(1) The date escrow closes for sales by dealers which are subject to Section 18035 or 18035.2.

(2) For sales other than sales by dealers, the date when the purchaser has paid the purchase price or, in lieu thereof, has signed a security agreement or purchase contract and has taken physical possession or delivery of the manufactured home or mobilehome.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, whenever the balance in the Mobilehome Recovery Fund exceeds one million dollars ($1,000,000) on January 1 of any year, the department may reduce the fee provided for in subdivision (c) of Section 18070.1. The department may again increase the fee up to a maximum of ten dollars ($10) whenever the balance in the fund falls below one million dollars ($1,000,000).

18070.3. (a) When any person who has purchased a mobilehome for a personal, family, or household residential purpose obtains a final judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction against any mobilehome dealer, salesperson, or other seller on the grounds of failure to honor warranties or guarantees, or for fraud, or for willful misrepresentation of the kind or quality of the product sold, arising directly out of any transaction which occurs on or after January 1, 1985, the person, upon termination of all proceedings including appeals, may file a claim with the department for an order directing payment out of the fund of the amount of actual and direct loss in the transaction, including court costs and reasonable attorney fees not to exceed 15 percent of the judgment, which remains unpaid upon the judgment. Nothing in this section shall obligate the fund for more than forty thousand dollars ($40,000) or the amount of the judgment, whichever is less, with respect to any one sales transaction on a new mobilehome, or twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or the amount of the judgment, whichever is less, with respect to any one sales transaction on a used mobilehome. No person applying for recovery from the fund shall apply for judgment on any bond issued prior to January 1, 1985.

(b) Prior to payment of any claim against the fund, the claimant shall have first executed judgment against all the assets of the judgment debtor or present evidence satisfactory to the department that the debtor is judgment proof.

(c) A claim against the fund shall be filed with the department within one year from the date of the judgment.

(d) When any person files a claim for an order directing payment from the fund, the department shall conduct a review of the application, and it may issue an order directing payment out of the fund as provided in subdivision (a), subject to the limitations of subdivision (a), if the judgment creditor shows all of the following:

(1) That he or she is not a spouse of the judgment debtor or a person representing the spouse.

(2) That he or she is making an application not more than one year after the judgment was entered.

(3) That the claimant has executed judgment against all assets of the judgment debtor or has presented evidence satisfactory to the department that the judgment debtor is judgment proof.

(e) Upon an order of the department directing that payment be made out of the fund, the Controller is authorized to draw a warrant for the payment of the judgment.

18070.4. The judgment debtor shall be liable for repayment in full for the amount arising from claims against the debtor which are paid from the fund, with interest at the prevailing prime rate. A discharge in bankruptcy shall not relieve a person from the disabilities and penalties of this section.

SEC. 5. Sections 1 to 3, inclusive, of this act shall become operative January 1, 1986.

CHAPTER 1443

An act to add and repeal Section 65852.8 of the Government Code, relating to zoning, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that manufactured housing offers Californians the opportunity to own and live in decent, safe, and affordable housing on a permanent basis. The Legislature further finds that the enactment of Chapter 1142 of the Statutes of 1980 and Chapter 974 of the Statutes of 1981 made significant changes relating to the zoning of property for mobilehomes, and that any failure of local communities to implement the provisions of those statutes limits the opportunity for Californians to live in mobilehomes on lots zoned for residential land use or for single-family housing.

SEC. 2. Section 65852.8 is added to the Government Code, to read:

65852.8. (a) The Department of Housing and Community Development shall conduct a study on the implementation of Chapter 1142 of the Statutes of 1980 and Chapter 974 of the Statutes of 1981 by cities, counties, and cities and counties, and report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature by December 31, 1985. In developing the scope and methodology for the study, the Department of Housing and Community Development shall consult with representatives of the mobilehome industry, local government, financial institutions, and the Legislature.

(b) The study shall provide information which addresses, but is not limited to, the following questions:

(1) How many cities, counties, and cities and counties have designated lots zoned for single-family dwellings for mobilehomes?

(2) What is the approximate amount of vacant land on which cities, counties, and cities and counties are permitting the installation of mobilehomes?

(3) To what degree are cities, counties, and cities and counties changing zoning to multifamily lots to avoid implementation of Chapter 1142 of the Statutes of 1980?

(4) To what degree are cities, counties, and cities and counties designating lots within zones to avoid implementation of Chapter 1142 of the Statutes of 1980?

(5) To what degree have manufactured houses been located on single-family lots?

(6) To what degree have proposals been denied for the construction of mobilehome parks on lands zoned for residential use? What is the reason for those denials?

(7) To what degree have proposals for the construction of mobilehome parks on lands zoned for residential use been submitted to planning departments and at what density per acre? Approximately how many ultimately have received formal hearings by zoning agencies of cities, counties, and cities and counties?

(8) To what degree have proposals for the construction of mobilehome parks been denied whereby the park would have been situated on land designated by the general plan as residential, but not currently zoned for residential use?

(c) Based on the findings of the study conducted pursuant to this section, the Department of Housing and Community Development shall make recommendations to the Legislature for changes in the provisions of Chapter 1142 of the Statutes of 1980 and Chapter 974 of the Statutes of 1981.

(d) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1986, and as of January 1, 1987, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 3. The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) is hereby appropriated from the Mobilehome-Manufactured Home Revolving Fund to the Department of Housing and Community Development for the purposes of Section 65852.8 of the Government Code.

An act to amend Sections 11342, 11346.53, 11346.7, and 11347.3 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 1 of Chapter 1083 of the Statutes of 1983, relating to administrative regulations, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of Chapter 1083 of the Statutes of 1982 is amended to read:

Section 1. The Legislature finds and declares that:

(1) Laws and regulations designed for application to large scale entities have been applied uniformly to small businesses even though the problems that gave rise to government action may not have been caused by those smaller businesses.

(2) Uniform state regulatory and reporting requirements have in numerous instances imposed unnecessary and disproportionately burdensome demands, including legal, accounting and consulting costs, upon small businesses with limited resources.

(3) The practice of treating all regulated businesses as equivalents may lead to inefficient use of regulatory agency resources, enforcement problems, and, in some cases, to actions inconsistent with health, safety, environmental and economic welfare legislation enacted by the Legislature.

(4) Alternative regulatory approaches which do not conflict with the stated objectives of applicable statutes may be available which minimize the significant economic impact of rules upon small businesses.

(5) Therefore, it is the purpose of this act, which shall be known as the Small Business Regulatory Fairness Act, to establish a principle of regulatory practice whereby agencies shall endeavor, consistent with the objectives of the regulation and of applicable statutes, to fit regulatory and informational requirements to the scale of the businesses subject to regulation.

(6) It is also the intent of the Legislature that the duties and responsibilities provided for in Section 11346.53, in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of, and in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of, Section 11346.7 relating to small businesses shall be accomplished by utilizing existing staff resources and that no additional funding be provided other than that which is appropriated by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 2. Section 11342 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11342. In this chapter unless otherwise specifically indicated:

(a) "State agency" and "agency" does not include an agency in the judicial or legislative departments of the state government.

(b) "Regulation" means every rule, regulation, order, or standard of general application or the amendment, supplement or revision of any such rule, regulation, order or standard adopted by any state agency to implement, interpret, or make specific the law enforced or administered by it, or to govern its procedure, except one which relates only to the internal management of the state agency. "Regulation" does not mean or include legal rulings of counsel issued by the Franchise Tax Board or State Board of Equalization, or any form prescribed by a state agency or any instructions relating to the use of the form, but this provision is not a limitation upon any requirement that a regulation be adopted pursuant to this part when one is needed to implement the law under which the form is issued.

(c) "Order of repeal" means any resolution, order or other official act of a state agency which expressly repeals a regulation in whole or in part.

(d) "Office" means the Office of Administrative Law.

(e) "Small business" means:

(1) A business activity, unless excluded in paragraph (2), that is all of the following:

(A) Independently owned and operated.

(B) Not dominant in its field of operation.

(i) Agriculture, one million dollars ($1,000,000).

(ii) General construction, nine million five hundred thousand dollars ($9,500,000).

(iii) Special trade construction, five million dollars ($5,000,000).

(iv) Retail trade, two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(v) Wholesale trade, nine million five hundred thousand dollars ($9,500,000).

(vi) Services, two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(vii) Transportation and warehousing, one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000).

(D) A manufacturing enterprise not exceeding 250 employees.

(E) A health care facility not exceeding 150 beds or one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) in annual gross receipts.

(F) Generating and transmitting electric power not exceeding 4.5 million kilowatt hours annually.

(2) The following professional and business activities shall not be considered a small business for purposes of this act:

(A) Financial institutions including banks, trusts, savings and loan associations, thrift institutions, consumer and industrial finance companies, credit unions, mortgage and investment bankers, and stock and bond brokers.

(B) Insurance companies, both stock and mutual.

(C) Mineral, oil, and gas brokers; subdividers and developers.

(D) Landscape architects, architects, and building designers.

(E) Entities organized as nonprofit institutions.

(F) Entertainment activities and productions including motion pictures, stage performances, television and radio stations, and production companies.

(G) All utilities, water companies, and power transmission companies, except electrical power generating transmission companies providing less than 4.5 million kilowatt hours annually.

(H) All petroleum and natural gas producers, refiners and pipelines.

SEC. 3. Section 11346.53 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11346.53. (a) If a state agency in proposing to adopt or amend any administrative regulation, determines that such action may have a significant adverse economic impact on small business, it shall include the following information in the notice of proposed action:

(1) Identification of the types of small businesses that would be affected.

(2) A description of the projected reporting, recordkeeping and other compliance requirements that would result from the proposed action.

(3) The following statement: "The (name of agency) finds that the (adoption/amendment) of this regulation may have a significant adverse economic impact on small businesses. The (name of agency) (has/has not) considered proposed alternatives that would lessen any adverse economic impact on small business and invites you to submit such proposals. Submissions may include the following considerations:

"(A) The establishment of differing compliance or reporting requirements or timetables which take into account the resources available to small businesses.

"(B) Consolidation or simplification of compliance and reporting requirements for small businesses.

"(C) The use of performance standards rather than design standards.

"(D) Exemption or partial exemption from the regulatory requirements for small businesses."

(b) The state agency proposing to adopt or amend any regulation shall refer in the notice to any studies or relevant data which were relied upon in making the determination that the regulation has no adverse impact.

(c) If a state agency in adopting or amending any administrative regulation determines that such action will not have a significant adverse economic impact on small business, it shall make such a declaration in the notice of proposed action.

(d) An agency's determination and declaration that a proposed regulation may have or will not have a significant, adverse impact on small businesses shall not be grounds for the office to refuse to publish the notice of proposed action.

(e) A state agency shall also include in the notice of proposed action a statement of the potential cost impact of the proposed action on private persons or businesses directly affected, other than small businesses as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 11342, as considered by the agency during the regulatory development process. If the cost impact of the action is expected to be insignificant, or was not considered in the development process, the agency shall so indicate.

For purposes of this subdivision "cost impact" means the reasonable range of costs, or a description of the type and extent of costs, direct or indirect, which a representative private person or business necessarily incurs in reasonable compliance with the proposed action.

SEC. 4. Section 11346.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11346.7. Every agency subject to the provisions of this chapter shall:

(a) Prepare, submit to the office with the notice of the proposed action, and make available to the public upon request, a copy of the express terms of the proposed action as described in subdivision (b) of Section 11346.5, a list of the small business enterprises or their representatives to whom the notice of adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation will be mailed and an initial statement of reasons for proposing the adoption or amendment of a regulation. The statement shall include but not be limited to the following:

(1) A description of the public problem, administrative requirement, or other condition or circumstance the regulation is intended to address.

(2) A statement of the specific purpose of the regulation and the factual basis for the determination by the agency that the regulation is reasonably necessary to carry out the purpose for which it is proposed.

(3) An identification of each technical, theoretical, and empirical study, report, or similar document, if any, on which the agency is relying in proposing the adoption or amendment of a regulation.

(4) A description of any alternatives the agency has identified that would lessen any adverse impact on small businesses. It is not the intent of this subdivision to require the agency to artificially construct alternatives or to justify why it has not identified alternatives.

(b) Prepare and submit to the office with the adopted regulation a final statement of reasons which shall include all of the following:

(1) An update of the information contained in the initial statement of reasons.

(2) A determination as to whether the regulation imposes a mandate on local agencies or school districts. If the determination is that the regulation does contain a local mandate, the agency shall state whether the mandate is reimbursable pursuant to Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. If the agency finds that the mandate is not reimbursable it shall state the reasons for that finding.

(3) A summary of each objection or comment made regarding the regulation, together with an explanation of how the proposed regulation has been amended to accommodate each objection or comment, or the reasons for rejecting each objection or comment.

(4) An explanation setting forth the reasons for rejecting any proposed alternatives that would lessen the adverse economic impact on small businesses.

(c) Prepare and submit to the office with the adopted regulation an updated informative digest containing a clear and concise summary of the immediately preceding laws and regulations, if any, relating directly to the adopted, amended, or repealed regulation and the effect of the adopted, amended, or repealed regulation. The informative digest shall be drafted in a format similar to the Legislative Counsel's digest on legislative bills.

A state agency which adopts or amends a regulation mandated by federal law or regulations, the provisions of which are identical to a previously adopted or amended federal regulation, shall be deemed to have complied with the provisions of this section if a statement to the effect that a federally mandated regulation or amendment to a regulation is being proposed, together with a citation to where an explanation of the provisions of the regulation can be found, is included in the notice of proposed adoption or amendment prepared pursuant to Section 11346.5. However, the agency shall comply fully with the provisions of this chapter with respect to any provisions in the regulation which the agency proposes to adopt or amend which are different from the corresponding provisions of the federal

SEC. 5. Section 11347.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11347.3. (a) Every agency shall maintain a file of each rulemaking which shall be deemed to be the record for that rulemaking proceeding. The file shall include:

(1) Copies of any petitions received from interested persons proposing the adoption, amendment or repeal of the regulation.

(2) All published notices of proposed adoption, amendment, or repeal of the regulation, and an updated informative digest, the initial statement of reasons, and the final statement of reasons.

(3) The determination, together with the supporting data required by paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 11346.5.

(4) The determination, together with the supporting data required by subdivision (b) of Section 11346.53.

(5) The estimate, together with the supporting data and calculations, required by paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 11346.5 and Section 11346.51.

(6) All data and other factual information, any studies or reports, and written comments submitted to the agency in connection with the adoption, amendment, or repeal of the regulation.

(7) All data and other factual information, technical, theoretical, and empirical studies or reports, if any, on which the agency is relying in the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation, including any cost impact estimates as required by Section 11346.53.

(8) A transcript, recording or minutes of any public hearing connected with the adoption, amendment or repeal of the regulation.

(9) The date on which the agency made available to the public for 15 days prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of the regulation the full text as required by subdivision (c) of Section 11346.8 if the agency made changes to the regulation noticed to the public.

(10) The text of regulations as originally proposed and the modified text of regulations, if any, that were made available to the public prior to adoption.

(11) Any other information, statement, report or data which the agency is required by law to consider or prepare in connection with the adoption, amendment or repeal of a regulation.

(b) Every agency shall submit to the office with the adopted regulation, the rulemaking file or a complete copy of the rulemaking file. The rulemaking file or copy shall be accompanied by an index or table of contents which identifies each item contained in the rulemaking file. The index or table of contents shall include a sworn statement by the agency official who has compiled the rulemaking file, specifying the date upon which the record was closed, and that the file and the copy, if submitted, is complete.

(c) The file shall be available to the public, and to the courts in connection with the review of the regulation.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to correct technical errors in the California Small Business Regulatory Fairness Act, as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1445

An act to add Section 13009.1 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to fires and fire protection.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13009.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

13009.1. (a) Any person who negligently, or in violation of the law, sets a fire, allows a fire to be set, or allows a fire kindled or attended by him or her to escape onto any public or private property is liable for both of the following:

(1) The cost of investigating and making any reports with respect to the fire.

(2) The costs relating to accounting for that fire and the collection of any funds pursuant to Section 13009, including, but not limited to, the administrative costs of operating a fire suppression cost recovery program. The liability imposed pursuant to this paragraph is limited to the actual amount expended which is attributable to the fire, but not to exceed 10 percent of the amount recoverable pursuant to Section 13009.

(b) In any civil action brought for the recovery of costs provided in this section, the court in its discretion may impose the amount of liability for costs described in subdivision (a).

(c) The burden of proof as to liability shall be on the plaintiff and shall be by a preponderance of the evidence in an action alleging that the defendant is liable for costs pursuant to this section. The burden of proof as to the amount of costs recoverable shall be on the plaintiff and shall be by a preponderance of the evidence in any action brought pursuant to this section.

(d) Any testimony, admission, or any other statement made by the defendant in any proceeding brought pursuant to this section, or any evidence derived from the testimony, admission or other statement, shall not be admitted or otherwise used in any criminal proceeding arising out of the same conduct.

(e) The liability constitutes a debt of that person and is collectible by the person, or by the federal, state, county, public, or private agency, incurring those costs in the same manner as in the case of an obligation under a contract, expressed or implied.

CHAPTER 1446

An act to amend Section 4516.5 of, and to add Section 4516.6 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to forest practices.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

SECTION 1. Section 4516.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

4516.5. (a) Individual counties may recommend that the board adopt additional rules and regulations for the content of timber harvesting plans and the conduct of timber operations to take account of local needs. For purposes of this section, "timber operations" includes, but is not limited to, soil erosion control, protection of stream character and water quality, water distribution systems, flood control, stand density control, reforestation methods, mass soil movements, location and grade of roads and skid trails, excavation and fill requirements, slash and debris disposal, haul routes and schedules, hours and dates of logging, and performance bond or other reasonable surety requirements for onsite timber operations and for protection of publicly and privately owned roads that are part of the haul route. Where a bond or other surety has been required, the director shall not issue a work completion report without first ascertaining whether the county in which the timber operations were conducted has knowledge of any claims intended to be made on the bond or surety.

(b) The board shall, in conformance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and within 180 days after receiving recommended rules and regulations from a county, adopt rules and regulations for the content of timber harvesting plans and the conduct of timber operations consistent with the recommended rules and regulations, subject to Section 4551.5, if the board finds the recommended rules and regulations are both of the following:

(1) Consistent with the intent and purposes of this chapter.

(2) Necessary to protect needs and conditions of the county recommending them.

(c) The rules and regulations, if adopted by the board, shall apply only to the conduct of timber operations within the recommending county and shall be enforced and implemented by the department in the same manner as other rules and regulations adopted by the board.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (e), individual counties shall not otherwise regulate the conduct of timber operations, as defined by this chapter, or require the issuance of any permit or license for those operations.

(e) The board may delegate to individual counties its authority to require performance bonds or other surety for the protection of roads, in which case, the procedures and forms shall be the same as those used in similar circumstances in the county. The board may establish reasonable limits on the amount of performance bonds or other surety which may be required for any timber operation and criteria for the requirement, payment, and release of those bonds or other surety. If the county fails to inform the director of the claims within 30 days after the completion report has been filed, the bond or surety shall be released.

(f) This section does not apply to timber operations on any land area of less than three acres and which is not zoned timberland production.

SEC. 2. Section 4516.6 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

4516.6. (a) In order to provide for adequate public review and comment, notwithstanding Section 4582.7, the director shall not approve a timber harvesting plan in any county for which rules and regulations have been adopted pursuant to Section 4516.5 until 35 days from the date of filing of the plan, and timber operations shall not commence until five days from the date of approval of the plan. The board may provide, by regulation, for those periods to be waived or shortened by the department upon a determination, pursuant to criteria and procedures established by the board, that the proposed timber operations will cause no significant environmental damage or threat to public safety, or where the timber operations are necessary to reduce a threat to public safety, health, or general welfare. If the chairman of the board of supervisors of the county in which the proposed timber operations are located notifies the director and the plan submitter that the county intends to appeal the approval of the plan and that the county meets the requirements for filing an appeal, no timber operations shall occur until the final determination of the appeal. If the board of supervisors determines not to appeal the approval of the plan, it shall immediately notify the director and the plan submitter in writing of that determination, and timber operations pursuant to the plan may commence immediately.

(b) The board of supervisors of the county for which rules and regulations have been adopted pursuant to Section 4516.5 may, not later than 10 days after approval of the plan by the director, appeal that approval, provided the county (1) participated in the initial inspection of the plan area with the director and (2) participated in a multidisciplinary review of the plan. The board may establish procedures for filing an appeal and may specify findings which the board of supervisors is required to make in filing an appeal in order to demonstrate that a substantial issue is raised with respect to the environment or public safety.

(c) The board shall grant a hearing if it determines that the appeal raises substantial issues with respect to the environment or to public safety. The board, by regulation, may delegate this determination to its chairman.

(d) The board shall hold a public hearing within 30 days of filing of the appeal, or a longer period mutually agreed upon by the board, the county, and the plan submitter. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the board shall approve or deny the plan. The basis of the board's decision shall be conformance with the rules of the board, including any rules enacted with respect to the county pursuant to Section 4516.5, and the provisions of this chapter. In denying a plan, the board may make findings that set forth conditions under which it believes the plan would have been approved. The board may delegate conduct of the hearing and the decision to a committee of three members to be appointed for that hearing by the chairman of the board. The committee shall consist of at least two general public members of the board. The chairman of the board or the chairman's designee shall conduct the hearing. The decision of the committee shall have the full force of a decision of the full board.

(e) This section does not apply to timber operations on any land area of less than three acres and which is not zoned timberland production.

An act to amend Section 11450.1, to amend and repeal Sections 11008.13, 11008.14, 11157, 11158, 11267, 11308, 11450, 14005.8, and 14006 of, and to add and repeal Sections 11008.15 and 11257.5 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11008.13 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11008.13. To the same extent as required by federal law, and as otherwise consistent with other provisions of this chapter:

(a) The income and resources of a sponsor and his or her spouse shall be deemed as the income and resources of an alien who is an applicant for or recipient of aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200).

(b) Any alien applicant or recipient, whose sponsor is a public or private agency, shall be ineligible for aid under Chapter 2

(commencing with Section 11200) during the period of three years after his or her entry into the United States. However, this ineligibility shall cease when it is determined that the sponsoring agency no longer exists or is unable to meet the alien's needs.

(c) As a condition of eligibility, any individual who is an alien, during the period of three years after entry into the United States, shall be required to provide any information and documentation with respect to his or her sponsor as may be necessary in order to make any determination required under this section.

(d) If it is determined that as a result of a sponsor's failure to provide correct information an overpayment has been made to an alien, the alien and his or her sponsor shall be jointly and severally liable for repayments. Any such overpayment which is not repaid by the alien or sponsor shall be subject to recoupment pursuant to the provision of Section 11004.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to any alien who is:

(1) Admitted to the United States as a result of the application, prior to April 1, 1980, of the provisions of Section 203(a)(7) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

(2) Admitted to the United States as a result of the application, after March 31, 1980, of the provisions of Section 207(c)(1) of that act.

(3) Paroled into the United States as a refugee under Section 212(d)(5) of that act.

(4) Granted political asylum by the Attorney General under Section 208 of that act.

(5) A Cuban or Haitian entrant as defined in Section 501(e) of the Refugee Education Assistance Act of 1980.

This section shall be applied to all applicants for, and recipients of, aid under Chapter 2, (commencing with Section 11200), regardless of whether federal financial participation is available for the family.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1987, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 11008.13 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Section 5 of Chapter 3 of the Statutes of 1981–82 1st Extraordinary Session, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 2. Section 11008.14 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11008.14. To the same extent as required by federal law, the income of the natural or adoptive parent, and the spouse of the natural or adoptive parent, and the sibling of an eligible child, living in the same home with an eligible child shall be considered available, in addition to the income of an applicant for or recipient of aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200), for purposes of eligibility determination and grant computation. In the case of a parent or legal guardian of a minor who is also the parent of an eligible child, the income of the parent or guardian shall be considered available to the minor parent and eligible child to the same extent that income to a stepparent is considered available to an assistance unit, consistent with federal law.

This section shall be applied to all applicants for, and recipients of, aid under Chapter 2, (commencing with Section 11200), regardless of whether federal financial participation is available for the family.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1987, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 11008.14 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Section 6 of Chapter 3 the Statutes of 1981–82 1st Extraordinary Session, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 3. Section 11008.15 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11008.15. Notwithstanding Sections 11008.14 and 11267, the department shall exercise the options of disregarding earned income of a dependent child derived from participation in the Job Training Partnership Act of 1982 (PL 97-300) and of a dependent child who is a full-time student pursuant to the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 (PL 98-369).

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute chaptered prior to that date extends or deletes that date.

SEC. 4. Section 11157 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11157. Notwithstanding Section 11008, all lump-sum income received by an applicant or recipient shall be regarded as income in the month received except nonrecurring lump-sum social insurance payments, which social insurance payments shall include but are not limited to social security income, railroad retirement benefits, veteran's benefits, workman's compensation, and disability insurance.

To the same extent as required, as a condition for receipt of federal funds, by federal law, lump-sum payments of income, as defined by federal law, received by an applicant for or recipient of aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) shall be considered income in the month received and the family shall be ineligible for aid for the number of months that equals the sum of all income received during such month less all applicable income disregards divided by the standard of need applicable to the family under Section 11452, with any remainder to be considered as income received in the first month following the period of ineligibility, should the family again request aid. The period of ineligibility may be shortened, to the extent permitted by federal law, only if the family experiences a life threatening circumstance requiring the

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1987, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 11157 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 10 of Chapter 3 the Statutes of 1981–82 1st Extraordinary Session, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 5. Section 11158 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11158. The Legislature recognizes that certain property and rights owned by a recipient, including a recipient of aid to families with dependent children, are of negligible value in enabling the recipient to meet his or her present needs, and should not be classified as available resources of the recipient. It is the purpose of this section to designate such property and rights.

Resources available to a recipient, including a recipient of aid to families with dependent children shall not include all of the following:

(a) Money or securities placed in an irrevocable trust for funeral, cremation, or interment expenses with any of the trustees mentioned in Section 7736 of the Business and Professions Code or Section 8775 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) Money or securities placed in an irrevocable trust created by a deposit in an insured savings institution made by one person of his or her own money in his or her own name as trustee for a funeral director to provide payment for funeral services rendered by the funeral director upon the depositor's death.

(c) Life or burial insurance purchased specifically for funeral, cremation, or interment expense, which is placed in an irrevocable trust or which has no loan or surrender value available to the recipient.

(d) Securities issued by a licensed cemetery authority which by their terms are convertible only into payment for funeral, cremation, or interment expenses.

(e) Other funeral agreements to the extent consistent with federal law.

For the purposes of evaluating the personal property of a recipient, interment plots as defined in Section 7022 of the Health and Safety Code shall be deemed to have no value.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1987, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 11158 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 1520 the Statutes of 1982, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 6. Section 11257.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11257.5. Notwithstanding the property limitations in subdivision (a) of Section 11257, a family may retain, for six months, real property if the family is making a good faith effort to sell the real property. However, any aid payable to the family for the six-month period shall be conditioned upon the sale. At the time of the sale any aid payments made during the six-month period shall be considered overpayments to the extent they would not have been made had the sale occurred at the beginning of the six-month period. Notwithstanding Section 11004 overpayments shall be recouped from the proceeds of the sale. If the real property has not been sold at the end of the six-month period, the family shall be ineligible for aid if the combined net value of the real and personal property owned by the family exceeds the one thousand dollar ($1,000) limitation in Section 11257.

Notwithstanding Section 11007 as a condition to the granting of aid pursuant to this section, the family shall grant the county a lien upon the real property as security for the aid to be paid. The lien shall be used to recoup any overpayments incurred pursuant to this section. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the lien shall not be enforceable by the sale of the secured property by the county. The lien of the county shall be paid upon the sale of the property.

The department shall define good faith effort in regulation.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute chaptered prior to that date extends or deletes that date.

SEC. 7. Section 11267 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11267. To the extent permitted by federal law and regulations, no child or family is eligible to receive aid under this chapter if the total gross income, exclusive of grant payment, prior to any deductions available to such child or family exceeds 185 percent of the minimum basic standard of adequate care applicable to such child or family.

SEC. 8. Section 11308 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11308. (a) Upon notification by the Employment Development Department that, pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 5300) of Division 2 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, an individual registered pursuant to Section 11310 has been found to have failed or refused to appear for appraisal, to accept employment, or to otherwise participate in a work incentive program, the county department shall apply the following sanctions:

(1) For the first such occurrence, the individual shall be deregistered for three payment-months.

(2) For the second and each subsequent occurrence, the individual shall be deregistered for six payment-months.

(b) During the sanction period specified in subdivision (a), the following sanctions shall also apply:

(1) If such individual is a caretaker relative receiving aid under this chapter, his or her needs shall not be taken into account in determining the family's need for assistance, and assistance in the form of protective or vendor payments shall be provided to the remaining members of the assistance unit to the extent required by federal law.

(2) If the parent who is the principal wage earner makes such refusal, assistance to the family shall be denied.

(3) If such individual is the only dependent child in the family, assistance for the family shall be denied.

(4) If such individual is one of several dependent children in the family, assistance for such child shall be denied and his or her needs shall not be taken into account in determining the family's need for assistance.

(c) If an individual is a volunteer registrant and a recipient of aid under this chapter and has failed or refused to participate in the work incentive program without good cause, the sanctions specified in subdivision (a) shall apply, but the sanctions specified in subdivision (b) shall not apply.

(d) For the purposes of this section, the term "principal wage earner" shall be defined as the parent who earns the greatest amount of income during the two-year period immediately preceding application for benefits.

(e) The sanctions provided by this section shall become effective on the first day of the first payment-month that the sanctioned individual's needs are removed from aid under this chapter.

(f) In the event the provisions of this section conflict with federal law, the department shall adopt regulations to conform state regulations to federal law.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1987, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 11308 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 5 of Chapter 1037 the Statutes of 1982, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

11450. (a) For each needy family which shall include all eligible brothers and sisters of each eligible applicant or recipient child and the parents of the children, but shall not include unborn children, or recipients of aid under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12000), qualified for aid under this chapter, there shall be paid, notwithstanding minimum basic standards of adequate care established by the department under Section 11452, an amount of aid each month which when added to the family's income, exclusive of any amounts considered exempt as income or paid pursuant to subdivision (e) or Section 11453.1, is equal to the sums specified in the following table, as adjusted for cost-of-living increases pursuant to Section 11453:

Number of eligible needy persons in the same home	Maximum aid

If, when and during such times as the United States government increases or decreases its contributions in assistance of needy children in this state above or below the amount paid on July 1, 1972, the amounts specified in the above table shall be increased or decreased by an amount equal to such increase or decrease by the United States government, provided that no such increase or decrease shall be subject to subsequent adjustment pursuant to Section 11453.

(b) When the family does not include a needy child qualified for aid under this chapter, aid shall be paid to a pregnant mother in the amount which would otherwise be paid to one person as specified in subdivision (a) from the date of verification of pregnancy if the mother, and child if born, would have qualified for aid under this chapter.

(c) The amount of seventy dollars ($70) per month shall be paid to pregnant mothers qualified for aid under subdivision (a) or (b) to meet special needs resulting from pregnancy if the mother, and child, if born, would have qualified for aid under this chapter. County welfare departments shall refer all recipients of aid under this subdivision to a local provider of the Women, Infants and Children program. If such payment to pregnant mothers qualified for aid under subdivision (a) is considered income under federal law in the first five months of pregnancy, payments under this subdivision shall not apply to persons eligible under subdivision (a), except for the month in which birth is anticipated and for the three-month period immediately prior to the month in which delivery is anticipated, if the mother, and the child if born, would have qualified for aid under this chapter.

(d) For children receiving AFDC-FC under the provisions of this chapter, there shall be paid, exclusive of any amount considered exempt as income, an amount of aid each month which when added to the child's income is equal to the rate specified in Section 11461, 11462, 11462.1, or 11463. In addition, the child shall be eligible for special needs, as specified in departmental regulations.

(e) (1) In addition to the amounts payable under subdivision (a) and Section 11453.1, a family shall be entitled to receive an allowance for recurring special needs not common to a majority of recipients. These recurring special needs shall include, but not be limited to, special diets upon the recommendation of a physician for circumstances other than pregnancy, and unusual costs of transportation, laundry, housekeeping service, telephone, and utilities. The recurring special needs allowance for each family per month shall not exceed that amount resulting from multiplying the sum of ten dollars ($10) by the number of recipients in the family who are eligible for assistance.

(2) After a family has used all available liquid resources, both exempt and nonexempt, the family shall also be entitled to receive an allowance for nonrecurring special needs caused by sudden and unusual circumstances beyond the control of the needy family. These nonrecurring special needs shall only be granted for replacement of clothing and household equipment and for emergency housing needs. The department shall establish the allowance for each of the nonrecurring special need items. The sum of all nonrecurring special needs for a family shall not exceed six hundred dollars ($600) per event.

(3) The department shall establish rules and regulations assuring the uniform application statewide of the provisions of this subdivision.

(4) The department shall notify all applicants and recipients of aid through the standardized application form that these benefits are available and shall provide an opportunity for recipients to apply for the funds quickly and efficiently.

(f) Except for the purposes of Section 15200, the amounts payable to recipients pursuant to Section 11453.1 shall not constitute part of the payment schedule set forth in subdivision (a) of this section.

The amounts payable to recipients pursuant to Section 11453.1 shall not constitute income to recipients of aid under this section.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1987, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 11450 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 569 the Statutes of 1984, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 10. Section 11450.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11450.1. During such times that federal law ceases to provide for a disregard of a certain portion of child support payments as is presently provided in Section 457 (a) (1) of the Social Security Act and to the extent that there is federal financial participation at a level of no less than 50 percent of the cost, 40 percent of the first fifty dollars ($50) of any amount collected in a month which represents payment on the required support obligation for that month shall be paid to the recipient and deducted from the amounts specified in Section 11452, not to exceed the amount of the difference between such amounts and the amount of the maximum aid payable pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 11450.

The amount paid under this section shall not be considered income or resources of the recipient and shall not be deducted from the amount of aid to which the recipient would otherwise be entitled.

SEC. 11. Section 14005.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14005.8. To the extent required by federal law, families who have at any time ceased to receive public assistance under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program solely due to the expiration of the provision which permits thirty dollars ($30) plus one-third of an individual's income to be disregarded when determining eligibility shall remain eligible for health care services under Section 14005.1 for a period of nine months.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1987, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 14005.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 99 of Chapter 102 the Statutes of 1981, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

14006. (a) For the purposes of Sections 14005.4 and 14005.7, the term "other resources" means the real or personal property, or any combination of both, held by a medically needy or medically indigent individual or family.

(b) For the purposes of this section, the term "principal residence" means the home, including a multiple-dwelling unit, in which the individual resides or formerly resided. The home will continue to be considered the principal residence if any of the following is applicable: (1) during any absence, the individual intends to return to the home; (2) the individual lives in a skilled nursing or intermediate care facility and can reasonably be expected to return home; (3) the individual's spouse or a dependent relative of the individual continues to reside in the home during the individual's absence; (4) the individual does not have the right, authority, power, or legal capacity to liquidate the property, but a bona fide effort is being made to attain the right, authority, power, or legal capacity to liquidate the property; (5) the property cannot readily be converted to cash but a bona fide effort is being made to sell the property; (6) if it is a multiple-dwelling unit, one unit of which is occupied by the applicant or recipient, any unit not occupied by the applicant or recipient is producing income for the individual or family reasonably consistent with its value; or (7) it is inhabited by any sibling or child of the recipient who has continuously resided in the property since at least one year prior to the date the owner entered a skilled nursing or intermediate care facility. The state shall have a lien against the property, to the extent permitted by federal law, for the cost of medical services. The lien shall be recorded, and from the date of recording shall have force, effect, and priority of a judgment lien.

For purposes of this subdivision, "bona fide effort" means that the property shall be listed with a licensed real estate broker at the value determined to be the fair market value by a qualified real estate appraiser and the applicant or recipient provides evidence that a continuous effort is being made to sell the property, offers at fair market value are accepted, and all offers are reported.

(c) For purposes of determining eligibility under this part, resources shall be defined, counted, and valued in accordance with the federal law governing resources under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1396, et seq). Resources exempt under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1396, et seq) shall not be considered in determining eligibility. Medically needy individuals and families may retain nonexempt resources to the extent permitted under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1396, et seq). In addition, the principal residence as defined in subdivision (b) shall be exempt.

(d) The director, to meet the requirements of the federal Social Security Act and to insure the highest percentage of federal financial participation in the program provided by this chapter, may decrease or increase the amounts set forth herein.

(e) If the holdings are in the form of real property, the value shall be the assessed value, determined under the most recent county property tax assessment, less the unpaid amount of any encumbrance of record.

If the real property other than the home is not producing income reasonably consistent with its value, the applicant or recipient shall be allowed reasonable time to begin producing such income from the property. If the property cannot produce reasonable income or be sold based on the market value, the applicant or recipient shall be allowed to submit evidence from a qualified real estate appraiser which indicates the value for which the property can be adequately utilized or sold. If the applicant or recipient provides evidence that the only method of adequately utilizing the property is sale, and the property has not been sold at market value during a reasonable period of time, the property shall be considered to be adequately utilized provided it is listed with a licensed real estate broker at the value determined to be the fair market value by a qualified real estate appraiser and the applicant or recipient provides evidence that a bona fide and continuous effort is being made to sell the property.

(f) Any mortgage or note secured by a deed of trust shall be deemed real property if its value does not exceed six thousand dollars ($6,000) and it is obtained by the applicant or recipient, or in combination with his spouse, through the sale of such real property.

(g) If the holdings consist of money on deposit, the value shall be the actual amount thereof. If the holdings are in any other form of personal property or investment, except life insurance, the value shall be the conversion value as of the date of application or the anniversary date of such application. If the holdings are in the form of life insurance, the value shall be the cash value as of the policy anniversary nearest the date of such application.

(h) The value of property holdings shall be determined as of the date of application and, if the person is found eligible, this determination shall establish the amount of such holdings to be considered during the ensuing 12 months except a new determination to govern during the succeeding 12 months shall be made on the first anniversary date of the application or such alternate date as may be established following the acquisition of additional holdings as provided in the following paragraph and on each succeeding anniversary date thereafter.

(i) If any person shall by gift, inheritance, or other manner, acquire additional holdings during any such interval, other than from his own earnings, he shall immediately report such acquisition, and the anniversary date shall become the date of such acquisition.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1987, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 14006 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 1041 the Statutes of 1983, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

(b) During the 1984–85 fiscal year, the department shall develop a plan whereby AFDC-FC payment rates for existing AFDC-FC providers under this chapter may receive a new rate for services provided in accordance with the intent expressed in subdivision (a).

(c) The department shall implement this plan for San Diego County for a one-year pilot project during the 1985–86 fiscal year.

(d) The department shall subsequently recommend whether such a procedure should be implemented statewide.

The setting of these rates for existing AFDC-FC providers may commence after all of the following procedures have been followed:

As used in this section, a deficiency exists when a county has a need for group homes for one or more of the types of children referred to in this paragraph, where the number of children exceeds the number of available beds in the appropriate level of care by 30 percent or more within the county. The deficiency shall equate to six beds or more and shall not be due to placement by other counties in the

(3) Upon a finding that a deficiency of care exists, the county shall solicit requests from existing providers who meet the criteria in subdivision (e), and shall:

(A) Review all requests.

(B) Choose one or more providers whose program meets the county's identified deficiency.

(C) Sponsor the provider chosen in subparagraph (B) by verifying information and forwarding its application to the department.

(D) Provide information regarding the type of care and the average rate paid by the county for the same level of care provided outside the county but within California.

(E) The county shall sponsor only a sufficient number of providers to meet the number of beds for which a deficiency has been found.

(e) If a county has been found to have a deficiency pursuant to subdivision (b), a licensed group home may respond to the county's solicitation, if it meets all of the following criteria:

(1) The facility is capable and willing to serve exclusively for the county one or more of the types of children referred to in paragraph (3) for which a deficiency has been found.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 11462, in setting a rate pursuant to this section, the department shall determine a rate which provides for the necessary level of care, subject to all of the following limitations:

(1) Subject to paragraph (2), ratesetting tests such as reasonableness and allowability shall be applied to rate requests under this section, pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 11462.

(2) The new rate approved by the department shall not exceed the average rate paid by the county per child for the same level of care provided in other counties within the state.

(3) Group homes granted a new rate under this section shall be subject to departmental audits pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 11462.

(g) In order to implement this section, there is hereby appropriated to the department the sum of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) from the General Fund and the sum of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) from the Social Welfare Federal Fund, after transfer from the Federal Trust Fund, to augment the department's support budget.

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute chaptered prior to that date deletes or extends that date.

11482. Any person other than a needy child, who willfully and knowingly, with the intent to deceive, makes a false statement or representation or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact to obtain aid, or who, knowing he or she is not entitled thereto, attempts to obtain aid or to continue to receive aid to which he or she is not entitled, or a larger amount than that to which he or she is legally entitled, is guilty of a misdemeanor, except as specified in Section 11482.5 and shall be subject to prosecution under the provisions of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 10980) of Part 2.

When the allegation is limited to failure to report not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) of income or resources, or the failure to report the presence of an additional person or persons in the household, all actions necessary to secure restitution shall be brought against persons in violation of Section 10980. The action for restitution may be satisfied by sending a registered letter requesting restitution to the last address at which the person was receiving

SEC. 7. Section 11483.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

SECTION 1. Section 11019.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11019.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, but to the extent consistent with applicable federal law or regulation, any state department specified in subdivision (b), after receiving a request by a board of supervisors of an affected county which has a population of 150,000 or less as of January 1, 1983, and upon determining that advance payment is essential to the effective implementation of a particular program, and further to the extent that funds are available, and not more frequently than once each month, may advance to the county an amount not to exceed one-twelfth of the annual allocations, subventions, or reimbursements required for the delivery of services by a county.

(b) This section applies to the Department of Corrections, the Department of Health Services, and the State Department of Mental Health.

(c) The director of each department specified in subdivision (b) shall promulgate regulations and a plan to establish control procedures to define the scope of operational information required from a county in order to guarantee advance payments pursuant to this section. No county may receive an advance payment unless the county has complied with the provisions of the department's plan and regulations. Each department plan shall be approved by the Department of Finance prior to its implementation.

(d) Claim schedules for advance payments shall be presented to the appropriate department in the manner prescribed by the department. Payment of claims shall be made within 60 days after a claim is received by the department.

(e) Each department specified in subdivision (b) shall review periodically and adjust advances to actual expenditures for the claim period. Additionally, each department shall take into consideration the timing of the implementation of new programs in the computation of advances. The authority contained in this chapter shall not supersede or limit any other provision of law authorizing the state to conduct required audits of claims transactions.

(f) A county, upon determining that an advance payment is essential for the effective implementation of a particular program, and to the extent funds are available, and not more frequently than once each month, may advance to other affected local public agencies located within its jurisdiction (i.e., school districts, special districts, cities, etc.) an amount not to exceed one-twelfth of the annual allocations, reimbursements, or subventions required for the delivery of services pursuant to related state and federal laws.

SEC. 2. Section 4700.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

4700.1. For any trial or hearing referred to in Section 4700, the sheriff of the county where such trial or hearing is had and the person in charge of the prison may agree that the county shall transport prisoners in a state prison to and from such prison. Upon such agreement, the county, and not the Department of Corrections, shall perform the transportation referred to in this section.

SEC. 3. Section 4700.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

4700.2. Whenever a trial is had in which a crime committed in furtherance of or in connection with a violation of Section 4530 of the Penal Code is charged, or whenever a trial is had for conspiracy in a case where one or more objectives of the conspiracy is an escape from the custody of the Department of Corrections, the county or counties in which the pretrial proceedings and trial are held shall prepare a statement of the costs incurred in connection with the trial. The statement of costs shall be approved by the presiding judge of the superior court and shall include all costs incurred by the county including, but not limited to, salaries and expenses incurred by the district attorney in investigation and prosecution, by the sheriff in investigation and custody, by the public defender or court-appointed attorney or attorneys in investigation and defense, witness fees and expenses, reporter fees, transcription costs, necessary courtroom security reasonably required to protect the court and participants, and other direct trial costs. Trial shall be deemed to include all pretrial hearings and post-conviction proceedings, if any.

The statement of costs shall be sent to the Controller who shall examine and audit it for the purpose of determining whether it complies with the provisions of this section. The Controller shall cause the amount of such costs as he or she determines comply with this section to be paid to the county out of appropriate funds. If sufficient funds are not available, the Controller shall request the Director of Finance to include any amounts necessary to satisfy the claims in a request for a deficiency appropriation. Any crime committed by an escaped prisoner within 10 days after the escape and within 100 miles of the facility from which the escape occurred shall be presumed to have been a crime committed in furtherance of escape for purposes of this section.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of Chapter 1671 of the Statutes of 1971 is repealed.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature that the amendment to Section 4700.2 of the Penal Code made by Section 3 of this act be given effect with respect to any case to which it would apply in which a final judgment was not entered prior to January 1, 1984.

SEC. 6. The sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Corrections for expenditure in the 1984–85 fiscal year in augmentation of, and for the purpose of paying claims filed pursuant to, Sections 4700.1 and 4700.2 of the Penal Code as provided in Item 5240-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1984.

This act is intended to provide a needed local sentencing alternative in order to provide certain minors, primarily 16 and 17 year olds, who are awaiting out-of-home placement, with the educational programs they need to become law-abiding, productive citizens. This act constitutes a partnership between the state and participating counties based on matching funds and resources which will provide needed juvenile facilities staffed by county employees. Counties may contract with the private sector for needed program services. It is the intent of the Legislature that these programs emphasize screening for visual and other learning disabilities, basic education and job readiness, community involvement, participation of victims, volunteers, and private industry, accountability of young offenders for their crimes, and restitution.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as indicating that it is the intent of the Legislature to prevent juvenile court school pupils who are housed in group homes from enrolling in regular public schools, or that it is the intent of the Legislature to transfer the responsibility for any costs associated with the operation of group homes to the counties.

SEC. 3. Section 48645.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48645.1. Public schools or classes in any juvenile hall, juvenile home, day center, juvenile ranch, juvenile camp, or regional youth educational facility established in accordance with Article 14 (commencing with Section 850), Article 15 (commencing with Section 880), and Article 24.5 (commencing with Section 894) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or in any group home housing 25 or more children and operating one or more additional sites under a central administration, with acceptable school structures at one or more centrally located sites to serve the single or composite populations of juvenile court school pupils detained therein in accordance with the provisions of Sections 362, 727, or 730 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall be known as juvenile court schools.

Wards who complete the short-term intensive program who need continuing services shall be transferred to local facilities for up to 60 days of additional education and training. Following institutional placement, all wards in the program shall receive intensive supervision by a probation officer in their county of residence for a minimum of 120 days. Intensive supervision means a 10 to 15 person caseload per deputy probation officer.

895. (a) From any state moneys made available to it for that purpose, the Youth Authority shall assist counties in the establishment of pilot regional youth educational facilities. Interested counties that agree to provide matching funds or resources, in compliance with standards established by the department, may enter agreements with the Youth Authority to establish these facilities. The facilities shall be operated by participating counties, either solely or under a joint powers agreement. The counties may contract with private agencies to provide job training consultation or other services.

(b) The Youth Authority shall develop selection criteria for participating counties to include, but not be limited to, all of the following factors:

(1) Eligible target population.
(2) Demonstrated ability to administer the program.
(3) Facility capability.
(4) Financial ability to provide matching funds or resources.

(5) Demonstrated need for the program.
(6) Ability to meet regional needs.
(7) Ability to provide specified program elements.

896. (a) The Youth Authority shall establish minimum performance standards for programs of education and training and for qualifications of personnel for all youth educational facilities in the program, including local continuation and intensive supervision components. These standards and qualifications shall be designed to achieve program goals such as an increase in the educational level of participants, better community protection and offender accountability, and preparation of participants to return to the community as responsible and productive members.

(b) The Youth Authority shall conduct an initial inspection and an annual inspection thereafter of each regional youth educational facility. In addition, the Youth Authority may conduct such other inspections as it deems necessary. If the Youth Authority, after inspection, finds that a facility is not in compliance with the standards adopted pursuant to subdivision (a), the Youth Authority shall give notice of its findings to all persons having authority to confine minors in that regional facility. Commencing 60 days thereafter, that regional youth educational facility shall not be used for confinement of any minor until such time as the Youth Authority finds, after reinspection of the facility, that the conditions which rendered the facility unsuitable have been remedied and that the facility is a suitable place for the confinement of minors.

(c) The custodian of each regional youth educational facility shall make such reports as may be required by the Youth Authority to effectuate the purposes of this section.

897. The capacity of each regional youth educational facility shall be established pursuant to Sections 886 and 886.5.

898. The participating counties shall appoint a citizens advisory committee with a membership drawn from law enforcement, judiciary, probation, education, corrections, business, and the general public, whose function is to review the goals, objectives, and programs of each youth educational facility and provide input to the facility.

898.5. The Youth Authority shall evaluate the effectiveness of this article and shall report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature no later than January 1, 1987.

899. This article shall become inoperative on June 30, 1987, and, as of January 1, 1988, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1988, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 7. The sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Youth Authority to provide matching funds to counties for the establishment of pilot regional youth educational facilities pursuant to Section 895 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Participating counties shall provide funds or resources of equal value to sums provided by the Youth

The minimum standards may vary for different types of buildings or building occupancies and different climate zones in the state. The minimum standards shall be economically feasible in that the resultant savings in energy procurement costs shall be greater than the cost of the insulation to the customer amortized over the useful life of the insulation.

(i) An amount equal to the excess of—

(1) The amount allowable as a deduction under Section 173 or 174(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for the taxable year, over

(2) The amount which would have been allowable for the taxable year if the circulation expenditures described in Section 173 of the Internal Revenue Code or the research and experimental expenditures described in Section 174 of the Internal Revenue Code had been capitalized and amortized ratably over the 10-year period beginning with the taxable year in which those expenditures were

(b) In the case of a taxpayer subject to tax under Article 3 (commencing with Section 23181) of Chapter 2, the amount by which the deduction allowable for the income year for a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts exceeds the amount that would have been allowed if the taxpayer maintained its bad debt reserve for all income years on the basis of actual experience, as defined in Section 585(b) (3) (A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(2) This section shall not deny a deduction to any person other than the individual attending the convention, seminar, or similar meeting with respect to any amount paid by that person to or on behalf of that individual if includable in the gross income of that individual. The preceding sentence shall not apply if the amount is required to be included in any information return filed by that person under Section 18802 and is not so included.

(e) No deduction shall be allowed under Section 24343 for expenses allocable to attendance at a convention, seminar, or similar meeting on any cruise ship unless the taxpayer claiming the deduction attaches to the return of tax on which the deduction is claimed all of the following:

(1) A written statement signed by the individual attending the meeting which includes—

(A) Information with respect to the total days of the trip, excluding the days of transportation to and from the cruise ship port, and the number of hours of each day of the trip which that individual devoted to scheduled business activities.

SEC. 13. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, this act shall be applied in the computation of taxes for taxable years commencing on and after January 1, 1984.

An act to add Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) to Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and to add Section 2239 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to costs mandated by the state, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) is added to Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

PART 7. STATE-MANDATED LOCAL COSTS

CHAPTER 1. LEGISLATIVE INTENT

17500. The Legislature finds and declares that the existing system for reimbursing local agencies and school districts for the costs of state-mandated local programs has not provided for the effective determination of the state's responsibilities under Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution. The Legislature finds and declares that the failure of the existing process to adequately and consistently resolve the complex legal questions involved in the determination of state-mandated costs has led to an increasing reliance by local agencies and school districts on the judiciary and, therefore, in order to relieve unnecessary congestion of the judicial system, it is necessary to create a mechanism which is capable of rendering sound quasi-judicial decisions and providing an effective means of resolving disputes over the existence of state-mandated local programs.

It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this part to provide for the implementation of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and to consolidate the procedures for reimbursement of statutes specified in the Revenue and Taxation Code with those identified in the Constitution. Further, the Legislature intends that the Commission on State Mandates, as a quasi-judicial body, will act in a deliberative manner in accordance with the requirements of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

17510. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions contained in this chapter govern the construction of this part. The definition of a word applies to any variants thereof and the singular tense of a word includes the plural.

17511. "City" means any city whether general law or charter, except a city and county.

17512. "Commission" means the Commission on State Mandates.

17514. "Costs mandated by the state" means any increased costs which a local agency or school district is required to incur after July 1, 1980, as a result of any statute enacted on or after January 1, 1975, or any executive order implementing any statute enacted on or after January 1, 1975, which mandates a new program or higher level of service of an existing program within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

17514.5. "Cost savings authorized by the state" means any decreased costs which a local agency or school district realizes as a result of any statute enacted or any executive order adopted which permits or requires the discontinuance of or a reduction in the level of service of an existing program which was mandated before January 1, 1975.

17516. "Executive order" means any order, plan, requirement, rule, or regulation issued by any of the following:

(a) The Governor.

(b) Any officer or official serving at the pleasure of the Governor.

(c) Any agency, department, board, or commission of state government.

"Executive order" does not include any order, plan, requirement, rule, or regulation issued by the State Water Resources Control Board or by any regional water quality control board pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code. It is the intent of the Legislature that the State Water Resources Control Board and regional water quality control boards will not adopt enforcement orders against publicly owned dischargers which mandate major waste water treatment facility construction costs unless federal financial assistance and state financial assistance pursuant to the Clean Water Bond Act of 1970 and 1974, is simultaneously made available. "Major" means either a new treatment facility or an addition to an existing facility, the cost of which is in excess of 20 percent of the cost of replacing the facility.

17517. "Fund" means the State Mandates Claims Fund.

17518. "Local agency" means any city, county, special district, authority, or other political subdivision of the state.

17519. "School district" means any school district, community college district, or county superintendent of schools.

County free libraries established pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 27151) of Division 20 of the Education Code, areas receiving county fire protection services pursuant to Section 25643 of the Government Code, and county road districts established pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1550) of Division 2 of the Streets and Highways Code shall be considered "special districts" for all purposes of this part.

17521. "Test claim" means the first claim filed with the commission alleging that a particular statute or executive order imposes costs mandated by the state.

CHAPTER 3. COMMISSION ON STATE MANDATES

17525. There is hereby created the Commission on State Mandates, which shall consist of five members as follows:

(1) The Controller.

(2) The Treasurer.

(3) The Director of Finance.

(4) The Director of the Office of Planning and Research.

(5) A public member with experience in public finance, appointed by the Governor and approved by the Senate.

The pubic member shall serve for a term of four years subject to

17526. All meetings of the commission shall be open to the public, except that the commission may meet in executive session to consider the appointment or dismissal of officers or employees of the commission or to hear complaints or charges brought against a member, officer, or employee of the commission.

17527. In carrying out its duties and responsibilities, the commission shall have the following powers:

(a) To examine any document, report, or data, including computer programs and data files, held by any local agency or school district.

(b) To meet at times and places as it may deem proper.

(c) As a body or, on the authorization of the commission, as a committee composed of one or more members, to hold hearings at any time and place it may deem proper.

(d) Upon a majority vote of the commission, to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, records, papers, accounts, reports, and documents.

(e) To administer oaths.

(f) To contract with other agencies or individuals, public or private, as it deems necessary, to provide or prepare services, facilities, studies, and reports to the commission as will assist it in carrying out its duties and responsibilities.

(g) To adopt, promulgate, amend, and rescind rules and regulations, which shall not be subject to the review and approval of the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act provided for in Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2.

(h) To do any and all other actions necessary or convenient to enable it fully and adequately to perform its duties and to exercise the powers expressly granted to it.

17528. The members of the commission shall elect a chairperson and a vice chairperson of the commission.

17529. The commission may appoint as attorney to the commission an attorney at law of this state, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the commission. The attorney shall represent and appear for the commission in all actions and proceedings involving any question under this part or under any order or act of the commission.

The attorney shall advise the commission and each member of the commission, when so requested, in regard to all matters in connection with the powers and duties of the commission and the members thereof. The attorney shall generally perform all duties and services as attorney to the commission which the commission may require.

17530. The commission shall appoint an executive director, who shall be exempt from civil service and shall hold office at the pleasure of the commission. The executive director shall be responsible for the executive and administrative duties of the commission and shall organize, coordinate, supervise, and direct the operations and affairs of the commission and expedite all matters within the jurisdiction of the commission. The executive director shall keep a full and true record of all proceedings of the commission, issue all necessary process, writs, warrants, and notices, and perform other duties as the commission prescribes.

17531. The executive director may employ those officers, examiners, experts, statisticians, accountants, inspectors, clerks, and employees as the executive director deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this part or to perform the duties and exercise the powers conferred upon the commission by law.

17532. A majority of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, for the performance of any duty, or for the exercise of any power of the commission. Any investigation, inquiry, or hearing which the commission has power to undertake or to hold may be undertaken or held by or before any commissioner or commissioners designated for the purpose by the commission. The evidence in any investigation, inquiry, or hearing may be taken by the commissioner or commissioners to whom the investigation, inquiry, or hearing has been assigned or, in his or her or their behalf, by an examiner designated for that purpose. Every finding, opinion, and order made by the commissioner or commissioners so designated, pursuant to the investigation, inquiry, or hearing, when approved or confirmed by the commission and ordered filed in its office, shall be deemed to be the finding, opinion, and order of the commission.

CHAPTER 4. IDENTIFICATION AND PAYMENT OF COSTS MANDATED BY THE STATE

Article 1. Commission Procedure

17550. Reimbursement of local agencies and school districts for costs mandated by the state shall be provided pursuant to this chapter.

17551. (a) The commission, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall hear and decide upon a claim by a local agency or school district that the local agency or school district is entitled to be reimbursed by the state for costs mandated by the state as required by Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

(b) The commission, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall hear and decide upon a claim by a local agency or school district filed on and after January 1, 1985, that the local agency or school district is entitled to be reimbursed by the state for costs mandated by the state, as defined in Section 2207 or 2207.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, pursuant to a statute enacted, or an executive order implementing a statute enacted, before January 1, 1975.

17552. This chapter shall provide the sole and exclusive procedure by which a local agency or school district may claim reimbursement for costs mandated by the state as required by Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or for costs mandated by the state, as defined in Section 2207 or 2207.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, pursuant to a statute enacted, or an executive order implementing a statute enacted, before January 1, 1975.

17553. The commission shall adopt procedures for receiving claims pursuant to this article and for providing a hearing on those claims. The hearing procedure shall provide for presentation of evidence by the claimant, the Department of Finance and any other affected department or agency, and any other interested person. Hearing of a claim may be postponed at the request of the claimant, without prejudice.

17555. The commission, within 10 days after receipt of a test claim based upon a statute or executive order, shall set a date for a public hearing on the claim within a reasonable time. The test claim may be based upon estimated costs that a local agency or school district may incur as a result of the statute or executive order and may be filed at any time after the statute is enacted or the executive order is adopted. The claim shall be submitted in a form prescribed by the commission. After a hearing in which the claimant and any other interested organization or individual may participate, the commission shall determine if there are costs mandated by the state.

17556. (a) The commission shall not find costs mandated by the state, as defined in Section 17514, in any claim submitted by a local agency or school district, if, after a hearing, the commission finds that:

(1) The claim is submitted by a local agency or school district which requested legislative authority for that local agency or school district to implement the program specified in the statute, and that statute imposes costs upon that local agency or school district requesting the legislative authority. A resolution from the governing body or a letter from a delegated representative of the governing body of a local agency or school district which requests authorization for that local agency or school district to implement a given program shall constitute a request within the meaning of this paragraph.

(2) The statute or executive order affirmed for the state that which had been declared existing law or regulation by action of the courts.

(3) The statute or executive order implemented a federal law or regulation and resulted in costs mandated by the federal government, unless the statute or executive order mandates costs which exceed the mandate in that federal law or regulation.

(4) The local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the mandated program or increased level of service.

(5) The statute or executive order provides for offsetting savings to local agencies or school districts which result in no net costs to the local agencies or school districts.

(6) The statute or executive order imposed duties which were expressly included in a ballot measure approved by the voters in a statewide election.

(7) The statute created a new crime or infraction, eliminated a crime or infraction, or changed the penalty for a crime or infraction, but only for that portion of the statute relating directly to the enforcement of the crime or infraction.

17557. If the commission determines there are costs mandated by the state pursuant to Section 17555, it shall determine the amount to be subvened to local agencies and school districts for reimbursement. In so doing it shall adopt parameters and guidelines for reimbursement of any claims relating to the statute or executive order. A local agency, school district, and the state may file a claim or request with the commission to amend, modify, or supplement the parameters or guidelines. The commission may, after public notice and hearing, amend, modify, or supplement the parameters and guidelines.

In adopting parameters and guidelines, the commission may adopt an allocation formula or uniform allowance which would provide for reimbursement of each local agency or school district of a specified amount each year.

17558. The commission shall submit the adopted parameters and guidelines to the Controller. All claims relating to a statute or executive order which are filed after the determination of the test claim pursuant to Section 17557 shall be transferred to the Controller who shall pay and audit the claims from funds made available for that purpose.

17559. A claimant or the state may commence a proceeding in accordance with the provisions of Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure to set aside a decision of the commission on the ground that the commission's decision is not supported by substantial evidence. The court may order the commission to hold another hearing regarding the claim and may direct the commission on what basis the claim is to receive a rehearing.

Article 2. Specific Costs Mandated by the State

17575. When a bill is introduced in the Legislature, and each time a bill is amended, on and after January 1, 1985, the Legislative Counsel shall determine whether the bill mandates a new program or higher level of service pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution. The Legislative Counsel shall make this determination known in the digest of the bill and shall describe in the digest the basis for this determination. The determination by the Legislative Counsel shall not be binding on the commission in making its determination pursuant to Section 17555.

17576. Whenever the Legislative Counsel determines that a bill will mandate a new program or higher level of service pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, the Department of Finance shall prepare an estimate of the amount of reimbursement which will be required. This estimate shall be prepared for the respective committees of each house of the Legislature which consider taxation measures and appropriation measures and shall be prepared prior to any hearing on the bill by any such committee.

17578. In the event that a bill is amended on the floor of either house, whether by adoption of the report of a conference committee or otherwise, in such a manner as to mandate a new program or higher level of service pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, the Legislative Counsel shall immediately inform, respectively, the Speaker of the Assembly and the President of the Senate of that fact. Notification from the Legislative Counsel shall be published in the journal of the respective houses of the Legislature.

17579. (a) Any bill introduced or amended on and after January 1, 1985, for which the Legislative Counsel has determined the bill will mandate a new program or higher level of service pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, shall contain a section specifying that reimbursement shall be made from the fund pursuant to Section 17610 when the amount of the claim has been determined pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 17550) of this chapter or that there is no mandate or that the mandate is being disclaimed and the reason therefor.

(b) Any bill introduced or amended on and after January 1, 1985, may, but is not required to, contain an appropriation to provide reimbursement of costs mandated by the state. Any appropriation shall be made to the fund.

Article 3. Reports to the Legislature

17600. At least twice each calendar year the commission shall report to the Legislature on the number of mandates it has found pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 17550) and the estimated statewide costs of these mandates. This report shall identify the statewide costs estimated for each mandate and the reasons for recommending reimbursement.

17601. The commission shall report to the Legislature on January 15, 1986, and each January 15 thereafter, on the number of claims it denied during the preceding calendar year and the basis on which the particular claims were denied.

Article 4. Payment of Claims

17610. The costs arising from a statute containing a statement that the statute mandates a new program or higher level of service and specifying that reimbursement shall be made from the fund shall, upon certification of the parameters and guidelines by the commission to the Controller, be paid from the fund, provided that the statewide cost of the claim does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

17611. The costs of a claim submitted pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 17550) shall be paid only as provided in this article, except Section 17610.

17612. (a) Immediately upon receipt of the report submitted by the commission pursuant to Section 17600, a local government claims bill shall be introduced in the Legislature. The local government claims bill, at the time of its introduction, shall provide for an appropriation sufficient to pay the estimated costs of these mandates.

(b) If the Legislature deletes from a local government claims bill funding for a mandate, the local agency or school district may file in the Superior Court of the County of Sacramento an action in declaratory relief to declare the mandate unenforceable and enjoin its enforcement.

17614. There is hereby created the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 13340, money in the fund is continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal years for the sole purpose of paying claims pursuant to Section 17610. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, money placed in the fund pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 17579 shall not be subject to the statewide cost limitation prescribed in Section 17610.

CHAPTER 5. CLAIMS FOR OFFSETTING LOCAL SAVINGS AGAINST STATE REIMBURSEMENTS 17620. The commission shall hear and decide upon a claim by any state agency that a local agency or school district has realized a cost savings authorized by the state.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, this chapter shall provide the sole and exclusive procedure by which the commission shall hear and decide upon a claim that a local agency or school district has realized a cost savings authorized by the state.

No claim shall be made to the commission pursuant to this chapter unless the cost savings identified by the claim exceeds two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), on a statewide basis, per fiscal year.

Any state agency with the authority to audit the records of any local agency or school district may do so for the purpose of establishing that there were cost savings authorized by the state in excess of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for which a claim may be filed with the commission.

17621. The commission shall adopt procedures for receiving claims pursuant to this chapter and for providing a hearing on those claims. The hearing procedure shall provide for presentation of evidence by any state agency, by the affected local agency or school district, and by any other interested parties.

17622. The commission, within 10 days after receipt of the first claim based upon a statute or executive order, shall set a date for public hearing on the claim within a reasonable time. The claim shall be submitted in a form prescribed by the commission. After a hearing in which any state agency, the affected local agency or school district, and any other interested parties may participate, the commission, if it determines there is a cost savings authorized by the state, shall adopt parameters and guidelines for identifying all cost savings realized by local agencies or school districts relating to the statute or executive order. These parameters and guidelines shall provide for an offset between the cost savings authorized by the state and the reasonable costs of preparing the reports required by Section 17624. A local agency, school district, and the state may file a claim or request with the commission to amend, modify, or supplement parameters and guidelines. The commission may, after public notice and hearing, amend, modify, or supplement the parameters and guidelines.

17623. At least twice each calendar year, the commission shall submit to the Legislature a report on claims it has approved pursuant to this chapter. This report may be included in the report required by Section 17600. A section requiring the Controller to deduct 50 percent of the cost savings realized by each local agency or school district from the reimbursements for costs mandated by the state made pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 17550) shall, at the time of its introduction, be included in the local government claims bill required by Section 17612.

17624. The commission may recommend an allocation formula based on actual savings.

17625. (a) Each local agency or school district which submits a claim pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 17550) shall submit a report on the amount of cost savings authorized by the state which it realized in the preceding fiscal year.

(b) Subsequent to the enactment of a local government claims bill requiring the Controller to deduct cost savings realized by local agencies or school districts pursuant to a statute or executive order, the Controller shall distribute the claiming instructions for reporting cost savings to all applicable local agencies and school districts.

(c) The Controller shall reduce the payments to each local agency or school district for costs mandated by the state by 50 percent of the amount of cost savings authorized by the state realized by the local agency or school district in the preceding fiscal year. The first fiscal year for which the Controller shall reduce these payments shall be the fiscal year during which the local government claims bill requiring the deduction is enacted. The Controller shall not reduce any payment unless the cost savings authorized by the state and realized by a local agency or school district exceeds two hundred dollars ($200).

(d) No claim for mandated costs shall be paid by the Controller unless the local agency or school district which submitted the claim has also submitted all savings reports required by this section or a certification that the local agency or school district did not realize any savings which exceeds two hundred dollars ($200).

17626. A school district, local agency, or the state may commence a proceeding in accordance with the provisions of Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure to set aside a decision of the commission on the ground that the commission's decision is not supported by substantial evidence. The court may order the commission to hold another hearing regarding the claim and may direct the commission on what basis the claim is to receive a rehearing.

CHAPTER 6. OPERATIVE DATE

17630. The provisions of this part shall be applicable to claims for state reimbursement of costs mandated by the state on and after January 1, 1985. All claims for state reimbursement filed under Article 1 (commencing with Section 2201), Article 2 (commencing with Section 2225), Article 3 (commencing with Section 2240), Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2250), and Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 2256) of Chapter 3 of Part 4 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code which have not been included in a local government claims bill pursuant to Section 2255 of the Revenue and Taxation Code enacted before January 1, 1985, shall be transferred to and considered by the commission pursuant to the provisions of this part.

SEC. 2. Section 2239 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

2239. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 2201), Article 2 (commencing with Section 2225), Article 3 (commencing with Section 2240), Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2250), and Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 2256) of this chapter relating to state reimbursement to local agencies and school districts shall be applicable to costs mandated by the state before July 1, 1980.

(b) All claims for state reimbursement which have not been included in a local government claims bill pursuant to Section 2255 enacted before January 1, 1985, shall be transferred to and considered by the Commission on State Mandates as claims filed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 17551 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. The sum of ten million two hundred thousand dollars ($10,200,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to be allocated by the Controller, as follows:

(a) Two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) to the Commission on State Mandates for administration of the provisions of Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code from January 1, 1985, to June 30, 1985, inclusive.

(b) Ten million dollars ($10,000,000) to the State Mandates Claims Fund for the purposes of the provisions of Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

An act to add Article 7.7 (commencing with Section 25392) to Chapter 6.8 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 7.7 (commencing with Section 25392) is added to Chapter 6.8 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 7.7. Hazardous Substance Cleanup Financing Authority

25392. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Filante-Johnston Hazardous Substance Cleanup Financing Authority Act.

25392.1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) It is necessary that the state, in cooperation with the federal government, use all practical and commercially feasible means to promote the prompt and efficient removal of, and remedial actions to, releases of hazardous substances. Furthermore, the Legislature finds that removal of, and remedial actions to, releases of hazardous substances will reduce the degradation of the environment and protect the health, welfare, and safety of the people of this state, and that these actions are in the public interest and serve a public purpose.

25392.11. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that small businesses may have difficulty in establishing adequate security for the bonds issued by the authority in their behalf, and that establishing common reserve funds will help to provide reasonable security for these bonds and will help to make the authority's services available to various small businesses.

(b) For the purpose of establishing and maintaining those common reserve funds which the authority determines are necessary or desirable to secure or issue its bonds, the authority may, pursuant to its contracts with participating parties, levy fees or other charges on, or require deposits from, participating parties receiving financing for projects pursuant to this article. Before levying any fees or charges or requiring deposits, the authority shall adopt rules or regulations concerning the operation of the common reserve funds and the amounts, and any payment schedule for, the fees, charges, or deposits.

(c) Subject to any prior contractual obligations with any of its bondholders, the authority may establish one or more common reserve funds for any or all of its bonds.

(d) Each common reserve fund established pursuant to this section shall be deposited by the authority into a special account, which shall be established by the Controller. (b) The Legislature may, be statute, authorize the authority to issue bonds in excess of the amount specified in subdivision (a).

25392.14. The authority shall deposit all proceeds from the sale of bonds into the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Financing Fund, which fund is hereby created and continuously appropriated to the authority to carry out the purposes of this article, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code.

25392.15. (a) The authority may, from time to time, issue negotiable bonds, notes, and other securities and obligations for any of the purposes specified in this article. The authority may authorize the bonds to finance a single project for several participating parties, a series of projects for a single participating party, a single project for several participating parties, or several projects for several participating parties. In anticipation of the sale of these bonds, the authority may issue negotiable bond anticipation notes and may renew these notes from time to time. These bond anticipation notes may be paid from the proceeds of sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation for which they were issued. These notes, the agreements relating to the notes, and the resolution or resolutions authorizing these notes may contain any provisions, conditions, or limitations which a bond, agreement relating to the bond, and the bond resolutions of the authority, may contain. The note or renewal of the note shall mature within two years from the date of issue of the original note.

(b) Every issue of the authority's bonds are general obligations of the authority and are payable from any revenues or moneys of the authority available for this payment which is not otherwise pledged, unless otherwise expressly provided by the authority in an agreement with the holders of the bonds, which agreement pledges a specified source of revenues or moneys, or unless the authority has agreed otherwise with a participating party. Even if the bonds are payable from a special fund, they are, for all purposes, negotiable instruments and are subject only to the registered provisions of the bonds.

(c) The authority may issue bonds as serial bonds, as term bonds, or, as determined by the authority, as both types. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the authority, which resolution may provide for any of the following:

(1) The date or dates, time or times, when the bonds mature, which shall not exceed 30 years from their respective dates of issuance.

(3) The time or times when the bonds are payable.

(4) The denominations and forms of the bonds, including coupons or registered bonds.

The authority may, after considering the recommendations of the participating party to be assisted by the bond proceeds, determine whether the bond sale is to be public or private and the price or prices and terms and conditions of the sale. Before the definitive bonds are prepared, the Treasurer may issue interim receipts, certificates, or temporary bonds which may be exchanged for the definitive bonds. The Treasurer may sell any bonds at a price below the par value thereof if the discount on any security so sold does not exceed 6 percent of the par value of the bond.

(e) Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds so authorized, specifying any of the following:

(1) Pledging the full faith and credit of the authority, or any other money of the authority, to secure the payment of the bonds or of any particular issue of bonds, subject to any existing agreements with the bondholders.

(2) The rentals, fees, purchase payments, loan repayments, and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year by these charges.

(3) Setting aside a reserve or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition of the reserve or sinking funds.

(5) Limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds, then or thereafter to be issued, may be applied, and pledging the proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or any issue of the bonds.

(6) Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured, and the refunding of outstanding bonds.

(7) The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the total amount of bonds of which the holders must consent for this amendment or abrogation, and the manner in which this consent may be given.

(8) Limitations on the authority's expenditures for operating, administrative, or other expenses.

(9) Defining the acts, or omissions to act, which constitute a default in the duties of the authority towards the holders of its obligations and providing the rights and remedies of these holders if there is default.

(10) The mortgaging of any project and the project site for the purpose of securing the bondholders.

(11) The mortgaging of land, improvements, or other assets owned by a participating party for the purpose of securing the bondholders.

(12) Procedures for selecting the projects to be financed with the proceeds of the bonds authorized by the resolution, if the bonds are to be sold before the authority designates the projects and participating parties to receive the financing.

(f) The members of the authority and any person executing the bonds are not liable personally on the bonds and are not subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance of the bonds.

(g) The authority may purchase its bonds out of any funds available therefor, and may hold, pledge, cancel, or resell these bonds, subject to, and in accordance with, the agreements with the bondholders.

25392.16. The authority may, in its discretion, secure any bonds issued pursuant to this article by a trust agreement between the authority and a corporate trustee or trustees, which may include the treasurer, a trust company, or a bank having the powers of a trust company within or outside the state. The trust agreement or resolution providing for the issuance of the bonds may contain reasonable and proper provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders, including those provisions which were included in the resolution or resolutions which authorized the bonds, if these provisions do not violate any law. Any bank or trust company doing business under the laws of the state which may act as a depository of the proceeds of bonds, revenues, or other moneys, may furnish the indemnifying bonds or pledge the securities which the authority may require. Any trust agreement may specify the rights and remedies of the bondholders and the trustee or trustees, and may restrict the individual right of action by the bondholders. Any trust agreement or resolution may also contain any other provision which the authority deems reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Treasurer does not have a conflict of interest by acting as a trustee pursuant to this article. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of the trust agreement or resolution may be included as a part of the costs of the operation of a project.

25392.17. (a) Bonds issued pursuant to this article do not constitute a debt or liability of the state or of any political subdivision of the state, other than the authority, or a pledge of the faith and credit of the state or of any political subdivision, other than the authority, but are payable solely from the funds provided for the bond's repayment. All bonds shall contain on the face of the bond the following statement: "The faith and credit and the taxing power of the State of California is not pledged to the payment of the principal of, or interest on, this bond."

(b) The issuance of bonds pursuant to this article does not directly, indirectly, or contingently, obligate the state or any political subdivision of the state to levy or to pledge any form of taxation or to make any appropriation for their payment. This section does not prevent, and shall not be construed to prevent, the authority from pledging its full faith and credit to the payment of bonds or the issuance of bonds authorized pursuant to this article.

25392.18. (a) The authority may provide for the issuance of bonds of the authority to refund any bonds, notes, or other securities of the authority then outstanding, including paying any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued, or to accrue, to the earliest or subsequent date of redemption, purchase, or maturity of these bonds. The authority may also issue refunding bonds to pay all, or any part of, the cost of constructing and acquiring additions, improvements, extension, or enlargements of a project or any portion of a project.

(b) The authority may use the proceeds of any bonds issued to refund outstanding bonds, notes, or other securities to purchase or retire the outstanding bonds, notes, or other securities at their maturity, or to redeem the outstanding bonds, notes, or other securities on the earliest date for redemption. The authority may place these proceeds in escrow to be used for a pending purchase, retirement at maturity, or redemption of, the outstanding bonds, notes, or other security, which will occur on the date determined by the authority, and until these proceeds are so used, the proceeds may be invested and reinvested by the Treasurer in obligations of, or guarantees by, the United States of America, or in certificates of deposit or time deposits secured by obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States of America, if the certificates or time deposits mature at the time or times appropriate to assure the prompt payment of principal and income. The profits, if any, earned or realized on this investment may also be used for refunding the outstanding bonds. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied, the balance of the proceeds and the interest, income, and profits, if any, earned or realized on the investments may be returned to the authority to be used in any lawful manner.

(c) The Treasurer may invest and reinvest that portion of the proceeds of any refunding bonds, which were issued to pay for all, or any part of, the cost of constructing and acquiring additions, improvements, extensions, or enlargements to a project, in obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States of America, or in certificates of deposit or time deposits secured by obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States of America, if the obligations or certificates mature at the time or times when the proceeds are needed for paying all or any part of these costs. The interest, income, and profits, if any, earned or realized on this investment may be applied to the payment of all, or any part of, the costs or may be used by the authority in any lawful manner.

(d) All refunding bonds issued pursuant to this section are subject to the requirements of this article in the same manner and to the same extent as are other bonds issued pursuant to this article.

25392.19. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this article are legal investments for all trust funds, the funds of all insurance companies, commercial banks, savings banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, and investment companies, for executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries, for school funds, and for any funds which may be invested in county, municipal, or school district bonds.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), bonds issued pursuant to this article are securities which may properly and legally be deposited with, and received by, any state or municipal officer or agency, city, county, or district, for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or obligations of the state, is now, or may hereafter be, authorized by law, including deposits to secure public funds.

(c) Bonds issued pursuant to this article may not be used as specified in this section if the evidence of indebtedness or debt securities of the participating party receiving financing through the issuance of these bonds do not qualify or are not eligible for the uses specified in this section.

25392.20. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the authority shall not incur liability beyond the extent to which moneys have been provided pursuant to this article.

(b) The authority may borrow money, as needed, from any other revenue bond issuing authority to meet the necessary expenses of initial organization and operation until the authority derives revenues or proceeds from bonds issued pursuant to this article. The authority shall repay this borrowed money, with interest, within a reasonable time after the authority receives revenues or proceeds from bonds issued pursuant to this article.

(c) If the authority holds title to a project or property acquired by or for the authority pursuant to this article, the authority shall not be required to pay any property taxes or assessments upon, or in respect to, that project or property, or upon the income from the project or property or facilities comprised in the project.

25392.21. Subject to the limitations stated in Section 25392.23, the Legislature may terminate the existence of the authority or alter or limit the powers of the authority. Upon dissolution of the authority, the title to all properties owned by it shall, subject to the interests of any participating parties therein, vest in, and become the property of, the state and shall not inure to the benefit of any private party.

25392.22. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that this article provides a complete, additional, and alternative method to do those things authorized by this article, and is supplemental, and additional to, any powers conferred by any other law.

(b) The issuance of bonds and refunding bonds pursuant to this article is exempt from the requirements of any other law applicable to the issuance of bonds.

(c) Except as specified in this article, the construction and acquisition of a project by the authority pursuant to this article is exempt from any other law applicable to the construction of public works.

25392.23. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the State of California pledges to the holders of any obligations issued pursuant to this article, and with those parties who may enter into contract with the authority pursuant to this article, that the state will not limit or alter the powers given the authority until these obligations, and the interest thereon, are fully met and discharged and the contracts are fully performed on the part of the authority.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not prohibit the state from altering or limiting the powers of the authority if adequate provision is made to protect the holders of the obligations of the authority.

(c) The authority, as agent for the state, may include the pledge and undertaking specified in this section in the obligations or contracts made pursuant to this article.

25392.24. The powers granted to the authority pursuant to this article may be exercised without regard or reference to any other department or agency of the state. All other general or special laws, or parts thereof, which are inconsistent with this article are not applicable to this article. Nothing contained in this article shall be interpreted to exempt employment practices, contracting of services, construction, or acquisition of any project by any participating party from compliance with all applicable local, state, or federal laws and regulations.

25392.25. The authority may receive and utilize grants or loans from the federal government, a public agency, or from any other source, for carrying out this article.

4701. (a) In any proceeding where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a minor child, the court may order either parent or both parents to assign to the county clerk, probation officer, or other officer of the court or county officer designated by the court to receive the payment, that portion of salary or wages of either parent due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor child. The order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the defaulting parent upon whom a copy of the order is served. Any such order may be modified or revoked at any time by the court.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), in any proceeding where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a minor child, upon a petition signed under penalty of perjury by the person or county officer to whom support has been ordered to have been paid that the parent so ordered is in arrears in payment in a sum equal to the amount of one month of the payment within the 24-month period immediately preceding filing of the petition with the court, the court shall issue without notice to the parent ordered to pay support an order requiring the parent ordered to pay support to assign either to the person to whom support has been ordered to have been paid or to a county officer designated by the court to receive the payment, that portion of the salary or wages of the parent due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor child. Such an order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the parent ordered to pay support upon whom a copy of the order is served.

(2) No petition shall be accepted for filing pursuant to this subdivision unless it contains a declaration stating that the parent, or any other person designated pursuant to subdivision (a), to whom support has been ordered to be paid has given the parent ordered to pay support a written notice of his or her intent to seek a wage assignment in the event of a default in support payments and that the notice was transmitted by certified mail or personally served at least 15 days prior to the date of the filing of the petition. A written notice of intent to seek a wage assignment may be given at the time of filing a petition or complaint for support or at any time subsequent thereto. In addition to any other penalty provided by law, the filing of a petition with knowledge of the falsity of the declaration of notice is punishable as a contempt pursuant to Section 1209 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The parent ordered to pay support may at any time waive the written notice required by this subdivision.

(3) The parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid shall notify the court and the employer of the parent ordered to pay support, by any form of mailing requiring a return receipt, of any change of address within a reasonable period of time after any such change. In instances in which payments have been ordered to be made to a county officer designated by the court, the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid shall notify the court and the county officer, by any form of mail requiring a return receipt, of any address change within a reasonable period of time after any such change. If the employer or county officer is unable to deliver payments under the assignment for a period of six months due to the failure of the person to whom support has been ordered to be paid to notify the employer or county officer of a change of address, the employer or county officer shall not make any further payments under the assignment and shall return all undeliverable payments to the employee.

(4) An assignment order made pursuant to this subdivision shall not become effective until 10 days after service of the order on an employer.

(5) Within 10 days of service of an assignment order issued pursuant to this subdivision on an employer, the employer shall deliver a copy of the assignment order to the parent ordered to pay support.

(6) A parent alleged to be in default may move to quash an assignment order issued under this subdivision within 10 days after service on the parent of notice of the assignment order by his or her employer if the parent states under oath that a default in the amount alleged in the petition has not occurred within the 24-month period referred to in the petition or that the amount is not owed. The motion and notice of motion to quash the assignment order shall be filed with the court issuing the assignment order within 10 days after service on the parent of notice of the order by the employer. The clerk of the court shall set the motion to quash for hearing within not less than 15 days, nor more than 20 days, after receipt of the notice of motion and shall mail to the petitioner at the return address contained in the petition a copy of the notice of motion by first-class mail within five days after receipt of the notice of motion.

(7) The employer shall continue to withhold and forward support as ordered by the court until served with notice that the motion to quash under this subdivision has been granted.

(8) The due date of support payments under this subdivision shall be the date specifically stated in the order of support or if no date is stated in the support order, then it shall be the last day of the month in which the support payment is to be paid.

(9) For purposes of this subdivision, arrearages of payment shall be computed on the basis of the payments owed and unpaid on the date that the parent ordered to pay support has been given notice of the order of assignment and the fact that the parent ordered to pay support may have subsequently paid the arrearages shall not relieve the court of its duty under this subdivision to order the assignment.

(10) Upon petition by the parent ordered to pay support, the court shall terminate an order of assignment entered pursuant to this subdivision upon proof of full payment pursuant to the wage assignment for the appropriate period of time, as follows:

(A) An assignment pursuant to this subdivision pursuant to an initial petition shall continue until support payments are current.

(B) An assignment under this subdivision pursuant to a second petition filed within 24 months shall continue for 24 months.

(C) An assignment under this subdivision pursuant to a third or subsequent petition filed within 48 months shall not be terminated unless upon a petition by the parent ordered to pay support the court determines that there is good cause to terminate the assignment.

Upon petition by the parent ordered to pay support, the court shall terminate an order of assignment entered pursuant to this subdivision if the employer or county officer has been unable to deliver payments under the assignment for a period of three months due to the failure of the person to whom support has been ordered to be paid to notify the employer or county officer of a change of address.

(c) The Judicial Council shall prescribe forms for the orders for wage assignment required or authorized by this section. The employer may deduct from the salary or wages of the employee the sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment made pursuant to the order. Any such assignment made pursuant to court order shall have priority as against any attachment, execution, or other assignment, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(d) The employer shall cooperate with and provide relevant employment information to the district attorney for the purpose of enforcing the child support obligation.

(e) No employer shall use any assignment authorized by this section as grounds for the dismissal of that employee.

(f) As used in this section "employer" includes the United States government and any public entity as defined in Section 811.2 of the Government Code.

(g) On declaration or affidavit of the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid to the court that: (1) the parent ordered to make support payments is in default in such payment in the amount specified in subdivision (b), and (2) the whereabouts of the defaulting parent or the identity of his or her employer are unknown to the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid, the district attorney shall contact the central registry maintained by the Department of Justice in the manner prescribed in Section 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and upon receiving the requested information, notify the court of the last known address of the absent parent and the name and address of the absent parent's last known employer. The court shall then order the defaulting parent to make support payments pursuant to subdivision (b).

(h) Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the district attorney to utilize any and all civil and criminal remedies to enforce child support obligations regardless of whether or not the custodial parent receives welfare moneys.

(i) The provisions of this section apply to the money and benefits described in Sections 704.110 and 704.113 of the Code of Civil Procedure to the extent that such money and benefits are subject to a wage assignment for support under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(j) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when a certified copy of any order of assignment is served on any public entity described in Section 704.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure other than the United States government, that entity shall comply with any request for a return of employee contributions by an employee named in the order by delivering the contributions to the clerk of the court from which the order issued, unless the entity has received a certified copy of an order terminating the order of assignment. Upon receipt of moneys pursuant to this section, the clerk of the court, within 10 days, shall send written notice of that fact to the parties, and any agency through whom payments have been ordered under Section 4702. These moneys shall be subject to any procedure available to enforce an order for child support, but if no enforcement procedure is commenced after 30 days have elapsed from the date the notice of receipt is sent, the clerk shall, upon request, return the moneys to the public entity that delivered the moneys to the court unless the public entity has informed the court in writing that the moneys shall be released to the defaulting parent. A court shall not directly or indirectly condition the issuance, modification, or termination of, or condition the terms or conditions of, any order for the support of a minor child upon the issuance of such a request by such an employee.

(k) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), in any case where support is ordered to be paid through the county clerk, probation officer, or other officer of the court or county officer designated by the court for those purposes, or where the district attorney requests,

(l) In any case where support for a minor child is ordered to be paid through the county clerk, probation officer, or other officer of the court or county officer designated by the court for that purpose, and where support is being paid on behalf of a minor child not receiving public assistance pursuant to the Burton-Miller Act (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the county shall forward the support received to the minor child's custodial parent within seven days of receipt.

(m) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of such date is repealed.

SEC. 1.5. Section 4701 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4701. (a) In any proceeding where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a minor child, the court may order either parent or both parents to assign to the county clerk, probation officer, or other officer of the court or county officer designated by the court to receive the payment, that portion of salary or wages of either parent due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor child. The order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the defaulting parent upon whom a copy of the order is served. Any such order may be modified or revoked at any time by the court.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), in any proceeding where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a minor child, upon a petition signed under penalty of perjury by the person or county officer to whom support has been ordered to have been paid that the parent so ordered is in arrears in payment in a sum equal to the amount of one month of the payment within the 24-month period immediately preceding filing of the petition with the court, the court shall issue without notice to the parent ordered to pay support an order requiring the parent ordered to pay support to assign either to the person to whom support has been ordered to have been paid or to a county officer designated by the court to receive the payment, that portion of the salary or wages of the parent due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor child. Such an order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the parent ordered to pay support upon whom a copy of the order is served.

(2) No petition shall be accepted for filing pursuant to this subdivision unless it contains a declaration stating that the parent, or any other person designated pursuant to subdivision (a), to whom

support has been ordered to be paid has given the parent ordered to pay support a written notice of his or her intent to seek a wage assignment in the event of a default in support payments and that the notice was transmitted by certified mail or personally served at least 15 days prior to the date of the filing of the petition. A written notice of intent to seek a wage assignment may be given at the time of filing a petition or complaint for support or at any time subsequent thereto. In addition to any other penalty provided by law, the filing of a petition with knowledge of the falsity of the declaration of notice is punishable as a contempt pursuant to Section 1209 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The parent ordered to pay support may at any time waive the written notice required by this subdivision.

(3) The parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid shall notify the court and the employer of the parent ordered to pay support, by any form of mailing requiring a return receipt, of any change of address within a reasonable period of time after any such change. In instances in which payments have been ordered to be made to a county officer designated by the court, the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid shall notify the court and the county officer, by any form of mail requiring a return receipt, of any address change within a reasonable period of time after any such change. If the employer or county officer is unable to deliver payments under the assignment for a period of three months due to the failure of the person to whom support has been ordered to be paid to notify the employer or county officer of a change of address, the employer or county officer shall not make any further payments under the assignment and shall return all undeliverable payments to the employee.

