12897. The board may elect to avail itself of the assessments made by the assessors of the counties in which the district is situated, and may take such assessments as the basis for district taxation and have its taxes collected by the county officials if the board declares its election so to do by resolution or ordinance and files a certified copy of the resolution or ordinance on or before the first day of August with the auditors of the counties in which the district is situated. Thereafter, each year and until otherwise provided by the board, all assessments shall be made and taxes collected for the district by the county assessors and tax collectors of the counties in which the district is situated.

Same
Transmission of statement to board

12898. In such case the county auditor shall, on or before the third Monday in August of each year, transmit to the board a statement in writing showing the total value of all property within the district, ascertained from the assessments referred to in Section 12897 as equalized.

(Amended by Stats. 1951, Ch. 1632.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

12898. In such case the county auditors shall, on or before the second Monday in August of each year, transmit to the board a statement in writing showing the total value of all property within the district, ascertained from the county assessment books for that year as equalized and corrected by the boards of supervisors.

Rate of taxes

12899. In case the board elects to avail itself of the assessments referred to in Section 12897 it shall, on or before the first week day in September, or if such week day falls upon a holiday then on the first business day thereafter, fix the rate of taxes, designating the number of cents upon each hundred dollars, using as a basis the value of property transmitted to the board by the county auditors, which rate of taxation shall be sufficient to raise the amount previously fixed by the board. These acts by the board shall constitute a valid assessment of the property and a valid levy of the taxes so fixed.

(Amended by Stats. 1951, Ch. 1632.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

12899. In case the board elects to avail itself of county assessments it shall, on or before the first week day in September, or if such week day falls upon a holiday then on the first business day thereafter, fix the rate of taxes, designating the number of cents upon each hundred dollars, using as a basis the value of property as assessed by the county assessors and returned to the board by the county auditors, which rate of taxation shall be sufficient to raise the amount previously fixed by the board. These acts by the board shall constitute a valid assessment of the property and a valid levy of the taxes so fixed.

Same
Transmission to county auditor

12900. The board shall immediately after fixing the rate of taxes as above provided transmit to the county auditors of the counties in which the district is situated a statement of the rate of taxes fixed by the board.

(Amended by Stats. 1951, Ch. 1632.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

12900. The board shall immediately after fixing the rate of taxes based on county assessments transmit to the county auditors of the counties in which the district is situated a statement of the rate of taxes fixed by the board.

Collection of taxes

12901. The district's taxes so levied shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as county taxes. When collected the net amount, ascertained as provided in this article, shall be paid to the treasurer of the district, under the general requirements and penalties provided by law for the settlement of other taxes.

Proceeds of redemption

12902. Whenever any real property situate in any district which has availed itself of the provisions of Section 12897 has been sold for taxes and has been redeemed, the money paid for redemption shall be apportioned and paid to the district by the county treasurers receiving it in the proportion which the tax due to the district bears to the total tax for which the property was sold.

Compensation to county

12903. The compensation to be charged by and paid to any county for the performance of services under this article shall be fixed by agreement between the board of supervisors of the county and the board. The compensation shall in no event exceed one-half of 1 percent of all money collected for the district. The compensation collected by the county shall be placed to the credit of the county salary fund.

Lien for taxes

12904. All taxes levied under this division are a lien on the property on which they are levied. Unless the board has by ordinance otherwise provided, the enforcement of the collection of such taxes shall be in the same manner and by the same means provided by law for the enforcement of liens for county taxes, all the provisions of law relating to the enforcement of the latter being made a part of this division, so far as applicable.

CHAPTER 7. BONDS

Article 1. Issuance

Purposes

13201. A district may from time to time incur a bonded indebtedness as provided in this chapter to pay the cost of acquiring, constructing, or completing the whole or any portion of any utility or works referred to in this division, or for acquiring any works, lands, structures, rights, or other property necessary or convenient to carry out the objects, purposes, or powers of the district.

Special bond election Resolution of board

13202. Whenever the board by resolution passed by vote of two-thirds of all its members determines that the public interest or necessity demands the acquisition, construction, or completion by the district of any public utility or utilities referred to in this division or any works, lands, structures, rights, or other property necessary or convenient to carry out the objects, purposes, or powers of the district, the cost of which will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of the district, it may at any subsequent meeting of the board provide for the submission of the proposition of incurring a bonded indebtedness for the purpose set forth in the resolution to the voters of the district at a special bond election held for that purpose.

Same Petition of voters

13203. In lieu of a resolution passed by the board, proceedings for the issuance of bonds for the purposes provided in this chapter may be initiated by petition of the voters of the district.

Petition Examination, verification, certification

13204. Whenever any petition signed by voters within the district equal in number to at least 15 percent of the total vote cast is presented to the board asking for the acquisition, construction, or completion of the whole or any portion of any utility or works referred to in this division or for acquiring any works, lands, structures, rights, or other property necessary or convenient to carry out the objects, purposes, or powers of the district, and also asking that a bonded indebtedness be incurred to pay for the cost thereof, the secretary of the district shall immediately examine and verify the signatures of the petition and certify the result of the examination to the board

Transmission to board

13205. If the required number of signatures is found to be genuine, the secretary shall transmit to the board an authentic copy of the petition without the signatures.

Election

13206. Upon receiving a petition with the certificate of the secretary stating that it contains the required number of signatures, the board shall formulate for submission to the voters of the district at a special bond election called for that purpose the proposition of incurring a bonded indebtedness for the purposes set forth in the petition. In its discretion the board may defer the calling of the election until the next general election to be held in the district in order to consolidate them.

Same Contents of ordinance

13207. The ordinance calling a special bond election shall fix the date on which the election will be held, and the manner of holding the election and of voting for or against incurring the indebtedness. It shall also recite the objects and purposes for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred, the estimated cost of the utility, works, lands, structures, rights, or other property proposed to be acquired, constructed, or completed, the amount of the principal of the indebtedness to be incurred therefor, and the maximum rate of interest to be paid on the indebtedness, which shall not exceed 6 percent per annum, payable semiannually. If, however, the rate of interest to be paid on the indebtedness does not exceed 4½ percent per annum, payable semiannually, the rate of interest need not be recited in the ordinance.

More than one project

13208. Propositions for incurring indebtedness for more than one object or purpose may be submitted at the same election.

Consolidation with other elections

13209. Any special bond election may be held separately, or may be consolidated with any other election authorized by law at which the voters of the district may vote. If a special bond election is consolidated with any other election, the provisions of this chapter setting forth the procedure for the calling and holding of the special bond election shall be complied with, except that the ordinance calling the election need not set forth the election precincts, polling places, and officers of election, but may provide that the precincts, polling places, and officers of election shall be the same as those set forth in the ordinance, notice, or other proceedings calling the election with which the special bond election is consolidated, and shall refer to the ordinance, notice, or other proceedings by number and title, or by other definite description.

Notice of election

13210. The ordinance shall be published, and no other notice of election need be given.

Two-thirds vote

13211. The votes of two-thirds of all the voters voting on the proposition at the election are required to authorize the issuance of bonds under this chapter.

Defeat of proposition Subsequent election

13212. If the proposition submitted at a special bond election fails to receive the requisite number of votes, the board shall not within six months after the election hold another special election for the submission of a proposition of incurring a bonded indebtedness substantially the same as the proposition voted upon at the prior election unless a petition signed by voters within the district equal in number to at least 15 percent of the total vote cast is filed with the board, requesting that the proposition, or a proposition substantially the same, be submitted at an election to be called for that purpose.

Article 2. Form and Content

Maturity

13241. Bonds authorized by this chapter shall mature serially in amounts to be fixed by the board; except that payment shall begin not later than 10 years from the date thereof and be completed in not more than 50 years from that date.

Denominations

13242. The bonds shall be issued in such denominations as the board determines, except that no bonds shall be of a denomination less than one hundred dollars ($100), nor of a greater denomination than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and shall be payable on the day and at the place or places fixed in the bonds, and with interest at the rate specified therein, payable semiannually.

Call and redemption

13243. The board may at any time prior to the issuance and sale of any bonds provide for the call and redemption of any or all of the bonds on any interest payment date prior to their fixed maturity at not exceeding the par value and accrued interest plus a premium of not exceeding 5 percent upon the principal amount of the bonds, in which event the call price fixed by the board shall be set forth on the face of the bond. Notice of such redemption shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published within the district or if there is no such newspaper printed and published within the district then the publication shall be made in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published within the county in which the district or any part thereof is situated, the first publication of which shall be at least 30 days prior to the date fixed for the redemption. After the date fixed for such redemption interest on the bonds thereafter shall cease.

Signatures

13244. The bonds shall be signed by the president of the board or by such officer of the district as the board shall by resolution authorize and designate for that purpose. They shall also be signed by the treasurer, and be countersigned by the secretary. The coupons of the bonds shall be numbered consecutively and be signed by the treasurer. All signatures and countersignatures, except that of the treasurer on the bonds, may be printed, lithographed, or engraved. If any officer whose signature or countersignature appears on the bonds or coupons ceases to be such officer before the delivery of the bonds to the purchaser, the signature or countersignature is nevertheless valid and sufficient for all purposes as if he had remained in office until the delivery of the bonds.

Article 3. Issue and Sale

Consideration for issue

13261. The bonds may be issued and sold for not less than their par value, but otherwise as the board determines.

Deposit and use of proceeds

13262. The proceeds of the bonds shall be placed in the district treasury to the credit of the proper fund, and shall be used exclusively for the objects or purposes for which the bonds were voted.

Interest during construction, etc

13263. In lieu of the immediate levy of a tax to pay the interest or any part thereof on any bonded indebtedness incurred in accordance with this division, the board may in the estimate of the amount of money necessary to be raised by the bonds include a sum sufficient to pay interest on all of the bonds or part thereof during the period of acquisition, construction, or completion, but for no period in excess of five years.

Article 4. Refunding

Resolution to refund

13281. Whenever the board by resolution passed by a vote of two-thirds of all its members determines that the refunding of the whole or any portion of the bonded indebtedness will be of advantage to the district the board may refund the bonded indebtedness or any portion thereof and issue refunding bonds of the district therefor.

Effect of issuance, vote, redemption

13282. The issuance of refunding bonds shall not be construed as the incurring or increase of an indebtedness within the meaning of this division, and the approval of the voters is not required for the issuance of refunding bonds. The board may provide for the call and redemption of any or all of the bonds on any interest payment date prior to their fixed maturity in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds.

Provisions applicable

13283. Except as otherwise provided, the provisions of this chapter shall substantially govern as to all matters pertaining to the issuance of refunding bonds, including and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the form, execution, issuance, maturity, redemption, refunding, validation, the payment of interest from bond funds, and the status of the bonds as investments.

Property taxable

13284. Only the property in a special district is taxable for the payment of the principal and interest on any refunding bonds which are issued for the purpose of refunding any indebtedness of a special district.

Interest, maturity

13285. Refunding bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding the interest rate on the refunded bonds, but payment of the refunding bonds shall begin not later than one year from the date thereof and be completed in not more than 40 years from that date.

Use of proceeds

13286. The proceeds of the sale of refunding bonds shall be applied only to the purchase, or retirement at not more than par and accrued interest, or the call price, of the bonded indebtedness for which the refunding bonds were issued.

Exchange of bonds

13287. In lieu of selling refunding bonds and using the proceeds to purchase or retire the bonds to be refunded, the board may exchange refunding bonds at not less than par and accrued interest for the bonds so refunded.

Surrender, cancellation of refunded bonds

13288. Whenever outstanding bonds are refunded they shall be surrendered to the treasurer of the district, who shall cancel them by endorsing on their face the manner in which the refunding was effected (whether by exchange or purchase, and the amount for which so purchased, if any) and by perforating through each bond and each coupon attached thereto the word "canceled" together with the date of cancellation.

Article 5. Status as Investments

Legal investments

13311. All bonds including refunding bonds issued by a district are legal investments for all trust funds and for the funds of all insurance companies, banks, both commercial and savings, and trust companies, and for the State School Fund, and for all sinking funds under the control of the State Treasurer. Whenever any money or funds may by law be invested in or loaned upon the security of bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, or school districts, in the State, such money or funds may be invested in or loaned upon the security of the bonds of a district; and whenever bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, or school districts by law may be used as security for the faithful performance or execution of any court or private trust or of any other act, bonds of the district may be so used.

Legal security

13312. All bonds of the district, to the same extent as bonds of any other municipality, are legal for use by any state or national bank or banks in the State as security for the deposit of funds of the State or of any county, city and county, city, municipality, or other public or municipal corporation within the State.

Article 6. Validation

Action to determine validity of bonds

13341. The board may at any time within 60 days from the date of an election authorizing the issuance of bonds or within 60 days from the date of the resolution authorizing the issuance of refunding bonds cause to be brought in the name of the district an action in the superior court of the county in which the district or the greater portion thereof is located to determine the validity of the bonds.

Proceeding in rem

13342. The action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of summons for at least once a week for three weeks in some paper of general circulation published in the county where the action is pending, such paper to be designated by the court having jurisdiction of the proceedings.

Jurisdiction, appearances

13343. Jurisdiction is complete within 10 days after the full publication of the summons in the manner herein provided. Anyone interested may at any time before the expiration of the 10 days appear and by proper proceedings contest the validity of the bonds.

Consolidation of actions

13344. If there is more than one action or proceeding involving the validity of any such bonds, they shall be consolidated and tried together.

Substantial rights of parties

13345. The court hearing any proceeding or action inquiring into the regularity, legality, or correctness of the proceedings leading up to the issuance of bonds or the validity of bonds shall disregard any error, irregularity, or omission which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties to the action or proceeding.

Rules of pleading and practice, new trial, costs

13346. The rules of pleading and practice provided by the Code of Civil Procedure which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this division, are applicable to all actions or proceedings herein provided for. The motion for a new trial of any such action or proceeding shall be heard and determined within 10 days from the filing of the notice of intention. The costs on any proceeding or action herein provided for may be allowed and apportioned between the parties, or taxed to the losing party in the discretion of the court.

Conduct, appeal

13347. The action shall be speedily tried and judgment rendered declaring the bonds valid or invalid. Either party may appeal to the Supreme Court at any time within 30 days after the rendition of judgment, which appeal shall be heard and determined within three months from the time of taking the appeal.

13348. After the expiration of 90 days from the date of a bond election or the date of the resolution authorizing the issuance of refunding bonds, no action may be brought by any person to contest or question the validity of the bonds and the proceedings thereto. Limitation

Chapter 8. Special District for Sewage Disposal

Article 1. Proposal of Formation

13451. One or more special districts for sewage disposal purposes may be created within the boundaries of a district as provided in this chapter. Authorization

13452. Resolutions shall first be passed by the legislative bodies of half or more, but of not less than two, of the public agencies, all or any part of the area of which it is intended to include in the proposed special district, declaring that the public interest or necessity demands the creation of a special district for sewage disposal purposes and describing its boundaries. The boundaries of the proposed special district may include territory outside any such public agency if the territory is within the area of the municipal utility district. When the entire area of any public agency is to be included in the special district it may be described in the resolutions by name. Certified copies of the resolutions shall be filed with the secretary of the district. Initiation by public agencies in district

13453. Instead of procedure by resolutions, a petition may be filed with the secretary of a district signed by voters within the proposed special district equal in number to at least 10 percent of the total vote cast. The boundaries of the proposed special district shall be described in the petition and shall include at least two public agencies or portions thereof. A statement of the name of any public agency constitutes a sufficient and legal description of the territory thereof if the entire area of the agency is included. Petition in lieu of resolution

13454. The petition shall declare that the public interest or necessity demands the creation of a special district for sewage disposal purposes within the area of the district described in the petition. The petition may be on separate papers, but each paper shall contain the affidavit of the party who circulated it, certifying that each name signed thereto is the true signature of the person whose name it purports to be. Petition Content, form

13455. The secretary of the district shall compare the signatures with the affidavits of registration and shall certify to the sufficiency or insufficiency of the petition. Same Sufficiency

13456. The board may initiate proceedings for the creation of a special district for sewage disposal purposes within the area of the district by passing a resolution declaring that the public interest or necessity demands the creation of a special district Initiation by board resolution for sewage disposal purposes, and describing its boundaries, which shall include all or any part of two or more public agencies. A public agency to be included may be described by name. No certified copy of the resolution need be filed with the secretary of the district.

Article 2. Hearing

Resolution re name of district, time and notice of hearing

13481. Within 60 days after receipt of the resolutions of the public agencies or receipt of the certification of the sufficiency of a petition by the secretary of the district, or the passage of the resolution of the board, the board shall, by resolution, designate the special district as "_____ (here insert name) Municipal Utility District, Special District No. _____ (here insert number)" (all such special districts shall be numbered consecutively) and shall fix a time and place for a hearing on the proposed creation of the special district for sewage disposal purposes, and shall publish notice thereof.

Publication of notice

13482. The notice of hearing shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation published in the district.

Time of hearing

13483. The time fixed for the hearing shall be not less than 30 nor more than 60 days from the date of the first publication of the notice.

Hearing

13484. At or before the hearing, any person interested may file with the secretary of the district written objections to the creation of the special district or to the inclusion of his property therein. Upon the hearing the board shall hear and determine all protests and objections. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the board without further notice other than an order to be entered upon the minutes of its meeting fixing the time and place of the adjournment.

Boundary change

13485. The board may reduce or enlarge the boundaries of the proposed special district, but the boundaries as enlarged shall be within the district.

Notice re inclusion of additional territory

13486. The board shall not approve the creation of a special district containing territory in addition to the territory included in the resolutions or petitions filed with the secretary of the district, or in its own resolution, until notice of its intention to include such additional territory has been published for the time and in the manner prescribed for the original hearing on the matter and a hearing is had pursuant to the notice.

Inclusion of public agency

13487. No public agency or portion thereof shall be included within the boundaries of a special district unless its legislative body consents by resolution, or unless the proceedings for the creation of the special district have been initiated by petition of the voters.

Approval by board

13488. If no protests are filed, or if the protests filed are overruled and denied by the board, the board shall thereupon by resolution approve the creation of the special district either as originally described or as revised by the board.

Article 3. Election

Creation, incurrence of bonded indebtedness

13511. At any time after the board has approved the creation of the proposed special district, and fixed its boundaries, the board shall call and publish notice of an election within the proposed special district for the purpose of determining whether the proposed special district will be created and, if the board so determines, for the submission of a proposition for incurring a bonded indebtedness for the acquisition, construction, or completion by the district of any works, lands, structures, rights, or any other property necessary or convenient for the collection, treatment, or disposition of sewage matter for the special district. If the board determines that no bonded indebtedness is presently necessary, the board may call the election for the creation and establishment of the special district only, and a bond election may later be called.

Voters, consolidation of elections

13512. No person is entitled to vote at the election unless he is a voter of the territory included in the proposed special district. The election may be held on the same day as any other state, county, or city election and may be consolidated therewith.

Bond proposition canvass, vote

13513. If a proposition for incurring a bonded indebtedness is submitted at the same election with the proposal to create the special district, the votes cast on the proposition of incurring a bonded indebtedness shall be separately canvassed in the special district as a whole. The favorable vote of two-thirds of all the voters voting on the proposition of issuing bonds within the special district as finally established is required to authorize the issuance of the bonds.

Article 4. Establishment

Creation proposition canvass, vote

13531. On the question of the creation of a special district, the returns of each public agency and of each parcel of unincorporated territory shall be canvassed separately, and the board shall order and declare the special district created and established if in each public agency and if in each parcel of unincorporated territory a majority of those who voted on the proposition of creating the special district voted in favor thereof.

Taxing subdivision

13532. A special district has no separate corporate existence but shall be deemed to be a taxing subdivision of the district.

Article 5. Powers and Functions

Rules, charges, etc., re connections

13561. Connections of all sewers within the special district to intercepting sewers of the district shall be made at such points and in such manner and under such rules, regulations, terms, charges, and conditions as the board may prescribe.

Intercepting and outfall sewers

13562. Nothing in this division shall require the district to construct any sewers other than intercepting and outfall sewers. The determination by the board of what are intercepting and outfall sewers within the meaning of this division is final and conclusive.

Disposal facilities

13563. Upon completion of sewage disposal facilities for any special district all sewage and industrial waste originating within the special district shall be disposed of through the sewage disposal facilities of the district.

Contracts with public agencies

13564. Without limiting in any way the foregoing provisions of this division, the respective public agencies within the district and the district may contract regarding the collection, treatment, or disposition of sewage.

Utilities deemed owned, operated by district

13565. Each utility which a district is authorized to acquire, construct, own, operate, control, or use pursuant to this division shall be considered to be a utility owned and operated by the district even though service therefrom is limited to a special district created as provided in this division.

Article 6. Financing

Advancements

13591. The board may use temporarily any district funds for the payment of any costs or expenses incident to the proposed or actual creation of a special district for sewage disposal purposes or the acquisition, construction, or completion of any works, lands, structures, rights, or other property necessary or convenient for the collection, treatment, or disposition of sewage matter for the special district or incident to the operation or maintenance of the special district.

Same Tax to repay

13592. The board shall recover all district funds advanced under this article by means of taxes levied upon all property within the special district or from any appropriate funds or revenues of the special district; but nothing in this section shall compel reimbursement if the tax required therefor would amount to less than one mill ($0.001) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed value of the property within the special district.

Effect of article

13593. Nothing in this article limits the general powers of a district with reference to sewage disposal.

Article 7. Bonds

Election

13621. At any time after the creation of a special district a proposition of incurring bonded indebtedness for the acquisition, construction, or completion by the district of any works, lands, structures, rights, or any other property necessary or convenient for the collection, treatment, or disposition of sewage matter for the special district may be submitted.

Applicability of Ch 8

13622. Except as otherwise provided herein the provisions of Chapter 8 shall substantially govern as to all matters pertaining to the issuance of bonds under this article, including among other things, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the calling and holding of the bond election, the form, execution, issuance, maturity, redemption, refunding, validation, the payment of interest from bond funds and the status of the bonds as investments.

Two-thirds vote

13623. The favorable vote of two-thirds of all the voters within the special district voting on the proposition is required to authorize the issuance of the bonds.

Taxable property, amount of levy

13624. Only the property in the special district shall be taxable for the payment of the principal and interest on special district bonds. Until the bonds are paid, taxes shall be levied in substantial compliance with Section 12893.

Action re validity Limitation

13625. Any proceeding denying the validity of the creation of any special district, or of any bonds authorized by the voters thereof pursuant to this division, shall be brought within three months after the date upon which the applicable proposition is approved by the voters.

Article 8. Annexation

Authorization

13651. Any public agency or portion thereof or unincorporated territory within the boundaries of a district (hereinafter referred to collectively as "territory") not included within the boundaries of a special district may be annexed thereto in the manner provided in this article.

Resolution, terms, etc

13652. The board shall by resolution determine that the annexation of the territory will facilitate the acquisition or operation of a public utility for the special district, describe therein the territory, declare its intention to annex the territory to the special district, set forth the terms and conditions upon which the territory shall be annexed, fix the time and place for hearing on the question of the annexation, and provide for the giving of notice of the hearing.

Consent of public agency

13653. No public agency or portion thereof shall be annexed to a special district unless the legislative body thereof shall by resolution consent.

Permissible terms and conditions

13654. The terms and conditions for the annexation of territory to a special district may provide, among other things, for the payment of taxes within the territory to be annexed in addition to the taxes elsewhere in this division provided for, the fixing of rates, rentals, and charges differing from those fixed or existing elsewhere within the special district, the making of a payment or payments, or the transfer of property, real and personal, and other assets to the district by the territory proposed to be annexed.

Hearing Notice

13655. Notice fixing the time and place for hearing on the question of the annexation of territory to a special district shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation published in the district.

Same Time

13656. The time for hearing shall be not less than 30 nor more than 60 days from the date of the first publication of the notice.

Same Objections

13657. At or before the hearing any person interested may file with the secretary of the district written objections to the annexation of the territory to the special district or to the inclusion of his property therein. Upon the hearing, the board shall hear and determine all protests and objections.

Same Adjournment, declaration

13658. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the board without further notice other than an order entered upon the minutes of its meeting fixing the time and place of adjournment. In the event that no protests are filed or the protests filed are overruled and denied the board shall thereupon by resolution declare the territory, or a portion thereof, annexed to the special district.

Annexation complete

13659. From and after the date of filing of the resolution with the secretary of the district the annexation of the territory, or portion thereof, to the special district is complete.

Effect of annexation

13660. No annexation to a special district shall operate to dissolve or terminate the legal existence of any public agency within or partly within the territory annexed.

Liability of annexed territory

13661. From and after the date of annexation any territory annexed to a special district is liable for payment of its proportionate share of any indebtedness then existing and payable by the special district. From and after the date of annexation the board shall levy upon all of the property in the territory annexed such taxes, tolls, or charges as are necessary to comply with the terms and conditions of annexation, in addition to any other district taxes authorized elsewhere in this division to be levied and collected.

Article 9. Dissolution

Requirements, effect

13691. A special district may be dissolved by resolution of the board if any proposition for the incurring of a bonded indebtedness fails to carry, and if the special district is then subject to no other indebtedness or liability pursuant to this division and has been organized for not less than two years. Such dissolution of the special district shall not prevent subsequent proceedings for the creation of a special district including the same or any part of the area of the special district dissolved.

Chapter 9. Annexation of Public Agencies

Article 1. Annexation Agreement

Authorization

13801. Any public agency not included within the boundaries of a district may be annexed thereto in the manner provided in this chapter.

Terms, conditions

13802. The legislative body of the public agency proposed to be annexed shall agree in writing with the board upon the terms and conditions of annexation, which agreement (among other things) may provide for the levy and collection of special taxes within the public agency in addition to the taxes elsewhere in this division provided for, the fixing of rates, rentals, and charges differing from those fixed or existing elsewhere within the district, the incurring or assumption of indebtedness, or the making of a payment or payments, or the transfer of property, real and personal, and other assets to the district by the public agency. The corporate boundaries of the public agency to be annexed need not be coterminous with any election precincts.

Article 2. Approval by District

Approval

13821. The agreement shall become effective and be binding upon the district and the public agency when approved in the manner set forth in this chapter.

The board shall by ordinance setting forth the agreement at length declare its intention of causing it to be executed by the district.

Publication of ordinance, notice of hearing

13822. The ordinance, together with a notice fixing the time and place for hearing thereon, shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation published in the district. The time fixed for the hearing shall be not less than 30 nor more than 60 days from the date of the first publication of the ordinance.

Hearing Objections

13823. At the hearing any person interested may file with the board written objections to the execution of the agreement.

Same Determination, effect of failure to show cause

13824. Upon the hearing the board shall determine whether or not the agreement will be carried into execution and shall hear and determine all objections thereto. Failure of any person interested in the district or in the matter of the proposed execution of the agreement to show cause in writing pursuant to Section 13823 constitutes an assent on his part to a change in the boundaries of the district and to the execution of the agreement.

Same Adjournment

13825. Any hearing on the agreement may be adjourned from time to time by the board without further notice other than an order to be entered upon the minutes of the meeting fixing the time and place of adjournment.

Approval

13826. If no protests are filed or if the protests filed are overruled and denied the board shall thereupon by resolution finally approve the agreement and authorize its execution, which shall become effective when executed by the public agency, duly authorized in the manner provided in this chapter.

Execution, filing of agreement

13827. When executed by the district the agreement shall be dated and an executed copy filed with the secretary of the district. An executed copy shall also be filed with the secretary or clerk of the public agency to be annexed.

Article 3. Approval by Public Agency

Election

13851. At any time after the board has finally approved the agreement of annexation the legislative body of the public agency to be annexed shall cause an election to be held in the public agency to determine whether the public agency will be annexed to the district upon the terms and conditions stated in the agreement.

Notice

13852. Notice of election shall be published and shall either state that a copy of the annexation agreement is on file in the office of the secretary or clerk of the public agency proposed to be annexed, and open to the inspection of all persons interested, or set forth the terms and conditions of the agreement of annexation at length, in the discretion of the legislative body calling the election.

Ballots

13853. The ballots for the election shall contain substantially the instructions required to be printed on ballots for use at general state and county elections and in addition shall set forth the proposition of annexation substantially as follows:

Shall the _____ (public agency) be annexed to _____ municipal utility district in accordance with and subject to all of the terms and conditions of an agreement of annexation dated _____ now on file in the office of the clerk (or secretary) of _____ (public agency)?	YES
	NO

Vote

13854. If upon a canvass of the election it is found that a majority of all votes cast on the proposition at the election were cast in favor of the annexation, the proposition and all of the terms and conditions of the agreement of annexation shall be deemed carried and approved by the voters; except that if the terms and conditions of the agreement of annexation provide for the assumption of any indebtedness of the district by any city proposed to be annexed, the proposition of annexation shall not be deemed carried unless approved by the vote of two-thirds of all the voters voting on the proposition at the election.

Failure to carry; Entry

13855. If the proposition fails to carry, the result shall be entered upon the minutes of the governing body of the public agency.

Favorable vote, execution of agreement

13856. If the proposition receives the vote of the requisite majority of voters the governing body of the public agency shall enter in its minutes an order declaring the result of the election and shall thereupon cause the agreement of annexation to be executed by its duly authorized officers.

Article 4. Establishment of Annexation

Declaration, filing

13886. Upon receipt by the district of a certified copy of the agreement of annexation properly executed by the district and the public agency proposed to be annexed the board shall pass a resolution declaring the public agency annexed to the district, and shall cause a certified copy of the resolution to be filed with the Secretary of State. From and after the date of filing of the resolution with the Secretary of State the annexation of the public agency to the district is complete.

Article 5. Annexation of Territory Annexed to Public Agencies

Incorporation into district

13911. Any territory annexed in accordance with law to any public agency included in the district shall, upon the completion of such annexation proceeding, be deemed incorporated into and annexed to the district, and thereafter is subject to taxation, along with the entire territory of the district in accordance with the assessable valuation of the property thereof, for general district purposes, and for the payment of any indebtedness theretofore or thereafter incurred by the district.

Article 6. Effect of Annexation

13931. From and after the date of annexation the board shall levy upon all of the property in the public agency annexed such taxes, tolls, or charges as are necessary to provide funds for the payment of the indebtedness assumed by the public agency or otherwise necessary to comply with the terms and conditions of the annexation agreement, all in addition to the general district taxes authorized elsewhere in this division to be levied and collected. Tax levy, etc

13932. No annexation of a public agency to a district shall operate to dissolve or terminate the legal existence of the public agency annexed. Legal existence continued

Article 7. Contest of Annexation

13951. The validity of any proceedings for the annexation of any public agency or part thereof to any district or special district within the district shall not be contested in any action unless the action is brought within three months after the completion of the proceedings. Limitation

Chapter 11. Annexation of Unincorporated Territory

Article 1. Annexation Agreement

14051. Unincorporated territory may be annexed to a district in the manner provided in this chapter. Authorization

14052. Unincorporated territory not contiguous to a district may not be annexed if the district does not possess facilities for supplying utility service to that territory. Noncontiguous territory

14053. A petition signed by voters within the territory proposed to be annexed equal in number to at least 25 percent of the total vote cast, describing the territory and asking that proceedings be taken for its annexation, shall be addressed to the board and filed with the secretary of the district. Petition

14054. The secretary shall compare the signatures on the petition with the affidavits of registration on file with the county clerk and if he finds that the petition has been signed by the required number of voters he shall attach his signature thereto and present the petition to the board. Same Sufficiency presumption

14055. If the board determines that the annexation of the territory would facilitate the acquisition or operation of any public utility for the district, or be of advantage to the district, then the board shall also determine the terms and conditions upon which the annexation should be made. Terms and conditions

14056. Provisions may be made (among other things) for payment of taxes within the territory to be annexed in addition to the taxes elsewhere in this division provided for, the fixing of rates, rentals, and charges differing from those fixed or existing elsewhere within the district, the incurring or assumption of indebtedness, or the making of a payment or payments, Taxes rates, etc or the transfer of property, real and personal, and other assets to the district by the territory proposed to be annexed. The boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed need not be coterminous with any election precincts. The terms and conditions shall become effective and be binding upon the district and the territory to be annexed when approved in the manner set forth in this chapter.

Article 2. Approval by District

Ordinance

14081. The board shall by ordinance setting forth the terms and conditions at length declare its intention of causing the agreement to be approved by the district.

Publication of ordinance, notice of hearing

14082. The ordinance together with a notice fixing the time and place for hearing thereon shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation published in the district. A copy of the ordinance shall be filed with the secretary of the district. The time fixed for hearing shall not be less than 30 nor more than 60 days from the date of the first publication of the ordinance.

Hearing: Objections

14083. At the hearing any person interested may file with the board written objections to the approval of the terms and conditions.

Same Determination, effect of failure to show cause

14084. Upon the hearing the board shall determine whether or not the terms and conditions will be approved and shall hear and determine all objections thereto. Failure of any person interested in the district or in the matter of the proposed annexation on the terms and conditions set forth in the ordinance to show cause in writing pursuant to Section 14083 constitutes an assent on his part to a change in the boundaries of the district upon the terms and conditions set forth.

Same Adjournment

14085. Any hearing on the agreement may be adjourned from time to time by the board, not exceeding 30 days in all, without further notice other than an order entered upon the minutes of the meeting fixing the time and place of adjournment.

Approval

14086. If no protests are filed or the protests filed are overruled and denied by the board the board shall thereupon by resolution finally approve the terms and conditions and proceed with the annexation in the manner provided in this chapter.

Rejection

14087. If protests against the proposed annexation are sustained, all proceedings shall be dismissed and no proceedings shall be undertaken again concerning the territory or any part thereof until after the expiration of one year.

Article 3. Approval by Unincorporated Territory

Election.

14111. Within 90 days after the board has finally approved the terms and conditions of annexation the board shall cause an election to be held in the territory proposed to be annexed to determine whether the territory shall be annexed to the district upon the terms and conditions stated in the ordinance.

Notice

14112. Notice of election shall be published and shall either state that a copy of the ordinance containing the terms and conditions of annexation at length is on file in the office of the secretary of the district, and open to the inspection of all persons interested, or itself set forth the terms and conditions of annexation at length, in the discretion of the board.

Ballots

14113. The ballots for the election shall contain substantially the instructions required to be printed on ballots for use at general state and county elections and in addition shall set forth the proposition of annexation substantially as follows:

Shall the territory described in the petition filed with the secretary of the _____ municipal utility district on the_____ day of _____ be annexed to the utility district in accordance with and subject to all of the terms and conditions set forth in that certain ordinance passed by the board of directors of the municipal utility district on the _____ day of _____, a copy of which is now on file in the office of the secretary of the municipal utility district?	YES

Favorable vote

14114. If upon a canvass of the election it is found that a majority of all votes cast on the proposition at the election were cast in favor of the annexation, the proposition and all of the terms and conditions set forth in the ordinance shall be deemed carried and approved by the voters.

Unfavorable vote

14115. If the proposition fails to carry, the result shall be entered upon the minutes of the board.

New proceedings

14116. If the proposition is defeated by the voters, no annexation proceeding shall be commenced involving the territory or any part thereof until after the expiration of one year.

Article 4. Establishment of Annexation

Declaration, filing

14141. In the event the proposition receives the vote of the requisite majority of voters the board shall pass a resolution declaring the territory annexed to the district, and shall cause a certified copy of the resolution to be filed with the Secretary of State, from and after the date of which filing with the Secretary of State the annexation of the territory to the district is complete.

Article 5. Annexation Without Election

Authorization

14161. Unincorporated territory may be annexed to a district without an election in the manner provided in this article.

Petition by all owners

14162. A petition describing the territory proposed to be annexed and requesting that proceedings be taken for its annexation shall be signed by all of the owners of the real property described therein, verified by the affidavit of one of the petitioners, addressed to the board, and filed with the secretary of the district.

Hearing, etc

14163. Proceedings shall thereafter be taken and a hearing held in substantial compliance with the provisions of this chapter relating to the annexation of unincorporated territory except that no election shall be held within the territory proposed to be annexed and the territory shall be deemed annexed to the district upon the passage of a resolution of the board declaring the territory annexed and the filing of a certified copy thereof with the Secretary of State.

Article 6. Effect of Annexation

Tax levy, etc.

14191. From and after the date of annexation the board shall levy upon all of the property in the territory annexed such taxes, tolls, or charges as are necessary to provide funds for the payment of the indebtedness assumed by the territory or otherwise necessary to comply with the terms and conditions of the annexation, all in addition to the general district taxes authorized elsewhere in this division to be levied and collected.

Article 7. Contest of Annexation

Limitation

14211. The validity of any proceedings for the annexation of any unincorporated territory to any district or special district within the district shall not be contested in any action unless the action is brought within three months after the completion of the proceedings.

Chapter 11. Exclusion of Territory

Article 1. Exclusion of Unincorporated Territory

Conditions, petition

14351. Any territory contained within a district not operating any utility and not included within the boundaries of any incorporated city and not benefited in any manner by the district or by its continued inclusion therein may be excluded therefrom by order of the board upon the verified petition of the owners in fee of lands whose assessed value with improvements is in excess of one-half of the assessed value of all the lands with improvements held in private ownership in the territory sought to be excluded.

Petition Content

14352. The petition shall describe the territory sought to be excluded and shall set forth that the territory is not benefited in any manner by the district or by its continued inclusion therein, and shall pray that the territory be excluded from the district.

Same Filing, deposit

14353. The petition shall be filed with the secretary of the district and shall be accompanied by a deposit with the secretary of the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) to meet the expenses of advertising and other costs incident to the proceedings for the exclusion of the territory, including the cost of recording a certified copy of the order provided for in this chapter. Any unconsumed balance of the deposit shall be returned to the petitioners.

Notice of hearing

14354. Upon the filing of the petition the secretary shall cause it to be set for hearing at a regular or adjourned regular meeting of the board and shall cause a notice of the filing thereof to be published. The notice shall also state the date of the filing of the petition and that it will come on for hearing before the board and shall state the time and place of the hearing. The time fixed for hearing shall not be less than 30 days from the date of the first publication of the notice. The property to be excluded may or may not be specifically described in the notice, but if not described the notice shall refer to the petition on file with the secretary for a particular description of the property sought to be excluded.

Hearing Appearances

14355. Any landowner or taxpayer within the district may appear at the hearing either in behalf of or in opposition to the granting of the petition.

Same Time and place

14356. The petition shall come on for hearing before the board at the time and place specified in the notice of hearing.

Order of exclusion

14357. If upon the hearing the board determines that it is for the best interests of the district that the lands mentioned in the petition or some portion thereof be excluded from the district, or if it appears that the lands or some portion thereof will not be benefited by their continued inclusion in this district, then the board shall make an order that the lands, or such portion thereof as the board may determine, be excluded from the district, describing specifically the lands so excluded.

Same Certification recordation

14358. A copy of the order of exclusion certified by the secretary of the district shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the lands are situated. The record of the certified copy is prima facie evidence of the exclusion from the district of the lands purporting to be excluded thereby.

Same Effect

14359. From and after the making of the order of exclusion and the record thereof the lands excluded are no longer included in the district. The order of exclusion does not invalidate in any manner any taxes or assessments theretofore levied or assessed against the lands excluded nor relieve the property excluded from any outstanding bonds which are a lien thereon at the time of exclusion, nor from any taxes to pay the principal or interest thereof.

Article 2. Exclusion of Incorporated Territory

Petition by governing body

14381. If the city to which any territory included in any district has been annexed already serves electricity or water to the territory annexed, the city council or other governing body of the city may petition the district for the exclusion of such territory from the district.

Petition Content, filing deposit

14382. The petition shall contain the information prescribed for petitions for exclusion under Article 1 of this chapter, a deposit for expenses shall be made as therein provided, and thereafter all proceedings shall be had as provided therein for such petitions after filing.

Contract re payment of liabilities, taxes

14383. If an order of exclusion is granted, the board and the governing body of the city shall by contract provide for the payment by the city of the proportion of the taxes and bonded indebtedness for which the territory excluded is justly liable. If they do not agree, either may petition the superior court in and for the county in which the property is located for a judgment declaring the proportion of the taxes and bonded indebtedness for which the territory excluded is justly liable. The proceeding shall be governed by the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to declaratory relief.

Effect of order of exclusion

14384. The order of exclusion does not invalidate in any manner any taxes or assessments theretofore levied or assessed against the lands excluded nor relieve the property excluded from any outstanding bonds which are a lien thereon at the time of exclusion, nor from any taxes to pay the principal or interest thereof.

CHAPTER 13. DISSOLUTION

Election

14501. The board of any district which operates no works or properties, or with exterior boundaries coincident with the boundaries of a single city, may call an election at any time for the purpose of submitting to the voters of the district the question of whether the district will be dissolved. Upon the filing with the secretary of such a district of a petition signed by voters within the district equal in number to at least 25 percent of the total vote cast, asking that the question of dissolution of the district be submitted to the voters of the district, the board shall call such an election.

Time

14502. The election for the purpose of submitting to the voters of the district the question of whether or not the district shall be dissolved shall be held within 60 days next succeeding the date on which the petition is filed.

Notice

14503. Notice of any election for dissolution, whether called because of the filing of a petition or ordered by the board without petition, shall be published. The date fixed for the election shall not be less than 30 days from the date of the first publication of the notice.

Ballots

14504. The ballots for the election shall contain substantially the instructions required to be printed on ballots for use at general state and county elections and in addition the following:

Shall the "(giving the name thereof) municipal utility district" be dissolved?	YES
	NO

Notice

14505. No other notice of the election other than that provided for in this chapter need be given and no sample ballots need be sent to the voters.

14506. If upon a canvass of the election it is found that a majority of all votes cast on the proposition at the election were in favor of the dissolution, the dissolution shall be deemed carried and approved by the voters. The board shall meet on Monday next succeeding the election and canvass the votes cast. Canvass of votes

14507. Upon dissolution of any district which has boundaries that are coincident with the corporate limits of a city, the district property wherever situated vests absolutely in the city, and upon the dissolution of any district operating no works or properties and which has boundaries that extend beyond the boundaries of a single city the property of the district wherever situated vests in the county in which the whole or greater portion of the district is situated. District property

14508. If at the time of dissolution there is any outstanding indebtedness of the district the legislative authority of the city, where the limits of the district lie wholly within the corporate limits of a city, and in all other cases the board of supervisors of the county in which the whole or greater portion of the district is situated are ex officio the board of directors of the district for the purpose only of the levy and collection of taxes for the payment of the indebtedness of the district existing at the time of dissolution and the interest thereon. The board or legislative authority shall levy the taxes and perform such other acts as are necessary to raise the money necessary for the payment of the indebtedness and the interest thereon. District indebtedness

14509. In the event that the proposition for dissolution fails to carry, no subsequent election for the dissolution of the district shall be called until after the expiration of one year from the date of the prior election. Effect of failure to carry

CHAPTER 767

An act to add Sections 19440 and 19441 to the Education Code, relating to use of school property.

[Approved by Governor May 31, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State May 31, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19440 is added to the Education Code, to read:

19440. Any use, by any individual, society, group, or organization for the commission of any act intended to further any program or movement the purpose of which is to accomplish the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of the State by force, violence, or other unlawful means shall not be permitted or suffered.

Individuals, groups, etc., intending overthrow of government

Any individual, society, group, or organization which commits any act intended to further any program or movement the purpose of which is to accomplish the overthrow of the government by force, violence or other unlawful means while using school property pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. Section 19441 is added to said code, to read:

Prohibition

19441. No governing board of a school district shall grant the use of any school property to any person or organization for any use in violation of Section 19440.

Affidavit

For the purpose of determination by such governing board whether or not any person or organization applying for the use of such school property intends to violate Section 19440, the governing board may require the making and delivery to such governing board, by such person or organization, of affidavits in form prescribed by such governing board, stating facts showing that such school property is not to be used for the commission of any act intended to further any program or movement the purpose of which is to accomplish the overthrow of the government by force, violence or other unlawful means.

CHAPTER 768

An act to amend Sections 8137, 8140, and 10552, and to repeal Sections 8138 and 8139 of the Elections Code, relating to proceedings after announcement of election returns.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor May 31, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State May 31, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8137 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

Certificate of election

8137. When the Secretary of State has compared and estimated the vote cast he shall make out and deliver, or transmit by mail, a certificate of election to each person elected.

SEC. 2. Section 8140 of said code is amended to read:

Presidential electors

8140. On the last Monday in the month of the election, or as soon as the returns have been received from all the counties in the State, if received before that time, the Secretary of State shall compare and estimate the votes given for electors, and certify to the Governor the names of the proper number of persons having the highest number of votes. Upon receipt of the list, the Governor shall issue commissions to the persons named therein.

SEC. 3. Section 10552 of said code is amended to read:

Same Duties of Governor

10552. On or before the day of meeting of the electors the Governor shall deliver to the electors a list of the names of electors, and he shall perform any other duties relating to presidential electors which are required of him by the laws of the United States.

CHAPTER 769

An act to amend Section 5026 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to the adoption and change of street names and providing for due notification by the cities effecting such changes to the county clerk and county surveyor of the county in which the city is situated.

[Approved by Governor May 31, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State May 31, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5026 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

Change of name of street, etc

5026. The legislative body of a county, city or city and county, may by resolution adopt a name for any street, boulevard, park or place which is to be improved under this division, for which a name has not been provided under the provisions of Sections 970.5 and 971, or otherwise, and may by resolution change the name of any such street, boulevard, park or place heretofore established; provided further, that a copy of the resolution or order providing for such new name or change of name made by any city shall be promptly forwarded by the city clerk to the county clerk and county surveyor of the county in which such municipality is situated.

CHAPTER 770

An act to amend Section 5007 of the Education Code, relating to the investment of school district funds.

[Approved by Governor May 31, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State May 31, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5007 of the Education Code is amended to read:

Investment of surplus or building funds

5007. The governing board of any school district which now has, or hereafter shall have, funds in a special accumulative building fund of the district or any surplus moneys not required for the immediate necessities of the district, is hereby authorized to invest all or any part of such funds in bonds, notes, bills or certificates issued by the United States of America. Any bonds, notes, bills or certificates so purchased may be sold and the proceeds reinvested in similar bonds, notes, bills or certificates of the United States of America or placed in the county treasury for credit to the fund of the district from which purchased. This section shall not be construed as in any way limiting or modifying the application of any other law providing for or authorizing the investment of any funds of a school district.

CHAPTER 771

An act to amend Section 650.6 of the Vehicle Code, relating to special restrictions on lamps.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor May 31, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State May 31, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 650.6 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

Special restrictions on lamps

650.6. Special Restrictions on Lamps. (a) Any lighted lamp or illuminating device upon a motor vehicle other than headlamps, spot lamps, fog lamps, signal lamps or auxiliary driving lamps which projects a beam of light of an intensity greater than 300 candlepower shall be so directed that no part of the beam will strike the level of the roadway on which the vehicle stands at a distance of more than 75 feet from the vehicle.

(b) Flashing lights are prohibited on motor vehicles except as a means of indicating right or left turn. Emergency vehicles shall be exempt from this regulation, and tow cars to the extent as provided in Section 586.5. Vehicles used by highway authorities in highway maintenance work may be equipped with flashing or other red lights, to the front or rear, which may be used during the nighttime or at times of low visibility when such vehicles are parked or working on the highway. Vehicles used by mosquito abatement districts or pest abatement districts, when dispersing insecticides in aerosol form or as mists, fogs or smokes, may be equipped with flashing or other red lights, to the front or rear, which may be used during the nighttime or at times of low visibility, when such vehicles are parked or working on the highway.

(c) No vehicle shall be equipped with any lamp or illuminating device not required or permitted in this code. The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

1. Interior lamps;

2. Lamps needed in the operation or utilization of those vehicles mentioned in Section 623.5, or vehicles used by public utilities in the repair or maintenance of their service; or

3. Lamps or devices that emit a diffused nonglaring light of not more than .05 of one candlepower per square inch of area.

Any diffused nonglaring light shall not display red to the front, but may display other colors notwithstanding the color limitations in Section 640. Such diffused nonglaring light shall not resemble nor be installed within 12 inches or in such position as to interfere with the visibility or effectiveness of any required lamp, reflector or other device upon the vehicle, nor shall any such diffused nonglaring light resemble any traffic sign, signal or control device nor any street or highway regulatory, warning, directional or informational sign. Every such diffused nonglaring light shall be subject to approval by the California Highway Patrol.

Such lamps or devices shall be limited in size to an area of 720 square inches and where any lease, rental or donation is involved the installation of such lamps or devices shall be limited to those vehicles operated either wholly within business or residential districts or municipalities, or between business districts, residential districts and municipalities in close proximity.

(d) The department may issue a permit for the use of lamps or devices for experimental purposes. The use of any lamp or device under such permit shall not be deemed to be a violation of this code.

CHAPTER 772

An act to add Section 7.1 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to powers and duties of boards of supervisors in matters of public assistance.

[Approved by Governor May 31, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State May 31, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Exercise by agent

7.1. The authority of a county board of supervisors to grant, deny, terminate, increase or decrease aid as provided in Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 2, Chapter 1 of Division 3, Chapter 2 of Division 4 or Division 5 of this code may be exercised by an agent when duly authorized by resolution of such board.

CHAPTER 773

An act to add Section 9483 to the Elections Code, relating to municipal elections.

[Approved by Governor May 31, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State May 31, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9483 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

Services of county registrar of voters

9483. Whenever it is deemed economical and satisfactory to the governing body of any city, and unless prohibited by the city charter, the governing body of any city located in a county having a registrar of voters may by resolution request the board of supervisors of the county to permit the county registrar of voters to render specified services to the city relating to the conduct of any municipal election. Subject to approval by resolution of the county board of supervisors, and unless prohibited by the county charter, such services shall be performed by the county registrar of voters under the supervision and direction of the city clerk.

The resolution of the governing body of the city shall specify the services requested and shall provide that an amount 10 percent in excess of the estimated cost of the services requested of the county be reserved from city funds in such a manner that a sum equal to the actual cost of the services may be transferred to the county when the work is completed or the goods supplied, upon presentation to the city of a properly approved bill from the county.

CHAPTER 774

An act to add Section 272 to the Labor Code, relating to security for wages.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor May 31, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State May 31, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 272 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

Notice of deposit

272. Every person, agent, or officer thereof engaged in the businesses specified in Section 270 or Section 271, shall keep conspicuously posted upon the premises where persons are employed, a notice specifying the name and address of the bank or trust company where the required cash or readily saleable securities are on deposit. Failure to keep the notice conspicuously posted is prima facie evidence of a violation of Section 270 or Section 271.

CHAPTER 775

An act to add Section 111.5 to the Streets and Highways Code, relating to the adoption of city streets as a part of the State Highway System.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor May 31, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State May 31, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 111.5 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

One way streets

111.5. Whenever a city street and an existing state highway, through or within a city: (1) are substantially parallel; (2) each has been restricted to one-way traffic, proceeding in opposite directions as to each other, by ordinance of such city duly enacted and applicable thereto; and (3) the commission determines that both are suitable as a connecting portion of a state highway into or through such city, the commission may adopt any portion of the city street so substantially parallel with an existing state highway, as a part of the State Highway System without compensation to the city.

Whenever an ordinance of any city designating a particular highway as a one-way highway becomes applicable to a state highway, whether an existing state highway at the time of the enactment of such ordinance or a city street thereafter adopted as a state highway, such ordinance shall not be thereafter rescinded by action of the legislative authority of such city without the consent in writing of the department first obtained unless otherwise provided by the terms of any written agreement between the State and any city entered into prior to the effective date of this section. If any city street which has become a portion of the State Highway System pursuant to this section ceases to be a one-way street because the ordinance declaring such street to be a one-way street is rescinded, repealed, revoked, or amended, such city street, or the portion thereof that is no longer restricted to one-way traffic, shall by operation of law revert to the status of a city street and cease to be a portion of the State Highway System.

CHAPTER 776

An act to amend Section 538 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to affidavit for attachment.

[Approved by Governor May 31, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 538 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

538 The clerk of the court, or the justice, where there is no clerk, must issue the writ of attachment upon receiving an affidavit by or on behalf of the plaintiff showing:

Information required for issuance

1. The facts specified in Section 537 which entitle him to the writ;

2. The amount of the indebtedness claimed, over and above all legal set-offs or counterclaims, or the amount claimed as damages; and

3. That the attachment is not sought, and the action is not prosecuted, to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the defendant.

Provided, however, that no attachment may be issued under this chapter in any action in which the sum claimed, exclusive of interest, is less than thirty dollars ($30).

In all cases where the earnings of the judgment debtor which would be exempt under the provisions of Section 690.11 of the Code of Civil Procedure are sought to be attached on the ground that the action is brought to collect a debt incurred for the common necessaries of life, the affidavit must contain a statement to that effect, and must specify the character or nature of the items constituting the alleged necessaries.

CHAPTER 777

An act to add Section 684.1 to the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the enforcement of judgments.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor May 31, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 684.1 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

Manner of enforcement

684.1. The sheriff, constable or marshal shall enforce a judgment for the possession of personal property in the manner prescribed by Section 517 or as otherwise provided by law.

CHAPTER 778

An act to amend Sections 115, 5001, 5301, 5309, 5310, 5315, 5709, 5800, 5900, 5901, 5902, 5903, 5904, 5905, 5907, 5909, and 5910 of the Labor Code; to repeal Sections 5313, 5314, 5906, 5908, and 5950 of said code; and add Sections 5313, 5906, 5908, 5908.5, 5911, and 5950 to said code; and to amend the titles of Chapter 7, and Article 1 of Chapter 7, of Part 4 of Division 4 of said code, all relating to workmen's compensation.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor May 31, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 115 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

Quorum panel action, findings, etc. by commissioner or referee

115. Except as otherwise expressly provided, a majority of a panel shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, or the exercise of any power of the commission.

Any investigation, inquiry, or hearing which the commission has power to undertake or to hold, and which has been assigned or transferred to a panel may be undertaken or held by any commissioner of that panel or any referee attached to the headquarters of that panel to whom the matter is assigned.

Every finding, order, decision, or award made and filed by a panel pursuant to such investigation, inquiry, or hearing is the finding, order, decision or award of the commission.

Every finding, order, decision, or award made and filed by any commissioner or referee pursuant to such investigation, inquiry or hearing is the finding, order, decision, or award of the commission unless reconsideration is had in accordance with the provisions of Article 1, Chapter 7, Part 4, Division 4 of this code.

SEC. 2. Section 5001 of said code is amended to read:

5001. Compensation is the measure of the responsibility which the employer has assumed for injuries or deaths which occur to employees in his employment when subject to this division. No release of liability or compromise agreement is valid unless it is approved by the commission as a whole or a panel thereof. Release, compromise Approved

SEC. 3. Section 5301 of said code is amended to read:

5301. The commission is vested with full power, authority and jurisdiction to try and determine finally all the matters specified in Section 5300 subject only to the review by the courts as specified in this division. Such jurisdiction may be exercised by the commission as described in Section 115. Jurisdiction of commission

SEC. 4. Section 5309 of said code is amended to read:

5309. The commission may, in accordance with rules of practice and procedure which it shall adopt and upon the agreement of the parties, on the application of either, or of its own motion, and with or without notice, direct and order a commissioner or a referee: Delegation to commissioner, referee

(a) To try the issues in any proceeding before it, whether of fact or of law, and make and file a finding, order, decision, or award based thereon.

(b) To hold hearings and ascertain facts necessary to enable the commission to determine any proceeding or to make any order, decision, or award that the commission is authorized to make under Divisions 4 or 5, or necessary for the information of the commission.

SEC. 5. Section 5310 of said code is amended to read:

5310. The commission or a panel may appoint one or more referees in any proceeding, as it may deem necessary or advisable and may refer, remove to itself, or transfer to another commissioner or referee the proceedings on any claim. The commission may appoint general referees. Any referee appointed by the commission has the powers, jurisdiction, and authority granted by law, by the order of appointment, and by the rules of the commission. The compensation for his services shall be fixed by the commission. Referees

SEC. 6. Sections 5313 and 5314 of said code are repealed. Repeal

SEC. 7. Section 5313 is added to said code, to read:

5313. The commission, a panel, every referee or commissioner shall, within 30 days after the testimony is closed, make and file findings upon all facts involved in the controversy and an award, order, or decision stating the determination as to the rights of the parties, and in addition thereto and concurrently therewith shall make and file a written report. Such report shall separately state the findings of fact and conclusions of law. The findings, decision, order, or award and the accompanying report shall, if made by the commission or a panel, be signed by a majority of the commission or the panel. Requirement of findings, decision, report

SEC. 8. Section 5315 of said code is amended to read:

5315. Within sixty (60) days after the filing of the findings, decision, order or award and the accompanying report, Commission action the commission may confirm, adopt, modify or set aside the findings, order, decision, or award of a commissioner or referee and may, with or without further proceedings, and with or without notice, enter its order, findings, decision, or award based upon the record in the case.

SEC. 9. Section 5709 of said code is amended to read:

Effect of informality, inadmissible evidence

5709. No informality in any proceeding or in the manner of taking testimony shall invalidate any order, decision, award, or rule made and filed as specified in this division. No order, decision, award, or rule shall be invalidated because of the admission into the record, and use as proof of any fact in dispute, of any evidence not admissible under the common law or statutory rules of evidence and procedure.

SEC. 10. Section 5800 of said code is amended to read:

Interest on awards

5800. All awards of the commission either for the payment of compensation or for the payment of death benefits, shall carry interest at the same rate as judgments in civil actions on all due and unpaid payments from the date of the making and filing of said award. Such interest shall run from the date of making and filing of an award, as to amounts which by the terms of the award are payable forthwith. As to amounts which under the terms of the award subsequently become due in installments or otherwise, such interest shall run from the date when each such amount becomes due and payable.

SEC. 11. The title of Chapter 7 of Part 4 of Division 4 of said code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 7. RECONSIDERATION AND JUDICIAL REVIEW

SEC. 12. The title of Article 1 of Chapter 7 of Part 4 of Division 4 of said code is amended to read:

Article 1. Reconsideration

SEC. 13. Section 5900 of said code is amended to read:

Petition

5900. (a) Any person aggrieved directly or indirectly by any final order, decision, or award made and filed by a commissioner or a referee under any provision contained in this division, may petition the commission for reconsideration in respect to any matters determined or covered by the final order, decision, or award, and specified in the petition for reconsideration. Such petition shall be made only within the time and in the manner specified in this chapter.

(b) At any time within 60 days after the filing of an order, decision, or award made by a commissioner or a referee and the accompanying report, the commission may, on its own motion, grant reconsideration.

SEC. 14. Section 5901 of said code is amended to read:

Condition to cause of action

5901. No cause of action arising out of any final order, decision or award made and filed by a commissioner or a referee shall accrue in any court to any person until and unless the commission on its own motion sets aside such final order, decision, or award and removes such proceeding to itself or such person files a petition for reconsideration, and such reconsideration is granted or denied. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the enforcement of any such final order, decision, or award, in the manner provided in this division.

SEC. 15. Section 5902 of said code is amended to read:

Form, content of petition

5902. The petition for reconsideration shall set forth specifically and in full detail the grounds upon which the petitioner considers the final order, decision or award made and filed by a commissioner or a referee to be unjust or unlawful, and every issue to be considered by the commission. The petition shall be verified upon oath in the manner required for verified pleadings in courts of record and shall contain a general statement of any evidence or other matters upon which the applicant relies in support thereof.

SEC. 16. Section 5903 of said code is amended to read:

Grounds for reconsideration

5903. At any time within 20 days after the service of any final order, decision, or award made and filed by a commissioner or a referee granting or denying compensation, or arising out of or incidental thereto, any person aggrieved thereby may petition for reconsideration upon one or more of the following grounds and no other:

(a) That by such order, decision, or award made and filed by a commissioner or referee, the commission acted without or in excess of its powers.

(b) That the order, decision, or award was procured by fraud.

(c) That the evidence does not justify the findings of fact.

(d) That the petitioner has discovered new evidence material to him, which he could not, with reasonable diligence, have discovered and produced at the hearing.

(e) That the findings of fact do not support the order, decision, or award.

Nothing contained in this section shall limit the grant of continuing jurisdiction contained in Sections 5803 to 5805 inclusive.

SEC. 17. Section 5904 of said code is amended to read:

Waiver of other objections, etc.

5904. The petitioner for reconsideration shall be deemed to have finally waived all objections, irregularities, and illegalities concerning the matter upon which the reconsideration is sought other than those set forth in the petition for reconsideration.

SEC. 18. Section 5905 of said code is amended to read:

Service of petition

5905. A copy of the petition for reconsideration shall be served forthwith upon all adverse parties by the person petitioning for reconsideration. Any adverse party may file an answer thereto within 10 days thereafter. Such answer shall likewise be verified. The commission may require the petition for reconsideration to be served on other persons designated by it.

SEC. 19. Section 5906 of said code is repealed. Repeal

SEC. 20. Section 5906 is added to said code, to read:

Commission action

5906. Upon the filing of a petition for reconsideration, or having granted reconsideration upon its own motion, the commission as a whole or a panel thereof may, with or without further proceedings and with or without notice affirm, rescind, alter, or amend the order, decision, or award made and filed by a commissioner or referee on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in the case, or may grant reconsideration and direct the taking of additional evidence. Notice of the time and place of any hearing on reconsideration shall be given to the petitioner and adverse parties and to such other persons as the commission orders.

SEC. 21. Section 5907 of said code is amended to read:

Further proceedings

5907. If at the time of granting reconsideration, it appears to the satisfaction of the commission that no sufficient reason exists for taking further testimony, the commission may affirm, rescind, alter or amend the order, decision, or award made and filed by a commissioner or referee and may, without further proceedings, without notice, and without setting a time and place for further hearing, enter its findings, order, decision, or award based upon the record in the case.

Repeal

SEC. 22. Section 5908 of said code is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 5908 is added to said code, to read:

Amendment, etc., of order

5908. After the taking of additional evidence and a consideration of all of the facts the commission may affirm, rescind, alter, or amend the original order, decision, or award. An order, decision, or award made following reconsideration which affirms, rescinds, alters, or amends the original order, decision, or award shall be made by the commission as a whole or a panel thereof but shall not affect any right or the enforcement of any right arising from or by virtue of the original order, decision, or award, unless so ordered by the commission.

SEC. 24. Section 5908.5 is added to said code, to read:

Decision Form, content

5908.5. Any decision of the commission as a whole or of a panel thereof denying a petition for reconsideration or affirming, rescinding, altering, or amending the original order, decision, or award following reconsideration shall be in writing, signed by a majority of the commission or of the panel and shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law.

SEC. 25. Section 5909 of said code is amended to read:

Denial by inaction

5909. A petition for reconsideration is deemed to have been denied by the commission unless it is acted upon within 30 days from the date of filing. The commission may, upon good cause being shown therefor, extend the time within which it may act upon such petition for not exceeding 30 days.

SEC. 26. Section 5910 of said code is amended to read:

Petition for reconsideration Effect

5910. The filing of a petition for reconsideration shall suspend for a period of 10 days the order, decision, or award affected, insofar as it applies to the parties to the petition, unless otherwise ordered by the commission. The commission upon the terms and conditions which it by order directs, may stay, suspend, or postpone the order, decision, or award during the pendency of the reconsideration.

SEC. 27. A new Section 5911 is added to said code, to read:

5911. Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to prevent the commission, on petition of an aggrieved party or on its own motion, from granting reconsideration of an original order, decision, or award made and filed by the commission or a panel thereof, within the same time specified for reconsideration of an original order, decision, or award made and filed by a commissioner or a referee. Reconsideration without petition

SEC. 28. Section 5950 of said code is repealed. Repeal

SEC. 29. Section 5950 is added to said code, to read:

5950. Any person affected by an order, decision, or award of the commission may, within the time limit specified in this section, apply to the Supreme Court or to the district court of appeal for the appellate district in which he resides, for a writ of review, for the purpose of inquiring into and determining the lawfulness of the original order, decision, or award or of the order, decision, or award following reconsideration. The application for writ of review must be made within 30 days after a petition for reconsideration is denied, or, if a petition is granted or reconsideration is had on the commission's own motion, within 30 days after the filing of the order, decision, or award following reconsideration. Judicial review

An act to add Section 789 to, and to amend Section 1170 of, the Probate Code, relating to real property.

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 789 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

789. If the sale has not been vacated in accordance with the provisions prescribed in Section 788, then upon filing of a petition within 45 days after the confirmation of a sale showing that the purchaser at such sale has failed to complete the purchase and that a bid has been made for the property in the same or a higher amount, on the same or better terms, and in the manner prescribed in the original notice, the court may vacate the prior order of confirmation and make an order confirming the sale to the new high bidder; provided, that such notice as the court directs shall be given the defaulting purchaser, unless his written consent to the vacation of the order confirming sale to him is filed with the court. If the report and petition for confirmation of the second sale are not filed within 45 days of the confirmation of the first sale, the property may be resold only in the manner prescribed in Section 788. Vacation of order confirming sale

SEC. 2. Section 1170 of said code is amended to read:

1170. Whenever title to or an interest in real property is affected by the death of any person, any person who claims any interest in such real property, which interest is affected by Petition by claimant of real property interest affected by death the death of such person, may, and a surviving joint tenant or surviving joint tenants must, file in the superior court of the county of which the decedent was a resident at the time of his death, or in any county in which any part of the real property is situated, a verified petition setting forth those facts, and particularly describing the real property and his interest therein.

In the event of no opposition to, or contest of, such petition, the same, or affidavits in support thereof, may be received in evidence and acted upon by the court with the same force and effect as if the petitioner or affiants were personally present and testified to the facts set forth.

Two deputy clerks, each of whom shall receive a minimum salary of one hundred ninety-three dollars ($193) monthly with annual increments of nine dollars ($9), nine dollars ($9), ten dollars ($10), and ten dollars ($10) to a maximum of two hundred thirty-one dollars ($231) monthly.

(4) There shall be one marshal who shall receive a salary of two hundred ninety dollars ($290) monthly, with annual increments of fourteen dollars ($14), fourteen dollars ($14), fifteen dollars ($15), and sixteen dollars ($16) to a maximum of three hundred forty-nine dollars ($349) monthly.

(5) The marshal may appoint the following:

One deputy marshal who shall be court bailiff, and who shall receive a minimum salary of two hundred forty-two dollars ($242) monthly with annual increments of eleven dollars ($11), twelve dollars ($12), twelve dollars ($12), and thirteen dollars ($13) to a maximum of two hundred ninety dollars ($290) monthly.

One deputy marshal who shall receive a minimum salary of one hundred ninety-three dollars ($193) monthly with annual increments of nine dollars ($9), nine dollars ($9), ten dollars ($10), and ten dollars ($10) to a maximum of two hundred thirty-one dollars ($231) monthly.

Two deputies (custodians) at the fee allowed by law for keeping property.

(6) Official reporters in such municipal courts described in this section, appointed as provided in Sections 274c and 274d of the Code of Civil Procedure, shall be attaches of such court and in lieu of any other compensation provided by law for their services in reporting testimony and proceedings in such court, shall receive a salary of four hundred dollars ($400) per month, which shall be a charge against the general fund of the county.

In conformity with the provisions of Section 274c of the Code of Civil Procedure, the judges of such court may appoint as many additional reporters as the business of the court may require, who shall be known as official reporters pro tempore, and who shall serve without salary but shall receive the fees provided by Section 274 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that in lieu of the per diem fees provided in said section for reporting testimony and proceedings, said official reporters pro tempore shall in all cases receive fifteen dollars ($15) per day, which shall upon order of the court be a charge against the general fund of the said county.

Fees for transcription of testimony and proceedings in such court shall be paid by the litigants to official reporters and official reporters pro tempore as otherwise provided by law. In all cases where by law, the court may direct the payment of transcription fees out of the county treasury, such fees shall, upon order of the court, be paid from the general fund including fees for transcription of testimony and proceedings in criminal cases as provided in Section 274 of the Code of Civil Procedure which shall be paid from the county treasury.

Official reporters of such court shall be members of any retirement system maintained by the county in which they are employed. For the purpose of such retirement system the salary herein provided for such reporters shall be deemed their entire compensation.

(7) Persons who succeed to positions in the municipal court under provisions of the Municipal and Justice Court Act of 1949 shall receive credit for continuous prior service in superseded courts and in the sheriff's department or constabulary of the county, and shall receive, in addition to the minimum rate, the annual increments commensurate with such years of prior service up to the maximum rate set.

CHAPTER 785

An act to amend Section 4530 of the Penal Code, relating to escapes.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4530 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

Punishment for escapes, attempts

4530. Every prisoner confined in a state prison who escapes or attempts to escape therefrom, is punishable by imprisonment in a state prison for a term of not less than one year; said second term of imprisonment to commence from the time he would otherwise have been discharged from said prison. No additional probational report shall be required with respect to such offense.

CHAPTER 786

An act to amend Section 625a of the Penal Code, relating to the unlawful interference with fire alarm apparatus and false alarms, providing punishment therefor.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 625a of the Penal Code is amended to read as follows:

Misdemeanor

625a. (1) Any person who wilfully and maliciously tampers with, molests, injures, or breaks any public fire alarm apparatus, wire, or signal, or wilfully and maliciously sends, gives, transmits, or sounds any false alarm of fire, by means of any public fire alarm system or signal or by any other means or methods, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by imprisonment in the county jail, not exceeding one year, or by a fine, not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1162 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

1162. It is unlawful to possess a loaded rifle or shotgun in any vehicle or conveyance or its attachments standing on or along or being driven on or along any highway or other public way open to the public. A rifle or shotgun shall be deemed to be loaded for the purposes of this section when there is an unexpended cartridge or shell in the barrel thereof but not when the only cartridges or shells therein are in the magazine thereof. The provisions of this section shall not apply to police officers, peace officers, or members of the armed forces of this State or the United States, while on duty or going to or returning from such duty.

Unlawful possession of loaded firearm in vehicle

CHAPTER 788

An act to add Section 2013 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to the definition of the words "diagnose" and "diagnosis."

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2013 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read as follows:

2013. Whenever the words "diagnose" or "diagnosis" are used in this chapter, they shall include any undertaking by any method, device or procedure whatsoever, and whether gratuitous or not, to ascertain or establish whether or not a person is suffering from any physical, mental or nervous disorder. Without in any manner limiting the generality of the foregoing, "diagnose" and "diagnosis" shall specifically include the taking of a person's blood pressure and the use of mechanical devices or machines, for the purpose of representing to any person any conclusion with respect to such person's physical, mental or nervous condition. Machines or mechanical devices for measuring or ascertaining height or weight are excluded from this section. Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting or enlarging the practice of licensed clinical laboratory technologists and other persons licensed under any provision of law relating to the healing arts. The performance of psychological services on referral from a person licensed under this chapter is not a violation of this chapter.

"Diagnose," "diagnosis"

Testing and guidance programs in schools, colleges and universities and physical fitness tests given by public or private agencies in connection with employment or issuance or renewal of licenses or permits do not constitute diagnoses within the meaning or intent of this section.

CHAPTER 789

An act to amend Section 28145 of the Government Code, relating to compensation for public services in counties of the forty-fifth class.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 28145 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Plumas County Salaries

28145. In a county of the forty-fifth class the following shall receive as compensation for the services required of them by law or by virtue of their offices the following sums:

(a) The auditor, two thousand dollars ($2,000) a year.

