at the time the applicant was a student in such program

2721 12. The board may accredit programs for training registered nurses and programs for training licensed vocational nurses.

2721.13 (a) An accredited program for training registered nurses is one which has been approved by the board, gives a course of instruction approved by the board covering not less than 24 months, and is affiliated or conducted in connection with one or more licensed hospitals

(b) The board shall determine by regulation the required subjects of instruction, and the number of hours of instruction, together with the required number of hours in fields of clinical experience, to be completed in an accredited program for licensure as a registered nurse.

(c) Within four months of its appointment, the board shall determine the required subjects of instruction and the required number of hours of instruction to be completed in an accredited program for licensure as a registered nurse, and shall annually review such requirements and make such changes as may be necessary for insuring that training programs for registered nurses produce graduates competent to perform registered nurse roles

2721 14. (a) An accredited program for training licensed vocational nurses is one which has been approved by the board and gives a course of instruction in vocational nursing required by the board for licensure as a vocational nurse, whether such program is established by the State Board of Education, or other public or private agencies or institutions, which covers at least 12 months, and is affiliated or conducted in connection with one or more licensed hospitals.

(b) The board shall determine by regulation the required subjects of instruction, and the number of hours of instruction, together with the required number of hours in fields of clinical experience, to be completed in an accredited program for licensure as a vocational nurse.

(c) Within four months after its appointment, the board shall determine the required subjects of instruction and the required number of hours of instruction to be completed in an accredited program for licensure as a vocational nurse, and shall annually review such requirements and make such changes as may be necessary for insuring that training programs for vocational nurses produce graduates competent to perform vocational nurse roles.

2721.15. The board shall deny accreditation to any program for the training of registered nurses or vocational nurses which, in the opinion of the board, does not give credit for licensure to the knowledge and skill possessed by a student applicant as a result of his past training and experience.

2721.16. The board shall, within one year after this section becomes effective, review its accreditation standards for programs for training registered nurses to require that:

(a) Such programs for registered nurses be encouraged to offer courses enabling students to qualify as licensed vocational nurses after the first year of training.

(b) Baccalaureate nursing education programs be encouraged to offer courses required for licensure as a registered nurse as lower division courses.

(c) Baccalaureate nursing education programs recognize the California Associate of Science degree in nursing granted by the State Department of Education as equivalent to an Associate of Science degree in nursing granted by a California community college.

2721.17. The State Department of Education shall issue a "California Associate of Science" degree in the field of nursing to all registered nurses in California who apply therefor within one year of the effective date of this section, who are graduates of diploma nursing education programs and do not at the time of application otherwise possess an academic degree in the field of nursing.

2721.19. (a) The board shall review existing programs in California for training nurse aides, and, based upon such review, shall develop standards, for accrediting nurse aide training programs, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this article relating to nursing education and experience. Within one year after this section goes into effect, the board shall accredit nurse aide training programs meeting the board's accreditation standards.

(b) The board shall determine by regulation the amount of additional training necessary for nurse aides who are graduates of accredited programs to qualify to become licensed as vocational nurses.

2721 20 It is the intention of the Legislature that all licensed registered nurses, including licentiates who are graduates of nonacademic hospital-based "diploma" programs, should be given every opportunity for receiving academic credit for their past training and experience by baccalaureate nursing programs when attempting to further their nursing education by earning a baccalaureate degree in nursing.

The board shall report to the Legislature no later than January 15, 1974, concerning:

(a) The current policies of baccalaureate nursing education programs for extending academic credit to licensed registered nurses who are graduates of nonbaccalaureate nursing programs.

(b) Baccalaureate nursing education programs which do not offer nursing courses, required for licensure, as lower division courses

(c) Steps that baccalaureate nursing education programs could take to increase the opportunities for licensed registered nurses to receive credit for their past training and experience when attempting to earn a baccalaureate degree in nursing

(d) Recommendations for improving the opportunities for licensed registered nurses who are not graduates of baccalaureate nursing education programs to earn a baccalaureate degree in nursing.

SEC. 3 Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 4509 6) is added to Chapter 10 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 1.5. Board of Psychiatric Technician Examiners

4509 6. (a) It is the intention of the Legislature that this article establish a temporary authority for insuring the safe utilization of psychiatric technicians

(b) Recognizing that psychiatric technicians are a category of health manpower whose potential utilization could greatly augment California's mental health care delivery system, and recognizing that psychiatric technicians are shifting from employment in hospital settings to community mental health settings, the Legislature intends that this article provide only an interim licensing authority for psychiatric technicians It is the intention of the Legislature that on or before January 1, 1976, a permanent responsibility for licensing psychiatric technicians shall be transferred to an appropriate state agency.

4509 7 There is hereby established in the Department of Consumer Affairs a Board of Psychiatric Technician Examiners of the State of California, consisting of 10 members As used in this chapter, "board," or "the board," refers to the Board of Psychiatric Technician Examiners of the State of California. The board shall perform all of the functions and duties heretofore performed by the Board of Vocational Nurse and Psychiatric Technician Examiners of the State of California pursuant to this chapter.

4509.8. Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of California. One member shall be a licensed psychologist representing state mental hospitals One member shall be a psychiatrist who is an administrator of a local mental health program. One member shall be a nurse educator. One member shall be a dean of curriculum of the community college systems with experience in developing curricula for training mental health workers. One member shall be a psychiatric hospital administrator who is not a physician. Two members shall be licensed psychiatric technicians One member shall be a public member who is active in a voluntary organization for assisting the mentally ill. One member shall be a public member who is active in a voluntary organization for assisting socially and economically disadvantaged persons with mental health problems

4509.9. Members of the board shall be appointed by the Governor for a period ending January 1, 1976. Vacancies occurring shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term within 30 days after such vacancy occurs.

4509.10. Six members of the board constitute a quorum for transaction of business at any meeting

4509.11. The board may employ whatever personnel is necessary for the administration of this chapter.

4509 12. Each member of the board shall receive a per diem and expenses as provided in Section 103.

4509 13. This article shall remain operative until January 1, 1976, and after that date shall have no force and effect."

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

On line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "add Section 25563.3 to", and insert "amend Sections 17054, 17064, 17202, 17203, 17233, 17771, 17778, 17854, 18414.5, 18645, 18683, 24343, 24437, and 25933 of, to add Sections 18643, 18644, 25563 3, and 25761a to, and to repeal Sections 18643, 18644, 18682, 25761a, and 25932 of,".

Amendment No. 2

On page 1, strike out line 1, and insert

"SECTION 1. Section 17054 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17054. In the case of individuals computing their tax under Section 17041 or Section 17048, the following credits for personal exemption may be deducted from the tax imposed.

(a) In the case of a single individual, a credit of twenty-five dollars ($25).

(b) In the case of a head of household or a married individual, a credit of fifty dollars ($50) A husband and wife shall receive but one credit for personal exemption of fifty dollars ($50) If the husband and wife make separate returns, the credit may be taken by either or divided between them If one spouse was a resident for the entire year and the other spouse was a nonresident for all or any portion of the taxable year, the personal exemption shall be divided equally and the portion deductible by the nonresident shall be determined under Section 17055. The preceding sentence shall not apply to a nonresident active member of the armed forces of the United States or any auxiliary branch thereof and his or her spouse

(c) Except as provided in ~~Section 17057(c)~~ subdivision (e) of Section 17057, a credit of eight dollars ($8) for each dependent (as defined in Section 17056)—

(1) Whose gross income for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins is less than ~~six hundred dollars ($600)~~ seven hundred fifty dollars ($750), or

(2) Who is a child of the taxpayer and who (A) has not attained the age of 19 at the close of the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, or (B) is a student.

(3) No exemption shall be allowed under this subdivision for any dependent who has made a joint return with his spouse under Section 18402 for the taxable year beginning in the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins.

(4) For purposes of paragraph (2), the term "child" means an individual who (within the meaning of Section 17182) is a son, stepson, daughter or stepdaughter of the taxpayer.

(5) For purposes of ~~paragraph (2)(B)~~ subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of this subdivision and Section 17059, the term "student" means an individual who during each of five calendar months during the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins—

(A) Is a full-time student at an educational institution, or

(B) Is pursuing a full-time course of institutional on-farm training under the supervision of an accredited agent of an educational institution or of a state or political subdivision of a state

For purposes of this paragraph, the term "educational institution" means only an educational institution which normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly organized body of students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are carried on

(d) A credit for personal exemption of eight dollars ($8) for the taxpayer if he is blind at the close of his taxable year

(e) A credit for personal exemption of eight dollars ($8) for the spouse of the taxpayer if a separate return is made by the taxpayer, and if the spouse is blind and, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, has no gross income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer.

(f) For the purposes of this section, an individual is blind only if either: his central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses, or his visual acuity is greater than 20/200 but is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees.

SEC. 2. Section 17064 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17064. (a) For purposes of Section 17063, the excess investment interest for any taxable year is the amount by which the investment interest expense for the taxable year exceeds the ~~net investment income for the taxable year~~ sum of—

(A) The net investment income for the taxable year, and

(B) The amount (if any) by which the deductions allowable under Sections 17202, 17203, paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 17204, and Section 17252 attributable to property of the taxpayer subject to a net lease exceeds the gross rental income produced by such property for the taxable year.

(b) For purposes of this section,

(1) The term "net investment income" means the excess of investment income over investment expenses,

(2) The term "investment income" means—

(A) The gross income from interest, dividends, rents, and royalties,

(B) The net short-term capital gains attributable to the disposition of property held for investment, and

(C) Amounts treated under Sections 18211 and 18212 as gain from the sale or exchange of property which is neither a capital asset nor property described in Section 18181 or Section 18182, but only to the extent such income, gain, and amounts are not derived from the conduct of a trade or business.

(3) The term "investment expenses" means the deductions allowable under Section 17202, paragraphs (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 17204, Sections 17207 to 17211.7, inclusive, Sections 17217 to 17221, inclusive, Section 17252, or Section 17681 of this part, directly connected with the production of investment income. For purposes of this paragraph, the deduction allowable under Sections 17208 to 17211.7, inclusive, with respect to any property may be treated as the amount which would have been allowable had the taxpayer depreciated the property under the straight-line method for each taxable year of its useful life for which the taxpayer has held the property, and the deduction allowable under Section 17681 of this part with respect to any property may be treated as the amount which would have been allowable had the taxpayer determined the deduction under Section 17681 of this part without regard to Sections 17686 and 17687 for each taxable year for which the taxpayer has held the property.

(4) The term "investment interest expense" means interest paid or accrued on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry property held for investment. For purposes of the preceding sentence, interest paid or accrued on indebtedness incurred or continued in the construction of property to be used in a trade or business shall not be treated as an investment interest expense.

(c) For purposes of this section property which is subject to a net lease entered into after October 9, 1969, shall be treated as property held for investment, and not as property used in a trade or business.

~~(d) For purposes of this chapter, property shall be considered to be subject to a net lease for a taxable year if—~~

~~(1) For such taxable year the sum of the deductions with respect to such property which are allowable solely by reason of Section 17202 is less than 15 percent of the rental income produced by such property, or~~

~~(2) The lessor is either guaranteed a specific return or is guaranteed in whole or in part against loss of income.~~

(d) (1) For purposes of this chapter, property shall be considered to be subject to a net lease for a taxable year if—

(A) For such taxable year the sum of the deductions of the lessor with respect to such property which are allowable solely by reason of Section 17202 (other than rents and reimbursed amounts with respect to such property) is less than 15 percent of the rental income produced by such property, or

(B) The lessor is either guaranteed a specified return or is guaranteed in whole or in part against loss of income.

(2) If a parcel of real property of the taxpayer is leased under two or more leases, subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall, at the election of the taxpayer, be applied by treating all leased portions of such property as subject to a single lease.

(3) At the election of the taxpayer, subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall not apply with respect to real property of the taxpayer which has been in use for more than five years.

(4) An election under paragraph (2) or (3) shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Franchise Tax Board prescribes by regulations

SEC 3. Section 17202 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17202. (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction all the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business, including—

(1) A reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered;

(2) Traveling expenses (including amounts expended for meals and lodging other than amounts which are lavish or extravagant under the circumstances) while away from home in the pursuit of a trade or business, and

(3) Rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession, for purposes of the trade or business, of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which he has no equity.

For purposes of the preceding sentence, the place of residence of a Member of Congress (including any delegate and resident commissioner) within the state, congressional district, territory, or possession which he represents in Congress shall be considered his home, but amounts expended by such members within each taxable year for living expenses shall not be deductible for income tax purposes in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000).

(b) No deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) for any contribution or gift which would be allowable as a deduction under Sections 17214, 17215, 17216, and 17216.2 were it not for the percentage limitations, the dollar limitations, or the requirements as to the time of payment, set forth in such sections.

(c) (1) No deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) for any payment made~~,~~, directly or indirectly, to an official or employee of any government, or of any agency or instrumentality of any government, if the payment constitutes an illegal bribe or kickback or, if the payment is to an official or employee of a foreign government, the payment would be unlawful under the laws of the United States if such laws were applicable to such payment and to such official or employee. The burden of proof in respect of the issue, for the purposes of this paragraph, as to whether a payment constitutes an illegal bribe or kickback (or would be unlawful under the laws of the United States) shall be upon the Franchise Tax Board to the same extent as it bears the burden of proof when the issue relates to fraud.

~~(2) If in a criminal proceeding a taxpayer is convicted of making a payment (other than a payment described in paragraph (1)) which is an illegal bribe or kickback, or his plea of guilty or nolo contendere to an indictment or information charging the making of such a payment is entered or accepted in such a proceeding, no deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) on account of such payment or any related payment made prior to the date of the final judgment in such proceeding.~~

~~(3) If a taxpayer claimed a deduction for a payment described in paragraph (2) which is disallowed because of a final judgment entered after the close of the taxable year for which the deduction was claimed, and if the proceeding was based on an indictment returned or an information filed prior to the expiration of the period for the assessment of any deficiency for such taxable year, the period for the assessment of any deficiency attributable to the deduction of such payment shall not expire prior to the expiration of one year from the date of such final judgment, and such deficiency may be assessed prior to the expiration of such one-year period notwithstanding the provision of any other law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent such assessment.~~

(2) No deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) for any payment (other than a payment described in paragraph (1)) made, directly or indirectly, to any person, if the payment constitutes an illegal bribe, illegal kickback, or other illegal payment under any law of the United States, or under any law of a state (but only if such state law is generally enforced), which subjects the payor to a criminal penalty or the loss of license or privilege to engage in a trade or business. For purposes of this paragraph, a kickback includes a payment in consideration of the referral of a client, patient, or customer. The burden of proof in respect of the issue, for purposes of this paragraph, as to whether a payment constitutes an illegal bribe, illegal kickback, or other illegal payment shall be upon the Franchise Tax Board to the same extent as it bears the burden of proof when the issue relates to fraud.

(3) No deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) for any kickback, rebate, or bribe made by any provider of services, supplier, physician, or other person who furnishes items or services for which payment is or may be made under the Social Security Act, or in whole or in part out of federal funds under a state plan approved under such act, if such kickback, rebate, or bribe is made in connection with the furnishing of such items or services or the making or receipt of such payments. For purposes of this paragraph, a kickback includes a payment in consideration of the referral of a client, patient, or customer.

(d) No deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) for any fine or similar penalty paid to a government for the violation of any law.

(e) If in a criminal proceeding a taxpayer is convicted of a violation of the antitrust laws, or his plea of guilty or nolo contendere to an indictment or information charging such a violation is entered or accepted in such a proceeding, no deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) for two-thirds of any amount paid or incurred—

(1) On any judgment for damages entered against the taxpayer under Section 4 of the act entitled "An act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," approved October 15, 1914 (commonly known as the Clayton Act), on account of such violation or any related violation of the antitrust laws which occurred prior to the date of the final judgment of such conviction, or

(2) In settlement of any action brought under such Section 4 on account of such violation or related violation.

The preceding sentence shall not apply with respect to any conviction or plea before January 1, 1971, or to any conviction or plea on or after such date in a new trial following an appeal of a conviction before such date.

(f) For special rule relating to expenses in connection with subdividing real property for sale, see Sections 18197 to 18199, inclusive.

SEC. 4. Section 17203 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17203. (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction all interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness. However, no deduction shall be allowed to the extent that it is connected with income not taxable under this part. The proper apportionment and allocation of the deduction with respect to taxable and nontaxable income shall be determined under rules and regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(b) (1) If personal property or educational services are purchased under a contract—

(A) Which provides that payment of part or all of the purchase price is to be made in installments; and then the payments made during the taxable year under the contract shall be treated for purposes of this section as if they included interest equal to 6 percent of the average unpaid balance under the contract during the taxable year For purposes of the preceding sentence, the average unpaid balance is the sum of the unpaid balance outstanding on the first day of each month beginning during the taxable year, divided by 12.

(B) In which carrying charges are separately stated but the interest charge cannot be ascertained;

For purposes of this paragraph, the term "educational services" means any service (including lodging) which is purchased from an educational institution (as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 17150) and which is provided for a student of such institution.

(2) In the case of any contract to which paragraph (1) applies, the amount treated as interest for any taxable year shall not exceed the aggregate carrying charges which are properly attributable to such taxable year.

(c) The amendments made in subdivision (b) shall apply to payments made during taxable years beginning after December 31, 1963.

(d) (1) The amount of investment interest (as defined in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (3)) otherwise allowable as a deduction under this ~~chapter~~ part shall be limited, in the following order, to—

(A) Twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) (twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500), in the case of a separate return by a married individual), plus

~~(B) The amount of the net investment income (as defined in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3)), plus~~

(B) The amount of the net investment income (as defined in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3), plus the amount (if any) by which the deductions allowable under this section (determined without regard to this subdivision) and Sections 17202, 17203, paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 17204, or Section 17252 attributable to property of the taxpayer subject to a net lease exceeds the rental income produced by such property for the taxable year, plus

(C) An amount equal to the amount by which the ~~net long-term capital gain exceeds the net short-term capital loss~~ total amount of capital gains recognized exceeds the total amount of capital losses recognized for the taxable year, plus

(D) One-half of the amount by which investment interest exceeds the sum of the amounts described in subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C).

In the case of a trust, the twenty-five thousand dollar ($25,000) amount specified in subparagraph (A) and in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2), shall be zero. In determining the amount described in subparagraph (C), only gains and losses attributable to the disposition of property held for investment shall be taken into account.

(2) (A) The amount of disallowed investment interest for any taxable year shall be treated as investment interest paid or accrued in the succeeding taxable year. The amount of the interest so treated which is allowable as a deduction by reason of the first sentence of this paragraph for any taxable year shall not exceed one-half of the amount by which—

(i) The net investment income for such taxable year plus twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), exceeds

(ii) The investment interest paid or accrued during such taxable year (determined without regard to this paragraph) or twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), whichever is greater.

(B) If—

(i) An amount of disallowed investment treated under subparagraph (A) as investment interest paid or accrued in the taxable year is not allowable as a deduction for such taxable year by reason of the second sentence of subparagraph (A), and

~~(ii) The taxpayer is entitled to a deduction under Section 18151 for such taxable year (whether or not the taxpayer claims such deduction), the amount of such disallowed investment interest shall be reduced by an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowable under Section 18151.~~

(ii) The taxpayer is not required to recognize a portion of capital gains by reason of Section 18162.5 (whether or not the taxpayer recognizes such gains), the amount of such disallowed investment interest shall be reduced by an amount equal to the amount not recognizable under Section 18162.5.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision—

(A) The term "net investment income" means the excess of investment income over investment expenses.

(B) The term "investment income" means—

(i) The gross income from interest, dividends, rents, and royalties,

~~(ii) The net short term capital gain attributable to the disposition of property held for investment, and~~

(ii) The capital gain attributable to the disposition of property held for investment and held for not more than one year, and

(iii) Any amount treated under Sections 18211 and 18212 to 18218, inclusive as gain from the sale or exchange of property which is neither a capital asset nor property described in Sections 18181 and 18182

but only to the extent such income, gain, and amounts are not derived from the conduct of a trade or business

(C) The term "investment expenses" means the deductions allowable under Section 17202, paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 17204, Sections 17207, 17208 to 17211.7, inclusive, 17217 to 17221, inclusive, 17232, or 17681 directly connected with the production of investment income For purposes of this subparagraph, the deduction allowable under Sections 17208 to 17211.5, inclusive, with respect to any property may be treated as the amount which would have been allowable had the taxpayer depreciated the property under the straight-line method for each taxable year of its useful life for which the taxpayer has held the property, and the deduction allowable under Section 17681 with respect to any property may be treated as the amount which would have been allowable had the taxpayer determined the deduction under Section 17681 without regard to Sections 17683 to 17688, inclusive, for each taxable year for which the taxpayer has held the property.

(D) The term "investment interest" means interest paid or accrued on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry property held for investment.

(E) The term "disallowed investment interest" means with respect to any taxable year, the amount not allowable as a deduction solely by reason of the limitations in paragraph (1) and subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2).

(4) (A) For purposes of this subdivision, property subject to a lease shall be treated as property held for investment, and not as property used in a trade or business, for a taxable year, if—

~~(i) For such taxable year the sum of the deductions with respect to such property which are allowable solely by reason of Section 17202 is less than 15 percent of the rental income produced by such property, or~~

(i) For such taxable year the sum of the deductions of the lessor with respect to such property which are allowable solely by reason of Section 17202 (other than rents and reimbursed amounts with respect to such property) is less than 15 percent of the rental income produced by such property, or

(ii) The lessor is either guaranteed a specified return or is guaranteed in whole or in part against loss of income

(B) In the case of a partnership, each partner shall, under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, take into account separately his distributive share of the partnership's investment interest and the other items of income and expense taken into account under this subdivision.

(C) For purposes of this subdivision, interest paid or accrued on indebtedness incurred or continued in the construction of property to be used in a trade or business shall not be treated as investment interest.

(5) ~~For purposes of Section 18151 (relating to deductions for capital gains)~~ The an amount equal to the amount of investment interest which is allowable as a deduction by reason of subparagraph ~~(c)~~ (C) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall be treated as gain from the sale or other disposition of property which is neither a capital asset nor property described in Sections 18181 and 18182

(6) This subdivision shall not apply with respect to investment interest, investment income, and investment expenses attributable to a specific item of property, if the indebtedness with respect to such property—

(A) Is for a specified term, and

(B) Was incurred before December 17, 1969, or is incurred after December 16, 1969, pursuant to a written contract or commitment which, on such date and at all times thereafter prior to the incurring of such indebtedness, is binding on the taxpayer.

(e) The amendments made in subdivision (d) shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1971.

(7) For purposes of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4)—

(A) If a parcel of real property of the taxpayer is leased under two or more leases, clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) shall, at the election of the taxpayer, be applied by treating all leased portions of such property as subject to a single lease; and

(B) At the election of the taxpayer, clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) shall not apply with respect to real property of the taxpayer which has been in use for more than five years

An election under subparagraph (A) or (B) shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Franchise Tax Board prescribes by regulations.

SEC 5 Section 17233 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17233. (a) In the case of an activity engaged in by an individual, if such activity is not engaged in for profit, no deduction attributable to such activity shall be allowed under this part except as provided in this section

(b) In the case of an activity not engaged in for profit to which ~~subsection~~ subdivision (a) applies, there shall be allowed—

(1) The deductions which would be allowable under this part for the taxable year without regard to whether or not such activity is engaged in for profit, and

(2) A deduction equal to the amount of the deductions which would be allowable under this part for the taxable year only if such activity were engaged in for profit, but only to the extent that the gross income derived from such activity for the taxable year exceeds the deductions allowable by reason of paragraph (1)

(c) For purposes of this section, the term "activity not engaged in for profit" means any activity other than one with respect to which deductions are allowable for the taxable year under Section 17202 or under subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 17252.

(d) If the gross income derived from an activity for two or more of the taxable years in the period of five consecutive taxable years which ends with the taxable year exceeds the deductions attributable to such activity (determined without regard to whether or not such activity is engaged in for profit), then, unless the Franchise Tax Board establishes to the contrary, such activity shall be presumed for purposes of this ~~chapter~~ part for such taxable year to be an activity engaged in for profit In the case of an activity which consists in major part of the breeding, training, showing, or racing of horses, the preceding sentence shall be applied by substituting the period of seven consecutive taxable years for the period of five consecutive taxable years

(e) (1) A determination as to whether the presumption provided by subdivision (d) applies with respect to any activity shall, if the taxpayer so elects, not be made before the close of the fourth taxable year (sixth taxable year, in the case of an activity described in the last sentence of such subdivision) following the taxable year in which the taxpayer first engages in the activity. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a taxpayer shall be treated as not having engaged in an activity during any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1970.

(3) If the taxpayer makes an election under paragraph (1), the presumption provided by subdivision (d) shall apply to each taxable year in the five-taxable-year (or seven-taxable-year) period beginning with the taxable year in which the taxpayer first engages in the activity, if the gross income derived from the activity for two or more of the taxable years in such period exceeds the deductions attributable to the activity (determined without regard to whether or not the activity is engaged in for profit).

(3) An election under paragraph (1) shall be made at such time and manner, and subject to such terms and conditions, as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe.

SEC. 6. Section 17771 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17771. (a) For purposes of this article, the term "undistributed net income" for any taxable year means the amount by which the distributable net income of the trust for such taxable year exceeds the sum of—

(1) The amounts for such taxable year specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 17761, and

(2) The amount of taxes imposed on the trust attributable to such distributable net income.

(b) For purposes of this article, the term "accumulation distribution" for any taxable year of the trust means the amount by which the amounts specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 17761 for such taxable year, exceed distributable net income for such year reduced (but not below zero) by the amounts specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 17761.

(c) For purposes of this article, the term "taxes imposed on the trust" means the amount of the taxes which are imposed for any taxable year of the trust under this part (without regard to this article) and which, under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, are properly allocable to the undistributed portions of the distributable net income and gains in excess of losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets. The amount determined in the preceding sentence shall be reduced by any amount of such taxes deemed distributed under Sections 17773, 17774, or subdivisions (d) and (e) of Section 17777, to any beneficiary.

(d) For purposes of this article, the term "preceding taxable year" does not include any taxable year of the trust—

(1) Which precedes by more than five years the taxable year of the trust in which an accumulation distribution is made, if it is made in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1974,

(2) Which begins before January 1, 1969, in the case of an accumulation distribution made during a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1973, or

(3) Which begins before January 1, 1969, in the case of a capital gain distribution made during a taxable year beginning after December

31, 1968. In the case of a preceding taxable year with respect to which a trust qualifies (without regard to this article) under the provisions of Article 2, for purposes of the application of this article to such trust for such taxable year, such trust shall, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, be treated as a trust to which Article 3 applies.

(e) For purposes of this article, the term "undistributed capital gain" means, for any taxable year of the trust beginning after December 31, 1968, the amount by which—

(1) Gains in excess of losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets, to the extent that such gains are allocated to corpus and are not (A) paid, credited, or required to be distributed to any beneficiary during such taxable year, or (B) paid, permanently set aside, or used for the purposes specified in Section 17734, exceed

(2) The amount of taxes imposed on the trust attributable to such gains. For purposes of paragraph (1) the deduction under Section 18151 (relating to deduction for excess of capital gains over capital losses) shall not be taken into account.

(f) For purposes of this article, the term "capital gain distribution" for any taxable year of the trust means, to the extent of undistributed capital gain ~~for such taxable year~~, that portion of—

(1) The excess of the amounts specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 17761 for such taxable year over distributable net income for such year reduced (but not below zero) by the amounts specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 17761, over

(2) The undistributed net income of the trust for all preceding taxable years.

SEC 7. Section 17778 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17778. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the amendments made to this chapter at the 1971 ~~Regular~~ First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1970

(b) (1) Amounts paid, credited, or required to be distributed by a trust on or before the last day of a taxable year of the trust beginning before January 1, 1974, shall not be deemed to be accumulation distributions to the extent that such amounts were accumulated by a trust in taxable years of such trust beginning before January 1, 1969, and would have been excepted from the definition of an accumulation distribution by reason of subdivision (b) of Section 17771, as in effect on December 31, 1968, if they had been distributed on the last day of the last taxable year of the trust beginning before January 1, 1969

(2) For taxable years of a trust beginning before January 1, 1970, the first sentence of Section 17772 (as amended at the 1971 ~~Regular~~ First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature) shall not apply, and the amount of the accumulation distribution of the trust for such taxable years shall be deemed to be an amount within the meaning of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 17761 distributed on the last day of each of the preceding taxable years to the extent that such amount exceeds the total of any undistributed net income for any taxable years intervening between the taxable year with respect of which the accumulation distribution is determined and such preceding taxable year.

(3) In the case of a trust which was in existence on December 31, 1969, Section 17777, as amended at the 1971 ~~Regular~~ First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature, shall not apply to capital gain distributions made to a beneficiary before January 1, ~~1972~~ 1973 If the beneficiary receives capital gain distributions from more than one such trust before January 1, ~~1972~~ 1973, the preceding sentence shall apply to capital gain distributions from only one of such trusts, such one to be designated by the taxpayer in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board

SEC. 8. Section 17854 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17854. (a) The taxable income of a partnership shall be computed in the same manner as in the case of an individual except that—

(1) The items described in Section 17852 shall be separately stated; and

(2) The following deductions shall not be allowed to the partnership:

(A) The standard deduction provided in Section 17171;

(B) The deduction for taxes provided in Section 17204(a) with respect to taxes, described in Section 18006, paid to another state;

(C) The deduction for charitable contributions provided in Sections 17214 to 17216, inclusive;

(D) The deduction for political contributions provided in Section 17234; and

(E) The additional itemized deductions for individuals provided in Article 7 of Chapter 3

(b) Any election affecting the computation of taxable income derived from a partnership shall be made by the partnership except that the election under Section 17689.5 (relating to deduction and recapture of certain mining exploration expenditures), under subdivision (d) of Section 17064 (relating to definition of net lease), or under Section 17203 (relating to limitation on interest on investment indebtedness), shall be made by each partner separately.

SEC. 9. Section 18414.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18414.5. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1972, and ending on or before November 30, 1973, every resident individual shall make a declaration of estimated tax if—

(a) Gross income can reasonably be expected to include income other than wages (as defined in Section 18807) amounting to one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more in the case of a return filed by a single person or a joint return filed by a married couple, or five hundred dollars ($500) or more in the case of a separate return filed by a married person, and

(b) The tax computed under Section 17041 or 17048 upon the estimated income for the taxable year, minus the sum of any credits against the tax provided by this part, is—

(1) One hundred dollars ($100) or more in the case of a return by a single person or a joint return filed by a married couple, or

(2) Fifty dollars ($50) or more in the case of a separate return filed by a married person.

(c) If on or before January 31 (or March 1, in the case of an individual referred to in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 18435, relating to income from farming or fishing) of the succeeding taxable year the taxpayer files a return, for the taxable year for which the declaration is required, and pays in full the amount computed on the return as payable, then, under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board—

(1) If the declaration is not required to be filed during the taxable year, but is required to be filed on or before January 15, such return shall be considered as such declaration; and

(2) If the tax shown on the return (reduced by the sum of the credits against tax provided by subdivision (b) of this section) is greater than the estimated tax shown in a declaration previously made, or in the last amendment thereof, such return shall be considered as the amendment of the declaration.

In the application of this subdivision, in the case of a taxable year beginning on any date other than January 1, there shall be substituted, for the 15th or last day of the months specified in this subdivision, the 15th or last day of the months which correspond thereto.

SEC. 10. Section 18643 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

~~18643. A jeopardy assessment is immediately due and payable, and proceedings for collection may be commenced at once. The taxpayer, however, may stay collection and prevent the jeopardy assessment from becoming final by filing, within 10 days after the date of mailing or issuing the notice of jeopardy assessment, a petition for reassessment, accompanied by a bond or other security in such amount as the Franchise Tax Board may deem necessary, not exceeding double the amount (including interest and penalties and additions thereto) as to which the stay is desired.~~

SEC 11. Section 18643 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18643 (a) A jeopardy assessment is immediately due and payable, and proceedings for collection may be commenced at once.

(b) The collection of the whole or any amount of a jeopardy assessment may be stayed, at any time before the assessment becomes final, by filing with the Franchise Tax Board (1) a bond in an amount equal to the amount as to which the stay is desired, conditioned upon the payment of the amount, the collection of which is stayed by the bond, upon notice and demand at any time after the assessment becomes final, together with interest thereon from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the date of payment, or (2) other security in such amount as the Franchise Tax Board may deem necessary, not exceeding double the amount (together with interest thereon) as to which the stay is desired

(c) Upon the filing of the bond or other security the collection of so much of the amount assessed as is covered by the bond or other security shall be stayed The taxpayer shall have the right to waive such stay at any time in respect of the whole or any part of the amount covered by the bond or other security, and if as a result of such waiver any part of the amount covered by the bond or other security is paid, then the bond or other security shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced. If any portion of the jeopardy assessment is abated, the bond or other security shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced.

(d) The Franchise Tax Board may, prior to the time the assessment becomes final, stay collection of the whole or any amount of a jeopardy assessment if it finds that jeopardy does not exist.

(e) Where collection of the whole or any amount of a jeopardy assessment has been stayed under this section, the period of limitation on any action to collect shall be tolled during the time of such stay.

SEC. 12. Section 18644 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

~~18644. If a petition for reassessment, accompanied by bond or other security, is not filed within the 10-day period, the assessment becomes final.~~

SEC. 13. Section 18644 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18644. Within 60 days after the mailing or issuance of each jeopardy assessment the taxpayer may file with the Franchise Tax Board a written petition for reassessment, specifying in the petition the grounds upon which it is based. If no petition for reassessment is filed, the jeopardy assessment becomes final upon expiration of the 60-day period. The filing of a petition for reassessment shall not operate to stay collection. Collection may be stayed only as provided in Section 18643.

SEC. 14. Section 18645 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18645. If a petition for reassessment, ~~accompanied by bond or other security,~~ is filed ~~within the 10-day period~~, the Franchise Tax Board shall reconsider the jeopardy assessment and, if the taxpayer has so requested in his petition, the Franchise Tax Board shall grant him or his authorized representative an oral hearing. The Franchise Tax Board's action upon the petition for reassessment is final upon the expiration of 30 days from the date when it mails notice of its action to the taxpayer, unless within that 30-day period the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of the Franchise Tax Board to the board.

SEC. 2. Section 18646 of the Revenue Taxation Code is amended to read:

18646. The taxpayer may appeal to the board from the Franchise Tax Board's action on the petition for reassessment, the appeal to be made in the manner prescribed by Section 18594. The provisions of Article 2 of Chapter 18 relating to an appeal from the action of the Franchise Tax Board on a protest against an additional tax proposed to be assessed shall be applicable to the appeal.

SEC. 15. Section 18682 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

~~18682. If any taxpayer, upon notice and demand by the Franchise Tax Board, fails or refuses to make and file a return (other than a declaration of estimated tax required under Sections 18414, 18414.5,~~

~~and 18415) required by this part, the Franchise Tax Board, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 18648, may estimate the net income and compute and levy the amounts of the tax due from any available information. In such case 25 percent of the tax, in addition to the penalty added under Section 18681, shall be added to the tax and shall be due and payable upon notice and demand from the Franchise Tax Board.~~

SEC. 16. Section 18683 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18683. If any taxpayer fails or refuses to furnish any information requested in writing by the Franchise Tax Board or fails or refuses to make and file a return required by this part upon notice and demand by the Franchise Tax Board, the Franchise Tax Board may add a penalty of 25 percent of the amount of tax determined pursuant to Section 18648 or of any deficiency tax assessed by the Franchise Tax Board concerning the assessment of which the information or return was required.

SEC. 17. Section 24343 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24343 (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction all the ordinary and neceessaary expenses paid or incurred during the income year in carrying on any trade or business, including—

(1) A reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered; and

(2) Rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession, for purposes of the trade or business, of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which it has no equity.

(3) Traveling expenses (including amounts expended for meals and lodging other than amounts which are lavish or extravagant under the circumstances) while away from home in the pursuit of a trade or business.

(b) (1) No deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) for any payment made, directly or indirectly, to an official or employee of any government, or of any agency or instrumentality of any government, if the payment constitutes an illegal bribe or kickback or, if the payment is to an official or employee of a foreign government, the payment would be unlawful under the laws of the United States if such laws were applicable to such payment and to such official or employee. The burden of proof in respect of the issue, for the purposes of this paragraph, as to whether a payment constitutes an illegal bribe or kickback (or would be unlawful under the laws of the United States) shall be upon the Franchise Tax Board to the same extent as it bears the burden of proof when the issue relates to fraud

~~(2) If in a criminal proceeding a taxpayer is convicted of making a payment (other than a payment described in paragraph (1)) which is an illegal bribe or kickback, or his plea of guilty or nolo contendere to an indictment or information charging the making of such a payment is entered or accepted in such a proceeding, no deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) on account of such payment or any~~

~~related payment made prior to the date of the final judgment in such proceeding.~~

~~(3) If a taxpayer claimed a deduction for a payment described in paragraph (2) which is disallowed because of a final judgment entered after the close of the income year for which the deduction was claimed, and if the proceeding was based on an indictment returned or an information filed prior to the expiration of the period for the assessment of any deficiency for such income year, the period for the assessment of any deficiency attributable to the deduction of such payment shall not expire prior to the expiration of one year from the date of such final judgment, and such deficiency may be assessed prior to the expiration of such one-year period notwithstanding the provision of any other law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent such assessment.~~

(2) No deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) for any payment (other than a payment described in paragraph (1)) made, directly or indirectly, to any person, if the payment constitutes an illegal bribe, illegal kickback, or other illegal payment under any law of the United States, or under any law of a state (but only if such state law is generally enforced), which subjects the payor to a criminal penalty or the loss of license or privilege to engage in a trade or business. For purposes of this paragraph, a kickback includes a payment in consideration of the referral of a client, patient, or customer. The burden of proof in respect of the issue, for purposes of this paragraph, as to whether a payment constitutes an illegal bribe, illegal kickback, or other illegal payment shall be upon the Franchise Tax Board to the same extent as it bears the burden of proof when the issue relates to fraud.

(3) No deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) for any kickback, rebate, or bribe made by any provider of services, supplier, physician, or other person who furnishes items or services for which payment is or may be made under the Social Security Act, or in whole or in part out of federal funds under a state plan approved under such act, if such kickback, rebate, or bribe is made in connection with the furnishing of such items or services or the making or receipt of such payments. For purposes of this paragraph, a kickback includes a payment in consideration of the referral of a client, patient, or customer.

(c) No deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) for any contribution or gift which would be allowable as a deduction under Sections 24357, 24358, and 24359 were it not for the percentage limitations, or the requirements as to the time of payment, set forth in such sections.

(d) For purposes of this part, whenever the amount of capital contributions evidenced by a share of stock issued pursuant to Section 303(c) of the Federal National Mortgage Association Charter Act (12 U.S.C., Section 1718) exceeds the fair market value of the stock as of the issue date of such stock, the initial holder of the stock shall treat the excess as ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the income year in carrying on a trade or business.

(e) No deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) for any fine or similar penalty paid to a government for the violation of any law.

(f) If in a criminal proceeding a taxpayer is convicted of a violation of the antitrust laws, or its plea of guilty or nolo contendere to an indictment or information charging such a violation is entered or accepted in such a proceeding, no deduction shall be allowed under subdivision (a) for two-thirds of any amount paid or incurred—

(1) On any judgment for damages entered against the taxpayer under Section 4 of the act entitled "An act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," approved October 15, 1914 (commonly known as the Clayton Act), on account of such violation or any related violation of the antitrust laws which occurred prior to the date of the final judgment of such conviction, or

(2) In settlement of any action brought under such Section 4 on account of such violation or related violation

The preceding sentence shall not apply with respect to any conviction or plea before January 1, 1971, or to any conviction or plea on or after such date in a new trial following an appeal of a conviction before such date

24437. In case of a social club or other membership organization which is operated primarily to furnish services or goods to members and which is not exempt from taxation, deductions for the taxable year in furnishing services, insurance, goods, or other items of value to members shall be allowed only to the extent of income derived during such year from members or transactions with members (including income derived during such year from institutes or trade shows which are primarily for the education of members) If for any such taxable year such deductions exceed income, the excess shall be treated as a deduction attributable to furnishing services, insurance, goods, or other items of value to members paid or incurred in the succeeding taxable year

This section shall not be applicable to any organization which is taxable as a bank, financial institution, or insurance company or is affiliated with such an organization, ~~or an organization which has made an election before October 9, 1969, under Internal Revenue Code Section 456(c),~~ or which for each day of any taxable year is a national securities exchange subject to regulation under the Security Exchange Act of 1934 or a contract market subject to regulation under the Commodity Exchange Act

SEC. 21 Section 25761a is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

(2) The collection of the whole or any amount of a jeopardy assessment may be stayed, at any time before the assessment becomes final, by filing with the Franchise Tax Board (1) a bond in an amount equal to the amount as to which the stay is desired, conditioned upon the payment of the amount, the collection of which is stayed by the bond, upon notice and demand at any time after the assessment becomes final, together with interest thereon from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the date of payment; or, (2) other security in such amount as the Franchise Tax Board may deem necessary, not exceeding double the amount (together with interest thereon) as to which the stay is desired.

(3) Upon the filing of the bond or other security the collection of so much of the amount assessed as is covered by the bond or other security shall be stayed. The taxpayer shall have the right to waive such stay at any time in respect of the whole or any part of the amount covered by the bond or other security, and if as a result of such waiver any part of the amount covered by the bond or other security is paid, then the bond or other security shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced. If any portion of the jeopardy assessment is abated, the bond or other security shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced.

(4) The Franchise Tax Board may, prior to the time the assessment becomes final, stay collection of the whole or any amount of a jeopardy assessment if it finds that jeopardy does not exist.

(5) Where collection of the whole or any amount of a jeopardy assessment has been stayed under this section, the period of limitation on any action to collect shall be tolled during the time of such stay.

(6) Within 60 days after the mailing or issuance of each jeopardy assessment the taxpayer may file with the Franchise Tax Board a written petition for reassessment, specifying in the petition the grounds upon which it is based. If no petition for reassessment is filed the jeopardy assessment becomes final upon expiration of the 60-day period. The filing of a petition for reassessment shall not operate to stay collection. Collection may be stayed only as provided in paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of this section.

(7) If a petition for reassessment is filed, the Franchise Tax Board shall reconsider the jeopardy assessment and, if the taxpayer has so requested in his petition, shall grant the taxpayer or his authorized representative an oral hearing. The Franchise Tax Board's action upon the petition for reassessment is final upon the expiration of 30 days from the date when it mails notice of its action to the taxpayer, unless within that 30-day period the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of the Franchise Tax Board to the board.

(8) The taxpayer may appeal to the board from the Franchise Tax Board's action on the petition for reassessment, the appeal to be made in the manner prescribed by Section 25667. The provisions of Article 1 of Chapter 20 relating to an appeal from the action of the Franchise Tax Board on a protest against an additional tax proposed to be assessed shall be applicable to the appeal

~~25932. If any taxpayer, upon notice and demand by the Franchise Tax Board, fails or refuses to make and file a return required by this part, the Franchise Tax Board is authorized to make an estimate of the net income and to compute and levy the amount of the tax due from any available information. In such case 25 percent of the tax, in addition to the amounts added under Section 25931, shall be added to the tax and shall be due and payable upon notice and demand from the Franchise Tax Board.~~

SEC. 23. Section 25933 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25933. If any taxpayer fails or refuses to furnish any information requested in writing by the Franchise Tax Board or fails or refuses to make and file a return required by this part upon notice and demand by the Franchise Tax Board, the Franchise Tax Board may add a penalty of 25 percent of the amount of tax determined pursuant to Section 25731 or of any ~~additional~~ deficiency tax assessed by ~~it~~ the Franchise Tax Board concerning the ~~determination~~ assessment of which ~~such~~ the information or return was required.

Amendment No. 2

On page 3, strike out line 6, and insert

"SEC. 2. Section 17207 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17207. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a deduction any debt which becomes worthless within the taxable year; (2) When satisfied that a debt is recoverable only in part, the Franchise Tax Board may allow such debt in an amount not in excess of the part charged off within the taxable year, as a deduction.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), the basis for determining the amount of the deduction for any bad debt shall be the adjusted basis provided in Section 18041 for determining the loss from the sale or other disposition of property.

(c) In lieu of any deduction under subdivision (a), there shall be allowed (in the discretion of the Franchise Tax Board) a deduction for a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts

(d) (1) (A) Subdivisions (a) and (c) shall not apply to any nonbusiness debt; and

(B) Where any nonbusiness debt becomes worthless within the taxable year, the loss resulting therefrom shall be considered a loss from the sale or exchange, during the taxable year, of a capital asset held for not more than ~~six months~~ one year.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "nonbusiness debt" means a debt other than—

(A) A debt created or acquired (as the case may be) in connection with a trade or business of the taxpayer; or

(B) A debt the loss from the worthlessness of which is incurred in the taxpayer's trade or business.

(e) This section shall not apply to a debt which is evidenced by a security as defined in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of Section 17206 ~~(g) (2) (C)~~.

(f) A payment by the taxpayer in discharge of part or all of his obligation as a guarantor, endorser, or indemnitor of a noncorporate obligation the proceeds of which were used in the trade or business of the borrower shall be treated as a debt becoming worthless within such taxable year for purposes of this section (except that subdivision (d) shall not apply), but only if the obligation of the borrower to the person to whom such payment was made was worthless (without regard to such guaranty, endorsement, or indemnity) at the time of such payment.

(g) (1) In the case of a taxpayer who is a dealer in property, in lieu of any deduction under subdivision (a), there shall be allowed (in the discretion of the Franchise Tax Board) for any taxable year beginning on and after January 1, 1967, a deduction—

(A) For a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts which, may arise out of his liability as a guarantor, endorser, or indemnitor of debt obligations arising out of the sale by him of real property or tangible personal property (including related services) in the ordinary course of his trade or business; and

(B) For the amount of any reduction in the suspense account required by clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (4) ~~(B) (i)~~.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (1), no deduction shall be allowed to a taxpayer for any addition to a reserve for bad debts which may arise out of his liability as guarantor, endorser, or indemnitor of debt obligations

(3) The opening balance of a reserve described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) ~~(A)~~ for the first taxable year beginning on and after January 1, 1967, for which a taxpayer maintains such reserve shall, under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, be determined as if the taxpayer had maintained such reserve for the preceding taxable years.