(4) An assignment order made pursuant to this subdivision shall not become effective until 10 days after service of the order on an employer.

(5) Within 10 days of service of an assignment order issued pursuant to this subdivision on an employer, the employer shall deliver a copy of the assignment order to the parent ordered to pay support.

(6) A parent alleged to be in default may move to quash an assignment order issued under this subdivision within 10 days after service on the parent of notice of the assignment order by his or her employer if the parent states under oath that a default in the amount alleged in the petition has not occurred within the 24-month period referred to in the petition or that the amount is not owed. The motion and notice of motion to quash the assignment order shall be filed with the court issuing the assignment order within 10 days after service on the parent of notice of the order by the employer. The clerk of the court shall set the motion to quash for hearing within not less than 15 days, nor more than 20 days, after receipt of the notice of motion and shall mail to the petitioner at the return address contained in the petition a copy of the notice of motion by first-class mail within five days after receipt of the notice of motion.

(8) The due date of support payments under this subdivision shall be the date specifically stated in the order of support or if no date is stated in the support order, then it shall be the last day of the month in which the support payment is to be paid.

(9) For purposes of this subdivision, arrearages of payment shall be computed on the basis of the payments owed and unpaid on the date that the parent ordered to pay support has been given notice of the order of assignment and the fact that the parent ordered to pay support may have subsequently paid the arrearages shall not relieve the court of its duty under this subdivision to order the assignment.

(10) Upon petition by the parent ordered to pay support, the court shall terminate an order of assignment entered pursuant to this subdivision upon proof of full payment pursuant to the wage assignment for the appropriate period of time, as follows:

(A) An assignment pursuant to this subdivision pursuant to an initial petition shall continue until support payments are current.

(B) An assignment under this subdivision pursuant to a second petition filed within 24 months shall continue for 24 months.

(C) An assignment under this subdivision pursuant to a third or subsequent petition filed within 48 months shall not be terminated unless upon a petition by the parent ordered to pay support the court determines that there is good cause to terminate the assignment.

Upon petition by the parent ordered to pay support, the court shall terminate an order of assignment entered pursuant to this subdivision if the employer or county officer has been unable to deliver payments under the assignment for a period of three months due to the failure of the person to whom support has been ordered to be paid to notify the employer or county officer of a change of address.

(c) The Judicial Council shall prescribe forms for the orders for wage assignment required or authorized by this section. The employer may deduct from the salary or wages of the employee the sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment made pursuant to the order. Any such assignment made pursuant to court order shall have priority as against any attachment, execution, or other assignment, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(d) The employer shall cooperate with and provide relevant employment information to the district attorney for the purpose of enforcing the child support obligation.

(e) No employer shall use any assignment authorized by this section as grounds for the dismissal of that employee.

(f) As used in this section "employer" includes the United States government and any public entity as defined in Section 811.2 of the Government Code.

(g) On declaration or affidavit of the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid to the court that: (1) the parent ordered to make support payments is in default in such payment in the amount specified in subdivision (b), and (2) the whereabouts of such defaulting parent or the identity of his or her employer are unknown to the parent to whom support has been ordered to be paid, the district attorney shall contact the central registry maintained by the Department of Justice in the manner prescribed in Section 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and upon receiving the requested information, notify the court of the last known address of the absent parent and the name and address of the absent parent's last known employer. The court shall then order the defaulting parent to make support payments pursuant to subdivision (b).

(h) Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the district attorney to utilize any and all civil and criminal remedies to enforce child support obligations regardless of whether or not the custodial parent receives welfare moneys.

(i) The provisions of this section apply to the money and benefits described in Sections 704.110 and 704.113 of the Code of Civil Procedure to the extent that such money and benefits are subject to a wage assignment for support under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(j) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when a certified copy of any order of assignment is served on any public entity described in Section 704.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure other than the United States government, that entity shall comply with any request for a return of employee contributions by an employee named in that order by delivering the contributions to the clerk of the court from which the order issued, unless the entity has received a certified copy of an order terminating the order of assignment. Upon receipt of moneys pursuant to this section, the clerk of the court, within 10 days, shall send written notice of that fact to the parties, and any agency through whom payments have been ordered under Section 4702. These moneys shall be subject to any procedure available to enforce an order for child support, but if no enforcement procedure is commenced after 30 days have elapsed from the date the notice of receipt is sent, the clerk shall, upon request, return the moneys to the public entity that delivered the moneys to the court unless the public entity has informed the court in writing that the moneys shall be released to the defaulting parent. A court shall not directly or indirectly condition the issuance, modification, or termination of, or condition the terms or conditions of, any order for the support of a minor child upon the issuance of such a request by such an employee.

(k) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b) in any case where support is ordered to be paid through the county clerk, probation officer, or other officer of the court or county officer designated by the court for those purposes, or where the district attorney requests, the court shall order a wage assignment pursuant to this section.

(l) In any case where support for a minor child is ordered to be paid through the county clerk, probation officer, or other officer of the court or county officer designated by the court for that purpose, and where support is being paid on behalf of a minor child not receiving public assistance pursuant to the Burton-Miller Act (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the county shall forward the support received to the minor child's custodial parent within seven days of receipt.

(m) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1987.

SEC. 2. Section 138.5 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

138.5. The Division of Industrial Accidents shall cooperate in the enforcement of child support obligations. At the request of the Director of Social Services, the administrative director shall assist in providing to the State Department of Social Services information concerning persons who are receiving permanent disability benefits or who have filed an application for adjudication of a claim which the Director of Social Services determines is necessary to carry out its responsibilities pursuant to Section 11478.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

An act to amend Section 14123 of, and to add Section 14107.4 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14123 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14123. Participation in the Medi-Cal program by a provider of service is subject to suspension in order to protect the health of the recipients and the funds appropriated to carry out this chapter.

(a) The director may suspend a provider of service from further participation under the Medi-Cal program for violation of any provision of this chapter or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200) or any rule or regulation promulgated by the director pursuant to those chapters. Any such suspension may be for an indefinite or specified period of time and with or without conditions or may be imposed with the operation of the suspension stayed or probation granted. The director shall suspend a provider of service for conviction of any felony or any misdemeanor involving fraud, abuse of the Medi-Cal program or any patient, or otherwise substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a provider of service.

If the provider of service is a clinic, group, corporation, or other association, conviction of any officer, director, or shareholder with a 10 percent or greater interest in that organization, of such a crime shall result in the suspension of that organization and the individual convicted if the director believes that suspension would be in the best interest of the Medi-Cal program. If the provider of services is a political subdivision of the state or other government agency, the conviction of the person in charge of the facility of such a crime may result in the suspension of that facility. The record of conviction or a certified copy thereof, certified by the clerk of the court or by the judge in whose court the conviction is had, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that the conviction occurred. A plea or verdict of guilty, or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere is deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this section.

After conviction but before the time for appeal has elapsed or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal, the director, if he or she believes that suspension would be in the best interests of the Medi-Cal program, may order the suspension of a provider of service. When the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence irrespective of any subsequent order under Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing a person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information or indictment, the director shall order the suspension of a provider of service. The suspension shall not take effect earlier than the date of the director's order. Suspension following a conviction is not subject to the proceedings required in subdivision (c). However, the director may grant an informal hearing at the request of the provider of service to determine in the director's sole discretion if the circumstances surrounding the conviction justify rescinding or otherwise modifying the suspension provided for in this subdivision.

If the provider of service appeals the conviction and the conviction is reversed, the provider may apply for reinstatement to the Medi-Cal program after the conviction is reversed. Notwithstanding Section 14126.6, the application for reinstatement shall not be subject to the one-year waiting period for the filing of a reinstatement petition pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government Code.

(b) Whenever the director receives written notification from the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, that a physician or other individual practitioner has been suspended from participation in the Medicare or Medicaid programs, the director shall, promptly suspend the practitioner from participation in the Medi-Cal program. This automatic suspension is not subject to the proceedings required in subdivision (c). No payment from state or federal funds may be made for any item or service rendered by the practitioner during the period of suspension.

(c) The proceedings for suspension shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, except that hearings may be conducted by departmental hearing officers appointed by the director. The director may periodically subcontract with the Office of Administrative Hearings to conduct the hearings. The director may temporarily suspend any provider of service prior to any hearing when in his or her opinion that action is necessary to protect the public welfare or the interests of the Medi-Cal program. The director shall notify the provider of service of the temporary suspension and the effective date thereof and at the same time serve the provider with an accusation. The accusation and all proceedings thereafter shall be in accordance with the sections of the Government Code specified in this subdivision. Upon receipt of a notice of defense by the provider, the director shall set the matter for hearing within 30 days after receipt of the notice. The temporary suspension shall remain in effect until such time as the hearing is completed and the director has made a final determination on the merits. The temporary suspension shall, however, be deemed vacated if the director fails to make a final determination on the merits within 60 days after the original hearing has been completed.

(d) The suspension by the director of any provider of service shall preclude the provider from submitting claims for payment, either personally or through claims submitted by any clinic, group, corporation, or other association to the Medi-Cal program for any services or supplies the provider has provided under the program, except for services or supplies provided prior to the suspension. No clinic, group, corporation, or other association which is a provider of service shall submit claims for payment to the Medi-Cal program for any services or supplies provided by a person within the organization who has been suspended or revoked by the director, except for services or supplies provided prior to the suspension.

Where the provisions of this chapter or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200) or the regulations promulgated by the director are violated by a provider of service which is a clinic, group, corporation, or other association, the director may suspend the organization and any individual person within the organization who is responsible for the violation.

(e) Notice of the suspension shall be sent by the director to the provider's state licensing, certifying, or registering authority, along with the evidence upon which the suspension was based.

SEC. 2. Section 14107.4 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14107.4. (a) Any person who, with the intent to defraud, certifies as true and correct any cost report, submitted by a hospital to a state agency for reimbursement pursuant to Section 14170, who knowingly fails to disclose in writing on the cost report any significant beneficial interest, as defined in subdivision (d), which the owners of the provider, or members of the provider governing board, or employees of the provider, or independent contractor of the provider, have in the contractors or vendors to the providers, is guilty of a public offense.

(c) The provider's chief executive officer shall certify that any cost report submitted by a hospital to a state agency for reimbursement pursuant to Section 14170 shall be true and correct. In the case of a hospital which is operated as a unit of a coordinated group of health facilities and under common management, either the hospital's chief executive officer or administrator, or the chief financial officer of the operating region of which the hospital is a part, shall certify to the accuracy of the report.

(d) As used in this section, "significant beneficial interest" means any financial interest that is equal to or greater than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) of ownership interest or 5 percent of the whole ownership or any other contractual or compensatory arrangement with vendors or contractors or immediate family members of vendors or contractors. "Immediate family" means spouse, son, daughter, father, mother, father-in-law, mother-in-law, daughter-in-law, or son-in-law. SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

An act to add Section 14087.52 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14087.52 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14087.52. It is necessary that a special commission be established in San Bernardino County in order to meet the problems of the delivery of publicly assisted medical care in the county and to demonstrate ways of promoting quality care and cost efficiency. Because there is no general law under which such a commission could be formed, the adoption of a special act and the formation of a special commission is required.

The Board of Supervisors of San Bernardino County may, by ordinance, establish a commission to negotiate the exclusive contract specified in Section 14087.5 and to arrange for the provision of health care services provided pursuant to this chapter. If the board of supervisors elects to enact this ordinance, all rights, powers, duties, privileges, and immunities vested in a county by this article shall be vested in the county commission. Any reference in this article to "county" shall mean the commission established pursuant to this section.

It is the intent of the Legislature that if such a commission is formed, the County of San Bernardino shall, with respect to its medical facilities and programs, occupy no greater or lesser status than any other health care provider in negotiating with the commission for contracts to provide health care services.

The enabling ordinance shall specify the membership of the county commission, the qualifications for individual members, the manner of appointment, selection, or removal of commissioners, and how long they shall serve, and any other matters as the board of supervisors deems necessary or convenient for the conduct of the county commission's activities. The commission so established shall be considered an entity separate from the county, shall file the statement required by Section 53051 of the Government Code, and shall have, in addition to the rights, powers, duties, privileges, and immunities previously conferred, the power to acquire, possess, and dispose of real or personal property, as may be necessary for the performance of its functions, to employ personnel and contract for services required to meet its obligations, and to sue or be sued. Any obligations of the commission, statutory, contractual, or otherwise, shall be the obligations solely of the commission and shall not be the obligations of the county or of the state unless expressly provided for in a contract between the commission and the county or state.

Upon creation, the commission may borrow from the county, and the county may lend the commission funds, or issue revenue anticipation notes to obtain those funds necessary to commence operations.

In the event the commission may no longer function for the purposes for which established, at such time as the commission's then existing obligations have been satisfied or the commission's assets have been exhausted, the board of supervisors may by ordinance terminate the commission.

Prior to the termination of the commission, the board of supervisors shall notify the State Department of Health Services of its intent to terminate the commission. The department shall conduct an audit of the commission's records within 30 days of notification to determine the liabilities and assets of the commission. The department shall report its findings to the board within 10 days of completion of the audit. The board shall present a plan to resolve all liabilities of the commission to the department within 30 days upon receipt of these findings.

Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, upon termination of the commission by the board, the County of San Bernardino shall be responsible for any liabilities of the commission until superseded by a department approved plan.

Any assets of the commission shall be disposed of pursuant to provisions contained in the contract entered into between the state and the commission pursuant to this article.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 66 of Chapter 268 of the Statutes of 1984, for the 1984–85 fiscal year, providers of orthotics and prosthetics under the Medi-Cal program shall receive a reimbursement rate cost-of-living increase of 8 percent above the levels in effect on June 30, 1984. This increase is in replacement of, and not in addition to, the increase which providers of orthotics and prosthetics would otherwise receive under Section 66 of Chapter 268 of the Statutes of 1984. The increase provided for in this section shall become effective commencing on the effective date of this act.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that Medi-Cal beneficiaries are able to receive essential health care services, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

An act to amend Section 6359.45 of, and to add Section 17800 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

SEC. 2. Section 17800 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

(a) Any vending machine operator which is a nonprofit, charitable, or educational organization is a consumer of, and shall not be considered a retailer of, tangible personal property which sells at retail for fifteen cents ($0.15) or less and which is actually sold through a vending machine.

(b) Any library district, municipal library, or county library and any vendor making sales pursuant to a contract with a library district, municipal library, or county library is a consumer of, and shall not be considered a retailer of, photocopies which it sells at retail and which are actually sold through a coin-operated copy machine located at a library facility.

SEC. 2. Section 6368.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6368.2. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, diesel fuel used in operating watercraft in commercial deep sea fishing operations or commercial passenger fishing boat operations by persons who are regularly engaged in the business of commercial deep sea fishing or commercial passenger fishing boat operations outside the territorial waters of this state.

(b) For purposes of this section, it shall be rebuttably presumed that a person is not regularly engaged in the business of commercial deep sea fishing or the operation of a commercial passenger fishing boat if the person has gross receipts from these operations of less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) a year.

(c) "Commercial passenger fishing boat operations" means the business of permitting, for profit, any person to fish from the operator's boat or vessel.

(d) This section shall become operative on October 1, 1984, and shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, Section 1 of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the effective date of this act.

An act to amend and repeal Section 15202 of the Government Code, relating to trials.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

15202. (a) A county with a population of 300,000 or less, at the time of the 1980 decennial census, which is responsible for the cost of a trial or trials or any hearing of a person for the offense of homicide may apply to the Controller for reimbursement of 90 percent of the costs incurred by the county for each such trial or hearing, without regard to fiscal year, in excess of the amount of money derived by the county from a tax of 0.00625 of 1 percent of the full value of property assessed for purposes of taxation within the county.

(b) A county with a population exceeding 300,000 at the time of the 1980 decennial census which is responsible for the cost of a trial or trials or any hearing of a person for the offense of homicide may apply to the Controller for reimbursement of 80 percent of the costs incurred by the county in excess of the amount of money derived by the county from a tax of 0.00625 of 1 percent, and not in excess of the amount of money derived from a tax of 0.0125 of 1 percent, and for reimbursement of 100 percent of the costs incurred in excess of the amount of money derived from a tax of 0.0125 percent, of the full value of property assessed for purposes of taxation within the county.

(c) The Controller shall not reimburse any county for costs that exceed the standards for travel and per diem expenses set forth in Sections 700 to 715, and 718, of Title 2 of the California Administrative Code. The Controller may reimburse extraordinary costs in unusual cases if the county provides sufficient justification of the need for such expenditures.

(d) The Legislature recognizes that the conduct of trials for persons accused of homicide should not be hampered or delayed because of a lack of funds available to the counties for that purpose. While this section is intended to provide an equitable basis for determining the allocation to the state of the costs of homicide trials in any particular county, the rising costs of those trials necessitate an objective study to assure reasonable financial restraints and incentives for cost-effectiveness that do not place an unreasonable burden on the treasury of the smaller counties.

In order to assist the Governor and the Legislature in making that determination, the Office of Planning and Research, in cooperation with the Legislative Analyst, state and local agencies, representatives of law enforcement and the defense bar, and other public officials, shall undertake a study of the effectiveness of this section with regard to those concerns, and, no later than July 1, 1987, shall submit a report to the Governor and to the Legislature with its findings and any recommendations for amendment of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 1 of this act applies to any case in which a final judgment was not entered prior to January 1, 1985. Section 1 shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1989, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 15202 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 46 of Chapter 323 the Statutes of 1983, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

An act making an appropriation for land acquisition, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of two hundred ninety-five thousand dollars ($295,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Water Resources for payment of costs of land acquisition, in settlement of a judgment in eminent domain in case No. 70981 of the Superior Court in and for the County of Butte, for the Feather River Enhancement Project authorized pursuant to

SEC. 2. (a) The sum of five million six hundred ninety-seven thousand dollars ($5,697,000) is hereby appropriated from the moneys available for allocation pursuant to Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code, after the obligations provided for in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d), of Section 6217 have been met and prior to any other allocations provided for in Section 6217, to be allocated as follows:

(1) Five million ten thousand dollars ($5,010,000) to the Wildlife Conservation Board for the acquisition of the real property which is the subject of litigation entitled Lake Country Estates, Inc., et al, v. (b) The appropriation in subdivision (a) is subject to all of the following:

(1) The property shall be acquired pursuant to the Wildlife Conservation Law of 1947 (Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1300) of Division 2 of the Fish and Game Code) and is exempt from relocation assistance requirements, if any, pursuant to Chapter 16 (commencing with Section 7260) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(2) The Wildlife Conservation Board, upon acquisition, shall transfer control and possession of the property to the Department of Parks and Recreation.

(3) The property shall be operated and maintained by the Department of Parks and Recreation in a manner which promotes its environmental and recreational values. The Department of Parks and Recreation may enter into appropriate agreements as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this subdivision.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

the Upper Truckee River supplies approximately 40 percent of the water flowing into Lake Tahoe, and to settle and dismiss, with prejudice, the litigation regarding that property, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code, the regulations shall not remain in effect more than 180 days unless the agency complies with all provisions of Chapter 3.5 as required by subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. Section 7085 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7085. (a) An applicant may apply to the department to have an area designated as a targeted economic development area or a neighborhood economic development area, or both, for a five-year period which is renewable each five years until a total of 15 years is reached.

(10) Proposed involvement in the program by private entities, organizations, neighborhood organizations, and neighborhood groups which may make contributions to the program.

(11) If applicable, a specification of the distance between the proposed targeted economic development area and the nearest high density unemployment area. The distance shall be within reasonable commuting distance.

(c) The department shall design, develop, and make available the applications, the criteria for selection, and all regulations regarding the program.

(d) In competitively evaluating the applications for the program designation, the department shall give special preference to those areas with respect to which the strongest and highest quality contributions described in subdivision (b) are indicated. The form and manner in which applications are required to be submitted shall minimize the paperwork of the applicant.

(h) The department may designate not more than a total of nine targeted economic development areas and nine neighborhood economic development areas over a 15-year period. In complying with this limitation, the department shall designate not more than three targeted economic development areas and three neighborhood economic development areas by the end of 1984, not more than six targeted economic development areas and six neighborhood economic development areas by the end of 1985, and not more than nine targeted economic development areas and nine neighborhood economic development areas by the end of 1986. The department may not designate as a targeted economic development area pursuant to this chapter any area that has been designated for economic development as an enterprise zone under any other provision of state law.

(i) The department shall adopt regulations concerning the designation procedures and application process as emergency regulations in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The draft environmental impact report shall be submitted to the department with the final application. Prior to final designation by the department, the applicant shall complete and certify the final environmental impact report. The environmental impact report shall comply with the information disclosure provisions and the substantive requirements of Division 13 of the Public Resources Code. No further environmental impact report shall be required if the effects of the project were either (1) mitigated or avoided as a result of the environmental impact report prepared for the program area, or (2) examined at a sufficient level of detail in the environmental impact report for the program area to enable those effects to be mitigated or avoided by specific site revisions, the imposition of conditions, or other means in connection with the designation of the program area.

An act to add Article 11 (commencing with Section 1339.51) to Chapter 2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facilities, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 11 (commencing with Section 1339.51) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1339.51. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) That parents of children who have chronic illnesses or disabilities or who have terminal illness have no place to turn for temporary relief from the burden of providing for the daily physical care needs of their children.

(b) That many single parents of these children must work or further their education, but are unable to find a child care agency in the community equipped and staffed to provide the physical care required for these children.

(c) That there are children for whom home health aides provide adequate care, but who have unmet socialization needs.

(d) That these children daily require more than the incidental medical care available in a community care facility, but less than the medical care provided in an acute care hospital or skilled nursing facility.

(e) That the extraordinary demands placed upon the families of these children often result in unnecessary and expensive admissions to acute care hospitals or skilled nursing facilities or in delayed discharge from acute care.

1339.52. For the purposes of this article:

(a) "Children" means persons under the age of 21 years.

(b) "Chronic illness" means a physical condition which restricts physical development, impairs ability to engage in age-appropriate accustomed and expected activities, and requires periodic medical treatment during the year in a hospital or other medical outpatient or inpatient facility. "Chronic illness" does not include developmental disabilities as defined in Section 4512 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(c) "Intermediate care facility for chronically or terminally ill children" means a facility which provides 24-hour personal care and supportive health services and day care to children with chronic or terminal illnesses who need care and supervision and regular health services, and each client has been certified by the client's attending physician and surgeon as not requiring continuous skilled nursing care. An intermediate care facility for chronically or terminally ill children shall be limited to a capacity of eight day care clients with provision for intermittent 24-hour care for no more than four of the day care clients at any one time.

1339.53. The care provided in an intermediate care facility for chronically or terminally ill children under this chapter shall include, but not be limited to, child supervision, dietary services, administration of medications, day activities and socialization, coordination with local education agencies, and special services, as determined by the client's attending physician and surgeon. At the time of admission or within 24 hours of admission, an individual care plan shall be developed. The individual care plan shall be coordinated by a registered nurse who shall be on call at all times for the provision of needed skilled nursing services. Medications shall be administered by the registered nurse and licensed vocational nurse within the scope of their respective licenses. The department shall determine staffing standards which shall include at least one licensed vocational nurse and at least one care provider trained in early childhood education. Each client accepted for care shall be under the continuing supervision of an attending physician and surgeon who shall evaluate the client as needed and at least once every 30 days unless there is an alternate schedule. The attending physician and surgeon shall document the visits in the client's health record.

1339.54. The state department shall establish a three-year demonstration project for one intermediate care facility for chronically or terminally ill children as provided in this chapter as follows:

(a) On or before July 1, 1985, the state department shall contract with a qualified organization in Sacramento County using a competitive bidding process to conduct the demonstration project.

(b) On or before July 1, 1988, the state department shall submit to the Legislature an evaluation report which shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) The number of children served.

(2) The medical diagnosis of children served.

(3) The reasons for admission.

(4) The services provided.

(5) The length of stay.

(6) The reason for discharge.

(7) An evaluation of the services by the family.

(8) The private and public cost of service.

(9) Recommendations for expansion or termination of the program.

(10) An assessment of the cost effectiveness of the project.

(c) The state department shall conduct an evaluation of the program at least annually.

1339.55. (a) The intermediate care facility for chronically or terminally ill children shall meet the same fire safety standards adopted by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to Sections 13113, 13113.5, 13143, and 13143.6 that apply to community care facilities, as defined in Section 1502, of similar size and with residents of similar age and ambulatory status. No other state or local regulations relating to fire safety shall apply to these facilities, and the requirements specified in this section shall be uniformly enforced by state and local fire authorities.

1339.56. The intermediate care facility for chronically or terminally ill children shall meet the same seismic safety requirements applied to community care facilities of similar size with residents of similar age and ambulatory status. No additional requirements relating to seismic safety shall apply to these facilities.

1339.57. For the purposes of all local zoning and use permit ordinances, an intermediate care facility for chronically or terminally ill children shall be considered to be a community care facility of six beds or less and shall meet the requirements of Section 1566.3. No other state or local requirements relating to zoning and use permits shall apply to these facilities.

1339.58. Multipurpose spaces in an intermediate care facility for chronically or terminally ill children shall be utilized to provide rest periods, space, and accommodation for day care clients.

1339.59. The uniform standards of financial eligibility established by the department under Section 255 shall be used to determine financial eligibility under this article. The state department shall establish and update as necessary a schedule of fees which shall be paid by the families of children receiving services under this chapter according to ability to pay.

1339.60. The director may terminate the demonstration project at any time it is determined that conditions exist which constitute a threat to the health, safety, security, and welfare of the clients.

1339.61. It is the intent of the Legislature that for purposes of this article, statutes and regulations governing intermediate care facilities be applied to this demonstration project by the state department in a manner that provides for maximum flexibility in requirements in areas including, but not limited to, staffing, dietary services, physical plant and equipment, and client records, so long as this flexibility is consistent with client health and safety.

SEC. 2. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services the sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) for expenditure without regard to fiscal years to carry out the purposes of this act.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

An act to add and repeal Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 5575) of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles, making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 5575) is added to Part 1 of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7. MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES FOR CHILDREN

5575. The Legislature finds that there is no comprehensive system for the delivery of mental health services to children and youth, including families or foster families. It further finds that services to children and youth are provided by various departments and agencies at both the state and county level, often without appropriate collaboration. The Legislature finds that mental health services to children in the County of Ventura are comparatively more comprehensive, involve more interagency collaboration, and provide a potential model program. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature to establish a two-year demonstration project in Ventura County to accomplish the following goals:

(a) Design and implement a comprehensive coordinated children's mental health service system as described in the 1983 State Department of Mental Health planning model.

(b) Build on existing service capabilities within the various agencies currently serving children's needs.

(c) Provide for a joint evaluation or interagency consultation by all publicly funded agencies for minors experiencing emotional disturbances.

(d) Identify statutory and regulatory changes that would facilitate interagency cooperation.

(e) Develop appropriate interagency protocols and agreements.

(f) Develop appropriate services for difficult-to-place children.

(g) Provide services in a manner that gives priority to permitting the minor to reside in his or her usual family setting.

(h) Where a joint evaluation indicates that out-of-home care and treatment is required, ensure that these services are provided in the least restrictive setting consistent with effective services, and in as close proximity as possible to the minor's usual residence.

(i) Conduct research into children's mental health service system in order that the system may be evaluated for effectiveness of treatment and cost benefit on an ongoing basis.

(j) Provide for other counties or regions a replicable model for a comprehensive, coordinated children's mental health service system.

5576. The State Department of Mental Health shall establish a two-year demonstration project in Ventura County for identifying and evaluating the county's interagency mechanism whereby local agencies serving emotionally disturbed minors with public funds are effectively collaborating with each other on behalf of these minors.

5577. (a) The State Department of Mental Health shall contract with the County of Ventura, according to the terms set forth in Section 5705.2, for the purpose of establishing a two-year demonstration project for developing and implementing a model children's comprehensive mental health service system. The program, as developed, shall meet the goals stated in Section 5575. The project shall include the various elements described in the proposed planning model for continuum of care for emotionally disturbed children and youth, published by the State Department of Mental Health in October 1983.

(b) The system developed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall include joint evaluation of the child and shall give priority to all of the following:

(1) Enabling the minor to remain at home whenever possible.

(2) Providing placement in the least restrictive and least costly setting consistent with the minor's needs.

(3) Enabling the minor to receive out-of-home services in as close proximity as possible to the minor's usual residence.

(c) The contract pursuant to subdivision (a) shall include research into the county's mental health service system for children and youth in order that the system may be evaluated for effectiveness of treatment and cost benefit on an ongoing basis, and identification of a model for a comprehensive coordinated children's mental health service system that can be replicated in other counties.

(d) The Director of Mental Health shall establish an advisory group comprised of, but not limited to, the following: representatives from the appropriate state departments, children services coordinators designated by the Conference of Local Mental Health Directors, the Citizens Advisory Council and the local mental health advisory boards. The function of the advisory group shall be to advise and assist Ventura County in the development of replicable model programs and other duties as determined by the Director of Mental Health.

(e) The demonstration project shall begin on April 1, 1985, and shall continue through June 30, 1987. During this period, the County of Ventura shall file progress reports each six months, beginning on December 1, 1985. The June 1, 1986, report shall also contain information on statutory and regulatory changes needed for interagency collaboration, and copies of interagency protocols and agreements that have been developed. The final report on the project shall be completed on or before June 30, 1987. This report shall be submitted to the State Department of Mental Health and to the Chairpersons of the Assembly Committee on Health, the Senate Committee on Health and Human Services, the Assembly Ways and Means Committee, and the Senate Finance Committee.

5578. The sum of two million eight hundred ninety-four thousand three hundred twenty-five dollars ($2,894,325) is the estimated cost of the demonstration project which shall be administered by the State Department of Mental Health in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) Two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) is appropriated from the General Fund to the department for the 1984–85 fiscal year.

(2) The Legislature intends that one million five hundred forty-three thousand six hundred forty dollars ($1,543,640) shall be appropriated in the 1985–86 Budget Act for the next four quarters of the demonstration project.

(3) The Legislature intends that the remaining one million one hundred fifty thousand six hundred eighty-five dollars ($1,150,685) be appropriated from the 1986–87 Budget Act for the last three quarters of the demonstration project and wind down costs will be based on a review and evaluation of the demonstration project.

5579. This chapter shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before June 30, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

An act to amend and repeal Sections 13053 and 13054 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13053 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

13053. (a) Every employer shall file an annual return with the department, on forms prescribed by the department, reporting the total tax withheld for the year pursuant to Section 13020 at the time prescribed by the director. The employer shall include with the return, in a manner prescribed by the director, duplicates of the statements required pursuant to Section 13050.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1988, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1988, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 13053 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, as added by Section 64 of Chapter 1007 of the Statutes of 1980, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 2. Section 13054 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

13054. (a) If an employer fails to file the annual report of compensation paid and taxes withheld, required under Section 13053, on or before 30 days after notice has been given to the employer of his or her failure to file, unless the failure is due to reasonable cause, the employer, in addition to any other penalties imposed by this division and Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall pay a penalty of two hundred fifty dollars ($250). The penalty shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as the tax.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1988, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1988, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 13054 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, as added by Section 64 of Chapter 1007 of the Statutes of 1980, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

An act to amend Sections 12974, 12976, and 12994 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12974 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12974. Failure of a person using a pesticide to possess a written recommendation shall create a rebuttable presumption that he or she has assumed responsibility for the recommendation.

SEC. 2. Section 12976 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12976. The director, after investigation and hearing, may adopt regulations to govern the possession, sale, or use of any pesticide which the director finds necessary to carry out the purposes of Division 6 (commencing with Section 11401) or this division.

SEC. 3. Section 12994 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12994. It is unlawful for any person to transport, destroy, or dispose of any quarantined economic poison, unless the person has received written permission from the director.

SEC. 4. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the proper and careful use of pesticides is important for protection of the agricultural resource and the health and safety of the public, and for the elimination of environmental contamination resulting from the misuse of pesticides. The Legislature further finds and declares that a critical factor in the safe and proper use of pesticides is the knowledge and skills of the applicators, particularly aerial applicators.

(b) The Director of Food and Agriculture, in consultation with the University of California, shall develop a curriculum designed for the implementation of a training program to raise the level of knowledge and skill of aerial and other pesticide applicators through contracts with organizations that have demonstrated expertise in the field of pesticide application training.

(c) The curriculum covered in the training programs shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Recognized industry standards for the conduct of aerial pest control operations.

(2) Laws and regulations relating to pesticide use, transportation, and disposal.

(3) Consideration of specific and general environmental effects resulting from the use of pesticides.

(4) Individual duties and responsibilities of the various application crew members.

(5) Equipment selection, calibration, and maintenance.

(d) The sum of one hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($175,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Food and Agriculture to carry out subdivision (b).

SEC. 5. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

An act to add and repeal Section 2714 of the Penal Code, relating to prison inmates.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2714 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

2714. (a) The Department of General Services, in cooperation with the Department of Corrections and the Prison Industry Authority, shall conduct an inventory of state land which may be used for prison farm operations, as described in Section 2715, or prison industry operations, as defined in Section 2807. The inventory shall be completed by January 1, 1986.

(b) By July 1, 1987, the Department of Corrections and the Prison Industry Authority shall report to the Legislature with respect to plans for expanding prison farm or industry operations on state lands.

(c) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed.

An act to add Section 5020 to the Penal Code, relating to prisoners.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that:

(a) The rate of criminal recidivism can be greatly reduced by educating and training individuals confined in California's juvenile and adult correctional institutions and by providing those individuals with preemployment job training, thereby creating a healthier and safer environment for society, significantly reducing the cost of repeated incarceration, and offering inmates the skills and capacity for meaningful employment in the future.

(b) Many inmates, both juvenile and adult, confined in California's correctional institutions do not possess basic education skills such as reading, language, and mathematics, and it is often necessary to employ nontraditional approaches to reach and educate these individuals, improve their self-image, and provide them with the means to earn a livelihood.

(c) Technological breakthroughs in the computer industry are providing new approaches in variable, individualized, student-oriented methods of learning that may prove the means and method by which offenders will be encouraged to participate in educational programs.

(d) A coalition of public and private sector business, industry, and labor communities may prove to be the most successful method for encouraging innovative techniques in educating incarcerated offenders.

SEC. 2. Section 5020 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

5020. (a) The Department of Corrections and the California Youth Authority shall conduct a two-year pilot project in juvenile halls, the Youth Authority, and the state prison system if and when the necessary computer hardware, software, and technical assistance is donated to the departments to implement innovative individualized education programs in these institutions.

(b) The Department of the Youth Authority and the Department of Corrections shall, within budgetary limitations, provide staff to be trained and participate in educating and testing the inmates. At the end of the project period, the departments shall evaluate the effectiveness of the training techniques employed and report to the Legislature on their findings.

An act to amend Section 1798 of, and to add Section 1798.5 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to crime and delinquency prevention.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1798 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1798. An advisory commission shall be established which shall be known as the State Commission on Juvenile Justice, Crime and Delinquency Prevention. The members of the commission shall be persons with a demonstrated interest in juvenile justice or crime and delinquency prevention issues, or representatives of youth groups or other public and private agencies with a focus on the needs of youth. The commission shall not exceed 16 members, one of whom shall be appointed by the Senate Rules Committee, one of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and four of whom shall be chairpersons of the regional citizens' advisory committees established pursuant to Section 1798.5. The remaining 10 commission members shall be appointed by the Director of the Youth Authority, and shall include one public defender and one district attorney who are currently assigned to juvenile justice duties.

The commission shall advise the Director of the Youth Authority on matters relating to this article, and its activities shall include the inspection of Youth Authority facilities, providing advice to the director regarding department programs and delinquency prevention funding, and acting as a liaison between the Youth Authority and the public. The members of the commission shall be entitled to their reasonable expenses, including travel expenses, incurred in the discharge of their duties.

SEC. 2. Section 1798.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

1798.5. The Director of the Youth Authority shall appoint four regional citizens' advisory committees each of which shall assist in the inspection of the Youth Authority facilities within its region and provide public comment to the director concerning the operations of the Youth Authority. The membership of the advisory committees shall be drawn from representatives of youth groups, county juvenile justice and delinquency prevention commissions, community-based organizations, charitable organizations, probation departments, the judiciary, social services, law enforcement, the defense bar, education, and the general public.

An act to amend Section 698 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to public health, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) Vietnam veterans in California have no alternative to the United States Veterans' Administration in seeking help with health problems and concerns related to exposure to herbicides such as Agent Orange, while some other states, by contrast, maintain screening and diagnostic services or assistance to veterans in obtaining necessary health services from the Veterans' Administration together with followup monitoring of the performance of the Veterans' Administration facilities in those states.

(b) There are 14 Veterans' Administration facilities within California, and the Veterans' Administration is under congressional mandate to provide a range of health care services, examinations, and information to Vietnam veterans possibly exposed to herbicides while serving in Vietnam.

(c) The United States General Accounting Office has recently published a report, designated GAO/MRD 83-6 dated October 25, 1982, and titled "The Veterans' Administration's Agent Orange Examination Program: Actions Needed to More Effectively Address Veterans' Health Concerns," which concluded that health care facilities of the Veterans' Administration nationwide were significantly deficient in carrying out federal law regarding services to Vietnam veterans potentially exposed to Agent Orange. This report concluded, among other things, that, overall, the Veterans' Administration provides Vietnam veterans with complete physical examinations in only a minority of cases. The sample of Veterans' Administration facilities investigated by the General Accounting Office in its study included two of the 14 in California.

SEC. 2. Section 698 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

698. (a) The department shall assist Vietnam veterans, and the dependents of those veterans, in presenting and pursuing claims that a veteran or dependent asserts that he or she may have against the United States arising out of exposure to herbicides, including Agent Orange. As part of the department's assistance in the preparation and filing of claims for damages alleged to be due to herbicide exposure, the department shall do all of the following:

(1) Cooperate with the State Department of Health Services and other state, federal, and private agencies to organize and distribute the information on the effects of Agent Orange and other herbicides on Vietnam veterans, as identified pursuant to subdivision (b).

(2) Provide an outreach program to inform California Vietnam veterans of the possible detrimental effects of herbicide exposure in Vietnam. This program shall include, but not be limited to, dissemination of information to county veteran service officers and other California veteran agencies and organizations.

(3) Retain information on those Vietnam veterans responding to the outreach program.

(4) Provide referral for administrative, medical, and compensation services administered by the Veterans' Administration.

(5) Follow up on its referrals of veterans to the United States Veterans' Administration for purposes of assisting Vietnam veterans in securing medical assistance or pursuing claims for compensation.

(6) Maintain contact with veterans referred to the United States Veterans' Administration to establish a record of their degree of satisfaction with Agent Orange services provided by the Veterans' Administration. The findings and recommendations contained in the United States General Accounting Office report GAO/MRD 83-6, dated October 25, 1982, entitled "The Veterans' Administration's Agent Orange Examination Program: Actions Needed to More Effectively Address Veterans' Health Concerns" shall be used as a guide in compiling this record. The department shall make a report of the record so compiled to both of the following:

(B) The appropriate committees of the Legislature.

(7) Report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1985, on the Agent Orange Program. The report shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) The number of California veterans identified as having been exposed to Agent Orange and other defoliants.

(B) The number of California veterans filing claims for compensation for service-related exposure to Agent Orange and other defoliants.

(C) A categorization of symptoms reported by the veterans.

(D) A summary of medical test results from exposed veterans.

(E) The availability of federal and private funds to offset state expenses incurred in assisting veterans in filing defoliant-related claims.

(b) The department shall also assist American civilians who served in Vietnam in obtaining information concerning their possible exposure to herbicides, including Agent Orange. As part of the department's assistance in this regard, the department shall conduct an outreach program to do all of the following:

(1) Contact civilians who served in Vietnam.

(2) Furnish these civilians with information on the possible detrimental effects of exposure to herbicides employed in Vietnam and on possible sources of information relative to securing medical services and assistance in pursuing claims for compensation.

(3) Prepare and submit to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1987, a report on the results of its assistance to civilians.

(c) The Board of Medical Quality Assurance, in cooperation with the department, shall provide a program for the dissemination of information through physicians on the Agent Orange and herbicide exposure health care and compensation services administered by the Veterans' Administration and assistance provided by the department.

(d) As used in this section, "Agent Orange" means the herbicide composed primarily of trichlorophenoxy acetic acid and dichlorophenoxy acetic acid.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before June 30, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Veterans Affairs for expenditure during the 1984–85 fiscal year for purposes of this act.

An act relating to state employment.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature that guidelines for equal and fair employment protections apply to all categories of disabled persons. As used in this section, "disabled person" does not include any individual who is an alcohol or drug abuser whose current use of alcohol or drugs prevents the individual from performing the duties of the job in question, or whose employment, because of current alcohol or drug abuse, would constitute a direct threat to the property or the safety of others. The State Personnel Board shall conduct a review of the methods now used to insure equal employment opportunities for all categories of the disabled and explore alternative ways to identify and track nonobservable disabilities, while protecting applicant and employee confidentiality and right to privacy. The board shall also explore whether affirmative action goals and timetables, including exemption from layoff, ought to be extended to include all categories of disabled persons, and, if that question is answered in the affirmative, then the board shall study how to accomplish those results. The board shall submit a report to the Legislature outlining the board's findings and recommendations no later than June 30, 1985.

An act to add Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 13870) to Title 6 of Part 4 of the Penal Code, relating to crime, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 13870) is added to Title 6 of Part 4 of the Penal Code, to read:

CHAPTER 8. INFORMATION ON RACIAL, ETHNIC AND RELIGIOUS CRIMES

13870. The Legislature finds that racial, ethnic, and religious crimes occur throughout California and that no single agency now either provides assistance or monitors the full range of this crime in the state on a consistent basis. The Legislature further declares that exposure of the facts about racial, ethnic, and religious crimes will lead to greater public awareness of the problem of bigotry and prejudice and will provide a foundation for developing remedies to the problem.

In enacting this chapter, the Legislature intends to take the preliminary steps needed to establish a statewide information center to receive and evaluate information reflecting racial, ethnic, and religious crime. It is intended that this information will provide a precise picture of the geographic distribution of these crimes and trends over time.

13871. The Attorney General shall, on January 1, 1985, commence a one-year project to develop a program model to collect, compile, and analyze information about racial, ethnic, and religious crimes. The project shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following duties:

(a) Develop uniform guidelines for consistent identification of racial, ethnic, and religious crimes.

(b) Recommend an appropriate means for statewide collection of data on racial, ethnic, and religious crimes.

(c) Recommend an appropriate state agency to implement collection of this information.

(d) Submit to the Legislature a final report describing the findings of the study by January 1, 1986.

13872. The crimes that shall be the focus of this chapter shall include a wide variety of incidents, which reflect obvious racial, ethnic, or religious motivations, ranging from vandalizing a place of worship to assaults between members of gangs, including, but not limited to, incidents that occur on school grounds and between gang members and any other incidents that law enforcement officers on a case-by-case basis identify as having a racial, ethnic or religious motivation. They shall not include incidents of discrimination in employment.

SEC. 2. The sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Justice for the purposes of this act. The funds appropriated by this section shall be available for encumbrance until January 1, 1986.

An act making an appropriation to pay the settlement of the claim of Harriet E. Shields against the State of California, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Board of Control to pay the settlement of the claim of the plaintiff against the State of California in the case entitled Harriet E. Shields v. State of California, case number C 304 087, brought in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 5 (commencing with Section 49350) is added to Chapter 8 of Part 27 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 5. Toxic Art Supplies in Schools

49350. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that art supplies which contain toxic substances or which are potential human carcinogens pose a significant danger to the health and safety of school children. The Legislature also finds and declares that school children are not sufficiently protected by present health laws in so far as materials which may be seriously harmful are not so labeled and therefore children are not properly warned as to the dangers inherent in the use of those materials.

49351. The term "art or craft material" means any raw or processed material or manufactured product marketed or being represented by the manufacturer or repackager as being suitable for use in the demonstration or the creation of any work of visual or graphic art of any medium. These media may include, but shall not be limited to, paintings, drawings, prints, sculpture, ceramics, enamels, jewelry, stained glass, plastic sculpture, photographs, and leather and textile goods.

The term "potential human carcinogen" means one of the following:

(1) Any substance which does not meet the definition of human carcinogen, but for which there exists sufficient evidence of carcinogenicity in animals, as determined by the International Agency for Research on Cancer.

(2) Any chemical shown to be changed by the human body into a human carcinogen.

(2) Potential human carcinogens.

(3) Any substance included in the list of hazardous substances prepared by the Director of Industrial Relations, pursuant to Section 6382 of the Labor Code, notwithstanding exemptions made for substances on the list which are used in particular forms, circumstances, or concentrations, if the health hazard presented by the substance is not the subject of label statements required by federal law.

49354. (a) For the 1986–87 academic year and for each academic year thereafter, no art or craft material which is deemed by the State Department of Health Services to contain a toxic substance, as defined by the California Hazardous Substance Act, Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 28740) of Division 22 of the Health and Safety Code, or a toxic substance causing chronic illness, as defined in this article, shall be ordered or purchased by any school or school district in California for use by students in kindergarten and grades 1 to 6, inclusive.

(c) If the State Department of Health Services finds that, because the chronically toxic, carcinogenic, or radioactive substances contained in an art or craft product cannot be ingested, inhaled, or otherwise absorbed into the body during any reasonably foreseeable use of the product in a way that could pose a potential health risk, the department may exempt the product from these requirements to the extent it determines to be consistent with adequate protection of the public health and safety.

(d) For the purposes of this article, an art or craft material shall be presumed to contain an ingredient which is a toxic substance causing chronic illness if the ingredient, whether an intentional ingredient or an impurity, is 1 percent or more by weight of the mixture or product, or if the State Department of Health Services determines that the toxic or carcinogenic properties of the art or craft material are such that labeling is necessary for the adequate protection of the public health and safety.

49355. Warning labels for substances specified in Section 49354 shall meet all of the following standards:

(a) The warning label shall be affixed in a conspicuous place and shall contain the signal word "WARNING," to alert users of potential adverse health effects.

(b) The warning label shall contain information on the health-related dangers of the art or craft material.

(1) If the product contains a human carcinogen, the warning shall contain the statement: "CANCER HAZARD! Overexposure may create cancer risk."

(2) If the product contains a potential human carcinogen, and does not contain a human carcinogen, the warning shall contain the statement: "POSSIBLE CANCER HAZARD! Overexposure might create create cancer risk."

(3) If the product contains a toxic substance causing chronic illness, the warning shall contain, but not be limited to, the following statement or statements where applicable:

(A) May cause sterility or damage to reproductive organs.

(B) May cause birth defects or harm to developing fetus.

(C) May be excreted in human milk causing harm to nursing infant.

(D) May cause central nervous system depression or injury.

(E) May cause numbness or weakness in the extremities.

(F) Overexposure may cause damage to (specify organ).

(4) If a product contains more than one chronically toxic substance, or if a single substance can cause more than one chronic health effect, the required statements may be combined into one warning statement.

(c) The warning label shall contain a list of ingredients which are toxic substances causing chronic illness.

(d) The warning label shall contain a statement or statements of safe use and storage instructions, conforming to the following list. The label shall contain, but not be limited to, as many of the following risk statements as are applicable:

(12) Use local exhaust hood (specify type).

(14) Do not use/mix with (specify material).

(e) The warning label shall contain a statement on where to obtain more information, such as, "Call your local poison control center for more health information."

(f) The warning label, or any other label on the substance, shall contain the name and address of the manufacturer or repackager.

(g) If all of the above information cannot fit on the package label, a package insert shall be required to convey all the necessary information to the consumer. In this event, the label shall contain a statement to refer to the package insert, such as "CAUTION: See package insert before use." For puposes of this section, "package insert" means a display of written, printed, or graphic matter upon a leaflet or suitable material accompanying the art supply. The language on this insert shall be nontechnical and nonpromotional in tone and content.

(h) Art or craft material offered for sale in containers which contain less than 1 fluid ounce (30 milliliters) or 1 ounce net (29 grams) shall be deemed to comply with this section if there is affixed thereon a precautionary label that includes the signal words "USE WITH CAUTION: Contains Hazardous Substances," and a list of potentially harmful or sensitizing ingredients.

The requirements set forth in subdivisions (a) to (g), inclusive, shall not be considered to be complied with unless the required words, statements, or other information appear on the outside container or wrapper, or on a package insert which is easily legible through the outside container or wrapper and is painted in a color in contrast with the product or the package containing the product.

An art or craft material shall be considered to be in compliance with this section if Article 4 (commencing with Section 28794) of Chapter 13 of Division 22 of the Health and Safety Code requires labeling of the art or craft material, and if the material is in compliance with that article.

49356. The State Department of Health Services shall, by June 1, 1986, develop a list of those art or craft materials which cannot be purchased or ordered for use in kindergarten and in grades 1 to 6, inclusive, and a list of materials which, while not currently sold or manufactured, may be reasonably suspected to still exist at some schools. In developing the lists, the State Department of Health Services shall consult with manufacturers of art supplies, artists' groups, health organizations, and toxicologists as the State Department of Health Services deems appropriate.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall distribute the lists to all school districts in California, and shall make the lists available to preschools, childcare centers, and other businesses and organizations which involve children in the use of art or craft materials.

The superintendent shall inform school districts of the requirements of this article, and shall encourage school districts to dispose of art or craft material which may contain human carcinogens, potential human carcinogens, or chronically toxic substances, but which is not affected by this article.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

SEC. 6. (a) Section 1.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1505 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1754. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1985, (2) each bill amends Section 1505 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) SB 2274 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 1754, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, and 1.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 1.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1505 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and SB 2274. is enacted after SB 1754 and SB 2274, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, and 1.2 of this bill shall not become operative.

An act to amend Section 1528 of, and to add Section 1527.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to day care facilities for children, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1527.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1527.5. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) An alarming number of incidents of child abuse have occurred in state-licensed child day care facilities.

(b) The state has a responsibility to ensure that children are cared for in a healthy environment.

(c) Early detection and prevention of child abuse is vital in solving this problem.

(d) Prevention of child abuse is facilitated by the prompt and full communication between government agencies of information about suspected incidents of child abuse.

(e) The Community Care Licensing Division of the State Department of Social Services shall be responsible for combating child abuse in day care facilities. The department shall develop programs and cooperate with parents, children, community groups, and local and state law enforcement to prevent and detect child abuse.

SEC. 2. Section 1528 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1528. (a) Licensing reviews, pursuant to Sections 1534 and 1535, of care and services of a day care facility for children shall be limited to health and safety considerations and shall not include any reviews of the content of any educational or training program of the facility. These licensing reviews shall be conducted not less than once every two years.

(b) The state department shall maintain a program to carry out the licensing and inspection activities for day care facilities for children in order that the health and safety of children receiving the services is protected. The state department shall maintain staff of adequate size and expertise to carry out the licensing and inspection program for day care facilities for children in order that the health and safety of children receiving services is protected. The state department shall license and inspect day care facilities for children in accordance with this chapter and shall not maintain a self-certification and inspection program with respect to these facilities, except for the pilot registration program established pursuant to Section 1528.5.

The state department shall, in its inspections pursuant to this subdivision, inspect for evidence of child abuse, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 11165 of the Penal Code. All inspectors shall receive periodic training in the detection and prevention of the exploitation or abuse of children. Any inspector who, within the scope of his or her employment, has knowledge of or observes a child whom he or she knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse shall report the known or suspected incidence of exploitation or abuse to a child protective agency, and shall send a written report within 36 hours to the agency selected, pursuant to Section 11166 of the Penal Code.

Nothing in this section shall preclude the state department from contracting with other agencies for services pursuant to Section 1511 in lieu of performing services directly.

(c) Review of day care facilities for children, as defined in Section 1527, shall be limited to inspection for compliance with this chapter, and shall not include evaluations and rating scales as specified in Sections 1534, 1535, and 1536.

(d) When the licensing agency determines that a family day care home for children is operating without a license and notifies the unlicensed provider of the requirement for a license, the licensing agency may issue a cease and desist order only if it finds and documents that continued operation of the facility will be dangerous to the health and safety of the children. In all other cases where the licensing agency determines such a facility is operating without a license and notifies the unlicensed provider of the requirements for a license, the licensing agency may issue a cease and desist order only if the unlicensed provider does not apply for a license within a reasonable time after the notice.

It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this subdivision to ensure substantial compliance with the purpose of this article, which is the protection of the health and safety of children.

SEC. 3. If both this bill and SB 1754 are chaptered in the 1983–84 Legislative Session, it is the intention of the Legislature that the provisions of both bills take effect.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that child abuse occurring in day care centers may be detected immediately, and that the state may act immediately to prevent this abuse, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Sections 1026, 1026.1, 1026.2, 1026.3, 1026.5, 1601, 1603, 1609, 1610, and 1612 of, to add Section 1603 to, and to repeal Sections 1026.1, 1603, and 1611 of, the Penal Code, and to amend Section 702.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to insanity.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1026 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1026. (a) When a defendant pleads not guilty by reason of insanity, and also joins with it another plea or pleas, the defendant shall first be tried as if only such other plea or pleas had been entered, and in that trial the defendant shall be conclusively presumed to have been sane at the time the offense is alleged to have been committed. If the jury shall find the defendant guilty, or if the defendant pleads only not guilty by reason of insanity, then the question whether the defendant was sane or insane at the time the offense was committed shall be promptly tried, either before the same jury or before a new jury in the discretion of the court. In that trial, the jury shall return a verdict either that the defendant was sane at the time the offense was committed or was insane at the time the offense was committed. If the verdict or finding is that the defendant was sane at the time the offense was committed, the court shall sentence the defendant as provided by law. If the verdict or finding be that the defendant was insane at the time the offense was committed, the court, unless it shall appear to the court that the sanity of the defendant has been recovered fully, shall direct that the defendant be confined in a state hospital for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered or any other appropriate public or private treatment facility approved by the county mental health director, or the court may order the defendant placed on outpatient status pursuant to Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the county mental health director or a designee, and if the defendant is ordered confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility, copies of the arrest reports and the report of the county mental health director required under subdivision (b) shall accompany the person to the state hospital or other treatment facility where the defendant is to be confined.

(b) Prior to making such order directing that the defendant be confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility or placed on outpatient status, the court shall order the county mental health director or a designee to evaluate the defendant and to submit to the court within 15 judicial days of the order a written recommendation as to whether the defendant should be placed on outpatient status or confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility. No person shall be admitted to a state hospital or other treatment facility or placed on outpatient status under this section without having been evaluated by the county mental health director or a designee. If, however, it shall appear to the court that the sanity of the defendant has been recovered fully, the defendant shall be remanded to the custody of the sheriff until the issue of sanity shall have been finally determined in the manner prescribed by law. A defendant committed to a state hospital or other treatment facility or placed on outpatient status pursuant to Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2 shall not be released from confinement, parole, or outpatient status unless and until the court which committed the person shall, after notice and hearing, find and determine that the person's sanity has been restored. Nothing in this section shall prevent the transfer of such person from one state hospital to any other state hospital by proper authority or the transfer of the patient to a hospital in another state in the manner provided by law, upon order of the superior court in the county from which the person was committed, or in which the person is detained.

(c) If the defendant is committed or transferred to a state hospital pursuant to this section, the court may, upon receiving the written recommendation of the medical director of the state hospital and the county mental health director that the defendant be transferred to a public or private treatment facility approved by the county mental health director, order the defendant transferred to that facility. If the defendant is committed or transferred to a public or private treatment facility approved by the county mental health director, the court may, upon receiving the written recommendation of the county mental health director, order the defendant transferred to a state hospital or to another public or private treatment facility approved by the county mental health director. Where either the defendant or the prosecuting attorney chooses to contest either kind of order of transfer, a petition may be filed in the court requesting a hearing which shall be held if the court determines that sufficient grounds exist. At that hearing, the prosecuting attorney or the defendant may present evidence bearing on the order of transfer. The court shall use the same standards as used in conducting probation revocation hearings pursuant to Section 1203.2.

(e) If the defendant is confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility as an inpatient or is on parole under the provisions of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 1611, the medical director of the facility shall, at six-month intervals, submit a report in writing to the court and the county mental health director of the county of commitment or a designee setting forth the status and progress of the defendant. The court shall transmit copies of these reports to the prosecutor and defense counsel.

(f) When directing that the defendant be confined in a state hospital pursuant to subdivision (a), the court shall select the state hospital in accordance with the policies established by the Department of Mental Health.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1026 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1026. (a) When a defendant pleads not guilty by reason of insanity, and also joins with it another plea or pleas, the defendant shall first be tried as if only such other plea or pleas had been entered, and in that trial the defendant shall be conclusively presumed to have been sane at the time the offense is alleged to have been committed. If the jury shall find the defendant guilty, or if the defendant pleads only not guilty by reason of insanity, then the question whether the defendant was sane or insane at the time the offense was committed shall be promptly tried, either before the same jury or before a new jury in the discretion of the court. In that trial, the jury shall return a verdict either that the defendant was sane at the time the offense was committed or was insane at the time the offense was committed. If the verdict or finding is that the defendant was sane at the time the offense was committed, the court shall sentence the defendant as provided by law. If the verdict or finding be that the defendant was insane at the time the offense was committed, the court, unless it shall appear to the court that the sanity of the defendant has been recovered fully, shall direct that the defendant be confined in a state hospital for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered or any other appropriate public or private treatment facility approved by the county mental health director, or the court may order the defendant placed on outpatient status pursuant to Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the county mental health director or a designee, and if the defendant is ordered confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility, copies of the arrest reports and the report of the county mental health director required under subdivision (b) shall accompany the person to the state hospital or other treatment facility where the defendant is to be confined.

(b) Prior to making such order directing that the defendant be confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility or placed on outpatient status, the court shall order the county mental health director or a designee to evaluate the defendant and to submit to the court within 15 judicial days of the order a written recommendation as to whether the defendant should be placed on outpatient status or confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility. No person shall be admitted to a state hospital or other treatment facility or placed on outpatient status under this section without having been evaluated by the county mental health director or a designee. If, however, it shall appear to the court that the sanity of the defendant has been recovered fully, the defendant shall be remanded to the custody of the sheriff until the issue of sanity shall have been finally determined in the manner prescribed by law. A defendant committed to a state hospital or other treatment facility or placed on outpatient status pursuant to Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2 shall not be released from confinement, parole, or outpatient status unless and until the court which committed the person shall, after notice and hearing, find and determine that the person's sanity has been restored. Nothing in this section shall prevent the transfer of such person from one state hospital to any other state hospital by proper authority. Nothing in this section shall prevent the transfer of the patient to a hospital in another state in the manner provided in Section 4119 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(c) If the defendant is committed or transferred to a state hospital pursuant to this section, the court may, upon receiving the written recommendation of the medical director of the state hospital and the county mental health director that the defendant be transferred to a public or private treatment facility approved by the county mental health director, order the defendant transferred to that facility. If the defendant is committed or transferred to a public or private treatment facility approved by the county mental health director, the court may, upon receiving the written recommendation of the county mental health director, order the defendant transferred to a state hospital or to another public or private treatment facility approved by the county mental health director. Where either the defendant or the prosecuting attorney chooses to contest either kind of order of transfer, a petition may be filed in the court requesting a hearing which shall be held if the court determines that sufficient grounds exist. At that hearing, the prosecuting attorney or the defendant may present evidence bearing on the order of transfer. The court shall use the same procedures and standards of proof as used in conducting probation revocation hearings pursuant to Section 1203.2.

(e) If the defendant is confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility as an inpatient or is on parole under the provisions of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 1611, the medical director of the facility shall, at six-month intervals, submit a report in writing to the court and the county mental health director of the county of commitment or a designee setting forth the status and progress of the defendant. The court shall transmit copies of these reports to the prosecutor and defense counsel.

(f) When directing that the defendant be confined in a state hospital pursuant to subdivision (a), the court shall select the state hospital in accordance with the policies established by the Department of Mental Health.

SEC. 2. Section 1026.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1026.1. A person committed to a state hospital or other treatment facility under the provisions of Section 1026 shall be released from the state hospital or other treatment facility only under one or more of the following circumstances:

(a) Pursuant to the provisions of Section 1026.2.

(b) Upon expiration of the maximum term of commitment as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 1026.5, except as such term may be extended under the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 1026.5.

(c) As otherwise expressly provided in Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2.

SEC. 3. Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1026.2. (a) An application for the release of a person who has been committed to a state hospital or other treatment facility, as provided in Section 1026, upon the ground that sanity has been restored, may be made to the superior court of the county from which the commitment was made, either by such person, or by the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person is committed or by the county mental health director where the person is on outpatient status under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2. The applicant shall transmit a copy of the application to the county mental health director or a designee. The court shall give notice of the hearing date to the prosecuting attorney, the county mental health director or a designee and to the Director of Mental Health. No hearing upon the application shall be allowed until the person committed shall have been confined or placed on outpatient status or on parole under Section 1611 for a period of not less than 180 days from the date of the order of commitment.

(b) The court shall hold a hearing to determine if the person applying for restoration of sanity would no longer be a danger to the health and safety of others, including himself or herself, if under supervision and treatment in the community. If the court at the hearing determines the applicant will not be a danger to the health and safety of others, including himself or herself, while under supervision and treatment in the community, the court shall order the applicant placed with an appropriate local mental health program for one year. All or a substantial portion of the program shall include outpatient supervision and treatment. The court shall retain jurisdiction. The court at the end of the one year, shall have a trial to determine if sanity has been restored, which means the applicant is no longer a danger to the health and safety of others, including himself or herself. The court shall not determine whether the applicant has been restored to sanity until the applicant has completed the one year in the appropriate local mental health program. The court shall notify the persons required to be notified in subdivision (a) of the hearing date.

(c) If the applicant is on parole or outpatient status and has been on it for one year or longer, then it is deemed that the applicant has completed the required one year in an appropriate local mental health program and the court shall, if all other applicable provisions of law have been met, hold the trial on restoration of sanity as provided for in this section.

(d) Before placing an applicant in an appropriate local mental health program, the county mental health director shall submit to the court a written recommendation as to what local mental health program is the most appropriate for supervising and treating the applicant. If the court does not accept the county mental health director's recommendation, the court shall specify the reason or reasons for its order on the court record. The provisions of Sections 1605 to 1610.5, inclusive, shall be applicable to the person placed in the local mental health program unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(e) If the court determines that the person should be transferred to an appropriate local mental health program, the county mental health director or a designee shall make the necessary placement arrangements, and, within 21 days after receiving notice of the court finding, the person shall be placed in the community in accordance with the treatment and supervision plan, unless good cause for not doing so is made known to the court.

(f) If at the trial for restoration of sanity the court rules adversely to the applicant, the court may place the applicant on outpatient status, pursuant to Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2, unless by a preponderance of the evidence it is shown the applicant does not meet the requirements of Section 1603.

(g) If the court denies the application to place the person in an appropriate local mental health program or if restoration of sanity is denied, no new application may be filed by the person until one year has elapsed from the date of the denial.

(h) In any hearing authorized by this section the applicant shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence.

If the application for the release is not made by the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person is committed, no action on the application shall be taken by the court without first obtaining the written recommendation of the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility.

(i) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1986, and shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1989, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 930 of the Statutes of 1982, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 3.5. Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

restored, may be made to the superior court of the county from which the commitment was made, either by the person, or by the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person is committed or by the county mental health director where the person is on outpatient status under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2. The court shall give notice of the hearing date to the prosecuting attorney, the county mental health director or a designee, and the medical director or person in charge of the facility providing treatment to the committed person at least 15 judicial days in advance of the hearing date.

(b) Pending the hearing, the medical director or person in charge of the facility in which the person is confined shall prepare a summary of the person's programs of treatment and shall forward the summary to the county mental health director or a designee and to the court. The county mental health director or a designee shall review the summary and shall designate a facility within a reasonable distance from the court in which the person may be detained pending the hearing on the application for release. The facility so designated shall continue the program of treatment, shall provide adequate security, and shall, to the greatest extent possible, minimize interference with the person's program of treatment.

(c) A designated facility need not be approved for 72-hour treatment and evaluation pursuant to the provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code); however, a county jail may not be designated unless the services specified above are provided, and accommodations are provided which ensure both the safety of the person and the safety of the general population of the jail. If there is evidence that the treatment program is not being complied with, or accommodations have not been provided which ensure both the safety of the committed person and the safety of the general population of the jail, the court shall order the person transferred to an appropriate facility or make any other appropriate order, including continuance of the proceedings.

(d) No hearing upon the application shall be allowed until the person committed shall have been confined or placed on outpatient status or on parole under Section 1611 for a period of not less than 180 days from the date of the order of commitment.

(e) The court shall hold a hearing to determine if the person applying for restoration of sanity would no longer be a danger to the health and safety of others, including himself or herself, if under supervision and treatment in the community. If the court at the hearing determines the applicant will not be a danger to the health and safety of others, including himself or herself, while under supervision and treatment in the community, the court shall order the applicant placed with an appropriate local mental health program for one year. All or a substantial portion of the program shall include outpatient supervision and treatment. The court shall retain jurisdiction. The court at the end of the one year, shall have a trial to determine if sanity has been restored, which means the applicant is no longer a danger to the health and safety of others, including himself or herself. The court shall not determine whether the applicant has been restored to sanity until the applicant has completed the one year in the appropriate local mental health program. The court shall notify the persons required to be notified in subdivision (a) of the hearing date.

(f) If the applicant is on parole or outpatient status and has been on it for one year or longer, then it is deemed that the applicant has completed the required one year in an appropriate local mental health program and the court shall, if all other applicable provisions of law have been met, hold the trial on restoration of sanity as provided for in this section.

(g) Before placing an applicant in an appropriate local mental health program, the county mental health director shall submit to the court a written recommendation as to what local mental health program is the most appropriate for supervising and treating the applicant. If the court does not accept the county mental health director's recommendation, the court shall specify the reason or reasons for its order on the court record. The provisions of Sections 1605 to 1610.5, inclusive, shall be applicable to the person placed in the local mental health program unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(h) If the court determines that the person should be transferred to an appropriate local mental health program, the county mental health director or a designee shall make the necessary placement arrangements, and, within 21 days after receiving notice of the court finding, the person shall be placed in the community in accordance with the treatment and supervision plan, unless good cause for not doing so is made known to the court.

(i) If at the trial for restoration of sanity the court rules adversely to the applicant, the court may place the applicant on outpatient status, pursuant to Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2, unless by a preponderance of the evidence it is shown the applicant does not meet the requirements of Section 1603.

(j) If the court denies the application to place the person in an appropriate local mental health program or if restoration of sanity is denied, no new application may be filed by the person until one year has elapsed from the date of the denial.

(k) In any hearing authorized by this section the applicant shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence.

(l) If the application for the release is not made by the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person is committed or by the county mental health director where the person is on outpatient status under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600), no action on the application shall be taken by the court without first obtaining the written recommendation of the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility or by the county mental health director where the person is on outpatient status under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600).

(m) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1986, and shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1989, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 1 of SB 1477 of the 1983–84 Regular Session, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 4. Section 1026.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1026.3. A person committed to a state hospital or other treatment facility under the provisions of Section 1026, and a person placed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1026.2, may be placed on outpatient status from such commitment as provided in Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2.

SEC. 5. Section 1026.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1026.5. (a) (1) In the case of any person committed to a state hospital or other treatment facility pursuant to Section 1026 or placed on outpatient status pursuant to Section 1604, who committed a felony on or after July 1, 1977, the court shall state in the commitment order the maximum term of commitment, and the person may not be kept in actual custody longer than the maximum term of commitment, except as provided in this section. For the purposes of this section, "maximum term of commitment" shall mean the longest term of imprisonment which could have been imposed for the offense or offenses of which the person was convicted, including the upper term of the base offense and any additional terms for enhancements and consecutive sentences which could have been imposed less any applicable credits as defined by Section 2900.5, and disregarding any credits which could have been earned pursuant to Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3.

(2) In the case of a person confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility pursuant to Section 1026 or placed on outpatient status pursuant to Section 1604, who committed a felony prior to July 1, 1977, and who could have been sentenced under Section 1168 or 1170 if the offense was committed after July 1, 1977, the Board of Prison Terms shall determine the maximum term of commitment which could have been imposed under paragraph (1), and the person may not be kept in actual custody longer than the maximum term of commitment, except as provided in subdivision (b). The time limits of this section are not jurisdictional.

In fixing a term under this section, the board shall utilize the upper term of imprisonment which could have been imposed for the offense or offenses of which the person was convicted, increased by any additional terms which could have been imposed based on matters which were found to be true in the committing court.

However, if at least two of the members of the board after reviewing the person's file determine that a longer term should be imposed for the reasons specified in Section 1170.2, a longer term may be imposed following the procedures and guidelines set forth in Section 1170.2, except that any hearings deemed necessary by the board shall be held within 90 days of September 28, 1979. Within 90 days of the date the person is received by the state hospital or other treatment facility, or of September 28, 1979, whichever is later, the Board of Prison Terms shall provide each person with the determination of the person's maximum term of commitment or shall notify such person that a hearing will be scheduled to determine the term.

Within 20 days following the determination of the maximum term of commitment the board shall provide the person, the prosecuting attorney, the committing court, and the state hospital or other treatment facility with a written statement setting forth the maximum term of commitment, the calculations, and any materials considered in determining the maximum term.

(3) In the case of a person committed to a state hospital or other treatment facility pursuant to Section 1026 or placed on outpatient status pursuant to Section 1604 who committed a misdemeanor, the maximum term of commitment shall be the longest term of county jail confinement which could have been imposed for the offense or offenses which the person was found to have committed, and the person may not be kept in actual custody longer than this maximum term.

(4) Nothing in this subdivision limits the power of any state hospital or other treatment facility or of the committing court to release the person, conditionally or otherwise, for any period of time allowed by any other provision of law.

(b) (1) A person may be committed beyond the term prescribed by subdivision (a) only under the procedure set forth in this subdivision and only if such person has been committed under Section 1026 for a felony, and who by reason of a mental disease, defect, or disorder represents a substantial danger of physical harm to others.

(2) Not later than 180 days prior to the termination of the maximum term of commitment prescribed in subdivision (a), the medical director of a state hospital or other treatment facility shall submit to the prosecuting attorney his or her opinion as to whether or not the patient is a person described in paragraph (1). If requested by the prosecuting attorney, the opinion shall be accompanied by supporting evaluations and relevant hospital records. The prosecuting attorney may then file a petition for extended commitment in the superior court which issued the original commitment. Such petition shall be filed no later than 90 days before the expiration of the original commitment unless good cause is shown. Such petition shall state the reasons for the extended commitment, with accompanying affidavits specifying the factual basis for believing that the person meets each of the requirements

(3) When such a petition is filed, the court shall advise the person named in the petition of the right to be represented by an attorney and of the right to a jury trial. The rules of discovery in criminal cases shall apply.

(4) The court shall conduct a hearing on the petition for extended commitment. The trial shall be by jury unless waived by both the person and the prosecuting attorney. The trial shall commence no later than 30 calendar days prior to the time the person would otherwise have been released, unless such time is waived by the person or unless good cause is shown.

(5) The person shall be entitled to the rights guaranteed under the federal and state Constitutions for criminal proceedings. All proceedings shall be in accordance with applicable constitutional guarantees. The state shall be represented by the district attorney who shall notify the Attorney General in writing that a case has been referred under this section. If the person is indigent, the county public defender or State Public Defender shall be appointed. The State Public Defender may provide for representation of the person in any manner authorized by Section 15402 of the Government Code. Appointment of necessary psychologists or psychiatrists shall be made in accordance with this article and Penal Code and Evidence Code provisions applicable to criminal defendants who have entered pleas of not guilty by reason of insanity.

(6) If the court or jury finds that the patient is a person described in paragraph (1), the court shall order the patient recommitted to the facility in which the patient was confined at the time the petition was filed. Any such commitment shall be for an additional period of two years from the date of termination of the previous commitment.

(7) A person committed under this subdivision shall be eligible for release to outpatient status pursuant to the provisions of Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2.

(8) Prior to termination of a commitment under this subdivision, a petition for recommitment may be filed to determine whether the patient remains a person described in paragraph (1). Such recommitment proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.

(9) Any commitment under this subdivision places an affirmative obligation on the treatment facility to provide treatment for the underlying causes of the person's mental disorder.

SEC. 6. Section 1601 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

In any case in which the victim or next of kin to the victim has filed a request for notice with the director of the state hospital or other treatment facility, he or she shall be notified by the director at the inception of any program in which the committed person would be allowed any type of day release unattended by the staff of the facility.

1609. If at any time during the outpatient period or placement with a local mental health program pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1026.2 the prosecutor is of the opinion that the person is a danger to the health and safety of others while on that status, the prosecutor may petition the court for a hearing to determine whether the person shall be continued on that status. Upon receipt of the petition, the court shall calendar the case for further proceedings within 15 judicial days and the clerk shall notify the person, the county mental health director, and the attorney of record for the person of the hearing date. Upon failure of the person to appear as noticed, if a proper affidavit of service and advisement has been filed with the court, the court may issue a body attachment for such person. If, after a hearing in court conducted using the same standards used in conducting probation revocation hearings pursuant to Section 1203.2, the judge determines that the person is a danger to the health and safety of others, the court shall order that the person be confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility which has been approved by the county mental health director.

SEC. 10. Section 1610 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1610. Upon the filing of a request for revocation under Section 1608 or 1609 and pending the court's decision on revocation, the person subject to revocation may be confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility by the county mental health director when it is the opinion of that director that the person will now be a danger to self or to another while on outpatient status and that to delay hospitalization until the revocation hearing would pose an imminent risk of harm to the person or to another. Upon the request of the county mental health director or a designee, a peace officer shall take, or cause to be taken, the person into custody and transport the person to a treatment facility for hospitalization under this section. The county mental health director shall notify the court in writing of the admission of the person to inpatient status and of the factual basis for the opinion that such immediate return to inpatient treatment was necessary. The court shall supply a copy of these documents to the prosecutor and defense counsel.

A person hospitalized under this section shall have the right to judicial review of the detention in the manner prescribed in Article 5 (commencing with Section 5275) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and to an explanation of rights in the manner prescribed in Section 5352.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

A person whose confinement in a treatment facility under Section 1608 or 1609 is approved by the court shall not be released again to outpatient status unless court approval is obtained under Section 1602 or 1603.

SEC. 11. Section 1611 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. It is the intent of the Legislature that the court shall determine whether a person on parole, pursuant to former Section 1611 of the Penal Code, shall be returned to inpatient status or placed on outpatient status. It is further intended that any such person may make application for restoration of sanity as provided for in Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 13. Section 1612 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1612. Any person committed to a state hospital or other treatment facility under the provisions of Section 1026, or Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1367) of Title 10 of this code, or former Section 6316 or 6321 of the Welfare and Institutions Code shall not be released therefrom except as expressly provided in this title or Section 1026.2.

SEC. 14. Section 702.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

702.3. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law:

(a) When a minor denies, by a plea of not guilty by reason of insanity, the allegations of a petition filed pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and also joins with that denial a general denial of the conduct alleged in the petition, he or she shall first be subject to a hearing as if he or she had made no allegation of insanity. If the petition is sustained or if the minor denies the allegations only by reason of insanity, then a hearing shall be held on the question of whether the minor was insane at the time the offense was committed.

(b) If the court finds that the minor was insane at the time the offense was committed, the court, unless it shall appear to the court that the minor has fully recovered his or her sanity, shall direct that the minor be confined in a state hospital for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered or any other appropriate public or private mental health facility approved by the county mental health director, or the court may order the minor to undergo outpatient treatment as specified in Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2 of the Penal Code. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the county mental health director or his or her designee. If the allegations of the petition specifying any felony are found to be true, the court shall direct that the minor be confined in a state hospital or other public or private mental health facility approved by the county mental health director for a minimum of 180 days, before such minor may be released on outpatient treatment. Prior to making such order directing that the minor be confined in a state hospital or other facility or ordered to undergo outpatient treatment, the court shall order the county mental health director or his or her designee to evaluate the minor and to submit to the court within 15 judicial days of such order his or her written recommendation as to whether the minor should be required to undergo outpatient treatment or committed to a state hospital or another mental health facility. If, however, it shall appear to the court that the minor has fully recovered his or her sanity such minor shall be remanded to the custody of the probation department until his or her sanity shall have been finally determined in the manner prescribed by law. A minor committed to a state hospital or other facility or ordered to undergo outpatient treatment shall not be released from confinement or the required outpatient treatment unless and until the court which committed him or her shall, after notice and hearing, in the manner provided in Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code, find and determine that his or her sanity has been restored.

(c) The procedures set forth in Sections 1026, 1026.1, 1026.2, and 1027 of the Penal Code and in Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2 of the Penal Code shall be applicable to minors pursuant to this section, except that, in cases involving minors, the probation department rather than the sheriff, shall have jurisdiction over the minor.

(d) No minor may be committed pursuant to this section for a period longer than the jurisdictional limits of the juvenile court, pursuant to Section 607.

(e) This section shall not be construed to authorize the determination of sanity in juvenile proceedings to be made by a jury.

SEC. 14.5. Section 702.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

702.3. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law:

(a) When a minor denies, by a plea of not guilty by reason of insanity, the allegations of a petition filed pursuant to Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and also joins with that denial a general denial of the conduct alleged in the petition, he or she shall first be subject to a hearing as if he or she had made no allegation of insanity. If the petition is sustained or if the minor denies the allegations only by reason of insanity, then a hearing shall be held on the question of whether the minor was insane at the time the offense was committed.

(b) If the court finds that the minor was insane at the time the offense was committed, the court, unless it shall appear to the court that the minor has fully recovered his or her sanity, shall direct that the minor be confined in a state hospital for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered or any other appropriate public or private mental health facility approved by the county mental health director, or the court may order the minor to undergo outpatient treatment as specified in Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2 of the Penal Code. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the county mental health director or his or her designee. If the allegations of the petition specifying any felony are found to be true, the court shall direct that the minor be confined in a state hospital or other public or private mental health facility approved by the county mental health director for a minimum of 180 days, before the minor may be released on outpatient treatment. Prior to making the order directing that the minor be confined in a state hospital or other facility or ordered to undergo outpatient treatment, the court shall order the county mental health director or his or her designee to evaluate the minor and to submit to the court within 15 judicial days of the order his or her written recommendation as to whether the minor should be required to undergo outpatient treatment or committed to a state hospital or another mental health facility. If, however, it shall appear to the court that the minor has fully recovered his or her sanity the minor shall be remanded to the custody of the probation department until his or her sanity shall have been finally determined in the manner prescribed by law. A minor committed to a state hospital or other facility or ordered to undergo outpatient treatment shall not be released from confinement or the required outpatient treatment unless and until the court which committed him or her shall, after notice and hearing, in the manner provided in Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code, find and determine that his or her sanity has been restored.

(c) The procedures set forth in Sections 1026, 1026.1, 1026.2, 1026.3, 1026.4, 1026.5, and 1027 of the Penal Code, and in Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2 of the Penal Code, shall be applicable to minors pursuant to this section, except that, in cases involving minors, the probation department rather than the sheriff, shall have jurisdiction over the minor.

(d) No minor may be committed pursuant to this section for a period longer than the jurisdictional limits of the juvenile court, pursuant to Section 607, unless, at the conclusion of the commitment, by reason of a mental disease, defect, or disorder, he or she represents a substantial danger of physical harm to others, in which case the commitment for care and treatment beyond the jurisdictional age may be extended by proceedings in superior court in accordance with and under the circumstances specified in subdivision (b) of Section 1026.5 of the Penal Code.

(e) The provision of a jury trial in superior court on the issue of extension of commitment shall not be construed to authorize the determination of any issue in juvenile court proceedings to be made by a jury.

SEC. 15. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 16. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1985, (2) each bill amends Section 1026 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3296, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 19. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1477. In that case, the temporary provision set forth in Section 3.5 of this bill shall remain in effect as provided in that section.

No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

An act to add Section 140 to the Business and Professions Code, to add Section 226.6 to the Labor Code, to amend Sections 6094.5, 6703, 7151, 7152, 7153, 18681, 18681.1, 18818, 18907, 18908, 19401, and 26191 of, and to add Sections 6485.1, 6514.1, 6830, 7059, 7155, 17299.8, 17299.9, 18409, 18681.3, 18681.4, 18681.6, 18802.3, 18802.4, 18817.5, 18837, 19272, 19273, 19274, 19286.8, 19411, 19411.1, 24447, 24448, 25961.5, 26132.5, 26254, 26426, and 26427 to, to add a heading immediately preceding Section 7051 of, to add Article 2 (commencing with Section 7070) to Chapter 8 of Part 1 of Division 2 of, and to add Article 3 (commencing with Section 19300) to Chapter 21 of Part 10 of Division 2 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

I am reducing or deleting the following appropriations contained in Assembly Bill No. 3230:

1. I reduce the 1984–85 appropriation of $1,341,000 for Franchise Tax Board audit personnel and operating expenses and equipment to $58,000 to reflect only personnel and costs associated with specific provisions of the bill.

2. I reduce the 1984–85 appropriation of $362,500 for the Franchise Tax Board to carry out new collections activities to $314,000 to reflect a phase-in of staffing for these activities.

3. I reduce the 1984–85 appropriation for the Board of Equalization's field enforcement personnel and operating expenses and equipment for increased registration and collection efforts from $464,385 to $268,000. Since the amnesty period has been amended to begin later in the year, the 1984–85 post amnesty enforcement period is reduced from four months to two months. Therefore the appropriation should be reduced accordingly.

4. I eliminate the 1984–85 $282,852 appropriation for the Board of Equalization's audit personnel and operating expenses and equipment for investigation of the misuse of resale and exemption certificates. This function should be performed within existing staff resources by prioritizing existing audit workload.

5. I eliminate the 1985–86 appropriation of $3,697,000 to the Franchise Tax Board and $2,366,285 to the Board of Equalization so that these may be considered as part of the regular 1985–86 budget process.

With these reductions and deletions, I approve Assembly Bill No. 3230.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting tax penalty amnesty programs, as provided by this act, to improve compliance with state tax laws and to accelerate and increase collections of certain currently owed state taxes. The Legislature finds and declares that a public purpose is served by the waiver of tax penalties and criminal prosecution in return for the immediate reporting and payment of previously underreported, nonreported, or certain nonpaid tax liabilities. The benefits gained by this program include, among other things, accelerated receipt of certain currently owed taxes, permanently bringing into the tax system taxpayers who have been evading tax, and providing an opportunity for taxpayers to clear their records and satisfy tax obligations before stepped-up tax enforcement programs take effect in 1985. It is further the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act that the tax penalty amnesty program be a one-time occurrence which shall not be repeated in the future, since taxpayers' expectations of future amnesty programs could have a counterproductive effect on compliance today.

SEC. 2. Section 140 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

140. Any board, as defined in Section 22, which is authorized under this code to take disciplinary action against a person who holds a license may take disciplinary action upon the ground that the licensee has failed to record and preserve for not less than three years, any and all cash transactions involved in the payment of employee wages by a licensee. Failure to make these records available to an authorized representative of the board may be made grounds for disciplinary action. In any action brought and sustained by the board which involves a violation of this section and any regulation adopted thereto, the board may assess the licensee with the actual investigative costs incurred, not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500). Failure to pay those costs may result in revocation of the license. Any moneys collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the respective fund of the board.

SEC. 3. Section 226.6 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

226.6. Any employer who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of Section 226 or 226.2, or any officer, agent, employee, fiduciary, or other person who has the control, receipt, custody, or disposal of, or pays, the wages due any employee, and who knowingly and intentionally participates or aids in the violation of any provision of Section 226 or 226.2 is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or be imprisoned not to exceed one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. That fine or imprisonment, or both, shall be in addition to any other penalty provided by law.

SEC. 5. Section 6094.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

(b) Any person, including any officer or employee of a corporation, who gives a resale certificate for property which he or she knows at the time of purchase is not to be resold by him or her or the corporation in the regular course of business is liable to the state for the amount of tax that would be due if he or she had not given such resale certificate. In addition to the tax, the person shall be liable to the state for a penalty of 10 percent of the tax or five hundred dollars ($500) whichever is greater, for each purchase made for personal gain or to evade the payment of taxes.

SEC. 8. Section 6703 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6703. (a) Subject to the limitations in subdivisions (b) and (c), the board may by notice of levy, served personally or by first-class mail, require all persons having in their possession, or under their control, any credits or other personal property belonging to a retailer or other person liable for any amount under this part to withhold from such credits or other personal property the amount of any tax, interest, or penalties due from such retailer or other person, or the amount of any liability incurred by them under this part, and to transmit the amount withheld to the board at such times as it may designate.

(c) The amount required to be withheld is the lesser of the following:

(1) The amount due stated on the notice.

(2) The amount of each payment due or becoming due to the retailer or other person liable during the period of the levy.

(3) Any other payments or credits due or becoming due the retailer or other person liable as the result of written or oral contracts for services or sales whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise.

(e) In the case of a financial institution, to be effective, the notice shall state the amount due from the taxpayer and shall be delivered or mailed to the branch or office of the financial institution where the credits or other property is held, unless another branch or office is designated by the financial institution to receive the notice.

SEC. 9. Section 6830 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6830. (a) For the purpose of collecting taxes, interest, additions to tax, and penalties, the board may enter into agreement with one or more private persons, companies, associations, or corporations providing debt collection services outside this state with respect to the collection of taxes, interest, additions to tax, and penalties. That agreement may provide, at the discretion of the board, the rate of payment and the manner in which compensation for services shall be paid. The compensation may be added to the amount required to be collected by the collection agency or provider of debt collection services from the tax debtor. The board shall provide the necessary information for the contractor to fulfill its obligation under that agreement.

(b) With the approval of the board, the contractor may, as part of the collection process, refer the tax debt for litigation by its legal representatives in the name of the board.

Any person employed by or under contract with any state or federal tax collection agency shall not be eligible for a reward provided pursuant to this section.

SEC. 12. Article 2 (commencing with Section 7070) is added to Chapter 8 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 2. Tax Penalty Amnesty

7070. The board shall develop and administer a tax penalty amnesty program as provided in this article.

7072. (a) For any taxpayer who meets the requirements of Section 7073:

(1) The board shall waive all penalties imposed by this part, for the tax reporting periods for which tax penalty amnesty is requested, which are owed as a result of the nonreporting or underreporting of tax liabilities.

(2) No criminal action shall be brought against the taxpayer, for the tax reporting periods for which tax penalty amnesty is requested, for the nonreporting or underreporting of tax liabilities.

Any such agreement shall include interest on the outstanding amount due at the rate prescribed in Section 19269. Failure by the taxpayer to fully comply with the terms of the installment payment agreement shall render the waiver of penalties null and void, unless the board determines that the failure was due to reasonable cause, and the total amount of tax, interest, and all penalties shall be immediately due and payable.

(c) If, subsequent to March 15, 1985, the board issues a deficiency assessment upon a return filed pursuant to subdivision (a), the board shall have the authority to impose penalties and criminal action may be brought under this part only with respect to the difference between the amount shown on that return and the correct amount of tax. This action shall not invalidate any waivers granted under Section 7072.

7075. The board shall adequately publicize the tax penalty amnesty program so as to maximize public awareness of and participation in the program. (c) There is currently no program funded specifically for the prevention, investigation, and prosecution of high-technology crimes.

(d) Neither industry nor local governmental jurisdictions have acquired and practiced to the fullest extent possible crime prevention techniques that would mitigate or prevent these crimes.

13971. There shall be a two-year pilot project, operative only in Santa Clara County, which shall be known as the District Attorney's Technology Theft Association project.

(2) To create a central intelligence clearinghouse for information on high-technology crimes.

(3) To train unit participants in the area of high-technology theft investigation.

(4) To increase and enhance the communication links between police investigators, the district attorney's office, industrial security managers, and federal and state law enforcement agencies.

The report shall include a program evaluation, financial statement and comments of the advisory board. A statewide analysis and needs assessment shall be part of the report. This report shall be submitted on or before March 1, 1987.

13976. This title shall become inoperative on March 1, 1987, and, as of January 1, 1988, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1988, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. The sum of two hundred thirty-eight thousand two hundred sixteen dollars ($238,216) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning for expenditure without regard to fiscal years for the purposes of this act; provided that the office shall not allocate any portion of those funds unless the high-technology industry or any source, other than the State of California, has filed with the office a plan to match expenditures to the extent of one hundred nineteen thousand one hundred eight dollars ($119,108). This match may be made in personnel hours, computer time and equipment, use of facilities, or other specialized talent or equipment necessary to carry out the

An act to amend Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11580.2. (a) (1) No policy of bodily injury liability insurance covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle, except for policies which provide insurance in the Republic of Mexico issued or delivered in this state by nonadmitted Mexican insurers, shall be issued or delivered in this state to the owner or operator of a motor vehicle, or shall be issued or delivered by any insurer licensed in this state upon any motor vehicle then principally used or principally garaged in this state, unless the policy contains, or has added to it by endorsement, a provision with coverage limits at least equal to the limits specified in subdivision (m) and in no case less than the financial responsibility requirements specified in Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code insuring the insured, the insured's heirs or legal representative for all sums within such limits which he, she, or they, as the case may be, shall be legally entitled to recover as damages for bodily injury or wrongful death from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle. The insurer and any named insured, prior to or subsequent to the issuance or renewal of a policy, may, by agreement in writing, in the form specified in paragraph (2), delete the provision covering damage caused by an uninsured motor vehicle (1) completely, or (2) delete such coverage when a motor vehicle is operated by a natural person or persons designated by name, or agree to provide such coverage in an amount less than that required by subdivision (m) but not less than the financial responsibility requirements specified in Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code. Any such agreements by any named insured or agreement for the amount of coverage shall be binding upon every insured to whom the policy or endorsement provisions apply while the policy is in force, and shall continue to be so binding with respect to any continuation or renewal of the policy or with respect to any other policy which extends, changes, supersedes, or replaces the policy issued to the named insured by the same insurer, or with respect to reinstatement of the policy within 30 days of any lapse thereof. A policy shall be excluded from the application of this section if the only coverage with respect to the use of any motor vehicle is limited to the contingent liability arising out of the use of nonowned motor vehicles or if the automobile liability coverage is provided only on an excess or umbrella basis. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require that uninsured motorist coverage shall be offered or provided in any homeowner policy, personal and residents' liability policy, comprehensive personal liability policy, manufacturers' and contractors' policy, premises liability policy, special multiperil policy, or any other policy or endorsement where automobile liability coverage is offered as incidental to some other basic coverage, notwithstanding that the policy may provide automobile or motor vehicle liability coverage on insured premises or the ways immediately adjoining.