(b) The district attorney, three thousand dollars ($3,000) a year.

(c) Each supervisor, three thousand dollars ($3,000) a year and mileage from his residence to the county seat at each sitting of the board, twenty cents ($0.20) a mile, such compensation to be in full for services either as supervisor or for mileage as road commissioner.

(d) Grand and trial jurors, five dollars ($5) per day and such mileage fees as are allowed by law.

The compensation provided by this section shall be payable to incumbent officers.

Saving clause

SEC. 2. If it is not legally competent to pay the compensation provided by this act to incumbent officers on the effective date of this act, such increase in compensation shall nevertheless be payable to the officers designated in this act as soon as it is legally competent to do so.

CHAPTER 790

An act to amend Section 330.24 of the Civil Code to enable mutual water companies to sell water to any public agency and under certain circumstances to other mutual water companies and other persons and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 330.24 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

330.24. Any corporation organized for or engaged in the business of selling, distributing, supplying or delivering water for irrigation purposes, or for domestic use, may provide in its articles or by-laws that water shall be sold, distributed, supplied or delivered only to owners of its shares and that such shares shall be appurtenant to certain lands when the same are described in the certificate issued therefor; and when such certificate is so issued and a certified copy of such articles or by-laws recorded in the office of the county recorder in the county where such lands are situated the shares of stock shall become appurtenant to the said lands and shall only be transferred therewith, except after sale or forfeiture for delinquent assessments thereon as provided in Section 331 of this title. Notwithstanding such provision in its articles or by-laws, any such corporation may sell water to the State, or any department or agency thereof, or to any school district, or to any public agency or, during periods of water shortage, to any other mutual water company or, during any emergency resulting from fire or other disaster involving danger to public health or safety, to any person at the same rates as to holders of shares of such corporations. In the event lands to which any such stock is appurtenant are owned or purchased by the State, or any department or agency thereof, or any school district, or public agency, such stock shall be canceled by the secretary, but shall be reissued to any person later acquiring title to such land from the state department, agency, or school district, or public agency.

Sale of water Limitation

Same Emergency sales

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Urgency

In view of the present national emergency and in furtherance of measures designed to protect the public health and safety in the event of enemy attack and to minimize the consequences thereof, it is necessary and desirable that private mutual water companies be authorized to make sales of water to any public agency and in case of fire or other emergencies involving danger to the public health or safety to any person. Therefore this legislation is immediately necessary.

CHAPTER 791

An act to add Section 1238.3 to the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the exercise of the right of eminent domain by nonprofit hospitals.

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1238.3 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

Limitations

1238.3. Subject to the provisions of this title, the right of eminent domain may be exercised in behalf of the following public uses:

1. Property immediately adjacent to and necessary for the operation or expansion of a nonprofit hospital then in existence and engaged in scientific research or an educational activity and the acquisition of which has been certified as necessary by the Director of the State Department of Public Health, except that property devoted to use for the relief, care, or treatment of the spiritual, mental, or physical illness or ailment of humans shall not be taken under this section.

2. As used in this section, "nonprofit hospital" means any health center or general, tuberculosis, mental, chronic disease, or other type of hospital holding a license in good standing issued under the provisions of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code and owned and operated by a fund, foundation or corporation, no part of the net earnings of which inures, or may lawfully inure, to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

CHAPTER 792

An act to amend Sections 2383 and 2384 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to unprofessional conduct.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2383 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

Unprofessional conduct Felony, moral turpitude conviction

2383. The conviction of a felony, or of any offense involving moral turpitude, constitutes unprofessional conduct within the meaning of this chapter. The record of the conviction is conclusive evidence of such unprofessional conduct. A plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere made to a charge of a felony or of any offense involving moral turpitude is deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this section. The board may order the license suspended or revoked, or may decline to issue a license, when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, irrespective of a subsequent order under the provisions of Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing such person to withdraw his plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information or indictment.

SEC. 2. Section 2384 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

Same Narcotics conviction 26 U S C, §2550

2384. The conviction of or cash compromise of a charge of violation of the Harrison Act regulating narcotics, or the conviction of a violation of the statutes of this State, regulating narcotics, or dangerous drugs, constitutes unprofessional conduct within the meaning of this chapter. The record of the conviction or compromise is conclusive evidence of such unprofessional conduct. A plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere is deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this section. The board may order the license suspended or revoked, or may decline to issue a license, when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, irrespective of a subsequent order under the provisions of Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing such person to withdraw his plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information or indictment.

CHAPTER 793

An act to amend Section 14290 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to trade-marks.

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14290 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

14290. The Secretary of State shall charge and collect the following fees: Trade-marks' fees

(a) For filing a claim to a trade-mark and issuing a certificate of filing, ten dollars ($10).

(b) For recording an assignment of a registered trade-mark, five dollars ($5), plus one dollar ($1) additional for each registered trade-mark over one assigned in the same instrument.

(c) For renewing the registration of a trade-mark and issuing certificate of renewal, ten dollars ($10).

CHAPTER 794

An act to amend Sections 39560 and 39566 of, to add Section 39587 to, and to repeal Article 2 of Chapter 13, Part 2, Division 3, Title 4 of the Government Code, comprising Sections 39520 through 39531, relating to municipal weed and rubbish abatement.

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39560 of the Government Code is amended to read:

39560. As used in this article: Definitions

(a) "Superintendent" means street superintendent, his assistants and deputies, or other public officer designated by the legislative body to perform the duties imposed by this article upon the superintendent.

(b) "Weeds" means weeds which when mature bear wingy or downy seeds, which will attain such a large growth as to become a fire menace when dry, or which are otherwise noxious or dangerous.

SEC. 2. Section 39566 of said code is amended to read:

Form of notice

39566. The notice shall be substantially in the following form:

NOTICE TO DESTROY WEEDS AND REMOVE RUBBISH, REFUSE, AND DIRT

Notice is hereby given that on the _____ day of _____, 19___, the (name of the legislative body) passed a resolution declaring that noxious or dangerous weeds were growing upon or in front of the property on this street, and that rubbish, refuse, and dirt were upon or in front of property on this street, in _____, and more particularly described in the resolution, and that they constitute a public nuisance which must be abated by the removal of the weeds, rubbish, refuse, and dirt. Otherwise they will be removed and the nuisance abated by the city and the cost of removal assessed upon the land from or in front of which the weeds, rubbish, refuse, and dirt are removed and will constitute a lien upon such land until paid. Reference is hereby made to the resolution for further particulars. A copy of said resolution is on file in the office of the city clerk.

All property owners having any objections to the proposed removal of the weeds, rubbish, refuse, and dirt are hereby notified to attend a meeting of the (name of the legislative body) of (city or town) to be held (give date), when their objections will be heard and given due consideration.

Dated this _____ day of _____, 19___.

39587. The proceedings provided by this article are an alternative to any procedure established by ordinance pursuant to Article 1 of this chapter.

SEC. 4. Article 2 of Chapter 13, Part 2, Division 3, Title 4 of said code is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 795

An act to amend Section 2421 of the Education Code, relating to school districts.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2421 of the Education Code is amended to read:

2421. Every city, except cities of the sixth class, unless otherwise prescribed in its original city charter, constitutes a separate school district, which shall be governed by the board of education or board of school trustees of the city. If the consent of the governing board of the district is first obtained, territory within the exterior boundaries of a city may be withdrawn from the school district of that city and annexed to an adjoining school district in the manner provided elsewhere in this code for the change of school district boundaries. CHAPTER 797

An act to amend Sections 50, 51, 53, 54, and 55 of, and to add Section 55.5 to, the Fish and Game Code, relating to game management areas.

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

50. In order to foster and increase the upland game bird population in the State of California, any person who owns or controls the shooting rights on a tract of land of not more than 5,000 acres, and who so handles such land as to feed, cover, and water, to make it a more suitable habitat for quail or pheasants, may apply to the commission for a licensed game bird club license authorizing the killing by shooting only, of quail or pheasants, or either, upon such land in accordance with Game bird club licenses the provisions of this chapter, and the rules and regulations thereon as may be prescribed by the commission, from time to time, for the administration of this act. Such license may be issued for a commercial licensed game bird club where a fee or charge is made for the privilege of shooting thereon; or for a private licensed game bird club of not to exceed 2,500 acres, where no fee or charge is made for the privilege of shooting thereon. If the license is issued for a commercial licensed game bird club, such club must be open to any licensed hunter for shooting during the entire licensed game bird club season upon payment of such fee or charge as set forth in the application filed by the licensee with the Division of Fish and Game; providing the number of birds remaining to be legally taken on such club is equal to or exceeds one legal limit for each permittee on such club; and providing that the licensee shall be allowed to set a maximum daily quota of not more than one hunter for each 50 acres included in the licensed game bird club. The commission shall prescribe rules and regulations for the conduct of hunters on such clubs in the interest of safety of hunters, to prevent wastage of game, and to promote orderly operation of the club. If the license is issued for a private licensed game bird club and no fee or charge is made by the licensee for the privilege of shooting thereon, such club shall be open to licensed hunters during the licensed game bird club season authorized for such club by the commission in such numbers and under such conditions as shall be approved by the commission at the time of the issuance of such license as being in the interest of good management of such club. The application shall show the name and address of the applicant; whether the application is for a commercial or private license; the legal description of the tract of land, and description by exterior boundaries of the tract with reference insofar as possible to roads, rivers, railroads or natural boundaries; the species of birds the taking of which the license is applied for; whether the applicant proposes to propagate and rear the birds to be released and if so the location or proposed location where the birds are to be propagated and reared; whether the applicant proposes to purchase birds for release; whether the applicant proposes to charge a fee for the right to shoot birds on his lands and the amount of such fee; and such other information as the commission may require.

SEC. 2. Section 51 of said code is amended to read:

Same Fees

51. (a) If the commission is satisfied, after investigation, that the tract is suitable for the purpose of a licensed game bird club and that the establishment of such a club will not conflict with the public interest, the commission may issue a commercial licensed game bird club license upon the payment of a license fee of fifty dollars ($50), or, a private licensed game bird club license upon the payment of a license fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) for a club of 500 acres or less and fifty dollars

($50) for a club of over 500 acres. Such license shall be issued for a term of one year from February 1st, to January 31st, or, if issued after the beginning of such term, for the remainder thereof.

(b) The license shall authorize the licensee to shoot, or permit to be shot, legally propagated birds of the species mentioned in the application, upon the premises for which the license is issued. The licensee shall fix a daily bag limit, not to exceed six birds of the species released on such club.

(c) The licensee shall propagate and rear, or otherwise acquire, and release upon the premises birds of the species referred to in the license at the rate of not less than one bird per three acres on private licensed game bird clubs and not less than one bird per five acres on commercial licensed game bird clubs. At least fifty percent (50%) of the total number of birds released on the premises shall be released within the period beginning five days prior to the opening and ending the last day of the licensed game bird club season Such birds at the time of release shall be full-winged and otherwise in condition to go wild.

SEC. 3. Section 53 of said code is amended to read:

53. The holder of a licensed game bird club license must post his property on the exterior boundary at intervals of not more than 500 feet with signs of a size not less than 12 by 18 inches, which signs shall include the name of the person or organization holding the license and shall also include the words: "Commercial Licensed Game Bird Club," or "Private Licensed Game Bird Club—authorized under Regulations of the Fish and Game Commission—No Trespassing." License holder Notices

SEC. 4. Section 54 of said code is amended to read:

54. The season during which shooting is to be permitted upon the licensed premises shall be for a period of 75 consecutive days beginning on the Saturday nearest the first day of November. The total number of birds which may be taken on the premises shall not exceed 70 percent of the birds released before five days prior to the licensed game bird club season plus 80 percent of the birds released during, and within five days prior to the opening of, such season. Shooting season

SEC. 5. Section 55 of said code is amended to read:

55. The licensee on a commercial licensed game bird club may charge a fee to include a daily permit fee not to exceed eighteen dollars ($18) and a bird fee not to exceed six dollars ($6) per bird. The daily permit fee shall be applied on the charge for birds taken. The amount of such fee shall be stated in the application for license and upon the license that may be issued, and also upon the permit issued by the licensee to each hunter. The hunter must carry on his person this permit at all times while on the club. Fees authorized

SEC. 6. Section 55 5 is added to said code, to read:

55.5. One trained bird dog, or retrieving dog, shall be used in all clubs for each group of three or less hunters. Dogs

CHAPTER 798

An act to add Section 6019 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to the production of X-ray films, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor June 1, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6019 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

X-ray diagnosis film Producers as consumers of materials

6019. Producers of X-ray films for the purpose of diagnosis are the consumers of materials and supplies used in the production thereof.

Urgency

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are: Continuously since the adoption of the "Sales and Use Tax Law" it has been understood by the administrators of the law, as well as by the public generally, that physicians and dentists who take X-ray films during the course of practicing their respective professions, are consumers of the materials and supplies that are used in connection with such films, and are not retailers, and that the radiological departments maintained by hospitals are likewise consumers with respect to X-ray films taken therein at the request of attending physicians.

Recently, doubt has been cast upon the foregoing interpretation by a decision of the district court of appeal involving the taxability under the sales and use tax law of so-called lay laboratories. It has never been the intention of the Legislature that persons producing or taking X-ray films for diagnostic purposes should be considered retailers; on the contrary, the Legislature has intended that such persons be deemed to be the consumers of the materials and supplies used by them.

Therefore, in order to clarify the legislative intent and to remove any doubt with respect to the status of X-ray films, it is necessary to incorporate the foregoing intent and the administrative interpretation into the sales and use tax law. It is essential that this be done at the earliest possible moment, because thousands of physicians and dentists throughout the State are in a position of uncertainty as to their liability, if any, under the sales and use tax law.

An act to add Section 1953.6 to the Government Code, relating to the liability of a county, city, or city and county officer for the acts of any deputy or employee serving under him.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1953.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

1953.6. No officer of a county, city, or city and county, whose sole compensation by virtue of his office is a fixed salary established by the Legislature, the local governing body, or the board of supervisors, shall be personally liable for the negligent act or omission of any deputy or employee serving under him and performing the duties of his office, where the appointment or qualification of such deputy or employee is required to be and has been approved by the local governing body or the board of supervisors, or by the civil service commission, unless the officer failed to exercise due care in the selection, appointment, or supervision of such deputy or employee, or negligently failed to suspend or secure the discharge of such deputy or employee after knowledge or notice of his inefficiency or incompetency. Exemption from liability

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as placing any liability upon the principal officer for the act of a deputy or employee unless such liability is otherwise imposed upon the principal officer by law, nor shall this section be construed or interpreted as releasing or relieving any such county, city, or city and county of any liability for the negligent act or omission of any such deputy or employee otherwise imposed by law.

CHAPTER 801

An act to amend Sections 629 and 659 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to judgments notwithstanding the verdict.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 629 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Judgment notwithstanding the verdict

629. When a motion for a directed verdict, which should have been granted, has been denied and a verdict rendered against the moving party, the court, at any time before the entry of judgment, either of its own motion or on motion of the aggrieved party, shall render judgment in favor of the aggrieved party notwithstanding the verdict.

A motion for judgment notwithstanding such verdict may also be made in the alternative form, either before or after the entry of judgment, asking therefor and reserving, if that be denied, the right to apply for a new trial, and if made after the entry of judgment such motion shall be made within the period specified by Section 659 of this code in respect of the filing and serving of notice of intention to move for a new trial. If such reservation is not made contemporaneously with the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, the right to apply for a new trial shall be waived. If both motions are made the court shall pass upon both of them. A motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict made after the entry of judgment shall be deemed to be made when notice thereof is filed with the clerk and served upon the adverse party and shall be heard at the same time as the motion for a new trial. The power of the court to pass on a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict shall not extend beyond the last date upon which it has the power to pass on a motion for a new trial. If a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is not determined before such date, the effect shall be a denial of such motion without further order of the court.

If the motion for a directed verdict and the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict be denied and the latter motion is made in the alternative form and if a new trial be denied, the appellate court may, when it appears from the whole of the evidence that a verdict should have been so directed at the trial, order judgment to be so entered on appeal from the judgment or from the order denying the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. Where a new trial is granted to the party moving for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, the order denying the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict shall not be reviewed on appeal, unless the adverse party appeal from the order granting a new trial, in which case the order denying judgment notwithstanding the verdict may be reviewed on appeal. If the court grants the motion for, or of its own motion directs the entry of, judgment notwithstanding the verdict, and likewise grants the motion for a new trial, the order granting a new trial shall be effective only if, on appeal, the judgment notwithstanding the verdict is reversed and the order granting a new trial is not appealed from or, if appealed from, is affirmed.

SEC. 2. Section 659 of said code is amended to read:

659. Notice of Motion: Filing and Service, Time: Contents: Extension of Time. The party intending to move for a new trial must, either (1) before the entry of judgment and, where a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is pending, then within five (5) days after the making of said motion, or (2) within ten (10) days after receiving written notice of the entry of the judgment, file with the clerk and serve upon the adverse party a notice of his intention to move for a new trial, designating the grounds upon which the motion will be made and whether the same will be made upon affidavits or the minutes of the court or both. Said notice shall be deemed to be a motion for a new trial on all the grounds stated in the notice. The time above specified shall not be extended by order or stipulation. Notice of motion

SEC. 3. The amendments made by this act in Sections 629 and 659 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall take effect on January 1, 1952, and apply only to verdicts rendered on and after said date. Operative date

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 736 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

736. When Person Arrested Must Be Taken Without Unnecessary Delay Before a Magistrate. Whenever any person is arrested for any violation of this code, not declared herein to be a felony, the arrested person shall be taken without unnecessary delay before a magistrate within the county in which the offense charged is alleged to have been committed and who has jurisdiction of such offense and is nearest or most accessible with reference to the place where the arrest is made or, if the magistrate is not available, before his clerk or a jail custodian, as provided in Section 737.1, in any of the following cases: Presentation before magistrate Mandatory

(a) When the person arrested fails to exhibit his operator's or chauffeur's license or other satisfactory evidence of his identity.

(b) When the person arrested refuses to give his written promise to appear in court.

(c) When the person arrested demands an immediate appearance before a magistrate.

(d) When the person arrested is charged with violating Section 480, Section 502 or Section 506 hereof.

SEC. 2. Section 737 of said code is amended to read:

Same Permissive

737. When Officer Has Option to Take Arrested Person Before a Magistrate. Whenever any person is arrested for any of the following offenses and the arresting officer is not required as hereinbefore provided to take such person without unnecessary delay before a magistrate, the arrested person shall, in the judgment of the arresting officer, either be given a five days' notice to appear as herein provided or be taken without unnecessary delay before a magistrate within the county in which the offense charged is alleged to have been committed and who has jurisdiction of such offense and is nearest or most accessible with reference to the place where said arrest is made or, if the magistrate is not available, before his clerk or a jail custodian, as provided in Section 737.1.

(a) Section 504, relating generally to injuring or tampering with a vehicle.

(b) Section 505, relating to reckless driving, when such offense causes injury to any person.

(c) Section 662, relating to a failure or refusal of the driver of a vehicle to stop and submit to an inspection or test of the lamps upon such vehicle under Section 663 hereof, which is punishable as a misdemeanor.

(d) Section 670(e), relating to a failure or refusal of the driver of a vehicle to stop and submit to a brake test which is punishable as a misdemeanor.

(e) Section 709(c), relating to refusal to submit vehicle and load to a weighing which is punishable as a misdemeanor.

(f) Section 481, relating to failure to stop in the event of an accident involving damage to property.

(g) Section 483, relating to failure to stop after collision with an unattended vehicle.

(h) Section 601.5, relating to participating in speed contests.

(i) Section 332, relating to driving while license is suspended or revoked.

(j) When the person arrested has attempted to evade arrest.

SEC. 3. Section 737.1 is added to said code, to read:

Bail

737.1. Clerk of Magistrate or Jail Custodian May Accept Bail. (a) When an arresting officer attempts to take a person arrested for a misdemeanor violation of this code before a magistrate as provided in Sections 736 and 737 and no such magistrate or person authorized to act for him is available, the arresting officer shall take the person arrested before the clerk of the magistrate or the officer in charge of the most accessible county jail, city jail or other place of detention within the county, who shall admit him to bail in accordance with a schedule, fixed as provided in Section 737.2.

(b) Any bail deposited with an officer in charge of the most accessible county jail, city jail or other place of detention within the county shall be transmitted to a magistrate having jurisdiction over the offense, or to the clerk of such magistrate, not later than the next business day.

(c) The authority to admit to bail as provided in subdivision (a) shall include authority to approve the same, to issue and sign an order for the release of the person arrested, and to set a time and place for his appearance before the appropriate magistrate.

(d) Any jail custodian authorized to accept bail by this section who is not already bonded shall give a bond in such sum as the board of supervisors, or the governing body of the city in the case of a city jail, shall prescribe.

SEC. 4. Section 737.2 is added to said code, to read:

737.2. Bail Schedule Fixed by County Magistrates. (a) Every six months there shall be held a meeting of the magistrates in each county having jurisdiction over misdemeanor violations of this code at which a schedule of the amount of bail to be set for the release of persons charged with such violations when taken before a clerk of a magistrate or an officer in charge of a county jail, city jail or other place of public detention as provided in Section 737.1 shall be adopted, approved, or revised by the majority vote of such magistrates. Bail schedule

(b) In any court within the county having more than one judge or justice, one such judge or justice shall be selected to represent that court.

(c) The meetings shall be held at the time and place specified by the judge of the municipal or justice court situated at the county seat, or if there be more than one, then by a majority of such judges.

SEC. 5. Section 737.3 is added to said code, to read:

737.3. Schedule to Be Sent to Clerks of Magistrates and Jail Custodians. A copy of the schedule mentioned in Section 737.2 shall be sent forthwith to each clerk of a magistrate in the county and to each officer in the county in charge of a county jail, city jail or other place of detention. Same

SEC. 6. Section 737.2 of said code is amended and renumbered to read:

737.1. Clerk of Magistrate or Jail Custodian May Accept Bail. (a) When an arresting officer attempts to take a person arrested for a misdemeanor violation of this code before a magistrate as provided in Sections 736 and 737 and no such magistrate or person authorized to act for him is available, the arresting officer shall take the person arrested before the clerk of the magistrate or the officer in charge of the most accessible county jail, city jail or other place of detention within the county, who shall admit him to bail in accordance with a schedule, fixed as provided in Section 737.2. Acceptance of bail

(b) Any bail deposited with an officer in charge of the most accessible county jail, city jail or other place of detention within the county shall be transmitted to a magistrate having jurisdiction over the offense, or to the clerk of such magistrate, not later than the next business day.

(c) The authority to admit to bail as provided in subdivision (a) shall include authority to approve the same, to issue and sign an order for the release of the person arrested, and to set a time and place for his appearance before the appropriate magistrate.

(d) Any jail custodian authorized to accept bail by this section who is not already bonded shall give a bond in such sum as the board of supervisors, or the governing body of the city in the case of a city jail, shall prescribe.

SEC. 7. Section 737.4 of said code is amended and renumbered to read:

Bail schedule

737 2. Bail Schedule Fixed by County Magistrates. (a) Every six months there shall be held a meeting of the magistrates in each county having jurisdiction over misdemeanor violations of this code at which a schedule of the amount of bail to be set for the release of persons charged with such violations when taken before a clerk of a magistrate or an officer in charge of a county jail, city jail or other place of public detention as provided in Section 737.1 shall be adopted, approved, or revised by the majority vote of such magistrates.

(b) In any court within the county having more than one judge or justice, one such judge or justice shall be selected to represent that court.

(c) The meetings shall be held at the time and place specified by the judge of the municipal or justice court situated at the county seat, or if there be more than one, then by a majority of such judges.

SEC. 8. Section 737.6 of said code is amended and renumbered to read:

Same

737.3. Schedule to Be Sent to Clerks of Magistrates and Jail Custodians. A copy of the schedule mentioned in Section 737 2 shall be sent forthwith to each clerk of a magistrate in the county and to each officer in the county in charge of a county jail, city jail or other place of detention.

SEC. 9. Section 738 of said code is amended to read:

Court procedure

738. Court Procedure Where Person Arrested for Misdemeanor Is Taken Before Magistrate. (a) Whenever a person is arrested for a misdemeanor and is taken before a magistrate, the arresting officer shall file with said magistrate a complaint stating the offense with which said person is charged.

(b) The person so taken before a magistrate shall be entitled to at least five days' continuance of his case in which to plead and prepare for trial and said person shall not be required to plead or be tried within said five days unless he waives such time in writing or in open court.

(c) The person so taken before a magistrate shall thereupon be released from custody upon his own recognizance or upon such bail as the magistrate may fix.

SEC. 10. Section 739 of said code is amended to read:

739. When Person Arrested to Be Given Notice to Appear in Court (a) Whenever a person is arrested for any violation of this code, not declared herein to be a felony, and such person is not taken before a magistrate as hereinbefore required or permitted, the arresting officer shall prepare in duplicate a written notice to appear in court containing the name and address of such person, the license number of his vehicle if any, the offense charged and the time and place when and where such person shall appear in court. Notice to appear

(b) The time specified in said notice to appear must be at least five days after such arrest.

(c) The place specified in said notice to appear shall be either:

(1) Before a magistrate within the county in which the offense charged is alleged to have been committed and who has jurisdiction of the offense and is nearest or most accessible with reference to the place where said arrest is made; or

(2) Upon demand of the person arrested, before a municipal court judge or other magistrate having jurisdiction of such offense at the county seat of the county in which such offense is alleged to have been committed or before a magistrate in the township in which the offense is alleged to have been committed.

(3) Before an officer authorized by the city, county, or city and county, to receive a deposit of bail.

(d) Said officer shall deliver one copy of said notice to appear to the arrested person and said arrested person in order to secure release must give his written promise so to appear in court by signing the duplicate notice which shall be retained by said officer. Thereupon the arresting officer shall forthwith release the person arrested from custody.

(e) Said officer shall, as soon as practicable, file said duplicate notice with the magistrate specified therein. Thereupon the magistrate shall fix the amount of bail which in his judgment, in accordance with the provisions of Section 1275 of the Penal Code, will be reasonable and sufficient for the appearance of the defendant and shall endorse upon said notice a statement signed by him in the form set forth in Section 815a of the Penal Code. The defendant may, prior to the date upon which he promised to appear in court, deposit with the magistrate the amount of bail thus set. Thereafter, at the time when the case is called for arraignment before the magistrate, if the defendant shall not appear, either in person or by counsel, the magistrate may declare the bail forfeited, and may in his discretion order that no further proceedings shall be had in such case.

Upon the making of such order that no further proceedings be had, all sums deposited as bail shall forthwith be paid into the city or county treasury, as the case may be.

(f) No warrant shall issue on such charge for the arrest of a person who has given such written promise to appear in court, unless and until he has violated such promise or has failed to deposit bail, to appear for arraignment, trial or judgment, or to comply with the terms and provisions of the judgment, as required by law.

SEC. 11. Section 743.6 of said code is amended to read:

Discretionary procedure

743.6. Procedure Upon Arrest Discretionary in Certain Cases. Whenever any person is arrested by any member of the California Highway Patrol for any violation of any state law regulating the operation of vehicles or the use of the highways declared to be a misdemeanor but which offense is not specified in this code, such person shall, in the judgment of the arresting officer, either be given a five-day notice to appear in the manner hereinbefore provided or be taken without unnecessary delay before a magistrate within the county in which the offense charged is alleged to have been committed and who has jurisdiction of such offense and is nearest or most accessible with reference to the place where said arrest is made, or, upon demand of the person arrested, before a magistrate in the township in which the offense is alleged to have been committed.

Effect Stats 1951, Ch 444

SEC. 12. Sections 6, 7 and 8 of this act become operative only if Senate Bill No. 118 is enacted at the 1951 Regular Session, in which case Sections 737.1, 737.2, and 737.3 added to the Vehicle Code by Sections 3, 4, and 5 of this act shall not become operative.

An act to amend Sections 736.1-1 and 736.11 of the Agricultural Code, relating to stabilization and marketing of fluid milk and fluid cream.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 736.1-1 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

736.1-1. Each distributor who purchases from producers fluid milk and/or fluid milk for fluid cream for the purpose of freezing and holding in cold storage the market cream or concentrated market cream derived therefrom, as authorized in Section 460.5 of this code, shall pay to producers not less than the minimum price for Class 2 milk as provided in the stabilization and marketing plan in the area in which such purchases are made, and shall keep a record of all such lots of fluid milk and/or fluid milk for fluid cream received from each Prices, etc., of fluid milk, etc producer. Should such market cream or concentrated market cream be subsequently sold in Class 1 and the Class 1 price established in the stabilization and marketing plan applicable to the area where such market cream or concentrated market cream is sold exceed the price paid for the fluid milk and/or fluid milk for fluid cream established in the stabilization and marketing plan, the distributor shall pay to the producer the difference between the Class 2 and the Class 1 price, less the cost of storage of such market cream or concentrated market cream.

SEC. 2. Section 736.11 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Method of designating, etc., minimum prices

736.11. The director shall, as soon as possible after the effective date hereof, in all marketing areas wherein a stabilization and marketing plan for fluid milk or fluid cream is in effect under the provisions of this chapter, designate and prescribe or provide methods for designating and prescribing minimum wholesale and minimum retail prices for fluid milk or fluid cream.

(a) Minimum wholesale prices, as used herein, shall mean prices at which fluid milk or fluid cream, or both, shall be sold by distributors to retail stores including the prices at which fluid milk or fluid cream shall be sold by distributors to retail stores, restaurants, confectioneries and other places for consumption on the premises but excluding, however, the prices at which fluid milk or fluid cream, or both, shall be sold by distributors to retail stores owned or operated by such distributor. Minimum wholesale prices, as used herein, includes prices at which fluid milk or fluid cream, or both, shall be sold by distributors to other distributors, other than in bulk, which prices may vary from the minimum prices established for sales by distributors to other wholesale customers; provided, however, the director shall not be required to establish such minimum wholesale prices in those marketing areas wherein he finds, after public hearing held pursuant to this article, that conditions of transportation, production, and distribution are such that the establishment thereof will cause disparity in prices to exist between two or more marketing areas.

(b) Minimum retail prices herein, shall mean prices at which fluid milk or fluid cream, or both, shall be sold by distributors and retail stores to consumers.

At the time any stabilization and marketing plan is hereafter established under the provisions of this chapter, the director shall designate and prescribe, or provide methods for designating and prescribing, such minimum wholesale prices and such minimum retail prices; provided, however, that all prices established under the terms of this article shall be such prices as are determined by the director pursuant to the provisions of Section 736.12.

SEC. 4. Section 14452 of said code is amended to read:

14452. Every person who was a member or a retired member of the California State Teachers' Retirement System on June 30, 1944, shall receive credit for time served outside this State prior to July 1, 1944, as follows:

Credit for time prior to July 1, 1944

(a) He shall receive credit for time served in a status which in this State is requisite for membership, in other states of the United States and its territories and possessions and in Canada.

(b) He shall receive credit for time served in teaching positions in publicly supported and publicly administered universities or colleges in the United States and its territories and possessions and in Canada. Retirement salaries payable to persons retired after July 1, 1937, and prior to September 13, 1941, shall be adjusted upon the request of the persons, to the provisions of this section, effective on the first day of the month in which the requests are received at the office of the Retirement System in Sacramento.

(c) He shall receive credit for time served in teaching positions in schools supported and administered by the United States Government.

(d) Members who are employed in the California School for the Deaf or the California School for the Blind, or in special classes maintained by the public schools of this State, for the instruction of the deaf, the hard of hearing, the blind, or the semisighted shall receive credit for time served in publicly supported residential schools for the deaf and blind outside this State.

SEC. 5. Section 14638 of said code is amended to read:

Election
Effect of death

14638. If any retired person dies after the effective date of his retirement, and within 30 days from the date upon which the election or changed election is received in the office of the Retirement System at Sacramento, then the election shall be void and of no effect, and he shall be considered as an active member at the time of death.

SEC. 6. Section 14641 of said code is amended to read:

Re-entrance into system

14641. When a member who has been retired and has thereafter re-entered membership in the Retirement System, subsequently retires, he shall not receive the full retirement annuities specified in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 14632, or 14639, according to whether retirement is for service or disability, but shall receive (1) an annuity, based upon his salary earned in service from the date of re-entry into the Retirement System to the date of his subsequent retirement, and calculated under Section 14632 or 14639, as the case may be, plus (2) annuities equal to the annuities he received next preceding his re-entry into membership, adjusted according to any change in the provisions governing the calculation of retirement allowances made after said re-entry and applicable to allowances being paid at the date of the change, provided that such subsequent retirement occurs before he renders after his re-entry, at least one year of service credited under the Retirement System; otherwise, plus (3) annuities based on the same salary and service as that upon which the annuities he received next preceding said re-entry were based, but calculated under Section 14632 or 14639, as the case may be, on the basis of an age, taken to the preceding completed quarter year, and determined by deducting from his age at his subsequent retirement, the aggregate time during which he was under retirement.

Such a member who was retired for service with credit for less than 30 years of service and at an age which resulted in a discount of his retirement salary, likewise shall not receive the full retirement salary specified in subdivision (a) of Section 14632 but shall receive (1) a retirement salary, based upon his credited service from the date of re-entry into the Retirement System to the date of his subsequent retirement, and calculated under Section 14632, plus (2) a retirement salary equal to the retirement salary he received next preceding his re-entry into membership, adjusted according to any change in the provisions governing the calculation of retirement allowances made after said re-entry and applicable to allowances being paid at the date of the change; provided, that such subsequent retirement occurs before he renders after his re-entry, at least one year of service credited under the Retirement System; otherwise, plus (3) a retirement salary based on the same service as that upon which the retirement salary he received next preceding said re-entry was based, but calculated under Section 14632 on the basis of an age, taken to the preceding completed quarter year, and determined by deducting from his age at his subsequent retirement, the aggregate time during which he was under retirement.

SEC. 7. Section 14680 of said code is amended to read:

Ceasing to be member of local system

14680. If a member of this Retirement System who is or has been a member of another retirement system ceases to be entitled to retirement benefits from the other retirement system for any service rendered after July 1, 1944, which qualifies for credit under this Retirement System and for which he has not contributed to the Retirement Annuity Fund under Section 14478, but continues to be a member of this Retirement System, upon receipt of refund of his contributions to the other retirement system he shall deposit in the Retirement Annuity Fund an amount equal to the contributions which he would have been required to make during such service if he had not then been a member of the other retirement system, with interest from the first of the year next following the date on which such contributions would have been payable to the date the deposit is made at the current rate of interest credited to Retirement Annuity Fund contributions.

Unless such deposit is made within two years after receipt of refund of his contributions to the other retirement system and prior to retirement, the member shall not be entitled to benefits from the Retirement Annuity Fund based upon salary earned in any service after July 1, 1944, for which he has not contributed to the Retirement Annuity Fund pursuant to Section 14478, and the guarantee of a minimum annuity shall not apply. If the deposit is made, the member's rate of annuity contribution shall be based on his age at the beginning of such service after July 1, 1944, or on a lower age, as determined under this chapter, because of other credited service.

SEC. 8. Section 14681 of said code is amended to read:

Entering system with credit for prior service

14681. Any person who enters or changes his status under this Retirement System after July 1, 1944, and who thus becomes subject to the Retirement Annuity Fund and receives credit for service rendered after July 1, 1944, but prior to his entry into or change in status under this Retirement System, shall deposit in the Retirement Annuity Fund an amount equal to the contributions he would have been required to make to the Retirement Annuity Fund during such service if he had then been a member of this Retirement System and subject to said fund, with interest from the first of the year next following the date on which such contributions would have been payable to the date the deposit is made at the current rate of interest credited to Retirement Annuity Fund contributions.

Unless such deposit is made within two years after his entry into this retirement system or change in status and prior to retirement, the member shall not be entitled to benefits from the Retirement Annuity Fund based upon salary earned in any service after July 1, 1944, for which he has not contributed to the Retirement Annuity Fund pursuant to Section 14478, and the guarantee of a minimum annuity shall not apply. If the deposit is made, the member's rate of annuity contribution shall be based on his age at the beginning of such service after July 1, 1944 or on a lower age, as determined under this chapter, because of other credited service.

SEC. 9. Section 14683 of said code is amended to read:

Cessation of benefits from local system

14683. If a person who has been retired ceases to be entitled to benefits from a local retirement system, on account of which service was excluded in the calculation of such person's annuity, but who continues to be retired under this system, he shall be entitled to an annuity on account of such service, effective on the first day of the month in which he notifies the Retirement Board at its office in Sacramento. If within 90 days after said effective date, said person deposits in the Retirement Annuity Fund, an amount equal to the contributions which he would have been required to make to that fund during service rendered after June 30, 1944, if he had not then been a member of the local retirement system, less the portion of the annuity which would have been payable prior to said date, and an amount equal to which was not paid to the local district under Section 14565, with interest on the balance of the contributions remaining after deducting said portion as it would have been paid from month to month, from the first of the year next following the date on which such contribution would have been payable to the date the deposit is made at the current rate of interest credited to Retirement Fund contributions, the annuity shall be calculated with respect to all such service, in the same manner as if the person were retiring on said effective date. If deposit of such contributions and interest is not made, the annuity shall be calculated in said manner, but including only such service rendered prior to July 1, 1944, and the guarantee of a minimum annuity shall not apply.

If a person after retirement becomes entitled to a benefit from a local retirement system, based on service which was included in the calculation of his annuity, the annuity shall be recalculated as the effective date of the person's retirement, excluding said service, and the reduced retirement allowance shall be effective on the day the benefit under the local system began to accrue. Annuity contributions made on account of such service, plus interest and less the annuity paid to him on account of the contributions, shall be paid to him.

SEC. 10. Section 14575.1 is added to said code, to read:

Payment of benefit

14575.1. Notwithstanding any provisions in this article to the contrary but subject to Section 14638, the benefit provided in Section 14575 shall be paid with respect to a member who elects to receive a reduced retirement allowance under options 2 or 3 in Section 14637, only upon receipt of proof of a member's death which occurred before the effective date of his retirement, and within four months after the termination of the member's employment in a status requisite for membership in this retirement system, or while the member was physically or mentally incapacitated for performance of duty if such incapacity had been continuous from such termination.

CHAPTER 811

An act to amend Section 14634 of the Education Code, relating to the computations of service of members of the State Teachers' Retirement System, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14634 of the Education Code is amended to read:

Computation of benefits

14634. For the purpose of computing benefits from the Retirement Annuity Fund, there shall be excluded from the service with which a member is credited under Article 7 of this chapter any service for which the member is entitled to receive retirement benefits from a local retirement system. In the computation of service for which the member is entitled to receive retirement benefits from a local retirement system, there shall be excluded any service rendered prior to the date upon which members' contributions first were required under the local retirement system, which is in excess of the service required when applied according to the formula used under such system in calculating retirement allowances on the basis of service rendered prior to such date, to produce the maximum retirement allowance provided under the system on account of such prior service. In such computation of service for which the member is entitled to receive retirement benefits from a local retirement system, there also shall be excluded any service rendered on and after the date upon which member's contributions first were required under the local retirement system, for which the member receives the refund of only his own contributions plus credited interest, and the exclusion of such service heretofore made in the administration of the retirement system is hereby ratified, validated, and confirmed. Retirement allowances, excluding annuities under the Annuity Deposit Fund, being paid on the day next preceding the effective date hereof, to persons whose retirement is effective prior thereto, shall be changed as of said date and on the basis of the ages of, and service credited to the respective persons at the effective dates of their retirement, to retirement allowances which are the sum of amounts calculated under the Permanent and Retirement Annuity Funds respectively, on the basis of current interest rate and mortality tables, and in the manner prescribed herein for the calculation of retirement allowances of members whose retirement is effective after said date.

Urgency

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

Those provisions of the State Teachers' Retirement Law which have to do with the computation of benefits payable to members of the State Teachers' Retirement System who are also members of a local retirement system, have always been construed by those administering the State Teachers' Retirement System that service in a local retirement system for which a member of such a system was entitled to receive only the return of his contributions to the local retirement system plus interest did not constitute service for which the member was entitled to receive a benefit from the local retirement system. Recently some doubt has been cast upon the validity of such construction of the State Teachers' Retirement Law by the assertion of a contrary view by the legal advisor of the largest local retirement in the State which view, if correct, would result in the reduction of benefits payable from the State Teachers' Retirement System to members of local retirement systems leaving such systems before retirement thereunder. The enactment of this measure will not result in any increase in benefits to such persons over what they receive under the law as it has always been construed by those administering the State Teachers' Retirement System but will remove any ambiguity in the law which may make such construction questionable.

CHAPTER 812

An act to amend Sections 18632, 18633, and 18634 of the Business and Professions Code, continuing in existence the Athletic Commission Fund in the State Treasury, and making an appropriation.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18632 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

Disposition of funds

18632. All moneys received by the commission under the provisions of this chapter shall be accounted for and reported by detailed statements furnished by the commission to the State Controller at least once a month, and at the same time such moneys shall be remitted to the State Treasurer and, upon order of the State Controller, shall be deposited in the Athletic Commission Fund in the State Treasury, which fund is hereby continued in existence.

SEC. 2. Section 18633 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

Appropriation

18633. All moneys in the Athletic Commission Fund are hereby appropriated for expenses incurred by the commission in carrying out its duties under the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 18634 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

Same

18634. All moneys remaining in the Athletic Commission Fund after providing for the expenses authorized by Section 18633 of this code are hereby appropriated for the purpose of maintaining homes established by the laws of this State for the care of veterans of any war of the United States

CHAPTER 813

An act to add Section 13077 to the Government Code, relating to contracts between a nonprofit corporation or foundation and an educational institution maintained in whole or part by state appropriation.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13077 is added to the Government Code, to read:

Audit of revenues expenditures

13077. Whenever a nonprofit corporation or foundation enters into a contract with a state educational institution, maintained in whole or in part by state appropriation, under the terms of which services are to be performed for the state educational institution, the books and records of such nonprofit corporation or foundation, insofar as they relate to revenues and expenditures applicable to the contract, may be audited by the Department of Finance.

CHAPTER 814

An act to repeal Section 28483 of, and to add a new Section 28483 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to packing of olive oil and distribution records of olive oil processors

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 28483 of the Health and Safety Code is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. A new Section 28483 is added to said code, to read:

Inspection of records

28483. All records of those licensed under the provisions of this act which concern the amounts of olive oil produced and/or purchased, or the sale and/or distribution of any olive oil, shall be open to inspection upon demand of any agent of this board.

CHAPTER 815

An act to amend Sections 7619, 7641, and 7665 of, and to add Sections 7610 and 7708 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to the regulation of funeral directors and embalmers.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7619 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

Age, etc., of applicant

7619. The applicant, or in case the applicant is an association, partnership or corporation, the officer or partner appearing therefor, shall be at least 21 years of age and of good character.

SEC. 2. Section 7641 of said code is amended to read:

Unlawful acts

7641. It is unlawful for any person to embalm a body, or engage in, or hold himself out as engaged in practice as an embalmer, unless he is licensed by the board; provided, however, that this section shall have no effect on students and instructors of embalming in embalming colleges approved by the board.

SEC. 3. Section 7665 of said code is amended to read:

Apprentice embalmers Requirements

7665. All registered apprentice embalmers shall be under the supervision and control of the board and shall comply with the following requirements during their period of apprenticeship:

(a) Shall file a report of apprenticeship as follows:

(1) On or before January 15th of each year covering the period of apprenticeship ending as of December 31st preceding.

(2) Upon change of supervising embalmer or employer, or both.

(3) Upon completion of apprenticeship.

(4) Upon application for leave of absence for a period in excess of 15 days.

(5) Upon suspending apprenticeship to attend embalming college.

(6) Upon application for reregistration after suspension or revocation of registration where complete report of previous registration has not been filed.

(b) The information contained in the report shall consist of a concise summary of the work done by the apprentice during the period covered thereby, shall be verified by the apprentice and certified to as correct by his supervising embalmer and employer. Upon request of the board, each funeral director in whose establishment an apprenticeship is being, or has been, served, and each embalmer under whose instruction or supervision an apprenticeship is being, or has been served, shall promptly file with the board a report or such other information as may be requested relating to the apprenticeship. Failure to comply with the request is ground for revocation by the board of the approval granted to such funeral director or embalmer for the training of apprentices and is also a ground for disciplinary action against such funeral director or embalmer.

SEC. 4. Section 7610 is added to said code, to read:

Actions against board

7610. All suits or actions commenced in the superior court against the board shall be filed and tried either in the County of Sacramento, or in the county of the residence of the plaintiff or petitioner, or in the county where the act occurred, which is the basis of the suit or action.

SEC. 5. Section 7708 is added to said code, to read:

Denial of application authorized

7708. The board, after a hearing, may deny the application of a funeral director, embalmer, or apprentice embalmer on proof that the applicant has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, fraud or dishonesty.

CHAPTER 816

An act to add Article 11, comprising Sections 20621 and 20622, to Chapter 2 of Division 10 of the Education Code, relating to state college police.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 11 is added to Chapter 2 of Division 10 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 11. State College Police

College police

20621. The Department of Education may appoint one or more persons to constitute a police department for each state college which maintains a course in penology or criminology and the campus of which state college is situated in unincorporated territory. Persons employed and compensated as members of a police department, when so appointed and duly sworn, are peace officers only upon the campus of the state college and other grounds or properties of the state college.

Badges

20622. Every member of a state college police department shall be supplied with, and authorized to wear, a badge bearing the words "State College Police."

CHAPTER 817

An act to amend Sections 6231 and 6264 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to local franchises for public utilities.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

NOTE: The sections of the Public Utilities Code affected by this chapter appear in their proper place in that code. Chapter 764 of Statutes of 1951, as required by Section 9762 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 818

An act to add Section 6103.1 to the Government Code and to repeal Section 4295a of the Political Code, relating to fees for official services.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6103.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

Application of section

6103.1. Section 6103 does not apply to any fee or charge for official services required by Parts 3 and 4 of Division 2 of the Water Code.

Repeal

SEC. 2. Section 4295a of the Political Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 819

An act to add Article 10 to Chapter 3, Part 3, Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to county sanitation districts.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 10 is added to Chapter 3, Part 3, Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 10. Reorganization

Reorganization election

4857. Whenever (a) 25 percent or more of the residents and taxpayers residing within a district so petition the board of supervisors; or (b) the board of supervisors, by resolution, determines it to be in the best interests of the district, the board of supervisors may call an election to determine whether or not the district should be reorganized as a sanitary district under Part 1, Division 6 of this code. The proposed name of the reorganized district shall be designated in the petition or resolution.

Same

4858. The election shall be held as provided in Sections 6460 to 6466, inclusive, of this code.

Same. Result

4859. If the majority of the votes cast at the election are in favor of the proposed reorganization, the board of supervisors, by order entered in its minutes, shall declare the district reorganized as a sanitary district. Upon the adoption of the order, the district shall be deemed to be a sanitary district with all of the rights, powers, duties, and obligations of a sanitary district.

Said sanitary district shall cause assessments to be made and taxes to be levied to retire any and all outstanding bonded indebtedness so that the same shall be retired in the same manner and to the same extent as though said district had continued as a county sanitation district.

CHAPTER 820

An act to amend Section 1881.3 of the Civil Code, relating to private bulk storage of grain, and extending the effective period of the chapter of said code relating to such storage.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1881.3 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

Duration

1881.3. The provisions of this chapter shall have no force and effect after December 31, 1953.

CHAPTER 821

An act to add Section 25508 to the Government Code, relating to county purchasing agents.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25508 is hereby added to the Government Code, to read:

Rules and regulations

25508. The board of supervisors may by ordinance establish rules and regulations requiring the purchasing agent to obtain quotations by the use of formal or informal bids, in connection with the purchase of materials, supplies, furnishings, equipment, livestock and other personal property which such purchasing agent is authorized to purchase for the county and its offices. The purchasing agent shall comply with such rules and regulations.

CHAPTER 822

An act to add Section 35561.1 to the Government Code, relating to withdrawal of territory from cities.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35561.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

Exclusion of territory from city

35561.1. In the case of territory which has been annexed by the city without the filing of a petition or request therefor signed by the owners of property within the territory annexed, but under proceedings initiated by the legislative body of the city on its own motion, and in which no notice of such proceedings was given to said property owners except constructive notice by publication or by posting, all of the territory so annexed shall be excluded from said city if, within two years after such annexation shall have been completed, a petition for such exclusion shall be filed with the city clerk, addressed to the legislative body of said city, signed by the owners of property within said territory owning not less than 75 percent of the land in the territory by area and by assessed value, as shown on the last equalized assessment roll of the county in which the territory is situated.

Upon the filing of such petition with the city clerk, the legislative body of said city shall, at its next regular meeting or at any earlier meeting duly called for that purpose, examine said petition and, if it finds the same to be in compliance with this section, shall by ordinance exclude from said city all of the territory therein described which had been so annexed. In such case no election need or shall be called or held for the purpose of the exclusion of such territory. The clerk of the legislative body shall within 10 days after the passage of said ordinance, file with the Secretary of State and the board of supervisors a certified copy of said ordinance in the same manner as herein provided for the filing of a copy of a report and statement of election held under other provisions of this article, and upon such filing such exclusion shall be complete and the territory affected no longer a part of said city. If the city, prior to such exclusion, has incurred any expense for the construction or installation of any facilities or improvements on the property so excluded or for the furnishing of any service thereto, each owner of said property shall reimburse the city the full amount of such expense fairly attributable to his property, together with interest thereon at the rate of six (6) percent per annum from the date of the payment of such expense by the city. All amounts due on account of such reimbursement shall be a lien on the property affected, enforceable in the same manner as liens for city taxes. Said property shall also remain liable for its proportion of debts contracted by the city prior to such exclusion as provided by Section 35564 of this code.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to annexation proceedings heretofore approved by a final decision of a court of record in this State.

CHAPTER 823

An act to amend Section 1462.2 of the Penal Code, relating to procedure after arrests for misdemeanors.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1462.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

Trial of misdemeanor cases

1462.2. Except as otherwise provided in the Vehicle Code, the proper court for the trial of criminal cases amounting to misdemeanor shall be determined as follows: If there is a municipal or justice court, having jurisdiction of the subject matter of the case, established in the district within which the offense charged was committed, such court is the proper court for the trial of the case; otherwise, the court, having jurisdiction of the subject matter, nearest to the place where the offense was committed is the proper court for the trial of the case.

If an action or proceeding is commenced in a court having jurisdiction of the subject matter thereof other than the court herein designated as the proper court for the trial, the action may, notwithstanding, be tried in the court where commenced unless the defendant, at the time he pleads, requests an order transferring the action or proceeding to the proper court. If after such request it appears that the action or proceeding was not commenced in the proper court, the court shall order the action or proceeding transferred to the proper court.

CHAPTER 824

An act to add Section 707 5 to the Streets and Highways Code, relating to removals and relocations of utility facilities to accommodate state freeways

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 707 5 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

Contracts with utilities

707 5. (A) The department and any utility as defined in Section 700 of this code may enter into a contract providing for or apportioning the obligations and costs to be borne by each party as to either or both of the following subject matters:

(1) Any or all removals or relocations of any utility facilities completed by the utility prior to the effective date of such contract as required by notice given by the department wherever necessary to accommodate any or all state freeways, where: (a) the obligations or costs in respect thereto to be borne by each party is in dispute; and (b) the claim of the utility is: (i) founded upon a removal or relocation completed by the utility not longer than three years immediately preceding the effective date of such contract; or (ii) involved in an action pending in a court of competent jurisdiction if such action was commenced within three years after completion by the utility of the removal or relocation in question; and

(2) Any or all removals or relocations of any utility facilities to be undertaken or completed by the utility after the effective date of such contract as required by notice given by the department wherever necessary to accommodate any or all state freeways.

Irrevocability of provisions

(B) Those provisions of any such contract settling the claims of the parties in respect to any or all removals or relocations of any utility facilities completed by the utility prior to the effective date of such contract, as authorized in subdivision (A) (1) of this section, shall be irrevocable after the execution of such contract, except as the same may be changed or modified by mutual consent of the parties in writing; and either party may maintain an action in a court of competent jurisdiction upon such provisions of said contract at any time within two years after the effective date of such contract, and the utility need file no claim with any state agency as a condition precedent to the maintenance of any such action.

Limitations

(C) Those provisions of any such contract dealing with any or all removals or relocations of any utility facilities to be undertaken or completed by the utility after the effective date of such contract, as authorized in subdivision (A) (2) of this section, shall be under and subject to the following limitations and requirements: Same

(1) While such provisions of said contract remain in effect, such provisions shall govern exclusively the determination of the obligations and costs to be borne by each party in regard to every removal or relocation covered thereby undertaken or completed by the utility after the effective date of such contract, whether notice in respect thereto was given by the department to the utility before or after the effective date of such contract, in lieu of the determination thereof under the foregoing provisions of this article as now or hereafter existing and any and all other laws which would be applicable to said subject matter but for said contract, save to the extent that any such laws may be referred to, retained, and made applicable by, such provisions of said contracts; provided: (a) where before the effective date of a contract entered into under this section the parties executed an agreement in respect to the obligations and costs to be borne by each party as to a particular removal or relocation under a notice given by the department, the provisions of such last mentioned agreement shall govern as to the obligations and costs to be borne by each party in respect thereto; and (b) where a particular notice given by the department before the effective date of a contract entered into under this section specifies a removal or relocation to be made at the expense of the utility, the utility shall be and remain bound thereby unless the utility advised the department in writing of its disagreement with such determination within the time specified in any agreement then in effect between the department and the utility in respect to the procedure to be followed in such cases, or, if none, within a reasonable time after receipt by the utility of said notice.

(2) Either party may maintain an action in a court of competent jurisdiction for an adjudication as to the obligations and costs to be borne by each party under such provisions of said contract at any time within four years after the cause of action first arose thereunder. Such a cause of action shall be deemed to arise upon and at the time of the completion by the utility of the removal or relocation in question. The filing of a claim with any state agency shall not be deemed a condition precedent to the maintenance by the utility of any such action.

(3) Such provisions of said contract shall terminate: (i) automatically upon the repeal of this section or of subdivisions (A) (2) and (C) hereof; and (ii) also, unless sooner so automatically terminated, at such time or in such manner as may be provided in said contract; and in the event of either such termination, the laws applicable to the subject matter of such provisions of said contract as existing at the time of such termination shall thereafter govern, save as to removals or relocations theretofore required of the utility by the department under notice mailed or delivered to the utility prior to such termination, whether work upon such removal or relocation has theretofore commenced, is in progress, or has been completed.

An act to amend Sections 25008 and 25102 of the Corporations Code, relating to securities.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25008 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

"Security"

25008. "Security" includes all of the following:

(a) Any stock, including treasury stock; any certificate of interest or participation; any certificate of interest in a profit-sharing agreement; any certificate of interest in an oil, gas, or mining title or lease; any transferable share, investment contract, or beneficial interest in title to property, profits, or earnings.

(b) Any bond; any debenture; any collateral trust certificate; any note; any evidence of indebtedness, whether interest-bearing or not.

(c) Any guarantee of a security.

(d) Any certificate of deposit for a security.

SEC. 2. Section 25102 of said code is amended to read:

Application Corp. C., §25000, ff.

25102. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this division, the Corporate Securities Law does not apply to any of the following classes of securities:

(a) Any security (except notes, bonds, debentures, or other evidences of indebtedness, whether interest-bearing or not) issued by a company organized under the laws of this State exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, charitable, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, no part of the earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

(b) Bills of exchange, trade acceptances, promissory notes and any guarantee thereof, and other commercial paper issued, given, or acquired in a bona fide way in the ordinary course of legitimate business, trade, or commerce.

(c) Promissory notes, whether secured or unsecured, where the notes are not offered to the public, or are not sold to an underwriter for the purpose of resale.

CHAPTER 826

An act to add Section 6304.5 to the Public Resources Code, relating to cooperation by the State Lands Commission with the Federal Government in the development and maintenance of small boat harbors.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6304.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

6304.5. The commission may cooperate with the Corps of Engineers of the Department of the Army of the United States Government in the development and maintenance of small boat harbors. Cooperation in development of small boat harbors

An act to amend Section 924 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to nets, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 924 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

924. In that part of District 16 lying north and west of a line drawn from the light on the end of the Monterey Breakwater magnetic east to the shore line, purse and round haul nets may be used. Use of nets

In that portion of District 16 lying southerly of the Monterey Breakwater and south of a line drawn from the light on the end of said breakwater magnetic east to the shore line, purse and round haul nets may be used from June 1st to August 31st for the purpose of taking squid.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows: Urgency

Squid is an important source of food supply to the Philippines and to Greece. It is a basic food of thousands of workers. The market is now depleted of squid. Packers' warehouses are empty. The optimum fishing period for this important fish supply is the summer months of June, July and August. In order to replenish the present shortage of squid, it is necessary that fishermen be immediately allowed to operate in the waters of District 16, as in this act provided, during the months of June, July and August, 1951. Unless this act takes effect immediately fishing in said waters will be delayed until the summer of 1952, which will further increase the shortage of this important food supply.

Stats 1921 p 245, amended

An act to add Section 545 to the Municipal Utility District Act and Section 12106 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to municipal utility districts, declaring the urgency hereof to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 545 is added to the Municipal Utility District Act, to read:

Emergency appointments

Sec. 545. Anything in this act to the contrary notwithstanding, the board may by resolution passed by a four-fifths vote of all its members authorize the general manager to make appointments without examination, which are termed emergency appointments. Emergency appointments may be made whenever the United States is engaged in war or whenever the President finds and proclaims that an emergency exists in preparing for the national defense. Positions may be filled by emergency appointments for such period as may be necessary for the operation of the district, but not beyond 90 days after the termination of war or 90 days after the President finds and proclaims that the emergency no longer exists. No emergency appointee shall acquire any civil service status because of any such emergency appointment.

NOTE: The section of the Public Utilities Code affected by this chapter appears in its proper place in that code, Chapter 764 of Statutes of 1951, as required by Section 9762 of the Government Code.

Effect Stats 1951, Ch 764

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act becomes operative only if Division 6 of the Public Utilities Code is enacted by the Legislature at its 1951 Regular Session, and in such case at the same time as said Division 6 takes effect; at which time Section 545 of the Municipal Utility District Act is repealed.

Urgency

SEC. 4. This act is an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The increasing shortage of trained personnel and the necessity for filling positions on a temporary basis pending the return of permanent employees from military service make it imperative that agencies having public service responsibilities be able to obtain adequate manpower without delay.

Duration

SEC. 5. The section of the Municipal Utilities District Act and the section of the Public Utilities Code added by this act, shall remain in effect only until the ninety-first day after the final adjournment of the 1953 Regular Session of the Legislature.

CHAPTER 829

An act to amend Section 320 of the Vehicle Code, relating to records.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 320 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

320. Records to Be Kept by Department. The department shall file every application for a license received by it and maintain:

Records kept by department

(a) A suitable index containing, in alphabetical order, all applications denied and on each thereof note the reasons for such denial.

(b) A suitable index containing, in alphabetical order, all applications granted.

(c) A suitable index containing, in alphabetical order, the name of every licensee whose license has been suspended or revoked by the department or by a court and after each such name note the reasons for such action and the period of revocation or suspension.

(d) The department shall also file all accident reports and abstracts of court records of convictions received hereunder and in connection therewith maintain convenient records or make suitable notations in order that an individual record of each licensee showing the convictions of such licensee and the traffic accidents in which he was involved shall be readily ascertainable.

(e) The department is not required to maintain records relating to drivers of motor vehicles after such records are, in the opinion of the director, no longer necessary, except that records of convictions shall be maintained so long as they may form the basis of license suspensions or revocations as prior convictions or with other records of conviction constitute a person a "negligent operator of a motor vehicle."

Records which are not required to be maintained may be destroyed with the approval of the Department of Finance.

CHAPTER 830

An act to amend Section 220 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to common carriers.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

NOTE: The section of the Public Utilities Code affected by this chapter appears in its proper place in that code, Chapter 764 of Statutes of 1951, as required by Section 9762 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 831

An act adopting and authorizing a plan for construction of the San Lucas Dam and Reservoir, Salinas River Basin, by the Monterey County Flood Control and Water Conservation District in cooperation with the State of California and the United States, for flood control and water conservation, at an estimated cost to the State of two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000).

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

San Lucas Project authorized

SECTION 1. The plan of improvement for flood control and water conservation in the Salinas River Basin known as the San Lucas Project, consisting of the San Lucas Dam and Reservoir, proposed to be constructed by the Monterey County Flood Control and Water Conservation District under a cooperative plan whereby the district, the State of California and the United States shall each bear a portion of the cost, is hereby adopted and authorized substantially in accordance with the plan and recommendations relating thereto contained in Report on San Lucas Project in Salinas River Basin, Monterey County, October, 1950 (Reports of State Water Resources Board), at an estimated cost to the State of two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000) for lands, easements and rights of way and all utility, highway and railway relocations, necessary for the construction of said dam and reservoir.

Assurances

SEC. 2. The Monterey County Flood Control and Water Conservation District shall give assurances satisfactory to the United States and to the State that it will construct the San Lucas Dam and Reservoir in accordance with said project plans, or any modification thereof approved by the Chief of Engineers and the State Engineer, and that it will pay for the cost of such construction less funds contributed by the United States and the costs assumed by the State for lands, easements and rights of way and for all utility, highway, and railway relocation, and that the district will construct, operate and maintain the flood control features of said project in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Army, and will maintain and operate all project works after completion and hold and save the United States and the State free from damages due to the construction of the proposed works.

Agreements authorized

SEC. 3. The Monterey County Flood Control and Water Conservation District is authorized to enter into agreements with the United States and with the State of California obligating the district to do or perform those things which are required of the district by this act and by any act or acts of Congress, subsequently enacted providing for federal cooperation for flood control purposes on said project, and it shall be the duty of said district in conjunction with the United States and the State of California, to execute the proposed plans referred to in this act and enter into any and all required agreements with the United States and the State of California in relation thereto, and exercise all powers granted to it in the Monterey County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act, and said district may make modifications and amendments to said plans as may be necessary to execute the same for the purposes of this act, subject to approval by the United States Corps of Engineers and the State Engineer.

CHAPTER 832

An act to add Chapter 4, comprising Sections 4400 to 4405, inclusive, to Part 8 of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, relating to corporations, and providing for the effectuation of plans of reorganization under any applicable statute of the United States.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 4 is added to Part 8 of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4. REORGANIZATION UNDER FEDERAL LAWS

Reorganization plan

4400. Any corporation organized or existing under the laws of this State, a plan of reorganization of which, pursuant to any of the provisions of any applicable statute of the United States, as now existing or hereafter enacted, relating to reorganizations of corporations, has been or shall be confirmed by the decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction, has full power and authority to put into effect and carry out the plan and the decrees and orders of the court or judge relative thereto, and may take any proceeding and do any act provided in the plan or directed by such decrees and orders, without further action by its directors or shareholders. Such power and authority may be exercised, and such proceedings and acts may be taken, as may be directed by such decrees or orders, by the trustee or trustees of such corporation appointed in the reorganization proceedings (or a majority thereof), or if none is appointed and acting, by officers of the corporation designated by such court or judge in said proceedings, or by a master or other representative appointed by the court or judge, with like effect as if exercised and taken by unanimous action of the directors and shareholders of the corporation.

Acts of reorganization

4401. Such corporation may, in the manner provided in Section 4400, but without limiting the generality or effect of Section 4400, alter, amend, or repeal its by-laws; constitute or reconstitute its board of directors, and name, constitute, or appoint directors and officers in place of or in addition to all or some of the directors or officers then in office; amend its articles of incorporation, and make any change in its capital or shares, or any other amendment, change, alteration, or provision, authorized by this division; be dissolved, transfer all or part of its assets, merge or consolidate as permitted by this division, in which case, however, no shareholder shall have any statutory right of appraisal of his shares; change the location of its principal office and remove or appoint an agent to receive service of process; authorize and fix the terms, manner and conditions of, the issuance of bonds, debentures or other obligations, whether or not convertible into shares of any class, or bearing warrants or other evidences of optional rights to purchase or subscribe for shares of any class; or lease its property and franchises to any corporation, if permitted by law.

Filing, etc., of certificate

4402. A certificate, executed as provided in Section 4403, of any amendment, change, or alteration or of dissolution, or any agreement of merger or consolidation, made by such corporation pursuant to Sections 4400 and 4401, shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and shall thereupon become effective in accordance with its terms and the provisions of this chapter. A copy of said certificate, certified by the Secretary of State, shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is located and of every county in which the corporation holds real property.

Certificate, agreement of merger, etc.

4403. Such certificate, agreement of merger, or other instrument shall be made, executed, and acknowledged, as may be directed by such decrees or orders, by the trustee or trustees appointed in the reorganization proceedings (or a majority thereof), or if none is appointed and acting, by officers of the corporation, or by a master or other representative appointed by the court or judge, and shall certify that provision for the making of such certificate, agreement, or instrument is contained in a decree or order, identifying the same, of a court or judge having jurisdiction of a proceeding under the statute of the United States specified in Section 4400 for the reorganization of such corporation.

Duration

4404. The provisions of this chapter shall cease to apply to such corporation upon the entry of a final decree in the reorganization proceedings closing the case and discharging the trustee or trustees, if any.

Fees

4405. For filing any certificate, agreement, report, or other paper made or executed pursuant to this chapter, there shall be paid to the Secretary of State the same fees as are payable by corporations not in reorganization upon the filing of like certificates, agreements, reports, or other papers.

CHAPTER 833

An act to repeal Sections 25663, as added by Chapter 557 of the Statutes of 1949, and as added by Chapter 72 of the Statutes of 1951, and 26421, and to add Sections 25663 and 25663c to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to the taxation of banks, corporations, Massachusetts trusts and associations, and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25663, as added by Chapter 557 of the Statutes of 1949, and as added by Chapter 72 of the Statutes of 1951, of the Revenue and Taxation Code are hereby repealed. Repeal

CHAPTER 839

An act to amend Sections 4, 6, and 11 of, and to add Section 4.5 to, the Defense Production Act, relating to employment and working conditions of female employees, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Stats 1950, (3d Ex Sess), Ch 33

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4 of the Defense Production Act is amended to read:

Sec. 4. An application for such a permit shall be filed by an employer before he employs females at or for such hours of work not permitted by law without a permit under this act, with the state department in which is vested the enforcement of the law from which it is proposed to create an exemption as herein provided. Such state department shall within 15 days after filing of the employer's application recommend the Application for permit issuance or denial of such a permit. If it recommends the issuance of such a permit, it shall incorporate the terms and conditions upon which it is recommended that the permit be issued. After receipt of the recommendation from the state department concerned, the Governor, within five days after he receives such recommendation from the state department, at his discretion shall either issue or deny the permit requested. If a permit is issued, the Governor shall include the terms and conditions within the permit.

SEC. 2. Section 4.5 is added to said act, to read:

Temporary permit

Sec. 4.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law the Governor may, in case of extreme emergency in connection with defense production, issue a temporary permit pending the processing of an application for a permit filed pursuant to Section 4 of this act.

SEC. 2. Section 6 of said act is amended to read:

Revocation, etc., of permit

Sec. 6. The Governor may at any time revoke, suspend or modify any permit. Upon proof being made that the terms and conditions of any such permit have been violated, or that the department which recommended the issuance of said permit finds that the same is no longer necessary in increasing production and furthering the defense program, it may recommend to the Governor that the permit be suspended, modified or revoked; provided, however, that no such recommendation shall be made until the employer has been given 15 days notice of the intention to make such recommendation.

SEC. 3. Section 11 of said act is amended to read:

Duration

Sec. 11. This act shall remain in effect until the ninety-first day after the final adjournment of the 1953 Regular Session of the Legislature or until the termination of the existing national defense emergency as evidenced by cessation of compulsory military service in the armed forces of the United States by citizens of this State, and as found and declared by proclamation issued by the Governor, whichever first occurs. While this act is in effect it shall supersede any existing provisions of law which are in conflict with this act; but such provisions are not repealed by this act and after this act is no longer effective shall have the same force as though this act had not been enacted.

Urgency

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

That it is necessary that the law in the Defense Production Act relating to employment of women, and to the powers of the Governor in that regard in time of extreme emergency be immediately clarified. It is necessary to the general welfare that during periods of accelerated defense production the interests of women employees under the laws regulating their hours of employment not be unduly jeopardized.

CHAPTER 840

An act to amend Section 6410 of the Labor Code, relating to the failure to report injuries and the penalty therefor.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6410 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6410. Any person who fails to comply with any provision of Sections 6407 to 6409 inclusive is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100). This section may be enforced by the Division of Labor Statistics and Research through the Director of Industrial Relations in the same manner as provided in Section 3710 of this code. Penalty

CHAPTER 841

An act to amend Section 419 of the Vehicle Code, relating to financial responsibility.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 419 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

419 Report of Accident Required. Reports and Records Not to Be Evidence in Civil Suits. (a) The driver of every motor vehicle which is in any manner involved in an accident on any street or highway within this State which accident has resulted in damage to the property of any one person in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) or in bodily injury or in the death of any person shall within 15 days after such accident report the accident on a form approved by the department to the office of the department at Sacramento, subject to the following provisions. In the event the driver at the time of an accident was driving a motor vehicle owned, operated or leased by the employer of such driver and with the permission of the employer, then such driver shall within five days after the accident report the accident to his employer on a form approved by the employer and said employer shall within 10 days after receipt of said report transmit a report on a form approved by the department to the office of the department at Sacramento, except that an employer need not transmit such report to the department when the vehicle involved in the accident is owned or operated as described in Section 422.1 or 422.4 or is owned or operated by Report of accident any person or corporation who has filed with the department a certificate of an insurance carrier or bonding company that there is in effect a policy or bond meeting the requirements of Section 422.6 and when such insurance policy or bond was in full force and effect in respect to such vehicle at the time of the accident.

Report of owner

(b) If any driver be physically incapable of making such report, and is not the owner of the motor vehicle involved in such accident then the owner shall, as soon as he learns of the accident, report the matter in writing to the department. The driver or the owner shall make such other and additional reports relating to such accidents as the department shall require.

Suspension of license

(c) The department may suspend the driving privilege and any licenses evidencing such privilege of any person who wilfully fails, refuses, or neglects to make report of an accident as herein required.

Report as evidence

(d) Neither the report required by this section, the action taken by the department pursuant to this chapter, the findings if any of the department upon which action is based, nor the security filed as provided in this chapter shall be referred to in any way, or be any evidence of the negligence or due care of any party, at the trial of any action at law to recover damages.