(4) (A) Except as provided by subparagraph (C), each taxpayer who maintains a reserve described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) ~~(A)~~ shall, for purposes of this subdivision and Section 17122, establish and maintain a suspense account The initial balance of such account shall be equal to the opening balance described in paragraph (3).

(B) At the close of each taxable year the suspense account shall be—

(i) Reduced by the excess of the suspense account at the beginning of the year over the reserve described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) ~~(A)~~ (after making the addition for such year provided in such paragraph), or

(ii) Increased (but not to an amount greater than the initial balance of the suspense account) by the excess of the reserve described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) ~~(A)~~ (after making the addition for such year provided in such paragraph) over the suspense account at the beginning of such year

(C) Subparagraphs (A) and (B) shall not apply in the case of the taxpayer who maintained for his last taxable year beginning before

January 1, 1967, a reserve for bad debts under subdivision (c) which included debt obligations described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) ~~(A)~~.

(5) If the taxpayer establishes a reserve under paragraph (1) of subdivision (g) ~~(1)~~ of this section for a taxable year beginning on and after January 1, 1967, and ending before December 1, 1968, the establishment of such reserve shall not be considered as a change in method of accounting for purposes of subdivision (c) of Section 17561 ~~(c)~~.

SEC. 3. Section 17216.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17216.2. (a) The amount of any charitable contribution of property otherwise taken into account under Section 17214 shall be reduced by the sum of—

(1) The amount of gain which would not ~~have been long term capital gain~~ be determined under paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 18162.5, if the property contributed had been sold by the taxpayer at its fair market value (determined at the time of such contribution), and

(2) In the case of a charitable contribution—

(A) Of tangible personal property, if the use by the donee is unrelated to the purpose or function constituting the basis for its exemption under Section 23701 (or, in the case of a governmental unit, to any purpose or function described in Section 17214), or

(B) To or for the use of a private foundation (as defined in Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code), other than a private foundation described in ~~subsection~~ Section 170 (b)(1)(E) of that code ~~50 percent of~~ the amount of gain which would have been ~~long term capital gain~~ recognized under paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 18162.5 if the property contributed had been sold by the taxpayer at its fair market value (determined at the time of such contribution).

For purposes of applying this subdivision (other than in the case of gain to which Section 18211 applies), property which is property used in the trade or business (as defined in Section 18182) shall be treated as a capital asset.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), in the case of a charitable contribution of less than the taxpayer's entire interest in the property contributed, the taxpayer's adjusted basis in such property shall be allocated between the interest contributed and any interest not contributed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 4. Section 17402 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17402. (a) In the case of property distributed in complete liquidation of a corporation, other than a collapsible corporation to which Section 17411 applies if—

(1) The liquidation is made in pursuance of a plan of liquidation adopted on or after December 31, 1950; and

(2) The distribution is in complete cancellation or redemption of all the stock, and the transfer of all the property under the liquidation occurs within some one calendar month following the year 1950, then in the case of each qualified electing shareholder (as defined in ~~subsection~~ subdivision (c)) gain upon the shares owned by him at the time of the adoption of the plan of liquidation shall be recognized only to the extent provided in ~~subsection~~ subdivision (e).

(b) For purposes of this section, the term "excluded corporation" means a corporation which at any time between January 1, 1956, and the date of the adoption of the plan of liquidation, both dates inclusive, was the owner of stock possessing 50 percent or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote on the adoption of such plan

(c) For purposes of this section, the term "qualified electing shareholder" means a shareholder (other than an excluded corporation) of any class of stock (whether or not entitled to vote on the adoption of the plan of liquidation) who is a shareholder at the time of the adoption of such plan, and whose written election to have the benefits of ~~subsection~~ subdivision (a) has been made and filed in accordance with ~~subsection~~ subdivision (d), but in the case of a shareholder other than a corporation, only if written elections have been so filed by shareholders (other than corporations) who at the time of the adoption of the plan of liquidation are owners of stock possessing at least 80 percent of the total combined voting power (exclusive of voting power possessed by stock owned by corporations) of all classes of stock entitled to vote on the adoption of such plan of liquidation.

(d) The written elections referred to in ~~subsection~~ subdivision (c) must be made and filed in such manner as to be not in contravention of regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board The filing must be within 30 days after the date of the adoption of the plan of liquidation or within one month after the effective date of this amended section whichever is later and may be made by the liquidating corporation or by its stockholders

(e) In the case of a qualified electing shareholder—

(1) There shall be recognized and treated as a dividend, so much of the gain as is not in excess of his ratable share of the earnings and profits of the corporation accumulated after February 28, 1913, such earnings and profits to be determined as of the close of the month in which the transfer in liquidation occurred under ~~subsection (a)(2)~~ paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), but without diminution by reason of distribution made during such month; but by including in the computation thereof all amounts accrued up to the date on which the transfer of all the property under the liquidation is completed; and

(2) There shall be recognized, and treated as a ~~short-term or long-term~~ capital gain, as the case may be, so much of the remainder of the gain as is not in excess of the amount by which the value of that portion of the assets received by him which consists of money, or of stock or securities acquired by the corporation after August 15, 1950, exceeds his ratable share of such earnings and profits.

SEC 5 Section 17411 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17411. Gain from—

(a) The sale or exchange of stock of a collapsible corporation;

(b) A distribution in partial or complete liquidation of a collapsible corporation, which distribution is treated under this part as in part or full payment in exchange for stock, and

(c) A distribution made by a collapsible corporation which, under paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 17323 ~~(c) (1)~~, is treated, to the extent it exceeds the basis of the stock, in the same manner as a gain from the sale or exchange of property, to the extent that it would be considered (but for the provisions of this article) as gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held ~~for more than six months~~ shall, except as provided in this article, be considered as gain from the sale or exchange of property which is not a capital asset.

SEC. 6 Section 17503 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17503. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the amount actually distributed or made available to any distributee by any employees' trust described in Section 17501 which is exempt from tax under Section 17631 shall be taxable to him, in the year in which so distributed or made available, under Sections 17101 to 17112.7, inclusive (relating to annuities). The amount actually distributed or made available to any distributee shall not include net unrealized appreciation in securities of the employer corporation attributable to the amount contributed by the employee. Such net unrealized appreciation and the resulting adjustments to basis of such securities shall be determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(b) In the case of an employees' trust described in Section 17501, which is exempt from tax under Section 17631, if the total distributions payable with respect to any employee are paid to the distributee within one taxable year of the distributee on account of the employee's death or other separation from the service, or on account of the death of the employee after his separation from the service, the amount of such distribution, to the extent exceeding the amount contributed by the employee (determined by applying Section 17106), which employee contributions shall be reduced by any amount theretofore distributed to him which were not includable in gross income, shall be considered a gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than ~~six months~~ one year but not more than five years.

Where such total distributions include securities of the employer corporation, there shall be excluded from such excess the net unrealized appreciation attributable to that part of the total distributions which consists of the securities of the employer corporation so distributed. The amount of such net unrealized appreciation and the resulting adjustments to basis of the securities of the employer corporation so distributed shall be determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

This subdivision ~~(b)~~ shall not apply to distributions paid to any distributee to the extent such distributions are attributable to contributions made on behalf of the employee while he was an employee within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 17502.2.

(c) For purposes of this section—

(1) The term "securities" means only shares of stock and bonds or debentures issued by a corporation with interest coupons or in registered form.

(2) The term "securities of the employer corporation" includes securities of a parent or subsidiary corporation (as defined in subdivisions (e) and (f) of Section 17535) of the employer corporation.

(3) The term "total distributions payable" means the balance to the credit of an employee which becomes payable to a distributee on account of the employee's death or other separation from the service, or on account of his death after separation from the service.

(d) The first sentence of subdivision (b) shall apply to a distribution paid after December 31, 1969 only to the extent that it does not exceed the sum of—

(1) The benefits accrued by the employee on behalf of whom it is paid during plan years beginning before January 1, 1970, and

(2) The portion of the benefits accrued by such employee during plan years beginning after December 31, 1969, which the distributee establishes does not consist of the employee's allocable share of employer contributions to the trust by which such distribution is paid.

The Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this subdivision.

SEC. 7. Section 17511 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17511. Except as provided in subdivision (a), if an annuity contract is purchased by an employer for an employee under a plan which meets the requirements of Section 17515 (whether or not the employer deducts the amounts paid for the contract under such section), the employee shall include in his gross income the amounts received under such contract for the year received as provided in Sections 17101 to 17112.7, inclusive (relating to annuities).

(a) If—

(1) An annuity contract is purchased by an employer for an employee under a plan described in the first paragraph;

(2) Such plan requires that refunds of contributions with respect to annuity contracts purchased under such plan be used to reduce subsequent premiums on the contracts under the plan; and

(3) The total amounts payable by reason of an employee's death or other separation from the service, or by reason of the death of an employee after the employee's separation from the service, are paid to the payee within one taxable year of the payee, then the amount of such payments, to the extent exceeding the amount contributed by the employee, which employee contributions shall be reduced by any amounts theretofore paid to him which were not includable in gross income, shall be considered a gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than ~~six months~~ one year but not more than five years. This subdivision shall not apply to amounts paid to any payee to the extent such amounts are attributable to contributions made on behalf of the employee while he was an employee within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 17502 2.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), the term "total amounts" means the balance to the credit of an employee which becomes payable to the payee by reason of the employee's death or other separation from the service, or by reason of his death after separation from the service.

(c) Subdivision (a) shall apply to a payment paid after December 31, 1969, only to the extent it does not exceed the sum of—

(1) The benefits accrued by the employee on behalf of whom it is paid during plan years beginning before January 1, 1970, and

(2) The portion of the benefits accrued by such employee during plan years beginning after December 31, 1969, which the payee establishes does not consist of the employee's allocable share of employer contributions under the plan under which the annuity contract is purchased.

The Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this subdivision

(d) For purposes of this section, the term "employee" includes an individual who is an employee within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 17502.2, and the employer of such individual is the person treated as his employer under subdivision (d) of Section 17502 2

SEC. 8. Section 17673 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17673. (a) Each participant in the common trust fund in computing its taxable income shall include, whether or not distributed and whether or not distributable—

(1) As part of its ~~gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than six months~~ capital gains or losses, its proportionate share of the net capital gains ~~and~~ or losses of the common trust fund ~~from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for not more than six months~~ ;

~~(2) As part of its gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than six months, its proportionate share of the gains and losses of the common trust fund from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than six months;~~

~~(3)~~ (2) Its proportionate share of the ordinary taxable income or the ordinary net loss of the common trust fund, computed as provided in Section 17674.

(b) The appropriate or proportionate share of any participant in any income of a common trust fund which would not be taxable by this state or which this state would be prohibited from taxing by the Constitution of this state or of the United States if received directly by the participants shall not be taxable to the recipients of such income.

SEC. 9 Section 17711 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17711. If the taxpayer so elects upon his return for a taxable year, the cutting of timber (for sale or for use in the taxpayer's trade or business) during such year by the taxpayer who owns, or has a contract right to cut, such timber (providing he has owned such timber or has held such contract right for a period of more than ~~six months~~ one year prior to the beginning of such year) shall be considered as a sale or exchange of such timber cut during such year. In case such election has been made, gain or loss to the taxpayer shall be recognized in an amount equal to the difference between the adjusted basis for depletion of such timber in the hands of the taxpayer and the fair market value of such timber. Such fair market value shall be the fair market value as of the first day of the taxable year in which such timber is cut, and shall thereafter be considered as the cost of such cut timber to the taxpayer for all purposes for which such cost is a necessary factor. If a taxpayer makes an election under this section such election shall apply with respect to all timber which is owned by the taxpayer or which the taxpayer has a contract right to cut and shall be binding upon the taxpayer for the taxable year for which the election is made and for all subsequent years, unless the Franchise Tax Board, on showing of undue hardship, permits the taxpayer to revoke his election; such revocation, however, shall preclude any further elections under this section except with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board For purposes of this section and Section 17712, the term "timber" includes evergreen trees which are more than six years old at the time severed from the roots and are sold for ornamental purposes

SEC. 10 Section 17712 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17712. In the case of the disposal of timber held for more than ~~six months~~ one year before such disposal, by the owner thereof under any form or type of contract by virtue of which such owner retains an economic interest in such timber, the difference between the amount realized from the disposal of such timber and the adjusted depletion basis thereof, shall be considered as though it were a gain or loss, as the case may be, on the sale of such timber. In determining the gross income, the adjusted gross income, or the taxable income of the lessee, the deductions allowable with respect to rents and royalties shall be determined without regard to the provisions of this section. The date of disposal of such timber shall be deemed to be the date such timber is cut, but if payment is made to the owner under the contract before such timber is cut the owner may elect to treat the date of such payment as the date of disposal of such timber. For purposes of this section, the term "owner" means any person who owns an interest in such timber, including a sublessor and a holder of a contract to cut timber.

SEC. 11. Section 17734 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17734. (a) In the case of an estate or trust (other than a trust meeting the specifications of Article 2) there shall be allowed as a deduction in computing its taxable income (in lieu of the deductions allowed by Sections 17214 and 17303, relating to deduction for charitable, etc., contributions and gifts) any amount of the gross income, without limitation, which pursuant to the terms of the governing instrument is, during the taxable year, paid for a purpose specified in Sections 17214 and 17303. If a charitable contribution is paid after the close of such taxable year and on or before the last day of the year following the close of such taxable year, then the trustee or administrator may elect to treat such contribution as paid during such taxable year. The election shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Franchise Tax Board by regulations prescribes

(b) In the case of an estate, and in the case of a trust (other than a trust meeting the specifications of Article 2 (commencing with Section 17751) of this chapter) required by the terms of its governing instrument to set aside amounts which was—

(1) Created on or before December 31, 1970, if—

(A) An irrevocable remainder interest is transferred to or for the use of an organization described in Section 17214, or

(B) The grantor is at all times after December 31, 1970, under a mental disability to change the terms of the trust; or

(2) Established by a will executed on or before December 31, 1970, if—

(A) The testator dies before October 9, 1972, without having republished the will after December 31, 1970, by codicil or otherwise,

(B) The testator at no time after December 31, 1970, had the right to change the portions of the will which pertain to the trust, or

(C) The will is not republished by codicil or otherwise before October 9, 1972, and the testator is on such date and at all times thereafter under a mental disability to republish the will by codicil or otherwise, there shall also be allowed as a deduction in computing its taxable income any amount of the gross income, without limitation, which pursuant to the terms of the governing instrument is, during the taxable year, permanently set aside for a purpose specified in Section 17214, or is to be used exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, or for the establishment, acquisition, maintenance, or operation of a public cemetery not operated for profit In the case of a trust, the preceding sentence shall apply only to gross income earned with respect to amounts transferred to the trust before December 31, 1970, or transferred under a will to which paragraph (2) applies

(c) In the case of a pooled income fund (as defined in subdivision (e)), there shall also be allowed as a deduction in computing its taxable income any amount of the gross income attributable to gain from the sale of a capital asset held for more than ~~six months~~ one year, without limitation, which pursuant to the terms of the governing instrument is, during the taxable year, permanently set aside for a purpose specified in Section 17214.

(d) To the extent that the amount otherwise allowable as a deduction under this subdivision consists of gain from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for more than ~~six months~~ one year, proper adjustment shall be made to take into account any gain not recognized to the estate or trust under Section ~~18151~~ 18162.5 (relating to recognized capital gains and losses). In the case of a trust, the deduction allowed by this subdivision shall be subject to Section 17811 (relating to unrelated business income) and Sections 17812 to 17818, inclusive (relating to prohibited transactions)

(e) For purposes of subdivision (c), a pooled income fund is a trust—

(1) To which each donor transfers property, contributing an irrevocable remainder interest in such property to or for the use of an organization described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 23707 (other than clauses (vii), (viii), (ix) or (x)), and retaining an income interest for the life of one or more beneficiaries (living at the time of such transfer),

(2) In which the property transferred by each donor is commingled with property transferred by other donors who have made or make similar transfers,

(3) Which cannot have investments in securities which are exempt from taxes imposed by this part,

(4) Which includes only amounts received from transfers which meet the requirements of this subdivision,

(5) Which is maintained by the organization to which the remainder interest is contributed and of which no donor or beneficiary of an income interest is a trustee, and

(6) From which each beneficiary of an income interest receives income, for each year for which he is entitled to receive the income interest referred to in paragraph (1), determined by the rate of return earned by the trust for such year

For purposes of determining the amount of any charitable contribution allowable by reason of a transfer of property to a pooled fund, the value of the income interest shall be determined on the basis of the highest rate of return earned by the fund for any of the three taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year of the fund in which the transfer is made In the case of funds in existence less than three taxable years preceding the taxable year of the fund in which a transfer is made, the rate of return shall be deemed to be 6 percent per annum, except that the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe a different rate of return.

(f) In the case of a private foundation which is not exempt from taxation under Section 23701d for the taxable year, the provisions of this section shall not apply and the provisions of Section 17214 shall apply

SEC 12 Section 17737 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read

17737 If on the termination of an estate or trust, the estate or trust has—

(a) A capital loss carryover under Section ~~18152(b)~~ 18152, or

(b) For the last taxable year of the estate or trust deductions (other than the deduction allowed under subdivision (d) of Section 17734) in excess of gross income for such year, then such carryover or such excess shall be allowed as a deduction, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, to the beneficiaries succeeding to the property of the estate or trust

SEC 13 Section 17852 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read

17852. In determining his income tax, each partner shall take into account separately his distributive share of the partnership's—

(a) Gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets ~~held for not more than six months~~ ;

~~(b) Gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than six months;~~

~~(c)~~ (b) Gains and losses from sales or exchanges of property described in Section 18181 and 18182 (relating to certain property used in a trade or business and involuntary conversions) ;

~~(d)~~ (c) Charitable contributions (as defined in Section 17214) ;

~~(e)~~ (d) Political contributions (as defined in Section 17234) ;

~~(f)~~ (e) Taxes, described in Section 18006, paid to another state on such income;

~~(g)~~ (f) Other items of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit, to the extent provided by regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board; and

~~(h)~~ (g) Taxable income or loss, exclusive of items requiring separate computation under other ~~subsections~~ subdivisions of this section.

SEC. 14. Section 18151 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

~~18151. (a) If for any taxable year the net long term capital gain exceeds the net short-term capital loss, 50 percent of the amount of such excess shall be a deduction from gross income. In the case of an estate or trust, the deduction shall be computed by excluding the portion (if any), of the gains for the taxable year from sales or exchanges of capital assets, which, under Sections 17752 and 17762 (relating to inclusions of amounts in gross income of beneficiaries of trusts), is includable by the income beneficiaries as gain derived from the sale or exchange of capital assets.~~

~~(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) shall apply with respect to taxable years which end on or before November 30, 1972.~~

SEC 15. Section 18152 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18152. (a) Losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be allowed only to the extent of the gains from such sales or exchanges, plus (if such losses exceed such gains) whichever of the following is smallest:

(1) The taxable income for the taxable year,

(2) One thousand dollars ($1,000) ; ~~or~~

~~(3) The sum of—~~

~~(A) The excess of the net short-term capital loss over the net long-term capital gain, and~~

~~(B) One half of the excess of the net long-term capital loss, over the net short-term capital gain.~~

(b) In the case of a husband or wife who files a separate return, the amount specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall be five hundred dollars ($500) in lieu of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(c) For purposes of subdivision (a), taxable income shall be computed without regard to gains or losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets. If the taxpayer elects to pay the optional tax imposed by Section 17048, "taxable income" as used in this section shall read as "adjusted gross income".

(d) If a taxpayer has a net capital loss for any taxable year — the excess of such net capital loss shall be a capital loss in the succeeding taxable year.

~~(1) The excess of the net short-term capital loss over the net long-term capital gain for such year shall be a short-term capital loss in the succeeding taxable year, and~~

~~(2) The excess of the net long-term capital loss over the net short-term capital gain for such year shall be a long-term capital loss in the succeeding taxable year.~~

~~(e) (1) For purposes of determining the excess referred to in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d), an amount equal to the amount allowed for the taxable year under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of this section shall be treated as a short-term capital gain in such year.~~

~~(2) For purposes of determining the excess referred to in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), an amount equal to the sum of—~~

~~(A) The amount allowed for the taxable year under paragraphs (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of this section, and~~

~~(B) The excess of the amount described in subparagraph (A) over the net short-term capital loss (determined without regard to this section) for such year,~~

~~shall be treated as a short-term capital gain in such year.~~

~~(f) In the case of any amount which, under subdivision (d) and subdivision (a) (as in effect for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1971), is treated as a capital loss in the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1970, subdivision (d) and subdivision (a) (as in effect for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1971) shall apply (and subdivision (d) and subdivision (a) as in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1970, shall not apply) to the extent such amount exceeds the total of any net capital gains (determined without regard to subdivisions (d), (e), and (f)) of taxable years beginning after December 31, 1970.~~

(e) In the case of a net capital loss which a taxpayer is entitled to carry over from any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1972—

(1) If the net short-term capital loss (as defined prior to the repeal of Section 18162 by the 1972 Session of the Legislature) exceeded the net long-term capital gain (as defined prior to the repeal of Section 18162 by the 1972 Session of the Legislature), the excess shall be carried over at 100 percent

(2) If the net long-term capital loss (as defined prior to the repeal of Section 18162 by the 1972 Session of the Legislature) exceeded the net short-term capital gain (as defined prior to the repeal of Section 18162 by the 1972 Session of the Legislature), the excess shall be carried over at 50 percent

~~18162 For purposes of this part—~~

~~(a) The term "short-term capital gain" means gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for not more than six months, if and to the extent such gain is taken into account in computing gross income~~

~~(b) The term "short-term capital loss" means loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for not more than six months, if and to the extent that such loss is taken into account in computing taxable income.~~

~~(c) The term "long-term capital gain" means gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than six months, if and to the extent such gain is taken into account in computing gross income.~~

~~(d) The term "long-term capital loss" means loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than six months, if and to the extent that such loss is taken into account in computing taxable income.~~

~~(e) The term "net short-term capital gain" means the excess of short-term capital gains for the taxable year over the short-term capital losses for such year.~~

~~(f) The term "net short-term capital loss" means the excess of short-term capital losses for the taxable year over the short-term capital gains for such year.~~

~~(g) The term "net long-term capital gain" means the excess of long-term capital gains for the taxable year over the long-term capital losses for such year.~~

~~(h) The term "net long-term capital loss" means the excess of long-term capital losses for the taxable year over the long-term capital gains for such year.~~

~~(i) The term "net capital gain" means the excess of—~~

~~(i) The sum of the gains from sales or exchanges of capital assets, plus taxable income of the taxpayer or one thousand dollars ($1,000), whichever is smaller, over~~

~~(ii) The losses from such sales or exchanges.~~

~~For purposes of this subparagraph, taxable income shall be computed without regard to gains or losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets. If the taxpayer elects to pay the optional tax under Section 17048, the term "taxable income" as used in this subparagraph shall be read as "adjusted gross income."~~

~~(j) The term "net capital loss" means the excess of the losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the sum allowed under Section 18152(a).~~

SEC. 17. Section 18172 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18172. (a) In the case of a person acquiring property from a decedent or to whom property passed from a decedent (within the meaning of Section 18045), if—

(1) The basis of such property in the hands of such person is determined under Section 18044, and

(2) Such property is sold or otherwise disposed of by such person within ~~six months~~ five years after the decedent's death, then such person shall be considered to have held such property for more than ~~six months~~ one year but not more than five years.

(b) This section shall apply with respect to decedent's dying after December 31, 1970.

SEC. 18. Section 18181 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18181. (a) If, during the taxable year, the recognized gains upon sales or exchanges of property used in the trade or business, plus the recognized gains from the compulsory or involuntary conversion (as a result of destruction in whole or in part, theft or seizure, or an exercise of the power of requisition or condemnation or the threat or imminence thereof) of property used in the trade or business and capital assets ~~held for more than six months~~ into other property or money, exceed the recognized losses from the sales, exchanges, and conversions, such gains and losses shall be considered as gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets ~~held for more than six months~~. If such gains do not exceed such losses, such gains and losses shall not be considered as gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets.

(b) In determining, for purposes of this section, whether gains exceed losses, the gains described therein shall be included only if and to the extent taken into account in computing gross income and the losses described therein shall be included only if and to the extent taken into account in computing taxable income, except that subdivision (a) of Section 18152 shall not apply

(c) For purposes of this section, losses (including losses not compensated for by insurance or otherwise) upon the destruction, in whole or in part, theft or seizure, or requisition or condemnation of (1) property used in the trade or business or (2) capital assets ~~held for more than six months~~ shall be considered losses from a compulsory or involuntary conversion

In the case of any involuntary conversion (subject to the provisions of this section but for this sentence) arising from fire, storm, shipwreck, or other casualty, or from theft, of any property used in the trade or business or of any capital asset ~~held for more than six months~~, this section shall not apply to such conversion (whether resulting in gain or loss) if during the taxable year the recognized losses from such conversions exceed the recognized gains from such conversions

18182. (a) For the purposes of this section and Section 18181, the term "property used in the trade or business" means property used in the trade or business, of a character which is subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in Sections 17208 to 17211.7, inclusive, ~~held for more than six months,~~ and real property used in the trade or business, ~~held for more than six months,~~ which is not.

(1) Property of a kind which would properly be includable in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year,

(2) Property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, or

(3) A copyright, a literary, musical or artistic composition, a letter or memorandum, or similar property, held by a taxpayer described in subdivision (c) of Section 18161

(b) Such term also includes timber with respect to which Sections 17711 and 17712 are applicable Such term also includes cattle and horses, regardless of age, held by the taxpayer for draft, breeding, dairy, or sporting purposes, and held by him for 24 months or more from the date of acquisition, and other livestock, regardless of age, held by the taxpayer for draft, breeding, dairy, or sporting purposes, and held by him for 12 months or more from the date of acquisition. It does not include poultry.

(c) In the case of an unharvested crop on land used in the trade or business and held for more than ~~six months~~ one year, if the crop and the land are sold or exchanged (or compulsorily or involuntarily converted as described in Section 18181) at the same time and to the same person, the crop shall be considered as "property used in the trade or business."

SEC. 20. Section 18183 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18183. For the purpose of this part, in the case of bonds, debentures, notes, or certificates or other evidences of indebtedness, which are capital assets in the hands of the taxpayer, and which are issued by any corporation, or by any government or political subdivision thereof—

(a) Amounts received by the holder on retirement of such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness shall be considered as amounts received in exchange therefor (except that in the case of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued before January 1, 1955, this subdivision shall apply only to those issued with interest coupons or in registered form, or to those in such form on December 31, 1954)

(3) This subdivision shall not apply to—sale or exchange of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued by a corporation after May 27, 1969 held by the taxpayer more than ~~six months~~ one year, any gain realized shall (except as provided in the following sentence) be considered gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset ~~held for more than six months~~. If at the time of original issue there was an intention to call the bond or other evidence of indebtedness before maturity, any gain realized on the sale or exchange thereof which does not exceed an amount equal to the original issue discount (as defined in Section 18184) reduced by the portion of original issue discount previously includable in the gross income of any holder (as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c)) shall be considered as gain from the sale or exchange of property which is not a capital asset

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), on the sale or exchange of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued by a government or political subdivision thereof after December 31, 1954, or by a corporation after December 31, 1954, and on or before May 27, 1969, held by the taxpayer more than ~~six months~~ one year, any gain realized which does not exceed—

(A) An amount equal to the original issue discount (as defined in Section 18184), or

(B) If at the time of original issue there was no intention to call the bond or other evidence of indebtedness before maturity, an amount which bears the same ratio to the original issue discount (as defined in Section 18184) as the number of complete months that the bond or other evidence of indebtedness was held by the taxpayer bears to the number of complete months from the date of original issue to the date of maturity, shall be considered as gain from the sale or exchange of property which is not a capital asset Gain in excess of such amount shall be considered gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset ~~held more than six months~~.

(3) This subdivision shall not apply to—

(A) Obligations the interest on which is not includable in gross income under Section 17137 (relating to certain governmental obligations); or

(B) Any holder who has purchased the bond or other evidence of indebtedness at a premium.

(4) In the case of obligations with respect to which the taxpayer has made an election provided by Section 17581 (relating to accounting rules for certain obligations issued at a discount), this section shall not require the inclusion of any amount previously includable in gross income.

(c) (1) There shall be included in the gross income of the holder of any bond or other evidence of indebtedness issued by a corporation after May 27, 1969, the ratable monthly portion of original issue discount multiplied by the number of complete months (plus any fractional part of a month determined in accordance with the last sentence of this paragraph) such holder held such bond or other evidence of indebtedness during the taxable year Except as provided in paragraph (2), the ratable monthly portion of original issue discount shall equal the original issue discount (as defined in Section 18184) divided by the number of complete months from the date of original issue to the stated maturity date of such bond or other evidence of indebtedness. For purposes of this section, a complete month commences with the date of original issue and the corresponding day of each succeeding calendar month (or the last day of a calendar month in which there is no corresponding day), and, in any case where a bond or other evidence of indebtedness is acquired on any other day, the ratable monthly portion of original issue discount for the complete month in which such acquisition occurs shall be allocated between the transferor and the transferee in accordance with the number of days in such complete month each held the bond or other evidence of indebtedness

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, the ratable monthly portion of original issue discount shall not include an amount, determined at the time of any purchase after the original issue of such bond or other evidence of indebtedness, equal to the excess of—

(A) The cost of such bond or other evidence of indebtedness incurred by such holder, over

(B) The issue price of such bond or other evidence of indebtedness increased by the portion of original discount previously includable in the gross income of any holder (computed without regard to this paragraph), divided by the number of complete months (plus any fractional part of a month commencing with the date of purchase) from the date of such purchase to the stated maturity date of such bond or other evidence of indebtedness.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (2), the term "purchase" means any acquisition of a bond or other evidence of indebtedness, but only if the basis of the bond or other evidence of indebtedness is not determined in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of such bond or other evidence of indebtedness in the hands of the person from whom acquired, or under Section 18044 (relating to property acquired from a decedent).

(4) This subdivision shall not apply to any holder who has purchased the bond or other evidence of indebtedness at a premium.

(5) The basis of any bond or other evidence of indebtedness in the hands of the holder thereof shall be increased by the amount included in his gross income pursuant to paragraph (1)

SEC 21. Section 18187 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read.

18187. If gain or loss from a short sale is considered as gain or loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset under Section 18186 and if on the date of such short sale substantially identical property has been held by the taxpayer for not more than ~~six months~~ one year (determined without regard to the effect, under ~~paragraph~~ subdivision (b) of this section, of such short sale on the holding period), or if substantially identical property is acquired by the taxpayer after such short sale and on or before the date of the closing thereof—

(a) Any gain on the closing of such short sale shall be considered as a gain on the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for not more than ~~six months~~ one year (notwithstanding the period of time any property used to close such short sale has been held), and

(b) The holding period of such substantially identical property shall be considered to begin (notwithstanding Sections 18163 through 18170, relating to the holding period of property) on the date of the closing of the short sale, or on the date of a sale, gift, or other disposition of such property, whichever date occurs first. This ~~paragraph~~ subdivision shall apply to such substantially identical property in the order of the dates of the acquisition of such property, but only to so much of such property as does not exceed the quantity sold short.

For purposes of this section, the acquisition of an option to sell property at a fixed price shall be considered as a short sale, and the exercise or failure to exercise such option shall be considered as a closing of such short sale.

SEC 22. Section 18189 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18189. If on the date of such short sale substantially identical property has been held by the taxpayer for more than ~~six months~~ one year, any loss on the closing of such short sale shall be considered as a loss on the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than ~~six months~~ one year (notwithstanding the period of time any property used to close such short sale has been held, and notwithstanding Section 18191).

SEC 23. Section 18190 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read.

18190. (a) Subdivision (a) of Section 18187 ~~(a)~~ or Section 18189 shall not apply to the gain or loss, respectively, on any quantity of property used to close such short sale which is in excess of the quantity of the substantially identical property referred to in the applicable ~~subsection~~ subdivision.

(b) For purposes of Sections 18187 and 18189—

~~(i)~~ (1) The term "property" includes only stocks and securities (including stocks and securities dealt with on a "when issued" basis), and commodity futures, which are capital assets in the hands of the taxpayer;

~~(ii)~~ (2) In the case of futures transactions in any commodity on or subject to the rules of a board of trade or commodity exchange, a commodity future requiring delivery in one calendar month shall not be considered as property substantially identical to another commodity future requiring delivery in a different calendar month, and

~~(iii)~~ (3) In the case of a short sale of property by an individual the term "taxpayer," in the application of this section and Sections 18187 and 18189, shall be read as "taxpayer or his spouse", but an individual who is legally separated from the taxpayer under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance shall not be considered as the spouse of the taxpayer

(c) Where the taxpayer enters into two commodity futures transactions on the same day, one requiring delivery by him in one market and the other requiring delivery to him of the same (or substantially identical) commodity in the same calendar month in a different market, and the taxpayer subsequently closes both such transactions on the same day, Sections 18187 and 18189 shall have no application to so much of the commodity involved in either such transaction as does not exceed in quantity the commodity involved in the other.

(d) (1) In the case of a taxpayer who is a dealer in securities (within the meaning of Section 18196)—

~~(i)~~ (A) If, on the date of a short sale of stock, substantially identical property which is a capital asset in the hands of the taxpayer has been held for not more than ~~six months~~ one year, and

~~(ii)~~ (B) If such short sale is closed more than 20 days after the date on which it was made, subdivision (b) of Section 18187 ~~(b)~~ shall apply in respect of the holding period of such substantially identical property.

(2) For purposes of ~~subparagraph~~ paragraph (1)—

~~(i)~~ (A) The last sentence of Section 18187 applies; and

~~(ii)~~ (B) The term "stock" means any share or certificate of stock in a corporation, any bond or other evidence of indebtedness which is convertible into any such share or certificate, or any evidence of an interest in, or right to subscribe to or purchase, any of the foregoing.

SEC 24 Section 18191 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18191 (a) Gain or loss attributable to the sale or exchange of, or loss attributable to failure to exercise, a privilege or option to buy or sell property shall be considered gain or loss from the sale or exchange of property which has the same character as the property to which the option or privilege relates has in the hands of the taxpayer (or would have in the hands of the taxpayer if acquired by him).

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), if loss is attributable to failure to exercise a privilege or option, the privilege or option shall be deemed to have been sold or exchanged on the day it expired

(c) (1) In the case of gain on lapse of an option granted by the taxpayer as part of a straddle, the gain shall be deemed to be gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for not more than ~~six months~~ one year on the day that the option expired. — — .

(2) This subdivision shall not apply to any person who holds securities for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision—

(A) The term "straddle" means a simultaneously granted combination of an option to buy, and an option to sell, the same quantity of a security at the same price during the same period of time

(B) The term "security" has the meaning assigned to such term by subdivision (c) of Section 18196 ~~(c)~~.

(d) This section shall not apply to—

(1) A privilege or option which constitutes property described in subdivision (a) of Section 18161,

(2) In the case of gain attributable to the sale or exchange of a privilege or option, any income derived in connection with such privilege or option which, without regard to this section, is treated as other than gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset;

(3) A loss attributable to failure to exercise an option described in Section 18188; or

(4) Gain attributable to the sale or exchange of a privilege or option acquired by the taxpayer before March 1, 1959, if in the hands of the taxpayer such privilege or option is a capital asset.

SEC. 25. Section 18192 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18192. A transfer (other than by gift, inheritance, or devise) of property consisting of all substantial rights to a patent, or an undivided interest therein which includes a part of all such rights, by any holder shall be considered the sale or exchange of a capital asset ~~held for more than six months~~, regardless of whether or not payments in consideration of such transfer are—

(a) Payable periodically over a period generally coterminous with the transferee's use of the patent; or

(b) Contingent on the productivity, use, or disposition of the property transferred.

SEC. 26. Section 18202 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18202 Amounts received from the assignment or release by an employee, after more than 20 years' employment, of all his rights to receive, after termination of his employment and for a period of not less than five years (or for a period ending with his death), a percentage of future profits or receipts of his employer shall be considered an amount received from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than ~~six months~~ one year but not more than five years if—

(a) Such rights were included in the terms of the employment of such employee for not less than 12 years;

(b) Such rights were included in the terms of the employment of such employee before June 6, 1955, and

(c) The total of the amounts received for such assignment or release is received in one taxable year and after the termination of such employment.

SEC 27. Section 18242 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18242. (a) For purposes of this article, the term "averageable income" means the amount by which taxable income for the computation year (reduced as provided in subdivision (b)) exceeds 133⅓ percent of average base period income

(b) The taxable income for the computation year shall be reduced by—

(1) The amount (if any) to which Section 17112.5 applies, and

(2) The amounts included in the income of a beneficiary of a trust under subdivision (a) of Section 17776

(c) For purposes of this article—

(1) The term "average base period income" means one-fourth of the sum of the base period incomes for the base period.

(2) The base period income for any taxable year is the taxable income for such year—

(A) Decreased by the amounts included in the income of a beneficiary of a trust under subdivision (a) of Section 17776; and

(B) For taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1967, increased by the amount of the deductions for personal exemption claimed for such year; and

~~(C) For the purposes of this article, with respect to computation years beginning after December 31, 1971, the percentages provided for in Section 18162.5 shall be applied to the capital gains and losses for the base years beginning after December 1, 1967, and ending on or before December 31, 1972.~~

(d) For purposes of this article—

(1) The term "computation year" means the taxable year for which the taxpayer chooses the benefits of this article

(2) The term "base period" means the four taxable years immediately preceding the computation year.

(3) The term "base period year" means any of the four taxable years immediately preceding the computation year

(4) The term "joint return" means the return of a husband and wife made under Section 18402.

Assembly Bill No. 1609—An act to amend Section 531 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

In lines 1 and 2 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "531 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation", and insert "20816 of the Education Code, relating to taxation for the support of the public schools, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately".

Amendment No. 2

On page 1, strike out line 1, and insert

"SECTION 1 Section 20816 of the Education Code, as amended by Chapter 1783 of the Statutes of the 1971 Regular Session of the Legislature, is amended to read:

20816 (a) The maximum rate of school district tax, including any maximum rate fixed pursuant to Section 20803, is increased in any fiscal year for any school district situated wholly or in part within a county which, in the 1968–1969 fiscal year, household furnishings and personal effects were enrolled on the county assessment roll

(b) The increase in maximum tax rate shall be in an amount equal to the 2 percent of the total of the school district tax rates at which property taxes were levied and collected for purposes of the district during the 1968–1969 fiscal year, but subject to the provisions of subdivision (c)

(c) (1) On or before the first day of February in any year, the governing board of the district may submit a petition to the county superintendent of schools requesting that officer to fix the maximum tax rate of the district for the next succeeding fiscal year at a rate higher than that provided for in subdivision (b) The petition shall demonstrate, on the basis of the best information available to the governing board, that the net loss in revenue which would have resulted to the district in the 1968–1969 fiscal year if household furnishings and personal effects had been exempted from property taxation, taking into consideration increases in state equalization aid which would have accrued to the district as result thereof, exceeds the revenues produced by the increase in maximum tax rate provided for in subdivision (b).

(2) The assessor shall estimate the total amount of assessed value lost by reason of the exemption for household furnishings and personal effects between the 1968–1969 and 1969–1970 fiscal years and shall certify his findings to the county auditor and the county superintendent of schools The county superintendent of schools shall estimate the amount of equalization aid to be received by the district on the basis of the loss in assessed value certified by the assessor The county auditor shall apply the tax rate of the district for the 1968–1969 fiscal year to the amount of assessed value determined by the assessor and from the amount computed shall subtract the amount certified by the county superintendent of schools The tax rate of the district for this purpose shall then be computed by determining the rate which will reflect this remaining amount. The district shall be bound by this determination of the auditor, whether it is more than, or less than, the amount of increase authorized by subdivision (b).

(3) This subdivision ~~(c)~~ shall not apply to any district which has not first availed itself of this subdivision on or before February 1, 1972

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if any school district imposed a tax under an authorization contained in this section prior to the 1971–1972 fiscal year, such district is authorized to impose such tax for the 1972–1973 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter, whether or not such district was legally entitled to impose a tax under this section in the first instance

SEC 2 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect The facts constituting such necessity are·

As a part of the general program of property tax relief adopted by the Legislature at its 1968 First Extraordinary Session and approved, in part, by the voters as Proposition 1-a on the ballot for the general election held on Tuesday, November 5, 1968, the Legislature exempted household furnishings and personal effects from property taxation One of the major reasons for enacting such exemption was that almost insurmountable problems were created by the administration of the tax on this particular type of personal property, which caused wide variations between counties with respect to assessment practices

In order to enable school districts to recoup revenue losses caused by the exemption for household furnishings and personal effects, Section 22 5 of Chapter 1 of the Statutes of the 1968 First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature added Section 20816 to the Education Code to permit such districts to impose a small additional tax on property generally. In the 1969–1970 and 1970–1971 fiscal years, the low wealth school districts in Humboldt County took advantage of this authorization

However, due to a change in administration in tax officials in Humboldt County, it is no longer certain whether or not these school districts were eligible in the first instance to impose the tax authorized by Section 20816, and no such tax was collected for them in the 1971–1972 fiscal year To enable these low wealth districts, as well as all other districts similarly situated, to collect this revenue for the 1972–1973 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately ''

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Mr Thomas was granted unanimous consent that the following letter of transmittal be printed in the Journal:

Joint Legislative Audit Committee

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California

Sirs: We herewith transmit a report on the audit of the data processing operations of the Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS) and the Data Processing Service Center (DPSC) which is operated by the PERS. The DPSC provides EDP services to the State Teachers' Retirement System (STRS) and the Department of Veterans' Affairs (VA).

The objectives of this audit were to evaluate the effectiveness and efficiencies of the data processing operations of the PERS and the DPSC which have annual budgets of $880,000 and $576,000 respectively, for the fiscal year 1971–72. The DPSC budget includes a share of the PERS-EDP budget.

The PERS has used EDP productively and has set up a DPSC which is one of the best examples of EDP consolidation in state government However, the audit identified areas of deficiency which require considerable improvement.

No long-range master plan has been established to provide a foundation for the effective development of management and EDP systems. Development of the Public Employees' Retirement Management Information System (PERMIS) has been stalled for 2½ years because of a lack of user involvement in basic planning and development functions.

PERS does not place necessary emphasis upon internal controls. As a result, serious control weaknesses exist in major systems that process large volumes of data. For example, automated calculation of retirement benefits has revealed that EDP records for 20 to 25 percent of the 400,000 active members contain significant inaccuracies in pay rate and service credit data. In most cases, these inaccuracies are manually detected and corrected before payment of benefits.

The DPSC is not a fully developed and well defined EDP service organization. Similar EDP programming and key punch functions are performed outside of the DPSC by the PERS and the STRS This results in wasteful utilization of total EDP resources.

Considerable inefficiency occurs daily in the computer processing of PERS data because programs have not been modified to allow for direct read-in of key-entry tapes. Annual savings of approximately $39,400 could be realized if the programs were modified.

In September 1971 the PERS, STRS, and VA completed a joint feasibility study which recommended that a new computer be installed by July 1972. However, the study falls short of providing adequate justification for a new computer. Projected work loads indicate that the existing computer can meet the needs of the users until July 1973 or beyond. As recommended in the audit report the PERS has agreed to defer procurement of a new computer. This will result in an annual savings of $40,000.

The DPSC reports a high level of computer utilization. However, the existing utilization reporting system is seriously inadequate and the reported utilization information is overstated by an undeterminable amount. Also, job processing costs and variances are not reported, and pressures are not imposed upon the DPSC or user organizations to critically evaluate the costs and effectiveness of EDP services provided.

As the result of a legislative request, PERS is currently participating in a feasibility study for a Fiscal and Personnel DPSC to provide services to member agencies of EDP Consolidation Group Four.

The report contains 69 recommendations including 13 major recommendations in the areas of planning, organization, systems effort, EDP controls, computer operations, and cost reporting. The PERS has concurred with all of the reported findings and has indicated positive intent to implement all recommendations. However, implementation of certain of the recommendations concerning the operations of the PERS-DPSC may not be necessary if PERS becomes a user of the planned Fiscal and Personnel DPSC (Consolidation Group Four).

Respectfully submitted,

VINCENT THOMAS, Chairman
Joint Legislative Audit Committee

Above report referred to the Committee on Efficiency and Cost Control.

Speaker Presiding

At 2 :20 p.m., Hon. Bob Moretti, 42nd District, presiding.

Speaker pro Tempore Presiding

At 2 :21 p m., Hon. Carlos Bee, 13th District, presiding.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Speaker pro Tempore Bee was granted unanimous consent that television photographers be permitted on the floor of the Assembly.

Amendment No. 5

On page 3, after line 14, insert

"SEC 3 Section 2811 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2811. (a) Each person holding a regular renewable license under this chapter shall apply for a renewal of his license and pay the biennial renewal fee required by this chapter each two years on or before the last day of the month following the month in which his birthday occurs, beginning with the second birthday following the date on which the license was issued, whereupon the board shall renew the license.

Each such license not renewed in accordance with this section shall expire but may within a period of eight years thereafter be reinstated upon payment of the biennial renewal fee and penalty fee required by this chapter and upon submission of such proof of the applicant's qualifications as may be required by the board, except that during such eight-year period no examination shall be required as a condition for the reinstatement of any such expired license which has lapsed solely by reason of nonpayment of the renewal fee. After the expiration of such eight-year period the board may require as a condition of reinstatement that the applicant pass such examination as it deems necessary to determine his present fitness to resume the practice of professional nursing.

(b) After January 1, ~~1975~~ 1976, the board shall require, as a condition to the renewal of such license granted pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, that the holder thereof submit proof satisfactory to the board that, during the preceding two-year period, he has informed himself of developments in the registered nurse field occurring since the issuance of his certificate, or the last renewal thereof, whichever last occurred, either by pursuing an approved course or courses of continuing education in the registered nurse field or by other means deemed equivalent by the board. In lieu of submitting such proof, the license holder, if he so desires, may take and successfully complete an examination given by the board designed to test his knowledge of developments occurring in the registered nurse field since the issuance of his license, or the last renewal thereof, whichever last occurred.