(2) The agreement specified in paragraph (1) shall be in the following form:

"The California Insurance Code requires an insurer to provide uninsured motorists coverage in each bodily injury liability insurance policy it issues covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle. Such section also permits the insurer and the applicant to delete such coverage completely or to delete such coverage when a motor vehicle is operated by a natural person or persons designated by name, or agree to provide such coverage in an amount less than that required by subdivision (m) of Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code, but not less than the financial responsibility requirements. Uninsured motorists coverage insures the insured, his heirs, or legal representatives for all sums within the limits established by law, which such person or persons are legally entitled to recover as damages for bodily injury, including any resulting sickness, disease, or death, to him from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle not owned or operated by the insured or a resident of the same household. An uninsured motor vehicle includes an underinsured motor vehicle as defined in subdivision (p) of Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code."

The agreement may contain additional statements not in derogation of or in conflict with the foregoing. The execution of the agreement shall relieve the insurer of liability under this section while the agreement remains in effect.

(b) As used in (a) above, "bodily injury" includes sickness or disease, including death, resulting therefrom; the term "named insured" means only the individual or organization named in the declarations of the policy of motor vehicle bodily injury liability insurance referred to in (a) above; as used in (a) above the term "insured" means the named insured and the spouse of the named insured and, while residents of the same household, relatives of either while occupants of a motor vehicle or otherwise, heirs and any other person while in or upon or entering into or alighting from an insured motor vehicle and any person with respect to damages he or she is entitled to recover for care or loss of services because of bodily injury to which the policy provisions or endorsement apply; the term "insured motor vehicle" means the motor vehicle described in the underlying insurance policy of which the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage is a part, a temporary substitute automobile for which liability coverage is provided in the policy or a newly acquired automobile for which liability coverage is provided in the policy if the motor vehicle is used by the named insured or with his or her permission or consent, express or implied, and any other automobile not owned by the named insured or any resident of the same household, or by a natural person or persons for whom coverage has been deleted in accordance with subdivision (a) while being operated by the named insured or his or her spouse if a resident of the same household, but the term "insured motor vehicle" shall not include any automobile while used as a public or livery conveyance. As used in this section, the term "uninsured motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle with respect to the ownership, maintenance or use of which there is no bodily injury liability insurance or bond applicable at the time of the accident, or there is such applicable insurance or bond but the company writing the same denies coverage thereunder or refuses to admit coverage thereunder except conditionally or with reservation, or an "underinsured motor vehicle" as defined in subdivision (p), or a motor vehicle used without the permission of the owner thereof if there is no bodily injury liability insurance or bond applicable at the time of the accident with respect to the owner or operator thereof, or the owner or operator thereof be unknown, provided that, with respect to an "uninsured motor vehicle" whose owner or operator is unknown:

(1) The bodily injury has arisen out of physical contact of the automobile with the insured or with an automobile which the insured is occupying.

(2) The insured or someone on his or her behalf shall have reported the accident within 24 hours to the police department of the city where the accident occurred or, if the accident occurred in unincorporated territory then either the sheriff of the county where the accident occurred or the local headquarters of the California Highway Patrol, and have filed with the insurer within 30 days thereafter a statement under oath that the insured or his or her legal representative has or the insured's heirs have a cause of action arising out of the accident for damages against a person or persons whose identity is unascertainable and set forth facts in support thereof. As used in this section, the term "uninsured motor vehicle" shall not include a motor vehicle owned or operated by the named insured or any resident of the same household or self-insured within the meaning of the Safety Responsibility Law of the state in which the motor vehicle is registered or which is owned by the United States of America, Canada, a state or political subdivision of any such government or an agency of any of the foregoing, or a land motor vehicle or trailer operated on rails or crawler treads or while located for use as a residence or premises and not as a vehicle, or a farm-type tractor or equipment designed for use principally off public roads, except while actually upon public roads.

As used in this section, the term "uninsured motor vehicle" also means an insured motor vehicle where the liability insurer thereof is unable to make payment with respect to the legal liability of its insured within the limits specified therein because of insolvency. An insurer's solvency protection shall be applicable only to accidents occurring during a policy period in which its insured's motor vehicle coverage is in effect where the liability insurer of the tortfeasor becomes insolvent within one year of the accident. In the event of payment to any person under the coverage required by this section and subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage, the insurer making the payment, shall to the extent thereof, be entitled to any proceeds which may be recoverable from the assets of the insolvent insurer through any settlement or judgment of the person against the insolvent insurer.

(c) The insurance coverage provided for in this section does not apply either as primary or as excess coverage to:

(1) To property damage sustained by the insured.

(2) To bodily injury of the insured while in or upon or while entering into or alighting from a motor vehicle other than the described motor vehicle if the owner thereof has insurance similar to that provided in this section.

(3) To bodily injury of the insured with respect to which the insured or his or her representative shall, without the written consent of the insurer, make any settlement with or prosecute to judgment any action against any person who may be legally liable therefor.

(4) In any instance where it would inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of any workers' compensation carrier or to any person qualified as a self-insurer under any workers' compensation law, or directly to the benefit of the United States, or any state or any political subdivision thereof.

(5) To establish proof of financial responsibility as provided in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of Section 16054 of the Vehicle Code.

(7) To bodily injury of the insured when struck by a vehicle owned by an insured.

(d) Subject to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), the policy or endorsement may provide that if the insured has insurance available to the insured under more than one uninsured motorist coverage provision, any damages shall not be deemed to exceed the higher of the applicable limits of the respective coverages, and such damages shall be prorated between the applicable coverages as the limits of each coverage bear to the total of such limits.

(e) The policy or endorsement added thereto may provide that if the insured has valid and collectible automobile medical payment insurance available to him or her, the damages which the insured shall be entitled to recover from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle shall be reduced for purposes of uninsured motorist coverage by the amounts paid or due to be paid under the automobile medical payment insurance. This subdivision shall become operative on January 1, 1971.

(f) The policy or an endorsement added thereto shall provide that the determination as to whether the insured shall be legally entitled to recover damages, and if so entitled, the amount thereof, shall be made by agreement between the insured and the insurer or, in the event of disagreement, by arbitration. The arbitration shall be conducted by a single neutral arbitrator. An award or a judgment confirming an award shall not be conclusive on any party in any action or proceeding between (i) the insured, his or her insurer, his or her legal representative, or his or her heirs and (ii) the uninsured motorist to recover damages arising out of the accident upon which the award is based. If the insured has or may have rights to benefits, other than nonoccupational disability benefits, under any workers' compensation law, the arbitrator shall not proceed with the arbitration until the insured's physical condition is stationary and ratable. In those cases in which the insured claims a permanent disability, the claims shall, unless good cause be shown, be adjudicated by award or settled by compromise and release before the arbitration may proceed. Any demand or petition for arbitration shall contain a declaration, under penalty of perjury, stating whether (i) the insured has a workers' compensation claim; (ii) the claim has proceeded to findings and award or settlement on all issues reasonably contemplated to be determined in that claim; and (iii) if not, what reasons amounting to good cause are grounds for the arbitration to proceed immediately. The arbitration shall be deemed to be a proceeding and the hearing before the arbitrator shall be deemed to be the trial of an issue therein for purposes of issuance of a subpoena by an attorney of a party to the arbitration under Section 1985 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 2016) of Chapter 3 of Title 3 of Part 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be applicable to these determinations, and all rights, remedies, obligations, liabilities and procedures set forth in Article 3 shall be available to both the insured and the insurer at any time after the accident, both before and after the commencement of arbitration, if any, with the following limitations:

(1) Whenever in Article 3, reference is made to the court in which the action is pending, or provision is made for application to the court or obtaining leave of court or approval by the court, the court which shall have jurisdiction for the purposes of this section shall be the superior court of the State of California, in and for any county which is a proper county for the filing of a suit for bodily injury arising out of the accident, against the uninsured motorist, or any county specified in the policy or an endorsement added thereto as a proper county for arbitration or action thereon.

(2) Any such proper court to which application is first made by either the insured or the insurer under the provisions of Article 3 for any discovery or other relief or remedy, shall thereafter be the only court to which either of the parties shall make any applications under Article 3 with respect to the same accident, subject, however, to the right of the court to grant a change of venue after a hearing upon notice, upon any of the grounds upon which change of venue might be granted in an action filed in the superior court.

(3) A deposition pursuant to the provisions of Section 2016 of the Code of Civil Procedure may be taken without leave of court, except that leave of court, granted with or without notice and for good cause shown, must be obtained if the notice of the taking of the deposition is served by either party within 20 days after the accident.

(4) The provisions of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 2019 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall not be applicable to discovery under this section.

(5) For the purposes of discovery under this section, the insured and the insurer shall each be deemed to be "a party to the record of any civil action or proceedings," where that phrase is used in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 2019 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(6) Interrogatories under the provisions of Section 2030 of the Code of Civil Procedure and requests for admission under Section 2033 of the Code of Civil Procedure may be served by either the insured or the insurer upon the other at any time more than 20 days after the accident without leave of court.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the rights of any party to discovery in any action pending or which may hereafter be pending in any court.

(g) The insurer paying a claim under an uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage shall be entitled to be subrogated to the rights of the insured to whom such claim was paid against any person legally liable for such injury or death to the extent that payment was made. Such action may be brought within three years from the date that payment was made hereunder.

(h) An insured entitled to recovery under the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage shall be reimbursed within the conditions stated herein without being required to sign any release or waiver of rights to which he or she may be entitled under any other insurance coverage applicable; nor shall payment under this section to such insured be delayed or made contingent upon the decisions as to liability or distribution of loss costs under other bodily injury liability insurance or any bond applicable to the accident. Any loss payable under the terms of the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage to or for any person may be reduced:

(1) By the amount paid and the present value of all amounts payable to him or her, his or her executor, administrator, heirs, or legal representative under any workers' compensation law, exclusive of nonoccupational disability benefits.

(2) By the amount the insured is entitled to recover from any other person insured under the underlying liability insurance policy of which the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage is a part.

(i) No cause of action shall accrue to the insured under any policy or endorsement provision issued pursuant to this section unless within one year from the date of the accident:

(1) Suit for bodily injury has been filed against the uninsured motorist, in a court of competent jurisdiction and notice of such suit has been given the insurer, or

(2) Agreement as to the amount due under the policy has been concluded, or

(3) The insured has formally instituted arbitration proceedings.

(j) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (b) and (i), in the event the accident occurs in any other state or foreign jurisdiction to which coverage is extended under the policy and the insurer of the tortfeasor becomes insolvent, any action authorized pursuant to the provisions of this section may be maintained within three months of the insolvency of the tortfeasor's insurer, but in no event later than the pertinent period of limitation of the jurisdiction in which the accident occurred.

(k) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (i), any insurer whose insured has made a claim under his or her uninsured motorist coverage, and such claim is pending, shall, at least 30 days before the expiration of the applicable statute of limitation, notify its insured in writing of the statute of limitation applicable to the injury or death. Failure of the insurer to provide the written notice shall operate to toll any applicable statute of limitation or other time limitation for a period of 30 days from the date the written notice is actually given. The notice shall not be required if the insurer has received notice that the insured is represented by an attorney.

(l) As used in subdivision (b), "public or livery conveyance," or terms of similar import, shall not include the operation or use of a motor vehicle by the named insured in the performance of volunteer services for a nonprofit charitable organization or governmental agency by providing social service transportation as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 11580.1. This subdivision shall apply only to policies of insurance issued, amended, or renewed on or after January 1, 1976.

(m) Coverage provided under an uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage shall be offered with coverage limits equal to the limits of liability for bodily injury in the underlying policy of insurance, but shall not be required to be offered with limits in excess of the following amounts:

(1) A limit of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident.

(2) Subject to the limit for one person set forth in paragraph (1), a limit of sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident.

(n) Underinsured motorist coverage shall be offered with limits equal to the limits of liability for the insured's uninsured motorist limits in the underlying policy, and may be offered with limits in excess of such uninsured motorist coverage. For the purposes of this section, uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage shall be offered as a single coverage. However, an insurer may offer coverage for damages for bodily injury or wrongful death from the owner or operator of an underinsured motor vehicle at greater limits than an uninsured motor vehicle.

(o) If an insured has failed to provide an insurer with wage loss information or medical treatment record releases within 15 days of the insurer's request or has failed to submit to a medical examination arranged by the insurer within 20 days of the insurer's request, the insurer may, at any time prior to 30 days before the actual arbitration proceedings commence, request, and the insured shall furnish, wage loss information or medical treatment record releases, and the insurer may require the insured, except during periods of hospitalization, to make himself or herself available for a medical examination. The wage loss information or medical treatment record releases shall be submitted by the insured within 10 days of request and the medical examination shall be arranged by the insurer no sooner than 10 days after request, unless the insured agrees to an earlier examination date, and not later than 20 days after the request. If the insured fails to comply with the requirements of this subdivision, the actual arbitration proceedings shall be stayed for at least 30 days following compliance by the insured. The proceedings shall be scheduled as soon as practicable following expiration of the 30-day period.

(p) This subdivision applies only when bodily injury, as defined in subdivision (b), is caused by an underinsured motor vehicle. If the provisions of this subdivision conflict with subdivisions (a) through (o), the provisions of this subdivision shall prevail.

(1) As used in this subdivision, "an insured motor vehicle" is one that is insured under a motor vehicle liability policy, or automobile liability insurance policy, self-insured, or for which a cash deposit or bond has been posted to satisfy a financial responsibility law.

(2) "Underinsured motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle that is an insured motor vehicle but insured for an amount that is less than the uninsured motorist limits carried on the motor vehicle of the injured person.

(3) This coverage does not apply to any bodily injury until the limits of bodily injury liability policies applicable to all insured motor vehicles causing the injury have been exhausted by payment of judgments or settlements, and proof of such is submitted to the insurer providing the underinsured motorist coverage.

(4) When bodily injury is caused by one or more motor vehicles, whether insured, underinsured, or uninsured, the maximum liability of the insurer providing the underinsured motorist coverage shall not exceed the insured's underinsured motorist coverage limits, less the amount paid to the insured by or for any person or organization that may be held legally liable for the injury.

(5) The insurer paying a claim under this subdivision shall, to the extent of such payment, be entitled to reimbursement or credit in the amount received by the insured from the owner or operator of the underinsured motor vehicle or the insurer of such owner or operator.

(6) If the insured brings an action against the owner or operator of an underinsured motor vehicle, he or she shall forthwith give to the insurer providing the underinsured motorist coverage a copy of the complaint by personal service or certified mail. All pleadings and depositions shall be made available for copying or copies furnished the insurer, at the insurer's expense, within a reasonable time.

(7) Underinsured motorist coverage shall be included in all policies of bodily injury liability insurance providing uninsured motorist coverage issued or renewed on or after July 1, 1985. Notwithstanding this section, an agreement to delete uninsured motorist coverage completely, or with respect to a person or persons designated by name, executed prior to July 1, 1985, shall remain in full force and effect.

(q) Regardless of the number of vehicles involved whether insured or not, persons covered, claims made, premiums paid or the number of premiums shown on the policy, in no event shall the limit of liability for two or more motor vehicles or two or more policies be added together, combined, or stacked to determine the limit of insurance coverage available to injured persons.

SEC. 2. Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11580.2. (a) (1) No policy of bodily injury liability insurance covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle, except for policies which provide insurance in the Republic of Mexico issued or delivered in this state by nonadmitted Mexican insurers, shall be issued or delivered in this state to the owner or operator of a motor vehicle, or shall be issued or delivered by any insurer licensed in this state upon any motor vehicle then principally used or principally garaged in this state, unless the policy contains, or has added to it by endorsement, a provision with coverage limits at least equal to the limits specified in subdivision (m) and in no case less than the financial responsibility requirements specified in Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code insuring the insured, the insured's heirs or legal representative for all sums within such limits which he, she, or they, as the case may be, shall be legally entitled to recover as damages for bodily injury or wrongful death from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle. The insurer and any named insured, prior to or subsequent to the issuance or renewal of a policy, may, by agreement in writing, in the form specified in paragraph (2), delete the provision covering damage caused by an uninsured motor vehicle (1) completely, or (2) delete such coverage when a motor vehicle is operated by a natural person or persons designated by name, or agree to provide such coverage in an amount less than that required by subdivision (m) but not less than the financial responsibility requirements specified in Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code. Any such agreements by any named insured or agreement for the amount of coverage shall be binding upon every insured to whom the policy or endorsement provisions apply while the policy is in force, and shall continue to be so binding with respect to any continuation or renewal of the policy or with respect to any other policy which extends, changes, supersedes, or replaces the policy issued to the named insured by the same insurer, or with respect to reinstatement of the policy within 30 days of any lapse thereof. A policy shall be excluded from the application of this section if the only coverage with respect to the use of any motor vehicle is limited to the contingent liability arising out of the use of nonowned motor vehicles or if the automobile liability coverage is provided only on an excess or umbrella basis. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require that uninsured motorist coverage shall be offered or provided in any homeowner policy, personal and residents' liability policy, comprehensive personal liability policy, manufacturers' and contractors' policy, premises liability policy, special multiperil policy, or any other policy or endorsement where automobile liability coverage is offered as incidental to some other basic coverage, notwithstanding that the policy may provide automobile or motor vehicle liability coverage on insured premises or the ways immediately adjoining.

"The California Insurance Code requires an insurer to provide uninsured motorists coverage in each bodily injury liability insurance policy it issues covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle. Such section also permits the insurer and the applicant to delete such coverage completely or to delete such coverage when a motor vehicle is operated by a natural person or persons designated by name, or agree to provide such coverage in an amount less than that required by subdivision (m) of Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code, but not less than the financial responsibility requirements. Uninsured motorists coverage insures the insured, his heirs, or legal representatives for all sums within the limits established by law, which such person or persons are legally entitled to recover as damages for bodily injury, including any resulting sickness, disease, or death, to him from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle not owned or operated by the insured or a resident of the same household. An uninsured motor vehicle includes an underinsured motor vehicle as defined in subdivision (p) of Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code."

The agreement may contain additional statements not in derogation of or in conflict with the foregoing. The execution of the agreement shall relieve the insurer of liability under this section while the agreement remains in effect.

(b) As used in (a) above, "bodily injury" includes sickness or disease, including death, resulting therefrom; the term "named insured" means only the individual or organization named in the declarations of the policy of motor vehicle bodily injury liability insurance referred to in (a) above; as used in (a) above the term

"insured" means the named insured and the spouse of the named insured and, while residents of the same household, relatives of either while occupants of a motor vehicle or otherwise, heirs and any other person while in or upon or entering into or alighting from an insured motor vehicle and any person with respect to damages he or she is entitled to recover for care or loss of services because of bodily injury to which the policy provisions or endorsement apply; the term "insured motor vehicle" means the motor vehicle described in the underlying insurance policy of which the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage is a part, a temporary substitute automobile for which liability coverage is provided in the policy or a newly acquired automobile for which liability coverage is provided in the policy if the motor vehicle is used by the named insured or with his or her permission or consent, express or implied, and any other automobile not owned by the named insured or any resident of the same household, or by a natural person or persons for whom coverage has been deleted in accordance with subdivision (a) while being operated by the named insured or his or her spouse if a resident of the same household, but the term "insured motor vehicle" shall not include any automobile while used as a public or livery conveyance. As used in this section, the term "uninsured motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle with respect to the ownership, maintenance or use of which there is no bodily injury liability insurance or bond applicable at the time of the accident, or there is such applicable insurance or bond but the company writing the same denies coverage thereunder or refuses to admit coverage thereunder except conditionally or with reservation, or an "underinsured motor vehicle" as defined in subdivision (p), or a motor vehicle used without the permission of the owner thereof if there is no bodily injury liability insurance or bond applicable at the time of the accident with respect to the owner or operator thereof, or the owner or operator thereof be unknown, provided that, with respect to an "uninsured motor vehicle" whose owner or operator is unknown:

(1) The bodily injury has arisen out of physical contact of the automobile with the insured or with an automobile which the insured is occupying.

(2) The insured or someone on his or her behalf shall have reported the accident within 24 hours to the police department of the city where the accident occurred or, if the accident occurred in unincorporated territory then either the sheriff of the county where the accident occurred or the local headquarters of the California Highway Patrol, and have filed with the insurer within 30 days thereafter a statement under oath that the insured or his or her legal representative has or the insured's heirs have a cause of action arising out of the accident for damages against a person or persons whose identity is unascertainable and set forth facts in support thereof. As used in this section, the term "uninsured motor vehicle" shall not include a motor vehicle owned or operated by the named insured or any resident of the same household or self-insured within the meaning of the Financial Responsibility Law of the state in which the motor vehicle is registered or which is owned by the United States of America, Canada, a state or political subdivision of any such government or an agency of any of the foregoing, or a land motor vehicle or trailer while located for use as a residence or premises and not as a vehicle, or any equipment or vehicle designed or modified for use primarily off public roads, except while actually upon public roads.

As used in this section, the term "uninsured motor vehicle" also means an insured motor vehicle where the liability insurer thereof is unable to make payment with respect to the legal liability of its insured within the limits specified therein because of insolvency. An insurer's solvency protection shall be applicable only to accidents occurring during a policy period in which its insured's motor vehicle coverage is in effect where the liability insurer of the tortfeasor becomes insolvent within one year of the accident. In the event of payment to any person under the coverage required by this section and subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage, the insurer making the payment, shall to the extent thereof, be entitled to any proceeds which may be recoverable from the assets of the insolvent insurer through any settlement or judgment of the person against the insolvent insurer.

Nothing in this section is intended to exclude from the definition of an uninsured motor vehicle any motorcycle or private passenger type four wheel drive motor vehicle if that vehicle was subject to and failed to comply with the Financial Responsibility Law of this state.

(c) The insurance coverage provided for in this section does not apply either as primary or as excess coverage to:

(1) To property damage sustained by the insured.

(2) To bodily injury of the insured while in or upon or while entering into or alighting from a motor vehicle other than the described motor vehicle if the owner thereof has insurance similar to that provided in this section.

(3) To bodily injury of the insured with respect to which the insured or his or her representative shall, without the written consent of the insurer, make any settlement with or prosecute to judgment any action against any person who may be legally liable therefor.

(4) In any instance where it would inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of any workers' compensation carrier or to any person qualified as a self-insurer under any workers' compensation law, or directly to the benefit of the United States, or any state or any political subdivision thereof.

(5) To establish proof of financial responsibility as provided in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of Section 16054 of the Vehicle Code.

(7) To bodily injury of the insured when struck by a vehicle

(d) Subject to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), the policy or endorsement may provide that if the insured has insurance available to the insured under more than one uninsured motorist coverage provision, any damages shall not be deemed to exceed the higher of the applicable limits of the respective coverages, and such damages shall be prorated between the applicable coverages as the limits of each coverage bear to the total of such limits.

(e) The policy or endorsement added thereto may provide that if the insured has valid and collectible automobile medical payment insurance available to him or her, the damages which the insured shall be entitled to recover from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle shall be reduced for purposes of uninsured motorist coverage by the amounts paid or due to be paid under the automobile medical payment insurance. This subdivision shall become operative on January 1, 1971.

(f) The policy or an endorsement added thereto shall provide that the determination as to whether the insured shall be legally entitled to recover damages, and if so entitled, the amount thereof, shall be made by agreement between the insured and the insurer or, in the event of disagreement, by arbitration. The arbitration shall be conducted by a single neutral arbitrator. An award or a judgment confirming an award shall not be conclusive on any party in any action or proceeding between (i) the insured, his or her insurer, his or her legal representative, or his or her heirs and (ii) the uninsured motorist to recover damages arising out of the accident upon which the award is based. If the insured has or may have rights to benefits, other than nonoccupational disability benefits, under any workers' compensation law, the arbitrator shall not proceed with the arbitration until the insured's physical condition is stationary and ratable. In those cases in which the insured claims a permanent disability, the claims shall, unless good cause be shown, be adjudicated by award or settled by compromise and release before the arbitration may proceed. Any demand or petition for arbitration shall contain a declaration, under penalty of perjury, stating whether (i) the insured has a workers' compensation claim; (ii) the claim has proceeded to findings and award or settlement on all issues reasonably contemplated to be determined in that claim; and (iii) if not, what reasons amounting to good cause are grounds for the arbitration to proceed immediately. The arbitration shall be deemed to be a proceeding and the hearing before the arbitrator shall be deemed to be the trial of an issue therein for purposes of issuance of a subpoena by an attorney of a party to the arbitration under Section 1985 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 2016) of Chapter 3 of Title 3 of Part 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be applicable to these determinations, and all rights, remedies, obligations, liabilities and procedures set forth in Article 3 shall be available to both the insured and the insurer at any time after the accident, both before and after the commencement of arbitration, if any, with the following limitations:

(1) Whenever in Article 3, reference is made to the court in which the action is pending, or provision is made for application to the court or obtaining leave of court or approval by the court, the court which shall have jurisdiction for the purposes of this section shall be the superior court of the State of California, in and for any county which is a proper county for the filing of a suit for bodily injury arising out of the accident, against the uninsured motorist, or any county specified in the policy or an endorsement added thereto as a proper county for arbitration or action thereon.

(2) Any such proper court to which application is first made by either the insured or the insurer under the provisions of Article 3 for any discovery or other relief or remedy, shall thereafter be the only court to which either of the parties shall make any applications under Article 3 with respect to the same accident, subject, however, to the right of the court to grant a change of venue after a hearing upon notice, upon any of the grounds upon which change of venue might be granted in an action filed in the superior court.

(3) A deposition pursuant to the provisions of Section 2016 of the Code of Civil Procedure may be taken without leave of court, except that leave of court, granted with or without notice and for good cause shown, must be obtained if the notice of the taking of the deposition is served by either party within 20 days after the accident.

(4) The provisions of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 2019 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall not be applicable to discovery under this section.

(5) For the purposes of discovery under this section, the insured and the insurer shall each be deemed to be "a party to the record of any civil action or proceedings," where that phrase is used in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 2019 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(6) Interrogatories under the provisions of Section 2030 of the Code of Civil Procedure and requests for admission under Section 2033 of the Code of Civil Procedure may be served by either the insured or the insurer upon the other at any time more than 20 days after the accident without leave of court.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the rights of any party to discovery in any action pending or which may hereafter be pending in any court.

(g) The insurer paying a claim under an uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage shall be entitled to be subrogated to the rights of the insured to whom such claim was paid against any person legally liable for such injury or death to the extent that payment was made. Such action may be brought within three years from the date that payment was made hereunder.

of rights to which he or she may be entitled under any other insurance coverage applicable; nor shall payment under this section to such insured be delayed or made contingent upon the decisions as to liability or distribution of loss costs under other bodily injury liability insurance or any bond applicable to the accident. Any loss payable under the terms of the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage to or for any person may be reduced:

(1) By the amount paid and the present value of all amounts payable to him or her, his or her executor, administrator, heirs, or legal representative under any workers' compensation law, exclusive of nonoccupational disability benefits.

(2) By the amount the insured is entitled to recover from any other person insured under the underlying liability insurance policy of which the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage is a part.

(i) No cause of action shall accrue to the insured under any policy or endorsement provision issued pursuant to this section unless within one year from the date of the accident:

(1) Suit for bodily injury has been filed against the uninsured motorist, in a court of competent jurisdiction and notice of such suit has been given the insurer, or

(2) Agreement as to the amount due under the policy has been concluded, or

(3) The insured has formally instituted arbitration proceedings.

(j) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (b) and (i), in the event the accident occurs in any other state or foreign jurisdiction to which coverage is extended under the policy and the insurer of the tortfeasor becomes insolvent, any action authorized pursuant to the provisions of this section may be maintained within three months of the insolvency of the tortfeasor's insurer, but in no event later than the pertinent period of limitation of the jurisdiction in which the accident occurred.

(k) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (i), any insurer whose insured has made a claim under his or her uninsured motorist coverage, and such claim is pending, shall, at least 30 days before the expiration of the applicable statute of limitation, notify its insured in writing of the statute of limitation applicable to the injury or death. Failure of the insurer to provide the written notice shall operate to toll any applicable statute of limitation or other time limitation for a period of 30 days from the date the written notice is actually given. The notice shall not be required if the insurer has received notice that the insured is represented by an attorney.

(l) As used in subdivision (b), "public or livery conveyance," or terms of similar import, shall not include the operation or use of a motor vehicle by the named insured in the performance of volunteer services for a nonprofit charitable organization or governmental agency by providing social service transportation as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 11580.1. This subdivision shall apply only to policies of insurance issued, amended, or renewed on or after January 1, 1976.

(m) Coverage provided under an uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage shall be offered with coverage limits equal to the limits of liability for bodily injury in the underlying policy of insurance, but shall not be required to be offered with limits in excess of the following amounts:

(1) A limit of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident.

(n) Underinsured motorist coverage shall be offered with limits equal to the limits of liability for the insured's uninsured motorist limits in the underlying policy, and may be offered with limits in excess of such uninsured motorist coverage. For the purposes of this section, uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage shall be offered as a single coverage. However, an insurer may offer coverage for damages for bodily injury or wrongful death from the owner or operator of an underinsured motor vehicle at greater limits than an uninsured motor vehicle.

(o) If an insured has failed to provide an insurer with wage loss information or medical treatment record releases within 15 days of the insurer's request or has failed to submit to a medical examination arranged by the insurer within 20 days of the insurer's request, the insurer may, at any time prior to 30 days before the actual arbitration proceedings commence, request, and the insured shall furnish, wage loss information or medical treatment record releases, and the insurer may require the insured, except during periods of hospitalization, to make himself or herself available for a medical examination. The wage loss information or medical treatment record releases shall be submitted by the insured within 10 days of request and the medical examination shall be arranged by the insurer no sooner than 10 days after request, unless the insured agrees to an earlier examination date, and not later than 20 days after the request. If the insured fails to comply with the requirements of this subdivision, the actual arbitration proceedings shall be stayed for at least 30 days following compliance by the insured. The proceedings shall be scheduled as soon as practicable following expiration of the 30-day period.

(p) This subdivision applies only when bodily injury, as defined in subdivision (b), is caused by an underinsured motor vehicle. If the provisions of this subdivision conflict with subdivisions (a) through (o), the provisions of this subdivision shall prevail.

(1) As used in this subdivision, "an insured motor vehicle" is one that is insured under a motor vehicle liability policy, or automobile liability insurance policy, self-insured, or for which a cash deposit or bond has been posted to satisfy a financial responsibility law.

(2) "Underinsured motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle that is an insured motor vehicle but insured for an amount that is less than the uninsured motorist limits carried on the motor vehicle of the

(3) This coverage does not apply to any bodily injury until the limits of bodily injury liability policies applicable to all insured motor vehicles causing the injury have been exhausted by payment of judgments or settlements, and proof of such is submitted to the insurer providing the underinsured motorist coverage.

(4) When bodily injury is caused by one or more motor vehicles, whether insured, underinsured, or uninsured, the maximum liability of the insurer providing the underinsured motorist coverage shall not exceed the insured's underinsured motorist coverage limits, less the amount paid to the insured by or for any person or organization that may be held legally liable for the injury.

(5) The insurer paying a claim under this subdivision shall, to the extent of such payment, be entitled to reimbursement or credit in the amount received by the insured from the owner or operator of the underinsured motor vehicle or the insurer of such owner or operator.

(6) If the insured brings an action against the owner or operator of an underinsured motor vehicle, he or she shall forthwith give to the insurer providing the underinsured motorist coverage a copy of the complaint by personal service or certified mail. All pleadings and depositions shall be made available for copying or copies furnished the insurer, at the insurer's expense, within a reasonable time.

(7) Underinsured motorist coverage shall be included in all policies of bodily injury liability insurance providing uninsured motorist coverage issued or renewed on or after July 1, 1985. Notwithstanding this section, an agreement to delete uninsured motorist coverage completely, or with respect to a person or persons designated by name, executed prior to July 1, 1985, shall remain in full force and effect.

(q) Regardless of the number of vehicles involved whether insured or not, persons covered, claims made, premiums paid or the number of premiums shown on the policy, in no event shall the limit of liability for two or more motor vehicles or two or more policies be added together, combined, or stacked to determine the limit of insurance coverage available to injured persons.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1879. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1985, (2) each bill amends Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1879, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

The payment shall be made, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the parties and subject to the approval of the Public Utilities Commission. Any violation of this section constitutes a cause for disciplinary action under Section 7120, but does not constitute grounds for a civil action. However, this section shall not be construed to prohibit the bringing of a civil action under any other provision of law.

This section applies to all private works of improvement and to all public works of improvement.

60788. The determination of the board that the whole of the district will be benefited by the bond issue or that only a described portion of the district will be benefited by the bond issue is final and conclusive.

60805. The refunding bonds may be issued and sold in the manner and form prescribed for an original issue of bonds.

60807. The face value of refunding bonds exchanged for original bonds shall not exceed the face value of the original bonds.

60809. Any bonds issued by the district may be made callable by resolution of the board adopted at or prior to the time of issuing the bonds.

60811. Callable bonds may be redeemed on any interest payment date prior to their fixed maturity in such amounts and manner and at such prices as the board may prescribe in the resolution provided for in Section 60809.

60812. Notice designating bonds called for redemption shall be published pursuant to Section 6063 in a newspaper of general circulation circulated in the city in which the office of the district is

60813. The first publication of the redemption notice shall be not less than 30 nor more than 90 days prior to the date fixed for redemption.

60815. None of the provisions of this chapter shall apply to any proceedings for the authorization, issue, or sale of revenue bonds by a district pursuant to Section 60742.

CHAPTER 5. IMPROVEMENT DISTRICTS

60820. Improvement districts may be formed in a district in the same manner as improvement districts are formed in irrigation districts. An improvement district shall have the power to acquire, construct, and maintain only those improvements or facilities necessary or required to carry out the purposes of the district which have been authorized pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 60725).

60821. The board shall have the same rights, powers, duties, and responsibilities with respect to the formation and government of improvement districts in districts as the board of directors of an irrigation district has with respect to improvement districts in irrigation districts.

60823. Whenever, in the opinion of the board, the public interest or convenience may require, it may order to be done in, under, or upon the whole or any portion of any one or more of the streets or public places of the district, or any property or rights-of-way owned by the district, any work or improvement which the district is authorized to do and provide that the cost of that work or improvement shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting on the streets or public places, or upon any district to be assessed, which district need not be composed of lands contiguous to each other. The Improvement Act of 1911, Division 7 (commencing with Section 7000), the Improvement Bond Act of 1915, Division 9 (commencing with Section 8500), and the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913, Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Streets and Highways Code are applicable to districts.

60824. In the application of the acts listed in Section 60823 to proceedings under this section, the terms used in those acts shall have the following meanings:

(a) "City council" and "council" mean board.

(b) "City" and "municipality" mean district.

(c) "Clerk" and "city clerk" mean secretary.

(d) "Superintendent of streets" and "street superintendent" and "city engineer" mean the general manager of the district or any other person appointed to perform those duties.

(e) "Tax collector" means the county tax collector.

(f) "Treasurer" and "city treasurer" mean the city treasurer or the depositary of the district.

(g) "Right-of-way" means any parcel of land through which a right-of-way has been granted to the district for the purpose of constructing or maintaining work or improvements which the district is authorized to do.

60825. The powers and duties conferred by the acts listed in Section 60823 acts upon boards, officers, and agents of cities shall be exercised by the board, officers, and agents of the district, respectively.

CHAPTER 6. INCLUSION IN IMPROVEMENT DISTRICTS

60830. Territory within a district may be annexed to an improvement district whether or not contiguous to the district if the territory is not part of an improvement district constituted for a similar purpose.

60831. Except as provided in Section 60849, in order to commence the procedure for annexation to an improvement district, the board shall adopt a resolution initiating proceedings for an annexation, which resolution shall do all of the following:

(a) Set forth a description of the exterior boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed.

(b) State whether the territory proposed to be annexed is inhabited, in that there reside within the territory 12 or more persons who have been registered to vote within that territory for at least 54 days prior to the date of adoption of the resolution, or uninhabited, in that there reside within the territory less than 12 persons who have been registered to vote within that territory for at least 54 days prior to the date of adoption of the resolution.

(c) State the reason or reasons for the proposed annexation.

(d) Set forth any terms or conditions of the proposed annexation.

(e) Fix a time, date, and place of hearing on the proposed annexation, which hearing shall be not less than 15 days nor more than 60 days after the date of adoption of the resolution initiating proceedings.

(f) State that any interested person desiring to make written protest against the annexation shall do so by written communication filed with the secretary not later than the hour set for the hearing. A written protest by a landowner shall contain a description sufficient to identify the land owned by the landowner and a written protest by a voter shall contain the residence of the voter.

60832. The secretary of the district shall give notice of the hearing by doing all of the following:

(a) Publication pursuant to Section 6061 of the resolution initiating the proceedings for annexation once in a newspaper of general circulation circulated within the improvement district.

(b) Posting the resolution initiating the proceedings for annexation on or near the doors of the meeting place of the board of the district or on any official bulletin board customarily used for the purpose of posting of public notices.

(c) Mailing the resolution initiating proceedings for annexation to all landowners owning land within the territory proposed to be annexed, as shown upon the last equalized assessment roll of the county, at the address shown upon the assessment roll, and to all persons and the county, city, or districts which have previously filed a written request for special notice with the secretary.

60833. Publication, posting, and mailing shall be completed at least 15 days prior to the date set for the hearing. Mailed notice shall be sent by first-class mail and deposited, postage prepaid, in the United States mail and shall be deemed to have been given when so deposited.

60835. At the hearing the board shall hear and receive any oral or written protests, objections, or evidence which shall be made, presented, or filed. Any person who shall have filed a written protest may withdraw the protest at any time prior to the conclusion of the hearing.

60836. Factors to be considered by the board in a proposed annexation shall include all of the following:

(a) Whether the proposed annexation will be for the interest of landowners and present and future inhabitants within the improvement district and within the territory proposed to be annexed to the improvement district.

(b) Any other matters which the board deems material. Except as otherwise provided in this division, the board shall not be required to make any express recitals or findings concerning any of the factors considered by the board.

60837. In any proceedings for the annexation of territory to any improvement district, the board shall have the power and duty to exclude any lands proposed to be annexed which it finds will not be benefited by becoming a part of the improvement district.

For the purpose of completing those proceedings, including the findings provided for by Section 60838, any land so excluded shall no longer be considered a part of the territory to be annexed.

60838. A majority protest shall be deemed to exist and the proposed annexation shall be abandoned if the board finds and declares by resolution that written protests filed not later than the hour set for the hearing, and not withdrawn prior to the conclusion of the hearing, represent:

(a) In the case of the annexation of inhabited territory either:

(1) More than 50 percent of the assessed valuation of land in the territory.

(2) More than 50 percent of the voting power of voters entitled to vote as a result of residing within such territory.

(b) In the case of the annexation of uninhabited territory, more than 50 percent of the assessed value of land in the territory.

60840. The board shall determine the sufficiency of written protests by the methods and manner provided in Sections 60841 to 60845, inclusive.

60842. If the protests are signed by landowners, the secretary shall compare the names of the signers on the protests against the names of the persons shown as owners of land on the last equalized assessment roll of the county and ascertain both of the following:

60844. In examining any petition signed by a landowner, the secretary of the district shall disregard the signature of any person not shown as owner on the last equalized assessment roll unless prior to certification the secretary is furnished with written evidence, satisfactory to the secretary, that the signer is a legal representative of the owner, is entitled to be shown as the owner of land on the next assessment roll, is a purchaser of land under a recorded written agreement of sale, or is authorized to sign for and on behalf of any public agency owning land.

60845. If any person signing a protest as a landowner shall appear as owner on the last equalized assessment roll, but be shown thereon as a partner, joint tenant, tenant in common, or as husband or wife, the signature of that person shall be counted as if all the owners shown on the roll had signed.

60846. In any annexation proceeding, if a majority protest shall not have been filed, the board shall, not later than 30 days after the conclusion of the hearing, adopt a resolution either:

(a) Disapproving the proposed annexation.

(b) Ordering the annexation in accordance with Sections 60847 to 60849, inclusive.

60847. The board may order the territory annexed to the improvement district either without election or subject to confirmation by the voters upon the question of the annexation. However, the board shall not order any such annexation without election unless the board either finds that:

(a) In the case of uninhabited territory, that written protests filed and not withdrawn represent less than 25 percent of the number of landowners within the territory owning not more than 25 percent of the assessed value of land in the territory.

(b) In the case of inhabited territory, that written protests filed and not withdrawn represent both:

(1) Less than 25 percent of the number of landowners within the territory, owning not more than 25 percent of the assessed value of land in the territory.

(2) Less than 25 percent of the voting power of voters entitled to vote as a result of residing within the territory.

60848. In any resolution ordering an annexation of territory subject to confirmation by the voters, the board may either provide for an election or elections to be called, held, and conducted upon the question:

(a) Only within the territory ordered to be annexed.

(b) Both within the territory ordered to be annexed and within all of the improvement district.

60849. If all the owners of land within the territory proposed to be annexed have given their written assent to the annexation, the board may, by resolution, order the annexation without notice and hearing by the board, without an election, or without notice and hearing by the board and without an election.

60851. After the canvass of the returns of any election or elections on the question of annexation, the board shall declare, by resolution, the total number of votes cast in the election or elections, and the number of votes cast for and against the annexation. The board shall adopt a resolution confirming the order of annexation if a majority of the votes cast upon the questions are in favor of the annexation

(a) At an election called only within the territory ordered to be annexed.

(b) At each election where one election was called within the territory ordered to be annexed and another election within all of the improvement district.

60852. If the proceedings for annexation are terminated, either by majority protest as provided in Section 60838, or by failure of the majority of voters to confirm the order at an election held pursuant to Section 60848, then no new proposal for the same or substantially the same plan of annexation may be filed with the board within one year after the date of adoption of the resolution terminating the proceedings.

60854. Territory annexed to an improvement district shall be subject to existing bond issues and indebtedness of the improvement district from and after the filing with the county tax collector specified in Section 60853.

60860. Zones may be established within a district for any of the following purposes:

(a) Incurring a bonded indebtedness within the zone sufficient to pay the cost of construction of improvements or establishment of services, which improvements and services the district is authorized to provide, where the improvements and services, in the judgment of the board, will not be of districtwide benefit, and levying a special tax within the zone for the payment of principal and interest on the bonds.

(b) Fixing and collecting special rates, special charges, or special taxes for the construction of improvements and for the furnishing of services within a zone, which improvements and services the district is authorized to provide, and applying the receipts from the special rates, special charges, or special taxes to the expense of providing the service, where in the judgment of the board the service is not of districtwide benefit.

(c) Levying special taxes to finance the construction, maintenance, and operation of improvements or the furnishing of services, where in the judgment of the board the improvements or services will not be of districtwide benefit.

60861. Zones may be established within a district by either of the following methods:

(a) A petition for the formation of a zone within a district may be presented to the board, signed by owners representing at least 25 percent of the total assessed valuation of the real property, including land and improvements, within the proposed zone, as shown by the last equalized assessment role of the county or by not less than 25 percent of the registered voters residing within the proposed zone.

(b) A resolution may be adopted by the board setting forth the matters required by Section 60862. If bonds are proposed to be issued under the authority of Section 60860, the resolution shall state the amount of the proposed indebtedness, the maximum maturity, and the maximum interest rate.

60862. A petition or resolution shall contain all of the following:

(a) The boundaries of the proposed zone.

(b) A general description of the improvement desired or service to be rendered.

(c) An estimate of the cost of the proposed improvement and of incidental expenses in connection with the improvement.

60863. The petition shall be presented at a regular meeting of the board and the board shall set a time for hearing the petition, which time shall be not less than 21 days, nor more than 30 days, after the date of presentation of the petition or adoption of the resolution as provided in Section 60861. Notice of the hearing on the petition or resolution stating when the petition was filed or resolution adopted and specifying the time and place set for the hearing of the petition or resolution and informing interested parties of their right to protest shall be given by the secretary of the board by publication in the district pursuant to Section 6066.

60865. At the time fixed for the hearing, the board shall hear and pass upon the petition and consider any protest and requests for exclusion that have been filed with the secretary before or at the time set for the hearing and its decision on the protests or requests shall be final and conclusive.

60866. If 50 percent or more of the registered voters residing within the territory proposed to be included in the zone, or the owners of 50 percent or more of the value of the land and improvements in the territory proposed to be included in the zone, as shown by the last equalized assessment roll, file written protests against the establishment of the area, the board shall abandon the proposed establishment of the zone.

If a majority protest of the registered voters or of the property owners is against only the furnishing of a specified type of service within the area or the construction of certain improvements, those types of services or those improvements shall be eliminated from the resolution finally establishing the area.

60867. At any time not later than the hour set for the public hearings, any owner of property within the proposed zone may file a written request for exclusion of his or her property, or any portion thereof, from the zone. The request shall state the name of the owner of the property affected and the street address or other description of the property sufficient to identify it on the last equalized assessment roll. A request for exclusion may be made on behalf of the owner by an agent authorized, in writing, by the owner to act as agent with respect to that property. A request may be made on behalf of a private corporation which is an owner of property by an officer or employee of the corporation without such written authorization.

At the time and place stated in the notice the board shall hold public hearings at which owners who have filed requests for exclusion of their property from the proposed zone may be heard in support of their requests for exclusion.

The board shall make specific findings as to whether or not property as to which a request for exclusion has been filed shall be included within the zone and shall exclude from the zone any of those lands which the board finds will not be benefited by inclusion in the zone.

60869. The hearing may be continued from time to time but shall be completed within 30 days of its commencement. After the hearing, the board may abandon the proposed establishment of the zone or may, after passing upon all protests and requests for exclusion, determine to establish the zone. If the board determines to establish the zone, it shall do so by ordinance and finally determine and establish the boundaries of the zone and designate the improvements to be constructed in the zone or designate the types of services to be performed in the zone.

In establishing the boundaries of the area, the board may allow the exterior boundaries of the area to include less territory than that described in the notice of the hearing, but it may not include any territory not described in the notice of the hearing.

60870. Upon the establishment of such a zone, only the types of services contained in the resolution or the improvements specified in the resolution may be paid for out of special taxes levied within the zone.

60871. Upon the establishment of a zone, bonds may be issued for the purpose of benefiting the zone in accordance with Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 60780).

60872. All powers and duties of the district may be exercised on behalf of or within any zone formed pursuant to this division.

CHAPTER 8. INCLUSION IN ZONES

60880. Territory within a district may be annexed to a zone whether or not contiguous to the zone, if the territory is not part of a zone constituted for a similar purpose.

60881. Except as provided in Section 60899, in order to commence the procedure for annexation to a zone, the board shall adopt a resolution initiating proceedings for annexation, which resolution shall do all of the following:

(a) Set forth a description of the exterior boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed.

(b) State whether the territory proposed to be annexed is inhabited, in that there reside within the territory 12 or more persons who have been registered to vote within that territory for at least 54 days prior to the date of adoption of the resolution, or uninhabited, in that there reside within that territory less than 12 persons who have been registered to vote within that territory for at least 54 days prior to the date of adoption of the resolution.

(c) State the reason or reasons for the proposed annexation.

(d) Set forth any terms or conditions for the proposed annexation.

(e) Fix a time, date, and place of hearing on the proposed annexation, which hearing shall be not less than 15 days, nor more than 60 days, after the date of adoption of the resolution initiating proceedings.

(f) State that any interested person desiring to make written protest against the annexation shall do so by written communication filed with the secretary not later than the hour set for the hearing. A written protest by a landowner shall contain a description sufficient to identify the land owned by the landowner and a written protest by a voter shall contain the residential address of the voter.

60882. The secretary shall give notice of any such hearing by doing all of the following:

(a) Publication pursuant to Section 6061 of the resolution initiating the proceedings for annexation once in a newspaper of general circulation circulated within the zone.

(b) Posting the resolution initiating proceedings for annexation on or near the doors of the meeting place of the board or on any official bulletin board customarily used for the purpose of posting public notices.

(c) Mailing the resolution initiating proceedings for annexation to all landowners owning land within the territory proposed to be annexed, as shown upon the last equalized assessment roll of the county, at the address shown upon the assessment roll, and to all persons and county, city, or districts which have previously filed a written request for special notice with the secretary.

60883. Publication, posting, and mailing required by Section 60882 shall be completed at least 15 days prior to the date set for the hearing. Mailed notice shall be sent by first-class mail and deposited, postage prepaid, in the United States mail and shall be deemed to have been given when so deposited.

60885. At the hearing the board shall hear and receive any oral or written protests, objections, or evidence which shall be made, presented, or filed. Any person who shall have filed a written protest may withdraw the protest at any time prior to the conclusion of the hearing.

60886. Factors to be considered by the board in a proposed annexation shall include all of the following:

(b) Any other matters which the board deems material. Except as otherwise provided in this division, the board shall not be required to make any express recitals or findings concerning any of the factors considered by the board.

60887. In any proceedings for the annexation of territory to any zone, the board shall have the power and duty to exclude any lands proposed to be annexed which it finds will not be benefited by becoming a part of the zone.

For the purpose of completing those proceedings, including the findings provided for by Section 60888, any land so excluded shall no longer be considered a part of the territory proposed to be annexed.

60888. A majority protest shall be deemed to exist and the proposed annexation shall be abandoned if the board finds and declares by resolution that written protests filed not later than the hour set for the hearing, and not withdrawn prior to the conclusion of the hearing, represent:

(a) In the case of the annexation of inhabited territory either:

(1) More than 50 percent of the assessed value of land in the territory.

(2) More than 50 percent of the voting power of voters entitled to vote as a result of residing within the territory.

(b) In the case of annexation of uninhabited territory, more than 50 percent of the assessed value of land in the territory.

60892. If the protests are signed by landowners, the secretary shall compare the names of the signers on the protests against the names of the persons shown as owners of land on the last equalized assessment roll of the county and ascertain both of the following:

60896. In any annexation proceeding, if a majority protest shall not have been filed, the board shall, not later than 30 days after the conclusion of the hearing, adopt a resolution either:

(a) Disapproving the proposed annexation.

(b) Ordering the annexation in accordance with Section 60897 to 60899, inclusive.

60897. The board may order the territory annexed to the zone either without election or subject to confirmation by the voters upon the question of the annexation. However, the board shall not order any annexation without election unless the board either finds that:

(a) In the case of uninhabited territory, that written protests filed and not withdrawn represent less than 25 percent of the assessed value of land in the territory.

(b) In the case of inhabited territory, that written protests filed and not withdrawn represent both:

(1) Less than 25 percent of the number of landowners within the territory owning not less than 25 percent of the assessed value of land in the territory.

(2) Less than 25 percent of the voting power of voters entitled to vote as a result of residing within the territory.

60898. In any resolution ordering an annexation of territory subject to confirmation by the voters, the board may either provide for an election to be called, held, and conducted upon the question:

(a) Only within the territory ordered to be annexed.

(b) Both within the territory ordered to be annexed and within all of the zone.

60899. If all the owners of land within the territory proposed to be annexed have given their written assent to the annexation, the board may, by resolution, order the annexation without notice and hearing by the board, without an election, or without notice and hearing by the board and without an election.

60900. A resolution ordering an annexation or detachment shall describe the exterior boundaries of the territory and shall contain all of the terms and conditions imposed upon the annexation.

60901. After the canvass of the returns of any election or elections on the question of the annexation, the board shall declare, by resolution, the total number of votes cast in the election or elections, and the number of votes cast for and against the annexation. The board shall adopt a resolution confirming the order of annexation, if a majority of the votes cast upon the questions are in favor of the annexation either:

(a) At an election called only within the territory ordered to be annexed.

(b) At each election where one election was called within the territory ordered to be annexed and another election within all of the zones.

60902. If the proceedings for annexation are terminated, either by majority protest, as provided in Section 60888, or by failure of the majority of voters to confirm the order at an election held pursuant to Section 60898, then no new proposal for the same or substantially the same plan of annexation may be filed with the board within one year after the date of adoption of the resolution terminating the proceedings.

60904. Territory annexed to a zone shall be subject to existing bond issues and indebtedness of the zone from and after the filing with the county tax collector specified in Section 60903.

CHAPTER 9. DEPOSITARY OF DISTRICT MONEY

60910. The board may, by resolution, designate a bank or a savings and loan association as depositary of any or all of its funds. If that depositary is not designated for all of the board's funds, it shall designate which funds are to be deposited with that depositary. The treasurer of the city in which the district is situated shall be the depositary for all funds not so designated.

60911. The treasurer shall do all of the following:

(a) Receive and receipt for all the district's money and place it in the designated depositary to the credit of the district.

(b) Be responsible for ascertaining that the district's depositary is officially bonded for all of the district money held by the depositary in safekeeping and disbursed upon warrants drawn by the treasurer.

60913. The treasurer shall draw warrants to pay written demands made against the district when the demands have been approved by the board and the general manager.

60914. The treasurer shall install and maintain a system of auditing and accounting that shall completely, at all times, show the financial condition of the district. The treasurer shall report to the board, in writing, on the first day of each month with respect to each of the following:

(a) The amount of money in the several accounts under the treasurer's control for the district, indicating depositary and the terms of the deposit.

(b) The amount of receipts since the treasurer's last report.

(c) The amount paid out since the treasurer's last report.

(d) The amount of money invested and the terms of investments.

(e) The purpose for which funds are held and invested.

(f) The report shall be signed by the treasurer and filed with the secretary.

60915. The board shall approve reasonable charges made against the district, as determined by the board, for all of the following services:

(a) The district depositary as custodians of the district's money.

(b) The district depositary for paying warrants drawn by the treasurer and approved against the district.

(c) The district depositary for paying bonds and coupons of the district.

(d) The official bond of the district's depositary and treasurer.

60916. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 60910 to 60915, inclusive, the board may, in a resolution relating to the issuance of revenue bonds, designate a trustee, fiscal agent, or depositary to receive the proceeds of sale of the revenue bonds or all or a part of any revenue received or to be received by the district from any enterprise of the district or from any services or facilities furnished or to be furnished the district, all as set forth in the resolution. In that event, Sections 60910 to 60915, inclusive, shall not apply to the proceeds of sale of the bonds or to the revenues, and the trustee, fiscal agent, or depositary so designated shall receive, hold, and disburse the proceeds of sale of the bonds or the revenues upon such terms and conditions as shall be provided in the resolution, which shall prescribe the duties and powers of the trustee, fiscal agent, or depositary. Any such trustee, fiscal agent, or depositary shall be a bank or trust company qualified to do business in the state.

60917. A bank or savings and loan association may act as a depositary, paying agent, or fiscal agent for the holding of district funds, even though a member of the board of the district whose funds are on deposit in the bank or savings and loan association, is an officer, employee, or stockholder of the bank or savings and loan association, or of a holding company that owns any of the stock of the bank or savings and loan association.

CHAPTER 10. COOPERATION WITH THE UNITED STATES

60920. A district may cooperate and contract with the United States.

CHAPTER 11. SHORT-TERM BORROWING

60930. A district may borrow money and incur indebtedness as provided in this chapter by action of the board and without the necessity of calling and holding an election in the district.

60931. Indebtedness may be incurred pursuant to this chapter for any purpose for which the district is authorized to expend funds, including provisions for payment of current expenses of the district and for the funding or refunding of any outstanding warrants issued for the payment of current expenses.

60934. The board may, in its resolution authorizing the issuance of notes, provide that the notes shall be subject to call and redemption prior to maturity, at the option of the district, at such price or prices as may be fixed in the resolution, not exceeding a premium of 6 percent of the par value of the note so subject to redemption. The resolution shall fix the method of giving notice of redemption to the holders of notes to be redeemed and the price or prices at which the note shall be subject to redemption. Notes so subject to call and redemption prior to maturity shall contain a recital to that effect on their face and no note shall be subject to call and redemption prior to its fixed maturity date unless it contains that recital.

60935. Notes issued under this chapter shall be offered for public sale upon notice inviting sealed bids. Notice shall be given by publication pursuant to Section 6061 in a newspaper of general circulation circulated within the district. The sale shall not be held before 10 days after the publication. The board may reject all bids received on public sale and either readvertise or sell the notes at private sale, but no sale at private sale shall be made for less than the par value of the note and accrued interest on the note.

60937. The district may issue general obligation notes pursuant to Article 7.6 (commencing with Section 53850) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5, payable out of the taxes, income, revenue, cash receipts, and other moneys of the district attributable to the fiscal year in which the indebtedness is incurred and legally available for payment of the indebtedness. The amount of notes and interest thereon to be incurred shall not exceed 25 percent of the amount of moneys available for payment of the notes as estimated by the treasurer. In addition, all of the following provisions shall apply to those notes:

(a) The notes shall be issued in negotiable form, payable to bearers, without coupons, and may be registrable.

(b) The notes are not subject to call prior to maturity.

(c) The notes shall be issued in denominations of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(d) The interest rate on the notes shall not exceed the rate established pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 53530) of Chapter 3 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5.

PART 6. TAXES, ASSESSMENTS, AND FEES AND CHARGES

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

60950. The board shall state the purposes for which special taxes levied pursuant to this division are necessary, and shall fix, by ordinance, the amount of money necessary to be raised by taxation. If the amount to be raised at any one time by taxation for a purpose other than debt service or indebtedness exceeds the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), the ordinance shall not become effective until 30 days after its final passage.

60951. Any taxes so levied shall be collected by the district and may be collected on a monthly, semiannual, or annual basis. The taxes shall be subject to the same requirements and penalties provided by law for the settlement of other taxes.

60952. All taxes levied under the provisions of this division shall be a lien on the real property of the person against whom they are levied and the enforcement of the collection of those taxes may be had in the same manner and by the same means as is provided by law for the enforcement of liens for state and county taxes. All the provisions of law relating to the enforcement of liens for state and county taxes are hereby incorporated by reference and made a part of this division.

60953. Whenever any real property situated in any district has been sold for taxes and has been redeemed, the money paid for the redemption shall be apportioned and paid by the county treasurer receiving the same to the district in the proportion which the tax due to the district bears to the total tax for which the property was sold.

CHAPTER 2. ASSESSMENTS

60960. The board may, by resolution, levy an assessment on each parcel of real property, including land and improvements within the district, or any zone or improvement district thereof, on the basis of estimated benefits, to carry out the objects and purposes of the district which cannot be provided for out of the revenues of the district, including funds for the payment of current common expenses and for the creation of reserves for the payment of future common expenses and funds for improvements, replacements, and additions. Benefit assessments shall be levied in proportion to the percentage interests of property owners in the district. The board shall not impose an assessment upon a federal or state governmental agency or another local agency. If the benefit assessments are collected by the county on behalf of the district, the county may deduct its reasonable costs incurred for that service before remittal of the balance to the district.

60962. Whenever the board levies an assessment pursuant to this chapter, the board shall first have a written report, containing a description of each parcel and the amount of the assessment for each parcel prepared and recorded with the office of the county recorder of the county in which the real property, including land and improvements, is situated, and filed with the secretary. The secretary shall fix a time, date, and place for a hearing upon the report. Prior to the date of the hearing, a notice of hearing shall be published pursuant to Section 6063 in a newspaper of general circulation circulated within the district and at least three notices shall be posted in public places within the district.

At the hearing, the board shall hear and consider all protests. At the conclusion of the hearing, the board may adopt, revise, change, reduce, or modify any assessment and shall make its determination upon each assessment described in the report and thereafter, by resolution, shall confirm the assessments. A copy of the resolution of confirmation shall be certified by the secretary and shall be recorded with the county recorder of the county in which the district is located.

60963. Upon recordation of the confirmed assessment, pursuant to Section 60962, the assessment shall be levied and collected at the same time and in the same manner as the general or special tax levy.

60964. The board may thereafter, in each year, prior to the time of fixing the district tax rate, estimate the cost of providing the services in carrying out the purposes of the district, or any zone or improvement district within the district, during the ensuing year. The board may, in addition to all other taxes, levy for the purposes set forth in Part 5 (commencing with Section 60725) an assessment each year upon the real property, including land and improvements in the district or any zone or improvement district thereof, sufficient to pay that expense.

CHAPTER 3. FEES AND CHARGES

At the hearing, the board shall hear and consider all protests. At the conclusion of the hearing, the board may adopt, revise, change, reduce, or modify any fees or charges described in the report and thereafter, by resolution, shall confirm the fees and charges. A copy of the resolution shall be certified by the secretary, and recorded with the city clerk of the city in which the district is located. If the district is formed pursuant to this division, the city shall be reimbursed for other expenses incurred in behalf of the district, including expense of holding the district formation election.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of the unique circumstances of the retirement community commonly known as Rossmoor in the City of Walnut Creek.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

An act to amend Section 18930 of the Government Code, relating to state civil service.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18930 of the Government Code is amended to read:

18930. Examinations for the establishment of eligible lists shall be competitive and of such character as fairly to test and determine the qualifications, fitness and ability of competitors actually to perform the duties of the class of position for which they seek appointment.

Examinations for managerial positions, except for career executive assignments as defined in Section 18547, peace officers defined in subdivision (a) of Section 830.2 of the Penal Code, and managerial positions of the Department of Forestry in the classes of State Forest Ranger IV and Assistant Deputy State Forester, shall be held on an open basis unless the appointing authority determines otherwise. "Managerial position" means those positions having the duties which are defined under "managerial employees" in subdivision (e) of Section 3513. When an open examination is administered for a noncareer executive assignment managerial position, the names of the applicants who pass the examination with a passing score shall be placed on one list and ranked in the relative order of the examination score received.

Examinations may be assembled or unassembled, written or oral, or in the form of a demonstration of skill, or any combination of these; and any investigation of character, personality, education and experience and any tests of intelligence, capacity, technical knowledge, manual skill, or physical fitness which the board deems are appropriate, may be employed.

An act to amend Sections 454 and 3626.5 of, to add Sections 452.2, 454.1, 1068.2, 3542.2, 3661.1, and 3666.1 to, and to repeal and add Section 452.1 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to carriers, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1984 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 452.1 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 452.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

452.1. Whenever a cement carrier requests authority to establish a rate less than the maximum reasonable rate, the commission shall, in addition to the requirements of Section 452, require a showing that the rate is fully compensatory based solely upon the cost of transportation from origin to destination and return and the projected revenue to be derived from the requested rate.

If the commission finds after public hearing, when a hearing is requested, that the proposed rate meets the requirements of Section 452 and this section, it shall authorize the establishment of the proposed rate subject to conditions the public interest may require.

SEC. 3. Section 452.2 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

452.2. (a) The establishment of a less-than-maximum reasonable rate pursuant to Section 452.1 shall be for a period of not more than one year. In addition to the requirements of Section 452.1, an applicant requesting renewal shall make a showing to the satisfaction of the commission, supported by operating results and cost data developed from the transportation to which the less-than-maximum reasonable rate was applicable, that the renewal at less than the maximum reasonable rate is justified.

(b) In lieu of requiring an annual showing pursuant to subdivision (a), the commission may establish an index directly related to the cost of transportation of cement which shall serve as the basis for adjustment and renewal of rates for the transportation of cement under this section.

SEC. 4. Section 454 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

454. (a) Except as provided in Section 454.1, no public utility shall raise any rate or so alter any classification, contract, practice, or rule as to result in any increase in any rate, except upon a showing before the commission and a finding by the commission that the increase is justified. However, upon a showing by a public utility before the commission after a public hearing and a finding by the commission that it has invested in projects designed to generate or produce energy from renewable resources, including, but not limited to, solar energy, geothermal energy, wind sources, hydroelectric energy at existing dams and hydroelectric energy at new dams subject to Resources Agency review of the environmental impacts of the proposed project and determination that the proposed project is environmentally acceptable, or that it has invested in other systems capable of meeting the then applicable environmental pollution standards, in either case the capital costs of which, when added to the operating and maintenance costs, shall result in a lower cost per unit of energy generated or produced over the life of the system than existing systems utilizing atomic energy, fossil fuels, or natural gas, which projects or systems are capable of or, in fact, are generating energy for commercial purposes, the commission may allow a return on the investment established by adding an increment of from one-half of 1 percent to 1 percent to the rate of return permitted on the utility's other investment. The commission may, in its discretion, also allow the higher rate of return on investment by a public utility in experimental projects which it determines, after public hearing, to be reasonably designed to improve or perfect technology to generate or produce energy from renewable resources, or to more efficiently utilize other resources for the generation of energy in a manner which will decrease the environmental pollution per unit of energy generated or produced and lower the cost per unit of energy to the utility's consumers. Whenever any electrical, gas, heat, telephone, water, or sewer system corporation files an application to increase any rate of charge, other than an increase reflecting and passing through to customers only increased costs to the corporation, for the services or commodities furnished by it, the corporation shall furnish to its customers affected by the proposed increase notice of its application to the commission for approval of the increase. The corporation may include the notice with the regular bill for charges transmitted to the customers within 45 days if the corporation operates on a 30-day billing cycle, or within 75 days if the corporation operates on a 60-day billing cycle. The notice shall state the amount of the proposed increase expressed in both dollar and percentage terms, a brief statement of the reasons the increase is required or sought, and the mailing address of the commission to which any customer inquiries relative to the proposed increase, including a request by the customer to receive notice of the date, time, and place of any hearing on the application, may be directed.

(b) The commission may adopt rules it considers reasonable and proper for each class of public utility providing for the nature of the showing required to be made in support of proposed increases, the form and manner of the presentation of the showing, and the procedure to be followed in the consideration thereof. Rules applicable to common carriers may provide for the publication and filing of any proposed increase together with a written showing in support thereof, giving notice of the filing and showing in support thereof to the public, granting an opportunity for protests thereto, and to the consideration of, and action on, the showing and any protests filed thereto by the commission, with or without hearing. However, the proposed increase does not become effective until it has been approved by the commission.

(c) The commission shall permit individual residential public utility customers affected by a proposed rate increase to testify at any hearing on the proposed increase, except that the presiding officer need not allow repetitive or irrevelant testimony and may conduct the hearing in an efficient manner.

SEC. 5. Section 454.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

454.1. The commission shall adopt rules and regulations under which cement carriers may file for increases in rates and charges. In adopting these rules and regulations, the commission shall follow the following procedures:

(a) Cement carriers may publish on 45 days' notice, subject to subdivisions (b) and (e), just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory rates, classifications, contracts, practices, or rules resulting in a rate increase. However, the commission may, upon a showing of good cause, allow changes without requiring the 45 days' notice.

(b) If no protest is received by the commission within the first 30 days of the 45-day notice period required by subdivision (a), or if the commission does not within the 45-day period determine, on its own initiative, to investigate the validity of the proposed rates, the commission shall publish notification of the increase in its public agenda and shall thereafter issue a decision at the next meeting of the commission finding the increase to be justified and granting the increase as requested.

(d) In addition to the procedure provided in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), the commission may establish an index directly related to the cost of transportation of cement which shall serve as the basis for annual adjustment of rates for the transportation of cement under this section. Whenever the commission fixes the annual level of this index, it shall, within 45 days thereafter, order adjustment of all cement carrier rates by the equivalent percentage of the change in the index.

(e) Whenever during the first 30 days of the 45-day notice period a protest is filed with the commission alleging a proposed rate, classification, contract, practice, rule, or index resulting in a rate increase is not just and reasonable, or if the commission on its own motion determines to investigate the validity of the proposed rate, classification, contract, practice, rule, or index resulting in a rate increase, the burden of proof that the rate, classification, contract, practice, rule, or index resulting in a rate increase is justified is on the applicant. All rates, classifications, contracts, practices, and rules in effect on April 1, 1982, or established pursuant to this section are prima facie just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory rates, except that any person may file a protest with the commission, and shall bear the burden of proof, that the rate, classification, contract, practice, rule, or index is not justified.

SEC. 6. Section 1068.2 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to

1068.2. No carrier shall operate for compensation a motor vehicle loaded substantially to capacity with portland or similar cement, either alone or in combination with lime or powdered limestone, in bulk or in packages, whether or not under contract or other arrangement with a shipper or another carrier, over any highway, unless there is in force either a cement carrier certificate or a cement contract carrier permit to serve the points involved in the transportation.

SEC. 7. Section 3542.2 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

3542.2. No carrier shall operate for compensation a motor vehicle loaded substantially to capacity with portland or similar cement, either alone or in combination with lime or powdered limestone, in bulk or in packages, whether or not under contract or other arrangement with a shipper or another carrier, over any highway, unless there is in force either a cement carrier certificate or a cement contract carrier permit to serve the points involved in the transportation.

SEC. 8. Section 3626.5 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

3626.5. (a) Cement contract carriers shall have written contracts, a copy of which shall be on file with the commission, before performance under the contract commences. The contract shall be a bilateral contract including all of the following essential terms:

(1) Parties.

(2) Time of performance.

(3) Subject matter.

(4) Compensation.

(b) Whenever freight charges are prepaid by a consignor, the compensation shall not exceed the upper limits of the zone of reasonableness as set forth in Section 3666.1.

SEC. 9. Section 3661.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

3661.1. The commission shall not approve any rate for the transportation of cement by a cement contract carrier which does not meet the requirements of Section 3666.1.

SEC. 10. Section 3666.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

3666.1. (a) A cement contract carrier may file with the commission for its approval, on five days' notice, any rate which is within the zone of reasonableness. For purposes of this section, the zone of reasonableness is as follows:

(1) Until the commission establishes a lowest common carrier rate pursuant to Section 452.1, the lower limit of the zone of reasonableness is the cement carrier rate in effect on April 1, 1982. After the commission establishes the lowest common carrier rate pursuant to Section 452.1, the lower limit of the zone of reasonableness shall be that rate until further adjusted.

(2) The upper limit of the zone of reasonableness is the highest cement carrier rate established pursuant to Section 454.1 for the transportation which is subject to the cement contract carrier's filing.

(b) If a cement contract carrier proposes to perform any transportation or accessorial service at a rate other than within the zone of reasonableness, the carrier shall file therefor on 45 days' notice, and the commission shall require the carrier to show whichever of the following applies:

(1) If the rate is less than the zone of reasonableness, that the proposed rate is fully compensatory based solely upon the cost of transportation from origin to destination and return and the projected revenue to be derived from the requested rate.

(2) If the rate is higher than the zone of reasonableness, that the proposed rate is reasonable, proper, and justified by transportation conditions.

On any rate authorized outside the zone of reasonableness, the commission shall attach any condition that the public interest requires.

In order to assure that safety considerations become a requirement as soon as possible for all highway carriers transporting cement, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act relating to the Northwestern Los Angeles Resource Conservation District.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding Section 9491 of the Public Resources Code or any other provision of law, the Northwestern Los Angeles Resource Conservation District is hereby abolished as of the effective date of this act. The Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles County is the successor agency and shall wind up the affairs of the district, distribute and dispose of its assets, and pay its obligations, including the costs and expenses of dissolution. The County of Los Angeles is liable for obligations of the district incurred prior to January 1, 1985, only to the extent of the assets of the district on that date, and only for those obligations incurred after that date which are approved by the Los Angeles County Auditor/Controller. Any remaining assets of the district shall be distributed by the board of supervisors to the Topanga-Las Virgines Resource Conservation District, the Antelope Valley Resource Conservation District, the County of Los Angeles, or any or all of them, to be used for conservation purposes. The board of supervisors may, in accordance with Article 1 (commencing with Section 9151) of Chapter 3 of Division 9 of the Public Resources Code, allocate any of the lands comprising the Northwestern Los Angeles Resource Conservation District to become a part of the Topanga-Las Virgines Resource Conservation District, the Antelope Valley Resource Conservation District, or both those districts. The board of supervisors shall allocate any of those lands requested by the Topanga-Los Virgines Resource Conservation District or the Antelope Valley Resource Conservation District to the requesting district, if the request is made within one year after the County of Los Angeles gives notice of the availability of the lands.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

An act to amend Section 30607.2 of the Public Resources Code, relating to coastal resources.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30607.2 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30607.2. (a) Conditions requiring housing for persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code, which were incorporated into a coastal development permit issued prior to January 1, 1982, may, at the request of the permittee, be amended or modified by the commission or by a local government having the authority to issue coastal development permits. In approving those amendments or modifications, only those conditions and requirements authorized by Section 65590 of the Government Code may be imposed on the permittee.

(b) Any person who, prior to January 1, 1982, has been issued a coastal development permit which contains requirements for low- and moderate-income housing but who, prior to January 1, 1982, has not performed substantial work on the development site (such as grading, installation of streets, sewers, or utilities, or construction of major buildings) may elect to proceed under either of the following options:

(1) To proceed pursuant to all of the requirements of the coastal development permit, in which event the provisions of subdivision (a) shall apply to any subsequent request to amend or alter the coastal development permit in regard to housing requirements.

(2) To proceed without complying with the housing requirements contained in the coastal development permit, in which event the housing requirements for the development shall be governed by Section 65590 of the Government Code.

(c) No new coastal development permit or amendment to any existing permit for a sewer project shall be denied, restricted, or conditioned by the commission in order to implement housing policies or programs.

(d) Nothing in this section authorizes or requires the modification of or amendment to any terms or conditions of any previously issued coastal development permit which guarantees housing opportunities for persons and families of low or moderate income where the term or condition has been met through an agreement executed and recorded on or before January 1, 1982, between an applicant and the commission. For previously approved or issued permits which involve new construction of less than 10 residential units, an executed and recorded agreement guaranteeing housing opportunities for persons or families of low or moderate income, which has not been implemented by the transfer of an interest in real property or payment of a fee to a public agency or nonprofit association for the purpose of providing these housing opportunities, shall be voided if the applicant records the notice provided by the executive director of the commission. Further, nothing in this section impairs the commission's authority to deny, restrict, or condition new permits or amendments to existing permits based on any requirement of this division.

(e) Nothing in this section authorizes or requires the modification of or amendment to any terms or conditions in Permit #P-80-419 issued by the commission with respect to the reservation or administration of sewer capacity for affordable housing in the San Mateo County local coastal program.

An act relating to the California Bicentennial Commission on the United States Constitution, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In commemorating the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution, the Legislature makes the following findings:

(a) Nearly 200 years ago, the people of the United States did ordain, establish, and eloquently manifest their ideals in the Constitution of the United States "... in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty ..." to themselves and their posterity.

(b) The United States Constitution has stood soundly through calamity and chaos, as well as through peace and prosperity, from the birth of our nation with just 13 states and 3,000,000 people to the present, with 50 states and over 230,000,000 people.

(c) Despite the fact that the United States Constitution is a remarkably concise document, and despite a civil war, two world wars, a great depression, and unprecedented industrial and technological change, the United States Constitution has been amended infrequently.

(d) The United States Constitution established the federal system of government, balancing power between the national and state levels, and the system of checks and balances embodied in the separation of powers among the executive, legislative, and judicial branches of government.

(e) The United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights demonstrate that it is possible to achieve strong and viable union without sacrifice of individual liberty.

(f) The United States Constitution has been the model for the governments of Australia, Canada, Mexico, New Zealand, Switzerland, West Germany, Yugoslavia, and 20 other nation states.

SEC. 2. (a) There is hereby created a five-member California Bicentennial Commission on the United States Constitution. The five members of the commission shall be appointed by March 1, 1985, by the authorities set forth in this subdivision.

(1) The Governor shall appoint three members.

(2) The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint one member from a nonprofit organization dedicated to citizenship education.

(3) The Senate Rules Committee shall appoint one member who shall possess extensive experience in teaching American history or political institutions.

(b) The Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Chairpersons of the Senate and Assembly Education Committees shall serve on the commission in ex officio capacity.

(c) Board members shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred in the performance of the duties of the commission.

SEC. 3. The basic object of the commission shall be to promote observances of the bicentennial of the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights in California. The observation shall begin with events leading to the first major bicentennial celebration, at the convening of the Constitutional Convention, and extend to include the bicentennial commemoration of the ratification of the Bill of Rights. To this end, the commission shall develop, propose, coordinate, administer, sponsor, and fund educational projects, events, competitions, and multimedia instructional materials on current and historical topics closely related to the United States Constitution. These topics shall include, but shall not be limited to, the formation of the Constitution, the protection of liberties, the separation of powers, the federal system of government, and the evolution of the American political system.

SEC. 4. (a) The commission shall submit a report to the Legislature on or before August 30, 1985. That report shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

An act to add Section 22225.9 to the Education Code, relating to public employee retirement, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22225.9 is added to the Education Code, to read:

22225.9. All members of the board and its officers and employees shall execute a fidelity bond, in an amount determined by the board to be prudent, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of the member or employee.

All members of the board and its officers and all staff of the investment division who are authorized to invest funds shall be covered with fiduciary liability insurance in an amount determined by the board to be prudent.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Current state law provides that the State Teachers' Retirement System (STRS) board members and officers must reimburse the Teachers' Retirement Fund for any losses resulting from a breach of their fiduciary duty. However, current law provides that the Department of General Services, which has no fiduciary liability obligation, can disapprove and delay the acquisition of the needed coverage. Fidelity bond and fiduciary liability insurance coverage would provide protection to STRS board members and officers, and to the system participants who would be provided greater security for their retirement benefits since losses to the plan are more likely to be restored. It is necessary, therefore, that this act take effect immediately.

An act to repeal and add Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 99150) to Part 65 of the Education Code, relating to education.

99152. Each test sponsor shall report the closing date of its testing year to the commission by February 1, 1985, or within 90 days after it first becomes a test sponsor, whichever is later. Each test sponsor shall report any change in the closing date of its testing year within 90 days after the change.

99153. On or before November 15 of each year, the test sponsor shall submit to the commission all of the following data and information:

The test sponsor shall also list expenses indirectly attributable to all activities of the test's sponsor, including expenses not identifiable as attributable to a test.

The financial disclosure required by this section shall be submitted within 135 days after the close of the testing year and in sufficient detail to indicate the major categories of revenues and expenses associated with the test. Except as provided in this section, the information for different tests administered by the same test sponsor shall be reported separately and by individual test.

(g) A copy of all documents, pamphlets, and literature provided to the test subject and the test score recipient.

(j) Using available data, the racial, ethnic, and sex breakdown of all test subjects taking each test during the testing year.

(k) If a separate fee is charged test subjects for admissions data assembly service, the test sponsor shall report information concerning the data assembly service in substantially the same form as would be required for a test under this section.

(l) This section shall not be construed to require any test agency to submit to the commission any reports or documents containing information relating to any individual test subject. Any information relating to any individual test subject shall be deleted or obliterated from any reports or documents filed with the commission pursuant to this section.

(m) This section shall not apply to any standardized test which is administered to fewer than 3,000 test subjects in California during a testing year.

(c) Data, reports, or other documents submitted pursuant to this chapter shall not contain information in a form identifiable with individuals or particular postsecondary educational institutions.

99155. The commission shall prepare and submit an annual report regarding standardized tests of the state's test subjects to the Governor, the Legislature, the Regents of the University of California, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, the Trustees of the California State University, the California Postsecondary Education Commission, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction on or before March 1 of each year. A copy of the appropriate description shall be provided to the test subject or the test score recipient prior to the administration of the test or coinciding with the initial reporting of a test score. The description shall include all of the following information:

The examination shall occur at a location to be mutually agreed upon by the test sponsor and test subject.

Unless authorized by the test sponsor, questions, answers, or copies of questions or answers shall not be removed from the facility, except by a representative of the test sponsor. During the examination of test materials, the test subject may file with a representative of the test sponsor, and with an educational institution or institutions seeking results of the test examined, a written protest to any question or answer.

(c) Except for test administrations described in subdivision (d), the test sponsor shall provide to test subjects the test materials specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) for not fewer than 50 percent of regular test administrations, as determined by the test sponsor. If the application of 50 percent results in a number which includes a fraction, the number shall be rounded to the nearest larger whole number.

(d) In order to accommodate test subjects who, because of religion, are unable to participate in regular test administrations, the test sponsor shall provide test materials specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) to test subjects of not fewer than one non-Saturday test administration during every 12-month period following December 1, 1984.

(e) Each test sponsor shall, prior to the administration of a test, give written notification to the test subjects of their right to request and receive test materials as provided in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), provided that the request has been made within 90 days of the release of the test score to the test subject.

This section does not apply to tests that have been administered for less than five years, the College Board Achievement tests, the Advanced Placement tests, the Medical College Admissions tests, or the test of English as a foreign language.

The notice shall indicate the reasons for delay, including, but not limited to, incorrect, incomplete, or inconsistent personal identifying information furnished by a test subject.

99159. (a) Whenever a test agency is presented with information which renders the test subject's test score suspect, whether that information is in the form of allegations of collusion or cheating, or irregular test administration, or irregular statistical data, or any other form, the test agency is responsible for reviewing the information and determining if withholding the test subject's score is warranted.

(b) If the test agency determines that withholding the test subject's score is warranted, the test agency shall give the test subject written notice of the test agency's decision. The notice shall be sent by registered mail not later than five working days after the test agency's decision.

(c) The notice to the test subject shall include all of the following:

(7) A statement informing the test subject that the opportunity to respond to the notice will be afforded for not more than 15 working days following the date the notice was delivered. No final decision on the question of suspected irregularity or inauthenticity shall be rendered by the test agency until the test subject under investigation has responded, or the time for doing so has expired, whichever occurs first.

(d) After the time period specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (c) has expired, the test agency shall review all of the evidence and shall render a decision regarding the authenticity of the score.

No test agency shall cancel or invalidate a test subject's test scores on the basis of an alleged irregularity or inauthenticity unless, after all evidence has been considered by the test agency, substantial evidence resulting from an investigation conducted pursuant to this section supports the cancellation or invalidation.

99160. (a) Whenever the test agency determines that substantial evidence exists to support cancellation or invalidation of a test score, the test agency shall provide the test subject with a choice of the following options:

(1) A cancellation of the test scores in question, with full refund of all test fees.

(2) Opportunity to take the test again privately and without charge.

(3) Opportunity to seek judicial review of the matter.

(b) The test subject shall have 30 days following receipt of the notice by registered mail to respond to the notice of inauthenticity.

(c) If the test subject responds to the notice of inauthenticity or irregularity of test scores sent by the test agency within the time period specified by subdivision (b), the test agency shall review the contents of the response and comply with one of the following:

(1) If the test subject requests cancellation of the test scores, a full refund of all test fees will be provided within a reasonable period.

(2) If the test subject requests an opportunity to take the test again privately and without charge, the test agency shall make appropriate accommodations that are mutually agreed upon by the test agency and test subject so that the test subject has sufficient time to prepare for the retest. The retest shall be given in a reasonable and timely manner.

(3) Nothing in this section precludes the parties from seeking resolution of the testing problems by either judicial review or arbitration.

(d) The test agency shall not release confidential information to any authorized test score recipients regarding a test subject under pending investigation, unless authorized to do so by the test subject.

(e) The test agency shall immediately release the test score to the test subject and the test score recipients where no substantial evidence exists to render the inauthenticity or irreguarity of the test score.

(f) The procedures prescribed in Section 99159 and this section do not apply to instances where the cancellation of all test scores results from the complete disruption of the administration of the test, such as by natural disasters, national emergencies, inadequate or improper test conditions, answer sheet printing errors, or testing agency errors.

(g) Time procedures described in Section 99159 and this section shall not apply in those instances where test scores have already been reported to test score recipients.

99161. (a) No test agency shall release or disclose any test score identifiable with any individual test subject, in any form whatsoever, to any test score recipient, unless the agency is specifically authorized by the test subject to release that test score to the recipient. A test agency may, however, release all scores received by a test subject on a test to anyone designated by the test subject to receive the test score.

(b) A test agency may release test scores and other information in a form which does not identify any individual test subject for purposes of research, studies, and reports primarily concerning the test itself.

99162. Any information or report required to be submitted to the commission pursuant to this chapter shall be public record subject to disclosure under the provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to diminish or authorize the infringement of any rights protected by law relating to copyright, to the protection of trade secrets, or other proprietary rights.

99163. Any test sponsor who intentionally violates any provision of this chapter shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) for each violation.

An act relating to community colleges, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the community colleges are a large and important segment of California's system of public higher education. In the last 20 years, community colleges have not only experienced tremendous growth in the numbers of students enrolled, but have undergone a major transition in the types of students served and the types of programs and courses offered. Community colleges have also experienced an unacceptable degree of uncertainty and instability in their revenues over the last decade.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that legislative actions regarding community colleges have not been based on a comprehensive policy on the role that community colleges should play in public education. Community colleges have been reacting and responding to narrow changes in state policy that have shaped the functions of the colleges by default, rather than by design.

(c) It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to require the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education established pursuant to Senate Bill 1570 of the 1983–84 Regular Session to set the reassessment of the mission of the community colleges as its first and highest priority.

SEC. 2. The study described in this act shall be conducted as follows:

(a) The study shall be an assessment of the mission of the community colleges. The assessment shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) A comparison of the statutory directives regarding the programs and activities required to be offered by community colleges, and the programs and activities actually offered by community colleges.

(2) An assessment of, and recommendations regarding, the appropriateness of all of the following programs, courses, and activities to the mission of the community colleges, particularly with respect to the functions of other state educational institutions, and the priorities which should be given to all of the following programs, courses, and activities:

(A) Transfer programs.

(B) Vocational programs.

(C) Programs leading to associate degrees.

(D) Certificate programs leading to employment.

(E) General education courses.

(F) Remedial and basic skills courses.

(G) Noncredit courses.

(H) Fee-supported community services courses.

(I) Student services, including, but not limited to, counseling, testing, job placement, and financial aid.

(J) Other programs, courses, and activities currently offered by community colleges.

(3) An assessment of the current socioeconomic composition of community college students, and recommendations for methods to ensure that all California residents will have access to community college programs and services.

(4) Policy recommendations designed to ensure that the academic quality of community college programs and courses will be maintained and enhanced.

(5) Other policy recommendations regarding the mission of the community colleges or community college operations the commission deems appropriate.

(b) On or before December 31, 1985, the commission shall submit the findings and recommendations developed pursuant to subdivision (a) to the Joint Committee for the Review of the Master Plan for Postsecondary Education.

SEC. 3. The reassessment study, as specified in Section 2 of this act, shall be directed by the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education.

SEC. 4. Upon completion of the reassessment study authorized by this act, all of the documents and working papers of the commission shall become the property of, and be maintained by, the State Archives.

SEC. 5. This bill shall not take effect unless Assembly Concurrent Resolution 162 and Senate Bill 1570, both of the 1983–84 Regular Session, are also chaptered.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the reassessment study required by this act may be completed as expeditiously as possible so that the important problems facing community colleges may be addressed, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to add and repeal Section 66903.7 of the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

(2) Basic and lower division instruction at the various postsecondary institutions, with an initial emphasis on the mission and function of the California Community Colleges, as specified in Senate Bill 2064 of the 1983–84 Regular Session.

(3) Strategies to promote an increase in the access and success of students, particularly those underrepresented in postsecondary education, including adult education through graduate instruction, in the following areas:

(5) Analysis of direct and indirect expenditures for students attending California postsecondary institutions, including student financial assistance and instructional support, as to the efficient use of state resources.

The commission shall conduct public hearings designed to solicit testimony of private citizens, public interest groups, alumni organizations, or any other interested private groups and organizations, as well as professors, administrators, students, and others who are directly affected by that master plan, for the purpose of soliciting the input of these groups in the formulation of the commission's recommendations regarding the master plan.

The commission shall formulate and submit recommendations regarding the policies and content of the master plan, in addition to recommendations regarding the goals, programs, functions, funding, and interrelationships of the Master Plan for Higher Education.

(c) The commission shall develop and submit a management plan identifying the commission's specific objectives and output for review by the Joint Legislative Committee for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education by March 1, 1985. The management plan shall also include resource and staffing requirements and specific dates for the completion of interim and final reports to the Joint Committee.

(d) Not later than January 1, 1987, the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education shall submit a report to the Legislature and the Governor relative to its findings and recommendations regarding the master plan and the functions and interrelationships of public postsecondary education institutions.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that any agency receiving public funds for postsecondary education shall, upon request by the commission, provide all necessary information or assistance required by the commission.

(f) This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1987, and, as of January 1, 1988, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1988, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 1 of this act shall not become operative unless both Assembly Concurrent Resolution 162 and Senate Bill 2064 of the 1983–84 Regular Session are chaptered, and in that case Section 1 of this act shall become operative upon the later of the effective dates of this bill, Assembly Concurrent Resolution 162, or Senate Bill 2064.

SEC. 3. The sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Controller for allocation to the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education for all expenses deemed necessary by the commission without regard to fiscal years.

SEC. 4. Upon completion of the study authorized by this act, all of the documents and working papers of the commission shall become the property of the State Archives.

In order that the reassessment study of the Master Plan for Higher Education required by this act may be completed at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

County of Ventura, 24 Cal. 3d 605. In adopting the regulations, the board shall take account of the extent of the administrative burden involved in giving the notice. The method of notice shall include, but not be limited to, mailed notice. The regulations may require the person submitting the timber harvesting plan to provide to the department a list of the names and addresses of persons to whom the notice was mailed and a written declaration that the mailing has been completed.

Article 5. Health Sciences Program Review

(3) The current and projected pattern of health manpower training in relationship to future supply and demand projections.

(4) The distribution of University of California medical school graduates with regard to placement in areas, and service to populations, underserved by the medical profession.

SEC. 7. The State Department of Health Services and the negotiator shall adopt any regulations necessary to implement this act. These regulations shall be adopted as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, for the purposes of the Administrative Procedure Act, shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare and shall not be subject to the review, approval, modification or repeal by the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to any provision of Chapter 3.5.

An act to add Article 4 (commencing with Section 14060) to Chapter 1 of Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and to add Sections 6018.8 and 6368.7 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to transportation, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 4 (commencing with Section 14060) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 4. Purchase, Sale, and Leasing of Passenger Transportation Vehicles

14060. The following definitions apply to this article:

(a) "Equipment" means rail passenger cars, locomotives, other rail vehicles, bus and van fleets, and ferryboats.