Contents of reports

(e) All reports and supplemental reports required by this chapter including insurance information forms and the total amounts of security required for deposit as determined by the department from such reports shall be without prejudice to the individual so reporting and shall be for the confidential use of the Department of Motor Vehicles and any other state department needing the same, except that the Department of Motor Vehicles shall disclose from such reports and security deposit records:

1. The names and addresses of persons involved in the accident.

2. The registration numbers and descriptions of vehicles involved in the accident.

3. The date, time and location of the accident.

4. The exemption from security requirement which has been established under Section 422.

5 That security has been deposited or that suspension action has been taken by the department

This information may be given to any person having a proper interest therein including:

1. The driver or drivers involved, or the employer, parent or legal guardian thereof.

2. The authorized representative of any person involved in the accident.

3. Any person injured in the accident.

4. The owners of vehicles or property damaged in the accident.

CHAPTER 844

An act to add Section 269b to, and to amend Section 261g of, the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to official reporters of the superior court in and for the State of California.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 269b is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

Phonographic reporters

269b. In each county and city and county having a population of 730,000 inhabitants or over, as determined by the federal census taken in 1950, in which the judges of the superior court in and for such county have not appointed regular official phonographic reporters pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 1031 of the Statutes of 1943, as amended, if a majority of the judges of such court concur in an order that appointments may be made pursuant to this section, the judges thereof may each appoint a competent phonographic reporter, specifying that the appointment is pursuant to Section 269b of this code. In such event all of the provisions of Chapter 1031 of the Statutes of 1943, as amended, other than those in conflict herewith, shall be in full force and effect and fully operative in such county except that the official reporters appointed pursuant to the provisions hereof shall not receive the annual salary therein provided but in lieu thereof each shall be paid twenty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($27.50) per day for the days he is actually on duty under order of the court. Each reporter appointed pursuant to this section shall, in addition to his other duties, perform such secretarial services for the judge by whom he is appointed as such judge may require in the performance of his official duties; provided, however, that in cases in which a phonographic reporter is requested, and the fees provided for by Chapter 1031, Statutes of 1943, as amended, have not been paid, the parties litigant shall pay to the clerk of the court, prior to the hearing of said cases, the phonographic reporter's fees provided for in Section 274 of this code, which fees shall be deposited by said clerk in the county treasury to the credit of the salary fund of the county.

SEC. 2. Section 261g of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Same

261g. In each county, or city and county, having a population of more than 74,000 and less than 100,000 inhabitants, as determined by the federal census taken in 1940, the judges of the superior court in and for such county, or city and county, a majority thereof concurring therein, to assist the court in the transaction of the judicial business of said court, may appoint the following employees:

Phonographic Reporters. The judges of the superior court, a majority concurring, may appoint as many regular official phonographic reporters as necessary to report the proceedings in said court, except that the number of reporters so appointed shall not exceed at any one time the number of offices of judge provided by law for said court, said reporters to hold office during the pleasure of the judges of said court, a majority concurring The duties of such official reporters shall be performed as elsewhere defined in this code. Each of said reporters shall receive as full compensation for taking notes in criminal cases in the superior court a monthly salary of five hundred dollars ($500). All other fees of such reporters shall be as elsewhere defined or prescribed in this code. In cases where it is necessary that a pro tem reporter be appointed, such reporter shall be allowed the fees as prescribed elsewhere in this code.

CHAPTER 845

An act to amend Sections 14345 and 14347 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to the withholding of moneys and property belonging to a decedent.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14345 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

Withholding decedent's money, etc

14345. No safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank, other institution, or person in possession, control, custody, partial control, or partial custody of any securities, deposits, or other property, including shares of the capital stock of or other interest in any such organization or institution, belonging to or standing in the name of a decedent, whether resident or nonresident, shall deliver or transfer any such property to or upon the order or request of any executor of the will, administrator of the estate, legatee or heir of the decedent; nor deliver or transfer any such property to or upon the order of any agent, deputy, attorney, trustee or successor in interest of the decedent after receipt of actual notice of the death of the decedent; nor deliver or transfer any securities or other property, including any shares of the capital stock or other interest in any such organization or institution, standing in the joint names of the decedent and one or more other persons, to or upon the order or request of such other person or persons after receipt of actual notice of the death of the decedent; and no bank or other institution having custody of any deposit standing in the joint names of a decedent and any other person or persons or standing in the name of the decedent subject to the right of any other person or persons to draw upon or withdraw the same shall pay or deliver such deposit to or upon the order of such other person or persons after receipt of actual notice of the death of the decedent by the officer or manager in charge of the office or branch of such bank or other institution at which such deposit is carried or by the employee thereof who pays or delivers said deposit:

(a) Without retaining a sufficient portion or amount of the property to pay any tax and interest which may thereafter be assessed pursuant to this part; and

(b) Without first giving notice of the time and place of the delivery or transfer to the Controller and county treasurer at least 10 days prior to the delivery or transfer.

The Controller, or any person authorized in writing by the Controller, may consent in writing to the delivery or transfer, in which event compliance with this section is not required.

The Controller or county treasurer may examine any property specified in this section at the time of its delivery or at any other time.

SEC. 2. Section 14347 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

Liability upon failure to comply

14347. Any safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank, other institution, or person required to comply with the provisions of this article but failing to do so is liable to the State for the amount of any tax, interest or penalty due and payable under this part on the transfer of the property involved, if solely by reason of such transfer or payment the State is unable to recover the same.

The liabilities imposed by this section may be enforced by the Controller in an action brought in any court of competent jurisdiction.

CHAPTER 846

An act to amend Section 31676.9 of the Government Code, relating to the retirement of public employees.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31676.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Prior service pension

31676.9. In every county in which a retirement system was established prior to January 1, 1952, the prior service pension is an additional pension for members purchased by the county or district, equal to one-sixtieth of the average annual compensation earnable by him during the last three years of service, multiplied by the number of years of prior service credited to him.

CHAPTER 847

An act to add Section 24205.3 to the Education Code, relating to the conferring of degrees by schools and colleges.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 24205.3 is added to the Education Code, to read:

24205.3. The provisions of Section 24205 to the contrary notwithstanding, any institution established prior to January 1, 1900, under and in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 47 of the Statutes of 1885, is authorized to confer a degree of associate in arts, sciences, engineering, electricity or mechanics upon those persons who have completed a two-year course of study prescribed by the institution.

CHAPTER 848

An act to amend Sections 516 and 715 of the Vehicle Code, relating to speed and weight limitations on bridges and other elevated structures and tubes and tunnels constituting a part of a highway.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 516 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

516. Speed on Bridges and Structures. (a) No person shall drive a vehicle over any bridge or other elevated structure constituting a part of a highway at a speed which is greater than the maximum speed which can be maintained with safety to such bridge or other elevated structure.

Speed on bridges, etc.

(b) The State Department of Public Works may, in the manner hereinafter provided, determine the maximum speed, not less than five miles per hour, which can be maintained with safety to such bridge or other elevated structure. The department shall make an engineering investigation and hold a public hearing whenever such determination appears necessary; provided, that if the bridge or other elevated structure is not under the jurisdiction of said department, the department has first received a request therefor from the board of supervisors or road commissioner of the county, the governing body of the city, or other agency or person, having jurisdiction over such bridge or other elevated structure.

Notice of the time and place of said public hearing shall be posted upon such bridge or other elevated structure at least five days before the date fixed for such hearing. Upon the basis of said investigation and all evidence presented at said hearing, said department shall determine by order in writing the maximum speed which can be maintained with safety to such bridge or other elevated structure. Thereupon, the authority having jurisdiction over such bridge or other structure shall erect and maintain suitable signs specifying the maximum speed so determined at a distance of not more than 500 feet from each end of such bridge or other elevated structure or any approach thereto.

(c) Upon the trial of any person charged with a violation of this section, proof of said determination of the maximum speed by said department and the existence of said signs shall constitute prima facie evidence of the maximum speed which can be maintained with safety to such bridge or other elevated structure.

(d) All of the provisions of this section shall likewise apply with respect to the maximum speed within any tube or tunnel constituting a part of a highway.

SEC. 2. Section 715 of said code is amended to read:

Weight limitations on bridges, etc

715. Weight Limitation on Bridges and Other Structures. (a) No person shall drive a vehicle over any bridge, causeway, viaduct, trestle or dam constituting a part of a highway when the weight of such vehicle and load thereon is greater than the maximum weight which such bridge or other structure with safety to itself will sustain.

(b) The State Department of Public Works may, in the manner hereinafter provided, determine the maximum weight of vehicle and load, lower than the maximum weight otherwise permitted under this code which such bridge or other structure with safety to itself will sustain.

The department shall make an engineering investigation and hold a public hearing whenever such a determination appears necessary; provided, that if the bridge or other structure is not under the jurisdiction of said department, the department has first received a request therefor from the board of supervisors or road commissioner of the county, the governing body of the city, or other agency or person, having jurisdiction over such bridge or other structure.

Notice of the time and place of said hearing shall be posted upon such bridge or other structure at least five days before the date fixed for such hearing. Upon the basis of said investigation and all evidence presented at said hearing, said department shall determine by order in writing the maximum weight of vehicle and load which such bridge or other structure with safety to itself will sustain. Thereupon, the authority having jurisdiction over such bridge or other structure shall erect and maintain suitable signs specifying the maximum weight so determined, at a distance of not more than 500 feet from each end of such bridge or other structure or any approach thereto

Any such sign may contain the words "Load Limit _____ Tons per Vehicle" with the maximum gross weight inserted in figures preceding the word "tons," the words "load limit" and the figures and the word "tons" set forth in letters not less than three inches in height, and the words "per vehicle" in letters not less than one and one-half inches in height. Any such sign may also contain additional provisions stating maximum gross weight in tons for a tractor and semitrailer and any other combination or combinations of vehicles in figures and words not less than one and one-half inches in height. The stroke for letters and figures three inches or more in height shall be not less than one-half inch and for letters and figures one and one-half inches and not more than three inches in height shall be not less than one-fourth inch. It shall only be necessary to state the words "load limit" once upon any such sign.

Any sign meeting the above requirements shall be deemed a suitable sign.

(c) Upon the trial of any person charged with violating this section, proof of said determination of the maximum weight by said department and the existence of said signs shall constitute prima facie evidence of the maximum weight which such bridge or other structure with safety to itself will sustain.

CHAPTER 849

An act to add Section 1161 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to hunting while intoxicated.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1161 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

1161. It is unlawful to hunt with firearms or with bow and arrow when intoxicated. Hunting while intoxicated

CHAPTER 850

An act to amend Section 737.11 of the Agricultural Code, relating to the purchase of fluid milk and fluid cream.

[Approved by Governor June 2, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 737.11 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

737.11. (a) The director may refuse to grant any license herein provided and may revoke or suspend any such license as the case may require when he is satisfied that any applicant or licensee has violated any provision of this chapter, or any provision of any stabilization and marketing plan formulated under Revocation, etc., of license the provisions of this chapter, or of any order of the director establishing minimum wholesale and minimum retail prices for fluid milk or fluid cream formulated under the provisions of this chapter. The proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the director shall have all the powers granted therein.

The decision may include an order refusing, revoking or suspending the license applied for or held by the respondent, or affixing such other conditional and probationary orders as may be proper for the enforcement of this chapter or any provision of any stabilization and marketing plan formulated under the provisions of this chapter, or of any order of the director establishing minimum wholesale and minimum retail prices for fluid milk or fluid cream formulated under the provisions of this chapter.

After any decision including any conditional or probationary orders, should respondent fail, refuse or neglect to comply with any such orders, the director may suspend or revoke the license in accordance with the procedure provided in this section.

Previous violation by any applicant, or by any person connected with said applicant, of any provision of this chapter, or of any provision of any stabilization and marketing plan formulated under the provisions of this chapter, or of any order of the director establishing minimum wholesale and minimum retail prices for fluid milk or fluid cream, formulated under the provisions of this chapter, shall be good and sufficient ground for denial, revocation or suspension of a license.

Shortening hearing time

(b) Whenever the director is satisfied, either by investigation or after hearing, that a distributor is unable to pay for fluid milk and/or fluid cream purchased from producers, and is further satisfied that to permit the distributor to continue to purchase and receive fluid milk and/or fluid cream from producers would be likely to cause serious and irreparable loss to producer-creditors and other producers, then the director within his discretion may thereupon and forthwith shorten the time for hearing that is provided for in Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and thereupon may issue an order to show cause why the license of said distributor should not be forthwith suspended or revoked; provided, however, that the time of notice of said hearing shall in no event be less than five days. At such hearing the distributor proceeded against shall be ordered to show cause why his or its license should not be suspended or revoked or continued under such conditions and provisions, if any, as the director may consider just and proper and for the protection of the best interests of the producer-creditors and producers from whom the distributor has been and is receiving fluid milk and/or fluid cream. Following such hearing, the decision of the director shall become effective at his discretion.

Said hearing, in the case of such emergency, may be called upon written notice, said notice to be served personally or by mail on the distributor involved and may be held at the nearest office of the director or at such place as may be most convenient in the discretion of the director for the attendance of all parties involved.

CHAPTER 851

An act to amend Section 10783 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to exempting vehicles owned by disabled veterans from the motor vehicle license fee.

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10783 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

Exemption for disabled veterans

10783. The license fee imposed by this part does not apply to any vehicle, other than a commercial vehicle, owned by a veteran who has lost, or has lost the use of, both legs as a result of injury or disease suffered while on active service with the military, naval, or air forces of the United States.

The exemption granted by this section shall extend to not more than one vehicle owned by any such veteran.

CHAPTER 852

An act to add Section 1130 to the Probate Code, relating to vouchers filed by trustees.

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1130 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

Voucher filed by trustees

1130. Any voucher which may have been filed in support of the account of a trustee may be withdrawn on leaving a certified copy on file, but must be produced on demand, unless permanently withdrawn with the permission of the court. Five years from the date of settlement of the account in support of which a voucher was filed the clerk of the court may destroy the voucher or deliver it to the trustee or to his attorney.

CHAPTER 853

An act to amend Section 14658 of, and to add Section 14661 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to fire protection districts in one or more counties.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14658 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

Conduct of elections

14658. The elections shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the general election laws except as in this chapter provided to the contrary. The board of directors shall by by-law provide the manner of nomination of candidates which shall conform as nearly as practicable to general election laws. The signatures of 10 electors qualified to participate in district elections are required to nominate a candidate for any district office. Names of nominees and candidates shall have been filed with the secretary of the board at least five days prior to the publication of the notice provided for in Section 14655 and such names shall be stated in such notice of holding of election.

SEC. 2. Section 14661 is added to said code, to read:

Vacancies

14661. If the office of director is vacated by forfeiture, death, resignation, or from any cause other than expiration of the term, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the board of supervisors.

CHAPTER 854

An act to amend Sections 35147, 35148, 35149, and 35150 of the Government Code, relating to annexation.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35147 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Payment for municipal improvements

35147. When any city to which it is proposed to annex territory pursuant to this article has incurred, or authorized the incurring of, any bonded indebtedness for the acquisition, construction, or completion of any municipal improvements, or has fixed an amount of money to represent the value to the territory to be annexed of municipal improvements already paid for by city taxpayers, the petition presented to the city legislative body may contain a request that the question submitted to the electors residing in the territory shall be, whether the territory shall be annexed, and the property in the territory subjected to taxation after annexation, equally with the property within the city, to pay any specified portion of such bonded indebtedness outstanding or authorized at the date of filing the petition, or the petition presented to the city legislative body may, either additionally or alternatively contain a request that the question submitted to the electors residing in the territory shall be, whether the territory shall be annexed, and the property in the territory subjected to taxation after annexation to pay the amount of money fixed to represent the value to the territory of municipal improvements already paid for by city taxpayers.

SEC. 2. Section 35148 of said code is amended to read:

35148. If such a request, or requests, is made in the petition, in addition to the matters required by Section 35124 the notice of election shall: Notice of election

(a) With respect to a request for assumption of bonded indebtedness:

(1) State distinctly the proposition to be submitted.

(2) Specify the improvement or improvements for which the indebtedness was incurred or authorized.

(3) State the amount or amounts of such indebtedness outstanding at the date of the first publication of the notice.

(4) State the amount authorized and to be represented by bonds to be issued

(5) State the maximum rate of interest payable, or to be payable on the indebtedness.

(b) With respect to a request for assumption of an amount of money fixed by the city legislative body:

(1) State distinctly the proposition to be submitted.

(2) State the amount of money fixed to represent the value to the territory of municipal improvements already paid for by city taxpayers.

(3) State the improvements already paid for by city taxpayers.

(4) State the total assessed value of all taxable property in the territory to be annexed as shown on the last equalized county assessment roll and the tax rate per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed value required to raise the amount of money fixed by the city legislative body.

(5) State the number of annual installments proposed by the city legislative body for collection of the amount fixed by taxation of property in the territory.

SEC. 3 Section 35149 of said code is amended to read:

35149. In all other particulars, the annexation shall be conducted as if there were no question of assuming an indebtedness, or tax liability for municipal improvements already paid for by city taxpayers. Conduct of annexation

SEC. 4 Section 35150 of said code is amended to read:

35150. When the annexation of territory voting to assume such city indebtedness or fixed amount, or both, has been completed, the property within the annexed territory shall be taxed to pay the bonded indebtedness, or fixed amount, or both as specified in the notice. Taxation

CHAPTER 855

Ag C, §1300 10, ff

An act to amend Sections 1300.12, 1300.13, 1300.15, 1300.16, 1300.17, and 1300.19 of the Agricultural Code, relating to administration of The California Marketing Act of 1937 and the enforcement of marketing orders thereunder, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1300.12 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Definitions

1300.12. (a) "Cartwright Act" means the act passed by the Legislature of this State entitled "An act to define trust and to provide for criminal penalties and civil damages and punishment of corporations, persons, firms and associations, or persons connected with them, and to promote free competition in commerce and all classes of business in this State," approved March 23, 1907, as amended.

Stats 1907, p. 984

Stats 1913, p 508

(b) "Unfair Practices Act" means an act passed by the Legislature of this State entitled "An act relating to unfair competition and discrimination, making certain unfair and discriminatory practices unlawful, defining the duties of the Attorney General in regard thereto, declaring certain contracts illegal and forbidding recovery thereon, providing for actions to enjoin unfair competition and discrimination and to recover damages therefor, making the violation of the provisions of this act a misdemeanor and providing penalties," approved June 10, 1913, as amended.

(c) "Agricultural commodity" means any and all agricultural, horticultural, viticultural (including wine) and vegetable products produced in this State, either in their natural state or as processed by a producer for the purpose of marketing such product or by a processor as herein defined, and including bees and honey but not including timber or timber products.

(d) "Producer" means any person engaged within this State in the business of producing, or causing to be produced for market, any agricultural commodity as herein defined.

(e) "Handler" means any person engaged within this State as a distributor in the business of distributing an agricultural commodity in intrastate commerce, or any person engaged as a processor in the business of processing an agricultural commodity.

(f) "Processor" means any person engaged within this State, in the operation of receiving, grading, packing, canning, fermenting, distilling, extracting, preserving, grinding, crushing or changing the form of an agricultural commodity for the purpose of preparing such agricultural commodity for market or of marketing such commodity, or any other activities performed for the purpose of preparing such commodity for market or of marketing such commodity, but shall not include a person engaged in manufacturing from an agricultural commodity, so changed in form, another and different product. Same

(g) "Distributor" means any person who engages in the operation of selling, marketing or distributing, in intrastate commerce, an agricultural commodity which he has produced, or purchased or acquired from a producer or which he is marketing on behalf of a producer, whether as owner, agent, employee, broker or otherwise, but shall not include a retailer as herein defined except such retailer who purchases or acquires from, or handles on behalf of any producer, an agricultural commodity not theretofore subjected to regulation by the marketing order covering such commodity.

(h) "Retailer" means any person who purchases or acquires any agricultural commodity for resale at retail to the general public for consumption off the premises but such person shall also be included within the definition of distributor, as herein set forth, to the extent that he engages in the business of a distributor as herein defined.

(i) "Person" means an individual, firm, corporation, association or any other business unit, and shall, for the purposes of this chapter, include any state agency which engages in any of the commercial activities regulated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(j) "Director" means the Director of Agriculture.

(k) "Marketing order" means an order issued by the Director of Agriculture, pursuant to this act, prescribing rules and regulations governing the processing, distributing or handling in any manner of any agricultural commodity within this State during any specified period or periods.

(l) "To handle" means to engage in the business of a handler as herein defined.

(m) "To process" means to engage in the business of a processor as herein defined.

(n) "To distribute" means to engage in the business of a distributor as herein defined.

(o) "Producer marketing" or "marketed by producers" means any or all operations performed by any producer in preparing for market, and shall include selling, delivering or disposing of for commercial purposes, to any handler as herein defined any agricultural commodity which he has produced.

(p) "Advertising and sales promotion" means, in addition to the ordinarily accepted meaning thereof, trade promotion and activities for the prevention, modification or removal of trade barriers which restrict the free flow of agricultural commodities to market and may include the presentation of facts to and negotiations with state, federal or foreign governmental agencies on matters which affect the marketing of any commodity or commodities included in any marketing order or marketing agreement made effective pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(q) As used in this chapter the terms "directly affecting" or "directly regulated or affected" shall include, in addition to any other method of regulation authorized in this chapter, the levying or collecting of any assessment under any marketing order or agreement or deducting producer assessments from any moneys owed by handlers to producers.

SEC. 2. Section 1300.13 of said code is amended to read:

Authority of director

1300.13. (a) The Director of Agriculture shall administer and enforce the provisions of this act and shall have and may exercise any or all of the administrative powers conferred by Sections 11180 to 11191, inclusive, of the Government Code upon the head of a department of the State. In order to effectuate the declared purposes of this act, the Director of Agriculture is hereby authorized to issue, administer and enforce the provisions of marketing orders hereunder regulating producer marketing or the handling of agricultural commodities within this State

Marketing orders

(b) Whenever the director has reason to believe that the issuance of a marketing order, or amendments to an existing marketing order, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of this act with respect to any agricultural commodity, he shall, either upon his own motion or upon application of any producer or handler of such commodity, or any organization of such persons, give due notice of, and an opportunity for, a public hearing upon a proposed marketing order or such amendments to such existing marketing order.

Public hearing

(c) (1) Notice of any hearing called for such purpose shall be given by the director by publishing a notice of such hearing for a period of not less than five (5) days in a newspaper of general circulation published in the capital of the State and in such other newspaper or newspapers as the director may prescribe. No such public hearing shall be held prior to five (5) days after the last day of such period of publication.

(2) The director shall also mail a copy of such notice of hearing and a copy of such proposed marketing order, or proposed amendments, to all producers or handlers of such agricultural commodity whose names and addresses appear upon lists of such persons, on file in the Department of Agriculture, who may be directly affected by the provisions of such proposed marketing order or such proposed amendments.

(3) Such notice of hearing shall set forth the date and place of said hearing, the agricultural commodity, and the area, covered by such proposed marketing order or such proposed amendments and a statement that the director will receive, at such hearing, in addition to testimony and evidence as to other necessary and relevant matters set forth in Section 1300.14 hereof, testimony and evidence with respect to the accuracy and sufficiency of lists on file with the director which show the names and addresses of producers or handlers of such agricultural commodity directly affected by such proposed marketing order or proposed amendments, and the quantities of such commodity delivered by such producers to handlers or handled by such handlers in the marketing season next preceding such hearing.

(4) Such hearing shall be public and all testimony shall be received under oath. A full and complete record of all proceedings at such hearing shall be made and maintained on file in the office of the director. At such hearing the director shall receive, in addition to other necessary or relevant matters, testimony and evidence upon the matters set forth in Section 1300.14 hereof, and testimony and evidence with respect to the accuracy and sufficiency of the lists on file with the director which show the names of the producers or handlers of such agricultural commodity, directly affected by the provisions of such proposed marketing order or proposed amendments, and with respect to the quantities of such agricultural commodity delivered by such producers or handled by such handlers in the marketing season next preceding such hearing.

Information from handlers

(d) (1) In order to provide the director with accurate and reliable information, in the event such information is not then on file in the Department of Agriculture, with respect to the persons who may be directly affected by the provisions of any proposed marketing order for any agricultural commodity, the director is hereby authorized and directed, whenever said director has reason to believe that the issuance of a marketing order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of this act or upon receipt of a written application for a hearing pursuant to subsection (b) of this Section 1300.13, to notify all handlers of such agricultural commodity, by publication of a notice as hereinafter required, to file with the director within ten (10) days from the last date of such publication a report, properly certified, showing:

(a) The correct name and address of such handler;

(b) The quantities of the agricultural commodity, affected by such proposed marketing order, handled by such handler in the marketing season next preceding the filing of such report;

(c) The correct names and addresses of all producers of such agricultural commodity, who may be directly affected by the provisions of such proposed marketing order, from whom such handler received such agricultural commodity in the marketing season next preceding the filing of such report;

(d) The quantities of such agricultural commodity received by such handler from each such producer in the marketing season next preceding the filing of such report.

(2) Said notice to handlers requiring them to file said report shall be published by the director for a period of not less than five (5) days in a newspaper of general circulation published in the capital of the State and in such other newspaper or newspapers as the director may prescribe.

The director shall also mail a copy of such notice to file such report to all handlers of such agricultural commodity whose names and addresses appear upon the lists on file in the Department of Agriculture who may be directly affected by the provisions of such proposed marketing order.

Filing of reports by handlers

Each handler of such agricultural commodity, directly affected by the provisions of such proposed marketing order shall file such verified report with the director within the time specified herein. Failure or refusal of any handler to file such report as herein specified shall not invalidate any proceeding taken or marketing order issued hereunder. The director is authorized and directed to proceed upon the basis of such information and reports as may otherwise be available.

Use of reports by director

(3) From such reports so filed and the information so received or available to the director, including any proper corrections, the director shall prepare a list of the names and addresses of such producers and the volume of such commodity produced or marketed by all such producers and a list of the names and addresses of such handlers and the volume of such commodity handled by all such handlers, directly affected by the provisions of such proposed marketing order, or amendments thereto, in the preceding marketing season. Such lists shall constitute complete and conclusive lists for use in any finding made by the director pursuant to the provisions of Section 1300.16 (a) hereof and such findings shall be conclusive.

The information contained in the individual reports of handlers filed with the director pursuant to the provisions of this section shall not be made public by the director in such form but the information contained in such reports may be prepared in combined form for use by the director, his agents, or other interested persons, in the formulation, administration and enforcement of a marketing order, or may be made available pursuant to court order, but shall not be made available to any one for private purposes.

Marketing agreements

(e) In order to effectuate the declared policy of this act, the director shall have the power, after due notice and opportunity for hearing, to enter into marketing agreements with processors, distributors, producers and others engaged in the handling of any agricultural commodity, regulating the preparation for market and handling of such agricultural commodity. Such marketing agreements shall be binding upon the signatories thereto exclusively. The purposes and provisions of the chapter relating to marketing orders shall be applicable to marketing agreements except as follows:

Exceptions

(1) The provisions of paragraph 3 of subdivision (d) of this section requiring the preparation of an official list of the names and addresses of all producers and the volume of such commodity produced or marketed by all such producers in the preceding marketing season and a list of the names and addresses of all handlers and the volume of such commodity handled by all such handlers, during the preceding marketing season, shall not be applicable to marketing agreements.

(2) The provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1300.16, and the provisions of subdivision (c) of Section 1300.16 insofar as the provisions of said subdivision (c) prescribe requirements for termination by request in writing, shall not be applicable to marketing agreements; provided, however, that prior to the issuance of any marketing agreement, or amendment thereto, the director shall find, in addition to the findings set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 1300.14 hereof, that said marketing agreement or any amendment thereto has been assented to by a sufficient number of signatories who handle a sufficient volume of the commodity affected to accomplish the objectives of such agreement or amendment thereto and provide sufficient moneys from assessments levied to defray the necessary expenses of formulation, issuance, administration and enforcement.

(3) The provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 1300.19 shall not be applicable to marketing agreements.

SEC. 3. Section 1300.15 of said code is amended to read:

1300.15. (a) (1) Any marketing order issued pursuant to this chapter shall provide for the establishment of an advisory board to assist the director in the administration of any marketing order. The members of the board shall be appointed by the director and may hold office at the pleasure of the director. If the marketing order affects directly only producers of a particular commodity the members of the board shall be producers. If the marketing order affects directly only handlers of a particular commodity the members of the board shall be handlers. If the marketing order affects directly both producers and handlers of a particular commodity, such board shall be composed of both producers and handlers. The number of producers or handlers upon any such board shall be of such number of producers or handlers as the director finds is necessary to assist properly in the administration of such order. Upon the recommendation of the board, the director may appoint one person who is neither a producer nor a handler to represent the Department of Agriculture or the public generally. Advisory boards

(2) No member of any such board shall receive a salary but each shall be entitled to his actual expenses incurred while engaged in performing his duties herein authorized. The director may authorize such board: to enter into contracts or agreements, to employ necessary personnel including attorneys engaged in the private practice of the law, fix their compensation and terms of employment; and to incur such expenses, to be paid by the director from moneys collected as herein provided, as the director may deem necessary and proper to enable such board properly to perform such of its duties as are authorized herein. The duties of any such board shall be administrative only and may include only the following: Compensation Duties of board

a. Subject to the approval of the director to administer such marketing order.

b. To recommend to the director administrative rules and regulations relating to the marketing order.

c. To receive and report to the director complaints of violations of the marketing order.

d. To recommend to the director amendments to the marketing order.

e. To assist the director in the assessment of members of the industry and in the collection of funds to cover expenses incurred by the director in the administration of the marketing order.

f. To assist the director in the collection of such necessary information and data as the director may deem necessary to the proper administration of this chapter.

Special committees

(3) In addition to the advisory board there may be established one or more special committees or subcommittees to assist the advisory board in carrying out its duties and functions. Upon approval of the director each advisory board may establish committees or subcommittees to carry out assigned duties and functions and designate the members or alternate members of the board to serve upon such committees. If the marketing order so authorizes or upon recommendation of the board, the director may authorize the establishment of special committees or subcommittees of persons who are not members or alternate members of the board to perform specific duties and functions; provided, that the members and alternate members of any such special committee or subcommittee shall be appointed by the director.

Any action of any committee, special committee or subcommittee of the board shall be subject to final approval by the board. Members and alternate members of any committee, special committee or subcommittee whether by appointment or approval of the director shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual expenses incurred while acting in their authorized capacities.

Provisions of marketing order

(b) Subject to the legislative restrictions and limitations set forth herein any marketing order issued by the director pursuant to this chapter may contain any or all of the following provisions for regulating or providing methods for regulating producer marketing or the handling or any of the operations of processing or distributing by handlers of any agricultural commodity within this State, but no others:

Surplus

(1) Provisions for determining the existence and extent of the surplus of any agricultural commodity, or of any grade, size or quality thereof, and providing for the control and disposition of such surplus, and for equalizing the burden of such surplus elimination or control among the producers, processors, distributors or other handlers affected. Notwithstanding any other appropriate means of equalizing the burden of surplus control and the elimination thereof as provided in this act, provision may be made for the creation of a stabilization fund to be used for purchasing or otherwise acquiring any portion of the surplus of any agricultural commodity either in fresh or processed form, except when processed in hermetically sealed containers, and for the diversion of such surplus quantity of such commodity so acquired into noncompetitive or by-products uses or for disposing of such surplus in noncommercial channels. Moneys for such stabilization fund shall be provided by means of the establishment of an assessment rate for such purpose levied upon producers or handlers or upon both producers and handlers. Such assessment rate shall be based upon the units in which such agricultural commodity is handled or marketed or upon any other uniform basis which the director determines to be reasonable and equitable. For convenience of collection, the director may collect any producer assessments from handlers of such commodity. Handlers paying such assessments for and on behalf of any producers are authorized to deduct such producer assessments from any moneys owed by such handlers to such producers.

Limitation on quantity to be marketed

(2) Provisions for limiting the total quantity of any agricultural commodity, or of any grade, size or quality thereof, which may be marketed by producers or processed, distributed or otherwise handled within this State during any specified period or periods, by any and all persons engaged in such producer marketing, processing, distributing or handling; provided, that any such limitation shall be applied under a uniform rule applicable to all such persons so regulated. The total quantity of any such commodity so regulated and permitted to be marketed by producers, processed, distributed or otherwise handled, shall not be less than the quantity which the director finds is reasonably necessary to supply the market demands of consumers of such commodity.

Allotment of quantity acquired from producer

(3) Provisions for allotting the quantity of any agricultural commodity, or of any grade, size or quality thereof, which each handler may purchase or acquire from, or handle on behalf of, any and all producers thereof, within this State during any specified period or periods under a uniform rule, applicable to all handlers so regulated based upon the amounts produced or sold by such producers in a prior period which the director finds to be representative, or upon the current season's production or sales of such producers, or both, to the end that the total quantity of such commodity or of any grade, size or quality thereof, so purchased or handled within this State shall be apportioned equitably among the producers thereof.

Allotment of quantity handled

(4) Provisions for allotting the quantity of any agricultural commodity, or of any grade, size or quality thereof, which each handler may process, distribute or handle within this State under a uniform rule, applicable to all handlers so regulated, based upon the quantities of such commodity or of any grade, size or quality thereof of the current season's crop which each such handler has available for such processing, distribution or handling, or upon the quantities of such commodity or of any grade, size or quality thereof so processed, distributed or handled by each such handler in a prior period which the director finds to be representative, or based upon both, to the end that the total quantity of such commodity or any grade, size or quality thereof, processed, distributed or handled within this State during any specified period or periods shall be equitably apportioned among all such handlers thereof.

Period for handling or marketing

(5) Provisions regulating the period, or periods, during which any agricultural commodity, or any grade, size or quality of such commodity, may be processed, distributed or otherwise marketed within this State by any and all persons engaged in such processing, distributing or marketing within this State; provided, that the total quantity of such commodity so regulated and permitted to be processed, distributed or otherwise marketed during such period or periods, shall not be less than the quantity which the director finds is necessary to reasonably supply the needs of consumers of such commodity.

Surplus, stabilization, or by-product pools

(6) Provisions for the establishment of surplus, stabilization, or by-product pools for any agricultural commodity or of any grade, size, quality or condition thereof, and providing for the sale of the commodity in any such pool and for the equitable distribution among the persons participating therein of the net returns derived from the sale of such commodity. Whenever the marketing order authorizes the establishment of any such pool or pools the advisory board shall have power to receive such commodity from each producer or handler and to handle the same according to the grade, size, quality or condition thereof and to account to each producer or handler participating therein upon a pro rata basis for the net proceeds derived from the sale thereof.

Surplus pool

The contents of any surplus pool shall not be marketed by the board in any form which would compete directly with that portion of the commodity which is marketed in regular channels of trade. However, any portion of any surplus pool may be transferred by the board upon any gratuitous basis to charitable organizations and other similar agencies under proper safeguards to insure that none of such commodity shall compete directly with the unrestricted portion of such commodity. The board may dispose of the contents of a stabilization pool in the regular marketing channels in such manner and at such times as the board deems advisable, consistent with the maintenance of stabilized marketing conditions for such commodity. The board may dispose of the contents of any by-product pool only for by-products or for other similar purposes under proper safeguards to prevent such portion of the commodity so disposed of from directly competing with that part of the commodity which is marketed in the usual form or in the regular channels of trade.

Facilities for storing, etc

Whenever the marketing order authorizes the establishment of a surplus, stabilization, or by-product pool, the board shall have authority to arrange for and operate any necessary facilities for the storing, financing, grading, packing, servicing, processing, preparing for market, selling, and disposing of the contents of any pools provided for in this section; provided, however, the board shall not have authority to engage in commercial warehousing.

Pledge for loans

The board shall have power to pledge all of the commodity in any such pools with banks or other lending agencies for the purpose of obtaining loans thereon. The board shall have title, for the purpose of financing and handling, to all of the commodity in any such pools.

Equalization fund

Whenever the marketing order authorizes the establishment of any type of pool authorized in this section, the board shall have authority to create, by a uniform assessment upon producers, or upon some other uniform and equitable basis, maintain, and disburse an equalization fund to be used for the removal of any inequalities between producers or handlers participating in any pool resulting from errors in estimating production or surplus or for indemnifying producers whose production, in whole or in part, is diverted in green form or otherwise from normal marketing outlets or diverted to by-products, relief, or other noncompetitive purposes pursuant to the provisions of the marketing order.

Uniform grading and inspection

(7) Provisions for the establishment of uniform grading and inspection of any agricultural commodity delivered by producers to handlers or others engaged in the handling thereof and for the establishment of grading standards of quality, condition, size or pack for any agricultural commodity, and the inspection and grading of such commodity in accordance with such grading standards so established, such grading standards for any such commodity shall not be established below any minimum standards now prescribed by law for such commodity.

Advertising

(8) Provisions for the establishment of plans for advertising and sales promotion to maintain present markets or to create new or larger markets for agricultural commodities grown in the State of California, or for the prevention, modification or removal of trade barriers which obstruct the free flow of agricultural commodities to market. The director is hereby authorized to prepare, issue, administer and enforce plans for promoting the sale of any agricultural commodity.

Provided, that any such plan shall be directed toward increasing the sale of such commodity without reference to a particular brand or trade name, and

Provided, further, that no advertising or sales promotion program shall be issued by the director which shall make use of false or unwarranted claims in behalf of any such product, or disparage the quality, value, sale or use of any other agricultural commodity.

Unfair trade practices

(9) Provisions relating to the prohibition of unfair trade practices. In addition to the unfair trade practices, now prohibited by law, applicable to the processing, distribution or handling of agricultural commodities within this State, the director is hereby authorized to include in any marketing order issued hereunder provisions designed to correct any trade practice affecting the processing, distributing or handling of any agricultural commodity within this State which the director finds, after a hearing thereupon in which all interested persons are given an opportunity to be heard, is unfair and detrimental to the effectuation of the declared purposes of this act.

Production adjustment benefits

(10) Provisions for the application for, review, certification and equitable payment of, production adjustment benefits to growers from funds collected for such purpose on a uniform basis from all commercial growers of any agricultural commodity in the State, for which production adjustment payments are made Such funds may be supplemented by funds, if any, received from federal, state or other agencies for such purpose.

No program of production adjustment adopted hereunder shall authorize payments for the removal of acreages of trees or vines of the species, variety or varieties specified in the program which have, during the three years immediately preceding the date of application, produced an annual yield per acre in excess of the comparably computed average yield from bearing trees or vines of the same species, variety or varieties for the State as a whole, such yields and averages to be determined by the director from statistical data compiled by state or federal agencies or such other data as the director deems to be representative and reliable.

Research studies

(11) Provisions for carrying on research studies in the production, processing or distribution of any agricultural commodity and for the expenditure of moneys for such purposes. In any research in production or processing carried on hereunder, the Dean of the College of Agriculture of the University of California and the advisory board provided for in Section 1300.15 hereof shall cooperate in selecting the research project or projects to be carried on from time to time. Insofar as practicable such projects shall be carried out by said College of Agriculture, but if the dean of said college and the advisory board determine that the college has no facilities for a particular project or that some other research agency has better facilities therefor, the project may be carried out by other research agencies selected by the dean and the advisory board.

Additional marketing orders

(c) In addition to authority to issue marketing orders regulating the processing or preparation for marketing of any or all portions of any agricultural commodity processed within this State, and in addition to authority to issue marketing orders regulating the distribution of any or all portions of any agricultural commodity within this State and subject to the legislative restrictions and limitations of Section 1300 14 of this act, the director may also issue marketing orders regulating the handling, processing, preparation for marketing or marketing of any or all portions of any agricultural commodity produced in this State for which marketing regulatory powers are not being exercised by the Federal Government under the provisions of the Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, being Public Law No 137, Seventy-fifth Congress, Chapter 296, First Session, 7 U S C A. 674, 50 Statute 249

SEC. 4. Section 1300 16 of said code is amended to read:

Handlers' assent

1300.16 (a) (1) No marketing order or major amendment thereto, directly affecting handlers, issued pursuant to this chapter, shall become effective unless and until the director finds that such marketing order or amendment thereto has been assented to in writing by the handlers engaged in the marketing activity or activities regulated by such marketing order who handle not less than sixty-five percent (65%) of the volume of the agricultural commodity regulated thereby which is processed or distributed within the area defined in such marketing order or amendment thereto, or that such marketing order or amendment thereto has been assented to in writing by not less than sixty-five percent (65%) of the number of handlers engaged in the marketing activity or activities regulated by such marketing order; provided, however, that any marketing order or major amendment thereto directly affecting processors engaged in the operation of canning of fresh fruits or vegetables or canning or packing of dried fruits shall not be made effective by the director unless and until the director finds that such marketing order or amendment thereto has been assented to in writing by such processors engaged in the marketing activity or activities regulated by such marketing order or amendment thereto who processed not less than sixty-five percent (65%) of the volume of such agricultural commodity which is processed within the area defined in such marketing order or amendment thereto and by sixty-five percent (65%) of the number of such processors engaged in the marketing activity or activities regulated by such marketing order or amendment thereto

Producers' assent

(2) No marketing order or major amendment thereto, directly affecting producers or producer marketing, issued pursuant to this chapter, shall be made effective by the director unless and until the director finds one or more of the following:

(A) That such marketing order or amendment thereto has been assented to in writing by not less than sixty-five percent (65%) of the producers who are engaged, within the area specified in such marketing order or amendment thereto, in the production for market or engaged in such producer marketing, of not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the agricultural commodity specified therein in commercial quantities, or (B) that such marketing order or amendment thereto has been assented to in writing by producers who produce not less than sixty-five percent (65%) of the volume of such agricultural commodity and by fifty-one percent (51%) of the total number of producers so engaged, or (C) that such marketing order or amendment thereto has been approved or favored by producers in a referendum among producers directly affected if the valid votes cast in such referendum in favor of such marketing order or amendment thereto represent not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the total number of producers of said commodity of record with the department who marketed not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the total quantity of said commodity marketed in the next preceding marketing season by said total number of producers of record with the department Whenever any marketing order or any major amendment to any marketing order is issued by the director, he shall determine whether assent, approval, or favor thereto of the producers shall be by written assents or by referendum.

Referendum

If the director determines that a referendum shall be had, he shall establish a referendum period of sixty (60) days. At the close of such referendum period, the director shall count and tabulate the ballots filed during said period. If from such tabulation the director finds that the number of producers voting in favor of such marketing order or amendment thereto is not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the total number of producers of record with the department and that such producers who voted in favor of said marketing order or amendment thereto marketed not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the total volume of such commodity marketed by all producers of record with the department during the marketing season next preceding such referendum the director may make such marketing order or amendment thereto effective. If he finds from the tabulation of such referendum that the number of producers who have voted in favor of such marketing order or amendment thereto is less than the required fifty-one percent (51%) of the total number of producers of record with the department or that the producers who have voted in favor of such marketing order or amendment thereto represent less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the total quantity of such agricultural commodity marketed by all producers of such commodity of record with the department during the marketing season next preceding the conducting of such referendum, or that such votes in favor represent less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the total by both number of producers and quantity of the commodity, the director may extend the period of such referendum for not exceeding thirty (30) days. At the close of such extended period the director shall again count and tabulate all ballots received during the entire period of referendum and he shall be authorized to make such marketing order or amendment thereto effective if he finds that not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the total number of producers of such commodity of record with the department have voted in favor of such marketing order or amendment thereto and that such producers marketed not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the total quantity of such commodity marketed by all producers of record with the department during the marketing season next preceding the conducting of such referendum. The director is authorized to prescribe such additional procedures as may be necessary to conduct such referendum.

Assent by cooperatives

(3) In finding whether such marketing order or major amendment thereto is assented to in writing or approved or favored by producers pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, the director shall consider the approval of any nonprofit agricultural cooperative marketing association, which is authorized by its members so to assent, as being the assent, approval or favor of the producers who are members of, or stockholders in, such nonprofit agricultural cooperative marketing association.

Public hearings

(4) At each public hearing upon a marketing order or a major amendment thereto, the director shall receive testimony or evidence relative to the period of time which may be necessarily required for the filing, checking, and tabulating of written assents prescribed in this section. At the conclusion of each such hearing the director shall make a finding, based upon the evidence and testimony so received, with respect to the period of time which may be reasonably and necessarily required for such filing, checking and tabulating. On the basis of such finding the director shall fix and limit the period during which such assents may be received by the director and such period shall be announced by the director at the time of mailing of assent forms to producers and handlers affected; provided, however, that if the director finds that an extension of such period is reasonably warranted he may extend such period for receiving assents.

At a public hearing held to consider a proposed marketing order or major amendments to an existing marketing order which directly affects producers or producer marketing, the director shall also receive testimony or evidence from which he can determine whether the assent, approval or favor of such producers shall be determined by written assents or by referendum as hereinabove prescribed. Upon the conclusion of any hearing which involves a marketing order or a major amendment thereto directly affecting producers or producer marketing, the director shall make a finding, based upon testimony and evidence received, whether producer assent, approval or favor shall be determined by written assents or by referendum. If the director finds that a referendum shall be had, he shall direct that a referendum be held in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (a) (2) of this section. If a referendum is conducted, the director shall not be required, with respect to the assent, approval or favor of producers, to make a finding concerning or fix and limit the period during which assents may be received by the director.

Regulation of producer marketing, etc

(b) Subject to the provisions, restrictions and limitations imposed herein, the director may issue marketing orders regulating producer marketing, the processing, distributing or handling in any manner of agricultural commodities by any and all persons engaged in such producer marketing, processing, distributing or handling of such agricultural commodities within this State.

Suspension and termination of marketing order

(c) The director shall suspend or terminate any marketing order, whenever he finds, after a public hearing duly noticed and held in accordance with the provisions of Section 1300.13 of this chapter, that such marketing order is contrary to or does not tend to effectuate the declared purposes or provisions of this chapter within the standards and subject to the limitations and restrictions herein imposed; provided, that such suspension or termination shall not become effective until the expiration of the marketing season then current. If the director finds that the termination of any marketing order is requested in writing by more than forty percent (40%) of the producers, who are engaged within the State of California in the production for market of the agricultural commodity specified in such marketing order, and who produce forty percent (40%) of the volume of such agricultural commodity produced within the State of California for market, and finds that the termination of such marketing order is requested in writing by handlers who handle more than forty percent (40%) of the volume of the agricultural commodity covered thereby and by more than forty percent (40%) of the number of handlers of the agricultural commodity covered thereby, the director shall, if he finds such marketing order is contrary to or does not tend to carry out the declared policy of this chapter, terminate such marketing order; provided, that such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before such date (prior to the end of the marketing period then current) as may be specified in such marketing order.

Amendment of marketing order

(d) Upon the recommendation of not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the producer members or handler members of the advisory board, or not less than seventy-five percent (75%) of each group if both are represented upon the advisory board, the director may make effective minor amendments to a marketing order. The director may require a public hearing upon minor amendments if in his opinion the substance of such minor amendments so warrant; the director shall, however, not be required to submit minor amendments for written assents or referendum approval.

Major amendments Procedure

In making effective major amendments to a marketing order the director shall follow the same procedures prescribed in this act for the institution of a marketing order. For the purposes of this chapter a major amendment to a marketing order shall include but not be limited to any amendment which adds to or deletes from any such marketing order any of the following types of regulations or authorizations:

Same. Types

(1) Authority for determining the existence and extent of the surplus of any agricultural commodity or of any grade, size or quality thereof and providing for the control and disposition of such surplus and for equalizing the burden of such surplus elimination and shall also include the establishment of a stabilization fund for equalizing surplus obligations

(2) Authority for limiting the total quantity of any agricultural commodity or of any grade, size or quality thereof which may be prepared for market or marketed within the State of California.

(3) Authority for allotting the quantity of any agricultural commodity or of any grade, size or quality thereof which any handler may purchase or acquire from or handle on behalf of any and all producers thereof within the State of California.

(4) Authority for allotting the quantity of any agricultural commodity or of any grade, size or quality thereof which any handler may process, distribute or handle within the State of California.

(5) Authority for regulating the period or periods during which any agricultural commodity or any grade, size or quality of such commodity may be processed, distributed or otherwise marketed within the State of California.

(6) Authority for the establishment of surplus, stabilization, or by-product pools for any agricultural commodity or of any grade, size, quality or condition thereof.

(7) Authority for the establishment of uniform grading and inspection of any agricultural commodity and the establishment of grading standards of quality, condition, size or pack of such commodity.

(8) Authority for the establishment of plans for advertising and sales promotion of any agricultural commodity.

(9) Authority to prohibit unfair trade practices

(10) Authority for the establishment of production adjustment requirements and benefit payments relating thereto

(11) Authority for carrying out research studies in the production, processing or distribution of any agricultural commodity.

(12) Authority to increase an assessment rate beyond the maximum rate authorized by the marketing order in effect.

(13) Authority to extend the application of the provisions of any marketing order to portions or uses of an agricultural commodity not previously subject to such provisions or to restrict or extend the application of such provisions upon the producers or handlers of such portions or uses of any such commodity.

Modification of any provisions of any marketing order in effect for the purpose of clarifying the meaning or application of such provisions or modifying administrative procedures for carrying out such provisions are hereby declared not to be a major amendment of such marketing order.

Notice (e) Upon issuance of any order making effective a marketing order, or any suspension, amendment or termination thereof, a notice thereof shall be posted on a public bulletin board to be maintained by the director in his office and a copy of such notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation published in the capital of the State and in such other newspaper or newspapers as the director may prescribe. No marketing order or any suspension, amendment or termination thereof shall become effective until the termination of a period of five (5) days from the date of such posting and publication. It shall also be the duty of the director to mail a copy of the notice of said issuance to all persons, directly affected by the terms of such marketing order, suspension, amendment or termination, whose names and addresses may be on file in the office of the director and to every person who files in the office of the director a written request for such notice

Rules and regulations (f) Upon recommendation by the advisory board concerned the director shall have power, consistent with this act, to establish such general rules and regulations covering the operations of marketing orders as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and attain the objectives of this act or any marketing order issued thereunder. The provisions of subdivision (e) of this section relative to posting, publication, and mailing of notice and time of taking effect shall be applicable to any general rule or regulation established under this subdivision applicable to marketing orders generally. Notice of seasonal marketing regulations and other administrative actions authorized in any particular marketing order shall be given to producers or handlers in the manner and within the time required as specified in such marketing order or in general rules and regulations issued and made effective hereunder. The exercise of the powers granted to an advisory board in its administration of a marketing order made effective in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be subject to the approval of the director.

SEC. 5. Section 1300.17 of said code is amended to read:

Expense of administration

1300.17. (a) For the purpose of providing funds to defray the necessary expenses incurred by the director in the formulation, issuance, administration and enforcement of each marketing order issued hereunder, each such marketing order shall provide for the levying and collection of assessments in sufficient amounts to defray such expenses. Each marketing order shall indicate the maximum rate of any such assessment which may be collected and the proportion, if any, payable by each producer and handler directly regulated or affected by such marketing order. The advisory board appointed by the director to assist the director in administering each marketing order shall recommend to the director, from time to time, budgets to cover necessary expenses and the assessment rate necessary to provide sufficient funds. If the director finds that each such budget and assessment rate are proper and equitable and will provide sufficient moneys to defray the necessary expenses he may approve such budget and rate of assessment and order that each producer and handler so assessed shall pay to the director, at such times and in such installments as the director may prescribe, an assessment based upon the units in which such agricultural commodity is marketed, or upon any other uniform basis which the director determines to be reasonable and equitable, but in amounts which in the case of producers will not exceed two and one-half percent (2½%) of the gross dollar volume of sales, of the commodity affected, by all such producers, regulated by such marketing order or in amounts which in the case of processors, distributors or other handlers will not exceed two and one-half percent (2½%) of the gross dollar volume of purchases of the commodity affected by the marketing order from producers or of the gross dollar volume of sales of the commodity affected by the marketing order and handled by all such processors, distributors or other handlers regulated by such marketing order during the marketing season or seasons during which such marketing order is effective.

Advance deposit

The director may require each and every producer, processor, distributor or handler directly regulated by any marketing order to deposit with him in advance, an amount based upon the estimated number of units to be marketed by such producer or handled by such processor, distributor or handler, or upon any other uniform basis which the director determines to be reasonable and equitable, such bases to be applicable during the marketing season or seasons during which such marketing order is effective. At any time after the funds credited to the administrative account of the marketing order are sufficient to so warrant, or at the close of the marketing season, the sums so deposited shall be adjusted to the amount which is chargeable against such producer, processor, distributor or handler upon the basis of the actual number of units marketed by such producer or handled by such processor, distributor or handler, or upon the same uniform basis under which such funds were assessed by the director, during such marketing season.

Advertising expense

(b) Each marketing order which authorizes carrying out advertising and sales promotion plans shall provide for the levying and collection of assessments in sufficient amounts to defray the expenses of such activities. Each such marketing order shall indicate the maximum rate of any such assessment and the proportion, if any, payable by each producer and handler directly regulated or affected by such marketing order. The advisory board appointed by the director to assist the director in administering each marketing order shall recommend to the director, from time to time, budgets to cover such expenses and the assessment rate necessary to provide sufficient funds. If the director finds that each such budget and assessment rate are proper and equitable and will provide sufficient moneys to defray such expenses he may approve such budget and approve and levy such assessment. Any assessments so established shall be based upon the units in which such agricultural commodity is marketed or upon any other uniform basis which the director determines to be proper and equitable. Any assessment rates established hereunder shall be in amounts not to exceed four percent (4%) of the gross dollar volume of sales by all producers or by all processors, distributors or other handlers of such agricultural commodity regulated by such marketing order during the marketing season or seasons during which such marketing order is effective.

Advance deposit

For the purpose of providing funds to cover the costs of such advertising or sales promotion plans incurred prior to the receipt of sufficient funds from assessments as provided herein, the director may require each person so assessed to deposit with him in advance an amount not exceeding twenty-five percent (25%) of such assessment, based upon the estimated number of units of such commodity to be marketed or handled by such person, or upon any other uniform basis which the director determines to be reasonable and equitable, during such marketing season. At any time after the funds credited to the advertising or sales promotion account of the marketing order are sufficient to so warrant, or at the close of the marketing season, the sum so deposited by such person shall be adjusted to the amount which is properly chargeable against such person pursuant to the assessment authorized herein.

Assessment in lieu of administrative and advertising assessments

(c) In lieu of the assessments to defray the costs of formulation, issuance, administration and enforcement and advertising or sales promotion provided for in paragraphs (a) and (b) hereof, if the marketing order contains provisions for advertising or sales promotion as authorized in this chapter, the director may approve and fix one assessment not exceeding six and one-half percent (6½%) of the gross dollar volume of sales of such commodity by all producers, or by all processors, distributors or other handlers of such agricultural commodity regulated by such marketing order during the marketing season or seasons during which such marketing order is effective. The method and manner of assessment and collection thereof, and the limitations and restrictions applicable thereupon, shall conform in all respects with the provisions of paragraph (b) hereof, except as to the maximum amount of such assessment. In such case the advisory board shall recommend and the director may approve the proportions of such assessments which may be expended to defray the costs of formulation, issuance, administration and enforcement of the marketing order and of such advertising or sales promotion program; provided, that, the proportion of such assessments which may be allocated in such manner to defray the cost of such administrative activities for such marketing order shall in no case exceed the maximum amount authorized in paragraph (a) of this section.

Authority to borrow money

(d) In the event any advisory board of any marketing order has reason to believe that the administration of a marketing order will be facilitated or the attainment of the purposes and objectives of the marketing order will be promoted thereby, the advisory board is authorized to borrow money with or without interest to carry out any provision of any marketing order authorized by this chapter, and may hypothecate anticipated assessment collections applicable to such respective provisions.

In lieu of requiring advance deposits for defraying administrative or advertising and sales promotion expenses until such time as sufficient moneys are collected for such purpose from the payment of assessments established pursuant to Section 1300.17 of this chapter, the director is authorized to receive and disburse for such expense purposes contributions made by producers, processors, distributors or other handlers Neither the board nor the director shall be held responsible for the repayment of such contributions; provided, however, that whenever collections from the payment of established assessments credited to the respective marketing order accounts are sufficient to so warrant, the board shall recommend and the director shall authorize the repayment of contributions or authorize the application of such contributions to the assessment obligations of persons who made such contributions.

Assessment collection from handlers

(e) For the convenience of making collections of any producer assessments established pursuant to this section, the director may collect such assessments from the handlers of the commodity being regulated. Handlers paying such assessments for and on behalf of any producers are authorized to deduct such producer assessments from any moneys owed by such handlers to such producers. Any marketing order may provide that handlers shall deduct producer assessments from any moneys owed by such handlers to such producers.

The director shall prescribe rules and regulations with respect to the assessment and collection of funds pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Disposition of money

(f) Any moneys collected by the director pursuant to this act shall be deposited in a bank or banks, or other depository, approved by the Director of Finance, allocated to each marketing order under which they are collected, and disbursed by the director only for the necessary expenses incurred by the advisory board and the director and approved by the director with respect to each such separate marketing order. Funds so collected shall be deposited and disbursed in conformity with appropriate rules and regulations prescribed by the director. The expenditure of such funds shall be exempt from the provisions of Section 16003 of the Government Code. All such expenditures by the director shall be audited at least annually by the Department of Finance and a copy of such audit shall be delivered within 30 days after the completion thereof to the Governor, the Director of Agriculture and the Controller. Any moneys in the State Treasury to the credit of the "State Marketing Act Trust Fund" shall be withdrawn and deposited in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

Refunds

Any moneys remaining in such fund, allocable to any particular agricultural commodity affected by a marketing order, at the discretion of the director, may be refunded at the close of any marketing season upon a pro rata basis, to all persons from whom assessments were collected, or such portion of such moneys as may be recommended by the board and approved by the director may be carried over into the next succeeding marketing season whenever the director finds that such moneys may be required to assist in defraying the costs of operating such marketing order in such succeeding marketing season; provided, that upon termination by the director of any marketing order, any and all moneys remaining, and not required by the director to defray the expenses of such marketing order, shall be returned by the director upon a pro rata basis, to all persons from whom assessments were collected; provided further, however, that if the director finds that the amounts so returnable are so small as to make impractical the computation and remitting of such pro rata refund to such persons, the director may use the moneys in such fund to defray the expenses incurred by him in the formulation, issuance, administration or enforcement of any subsequent marketing order for such commodity. Thereafter, if there are any such moneys remaining which have not been used by the director as hereinabove provided, same shall be withdrawn from the approved depository and paid into the State Treasury as unclaimed trust moneys.

SEC. 6. Section 1300.19 of said code is amended to read:

Enforcement

1300.19. The Director of Agriculture shall be responsible for the administration and enforcement of this act.

The following penalties, remedies, procedures and actions shall apply in instances of violations and complaints of violations of the provisions of this act or of any marketing order or the rules and regulations issued by the director under the authority of this act or any marketing order issued and effective thereunder:

Penalty

(a) Every person who violates any provision of this act or any provision of any marketing order duly issued by the director hereunder, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50), nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment of not less than 10 days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each violation during any day shall constitute a separate offense.

Civil liability

(b) Any person who violates any provision of this act or any marketing order duly issued by the director and in effect hereunder, or who violates any rule or regulation issued by the director pursuant to the provisions of this act or of any marketing order duly issued by the director and effective hereunder, shall be liable civilly for a penalty in an amount not to exceed a sum of five hundred dollars ($500) for each and every violation thereof. Any moneys recovered pursuant to this paragraph shall be deposited in accordance with paragraph (f) of Section 1300.17.

Complaint charging violation

(c) The director on his own motion may or upon complaint of any interested party charging violation of any provision of this act or of any provision of any marketing order or any rule or regulation issued by the director and effective hereunder, shall either refer the matter directly to the Attorney General of this State or any district attorney of this State for the institution of legal proceedings thereupon, or, if the director deems it necessary or advisable, he shall immediately call an administrative hearing to consider the charges set forth in such verified complaint. In case the matter is referred directly by the director to the Attorney General or any district attorney, it shall be the duty of such officer, if, after examination of the complaint and evidence he believes that a violation has occurred, to thereupon bring an appropriate action or actions in a court or courts of competent jurisdiction in this State.

Hearing

(d) In case an administrative hearing is called by the director, the director shall cause a copy of such complaint, together with a notice of the time and place of hearing of such complaint, to be served personally or by mail upon the person or persons named as respondent or respondents in such verified complaint. Such service shall be made at least 10 days before said hearing, which shall be held in the city or town in which is situated the principal place of business of the respondent, or in which the violation complained of is alleged to have occurred, or in the nearest office of the State Department of Agriculture, at the discretion of the director. At the time and place designated for such administrative hearing, the director or his agents shall hear the parties to said complaint and shall enter in the office of the director at Sacramento, his findings based upon the facts established at such hearing. If from the testimony and evidence adduced at said administrative hearing the director finds that no violation has occurred he shall forthwith dismiss such complaint and notify the parties to such complaint.

Prosecution

(e) If the director finds from said administrative hearing that a violation has occurred he shall so enter his findings and notify the parties to such complaint. In his discretion the director shall either refer the matter to the Attorney General for the institution of legal proceedings or he may notify such parties to cease and desist from further violation. Upon their refusal or failure to comply, or if he finds that the facts or circumstances warrant immediate prosecution, the director shall file a complaint with the Attorney General or any district attorney of this State requesting that such officer commence any or all actions authorized in this section against such respondent or respondents in a court of competent jurisdiction as set forth hereinafter.

Other court actions

(f) The Attorney General of this State, or any district attorney of this State, shall upon complaint by the director or any other person, or may, upon his own initiative, if, after examination of the complaint and evidence he believes a violation to have occurred, bring an action for criminal penalties in the name of the people of this State in any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of California against any person violating any provisions of this chapter or of any marketing order duly issued by the director and effective hereunder.

(g) The Attorney General of this State shall upon complaint by the director or may, upon his own initiative, if, after examination of the complaint and evidence he believes a violation to have occurred, bring an action in the name of the people of this State in the superior court of the State of California for civil penalties or for an injunction, or both, against any person violating any provisions of this chapter or of any marketing order or any rule or regulation duly issued by the director hereunder.

Injunction

(h) Upon compliance with Section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, the court may issue a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction as in other actions for injunctive relief and upon trial of such action, if judgment be in favor of plaintiff, the court shall permanently enjoin defendant from further violations.

Costs

(i) In any suit brought by the Attorney General to enforce any of the provisions of this act or of any marketing order issued by the director and effective hereunder or of any rule or regulation issued by the director pursuant to the provisions of any marketing order, the judgment, if in favor of the State, shall provide that the defendant pay to the director the costs incurred by the director and by the advisory board concerned with the administration of such marketing order in the prosecution of such action. Any moneys recovered shall be deposited in accordance with paragraph (f) of Section 1300.17.

Venue

(j) Any such action may be commenced either in the county where defendant resides, or where any act or omission or part thereof complained of occurred.

Unlawful use of designation of grade, etc

(k) Whenever the use by a producer or handler of a particular emblem, label, certificate or other distinctive designation of grade, quality or condition other than grade or other quality designations then in effect pursuant to state or federal grade standards is made contingent upon compliance with certain production or handling regulations authorized by the provisions of a marketing order or agreement issued and made effective hereunder, it shall be unlawful and a violation of this act for any person, who is not participating in and complying with such order, agreement or regulations to use such designation of grade, quality or condition.

Penalty

(l) It shall be a misdemeanor for:

(1) Any person to wilfully render or furnish a false or fraudulent report, statement or record required by the director pursuant to the provisions of this act, or any marketing order effective thereunder;

(2) Any person engaged in the wholesale or retail trade to fail or refuse to furnish to the director or his duly authorized agents, upon request, information concerning the name and address of the person from whom he has received an agricultural commodity regulated by a marketing order issued and in effect hereunder, and the quantity of such commodity so received.

Same

(m) The penalties and remedies prescribed in this section with respect to any violation mentioned in this section shall be concurrent and alternative and neither singly nor combined shall the same be exclusive and either singly or combined the same shall be cumulative with any and all other civil, criminal or administrative rights, remedies, forfeitures or penalties provided or allowed by law with respect to any such violation.

Inspection of premises

(n) Any authorized inspector or other authorized person discharging his duties in the checking of compliance with the provisions of any marketing order made effective pursuant to this chapter may enter and inspect any premises, enclosure, building or conveyance where he has reason to believe any agricultural commodity subject to a marketing order is produced, stored, being prepared for market or marketed, and inspect or cause to be inspected such representative samples of the commodity as may be necessary to determine whether or not any lot of said commodity is in compliance with applicable regulations of any marketing order made effective pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

Holding of lot by officer

(o) Any enforcing officer of the department in the discharge of his duties, if he has reason to believe that a lot of any agricultural commodity subject to a marketing order is not in compliance with the requirements of such marketing order, or of marketing rules and regulations issued pursuant thereto, as to size, pack, grade, other quality specifications, labeling or markings, may hold such lot for a reasonable period of time sufficient to enable such officer to ascertain whether such lot complies with such requirements, but in any event not to exceed 72 hours. Any such lot which is found not to be in compliance with such requirements is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and may be held by the officer for an additional time, pending proceedings to condemn and abate such nuisance, as herein provided.

The officer may affix to any lot so held an official notice, warning tag or other appropriate marking, warning that the lot is held and stating the reasons therefor. It is unlawful for any person other than an authorized inspector or enforcing officer to detach, alter, deface or destroy any such official notice, warning tag or marking affixed to any lot or to remove or dispose of such lot in any manner or under conditions other than as prescribed in such notice, except upon written permission of an authorized enforcing officer or by order of court.

Notice of noncompliance

(p) If the director determines that any such lot is not in compliance with the requirements of the marketing order, he shall cause notice of noncompliance to be served upon the person in possession of said lot, the owner if known, and upon any other person known to the director to claim an interest therein.

At the time of giving such notice of noncompliance the authorized inspector or enforcing officer shall grant a specified period of time within which said lot may be reconditioned or other deficiency corrected so as to bring said lot into compliance. If the owner elects not to recondition or otherwise correct the deficiency applicable to said lot within such specified period of time the director, with the consent of the owner, is hereby authorized to destroy any such lot, or otherwise to abate the nuisance.

If the owner fails or refuses either to recondition the lot or correct the deficiency applicable to said lot or to consent to the destruction or abatement thereof within such specified period of time, then the notice of noncompliance shall become effective and the director within a period of five (5) days from the date said notice of noncompliance becomes effective may file a petition in the proper court with an order to show cause returnable in five (5) days why the lot should not be abated; likewise, the owner or person in possession within the same period of time may file a petition in the proper court with an order to show cause returnable in five (5) days why said lot should not be released to petitioner and any warning tags previously affixed, removed therefrom; provided further, that final determination by said court in either case shall be within a period of not to exceed twenty (20) days from the date said petition was filed.

The court may order that the lot be reconditioned or any deficiency applicable to said lot corrected with the consent of the owner thereof.

Notice required to be given by this subdivision may be made by personal service or by registered mail addressed to the person to be served at his last known address.

Effect of disposal

(q) Disposal of any lot or portion of any lot pursuant to the provisions of this section whether such disposal be by arrangement with an enforcement officer or by court order shall not waive any of the penalty provisions of this chapter.

Urgency

SEC. 7. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of public peace, health, safety and general welfare within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of this State and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

The amendments set forth herein are needed to clarify important legal and administrative points which have arisen in connection with operations of marketing orders now in effect or in the process of development. The earliest possible effective date is necessary to avoid further litigation and to clarify important administrative matters prior to the beginning of the 1951 harvesting and marketing season.

CHAPTER 856

An act to amend Sections 787.5, 795, and 796.1 of the Agricultural Code, relating to fruit and vegetable standardization

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 787.5 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Container markings

787.5. When the name and address of any person is required by any of the specific commodity standards of this chapter to be placed on any container, the address shall be a California address, unless the fruits, nuts or vegetables are packed or placed in such containers outside of this State.

SEC. 2. Section 795 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Oranges and limes

795. Oranges and limes shall be mature and free from decay; free from serious damage due to freezing, drying at the stem or stylar end (resulting from causes other than freezing), splits, bruises or punctures. Damage by drying at the stem or stylar end of all oranges and limes (resulting from causes other than freezing), is not serious unless 20 percent or more of the pulp shows staining, drying or desiccation.

Freezing damage

Damage from freezing to any one fruit is serious if it causes either a condition of (a) "damage on the segment walls" to the extent defined herein or (b) drying or desiccation in 20 percent or more of the exposed pulp as shown on a transverse cut through the center.

"Damage on the segment walls" means a water-soaked appearance, or evidence of previous water-soaking, or the presence of crystals or crystalline deposit, on the two surface membranes of each of two or more segments as shown on the separation of two or more segments of a section, which section shall not be less than one inch or more than one and one-half inches in thickness, obtained from the central portion of the fruit by cutting off a portion of each end—such evidence of freezing injury to show for the entire length but not necessarily the entire area of the surface membranes "Damage on the segment walls"

In any season in which freezing damage to oranges has occurred, the extent of damage by freezing shall be determined as follows: Determination of damage

(a) By examination for damage on the segment walls from and after the time when the oranges were first exposed to freezing temperatures to the date, herein designated as Date A, when the director shall determine and by regulation declare that the drying process has developed to such extent as to furnish additional evidence of the extent of actual damage to the fruit.

(b) By examination of the exposed pulp on a transverse cut through the center, from and after the date, herein designated as Date B, when the director shall determine and by regulation declare that the drying process has developed to such extent as to permit reasonably accurate determination of the full extent of freezing damage by such examination, without regard to damage on the segment walls.

(c) Either by examination for damage on the segment walls or by examination of the exposed pulp on a transverse cut through the center, or by both such examinations, during the period from Date A to Date B. In no event shall the interval from Date A to Date B exceed three weeks.

The percentage of serious damage to oranges and limes in containers, or in bulk, may be established by inspection of a representative sample which shall consist of not less than 100 fruits. Damage caused by splits, bruises or punctures in oranges and limes is not serious if the injury is well healed and free from mold or decay. Sampling

With the exception of serious damage caused by freezing, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the oranges and limes in any one container or bulk lot may be below these requirements but with the exception of serious damage by drying at the stem or stylar end of oranges and limes (resulting from causes other than freezing), not to exceed one-half of this tolerance shall be allowed for any one cause. In the case of serious damage by freezing injury, not more than 15 percent, by count, of the oranges and limes in any one container or bulk lot may be below these requirements, but not to exceed one-third of this tolerance shall be allowed for oranges and limes which show a drying or desiccation in 40 percent or more of the exposed pulp, Tolerances as shown on a transverse cut through the center. The total tolerance for a combination of defects shall not exceed the tolerance permitted for any one cause by more than 5 percent, by count.

SEC. 3. Section 796.1 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Unlawful citrus fruit mixtures

796.1. No lot of citrus fruit failing to conform to the requirements because of serious damage caused by freezing injury may be mixed or blended with other lots of citrus fruit which conform to these requirements, resulting in the concealment of inferior fruit, thereby reducing the percentage of defective fruits in the seriously damaged lots to within the tolerance which is permitted for errors in grading only.

Rot and mold

Any packed citrus fruit which has been in storage or after being shipped fails to meet the requirements of the standards for citrus fruits established in this chapter only by reason of brown rot, blue mold, or green mold which has occurred after packing, shall not be held for violation of the provisions of this chapter on account of such deterioration.

Packing

Oranges (except tangerines and mandarins), grapefruit, and lemons when packed shall be regularly packed throughout in standard containers as provided and designated for each such citrus fruit in Section 828.83; provided, however, that packed citrus fruit imported into this State from another state need not be packed in said containers if they are packed in containers conforming to the applicable laws or regulations of the state of origin or of the United States

Container markings

All containers of packed citrus fruits when packed shall bear upon them in plain sight and in plainly legible letters on one outside end: The name of the packer thereof together with a sufficiently explicit address to permit ready location of such packer; in the case of oranges (except tangerines and mandarins), grapefruit and lemons the number and average diameter of the citrus fruit in the container; in the case of oranges and grapefruit the name of the variety, if known, and when not known, the words "unknown variety" or "seedlings"; provided, however, that in the case of citrus fruit imported from another state the average diameter of the fruit in the container need not be shown.