Whenever a license has lapsed because of failure to comply with this subdivision, the board shall notify the licensee of all courses, examinations, and other equivalent means which in the opinion of the board would bring the licensee into compliance with this subdivision if completed. Such license ~~it~~ may be reinstated, without time limit, upon proof satisfactory to the board that the licensee has informed himself of current developments in the registered nurse field since the issuance of his certificate, or the last renewal thereof, whichever last occurred, either by the successful completion of a refresher course or by other means deemed equivalent by the board, including any means specified in the notice to the licensee, and by payment of fees as provided in Section 2815

(c) The board shall accept as evidence of current knowledge, meeting the requirements of subdivision (b) of this section, but shall not necessarily be limited thereto, the successful completion of a course or courses of continuing education in the registered nurse field which has been approved for this purpose by the department under standards established by the Council on Continuing Education for the Health Occupations, and as provided for in Chapter 15 (commencing with Section 900) of this division.

(d) The board may, by regulation, provide for temporary exemption from the provisions of subdivision (b) of this section in the case of licensees serving in overseas military service, and in other special circumstances wherein compliance would, in the board's opinion, constitute an unreasonable hardship for the licensees

SEC 4 Section 28925 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

28925 (a) After January 1, ~~1975~~ 1976, the board shall require, as a condition to the renewal of each license granted pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, that the holder thereof submit proof satisfactory to the board that, during the preceding two-year period, he has informed himself of developments in the vocational nurse field occuring since the issuance of his certificate, or the last renewal thereof, whichever last occurred, either by pursuing an approved course or courses of continuing education in the vocational nurse field or by other means deemed equivalent by the board In lieu of submitting such proof, the license holder, if he so desires, may take and successfully complete an examination given by the board, designed to test his knowledge of developments occurring in the vocational nurse field since the issuance of his license, or the last renewal thereof, whichever last occurred

Whenever a license has lapsed because of failure to comply with this section, ~~it~~ the board shall notify the licensee of all courses, examinations, and other means which in the opinion of the board would bring the licensee into compliance with this subdivision if completed Such license may be reinstated, without time limit, upon proof satisfactory to the board that the licensee has informed himself of current developments in the vocational nurse field since the issuance of his certificate, or the last renewal thereof, whichever last occurred, either by the successful completion of a refresher course or by other means deemed equivalent by the board, including any means specified in the notice to the licensee and upon payment of fees as provided in Section 2895

(b) The board shall accept as evidence of current knowledge, meeting the requirements of this section, but shall not necessarily be limited thereto, the successful completion of a course or courses of continuing education in the vocational nurse field which has been approved for this purpose by the department under standards established by the Council on Continuing Education for the Health Occupations as provided for in Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 900) of this division.

(c) The board may, by regulation, provide for temporary exemption from the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section in the case of licensees serving in overseas military service, and in other special circumstances wherein compliance would, in the board's opinion, constitute an unreasonable hardship for the licensees.

(d) This section shall not apply to licensees during the first two years immediately following their graduation from vocational nursing school "

Bill ordered reprinted, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Assembly Bill No. 609—An act to amend Sections 6101 and 6105 of, and to add Section 6101.5 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to public lands.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Committee Amendments

The following amendment, proposed by the Committee on Planning and Land Use, was read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

On page 2 of the printed bill, between lines 1 and 2, insert

"Each public member shall be a person who, as a result of training and experience, is exceptionally qualified to appraise resource uses in the light of ecology conservation, and planned development policies of the state and to be responsive to the state's scientific, social, esthetic, and recreational needs The Governor, the Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly, shall, in making such appointments, seek to assure that expertise in conservation, recreation, ecology, physical sciences and planning shall be represented on the commission.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following Message from the Governor was received, and by unanimous consent, ordered printed in the Journal:

Governor's Office, Sacramento
April 27, 1972

The Honorable Members of the California Legislature
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

Greetings:

DRUG ABUSE

Two years ago I brought to the attention of the people of California the growing dimensions of the drug abuse problem in our state.

At that time I outlined the first steps of a total program approach to the situation.

I pointed out that the extent to which drug abuse and narcotics addiction had infected our young people was in fact much greater and far more serious than most people realized. This is as true today as it was two years ago.

Indeed, the use of drugs—especially among the young—continues to be a scourge of our society. No venom could be more deadly than drug addiction. It claims its victims in countless personal tragedies, destroys individuals, tears families asunder and weakens the moral fiber of a people whose greatest resource and hope for the future are its youth.

We need only review the following trends to be struck by its destructiveness:

—In 1970, in Los Angeles County alone, more than 1,000 deaths were recorded due to narcotic and drug abuse. Records for the state as a whole reveal a 258 percent increase in drug-related deaths between 1966 and 1970.

—In 1970, the number of admissions to state hospitals for drug abuse soared to more than 6,000, compared to less than 600 four years previously—an increase of 1,000 percent.

—More than 36,000 minors and 99,000 adults were arrested for offenses involving drugs in 1970. Compared with 1960, these figures represent increases of 2,200 percent for minors and 450 percent for adults.

—In 1971, 68 percent of the wards of the California Youth Authority had histories of narcotic and drug involvement. In 1966 this proportion was 25 percent.

—In 1970, one in every five initial referrals to probation by California juvenile courts was due to involvement with drugs or narcotics. In 1966, only one in every 15 referrals involved drug abuse.

Drug abuse is found to some degree in all parts of the state. Several years ago it appeared primarily as a problem of the metropolitan and urban areas Today there is no county which does not report some problem concerning drug abuse within its boundaries. Most counties report that it is on the increase!

Data on social and economic patterns of drug abuse, collected by the State Office of Narcotics and Drug Abuse Coordination, confirms the often cited truism that this disease is no respecter of age, race, religion, economic circumstance or geographical location.

The roots of the problem are complex and are not, as yet, altogether clear. Why certain individuals use drugs, why different patterns of use are found among different people and at different times, how drug abuse is propagated and how patterns of distribution develop, all are problems which need much more serious research. However, if we are to control the problem, our strategy must be as flexible, varied and multidimensional as the disease itself

Our challenge, stemming from the basic beginnings which I outlined more than two years ago, is the continued development of a comprehensive statewide approach to the problem. I believe this effort must include the concerted participation of groups and individuals, public and private agencies, all levels of government, and citizen volunteers, along with business and industry.

We have been making significant progress in that direction during this period. As you know, we established the State Office of Narcotics and Drug Abuse Coordination and charged it with the responsibility for gathering up-to-date information on the nature and extent of drug abuse in California. Since its formation, the office has compiled data on all available informational, referral, treatment and rehabilitative resources available for drug abusers within the state. Utilizing this basic index of identified services, the State Office of Narcotics and Drug Abuse has developed strong working relationships among and between various agencies concerned with the drug abuse problem.

Another approach of significant impact was the enactment in 1970 of legislation (AB 1990) to develop coordinated, countywide community drug abuse control plans in all counties of more than 40,000 population. This law was later amended to require such plans from every county in the state. These plans are generally developed in consultation with public and private agencies within the county and the resulting communications provide the opportunity for the various agency administrators to compare their activities, identify areas of overlapping or conflicting services and exchange other information.

Efforts to control the traffic in drugs within the state and cut their importation across state boundaries have been intensified. To this end, a program of monitoring shipments of dangerous drugs, maintaining surveillance on their distribution and tightening the requirements for security of such drugs while in shipment or in storage was started in 1971. It is showing positive results.

Additional positions have been provided in the budget for narcotic enforcement officers in the State Bureau of Narcotics Enforcement—with excellent results.

Through the efforts of Lt. Governor Ed Reinecke and the Commission of the Californias, cooperative relationships have been developed with the Government of Mexico. The exchange of information and the coordination of our joint efforts with Mexico have reduced the flow of narcotics and dangerous drugs into California.

With the sure recognition that prevention is still the best long-ranged answer to the drug problem, the Department of Education has mounted an extensive educational effort directed at both the primary and secondary levels to inform every child in California concerning the consequences of drug abuse. The department has also trained numerous resource "teams" to return to their communities to train others in the development of effective education and prevention programs.

In an attempt to help those already victimized by abuse and addiction, we have initiated several experimental programs to test the effectiveness of the drug Methadone in the treatment and rehabilitation of hard-core heroin addicts. To date, 33 Methadone maintenance treatment programs have been authorized throughout various areas of the state and they are now providing services to approximately 4,500 addicts.

The use of Methadone is only one of a number of approaches which have been launched during the past two years and are presently being tested. Encouragement and assistance have been given to a number of community agencies in experimenting and developing new ways of helping the drug user.

The California Council on Criminal Justice deserves great credit for the vital role it has played in the fight against drug abuse The Council has been instrumental in providing financial assistance to a wide range of community drug abuse treatment, prevention and control programs throughout the state.

During these two years, we have put into effect the major elements of our initial program approach.

With this groundwork laid we must build upon it.

There are certain underlying assumptions upon which the new program I am proposing is based. The experience of our Office of Narcotics and Drug Abuse and others working in this field, leads us to believe that certain conditions are basic prerequisites to the success of any comprehensive state drug abuse program Initially, there is the need for comprehensive planning to serve as a framework for identifying needed services. This includes evaluating the best role for existing or new services.

Whatever system of services is included in the comprehensive plan, it must not only be based on current need, but must be flexible enough to encompass alterations that are dictated by changes in the substances which are abused, changes in treatment knowledge and technology, and variations in public demand for services.

The system of services must include a central coordination point and effective integrations of programs at the community, county and state levels. Experience indicates that the most satisfactory results are to be expected where the drug abuser is treated in his own community.

The extent of services available throughout the state must be distributed so that the most appropriate treatment approach can be delivered as close to the addict or abuser as is possible.

To maximize success, a statewide comprehensive program must also involve the public, private and volunteer segments of our society, at the national, state, and local levels in a cooperative and mutually supportive endeavor. Just as the cooperative involvement of the different functioning levels of government and society must be sought, so within each community maximum involvement of all its citizens and civic organizations must be sought.

Drug abuse is a community problem, a neighborhood problem. It will not be resolved without a total community attack. The state will support local planning efforts, but the initiative, the basic development of plans, the identification of targets and needs, must be made by the community, and must reflect an expression of the community as a whole. Even the best planned programs will eventually fail in the face of community apathy

The major role of the state will be to support and encourage local planning and program development through the provision of consultation and technical assistance, approval of programs and services for funding assistance, evaluation of programs and services and utilization of community services through contractual arrangements.

Within the above framework, the massive legislative program I propose will blanket the state and reach into every neighborhood where a drug abuse problem exists

Local participation, responsibility and control over the programs will be critical to success Washington is not the source of all knowledge. Neither is Sacramento Each community knows what it needs. Some already have been meeting the challenge with their own programs Many efforts suffer from a lack of expertise, others from a lack of dollars. We will complement existing programs without duplicating effort and help create new programs where none exist.

The provision of accurate, pertinent information and education is a major objective of this program. Already, many of our young people are learning about the dangers of drug abuse in the schools. Still we believe the knowledge and expertise about drug abuse which adults need must be dramatically improved In addition to our teachers, coaches, scout leaders and others who deal with young people, parents must know about drugs and what causes drug abuse. This can help them discourage it in their own families At the same time, they will be able to achieve greater credibility in the face of widespread claims that parents don't know what they are talking about when it comes to drugs.

Our program also includes the development of model kindergarten through grade twelve drug education programs that will provide factual information and promote positive, personal decisionmaking regarding drug abuse

Efforts also will be stepped up to develop a statewide training system to provide training to teachers and other occupational and professional groups working with drug abusers. The program will seek to make the widest possible use of radio, television and newspapers in providing community education on drug abuse through instructional courses and other public awareness programs.

From the information which has been gleaned from county and community drug abuse programs during the past two years, it has become apparent that the present resource for the treatment and rehabilitation of drug abusers is not sufficient Local initiative with state assistance must make up that deficiency. I am proposing a broad range of activities at both the state and local levels to deal with the drug abuser in need of treatment and rehabilitation. Additional hospital bed space must be provided. It is needed to care for acute drug overdose and detoxification emergencies. Increased staff personnel, especially trained to screen, evaluate and refer patients to the most appropriate aftercare treatment programs following emergency hospitalization, are a necessity.

Thus, we will provide funds and facilitate the development of comprehensive, community based treatment programs that provide for detoxification services, hospital care, non-hospital residential care, outpatient treatment, counselling, social services, methadone treatment and rehabilitation services.

County welfare employees will be trained to provide assistance in directing those persons in need of help for narcotics, drug abuse or alcoholism problems to the proper agency for care, treatment and rehabilitation.

A special treatment program for drug abusers in the Youth Authority will be developed and implemented to provide more effective services to youths with drug problems.

Assistance to the drug abuser and narcotic addict will not end with the provision of treatment. The program I am proposing will augment the resources of the State Department of Rehabilitation to provide additional services to drug addicts in the areas of vocational training, vocational counselling, job referral and followup services

To further enhance our overall treatment efforts and economy of operation, the functions of the state's Research Advisory Panel and the Drug Abuse Information Project at the University of California will be combined in the Department of Mental Hygiene. I am also proposing that drug prevention and treatment programs be licensed by the state to insure their effectiveness

In addition to our continued strong support of law enforcement's efforts to reduce the availability of illicit drugs and narcotics, we are working closely with the federal government in implementing a Drug Abuse Smuggler Strike Force This is a cooperative state, federal and local law enforcement effort to stop the smuggling of illegal drugs into California and the United States.

To block one important source of illicit drugs, we will seek agreements with state and county medical associations to work within their own ranks to eliminate the overprescription of amphetamines, barbiturates and tranquillizers.

The program I am proposing will divert first-offense users or possessors of drugs from the criminal justice system. Because of the mistakes they have made in playing with drugs, the lives of young people have been blighted. The criminal record which accompanies them through life is often a millstone around their necks.

For that person arrested as a first offender for the possession of drugs, we propose to develop a system, through administrative handling, which will place him in an appropriate treatment program in his own community. Where public safety will not be compromised and the interest of the law-abiding citizen is not jeopardized, such diversion can properly be urged Of all the categories of people who engage in drug abuse, our chance for successful rehabilitation is best with the first-time drug abuser.

We should not continue to clog our criminal justice system nor saddle our young with a criminal record if there is a legitimate alternative Some communities have considered it, but because their drug abuse treatment facilities have been inadequate or nonexistent, they have abandoned such an approach. Our statewide drug abuse program will assure the availability of treatment programs so that criminal justice diversionary programs can be made possible.

Our program calls for the massive involvement of volunteers. Volunteerism is as old as American society itself DeToqueville commented upon the willingness of Americans to help their neighbors and their communities in attacking problems of mutual concern. As government has become ever larger, there has been a tendency on the part of some to play down the role of volunteer help. The fact is, the need has never been greater This program gives each citizen the opportunity to help in overcoming the problem of drug abuse—at the neighborhood and community level.

What we are after is "one to one"—a situation in which one person who cares can be linked with another who needs guidance and direction Over the last few years, we have developed a great body of knowledge on volunteerism—how to properly and effectively recruit, train and assist volunteers We must put that knowledge to work in a massive coordinated effort in the fight against drug abuse.

Private businesses will be called upon to release top executives so they can apply their organization and management techniques in helping to get this job done.

The program will seek to incorporate the excellent efforts of service, fraternal, religious and other community groups in the areas of drug abuse prevention, treatment and rehabilitation programs. Specific efforts to train and use doctors, pharmacists, nurses, ministers and others in drug abuse prevention and treatment programs will be made

More and more young people appear to be taking a greater interest in religious and other activities For these, a spiritual rudder and life with a purpose is replacing an empty, drug-filled existence. We must look for ways to mobilize the influence of these and others who do not use drugs to make drug use the "out" rather than the "in" thing to do.

In order to maximize the benefits of our limited resources, a methodology will be developed which will enable us to objectively evaluate the impact of drug programs in California We will develop standardized survey devices and a centralized drug abuse data collection system which will permit us to annually prepare a drug problem profile containing objective information on the nature, scope, consequences, trends, locations and populations affected by drug abuse in California. This will enable us to assess the effectiveness of our programs and shift our approach as the problem changes or is altered

What about dollars? How are we going to finance this program? I can assure you that we will get the job done within existing resources In part, we intend to do it by rearranging our priorities so that existing tax revenues are made available for this purpose Because planning and coordination between federal, state and local government is essential if we are to prevent duplication of effort and make the most prudent use of scarce tax dollars, we will seek an agreement with the federal government to subvent federal monies to the state on the basis of a comprehensive plan.

We intend to coordinate the flow of all federal drug abuse funds, whether they come from HEW, OEO, the National Institute of Mental Health, the President's Special Action Office for Drug Abuse Prevention or elsewhere.

We are asking the federal government to coordinate its funding efforts more efficiently and what is good for them in this instance is good for us in state government. Consequently, I will direct those departments of state government administering state or federal monies for drug activities to establish their priorities and allocate their funds in coordination with the State Office of Narcotics and Drug Abuse Coordination

Finally, I want to emphasize that the comprehensive drug abuse program I am proposing is not simply a highly publicized attack—to be followed by a quiet retreat We cannot, we must not, let up in our efforts to achieve victory.

And, victory over drugs will be signaled by a decline in drug use, drug-related deaths and drug-connected crimes

This is a massive undertaking. It will cost an estimated $14 million a year. But, with the safeguards we have built into the program, I believe our citizens will get their money's worth.

And, we will have turned the corner on drug abuse in California.

Respectfully submitted,

RONALD REAGAN
Governor

SEC. 3. A person or corporation claiming or possessing frontage or tidal lands of a harbor, bay, inlet, esutary, or other navigable water may not exclude the right of way to that water when it is required for a public purpose, or destroy or obstruct free navigation of the water. The Legislature shall enact statutes that give this provision the most liberal construction, so that access to the navigable waters shall always be attainable for the people.

SEC. 4. The Legislature shall preserve open space land, and may provide for its assessment solely on use if restricted to recreation, scenic beauty, use of natural resources, or production of food or fiber.

Third—That Section 12 is added to Article XX, to read:

SEC 12. Tidelands described in Section 2 of Article XV reserved as of November 6, 1962, to the state solely for street purposes, which the Legislature declares to be neither necessary nor useful for navigation purposes, may be sold to a private person or corporation, subject to such conditions as the Legislature determines are necessary to protect the public interest.

SECOND READING OF BILLS—AUTHOR'S AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 1236—An act to amend Section 8502 of the Education Code, relating to early childhood education.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted.

Amendment No. 1

In the heading of the printed bill, strike out "Leroy F. Greene", and insert "Cory".

Amendment No. 2

In line 1 of the title strike out "amend Section 8502", and insert "add Chapter 6 1 (commencing with Section 6445) to Division 6".

Amendment No. 3

On page 1, strike out line 1, and insert

"SECTION 1. Chapter 6.1 (commencing with Section 6445) is added to Division 6 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6.1. EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

6445. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that a comprehensive and coordinated program of early childhood education developed by the State Board of Education is needed to improve and restructure public education in California. The Legislature declares its intent to require that the State Board of Education establish a comprehensive program for early childhood education for children in early primary, kindergarten, and grades 1 to 3, inclusive, through a system for the development of a local master plan for early childhood education Such system shall include a phased-in program based on an increase in the number of schools in the state participating each year until maximum participation is achieved, the coordination of all available state and federal funding sources, maximizing available federal funds, and the elements specified in Section 6445 4.

6445.1. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Early childhood education" includes all educational programs, except programs or classes for exceptional children as defined in Section 6870, offered in early primary classes, kindergartens, and grades 1 to 3, inclusive, or in any one or more such classes or grades.

(b) "Educational program for early childhood education" means the entire school sponsored offering for pupils, except for exceptional children defined in Section 6870, in early primary classes, kindergartens, and grades 1 to 3, inclusive, including in-class and out-of-class activities.

(c) "Early primary grade" or "early primary class" means a class established pursuant to Section 6446.

6445.2. Beginning with the 1972–1973 fiscal year each school district maintaining kindergarten, and grades 1 to 3, inclusive, or any one or more such class or grade, may develop and submit to the Department of Education for approval a master plan for early childhood education. Each such school district shall submit to the Department of Education for approval a master plan for early childhood education no later than the 1976–1977 school year Application shall be made in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Education.

6445.3. The governing boards of any school districts maintaining any such class or grade may, with the approval of the Department of Education, develop and submit for approval a joint master plan for early childhood education.

6445.4. A master plan for early childhood education shall include a comprehensive statement setting forth the district's educational program for early childhood education The State Board of Education shall establish standards and criteria to be used in the evaluation of plans submitted by school districts The standards and criteria for review and approval of plans by the State Board of Education shall include, but not be limited to, provisions for·

(a) Assessment of educational needs.

(b) Opportunities for early primary education provided.

(c) Defined and measurable program objectives.

(d) A carefully articulated program from early primary through grade 3

(e) Coordination of all district resources with the objectives of the local plan.

(f) Emphasis on an individualized diagnostic approach to instruction.

(g) Strong parental involvement.

(h) Staff development and in-service training.

(i) Transportation of pupils participating in the program.

(j) Evaluation of the program.

6445 5. In approving master plans for early childhood education the Department of Education shall give preference to those districts which have the largest number of pupils determined to have special educational needs and the least financial ability to provide funds for early childhood education The State Board of Education shall adopt regulations setting forth criteria for determining special educational needs, taking into consideration such factors, among others, as low family income and low level of academic achievement.

6445 6. The State Board of Education shall adopt standards setting forth priorities for allowances under this chapter Until such time that allowances are granted to all pupils eligible in a district under Section 6445 5, a minimum of 50 percent of the amount allowed to the district in any one year shall be for such pupils Such standards may provide that allowances to district shall be provided on a phase-in basis rather than to all pupils eligible therefor under Sections 6445.8 and 6445 9 The State Board of Education may further provide that, upon its determination a district has not met the objectives of its approved plan, allowances shall not be increased in accordance with the phase-in basis of the district's approved plan. The board may provide that the failure of a district over a designated period to meet the objectives of its approved plan shall subject the district to a termination of allowances under this chapter.

6445 7 The State Board of Education shall adopt pupil performance objectives in reading and mathematics for use in district early childhood education programs not later than the 1975–1976 school year The board is authorized to take all actions necessary to effect the development, testing, validation, adoption and implementation of such objectives

6445 8. From the funds appropriated therefor by the Legislature to the Department of Education for the purposes of this chapter the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow school districts with approved master plans for the education of children pursuant to such plans:

(a) Five hundred dollars ($500) per pupil in average daily attendance in each early primary class

(b) One hundred thirty dollars ($130) per pupil in average daily attendance in each kindergarten class.

(c) One hundred thirty dollars ($130) per pupil in average daily attendance in grades 1 to 3, inclusive.

6445.9. In addition to the allowances provided for in Section 6445 8, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall provide grants for pupils determined by him to have demonstrated special educational need, in accordance with Section 6445 5, as follows:

(a) One hundred dollars ($100) per pupil in average daily attendance in each early primary class.

(b) Sixty-five dollars ($65) per pupil in average daily attendance in each kindergarten class.

(c) Sixty-five dollars ($65) per pupil in average daily attendance in grades 1 to 3, inclusive.

6445 10. Funds available for allowances by the Superintendent of Public Instruction pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 5789) of Chapter 5.8 of Division 6 of the Education Code to each school district which is also eligible for allowances under this chapter are hereby reappropriated for allowances to such districts under this chapter.

6445 11. Allowances under this chapter shall be made by the Superintendent of Public Instruction from funds appropriated therefor by the Legislature. The allowances shall be made as early as practicable in the fiscal year and upon order of the Superintendent of Public Instruction the State Controller shall draw his warrants upon the money appropriated, in favor of the eligible districts in the amounts ordered 6445.12. The State Board of Education shall have the power to adopt and promulgate all rules and regulations necessary to the effective administration of this chapter, including but not necessarily limited to, those specifically required to be adopted by particular provisions of this chapter.

6445.13 The governing board of the school district, in its application for approval of a master plan, may request waiver of the provisions of any section or sections of this code if such waiver is necessary to establish and operate an early childhood education program The need for waiver shall be explained and justified in the application The Superintendent of Public Instruction, with approval of the State Board of Education, may grant, in whole, or in part, any such request.

6445 14 A school district in its application for approval of a master plan for early childhood education may include children's centers' services as provided for in Section 16603.

6446. The governing board of any school district that has a master plan for early childhood education approved by the State Department of Education shall establish and maintain such number of early primary classes as are necessary to implement such approved master plan for children living in the district that are eligible for admission pursuant to Section 6446 1 but are not eligible for admission pursuant to Section 5254 and whose parents or guardians present them for admission.

6446.1. A child shall be admitted to an early primary class established pursuant to Section 6446 in any term during the first school month of the term if he is of the age prescribed For good cause the governing board of a school district may permit a child of the proper age to be admitted to the class after the first school month of the school term.

If there is but one term during the school year, the child shall be three years and nine months of age on or before September 1 of the current school year. If there are two terms maintained during the school year, the child shall be three years and nine months on or before September 1 of the current school year, before he may be admitted in the first term of the school year, or three years and nine months of age on or before February 1 of the current school year, before he may be admitted in the second term in any school year.

6446.2 The State Board of Education shall establish minimum standards authorizing service of instructional personnel in early primary classes.

6446 3 The minimum schoolday for pupils in early primary classes is 180 minutes inclusive of recesses.

6446 4. The computation of average daily attendance in early primary classes for the purpose of determining allowances under Sections 6445.8 and 6445 9, shall be as prescribed in Section 11301. Sections 10951–10955, 11001, 11002, 11007 and 11301 6 shall apply to early primary classes

SEC. 2 There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the purposes of Chapter 6 1 (commencing with Section 6445) of Division 6 of the Education Code the following amounts:

(a) For allowances under Section 6445.8 amounts which shall be made available for expenditure as follows:

(1) For the fiscal year 1973–74, forty-four million five hundred forty-four thousand dollars ($44,544,000).

(a) To induce or encourage any individual employed by any person to engage in a strike or refusal in the course of his employment to use, process, transport, display for sale, sell, distribute, or otherwise handle or work on any agricultural product after such product leaves the farm or situs where grown or produced, or to threaten, coerce, or restrain any individual employed as an officer, manager, supervisor, or agent to make any management decision to refuse to use, process, transport, display for sale, distribute, handle, or work on any agricultural product after such product leaves the farm or situs where grown or produced; or

(b) To picket or cause to be picketed, or threaten to picket or cause to be picketed, or otherwise to threaten, restrain, or coerce any agricultural employer or other person; or

(c) To enter into or maintain any contract or agreement, express or implied, with any such labor organization, or any employer or other person.

1143.2 The acts prohibited by Section 1143 shall be unlawful when the purpose of any or all such acts is to force, require, or persuade:

(a) Any person to cease or refrain from using, selling, displaying for sale, processing, transporting, or otherwise dealing in any agricultural product, or to cease doing business with any person using, selling, displaying for sale, processing, transporting, or otherwise dealing in any agricultural product, unless such labor organization has been certified as the representative of the employer's employees under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1150) of this part. However, nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to make unlawful, where not otherwise unlawful, any primary strike or primary picketing at a farm or other situs where an agricultural commodity is grown or produced.

(b) Any person to enter into any unlawful agreement pertaining to the production, processing, transporting, marketing, or sale of any agricultural product.

(c) Any agricultural employer to recognize or bargain with a labor organization as the representative of his employees if another labor organization has been certified as the representative of such employees after a valid secret ballot election conducted pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1150) of this part

(d) Any agricultural employer to assign particular work to employees in a particular labor organization or in a particular trade, craft, or class, rather than to employees in another labor organization or in another trade, craft, or class

(e) Any employer or self-employed person engaged in agriculture to join any labor or employer organization

1143.4 It shall be unlawful for any person to do any of the following:

(a) To threaten, restrain, or coerce, any secondary employer or any executive or management employee of any secondary employer to make a management decision not to handle, transport, process, pack, sell, or distribute any agricultural commodity of an agricultural employer with whom a labor dispute exists.

(b) To restrain, coerce, or otherwise threaten such ultimate consumer to prevent him from purchasing, consuming, or using such agricultural product.

(c) To do any act in furtherance of the conduct prohibited by Sections 1143, 1143.2, and 1143.4, even though such prohibited act is done or the prohibited conduct is consummated outside the boundaries of this state.

(d) To threaten or engage in arson, mass picketing, libel, slander, injury to person or property, or other violent conduct where an object is to prevent the preparing for market, transporting, handling, or display for sale or selling of any agricultural product

Assembly Bill No. 959—AN act to amend Section 13837 of the Education Code, relating to State Teachers' Retirement System.

Bill read second time

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "amend Section 13837", and insert "add Article 17 (commencing with Section 14130) to Chapter 4 of Division 10".

Amendment No. 2

In line 2 of the title, after "System", insert ", and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately"

Amendment No. 3

On page 1, strike out lines 1 to 4, inclusive, and insert

"SECTION 1. Article 17 (commencing with Section 14130) is added to Chapter 4 of Division 10 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 17 Los Angeles Unified School District Retirement System

14130. Chapter 1305 of the Statutes of 1971, modified the State Teachers' Retirement System for improving benefits for, and providing a source of financing from teachers and school districts which did not maintain a local retirement system. These changes make it impossible to continue the prior relationship of the Los Angeles and San Francisco Systems to the State Teachers' Retirement System. To enable these local systems to separately determine their future course of action, Chapter 1305 of the Statutes of 1971 makes no change in the local systems other than to terminate additional subventions after June 30, 1972.

The purpose of this article is to grant authority to the Los Angeles Unified School District to take any and all necessary steps to determine whether it wishes to merge with the State Teachers' Retirement System and thereby gain the advantage of the benefit improvements and financing structure of that system, or to continue to operate a separate system under a local benefit and financing program. This authority shall include the right to expend moneys out of the local system fund to cover the expenses of the investigation of the advantages of the merger and to consummate the merger if this course appears desirable, as well as to create and maintain reasonable contingency reserves to insure an orderly and adequate transition fully protecting the interests of the Los Angeles teachers.

14131. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, the provisions of this article shall govern the matters included in this article.

14132. The modifications to the State Teachers' Retirement System retirement, disability and family allowances formulae contained in Chapter 1305 of the Statutes of 1971 shall not apply to the Los Angeles Unified School District Retirement System, hereinafter called the city local system.

14133 An election shall be held any time prior to July 1, 1972, to determine if the affected members of the city local system are to be covered only by that system or to be covered only by the State Teachers' Retirement System The election shall be decided by a simple majority of those voting. The election shall be effective as of July 1, 1972.

The election shall be in such manner as specified by the governing board of the Los Angeles Unified School District and the results shall be transmitted to the State Teachers' Retirement System by that board no later than June 30, 1972. All costs of the election shall be borne by the employer reserve in the city local system.

14133.1 If the affected members of the city local system vote in an election held prior to July 1, 1972, to be covered only by the city local system, Sections 1433.2 through 14133.8 shall apply.

14133 4. Member and employer contributions for service performed in the Los Angeles Unified School District shall be paid to the city local system.

14133.5. All persons on the city local system retired rolls on June 30, 1972, shall remain on the local rolls. The State Teachers' Retirement System will continue the subvention in Section 14120 to the local district for those persons, will pay the retired update and annual improvement factor increase directly to the retirant and will pay the two thousand dollar ($2,000) retired death benefit upon their death. Such retired death benefit will be reduced by the retired death benefit payable by the city local system.

14133 6. The city local system shall provide concurrent retirement benefits for service in the city local system as provided in Sections 13838, 13990 and 14211 as these sections read on July 1, 1972, for:

(a) Any person who was a member of both retirement systems on June 30, 1972; and

(b) Any person who could have qualified under (a) above if he had not taken a refund from either but not both systems; provided he qualifies for and redeposits prior to retirement in either system.

14133 7. Notwithstanding the provisions in Section 14211, a member of the city local system may retire concurrently and receive credit from the State Teachers' Retirement System for service performed in other states of the United States, its territories and possessions and the Dominion of Canada provided that the person is eligible under Sections 13998, 13999 and 14000, and the benefits attendant thereto.

14133.8. The city local system shall provide for and assume total financial responsibility for the full Permanent Fund benefit earned through June 30, 1972, as those benefits existed in subdivision (a) of Section 14240 on June 30, 1972

The accumulated Permanent Fund contributions related to Los Angeles local service shall be transferred to the city local system as of July 1, 1972.

14134 If affected members of the city local system on June 30, 1972, vote in an election held prior to July 1, 1972, to be covered only by the State Teachers' Retirement System, Sections 14134.1 through 14139 shall apply.

14134 1. The subvention to the city local system shall be canceled and the retired rolls transferred to the State Teachers' Retirement System as of July 1, 1972, together with the present value of the annuity and other benefits being paid from the employer and employees' reserves in the city local system less the present value of the benefit being provided out of subventions.

14134.2 There shall be no reduction of any benefit being paid to an individual as a result of Section 14134 1

14134 3 All service credited to the individual accounts in the city local system shall be transferred to the State Teachers' Retirement System on the same basis as credentialed service is credited in the State Teachers' Retirement System

14134 4. The Los Angeles Unified School District shall transfer to the Teachers' Retirement Fund as of July 1, 1972, the total contributions on deposit in the individual accounts of members of the city local system, and shall transfer not less than:

(a) An amount equal to the contributions that would have been required had all service prior to July 1, 1972, been performed as a full-time member of the State Teachers' Retirement System plus credited interest through June 30, 1972, plus 6 percent interest from July 1, 1972, to the actual date of transfer; plus

(b) An amount equal to 8 percent of the employee compensation as provided in Section 13832 for service performed from July 1, 1972, to actual date of transfer plus 6 percent interest

14134 5 The Los Angeles Unified School District shall also deposit in the Teachers' Retirement Fund an amount equal to 3 2 percent of employee compensation as provided in Section 13832 as the employer's contribution for service performed from July 1, 1972, to actual date of transfer, plus 6 percent interest.

14134 6. If the accumulated contributions in the person's account at the time of transfer to the State Teachers' Retirement System are not equal to those required in Section 14134 4, the difference between the amount in the account and the required amount is an unfunded liability and is the responsibility of the employer The Los Angeles Unified School District shall, at the time of the transfer of assets, provide the additional amount of accumulated contributions required to put each individual account in balance if the shortage is due to the rate of contributions which had been required by the city local system Such amount shall be a charge against the residual funds remaining on deposit with the Los Angeles Unified School District.

14134.7 Any funds transferred by the governing board of the Los Angeles Unified School District in accordance with Section 14134 4 in addition to the accumulated contributions already in the member's account shall be deposited as employer contributions in the Teachers' Retirement Fund, and shall not be credited to the member's account and shall not be refundable 14134 8 Persons who elected to retain the 1/70th formula when the 1/60th formula was adopted by the city local system are liable for the portion of contributions related to that election plus credited interest through June 30, 1972, and regular interest thereafter.

14134 9 Adjustments to accounts caused by late discovery shall be made in accordance with Sections 14134 4, 14134 5, 14134 6 and 14134 8.

14134 10 Those persons who took a refund of their contributions and interest from the city local system prior to July 1, 1972, and who have Permanent Fund contributions on deposit in the State Teachers' Retirement System for such service shall have the accumulated Permanent Fund contributions on deposit in the State Teachers' Retirement System as of July 1, 1972, treated in the same manner as the Permanent Fund contributions of all nonlocal members

Upon discovery and notification to such persons, they shall:

(a) Redeposit the contributions required with regular interest; or

(b) Leave the Permanent Fund accumulated contributions on deposit and receive an actuarially reduced retirement allowance

14135 The transfer of assets from the Los Angeles Unified School District to the State Teachers' Retirement System shall be in cash or in securities in kind. While a proportionate division of each holding shall not be required, the securities transferred to the State Teachers' Retirement System shall be divided between nonconvertible fixed income investments, equities and securities convertible into equities in proportion to the book value of these security groupings to the total value of the city local system portfolio as of March 31, 1972. For this purpose, cash will be counted as equivalent to a security valued at market.

The value of securities in kind that are to be transferred shall be determined as follows. nonconvertible fixed income investments held in the portfolio on March 31, 1972, will be valued by discounting at the annualized earnings rate on the State Teachers' Retirement System's nonconvertible fixed income portfolio as of June 30, 1972, computed in accordance with established State Teachers' Retirement System procedures, plus an allowance for accrued income However, where the value for any specific security when computed in this manner would be above the value at which the security may be redeemed at the first date at which it is callable or refundable, then the applied rate shall be computed to the redemption price at the first date at which the security is redeemable or refundable, whichever is later, plus an allowance for accrued income Nonconvertible fixed income securities purchased after March 31, 1972, equities and securities convertible into equities shall be valued at market plus accrued interest if any. All securities to be transferred shall be valued as of June 30, 1972.

Either the Los Angeles Unified School District or the Teachers' Retirement Board may reject specific securities and recommend alternative selections. Selection of securities to be transferred in kind shall not be made in a manner adverse to the Teachers' Retirement Fund. Should the respective parties be unable to reach agreement by October 15, 1972, the matter shall be submitted to arbitration by a third party, and his decision shall be binding upon both parties The third party arbitrator shall be mutually agreed upon by the respective boards. If agreement cannot be reached, the arbitrator shall be appointed by the Governor from a list of four names: two names each to be submitted independently by the Los Angeles Unified School District and the State Teachers' Retirement Board

14135 2 The balance of assets remaining on deposit with the Los Angeles Unified School District after the transfers, deposits and payments required by Sections 14134 1, 14134.4 and 14134.5, or after establishment of reserves from which such deposits and payments shall be made, shall be held intact by the district until the Legislature either prior thereto or thereafter expressly authorizes the expenditure thereof.

14135 3 The transfer of cash and securities in kind from the Los Angeles Unified School District to the State Teachers' Retirement System shall be accomplished by that district delivering the cash and securities in kind at the office of the State Treasurer in Sacramento properly registered in the name of the State Teachers' Retirement System in accordance with the registration requirements of the State Teachers' Retirement System. This transfer shall be completed by June 30, 1973. Interest on any cash transfer shall be at the rate of 6 percent per annum from July 1, 1972, to date of the transfer. Any cash income payments or payments in securities to be transferred made to the Los Angeles Unified School District after June 30, 1972, which are properly allocable to the Teachers' Retirement Fund shall be paid to the Teachers' Retirement Fund.

14136. All costs of the asset transfer, asset valuation, security registration, and the administrative costs in the implementation of Chapter 1305 of the Statutes of 1971, shall be a charge against the residual funds remaining on deposit with the Los Angeles Unified School District

14137. In the event that the members of the city local system elect to be fully covered by that system so as to require a transfer of cash and securities in kind from the Teachers' Retirement Fund to the city local system, the State Teachers' Retirement System shall be bound by the conditions set forth in Sections 14135 through 14136.

14139. The city local system shall submit a list of all members of that system as of June 30, 1972, who have credentialed service which would qualify for membership in the State Teachers' Retirement System. The list shall be submitted to the State Teachers' Retirement System no later than August 31, 1972

14140. If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this article which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this article are severable

SEC 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

The facts constituting such necessity are: In order to permit the orderly implementation of Chapter 1305 of the Statutes of 1971 this act must take effect immediately ''

Bill ordered reprinted, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Retirement.

Assembly Bill No. 960—An act to repeal Section 14120 of the Education Code, relating to the State Teachers' Retirement Fund.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "repeal Section 14120", and insert "add Article 31 (commencing with Section 14451) to Chapter 4 of Division 10".

Amendment No. 2

In line 2 of the title, after "Fund", insert ", and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately".

Amendment No. 3

On page 1, strike out lines 1 to 5, inclusive, and insert

"SECTION 1 Article 31 (commencing with Section 14451) is added to Chapter 4 of Division 10 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 31. Los Angeles Community College District Retirement System

14451. Chapter 1305 of the Statutes of 1971 modified the State Teachers' Retirement System for improving benefits for, and providing a source of financing from teachers and school districts which did not maintain a local retirement system These changes make it impossible to continue the prior relationship of the Los Angeles Community College District Retirement System to the State Teachers' Retirement System. To enable this local system to separately determine its future course of action, Chapter 1305 of the Statutes of 1971, makes no change in the local system other than to terminate additional subventions after June 30, 1972 The purpose of this article is to grant authority to the Los Angeles Community College District to take any and all necessary steps to determine whether it wishes to merge with the State Teachers' Retirement System and thereby gain the advantage of the benefit improvements and financing structure of that system, or to continue to operate a separate system under a local benefit and financing program. This authority shall include the right to expend moneys out of the local system fund to cover the expenses of the investigation of the advantages of the merger and to consummate the merger if this course appears desirable, as well as to create and maintain reasonable contingency reserves to insure an orderly and adequate transition fully protecting the interests of the Los Angeles Community College teachers.

14452 Notwithstanding any other provision in this code, the provisions of this article shall govern the matter contained therein

14453 The modifications to the State Teachers' Retirement System retirement, disability and family allowances formulae contained in Chapter 1305 of the Statutes of 1971 shall not apply to the Los Angeles Community College District Retirement System, hereinafter referred to as the Community College System

14454 An election shall be held any time prior to July 1, 1972, to determine if the members of the Community College System are to be covered only by that system or to be covered only by the State Teachers' Retirement System The election shall be decided by a simple majority of those voting The election shall be effective as of July 1, 1972.

The election shall be in such manner as specified by the Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles Community College District, and the results transmitted to the State Teachers' Retirement System by that Board no later than July 1, 1972. All costs of the election shall be borne by the employer reserve in the Community College System.

14454.1. If the teachers who are members of the Community College System vote in an election held prior to July 1, 1972, to be covered only by the Community College System, Sections 14454.2 through 14454.8 shall apply.

14454.4. Member and employer contributions for service performed in the Los Angeles Community College District shall be paid to the Community College System.

14454.5. All persons on the Community College System retired rolls on June 30, 1972, shall remain on the local rolls. The State Teachers' Retirement System will continue the subvention in Section 14120 to the local district for those persons, will pay the retired update and annual improvement factor increase directly to the retirant and will pay the two thousand dollar ($2,000) retired death benefit upon their death. Such retired death benefit will be reduced by the retired death benefit payable by the Community College System.

14454.6. The Community College System shall provide concurrent retirement benefits for service in the Community College System as provided in Sections 13838, 13990 and 14211 as these sections read on July 1, 1972, for:

(a) Any person who was a member of both retirement systems on June 30, 1972; and

(b) Any person who could have qualified under (a) above except he had taken a refund from either but not both systems provided he qualifies for and redeposits prior to retirement in either system.

14454.7. Notwithstanding the provisions in Section 14211, a member of the Community College System may retire concurrently and receive credit from the State Teachers' Retirement System for service performed in other states of the United States, its territories and possessions and the Dominion of Canada provided that the person is eligible under Sections 13998, 13999 and 14000, and the benefits attendant thereto.

14454.8. The Community College System shall provide for and assume total financial responsibility for the full Permanent Fund benefit earned through June 30, 1972, as those benefits existed in subdivision

(a) of Section 14240 on June 30, 1972 The accumulated Permanent Fund contributions related to Los Angeles Community College service shall be transferred to the Community College System as of July 1, 1972.

14455 If the teachers who were members of the Community College System on June 30, 1972, vote in an election held prior to July 1, 1972, to be covered only by the State Teachers' Retirement System, Sections 14455.1 through 14661 shall apply

14455.1. The subvention to the Community College System shall be canceled and the retired rolls transferred to the State Teachers' Retirement System as of July 1, 1972, together with the present value of the annuity and other benefits being paid from the employer and employees' reserves in the Community College System less the present value of the benefit being provided out of subventions

14455 2 There shall be no reduction of any benefit being paid to an individual as a result of Section 14455 1.

14455 3 All service credited to the individual accounts in the Community College System shall be transferred to the State Teachers' Retirement System on the same basis as credentialed service is credited in the State Teachers' Retirement System.

14455 4. The Los Angeles Community College District shall transfer to the Teachers' Retirement Fund as of July 1, 1972, the total contributions on deposit in the individual accounts of members of the Community College System, and shall not be less than

(a) An amount equal to the contributions that would have been required had all service prior to July 1, 1972, been performed as a full-time member of the State Teachers' Retirement System plus credited interest through June 30, 1972, plus 6 percent interest from July 1, 1972, to the actual date of transfer; plus

(b) An amount equal to 8 percent of the employee compensation as provided in Section 13832 for service performed from July 1, 1972, to actual date of transfer plus 6 percent interest

14455 5 The Los Angeles Community College District shall also deposit in the Teachers' Retirement Fund an amount equal to 3 2 percent of employee compensation as provided in Section 13832 as the employer's contribution for service performed from July 1, 1972, to actual date of transfer, plus 6 percent interest.

14455 6. If the accumulated contributions in the person's account at the time of transfer to the State Teachers' Retirement System are not equal to those required in Section 14455 4, the difference between the amount in the account and the required amount is an unfunded liability and is the responsibility of the employer The Los Angeles Community College District shall, at the time of the transfer of assets, provide the additional amount of accumulated contributions required to put each individual account in balance if the shortage is due to the rate of contributions which had been required by the Community College System Such amount shall be a charge against the residual funds remaining on deposit with the Los Angeles Community College District.

14455.7. Any funds transferred by the Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles Community College District in accordance with Section 14455.4 in addition to the accumulated contributions already in the member's account shall be deposited as employer contributions in the Teachers' Retirement Fund, and shall not be credited to the member's account and shall not be refundable.

14455 8. Persons who elected to retain the 1/70th formula when the 1/60th formula was adopted by the Los Angeles Unified School District Retirement System or the Community College System are liable for the portion of contributions related to that election plus credited interest through June 30, 1972, and regular interest thereafter.

14455.9. Adjustments to accounts caused by late discovery shall be made in accordance with Sections 14455.4, 14455.5, 14455.6 and 14455.8.

14455.10. Those persons who took a refund of their contributions and interest from the Los Angeles Unified School District Retirement System or the Community College System prior to July 1, 1972, and who have Permanent Fund contributions on deposit in the State Teachers' Retirement System for such service shall have the accumulated Permanent Fund contributions on deposit in the State Teachers' Retirement System as of July 1, 1972, treated the same as the Permanent Fund contributions of all nonlocal members

Upon discovery and notification to such person, he shall:

(a) Redeposit the contributions required with regular interest; or

(b) Leave the Permanent Fund accumulated contributions on deposit and receive an actuarially reduced retirement allowance.