(b) "Equipment obligations" means notes, equipment trust certificates, or other obligations, including grant anticipation notes, issued by the department pursuant to this article to finance the acquisition of equipment.

(c) "Grant anticipation notes" means notes issued by the department in anticipation of the receipt of funds from the federal or a local government as the proceeds of grants or participation funding for which funds have been appropriated and committed to the department for equipment acquisition.

14061. The department may take all action necessary to purchase, sell, or lease equipment by negotiation without competitive bidding to take advantage of Section 168 of Title 26 of the United States Code in connection with the sale and leasing of equipment.

As required, the department may negotiate indemnification with the equipment depreciation purchasers as required by market conditions. Neither the sale nor the lease of equipment pursuant to this section constitutes a sale or purchase for the purposes of the Sales and Use Tax Law (Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code).

Contracts for the services of financial agents, negotiators, bond counsel, and for the sales or purchases of these obligations or benefits are not subject to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 14780) of Part 5.5.

14062. (a) The department may issue equipment obligations to finance the acquisition of equipment pursuant to a resolution adopted by the commission, authorizing the issuance thereof from time to time as provided in the resolution.

(b) A resolution authorizing the issuance of equipment obligations shall specify any provisions or conditions as to the form, execution, and terms of the obligations that the commission may deem appropriate, subject to this article.

(c) Equipment obligations shall be payable at any time or times that the commission may determine, but not later than five years after the date of their issuance. Equipment obligations shall bear interest at any rate or rates that the commission may determine, but not exceeding 12 percent per annum, payable at any times that the commission may specify in the resolution authorizing their issuance.

(d) Equipment obligations may be made subject to redemption prior to their maturity, at the option of the commission, at any price or prices that may be fixed in the resolution, not exceeding a premium of 5 percent of the par value of any obligation subject to redemption.

14063. (a) Grant anticipation notes shall be issued only in anticipation of a grant or funding commitment to the department which has been stated by the granting authority or agency to be contracted, committed, or appropriated and payable on a specified date or dates or upon the happening of a specified event or events. The amount of grant anticipation notes outstanding at any time shall not exceed 75 percent of the grant or funding.

(b) The proceeds of the grant shall be pledged to the payment of the grant anticipation notes, and the interest thereon. The notes, and the interest thereon, shall be a first lien upon the proceeds.

(c) Grant anticipation notes and the interest thereon shall be payable from the proceeds of the grant or funding in anticipation of which the notes are issued, from the Passenger Equipment Acquisition Fund, or from any other funds lawfully available therefor.

14064. (a) Equipment obligations shall be sold by the Treasurer, after a resolution requesting the sale has been adopted by the commission. Equipment obligations may be sold by public bid or by a private negotiated sale. The Treasurer may sell equipment obligations at a discount not to exceed 5 percent of the par value thereof.

(b) Equipment obligations, and the interest thereon, are exempt from taxation in this state, except for gift taxes.

14066. (a) The Passenger Equipment Acquisition Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340, all moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to the department to pay the principal of, interest on, and redemption premium, if any, on equipment obligations, to pay all costs of issuance and sale of equipment obligations, and to pay for equipment.

(b) The net proceeds derived from the sale and leaseback of equipment made pursuant to this article shall be deposited in the fund.

SEC. 2. Section 6018.8 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

The Department of Transportation is a consumer of, and shall not be considered a retailer within the provisions of this part with respect to, passenger transportation vehicles, including, but not limited to, rail passenger cars, locomotives, other rail vehicles, bus and van fleets, and ferryboats, which it sells to and leases back from any person pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 14060) of Chapter 1 of Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. Section 6368.7 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6368.7. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part,

the gross receipts from the sale and the storage, use, or other consumption of passenger transportation vehicles, including, but not limited to, rail passenger cars, locomotives, other rail vehicles, bus and van fleets, and ferryboats, sold or leased to the Department of Transportation by a person who received title to the property from the Department of Transportation pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 14060) of Chapter 1 of Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting Article 4 (commencing with Section 14060) of Chapter 1 of Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, that the Department of Transportation first undertake a purchase and leaseback of rail passenger cars and locomotives to be used on the San Francisco peninsula commute line to determine the feasibility of this funding by a state agency. It is also the intent of the Legislature that all of the net proceeds derived from the sale and leaseback be used to provide for the acquisition and financing of rail passenger cars and locomotives. Other rail vehicles, bus and van fleets, or ferryboats may also be acquired and financed pursuant to that article.

SEC. 6. The amount necessary to implement Article 4 (commencing with Section 14060) of Chapter 1 of Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code is hereby appropriated to the Department of Transportation from the Transportation Planning and Development Account in the State Transportation Fund, with reimbursement to the account to be made from the Passenger Equipment Acquisition Fund upon the deposit of proceeds therein from the sale of equipment obligations and the sale and leaseback of rail passenger cars and locomotives.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that this act, which would provide the necessary statutory authority to take advantage of the safe harbor leasing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code relating to mass commuting vehicles, be operative prior to the termination dates of these provisions, and in time for the state to benefit from those provisions in acquiring critically needed mass transit vehicles, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to add Section 6010.11 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6010.11 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6010.11. "Sale" and "purchase," for the purpose of this part, do not include any transfer of a qualified mass commuting vehicle pursuant to a safe harbor lease arrangement described in Section 168(f)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by Section 208 of Public Law 97-248, Section 5 of Public Law 97-354, and Section 102 of Public Law 97-448, or pursuant to a sale-leaseback or lease-leaseback arrangement which includes a safe harbor lease arrangement. For purposes of this section, "qualified mass commuting vehicle" means a qualified mass commuting vehicle as defined in Section 103(b)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

SEC. 2. Section 1 of this act shall apply only to those transfers of a qualified mass commuting vehicle which occur within a county in which the board of supervisors of that county adopts a resolution that waives the county's claims for state reimbursement of sales and use tax revenues lost by it as a result of Section 1 of this act.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature that Section 1 of this act provide qualified mass commuting vehicle operators with the maximum revenue benefits available under federal income tax provisions relating to safe harbor lease arrangements, consistent with the state's interest in minimizing its reimbursement of those operators for expenses incurred as the result of certain safety orders already mandated by the state. Therefore, Section 1 of this act shall be applicable only to a transfer of a qualified mass commuting vehicle in which the board of directors of the operator engaged in the transfer adopts a resolution that waives all past and future claims for state reimbursement which are related to Public Utilities Commission Decisions 90144 and 91091.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter after the effective date of this act.

An act to add Section 17052.2 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17052.2 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17052.2. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039), an amount equal to the amount determined in paragraph (2).

(2) The amount of the credit allowed by this section shall be 20 percent of the cost incurred by the taxpayer of any pollution abatement equipment on premises in California which are owned by the taxpayer at the time of installation and which is installed as a result of the requirements of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act of 1972. The amount of costs to which the credit may be applied shall not exceed eighty thousand dollars ($80,000). The owner of the premises on which the pollution abatement equipment is installed may claim the tax credit for costs incurred. In order to qualify for the tax credit the taxpayer must be a metal finisher who has employed 100 or less employees and has not been a subsidiary, division, or affiliate of an entity engaged in other unrelated operations during the taxable year.

This credit shall be claimed in four equal annual installments commencing with the taxable year in which the pollution abatement equipment was installed and for three succeeding taxable years.

(3) The credit provided under this section shall be reduced by any grant provided by a public entity for such equipment.

(b) The credit shall be in lieu of any deduction under this part to which the taxpayer otherwise may be entitled, if any.

(c) The basis of any pollution abatement equipment for which a credit is allowed shall either be reduced to its salvage value at the end of its useful life, or reduced by the amount of the credit, whichever results in the lesser basis. The basis adjustment shall be made for the taxable year in which the equipment was installed.

(d) With the exception of a husband and wife, if there is more than one owner of a premises on which pollution abatement equipment is installed, each owner shall be eligible to receive the tax credit in proportion to his or her ownership interests in the premises. In the case of a husband or wife who files a separate return, the credit may be taken by either or equally divided between them.

An act to amend Sections 21002.1, 21104, and 21153 of, and to add Sections 21001.1, 21005, 21081.5, 21082.2, 21092.1, 21094, 21166.1, 21167.6, 21167.8, and 21177 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to environmental control.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21001.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21001.1. The Legislature further finds and declares that it is the policy of the state that projects to be carried out by public agencies be subject to the same level of review and consideration under this division as that of private projects required to be approved by public agencies.

SEC. 2. Section 21002.1 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21002.1. In order to achieve the objectives set forth in Section 21002, the Legislature finds and declares that the following policy shall apply to the use of environmental impact reports prepared pursuant to this division:

(a) The purpose of an environmental impact report is to identify the significant effects of a project on the environment, to identify alternatives to the project, and to indicate the manner in which those significant effects can be mitigated or avoided.

(b) Each public agency shall mitigate or avoid the significant effects on the environment of projects it approves or carries out whenever it is feasible to do so.

(c) In the event that economic, social, or other conditions make it infeasible to mitigate one or more significant effects of a project on the environment, the project may nonetheless be approved or carried out at the discretion of a public agency, provided that the project is otherwise permissible under applicable laws and regulations.

(d) In applying the policies of subdivisions (b) and (c) to individual projects, the responsibility of a public agency which is functioning as a lead agency shall differ from that of a public agency which is functioning as a responsible agency. A public agency functioning as a lead agency shall have responsibility for considering the effects, both individual and collective, of all activities involved in a project. A public agency functioning as a responsible agency shall have responsibility for considering only the effects of those activities involved in a project, which it is required by law to carry out or approve. This subdivision applies only to decisions by a public agency to carry out or approve a project and does not otherwise affect the scope of the comments the agency may wish to make pursuant to Section 21104 or 21153.

SEC. 3. Section 21005 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21005. The Legislature finds and declares that it is the policy of the state that noncompliance with the information disclosure provisions of this division which precludes relevant information from being presented to the public agency or with substantive requirements of this division may constitute a prejudicial abuse of discretion within the meaning of Sections 21168 and 21168.5, regardless of whether a different outcome would have resulted if the public agency had complied with those provisions.

The Legislature further finds and declares that in undertaking judicial review pursuant to Sections 21168 and 21168.5, courts shall continue to follow the established principle that there is no presumption that error is prejudicial.

SEC. 5. Section 21081.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21081.5. In making the findings required by subdivision (c) of Section 21081, the public agency shall base its findings on substantial evidence in the record.

SEC. 6. Section 21082.2 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21082.2. (a) The lead agency shall determine whether a project may have a significant effect on the environment based on substantial evidence in the record. The existence of public controversy over the environmental effects of a project shall not require preparation of an environmental impact report if there is no substantial evidence before the agency that the project may have a significant effect on the environment.

(b) Statements in an environmental impact report and comments with respect to an environmental impact report shall not be deemed determinative of whether the project may have a significant effect on the environment.

SEC. 7. Section 21092.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21092.1. When significant new information is added to an environmental impact report after notice has been given pursuant to Section 21092 and consultation has occurred pursuant to Sections 21104 and 21153, but prior to certification, the public agency shall give notice again pursuant to Section 21092, and consult again pursuant to Sections 21104 and 21153 before certifying the environmental impact report.

SEC. 8. Section 21094 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21094. (a) Where a prior environmental impact report has been prepared for a program, plan, policy, or ordinance, the lead agency for a later project that meets the requirements of this section may examine significant effects of the later project upon the environment by using a tiered environmental impact report, except that the report need not examine those effects which the lead agency determines were either (1) mitigated or avoided pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 21081 as a result of the prior environmental impact report, or (2) examined at a sufficient level of detail in the prior environmental impact report to enable those effects to be mitigated or avoided by site specific revisions, the imposition of conditions, or by other means in connection with the approval of the later project.

(b) This section applies only to a later project which the lead agency finds (1) is consistent with the previously approved program, plan, policy, or ordinance, (2) is consistent with any applicable local land use plan and zoning of the city and county in which the later project would be located, and (3) is not subject to Section 21166.

(c) For purposes of compliance with this section, an initial study shall be prepared to assist the agency in making the determinations and findings required by this section. The initial study shall analyze whether the later project may cause significant effects on the environment that were not examined in the prior environmental impact report.

(d) All public agencies which propose to carry out or approve the later project may utilize the prior environmental impact report and the environmental impact report on the later project to fulfill the requirements of Section 21081.

(e) When tiering is used pursuant to this section, an environmental impact report prepared for a later project shall refer to the prior environmental impact report and state where a copy of the prior environmental impact report may be examined.

SEC. 9. Section 21104 of the Public Resources Code is amended

21104. Prior to completing an environmental impact report, the state lead agency shall consult with, and obtain comments from, each responsible agency and any public agency which has jurisdiction by law with respect to the project, and may consult with any person who has special expertise with respect to any environmental impact involved.

The state lead agency shall consult with, and obtain comments from, the State Air Resources Board in preparing an environmental impact report on a highway or freeway project, as to the air pollution impact of the potential vehicular use of the highway or freeway.

A responsible agency or other public agency shall only make substantive comments regarding those activities involved in a project which are within an area of expertise of the agency or which are required to be carried out or approved by the agency. Those comments shall be supported by specific documentation.

SEC. 9.5. Section 21104 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21104. Prior to completing an environmental impact report, the state lead agency shall consult with, and obtain comments from, each responsible agency and any public agency which has jurisdiction by law with respect to the project, and may consult with any person who has special expertise with respect to any environmental impact involved. In the case of a project described in subdivision (c) of Section 21065, the state lead agency shall, upon the request of the applicant, provide for early consultation to identify the range of actions, alternatives, mitigation measures, and significant effects to be analyzed in depth in the environmental impact report. The state lead agency may consult with persons identified by the applicant which the applicant believes will be concerned with the environmental effects of the project and may consult with members of the public who have made a written request to be consulted on the project. A request by the applicant for early consultation shall be made not later than 30 days after the determination required by Section 21080.1 with respect to the project.

The state lead agency shall consult with, and obtain comments from, the State Air Resources Board in preparing an environmental impact report on a highway or freeway project, as to the air pollution impact of the potential vehicular use of the highway or freeway.

A responsible agency or other public agency shall only make substantive comments regarding those activities involved in a project which are within an area of expertise of the agency or which are required to be carried out or approved by the agency. Those comments shall be supported by specific documentation.

SEC. 10. Section 21153 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21153. Prior to completing an environmental impact report, every local lead agency shall consult with, and obtain comments from, each responsible agency and any public agency which has jurisdiction by law with respect to the project, and may consult with any person who has special expertise with respect to any environmental impact involved.

A responsible agency or other public agency shall only make substantive comments regarding those activities involved in a project which are within an area of expertise of the agency or which are required to be carried out or approved by the agency. Those comments shall be supported by specific documentation.

SEC. 10.5. Section 21153 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21153. Prior to completing an environmental impact report, every local lead agency shall consult with, and obtain comments from, each responsible agency and any public agency which has jurisdiction by law with respect to the project, and may consult with any person who has special expertise with respect to any environmental impact involved. In the case of a project described in subdivision (c) of Section 21065, the local lead agency shall, upon the request of the applicant, provide for early consultation to identify the range of actions, alternatives, mitigation measures, and significant effects to be analyzed in depth in the environmental impact report. The local lead agency may consult with persons identified by the applicant which the applicant believes will be concerned with the environmental effects of the project and may consult with members of the public who have made written request to be consulted on the project. A request by the applicant for early consultation shall be made not later than 30 days after the determination required by Section 21080.1 with respect to the project. The local lead agency may charge and collect from the applicant a fee not to exceed the actual costs of the consultations.

A responsible agency or other public agency shall only make substantive comments regarding those activities involved in a project which are within an area of expertise of the agency or which are required to be carried out or approved by the agency. Those comments shall be supported by specific documentation.

SEC. 11. Section 21166.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21166.1. The decision of a lead agency to prepare an environmental impact report with respect to environmental impacts within a geographic area or for a group of projects shall not be a basis for determining that an environmental document prepared for an individual project within that area or group is inadequate.

SEC. 12. Section 21167.6 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21167.6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in all actions brought pursuant to Section 21167, except those involving the Public Utilities Commission:

(a) At the time the action is filed, the petitioner shall file a request that the respondent public agency prepare the record of proceedings relating to the subject of the action. The request, together with the petition, shall be served upon the public agency not later than 10 business days after the action is filed.

(b) The public agency shall prepare and certify the record of proceedings not later than 60 days after the request specified in subdivision (a) is served upon the public agency. The parties shall pay any costs or fees imposed for the preparation of the record of proceedings in conformance with any law or rule of court. The petitioner may elect to prepare the record of proceedings or the parties may agree to an alternative method of preparation of the record of proceedings, subject to certification of its accuracy by the public agency, within the time limit specified in this subdivision.

(c) The time limit established by subdivision (b) may be extended only upon stipulation of all parties who have been properly served in the action or upon order of the court. Extensions shall be liberally granted by the court when the size of the record of proceedings renders infeasible compliance with the time limit specified in subdivision (b). There is no limit on the number of extensions which may be granted by the court, but no single extension shall exceed 60 days unless the court determines that a longer extension is in the public interest.

(d) The clerk of the superior court shall prepare and certify the clerk's transcript on appeal not later than 60 days after the notice designating the papers or records to be included in the clerk's transcript is filed with the superior court, provided that the party or parties pay any costs or fees for preparation of the clerk's transcript imposed in conformance with any law or rules of court. Nothing contained in this subdivision shall preclude election to proceed pursuant to Rule 5.1 of the California Rules of Court.

(e) Extensions of the period for the filing of any brief on appeal may be allowed only by stipulation of the parties or by order of the court for good cause shown. Extensions shall be limited to one 30-day extension for the preparation of an opening brief, and one 30-day extension for the preparation of a responding brief, except that the court may grant a longer extension or additional extensions if it determines that there is a substantial likelihood of settlement that would avoid the necessity of completing the appeal.

(f) At the completion of the filing of briefs, the appellant shall notify the court of completion of the filing of briefs, whereupon the clerk of the reviewing court shall set the appeal for hearing on the first available calendar date.

SEC. 13. Section 21167.8 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21167.8. (a) Not later than 20 days after service upon a public agency of a petition or complaint brought to pursuant to Section 21167, the public agency shall file with the court a notice setting forth the time and place at which all parties shall meet and attempt to settle the litigation. The meeting shall be scheduled and held not later than 45 days after the date of service of the petition or complaint upon the public agency. The notice of the settlement meeting shall be served by mail upon the counsel for each party. If the public agency does not know the identity of counsel for any party, the notice shall be served by mail upon the party for whom counsel is not known.

(b) The petitioner or plaintiff shall serve by mail on all parties a presettlement statement not less than five days in advance of the meeting. The statement shall include, but not be limited to, both of the following:

(1) A concise description of the case, including a brief procedural history, and all the facts material to consideration of the issues presented by the litigation.

(2) The anticipated issues to be raised in the litigation. Counsel shall confer with their clients in advance regarding settlement and shall be prepared to negotiate a settlement whenever reasonably possible.

(c) At the time and place specified in the notice filed with the court, the parties shall meet and attempt in good faith to settle the litigation and the dispute which forms the basis of the litigation. The settlement meeting discussions shall be comprehensive in nature and shall focus on the legal issues raised by the parties concerning the project that is the subject of the litigation.

(d) The settlement meeting may be continued from time to time without postponing or otherwise delaying other applicable time limits in the litigation. The settlement meeting is intended to be conducted concurrently with any judicial proceedings.

(e) After the settlement procedure is completed, the parties shall jointly prepare, sign, and file with the court a settlement statement including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(1) The legal and factual contentions raised by each party.

(2) The contentions that were settled or otherwise agreed upon and the nature of that agreement.

(3) The efforts made by each party to settle the unresolved issues.

(4) The list of participants in the settlement proceedings.

(f) If the litigation is not settled, the court, in its discretion, may, or at the request of any party shall, schedule a further settlement conference before a judge of the superior court. If the petition or complaint is later heard on its merits, the judge hearing the matter shall not be the same judge conducting the settlement conference, except in counties with only one judge of the superior court.

(g) Failure of any party who was notified pursuant to subdivision (a) to participate in the process described in this section, without good cause, may result in an imposition of sanctions by the court. The failure of the petitioner or plaintiff to participate in the process described in this section, without good cause, shall result in dismissal with prejudice of the action.

SEC. 14. Section 21177 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21177. (a) No action may be brought pursuant to Section 21167 unless the alleged grounds for noncompliance with this division were presented to the public agency orally or in writing by any person.

(b) No person shall maintain an action or proceeding unless that person objected to the approval of the project orally or in writing.

(c) This section does not preclude any organization formed after the approval of a project from maintaining an action pursuant to Section 21167 if a member of that organization has complied with subdivision (b).

(d) This section does not apply to the Attorney General.

(e) This section does not apply when there was no public hearing or other opportunity for members of the public to raise objections prior to the approval of the project or when the public agency failed to give the notice required by law.

SEC. 14.5. It is the intent of the Legislature in adding Section 21177 to the Public Resources Code in Section 14 of this act to codify the exhaustion of administrative remedies doctrine. It is not the intent to limit or modify any exception to the doctrine of administrative remedies contained in case law.

SEC. 15. Section 9.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 21104 of the Public Resources Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2411. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1985, (2) each bill amends Section 21104 of the Public Resources Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2411, in which case Section 9 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 16. Section 10.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 21153 of the Public Resources Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2411. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1985, (2) each bill amends Section 21153 of the Public Resources Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2411, in which case Section 10 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 17. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 18. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

SEC. 2. Section 54790.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

54790.5. The commission shall not impose a condition for the provision of services by the annexing city to an area which has not been placed within that city's adopted sphere of influence as defined in Section 54774, unless that condition would mitigate effects which are a direct result of the annexation.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6254 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6254. Except as provided in Section 6254.7, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require disclosure of records that are any of the following:

(a) Preliminary drafts, notes, or interagency or intraagency memoranda which are not retained by the public agency in the ordinary course of business, provided that the public interest in withholding those records clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure.

(b) Records pertaining to pending litigation to which the public agency is a party, or to claims made pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code, until the pending litigation or claim has been finally adjudicated or otherwise settled.

(d) Contained in or related to:

(4) Information received in confidence by any state agency referred to in subdivision (1).

(e) Geological and geophysical data, plant production data, and similar information relating to utility systems development, or market or crop reports, which are obtained in confidence from any person.

(f) Records of complaints to, or investigations conducted by, or records of intelligence information or security procedures of, the office of the Attorney General and the Department of Justice, and any state or local police agency, or any such investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local police agency, or any such investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local agency for correctional, law enforcement, or licensing purposes, except that state and local law enforcement agencies shall disclose the names and addresses of persons involved in, or witnesses other than confidential informants to, the incident, the description of any property involved, the date, time, and location of the incident, all diagrams, statements of the parties involved in the incident, the statements of all witnesses, other than confidential informants, to the victims of an incident, or an authorized representative thereof, an insurance carrier against which a claim has been or might be made, and any person suffering bodily injury or property damage or loss, as the result of the incident caused by arson, burglary, fire, explosion, larceny, robbery, vandalism, vehicle theft, or a crime of violence as defined by subdivision (b) of Section 13960, unless the disclosure would endanger the safety of a witness or other person involved in the investigation, or unless disclosure would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation; provided, however, that nothing in this division shall require the disclosure of that portion of those investigative files which reflect the analysis or conclusions of the investigating officer.

Other provisions of this subdivision notwithstanding, state and local law enforcement agencies shall make public the following information, except to the extent that disclosure of a particular item of information would endanger the safety of a person involved in an investigation or would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation:

(2) The time, substance, and location of all complaints or requests for assistance received by the agency and the time and nature of the response thereto, including, to the extent the information regarding crimes alleged or committed or any other incident investigated is recorded, the time, date and location of occurrence, the time and date of the report, the name, age and current address of the victim, except that the address of the victim of any crime defined by Section 261, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 286, 288, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code shall not be disclosed, the factual circumstances surrounding the crime or incident, and a general description of any injuries, property, or

(i) Information required from any taxpayer in connection with the collection of local taxes which is received in confidence and the disclosure of the information to other persons would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the person supplying the information.

(j) Library circulation records kept for the purpose of identifying the borrower of items available in libraries, and library and museum materials made or acquired and presented solely for reference or exhibition purposes. The exemption in this subdivision shall not apply to records of fines imposed on the borrowers.

(l) Correspondence of and to the Governor or employees of the Governor's office or in the custody of or maintained by the Governor's legal affairs secretary, provided that public records shall not be transferred to the custody of the Governor's legal affairs secretary to evade the disclosure provisions of this chapter.

(m) In the custody of or maintained by the Legislative Counsel.

(n) Statements of personal worth or personal financial data required by a licensing agency and filed by an applicant with the licensing agency to establish his or her personal qualification for the license, certificate, or permit applied for.

(o) Financial data contained in applications for financing under Division 27 (commencing with Section 44500) of the Health and Safety Code, where an authorized officer of the California Pollution Control Financing Authority determines that disclosure of the financial data would be competitively injurious to the applicant and the data is required in order to obtain guarantees from the United States Small Business Administration. The California Pollution Control Financing Authority shall adopt rules for review of individual requests for confidentiality under this section and for making available to the public those portions of an application which are subject to disclosure under this chapter.

(p) Records of state agencies related to activities governed by Chapter 10.3 (commencing with Section 3512) of Division 4 of Title 1, Chapter 10.5 (commencing with Section 3525) of Division 4 of Title 1, and Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division

4 of Title 1, which reveal a state agency's deliberative processes, impressions, evaluations, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work products, theories, or strategy, or which provide instruction, advice, or training to employees who do not have full collective bargaining and representation rights under the above chapters. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the disclosure duties of a state agency with respect to any other records relating to the activities governed by the employee relations acts referred to in this subdivision.

(q) Records of state agencies related to activities governed by Articles 2.6 (commencing with Section 14081), 2.8 (commencing with Section 14087.5), and 2.91 (commencing with Section 14089) of Chapter 7 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which reveal the special negotiator's deliberative processes, discussions, communications, or any other portion of the negotiations with providers of health care services, impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories, or strategy, or which provide instruction, advice, or training to employees.

Contracts for inpatient services entered into pursuant to these articles, on or after April 1, 1984, shall be open to inspection one year after they are fully executed. In the event that a contract for inpatient services which is entered into prior to April 1, 1984, is amended on or after April 1, 1984, the amendment shall be open to inspection one year after it is fully executed. Nothing in this section is to be construed as preventing any agency from opening its records concerning the administration of the agency to public inspection, unless disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law.

Nothing in this section is to be construed as preventing any health facility from disclosing to a certified bargaining agent relevant financing information pursuant to Section 8 of the National Labor Relations Act.

SEC. 2. Section 1250.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250.8. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 437.10, the state department, upon application of a general acute care hospital which meets all the criteria of subdivision (b), and other applicable requirements of licensure, shall issue a single consolidated license to a general acute care hospital which includes more than one physical plant maintained and operated on separate premises or which has multiple licenses for a single health facility on the same premises. A single consolidated license shall not be issued where the separate physical plant is a skilled nursing facility or an intermediate care facility located on premises which are not adjacent to the general acute care hospital unless the hospital is exempt from the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 1254.

(b) The issuance of a single consolidated license shall be based on the following criteria:

(1) There is a single governing body for all of the facilities maintained and operated by the licensee.

(2) There is a single administration for all of the facilities maintained and operated by the licensee.

(3) There is a single medical staff for all of the facilities maintained and operated by the licensee, with a single set of bylaws, rules, and regulations, which prescribe a single committee structure.

(4) The physical plants maintained and operated by the licensee which are to be covered by the single consolidated license are located not more than 15 miles apart. However, the director may issue a single consolidated license to a general acute care hospital which maintains and operates two or more physical plants which are located beyond 15 miles if all of the following exist:

(A) One or more physical plants are located in a rural area, as defined by regulations of the director.

(B) The director finds, after consultation with the Director of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, that the issuance of the single consolidated license for the general acute care hospital would not significantly impair the operation of Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437) of Division 1.

(C) The director finds that the licensee can comply with the requirements of licensure and maintain the provision of quality care, and adequate administrative and professional supervision.

(5) If the proposed consolidation includes a skilled nursing facility or an intermediate care facility located on premises which are not adjacent to the general acute care hospital, there is a shortage of skilled nursing or intermediate care beds in the service area served by the hospital as demonstrated in the latest Statewide Health Facilities and Services Plan.

(6) If the proposed consolidation includes a skilled nursing facility or an intermediate care facility located on premises which are not adjacent to the general acute care hospital, the state department has developed adequate utilization controls to assure that patients needing only freestanding skilled nursing or intermediate care are not inappropriately placed in a hospital based skilled nursing or intermediate care bed.

(c) In issuing the single consolidated license, the state department shall specify the location of each supplemental service and the location of the number and category of beds provided by the licensee.

(d) To the extent required by Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437) of Division 1, a general acute care hospital which has been issued a single consolidated license:

(1) Shall not transfer from one facility to another a special service described in Section 1255 without first obtaining a certificate of need.

(2) Shall not transfer, in whole or in part, from one facility to another, a supplemental service, as defined in regulations of the director pursuant to this chapter, without first obtaining a certificate of need, unless the licensee, 30 days prior to the relocation, notifies the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, the applicable health systems agency, and the state department of the licensee's intent to relocate the supplemental service, and includes with this notice a cost estimate, certified by a person qualified by experience or training to render such estimates, which estimates that the cost of the transfer will not exceed the capital expenditure threshold established by the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 437.10.

(3) Shall not transfer beds from one facility to another facility, without first obtaining a certificate of need unless, 30 days prior to the relocation, the licensee notifies the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, the applicable health systems agency, and the state department of the licensee's intent to relocate health facility beds, and includes with this notice both of the following:

(A) A cost estimate, certified by a person qualified by experience or training to render such estimates, which estimates that the cost of the relocation will not exceed the capital expenditure threshold established by the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 437.10.

(B) The identification of the number, classification, and location of the health facility beds in the transferor facility and the proposed number, classification, and location of the health facility beds in the transferee facility.

Except as otherwise permitted in Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437) of Division 1, or as authorized in an approved certificate of need pursuant to that part, health facility beds transferred pursuant to this section shall be used in the transferee facility in the same bed classification as defined in Section 1250.1, as the beds were classified in the transferor facility.

Health facility beds transferred pursuant to this section shall not be transferred back to the transferor facility for two years from the date of the transfer, regardless of cost, without first obtaining a certificate of need pursuant to Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437) of Division 1.

(e) All transfers pursuant to subdivision (d) shall satisfy all applicable requirements of licensure and shall be subject to the written approval, if required, of the state department. The state department may adopt regulations which are necessary to implement the provisions of this section. These regulations may include a requirement that each facility of a health facility subject to a single consolidated license have an onsite full-time or part-time administrator.

(f) As used in this section, "facility" means any physical plant operated or maintained by a health facility subject to a single, consolidated license issued pursuant to this section.

(g) For purposes of selective provider contracts negotiated under the Medi-Cal program, the treatment of a health facility with a single consolidated license issued pursuant to this section shall be subject to negotiation between the health facility and the California Medical Assistance Commission. A general acute care hospital which is issued a single consolidated license pursuant to this section may, at its option, receive from the state department a single Medi-Cal program provider number or separate Medi-Cal program provider numbers for one or more of the facilities subject to the single consolidated license. Irrespective of whether the general acute care hospital is issued one or more Medi-Cal provider numbers, the state department may require the hospital to file separate cost reports for each facility pursuant to Section 14170 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(h) For purposes of the Annual Report of Hospitals required by regulations adopted by the state department pursuant to this part, the state department and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development may require reporting of bed and service utilization data separately by each facility of a general acute care hospital issued a single consolidated license pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 1254 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1254. (a) The state department shall inspect and license health facilities. The state department shall license general acute care hospitals, acute psychiatric hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, intermediate care facilities, and special hospitals to provide their respective basic services specified in Section 1250. Except as provided in Section 1253, the state department shall inspect and approve a general acute care hospital to provide special services as specified in Section 1255. The state department shall develop and adopt regulations to implement the provisions contained in this section.

(b) Upon approval, the state department shall issue a separate license for the provision of the basic services enumerated in subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 1250 whenever these basic services are to be provided by an acute care hospital, as defined in subdivision (a), (b), or (f) of that section, where the services enumerated in subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 1250 are to be provided in any separate freestanding facility, whether or not the location of the separate freestanding facility is contiguous to the acute care hospital. The same requirement shall apply to any new freestanding facility constructed for the purpose of providing basic services, as defined in subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 1250, by any acute care hospital on or after January 1, 1984.

(c) (1) Those beds licensed to an acute care hospital which, prior to January 1, 1984, were separate freestanding beds and were not part of the physical structure licensed to provide acute care, and which beds were licensed to provide those services enumerated in subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 1250, are exempt from the requirements of subdivision (b).

(2) All beds licensed to an acute care hospital and located within the physical structure in which acute care is provided are exempt from the requirements of subdivision (b) irrespective of the date of original licensure of the beds, or the licensed category of the beds.

(3) All beds licensed to an acute care hospital owned and operated by the State of California or any other public agency are exempt from the requirements of subdivision (b).

(4) All beds licensed to an acute care hospital in a rural area as defined by Chapter 1010, of the Statutes of 1982, are exempt from the requirements of subdivision (b), except where there is a freestanding skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility which has experienced an occupancy rate of 95 percent or less during the past 12 months within a 25-mile radius or which may be reached within 30 minutes using a motor vehicle.

(5) All beds licensed to an acute care hospital which meet the criteria for designation within peer group six or eight, as defined in the report entitled Hospital Peer Grouping for Efficiency Comparison, dated December 20, 1982, and published by the California Health Facilities Commission, and all beds in hospitals which have fewer than 76 licensed acute care beds and which are located in a Census Designation Place of 15,000 or less population, are exempt from the requirements of subdivision (b), except where there is a free-standing skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility which has experienced an occupancy rate of 95 percent or less during the past 12 months within a 25-mile radius or which may be reached within 30 minutes using a motor vehicle.

(6) All beds licensed to an acute care hospital which has had a certificate of need approved by a health systems agency on or before July 1, 1983, are exempt from the requirements of subdivision (b).

(7) All beds licensed to an acute care hospital are exempt from the requirements of subdivision (b), if reimbursement from the Medi-Cal program for beds licensed for the provision of services enumerated in subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 1250 and not otherwise exempt does not exceed the reimbursement which would be received if the beds were in a separately licensed facility.

(d) Except as provided in Section 1253, the state department shall inspect and approve a general acute care hospital to provide special services as specified in Section 1255. The state department shall develop and adopt regulations to implement the provisions contained in this section.

SEC. 4. Section 14499.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

(b) The establishment of a pilot program pursuant to this section shall be contingent upon the availability of state and federal funding. The program shall include the following components:

(c) The program for the pilot project shall include a plan and budget for delivery of services, administration, and evaluation. During the first year of the pilot program, the amount of the state contract shall equal 95 percent of total projected Medi-Cal expenditures for delivery of services and for administration based on fee-for-service conditions in the program county. During the remaining years of the pilot project, Medi-Cal expenditures in the program county shall be no more than 100 percent of total projected expenditures for delivery of services and for administration based on any one or a combination of the following:

(1) Relevant prior fee-for-service Medi-Cal experience in the program county.

(2) The fee-for-service Medi-Cal experience in comparable counties or groups of counties. The projected total expenditure shall be determined annually according to an acceptable actuarial process. The data elements used by the department shall be shared with the proposed contractor.

(d) The director shall accept or reject the proposal within 30 days after the date of receipt. If a decision is made to reject the proposal, the director shall set forth the reasons for this decision in writing. Upon approval of the proposal, a contract shall be written within 60 days. After signature by the local contractor, the State Department of Health Services, the Department of General Services, and the Department of Finance shall execute the contract within 60 days.

(e) The director shall seek the necessary state and federal waivers to enable operation of the program. If the federal waivers for delivery of services under this plan are not granted, the department is under no obligation to contract for implementation of the program.

(f) For purposes of Section 1343 of the Health and Safety Code, the Santa Barbara County Special Health Care Authority shall be considered to be a county-operated pilot program contracting with the State Department of Health Services pursuant to this article, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, during the period that this contract is in effect, the contractor shall be exempt from the provisions of the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act of 1975, Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, relative to the services provided to

(g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to include dental services within the services provided in this pilot program.

(h) Any federal demonstration funding for this pilot program shall be made available to the county within 60 days upon notification of the award without the state retaining any portion not previously specified in the grant application as submitted.

(i) An independent evaluation of the program shall be conducted and a report submitted to the Legislature and the director by June 30, 1987. The cost of the evaluation shall be borne by grants to be obtained jointly by the department and the local contractor. This evaluation and report shall include, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) An assessment of the cost of medical services as compared to the cost of the existing Medi-Cal fee-for-service delivery mode.

(2) An assessment of utilization levels of specialist and emergency services.

(3) An assessment of the quality of care.

(4) Recommendations for future policy on delivery of services.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1987, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered before June 30, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Section 2 of this act shall only become operative if Senate Bill 1558 of the 1983–84 Regular Session is not enacted, and in that case Section 2 of this act shall become operative January 1, 1985.

CHAPTER 3.6. RESEARCH FACILITIES IN THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Article 1. Legislative Findings and Intent

15820.15. The Legislature finds and declares that the University of California, recognized as being the world's finest public university, requires assistance in the furtherance of its research mission. To this end, the Legislature finds that it is in the public interest to construct, renovate, equip, and staff facilities for research use. The areas of research may include, but are not limited to, engineering, computer science, biological sciences, and related basic sciences. These facilities may be leased or leased-purchased by the University of California.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the cost of any project authorized by statute pursuant to this chapter be considered an expenditure of state funds in the fiscal year in which payments are made to the State Public Works Board under the terms of the lease-purchase agreement for facilities.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the University of California shall encourage matching funds from industry for research facilities, equipment, and projects.

The Legislature finds that providing facilities for research will better enable the university to secure federal research funding.

Furthermore, the university is requested to maximize federal funding for research.

Article 2. Research Facilities

15820.16. (a) The State Public Works Board is authorized to finance the construction, renovation, and equipping of research facilities on a site or sites within the University of California.

(b) The board shall lease-purchase to the Regents of the University of California any public building or facility constructed or renovated pursuant to this chapter. The terms and the amount of the lease-purchase shall be determined by mutual agreement of the parties. The agreement shall provide that the public building or facility shall be utilized for research. The board shall contract with the lessee for all activities required to plan, construct, equip, and renovate these facilities.

Article 3. Construction Financing

15820.18. (a) The board may issue certificates pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 15821) or revenue bonds, negotiable notes, or negotiable bond anticipation notes pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 15830) to finance the cost of construction or renovation and the equipping of the public buildings or facilities authorized by this chapter.

(b) The revenues, rentals, or receipts from the public buildings or facilities and equipment authorized by this chapter shall be pledged to the payment of the principal of, and the interest on, the certificates, revenue bonds, notes, or anticipation notes issued to finance the construction or renovation and the equipping of those public buildings or facilities.

(c) No certificates, revenue bonds, notes, or anticipation notes shall be issued, and no construction or renovation and the equipping for any public building or facility authorized by this chapter shall be commenced or purchased, unless the Legislature, by statute, authorizes the total amount of certificates, revenue bonds, notes or anticipation notes that may be issued to finance that public building or facility and expressly approves the construction thereof.

At any legislative hearing wherein a proposed statute described in this subdivision is considered, there shall be included, but not limited to, in that consideration an examination of the total interest cost of the issue.

Article 4. Support for Research Facilities

15820.20. In order to properly establish facilities for research within the University of California, it is the Legislature's intent to authorize, through the Budget Act, funding for the following:

(a) Planning grants for the purpose of developing detailed project plans for research facilities.

(b) Faculty salary supplements for research activities during the summer.

(c) Professional research scholars, graduate research assistantships, graduate fellowships, postdoctoral fellowships, support research staff, and related support for research projects.

(d) Equipment.

SEC. 6. Sections 2 and 4 of this act shall become operative only if Senate Bill 1905 is chaptered, in which case Sections 1 and 3 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1518

An act to add Section 14006.2 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to reduce the number of situations in which a misunderstanding of the Medi-Cal Act, as it applies to nursing home costs, causes either the unnecessary destitution of the entire family, or a dissolution of marriage unnecessarily carried out to prevent destitution.

SEC. 2. Section 14006.2 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14006.2. (a) In determining the eligibility of a married individual, pursuant to Section 14005.4 or 14005.7, who, in accordance with Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, is considered to be living separately from his or her spouse, the individual shall be considered to have made a transfer of resources for full and adequate consideration under Section 14006 or 14015 by reason of either of the following:

(1) Having entered into a written agreement with his or her spouse dividing their community property into equal shares of separate property. Property so agreed to be separate property shall be considered by the department to be the separate property of the spouse who, pursuant to the agreement, is the owner of the property. Only in cases in which separate property owned by one spouse is actually made available to the other spouse, may the department count the separate property in the eligibility determination of the nonowner spouse.

(2) Having transferred to his or her spouse all of his or her interest in a home, whether the transfer was made before or after the individual became a resident in a skilled nursing facility or an intermediate care facility in accordance with and to the extent permitted by Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

(b) The department shall furnish to all Medi-Cal applicants a statement in writing advising them that, to the extent permitted by Section 14006.2 and federal law, (1) in the case of an individual who is an inpatient in a skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility or other medical institution, if the individual or the individual's conservator transferred to the individual's spouse all of the interest in a home, the individual shall not be considered ineligible for Medi-Cal by reason of the transfer; and that (2) if the individual and the individual's spouse execute a written interspousal agreement which divides and transmutes community property into equal shares of separate property, the separate property of the individual's spouse shall not be considered available to the individual and need not be spent by the spouse for the individual's care in a skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility or other medical institution.

SEC. 3. The State Director of Health Services shall, within one year of the operative date of this act, adopt regulations implementing the provisions of this act. The regulations adopted by the director may also establish procedures by which the department may determine whether a transmutation of community property to separate property actually occurred, but the regulations shall be consistent with, and shall not vary from, existing community property law. These regulations shall be adopted as emergency regulations in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3.5

(commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. For the purposes of the Administrative Procedure Act, the adoption of the regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare. Notwithstanding the provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, emergency regulations adopted by the State Department of Health Services in order to implement this act shall not be subject to the review and approval of the Office of Administrative Law.

An act to add Section 12234 to the Government Code, relating to historical preservation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12234 is added to the Government Code, to read:

12234. The secretary shall conduct a feasibility study to assess the needs, costs, and appropriate location for a new facility or conversion of an existing facility, or both, to house the collections and operations of the California State Archives for at least the next 50 years. The study shall take into consideration the appropriateness of combining compatible needs of other agencies to allow for cost-effective construction or conversion, or both, of facilities.

SEC. 2. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Secretary of State the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) to defray the costs of the feasibility study conducted pursuant to this act.

An act to add Chapter 9.2 (commencing with Section 6220) to Title 7 of Part 3 of the Penal Code, relating to restitution centers.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 9.2 (commencing with Section 6220) is added to Title 7 of Part 3 of the Penal Code, to read:

CHAPTER 9.2. RESTITUTION CENTERS

6220. The Director of Corrections may establish and operate facilities to be known as restitution centers.

6221. The purpose of restitution centers is to provide a means for those sentenced to prison to be able to pay their victims financial restitution as ordered by the sentencing court, or as agreed upon by the defendant and his or her victims.

6222. The location for a restitution center or centers shall be determined by the Director of Corrections with approval from the county board of supervisors or city council in whose jurisdiction the center will be located.

6223. Restitution centers shall be located in areas which will maximize the employment opportunities of persons sentenced to the centers.

6225. Supervision of inmates in the restitution centers shall be by peace officer personnel of the Department of Corrections on a 24-hour basis.

6226. The Director of Corrections in establishing a restitution center shall enter into an agreement with the county, city, or city and county in which the facility is located to reimburse the county, city, or city and county for any additional direct law enforcement costs that will occur as a result of the restitution center.

An act to amend Section 8690.4 of the Government Code, relating to natural disaster, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984]

I am deleting the $1.3 million appropriation contained in Section 2 of Assembly Bill No. 4043.

This appropriation is unnecessary. The 1984 Budget Act reappropriated funds in the Natural Disaster Assistance Account for the purpose of providing disaster relief for damages resulting from the Morgan Hill earthquake.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No. 4043.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8690.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8690.4. The Controller shall establish the following three special accounts in the Natural Disaster Assistance Fund:

(a) The Public Facilities Account, into which shall be paid all resources of the appropriation made by Section 4 of Chapter 624 of the Statutes of 1973, any money hereafter appropriated by the Legislature for allocation for public facilities projects, and any income from investment of moneys in the account and payments by local agencies in reimbursement of moneys disbursed from the account, including deferred payments with charges, pursuant to Section 8686.8.

(b) The Street and Highway Account, into which shall be paid all resources transferred from the Street and Highway Disaster Fund, any money received from the federal government as reimbursement to any city or county for expenditures from funds allocated, transferred or expended pursuant to this chapter for a street and highway project, any money hereafter appropriated by the Legislature for allocation for street and highway projects, and any income from investment of moneys in the account and payments by local agencies in reimbursement of moneys disbursed from the account including deferred payments with charges, pursuant to Section 8686.8.

(c) The 1983 Natural Disasters Account, into which shall be paid all moneys appropriated by the Legislature for allocation to those who have incurred losses or expenses resulting from the Coalinga earthquake of May 2, 1983, or the "Morgan Hill" earthquake of April 24, 1984, as follows:

(1) To reimburse local agencies for personnel overtime costs and for supplies used for disaster assistance.

(2) To provide for the repair, cleanup, and reconstruction of damaged public facilities.

(3) To provide state matching funds for federal assistance.

(4) To provide other assistance as the Director of the Office of Emergency Services deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this subdivision.

SEC. 2. The sum of one million three hundred thousand dollars ($1,300,000) is hereby allocated from within the 1983 Natural Disasters Account in the Natural Disaster Assistance Fund for designation by the Director of the Office of Emergency Services pursuant to Section 8690.4 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Areas of Santa Clara County were damaged by the April 1984 earthquakes centered around the City of Morgan Hill, and are urgently in need of aid and assistance which can be provided through the State's Deferred Payment Rehabilitation Program. In order to exempt the use of funds to finance the reconstruction of demolished housing from an existing limitation as soon as possible, and in order to enable the state to utilize these funds to provide immediate aid and assistance, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

(d) Upon establishing or amending the permanent title record, the department shall issue to the registered owner a current registration card indicating the interest of the secured party and shall forward a copy of that registration card to all persons holding a record security interest in the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b) of Section 18100.5, the department shall not refuse to establish or amend the permanent title record to indicate a security interest which is authorized by law to be recorded and which would otherwise satisfy statutory requirements for departmental documentation and recordation on the basis of lack of knowledge as to the attachment of the security interest prior to its receipt of the statement of lien or an electronic facsimile thereof.

(f) The department shall designate the holder of a perfected security interest as either the legal owner or a junior lienholder as provided in this article, Article 3 (commencing with Section 18085), or Article 4 (commencing with Section 18098), as applicable.

18086. The department may accept an application for registration of a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper which is not within the state, but which is to be registered to a resident of this state, at the time all documents and fees, as determined by the department in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, are submitted to the department. Any fees submitted pursuant to this section shall not be subject to refund based upon the fact that the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper is not and has not been within this state.

SEC. 20. Section 18086.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

(b) Any interested person shall have a right of action to recover on any bond or undertaking for any breach of the conditions for which the bond was deposited, but the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons shall in no event exceed the amount of the bond. In the event the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper is no longer subject to registration in this state and the currently valid certificate of title is surrendered to the department, the bond or undertaking shall be returned and surrendered at the end of three years or, prior thereto, at the discretion of the department.

SEC. 21. Section 18087 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18087. Upon application for registration of a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper previously registered outside this state, the application shall be certified by the

The department may require a certification from the jurisdiction of last registry when the applicant fails to surrender the last issued unexpired license plates.

(b) Upon application made at the time of their surrender to the department and upon payment of a fee of three dollars ($3), the department shall return the unexpired license plates to the official in charge of the registration of manufactured homes, mobilehomes, commercial coaches, or truck campers in the state of issue of the license plates.

(b) In the absence of knowledge by the department that any certificate of title issued by another state is forged, fraudulent, or void, the acceptance thereof by the department shall be a sufficient determination of the genuineness and regularity of the certificate and of the truth of the recitals therein, and no liability shall be incurred by any officer or employee of the department by reason of so accepting a certificate of title.

SEC. 24. Section 18088.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

department, upon registering the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper in this state and upon issuing a certificate of title, shall include therein the name of the legal owner and lienholders, if any, unless documents submitted with the foreign certificates of title establish that the lien or encumbrance has been fully satisfied.

SEC. 25. Section 18089 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18089. In the event application is made in this state for registration of a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper and the department is not satisfied as to the ownership of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper or the existence of foreign liens thereon, then the department may register the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper and issue a registration card with distinctive markings, but shall withhold issuance of a California certificate of title, unless the applicant presents documents sufficient to reasonably satisfy the department of the applicant's ownership of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper and the absence of any liens thereon or posts a bond pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 18086.5.

SEC. 26. Section 18089.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18089.5. 18090. The department shall forthwith mail a notice of the filing of any application for registration of a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper previously registered outside this state upon written request of the governmental officer, agency, or authority which made the last registration of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper outside this state. The notice shall contain the same data as required on the application filed with the department. This section shall not apply to manufactured homes, mobilehomes, commercial coaches, or truck campers last registered in a foreign province or country.

SEC. 28. Section 18090.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18090.5. title to the legal owner and a registration card to the registered owner.

(b) The department shall designate on the permanent title record as the legal owner the holder, if any, of the perfected security interest in the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper. If there is more than one perfected security interest, the holder of the security interest designated in the application for the original registration as the legal owner shall be the legal owner.

(c) The department shall designate on the permanent title record as junior lienholders those holders, if any, of perfected security interests in the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper other than the legal owner. If there is more than one junior lienholder, they shall be listed on the permanent title record in the same order as is designated in the application for the original registration. A copy of the registration card shall be sent to each junior lienholder and the creditor identified on the manufacturer's certificate of origin.

(d) If an application for registration specifies more than one secured creditor and the department is unable to determine from the application which creditor is to be the legal owner, or the seniority order in which junior lienholders are to be designated, the department shall so notify the applicant for registration and all secured creditors and shall withhold registration or transfer of registration until the department receives the designation.

If the permanent title record already reflects the interest of one or more junior lienholders, the creditor then perfecting its interest pursuant to this section shall be designated as the most junior lienholder.

(4) If a legal owner no longer holds an outstanding obligation or a commitment to make advances, incur obligations, or otherwise give value to be secured by the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper, the legal owner shall indicate its release of lien by appropriately signing the certificate of title for the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper and forward the certificate of title to the department with appropriate fees. The department shall appropriately amend the permanent title record for the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper, deliver a new certificate of title reflecting the change to the permanent title record to the new legal owner, if any, by first-class mail, and forward an amended registration card reflecting the change to the permanent title record to the registered owner with copies to all secured parties shown on the registration card. For purposes of this paragraph, the following person shall be designated as the new legal owner:

(A) The junior lienholder, if any.

(B) If there is more than one junior lienholder, the junior lienholder whose statement of lien was designated as the most senior junior lienholder on the permanent title record shall be the legal owner.

(A) On any other amendments to the permanent title record of the manufactured home or mobilehome for the purpose of transferring any ownership interest or transferring or creating any security interest in the manufactured home or mobilehome.

copies thereof as may be required by the department, or required by law, to evidence or effect the transfer of title or interest in that case. The department, when satisfied of the genuineness and regularity of the transfer, shall give notice by first-class mail to the registered owner, the legal owner, if any, and all junior lienholders, if any, of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper as shown on the permanent title record, and, 15 days after the mailing of the notice, if still satisfied of the genuineness and regularity of the transfer, shall amend the permanent title record of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper, issue a new current registration card and certificate of title, and forward copies of the current registration card to all junior lienholders.

18101.5. When the transferee of a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper is a dealer who holds it for resale and moves it upon the highways under transportation decals, the dealer is not required to make application for transfer, but upon transferring his or her title or interest to another person, he or she shall comply with this chapter.

SEC. 40. Section 18102.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18102.5. If application is made to the department for a transfer of registration of a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper to a new registered or legal owner and if the applicant is unable to present the certificate of title or registration card issued for the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper because it is lost or otherwise not available, the department may receive the application and investigate the circumstances of the case and may require the filing of certifications or other information. When the department is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to a transfer of registration, the department may transfer the registration of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper and issue a new certificate of title and registration card to the person or persons found to be entitled thereto.

SEC. 41. Section 18103 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18103. Whenever application is made to the department for a transfer of registration of a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper to a new registered or legal owner and the applicant is unable to present the registration card issued for the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper because it is in the possession of the department upon an application for renewal of registration, the department may transfer the registration of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper upon production of the properly endorsed certificate of title to the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper and a temporary receipt, on a form prescribed by the department containing any information that the department deems necessary, including, but not limited to, the registration decal number assigned to the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper and the serial number of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper and accompanied by the amount of fees for renewal of the registration.

SEC. 42. Section 18105 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18105. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e) or (g), the security interest of the legal owner has priority over conflicting security interests of junior lienholders and holders of security interests perfected pursuant to Section 9305 of the Commercial Code and of unperfected security interests in a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper subject to registration under this part and its proceeds.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e) or (g), the security interest of a junior lienholder has priority over conflicting security interests of holders of security interests perfected pursuant to Section 9305 of the Commercial Code and of unperfected security interests in a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper subject to registration under this part and its proceeds. Conflicting security interests of junior lienholders rank in the order designated on the permanent title record maintained by the department.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e) or (g), a security interest perfected pursuant to Section 9305 of the Commercial Code has priority over conflicting unperfected security interests in a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper subject to registration under this part and its proceeds.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e) or (g), conflicting unperfected security interests in a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper subject to registration under this part and its proceeds rank according to priority in time of attachment.

(e) (1) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (g), the security interest of any secured party shall not have priority over any security interest of a party having a subordinate security interest by virtue of the preceding provisions of this section to the extent that the otherwise senior secured obligation was incurred subsequent to receipt by that creditor of actual or constructive notice of the existence of the otherwise junior security interest unless the obligation arose pursuant to the terms of a security agreement for the purpose of preserving the collateral or protecting the interest of the senior secured party therein or unless the otherwise senior secured obligation was incurred under a binding agreement that the credit would be extended by that creditor.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision receipt of a copy of the registration certificate which reflects the existence of a security interest shall constitute constructive notice of the existence of the security interest. In interpreting the provisions of this subdivision but for no other purposes, it is the intent of the Legislature that the priorities among conflicting security interests be determined in accordance with the rules of law applicable to priority as to interests in real property.

(f) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (g), the security interest of the legal owner or a junior lienholder has priority over a conflicting security interest of a holder of a perfected security interest in a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper subject to registration under this part which is inventory, including the proceeds of the inventory. The rules of priority regarding conflicting security interests of holders of a perfected security interest in a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper subject to registration under this part which is inventory and of holders of security interests perfected pursuant to Section 9305 of the Commercial Code or unperfected security interests in a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper subject to registration under this part shall be governed by Section 9312 of the Commercial Code.

(g) If the holders of two or more of the several security interests shall otherwise agree among themselves, the relative priorities among the holders of security interests who have so agreed shall be determined according to this agreement.

SEC. 43. Section 18105.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18105.5. A legal owner or junior lienholder may assign title or interest to a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper subject to registration under this part without the consent, and without affecting the interest, of the registered owner or other lien holders.

18106. (a) As used in this section, "lien creditor" means a creditor who has acquired a lien on a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper subject to registration under this part by attachment, levy, or the like and includes an assignee for benefit of creditors from the time of assignment, and a trustee in bankruptcy from the date of the filing of the petition, or a receiver in equity from the time of appointment, as contemplated by subdivision (3) of Section 9301 of the Commercial Code.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), an unperfected security interest in a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper subject to registration under this part is subordinate to the rights of a person who becomes a lien creditor before the security interest is perfected.

(c) If a security interest in a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper becomes perfected as contemplated by subdivision (a) of Section 18080.7, the security interest is senior to the rights of a lien creditor which arise between the time the security interest attaches and the time of perfection.

(d) A person who becomes a lien creditor while a security interest in a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper is perfected by any of the means contemplated by subdivision (b) of Section 18080.7 takes subject to the perfected security interest only to the extent that it secures advances either made before that person becomes a lien creditor or made thereafter which would otherwise be senior to a competing security interest as provided in subdivision (e) of Section 18105.

SEC. 45. Section 18108 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18108. If any registration card or registration decal is stolen, lost, mutilated, or illegible, the registered owner of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper for which it was issued, as shown by the records of the department, shall immediately make application for, and may, upon the applicant furnishing information satisfactory to the department and paying the required fees, obtain a duplicate, substitute, or new registration under a new registration number, as determined by the department.

SEC. 47. Section 18109 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18109. Except as otherwise provided in this part, every registration card for a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper subject to annual registration shall expire at midnight on the expiration date indicated on the registration card and shall be renewed prior to that expiration. The department, upon presentation by the registered owner of the registration card or potential registration card last issued and receipt of the proper renewal fees, shall renew the registration of a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper.

SEC. 48. Section 18114 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18114. A registration fee of eleven dollars ($11) shall be paid the department at the time of registration or renewal for each transportable section of a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper, registered pursuant to this part. A registration fee due for the annual renewal of registration is delinquent if not paid on or before the expiration date of the previous registration year. A registration fee due for any application for registration, other than for annual renewal, is delinquent if not paid within 20 days after the date the fee became due. A charge of three dollars ($3) for each transportable section shall be added to delinquent registration fees. No additional charge shall be imposed on a registration fee received by mail after the date of delinquency if the fee was, by evidence of postmark, placed in the mail before midnight on the day prior to the day the fee became delinquent.

SEC. 49. Section 18117 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18117. An application for registration under this part of a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper previously registered outside of this state shall be accompanied by payment of the amount required to be paid under Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code with respect to the use of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper by the applicant.

SEC. 50. Section 18117.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18117.5. The transfer fee is delinquent if not paid within 20 days of receipt by the transferee of a properly executed certificate of title for the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper.

SEC. 51. Section 18123 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18123. (a) The department shall withhold the registration or the transfer of registration of any manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper sold at retail to any applicant by any person, other than a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper manufacturer or dealer holding a license and certificate issued as provided for by this part, until the applicant pays to the department the use tax measured by the sales price of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, or truck camper as required by the Sales and Use Tax Law (Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code), together with penalty, if any, unless the State Board of Equalization finds that no use tax is due. If the applicant so desires, he or she may pay the use tax and penalty, if any, to the department so as to secure immediate action upon his or her application for registration or transfer of registration, and thereafter he or she may apply through the department to the State Board of Equalization under the provisions of the Sales and Use Tax Law for a refund of the amount so paid.

(b) The department shall transmit to the State Board of Equalization all collections of use tax and penalty made under this section. This transmittal shall be made at least monthly, accompanied by a schedule, in the form the department and board may prescribe.

(c) The State Board of Equalization shall reimburse the department for its costs incurred in carrying out the provisions of this section. The reimbursement shall be effected under agreement between the agencies, approved by the Department of Finance.

(d) In computing any use tax or penalty thereon under the provisions of this section, a fraction of a dollar shall be disregarded, unless it exceeds fifty cents ($0.50), in which case it shall be treated as the next higher full dollar. Computation of any penalty shall be made from the tax after the same has been computed as provided in this section. Any tax or penalty in the amount of one dollar ($1) or less shall be one dollar ($1). Payment of tax and penalty on this basis shall be deemed full compliance with the requirements of the Sales and Use Tax Law insofar as the requirements are applicable to the use of manufactured homes, mobilehomes, commercial coaches, or truck campers to which this section relates.

SEC. 52. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

(2) A chemical characterization of the soil-pore liquid in those areas which are likely to be affected if the solid waste disposal site is leaking, as compared to geologically similar areas near the solid waste disposal site which have not been affected by leakage or waste discharge.

(c) If the regional board determines that the information specified in paragraph (1) or (2) is not needed because other information demonstrates that hazardous wastes are migrating into the water, the regional board may waive the requirement to submit this information specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (b). The regional board shall also notify the State Department of Health Services, and shall take appropriate remedial action pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 13300).

(d) The regional board shall examine the report submitted pursuant to subdivision (b) and determine whether the number, location, and design of the wells and the soiling testing could detect any leachate buildup, leachate migration, or hazardous waste migration. If the regional board determines that the monitoring program could detect the leachate and hazardous waste, the regional board shall take the action specified in subdivision (e). If the regional board determines that the monitoring program was inadequate, the regional board shall require the solid waste disposal site to correct the monitoring program and resubmit the solid waste assessment test based upon the results from the corrected monitoring program.

(e) The regional board shall examine the approved solid waste assessment test report and determine whether any hazardous waste migrated into the water. If the regional board determines that hazardous waste has migrated into the water, it shall notify the State Department of Health Services and the California Waste Management Board and shall take appropriate remedial action pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 13300).

(f) When a regional board revises the waste discharge requirements for a solid waste disposal site, the regional board shall consider the information provided in the solid waste assessment test report for that solid waste disposal site.

SEC. 7. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that, for some costs, the local agency or district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act, and, for other costs, a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 8. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

An act to amend Section 28758.5 of, to add Sections 28741.5, 28744.5, and 28745.5 to, and to add Article 4 (commencing with Section 28794) to Chapter 13 of Division 22 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to toxic substances.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 28741.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

28741.5. The term "art or craft material" means any raw or processed material or manufactured product marketed or being represented by the manufacturer, repackager or retailer as being suitable for use in any phase of the creation of any work of visual or graphic art of any medium. These mediums may include, but shall not be limited to, paintings, drawings, prints, sculpture, ceramics, enamels, jewelry, stained glass, plastic sculpture, photographs, and leather and textile goods. The term shall not include economic poisons subject to the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act (61 Stats. 163) or Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12751) of Division 7 of the Food and Agricultural Code; or to drugs, devices, or cosmetics, which are subject to the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetics Act (52 Stats. 1040) or Division 21 (commencing with Section 26000).

SEC. 2. Section 28744.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

28744.5. The term "human carcinogen" means any substance listed as a human carcinogen by the International Agency for Research on Cancer.

The term "potential human carcinogen" means one of the following:

(1) Any substance which does not meet the definition of human carcinogen, but for which there exists sufficient evidence of carcinogenicity in animals, as determined by the International Agency for Research on Cancer.

(2) Any chemical shown to be changed by the human body into a human carcinogen.

SEC. 3. Section 28745.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

28745.5. The term "toxic substance causing chronic illness" means any of the following:

(1) Human carcinogens.

(2) Potential human carcinogens.

(3) Any substance included in the list of hazardous substances prepared by the Director of Industrial Relations, pursuant to Section

6382 of the Labor Code, notwithstanding exemptions made for substances on the list which are used in particular forms, circumstances, or concentrations, if the health hazard presented by the substance is not the subject of label statements required by federal law.

SEC. 4. Section 28758.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

28758.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, no substance or article shall be deemed to violate any provision of this chapter except the provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 28794), if the substance or article complies with federal law.

SEC. 5. Article 4 (commencing with Section 28794) is added to Chapter 13 of Division 22 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 4. Art or Craft Materials

28794. For the purposes of this article, an art or craft material shall be presumed to contain an ingredient which is a toxic substance causing chronic illness if the ingredient, whether an intentional ingredient or an impurity, is 1 percent or more by weight of the mixture or product, or if the department determines that the toxic or carcinogenic properties of the art or craft material are such that labeling is necessary for the adequate protection of the public health and safety.

28795. The Legislature finds and declares that there exists a significant danger to the public health and safety from exposure to art or craft material which contains toxic chemicals. This health risk threatens not only professional artists and craftspersons, but art teachers, students at every educational level, hobbyists, and children. Toxic substances may be employed during the course and scope of creating art or craft objects of all varieties.

The Legislature additionally finds and declares that present labeling of ingredients and hazards of art or craft material is insufficient to adequately protect the consumers of this state from chronic adverse health effects. Because many persons do not know what toxic chemical substances they work with, proper precautionary actions cannot be taken. Disclosure of toxic ingredients, their possible adverse effects on health, and instructions for safe handling, will substantially minimize unnecessary exposure to excessive risk.

Additionally, the Legislature finds and declares that it is consistent to impose upon those who manufacture, repackage, distribute, and sell art or craft material a duty to convey to consumers information about the potential health hazards of the products they manufacture.

Therefore, the Legislature intends by this article to ensure that consumers be provided information concerning the nature of the toxic substances with which they are working and the known and suspected health hazards of these substances, and to ensure the uniformity of labeling standards, so that materials with similar hazards also have essentially similar labels.

28796. No person shall distribute, sell, offer for sale, or expose for sale any art or craft material containing toxic substances causing chronic illness on which the person:

(a) Has failed to affix a conspicuous label containing the signal word "WARNING," to alert users of potential adverse health effects.

(b) Has failed to affix a conspicuous label warning of the health-related dangers of the art or craft material.

(1) If the product contains a human carcinogen, the warning shall contain the statement: "CANCER HAZARD! Overexposure may create cancer risk."

(2) If the product contains a potential human carcinogen, and does not contain a human carcinogen, the warning shall contain the statement: "POSSIBLE CANCER HAZARD! Overexposure might create cancer risk."

(3) If the product contains a toxic substance causing chronic illness, the warning shall contain, but not be limited to, the following statement or statements where applicable:

(A) May cause sterility or damage to reproductive organs.

(B) May cause birth defects or harm to developing fetus.

(C) May be excreted in human milk causing harm to nursing infant.

(D) May cause central nervous system depression or injury.

(E) May cause numbness or weakness in the extremities.

(F) Overexposure may cause damage to (specify organ).

(G) Heating above (specify degrees) may cause hazardous decomposition products.

(4) If a product contains more than one chronically toxic substance, or if a single substance can cause more than one chronic health effect, the required statements may be combined into one warning statement.

(c) Has failed to affix on the label a list of ingredients which are toxic substances causing chronic illness.

(d) Has failed to affix on the label a statement or statements of safe use and storage instructions, conforming to the following list. The label shall contain, but not be limited to, as many of the following risk statements as are applicable:

(1) Keep out of reach of children.

(2) When using, do not eat, drink, or smoke.

(3) Wash hands after use and before eating, drinking, or smoking.

(4) Keep container tightly closed.

(5) Store in well ventilated area.

(6) Avoid contact with skin.

(7) Wear protective clothing (specify type).

(8) Wear NIOSH certified masks for dusts, mists, or fumes.

(9) Wear NIOSH certified respirator with appropriate cartridge for (specify type).

(10) Wear NIOSH certified supplied-air respirator.

(11) Use window exhaust fan to remove vapors and assure adequate ventilation (specify explosion proof if necessary).

(12) Use local exhaust hood (specify type).

(13) Do not heat above (specify degrees) without adequate ventilation.

(14) Do not use or mix with (specify material).

(e) Has failed to affix on the label a statement on where to obtain more information, such as "call your local poison control center for more health information."

(f) Has failed to affix on the label the name and address of the manufacturer.

(g) If all of the above information cannot fit on the package label, a package insert shall be required to convey all the necessary information to the consumer. In this event, the label shall contain a statement to refer to the package insert, such as "CAUTION: see package insert before use." For purposes of this section, "package insert" means a display of written, printed, or graphic matter upon a leaflet or suitable material accompanying the art supply. The language on this insert shall be nontechnical and nonpromotional in tone and content.

Art or craft material offered for sale in containers which contain less than one fluid ounce (30 milliliters) or one ounce net (29 grams) shall be deemed to comply with this section if there is affixed on the container a precautionary label that includes the words "USE WITH CAUTION: Contains Hazardous Substances."

The requirements set forth in subdivisions (a) to (g), inclusive, shall not be considered to be complied with unless the required words, statements, or other information appear on the outside container or wrapper, or on a package insert which is easily legible through the outside container or wrapper and is painted in a color in contrast with the product or the package containing the product.

(h) Pursuant to Section 28778, the department may exempt a material from full compliance with this article. In considering this exemption, the department shall take into consideration the potential for reasonably forseeable misuse of a material by a child.

(i) If an art or craft material complies with labeling standards D-4236 of the American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), the material complies with the provisions of this article, unless the department determines that the label on an art or craft material does not satisfy the purposes of this article.

28797. (a) The manufacturer of any art or craft material sold, distributed, offered for sale, or exposed for sale in this state shall supply to a national poison control network approved by the director the formulation information required by that network for dissemination to poison control centers. Failure to file formulation information with an approved poison control network is a violation of this chapter.

(b) The requirements set forth in Section 28796 shall not be considered to be complied with unless all required words, statements, or other information accompany art or craft materials from manufacturer to consumer, not excluding any distributor, packager, repackager, or retailer.

SEC. 6. Sections 1 to 5, inclusive, of this act shall become operative January 1, 1986.

SEC. 7. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1534

An act to amend Sections 66740 and 66746 of the Government Code, relating to solid waste, and making an appropriation therefor.

SEC. 2. Section 66746 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66746. The board shall appoint a chief executive officer exempt from civil service laws who shall administer the functions of the board. The board shall prescribe the duties and fix the salary of the chief executive officer.

SEC. 3. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that the long-term protection of air, water, and land from pollution due to the disposal of solid waste is best achieved by requiring financial assurances for the closure and post-closure maintenance of solid waste disposal facilities.

SEC. 4. The sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Controller for the purpose of increasing compensation of members of regional water quality control boards pursuant to Section 13205 of the Water Code for the period January 1, 1985, to June 30, 1985.

An act to amend Section 26205 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26205 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26205. (a) All pesticide regulations and any amendments to these regulations adopted pursuant to the federal act or the Food and Agricultural Code, which are in effect on November 23, 1970, or which are adopted on or after this date, are the pesticide regulations in this state. The department may, by regulation, prescribe tolerances for pesticides in processed foods in this state whether or not these tolerances are in accordance with the regulations adopted pursuant to the federal act or the Food and Agricultural Code.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the department shall evaluate the tolerance prescribed, or an exemption from a tolerance granted, for a pesticide in processed foods and make a determination whether or not the existing tolerance, or the exemption from a tolerance, is protective of the public health whenever any one of the following occurs:

(1) The Director of Food and Agriculture designates the pesticide as a restricted material pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 14004.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(2) The Director of Food and Agriculture refuses to register or cancels the registration of the pesticide pursuant to Section 12825, or suspends the registration of the pesticide pursuant to Section 12826, of the Food and Agricultural Code, upon determining that the pesticide is detrimental to the public health and safety.

(3) The Director of Food and Agriculture adopts regulations restricting worker entry into areas treated with the pesticide pursuant to Section 12981 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(4) The pesticide is the subject of a proceeding pursuant to a determination by the Environmental Protection Agency under paragraph (3) (i) (A), (3) (ii) (A), (3) (ii) (B), or (3) (iii) of subsection (a) of Section 162.11 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

The requirement to evaluate a tolerance prescribed, or an exemption from a tolerance granted, for a pesticide does not apply if the department finds that any of the actions described in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, occurred for reasons that are not related to the question whether or not the existing tolerance, or the exemption from a tolerance, adequately protects the public health. If the department makes such a finding, the reasons for the finding shall be stated in writing.

(c) The determination required by subdivision (b), and the reasons for the determination, shall be stated in writing. If the determination is required because any of the actions described in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, of subdivision (b) occurs after January 1, 1985, the determination shall be completed within one year of the date of the action. If the determination is required because any of those actions occurred prior to January 1, 1985, the determination shall be completed by January 1, 1990.

(d) In any case where the department, after consultation with the Department of Food and Agriculture, determines, pursuant to subdivision (b), that the tolerance prescribed, or an exemption from a tolerance granted, for a pesticide is not protective of the public health, the department shall, if it does not act immediately pursuant to subdivision (a), transmit notice of its determination to the responsible federal agencies and shall request that they take action, pursuant to the federal act, to modify the tolerance or an exemption from a tolerance. If, after one year from the date the notice is transmitted, the department finds that the responsible federal agencies have failed to take appropriate action to protect the public health, the department shall exercise its authority pursuant to subdivision (a) to prescribe a tolerance that is protective of the public health and shall notify the responsible federal agencies of its action.

An act to amend Sections 25287, 25288, and 25288.2 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances.

(d) In determining both the civil and criminal penalties imposed pursuant to this section, the court shall consider all relevant circumstances, including, but not limited to, the extent of harm or potential harm caused by the violation, the nature of the violation and the period of time over which it occurred, the frequency of past violations, and the corrective action, if any, taken by the person who holds the permit.

(e) Penalties under this section are in addition to, and do not supersede or limit, any and all other legal remedies and penalties, civil or criminal, which may be applicable under other laws.

25288. (a) Any city or county which prior to January 1, 1984, adopted an ordinance which, at a minimum meets the requirements set forth in Sections 25284 and 25284.1, including, but not limited to, the provisions providing for double containment and monitoring of underground storage tanks, and under which permits are issued therefor, is exempt from this chapter so long as the ordinance, as it may be amended, continues to meet the requirements of Sections 25284 and 25284.1.

Those cities and counties which are exempted from this chapter pursuant to this subdivision shall submit to the board the application form, and annual information specified by Section 25283.2 and shall submit a written report of any unauthorized release from an underground storage tank to the Office of Emergency Services within 10 working days from the time the local agency is notified of the unauthorized release. Every city and county, except a county of the fifth class and the cities within that county, shall, until January 1, 1990, collect and transmit to the board the surcharge specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25283.3.

(b) This chapter shall not be construed to limit or abridge the authority of any city or county, to adopt an ordinance requiring information, investigations, or inspections, or implementing and enforcing this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 25288.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25288.2. (a) The board shall develop regulations implementing the standards of Sections 25284, 25284.1, 25284.3, 25284.4, 25284.5, 25286, and 25288.3. These regulations shall be promulgated by the board by January 1, 1985. The board may adopt regulations implementing Sections 25283.2, 25283.3, and 25283.6 as it deems necessary.

(b) Until the board adopts regulations, any city or county may implement Section 25284 with regard to permits. Any tank or facility so permitted shall be deemed to be in compliance with the regulations of the board implementing that section. Any underground storage tank installed within a city or county which has not implemented Section 25284 prior to the adoption of regulations by the board shall be subject to the same requirements of this chapter as an underground storage tank installed prior to January 1, 1984.

Every city and county shall, without undue delay, undertake its regulatory responsibilities under this chapter after the board adopts its regulations pursuant to subdivision (a). Every city and county shall implement this chapter by no later than July 1, 1985.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

SEC. 1.7. Section 25359.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25359.5. (a) Within 30 days after making a determination, based upon a preliminary site assessment that there has been a release of a hazardous substance on, under, or into the land on a site, the department or a county health officer shall order the property owner to secure the site if all of the following conditions apply to that site:

(1) The release does not comply with the terms of a current permit or interim status document or regulation of the department.

(2) The site poses a public health risk if human contact is made with the hazardous waste or the surrounding contaminated area.

(3) There is a likelihood of human or domestic animal contact.

(b) The order to secure the site shall require, within 60 days after receiving notification of the order, the posting of the site with signs. The order shall also require that the site be enclosed with a fence, unless it is physically and economically infeasible or unless the fencing is unnecessary because it will not alleviate the danger to the public health.

(c) If fencing is ordered, the fences shall be maintained at the site to prevent unauthorized persons from gaining access to the site. The signs shall be maintained and shall meet all of the following requirements:

(1) The signs shall be bilingual, appropriate to the local area.

(2) The signs shall have lettering which is legible from a distance of at least 25 feet.

(3) The signs shall read: "Caution: Hazardous Substance Area, Unauthorized Persons Keep Out" and shall have the name and phone number of the department or the county health officer that ordered the posting.

(4) The signs shall be visible from the surrounding contaminated area and posted at each route of entry into the site, including those routes which are likely to be used by unauthorized persons, at access roads leading to the site, and facing navigable waterways where appropriate.

(5) The signs shall be of a material able to withstand the elements.

(d) A property owner who fails to comply with an order of the department or the county health officer is subject to a civil penalty of up to twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). In determining the amount of a civil penalty to be imposed, the court shall consider all relevant circumstances, including, but not limited to, the economic assets of the property owner and whether the property owner has acted in good faith.

If the property owner fails to secure and post the site, the department or the county health officer shall secure and post the site pursuant to subdivision (b) within 30 days of the expiration of the 60-day period and shall seek recovery of the costs of that securing and posting from the property owner. If the site is an abandoned site, as defined in Section 25359.6, and if the site cannot be traced to a specific owner or if the owner has been declared bankrupt, the department or the county health officer shall secure and post the site pursuant to subdivision (b).

(e) The department shall, on or before January 30, 1985, review and issue orders to fence and post, as required by this section, any site where the department already has performed a preliminary site assessment.

(f) The department or the county health officer shall advise other agencies on the public health risks and the need for fencing and posting of sites when those agencies confirm the release of a hazardous substance pursuant to subdivision (a).

(g) The remedies and penalties specified in this section and Section 25359.6 are in addition to, and do not affect, any other remedies, enforcement actions, requirements, or penalties otherwise authorized by law.

SEC. 2. Section 25359.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25359.6. (a) The director shall notify, within 20 working days, each of the appropriate county health officers as to all the potential abandoned sites of which the department has knowledge or which the department is investigating for releases of hazardous substances that may have occurred or might be occurring at abandoned sites. The county health officers may request quarterly updates on the status of the investigations of these sites.

As used in this section, "abandoned site" means an inactive disposal, treatment, or storage facility which cannot, with reasonable effort, be traced to a specific owner, a site whose owner has been determined bankrupt, or a location where a hazardous substance has been illegally disposed.

(b) Within 10 working days of the identification of an abandoned site, the department or a county health officer shall notify the other agency of the status of the site. The department and the county health officer shall inform the other agency of orders to fence and post these sites and the status of compliance with those orders. The department or the county health officers may request quarterly updates of the testing, enforcement action, and remedial or removal actions that are proposed or ongoing.

SEC. 2.5. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by the provisions of this act relating to criminal or civil penalties pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because those provisions create a new crime or infraction, change the definition of a crime or infraction, change the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminate a crime or infraction.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 429.11 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

429.11. The State Department of Health Services shall maintain a program on occupational health and occupational disease prevention including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Investigations into the causes of morbidity and mortality from work-induced diseases.

(b) Development of recommendations for improved control of work-induced diseases.

(c) Maintenance of a thorough knowledge of the effects of

Whenever the repository identifies data gaps for any chemical regulated by the California Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1973, the State Department of Health Services shall notify the Division of Occupational Safety and Health of the Department of Industrial Relations of its finding.

The repository maintained pursuant to this section and Section 147.2 of the Labor Code shall contain the report issued pursuant to Section 24303.5. Whenever a request for toxicity information is received concerning a chemical discussed in that report, the state department shall notify the requester of the nature and extent of any data gaps identified in the report with respect to that chemical. Whenever the repository receives a request about toxicity information on any other chemical, in addition to providing available information about the known toxic effects of exposure to the chemical, the repository shall also notify the requester of a determination by any state agency or federal agency that the chronic health effects testing data on the chemical is inadequate or incomplete. State agencies which maintain information on the toxic effects of chemicals shall provide the repository with access to that information.

SEC. 2. Section 429.11 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

429.11. The State Department of Health Services shall maintain a program on occupational health and occupational disease prevention including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Investigations into the causes of morbidity and mortality from work-induced diseases.

(b) Development of recommendations for improved control of work-induced diseases.

(c) Maintenance of a thorough knowledge of the effects of industrial chemicals and work practices on the health of California workers.

(d) Provision of technical assistance in matters of occupational disease prevention and control to the Department of Industrial Relations and other governmental and nongovernmental agencies, organizations, and private individuals.

(e) Collection and summarization of statistics describing the causes and prevalence of work-induced diseases in California.

The functions provided for above are intended to implement within the department a continuing research and development capability and a repository of hazardous substances capability which will reinforce and strengthen the administration of the California Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1973, Part 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Division 5 of the Labor Code, including the capability to recommend occupational health standards to the California Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board. Whenever the repository identifies data gaps for any chemical regulated by the California Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1973, the State Department of Health Services shall notify the Division of Occupational Safety and Health of the Department of Industrial Relations of its finding.

The repository maintained pursuant to this section and Section 147.2 of the Labor Code shall contain the report issued pursuant to Sections 13124 and 13125 of the Food and Agricultural Code. Whenever a request for toxicity information is received concerning a chemical discussed in that report, the state department shall notify the requestor of the nature and extent of any data gaps identified in the report with respect to that chemical. Whenever the repository receives a request about toxicity information on any other chemical, in addition to providing available information about the known toxic effects of exposure to the chemical, the repository shall also notify the requester of a determination by any state agency or federal agency that the chronic health effects testing data on the chemical is inadequate or incomplete. State agencies which maintain information on the toxic effects of chemicals shall provide the repository with access to that information.

SEC 3. Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if Senate Bill No. 950 of the 1983–84 Regular Session of the Legislature is chaptered and becomes operative and adds Sections 13124 and 13125 to the Food and Agricultural Code relating to reports of pesticide ingredients by the Department of Food and Agriculture, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

An act to add Section 33420.5 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33420.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33420.5. Within a project area, an agency may take any actions which the agency determines are necessary and which are consistent with other state and federal laws to remedy or remove hazardous waste from property if the agency obtains written approval from the State Department of Health Services prior to taking that action. In addition, if methane or landfill gas is present, the agency shall also obtain written approval from the California Waste Management Board prior to taking that action.

The terms "remove," "remedy," and "hazardous waste," as used in this section, have the same meaning given those terms by Sections 25323, 25322, and 25117, respectively.

Article 2.5. Administrative Civil Liability

13323. (a) Any executive officer of a regional board may issue a complaint to any person on whom administrative civil liability may be imposed pursuant to this article. The complaint shall allege the act or failure to act that constitutes a violation of law, the provision of law authorizing civil liability to be imposed pursuant to this article, and the proposed civil liability.

(b) The complaint shall be served by personal notice or certified mail, and shall inform the party so served that a hearing shall be conducted within 60 days after the party has been served. The hearing shall be before a panel of the regional board, consisting of three or more members of the regional board as it may specify, or before the regional board. The complainant may waive the right to a hearing, in which case the regional board shall not conduct a hearing.

(c) After any hearing, the panel shall report its proposed decision and order to the regional board and shall at the time it reports its decision to the regional board supply a copy to the party served with the complaint, the party issuing the complaint, and any other person requesting a copy. Members of the panel may sit as members of the board in deciding the matter. The regional board, after making an independent review of the record and taking such additional evidence as may be necessary and could not reasonably have been offered before the hearing panel, may adopt, with or without revision, the proposed decision and order of the panel.

(d) Orders setting administrative civil liability shall become effective and final upon issuance thereof, and payment shall be made within 30 days. Copies of these orders shall be served by personal service or by registered mail upon the party served with the complaint and upon other persons who appeared at the hearing and requested a copy.

13324. (a) Within 30 days of the issuance of any order under Section 13323, any aggrieved party may petition the state board for review of the order, or the state board may grant review on its own motion. If no person petitions for review within the time limits set by this section, the order shall not be subject to review by any court or agency, except that the state board may grant review on its own motion after the expiration of the time limits set forth in this subdivision.

(b) If the state board grants review of the order of the regional board, the record before the state board shall consist of the record before the regional board, and any other relevant evidence which, in the judgment of the state board, should be considered to effectuate and implement the policies of this division.

(c) The state board may affirm, modify, or set aside, in whole or in part, any order of the regional board reviewed pursuant to this section.

(d) Any order of the state board issued under this section shall become effective and final upon issuance thereof, and payment shall be made within 30 days. Copies of any order shall be served by personal service or by registered mail upon the party served with the complaint, the party issuing the complaint, and any other person who appeared at the hearing and requested a copy.

13325. Any party aggrieved by a final order issued by the state board under Section 13324 after granting review of a regional board order may obtain review of the order of the state board in the superior court by filing in the court a petition for writ of mandate within 30 days following the issuance of the order by the state board. Any party aggrieved by a final order of a regional board issued under Section 13323 for which the state board denies review may obtain review of the order of the regional board in the superior court by filing in the court a petition of writ of mandate within 30 days following the denial of review by the state board. If no aggrieved party petitions for writ of mandate within the time provided by this section, an order of the state board or a regional board shall not be subject to review by any court or agency, except that the state board may grant review on its own motion of an order issued under Section 13323 after the expiration of the time limits set by the section.

13326. No person shall be subject to both civil liability imposed under this article and civil liability imposed by the superior court under Articles 5 (commencing with Section 13350) and 6 (commencing with Section 13360) for the same act or failure to act.

13327. In determining the amount of civil liability, the regional board, and the state board upon review of any order pursuant to Section 13324, shall take into consideration the nature, circumstance, extent, and gravity of the violation or violations, whether the discharge is susceptible to cleanup or abatement, and, with respect to the violator, the ability to pay, the effect on ability to continue in business, any voluntary cleanup efforts undertaken, any prior history of violations, the degree of culpability, economic savings, if any, resulting from the violation, and such other matters as justice may require.

SEC. 5. Section 13350 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13350. (a) Any person who (1) intentionally or negligently violates any cease and desist order or cleanup and abatement order hereafter issued, reissued, or amended by a regional board or the state board, or (2) in violation of any waste discharge requirement or other order or prohibition issued, reissued, or amended by a regional board or the state board, intentionally or negligently discharges waste, or causes or permits waste to be deposited where it is discharged, into the waters of the state and creates a condition of pollution or nuisance, or (3) causes or permits any oil or any residuary product of petroleum to be deposited in or on any of the waters of the state, except in accordance with waste discharge requirements or other provisions of this division, may be liable civilly in accordance with subdivision (d), (e), or (f).

(b) Any person who, without regard to intent or negligence, causes or permits any hazardous substance to be discharged in or on any of the waters of the state where it creates a condition of pollution or nuisance, except in accordance with waste discharge requirements or other provisions of this division, shall be strictly liable civilly in accordance with subdivision (d), (e), or (f).

For purposes of this subdivision, the term "discharge" includes only those discharges for which Section 13260 directs that a report of waste discharge shall be filed with the regional board.

For purposes of this subdivision, the term "discharge" does not include any emission excluded from the applicability of Section 311 of the Clean Water Act (33 U.S.C. Section 1251 et seq.) pursuant to Environmental Protection Agency regulations interpreting Section 311(a)(2) of the Clean Water Act.

(c) There shall be no liability under subdivision (b) if the discharge is caused solely by any one or combination of the following:

(1) An act of war.

(2) An unanticipated grave natural disaster or other natural phenomenon of an exceptional, inevitable, and irresistible character, the effects of which could not have been prevented or avoided by the exercise of due care or foresight.

(3) Negligence on the part of the state, the United States, or any department or agency thereof; provided, that this paragraph shall not be interpreted to provide the state, the United States, or any department or agency thereof a defense to liability for any discharge caused by its own negligence.

(4) An intentional act of a third party, the effects of which could not have been prevented or avoided by the exercise of due care or foresight.

(5) Any other circumstance or event which causes the discharge despite the exercise of every reasonable precaution to prevent or mitigate the discharge.

(d) When there is a discharge, and a cleanup and abatement order is issued pursuant to Section 13304, liability shall be imposed as follows:

(1) Civil liability may be administratively imposed by a regional board pursuant to Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 13323) for a violation of this section in an amount which shall not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each day in which the discharge occurs and for each day the cleanup and abatement order is violated.

(2) Civil liability may be imposed by the superior court in accordance with this article and Article 6 (commencing with Section 13360) for a violation of this section in an amount which shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for each day in which the discharge occurs and for each day the cleanup and abatement order is violated.

(e) When there is a discharge, and a cleanup and abatement order is not issued pursuant to Section 13304, liability shall be imposed as follows:

(1) Civil liability may be administratively imposed by a regional board in accordance with Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 13323) for a violation of this section in an amount which shall not exceed ten dollars ($10) for each gallon of waste discharged.

(2) Civil liability may be imposed by the superior court in accordance with this article and Article 6 (commencing with Section 13360) for a violation of this section in an amount which shall not exceed twenty dollars ($20) for each gallon of waste discharged.

(1) Civil liability may be administratively imposed by a regional board in accordance with Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 13323) for a violation of this section in an amount which shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day in which the violation occurs.

(g) The Attorney General, upon request of a regional board or the state board, shall petition the superior court to impose, assess, and recover such sums. Except in the case of a violation of a cease and desist order, a regional board or the state board shall make such request only after a hearing, with due notice of the hearing given to all affected persons. In determining such amount, the court shall take into consideration all relevant circumstances, including, but not limited to, the extent of harm caused by the violation, the nature and persistence of the violation, the length of time over which the violation occurs, and corrective action, if any, taken by the discharger.

(h) The provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 13330) and Article 6 (commencing with Section 13360) of this chapter shall apply to proceedings to impose, assess, and recover an amount pursuant to this article.

(i) Any person who pays any liability established under this section shall be entitled to contribution for such liability from any third party, in an action in the superior court and upon proof that the discharge was caused in whole or in part by an act or omission of the third party, to the extent that the discharge is caused by the act or omission of the third party, in accordance with the principles of comparative fault.

(j) Remedies under this section are in addition to, and do not supersede or limit, any and all other remedies, civil or criminal; provided that no liability shall be recoverable under subdivision (b) for any discharge for which liability is recovered under Section 13385.

SEC. 6. Section 13351 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13351. In determining the amount of civil liability to be imposed pursuant to this chapter, the superior court shall take into consideration the nature, circumstance, extent, and gravity of the violation or violations, whether the discharge is susceptible to cleanup or abatement, and, with respect to the violator, the ability to pay, the effect on ability to continue in business, any voluntary cleanup efforts undertaken, any prior history of violations, the degree of culpability, economic savings, if any, resulting from the violation, and such other matters as justice may require.

