Lord, We come before you to give thanks.

We give thanks for another day and for this day of celebration of the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. We ask You for the wisdom to continue the work of Dr. King—wisdom to address issues of poverty, to stamp out injustice where it exists, to live the principles of non-violence, and to prevent violence in all forms.

Lord, we ask You to guide us.

Guide us in how we interact with one another, and in all others see a sister or brother. Guide us to challenge racism, prejudice or hate in any form, and to replace it with love, respect, and mutual understanding.

As we harken to Dr. King's words, that anyone can be great because anyone can serve, we ask You to guide us to serve Your people well in our communities, our state, our nation, and our world.

All these things we pray in Your name. May the Lord bless us and keep us.—AMEN.