14456. The transfer of assets from the Los Angeles Community College District to the State Teachers' Retirement System shall be in cash or in securities in kind. While a proportionate division of each holding shall not be required, the securities transferred to the State Teachers' Retirement System shall be divided between nonconvertible fixed income investments, equities, and securities convertible into equities in proportion to the book value of these security groupings to the total value of the Community-College System portfolio as of March 31, 1972. For this purpose, cash will be counted as equivalent to a security valued at market.

The value of securities in kind that are to be transferred shall be determined as follows: nonconvertible fixed income investments held in the portfolio on March 31, 1972, will be valued by discounting at the annualized earnings rate on the State Teachers' Retirement System's nonconvertible fixed income portfolio as of June 30, 1972, computed in accordance with established State Teachers' Retirement System procedures, plus an allowance for accrued income However, where the value for any specific security when computed in this manner would be above the value at which the security may be redeemed at the first date at which it is callable or refundable, then the applied rate shall be computed to the redemption price at the first date at which the security is redeemable or refundable, whichever is later, plus an allowance for accrued income. Nonconvertible fixed income securities purchased after March 31, 1972, equities and securities convertible into equities shall be valued at market plus accrued interest if any. All securities to be transferred shall be valued as of June 30, 1972.

Either the Los Angeles Community College District or the Teachers' Retirement Board may reject specific securities and recommend alternative assets. Selection of securities to be transferred in kind shall not be made in a manner adverse to the Teachers' Retirement Fund. Should the respective parties be unable to reach agreement by October 13, 1972, the matter shall be submitted to arbitration by a third party, and his decision shall be binding upon both parties. The third party arbitrator shall be mutually agreed upon. If agreement cannot be reached, the arbitrator shall be appointed by the Governor from a list of four names; two names each to be submitted independently by the Los Angeles Community College District and the Teachers' Retirement Board.

14456 2. The balance of assets remaining on deposit with the Los Angeles Community College District after the transfers, deposits and payments required by Sections 14455 1, 14455 4 and 14455.5, or after establishment of reserves from which such deposits and payments shall be made, shall be held intact by the district until the Legislature either prior thereto or thereafter expressly authorizes the expenditure thereof.

14456 3 The transfer of cash and securities in kind from the Los Angeles Community College District to the State Teachers' Retirement System shall be accomplished by that district delivering the cash and securities in kind at the office of the State Treasurer in Sacramento properly registered in the name of the State Teachers' Retirement System in accordance with the registration requirements of the State Teachers' Retirement System. This transfer shall be completed by September 1, 1973 Interest on any cash transfer shall be at the rate of 6 percent per annum from July 1, 1972, to date of the transfer. Any cash income payments or payments in securities made to the Los Angeles Community College District after June 30, 1972, which are on securities to be transferred to the Teachers' Retirement Fund and are properly allocable to the Teachers' Retirement Fund shall be transferred to the Teachers' Retirement Fund.

14458 In the event that the members of the Community College System elect to be fully covered by that system so as to require a transfer of cash and securities in kind from the Teachers' Retirement Fund to the Community College System, the State Teachers' Retirement System shall be bound by the conditions set forth in Sections 14456 through 14456 3

14459 The Los Angeles Community College District may continue the current annual report of member contributions and service for fiscal year 1972–1973 for all nonlocal certificated members working in the Los Angeles Community College District The 8-percent employee and 3 2-percent employer contributions for these nonlocal members shall be remitted monthly. If an annual report is submitted instead of a monthly report, it is due on July 31, 1973, and is delinquent on August 31, 1973 The provisions of Section 14056 shall apply.

14460 The Community College System shall submit a list of all members of that system as of June 30, 1972, who have credentialed service which would qualify for membership in the State Teachers' Retirement System. The list shall be submitted to the State Teachers' Retirement System no later than August 31, 1972

14461. If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the article which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this article are severable

SEC 2 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect

The facts constituting such necessity are: In order to permit the orderly implementation of Chapter 1305, of the Statutes of 1971, this act must take effect immediately.

Urgency Clause

Urgency clause read.

Recommendation of the Governor

In accordance with Article IV, Section 12(c), of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the consideration of Assembly Bill No 42:

Governor's Office, Sacramento
April 18, 1972

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly and Senate:

Assembly Bill No. 42, "An act to add Article 7 (commencing with Section 19460) to Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and Item 84 1 to the Budget Act of 1972, relating to state employees, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately,"

in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 12 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill

I, therefore, recommend consideration of Assembly Bill No 42, as amended, as an emergency measure

Respectfully,

RONALD REAGAN
Governor

Such districts shall be composed of contiguous territory, and ~~Assembly districts~~ shall be as nearly equal in population as may be. Each senatorial district shall choose one Senator and each assembly district shall choose one Member of Assembly. The senatorial ~~districts shall be numbered from 1 to 40, inclusive, in numerical order,~~ and the assembly districts shall be numbered ~~from 1 to 80~~ in ~~the same~~ order, commencing at the northern boundary of the state and ending at the southern boundary thereof. Senatorial districts shall include the same territory and be determined by the same boundaries as congressional districts and each senatorial district shall include two assembly districts. ~~In the formation of assembly districts no county, or city and county, shall be divided, unless it contains sufficient population within itself to form two or more districts, and in the formation of senatorial districts no county, or city and county, shall be divided, nor shall a part of any county, or of any city and county, be united with any other county, or city and county, in forming any assembly or senatorial district.~~ The census taken under the direction of the Congress of the United States in the year 1920, and every 10 years thereafter, shall be the basis of fixing and adjusting the legislative districts; and the Legislature shall, ~~at its first regular session following the adoption of this section and thereafter at~~ beginning on the first legislative day of, and reaching completion no later than the final day of, the first regular session ~~following each decennial federal census~~ in each new decade, adjust such districts, and reapportion the representation so as to preserve the ~~assembly~~ districts as nearly equal in population as may be; ~~but in the formation of senatorial districts no county or city and county shall contain more than one senatorial district, and the counties of small population shall be grouped in districts of not to exceed three counties in any one senatorial district,~~ provided, however, that should the Legislature ~~at the first regular session following the adoption of this section or~~ at the first regular session ~~following~~ of any decennial federal census fail to reapportion the assembly and senatorial districts, a Reapportionment Commission, which is hereby created, consisting of the Lieutenant Governor, who shall be chairman, and the Attorney General, State Controller, Secretary of State and State Superintendent of Public Instruction, shall forthwith apportion such districts in accordance with the provisions of this section and such apportionment of said districts shall be immediately effective the same as if the act of said Reapportionment Commission were an act of the Legislature, subject, however, to the same provisions of referendum as apply to the acts of the Legislature.

Each subsequent reapportionment shall carry out these provisions and shall be based upon the last preceding federal census But in making such adjustments no persons who are not eligible to become citizens of the United States, under the naturalization laws, shall be counted as forming a part of the population of any district. Until such districting as herein provided for shall be made, Senators and Assemblymen shall be elected by the districts according to the apportionment now provided for by law

In the event the Legislature does not reapportion itself by December 1, 1972, the Governor shall convene the Legislature in special session on December 4, 1972, for the purpose of reapportioning itself.

Third—That Section 9 of Article V be amended to read:

SEC. 9. The Lieutenant Governor shall have the same qualifications as the Governor. He is President of the Senate but ~~has only a casting~~ may vote only in the case of a tie-vote, all Members of the Senate voting."

SECOND READING OF BILLS—AUTHOR'S AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 1865—An act to add Title 8 (commencing with Section 14500) to Part 4 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officer-community relations.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

In line 3 of the title of the printed bill, after "relations", insert ", and making an appropriation therefor".

Amendment No. 2

On page 1, strike out line 7, and insert

"CHAPTER 1. ADMINISTRATION

14500. There is in state government the Peace Officer Community Relations Commission. It is the intention of the Legislature that this commission administer a program to improve relations between peace officers and the public they serve.

14501 The Legislature hereby finds and declares that peace officer community relations in some areas of the state have deteriorated in a manner that is detrimental to the public welfare. While law enforcement agencies are by no means solely responsible for whatever discord exists, the special role of the police in society places upon them much of the burden for alleviating it.

14502 (a) The Peace Officer Community Relations Commission shall consist of nine members the Attorney General or his designee; a member of the Board of the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training designated by that board; a member of the Board of California Council on Criminal Justice designated by that board; and the following members appointed by the Governor—a city executive, a county executive (one executive to be from the Northern region of California and one from the Southern region of California); a public defender; a person who shall be an officer, director, or professional staff member of a nonprofit corporation that has as one of its primary concerns the safety and well-being of Mexican-American residents of California; a person who shall be an officer, director, or professional staff member of a nonprofit corporation that has as one of its primary concerns the safety and well-being of black residents of California; and a student who is an officer of a student body association of a California state university or college, University of California or a community college, who shall be chosen from the nominees submitted to the Governor by the Student Presidents' Associations of the University of California, the California State University and Colleges, and the community colleges

(b) The members shall serve 2-year terms The members first appointed shall arrange themselves by lot so that the terms of five members shall expire June 1, 1974, and that of four members June 1, 1975.

14503 The commission shall establish an advisory committee which shall meet at least every three months to review the commission's activities and provide advice and consultation The advisory committee shall be broadly representative of civilian interests in peace officer community relations, and shall include, but not be limited to, representatives of business, labor, civic and social service organizations, minority groups, youth and students, senior citizens, women, ex-offenders, and civilians with expertise in police-community relations

14504 (a) The Peace Officers Community Relations Commission shall make an annual report of their program to the state Legislature Such annual report shall comment on the successes and failures in developing better community relations and include suggestions to improve the program It shall also discuss the finance operation of the commission and any needs for modifications in funding.

14505 (a) The commission may, subject to the State Civil Service Act, employ such clerical and technical staff as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this title

(b) The commission may adopt such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this title pursuant to Chapter 4 5 (commencing with Section 11371) of Part 1, Division 3 of the Government Code.

(c) The members of the commission and the advisory committee shall receive a per diem and expenses

CHAPTER 2. POWERS AND DUTIES

14550. The commission shall approve and fund programs to improve relations between peace officers and the public within defined priority areas. These programs shall include incentives for peace officers which will better enable them to develop and maintain good relationships with the public while carrying out their basic duty of safeguarding the community.

14551. (a) A priority area is a geographic area within a city or county where peace officer community relations are strained, hampering effective law enforcement and citizen respect for and communication with their peace officers.

Criteria indicating a priority area include a high crime rate particularly a high number of violent crimes and serious property crimes, frequent assaults on and deaths of peace officers, frequent justifiable homicides effected by peace officers, repetitive instances of civil disturbances or civil disorders, a high concentration of young people or minority group persons with past records of poor police-community relations, and other evidence of recognizable tension in the area provided by the applicant agency.

(b) As used in this title, "peace officer" means a sworn full-time employee of a city police department or a sheriff's department.

14552. Application to operate a program of community curriculum and incentives shall be submitted to the Peace Officer Community Relations Commission and may be made by any of the following:

(a) A board of supervisors,

(b) A city council, or

(c) A police department or sheriff's department.

14553. (a) Each application shall contain a detailed description of the priority area to be served.

(b) Each application shall contain a detailed proposal to develop and administer a curriculum of courses intended to produce effective law enforcement through improved peace officer-community relations within a priority area.

(c) The courses shall be designed to familiarize and teach the peace officer the priority area history, mores, sociological character, economic and social needs, political concerns, language and residents' perspectives of the criminal justice system and law enforcement

(d) Each program shall include a system of financial and other incentives contingent on successful completion of various portions of the curriculum by officers working in the priority area.

(e) The curriculum design, incentive planning, and course presentation elements of the program shall include the maximum feasible participation of priority area residents Civilian instructors and knowledgeable residents of the priority area shall design the courses and requirements in each curriculum. Civilian participants shall be given reasonable access to policy, statistical, and other background information about law enforcement agency operations in order that they may make informed decisions about the appropriate scope and content of the community curriculum and the associated incentives.

(f) Each application shall include letters commenting on the proposal from residents and civic, social service, and neighborhood groups which serve the priority area.

(g) These courses shall be taught within the geographical confines of the priority area.

(h) The courses shall be taught by knowledgeable instructors with a civilian perspective on the needs of the priority areas. There shall be minimal use of professional peace officers as instructors.

(i) Each curriculum shall include adequate opportunity for peace officers to explain their policies, programs, and perspectives to priority area residents and civilian participants in the planning, operation, and instruction of the community curriculum. No such community education element shall exceed 20 percent of the total number of hours in the curriculum.

(j) A curriculum comprising at last 80 hours of class time must be provided. The commission shall review the proposed curriculum and approve the same before operating funds are released.

(k) Each project shall include provision for at least 40 hours of annual continuing education through the community curriculum or participation in the community service projects or internships for the entire period of the grant for all officers who receive incentive pay pursuant to this chapter.

(l) Every project funded shall require that all full-time sworn personnel of the applicant agency who regularly work within the priority area shall participate in the community curriculum training program.

14554. (a) Approval of a program grant by the commission shall be based upon the need of the priority area, the likelihood that the project proposed will improve peace officer-community relations and thereby improve law enforcement, and the funds available.

(b) Grants shall be for a three-year period, with funds released one year at a time.

(c) Grants shall be sufficient to reimburse all budgeted costs which are properly attributable to the operation of a project However, no grant funds shall be used to purchase any real property nor shall any grant include more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or 10 percent of the grant, whichever is less, for nonconsumable fixtures and equipment.

(d) The agency which has primary patrol responsibility in a priority area shall be the preferred grantee in the event that more than one application is received to operate a program in a specific priority area.

(e) No grant shall be for more than 30 percent of the entire amount available under this title

14555. The commission annually shall evaluate the effectiveness of every program funded under this title.

SEC. 2 The sum of nine hundred fifty thousand dollars ($950,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund for the purposes of this act, of which one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) may be utilized for administration, exclusive of evaluation costs."

Amendment No. 3

On page 1, strike out lines 8 to 11, inclusive; and on page 2, strike out lines 1 to 7, inclusive.

Bill ordered reprinted, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Criminal Justice.

Assembly Bill No. 1868—An act to add Title 8 (commencing with Section 14500) to Part 4 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officer-community relations.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

(c) The members of the commission and the advisory committee shall receive a per diem and expenses.

CHAPTER 2. POWERS AND DUTIES

14525. It is the intent of the Legislature by the enactment of this title to encourage voluntary positive responsiveness on the part of the peace officers to the community in order that effective law enforcement may be extended and maintained in defined priority areas.

The commission shall approve and fund programs to improve relations between peace officers and the public within defined priority areas. These programs shall include incentives for peace officers which will better enable them to develop and maintain good relationships with the public while carrying out their basic duty of safeguarding the community.

14526. (a) A priority area is a geographic area within a city or county where peace officer community relations are strained, hampering effective law enforcement and citizen respect for and communication with their peace officers.

Criteria indicating a priority area include a high crime rate, particularly a high number of violent crimes and serious property crimes, frequent assaults on and deaths of peace officers, frequent justifiable homicides effected by peace officers, repetitive instances of civil disturbances or civil disorders, a high concentration of young people and minority group persons with past records of poor police-community relations, and other evidence of recognizable tension in the area provided by the applicant agency.

(b) As used in this title, "peace officer" means a sworn full-time employee of a city police department or a sheriff's department.

14527 Application to operate a project under this title shall be submitted to the Peace Officer Community Relations Commission and may be made by any of the following:

(a) A board of supervisors,

(b) A city council, or

(c) A police or sheriff's department.

14528. (a) Each application shall contain a detailed description of the priority area to be served.

(b) Each application shall contain a detailed proposal to solicit sytematic and comprehensive citizen input and to utilize such input to improve law enforcement through better peace officer community relations and concomitant citizen cooperation in a priority area.

(c) Each application shall contain a system of financial and other incentives for peace officers who participate in the direct citizen feedback program described hereinafter.

14529. (a) All programs funded under this title shall contain at least the following elements:

(1) Peace officer-civilian contacts, including field interrogations, traffic and misdemeanor citations, and responses to calls for services, will be utilized to solicit input. Other peace officer-citizen contacts may also be used for solicitation of input. An input report card or form shall be given to every person during his contact with a peace officer. These report forms or cards shall contain a return address and be postage prepaid.

Each form or card shall be numbered or otherwise identified so that it may be connected with all other reports or documents which result from the peace officer-citizen contact A detachable stub containing this number, which may be retained by the citizen, shall be part of the form or card. The officer shall enter his badge number and the time, date, and location of the contact on the form or card The citizen may thereafter complete the remainder and mail the same to the agency. The citizen shall not be required to identify himself on the form or card.

(2) In any program to serve priority areas in which five percent or more of the residents utilize a language other than English, the input report form or card shall also be provided in such language.

(3) The proposed program shall include procedures for receiving, categorizing, and making a permanent record of the information received by the applicant agency, including the recording of such information in the personnel file of each peace officer to whom it relates.

(4) Every project shall include a system to provide the individual peace officer with rapid feedback of citizen comments resulting from contacts with the officer.

(5) Every project funded shall require that all full-time sworn personnel of the applicant agency who regularly work within the priority shall participate in the immediate positive feedback program

(b) Each project shall include a system of financial and other incentives over and above normal benefits to reward officers who work in a priority area for participation in this direct citizen feedback program. A composite of citizen feedback reports must be a factor in consideration for pay raises, promotions, assignments, and other financial and nonfinancial incentives (in addition to the basic reward for program participation) shall be correlated with citizen feedback which affirmatively indicates improved law enforcement effectiveness for an officer through improved community relations

(c) A program may include such other method of citizen input as the applicant may devise and the commission approves. All such projects shall be limited to priority areas

(d) Each application shall include letters commenting on the proposal from residents and civic, social service, and neighborhood groups which serve the priority area Each program shall include a scheme to inform priority area residents that the project is operating and to solicit their cooperation

(e) Application for funding for the second and later years of a program pursuant to this title shall include a plan for increasing citizen input and the comprehensive and systematic consideration of such input in processes of planning, policymaking, resource allocation, and evaluation by the applicant agency.

14530. (a) Approval of a program grant by the commission shall be based upon the need of the priority area, the likelihood that the project proposed will improve peace officer community relations and thereby improve law enforcement, and the funds available.

(b) Grants shall be for at least a two-year period, with funds released on an annual or more frequent basis.

(c) Grants shall be sufficient to reimburse all budgeted costs which are properly attributable to the operation of a project However, no grant funds shall be used to purchase any real property nor shall any grant include more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or 10 percent of the grant, whichever is less, for nonconsumable fixtures and equipment.

(d) The agency which has primary patrol responsibility in a priority area shall be the preferred grantee in the event that more than one application is received to operate a program in a specific priority area.

(e) No grant shall be for more than 30 percent of the entire amount available under this chapter.

14531. The commission annually shall evaluate the effectiveness of every program funded pursuant to this title.

SEC. 2 The amount of nine hundred fifty thousand dollars ($950,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund for the purposes of this title of which one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) may be utilized for administration, exclusive of evaluation costs."

Amendment No. 3

On page 1, strike out lines 8 to 11, inclusive; and on page 2, strike out lines 1 to 8, inclusive.

Bill ordered reprinted, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Criminal Justice.

(c) The members of the commission and the advisory committee shall receive a per diem and expenses.

CHAPTER 2 POWERS AND DUTIES

14575. It is the intent of the Legislature by this title to establish a program for the purpose of improving relations between the police and the public by encouraging peace officers to reside in priority areas as defined herein in order that they may better understand priority area residents and individual and community needs for law enforcement assistance.

The commission shall approve and fund programs to improve relations between peace officers and the public within defined priority areas. These programs shall include incentives for peace officers which will enable them to develop and maintain good relationships with the public while carrying out their basic duty of safeguarding the community.

14576. (a) A priority area is a geographic area within a city or county where peace officer community relations are strained, hampering effective law enforcement and citizen respect for and communication with their peace officers

Criteria indicating a priority area, including a high crime rate, are, particularly, a high number of violent crimes and serious property crimes, frequent assaults on and deaths of peace officers. frequent justifiable homicides effected by peace officers, repetitive instances of civil disturbances or civil disorders, a high concentration of young people and minority group persons with past records of poor police-community relations, and other evidence of recognizable tension in the area provided by the applicant agency.

(b) As used in this title, "peace officer" means a sworn full-time employee of a city police department or sheriff's department.

14577. Applications under this title shall be submitted to the Peace Officer Community Relations Commission and may be made by any of the following:

(a) A county.

(b) A city.

(c) A police department, or sheriff's department.

(d) A nonprofit corporation.

The commission shall review applications and award grants based on the needs of the priority area, the funds available and the likelihood that improved police-community relations will result if the program is funded.

14578. (a) Each application shall contain a detailed description of the priority area to be served.

(b) Each application shall contain a detailed proposal to distribute rent and mortgage payment supplements to officers who voluntarily live in the priority area. Each proposal shall provide that peace officers having at the time of the grant or thereafter established residence in the priority area shall receive a monthly subsidy. This subsidy shall represent at least 25 percent of the officer's rent or home ownership payment.

(c) Each application shall contain an estimate of the number of officers expected to participate and a budget sharing both the costs of subgrants to eligible officers and the costs of administration.

(d) Applications by organizations which are not governmental entities or agencies shall contain detailed information on their fiscal responsibility.

14579. Upon receipt of a grant, the grantee agency shall, by advertisements, notices, or other suitable means, inform all peace officers who reside or who might wish to reside in the priority area of the availability of the subsidy.

14580. (a) Subsidies shall be awarded and distributed by the grantee in accordance with procedures approved by the commission.

(b) All grants shall be subject to an annual independent audit.

14581. (a) Grants shall be for a three-year period, with funds released by the commission on an annual or more frequent basis.

(b) Grants shall be sufficient to reimburse all budgeted costs which are properly attributable to the operation of a project. However, no grant funds shall be used to purchase any real property nor shall any grant include more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or 10 percent of the grant, whichever is less, for nonconsumable fixtures and equipment.

(c) The agency which has primary patrol responsibility in a priority area shall be the preferred grantee in the event that more than one application is received to operate a program in a specific priority area.

(d) No grant shall be for more than 30 percent of the entire amount available under this chapter.

(e) No grantee shall utilize more than 12 percent of any grant for the costs of administration thereof.

14582 The commission shall annually evaluate the effectiveness of every program funded under this title.

SEC 2 The sum of nine hundred fifty thousand dollars ($950,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund for the purposes of this act, of which one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) may be utilized for administration, exclusive of evaluation costs."

Amendment No. 3

SECOND READING OF BILLS—AUTHOR'S AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 598—An act to add Article 2 5 (commencing with Section 5420) to Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to waste materials

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

In lines 1 and 2 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "Article 2 5 (commencing with Section 5420) to Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 5", and insert "Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) to Division 20".

Amendment No. 2

On page 2, strike out line 1, and insert

"SECTION 1 Chapter 6 5 (commencing with Section 25100) is added to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read.

CHAPTER 6 5 · HAZARDOUS WASTE CONTROL

Article 1. Findings and Declarations

25100 The Legislature finds that increasing quantities of hazardous wastes are being generated in the state and that without adequate safeguards for handling and disposal, such wastes can create conditions which threaten the public health and safety and create hazards to wildlife.

25101. The Legislature therefore declares that in order to prevent such hazardous conditions it is in the public interest to establish regulations and to maintain a program to provide for the safe handling and disposal of hazardous wastes.

Article 2. Definitions

25110 Unless the context indicates otherwise the definitions in this article govern the construction of this chapter

25111. "Department" means the State Department of Public Health

25112 "Director" means the Director of Public Health.

25113. "Disposal" means to abandon, deposit, intern or otherwise discard waste as a final action after their use has been achieved or a use is no longer intended.

25114. "Disposal site" means the location where any final deposition of solid waste occurs.

25115. "Extremely hazardous waste" means any hazardous waste or mixture of hazardous wastes which, if human exposure should occur, may likely result in death, disabling personal injury or illness during, or as a proximate result of, any disposal of such waste or mixture of wastes because of its quantity, concentration, or chemical characteristics.

25116. "Handling" means the transport, transfer from one place to another, or packaging of hazardous and extremely hazardous waste

25117. "Hazardous waste" means any waste material or mixture of wastes which is toxic, corrosive, flammable, an irritant, a strong sensitizer, which generates pressure through decomposition. heat or other means, if such a waste or mixture of wastes may cause substantial personal injury, serious illness or harm to wildlife, during, or as a proximate result of any disposal of such wastes or mixture of wastes The terms "toxic," "corrosive," "flammable," "irritant," and "strong sensitizer" shall be given the same meaning as in the California Hazardous Substances Act (Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 28740) of Division 21).

25118. "Person" also includes any city, county, district, the state or any department or agency thereof.

25119. "Processing" means to treat, detoxify, neutralize, incinerate, or otherwise process a hazardous waste to remove its harmful properties or characteristics for disposal in accordance with regulations established by the department in conjunction with any other agency authorized to regulate or control waste.

25120. "Processing facility" means any facility or location where any final treatment, incineration, processing or deposition of hazardous waste occurs.

25121. "Recycle" means to process, alter, or otherwise treat a hazardous waste for subsequent use.

Article 3. Hazardous Waste Advisory Committee

25130. The department shall establish a hazardous waste advisory committee to provide consultation to the department concerning matters covered by the chapter. The committee shall advise the department on the development of standards, rules, and regulations for hazardous waste management, and shall supply recommendations concerning methods by which existing hazardous waste management practices and the laws regulating them may be supplemented and improved.

25131. The committee shall consist of seven members appointed by the director who shall be knowledgeable in hazardous waste management. The members shall insofar as possible represent the interests of the public, local government, agriculture, manufacturing industry, local health departments, and the waste management industry.

25132 At least two members of the committee shall represent the interests of the public and shall have no financial interest in any of the recommendations or studies of the committee. Such financial interest shall include, but not be limited to, service as a consultant to any person specializing in waste disposal, as a tenant or landlord of property used for waste disposal, or as an attorney of a party with a direct financial interest in hazardous waste disposal.

Article 4. Listings

25140. The department shall prepare, adopt and may revise when appropriate, a listing of the wastes which are determined to be hazardous, and a listing of the wastes which are determined to be extremely hazardous When identifying such wastes the department shall consider, but not be limited to, the immediate or persistent toxic effects to man and wildlife and the resistance to natural degradation or detoxification of the wastes.

Article 5. Standards

25150. The department shall adopt, and may revise when appropriate, minimum standards and regulations for the handling, processing, and disposal of hazardous and extremely hazardous wastes to protect against hazards to the public health and to wildlife. Before adoption of such standards and regulations the department shall consult with and secure technical assistance from the Department of Agriculture, the Department of Fish and Game, the Department of Industrial Relations, Division of Industrial Safety, the State Air Resources Board, the State Water Resources Control Board and the State Fire Marshal.

25151. The department may adopt varying standards for different areas of the state depending on population density, climate, geology and other factors relevant to hazardous waste processing and disposal

the proposed regulations after making changes or additions that are appropriate in view of the evidence and testimony presented at the public hearing or hearings.

25153. Any person who is producing a waste material which he may reasonably consider to be as extremely hazardous waste, and which he does not intend to recycle for reuse and intends to dispose of as waste, shall notify the department of his intent to dispose of such waste material.

25154. After the effective date of the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this article, it shall be unlawful for any person to dispose of any hazardous or extremely hazardous waste except as provided for in such regulations.

25155. After July 1, 1973, no extremely hazardous waste as listed by the department pursuant to Section 25140, may be disposed of without prior processing to remove its harmful properties or as specified by the regulations of the department for the handling and disposal of the particular extremely hazardous waste.

Article 6. Transportation

25160. After July 1, 1973, the person producing a hazardous waste listed by the department pursuant to Section 25140 shall provide the driver of any truck, a crew member of any train, or the captain of any vessel carrying such hazardous wastes with a manifest containing a list of the hazardous wastes carried, the amount of such waste, the general chemical and mineral composition of such waste listed by probable maximum and minimum percentages, the origin and destination of any such waste carried, and antidotes, first aid, or safety measures to be taken in case of accidental contact with the particular hazardous waste being carried. The person carrying, or handling the hazardous waste shall have the manifest in his possession while carrying or handling the hazardous waste and shall release the manifest to a person responsible for disposal of the hazardous waste at the time of delivery. Such manifest shall be shown to any department official or officer of the California Highway Patrol upon demand.

25161. The department shall adopt and enforce all rules and regulations, including the form and content of the manifest, necessary and appropriate to accomplish the purposes of Section 25160.

25162. Manifests required by other agencies of the state or the federal government which describe the character and amount of hazardous wastes being carried shall satisfy the requirement of Section 25160.

Article 7. Other Provisions

25170. The department in performing its duties under this chapter shall:

(a) Establish procedures for evaluation and coordination of research and development regarding methods of hazardous waste handling and disposal and may conduct appropriate studies relating to hazardous wastes.

(b) Maintain a technical reference center on hazardous waste disposal, recycling practices, and related information for public and private use.

(c) Render technical assistance to state and local agencies in the planning and operation of hazardous waste programs.

(d) Provide for appropriate surveillance of hazardous waste processing and disposal practices in the state.

25180 No provision of this chapter shall be construed to require disposition of hazardous waste at the site of production, provided, that the transportation of such waste conforms to all applicable regulations.

Article 8 Enforcement

25180 The minimum standards and regulations adopted by the department pursuant to Section 25150 shall be enforced by the department or any local health officer.

25181 Whenever, in the judgment of the department, any person has engaged in or is about the engage in any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute a violation of any provision of this chapter, or any rule, regulation, or order issued thereunder, and at the request of the department, the Attorney General may make application to the superior court for an order enjoining such acts or practices, or for an order directing compliance, and upon a showing by the department that such person has engaged in or is about to engage in any such acts or practices, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order may be granted.

25182. Every civil action brought under the provisions of this chapter at the request of the department shall be brought by the Attorney General in the name of the people of the State of California and any such actions relating to the same processing or disposal of hazardous wastes may be joined or consolidated.

25183 Any civil action brought pursuant to this chapter shall be brought in the county in which the processing or disposal of hazardous waste is made or proposed to be made.

25184 In any civil action brought pursuant to this chapter in which a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction is sought, it shall not be necessary to allege or prove at any stage of the proceeding that irreparable damage will occur should the temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction not be issued, or that the remedy at law is inadequate, and the temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction shall issue without such allegations and without such proof.

25185 The director or any duly authorized employee of the department may at any reasonable hour of the day, enter a factory, plant, construction site, waste disposal site, establishment or any environment where hazardous wastes are stored, handled, processed or disposed of, in order to carry out the purposes of this chapter."

Amendment No. 3

429.60. The state department shall maintain a program to promote availability of medical and health care for the aging. The state department may contract with local governmental agencies and voluntary nonprofit organizations for conducting pilot projects designed to determine the most effective and most efficient methods of providing medical and health care services for the aging.

For purposes of this section, the term "aging" means persons who are eligible for old age benefits under social security. Such program may include, but is not limited to:

(a) Technical and financial assistance to local agencies for pilot projects developing or testing new or innovative systems for assuring the availability of medical and health care for the aging. Pilot projects may include, but are not limited to:

(1) Mobile health clinics.

(2) Mobile health teams.

(3) Patient transportation systems.

(4) Patient surveillance and referral systems.

(b) Studies of the health and medical care of the aging of the state.

(c) Coordination with similar programs of the federal government, other states, and voluntary agencies.

(d) Development of recommendations for improved systems of medical and health care.

(e) Collection and summarization of statistics describing needs for and effectiveness of various methods of providing health and medical care."

"SECTION 1 Section 11126 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11126. Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to prevent a state agency from holding executive sessions during a regular or special meeting to consider the appointment, employment or dismissal of a public officer or employee or to hear complaints or charges brought against such officer or employee by another public officer, person or employee unless such officer or employee requests a public hearing As a condition to holding an executive session on the complaints or charges to consider disciplinary action or to consider dismissal such officer or employee shall be given written notice of his right to have a public hearing rather than an executive session, which notice shall be delivered to him personally or by mail at least 24 hours before the time for holding a regular or special meeting. If notice is not given, any disciplinary or other action taken against any officer or employee at such executive session shall be null and void The state agency also may exclude from any such public or private meeting, during the examination of a witness, any or all other witnesses in the matter being investigated by the state agency. Following the public hearing or executive session the agency may deliberate on the decision to be reached in an executive session

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent state agencies, which administer the licensing of persons engaging in businesses or professions, from holding executive sessions to prepare, approve, grade or administer examinations.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit a state agency from holding an executive session to deliberate on a decision to be reached based upon evidence introduced in a proceeding required to be conducted pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1, Division 3, Title 2 of the Government Code or similar provision of law.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any state agency from holding an executive session to consider matters affecting the national security.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to grant a right to enter any correctional institution or the grounds of a correctional institution where that right is not otherwise granted by law, nor shall anything in this article be construed to prevent a state agency from holding an executive session when considering and acting upon the determination of a term, parole, or release of any individual or other disposition of an individual case, or if public disclosure of the subjects under discussion or consideration is expressly prohibited by statute.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any executive session to consider the conferring of honorary degrees, or gifts, donations and bequests which the donor or proposed donor has requested in writing to be kept confidential.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board from holding an executive session for the purpose of holding a deliberative conference as provided in Section 11125 of the Government Code

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Trustees of the California State Colleges from holding executive sessions dealing with site selection for such state colleges.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Franchise Tax Board from holding executive sessions for the purpose of discussion of confidential tax returns or data the public disclosure of which is prohibited by law.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent ~~the Board of Corrections~~ any crime study commission from holding executive sessions when considering reports of crime conditions under the provisions of Section 6027 of the Penal Code

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the State Air Resources Board from holding executive sessions when considering the prioprietary specifications and performance data of manufacturers.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Board of Administration of the Public Employees Retirement System from holding executive sessions when considering investment decisions.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the governing body of a public agency, or such boards, commissions, administrative officers, or other representatives as may properly be designated by law or by such governing body, from holding executive sessions with its representatives at any time in discharging its responsibilities under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3500) of Division 4 of Title 1 of this code as such sessions relate to salaries, salary schedules, or compensation paid in the form of fringe benefits.

SEC. 2. Section 21363.6 of the Government Code is amended to read

21363.6. The special death benefit is also payable if the deceased was the Administrator of the Youth and Adult Corrections Agency, or was a state member appointed by the Administrator of the Youth and Adult Corrections Agency, the Youth Authority, the Board of Trustees of the California Institution for Women or the California Women's Board of Terms and Parole, ~~the Board of Corrections~~, or was a member of ~~the Board of Corrections or~~ the Youth Authority not already classified as a prison member, provided that his death occurred as a result of misconduct of an inmate of a state prison, correctional school or facility of the Department of Corrections or the Youth Authority, or a parolee therefrom

The special death benefit provided by this section is not payable unless the death of the member arose out of and was in the course of his official duties as determined by the Industrial Accident Commission, using the same procedure as in workmen's compensation hearings; and unless there is a child or wife who qualifies under subdivision (b) of Section 21364.

The 1972 amendments to this section shall not affect the rights of any person under this section that may have accrued prior to the effective date of such amendments.

SEC. 3. Section 459 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

459 The county health officer shall investigate health and sanitary conditions in every county jail and other detention facility of the county at least annually. He may make such additional investigations of any county jail or other detention facility of the county as he may determine are necessary. Urgency Clause

Urgency clause read.

Recommendation of the Governor

In accordance with Article IV, Section 12(c), of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the consideration of Assembly Bill No 41:

Governor's Office, Sacramento
April 25, 1972

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly and Senate:

Assembly Bill No. 41, "An act to amend Section 22825 of the Government Code, relating to state employees' benefits," in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 12 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

I, therefore, recommend consideration of Assembly Bill No. 41 as an emergency measure.

Respectfully,

RONALD REAGAN
Governor

The question being on the adoption of the urgency clause to Assembly Bill No 41

In addition to all other amounts payable to the county school service fund on account of special education schools, programs, and classes maintained by the county superintendent of schools for the education of physically handicapped minors, mentally retarded minors, severely mentally retarded minors, and educationally handicapped minors, there shall be paid by the school districts in which such minors reside, an amount, per unit of average daily attendance of any such minors being educated by the county superintendent of schools in the current fiscal year, equal to the amount produced in the district in the current fiscal year by the appleable tax rates specified in Section 17702 per unit of the total average daily attendance of the district.~~

SEC 2 Section 895 6 of the Education Code is repealed.

~~895.6 The county superintendent of schools shall, with the approval of the county board of education, certify to the county auditor and the county board of supervisors, on or before July 15th of each year, the amount of money required to be raised by a county tax for the education of mentally retarded minors who come within the provisions of Section 6902 and for the rental of property and the purchase of equipment by the county superintendent of schools for special training schools and classes for such minors. The amount shall be determined by subtracting from the total cost of the education of such minors, including transportation, to the county superintendent of schools (1) the total of any balances remaining to be expended for this purpose, and (2) the total amount to be apportioned by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to the county school service fund for the education of mentally retarded minors who come within the provisions of Section 6902 and by adding to the result the amount required for rental of property and purchase of equipment~~

~~The county auditor and the county board of supervisors shall determine the tax necessary to produce the amount certified when levied upon the taxable property of all the districts under the jurisdiction of the county superintendent of schools which have not been approved by the county superintendent of schools to maintain such schools or classes. The board of supervisors shall at the time of levying other county taxes levy the tax so determined in each school district which had during the preceding fiscal year not been approved by the county superintendent of schools to maintain such schools or classes, except that the tax levied shall not exceed ten cents ($0 10) for each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation and shall be levied notwithstanding the provisions of Section 20751 or 20803.~~

~~The amount received from the tax shall be deposited in the county school service fund.~~

~~In the event the amount received from the tax levied is less than~~

~~the amount certified by the county superintendent of schools the difference shall, with the approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, be paid the county superintendent of schools from the county school service fund contingency account pursuant to Section 18353.~~

SEC 3 Section 895.7 of the Education Code is repealed

~~895.7. The county superintendent of schools shall, with the approval of the county board of education, certify to the county auditor and the county board of supervisors, on or before July 15th of each year, the amount of money required to be raised by a county tax for the education of mentally retarded minors who come within the provisions of Section 6903 and for rental of property and the purchase of equipment by the county superintendent of schools for special training schools or classes for such minors. The amount shall be determined by subtracting from the total cost of the education of such minors, including transportation, to the county superintendent of schools the total amount to be apportioned by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to the county school service fund for the education of such mentally retarded minors and by adding to the result the amount required for rental of property and the purchase of equipment. The board of supervisors may include in such amount a sum for capital outlay.~~

~~The board of supervisors shall, at the time of levying other county taxes, levy an identical rate of tax in all elementary or unified school districts which have an average daily attendance of less than 8,000 in the elementary schools in the district, and all unified or high school districts which have an average daily attendance of less than 8,000 in the high schools of the district under the jurisdiction of the county superintendent of schools, and for which approval has not been granted by the county superintendent for the district to establish and maintain such classes for the education of mentally retarded minors who come within the provisions of Section 6903 and any school district with an elementary or high school average daily attendance of more than 8,000 for which the county superintendent maintains such class upon the taxable property in such districts sufficient to produce an amount equal to all costs of the education of such minors which are in excess of the amounts apportioned from the State School Fund for the average daily attendance of such minors. The amount received from this tax shall be deposited in the county school service fund.~~

~~The tax shall be levied and collected on a current basis during the fiscal year on the basis of estimates of average daily attendance levels, assessed valuation levels, and the other factors involved. Excess amounts collected in any year may be applied to reduction of the tax in succeeding fiscal years, and the amount to be raised by the tax in any fiscal year may be increased by the amount of deficiency in the tax collected in prior fiscal years.~~

~~895.8. The county superintendent of schools shall, with the approval of the county board of education, certify to the county auditor and the county board of supervisors, on or before July 15th of each year, the amount of money required to be raised by a county~~

~~tax for the identification and education of physically handicapped minors who come within the provisions of Section 6801 or 6802 and for the rental of property and the purchase of equipment by the county superintendent of schools for the schools or classes for such minors.~~

~~The county superintendent of schools, when actually maintaining schools or classes for handicapped minors for districts with an average daily attendance in excess of 8,000 in the elementary or secondary schools of the district when such education is by agreement of the governing board of such school district, shall with the approval of the county board of education certify to the county auditor and the county board of supervisors on or before July 15th of each year the amount of money required to be raised by tax for the education of physically handicapped minors who come within the provisions of Section 6801 or 6802 under the same conditions and circumstances as an amount of money is certified and the tax levied for districts with less than 8,000 average daily attendance in the elementary or secondary schools of the district for the education of such physically handicapped minors, but such tax in districts of more than 8,000 average daily attendance shall not include any amount for the education of physically handicapped minors actually conducted by the local school district or for contract services of such education by another school district.~~

~~The amount shall be determined by subtracting from the total cost of the education of such minors, including transportation, to the county superintendent of schools the total amounts to be apportioned by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to the county school service fund for the education of such physically handicapped minors and by adding to the result the amount required for rental of property, the purchase of equipment, and capital outlay.~~

~~The board of supervisors shall, at the time of levying other county taxes, levy an identical rate of tax in all elementary or unified school districts which have an average daily attendance of less than 8,000 in the elementary schools in the district, and all unified or high school districts which have an average daily attendance of less than 8,000 in the high schools under the jurisdiction of the county superintendent of schools, and for which approval has not been granted by the county superintendent for the district to establish and maintain such classes for the education of physically handicapped minors who come within the provisions of Section 6801 or 6802 upon the taxable property in such districts sufficient to produce such amounts. The amount received from this tax shall be deposited in the county school service fund.~~

~~The tax shall be levied and collected on a current basis during the fiscal year on the basis of estimates of average daily attendance levels, assessed valuation levels, and the other factors involved. Excess amounts collected in any year may be applied to reduction of the tax in succeeding fiscal years, and the amount to be raised by the tax in any fiscal year may be increased by the amount of deficiency in the tax collected in prior fiscal years.~~

~~The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall adopt such rules~~

~~and regulations as he may deem necessary to the implementation of this section.~~

SEC. 5. Section 895.9 of the Education Code is repealed

~~895.9. (a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall reduce the allowances to county school service funds to be made in a fiscal year under Section 18355 by an amount determined by: (1) multiplying sixty cents ($0.60) by each one hundred dollars ($100) of the total assessed valuation of all the elementary or unified school districts for whom the county superintendent of schools maintains schools or classes in grades kindergarten through eight, inclusive, pursuant to Section 894; (2) dividing the product so derived by the total average daily attendance of pupils included in the foundation program computed for the districts for pupils in grades kindergarten through eight, inclusive, in the elementary or unified school districts for whom the county superintendent of schools maintains schools or classes in grades kindergarten through eight, inclusive, pursuant to Section 894; and (3) multiplying the quotient so derived by the average daily attendance of pupils attending the special schools or classes maintained by the county superintendent of schools in grades kindergarten through eight, inclusive, pursuant to Section 894.~~

~~(b) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall reduce the allowances to county school service funds to be made in a fiscal year under Section 18358 by an amount determined by: (1) multiplying fifty cents ($0.50) by each one hundred dollars ($100) of the total assessed valuation of all the high school or unified school districts for which the county superintendent of schools maintains schools or classes in grades 9 through 12, inclusive, pursuant to Section 894; (2) dividing the product so derived by the total average daily attendance of pupils included in the foundation program computed for the districts for pupils in grades 9 through 12, inclusive, in the high school or unified school districts for whom the county superintendent of schools maintains schools or classes in grades 9 through 12, inclusive, pursuant to Section 894; and (3) multiplying the quotient so derived by the average daily attendance of pupils attending the special schools or classes maintained by the county superintendent of schools in grades 9 through 12, inclusive, pursuant to Section 894.~~

~~895.11. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall reduce the allowance to each county school service fund made pursuant to Sections 18355 and 18358 by an amount equal to the amount paid into the fund by school districts pursuant to Section 885.5.~~

SEC. 7. Section 1822.2 of the Education Code is amended to read

1822.2. Any district which includes as a whole at the time of unification or other reorganization under Division 5 of this code, any district or districts having outstanding bonded indebtedness not assumed pursuant to this article shall pay for the use of the school property of the included district or districts an annual charge to the account of such included district or districts to be administered as a trust fund by or under the direction of the county superintendent of schools The annual charge shall be equal to the annual amount required for the interest and redemption of the outstanding bonds of such included district or districts

The county superintendent of schools shall apply the annual charge to the interest and bond redemption of the included district or districts

The governing board of the reorganized district shall include in its annual budget an amount equal to the annual charge If it fails to do so, the county superintendent of schools shall add the amount to the budget submitted by the governing board

The county board of supervisors shall include the annual tax to be levied upon the assessed valuation of the reorganized district a tax sufficient to provide for the annual charge. ~~The tax may be at a rate in excess of the maximum rate provided in Section 20751~~ While the annual charge is in effect, the board of supervisors need not levy a tax on the assessed valuation of the included district or districts for interest and bond redemption if the amount of the annual charge upon the reorganized district is sufficient for such interest and bond redemption.

The annual charge shall continue for the entire period during which any bonded indebtedness is outstanding against any included district.