CHAPTER 857

An act to add Section 220.1 to the Vehicle Code, relating to false reports of thefts of vehicles.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 220.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

220.1. False Report of Theft. It shall be unlawful for any person to make or file a false or fraudulent report of theft of a vehicle required to be registered hereunder with any law enforcement agency with intent to deceive. Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than six months or by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500), or by both such fine and imprisonment. False report of theft

CHAPTER 858

An act to amend Section 1018 of the Penal Code, relating to pleadings and proceedings after indictment.

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1018 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1018. Unless otherwise provided by law every plea must be put in by the defendant himself in open court. No plea of guilty of a felony for which the maximum punishment is death, or life imprisonment without the possibility of parole, shall be received from a defendant who does not appear with counsel, nor shall any plea of guilty of any other felony be accepted from any defendant who does not appear with counsel unless the court shall first fully inform him of his right to counsel and unless the court shall find that the defendant understands his right to counsel and freely waives it and then, only if the defendant has expressly stated in open court, to the court, that he does not wish to be represented by counsel. On application of the defendant at any time before judgment the court may, and in case of a defendant who appeared without counsel at the time of the plea the court must, for good cause shown, permit the plea of guilty to be withdrawn and a plea of not guilty substituted. Plea of defendant

Upon indictment or information against a corporation a plea of guilty may be put in by counsel.

This section shall be liberally construed to effect these objects and to promote justice.

CHAPTER 859

An act to add Section 39.3 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to hunting and fishing seasons.

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39.3 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

Establishment of season in closed area

39.3. Whenever any area is closed to entry to the public by any order or proclamation issued or concurred in by the Governor which order or proclamation is made due to extreme fire hazard, the commission may establish a season for hunting and/or fishing within the area which had been closed, which season shall commence upon or after the expiration or termination of such closure and shall correspond in length of time as nearly as may be possible to the time during which such area was closed to hunting or fishing.

CHAPTER 860

An act to amend Section 14549 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to fire protection districts.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14549 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

Withdrawal of territory

14549. Upon the withdrawal of any territory of a district, all property acquired for the district and all funds remaining on hand on the date of withdrawal shall be divided between the city and the remaining district in proportion to the assessed value of the real property of the territory so withdrawn and the portion remaining. All taxes collected by the district after the date of withdrawal on real property so withdrawn shall be paid over to the city.

CHAPTER 861

An act to repeal Section 89 of the Code of Civil Procedure as amended by Statutes of 1949, Chapter 1286 and as amended by Statutes of 1949, Chapter 1519, and to add Section 89 to the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to municipal courts.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 89 of the Code of Civil Procedure as amended by Statutes of 1949, Chapter 1286 and as amended by Statutes of 1949, Chapter 1519, is repealed.

Repeal

SEC. 2. Section 89 is added to said code, to read:

Original jurisdiction of municipal courts

89. 1. Municipal courts shall have original jurisdiction of civil cases and proceedings as follows:

(a) In all cases at law in which the demand, exclusive of interest, or the value of the property in controversy, amounts to three thousand dollars ($3,000) or less, except cases which involve the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll or municipal fine.

(b) In actions for dissolution of partnership, where the total assets of the partnership do not exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000); in actions of interpleader, where the amount of money, or the value of the property involved, does not exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000).

(c) To cancel or rescind a contract, when such relief is sought in connection with an action to recover money, not exceeding three thousand dollars ($3,000), or property of a value not exceeding three thousand dollars ($3,000), paid or delivered under or in consideration of such contract; to revise a contract where such relief is sought in an action upon such contract, of which action the court otherwise has jurisdiction.

(d) In all proceedings in forcible entry or forcible or unlawful detainer, where the rental value is three hundred dollars ($300) or less per month, and where the whole amount of damages claimed is three thousand dollars ($3,000) or less.

(e) In all actions to enforce and foreclose liens on personal property, where the amount of such liens is three thousand dollars ($3,000) or less.

(f) In all actions to enforce and foreclose liens of mechanics, materialmen, artisans, laborers, and of all other persons to whom liens are given under the provisions of Chapter 2, Title 4, Part 3 of this code, where the amount of such liens is three thousand dollars ($3,000) or less; provided, that where an action to enforce any such lien is pending in a municipal court, and affects property which is also affected by a similar action pending in a superior court, or where the total amount of such liens sought to be foreclosed against the same property, by action or actions in a municipal court, aggregates an amount in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000), the municipal court, in which any such action, or actions, is, or are, pending, upon motion of any interested party, shall order such action or actions pending therein transferred to the proper superior court. Upon the making of such order, the same proceedings shall be taken as are provided by Section 399 of this code, with respect to the change of place of trial.

(g) To issue temporary restraining orders and preliminary injunctions, to take accounts, and to appoint receivers, where necessary to preserve the property or rights of any party to an action of which the court has jurisdiction; to appoint a receiver in aid of execution as provided in Section 564, subdivision 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure; to charge the interest of a debtor partner with payment of the unsatisfied amount of any judgment rendered by such court in the manner provided in Section 2422 of the Civil Code, or any amendment thereof, and in such cases to appoint a receiver and to make any order or perform any act mentioned or authorized in said section; in proceedings under Section 689 of this code, or any amendments thereof, to determine title to personal property seized in an action pending in, or upon execution issued by, such court.

2. Each municipal court shall have jurisdiction of all cases in equity to try title to personal property when the amount involved is not more than three thousand dollars ($3,000) and of all cases in equity when pleaded as defensive matter, in any case properly pending in such municipal courts.

Equity jurisdiction

Operative date

SEC. 3. This act shall not become operative before January 1, 1952, but the repeal of Section 89 of the Code of Civil Procedure as amended by Statutes of 1949, Chapter 1519 herein provided does not affect any justice's, police or city court which continues to exist as presently organized but such courts shall be governed until January 1, 1953, by the same laws with the same force and effect as if this act had not been enacted, and those laws are hereby expressly continued in force and effect, and the text thereof preserved, for the use of such courts until January 1, 1953.

CHAPTER 862

An act to amend Sections 18532, 18537, 18544, 18803, 18903, 18950, 19054, 19100, 19120, 19503, 19570, 19572, 19575, 19582, to add Sections 18532.1 and 19082 and to repeal Sections 18598 and 18599 of the Government Code, relating to state employment and disciplinary proceedings.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18532 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Definitions

18532. "Eligible list" means a list of persons who have been examined in an open competitive examination and are eligible for certification for a specific class.

"Limited term list" means an eligible list established for use exclusively in making limited term appointments.

SEC. 2. Section 18537 of said code is amended to read:

"Employment list"

18537. "Employment list" means preferred limited term list, limited term list, eligible list, subdivisional promotional list, departmental promotional list, service-wide promotional list, departmental re-employment list, subdivisional re-employment list and general re-employment list.

SEC. 3. Sections 18598 and 18599 of said code are repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 18803 of said code is amended to read:

Hearing

18803. Reasonable opportunity to be heard shall be provided by the board to any employee affected by the allocation or reallocation of his position.

SEC. 5. Section 18903 of said code is amended to read:

General re-employment lists

18903. For each class there shall be maintained a general re-employment list consisting of the names of all persons who have occupied positions with probationary or permanent status in the class and who have been legally laid off or demoted in lieu of layoff. Within one year from the date of his resignation in good standing, or his voluntary demotion, the name of an employee who had probationary or permanent status may be placed on the general re-employment list with the consent of the appointing power and the board. The general re-employment list may also contain the names of persons placed thereon by the board in accordance with other provisions of this part

SEC. 6. Section 18950 of said code is amended to read:

Promotional eligible lists

18950. Vacancies in positions shall be filled insofar as possible and consistent with the best interests of the State by promotion from among persons holding positions in lower classes, and appropriate promotional eligible lists shall be established to facilitate this purpose.

SEC. 7. Section 19054 of said code is amended to read:

Order of preference

19054. The order of preference in certifying eligibles shall be: Subdivisional re-employment list, departmental re-employment list, subdivisional promotional list, departmental promotional list, general re-employment list, service-wide promotional list, eligible list. The preferred limited term list, in accordance with board rule, may be given preference only over the eligible list when making limited term appointments.

SEC. 8. Section 19100 of said code is amended to read:

Work on intermittent, etc., basis

19100. Whenever the appointing power requires the appointment of a person to a position requiring the performance of work on an intermittent or irregular time basis, the request for certification shall state the probable amount of working time to be required in the position. For persons employed on an intermittent or irregular time base the status, tenure, vacation and sick leave privileges, salary, and other conditions of employment governed by this part shall be subject to board rule.

SEC. 9. Section 19120 of said code is amended to read:

Emergency appointments

19120. The appointing power may, to prevent the stoppage of public business when an actual emergency arises and persons on employment lists are not immediately available, make emergency appointments for a period not to exceed 15 working days, in accordance with board rule. Service under emergency appointment shall be credited for purposes of layoff, vacation, sick leave and salary adjustment only if and as provided by board rule.

SEC. 10. Section 19503 of said code is amended to read:

Absence without leave

19503. Absence without leave, whether voluntary or involuntary, for 10 consecutive working days is an automatic resignation from state service, as of the last date on which the employee worked.

Reinstatement

Within 30 days of the date of his separation by reason of automatic resignation, an employee may apply to the board for reinstatement. Reinstatement may be granted only if the employee makes a satisfactory explanation to the board as to the cause of his absence and his failure to obtain leave therefor, and the board finds that he is ready, able, and willing to resume the discharge of the duties of his position or, if not, that he has obtained the consent of his appointing power to a leave of absence to commence upon reinstatement.

An employee so reinstated shall not be paid salary for the period of his absence or separation or for any portion thereof.

SEC. 11. Section 19570 of said code is amended to read:

"Punitive action"

19570. As used in this article "punitive action" means dismissal, demotion, suspension, or other disciplinary action.

SEC. 12. Section 19572 of said code is amended to read:

Causes for discipline

19572. Each of the following constitutes cause for discipline of an employee, or person whose name appears on any employment list:

(a) Fraud in securing appointment.
(b) Incompetency.
(c) Inefficiency.
(d) Inexcusable neglect of duty.
(e) Physical or mental disability.
(f) Insubordination.
(g) Dishonesty.
(h) Drunkenness on duty.
(i) Intemperance.
(j) Addiction to the use of narcotics or habit-forming drugs.
(k) Inexcusable absence without leave.
(l) Conviction of a felony or conviction of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.
(m) Immorality.
(n) Discourteous treatment of the public or other employees.
(o) Improper political activity.
(p) Wilful disobedience.
(q) Misuse of state property.
(r) Violation of this part or board rule.
(s) Any other failure of good behavior or acts either during or outside of duty hours which are incompatible with or inimical to the public service.
(t) Refusal to take and subscribe any oath or affirmation which is required by law in connection with his employment.

SEC. 13. Section 19575 of said code is amended to read:

Answer

19575. Not later than 15 calendar days after service of the notice of punitive action, the employee may file with the board a written answer to the notice, which answer shall be deemed to be a request for hearing or investigation as provided in this article. If the employee fails to answer within the time specified or after answer withdraws his appeal the punitive action taken by the appointing power shall be final. A copy of the employee's answer shall promptly be given by the board to the appointing power.

SEC. 14. Section 19582 of said code is amended to read:

Decision of board

19582. The board shall consider carefully the evidence submitted in the hearing and render a decision which in its judgment is just and proper.

In arriving at its decision, the board may consider any prior suspension of appellant by authority of any appointing power, or any prior proceeding under this article.

SEC 15 Section 18532 1 is added to said code, to read:

18532.1. "Preferred limited term list" means a list of persons who have served under limited-term appointment and who, in accordance with board rule, are granted eligibility for additional limited-term appointments. "Preferred limited term list"

SEC. 16. Section 18544 of said code is amended to read:

18544. "Duration employment" means an employment during time of war or during an emergency in connection with the national defense, which employment is subject to termination and other conditions as prescribed by Section 19200 and by board rules. "Duration employment"

SEC 17. Section 19082 is added to said code, to read:

19082. The board by rule may provide for the establishment, maintenance, and use of preferred limited-term lists. Preferred limited-term lists

CHAPTER 863

An act to amend Sections 18021, 18573, 18854, 18859, and 19538 of the Government Code, relating to salaries of state employees.

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18021 of the Government Code is amended to read:

18021. It is the policy of the State to avoid the necessity for overtime work wherever possible. This policy does not restrict the extension of regular working hour schedules on an overtime basis in those activities and agencies where such is necessary to carry on state business properly during a manpower shortage. Salaried employees whose classes or positions are allocated by the board to Work Week Groups 1, 2, or 3, as defined in Section 18020 shall, if required and ordered to work in excess of the hours prescribed for the group, receive overtime compensation for all such overtime work. The board may provide by rule that such compensation may not be provided unless the overtime work is specifically authorized by the appointing power in advance, except in critical emergencies. The rate of overtime shall be based on the regular rate of pay, except that for employees whose classes or positions are allocated by the board to Work Week Group 4 the rate of overtime compensation may be established by the board at less than the regular rate of pay and it may vary within classes depending upon the unusual conditions of work. Overtime compensation

SEC. 2. Section 18573 of said code is amended to read:

18573. Each appointing power shall report promptly to the board such information as the board may require in connection with each appointment, separation from service, or other change in position or salary, or other matter affecting the status Reports of positions or the performance of duties of employees in the state civil service, and all such reports shall be prepared in the manner and form prescribed by the board.

Information given to the board by any person shall not be open to public inspection except under conditions prescribed by board rule, except that a person may inspect any record relating to his own services.

Whenever the board finds that pay data was furnished to the board on the basis that the source remain confidential, such source shall not be open to the public or admissible as evidence in any action or special proceeding.

SEC. 3. Section 18854 of said code is amended to read:

Merit salary adjustment

18854. After completion of the first year in a position, each employee shall receive a merit salary adjustment equivalent to one of such intermediate steps during each year when he meets such standards of efficiency as the board by rule shall prescribe.

SEC. 4. Section 18859 of said code is amended to read:

Salary adjustments

18859. The board may authorize payment at any step above the minimum salary limit in order to meet recruiting problems, or to give credit for prior state service in connection with appointments, promotions, reinstatements, transfers, demotions or other personnel transactions. Other salary adjustments within the salary range for the class may be made upon the application of the appointing power and with the approval of the Director of Finance. Adjustments within the salary range authorized by this section may be either permanent or temporary and may be made retroactive to the date of application for such change.

SEC. 5. Section 19538 of said code is amended to read:

Salary of certified employee

19538. An employee who is certified to a position in a class after layoff, or demotion in lieu of layoff, shall receive not less than the same step in the salary range as he received in the position in that class prior to such layoff or demotion.

CHAPTER 864

Corp C §25000, ff

An act to amend Section 25100 of the Corporations Code, relating to securities exempt from the application of the Corporate Securities Law, and providing for the exemption of securities the issuance of which has been authorized by the Federal Power Commission.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

Exempted securities

25100. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this division, the Corporate Securities Law does not apply to any of the following classes of securities:

(a) Any security issued or guaranteed by the United States of America, or any territory or insular possession thereof, or by the District of Columbia, or by any state, territory, county, municipality, or taxing district therein. Same

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by any foreign government with which the United States of America is, at the time of the sale or offer of sale thereof, maintaining diplomatic relations, or by any state, province, or political subdivision thereof having the power of taxation or assessment, which security is recognized, at the time it is offered or sold in this State, as a valid obligation by the foreign government or by the state, province, or political subdivision thereof issuing it.

(c) Any security issued by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank, or issued by any federal land bank or joint land bank, or a national farm loan association, under the provisions of the Federal Farm Loan Act of July 17, 1916, or any amendment thereof or thereto, or by any company created and acting as an instrumentality of the Government of the United States of America pursuant to authority granted by the Congress of the United States of America, or by any company organized and existing under and by virtue of any act of Congress.

(d) Any security issued by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a state bank, trust company, or savings institution incorporated under the laws of this State.

(e) Any security the issuance of which has been authorized by the Public Utilities Commission of this State or by the Interstate Commerce Commission or by the Federal Power Commission.

(f) Any stock (as defined in the Building and Loan Association Act), issued by a company organized for the purpose of conducting a building and loan association within this State, the issuance of which has been authorized by the Building and Loan Commissioner.

(g) Any shares, investment certificates, or borrowers' membership certificates (as defined in the Building and Loan Association Act) issued by a building and loan association holding a license then in force issued by the Building and Loan Commissioner.

(h) Any security issued by a company organized for the purpose of transacting an insurance business, the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner.

(i) Any security which has been certified as a legal investment for savings banks and trust companies under the laws of this State.

(j) Any certificate of deposit for any security which has been approved by the California District Securities Commission for certification as a legal investment for savings banks and trust companies under the laws of this State.

(k) Any security issued under or pursuant to a plan of reorganization which, pursuant to any of the provisions of the 11 U S C act of Congress entitled "An Act to Establish a Uniform System of Bankruptcy Throughout the United States" approved June 1, 1898, and acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, has been confirmed by the decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(m) Any partnership interest in a general partnership, or in a limited partnership where certificates are executed, filed, and recorded as provided by Section 2478 or Section 2501 of the Civil Code of the State of California, except partnership interests when offered to the public.

(n) Any bona fide joint adventure interest, except such interests when offered to the public.

CHAPTER 865

An act to amend Section 252 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to the filing of claims for veterans' property tax exemption.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 252 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

Veterans' tax exemption

252. When making the first claim any person claiming the veterans' exemption or the spouse of such person shall appear before the assessor, shall give all information required and answer all questions in an affidavit, and shall subscribe and swear to the affidavit before the assessor. The assessor may require other proof of the facts stated before allowing the exemption. In subsequent years the person claiming the veterans' exemption, or the spouse of such person, may file the affidavit by mail on such forms as the assessor shall require.

CHAPTER 866

An act to amend Sections 322 and 328 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to the description of property for assessment.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 322 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

Description of land

322. If surveyed under the authority of the United States, land may be described by township, range, section, and fractional section, with its acreage.

Nothing in this section contained, however, shall prevent description of such land by any of the other methods of description provided for in this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 328 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

328. Land may be described by metes and bounds, or other description sufficient to identify it, giving the locality and an estimate of the number of acres. Same

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect only if an amendment to Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution, relating to description of property for assessment, proposed at the 1951 Regular Session of the Legislature, is adopted by the voters, and in such case this act shall take effect at the same time such amendment takes effect. Effect Stats 1951, Res Ch 97

An act to amend Sections 103a, 105, 105.5, 105a, 108, 108a, 109, 113, 113a, 113b, 115, 116, 116a, and 116b, and to repeal Sections 99, 100, 101, 102, 102a, 102b, 103, 103c, 103d, 103g, 103h, 103i, 103j, 103k, 103l, 103m, 103n, 103½, 103¾, 104, 107, 110, 110a, 111, 113c, and 113d of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to justice courts.

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 103a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

103a. Clerks of justice courts, in addition to the other powers conferred upon them by law, shall have power to administer and certify oaths to affidavits, and all papers, documents or instruments used in, or in connection with, the civil actions or proceedings in such justice courts and to issue summons and other writs and notices in civil actions in said courts in the name of the judge before whom the same is pending or out of whose court the same is issued. Powers of clerks of justice courts

SEC 2. Section 105 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

105. At the written request of a judge of a justice court, another judge of a justice court within the same county, may attend the court of the requesting judge, and thereupon is vested with the power, and may perform all the duties, and issue all the papers or process of the judge making such request. In any such case the proper entry of the proceedings before the attending judge, subscribed by him, shall be made in the docket or minutes of the court which he so attends, and the same shall be prima facie evidence of such proceedings, and form and become a part of the record if any, or any part of any and all actions, causes, or proceedings had before such attending judge while so holding court. If any case pending before such attending Attending judge judge be adjourned, and the cause for requesting his attendance be removed, the judge who made such request may resume jurisdiction.

SEC. 3. Section 105.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Same From adjoining county

105.5. A judge of an adjoining county may be requested to attend, and may attend, the court of the requesting judge pursuant to Section 105 of the Code of Civil Procedure in the same manner and with the same rights, powers and duties as if he were a judge of a court within the same county. In cases of a vacancy, illness, disqualification or inability of a judge to act, the board of supervisors may request and appoint another judge to attend such court, and the judge so attending shall have the same rights, powers and duties and must have the same qualifications as though appointed by a judge as provided in Section 105 or in this section.

SEC. 4. Section 105a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Traveling expenses

105a. A judge acting as substitute for another, as provided in Section 105 of this code, either at the written request of the judge for whom he is substituting or by assignment of the Judicial Council, shall receive from the county in which the court is situated the amount of actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred by him while traveling between his home and the courtroom.

SEC. 5. Section 108 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Disposition of money

108. Judges of justice courts must receive from the sheriff or constables of their county, all moneys collected on any process or order issued from their courts respectively, and must pay the same, and all moneys paid to them in their official capacity, over to the parties entitled or authorized to receive them, without delay.

SEC. 6. Section 108a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Powers, etc., of constable

108a. The constable of any justice court shall, with respect to proceedings in such justice court, exercise all powers and perform all duties imposed by law upon the sheriff with respect to proceedings in the superior court.

SEC. 7. Section 109 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Affidavit for salary

109. No judge of a justice court who is paid a salary, shall draw or receive any monthly salary unless he shall make and subscribe an affidavit before an officer entitled to administer oaths, that no cause in his court, which has been submitted for decision for a period of 30 days, remains pending and undecided, and that he has complied with the provisions of Section 744 of the Vehicle Code.

SEC. 8. Section 113 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Deposit of records, etc

113. Every judge of a justice court, upon the expiration of his term of office, must deposit with his successor his official records and all papers filed in his office, as well as his own as those of his predecessors or any other, which may be in his custody, to be kept as public records.

SEC. 9. Section 113a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Vacancy in office Disposition of records

113a. If the office of a judge of a justice court becomes vacant by his death or removal from the district, or otherwise, before his successor is elected and qualified, the records and papers in possession of such judge must be deposited in the office of some other judge in the district, to be by him delivered to the successor of such judge. If there is no other judge in the district, then the records and papers of such judge must be deposited in the office of the county clerk of the county, to be by him delivered to the successor in office of the judge.

SEC. 10. Section 113b of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Jurisdiction over proceedings entered in records

113b. Any judge with whom the records of his predecessor, or of any other judge are deposited, has and may exercise over all actions and proceedings entered in such records, the same jurisdiction as if originally commenced before him. In case of the creation of a new county, or the change of the boundary between two counties, any judge into whose hands the records of a judge formerly acting as such within the same territory may come, is, for the purposes of this section, considered the successor of such former judge.

SEC. 11. Section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Form of summons, etc.

115. The summons, execution, and every other paper made or issued by a judge of a justice court, except a subpena, must be issued without a blank left to be filled by another, otherwise it is void.

SEC. 12. Section 116 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Docket

116. Every judge of a justice court must keep a book, denominated a "docket," in which he must enter:

1. The title of every action or proceeding.

2. The object of the action or proceeding; and if a sum of money be claimed, the amount thereof.

3. The date of the summons, and the time of its return; and if an order to arrest the defendant be made, or a writ of attachment be issued, a statement of the fact.

4. The time when the parties, or either of them, appear, or their nonappearance, if default be made; a minute of the pleadings and motions; if in writing, referring to them; if not in writing, a concise statement of the material parts of the pleading.

5. Every adjournment or continuance, stating on whose application and to what time.

6. The demand for a trial by jury, when the same is made, and by whom made, the order for the jury, and the time appointed for the return of the jury and for the trial.

7. The names of the jurors who appear and are sworn, and the names of all witnesses sworn, and at whose request.

8. The verdict of the jury, and when received; if the jury disagree and are discharged, the fact of such disagreement and discharge.

9. The judgment of the court, specifying the costs included and the time when rendered.

10. The issuing of the execution, when issued and to whom; the renewals thereof, if any, and when made, and a statement of any money paid to the judge, when and by whom.

11. The receipt of a notice of appeal, if any be given, and of the appeal bond, if any be filed.

SEC. 13. Section 116a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Same Prima facie evidence

116a. The several particulars in the last section specified must be entered under the title of the action to which they relate, and (unless otherwise provided) at the time when they occur. Such entries in the docket in a justice court, or a transcript thereof, certified by the judge, or his successor in office, are prima facie evidence of the facts so stated.

SEC. 14. Section 116b of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Same Index

116b. A judge of a justice court must keep an alphabetical index to his docket, in which must be entered the names of the parties to each judgment, with a reference to the page of entry. The names of the plaintiffs must be entered in the index, in the alphabetical order of the first letter of the family name.

Repeal

SEC. 15. Sections 99, 100, 101, 102, 102a, 102b, 103, 103c, 103d, 103g, 103h, 103i, 103j, 103k, 103*l*, 103m, 103n, 103½, 103¾, 104, 107, 110, 110a, 111, 113c, and 113d of the Code of Civil Procedure are repealed.

Operative date

SEC. 16. The provisions of this act shall not become operative before January 1, 1952, and the provisions thereof do not affect any justice's, police, or city court which continues to exist as presently organized or any judge, justice, officer or employee of such court, but such courts and judges, justices, officers and employees shall be governed until January 5, 1953 by the same laws and with the same force as if this act had not been enacted; and those laws are hereby expressly continued in force and effect, and the text thereof preserved, for such courts and judges, justices, officers and employees until January 5, 1953.

CHAPTER 868

An act to amend Section 1191 of the Penal Code, relating to judgments.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1191 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

Pronouncement of judgment

1191. In the superior court, after a plea, finding or verdict of guilty, or after a finding or verdict against the defendant on a plea of a former conviction or acquittal, or once in jeopardy, the court must appoint a time for pronouncing judgment, which must be within 21 days after the verdict, finding or plea of guilty, during which time the court shall refer the case to the probation officer for a report if eligible to probation and pursuant to Section 1203 of this code; provided, however, that the court may extend the time not more than 10 days for the purpose of hearing or determining any motion for a new trial, or in arrest of judgment, and may further extend the time until the probation officer's report is received and until any proceedings for granting or denying probation have been disposed of. If in the opinion of the court there is a reasonable ground of believing a defendant insane, the court may extend the time for pronouncing sentence until the question of insanity has been heard and determined, as provided in this code.

CHAPTER 869

An act to amend Sections 392, 393, 395, 396, 396a, 396b, and 399 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to place of trial of civil actions.

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 392 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Real property suits

392. (1) Subject to the power of the court to transfer actions and proceedings as provided in this title, the county in which the real property, which is the subject of the action, or some part thereof, is situated, is the proper county for the trial of the following actions:

(a) For the recovery of real property, or of an estate or interest therein, or for the determination in any form, of such right or interest, and for injuries to real property;

(b) For partition of real property;

(c) For the foreclosure of all liens and mortgages on real property.

Determination of proper court

(2) The proper court for the trial of any such action, in the county hereinabove designated as the proper county, shall be determined as follows:

If there is a municipal or justice court, having jurisdiction of the subject matter of the action, established in the city and county or judicial district in which the real property which is the subject of the action, or some part thereof, is situated, such court is the proper court for the trial of such action; otherwise any court in such county having jurisdiction of the subject matter of the action, is a proper court for the trial thereof.

SEC. 2. Section 393 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Same.

393. (1) Subject to the power of the court to transfer actions and proceedings as provided in this title, the county in which the cause, or some part thereof, arose, is the proper county for the trial of the following actions:

Forfeiture, etc

(a) For the recovery of a penalty or forfeiture imposed by statute; except, that when it is imposed for an offense committed on a lake, river, or other stream of water, situated in two or more counties, the action may be tried in any county bordering on such lake, river, or stream, and opposite to the place where the offense was committed;

Action against public officer

(b) Against a public officer or person especially appointed to execute his duties, for an act done by him in virtue of his office; or against a person who, by his command or in his aid, does anything touching the duties of such officer.

(2) The proper court for the trial of any such action, in the county hereinabove designated as the proper county, shall be determined as follows:

If there is a municipal or justice court, having jurisdiction of the subject matter of the action, established in the city and county or judicial district in which the cause, or some part thereof, arose, such court is the proper court for the trial of such action; otherwise, any court in such county, having jurisdiction of the subject matter of the action, is a proper court for the trial thereof. In the case of offenses committed on a lake, river, or stream, hereinabove mentioned, the court, having jurisdiction of the subject matter of the action, nearest to the place where such offense was committed, in any county mentioned in subdivision 1 of this section, is a proper court for the trial of the action.

SEC. 3. Section 395 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Other actions

395. (1) In all other cases, except as in this section otherwise provided, and subject to the power of the court to transfer actions or proceedings as provided in this title, the county in which the defendants, or some of them, reside at the commencement of the action, is the proper county for the trial of the action. If the action be for injury to person, or to personal property, or for death from wrongful act, or negligence, either the county where the injury occurs, or where the injury causing death occurs, or the county in which the defendants, or some of them, reside at the commencement of the action, shall be a proper county for the trial of the action. When a defendant has contracted to perform an obligation in a particular county, either the county where such obligation is to be performed, or in which the contract in fact was entered into, or the county in which the defendant, or any such defendant, resides at the commencement of the action, shall be a proper county for the trial of an action founded on such obligation, and the county in which such obligation is incurred shall be deemed to be the county in which it is to be performed unless there is a special contract in writing to the contrary. If none of the defendants reside in the State, or, if residing in the State, and the county in which they reside is unknown to the plaintiff, the action may be tried in any county which the plaintiff may designate in his complaint, and if the defendant is about to depart from the State, such action may be tried in any county where either of the parties reside, or where service is had. If any person is improperly joined as a defendant, or has been made a defendant solely for the purpose of having the action tried in the county, city and county, or judicial district where he resides, his residence must not be considered in determining the proper place for the trial of the action

(2) The proper court for the trial of any such action in the county hereinabove designated as the proper county, shall be determined as follows:

If there is a municipal or justice court, having jurisdiction of the subject matter of the action, established in the city and county or judicial district, in which the defendant, or any defendant, so resides, or in which the injury to person or to personal property, or the injury causing death, occurs, or, in the cases hereinabove mentioned, in which the obligation was contracted to be performed, such court is a proper court for the trial of such action; otherwise any court in such county, having jurisdiction of the subject matter of the action, is a proper court for the trial thereof.

SEC. 4. Section 396 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

396. If an action or proceeding is commenced in a court which lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter thereof, as determined by the complaint or petition, if there is a court of this State which has such jurisdiction, the action or proceeding shall not be dismissed (except as provided in Section 581b, and as provided in subdivision 1 of Section 581 of this code) but shall, on the application of either party, or on the court's own motion, be transferred to a court having jurisdiction of the subject matter which may be agreed upon by the parties, or, if they do not agree, to a court having such jurisdiction which is designated by law as a proper court for the trial or determination thereof, and it shall thereupon be entered and prosecuted in the court to which it is transferred as if it had been commenced therein, all prior proceedings being saved. In any such case, if summons is served prior to the filing of the action or proceeding in the court to which it is transferred, as to any defendant, so served, who has not appeared in the action or proceeding, the time to answer or otherwise plead shall date from service upon such defendant of written notice of the filing of such action or proceeding in the court to which it is transferred. Lack of jurisdiction

If an action or proceeding is commenced in or transferred to a court which has jurisdiction of the subject matter thereof as determined by the complaint or petition, and it thereafter appears from the verified pleadings, or at the trial, or hearing, that the determination of the action or proceeding, or of a counterclaim, or of a cross-complaint, will necessarily involve the determination of questions not within the jurisdiction of the court, in which the action or proceeding is pending, the court, whenever such lack of jurisdiction appears, must suspend all further proceedings therein and transfer the action or proceeding and certify the pleadings (or if the pleadings be oral, a transcript of the same), and all papers and proceedings therein, to a court having jurisdiction thereof which may be agreed upon by the parties, or, if they do not agree, to a court having such jurisdiction which is designated by law as a proper court for the trial or determination thereof.

An action or proceeding which is transferred under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to have been commenced at the time the complaint or petition was filed in the court from which it was originally transferred.

Nothing herein shall be construed to preclude or affect the right to amend the pleadings as provided in this code.

Nothing herein shall be construed to require the superior court to transfer any action or proceeding because the judgment to be rendered, as determined at the trial or hearing, is one which might have been rendered by a municipal or justice court in the same county or city and county.

In any case where the lack of jurisdiction is due solely to an excess in the amount of the demand, the excess may be remitted and the action may continue in the court where it is pending.

Upon the making of an order for such transfer, proceedings shall be had as provided in Section 399 of this code, the costs and fees thereof, and of filing the case in the court to which transferred, to be paid by the plaintiff unless the court ordering the transfer shall otherwise direct.

SEC. 5. Section 396a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Statements of facts showing jurisdiction

396a. In all actions and proceedings within the subject matter jurisdiction of justice courts whether commenced in a justice or municipal court, plaintiff must state facts in the complaint, verified by his oath, or the oath of his attorney, or in an affidavit of the plaintiff or of his attorney filed with the complaint, from which it can be determined which court is, under the provisions of this title, the proper court for the trial of such action or proceeding. When such affidavit is filed with the complaint, a copy thereof must be served with the summons. Except as herein provided, if such complaint or affidavit be not so filed, no further proceedings shall be had in the action or proceeding, except to dismiss the same, unless defendant consents, in the manner hereinafter provided, to the keeping of the action or proceeding in the court where commenced. The court, or judge, may, on such terms as may be just, allow the complaint to be amended to conform to the requirements of this paragraph, or permit such affidavit to be filed subsequent to the filing of the complaint, and in such event a copy of the amended complaint, or of such affidavit, shall be served on the defendant, and time to answer or otherwise plead shall date from such service. If it appears from such complaint or affidavit, or otherwise, that the court in which such action or proceeding is commenced is not the proper court for the trial thereof, as determined by the provisions of this title, the court in which such action or proceeding is commenced, or a judge thereof, shall, whenever such fact appears, transfer it to such proper court, on its own motion, or on motion of the defendant, unless the defendant consents in writing, or in open court (such consent in open court being entered in the minutes or docket of the court), to the keeping of the action or proceeding in the court where commenced. If such consent be given, the action or proceeding may continue in the court where commenced. In any such case where the transfer of the action or proceeding is ordered under the provisions of this paragraph, if summons is served prior to the filing of such action or proceeding in the court to which it is transferred, as to any defendant, so served, who has not appeared in the action or proceeding, the time to answer or otherwise plead shall date from service upon such defendant of written notice of such filing.

When it appears from such complaint or affidavit of the plaintiff that the court in which such action or proceeding is commenced is a proper court for the trial thereof, all proper proceedings may be had, and the action or proceeding may be tried therein; provided, however, that in such case a motion for a transfer of the action or proceeding may be made as in other cases, within the time, upon the grounds, and in the manner provided in this title, and if upon such motion it appears that such action or proceeding is not pending in the proper court, or should for other cause be transferred, the same shall be ordered transferred as provided in this title.

When any such action or proceeding is ordered transferred as herein provided, proceedings shall be had, and the costs and fees shall be paid, as provided in Sections 398 and 399 of this code.

SEC. 6. Section 396b of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Trial by other than proper court

396b. Except as otherwise provided in Section 396a, if an action or proceeding is commenced in a court having jurisdiction of the subject-matter thereof, other than the court designated as the proper court for the trial thereof, under the provisions of this title, the action may, notwithstanding, be tried in the court where commenced, unless the defendant, at the time he answers or demurs, files with the clerk, or with the judge if there be no clerk, an affidavit of merits and notice of motion for an order transferring the action or proceeding to the proper court, together with proof of service, upon the adverse party, of a copy of such papers. Upon the hearing of such motion the court shall, if it appears that the action or proceeding was not commenced in the proper court, order the same transferred to the proper court; provided, however, that the court in an action for divorce or separate maintenance, may, prior to the determination of such motion, consider and determine motions for allowance of temporary alimony, support of children, counsel fees and costs, and make all necessary and proper orders in connection therewith; provided further, that in any case, if an answer be filed, the court may consider opposition to the motions, if any, and may retain the action in the county where commenced if it appears that the convenience of the witnesses or the ends of justice will thereby be promoted.

SEC. 7. Section 399 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Transmittal of pleadings, etc

399. When an order is made transferring an action or proceeding under any of the provisions of this title, the clerk, or the judge where there is no clerk, must, upon payment of the costs and fees, transmit the pleadings and papers therein (or if the pleadings be oral a transcript of the same) to the clerk (or to the judge where there is no clerk) of the court to which the same is transferred. When the transfer is sought on any ground specified in subdivisions 2, 3 and 4 of Section 397 of this code, the costs and fees thereof, and of filing the papers in the court to which the transfer is ordered, shall be paid at the time the notice of motion is filed, by the party making the motion for such transfer. When the transfer is sought solely, or is ordered, because the action or proceeding was commenced in a court other than that designated as proper by the provisions of this title, such costs and fees must be paid by the plaintiff before such transfer is made; and if, in any such case, the defendant has paid such costs and fees at the time of filing his notice of motion, the same shall be repaid to him, upon the making of such order. The court to which an action or proceeding is transferred under the provisions of this title shall have and exercise over the same the like jurisdiction as if it had been originally commenced therein, all prior proceedings being saved, and said court may require such amendment of the pleadings, the filing and service of such amended, additional or supplemental pleadings, and the giving of such notice, as may be necessary for the proper presentation and determination of the action or proceeding in said court.

Operative date

SEC. 8. The provisions of this act shall not become operative before January 1, 1952, and the provisions thereof do not affect any municipal, justice's, police or city court which continues to exist as presently organized or any judge, justice, officer or employee of such court, but such courts and judges, justices, officers and employees shall be governed until January 5, 1953, by the same laws and with the same force as if this act had not been enacted: and those laws are hereby expressly continued in force and effect, and the text thereof preserved, for such courts and judges, justices, officers and employees until January 5, 1953.

CHAPTER 870

An act to amend Sections 6005, 6070, 6702, 6777, and 7056 of, and to add Section 6019 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to sales and use taxes, and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951 Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6005 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6005. "Person" includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint venture, association, social club, fraternal organization, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, assignee for the benefit of creditors, trustee, trustee in bankruptcy, syndicate, the United States, this State, any county, city and county, municipality, district, or other political subdivision of the State, or any other group or combination acting as a unit. "Person"

SEC. 1.5. Section 6019 is added to said code, to read:

6019. Every individual, firm, copartnership, joint venture, trust, business trust, syndicate, association or corporation making more than two retail sales of tangible personal property during any 12-month period, including sales made in the capacity of assignee for the benefit of creditors, or receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, shall be considered a retailer within the provisions of this part in his or its individual, firm, copartnership, joint venture, trust, business trust, syndicate, associate or corporate capacity. Retailer

SEC. 2. Section 6070 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6070. Whenever any person fails to comply with any provision of this part relating to the sales tax or any rule or regulation of the board relating to the sales tax prescribed and adopted under this part, the board upon hearing, after giving the person 10 days' notice in writing specifying the time and place of hearing and requiring him to show cause why his permit or permits should not be revoked, may revoke or suspend any one or more of the permits held by the person. The board shall give to the person written notice of the suspension or revocation of any of his permits. The notices herein required may be served personally or by mail in the manner prescribed for service of notice of a deficiency determination. The board shall not issue a new permit after the revocation of a permit unless it is satisfied that the former holder of the permit will comply with the provisions of this part relating to the sales tax and the regulations of the board. Revocation, etc., of permits

SEC. 3. Section 6702 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6702. If any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid by him or in the event a determina- Withhold notices tion has been made against him which remains unpaid, the board may, not later than three years after the payment became delinquent, or within three years after the last recording of an abstract under Section 6738 or of a certificate under Section 6757, give notice thereof personally or by registered mail to all persons, including any officer or department of the State or any political subdivision or agency of the State, having in their possession or under their control any credits or other personal property belonging to the delinquent, or person against whom a determination has been made which remains unpaid, or owing any debts to the delinquent or such person. In the case of any state officer, department or agency, the notice shall be given to such officer, department or agency prior to the time it presents the claim of the delinquent taxpayer to the State Controller. After receiving the notice the persons so notified shall neither transfer nor make any other disposition of the credits, other personal property, or debts in their possession or under their control at the time they receive the notice until the board consents to a transfer or disposition or until 60 days elapse after the receipt of the notice, whichever period expires the earlier. All persons so notified shall forthwith after receipt of the notice advise the board of all such credits, other personal property, or debts in their possession, under their control, or owing by them. If such notice seeks to prevent the transfer or other disposition of a deposit in a bank or other credits or personal property in the possession or under the control of a bank, the notice to be effective shall be delivered or mailed to the branch or office of such bank at which such deposit is carried or at which such credits or personal property is held. If, during the effective period of the notice to withhold, any person so notified makes any transfer or disposition of the property or debts required to be withheld hereunder, to the extent of the value of the property or the amount of the debts thus transferred or paid he shall be liable to the State for any indebtedness due under this part from the person with respect to whose obligation the notice was given if solely by reason of such transfer or disposition the State is unable to recover the indebtedness of the person with respect to whose obligation the notice was given.

SEC. 4. Section 6777 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

Fees, etc

6777. The board may pay or advance to the sheriff, marshal or constable, the same fees, commissions, and expenses for his services as are provided by law for similar services pursuant to a writ of execution. The board, and not the court, shall approve the fees for publication in a newspaper.

SEC. 5. Section 7056 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

Divulgence of information unlawful

7056. It is unlawful for the board or any person having an administrative duty under this part to make known in any manner whatever the business affairs, operations, or information obtained by an investigation of records and equipment of any retailer or any other person visited or examined in the discharge of official duty, or the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures, or any particular thereof, set forth or disclosed in any return, or to permit any return or copy thereof or any book containing any abstract or particulars thereof to be seen or examined by any person. However, the Governor may, by general or special order, authorize examination by other state officers, by tax officers of another state, by the Federal Government, if a reciprocal arrangement exists, or by any other person of the records maintained by the board under this part. The information so obtained pursuant to the order of the Governor shall not be made public except to the extent and in the manner that the order may authorize that it be made public. Successors, receivers, trustees, executors, administrators, assignees, and guarantors, if directly interested, may be given information as to the items included in the measure and amounts of any unpaid tax or amounts of tax required to be collected, interest and penalties.

SEC. 6. This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy shall, under the provisions of Section 1, Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately; provided, however, that the provisions hereof shall become operative on July 1, 1951. Tax levy Operative date

An act to amend Section 58 of the Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 58 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

58. Upon petition of twenty-five resident freeholders of any county, the principal business of each of whom is the production of agricultural commodities, or upon satisfactory evidence presented to the director that the commissioner of such county is guilty of neglect of duty, incompetence or misconduct in office, the trial board hereinafter provided for shall hold a hearing or hearings at such times and places as it shall provide. An act to add Section 291 to the Penal Code, relating to notices of arrest of public school teachers.

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 291 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

Notice of arrest

291. Every sheriff or chief of police, upon the arrest for any of the offenses enumerated in Section 290 of any person who is employed as a teacher in any of the public schools of this State, shall immediately give written notice of the arrest to the State Department of Education and to the superintendent of schools in the county wherein such person is employed. Upon receipt of such notice, the county superintendent of schools shall immediately notify the governing board of the school district employing such person.

CHAPTER 873

An act to amend Sections 821.15 and 823 of the Agricultural Code, relating to apple containers, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 4, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 821.15 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Packing

821.15. Apples of a standard grade or combination of such grades shall be well packed, place packed, "face and fill packed," loose in containers, or in bulk. Grade terms used to designate apples which are place packed shall not be followed by the term "loose."

SEC. 2. Section 823 of said code is amended to read:

Containers

823. All wrapped apples shall be in one of the following containers: Standard wooden apple box, depth inside, $10\frac{1}{2}$ inches; width inside, $11\frac{1}{2}$ inches; length inside, 18 inches. Standard fibreboard apple box, depth inside, $11\frac{3}{8}$ inches; width inside, $11\frac{1}{2}$ inches; length inside, 18 inches, with a tolerance of one-fourth inch in all dimensions. Half wooden apple box, depth inside, $5\frac{1}{4}$ inches; width inside, $11\frac{1}{2}$ inches; length inside, 18 inches. Half fibreboard apple box, depth inside, $5\frac{1}{16}$ inches; width inside, $11\frac{1}{2}$ inches; length inside, 18 inches, with a tolerance of one-fourth inch in all dimensions. Apples which are not wrapped shall be in one of the standard containers defined in this section, or in one of the standard apple lugs of the following dimensions: (a) Depth inside, $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches; width inside, $13\frac{1}{2}$ inches; length inside, $21\frac{1}{4}$ inches. (b) Depth inside, $7\frac{3}{4}$ inches; width inside, 14 inches; length inside, $22\frac{3}{8}$ inches. (c) Depth inside, $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches; width inside, $13\frac{1}{2}$ inches; length inside, $20\frac{3}{8}$ inches. (d) Depth inside, $9\frac{3}{4}$ inches; width inside, 11 inches; length inside, $20\frac{5}{8}$ inches. Containers designated as (a), (b) and (c) shall be considered as standard when used with or without cleats. Apples which are not wrapped may be in other size containers, and wrapped apples may be in containers smaller than the half apple box, if these are conspicuously marked, in letters not less than one-half inch in height, "irregular container." Such marking is not required on open containers of apples which are not place packed or well packed.

Apples of the Lady variety, regardless of the method of packing, may be placed in containers with a depth of 8¾ inches, width 10 inches and length 16 inches, all inside measurements.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are: Urgency

Research and experiment has shown that containers of the dimensions provided for in this bill will greatly aid in the packing, loading, transporting, and marketing of apples. In order to permit the use of the containers herein provided for shipment of the current season's crop of apples, most of which will be marketed prior to the time this act would otherwise become effective, it is necessary that it take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 874

An act to amend Section 5075 and to add Section 5076.1 to the Penal Code, relating to the Adult Authority.

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5075 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

5075. The Adult Authority shall be composed of five members, each of whom shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a term of four years and until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Members

The Chairman of the Adult Authority shall be designated by the Governor from time to time.

The terms of the members shall expire as follows: One on March 15, 1952, two on March 15, 1953, and two on March 15, 1955. Their successors shall hold office for terms of four years, each such term to commence on the expiration date of the term of the predecessor. The Governor shall fill each vacancy for the balance of the unexpired term.

One member shall be an attorney at law, one have had practical experience in handling adult prisoners, one a sociologist in training and experience, and two have had all or any one of these qualifications.

SEC. 2. Section 5076.1 is added to said code, to read:

5076.1. The Adult Authority shall meet at each of the state prisons at such times as may be necessary for a full and complete study of the cases of all prisoners whose terms of imprisonment are to be determined by it or whose applications for parole come before it. Other times and places of meeting Meetings may also be fixed by the Adult Authority. Each member of the Adult Authority shall receive his actual necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of his official duties.

The Adult Authority may meet and transact business in panels. Each Adult Authority panel shall consist of at least two members of the authority. Two members of the Adult Authority shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. No action shall be valid unless concurred in by a majority vote of those present.

Intent

SEC. 3. It is the intention of the Legislature that the members of the Adult Authority in office when this act becomes effective shall hold their offices for the full four-year term heretofore provided by law, and that one of the additional members shall hold office until March 15, 1952, and the other until March 15, 1953.

CHAPTER 875

An act to amend Section 126 of, and to add Section 127 to, the Government Code, relating to the acquisition of land in this State by the United States and records and indices thereof maintained by the State Lands Commission.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 126 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Consent to United States acquisition of lands

126. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, general or special, the Legislature of California consents to the acquisition by the United States of land within this State upon and subject to each and all of the following express conditions and reservations, in addition to any other conditions or reservations prescribed by law:

Express conditions

(a) The acquisition must be for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dockyards, and other needful buildings, or other public purpose within the purview of Clause 17 of Section 8 of Article I of the Constitution of the United States, or for the establishment, consolidation and extension of national forests under the provisions of the act of Congress approved March 1, 1911, (36 Stat. 961) known as the "Weeks Act";

16 U S C, §480

(b) The acquisition must be pursuant to and in compliance with the laws of the United States;

(c) The United States must in writing have assented to acceptance of jurisdiction over the land upon and subject to each and all of the conditions and reservations in this section prescribed;

(d) The conditions prescribed in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of this section must have been found and declared to have occurred and to exist, by the State Lands Commission, and the commission must have found and declared that such acquisition is in the interest of the State, certified copies of its orders or resolutions making such findings and declarations to be filed in the Office of the Secretary of State and recorded in the office of the county recorder of each county in which any part of the land is situate;

(e) In granting this consent, the Legislature and the State reserve jurisdiction on and over the land for the execution of civil process and criminal process in all cases, and the State's entire power of taxation including that of each state agency, county, city, city and county, political subdivision or public district of or in the State; and reserve to all persons residing on such land all civil and political rights, including the right of suffrage, which they might have were this consent not given.

(f) This consent continues only so long as the land continues to belong to the United States and is held by it in accordance and in compliance with each and all of the conditions and reservations in this section prescribed.

Hearing

The finding and declaration of the State Lands Commission provided for in subdivision (d) of this section shall be made only after a public hearing. Notice of such hearing shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the land or any part thereof is situated and a copy of such notice shall be personally served upon the clerk of the board of supervisors of each such county. The State Lands Commission shall make rules and regulations governing the conditions and procedure of such hearings, which shall provide that the cost of publication and service of notice and all other expenses incurred by the commission shall be borne by the United States.

Exempt acquisitions

The provisions of this section do not apply to any land or water areas heretofore or hereafter acquired by the United States for migratory bird reservations in accordance with the provisions of Sections 375 to 380, inclusive, of the Fish and Game Code.

SEC. 2. Section 127 is added to said code, to read:

Index of documents

127. In addition to other records maintained by the State Lands Commission, the commission shall prepare and maintain an adequate index or record of documents with description of the lands over which the United States acquired jurisdiction pursuant to Section 126 of this code or pursuant to any prior state law. Said index shall record the degree of jurisdiction obtained by the United States for each acquisition.

CHAPTER 876

CHAPTER 877

An act to add Section 16271.2 of the Education Code, relating to the use of school busses.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 4, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16271.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

Use of school busses

16271.2. The governing board of any school district may use school busses to transport graduating twelfth grade pupils attending the schools of the district and teachers or other employees employed by the district to and from other states for educational excursions. The transportation may be provided on any day or days throughout the school year.

In computing the average daily attendance of a school district, there shall be excluded the attendance of such pupils while being transported on such educational excursions.

Any school district which transports graduating twelfth grade pupils attending the schools of the district, or teachers or other employees of the district to and from other states for educational excursions shall report to the Superintendent of Public Instruction on forms prescribed by him the total mileage of school busses used in connection with such educational excursions. In computing the additional allowance to such school district for transportation there shall be deducted therefrom an amount equal to the depreciation of school busses used for such transportation in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

CHAPTER 878

An act to repeal Section 12006 of, and to add Section 12351.5 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to the purchase and possession of explosives, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immedately

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Repeal

SECTION 1. Section 12006 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 12351.5 is added to said code, to read:

"Lawful possession of an explosive"

12351.5. "Lawful possession of an explosive" as used in this part, means the possession of an explosive

(a) In the course of legitimate blasting operations or in the arts, when authorized by a permit issued pursuant to this section, or

(b) In the course of the business of manufacturing, selling, or transporting explosives, or

(c) By a public agency.

The sheriff of a county, and the board of police commissioners, chief of police, or other head of the police department of any city or city and county, or any person designated by the sheriff, board of police commissioners, chief of police, or other head of the police department, upon proof that the person applying therefor is of good moral character, and that good cause exists for the issuance thereof may issue to such person a permit to purchase, possess, and use explosives for any of the purposes set forth in (a) above and which said permit shall specify the quantity of explosives covered thereby.

This section shall remain in effect until the ninety-first day after the final adjournment of the 1953 Regular Session of the Legislature. While this section is in effect it shall supersede any existing provisions of law which are in conflict with this section; but such provisions are not repealed by this section and after this section is no longer effective shall have the same force as though this section had not been enacted.

Urgency

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

During the present emergency the manufacture and transportation of explosives is of vital importance to this State and the Nation. As there is considerable doubt as to the application of the present law to the manufacture and transportation of explosives in the State, which might seriously impair the continued flow of products essential to the defense of the State and Nation the immediate clarification of this law is essential.

CHAPTER 879

An act to amend Sections 1480, 1481 and 1653 of the Government Code, relating to the payment for and use of individual official, individual, master official and master bonds covering officers, employees or agents required to give official bond.

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951 Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1480 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Individual bonds

1480. Every officer, agent or employee not required by statute to give an official bond may be required to give an individual official bond, or other form of individual bond, in an amount to be fixed by the appointing power and such bond shall inure to the benefit of the appointing power, state, county or municipality, by whom such officer, employee, or agent is employed as well as the officer under whom the employee or agent serves.

SEC. 2. Section 1481 of said code is amended to read:

Master bonds

1481. When deemed expedient by the appointing power, a master official bond, or other form of master bond, may be used which shall provide coverage on more than one officer, employee or agent who is required by the appointing power to give bond. Such bond shall be in the form and for the term which is approved by the appointing power and shall inure to the benefit of the appointing power, state, county or municipality by whom such officer, employee, or agent is employed as well as the officer under whom the employee or agent serves. In the case of the State of California the form and content of such bond shall be subject to the approval of the Director of Finance.

SEC. 3. Section 1653 of said code is amended to read:

Payment of premiums

1653. The payment of premiums for all bonds of deputies, clerks, assistants or subordinate officers of county officers shall not be a county charge unless the amount fixed for such bond has been approved by the board of supervisors.

CHAPTER 880

An act to amend Section 221 of and to add Section 227p to the Civil Code, relating to the adoption of adults.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 221 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

Minor child adoption

221. Any minor child may be adopted by any adult person, in the cases and subject to the rules prescribed in this chapter other than in Section 227p, and any adult person may be adopted by any other adult person in the cases and subject to the rules prescribed in Section 227p.

"Child," etc

As used in this chapter, "child" and "children" mean minor child and minor children, respectively, except in Sections 227p, 228, 229, and 230. In Sections 228, 229, and 230 "child" and "children" include both minor persons and adult persons. In Section 227p "child" means adult person, and does not include a minor person.

SEC. 2. Section 227p is added to said code, to read:

Adult adoption

227p. Any adult person may adopt any other adult person younger than himself, except the spouse of the adopting person, by an agreement of adoption approved by a decree of adoption of the superior court of the county in which either the person adopting or the person adopted resides, as provided in this section. The agreement of adoption shall be in writing and shall be executed by the person adopting and the person to be adopted, and shall set forth that the parties agree to assume toward each other the legal relation of parent and child, and to have all of the rights and be subject to all of the duties and responsibilities of that relation.

A married person not lawfully separated from his spouse cannot adopt an adult person without the consent of the spouse of the adopting person, if such spouse, not consenting, is capable of giving such consent. A married person not lawfully separated from his spouse cannot be adopted without the consent of the spouse of the person to be adopted, if such spouse, not consenting, is capable of giving such consent. Neither the consent of the natural parent or parents of the person to be adopted, nor of the State Department of Social Welfare, nor of any other person shall be required.

The adopting person and the person to be adopted may file in the superior court of the county in which either resides a petition praying for approval of the agreement of adoption by the issuance of a decree of adoption. The court shall fix a time and place for hearing on the petition, and both the person adopting and the person to be adopted must appear at the hearing in person, unless such appearance is impossible, in which event appearance may be made for either or both of such persons by counsel, empowered in writing to make such appearance. The court may require notice of the time and place of the hearing to be served on any other interested persons, and any such interested person may appear and object to the proposed adoption. No investigation or report to the court by any public officer or agency is required, but the court may require the county probation officer or the State Department of Social Welfare to investigate the circumstances and report thereon, with recommendations, to the court prior to the hearing.

At the hearing the court shall examine the parties, or the counsel of any party not present in person. If the court is satisfied that the adoption will be for the best interests of the parties and in the public interest, and that there is no reason why the petition should not be granted, the court shall approve the agreement of adoption, and make a decree of adoption declaring that the person adopted is the child of the person adopting him; otherwise, the court shall withhold approval of the agreement and deny the petition.

CHAPTER 881

An act to amend Sections 50¾ and 57½ of the Public Utilities Act, and to amend Section 1906 of, and to add Section 1073 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

Stats 1915, p 115

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50¾ of the Public Utilities Act is amended to read:

Compliance with provisions

Sec. 50¾. (a) No highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier, shall hereafter operate or cause to be operated any auto truck, or other self-propelled vehicle not operated on rails, for the transportation of property as a common carrier for compensation on any public highway in this State except in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Supervision, etc Highway common carriers, etc

(b) The Railroad Commission of the State of California is hereby vested with power and authority to supervise and regulate every highway common carrier and petroleum irregular route carrier in this State; to fix the rates, fares, charges, classifications, rules and regulations of each such highway common carrier and petroleum irregular route carrier; to regulate the accounts, service and safety of operations of each such highway common carrier and petroleum irregular route carrier, to require the filing of annual and other reports and of other data by such highway common carriers and petroleum irregular route carriers; and to supervise and regulate highway common carriers and petroleum irregular route carriers in all other matters affecting the relationship between such carriers and the shipping public. The Railroad Commission shall have power and authority, by general order or otherwise, to prescribe rules and regulations applicable to any and all highway common carriers and petroleum irregular route carriers. The Railroad Commission, in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred upon it by the Constitution of this State and by this act, shall have power and authority to make orders and to prescribe rules and regulations affecting highway common carriers and petroleum irregular route carriers, notwithstanding the provisions of any ordinance or permit of any incorporated city or town, city and county, or county, and in case of conflict between any such order, rule or regulations and any such ordinance or permit, the order, rule or regulation of the Railroad Commission shall in each instance prevail.

Certificate of convenience and necessity

(c) No highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier, shall hereafter begin to operate any auto truck, or other self-propelled vehicle, for the transportation of property for compensation on any public highway in this State without first having obtained from the Railroad Commission a certificate declaring that public convenience and necessity require such operation, but no such certificate shall be required of any highway common carrier as to the fixed termini between which or the route over which it was actually operating as a highway common carrier on July 26, 1917, and in good faith continuously thereafter, or for operations exclusively within the limits of an incorporated city, town or city and county, or for the performance of pickup, delivery, or transfer services by such carrier within such carrier's lawfully published pickup and delivery zones insofar as such pickup and delivery limits do not include territory in excess of three miles from the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town or three miles from the post office of any unincorporated point. Any right, privilege, franchise, or permit held, owned or obtained by any highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier, may be sold, assigned, leased, transferred or inherited as other property, only upon authorization by the Railroad Commission. The Railroad Commission shall have power, with or without hearing, to issue said certificate as prayed for, or to refuse to issue the same, or to issue it for the partial exercise only of said privilege sought, and may attach to the exercise of the rights granted by said certificate such terms and conditions as, in its judgment, the public convenience and necessity require. Without the express approval of the commission, no certificate of public convenience and necessity issued to one highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier, under the provisions of this section, or heretofore issued by the commission to one highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier, for the transportation of property by auto truck or self-propelled vehicle, nor any operative right of one highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier, founded upon operations actually conducted in good faith on July 26, 1917, shall be combined, united or consolidated with another such certificate or operative right issued to or possessed by another highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier, so as to permit through service between any point or points served by one highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier, on the one hand, and any point or points served, by another highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier, on the other hand; nor, without the express approval of the commission, shall any through route or joint, through, combination, or proportional rate, be established by one highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier, between any point or points which it serves, on the one hand, and any point or points served by another highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier, on the other hand. Any one highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier, may establish through routes and joint rates, charges, and classifications between any and all points served by such highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier, under any and all certificates or operative rights issued to or possessed by such highway common carrier, or petroleum irregular route carrier. Same

No petroleum irregular route carrier shall engage in any operation on any public highway in this State unless there is in force, with respect to such carrier, a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued by the Railroad Commission, authorizing such operations; provided, however, if any such petroleum irregular route carrier was, on September 1, 1949, and thereafter, operating, under a permit issued by the Railroad Commission, as a radial highway common carrier (as the term "radial highway common carrier" is defined in Chapter 223, Statutes of 1935 as amended), and shall file with the Railroad Commission, within one hundred eighty (180) days after this section shall take effect, an application as provided herein, the Railroad Commission shall issue such certificate without further proceedings. and such certificate shall authorize such carrier to engage in such operations as such carrier was authorized to conduct on September 1, 1949, pending the issuance of such certificate. Pursuant to filing of such application, the continuance of such operation shall be lawful. Any person or corporation not included within the foregoing provisions of this paragraph who, or which, when this section takes effect, is lawfully engaged in transportation as a petroleum irregular route carrier, may continue such operation for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days thereafter without a certificate; and if application for such certificate hereunder is made to the Railroad Commission within such period, the carrier may, under such regulations as the Railroad Commission shall prescribe, continue such operation until otherwise ordered by the Railroad Commission. Application for certificates shall be made in writing to the Railroad Commission, be verified under oath, and shall be in such form and contain such information and be accompanied by proof of service upon such interested parties as the Railroad Commission shall require.

The Railroad Commission may at any time for a good cause suspend, and upon notice to the holder of an operating right acquired by virtue of operations conducted on July 26, 1917, as aforesaid, or to the grantee of any certificate, and opportunity to be heard, revoke, alter or amend any such operative right or certificate.

Violation, etc of act

(d) When a complaint has been filed with the commission alleging that any vehicle is being operated without a certificate of public convenience and necessity, as required by this act, or when the commission has reason to believe that this act is being violated, it shall be the duty of the commission to investigate such operations and the commission shall have power, after a hearing, to make its order requiring the owner or operator of such vehicle to cease and desist from any operation in violation of this act; and it shall be the duty of the commission to enforce compliance with such order under the powers vested in the commission by this act or by law.

Intent

(e) It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that the provisions of this section relating to the transportation of petroleum or of petroleum products in any tank-truck or trailer for compensation over any public highway in this State is a highly specialized type of truck transportation and that the provisions of this section have been enacted for the limited purpose of providing necessary regulation for said specialized type of truck transportation only, and are not to be construed for any purpose as a precedent for the extension of such regulation to any other type of truck transportation not presently so restricted.

Cargo insurance

(f) The commission may, upon its own motion, or upon application of any interested party, and after hearing, require any highway common carrier or petroleum irregular route carrier to procure and maintain cargo insurance in such amounts and upon such terms as the commission may determine.

SEC. 2. Section 57½ of said act is amended to read:

Sec. 57½. In addition to the fees specified in Section 57 of this act, the commission shall charge and collect the following fees: Fees

For filing each application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, or for the mortgage, lease, transfer or assignment thereof, fifty dollars ($50);

All fees charged and collected under this section shall be paid, except as provided in the Transportation Rate Fund Act, as amended, at least once each month into the State Treasury to the credit of the General Fund.

NOTE: The sections of the Public Utilities Code affected by this chapter appear in their proper place in that code, Chapter 764 of Statutes of 1951, as required by Section 9762 of the Government Code.

SEC. 5. Sections 3 and 4 of this act become operative only if Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code is enacted by the Legislature at its 1951 Regular Session, and in such case at the same time as said Division 1 takes effect, at which time Sections 50¾ and 57½ of the Public Utilities Act are repealed. Racing days allowed by the board to county fairs, district agricultural associations and licensed quarter horse racing associations under this article shall not diminish the number of racing days per year permitted to be allowed to other racing associations under this article. Racing days allowed by the board to licensed quarter horse racing associations under this article shall not diminish the number of racing days per year allowed to state, county, or agricultural districts fairs.

CHAPTER 886

An act to amend Sections 14254 and 14256 of the Government Code, relating to state public works projects.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14254 of the Government Code is amended to read as follows:

"Project"

14254. As used in this chapter, "project" includes the erection, construction, alteration, repair or improvement of any state structure, building, road, or other state improvement of any kind which will exceed in cost a total of two thousand dollars ($2,000).

SEC. 2. Section 14256 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Execution of work by state agency

14256. Where the nature of the work in the opinion of the department is such that its services in connection therewith are not required, it may, with the approval of the Department of Finance, authorize the carrying out of the project directly by the state agency concerned therewith if

(a) The project is for construction or improvement of fairgrounds for a district agricultural association and the total cost will not exceed thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000), or

(b) The project is for a state agency other than a district agricultural association and

(1) The project is for maintenance, maintenance replacement, nonstructural alteration, or repair and the total cost will not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or

(2) The project is not specifically mentioned above and the total cost will not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

Duration

This section shall remain in effect until the ninety-first day after final adjournment of the 1953 Regular Session of the Legislature.

CHAPTER 887

An act to amend Sections 10270.7 and 10270.4 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10270.7 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

Family expense disability insurance

10270.7. Family expense disability insurance is that form of disability insurance insuring more than one person and issued to the head of a family or his spouse indemnifying him, or his spouse, or both, against loss due to disability of one or more persons dependent at the time of issuance upon him, or his spouse, or both, and may include indemnification on account of his own disability and disability of his spouse whether or not either is dependent on the other.

Where such a policy provides for payment for expenses incurred, expenses incurred by or upon behalf of any person covered by the policy shall be deemed incurred by the person to whom or at whose direction benefits are payable under the policy.

No question as to whether or not any person is the head of the family or his spouse, or is a child or dependent of either shall relieve the insurer of any liability it otherwise would have under the policy.

Where such a policy indemnifies a spouse alone or a spouse and the head of the family, references in the policy to the head of the family shall be deemed to refer to or include the spouse.

SEC. 2. Section 10270.4 of said code is amended to read:

Disability insurers Limitation

10270.4. Any disability insurer may issue policies of group disability insurance and family expense disability insurance as defined in this article but shall not issue any form of policy of group disability insurance, or family expense disability insurance except as prescribed in this article. Provided, however, that during the calendar years of 1952 to 1956, inclusive, a policy of family expense disability insurance as defined in Section 10270.7 may either (1) contain the provisions required by Section 10270.8 and those promulgated by the commissioner pursuant to Sections 10270.9 and 10270.93 and be subject to this article and to Section 10291.5 or (2) be filed and approved under Article 2 of this chapter and be subject to such article and to Articles 3a, 4a and 5a of this chapter and contain the provision required by Section 10270.8(b). On and after January 1, 1957 the provisions of this article shall no longer relate to such policies except Section 10270.7 and subdivision (b) of Section 10270.8 and all of such policies shall be subject to the provisions set forth in alternative (2) above, except that such policies need not comply with subsection (c) of Section 10320 if they comply with Section 10270.7.

CHAPTER 888

An act to amend Section 1129 of, and to repeal Section 1605 of, the Probate Code, and amend Section 26822 of the Government Code, relating to transfer fees in court proceedings.

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1129 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

Hearing, etc., on transfer of proceedings

1129. Upon the filing of such petition, the clerk shall set the same for hearing upon a date not less than 10, nor more than 30 days thereafter, and shall cause notice thereof to be given for the time and in the manner specified in Section 1200 of this code. Petitioner shall, at least 10 days prior to the time set for hearing, cause to be mailed to each of the persons named in such petition, at their respective places of residence as therein set forth, a copy of the notice of hearing. Any person interested in the trust, either as trustee or as beneficiary, may appear and file written grounds in opposition thereto. If, after hearing, it appears to the court that the transfer of proceedings to the court designated in the petition or to the superior court of any other county in this State, will be for the best interests of the estate, or that economical and convenient administration of the trust will be facilitated thereby, the court shall make an order transferring proceedings to such court. Thereupon the clerk shall certify to the clerk of the court to which the proceeding is transferred, a copy of the order of transfer, together with copies of the will or other instrument creating the trust, the decree of distribution, and such other documents or matters of record therein as the court may by its order determine to be necessary to define the powers and obligations of the trustee, or otherwise necessary in connection with the further administration of the trust. The court to which the proceeding is transferred may from time to time require by its order, the filing of certified copies of such additional papers or matters of record from the court of probate, as may be required.

Upon the filing of a certified copy of the order of transfer, together with supporting documents, the court to which the proceeding is transferred, shall have with respect to such trust, the same jurisdiction as the court of probate would have retained under the provisions of Section 1120 of this code, but for the transfer.

Except as otherwise specified herein, practice on the presentation and hearing of such petition and of all other matters in relation thereto, shall be in accordance with the provisions of Division 3 of this code, so far as the same may be applicable.

Repeal

SEC. 2. Section 1605 of said code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 26822 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Fee

26822. The fee for filing the papers transmitted from another court on the transfer of a civil action or a special proceeding is eight dollars ($8).

CHAPTER 889

An act to amend Sections 32127 and 32130 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hospital districts.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 32127 of the Health and Safety Code is hereby amended to read:

32127. The hospital district shall establish its own treasury and shall appoint a treasurer charged with the safekeeping and disbursal of the funds in the treasury of the district. The board of directors shall fix the amount of the bond to be given by such treasurer and shall provide for the payment of the premium therefor out of the maintenance and operation fund. Treasurer Appointment, bond

All moneys derived from that portion, if any, of the annual tax or assessment levied for capital outlay purposes shall be placed in the capital outlay fund. Any moneys derived from a special tax or assessment levied under Article 3 of Chapter 3 hereof shall be placed in a special assessment fund and shall be used exclusively for the purposes for which such special tax or assessment was voted. Capital outlay fund

All moneys derived from the regular annual tax or assessment provided in Article 1, Chapter 3 hereof, except any part thereof levied for capital outlay purposes, shall be placed in the maintenance and operation fund. All receipts and revenues of any kind from the operation of the hospital shall be paid daily into the treasury of said district and placed in the maintenance and operation fund. Moneys in the maintenance and operation fund may be expended for any of the purposes of the district. Whenever it appears that the sum in the bond interest and sinking fund will be insufficient to pay the interest or principal of bonds next coming due and payable therefrom, a sum sufficient to pay such principal and interest shall be transferred by the board of directors from the maintenance and operation fund to said bond interest and sinking fund. Maintenance and operation fund

Except as to principal and interest of bonds, moneys in the treasury of the district shall be paid out by the treasurer thereof only on written order signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary. The treasurer shall keep such order as his voucher and shall keep accounts of all receipts into the district treasury and all disbursements therefrom. Disbursements

Where bonds of the district are payable at the office of the district, all receipts from taxes levied to pay the principal and interest of such bonds shall be paid into the treasury of the district, and the treasurer of the district shall pay therefrom the principal and interest of such bonds. Bonds

Where bonds of the district are payable at the office of the county treasurer of the organizing county, at the option of the holder, or otherwise, all receipts from taxes levied to pay principal and interest of such bonds shall be paid into the treasury of the organizing county and shall be placed by the county treasurer in the bond interest and sinking fund of the district, and he shall pay the principal and interest of such bonds therefrom and shall keep an account of all moneys received into and paid out of said fund.