SEC. 7. Section 13385 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13385. (a) Any person who discharges pollutants or dredged or fill material, except as permitted by waste discharge requirements or a dredged or fill material permit, or who violates any cease and desist order or cleanup and abatement order, prohibition, waste discharge requirement, dredged or fill material permit, effluent limitation, water quality related effluent limitation, national standard of performance, pretreatment or toxicity standard or who refuses to comply with the requirements adopted pursuant to Section 13382 shall be subject to a civil penalty which shall be determined as follows:

(1) When there is a discharge, and a cleanup and abatement order is issued pursuant to Section 13304, the amount of liability shall be a sum not more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for each day in which the discharge occurs and for each day the cleanup and abatement order is violated.

(2) When there is a discharge, and a cleanup and abatement order is not issued, the amount of liability shall be a sum equal to not more than twenty dollars ($20) for each gallon of waste discharged.

(3) When there is no discharge, but an order of the regional board is violated, the amount of liability shall be a sum not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each day in which the violation occurs.

(b) Funds collected shall be paid to the State Water Pollution Cleanup and Abatement Account.

SEC. 8. Section 13387 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13387. (a) Any person who willfully or negligently discharges pollutants or dredged or fill material, except as allowed by waste discharge requirements or dredged or fill material permits, or who willfully or negligently violates any effluent standard, water quality related effluent standard, national standard of performance, toxicity or pretreatment standard, or who refuses to comply with the requirements adopted pursuant to Section 13382, or who violates any cease and desist order, prohibition, or waste discharge requirement shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) nor less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each day in which such violation occurs, or by imprisonment for not more than one year in the county jail, or by both. If the conviction is for a violation committed after a first conviction of such person under this section, punishment shall be by a fine of not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for each day in which such violation occurs, or by imprisonment for not more than two years in the county jail, or both. Funds collected shall be paid to the State Water Pollution Cleanup and Abatement Account.

(b) Any person who knowingly makes any false statement, representation, record, report, plan or other document filed with a regional board or the state board, or who falsifies, tampers with, or knowingly renders inaccurate any monitoring device or method required under this division shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than six months, or by both.

SEC. 9. Section 13523.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13523.5. A regional board may not deny issuance of water reclamation requirements to a project which violates only a salinity standard in the basin plan.

SEC. 10. Civil penalties shall not be imposed upon any water reclamation project violating only a salinity standard.

CHAPTER 1542

An act to add Section 13370.5 to the Water Code, relating to water quality, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13370.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13370.5. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that, since the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. Sec. 1251 et seq.), as amended, and applicable federal regulations (40 C.F.R. 403 et seq.) provide for a pretreatment program to regulate the discharge of pollutants into publicly owned treatment works and provide that states with approved national pollutant discharge elimination system (NPDES) permit programs shall apply for approval of a state pretreatment program, it is in the interest of the people of the state to enact this section in order to avoid direct regulation by the federal government of publicly owned treatment works already subject to regulation under state law pursuant to this division.

(b) The state board shall develop a state pretreatment program and shall, not later than September 1, 1985, apply to the Environmental Protection Agency for approval of the pretreatment program in accordance with federal requirements.

SEC. 2. The sum of two hundred seventy thousand dollars ($270,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Water Resources Control Board for the purposes of the pretreatment program set forth in Section 1 of this act.

An act to add Section 25122.7 to, and to add Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 25208) to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25122.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25122.7. "Restricted hazardous waste" means either of the following:

(a) Any hazardous waste which contains any of the following substances, in the following concentrations, as determined without considering any dilution which may occur, unless the dilution is a normal part of a manufacturing process:

(1) Liquid hazardous wastes containing free cyanides at concentrations greater than, or equal to, 1,000 milligrams per liter.

(2) Liquid hazardous wastes containing any of the following metals or elements, or compounds of these metals or elements, at concentrations greater than, or equal to, any of the following:

Arsenic	500 milligrams per liter
Cadmium	100 milligrams per liter
Chromium (VI)	500 milligrams per liter
Lead	500 milligrams per liter
Mercury	20 milligrams per liter
Nickel	134 milligrams per liter
Selenium	100 milligrams per liter
Thallium	130 milligrams per liter

(3) Liquid hazardous wastes having a pH less than or equal to two.

(4) Liquid hazardous wastes containing polychlorinated biphenyls at concentrations greater than, or equal to, 50 milligrams per liter.

(5) Hazardous wastes containing halogenated organic compounds in total concentration greater than, or equal to, 1,000 milligrams per kilogram.

(b) Any hazardous waste designated by the department as a restricted hazardous waste because of its toxicity, mobility, or persistence in a land disposal environment, or its ability to accumulate in plants or animals.

SEC. 2. Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 25208) is added to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 9.5. Surface Impoundments

25208. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Toxic Pits Cleanup Act of 1984.

25208.1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) Discharges of liquid hazardous wastes or hazardous wastes containing free liquids into lined or unlined ponds, pits, and lagoons pose a serious threat to the quality of the waters of the state.

(b) Recent reports indicate that hazardous waste contamination from surface impoundments is migrating to domestic drinking water supplies and threatening the continued beneficial uses of the state's ground and surface waters, air, and environment.

(c) Under the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.), and under state regulations, the storage of hazardous wastes in existing ponds has not been required to meet the same requirements as new impoundments, such as double liners, leachate collection, and leak detection.

(d) Recent studies have found that synthetic liners, clay liners, and combinations, including clay and synthetic liners, impede, but do not eliminate, leachate from surface impoundments migrating into the surrounding environment.

(e) It is in the public interest to establish a continuing program for the purpose of preventing contamination from, and improper storage, treatment, and disposal of, liquid hazardous wastes or hazardous wastes containing free liquids in surface impoundments. It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this article, to establish a program that will ensure that existing surface impoundments are either made safe or are closed, so that they do not contaminate the air or waters of the state, and so that the health, property, and resources of the people of the state are protected.

25208.2. For purposes of this article, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Active life of the facility" means that period of time when the facility has the potential to adversely affect the waters of the state, but if the owner enters into an agreement with the board to properly close the impoundment on a specified date, the active life of the facility means that period of time up to that specified date.

(b) "Background water quality" means the level of concentration of indicator parameters in groundwater that is not, or has not been, affected by any hazardous waste, hazardous waste constitutent, or hazardous waste leachate emanating from a particular waste management unit.

(c) "Board" or "state board" means the State Water Resources Control Board.

(d) "Close the impoundment" means the permanent termination of all hazardous waste discharge operations at a waste management unit and any operations necessary to prepare that waste management unit for postclosure maintenance which are conducted pursuant to the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.), and the regulations adopted by the state board and the department concerning the closure of surface impoundments.

(e) "Constituent" means an element, chemical compound, or mixture of compounds which is a component of a hazardous waste or leachate and which has the physical or chemical properties that cause the waste to be identified as hazardous waste by the department.

(f) "Discharge" means to place, dispose of, or store liquid hazardous wastes or hazardous wastes containing free liquids into or in a surface impoundment owned or operated by the person who is conducting the placing, disposal, or storage.

(g) "Emergency containment dike" means a berm which is located around a tank solely for the purpose of containing any emergency spills from the tank and which does not contain any liquid hazardous waste or hazardous wastes containing free liquids for longer than 48 hours.

(h) "Facility" means the structures, appurtenances, and improvements on the land, and all contiguous land, which are used for treating, storing, or disposing of hazardous waste. A facility may consist of several waste management units.

(i) "Free liquids" means liquids which readily separate from the solid portion of a hazardous waste under ambient temperature and pressure.

(j) "Groundwater" means water below the land surface in a zone of saturation.

(k) "Hazardous waste" means a waste that is a hazardous waste, as specified in this chapter.

(l) "Indicator parameters" means the measureable physical or chemical characteristics in groundwater or soil-pore moisture which are likely to be affected by hazardous waste disposal operations and which are used, for comparison purposes, to assess the result of hazardous waste disposal operations at a particular waste management unit on the waters of the state.

(m) "Landfill" means a facility or part of a facility where hazardous waste is placed in or on land for disposal and which is not a land farm, surface impoundment, or an injection well.

(n) "Leachate" means any fluid, including any constituents in the liquid, that has percolated through, migrated from, or drained from, a hazardous waste management unit.

(o) "Owner" means a person who owns a facility or part of a facility.

(p) "Perched water" means a localized body of groundwater that overlies, and is hydraulically separated from, an underlying body of groundwater.

(q) "pH" means a measure of a sample's acidity expressed as a negative logarithm of the hydrogen ion concentration.

(r) "Pile" means any noncontainerized accumulation of solid, nonflowing hazardous waste which is used for the purpose of treatment or storage.

(s) "Potential source of drinking water" means either water which is identified or designated in a water quality control plan adopted by a regional board as being suitable for domestic or municipal uses and which is potable, or water which is located in water-bearing strata which is an underground source of drinking water, as defined in Section 146.3 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and which is not an exempted acquifer, as defined in Section 146.4 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(t) "Qualified person" means a person who has at least five years of full-time experience in hydrogeology and who is a certified engineering geologist certified pursuant to Section 7842 of the Business and Professions Code, a registered geologist registered pursuant to Section 7850 of the Business and Professions Code, or a registered civil engineer registered pursuant to Section 6762 of the Business and Professions Code. "Full-time experience" in hydrogeology may include a combination of postgraduate studies in hydrogeology and work experience, with each year of postgraduate work counted as one year of full-time work experience, except that not more than three years of postgraduate studies may be counted as full-time experience.

(u) "Regional board" means the California regional water quality control board for the region in which the surface impoundment is located.

(v) "Report" means the hydrogeological assessment report specified in Section 25208.8.

(w) "Surface impoundment" or "impoundment" means a waste management unit or part of a waste management unit which is a natural topographic depression, artificial excavation, or diked area formed primarily of earthen materials, although it may be lined with artificial materials, which is designed to hold an accumulation of liquid hazardous wastes or hazardous wastes containing free liquids, including, but not limited to, holding, storage, settling, or aeration pits, evaporation ponds, percolation ponds, other ponds, and lagoons. Surface impoundment does not include a landfill, a land farm, a pile, emergency containment dike, tank, or an injection well.

(x) "Tank" means a stationary device, designed to contain an accumulation of hazardous waste, which is constructed primarily of nonearthen materials such as fiberglass, steel, or plastic to provide structural support, and which has been issued a permit pursuant to Section 25283.

(y) "Vadose zone" means the zone between the land surface and the water table.

(z) "Waste management unit" means that portion of a facility used for the discharge of hazardous waste into or onto land, including all containment and monitoring equipment associated with that portion of the facility.

25208.3. (a) On or before July 1, 1985, the state board shall, by emergency regulation, adopt a fee schedule which assesses a fee upon any person discharging any liquid hazardous wastes or hazardous wastes containing free liquids into a surface impoundment. The state board shall include in this fee schedule the fees charged for applications for, and renewals of, an exemption from Section 25208.5, as specified in subdivision (h) of Section 25208.5, from subdivision (a) of Section 25208.4, as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25208.4, and from Sections 25208.4 and 25208.5, as specified in subdivision (e) of Section 25208.13. The state board shall also include provisions in the fee schedule for assessing a penalty pursuant to subdivision (c). The state board shall set these fees at an amount equal to the state board's and regional board's reasonable and anticipated costs of administering this article.

(b) The emergency regulations which set the fee schedule shall be adopted by the state board in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and for the purposes of that chapter, including Section 11349.6 of the Government Code, the adoption of these regulations is an emergency and shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law as necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and general welfare. Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, any emergency regulations adopted by the state board pursuant to this section shall be filed with, but not be repealed by, the Office of Administrative Law and shall remain in effect until revised by the state board.

(c) The state board shall send a notice to each person subject to the fee specified in subdivision (a). If a person fails to pay the fee within 60 days after receipt of this notice, the state board shall require the person to pay an additional penalty fee. The state board shall set the penalty fee at not more than 100 percent of the assessed fee, but in an amount sufficient to deter future noncompliance, as based upon that person's past history of compliance and ability to pay, and upon additional expenses incurred by this noncompliance.

(d) The state board shall collect and deposit the fees collected pursuant to this section in the Surface Impoundment Assessment Account, which is hereby created in the General Fund. The money within the Surface Impoundment Assessment Account is available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to the state board and the regional boards for purposes of administering this article.

25208.4. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, unless granted an exemption pursuant to subdivision (b) or Section 25208.13, a person shall not discharge liquid hazardous wastes or hazardous wastes containing free liquids into a surface impoundment after June 30, 1988, if the surface impoundment, or the land immediately beneath it, contains hazardous wastes and is within one-half mile upgradient from a potential source of drinking water.

A person who owns a surface impoundment which meets the conditions specified in this subdivision shall close the impoundment.

(b) A person may apply to a regional board to exempt a surface impoundment from subdivision (a) pursuant to this subdivision. A person shall submit the application for exemption to the regional board on or before January 1, 1986.

(1) A regional board shall either grant or deny an exemption from subdivision (a) on or before December 31, 1987. A regional board may grant an exemption from subdivision (a) only if the regional board makes both of the following findings:

(A) No extremely hazardous wastes are currently being discharged into the surface impoundment, and either one of the following applies:

(i) The records of the person applying for an exemption indicate that no extremely hazardous wastes have been discharged into the surface impoundment.

(ii) Extremely hazardous wastes are not present in the surface impoundment, in the vados zone, or in the waters of the state.

(B) The surface impoundment is in compliance with Section 25208.5, and a report has been filed pursuant to Section 25208.8.

(2) An exemption granted pursuant to this subdivision shall not be effective for more than five years. Applications for an exemption or a renewal of an exemption shall be accompanied by the fee specified in the fee schedule adopted by the state board pursuant to Section 25208.3. A regional board shall not renew the exemption unless the regional board makes both of the following findings:

(A) No hazardous waste constituents have migrated from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute the vadose zone, or pollute, or threaten to pollute, the waters of the state.

(B) Continuing the operation of the surface impoundment does not pose a significant potential of hazardous waste constituents migrating from the surface impoundments in the vadose zone or the waters of the state, thus polluting the vadose zone, or polluting, or threatening to pollute, these waters.

(3) Except as provided in paragraph (4), the regional board shall revoke an exemption granted pursuant to this subdivision and require the person granted the exemption to comply with subdivision (a) if the regional board determines that the surface impoundment granted the exemption is polluting, or threating to pollute, the waters of the state or that hazardous waste constituents are migrating from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute these waters. The regional board shall also issue a cease and desist order pursuant to Section 13301 of the Water Code and require appropriate removal and remedial actions by the person granted the exemption, or the responsible parties to clean up any pollution which may have occurred.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (3), a regional board may continue in effect an exemption granted pursuant to this subdivision if the regional board orders the person to double line the surface impoundment, equip the surface impoundment with a leachate collection system, and conduct groundwater monitoring, as specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25208.5, within one year after granting this continuance, and if the regional board makes all of the following findings:

(A) The surface impoundment granted the exemption has hazardous waste constituents, in concentrations which threaten to pollute the waters of the state, which are migrating from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone, but no hazardous waste constituents have migrated into the waters of the state.

(B) Installing double liners and a leachate collection system and conducting groundwater monitoring, as specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25208.5, will abate the threat to the waters of the state before any hazardous waste constituents migrate to the waters.

(C) All removal and remedial actions necessary to abate the threat specified in subparagraph (A) can be completed prior to the migration of any hazardous waste constituents into the waters of the state.

(5) Notwithstanding paragraph (4), the regional board shall revoke the exemption continued pursuant to paragraph (4) and shall require the person granted this continuance to comply with subdivision (a) if the regional board determines either of the following:

(A) The surface impoundment is polluting the waters of the state or that hazardous waste constituents are migrating from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute, or threaten to pollute, these waters.

(B) The person does not comply with the board's order or conduct the necessary removal or remedial actions, as required by paragraph (4).

The regional board shall also issue a cease and desist order pursuant to Section 13301 of the Water Code and require appropriate removal and remedial actions by the person granted the exemption, or the responsible parties, to clean up any pollution which may have occurred, upon making either of these determinations.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person shall not do either of the following, unless the person is granted an exemption pursuant to Section 25208.13, or unless the restricted hazardous waste is discharged into a surface impoundment which is located in a region exempted pursuant to subdivision (d) by the department:

(1) On or after January 1, 1985, discharge restricted hazardous wastes containing cyanide wastes or polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) into a surface impoundment.

(2) On or after July 1, 1985, discharge any restricted hazardous waste, not otherwise specified in paragraph (1), into a surface impoundment.

(d) The department may, by regulation, exempt, for a limited period of time, a particular category of restricted hazardous wastes which are being discharged into a surface impoundment located in a region of the state from the requirements of subdivision (c), if the department determines that a recycling or treatment process, which does not involve a discharge of restricted wastes into a surface impoundment, will not be available to recycle or treat substantially all of that category of restricted hazardous wastes in that region. If the department determines that a category of restricted hazardous wastes in a region should be exempted from the requirements specified in subdivision (c), the department shall determine the date when a recycling or treatment process in the region will become available and shall specify this as the date by which, in that region, the category of restricted hazardous waste shall then become subject to these requirements. The department shall, upon granting an exemption, submit a report to the Legislature that explains the reasons for the exemption and specifies the date when the restricted hazardous waste will be subject to the requirements specified in subdivision (c).

(b) Until the regulations and guidance documents specified in subdivision (a) relating to double liners for surface impoundments go into effect, the requirement of installing double liners in subdivision (a) may be satisfied by installing a top liner which is designed, operated, and constructed of materials to prevent the migration of any constituents into the top liner during the period the facility remains in operation, including any postclosure monitoring period, and by installing a lower liner which is designed, operated, and constructed to prevent the migration of any constituents through the lower liner during the same period, and is constructed of at least a three-foot thick layer of recompacted clay or other natural materials which have a permeability of not more than 1×10^{-7} centimeter per second.

(c) A person may apply for an exemption from subdivision (a) for a surface impoundment for which construction had begun on or before July 1, 1984, and which was issued waste discharge requirements by filing an application with the regional board on or before January 1, 1986. The initial application for exemption shall include a completed hydrogeological assessment report which contains the accurate data and documentation specified in Section 25208.8. An application for renewal of an exemption shall include the report only if required by the regional board. If the regional board has not granted the exemption by June 30, 1988, the person shall then comply with the requirements specified in subdivision (a), except that if the regional board denies the application for exemption but determines that a reasonable person would have applied for an exemption, the regional board may temporarily exempt the applicant from subdivision (a), for up to one year from the date of the denial of the exemption, for the sole purpose of bringing the surface impoundment into compliance with subdivision (a).

(d) The regional board may grant an exemption upon reviewing the application and making all of the following findings:

(1) The applicant has fully complied with subdivision (c).

(2) No hazardous waste constituents have migrated from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the waters of the state.

(3) Continuing the operation of the surface impoundment without the requirements specified in subdivision (a) does not pose a significant potential of hazardous waste constituents migrating from the surface impoundments into the vadose zone or the waters of the state, in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the waters of the state.

(e) If the regional board grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (d), the regional board shall revise the waste discharge requirements prescribed pursuant to Section 13263 of the Water Code for that surface impoundment based upon a review of the report and shall include conditions in the waste discharge requirements to ensure that the waters of the state will not be threatened with pollution or polluted.

(f) An exemption granted pursuant to subdivision (d) or (g) shall not be effective for more than five years. A regional board shall not renew the exemption unless the regional board makes the findings specified in subdivision (d).

(g) If a regional board does not take any action by June 30, 1988, on a completed application for an exemption that was filed on or before January 1, 1986, the person who filed the application may file a request with the state board on or before July 31, 1988, to review the application. The state board shall deny or grant the exemption pursuant to the findings specified in subdivision (d) within four months after the request for review is filed, and, if the board grants the exemption, the state board shall revise the waste discharge requirements pursuant to subdivision (e). An exemption granted pursuant to this subdivision is subject to the requirements specified in subdivision (f). The state board shall act on an application for exemption on or before November 30, 1988. A person who files a request for a review of an application with the state board is exempt from subdivision (a) until the state board acts on the application, and, if the state board denies the exemption, the applicant is exempt from subdivision (a) for one year from the date of the denial of the exemption for the sole purpose of bringing the surface impoundment into compliance with subdivision (a).

(h) Applications for an exemption or a renewal of an exemption shall be accompanied by the fee specified in the fee schedule adopted by the state board pursuant to Section 25208.3.

25208.6. When a regional board determines that a surface impoundment is polluting, or threatens to pollute, the waters of the state or that hazardous waste constituents are migrating from that surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state, in concentrations which pollute the vadose zone, or pollute, or threaten to pollute, the waters of the state, the regional board shall either order the surface impoundment to close, if the regional board determines that requiring the installation of double liners and a leachate collection system and the conducting of groundwater monitoring, as specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25208.5, does not provide reasonable assurance of protection against future migration into the vadose zone or the waters of the state, or take both of the following actions:

(a) Issue a cease and desist order pursuant to Section 13301 of the Water Code prohibiting any discharge into the surface impoundment and require appropriate removal and remedial actions by the person or other responsible parties to clean up any pollution which may have occurred.

(b) Require the surface impoundment to comply with subdivision (a) of Section 25208.5. The regional board shall not grant an exemption for such a surface impoundment pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25208.5.

25208.7. (a) The regional board shall make at least one inspection per year of all facilities with surface impoundments, and shall regularly review monitoring data, as necessary, to ensure that all surface impoundments comply with this article and that any equipment or programs required pursuant to this article are operating properly.

(b) Each regional board shall establish a schedule and a notification system requiring the submission of reports to the regional board on or before January 1, 1988, by every person discharging liquid hazardous wastes or hazardous wastes containing free liquids into a surface impoundment located within the jurisdiction of the regional board. Any person discharging liquid hazardous wastes or hazardous wastes containing free liquids into a surface impoundment who receives this notice from the regional board shall submit a report to the regional board within the time specified in the notice, except that if the person has filed a report with an application for exemption, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25208.5, the regional board shall not require the person to file a report.

25208.8. A person who receives a notice from a regional board, pursuant to Section 25208.7, or who files an application for an exemption pursuant to Section 25208.5 or 25208.13, shall submit a hydrogeological assessment report to the regional board. A qualified person shall be responsible for the preparation of the report and shall certify its completeness and accuracy. The report shall contain, for each surface impoundment, any information required by the state board or the regional board, and all of the following information:

(a) A description of the surface impoundment, including its physical characteristics, its age, the presence or absence of a liner, a description of the liner, the liner's compatibility with the hazardous wastes discharged to the impoundment, and the design specifications of the impoundment.

(b) A description of the volume and concentration of hazardous waste constituents placed in the surface impoundment, based on a representative chemical analysis of the specific hazardous waste type and accounting for variance in hazardous waste constituents over time.

(c) A map showing the distances, within the facility, to the nearest surface water bodies and springs, and the distances, within one mile from the facility's perimeter, to the nearest surface water bodies and springs.

(d) Tabular data for each surface water body and spring shown on the map specified in subdivision (c) which indicate its flow and a representative water analysis. The report shall include an evaluation and characterization of seasonal changes and, if substantive changes result from season to season, the tabular data shall reflect these seasonal changes.

(e) A map showing the location of all wells within the facility and the locations of all wells within one mile of the facility's perimeter. The report shall include, for each well, a description of the present use of the well, a representative water analysis from the well, and, when possible, the water well driller's report or well log.

(f) An analysis of the vertical and lateral extent of the perched water and water-bearing strata which could be affected by leachate from the surface impoundment, and the confining beds under and adjacent to the surface impoundment. This analysis shall include all of the following:

(1) Maps showing contours of equal elevation of the water surface for perched water, unconfined water, and confined groundwater required to be analyzed by this subdivision.

(2) An estimate of the groundwater flow, direction of the perched water, and all water-bearing strata on both the maps and the subsurface geologic cross sections.

(3) An estimate of the transmissivity, permeability, and storage coefficient for each perched zone of water and water-bearing strata identified on the maps specified in paragraph (1).

(4) A determination of the rate of groundwater flow.

(5) A determination of the water quality of each zone of the water-bearing strata and perched water which is identified on the maps specified in paragraph (1) and which is under, or adjacent to, the facility. This determination shall be conducted by taking samples either from upgradient of the surface impoundment or from another location which has not been affected by leakage from the surface impoundment.

(g) An indication as to whether the groundwater is contiguous with regional bodies of groundwater and the depth measured to the groundwater, including the depth measured to perched water and water-bearing strata identified on the maps specified in paragraph (1).

(h) The following climatological information:

(1) A map showing the contours for the mean annual long-term precipitation for the surrounding region within 10 miles of the surface impoundment.

(2) Calculations estimating the maximum 24-hour precipitation and maximum and minimum annual precipitation at the facility based upon direct measurement at the facility or upon measured values of precipitation from a nearby climatologically similar station.

(3) The projected volume and pattern of runoff for any streams which, in a 100-year interval, could effect the facility, including peak stream discharges associated with storm conditions.

(i) A description of the composition of the vadose zone beneath the surface impoundment. This description shall include a chemical and hydrogeological characterization of both the consolidated and unconsolidated rock material underlying the surface impoundment, and an analysis for pollutants, including those constituents discharged into the surface impoundment. This description shall also include soil moisture readings from a representative number of points around the surface impoundment's perimeter and at the maximum depth of the surface impoundment. The report shall arrange all monitoring data in a tabular form so that the data, the constituents, and the concentrations are readily discernible.

(j) A measurement of the chemical characteristics of the soil made by collecting a soil sample upgradient from the impoundment or from an area which has not been affected by seepage from the surface impoundment and which is in a hydrogeologic environment similar to the surface impoundment. The measurement shall be analyzed for the same pollutants analyzed pursuant to subdivision (i).

(k) A description of the existing monitoring being conducted to detect leachate, including vadose zone monitoring, the number and positioning of the monitoring wells, the monitoring wells' distances from the surface impoundment, the monitoring wells' design data, the monitoring wells' installation, the monitoring development procedures, the sampling methodology, the sampling frequency, the chemical constituents analyzed, and the analytical methodology. The design data of the monitoring wells shall include the monitoring wells' depth, the monitoring wells' diameters, the monitoring wells' casing materials, the perforated intervals within the well, the size of the perforations, the gradation of the filter pack, and the extent of the wells' annular seals.

(l) Documentation demonstrating that the monitoring system and methods used at the facility can detect any seepage before the hazardous waste constituents enter the waters of the state. This documentation shall include, but is not limited to, substantiation of each of the following:

(1) The monitor wells are located close enough to the surface impoundment to identify lateral and vertical migration of any constituents discharged to the impoundment.

(2) The monitoring wells are not located within the influence of any adjacent pumping wells which might impair their effectiveness.

(3) The monitor wells are only screened in the aquifer to be monitored.

(4) The chosen casing material does not interfere with, or react to, the potential contaminants of major concern at the facility.

(5) The casing diameter allows an adequate amount of water to be removed during sampling and allows full development of the monitor well.

(6) The annular seal prevents pollutants from migrating down the monitor well.

(7) The methods of water sample collection require that the sample is collected after at least five well volumes have been removed from the well and that the samples are transported and handled in accordance with the regulations adopted by the United States Geological Service (pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 31) of Title 43 of the United States Code) concerning the guidelines for collection and analysis of groundwater samples for selected unstable constituents.

(8) The hazardous waste constituents selected for analysis are specific to the facility, taking into account the chemical composition of hazardous wastes previously placed in the surface impoundment. The monitoring data shall be arranged in tabular form so that the date, the constituents, and the concentrations are readily discernible.

(9) The frequency of monitoring is sufficient to give timely warning of leachate so that remedial action can be taken prior to any adverse changes in the quality of the groundwater.

(10) A written statement from the qualified person preparing the report indicating whether any constituents have migrated into the vadose zone, surface water bodies, perched water, or water-bearing strata.

(11) A written statement from the qualified person preparing the report indicating whether any migration of leachate into the vadose zone, surface water bodies, perched water, or water-bearing strata is likely or not likely to occur within five years, and any evidence supporting that statement.

25208.9. (a) Notwithstanding Section 25189, any person who is required to file a hydrogeological assessment report with a regional board pursuant to Section 25208.7, and who fails to do so, shall be liable civilly in a sum of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each day the report has not been received.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 25189, any person who submits false information to the regional board shall be liable civilly in a sum of not less than two thousand dollars ($2,000) and not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each day the false information goes uncorrected.

(c) In determining the amount of civil liability imposed pursuant to this section, the court shall consider all relevant circumstances, including, but not limited to, the extent of harm or potential harm caused by the violation, the nature of the violation and the period of time over which it occurred, the frequency of past violations, and the corrective action, if any, taken by the person.

(d) A regional board shall submit any report which contains false information to the State Board for Geologists and Geophysicists for the purpose of disciplinary action pursuant to Section 7860 of the Business and Professions Code or to the State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors for the purpose of taking disciplinary action pursuant to Section 6775 of the Business and Professions Code, as appropriate.

25208.10. For purposes of performing the functions and duties provided for in this article, and because of the urgency in protecting the public, the state board and regional boards may, during the 1984–85 fiscal year, contract for temporary services necessary to implement this article.

25208.11. This article shall not be construed to limit or abridge the powers and duties granted to the department pursuant to this chapter or pursuant to Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) or to the state board or any regional board pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code.

25208.13. (a) If the state board adopts regulations specifically applicable to the discharge of mining wastes into a surface impoundment and if the regional board determines that certain mining wastes have generic properties so that the wastes do not pose a threat to the waters of the state, the regional board may exempt a surface impoundment into which these mining wastes are discharged from Sections 25208.4 and 25208.5, pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) A person may apply to a regional board authorized pursuant to subdivision (a) for an exemption from Sections 25208.4 or 25208.5, or from both sections, for a surface impoundment, into which mining wastes are discharged by filing an application with the regional board. If the surface impoundment was constructed before January 1, 1984, the person shall file the application with a regional board by January 1, 1986. The initial application for exemption shall include a completed hydrogeological assessment report which contains the accurate data and documentation specified in Section 25208.8. A regional board may grant the applicant an exemption from Section 25208.4 or 25208.5, or both, if the regional board makes both of the following findings:

(1) The applicant for the exemption has fully complied with all the applicable regulations adopted by the state board for mining waste.

(2) The surface impoundment does not pollute or threaten to pollute the waters of the state.

(c) If the regional board grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (b), the regional board shall revise the waste discharge requirements prescribed pursuant to Section 13263 of the Water Code for that surface impoundment based upon a review of the report and shall include conditions in the waste discharge requirement to ensure that the waters of the state will not be polluted or threatened with pollution. If the regional board does not grant the exemption within two years of the date of application, the applicant shall comply with the requirements specified in either Section 25208.4 or 25208.5, or with both sections, whichever is applicable, within three years from the initial date of application.

(d) An exemption granted pursuant to subdivision (b) shall not be effective for more than five years. A regional board shall not renew the exemption unless the regional board makes the findings specified in subdivision (b).

(e) Applications for an exemption or renewal of an exemption shall be accompanied by the fee specified in the fee schedule adopted by the state board pursuant to Section 25208.3.

(f) If a regional board determines that a surface impoundment granted an exemption pursuant to subdivision (b) is polluting the waters of the state, the regional board shall take all of the actions specified in Section 25208.6.

25208.14. Not later than January 1, 1987, the state board shall provide the Legislature with a report containing information regarding the number of applications for exemption which are filed pursuant to Sections 25208.4 and 25208.5. The state board shall include in this report a preliminary workplan detailing plans for implementation of this article.

The time limits set forth in this article are predicated upon the assumption that there will be not more than 300 applications filed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25208.4 and subdivision (c) of Section 25208.5. The time limits set forth in this article assume that there are, on the average, three surface impoundments per facility.

It is the intent of the Legislature that if it determines that there are more than 300 applications filed with regional boards with on the average, more than three surface impoundments for each facility, the Legislature will adjust the time limits specified in Sections 25208.4 and 25208.5.

The Legislature hereby recognizes that if there are more than 300 applications filed by January 1, 1986, with the regional boards, the time limits should be adjusted to ensure a thorough analysis of each application.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. Some of these costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district are because this act creates a new crime or infraction. As to other costs, it is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

An act to amend Section 14015 of, and to add Section 14132.7 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal benefits.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14015 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14015. The providing of health care under this chapter shall not impose any limitation or restriction upon the person's right to sell, exchange or change the form of property holdings nor shall the care provided constitute any encumbrance on the holdings. However, any transfer of the holdings by gift or, knowingly, without adequate and reasonable consideration, shall be presumed to constitute a gift of property with intent to qualify for assistance and such act shall disqualify the owner for further aid for a period determined under standards established by the director, and in no event for less than half of the period that the capital value of the transferred property would have supplied the person's maintenance needs based on his circumstances at the time of his transfer plus the cost of any needed medical care.

Any item of durable medical equipment which is purchased for a recipient pursuant to this chapter exclusively with Medi-Cal program funds shall be returned to the department when the department determines that the item is no longer medically necessary for the recipient. Items of durable equipment shall include, but are not limited to, wheelchairs and special hospital beds.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that heart transplant operations generally do not constitute surgery of an experimental nature.

SEC. 3. Section 14132.7 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1545

An act relating to military affairs, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the State Military Reserve performs essential functions in supporting of the California National Guard and by standing ready to assume the duties and functions of the National Guard within the state whenever the National Guard is called into federal service.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the State Military Reserve is a vital asset to the people of California and that it is necessary for the state to support and encourage the professionalism of this volunteer organization and to improve training and facilities so that the Reserve will always be ready to respond immediately whenever called upon in any natural disaster or civil emergency to protect and preserve the lives and property of the citizens of the state.

The Legislature further finds and declares that among the most immediate and urgent needs of the State Military Reserve are funds for the following uses and purposes:

(a) The costs of training programs, classes, and seminars, together with related expenses for meals and lodging for Reserve personnel.

(b) The costs of providing workers' compensation coverage for personnel while on training duties.

(c) Necessary uniforms for enlisted personnel.

(d) For the Aviation Brigade, necessary aircraft fuel and maintenance for training exercises.

(e) For the Medical Brigade, medical and related equipment and supplies.

(f) One full-time coordinator position and one full-time clerical position for the state headquarters of the Reserve.

(g) Administrative and office supplies and materials necessary for the efficient organization and operation of the Reserve.

It is, therefore, the intention of the Legislature in the enactment of this act that sufficient annual funding is provided in order to meet the essential materiel and support requirements of the State Military Reserve to enable the Reserve to maintain that condition of training and state of readiness as will enable it to respond whenever called upon.

SEC. 2. The sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Military Reserve for the 1984–85 fiscal year for expenditure upon approval of the Adjutant General for purposes of the State Military Reserve. It is the intent of the Legislature that this funding be continued at not less than this level of support in succeeding years through the annual budget for the Military Department.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide funding for the urgent requirements of the State Military Reserve commencing with the 1984–85 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act become effective immediately.

An act to add Article 11.5 (commencing with Section 25242) to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 11.5 (commencing with Section 25242) is added to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 11.5. Hazardous Waste Disposal on Public Land

25242. (a) Any city, county, or state agency which, as owner, lessor, or lessee, knows or has probable cause to believe that a disposal of hazardous waste which is not authorized pursuant to this chapter has occurred on, under, or into the land which the city, county, or state agency owns or leases shall notify the department. Upon receiving that notice, the department shall determine if there has been a disposal of hazardous waste which is not authorized pursuant to this chapter.

(b) If the department determines that there has been a disposal of hazardous waste which is not authorized pursuant to this chapter, the department shall do all of the following:

(1) Conduct, or arrange for the conducting of, tests to determine the general chemical and mineral composition of the hazardous waste.

(2) Require the city, county, or state agency which submitted the notice pursuant to subdivision (a) to prepare a hazardous waste management plan specifying those removal or remedial actions, as defined in Sections 25322 and 25323, which are needed to be taken concerning the hazardous waste. The hazardous waste management plan shall provide for the protection of human health and the environment and minimize or eliminate the escape of hazardous waste constituents, leachate, contaminated rainfall, and waste decomposition products into ground and surface waters and into the atmosphere.

(3) Send notice of the department's findings made pursuant to paragraph (1) to the county in which the land is located, the city, if any, in which the land is located, the owner of the property, and residents living within 2,000 feet of the property line of the land on which the hazardous wastes were disposed. The department shall also post signs in the vicinity of the land which contain this information and are visible to the public. The department may also provide this notice to other persons, or post these signs in any other area, to protect the public health and safety or to provide the maximum opportunity for comment from the potentially affected public.

(4) Conduct public hearings on the proposed hazardous waste management plan during those times and at those places which are convenient to the affected public. These hearings shall be conducted even if the hazardous waste management plan provides that no removal or remedial actions will be taken. The department shall publish notice of these hearings in newspapers of general circulation, as defined in Section 6000 of the Government Code, and shall use all other reasonable means to publicize these hearings.

(5) Take all actions required by Section 25358.7 concerning any proposed removal or remedial actions.

(6) Take any other actions authorized by this chapter or Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) to carry out the legislative intent specified in Section 25342.1.

(c) The city, county, or state agency which is required to prepare a hazardous waste management plan pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) shall submit the proposed hazardous waste management plan for approval to the department or a California Regional Water Quality Control Board, whichever the department determines is appropriate. A city or state agency shall submit the plan to the county in which the land is located, and a county or state agency shall submit the plan to the city, if any, in which the land is located, for comments and recommendations. The city, county, or state agency shall also consider whether to incorporate any changes in the plan which are recommended by the county, city, and the public.

25342.1. It is the intention of the Legislature, in enacting this article, to protect the public health and safety and the environment by requiring all of the following:

(a) Prompt steps to remedy the unauthorized disposal of hazardous waste on public land be taken as soon as possible.

(b) Prompt notice be given to the affected public of such an unauthorized disposal of hazardous waste.

(c) The public be afforded an opportunity for input into the manner in which the hazardous waste will be cleaned up or rendered safe.

25342.2. Prior to, or simultaneously with, utilizing the provisions of this article, the department shall diligently pursue all feasible civil and criminal actions against the owner of the land or other party responsible for the disposal of the hazardous waste, who violates this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter.

The owner, lessee, or lessor of any land which is affected by hazardous waste which was disposed on, under, or into the land may recover the costs incurred in complying with this article, in a civil action, from any person who produced the waste or against any other person who was responsible for the disposal of the hazardous waste.

The lessee of any land, who was not responsible for the unauthorized disposal of the hazardous waste upon that land, may also recover the costs incurred in complying with this article from the owner of the land if the person who produced the waste or who was responsible for the disposal of hazardous waste cannot be located or cannot compensate the lessee for these costs.

24342.3. If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, this holding shall not affect other provisions or applications of this article which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end, the provisions of the article are severable.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to protect the public health and safety and the environment from insufficiently planned hazardous waste removal or remedial actions and to provide prompt notification of a potential danger to the public, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act relating to the state park system, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

The sum of one million seven hundred thirteen thousand dollars ($1,713,000) is hereby appropriated from the Special Account for Capital Outlay in the General Fund to the Department of Parks and Recreation for expenditure in the 1984–85, 1985–86, and 1986–87 fiscal years for restoration of the John Marsh Home.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 5010 of the Public Resources Code or any other provision of law, the moneys received from the Land and Water Conservation Fund for the federal share of the Burton Creek area land acquisition project, authorized in category

(a) of Section 9.3 of Chapter 1064 of the Statutes of 1973, shall be deposited in the State Beach, Park, Recreational, and Historical Facilities Fund of 1974.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to commence urgently needed repairs of the John Marsh Home and to reimburse the State Beach, Park, Recreational, and Historical Facilities Fund of 1974 at the earliest opportunity, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Sections 33200 and 33205 of the Public Resources Code, relating to the Santa Monica Mountains Conservancy.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33200 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Chapter 193 of the Statutes of 1984, is further amended to read:

33200. (a) The Santa Monica Mountains Conservancy is hereby established. The conservancy shall be composed of seven voting members and two ex officio members. The voting members shall be as follows:

(1) The Director of the National Park Service or an employee designated by the director.

(2) A member representing the City of Los Angeles, appointed by the Mayor with the approval of the city council.

(3) Three public members who shall be residents of either the County of Los Angeles or the County of Ventura, one of whom shall be appointed by the Governor, one of whom shall be appointed by the Senate Rules Committee, and one of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly. At least one of the public members shall reside within the San Fernando Valley statistical area, as defined in Section 11093 of the Government Code.

(4) A member appointed by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles, or the member's designee.

(5) An elected official who is either a member of the City Council of the City of Thousand Oaks or a member of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Ventura and who shall be appointed by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Ventura, or the elected official's designee.

The seat of a public member shall be deemed vacant if the member changes his or her residence to a county other than Los Angeles or Ventura County.

The California Coastal Commission and the State Coastal Conservancy shall each appoint an ex officio member who shall be either a member or employee of their respective agency. The ex officio member appointed by the California Coastal Commission and the State Coastal Conservancy shall be nonvoting members, except that the ex officio member appointed by the State Coastal Conservancy may vote on any matter relating to a project undertaken within the coastal zone portion of the zone.

On the 10th working day after certification pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 30500) of Division 20 of any local coastal program, or any portion thereof, for any portion of the zone, the ex officio member appointed by the California Coastal Commission may vote on any matter relating to a project undertaken within the coastal zone portion of the zone and the ex officio member appointed by the State Coastal Conservancy may not vote on the matter.

(b) The chairperson and vice chairperson of the conservancy shall be selected by the voting members of the conservancy for a one-year term. A majority of the total authorized and appointed voting membership of the conservancy constitutes a quorum for the transaction of any business under this division.

(c) The following members of the conservancy shall be compensated for attendance at regular meetings of the conservancy at the rate of one hundred dollars ($100) per day:

(1) The public members.

(2) The member appointed by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles or that member's designee, unless the member or designee is also a member of the board of supervisors, in which case no compensation shall be paid.

(3) The member appointed by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Ventura or that member's designee, unless the member or designee is also a member of a board of supervisors, in which case no compensation shall be paid.

(4) The members appointed by the State Coastal Conservancy and the California Coastal Commission if these members are also public members of their respective agencies.

(5) The appointed member representing the City of Los Angeles.

All members of the conservancy shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses, including travel expenses, incurred in the performance of their duties.

SEC. 2. Section 33205 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

33205. The conservancy shall not hold lands acquired in accordance with subdivision (d) of Section 33204 more than 10 years from the time of acquisition. A city, county, recreation and park district, the National Park Service, or a state agency may acquire the land any time during that period for park, recreation, or resource preservation purposes. The acquisition price to the agencies shall be based upon the cost of acquisition under this division, plus administrative and management costs in reserving the land, unless the conservancy determines that the agency will operate and maintain the property for park, recreation, or resource preservation purposes in accordance with standards set by the conservancy, and that the property will not be converted to other uses without the approval of the conservancy. In the cases where the conservancy makes this determination, it may transfer the property without consideration or it may set another acquisition price as mutually agreed upon by the parties. However, in any case where there is a transfer without consideration, or where the consideration is less than acquisition and administrative and management costs, the property shall first be offered to the Department of Parks and Recreation, and, if the department is unwilling or unable to accept the property, the conservancy may then transfer or sell the property to a city, county, recreation and park district, or the National Park Service pursuant to this section. The conservancy shall include in each instrument transferring title of state property to the National Park Service a provision which assures that the property is operated in a manner suitable for park, recreation, or resource preservation purposes. The conservancy shall include in each instrument transferring title of state property to a state or local agency a provision for reversion of the property to the state if the property ceases to be used for park, recreation, or resource preservation purposes. Lands acquired under subdivision (d) of Section 33204 shall not be disposed of pursuant to Section 11011.1 of the Government Code.

If, at the expiration of the 10-year period, no agency is willing or able to acquire the lands, the conservancy shall request the Real Estate Services Division of the Department of General Services to dispose of the lands at fair market value subject to restrictions that are consistent with this division.

Any funds received by the state upon disposition of lands acquired in accordance with subdivision (a) or (d) of Section 33204 shall be deposited in the fund and shall be available for the purposes of this division. Any funds received by the state under this section upon disposition of lands acquired with funds granted pursuant to Section 507(n) of the National Parks and Recreation Act of 1978 (16 U.S.C. Sec. 460kk(n)) shall be deposited in the federal grant account in the fund and shall be available for the purposes of this division when authorized by the Secretary of the Interior.

An act to add Part 3 (commencing with Section 52000) to Division 1 of Title 5 of the Government Code, relating to local agencies.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Part 3 (commencing with Section 52000) is added to Division 1 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to read:

PART 3. CITY AND COUNTY AGENCIES

CHAPTER 1. COMMUNITY ENERGY AUTHORITY

Article 1. General Provisions

52000. This chapter may be cited as the Community Energy Authority Act.

52001. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this part to provide the means by which a county or city can plan and implement a comprehensive energy strategy that will assist in planning energy projects and uses that will encourage energy efficiency and conservation in new and existing construction and will also minimize the impact of future energy price increases on financially disadvantaged low- and moderate-income households as well as adversely affecting the stability of the local economy.

52002. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions contained in this article govern the construction of this chapter.

52005. "County" means any county.

52010. "Bond" means any bonds, notes, certificates of participation, interim certificates, debentures, or other obligations issued by an authority pursuant to this chapter.

52012. This chapter shall be interpreted liberally to effect its purposes.

Article 2. Creation of Community Energy Authorities

52030. The governing body of any county or city may, by resolution or ordinance, create a community energy authority.

52031. (a) The governing bodies of any two or more cities or counties or any combination thereof may by agreement create an area energy authority. Each governing body that is a party to such an agreement shall appoint two persons as commissioners of the authority, and the governing bodies shall jointly appoint one commissioner at large, and, upon appointment of all required commissioners, the area energy authority shall be authorized to exercise all of the powers which a community energy authority is authorized to exercise.

(b) Commissioners appointed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall serve at the pleasure of the governing bodies which appointed them.

(c) A majority of the commissioners of an area energy authority constitutes a quorum for the purpose of conducting business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes. Action may be taken by the area energy authority upon a vote of a majority of the commissioners.

(d) The commissioners shall select a chairperson from their number.

52032. The area of operation of an authority created pursuant to Section 52031 shall be the combined possible areas of operation of participating cities and counties, as determined by Section 52007.

52033. As an alternative to Section 52032, two or more governing bodies may jointly exercise any power under this chapter pursuant to a joint powers agreement entered into pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1.

Article 3. Officers and Employees

52050. The members of the governing body shall, ex officio, be the commissioners of the authority except in the case of an area energy authority, as provided by Section 52031.

52051. The powers and functions of an authority are vested in its commissioners.

52052. A majority of the commissioners constitutes a quorum for purposes of conducting the business of the authority. The commissioners shall act by majority vote thereof.

52053. The authority may adopt rules and regulations not in conflict with law.

As an alternative to serving as the commissioners of the authority, the governing body of any county or city, at the time of the adoption of a resolution or ordinance pursuant to Section 52030 or at any time thereafter, may appoint other persons as commissioners of the authority. The governing body shall, in this case, specify the number and appointment of commissioners, except that there shall be not less than three commissioners. The governing body shall prescribe the powers and functions delegated to commissioners appointed under this article.

52081. A governing body of a county or city which has appointed commissioners pursuant to this article retains the power of review and approval of all actions of the authority and may, at any time by resolution or ordinance, determine that it shall resume control of the authority, in which event the appointed commissioners shall no longer function as such.

Article 5. Powers and Duties

52100. For purposes of the District Reorganization Act of 1965 (Division 1 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 6), an authority, except as otherwise provided in this part, is a subsidiary district, as defined in Section 56073, to the governing body which created it. An authority has all the powers necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter, except as limited by the governing body which created it. The governing body may use any of its powers on behalf of an authority which it created.

52101. An authority may, subject to the approval of the governing body, do all of the following:

(a) Sue and be sued.

(b) Have a seal and alter it.

(c) Have a perpetual succession.

(d) Make and execute contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of its powers.

52102. Within its area of operation, an authority may do all of the following:

(a) Exercise all powers and authority related to energy projects designated by the governing body and deemed to be necessary and appropriate to carry out the responsibilities of the authority, including, but not limited to, assistance in planning energy projects and uses to encourage energy conservation in new and existing construction and to minimize future energy price increases.

(b) Coordinate or provide energy programs and services to the community, particularly to persons of low and moderate income and to smaller businesses.

(c) Apply for, accept, and utilize any available funds appropriate to the authority's activities from federal, state, county, special district, or private sources.

52103. An authority may, subject to approval by the governing body, contract for the furnishing by any person, business, public utility, or agency, public or private, including community-based organizations, of services.

52104. To the extent feasible, an authority shall utilize the employees and services of the county or city for its operations. If the governing body determines that it is not feasible for the authority to utilize its employees or services, the governing body may authorize the authority to employ its own staff and to contract for services needed.

52105. An authority shall apply for and obtain any permits, licenses, certificates, or approvals that may be necessary for an authority owned and operated energy project, and may construct, maintain, and operate energy projects in accordance with these licenses, permits, certificates, or approvals.

52106. An authority may, subject to the direction of the governing body, do all of the following:

(a) Conduct public hearings for all energy projects.

(b) Hold public hearings to review and approve all projects being developed within the community that involve a substantial use of energy and may impact the economic stability of the local economy, with particular attention to the impact on low- and moderate-income households.

(c) Exempt specific projects from the review process.

52107. All energy projects shall be consistent with all state, regional, and local planning, zoning, sanitary, safety, and building laws, ordinances, and regulations applicable to the jurisdiction in which the project is located.

Article 6. Bonds

52120. An authority may issue bonds pursuant to the Revenue Bond Law of 1941 (Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2), except that, notwithstanding Section 54309, 54309.1, 54310, or 54311, an authority may issue bonds to finance an energy project under this part.

Article 7. Claims

52170. All claims for money or damages against the authority are governed by Part 3 (commencing with Section 900) and Part 4 (commencing with Section 940) of Division 3.6 of Title 1 except as provided therein, or by other statutes or regulations expressly applicable thereto. Claims, the risk or hazard of which are covered by insurance pursuant to the authorization of subdivision (c) of Section 52106 and which have been presented in accordance with Part 3 (commencing with Section 900) and Part 4 (commencing with Section 940) of Division 3.6 of Title 1, may be referred to the carrier insuring against that risk or hazard for further action in accordance with the procedure specified by the authority.

Article 8. Tax Exemption of Community Energy Authority

52180. It has been found and declared by the Legislature that the activities of an authority constitute an important governmental function and are for public uses and purposes and are governmental functions of state concern. As a matter of legislative determination, it is hereby found and declared that the property, projects, and bonds of an energy authority are of such character as shall be exempt from taxation.

52181. The property of an authority is exempt from all taxes and special assessments of the state or any city, county, or political subdivision of the state. In lieu of these taxes or special assessments the authority may agree to make payments to any city, county, or political subdivision of the state for services, improvements, or facilities furnished by the city, county, or political subdivision for the benefit of an energy project owned by the authority.

52182. The bonds of an authority are issued for an essential public and governmental purpose, and, together with interest thereon and income therefrom, are exempt from all taxes.

Article 9. Prohibitions

52190. Nothing in this act allows an authority to acquire or operate any public utility facilities or property employed in the generation, transmission, or distribution of gas, electricity, steam, or water, except by mutual agreement between the authority and the public utility.

CHAPTER 1551

An act to amend Sections 30610.8, 31011, and 31251.2 of, and to add Section 31118 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to the State Coastal Conservancy.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30610.8 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30610.8. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that a dispute exists at the Hollister Ranch in Santa Barbara County with respect to the implementation of public access policies of this division and that it is in the interest of the state and the property owners at the Hollister Ranch to resolve this dispute in an expeditious manner. The Legislature further finds and declares that public access should be provided in a timely manner and that in order to achieve this goal, while permitting property owners to commence construction, the provisions of this section are necessary to promote the public's welfare.

(b) For purposes of Section 30610.3 and with respect to the Hollister Ranch public access program, the in-lieu fee shall be five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each permit. Upon payment by the applicant for a coastal development permit of this in-lieu fee to the State Coastal Conservancy for use in implementing the public access program, the applicant may immediately commence construction if the other conditions of the coastal development permit, if any, have been met. No condition may be added to a coastal development permit that was issued prior to the effective date of this section for any development at the Hollister Ranch.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the State Coastal Conservancy and the State Public Works Board utilize their authority provided under law to implement, as expeditiously as possible, the public access policies and provisions of this division at the Hollister Ranch in Santa Barbara County.

(d) Notwithstanding provision 2 of category (2) of Item 3760-490-721 of the Budget Act of 1984, all in-lieu fees received pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the State Coastal Conservancy Fund and shall be available for appropriation to the conservancy for the purposes specified in subdivision (d) of Section 5096.151.

SEC. 2. Section 31011 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

31011. Any funds received by the department pursuant to this division shall be deposited in the State Parks and Recreation Fund. Unless otherwise provided in this division, any funds received by the conservancy pursuant to this division shall be deposited in the State Coastal Conservancy Fund. The conservancy and the Controller shall establish separate accounts within the State Coastal Conservancy Fund for the purpose of separating deposits into the fund according to their origin.

SEC. 3. Section 31118 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

31118. The conservancy may seek repayments of funds granted pursuant to this division on terms and conditions as it deems appropriate to carry out the provisions of this division.

SEC. 4. Section 31251.2 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

31251.2. (a) In order to enhance the natural or scenic character of coastal resources within the coastal zone, the conservancy may undertake a project or award a grant, consistent with subdivision (a) of Section 30200 and pursuant to this chapter, to enhance a watershed resource that is partly outside of the coastal zone. Any of these projects or grants which involve the management of fish shall be approved by the Department of Fish and Game.

Neither the conservancy nor any other state agency shall undertake a project affecting an area partly inside and partly outside the coastal zone under this chapter, except at the request of the local public agency or agencies having jurisdiction over the entire project area.

(b) Any enhancement activity carried out pursuant to this section shall not be subject to any commission review, as set forth in Section 31258, for that portion of the activity located outside the coastal zone. However, the commission through its executive director and the Department of Fish and Game may review and comment on the enhancement plan's consistency with the policies and objectives of Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000).

(c) No funds set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 5096.151 of the Public Resources Code, shall be expended on enhancement activities that are outside the coastal zone.

(d) This section shall not apply to any portion of the Santa Monica Mountains Zone as set forth in Division 23 (commencing with Section 33000).

SEC. 5. Any in-lieu fees which were received pursuant to Section 30610.8 of the Public Resources Code prior to January 1, 1985, shall be deposited in the State Coastal Conservancy Fund and shall be available for appropriation to the conservancy for the purposes specified in subdivision (d) of Section 5096.151 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 6. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

An act to amend Section 35603 of the Water Code, relating to California water districts.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35603 of the Water Code is amended to read:

35603. A district may construct any works along, under, or across any stream of water, watercourse, street, avenue, highway, railway, canal, ditch, or flume which the route of a pipeline or canal of the works may proceed along or across in a manner that will afford security for life and property. The district shall restore the property crossed as near as may be to its former state or so as not to have impaired unnecessarily its usefulness. Every company whose railroad is crossed by the works shall unite with the district in forming the crossing and shall grant the necessary privileges.

An act to add Sections 19632.5 and 19632.6 to the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Section 6817 of the Public Resources Code, relating to fiscal affairs, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19632.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19632.5. (a) After the payments required pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 19632, but prior to any payments pursuant to subdivision (c) of that section, ten million dollars ($10,000,000) of the license fees specified in Section 19632 shall be deposited in a special account in the Fair and Exposition Fund and those moneys, including any earnings on the moneys so deposited, shall be used solely by the 51st District Agricultural Association for the acquisition or development, or both, of a fairgrounds site.

(b) The moneys in the account are hereby appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, to the 51st District Agricultural Association for the purpose specified in subdivision (a), to be expended, with the approval of the Division of Fairs and Expositions in the Department of Food and Agriculture, on the basis of 34 percent money from the account and 66 percent matching money from cities, counties, special districts, or other units of government or from any source other than the account. Matching funds may be in the form of cash or any other form acceptable to the district. If the matching funds are in a form other than cash, they shall be approved by the Assistant Director of Food and Agriculture in charge of the Division of Fairs and Expositions prior to expenditure.

(c) Any earnings in the account, from inception, shall be transferred to the 51st District Agricultural Association on a pro rata basis as funds are paid out of the account, in 5 percent increments, corresponding to the percentage paid out pursuant to subdivision (b).

SEC. 2. Section 19632.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19632.6. (a) If the moneys provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 19632.5, including matching funds, are less than the total amount of funds determined as proper for the acquisition and development of a fairgrounds site in the study carried out pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Chapter 647 of the Statutes of 1980, commencing on June 30, 1992, and on June 30th annually thereafter, the Controller shall apportion for the fiscal year ending on that date, until that difference is eliminated, 1 percent of the revenues paid to the state, which exceed the revenues paid to the state during the 1983–84 fiscal year, under Article 4 (commencing with Section 6870) from tide and submerged lands and deposit that amount in the special account in the Fair and Exposition Fund created by subdivision (a) of Section 19632.5 for expenditure pursuant to that section.

(b) The funds appropriated and allocated in this section are subject to reappropriation or allocation in any fiscal year by the Budget Act for that year; and if the Budget Act for any fiscal year reappropriates or reallocates the funds provided for in this section, the appropriation and allocation in this act shall be inoperative for that fiscal year.

SEC. 3. Section 6817 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

6817. (a) The Controller shall annually as of June 30th of each calendar year apportion for the fiscal year ending on that date to each city or county having within its boundaries ungranted tide and submerged lands or other tide and submerged lands granted to it by the state in which the state has reserved the rights to the mineral deposits contained therein, 1 percent of the revenues paid to the state under Article 4 (commencing with Section 6870) from those tide and submerged lands which are within the limits of the particular county or city, except that the total amount apportioned to each city or county in each year shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) per mile, or fraction of a mile, of ocean frontage within, and owned or operated as a park by that city or county and leased by, the State Lands Commission for the production of oil, gas, and other hydrocarbons, and only in those cases where the ocean frontage is available to the public free of charge for recreational purposes. However, this limitation on the amount which may be apportioned to each city or county in each year shall not apply to revenues from leases within the limits of the particular county or city which exceed the revenues paid to the state during the 1983–84 fiscal year. Any city which is fronted, in whole or in part, by a state oil and gas lease shall be qualified to receive an apportionment under this section based on the formula contained in this section. For purposes of this section, tide and submerged lands within the limits of a city shall not be deemed to be within the boundaries of a county except in the case of a city and county. The State Lands Commission shall at the time of remitting revenues to the State Treasury received under Article 4 (commencing with Section 6870) report to the Controller the total amount of the revenue paid from the tide and submerged lands to the state shown with respect to each city or county to which that amount is applicable. The apportionment for any given fiscal year shall be based upon the physical facts with respect to each city or county existing on June 30th of the next preceding fiscal year. The report of the State Lands Commission and the apportionments of the Controller shall be final.

(b) The amounts paid to cities and counties shall be deposited in a special tide and submerged lands fund established by the cities or counties, to be held in trust and to be expended only for the promotion and accommodation of commerce, navigation, and fisheries, for the protection of the lands within the boundaries of the cities and counties, for the promotion, accommodation, establishment, improvement, operation, and maintenance of public recreational beaches and coastline for the benefit of all the people of the state, and for the mitigation of any adverse environmental impact caused by exploration for hydrocarbons on state tide and submerged lands within city or county boundaries or caused by production or transportation of hydrocarbons produced on these tide and submerged lands.

(c) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the purposes specified in subdivision (b) constitute matters of statewide interest and that the expenditure of funds for those purposes will benefit all of the people of the state.

This section shall be operative with respect to all revenues received in the State Treasury on and after October 1, 1963.

An act to amend Section 54238.3 of the Government Code, relating to surplus residential property.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

54238.3. (a) This article shall apply only to surplus residential properties which were acquired for a state project, for which at least 20 dwelling units were acquired and owned by the state on January 1, 1980, or on the date the properties were declared to be surplus, whichever date occurs later. For the purpose of this section, a freeway route and its interchanges shall be considered one state project. Except for State Highway Route 7 in Los Angeles County, this article shall not apply to freeway routes rescinded on or after January 1, 1984.

(b) Any person who is displaced from any dwelling located on such residential property that is also located within the right-of-way of a freeway route or its interchanges for which the property was declared surplus on or after January 1, 1984, and who occupied that dwelling for at least 90 days prior to the date the property was declared surplus, shall be eligible to receive the relocation advisory assistance provided by Section 7261, the relocation benefits provided by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) or subdivision (b) of Section 7262, the payments authorized by subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 7264, and the right for review of decision as provided by Section 7266 if the person is forced to relocate from the dwelling, as a direct result of the state agency's disposal of the excess real property, within 90 days of the recordation of the deed from the state agency to a new owner.

(c) Whenever a state surplus residential property disposal project, as described in subdivision (b), includes 50 or more dwelling units, a Relocation Liaison shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency. The term of the appointment shall be of sufficient duration for the Relocation Liaison to fulfill the assignment, not to exceed 180 days, and shall begin on the date that the property is declared to be surplus. The Relocation Liaison shall have the following assigned duties and responsibilities:

(1) Meet with the eligible persons and explain to them the benefits defined in subdivision (b).

(2) In conjunction with the state agency, assist in obtaining replacement housing for eligible persons.

(3) Assist eligible persons in completing and processing claims for benefits.

The state agency which is disposing of the surplus residential property shall be responsible for underwriting all reasonable costs as determined by the secretary associated with the operation of the Relocation Liaison's office necessary to perform all duties assigned to it.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 170 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 170 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

170. A judge has a duty to decide any proceeding in which he or she is not disqualified.

SEC. 3. Section 170a of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 170.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 170.1 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

170.1. (a) A judge shall be disqualified if any one or more of the following is true:

(1) The judge has personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding.

A judge shall be deemed to have personal knowledge within the meaning of this paragraph if the judge, or the spouse of the judge, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

(2) The judge served as a lawyer in the proceeding, or in any other proceeding involving the same issues he or she served as a lawyer for any party in the present proceeding or gave advice to any party in the present proceeding upon any matter involved in the action or proceeding.

A judge shall be deemed to have served as a lawyer in the proceeding if within the past two years:

(A) A party to the proceeding or an officer, director, or trustee of a party was a client of the judge when the judge was in the private practice of law or a client of a lawyer with whom the judge was associated in the private practice of law; or

(B) A lawyer in the proceeding was associated in the private practice of law with the judge.

A judge who served as a lawyer for or officer of a public agency which is a party to the proceeding shall be deemed to have served as a lawyer in the proceeding if he or she personally advised or in any way represented the public agency concerning the factual or legal issues in the proceeding.

(3) The judge has a financial interest in the subject matter in a proceeding or in a party to the proceeding.

A judge shall be deemed to have a financial interest within the meaning of this paragraph if:

(A) A spouse or minor child living in the household has a financial interest; or

(B) The judge or the spouse of the judge is a fiduciary who has a financial interest.

A judge has a duty to make reasonable efforts to inform himself or herself about his or her personal and fiduciary interests and those of his or her spouse and the personal financial interests of children living in the household.

(4) The judge, or the spouse of the judge, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person is a party to the proceeding or an officer, director, or trustee of a party.

(6) For any reason (A) the judge believes his or her recusal would further the interests of justice, (B) the judge believes there is a substantial doubt as to his or her capacity to be impartial, or (C) a person aware of the facts might reasonably entertain a doubt that the judge would be able to be impartial. Bias or prejudice towards a lawyer in the proceeding may be grounds for disqualification.

(7) By reason of permanent or temporary physical impairment, the judge is unable to properly perceive the evidence or is unable to properly conduct the proceeding.

(b) A judge before whom a proceeding was tried or heard shall be disqualified from participating in any appellate review of that proceeding.

(c) At the request of a party or on its own motion an appellate court shall consider whether in the interests of justice it should direct that further proceedings be heard before a trial judge other than the judge whose judgment or order was reviewed by the appellate court.

SEC. 6. Section 170.2 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

170.2. It shall not be grounds for disqualification that the judge:

(c) Has as a lawyer or public official participated in the drafting of laws or in the effort to pass or defeat laws, the meaning, effect or application of which is in issue in the proceeding unless the judge believes that his or her prior involvement was so well known as to raise a reasonable doubt in the public mind as to his or her capacity to be impartial.

SEC. 7. Section 170.3 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

170.3. (a) (1) Whenever a judge determines himself or herself to be disqualified, the judge shall notify the presiding judge of the court of his or her recusal and shall not further participate in the proceeding, except as provided in Section 170.4, unless his or her disqualification is waived by the parties as provided in subdivision (b).

(2) If the judge disqualifying himself or herself is the only judge or the presiding judge of the court, the notification shall be sent to the person having authority to assign another judge to replace the disqualified judge.

(b) (1) A judge who determines himself or herself to be disqualified after disclosing the basis for his or her disqualification on the record may ask the parties and their attorneys whether they wish to waive the disqualification. A waiver of disqualification shall recite the basis for the disqualification, and is effective only when signed by all parties and their attorneys and filed in the record.

(2) The judge shall not seek to induce a waiver and shall avoid any effort to discover which lawyers or parties favored or opposed a waiver of disqualification.

(3) In the event that grounds for disqualification are first learned of or arise after the judge has made one or more rulings in a proceeding but before the judge has completed judicial action in a proceeding, the judge shall, unless the disqualification be waived, disqualify himself or herself, but in the absence of good cause the rulings he or she has made up to that time shall not be set aside by the judge who replaces the disqualified judge.

(c) (1) If a judge who should disqualify himself or herself refuses or fails to do so, any party may file with the clerk a written verified statement objecting to the hearing or trial before the judge and setting forth the facts constituting the grounds for disqualification of the judge. The statement shall be presented at the earliest practicable opportunity after discovery of the facts constituting the ground for disqualification. Copies of the statement shall be served on each party or his or her attorney who has appeared and shall be personally served on the judge alleged to be disqualified, or on his or her clerk, provided that the judge is present in the courthouse or in chambers.

(2) Without conceding his or her disqualification, a judge whose impartiality has been challenged by the filing of a written statement may request any other judge agreed upon by the parties to sit and act in his or her place.

(3) Within 10 days after the filing or service, whichever is later, the judge may file a consent to disqualification in which case the judge shall notify the presiding judge or the person authorized to appoint a replacement of his or her recusal as provided in subdivision (a), or the judge may file a written verified answer admitting or denying any or all of the allegations contained in the party's statement and setting forth any additional facts material or relevant to the question of disqualification. The clerk shall forthwith transmit a copy of the judge's answer to each party or his or her attorney who has appeared in the action.

(4) A judge who fails to file a consent or answer within the time allowed shall be deemed to have consented to his or her disqualification and the clerk shall notify the presiding judge or person authorized to appoint a replacement of the recusal as provided in subdivision (a).

(5) No judge who refuses to recuse himself or herself shall pass upon his or her own disqualification or upon the sufficiency in law, fact, or otherwise, of the statement of disqualification filed by a party. In every such case, the question of disqualification shall be heard and determined by another judge agreed upon by all the parties who have appeared or, in the event they are unable to agree within five days of notification of the judge's answer, by a judge selected by the chairperson of the Judicial Council, or if the chairperson is unable to act, the vice-chairperson. The clerk shall notify the executive officer of the Judicial Council of the need for a selection. The selection shall be made as expeditiously as possible. No challenge pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 170.3 or Section 170.6 may be made against the judge selected to decide the question of disqualification.

(6) The judge deciding the question of disqualification may decide the question on the basis of the statement of disqualification and answer and such written arguments as the judge requests, or the judge may set the matter for hearing as promptly as practicable. If a hearing is ordered, the judge shall permit the parties and the judge alleged to be disqualified to argue the question of disqualification and shall for good cause shown hear evidence on any disputed issue of fact. If the judge deciding the question of disqualification determines that the judge is disqualified, the judge hearing the question shall notify the presiding judge or the person having authority to appoint a replacement of the disqualified judge as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 170.3.

(d) The determination of the question of the disqualification of a judge is not an appealable order and may be reviewed only by a writ of mandate from the appropriate court of appeal sought within 10 days of notice to the parties of the decision and only by the parties to the proceeding.

SEC. 8. Section 170.4 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

170.4. (a) A disqualified judge, notwithstanding his or her disqualification may do any of the following:

(1) Take any action or issue any order necessary to maintain the jurisdiction of the court pending the assignment of a judge not disqualified.

(2) Request any other judge agreed upon by the parties to sit and act in his or her place.

(3) Hear and determine purely default matters.

(4) Issue an order for possession prior to judgment in eminent domain proceedings.

(5) Set proceedings for trial or hearing.

(6) Conduct settlement conferences.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 170.3, if a statement of disqualification is untimely filed or if on its face it discloses no legal grounds for disqualification, the trial judge against whom it was filed may order it stricken.

(c) (1) If a statement of disqualification is filed after a trial or hearing has commenced by the start of voir dire, by the swearing of the first witness or by the submission of a motion for decision, the judge whose impartiality has been questioned may order the trial or hearing to continue, notwithstanding the filing of the statement of disqualification. The issue of disqualification shall be referred to another judge for decision as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 170.3, and if it is determined that the judge is disqualified, all orders and rulings of the judge found to be disqualified made after the filing of the statement shall be vacated.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision, if (A) a proceeding is filed in a single judge court or has been assigned to a single judge for comprehensive disposition, and (B) the proceeding has been set for trial or hearing 30 or more days in advance before a judge whose name was known at the time, the trial or hearing shall be deemed to have commenced 10 days prior to the date scheduled for trial or hearing as to any grounds for disqualification known before that time.

(3) A party may file no more than one statement of disqualification against a judge unless facts suggesting new grounds for disqualification are first learned of or arise after the first statement of disqualification was filed. Repetitive statements of disqualification not alleging facts suggesting new grounds for disqualification shall be stricken by the judge against whom they are filed.

(d) Except as provided in this section, a disqualified judge shall have no power to act in any proceeding after his or her disqualification or after the filing of a statement of disqualification until the question of his or her disqualification has been determined.

SEC. 9. Section 170.5 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

170.5. For the purposes of Sections 170 to 170.5, inclusive, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Judge" means judges of the justice, municipal, and superior courts, and court commissioners and referees.

(b) "Financial interest" means ownership of more than a 1 percent legal or equitable interest in a party, or a legal or equitable interest in a party of a fair market value in excess of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500), or a relationship as director, advisor or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except as follows:

(1) Ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in those securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund.

(2) An office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization.

(3) The proprietary interest of a policyholder in a mutual insurance company, or a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a "financial interest" in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest.

(c) "Officer of a public agency" does not include a Member of the Legislature or a state or local agency official acting in a legislative capacity.

(d) The third degree of relationship shall be calculated according to the civil law system.

(e) "Private practice of law" includes a fee for service, retainer, or salaried representation of private clients or public agencies, but excludes lawyers as full-time employees of public agencies or lawyers working exclusively for legal aid offices, public defender offices, or similar nonprofit entities whose clientele is by law restricted to the indigent.

(f) "Proceeding" means the action, case, cause, motion, or special proceeding to be tried or heard by the judge.

(g) "Fiduciary" includes any executor, trustee, guardian, or administrator.

SEC. 10. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 11. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

An act to add Section 15463 to the Government Code, relating to county health facilities, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15463 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15463. (a) There is hereby created in the State Treasury, the County Health Facilities Sinking Fund which, notwithstanding Section 13340, is continuously appropriated for the purposes of this section.

(b) The Controller shall transfer to the fund the unexpended balances from appropriations pursuant to Sections 16702 and 16703 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from the 1981–82, 1982–83, and 1983–84 fiscal years and ten million dollars ($10,000,000) from the funds subject to allocation pursuant to Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code in the 1984–85 fiscal year, after the allocations have been made pursuant to that section.

(c) Moneys in the fund shall be available to fund 50 percent of the amortization costs of projects approved by the authority, for which the county has agreed to provide 50 percent of the amortization cost.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, interest earned on the investment of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund and shall be available to amortize loans for facilities defined in paragraph (8) of subdivision (d) of Section 15432.

(e) Any unexpended balances in the appropriations made in Section 16702 or 16703 of the Welfare and Institutions Code on June 30, 1984, and each June 30 thereafter shall be deposited into the County Health Facilities Sinking Fund for the purpose of financing projects in accordance with this section.

An act to amend Sections 15046, 15051, and 15071 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to seismic safety.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15046 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15046. The application shall be accompanied by a filing fee in an amount which the statewide office determines will cover the costs of administering this chapter. The fee shall not exceed 2 percent of the estimated construction cost. The fee shall be established in accordance with applicable procedures established in Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

The minimum fee in any case shall be two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

The statewide office shall issue an annual permit upon submission, pursuant to Section 15042, of an application for a project only if its estimated construction cost is twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or less. The cost of this annual permit shall be two hundred fifty dollars ($250) and this fee shall constitute the filing fee and shall cover all projects undertaken for a particular skilled nursing or intermediate care facility by the applicant up to an estimated construction cost of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) during the state fiscal year in which the annual permit is issued. The fees for projects over the twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) limit shall be assessed at a rate established by the statewide office in regulation. However, the rate established by the statewide office shall not exceed 1.5 percent of the estimated construction cost for projects of skilled nursing and intermediate care facilities, as defined in subdivision (c), (d), (e), or (g) of Section 1250.

If the actual construction cost exceeds the estimated construction cost by more than 5 percent, a further fee shall be paid to the statewide office, based on the above schedule and computed on the amount by which the actual cost exceeds the amount of the estimated cost.

SEC. 2. Section 15051 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15051. (a) The hospital governing board or authority shall provide for and require competent and adequate inspection during construction or alteration by an inspector satisfactory to the architect or structural engineer, or both, and the statewide office. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), the inspector shall act under the direction of the architect or structural engineer, or both, and be responsible to the board or authority. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any licensed architect, structural engineer, mechanical engineer, electrical engineer, or any facility maintenance personnel, if approved by the statewide office, from performing the duties of an inspector.

(b) Where alterations or repairs are to be conducted under the supervision of a professional engineer pursuant to Section 15048, the inspector need only be satisfactory to the statewide office and to the professional engineer, and the inspector shall act under the direction of the professional engineer.

(c) In approving any inspector, the statewide office shall consult with the Department of General Services.

(d) The statewide office shall make an inspection of the hospital buildings and of the work of construction or alteration as in its judgment is necessary or proper for the enforcement of this chapter and the protection of the safety of the public. Structural, fire, and panic safety elements and details shall be inspected by the statewide office through its contracts with the Department of General Services and the office of the State Fire Marshal.

SEC. 3. Section 15071 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15071. New construction of buildings specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 15026 shall conform to the provisions of the latest edition of Title 24 of the California Administrative Code. The statewide office, with the advice of the Building Safety Board, shall prepare regulations for the independent review of these structures.

The statewide office may also exempt from the plan review process those projects undertaken by an applicant for a hospital building which the statewide office determines do not materially alter the mechanical, electrical, architectural, or structural integrity of the facility. The statewide office shall adopt regulations for the implementation of exemptions made pursuant to this paragraph.

The Legislature recognizes the relative safety of single-story, wood frame construction for use in housing patients requiring skilled nursing and intermediate care services and it is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to provide for reasonable flexibility in seismic safety standards for these structures.

SEC. 4. Section 15071 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15071. New construction of buildings specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 15026 shall conform to the provisions of the latest edition of Title 24 of the California Administrative Code. The statewide office, with the advice of the Building Safety Board, shall adopt and administer regulations for the independent review of these structures.

The statewide office may also exempt from the plan review process those projects undertaken by an applicant for a hospital building which the statewide office determines do not materially alter the mechanical, electrical, architectural, or structural integrity of the facility. The statewide office shall adopt regulations for the implementation of exemptions made pursuant to this paragraph.

The Legislature recognizes the relative safety of single-story, wood frame, and light steel frame construction for use in housing patients requiring skilled nursing and intermediate care services and it is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to provide for reasonable flexibility in seismic safety standards for these structures.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill 3993 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1985, both bills amend Section 15071 of the Health and Safety Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 3993, that the amendments to Section 15071 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 15071 in the form set forth in Section 4 of this act. Therefore, Section 4 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill 3993 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1985, both amend Section 15071, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill 3993, in which case Section 3 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1558

An act to add Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 2805) to Division 2 of the Public Resources Code, relating to earthquakes, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 2805) is added to Division 2 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 11. EARTHQUAKE EDUCATION

2805. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the California Earthquake Education Act of 1984.

2806. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) California has recently experienced and will continue to experience in the foreseeable future damaging earthquakes of moderate to great magnitude. Efforts have been needed to increase the awareness of earthquake hazards through education so that future losses of life, injuries, loss of property, and social disruption will be minimized when those events occur.

(b) Because of a lack of any state or local earthquake safety education program, it has been necessary for the state to assume leadership through the policy and guidance of the Seismic Safety Commission to develop and test earthquake safety programs which provide informational material to schools and the general public for minimizing potential disruption and loss of life.

(c) Since the pilot earthquake safety education and preparedness programs developed under the California Earthquake Education Act of 1981 have been tested, their effectiveness analyzed, and they have been deemed successful by the Seismic Safety Commission, the Legislature believes that it is appropriate, as stated by the Earthquake Education Act of 1981, that those programs be distributed and implemented throughout the earthquake-prone areas of the state.

(d) It is necessary that funds be appropriated to the Seismic Safety

Commission from the General Fund for the purpose of expanding the earthquake safety program for statewide implementation over the next three years which, when completed, will constitute for the first time in history, a comprehensive, statewide self-supporting earthquake safety education program.

2807. (a) There is hereby established a project for the implementation of a statewide program of earthquake safety education and preparedness entitled the California Earthquake Education Project (CALEEP). The Seismic Safety Commission may contract with the University of California to carry out the project. The project shall focus on identifying state and local leadership interested in using the CALEEP materials, disseminating those materials, and utilizing the materials.

(b) The project shall develop a relationship with the State Department of Education, interested teacher's education computer centers statewide, and interested counties and school districts.

2808. The objectives of the project are all of the following:

(a) Developing public awareness regarding the causes of earthquakes, the forces and effects of earthquakes, and the need for school and community action in coping with earthquake hazards.

(b) Promoting understanding of the impact of earthquakes on natural features and man-made structures.

(c) Motivating the public to establish measures prior, during, and after earthquakes to ensure their public safety.

(d) Disseminating, as widely as possible throughout the state, the program and project materials.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding subdivision (g) of Section 21191 of the Public Resources Code, the sum of five hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($525,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Seismic Safety Commission for the purposes of Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 2805) of Division 2 of the Public Resources Code, to be allocated as follows:

(a) One hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($175,000) for expenditure during the 1984–85 fiscal year.

(c) One hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($175,000) for expenditure during the 1986–87 fiscal year.

CHAPTER 1559

An act to amend Sections 46013.7 and 48342 of, and to add Section 48342.5 to, the Education Code, relating to schools, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby recognizes that poor school attendance is the most frequently identified characteristic of pupils who are potential dropouts. The Legislature also recognizes that, statistically, pupils leaving school prior to graduation face higher unemployment rates and lower wages and earnings than other workers, are more likely to require public assistance, and are more susceptible to engaging in criminal activity.

It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage school districts and county offices of education to develop and implement strategies and activities which emphasize the importance of school attendance and which encourage pupils to regularly attend school. It is also the intent of the Legislature to encourage school districts to use an attendance accounting procedure which promotes accountability and the most efficient and effective use of public funds.

SEC. 2. Section 46013.7 of the Education Code is amended to read:

46013.7. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall make the provisions of this section and Section 46013 available to 25 elementary school districts, 25 unified school districts, and 10 high school districts for the 1980–81 school year through the 1984–85 school year and shall not require these districts to keep parallel attendance accounting and reporting procedures as required under existing laws otherwise applicable. School districts desiring to utilize this section and Section 46013 shall apply to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for approval. In approving applications, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall ensure that no more than 2½ percent of the statewide average daily attendance shall be subject to the provisions of this section and Section 46013. After the 1982–83 fiscal year, no school district shall be eligible to receive a revenue limit increase pursuant to Section 46013.

SEC. 3. Section 48342 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48342. The governing board of each school district shall annually disclose to the public actual pupil attendance rates for each school in the district.

SEC. 4. Section 48342.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

48342.5. School districts and county offices of education shall annually certify to the Superintendent of Public Instruction that they have complied with the requirements of Section 48342 regarding the annual disclosure of actual pupil attendance rates.

SEC. 5. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to authorize the Superintendent of Public Instruction to extend attendance accounting and reporting programs established under Section 46013.7 of the Education Code through the 1984–85 school year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to add Section 1463.04 to the Penal Code, and to add Chapter 1.27 (commencing with Section 5091.01) to Division 5 of, and to repeal Section 5091.16 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to parks and recreation, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1463.04 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1463.04. Notwithstanding Section 1463, out of the moneys deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463, there shall be transferred once a month into the State Treasury to the credit of the Winter Recreation Fund an amount equal to 50 percent of all fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail from any person of any violation of Section 5091.15 of the Public Resources Code, and an amount equal to the remaining 50 percent shall be transferred to the county general fund and deposited in a special account which shall be used exclusively to pay for the cost of furthering the purposes of the California SNO-PARK Permit Program, including, but not limited to, the snow removal, maintenance, and development of designated parking areas.

SEC. 2. Chapter 1.27 (commencing with Section 5091.01) is added to Division 5 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.27. CALIFORNIA SNO-PARK PERMIT PROGRAM

Article 1. General Provisions

5091.01. (a) The Legislature finds that as the popularity of winter recreation has steadily grown, so too has the problem of insufficient parking areas for participants.

(b) The Legislature hereby declares that adequate parking facilities for winter recreation are essential to ensure safety and well-being of the states' winter recreationists.

(c) Accordingly, in furtherance of the California Outdoor Recreation Plan, it is the intent of the Legislature to establish the California SNO-PARK Permit Program, whereby winter recreationists may purchase a windshield sticker that will allow them to park in any of the roadside parking areas to be established and plowed for this purpose.

5091.02. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this section govern the construction of this chapter.

(a) "Authorized vendor" means a retail commercial enterprise, authorized by the department to sell SNO-PARK permits established by this chapter.

(b) "Department" means the Department of Parks and Recreation.

(c) "Fund" means the Winter Recreation Fund.

(d) "Designated parking area" means an area located, constructed, maintained, and signed pursuant to this chapter.

(e) "Winter recreation" means any recreational activity principally dependent upon snow-covered ground, including, but not limited to, cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, sledding, ice fishing, snow camping, dogsledding, and snowmobiling.

Article 2. Designation of Parking Areas

5091.10. (a) The State Park and Recreation Commission shall hold at least two public hearings, one in the northern portion of the state and one in the southern portion of the state, to seek proposals from individuals, winter recreation user groups, the department, and other public agencies for parking areas to be designated under this chapter. The commission shall make its initial recommendations to the department with respect to designated parking areas to be included within the program within 90 days of the effective date of this chapter. The director may appoint a committee of winter recreationists to advise him or her on the location of designated parking areas.

(b) The department shall, after consultation with the State Park and Recreation Commission, the Department of Transportation, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, the appropriate boards of supervisors, and any local public or private persons owning lands adjacent to each site, designate winter recreation parking locations throughout the state and include the sites as an element of the California outdoor recreation plan. The location and design of any proposed site adjacent to or directly impacting on a state highway shall be reviewed and approved by the Department of Transportation. The location and design of any proposed site adjacent to or directly impacting on a county road shall be reviewed and approved by the appropriate board of supervisors.

(c) Using funds appropriated from the Winter Recreation Fund and allocated pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 5091.25, the Department of Transportation shall provide for the removal of snow accumulating on designated parking areas according to priorities established by the Department of Transportation in consultation with the department. The removal of snow from the roadway of state highways shall always take precedence over the removal of snow from designated parking areas.

(d) Using funds appropriated from the Winter Recreation Fund and allocated pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 5091.25, the department may make grants to counties for the removal of snow accumulating on designated parking areas. In no event shall the removal of snow on designated parking areas become a county responsibility, except by agreement with the appropriate board of supervisors.

Article 3. SNO-PARK Permit Program

5091.15. (a) Except as provided in this section, no person shall, from November 1 of any year to May 30 of the next year, park a vehicle in a designated parking area unless the vehicle displays a parking permit issued by the department. Overnight camping in a vehicle parked in a designated parking area is prohibited.

(b) No parking permit shall be required under this section for a vehicle owned and operated by the United States, another state or political subdivision thereof, or by this state or by a city, county, district, or political subdivision thereof.

(c) The fee for the issuance of a parking permit under this chapter shall be as follows:

(1) Not more than two dollars ($2) for a permit that is valid for a period of one day.

(2) Not more than ten dollars ($10) for a permit that is valid for a period of one year, beginning each November 1.

(d) A person who violates this section is guilty of an infraction punishable by a fine of seventy-five dollars ($75). Unless the peace officer issuing the citation witnesses the parking of the vehicle, a rebuttable presumption exists that a vehicle parked in violation of this section was parked by the registered owner of the vehicle. If the parking of the vehicle is witnessed by the peace officer, the operator of the vehicle is in violation of this section.

5091.16. In order to allow sufficient time to acquaint the public with the requirements of this chapter, if any person cited in accordance with Section 5091.15 presents, by mail or in person, proof of issue of a SNO-PARK permit on or before the date on which he or she promised to appear, the court shall dismiss the violation for failure to display a SNO-PARK parking permit when required.

This section shall become inoperative on May 30, 1987, and, as of January 1, 1988, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1988, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

Article 4. Permits

5091.20. (a) The department shall print the permits required by this chapter and shall supervise the sale of the permits throughout the state.

(b) The department shall either distribute and sell the permits directly or contract with vendors according to rules and regulations established by the department. The authorized vendors shall be bonded in accordance with the rules and regulations and shall receive a stipulated commission for each permit sold. The department may solicit the participation of qualified retail commercial enterprises engaged in the sale or rental of winter recreation equipment to act as authorized vendors of the permits.

Article 5. Revenues

5091.25. (a) Proceeds from the sale of SNO-PARK parking permits shall be paid to the State Treasury to the credit of the Winter Recreation Fund, which is hereby created.

(b) The moneys in the Winter Recreation Fund shall be allocated, when appropriated, as follows:

(1) An amount equal to the actual and necessary costs incurred in the removal of snow from designated parking areas shall be paid to the Department of Transportation.

(2) An amount not to exceed 5 percent of total funds available shall be expended for administrative costs directly incurred through the implementation of this chapter.

(3) The balance of the funds shall be expended for the acquisition, lease, development, and maintenace of additional designated parking areas, for sanitation facilities, trail-head marking, and other facilities designed to promote the safety and well-being of persons engaged in winter recreation, and for grants to counties for the actual and necessary costs incurred in the removal of snow from designated parking areas.

5091.26. Eminent domain shall not be exercised to acquire any interest in property for a designated parking area.

5091.27. The department may adopt rules and regulations necessary to implement and enforce this chapter.

SEC. 3. The sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Parks and Recreation as a loan for administrative and startup costs to implement Section 2 of this act. The loan shall be repaid, together with interest, to the General Fund from the Winter Recreation Fund within five years from the date on which the loan is made. The rate of interest shall be equivalent to the average rate earned by investments in the Pooled Money Investment Account during the period this loan is outstanding.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

SEC. 5. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8217 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

8217. (a) No corporation formed under this part for the sole purpose of operating a single ridesharing vanpool vehicle designed for transporting at least seven persons, including the driver, under an arrangement in which ridesharing is incidental to another purpose of the driver shall be subject to the payment of any fee under provisions of the Government Code for any filing required by this part.

(b) For purposes of this section, "ridesharing" shall have the meaning specified in Section 522 of the Vehicle Code.

SEC. 2. Section 12182.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12182.5. (a) No filing fee established in this article shall be imposed upon a nonprofit mutual benefit corporation having as its sole purpose the operation of a single ridesharing vanpool vehicle designed for transporting at least seven persons, including the driver, under an arrangement in which ridesharing is incidental to another purpose of the driver.

(b) For purposes of this section, "ridesharing" shall have the meaning specified in Section 522 of the Vehicle Code.

SEC. 3. Section 17053 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039), an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivisions (b) and (c).

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this subdivision shall be 20 percent of the cost incurred by an employer for the purchase of company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor-pool vehicles which are provided as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program for employees conducted principally in this state.

(2) The credit provided in paragraph (1) shall be claimed in the state income tax return for the taxable year in which the ridesharing vehicles are purchased and placed in service.

(3) The basis of any ridesharing vehicle purchased for which a credit is allowed shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the taxable year for which the credit is allowed.

(4) If a ridesharing vehicle purchased for which a credit is provided in paragraph (1) is disposed of, or is no longer used as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program, within three years of its acquisition, that portion of the credit provided in paragraph (1) which represents the pro rata share of that remaining three-year period shall be added to the employer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse. The basis of any such vehicle shall be increased by an amount equal to that amount added to the employer's tax liability.

(c) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this subdivision shall be 20 percent of the cost incurred by an employer for leasing or contracting company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or commuter motor-pool vehicles which are provided as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program. This credit shall be based on the total payments to the lessor or vehicle provider during the life of the lease or contract, excluding insurance, maintenance, fuel, drivers' salaries, or other operating expenses. The lessor or vehicle provider of vehicles specified in this subdivision shall not be eligible for this credit.

(2) The credit provided in paragraph (1) shall be claimed in the state income tax return for the taxable year in which the ridesharing vehicles are first leased or contracted for and placed in service. However, with respect to ridesharing vehicles first leased or contracted for prior to the 1984 taxable year, the credit provided in paragraph (1) shall be claimed in the state income tax return for the 1984 taxable year based on the total payments to the lessor or vehicle provider during the 1984 taxable year and the total payments to be made during the remaining life of the lease or contract.

(3) If a ridesharing vehicle leased or contracted for which a credit is provided in paragraph (1) is disposed of, or is no longer used as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program, prior to the expiration date of the lease or contract, that portion of the credit provided in paragraph (1) which represents the pro rata share of the remaining life of that lease or contract shall be added to the employer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse.

(d) The credits allowed by subdivisions (b) and (c) shall not apply to the cost of purchasing, leasing, or contracting company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor-pool vehicles which would otherwise be required as part of the employer's business activities in the absence of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program.