SEC 8 Section 5605 of the Education Code is repealed

~~5605. The governing board of any elementary school district situated within a high school district maintaining a junior high school shall permit pupils who have completed the sixth year of the elementary school to attend the junior high school and shall pay to the high school district for the education of the pupils a tuition charge determined pursuant to this section. The amount of the tuition charge shall be computed as follows:~~

~~(a) By multiplying each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of the elementary school district for the current fiscal year, by a computational tax rate set by the governing board of the high school district maintaining the junior high schools or, in the event such board fails to set the rate by the time specified, the computational tax rate set by the county superintendent of schools. The computational tax rate shall be not less than one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) nor more than 10 percent more than the weighted average of the total operating tax rates of the elementary districts in the high school district, increased, where applicable, by a rate which will raise the total of the following amounts (1) the percentage of miscellaneous funds (as defined by Section 17606), specified in Section 17603.5, and 50 percent of funds under the provisions of Public Law 874, 81st Congress, or under any similar provisions of any other act of Congress in 1969/1970, 70 percent in 1970/1971, and 90 percent in 1971/1972 and each year thereafter, utilized for the elementary school district for the fiscal year; and (2) in the case of an elementary school district not eligible for an increase in foundation program pursuant to either Section 17671 or Section 17676, the total of the amount required by Section 17924 to be raised by the district for the fiscal year by application of an excess in general fund tax rate to be eligible for apportionments of supplemental support, provided that such required amount was actually raised by the district. For purposes of such computations, the assessed valuation of the district shall be modified as required by Section~~

~~17262. The weighted average of the total operating tax rates, as used in this subdivision, shall be computed by multiplying the total operating tax rate of each elementary district in the high school district by the total average daily attendance of the respective elementary district and dividing the sum of the products so obtained by the sum of the average daily attendance of all the elementary districts.~~

~~(b) By multiplying the product derived under subdivision (a) by the ratio which the average daily attendance of pupils of the elementary school district attending grades 7 and 8 of the junior high school during the current fiscal year, bears to the total average daily attendance of the elementary school district, including such pupils in grades 7 and 8, during the current fiscal year. For the purposes of this section, average daily attendance of kindergarten pupils shall not be adjusted by a factor of 1.5, as provided in Section 11301.~~

~~On or before January 1st of each fiscal year, the governing board of the elementary school district shall draw its warrant in favor of the high school district against the general fund of the elementary school district in the amount of fifty percent (50%) of the estimated tuition charge due to the high school district for the attendance of pupils at the junior high school during the current fiscal year. The amount of the warrant shall be credited to the general fund of the high school district.~~

~~On or before July 15th following the close of the fiscal year, the governing board of the elementary school district shall draw its warrant in favor of the high school district against the general fund of the elementary school district in the amount of the difference between the final tuition as computed by this section and the first installment paid to the high school district. The amount of the warrant shall be credited to the general fund of the high school district. The revenues, although received after the close of the fiscal year shall be considered revenues of the preceding fiscal year.~~

SEC. 9 Section 5605 is added to the Education Code, to read

5605. Commencing with the 1972–1973 year and thereafter, any elementary district, situated within a high school district maintaining a junior high school, which has elected to send its seventh and eighth grade pupils to the junior high school shall not maintain regular day classes for seventh and eighth grades. Any elementary district, situated within a high school district maintaining a junior high school, which has not elected to send its seventh and eighth grade pupils to the junior high school or which has withdrawn from the junior high school system shall maintain regular day classes for its seventh and eighth grades and may require its pupils who have completed the sixth year of the elementary school to attend such seventh and eighth grade classes of the elementary district.

SEC. 10. Section 5605.5 of the Education Code is repealed.

~~5605.5. (a) The governing board of a high school district which maintains a junior high school shall prior to July 1 of each fiscal year compute on the basis of current estimates of cost and average daily attendance the amount by which costs during the succeeding fiscal year of educating pupils in grades seven and eight exceeds the total of federal and state apportionments and the tuition payments to be~~

~~received by the district during the succeeding fiscal year for such pupils. The governing board shall also divide the amount so computed by the number of units of such average daily attendance to ascertain the amount of such cost which is attributable to each such unit of average daily attendance.~~

~~(b) If none of the elementary districts within the high school district maintains grades seven and eight or if grades seven and eight are maintained by the elementary district for fewer than 90 percent of the pupils in grades seven and eight who reside in the elementary district, the amount computed under subdivision (a) of this section may be included in the budget of the high school district and a tax levied pursuant to Section 20808.5.~~

~~(c) If an elementary district within the high school district has 10 percent or less of the pupils in grades 7 and 8 residing in the district attending a junior high school of the high school district, the high school district shall certify to the elementary district prior to July 1 of each fiscal year the amount computed under subdivision (a) of this section that is attributable to each unit of average daily attendance of pupils who reside in such elementary district and attend the junior high school of the high school district. The amount certified by the high school district shall be paid to such district by the elementary district as tuition for such pupils. The governing board of the elementary district shall include the amount so certified in its budget and a tax to raise such amount may be levied pursuant to Section 20808. The remainder of the amount computed under subdivision (a) of this section may be raised by a tax levied pursuant to Section 20808.5 upon the assessed valuation of the high school district excluding the assessed valuation of the elementary district affected by this subdivision.~~

~~5605.6. For the purposes of Section 5605, the assessed valuation of the district shall be that as shown by the current equalized assessment roll of the district plus a sum determined by adding to such assessed valuation an amount which would, if the current tax rate, as defined in Section 17604 as it read on January 1, 1963, of such district were levied on such added amount, produce or will produce 10 percent of the equivalent of all federal funds as federal funds are defined in Section 17605 as it read on January 1, 1963, and 75 percent of the equivalent of all miscellaneous funds as miscellaneous funds are defined in Section 17606 as it read on January 1, 1963, received or to be received by such district for the fiscal year for which such added amount was determined.~~

SEC. 12. Section 5606 of the Education Code is repealed

~~5606. If the tuition is not fixed before the time fixed for the county superintendent of schools to submit the budgets of the district to the board of supervisors, the county superintendent having jurisdiction over the elementary school district shall fix the amount of the tuition and shall incorporate the amount in the budgets of the districts concerned.~~

SEC. 13. Section 5607 of the Education Code is repealed

~~5607. If the trustees in any school district fail to draw warrants for tuition due to a high school district, the county superintendent of~~ ~~schools shall draw his warrant therefor~~

SEC 14. Section 5608 of the Education Code is repealed.

~~5608. The tuition charge shall cease to be paid after the pupil has satisfactorily completed the seventh and eighth grades in the junior high school.~~

SEC 15 Section 5609 of the Education Code is repealed

~~5609. The average daily attendance of all pupils from a district paying the tuition provided for, enrolled in the first two years of the junior high school, shall be kept separate and shall be credited to the elementary school district in which the pupils reside.~~

SEC. 16 Section 5610 of the Education Code is repealed

~~5610. The governing board of any elementary school district not situated in a high school district maintaining a junior high school may permit pupils of their district who have completed the sixth year of the elementary school to attend any junior high school in any district, and shall pay to the district for the education of the pupils by order of the county superintendent of schools, a tuition charge which shall be agreed upon by the governing board of the elementary school district and the governing board of the district maintaining the junior high school.~~

SEC. 17. Section 5611 of the Education Code is repealed

~~5611. The board of school trustees, under the arrangement described in Section 5610 shall not pay a tuition charge greater than the average net cost per pupil for educating pupils in the junior high schools of the district of attendance, as ascertained by the county superintendent of schools, less the amount of any apportionments withheld from the elementary school district and added to the high school district pursuant to Section 17411 or Section 17411.1, whichever is in effect. The tuition charge shall cease to be paid after the pupil has completed two years of work in the junior high school.~~

SEC 18 Section 5612 of the Education Code is repealed

~~5612. The average daily attendance of all pupils from a district paying the tuition provided for, enrolled in the first two years of the junior high school, shall be kept separate and shall be credited to the elementary school district in which the pupils reside.~~

SEC 19 Section 5613 of the Education Code is repealed.

~~5613. Whenever the average daily attendance of pupils enrolled in the first two years of the junior high school of a district is less than 25 for any school year, the junior high school shall lapse.~~

SEC. 20. Section 5658 of the Education Code is repealed

~~5658. Whenever a person residing in an elementary school district but not in any high school district or in any unified school district attends a high school in any district within the State, the governing board of the district maintaining the high school shall on or before July 15th of the succeeding school year certify, separately, to the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the elementary school district the amount chargeable to the elementary school district and the amount chargeable to the county school service fund under the jurisdiction of the county superintendent of schools, as tuition for the education of the person during the preceding school year.~~

5659. The tuition for the education of any person described in Section 5658 shall be computed as follows.

From the total current expense of education, exclusive of the expense of transportation, of pupils in grades 9 through 12 of the high school district or unified school district for the preceding school year subtract state and federal apportionments received by the district except federal apportionments under the act of Congress entitled, "An act to provide financial assistance for local educational agencies in areas affected by federal activities, and for other purposes," approved September 30, 1950 (Public Law 874 / 81st Congress), or under any similar provision of any other act of Congress received on account of the attendance of pupils residing in the district, and divide the remainder by the total number of units of average daily attendance in grades 9 through 12 of the high school district or unified school district during the preceding school year.

The total tuition chargeable to any elementary school district shall be computed as follows.

(a) Multiply the resulting quotient by the units of average daily attendance during the preceding school year of pupils in grades 9 through 12 residing in the elementary school district, and not residing on a military reservation of the United States, and attending the high schools of the high school district or unified school district, subtract the amount of federal apportionments under the act of Congress entitled, "An act to provide financial assistance for local educational agencies in areas affected by federal activities and for other purposes," approved September 30, 1950 (Public Law 874 / 81st Congress), or under any similar provision of any other act of Congress received on account of attendance of pupils residing in the elementary school districts, and not residing on a military reservation of the United States, and attending the high schools of the high school district or unified school district, add two hundred dollars ($200) for each of such units of average daily attendance for the use of buildings and equipment, and add the actual expense of transportation provided by the high school district to such pupils.

(b) Add to the total arrived at under subdivision (a) the total current expense less federal and state apportionments to the high school district or unified school district of education of pupils of the elementary school district as described in Section 5658 in any classes whatever other than classes in grades 9 through 12 of the high school district or unified school district.

The total amount chargeable against the county school service fund of any county shall be determined by (a) multiplying the quotient utilized under subdivision (a), above, by the units of average daily attendance during the preceding school year of pupils in grades 9 through 12 residing in the elementary school district, and on a military reservation of the United States, and attending the high schools of the high school district or unified school district, and (b) adding thereto the total current expense less federal and state apportionments to the high school district or unified school district of education of pupils of the elementary school district as described in Section 5658 and residing on a military reservation of the United States in any classes whatever other than classes in grades 9 through

~~12 of the high school district or unified school district~~

~~For the purposes of this section, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall define the term "total current expenses of education" and the term "actual expense of transportation."~~

SEC. 22 Section 5660 of the Education Code is repealed

~~5660. The county superintendent of schools shall transmit a copy of the certificate certifying the amount chargeable against any elementary school district under his jurisdiction not later than the succeeding July 20th to the board of supervisors of each county within which any part of the elementary school district is located.~~

SEC 23. Section 5661 of the Education Code is repealed

~~5661. If the elementary school district is located entirely within one county, the board of supervisors shall at the time and in the manner prescribed by Sections 20701 to 20704, inclusive, Sections 20751 to 20804, inclusive, and Sections 20901 and 21001 of this code levy a tax on all taxable property in the elementary school district sufficient to raise the amount set forth in the certificate. If the elementary school district is located in more than one county, the tax shall be determined, levied, and collected at the time and in the manner prescribed by Sections 20701 to 20704, inclusive, Sections 20751 to 20857, inclusive, and Sections 20901 and 21001 of this code. The maximum rate of school district tax which may be levied pursuant to this section for any high school district or unified school district in any school year on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation within the elementary school district shall be seventy-five cents ($0.75) if the average daily attendance of high school pupils living within the elementary school district and attending a high school in such high school district or unified school district during the preceding school year did not exceed 15.~~

SEC 24 Section 5662 of the Education Code is repealed

~~5662. The receipts of the tax shall be credited by the county treasurer of each county to the high school district or unified school district, except that if the county superintendent of schools of another county has jurisdiction over the high school district or unified school district, the county auditor of each county in which any portion of the tax is collected shall determine the amount of the receipts of the tax and shall direct the county treasurer of his county to transmit the amount to the county treasurer of the county of which the superintendent of schools has jurisdiction, who shall credit the amount to the high school district or unified school district. The county treasurer of any county crediting the receipts of the tax to a high school district or unified school district shall notify the county superintendent of schools and county auditor of the county and the governing board of the high school district or unified school district of the fact, naming the amount credited.~~

SEC. 25. Section 5663 of the Education Code is repealed

~~5663. The county superintendent of schools shall pay to each high school district and unified school district from the unapportioned county high school fund under his jurisdiction, the amount chargeable to the fund as shown by the certificate of the governing board of the high school district or unified school district.~~

~~5661. This section applies to any elementary school district wholly included in a unified school district or a high school district, including a union high school district, joint union high school district, or county high school district, and which inclusion is effective for all purposes on or after July 1, 1956, and which elementary school district is required, pursuant to this article (commencing at Section 5651), to pay, during the first fiscal year commencing on the date inclusion is effective for all purposes, to the unified district or high school district in which it is included two hundred dollars ($200) for each unit of average daily attendance for use of buildings and equipment as part of the tuition charge on account of persons residing in the elementary district who, during the preceding fiscal year, attended high school in the high school district or unified district in which such elementary district is included.~~

~~Notwithstanding other provisions of law, such elementary district shall not be liable for the payment of such two hundred dollars ($200) a unit of average daily attendance if, prior to the date the inclusion is effective for all purposes, the elementary district assumes liability for the outstanding bonded indebtedness of the high school district, if it is included in a high school district, or for the outstanding bonded indebtedness of the unified district for high school and community college purposes, if the elementary district is included in a unified district.~~

~~For the purposes of this section, the county superintendent of schools shall determine, pursuant to Section 21802, the amount of outstanding indebtedness of a unified school district issued for high school and community college purposes.~~

~~Liability for such outstanding bonded indebtedness may be assumed at any election held for such purpose in accordance with law except that, if the elementary district is included in a unified school district, at the request of the governing board of such elementary district, the ballot shall contain, in addition to other required provisions, the words "For assumption of liability of outstanding bonded indebtedness of / / / / District issued for high school purposes and community college purposes [if there is no such indebtedness for community college purposes the reference to community college purposes shall be deleted] / Yes" and "For assumption of liability for outstanding bonded indebtedness of / / / / District, issued for high school purposes and community college purposes [if there is no such indebtedness for community college purposes, the reference to community college purposes shall be deleted] / No".~~

SEC. 27. Section 5756 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5756. (a) For the purpose of crediting attendance for apportionments to high school and unified districts from the State School Fund, all attendance in adult classes and evening high schools shall be reported separately as attendance in classes for adults.

(b) For the purpose of crediting attendance for apportionments ~~from the State School Fund during the fiscal year,~~ to community college districts from the State Community College Fund, "adult" means any person who has attained his 21st birthday on or before ~~(a)~~ (1) September 1st, January 1st, or March 1st of the quarter for which he is enrolled or ~~(b)~~ (2) September 1st or February 1st of the semester for which he has enrolled, and who has enrolled in less than 10 class hours as defined in Section 11480 ~~for community college districts or 12 periods of not less than 40 minutes each per week for high school districts~~

SEC. 28. Chapter 6.10 (commencing with Section 6499 230) is added to Division 6 of the Education Code, to read.

CHAPTER 6.10 EDUCATIONALLY DISADVANTAGED YOUTH PROGRAMS

6499 230. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide quality educational opportunities for all children in the California public schools The Legislature recognizes that because of differences in family income, differing language barriers, and pupil transiency, differing levels of financial aid are necessary to provide quality education for all students

6499 231. From the funds appropriated by the Legislature for the purposes of this chapter, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, with the approval of the State Board of Education, shall administer this chapter and make apportionments to school districts to meet the total approved expense of the school districts incurred in establishing education programs for pupils who qualify economically and educationally in preschool, kindergarten, or any of grades 1 through 12, inclusive Nothing in this chapter shall in any way preclude the use of federal funds for educationally disadvantaged youth

6499.232. Maximum apportionments allowable to school districts shall be determined by the following factors

(a) An index of "potential impact of bilingual-bicultural pupils" determined by dividing the percent of pupils in the district with Spanish and Oriental surnames, as determined by the annual ethnic survey conducted by the Department of Education, by the statewide average percentage of such pupils for unified, elementary, or secondary districts, as appropriate

(b) A ratio of the district's "index of family poverty," defined as the district's Elementary and Secondary Education Act, Title I entitlement, divided by its average daily attendance in grades 1 through 12, or any thereof maintained, divided in turn by the state average index of family poverty for unified, elementary, or secondary districts, as appropriate

(c) A ratio of the district's "index of pupil transiency," as computed from the relationship between the district's average daily attendance and its total annual enrollment, divided by the state average index of pupil transiency for unified, elementary, or secondary districts, as appropriate

The district's total maximum apportionment under this chapter shall be determined by computing the product of (1) one-third the sum of the above three factors, (2) the number of pupils receiving aid for dependent children support, and (3) a constant amount of three hundred dollars ($300), or such amount as the Superintendent of Public Instruction may determine so that the sum of all allocations will not exceed the funds appropriated by the Legislature for the purposes of this chapter.

6499 233 For the fiscal year 1972–1973, the superintendent shall allocate to local districts an amount equal to not less than 40 percent of the total amount computed under Section 6499 232 For the fiscal year 1973–1974, the superintendent shall allocate not less than 40 percent of the total amount so computed and not more than 90 percent of the amount computed For the 1974–1975 fiscal year and thereafter, the superintendent shall allocate to each district not less than 40 percent nor more than 100 percent of the amount so computed

6499 234 In approving programs under this chapter, the State Board of Education shall give due consideration to the effectiveness of the program and shall not continue in operation any program that, upon evaluation, has been shown to be of low effectiveness and which has only limited possibility of improved effectiveness

For the fiscal year 1973–1974 and for each year thereafter, districts which demonstrate a high degree of program effectiveness shall receive amounts up to their entitlement limits Districts which demonstrate low levels of program effectiveness shall continue to receive their initial apportionments but the superintendent of Public Instruction may reduce the additional computed apportionments due such districts, if he determines that such programs have limited possibilities of improved achievement

6499 235. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion the funds available for programs in accord with procedures specified in this chapter and policies which may be adopted by the State Board of Education Funds shall be allocated to each district within its entitlement based upon a plan submitted by the district to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and approved by the State Board of Education. The plan shall include (1) an explicit statement of what the district seeks to accomplish, (2) a description of the program and activities designed to achieve these purposes, and (3) a planned program of annual evaluation, including a statement of the criteria to be used to measure the effectiveness of the program

6499 236 The State Board of Education shall adopt regulations setting forth the standards and criteria to be used in the administration, monitoring, evaluation, and dissemination of programs submitted for consideration under this chapter; 1 percent of the total appropriation for the purposes of this chapter shall be retained by the Department of Education for these purposes Funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter not allocated as previously specified shall be allocated by the State Board of Education to promote the intent of this chapter to provide education programs to as many eligible pupils as possible and to stimulate the development, implementation, and evaluation of innovative programs.

6499.237. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall submit annually to the Governor and to each house of the Legislature a report evaluating the programs established pursuant to this chapter, together with his recommendations concerning whether the same should be continued in operation

6499 238 There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in the State Treasury to the State School Fund for the fiscal year 1972–1973 an amount equal to twenty-one dollars and fifty cents ($21 50) multiplied by the total statewide average daily attendance of the preceding fiscal year in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, to be used for the purposes of Chapter 6 10 (commencing with Section 6499 230) of Division 6 of the Education Code For the fiscal year 1973–1974 the amount per such unit of average daily attendance shall be forty-three dollars ($43), and for the fiscal year 1974–1975 and thereafter, it shall be fifty-three dollars and seventy-five cents ($53 75).

SEC 29 Section 6851 of the Education Code is amended to read:

6851 Whenever a school district maintains a school or classes at a tuberculosis or polio ward, hospital or sanatorium established and maintained by a county or group of counties, any minor or adult who has been admitted to such ward, hospital or sanatorium is, if otherwise qualified, eligible to attend such school or classes ~~but shall be deemed to be, for the purposes of this code, a resident of the school district in which he resided prior to his admission to such tuberculosis or polio ward, hospital or sanatorium~~

The minimum schoolday for such classes is 180 minutes. Whenever two or more districts are authorized and operate such schools or classes the governing boards of the districts may jointly employ personnel to administer and conduct the programs

~~The school district maintaining the school shall, no later than 30 days following the date of enrollment of a student who resides in another school district under this section, notify the district of residence of the student's enrollment.~~

SEC 30. Section 6852 of the Education Code is repealed.

~~6852. The cost for a school year of educating any minor or adult who attends such a school or class and who is deemed to be a resident of the district in which he resided prior to his admission to such tuberculosis or polio ward, hospital, or sanatorium shall be paid by the school district of which any such minor or adult is a resident to the district maintaining a school or class in which such minor or adult is enrolled pursuant to this article. The cost shall be determined by dividing the total current expenditures of the school district during such school year for the maintenance of such school or classes, less all apportionments from the State or allocations from the Federal Government on account of such school or classes, by the total number of units of average daily attendance in such school or classes during such school year.~~

~~Minors in such schools or classes shall be apportioned excess cost apportionments for handicapped minors as stated elsewhere in this code.~~

~~The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall adopt standards and regulations relating to administration, attendance, accounting and counseling in hospital schools and classes.~~

SEC 31 Section 6853 of the Education Code is repealed

~~6853. Not later than July 15th of each year, the district maintaining such school or classes shall forward its claim to the district of residence, for the cost of educating minors or adults who are residents of such district during the preceding school year, and~~

~~the governing board of such district shall upon the receipt thereof pay such claim.~~

SEC 32 Section 6854 of the Education Code is repealed

~~6854. The governing board of the district to whom the claim prescribed by Section 6853 is presented may include in its budget the amount necessary to pay the claim, and if the amount is included in the budget the board of supervisors shall levy a school district tax to raise the amount. The school district tax shall be in addition to any other school district tax authorized by law to be levied.~~

SEC 33 Section 6855 of the Education Code is repealed

~~6855. The governing board of any school district maintaining a school or classes at a tuberculosis or polio ward, hospital or sanatorium, may include in its budget the amount necessary to maintain such school or classes, and the board of supervisors shall levy a school district tax necessary to raise such amount. The tax shall be in addition to any other school district tax authorized by law to be levied.~~

6871 With the approval of the county superintendent of schools, any school district having a physically handicapped minor, mentally retarded minor, severely mentally retarded minor, or multiply handicapped minor for whom special education facilities and services as prescribed by Section 6870 are not available or cannot be reasonably provided, and for whom the State of California has no appropriate special education facilities and services, shall, and any school district having an educationally handicapped minor for whom special education facilities and services as prescribed by Section 6870 are not available or cannot be reasonably provided, and for whom the State of California has no appropriate special education facilities and services, may, in lieu of establishing and maintaining the needed special education facilities and services at an unreasonable cost to the district, pay to the parent or guardian of such minor toward the tuition for such minor, enrolled in a public or private nonsectarian school, institution, or agency within or outside of California offering the special education facilities and services made necessary by the minor's disabilities, an amount not to exceed the sum per unit of average daily attendance of the regular state apportionment to the district for the fiscal year in question, the amount allowable per unit of average daily attendance for the particular category under ~~Section 18102, 18102.2, 18102.4, or 18102.6, the amount allowable per unit of average daily attendance for the particular category under Section 18060, and the amount per unit of average daily attendance provided from revenue derived from district taxation for the current expense of education of a normal child in the schools of the district. For purposes of computing the amount per unit of average daily attendance provided from revenue derived from district taxation, there shall be excluded amounts produced by rates levied for special or restricted purposes, such as the rates levied pursuant to Sections 1822.2, 1825, 16633, 16635, 16645.9, 19413, 19610, 20801 to 20802.8, inclusive, 20806, and 20807, and there shall be included amounts produced by rates levied for general districtwide current support purposes, including the rates levied pursuant to Sections 20808 and~~

~~20808.5~~ Sections 17652, 17639, and 18060 As used in this article "tuition" includes the cost to the parent or guardian of transporting a minor enrolled in a public or private nonsectarian school, institution, or agency under this section to and from school

The provisions of this section shall be applicable as well to situations where the special educational facilities and services are available but are an unreasonable distance away from the home of the minor. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall adopt rules and regulations to implement the determination of the unreasonableness of such cost and distance, and any other rules and regulations deemed necessary by him for the effective administration of this chapter The county superintendent of schools shall make a finding as to the unreasonableness of such cost or distance for the school districts within his jurisdiction and shall report such findings to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, who, if he approves such findings, shall authorize payments pursuant to this section and Sections 6872 and 6873

The provisions of this section shall be applicable as well to situations where the public special educational facilities and services are available but the attending physician of the physically handicapped, mentally retarded, severly mentally retarded, multiply handicapped, or educationally handicapped minor or the attending optometrist of the physically handicapped minor who is blind, partially seeing, or visually handicapped has recommended that it is in the best interests of the health and welfare of such minor that the minor be enrolled in a private nonsectarian school, institution or agency offering the special education facilities and services made necessary by the minor's disabilities, and such recommendation has been approved by the county health officer and the county superintendent of schools on forms specified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction

Priority in providing special education facilities and services shall be given to public school, or state-operated, programs. State and school district support for an exceptional child's education at a private nonsectarian school, institution, or agency shall be approved pursuant to this chapter only if no publicly operated programs are available to the minor within a reasonable distance from his residence, or if such programs do not meet the specialized needs of the minor, as determined under the procedures established by this chapter Priority in approving private nonsectarian schools, institutions, or agencies shall be given to the nearest such school, institution, or agency from where the parent or guardian of the exceptional child resides and which provides training and education as defined in Section 6870

In instances where public funds are paid to the parent or guardian of a minor pursuant to this section, toward the tuition of such minor enrolled in a private nonsectarian school, institution, or agency, the school, institution, or agency enrolling such minor shall at the end of each school year submit a written progress report on each such minor on forms provided by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and shall forward such forms to the county superintendent of schools of the county authorizing placement Such reports shall be used by the county superintendent of schools to determine continued eligibility for placement and reimbursement under this chapter

In no event shall the total of any allowances or apportionments of state funds be made to a school district in behalf of a pupil receiving an allowance pursuant to this section in excess of the total of such amounts which would have been allowed or apportioned to the district if the pupil were in attendance at a school in the district

SEC. 35. Section 6873 of the Education Code is amended to read:

6873. Upon verification of the attendance reported and the claim submitted, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion to the school district submitting the report and the claim of the parent or guardian of such minor for the tuition in question an amount sufficient to satisfy the claim but not in excess of the sum per unit of average daily attendance of the regular state apportionment to the district for the fiscal year in question, the amount allowable per unit of average daily attendance for the particular category under ~~Section 18102, 18102.2, 18102.4, or 18102.6, and the amount allowable per unit of average daily attendance for the particular category under Section 18060. In the case of a multiply handicapped minor the amount apportioned shall not exceed the sum per unit of average daily attendance of the regular state apportionment to the district for the fiscal year in question, the amount allowable per unit of average daily attendance under Section 18102, and the amount allowable per unit of average daily attendance for the particular category under Section 18060~~ Sections 17652, 17659, and 18060.

The apportionments for physically handicapped, mentally retarded, and multiply handicapped minors shall be made from the State School Fund ~~funds reserved under the provisions of subdivision (c) of Section 17303.5. The apportionments for educationally handicapped minors shall be made from the funds reserved under the provisions of subdivision (g) of Section 17303.5. The apportionments shall be made for each fiscal year immediately following the fiscal year in which the attendance occurs~~.

SEC. 36. Section 6913.1 of the Education Code is repealed.

~~6913.1. The maximum rate of school district tax for any school year is hereby increased by such amount as the governing board of any school district which maintains or has entered into an agreement with another district or with the county superintendent of schools for educational services or facilities, including the rental of property or purchase of equipment, for mentally retarded minors who come within the provisions of Sections 6902 and 6903 may include in its budget and the board of supervisors shall levy a school district tax necessary to raise such amount.~~

~~Such budget expenditures may include the cost of equipment and facilities, the lease or lease/purchase of buildings, lease of land, alteration or additions to existing buildings, or other necessary capital outlay expenditures in connection with such educational services.~~

~~If at the end of any school year there remains an unencumbered balance derived from the revenue of the increase in the tax rate hereby provided, such balance shall be used exclusively in the following fiscal year for the expenditures of the school district during~~

~~that fiscal year required or authorized for the education of mentally retarded minors who come within the provisions of Sections 6902 and 6903.~~

SEC 37 Section 6914 of the Education Code is repealed.

~~6914. Whenever any school district maintains special training schools or classes for the education of mentally retarded minors who come within the provisions of Section 6903, or special schools, classes or integrated programs where a qualified special teacher is provided for the education of physically handicapped minors who come within the provisions of Sections 6901 and 6902, the governing board of the school district may apply to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for an apportionment pursuant to Sections 6914 to 6919, inclusive.~~

SEC 38 Section 6915 of the Education Code is repealed.

~~6915. The application shall be made prior to September 1st of each school year in the form and manner prescribed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and shall include an estimate of the average daily attendance that will be credited to such schools, classes or integrated programs during the school year for which an advance apportionment is requested. Such estimate shall be based upon the number of minors residing in the district or in an adjacent district that come within the provisions of Sections 6901, 6902, and 6903 and who will attend such schools, classes or integrated programs, and shall be subject to the approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction.~~

SEC 39 Section 6916 of the Education Code is repealed

~~6916. Not later than 30 days after such application, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, if he approves, shall apportion to each applicant school district from the State General Fund, as an advance against future apportionments from the State School Fund to such district, an amount equal to the maximum amount allowable for each type of program included in the request per unit of average daily attendance to school districts for the excess expense of educating mentally retarded minors who come within the provisions of Section 6903, and physically handicapped minors who come within the provisions of Sections 6901 and 6902 multiplied by eight and the product thereof multiplied by the number of special classes or integrated programs maintained by the applicant school district for such minors.~~

SEC 40 Section 6917 of the Education Code is repealed

~~6917. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall furnish an abstract of all apportionments made to school district of any county under Sections 6914 to 6919, inclusive, to the State Controller, the Department of Finance and to the county auditor, county treasurer and county superintendent of schools of the county and shall certify such apportionments to the State Controller who shall thereupon draw his warrants on the State General Fund in favor of the county treasurer of each county for the amounts apportioned to the districts of the county.~~

SEC 41 Section 6918 of the Education Code is repealed

~~6918. All moneys received by the treasurer of a county under Sections 6914 to 6919, inclusive, shall be credited by the treasurer to the general fund of the school district of the county exactly as~~

~~apportioned by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.~~

SEC 42 Section 6919 of the Education Code is repealed.

~~6919. During the next two fiscal years after the fiscal year in which such apportionment is advanced to a school district under Sections 6914 to 6919, inclusive, the State Controller shall deduct from apportionments made to each such school district from the State School Fund an amount equal to the amount apportioned to such district under Sections 6914 to 6919, inclusive, and pay the same into the State General Fund.~~

~~7456. The county superintendent of schools, with the approval of the county board of education, and the governing board of each school district, or joint powers governing board, which maintains a regional occupational center or regional occupational program pursuant to this chapter, shall certify to the county auditor and to the county board of supervisors, on or before August 10 of each year, the amount of money required to be raised by a tax for the education of pupils attending the regional occupational center, or regional occupational program, maintained by the county superintendent of schools or by a school district, as the case may be, and for the purposes set forth in Section 7453.~~

~~The amount shall be determined by subtracting from the total cost of education of such pupils in the regional occupational center, or regional occupational program, including transportation, to the county superintendent of schools or school district, as the case may be, (1) the total of any balances remaining to be expended for this purpose and (2) the total amount to be apportioned by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to the county school service fund or to the school district, as the case may be, for the education of such pupils and by adding to the result the amount required for the purposes set forth in Section 7453. At the time of levying county taxes, the board of supervisors shall levy a district tax for each regional occupational center, or regional occupational program, maintained in the county by the governing board of a school district pursuant to this chapter upon the taxable property of the school district sufficient to produce the amount required by this section; and the board of supervisors may levy a county tax for each regional occupational center, or regional occupational program, maintained in the county by the county superintendent of schools pursuant to this chapter sufficient to produce the amount required by this section, upon the following taxable property within school districts under the jurisdiction of the county superintendent maintaining the regional occupational center or regional occupational center program.~~

~~(a) In a county in which the governing board of a school district is not maintaining a regional occupational center or regional occupational program pursuant to this chapter, upon all the taxable property within school districts under the jurisdiction of the county superintendent maintaining the regional occupational center or regional occupational center program.~~

~~(b) In a county in which the governing boards of one or more school districts are maintaining a regional occupational center or~~

~~regional occupational program pursuant to this chapter, upon the taxable property within that portion of the territory within school districts under the jurisdiction of the county superintendent maintaining the regional occupational center or regional occupational center program which is not included in territory of such school districts.~~

~~The amount received from this tax shall be deposited in the county school service fund, or, if the regional occupational center, or regional occupational program, for which such tax was levied is maintained by a school district, in the county treasury to the credit of the general fund of that school district.~~

~~The maximum rate of the countywide or district tax levied for the purposes of this section, except for the purposes set forth in Section 7453, shall not exceed ten cents ($0.10) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation within the county or district, as the case may be, and the maximum rate of the countywide or district tax levied under this section for the purposes set forth in Section 7453 shall not exceed five cents ($0.05) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation in the county or district, as the case may be.~~

~~As used in this section, school district includes each of those school districts which are cooperating in the maintenance of a regional occupational center, or regional occupational program, with the approval of the county superintendent of schools pursuant to Section 7451.~~

SEC. 44. Section 7456 is added to the Education Code, to read:

7456. The governing board of each school district, joint powers governing board, or county school board which maintains a regional occupational center or regional occupational program pursuant to this chapter, shall report to the school districts of residence which are cooperating in the maintenance of a regional occupational center, or regional occupational program, the average daily attendance generated by participating pupils who are residents of the various cooperating districts. The school districts of residence shall transfer to the district or county school board maintaining the regional occupational center or program an amount per pupil representing tuition costs for the program or center plus any transportation costs under the provisions of Section 7452.

SEC. 45. Section 7459 of the Education Code is amended to read:

7459. A regional occupational center established and maintained pursuant to a joint powers agreement pursuant to the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of the Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code shall receive in annual operating funds from the participating school districts an amount per unit of average daily attendance as ~~follows:~~ provided in Sections 17652 and 17659.

~~(a) From each participating school district which is not eligible for state equalization aid, four hundred seventy-two dollars ($472).~~

~~(b) From each participating school district which is eligible for state equalization aid, but not eligible for the increase in foundation program pursuant to Article 2.1 (commencing with Section 17671) of Chapter 3 of Division 14, four hundred seventy-two dollars ($472).~~

~~(c) From each participating school district which is eligible for state equalization aid and is eligible for the increase in foundation program pursuant to Article 2.1 (commencing with Section 17671) of Chapter 3 of Division 14, four hundred ninety-two dollars ($492).~~

~~(d) From each participating school district which is eligible for state equalization and is not eligible for the increase in foundation program pursuant to Article 2.1 (commencing with Section 17671) of Chapter 3 of Division 14, but is eligible for supplemental support, five hundred twelve dollars ($512).~~

~~(e) From each participating school district which is eligible for state equalization aid, and is eligible for the increase in foundation program pursuant to Article 2.1 (commencing with Section 17671) of Chapter 3 of Division 14, and is eligible for supplemental support, five hundred thirty-two dollars ($532).~~

~~(f) Any adjustments in the state apportionment allowance formula for average daily attendance shall automatically be applied to the above subdivisions.~~

SEC 46 Section 7460 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1368 of the Statutes of 1969, is repealed.

~~7460. Units of average daily attendance in the regional occupational centers or regional occupational programs of a county for a fiscal year are the quotient arising from dividing the total number of days of pupil's attendance in such centers, or programs, during the fiscal year by 175 and the average daily attendance so computed shall be credited to the county school service fund if the center, or program, is maintained by a county superintendent of schools or if the center, or program, is maintained by a school district, to the district maintaining the center or program.~~

~~Attendance in regional occupational centers, or regional occupational programs, operated under subdivision (a) of Section 7451.5 shall be considered pupil's attendance under this section, but attendance in regional occupational centers, or regional occupational programs, under subdivision (b) of Section 7451.5 shall not be so considered.~~

~~As used in this section, "school district" includes each of those districts which are cooperating in the maintenance of the center or program, with the approval of the county superintendent of schools, pursuant to Section 7451, and units of average daily attendance of pupils residing in such school district shall be credited to the school district or county office of education as may be appropriate.~~

7460. Units of average daily attendance in the regional occupational centers or regional occupational programs operated by a county or district superintendent of schools are the quotient arising from dividing the total number of days of pupil's attendance in such centers, or programs, during the fiscal year by 175. The average daily attendance so computed shall be credited to the school districts in which the pupils reside.

Attendance in regional occupational centers, or regional occupational programs, operated under subdivision (a) of Section 7451.5 shall be considered pupil's attendance under this section, but attendance in regional occupational centers, or regional occupational programs under subdivision (b) of Section 7451 5 shall not be so considered

SEC 48 Section 7461 of the Education Code is repealed

~~7461. Any district or county superintendent who operates a 60/minute regional occupational program shall be credited with one/third of a unit of average daily attendance for each student in a 60/minute regional occupational program and two/thirds of a unit of average daily attendance in a 120/minute program.~~

SEC 49 Section 7461 is added to the Education Code, to read:

7461 Any district or county superintendent operating a 60-minute regional occupational program shall credit the district of residence with one-third of a unit of average daily attendance for each student in a 60-minute regional occupational program and two-thirds of a unit of average daily attendance in a 120-minute program.

SEC 50 Section 11003 5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

11003 5 The minimum schoolday for pupils of kindergartens, and for mentally retarded minors in special training schools or classes prescribed in Section 6903, is 180 minutes inclusive of recesses Except as authorized in Section 11301 6, no unit of average daily attendance shall be credited for attendance in a special class if the minimum schoolday of such special class is less than 180 minutes

SEC 51 Section 11255 is added to the Education Code, to read:

11255 For the purposes of this chapter, "regular day class" means a class maintained during the regular schoolday as defined by the governing board of the school district. Classes in special day and evening and summer schools, juvenile hall schools and classes, opportunity schools and classes, continuation schools and classes, regional occupational center programs and classes, and vocational schools, and classes for the physically handicapped, mentally retarded, severely mentally retarded, educationally handicapped, and mentally gifted are not regular day classes for the purposes of this chapter

SEC 52 Section 11257 of the Education Code is amended to read:

11257 ~~Each elementary, high school, and unified school district shall report to the Superintendent of Public Instruction on forms prepared by the Department of Education in addition to all other attendance data as required, the active enrollment as of the the third Wednesday of eah school month and the actual attendance on the third Wednesday of each school month, except that if such day is a school holiday, the active enrollment and actual attendance of the first immediate preceding schoolday shall be reported. "Active enrollment"~~

For the purposes of this chapter, "active enrollment" on a day a count is taken means the pupils in enrollment in the regular ~~schooldays~~ day schools of the district on the first day of the school year on which the schools were in session, plus all later enrollees, minus all withdrawals since that day

SEC 53 Section 11301 of the Education Code is amended to read:

11301 The units of average daily attendance in the regular day elementary schools of a district for a fiscal year shall be computed ~~by dividing the total number of days of pupils attendance in all~~

~~kindergarten and elementary schools and classes of the district during the fiscal year by the number of days school was actually taught in the regular day elementary schools of the district during the fiscal year, plus the units of average daily attendance credited to the district on account of the education of seventh and eighth grade pupils in a junior high school pursuant to Section 11404.~~

~~For the purposes of this article, a day of kindergarten attendance is based on the 180/minute minimum day, and shall be adjusted to 180 when the minimum day is less than 180 minutes as authorized by Section 11003.~~

~~Commencing on July 1, 1970, when the minimum schoolday for pupils in kindergarten is less than 180 minutes as authorized by Section 11003, the average daily attendance shall be adjusted by a multiplication factor of 0.417.~~

~~Commencing on July 1, 1971, the minimum schoolday for pupils in kindergartens is 180 minutes inclusive of recesses, and no units of average daily attendance shall be credited for attendance in kindergarten classes if the minimum schoolday of such classes is less than 180 minutes.~~

(a) Record the active enrollment on the third Wednesday of each school month. For the purposes of this section, the last school month of the school year may be less than 20 days, in such case, active enrollment shall be taken on the last Wednesday on which school is maintained in that month.

(b) Divide the sum of the active enrollments recorded pursuant to subdivision (a) by the number of months schools are maintained. The quotient so obtained, plus the units of average daily attendance credited to the district on account of the education of seventh and eighth grade pupils in a junior high school pursuant to Section 11404, shall be the average daily attendance.

SEC. 54. Section 11401 of the Education Code is repealed.

~~11401. The average daily attendance in the high schools of a district other than evening high schools, continuation high schools, and continuation education classes, for a fiscal year are the quotient arising from dividing the total number of days of pupils' attendance in the regular day high schools, summer schools, special high school classes, and the part/time vocational courses of the district, exclusive of the number of days of pupils' attendance in the seventh and eighth grades of junior high schools, during the fiscal year by the number of days school was actually taught in the regular day schools of the district during the fiscal year.~~

SEC. 55. Section 11401 is added to the Education Code, to read:

11401. The units of average daily attendance in the regular day high schools of a district for a fiscal year shall be computed as follows:

(a) Record the active enrollment on the third Wednesday of each school month. For the purposes of this section, the last school month of the school year may be less than 20 days; in such case, active enrollment shall be taken on the last Wednesday on which school is maintainned in that month

(b) Divide the sum of the active enrollments recorded pursuant to subdivision (a) by the number of months schools are maintained. The quotient shall be the average daily attendance.

SEC. 56. Section 11404 of the Education Code is repealed

~~11404. The units of average daily attendance for a fiscal year of pupils residing in any elementary school district and attending the seventh and eighth grades of a junior high school shall be determined separately and shall be computed by dividing the total number of days of pupils attendance in said grades by the number of days school was actually taught during the fiscal year in the regular day high schools of the district maintaining the junior high school the average daily attendance so computed shall be credited to the elementary school district in which the pupils reside~~

SEC. 57. Section 11404 is added to the Education Code, to read:

11404. The units of average daily attendance for a fiscal year of pupils residing in any elementary school district and attending the seventh and eighth grades in regular day classes of a junior high school shall be determined separately and shall be computed as follows:

(a) Record the active enrollment on the third Wednesday of the school month For the purposes of this section, the last school month of the school year may be less than 20 days, in such case, enrollment shall be taken on the last Wednesday on which school is maintained in that month.

(b) Divide the sum of the active enrollments recorded pursuant to subdivision (a) by the number of months schools were maintained The quotient shall be the average daily attendance

SEC 58. Section 11872 of the Education Code is amended to read.

11872. For the purpose of providing funds with which to obtain school meals for needy pupils, the governing board of ~~any school~~ a community college district may levy and collect a district tax over and above the maximum elsewhere specified in this code Not more than 6 percent of such funds may be used for the administrative and clerical costs of conducting such a program

13704 The governing board of a ~~school~~ community college district may cause the levy and collection annually of a school district tax upon the taxable property within the district in the number of cents per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation in the district as will be sufficient to raise the amount estimated by the governing board to be required to provide revenue to meet its obligations under Sections 13710 and 13711. This rate of taxation shall be in addition to the annual rate of taxation allowed by law to be levied for the district. All moneys raised by this tax shall be used solely for the requirements of Sections 13710 and 13711 and excess moneys raised in any one year shall be applied to the requirements of the following year

14111. Community college district ~~District~~ taxes may be levied and collected annually pursuant to this section by the respective districts at the same time and in the same manner as other district taxes are levied and collected The tax shall be in addition to any other community college district tax now or hereafter authorized by law, and shall not be considered in fixing maximum rates of taxes for ~~school~~ community college district purposes

Such tax is for the purpose of providing funds to make contributions to the Teachers' Retirement Fund required of school districts under Section 14100

The tax provided by this section shall not exceed ~~ten cents ($0.10) per each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed value of property in an elementary school district or~~ five cents ($0.05) per each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed value of property within a ~~high school district or~~ community college district.

~~In a unified school district the tax provided by this section shall not exceed fifteen cents ($0.15) per each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed value of property within the district.~~

~~The tax provided by this section shall be further limited by crediting the amount of foundation support provided in Section 17668.5 of the Education Code for retirement contributions.~~

If at the end of any school year there remains an unencumbered balance derived from the revenue of the increase in tax rate provided by this section, such balance shall be used exclusively in the following school year for the expenditures of the school district during that year required by Section 14100

SEC. 61. Section 14657 of the Education Code is amended to read:

14657. For the purpose of providing funds which may be necessary to make the payments required by any community college district retirement plan, district taxes shall be levied and collected annually by the ~~respective~~ districts at the same time and in the same manner as other district taxes are levied and collected The tax shall be in addition to any other district tax now or hereafter authorized by law, and shall not be considered in fixing maximum rates of tax for school district purposes For the purposes of this section any local retirement system shall be deemed to be a district retirement plan

SEC. 62. Section 17300 of the Education Code is repealed:

~~17300. It is the intent of the Legislature that the administration of the laws governing the financial support of the public school system in this State be conducted within the purview of the following principles and policies.~~

~~The system of public school support should be designed to strengthen and encourage local responsibility for control of public education. Local school districts should be so organized that they can facilitate the provision of full educational opportunities for all who attend the public schools. Local control is best accomplished by the development of strong, vigorous, and properly organized local school administrative units. It is the State's responsibility to create or facilitate the creation of local school districts of sufficient size to properly discharge local responsibilities and to spend the tax dollar effectively.~~

~~Effective local control requires that all local administrative units contribute to the support of school budgets in proportion to their~~

~~respective abilities, and that all have such flexibility in their taxing programs as will readily permit of progress in the improvement of the educational program. Effective local control requires a local taxing power, and a local tax base which is not unduly restricted or overburdened.~~

~~The system of public school support should assure that state, local, and other funds are adequate for the support of a realistic foundation program. It is unrealistic and unfair to the less wealthy districts to provide for only a part of the financing necessary for an adequate educational program.~~

~~The system of public school support should permit and encourage local school districts to provide and support improved district organization and educational programs. The system of public school support should prohibit the introduction of undesirable organization and educational practices, and should discourage any such practices now in effect. Improvement of programs in particular districts is in the interests of the State as a whole as well as of the people in individual districts, since the excellence of the programs in some districts will tend to bring about program improvement in other districts.~~

~~The system of public school support should make provisions for the apportionment of state funds to local school districts on a strictly objective basis that can be computed as well by the local districts as by the State. The principle of local responsibility requires that the granting of discretionary powers to state officials over the distribution of state aid and the granting to those officials of the power to impose undue restriction on the use of funds and the conduct of educational programs at the local level be avoided.~~

~~The system of public school support should effect a partnership between the State, the county, and the local district, with each participating equitably in accordance with its relative ability. The respective abilities should be combined to provide a financial plan between the State and the local agencies known as the foundation program for public school support. Toward this foundation program, each county and district, through a uniform method should contribute in accordance with its true financial ability.~~

~~The system of public school support should provide, through the foundation program, for essential educational opportunities for all who attend the public schools. Provision should be made in the foundation program for adequate financing of all educational services.~~

~~The broader based taxing power of the State should be utilized to raise the level of financial support in the properly organized but financially weak districts of the State, thus contributing greatly to the equalization of educational opportunity for the students residing therein. It should also be used to provide a minimum amount of guaranteed support to all districts, for such state assistance serves to develop among all districts a sense of responsibility to the entire system of public education in the State. State assistance to all districts also would create a tax leeway for the exercise of local initiative.~~

17300 It is the intent and purpose of the Legislature that a guaranteed level of support through a block grant distribution shall be provided for each pupil in the schools and programs of elementary, high school, unified districts, and the county superintendents of schools, and that weighted factors are to be used to recognize the need for different support at the separate levels

It is also recognized that the needs of pupils vary so that different amounts per child are required in order to assure equal educational opportunities It is the intent of the Legislature that additional support shall be provided either by using weighted factors to increase the guaranteed level of support for certain programs or by categorical aid allowances so that diverse needs can be met Such increases in support shall not be dependent on the wealth of the individual district

It is also the intent of the Legislature that school districts should be allowed to exceed the guaranteed level of support by increased tax effort, but that each district shall be guaranteed the same support per child at the various grade levels for a given tax effort

It is also the intent and purpose of the Legislature annually to adjust the levels of support and the categorical aid allowances to offset inflationary or deflationary changes in the cost of education

SEC. 68. Section 17352 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17352. (a) The Controller shall draw warrants on the State Treasury in favor of the county treasurer of each county in each month of each year in the amounts and manner as herein prescribed so as to provide in each warrant a portion of the total amount certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction as apportioned under the provisions of Sections 17401 to 17417, inclusive, and Sections 17601 to 18460, inclusive, during the fiscal year from the State School Fund to the school districts under the jurisdiction of the county superintendent of schools of the county, to the county school service fund, and to the county school tuition fund of the county.