Any moneys in the treasury of the district and any moneys of the district in the bond interest and sinking fund of the district in the treasury of the organizing county may be deposited in accordance with the provisions of the general laws of the State of California governing the deposit of public moneys of Deposits cities or counties in such bank or banks in the State of California as may be authorized to receive deposits of public funds, in the same manner and upon the same security as public moneys of cities and counties are deposited in such banks, and with like force and effect. The board of directors of the district are authorized to create a revolving fund which fund shall not exceed the sum of 10 percent of the estimated annual expenditures of the district at any one time and which shall be used for the purpose of paying the interim expenses of the operation of any hospital within the district without the necessity of a written order signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary as provided herein. The treasurer is authorized to deposit said fund in such bank or banks in the county as may be authorized to receive deposits of public funds in the same manner and upon the same security as public moneys of cities and counties are deposited in such banks and with like force and effect, and shall be subject to withdrawal upon the signature of the treasurer, or such other official of the district as may be authorized by the board of directors, for the use and purpose provided for herein.

SEC. 2. Section 32130 of the Health and Safety Code is hereby amended to read:

Power to incur indebtedness

32130. The district may borrow money and incur indebtedness in anticipation of the estimated tax revenue and other income for the current year in which the indebtedness is incurred. Such indebtedness shall not exceed 50 percent of the total amount of the estimated tax revenue and other income for the current year. The district is further authorized when funds shall be needed to meet current expenses of maintenance and operation, to borrow money on certificates of indebtedness or other evidence of indebtedness in an amount not to exceed five cents ($0.05) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation of the district, said certificates of indebtedness to run for a period not to exceed five years and to bear interest not to exceed 5 percent per annum.

Certificates of indebtedness

All such certificates of indebtedness or other evidence of indebtedness shall be issued after the adoption by a three-fifths vote of the board of directors of the district of a resolution setting forth the necessity for such borrowing and the amount of the assessed valuation of the district and the amount of funds to be borrowed thereon. All such certificates of indebtedness or other evidence of indebtedness shall be offered at public sale by the board of directors of the district after not less than 10 days advertising in a newspaper of general circulation within the district and if no newspaper of general circulation is printed within the district, then in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the district is located. Each such sale shall be made to the bidder offering the lowest rate of interest or whose bid represents the lowest net cost to the district; provided, however, that the rate of interest shall not exceed 5 percent per annum.

Such certificates of indebtedness or other evidences of indebtedness shall be signed on behalf of the district by the presiding officer and attested by the secretary of the board of directors of the district. The board of supervisors of the county in which the district lies shall, at the time of fixing the general tax levy, sometimes called the annual assessment or regular annual assessment for such district, and in the manner for such general tax levy provided, levy and collect annually each year all sums coming due for principal and interest on such certificates of indebtedness or other evidence of indebtedness, a tax sufficient to pay the interest on such certificates of indebtedness as the same becomes due and also, to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof at maturity. Said tax shall be in addition to all of the taxes levied for district purposes and shall be placed in a certificate of indebtedness, interest and sinking fund of the district and, until all of the principal of the interest and certificates of indebtedness is paid, the money in said fund shall be used for no other purpose than the payment of said certificates of indebtedness and accruing interest thereon. An act to add Section 2810 to the Streets and Highways Code, relating to proceedings for the construction of sidewalks and the levy of special assessments.

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951 Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2810 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

2810. None of the provisions of this division shall apply to proceedings hereafter commenced for the construction of sidewalks when required for the safety of pupils attending the schools within a city and the necessity for such requirement is found to exist by the legislative body of such city conducting said proceedings, expressed by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of four-fifths of the members thereof. The findings and determinations made by the legislative body pursuant to this section shall be final and conclusive upon all persons in the absence of actual fraud. Application

An act to amend Section 512 of the Vehicle Code, relating to speed on highways where persons are at work.

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 512 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

Speed limit where persons are at work

512. Speed Limit on Highways Where Persons Are at Work. No person shall drive a vehicle at a speed greater than 25 miles per hour upon any portion of a highway where officers or employees of the agency having jurisdiction of the same, or any contractor of such agency or his employees, are at work on the roadway or within the right of way so close thereto as to be endangered by passing traffic. The provisions of this section shall apply only when appropriate signs, indicating the limits of the restricted zone, and the speed limit applicable therein, are placed by such agency within 400 feet of each end of such zone. Such signs shall display the figures "25" as provided in Section 468 and shall indicate the purpose of the speed restriction, but otherwise need not comply with the details set forth in Section 468. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to relieve any operator of a vehicle from complying with the provisions of Section 510.

An act to add Section 3760 to the Labor Code, relating to workmen's compensation.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3760 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

Report of injury

3760. Every employer who is insured against any liability imposed by this division shall file with the insurance carrier a complete report of every injury to each employee arising out of or in the course of his employment. Every such report shall be filed within five days after the injury has been reported to the employer. If not so filed, the carrier may petition the commission for an order, or the commission may of its own motion issue an order, directing the employer to submit a report of the injury within five days after service of the order. Failure of the employer to comply with the commission's order may be punished by the commission as a contempt.

CHAPTER 895

An act to amend Section 55.65 of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, relating to the sale of wine, the posting of prices and the making and filing of fair trade contracts in relation thereto, and governing the giving of discounts in connection with the sale of wine. Stats 1935, p 1123

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 55.65 of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is amended to read:

Sec. 55.65. (a) Mandatory Price Posting and Fair Trade Contracts. On and after November 1, 1949, no licensee shall in this State sell or resell to a retailer or consumer, and no retailer shall buy any item of wine in this State except at the selling or resale price thereof contained either in an effective price schedule or in an effective fair trade contract as authorized Mandatory price posting, etc by Section 55.5 of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, unless otherwise provided herein.

Exemptions

(b) Exemptions. This section shall not apply to the following transactions:

1. Sales of bulk wine, except where bulk wine is sold and bottled by the seller for the purchaser, in which case posting shall be required as herein provided for bottled wine.

2. Sales to consumers for consumption on the premises.

Trading areas

(c) Trading Areas. For the purpose of providing different selling or resale prices, the State may be divided into trading areas as hereinafter defined. For the Southern California and the Northern California trading areas the selling and resale prices shall be specified prices; for the mountain trading area the selling and resale prices may be minimum prices; provided, that the minimum prices shall not be less than the specified prices for the Northern California trading area, except that the minimum prices provided for counties in the mountain trading area lying south of the southern boundaries of San Luis Obispo, Kern and Inyo Counties shall not be less than the specified prices for the Southern California trading area.

Who shall make fair trade contracts, etc

(d) Who Shall Make Fair Trade Contracts and Post Price Schedules. 1. Each wine grower, wholesaler licensed to sell wine, wine rectifier, and rectifier shall:

Post a "schedule of selling prices" of wine to retailers or consumers for which his resale price is not governed by a fair trade contract made by the person who owns or controls the brand.

Make and file a fair trade contract and file a "schedule of resale prices" if he owns or controls a brand of wine resold to retailers or consumers.

2. Each person without the State who owns or controls a brand of wine resold to retailers or consumers in this State shall designate in writing one licensee who imports the brand of wine to make and file a fair trade contract and file a "schedule of resale prices" for such brand.

3. Each off-sale retailer who owns or controls a brand of wine sold to consumers shall post a "schedule of selling prices" for such brand.

Contents of price schedules

(e) Contents of Price Schedules and Fair Trade Contracts. Each price schedule and fair trade contract, in addition to such other information, and on such form, as the board may prescribe, shall contain the following:

1. General information, including the name and address of licensee filing, the name and address of the seller or brand owner without the State, if any, for whom the licensee is filing, the trading area or areas covered, and restrictions on distribution or resale, if any.

2. Information identifying each different item of wine, including the brand name, secondary brand name, if any, form of label, if more than one form used, class and type of wine, vintage date, if shown on label, special or gift package, if any, number of bottles in case, and size of bottles.

3. Information as to basic prices of each item, f. o. b. selling premises or delivered, or both, including, where applicable, basic case and bottle selling and resale prices to retailers and to consumers.

4. Information as to discounts and additional charges, including quantity and prompt payment discounts, and broken case charge to retailers, if any.

Prices

(f) Prices. Basic selling and resale price shall include customs duties, if any, federal and California excise taxes, California marketing order assessment or assessments, if applicable, plus any other legal charge not required to be shown in the price schedule except California sales tax. Selling price and resale price shall be the basic selling price or the basic resale price, respectively, less discounts, plus broken case charges contained in the applicable price schedule or fair trade contract.

The selling price contained in any "schedule of selling prices" shall be the same as the resale price contained in an effective fair trade contract and "schedule of resale prices" filed by the same licensee.

Where bulk wine is bottled for a buyer under the label of the bottler, the selling price to the buyer of the wine so bottled shall be the same as the selling price contained in an applicable "schedule of selling prices" posted by the bottler for wine carrying such label.

Not more than three different prices to retailers or to consumers shall be permitted for the same brand of bottled wine differing only in the secondary brand name, the form of label (such as color scheme, number of stars, etc.), or in some other way not pertaining to the class or type, vintage date, if shown on the label, or special or gift package.

Discounts

(g) Discounts. Quantity discounts to retailers shall be permitted only when actual delivery of a single order is begun and completed to the same premises within a period not to exceed 48 hours, except in the case of accident, strike, insurrection, riot, or act of God, and then delivery shall be made within 48 hours after such occurrence ends. The total quantity and prompt payment discounts, if any, to retailers shall not exceed the following:

Less than 5 cases	no discount
5 or more cases but less than 10 cases	1 % discount
10 or more cases but less than 25 cases	2 % discount
25 or more cases but less than 100 cases	4 % discount
100 or more cases but less than 200 cases	6½% discount
200 or more cases	10 % discount

Quantity discounts to consumers shall not exceed 10 percent per case for case lots of the same brand.

Prompt payment discounts to retailers shall be permitted only when the seller actually receives payment in cash or its equivalent within the specified period after date of delivery. Postdated checks or checks returned for nonpayment shall not be deemed the equivalent of cash.

Permitted discounts shall not be taken in merchandise.

Filing, effective dates, changes

(h) Filing, Effective Dates, and Changes. Fair trade contracts and price schedules for wine available for sale on November 1, 1949, shall be made and filed on or before October 15, 1949. Fair trade contracts and price schedules for wine available for sale for the first time after November 1, 1949, shall be made and filed on or before the tenth of any month.

Adding an item to, removing an item from, or changing any charge, discount, or price in, any price schedule or fair trade contract shall constitute a change. Monthly changes shall be filed on or before the tenth of any month. After the tenth and on or before the twentieth of any month any price may be lowered to meet a competitive price filed for the first time on or before the tenth of the same month. After the twentieth and on or before the last day of any month any price may be lowered to meet a competitive price filed for the first time after the tenth and on or before the twentieth of the same month. Any price filed after the tenth of any month shall be accompanied by the name and address of the competitor whose price is being met, with a complete identification of the competing item, including the price. Any price filed after the twentieth of any month shall be filed on a supplemental price schedule listing the lowered prices only. A lowering of price to meet a competitive price may be a reduction by any amount desired, but in no event shall the reduction be to an amount below the competitive price.

If a change occurs in the body of a fair trade contract a copy of the changed fair trade contract shall be filed at the same time that the changed price schedule affected thereby is filed.

Price schedules, fair trade contracts, or changes therein shall become effective on the first day of the month following the month of filing except as otherwise provided in this section.

Changes required or authorized

(h-1) Changes Required or Authorized by Federal Price Regulations. For the purpose of complying with the General Ceiling Price Regulation, Economic Stabilization Agency, or with any other applicable federal law, ruling, rule, or regulation respecting prices, or for the purpose of increasing a price or prices when an increase in ceiling price is authorized by any such law, ruling, rule, or regulation, price schedules and fair trade contracts or changes therein may be filed with the board at any time and shall become effective immediately upon filing; provided, that in the latter case the applicable price schedule and fair trade contract or changes therein must be filed with the board not later than the twentieth day of the month following the month in which said increase in ceiling price is first authorized. Publication of such price schedules or changes therein shall be made as provided in paragraph (j) of this section on or before the first day of the month following the month in which said price schedule or changes therein is filed with the board. Price schedules or changes therein filed pursuant to this paragraph shall contain the statement: "Filed to comply with federal pricing laws and regulations" or "Filed to increase prices as first authorized on (inserting the date)." Nothwithstanding any other provision of this section, price schedules and fair trade contracts or changes therein made effective pursuant to this paragraph shall remain in effect until changed in accordance with the provisions of this section.

Public inspection

(i) Public Inspection. The board shall make price schedules or changes therein, or a composite thereof, available for public inspection.

Publication, etc.

(j) Publication, Mailing or Posting. Except for wine growers selling only to consumers at their licensed premises, every person filing a price schedule or change therein, shall, at least once on or before the first of the month in which effective, publish the price schedule or change in a trade journal or industry price book, printed and published in this State and of general circulation among licensees affected in this State. In case of industry price books which are of general circulation among licensees in only some of the trading areas, the publication shall be in one industry price book of general circulation in each trading area.

Instead of publishing, the licensee may mail his price schedule or any changes therein to licensees affected. Schedules or supplemental schedules or changes therein shall be deposited in the United States Post Office before the date required for publication. If the affidavit prescribed herein is not filed before the date required for publication, the schedule, supplemental schedule or changes therein shall not become effective until the affidavit prescribed herein is filed; provided, however, a price filed after the twentieth and on or before the last day of any month shall become ineffective on the last day of the first month in which effective and the applicable price shown on the last regular price schedule on file with the board shall become reeffective unless said last regular price is changed in accordance with the provisions of this section. Within five days after the mailing, the licensee shall file with the board a list of names and addresses of the licensees to whom such price schedules or changes are mailed, together with an affidavit of the person who deposited the schedules in envelopes addressed to the licensees whose names and addresses are set forth in such list. Such affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Wine growers selling only to consumers at their licensed premises need not publish or mail their price schedules as herein provided, but shall post said schedules in that portion of their premises where sales are made where they can be readily inspected by consumers.

"Close outs," damaged wine

(k) "Close-outs" and Damaged Wine. No licensee shall make any "close-out" sale under the implied condition provided for by Section 55.5(b) (1), or any sale under the implied condition provided for by Section 55.5(b) (2), of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act except after receiving permission from the board, which shall determine whether the proposed sale is bona fide.

Permission to sell under the provisions of Section 55.5(b) (1) shall be granted only if it appears that the stock of wine sought to be closed out has been on the market in this State for a period of not less than six months and was not brought into this State for the purpose of offering it, or any part of it, at a close-out sale.

Permission to sell under the provisions of Section 55.5(b)(2) shall be granted only if it shall appear that the facts of the case warrant the sale of the wine affected as damaged or deteriorated.

A "close-out" sale within the meaning of this paragraph (k) shall be construed to mean a bona fide close-out of a particular item of wine in the California market. Label changes which do not pertain to the class or type of wine, the vintage date, or the special or gift package, shall not be deemed to be "close-out" within the meaning of this paragraph (k).

Petitions for permission to make close-out sales, or sales of damaged or deteriorated wine shall state a full and complete description of the wine involved, in such detail as to distinguish such wines from all others, and shall include the federal serial numbers, if any, of the cases involved. The number of cases or bottles involved shall also be stated. The petitioner shall agree not to sell or handle the item closed out for at least six months after the close-out.

Sales below cost, price discrimination

(l) Sales Below Cost and Price Discriminations. The sale of any wine by a licensee in violation of Part 2, Division 7, Chapter 4 of the California Business and Professions Code, entitled "Unfair Trade Practices," is prohibited and shall be a violation of this section.

Application

(m) Circumvention of Section. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the giving of, or offering to give, any rebate, free goods, combination deal, premium, allowance, unauthorized discount, floor stocks adjustment, or any other thing or service of value, directly or indirectly, in connection with the sale of wine subject to this section, or, in any other way circumventing this section to effect a sale at a price other than the price shown in the applicable price schedule, shall be a violation of this section; provided, however, that this provision shall not prohibit any cooperative buying group which on January 1, 1949, held a federal basic permit or was licensed by the board, from giving, or its members from receiving, dividends or other adjustments from the general fund of such cooperative buying group.

This section shall not prohibit the furnishing of samples, advertising matter, and other selling aids as may be authorized by this act and rules and regulations issued thereunder.

A retailer may return wine to the seller and the seller may accept the return thereof; provided, however, that such seller shall be prohibited from selling wine to said retailer for a period of one year after the date such returned wine is accepted or received unless the same be returned in exchange for the identical quantity, brand and item of wine, or unless the same be returned pursuant to court order.

(n) Penalties. For a violation of any of the provisions of this section or rules and regulations adopted pursuant hereto, the board may suspend or revoke a license as follows: Penalties

For a first offense, not exceeding 10 days' suspension;

For a second offense, not exceeding 30 days' suspension;

For a third offense, the board may suspend or revoke a license.

(o) The board may adopt such rules and regulations it may determine to be necessary for the administration of this section. Rules and regulations

(p) Definitions. Words and phrases used in this section shall have the meanings given them by this act except as otherwise indicated in this section: Definitions

1. "Bottled" wine means wine packaged in individual containers of one gallon or less.

2. "Bulk" wine means wine packaged in individual containers of over one gallon or wine transferred via pipe line or shipped in tank cars or tank trucks.

3. "Class" and "type" of wine shall mean class and type as defined or provided for by regulations of the U. S. Treasury Department and the California State Department of Public Health.

4. "Competitive price" is a price of a similar item of wine (at which actual sales were made) 10 percent greater or less than the single case price to retailers and the single bottle price to consumers at any time during the three-month period immediately preceding the effective date of any price filing; provided, that the competitively priced item is neither owned nor controlled, in whole or in part, either directly or indirectly, by the same brand owner or an affiliated company or corporation.

For the purposes of this section, the term "affiliated company or corporation" shall include, but is not limited to, companies or corporations owned or controlled by the same or substantially the same person or persons, or companies or corporations where one owns all or substantially all of the issued capital stock of the other, or where one corporation or company is controlled by another, directly or indirectly, through ownership of issued capital stock, or otherwise, or where all the capital stock of two companies or corporations is owned by the same person or persons.

5. "Consumer" means a person who buys wine for consumption off the premises where sold.

6. "Effective" means a fair trade contract or price schedule, including changes therein filed, published, mailed or posted, and in effect.

7. "File" or "post" means to mail or deliver fair trade contracts, price schedules, or changes thereto, to the Sacramento office of the board; provided, however, that if mailed, they shall be deemed to be filed on the dates prescribed in this section only if postmarked in California at least two days before the applicable prescribed date.

8. "Item" of wine means wine that differs from any and all other wine in its brand name, secondary brand name, form of label, class or type, vintage date, special or gift package, number of bottles in a case, or size of bottles. An item of wine is similar where all the elements listed above are the same except its brand name, or secondary brand name, or form of label.

9. "Licensee" means any person holding a license issued by the board which authorizes the sale of wine.

10. "Person" shall also include any California licensee or any person without the State who sells wine to licensees.

11. "Sell" shall also include advertisements and contracts to sell.

12. Trading Areas: "Northern California" shall consist of all counties lying north of the southern boundaries of San Luis Obispo, Kern and Inyo Counties which are not included in "Mountain." "Southern California" shall consist of all the counties lying south of said boundaries which are not included in "Mountain." "Mountain" shall consist of the Counties of Del Norte, Siskiyou, Modoc, Shasta, Trinity, Humboldt, Lassen, Mendocino, Tehama, Plumas, Butte, Sierra, Nevada, Placer, El Dorado, Amador, Calaveras, Alpine, Tuolumne, Mariposa, Mono, Inyo and Imperial.

CHAPTER 896

An act to amend the title of Article 2, Chapter 1, Part 1, Division 14 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 20034, 20036, 20061, 20062, and 20065 of the Health and Safety Code, and to repeal Sections 20035 and 20037 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Articles 2.5 and 2.6 to Chapter 1, Part 1, Division 14 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to police protection districts in unincorporated towns.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The title of Article 2, Chapter 1, Part 1, Division 14 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

Article 2. Petition and Formation

SEC. 2. Section 20034 of said code is amended to read:

Election

20034. Within 30 days after acquiring jurisdiction to proceed further, the board shall by resolution call an election as provided in Article 2.5 of this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 20036 of the said code is amended to read:

Entry and effect of order

20036. The order establishing the district shall be entered in the minutes of the board and shall be prima facie evidence of:

(a) The presentation of a proper petition to the board.

(b) The fact that at the time he signed the petition and at the time of its presentation each petitioner was a taxpayer and resident of the territory occupied by the district.

(c) The fact and regularity of all prior proceedings required by this article.

Repeal

SEC. 4. Sections 20035 and 20037 of the said code are repealed.

SEC. 5. Article 2.5 is added to Chapter 1, Part 1, Division 14 of said code, to read:

Article 2.5. Election on Formation

Notice of election

20040. The board shall call and give notice of an election to be held in the proposed district to determine whether the district shall be formed, and to elect the commissioners who shall serve as the first district board.

Same Contents

20041. The notice of the formation election shall contain:

(a) The date of the election.

(b) A description of the boundaries of the proposed district.

(c) The name of the proposed police protection district, which shall contain the words "Police Protection District of _____ County" (stating the name of the county in which the district is to be located).

(d) A statement that the commissioners who will serve as the first district board will be elected.

Same Publication

20042. The county clerk shall publish the notice of election once a week for at least two weeks prior to the formation election, in a newspaper printed and published in the district, if any, and if none, shall give such notice by posting the notice in three public places within the district for at least three weeks immediately preceding the election.

Submission of measure

20043. At the formation election the first directors shall be elected and the following measure shall be submitted: "Shall the proposition to form _____ Police Protection District of _____ County be adopted?"

Resident

20044. No person shall be a candidate for the district board unless he is a resident within the boundaries of the proposed district.

Conduct of election

20045. The election shall be conducted, candidates nominated, the votes canvassed, and the results declared as provided by the Elections Code for election of county officers, insofar as applicable and not inconsistent with this chapter. Each person voting at the formation election shall be entitled to cast three votes for candidates for members of the first district board. The three candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected as the first district board if the district is formed.

Declaration of formation

20046. If a majority of votes cast are in favor of forming the district, the board of supervisors shall by an order entered on its minutes declare the district formed under the name designated for it.

Right to vote

20047. No person is entitled to vote on the question of formation of a district, or for the first board of commissioners, unless such person is a voter within the meaning of the Elections Code, and a resident within the boundaries of the proposed district.

SEC. 6. Section 20061 of the said code is amended to read:

Term of office

20061. Each of such commissioners shall hold office until his successor is elected and has qualified pursuant to this article.

SEC. 7. Section 20062 of the said code is amended to read:

Same

20062. The commissioners first elected shall at their first meeting so classify themselves by lot that one of their number shall go out of office on the second Monday of April of the year next succeeding the election; one on the second Monday of April of the second year succeeding the election; and one on the second Monday of April of the third year succeeding the election.

SEC. 8. Section 20065 of the said code is amended to read:

Election

20065. The district board shall call an election and shall post notices of the election in three public places within the district for at least two weeks before the day of the election.

SEC. 9. Article 2.6 is added to Chapter 1, Part 1, Division 14 of said code, to read:

Article 2.6. Annexation

Annexation to district

20050. Any territory which is not a part of another police protection district, and which is contiguous to an existing district in the same county, may be annexed to that district.

Proceedings

20051. Proceedings for annexation of territory to a district shall be initiated by filing with the board a petition signed by at least 10 percent of the qualified electors residing in the territory proposed to be annexed. Such petition shall designate specifically the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed, state its assessed valuation as shown by the last equalized assessment roll, and request that the territory be annexed to the district.

Publication of petition

20052. The petition shall be published at least once each week for two weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the county, together with a notice stating the time and place at which the petition will be presented to the board and that all persons interested may appear and be heard.

Hearing

20053. At the time specified for the hearing the board shall hear the petition and may adjourn the hearing from time to time. The board shall not modify the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed as set forth in the petition so as to exclude any area that would be benefited by annexation to the district, nor shall any area that will not be benefited by annexation be included within the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed.

20054. Upon the final hearing of the petition the board, if it approves the petition as originally presented or in a modified form, shall make an order describing the exterior boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed and ordering that an election be held for the purpose of determining whether or not the territory shall be annexed to the district. Final hearing

20055. The order shall fix the day of the election, which shall be within 60 days from the date of the order, and shall show the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed to the district. This order shall be entered in the minutes and is conclusive evidence of the due presentation of a proper petition, and of the fact that each of the petitioners was at the time of the signing and presentation of the petition qualified to sign. Order

20056. If a majority of the votes in the district and a majority of the votes in the territory proposed to be annexed are in favor of annexation, the board shall by resolution make an order annexing the territory to the district. The order shall be entered in the minutes of the board and be prima facie evidence of regularity of all prior proceedings relating to the annexation. Annexation order

20057. If the result of the election is against annexation the board shall, by order, disapprove the petition and enter the order in its minutes. No other proceedings shall be taken in relation thereto until the expiration of one year from the presentation of the petition. Disapproval

Milk and milk products used in the manufacture of whip cream topping shall be pasteurized.

CHAPTER 898

An act to amend Sections 5600 and 5604 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to the practice of architecture.

In effect September 22 1951

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5600 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

License fee

5600. (a) Every architect shall pay an annual license fee to the department. The fee shall be due and payable on or before the thirty-first day of January of each year and shall become delinquent thereafter.

Penalty

(b) If the annual license fee is not paid before it becomes delinquent, a penalty of three dollars ($3) shall be added to the amount thereof.

Suspension of certificate

(c) If the annual license fee and penalty are not paid before the thirtieth day of June in the year in which they become due, the architect's certificate shall be suspended from and after the expiration of 30 days from the date of mailing by registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid and addressed to the architect at his address as it appears in the records of the board; a notice of the delinquency of the architect stating that upon the expiration of time herein allowed his certificate will be suspended, unless within said time, the annual license fee and penalty are remitted.

Reinstatement

(d) After the certificate has been suspended, it may be reinstated upon the payment of the reinstatement fee, and such proof of the architect's qualifications as may be required in the sound discretion of the board.

Receipt

(e) The board shall issue a receipt to each architect promptly upon payment of the annual license fee.

SEC. 2. Section 5604 of said code is amended to read:

Amount of fees

5604. The amount of fees prescribed by this chapter is that fixed by the following schedule:

(a) The application fee for examination is twenty dollars ($20).

(b) The fee for an original certificate is ten dollars ($10).

(c) The fee for a temporary certificate is fifty dollars ($50).

(d) The fee for a duplicate certificate is ten dollars ($10).

(e) The annual license fee is fifteen dollars ($15), but the state board may reduce the fee to not less than five dollars ($5).

(f) The penalty is three dollars ($3).

(g) The reinstatement fee is twenty dollars ($20).

CHAPTER 899

An act to amend Section 28136 of the Government Code, relating to compensation for public services in counties of the thirty-sixth class.

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 28136 of the Government Code is amended to read:

28136. In a county of the thirty-sixth class the following shall receive as compensation for the services required of them by law or by virtue of their offices the following sums: Siskiyou County Salaries

(a) The auditor, five thousand four hundred dollars ($5,400) a year.

(b) The district attorney, seven thousand two hundred dollars ($7,200) a year.

(c) Each supervisor, two thousand four hundred dollars ($2,400) a year and mileage at the rate of twenty cents ($0.20) a mile for the distance usually traveled in going from his home to the county seat and returning.

(d) Grand jurors and trial jurors in the superior court shall receive five dollars ($5) for each day's attendance and twenty cents ($0.20) for each mile actually and necessarily traveled from their residences to the county seat, in going only. An act to add Section 1g to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913, relating to municipal improvements.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1g is added to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913, to read:

Incorporation by reference

Sec. 1g. Whenever any reference is made in this act to any portion of a code or any other law, such reference shall apply to all amendments and additions thereto.

CHAPTER 902

An act to amend Section 6028.1 of, and to add Section 6028.11 to, the Penal Code, relating to special crime study commissions.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6028.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6028.1. Each such special commission may investigate any and all matters relating to the subjects specified in the order creating it. In the exercise of its powers the commission shall be subject to the following conditions and limitations: Conditions, etc., on investigation

(a) A witness at any hearing shall have the right to have present at such hearing counsel of his own choice, for the purpose of advising him concerning his constitutional rights.

(b) No hearing shall be televised or broadcast by radio, nor shall any mechanical, photographic or electronic record of the proceedings at any hearing be televised or broadcast by radio.

SEC. 2. Section 6028.11 of the Penal Code is added, to read:

CHAPTER 903

An act to add Sections 5026.3 and 5049.1 to the Education Code, relating to state school building aid, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5026.3 is added to the Education Code, to read:

5026.3. Payment shall be made in accordance with the terms of an apportionment, either directly or by way of reimbursement, to a school district for expenditures, or commitments therefor, made by such district subsequent to July 19, 1947, for any items approved by the board in such apportionment; provided, however, that where expenditures were made for, or work was commenced with respect to, any item so approved, prior to the time the application of such district containing such item was received by the Director of Finance, payment for such item, either with state funds or with district funds which the district is required to contribute by said apportionment, shall be made only upon authorization of the board by special resolution citing this section. Payment to school district

SEC. 2. Section 5049 1 is added to said code, to read:

5049.1. Payment shall be made in accordance with the terms of a final apportionment, either directly or by way of Same reimbursement, to a school district for expenditures, or commitments therefor, which have been made by the district subsequent to December 5, 1949, for any items approved by the board in such apportionment; provided, however, that where expenditures were made for, or work was commenced with respect to, any item so approved, prior to the time the application of such district containing such item was received by the board, payment or reimbursement for such item, either with state funds or with district funds which the district is required to contribute by said apportionment, shall be made only upon authorization of the board by special resolution citing this section.

Urgency

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Under the existing law it is doubtful whether a school district may commence preliminary work on the project for which it is applying for an apportionment from the State for school building aid before the apportionment becomes final. It is also doubtful whether a school district, when it receives money under such an apportionment, may expend part of the money for costs incurred in connection with the project before it received the money. In view of rising construction costs it is highly desirable for districts to make expenditures, or commitments for expenditures, in connection with school construction projects at the earliest possible time and the districts should be reimbursed for such expenditures when funds are received under an apportionment of state funds for such projects. It is therefor necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 904

An act to amend and renumber Section 4571 of the Elections Code, relating to election campaigns.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4571 of the Elections Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Lawful expenses

4502.5. As a part of lawful expenses, candidates at other than primaries may expend money for necessary incidental expenses, which, plus traveling expenses do not exceed:

(a) One hundred dollars ($100), if expended by a candidate.

(b) One thousand dollars ($1,000), if expended by a committee.

CHAPTER 905

An act to amend Sections 1302 and 1303 of the Education Code, relating to the employment of associate superintendents of schools and the terms of office of school superintendents, associate superintendents, and deputy and assistant superintendents.

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1302 of the Education Code is amended to read:

1302. In each city school district governed by a city board of education, the board may employ a city superintendent of schools and such associate superintendents of schools, and deputy or assistant city superintendents of schools as it deems necessary, and may fix and order paid their compensation, unless otherwise prescribed by law.

City superintendent of schools, etc

SEC. 2. Section 1303 of said code is amended to read:

1303. A city superintendent of schools elected by a board of education shall be elected for a term of four years. Any district superintendent of schools, associate superintendent of schools, or deputy city or district superintendent of schools, or assistant city or district superintendent of schools may be elected for a term of four years.

CHAPTER 906

An act to amend Sections 6728 and 6757 of, and to add Sections 6701.5 and 6742.5 to, the Elections Code, relating to elections conducted under the punch card voting system.

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951 Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6701.5 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

6701.5. An election board may provide that the ballots cast in any precinct for which the system provided for in this chapter has been adopted shall be counted at the polls or at a central counting place as provided in this chapter.

Counting ballots

SEC. 2. Section 6728 of said code is amended to read:

6728. If the election board has provided that the ballots of any precinct shall be counted at a counting place, the clerk shall designate a counting place to which the ballots are to be delivered. Two or more such counting places may be established within a county. If the election board has provided that the ballots cast in any precinct shall be counted at the polls, the clerk shall supply the mechanical or electrical devices necessary for the purpose of such counting.

Central counting place

SEC. 3. Section 6742.5 is added to said code, to read:

Counting, procedure at polls

6742.5. If the election board has provided that the ballots cast in the precinct shall be counted at the polls, the precinct boards shall cause the ballot cards which have been arranged in accordance with Section 6742 to be counted and tabulated by the mechanical or electrical device provided for the purpose. Any card rejected by the machine shall be examined. Any such card found to be a defective card shall be placed with the defective ballots and all cards found to have been improperly voted shall be segregated. The precinct board shall then ascertain the vote as shown by the defective cards and the vote as shown by ballots containing the names of write-in candidates. The precinct board shall thereupon ascertain the vote for each candidate and for and against each measure and shall make a certificate showing the same. The ballot cards which have been counted by machine, those otherwise counted by the board, and those found to have been improperly voted shall be separately bundled and placed in the containers provided for the purpose. Such containers, together with the certificate of the precinct board, shall be transmitted to the counting place designated by the clerk, if any has been designated for the purpose, and otherwise to the clerk.

SEC. 4. Section 6757 of said code is amended to read:

Declaring vote

6757. Upon completion of the count the clerk shall add to the results as so determined the results as determined from the certificates of the precinct boards of all precincts at which the vote was counted at the polls as provided in this chapter and thereupon shall declare the vote.

CHAPTER 907

An act to amend Sections 6736 and 6799 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to the practice of professional engineering.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 5, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 5, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6736 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

Practice of engineering by partnership, etc.

6736. (a) This chapter does not prohibit one or more civil engineers from practicing or offering to practice civil engineering through the medium of a partnership, firm, or corporation; provided:

(1) A civil engineer is the partner, member, or directing officer in charge of the engineering practice of the partnership, firm, or corporation.

(2) All civil engineering plans, specifications, and reports are prepared by or under the direct supervision of a registered civil engineer, who shall sign or stamp with his seal such plans, specifications, and reports.

(3) The partnership, firm or corporate name shall not contain the name of any person who is either not registered by the board in a branch of professional engineering, or as an architect; provided, that any holding out by such partnership, firm, or corporation of any individual or individuals to the public as a member, or members, of such partnership, firm, or corporation, other than by the use of the name or names of such individual or individuals in the partnership, firm, or corporate name, shall clearly and specifically designate the license status of such individual or individuals.

(b) Nothing herein shall authorize the offering to practice or the practice of civil engineering by any person, either as a member, officer or employee of any partnership, firm, or corporation, who is not a registered civil engineer.

(c) This chapter does not prevent or prohibit an individual, firm, company, association or corporation engaged in any line of business other than the practice of civil engineering from employing a registered civil engineer to perform civil engineering services incidental to the conduct of their business.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to, or prevent the use of the name of, any partnership, firm, or corporation engaged in rendering civil engineering services which was lawfully in existence on September 30, 1947; provided, all civil engineering plans, specifications, and reports are prepared by or under the direct supervision of a registered civil engineer, who may be a member of the firm, or a permanent employee of the partnership, firm, or corporation; provided further, that all civil engineering plans, specifications and reports shall be signed by or stamped with the seal of the registered civil engineer in charge of the preparation of the same.

SEC. 2. Section 6799 of said code is amended to read:

6799. The amount of the fees prescribed by this chapter is that fixed by the following schedule: Fees

(a) The fee for filing each application for registration as a professional engineer, or authority to use the title "structural engineer" is fifteen dollars ($15) and for each certification as engineer-in-training is five dollars ($5), except that as to any person who has previously been issued a certificate as an engineer-in-training, the fee for filing an application for registration as a professional engineer is ten dollars ($10).

(b) The registration fee for professional engineer is ten dollars ($10) for each certificate issued.

(c) The duplicate certificate fee is one dollar ($1).

(d) The temporary registration fee for professional engineer is ten dollars ($10).

(e) The structural engineer's certificate of authority fee is ten dollars ($10).

(f) The annual renewal fee for professional engineer is six dollars ($6) for each branch of professional engineering in which registration is held; for authority to use the title "structural engineer" is three dollars ($3); for engineer-in-training is two dollars ($2) for each branch in which certification is held.

(g) The penalty for delinquency of the annual renewal fee is one dollar ($1) for each month or fraction thereof after the date upon which the annual fee becomes due until the amount thereof aggregates five dollars ($5).

Applicants wishing to be examined in more than one branch of engineering shall be required to pay the additional fee for each examination after the first.

CHAPTER 908

An act to add Article 3, comprising Sections 1670 to 1674, to Chapter 2 of Division 4 of the Elections Code, and to add Section 29907.5 to the Government Code, relating to arguments concerning measures submitted to the voters of a county.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 3, comprising Sections 1670 to 1674, is added to Chapter 2 of Division 4 of the Elections Code, to read:

Article 3. Arguments Concerning County Measures

"County measure"

1670. As used in this article, "county measure" includes any proposed county charter, any proposed amendment to a county charter, any proposition for the issuance of funding or refunding bonds of the county, or any other question or proposition submitted to the voters of a county at any election held throughout an entire single county. "County measure" does not include any question or proposition submitted to the voters of any public district although the boundaries of the district may be coterminous with those of the county.

Submitting arguments on county measures

1671. If there is no other method provided by law, arguments for and against any county measure may be submitted to the qualified electors of the county pursuant to this article. If a method is otherwise provided by law for submitting such arguments as to a particular kind of county measure, that method shall control.

Filing arguments

1672. The board of supervisors or any member or members thereof authorized by such board, or any individual voter or bona fide association of citizens, or any combination of such voters and associations, may file a written argument for or against any county measure. No argument shall exceed 300 words in length. The county clerk shall cause an argument for and an argument against the measure to be printed and shall enclose a copy of both arguments, printed on the same sheet of paper, in an envelope with each sample ballot. Such printed arguments are "official matter" within the meaning of those words as used in Section 3711.

Date of submission

1673. Based on the time reasonably necessary to prepare and print the arguments and sample ballots for that particular election, the county clerk shall fix and determine a reasonable date prior to such election after which no arguments for or against any county measure may be submitted to him for printing and distribution to the voters as provided in this article. Arguments may be changed until and including the date fixed by the county clerk.

Selection of arguments

1674. If more than one argument for or more than one argument against any county measure is submitted to the county clerk within time, the county clerk shall select one of the arguments in favor and one of the arguments against the measure for printing and distribution to the voters. In selecting the argument the county clerk shall give preference and priority in the order named to the arguments of the following:

(a) The board of supervisors or member or members thereof authorized by such board.

(b) The individual voter or bona fide association of citizens, or combination of such voters and associations, who are the bona fide sponsors or proponents of the petition or measure.

(c) Bona fide associations of citizens.

(d) Individual voters.

SEC. 2. Section 29907.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

Law applicable

29907.5. The provisions of Article 3 of Chapter 2 of Division 4 of the Elections Code, relating to arguments concerning county measures, are applicable to this chapter.

CHAPTER 909

An act to amend Sections 3013, 3084, and 3150 of the Elections Code, relating to independent nominations.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3043 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

Nomination papers

3043. Nomination papers required to be filed with the Secretary of State or with the county clerk shall be filed not more than 65 nor less than 40 days before the day of the election.

Such nomination papers shall not be filed after 5 p.m. on the fortieth day before the day of election; provided, that if such day is a Saturday, such nomination papers shall not be filed after 12 o'clock noon. In counties where the office of the county clerk is legally closed on Saturday, the final day for filing shall be the preceding day at 5 o'clock p.m.

SEC. 2. Section 3084 of said code is amended to read:

Obtaining signatures

3084. Verification deputies appointed to obtain signatures to the nomination paper of any candidate may, at any time not more than 70 nor less than 45 days prior to the election, obtain signatures to the nomination paper of the candidate.

SEC. 3. Section 3150 of said code is amended to read:

Candidate's affidavit

3150. Each candidate shall, at least 40 days prior to the election, file with the officer with whom his nomination papers are required to be filed, an affidavit which shall state:

(a) His residence, with street and number, if any.

(b) His election precinct.

(c) That he is a voter in the precinct in which he resides.

(d) The name of the office for which he is a candidate.

(e) That he will not withdraw as a candidate before the election.

(f) That, if elected, he will qualify for the office.

(g) That if there were any signatures to his nomination papers in excess of the numbers required, he has notified each signer that the latter's name has not been used

The name of no candidate shall be placed on the ballot unless the affidavit herein provided for has been properly filed.

CHAPTER 910

An act to add Section 3715 to the Labor Code, relating to workmen's compensation awards against uninsured employers.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3715 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

Aid in collecting award

3715. If an employee is granted an award by the Industrial Accident Commission wherein the employer is found through evidence presented at an open hearing to be wilfully uninsured, and the employee is not represented by an attorney, the employee may request the director or compensation enforcement officer to assist in the collection of his award. No state or county agency, officer, or employee shall charge the director or compensation enforcement officer for any services rendered the employee in connection with such request, but a fee for services rendered, together with the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) shall be added to the award made by the Industrial Accident Commission. When the award is collected, the fee for services rendered shall be paid to the proper agency, officer, or employee and the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) shall be paid into the General Fund in the State Treasury.

CHAPTER 911

An act to add Section 18053.5 to the Education Code and to repeal Section 18059 of that code, relating to the purchase of materials or supplies by school districts during periods of war, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18053.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

18053.5. If no valid bids are received for materials or supplies after advertising therefor when such advertising is required by Sections 18051 and 18052 or no estimates are received for transactions falling under Section 18053, the governing board may award a contract for such materials or supplies to any bona fide dealer engaged in handling such goods. Contracts without bids

This section shall remain in effect until the ninety-first day after final adjournment of the 1953 Regular General Session of the Legislature.

SEC. 2. Section 18059 of the Education Code is repealed. Repeal

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are: Urgency

The United States of America is in a state of emergency. The continued maintenance of all parts of the public school system being essential to the welfare of the United States and of the State of California it is necessary that provision be made immediately for the securing of the necessary materials and supplies to operate the public school system. Because of the unsettled condition of prices and because of the scarcity of materials it is becoming increasingly difficult to secure the materials and supplies needed to operate the public school system through ordinary notice and bidding procedure. It is therefore necessary to authorize school districts to acquire materials and supplies without the necessity of calling for and receiving bids in the ordinary manner.

CHAPTER 912

An act to amend Section 5901 of the Education Code, relating to school district revolving cash funds.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5901 of the Education Code is amended to read:

Revolving cash fund

5901. The governing board of any school district, high school, or junior college district may, with the consent of the county superintendent of schools, establish a revolving cash fund for the use of the chief accounting officer of the district, by adopting a resolution setting forth the necessity for the revolving cash fund, the officer for whom and the purposes for which the revolving cash fund shall be available, and the amount of the fund. The amount of the fund shall not be more than 1 percent of the district's estimated expenditures for the current fiscal year and shall not in any event exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000). Two certified copies of the resolution shall be transmitted to the county superintendent of schools. If he approves the establishment of the fund, the county superintendent shall endorse his consent on the resolution and return one copy to the governing body of the district.

CHAPTER 913

An act conveying certain tidelands and lands lying under inland navigable waters, situate in San Francisco Bay to the City of Sausalito, in furtherance of navigation and commerce and the fisheries, and providing for the government, management and control thereof, reserving rights to the State.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Conveyance of tide and submerged lands

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted and conveyed to the City of Sausalito, County of Marin, all of the tide and submerged lands of San Francisco Bay situated within and bordering the City of Sausalito, more particularly bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point at the intersection of the southerly line of Richardson Street in the City of Sausalito and the line of 9.0 feet of water at lowest tide as shown on Map No. 1 of Salt Marsh and Tide Lands situate in the County of Marin, State of California, surveyed in 1870 by G. F. Allardt and running thence along the said line of 9.0 feet of water N. 06° 30′ E., 623.43 feet; thence North 660.00 feet; thence N. 12° 00′ W., 317.46 feet; thence North 184.80 feet; thence N. 26° 30′ E., 236.28 feet; thence North 151.80 feet; thence, leaving the said line of 9.0 feet of water, North 22.78 feet; East 600.00 feet; thence South 315.86 feet; thence S. 26° 30′ W., 235.75 feet; thence S. 12° 00′ E., 297.72 feet; thence South 757.13 feet; thence S. 06° 30′ W., 589.41 feet; thence West 600.00 feet to the point of beginning, together with those portions of Richardson Street and North Street in the City of Sausalito lying between the said line of 9.0 feet of water and the ordinary high water mark.

To be forever held by said city, and its successors, in trust for the uses and purposes and upon the express conditions following, to wit: Conditions

(a) That said lands shall be used by said city, and its successors, for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor, including an airport or aviation facilities, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other utilities, structures, facilities and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation by air as well as by water, and for the construction, maintenance, and operation thereon of public buildings and public parks and playgrounds, and said city, or its successors, shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purposes whatever; provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon for limited periods (but in no event exceeding 50 years), for wharves and other public uses and purposes and may lease said lands, or any part thereof, for limited periods (but in no event exceeding 50 years), for purposes consistent with the trust upon which said lands are held by the State of California, and with the requirements of commerce and navigation at said harbor, and collect and retain rents from such leases.

(b) That said lands shall be improved by said city within 10 years of the effective date of this act without expense to the State, and shall always remain available for public use for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, and other improvements and facilities constructed on said lands, or any part thereof, for any vessel or other water or aircraft, or railroad, owned or operated by the State of California.

(c) That in the management, conduct or operation of said harbor, or of any of the utilities, structures, appliances or facilities mentioned in paragraph (a), no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges or in facilities for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city or its successors.

(d) There is hereby reserved, however, in the people of the State of California the absolute right to fish in the waters of said harbor with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purposes.

(e) There is hereby excepted and reserved to the State of California all deposits of minerals, including oil and gas, in said land, and to the State of California, or persons authorized by the State of California, the right to prospect for, mine, and remove such deposits from said land.

(f) The lands herein described are granted subject to the express reservation and condition that the State may at any time in the future use said lands or any portion thereof for highway purposes without compensation to the city, its successors or assigns, or any person, firm or public or private corporation claiming under it, except that in the event improvements have been placed upon the property taken by the State for said purposes, compensation shall be made to the person entitled thereto for the value of his interest in the improvements taken or the damages to such interest.

Survey, etc., by State Lands Commission

SEC. 2. The State Lands Commission shall, at the cost of the grantee, survey, monument, plat, and record in the office of the recorder of Marin County, the area of state lands described in this act.

CHAPTER 914

An act to amend Sections 151, 203, 208, and 209 of, and to add Sections 209.1, 310.5, and 452.5 to the Unemployment Insurance Act, relating to unemployment compensation disability insurance.

Stats 1935, p 1226, amended

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 151 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read:

Law applicable

Sec. 151. (a) Except as otherwise provided, the provisions and definitions of Articles 1 to 9, inclusive, of this act apply to this article. In case of any conflict between the provisions of Articles 1 to 9, inclusive, and the provisions of this article, the provisions of this article shall prevail with respect to unemployment compensation disability benefits and the provisions of Articles 1 to 9, inclusive, prevail with respect to unemployment compensation benefits.

(b) The provisions of Article 3 of the act do not apply to this article.

(c) Sections 52, 55, 57, and 57.5 of the act do not apply to this article.

(d) Subdivisions (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), and (m) of Section 6 of the act do not apply to this article.

(e) An individual who is disqualified from receiving unemployment compensation benefits under Section 58 of this act shall be presumed to be ineligible to receive unemployment compensation disability benefits under this article for the same period or periods unless the individual establishes to the satisfaction of the commission that he is suffering a bona fide illness or injury and the commission finds that there is good cause for paying such benefits. Disqualification under other provisions

(f) An individual who is disqualified from receiving unemployment compensation benefits under Section 56 of this act shall be presumed to be ineligible to receive unemployment compensation disability benefits under this article for the same period or periods unless the individual establishes pursuant to authorized regulations that his alleged disability was the result of an accident or the alleged disability required a period of hospitalization, and that his alleged disability was not caused by and did not arise out of the trade dispute and that the alleged disability would have occurred and would have prevented him from continuing his work if the trade dispute had not occurred. Such an individual shall, except as provided in Section 252, be subject to examination without cost to him by a medical examiner selected by the department, the insurer or self-insurer as the case may be to determine whether the conditions hereinabove set forth have been met.

SEC. 2. Section 203 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read:

Sec. 203. The total amount of unemployment compensation disability benefits and the weekly benefit amount payable to an eligible individual under this article during any one benefit year shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of Sections 53 and 54 of this act; provided, however, that for periods of disability commencing on and after January 1, 1952 an individual's weekly benefit amount, for the purpose of computing unemployment compensation disability benefits, shall be the amount appearing in column B in the table set forth in this section on the line of which, in column A of such table, there appears a wage bracket containing the amount of wages paid to such individual for employment by employers during the quarter of his base period in which such wages were the highest: Amount of benefits

A Amount of wages in highest quarter	B Weekly benefit amount
$75–$579.99	As provided in Section 54
580– 611.99	$25
612– 643.99	26
644– 675.99	27
676– 707.99	28
708– 739.99	29
740 and over	30

SEC. 3. Section 208 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read:

Remuneration from employer

Sec. 208. An individual otherwise eligible for benefits who is receiving remuneration from his employer shall nevertheless be paid unemployment compensation disability benefits up to his maximum benefit amount for any day in an amount which, together with one-seventh (1/7) of the remuneration he receives from his employer for the calendar week containing such day, does not exceed 70 percent of one-seventh (1/7) of such weekly remuneration immediately prior to the commencement of his disability.

SEC. 4. Section 209 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read:

Hospital benefits

Sec. 209. Commencing January 1, 1950, any disabled individual eligible for benefits under Article 10 of this act shall, during his confinement in a hospital, be entitled to receive in addition to all benefits otherwise provided in this act, the amount of eight dollars ($8) for each day not in excess of twelve (12) days in any one benefit year, during which he is so confined pursuant to orders of his physician; and any such individual shall not be subject to any waiting period requirement as a condition precedent to the receipt of any benefits under Article 10 of this act during the disability which caused such confinement. Provided further, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 208 of this article, any disabled individual shall be entitled to receive the amount of eight dollars ($8) a day as provided above for any day he is confined in a hospital within a week during which he continues to receive his regular remuneration from his employer.

SEC. 5. Section 209.1 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Act, to read as follows:

Same Limitations

Sec. 209.1. When an individual is furnished or is compensated for hospitalization pursuant to the Workmen's Compensation Law or an employer's liability law of this State or of any other state or of the Federal Government he shall be ineligible to receive the eight dollars ($8) per day as provided in Section 209 for any day for which he is receiving or is eligible to receive in the form of cash payments benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law or an employer's liability law of this State or of the Federal Government or for which he is serving any waiting period required by any such law.

SEC. 6. Section 310.5 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Act, to read as follows:

Substituting insurer

Sec. 310.5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act, whenever an approved voluntary plan is insured by an admitted disability insurer, the insurer shall be substituted for the employer with respect to any assessments under this act which relate to the portion of the voluntary plan insured by such insurer.

SEC. 7. Section 452.5 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Act, to read as follows:

Sec. 452.5. Whenever eighty-five percent (85%) of the employees to whom a plan is available have consented to the plan, the employer, or seventy-five percent (75%) of the employees who have consented to the plan, or both, may elect to make the plan applicable to all employees to whom it is available, except those who reject the plan. Such a plan may provide for deductions from the wages of employees covered by the plan but not in an amount in excess of that which would be required by Sections 44, 44.2 and 400 if the employees were not covered by the plan. Adoption of plan

In such case, there shall be filed with the commission a notice stating that the requisite percentage of employees has consented to the plan and fixing the date upon which the plan will become applicable to all employees to whom it is available. At least 10 days before the date fixed in the notice so filed, a notice shall be posted and circulated in such manner as is reasonably calculated to bring it to the attention of all employees to whom the plan is available but who have not consented thereto. The notice to such employees shall set forth the date the plan is to become applicable and the manner in which an employee may reject it. Notice

From the time fixed in the notice filed with the commission all employees to whom the plan is available shall be deemed to have elected to be covered by the plan, except those who advise the employer in writing of such rejection within the time so fixed.

Every person employed after the time so fixed, and to whom the plan is available, shall be deemed to have elected to be covered by the plan from the time of employment unless he rejects the plan prior to or at the time of employment. Each such employee at the time of employment shall be given a written notice specifying his right to consent to or to reject such plan and a written statement setting forth the essential features of the plan.

The form of the statement and the forms of the notices hereinabove required under this section shall be approved by the commission. Form of notice

Any employee covered by a plan may withdraw from the plan as of the beginning of any calendar quarter upon giving reasonable notice in writing directed to the employer. Withdrawal

Sec. 8. The amendments to Sections 151, 208 and 209 and the additions of Sections 209.1 and 452.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Act as provided in this act shall become operative as of January 1, 1952. Operative date

Finding and determination

SECTION 1. It is hereby found and determined: That the City of Long Beach since 1939 has produced and is now producing large quantities of oil, gas and other hydrocarbon substances from lands conveyed to said city by an act entitled "An act granting to the City of Long Beach the tidelands and submerged lands of the State of California within the boundaries of the said city," approved May 1, 1911, and by an act entitled "An act granting certain tidelands and submerged lands of the State of California to the City of Long Beach upon certain trusts and conditions," approved April 28, 1925, as amended by an act entitled "An act to amend Section 1 of an act entitled 'An act granting certain tidelands and submerged lands of the State of California to the City of Long Beach upon certain trusts and conditions,' approved April 28, 1925, relating to the use of such tidelands and submerged lands," approved May 7, 1935. That from the revenue derived therefrom, said city has constructed upon said lands, wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation, at a cost of approximately thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000). That said city has available and unexpended approximately seventy-five million dollars ($75,000,000), also derived from said source, for the uses and purposes required by said acts, and is now receiving and will continue to receive for many years approximately twenty-four million dollars ($24,000,000) per annum from said source. That, in addition thereto, said city obtains large quantities of "dry gas" derived from natural gas produced from said lands, which is sold by said city to domestic and other consumers. That by reason of the already large expenditure on such lands for the uses and purposes required by said acts, the large additional sums available and to become available throughout the years for such purposes, the expenditure of more than a total of fifty per centum (50%) of such revenue, received and unexpended and hereafter to become available for such uses and purposes, would be economically impracticable, unwise and unnecessary. That fifty per centum (50%) of all revenue heretofore derived and unexpended, and to be derived, by the City of Long Beach from oil, gas and other hydrocarbon substances, other than "dry gas," produced from lands conveyed by said acts, is no longer required for navigation, commerce and fisheries, nor for such uses, trusts, conditions and restrictions as are imposed by said acts That none of the revenue heretofore derived, and to be derived, by said city from "dry gas" obtained from said lands is any longer required for navigation, commerce and fisheries, nor for such uses, trusts, conditions and restrictions as are imposed by said acts.

For the purposes of this act, "dry gas" is defined to mean the gas directly produced from wells, which contains one-half of a gallon or less of recoverable gasoline per 1,000 cubic feet, or from which gasoline has been removed by processing. "Dry gas"

SEC. 2. That fifty per centum (50%) of all revenue heretofore derived and unexpended, and to be derived, by the City of Long Beach from oil, gas and other hydrocarbon substances, other than "dry gas," produced from lands conveyed by said above-entitled acts is hereby declared to be free from the public trust for navigation, commerce and fisheries, and from such uses, trusts, conditions and restrictions as are imposed by any of said above-entitled acts. That all of the revenue heretofore derived, and to be derived, by said city from "dry gas," obtained from said lands is hereby declared to be free from the public trust for navigation, commerce and fisheries, and from such uses, trusts, conditions and restrictions as are imposed by any of said above-entitled acts. Declaration of freedom from public trust, etc

An act to amend Sections 1648.5, 1672, and 1711.2 of the Insurance Code, relating to the issuance of licenses to act as insurance brokers or agents or life agents to nonresidents.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1648.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1648.5. Except as provided in Section 1672, the commissioner shall not grant a license to act as an insurance agent or broker: Restrictions

(a) To any individual who is neither a citizen or national of the United States nor an applicant for such citizenship who has lawfully and properly filed a proper declaration or application therefor in a court constituted by a law of the United States, unless such person is licensed under this chapter when this section takes effect.

(b) To any minor.

(c) To any copartnership, association or corporation if any person named in the application to exercise agency or brokership powers cannot be licensed under subdivision (a) or (b) of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 1672 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

Nonresident licenses

1672. Upon the application of a nonresident that is duly licensed to transact insurance other than life under the laws of the state or province of Canada wherein such applicant resides, if such state or province does not prohibit residents of this State from acting as an insurance broker or agent therein, the commissioner may issue to such applicant a license to act as an insurance broker or agent in this State upon the payment of the fee prescribed in this article. The issue of such license shall be subject, however, to the same qualifications, requirements and restrictions as apply to residents of this State, except that the applicant shall not be required to maintain an office in this State for the transaction of an insurance business nor shall an applicant who is both a resident and a citizen of Canada be subject to subsection (a) of Section 1648.5.

If after receipt of a license a nonresident becomes a resident of this State he shall surrender all licenses received as a nonresident. He may reacquire such licenses as a resident only upon satisfying all the requirements therefor including, if he has not already done so, the passing of this State's qualifying examinations.

SEC. 3. Section 1711.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

Reciprocal arrangements

1711.2. The commissioner may, in his discretion, enter into a reciprocal arrangement with the officer having supervision of insurance business in any other state whose qualification standards for life agents are substantially the same as or in excess of those of this State, to accept in lieu of examination of an applicant residing therein, a certificate of such officer to the effect that the applicant is licensed as a life agent in such state and has complied with its said qualification standards in respect to the following:

(a) Experience or training.

(b) Reasonable familiarity with the broad principles of insurance licensing and regulatory laws and with the provisions, terms and conditions of the insurance which the applicant proposes to transact.

(c) A fair and general understanding of the obligations and duties of a life agent.

If after receipt of a license a nonresident becomes a resident of this State he shall surrender all licenses received as a nonresident. He may reacquire such licenses as a resident only upon satisfying all the requirements therefor including, if he has not already done so, the passing of this State's qualifying examinations.

CHAPTER 917

An act to amend Sections 202, 12003 and 12264 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 202 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

202. The exemption of the following property is as specified in Section 1 of Article XIII of the Constitution: Exemption

(a) Growing crops.

(b) Property used for free public libraries and free museums.

(c) Property used exclusively for public schools.

(d) Property belonging to this State, a county, or a city. Property belonging to the State Compensation Insurance Fund is not property belonging to this State.

(e) Property that is exempt under the laws of the United States.

SEC. 1.5. Section 12003 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

12003. "Insurer" as used in this part includes insurance companies or associations, reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges, and the State Compensation Insurance Fund. As used in this section, "companies" includes persons, partnerships, joint stock associations, companies and corporations. "Insurer" "Companies"

SEC. 2. Section 12264 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

12264. The State Compensation Insurance Fund shall annually pay a tax computed on the same bases, at the same rates, and subject to the same deductions specified in this article, as those applicable to private insurers. Tax

SEC. 3. The Legislature hereby declares that the validity of the whole of this act is essential to the application of any of its parts. Consequently, if any provision of this act, or the application thereof, is held invalid, the remainder of this act shall also be deemed invalid. Nonseverability clause

An act to amend Section 7403 of the Education Code, to repeal Section 7409 of said code, and to add Section 7461.5 to said code, relating to the authorization and issuance of bonds of school districts.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7403 of the Education Code is amended to read:

Notice Contents

7403. The notice shall contain:

(a) The election precincts, if any, established for the election and the time and place, or places, of holding the election.

(b) The names of the officers of the election appointed to conduct the election.

(c) The hours during the day which the polls will be open.

(d) The purposes for which the bonds are to be issued.

(e) The amount of the bonds.

(f) The maximum rate of interest, not to exceed 5 percent.

(g) The maximum number of years, not exceeding 25, not to exceed which the bonds are to run.

If the election is consolidated with any other election, the notice need not set forth the precincts, place or places of holding the election, or the names of the officers appointed to conduct the election, but may instead state that the precincts, place or places of holding the election and officers appointed to conduct the election shall be the same as those provided for such other election within the territory affected by the consolidation and set forth in the ordinance, order, resolution or notice calling, providing for or giving notice of such other election, and reference shall be made to such ordinance, order, resolution or notice by number and title or date of adoption, or by date or proposed date of publication and the name of the newspaper in which publication has been or will be made, or by any other definite description.

Consolidation of election

Any election called pursuant to this chapter may be consolidated with any other election pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 4 of Part 2 of Division 11 of the Elections Code. In such event the provisions of law governing such other election with respect to the manner of marking ballots shall also apply to the election called pursuant to this chapter.

Repeal

SEC. 2. Section 7409 of said code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 7461.5 is added to said code, to read:

Bond series

7461.5. The board of supervisors may divide the principal amount of any issue into two or more series and fix different dates for the bonds of each series.

CHAPTER 919

An act to amend Sections 2802, 3462, 3591, and 3661 of the Education Code, relating to the formation of school districts.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.]

An act to add Section 210 to the Unemployment Insurance Act, relating to benefits during hospitalization.

Stats 1935, p 1226, amended

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 210 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Act, to read:

Sec. 210. As used in Section 209 "day" means any 24-hour period, or part thereof, of time for which a hospital charges a patient a full day's rate. "Day"

CHAPTER 921

An act to amend Sections 20945 and 20795 of the Education Code, relating to California School for the Blind and the California School for the Deaf.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20945 of the Education Code is amended to read:

20945. All money expended under the authority of any such certificate for clothing and transportation, necessary dental work, eye care, operations and hospitalization, and all money expended by the Department of Education for expenses incurred by it in providing dental work, eye care, operations, or hospitalization for the child in an emergency for which the State Department of Education cannot be reimbursed by the parent or guardian of the child as shown by the certificate, constitute a legal charge against the county from which the certificate is issued. Expenditures for clothing and transportation shall not exceed the sum of one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) a year. County charge

SEC. 2. Section 20795 of said code is amended to read:

20795. All money expended under the authority of any such certificate for clothing and transportation, necessary dental work, eye care, operations, and hospitalization, and all money expended by the State Department of Education for expenses incurred by it in providing dental work, eye care, operations, or hospitalization for the child in an emergency for which the State Department of Education cannot be reimbursed by the parent or guardian of the child as shown by the certificate, constitutes a legal charge against the county from which the certificate is issued. Expenditures for clothing and transportation shall not exceed the sum of one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) a year. Same

CHAPTER 922

An act to amend Sections 14722 and 14720.1 of the Education Code and to add Section 14720.2 to said code, all relating to district retirement systems.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 6, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14722 of the Education Code is amended to read:

Retirement salary

14722. The plan may provide that the retirement salary shall be a stipulated monthly sum, or that all benefits under the retirement feature of the plan shall be based upon the monthly salary for each year of future active service in the district earned by the employee up to the date of retirement and upon the average monthly salary earned by the teacher or other eligible employee during the year immediately preceding the adoption of the plan and the number of years of past active service of the employee in the district, and subject to such provisions as are made in the plan for minimum benefits. No employee with less than 15 years' service in the district prior to normal retirement age shall receive the benefit of the minimum.

SEC. 2. Section 14720.1 of said code is amended to read:

Cafeteria employees

14720.1. Every cafeteria employee of a school district which has adopted, or adopts, a plan for district retirement who is a member or becomes a member of said plan, shall be entitled to the benefits and be bound by the burdens of this article and shall receive full credit for his service as a school cafeteria employee rendered before he became a member of the plan to the pupils of any of the districts under the same governing board which governs the district of which he is now an employee, whether such service was paid for by the school districts or otherwise. For purposes of computing benefits for service credited as provided in this section, the average monthly salary earned by a cafeteria employee during the year 1944-45 shall be used.

SEC. 3. Section 14720.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

Student body employees

14720.2. Every employee of a student body of a school in a school district which has adopted a plan for district retirement, who is or becomes a member of said plan by virtue of employment by the school district, and who is employed full time jointly by the student body and the school district, shall be entitled to the benefits and be bound by the burdens of this article and shall contribute to said district retirement plan on the basis of the total combined salary received jointly from the student body and the school district and shall receive retirement benefits from the district retirement plan on the basis of the total of such combined salary and shall receive full credit for his service as a school student body employee and a school district employee, rendered before he became a member of the plan to the pupils of any of the districts under the same governing board which governs the district of which he is now an employee, whether such service was paid for by the school district or otherwise. For purposes of computing benefits for service rendered prior to becoming a member of said district retirement plan, the average combined monthly salary earned as a student body employee and a school district employee during the year 1946-47 shall be used.

CHAPTER 923

An act to amend Section 6518 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to the laying of sewers and drains in public streets and roads by sanitary districts.

[Approved by Governor June 7, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 7, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6518 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

6518. It may lay its sewers and drains in any public street or road in the county, and for this purpose enter upon it and make all necessary and proper excavations, restoring it to proper condition. The work of restoring and repairing any such public street or road in the county shall be done under the supervision and control of the county engineer or road commissioner at the cost of the district, and in accordance with the standards established by ordinance of the board of supervisors for restoring and repairing county roads. If the street or road is in a city the consent of the proper city authorities shall first be obtained.

Use of public streets, etc

CHAPTER 924

An act to add Section 714.5 to the Vehicle Code, relating to weight capacity on county bridges.

[Approved by Governor June 7, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 7, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 714.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

714.5. Maximum Weights on County Bridges. Whenever, in the opinion of a county road commissioner, a county bridge is in a dangerous or weak condition, he may temporarily erect suitable signs at all entrances to such bridge specifying the maximum weight which he believes the bridge with safety to itself will sustain. The maximum weight limit so fixed and posted shall remain in effect until 15 days following the next succeeding monthly meeting of the board of supervisors.

Temporary restrictions

CHAPTER 925

An act to add Sections 104.1, 104.2, and 104.3 to, to amend Sections 2182, 3088.5, and 3474.5, and to repeal Sections 1551, 2182.1, 3086, 3086.1, and 3473.1 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public assistance, in respect to appeals by applicants for or recipients of aid.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 7, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 7, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 104.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Applicant's right of appeal

104.1. If any applicant for or recipient of aid under Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 2, or Division 3, or Division 5, of this code, is dissatisfied with any action of the county board of supervisors relating to his application for or receipt of aid, or if his application is not acted upon with reasonable promptness, or if any person who desires to apply for such aid is refused the opportunity to submit a signed application therefor and is dissatisfied with such refusal, he shall, without the necessity of filing a claim with the board of supervisors, upon filing a petition with the State Department of Social Welfare, have the right of appeal and shall be accorded an opportunity for a fair hearing. The department shall set such appeal for hearing before the State Social Welfare Board and shall give all parties concerned written notice of the time and place of such hearing. At the hearing the applicant or recipient may appear in person with counsel of his own choosing, or in person and without such counsel.

The State Social Welfare Board shall consider the appeal, and shall dismiss the appeal or award aid as prescribed in this code. The board of supervisors shall then pay to such person, without the necessity of his establishing a present need, the sum awarded, if any, by the State Social Welfare Board, the payments, if awarded, to commence from the date the person was first entitled thereto.

In the case of an appeal from the refusal of a county to accept a signed application for aid, the State Social Welfare Board may require the county to accept the application, and to make the necessary investigation, and the state board may continue the appeal until the results of the investigation have been reported to it. In any such case in which aid is awarded by the State Social Welfare Board, the payments, if awarded, shall commence at the time the State Social Welfare Board directs.

SEC. 2. Section 104.2 is added to said code, to read:

Court review

104.2. If an applicant or recipient of aid under Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 2, or Division 3, or Division 5 of this code feels himself aggrieved by any decision of the State Social Welfare Board, he may within one year of the date of the decision file with the superior court of the county in which he resides, a petition, praying for a review of the entire proceedings in the matter, upon questions of law involved in the case. Such review, if granted, is a distinct and cumulative remedy. The State Social Welfare Board shall be the sole respondent in such proceedings.

SEC. 3. Section 104.3 is added to said code, to read:

Filing fee, pleadings and bond

104.3. No filing fee shall be required for the filing of a petition in the superior court for a review of proceedings pursuant to Section 104.2 of this code.

Within 10 days after being served with notice of the filing of the petition, the State Department of Social Welfare shall cause to be filed with the clerk of the court the record of the proceedings in the case, and no further pleadings shall be required to bring the matter to issue.

No bond shall be required in the case of any petition for review, nor in any appeal therefrom.

If the decision of the court is in favor of the applicant for or recipient of aid, aid shall be paid from the first day of the month following date of application therefor, or from the first day of the month following the date upon which the person first sought to make application therefor in writing and was refused, whichever may be the case, and the applicant or recipient shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

SEC. 4. Section 2182 of said code is amended to read:

Payments

2182. Payments of aid shall be made promptly and shall be commenced as of the first day of the month in which the application is granted, unless an earlier date is required by Section 2183 or unless otherwise directed by the State Social Welfare Board in cases in which an appeal is taken; aid shall not commence prior to the date of application, unless otherwise directed by the State Social Welfare Board in cases in which an appeal has been taken on the ground that the county has refused to accept a signed application for aid.

An applicant whose application for aid under this chapter has been rejected may not again apply for such aid until the expiration of one year from the date of the previous application, except with the consent of the county or an order of the State Department of Social Welfare, or until the condition because of which his application was rejected has been eliminated.

SEC. 5. Section 3088.5 of said code is amended to read:

Same

3088.5. Payments of aid shall be made promptly and shall be commenced as of the first day of the month in which the application is granted, unless an earlier date is required by Section 3082 or unless otherwise directed by the State Social Welfare Board in cases in which an appeal is taken; aid shall not commence prior to the date of application, unless otherwise directed by the State Social Welfare Board in cases in which an appeal has been taken on the ground that the county has refused to accept a signed application for aid.

An applicant whose application for aid under this chapter has been rejected may not again apply for such aid until the expiration of one year from the date of the previous application, except with the consent of the county or an order of the State Department of Social Welfare, or until the condition because of which his application was rejected has been eliminated.

SEC. 6. Section 3474.5 of said code is amended to read:

Same

3474.5 Payments of aid shall be made promptly and shall be commenced as of the first day of the month in which the application is granted, unless an earlier date is required by Section 3082 or unless otherwise directed by the State Social Welfare Board in cases in which an appeal is taken; aid shall not commence prior to the date of application, unless otherwise directed by the State Social Welfare Board in cases in which an appeal has been taken on the ground that the county has refused to accept a signed application for aid.

An applicant whose application for aid under this chapter has been rejected may not again apply for such aid until the expiration of one year from the date of the previous application, except with the consent of the county or an order of the State Department of Social Welfare, or until the condition because of which his application was rejected has been eliminated.

Repeals

SEC. 7. Sections 1551, 2182.1, 3086, 3086.1, and 3473.1 of said code are repealed.

CHAPTER 926

An act to add Section 18105 to, and to amend Sections 18050, 18051, 18052, and 18100 of, the Government Code, relating to vacation and sick leave for state employees.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 7, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 8, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18050 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Computation of vacation time

18050. Following completion of six months of continuous service, each state officer and employee who is employed full time shall be allowed seven and one-half working days of credit for vacation with pay. Thereafter, for each calendar month of service, he shall be allowed one and one-quarter days of credit for vacation with pay. For the purpose of computing credit for vacation, each officer or employee shall be considered to work not more than five days each week. The time when vacations shall be taken shall be determined by the appointing power of the officer or employee.

SEC. 2. Section 18051 of said code is amended to read:

Same Civil service employees

18051. The State Personnel Board shall provide by rule for the regulation and accumulation of vacations for civil service employees and may provide for vacations for such employees who are employed less than full time. It shall be within the discretion of the State Personnel Board to count breaks in service of 10 working days or less as continuous service for purposes of allowing credit for vacation. The State Personnel Board shall prescribe the methods by which employees leaving the employment of one state agency and entering the employment of another state agency may be compensated for, transfer, or otherwise receive proper credit for their accumulated vacation privileges.