(e) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit which exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over to the "net tax" in succeeding taxable years, with respect to which this section shall remain in effect, notwithstanding subdivision (g), for purposes of carrying over excess credit, until the credit is used. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(f) (1) If the federal investment tax credit for "commuter highway vehicles," as defined and provided for in the Energy Tax Act of 1978, is increased, then to the extent such credit is allowed or allowable for the purchase, lease, or charter of company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor-pool vehicles, as defined in this section, the state credit provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be reduced so that the combined effective credit shall not exceed 30 percent of the costs, notwithstanding the carryover provisions of subdivision (e).

(2) If the federal investment tax credit for "commuter highway vehicles," as defined and provided for in the Energy Tax Act of 1978, is increased, then to the extent the credit is allowed or allowable for the purchase, lease, or charter of company shuttle buses, company commuter buses or vans, or company motor pool vehicles as defined in this section, the state credit provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be reduced by the amount of the increase in the federal credit.

Any such contract amendment shall require the provision of services in addition to that required by the contract being amended. All such services required by contract amendment shall not be performed prior to the date the contract amendment is approved by the state.

Welfare and Institutions Code, on December 31 of the fiscal year for which postponement is claimed.

(c) Where amounts have been postponed for any given fiscal year and the claimant continues to own and occupy the residential dwelling on December 31 of the calendar year in which the fiscal year begins, and the claimant sells the dwelling and buys a new residential dwelling in this state on or before December 31 of the following fiscal year and the new dwelling is the claimant's principal place of residence, then in that event, the claimant shall be deemed to be a qualified claimant for the purpose of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 20581 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

20581. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Senior Citizens and Disabled Citizens Property Tax Postponement Law."

SEC. 3. Section 20583 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

20583. (a) "Residential dwelling" means a dwelling occupied as the principal place of residence of the claimant, and so much of the land surrounding it as is reasonably necessary for use of the dwelling as a home, owned by the claimant, the claimant and spouse, or by the claimant and either another individual eligible for postponement under this chapter or an individual described in subdivision (a), (b) or (c) of Section 20511 and located in this state. It shall include condominiums and mobilehomes which are assessed as realty for local property tax purposes. It also includes part of a multidwelling or multipurpose building and a part of the land upon which it is built. In the case of a mobilehome not assessed as real property which is located on land owned by the claimant, residential "dwelling" includes the land on which the mobilehome is situated and so much of the land surrounding it as reasonably necessary for use of the mobilehome as a home.

(b) As used in this chapter in reference to ownership interests in residential dwellings, "owned" includes (1) the interest of a vendee in possession under a land sale contract provided that the contract or memorandum thereof is recorded and only from the date of recordation of the contract or memorandum thereof in the office of the county recorder where the residential dwelling is located, (2) the interest of the holder of a life estate provided that the instrument creating the life estate is recorded and only from the date of recordation of the instrument creating the life estate in the office of the county recorder where the residential dwelling is located, but "owned" does not include the interest of any remainderman or holder of a reversionary interest in the residential dwelling, (3) the interest of a joint tenant or a tenant in common in the residential dwelling or the interest of a tenant where title is held in tenancy by the entirety or a community property interest where title is held as community property.

(c) For purposes of this chapter, the registered owner of a mobilehome shall be deemed to be the owner of the mobilehome.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (c), and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 20625), ownership must be evidenced by an instrument duly recorded in the office of the county where the residential dwelling is located.

(e) "Residential dwelling" does not include any of the following:

(1) Any residential dwelling in which the owners do not have an equity of at least 20 percent of the full value of the property as determined for purposes of property taxation at the time the claimant or authorized agent tenders to the tax collector for the purposes of postponement the certificate or certificates of eligibility described in Section 20602 and Section 20639.6.

(2) Any residential dwelling in which the claimant's interest is held pursuant to a contract of sale or under a life estate, unless such claimant obtains the written consent of the vendor under the contract of sale, or the holder of the reversionary interest upon termination of the life estate for the postponement of taxes and the creation of a lien on the real property in favor of the state for amounts postponed pursuant to this act.

(3) Any residential dwelling on which the claimant does not receive a secured tax bill.

(4) Any residential dwelling in which the claimant's interest is held as a possessory interest, except as provided in Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 20640).

(5) (A) Except as provided in this section, any residential dwelling on which the property taxes, as defined in Section 20584, are delinquent at the time the application for postponement under this chapter is made or on which any other property tax or special assessment imposed by a special district or other tax code area is delinquent at the time the application for postponement under this chapter is made.

(B) Any taxes or assessments described in subparagraph (A) which are delinquent on July 1, 1977, shall not disqualify an otherwise eligible dwelling for postponement under this chapter. An application for postponement under this chapter to postpone the payment of property taxes for the 1977–78 fiscal year, shall also constitute an application for the postponement of all such delinquent taxes and assessments, together with any penalties, interest, fees, or other charges resulting from such delinquency and such amounts shall, unless otherwise paid by the claimant, be paid out of the amount appropriated by Section 16100 of the Government Code and shall be added to and become part of the obligation secured by the lien provided by Section 16182 of the Government Code; provided, however, that upon payment of delinquent taxes and assessments for fiscal year 1976–77 out of the amount appropriated by Section 16100, any delinquent penalties, interest, fees or other charges resulting from the delinquency of such taxes and assessments for fiscal year 1976–77 shall be canceled.

(C) For 1978–79 and thereafter, any taxes or assessments described in subparagraph (A) which became delinquent after the claimant was 62 and before the claimant first has established a lien pursuant to Section 16182 of the Government Code shall not disqualify an otherwise eligible dwelling for postponement under this chapter. An application to postpone taxes for 1978–79 or thereafter shall also constitute an application for the postponement of all delinquent taxes and assessments, together with any penalties, interest, fees, or other charges resulting from the delinquency and those amounts shall, unless otherwise paid by the claimant, be paid out of the amount appropriated by Section 16100 of the Government Code and shall be added to and become part of the obligation secured by the lien provided by Section 16182 of the Government Code.

(6) All taxes or assessments described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (5) which are delinquent on the date this bill takes effect shall not disqualify an otherwise eligible blind or disabled applicant's dwelling from postponement under this chapter. A blind or disabled citizen's application for postponement of property taxes shall not constitute an application for the postponement of any delinquent taxes and assessments, or any penalties, interest, fees or other charges resulting from delinquency. Delinquent taxes of blind or disabled applicants shall not be subject to postponement under this chapter.

SEC. 4. Section 20621 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

20621. Each claimant applying for postponement under Article 2 (commencing with Section 20601) of this chapter shall file a claim under penalty of perjury with the Controller on a form supplied by the Controller. The claim shall contain:

(a) Evidence acceptable to the Controller that the person was a "senior citizen claimant", or a "blind or disabled claimant."

(b) A statement showing the household income for the period set forth in Section 20503.

(c) A statement describing the residential dwelling in a manner as the Controller may prescribe.

(d) The name of the county in which the residential dwelling is located and the address of the residential dwelling.

(e) The county assessor's parcel number applicable to the property for which the claimant is applying for the postponement of property taxes.

(f) Documentation evidencing the current existence of any abstract of judgment, federal tax lien, or state tax lien filed or recorded against the applicant, and any recorded mortgage, or deed of trust which affect the subject residential dwelling, for the purpose of determining that the claimant possesses a 20 percent equity in the subject residential dwelling as required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 20583.

Actual costs, not in excess of fifty dollars ($50), paid by the claimant to obtain the documentation shall, in the event the Controller issues a certificate of eligibility, reduce the amount of the lien for the year, but not the face amount of the payment prescribed in Section 16180.

(g) Other information required by the Controller to establish eligibility.

SEC. 5. This act shall not become operative unless Assembly Constitutional Amendment 66 of the 1983–84 Regular Session of the Legislature is adopted. In the event Assembly Constitutional Amendment 66 is adopted, this act shall apply to property taxes due for the 1985–86 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter.

CHAPTER 1579

An act to add Section 21382.4 to the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21382.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

21382.4. (a) In lieu of benefits provided in Section 21382 or Section 21382.2, if the death benefit provided by Section 21361 is payable on account of a state member's death which occurs under circumstances other than those described in subdivision (a) (5) of Section 21360, or if an allowance under Section 21365.5 is payable, the payment pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be made in the following order of priority:

(1) The surviving wife or surviving husband of the member, who has the care of unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the member who are under 22 years of age, or are incapacitated because of disability which began before and has continued without interruption after attainment of that age.

(2) The guardian of surviving unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the member who are 22 years of age or are so incapacitated.

(3) The surviving wife or surviving husband of the member, who does not qualify under paragraph (1).

(4) Each surviving parent of the member.

(b) Regardless of the benefit provided by Section 21361 and of the beneficiary designated by the member under that section, or regardless of the allowance provided under Section 21365.5, the following applicable 1959 survivor allowance, under the conditions stated and from contributions of the state, shall be paid:

(1) A widow or a widower who was married to the member prior to the occurrence of the injury or onset of the illness which resulted in death, and has the care of unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the deceased member who are under 22 years of age or are so incapacitated, shall be paid seven hundred dollars ($700) per month if there is one such child, or eight hundred forty dollars ($840) per month if there are two or more such children. If there also are such children who are not in the care of the surviving spouse, the portion of the allowance payable under this paragraph, assuming that these children were in the care of the surviving spouse, which is in excess of three hundred fifty dollars ($350) per month, shall be divided equally among all those children and payments made to the spouse and other children, as the case may be.

(2) If there is no such surviving spouse, or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries, and if there are unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the deceased member who are under 22 years of age or are so incapacitated, or if there are such children not in the care of the spouse, the children shall be paid an allowance as follows:

(A) If there is only one child, the child shall be paid three hundred fifty dollars ($350) per month.

(B) If there are two children, the children shall be paid seven hundred dollars ($700) per month divided equally between them.

(C) If there are three or more children, the children shall be paid eight hundred forty dollars ($840) per month divided equally among them.

(3) A widow or a widower who has attained or attains the age of 62 years, and, with respect to both widow and widower, who was married to the member prior to the occurrence of the injury or onset of the illness which resulted in death and has not remarried subsequent to the member's death, shall be paid three hundred fifty dollars ($350) per month. No allowance shall be paid under paragraph (1), or while an allowance is being paid under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2). The allowance paid under this paragraph shall be one hundred forty dollars ($140) per month while an allowance is being paid under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2).

(4) If there is no surviving spouse or surviving child who qualifies for the 1959 survivor allowance, or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries and there is no such surviving child, or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries and the children die or marry or, if not incapacitated, reach 22 years of age, each of the member's dependent parents who has attained or attains the age of 62 years, and who received at least one-half of his support from the member at the time of the member's death, shall be paid three hundred fifty dollars ($350) per month.

(c) "Stepchildren," for purposes of this section, shall include only stepchildren of the member living with the member in a regular parent-child relationship at the time of the death of the member.

(d) This section shall apply to beneficiaries of state members receiving 1959 survivor allowances on January 1, 1985. All assets and liabilities of all state agencies and their employees on account of benefits provided to beneficiaries specified in this subdivision shall be pooled into a single account. The board shall transfer from the reserve for 1959 survivor contributions retained in the retirement fund, an amount sufficient to pay the cost of the increased benefits provided by this subdivision for beneficiaries of members who died on or before December 31, 1984.

(e) This section shall not apply to beneficiaries with respect to the death of a state member occurring on or after January 1, 1985, unless provided for in a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Section 3517.5. The memorandum of understanding adopting this section shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if those provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, those provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature as provided by law.

(f) This section shall apply, with respect to benefits payable on and after January 1, 1985, to school members, except that it shall not apply, without contract amendment, with respect to safety members who became members after January 1, 1985. All assets and liabilities of all school employers, and their employees, on account of benefits provided under this article shall be pooled into a single account, and a single employer rate shall be established to provide benefits under this section on account of school members employed by a school employer.

(g) This section shall apply to members of a contracting agency which, by amending its contract, first elects effective on or after January 1, 1985, to make this article applicable to local members employed by the agency. On and after January 1, 1985, contracting agencies already subject to Section 21382 or Section 21382.2 may elect by contract amendment to be subject to this section. All assets and liabilities of all contracting agencies subject to this section, and their employees, on account of benefits provided under this article shall be pooled into a single account, and a single employer rate shall be established to provide benefits under this section on account of members employed by a contracting agency which is subject to this section.

(h) The rate of contribution of an employer subject to this section shall be figured using the term insurance valuation method. If a contracting agency which is subject to this section has a surplus in its 1959 survivor benefit account as of the date the contracting agency becomes subject to this section, such surplus will be applied to reduce its rate of contribution. If a contracting agency which is subject to this section has a deficit in its 1959 survivor benefit account as of the date the contracting agency becomes subject to this section, its rate of contribution will be increased until the deficit is paid.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

If such compensation is greater than his retirement allowance, his retirement allowance shall be suspended so long as he receives such compensation. If such compensation is less than his retirement allowance, his retirement allowance shall continue to be paid while he receives such compensation but only in an amount equal to the difference between such compensation and the retirement allowance to which he would otherwise be entitled.

A retired judge of a justice court assigned to sit in a court shall be compensated while so sitting at the full compensation of a judge of the court to which he is assigned, or the compensation specified in Section 68541, whichever is greater. Such compensation shall be chargeable for the period specified in Section 68547 the same as provided by law with respect to the compensation of a judge of the court to which he is assigned except that when chargeable to the state, such compensation is payable out of any appropriation for extra compensation of judges assigned by the Chairman of the Judicial Council.

If such compensation is greater than his retirement allowance, his retirement allowance shall be suspended so long as he receives such compensation. If such compensation is less than his retirement allowance, his retirement allowance shall continue to be paid while he receives such compensation but only in an amount equal to the difference between such compensation and the retirement allowance to which he would otherwise be entitled.

If a judge retired under the Judges' Retirement Law is assigned to sit in a court, the 8-percent difference between the compensation of the retired judge while so assigned and the compensation of a judge of the court to which assigned shall be paid to the Judges' Retirement Fund.

When assigned to sit in a county other than that in which he resides, he shall also be allowed his necessary expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment. Such expenses, if any, shall be chargeable as follows:

Notwithstanding the above provisions pertaining to compensation, a retired judge on senior judge status shall receive compensation from the state as provided in Section 75028, and be allowed necessary expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment as provided in this section.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 68543.5 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3328. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1985, (2) each bill amends Section 68543.5 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3328, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. CHAPTER 1584

An act to amend and renumber Sections 25284, 25284.1, 25284.5, 25287, 25288, and 25288.2 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25284 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25284. Every underground storage tank installed after January 1, 1984, shall meet all of the following requirements:

(a) Be designed and constructed to provide primary and secondary levels of containment of the hazardous substances stored in it in accordance with the following performance standards:

(1) Primary containment shall be product-tight.

(2) Secondary containment shall be constructed to prevent structural weakening as a result of contact with any released hazardous substances, and also shall be capable of storing the hazardous substances for the maximum anticipated period of time necessary for the recovery of any released hazardous substance.

(3) In the case of an installation with one primary container, the secondary containment shall be large enough to contain at least 100 percent of the volume of the primary tank.

(4) In the case of multiple primary tanks, the secondary container shall be large enough to contain 150 percent of the volume of the largest primary tank placed in it, or 10 percent of the aggregate internal volume of all primary tanks, whichever is greater.

(5) If the facility is open to rainfall, then the secondary containment must be able to additionally accommodate the volume of a 24-hour rainfall as determined by a 100-year storm history.

(6) Single-walled containers do not fulfill the requirement of an underground storage tank providing both a primary and a secondary containment. However, an underground storage tank with a primary container constructed with a double complete shell shall be deemed to have met the requirements for primary and secondary containment set forth in this section if the outer shell is constructed primarily of nonearthen materials, including, but not limited to, concrete, steel, and plastic, which provide structural support; a continuous leak detection system with alarm is located in the space between the shells; the system is capable of detecting the entry of hazardous substances from the inner container into the space; and the system is capable of detecting water intrusion into the space from the outer shell.

(7) The design and construction of underground storage tanks for motor vehicle fuels storage need not meet the requirements of paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, if the primary containment construction is of glass fibre reinforced plastic, cathodically protected steel, or steel clad with glass fibre reinforced plastic, any such alternative primary containment is installed in conjunction with a system that will intercept and direct a leak from any part of the tank to a monitoring well to detect any release of motor vehicle fuels stored in the tank and which is designed to provide early leak detection, response, and to protect groundwater from releases, and if the monitoring is in accordance with the alternative method identified in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 25284.1. Pressurized piping systems connected to underground storage tanks used for the storage of motor vehicle fuels and monitored in accordance with paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 25284.1 also meet the requirements of this subdivision.

(b) Be designed and constructed with a monitoring system capable of detecting the entry of the hazardous substance stored in the primary containment into the secondary containment. If water could intrude into the secondary containment, a means of monitoring for water intrusion and for safely removing the water shall also be provided.

(c) When required by the local agency, a means of overfill protection for any primary tank, including an overfill prevention device or an attention-getting higher level alarm, or both. Primary tank filling operations of underground storage tanks containing motor vehicle fuels which are visually monitored and controlled by a facility operator satisfy the requirements of this subdivision.

(d) Different substances that in combination may cause a fire or explosion, or the production of flammable, toxic, or poisonous gas, or the deterioration of a primary or secondary container, shall be separated in both the primary and secondary containment so as to avoid potential intermixing.

(e) If water could enter into the secondary containment by precipitation or infiltration, the facility shall contain a means of removing the water by the owner or operator. This removal system shall also prevent uncontrolled removal of this water and provide for a means of analyzing the removed water for hazardous substance contamination and a means of disposing of the water, if so contaminated, at an authorized disposal facility.

(f) Before the underground storage tank is covered, enclosed, or placed in use, the standard installation testing for requirements for underground storage systems specified in Section 2-7 of the Flammable and Combustible Liquids Code, adopted by the National Fire Protection Association, (NFPA 30) as amended and published in the respective edition of the Uniform Fire Code, shall be followed.

(g) Before the underground storage tank is placed in service, the underground storage systems shall be tested in operating condition using a precision test as defined in National Fire Protection Association Pamphlet 329, "Recommended Practice for Handling Underground Leakage of Flammable and Combustible Liquids," as amended, for proving the integrity of an underground storage tank.

(h) If the underground storage tank is designed to maintain a water level in the secondary containment, the tank shall be equipped with a safe method of removing any excess water to a holding facility and the owner or operator shall inspect the holding facility monthly for the presence of excess water overflow. If excess water is present in the holding facility, the permitholder shall provide a means to analyze the water for hazardous substance contamination and a means to dispose of the water, if so contaminated, at an authorized disposal facility.

SEC. 2. Section 25284 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

25291. Every underground storage tank installed after January 1, 1984, shall meet all of the following requirements:

(a) Be designed and constructed to provide primary and secondary levels of containment of the hazardous substances stored in it in accordance with the following performance standards:

(1) Primary containment shall be product-tight.

(2) Secondary containment shall be constructed to prevent structural weakening as a result of contact with any released hazardous substances, and also shall be capable of storing the hazardous substances for the maximum anticipated period of time necessary for the recovery of any released hazardous substance.

(3) In the case of an installation with one primary container, the secondary containment shall be large enough to contain at least 100 percent of the volume of the primary tank.

(4) In the case of multiple primary tanks, the secondary container shall be large enough to contain 150 percent of the volume of the largest primary tank placed in it, or 10 percent of the aggregate internal volume of all primary tanks, whichever is greater.

(5) If the facility is open to rainfall, then the secondary containment shall be able to additionally accommodate the volume of a 24-hour rainfall as determined by a 100-year storm history.

(6) Single-walled containers do not fulfill the requirement of an underground storage tank providing both a primary and a secondary containment. However, an underground storage tank with a primary container constructed with a double complete shell shall be deemed to have met the requirements for primary and secondary containment set forth in this section if the outer shell is constructed primarily of nonearthen materials, including, but not limited to, concrete, steel, and plastic, which provide structural support and a continuous leak detection system with alarm is located in the space between the shells; the system is capable of detecting the entry of hazardous substances from the inner container into the space; and the system is capable of detecting water intrusion into the space from the outer shell.

(7) The design and construction of underground storage tanks for motor vehicle fuels storage need not meet the requirements of paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, if all of the following conditions exist:

(A) The primary containment construction is of glass fiber reinforced plastic, cathodically protected steel, or steel clad with glass fiber reinforced plastic.

(B) Any alternative primary containment is installed in conjunction with a system that will intercept and direct a leak from any part of the tank to a monitoring well to detect any release of motor vehicle fuels stored in the tank.

(C) The system designed to provide early leak detection and response, and to protect the groundwater from releases.

(D) The monitoring is in accordance with the alternative method identified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 25292.

(E) Pressurized piping systems connected to underground storage tanks used for the storage of motor vehicle fuels and monitored in accordance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 25292 also meet the requirements of this subdivision provided that the tank meets the conditions of subparagraphs (A) to (D), inclusive.

(b) Be designed and constructed with a monitoring system capable of detecting the entry of the hazardous substance stored in the primary containment into the secondary containment. If water could intrude into the secondary containment, a means of monitoring for water intrusion and for safely removing the water shall also be provided.

(c) When required by the local agency, a means of overfill protection for any primary tank, including an overfill prevention device or an attention-getting higher level alarm, or both. Primary tank filling operations of underground storage tanks containing motor vehicle fuels which are visually monitored and controlled by a facility operator satisfy the requirements of this subdivision.

(d) If different substances are stored in the same tank and in combination may cause a fire or explosion, or the production of flammable, toxic, or poisonous gas, or the deterioration of a primary or secondary container, then they shall be separated in both the primary and secondary containment so as to avoid potential intermixing.

(e) If water could enter into the secondary containment by precipitation or infiltration, the facility shall contain a means of removing the water by the owner or operator. This removal system shall also prevent uncontrolled removal of this water and provide for a means of analyzing the removed water for hazardous substance contamination and a means of disposing of the water, if so contaminated, at an authorized disposal facility.

(f) Before the underground storage tank is covered, enclosed, or placed in use, the standard installation testing for requirements for underground storage systems specified in Section 2-7 of the Flammable and Combustible Liquids Code, adopted by the National Fire Protection Association, (NFPA 30) as amended and published in the respective edition of the Uniform Fire Code, shall be followed.

(g) Before the underground storage tank is placed in service, the underground storage systems shall be tested in operating condition using a precision test as defined in National Fire Protection Association Pamphlet 329, "Recommended Practice for Handling Underground Leakage of Flammable and Combustible Liquids," as amended, for proving the integrity of an underground storage tank.

(h) If the underground storage tank is designed to maintain a water level in the secondary containment, the tank shall be equipped with a safe method of removing any excess water to a holding facility and the owner or operator shall inspect the holding facility monthly for the presence of excess water overflow. If excess water is present in the holding facility, the permitholder shall provide a means to analyze the water for hazardous substance contamination and a means to dispose of the water, if so contaminated, at an authorized disposal facility.

SEC. 3. Section 25284.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25284.1. For every underground storage tank installed on or before January 1, 1984, and used for the storage of hazardous substances, all of the following actions shall be taken:

(a) On or before January 1, 1985, the owner shall outfit the facility with a monitoring system capable of detecting unauthorized releases of any hazardous substances stored in the facility, and thereafter, the operator shall monitor each facility, based on materials stored and the type of monitoring installed.

(b) Provide a means for visual inspection of the tank, wherever practical, for the purpose of the monitoring required by subdivision (a). Alternative methods of monitoring the tank on a monthly or more frequent basis may be required by the local agency, consistent with the regulations of the board.

The alternative monitoring methods include, but are not limited to, the following methods:

following requirements are met:

(A) Inventory records are kept on file for one year and are reviewed quarterly.

(B) The tank is tested, using the precision test as defined by the National Fire Protection Association Pamphlet 329, "Recommended Practice for Handling Underground Leakage of Flammable and Combustible Liquids," as amended, for proving the integrity of an underground storage tank at time intervals specified by the board and whenever there is a shortage greater than the amount which the board shall specify by regulation.

(C) If a pressurized pump system is connected to the tank, the system has a leak detection device to monitor for leaks in the piping.

SEC. 4. Section 25284.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

25292. For every underground storage tank installed on or before January 1, 1984, and used for the storage of hazardous substances, the following actions shall be taken:

(a) On or before July 1, 1985, the owner shall outfit the facility with a monitoring system capable of detecting unauthorized releases of any hazardous substances stored in the facility, and thereafter, the operator shall monitor each facility, based on materials stored and the type of monitoring installed.

(b) Provide a means for visual inspection of the tank, wherever practical, for the purpose of the monitoring required by subdivision (a). Alternative methods of monitoring the tank on a monthly, or more frequent basis, may be required by the local agency, consistent with the regulations of the board.

The alternative monitoring methods include, but are not limited to, the following methods:

(1) Precision testing as defined in National Fire Protection Association Pamphlet 329, "Recommended Practice for Handling Underground Leakage of Flammable and Combustible Liquids," as amended, for proving the integrity of an underground storage tank and piping system at time intervals specified by the board.

(2) A groundwater monitoring well or wells which are downgradient and adjacent to the underground storage tank, vapor analysis within a well where appropriate, and analysis of soil borings at the time of initial installation of the well.

(3) A continuous leak detection and alarm system which is located in monitoring wells adjacent to an underground storage tank and which is approved by the local agency.

(B) The tank is tested, using the precision test as defined by the National Fire Protection Association Pamphlet 329, "Recommended Practice for Handling Underground Leakage of Flammable and Combustible Solids," as amended, for proving the integrity of an underground storage tank at time intervals specified by the board and whenever there is a shortage greater than the amount which the board shall specify by regulation.

(C) If a pressurized pump system is connected to the tank system, the system has a leak detection device to monitor for leaks in the piping.

(c) The board shall develop regulations specifying monitoring alternatives. The local agency, or any other public agency specified by the local agency, shall approve the location and number of wells, the depth of wells, and the sampling frequency, pursuant to these regulations.

SEC. 5. Section 25284.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25284.5. (a) If there has been any unauthorized release, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25284.4, from an underground storage tank containing motor vehicle fuel not under pressure, the permitholder may repair the tank once by an interior-coating process if the tank meets all of the following requirements:

(1) One of the following tests has been conducted to determine the thickness of the storage tank:

(A) An ultrasonic test.

(B) Certification by a special inspector that the shell will provide structural support for the interior lining. The special inspector shall make this certification by entering and inspecting the entire interior surface of the tank and shall base this certification upon the following procedures and criteria:

(i) If the tank is made of fiberglass, the tank is cleaned so that no residue remains on the tank wall surface. The special inspector shall take interior diameter measurements and, if the cross-section has compressed more than 1 percent of the original diameter, the tank shall not be certified and shall also not be returned to service. The special inspector shall also conduct an interior inspection to identify any area where compression or tension cracking is occurring and shall determine whether additional glass fiber reinforcing is required for certification before the tank may be lined.

(ii) If the tank is made of steel, the tank interior surface shall be abrasive blasted completely free of scale, rust, and foreign matter, as specified in the American Petroleum Institute's recommended practice 16-31, relating to white metal blasting. The special inspection shall sound any perforations or areas showing corrosion pitting with a brass ballpeen hammer to enlarge the perforation or break through a potentially thin steel area. Tanks that have any of the following defects shall not be certified or returned to service:

(a) A tank which has an open seam or a split longer than three inches.

(b) A tank which has a perforation larger than one and one-half inches in diameter, or a gauging opening larger than two and one-half inches in diameter.

(c) A tank with five or more perforations.

(d) A tank with 20 or more perforations in a 500 square foot area.

(e) A tank with a perforation larger than one-half inch.

(C) A test approved by the board as comparable to the tests specified in subparagraph (A) or (B). If the person conducting the test determines that the test results indicate that the tank has a serious corrosion problem, the local agency may require additional corrosion protection for the tank or may prohibit the permitholder from making the repair.

(2) The material used to repair the tank by an interior-coating process is compatible with the motor vehicle fuel that is stored, as approved by the board by regulation.

(3) The material used to repair the tank by an interior-coating process is applied in accordance with nationally recognized engineering practices, such as the American Petroleum Institute's recommended practice No. 1631 for the interior lining of existing underground storage tanks.

(4) Before the tank is placed back into service following the repair, the tank is tested in the operating condition using the precision test defined by the National Fire Protection Association Pamphlet 329, "Recommended Practice for Handling Underground Leakage of Flammable and Combustible Liquids," as amended, for proving the integrity of an underground storage tank.

(b) The board may adopt regulations, in consultation with the State Fire Marshal, for the repair of underground storage tanks, which may include, but are not limited to, a requirement that a test be conducted to determine whether the interior-coating process has bonded to the wall of the tank. The standards specified in this section shall remain in effect until the adoption of these regulations.

(c) The board shall, by regulation, require that monitoring systems be installed when a repair is made pursuant to subdivision (a). For purposes of this subdivision, "monitoring system" means a continuous leak detection and alarm system which is located in monitoring wells adjacent to an underground storage tank and which is approved by the board.

(d) If there has not been an unauthorized release, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25284.4, from an underground storage tank containing motor vehicle fuel not under pressure, the permitholder may line the interior of the tank as a preventative measure. If an unauthorized release occurs from a tank which was lined as a preventative measure, the permitholder shall not reline the tank again.

SEC. 6. Section 25284.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

25296. (a) If there has been any unauthorized release, as defined in Section 25294 or subdivision (a) of Section 25295, from an underground storage tank containing motor vehicle fuel not under pressure, the permitholder may repair the tank once by an interior-coating process if the tank meets all of the following requirements:

(1) One of the following tests has been conducted to determine the thickness of the storage tank:

(A) An ultrasonic test.

(B) Certification by a special inspector that the shell will provide structural support for the interior lining. The special inspector shall make this certification by entering and inspecting the entire interior surface of the tank and shall base this certification upon the following procedures and criteria:

(i) If the tank is made of fiberglass, the tank is cleaned so that no residue remains on the tank wall surface. The special inspector shall take interior diameter measurements and, if the cross-section has compressed more than 1 percent of the original diameter, the tank shall not be certified and shall also not be returned to service. The special inspector shall also conduct an interior inspection to identify any area where compression or tension cracking is occurring and shall determine whether additional glass fiber reinforcing is required for certification before the tank may be lined.

(ii) If the tank is made of steel, the tank interior surface shall be abrasive blasted completely free of scale, rust, and foreign matter, as specified in the American Petroleum Institute's recommended practice 16-31, relating to white metal blasting. The special inspection shall sound any perforations or areas showing corrosion pitting with a brass ballpeen hammer to enlarge the perforation or break through a potentially thin steel area. Tanks that have any of the following defects shall not be certified or returned to service:

(a) A tank which has an open seam or a split longer than three inches.

(b) A tank which has a perforation larger than one and one-half inches in diameter, or a gauging opening larger than two and one-half inches in diameter.

(c) A tank with five or more perforations.

(d) A tank with 20 or more perforations in a 500 square foot area.

(e) A tank with a perforation larger than one-half inch.

(C) A test approved by the board as comparable to the tests specified in subparagraph (A) or (B).

If the person conducting the test determines that the test results indicate that the tank has a serious corrosion problem, the local agency may require additional corrosion protection for the tank or may prohibit the permitholder from making the repair.

(2) The material used to repair the tank by an interior-coating process is compatible with the motor vehicle fuel that is stored, as approved by the board by regulation.

(3) The material used to repair the tank by an interior-coating process is applied in accordance with nationally recognized engineering practices such as the American Petroleum Institute's recommended practice No. 1631 for the interior lining of existing underground storage tanks.

(4) Before the tank is placed back into service following the repair, the tank is tested in the operating condition using the precision test defined by the National Fire Protection Association Pamphlet 329, "Recommended Practice for Handling Underground Leakage of Flammable and Combustible Liquids," as amended, for proving the integrity of an underground storage tank.

(b) The board may adopt regulations, in consultation with the State Fire Marshal, for the repair of underground storage tanks, which may include, but are not limited to, a requirement that a test be conducted to determine whether the interior-coating process has bonded to the wall of the tank. The standards specified in subdivision (a) shall remain in effect until the adoption of these regulations.

(c) The board shall, by regulation, require that monitoring systems be installed when a repair is made pursuant to this section. For purposes of this subdivision, "monitoring system" means a continuous leak detection and alarm system which is located in monitoring wells adjacent to an underground storage tank and which is approved by the board.

(d) If there has not been an unauthorized release, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25295, from an underground storage tank containing motor vehicle fuel not under pressure, the permitholder may line the interior of the tank as a preventative measure. If an unauthorized release occurs from a tank which was lined as a preventative measure, the permitholder shall not reline the tank again.

SEC. 7. Section 25287 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

25299. (a) Any operator of an underground storage tank shall be liable for a civil penalty of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) or more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) per day for any of the following:

(c) Any person who falsifies any monitoring records required by this chapter, or knowingly fails to report an unauthorized release, shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed one year, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(d) In determining both the civil and criminal penalties imposed pursuant to this section, the court shall consider all relevant circumstances, including, but not limited to, the extent of harm or potential harm caused by the violation, the nature of the violation and the period of time over which it occurred, the frequency of past violations, and the corrective action, if any, taken by the person who holds the permit.

(e) Penalties under this section are in addition to, and do not supersede or limit, any and all other legal remedies and penalties, civil or criminal, which may be applicable under other laws.

(f) In addition to the state and any city or county implementing this chapter pursuant to Section 25283, a city or county specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25299.1 may also levy and collect penalties under this section.

SEC. 8. Section 25288 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

25299.1. (a) Any city, county or city and county which prior to January 1, 1984, has adopted an ordinance which, at a minimum meets the requirements set forth in Section 25291 and 25292, providing for double containment, monitoring of underground storage tanks and under which permits are issued therefor is exempt from the provisions of this chapter so long as the ordinance, as it may be amended, continues to meet the requirements of Sections 25291 and 25292.

Those local agencies which are exempted from this chapter pursuant to this subdivision shall submit to the board the application form and annual information specified by Section 25286 and shall submit a written report of any unauthorized release from an underground storage tank to the Office of Emergency Services within 10 working days from the time the local agency is notified of the unauthorized release. Every local agency exempted from this chapter, except a county of the fifth class and the cities within that county, shall, until January 1, 1990, collect and transmit to the board the surcharge specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25287.

(b) This chapter shall not be construed to limit or abridge the authority of any city, county, or city and county to adopt an ordinance requiring information, conducting investigations, inspections, or implementing and enforcing this chapter.

SEC. 9. Section 25288.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

25299.4. These regulations shall be promulgated by the board by January 1, 1985. The board may adopt regulations implementing Sections 25286, 25287, and 25290 as it deems necessary.

(b) Until the board adopts regulations, any city or county may implement Section 25291 with regard to permits. Any tank or facility so permitted shall be deemed to be in compliance with the regulations of the board implementing that section. Any underground storage tank installed within a city or county which has not implemented Section 25291 prior to the adoption of regulations by the board shall be subject to the same requirements of this chapter as an underground storage tank installed prior to January 1, 1984.

Every city and county shall, without undue delay, undertake its regulatory responsibilities under this chapter after the board adopts its regulations pursuant to subdivision (a). Every city and county shall implement this chapter by no later than July 1, 1985.

SEC. 10. Sections 2, 4, and 6 of the bill incorporate amendments to Sections 25284, 25284.1, and 25284.5, of the Health and Safety Code, respectively proposed by both this bill and AB 3565. These sections shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1985, (2) each bill amends Sections 25284, 25284.1, and 25284.5 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3565, in which case Sections 1, 3, and 5 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 11. Sections 7, 8, and 9 of this bill shall become operative only if (1) this bill and AB 3565 are enacted, (2) both bills amend Sections 25287, 25288, and 25288.2 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3565.

SEC. 12. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

CHAPTER 1585

An act to amend and renumber Section 23208 of the Vehicle Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23208 of the Vehicle Code is amended and renumbered to read:

41403. (a) In any proceedings to have a prior judgment of conviction of a violation of Section 14601, 14601.1, 14601.2, 23152, or 23153, or Section 23103 as specified in Section 23103.5, declared invalid on constitutional grounds, the defendant shall state in writing and with specificity wherein the defendant was deprived of the defendant's constitutional rights, which statement shall be filed with the clerk of the court and a copy served on the court that rendered the prior judgment and on the prosecuting attorney in the present proceedings at least five court days prior to the hearing thereon.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), the court shall, prior to the trial of any pending criminal action against the defendant wherein the prior conviction is charged as such, hold a hearing, outside of the presence of the jury, in order to determine the constitutional validity of the charged prior conviction issue. At the hearing the procedure, the burden of proof, and the burden of producing evidence shall be as follows:

(1) The burden of proof remains with the prosecution throughout and is that of beyond a reasonable doubt.

(2) The prosecution shall initially have the burden of producing evidence of the prior conviction sufficient to justify a finding that the defendant has suffered that prior conviction.

(3) After the production of evidence required by paragraph (2), the defendant then has the burden of producing evidence that the defendant's constitutional rights were infringed in the prior proceeding at issue. If the prior conviction sought to be invalidated is based upon a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, the defendant shall provide the court with evidence of the prior plea, including, when available, the court docket, written waivers of constitutional rights executed by the defendant, and transcripts of the relevant court proceedings at the time of the entry of the defendant's plea. These records shall be provided to the defendant without cost to him or her, when the defendant is represented by the public defender or counsel appointed pursuant to Section 987.2 of the Penal Code.

(4) If the defendant bears this burden successfully, the prosecution shall have the right to produce evidence in rebuttal.

(5) The court shall make a finding on the basis of the evidence thus produced and shall strike from the accusatory pleading any prior conviction found to be constitutionally invalid.

(c) If the defendant fails to comply with the notice requirement of subdivision (a) or fails to produce the evidence required by paragraph (3) of subdivision (b), the court shall hear the motion at the time of sentencing in lieu of continuing the trial, unless good cause is shown for failure to provide notice pursuant to subdivision (a) or produce the evidence required by paragraph (3) of subdivision (b), in which case the court shall grant a continuance of the trial for a reasonable period. The procedure, burden of proof, and burden of producing evidence as provided in subdivision (b) shall apply regardless of when the motion is heard.

SEC. 2. Section 23208 of the Vehicle Code is amended and renumbered to read:

41403. (a) In any proceedings to have a judgment of conviction of a violation of Section 14601, 14601.1, 14601.2, 23152, or 23153, or Section 23103 as specified in Section 23103.5, which was entered in a separate proceeding, declared invalid on constitutional grounds, the defendant shall state in writing and with specificity wherein the defendant was deprived of the defendant's constitutional rights, which statement shall be filed with the clerk of the court and a copy served on the court that rendered that judgment and on the prosecuting attorney in the present proceedings at least five court days prior to the hearing thereon.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), the court shall, prior to the trial of any pending criminal action against the defendant wherein the separate conviction is charged as such, hold a hearing, outside of the presence of the jury, in order to determine the constitutional validity of the charged separate conviction issue. At the hearing the procedure, the burden of proof, and the burden of producing evidence shall be as follows:

(1) The burden of proof remains with the prosecution throughout and is that of beyond a reasonable doubt.

(2) The prosecution shall initially have the burden of producing evidence of the separate conviction sufficient to justify a finding that the defendant has suffered that separate conviction.

(3) After the production of evidence required by paragraph (2), the defendant then has the burden of producing evidence that the defendant's constitutional rights were infringed in the separate proceeding at issue. If the separate conviction sought to be invalidated is based upon a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, the defendant shall provide the court with evidence of the prior plea, including the court docket, written waivers of constitutional rights executed by the defendant, and transcripts of the relevant court proceedings at the time of the entry of the defendant's plea. These records shall be provided to the defendant without cost to him or her, when the defendant is represented by the public defender or counsel appointed pursuant to Section 987.2 of the Penal Code.

(4) If the defendant bears this burden successfully, the prosecution shall have the right to produce evidence in rebuttal.

(5) The court shall make a finding on the basis of the evidence thus produced and shall strike from the accusatory pleading any separate conviction found to be constitutionally invalid.

(c) If the defendant fails to comply with the notice requirement of subdivision (a) or fails to produce the evidence required by paragraph (3) of subdivision (b), the court shall hear the motion at the time of sentencing in lieu of continuing the trial, unless good cause is shown for failure to provide notice pursuant to subdivision (a) or produce the evidence required by paragraph (3) of subdivision (b), in which case the court shall grant a continuance of the trial for a reasonable period. The procedure, burden of proof, and burden of producing evidence as provided in subdivision (b) shall apply regardless of when the motion is heard.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendment and renumbering of Section 23208 of the Vehicle Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3833. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1985, (2) each bill affects Section 23208 of the Vehicle Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3833, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

An act to amend Sections 68543.5 and 75028 of, to add Sections 68701.5, 75028.1, 75028.2, 75028.3, and 75028.4 to, the Government Code, relating to the Judges' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 68543.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68543.5. Whenever a judge retired as such under the Judges' Retirement Law is assigned to sit in a court, he shall be compensated while so sitting at a rate equal to 92 percent of the full compensation of a judge of the court to which he is assigned. A retired judge of a justice court assigned to sit in a court shall be compensated while so sitting at the full compensation of a judge of the court to which he is assigned, or the compensation specified in Section 68541, whichever is greater. Such compensation shall be chargeable for the period specified in Section 68547 the same as provided by law with respect to the compensation of a judge of the court to which he is assigned except that when chargeable to the state, such compensation is payable out of any appropriation for extra compensation of judges assigned by the Chairman of the Judicial Council.

If such compensation is greater than his retirement allowance, his retirement allowance shall be suspended so long as he receives such compensation. If such compensation is less than his retirement allowance, his retirement allowance shall continue to be paid while he receives such compensation but only in an amount equal to the difference between such compensation and the retirement allowance to which he would otherwise be entitled.

If a judge retired under the Judges' Retirement Law is assigned to sit in a court, the 8-percent difference between the compensation of the retired judge while so assigned and the compensation of a judge of the court to which assigned shall be paid to the Judges' Retirement Fund.

When assigned to sit in a county other than that in which he resides, he shall also be allowed his necessary expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment. Such expenses, if any, shall be chargeable as follows:

(a) When the assignment is to the Supreme Court or a court of appeal, to the state.

(b) When the assignment is to a superior, municipal, or justice court, to the county.

Notwithstanding the above provisions pertaining to compensation, a retired judge on senior judge status shall receive compensation from the state as provided in Sections 75028 and 75028.2, and shall be allowed necessary expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment as provided in this section.

SEC. 1.5. Section 68543.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68543.5. Whenever a judge retired as such under the Judges' Retirement Law is assigned to sit in a court, he shall be compensated while so sitting at a rate equal to 92 percent of the full compensation of a judge of the court to which he is assigned. A retired judge of a justice court assigned to sit in a court shall be compensated while so sitting at the full compensation of a judge of the court to which he is assigned, or the compensation specified in Section 68541, whichever is greater. Such compensation shall be chargeable for the period specified in Section 68547 the same as provided by law with respect to the compensation of a judge of the court to which he is assigned except that when chargeable to the state, such compensation is payable out of any appropriation for extra compensation of judges assigned by the Chairman of the Judicial Council.

If such compensation is greater than his retirement allowance, his retirement allowance shall be suspended so long as he receives such compensation. If such compensation is less than his retirement allowance, his retirement allowance shall continue to be paid while he receives such compensation but only in an amount equal to the difference between such compensation and the retirement allowance to which he would otherwise be entitled.

If a judge retired under the Judges' Retirement Law is assigned to sit in a court, the 8-percent difference between the compensation of the retired judge while so assigned and the compensation of a judge of the court to which assigned shall be paid to the Judges' Retirement Fund.

When assigned to sit in a county other than that in which he resides, he shall also be allowed his necessary expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment. Such expenses, if any, shall be chargeable as follows:

(a) When the assignment is to the Supreme Court or a court of appeal, to the state.

(b) When the assignment is to a superior, municipal, or justice court, to the county.

When assigned to sit in a county in which he resides, he shall be allowed his necessary and reasonable expenses for travel, parking, and board incurred in the discharge of the assignment for and during any period that he waives salary or other compensation except his retirement allowance.

Notwithstanding the above provisions pertaining to compensation, a retired judge on senior judge status shall receive compensation from the state as provided in Sections 75028 and 75028.2, and shall be allowed necessary expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment as provided in this section.

SEC. 2. Section 68701.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

68701.5. Notwithstanding Section 68701, the Commission on Judicial Performance may investigate the conduct or performance of any retired judge serving on senior judge status pursuant to rules adopted by the Judicial Council. The commission also shall have the power to order a retired judges' senior judge status terminated for incapacity or any failure to carry out the duties of the office.

SEC. 3. Section 75028 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75028. (a) Except as provided in Sections 75060.6, 75080, and 68543.5, any designation as a judge pro tempore or any assignment by the Chairman of the Judicial Council shall be disregarded for purposes of this chapter. For the purposes of this chapter no person shall acquire status as a judge, nor shall any person's status as a judge be affected, by any such designation or assignment.

(b) A judge who elects to be available for full-time service on senior judge status after the effective date of retirement, shall be compensated by the state for that time at a rate equal to the full compensation of a judge of the court from which he or she retired or, at the judge's election, at a rate equal to the full compensation of a judge of the court to which he or she is assigned. A judge serving on senior judge status also shall be eligible for travel, board, and lodging expenses, as provided in Section 68543.5.

SEC. 4. Section 75028.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

75028.1. At the time of the filing of a notice of retirement effective just prior to age 70, a judge may elect senior judge status which shall continue for a period not to exceed three years. A judge serving on senior judge status shall serve full time as assigned for up to three consecutive years and by accepting that status waives the right to refuse any assignment as otherwise provided by law. A judge who elects to retire under this section is deemed retired, and the judicial office from which the judge retired shall become vacant and a successor shall then be appointed to fill the vacancy.

SEC. 5. Section 75028.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

75028.2. A retired judge on senior judge status shall not receive a retirement allowance, except for health and welfare benefits generally available to retired judges of courts on which the judge served as an active judge.

The Controller shall administer payment of salary to retired judges on senior judge status and for making any appropriate deductions.

SEC. 6. Section 75028.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

75028.3. (a) The senior judge status of a retired judge shall be terminated at the end of three years from the effective date of retirement, except that the status shall terminate earlier when:

(1) The retired judge on senior judge status requests termination.

(2) The retired judge fails to perform service as assigned.

(3) The Commission on Judicial Performance so orders.

SEC. 7. Section 75028.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

75028.4. (a) A judge whose senior judge status is terminated may elect to receive the retirement benefits for which the judge was eligible at the time he or she elected senior judge status.

(b) If the senior judge status is terminated before the end of three years because of the judge's death, any surviving spouse benefit that is payable, as provided in the section under which the judge retired prior to electing the senior judge status, shall be paid.

SEC. 8. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 68543.5 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3411. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1985, (2) each bill amends Section 68543.5 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3411, in which case Section 68543.5 of the Government Code, as amended by AB 3411, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 1.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 1 of this bill shall not

SEC. 9. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1985.

CHAPTER 1587

An act to amend Sections 15026 and 15056 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to seismic safety and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15026 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15026. (a) "Hospital building" includes any building not specified in subdivision (b) which is used, or designed to be used, for a health facility of a type required to be licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2.

(b) "Hospital building" does not include any of the following:

(1) Any building in which only outpatient clinic services are provided and which is separated from a building in which hospital services are provided.

(2) Any building used, or designed to be used, for a skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility if the building is of single-story, wood-frame construction.

(3) Any building of single-story, wood-frame construction in which only skilled nursing or intermediate care services are provided if the building is separated from a building housing other patients of the health facility receiving higher levels of care.

(4) Any freestanding structures of a chemical dependency recovery hospital exempted under subdivision (c) of Section 1275.2.

(5) Any building licensed to be used as an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative with six beds or less and any intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative of 7 to 15 beds which is a single-story, wood-frame building.

(6) Any building which has been used as a community care facility licensed pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 and which was originally licensed to provide that level of care prior to March 7, 1973, if (A) the building complied with applicable building and safety standards at the time of that licensure, (B) the State Director of Health Services, upon application, determines that in order to continue to properly serve the facility's existing client population, relicensure as an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled will be required, and (C) a notice of intent to obtain a certificate of need was filed with the area health planning agency and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development on or before March 1, 1983. The exemption provided in this paragraph extends only to use of the building as an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled.

(7) Any building which has been used as a community care facility pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1502 and which was originally licensed to provide that level of care if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(A) The building complied with applicable building and safety standards for a community care facility at the time of that licensure.

(B) The building conforms to the 1973 Edition of the Uniform Building Code of the International Conference of Building Officials as a community care facility.

The exemption provided in this paragraph extends only to use of the building as an intermediate care facility, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 1250, and the facility is in Health Facilities Planning Area 1420.

SEC. 2. Section 15026 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15026. (a) "Hospital building" includes any building not specified in subdivision (b) which is used, or designed to be used, for a health facility of a type required to be licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2.

(b) "Hospital building" does not include any of the following:

(1) Any building in which only outpatient clinic services are provided and which is separated from a building in which hospital services are provided.

(2) Any building used, or designed to be used, for a skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility if the building is of single-story, wood-frame or light steel frame construction.

(3) Any building of single-story, wood-frame or light steel frame construction in which only skilled nursing or intermediate care services are provided if the building is separated from a building housing other patients of the health facility receiving higher levels of care.

(4) Any freestanding structures of a chemical dependency recovery hospital exempted under the provisions of subdivision (c) of Section 1275.2.

(5) Any building licensed to be used as an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative with six beds or less and any intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative of 7 to 15 beds which is a single-story, wood-frame or light steel frame building.

(6) Any building which has been used as a community care facility licensed pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 and which was originally licensed to provide that level of care prior to March 7, 1973, if (i) the building complied with applicable building and safety standards at the time of that licensure, (ii) the Director of Health Services, upon application, determines that in order to continue to properly serve the facility's existing client population, relicensure as an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled will be required, and (iii) a notice of intent to obtain a certificate of need was filed with the area health planning agency and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development on or before March 1, 1983. The exemption provided in this paragraph extends only to use of the building as an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled.

(7) Any building which has been used as a community care facility pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1502 and which was originally licensed to provide that level of care if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(A) The building complied with applicable building and safety standards for a community care facility at the time of that licensure.

(B) Conforms to the 1973 Edition of the Uniform Building Code of the International Conference of Building Officials as a community care facility.

(C) The facility is other than single story, but no more than two stories, and the upper story is licensed for ambulatory patients only.

(D) A certificate of need was granted prior to July 1, 1983, for conversion of a community care facility to an intermediate care facility.

(E) The facility otherwise meets all nonstructural construction standards for intermediate care facilities in existence on the effective date of this act or obtains waivers from the appropriate agency.

The exemption provided in this paragraph extends only to use of the building as an intermediate care facility as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 1250 and the facility is in Health Facilities Planning Area 1420.

SEC. 3. Section 15056 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15056. The statewide office may enter into any agreements and contracts with any qualified person, department, agency, corporation, or legal entity, as determined by the statewide office, when necessary in order to facilitate the timely performance of the duties and responsibilities relating to the review and inspection of architectural, mechanical, electrical, and plumbing systems of hospital buildings to be constructed or altered or buildings under construction or alteration.

If the Chief Structural Engineer of the Department of General

Services determines that the structural review of plans for a hospital building cannot be completed without undue delay, the statewide office shall have the authority, with the written concurrence of the Department of General Services, to enter into contractual agreements with private structural engineers or local governments for the purpose of facilitating the timely performance of the duties and responsibilities relating to the review and inspection of plans and specifications of the structural systems of hospital construction projects.

The statewide office, with the advice of the Building Safety Board, shall prepare regulations, containing qualification criteria, for implementing the contractual agreement provisions of this section.

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that the amendments to Section 15026 of the Health and Safety Code made by Sections 1 and 2 of this act are necessary to permit certain community care facilities, which were licensed to provide that level of care, to obtain licensure as intermediate care facilities in order to continue to properly serve their aging client populations. Reconstructing the physical plant of these facilities would be too costly to be economic and would also be disruptive to residents of the facility. Without the changes proposed in Section 15026, clients receiving satisfactory care for many years will be forced to relocate to another facility, with attendant disruption, or receive care at less than an optimum level. It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to permit these facilities to continue to provide adequate care for their client populations by permitting these facilities to obtain relicensure as intermediate care facilities without being required to comply with seismic design requirements for health facilities.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and AB 3993 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1985, both bills amend Section 15026 of the Health and Safety Code, and this bill is chaptered after AB 3993, that Section 15026 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 1 of this act shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 3993, and that on the operative date of AB 3993 Section 15026 of the Health and Safety Code as amended by Section 1 of this act be further amended in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 15026 proposed by AB 3993. Therefore, Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and AB 3993 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1985, both bills amend Section 15026, and this bill is chaptered after AB 3993, in which case Section 2 of this act shall become operative on the operative date of AB 3993.

It is necessary to amend the law to expedite the implementation of the Hospital Seismic Safety Act of 1982 and to permit certain community care facilities, which were licensed to provide that level of care, to obtain licensure as an intermediate care facility in order to continue to properly serve their aging client populations. Reconstructing the physical plant of these facilities would be too costly to be economic and would also be disruptive to residents of the facility who will be forced to relocate to another facility.

In order to provide recreational opportunities within fiscal limitations to the people of California at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1984 by adding Item 3640-302-748 thereto, relating to acquisition of public resources, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Item 3640-302-748 is added to the Budget Act of 1984, to read:

tion 1300) of Division 2 of the Fish and Game Code), and, therefore, are not subject to Public Works Board review.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide for the acquisition of fish and wildlife habitat at the lowest possible cost, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to add Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 51755) to Chapter 5 of Part 28 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 51755) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 28 of the Education Code, to read:

51755. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) The discovery of nuclear power has profound implications for our lives and society.

(b) Current research has demonstrated that many of our children today fear the prospect of nuclear war, and it is now recognized that their frequent lack of motivation, particularly in school, is substantially influenced by further fears that there will be no future for themselves, their families, their communities, and their nation.

(c) Some polls have shown that the majority of high school students believe that nuclear war in the next decade is inevitable.

(d) If left unchecked, this lack of motivation and the feelings of helplessness could prove to be as devastating to American society as war itself.

(e) It is the inherent right of our children to pursue their educational objectives free from the immobilizing threat of nuclear war and their own annihilation.

51756. The Legislature further finds and declares as follows:

(a) Through their curricula, our public schools traditionally provide our children with an understanding and appreciation of personal values, and a sense of human community.

(b) It is the responsibility of our public educational system, in conjunction with parents, to intellectually and emotionally prepare our students to understand and cope with reality, including the facts of life in the nuclear age, the threat of nuclear war and annihilation, and the dangers of radiation.

(c) Our public schools provide an appropriate forum for discussion of the personal, environmental, social, political, and military aspects of life in the nuclear age. These discussions make a valuable contribution to students' development into informed, self-assured, responsible, decisionmaking adults.

(d) It is also the responsibility of our public educational system to provide students with an understanding of the causes of conflict among nations and the options for conflict resolution and the attainment of peace.

(e) Many parents, acting out of concern for their children's current and future welfare, are already seeking formal and informal assistance in providing their children with the tools for coping with life in the nuclear age.

(f) Organizations in many states, including California, are already collecting information on nuclear age education curricula designed to meet the needs of students for accurate information on international relations, nuclear war, the causes of war, and available options, including conflict resolution, in the nuclear age, as well as beneficial peacetime uses of nuclear power.

(g) The State Department of Education is best suited to the task of collecting information from various research and educational groups across the country, to make objective assessments of the value of specific components of a curriculum, and to develop a model nuclear age education curriculum.

51757. (a) The State Department of Education shall conduct a survey to review current efforts of school districts to provide nuclear age education. The survey shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following information:

(1) Students' beliefs, attitudes, and feelings regarding life in the nuclear age.

(2) The needs, if any, of students with respect to nuclear age education. Special attention shall be given to methods which students may use to creatively cope with their fears concerning nuclear war.

(3) Each school district's perception of the value of a model nuclear age education curriculum.

(4) The current efforts of each school district to develop and present a nuclear age education curriculum.

(5) Model nuclear age education programs already operating in California.

(b) The department shall also collect other information relevant to the development of a model nuclear age education curriculum, including, but not limited to, studies, experiences, research, and reports of educational organizations, scientific groups, and psychologists regarding the effects of the nuclear age upon children.

(c) The department shall also seek information from concerned parents, teachers, students, and members of the community regarding whether and how a nuclear age education curriculum should be developed, and shall ensure that all points of view are presented.

(d) On or before June 30, 1985, the department shall submit to the Legislature its findings and recommendations with respect to all of the following:

(1) Whether the Legislature should proceed to develop a program to make nuclear age education more widely available in the public schools.

(2) If the recommendation made pursuant to paragraph (1) is positive, the best method for achieving that result.

CHAPTER 1591

An act to amend Sections 44014 and 44021 of, and to add Article 6 (commencing with Section 44070) to Chapter 5 of Part 5 of Division 26 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to vehicle inspections, and making an appropriation therefor.

I am deleting the $250,000 appropriation contained in Section 4 of Senate Bill No. 1798.

This appropriation is unnecessary since both the Bureau of Automotive Repair and the Air Resources Board are currently staffed and funded to perform the necessary data gathering and analysis functions to evaluate the vehicle inspection program

With this deletion, I approve Senate Bill No. 1798.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44014 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44014. (a) The testing portion of the program shall be conducted by automotive test stations licensed by the department, and by test mechanics who have qualified by completing courses prescribed by the department, pursuant to this chapter.

(b) The repair portion of the program shall be conducted by repair stations licensed by the department, and by repair mechanics who have qualified by completing courses prescribed by the department, pursuant to this chapter if the repairs are performed for compensation.

(c) The consumer protection-oriented quality assurance portion of the program shall be conducted by more than one private entity pursuant to contracts with the department.

(d) The department shall not issue a license to a test station or a repair station which is located 15 or more miles outside of the area to be covered by the program, as specified in Section 44003.

SEC. 2. Section 44021 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44021. (a) The department shall conduct ongoing cost benefit analyses and other evaluations of the inspection program, including, but not limited to, observed patterns of malfunctions in inspected motor vehicles' emissions control systems, inquiries from the public regarding emissions system warranties, inspection and repair costs, the failure rate after repairs, and recommendations for legislation to improve the inspection program.

Commencing not later than two years after the date of implementation of the program, the department shall submit periodic written reports, at least every 12 months, to the Legislature on the analyses and evaluations of the program. The department shall conduct at least one public hearing prior to submitting the first report and shall include pertinent information which it receives from the public hearing in that report.

(b) A review committee is hereby created to analyze the effect of the program on vehicle emissions and air quality. The review committee shall consist of a representative from the state board and a representative from each of the districts in which the motor vehicle inspection program has been implemented. The committee shall conduct at least one public hearing prior to submitting its report to the Legislature and shall include pertinent information which it receives from the public hearings in its report. The first report shall be submitted not later than 36 months following the implementation of the program. Thereafter, the committee shall submit periodic written reports to the Legislature on the program at least every 24 months.

The committee's report shall quantify the reduction in emissions and improvement in air quality attributed to the program. If the study determines that the average reduction in emissions of hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide from inspected vehicles is less than 10 percent, the report shall recommend improvements to increase the effectiveness of the program. If the committee cannot identify and recommend improvements to the program to achieve emissions reductions of at least 10 percent, the report shall recommend termination of the program.

SEC. 3. Article 6 (commencing with Section 44070) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 6. Public Information

44070. (a) The department shall develop within the Bureau of Automotive Repair, with the advice and technical assistance of the state board, a public information program for the purpose of providing emissions warranty information to motor vehicle owners subject to an inspection and maintenance program required pursuant to this chapter. The bureau shall provide, upon request, either orally or in writing, information regarding emissions related warranties and available warranty dispute resolution procedures.

(b) The telephone number and business hours, and the address if appropriate, of the emissions warranty information program shall be noticed on the vehicle inspection report provided by the test analyzer system for any vehicle which fails the analyzer test.

44071. For purposes of implementing the emissions warranty information program, the department shall use funds from the fee charged for each certificate of compliance or noncompliance which are deposited in the Vehicle Inspection Fund pursuant to Section 44060.

SEC. 4. The sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) is hereby appropriated from the Vehicle Inspection Fund to the State Air Resources Board to contract on behalf of the review committee established by subdivision (b) of Section 44021 of the Health and Safety Code for the performance of the analyses necessary for the reports and recommendations required by subdivision (b) of Section 44021 of the Health and Safety Code.

An act to add Article 12 (commencing with Section 33470) to Chapter 3 of Part 20 of the Education Code, relating to intergenerational education programs, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

I am reducing the appropriation contained in Section 4 of Senate Bill No 2039 from $300,000 to $165,000 by deleting the $135,000 appropriation contained in subdivision (b), and deleting the language contained in subdivision (c).

The Department of Education should provide the necessary evaluation of the ongoing projects before additional funds for new projects are made available.

With this reduction and deletion, I approve Senate Bill No. 2039.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Roberti Intergenerational Education Act of 1984.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby finds and declares the following:

(a) There are now 3.5 million persons 60 years of age or over in California. The older population of the state is expanding rapidly. In 50 years, one in every five Americans will be over 65 years of age.

(b) With this dramatic expansion of the older population, society will face and is already facing new challenges in the care and support of this "new generation" of Americans, including new needs in health care, housing, nutrition, transportation, employment, and other areas.

(c) In preparing to serve these needs, society must discover new ways to include the older citizen in the ongoing business of the community, serving both to stave off loneliness and isolation for the senior citizen and to utilize the valuable experience he or she has to offer the other citizens of the community.

(d) Chief among those who could benefit in a variety of ways from interaction with older citizens are elementary school and high school students, many of whom lack the influence of an older person in their lives, and who could profit from that influence and interaction.

(e) Intergenerational programs, especially those which involve senior citizens in the public schools, are useful in providing youth the opportunity to learn from older citizens, in helping senior citizens remain active in the community, and in some cases in aiding senior citizens to supplement their incomes.

(f) The State Department of Education, recognizing the value of these programs, has facilitated the use of 11 intergenerational projects in the state's public schools which utilize senior citizens in the learning process.

(g) It is necessary to provide for the continuation of these programs and to expand the department's intergenerational programs to include new projects to benefit California communities.

SEC. 3. Article 12 (commencing with Section 33470) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 20 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 12. Intergenerational Education Programs

33470. The State Department of Education shall administer intergenerational education programs in accordance with this article.

33471. The State Department of Education shall establish criteria for the allocation of funds to intergenerational education programs. These criteria shall include all of the following:

(a) The programs shall involve persons over 55 years of age in projects with elementary or secondary public school pupils.

(b) The programs shall, when possible, involve creative and innovative approaches to teaching and intergenerational interaction.

(c) The programs may, and are encouraged to, provide a minimum salary or stipend or transportation costs, or both, to participating senior citizens. The programs shall consider financial need of prospective participating senior citizens as one factor in selection, but not necessarily to the exclusion of other factors such as experience or special skills.

(d) The programs shall comply with in-kind services or cash matching requirements established by the State Department of Education.

(e) The programs shall provide evidence of their commitment to procure community, corporate, and other support, including funding.

33471.5. The State Department of Education may allocate funds pursuant to this article to intergenerational education programs which operate without regard to school district boundaries.

33472. The State Department of Education shall, by January 1, 1985, evaluate the intergenerational programs which it administers and which are in operation prior to January 1, 1985, and shall determine whether those projects have been successful and whether they warrant further support. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide funding to those programs which have previously proved successful, and the State Department of Education shall require continuation of contract requirements such as matching of funds or provision of in-kind services, and any other provisions determined necessary by the State Department of Education.

33473. The State Department of Education may consult with the Department of Aging and the Commission on Aging regarding the criteria for selection of programs.

SEC. 4. The sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Education, for allocation for the 1984–85 fiscal year as follows:

(a) To continue the operation of intergenerational education programs in existence, and administered by the State Department of Education, prior to the effective date of this act, and which warrant further support based on a demonstrated successful program implementation, at a maximum rate of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) per grant.....	$165,000
(b) To provide funding to intergenerational education programs, other than those specified in subdivision (a), at a maximum rate of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) per grant....	$135,000
(c) Any funds unexpended and unencumbered as a result of an evaluation of the effectiveness of intergenerational programs funded pursuant to subdivision (a) may be expended for intergenerational programs pursuant to subdivision (b).

Any unencumbered funds remaining at the end of the 1984–85 fiscal year may be carried over and expended in the 1985–86 fiscal year.

In order to facilitate the operation of intergenerational education programs selected for continued support, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to add and repeal Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 12786) of Chapter 2 of Division 7 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

I am deleting the $50,000 appropriation contained in Section 6(b) of Assembly Bill No. 3761 for the support of activities related to the certified farmers' markets These activities are not essential to the continued success of the certified farmers' markets in California and should more appropriately be funded by resources other than the General Fund.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No. 3761.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 12786) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 7 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

(a) The continued viability of the agricultural economy is of paramount importance to the people of California.

(b) The development of alternatives to existing pesticides available for the control of pests is prudent, and the development of alternatives to pesticides, such as ethylene dibromide (EDB), is important for the protection of the public health and safety.

(c) The ability of the state to control, detect, exclude, and eradicate pest infestations is necessary to continue the preeminent position of this state as the leading farm state and is essential for the continuing supply of foodstuffs.

12786.5. "Committee" means the Pest Control Research Committee.

12787. The department shall undertake the administration of a program to fund an agricultural pest control research program. The funds shall be allocated pursuant to this article.

12790. Proposals for research consistent with the purposes of this article may be submitted to the committee by any person, organization, institution, or governmental agency.

12790.5. (a) After preliminary review, the committee shall submit those proposals which meet the purposes of this article, and which the committee feels have the greatest possible merit, to a scientific peer review panel.

(b) Each panel shall consist of three scientists who have demonstrated expertise in the area to be researched and who have demonstrated their capability of making judgmental decisions regarding research grant proposals.

(c) The director, in consultation with the committee, shall appoint each panel and shall appoint a sufficient number of panels to review the proposals to be submitted.

12791. (a) The scientific peer review panel members shall use the following criteria in evaluating the proposals received from the committee:

(1) The proposal has a high probability of contributing to important discoveries or breakthroughs.

(2) The proposal will not significantly or extensively duplicate other research or other developments.

(3) The proposal has a well-qualified project leader, the necessary support and technical staff, and adequate facilities and equipment.

This vote shall be the final vote on the proposal. The ballot, if it is sent, shall include a summary of the debate that was conducted when the proposal was considered at a meeting of the committee.

12792.5. (a) The director shall not disburse any funds for any proposal unless it has been reviewed by a scientific peer review panel and approved by the committee.

(b) The director shall disburse the funds for any approved proposal only in accordance with the instructions of the committee. However, the director is not required to adopt or fund any approved proposal.

12793. The director may enter into research contracts to fund approved proposals. The contracts shall include reasonable accountability requirements, such as performance standards, deadlines, and payments conditioned on compliance with performance standards and deadlines.

12794. Members of the committee and scientific peer review panels may receive per diem and mileage for attending meetings and other activities authorized by the committee and approved by the director in accordance with the rules of the State Board of Control.

12794.5. The committee shall prepare an annual report of the research projects proposed, approved contracts awarded, the status of ongoing research projects, and findings achieved from completed research projects. The committee shall also report on its progress in developing alternatives to EDB. The report shall be submitted annually not later than February 1 to the director and the Legislature.

(a) The direct market program was established by the Department of Food and Agriculture in 1976 to assist the direct marketing of agricultural commodities by the farmer to the consumer.

(b) Direct marketing benefits farmers by providing them with an additional outlet for their crops and by increasing their margin of profit by eliminating many of the costs incurred through the traditional marketing system.

(c) Direct marketing benefits consumers by providing them with the opportunity to buy fresh agricultural commodities directly from farmers at competitive prices.

(d) The number of certified farmers' markets in California has quadrupled in the last five years, indicating their steadily growing popularity with farmers and consumers.

(e) Farmers and managers at certified farmers' markets need quantitative data on the actual costs and benefits of direct marketing in order to make decisions that provide the greatest benefit to participating farmers and consumers.

SEC. 3. (a) The Director of Food and Agriculture shall collect, analyze, and disseminate statistics and other information which relate to the marketing of farm products at certified farmers' markets. The statistics and other information shall be collected from a representative sample of certified farmers' markets statewide over a sufficient period of time to ensure that the information obtained is accurate and useful. The statistics and other information shall be collected, published, and disseminated weekly.

SEC. 4. (a) The Director of Food and Agriculture shall consult with farmers who sell through certified farmers' markets, representatives of certified farmers' markets, county agricultural commissioners, representatives of agricultural wholesale or brokerage firms, representatives of retail food stores, the Assembly Committee on Agriculture, the Senate Committee on Agriculture and Water Resources, and the Department of Consumer Affairs in carrying out Sections 2, 3, and 4 of this act.

(b) The collection of market information and the survey described in Section 3 of this act shall be carried out during 1985.

SEC. 5. The Director of Food and Agriculture shall report the findings of the survey prepared pursuant to Section 3 of this act to the Assembly Committee on Agriculture and the Senate Committee on Agriculture and Water Resources on or before January 1, 1986.

I am deleting the appropriation language contained in Section 4 of Assembly Bill No. 2185 which would provide that the Auditor General Fund is continuously appropriated to the Auditor General.

I believe that if the Auditor General's budget is to be considered outside of the Legislature's Contingent Fund, it should be treated in a manner similar to that of other state agencies.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No. 2185.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10505 is added to the Government Code, to read:

SEC. 2. Section 10506 is added to the Government Code, to read:

10506. Upon request from the Director of Finance, the Controller shall transfer the following amounts to the General Fund for reimbursement of the amounts appropriated pursuant to Sections 10505 and 10507:

(c) This section shall be limited to the cost of audits incurred prior to July 1, 1984.

SEC. 4. Section 10507 is added to the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1595

An act to add and repeal Chapter 7.8 (commencing with Section 25680) of Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, relating to energy resources, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

I am deleting the appropriation language contained in Public Resources Code Section 25690 of Assembly Bill No. 3897 which would provide that in the event that all or a part of the $1 million appropriation from the Energy Resources Program Account for the 1984–85 fiscal year is unavailable, the balance of the appropriation should be made from the General Fund, not to exceed $1 million from both sources during the 1984–85 fiscal year.

I do not believe that the General Fund is a proper source of funding for this program.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No. 3897.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7.8 (commencing with Section 25680) is added to Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7.8. ENERGY TECHNOLOGIES RESEARCH, DEVELOPMENT, AND DEMONSTRATION

25680. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Rosenthal-Naylor Act of 1984.

25681. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Additional energy supplies will be needed in the near future, in order to serve an increasing number of citizens.

(b) Energy sources should be developed which provide power at the lowest competitive cost to the ratepayer, which increase energy independence and system reliability through use of California's indigenous resources, which provide environmental benefits, and which build the state's economy.

(c) California's continued leadership in new energy technology research, development, and demonstration projects requires an active partnership between the public and private sectors, as well as flexible public financing tools which are responsive to changing technological events and commercialization impediments.

(d) The use of California's indigenous energy resources and alternative energy technologies can be made more efficient and cost-effective through increased research, development, and demonstration and can contribute to stabilizing and potentially reducing near-term energy costs for industry, agriculture, local governments, and individual citizens.

(e) Renewable energy sources can help lower the cost of energy if research, development, and demonstration efforts emphasize shortrun and longrun cost effectiveness.

(f) Advanced energy technologies have inherent financial and technical risks which limit necessary and important research, development, and demonstration in those areas without state involvement.

(g) State government can accelerate widespread market acceptance of new energy technologies by providing assistance to a limited number of projects with the intent of overcoming impediments, demonstrating technologies, and offering successful models for the private sectors to duplicate on its own.

(h) Increasing the efficiency and cost-effectiveness of existing and new energy sources will provide benefits to California citizens beyond energy costs. It will contribute to reduction of the state's dependence on foreign energy sources, stimulate the state economy, make our energy system more resilient and reliable, and continue to provide a healthier environment for our citizens.

(i) Loans offer an efficient, effective means of providing an economic incentive with distinct limits to stimulate energy project development for a broader range of market (end-use) applications, since the funds can be used more than once.

(j) Loans present a more efficient use of funds, allowing the state to achieve more from the original budget allocation, and to meet goals and objectives established in long-term energy policies approved in each fiscal year budget.

(k) Loans offer the state a mechanism to benefit from cofunding an energy project that encounters initial high capital costs followed by considerable net revenues use once the project is in operation.

(l) Loans strengthen the continuity of the state government's commitment from year to year and maintain the ability to share the costs of project development.

25682. For purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Account" means the Energy Technologies Research, Development, and Demonstration Account.

(b) "Alternative sources of energy" includes, but is not limited to, geothermal, hydroelectric power equal to or less than 5 megawatts, photovoltaics, wind, biomass, cogeneration, solar thermal, fuel cells, and energy efficiency measures.

(c) "Contract research funding" means funding for the research, development, or demonstration of energy technologies which are not yet commercially available, which will not result in the generation of net revenues, and where the risk of involvement by the private sector is so high that a loan cannot be obtained to perform the work.

25683. There is hereby created in the General Fund, to be administered by the commission, the Energy Technologies Research, Development, and Demonstration Account for the purpose of carrying out this chapter.

The Controller shall deposit in the account all moneys appropriated to the account by the Legislature, plus accumulated interest on those moneys, and moneys from loan repayments and loan interest repayments for use by the commission for financing energy research, demonstration, or development projects in accordance with this chapter.

25684. The commission shall make loans and may provide contract research funding from the account for the purposes of making energy technologies more efficient and cost-effective, and to develop new cost-effective alternative sources of energy. The commission shall select recipients through a procedure using an invitation for bids or a request for proposals. Each invitation for bids and request for proposals shall specify the criteria to be used in selecting projects for financing. The criteria shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following factors:

(a) The potential of the project to reduce consumption and increase the efficiency of nonrenewable energy sources and systems.

(b) The financial, technical, and management strength of the project applicant.

(c) The near-term and long-term feasibility of the project.

(d) The ability of the project technology to be used on other applications throughout California.

(e) The potential of the project for promoting diverse, secure, and resilient energy supplies.

(f) The potential of the project for reducing adverse environmental impacts.

(g) The potential of the project to stimulate economic development, employment, and tax revenues for California.

(h) The potential of the project for reducing short-term and long-term energy costs for the ratepayers of California.

(i) The need of the project for state financing.

(j) The ability of the project to garner private investment.

(k) The investment payback period for the project.

(l) The probability of success in overcoming the risk of the project.

(m) The potential for stimulating small business competition in the field of alternative energy development.

(n) The ability of the project to generate needed community economic development for participating local jurisdictions.

(o) The extent of the applicant's financial participation.

(p) The degree of innovation of the project.

(q) Whether the project is in general agreement with the energy policies of California regarding the energy technologies and priorities as set forth in the biennial report of the commission.

25685. The energy technology projects to be considered for funding under this chapter shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(a) Low and medium temperature geothermal systems.

(b) Advance cogeneration systems.

(c) Fuel cells.

(d) Coal combustion systems.

(e) Advanced oil or gas combustion systems.

(f) Methanol overfiring and coproduction.

(g) Transmission system efficiency and reliability.

(h) Photovoltaics.

(i) Biomass gasification system.

(j) Low and medium BTU gas technologies for electric generation.

(k) Other alternative energy technologies.

25686. The commission shall actively solicit recommendations from interested parties, including, but not limited to, representatives of private industry, small businesses, research organizations, public utilities, independent energy producers, local governments, and the federal government in selecting the kinds of technologies for funding.

25686.5. At the commencement of each fiscal year, at least 70 percent of the money in the account shall be made available for loans for projects and the remainder shall be made available for contract research funding under this chapter for that fiscal year. The commission may make less than 70 percent of the money in the account at the commencement of each fiscal year available for loans, if it determines, through a four-fifths vote of the commission, that the public interest and objectives of this chapter will be better served through increased contract research funding. In no instance, however, shall the amount of funds available for loans be less than 50 percent of the money in the account at the commencement of each fiscal year.

25686.8. Any loan made from the account shall not be greater than 80 percent of the total project cost. Any contract research funding shall not be greater than 50 percent of the total project cost. The commission may provide a loan which exceeds that limit if it determines, through a four-fifths vote of the commission, that a major state contribution is essential to ensure project success.

25687. Each project proponent to whom a loan is made under this article shall repay the principal amount of the loan, plus interest calculated and established by the commission at a rate not to exceed the current rate of return for money in the Pooled Money Investment Account, and not less than 8 percent or the rate of return for money in the Pooled Money Investment Account, whichever is less. The project proponent shall repay the loan within 90 months from receipt of the funds, as determined by the commission.

25687.5. The commission shall make at least 10 percent of the funds in the account at the commencement of each fiscal year available to local jurisdictions. The commission may make less than 10 percent of the funds available for local jurisdictions, if it determines, through a four-fifths vote, that the public interest and the objectives of this chapter will be better served at a lower level.

25687.6. Not more than 25 percent of the funds in the account at the commencement of each fiscal year shall be available for any individual project. However, the commission may make more than 25 percent of the funds available for an individual project, if it determines, through a four-fifths vote, that the public interest and the objectives of this chapter will be better served at the higher level.

25687.7. No projects eligible for funding under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 3800) of Division 3 or Chapter 7.3 (commencing with Section 25630) of Division 15 shall be eligible for funding under this chapter.

25688. The commission shall include a summary of projects financed under this chapter in its biennial report, or one of the subsidiary documents to the biennial report.

25689. The commission shall prepare an extensive report examining the benefits to the people of this state from the research, development, and demonstration projects for which financing was provided under this chapter, and submit it to the Legislature on or

25690. The sum of six million dollars ($6,000,000) is hereby appropriated and transferred to the account, of which one million dollars ($1,000,000), for the 1984–85 fiscal year, and five million dollars ($5,000,000), for the 1985–86 fiscal year, shall be from the Energy Resources Programs Account in the General Fund, for use by the commission to carry out this chapter. In the event that all or part of the one million dollars ($1,000,000) appropriation from the Energy Resources Programs Account for the 1984–85 fiscal year is unavailable, the balance of the appropriation shall be made from the General Fund, not to exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000) from both sources during the 1984–85 fiscal year.

25690.5. The commission shall provide technical assistance, review and quality control of projects funded under this chapter. Beginning July 1, 1985, and each fiscal year thereafter, funds for administering this chapter shall be appropriated in the Budget Act from the State Energy Resources Programs Account.

25692. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the commission shall deposit in the account any repayments from equipment sales or contract funds appropriated to the commission for research, development, or demonstration of energy technologies. However, in the event that repayments from equipment sales or contract funds were generated from a loan or grant account which is still in existence, those repayments shall return to that specific loan or grant account.

The account shall be a revolving account with funds annually appropriated by the Legislature to the commission for disbursement over a three-year period. Additional funds, if necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter, may be appropriated in the Budget Act.

25693. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1596

An act to add and repeal Division 9 (commencing with Section 16000) of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to displaced homemakers, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

I am deleting the $1 million appropriation contained in Section 2(a) of Senate Bill No. 2262.

Funding for this program should be deferred until the Commission on the Status of Women is ready to implement the loan program. The $100,000 appropriation to the Commission for administrative costs has been retained in the bill.

With this reduction, I approve Senate Bill No. 2262.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Division 9 (commencing with Section 16000) is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

DIVISION 9. DISPLACED HOMEMAKER EMERGENCY LOAN ACT

16000. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Displaced Homemaker Emergency Loan Act.

16001. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(a) Many persons, primarily women who have relied upon a spouse as primary or sole means of support, are temporarily without adequate resources to sustain themselves or their dependents, or to become self sufficient, during transition times occasioned by abandonment, divorce, or widowhood.

(b) These women, because of past financial status, do not qualify for public assistance programs. Often, they are ineligible for unemployment payments or other than minimal social security benefits because of their employment history. In many cases, they jointly own property, serving as a principal residence, which they are unable to liquidate in order to provide financial resources, yet which disqualifies them from receiving public assistance.

(c) The creation of the loan program contained in this division is an important enabling method for these persons to enhance their lives and to ensure their opportunity to achieve self-sufficiency.

16002. The Legislature also finds and declares that an emergency loan program is necessary to assist displaced homemakers in adjusting to the fiscal, emotional, and career crises often inherent in abandonment, separation, divorce, or widowhood, and to provide them the opportunities and education necessary to live independently and become effective participants in the work force.

16003. The Displaced Homemaker Emergency Loan Act shall be administered by the Commission on the Status of Women as a pilot project in the Counties of Marin, San Francisco, and Alameda.

(a) Loans may be made to displaced homemakers in amounts not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per displaced homemaker.

(b) Applications for loan guarantees shall be filed with the department within six months from the displacement date.

(c) Loans shall be limited to applicants who do not qualify for other public assistance.

(d) Priority shall be given to applicants who are participating in job search or educational programs designed to improve the employability of the individual or who meet the requirements of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 16005. Loans shall not be made for this purpose if other assistance is available.

(e) Repayment of a loan shall commence no later than six months after receipt of the loan, with an option to postpone the commencement of payments another six months in cases of need which are verified by the department.

Full payment shall be made within 18 months after commencing loan repayment.

16004. Loans shall be made for any of the following purposes:

(a) To maintain or acquire a residence, or electrical, gas, or telephone service.

(b) For medical emergencies or to maintain health insurance.

(c) For the cost of short-term services or programs designed to improve employability.

(d) For emotional or psychological counseling or therapy.

(e) For child care and related expenses.

(f) For other emergencies or expenses to improve the financial or emotional stability of the household.

16005. (a) "Displaced homemaker" means a person who has been abandoned by, or separated from, a spouse, divorced, or widowed and who has an economic need caused by the displacement, the criteria for which shall include any of of the following categories:

(1) While married, did not work for a continuous period of at least five years up until the time of displacement or whose work did not provide sufficient job skills to enable him or her to find employment suitable to sustain him or her and the family.

(2) Whose income, at the time of displacement, did not amount to more than one-third of the gross household income, and did not exceed two-thirds of the statewide median household income.

(3) Whose employment has ended within six months of displacement because of stress related to displacement.

(4) Because of age or care of dependents, has added economic burdens related to the displacement.

(b) "Displacement" means abandonment by, or separation from, a spouse, divorce, or widowhood.

(c) "Displacement date" is any verifiable date of abandonment, separation, divorce, or widowhood.

16006. There is hereby established in the State Treasury the Displaced Homemaker Emergency Loan Fund, which shall be used to provide loans pursuant to this division. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated for purposes of this division to the department.

16007. (a) An application to guaranty a loan made pursuant to the provisions of this division shall be made by an eligible lender on such form as the department may require. The application shall set forth the amount of the loan, its maturity, interest rate, amortization, and any other information required by the department.

(b) If, upon application by an eligible lender, the department finds that the lender has made an eligible loan, the department shall cause the loan to be guaranteed.

16008. Upon default by the borrower on any loan made pursuant to the provisions of this division, the lender, if a secured party pursuant to Division 9 (commencing with Section 9101) of the Commercial Code, shall take such steps, and avail itself of such rights and remedies as may be provided for in the security agreement and by virtue of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 9501) of Division 9 of the Commercial Code except when, in the determination of the department, special circumstances exist which do not warrant taking such action.

16009. (a) Upon default by the borrower on any loan made pursuant to the provisions of this division, the lender shall promptly notify the department, and the department shall, if requested, either at that time, or after further collection efforts, pay to the lender the amount of the loss sustained by the lender.

(b) In addition to the amount of loss, the lender may claim five hundred dollars ($500) for collection expenses incurred in the attempted collection of the loan. The collection expense shall be a charge against the Displaced Homemaker Emergency Loan Fund.

16010. Amounts recovered by a lender's collection efforts subsequent to presenting a claim for loss pursuant to this chapter shall be paid to the Treasurer for deposit in the Displaced Homemaker Emergency Loan Fund.

16011. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to excuse the lender from exercising reasonable care and diligence in the making and collection of loans under the provisions of this division.

If the department, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to an eligible lender, finds that it has substantially failed to exercise the reasonable care and diligence required under this section, the department shall disqualify that lender for further loans made pursuant to this division until the department is satisfied that its failure has ceased and finds that there is reasonable assurance that the lender will in the future exercise necessary care and diligence.

16051. "Eligible lender" means:

(a) A national or state chartered bank, savings and loan association, or a credit union which: (1) is subject to examination and supervision by an agency of the United States or of this state and, (2) does not have as its primary consumer credit function the making or holding of loans.

(b) A pension fund as defined in the federal Employees Retirement Income Security Act.

(c) An insurance company which is subject to examination and supervision by an agency of the United States or this state.

(d) Any eligible lender approved by the authority to make loans pursuant to this division.

16052. "Insured displaced homemaker loan" means a loan, including a full line of credit, to a displaced homemaker by an eligible lender, as to which the payment of principal and interest is fully insured by the authority.

16053. "Loan guaranty" means the certificate, document, or endorsement issued by the authority as evidence of its insurance of an insured homemaker loan.

SEC. 2. There is hereby appropriated the sum of one million one hundred thousand dollars ($1,100,000) from the General Fund to be allocated as follows:

(a) One million dollars ($1,000,000) to the Displaced Homemaker Emergency Loan Fund for the purposes of this act.

(b) One hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) to the Commission on the Status of Women for administrative costs for the 1984–85 fiscal year.

SEC. 3. This act shall remain in effect until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted act, which is chaptered before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. An evaluation of the operation of this act shall be submitted by the Commission on the Status of Women on or before July 1, 1990, to the rules committee of each house of the Legislature for referral to the appropriate policy committee.

CHAPTER 1597

An act to amend Section 1501.1 of, and to add Sections 1515 and 1525.1 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 903.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to youth, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

I am deleting the $4.6 million appropriation contained in Section 5(a) of Senate Bill No. 2003 to fund foster parent recruitment and home study programs.

There are not sufficient resources available to fully fund this worthwhile measure.

The $1 million appropriation for support of foster parent training programs is retained in the bill. Such training programs can lead to more stable and less costly placement of foster children.

With this deletion I approve Senate Bill No. 2003.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The incident of child abuse and neglect reporting is significantly increasing.

(b) There is an inadequate supply of foster family homes in this state to meet the varying needs of abused and neglected children who need out-of-home placement.

(c) Foster family homes are intended to provide a safe and stable environment for children to grow.

(d) There currently exists inadequate support and training programs for foster parents to best meet the needs of children who need out-of-home placement.

(e) There is a need to establish, at the local level, a foster parent recruitment and training program.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1501.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1501.1. (a) It is the policy of the state to facilitate the proper placement of every child in residential care facilities where the placement is in the best interests of the child. A county may require placement or licensing agencies, or both placement and licensing agencies, to actively seek out-of-home care facilities capable of meeting the varied needs of the child. Therefore, in placing children in out-of-home care, particular attention should be given to the individual child's needs, the ability of the facility to meet those needs, the needs of other children in the facility, the licensing requirements of the facility as determined by the licensing agency, and the impact of the placement on the family reunification plan.

(b) Pursuant to the provisions of this section, children with varying designations and varying needs, except as provided by statute, may be placed in the same facility provided the facility is licensed, complies with all licensing requirements relevant to the protection of the child, and has a special permit, if necessary, to meet the needs of each child so placed. Children with developmental disabilities, mental disorders, or physical disabilities may be placed in licensed foster family homes, provided that an appraisal of the child's needs and the ability of the receiving home to meet those needs is made jointly by the placement agency and the licensee, and is followed by written confirmation by the licensing agency prior to placement.

(c) Neither the requirement for any license nor any regulation shall restrict the implementation of the provisions of this section. Implementation of this section does not obviate the requirement for a facility to be licensed by the department.

SEC. 2. Section 1515 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1515. The department shall authorize county welfare departments to undertake comprehensive recruitment programs, including but not limited to media advertising, public awareness campaigns and public speaking engagements to ensure an adequate number of foster homes are available to meet the child welfare placement needs in each county.

In counties in which the county has contracted with the state to license foster parents, if the county undertakes a recruitment program, it shall be done by the placement agency. The state shall not be required to perform any acts in connection with a recruitment program.

SEC. 3. Section 1525.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1525.1. The county welfare director shall, prior to the issuance of any foster family home license, ensure that the county licensing staff, or the placement staff, conducts one or more home interviews with the prospective foster parent sufficient to collect information which may be used by the placement agency to evaluate the willingness and readiness of the prospective foster parent to meet the varying needs of hard to place children. The inability of a prospective foster parent to meet the varying needs of hard to place children shall not, in and of itself, preclude a prospective foster parent from obtaining a foster home license. In counties in which the county has contracted with the state to license foster family homes, the home interview shall be done by the placement agency.

All home interviews required by this section shall be on a face-to-face basis.

If the home interview is conducted by the licensing agency, it shall be a part of the licensing record, and shall be shared with the placement agency pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 1798.24 of the Civil Code.

No license shall be issued unless a home interview has been conducted as required by this section.

SEC. 4. Section 903.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

903.7. (a) There is in the State Treasury the Foster Children and Parent Training Fund, the moneys contained in which shall be used exclusively for the purposes set forth in this section.

(b) For each fiscal year beginning with fiscal year 1981–82, except as provided in Sections 15200.1, 15200.2, and 15200.3, the State Department of Social Services shall determine the amount equivalent to the state share of collections attributable to the enforcement of parental fiscal liability pursuant to Sections 903, 903.4, and 903.5. On July 1, 1982, and every three months thereafter, the department shall notify the Chancellor of the Community Colleges, the Department of Finance, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction of the above-specified amount. The State Department of Social Services shall authorize the quarterly transfer of any portion of this amount for any particular fiscal year exceeding three million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($3,750,000) to the Treasurer for deposit in the Foster Children and Parent Training Fund.

(c) If sufficient moneys are available in the Foster Children and Parent Training Fund, up to one million dollars ($1,000,000) shall be allocated for the support of foster parent training programs conducted in community colleges. The maximum amount authorized to be allocated pursuant to this subdivision shall be adjusted annually by a cost-of-living increase each year based on the percentage given to discretionary education programs. Funds for the training program shall be provided in a separate budget item in that portion of the Budget Act pertaining to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, to be deposited in a separate bank account by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges.

The chancellor shall use these funds exclusively for foster parent training, as specified by the chancellor in consultation with the California State Foster Parents Association and the State Department of Social Services.

The plans for each foster parent training program shall include the provision of training to facilitate the development of foster family homes and small family homes to care for no more than six children who have special mental, emotional, developmental, or physical needs.

The State Department of Social Services shall facilitate the participation of county welfare departments in the foster parent training program. The State Foster Parents Association, or the local chapters thereof, and the State Department of Social Services shall identify training participants and shall advise the chancellor on the form, content, and methodology of the training program. Funds shall be paid monthly to the foster parent training program until the maximum amount of funds authorized to be expended for that program is expended. No more than 10 percent or seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) of these moneys, whichever is greater, shall be used for administrative purposes; of the 10 percent or seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000), no more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) shall be expended to reimburse the State Department of Social Services for its services pursuant to this paragraph.

(d) Beginning with fiscal year 1983–84, and each fiscal year thereafter, after all allocations for foster parent training in community colleges have been made, any moneys remaining in the Foster Children and Parent Training Fund may be allocated for foster children services programs pursuant to Chapter 11.3 (commencing with Section 42920) of Part 24 of the Education Code.

(e) The Controller shall transfer moneys from the Foster Children and Parent Training Fund to the Chancellor of the Community Colleges and the Superintendent of Public Instruction as necessary to fulfill the requirements of subdivisions (c) and (d).

After the maximum amount authorized in any fiscal year has been transferred to the Chancellor of the Community Colleges and the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Controller shall transfer any remaining funds to the General Fund for expenditure for any public purpose.

SEC. 5. The sum of five million six hundred thousand dollars ($5,600,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Controller for allocation to the State Department of Social Services, without regard to fiscal years, for purposes of this act as follows:

(a) The sum of four million six hundred thousand dollars ($4,600,000) shall be allocated for additional contracted county licensing staff needed to provide for the recruitment and home study programs pursuant Sections 1515 and 1525.1 of the Health and Safety

Code.

(b) The sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) is allocated to the Foster Children and Parent Training Fund solely for the support of foster parent training programs pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 903.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

It is the intent of the Legislature that annual appropriations for these programs be included in the Budget Act.

An act to amend Sections 1266, 1290, 1419, 1422, 1424, and 1432 of, to add Sections 1271, 1418.2, 1427.5, 1430.5, 1432.1, and 1439.5 to, and to repeal and add Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 1272) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to add Sections 14022.3, 14110.6, 14110.7 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to health, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1266 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1266. (a) Each new and renewal application for a license for the health facilities listed below shall be accompanied by an annual fee as set forth below.

The annual fee for a general acute care hospital, acute psychiatric hospital, special hospital, general acute care/rehabilitation hospital, psychiatric health facility, and chemical dependency recovery hospital, based on the number of licensed beds, is as follows:

1–49 beds	$460 plus $8 per bed
50–99 beds	$850 plus $8 per bed
100 or more beds	$1,175 plus $8 per bed

The annual fee for a skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, and intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled, based on the number of licensed beds, is as follows:

1–59 beds	$2,068 plus $26 per bed
100 or more beds	$3,183 plus $26 per bed

The fees provided in this subdivision shall be adjusted, commencing July 1, 1983, as proposed in the department's 1983–84 fiscal year Health Facility License Fee Report to the Legislature. Commencing July 1, 1984, fees provided in this subdivision shall be adjusted annually, as directed by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

(b) The state department shall submit to the Legislature, on or before January 17 of each year, a report describing program costs within the Licensing and Certification Division, and a methodology for calculating fee levels in an amount sufficient to provide revenues equal to (1) the General Fund expenditures for the fiscal year ending on June 30 of that year, as specified in the proposed Governor's Annual Budget, less license fees which shall be collected in that fiscal year by the Licensing and Certification Program pursuant to sections other than this section, plus (2) the amount of federal funds budgeted for the fiscal year ending June 30 of that year for the Licensing and Certification Program, less federal funds received or credited, or anticipated to be received or credited, during that fiscal year for that purpose.

The report shall specifically identify federal funds received, but not previously budgeted, for the Licensing and Certification Program which are used to offset the amount of General Fund dollars to be recovered through license fees. The report shall also identify the purpose of federal funds received for any additional activities under the Licensing and Certification Program which are not used to offset the amount of General Fund dollars.

(c) The annual fees determined pursuant to this section shall be waived for any health facility conducted, maintained, or operated by this state or any state department, authority, bureau, commission or officer, or by the Regents of the University of California, or by a local hospital district, city, county, or city and county.

(d) The state department shall by July 30 of each year publish a list of actual numerical fee charges as adjusted pursuant to this section. This adjustment of fees and the publication of the fee list shall not be subject to the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(e) Prior to the establishment of the annual fee, the state department shall prepare a staffing and systems analysis to ensure efficient and effective utilization of fees collected, proper allocation of departmental resources to licensing and certification activities, survey schedules, complaint investigations, enforcement and appeal activities, data collection and dissemination, surveyor training, and policy development.

The analysis under this subdivision shall include all of the following:

(1) The number of surveyors and administrative support personnel devoted to licensing and certification of health care facilities.

(2) The percentage of time devoted to licensing and certification activities for the various types of health facilities.

(3) The number of facilities receiving full surveys versus abbreviated surveys, and the frequency and number of followup visits.

(4) The number and timeliness of complaint investigations.

(5) Data on deficiencies and citations issued, and numbers of citation review conferences and arbitration hearings.

(6) Training courses provided for surveyors.

(7) Other applicable activities of the licensing and certification division.

The analysis shall also include recommendations for administrative changes to streamline and prioritize the survey process, complaint investigations, management information systems, word processing capabilities and effectiveness, consumer information system, and surveyor training.

The annual staffing and systems analysis shall be presented to the Health Care Advisory Committee and the Legislature prior to establishment and adoption of the annual fee.

SEC. 2. Section 1271 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1271. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that uniform orientation and training are fundamental to ensuring a high level of competency of state personnel charged with enforcing state law regulating the licensure, certification, and inspection of long-term health care facilities.

(b) The state department shall develop, adopt, and implement comprehensive continuing orientation and in-service training programs. The comprehensive programs shall, at a minimum, include, but not be limited to, both of the following:

(1) An orientation program consisting of instruction in basic enforcement, inspection, investigation, and survey skills and techniques, patients' rights and safety, health facility, clinic, and agency licensing regulations, and supervised on-the-job training in long-term health care facilities.

(2) Ongoing in-service training to maintain continuing competency in existing and new inspection, investigation, and enforcement skills, patient care modalities, and to assure statewide uniform interpretation and application of long-term health care facility licensing regulations.

(c) The state department shall establish and maintain a program review function responsible for inspecting, monitoring, evaluating, and providing consultative support and assistance to licensing and certification field offices. The program review shall ensure that the licensing and certification field offices implement, enforce, and interpret applicable state statutes, licensing regulations, certification standards, and departmental policies and procedures in an effective and uniform manner statewide.

SEC. 3. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 1272) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 1272) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 2.5. Health Care Advisory Committee

1272. There is hereby created the Health Care Advisory Committee which shall assist, advise, and make written recommendations to the director regarding existing and proposed regulations, policies, and administrative practices affecting the delivery of services rendered by general acute care hospitals, acute psychiatric hospitals, special hospitals, psychiatric health facilities, chemical dependency recovery hospitals, and specialty clinics. For these purposes, the committee shall serve as consultants to the director.

The committee shall consist of the director, or the director's designee, who shall serve as chairman ex officio, and 12 members who shall be appointed by the Governor. Five members shall be public members representing consumers, one member shall be an ombudsman certified by the Department of Aging, and six members shall be representatives of the health care industry, consisting of two members representing general acute care hospitals, one member representing acute psychiatric hospitals, one member representing chemical dependency recovery hospitals, one member representing speciality clinics, and one member shall be a physician and surgeon currently licensed to practice in this state.

Committee members shall serve for four-year terms and until the appointment and qualification of their successors. Initial terms of the members of the committee shall expire in the following order: one public member, the certified ombudsman, and one industry member on July 1, 1986; two public members, the physician and surgeon, and three industry members on July 1, 1987; two public members and two industry members on July 1, 1988. The Governor shall designate the term for which each member is initially appointed. Vacancies shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired term.

1273. Members of the committee shall serve without compensation, but shall receive the current per diem, subsistence and travel reimbursement paid to state managers, supervisors, and confidential employees for expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

1274. The committee shall meet on call of the director.

SEC. 5. Section 1290 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1290. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b) or (c), any person who violates this chapter or who willfully or repeatedly violates any rule or regulation promulgated under this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed 180 days, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) Any person who violates Section 1286 is guilty of an infraction and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(c) Any person who willfully or repeatedly violates this chapter or Chapter 2.4 (commencing with Section 1417), excluding Sections 1425 and 1432, or any rule or regulation promulgated under this chapter, relating to the operation or maintenance of a long-term health care facility as defined in Section 1418, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed 180 days, or by both.

In determining the punishment to be imposed upon a conviction under this subdivision, the court shall consider all relevant facts, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Whether the violation exposed the patient to the risk of death or serious physical harm.

(2) Whether the violation had a direct or immediate relationship to the health, safety, or security of the patient.

(3) Evidence, if any, of willfulness.

(4) The number of repeated violations.

(5) The presence or absence of good faith efforts by the defendant to prevent the violation.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "willfully" or "willful" means the person doing an act or omitting to do an act intends the act or omission, and knows the relevant circumstances connected therewith.

SEC. 6. Section 1418.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1418.2. Every licensed long-term health care facility shall establish and maintain a patient oriented council. Each council shall include the patients or residents of the long-term health care facility, and may include family members of patients or residents, advocates or ombudsman groups interested in patients of long-term health care facilities, and personnel of the long-term health care facility.

The council shall meet at regularly scheduled intervals, shall maintain written minutes, including names of council members present, and shall have minutes available for review by the state department upon its request.

Written council minutes may include recommendations from the council to the licensee of the long-term health care facility which shall be provided to the licensee. The licensee shall provide evidence of review and action on these recommendations to the state department upon its request.

(b) Any long-term health care facility which fails to establish a patient-oriented council as prescribed in subdivision (a) shall not be entitled to an abbreviated inspection for a period of one full inspection year, unless exempted from this requirement by the state department.

(c) The state department shall, by regulation, specify those circumstances under which a long-term health care facility may be exempted from the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b).

SEC. 7. Section 1419 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1419. Any person may request an inspection of any long-term health care facility in accordance with this chapter by giving oral or written notice to the state department of an alleged violation of applicable requirements of state law. Any such notice may be in writing signed by the complainant setting forth with reasonable par-ticularity the matters complained of. The complaint may also be made by telephone, or personal visit. Any oral complaint shall be reduced to writing by the state department. The substance of the complaint shall be provided to the licensee no earlier than at the commencement of the inspection. Neither the substance of the complaint provided the licensee nor any copy of the complaint or record published, released, or otherwise made available to the licensee shall disclose the name of any individual complainant or other person mentioned in the complaint, except the name or names of any duly authorized officer, employee, or agent of the state department conducting the investigation or inspection pursuant to this chapter, unless the complainant specifically requests the release of the name or names or the matter results in a judicial proceeding.

SEC. 8. Section 1422 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1422. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that it is the public policy of this state to assure that long-term health care facilities provide the highest level of care possible. The Legislature further finds that inspections are the most effective means of furthering this policy. It is not the intent of the Legislature by the amendment of subdivision (b) enacted by Chapter 1595 of the Statutes of 1982 to reduce in any way the resources available to the state department for inspections, but rather to provide the state department with the greatest flexibility to concentrate its resources where they can be most effective.

(b) Without providing notice of these inspections, the state department shall, in addition to any inspections conducted pursuant to complaints filed pursuant to Section 1419, conduct inspections annually, except with regard to those facilities which have no class AA, class A, or class B violations in the past 12 months. The state department shall also conduct inspections as may be necessary to assure the health, safety, and security of patients in long-term health care facilities. Every facility shall be inspected at least once every two years.

The state department shall submit to the federal Department of Health and Human Services on or before July 1, 1985, for review and approval, a request to implement a three-year pilot program designed to lessen the predictability of the long-term health care facility inspection process. Two components of the pilot program shall be (1) the elimination of the present practice of entering into a one-year certification agreement, and (2) the conduct of segmented inspections of a sample of facilities with poor inspection records, as defined by the state department. At the conclusion of the pilot project an analysis of both components shall be conducted by the state department to determine effectiveness in reducing inspection predictability and the respective cost benefits. Implementation of this pilot project is contingent upon federal approval. The state department shall report annually to the Legislature on the progress of the pilot project with a final report at the end of the third year.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), the state department shall conduct unannounced direct patient care inspections at least annually to inspect physician and surgeon services, nursing services, pharmacy services, dietary services, and activity programs of all the long-term health care facilities. Facilities evidencing repeated serious problems in complying with this chapter or a history of poor performance, or both, shall be subject to periodic unannounced direct patient care inspections during the inspection year. The direct patient care inspections shall assist the state department in the prioritization of its efforts to correct facility deficiencies.

(d) All long-term health care facilities shall report to the state department any changes in the nursing home administrator or the director of nursing services within 10 calendar days of the changes.

(e) Within 90 days after the receipt of notice of a change in the nursing home administrator or the director of nursing services, the state department may conduct an abbreviated inspection of the long-term health care facility.

SEC. 9. Section 1424 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1424. Citations issued pursuant to this chapter shall be classified according to the nature of the violation and shall indicate the classification on the face thereof.

(a) In determining the amount of the civil penalty, all relevant facts shall be considered, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) The probability and severity of the risk which the violation presents to the patient's mental and physical condition.

(2) The patient's medical condition.

(3) The patient's mental condition and his or her history of mental disability or disorder.

(4) The good-faith efforts exercised by the facility to prevent the violation from occurring.

(5) The licensee's history of compliance with regulations.

(b) Class "AA" violations are violations which meet the criteria for a class "A" violation and which the state department determines to have been a proximate cause of death of a patient of a long-term health care facility. A class "AA" violation is subject to a civil penalty in the amount of not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) and not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each violation. In any action to enforce a citation issued under this subdivision, the state department shall prove all of the following:

(1) The violation was the direct proximate cause of death of a patient.

(2) The death resulted from an occurrence of a nature which the regulation was designed to prevent.

(3) The patient suffering the death was among the class of persons for whose protection the regulation was adopted.

If the state department meets this burden of proof, the licensee shall have the burden of proving that the licensee violating the regulation did what might reasonably be expected of a long-term health care facility licensee, acting under similar circumstances, to comply with the regulation. If the licensee sustains this burden, then the citation may be reduced.

For each class "AA" violation within a 12-month period which has become final, the state department shall consider the suspension or revocation of the facility's license in accordance with Section 1294. For a third or subsequent class "AA" violation in a facility within such a 12-month period which has been sustained following a citation review conference, the state department shall commence action to suspend or revoke the facility's license in accordance with Section 1294.

(c) Class "A" violations are violations which the state department determines present either (1) imminent danger that death or serious harm to the patients of the long-term health care facility would result therefrom, or (2) substantial probability that death or serious physical harm to patients of the long-term health care facility would result therefrom. A physical condition or one or more practices, means, methods, or operations in use in a long-term health care facility may constitute a class "A" violation. The condition or practice constituting a class "A" violation shall be abated or eliminated immediately, unless a fixed period of time, as determined by the state department, is required for correction. A class "A" violation is subject to a civil penalty in an amount not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each and every violation.

(d) Class "B" violations are violations which the state department determines have a direct or immediate relationship to the health, safety, or security of long-term health care facility patients, other than class "AA" or "A" violations. Unless otherwise determined by the state department to be a class "A" violation pursuant to this chapter and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, any violation of a patient's rights as set forth in Sections 72527 and 73523 of Title 22 of the California Administrative Code, which is determined by the state department to cause or under circumstances likely to cause significant humiliation, indignity, anxiety, or other emotional trauma to a patient is a class "B" violation. A class "B" violation is subject to a civil penalty in an amount not less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each and every violation. A citation for a class "B" violation shall specify the time within which the violation is required to be corrected.

If a class "B" violation is corrected within the time specified, no civil penalties shall be imposed, unless it is a second or subsequent violation of the same regulation occurring within the period since and including the previous full annual licensing survey inspection or 12 months, whichever is greater. In no case shall the period extend beyond 13 months. At the citation review conference, the director's designee may, utilizing the criteria set forth in subdivision (a), waive or reduce the penalty as specified in subdivision (a) of Section 1428, taking into consideration the seriousness of the previous and present violations, the similarity between the two violations, the extent to which there is a direct relationship to the health and safety or security of patients, and the good faith exercised by the licensee in correcting the problem. The decision to waive or not to waive these penalties shall not be reviewable.

(e) Any willful material falsification or willful material omission in the health record for a patient of a long-term health care facility is a violation. "Willful material falsification," as used in this section, means any entry in the patient health care record pertaining to the administration of medication, or treatments ordered for the patient, or pertaining to services for the prevention or treatment of decubitus ulcers or contractures, or pertaining to tests and measurements of vital signs, or notations of input and output of fluids, which was made with the knowledge that the records falsely reflect the condition of the resident or the care or services provided.

"Willful material omission," as used in this section, means the willful failure to record any untoward event which has affected the health, safety, or security of the specific patient, and which was omitted with the knowledge that the records falsely reflect the condition of the resident or the care or services provided. A violation of this subdivision may result in a civil penalty not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000), as specified in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive. However, in no case shall the civil penalty be trebled.

(1) The willful material falsification or willful material omission is subject to a civil penalty of not less than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) or more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in instances where the health care record is relied upon by a health care professional to the detriment of a patient by affecting the administration of medications or treatments, the issuance of orders, or the development of plans of care. In all other cases, violations of this subdivision are subject to a civil penalty not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(2) Where the penalty assessed is one thousand dollars ($1,000) or less, the violation shall be issued and enforced in the same manner as a class "B" violation. Where the assessed penalty is in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000), the violation shall be issued and enforced in the same manner as a class "A" violation.

(3) Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude the department from issuing a class "A" or class "B" citation for any violation which meets the requirements for such a citation, regardless of whether the violation also constitutes a violation of this subdivision. However, no single act, omission, or occurrence may be cited both as a class "A" or class "B" violation and as a violation of this subdivision.

(f) The director shall prescribe procedures for the issuance of a notice of violation with respect to violations having only a minimal relationship to patient safety or health.

SEC. 10. Section 1427.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1427.5. (a) When the administration of medications, treatments, or other care is not recorded, as required by law, in the health care record for a patient of a long-term health care facility, it shall be presumed that the required medication, treatment, or care has not been provided.

(b) The presumption established by this section may be rebutted by a licensee only upon a showing of a preponderance of the evidence.

SEC. 11. Section 1430.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1430.5. Upon the implementation of the automated information system pursuant to Section 1439.5, the state department shall once each quarter issue a public information release to the state's news media identifying all long-term health care facilities in the state which have had no class "AA," class "A," or class "B" violations in the immediately preceding two inspection years.

A facility's inclusion in this public information release shall not be admissible in litigation involving the facility which is unrelated to the two-year period identified in any such release.

SEC. 12. Section 1432 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1432. (a) No licensee shall discriminate or retaliate in any manner against any patient or any employee in its long-term health care facility on the basis or for the reason that the patient or the employee or any other person has presented a grievance or complaint, or has initiated or cooperated in any investigation or proceeding by any governmental entity relating to care, services, or conditions at that facility. A licensee who violates this section is subject to a civil penalty of no more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), to be assessed by the director and collected in the manner provided in Section 1430.

(b) Any attempt to expel a patient from a long-term health care facility or any type of discriminatory treatment of a patient by whom, or upon whose behalf, a grievance or complaint has been submitted, directly or indirectly, to any governmental entity or received by a facility administrator or any proceeding instituted under or related to this chapter within 180 days of the filing of the grievance or complaint or the institution of the action, shall raise a rebuttable presumption that the action was taken by the licensee in retaliation for the filing of the grievance or complaint.

(c) Any attempt to terminate the employment, or other discriminatory treatment, of any employee who has presented a grievance or complaint or has initiated, participated, or cooperated in any investigation or proceeding by a governmental entity, as specified in subdivision (a) and where the facility or licensee had knowledge of the employee's initiation, participation, or cooperation in the investigation or proceeding, shall raise a rebuttable presumption that the action was taken by the licensee in retaliation if it occurs within 120 days of the filing of the grievance or complaint, or the institution of the action.

(d) Presumptions provided for in subdivisions (b) and (c) are presumptions affecting the burden of producing evidence as provided in Section 603 of the Evidence Code.

(e) Where the civil penalty assessed is one thousand dollars ($1,000) or less, the violation shall be issued and enforced in the same manner as a class "B" violation, except in no case shall the penalty be trebled. Where the civil penalty is in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000), the violation shall be issued and enforced in the same manner as a class "A" violation, except in no case shall the penalty be trebled.

(f) Any person who violates this section is guilty of an infraction punishable by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(g) A licensee who violates this section is subject to a civil penalty or a criminal fine, but not both.

(h) Each long-term health care facility shall prominently post in a facility location accessible to staff, patients, and visitors, written notice of the right to request an inspection pursuant to Section 1419, the procedure for doing so, including the right to remain anonymous, and the prohibition against retaliation.

SEC. 13. Section 1432.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1432.1. No licensee shall be cited for any violation caused by any person licensed pursuant to the State Medical Practice Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code) if the person is independent of, and not connected with, the licensee and the licensee shows that he or she has exercised reasonable care and diligence in notifying the persons of their duty to the patients in the licensee's long-term health care facility.

SEC. 14. Section 1439.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1439.5. (a) The state department shall undertake the immediate development, implementation, and maintenance of an automated information system. The automated information system shall be developed to ensure both of the following:

(1) The most effective operation of this chapter and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250), including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(A) Gathering data necessary to maximize enforcement and monitoring capabilities.

(B) Increasing accessibility of facility information.

(C) Identifying any trends of substandard care.

(D) Providing management information.

(2) The provision of information to the general public pursuant to subdivision (b).

The state department shall take all necessary action to obtain maximum federal funding assistance to develop, implement, and maintain an automated information system.

(b) The state department shall develop a consumer information system, pursuant to Section 1422.5, to provide information to the general public and long-term health care services consumers regarding long-term health care facilities in this state. The state department shall utilize, to the extent possible, the information provided by its automated information system. Prior to implementation, the consumer information system shall be presented to the Health Care Advisory Committee for its review and comments.

SEC. 15. Section 14022.3 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14022.3. Long-term health care facilities shall reveal to applicants for admission, or their designated representatives, orally and in writing and prior to admission, whether the facility participates in the Medi-Cal program, and the circumstances under which the law permits a Medi-Cal recipient to be transferred involuntarily.

SEC. 16. Section 14110.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14110.6. (a) The director shall adopt regulations, effective March 15, 1985, establishing payment rates for skilled nursing facilities, intermediate care facilities, and intermediate care facilities/developmentally disabled, as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, which are sufficient to provide an increase of one dollar and ninety-six cents ($1.96) per patient day for skilled nursing patients, one dollar and fifty-eight cents ($1.58) per patient day for intermediate care patients, and two dollars and twenty-nine cents ($2.29) per patient day for intermediate care facilities/developmentally disabled patients to be used for wage increases and benefits to all employees, except a licensed nursing home administrator or an administrator in training. However, if the entry level wages of the lowest paid nonadministrative employee of a skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility or intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled exceeds six dollars ($6) per hour as of August 1, 1984, the funds received pursuant to regulations adopted pursuant to this section shall be used to ensure the continued delivery of quality care in such facility. Any increase in wages and benefits required by this section shall be in addition to any future mandatory increases required by federal or state law. The rate shall provide funding for the portion of additional costs necessary to implement the wage and benefit increase required by this section attributable to Medi-Cal patients. The portion of such additional costs shall be the same as the ratio of Medi-Cal patients to the total number of patients in the facility.

(b) Each skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility or intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled shall certify all of the following:

(1) All employees, except a licensed nursing home administrator or an administrator in training of a licensed nursing home, shall receive at least the prevailing federal or state minimum wage rate plus the average hourly wage increase established pursuant to Chapter 19, Statutes of 1978, and this section.

(2) All employees of the facility, except a licensed administrator or administrator in training, shall be paid not less than the sum of the employee's actual rate of pay as of the effective date of the Medi-Cal rate increase plus the amount of the adjustment specified pursuant to this section, or not less than the applicable agreed to rate plus the amount of the adjustment, whichever is greater.

(3) Any wage increase required pursuant to Section 1268.5 of the Health and Safety Code, is in addition to any minimum wages provided in this section.

(4) For purposes of determining the amount of Medi-Cal funds to be distributed for employee wages and benefits, the total Medi-Cal patient days recorded by the facility in the month of December 1983 shall be multiplied by the amount per patient day specified in subdivision (a) plus the amount provided by Chapter 19, Statutes of 1978. The new wage levels shall be determined by dividing the Medi-Cal funds received by the nonovertime hours worked by covered employees in December 1983, plus any adjustments due to additional employees as specified in Section 14110.7 and adjustments to reflect employee benefit allowances.

(c) The director shall order the inspection of relevant payroll and personnel records of skilled nursing facilities, intermediate care facilities, and intermediate care facilities/developmentally disabled which are reimbursed for Medi-Cal patients under the rate of reimbursement established pursuant to subdivision (a) to ensure that the wage and benefit increases provided for have been implemented.

(d) Any facility which is paid under the rate provided for in subdivision (a) which the director finds has not made the wage and benefit increases provided for shall be liable for the amount of funds paid to the facility based upon the wage and benefit requirements provided for by this section but not distributed to employees for wages and benefits, plus a penalty equal to 10 percent of the funds not so distributed.

SEC. 17. Section 14110.7 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14110.7. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds expended to implement this section be utilized by long-term health care facilities participating in Medi-Cal to improve patient care in such facilities by increasing staffing levels to meet patients' needs and to comply with new regulatory requirements, as well as to ensure that those facilities providing care to Medi-Cal patients have the needed resources and staff to provide quality care to Medi-Cal supported patients.

(b) The director shall adopt regulations, effective March 15, 1985, establishing payment rates for skilled nursing facilities, intermediate care facilities, and intermediate care facilities/developmentally disabled, as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, which are sufficient to provide an increase of one dollar and eighteen cents ($1.18) per patient day for skilled nursing patients, for intermediate care patients, and for intermediate care/developmentally disabled patients to increase staffing.

(c) The director shall adopt regulations increasing the minimum number of equivalent nursing hours per patient required in skilled nursing facilities to 3.0, in skilled nursing facilities with special treatment programs to 2.3, in intermediate care facilities to 1.1, and in intermediate care facilities/developmentally disabled to 2.7.

(d) Effective August 1, 1985, and annually thereafter, each long-term health care facility shall certify to the department that funds received pursuant to this section were expended solely for labor costs directly related to providing patient care services in order to meet patients' needs and to comply with new regulatory requirements. Each facility shall also certify that these funds were not expended to increase salaries or benefits for facility administrators or administrators-in-training.

The department shall, after consultation with the California Association of Health Facilities and the California Association of Homes for the Aging, develop a methodology to determine whether facilities have spent funds in accordance with their certification. Thirty days prior to adoption of the methodology, the department shall notify the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the fiscal committees of each house. Whenever the department finds that a facility has not spent funds in accordance with these provisions, the facility shall be liable for the amount paid to the facility pursuant to this section which was not distributed according to this section.

SEC. 18. The sum of eight million fifteen thousand dollars ($8,015,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Controller, to be allocated to the State Department of Health Services, upon approval of the Director of Finance, for costs incurred during the 1984–85 fiscal year in implementing Section 14110.6 and 14110.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 18.7. The State Department of Health Services shall in its budget proposals for fiscal year 1986–87 provide for the creation of 12 additional auditor positions and two additional support staff within the Audits and Investigations Division of the State Department of Health Services. The purpose for the creation of these auditor positions is to ensure compliance with Sections 14110.6, and 14110.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and to evaluate cost reports and payroll records submitted by long-term health care facilities pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 14000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 18.9. Sections 1 to 18.7, inclusive, of this act shall not become operative, unless SB 1342, SB 1345, SB 1346, SB 1558, SB 1921, AB 2261, and AB 2263 of the 1983–84 Regular Session are all chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1985.

SEC. 19. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 20. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

An act to add Chapter 1.6 (commencing with Section 171) to Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to Alzheimer's disease, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984]

I am deleting the $150,000 appropriation contained in Section 2 of Assembly Bill No. 2733 which provides funding for support of the Alzheimer's Disease Task Force.

The $450,000 appropriation provided by SB 1337 for Alzheimer's leadership activities includes the necessary funding for support of the Alzheimer's Task Force.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No. 2733.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.6 (commencing with Section 171) is added to Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.6. ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE TASK FORCE

171. (a) (1) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that Alzheimer's disease is the fourth leading cause of death in the United States. An illness affecting the brain, Alzheimer's disease is by far the leading cause of dementia in middle-aged and elderly individuals.

(2) The Legislature further finds and declares that an estimated 2,500,000 Americans are currently afflicted with Alzheimer's disease. This disease runs a chronic, gradually progressive course resulting in complete physical and mental disability in the final stages.

(3) The Legislature also finds and declares that if no cure or prevention is found, an estimated 3,000,000 or 4,000,000 Americans, or one of every 10 adults over the age of 65, will be a victim of Alzheimer's disease in the year 2000.

(b) Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature to ameliorate hardships encountered by Alzheimer's disease victims and families by addressing the paucity of health and social services available to victims and families, to address the unavailability of affordable long-term care, and to increase public awareness and education which will result in greater support and understanding for those afflicted with Alzheimer's disease by providing for the establishment of an Alzheimer's Disease Task Force.

171.3. The Department of Aging shall establish an Alzheimer's Disease Task Force consisting of no more than 11 members. Members shall be selected from professional disciplines which include, but are not limited to, academic research, medicine, and mental health. Individuals representing families of persons suffering from Alzheimer's disease or related disorders shall comprise no less than two of the 11 members.

The Alzheimer's Disease Task Force shall do all of the following:

(a) Provide guidance to the Department of Aging in the development of training programs and media resource packages pursuant to Section 1568.15.

(b) Provide ongoing guidance to the administration and the Legislature as to the program needs of this target population.

(c) In conjunction with the Department of Aging, convene a statewide conference in 1985 to examine the state of the art, explore the progress of newly established programs and services, identify future needs for legislation and program development, and make recommendations on program needs. Conference participants shall include professionals and service providers in the area of Alzheimer's disease, family members of Alzheimer's patients, and staff members of the Legislature and state departments.

SEC. 2. The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Aging for expenditure during the 1984–85, 1985–86, and 1986–87 fiscal years as follows:

(a) For the 1984–85 fiscal year, fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), to be allocated as the department determines, for the support of the statewide conference described in Section 1568.17 of the Health and Safety Code and the Alzheimer's Disease Task Force.

(b) For the 1985–86 and 1986–87 fiscal years, fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for each fiscal year for the support of the Alzheimer's Disease Task Force.

An act to amend Sections 1588, 1588.2, 1588.5, and 1588.7 of, to amend, repeal, and add Section 1572 of, to add Section 1589.5 to, to add Chapter 3.3 (commencing with Section 1568.10) to Division 2 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 9201 of, to add Sections 9315 and 9317 to, and to add and repeal Section 9316 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to aging, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

I am deleting the $450,000 appropriation for the 1984–85 fiscal year contained in Health and Safety Code section 1568.21 of Senate Bill No. 1337.

Section 15 of SB 1337 contains an appropriation for adult day health care funding for the 1984–85 fiscal year. This deletion will eliminate double funding for 1984–85. The appropriations for the 1985–86 and 1986–87 fiscal years remain intact.

With this deletion, I approve Senate Bill No. 1337.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that despite the concerted efforts of the Legislature and the administration to establish a continuum of community-based services for long-term care and despite new and expanded services, such as Adult Day Health Care, the Multipurpose Senior Services Program, expanded home-delivered meals, expanded Nursing Home Ombudsman Services and additional state support for the In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS) program, the state has not yet achieved the degree of coordination essential to prevent unnecessary or premature institutionalization.

The Legislature also finds and declares that federal law authorizing federal financial participation in the programs that provide community-based long-term care limits the extent to which the different funding sources and administrative functions can be integrated. It is, however, within the state's authority to establish a single coordinating entity to promote and facilitate close cooperation and working relationships between programs and efficient use of resources without infringing on single state agency requirements, where they may apply.

It is the intent of the Legislature to foster independence and self-reliance, maintain individual dignity, and allow persons requiring long-term care services to be an integral part of family and community life to the fullest extent possible.

To achieve this goal it is the further intent of the Legislature to provide a plan and structure whereby a continuum of long-term social and health support services may be established in communities throughout the state.

The Legislature declares the Department of Aging will be the principal department to have responsibility for development of policy, implementation, and integration of a comprehensive set of noninstitutional long-term care services for older Californians and functionally impaired adults.

The purpose of this act is to begin the incremental development of a long-term care delivery system that provides the social and health support necessary to enable frail elderly or functionally impaired adults to remain in their own homes.

The first phase of the long-term care system shall consist of the Department of Aging sponsoring new programs in long-term care services, increasing the adult day health care programs, increasing the Multipurpose Senior Services Programs and testing alternative case management models. The objective is to promote the development of community-based long-term care service delivery programs that foster local community control and offer a variety of options.

SEC. 2. The Legislature makes all of the following findings and declarations:

(a) There is a critical need to establish specialized programs for patients suffering from Alzheimer's disease and related diseases. Alzheimer's disease is an organic, progressive brain disorder which may result in its final stages in the complete mental and physical disability of a patient.

(b) There is a need to identify the appropriate level and type of care required to meet the nursing and psychosocial needs of these patients and to explore appropriate environmental conditions and treatment methods.

(c) There are few services specifically designed to meet the unique needs of Alzheimer's patients in the moderate to severe stages and their families, and it is imperative that these services be developed as soon as possible.

(d) Programs are needed to provide respite for families who provide care for these patients at home on a 24-hour basis, as well as to serve the psychosocial, health, and physical care needs of the patients.

(e) There is also a need to develop training programs for professionals and other persons providing care for Alzheimer's patients. Specialized programs for these persons while serving an Alzheimer's client population will provide an optimum setting for developing and implementing those training programs.

SEC. 3. Chapter 3.3 (commencing with Section 1568.10) is added to Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.3. ALZHEIMER'S DAY CARE-RESOURCE CENTER PILOT PROJECT ACT

1568.14. Each grantee shall also satisfy all of the following requirements:

(a) Establish family support groups.

(b) Encourage family members to provide transportation to and from the applicant's facility for participants.

Persons shall be selected from professional disciplines which include, but shall not be limited to, academic research, medicine, and mental health. Individuals representing families of persons suffering from Alzheimer's or related disorders shall comprise no less than two of the 11 members.

This section shall not become effective if Assembly Bill 2733 is enacted during the 1983–84 Regular Session.

1568.17. The Alzheimer's Task Force shall do all of the following:

(a) Provide guidance to the department in the development of the training and media resource packages.

1572. To the extent provided for under Section 9316 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the functions and duties of the state department provided for under this chapter shall be performed for no longer than three years by the Department of Aging once the functions are transferred from the Department of Health Services to the Department of Aging. These functions shall be transferred when the Department of Aging develops an implementation plan clearly defining the authority, functions, and responsibility of the Department of Aging, and signs an interagency agreement with the state department to specify how the departments shall work together in areas of mutual concern.

The interagency agreement shall specify that the Department of Aging is designated by the state department as the agency responsible for community long-term care programs. At a minimum, the interagency agreement shall clarify each department's responsibilities on issues involving licensure and certification of adult day health care providers, payment of adult day health care claims, prior authorization of services, promulgation of regulations, and development of adult day health care Medi-Cal rates. This agreement shall also include provisions whereby the state department and the Department of Aging shall collaborate in the development and implementation of health programs and services for older persons and functionally impaired adults.

By December 1, 1986, the Department of Aging shall submit to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the fiscal committees of both houses a report specifically addressing the goals of the adult day health care program and how they have been met as a result of this transfer from the state department to the Department of Aging. To the extent necessary for implementation of Section 9316 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as used in this chapter, "director" shall refer to the Director of the Department of Aging and "state department" shall refer to the Department of Aging. (b) The committee shall review county plans submitted pursuant to Section 1572.9. Such county plans shall be approved if consistent with the guidelines adopted by the director pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) The committee shall review and make recommendations to the Director of the Department of Aging concerning individual proposals for startup funds and for original licensure of proposed adult day health centers. The Director of the Department of Aging shall make recommendations regarding licensure to the Licensing and Certification Division in the State Department of Health Services. This review may include onsite inspections by the committee, or a special subcommittee thereof, for the purpose of evaluating a proposed provider or its facility. The basis of this review shall be the approved county plan and an evaluation of the ability of the applicant to provide adult day health care in accordance with the requirements of this chapter and regulations adopted hereunder. A public hearing on each individual proposal for an adult day health care center shall be held by the local adult day health councils or local councils of governments in the county to be served. In order to provide the greatest public input, the hearing should preferably be held in the services area to be served.

This section shall remain in effect only until three years from the date upon which responsibility for the adult day health care program is transferred to the Department of Aging, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute enacted prior to that date extends or deletes that date.

A public hearing on each individual proposal for an adult day health care center shall be held by the committee in the county to be served. In order to provide the greatest public input, the hearing should preferably be held in the services area to be served.

CHAPTER 1601

An act to add Article 7.2 (commencing with Section 412) to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

I am reducing the appropriation contained in Section 2 of Assembly Bill No. 2225 from $4,000,000 to $1,000,000.

I am in full support of establishing Alzheimer's diagnostic and treatment centers at postsecondary higher educational institutions as well as examine the cause and cure for Alzheimer's Disease. However, I am making this reduction since there is a significant level of funding for research in Alzheimer's Disease outside of California This bill would provide $1 million which is consistent with by Seniors Initiative for Californians.

With this reduction, I approve Assembly Bill No 2225

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 7.2 (commencing with Section 412) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 7.2. Alzheimer's Disease

412. (a) The Legislature finds that Alzheimer's disease, a devastating disease which destroys certain vital cells of the brain, affects more than 1,500,000 Americans. The Legislature also finds that Alzheimer's disease is responsible for 50 percent of all nursing home admissions and is the fourth leading cause of death among older Americans. The Legislature recognizes that the disease has serious emotional, financial, and social consequences for its victims and their families.

(b) The Legislature recognizes that the cause of Alzheimer's disease is presently unknown, and there is no established treatment which can cure, reverse, or stop the progression of Alzheimer's disease. The Legislature also recognizes that research is the only hope for victims and families. Despite the need to make progress against this disease, the Legislature finds that none of California's postsecondary higher educational institutions with medical centers have diagnostic and treatment centers with sufficient resources to improve the quality of care available to the victims of Alzheimer's disease and to increase knowledge with respect to this disease. It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this article, to encourage the establishment of several geographically dispersed diagnostic and treatment centers for Alzheimer's disease within a postsecondary higher educational institution with a medical center, and to encourage research to discover the cause of, and a cure for, Alzheimer's disease.

(c) The functions of the diagnostic and treatment centers shall be designed to serve all of the following purposes:

(1) To provide diagnostic and treatment services and improve the quality of care to victims of Alzheimer's disease.

(2) To increase research by faculty and students in discovering the cause of, and a cure for, Alzheimer's disease.

(3) To provide training, consultation, and continuing education to the families of those who are affected by Alzheimer's disease.

(4) To increase the training of health care professionals with respect to Alzheimer's disease.

413. (a) Any postsecondary higher educational institution with a medical center may establish diagnostic and treatment centers for Alzheimer's disease.

(b) The State Department of Health Services shall administer grants to postsecondary higher educational institutions which establish diagnostic and treatment centers pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) Alzheimer's disease grants for the purpose of establishing a diagnostic and treatment center shall be used only for the purposes of this article, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Salary and benefits for faculty, residents, fellows, and staff of the diagnostic and treatment center.

(2) Costs of supplies and equipment.

(3) Research grants for faculty research to discover the cause of, and a cure for, Alzheimer's disease.

(4) Research grants for students, residents, and fellows.

(5) General administrative costs of up to 8 percent of the total grant.

(d) The State Department of Health Services shall administer a grant program for the purpose of research to discover the cause of, and a cure for, Alzheimer's disease.

(e) The State Department of Health Services shall establish criteria for requests for Alzheimer's disease diagnostic and treatment center grants and Alzheimer's disease research grants, and for program evaluation.

(f) No grant awarded pursuant to this article shall be approved for any amount which exceeds 25 percent of the total amount of funds appropriated for this purpose in the 1983–84 Regular Session of the Legislature.

(g) The State Department of Health Services shall reduce any grant made pursuant to this article by the amount of any federal funds available for the same purposes to the same grantee.

(h) In January 1986, the State Department of Health Services shall submit a report to the Legislature regarding the progress of the grant programs established pursuant to this article. The report shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following elements:

(1) A description of the progress made in implementing the programs.

(2) The number of diagnostic and treatment centers established.

(3) The characteristics and numbers of persons served by the programs.

(4) The costs of the programs.

(5) An evaluation of the programs.

SEC. 2. The sum of four million dollars ($4,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services for grants to diagnostic and treatment centers and research for Alzheimer's disease, as specified in Section 1 of this act.

CHAPTER 1602

An act to amend Sections 8263, 8410, 8422, and 8423 of, to add Section 8212.5 to, and to repeal Section 8263.5 of, the Education Code, relating to child care and development, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

I am deleting the $7,641,000 appropriation contained in Section 8 of Assembly Bill No. 2514.

I support the provisions of this bill which are intended to clarify existing regulations and procedures with regard to child care programs. However, additional funding for child care programs has been addressed in AB 3138.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No. 2514.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8212.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

8212.5. (a) On or before January 1, 1985, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall designate a child care resource and referral program to serve the defined geographic area in Alameda County consisting of the Cities of Albany, Alameda, Berkeley, Emeryville, Oakland, and Piedmont.

(b) If the superintendent determines that more than one resource and referral program exists in the defined geographic area designated in subdivision (a), the superintendent shall issue a request for proposals to select a single program to serve that area. The criteria for the selection of the program shall be all of the following:

(1) Current and continuous satisfactory performance as a resource and referral agency providing the full range of services specified by Section 8212.

(2) Full fiscal and program compliance with contract requirements established by the State Department of Education.

(3) Cost effectiveness.

(4) Extent and quality of service to the community.

(c) The superintendent shall reallocate any funds made available through nonrenewal of a contract for resource and referral services for purposes of providing nonduplicative child development services in the manner he or she determines most appropriate.

(d) Satisfactory contract performance by a resource and referral program shall be a condition for the renewal of that contract in the subsequent fiscal year.

SEC. 2. Section 8263 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8263. (a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall adopt such rules and regulations on eligibility, enrollment, and priority of services as needed to implement this chapter. In order to be eligible for federal and state subsidized child development services, families shall meet at least one requirement in each of the following areas:

(1) A family shall be (A) a current aid recipient, (B) income eligible, or (C) one whose children are recipients of protective services, or whose children have been identified as being abused, neglected, or exploited, or at risk of being abused, neglected, or exploited.

(2) A family shall need the child care service because the child is identified by a legal, medical, or social service agency as being (A) a recipient of protective services, (B) being neglected, abused, or exploited, or at risk of neglect, abuse, or exploitation, or (C) having a medical or psychiatric special need which cannot be met without provision of child day care, or the parents are (i) engaged in vocational training leading directly to a recognized trade, paraprofession, or profession, (ii) employed or seeking employment, or (iii) incapacitated, including a medical or psychiatric special need which cannot be met without provision of child day care.

(b) Priority for state and federally subsidized child development services shall be as follows:

(1) First priority shall be given to recipients of child protective services for children who are neglected or abused, or at risk of being neglected or abused, upon written referral from a legal, medical, or social service agency. When an agency is unable to enroll a child in the first priority category, the agency shall refer the family to local resource and referral services to locate services for the child.

(2) Second priority shall be equally given to eligible families, regardless of the number of parents in the home, who are income eligible. Within this priority, families with the lowest gross monthly income shall be admitted first. For purposes of determining order of admission, the grants of public assistance recipients shall be counted as income.

(3) The superintendent shall set criteria for and may grant specific waivers of the priorities established in this subdivision for agencies which wish to serve specific populations, such as handicapped children or children of prisoners. These new waivers shall not include proposals to avoid appropriate fee schedules or admit ineligible families, but may include proposals to accept members of special populations in other than strict income order, as long as appropriate fees are paid.

(c) A physical examination and evaluation, including age-appropriate immunization, shall be required prior to, or within six weeks of, enrollment. No standard, rule, or regulation shall require medical examination or immunization for admission to a child care and development program of a child whose parent or guardian files a letter with the governing board of the child care and development program stating that the medical examination or immunization is contrary to his or her religious beliefs, or provide for the exclusion of a child from the program because of a parent or guardian having filed the letter. However, whenever there is good cause to believe that a child is suffering from a recognized contagious or infectious disease, the child shall be temporarily excluded from the program until the governing board of the child care and development program is satisfied that any contagious or infectious disease does not exist.

(d) Regulations formulated and promulgated pursuant to this section shall include the recommendations of the State Department of Health Services relative to health care screening and the provision of health care services. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall seek the advice and assistance of these health authorities in situations where service under this chapter includes or requires care of ill or disabled children.

(e) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish a fee schedule for families utilizing child care and development services pursuant to this chapter.

(f) The superintendent shall establish a separate fee schedule for collecting child care fees from recipients of benefits under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program who have outside income. The fee schedule shall be based upon the amount of income required to be disregarded due to expenditures for child care pursuant to Section 602 (8) (A) (iii) of Title 42 of the United States Code. In establishing the fee schedule, the superintendent shall take into consideration the income of the recipient remaining after an amount equal to federal and state income taxes and work related expenses disregarded pursuant to federal AFDC regulations has been deducted. In no event shall the fee established exceed any of the following:

(1) The maximum amount of income per child permitted to be disregarded pursuant to Section 602 (8) (A) (iii) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(2) The actual cost of child care.

Prior to the implementation of the fee schedule, the superintendent shall conduct a public hearing regarding the fee schedule. The fee schedule shall not be implemented if the superintendent determines that charging and collecting the fee would result in a significant loss in spendable income to the family.

(g) The child care and development agency collecting the fees established pursuant to subdivision (f) shall be entitled to keep an amount not to exceed 50 percent of the amount collected for purposes of serving additional eligible children. The balance of the amount collected shall be remitted to the State Department of Education for expenditure for the following purposes:

(1) To reimburse the State Department of Social Services and county welfare departments for any increase in costs of the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program caused by implementation of this section.

(2) Any balance remaining shall be disbursed pursuant to Section 15053 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

(h) The superintendent shall establish guidelines for the collection of employer sponsored child care benefit payments from any parent whose child receives subsidized child care and development services. These guidelines shall provide for the collection of the full amount of the benefit payment, but not to exceed the actual cost of child care and development services provided, notwithstanding the applicable fee based on the fee schedule.

(i) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish guidelines according to which the director or a duly authorized representative of the child care and development program will certify children as eligible for state reimbursement pursuant to this section.

(j) No public funds shall be paid directly or indirectly to any agency which does not pay at least the minimum wage to each of its employees.

SEC. 3. Section 8263.5 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 8410 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8410. This article shall become inoperative on June 30, 1986, and as of January 1, 1987, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1987,, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 8422 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8422. The purpose of the child care and employment fund shall be to provide child care services for the children of participants in the service delivery area's job training and placement programs established pursuant to the federal Job Training Partnership Act (P.L. 97-300).

To the extent that funding is available, children referred by private industry councils shall be provided the child care necessary to permit their parents to participate in program activities under the federal Job Training Partnership Act, notwithstanding the eligibility and need criteria established by subdivision (a) of Section 8263, or the admission priorities established by subdivision (b) of Section

SEC. 6. Section 8423 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8423. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that any program expansion which results from the enactment of this article shall be continued only to the extent that funds are made available from the sources identified in subdivision (b).

(b) Funding for each local service delivery area's child care and employment fund shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Social services funds appropriated to the State Department of Social Services for that purpose. These funds shall be available to the extent that they are (A) designated by the Legislature for child care, and (B) transferred to the State Department of Education pursuant to an interagency agreement for distribution to each local child care and employment fund using the formula established pursuant to Section 15053 of the Unemployment Insurance Code. These funds shall be available effective the date that the child care and employment fund is established.

(2) Funds designated for child care by the private industry council, established pursuant to Section 15030 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, but not less than 50 percent of the cost of care for every recipient of job training or placement services funded using the area's federal Job Training Partnership Act (P.L. 97-300) appropriation, whose job readiness assessment includes the need for child care. Funds expended during the 1983–84 fiscal year may be used to match funds provided in the 1984–85 fiscal year pursuant to paragraph (1). The private industry council may refer, for information, all participants who need or use child care to the agency administering the child care and employment fund. The private industry council shall provide funds only for those participants whose child care needs are not met by other community resources and whose child care needs can be met within the council's annual budget. The private industry council and the child care and employment fund agency shall negotiate the local contract for child care. In negotiating the terms of the contract, the private industry council and the child care and employment fund agency shall consider relevant factors which shall include, but not be limited to, the number of parents to be served and the cost of care available in the local child care market.

(3) Funds designated pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of Section 8263 for, and disbursed to local child care and employment funds pursuant to Section 15053 of the Unemployment Insurance Code by, the State Department of Education.

SEC. 6.5. From funds appropriated to the Department of Social Services pursuant to paragraph (2) of category (c) of Item 5180-151-866 of the Budget Act of 1984, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may, subject to the approval of the Department of Finance, receive reimbursement for administrative and program development costs of implementing Article 19 (commencing with Section 8420) of Chapter 2 of Part 6 of, and subdivision (f) of Section 8263 of, the Education Code.

SEC. 7. Notwithstanding Section 81178 of the Education Code, the governing board of the Palo Verde Community College District may use facilities known as the Palo Verde College Child Development Center located at 150 South Main Street, Blythe, California, for a period of two years after the effective date of this act. During the period of use authorized by this section, the building and related facilities shall not be subject to Article 7 (commencing with Section 81130) or Article 8 (commencing with Section 81160) of Chapter 1 of Part 49 of the Education Code.

SEC. 8. (a) The sum of seven million six hundred forty-one thousand dollars ($7,641,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Education in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) Nine hundred thirty-three thousand dollars ($933,000) for allocation to, and in augmentation of, project (p) of Item 6100-226-001 of the Budget Act of 1984.

(2) Six million seven hundred eight thousand dollars ($6,708,000) for allocation to, and in augmentation of, project (q) of Item 6100-226-001 of the Budget Act of 1984.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature in making this appropriation to restore funding for preschool education and child care services to the level contained in the Budget Act of 1984 prior to the Governor's reduction of those amounts.

SEC. 9. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to permit the changes made by this act in the funding formula for each local service delivery area's child care and development fund to take effect in time to stimulate a positive response from private industry councils before allocations for child care are made for the 1984–85 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to add Section 8264.5 to the Education Code, relating to child care and development, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

I am reducing the appropriation contained in Section 5 of Assembly Bill No. 3138 from $4 million to $1.5 million by deleting the appropriations which provide for program expansion contained in Schedules (b), (c), and (d). I have approved the $1.5 million to insure that all counties of this state have the services of child care resources and referral agencies.

I have also reduced the appropriation contained in Section 6 from $7,641,000 to $2 6 million. This will provide a 1 percent cost of living adjustment which is sufficient to keep these programs in line with the economy as measured by the Consumer Price Index.

With these reductions and deletions, I approve Assembly Bill No. 3138.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature that:

(c) Reasonable modification or waivers of child development regulations be permitted in areas of low population to enable service availability though the combination of various program types.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide funding to expand the child care resource and referral programs to unserved and underserved counties. Where appropriate, the same resource and referral program may serve adjacent counties. SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 8278 of the Education Code, the

Of this sum, thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) shall be allocated for training and technical assistance. The State Department of Education shall select a nonprofit organization to provide these services. The organization selected shall have demonstrated experience and expertise in the provision of training and technical assistance to new and existing resource and referral programs.

(b) One million dollars ($1,000,000) for the expansion of child development programs in rural areas currently unserved or underserved.

(d) Four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) for the renovation and repair of child development facilities to ensure compliance with state and local health and safety standards.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall adopt regulations for the allocation of funds provided pursuant to this subdivision in order to benefit children most needing child care and development programs. SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

CHAPTER 1604

An act to amend Sections 8208, 8250, 8265, and 8265.5 of, and to add Section 8262.5 to, the Education Code, relating to child care and development programs, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

Senate Bill No 1674 contains provisions which would maintain the integrity of existing child care programs, therefore, I am signing this bill. However, I am reducing the appropriation in this bill from the $23.9 million to $4.4 million. I am reducing the appropriation for the purpose of increasing reimbursement levels of underfunded child care and development services, which includes preschools, from $5 million to $3 million. I feel this amount will provide the necessary funds to maintain existing programs.

I am also reducing the appropriation for the purpose of child care expansion from $15 million to $1 million which I intend to be used for respite child care pursuant to Education Code 8252.

I am eliminating the $1 5 million for increasing reimbursement levels of State preschool programs, since these programs are not precluded from the availability of the appropriation which has been retained for that purpose.

I am also eliminating the $2 million appropriation for allocation to the Office of Child Development for administration of existing child care and development services, as this bill provides administrative costs associated with the provisions contained in the bill

I am also approving the $400,000 appropriation for expansion for services to children with exceptional needs.

The problem of funding child care is a problem of growing concern in California The issues surrounding the problems of general child care are complex and interdependent. Child care services must be viewed in terms of their affordability, availability, accessibility, quality, and cost effectiveness. However, the child care needs in California have not been thoroughly evaluated and alternatives to existing programs have not been fully identified, therefore, I have established a child care task force to explore this issue and to make recommendations by March 31, 1985. In that way, we can ensure that realistic answers to the child care problem in California can be found.

With these reductions and deletions, I approve Senate Bill No 1674.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature that:

(a) Parents who are working or continuing their education or training have access to child care and development services throughout California.

These programs shall be started as expansion funds become available and shall be expanded throughout the implementation of the plan. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall utilize existing program models and input from program specialists to develop new program criteria and guidelines for programs serving children with exceptional needs.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, child care and development programs established pursuant to this section may have reimbursement rates above the standard reimbursement rate, and may serve children with exceptional needs from birth to 21 years of age. (d) A facility granted a certificate of operation shall submit a completed license application to the State Department of Social Services within 60 days of the issuance of the certificate of operation. 8265. (a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall implement a plan which establishes reasonable standards and assigned reimbursement rates, which vary with the length of the program year and the hours of service.

Actual reimbursement shall not, in any case, exceed actual program costs, and parent fees shall be deducted from the assigned reimbursement rate or actual costs, whichever is less.

When establishing standards and assigned reimbursement rates, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall confer with applicant agencies.

The reimbursement system, including standards and rates, shall be submitted to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction may establish any regulations he or she deems advisable concerning conditions of service and hours of enrollment for children in the programs.

(b) The standard reimbursement rate shall be three thousand five hundred twenty-three dollars ($3,523) per unit of average daily enrollment for a 250-day year, increased by the cost-of-living adjustment granted by the Legislature beginning July 1, 1980.

(c) The plan shall require agencies having an assigned reimbursement rate above the current year standard reimbursement rate to reduce costs on an incremental basis to achieve the standard reimbursement rate.

(d) The plan shall provide for adjusting reimbursement on a case-by-case basis, in order to maintain service levels for agencies currently reimbursed at a rate less than the standard reimbursement rate. Assigned reimbursement rates shall be increased only on the basis of one or more of the following:

(1) Loss of program resources from other sources.

(2) Need of an agency to pay the same child care rates as those prevailing in the local community.

(3) Increased costs directly attributable to new or different regulations.

(4) Documented increased costs necessary to maintain the prior year's level of service and ensure the continuation of threatened programs.

Child care agencies funded at the lowest rates shall be given first priority for increases.

(e) The plan shall provide for expansion of child development programs at no more than the standard reimbursement rate for that fiscal year.

(f) The Superintendent of Public Instruction may reduce the percentage of reduction for any public agency:

(1) Which is currently serving more than 400 children; or

(2) Which has in effect a collective bargaining agreement; or

(3) For which other extenuating circumstances apply as determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

SEC. 6. Section 8265.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8265.5. In order to reflect the additional expense of serving children with special needs, the provider agency's reported child days of enrollment for these children shall be multiplied by the adjustment factors listed below.

These adjustment factors shall apply only to those programs whose assigned reimbursement rates are at or below the standard reimbursement rate.

(a) For infants 0 to 2 years, 9 months, the adjustment factor shall be 1.4.

(b) For children with exceptional needs age 0 to 21, the adjustment factor shall be 1.2.

(c) For severely handicapped children age 0 to 21, the adjustment factor shall be 1.5.

(d) For a child at risk of neglect, abuse, or exploitation age 0 to 14, the adjustment factor shall be 1.1.

(e) For limited-English speaking and non-English-speaking children age 2 through kindergarten, the adjustment factor shall be 1.1.

Use of these adjustment factors shall not increase the provider agency's total annual allocation.

Days of enrollment for children having more than one special need shall not be reported under more than one of the above categories.

Reimbursement resulting from the use of the above adjustment factors shall be used for special and appropriate services for each child.

SEC. 7. (a) The sum of twenty-three million nine hundred thousand dollars ($23,900,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for allocation in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) For the purpose of increasing the reimbursement levels of underfunded child care and development services	$ 5,000,000

(3) For the purpose of increasing reimbursement levels of state preschool programs in order to reduce the difference between funding levels in those programs and funding levels in comparable federal programs	$ 1,500,000
(4) For the purpose of expanding services to children with exceptional needs pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8250 of the Education Code	$ 400,000
(5) For allocation to the Office of Child Development for the administration of existing child care and development services	$ 2,000,000

(b) Three percent of the amounts appropriated in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4) of subdivision (a) shall be allocated to the Office of Child Development for the administration of the expanded services.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to permit this act to become operative as early as possible in the 1984–85 fiscal year, and so facilitate the orderly administration of child development programs, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1605

An act to amend Sections 242 and 4600.2 of, and to add a heading to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4700) of, and to add Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4720) to, Title 5 of Part 5 of Division 4 of, the Civil Code, and to add Section 11488 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to child support.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 242 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

242. Every individual shall support his or her spouse and child, and shall support his or her parent when in need. The duty imposed by this section shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4720) of Title 5 of Part 5 of Division 4 and Sections 196, 206, 246, 4700, 4700.1, 4700.5, 4700.7, 4700.9, 4801, 5131, and 5132.

SEC. 2. Section 4600.2 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4600.2. Any order awarding custody to a parent who is receiving, or in the opinion of the court is likely to receive, assistance pursuant to the Burton-Miller Act (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code) for the maintenance of the child shall include an order pursuant to Section 4700 or 4702, and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4720) of Title 5 of Part 5 of Division 4, directing the noncustodial parent to pay any amount necessary for the support of the child, to the extent of the noncustodial parent's ability to pay.

SEC. 3. A chapter heading is added immediately preceding Section 4700 of the Civil Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL

SEC. 4. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4720) is added to Title 5 of Part 5 of Division 4 of the Civil Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2. THE AGNOS CHILD SUPPORT STANDARDS ACT OF 1984

4720. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(a) The State of California has no single standard to promote equitable, adequate child support awards.

(b) The current method of setting child support awards has led to substantial variation in these awards among families with similiar circumstances and resources.

(c) In situations where a parent fails to meet his or her child support obligations, or where the award levels are inadequate, the state may ultimately be required to bear the financial responsibility for the child.

(d) The Aid to Families with Dependent Children program (hereinafter referred to as AFDC) established by the Burton-Miller Act (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code) is the state program most likely to be affected by the failures and inadequacies of child support awards, and is the program by which the cost of maintaining those children adversely affected by these failures and inadequacies would otherwise be provided. Furthermore, the minimum amounts necessary for the support, maintenance, and care of children have been established by the Legislature in the monthly needs standards set forth in the AFDC program. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature that a system of standards and procedures shall be established which provide for a uniform determination of child support awards throughout the state, and which assures that, dependent upon the financial ability of each parent to do so, no child receives a support award less than would otherwise be established as the need for that child under the AFDC program.

The level of child support resulting from the application of the formula established by this chapter shall be treated as the minimum award for support. It is the intention of the Legislature that the court shall use the guidelines in use in its county to establish the child support award. However, in no event shall the court award less than the mandatory minimum child support allowable pursuant to this chapter. In setting an award higher than the mandatory minimum, the court shall be guided by the criteria set forth in applicable statutes, relevant case law, and state and local guidelines, so long as they are not in conflict with the provisions of this chapter.

(e) It is the intention of the Legislature that the courts shall adhere to the principles set forth in this chapter and shall depart from them only in exceptional circumstances. A parent's first and principal obligation is to support his or her minor children according to the parent's circumstances and station in life. In this regard, the Legislature recognizes that a parent's circumstances and station in life are dependent upon a variety of factors, including his or her earned and unearned income; earning capacity; assets; and the income of his or her subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner, to the extent that the obligated parent's basic living expenses are met by the spouse or other person, thus increasing the parent's disposable income and therefore his or her ability to pay more than the mandatory minimum child support award established by this chapter. The court shall take into consideration the needs of the supported child or children in determining whether circumstances give rise to an increase or decrease in a child support award.

4721. In determining the ability of parents to pay the mandatory minimum child support award and to calculate the actual monthly payments to be made by each parent, all of the following provisions apply:

(a) The annual gross income of each parent shall be determined and then adjusted to obtain the annual net disposable income. To determine and apportion the mandatory minimum child support award, as defined in Section 4722, the court shall also consider, to the extent consistent with the best interests of the child or children, the earning capacity of either or both parents. The annual gross income means income from whatever source derived, except as specified in subdivision (b), and includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Income such as commissions, salaries, royalties, wages, bonuses, rents, dividends, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, and spousal support actually received from a person not a party to the order.

(2) Income from the proprietorship of a business, such as gross receipts from the business reduced by expenditures required for the operation of the business.

(3) To the extent that income derived from paragraphs (1) and (2) is insufficient to produce a mandatory minimum child support award at the AFDC standard for the same number of children, upon the request of either party, the court may consider investment assets of either or both parties which could be liquidated. To determine and apportion the mandatory minimum child support award at the AFDC level, the court shall also consider, to the extent consistent with the best interests of all of the children, the earning capacity of either or both parents.

(b) Annual gross income shall not include any income derived from child support payments actually received and income derived from any public assistance program, eligibility for which is based on a determination of need.

(c) The annual net disposable income of each parent shall be computed by deducting from his or her annual gross income the actual amounts attributable only to the following items, after which the remainder shall be adjusted to reflect the monthly net disposable income of each parent:

(1) The state and federal income taxes attributed to the parent. Federal and state income tax deductions shall bear an accurate relationship to the tax status of the parties (that is, single, married, married filing separately, or head of household) and number of dependents.

(2) Deductions attributed to the employee's contribution or the self-employed worker's contribution pursuant to the Federal

Insurance Contributions Act (FICA), or an amount not to exceed that allowed under FICA for persons not subject to FICA, provided that the deducted amount is used to secure retirement or disability benefits for the parent.

(3) Deductions for mandatory union dues and retirement benefits, provided that they are required as a condition of employment.

(4) Deductions for health insurance premiums.

(5) Any child or spousal support actually being paid by the parent pursuant to a court order, to or for the benefit of any person who is not a subject of the award to be established by the court.

(d) For the purposes of verifying total gross income and amounts allowed for deductions, copies of the parents' state income tax returns for the previous two years, copies of present wage stubs, and any other relevant documents shall be subject to discovery by the parties. Further, the court may require copies of the parents' tax returns for the previous two years, copies of present wage stubs, and such other documentation as it may deem necessary, including a current income and expense declaration in the form prescribed by the Judicial Council for family law matters.

(e) For the purpose of determining the parent's annual gross income, in calculating the mandatory minimum child support award, the court shall not include any portion of the earned income and income derived from the separate property of the current spouse or the nonmarital partner of either parent. This requirement does not apply to a child support obligation arising from the marriage between the obligated parents.

(f) The court shall inquire of each party as to the total number of minor children he or she is legally obligated to support.

4722. (a) The standard established pursuant to Section 11452 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as adjusted by Section 11453 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, establishes a minimum family support level based on the number of eligible needy persons in the family.

(b) Each parent's ability to pay a minimum mandatory amount of child support shall be determined in accord with the standards established by Section 11452 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as follows:

(1) The combined monthly net disposable income of both parents shall be multiplied by the following percentage factors: 18 percent for one child; 27 percent for two children; 36 percent for three children; 40 percent for four children; and an additional four percent for each child thereafter, up to a total of 10 children.

(2) If the resulting amount is less than the AFDC standard for the number of children involved, the court shall find that the parents are unable to pay at the level of the children's portion of the AFDC standard and shall set a minimum award according to the actual combined net income and the percentages set forth above.

(3) If the resulting amount is at, or greater than, the AFDC standard for the same number of children, the court shall order a minimum award that equals the AFDC standard.

(c) The AFDC standard for the number of children to be supported shall be the minimum basic standard of adequate care specified in Section 11452 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as in effect July 21, 1983, annually adjusted pursuant to Section 11453 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, for the number of children to be supported.

(d) The amount each parent shall contribute to the mandatory minimum award shall be determined by multiplying the minimum award by the proportionate share of each parent's contribution to their combined net disposable income.

(e) If more than 10 minor children are to be supported, the minimum award shall be the same as for 10 children.

(f) The award set pursuant to this chapter is the mandatory minimum child support award.

(g) The formula established by this section is represented algebraically as follows:

WHERE:

MB = Minimum base

$$P = \text{percent} = \frac{NCN}{NCN+CN}$$

NCN = noncustodial spouse net income

CN = custodial spouse net income

F = factor (.18 for one child, .27 for two, .36 for three, and .04 for each additional child over three children)

S = the AFDC needs standard for the appropriate number of children to be supported by this order

Y = yield

Then calculation of the minimum support is as follows:

Step 1: $F \times (CN+NCN) = Y$

Step 2: If $Y \geq S$, $MB = S$

If $Y < S$, $MB = Y$

Step 3: $MB \times P$ = portion of award to be paid by noncustodial spouse.

(h) The formula delineated in this section shall be used only for calculations made under this section for the establishment of a minimum level of child support. Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the duty or ability of any public agency pursuant to any other provision of law to secure or bring suit for reimbursement of AFDC public assistance paid to a family unit, eligible therefor under the applicable provisions of law, in an amount not to exceed the total amount of aid actually paid.

4723. The mandatory minimum child support award established pursuant to this chapter is intended to assure adequate basic living expenses, including food, shelter, and clothing, for the supported children. The court shall not assume that any other costs related to the rearing of children are provided within the mandatory minimum award. Child care expenses, special educational expenses, expenses for special medical, dental, or mental health needs, and expenses related to any other special needs of the children are not provided for in the mandatory minimum child support award. These expenses shall be considered by the court in making a supplemental award.

4724. Upon the request of either party, the court may award and, when appropriate, is hereby urged to award a higher amount of child support than the mandatory minimum child support award.

(a) In setting a higher level of child support, the court shall be guided by the criteria set forth in applicable statutes, relevant case law, state and local child support guidelines not in conflict with the mandatory minimum award established by this chapter, and the legislative intent that children share in their parents' standard of living as set forth in this chapter.

(b) The Judicial Council shall, in accord with the legislative intent set forth in subdivision (e) of Section 4720, develop schedules for discretionary child support awards above the mandatory minimum child support awards as determined pursuant to this chapter for use by those counties without child support schedules. The Judicial Council shall provide these schedules to the counties by July 1, 1986.

(c) The courts shall review the guidelines in use in their counties prior to the implementation of this chapter to assure they do not authorize awards less than the mandatory minimum award.

(d) In setting a level of child support below the applicable level in the discretionary guideline in use in a county the court shall state its reasons on the record, citing the documentation of any underlying facts and circumstances for the award.

4725. In the event that a parent is experiencing extreme financial hardship due to justifiable expenses resulting from the circumstances enumerated in this section, upon the request of a party, the court may allow such income deductions as may be necessary to accommodate those circumstances, in addition to the deductions specified in subdivision (c) of Section 4721.

(a) Circumstances evidencing hardship include the extraordinary health expenses for which the parent is financially responsible, and uninsured catastrophic losses.

(b) Circumstances evidencing hardship also include the minimum basic living expenses of either parent's dependent minor children from other marriages or relationships. The court, upon its own motion or upon the request of a party, may allow such income deductions as are necessary to accommodate these expenses.

(c) If deductions for hardship expenses are allowed, the court shall state on the record the reasons supporting the deductions, cite the documentation of the underlying facts and circumstances, and specify the amount of deductions allowed. Whenever possible, the court shall specify the duration that any deduction shall be in effect.

(d) Upon considering whether to allow a deduction under this section, and in determining the amount of any such deduction, the court shall be guided by the goals set forth in the expression of legislative intent set forth in this chapter.

(e) The court shall not order a child support award that would reduce a parent's net income to an amount less than that established for the needs of one person by Section 11452 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as annually adjusted by Section 11453 of that code.

4726. Notwithstanding Section 11491 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, health insurance coverage for the supported children shall be maintained by either or both parents if that insurance is available at no cost or at nominal cost to the parent or parents. This provision shall apply in all cases, irrespective of whether the award made is based on the mandatory minimum schedule or a higher amount based on a state or county schedule. Any parent so responsible shall complete a form specifying his or her insurance coverage, which shall be forwarded to the State Department of Health Services in accord with Section 11490 to 11492.1, inclusive, of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

4728. (a) The provisions of this act shall not be construed to impair the right of parties to enter stipulated agreements, except that the court shall not approve a stipulated agreement for a child support award unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The parties acknowledge that they are fully informed of their rights pursuant this chapter and that the award is being agreed to without coercion or duress.

(2) The parties declare that their children's needs will be adequately met.

(3) The right to support has not been assigned to the county pursuant to Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and no public assistance application is pending.

(b) If the parties to a stipulated agreement stipulate to a child support award below the mandatory minimum level, no change of circumstance need be demonstrated to obtain a modification of the child support award to the applicable mandatory minimum level or above.

4729. This chapter applies to all applications for modification of existing child support orders, and shall be operative on July 1, 1985. The Judicial Council shall publish informational material describing this chapter and its implementation and shall revise the appropriate forms prescribed for family law matters. The Judicial Council shall make such procedural changes as necessary to ensure all parties to an action for child support, whether a petition or a modification, stipulated or otherwise, have notice and understanding of the provisions of this chapter. The informational materials shall be prepared and published by the Judicial Council by July 1, 1985. In the event it is necessary for the court to establish priorities among applicants seeking to modify existing orders because of the unduly heavy workload imposed by these applications, the court shall assign the highest priority to the orders entered longest ago.

4730. This chapter constitutes a change in circumstances for the purpose of allowing the modification of child support orders entered prior to July 1, 1985.

4731. This chapter applies to any award for the support of children, including those awards designated as "family support" which contain provisions for the support of children as well as for the support of the spouse.

4732. This chapter shall not be construed so as to affect the treatment of spousal support and separate maintenance payments pursuant to Section 71 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C.A. Sec. 71).

SEC. 5. Section 11488 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11488. In enforcing the provisions of this chapter, the district attorney shall inquire of both the custodial and noncustodial parent as to the number of minor children each is legally obligated to support. The district attorney shall consider the needs of all of these children in computing the level of support requested to be ordered by the court.

SEC. 6. The Judicial Council shall develop and promulgate forms and tables necessary to implement the provisions of this act, together with instructions for their usage, for the use of the courts, by July 1, 1985. The instructions for use shall include directions for the completion of the form required by Section 4726 of the Civil Code. The informational materials required by Section 4729 of the Civil Code shall be prepared and published by July 1, 1985.

SEC. 7. Sections 1, 2, 3, and 4 of this act shall be operative July 1, 1985.

SEC. 8. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 9. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

SEC. 10. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

CHAPTER 1606

An act to add Section 273 the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 14133.8 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that bone marrow transplant procedures are efficacious treatment regimens for some forms of cancer. It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure that bone marrow transplants are available to recipients of the California Children's Services program and the Medi-Cal program.

SEC. 2. Section 273 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

273. (a) A bone marrow transplant for the treatment of cancer shall be reimbursable under this article, when all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The bone marrow transplant is recommended by the recipient's attending physician.

(2) The bone marrow transplant is performed in a hospital that is approved for participation in the California Children's Services program.

(3) The bone marrow transplant is a reasonable course of treatment and is approved by the appropriate hospital medical policy committee.

(4) The bone marrow transplant has been deemed appropriate for the recipient by the program's medical consultant. The medical consultant shall not disapprove the bone marrow transplant solely on the basis that it is classified as experimental or investigational.

(b) The program shall provide reimbursement for both donor and recipient surgery.

(c) Any county which has a population of not more than 600,000, as determined by the most recent decennial census conducted by the United States Bureau of the Census, shall be exempt from complying with the 25-percent matching requirement provided for under this article, for any bone marrow transplant reimbursable under this section.

SEC. 3. Section 14133.8 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14133.8. (a) A bone marrow transplant for the treatment of cancer for beneficiaries under the age of 21, shall be reimbursable under this chapter, when all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The bone marrow transplant is recommended by the recipient's attending physician.

(2) The bone marrow transplant is performed in a hospital that is approved for participation in the Medi-Cal program.

(3) The bone marrow transplant is a reasonable course of treatment and is approved by the appropriate hospital medical policy committee.

(4) The bone marrow transplant has been deemed appropriate for the recipient by the program's medical consultant. The medical consultant shall not disapprove the bone marrow transplant solely on the basis that it is classified as experimental or investigational.

(5) Full federal financial participation is available for reimbursement for the performance of the bone marrow transplant.

(b) The program shall provide reimbursement for both donor and recipient surgery.

(c) The department may establish inpatient rates of reimbursement not in accordance with the state plan for those hospitals not under contract with the state pursuant to Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 14081), provided that the state plan is subsequently amended to reflect the method of reimbursement.

(d) This section shall not be construed as prohibiting reimbursement for any bone marrow transplants provided under this chapter.

An act to add Chapter 1.2 (commencing with Section 628) to Title 15 of Part 1 of the Penal Code, relating to school crimes, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.2 (commencing with Section 628) is added to Title 15 of Part 1 of the Penal Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.2. REPORTING OF SCHOOL CRIME

628. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to ensure that schools, school districts, local government, and the Legislature have sufficient data and information about the type and frequency of crime occurring on school campuses to permit development of effective programs and techniques to combat crime on school campuses.

628.1. By June 30, 1985, the State Department of Education, in consultation with the Department of Justice and a representative selection of school districts which currently compile school crime statistics, shall develop a standard school crime reporting form for use by all school districts throughout the state. No individual shall be identified by name or in any other manner on this reporting form. The form shall define what constitutes the criminal activity required to be reported and shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) Description of the crime.

(b) Victim characteristics.

(c) Offender characteristics, if known .

(d) Total students enrolled at the school reporting the crime on November 15 for the first reporting period and April 15 for the second reporting period.

628.2. On forms prepared and supplied by the State Department of Education, each school in a school district shall forward a completed report of crimes committed on school grounds at the end of each reporting period to the district superintendent.

The district superintendent shall compile the school data and submit the aggregated data to the State Department of Education not later than February 1 for the reporting period of July 1 through December 31, and not later than August 1 for the reporting period January 1 through June 30.

The State Department of Education shall distribute, upon request, to each office of the county superintendent of schools and each county probation department, a summary of that county's district reports and the summary of statewide aggregated data. This information shall be supplied not later than January 1 of each year for the previous school year. The department shall also submit to the Legislature a summary of the statewide aggregated data not later than January 1 of each year for the previous school year. In addition, commencing with the second annual report, the department shall also evaluate school district crime prevention programs by comparing the numbers and rates of crimes and the resulting economic losses for each year against those of previous years.

All school district, county, and statewide reports prepared under this chapter shall be deemed public documents and shall be made available to the public at a price not to exceed the actual cost of duplication.

SEC. 2. The sum of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Education for the cost of developing the standard form pursuant to Section 628.1 of the Penal Code, and for carrying out the necessary consultation and training of local school district staff to ensure the accurate and timely gathering of school crime statistics.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act for the purpose of making reimbursement pursuant to these sections. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2201) of Part 4 of Division 1 of that code.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

CHAPTER 1608

An act to amend Section 232 of the Civil Code, to amend Sections 319, 360, 361, 366, 366.25, 11400, 11401, and 11404.1 of, and to add Section 319.1 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to children, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 232 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

232. (a) An action may be brought for the purpose of having any child under the age of 18 years declared free from the custody and control of either or both of his or her parents when the child comes within any of the following descriptions:

(1) The child has been left without provision for the child's identification by his or her parent or parents or by others or has been left by both of his or her parents or his or her sole parent in the care and custody of another for a period of six months or by one parent in the care and custody of the other parent for a period of one year without any provision for the child's support, or without communication from the parent or parents, with the intent on the part of the parent or parents to abandon the child. The failure to provide identification, failure to provide support, or failure to communicate shall be presumptive evidence of the intent to abandon. If the parent or parents have made only token efforts to support or communicate with the child, the court may declare the child abandoned by the parent or parents. In those cases in which the child has been left without provision for the child's identification and the whereabouts of the parents are unknown, a petition may be filed after the 120th day following the discovery of the child and citation by publication may be commenced. The petition may not be heard until after the 180th day following the discovery of the child.

(2) Who has been neglected or cruelly treated by either or both parents, if the child has been a dependent child of the juvenile court under any subdivision of Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and the parent or parents have been deprived of the child's custody for one year prior to the filing of a petition pursuant to this section. Physical custody by the parent or parents for insubstantial periods of time shall not serve to interrupt the running of the one year period.

(3) Whose parent or parents suffer a disability because of the habitual use of alcohol, or any of the controlled substances specified in Schedules I to V, inclusive, of Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code, except when these controlled substances are used as part of a medically prescribed plan, or are morally depraved, if the child has been a dependent child of the juvenile court, and the parent or parents have been deprived of the child's custody continuously for one year immediately prior to the filing of a petition pursuant to this section. As used in this subdivision, "disability" means any physical or mental incapacity which renders the parent or parents unable to adequately care for and control the child. Physical custody by the parent or parents for insubstantial periods of time shall not interrupt the running of the one year period.

(4) Whose parent or parents are convicted of a felony, if the facts of the crime of which the parent or parents were convicted are of a nature so as to prove the unfitness of the parent or parents to have the future custody and control of the child.

(5) Whose parent or parents have been declared by a court of competent jurisdiction wherever situated to be developmentally disabled or mentally ill, if, in the state or country in which the parent or parents reside or are hospitalized, the Director of Mental Health or the Director of Developmental Services, or their equivalent, if any, and the superintendent of the hospital of which, if any, the parent or parents are inmates or patients certify that the parent or parents so declared to be developmentally disabled or mentally ill will not be capable of supporting or controlling the child in a proper manner.

(6) Whose parent or parents are mentally disabled and are likely to remain so in the foreseeable future. As used in this subdivision "mentally disabled" means that a parent or parents suffer any mental incapacity or disorder which renders the parent or parents unable to adequately care for and control the child. The evidence of any two experts, each of whom shall be either a physician and surgeon, certified either by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology or under Section 6750 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or a licensed psychologist who has a doctoral degree in psychology and at least five years of postgraduate experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders, shall be required to support a finding under this subdivision. If, however, the parent or parents reside in another state or in a foreign country, the evidence required by this subdivision may be supplied by the affidavits of two experts each of whom shall be either a physician and surgeon who is a resident of that state or foreign country, and who has been certified by a medical organization or society of that state or foreign country to practice psychiatric or neurological medicine, or by a licensed psychologist who has a doctoral degree in psychology and at least five years of postgraduate experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders and who is licensed in that state or authorized to practice in that country. If the rights of any parent are sought to be terminated pursuant to this subdivision, and the parent has no attorney, the court shall appoint an attorney for the parent pursuant to Section 237.5 whether or not a request for the appointment is made by the parent.

(7) Who has been in out-of-home placement under the supervision of the juvenile court, the county welfare department, or other public or private licensed child-placing agency for a one-year period, if the court finds that return of the child to the child's parent or parents would be detrimental to the child and that the parent or parents have failed during that period, and are likely to fail in the future, to maintain an adequate parental relationship with the child, which includes providing both a home and care and control for the child.

If the minor has been adjudged a dependent child of the juvenile court and placed in out-of-home placement pursuant to Section 361 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the one-year period shall be calculated from the date of the dispositional hearing at which the child was placed in out-of-home placement pursuant to that section. If the minor is in placement under the supervision of a county welfare department or other public or private licensed child-placing agency, pursuant to a voluntary placement, as described in Section 16507.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the one-year period shall be calculated from the date the minor entered out-of-home placement.

The court shall make a determination that reasonable services have been provided or offered to the parents which were designed to aid the parents to overcome the problems which led to the deprivation or continued loss of custody and that despite the availability of these services, return of the child to the parents would be detrimental to the child. The probation officer or social worker currently assigned to the case of the child shall appear at the termination proceedings.

If the minor has been adjudged to be a dependent child of the court pursuant to Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the court shall review and consider the contents of the juvenile court file in determining if the services offered were reasonable under the circumstances.

Trial placement of the child in the physical custody of the parent or visitation of the child with the parent during the one-year period, when the trial placement or visitation does not result in permanent placement of the child with the parent, shall not serve to interrupt the running of the one-year period.

(b) At all termination proceedings, the court shall consider the wishes of the child and shall act in the best interests of the child.

(c) A finding pursuant to this section shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

(d) Section 5158 shall not apply to proceedings pursuant to this section.

SEC. 2. Section 319 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

319. At the initial petition hearing the court shall examine the minor, the minor's parents, guardians, or other persons having relevant knowledge and hear the relevant evidence as the minor, the minor's parents or guardians or their counsel desires to present.

The probation officer shall report to the court on the reasons why the minor has been removed from the parent's custody, the need, if any, for continued detention, and on the available services and the referral methods to be used which would facilitate the return of the minor to the custody of the minor's parents or guardians. The court shall order the release of the minor from custody unless it finds any of the following:

(a) There is a substantial danger to the physical health of the minor or the minor is suffering severe emotional damage, and there are no reasonable means by which the minor's physical or emotional health may be protected without removing the minor from the parents' or guardians' physical custody.

(b) The minor has violated an order of the juvenile court or has escaped from the commitment of the juvenile court.

(c) The minor is a threat to the person or property of another or his or her parent or guardian or responsible relative is likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court.

(d) The minor indicates an unwillingness to return home, if the minor has been sexually molested by a person residing in the home.

Whenever a court orders a minor detained, the court shall state the facts on which the decision is based. The court shall also make a determination in the order as to whether reasonable services have been provided to aid the parents or guardians in order to prevent the need for removal of the child. Where first contact with the family has occurred during an emergency situation in which the child could not safely remain at home, even with reasonable services being provided, the court shall make a finding that the lack of preplacement preventive efforts were reasonable.

When the minor is not released from custody the court may order that the minor shall be placed in an emergency shelter or other suitable licensed place or a place exempt from licensure designated by the juvenile court for a period not to exceed 15 judicial days.

SEC. 2.5. Section 319.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

319.1. In no event shall the court grant continuances that would cause the hearing in Section 361 to be completed more than six months after the Section 319 hearing. No continuance shall be granted after the detention hearing required by Section 319 if contrary to the best interests of the minor. In considering the best interests of the minor, the court shall give substantial weight to a minor's need for prompt resolution of his or her custody status, the need to provide children with stable environments, and the damage to a minor of prolonged temporary placements.

SEC. 3. Section 360 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

360. After receiving and considering the evidence on the proper disposition of the case, the juvenile court may enter judgment as follows:

(a) If the court finds that the minor is a person described by Section 300, it may, without adjudicating the minor a dependent child of the court, order that services be provided to keep the family together and place the minor and the minor's parent or guardian under the supervision of the probation officer for a time period consistent with Section 330.

(b) If the family subsequently is unable or unwilling to cooperate with the services being provided, the probation officer may file a petition with the juvenile court pursuant to Section 332 alleging that a previous petition has been sustained and that disposition pursuant to subdivision (a) has been ineffective in ameliorating the situation requiring the child welfare services. Upon hearing the petition, the court shall order either that the petition shall be dismissed or that a new disposition hearing shall be held pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) If the court finds that the minor is a person described by Section 300, it may order and adjudge the minor to be a dependent child of the court.

SEC. 4. Section 361 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

361. (a) In all cases in which a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court on the ground that the minor is a person described by Section 300, the court may limit the control to be exercised over the dependent child by any parent or guardian and shall by its order clearly and specifically set forth all such limitations. The limitations shall not exceed those necessary to protect the child.

(b) No dependent child shall be taken from the physical custody of his or her parents or guardians unless, upon the hearing, the juvenile court finds clear and convincing evidence of any of the following:

(1) There is a substantial danger to the physical health of the minor or would be if the minor was returned home, and there are no reasonable means by which the minor's physical health can be protected without removing the minor from the minor's parents' or guardians' physical custody.

(2) The parent or guardian of the minor is unwilling to have physical custody of the minor, and the parent or guardian has been notified that if the minor remains out of their physical custody for the period specified in Section 366.25, the minor may be declared permanently free from their custody and control under Section 232 of the Civil Code.

(3) The minor is suffering severe emotional damage, as indicated by extreme anxiety, depression, withdrawal, or untoward aggressive behavior toward self or others, and there are no reasonable means by which the minor's emotional health may be protected without removing the minor from the minor's parents' or guardians' physical custody.

(4) The minor has been sexually abused and there are no reasonable means by which the minor can be protected from further sexual abuse without removing the minor from his or her parent or guardian or the minor does not wish to return to his or her parent or guardian.

The court shall state the facts on which the decision to remove the child is based. The court shall make a determination as to whether reasonable efforts were made to prevent or to eliminate the need for removal of the child from his or her home. The court also shall inform the parent or parents of the provisions of Section 366.25 and Section 232 of the Civil Code and shall specify that their parental rights may be terminated permanently under these sections if they are not able to resume custody within 12 months.

(c) If the minor is taken from the physical custody of the minor's parents or guardians and unless the minor is placed with relatives, the minor shall be placed in foster care in the county of residence of the minor's parents or guardians in order to facilitate reunification of the family.

In the event that there are no appropriate placements available in the parents' or guardians' county, a placement may be made in an appropriate place in another county, preferably a county located adjacent to the parents' or guardians' community of residence.

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as requiring multiple disruptions of the minor's placement corresponding to frequent changes of residence by the parents or guardians. In determining whether the minor should be moved, the probation officer will take into consideration the potential harmful effects of disrupting the placement on the minor and the parents' or guardians' reason for the move.

(d) Whenever the probation officer must change the placement of the minor and is unable to find a suitable placement within the county and must place the minor outside the county, no such placement shall be made until he or she has served written notice on the parents or guardians in the same manner as provided in Section 366 at least 14 days prior to the placement unless the child's health or well-being is endangered by delaying the action or would be endangered if prior notice were given. The notice shall state the reasons which require placement outside the county. The parents or guardians may object to the placement not later than seven days after receipt of the notice and, upon objection the court shall hold a hearing not later than five days after the objection and prior to the placement. The court shall order out-of-county placement if it finds that the minor's particular needs require placement outside the county.

(e) The court shall make all the findings required by subdivision (a) of Section 366 in either of the following circumstances:

(1) The minor has been taken from the custody of his or her parents or guardians and has been living in an out-of-home placement pursuant to Section 319.

(2) The minor has been living in a voluntary out-of-home placement pursuant to Section 16507.4.

(f) The juvenile court shall order the probation officer to provide child welfare services to the minor and the minor's parents or guardians for the purpose of facilitating reunification of the family within a maximum time period not to exceed 12 months. Services may be extended up to an additional six months if it can be shown that the objectives of the service plan can be achieved within the extended time period. Physical custody of the minor by the parents or guardians during the 18-month period shall not serve to interrupt the running of the period.

SEC. 5. Section 366 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366. (a) The status of every dependent child in foster care shall be reviewed periodically as determined by the court but no less frequently than once every six months, as calculated from the date of the original dispositional hearing, until the permanency planning hearing required under Section 366.25 is completed. The court shall determine the continuing necessity for and appropriateness of the placement, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and the extent of progress which has been made toward alleviating or mitigating the causes necessitating placement in foster care, and shall project a likely date by which the child may be returned to the home or placed for adoption or legal guardianship.

(b) Subsequent to the permanency planning hearing periodic reviews of each child in foster care shall be conducted pursuant to the requirements of Sections 366.25 and 16503.

SEC. 6. Section 366.25 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.25. (a) In order to provide stable, permanent homes for children, a court shall, if the minor cannot be returned home pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 366.2, conduct a permanency planning hearing to make a determination regarding the future status of the minor no later than 12 months after the original dispositional hearing in which the child was removed from the custody of his or her parent, parents, or guardians, and in no case later than 18 months from the time of the minor's original placement pursuant to Section 319 or Section 16507.4 and periodically, but no less frequently than once each 18 months, thereafter during the continuation of foster care. The permanency planning hearing may be combined with the six months' review as provided for in Section 366.

(b) Notice of the proceeding to conduct the review shall be mailed by the probation officer to the same persons as in an original proceeding, to the minor's present custodian, and to the counsel of record, by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the person to be notified, or shall be personally served on such persons not earlier than 30 days, nor later than 15 days prior to the date the review is to be conducted.

(c) At the hearing the court shall first determine whether the minor should be returned to his or her parent or guardian, pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 366.2. If the minor is not returned to the custody of his or her parent or guardian the court shall determine whether there is a substantial probability that the minor will be returned to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian within six months. If the court so determines it shall set another review hearing for not more than six months, which shall be a permanency planning hearing.

(d) If the court determines that the minor cannot be returned to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian and that there is not a substantial probability that the minor will be returned within six months, the court shall develop a permanent plan for the minor. In order to enable the minor to obtain a permanent home the court shall make the following determinations and orders:

(1) If the court finds that the minor is adoptable, according to the provisions of this article, the court shall order the county counsel, or if there is no county counsel, the district attorney, to initiate an action to declare the minor permanently free from the custody and control of his or her parents or guardians pursuant to Section 232 of the Civil Code unless the court finds that any of the following conditions exist:

(A) The parents or guardians have maintained regular visitation and contact with the minor and the minor would benefit from continuing this relationship.

(B) A minor 12 years of age or older objects to termination of parental rights.

(C) The minor's foster parents are unable to adopt the minor because of exceptional circumstances which do not include an unwillingness to accept legal responsibility for the minor, but are willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of his or her foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor.

(2) If the court finds that the minor is not adoptable or that one of the conditions in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of paragraph (1) apply, but that one or more adults are available and eligible to become legal guardians for the minor, the court shall order the appropriate county department to initiate or facilitate guardianship proceedings, unless the minor's foster parents are unable to become legal guardians of the minor because of exceptional circumstances which do not include an unwillingness to accept legal responsibility for the minor, but are willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of his or her foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor.

(3) If the court finds that the minor is not adoptable and that there is not a suitable adult available to become the legal guardian of the child, the court shall order the county welfare department or probation department to facilitate the placement of the minor in a home environment that can reasonably be expected to be stable and permanent. When the minor is in a foster home and the foster parents are willing and capable of providing a stable and permanent environment, the minor shall not be removed from the home if the removal would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to the foster parents.

(4) (A) If the court finds that the minor is not adoptable, that there is no suitable adult available to become the legal guardian of the minor, and that there are no suitable foster parents except exclusive-use homes available to provide the minor with a stable and permanent environment, the court may order the care, custody, and control of the minor transferred from the county welfare department or probation department to a licensed homefinding agency. The court shall consider the written recommendation of the county welfare director or chief probation officer regarding the suitability of such a transfer. The transfer shall be subject to further court orders.

(B) The licensed homefinding agency shall place the minor in a suitable licensed or exclusive-use home which has been certified by the agency as meeting licensing standards. The licensed homefinding agency shall be responsible for supporting the minor and for providing appropriate services to the minor, including those services ordered by the court. Responsibility for support of the minor shall not in and of itself create liability on the part of the homefinding agency to third persons injured by the minor. Those minors whose care, custody, and control is transferred to a homefinding agency shall not be eligible for foster care maintenance payments or child welfare services, except for emergency response services pursuant to Section 16504.

(C) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (j), subsequent reviews for these minors shall be conducted every six months by the court. The licensed homefinding agency shall be required to submit reports for each minor in its care, custody, and control to the court concerning the continuing appropriateness and extent of compliance with the minor's permanent plan, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and the type and adequacy of services provided to the minor.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 1510 of the Probate Code, the proceeding for the appointment for a guardian for a minor under this section shall be in the juvenile court. In such a case, the juvenile court shall have the power to appoint a guardian pursuant to the standards and procedures otherwise specified by the Probate Code.

(f) When an adoption of the minor has been granted, the court shall terminate its jurisdiction over the minor.

(g) Periodic reviews conducted by the court subsequent to the initial permanency planning hearing shall determine the appropriateness of the placement, the continuing appropriateness and extent of compliance with the permanent plan for the child, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and adequacy of services provided to the child.

(h) Physical custody of a minor by his or her parents or guardians for insubstantial periods during the 12-month period prior to a permanency planning hearing shall not serve to interrupt the running of such periods.

(i) Subsequent permanency planning hearings need not be held if (1) the child has been freed for adoption and placed in the adoptive home identified in the previous permanency planning hearing and is awaiting finalization of the adoption or (2) the child is a ward of a guardian.

(j) Subsequent reviews shall be conducted every six months and be conducted by an administrative review board except when the court requires a court review or a court review is requested by the minor's parents or guardian or by the minor.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the application of any person who, as a foster parent, has cared for a dependent child for whom the court has approved a permanent plan for adoption, or who has been freed for adoption, shall be given preference with respect to that child over all other applications for adoptive placement if the agency making the placement determines that the child has substantial emotional ties to the foster parent and removal from the foster parent would be seriously detrimental to the child's well-being.

As used in this subdivision, "preference" means that the application shall be processed and, if satisfactory, the family study shall be completed before the processing of the application of any other person for the adoptive placement of the child.

SEC. 7. Section 11400 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11400. For the purposes of this article, the following definitions shall apply:

welfare department, the licensed public or private adoption agency, or the department acting as an adoption agency for the purpose of adoption planning, and have signed a voluntary placement agreement.

(m) "Voluntary placement agreement" means a written agreement between either the county welfare department, a licensed public or private adoption agency, or the department acting as an adoption agency, and the parents or guardians of a minor which specifies the terms of the voluntary placement.

(n) "Original placement date" means the most recent date on which the court detained a child and ordered an agency to be responsible for supervising the child or the date on which an agency assumed responsibility for a child due to termination of parental rights, relinquishment, or voluntary placement.

11401. Aid in the form of AFDC-FC shall be provided under this chapter on behalf of any child under the age of 18, except as provided in Section 11403, who meets the conditions of subdivision (a), (b), or (c):

(a) The child has been relinquished, for purposes of adoption, to a licensed adoption agency, or the department, or the parental rights of either or both of his or her parents have been terminated after an action under Section 232 of the Civil Code has been brought by a licensed adoption agency or the department, provided that the licensed adoption agency or the department, if responsible for placement and care, provides to those children all services as required by the department to children in foster care.

(b) The child has been deprived of parental support or care due to any of the reasons set out under Section 11250, provided:

(1) The child has been removed from the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian as a result of a judicial determination that continuance in the home would be contrary to the child's welfare and that, if the child was placed in foster care, reasonable efforts were made, and will continue to be made, to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from his or her home and to make it possible for the child to return to his or her home, and

(A) Has been adjudged a dependent child of the court on the grounds that he or she is a person described by Section 300, or

(B) Has been adjudged a ward of the court on the grounds that he or she is a person described by Sections 601 and 602, or

(C) Has been detained under a court order pursuant to Section 319 or 636 which remains in effect; or

(2) The child has been voluntarily placed by his or her parent or guardian pursuant to Section 11401.1 or in a demonstration county, pursuant to Section 16550, et seq.; or

(3) The child is living in the home of a nonrelated legal guardian.

(c) The child has been placed in foster care under the provisions of the federal Indian Child Welfare Act. The provisions of Sections 11402, 11404, and 11405 shall not be construed as limiting payments to Indian children, as defined in the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, placed in accordance with that act.

SEC. 9. Section 11404.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11404.1. In order to be eligible for AFDC-FC, the child shall receive a periodic review no less frequently than once every six months and a permanency planning hearing within 18 months of the original placement date and periodically but no less frequently than once each 18 months thereafter, as required throughout the period of foster care placement. Periodic reviews and permanency planning hearings shall not be required for a child who is residing with a nonrelated legal guardian.

SEC. 9.5. Section 232 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

232. (a) An action may be brought for the purpose of having any child under the age of 18 years declared free from the custody and control of either or both of his or her parents when the child comes within any of the following descriptions:

(1) The child has been left without provision for the child's identification by his or her parent or parents or by others or has been left by both of his or her parents or his or her sole parent in the care and custody of another for a period of six months or by one parent in the care and custody of the other parent for a period of one year without any provision for the child's support, or without communication from the parent or parents, with the intent on the part of the parent or parents to abandon the child. The failure to provide identification, failure to provide support, or failure to communicate shall be presumptive evidence of the intent to abandon. If the parent or parents have made only token efforts to support or communicate with the child, the court may declare the child abandoned by the parent or parents. In those cases in which the child has been left without provision for the child's identification and the whereabouts of the parents are unknown, a petition may be filed after the 120th day following the discovery of the child and citation by publication may be commenced. The petition may not be heard until after the 180th day following the discovery of the child.

(2) Who has been neglected or cruelly treated by either or both parents, if the child has been a dependent child of the juvenile court under any subdivision of Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and the parent or parents have been deprived of the child's custody for one year prior to the filing of a petition pursuant to this section. Physical custody by the parent or parents for insubstantial periods of time shall not serve to interrupt the running of the one-year period.

(3) Whose parent or parents suffer a disability because of the habitual use of alcohol, or any of the controlled substances specified in Schedules I to V, inclusive, of Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code, except when these controlled substances are used as part of a medically prescribed plan, or are morally depraved, if the child has been a dependent child of the juvenile court, and the parent or parents have been deprived of the child's custody continuously for one year immediately prior to the filing of a petition pursuant to this section. As used in this subdivision, "disability" means any physical or mental incapacity which renders the parent or parents unable to adequately care for and control the child. Physical custody by the parent or parents for insubstantial periods of time shall not interrupt the running of the one-year period.

(4) Whose parent or parents are convicted of a felony, if the facts of the crime of which the parent or parents were convicted are of a nature so as to prove the unfitness of the parent or parents to have the future custody and control of the child.

(5) Whose parent or parents have been declared by a court of competent jurisdiction, wherever situated, to be developmentally disabled or mentally ill, if, in the state or country in which the parent or parents reside or are hospitalized, the Director of Mental Health or the Director of Developmental Services, or their equivalent, if any, and the superintendent of the hospital of which, if any, the parent or parents are inmates or patients, certify that the parent or parents so declared to be developmentally disabled or mentally ill will not be capable of supporting or controlling the child in a proper manner.

(6) Whose parent or parents are mentally disabled and are likely to remain so in the foreseeable future. As used in this subdivision, "mentally disabled" means that a parent or parents suffer any mental incapacity or disorder which renders the parent or parents unable to adequately care for and control the child. The evidence of any two experts, each of whom shall be either a physician and surgeon, certified either by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology or under Section 6750 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or a licensed psychologist who has a doctoral degree in psychology and at least five years of postgraduate experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders, shall be required to support a finding under this subdivision. If, however, the parent or parents reside in another state or in a foreign country, the evidence required by this subdivision may be supplied by the affidavits of two experts, each of whom shall be either a physician and surgeon who is a resident of that state or foreign country, and who has been certified by a medical organization or society of that state or foreign country to practice psychiatric or neurological medicine, or by a licensed psychologist who has a doctoral degree in psychology and at least five years of postgraduate experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders and who is licensed in that state or authorized to practice in that country. If the rights of any parent are sought to be terminated pursuant to this subdivision, and the parent has no attorney, the court shall appoint an attorney for the parent pursuant to Section 237.5, whether or not a request for the appointment is made by the parent.

(7) Who has been in out-of-home placement under the supervision of the juvenile court, the county welfare department, or other public or private licensed child-placing agency for a one-year period, if the court finds that return of the child to the child's parent or parents would be detrimental to the child and that the parent or parents have failed during that period, and are likely to fail in the future, to maintain an adequate parental relationship with the child, which includes providing both a home and care and control for the child.

If the minor has been adjudged a dependent child of the juvenile court and placed in out-of-home placement pursuant to Section 361 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the one-year period shall be calculated from the date of the dispositional hearing at which the child was placed in out-of-home placement pursuant to that section. If the minor is in placement under the supervision of a county welfare department or other public or private licensed child-placing agency, pursuant to a voluntary placement, as described in Section 16507.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the one-year period shall be calculated from the date the minor entered out-of-home placement.

The court shall make a determination that reasonable services have been provided or offered to the parents which were designed to aid the parents to overcome the problems which led to the deprivation or continued loss of custody and that despite the availability of these services, return of the child to the parents would be detrimental to the child. The probation officer or social worker currently assigned to the case of the child shall appear at the termination proceedings.

If the minor has been adjudged to be a dependent child of the court pursuant to Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the court shall review and consider the contents of the juvenile court file in determining if the services offered were reasonable under the circumstances.

Trial placement of the child in the physical custody of the parent or visitation of the child with the parent during the one-year period, when the trial placement or visitation does not result in permanent placement of the child with the parent, shall not serve to interrupt the running of the one-year period.

(8) A minor who has been found to be a dependent child of the court, pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as a result of severe physical abuse by a parent inflicted when the minor was under three years of age, who has been removed from the physical custody of the parent because of severe physical abuse by that parent pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 361 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and concerning whom the juvenile court has found that attempts at reunification with his or her parent or parents would be detrimental, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 366 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. In cases brought under this subdivision, the finding of the juvenile court that the minor was a victim of severe physical abuse, if final, shall be binding on the court. For purposes of this section, "severe physical abuse" means any of the following:

(A) Any single act of abuse which causes physical trauma of sufficient severity that, if left untreated, it would cause permanent physical disfigurement, permanent physical disability, or death.

(B) Any single act of sexual abuse which causes significant bleeding, deep bruising, or significant external or internal swelling.

(C) Repeated acts of physical abuse, each of which causes bleeding, deep bruising, significant external or internal swelling, bone fracture, or unconsciousness.

The provisions of this paragraph only shall be applicable to free a child from the custody and control of a parent who has inflicted severe physical abuse on that child.

(b) At all termination proceedings, the court shall consider the wishes of the child and shall act in the best interests of the child.

(c) A finding pursuant to this section shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

(d) Section 5158 shall not apply to proceedings pursuant to this section.

SEC. 10. Section 361 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

361. (a) In all cases in which a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court on the ground that the minor is a person described by Section 300, the court may limit the control to be exercised over the dependent child by any parent or guardian and shall by its order clearly and specifically set forth all such limitations. The limitations shall not exceed those necessary to protect the child.

(b) No dependent child shall be taken from the physical custody of his or her parents or guardians unless, upon the hearing, the juvenile court finds clear and convincing evidence of any of the following:

(1) There is a substantial danger to the physical health of the minor or would be if the minor was returned home, and there are no reasonable means by which the minor's physical health can be protected without removing the minor from the minor's parents' or guardians' physical custody.

(2) The parent or guardian of the minor is unwilling to have physical custody of the minor, and the parent or guardian has been notified that if the minor remains out of their physical custody for the period specified in Section 366.25, the minor may be declared permanently free from their custody and control under Section 232 of the Civil Code.

(3) The minor is suffering severe emotional damage, as indicated by extreme anxiety, depression, withdrawal, or untoward aggressive behavior toward self or others, and there are no reasonable means by which the minor's emotional health may be protected without removing the minor from the minor's parents' or guardians' physical custody.

(4) The minor has been sexually abused and there are no reasonable means by which the minor can be protected from further sexual abuse without removing the minor from his or her parent or guardian or the minor does not wish to return to his or her parent or guardian.

The court shall state the facts on which the decision to remove the child is based. The court shall make a determination as to whether reasonable efforts were made to prevent or to eliminate the need for removal of the child from his or her home. The court also shall inform the parent or parents of the provisions of Section 366.25 and Section 232 of the Civil Code and shall specify that their parental rights may be terminated permanently under these sections if they are not able to resume custody within 12 months.

(c) If the minor is taken from the physical custody of the minor's parents or guardians and unless the minor is placed with relatives, the minor shall be placed in foster care in the county of residence of the minor's parents or guardians in order to facilitate reunification of the family.

In the event that there are no appropriate placements available in the parents' or guardians' county, a placement may be made in an appropriate place in another county, preferably a county located adjacent to the parents' or guardians' community of residence.

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as requiring multiple disruptions of the minor's placement corresponding to frequent changes of residence by the parents or guardians. In determining whether the minor should be moved, the probation officer will take into consideration the potential harmful effects of disrupting the placement on the minor and the parents' or guardians' reason for the move.

(d) Whenever the probation officer must change the placement of the minor and is unable to find a suitable placement within the county and must place the minor outside the county, no such placement shall be made until he or she has served written notice on the parents or guardians in the same manner as provided in Section 366 at least 14 days prior to the placement unless the child's health or well-being is endangered by delaying the action or would be endangered if prior notice were given. The notice shall state the reasons which require placement outside the county. The parents or guardians may object to the placement not later than seven days after receipt of the notice and, upon objection the court shall hold a hearing not later than five days after the objection and prior to the placement. The court shall order out-of-county placement if it finds that the minor's particular needs require placement outside the county.

(e) The court shall make all the findings required by subdivision (a) of Section 366 in either of the following circumstances:

(1) The minor has been taken from the custody of his or her parents or guardians and has been living in an out-of-home placement pursuant to Section 319.

(2) The minor has been living in a voluntary out-of-home placement pursuant to Section 16507.4.

(f) The juvenile court shall order the probation officer to provide child welfare services to the minor and the minor's parents or guardians for the purpose of facilitating reunification of the family within a maximum time period not to exceed 12 months. When counseling or other treatment services are ordered, the parent shall be ordered to participate in such services, unless such participation is deemed by the court to be inappropriate or potentially detrimental to the child. Services may be extended up to an additional six months if it can be shown that the objectives of the service plan can be achieved within the extended time period. Physical custody of the minor by the parents or guardians during the 18-month period shall not serve to interrupt the running of the period.

SEC. 11. Section 361 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

361. (a) In all cases in which a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court on the ground that the minor is a person described by Section 300, the court may limit the control to be exercised over the dependent child by any parent or guardian and shall by its order clearly and specifically set forth all such limitations. The limitations shall not exceed those necessary to protect the child.

(b) No dependent child shall be taken from the physical custody of his or her parents or guardians unless, upon the hearing, the juvenile court finds clear and convincing evidence of any of the following:

(1) There is a substantial danger to the physical health of the minor or would be if the minor was returned home, and there are no reasonable means by which the minor's physical health can be protected without removing the minor from the minor's parents' or guardians' physical custody.

(2) The parent or guardian of the minor is unwilling to have physical custody of the minor, and the parent or guardian has been notified that if the minor remains out of their physical custody for the period specified in Section 366.25, the minor may be declared permanently free from their custody and control under Section 232 of the Civil Code.

(3) The minor is suffering severe emotional damage, as indicated by extreme anxiety, depression, withdrawal, or untoward aggressive behavior toward self or others, and there are no reasonable means by which the minor's emotional health may be protected without removing the minor from the minor's parents' or guardians' physical custody.

(4) The minor has been sexually abused and there are no reasonable means by which the minor can be protected from further sexual abuse without removing the minor from his or her parent or guardian or the minor does not wish to return to his or her parent or guardian.

(5) The minor, while under the age of three, was a victim of severe physical abuse by any parent or guardian seeking custody of the minor, or by any person sharing the home of the parent or guardian at the time he or she seeks custody of the minor. For the purposes of this section, "severe physical abuse" means any of the following: any single act of abuse which causes physical trauma of sufficient severity that, if left untreated, it would cause permanent physical disfigurement, permanent physical disability, or death; any single act of sexual abuse which causes significant bleeding, deep bruising, or significant external or internal swelling; or repeated acts of physical abuse, each of which causes bleeding, deep bruising, significant external or internal swelling, bone fracture, or unconsciousness. A minor may not be removed from the physical custody of his or her parents or guardians on the basis of a finding of severe physical abuse unless the probation officer has made such an allegation pursuant to Section 332.

The court shall state the facts on which the decision to remove the child is based. The court shall make a determination as to whether reasonable efforts were made to prevent or to eliminate the need for removal of the child from his or her home. The court also shall inform the parent or parents of the provisions of Section 366.25 of this code and Section 232 of the Civil Code and shall specify one of the following: (A) if the minor is removed for one of the reasons stated in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, of this subdivision, or because of severe physical abuse inflicted by a person other than the parent or parents pursuant to paragraph (5) of this subdivision, that the parent's or parents' parental rights may be terminated permanently under Section 366.25 of this code and Section 232 of the Civil Code if they are not able to resume custody within 12 months or (B) if the minor is removed because of severe physical abuse by a parent or parents as stated in paragraph (5) of this subdivision, the parental rights of the parent or parents inflicting that abuse may be terminated permanently under Section 366.25 of this code and Section 232 of the Civil Code if the court finds, upon completion of the investigation required under subdivision (e), that reunification with the parent or parents would be detrimental to the minor. In such a case, the court shall specifically advise the parent or parents of paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) of Section 232 of the Civil Code and of the consequences which may result pursuant to the provisions of that paragraph from matters proven in and found by the juvenile court.

(c) If the minor is taken from the physical custody of the minor's parents or guardians and unless the minor is placed with relatives, the minor shall be placed in foster care in the county of residence of the minor's parents or guardians in order to facilitate reunification of the family.

In the event that there are no appropriate placements available in the parents' or guardians' county, a placement may be made in an appropriate place in another county, preferably a county located adjacent to the parents' or guardians' community of residence.

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as requiring multiple disruptions of the minor's placement corresponding to frequent changes of residence by the parents or guardians. In determining whether the minor should be moved, the probation officer will take into consideration the potential harmful effects of disrupting the placement on the minor and the parents' or guardians' reason for the move.

(d) Whenever the probation officer must change the placement of the minor and is unable to find a suitable placement within the county and must place the minor outside the county, no such placement shall be made until he or she has served written notice on the parents or guardians in the same manner as provided in Section 366 at least 14 days prior to the placement unless the child's health or well-being is endangered by delaying the action or would be endangered if prior notice were given. The notice shall state the reasons which require placement outside the county. The parents or guardians may object to the placement not later than seven days after receipt of the notice and, upon objection the court shall hold a hearing not later than five days after the objection and prior to the placement. The court shall order out-of-county placement if it finds that the minor's particular needs require placement outside the county.

(e) The court shall make all the findings required by subdivision (a) of Section 366 in either of the following circumstances:

(1) The minor has been taken from the custody of his or her parents or guardians and has been living in an out-of-home placement pursuant to Section 319.

(2) The minor has been living in a voluntary out-of-home placement pursuant to Section 16507.4.

(f) In any case where a minor is removed from a parent's or guardian's custody for one of the reasons stated in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, of subdivision (b), or because of severe physical abuse inflicted by a person other than the parent or parents pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b), the juvenile court shall order the probation officer to provide child welfare services to the minor and the minor's parents or guardians for the purpose of facilitating reunification of the family within a maximum time period not to exceed 12 months. Services may be extended up to an additional six months if it can be shown that the objectives of the service plan can be achieved within the extended time period. Physical custody of the minor by the parents or guardians during the 18-month period shall not serve to interrupt the running of the period. In any case where a minor is removed from a parent's or guardian's custody because of severe abuse by a parent or parents as stated in paragraph (5) of subdivision (b), the juvenile court shall order the probation officer to provide appropriate reunification services except unsupervised visits and trial placements in the home and to investigate the circumstances surrounding the severe physical abuse of the minor and to prepare a report which advises the court whether there are circumstances which, in spite of the severe physical abuse, indicate that it would not be detrimental to the minor to continue to attempt reunification of the family. The probation officer shall provide the parent or parents with a copy of the report, including his or her conclusion that it would or would not be detrimental to the minor to continue to attempt reunification of the family, at least 14 days before the hearing. This report shall be submitted to the juvenile court at the first review hearing required by subdivision (a) of Section 366. The report shall include a statement of the circumstances relied upon in drawing the conclusion that it would or would not be detrimental to the minor to continue to attempt reunification of the family. If the report concludes that reunification would be detrimental to the minor, the report shall make recommendations concerning an appropriate permanent plan for the minor.

SEC. 12. Section 361 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

361. (a) In all cases in which a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court on the ground that the minor is a person described by Section 300, the court may limit the control to be exercised over the dependent child by any parent or guardian and shall by its order clearly and specifically set forth all such limitations. The limitations shall not exceed those necessary to protect the child.

(b) No dependent child shall be taken from the physical custody of his or her parents or guardians unless, upon the hearing, the juvenile court finds clear and convincing evidence of any of the following:

(1) There is a substantial danger to the physical health of the minor or would be if the minor was returned home, and there are no reasonable means by which the minor's physical health can be protected without removing the minor from the minor's parents' or guardians' physical custody.

(2) The parent or guardian of the minor is unwilling to have physical custody of the minor, and the parent or guardian has been notified that if the minor remains out of their physical custody for the period specified in Section 366.25, the minor may be declared permanently free from their custody and control under Section 232 of the Civil Code.

(3) The minor is suffering severe emotional damage, as indicated by extreme anxiety, depression, withdrawal, or untoward aggressive behavior toward self or others, and there are no reasonable means by which the minor's emotional health may be protected without removing the minor from the minor's parents' or guardians' physical custody.

(4) The minor has been sexually abused and there are no reasonable means by which the minor can be protected from further sexual abuse without removing the minor from his or her parent or guardian or the minor does not wish to return to his or her parent

(5) The minor, while under the age of three, was a victim of severe physical abuse by any parent or guardian seeking custody of the minor, or by any person sharing the home of the parent or guardian at the time he or she seeks custody of the minor. For the purposes of this section, "severe physical abuse" means any of the following: any single act of abuse which causes physical trauma of sufficient severity that, if left untreated, it would cause permanent physical disfigurement, permanent physical disability, or death; any single act of sexual abuse which causes significant bleeding, deep bruising, or significant external or internal swelling; or repeated acts of physical abuse, each of which causes bleeding, deep bruising, significant external or internal swelling, bone fracture, or unconsciousness. A minor may not be removed from the physical custody of his or her parents or guardians on the basis of a finding of severe physical abuse unless the probation officer has made such an allegation pursuant to Section 332.

The court shall state the facts on which the decision to remove the child is based. The court shall make a determination as to whether reasonable efforts were made to prevent or to eliminate the need for removal of the child from his or her home. The court also shall inform the parent or parents of the provisions of Section 366.25 of this code and Section 232 of the Civil Code and shall specify one of the following: (A) if the minor is removed for one of the reasons stated in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, of this subdivision, or because of severe physical abuse inflicted by a person other than the parent or parents pursuant to paragraph (5) of this subdivision, that the parent's or parents' parental rights may be terminated permanently under Section 366.25 of this code and Section 232 of the Civil Code if they are not able to resume custody within 12 months or (B) if the minor is removed because of severe physical abuse by a parent or parents as stated in paragraph (5) of this subdivision, the parental rights of the parent or parents inflicting that abuse may be terminated permanently under Section 366.25 of this code and Section 232 of the Civil Code if the court finds, upon completion of the investigation required under subdivision (e), that reunification with the parent or parents would be detrimental to the minor. In such a case, the court shall specifically advise the parent or parents of paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) of Section 232 of the Civil Code and of the consequences which may result pursuant to the provisions of that paragraph from matters proven in and found by the juvenile court.

(c) If the minor is taken from the physical custody of the minor's parents or guardians and unless the minor is placed with relatives, the minor shall be placed in foster care in the county of residence of the minor's parents or guardians in order to facilitate reunification of the family.

appropriate place in another county, preferably a county located adjacent to the parents' or guardians' community of residence.

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as requiring multiple disruptions of the minor's placement corresponding to frequent changes of residence by the parents or guardians. In determining whether the minor should be moved, the probation officer will take into consideration the potential harmful effects of disrupting the placement on the minor and the parents' or guardians' reason for the move.

(d) Whenever the probation officer must change the placement of the minor and is unable to find a suitable placement within the county and must place the minor outside the county, no such placement shall be made until he or she has served written notice on the parents or guardians in the same manner as provided in Section 366 at least 14 days prior to the placement unless the child's health or well-being is endangered by delaying the action or would be endangered if prior notice were given. The notice shall state the reasons which require placement outside the county. The parents or guardians may object to the placement not later than seven days after receipt of the notice and, upon objection the court shall hold a hearing not later than five days after the objection and prior to the placement. The court shall order out-of-county placement if it finds that the minor's particular needs require placement outside the county.

(e) The court shall make all the findings required by subdivision (a) of Section 366 in either of the following circumstances:

(1) The minor has been taken from the custody of his or her parents or guardians and has been living in an out-of-home placement pursuant to Section 319.

(2) The minor has been living in a voluntary out-of-home placement pursuant to Section 16507.4.

(f) In any case where a minor is removed from a parent's or guardian's custody for one of the reasons stated in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, of subdivision (b), or because of severe physical abuse inflicted by a person other than the parent or parents pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b), the juvenile court shall order the probation officer to provide child welfare services to the minor and the minor's parents or guardians for the purpose of facilitating reunification of the family within a maximum time period not to exceed 12 months. When counseling or other treatment services are ordered, the parent shall be ordered to participate in such services, unless such participation is deemed by the court to be inappropriate or potentially detrimental to the child. Services may be extended up to an additional six months if it can be shown that the objectives of the service plan can be achieved within the extended time period. Physical custody of the minor by the parents or guardians during the 18-month period shall not serve to interrupt the running of the period. In any case where a minor is removed from a parent's or guardian's custody because of severe abuse by a parent or parents as stated in paragraph (5) of subdivision (b), the juvenile court shall order the probation officer to provide appropriate reunification services except unsupervised visits and trial placements in the home and to investigate the circumstances surrounding the severe physical abuse of the minor and to prepare a report which advises the court whether there are circumstances which, in spite of the severe physical abuse, indicate that it would not be detrimental to the minor to continue to attempt reunification of the family. The probation officer shall provide the parent or parents with a copy of the report, including his or her conclusion that it would or would not be detrimental to the minor to continue to attempt reunification of the family, at least 14 days before the hearing. This report shall be submitted to the juvenile court at the first review hearing required by subdivision (a) of Section 366. The report shall include a statement of the circumstances relied upon in drawing the conclusion that it would or would not be detrimental to the minor to continue to attempt reunification of the family. If the report concludes that reunification would be detrimental to the minor, the report shall make recommendations concerning an appropriate permanent plan for the minor.

SEC. 13. Section 366 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366. (a) The status of every dependent child in foster care shall be reviewed periodically as determined by the court but no less frequently than once every six months, as calculated from the date of the original dispositional hearing, until the permanency planning hearing required under Section 366.25 is completed. The court shall determine the continuing necessity for and appropriateness of the placement, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and the extent of progress which has been made toward alleviating or mitigating the causes necessitating placement in foster care, and shall project a likely date by which the child may be returned to the home or placed for adoption or legal guardianship.

(b) Subsequent to the permanency planning hearing periodic reviews of each child in foster care shall be conducted pursuant to the requirements of Sections 366.25 and 16503.

(c) In the case of a minor who has been removed from the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian because of severe physical abuse pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 361, the court shall, as soon as reasonably feasible but in no case later than six months from that removal, conduct a hearing to review the report of the probation officer required by subdivision (e) of Section 361. If the court finds at the review that it would not be detrimental to the minor to attempt to reunify the minor with his or her parent or guardian, the court shall proceed pursuant to subdivision (a). If the court finds that it would be detrimental to the minor to attempt to reunify the minor with his or her parent or guardian, the court shall immediately proceed to conduct a permanency planning hearing for the minor pursuant to Section

366.25. The probation department shall have the burden of establishing that detriment by a preponderance of the evidence.

SEC. 14. Section 366.25 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.25. (a) In order to provide stable, permanent homes for children, a court shall, if the minor cannot be returned home pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 366.2, conduct a permanency planning hearing to make a determination regarding the future status of the minor no later than 12 months after the original dispositional hearing in which the child was removed from the custody of his or her parent, parents, or guardians, and in no case later than 18 months from the time of the minor's original placement pursuant to Section 319 or Section 16507.4 and periodically, but no less frequently than once each 18 months, thereafter during the continuation of foster care. The permanency planning hearing may be combined with the six months' review as provided for in Section 366. In the case of a minor who has been removed from his or her parent or guardian pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 361 because of severe physical abuse, and concerning whom the court has found, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 366, that return of the minor to his or her parent or guardian would be detrimental to the minor, a permanency planning hearing shall be held immediately upon the making of such a finding, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably feasible.

(b) Notice of the proceeding to conduct the review shall be mailed by the probation officer to the same persons as in an original proceeding, to the minor's present custodian, and to the counsel of record, by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the person to be notified, or shall be personally served on such persons not earlier than 30 days, nor later than 15 days prior to the date the review is to be conducted.

(c) Except in cases where permanency planning is conducted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 366, the court shall first determine at the hearing whether the minor should be returned to his or her parent or guardian, pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 366.2. If the minor is not returned to the custody of his or her parent or guardian the court shall determine whether there is a substantial probability that the minor will be returned to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian within six months. If the court so determines it shall set another review hearing for not more than six months, which shall be a permanency planning hearing. In the case of a minor who has been removed from the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian because of severe physical abuse pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 361, and concerning whom the court has found pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 366 that attempts at reunification with his or her parent or guardian would be detrimental, the court shall not continue proceedings for further review pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) If the court determines that the minor cannot be returned to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian and that there is not a substantial probability that the minor will be returned within six months, the court shall develop a permanent plan for the minor. In order to enable the minor to obtain a permanent home the court shall make the following determinations and orders:

(1) If the court finds that the minor is adoptable, according to this article, the court shall authorize the appropriate county or state agency to proceed to free the minor from the custody and control of his or her parents or guardians pursuant to Section 232 of the Civil Code unless the court finds that any of the following conditions exist:

(A) The parents or guardians have maintained regular visitation and contact with the minor and the minor would benefit from continuing this relationship.

(B) A minor 12 years of age or older objects to termination of parental rights.

(C) The minor's foster parents are unable to adopt the minor because of exceptional circumstances which do not include an unwillingness to accept legal responsibility for the minor, but are willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of his or her foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor.

(2) If the court finds that the minor is not adoptable or that one of the conditions in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of paragraph (1) apply, but that one or more adults are available and eligible to become legal guardians for the minor, the court shall order the appropriate county department to initiate or facilitate guardianship proceedings, unless the minor's foster parents are unable to become legal guardians of the minor because of exceptional circumstances which do not include an unwillingness to accept legal responsibility for the minor, but are willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of his or her foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor.

(3) If the court finds that the minor is not adoptable and that there is not a suitable adult available to become the legal guardian of the child, the court shall order the county welfare department or probation department to facilitate the placement of the minor in a home environment that can reasonably be expected to be stable and permanent. When the minor is in a foster home and the foster parents are willing and capable of providing a stable and permanent environment, the minor shall not be removed from the home if the removal would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to the foster parents.

(4) (A) If the court finds that the minor is not adoptable, that there is no suitable adult available to become the legal guardian of the minor, and that there are no suitable foster parents except exclusive-use homes available to provide the minor with a stable and permanent environment, the court may order the care, custody, and control of the minor transferred from the county welfare department or probation department to a licensed homefinding agency. The court shall consider the written recommendation of the county welfare director or chief probation officer regarding the suitability of such a transfer. The transfer shall be subject to further court orders.

(B) The licensed homefinding agency shall place the minor in a suitable licensed or exclusive-use home which has been certified by the agency as meeting licensing standards. The licensed homefinding agency shall be responsible for supporting the minor and for providing appropriate services to the minor, including those services ordered by the court. Responsibility for support of the minor shall not in and of itself create liability on the part of the homefinding agency to third persons injured by the minor. Those minors whose care, custody, and control are transferred to a homefinding agency shall not be eligible for foster care maintenance payments or child welfare services, except for emergency response services pursuant to Section 16504.

(C) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (j), subsequent reviews for these minors shall be conducted every six months by the court. The licensed homefinding agency shall be required to submit reports for each minor in its care, custody, and control to the court concerning the continuing appropriateness and extent of compliance with the minor's permanent plan, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and the type and adequacy of services provided to the minor.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 1510 of the Probate Code, the proceeding for the appointment for a guardian for a minor under this section shall be in the juvenile court. In such a case, the juvenile court shall have the power to appoint a guardian pursuant to the standards and procedures otherwise specified by the Probate Code.

(f) When an adoption of the minor has been granted, the court shall terminate its jurisdiction over the minor.

(g) Periodic reviews conducted by the court subsequent to the initial permanency planning hearing shall determine the appropriateness of the placement, the continuing appropriateness and extent of compliance with the permanent plan for the child, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and adequacy of services provided to the child.

(h) Physical custody of a minor by his or her parents or guardians for insubstantial periods during the 12-month period prior to a permanency planning hearing shall not serve to interrupt the running of such periods.

(i) Subsequent permanency planning hearings need not be held if (1) the child has been freed for adoption and placed in the adoptive home identified in the previous permanency planning hearing and is awaiting finalization of the adoption or (2) the child is a ward of a guardian.

(j) Subsequent reviews shall be conducted every six months and be conducted by an administrative review board except when the court requires a court review or a court review is requested by the minor's parents or guardian or by the minor.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the application of any person who, as a foster parent, has cared for a dependent child for whom the court has approved a permanent plan for adoption, or who has been freed for adoption, shall be given preference with respect to that child over all other applications for adoptive placement if the agency making the placement determines that the child has substantial emotional ties to the foster parent and removal from the foster parent would be seriously detrimental to the child's well-being.

SEC. 15. Section 366.25 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.25. (a) In order to provide stable, permanent homes for children, a court shall, if the minor cannot be returned home pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 366.2, conduct a permanency planning hearing to make a determination regarding the future status of the minor no later than 12 months after the original dispositional hearing in which the child was removed from the custody of his or her parent, parents, or guardians, and in no case later than 18 months from the time of the minor's original placement pursuant to Section 319 or Section 16507.4 and periodically, but no less frequently than once each 18 months, thereafter during the continuation of foster care. The permanency planning hearing may be combined with the six months' review as provided for in Section 366.

(b) Notice of the proceeding to conduct the review shall be mailed by the probation officer to the same persons as in an original proceeding, to the minor's present custodian, and to the counsel of record, by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the person to be notified, or shall be personally served on such persons not earlier than 30 days, nor later than 15 days prior to the date the review is to be conducted.

(c) At the hearing the court shall first determine whether the minor should be returned to his or her parent or guardian, pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 366.2. If the minor is not returned to the custody of his or her parent or guardian the court shall determine whether there is a substantial probability that the minor will be returned to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian within six months. If the court so determines it shall set another review hearing for not more than six months, which shall be a permanency planning hearing.

(d) If the court determines that the minor cannot be returned to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian and that there is not a substantial probability that the minor will be returned within six months, the court shall develop a permanent plan for the minor. In order to enable the minor to obtain a permanent home the court shall make the following determinations and orders:

(1) If the court finds that the minor is adoptable, according to the provisions of this article, the court shall order the county counsel, or if there is no county counsel, the district attorney, to initiate an action to declare the minor permanently free from the custody and control of his or her parents or guardians pursuant to Section 232 of the Civil Code unless the court finds that any of the following conditions exist:

(A) The parents or guardians have maintained regular visitation and contact with the minor and the minor would benefit from continuing this relationship.

(B) A minor 12 years of age or older objects to termination of parental rights.

(C) The minor's foster parents are unable to adopt the minor because of exceptional circumstances which do not include an unwillingness to accept legal responsibility for the minor, but are willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of his or her foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor.

(2) If the court finds that the minor is unadoptable or that one of the conditions in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of paragraph (1) applies, the court shall order the appropriate county department to initiate or facilitate the placement of the minor in a home environment that can be reasonably expected to be stable and permanent. This may be accomplished by initiating legal guardianship proceedings or long-term foster care. Legal guardianship shall be considered before long-term foster care, if it is in the best interests of the child and if a suitable guardian can be found. When the minor is in a foster home and the foster parents are willing and capable of providing a stable and permanent environment, the minor shall not be removed from the home if the removal would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to the foster parents.

(3) (A) If the court finds that the minor is not adoptable, that there is no suitable adult available to become the legal guardian of the minor, and that there are no suitable foster parents except exclusive-use homes available to provide the minor with a stable and permanent environment, the court may order the care, custody, and control of the minor transferred from the county welfare department or probation department to a licensed homefinding agency. The court shall consider the written recommendation of the county welfare director or chief probation officer regarding the suitability of such a transfer. The transfer shall be subject to further court orders.

(B) The licensed homefinding agency shall place the minor in a suitable licensed or exclusive-use home which has been certified by the agency as meeting licensing standards. The licensed homefinding agency shall be responsible for supporting the minor and for providing appropriate services to the minor, including those services ordered by the court. Responsibility for support of the minor shall not in and of itself create liability on the part of the homefinding agency to third persons injured by the minor. Those minors whose care, custody, and control are transferred to a homefinding agency shall not be eligible for foster care maintenance payments or child welfare services, except for emergency response services pursuant to Section 16504.

(C) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (j), subsequent reviews for these minors shall be conducted every six months by the court. The licensed homefinding agency shall be required to submit reports for each minor in its care, custody, and control to the court concerning the continuing appropriateness and extent of compliance with the minor's permanent plan, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and the type and adequacy of services provided to the minor.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 1510 of the Probate Code, the proceeding for the appointment for a guardian for a minor under this section shall be in the juvenile court. In such a case, the juvenile court may appoint a guardian pursuant to the standards and procedures otherwise specified by the Probate Code.

(f) When an adoption of the minor has been granted, the court shall terminate its jurisdiction over the minor.

(g) Periodic reviews conducted by the court subsequent to the initial permanency planning hearing shall determine the appropriateness of the placement, the continuing appropriateness and extent of compliance with the permanent plan for the child, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and adequacy of services provided to the child.

(h) Physical custody of a minor by his or her parents or guardians for insubstantial periods during the 12-month period prior to a permanency planning hearing shall not serve to interrupt the running of such periods.

(i) Subsequent permanency planning hearings need not be held if (1) the child has been freed for adoption and placed in the adoptive home identified in the previous permanency planning hearing and is awaiting finalization of the adoption or (2) the child is a ward of a guardian.

(j) Subsequent reviews shall be conducted every six months and be conducted by an administrative review board except when the court requires a court review or a court review is requested by the minor's parents or guardian or by the minor.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the application of any person who, as a foster parent, has cared for a dependent child for whom the court has approved a permanent plan for adoption, or who has been freed for adoption, shall be given preference with respect to that child over all other applications for adoptive placement if the agency making the placement determines that the child has substantial emotional ties to the foster parent and removal from the foster parent would be seriously detrimental to the child's well-being.

As used in this subdivision, "preference" means that the application shall be processed and, if satisfactory, the family study shall be completed before the processing of the application of any other person for the adoptive placement of the child.

SEC. 16. Section 366.25 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.25. (a) In order to provide stable, permanent homes for children, a court shall, if the minor cannot be returned home pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 366.2, conduct a permanency planning hearing to make a determination regarding the future status of the minor no later than 12 months after the original dispositional hearing in which the child was removed from the custody of his or her parent, parents, or guardians, and in no case later than 18 months from the time of the minor's original placement pursuant to Section 319 or Section 16507.4 and periodically, but no less frequently than once each 18 months, thereafter during the continuation of foster care. The permanency planning hearing may be combined with the six months' review as provided for in Section 366. In the case of a minor who has been removed from his or her parent or guardian pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 361 because of severe physical abuse, and concerning whom the court has found, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 366, that return of the minor to his or her parent or guardian would be detrimental to the minor, a permanency planning hearing shall be held immediately upon the making of such a finding, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably feasible.

(b) Notice of the proceeding to conduct the review shall be mailed by the probation officer to the same persons as in an original proceeding, to the minor's present custodian, and to the counsel of record, by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the person to be notified, or shall be personally served on such persons not earlier than 30 days, nor later than 15 days prior to the date the review is to be conducted.

(c) Except in cases where permanency planning is conducted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 366, the court shall first determine at the hearing whether the minor should be returned to his or her parent or guardian, pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 366.2. If the minor is not returned to the custody of his or her parent or guardian the court shall determine whether there is a substantial probability that the minor will be returned to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian within six months. If the court so determines it shall set another review hearing for not more than six months, which shall be a permanency planning hearing. In the case of a minor who has been removed from the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian because of severe physical abuse pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 361, and concerning whom the court has found pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 366 that attempts at reunification with his or her parent or guardian would be detrimental, the court shall not continue proceedings for further review pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) If the court determines that the minor cannot be returned to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian and that there is not a substantial probability that the minor will be returned within six months, the court shall develop a permanent plan for the minor. In order to enable the minor to obtain a permanent home the court shall make the following determinations and orders:

(1) If the court finds that the minor is adoptable, according to this article, the court shall authorize the appropriate county or state agency to proceed to free the minor from the custody and control of his or her parents or guardians pursuant to Section 232 of the Civil Code unless the court finds that any of the following conditions exist:

(A) The parents or guardians have maintained regular visitation and contact with the minor and the minor would benefit from continuing this relationship.

(B) A minor 12 years of age or older objects to termination of parental rights.

(C) The minor's foster parents are unable to adopt the minor because of exceptional circumstances which do not include an unwillingness to accept legal responsibility for the minor, but are willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of his or her foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor.

(2) If the court finds that the minor is unadoptable or that one of the conditions in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of paragraph (1) applies, the court shall order the appropriate county department to initiate or facilitate the placement of the minor in a home environment that can be reasonably expected to be stable and permanent. This may be accomplished by initiating legal guardianship proceedings or long-term foster care. Legal guardianship shall be considered before long-term foster care, if it is in the best interests of the child and if a suitable guardian can be found. When the minor is in a foster home and the foster parents are willing and capable of providing a stable and permanent environment, the minor shall not be removed from the home if the removal would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to the foster parents.

(3) (A) If the court finds that the minor is not adoptable, that there is no suitable adult available to become the legal guardian of the minor, and that there are no suitable foster parents except exclusive-use homes available to provide the minor with a stable and permanent environment, the court may order the care, custody, and control of the minor transferred from the county welfare department or probation department to a licensed homefinding agency. The court shall consider the written recommendation of the county welfare director or chief probation officer regarding the suitability of such a transfer. The transfer shall be subject to further court orders.

(B) The licensed homefinding agency shall place the minor in a suitable licensed or exclusive-use home which has been certified by the agency as meeting licensing standards. The licensed homefinding agency shall be responsible for supporting the minor and for providing appropriate services to the minor, including those services ordered by the court. Responsibility for support of the minor shall not in and of itself create liability on the part of the homefinding agency to third persons injured by the minor. Those minors whose care, custody, and control are transferred to a homefinding agency shall not be eligible for foster care maintenance payments or child welfare services, except for emergency response services pursuant to Section 16504.

(C) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (j), subsequent reviews for these minors shall be conducted every six months by the court. The licensed homefinding agency shall be required to submit reports for each minor in its care, custody, and control to the court concerning the continuing appropriateness and extent of compliance with the minor's permanent plan, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and the type and adequacy of services provided to the minor.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 1510 of the Probate Code, the proceeding for the appointment for a guardian for a minor under this section shall be in the juvenile court. In such a case, the juvenile court may appoint a guardian pursuant to the standards and procedures otherwise specified by the Probate Code.

(f) When an adoption of the minor has been granted, the court shall terminate its jurisdiction over the minor.

(j) Subsequent reviews shall be conducted every six months and be conducted by an administrative review board except when the court requires a court review or a court review is requested by the minor's parents or guardian or by the minor.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the application of any person who, as a foster parent, has cared for a dependent child for whom the court has approved a permanent plan for adoption, or who has been freed for adoption, shall be given preference with respect to that child over all other applications for adoptive placement if the agency making the placement determines that the child has substantial emotional ties to the foster parent and removal from the foster parent would be seriously detrimental to the child's well-being.

As used in this subdivision, "preference" means that the application shall be processed and, if satisfactory, the family study shall be completed before the processing of the application of any other person for the adoptive placement of the child.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that:

(a) A significant number of homicides, aggravated assaults, and assaults and batteries occur within the home between adult members of families. Research shows that 35 to 40 percent of all assaults are related to domestic violence.

(b) The reported incidence of domestic violence represents only a portion of the total number of incidents of domestic violence.

(c) Twenty-three percent of the deaths of law enforcement officers in the line of duty results from intervention by law enforcement officers in incidents of domestic violence.

(d) Domestic violence is a complex problem affecting families from all social and economic backgrounds.

The purpose of this act is to address domestic violence as a serious crime against society and to assure the victims of domestic violence the maximum protection from abuse which the law and those who enforce the law can provide. It is the intent of the Legislature that the official response to cases of domestic violence shall stress the enforcement of the laws to protect the victim and shall communicate the attitude that violent behavior in the home is criminal behavior and will not be tolerated. It is not the intent of the Legislature to remove a peace officer's individual discretion where that discretion is necessary, nor is it the intent of the Legislature to hold individual peace officers liable.

SEC. 2. Section 13519 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

13519. (a) The commission shall implement by January 1, 1986, a course or courses of instruction for the training of law enforcement officers in California in the handling of domestic violence complaints and also shall develop guidelines for law enforcement response to domestic violence. The course or courses of instruction and the guidelines shall stress enforcement of criminal laws in domestic violence situations, availability of civil remedies and community resources, and protection of the victim. Where appropriate, the training presenters shall include domestic violence experts with expertise in the delivery of direct services to victims of domestic violence, including utilizing the staff of shelters for battered women in the presentation of training.

As used in this section, "law enforcement officer" means any officer or employee of a local police department or sheriff's office.

(b) The course of basic training for law enforcement officers shall, no later than January 1, 1986, include adequate instruction in the procedures and techniques described below:

(1) The provisions set forth in Title 5 (commencing with Section 13700) relating to response, enforcement of court orders, and data collection.

(2) The legal duties imposed on police officers to make arrests and offer protection and assistance including guidelines for making felony and misdemeanor arrests.

(3) Techniques for handling incidents of domestic violence that minimize the likelihood of injury to the officer and that promote the safety of the victim.

(4) The nature and extent of domestic violence.

(5) The legal rights of, and remedies available to, victims of domestic violence.

(6) The use of an arrest by a private person in a domestic violence situation.

(7) Documentation, report writing, and evidence collection.

(8) Domestic violence diversion as provided in Chapter 2.6 (commencing with Section 1000.6) of Title 5 of Part 2.

(11) The services and facilities available to victims and batterers.

(12) The use and applications of this code in domestic violence situations.

(13) Verification and enforcement of temporary restraining orders when (A) the suspect is present and (B) the suspect has fled.

(15) Cite and release policies.

(16) Emergency assistance to victims and how to assist victims in pursuing criminal justice options.

The guidelines developed by the commission shall also incorporate the foregoing factors.

(c) All law enforcement officers who have received their basic training before January 1, 1986, shall participate in supplementary training on domestic violence subjects, as prescribed and certified by the commission. This training shall be completed no later than January 1, 1989.

Local law enforcement agencies are encouraged to include, as part of their advanced officer training program, periodic updates and training on domestic violence. The commission shall assist where possible.

(d) The course of instruction, the learning and performance objectives, the standards for the training, and the guidelines shall be developed by the commission in consultation with appropriate groups and individuals having an interest and expertise in the field of domestic violence. The groups and individuals shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following: one representative each from the California Peace Officers' Association, the Peace Officers' Research Association of California, the State Bar of California, the California Women Lawyers' Association, and the State Commission on the Status of Women; two representatives from the commission; two representatives from the California Alliance Against Domestic Violence; two peace officers, recommended by the commission, who are experienced in the provision of domestic violence training; and two domestic violence experts, recommended by the California Alliance Against Domestic Violence, who are experienced in the provision of direct services to victims of domestic violence. At least one of the persons selected shall be a former victim of domestic violence.

The commission, in consultation with these groups and individuals, shall review existing training programs to determine in what ways domestic violence training might be included as a part of ongoing programs.

(e) Forty thousand dollars ($40,000) is appropriated from the Peace Officers Training Fund in augmentation of Item 8120-001-268 of the Budget Act of 1984, to support the travel, per diem, and associated costs for convening the necessary experts.

These policies shall reflect that domestic violence is alleged criminal conduct. Further, they shall reflect existing policy that a request for assistance in a situation involving domestic violence is the same as any other request for assistance where violence has occurred. These existing local policies and those developed shall be in writing and shall be available to the public upon request and shall include specific standards for the following:

(a) Felony arrests.

(b) Misdemeanor arrests.

(c) Use of citizen arrests.

In the development of these policies, each local department is encouraged to consult with domestic violence experts, such as the staff of the local shelter for battered women and their children. Departments may utilize the response guidelines developed by the commission in developing local policies.

CHAPTER 2. RESTRAINING ORDERS

13710. Law enforcement agencies shall maintain a complete and systematic record of all protection orders with respect to domestic violence incidents, restraining orders, and proofs of service in effect. This shall be used to inform law enforcement officers responding to domestic violence calls of the existence, terms, and effective dates of protection orders in effect.

CHAPTER 3. STAY-AWAY ORDERS

13720. A stay-away order may be issued by the court in a criminal case involving domestic violence where, with notice to the defendant and upon an affidavit, a likelihood of harassment of the victim by the defendant has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of the court. Such an order may remain in effect as long as the suspect is under the court's jurisdiction, including any sentence or probationary period.

CHAPTER 4. DATA COLLECTION

13730. (a) Each law enforcement agency shall develop a system, by January 1, 1986 for recording all domestic violence-related calls for assistance made to the department including whether weapons are involved. compiled by each law enforcement agency and submitted to the Attorney General.

(b) The Attorney General shall report annually to the Governor, the Legislature, and the public, the total number of domestic violence-related calls received by California law enforcement agencies, the number of cases involving weapons, and a breakdown of calls received by agency, city, and county.

(c) Each law enforcement agency shall develop an incident report form that includes a domestic violence identification code by January 1, 1986. In all incidents of domestic violence, a report shall be written and shall be thus identified on the face of the report as a domestic violence incident.

CHAPTER 5. TERMINATION

For the purposes of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, the adoption of the regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare.

The Attorney General may also require that the report shall indicate whether or not the submitting agency considers the information to be confidential because it was compiled for the purpose of a criminal investigation of suspected criminal activities. The term "criminal investigation" includes the gathering and maintenance of information pertaining to suspected criminal activity.

SEC. 2. Section 11165 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the problem of runaway children is one of major significance, causing great suffering both for parents, who often do not know whether their child is alive, as well as for the runaways themselves, as they often are young, impressionable children, who are frequently the victims of crime, including forced prostitution, drug abuse, and death.

SEC. 2. There is, administered by state government, the Youth Emergency Telephone Referral Project, in the Office of Criminal Justice Planning. The Office of Criminal Justice Planning may directly implement the project as specified in subdivisions (a) to (c), inclusive, of Section 3 or may contract for implementation of the project with any California nonprofit corporation which, in the judgment of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, is capable of implementing the project substantially as specified in subdivisions (a) to (c), inclusive, of Section 3. If the Office of Criminal Justice Planning elects to contract for implementation of the project, it shall supervise the contracting corporation, as needed, to insure contract compliance. If the Office of Criminal Justice Planning elects to contract for implementation of the project, it shall make available to the contracting corporation at least 90 percent of the funds appropriated in this act, but may retain up to 10 percent of the funds so appropriated for administrative costs.

SEC. 3. (a) The purpose of the project shall be to serve as a free, nonthreatening, telephone referral service for runaways, directing them to available resources, including shelter, meals, clothing, counseling, and other services necessary for their well-being, and to serve as a message center for runaways who wish to communicate with their parents.

To this end, the project shall be headquartered in Sacramento either in facilities owned or leased by the state; if the project is quartered in leased space, the rate paid for that space shall not exceed the least expensive rate currently paid for leased facilities by the state.

(b) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall, in conjunction with providers of telephone service, establish and implement a statewide toll-free number to carry out the purposes of this act. The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall utilize the provider of telephone services that, in their opinion, provides the most efficient services at the lowest cost.

(c) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall publicize the existence of the referral service through the print and electronic media, including, but not limited to utilization of television and radio public service announcements, brochures, newspaper announcements, posters, bumper stickers, and agreements for the provision of publicity, free of charge, by private entities.

The Office of Criminal Justice Planning also shall cooperate with other services of this kind throughout the United States or existing local services in California, with the goal of aiding, rather than preempting, those local services.

SEC. 4. The sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning for the purposes of this act. The office of Criminal Justice Planning or the contracting corporation shall seek any federal and private funds available for the purposes of this act; the funds available pursuant to the appropriation made by this section shall be reduced by the amount of any federal or private funds received for the purposes of this act.

(b) Licensing requirements adopted pursuant to Section 1530 shall only continue to be applicable to child day care centers, and requirements adopted pursuant to Section 1597.51 shall continue to be applicable to family day care homes, until the department adopts regulations pursuant to this chapter. The department shall adopt regulations by July 1, 1985.

1596.82. The department may contract for state, county, or other public agencies to assume specified licensing, approval, or consultation responsibilities. If an agency also provides licensing, approval, or consultation responsibilities for the purpose of administering Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500), the agency shall maintain licensing staff positions distinct from those positions responsible for administering Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500). The department shall reimburse agencies for services performed pursuant to this section which shall not exceed actual cost.

The site visit shall be completed within 30 days after the receipt of all appropriate licensing documents.

1596.84. The department may issue provisional licenses to operate day care facilities for facilities which the director determines are in substantial compliance with the provisions of the licensure requirements and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, provided, that no life safety risks are involved, as determined by the director. In determining whether any life safety risks are involved, the director shall require completion of all applicable fire clearances and criminal record clearances as otherwise required by the department's rules and regulations. The provisional license shall expire six months from the date of issuance, or at such earlier time as the director may determine. However, the director may extend the term of a provisional license for an additional six months time, if it is determined that more than six months will be required to achieve full compliance with licensing standards due to circumstances beyond the control of the applicant, provided all other requirements for a license have been met.

1596.85. No license or special permit issued pursuant to Chapters 3.5 (commencing with Section 15967.90) and 3.6 (commencing with Section 1597.30) shall have any property value for sale or exchange purposes and no person, including any owner, agent, or broker, shall sell or exchange the license or special permit for any commercial purpose.

1596.851. If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant previously was issued a license under this chapter or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1200) or Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) and that the prior license was revoked within the preceding two years, the department shall cease any further review of the application until two years shall have elapsed from the date of the revocation. Cessation of review shall not constitute a denial of the application.

1596.852. Any duly authorized officer, employee, or agent of the department may, upon presentation of proper identification, enter and inspect any place providing personal care, supervision, and services at any time, with or without advance notice, to secure compliance with, or to prevent a violation of, any provision of this chapter.

1596.853. (a) Any person may request an inspection of any child day care facility in accordance with this chapter by transmitting to the department notice of an alleged violation of applicable requirements prescribed by the statutes or regulations of this state. A complaint may be made either orally or in writing.

Unless the complainant specifically requests otherwise, neither the substance of the complaint provided the licensee nor any copy of the complaint or any record published, released, or otherwise made available to the licensee shall disclose the name of any person mentioned in the complaint, except the name of any duly authorized officer, employee, or agent of the department conducting the investigation or inspection pursuant to this chapter.

(c) Upon receipt of a complaint, other than a complaint alleging denial of a statutory right of access to a child day care facility, the department shall make a preliminary review and, unless the department determines that the complaint is willfully intended to harass a licensee or is without any reasonable basis, the department shall make an onsite inspection within 10 days after receiving the complaint. In either event, the complainant shall be promptly informed of the department's proposed course of action.

(d) Upon receipt of a complaint alleging denial of a statutory right of access to a child day care facility, the department shall review the complaint. The complainant shall be notified promptly of the department's proposed course of action.

1596.854. The withdrawal of an application for a license or a special permit after it has been filed with the department shall not, unless the department consents in writing to the withdrawal, deprive the department of its authority to institute or continue a proceeding against the applicant for the denial of the license or a special permit upon any ground provided by law or to enter an order denying the license or special permit upon any such ground.

The suspension, expiration, or forfeiture by operation of law of a license or a special permit issued by the department, or its suspension, forfeiture, or cancellation by order of the department or by order of a court of law, or its surrender without the written consent of the department, shall not deprive the department of its authority to institute or continue a disciplinary proceeding against the licensee or holder of a special permit upon any ground provided by law or to enter an order suspending or revoking the license or special permit or otherwise taking disciplinary action against the licensee or holder of a special permit on any such ground.

1596.855. Upon initial licensure, child day care facilities shall be provided a printed copy of all applicable regulations by the department without charge and at any other time when revisions in the regulations are reprinted for distribution.

1596.856. If the department finds that the applicant is not in compliance with this act or the regulations promulgated under this act, the department shall deny the applicant a license or license renewal.

(a) The director shall annually publish and make available to interested persons a list or lists covering all licensed day care facilites, other than small family day care homes, and the services for which each facility has been licensed or issued a special permit. The lists shall also specify the licensed capacity of the facility and whether it is licensed by the department or by another public agency.

(b) To encourage the recruitment of small family day care homes and protect their personal privacy, the department shall promulgate regulations to prevent the use of lists containing names, addresses and other identifying information of facilities identified as small family day care homes, except as necessary for administering the licensing program, facilitating the placement of children in these facilities, and providing the names and addresses only to resource and referral agencies, family day care organizations, or parents seeking local day care services, upon request.

1596.87. The department shall institute a staff development and training program within the organization structure to develop among staff the knowledge and understanding of children and child care necessary to successfully carry out this chapter. Specifically, the department shall do all of the following:

(d) Submit for approval to the advisory committee established in Section 8286 of the Education Code a plan for meeting the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (c).

1596.871. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to require the fingerprints of those individuals whose contact with child day care facility clients may pose a risk to the children's health and safety.

(a) Before issuing a license or special permit to any person to operate or manage a day care facility center, the department shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation. No fee shall be charged by the Department of Justice or the department for the fingerprinting of an applicant who will serve six or fewer children for a license or for obtaining a criminal record of such an applicant pursuant to this section. If it is found that the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has been convicted of a crime, other than a minor traffic violation, the application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (e).

(b) In addition to the applicant, the provisions of this section shall be applicable to criminal convictions of the following persons:

(1) Adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff.

(2) Any person, other than a child, residing in the facility.

(3) Any person who provides assistance to the children in care in dressing, grooming, bathing, or personal hygiene.

(4) Any staff person or employee who has frequent and routine contact with the children. In determining who has frequent contact, any volunteer who is in the facility shall be exempt unless the volunteer is used to place or supplement staff in providing direct care and supervision of children in care. In determining who has routine contact, staff and employees under direct onsite supervision and who are not providing direct care and supervision or who have only occasional or intermittent contact with clients shall be exempt. At the time of employment, all staff and employees required to be fingerprinted shall sign a statement regarding prior criminal convictions and be fingerprinted. Fingerprints shall be submitted to the licensing agency within 20 days following employment.

(5) If the applicant is a firm, partnership, association, or corporation, the chief executive officer, other person serving in like capacity, or a person designated by the chief executive officer as responsible for the operation of the facility.

(6) Additional officers of the governing body of the applicant, or other persons with a financial interest in the applicant, as determined necessary by the department by regulation. The criteria used in the development of these regulations shall be based on the person's capability to exercise substantial influence over the operation of the facility.

(7) This section does not apply to adult volunteers or adult staff employed by the applicant on an intermittent basis for less than 10 days per month, provided that these adults are under constant supervision by adults who meet the requirements of this section.

(8) The provisions of this section do not apply to employees of school districts operating day care centers under contract with the State Department of Education.

(c) Subsequent to initial licensure, any person specified in subdiviison (b) and not exempted from fingerprinting shall, as a condition to employment, residence, or presence in a child day care facility be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal conviction. The licensee shall submit these fingerprints to the licensing agency not later than 20 days following employment, residence, or initial presence in the child day care facility. Except for persons specified in paragraph (2) or subdivision (b), the licensee shall endeavor to ascertain the previous employment history of persons required to be fingerprinted under this subdivision. If it is determined by the department, on the basis of fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of a sex offense against a minor, or has been convicted for an offense specified in Section 273a or 273d of the Penal Code, or has been convicted of a felony, the Department of Social Services shall notify the licensee to act immediately to terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the child day care facility, or bar the person from entering the child day care facility. The department may subsequently grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (e). If the conviction was for another crime except a minor traffic violation, the licensee shall, upon notification by the Department of Social Services, act immediately to either (1) terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the child day care facility, or (2) seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (d). The department shall determine if the person shall be allowed to remain in the facility until a decision on the exemption is rendered.

(d) For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action which the department is permitted to take following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to Sections 1203.4 and 1203.4a of the Penal Code permitting the person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. exemption from disqualification for a license or special permit pursuant to subdivision (a), or for employment, residence, or presence in a child day care facility as specified in subdivision (c) if the director has substantial and convincing evidence to support a reasonable belief that the applicant and the person convicted of the crime, if other than the applicant, are of such good character as to justify issuance of the license or special permit or granting an exemption for purposes of subdivision (c). However, no exemption shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision if the conviction was for an offense specified in paragraph (1) of Section 273a or 273d of the Penal Code, or was a conviction of another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code.

(f) Immediately upon the denial of any application for a license or for a special permit, the department shall notify the applicant in writing. Within 15 days after the department mails the notice, the applicant may present his or her written petition for a hearing to the department. CHAPTER 1618

An act to amend Sections 330 and 18969 of, and to add and repeal Sections 18964, 18964.1, 18964.5, 18964.6, and 18964.7 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to child abuse prevention, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the cost of removing children from the home because of abuse and neglect is exceedingly high. The Legislature further finds and declares that other states have resolved this problem through various successful models which can be effectively utilized in this state.

SEC. 2. Section 330 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

330. In any case in which a probation officer after investigation of an application for petition or other investigation he or she is authorized to make, determines that a minor is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court or will probably soon be within that jurisdiction, the probation officer may, in lieu of filing a petition or subsequent to dismissal of a petition already filed, and with consent of the minor's parent or guardian, undertake a program of supervision of the minor, for a period not to exceed six months. Commencing on October 1, 1983, services may be extended up to an additional six months if it can be shown that the objectives of the service plan can be achieved within the extended time period. If a program of supervision is undertaken, the probation officer shall attempt to ameliorate the situation which brings the minor within, or creates the probability that the minor will be within, the jurisdiction of Section 300 by providing or arranging to contract for all appropriate child welfare services pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16500) of Part 4 of Division 9. No further in-home child welfare services shall be provided subsequent to these time limits. If the family has refused to cooperate with the services being provided, the probation officer may file a petition with the juvenile court pursuant to Section 332. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the probation officer from filing a petition pursuant to Section 332 when otherwise authorized by law.

The program of supervision of the minor undertaken pursuant to this section may call for the minor to obtain care and treatment for the misuse of restricted dangerous drugs or addiction to narcotics from a county mental health service or other appropriate community agency.

Probation departments in counties designated by the department as pilot projects for in-home care programs, pursuant to Section 18964, may place , and will designate, a projected number of children to be referred each year in these projects.

SEC. 3. Section 18964 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

18964. The Office of Child Abuse Prevention shall contract for the operation of six pilot projects to be based on in-home care.

Each of the pilot projects shall develop programs of in-home care designed to avoid out-of-home placement of abused or neglected children. These programs:

(a) Provide in-home services utilizing licensed therapists who have at least a masters degree or the equivalent combination of education and experience.

(b) Provide intensive supplemental training to any staff therapist concerning therapeutic techniques and local resources before assigning any client to the therapist.

(c) Limit the number of families assigned to a therapist at any given time to a maximum of two.

(d) Offer services only to families where it appears that unless the program's services are provided, it will be necessary to place one or more children out of the home.

(e) Have the therapist assigned to a family, be on call and available to the family 24 hours a day, for a period appropriate to the family's needs, which is ordinarily a period of four to six weeks.

(f) Keep records, conduct internal evaluation, and cooperate with external evaluation as directed by the Office of Child Abuse Prevention.

To qualify for continued funding each agency shall meet the following annual minimum performance goals:

(1) Each agency shall demonstrate a success rate of 75 percent in avoiding out-of-home placement six months after intervention, with increased success rates in subsequent years.

(2) Each agency shall submit a detailed budget and annual audit.

(3) Each agency shall submit a letter of agreement from an established in-home care program or the local county welfare or probation department indicating continued support and affiliation with the funded agency.

These pilot projects shall provide services to children who are within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 330, or who are dependent children not taken from the physical custody of their parents or guardian pursuant to Section 364, or who are dependent children removed from the physical custody of their parents or guardian pursuant to Section 361. The caseworker may return a dependent child removed from the home pursuant to Section 361, with appropriate pilot project services, in an appropriate case, pursuant to a new court order which may be granted on an ex parte basis. Caseworkers shall provide intensive assistance to families with children who have suffered child abuse or neglect. Services shall be described and ordered in the case plan developed by the probation officer.

The six pilot projects shall be located in different counties selected by the Office of Child Abuse Prevention. There shall be geographic equity in the selection of counties and at least one county shall be rural. Services to minority populations shall be reflected in the funding of programs. Rural counties are those having populations of under 125,000. The selection of agencies to be funded shall be determined by the Office of Child Abuse Prevention utilizing a representative from a local county welfare department selected by the respective county board of supervisors to participate on the selection committee. In no event shall the county representative be affiliated with any agency that bids for a contract pursuant to Section 18964.5. Each project shall be funded at a level of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) per year, except that the funding level for each project shall be commensurate, and may be reduced in accordance, with the number of children to be served by that project.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1988, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute chaptered prior to that date extends or deletes that date.

SEC. 4. Section 18964.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

18964.1. The Office of Child Abuse Prevention shall develop specific criteria to contract for the operation of three pilot projects, designed to maximize the safety, security, comfort, and quality of life of children aged 14 or under who are in self-care during hours of parental employment or other unavailability, by training families in how to accomplish these goals, and by other techniques designed to accomplish these goals that are consistent with the requests for proposals issued pursuant to Section 18964.5. Geographic equity throughout the state and services to minority populations shall be reflected in the funding of programs.

The three pilot projects shall be located in different counties selected by the office. At least one county shall be rural. Rural counties are those having populations of under 125,000.

Each pilot project shall provide training to families who use self-care with young children. The selection of agencies to be funded shall be determined by the Office of Child Abuse Prevention utilizing a representative from a local coordinating child abuse council selected by the respective county board of supervisors to participate on the selection committee. Each project shall receive no more than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) per year.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1988, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute chaptered prior to that date extends or deletes that date.

SEC. 5. Section 18964.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

18964.5. Contracts for pilot projects established under Sections 18964 and 18964.1 shall be entered into utilizing a competitive bid basis. Contracts may only be entered into by public or private nonprofit agencies, except for child protection agencies as defined in subdivision (k) of Section 11165 of the Penal Code.

Projects shall be evaluated through internal and external evaluation processes. The total cost of the external evaluation of the projects under both Sections 18964 and 18964.1 shall not exceed two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($225,000). A contract or contracts for evaluation shall be entered into utilizing a competitive bid basis, with no restriction on the categories of agencies that may bid. Requests for evaluation proposals shall be issued within 90 days of the effective date of the addition of this section, as enacted, during the 1983–84 Regular Session. Requests for pilot project proposals shall be issued within 90 days of the date the requests for evaluation proposals are issued.

Agencies selected for funding shall receive funds in a timely manner, including an advance of funds when necessary to initiate a project.

The State Department of Social Services shall conduct yearly audits of agencies contracting to establish pilot projects pursuant to Sections 18964 and 18964.1 in order to assure contract compliance.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute chaptered prior to that date, extends or deletes that date.

SEC. 6. Section 18964.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

18964.6. The Office of Child Abuse Prevention shall develop a system of written guidelines for funding and a system of performance standards for monitoring the effectiveness of the pilot programs. The standards shall consist of measurable objectives, including, but not limited to, a measure of success at avoiding the need for out-of-home placement and the cessation of abuse, neglect, or sexual exploitation. Each pilot project shall be evaluated in terms of these standards. The effectiveness of programs of pilot projects funded pursuant to Sections 18964 and 18964.1 shall be evaluated by a public institution or private nonprofit agency or other qualified organization selected by the department. Funding for the evaluation of these pilot projects shall be provided from the State Children's Trust Fund.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute chaptered prior to that date, extends or deletes that date.

SEC. 7. Section 18964.7 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

18964.7. During the 1986–87 fiscal year, the Auditor General shall evaluate compliance with the competitive process for contracting with agencies pursuant to Section 18964.5, including timely distribution of funds. In addition, the Auditor General shall evaluate compliance with Section 18964.6. The Auditor General shall report to the Legislature on his or her findings no later than December 31, 1986.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1988, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute chaptered prior to that date extends or deletes that date.

SEC. 8. Section 18969 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

18969. There is hereby created in the State Treasury a fund which shall be known as the State Children's Trust Fund. The fund shall consist of funds received from a county pursuant to Section 18968, funds collected by the state and transferred to the fund pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 10605 of the Health and Safety Code and Article 6 (commencing with Section 18500) of Chapter 17 of Part 10 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, grants, gifts, or bequests made to the state from private sources to be used for child abuse and neglect prevention and money appropriated to the fund for this purpose by the Legislature. The State Registrar may retain a percentage of the fees collected pursuant to Section 10605 of the Health and Safety Code, not to exceed 10 percent, in order to defray the costs of collection. The Franchise Tax Board may retain up to 5 percent of the taxpayer contributions to the fund made pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 18500) of Chapter 17 of Part 10 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to reimburse the board for the costs of administering that article.

Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, money in the State Children's Trust Fund is continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal years to the State Department of Social Services for the purpose of funding child abuse and neglect prevention and intervention programs. CHAPTER 1619

An act to amend Section 8851 of, to add Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 8850) to Part 6 of, and to repeal Section 8852 of, the Education Code, and to amend Item 6100-101-890 of Chapter 258 of the Statutes of 1984, relating to education, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 8850) is added to Part 6 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5.5. FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS AND PARENTING EDUCATION

8850. The Legislature finds all of the following:

(a) The family is our most fundamental social institution, and the institution which plays the most influential role in the growth of each individual human being.

(b) It is within the family context that a person first learns the values, assumptions, rules, attitudes, and skills necessary for functioning in society, acquires a sense of self and of self-worth, and forms the primary bond which, to a substantial extent, determines the nature and quality of subsequent personal and social relations.

(c) The character, presence, awareness, knowledge, and skills of persons who are parents profoundly affects the healthy growth and development of the children of the family.

(d) Scientific research increasingly indicates that child abuse—the opposite of healthy parenting—is one of the root causes of violence in our society.

(e) There is now developing a body of knowledge about healthy child and human development that would prove useful and valuable for persons undertaking the responsibilities of parenthood.

(f) It is crucial to teach parenting skills to our children while they are in their formative years in order to enable them to have the greatest possibility of success in being parents.

(g) Good family relationships and parenting education shall seek to accomplish all of the following:

(1) To have a positive impact on increasing knowledge, self-awareness, self-esteem, and decisionmaking skills.

(2) To promote respect for parental values.

(3) To promote realistic expectations of children that are appropriate to the age and developmental level of the child.

(4) To increase interpersonal communication skills.

(5) To promote individual self-worth.

(6) To promote respect for each other.

(7) To educate the parents of current students as well as the students themselves.

(h) Successful family relationships and parenting education requires a strong base of parent and community involvement and partnership, and recognizes and supports parents as the primary life educators.

(i) There are exemplary family relationships and parenting education programs in some school districts in our state, while other school districts have either less comprehensive programs or no programs at all. The Legislature does not intend to supplant existing programs, but to further develop these programs, as well as to assist in the development of new programs.

(j) It would be beneficial to school districts interested in creating or improving their family relationships and parenting education programs to have the State Department of Education assist them with development, technical, and financial assistance.

8850.5. "Family relationships and parenting education," as used in this chapter, means an instructional program designed to provide pupils at all grade levels with age-appropriate components, including all of the following:

(a) Development of an understanding of the physical, mental, emotional, social, economic, and psychological aspects of themselves and others, and of the physiological, psychological, and cultural foundations of human development.

(b) The opportunity to acquire knowledge which will support the development of responsible family relationships, strengthen the pupil's current family life, and further the understanding of the role of the parent.

(c) Development of an understanding of the consequences of decisions and actions upon personal, family, and peer relationships.

(d) Recognition of, and attention to, the significance of healthy self-esteem in the growth and development of healthy human beings.

8851. (a) The State Department of Education shall make a survey of school districts within this state to determine the existence, character, and components of their current programs and their needs in family relationships and parenting education curricula.

(b) Based on the results of the study and other available relevant information, the department shall review and revise a comprehensive scope and sequence for family relationships and parenting education for the optional use of school districts.

8852. (a) There is hereby created in the State Department of Education a statewide advisory committee on family relationships and parenting education for the purpose of advising the department on the scope and sequence, and assisting in, the selection of programs as provided in this chapter.

(b) The advisory committee shall be socioeconomically and culturally diverse and shall consist of 15 persons, including representatives of all of the following groups evidencing an interest in parenting education:

(1) At least two students, one of whom shall be male and one of whom shall be female.

(2) Parents.

(3) School administrators.

(4) School board members.

(5) Teachers.

(6) Members of nonprofit organizations.

(c) The advisory committee shall be appointed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(d) The committee members shall serve without compensation, except for travel and per diem expenses.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1987, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 31, 1987, deletes or extends that date.

8853. Upon completion by the department of the scope and sequence of a family relationships and parenting education curricula, and on or before April 1, 1986, the department shall issue requests for proposals to school districts, nonprofit organizations that have evidenced an interest in family relationships and parenting education, and postsecondary institutions for awards to aid in the implementation of family relationships and parenting education programs in school districts. In making the basic awards, the scope and sequence shall be used by the department as a basic guide, with consideration given to the school districts' interpretation of their own community's needs and level of instruction.

School districts, nonprofit organizations, or postsecondary education institutions are encouraged to utilize local parent and community involvement in the development of the request for proposal and the implementation of the awards.

8854. (a) The department shall grant awards in amounts not to exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) per year, on a competitive basis, as funds are available. Priority for awards shall be given by the department to proposals that provide for matching funds from other sources, including in-kind services and contributions, and community involvement.

(b) Awards shall be made by the department equitably to districts in the northern and southern areas of this state, on or before June 1, 1986. A minimum of one-fourth of all awards shall go to school districts serving rural areas.

8855. The department shall examine the recipient programs and provide the Legislature with an interim overall report by September 1, 1987.

SEC. 2. Section 8851 of the Education Code, as added by Section 1 of this act, is amended to read:

8851. (a) The State Department of Education shall make a survey of school districts within this state to determine the existence, character, and components of their current programs and their needs in family relationships and parenting education curricula. The survey shall include any information requested by the State Department of Education for the review required under Section 51267.

(b) Based on the results of the study and other available relevant information, the department shall review and revise a comprehensive scope and sequence for family relationships and parenting education for the optional use by school districts.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if SB 1616 of the 1983–84 Regular Session is enacted, adds Sections 51267 to the Education Code, and becomes effective on or before January 1, 1985, and in that case shall become operative on January 1, 1985.

SEC. 4. Item 6100-101-890 of Chapter 258 of the Statutes of 1984 is amended to read:

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2179.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2179.5. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Division of Licensing strongly urge those organizations responsible for the development of physician licensing examinations to include within those examinations increased emphasis on medical problems of the elderly.

SEC. 2. Part 7 (commencing with Section 1190) is added to Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

PART 7. GERIATRIC PROGRAMS

CHAPTER 1. LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS AND INTENT

1190. (a) The Legislature finds that approximately 12.9 percent of all Californians will be over 65 years of age by the year 2000. As the number of elderly and the amount spent for their health care have increased, serious problems have arisen regarding the availability, quality, and appropriateness of the health services received by the elderly.

The Legislature also finds that there is a need to increase knowledge with respect to the major diseases and disabilities affecting older adults, and to improve the quality of long-term care available to chronically ill and functionally impaired persons.

The Legislature recognizes the vital role that physicians and registered nurses play in the delivery of health care to the elderly and chronically ill. The Legislature also recognizes the desirability of a multidisciplinary approach to meeting the needs of those persons.

(b) The Legislature further recognizes the leadership role taken by the University of California in addressing the needs of the elderly. It is the intent of the Legislature to further encourage the gerontological pursuits of the University of California.

1191. It is the purpose of the Legislature, in enacting this part, to establish academic geriatric resource programs at the University of California medical or other health science campuses. A multidisciplinary approach shall be utilized in the development of these programs. The programs shall include, but not be limited to, one or more of the following elements:

(a) Preclinical, clinical, or postgraduate educational programs in geriatrics for health science students to instruct and train them in recognizing and responding to the needs and dynamics of the geriatric care of elderly patients.

(b) Provision of continuing education in geriatrics for health care providers and the general public.

(c) A teaching nursing home program to research nursing home health care practices and to instruct and train health science students about geriatric care.

1192. For purposes of this part, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Academic geriatric resource program" means a program which includes one of the elements specified in Section 1191.

(b) "Nursing home" means a licensed skilled nursing or licensed intermediate care facility, as defined by Section 1250.

CHAPTER 1621

An act to amend Sections 12200 and 14005.12 of, and to add Sections 12100.5 and 14110.4 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12100.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

12100.5. The department shall seek to enter into an agreement with the secretary for the purpose of administration by the secretary of the amount set forth in subdivision (h) of Section 12200.

SEC. 2. Section 12200 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

12200. An aged, blind or disabled applicant or recipient shall be paid an amount of aid which when added to his or her federal benefit received under Part A of Title XVI of the Social Security Act and other nonexempt income and resources, equals the following:

(a) For a blind applicant or recipient, the sum of five hundred thirty-five dollars ($535) per month and for a married couple both qualifying for benefits under this chapter as blind, the sum of one thousand forty-one dollars ($1,041) per month.

(b) For a married couple, both qualifying for benefits under this chapter, and one of whom is blind, the sum of nine hundred eighty-two dollars ($982) per month.

(c) For an aged or disabled applicant or recipient, the sum of four hundred seventy-seven dollars ($477) per month.

(d) For a married couple both qualifying for benefits under this chapter as aged or disabled, the sum of eight hundred eighty-six dollars ($886) per month.

(e) For an aged or disabled applicant or recipient under subdivision (c) or for a married couple under subdivision (d) whose living arrangement prevents preparation of his or her or their meals at home shall be entitled to an allowance of fifty-one dollars ($51) per month for an individual and one hundred three dollars ($103) per month for a married couple in addition to any other amount he or she is entitled to under this chapter.

(f) For a disabled minor under 18 living with a parent or guardian or relative by blood or marriage, the sum of three hundred seventy-eight dollars ($378) per month.

(g) For a recipient in a nonmedical out-of-home care facility, the sum of five hundred thirty-nine dollars ($539) per month.

(h) For the personal and incidental needs of a person receiving care in a medical facility under the Medi-Cal Act, the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25) per month. In the event the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services agrees to administer a higher amount payment, the sum shall be thirty-five dollars ($35) per month.

(i) In the case of any individual, or couple, whose federal benefit received under Part A of Title XVI of the Social Security Act is reduced in accordance with Section 1612(a)(2)(A) of Public Law 92-603 because he lives in another person's household and receives support and maintenance-in-kind from such person, the appropriate grant level set forth in subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d) of this section shall be reduced by the amount of the reduction in the federal benefit, subject to the provisions in Section 12204.

This subdivision shall be operative only during such time that such in-kind support and maintenance, under federal law, is treated as providing the basis for a lower payment standard rather than being treated as the receipt of unearned income.

This section shall become effective on January 1, 1984.

SEC. 3. Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall become effective only upon receipt of a formal approval by the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services to administer a higher payment level under subdivision (h) of Section 12200 of the Welfare and Institutions Code in the amount of thirty-five dollars ($35). The State Director of Social Services shall take all necessary actions in order to attempt to obtain approval for this higher payment level of the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

SEC. 4. Section 14005.12 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14005.12. (a) For the purposes of Sections 14005.4 and 14005.7, the department shall establish the income levels for maintenance need at the lowest levels that reasonably permit medically needy persons to meet their basic needs for food, clothing, and shelter, and for which federal financial participation will still be provided under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act. It is the intent of the Legislature that the income levels for maintenance need for medically needy aged, blind, and disabled adults, in particular, shall be based upon amounts that adequately reflect their needs.

(b) In the case of a single individual, the amount of the income level for maintenance per month shall be 80 percent of the highest amount that would ordinarily be paid to a family of two persons, without any income or resources, under subdivision (a) of Section 11450, multiplied by the federal financial participation rate.

(c) In the case of a family of two adults, the income level for maintenance per month shall be the highest amount that would ordinarily be paid to a family of three persons without income or resources under subdivision (a) of Section 11450, multiplied by the federal financial participation rate.

(d) For the purposes of Sections 14005.4 and 14005.7, for a person in long-term care, the amount considered as required for maintenance per month shall be computed pursuant to regulations which provide for the following purposes:

(1) Personal and incidental needs in the amount of not less than thirty-five dollars ($35) per month while a patient. The department may, by regulation, increase this amount as necessitated by increasing costs of personal and incidental needs. A long-term health care facility shall not charge an individual for the laundry services or periodic hair care specified in Section 14110.4.

(2) The upkeep and maintenance of the home.

(3) The support and care of his or her spouse, minor dependents and any disabled relative for whose support he or she has contributed regularly.

(4) If federal requirements permit such a person to own an automobile of greater value than is permitted in the case of recipients of aid under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12000), the department shall adopt the more liberal allowance in its rules and regulations.

(e) The income levels for maintenance per month, except as specified in subdivisions (b) through (d), shall be equal to the highest amounts that would ordinarily be paid to a family of the same size without any income or resources under subdivision (a) of Section 11450, multiplied by the federal financial participation rate.

(f) The "federal financial participation rate," as used in this section, shall mean 133⅓ percent, or such other rate set forth in Section 1903 of the federal Social Security Act, or its successor provisions.

(g) The income levels for maintenance per month shall not be decreased to reflect the presence in the household of persons receiving forms of aid other than Medi-Cal.

(h) When family members maintain separate residences, but eligibility is determined as a single unit under Section 14008, the income levels for maintenance per month shall be established for each household in accordance with subdivisions (b) to (g), inclusive. The total of these levels shall be the level for the single eligibility unit.

(i) The income levels for maintenance per month established pursuant to subdivisions (b) to (h), inclusive, shall be calculated on an annual basis, rounded to the next higher multiple of one hundred dollars ($100), and then prorated.

SEC. 5. Section 14110.4 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14110.4. (a) All laundry services for all apparel, linen, garments, towels, and hospital gowns shall be provided by a skilled nursing or intermediate care facility at no cost to a recipient under this chapter. These laundry services shall be considered as part of the basic care provided by the facility under the daily rate provided for pursuant to this chapter. The director shall, if necessary, adjust the daily rate to provide for the costs of these services. A skilled nursing or intermediate care facility may, however, charge the patient a fee to provide special drycleaning or treatment for a garment needing this care, when the garment is owned by the patient and when the regular laundry service is not appropriate.

(b) A skilled nursing or intermediate care facility shall provide a periodic hair trim as part of its care for all patients who are recipients under this chapter. This service shall be included as part of the daily rate provided for pursuant to this chapter. The director shall, if necessary, adjust the daily rate to provide for the costs of these services. A skilled nursing or intermediate care facility may, however, charge a fee for beauty shop services for patients who request special treatments or styling of their hair.

(c) The director shall seek all federal funds available for implementation of this section.

SEC. 6. The sum of one million six hundred ninety-two thousand five hundred dollars ($1,692,500) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Health Care Deposit Fund for the purposes of implementing Section 4 of this act.

SEC. 7. Notwithstanding Section 2231.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this act does not contain a repealer, as required by that section; therefore, the provisions of this act shall remain in effect unless and until they are amended or repealed by a later enacted act.

CHAPTER 1622

An act to add Section 14105.9 to, and Article 6.1 (commencing with Section 14195) to Chapter 7 of Part 3 of Division 9 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1984. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1984.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14105.9 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14105.9. Whenever the department receives an application to add a drug to the formulary which is a different dosage form, or strength of a drug product which is listed in the formulary, the director may add the product to the formulary without review by the Medical Therapeutics and Drug Advisory Committee, and the addition shall be deemed to comply with the requirements of the California Administrative Procedures Act.

SEC. 2. Article 6.1 (commencing with Section 14195) of Chapter 7 of Part 3 of Division 9 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 6.1. Medi-Cal Open Drug Formulary

14195. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide medical assistance, including prescribed drugs, to the state's eligible poor in a manner consistent with the provisions of the federal Medicaid Act, provided for under Title XIX of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1396 et seq.). It is the further intent of the Legislature to test the effectiveness of an open formulary drug therapy program, in conjunction with the use of a therapeutic system of drug utilization review, in reducing the costs to the state of providing acute and long-term care services. In order to help achieve this goal, the Legislature hereby establishes an open drug formulary under the Medi-Cal program wherein a beneficiary may receive the most appropriate, most effective, and most cost-efficient drug available for the treatment of his or her illness.

14195.1. The open drug formulary, as established pursuant to this article, shall be implemented in one pilot project site. The site shall be located in a northern California test area, comprised of Sacramento and Placer Counties which includes urban, suburban, and rural settings.

14195.2. (a) For purposes of this article, a provider may be reimbursed for any drug prescribed to a beneficiary if the drug is prescribed by a licensed provider within the scope of his or her practice, as defined by law, and if the drug is approved for use by the federal Food and Drug Administration.

(b) Controlled substances shall be prescribed pursuant to the requirements of federal laws and regulations and the requirements set forth in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11150) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) For purposes of this article, there shall be no requirement that prior authorization be obtained by a provider before prescribing any drug to a beneficiary if the provider determines the drug to be a medical necessity in the treatment of the beneficiary.

(d) For purposes of this article, a drug determined to be a medical necessity shall be one whose use in the treatment is reasonable and consistent with the objectives of the federal Medicaid Act as set forth in Title XIX of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1396 et seq.).

14195.3. A Medi-Cal Therapeutic Drug Utilization and Review Committee shall be established in the pilot test area, composed of 16 members each to be appointed in the following manner:

(a) The Governor shall appoint two representatives from the State Department of Health Services and two representatives from schools of pharmacy.

(b) The Governor, the Speaker of the Assembly, and the Senate Rules Committee shall each appoint one representative from the following groups:

(1) Pharmacists.

(2) Physicians.

(3) Drug manufacturers.

(4) Medi-Cal beneficiaries.

The members of the committee shall select one of its members to act as chairperson.

14195.4. Members of the committee shall be provided with per diem and reimbursed for travel and expenses incurred while performing works of the committee.

14195.5. The Medi-Cal Therapeutic Drug Utilization and Review Committee shall set standards for therapeutic utilization review and control to be implemented either by the department or through a private contractor. The committee shall be charged with all of the following responsibilities:

(a) Developing policy for monitoring and control of drug utilization based on therapeutic effectiveness.

(b) Overseeing the establishment of a computer-based information system that will provide timely information on drug prescription and consumption and that will be capable of tracking by drug, by illness, by beneficiary, and by provider. In addition, this system shall include information on acute or long-term care admissions related to under or inappropriate utilization of drugs.

(c) Establishing standards for dosage, duration, and effectiveness of medications according to particular diagnoses.

(d) Setting standards to serve as guidelines on misprescribing, overprescribing, and contraindicated drug use.