(1) Warrants for amounts allowed to the county school service funds under subsections (a) and (b) of Section 18352 shall be for amounts equal to 6 percent in July, 12 percent in August, 10 percent in September, and 8 percent in each remaining month of the fiscal year of the amounts certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction as a part of the advance apportionment.

(2) Warrants for amounts apportioned to school districts and county school service funds for classes maintained by county superintendents of schools and to the county school tuition funds shall be for amounts equal to ~~6~~ 4 percent in each of the months of July, ~~12 percent in~~ August, ~~and~~ 8 ~~percent in~~ September, October, November, and December ~~, and January,~~ of the amounts certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction as a part of the advance apportionment. In January the amount shall be 36 percent of the amount certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction as the advance apportionment.

(3) Warrants in the months of February to May, inclusive, shall be for amounts equal to ~~one/sixth~~ one-tenth of the difference between the amounts certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction for school districts and county school service funds for classes maintained by county superintendents of schools and county school tuition funds as the first principal apportionment and the amounts required by ~~subdivision~~ paragraph (2) of this subdivision. An additional ~~one/sixth~~ five-tenths of such difference shall be included in the warrants for the month of ~~February~~ May.

(4) Warrants for the month of June shall be for amounts equal to the difference between the amounts certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction for school districts and county school service funds for classes maintained by county superintendents of schools and county school tuition funds as the second principal apportionment and the amounts required by ~~subdivisions~~ paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subdivision.

(5) Warrants in ~~the months of September to November, inclusive, shall include one/tenth of the estimated total amounts of the special~~ ~~purpose apportionment, as determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction Warrants in~~ December shall include ~~one/tenth~~ four-tenths of the amounts certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction as the special purpose apportionment ~~, as adjusted, if necessary, to correct excesses or deficiencies in the estimates made for purposes of the warrants in the months of September to November, inclusive~~ An additional one-tenth of ~~the~~ such amounts ~~of the special purpose apportionment~~ shall be included in the warrants for the months from January to June, inclusive.

(6) Warrants in June shall include the total amounts certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction as the final apportionment.

(b) The drawing of the warrants required to be drawn during any one of the months mentioned may be postponed by the Controller for not to exceed 30 days, but the total amounts due the several counties during any fiscal year shall be paid within the fiscal year The warrants shall be paid by the State Treasurer from the State School Fund and are not subject to the provisions of ~~Government Code~~ Section 16003 of the Government Code

SEC. 69 Section 17402 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17402 The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall on or before February 20th of each year apportion to each elementary ~~school district~~, high ~~school district~~, ~~community college district,~~ and unified school district and each county school service fund ~~;~~ and county school tuition fund, the total amounts allowed to them under Sections 6426, 17651 to 17659, inclusive ~~17751, 17801, 17851, 17901, 17902, 17904, 17926, 17951, 17952~~, 18060, 18062, ~~18102,~~ 18352, 18355, 18358, 18401, and Sections 18451 to 18456, inclusive, whichever are in effect This apportionment shall be called the first principal apportionment.

SEC. 70 Section 17405 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17405 The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall on or before December 10th of each year apportion·

(a) To each elementary, high school, and ~~community college~~ unified school district, and county school service fund the total of amounts allowed to them under Sections 18051 to 18059, inclusive, ~~and Sections 18301 to 18307, inclusive,~~ and

(b) To each school district maintaining a high school or high schools, each county superintendent of schools, the California Youth Authority and the State Department of Education the total of amounts allowed to them under Sections 18251 to 18255, inclusive.

This apportionment shall be called the special purpose apportionment.

SEC 71 Section 17407 of the Education Code is amended to read.

17407. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall on or before June 25th of each year apportion to each elementary ~~school district~~, high ~~school district~~, ~~community college~~ and unified school district, and each county school service fund ~~;~~ and county school tuition fund, the total amounts allowed to them under Sections 6426, ~~17751~~ 17651 to 17659, inclusive, ~~17801, 17851, 17901, 17902, 17904, 17926, 17951, 17952,~~ 18060, 18062, ~~18102,~~ 18352, 18355, 18358, 18401, and Sections 18451 to 18456, inclusive, whichever are in effect This apportionment shall be called the second principal apportionment

SEC 72 Section 17411 1 of the Education Code is repealed.

~~17411.1. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall withhold from the apportionment to a community college district, as a part of the first principal apportionment and second principal apportionment, the amount allowed the district for the average daily attendance in grades 13 and 14 by reason of the operation of Section 17666.2 of pupils residing in the district who were in attendance at a community college in another district. The amount withheld per unit of average daily attendance shall be determined by dividing the total amount of basic state aid and state equalization aid computed for the district of residence of such pupils by the total foundation program average daily attendance of the district.~~

~~The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall add the amount withheld to the apportionment required to be made to the community college district maintaining the community college at which the pupils were in attendance.~~

SEC 73 Section 17551 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17551 No school district, other than one newly formed, shall, except as otherwise provided in this article ~~(commencing with Section 17551)~~, receive any apportionment from the State School Fund unless it has maintained the regular day schools of the district for at least 175 days ~~during the next preceding fiscal year~~

For purposes of this section, each regular day school shall be maintained for at least the legal minimum schoolday for the appropriate level

For the purposes of this article, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall establish standards to determine whether the districts within its jurisdiction have maintained the regular day schools of the district for at least 175 days during the next preceding fiscal year.

SEC 74 Section 17601 1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17601 1 For the purposes of this chapter, the governing board of each elementary, high, and unified school district shall report to the Superintendent of Public Instruction during each fiscal year the average daily attendance of the district for all full school months during (1) the period between July 1st and December 31st, inclusive, to be known as the "first period" report for the first principal apportionment, and (2) the period between July 1st and April 15th, inclusive, to be known as the "second period" report for the second principal apportionment The county superintendent of schools shall report the average daily attendance for the schools and classes maintained by him and the average daily attendance for the county school tuition fund If the average daily attendance in the regular day schools of a district for the period of time between July 1 and June 30 is greater or lesser than the average daily attendance in the regular day schools reported for the second period report, the appropriate increases and decreases in the several categories of attendance for which separate foundation programs are required to be computed shall be recomputed on the basis of the foundation program and assessed valuation of the district of the fiscal year in which such increases and decreases in average daily attendance were applicable and the appropriate increases and decreases in apportionments shall be added or withheld in the next succeeding fiscal year pursuant to Section 17414

Each report shall be prepared in accordance with instructions on forms prescribed and furnished by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and average daily attendance shall be computed in the following manner

(a) The average daily attendance in the regular elementary, junior high, and high schools maintained by the school districts shall be determined ~~by dividing the total number of days of attendance in~~ in accordance with Sections 14301, 11401, and 11404 for all full school months in each period ; ~~by the number of days such schools are actually taught in all full school months in each period~~ .

If the average daily attendance in schools and classes maintained by school districts other than regular day schools and classes for the period of time between July 1 and June 30 is greater or lesser than the average daily attendance in such schools and classes reported for the second period report, the separate state support which is provided for attendance in such schools and classes shall be recomputed on the basis of the fiscal year average daily attendance, and increases and decreases in apportionments shall be added or withheld in the next succeeding fiscal year pursuant to Section 17414.

~~(b) The average daily attendance in grades 13 and 14 of the regular day schools of each community college shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 11375). For community colleges under the provisions of this paragraph, the "first period" shall be the first semester and the "second period" shall be the "academic year" (first and second semester). The average daily attendance in each period shall not exceed 1.2 times the number of different pupils actively enrolled in the district during the period in which the census is taken.~~

(b) ~~(c)~~ The average daily attendance in summer school and outdoor science and conservation education classes maintained during the period between the last day the regular day schools are in session during the preceding year and the first day the regular day schools are in session during the current year shall be reported on both the first period and second period reports. Such average daily attendance shall be computed by dividing the days of attendance by 175 ~~For community colleges, the hours of attendance shall be divided by 525, and the average daily attendance shall not exceed 1.2 times the total number of different pupils enrolled in the district in the summer school.~~

(c) ~~(d)~~ The attendance for schools and classes maintained by the county superintendent of schools and for the county school tuition fund credited after the last full school month of the second period of the preceding year and prior to the end of each reporting period shall be reported on each report The average daily attendance of the school, class, or fund shall be determined for the first period by dividing the days of attendance by 100 and for the second period, the days of attendance shall be divided by 175

(d) ~~(e)~~ The days of attendance in classes for adults continuation schools and classes, regional occupation centers and opportunity schools and classes maintained after the last full school month of the second period of the preceding year and prior to the end of each reporting period shall be reported on each report The average daily attendance in such schools and classes shall be determined for the first period by dividing the days of attendance by 100, for the second period, the days of attendance shall be divided by 175

SEC 75. Section 17601.5 of the Education Code is repealed.

~~17601.5 The tax collector of a county in an area proclaimed by the Governor to be in a state of disaster as a result of storms and floods occurring between December 1, 1964, and June 30, 1965, shall certify in writing to the Superintendent of Public Instruction on or before May 15, 1965, the amount of school district taxes due and uncollected for each school district of the county for the fiscal year 1964/65 resulting from such disaster.~~

~~Whenever any allowance from the State School Fund is required to be computed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the assessed valuation of a school district as adjusted under other provisions of this code for the fiscal year 1964/65 shall be decreased by an amount computed under the provisions of this section.~~

~~The decrease determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be an amount which would, if the tax rate of such district were levied on such amount, produce the amount by which the due and uncollected taxes exceeds five percent (5%) of the total taxes computed by the application of the tax rate of the district to the assessed valuation of the district.~~

~~On or before May 15 of each of the succeeding five fiscal years, the county tax collector shall notify the Superintendent of Public Instruction the amount of the due and uncollected taxes, as previously certified by the county tax collector for the fiscal year 1964/65, which were collected, together with any interest and penalties on such taxes which were collected, during such fiscal year for each school district. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall withhold from apportionments made from the State School Fund to such school district during such fiscal year the same proportion of the additional state aid computed on account of the decrease in assessed valuation pursuant to this section that the collections of taxes, interest and penalties bear to the total of the due and uncollected taxes previously certified. In no case shall the total amount withheld during the five/year period exceed the additional state aid allowed on account of the decrease in assessed valuation authorized in this section and the additional amounts allowed under Section 17253.~~

~~For the purposes of this section, the school district tax rate shall be the sum of the tax rates levied for the purpose of producing revenue for the school district general fund, and the amount certified by the county tax collector shall consist solely of the due and uncollected taxes from such levies.~~

17603.5 The amounts computed as allowable to any school district for ~~state equalization aid~~ guaranteed support pursuant to Section 17652 shall be reduced by ~~fifty percent (50%)~~ one hundred percent (100%) of miscellaneous funds as defined in Section 17606.

~~In no event shall the reduction exceed the total amount allowable as equalization aid to the school district for the fiscal year. For such purposes, miscellaneous funds, as defined in Section 17606, received by a unified school district, shall be allocated to the kindergarten and elementary, high school and community college grades, respectively, on the basis of the proportion of the district's total average daily attendance in each such grade level, and the provisions of Section 17601 shall be applicable.~~

Should the amount of miscellaneous funds, as defined in Section 17606, actually received by a school district for any fiscal year be more or less than that reported to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall during the fiscal year next succeeding withhold from or add to the apportionment made to the district from the State School Fund the amount of the excess or deficiency in the apportionment ~~of state equalization aid~~ from the State School Fund for the preceding year, if the amount of the excess or deficiency in such apportionment was one hundred dollars ($100) or more

~~17616. The average daily attendance of pupils attending high school courses maintained by an elementary school district shall be, for the purposes of Sections 10951 to 11653, inclusive, Sections 17151 to 18460, inclusive, Sections 18651 to 20251, inclusive, Sections 20501 to 21801, inclusive, and Sections 21803 to 22152, inclusive, considered average daily attendance in high school classes maintained by a high school district and apportionments of one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) per unit of average daily attendance, and no more, on account of such average daily attendance shall be made to the elementary school district.~~

SEC 78 Article 2 (commencing with Section 17651) of Chapter 3 of Division 14 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC 79 Article 2 (commencing with Section 17651) is added to Chapter 3 of Division 14 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 2 Computation of Foundation Program for School Districts

17651. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall compute for each school district the amount of school support therefor, in the manner prescribed by this article

17652 The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall compute for each elementary, high, and unified school district and for each county superintendent of schools an amount of guaranteed support for each pupil in average daily attendance, using weighted factors representing additional costs of educating pupils at the separate levels or with special needs.

(a) For the fiscal year 1972–1973 the guaranteed support base shall be six-hundred fifty dollars ($650) for each unit of average daily attendance reported

(b) For the fiscal year 1973–1974 and each year thereafter, the guaranteed support base in subdivision (a) shall be modified, if necessary, by an adjustment index developed cooperatively by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Legislative Analyst and the Director of Finance. This adjustment index shall reflect the expected change in the cost of a basic educational program, including any additional costs mandated by the Legislature, for the fiscal year under consideration.

(c) The weighted factors to be applied to the guaranteed support base in subdivision (a) for the different kinds of average daily attendance are as follows.

Kind of average daily attendance	Factor
Kindergarten through 6	1.00
7th and 8th	1 15
9 through 12	1 25
Classes for adults	1 00
(Physically handicapped)
Hearing handicapped	4 40
Vision handicapped	4 40
Orthopedic—other health impaired	3 40
Aphasic	4 40
Deaf-blind multihandicapped	10 30
Other multihandicapped	6 20
Pregnant minors	1 50
Regular day classes	2 00
Remedial physical education	2 00
Other remedial instruction—speech	4.30
Individual instruction	2 70
(Mentally retarded)
Educable	2.10
Trainable	3.10
(Educationally handicapped)
Special day classes	3.10
Learning disability groups	4 30
Home and hospital instruction	2.70

17653 For each district with less than 300 units of average daily attendance at the elementary level, on account of each necessary small elementary school as defined in Section 17653.5, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall make one of the following computations selected with regard only to the number of certificated employees employed or average daily attendance, whichever provides the lesser amount:

Average daily attendance	Minimum number of certificated employees	Amount to be computed
0– 25	1	16,800
26– 50	2	33,600
51– 75	3	50,400
76–100	4	67,200

From this computed amount the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall deduct the product of the necessary small school average daily attendance and the unit amount of guaranteed support for the appropriate grade level as provided in Section 17652 Any balance shall be allowed as additional guaranteed support for sparsity

175 0 16 10 240

The necessary small school amounts in this section shall be modified annually, if necessary, by the adjustment index authorized in subdivision (b) of Section 17652

17653 5 For the purposes of Section 17653, a "necessary small school" is an elementary school with an average daily attendance of less than 101, exclusive of pupils attending the seventh and eighth grades of a junior high school, during the current fiscal year; maintained by a school district with less than 300 units of average daily attendance at the elementary level, and to which school any of the following conditions apply.

(a) If as many as five pupils residing in the district and attending grades kindergarten to 8, inclusive, exclusive of pupils attending the seventh and eighth grades of a junior high school in the elementary school with an average daily attendance of less than 101 would be required to travel more than 10 miles one way from a point on a well-traveled road nearest their home to the nearest other public elementary school

(b) If as many as 15 pupils residing in the district and attending grades kindergarten to 8, inclusive, exclusive of pupils attending the seventh and eighth grades of a junior high school in the elementary school with an average daily attendance of less than 101 would be required to travel more than five miles one way from a point on a well-traveled road nearest their home to the nearest other public elementary school.

(c) If the Superintendent of Public Instruction grants a request made pursuant to this subdivision. If topographical or other conditions exist in a district which would impose unusual hardships if the number of miles specified in subdivision (a) or (b) were required to be traveled or if during the fiscal year the roads which would be traveled have been impassable for more than an average of two weeks per year for the preceding five years, the governing board of the district may, on or before April 1st, request the Superintendent of Public Instruction, in writing, for an exemption from such requirements or for a reduction in the miles required The request shall be accompanied by a statement of the conditions upon which such request is based, giving such information in such form as the Superintendent of Public Instruction may require The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall cause an investigation to be made, and he shall either grant such request to the extent deemed necessary by him or deny the request

150 0 16 10 990

Average daily attendance	Minimum number of certificated employees	Amount to be computed
1– 20	3	45,600
21– 40	4	62,100
41– 60	5	78,600
61– 75	6	95,100
76– 90	7	111,600
91–105	8	128,100
106–120	9	144,600
121–135	10	161,100
136–150	11	177,600
151–180	12	194,100
181–220	13	210,600
221–260	14	227,100
261–300	15	243,600

From this computed amount, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall deduct the product of the necessary small school average daily attendance and the unit amount of guaranteed support for the appropriate grade level as provided in Section 17652 Any balance shall be allowed as additional guaranteed support for sparsity

The necessary small school amounts in this section shall be modified annually, if necessary, by the adjustment index authorized in subdivision (b) of Section 17652

17655 5 A necessary small high school for the purposes of Section 17655 is a high school with an average daily attendance of less than 301, or a junior high school with an average daily attendance of less than 75 in grade 9 maintained by a school district with less than 1,000 units of average daily attendance at the high school level, and to which school any of the following conditions apply:

(a) The high school had an average daily attendance of less than 100 in grades 9 through 12 during the preceding fiscal year and is more than 15 miles by well-traveled road from the nearest other public high school and either 90 percent of the pupils would be required to travel 20 miles or 25 percent of the pupils would be required to travel 30 miles one way from a point on a well-traveled road nearest their homes to the nearest other public high school

(b) The high school had an average daily attendance of 100 or more and less than 150 in grades 9 through 12 during the preceding fiscal year and is more than 10 miles by well-traveled road from the nearest other public high school and either 90 percent of the pupils would be required to travel 18 miles or 25 percent of the pupils would be required to travel 25 miles one way from a point on a well-traveled road nearest their homes to the nearest other public high school

(c) The high school had an average daily attendance of 150 or more and less than 200 in grades 9 through 12 during the preceding fiscal year and is more than 7½ miles by well-traveled road from the nearest other public high school and either 90 percent of the pupils would be required to travel 15 miles or 25 percent of the pupils would be required to travel 20 miles one way from a point on a well-traveled road nearest their homes to the nearest other public high school.

(d) The high school had an average daily attendance of 200 or more and less than 300 in grades 9 through 12 during the preceding fiscal year and is more than five miles by well-traveled road from the nearest other public high school and either 90 percent of the pupils would be required to travel 10 miles or 25 percent of the pupils would be required to travel 15 miles to the nearest other public high school

(e) Topographical or other conditions exist in the district which would impose unusual hardships on the pupils if the number of miles specified above were required to be traveled In these cases, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may, when requested, and after investigation, grant exceptions from the distance requirements

17656 In addition to the guaranteed support per unit of average daily attendance in grades kindergarten through 6, 7, and 8, and 9 through 12, respectively, as provided in Sections 17652, 17653, and 17655 there is established an adequacy range of school support. This adequacy range includes an incentive level of support and a top level of support for each of the three grade levels An elementary, high, or unified school district may, as authorized in Sections 17657 to 17659, inclusive, establish expenditure levels per unit of average daily attendance in grades kindergarten through 6, 7 and 8, and 9 through 12 within this adequacy range

For the 1972–1973 fiscal year as a base the incentive and top levels of the adequacy range are

Grade level	Incentive level	Top level of adequacy range
K through 6	$725	$900
7 and 8	834	1,035
9 through 12	912	1,127

The levels of support in this section shall be modified annually, if necessary, by the adjustment index authorized in subdivision (b) of Section 17652.

17657. A district shall, in accordance with the provisions of Section 17658, determine its expenditure per unit of average daily attendance in grades kindergarten through 6, 7, and 8, and 9 through 12, respectively, for the preceding fiscal year Using the adjustment indices provided by the Superintendent of Public Instruction on or before December 1 of the current year, the governing board shall then determine the district's adjusted expenditure levels for the budget year

If a district's adjusted expenditure levels for the budget year are at or below the incentive level of support established in Section 17656, they may be maintained or increased, by board resolution, by any amount up to the incentive level of support In no case, however, shall this increase exceed 10 percent of the district's adjusted expenditure levels for the budget year

If a district's adjusted expenditure levels for the budget year are above the incentive level of support but at or below the top level of the adequacy range established in Section 17656, they may be maintained, but may not be increased except by election of the voters of the district as authorized in Section 20761

192 0 16 10 320

The tax rates necessary to accomplish the authorized expenditure levels shall be set in accordance with the provisions of Section 17659

If a district's expenditure levels of the preceding fiscal year, without adjustment, exceed the top level of the adequacy range, the provisions of Section 17660 shall apply

17658 The expenditure per unit of average daily attendance shall be determined separately for grades kindergarten through 6, 7, and 8, and 9 through 12, as follows:

(a) The expenditures shall include the tuition paid to regional occupational centers and programs plus all expenditures from the general fund less

(1) State income for adult classes and special education

(2) Expenditures for purposes authorized by Sections 1822 2, 15517, and 15518

(3) Federal and state income for prekindergarten education

(4) State income provided for home-to-school transportation and all other categorical programs except those in subdivision (a) (1)

(5) Income from all federal sources

(b) The average daily attendance used shall be the fiscal year average daily attendance exclusive of the average daily attendance for attendance in adult schools and classes and exclusive of the average daily attendance for children in physically handicapped, mentally retarded, and educationally handicapped programs

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall prescribe special procedures for determining the 1972-1973 budget year expenditure levels for the average daily attendance in grades kindergarten through 6, 7, and 8, and 9 through 12 which shall be consistent with the concepts in this section and Section 17657

17659 After a school district has determined its desired or authorized expenditures levels, whichever is lesser, in accordance with Sections 17657 and 17658, the guaranteed amounts per one cent of tax in subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section shall be used to determine the tax rate necessary to achieve these expenditure levels

On or before January 1 of the year preceding the budget year, the district shall certify such tax rate to the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the county auditor

Districts with adjusted expenditure levels for the budget year between the incentive level and the top level of the adequacy range shall for each grade level certify separately the maximum tax rate to reach the incentive level and that tax rate in the upper range necessary to reach the authorized expenditure level at or below the level of the adequacy range

The board of supervisors of each county shall annually at the time of levying other county taxes cause such taxes to be collected in the district in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3 6 (commencing with Section 20931) of Division 16 Using the tax rate certified in each range and average daily attendance reported by the district, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall compute the allowance for each school district to be added to that provided in Sections 17652, 17653, and 17655

(a) From the guaranteed support base to the incentive level of support the guarantee per one cent of tax and the maximum tax rates allowed shall be.

Type of district	Designated A D A.	Guaranteed per one cent of tax	Maximum tax allowed for this purpose
Elem , K through 8 program.	K–6	$2.50
	7th & 8th	2 90	$ 30

Those high school districts educating seventh and eighth grade pupils pursuant to Section 5602, after determining the expenditure levels per unit of seventh and eighth grade average daily attendance in accordance with the provisions of Sections 17657 and 17658, shall determine the tax rate in accordance with this section and certify that such rate shall be levied on the territory of each elementary school district participating in the junior high school The allowance computed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction based on this rate and the seventh and eighth grade average daily attendance of the participating districts shall be apportioned directly to the high school district

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall also adjust annually the guaranteed per one cent of tax in subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section on the basis of the average elementary and high school assessed valuation per unit of average daily attendance in the state.

17660 A district whose actual expenditure levels for fiscal year 1971–1972 per unit of average daily attendance, as determined under the provisions of Section 17658, are above the top level of the adequacy range described in Section 17656 shall be allowed the same expenditure levels, with no adjustment, for the 1972–1973 fiscal year, and may levy a local school district tax above the maximum tax rate provided for the adequacy range to support the expenditure levels For the 1973–1974 fiscal year and thereafter the district shall reduce its expenditure per ~~unit~~ of average daily attendance by 20 percent of the difference between the top level of the adequacy range and the allowed expenditure per unit of average daily attendance of the prior year

Notwithstanding the preceding provisions, a district, by election of the voters of the district, as authorized in Section 20761, may establish expenditure levels above the adequacy range and levy a local tax rate above the maximum tax in the adequacy range to support such expenditures.

If no successful election is held, the expenditure level of the district in fiscal year 1977–1978 shall be the top level of the adequacy range for that year.

~~17951. The allowance for each unit of average daily attendance during the fiscal year for adults, as adults are defined in Section 5756, shall be as follows:~~

~~(a) For high school districts the allowance shall be three hundred fifty dollars ($350) less the product of fifty cents ($0.50) multiplied by each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of the district per unit of average daily attendance exclusive of adults~~

~~(b) For each unit of average daily attendance attached to a community college the allowance shall be five hundred twenty dollars ($520) less the product of twenty/four cents ($0.24) multiplied by each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of the district per unit of average daily attendance exclusive of adults.~~

~~The allowance provided by this section for each unit of average daily attendance of an adult, as an adult is defined in Section 5756, not residing in the district and not residing in any district maintaining a community college shall be limited to one hundred twenty/five dollars ($125) as basic state aid and no allowance shall be~~

~~made based on state equalization aid. The total of base and equalization aid allowed each district shall not be less than one hundred twenty/five dollars ($125) for each unit of average daily attendance during the fiscal year for resident adults, exclusive of average daily attendance in classes for inmates of any state institution for adults and for inmates of any city, county, or city and county jail, road camp or farm for adults.~~

~~If any computation made under any of the preceding paragraphs of this section produces an allowable amount not in excess of one hundred twenty/five dollars ($125) per unit of average daily attendance, such allowable amount computed shall be adjusted if, and to the extent necessary, so that the actual allowance shall not exceed one hundred twenty/five dollars ($125) per unit of average daily attendance of the adults in high schools and community colleges during the preceding fiscal year.~~

Article 11 Allowances for Mentally Retarded, Severely Mentally Retarded, Physically Handicapped, and Educationally Handicapped Minors

18102. For each special class or program for which a state allowance is provided under this article or under Section 18060 or 18062, each school district and each county superintendent of schools maintaining such special classes or programs shall report annually to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, on forms he shall provide, all expenditures and income related to each special class or program.

If the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines that the current expense of operating a special class or program as defined in the California School Accounting Manual does not equal or exceed the sum provided in Section 17652, then the amount of such deficiency shall be withheld from state apportionments to the school district or the county superintendent of schools, as the case may be, in the succeeding fiscal year in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Section 17414

Expenditures for equipment that the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines are necessary for instruction in a special class or program for physically handicapped minors shall be considered as current expense for purposes of this section. In any year the district's allowable expenditure for such equipment may not exceed 1 percent of the current expense of operating the district's physically handicapped program

18103 As used in this article, "special day classes" includes integrated programs of instruction for physically handicapped children including those handicapped in vision or hearing where the services of a qualified special teacher are provided.

An integrated program of instruction for physically handicapped children including those handicapped in vision or hearing shall be defined as any program in which such physically handicapped children receive their education in regular classrooms from regular classroom teachers, but receive, in addition, supplementary teaching services of a full-time special teacher, possessing a valid credential to teach exceptional children of the type enrolled in the program Such supplementary teaching services may include instruction in the appropriate tool skills, the provision of special materials and use of appropriate special equipment, and counseling and guidance necessary to enable physically handicapped children and those handicapped in vision and hearing to benefit fully from their instruction.

As used in this section, physically handicapped children means those physically handicapped children who are deemed eligible for special class placement as defined by the State Board of Education

SEC 94. Section 18355 of the Education Code is amended to read:

18355. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow, in addition to all other allowances, to the county school service funds (a) for all emergency schools maintained in each elementary school district of the county by the county superintendent of schools, (b) all special schools or classes for mentally retarded minors and severely mentally retarded minors maintained in each elementary school district of the county by the county superintendent of schools, (c) each elementary school maintained in juvenile halls, juvenile homes, and juvenile camps, by the county superintendent of schools, and all opportunity schools and classes maintained by the county superintendent of schools pursuant to Sections 6502 and 6503, and (d) all schools and classes for educationally handicapped minors maintained in each elementary school district of the county by the county superintendent of schools, the same amount as he would compute as the ~~foundation program~~ guaranteed support of the elementary school district under Section ~~17655.5 or Section 17656~~ 17652.

No allowance shall be made for emergency schools which is in excess of the actual expense of maintaining the emergency school

SEC. 95 Section 18358 of the Education Code is amended to read

18358. For all physically handicapped pupils, mentally retarded minors and educationally handicapped minors of secondary grade, and handicapped adults, educated by the county superintendent of schools and for all secondary schools maintained in juvenile halls, juvenile homes and juvenile camps by the county superintendent of schools, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow the same amount as he would compute for the ~~foundation program~~

guaranteed support of a high school district under Section ~~17665~~ 17652

However, with respect to handicapped adults, the following limits shall apply

(a) The total of allowances for education of handicapped adults in classes established by the county superintendent of schools pursuant to Section 5746 shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in any one fiscal year The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish a system of priorities that he shall by rule or regulation adopt which shall give highest priority to those counties in which no or an insufficient program for the education of handicapped adults is provided by the school districts within the county, in order to comply with the limitation prescribed by this subdivision

(b) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow for handicapped adults the amount specified in Section ~~17951~~ 17652 for each unit of average daily attendance for adults for high school districts

SEC 96 Section 18401 of the Education Code is amended to read

18401 The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow to each county school tuition fund ~~one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125)~~ the amount per unit of average daily attendance as specified in Section 17652 of the Education Code for each unit of average daily attendance of pupils residing in the county and attending school in an adjoining state during the fiscal year ~~Such average daily attendance shall not be included in the computations provided for in Section 17702~~

SEC. 105. Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 18472) is added to Division 14 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.5. COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Article 1. Appropriations to and Expenditures from State Community College Fund

18472. (a) The State Controller shall during each fiscal year transfer from the General Fund of the state to the State Community College Fund such sums, in addition to the sums accruing to the State Community College Fund from other sources, as shall provide in the State Community College Fund for apportionment during the fiscal year a total amount per pupil in average daily attendance during the preceding fiscal year credited to all community college districts in the state as certified by the Office of the Chancellor, California Community Colleges, one hundred eighty dollars ($180).

(b) The Controller shall also transfer, as needed during each fiscal year, such additional amounts from the General Fund to the State Community College Fund as are certified from time to time by the office of the chancellor to be necessary to meet actual computed apportionments from the State Community College Fund for the purposes set forth in this chapter and any other provision in law, provided that the total of such additional amounts transferred in a fiscal year shall not exceed, except pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section, one hundred sixty-seven dollars and fifty-three cents ($167.53) per pupil in average daily attendance during the preceding fiscal year credited to all community college districts in the state as certified by the office of the chancellor.

(c) In addition to the amounts authorized to be transferred to the State Community College Fund from the General Fund under subdivisions (a) and (b), the Controller shall transfer from the General Fund to the State Community College Fund during the fiscal year, upon certification of the office of the chancellor, if necessary to meet actual computed apportionments for the fiscal year for the purposes set forth in this chapter, an amount not to exceed 1 percent of the total apportionment from the State Community College Fund in the preceding fiscal year for the purposes set forth in this chapter.

18473 The amount transferred pursuant to Section 18472 shall be expended as provided in this chapter and any other provision of law In the event the amount provided by Section 18472 is less than the apportionments computed for community college districts the office of the chancellor shall reduce the amount authorized as equalization aid in Section 18487 until the amount to be apportioned pursuant to this chapter is equal to or less than the amount provided by Section 18472

Article 2 Reporting Periods

18478 For the purposes of this chapter, the governing board of each district shall report to the office of the chancellor during each fiscal year the average daily attendance of the district for all full school months during (1) the period between July 1st and December 31st, inclusive, to be known as the "first period" report for the first principal apportionment, and (2) the period between July 1st and April 15th, inclusive, to be known as the "second period" report for the second principal apportionment If the average daily attendance in the regular day schools of a district for the period of time between July 1 and June 30 is greater or lesser than the average daily attendance in the regular day schools reported for the second period report, the appropriate increases and decreases in the several categories of attendance for which separate foundation programs are required to be computed shall be recomputed on the basis of the foundation program and assessed valuation of the community college district of the fiscal year in which such increases or decreases in average daily attendance were applicable and the appropriate increases and decreases in apportionments shall be added or withheld in the next succeeding fiscal year pursuant to Section 18492

(a) The average daily attendance in grades 13 and 14 of the regular day schools of each junior college shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Article 5 5 (commencing with Section 11475) For junior colleges, under the provisions of this paragraph, the "first period" shall be the first semester and the "second period" shall be the "academic year" (first and second semester) The average daily attendance in each period shall not exceed 1 2 times the number of different pupils enrolled in the district during the period

(b) The average daily attendance in summer school maintained during the period between the last day the regular day schools are in session during the preceding year and the first day the regular day schools are in session during the current year shall be reported on both the first period and second period reports Such average daily attendance shall be computed by dividing the hours of attendance by 525, and the average daily attendance shall not exceed 1 2 times the total number of different pupils enrolled in the district in the summer school

(c) The days of attendance in classes for adults maintained after the last full school months of the second period of the preceding year and prior to the end of each reporting period shall be reported on each report

Article 3 Computation of Allowances to Community College Districts by the Office of the Chancellor, California Community Colleges

18481. The office of the Chancellor, California Community Colleges shall compute for each community college district the amount of school support therefor, in the manner prescribed by this article.

18482 (a) Except for a community college district which qualifies under subdivision (b), for each community college district, he shall multiply the number of units of average daily attendance, during the fiscal year, in grades 13 and 14 computed for the district under Sections 11475, 11478, and 11501, by six hundred forty-three dollars ($643)

(b) For each community college district which has an average daily attendance of less than 1,001 during the fiscal year 1965–1966 and during the fiscal year 1966–1967, and for each community college district which has an average daily attendance of less than 1,001 during the fiscal year and qualifies as a necessary small community college district as defined in Section 18483 for the fiscal year 1969–1970 and fiscal years thereafter, the office of the chancellor shall make one of the following computations selected with regard only to the number of certificated employees employed or average daily attendance, whichever provides the lesser amount

Average daily attendance	Minimum number of full-time certificated employees	Amount to be computed
1– 150	12	$172,900
151– 200	15	225,133
201– 300	18	277,366
301– 400	21	329,599
401– 500	24	381,832
501– 600	27	434,065
601– 700	30	486,298
701– 800	33	538,531
801– 900	36	590,764
901–1,000	39	643,000

(c) A community college district shall not be eligible for the foundation program computed under subdivision (b), unless it levies during the fiscal year a tax, exclusive of taxes for building and sites debt service and building and sites capital outlay, of not less than thirty-five cents ($0 35)

For purposes of this section and Section 18484, the average daily attendance of a community college district shall be computed in the manner prescribed by Sections 11475, 11478, and 11501 except that there shall be excluded from the computation the attendance of all students deemed "nonresident" as defined in Sections 25505 and 25505 1 Notwithstanding the above provisions of this section, the attendance of students deemed nonresidents as provided in Sections 25505 and 25505 1 shall be included in the average daily attendance of a community college for the purposes of Section 18484

The office of the chancellor shall exclude from the computation provided by this section the average daily attendance during the fiscal year of adults, as adults are defined in Section 5756, and of inmates of any state institution for adults or of any city, county, or city and county jail, road camp, or farm for adults.

(d) In the event a community college district to which the provisions of subdivision (b) applies is included by any reorganization authorized by law in a community college district which has an average daily attendance of 1,001 or more, the office of the chancellor shall continue to compute the foundation program for the community college district included by such reorganization in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (b)

18483 For the purposes of Section 18482 a necessary small community college district is a community college district with an average daily attendance of less than 1,001 during the fiscal year, and which comes within the following conditions

(a) The projection of the average daily attendance, as used and defined in Section 18482 for the district for the next three immediately succeeding fiscal years shall not exceed 1,001

(b) Any one of the following conditions applies

(1) One campus of the community college district is more than 30 miles by a well-traveled road from the nearest other public community college, and either 90 percent of the pupils, exclusive of adults as defined in Section 5756, would be required to travel 20 miles, or 25 percent of the pupils, exclusive of adults as defined in Section 5756 would be required to travel 30 miles one way from a point on a well-traveled road to the nearest other public community college

(2) The conditions under paragraph (1) of this subdivision do not apply, but on annual application of the district the office of the chancellor has determined for the fiscal year that the district is located in an area sufficiently remote so as to necessitate local current expenditures significantly higher than statewide average current expenditures for community colleges

18484 The office of the chancellor shall allow to each community college district one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) for each unit of average daily attendance in grades 13 and 14.

Average daily attendance for the purpose of this section shall be computed under Sections 11475, 11478, and 11501, subject to the provisions of Section 18482

The office of the chancellor shall exclude from the computation of allowances provided by this section the average daily attendance of adults, as adults are defined in Section 5756

18485 On or before November 15th of each year, the county auditor of each county shall furnish to the office of the Chancellor, California Community Colleges, in a manner he is herein authorized to prescribe, the assessed valuation and tax rates of each community college district or portion of district situated within his county as shown by the equalized assessment roll of the county for the year

18486 The office of the chancellor shall compute for each district described herein the amount, to be known as district aid, which a tax levied on each one hundred dollars ($100) of 100 percent of the assessed valuation in such district as shown by the equalized assessment roll of the district for the current year would produce if levied, if such tax were twenty-five cents ($0 25) in the district

18487 The office of the chancellor shall compare the total of the amounts allowed to, and computed for, each community college district pursuant to Sections 18484 and 18486, with the amount of the foundation program computed for each district pursuant to Section 18482.

If the total amount computed for any district pursuant to Sections 18484 and 18486, is less than the amount of the foundation program computed for such district pursuant to Section 18482, he shall add to the amount computed for such district pursuant to Sections 18484 and 18486, such additional amount, to be known as state equalization aid, as may be necessary to equal that computed for such district pursuant to Section 18482

18488 No state equalization aid shall be allowed unless there shall have been levied pursuant to this code, for a community college district during the fiscal year, a tax, exclusive of taxes for building and sites debt service, and building and sites capital outlay, of not less than twenty-five cents ($0 25)

18489. The office of the chancellor shall compute the state equalization aid pursuant to this article upon the basis that the district's assessed value has not been reduced by the exemption of 15 percent of the assessed value of business inventories in the district or reduced by the homeowner's property tax exemption

18490 The allowance for each unit of average daily attendance during the fiscal year for adults, as adults are defined in Section 5756 shall be five hundred twenty dollars ($520) less the product of twenty-four cents ($0 24) multiplied by each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed valuation of the community college district per unit of average daily attendance exclusive of adults

The allowance provided by this section for each unit of average daily attendance of an adult, as an adult is defined in Section 5756, not residing in the district and not residing in any district maintaining a community college shall be limited to one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) as basic state aid and no allowance shall be made based on state equalization aid The total of basic and equalization aid allowed each district shall not be less than one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) for each unit of average daily attendance during the fiscal year for resident adults

If any computation made under any of the preceding paragraphs of this section produces an allowable amount not in excess of one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) per unit of average daily attendance, such allowable amount computed shall be adjusted if, and to the extent necessary, so that the actual allowance shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) per unit of average daily attendance of the adults in community colleges during the preceding fiscal year

18491 The office of the chancellor shall allow to each community college district for each unit of average daily attendance of pupils not residing in the district and not residing in any district maintaining a community college, one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) as basic state aid

There shall be excluded from the computation of allowances provided by this section the average daily attendance of adults, as adults are defined in Section 5756

18492. The office of the chancellor shall make corrections for community college district apportionments in accordance with Section 17414

18493 The office of the chancellor shall withhold from the apportionment to a community college district, as a part of the first principal apportionment and second principal apportionment, the amount allowed the district for the average daily attendance in grades 13 and 14 by reason of the operation of Section 18482 of pupils residing in the district who were in attendance at a community college in another district The amount withheld per unit of average daily attendance shall be determined by dividing the total amount of basic state aid and state equalization aid computed for the district of residence of such pupils by the total foundation program average daily attendance of the district

The office of the chancellor shall add the amount withheld to the apportionment required to be made to the community college district maintaining the community college at which the pupils were in attendance.

18494 No real or personal property, including money, accepted pursuant to Section 1044 of this code by the governing board of any district maintaining a community college, shall be considered in determining the eligibility of the district for an apportionment from the State School Fund nor in determining the amount thereof.

Article 4. Certification of Allowances to Community College Districts

18501 (a) The office of the chancellor shall certify to the State Controller the amount to be apportioned to each community college district

On or before July 15th of each year he shall certify to the State Controller an amount to be known as the advance apportionment for community colleges This apportionment shall be based on the reports of the district for the second report period of the preceding year

(b) On or before February 20th of each year the office of the chancellor shall certify to the State Controller an amount to be known as the first principal apportionment for community colleges This apportionment shall be based on the attendance reports of the first report period of the current year and should not exceed the amount provided by law for community colleges

(c) On or before June 25th of each year the office of the chancellor shall certify to the State Controller an amount to be known as the second principal apportionment for community colleges The second principal apportionment shall be based on the attendance reports of the second report period of the current year and shall not exceed the amount provided by law for community colleges

18502 The office of the chancellor shall notify each county treasurer, county auditor, and county superintendent of schools of the amount of apportionment for each community college district under the jurisdiction of the county treasurer, county auditor and county superintendent of schools The notification shall contain enough information to show how each apportionment was made for each district

18503 (a) The Controller shall draw warrants on the State Treasury in favor of the county treasurer of each county in each month of each year in the amounts and manner as herein prescribed so as to provide in each warrant a portion of the total amount certified by the office of the chancellor as apportioned under the provisions of Section 18481 to 18494, inclusive, during the fiscal year from the State Community College Fund to the school districts under the jurisdiction of the county superintendent of schools of the county

(1) Warrants for amounts apportioned to community colleges shall be equal to 6 percent in July, 12 percent in August, and 8 percent in September, October, November, December, and January, of the amounts certified by the office of the chancellor as a part of the advance apportionment

(2) Warrants in the months of February to May, inclusive, shall be for amounts equal to one-sixth of the difference between the amounts certified by the office of the chancellor to districts as the first principal apportionment and the amounts required by subdivision (a) (1) An additional one-sixth of such difference shall be included in the warrants for the month of February

(3) Warrants for the month of June shall be for amounts equal to the difference between the amounts certified by the office of the chancellor to districts and as the second principal apportionment and the amounts required by subdivisions (a) (1) and (a) (2)

(b) The drawing of the warrants required to be drawn during any one of the months mentioned may be postponed by the Controller for not to exceed 30 days, but the total amounts due the several counties during any fiscal year shall be paid within the fiscal year. The warrants shall be paid by the State Treasurer from the State Community College Fund and are not subject to the provisions of Section 16003 of the Government Code

Article 1 Determination of Tax Levies Required for ~~School~~ Community College Districts

SEC 107 Section 20701 of the Education Code is amended to read

20701 After approving the budget of a ~~school~~ community college district, the county superintendent of schools shall determine the amount of money which must be provided by a ~~school~~ community college district tax

SEC. 108 Section 20702 of the Education Code is amended to read

20702 He shall determine this amount by deducting from the total estimated needs of the ~~school~~ community college district as shown by its budget the total estimated income of the ~~school~~ community college district from all sources other than a ~~school~~ community college district tax for the current school year as estimated in the budget. The remainder, if any, shall be the minimum amount of the ~~school~~ community college district tax to be levied by the board of supervisors for the particular ~~school~~ community college district

SEC. 109. Section 20703 of the Education Code is amended to read.

20703. The board of supervisors shall fix such a rate for the community college district tax as will produce the amount of district tax money requested by the particular district

SEC 110. Section 20704 of the Education Code is amended to read.

20704 The board of supervisors shall determine the rate of community college district tax necessary to be levied as follows:

(a) They shall divide the amount of taxes as required to be raised by the unequalized value of the secured roll of the last assessment roll of the district after due allowance for delinquencies The rate shall be such as will produce the amount determined as necessary to be raised by taxation on the secured roll

(b) Except in counties that distribute property taxes according to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4701) of Part 8 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the allowance for delinquencies shall be fixed by determining for the last three preceding years the percentage that the combined amounts of taxes uncollected at the end of each year bear to the total amount of taxes levied for those years.

(c) In counties that distribute property taxes according to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4701) of Part 8 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, an allowance for subsequent additions, cancellations, and corrections affecting the tax roll shall be fixed by determining for the last three preceding years the percentage that the combined amounts of such items at the end of each year bear to the total amount of taxes levied for those years

An allowance for delinquencies may be fixed for which the maximum limit is established by determining for the last three preceding years the percentage that the combined amounts of all county-levied uncollected taxes at the end of each year bears to the amount of all county-levied taxes for those years

SEC 111 Section 20705 of the Education Code is amended to read:

20705. The board of supervisors of each county or city and county shall annually at the time and in the manner of levying county or city and county taxes levy and cause to be collected a district tax for each ~~school~~ community college district whose budget shows a district tax to be necessary

SEC 112 Section 20706 of the Education Code is amended to read

20706 If the board of supervisors refuses or neglects to make the tax levy pursuant to Sections 20701 to ~~20801~~ 20711, inclusive, and Sections 20901 and 21001, the levy shall be made by the county auditor.

SEC. 113 Section 20707 is added to the Education Code, to read.

20707 (1) Except as otherwise provided in this code, the maximum rate of community college district tax which may be levied for all school purposes, exclusive of bond interest and redemption, for any community college district in any school year on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation within the district shall be as follows.

(a) In any separate community college district, thirty-five cents ($0 35) for community college purposes, and ten cents ($0.10) for adult education purposes

(b) As used in this section "adult education purposes" means all current expenses of the district for which district taxes may be levied, excluding the expenses for which district taxes may be levied under Sections 14214, 14657, 20801 5, 20802.6, and 20806 of this code and Section 20532 of the Government Code, for adult classes as provided for in Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 5701), Division 6 of this code. "Adult education purposes" includes classes for adults authorized under Article 4 (commencing with Section 5726), Article 5 (commencing with Section 5731), and Article 6 (commencing with Section 5736) of Chapter 5.5 of Division 6.

SEC 114. Section 20708 is added to the Education Code, to read.

20708 Any maximum rate of tax for any community college district may be increased and, having been increased may be decreased by an amount equal to or less than the amount of such increase, by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the community college district at an election which may be ordered by the governing board of the community college district of its own motion and shall be ordered within 90 days after the filing with the governing board of a petition signed by not less than 10 percent of the registered voters of the district, requesting that an election be ordered, unless the petitioners request that the election be consolidated with the annual election for members of the governing board, or that the election be consolidated with the general election

Any decrease in an increased maximum tax rate pursuant to this section shall not be in an amount which will reduce the tax rate for the district below the maximum specified in Section 20707 The governing board shall determine whether the increase or decrease shall remain in effect for a specified or unspecified period of time, unless the petition filed by the electors provides for a specified or unspecified period of time If a specified period is provided for in the petition or determined upon by the governing board, such period shall be stated on the ballot.

Pursuant to the order of the governing board, the election shall be called, held, and conducted by the county superintendent of schools, as nearly as is practicable in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1301) of Division 4.

The specification of the election order shall contain the information provided in Section 1323 and shall be furnished the county superintendent of schools by the governing board of the district for all maximum tax increase or decrease elections ordered by it

The costs incurred by the county clerk or registrar of voters and the county superintendent of schools in connection with this section shall be paid out of the funds of the district

Except as otherwise herein provided, the ballot used in the election shall contain substantially the words "Shall the proposed (increase decrease) in the maximum tax rates from _____ ($_____) to _____ ($_____) for each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation of property, such rate to be in effect in the _____ School District for the school year (or years) 19__ to 19__, the revenues of which are to be used for _____, be authorized?" or the words "Shall the proposed (increase decrease) in the maximum tax rates from _____ ($_____) to _____ ($_____) for each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation of property commencing on _____, such rate to be in effect in the _____ School District for the school years commending 19__, the revenues of which are to be used for _____, be authorized?" Opposite such words, in separate lines, the words "Yes" and "No" shall be printed, with a voting square opposite each such word. If, at any prior election held in the district, the maximum tax rate of the district was increased for a specified period of time, and if the election is called for the purpose of continuing in effect the previously authorized increase in the maximum tax rate of the district, the ballot shall contain substantially the words "Shall the existing maximum tax rate of _____ ($_____) for each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation of property be continued in the _____ School District for the school years 19__ to 19__, the revenues of which are to be used for _____" Opposite such words in separate lines, the words "Yes" and "No" shall be printed with a voting square opposite each word Each voter shall stamp a cross in the voting square after the answer he desires to give.

Whenever the maximum tax rate of a community college district is increased for either a specified or unspecified period of time and during such period an election is called for the purpose of further increasing the maximum tax rate of the district, the ballot used in the election shall show only the authorized maximum tax rate of the district in effect at the time of the election and the proposed maximum tax rate.

If an election for a decrease in an increased maximum tax rate of a district is held in any year prior to or concurrently with the district election for governing board members, any decrease adopted at such election shall become effective on July 1st following the election. If an election for a decrease in an increased tax rate of a district is held in any year after the date of the district election for governing board members, any decrease adopted at such election shall not become effective until July 1st of the next succeeding year

Article 2. Determination of Tax Levies Required for School Districts

20751 The maximum property tax rate which any elementary, high, or unified school district may levy, in addition to that levied under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 20911) and Chapter 3 6 (commencing with Section 20931), shall not exceed the combined rates as follows

(a) The rate necessary to raise revenue authorized, or approved by the voters as provided in Sections 17660 and 20762, which allows a district's expenditure levels to exceed the top level of the adequacy range

(b) The rate necessary to pay the principal and interest on school district bonds, to repay state building aid loans, or for the leasing of school buildings under Section 15708

(c) The rate necessary to raise local funds for expenditure as specifically authorized by Section 1822.2, 16633, 16635, 16645.9, 15517, and 15518

20752 The board of supervisors shall determine the rate of district tax necessary to be levied as follows·

(a) They shall divide the amount of taxes as required to be raised by the unequalized value of the secured roll of the last assessment roll of the district after due allowance for delinquencies The rate shall be such as will produce the amount determined as necessary to be raised by taxation on the secured roll.

(b) Except in counties that distribute property taxes according to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4701) of Part 8 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the allowance for delinquencies shall be fixed by determining for the last three preceding years the percentage that the combined amounts of taxes uncollected at the end of each year bear to the total amount of taxes levied for those years of the Revenue and Taxation Code, an allowance for subsequent additions, cancellations, and corrections affecting the tax roll shall be fixed by determining for the last three preceding years the percentage that the combined amounts of such items at the end of each year bear to the total amount of taxes levied for those years

(c) In counties that distribute property taxes according to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4701) of Part 8 of Division 1

An allowance for delinquencies may be fixed for which the maximum limit is established by determining for the last three preceding years the percentage that the combined amounts of all county-levied uncollected taxes at the end of each year bears to the amount of all county-levied taxes for those years

20753 The board of supervisors of each county or city and county shall annually at the time and in the manner of levying county or city and county taxes levy and cause to be collected a district tax for each school district whose budget shows a district tax to be necessary

20754 If the board of supervisors refuses or neglects to make the tax levy pursuant to this article, the levy shall be made by the county auditor

20755 An elementary, high, or unified school district may increase its expenditure levels as described in Sections 17656 to 17660, inclusive, by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the school district at an election which may be ordered by the governing board of the school district of its own motion and shall be ordered within 90 days after the filing with the governing board of the petition signed by not less than 10 percent of the registered voters of the district, requesting that an election be ordered, unless the petitioners request that the election be consolidated with the annual election for members of the governing board, or that the election be consolidated with the general election

The governing board shall determine whether the increase shall remain in effect for a specified or unspecified period of time, unless the petition filed by the electors provides for a specified or unspecified period of time If a specified period is provided for in the petition or determined upon by the governing board, such period shall be stated on the ballot

Pursuant to the order of the governing board, the election shall be called, held, and conducted by the county superintendent of schools, as nearly as is practicable in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1301) of Division 4

The specification of the election order shall contain the information provided in Section 1323 and shall be furnished the county superintendent of schools by the governing board of the district for all expenditure level increase elections ordered by it

The costs incurred by the county clerk or registrar of voters and the county superintendent of schools in connection with this section shall be paid out of the funds of the district.

Except as otherwise herein provided, the ballot used in the election shall contain substantially the words: "Shall the _____ District be authorized to levy the necessary property tax rate required to support increases in the expenditure levels as described in Sections 17659 to 17660, inclusive, of the Education Code Such increase to be $_____ per unit of average daily attendance in kindergarten through 6, $_____ per unit of average daily attendance in 7 and 8, and $_____ per unit of average daily attendance in 9 through 12, above the authorized incentive level in Section 17656 of the Education Code Such increases in expenditure levels to be in effect in the district for the school years 19__ to 19__?". Moneys collected pursuant to this section may also be expended for the requirements of Section 13658.

The provisions of this section authorizing the payment of all or part of the premiums, dues, or other charges for health and welfare benefits for the retired officers and employees who at the time of retirement were enrolled in a health and welfare benefit plan, shall be limited in applicability to any school district, or of two or more school districts governed by governing boards of identical personnel, having an average daily attendance of 400,000 or more as shown by the annual report of the county superintendent of schools for the preceding year.

SEC. 132 Section 20807 of the Education Code is repealed

~~20807. The maximum rate of school district tax under Sections 20751 and 20753, inclusive, for any fiscal year is hereby increased by such amount as will provide the amount of the proposed expenditures for programs for educating handicapped minors under Sections 6750 to 6762, inclusive, which are in excess of state apportionments as shown by the budget of the district as finally adopted by the governing board of the district.~~

~~Such proposed expenditures may include the cost of equipment and facilities, the lease or lease/purchase of buildings, lease of land, alterations or additions to existing buildings, or other necessary capital outlay expenditures in connection with such programs.~~

~~If at the end of any fiscal year there remains an unencumbered balance derived from the revenue of the increase in tax rate hereby provided, such balance shall be used exclusively in the following fiscal year for the expenditures of the school district during that year required or authorized by Sections 6750/6762, inclusive, of this code.~~

~~20808. (a) The maximum rate of any elementary or unified school district is, commencing with the fiscal year 1964/5, increased by an amount sufficient to produce the amount by which the cost during the current fiscal year, of tuition or of educating pupils in grades seven and eight, exceeds the cost during the current fiscal year of educating pupils in grades kindergarten or one through six maintained by the district, exclusive of all federal and state apportionments.~~

~~(b) The computations prescribed by subdivision (a) of this section shall be made on the basis of current estimates of cost and average daily attendance, pursuant to rules and regulations of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall also, by rule and regulation, prescribe the accounting procedures and all other procedures to govern the fixing of district tax rates and the disposition of the additional tax revenues provided pursuant to this section.~~

~~Of the additional tax revenues provided pursuant to this section, there shall be expended by a school district during a fiscal year, no more than the actual additional cost during that fiscal year of educating pupils in grades seven and eight as computed for purposes of subdivision (a). If at the end of any fiscal year there remains an unencumbered balance derived from the revenue of the increase in tax rate hereby provided, such balance shall be used exclusively in the following fiscal year for the payment of the obligations for which such tax revenues are afforded by this section and to offset such tax rate increase. If an elementary school district withdraws from a junior high school or a system of junior high schools pursuant to Sections 5625 to 5628, any such remaining unencumbered balance derived from the revenue of the increase in tax rate hereby provided~~

~~may be transferred by resolution of the governing board of the elementary school district to the general fund. In the fiscal year following such transfer, the amount of such remaining unencumbered balance which is transferred to the general fund of the district shall be used to reduce the amount for which the maximum rate of school district tax may be increased pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section for the purposes of educating pupils in grades 7 and 8 in such elementary school district.~~

~~20808.5. (a) The maximum tax rate of a high school district which maintains a junior high school is, commencing with the fiscal year 1964/1965, increased by an amount sufficient to produce the amount by which the cost during the current fiscal year, of educating pupils in grades seven and eight, exceeds the total of federal and state apportionments and the tuition payments received by the district during the current fiscal year for such pupils pursuant to Sections 5605 and 5605.5. The rate of tax for such purpose shall not be levied on the assessed valuation of any elementary district included in such high school district if the elementary district has 10 percent or less of the pupils in grades seven and eight who reside in the elementary district attending a junior high school of the high school district.~~

~~(b) The computations prescribed by subdivision (a) shall be made on the basis of current estimates of cost and average daily attendance, pursuant to rules and regulations of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall also, by rule and regulation, prescribe the accounting procedures and all other procedures to govern the fixing of district tax rates and the disposition of the additional tax revenues provided pursuant to this section.~~

~~Of the additional tax revenues provided pursuant to this section, there shall be expended by a school district during a fiscal year, no more than the actual additional cost during that fiscal year of educating pupils in grades seven and eight as computed for purposes of subdivision (a). If at the end of any fiscal year there remains an unencumbered balance derived from the revenue of the increase in tax rate hereby provided, such balance shall be used exclusively in the following fiscal year for the payment of the obligations for which such tax revenues are afforded by this section and to offset such tax rate increase.~~

~~20810. The maximum rate of school district tax is hereby increased for any school year for any school district which is obligated to pay to another school district tuition or other expenses of educating pupils in grades 7 and 8 in a junior high school. The increase in such maximum tax rate shall be in the amount necessary to produce that part of such tuition or expense obligation which represents the allocation, by the district maintaining the junior high school, of any part of its retirement or health and welfare benefit contributions under Sections 14210 and 14214 of this code, Sections 20532, 22551 and 22553 of the Government Code, and Article 1 (commencing with Section 53200) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, less any unencumbered~~

~~balances remaining at the end of the preceding school year derived from the revenue from the increase in the rate of tax provided by this section.~~

~~If at the end of any school year there remains an unencumbered balance derived from the increase in tax rate hereby provided, such balance shall be used exclusively in the following school year for the payment of such obligations of the district.~~

SEC. 136 Section 20816 of the Education Code is amended to read

20816. (a) The maximum rate of ~~school~~ a community college district tax, including any maximum rate fixed pursuant to Section 20803, is increased in any fiscal year for any school district situated wholly or in part within a county which, in the 1968–1969 fiscal year, household furnishings and personal effects were enrolled on the county assessment roll

(b) The increase in maximum tax rate shall be in an amount equal to the 2 percent of the total of the school district tax rates at which property taxes were levied and collected for purposes of the district during the 1968–1969 fiscal year, but subject to the provisions of subdivision (c).

(c) On or before the first day of February in any year, the governing board of the district may submit a petition to the county superintendent of schools requesting that officer to fix the maximum tax rate of the district for the next succeeding fiscal year at a rate higher than that provided for in subdivision (b) The petition shall demonstrate, on the basis of the best information available to the governing board, that the net loss in revenue which would have resulted to the district in the 1968–1969 fiscal year if household furnishings and personal effects had been exempted from property taxation, taking into consideration increases in state equalization aid which would have accrued to the district as result thereof, exceeds the revenues produced by the increase in maximum tax rate provided for in subdivision (b).

The assessor shall estimate the total amount of assessed value lost by reason of the exemption for household furnishings and personal effects between the 1968–1969 and 1969–1970 fiscal years and shall certify his findings to the county auditor and the county superintendent of schools. The county superintendent of schools shall estimate the amount of equalization aid to be received by the district on the basis of the loss in assessed value certified by the assessor. The county auditor shall apply the tax rate of the district for the 1968–1969 fiscal year to the amount of assessed value determined by the assessor and from the amount computed shall subtract the amount certified by the county superintendent of schools The tax rate of the district for this purpose shall then be computed by determining the rate which will reflect this remaining amount The district shall be bound by this determination of the auditor, whether it is more than, or less than, the amount of increase authorized by subdivision (b)

This subdivision (c) shall not apply to any district which has not first availed itself of this subdivision on or before February 1, 1972

SEC 137. Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 20910) of Division 16 of the Education Code is repealed

SEC. 138. Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 20911) is added to Division 16 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3 5 STATEWIDE SCHOOL TAXES

Article 1 Levy and Collection of Taxes

20911 The board of supervisors of each county shall annually, commencing with the 1972–1973 fiscal year, at the time and in the manner of levying other county taxes, levy and cause taxes to be collected throughout the county, as provided in this chapter. The local laws governing the collection of property taxes and related penalties and interest charges shall apply as state law in the collection of the property taxes provided for in this chapter

20912 The additional taxes shall be levied and collected throughout the entire territory of the county for elementary, and high school purposes The board of supervisors shall fix a property tax rate of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of 100 percent of the assessed valuation in the county as shown on the equalized assessment roll for the current year

20913. The State Controller, with the cooperation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the treasurers and auditors of the several counties, shall direct the establishment of any procedures necessary in connection with the payment of refunds of property taxes levied and collected pursuant to this article

The Superintendent of Public Instruction is authorized to make any adjustments which may be necessary for purposes of such procedures, and for purposes of offsetting any excess or deficiency in taxes levied and collected pursuant to this article in preceding fiscal years

20914. The moneys collected from the taxes, both current and delinquent, imposed pursuant to this article during the fiscal year shall be received by the county treasurer. Such amounts as are not required for purposes of tax refunds shall be remitted within 15 days after receipt, pursuant to procedures and directions prescribed by the State Controller, to the State Treasurer for deposit in the State School Fund

20915 With respect to taxes upon the unsecured roll after the most recent lien date of taxes, there shall, in each fiscal year beginning in the 1972–1973 fiscal year, be credited to and allocated for payment from the county treasury to the State Treasurer pursuant to Section 20914, the amount that would have been collected had the rate determined by Section 20912 been applied to the unsecured roll

20916. The amount deposited in the State School Fund pursuant to this chapter shall be used for the payment of the allowances to school districts as computed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction under Sections 17652 to 17659, inclusive

SEC 139 Chapter 3 6 (commencing with Section 20931) is added to Division 16 of the Education Code, to read

CHAPTER 3.6. STATE SCHOOL WEALTH EQUALIZING TAXES

Article 1. Levy and Collection of Taxes

20931. The board of supervisors of each county shall annually, commencing with the 1972–1973 fiscal year, at the time and in the manner of levying other county taxes, levy and cause taxes to be collected, as provided pursuant to Section 17659. The laws governing the collection of local property taxes and related penalties and interest charges shall apply in the collection of the property taxes levied pursuant to this chapter

20932. The State Controller, with the cooperation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the treasurers and auditors of the several counties, shall direct the establishment of any procedures necessary in connection with the payment of refunds of property taxes levied and collected pursuant to this article

The Superintendent of Public Instruction is authorized to make any adjustments which may be necessary for purposes of such procedures, and for purposes of offsetting any excess or deficiency in taxes levied and collected pursuant to this article in preceding fiscal years.

20933. The moneys collected from the taxes, both current and delinquent, imposed pursuant to this article during the fiscal year shall be received by the county treasurer. Such amounts as are not required for purposes of tax refunds shall be remitted within 15 days after receipt, pursuant to procedures and directions prescribed by the State Controller, to the State Treasurer for deposit in the State School Fund.

20934. With respect to taxes upon the unsecured roll in each district after the most recent lien date of taxes, there shall, in each fiscal year beginning in the 1972–1973 fiscal year, be credited to and allocated for payment from the county treasurer to the State Treasurer pursuant to Section 20933, the amount that would have been collected had the rates determined pursuant to Section 17659 been applied to the unsecured roll

20935. The amount deposited in the State School Fund pursuant to this chapter shall be used for the payment of the allowances to school districts as computed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction under Sections 17656 to 17659, inclusive

20532. The governing body of a contracting agency having taxing power, or of a ~~school~~ community college district included under Chapter 4.5 of this part, shall, if necessary, levy and collect annually a special tax upon the assessable property within the agency or district in the number of cents per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessable property as will be sufficient to raise the amount estimated by the governing body to be required to provide sufficient revenue to meet the obligations of the agency or district for contributions to this system under and after termination of the contract This rate of taxation may be in addition to the annual rate of taxation allowed by law to be levied in that agency or district Any member of, or recipient of a benefit from, this system by reason of such a contract may maintain any appropriate action or proceeding to require performance of the duty herein and by Section 20564 imposed on a governing body

SEC 141 This act shall be deemed operative for the entire 1972–1973 fiscal year as though the same had been enacted into law and become operative on July 1, 1972. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall, for such purposes, have authority to take all necessary steps to effect the mid-fiscal-year transition involved, including the authority to adjust allowance computations, apportionments, and disbursements ordered from the State School Fund

SEC 142 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that the urgently needed program of financial support for the public schools provided for by this act may be put into effect as early as possible in the 1972–1973 school year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately."

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "Section 823 to", and insert "Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 16820) to Chapter 1 of Division 13 of".

Amendment No. 2

In line 2 of the title, strike out "county superintendents of schools", and insert "early childhood education, and making an appropriation therefor".

Amendment No. 3

On page 1, strike out lines 1 to 6, inclusive, and insert

"SECTION 1. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 16820) is added to Chapter 1 of Division 13 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 1.5. Transportation for Early Primary Pupils

16820 The Legislature hereby declares that a comprehensive program of early childhood education is necessary to improve and restructure public education in California so as to provide each pupil with an opportunity for the early development of primary skills. The program shall include early primary classes as an integral part of early childhood education.

The Legislature further finds that the transportation of pupils in early primary classes to and from school is an essential aspect of such program and a necessary part of any educational program designed for such children.

16821. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the governing board of any school district may provide for the transportation of pupils in early primary classes to and from school whenever in the judgment of the board such transportation is advisable and good reasons exist therefor. A governing board may allow for the transportation of parents of pupils enrolled in early primary classes for the purpose of accompanying their children to and from the attendance center offering such early primary classes.

Children meeting the eligible age requirement for enrollment in an early primary class who are attending a children's center, child day care center, or preschool program operated by a public or private agency are deemed to be enrolled in an early primary class for the purpose of this section.

Districts shall receive state reimbursements for the transportation of early primary pupils pursuant to Article 10 (commencing with Section 18051) of Chapter 3 of Division 14 of the Education Code.

SEC. 2. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the purpose of providing state reimbursements for the transportation of early primary pupils pursuant to Section 16821, amounts for transfer to augment subdivision (b) of Section 17303.5 of the Education Code and which shall be made available for expenditure as follows:

(a) For the fiscal year 1973–74, eight hundred sixty-nine thousand eight hundred fifty dollars ($869,850).

(b) For the fiscal year 1974–75, two million twenty-nine thousand six hundred fifty dollars ($2,029,650).

(c) For the fiscal year 1975–76, three million one hundred eighty-nine thousand four hundred fifty dollars ($3,189,450).

(d) For the fiscal year 1976–77, four million three hundred forty-nine thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($4,349,250).

(e) For the fiscal year 1977–78, five million seven hundred ninety-nine thousand dollars ($5,799,000).

Any moneys made available for expenditure under this section in any such fiscal year which are not expended may be carried over into the next succeeding fiscal year, and shall be available for expenditure in such fiscal year in addition to those funds otherwise made available by this section for such year.

SEC. 3. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill No. _____ of the 1972 Regular Session is enacted into law."

SEC. 2."

Amendment No. 5

On page 2, after line 4, insert

"SEC 3 Section 13991 5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

13991.5 Those persons who on June 30, 1972, were receiving a service retirement or disability retirement allowance or survivor benefit from the State Teachers' Retirement System who, at the time that benefit was computed, had it reduced by a portion of a social security benefit to which they were otherwise entitled shall have that reduction removed prospectively effective July 1, 1972

SEC. 4 Article 15 (commencing with Section 14116) is added to Chapter 4 of Division 10 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 15. San Francisco Local System

14116 Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, the provisions of this article shall govern the matters included in this article.

14116 1. On July 1, 1972 and thereafter all persons who first enter employment in the San Francisco Unified School District and the San Francisco Community College District in positions requiring membership in State Teachers' Retirement System are members of State Teachers' Retirement System in accordance with Section 13941. These new members are excluded from coverage under the Old Age, Survivors, Disability and Health Insurance (Federal Social Security) Law for service performed as a member of State Teachers' Retirement System 14116 2. Member and employer contributions for local service of a local system member shall be paid to the local system only for all service performed during the 1972–1973 school year.

14116 3. The accumulated Permanent Fund contributions related to San Francisco local service performed prior to July 1, 1972, shall be retained in the Teachers' Retirement Fund during the 1972–1973 fiscal year Credited interest shall be applied to member accounts for the 1972–1973 fiscal year.

14116 4 Each credentialed member of the San Francisco City and County Employees' Retirement System on June 30, 1972, shall make an irrevocable election to be covered only by that system or to be covered only by the State Teachers' Retirement System for prior and future service performed in the San Francisco Unified School District or the San Francisco Community College District This election shall be made no later than February 15, 1973, and shall be effective as of July 1, 1972.

This election shall be on a form and executed in such manner as the Superintendent of the San Francisco Unified School District and the Superintendent of the San Francisco Community College District shall specify.

Each district shall notify State Teachers' Retirement System of the individual's election with a copy thereof no later than March 1, 1973. Failure of a person to execute this election shall constitute an irrevocable election for coverage by the San Francisco City and County Employees' Retirement System.

14116 5 All persons on the San Francisco system retired rolls on June 30, 1972, shall remain on the local rolls The State Teachers' Retirement System will continue the subvention in Section 14120 to the local district for those persons, will apply the percentage update and annual improvement factor to payments being made by the State Teachers' Retirement System directly to the retirant, and will pay the two-thousand-dollar ($2,000) retired death benefit upon their death The retired death benefit will be reduced by the retired lump-sum death benefit payable by the San Francisco system

The allowance that would have been payable had the member retired solely under the State Teachers' Retirement System, including the percentage update calculated under Sections 14332, 14333 and 14334, shall be taken into account in computing the amount of increase for the ten dollar ($10) a month per year of service minimum benefit.

14116 6. If a person dies, becomes disabled, or retires after June 30, 1972, and prior to the execution of an irrevocable election, the election of system coverage shall be made immediately and all benefits shall be paid in accordance with that election.

If a person has made the election to be covered only by the State Teachers' Retirement System and dies, becomes disabled or retires prior to July 1, 1973, benefits shall be paid as though the election had been executed on July 1, 1972.

14116 7. If a person has made an election to be covered only by the State Teachers' Retirement System and dies, becomes disabled or retires prior to July 1, 1973, the determination of a shortage or overage in his account shall be made immediately, and any shortage due to the State Teachers' Retirement System which is payable by the member shall be paid prior to the payment of any benefit.

14116.8. Contributions payable by the member shall be paid with credited interest thereon through June 30, 1972, plus 6 percent interest on the June 30, 1972, balance for period from July 1, 1972, to date of payment

14116 9. Persons who select to be covered only by the State Teachers' Retirement System and already have credit for classified or other noncertificated service in the San Francisco local system shall not have that credit transferred to the State Teachers' Retirement System

14116.95. The San Francisco City and County Employees' Retirement System shall provide concurrent retirement benefits for classified and other noncertificated service in the San Francisco system according to the provisions applicable to miscellaneous employees of the time of the concurrent retirement for:

(a) Members of that system who transfer to the State Teachers' Retirement System after June 30, 1972; and

(b) Persons who were members of both retirement systems on June 30, 1972, and

(c) Any person who could have qualified under (b) if he had not taken a refund from either but not both systems, provided he qualifies for and redeposits prior to retirement.

14116 10 Notwithstanding the provisions in Section 14211, a member of the San Francisco local system may retire concurrently and receive credit for service performed in other states of the United States, its territories and possessions and the Dominion of Canada provided that person is eligible under Sections 13998, 13999, and 14000

14116 11 If a person elects to be covered only by the State Teachers' Retirement System under Section 14116 4, there shall be deposited in the Teachers' Retirement Fund as of July 1, 1973

(a) An amount equal to the contributions that would have been required had all service prior to July 1, 1972, been performed as a full-time member of State Teachers' Retirement System plus credited interest through June 30, 1972, plus 6 percent interest for the balance of the 1972–1973 fiscal year, plus

(b) An amount equal to 8 percent of the employee compensation as provided in Section 13832 for service performed during the 1972–1973 fiscal year, plus 6 percent interest; plus

(c) An amount equal to 3.2 percent of employee compensation as provided in Section 13832 as the employer's portion for service performed during the 1972–1973 fiscal year, plus 6 percent interest.

14116 12. If the accumulated contributions in the person's local fund account at the time of transfer to the State Teachers' Retirement System are not equal to those required in Section 14116.11, the difference between the amount in the account and the required amount is an unfunded liability and is the responsibility of the employer. The San Francisco City and County Employees' Retirement System shall, at the time of the transfer of assets, provide the additional amount of accumulated contributions required to put each individual account in balance if the shortage is due to the rate of contributions which had been required by that local system. Such amount shall be a charge against the employer's reserve in the San Francisco City and County Employees' Retirement System attributable to the San Francisco Unified School District and the San Francisco Community College District.

Any funds transferred by the local system in addition to the accumulated contributions already in the member's account shall be deposited as employer contributions in the Teachers' Retirement Fund, and shall not be credited to the member's account and shall not be refundable

Those persons in the San Francisco local system who elected the option to reduce their contributions by the amount of the old age portion of the social security contribution and those who are members of that system under San Francisco City Charter Section 8.507 are liable for this portion of any shortage in their accumulated contributions due to the Teachers' Retirement Fund, plus credited interest through June 30, 1972, and plus regular interest thereafter This applies also to those persons who elected to have the required retroactive social security payment paid from their account in the local system at the time such coverage was adopted.

14117. The San Francisco City and County Employees' Retirement System shall provide for and assume total financial responsibility for the full Permanent Fund benefit earned through June 30, 1972, for those persons who elect to be covered only by the local system, as those benefits existed in subdivision (a) of Section 14240 on June 30, 1972. There shall be no reduction in local benefits because of this section

14117.1. Adjustments to accounts caused by late discovery shall be made in accordance with Sections 14116 11 and 14116.12.

14117.2 Those persons who have taken a refund of their contributions and interest from the San Francisco local system prior to July 1, 1972, and who have Permanent Fund contributions on deposit in State Teachers' Retirement System for such service shall have the accumulated Permanent Fund contributions on deposit in State Teachers' Retirement System as of July 1, 1972, handled the same as the Permanent Fund contributions of all nonlocal members.

Upon discovery and notification to such persons, they shall:

(a) Deposit the contributions required with regular interest; or,

(b) Leave the Permanent Fund accumulated contributions on deposit and receive an actuarially reduced retirement allowance.

14118. The San Francisco Unified School District may continue the current annual report of member contributions and service for fiscal year 1972–73 for all nonlocal certificated members working in the San Francisco Unified School District The 8 percent employee and 3 2 percent employer contributions for these nonlocal members shall be remitted monthly. If an annual report is submitted instead of a monthly report, it is due on July 31, 1973, and is delinquent on August 31, 1973. The provisions of Section 14056 shall apply.

14119 All costs of the selection, asset transfer, asset valuation, security registration, and the administrative costs in the implementation of Chapter 1305 of the Statutes of 1971 shall be borne by the employer reserve in the San Francisco City and County Employees' Retirement System related to the unified school district and the community college account.

14119 1 For the members of the San Francisco local system who select to be covered only by the State Teachers' Retirement System, the transfer of assets from the San Francisco local system to the State Teachers' Retirement System shall be in cash or in securities in kind While a proportionate division of each holding shall not be required, the securities transferred to the State Teachers' Retirement System shall be divided between nonconvertible fixed income investments, equities, and securities convertible into equities in proportion to the book value of these security groupings to the total value of the San Francisco local system portfolio as of March 31, 1972 For this purpose, cash will be counted as equivalent to a security valued at market.

The value of securities in kind that are to be transferred shall be determined as follows Nonconvertible fixed income investments held in the portfolio on March 31, 1972, will be valued by discounting at the annualized earnings rate on the State Teachers' Retirement System's nonconvertible fixed income portfolio as of June 30, 1973, computed in accordance with established State Teachers' Retirement System procedures, plus an allowance for accrued income However, where the value for any specific security when computed in this manner would be above the value at which the security may be redeemed at the first date at which it is callable or refundable, then the applied rate shall be computed to the redemption price at the first date at which the security is redeemable or refundable, whichever is later, plus an allowance for accrued income Nonconvertible fixed income securities purchased after March 31, 1972, equities and securities convertible into equities shall be valued at market plus accrued interest if any. All securities to be transferred shall be valued as of June 30, 1973

Either the San Francisco City and County Employees' Retirement System or the Teachers' Retirement Board may reject specific securities and recommend alternative assets Selection of securities to be transferred in kind shall not be made in a manner adverse to the Teachers' Retirement Fund Should the respective parties be unable to reach agreement by August 15, 1973, the matter shall be submitted to arbitration by a third party, and his decision shall be binding upon both parties The third party arbitrator shall be mutually agreed upon If agreement cannot be reached, the arbitrator shall be appointed by the Governor from a list of four names; two names each to be submitted independently by the San Francisco City and County Employees' Retirement System and the Teachers' Retirement Board

14119 2 If a net realized loss occurs from the transfer of assets at less than their book values, that loss shall be a charge against the employer's reserve resident in the San Francisco City and County Employees' Retirement System attributable to the San Francisco Unified School District and the San Francisco Community College District

14119 3 Residual employer funds shall remain in the San Francisco employer reserve in the local system, and shall be credited on a year-to-year basis as determined by the San Francisco City and County Employees' Retirement System to the employer's accounts in that reserve attributable to the San Francisco Unified School District and the San Francisco Community College District

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Father Leo McAllister:

Father, In our times of chilling loneliness, we look and listen and long for any voice and vibration of hope.

Some of us, at some times, are prisoners of our selfishness, of our own injustice and inequity to others

Help us to see in the dedicated abandonment of those who labor for right causes, the pathway through the prison walls of our own making, Help us to hope and dream for what is better. For the new is never totally new, but preceded by a dream, a promise, an anticipation.

If we do not hope for what is beyond expectation we will not find it.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Acting Speaker Fenton, Mr. Pierson then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

(2) Fresno County is primarily a rural, agrarian area where public transportation is not readily available; and

(3) Fresno County's population is sufficiently low that a transportation pilot project of small size would still have a meaningful county-wide effect.

Pursuant to such legislative findings, the California Commission on Aging shall establish a transportation pilot project in Fresno County for the benefit of persons over age 65. Such pilot project shall be funded pursuant to the Older Americans Act of 1965, as amended, and shall be implemented through the purchase by the state of four model senior citizens minibuses, as developed by the Department of Transportation.

The California Commission on Aging shall submit to the Legislature a report on the success of such pilot project within three years"

Amendment No. 3

On page 1, strike out lines 1 to 7, inclusive, and insert

"SECTION 1. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 509) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC 2. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 509) is added to Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

CHAPTER 2. CLAIM AND DELIVERY OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

509 The plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of personal property may, at the time of issuance of summons, or at any time before trial, claim the delivery of such property to him as provided in this chapter

510 (a) Where a delivery is claimed, the plaintiff, by verified complaint or by an affidavit or declaration under penalty of perjury made by plaintiff, or by someone on his behalf, filed with the court, shall show:

(1) That the plaintiff is the owner of the property claimed or is entitled to the possession thereof, and the source of such title or right; and if plaintiff's interest in such property is based upon a written instrument, a copy thereof shall be attached;

(2) That the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant, the means by which the defendant came into possession thereof, and the cause of such detention according to his best knowledge, information, and belief;

(3) A particular description of the property, a statement of its actual value, and a statement to his best knowledge, information, and belief concerning the location of the property and of the residence and business address, if any, of the defendant;

(4) That the property has not been taken for a tax, assessment, or fine, pursuant to a statute; or seized under an execution against the property of the plaintiff; or, if so seized, that it is by statute exempt from such seizure.

(b) The court shall, without delay, examine the complaint and affidavit or declaration, and if it is satisfied that they meet the requirements of subdivision (a), he shall issue an order directed to the defendant to show cause why the property should not be taken from the defendant and delivered to the plaintiff. Such order shall fix the date and time for the hearing thereon, which shall be no sooner than 10 days from the issuance thereof, and shall direct the time within which service thereof shall be made upon the defendant. Such order shall inform the defendant that he may file affidavits on his behalf with the court and may appear and present testimony on his behalf at the time of such hearing, or that he may, at or prior to such hearing, file with the court a written undertaking to stay the delivery of the property, in accordance with the provisions of Section 514, and that, if he fails to appear, plaintiff will apply to the court for a writ of possession. Such order shall fix the manner in which service thereof shall be made, which shall be by personal service, or in accordance with the provisions of Section 1011, or in such manner as the judge may determine to be reasonably calculated to afford notice thereof to the defendant under the circumstances appearing from the complaint and affidavit or declaration.

(c) Upon examination of the complaint and affidavit or declaration and such other evidence or testimony as the judge may, thereupon, require, a writ of possession may be issued prior to hearing, if probable cause appears that any of the following exist.

(1) The defendant gained possession of the property by theft, as defined by any section of Title 13 (commencing with Section 459) of Part 1 of the Penal Code;

(2) The property consists of one or more negotiable instruments or credit cards;

(3) By reason of specific, competent evidence shown, by testimony within the personal knowledge of an affiant or witness, the property is perishable, and will perish before any noticed hearing can be had, or is in immediate danger of destruction, serious harm, concealment, or removal from this state, or of sale to an innocent purchaser, and that the holder of such property threatens to destroy, harm, conceal, remove it from the state, or sell it to an innocent purchaser.

Where a writ of possession has been issued prior to hearing under the provisions of this section, the defendant or other person from whom possession of said property has been taken may apply to the court for an order shortening the time for hearing on the order to show cause, and the court may, upon such application, shorten the time for such hearing, and direct that the matter shall be heard on not less than 48 hours' notice to the plaintiff.

(d) Under any of the circumstances described in subdivision (a), or in lieu of the immediate issuance of a writ of possession under any of the circumstances described in subdivision (c), the judge may, in addition to the issuance of an order to show cause, issue such temporary restraining orders, directed to the defendant, prohibiting such acts with respect to the property, as may appear to be necessary for the preservation of rights of the parties and the status of the property

(e) Upon the hearing on the order to show cause, the court shall consider the showing made by the parties appearing, and shall make a preliminary determination, which party, with reasonable probability, is entitled to possession, use, and disposition of the property, pending final adjudication of the claims of the parties. If the court determines that the action is one in which a prejudgment writ of possession should issue, it shall direct the issuance of such writ.

511 (a) A writ of possession shall not issue to enter the private premises of any person for the purpose of seizure of property, unless the court shall determine from competent evidence that there is probable cause to believe that the property or some part thereof is located therein.

(b) A writ of possession shall not issue until plaintiff has filed with the court a written undertaking executed by two or more sufficient sureties, approved by the court, to the effect that they are bound to the defendant in double the value of the property, as determined by the court, for the return of the property to the defendant, if return thereof be ordered, and for the payment to him of any sum as may from any cause be recovered against the plaintiff

512 (a) The writ of possession shall be directed to the sheriff, constable, or marshal, within whose jurisdiction the property is located. It shall describe the specific property to be seized, and shall specify the location or locations where, as determined by the court from all the evidence, there is probable cause to believe the property or some part thereof will be found It shall direct the levying officer to seize the same if it is found, and to retain it in his custody There shall be attached to such writ a copy of the written undertaking filed by the plaintiff, and such writ shall inform the defendant that he has the right to except to the sureties upon such undertaking or to file a written undertaking for the redelivery of such property, as provided in Section 514.

(b) Upon probable cause shown by further affidavit or declaration by plaintiff or someone on his behalf, filed with the court, a writ of possession may be endorsed by the court, without further notice, to direct the levying officer to search for the property at another location or locations and to seize the same, if found

513 The levying officer must forthwith take the property, if it be in the possession of the defendant or his agent, and retain it in his custody, provided that, when the property is used as a dwelling, such as a house trailer, mobile home, or boat, the same shall be taken by placing a keeper in charge of the property, at plaintiff's expense, for two days. At the expiration of such period, the officer shall remove its occupants and take the property into his immediate custody.

If the property or any part thereof is in a building or enclosure, the levying officer must demand its delivery, announcing his identity, purpose, and the authority under which he acts. If it is not voluntarily delivered, he shall cause the building or enclosure to be broken open in such manner as he reasonably believes will cause the least damage to the building or enclosure, and take the property into his possession He may call upon the power of the county to aid and protect him, but if he reasonably believes that entry and seizure of the property will involve a substantial risk of death or serious bodily harm to any person, he shall refrain from seizing the property, and shall forthwith make a return before the court from which the writ issued, setting forth the reasons for his belief that such risk exists. The court shall make such orders and decrees as may be appropriate.

The levying officer must, without delay, serve upon the defendant a copy of the writ of possession and written undertaking, the complaint and affidavit or declaration, by delivering the same to him personally, if he can be found, or to his agent from whose possession the property is taken; or, if neither can be found, by leaving them at the usual place of abode of either with some person of suitable age and discretion; or, if neither have any known place of abode, by mailing them to their last known address

514. At any time prior to the hearing of the order to show cause, or before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the defendant may require the return thereof upon filing with the court a written undertaking executed by two or more sufficient sureties, approved by the court, to the effect that they are bound in double value of the property, as stated in the verified complaint, affidavit, or declaration of the plaintiff, or as determined by the court for the delivery thereof to the plaintiff, if such delivery be ordered, and for the payment to him of such sum as may for any cause be recovered against the defendant. At the time of filing such undertaking, the defendant shall serve upon the plaintiff or his attorney, in the manner provided by Section 1011, a notice of filing of such undertaking, to which a copy of such undertaking shall be attached, and shall cause proof of service thereof to be filed with the court. If such undertaking be filed prior to hearing of the order to show cause, proceedings thereunder shall terminate, unless exception is taken to such sureties If, at the time of filing of such undertaking, the property shall be in the custody of the levying officer, such property shall be redelivered to the defendant five days after service of notice of filing such undertaking upon the plaintiff or his attorney

——515. The qualification of sureties under any written undertaking referred to in this chapter shall be such as are prescribed by this code, in respect to bail upon an order of civil arrest Either party may, within two days after service of an undertaking or notice of filing an undertaking under the provisions of this chapter, give written notice to the court and the other party that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties. If he fails to do so, he is deemed to have waived all objections to them When a party excepts, the other party's sureties must justify on notice within not less than two, nor more than five, days, in like manner as upon bail on civil arrest. If the property be in the custody of the levying officer, he shall retain custody thereof until the justification is completed or waived or fails If the sureties fail to justify, the levying officer shall proceed as if no such undertaking had been filed. If the sureties justify or the exception is waived, he shall deliver the property to the party filing such undertaking.

516 When the levying officer has taken property as provided in this chapter, he must keep it in a secure place and deliver it to the party entitled thereto, upon receiving his fees for taking and his necessary expenses for keeping the same, after expiration of the time for filing of an undertaking for redelivery and for exception to the sureties upon any undertaking, unless the court shall by order stay such delivery.

517 In cases where the property taken is claimed by any person other than the defendant or his agent, the rules and proceedings applicable in cases of third party claims after levy under execution or attachment shall apply.

518. The levying officer must return the writ of possession, with his proceedings thereon, to the court in which the action is pending, within 20 days after taking the property mentioned therein.

519 After the property has been delivered to a party or the value thereof secured by an undertaking as provided in this chapter, the court shall, by appropriate order, protect that party in the possession of such property until the final determination of the action.

520 In all proceedings brought to recover the possession of personal property, all courts, in which such actions are pending, shall, upon request of any party thereto, give such actions precedence over all other civil actions, except actions to which special precedence is otherwise given by law, in the matter of the setting of the same for hearing or trial, and in hearing or trial thereof, to the end that all such actions shall be quickly heard and determined

521. (a) This chapter shall be operative only until January 1, 1975, and on and after that date shall have no force or effect

SEC 3 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are·

The Supreme Court of California, in Blair v. Pitchess, 5 Cal 3rd 258, decided on July 1, 1971, held the California claim and delivery law unconstitutional, as violative of procedural due process

As a result of that case, there is no statutory plan whereby owners of personal property, unjustly withheld by persons having possession thereof, can secure an order or follow a judicial procedure to recover immediate possession of such property This act is necessary to provide such a remedy.

SEC 4 The Legislature declares this act is for the purpose of giving persons claiming the legal right to possession of property the legal remedies necessary to do so, within the requirements of procedural due process as set forth in the decision of Blair v. Pitchess, and that this act will enable controversies to be decided within the judicial system, and prevent controversies arising which will disturb the peace and well-being of the people of the State of California.

Consideration of Author's Amendments

The following amendments, pursuant to the Assembly Rules, were read, and adopted:

Amendment No. 1

On page 6 of the printed bill, strike out line 7, and insert

"692. Before the sale of property on execution ~~or under power contained in any deed of trust on real property or a leasehold estate therein or any mortgage on real property or a leasehold estate therein~~, notice thereof must be given as follows:

1. In case of perishable property: by posting written notice of the time and place of sale in three public places in the city where the property is to be sold, if the property is to be sold in a city, or, if not, then in three public places in the judicial district in which the property is to be sold, for such time as may be reasonable, considering the character and condition of the property.

2. In the case of other personal property: by posting a similar notice in three public places in the city where the property is to be sold, if the property is to be sold in a city, or, if not, then in three public places in the judicial district in which the property is to be sold, for not less than 10 days and also, not less than 10 days prior to the sale, by mailing a notice of the time and place of the sale to the judgment debtor at his business or residence address last known to the judgment creditor or his attorney or delivering such notice to the judgment debtor. It shall be the duty of the party delivering an execution to an officer for levy to furnish the information required by such levying officer to comply with the provisions of this subdivision.

3. In case of real property or a leasehold estate therein: by posting a similar notice particularly describing the property at least 20 days before the date of sale, in one public place in the city where the property is to be sold, if the property is to be sold in a city, or, if not, then in one public place in the judicial district in which the property is to be sold and publishing a copy thereof once a week for the same period, in some newspaper of general circulation published in the city in which the property or the real property in which such a leasehold estate was demised or some part thereof is situated, if any part thereof is situated in a city, if not, then in some newspaper of general circulation published in the judicial district in which the property or some part thereof is situated, or, in case no newspaper of general circulation is published in the city or judicial district, as the case may be, in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the property or some part thereof is situated and at least 20 days before the date of sale by mailing by certified mail a notice of the time and place of sale to the judgment debtor at his business or residence address last known to the judgment creditor or his attorney or delivering such notice to the judgment debtor. It shall be the duty of the party delivering an execution to an officer for levy to furnish the information required by the levying officer to comply with the provisions of this subdivision Where real property is to be sold ~~under power of sale contained in any deed of trust or under power of sale contained in a mortgage or where real property is to be sold~~, under execution upon a judgment a copy of said notice shall be posted in some conspicuous place on the property to be sold, at least 20 days before date of sale, and where a leasehold estate in real property is to be sold under ~~such a power of sale or~~ execution upon a judgment a copy of said notice shall be posted in some conspicuous place on the real property in which such a leasehold estate was demised, at least 20 days before date of sale In addition to particularly describing the property, the notice shall describe the property by giving its street address, if any, or other common designation, if any; but, if a legal description of the property is given, the validity of the notice shall not be affected by the fact that the street address or other common designation recited is erroneous or that the street address or other common designation is omitted The term newspaper of general circulation as used herein is as defined in Article 1 (commencing with Section 6000) of Chapter 1, Division 7, Title 1 of the Government Code The term "judgment debtor" does not include a trustor or mortgagor.

4. When the judgment under which the property is to be sold is made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, the several notices required by this section must state the kind of money or currency in which bids may be made at such sale, which must be the same as that specified in the judgment."

Amendment No. 4

On page 2, line 1, after "SECTION 1.", insert "Section 3 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read:

Sec 3. The board of supervisors of the district created by this act, by resolution thereof adopted from time to time, may establish zones or subzones within said district without reference to the boundaries of other zones or subzones, setting forth in such resolutions descriptions thereof by metes and bounds and entitling each of such zones by a zone number, and institute zone or subzone projects for the specific benefit of such zones or subzones. Such zones shall, as far as practicable, include complete watersheds. Any subzone formed shall be entitled with a zone number and a letter of the alphabet.

Such zones or subzones may also be established in the manner prescribed in Section 11 of this act, independently of the institution of any project relating to such zone or subzone.

Alternately, such zones or subzones may be formed concurrently with and as a part of the proceeding for the installation of a project relating to such zones or subzones in the manner prescribed in Section 11 of this act.

If prior to taking final action to form any zone or subzone, the exterior boundaries of which will include any lands lying within the exterior boundaries of any chartered or incorporated city within the district, the board of supervisors receives the resolution or ordinance adopted by a majority of the members of the governing body of such city requesting exclusion of such city territory from the zone or subzone, the board shall exclude such territory.

~~After a watershed zone has been formed and a project or projects adopted therefor, a subzone or subzones may be formed for areas less than the watershed, and a project or projects adopted therefor. Subzones and projects therefor shall be formed in the manner provided in this section and Section 11 of this act. A subzone or zones and projects therefor may be formed and approved concurrently with the formation of the watershed zone. Any subzone so formed shall be entitled with a watershed zone number and a letter of the alphabet.~~

SEC. 2. Section 3 2 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is repealed.

~~Sec 3.2. In determining the boundaries of complete watersheds and subzones within such watersheds, the board may consider and include lands immediately adjacent and contiguous to the watershed which will be benefited by being made a part of such watershed zone or subzone.~~

~~In establishing boundary lines for watershed zones and subzones, the board and the county boundary commission may, in the interests of convenience and the certainty of the boundaries, adopt boundary lines established by the county assessor for the purpose of making assessments on real property, provided, however, that if a parcel of land under a single ownership of record consists of more than 10 acres, there shall be a division of such parcel for the purpose of having the~~

~~boundary of the watershed zone or subzone lie as closely as is practicable to the actual watershed line. Lands excluded from a zone by action of the governing body of a city shall not be construed as a material deviation from including all lands within a watershed.~~

SEC. 3. Section 3.2 is added to the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951), to read:

Sec. 3.2. Any parcel, parcels, or tract of land may be annexed to a zone or subzone, and any parcel, parcels, or tract of land within any zone or subzone may be excluded where such annexation or exclusion is required due to land division or development affecting, or requiring the adjustment of existing zone or subzone boundaries Proceedings for annexation or exclusion may be instituted by the board by resolution specifying its intention to annex or exclude such parcel, parcels, or tract of land, describing the proposed land to be annexed or excluded and specifying a time and place for public hearing on such resolution, which public hearing may be held at any place within the district, and directing the clerk to give notice of such public hearing, as hereinafter provided. In the alternative, such proceedings may be instituted by the filing with the board of a petition signed by 10 percent or more of the owners, as defined in Section 11, of the land to be annexed or excluded. The petition shall contain:

(a) The name of the zone or subzone affected by the annexation or exclusion.

(b) The reason for annexation or exclusion of the land.

(c) A description of the land to be annexed or excluded.

(d) The assent of the petitioners to the annexation or exclusion.

(e) A request that the described land be annexed to or excluded from the zone or subzone.

When the petition has been filed with the board, the board shall fix a time and place for a hearing thereon, which public hearing may be held at any place within the district, and cause a notice of such hearing to be given as provided in Section 3.3. The notice shall state:

(a) The date the petition was filed.

(b) The location and boundaries of the land described in the petition.

(c) The prayer of the petition.

(d) The time and place fixed for hearing on the petition.

(e) That all persons interested in or affected by such change in the zone or subzone boundaries may appear and show cause why the change should not be made. At the hearing, the board shall hear all relevant evidence for or against the petition

Failure to show cause by any person interested in or affected by the change is deemed to be his assent to any change the board may make in the zone or subzone boundaries.

At the conclusion of the hearing, if it deems the annexation or exclusion of all or part of the land to be for the best interests of the zone or subzone, the board may by resolution annex or exclude all or part of the land described in the petition and shall, in such resolution, describe the zone or subzone boundaries as changed. If no effective date for such annexation or exclusion is specified in the resolution, then the effective date shall be deemed to be the date of the resolution.

The exclusion of any land or territory from a zone or subzone does not release such land or territory from any debts or obligations for which it was liable at the time of the exclusion unless otherwise specified in the resolution of exclusion.

In the case of annexation, the board may require that the owners of annexed land shall pay a sum not to exceed the amount of the taxes or assessments which the owners or their predecessors in interest would have been required to pay if the annexed land had been included in the zone or subzone when it was formed.

SEC. 4."

Amendment No. 5

On page 4, line 18, strike out "SEC. 2.", and insert

"SEC. 5. Section 5 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read:

Sec. 5 The district is hereby declared to be a body corporate and politic and as such shall have, in addition to the other powers vested in it by this act, the following powers:

1. To have perpetual succession.

2 To sue and be sued in the name of said district.

3. To adopt a seal.

4 To acquire by grant, purchase, lease, gift, devise, contract, condemnation, construction, or otherwise, and to hold, use, enjoy, sell, let, and dispose of real and personal property of every kind, including lands, structures, buildings, rights-of-way, easements, and privileges, and to construct, maintain, alter and operate any and all works or improvements, within or without the district, necessary or proper to carry out any of the objects or purposes of this act and convenient to the full exercise of its powers, and to complete, extend, add to, alter, remove, repair or otherwise improve any works, or improvements, or property acquired by it as authorized by this act.

5 To store water in surface or underground reservoirs within or outside of the district for the common benefit of the district or of any zone or zones affected; to conserve and reclaim water for present and future use within the district; to appropriate and acquire water and water rights, and import water into the district and to conserve within or outside of the district, water for any purpose useful to the district; to commence, maintain, intervene in, defend or compromise, in the name of the district, or otherwise, and to assume the costs and expenses of, any action or proceeding involving or affecting the ownership or use of waters or water rights within or without the district, used or useful for any purpose of the district or of common benefit to any land situated therein, or involving the wasteful use of water therein; to commence, maintain, intervene in, defend and compromise and to assume the cost and expenses of any and all actions and proceedings now or hereafter begun; to prevent interference with or diminution of, or to declare rights in the natural flow of any stream or surface or subterranean supply of waters used or useful for any purpose of the district or of common benefit to lands within the district or to its inhabitants; to prevent unlawful exportation of water from said district; to prevent contamination, pollution or otherwise rendering unfit for beneficial use the surface or subsurface water used or useful in said district, and to commence, maintain and defend actions and proceedings to prevent any such interference with the aforesaid waters as may endanger or damage the inhabitants, lands, or use of water in, or flowing into, the district; provided, however, that said district shall not have power to intervene or take part in, or to pay the costs or expenses of, actions or controversies between the owners of lands or water rights which do not affect the interest of the district.

6. To control the flood and storm waters of said district and the flood and storm waters of streams that have their sources outside of said district, but which streams and the floodwaters thereof, flow into said district, and to conserve such waters for beneficial and useful purposes of said district by spreading, storing, retaining and causing to percolate into the soil within or without said district, or to save or conserve in any manner all or any of such waters and protect from damage from such flood or storm waters the watercourses, watersheds, harbors, public highways, life and property in said district, and the watercourses outside of the district of streams flowing into the district, and to prevent waste of water or diminution of the water supply in, or exportation of water from said district, and to obtain, retain and reclaim drainage, storm, flood and other waters for beneficial use in said district; provided, that nothing in this act contained shall authorize the carrying out of any plan of improvement, the purpose of which is, or the effect of which will be, to take water which flows in any watershed in said district and transport or sell same for use anywhere outside of the district when the water level of any gravel beds within the district is below the normal level and such water could reasonably be used to replenish the water level of said gravel beds; provided further, that none of the provisions of this act shall preclude the exercise by any other political subdivision that may now or hereafter exist, wholly or in part, within the district from exercising its powers, although such powers may be of the same nature as the powers of said district. Any such other political subdivision may, by written agreement with the district, provide for the use, or joint use, of property or facilities in which any such other political subdivision has an interest, or for the use, or joint use, of property or facilities in which said district has an interest.

7. To cooperate and to act in conjunction with the State of California or any of its engineers, officers, boards, commissions, departments, or agencies, the United States of America, or any federal department or agency, or with any public or private corporation, or with the County of Contra Costa or adjacent counties, in the construction of any work for the controlling of flood or storm waters of or flowing into said district, or for the protection of life or property therein, or for the purpose of conserving said waters for beneficial use within said district, or in any other works, acts, or purposes provided for herein, and to adopt and carry out any definite plan or system of work for any such purpose.

8. To carry on technical and other investigations of all kinds, make measurements, collect data and make analyses, studies, and inspections pertaining to water supply, water rights, control of floods and use of water, both within and without said district, and for such purposes said district shall have the right of access through its authorized representatives to all properties within said district. The district, through its authorized representatives may enter upon such lands and make examinations, surveys, and maps thereof

9. To enter upon any land, to make surveys and locate the necessary works of improvement and the lines for channels, conduits, canals, pipelines, roadways and other rights-of-way; to acquire by purchase, lease, contract, condemnation, gift, devise, or other legal means all lands and water and water rights and other property necessary or convenient for the construction, use, supply, maintenance, repair and improvement of said works, including works constructed and being constructed by private owners, lands for reservoirs for storage of necessary water, and all necessary appurtenances, and also where necessary or convenient to said end, and for said purposes and uses, to acquire and to hold, the capital stock of any mutual water company or corporation, domestic or foreign, owning water or water rights, canals, waterworks, franchises, concessions, or rights, when the ownership of such stock is necessary to secure a water supply required by the district or any part thereof, upon the condition that when holding such stock, the district shall be entitled to all the rights, powers and privileges, and shall be subject to all the obligations and liabilities conferred or imposed by law upon other holders of such stock in the same company; to enter into and do any acts necessary or proper for the performance of any agreement with the United States, or any state, county, district of any kind, public or private corporation, association, firm or individual, or any number of them, for the joint acquisition, construction, leasing, ownership, disposition, use, management, maintenance, repair or operation of any rights, works or other property of a kind which might be lawfully acquired or owned by the district; to acquire the right to store water in any reservoirs, or to carry water through any canal, ditch or conduit not owned or controlled by the district; to grant to any owner or lessee the right to the use of any water or right to store such water in any reservoir of the district, or to carry such water through any tunnels, canal, ditch, or conduit of the district, to enter into and do any acts necessary or proper for the performance of any agreement with any district of any kind, public or private corporation, association, firm or individual, or any number of them for the transfer or delivery to any such district, corporation, association, firm or individual of any water right or water pumped, stored, appropriated or otherwise acquired or secured, for the use of the district, or for the purpose of exchanging the same for other water, water right or water supply in exchange for water, water right or water supply to be delivered to said district by the other party to said agreement.

10. To incur indebtedness and to issue bonds in the manner herein provided

11. To cause taxes or assessments to be levied and collected for the purpose of paying any obligation of the district, and to carry out any of the purposes of this act, in the manner hereinafter provided.

12. To make contracts, and to employ labor, and to employ for temporary services only, expert appraisers, consultants, attorneys, and technical advisers, and to do all acts necessary for the full exercise of all powers vested in said district or any of the officers thereof by this act.

13. To exercise the right of eminent domain, either within or without said district, and in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of private property for public use, to take any property necessary to carry out any of the objects or purposes of this act, including property required for recreational facilities, whether such property be already devoted to any public use by any district or other public corporation, or agency, or otherwise; provided, however, that the district in exercising such power shall in addition to the damage for the taking, injury, or destruction of property, also pay the cost of removal, reconstruction, or relocation of any structure, railways, mains, pipes, conduits, wires, cables, poles, of any public utility which is required to be moved to a new location except that the district shall not be required to pay the cost of such removal, reconstruction or relocation work by any private person, corporation, public utility, public agency or other district of their facilities located within a public road right-of-way where the public jurisdiction owning and controlling the road would not be obligated to pay for the work had it directed such as part of, or necessitated by, road construction or maintenance to be undertaken by such public jurisdiction ; and ~~provided further, that~~ notwithstanding any other provision of this act or any other law, no property shall be taken by eminent domain unless it is taken upon a finding by a court of competent jurisdiction that the taking is for a more necessary public use than that to which it has already been appropriated, and provided further, that no right shall exist in said district to take by proceedings in eminent domain any property, including water rights, appropriated to public use by any existing city and county or municipal utility district. The district shall also have and may exercise the right to condemn any existing works or improvements in said district or along streams flowing into said district now or hereafter used to control flood or storm waters, or to conserve such flood or storm waters or to protect any property in said district or along streams flowing into said district from damage from such flood or storm waters, and it is hereby declared that the use of the property, lands, rights-of-way, easements, or materials which may be condemned, taken or appropriated under the provision of this act is a public use subject to the regulation and control of the state in the manner prescribed by law; provided, however, that nothing in this act contained shall be deemed to authorize said district, or any person or persons to divert the waters of any river, creek, stream, irrigation system, canal or ditch, or the waters thereof or therein unless compensation therefor be first provided in the manner prescribed by law.

The power of eminent domain vested in the district shall include the power to condemn in the name of the district either the fee simple or any lesser estate, easement, or interest in any real property which the board of supervisors of the district by resolution shall determine is necessary for carrying out the purposes of this act. Such resolution shall be prima facie evidence that the taking of such fee simple or any lesser estate or easement or interest as the case may be, is necessary.

Whenever real property which is devoted to or held for some other public or quasi-public use is required by the district for any purpose authorized by this act, the district may condemn real property adjacent thereto or in the immediate vicinity thereof to be exchanged for the real property so required by the district.

Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as in any way affecting the plenary power of any existing city and county or municipal utility district to provide for a water supply for such city and county or municipal utility district, or as affecting the absolute control of any properties of such city and county or municipal utility district necessary for such water supply and nothing herein contained shall be construed as vesting any power of control over such properties in such Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District or in any officer thereof, or in any person referred to in this act.

14. To make contracts with the County of Contra Costa and cities and districts within the county, and to employ labor for the purpose of doing flood control work and for inspecting and passing upon the adequacy of drainage plans provided for each proposed new subdivision in the County of Contra Costa.

15. To construct, accept, maintain, repair, or otherwise improve structures or channels for any purpose, in whole or in part, related to the purposes and powers of the district, or perform any act necessary or incidental to the complete exercise and effect of any of its powers.

16. The district may provide, operate, maintain, and charge for public use of recreation facilities in connection with flood control works and improvements within the jurisdiction of the district.

17 In connection with flood control works and related improvements, the district may install and maintain appropriate landscaping and take other actions as necessary for the purpose of mitigation of environmental damage resulting from such works and improvements.

18. The district may cause to be designed and inserted in the specifications and contract for any flood control channel or storm drain planned to be constructed under this act as an open channel, provision for the construction in conjunction therewith of facilities for the covering or crossing over of any such portion, or a part of such portion, if, in the judgment of such governing body, such crossing or covering will not impair the usefulness of such flood control channel or storm drain and will not be otherwise adverse to the best interests of the district.

SEC. 6. Section 5 5 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read:

SEC 5 5. The ~~commission~~ board, pursuant to Sections 5 1, 5 2, 5.3, and 5 4, may order the construction of all structures and appurtenances, channels, culverts, ditches and any work incident to the collection and control of storm waters in the whole or any portion of any of the streets, highways, or public places or in property or in rights-of-way owned by the district; provided, that said district shall first obtain the consent to ~~said~~ such assessment district work from the legislative body or other agency having jurisdiction of the territory within which any of the proposed work is to be done

SEC. 7. Section 5 6 is added to the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951), to read:

Sec. 5.6. The district may make and enforce within its boundaries, including both unincorporated and incorporated territory, if any, all necessary and proper ordinances and regulations for:

(a) The protection, control and maintenance of natural and artificial watercourses, drainage structures, dams, reservoirs, levees, water distribution and conservation facilities and rights-of-way therefor or appurtenant thereto.

(b) All other flood control and water conservation purposes consistent with this act and not in conflict with the laws of this state.

SEC. 8. Section 5 7 is added to the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951), to read·

Sec. 5 7. Any violation of an ordinance or regulation of the district is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100), or imprisonment not to exceed 30 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any such violation or threatened violation may also be enjoined by civil suit.

SEC. 9. Section 6.1 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read:

Sec. 6.1. As provided in this section, the board ~~shall~~ may appoint a commission consisting of five (5) members who shall be residents of the County of Contra Costa. The board may delegate any or all of its powers to the commission. The board may by resolution provide for compensation for services and payment of the actual necessary expenses incurred by said members in the performance of official duties under this act, payable from the funds of the district. Members of the commission shall serve four (4) year terms and may be replaced or reappointed by the board at the completion of their term. Terms shall be staggered so that not less than one nor more than two commissioners are to be regularly appointed in any one year All vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of the commissioner whose office is vacant in the same manner as such commissioner received appointment, except that the board of supervisors shall allocate each office on the commission to a supervisorial district and appointments to any vacancy in such office shall be made by the supervisor then representing such supervisorial district.

When the board of supervisors has delegated any or all of its powers to the commission, the terms "board" and "board of supervisors" mean the commission. The commission may, by resolution, certified to by the chairman of the commission, take action with reference to any and all matters which have been delegated to it by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Contra Costa

SEC. 10. Section 6 2 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read.

Sec. 6 2. Upon the formation of each zone pursuant to the provisions of this act, the board of supervisors shall appoint a zone advisory board composed of five resident electors of, or owner of real property within, said zone Said zone advisory board shall be consulted by the board of supervisors or the commissioners of the district in all matters affecting such zone ~~and no action relating to such matters shall be taken by either or both of said bodies until a report on the proposed action shall have been made by the zone advisory board. Said report by said zone advisory board shall be made within 30 days after delivery to each of its members of a statement of proposed zone action and request for a report thereon by said zone advisory board~~.

The board may appoint drainage area advisory boards for each drainage area composed of resident electors of, or owners of real property within, each such drainage area.

SEC 11. Section 7 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read:

Sec 7. The county counsel, district attorney, county surveyor, county assessor, county tax collector, county clerk, county auditor, purchasing agent and county treasurer of the County of Contra Costa, and their successors in office, and all their assistants, deputies, clerks and employees, and all other officers of said Contra Costa County, their assistants, deputies, clerks and employees, shall be ex officio officers, assistants, deputies, clerks and employees, respectively, of the district, and shall respectively perform, unless otherwise provided by the board, the same various duties for the district as for said Contra Costa County, in order to carry out the provisions of this act

All such officers, deputies, clerks and employees shall receive their actual necessary expenses in the performance of official duties under this act payable from the funds of the district The board by resolution may make provision to fully compensate the county counsel for all costs of providing extraordinary legal services to the district Officers, assistants, deputies, clerks and employees of the district may, without prejudice to their rights, be transferred to the service of the County of Contra Costa

SEC 12. Section 11 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read·

Sec 11 The board may institute projects for single zones and joint projects for two or more zones, for the financing, constructing, maintaining, operating, extending, repairing or otherwise improving any work or improvement of common benefit to such zone or participating zones For the purpose of acquiring authority to proceed with any such project, the board shall adopt a resolution specifying its intention to undertake such project, together with the engineering estimates of the cost of same to be borne by the particular zone and in the case of participating zones the proportionate cost to be borne by each of the participating zones and fixing a time and place for public hearing of said resolution and which shall refer to a map or maps showing the general location and general construction of said project. Notice of such hearing shall be given for a period of not less than twenty (20) days. If there is a newspaper of general circulation published or circulated in the territory proposed to be formed into a zone, notice shall be given by publication pursuant to Section 6066 of the Government Code If there is no newspaper published or circulated in the territory, then such publication shall be made in a newspaper of general circulation which the board determines most likely to give notice to residents of the territory. Publication shall be complete at least seven (7) days before said hearing If the exterior boundaries of such a proposed zone will include lands lying within the exterior boundaries of any chartered or incorporated city within the district, the board of supervisors shall submit to the governing body of such cities, a copy of the resolution specifying its intention to form such a zone and undertake such project. Such resolution shall be forwarded to any affected city at least 20 days before the date set for the public hearing.

At the time and place fixed for the hearing, or at any time to which said hearing may be continued ~~,~~, the board shall consider all written and oral objections to the proposed project. Upon the conclusion of the hearing the board may abandon the proposed project or proceed with the same, unless prior to the conclusion of said hearing either (1) a written protest against the proposed project signed by a majority in number of the holders of title to real property, or assessable rights therein, or evidence of title thereto, representing one-half or more of the assessed valuation of the real property within such zone or within any of the participating zones for which said project was initiated, be filed with the board, in which event further proceedings relating to such project must be suspended for not less than six months following the date of the conclusion of said hearing, or said proceeding may be abandoned in the discretion of the board ; or (2) a written petition for an election signed by at least 25 percent of the registered voters within such zone or within any of the participating zones for which the project was initiated, be filed with the board, in which event the board shall by resolution call a special election within such zone or zones for the purpose of determining whether the board shall proceed with such project. In such latter event, in all particulars not recited in such resolution, such special election shall be held as nearly as practicable in conformity with the general election laws of the state, and if a majority of the votes cast at such special election are against proceeding with such project further proceedings relating to such project must be suspended for not less than six months following the date of the election, or such proceeding may be abandoned in the discretion of the board .

In all matters in this section referred to, the last equalized assessment roll of the County of Contra Costa next preceding the filing of the protest shall be prima facie evidence as to the ownership of real property, the names and number of the persons who are the holders of title or evidence of title, or assessable rights therein, and as to the assessed valuation of real property within the zone or within any of the participating zones for which the project was initiated.

Executors, administrators, special administrators, and guardians may sign the protest provided for in this act on behalf of the estate represented by them. If the property is assessed in the name of such representatives, that fact shall establish the right of such representatives to sign the protest; if assessed in the name of the decedent, minor or incompetent person, certified copies of the letters or such other evidence as may be satisfactory to the board must be produced

Where real property appears to be owned in common or jointly or by a partnership, or where letters of representatives of decedents, minors or guardians are joint, only one of the owners or representatives or partners may sign the protest for all joint owners or representatives or partners; provided, the party claiming the right to protest for all produces the written consent of his coowners or representatives or partners so to do, duly acknowledged by the consenting coowners or representatives or partners in the manner that deeds of real property are required to be acknowledged to entitle such deeds to be recorded in the recorder's office of the county

Where real property is assessed in the name of a trustee or trustees, such trustee or trustees shall be deemed to be the person entitled to sign the protest, and if assessed in the name of more than one trustee the right to sign the protest shall be determined in like manner as above provided with respect to coowners.

The protest of any public or quasi-public corporation, private corporation or unincorporated association, may be signed by any person authorized by the board of directors or trustees or other managing body thereof, which authorization shall be in writing; and a proxy executed by an officer or officers thereof, attested by its seal and duly acknowledged, shall constitute sufficient evidence of such authority, and shall be filed with the board.

The owner of any real property or interest therein, appearing upon the assessment roll, which has been assessed in the wrong name or to unknown owners, or which has passed from the owner appearing as such on the last equalized assessment roll, since the same was made, shall be entitled to sign the protest represented thereby, either by the production of a proxy from such former owner, or by furnishing evidence of his ownership by a conveyance duly acknowledged showing the title to be vested in the person claiming the right to sign the protest, accompanied by a certificate of a competent searcher of titles, certifying that a search of the official records of the county, since the date of the conveyance, discloses no conveyance or transfer out from the grantee or transferee named in the conveyance.

Where the real property has been contracted to be sold, the vendee shall be entitled to sign the protest, unless such real property is assessed in the name of the vendor, in which event the vendor shall be entitled to so do.

The board shall likewise be entitled to inquire and take evidence for the purpose of identifying any person claiming the right to sign the protest as being the person shown on the assessment roll or otherwise as entitled thereto. And, unless satisfactory evidence is furnished, the right to sign said protest may be denied.

"SEC. 20. Section 13 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read:

Sec. 13. (1) Whenever the board determines that a bonded indebtedness should be incurred to pay the cost of any work or improvement in any zone or zones, the board may by resolution, determine and declare the respective amounts of bonds necessary to be issued in each zone in order to raise the amount of money necessary for each work or improvement and the denomination and the maximum rate of interest of said bonds The board shall cause a copy of the resolution, duly certified by the clerk, to be filed for record in the Office of the Recorder of Contra Costa County within five days after its issuance. From and after said filing of said copy of said resolution the board shall be deemed vested with the authority to proceed with the bond election.

(2) After the filing for record of the resolution specified in subdivision (1) of this section, the board may call a special bond election in said zone or participating zones at which shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said zone or participating zones the question whether or not bonds shall be issued in the amount or amounts determined in said resolution and for the purpose or purposes therein stated. Said bonds and the interest thereon shall be paid from revenue derived from annual taxes or assessments levied as provided in this act.

(3) Said board shall call such special bond election by ordinance and not otherwise and submit to the qualified electors of said zone or participating zones, the proposition of incurring a bonded debt in said zone or participating zones in the amount and for the purposes stated in said resolution and shall recite therein the objects and purposes for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred, provided, that it shall be sufficient to give a brief, general description of such objects and purposes, and refer to the recorded copy of such resolution adopted by said board, and on file for particulars; and said ordinance shall also state the estimated cost of the proposed work and improvements, the amount of the principal of the indebtedness to be incurred therefor, and the maximum rate of interest to be paid on said indebtedness, and shall fix the date on which such special election shall be held, and the form and contents of the ballot to be used The rate of interest to be paid on such indebtedness shall not exceed ~~five percent (5%)~~ 7 percent (7%) per annum For the purposes of said election, said board shall in said ordinance establish special bond election precincts within the boundaries of each zone and participating zone and may form election precincts by consolidating the precincts established for general elections in said district to a number not exceeding six general precincts for each such special bond election precinct, and shall designate a polling place and appoint one inspector, one judge and one clerk for each of such special bond election precincts.

In all particulars not recited in said ordinance, such special bond election shall be held as nearly as practicable in conformity with the general election laws of the state

Said board shall cause a map or maps to be prepared covering a general description of the work to be done, which said map shall show the location of the proposed works and improvements and shall cause the said map to be posted in a prominent place in the county courthouse for public inspection for at least thirty (30) days before the date fixed for such election.

Said ordinance calling for such special bond election shall, prior to the date set for such election, be published pursuant to Section 6062 of the Government Code in a newspaper of general circulation circulated in each zone and participating zone affected The last publication of such ordinance must be at least fourteen (14) days before said election, and if there be no such newspaper, then such ordinance shall be posted in five public places designated by the board, in each zone and participating zone for at least thirty (30) days before the date fixed for such election No other notice of such election need be given nor need polling placecards be issued.

Any defect or irregularity in the proceedings prior to the calling of such special bond election shall not affect the validity of the bonds authorized by said election. Where a project affects a single zone only, if at such election two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of the votes cast in said zone on the proposition of incurring a bonded indebtedness are in favor thereof, then bonds for such zone for the amount stated in such proceedings shall be issued and sold as in this act provided Where the incurring of bonded indebtedness by participating zones is to be determined at such election, no bonds for any of such participating zones shall be issued or sold unless two-thirds (⅔) of the votes cast on the proposition in each such participating zone are in favor of incurring the bonded indebtedness to be undertaken by such zone.

SEC. 21. Section 14 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read:

Sec. 14. The board shall, subject to the provisions of this act, prescribe by resolution the form of said bonds, which must include a designation of the zone or participating zone affected, and of the interest coupons attached thereto. Said bonds shall be payable annually or semiannually at the discretion of the board each and every year on a day and date, and at a place to be fixed by said board, and designated in such bonds, together with the interest on all sums unpaid on such date until the whole of said indebtedness shall have been paid

The board may divide the principal amount of any issue into two or more series and fix different dates for the bonds of each series. The bonds of one series may be made payable at different times from those of any other series. The maturity of each series shall comply with this section. The board may fix a date, not more than two years from the date of issuance, for the earliest maturity of each issue or series of bonds Beginning with the date of the earliest maturity of each issue or series, not less than one-fortieth of the indebtedness of such issue or series shall be paid every year. The final maturity date shall not exceed 40 years from the time of incurring the indebtedness evidenced by each issue or series.

The bonds shall be issued in such denomination as the board may determine, except that no bonds shall be of a less denomination than one hundred dollars ($100), nor of a greater denomination than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and shall be payable on the days and at the place fixed in said bonds, and with interest at the rate specified in such bonds, which rate shall not be in excess of ~~five per centum (5%)~~ 7 percent (7%) per annum, and shall be made payable annually or semiannually, and said bonds shall be numbered consecutively and shall be signed by the chairman of the board, and countersigned by the auditor of said district, and the seal of said district shall be affixed thereto by the clerk of the board. Either or both such signatures may be printed, engraved or lithographed The interest coupons of said bonds shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the said auditor by his printed, engraved or lithographed signature In case any such officers whose signatures or countersignatures appear on the bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds to the purchaser, such bonds and coupons, and signatures or countersignatures shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if such officer had remained in office until the delivery of the bonds

SEC 22. Section 18 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read·

See 18. The provisions of law of this state, prescribing the time and manner of levying, assessing, equalizing and collecting county property taxes, including the sale of property for delinquency, and the redemption from such sale, and the duties of the several county officers with respect thereto, are, so far as they are applicable, and not in conflict with the specific provisions of this act, hereby adopted and made a part hereof. Such officers shall be liable upon their several official bonds for the faithful discharge of the duties imposed upon them by this act. All property exempt from taxation for county purposes under the provisions of the Revenue and Taxation Code of the State of California is exempt from taxation for the purposes of this act. Property used for free public libraries and free museums, ~~growing crops,~~ property used exclusively for public schools, and such as may belong to this state, or to any county, city and county, or municipal corporation within this state shall be exempt from assessment, except such lands and the improvements thereon located outside of the county, city and county or municipal corporation owning the same as were subject to taxation at the time of the acquisition of the same by said county, city and county, or municipal corporation; provided, that no improvements of any character whatever constructed by any county, city and county or municipal corporation shall be subject to assessment.

SEC. 23. Section 18.5 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read:

Sec 18 5. (a) The total amount of taxes and assessments levied on property within any zone shall not exceed twenty cents ($0.20) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, exclusive of the amounts necessary for interest and redemption of any bonds voted within such zone or any taxes and assessments levied for drainage areas pursuant to Section 12 4 ; except a special tax may be levied in a subzone, zone or participating zone as provided in subdivision 3 of Section ~~12.3~~ 12 of this act to meet contractual obligations with another governmental body, if, at an election held in such subzone, zone or participating zone, in the same manner as a bond election, the proposed imposition of special tax is approved by a majority of the votes cast on such proposition.

(b) The board shall have power, in any year, to levy taxes or assessments pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section upon all property within any zone or subzone with an adopted project to pay for work authorized pursuant to subdivision 17 of Section 5. Further, a special tax or assessment not to exceed two cents ($0 02) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation may be levied in addition to the total twenty cents ($0 20) of taxes and assessments on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation specified in subdivision (a) of this section to pay for work authorized by subdivision 17 of Section 5

SEC. 24. Section 19 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is repealed.

~~SEC. 19. Notwithstanding Title 5, Division 2, Part 1, Chapter 8, of the Government Code, the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District is validly created for the purposes of assessment and taxation. The creation of any zone in the district shall~~

~~not be effective for purposes of assessment or taxation for the Fiscal Year 1951-1952 and shall not be effective for such purposes for any fiscal year thereafter unless the statement and map or plat required by Title 5, Division 2, Part 1, Chapter 8, of the Government Code are filed with the county assessor and the State Board of Equalization on or before the first of February of the year in which the assessments or taxes are to be levied. Until such time as the creation of any zone shall be effective for purposes of assessment or taxation, any tax or assessment levied by the board shall be levied at a uniform rate on all property in the district.~~

~~For the Fiscal Year 1951-1952, but for no other fiscal year, notwithstanding Section 18 of this act, the assessment and equalization of property for the purpose of district taxation shall be effected as provided in this section.~~

~~Assessments of the district for the Fiscal Year 1951-1952 are liens on the property the same as if they were county taxes, except that the district assessment liens attach as of noon on the day after this act becomes effective.~~

~~It is presumed that the assessments of property made by the county assessor and by the State Board of Equalization for county taxation purposes for the Fiscal Year 1951-1952 are the correct assessments for purposes of assessment by the district and the rolls prepared by the county assessor and the State Board of Equalization shall be used for purposes of levying and collecting the assessments for the district. If the ownership or taxable situs or value of any property changes between noon on the first Monday in March, 1951, and the date on which attaches the lien for assessments of the district for the Fiscal Year 1951-1952, then, on petition of the taxpayer affected to the assessing authority, suitable entry shall be made on the assessment roll, in the manner prescribed by the State Board of Equalization, to indicate such change in the ownership or taxability or value of the property for purposes of assessment by the district.~~

~~In equalizing the assessments made by the county assessor, the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County, sitting as the county board of equalization, in addition to its regular equalization duties, shall also, in the same manner and under the same rules, equalize the valuation of property for purposes of assessment by the district in accordance with the requirements of this section and any such changes made by the county board of equalization in the assessment roll shall be entered in the manner prescribed by the State Board of Equalization.~~

~~If, for purposes of assessments by the district, a change in the assessment for county taxation purposes is not sought under this section before the end of the period during which such assessment may be equalized, or corrected on a petition for reassessment, such assessment, if valid for county taxation purposes, is conclusively presumed to be the correct assessment for assessment purposes of the district.~~

~~The board may prescribe by ordinance any necessary procedure, in accordance with the policy of this act, for the purpose of assessing, equalizing, levying, and collecting taxes or assessments for the district~~

~~for the Fiscal Year 1951-1952. Except as provided in this section, Section 18 of this act is applicable to the assessment and equalization of property for the purpose of district assessments for the Fiscal Year 1951-1952.~~

SEC 25. Section 19 is added to the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951), to read:

Sec. 19. Any storm drain maintenance district organized in Contra Costa County under the Storm Drain Maintenance District Act (Chapter 265 of the Statutes of 1937) or zone established under the Contra Costa County Storm Drainage District Act (Chapter 1532 of the Statutes of 1953) may be converted into a drainage area in the manner provided by Sections 19.1, 19.2, 19.3, and 19.4 of this act.

SEC 26. Section 19.1 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is repealed

~~SEC. 19.1. A zone formed or proposed to be formed under this act, or the acquisition of any property or the construction of any improvement thereby, shall not be subject to any of the provisions of the District Investigation Law of 1933.~~

SEC. 27. Section 19.1 is added to the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951), to read:

Sec 19.1. Proceedings for the conversion of a storm drain maintenance district or Contra Costa County Storm Drainage District zone into a drainage area may be commenced by the board by the adoption of a resolution which shall:

(a) State the name and the boundaries of the district or zone proposed to be converted and the name or number and the boundaries of the drainage area proposed to be established

(b) State that a tax may be levied pursuant to Section 12.4 to pay for services or works of improvement furnished within such area after due allowance has been made for existing unencumbered funds standing to the credit of the district or zone in the county treasury.

(c) Fix a time and place for a public hearing on the conversion which shall not be less than 30 nor more than 60 days after the adoption of the resolution.

SEC 28. Section 19.2 is added to the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951), to read:

Sec 19.2. Notice of the conversion hearing shall be given in the same manner and within the same time as provided for the giving of notice of a hearing on a resolution of intention to establish a drainage area

The notice shall:

(a) Contain the text of the resolution

(b) State the time and place for hearing

(c) State that at the hearing the testimony of all interested persons or taxpayers for or against the conversion will be heard.

SEC. 29. Section 19.3 is added to the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951), to read:

Sec 19.3. At the hearing protests against the conversion may be made orally or in writing by any interested persons or taxpayers. The hearing may be continued from time to time, but must be completed within 30 days. At the conclusion of the hearing the board of supervisors may abandon the proceedings or may, after passing upon all protests, by resolution order the district or zone converted into a drainage area. The conversion shall be effective immediately upon the adoption of the resolution, subject only to compliance with the requirements of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 54900), Part 1, Division 2, Title 5 of the Government Code Upon conversion any unencumbered funds standing to the credit of the district or zone in the county treasury shall be transferred to the credit of the newly established drainage area, and all indebtedness of the district or zone shall become indebtedness of the drainage area Upon conversion of a district or zone, the right, title and interest to any property owned or controlled by, or held for the district or zone, or for the benefit of the district or zone shall vest absolutely in the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District to be used for the benefit of the drainage area unless otherwise specified in the resolution of conversion

SEC 30. Section 19.4 is added to the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951), to read:

Sec 19.4. From and after the adoption of a resolution of conversion in accordance with Section 19 3, the newly established drainage area may levy, collect, and expend taxes and assessments as provided by Section 12.4 of this act.

SEC 31. Section 22 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read:

Sec 22. All contracts for any improvement or unit of work when the cost thereof according to the estimate of the engineer, will exceed ~~five~~ ten thousand dollar ~~($5,000)~~ ($10,000), shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders in the manner hereinafter provided. The board shall first determine whether such contract shall be let as a single unit for the whole of the work, or shall be divided into severable convenient parts, or both, according to the best interests of the district. The board shall make call for bids and advertise such call by three (3) insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two (2) insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in said district inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work before any contract is made therefor. Such call for bids shall state whether such work is to be performed as a unit for the whole thereof or shall be divided into severable convenient specific parts, or both, as stated in the call The board may let such work by single contract for the whole thereof as a unit or it may divide such work into severable convenient parts by separate contracts, as stated in such call, according to the best interests of the district. The board shall require the successful bidder or bidders to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of their claims for labor and material in connection therewith, such bonds to contain the terms and conditions set forth in ~~Title 1, Division 5, Chapter 3 of the Government Code~~ Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 3247) of Title 15 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code and to be subject to the provisions of that chapter The board shall also have the right to reject any and all bids. In the event no proposals are received pursuant to advertisement therefor, or the estimated cost of such work does not exceed the sum of ~~five~~ ten thousand dollars ~~($5,000)~~ ($10,000), or the work consists of channel protection, or maintenance work, or emergency work when necessary in order to protect life and property from impending flood damage, the board of supervisors may, without advertising for bids therefor, have said work done by day labor, under the direction of the board, by contract, or by a combination of the two The district shall have the power to acquire in the open market without advertising for bids therefor, materials, equipment and supplies for use in any work or for any other purpose; provided, however, that materials and supplies for use in any new construction work or improvement, except work referred to in the preceding sentence, may not be purchased if the cost thereof exceeds ~~two~~ five thousand ~~five hundred~~ dollars ~~($2,500)~~ ($5,000), without advertising for bids and awarding the contract therefor to the lowest responsible bidder

SEC 32 Section 27 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read:

Sec 27 Notwithstanding any provisions of this act to the contrary, the withdrawal of all the area lying within the exterior boundaries of any chartered or incorporated city from ~~the district~~ a zone may be effected by the vote of a majority of the qualified electors of said city voting at any regular or special election on the proposition to withdraw the area lying within such city from the ~~district~~ zone, where such zone's adopted project, if any, has been completed Said election shall in all particulars be held as provided by law for holding a municipal election in said city and the cost thereof shall be a city charge. The city council shall cause the results of the election to be certified to the board of supervisors of the ~~district~~ zone and if a majority of the votes cast on the proposition to withdraw such area from the ~~district~~ zone are in favor thereof, thereupon the area lying within the exterior boundaries of such city shall no longer be a part of the ~~district~~ zone ; provided, however, that the withdrawal of the area lying within the exterior boundaries of such city from the ~~district~~ zone shall not release the area so withdrawn from debts and obligations for or upon which it was liable or chargeable at the time such withdrawal was made.

SEC 33 Section 27 7 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is repealed

~~SEC. 27.7. Whenever the board determines that a zone has been formed and the boundaries thereof are not contiguous with the watershed line, and a new zone in the same area has been declared formed, the board may, upon giving the notice specified in Section 11 of this act, declare the first formed zone dissolved. Upon such dissolution, the territory contained within the zone first formed shall remain liable for any outstanding contract of such zone, or any bonded indebtedness which may have been voted in such zone.~~

SEC. 34. Section 31 of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1617 of the Statutes of 1951) is amended to read:

Sec 31. The legal title to all property acquired under the provisions of this act shall immediately and by operation of law vest in said district, and shall be held by said district, in trust for, and is hereby dedicated and set apart to, the uses and purposes set forth in this act. The board is hereby authorized and empowered to hold, use, acquire, manage, occupy and possess said property, as herein provided; and said board may determine, by resolution duly entered in their minutes that any property, real or personal, held by said district is no longer necessary to be retained for the uses and purposes thereof, and may thereafter sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said property in the manner prescribed by law for such action by counties ; provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may grant an easement or permit for use of any real property of the district to the state, or to any county, city, district, or public agency or corporation, or to any public utility corporation, upon such terms and conditions as the board sees fit, upon a finding by the board that the interest in land conveyed is in the public interest and will not substantially conflict or interfere with the use of such property by the district for the purpose for which it was acquired

The board may by resolution vacate or abandon easements for flood control or drainage purposes whenever it determines that they are no longer required for public use."

WITHDRAWAL AND RE-REFERENCE OF ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 1621

Acting Speaker Fenton was granted unanimous consent that Assembly Bill No. 1621 be withdrawn from the Committee on Education, and re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Mr Thomas was granted unanimous consent that the following letters of transmittal be printed in the Journal:

Joint Legislative Audit Committee

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California

Sirs: We herewith transmit a report on the review of the program budget format of the Department of Rehabilitation prepared by the Auditor General. The program budget should be a prime legislative tool in monitoring and modifying the plans and activities of the executive branch.

The purpose of this review has been to evaluate the format of the Department of Rehabilitation's $60 million program budget to determine whether it provides the kind of information which would make it the effective tool that it should be, and whether the information contained in the budget would be worthwhile to submit to the scrutiny of a legislative post audit.

The department's program budget, reputed to be one of the best in the state, was found to be lacking in the following respects:

Its main program, Vocational Rehabilitation of the Disabled, was not well defined in that it included program elements, such as Rehabilitation for Daily living, which have goals other than vocational rehabilitation.

The same program contained a Basic Vocational Rehabilitation Process element which was subdivided into components representing major disability groups: physically disabled, mentally ill, alcoholics, mentally retarded, behavior disorders, and sensory disorders. These element components gave the appearance of representing separate controllable activities when, in fact, this was not true.

The program budget lacked any meaningful measures of program effectiveness.

The numbers of the various types of disabled people in need of rehabilitation are not given or compared with the number the department is actually serving.

Benefit-cost analyses are included in the budget, but they do not compare the relative worth of anything that the department or the Legislature has any control over These analyses should compare the value of alternative approaches to achieving the same goals.

The department has not taken exception to any of the concepts presented in the report. If the recommendations are followed, the Department of Rehabilitation will have a model program budget suitable for other state agencies to follow. A revised program budget will give the Legislature a sound basis for analyzing and evaluating the extent, direction, and value of department programs. It will also provide a suitable document to use for legislative post auditing.

Respectfully submitted,

VINCENT THOMAS, Chairman
Joint Legislative Audit Committee

Above report referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California

Sirs: We herewith transmit a report on the audit of the data processing operations of the State Teachers' Retirement System (STRS) performed by the Office of the Auditor General. The objective of the audit was to evaluate the effectiveness and efficiency of the data processing operation which has an annual budget of $483,000 for the fiscal year 1971–72.

STRS obtains computer services from the Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS) data processing service center (DPSC). It also maintains an in-house programming staff, key punch section, and electric accounting machine (EAM) unit in its EDP division.

The audit found that the EDP resources are not being utilized most effectively and efficiently within STRS and that the situation is presently opportune to consolidate STRS' EDP resources with those of PERS. Maximum annual savings of $46,000 would result from the conversion of EAM applications to the computer and the consolidation of STRS' key punch operation with that of PERS.

The present systems and programming efforts are adequate, but they lack the formalization necessary for a successful implementation of systems and programs. There is a definite need for a uniform approach in developing and establishing control of systems and programming documentation.

A good long-range plan exists in STRS. However, the means for updating this plan and for evaluating future plans are not provided for in the present organization.

The organization also does not provide for an adequate means of enforcing the reporting requirements for contributions by the counties. STRS therefore is unable to ascertain the accuracy of the members' records until the members retire or terminate the system by other means. The report recommends the creation of a strong internal auditing unit to provide for management control and compliance enforcement.

Departmental-user control exists between STRS and the PERS-DPSC. However, user control is deficient within STRS at the various batching stations which should be directly responsible for establishing the original control of data.

As a result of a legislative request, STRS is currently participating in a feasibility study for a Fiscal and Personnel DPSC to provide services to the participating agencies of EDP Consolidation Group Four

The report contains 37 recommendations in the areas of organization, systems effort, and data processing operations. STRS has concurred with all of the reported findings and has already taken action to implement most of the recommendations. The recommendations pertaining to the placement of personnel or precesses at specific points in the organization are being considered by STRS in light of other management activities—primarily the development of the Consolidation Group Four implementation plan.

Respectfully submitted,

VINCENT THOMAS, Chairman
Joint Legislative Audit Committee

Above report referred to the Committee on Efficiency and Cost Control.