SEC. 3. Section 18052 of said code is amended to read:

Same: Other employees

18052. The appointing power of any officer or employee not a member of the civil service may promulgate regulations governing vacations for such officers or employees. In the absence of such regulations, the rules of the State Personnel Board relating to the regulation and methods of accumulation of vacation for civil service employees shall govern.

SEC. 4. Section 18100 of said code is amended to read:

Computation of sick leave Civil service employees

18100. Following completion of six months of continuous service, each state officer and employee who is employed full time shall be allowed six days of credit for sick leave with pay. Thereafter, one day of credit for sick leave with pay shall be allowed for each additional calendar month of service, on the submission of satisfactory proof of the necessity for sick leave as provided by rule of the State Personnel Board. For purposes of computing sick leave, each employee shall be considered to work not more than five days each week. The State Personnel Board shall provide by rule for the regulation and method of accumulation of sick leave for civil service employees, and may provide sick leave for those who work less than full time. It shall be within the discretion of the State Personnel Board to count breaks in service of 10 working days or less as continuous service for purposes of allowing credit for sick leave.

SEC. 5. Section 18105 is added to the Government Code, to read:

Same Other employees

18105. The appointing power of any officer or employee not a member of the civil service shall administer the sick leave authorized by this part for such officers or employees in accordance with the rules of the State Personnel Board.

CHAPTER 927

An act to amend Section 41.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Act, relating to transfer of employers' reserve accounts.

Stats 1935, p 1226, amended

[Approved by Governor June 7, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 8, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read:

Acquisition of business Transfer of account

Sec. 41.5. (a) Whenever any employing unit acquires the organization, trade, or business, or substantially all of the assets thereof, or a distinct and severable portion of such organization, trade, or business of any employer, excepting in such case, any assets retained by such employer incident to the liquidation of his obligations (whether or not such acquiring employing unit was an "employing unit" within the meaning of Section 8.5 of this act prior to such acquisition), and continues such organization, trade, or business, or such distinct and severable portion thereof without substantial reduction of personnel resulting from such acquisition, an application may be made within 90 days of such acquisition for transfer of reserve account by setting forth the name and address of the predecessor, the date of acquisition, the name of the successor, the number of employees prior to and subsequent to the date of acquisition, and, in case of severable portions, such pay roll data as may be required by the department to determine the proper amount to be transferred, whereupon the separate account, actual contribution and benefit experience and pay rolls of the predecessor or that part thereof, as determined by authorized regulations, which pertains to the organization, trade, or business, or portion thereof acquired, shall be transferred to the successor employer for the purpose of determining its rate of contribution after such acquisition with the same effect for such purpose as if the operations of the predecessor had at all times been carried on by the successor. Such separate account shall be transferred by the commission to such successor employer and, as of the date of such acquisition, shall become the separate account or part of the separate account, as the case may be, of such successor employer, and the benefits thereafter chargeable to such predecessor employer on account of employment relating to such transferred organization, trade, or business or transferred portion thereof prior to the date of such acquisition shall be charged to such separate account. This section shall not apply to any acquisition which is determined by the commission to have been made solely or primarily for the purpose of obtaining a more favorable rate of contributions under Section 39.

Limitation

Application of section

The provisions of this section shall also apply to applications for transfer of reserve accounts made after the 90-day period beginning with the date of acquisition but prior to the cancellation of the reserve account as provided in Section 40 if such reserve account has not been reacquired by the predecessor on re-entering business or, in the case of distinct and severable portions, if the predecessor did not continue in business and, provided further, that any amendment of the contribution rate shall be made as of the first day of the calendar quarter next succeeding the date of such application.

The provisions of this section relating to a specific application for transfer of reserve account shall not apply as to any successor who through error or inadvertence continued to file contribution reports and pay contributions for the account and at the rate determined by the department to apply to the predecessor employer, but such reporting and payment shall be deemed to be in lieu of such application and shall be given the same effect as though a specific application had been filed during the 90-day period beginning with the date of acquisition.

In event of a denial of application for transfer of reserve account, any interested party shall have the right to petition for hearing before the appeals board and the decision of the appeals board, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall be final unless within 60 days after the mailing of the notice of determination of the appeals board any interested party may bring an action against the commission with respect to such determination to require the transfer of the reserve account as required by law. The commission, in writing, at any time prior to the expiration of said 60-day period may extend the time during which such action may be instituted for a period not exceeding two years of the date of mailing of the determination of the appeals board. Hearing before appeals board

(b) The commission may prescribe regulations for the establishment, maintenance, and dissolution of joint accounts by two or more employers, and shall in accordance with such regulations, upon application by two or more employers to establish such account or to merge their several individual accounts in a joint account, maintain such joint account, as if it constituted a single employer's account. Joint accounts

(c) As used herein the term "joint venture" means a separate employing unit which has been organized by two or more employers to accomplish a contract or project or series of contracts or projects and is wholly owned by such employers. As used in this subsection only, "employer" means any individual or type of organization, including any partnership, joint venture, association, trust, estate, joint stock company, insurance company, corporation whether domestic or foreign, and the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, trustee or successor thereof, and the legal representative of a deceased person. Upon dissolution of a joint venture each participating employer may make application within 90 days for the transfer of his proportionate share of the reserve account whereupon the separate account, actual contribution and benefit experience and pay rolls of such joint venture shall be apportioned among the employers or their successor employers or any subsequent successor employers making such application in the same proportion that assets are distributed among the participating employers, and the portion thereof of each shall be transferred to each such employer or his successor employer or employers or any subsequent successor employers for the purpose of determining its rate of contribution after such dissolution, with the same effect for such purpose as if the applicable portion of the operations of such joint venture had at all times been carried on by such employer or his successor employer or employers or any subsequent successor employer or employers. Such portion of such separate account shall be transferred by the commission to each such employer or his successor employer or employers or any subsequent successor employer or employers and as of the date of such dissolution shall become the separate account or part of the separate account, as the case may be, of such employer or his successor employer or employers or any subsequent suc- "Joint venture" "Employer" Dissolution of joint venture cessor employer or employers and the benefits thereafter chargeable to such joint venture on account of employment relating to such joint venture prior to the date of such dissolution shall be charged to the separate accounts of such employers or their successor employers or any subsequent successor employers in proportion to their participation in the joint venture. Any such joint venture shall promptly notify the commission of its dissolution.

Application of section

The provisions of this subsection shall apply to dissolutions occurring prior as well as subsequent to the effective date of this subsection as amended in the 1951 Regular Session of the Legislature; provided, that notice of any such prior dissolution shall have been given to the commission within 120 days after the effective date of this subsection as amended in the 1951 Regular Session of the Legislature; and provided further, any transfer in respect to any such prior dissolution shall not affect any rate of contribution for any period prior to January 1, 1952.

Changed contribution rate

(d) A change in contribution rate caused by a transfer of all or a portion of the separate account, actual contribution and benefit experience and pay rolls shall not become effective earlier than the beginning of the calendar quarter next succeeding the effective date of such transfer.

CHAPTER 928

An act to amend Sections 8723, 18461, and 18478 of, and to add Sections 18153, 18402.1, 18431, 18481 to, and to repeal Sections 18479 and 18480 of, the Education Code, all relating to sites for public schools declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor June 7, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 8, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8723 of the Education Code is amended to read:

County high schools

8723. If the governing board of any county high school district deems it expedient to establish and maintain more than one county high school, the additional schools may be established and maintained in the manner prescribed in this chapter for establishing and maintaining a county high school.

SEC. 2. Section 18461 of said code is amended to read:

Change of location

18461. No change of location of any union or joint union school, when once established, shall be made, except in accordance with all the provisions for the original location of the school.

SEC. 3. Section 18478 of said code is amended to read:

Same

18478. Except in high school districts with more than 60,000 average daily attendance, no change of location of any high school where once established, shall be made except in accordance with the provisions for the original location of the school.

The election shall be called and held, and the returns thereof made to the superintendent of schools, in the same manner as in the case of the election for the formation of the district.

SEC. 4. Section 18153 is added to said code, to read:

Additional schools

18153. The governing board of any school district, whenever in its judgment it is desirable to do so, may establish additional schools in the district.

SEC. 5. Section 18402.1 is added to said code, to read:

Applicable provisions

18402.1. The provisions of Articles 2, 3, 4, and 5 of this chapter apply only to school sites selected during the first two years in a new school district.

SEC. 6. Section 18431 is added to said code, to read:

Establishment of location

18431. In lieu of the unanimous action required by Section 18424, the location or locations of the school or schools of the district will be established if a majority of the trustees agree on the location having the greatest merit as determined by the State Department of Education pursuant to Section 18102(a).

SEC. 7. Section 18481 is added to said code, to read:

Same

18481. In lieu of the unanimous action required by Section 18472, the location or locations of the school or schools of the district will be established if a majority of the trustees agree on the location having the greatest merit as determined by the State Department of Education pursuant to Section 18102(a).

SEC. 8. Sections 18479 and 18480 of said code are repealed.

Repeal

SEC. 9. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1, Article IV of the Constitution and shall, therefore, go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

Urgency

There are several school districts in the State, particularly in Kern County, which have lost their school sites as a result of condemnation proceedings instituted by the Government of the United States of America. Said school districts must change the location of their school sites immediately and this cannot be accomplished under existing state laws. It is, therefore, necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 929

An act to add Section 39.7 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to the powers of the Fish and Game Commission.

[Approved by Governor June 7, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 8, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39.7 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

Exchange of property

39.7. The commission may, with the approval of the Department of Finance, exchange any portion of the property lying within the boundaries of any area or range referred to in this section for any property within or contiguous to such area or range or may sell any portion of the property within such boundaries and with the proceeds thereof acquire any property within or contiguous to such area or range; providing, that no exchange or sale of property as provided for in this section shall materially reduce the total area of any range or area referred to in this section. A copy of each deed of conveyance executed and delivered by the commission, and of each deed conveying lands to the State, pursuant to this section shall be delivered to the State Lands Commission.

The provisions of this section apply to all of the following:

(a) The Madeline Plains Waterfowl Management Area, consisting of five thousand one hundred seventy-six, (5,176) acres, more or less, located in Lassen County, near the town of Madeline.

(b) The Doyle Deer Winter Range consisting of thirteen thousand four hundred twenty-nine, (13,429) acres, more or less, located in Tehama County, near the town of Doyle.

(c) The Tehama Deer Winter Range, consisting of forty-two thousand eight hundred ninety-six (42,896) acres, more or less, located in Tehama County, near the town of Red Bluff.

(d) The Honey Lake Waterfowl Management Area, consisting of three thousand five hundred nineteen (3,519) acres, more or less, located in Lassen County, near the town of Wendel.

CHAPTER 930

An act to amend Section 1145 of the Agricultural Code, relating to imported egg products.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 8, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 8, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1145 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Imported egg products

1145. The container in which egg products imported into the State from without the United States are sold in the State shall have the words "frozen eggs (or liquid eggs, dried eggs, or egg products, as the case may be) imported from without the United States" and the name of the country of origin displayed on said case or container in letters not less than two inches high and said container shall bear the name of the manufacturer by whom the product was prepared or manufactured and the country in which the product was prepared or manufactured. All retailers of egg products imported into the State from without the United States shall sell the same from the container in which the retailers received such products and shall inform each purchaser of the origin of said eggs or egg products. All restaurants, hotels, cafes, bakeries and confectioneries using or serving egg products imported from without the United States must place a sign in letters not less than four inches high in some conspicuous place in their places of business so that the customer entering their places of business can see it, which sign shall read "frozen eggs (or dried eggs, or liquid eggs, or egg products, as the case may be) imported from without the United States used here."

All food products including bakery products and confectionery products containing egg products imported from without the United States shall have stamped on the outside of each individual package or container thereof in plain view and in conspicuous letters not less than one-quarter inch in height the words "made with imported egg products."

Every person selling food products, in the manufacture of which are used egg products imported from without the United States, where such food products are not packed in individual packages or containers, and marked as provided herein, shall display, in a conspicuous place in the place of business where such food products are sold so that a customer entering such place of business can see it, a sign in letters not less than four inches in height reading "imported egg products are used in the manufacture of food products sold here."

CHAPTER 931

An act creating a district to be called "Kings River Conservation District"; providing for its organization, operation, maintenance and government, for the inclusion of lands therein and the exclusion of lands therefrom; providing for the acquisition, construction, maintenance and operation of works and property for the purposes of the district, including the storage, conservation, distribution and sale of water, the development, distribution and sale of electric power, the drainage, reclamation and protection of land and prescribing and defining the powers, duties, purposes and responsibilities of said district.

[Approved by Governor June 8, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 8, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act may be designated and referred to as the Kings River Conservation District Act, and any reference thereto by such description shall be sufficient for all purposes. Short title

Legislative finding and determination

SEC. 4. The legislature hereby finds and determines that the territory comprising said district and the lands thereof will be benefited by the formation of said district; that the water problems in the district require the formation of the district; that these problems are not general or statewide; that many owners of rights to the waters of the Kings River and its tributaries, including irrigation districts, reclamation districts, mutual water companies and other public and private corporations and individual owners have entered into agreements for the distribution of waters from said river and its tributaries and that the distribution of such waters to a considerable extent is made in accordance with such agreements; that the effective distribution and conservation of such waters may be aided by the acquisition of storage space in the Pine Flat Reservoir created by the Pine Flat Dam now being constructed by the United States of America; that matters affecting the distribution, use and storage of the waters of the Kings River and its tributaries, the future conservation and use thereof and the protection, drainage and reclamation of lands within the district can be most appropriately handled by the district herein provided for, and it is necessary to have a political entity embracing the areas having rights to said waters created in order to protect such rights and to meet the various problems affecting such water supply, including those hereinabove set forth.

Investigation having shown that conditions in the area comprising said district to be peculiar to it, it is hereby declared that a general law cannot be made applicable to said district and that the enactment of this special law is necessary for the conservation, development, control, distribution and use of said waters of the Kings River and its tributaries and power developed thereby for the public good, for the protection, drainage and reclamation of lands within the district, for the protection and preservation of rights to water therein and for the purpose of meeting the various problems affecting such water supply, including those hereinabove set forth.

Powers

SEC. 6. Kings River Conservation District is hereby declared to be and is a body politic and corporate and as such shall have, among others, the powers enumerated in this act and such other powers as the law may provide.

Public use

SEC. 7. The use of all water and electrical energy required for the purposes of the district, together with all property for carrying out the purposes and business of the district, is a public use, and the district is a public agency of the State of California to carry out this public use.

Directors

SEC. 8. The powers of the district shall, except as otherwise provided, be exercised by a board of seven directors, six of whom shall be elected by divisions and one shall be elected at large by the entire district; provided, however, that the first directors shall be appointed as herein provided.

Same
Appointment and qualifications

SEC. 9. Within 30 days after the effective date of this act the Governor shall appoint seven directors to serve as such until the first general district election, each of whom must be an elector, landowner, and resident of the district. At least one director shall be appointed from each division and be a resident, landowner, and elector thereof. Within 30 days after such appointment, the first directors, and thereafter within 30 days after each general district election, the directors shall meet and organize as a board.

Organization

SEC. 10. The board shall choose from its members a president and a vice president, who shall act as president during his absence or inability to act, and provide for the time and place of holding meetings and the manner in which its special meetings may be called. All legislative sessions of the board, whether regular or special, shall be open to the public. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The board shall also establish rules for its proceedings.

Action of board

SEC. 11. The board shall act only by ordinance, resolution or motion, and, except where action shall be taken by the unanimous vote of all directors present and voting, the ayes and noes taken upon the passage of all ordinances, resolutions and motions shall be entered upon the minutes of the board. No ordinance, resolution or motion shall be passed or become effective without the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the members of the board. The enacting clause of all ordinances passed by the board shall be in these words: "Be it ordained by the Board of Directors of Kings River Conservation District as follows:". All ordinances shall be signed by the president and attested by the secretary.

Compensation

Each director shall receive the sum of twenty dollars ($20) for each meeting of the board attended by him, not exceeding five meetings in any calendar month, and such additional compensation as shall be fixed and allowed by the board for his services while otherwise employed by the authority of the board in the business of the district. He shall also be allowed, with the approval of the board, all traveling and other expenses reasonably incurred by him in such employment.

Officers, etc Appointment, term, compensation

SEC. 12. The board shall, at its first meeting or as soon thereafter as practicable, appoint a general manager, a secretary, and an auditor. No director shall be eligible to the office of general manager, secretary or auditor. The general manager, secretary and auditor shall receive such compensation as the board shall determine, and each shall serve at the pleasure of the board The same person may be appointed as general manager and secretary or as secretary and auditor. The board may at any time also appoint an assistant secretary and appoint or employ and prescribe the authorities and duties of such other officers and employees, attorneys and engineers as may be necessary or convenient for the business of the district, each of whom shall serve at the pleasure of the board. The general manager, secretary, auditor and other employees and assistants of the district who may be required to do so by the board shall each give such bond to the district conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as the board may provide. Any member of the board and the secretary may administer oaths when necessary in the performance of his official duties.

Same Duties

SEC. 13. The president or vice president shall sign, and the secretary or assistant secretary shall countersign, all deeds and instruments in writing which have been first approved or authorized by the board, unless the board directs some other officer or officers to execute the same. The president, vice president, secretary and assistant secretary shall perform such other duties as may be imposed by the board The general manager, subject to the control and approval of the board, shall have full charge and control of the maintenance, operation and construction of the works and property of the district and shall have full power and authority to employ and discharge all employees and assistants, prescribe their duties and fix and alter their compensation He shall perform such other duties as may be imposed by the board and report to the board in accordance with such rules and regulations as it may adopt. The auditor shall install and maintain a system of auditing and accounting that shall completely and at all times show the financial condition of the district. He shall draw warrants, which must be countersigned by the president or vice president, to pay demands made against the district when such demands have been approved or authorized by the board. The board shall also designate a depository or depositories to have custody of the funds of the district, all of which depositories shall give security sufficient to secure the district against possible loss and who shall pay the warrants drawn by the auditor for demands against the district under such rules as the directors may prescribe.

Liability for acts, etc., of employees

SEC. 14. No director shall be liable for any act or omission of any appointee or employee appointed or employed by him in his official capacity, whether such employment or appointment was made singly or in conjunction with other members of the board, and no officer, agent or employee of the district shall be liable for any act or omission of any agent or employee appointed or employed by him except when the director or the officer or agent making such appointment or employment knew or had actual notice that the person appointed or employed was inefficient or incompetent to perform or render the services for which he was appointed or employed, or shall retain such inefficient or incompetent person after knowledge or notice of such inefficiency or incompetency.

Damage claims Limitation

SEC. 15. Whenever it is claimed that any property has been taken, injured, damaged or destroyed as a result of any dangerous or defective condition of any property, equipment or facilities owned, operated or controlled by the district or its directors, officers, agents or employees or by any act or omission of any director, officer, agent or employee of the district, a verified claim for damages shall be presented in writing and filed with such director, officer, agent or employee and with the secretary of the board within 90 days after such accident, injury, taking, damage, or destruction has occurred. Whenever it is claimed that any person has been injured or damaged as a result of any dangerous or defective condition of any property, equipment or facilities owned, operated or controlled by the district or its directors, officers, agents or employees or by any act or omission of any director, officer, agent or employee of the district, a verified claim for damages shall be presented in writing and filed with such director, officer, agent or employee and with the secretary of the board within 180 days after such injury or damage has occurred Each claim filed for the purpose of complying with this section shall specify the name and address of the claimant, the date and place of the accident, injury, taking, damage, or destruction, and the nature and extent of the injury or damage claimed. The foregoing shall be a condition precedent to the filing or maintaining of any action for such injury or damage. The district may employ counsel to defend any action brought against it or any of its directors, officers, agents or employees on account of any such injury, taking, damage, or destruction, and the fees and expenses involved therein shall be a lawful charge against the district.

Construction

SEC. 16. Nothing contained in Sections 14 and 15 shall be considered as creating any liability or responsibility unless the same would have existed without the enactment of said sections, nor shall the provisions of said sections or either or any of them be deemed to amend, modify or repeal the provisions of Chapter 6, Division 4, Title 1 of the Government Code.

Payment of judgment by district

SEC. 17. If a director, officer, agent, or employee of the district shall be held liable for any act or omission in his official capacity, except in case of actual fraud or actual malice, and any judgment shall be rendered thereon, the district shall pay such judgment without obligation for repayment thereof by such director, officer, agent, or employee.

Personal interest of director prohibited

SEC. 18. No director shall in any manner be interested directly or indirectly in any contract awarded or to be awarded by the board or in the profits to be derived therefrom, and for any violation of this provision such party shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and such conviction shall by operation of law work a forfeiture of his office; provided, that this section shall not be construed to apply to any contract made with a corporation for the general benefit of such corporation where such director is a minority stockholder therein.

Organization election

SEC. 19. Within 30 days after the organization of the board appointed by the Governor, it shall by resolution provide for the holding of a special district election for the purpose of submitting to the voters the question of whether the organization of the district as provided herein shall be ratified and confirmed, and shall fix a date upon which such special district election shall be held, which date shall be not less than 30 nor more than 40 days after the adoption of such resolution. Such special district election shall be called and held in accordance with the provisions of Section 24 hereof insofar as the same may be applicable, but in addition to the matters and things required to be set forth in the proclamation therein provided for, such proclamation shall likewise set forth the proposition to be submitted to the voters. The proposition shall be submitted in substantially the following form: "Shall the organization of Kings River Conservation District as provided in the act adopted by the Legislature at its last regular session, known as Kings River Conservation District Act, be ratified and confirmed?" Opposite shall be the word "Yes" followed by a square wherein to mark the cross, and also opposite shall be the word "No" followed by a square wherein to mark the cross. The returns of the election shall be made to and the votes canvassed by the board on the first Tuesday which is six or more days after the election, and the results of the election shall be ascertained and declared in accordance with the provisions of Section 24 hereof. If such proposition is approved by a majority of the voters voting thereon at such election, the president and secretary of the board shall file, or cause to be filed, with the Secretary of State, and shall record, or cause to be recorded in the office of the county recorder of each county within which any portion of the district lies, a certificate stating the result of such election, the formation of the district under the provisions thereof, and its boundaries. Upon receipt of the certificate, the Secretary of State shall, within 10 days, issue his certificate reciting that the district has been duly incorporated. A copy of this certificate shall be transmitted to and filed with the county clerk of each county within which any portion of the district lies.

Election results Formation

Same Dissolution

In the event a majority of the votes cast on the proposition are against the proposition, then the board appointed by the Governor shall wind up the affairs of the district and enter an order dissolving the same, as hereinafter provided, but shall not exercise any powers herein granted except to the extent required to wind up such affairs and dissolve the district, nor shall any general or special district elections be called or held. The board shall dispose of and sell any property belonging to the district and shall, pursuant to Sections 37, 38, and 39, cause a tax to be levied sufficient to pay the expenses and claims against the district, including the estimated cost and expense of winding up the affairs of the district. When all the obligations of the district have been paid, the board by resolution shall so declare and shall also declare that the district is dissolved, and thereupon the district shall be deemed duly and regularly dissolved. Any funds remaining on hand at the time of the dissolution shall be paid by the board into the general funds of each county in which any portion of the district lies in the proportion that the assessed valuation of lands within the district within each county bears to the total assessed valuation of the lands within the district. Any delinquent taxes from any levy made by the board and not collected prior to the dissolution of the district shall be retained by the county collecting the same and paid into its general funds.

Description of boundaries

SEC. 20. In the event the formation of the district is ratified and confirmed at the election, as soon thereafter as practicable and at least three months prior to the first general election the secretary shall file with the county recorder of each county within which any portion of the district lies a description of the boundaries of the divisions of the district, designating each by its number as provided in Section 3 hereof, together with a plat or map showing the boundaries of such divisions.

Relocation of boundaries

SEC. 21. Whenever any land is added to the district, the board, by ordinance, shall include it or any part thereof in such division or divisions as the board may determine, giving consideration to the location thereof and the interests of its inhabitants with respect to power and water and the sources of water supply therein; and the board shall relocate the boundary lines of the division or divisions to which such territory is added accordingly. Whenever any territory is excluded from the district, the board, by ordinance, shall relocate the boundary lines of the division or divisions within which such territory lies so as to exclude it from such division or divisions. No such change in a division or divisions may be made within three months immediately preceding a general election, nor shall such change work a forfeiture of office of any director. A certified copy of such ordinance, together with a map or plat showing the boundaries of such division or divisions as relocated thereby shall be filed with the county recorder of each county within which any portion of the district lies.

Terms of office

SEC. 22. The board appointed by the Governor shall also, by lot, divide the divisions into two groups, the first group to consist of three divisions and the second group to consist of three divisions. Each director elected at the first general district election from the divisions in the first group and the director elected at large from the entire district shall serve four years or until the election and qualification of his successor, and each director elected from divisions constituting the second group shall serve two years or until the election and qualification of his successor. The term of office of each director elected after the first general district election shall be four years or until the election and qualification of his successor.

Vacancies

SEC. 23. All vacancies occurring in the office of director shall be filled by appointment by the remaining directors, and if a person appointed or elected fails to qualify, the office shall be filled as if there were a vacancy in the office. An appointment to fill the vacancy in the office of director shall be for the unexpired term for the office in which the vacancy exists. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each director shall take and subscribe the official oath and file it with the secretary. The oath of office may be taken before the secretary, any member of the board or any officer authorized by law to administer oaths.

Election procedure

SEC. 24. Except as herein otherwise provided, the provisions of the Elections Code relating to the qualifications of voters, the manner of voting, the duties of election officers, the canvassing of returns and all other particulars with respect to the management of general elections so far as may be applicable shall govern all district elections; provided, however, that to the extent that the provisions of the Elections Code pertaining to the conduct of local elections are inconsistent with the provisions of that code pertaining to general elections, the provisions of the Elections Code pertaining to local elections shall control. The election of directors shall be held on the second Tuesday in April in even-numbered years, and each director must be an elector, landowner and resident of the division by which he is elected, except the director elected at large who may be an elector, landowner and resident of any division. The mode of nomination and election of all directors to be voted for at any general district election shall be as follows:

Rules governing signers (4) No person shall at the time of the signing of the certificate of nomination have his name signed to any other certificate nominating any other candidate for the same office.

Same (5) If a voter signs two or more conflicting certificates, all his signatures shall be rejected.

Withdrawing signature (6) Any signer of a certificate of nomination may withdraw his name from it by filing with the secretary a written revocation of his signature before the certificate is filed by the secretary, and not otherwise. He may then sign a certificate for another candidate for the same office.

Secretary's duties (7) The certificate of nomination may be presented to the secretary not earlier than 45 days nor later than 30 days before the election. He shall endorse on the certificate the date when it was presented to him and shall forthwith examine it and determine if it conforms to the provisions hereof. If the certificate does not conform to the provisions hereof, the secretary shall immediately designate in writing on it the defect, omission, or reason why it cannot be filed and return it to the person therein designated. The certificate may be amended and again presented to the secretary as in the first instance, and he shall forthwith examine it. If necessary, the board shall provide extra help to enable the secretary to perform satisfactorily and promptly the duties imposed by this section. If either the original or amended certificate of nomination is sufficiently signed, the secretary shall file it in his office 25 days before the date of election. After such filing the certificate shall not be withdrawn or added to. The secretary shall preserve in his office for a period of two years after the filing thereof all certificates of nomination filed under this section.

Withdrawing nomination (8) Any person who has been nominated as a candidate may, not later than 30 days before the election, withdraw his name from nomination by filing with the secretary a written request for withdrawal, and his name shall not be printed upon the ballot.

Election procedure (9) Immediately after the certificates of nomination are filed, the secretary shall enter the names of the candidates in a list with the offices to be filled and shall, not later than 20 days before the election, certify the list to the board as the list of candidates nominated. The board shall publish the list of names and the offices to be filled in a proclamation calling the election at least once a week for two successive weeks before the date of the election in one newspaper of general circulation printed and published in each county within which any portion of the district lies and designated by the board. The election proclamation shall conform to the provisions of the Elections Code governing the conduct of general elections applicable thereto except as otherwise provided in this section. The board shall designate therein the election officers, polling places, election precincts, the time during which the polls will be open, and may consolidate precincts. The description of precincts and consolidated precincts may be made by reference to the order or orders of the boards of supervisors of the several counties in which the district is situated establishing precincts or by reference to a previous order or ordinance of the district establishing precincts or by a detailed description of such precincts

Ballots

(10) The secretary shall provide all ballots and other supplies required for holding the election. All ballots printed shall be precisely the same size, quality, tint of paper, kind of type and color of ink so that without the number it would be impossible to distinguish one ballot from another, and the names of all candidates printed upon the ballot shall be in type of the same size and style A column may be provided on the right-hand side of the ballot for questions permitted to be voted upon at general district elections. Ballots shall be provided for each of the divisions, and the names of the candidates to be elected from such division and at large shall be arranged in alphabetical order; and nothing on the ballot shall be indicative of the source of the candidacy or of the support of any candidate. The secretary shall cause the ballots to be printed, bound and numbered as provided in the Elections Code, except as otherwise required in this section, and the ballots furnished the precinct boards in each division shall bear only the names of candidates to be elected from such division and at large, which names shall be as published in the proclamation. The ballots shall be in substantially the following form:

"General (or Special) District Election Kings River Conservation District

Held_____ 19 __

Instructions to Voters: To vote, stamp or write a cross (+) opposite the name of the candidate for whom you desire to vote. All marks otherwise made are forbidden All distinguishing marks are forbidden and make the ballot void. If you wrongly mark, tear, or deface this ballot, return it to the inspector of election and obtain another."

The ballot shall also contain the following instructions: "For director from Division _____ , vote for one"; and when applicable: "For director at large, vote for one"; and a half inch square shall be provided to the right of the name of each candidate wherein to mark the cross. A half-inch space shall be left below the printed names of candidates wherein the voter may write the name of any person for whom he wishes to vote.

(11) The secretary shall cause to be printed sample ballots identical with the ballots to be used at the election and shall furnish copies thereof to voters at his office at least five days before the election and shall mail one sample ballot for the respective divisions to each voter entitled to vote in such division at least three whole days before the election. Sample ballots

(12) The candidate receiving the highest number of votes cast in the division for the office of director therefrom shall be declared elected. The candidates for the office of director at large receiving the highest number of votes cast in the district shall be declared elected. Election results

(13) The board shall meet as a canvassing board and canvass the returns and declare the results on the first Tuesday after any district election. The secretary shall immediately make and deliver to each person elected a certificate of election signed by the secretary and authenticated with the seal of the district. A candidate is not required to file a statement of expenditures used in aid of his campaign. Canvass of returns

(14) No irregularity or informality in the conduct of a district election shall invalidate the election if fairly conducted. Effect of irregularity, etc

(15) If on the twentieth day prior to a general district election one person only has been nominated for the position of director from any division and either no director at large is to be elected or one person only has been nominated for such office and a petition signed by 5 percent of the voters of such division or of the district as to the director at large, requesting that the election be held therein has not been filed with the secretary, the election shall not be held in such division or for the office of director at large. In such case the proclamation calling the election shall, instead of providing and calling an election in such division, state that no election is to be held therein, but that the board will appoint the persons nominated for the position of director at large and director from such division, and the board shall thereupon appoint such persons as directors, who shall qualify, take office and serve exactly as if elected at a general district election; provided, however, if matters other than the election of directors are submitted at such election, the election shall be held in such division with respect to such matters Procedure in event of single nominee

SEC. 25. Every incumbent in the office of director, whether elected by popular vote for a full term or appointed, may be recalled by the voters in accordance with the recall provisions of Chapter 2 of Division 13 of the Elections Code applicable to officers of counties Recall

SEC. 26. The district shall have the following powers, including those necessarily implied therefrom: Powers of district

(1) To have perpetual succession

(2) To sue and be sued except as otherwise provided herein or by law in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction.

Powers of district

(3) To adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure.

(4) To do any and every lawful act necessary to be done to furnish water and electrical energy in the district for any present or future beneficial use or uses, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, irrigation, domestic, fire protection, municipal, power and other beneficial uses.

(5) To take by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, either with or without the privilege of purchase, or otherwise, and to hold, use, enjoy, and to lease and dispose of real and personal property of every kind within or without the district necessary to the full exercise of its powers

(6) To construct, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire water works and other works and machinery, canals, conduits, and reservoirs and to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire water rights, storage rights, storage sites, water sheds, lands, rights and privileges useful or necessary to convey, supply, store or otherwise make use of water for any purposes authorized by this act and to operate and maintain the same for the benefit of the district.

(7) To construct, purchase, lease or otherwise acquire works for the generation, transmission, distribution, sale and lease of electric power, including the sale and disposition thereof to municipalities, districts, corporations or persons and to do all necessary and proper acts for the construction and operation of such electric power works.

(8) To appropriate, acquire and conserve water and water rights for any useful purpose, and to store and conserve water for future use.

(9) To commence, maintain, intervene in and compromise in the name of the district and to assume the costs of any action or proceeding involving or affecting the ownership or use of water or water rights within the district used or useful for any purpose of the district; to commence, maintain, intervene in, defend and compromise actions and proceedings to prevent interference with or diminution of the natural flow of any stream or natural underground supply of waters used or useful for any purpose of the district or a common benefit to lands within the district or its inhabitants; and to commence, maintain and defend actions and proceedings to prevent any interference with such waters as may endanger the inhabitants or lands of the district or as may impair, damage or threaten the exercise of any right to waters belonging to the district or a common benefit to lands within the district or to its inhabitants.

(10) To sell water or the use thereof for any useful purposes and, when there is a surplus, to sell and otherwise dispose of the same to municipalities, public agencies or to consumers or users, including publicly and privately owned utilities, mutual water companies, corporations and persons without the boundaries of the district.

(11) To sell, dispose of and distribute electric power for any useful purpose, and, when there is a surplus, to sell or otherwise dispose of the same to consumers or users including public and private corporations without the boundaries of the district. Powers of district

(12) To acquire by condemnation and in the manner and to the extent now prescribed in Title 7, Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, all property necessary or convenient for carrying out the purposes of this act except that the district shall not have power to acquire by condemnation any property held or used for the development, storage, or distribution of water for public use.

(13) To borrow money and incur indebtedness and to issue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness; also to refund and retire any indebtedness or lien that may exist against the district or the property thereof.

(14) To make contracts, employ labor and do all acts necessary for the full exercise of the powers of the district. The board may cause construction or other work to be performed or carried out by contract or by the district under its own superintendence.

(15) To sell or lease any lands belonging to the district for oil, gas, or other hydrocarbon substances or other minerals when deemed by the board to the best interest of the district, subject, however, to the provisions of Chapter 5, Part 2, Division 6, of the Public Resources Code.

(16) To cooperate, act in conjunction and contract with the United States, State of California, municipalities, public and private corporations of any kind and persons in the construction of any works for storing, conserving or distributing waters of the district or belonging to any inhabitant or owner of land or water rights therein or for the control of flood and storm waters, the draining or reclaiming of lands, the protection of property, water sheds, water courses, underground supplies, highways or life or for the purpose of conserving, storing, salvaging, recapturing, distributing, or transporting such waters for beneficial use or uses of the district or of the owners of rights to water therein, and for the use, operation, management and control of such works; to make and perform any agreement with the United States, the State of California, any public or private corporation of any kind and any person, or any of them, for the joint acquisition, disposition or operation of any property or works of a kind which might be acquired, disposed of or operated by the district.

(17) To cooperate and contract with the United States under the Federal Reclamation Act of June, 1902, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto or any other act of Congress heretofore enacted authorizing or permitting such cooperation or contract for the purpose of construction of works, whether for irrigation, drainage, flood control or for the development of electric or other power, or for the acquisition, purchase, extension, operation or maintenance of such works, or for a water supply, or for the assumption as principal or guarantor of indebtedness to the United States and to carry out and perform the terms of any contract so made, and for said purposes the district shall have all powers, rights and privileges possessed by irrigation districts and, except as herein otherwise provided, shall exercise such powers, rights and privileges in the same manner and subject to the same restrictions and limitations as irrigation districts, all as provided in Chapter 2 of Part 6 of Division 11 of the Water Code, as such provisions now exist; provided, however, that in any such contract made by the district and the United States, the land which may be charged with any taxes or assessments under such contract shall be designated and described, and the contract shall not include any lands which will not be benefited by the works or system contemplated under such contract, nor shall it impair, restrict, or provide for the control of any right in or to water or the use thereof without the consent of the owner of such right. Such contract may exempt from tax or assessment any land benefited by the works or system contemplated by such contract if such land, or any agency on its behalf, has paid to the district or to the United States its proper share of the construction costs of such works or system. Such contract may provide for the release of the land described therein, or any portion thereof, from any tax or assessment upon payment to the district or the United States of its proper share of the construction cost of such works or system. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the district, whether pursuant to any such contract or otherwise, from levying taxes or assessments for the cost of the operation and maintenance of any such works or system, subject, however, to the limitations provided in Section 37 of this act. The proceedings for voting at an election upon a proposal to enter into such contract with the United States shall be had, insofar as applicable, in the manner provided in the case of the issuance of district bonds; provided, however, that in the event the board shall determine that all liabilities of the district incurred under the provisions of such contract can be repaid and liquidated as to both principal and interest from revenues from the works or system contemplated under such contract and payments made to the district by public or private corporations or persons pursuant to written contracts providing for the payment of whatever amounts may be necessary to amortize the portion of said cost which may under said contracts be underwritten by such corporation or persons, then upon the adoption of such resolution the board shall have power on behalf of the district, without the necessity of an election, to enter into such repayment contracts with the United States, subject to all provisions of this act applicable to such contracts except provisions requiring an election to authorize such contracts; provided further, however, no such contract shall charge any land with any tax or assessment for the payment of the cost of constructing the works or system contemplated in such contract. In the event that the revenues of the district from the works contemplated by any contract approved at an election shall be, or in the judgment of the board are likely to be, inadequate to pay all charges payable to the United States under such contract and all charges for construction, acquisition, operation and maintenance of the works acquired or constructed under such contract, a tax shall be levied for the payment of such charges on the land in the portion of the district designated and described in such contract as the territory to be charged therewith. Powers of district

(18) To conserve and store water, including storm and flood waters, by means of any works authorized in this act and by spreading and sinking the same in any underground basin or basins or the gravels and detritus thereof by any means appropriate therefor, which storage and conservation, whether surface or underground, may be made by the district on its own behalf or on behalf of any owner of the right to the water so stored or conserved on such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the board and the owner; and the district or the owner in whose behalf it acted, when waters are so stored and conserved, may recapture and use the same for any beneficial purpose or use or may permit the recapture and use thereof by others under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the board or by such owner and the board if conserved and stored on behalf of the owner; and the district may contract with others for the use of any property, conduits, canals, ditches, reservoirs or reservoir sites or dams or other facilities for the purpose of conserving, storing, spreading, or sinking, transporting or distributing such waters.

(19) To control flood and storm waters within the district and flood and storm waters of streams or watercourses outside of the district which flow into the district and conserve such waters by storage either surface or underground, to divert and transport such waters for beneficial uses within the district and otherwise to reduce the waste of water and protect life and property from floods within the district.

(20) To drain and reclaim lands within the district either by surface or underground works or both; and to divert, store, conserve, transport and dispose of water resulting from such operations for any beneficial use.

SEC. 27. The district shall have power to construct works along, under or across any road, street, alley, avenue or highway or across any stream of water, water course, railway, canal, ditch or flume which the route of said works may intersect or cross, but provided such works are constructed in such manner as to afford security for life and property, and the district shall restore any such crossings and intersections to their former state as near as may be or in a manner not to have impaired unnecessarily their usefulness, and shall comply with all lawful rules and regulations of the owner or agency in charge thereof. Every person and corporation, either public or private, whose right of way shall be intersected or crossed by said works, shall unite with the district in forming said intersections and crossings and grant such rights therefor as may be agreed upon between them and the district. The right of way is hereby given, dedicated and set apart to locate, construct and maintain said works over and through any of the Construction along, etc., roads, etc.

lands which are now or may be hereafter the property of the State of California, and the district shall have the same rights and privileges thereto appertaining as heretofore or as may be granted to municipalities within the State, except that where such land is already devoted to public use, any expense necessary to permit the joint use of such land shall be borne by the district.

Service rates etc

SEC. 28. The board shall fix all water and power rates and all other charges for services or work done by the district and shall, through the general manager, collect the same. The board may establish suitable rules and regulations for the sale, distribution, and use of water and power and other services which may be rendered by the district and made therein and may provide that water, power or such services shall not be furnished to those against whom there are delinquent rates or charges.

The board may prescribe methods for the construction of works and the furnishing of materials, equipment and supplies and for the letting of contracts therefor; provided, however, that any such contract requiring the expenditure of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or more, shall be subject to competitive bidding, after advertisement therefor, and awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, except where the construction or work is to be done or performed by the district with its own forces upon force account.

Bonded indebtedness

SEC. 29. Whenever the board deems it necessary for the district to incur a bonded indebtedness, it shall by resolution so declare and state in said resolution the purpose for which the proposed debt is to be incurred and the amount thereof, and shall by said resolution fix a time and place for a hearing by the board on the question as to whether the whole district or only a portion thereof will be benefited by the accomplishment of said purpose, and if only a portion thereof will be so benefited, what portion thereof will be so benefited. Notice of such hearing shall thereupon be given by the secretary by publication of a copy of said resolution in one newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in each county within which any portion of the district lies at least once a week for two weeks prior to the hearing. Said copy of said resolution so published shall be accompanied by a notice subscribed by the secretary to the effect that the hearing referred to in said resolution will be had at the time and place specified in said resolution and that at said time any person interested, including all persons owning property in said district will be heard upon the question stated in said resolution.

Hearing

At the time and place fixed in said resolution for said hearing or at such time and place to which said hearing may be adjourned, the board may proceed with the hearing, and any person interested, including any and all persons owning property within the district, may appear and present any and all such matters material to the question as he may desire. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the board shall by resolution determine whether the whole of the district will be benefited by the accomplishment of the purpose stated; and if it determines that the whole of the district will not be so benefited by the accomplishment of such purpose, it shall state what portion of the district will be so benefited; and that portion of the district so described shall thereupon constitute and be known as Improvement District No. —— of Kings River Conservation District; and the proceedings thereafter, for the purpose of the bond election within said improvement district and for the purpose of taxation for the payment of said bonds and interest, shall be limited and apply only to said improvement district. The determination of the board on this question shall be final and conclusive. Improvement districts

If the board by such resolution determines that only a portion of the district will be benefited and creates an improvement district as heremabove provided, it shall adjourn the hearing for not less than 40 nor more than 70 days Within 10 days after such order of adjournment, the secretary shall publish once in one newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in each county within which any portion of the improvement district lies, a notice stating the time and place fixed for the adjourned hearing, and that at or prior to such hearing any person owning land in said improvement district may file written protest to the incurring of the proposed bonded indebtedness by such improvement district, and at the time and place fixed any person interested may appear and be heard on the question of whether such bonded indebtedness should be incurred by such improvement district. If at or prior to the adjourned hearing written objections to the incurring of the proposed bonded indebtedness by such improvement district, signed by the owners of the majority of the acreage of land within such improvement district are filed with the secretary, then the board, by resolution adopted at the hearing, shall abandon proceedings for the proposed bond issue. The last equalized assessment roll of each county containing land within such improvement district is prima facie evidence of ownership of land in that county. If the proceedings are not abandoned as hereinabove provided, the board, if it deem it necessary to incur such bonded indebtedness, shall by a resolution so declare and state the purpose for which the proposed debt is to be incurred, whether or not the whole of the district is to be benefited thereby or only a portion thereof, and if only a portion thereof a description of such portion sufficient for identification and the designation thereof, all in accordance with the determination of the board as expressed in its previous resolution, the amount of the debt to be incurred, the maximum term the bonds to be issued shall run before maturity, which shall not exceed 40 years, and the amount or rate of interest to be paid, which shall not exceed 5 percent, payable annually or semiannually, and the proposition to be submitted to the voters of the district or of the improvement district, as the case may be. Same· Hearing

The board shall fix a date upon which an election shall be held for the purpose of authorizing said bonded indebtedness Bond election to be incurred, and shall provide for the holding of such special election on the date so fixed. Such special election may be held concurrently with a general district election Such special election shall be called and held in accordance with the provisions of Section 24 hereof insofar as the same may be applicable, but in addition to the matters and things required to be set forth in the proclamation therein provided for, such proclamation shall likewise contain a copy of the resolution declaring the necessity to incur such bonded indebtedness hereinabove referred to. The returns of the election shall be made to and the votes canvassed by the board on the first Tuesday which is six or more days after the election, and the results of the election shall be ascertained and declared in accordance with the provisions of Section 24 hereof. As soon as the result is declared, the secretary shall enter in the records of the board his statement of the result. No irregularity or informality in the conduct of the election shall invalidate the election if fairly conducted.

Issuance and sale

If from such returns it appears that more than two-thirds of the votes cast at such election were in favor of incurring the indebtedness, the board may by resolution at such time or times as it deems proper provide for the form and execution of such bonds and for the issuance of any part thereof and may sell or dispose of the bonds so issued at such times and in such manner as the board deems to be to the public interest.

Refunding bonds

SEC. 30. The board may by resolution submit to the voters of the district a measure to issue new bonds to refund any or all of the district bonds outstanding or submit to the voters of any improvement district a measure to issue new bonds to refund any improvement district bonds outstanding, which measure may be voted on at any general or special district election, and the procedure upon such election shall be in accordance so far as is applicable with the procedure upon an original issue of bonds, except that no hearing need be held upon the question whether the bond issue will benefit the entire district or only a portion thereof, and the vote of a majority of the voters voting upon the measure shall be sufficient to authorize the issuance of refunding bonds. The refunding bonds shall not bear a higher rate of interest than the bonds to be refunded and may be issued and sold in the manner and form prescribed for an original issue of bonds. Refunding bonds may, if the holders of bonds of an original issue and the board so agree, be exchanged for original bonds. The face value of refunding bonds exchanged for original bonds shall not exceed the face value of original bonds. The board may raise money by water or power rates or taxes to pay principal and interest of the refunding bonds in the same manner as prescribed for the payment of bonds of an original issue.

Callable bonds

SEC. 31. Any bonds, original or refunding, issued by the district, may be made callable by a resolution of the board adopted at or prior to the time of issuing such bonds, which may provide for the calling and redemption of such bonds in numerical order or by lot on any interest payment date prior to their fixed maturity at not exceeding the par value thereof and accrued interest or on such other terms as may be provided therein. If any such bonds are so made callable, a statement to that effect shall be set forth on the face of the bond. Notice of any such call or redemption shall be published in one newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in each county within which any portion of the district lies. The first publication of such notice shall not be less than 30 nor more than 90 days prior to the date fixed for such redemption. After the date fixed for such redemption, if the district shall have provided funds available for the payment of the principal and interest for the bonds so called, interest on such bonds shall thereafter cease.

District

SEC. 32. The Kings River Conservation District is hereby declared to be a district within the meaning of that term as used in Section 13 of Article XI and Section 1¾ of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California and Section 20003 of the Water Code.

Bonds as legal investments

Bonds of the district shall be legal investments for all trust funds and for the funds of all insurance companies, banks, both commercial and savings, trust companies, and for school funds. Whenever any money or funds may by law now or hereafter enacted be invested in bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts, or municipalities in the State of California, such money or funds may be invested in bonds of the district, issued in accordance with the provisions of this act. Whenever bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts, or municipalities may by any law now or hereafter enacted be used as security for the performance of any act, the bonds of the district may be so used.

"Construction"

SEC. 33. The term "construction" or any of its variants when used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, means and includes the physical construction, reconstruction, renewal, extension, or repair of works; also the acquisition or control of works or any right therein or thereto by purchase, lease, contract, or in or by any manner whereby any right, title or interest in or to property is capable of being acquired or transferred. For the purpose of providing money and funds to pay the cost and expense of the construction of any works authorized hereunder, the board may issue revenue bonds. The board, if it deems it necessary to issue such revenue bonds, shall by resolution so declare and state the purpose or purposes for which the revenue bonds are proposed to be issued, the principal amount of the bonds to be issued therefor, the maximum amount of interest to be paid on such bonds, which shall not exceed 5½ percent, payable annually or semiannually, and the proposition to be submitted to the voters of the district, and said resolution shall also state that such bonds are to be revenue bonds, the principal and interest of which are payable only from the revenues from the use or operation of the works for the construction of which such bonds are to be issued and are not to be secured by the taxing power of the district. The board shall fix a date upon which an election shall be held for the purpose of authorizing the issuance of such revenue bonds. Notice of the election shall be given, the election held and the result determined substantially in the manner provided for the incurring of a bonded indebtedness as provided in Section 29 hereof. If from the returns it appears that more than two-thirds of the votes cast at such election were in favor of the issuance of such revenue bonds, the board may by resolution provide for the issuance thereof. Such bonds shall be issued in the name of the district and shall be designated as "Kings River Conservation District Revenue Bonds." In the resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds, the board may limit, restrict, and regulate the holding, deposit, investment and application of money consisting of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds or the revenue received from the operation of the works or project to be financed thereby, and such provisions shall constitute a contract with the holders of the bonds and be binding upon the district as long as the bonds are outstanding; and while any bonds remain outstanding, the powers, duties or existence of the district or any official thereof shall not be diminished or impaired in any manner that will adversely affect the interest and rights of the holders of the bonds. Any holder of any bond may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require and compel the performance of any of the duties imposed upon the district or any official thereof with respect to the construction of the works or project and the collection, deposit, application and disbursement of all revenues derived from the use and operation thereof and the deposit and disbursement of the proceeds received from the sale of such bonds. In addition thereto the holders of bonds may exercise or prosecute any other rights or remedies which they may have.

Revenue bonds

Interim bonds, etc

Temporary or interim bonds, certificates or receipts of any denominations and with or without coupons attached thereto may be issued and delivered until definitive bonds are executed and available for delivery. Any expense incurred by the district for advertising, engraving, printing, clerical, legal or other services necessary to properly perform the services and duties relating to the sale and issuance of such bonds shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale of such bonds.

Recital

Such bonds shall contain a recital on the face thereof that the payment or redemption of the bonds and the payment of interest thereon is secured by a first and direct charge and lien upon the revenues of any nature whatever received from the operation of the works for the construction of which the bonds are issued and that neither the payment of the principal, or any part thereof, nor any interest thereon constitutes a liability or obligation of the district except to the extent that such payment can be made from such revenues. The payment of both principal and interest of all such bonds shall be secured only by the rates, charges and revenues established or accrued for the use and operations of the works for the construction of which bonds are issued and shall be made from such revenues. Both redemption and interest payments shall constitute a first and direct charge and lien on all revenues received from the operation of such works, on all interest accrued from such revenues, and on all sinking funds created out of such revenues. The collection of revenue shall be continued until all bonds, with interest thereon, are fully redeemed and paid.

Form etc., of bonds

The board shall determine the form, conditions and denominations of all bonds and the dates which the bonds shall bear. It shall determine the interest rate on all bonds, which shall not exceed 5½ percent per annum; provided, however, that bonds of the same issue may bear different rates of interest. Principal and interest on bonds shall be payable at such place or places as may be fixed and determined by the board and such bonds may contain provisions for registration thereof as to principal only or as to both principal and interest. The bonds shall be issued in coupon form with interest payable at such times as may be determined by the board and shall mature at such times and in such amount as the board prescribes. The board may provide for the retirement of such bonds at any time or times prior to their maturity and in such manner and upon payment of such premiums as may be fixed and determined in the proceedings providing for the issuance thereof. Such bonds may be issued and sold from time to time and in such amounts as may be necessary in the judgment of the board to provide sufficient funds for the construction of the works and to pay all costs and expenses, including interest due and payable, prior to and during the period of actual construction thereof and for a period of one year after completion thereof, and the proceeds from the bonds are hereby made available for this purpose. Such bonds may be sold below the par or face value thereof, but the selling price shall not be less than that which will yield the purchaser not to exceed 5½ percent per annum according to the standard tables of bond values, and the sale price shall include the interest which has accrued thereon up to the date of the delivery of the bonds. Successive issues of bonds shall have equal preference with respect to the redemption thereof and the payment of interest thereon, but the district may fix different maturity dates serially or otherwise for successive issues. All such bonds are hereby declared to be negotiable instruments. All bonds issued and sold shall be sold on sealed proposals to the highest and best bidder after such advertising for bids as the board deems proper, except that the board may reject all bids and thereafter sell the bonds at private sale under such terms and conditions as the board deems most advantageous, but not at a price below that of the best bid which was rejected.

Selling price

Negotiability

Disposition of proceeds

The proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited by the district in a depository authorized by law to receive such deposits of the district, to the credit of the construction fund for the construction of such works, and the proceeds shall be paid out solely for the construction of the works, surveys and preparation of plans and specifications therefor, the payment of all other costs and expenses prior to and during construction, the acquisition of the necessary water, water rights, rights of way, easements, lands, electric power, power resources and facilities, other property of every kind and description and any appurtenances to any such property necessary for such works and project, the payment of interest becoming due and payable on bonds prior to and during the period of actual construction and for the period of one year after the completion of such construction, and all costs and expenses during the period of one year after such completion as the need therefor shall arise. The district may agree with the purchasers of bonds upon any conditions or limitations restricting the disbursement of the proceeds that may be deemed advisable for the purpose of assuring the proper application thereof. From the money deposited in the construction fund, the board shall transfer to the place or places of payment named in the bonds the sums required to pay interest as it becomes due on all bonds sold and outstanding for the construction of the works during the period of actual construction and during the period of one year after completion thereof, and thereafter shall transfer from the revenue fund into which shall be paid all revenues accruing from the use and operation of said works to the place or places named in the bonds the sum required to pay interest on the bonds and redeem the principal thereof, as such interest payments and bond redemptions fall due for all bonds issued and sold. All funds transferred for the payment of principal and interest on such bonds shall be segregated and applied solely for the payment of principal and interest.

Contract to underwrite, etc

Any person or public or private corporation may, by contract with the district, underwrite or assume the payment in whole or in part of the cost of the construction of any such works, and in the event such contract shall be made, all payments received thereunder shall be deemed to be revenues of such works and shall be subject to the terms and provisions of this section respecting the revenues thereof.

Surplus

Any surplus which exists in the construction fund shall be applied to the retirement of bonds issued for the construction of the works by purchase or call; provided, however, that in the event the bonds cannot be purchased at a price satisfactory to the board and are not by their terms callable prior to maturity, such surplus shall be paid into the fund applicable to the payment of principal and interest of the bonds and shall be used for that purpose; provided further, however, the proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds may provide limitations and conditions upon the time and manner of applying such surplus to the purchase and call of outstanding bonds. The terms upon which the bonds shall be purchased or called and the conditions provided for in the proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be followed and observed in the application and use of such surplus.

Revenue refunding bonds

In like manner the board may issue any revenue bonds to refund and pay outstanding revenue bonds; provided, however, that such bonds shall not be for a higher rate of interest than the bonds proposed to be refunded, and the purchase price paid therefor shall not be less than the total amount of interest and principal accrued upon the bonds to be refunded, and the board may provide for the exchange of refunding bonds for the original bonds; provided, the face value of the refunding bonds so exchanged shall not exceed the face value of the original bonds.

Execution of bonds

SEC. 34. Each bond, whether a general obligation or revenue bond, shall be signed by the president and secretary then in office at any time between the date of the bond and its delivery to a purchaser from the district, and the seal of the district shall be impressed thereon The interest coupons shall be signed by the secretary, and the signature of the secretary may be made by facsimile.

Investment of funds

SEC. 35. Any money in any sinking fund established for the payment of any bonded or other indebtedness and any money of the district not required for the immediate necessities of the district may be invested in bonds issued by the district, bonds issued by any school district, any part of which is in a county containing any part of the district, bonds issued by the State, bonds and certificates issued by the United States, and registered warrants issued by the State. The investment may be made by the purchase of the bonds, certificates or warrants at the original sale or by purchase after they have been issued and may, from time to time, be sold and the proceeds reinvested. Sales thereof shall be made in season so that the proceeds may be applied to the purposes for which the money with which the same were purchased was allocated

Tax levy

SEC. 36. If the revenues of the district are, or in the judgment of the board will probably be, inadequate for any cause to pay the principal or interest on any bond, other than revenue bonds, or any payment or charge provided in any contract approved by the voters, as it becomes due, the board shall cause a tax to be levied as herein provided, sufficient to pay the amount of such principal, interest, payment, or charge as the same becomes due, which tax shall be known as Kings River Conservation District bond tax. Taxes for the payment of said Kings River Conservation District bond tax shall be levied on the land within the district or improvement district therein, as determined by the board in the resolution declaring the necessity to incur the debt, or on the land charged with the tax under the terms of any contract approved by the voters.

Same

SEC. 37. If the revenues of the district are, or in the judgment of the board will probably be, inadequate for any cause to pay any other expenses and claims against the district, the board shall cause a tax to be levied as herein provided sufficient to pay such expenses and claims, which tax shall be known as Kings River Conservation District tax and shall be levied on all land in the district. The tax levied for such purposes during any year shall not exceed two and one-half mills

(0.0025) on each one hundred cents of the assessed values of the lands within the district.

Determination of tax rate

SEC. 38. The board shall determine the amount necessary to be raised by taxation for the payment of principal and interest on any bond and payments or charges under any contract approved by the voters, and shall fix the rate of tax to be levied and the land or lands chargeable therewith which will raise the amount of money required therefor, and shall likewise determine the amount necessary to be raised by taxation to pay other expenses and claims against the district and fix the rate to be levied on land within the district to raise an amount sufficient to pay such other expenses and claims.

Certification of rate

SEC. 39. Within a reasonable time previous to the time when the boards of supervisors of the counties within which the district or any portion of the district lies, are required by law to fix the tax rate thereof, the board shall certify to each board of supervisors of each such county the rate or rates so fixed and the land or lands on which the same shall be levied, with direction that at the time and in the manner required by law for the levying of taxes for county purposes, each such board of supervisors shall levy and collect a tax in addition to such other tax as may be levied by such board at the rate or rates so fixed and determined and on the land or lands so certified; and it is made the duty of the officer or body having the authority to levy taxes within each such county to levy the tax so required It shall be the duty of all county officers having the duty of collecting taxes to collect such tax in the time, form and manner as county taxes are collected, and when collected to pay the same to the district Such taxes shall be a lien on said land or lands and of the same force and effect as other liens for taxes, and their collection may be enforced by the same means as provided for the enforcement of liens for state and county taxes.

Tax of mineral interest prohibited

SEC. 39.1. No tax or assessment shall be levied or assessed against any mineral interest which has a separate valuation on the assessment roll, but such tax shall be levied and assessed against the land exclusive of such mineral interest.

Filing boundary description

SEC. 40. It shall be the duty of the board to file, or cause to be filed, on or before the first of February, with each assessor whose roll is used for the levy of district taxes and with the State Board of Equalization, a statement of the creation of the district or the creation of an improvement district therein or the change of the boundaries of either thereof, setting forth the legal description of the boundaries of the district or improvement district so created, or as the same have been changed, together with a map or plat indicating such boundaries, and in all other respects to comply with the provisions of Sections 54900 to 54903, inclusive, of the Government Code.

Addition of land

SEC. 41. Any portion of a county or of any municipality, or both, consisting of lands susceptible to service of water or power from the works of the district or which will be benefited by its inclusion within the district and which may consist of several parcels which need not be contiguous with each other or with the boundaries of the district, may be added to the district in the following manner.

Petition

A petition, which may consist of any number of separate instruments, shall be filed with the secretary, signed by voters residing within the boundaries of the area proposed to be annexed, equal in number to at least 10 per centum of the number of such voters voting for all candidates for the office of Governor of this State at the last general election prior to the filing of such petition. Such petition shall set forth and describe the boundaries of the area proposed to be annexed and shall contain a prayer that such area be annexed to the district. Within 10 days after the filing of the petition, the secretary shall examine the same and ascertain whether it is signed by the required number of voters, and he may employ persons especially for that purpose in addition to persons regularly employed in his office. When the secretary has completed his examination, he shall attach to the petition his certificate, properly dated, showing the result thereof; and if he shall find that said petition is signed by the requisite number of voters, or is not so signed, he shall certify that the same is sufficient or insufficient, as the case may be. If it be found to be insufficient, he shall also certify the number of voters required to make such petition sufficient, and it may be amended by filing a supplemental petition or petitions within 10 days of the date of such certificate. The secretary shall, within 10 days after the filing of such supplemental petition or petitions, make like examination of the same and certify to the result thereof, as hereinabove provided.

Same Insufficiency

If a certificate shall show such petition or such petition as amended to be insufficient, it shall be filed by him with the board and kept as a public record, without prejudice however, to the filing of a new petition to the same effect But if the petition, or petition as amended, is shown by said certificate to be sufficient, the secretary shall present the same to the board without delay. The sufficiency or insufficiency of such petition shall not be subject to review by the board. The secretary shall fix the time when he will present the same to the board and shall cause the text of such petition, together with a notice stating the time of the meeting at which he will present the same, to be published once a week for at least two weeks before the time at which he will present the same in one newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in each county within which any portion of the district lies. When contained in one or more instruments, one copy only of such petition need be published, and no more than five of the names attached thereto need appear in said publication, but the number of signers shall be stated.

Same Sufficiency

Same Board action

The petition may be granted by ordinance of the board, and in granting such petition the board may fix in said ordinance the terms and conditions upon which such annexation may occur, and such terms and conditions may provide, among other things, for the levy by the district of special taxes upon the lands within such annexed area or areas in addition to the taxes elsewhere in this act authorized to be levied, and as a part of such conditions, said board may, in its discretion, provide that the lands, or any portion thereof so added shall be added to and form a part of any improvement district then existing within the district or shall constitute one or more additional improvement district or districts, and may provide for the incurring of a bonded indebtedness by such or any additional improvement district or districts as a condition for such annexation, and may provide for the submission of the proposition of incurring such bonded indebtedness at the election held with respect to such annexation, and may further provide, that, if such bonded indebtedness shall not be authorized, the proposition for annexation of the area contained in such improvement district or districts shall likewise fail. Such conditions may also provide for priority of right to water for the lands theretofore in the district or for the payment of special rates for water or power served the area proposed to be annexed or for such other conditions as to the board seem just. In the event the board should provide for the levy of special taxes, it shall specify the aggregate amount to be raised by such special taxes and the number of years within which the same shall be raised and that substantially equal annual levies will be made for the purpose of raising such sum over the period so prescribed.

Submission to vote

If such petition is granted, the proposition of such annexation, subject to the terms and conditions so fixed, shall be submitted to the vote of the voters in the area proposed to be annexed at an election called by the board and held as herein provided within 70 days after the effective date of such ordinance. Notice of such election shall be given by publication in one newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in each county within which any portion of the area proposed to be annexed lies once a week for three successive weeks prior to the date fixed for such election. Such notice shall describe the boundaries of the area or areas proposed to be annexed and shall designate such territory by some appropriate name or other words of identification by which such territory may be referred to and indicated upon the ballot to be used at the election at which the question of such annexation is submitted, and shall also contain the substance of the terms and conditions fixed by the board as herein provided and may also, in the event the incurring of a bonded indebtedness is one of the conditions of the granting of such petition, submit the proposition of incurring such bonded indebtedness to the voters within the area in which such bonded indebtedness is to be incurred as prescribed by the board. The proposition so submitted at such election shall be stated on the ballot substantially as follows: "Shall (giving name or other designation of the territory proposed to be annexed as stated in the notice of election) be annexed to Kings River Conservation District, subject to the terms and conditions fixed by the

Notice, etc., of election

Ballot proposition

Board of Directors of said District?" At the right of such proposition shall be printed the words "Yes" and "No" with voting squares. In the event the question of incurring a bonded indebtedness is to be submitted, the same shall be submitted in like manner as herein provided for the submission of the incurring of a bonded indebtedness by the district or an improvement district therein. The board shall canvass the votes cast at such election, and if such proposition is approved by a majority of voters voting thereon at such election, the president and the secretary of the board shall certify that fact to the Secretary of State and to the county recorder of each county within which any portion of said district is located; provided, however, that if said area, or any portion thereof, proposed to be annexed is required to incur a bonded indebtedness, then, unless such bonded indebtedness be authorized by a two-thirds vote of the voters thereof, such area so failing to incur such bonded indebtedness shall be excluded from the certificate submitted to the Secretary of State and to the county recorder and shall not be certified as having been annexed to the district. Upon receipt of the certificate, the Secretary of State shall, within 10 days, issue his certificate reciting the passage of the ordinance and the addition of the area or areas to the district. A copy of said certificate shall be transmitted to and filed with the county clerk of each county in which any portion of the district is situated. From and after the date of such certificate the area or areas named therein shall be deemed added to and shall form a part of the district with all the rights, privileges and powers set forth in this act and necessarily incident thereto, and the taxable property therein shall be subject to taxation thereafter for the purposes of the district, including the payment of bonds and other obligations of such district at the time authorized or outstanding, except bonds for indebtedness previously incurred by an improvement district, unless such liability therefor is imposed by the board as a condition to such annexation. The board shall be empowered to do all things necessary to enforce and make effective the terms and conditions of annexation fixed as hereinabove authorized.

Canvass of election

Time of inclusion

SEC. 42. Any territory within the district and not substantially benefited by being within the district or to continued inclusion therein, may be excluded by order of the board upon the verified petition of the owner or owners in fee of lands whose assessed valuation is in excess of one-half of the assessed valuation of all lands held in private ownership in such territory as shown by the last equalized assessment roll.

Exclusion of land

The petition shall describe the territory sought to be excluded and shall set forth that such territory is not substantially benefited by being in the district or its continued inclusion therein and shall pray that such territory be excluded and taken from said district. It shall be filed with the secretary and accompanied by a deposit with the secretary of the sum of five hundred dollars ($500), to meet expenses of advertising and costs incident to the proceedings, any unconsumed balance to be returned to the petitioner or petitioners.

Petition

Investigation

Upon the filing of the petition, the secretary shall transmit a copy thereof to the Department of Public Works, Division of Water Resources, which acting by and through the State Engineer shall make an investigation and determine whether the lands proposed to be excluded, or some portion thereof, will not be substantially benefited by their continued inclusion in the district. In making a determination upon any such petition for exclusion of lands the State Engineer shall exercise his own independent judgment as to whether the lands described in the petition for exclusion will be substantially benefited by remaining in the district, and the State Engineer shall not be bound by the findings of the Legislature in this act with respect thereto. Upon completing such investigation, the department shall file its report with the secretary, which shall describe specifically the lands, if any, which will not be so benefited. The cost and expense of such investigation and report shall be a charge against the district and against the deposit made by the petitioners.

Report

Upon the filing of the report, the secretary shall fix a time when the petition and report will be presented to the board, which shall be not less than 25 days nor more than 50 days after the filing of the report, and shall cause a notice of the filing thereof to be published once a week for at least two weeks in one newspaper of general circulation printed and published in each county within which any portion of the district lies. Such notice shall also state the date of the filing of the petition and the date of the filing of the report and the time when he will present them to the board and that they will come on for hearing before the board at such time and shall state the place where the board will meet for the purpose of holding such hearing. Any landowner or taxpayer or other person interested within the district shall have the right to appear at said hearing either in behalf of or in opposition to the granting of said petition. If upon such hearing the board determines that the petition complies with the provisions of this section and determines either that it is for the best interests of the district that the lands mentioned in the petition, or some portion thereof, be excluded from the district or if it determines that such lands, or some portion thereof, will not be substantially benefited by their continued inclusion in the district (and lands which the report of the Department of Public Works states will not be so benefited shall be included as such lands by the board in making its determination), the board shall make an order that such lands,

Hearing

Exclusion order or such portion thereof, be excluded from the district, such order to describe specifically the land so excluded. From the time of making such order, the lands so excluded shall be deemed no longer included in the district, but such order of exclusion shall not invalidate in any manner any taxes or assessments theretofore levied or assessed against the lands so excluded, nor shall it in any way limit the authority of the board to levy taxes for the payment of principal and interest under the terms of any contract approved by the voters or of bonds theretofore voted or issued by the district or any improvement district embracing such lands so excluded. The president and secretary of the board shall certify that such order has been adopted to the Secretary of State and to the county recorder of each county within which any portion of said district is located Upon receipt of the certificate, the Secretary of State shall, within 10 days, issue his certificate reciting the adoption of such order and the exclusion of the area from the district. A copy of such certificate shall be transmitted to and filed with the county clerk of each county in which any portion of the district is situated.

Effect of finding of sufficiency, etc

SEC. 43. A finding by the secretary in favor of the genuineness and sufficiency of any petition for annexation or a finding by the board in favor of the sufficiency of any petition for exclusion of land from the district or in favor of the sufficiency of the notice of hearing of such petition shall be final and conclusive against all persons, except the State of California, upon suit by the Attorney General. Any such suit must be commenced within six months after the adoption of the ordinance or order adding land to or excluding land from the district, and not thereafter.

Taxation of district property

SEC. 44. No property of the district used for the purpose of the district and belonging to it shall be taxed or assessed for state, county, municipal or any district purposes.

Declaration of legislative intent

SEC. 45. The establishment of the district or anything in this act contained shall not affect, restrict, nor supersede the existence, property, right or power of any municipality, public district or public agency now or hereafter established in or partially within the boundaries of the district. The Legislature, because of conditions special to the district hereby created, declares its intent to permit within its limits the existence of more than one district and/or municipality having similar powers over similar territory It is not the purpose of this act to allow the district to claim any underground waters lying within the boundaries of any incorporated municipality therein or to control the use thereof.

Vested rights

SEC. 46. The formation of the district or the enactment of this act or any provision hereof shall not impair the vested right of any person, association, corporation, municipality or public district in or to water or power or the use thereof

Action to determine legality of district

SEC 47. The district, in order to determine the legality of its existence in addition to any other remedy it may have for that purpose, may institute a suit therefor in the superior court of any county within which any portion of its territory is situated, by filing a complaint setting forth its name and exterior boundaries, the date of its organization and a prayer that it be adjudged a legal district formed under this act and shall be entitled "Kings River Conservation District, plaintiff, vs. All Persons, defendants." The summons in such proceedings shall be served by publishing a copy thereof once a week for four successive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county where such action is pending. Within 30 days after the last publication of said summons shall have been completed, any property owner or resident or elector in the district or any person interested may appear and answer said complaint, in which case said answer shall set forth the facts relied upon to show the invalidity of the district and shall be filed in such proceeding. Such proceeding is hereby declared to be a proceeding in rem, and the judgment rendered therein shall be conclusive against all persons whomsoever and against the State of California Appeals may be taken from said judgment in the same manner as in other civil cases. The procedure provided in this section shall be cumulative and not exclusive.

Bond validation procedure

SEC. 48. The district may at any time after the authorization or issuance of any bonds bring an action in the superior court of any county within which any portion of its territory is situated to determine the validity of any such bonds. Such action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of summons for at least once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county where such action is pending, such newspaper to be designated by the court having jurisdiction of the proceedings. Jurisdiction shall be complete upon the expiration of 10 days after the full publication of such summons in the manner herein provided. Any person interested may at any time before the expiration of said 10 days appear and contest the validity of such bonds. The judgment rendered in such proceeding shall be conclusive against all persons whomsoever and against the State of California. Appeals may be taken from said judgment in the same manner as in other civil cases. The procedure provided in this section shall be cumulative and not exclusive.

Contract validation procedure

SEC. 49. The district may submit any contract or proposed contract providing for the issuance of revenue bonds or for the levy of taxes upon any lands within the district or for the payment of funds accruing to the district from the operation of works of the district or under the terms of any contract to which the district is a party to the superior court of any county within which any portion of its territory is situated to determine the validity thereof, the authority of the district to make the contract and the authority for and validity of the bonds, the levy of taxes or the payment of such funds The validation proceedings shall be had as in the ordinary case of the judicial determination of district bonds as provided in Section 48 and with like effect.

Severability

SEC. 50. In case any section or sections or part of any section of this act shall be found to be unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, the remainder of the act shall not thereby be invalidated, but shall remain in full force and effect.

CHAPTER 932

An act to amend Sections 36, 37 and 54 of, and to add Sections 27a, 28.1, 39.1, and 39.2 to, the State Water Resources Act of 1945, relating to flood control and water conservation.

CHAPTER 936

An act to amend Section 204a of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to jury commissioners.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 9, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 9, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 204a of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Jury commissioners

204a. In any county or city and county having a population of 60,000 or over, a majority of the judges of the superior court of the State of California in and for such county, to assist the judges thereof in making selections of trial jurors, and grand jurors, and whenever in their opinion the business of the court requires it, may, in their discretion, appoint a jury commissioner for such county or city and county. In any county or city and county having a population of 60,000 or over, but less than 217,000, the jury commissioner shall receive a salary of three hundred dollars ($300) per month, not exceeding, however, one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) in any one fiscal year. In any county or city and county having a population of 217,000 or over, but less than 235,000, the jury commissioner shall receive a salary of five hundred dollars ($500) per month, not exceeding, however, three thousand dollars ($3,000) in any one fiscal year. In any county, or city and county having a population of 235,000 or over the jury commissioner shall receive a salary of three hundred dollars ($300) per month. The jury commissioner shall hold office at the pleasure of the majority of the judges of the superior court in and for their respective counties, and their salaries shall be audited, allowed and paid out of the general fund of such county or city and county. The jury commissioner, in the discretion of the board of supervisors, shall also assist in the selection of juries in justices' courts and municipal courts, and, for performing this duty, shall receive additional compensation and help, the amount of which, and the number thereof, shall be determined by the board of supervisors.

CHAPTER 938

An act to amend Sections 143.1, 143.2, and 188.4 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to state highway revenues and expenditures, and the budgeting and reporting thereof.

[Approved by Governor June 9, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 9, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 143.1 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

143.1. The department shall make at least 30 days before each regular session of the Legislature a budget report to the Governor. Budget report

The commission shall prepare for inclusion, and the department shall include, in said report a statement of all estimated State Highway Fund revenues and revenues available from any other sources and estimated regular federal aid for the next succeeding fiscal year, together with a statement of proposed expenditures or obligations to be incurred during the next succeeding fiscal year for the construction, improvement, and maintenance of the various highways or portions thereof under the jurisdiction of the department under the following headings:

(a) Administration, including payments for services of the Division of Contracts and Rights of Way.

(b) Maintenance.

(c) Major Construction and Improvement. Under this will be shown all proposed expenditures or obligations to be incurred in each county group for major construction and improvement, segregating the route of each highway to be constructed or improved, the county in which located, the number of miles involved, and a description of the type of work to be done.

(d) Minor Improvement and Betterment. This heading will show the total proposed expenditures and obligations to be incurred for each county group for minor improvement and betterment.

(e) Contingencies.

(f) Rights of Way. This will show the approximate amount of money needed for the purchase of rights of way in each county group.

(g) Other proposed expenditures, including preliminary engineering.

Budget

The said report as submitted by the department shall be included in the printed fiscal year budget submitted to the Legislature. It shall constitute as submitted the complete and detailed budget submitted to the Department of Finance pursuant to Section 13320 of the Government Code. Said budget shall be administered by the Department of Finance as the Fiscal Year Budget of the Division of Highways under the provisions of this section and of Article 2 of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. In the case of any inconsistency, the provisions of this section shall control.

Changes or modifications

All changes or modifications in the budget shall be by vote of the commission, approved by the Director of Finance where required by this section.

Funds may be transferred from Item (e), Contingencies, to other items by vote of the commission, but no increase or decrease shall be otherwise made in any of Items (a) to (g), inclusive, of said budget without the approval of the Director of Finance No project shown under Item (e) shall be eliminated and no new project shall be added to Item (e) of the budget without the approval of the Director of Finance. If it is necessary to eliminate or postpone any project shown under Item (e) to meet an emergency caused by floods, earthquake or other like cause or on account of decreased revenue or on account of increased costs on other work, the commission may eliminate or postpone such project upon the written approval of the Director of Finance.

In the event, during an annual period, the budgetary amount approved and allocated by the commission for any purpose exceeds the amount actually necessary therefor, with a resultant available surplus, such surplus may be allocated by the commission to any other purpose or supplemental project upon the written approval of the Director of Finance.

Administration of budget

In administering said budget, the Director of Finance shall not limit expenditures or incurrence of obligations thereunder to quarterly, semiannual or other periods of the fiscal year and shall not require any greater detail than that specified in this section and in Section 143 2.

Contracts for any construction and improvement projects for which funds are available during any fiscal year may be awarded on and after the first day of April preceding the beginning of the fiscal year.

The State Controller shall account in his books all receipts and expenditures in the State Highway Fund in accordance with the classification prescribed in this section.

For the purpose of recording by the Controller of receipts to and expenditures from the State Highway Fund, the department shall furnish to the Controller with claims and remittances or by subsequent reports the information necessary to maintain such accounts.

SEC. 2. Section 143.2 of said code is amended to read:

143.2. Commencing with the report submitted pursuant to Section 143.1, preceding the 1949 Session of the Legislature and in each subsequent report, the commission shall also prepare for inclusion, and the department shall also include, in such report a statement of actual State Highway Fund revenues and revenues available from any other source and estimated regular federal aid for highway purposes received during the current and next preceding fiscal years, together with a statement of all expenditures made and obligations incurred during the current and next preceding fiscal years for the construction, improvement, and maintenance of state highways or portions thereof under the jurisdiction of the department under the following headings and subheadings: Statement of revenues expenditures etc

(a) Administration, including payments for services of the Division of Contracts and Rights of Way.

(1) General or central office administration.

(2) District office administration.

(3) Departmental administration.

These subheadings will include administrative expenditures for bridges, testing, and the like.

(b) Maintenance, including: (1) all maintenance expenditures for each highway route; and (2) a breakdown of total maintenance expenditures by descriptive categories such as general maintenance, snow removal, bridge repairs, and other categories used by the department to describe a particular class of maintenance work

(c) Major Construction and Improvement. Under this will be shown all expenditures and obligations incurred in each county group for major construction and improvement, segregating the major bridges, the route of each highway constructed or improved, the county in which located, the number of miles involved, and a description of the type of work done.

(d) Minor Improvement and Betterment. This heading will show the amount expended for minor improvement and betterment in each county group.

(e) Rights of Way. This will show the amount of money expended for the purchase of rights of way in each county group.

There shall also be included in such report a statement of the reasons for any differences between actual revenues received and estimated revenues, as well as for any differences between actual expenditures and obligations incurred and those proposed to be made, in the two next preceding reports together with a statement of the reasons why any expenditures proposed to be made or obligations to be incurred in the two next preceding reports, and not made, have not been made or incurred

In addition to making such report to the Governor, the department shall publish or cause to be published not less than 500 copies thereof for the use of the Legislature

For the purposes of this section, the date of the award of a contract and of the commencement of a day labor project shall be deemed the time when the entire obligation thereunder is incurred.

SEC. 3. Section 188.4 of said code is amended to read:

Amount to be expended

188.4. Out of the money expended pursuant to Section 188, the commission shall allocate and the department shall expend or cause to be expended in each county of County Group No. 1 and in each county of County Group No. 2 during each of the five-year periods commencing and ending, respectively, July 1, 1947, to June 30, 1952, July 1, 1952, to June 30, 1957, and July 1, 1957, to June 30, 1962, not less than an amount computed as follows:

CHAPTER 945

An act to amend Section 383.1 of the Vehicle Code, relating to refunds of registration fees.

[Approved by Governor June 9, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 9, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 383.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

383.1. Procedure for Refund of Fees. (a) Whenever application is made by any person for the registration or transfer Procedure for refund of fees of registration of a vehicle or for any other privilege specified in this code and such application is accompanied by any fee which is excessive or not legally due, or whenever the department in consequence of any error either of fact or of law as to the proper amount of any fee or any penalty thereon or as to the necessity of obtaining a registration, transfer of registration or other privilege under this code collects any fee or penalty which is excessive, erroneous or not legally due, the person who has paid any such erroneous or excessive fee or penalty, or his agent on his behalf, may apply for and receive a refund of the amount thereof as provided in this section.

(b) The applicant may within not more than one year from the date of payment of such erroneous or excessive fee or penalty present an application in writing to the department identifying the payment made and stating the grounds upon which it is claimed that such payment was excessive or erroneous.

(c) Whenever any fee or penalty subject to refund under the provisions of this section has not been paid into the State Treasury, the department shall refund the fee or penalty.

(d) Whenever any fee or penalty subject to refund under this section has been paid into the State Treasury to the credit, in whole or in part, of the Motor Vehicle Support Fund or of the Motor Vehicle Fund, the department shall prepare a claim setting forth the facts pertaining to the fee or penalty sought to be refunded and, upon approval of the claim by the Director of Finance, the Controller shall draw his warrant upon the fund or funds to which the fee or penalty was credited.

(e) This section shall be effective as a legislative appropriation of any and all amounts necessary to refund and repay any excessive or erroneous fees and penalties collected under this code and procedure herein prescribed shall be deemed a compliance with the requirements of the Political Code of this State in reference to the refund of excessive or erroneous fees or penalties paid to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(f) The provisions of this section shall also apply in the event application has been made and fees have been paid for the registration of a vehicle which is not in fact operated upon the highways of this State, during the calendar year for which fees have been paid, but in such event application for refund shall be made within 60 days after the date such fees are paid to the department.

CHAPTER 946

An act to add Section 210.1 to the Vehicle Code, relating to registration on nonresident vehicles.

In effect September 22 1951

[Approved by Governor June 9, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 9, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section number 210.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

210.1. When Nonresident Registration Required. Registration Nonresident vehicles

(a) A vehicle of a type subject to registration hereunder properly registered in the last previous residence of the owner may be operated within this State without registering such vehicle in or paying any fees to this State when at all times when operated in this State, the vehicle displays upon it a valid plate or plates issued for such vehicle in the place of last previous residence of the owner, irrespective of the owner having become gainfully employed here or having taken residence in this State.

(b) Upon expiration of such nonresident registration or upon any transfer of the vehicle within the State of California the owner shall immediately apply to register the vehicle in this State and pay registration and other fees as provided by this code.

(c) Whenever the owner of the vehicle registered outside this State is a member of the armed forces of the United States, on active duty within this State, such vehicle shall come within the provisions of this section although such vehicle is not registered in the home state of such owner, provided the owner establishes to the satisfaction of the department that at the time of the last registration of the vehicle such owner was required by military orders to be within the jurisdiction where the vehicle was last registered.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any vehicle operated or used within this State for the purposes mentioned in Sections 215 or 216 hereof.

CHAPTER 949

An act to add Section 151.1 to the Vehicle Code, relating to registration of vehicles.

[Approved by Governor June 9, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 9, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 151.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

151.1. Department May Issue Certificate of Ownership Without Registration.

(a) The department may issue a certificate of ownership to the legal owner of a vehicle of a type subject to registration hereunder without requiring registration subject to the following conditions: Certificate of ownership without registration

1. The application must be submitted in proper form.

2. A service fee of five dollars ($5) must be paid to the department.

3 There must be filed with the department a certificate of the owner that the vehicle has not been driven or moved upon any public highway so as to require payment of fees and that the owner will not thereafter permit to be driven or moved, or drive or move the vehicle, over or upon a public highway without surrendering or arranging to surrender the certificate to the department, without first having made full payment of all fees required to be paid for such operation or movement of the vehicle under the provisions of this code and of Part 5 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and thereby having made application for the regular registration of such vehicle.

When the owner has complied with all requirements of such application the department may issue a certificate of ownership to him as legal owner and may issue a facsimile copy thereof to the owner or both to the owner if there is no legal owner.

Recordation

(b) Every transfer of ownership of a vehicle registered pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section shall be recorded with the department within 10 days by presentation of an application therefor which shall consist of the last issued certificate of ownership properly endorsed and the last issued facsimile copy thereof and payment of a service charge of one dollar ($1).

Transfer of ownership

Upon any transfer of ownership the registration and other fees as required by law shall be paid and the department shall issue the usual certificate of ownership and registration card unless the vehicle is not to be operated on the public highways and the new owner submits an affidavit satisfactory to the department as to those facts required by paragraph 3 of subdivision (a) of this section in which case the new certificate of title and facsimile thereof may be issued as provided for in subdivision (a) hereof.

(c) A transfer of ownership as provided for herein may be made upon application pursuant to those conditions contained in Section 182 of this code and payment of a service charge of one dollar ($1) for a duplicate certificate of ownership or a facsimile copy thereof in addition to payment of the service charge provided in this section and upon the filing of a certificate by the new owner covering those facts specified in paragraph 3 of subdivision (a) hereof

Construction

(d) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to permit the issuance of a certificate of ownership or a facsimile copy thereof for any vehicle exempted from payment of registration fees as provided in Sections 39, 39.5, 45, and 142 of this code or of those fees specified in Part 5 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

CHAPTER 950

An act to amend Section 177 of the Vehicle Code, relating to notices of sales by vehicle dealers.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 9, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 9, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 177 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

177. Transferor to Notify Department. (a) Whenever the owner of a vehicle registered hereunder sells or transfers his title or interest in, and delivers the possession of, said vehicle to another, said owner shall immediately notify the department of such sale or transfer giving the date thereof, the name and address of such owner and of the transferee and such description of the vehicle as may be required in the appropriate form provided for such purpose by the department. Transferor to notify department

(b) Every dealer upon transferring by sale, lease or otherwise any vehicle, whether new or used, of a type subject to registration hereunder, shall immediately give written notice of such transfer to the department upon an appropriate form provided by it but a dealer need not give such notice when selling or transferring a new unregistered vehicle to another dealer.

CHAPTER 951

An act to amend Section 429 of the Vehicle Code, relating to the redemption of certain vehicles sold under lien sales.

[Approved by Governor June 9, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 9, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 429 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

429. Redemption From Sale. Within 20 days after the sale of any vehicle under the authority of Section 427, the legal owner may redeem any such vehicle so sold to satisfy said lien upon the payment of the amount thereof, all costs and expenses of said sale, together with interest on said sum at the rate of 12 percent per annum from the due date thereof or the date when the same were advanced until the repayment. Redemption of vehicles from lien sales

This section shall not be applicable to vehicles sold under the authority of Section 428.5.

CHAPTER 952

An act providing for the constitution of the municipal court in the City and County of San Francisco, and prescribing the number and compensation of the judges, officers and attaches thereof.

[Approved by Governor June 9, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 9, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The municipal court in the City and County of San Francisco shall be constituted, and the judges, officers and attaches thereof shall receive compensation, as provided in the Municipal Court Act of 1925 for the municipal court previously established in said city and county. CHAPTER 953

An act to amend Sections 673 and 676 of the Vehicle Code, relating to equipment of vehicles.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 9, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 9, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 673 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

Mufflers

673. Mufflers—Prevention of Noise. Every motor vehicle subject to registration and operated on a highway shall at all times be equipped with an adequate muffler in constant operation and properly maintained to prevent any excessive or unusual noise and no such muffler or exhaust system shall be equipped with a cut-out, by-pass, or similar device. No person shall modify the exhaust system of a motor vehicle in a manner which will amplify or increase the noise emitted by the motor of such vehicle above that emitted by the muffler originally installed on the vehicle and such original muffler shall comply with all of the requirements of this section.

A muffler is a device consisting of a series of chambers or baffle plates, or other mechanical design for the purpose of receiving exhaust gas from an internal combustion engine, and effective in reducing noise.

All exhaust pipes shall be parallel to the ground and vehicle, or vertical, and, if vertical, the exhaust from such pipes shall not be directed to the side of the vehicle.

SEC. 2. Section 676 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

Windshields and windows

676. Windshields and Windows. (a) No person shall drive any motor vehicle upon a highway with any sign, poster, card, sticker or other nontransparent material upon the front windshield, side wings, side or rear windows of the vehicle, except that such signs, posters, cards, stickers or other materials may be placed on said windshield within a seven-inch square in the lower corner farthest removed from the driver's position or upon the side windows of the vehicle to the rear of the driver and so placed that said materials will not obstruct the driver's clear view of approaching traffic.

Application

(b) The provisions of this section shall not apply to direction, destination or termini signs upon a passenger common carrier motor vehicle.

Windshield wipers

(c) Every motor vehicle, except motorcycles and motor-driven cycles, operating on a highway and equipped with a windshield shall also be equipped with a self-operating windshield wiper installed thereon which shall be maintained in good operating condition. Any windshield wiper as required herein to be installed on a vehicle shall provide clear vision through the windshield for the driver and shall be operated under conditions of fog, snow or rain. This section shall not apply to snow removal equipment equipped with adequate manually operated windshield wipers. Every new motor vehicle first registered after December 31, 1949, except motorcycles and motor-driven cycles, shall be equipped with two such windshield wipers, one mounted on the right half and one on the left half of the windshield, which wipers shall be capable of effectively clearing the windshield under all ordinary storm or load conditions while the vehicle is in operation.

CHAPTER 954

An act to repeal and add Section 637 to the Vehicle Code, relating to equipment of vehicles.

[Approved by Governor June 9, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 9, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 637 of the Vehicle Code is repealed and added, to read:

637. Signal Lamps and Signal Devices. (a) Every motor vehicle and every vehicle at the end of a train of vehicles shall at all times be equipped with not less than one stop lamp on the rear which shall emit a red or amber light and which shall be actuated upon application of the service (foot) brake and the hand control head for air, vacuum, or electric brake and which may but need not be incorporated with a tail lamp. Such stop signals shall be plainly visible and understandable from a distance of 300 feet to the rear both during normal sunlight and at nighttime, except that stop lamps on a vehicle of a size required to be equipped with clearance lamps under Section 625 shall be visible from a distance of 500 feet during such times.

Signal lamps and signal devices

(b) Any vehicle may be equipped, and when required under Section 545 or 637.5 shall be equipped, with a lamp type turn signal system or semaphore turn signal device capable of clearly indicating any intention to turn either to the right or to the left. Such signal shall be plainly visible and understandable in normal sunlight and at nighttime from a distance of at least 300 feet to the front and rear of the vehicle, except that in turn signals on vehicles of a size required to be equipped with clearance lamps under Section 625 shall be visible from a distance of 500 feet during such times.

(c) Any lamp type signal device used to give a signal of intention to turn right or left shall project a flashing white or amber light visible to the front and red or amber flashing light visible to the rear.

(d) Any semaphore signal device on a vehicle shall be illuminated when in use during the times mentioned in Section 618 either by a light or reflex reflectors rendering likewise visible the signals thereby as specified in subdivision (b) of this section.

(e) Every signal and device shall comply with the engineering requirements and specifications, including mounting instructions, determined and publicized by the department.

CHAPTER 955

An act to amend Section 417.1 of the Vehicle Code, relating to the privilege of operating a motor vehicle.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 9, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 9, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 417.1 is amended to read:

Restoration of privileges

417.1. Restoration of Privileges After Failure to Satisfy Judgment. (a) Any person whose privilege to operate a motor vehicle or whose privilege to register a motor vehicle has been suspended because of failure to satisfy a judgment as defined and referred to in Section 410 and such judgment has been outstanding for a period of five years or more, the person may be relieved of the penalties therein provided and the privilege of such person to operate and register a motor vehicle may be restored in the event such person files with the department and thereafter maintains proof of ability to respond in damages as defined in Section 414 notwithstanding that the judgment which gave rise to such order of suspension has not been paid or fully satisfied.

Proof of ability to respond

(b) Any person who has filed proof of ability to respond in damages as hereinbefore required for three years, or who has been eligible to file such proof for three years, may be relieved of the requirement of filing proof as provided in Section 417, subdivision (b), of this code.

CHAPTER 957

Stats 1913, p 785

An act to amend Sections 1, 3 and 14½ of the County Waterworks District Act, and to add Sections 6.1 and 2.1 thereto, relating to county waterworks districts.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of the County Waterworks District Act is amended to read:

Formation Limitation

Section 1. Any portion of a county, containing unincorporated territory, or containing the whole or any portion of one or more incorporated cities and contiguous unincorporated territory, and not included in a county irrigation district or county waterworks district, may be formed into a county waterworks district, and provision made for the purpose of supplying the inhabitants of such district with water for either irrigation, domestic and fire protection purposes or for any or all of said purposes, and for the development and conservation of water supplies for such purposes or any of them, both in the manner and under the proceedings hereinafter described; provided, however, that a district may be formed of two or more parcels of noncontiguous territory if the board of supervisors determines that water may be efficiently and economically supplied to each of such parcels through the same distribution system or parts thereof, except that no parcel of noncontiguous territory which contains less than 10 privately owned acres may be included in any district.

SEC. 1.5. Section 3 of the County Waterworks District Act is amended to read:

Hearing on petition

Sec. 3. Such petition must be presented at a regular meeting of said board of supervisors, and the board shall thereupon fix a time for hearing the same, and protest of interested parties not less than 21, nor more than 30 days after the date of presentation thereof. The clerk of said board shall thereupon cause notices of the filing and hearing of such petition to be posted in three of the most public places in said district. Said notice shall be headed "Notice of the formation of _____ County Waterworks District No. ___" (stating name of county in which the district is located and the number of the proposed district) in letters not less than one inch in length, and shall, in legible characters, state the fact and date of the filing of such petition, the date and hour set for hearing such petition and protests, briefly describe the proposed improvement, specify the exterior boundaries of the district to be benefited by such improvement and to be taxed to provide for such improvement, and refer to said petition, map and general description of the proposed improvement for further particulars. The said clerk shall also cause a notice, similar in substance, to be published at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county in which the proposed district is located, and designated by said board for that purpose. The date set for the hearing shall be at least 13 days after the date of such posting and the date of last publication of said notice. Publication

Notice

SEC. 2. Section 14½ of the County Waterworks District Act is amended to read:

Sec. 14½. Any portion or portions of a county containing unincorporated territory, or containing the whole or any portion of one or more incorporated cities, and not included in a county irrigation district or a county waterworks district, may be added to any county waterworks district organized under the provisions of this act, at any time, in the manner herein prescribed; provided, however, that territory not contiguous with the district may be annexed to the district as herein provided if the board of supervisors determines that water may be efficiently and economically supplied to such territory from the existing district distribution system or parts thereof, and further provided, that no parcel of noncontiguous territory which contains less than 10 privately owned acres may be annexed to any district. Annexation of territory

The holder or holders of title, or evidence of title, to one-half or more of the lands sought to be added may file with the board of supervisors a petition in writing praying that said lands be added to the district. The county assessment roll of the county in which the lands sought to be added are situated, which assessment roll has been last equalized at the time the petition is filed, shall be conclusive evidence as to the holders of title, or evidence of title, to said lands.

The petition, which may consist of any number of separate instruments, shall set forth and describe the boundaries of the proposed addition, or additions, and pray that the lands within such boundaries be added to the district and shall contain a general description of the improvements necessary for supplying the inhabitants of such territory with water. A certificate of acknowledgment taken before a notary public or justice of the peace of any state, or an affidavit by any person in the presence of whom the petition was signed, shall be sufficient evidence of the genuineness of the signature, or signatures, and the fact of place of residence of each petitioner.

Upon the filing of said petition, the board of supervisors shall set a time for the hearing thereof, which shall be not less than 15 and not more than 30 days from the date the petition is filed. Notice of the filing of said petition shall be given by the clerk of said board by publishing at least once a week, for at least two weeks, in a newspaper printed, published and circulated in the county in which the district is situated, a notice that the petition has been filed, giving the time set for the hearing thereof, and that the petition, together with all written protests filed with said clerk prior to the time set for said hearing, will be heard and passed upon at that time, and that all persons interested therein may then appear and be heard. Said notice shall also contain the text of the petition, but not more than five of the names attached thereto need be published; provided, the number of the total of said names is stated.

At the time fixed for the hearing the board of supervisors shall hear the petition, together with such written protests as shall have been filed as herein provided, by or on behalf of the owners of taxable property situated within the district, or within the proposed addition thereto, and may adjourn such hearing from time to time, not exceeding four weeks in all.

No defect in the contents of the petition or in the notice, or publication of the notice, shall vitiate any proceedings thereon; provided, such petition, or petitions, have a sufficient number of qualified signatures attached thereto.

At said hearing said board may make such changes in the proposed boundaries of the territory sought to be added as may be deemed advisable, but said board shall not modify said boundaries so as to exclude any territory which in its opinion will be benefited by being added to the district. Upon such hearing of said petition, said board shall find as to the sufficiency of said petition, and as to whether the addition to the district of the lands as described in the petition, or as the boundaries thereof shall have been modified, will be for the best interests of the district and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive If the board shall find that the addition to the district of the lands as described in the petition, or as the boundaries thereof shall have been modified, will not be for the best interests of the district, it shall reject the petition.

At the expiration of the time at which protests may be filed, if none be filed, or if protests be filed and after hearing be denied, then said board shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to further proceed, and the board may grant the petition, in whole or in part, and shall fix the boundaries of the territory sought to be added, and shall, by resolution or ordinance, after having acquired jurisdiction to proceed, provide for and order the holding of a special election in said district and in said proposed addition, to determine whether or not the territory in said proposed addition shall be added to the district. At such election the proposition to be submitted shall be: "Shall the territory described in the resolution of the board of supervisors, adopted on the_____ day of_____, 19___, be added to _____ county waterworks district No. ____?" For the purposes of said election, said board shall in said resolution or ordinance establish one or more precincts within the boundaries of said county waterworks district, and one or more precincts within the boundaries of the territory sought to be added thereto, designate a polling place, and appoint one inspector, one judge and one clerk for each such precinct. Same

In all particulars not recited in such resolution or ordinance, such election shall be held as provided by law for holding general elections in such county. Such resolution or ordinance ordering the holding of said election shall, prior to the date set for said election, be published five times in a daily, or twice in a weekly or semiweekly newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in such county and designated by said board for said purpose. No other notice of said election need be given. If at such election a majority of the votes cast in the district then existing and a majority of the votes cast in the territory sought to be added thereto are in favor of such addition, the board shall enter an order to that effect upon its minutes declaring said territory added to the district, and from and after the date of such order, such territory shall be deemed added to and shall form a part of said district, subject to all the rights, privileges, powers and responsibilities set forth in this act and necessarily incident thereto.

If, in the judgment of the board of supervisors it is deemed necessary, because of the lack of sufficient moneys in the funds of the district to provide adequate water, construct necessary plants and distributing systems, or properly serve the territory sought to be added, or for any other reason, to make the addition of the new territory conditional upon the voting and issuance of additional bonds, said board may, in its resolution or ordinance granting the petition, or a part thereof, and calling an election upon the proposition of adding new territory to the district, order that said election shall be upon the joint proposition of adding new territory and of incurring an indebtedness by the issuance of bonds of the district as the same will exist if the new territory sought to be added is added thereto. Said ordinance or resolution shall state the purpose for which the proposed debt is to be incurred, the amount of the debt to be incurred, the maximum term the bonds proposed to be issued shall run before maturity, which shall not exceed 40 years and the maximum rate of interest to be paid, which shall not exceed 8 percent per annum, payable semiannually. The proposition to be voted upon in such event shall be: "Shall the territory described in the resolution of the board of supervisors adopted on the _____ day of _____, 19___, be added to _____ County Waterworks District No. ____, and shall said district, as the same will exist after the addition of said territory, incur a bonded indebtedness in the sum of _____ dollars ($_____) for the purpose of (stating the purposes for which the amount so raised is to be used)?" Notice of said election and all matters in connection with said election shall be given and conducted in the manner hereinbefore provided, where the proposition is to be upon the sole question of the adding of new territory.

If, in the judgment of the board of supervisors, the proposed improvements found to be necessary to provide adequate water or to properly serve the territory sought to be annexed, will not be of district-wide benefit, the board may, in its resolution or ordinance granting the petition, and calling an election upon the proposition of adding new territory to the district order that said election shall be upon the joint proposition of adding new territory and of incurring an indebtedness by the issuance of bonds of the district, which bonds shall constitute obligations chargeable exclusively to such new territory. The proposition to be voted upon in such event shall be: "Shall the territory described in the resolution of the board of supervisors adopted on the _____ day of _____, 19____, be added to _____ County Waterworks District No. ____, and shall said district incur a bonded indebtedness in the sum of _____ dollars ($ _____) which bonds shall be chargeable exclusively to the territory added, for the purpose of (stating the purposes for which the amount so raised is to be used)?" In every respect not in conflict with this paragraph, the provisions of this section shall govern the conduct of such annexation proceedings.

Same

If at such election a majority of the votes cast in the district then existing and a majority of the votes cast in the territory sought to be added thereto are in favor of said proposition of adding new territory and of incurring such bonded indebtedness, then the board of supervisors shall enter an order to that effect upon its minutes, declaring said new territory added to the district, and from and after the date of such order such territory shall be deemed added to and shall form a part of said district subject to all the rights, privileges, powers and responsibilities set forth in this act and necessarily incident thereto and said board shall thereupon be authorized and empowered to issue bonds of said district (as the same will exist after the addition of such new territory) or bonds of said district chargeable exclusively to such newly added territory, as the case may be, for the amount voted upon at said election.

The provisions elsewhere in this act made for the form of bonds, issuance and sale of bonds, the levying and collecting of taxes for the payment thereof and of other matters relating to bonds of the district shall govern in the case of such bonds; provided, however, that if such bonds are chargeable exclusively to the newly added territory, no taxes for the payment of principal or interest thereon shall be levied upon any property not included in such newly added territory, but such taxes shall be levied solely upon the taxable property in such newly added territory.

SEC. 3. Section 6.1 is added to the County Waterworks District Act, to read:

Establishment of zones

Sec. 6.1. Zones may be established within a county waterworks district in the manner hereinafter prescribed for either of the following purposes:

(a) Incurring a bonded indebtedness within such zone, sufficient to pay the cost of constructing a water system and any other necessary improvements incidental thereto for the purpose of supplying the inhabitants of said zone with water, where said water system and said improvements in the judgment of the governing body will not be of district-wide benefit, and levying a special tax within such zone for the payment of the principal and interest on said bonds; or

(b) Fixing and collecting special rates or charges for the use and supply of water furnished by the system of said waterworks district within such zone, and applying the receipts from such special rates or charges to the expense of constructing a water system, replacing a water system, acquiring an existing water system, or extending or enlarging the mains of an existing water system, where in the judgment of the governing body, such improvement will not be of district-wide benefit.

Same
Formation petition

A petition for the formation of a zone within a county waterworks district may be presented to the board of supervisors, signed by owners representing at least 25 percent of the total assessed valuation of the real property within the proposed zone as shown by the last equalized assessment roll of the county, or by not less than 25 percent of the taxpayers resident within the proposed zone, which petition shall contain:

(1) The boundaries of the proposed zone

(2) A general description of the improvement desired

(3) An estimate of the cost of the proposed improvement and of the incidental expenses in connection therewith

(4) Either (a) a request that an election be called in said proposed zone for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters thereof the proposition of establishing such zone and incurring a bonded indebtedness therein, the principal and interest of which shall be paid by special taxes levied on the taxable property in such zone, to pay the cost and expense of the proposed improvement; or

(b) A request that an election be called in said proposed zone for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters thereof the proposition of establishing such zone and fixing and collecting special rates or charges therein for the use and supply of water and applying the receipts therefrom to the cost and expense of the proposed improvement; provided, that the petition in such event shall specify the maximum rate or charge permissible and the length of time during which such special rates or charges may be made.

Map

Such petition must be accompanied by a map showing the exterior boundaries of the district and of the proposed zone, and containing a general description of the proposed improvement. The failure of said petition to contain any of said matters or things aforesaid shall not affect the legality of the establishment of such zone if the same shall thereafter be established.

Presentation, hearing, notice

Said petition must be presented at a regular meeting of the board of supervisors, and the board shall thereupon set a time for hearing the petition, which time shall be not less than 21 days nor more than 30 days after the date of presentation thereof. Notice of the filing and hearing of the petition shall be given by the clerk of said board by publishing at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published and circulated in the county in which the district is situated, a notice containing a copy of the petition, and stating when the petition was filed, and specifying the time set for the hearing of the petition and protests of interested parties. The said clerk shall also cause a notice, similar in substance, to be posted in three of the most public places within said proposed zone. The date set for the hearing shall be at least 13 days after the date of such posting and the date of last publication of said notice.

Engineers' report

A copy of a petition under this section shall be filed with the county engineer of waterworks districts at least two weeks before such petition is presented to the board of supervisors. The county engineer of waterworks districts shall prepare and file with the board of supervisors, at least one week before the date set for the hearing on the petition, a report containing cost estimates and preliminary plans and specifications for the proposed improvements, together with any recommendations as to the boundaries of the proposed zone, and any other pertinent information relating to the feasibility of the proposed improvements or proposed zone. The engineer's report shall be available in the office of the board of supervisors for public inspection, and may be considered by the board at the hearing on the petition.

Hearing

At the time fixed for the hearing, the board shall hear and pass upon the petition and any protests in writing as shall have been filed with the clerk before or at the time set for the hearing, and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive. If the board of supervisors determines that the proposed improvement will be of district-wide benefit, the proceedings shall terminate, and the proposed zone shall not be established. If the board determines that the proposed improvement will not be of district-wide benefit, the board may make such changes in the boundaries of the proposed zone as may be deemed advisable and shall define and establish such boundaries; but said board shall not modify the boundaries so as to exclude from the proposed zone any territory which will be benefited by such improvement, nor shall any territory which in the judgment of the board will not be benefited by the proposed improvement be included within the proposed zone.

Modification of boundaries

Neither shall said board modify such boundaries except after notice of its intention so to do, given by one insertion in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in said county and designated by said board for that purpose, describing the proposed modification, and specifying a time for hearing objections to such modification, which time shall be at least 10 days after the publication of said notice. Written objections to such proposed modification may be filed with the clerk of said board by any interested person at or before the time set for hearing the same. Said board shall hear and pass upon such objections at the time appointed, or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive. If such objections or any of them, be sustained, no further proceedings pursuant to such petition shall be taken, but a new petition for the same or a similar purpose may be filed at any time.

Procedure of board of supervisors

If no protests are filed, or if all protests filed are heard and denied, or if authorized modifications are made in the boundaries of the proposed zone and such boundaries are finally established, the board of supervisors shall have jurisdiction to proceed, and if the board determines that the petition is signed by owners representing at least 60 percent of the total assessed valuation of the real property within the proposed zone as shown by the last equalized assessment role of the county, or by at least sixty percent (60%) of the taxpayers resident within the proposed zone, as its boundaries shall have been established upon the hearing on the petition, said board may by resolution reciting such finding declare that an election is unnecessary and that the zone is established. The board shall thereupon be authorized to issue bonds of said zone, to fix and collect special rates or charges, as prayed for in the petition, and proceed with the proposed improvement.

Same Election

If the petition is signed by owners representing less than 60 percent of the total assessed valuation of the real property within the proposed zone as shown by the last equalized assessment roll of the county, and by less than sixty percent (60%) of the taxpayers resident within the proposed zone, as its boundaries shall have been established upon the hearing on the petition, or if for any other reason the board deems it advisable to conduct an election, the board shall by resolution order that a special election be held in the proposed zone to determine whether or not the zone shall be established. The board shall appoint three qualified electors residing in the proposed zone to conduct the election, which shall be called by posting in three of the most public places in the proposed zone, and by publishing at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published and circulated in the county in which the district is situated, a notice specifying the time, place and purposes of the election, and giving the purposes and boundaries of the proposed zone. The date set for said election shall be at least 13 days after the date of such posting and the date of last publication of said notice. No other notice of said election need be given. The election shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of this State, where applicable. The proposition to be submitted shall be in accordance with the petition and shall be: "Shall the proposed zone described in the resolution of the board of supervisors adopted on the _____ day of _____, 19___, be established within County Waterworks District No. ____, and shall said zone incur a bonded indebtedness in the sum of _____ dollars ($_____) for the purpose of (stating the purpose for which the amount so raised is to be used)?", or "Shall the proposed zone described in the resolution of the board of supervisors adopted on the _____ day of

_____, 19___, be established within County Waterworks District No. ____, and shall special rates or charges for the use and supply of water, not to exceed _____, be fixed and collected in said zone for a period of time not to exceed _____, to pay the cost and expense of (describing generally the proposed improvement)?''

Establishment o zone, etc

If 60 percent of the votes cast at the election are in favor of the zone, and of incurring such bonded indebtedness, or fixing and collecting such special rates or charges, as the case may be, the board of supervisors shall by resolution establish the zone. Said board shall thereupon be authorized and empowered to issue bonds of the said zone, or to fix and collect special rates and charges, as voted on at the election, and to proceed with the proposed improvement.

Law applicable

The provisions elsewhere in this act made for the form, issuance, and sale of bonds, the levying and collecting of taxes for the payment thereof and of other matters relating to bonds of the district shall govern in the case of bonds authorized by proceedings under this section; provided, however, that all taxes for payment of interest and principal on such bonds shall be levied solely upon the taxable property within such zone. The taxes and special rates or charges authorized by this section are in addition to such taxes and rates or charges as may be authorized by Sections 8.3, 9, and 10 of this act, and such taxes shall be subject to the provisions of Section 10½ of this act.

SEC. 4. Section 2 1 is added to the County Waterworks District Act, to read:

Petition to form zone

Sec. 2.1. A separate petition for the formation of a zone or zones within a proposed waterworks district for either of the purposes specified in Section 6 1 of this act may be presented to the board of supervisors at the same time and in conjunction with a petition for the formation of such county waterworks district. Such petition and the proceedings thereon shall be in conformity with and subject to the provisions of Section 6 1 of this act, and except as otherwise herein provided, such proceedings shall be conducted and regarded as separate and distinct from proceedings upon the petition for formation of the district. The board of supervisors may, in its discretion, direct that notice of hearing, hearing, notice of election, or election upon the petitions shall be consolidated and combined into one notice of hearing, one hearing, one notice of election, or one election; provided, that the requirements of this act with respect to such proceedings upon each of said petitions are complied with. The formation of a zone or zones pursuant to this section shall in no event be effective for any purpose unless and until the district is established; but the nonformation of such proposed zone or zones for whatever reason shall in no way affect the formation of the district or of another or other proposed zones within said district.

CHAPTER 958

An act to amend Section 194 of the Streets and Highways Code and to amend Section 11005 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to the population of cities.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 194 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

Expenditures within cities

194. The commission shall allocate annually, and the department shall expend or cause to be expended within the cities and cities and counties of this State, from the State Highway Fund, the amount transferred to the State Highway Fund from the Highway Users Tax Fund for expenditure in cities, as provided in Section 2107.

Such expenditures shall be made within each city, including city and county, in the proportion that the total population of such city bears to the total population of all cities in this State. For the purpose of this section the population in each city is that determined by the last preceding federal census. In the case of a city incorporated subsequent to the last census, or in the case of inhabited unincorporated territory being annexed to a city subsequent to the last census, the department shall ascertain the population of the city, or of the annexed territory, by multiplying the number of registered electors therein by three. In the case of uninhabited unincorporated territory being annexed to a city subsequent to the last census, the department shall ascertain the population of the annexed territory, by multiplying the number of registered electors therein by three two years after the completion of annexation proceedings.

SEC. 2. Section 11005 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

Disbursement of funds in Motor Vehicle License Fee Fund

11005. The balance of all motor vehicle license fees and any other money deposited, in accordance with law, in the Motor Vehicle License Fee Fund and remaining unexpended therein at the close of business on the last day of the calendar month immediately preceding the month in which such balance is required to be disbursed under the provisions of this section, after payment of refunds therefrom and after making the deductions authorized by Sections 11003 and 11004 shall, on order of the Controller be disbursed during the months of December and June of each fiscal year as follows:

(a) Fifty percent thereof shall be paid to the cities and cities and counties of this State in the proportion that the population of each city or city and county bears to the total population of all cities and cities and counties in this State, as determined by the Controller. For the purpose of this subdivision the population of each city or city and county is that determined by the last federal census. In the case of a city incorporated subsequent to the last census, or in the case of an inhabited unincorporated territory being annexed to a city subsequent to the last census, the Controller shall ascertain the population of the city or the annexed territory by multiplying the number of registered electors therein by three In the case of uninhabited unincorporated territory being annexed to a city subsequent to the last census, the Controller shall ascertain the population of the annexed territory, by multiplying the number of registered electors therein by three two years after the completion of annexation proceedings. In the case of the consolidation of one city with another subsequent to the last census the population of the consolidated city for the purpose of this subdivision is the aggregate population of the respective cities as determined by the last federal census.

The money so paid shall be expended by the cities and cities and counties for law enforcement, the regulation and control and fire protection of highway traffic, and any other state purpose.

(b) Fifty percent thereof shall be paid to the counties and cities and counties of the State in the proportion that the population of each county or city and county bears to the total population of all the counties and cities and counties of the State, as determined by the Controller. For the purpose of this subdivision the population of each county or city and county is that determined by the last federal census.

CHAPTER 959

An act to amend Section 21002 of the Government Code, relating to the State Employees' Retirement System in respect to state employment of persons who have attained the age of compulsory retirement.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951 Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21002 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Duration

21002. This article shall remain in effect until the ninety-first day after the final adjournment of the 1953 Regular Session of the Legislature or until the termination of the existing national defense emergency as evidenced by cessation of compulsory military service in the armed forces of the United States by citizens of this State, and as found and declared by the Governor, whichever first occurs. While this article is in effect its provisions shall supersede any existing provisions of law which are in conflict with the provisions of this article; but such provisions are not repealed by this article, and after this article is no longer effective shall have the same force as though this article had not been enacted.

CHAPTER 960

An act to amend Section 92 of the Labor Code, relating to the powers of the Labor Commissioner.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 92 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

92. The Labor Commissioner, his deputies and agents, may issue subpenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and parties and the production of books, papers and records; administer oaths; examine witnesses under oath; take the verification, acknowledgment, or proof of written instruments; and take depositions and affidavits for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this code and all laws which the division is to enforce Issuance of subpenas, etc

---

CHAPTER 961

An act to add Section 46.1 to, and amend Section 51 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to definitions of vehicles and equipment.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 46.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

46.1. Tire Chains. "Tire chains" are metal chains which consist of two circular metal loops, one on each side of the tire, connected by not less than nine evenly spaced chains across the tire tread. "Tire chains"

SEC. 2. Section 51 of said code is amended to read:

51. Armored Car. An "armored car" is a vehicle that is equipped with materials on either the front, sides, or rear that will provide protection to any person therein from missiles discharged from firearms. "Armored car"

CHAPTER 962

An act to add Section 1.6 to the Judges' Retirement Act, relating to retirement of judges for service. Stats. 1937, p. 2204

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1.6 is added to the Judges' Retirement Act, to read:

SEC. 1.6. Every justice of the Supreme Court, or of the district court of appeal, or judge of a superior court, or of a Judges' retirement municipal court, who has attained the age of 70 years and who has been a judge of such court or any court which was later superseded by a municipal court, or any combination of such courts, for a period of nine years in the aggregate, and who has served as a public officer of the State, any county, city and county, or city, including time served as judge, for 33 years of the 34 years preceding his retirement, may retire if he pays into the Judges' Retirement Fund a sum equal to the amount he would have paid had he been a justice or a judge of the court from which he is retiring for the period of 20 years next preceding his retirement, less contributions actually paid by him. Said contributions shall be computed by ascertaining the average annual amounts paid by the judge or justice for the period during which he actually made contributions to the Judges' Retirement Fund and applying this rate to the period of 20 years.

Duration

This section shall remain in effect until the ninety-first day after final adjournment of the 1955 Regular Session of the Legislature.

CHAPTER 963

An act to add Sections 34303.5 and 35002 to, and to amend Sections 35101 and 35301 of the Government Code, relating to cities.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 34303.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

Submission to boundary commission

34303.5. No petition seeking the incorporation of a new city may be circulated or filed with the board of supervisors, and neither the board nor the clerk of the board shall accept any such petition for filing, until the proposal for the incorporation of the new city has been submitted to and reported upon to the proponents by the boundary commission of the county with respect to the definiteness and certainty of the proposed boundaries.

If the boundary commission does not report upon the petition within 20 days after it is submitted to it, the petition shall be deemed correct.

SEC. 2. Section 35002 is added to the Government Code, to read:

Same

35002. No petition seeking the annexation of territory to a city shall be circulated or filed, nor shall any public officer accept any such petition for filing, nor shall any legislative body initiate proceedings to annex on its own motion, until the proposal for the annexation of territory to a city has been submitted to and reported upon to the proponents by the boundary commission of the county with respect to the definiteness and certainty of the proposed boundaries.

If the boundary commission does not report upon the petition or proceeding within 20 days after it is submitted to it, the petition or proceeding shall be deemed correct.

SEC. 3. Section 35101 of the Government Code is amended to read:

35101. When any proceedings for the annexation of territory to a city are commenced pursuant to this article, the provisions of this article and of Article 1 of this chapter alone apply. Law applicable

SEC. 4. Section 35301 of the Government Code is amended to read:

35301. When proceedings for the annexation of territory to a city are commenced pursuant to this article, the provisions of this article and of Article 1 of this chapter alone apply. Same

CHAPTER 964

An act to add Chapter 1.5 to Part 2, Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to garbage and refuse disposal districts, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.5 is added to Part 2, Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.5. GARBAGE AND REFUSE DISPOSAL DISTRICTS

Article 1. Definitions

4170. "District," as used in this chapter, means a district formed pursuant to this chapter or pursuant to any law which it supersedes. "District"

Article 2. Formation

4171. Any contiguous portion or portions of a county whether the portion or portions include incorporated or unincorporated territory, may be formed into a garbage and refuse disposal district in the manner and under the proceedings in this chapter set forth; except that no city or any portion thereof shall be included in the district without the consent of the governing body of the city, such consent being adopted by a favorable vote of two-thirds or more of its members. Territory

4172. The board of supervisors may determine by resolution that a portion of the county is in need of a site for the disposal of garbage and refuse and should be formed into a district. Determination of need, etc

Thereupon the board of supervisors shall fix a time and a place for a hearing on the matter of the formation of the district, which time shall be not less than three weeks after the adoption of the resolution, and shall direct the clerk of the board to publish a notice once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper circulated in the territory which it is proposed to organize into a district, and which the board deems most likely to give notice to the inhabitants of the territory.

Notice

4173. The notice shall state the fact that the board of supervisors of the county has fixed the time and place, which shall be stated in the notice, for a hearing on the matter of the formation of a garbage and refuse disposal district.

Same Contents

4174. The notice shall describe the territory or shall specify the exterior boundaries of the territory proposed to be organized into a district.

Objections

4175. At any time prior to the time fixed for a hearing of the matter, any person interested may file with the clerk of the board written objections to the formation of the district. At the time and place fixed for the hearing or at any time to which the hearing may be continued, the board of supervisors shall consider and pass on all objections to the creation of the district, or to the inclusion of any territory in the district. At the hearing, the board of supervisors may exclude any territory that in the opinion of the board would not be benefited by inclusion in the district.

Boundaries

4176. On the final hearing the board of supervisors shall make such changes in the proposed boundaries as are advisable, and shall define and establish the boundaries

Organization order

4177. If, from the testimony given before the board of supervisors, it appears to that board that the public necessity or welfare requires the formation of the district, it shall, by an order entered on its minutes, declare that to be its finding, and shall further declare and order that the territory within the boundaries so fixed and determined be organized as a district, under an appropriate name to be selected by the board of supervisors. The name shall contain the words "garbage and refuse disposal district."

Same Filing

4178. The county clerk shall immediately file for record in the office of the county recorder of each county in which any portion of the land embraced in the district is situated, and shall also forward to each board of supervisors of each of the other counties, if any, in which any portion of the district is situated, and also shall file with the Secretary of State, a certified copy of the order of the board of supervisors. From and after the date of the filing of the certified copy with the Secretary of State, the district named therein is organized as a district, with all the rights, privileges, and powers set forth in this chapter, or necessarily incident thereto.

Article 3. Board of Directors

Directors

4179 Within 30 days after the filing with the Secretary of State of the certified copy of the order of formation, a governing board of trustees for the district shall be appointed. The governing board of a district is a board of directors of not less than three members. The district board shall be appointed as follows:

(a) If the district includes only one incorporated city two members of the governing body shall be selected by the board of supervisors and one member of the governing body shall be selected by the city council;

(b) If the district includes two or more cities only one member of the governing body of the district shall be selected by the board of supervisors to represent the unincorporated area. The legislative body of each city within the district shall appoint one member to represent each incorporated city within the district. In the event that the selection of members pursuant to this subdivision results in the governing body having an even number of members, those members may appoint an additional member from the district at large.

A vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as an original appointment. The person appointed shall reside within the area he represents. Vacancy

Article 4. Powers and Duties

4180. The governing body of the district may do any or all of the following: Powers of governing body

(a) Make and enforce all rules and regulations necessary for the administration and government of the district and for the operation and maintenance of the garbage and refuse disposal site acquired by the district;

(b) Appoint agents, employees, and experts for the district sufficient to maintain and operate the property acquired for the purposes of the district;

(c) Enter into such contracts with other public agencies as may be necessary or proper to accomplish the purposes of the district;

(d) Acquire by gift, purchase, condemnation, or otherwise in the name of the district, and own, control, manage, dispose of and exchange any interest and real or personal property;

(e) Perform all acts necessary or proper to accomplish the purposes of this chapter.

(f) Maintain and operate a garbage disposal site and facilities and fix and collect fees for the use thereof

(g) Borrow money and incur indebtedness and guarantee the performance of its legal or contractual obligations.

Article 5. Taxation

4181. The district board shall, at least 15 days before the first day of the month in which the board of supervisors of the county in which the district is situated is required by law to levy the amount of taxes required for county purposes, furnish the board of supervisors and county auditor of the county an estimate in writing of the amount of money necessary for the district's purposes during the next ensuing fiscal year. The county tax collector shall collect the district taxes at the same Estimate of expenses time and in the same manner as the county taxes are collected. All money collected for district purposes shall be paid into the county treasury and paid out on warrants of the county auditor drawn on the county treasurer, upon order of the district board. The amount of money necessary for the district's purposes may include a cash-basis fund.

Tax levy

4182. The board of supervisors of each county in which any part of a district is situated shall, at the time of levying county taxes, levy a tax to be known as the "* * * garbage and refuse disposal district tax," sufficient to raise the amount reported to it by the district board, upon property of the district in the county. The board of supervisors shall determine the rate of the tax by deducting 15 percent for anticipated delinquencies from the total assessed value of the taxable property of the district within the county as it appears on the assessment roll of the county, and then dividing the sum reported to it by the district board by the remainder of the total assessed value.

Same
Maximum

4183. For the purposes of the district the board of supervisors shall levy a tax of not to exceed fifteen cents ($0.15) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of taxable property of the district in the county.

Cash-basis fund

4184. The district board may establish and maintain a cash-basis fund for the purpose of defraying district expenses between the beginning of a fiscal year and the time of distribution of tax receipts in a fiscal year. Such cash-basis fund shall not exceed 60 percent of the estimated expenditures for a fiscal year.

Transfer of county funds

4185. If a district is organized in any year too late for the levy of a tax in that year or in the next ensuing year, the board of supervisors may transfer funds of the county not immediately needed for county purposes to the district fund to be used for the payment of expenses of such district until such time as district tax receipts are availabe therefor. The board of supervisors shall include in the levy of taxes for the district for the fiscal year in which a tax may be levied, a sum sufficient to repay to the county the amounts so transferred to the district for the portion or portions for the preceding fiscal years for which the levy of taxes was made for that purpose and the amount so transferred shall be retransferred to the county treasury from the district fund out of the first available receipts from the tax levy.

Article 6. Bonds

General obligation bonds

4186. No general obligation bonds shall be issued by the district unless the issuance thereof is approved by the electors of the district at a special election as provided in this article. If the district board finds that it is necessary to incur a bonded indebtedness to obtain funds with which to carry out the purposes of the district, it may submit the proposition to the voters of the district. For that purpose a special election shall be called by resolution.

Resolution

4186.01. The resolution shall state all of the following:

(a) The general objects and purposes for which it is proposed to incur an indebtedness.

(b) A general description of all property to be acquired or damaged and work to be executed through the expenditure of the funds secured by the issuance and sale of the bonds.

(c) An estimate of the cost of the proposed work.

(d) The amount of the bonds proposed to be issued.

(e) The number of years not to exceed which the whole of the bonds are to run.

(f) The rate of interest or a maximum rate of interest to be paid.

(g) The date of the election.

(h) The election precincts, polling places, and election officers.

Consolidation of precincts

4186.02. For the purposes of the bond election the district board may consolidate into one precinct several precincts established for general election purposes and describe the precinct by reference to the general election precincts.

Election board

4186.03. An election board consisting of one inspector, one judge and one clerk shall be appointed by the district board for each precinct.

Voters qualifications

4186.04. Only voters registered in the district are eligible to vote at the bond election.

Publication of resolution

4186.05. A resolution calling the election shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper having a general circulation in the district and designated by the district board. No other notice of the election need be given.

Authorization by vote

4186.06. If two-thirds of the votes cast are in favor of incurring the bonded indebtedness as proposed, bonds of the district for the amount stated in the resolution calling the election shall be issued and sold.

Validity

4186.07. The validity of the bonds after their issuance shall not be questioned in any court except on the ground that the provisions of this chapter authorizing their issuance are unconstitutional, or that the required hearing regarding the formation of the district was not regularly held or proper notice of it was not given.

Form of bonds, etc

4186.08. The district board shall prescribe by resolution the form of the bonds, and interest coupons. The bonds shall be payable at such times and at a place to be fixed by the board, and designated in the bonds, together with interest on all sums unpaid on that date until the whole of the indebtedness has been paid. The term of the bonds issued shall not exceed 40 years.

Denomination etc., of bonds

4186.09. The bonds shall be issued in such denominations as the district board determines, except that no bond shall be of a denomination less than one hundred dollars ($100) or greater than one thousand dollars ($1,000). They shall be payable on the day and at the place fixed in the bonds, and with interest at the rate specified in the bonds, which rate shall not be in excess of 6 percent per annum, and shall, after the first year, be payable semiannually.

Execution of bonds

4186.10. The bonds shall be signed by the chairman of the district board and countersigned by the county auditor, and the seal of the district board shall be affixed. The interest coupons of the bonds shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the county auditor by his engraved or lithographed signature.

Effect of signature

4186.11. If any officer whose signature or countersignature appears on the bonds ceases to be an officer before the delivery of the bonds to the purchaser, his signature or countersignature shall be as valid as if he had remained in office until the delivery of the bonds.

Sale price

4186.12. The district board may issue and sell bonds of the district at not less than par value, and the proceeds shall be placed in the treasury of the county.

Disposition of premiums, etc.

4186.13. All premiums and accrued interest received shall be paid into the fund to be used for the payment of principal and interest on the bonds and the remainder of the proceeds of the sale shall be paid into the construction fund of the district, and proper records of the transactions shall be placed upon the books of the county treasurer.

Construction fund

4186.14. The construction fund shall be applied exclusively to the purposes and objects mentioned in the resolution calling the bond election.

Payments from the construction fund shall be made upon demands allowed by the district board, and prepared, presented, and audited in the same manner as demands upon funds of the county.

Call for new election

4186.15. If the proposition of issuing bonds submitted at the bond election fails to receive the requisite number of votes, the district board may, at the expiration of six months after that election, call or order another bond election, either for the same objects and purposes, or for any other object or purpose of the district.

Additional bonds

4186.16. If bonds have been issued by the district and the proceeds of the sale have been expended and the district board by resolution passed by a vote of two-thirds of all its members determines that the public interest or necessity of the district demands the issuance of additional bonds for carrying out any of the objects of the district, the board may again submit to the voters the question of issuing additional bonds in the same manner as for a first issue. All provisions of this chapter for the issuance and sale of bonds, and for the expenditure of proceeds, apply to the issuance of additional bonds.

Payment of bonds, etc.

4186.17. Bonds and interest thereon shall be paid by revenue derived from an annual tax upon the property in the district, and all the property in the district shall be and remain liable to be taxed for such payments. Said bonds and the interest thereon shall not be taxable in this State.

Issue of bonds defined

4186.18. (a) An issue of bonds is hereby defined to be the aggregate principal amount of all of the bonds authorized to be issued in accordance with a proposal submitted to and approved by the electors of the district, but no indebtedness will be deemed to have been contracted until bonds shall have been sold and delivered and then only to the extent of the principal amount of the bonds so sold and delivered.

Division of issue

(b) The district board of any district issuing bonds may, in its discretion, divide the aggregate principal amount of such issue into two or more divisions or series and fix different dates for the bonds of each separate division or series. In the event any authorized issue is divided into two or more divisions or series, the bonds of each division or series may be made payable at such time or times as may be fixed by the district board separate and distinct from the time or times the payment of bonds of any other division or series of the same issue.

Statement of expenses

4186.19. Whenever a district has issued bonds, the district board shall include in its annual statement to the board of supervisors as to the amount of money needed for district purposes during the next ensuing fiscal year pursuant to Section 4181, it shall include, in addition thereto, the amount necessary to pay the interest and principal on such bonds as will become due before the time for making the next general tax levy.

Same Failure to include bond payments

4186.20. If the district board fails to furnish to the board of supervisors a statement of the amount of money necessary to pay the principal and interest on the bonds as provided for in Section 4186.19, the board of supervisors of the county shall ascertain that amount and shall levy it and cause it to be collected.

Payment of bonds

4186.21. The principal and interest on the bonds shall be paid by the treasurer of the county in the manner now or hereinafter provided by law for the principal and interest of the bonds of the county.

Article 6. Revenue Bonds

Application Gov. C., §54300, ff

4186.30. A district formed pursuant to the provisions of this chapter is a local agency within the meaning of the Sanitation, Sewer and Water Revenue Bond Law of 1941, and the provisions of that law are applicable to such a district.

Article 7. Change of Boundaries

Alteration of boundaries

4187. The boundaries of any district may be altered, and outlying contiguous territory, whether incorporated or unincorporated, may be annexed as provided in this article.

Annexation petition

4188. A petition signed by 50 or more freeholders in the territory proposed to be annexed, or by a majority of the freeholders if there are less than 100 within the portion proposed to be annexed, designating the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed and asking that it be annexed to the district, shall be presented to the board of supervisors.

Notice

4189. At its first regular meeting after the presentation of the petition, the board of supervisors shall cause notice of the petition to be published in a newspaper published and circulated in the territory sought to be annexed, if there is one, otherwise, by posting copies of the notice in three of the most conspicuous places in the territory proposed to be annexed, for three weeks prior to the date to be fixed by the board for hearing the petition.

Hearing

Upon the date fixed for the hearing, or to which it may be continued, the board of supervisors shall consider the petition, and any objections which may be filed to the inclusion of any property in the district.

Grant of petition

4190. The board of supervisors may by order entered on its minutes grant the petition either in whole or in part, and by order entered on its minutes alter the boundaries of the district to annex all, or such portion of the territory described in the petition as will be benefited by inclusion in the district, and from and after the making of the order, the territory is a part of the district, and shall be taxed, together with the remainder of the district, for all taxes to be thereafter levied by the board of supervisors for the operation and maintenance of the district.

Limitations

4191. No territory which will not be so benefited, or which is not described in the petition, shall be included in the district, and the board shall provide for public hearings for property owners petitioning said board for such hearing and upon proper presentation being made by property owners that property of their ownership is not benefited by the district the board thereupon shall exclude such property from the district.

No city or portion thereof shall be annexed to the districts unless and until the governing body of the city has consented thereto, such consent being adopted by a favorable vote of two-thirds or more of the governing body.

No city or portion thereof shall be annexed to the district unless and until the governing body of the city has consented thereto, such consent being adopted by a favorable vote of two-thirds or more of the governing body.

Withdrawal of territory

4192. Any portion of a district that will not be benefited by remaining in the district may be withdrawn therefrom by the same procedure as is provided for the annexation of territory.

Same

4193. Upon the withdrawal of any territory from a district, all property acquired for the district shall remain vested in the district and be used for the purposes of the district; except, that if a city withdraws from the district, then that part of the money in the county treasury to the credit of the fund of the district shall be paid over to the city in accordance with the ratio that the territory of the city bears to the territory of the entire district. If the district subsequently sells all or a part of any garbage and refuse disposal site acquired by it when such withdrawn territory is a part of the district, a similar proportionate share shall be paid to the territory that has withdrawn from the territory.

Article 8. Dissolution

4194. A district may be dissolved by the board of supervisors as provided in this article. Dissolution

4195. Upon receiving a petition signed by 50 or more freeholders and residents of the district, or by a majority of the freeholders and residents if there are less than 100 freeholders and residents in the district, requesting the dissolution of the district, the board of supervisors shall fix a time for the hearing of the petition, which shall not be less than 10 nor more than 30 days after the receipt of the petition, and shall, at least a week prior to the time so fixed, publish a notice of the hearing by one insertion in a newspaper circulated in the district. Dissolution petition

4196. At the time appointed for the hearing or at any time to which it may be continued, the board of supervisors shall hear and pass upon the petition and may grant or deny it, and its decision thereon is final and conclusive. Action by board

4197. If the petition is granted, the board of supervisors shall by resolution order the dissolution of the district and the district is then dissolved, and its remaining real and personal property shall be sold by the county at public auction to the highest bidder. The proceeds from the sale of such property shall be paid over to the public agencies within the district in accordance with the ratio that the territory of each such public agency within the district bears to the territory of the entire district. Procedure, disposition of property

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are: Urgency

The use of private garbage disposal facilities which are now available to many persons in this State, including the residents of at least three cities, will be terminated shortly and provision must be made so that these persons may form districts which will have the power to render garbage disposal service to them. Since the lack of such services would constitute a serious threat to the public health it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 965

An act to add Section 18101.5 to the Government Code, relating to sick leave of state employees.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18101.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

Rule authorized

18101.5. The State Personnel Board may provide by rule for crediting to the sick leave account of an employee formerly employed by the University of California any unused sick leave standing to the employee's credit at the time of separation as an employee of the University of California; provided, the employee entered other state service not more than six months after separating from his employment with the University of California; and provided, such credit may not exceed the amount it would have been if such employment had been in the state civil service.

An act to amend and renumber Section 25561 of the Government Code added to said code by an act entitled "An act to add Section 4041.5a to the Political Code and Section 25561 to the Government Code, relating to the power of the board of supervisors to provide operas and other entertainment," approved July 10, 1947, relating to powers of boards of supervisors.

Stats 1947, p 2892

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25561 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Los Angeles County Power to provide for opera, etc

25562. In counties having a population in excess of 1,000,000, the board of supervisors may provide, by contract with any person, firm, or corporation, operas, symphonies, band concerts, and historical or commemorative pageants or plays within the county. A charge may be made for attendance at such performances. Such contract shall provide that the management and control of such performances shall be under the supervision of the board of supervisors or shall provide specifically for those matters which cannot legally be delegated by the board of supervisors. Such contract may also provide for the reimbursement of the county, insofar as possible out of any net profits derived therefrom by such person, firm, or corporation.

CHAPTER 967

An act to add Section 11545 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to sewage facilities.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11545 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

11545. The word "person" as used in Sections 11543 and 11544 of this code includes districts formed for the purpose of constructing or maintaining sewers. Charges imposed on such districts pursuant to Section 11544 shall be included in assessments levied for district purposes and in any bonds which may be issued by such districts. "Person"

CHAPTER 968

An act to amend Sections 154, 6500, and 7000 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and to amend and renumber Section 6500.3 to be Section 7000.5 thereof and to amend the heading of Chapter 3 of Part 4 of Division 6 thereof, relating to state institutions under the jurisdiction of the Department of Mental Hygiene.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 154 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

154. The department has jurisdiction over the following institutions: Jurisdiction of department

CHAPTER 969

An act to amend Section 713 of the Vehicle Code, relating to the powers of local authorities with respect to state highways.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 713 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

Reduction of weight limits by cities

713. When Cities May Reduce Weight Limits. (a) Any incorporated city, or city and county may by ordinance prohibit the use of a street to be described in said ordinance by any commercial vehicle or by any vehicle exceeding a maximum gross weight limit to be specified in the ordinance, except with respect to any vehicle which is subject to the provisions of Section 50¼ of the Public Utilities Act.

(b) No such ordinance shall be effective until appropriate signs are erected indicating either those streets affected by such ordinance or those streets not so affected as such local authority may determine will best serve to give notice of such ordinance.

(c) Except as permitted in this section, no city, or city and county shall have any authority to impose limitations upon the weight of vehicles and loads less than those set forth in this code.

(d) No ordinance proposed to be enacted under this section is effective with respect to any highway which is not under the exclusive jurisdiction of the local authority enacting such ordinance, or, in the case of any state highway, until such proposed ordinance has been submitted by the governing body of such local authority to and approved in writing by the Department of Public Works. In submitting such a proposed ordinance to the department for approval, the governing body of such local authority shall designate therein, an alternate route or routes for the use of such vehicles which shall remain unrestricted by any local regulation as to weight limits or types of vehicles so long as the ordinance proposed shall remain in effect. The approval of such proposed ordinance by the Department of Public Works shall constitute an approval by the department of such alternate route or routes so designated.

(e) No ordinance adopted pursuant to this section shall prohibit any commercial vehicles coming from an unrestricted street having ingress and egress by direct route to and from such restricted streets when necessary for the purpose of making pickups or deliveries of goods, wares and merchandise from or to any building or structure located on such restricted streets or for the purpose of delivering materials to be used in the actual and bona fide repair, alteration, remodeling or construction of any building or structure upon such restricted street for which a building permit has previously been obtained therefor.

(f) No ordinance adopted pursuant to this section shall apply to any vehicle owned by a public utility while necessarily in use in the construction, installation or repair of any public utility.

CHAPTER 970

An act to amend Section 26529 of the Government Code, relating to duties of the county counsel.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951 Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26529 of the Government Code is amended to read:

County counsel

26529. In counties which have a county counsel, the county counsel shall discharge all the duties vested in the district attorney by Sections 26520, 26522, 26523, and 26524. The county counsel shall defend or prosecute all civil actions and proceedings in which the county or any of its officers is concerned or is a party. He shall defend all suits for damages instituted against officers or employees or former officers and employees for acts performed by them in furtherance of their duties while in the employ of the county or of any district in the county, the legal services of which are required by law to be performed by him.

CHAPTER 971

An act to amend Sections 3.1, 3.2, and 3.3, and to add Sections 3.5, and 3.6 to the Los Angeles County Flood Control Act, relating to the establishment of zones within the district.

Stats 1915, p 1502

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3.1 of the Los Angeles County Flood Control Act is amended to read:

Establishment of zones

Sec. 3.1. The board of supervisors, by resolution, may from time to time establish a zone or zones within the district for the purpose of financing the acquisition of imported or reclaimed water, or both, which acquisition the board has determined will be of special benefit to the area within any such zone. Water so acquired shall be conserved by the district in a manner beneficial to the zone. Expenditures for the purpose of conserving water so acquired may be made from funds derived from taxes levied pursuant to Section 14 of this act but such expenditures therefrom shall not exceed an amount equal to the amounts levied within the zone under the provisions of said Section 14. Such zone shall be accurately described and shall be designated by a zone number by said resolution, and shall include all territory which will be specially benefited by the conservation of the water so acquired and conserved.

"Public district"

"Imported water"

"Reclaimed water"

As used in Sections 3.1 to 3.6 of this act, the term "public district" shall not include metropolitan water districts, but shall include all other public districts; the term "imported water" shall mean water imported from a source which is not tributary to the ground water supply in the zone; and the term "reclaimed water" shall include water reclaimed from sewage or other wastes, but shall not include waters recaptured or re-used by the owners or producers thereof.

SEC. 2. Section 3.2 of said act is amended to read:

Report by chief engineer

Sec. 3.2. Prior to the hearing on the proposal to establish any zone, as hereinafter provided, the board of supervisors shall by resolution direct the chief engineer of the district to make and file a report with said board of supervisors which shall show:

(1) A general description of the work to be done by the district in conserving water acquired.

(2) A general description of the lands, rights of way, easements and property to be taken, acquired or injured in carrying out such work.

(3) An estimate of the cost of such work, including an estimate of the cost of lands, rights of way, easements and property proposed to be taken, acquired or injured in carrying out said work, and also of all incidental expenses and of all operating, maintenance and other costs likely to be incurred in connection therewith

(4) The proposed boundaries of the zone. For the purposes of the notice of hearing, the proposed boundaries shall be described to include all properties which may be benefited by the proposed zone without regard to the current or proposed use of imported or reclaimed waters on said properties, other than as a result of the work proposed to be done by the district.

Action on report

The report shall be considered by the board of supervisors which may by resolution either adopt the same as filed or refer the report back to the chief engineer of the district for modification or change. When a report satisfactory to said board of supervisors has been filed with such board as aforesaid, the board by resolution shall adopt the report and shall estimate the amounts of all capital expenditures and of all operating, maintenance and other costs necessary to conserve water within the proposed zone.

Hearing and notice

Before establishing any zone under Section 3.1 of this act, the board of supervisors shall hold a public hearing upon the proposal Notice of the hearing shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks, the date of the second publication to be at least 30 days prior to said hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published within the proposed zone, if there be such newspaper, and if there be no such newspaper then by posting notice of the hearing at least 40 days prior thereto in five public places, within said proposed zone, as designated by the board. Notice shall be given to all cities and to all public districts formed for the purpose of supplying water within the proposed zone by mailing a copy of the notice to the chairman of the governing bodies thereof at least 30 days prior to said hearing. Said notice shall describe the boundaries of the proposed zone, shall state whether it is proposed to acquire imported or reclaimed water or both, shall refer to the report of the chief engineer as adopted by the board, shall contain a general statement of the proposed method of conservation as described in said report, and shall set forth the amounts of all capital expenditures and of all operating, maintenance and other costs necessary to conserve water within such proposed zone as so estimated by the board. Said notice also shall contain a statement that written and oral protests against the formation of the zone or the inclusion of property therein will be considered at the time of the hearing, and that if sufficient written protests against the establishment of the zone are filed with the clerk of the board at least 15 days before the date set for the hearing, the proceeding shall be abandoned.

Abandonment of proceedings

If sufficient written protests against the establishment of the proposed zone are filed with the clerk of the board at least 15 days prior to the date set in the notice for the hearing, the proceedings shall be abandoned as hereinafter provided.

Protests

Written protests by property owners shall give the name and address of the protestant and shall describe the taxable real property within the proposed zone assessed to such protestant. The clerk shall transmit such protests, or a list of such properties showing the protestant as to each such property, to the assessor, who shall certify to the board of supervisors whether such properties assessed to such protestants, as shown by the last equalized county assessment roll, have an assessed value in excess of 10 percent of the assessed value of all of the taxable real property within the proposed zone. If the protest is in excess of the said 10 percent the proceeedings shall be abandoned and no further proceeding relating to the creation of a zone affecting such property may be had for at least six months after the date set in the notice for the hearing.

Same

Protests by cities and by public districts formed for the purpose of supplying water shall be in the form of certified copies of resolutions of their governing bodies. If protests are filed which have been adopted by a majority vote of the governing bodies of cities or of public districts formed for the purpose of supplying water, within which cities or public districts or both, there is taxable real property situated within the proposed zone as described in the notice of hearing, having an assessed value equal to not less than 60 percent of the assessed value of all of the taxable real property within the proposed zone as described in said notice of hearing, as shown on the last equalized assessment roll, then the proceedings shall be abandoned and no further proceedings relating to the creation of a zone affecting such property may be had for at least six months after the date set in the notice of hearing.

Hearing procedure

If the proceedings are not terminated by the protests of property owners or by the protests of cities or of public districts formed for the purpose of supplying water, as above provided, the board of supervisors may proceed with the hearing and shall consider such protests and any additional written or oral protests which may be made either against the establishment of the proposed zone or the inclusion therein of any property, or both. The hearing may be continued from time to time but not to exceed 60 days in the aggregate. Upon the conclusion of the hearing the board may abandon the proposal or may adopt a resolution establishing the zone for the purpose specified in the notice, including therein all properties within the described boundaries of the proposed zone which the board finds will be specially benefited thereby.

In determining the properties which will be specially benefited by inclusion in the proposed zone the board shall consider the availability to such properties, other than as a result of said work so proposed to be done by the district, of imported or reclaimed water and the present and contemplated use of such water thereon. Factors in determining benefit

A statement regarding the zone boundaries, or any change thereof, shall be filed as provided in Chapter 8, Part 1, Division 2, Title 5, of the Government Code. Boundary statement filed

SEC. 3. Section 3.3 of said act is amended to read:

Sec. 3.3. Whenever any zone is established pursuant to Section 3.1 of this act, a special tax may be levied each year thereafter by the board of supervisors upon the taxable real property within said zone to defray the cost of acquiring the water for which the zone is established. Said tax in any one fiscal year shall not exceed five cents ($0.05) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation. It shall be in addition to any other taxes provided for by this act, and shall be levied and collected at the same time and in the same manner as such other taxes. All funds collected by reason of said tax shall be expended only on behalf of the zone and only for the purpose of acquiring water or for the purpose of conserving such acquired water, as set forth in the notice of hearing upon the proposal to establish the zone. Special tax levy

Expenditures for the purpose of acquiring imported or reclaimed water, or both, as set out in Section 3.1 of this act, may be made by the district from funds derived from the special tax or taxes levied pursuant to this section upon the taxable real property within such zone established under said Section 3.1, but not from any other funds. No contract for the acquisition of imported or reclaimed water, or both, shall be entered into by the district which does not provide, that, unless sooner terminated, all obligations thereunder shall terminate at the end of any fiscal year during or at the end of which the zone within which the water is to be conserved, is terminated. Expenditures to acquire imported, etc., water

SEC. 4. Section 3.5 is added to said act, to read:

Sec. 3.5. Any part of the land included within an established zone may be excluded therefrom by the board of supervisors if at a hearing on the matter it determines that the exclusion would be for the best interests of the zone, or that the land would no longer be specially benefited by its continued inclusion in the zone and that the land remaining in the zone would continue to be specially benefited by remaining as a zone. The board may order such hearing on its own motion and shall do so upon a petition for exclusion being filed with the clerk of the board, signed by the owners of 10 percent in assessed value of the real property within the area described in the petition or upon receipt by the clerk of a resolution requesting exclusion, adopted by the majority vote of the governing body of any city, or of any public district formed for the purpose of supplying water, all or any part of which is included in the zone. Petitions of property owners must contain a description of the property in which each signer claims ownership, sufficient to Exclusion of land from zone identify the same. The clerk shall transmit such petition to the assessor who shall certify to the board of supervisors whether such properties assessed to such petitioners, as shown on the last equalized assessment roll, have an assessed value of 10 percent or more of the assessed value of all taxable real property within the area sought to be excluded.

Notice of hearing

Notice of such hearing shall be given in the manner described in Section 3.2 and shall contain a description of the land sought to be excluded and a statement of the purpose of the hearing.

Hearing

At the hearing, evidence may be presented concerning either or both of the elements to be determined by the board as a prerequisite to the exclusion of the land described. The hearing may be continued from time to time not to exceed 60 days in the aggregate. If the board so determines, it shall thereupon by resolution declare such land excluded from the zone.

SEC. 5. Section 3.6 is added to said act, to read:

Termination of zone

Sec. 3.6. Any zone established pursuant to Section 3.1 of this act may be terminated by the board of supervisors after a public hearing on the matter. Such hearing may be ordered upon motion of the board, and shall be ordered upon a petition for termination being filed with the clerk of the board, signed by the owners of 10 percent of the taxable real property within the zone as ascertained by reference to the last equalized county assessment roll, or upon the filing with the clerk of a resolution requesting termination adopted by a majority vote of the governing body of any city, or of any public district formed for the purpose of supplying water, all or any part of which is included within the zone. The determination of the percentage of owners of real property signing the petition for termination shall be made and certified to by the assessor in the manner described in Section 3.5.

Notice of hearing

Notice of such hearing shall be given in the manner described in Section 3.2. The notice shall contain a description of the zone, a general statement of its activities, and the purpose of the hearing.

Hearing

At the hearing, evidence may be presented concerning the necessity, or lack thereof, for continuing the zone. The hearing may be continued from time to time not to exceed 60 days in the aggregate. If the board determines that such necessity no longer exists, or that the public interest otherwise requires the termination of the zone, or that the real property is no longer benefited, the board shall thereupon by resolution declare the zone terminated for all purposes except those necessary to finance outstanding contracts. When such contracts have been satisfied the zone will terminate for all purposes, effective at the close of the then current fiscal year.

Termination without hearing

Such a zone shall terminate without hearing at the end of the third or fourth fiscal year during which taxes were, or could have been, levied for zone purposes if certified copies of resolutions requesting such termination are filed with the board of supervisors, as hereinafter provided, on or before 60 days prior to the date of the requested termination. Such resolutions shall be sufficient if adopted by a majority vote of the governing bodies of cities or of public districts formed for the purpose of supplying water within which cities or public districts or both, there is taxable real property situated within the zone having an assessed value equal to not less than 35 percent of the assessed value of all of the taxable real property within the zone, as shown by the equalized assessment roll of such fiscal year.

Same

If not sooner terminated, such zone shall terminate without hearing at the end of the fifth fiscal year during which taxes were, or could have been, levied for zone purposes. A new zone comprising or including all or any part of an original zone which has been terminated pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall not be established if protests are filed with the clerk of the board, at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date set for hearing thereon, which protests have been adopted by a majority vote of the governing bodies of cities or of public districts formed for the purpose of supplying water, within which cities or public districts or both, there is taxable real property situated within the proposed zone as described in the notice of hearing, having an assessed value equal to not less than 35 percent of the assessed value of all of the taxable real property within the proposed zone as described in said notice of hearing, as shown on the last equalized assessment roll.

Funds of terminated zone

Any remaining funds of a terminated zone shall be added to the general funds of the district and shall be expended by the district for water conservation in a manner beneficial to the area within the terminated zone in addition to that normally performed.

CHAPTER 972

An act to amend Section 28141 of the Government Code, relating to the compensation of officers, jurors and witnesses in counties of the forty-first class.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 28141 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Lassen County Salaries

28141. In a county of the forty-first class the following shall receive as compensation for services required of them by law or by virtue of their offices the following sums:

(a) The auditor, eight hundred dollars ($800) a year.

(b) The district attorney, four thousand eight hundred dollars ($4,800) a year.

(c) Each supervisor, two thousand four hundred dollars ($2,400) a year and mileage from his residence to the county seat at each sitting of the board, at twenty-five cents ($0.25) a mile. Each supervisor is, in addition, allowed three hundred dollars ($300) a year to cover mileage expense at twenty-five cents ($0.25) a mile in viewing the roads. These salaries and mileage are in full for all services

(d) Grand jurors and trial jurors shall receive the following fees and mileage:

(1) Grand jurors and jurors in the superior court shall be paid six dollars ($6) a day for each day's attendance, and twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each mile actually traveled in going only, while acting as jurors. The judge of the court shall certify to the auditor the number of days' attendance of each juror and his mileage. The auditor shall draw his warrant on the treasurer in favor of each juror and the treasurer shall pay the warrant.

(2) Trial jurors in any justice's court shall receive four dollars ($4) for each day's attendance, and twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each mile actually traveled in going to, but not from, the place of attendance. The justice of the peace shall certify to the auditor the number of days' attendance of each juror, and the auditor shall draw his warrant therefor, and the treasurer shall pay the warrant.

(e) Witnesses legally required to appear before the grand jury or the superior court shall receive four dollars ($4) for each day's attendance, and ten cents ($0.10) per mile for each mile actually traveled in going to, but not from, the place of appearance.

(f) Witnesses legally required to appear in any justice court or before a coroner's jury shall receive three dollars ($3) for each day's attendance, and ten cents ($0.10) per mile for each mile actually traveled in going to, but not from, the place of appearance.

The compensation provided by this section shall be payable to incumbent officers.

Operative date

SEC. 2 If it is not legally competent to pay the compensation provided by this act to incumbent officers on the effective date of this act, such increase in compensation shall nevertheless be payable to the officers designated in this act as soon as it is legally competent to do so.

CHAPTER 973

An act to amend Section 21802 of the Water Code, relating to elections in irrigation districts.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951 Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21802 of the Water Code is amended to read:

Recall petition

21802. In order to recall an officer a petition shall be filed with the secretary containing all of the following:

(a) Request that an election be called to elect a successor to the officer.

(b) A statement solely for the information of the electors of the grounds on which the recall is sought, any insufficiency in the statement not to affect the sufficiency of this petition, but said grounds must refer to the official conduct of the officer whose recall is being sought.

(c) Signatures of voters in the unit by which the officer or his elected predecessor was elected, at least equal in number to 10 percent of the registered voters in said unit, as shown by the list of eligible voters for the last preceding general election in the district.

(d) The date of each signature, the signer's precinct, his place of residence, giving street and number, and if no street or number exists, then a designation of his place of residence which will enable the location to be readily ascertained, all of which shall be affixed by the signer at the time of his signing.

CHAPTER 974

An act regulating the use of public highways for commercial purposes for the transportation of property for compensation; defining household goods carriers and permitting them to operate as such in this State subject to regulation as provided herein; specifying the powers of the Public Utilities Commission; prescribing penalties for violations of this act; and repealing parts of acts inconsistent herewith; and adding Chapter 7, comprising Sections 5101 to 5319, inclusive, to Division 2 of the Public Utilities Code; all relating to household goods carriers.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951 Filed with Secretary of State June 11, 1951]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act may be cited as the "Household Goods Carriers Act." Short title

SEC. 2. The use of the public highways for the transportation of property for compensation is a business affected with a public interest. It is the purpose of this act to preserve for the public the full benefit and use of public highways consistent with the needs of commerce without unnecessary congestion or wear and tear upon such highways; to secure to the people just and reasonable rates for transportation by carriers operating upon such highways; and to secure full and unrestricted flow of traffic by motor carriers over such highways which will adequately meet reasonable public demands by providing for the regulation of rates of all transportation agencies so that adequate and dependable service by all necessary transportation agencies shall be maintained and the full use of the highways preserved to the public. Declaration of purpose

Construction

SEC. 3. (a) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions and general provisions set forth in this section govern the construction of this act.

(b) In construing and enforcing the provisions of this act relating to penalties, the act, omission, or failure of any officer, agent, or employee of any person or corporation, acting within the scope of his official duties or employment, is the act, omission, or failure of the employing person or corporation.

Stats. 1915, p. 115
Stats. 1935, p. 878

Prohibited acts

SEC. 7. (a) No household goods carrier shall engage in such business for compensation by motor vehicle over any public highway in this State, except in accordance with the provisions of this act which is enacted under the power of the State to regulate the use of public highways.

(b) Each household goods carrier shall display on each vehicle operated by it an identification symbol in such form and in accordance with such rules and regulations as the commission may prescribe.

Permits. SEC. 8. (a) Except as provided in this section, no household goods carrier shall engage in the business of the transportation of used, uncrated household goods and personal effects, office, store, and institution furniture and fixtures for compensation, by motor vehicle over any public highway in this State, unless there is in force a permit issued by the commission authorizing such operations.

(b) Any person or corporation who was engaged in the business of transporting used uncrated household goods and personal effects, office, store, and institution furniture and fixtures over any public highway in this State for compensation on the effective date of this section and thereafter may file with the commission prior to January 1, 1952, an application for a permit as provided in Section 9 The commission shall upon satisfactory proof of such operation issue such permit authorizing operation within the area requested in the application without further proceedings. Between the effective date hereof and the final determination of any such application the continuance of such operations shall be lawful.

Application. SEC. 9. Application for permits shall be in writing, verified under oath, and shall be in such form, contain such information, and be accompanied by proof of service upon such interested parties as the commission requires.

Requirements. SEC. 10. Except as provided in subdivisions (b) of Section 8, before a permit is hereafter issued the commission shall require the applicant to establish ability and reasonable financial responsibility to initiate the proposed operations. The commission may, with or without hearing, issue or refuse to issue the permit. If the commission finds that the applicant possesses the ability and financial responsibility to initiate the proposed operations, it shall issue a permit as prayed for.

Fees. SEC. 11. Each application for issuance of a permit under this act shall be accompanied by a fee of fifty dollars ($50).

The filing fee for an application for transfer of a permit is twenty-five dollars ($25).

All fees paid to the commission under this act shall be deposited in the Transportation Rate Fund.

Liability protection. SEC. 12. The commission shall, in granting permits pursuant to this act, require the household goods carrier to procure, and continue in effect during the life of the permit, adequate protection, against liability imposed by law upon the carrier for the payment of damages for personal bodily injuries, including death resulting therefrom, in the amount of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) on account of bodily injuries to, or death of, one person; and protection against a total liability of the household goods carrier on account of bodily injuries to, or death of, more than one person, as a result of any one accident, in the amount of not less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000); and protection in an amount of not less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for one accident resulting in damage or destruction of property whether the property of one, or more than one claimant.

Cargo insurance

The commission may, upon its own motion or upon the application of any interested party, and after hearing, require any household goods carrier to procure and maintain cargo insurance in such amounts and upon such terms as the commission may determine.

Evidence of protection

The protection required under this section shall be evidenced by the deposit with the commission covering each vehicle used or to be used under the permit applied for,

(1) Of a policy or policies of insurance, issued by a company licensed to write such insurance in the State; or

(2) Of a bond of a surety company licensed to write surety bonds in the State.

With the consent of the commission a copy of an insurance policy, certified by the company issuing it to be a true copy of the original policy, or a photostatic copy thereof, or an abstract of the provisions of the policy, or a certificate of insurance issued by the company issuing the policy, may be filed with the commission in lieu of the original or a duplicate or counterpart of the policy.

The protection against liability shall be continued in effect during the active life of the permit. The policy of insurance or surety bond shall not be cancelable on less than thirty (30) days written notice to the commission.

Establishment of rules

The commission may establish such rules as are necessary to enforce this section.

Establishment, etc., of rates

SEC. 13. (a) The commission shall, upon complaint or upon its own initiative without complaint, establish or approve just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory maximum or minimum or maximum and minimum rates to be charged by any household goods carrier for the transportation of property subject to this act and for accessorial service performed in connection therewith.

In establishing or approving such rates the commission shall give due consideration to the cost of all of the transportation services performed, including length of haul, any additional transportation service performed, or to be performed, to, from, or beyond the regularly established termini of common carriers or of any accessorial service, the value of the commodity transported, and the value of the facility reasonably necessary to perform the transportation service.

(b) In the event the commission establishes minimum rates for transportation services by household goods carriers, the rates shall not exceed the current rates of common carriers by land subject to the Public Utilities Act for the transportation of the same kind of property between the same points.

(c) It is unlawful for any household goods carrier to charge or collect any lesser rate than the minimum rate or greater rate than the maximum rate established by the commission under this section.

(d) The commission shall make such rules as are necessary to the application and enforcement of the rates established or approved pursuant to this act.

(e) If any household goods carrier desires to perform any transportation or accessorial service at a lesser rate than the minimum established rates, the commission shall, upon finding that the proposed rate is reasonable, authorize the lesser rate.

Prohibited acts

SEC. 14. (a) No household goods carrier shall charge, demand, collect, or receive for the transportation of property subject to this act, or for any service in connection therewith, rates or charges less than the minimum rates and charges or greater than the maximum rates and charges applicable to such transportation established or approved by the commission; nor shall any such carrier directly or indirectly pay any commission or refund, or remit in any manner or by any device any portion of the rates or charges so specified, except upon authority of the commission.

(b) No household goods carrier, or any officer, or agent thereof, or any person acting or employed by it, shall, by means of known false billing, classification, weight, weighing or report of weight, or by any other device, assist, suffer, or permit any corporation or person to obtain transportation for any property between points within this State at rates less than the minimum rates or more than the maximum rates than established or approved by the commission.

(c) No person, corporation, or any officer, agent, or employee of a corporation shall, by means of false billing, false or incorrect classification, false weight or weighing, false representation as to the content or substance of a package, or false report or statement of weight, or by any other device or means, whether with or without the consent or connivance of a household goods carrier, or any of its officers, agents, or employees, seek to obtain or obtain transportation for property at less than the minimum rates or charges or more than the maximum rates or charges established or approved by the commission.

(d) No person or corporation, or any officer, agent, or employee of a corporation, shall knowingly, directly or indirectly by any false statement or representation as to cost or value or the nature or extent of damage, or by the use of any false billing, bill of lading, receipt, voucher, roll, account, claim, certificate, affidavit or deposition, or upon any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or entry, obtain or attempt to obtain any allowance, rebate, or payment for damage in connection with or growing out of the transportation of property subject to this act, or an agreement to transport property subject to this act, whether with or without the consent or connivance of a household goods carrier, or any of its officers, agents, or employees. No household goods carrier or any of its officers, agents, or employees shall knowingly pay, or offer to pay any such allowance, rebate, or claim for damage.

Requirement of reports, etc

SEC. 15. (a) The commission may require annual, periodical, or special reports to be filed by all household goods carriers, prescribe the manner and form in which reports shall be made, and may require specific answers to all questions upon which the commission deems information to be necessary. The reports shall be under oath whenever the commission so requires.

(b) The commission may require any household goods carrier to file with it a true copy of any contract, agreement, or arrangement between the carrier and any other carrier in relation to any traffic affected by this act.

Forms of accounts, etc

(c) The commission may prescribe the forms of any accounts, records, and memoranda, including those pertaining to the movement of traffic and the receipt or expenditure of money, to be kept by household goods carriers, and the length of time the accounts, records, and memoranda shall be preserved.

(d) Where the commission has prescribed the forms of accounts, records, and memoranda to be kept by household goods carriers for any of its business, it is unlawful for any household goods carrier to keep any accounts, records, or memoranda for such business other than those so prescribed or those prescribed by or under the authority of any other state or of the United States, excepting such accounts, records, or memoranda as are explanatory of and supplemental to the accounts, records, or memoranda prescribed by the commission.

(e) The commission or its authorized employees, representatives, or inspectors shall at all times have access to all lands, buildings, or equipment of household goods carriers used in connection with the operation of their business as such carriers in this State, and also all accounts, records, and memoranda, including all documents, books, papers, and correspondence kept or required to be kept by household goods carriers.

Inspection, etc

(f) The employees, representatives, and inspectors of the commission may, under its order or direction, inspect and examine any lands, buildings, equipment, accounts, books, records, and memoranda, including all documents, papers, and correspondence kept or required to be kept by household goods carriers.

(g) This section shall, to the extent deemed necessary by the commission, apply to persons having control, direct or indirect, over or affiliated with any household goods carrier.

Penalty for divulging information

(h) Any employee of the commission who divulges any fact or information which comes to his knowledge during the course of the examination of the accounts, records, and memoranda of household goods carriers, except as he is authorized or directed by the commission or by a court of competent jurisdiction or judge thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three (3) months, or both.

Procedure

SEC. 16. (a) Except as otherwise expressly provided, in all respects in which the commission has power and authority under the Constitution of this State or this act, applications and complaints may be made and filed with the commission, process issued, hearings held, opinions, orders, and decisions made and filed, petitions for rehearing filed and acted upon, and petitions for writs of review or mandate filed with the Supreme Court of this State, considered and disposed of by the Supreme Court, in regard to the matters provided for in this act, in the same manner, under the same conditions and subject to the same limitations, and with the same effect specified in the Public Utilities Act, so far as applicable. Stats. 1915, p. 115

(b) Service of all process and orders instituting investigation in all proceedings, complaints, investigations, or hearings brought or pending before the commission pursuant to this act, may be made upon any person upon whom a summons may be served, in accordance with the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) Service of all process and orders, decisions and orders, orders and notices in all such proceedings, investigations, complaints and hearings may be made personally or by the deposit in the United States mail of a sealed envelope with postage prepaid, containing a true copy of the paper to be served and addressed to the person to be served at his last known address as shown by the records of the commission.

(d) Service by personal delivery is complete upon delivery to the person to be served of a true copy of the paper to be served. Service by mail is complete upon the expiration of four days after the deposit of the notice.

Proof of service may be made by the certificate of any officer or employee of the commission or the affidavit of any person over the age of 18 years, naming the person served and specifying the time, place, and manner of service.

(e) In all proceedings instituted by or pending before the commission pursuant to this act, the commission may from time to time make such interim, interlocutory, or other orders as it deems advisable. No such order shall operate as a final determination of the proceeding, and the commission may at any time thereafter make such further orders as it deems advisable with respect to the matters considered and determined in the order or to other matters involved in the proceeding.

(f) After the making of an interim, interlocutory, or other order, any party to the proceeding or any stockholder or bondholder or other party pecuniarily interested in the household goods carrier affected may file a petition for rehearing, within the time and for the reasons provided in Section 66, Public Utilities Act, and the commission may act upon the petition within the time and in the manner provided therein.

(g) Any interim, interlocutory, or other order may be reviewed as provided in Section 67, Public Utilities Act. Upon such review, only that portion of the record in the proceeding considered by the commission and upon which it acted in making the order sought to be reviewed, need be certified to and considered by the Supreme Court.

SEC. 17. No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing any book, document, paper, or Self incrimination, etc account in any investigation or inquiry by or hearing before the commission or any commissioner or examiner, or in obedience to the subpena of the commission, or in any cause or proceeding, criminal or otherwise, based upon or growing out of any alleged violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, when ordered to do so, upon the ground that the testimony or evidence, book, document, paper, or account required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to penalty or forfeiture, but no person shall be prosecuted, punished, or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any act, transaction, matter, or thing concerning which, under oath, he has testified or produced documentary evidence before the commission, or in obedience to its subpena, or in any such cause or proceeding. No person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution or punishment for any perjury committed by him in his testimony.

Immunity

Suspension of permit

SEC. 18. The commission may, at the request of any household goods carrier, suspend the operating permit of the carrier for a definite time during which it is unlawful for the carrier to conduct any operations as a household goods carrier.

Upon such suspension of a permit the commission shall thereupon require the removal from any vehicle operated thereunder and the surrender to the commission of any distinctive symbols or license plates which have been issued therefor.

Upon the termination of the period of suspension the commission shall restore the permit and return to the carrier the distinctive symbols or license plates surrendered or issue such other symbols or license plates as are necessary.

Permit: Duration

SEC. 19. (a) A permit shall remain in effect until suspended or terminated as herein provided; provided, however, that any permit not exercised for a period of six (6) months shall lapse and terminate. No permit hereunder shall be sold, leased, assigned or otherwise transferred or encumbered by the holder thereof without first having secured from the commission an order authorizing the same. Any such sale, lease, assignment, transfer or encumbrance made otherwise than in accordance with the order of the commission authorizing the same shall be void.

Transfer

Grounds for cancellation, etc

(b) The commission may cancel, revoke, or suspend the operating permit or permits of any household goods carrier upon any of the following grounds:

(1) Any illegally conducted household goods carrier operations.

(2) The violation of any of the provisions of this act or of any operating permit issued thereunder.

(3) The violation of any order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, or requirement established by the commission pursuant to this act.

(4) The conviction of the household goods carrier of any misdemeanor under this act.

(5) The rendition of a judgment against the household goods carrier for any penalty imposed under this act.

(6) The failure of a household goods carrier to pay any fee imposed upon the carrier within the time required by law.

(c) After the cancellation or revocation of a permit or during the period of its suspension, it is unlawful for a household goods carrier to conduct any operations as such a carrier. The commission may either grant or deny an application for a new permit whenever it appears that a prior permit of the applicant has been canceled or revoked pursuant to subdivision (b) hereof, or whenever it appears, after hearing, that as a prior permit holder, the applicant engaged in any of the unlawful activities set forth in subdivision (b) hereof for which his permit might have been canceled or revoked. New permit

SEC. 20. (a) Whenever the commission is of the opinion that any household goods carrier is failing or omitting or about to fail or omit, to do anything required of it by law, or by any order, decision, rule, direction, or requirement of the commission, or is doing anything or about to do anything, or permitting anything or about to permit anything to be done, in violation of law or of any order, decision, rule, direction, or requirement of the commission, it may direct the attorney of the commission to commence an action or proceeding in the superior court in and for the county, or city and county, in which the cause or some part thereof arose, or in which the corporation complained of has its principal place of business, or in which the person complained of resides, for the purpose of having such violations or threatened violations stopped and prevented, either by mandamus or injunction. The attorney of the commission shall thereupon begin such action or proceeding in the name of the people of the State of California, by petition to such superior court, alleging the violation or threatened violation complained of and praying for appropriate relief by way of mandamus or injunction. Mandamus or injunction

(b) Upon the filing of such a petition, the court shall specify a time, not exceeding 20 days after the service of the copy of the petition, within which the household goods carrier complained of shall answer the petition, and in the meantime the carrier may be restrained. In case of default in answer, or after answer, the court shall immediately inquire into the facts and circumstances of the case. Such corporations or persons as the court deems necessary or proper to be joined as parties, in order to make its judgment, order or writ effective, may be joined as parties. The final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall either dismiss the action or proceeding or direct that the writ of mandamus or injunction issue or be made permanent as prayed for in the petition, or in such modified or other form as will afford appropriate relief. An appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court from such final judgment in the same manner and with the same effect as appeals are taken from judgments of the superior court in other actions for mandamus or injunction. Procedure

SEC. 21. (a) Every household goods carrier and every officer, director, agent, or employee of any household goods car- Penalty rier who violates or who fails to comply with, or who procures, aids, or abets any violation by any household goods carrier of any provision of this act, or who fails to obey, observe, or comply with any order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission, or of any operating permit issued to any household goods carrier, or who procures, aids, or abets any household goods carrier in its failure to obey, observe, or comply with any such order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, requirement, or operating permit, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is punishable by fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three months, or both.

Same

(b) Every corporation or person other than a household goods carrier, who knowingly and wilfully, either individually, or acting as an officer, agent, or employee of a corporation, copartnership, or any other person other than a household goods carrier, violates any provision of this act or fails to observe, obey, or comply with any order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission, or who procures, aids, or abets any household goods carrier in its violation of this act, or in its failure to obey, observe, or comply with any such order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, or requirement, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three months, or both.

Same

(c) Every household goods carrier and every officer, director, agent, or employee of any household goods carrier who violates or who fails to comply with, or who procures, aids, or abets, any violation by any household goods carrier of any provision of this act, or who fails to obey, observe, or comply with any order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission, or of any operating permit issued to any household goods carrier, or who procures, aids, or abets any household goods carrier in its failure to obey, observe, or comply with any such order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, requirement, or operating permit, is subject to a penalty of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense.

Same

(d) Every corporation or person other than a household goods carrier who knowingly and wilfully, either individually, or acting as an officer, agent, or employee of a corporation, copartnership, or any other person other than a household goods carrier, violates any provision of this act or fails to observe, obey, or comply with any order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission, or who procures, aids, or abets any household goods carrier in its violation of this chapter, or in its failure to obey, observe, or comply with any such order, decision, rule, regulation, direction, demand, or requirement, is subject to a penalty of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense.

(e) Every violation of the provisions of this act or of any order, decision, decree, rule, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission by any corporation or person is a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation each day's continuance thereof is a separate and distinct offense. Multiple violations

(f) All penalties accruing under this act are cumulative, and a suit for the recovery of one penalty does not bar or affect the recovery of any other penalty or forfeiture or bar any criminal prosecution against any person or corporation, or any officer, director, agent or employee thereof, or any other corporation or person, or bar the exercise by the commission of its power to punish for contempt. Cumulative penalties

SEC. 22. (a) Actions to recover penalties under this act shall be brought in the name of the people of the State of California, in the superior court of the county, or city and county, in which the cause or some part thereof arose, or in which the corporation complained of, if any, has its principal place of business, or in which the person, if any, complained of, resides. The action shall be commenced and prosecuted to final judgment by the attorney of the commission. Procedure

(b) In any such action, all penalties incurred up to the time of the commencement of the action may be sued for and recovered. In all such actions, the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as in ordinary civil actions.

(c) All penalties recovered by the State in any action pursuant to this act, together with the costs thereof, shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the General Fund. Any such action may be compromised or discontinued on application of the commission upon such terms as the court approves and orders.

SEC. 23. If any provision of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. Invalidity

SEC. 24. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that the transportation of used and uncrated household goods, personal effects, office, store and institution furniture and fixtures in any truck or trailer for compensation over any public highway in this State is a highly specialized type of truck transportation and that the provisions of this act have been enacted for the limited purpose of providing necessary regulation for said specialized type of truck transportation only, and are not to be construed for any purpose as a precedent for the extension of such regulation to any other type of truck transportation not presently so restricted. Declaration of legislative intent

28312. The provisions of this article in reference to sterilization procedures and methods in cleaning bottles, as in this article defined, shall apply to all persons cleaning previously used bottles who are engaged in the business of packaging food, drugs, or liquors and to all persons maintaining a place of business for the cleaning and resale of such bottles sold for and to be used for packing a food, drug or liquor. Application of provisions

The sale for use of any such bottle by any person not licensed by the board as herein provided, when the use intended by purchaser is to package for sale a food, drug or liquor produced or packaged by such purchaser is unlawful, except in the case of a sale to a purchaser for export out of this State or who is engaged in the business of packaging food, drugs or liquors at a fixed place of business in this State and is equipped to cleanse and sterilize bottles as in this article provided. Unlawful sale Exception

SEC. 6. Section 28314 of said code is amended to read:

Standards

28314. An establishment is deemed properly equipped for the cleansing and sterilization of bottles if it maintains and employs the following standards:

(a) Cleanses and sterilizes bottles by first soaking them in a hot caustic solution of not less than 120 degrees F. for a period of not less than five minutes which temperature shall be indicated by a thermometer. The solution shall contain not less than 2½ percent of caustic soda expressed in terms of sodium hydrates.

(b) Changes the cleansing solution frequently so as to prevent its becoming foul and insanitary.

(c) Thoroughly rinses the bottles after the soaking.

SEC. 7. Section 28299 is added to said code, to read:

California Food Sanitation Act

28299. The sections contained in Article 1 of Chapter 7 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code are to be known as the California Food Sanitation Act.

SEC. 8. Section 28280.1 is added to said code, to read:

"Food processing establishment"

28280.1. "Food processing establishment," as used in this chapter, shall mean any room, building or place or portion thereof, maintained, used or operated for the purpose of commercially storing, packaging, making, cooking, mixing, processing, bottling, canning, packing, slaughtering or otherwise preparing or handling food except restaurants.

SEC. 9. Section 28281 of said code is amended to read:

Proper lighting, etc

28281. Every food processing establishment shall be properly lighted, drained, plumbed, and ventilated; and shall be conducted with strict regard to the influence of lighting, drainage, plumbing, and ventilation upon the health of persons therein employed, and upon the purity and wholesomeness of the food therein produced, prepared for sale, manufactured, packed, stored, kept, handled, sold, or distributed.

SEC. 10. The heading of Chapter 7 of Division 21 of said code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 7. FOOD SANITATION

CHAPTER 989

An act to amend Sections 19533, 19533.1, 19533.2, 19534, 19535, 19536, 19537, and 19397 of, and to add Section 19533.3 to, the Government Code, relating to layoff or demotion in the state civil service.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19533 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Layoffs Efficiency and seniority

19533. Layoff shall be made in accordance with the relative efficiency and seniority of the employees in the class of layoff. Except as otherwise provided in this part, in determining seniority, one point shall be allowed for each complete month of full-time state service in the class of layoff or demotion and in classes that, at the time notice of layoff is given, have the same or a higher maximum salary. One-half point shall be allowed for each complete month of full-time state service in all other classes. Board rules shall establish: (a) the basis for taking into account relative efficiency; (b) the extent to which seniority credits may be granted for less than full-time service; (c) the seniority credit to be granted for service in a class that has been abolished, combined, divided, or otherwise altered under the authority of Section 18802; (d) the basis of determining the sequence of layoff whenever the class and subdivision of layoff includes employees whose service is less than full time; and (e) such other matters as are necessary or advisable to the operation of the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 19533.1 of said code is amended to read:

Order of layoff due to reinstatement after military service

19533.1. Separations that are necessary by reason of reinstatement of an employee or employees after recognized military service as provided for in Section 19390 shall be made by layoff. In making such separations, the regular method of determining the order of layoff shall be used unless this would result in the layoff of an employee who has been reinstated in the class and subdivision of layoff under the provisions of Section 19390, and in the retention of an employee who was appointed in the class and subdivision of layoff during the time such a reinstated employee was on military leave. Under such circumstances, seniority shall not be counted as provided in Section 19533. Instead, service in the subdivision of layoff that qualifies under Section 19533 for credit at the rate of one point a month is the only state service that shall be counted.

Whenever such a layoff results in the demotion to a lower class of an employee who has been reinstated after recognized military service as provided in Section 19390, the resulting layoff, if any, in the lower class shall be made as though that reinstated employee had been in that lower class at the time he went on military leave.

Until such time as the next regular report of performance has been filed for him, an employee reinstated as provided in Section 19390 shall be presumed, only for purposes of layoff determinations, to have an efficiency rating equal to the highest efficiency rating of any employee in the class and subdivision of layoff.

Any layoff occurring within one year after reinstatement of an employee after recognized military service shall be presumed to have been necessary by reason of reinstatement of an employee or employees under Section 19390.

SEC. 3. Section 19533.2 of said code is amended to read:

Veterans

19533.2. A veteran, except a veteran who was reinstated from military leave, shall in the event of layoff receive seniority credit for recognized military service only as follows:

(a) The veteran must have entered the state service within one year after date of discharge or the end of the national emergency or the end of the state military emergency, whichever of these dates is the earlier, or; if more than one year has elapsed, he shall receive such credit if he had no intervening employment other than seasonal or temporary work.

(b) Such credit for recognized military service shall be computed as if it were service in the class to which the employee was first given permanent civil service or exempt appointment after his entry into the state service following recognized military service.

(c) Such seniority credits shall be forfeited in the event of a break in service as provided in Section 19143.

SEC. 4. Section 19533.3 is added to said code, to read:

Reinstated veteran Layoff seniority credits

19533.3. A veteran who was reinstated from military leave shall receive layoff seniority credits for the time spent on such leave on the same basis as if it were service in the class with the highest maximum salary to which he received appointment within one year after his return from such leave. Such seniority credits shall be forfeited in the event of a break in service as provided in Section 19143.

SEC. 5. Section 19534 of said code is amended to read:

Order of layoffs

19534. The employees in the class under consideration having the lowest combined scores for efficiency and seniority, up to the number of positions to be abolished or discontinued, shall be laid off. As between two or more such employees who have the same score veterans shall have preference in retention. Other ties shall be resolved according to board rule which shall take into consideration relative efficiency, relative length of state service and other matters of record before names are drawn by lot.

SEC. 6. Section 19535 of said code is amended to read:

Demotion in lieu of layoff

19535. In lieu of being laid off an employee may elect demotion to: (a) any class with the same or a lower maximum salary in which he had served under permanent or probationary status, or (b) a class in the same line of work as the class of layoff, but of lesser responsibility, if such a class is designated by the board. Whenever such a demotion requires a layoff in the lower class, the seniority score for the demoted employee shall be recomputed in the lower class. To be considered for demotion in lieu of layoff an employee must notify his appointing power in writing of such election not later than 10 calendar days after receiving notice of layoff.

Demotions in lieu of layoff, and layoffs resulting therefrom, shall be governed by the provisions of this article and shall be made within the subdivisions approved by the board for this purpose.

SEC. 7. Section 19536 of said code is amended to read:

Replaced employee Option of demotion

19536. Any employee replaced by such demotion has the same option of demotion afforded by Section 19535 as if his position had been abolished or discontinued.

Any employee demoted pursuant to this article shall receive the maximum of the salary range of the class to which he is demoted; provided, that such salary is not greater than the salary he received at the higher classification at the time of demotion.

SEC. 8. Section 19537 of said code is amended to read:

19537. The names of employees to be laid off or demoted shall be placed upon the re-employment list for the subdivision, if such a subdivision was designated, upon the departmental re-employment list and upon the general re-employment list, for the class from which the employees were laid off or demoted. The board may also place such names upon the general re-employment list for such other appropriate classes as the board determines. Re-employment lists

SEC. 9. Section 19397 of said code is amended to read:

19397. Time spent on military leave, including rehabilitation afforded by the United States or the State following recognized military service by any person who has an absolute right to be restored to his former position in the state civil service shall be considered as time spent in state service for the purpose of computing rights to merit salary adjustments at the time of return to state service. Seniority rights and salary adjustments

An act to amend Section 525.1 of the Vehicle Code, relating to the operation of motor vehicles.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 525.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

525.1. Driving in Right Hand Lane. Notwithstanding the prima facie speed limits, upon all highways any vehicle proceeding at less than the normal speed of traffic thereon shall be driven in the right hand lane for traffic or as close as practicable to the right hand edge or curb, except when overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction or when preparing for a left turn at an intersection or into a private road or driveway. Driving in right hand lane

CHAPTER 991

An act to amend Section 585 of the Vehicle Code, relating to authority of officers.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 585 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

Removal of vehicles from highways; When authorized

585. When Officers Authorized to Remove Vehicles From Highways. (a) It is unlawful for any peace officer or any unauthorized person to remove any unattended vehicle from a highway to a garage or from said highway to any other place, except as provided in this section.

(b) Any member of the California Highway Patrol or any regularly employed and salaried deputy of the sheriff's office of a county in which a vehicle is located or any regularly employed and salaried officer of a police department in a city in which a vehicle is located is hereby authorized to remove a vehicle from a highway to the nearest garage or other place of safety or to a garage designated or maintained by the governmental agency of which the officer is a member only under the circumstances hereinafter enumerated.

(1) When any vehicle is left unattended upon any bridge, viaduct or causeway or in any tube or tunnel where such vehicle constitutes an obstruction to traffic.

(2) When any vehicle is illegally parked so as to block the entrance to a private driveway and it is impracticable to move such vehicle from in front of the driveway to another point on the highway.

(3) When any vehicle is found upon a highway and report has previously been made that such vehicle has been stolen or complaint has been filed and a warrant thereon issued charging that such vehicle has been embezzled.

(4) When any such officer has reasonable ground to believe that any vehicle upon a highway has been abandoned.

(5) When a vehicle upon a highway is so disabled as to constitute an obstruction to traffic and the person or persons in charge of the vehicle are by reason of physical injuries incapacitated to such an extent as to be unable to provide for its custody or removal.

(6) When an officer arrests any person driving or in control of a vehicle for an alleged offense and such officer is by this code or other law required to take the person arrested immediately before a magistrate.

(7) When a vehicle is illegally parked on a highway in violation of local ordinance forbidding standing or parking and the use of a highway or a portion thereof is necessary for repair, construction, the installation of underground utilities or where the use of the highway or any portion thereof is authorized by local authorities for a purpose other than the normal flow of traffic; or for the movement of equipment, articles or structures of unusual size; and the parking of such vehicle would prohibit or interfere with such use or movement and signs are erected or placed at least 24 hours prior to the removal by local authorities pursuant to ordinance.

Notice of removal, etc

(c) Whenever an officer removes a vehicle from a highway as authorized in this section and the officer knows or is able to ascertain from the registration records in the vehicle or from the registration records of the department the name and address of the owner thereof, such officer shall immediately give or cause to be given notice in writing to such owner of the fact of such removal, the grounds thereof and of the place to which such vehicle has been removed. In the event any such vehicle is stored in a public garage a copy of such notice shall be given to the proprietor of such garage.

Notice to department

(d) Whenever an officer removing a vehicle from a highway under this section does not know and is not able to ascertain the name of the owner or for any other reason is unable to give the notice to the owner as hereinbefore provided and in the event the vehicle is not returned to the owner within a period of 120 hours, then and in that event the officer shall immediately send or cause to be sent written report of such removal by mail to the department at Sacramento and shall file a copy of such notice with the proprietor of any public garage in which the vehicle may be stored. Such report shall be made on a form furnished by the department and shall include a complete description of the vehicle, the date, time and place from which removed, the grounds for such removal and the name of the garage or place where the vehicle is stored.

Notice by department

(e) The department upon receiving a notice as hereinbefore provided of the removal of any vehicle from a highway shall notify the registered and legal owner in writing at the addresses of such persons as shown by the records of the department, if the vehicle is registered in this State, of the removal of such vehicle, and give the name of the police officer reporting such removal, the grounds upon which the removal was authorized and the location of the vehicle. If the vehicle is not registered in this State, the department shall make reasonable effort to notify the legal or registered owner of the removal and location of the vehicle.

Garage keeper's lien

(f) Whenever any vehicle has been removed to a garage under the provisions of this section and the keeper of such garage has received the notice or notices from the arresting officer as provided herein, said keeper shall have a lien dependent upon possession for his compensation for towage and for caring for and keeping safe such vehicle for a period not exceeding 90 days and, if said vehicle is not recovered by the owner within said 90 days or the owner is unknown, the keeper of said garage may satisfy his lien in the manner and after giving the notices required in Sections 427, 428, 428.5, and 429 of this code

CHAPTER 997

An act to amend Section 11 and to add Section 11.1 to the County Water Authority Act, Chapter 545, Statutes of 1943 as amended, relating to county water authorities.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11 of the County Water Authority Act is amended to read:

Exclusion of territory

Sec. 11. (a) Exclusion of territory from any county water authority may be effected by either of the following methods:

Territory excluded from corporate area of public agency

(1) Territory excluded from that portion of the corporate area of any public agency which lies within the exterior boundaries of a county water authority, said public agency being a unit of said authority, and which exclusion occurs in accordance with the provisions of law applicable to such exclusions, shall thereby be excluded from and shall no longer be a part of such authority; provided, that the taxable property within such excluded territory shall continue taxable by such county water authority for the purpose of paying the bonded or other indebtedness outstanding or contracted for at the time of such exclusion and until such bonded or other indebtedness shall have been satisfied; provided, further, that if the taxable property within such excluded territory or any part thereof shall be, at the time of such exclusion, subject to special taxes levied, or to be levied, by such county water authority pursuant to terms and conditions theretofore fixed under the provisions of paragraph (c) or paragraph (d) of Section 10 of this act for the annexation of such excluded territory or part thereof to such county water authority, the taxable property within such excluded territory or part thereof so subject to such special taxes shall continue taxable by such county water authority for the purpose of raising the aggregate sum or sums to be raised by the levy of special taxes upon taxable property within the respective annexing area or areas pursuant to terms and conditions for such annexation or annexations as so fixed and until such aggregate sum or sums shall have been so raised by such special tax levies.

Corporate area of public agency as a unit

(2) Any public agency whose corporate area as a unit shall have become or is a part of any county water authority may obtain the exclusion of such area therefrom in the following manner:

Election

The governing body of any such public agency may submit to the electors thereof at any general or special election the proposition of excluding from such county water authority the corporate area of such public agency. Notice of such election shall be given in the manner provided in paragraph (c) of Section 10 hereof. Such election shall be conducted and the returns thereof canvassed in the maner provided by law for the conduct of elections in said public agency. In the event that the majority of electors voting thereon vote in favor of such withdrawal, the result thereof shall be certified by the governing body of such public agency to the board of directors of the county water authority. A certificate of the proceedings hereunder shall be made by the secretary of the county water authority and filed with the Secretary of State; and upon the filing of such certificate the corporate area of such public agency shall be excluded from the said county water authority and shall no longer be a part thereof; provided, that the taxable property within such excluded area shall continue taxable by said county water authority for the purpose of paying the bonded and other indebtedness of said county water authority outstanding or contracted for at the time of such exclusion and until such bonded or other indebtedness shall have been satisfied; provided, further, that if the taxable property within such excluded area or any part thereof shall be, at the time of such exclusion, subject to special taxes levied or to be levied by said county water authority pursuant to terms and conditions theretofore fixed under the provisions of paragraph (c) or paragraph (d) of Section 10 of this act for the annexation of such excluded area or part thereof to said county water authority, the taxable property within such excluded area or part thereof so subject to such special taxes shall continue taxable by said county water authority for the purpose of raising the aggregate sum or sums to be raised by the levy of special taxes upon taxable property within the respective annexing area or areas pursuant to terms and conditions for such annexation or annexations as so fixed and until such aggregate sum or sums shall have been so raised by such special tax levies. Upon the filing in his office of the aforesaid certificate of proceedings the Secretary of State shall, within 10 days, issue his certificate, reciting the filing of said papers in his office and the exclusion of the corporate area of such public agency from such county water authority. The Secretary of State shall transmit the original of his said certificate to the secretary of such county water authority and shall forward a certified copy thereof to the county clerk of the county in which such county water authority is situated.

Description of boundaries

(b) Whenever territory is excluded from any public agency in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a) of this section, the governing body, or clerk, of such public agency shall file with the board of directors of such county water authority a statement of the change of boundaries of such public agency, setting forth the legal description of the boundaries of such public agency, as so changed, and of the part thereof within such county water authority, which statement shall be accompanied by a map or plat indicating such boundaries.

Prior exclusion from public agency

(c) Whenever any territory shall have been excluded from any public agency prior to the effective date of this section, under conditions which would have resulted in the exclusion of said territory from a county water authority had the provisions of subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a) of said section then been in effect, upon compliance with the following provisions of this paragraph (c), such territory shall be excluded from and shall no longer be a part of, said authority, the last-mentioned provisions being as follows:

Ordinance

(1) The governing body of such public agency, at any time after the effective date of this subparagraph (1) may adopt an ordinance which, after reciting that such territory has been excluded from such public agency by proceedings theretofore taken under statutory authority, and after referring to the applicable statutes and to the date or dates upon which such exclusion became effective, shall describe said territory and shall determine and declare that said territory shall be, and thereby is, excluded from such county water authority.

Same: Filing

(2) The governing body, or clerk thereof, of such public agency shall file a certified copy of such ordinance with the Secretary of State of the State of California. Upon the filing of said certified copy of such ordinance in the Office of the Secretary of State, such territory shall be excluded from and shall not longer be a part of, said county water authority; provided, that the taxable property within such excluded territory shall continue taxable by such county water authority for the purpose of paying the bonded or other indebtedness outstanding or contracted for at the time of such exclusion, and until such bonded or other indebtedness shall have been satisfied; provided, further, that if the taxable property within such excluded territory or any part thereof shall be, at the time of such exclusion, subject to special taxes levied or to be levied by such county water authority pursuant to terms and conditions theretofore fixed under the provisions of paragraph (c) or paragraph (d) of Section 10 of this act for the annexation of such excluded territory or part thereof to such county water authority, the taxable property within such excluded territory or part thereof so subject to such special taxes shall continue taxable by such county water authority for the purpose of raising the aggregate sum or sums to be raised by the levy of special taxes upon taxable property within the respective annexing area or areas pursuant to terms and conditions for such annexation or annexations as so fixed, and until such aggregate sum or sums shall have been so raised by such special tax levies

(3) Upon the filing in his office of the aforesaid certified copy of such ordinance, the Secretary of State shall, within 10 days, issue his certificate, describing such territory, reciting the filing of said certified copy of such ordinance in his office and the exclusion of said territory from such county water authority, and declaring that the said territory is no longer a part of said county water authority. The Secretary of State shall transmit the original of his said certificate to the secretary of such county water authority and shall forward a certified copy of his said certificate to the county clerk of the county in which such county water authority is situated. Certificate

SEC. 2. Section 11.1 is added to said act, to read:

Sec. 11.1. Any territory within a county water authority which lies within two or more public agencies, the corporate areas of which are included within such county water authority as separate units, shall, subject to the conditions hereinafter provided, for the purposes of this act and for all related purposes (other than local purposes of such public agencies) involving in any manner the respective territorial boundaries and jurisdiction of such public agencies, be considered to be a part of the respective public agency which will supply water to such overlapping territory, as determined in the manner provided herein; provided, that if the taxable property within such overlapping territory or any portion thereof shall be subject to special taxes levied or to be levied by such county water authority pursuant to terms and conditions theretofore fixed under the provisions of paragraph (c) or paragraph (d) of Section 10 of this act for the annexation of such overlapping territory or portion thereof to such county water authority, then such taxable property within such overlapping territory shall continue taxable by such county water authority for the purpose of raising the aggregate sum or sums to be raised by the levy of such special taxes pursuant to terms and conditions for such annexation or annexations as so fixed and until such aggregate sum or sums shall have been so raised by such special tax levies; and provided, further, that the public agency of which such overlapping territory shall be considered to be a part shall be determined in the following manner and subject to the following conditions: Jurisdiction over overlapping territory

(1) The governing body of each public agency in which any such overlapping territory lies, shall, on or before October 1st of any calendar year, file with the board of directors of the authority a certified copy of a resolution of such governing body which shall contain a legal description of any such overlapping territory or portion thereof which will be supplied with water by such public agency during the next ensuing fiscal year commencing July 1st next following, and such certified copy of such resolution so filed shall be accompanied by a map or plat showing the respective boundaries of each Manner of determining overlapping territory or portion thereof so to be supplied with water by such public agency.

(2) On or before November 1st of such calendar year, the board of directors of the authority shall consider all documents so filed with the authority as required under subparagraph (1) above, and by resolution shall determine which public agency will supply water to each such overlapping territory or portion thereof during the next ensuing fiscal year commencing July 1st next following; in the event that the board of directors of the authority, from the evidence submitted, cannot determine which public agency will supply water to any overlapping territory or portion thereof, then the board of directors shall determine that such overlapping territory or portion thereof shall be considered to be a part of, and shall designate, the public agency within which such overlapping territory or portion thereof first was included; and such resolution shall contain a legal description of each such overlapping territory or portion thereof respecting which any such determination is made.

(3) The board of directors of the authority, on or before November 20th of such calendar year, shall file with the county assessor of the county in which such overlapping territory shall lie and with the State Board of Equalization and in the event that such county water authority shall be included within a metropolitan water district as a separate unit then also with the board of directors of such metropolitan water district, a certified copy of such resolution of the board of directors of the authority so determining the matters required to be determined by it under subparagraph (2) above, accompanied by map or maps or plat or plats showing the respective boundaries of each overlapping territory or portion thereof described in such resolution.

Effect of determination

(4) Any determination made by the board of directors of the authority and evidenced by the filing of the documents required by subparagraph (3) hereof shall be effective until changed by later determination by said board of directors and the evidencing thereof by the filing of the required documents.

No determination

(5) Any overlapping territory or portion thereof respecting which no determination shall have been made by the board of directors of the authority and evidenced by the filing of the documents required by subparagraph (3) hereof shall be considered to be a part of the public agency within which such overlapping territory or portion thereof first was included.

CHAPTER 998

An act to amend Sections 1261 and 1262 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to archery hunting licenses.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1261 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

1261. Any person taking deer pursuant to Sections 1260 to 1263 inclusive must possess a valid hunting license. Hunting license

Archery deer tags shall be issued for the same price and in the same manner as regular deer tags. No regular deer tags shall be issued to a person to whom archery deer tags are issued in the same year. Archery deer tags

SEC. 2. Section 1262 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

1262. A person to whom such archery deer tags have been issued may take deer during such archery season but shall not take or attempt to take deer in any manner during the following open deer season. Same

CHAPTER 999

An act to add Sections 2107 and 2108 to the Education Code, relating to boards of education of chartered cities.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2107 is added to the Education Code, to read:

2107. Whenever the charter of a city comprising in whole or in part an elementary school district, fails to provide for the manner in which, the times at which, and the terms for which the members of the board of education of such city are appointed, and for the number which shall constitute such board, the governing board of the elementary school district within which the city is located or with which the city is coterminous is the board of education of the city. Board of education of city

SEC. 2. Section 2108 is added to said code, to read:

2108. The board of education of a city referred to in Section 2107 when composed by law of only three members, may provide by a resolution adopted by the unanimous vote of all its members and approved by the governing body of such city prior to the first day of March of any school year, that the board of education of such city shall, effective on the next succeeding first day of July, consist of five members whose terms of office shall be three years except as provided in this section. Increase in number of board members

The three members of the board of education in office at the time said resolution is adopted and approved shall serve for the remainder of the terms for which they were elected or appointed. An election for members of the governing board of the school district shall be held annually following the adoption and approval of such resolution, at the same time as the election provided for in Article 1 of Chapter 4 of this division. At the first such election three members shall be elected to the city board of education, two to serve for three years, and one to serve for two years; at the second such election, one member shall be elected to said board to serve for three years; and at the third such election two members shall be elected to said board to serve for three years. Thereafter an election shall be held every year to fill vacancies which will occur during said year because of the expiration of terms of members.

Election procedure

All elections held under this section shall be called, held, and conducted as provided in Article 1 of Chapter 4 of this division and all provisions of said article and of Articles 4 and 5 are applicable to boards of education elected pursuant to this section.

CHAPTER 1000

An act to amend Section 4845.28 of, and add Sections 4738 and 4742.1 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to county sanitation districts.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4845.28 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

Election to join new district

4845.28. The unincorporated territory shall not thereafter become a part of the same or any other county sanitation district unless the question of annexation or inclusion within a district is approved by a majority of the qualified electors of the territory so withdrawing, voting at an election on the proposition of annexation or inclusion; except that as to any part or portion of such territory which has heretofore been withdrawn and which is contiguous to an existing district and uninhabited, such part or portion may be annexed to the district pursuant to Article 7 of this chapter, without the necessity of holding an election, upon the filing of a petition with the district board signed by the owner or owners of such part or portion.

"Uninhabited"

As used in this section, "uninhabited" means having less than three electors at the time of the last general election next preceding the filing of the petition for annexation.

SEC. 2. Section 4738 is added to Article 4, Chapter 3, Part 3, Division 5, of said code, to read:

Actions

4738. A county sanitation district may sue and be sued by its own name.

SEC. 3. Section 4742.1 is added to said code, to read:

Contract for sewage disposal, etc

4742.1. It may contract with any district, city, governmental agency or person for the handling, treatment or disposal by the district of sewage or industrial wastes originating within the district or county or within areas outside of the district or county when, in the judgment of the district board, it is for the best interest of the district to do so, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon; provided, that the contract shall be for such term as agreed upon, but in no event for a term in excess of 50 years, or for such time as in the judgment of the district board the district shall have the capacity for handling, treatment or disposal of such sewage or industrial wastes.

CHAPTER 1001

An act to amend Section 19368 of the Government Code, relating to employees in the State Civil Service.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951 Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19368 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19368. Whenever any position is changed by the adoption of new, different or additional machines or processes while the purpose or product is the same or similar in nature, any civil service employee affected shall be given reasonable opportunity without change in class, status or salary to learn to do the work with the new machine or process and to qualify for status in the different class of position required for such work; provided, that an employee may not be promoted to a higher class under the provisions of this section. An employee who qualifies for appointment in the different class shall be deemed to possess the specific education, experience or other requirements for such class and shall be appointed thereto with the same status and seniority which he last had in his previous class.

New machines, etc

An employee shall be deemed to be affected under this section if the adoption of such new, different or additional machines or processes results in his being laid off and if laid off such employee shall have the same opportunity to qualify for appointment to any vacancy in the same class or any new class created because of the adoption of such new, different or additional machines or processes as any other employee affected by the provisions in this section who was not laid off.

The board may prescribe rules and procedures and make determinations for carrying out the provisions of this section including provisions for such examinations and tests of fitness as are deemed appropriate.

CHAPTER 1002

An act to amend Section 17 of the Los Angeles County Flood Control Act, relating to the Los Angeles County Flood Control District.

Stats 1915, p 1502

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951 Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17 of the Los Angeles County Flood Control Act is amended to read:

Cooperation with State, etc.

Sec. 17. Said board of supervisors of said district shall have full power and authority to cooperate with and to act in conjunction with the State of California, or any of its engineers, officers, boards, commissions, departments or agencies, or with the government of the United States, or any of its engineers, officers, boards, commissions, departments or agencies, or with any public or private corporation, in the construction, operation and maintenance of any work for the controlling of flood or storm waters of said district, or for the protection of property, or any of the harbors, channels, waterways, roads or highways in said district, or for the purpose of conserving said waters or waters imported from without the district or waters reclaimed from sewage or other wastes when such imported or reclaimed waters are furnished without cost to the district, including, but not limited to, surface and subsurface storage, for beneficial use and to adopt a definite plan or system of work for such purpose, and when so adopted no substantial change affecting their interest shall thereafter be made in the same without the express consent of the officer, board, commission, department or agency of the State or Federal Government, or public or private corporation, in conjunction with which the same was originally adopted. Expenditures for the purpose of conserving such imported or reclaimed waters may be made from funds derived from taxes levied pursuant to Section 14 of this act but such expenditures therefrom shall not exceed an amount equal to the amounts levied under the provisions of said Section 14 within the area specially benefited by the conservation of such imported or reclaimed waters.

Said board of supervisors of said district shall have full power and authority to contract with any municipality, irrigation district, or metropolitan water district, for the construction by such municipality, irrigation district, or metropolitan water district, at its own expense under plans approved by said flood control district, of works for the enlargement and increase of storage capacity of any reservoir, work, or structure used or to be used for the controlling and conservation of flood or storm waters of said flood control district, and to authorize by contract, or otherwise, the use by any such municipality, irrigation district or metropolitan water district of said enlarged and increased storage capacity or space thereby created, of such reservoir, work, or structure in excess of that now designed and approved for controlling and conserving the flood or storm waters, of said Los Angeles County Flood Control District, and for the storage and release of waters coming entirely from points outside of said flood control district; provided, however, such use of such enlarged and increased space or storage capacity shall at all times be subject to the use and control of said Los Angeles County Flood Control District for the controlling or conservation of such flood or storm waters by the said flood control district.

CHAPTER 1003

An act to amend Section 5704 of the Labor Code, relating to workmen's compensation.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5704 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5704. Transcripts of all testimony taken without notice and copies of all reports and other matters added to the record, otherwise than during the course of an open hearing, shall be served upon the parties to the proceeding, and an opportunity shall be given to produce evidence in explanation or rebuttal thereof before decision is rendered. CHAPTER 1005

An act to amend Section 39.6 of the Vehicle Code, relating to agricultural water-well boring rigs.

[Approved by Governor June 11, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 12, 1951.] In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39.6 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

39.6. Agricultural Water-Well Boring Rig. "Agricultural Water-Well Boring Rig" means a vehicle which is used exclusively in the boring of water-wells on agricultural property and which is self-propelled. Each such vehicle shall be subject "Agricultural Water-Well Boring Rig" to the registration fee provided in Section 370 but shall be exempt from the fees provided in Section 372 of the Vehicle Code.

CHAPTER 1006

An act to add Section 20392.5 to the Education Code, relating to dismissal and re-employment of state college employees.

In effect September 22 1951

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20392.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

Order of dismissal of employees

20392.5. The Director of Education shall adopt regulations for the determination of the order in which employees of a state college shall be dismissed when the dismissal of employees of the state college is required because funds have not been made available for salaries of such employees or because of the discontinuance of services or classes. Such regulations shall, in addition to any other provisions, provide, to the extent the Director of Education shall deem practical, for the dismissal of employees in the inverse of the order of their employment.

The Director of Education shall also adopt regulations governing the re-employment of persons in a state college who were dismissed therefrom because funds were not made available for the salaries of such employees or because of the discontinuance of services or classes. Such regulations shall, in addition to any other provisions, provide, to the extent the Director of Education shall deem practical, that for a period of five years following the dismissal of any such person he shall have the right to be re-employed in a position comparable to that from which he was dismissed in preference to any person not in the employ of the college at the time of his dismissal.

The Director of Education in adopting regulations under this section shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 4, Part 1, Division 3, Title 2 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1007

An act to amend Section 6487 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to sales and use taxes, and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1951 Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6487 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

Notice of deficiency determination Limitation

6487. Except in the case of fraud, intent to evade this part or authorized rules and regulations, failure to make a return, or claim for additional amount pursuant to Section 6563, every notice of a deficiency determination shall be mailed within three years after the last day of the calendar month following the quarterly period for which the amount is proposed to be determined or within three years after the return is filed, whichever period expires the later. In the case of failure to make a return, or claim for additional amount pursuant to Section 6563, every notice of determination shall be mailed within eight years after the last day of the calendar month following the quarterly period for which the amount is proposed to be determined.

The limitation specified in this section does not apply in case of a sales tax proposed to be determined with respect to sales of property for the storage, use, or other consumption of which notice of a deficiency determination has been or is given pursuant to Sections 6486, 6515, and 6537 and to the first paragraph of this section. The limitation specified in this section does not apply in case of an amount of use tax proposed to be determined with respect to storage, use, or other consumption of property for the sale of which notice of a deficiency determination has been or is given pursuant to Sections 6486, 6515, and 6537 and to the first paragraph of this section.

SEC. 2. This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy shall, under the provisions of Section 1, Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately; provided, however, that the provisions hereof shall become operative on July 1, 1951. Tax levy

An act to amend Section 6301 of the Public Resources Code, relating to the jurisdiction and authority of the State Lands Commission.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6301 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

Jurisdiction of commission

6301. The commission has exclusive jurisdiction over all ungranted tidelands and submerged lands owned by the State, and of the beds of navigable rivers, streams, lakes, bays, estuaries, inlets, and straits, including tidelands and submerged lands or any interest therein, whether within or beyond the boundaries of the State as established by law, which have been or may be acquired by the State (a) by quitclaim, cession, grant, contract, or otherwise from the United States or any agency thereof, or (b) by any other means. All jurisdiction and authority remaining in the State as to tidelands and submerged lands as to which grants have been or may be made is vested in the commission.

The commission shall exclusively administer and control all such lands, and may lease or otherwise dispose of such lands, as provided by law, upon such terms and for such consideration, if any, as are determined by it.

The provisions of this section do not apply to land of the classes described in Section 6403, as added by Chapter 227 of the Statutes of 1947. Application

CHAPTER 1011

An act to add Section 20372.5 to the Education Code, relating to separation from service of state college employees.

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20372.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

20372.5. Upon separation from service, without fault on his part, an employee of a state college is entitled to a lump sum payment as of the time of separation for any unused or accumulated vacation or for any time off to which he is entitled by reason of previous overtime work where compensating time off for overtime work is provided for by the appointing power or by rules of the State Personnel Board. Payment upon separation

Such sum shall be computed by projecting the accumulated time on a calendar basis so that the lump sum will equal the amount which the employee would have been paid had he taken the time off but not separated from the service. Persons separated from service through fault of their own are entitled to a lump sum payment for such compensating time off for overtime work, similarly computed, and in addition, such portion, if any, of unused vacation as the Director of Education may determine.

CHAPTER 1012

An act to amend Section 9809 of the Education Code, relating to the computation of excess cost of educating mentally retarded pupils.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9809 of the Education Code is amended to read:

"Excess cost"

9809. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine the amount of excess cost incurred by each school district and county superintendent of schools for the education of mentally retarded minors. "Excess cost" as employed in this section includes the total current expenditures incurred for mentally retarded minors instructed in special schools or classes, over the amount expended for current expenditures for an equal number of units of average daily attendance of pupils not classified as mentally retarded minors or physically handicapped minors.

Stats. 1868, p. 716

An act authorizing suits against the State of California to quiet title against it to real property entitled to be purchased under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to survey and dispose of certain salt marsh and tidelands belonging to the State of California," approved March 30, 1868, or any of the acts supplementary thereto and amendatory thereof, and regulating the procedure therein.

In effect September 22, 1951

CHAPTER 1014

An act to amend Sections 12130.1 and 12131.2 of the Education Code, relating to the standards for provisional credentials authorizing service in the public schools.

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12130.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

Minimum standard for provisional credential

12130.1. The minimum standard for the provisional general elementary credential shall be two years of successful experience as a teacher in a public kindergarten or elementary school and the completion of at least 60 semester units of college work with an average grade of C or better on a five-point scale, and such additional requirements as may be prescribed by the State Board of Education.

This credential shall authorize the same service as the general elementary credential.

SEC. 2. Section 12131.2 of said code is amended to read:

Same

12131.2. The minimum standard for the provisional kindergarten-primary credential shall be two years of successful experience as a teacher in a public kindergarten or elementary school and the completion of at least 60 semester units of college work with an average grade of C or better on a five-point scale, and such additional requirements as may be prescribed by the State Board of Education.

This credential shall authorize the same service as the kindergarten-primary credential.

CHAPTER 1015

An act to amend Section 7431.1 of, and to add Section 7431.2 to, the Education Code, relating to the computation of bonded indebtedness of school districts, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7431.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

Computation of limitation of indebtedness

7431.1. In computing the limitation of indebtedness of any school district of any kind or class heretofore or hereafter formed or organized, hereinafter in this section referred to as the "bonding school district," the outstanding indebtedness of any previously existing district all or any part of which forms a component part of such bonding school district shall be excluded and shall not be deemed, for the purposes of computing the limitation of indebtedness under Sections 4714, 4965, or 7431, to constitute outstanding indebtedness of such bonding school district, except to the extent that such outstanding indebtedness has been expressly assumed by such bonding school district by vote of not less than two-thirds of the electors of such bonding school district voting at an election at which the proposition of assuming such indebtedness is voted upon. Nothing herein contained shall operate to release any property from liability for taxes to pay the principal and interest of indebtedness incurred by any component district in which such taxable property is located at the time of the incurring of such indebtedness. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide in this section a special method of computing the limitation of indebtedness of school districts irrespective of liability of the area embraced within such school districts for the payment of any bonded indebtedness.

SEC. 2. Section 7431.2 is added to said code, to read:

Exclusion of liability of other district

7431.2. For the purpose of determining the limitation of indebtedness of a school district of any type or class under Sections 4714, 4965, or 7431, such portion of the bonded indebtedness of the district as another school district is liable for shall be excluded and shall not be deemed to constitute outstanding bonded indebtedness of the district.

Urgency

SEC. 3. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

The existing law is not clear as to the method of computing the bonded indebtedness of certain school districts, particularly in the case of a uniting of districts or the assumption by another district of a portion of the bond debt of an existing district. This ambiguity may prevent the making of apportionments under the state school building aid program to school districts in such circumstances, and in such case will deprive the children in such districts from obtaining adequate school buildings. In order to clarify the eligibility of such districts for state school building aid under Chapter 1.6 of Division 3 of the Education Code, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1016

An act to amend Section 28113 of the Government Code and Section 413 of the Education Code, relating to compensation for public service in counties of the thirteenth class.

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 28113 of the Government Code is amended to read:

San Joaquin County Salaries

28113. In a county of the thirteenth class the following shall receive as compensation for the services required of them by law or by virtue of their offices the following sums:

(a) The auditor, seven thousand two hundred dollars ($7,200) a year.

(b) The district attorney, eight thousand five hundred dollars ($8,500) a year.

(c) Each supervisor, three thousand six hundred dollars ($3,600) a year. In addition, each member who uses a privately owned automobile in the discharge of necessary official duties as supervisor or as ex officio road commissioner, shall be paid six cents ($0.06) a mile for all mileage traveled within a radius of 200 miles from the county seat; for any one trip over 200 miles, six cents ($0.06) a mile for the first 200 miles of the trip, and three cents ($0.03) for each mile traveled in excess of the first 200 miles of the trip. SEC. 3. If it is not legally competent to pay the compensation provided by this act to incumbent officers on the effective date of this act, such increase in compensation shall nevertheless be payable to the officers designated in this act as soon as it is legally competent to do so.

CHAPTER 1017

An act to add Section 7144.1 to the Education Code, and to amend Sections 2861 and 2862 of said code, relating to school districts constituting component parts of school districts.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1951 Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1951]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7144 1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

7144.1. The governing board of any union elementary school district, joint union elementary school district, or unified school district may at any time notify the Superintendent of Public Instruction in writing that it does not desire to have the provisions of Section 7144 apply to such district. Upon the receipt of such notice by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Section 7144 shall as of the next succeeding first day of July cease to have application to such district. Nonapplication of provisions

SEC. 2. Section 2861 of said code is amended to read:

2861. For the purposes of teachers' reports, the several districts uniting to form a union or joint union elementary school district and the several districts of the union elementary school districts uniting to form a union elementary school district shall continue their separate existence. Separate existence

SEC. 3. Section 2862 of said code is amended to read:

2862. The enrollment and attendance of each component district shall be kept separate from that of the other component districts composing the union or joint union elementary school district. Separation of enrollment, etc

The Superintendent of Public Instruction may, on the request of the governing board of a district, exempt the district from the requirements of this section whenever compliance by such district with such requirements is in his judgment unnecessary to the administration of the laws relating to the apportionment of the State School Fund, and may withdraw such exemption when compliance with such requirements in his judgment becomes necessary to the administration of such laws.

CHAPTER 1018

An act to add Section 50478 to the Government Code, relating to the lease of publicly owned property for airports and related purposes.

[Approved by Governor June 12, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1951.]

In effect September 22, 1951

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50478 is added to the Government Code, to read:

50478. A local agency may lease or sublease property owned, leased, or otherwise controlled by it for not to exceed 50 years for airport purposes or purposes incidental to aircraft, including: Lease of property

(a) Manufacture of aircraft, airplane engines, and aircraft equipment, parts, and accessories.

(b) Construction and maintenance of hangars, mooring masts, flying fields, signal lights, radio equipment, service shops, conveniences, appliances, works, structures, and other air navigation, aircraft, and airplane engine manufacturing plants and facilities.

CHAPTER 1019

An act to amend Sections 1394 and 1395 of, and to add Section 1394.5 to, the Labor Code, relating to child labor.

In effect September 22, 1951

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1951.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1394 of the Labor Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Exceptions

1394. Nothing in this article or Article 2 of Chapter 2 of this part shall prohibit or prevent:
