
It is fashioned from a burl taken from a 2,000 year old giant redwood tree, standing in one of many redwood forests, covering an area of 2,100,000 acres—52 billion board feet of standing timber—(97 percent of the world's redwood stand)—more than one-fifth of all remaining timber in California.

With this gavel goes the best wishes of the Redwood Empire Builders—for a profitable and successful second session of the 1951 State Legislature—and with the hope that the State Highway System may be brought to adequate and safe standard at the earliest possible moment.

My colleagues—the legislators representing Redwood Empire Counties—and Northbay and San Francisco—join me in extending heartiest greetings.

MOTION THAT REMARKS BY SPEAKER SAM L. COLLINS MADE IN RESPONSE TO SENATOR WAY'S REMARKS BE PRINTED IN JOURNAL

Mr. Doyle moved that the remarks by Speaker Sam L. Collins, made in response to the remarks of Senator Way, be reduced to writing and ordered printed in the Journal in 10-point type.

Mr. Burke seconded the motion.

Motion carried.

Remarks by Speaker Sam L. Collins

SENATOR WAY AND MEMBERS OF THE DELEGATION OF THE REDWOOD EMPIRE: This is, indeed, a pleasure to welcome you to the City of Sacramento, the capital of the State of California. I appreciate very much your thoughtfulness in coming here this day to present this redwood gavel. I know of no more appropriate symbol of authority than one turned from the redwoods of California—eternal in duration and combining beauty and utility. This symbol of authority shall be wielded by me, so long as I am your presiding officer, in justice and impartiality. May this gavel be as enduring as the trees from whence it came. Some gavels, you will recall, have not fared so well.

Gentlemen, on behalf of the Assembly of California and more particularly from the presiding officer, I thank you for this beautiful gavel.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Dr. Clarence A. Kircher:

Eternal Father, who hast made the visible world by Thy power and the soul of man in Thy likeness, grant that we may live wisely, bravely, and happily among things seen and temporal, yet never in bondage to them; always seeking a better country and a heavenly home with Thee. Guide us in the responsibilities of this day and hour that we may be workmen approved unto Thee who need never to be ashamed.

"We thank Thee, Lord, Thy paths of service lead
To blazon heights and down the slopes of need;
They reach Thy throne, encompass land and sea.
And he who journeys in them walks with Thee"

In Jesus' name—AMEN.

Opinion of Legislative Counsel

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO 2, CALIFORNIA, March 12, 1951

Hon. Richard J. Dolwig
Assembly Chamber

PENAL PROVISIONS OF STATUTE REGULATING LEGISLATIVE REPRESENTATION—No. 5880

DEAR MR DOLWIG:

Question

You have presented the following question:

Assuming a legislative representative has complied with the registration and filing requirements of Sections 9900 through 9908 of the Government Code, would such person violate the statute regulating legislative representation by acting as a legislative representative prior to the time that a certificate of registration as a legislative advocate is issued to him pursuant to Section 9909 of the Government Code, or after such certificate once issued was revoked.

Opinion

We know of no provision of law which prohibits a person from acting as a legislative representative either before the issuance or after the revocation of such certificate.

Analysis

The penal provisions of the statute regulating legislative representation are found in Section 9908 of the Government Code which reads in part:

> "9908. (a) Any person who violates any of the foregoing sections of this chapter * * * shall be guilty of a misdemeanor * * *." (Emphasis added.)

Section 9909 of the Government Code, which provides for the issuance and revocation of a certificate of registration as legislative advocate, follows Section 9908

Section 9908 as added to the Government Code by Chapter 4 of the 1949 First Extraordinary Session read in part:

> "9908. (a) Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter, shall, * * * be guilty of a misdemeanor * * *."

Section 9908 was amended by the Erwin Act of 1950 (Ch. 66, 1950 First Extraordinary Session) to limit it as it presently reads to the "foregoing sections of this chapter" and the Erwin Act of 1950 at the same time added Section 9909 providing for the issuance of the certificates.

In our opinion this indicates that the legislative intent was to exclude from the penal provisions of the statute the act of engaging in legislative advocacy without a certificate

This legislative history, coupled with the fact that the statute is in the nature of a penal law and will be strictly construed by the courts [In re Twing (1922), 188 Cal. 261, 265; People vs. Tisdale (1880), 57 Cal. 104, 107], leads us to the conclusion that Section 9908 of the Government Code would not prohibit a person from acting without a certificate of registration as legislative advocate at any time if he has complied with that section and the preceding sections of the chapter.

It would therefore appear that the issuance of a certificate of registration as legislative advocate is only a matter of recognition by the House that the person to whom the certificate is issued is of good moral character and otherwise a fit person to pursue his legislative activities before the members of the legislative body.

Very truly yours,

RALPH N. KLEPS, Legislative Counsel
By LOUIS A BOLI, III, Deputy

CONSIDERATION OF DAILY FILE

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

NOTICE OF MOTION TO WITHDRAW SENATE BILL NO. 327 FROM COMMITTEE CONTINUED

Mr. Davis asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that his notice of motion to withdraw Senate Bill No. 327 from committee be continued until the next legislative day.

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was offered:

By Messrs Moss and Fleury:

House Resolution No. 82

Relative to congratulating the Sacramento Union on the 100th anniversary of its founding

WHEREAS, On March 19, 1851, the Sacramento Union was established as the only daily newspaper in the State of California and is the oldest daily newspaper this side of the Rocky Mountains; and

WHEREAS, In 1865 the Sacramento Union was credited with keeping the State of California in the Union rather than joining the Confederacy; and

WHEREAS, In 1866 the Sacramento Union sent a young reporter, who wrote under the pen name of Mark Twain, on a tour of the South Pacific and his weekly dispatches were printed in the Sacramento Union, which employment played a large part in starting him on his career as one of the world's most famous writers; and

WHEREAS, During its long existence as a daily newspaper, the Sacramento Union has gained wide spread recognition and fame for the quality of its reporting of local, state, national, and world-wide news, and for its excellent editorials; and

WHEREAS, The Sacramento Union has already received congratulatory messages from President Truman, General MacArthur, and Winston Churchill, among others; now, therefore be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly of the State of California extend their heartiest congratulations to the Sacramento Union on the 100th Anniversary of its founding; and be it further

PRELIMINARY REPORT ON SENATE BILL NO. 327 OF THE SUBCOMMITTEE OF THE ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC UTILITIES AND CORPORATIONS

ASSEMBLY, CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE, March 12, 1951

Senate Bill No. 327 seeks to exempt nonprofit electric cooperatives from the jurisdiction of the California Public Utilities Commission.

The Subcommittee on Senate Bill No. 327 was appointed on January 22, 1951, by Chairman John W. Evans of the Assembly Committee on Public Utilities and Corporations for the purpose of holding hearings and reporting upon Senate Bill No. 327. The subcommittee has scheduled three hearings, two of which have now been held, one in Baker, California, on February 19, 1951, and a second in San Francisco on February 23, 1951. The third hearing will be held in Sacramento on March 15, 1951.

Some members of the subcommittee were not able to attend the hearings held in Baker, California, and San Francisco, California; however, a complete phonographic transcript has been prepared of each of these hearings, and this transcript has been made available to all subcommittee members.

From the testimony thus far presented to the subcommittee, it appears that this proposed legislation may make a major change in the public utility laws of this State, which should receive full and careful consideration. At neither the Baker nor the San Francisco hearing was any evidence presented to the subcommittee which would indicate that there is urgency for the immediate passage of this bill prior to its full consideration.

The subcommittee recommends that no action be taken upon this measure by the Assembly until such time as the subcommittee may complete its investigation and make its report. The report of this subcommittee will be submitted to the Assembly Committee on Public Utilities and Corporations as soon after its final hearing on March 15, 1951, as such report can be completed.

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "amend Section 13161 of the Government", and insert "add Section 617 to the Military and Veterans".

Amendment No. 2

On page 1 of said bill, strike out lines 1 to 9, inclusive, and insert

"SECTION 1. Section 617 is added to the Military and Veterans Code, to read:

617. Any person who displays a flag, standard, or ensign, other than the Flag of the United States or the Bear Flag of California, from any public building owned, leased, used, or controlled by the State or any county, city, city and county, state agency, or public district, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

The provision of this section shall not apply to the display of flags on public buildings during any international athletic event or during the visit of any foreign dignitary."

Amendments read, and adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, engrossed, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Assembly Bill No. 250—An act to amend Sections 6, 24, 27, 37, 39, 45, 45.5, 45.6, 45 7, 45.8, 45.10, 45 11, and 46.1 of the Unemployment Insurance Act, relating to a System of Unemployment and Disability Insurance.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Committee Amendments

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Finance and Insurance:

Amendment No. 1

On page 5, line 8, of the printed bill, strike out "such", and insert "the succeeding".

Amendment read, and adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, engrossed, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Finance and Insurance.

Assembly Bill No. 347—An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the rights, powers, privileges, exemptions, and immunities of federal savings and loan associations, incorporated under the provisions of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, which are doing business in the State of California, and for the rights, powers, privileges, exemptions, and immunities of the holders of shares of share accounts issued by any such association," approved June 13, 1939, as amended, by amending Sections 2, 3, and 4 thereof, relating to shares and share accounts of federal savings and loan associations

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Committee Amendments

The following amendments were proposed by the Committee on Finance and Insurance:

Amendment No. 1

After the last comma in the next to the last line of the title of the printed bill, insert "and adding to said act four new sections, to be numbered respectively Sections 5, 6, 7 and 8; all".

Amendment No. 2

Before the period in the last line of the title of the printed bill, insert "and said new Section 6 relating also to debts of such associations and said new Section 8 relating also to personal property held by said associations".

Amendment No. 3

On page 3 of the printed bill, after line 22, insert

"SEC. 4. Four new sections are added to said act, to be numbered respectively Sections 5, 6, 7 and 8, and to read as follows:

Sec. 5. Shares or share accounts of any federal savings and loan association held by any person and the dividends credited thereon shall be exempt from attachment or execution and proceedings supplementary thereto to the value of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

Sec. 6. In the case of any attachment levied upon any shares or share accounts of any federal savings and loan association or upon any debts owing by any such association, the copy of writ and notice must be left, if such association maintains branches, with the manager or any other officer of such association at the office or branch thereof at which such shares or share accounts were issued or such debt incurred if such office or branch is still being maintained, and otherwise at the principal office of such association; and no attachment not served as aforesaid shall be effective as to any share or share account issued by any such association or as to any debt owing by any such association if such share or account was issued or such debt incurred at an office or branch thereof not so served. No attachment or execution shall be issued against any such association or its property in any suit, action or proceeding arising out of the claim of any holder of shares or share accounts to withdraw before final judgment that such holder of shares or share accounts is presently entitled to payment of such withdrawal.

Sec. 7. No transfer on encumbrance of shares or share accounts issued by a federal savings and loan association shall be effective as to such association until written notice of such transfer or encumbrance shall have been given to the office of the association at which such shares or share accounts were issued, or at which the account of such association as to such shares or share accounts is kept, or to the principal office of such association. Until such notice shall have been so given, such association may conclusively presume that shares and share accounts have not been transferred or encumbered, and may, in the absence of such notice, make any and all payments or issue new shares or share accounts to or in the name or names of the person or persons in whose name or names its shares or share accounts are issued, whether or not such shares or share accounts are presented at the time of such payment or issuance, and shall have no responsibility to a transferee or lienholder with respect to any shares or share accounts, or parts thereof, so paid or reissued

Sec. 8. Notice to any federal savings and loan association of an adverse claim (the person making such adverse claim being hereafter in this section called "adverse claimant") to shares or share accounts standing on its books to the credit of, or to personal property held for the account of, any person may be disregarded until and unless the adverse claimant shall (a) procure and serve upon the association at the office at which the account is carried or the property held a restraining order, injunction or other appropriate order against the association from a court of competent jurisdiction in an action in which the adverse claimant and all persons in whose name such account stands or for whose account such property is held are parties; or (b) execute and deliver to the association at the office at which the account is carried or the property held a bond in form and with surety acceptable to it and in an amount fixed by the association, but which amount in no event need be more than twice the value of the shares or share accounts or more than twice the market value of the property against which the adverse claim is made, indemnifying it and also all persons in whose names such account stands or for whose account such property is held, against all liability, loss, damage, costs and expenses arising out of the refusal to permit withdrawal from such account or to pay dividends thereon or to deliver such property. Unless such restraining order, injunction or other appropriate order is obtained, or such bond is given, the association, notwithstanding such notice, may honor notices of intention to withdraw and may pay withdrawals and dividends to the person or persons to whose credit the account stands or may deliver such property to or upon the order of the person for whose account such property is held, without any liability on the part of the association If an adverse claimant delivers to the association at the office at which the account is carried or the property held his affidavit stating that of his own knowledge the person to whose credit the account stands or for whose account the property is held is a fiduciary for the adverse claimant and that such fiduciary is about to misappropriate the account or the property and stating the facts upon which the claim of a fiduciary relationship is based, the association may refuse to pay withdrawals or dividends on the account or may refuse to deliver such property until the adverse claim is finally adjudicated or released, without liability on its part and without liability for the sufficiency or truth of the facts alleged in the affidavit. The provisions of this section shall be applicable even though the name of the person appearing on the association's books to whose credit the account stands or for whose account the property is held is modified by a qualifying or descriptive term such as "agent," "trustee" or other word or phrase indicating that such person may not be the owner in his own right of the account or property."

Amendments read, and adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, engrossed, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Finance and Insurance.

Assembly Bill No. 348—An act to amend the Building and Loan Association Act by amending Section 1 01 thereof, relating to definitions, Section 1.03 thereof, relating to agents, agencies, salesmen, collectors and branches, Section 2.05 thereof, relating to changes of name, Section 2.07 thereof, relating to branches, Section 7 06 thereof, relating to assessments to restore impaired capital, Section 8.03 thereof, relating to minors and married women, Section 8.04 thereof, relating to joint tenants, Section 8.05 thereof, relating to trustees and guardians, Section 9.02 thereof, relating to investments, Section 9.17 thereof, relating to forbidden loans and penalties therefor, Section 10.03a thereof, relating to federal insurance reserve account, Section 13.13 thereof, relating to powers of the Building and Loan Commissioner upon taking possession of an association, and Section 13 16 thereof, relating to powers of such commissioner upon liquidation; and adding to said act four new sections, to be numbered, respectively, Section 2.11, relating to change of location, Section 8.14, relating to adverse claims, Section 11.06, relating to the office of an agent, salesman or collector, and Section 12.13, relating to activities limited to the principal office or branch of an association.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Committee Amendments

The following amendments were proposed by the Committee on Finance and Insurance:

Amendment No. 1

After the first comma in line 13 of the title of the printed bill, insert ' Section 12.09 thereof, relating to leases on office premises,".

Amendment No. 2

On page 9, line 43, of the printed bill, after "capital", insert ", federal insurance reserve, loan reserve,".

Amendment No. 3

On page 10, line 5, of the printed bill, after "capital", insert ", federal insurance reserve, loan reserve,".

Amendment No. 4

On page 13 of the printed bill, between lines 16 and 17, insert

"SEC. 15 Section 12.09 of said act is amended to read:

Sec. 12 09 Leases on Office Premises. An association may enter into or assume leases covering real property used or to be used in connection with the business of such association; provided that no association issuing stock or investment certificates shall enter into or assume leases providing in the aggregate for rental payments in any one year in excess of 5 percent of the sum of its aggregate paid-up nonwithdrawable capital, federal insurance reserve, loan reserve, and any surplus and reserve which is not subject to distribution to the shareholders or stockholders except upon dissolution or liquidation, after deducting from such sum any amounts invested in real property pursuant to subdivision (1) of section 9 02 of this act."

Amendment No. 5

On page 13, line 17, of the printed bill, after "SEC.", strike out "15", and insert "16".

Amendment No. 6

On page 13, line 22, of the printed bill, after "SEC.", strike out "16", and insert "17".

Amendment No. 7

On page 14, line 27, of the printed bill, after "SEC.", strike out "17", and insert "18".

Amendments read, and adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, engrossed, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Finance and Insurance.

Assembly Bill No. 898—An act to amend Sections 1356, 1357, 1359, 1362, 1363, 1364, 1366, 1367, and 3396 of the Banking Code, to add Section 1371, and to renumber and amend 1371, relating to investments by savings banks, securing of information pertinent to the qualification of bonds of political subdivisions by the superintendent from officials of such political subdivisions, and to the making of representations that securities are a legal investment for savings banks

No state officer or employee shall use, or permit the use of, any state-owned motor vehicle other than in the conduct of state business.

The State Board of Control shall prescribe rules and regulations which:

(a) Define the use of state-owned motor vehicles which constitutes use in the conduct of state business and distinguish such use from misappropriation for private use;

(b) Prescribe the procedure for determining and collecting the actual costs to the State attributable to misuse of state-owned motor vehicles and the disposition of such collections;

(c) Prescribe the records and reports to be kept and made by state agencies relating to the use of state-owned motor vehicles to the end that misuse may be discovered with a minimum of record-keeping; provided that every state officer or employee who has operated a state-owned motor vehicle during the preceding month shall file a statement certifying under penalty of perjury as to all statements made in such reports, including a statement that he has not used or permitted the use of any state-owned motor vehicle other than in the conduct of state business as prescribed by the State Board of Control; no money appropriated by this act shall be expended for payment of the salary of any state officer or employee who has operated a state-owned motor vehicle in the preceding month unless he has filed the reports and certification as provided in this section; provided, however, that with the approval of the Director of Finance such reports and certification may be filed on behalf of any state employee by the employee's supervising officer in those cases where it is determined that there are valid reasons which would prevent the employee from complying with the certification and filing requirements of the act;

(d) Establish methods of vehicle control and accounting which will facilitate and encourage the pooling of vehicles for their most effective utilization;

(e) Govern the storage of state-owned motor vehicles.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the incumbents of elective state offices.

The Department of Finance shall administer the provisions of this section and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto; provided, however, that it shall be the duty of the head or governing body of each state agency to carry out and enforce this section and said rules and regulations within such state agency.

Any violation by a state officer or employee of this section or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto shall constitute misuse of state property under Section 19572 of the Government Code.

The State Personnel Board, upon its own initiative or upon request of any person, may suspend from state service without pay for a period not exceeding 30 days, any officer or employee of the State exempt from civil service for violating this section or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto The procedure prescribed in the State Civil Service Act for taking punitive action against state employees shall apply to punitive action taken under this paragraph."

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL AND REPORTS OF SUBCOMMITTEES ON ELECTIONS AND REAPPORTIONMENT

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

ASSEMBLY, CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE, March 14, 1951

Hon. Sam L. Collins
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento 14, California

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: Submitted herewith are the reports of the subcommittees assigned by your Committee on Elections and Reapportionment to investigate the election contests of the Honorable Wallace Henderson of the Thirty-fourth District and the Honorable Patrick D. McGee of the Sixty-fourth District.

These reports were unanimously approved by the Committee on Elections and Reapportionment on March 13, 1951, and it is the recommendation of your committee that the contests pending against the Honorable Wallace Henderson and the Honorable Patrick D. McGee be dismissed and that they be confirmed as members of this body.

Your committee feels compelled to point out to the membership that while contested elections are properly triable by this House, the contest of elections does not include violations of the Elections Code. Such violations are properly within the jurisdiction of the district attorney of the county in which the violations occur or may be properly presented to the grand jury of the appropriate county. Such matters should not be determined by this body but should be directed to the attention of the local officials whose duties include enforcement of the provisions of the Elections Code. An opinion from the Legislative Counsel is submitted herewith in support of the above conclusions.

Respectfully submitted,

LAUGHLIN E. WATERS, Chairman
Committee on Elections and Reapportionment on Elections and Reapportionment

GENTLEMEN: Your subcommittee, consisting of Charles W. Lyon, Chairman; Earl W. Stanley, Charles J. Conrad, Augustus F. Hawkins, and George D. Collins, have held a number of meetings in connection with this election contest here in Sacramento; and also held a meeting on March 7th in the County Court House of Fresno County.

At the first meetings, procedure was agreed upon between the attorneys for the contestants and the contestee and, in pursuance thereof, a commissioner was appointed on behalf of the committee to conduct the preliminary procedure and ballot count in the Office of the County Clerk of the County of Fresno, California. The commissioner appointed by your subcommittee was Adelbert DeVaul, 3356 Grant Avenue, Fresno, California; and this appointment was agreed to by the county clerk and the attorneys for both parties.

The commissioner, acting for the committee, supervised the counting of all the ballots which were cast in the Thirty-fourth Assembly District, and, by pre-arrangement with counsel for the parties affected, all questionable or void ballots, or ballots objected to by either of the attorneys, were set aside. When this work was completed, which count was carried on under the direction of the commissioner and the attorneys through the services of civil service employees of the Fresno County Clerk's office, a report was rendered to the chairman of the subcommittee.

We then secured the assistance of Mr. Joseph W. Paulucci of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, and an official court reporter, and the committee convened for its final meeting in Fresno where, under the guidance of Mr. Joseph W. Paulucci, and with the continued observation of the attorneys for both the contestee and contestants, all questionable ballots were counted. The total result of that count was, and to none of which there was objection, Mr. Henderson received 119 more votes than did Mr. Schroeder.

Application was made to the committee for a continuance by the contestants' attorney, Mr. Lucius Powers, representing the contestants for the purpose of filing a supplemental statement involving other matters of misconduct and malconduct on the part of the election officials at said Assembly election. The committee adjourned after taking the matter under consideration, and stated to Mr Powers that he would be permitted to file his supplemental statement and such affidavits in support thereof as he might desire.

Last Saturday there appeared a statement in the Fresno Bee that Mr. Powers had decided to abandon the filing of any supplemental statement, and would allow the subcommittee to make its recommendation based on the evidence and investigation already concluded. The chairman of the subcommittee contacted Mr. Powers, and found that he did not wish to offer any further evidence.

Under all the circumstances, your committee feels that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Fresno, due to the developments at our hearings and inefficiency on the part of some of the election officials, should order conducted an election class at which their election officials would be advised as to the legal manner in which to conduct an election.

Your subcommittee further feels that any misconduct or malconduct of the election officials, as called attention to by the affidavits, should be the subject of investigation by the proper authorities of the County of Fresno, to wit: The district attorney's office or through the office of the grand jury of that county.

No evidence having been introduced, other than the affidavits, in support of malconduct or misconduct; and, since your committee has examined every single ballot, both questionable and otherwise, which was cast in the Thirty-fourth Assembly District, we advise that the contestee, Wallace Henderson, received 119 more votes than candidate Schroeder; and we recommend to the Committee on Elections and Reapportionment that the contest be dismissed, and that Mr Henderson be permitted to retain his seat as Assemblyman from that district.

No evidence was received or offered which would indicate any wilful misconduct on the part of the election officials, and the errors which were made were apparently due to lack of knowledge of the election laws and additional lack of experience on the part of those officials

Respectfully submitted.

CHARLES W. LYON, Chairman
EARL W. STANLEY
GEORGE D. COLLINS, JR.
AUGUSTUS F. HAWKINS
CHARLES J. CONRAD

P.S. The legal opinion of Legislative Counsel Deputy, Joseph W. Paulucci, is attached hereto for such disposition as the chairman of the committee may desire to make of it. However, your subcommittee would suggest that possibly the printing of this legal opinion in the Journal would prove of great interest to the Assembly and Senate for the consideration of future matters of this kind.

Since writing the above report, as chairman of the subcommittee, I have received a dismissal with prejudice of the above entitled contest, and the documents appertaining thereto are attached.

Election Contest—No. 5679

DEAR MR. LYON: You have asked us a series of questions relating to the Henderson-Schroeder election contest now pending in the Assembly.

Before discussing your specific questions some general observations may be appropriate.

In this proceeding the Assembly is acting under the provision of Section 7 of Article IV of the State Constitution that "Each house shall * * * judge of the qualifications, elections, and returns of its members."

The Constitution also provides that "Each house shall determine the rule of its proceedings * * *." (Sec. 9, Art. IV).

In entertaining this contest the Assembly is acting under the power conferred directly upon it by the Constitution. The statutory provisions relating to contesting general elections do not apply (see Sec. 8510, Elec. C.) and it may adopt any procedure which it determines upon.

The position of the contestant in this contest is somewhat different than that of a contestant in a statutory proceeding. What the contestant has done, in effect, is to suggest to the Assembly that here is a situation in which the Assembly should exercise its power to judge of the election of one of its members.

The power of the Assembly so to judge is vested in the Assembly itself and could be exercised even if there were no contestant. Therefore, while the Assembly may properly permit the contestant to "make his case," it is not bound by the case so made. It may investigate any phase of the election whether or not the contestant has raised any question as to that phase.

In other words, the Assembly has a free hand to make any investigation it chooses by any method it chooses. It may proceed along the same lines generally that a court would follow in a statutory contest, but it is not bound to do so. If any device or procedure will result in the most nearly attainable justice to the parties, to the voters, and to the Assembly itself, such device or procedure may be adopted.

We will now discuss your specific questions in series.

Question 1. Is the Assembly justified in throwing out the entire vote of a precinct when it discovers a stuffed ballot box situation where there are more ballots in the ballot box than there are names signed on the voting roster on the day of the election?

In our opinion throwing out the entire precinct vote should be resorted to only as a last resort To throw out the entire precinct vote would disfranchise certain honest voters who voted legally, and we assume that the Assembly would want to avoid this if possible

Section 7007 of the Elections Code provides that if the ballots in the box exceed the number of names on the tally lists, one of the judges shall publicly, without looking into the box, draw out singly and destroy unopened, a number of ballots equal to such excess. The precinct board makes a record on the roster and tally list of the number of ballots so drawn and destroyed.

If this procedure was not followed at the polls, as it should have been, we can see no reason why it should not be followed in the contest procedure. The rejected ballots are preserved and these, with the ballots which were counted, could be placed in a box. This should restore the contents of the box to the condition in which they existed at the close of the polls. The ballots could then be removed as provided in Section 7007 and the remainder counted.

In a situation where the number of excess ballots was relatively small and no indication of fraud of illegal voting existed, this would appear to be an appropriate solution. The situation where the excess ballots are of such number as to indicate fraud is discussed under Question No. 3.

Question 2. Can any other roster be substituted where the voters signed a city roster and failed to sign the general elections roster on the day of the election?

Assuming that the voters signed the city roster under the assumption that signing it was all that was required, the voters themselves would be entirely innocent. In failing to maintain a proper roster, the precinct officers were guilty of irregularity or improper conduct.

If the precinct officers mistakenly believed that the signing of the city roster was sufficient and treated it as the general election roster, we do not think the voters should be disfranchised. In People vs. Prewett, 124 Cal. 7, after citing cases to the point that misconduct of the election officials not touching the essential prerequisites of the validity of the election should not void the election, the court said:

> "The principle underlying these decisions is, that the rights of the voters should not be prejudiced by the errors or wrongful acts of the officers of election, unless it shall appear that a fair election and an honest count were thereby prevented."

It would be proper to call the members of the precinct board to testify as to what transpired. If the city roster was used as the general election roster and no other irregularity existed and no one voted who did not sign such roster, we think it would be proper to count the votes. In Davis vs. Grunig, 143 Cal. 336, the failure of the precinct board to return the tally list was held not to preclude the counting of the ballots from the precinct in a contest of the election.

The same general principle appears in Section 8512 of the Elections Code which provides that no irregularity or improper conduct of the judges, or any of them, avoids an election unless it is such as to procure the election of a candidate when he has not received the requisite number of legal votes.

Question 3. Is the Assembly justified in throwing out the vote of the precinct in the event it finds there are more ballots than there are registered voters in the precinct?

While the procedure provided for in Section 7007 for withdrawing from the box a number of ballots equal to the excess over the number of voters who signed the roster apparently applies regardless of the number of excess ballots, it need not necessarily be followed.

It is implicit that a fraud has occurred but presumably by whom or on whose behalf it was committed can not be ascertained. An annotation on the subject appears in 155 A.L.R. 677.

There is no really satisfactory solution to the problem. If all of the illegal votes are cast for one candidate and the statutory process is followed that candidate has the advantage that some of the ballots withdrawn will have been valid votes for his opponent. If the rule is that the precinct vote is thrown out, a candidate could gain an advantage by having the ballot boxes in the precincts his opponent was likely to carry stuffed with excess votes. If the illegality is simply disregarded and all of the votes counted, it is an invitation to stuffing the boxes.

If all of the excess votes are taken from the candidate having the majority in the precinct, an arbitrary inference is made that the illegal ballots were cast for him. On the other hand, to take the excess votes from both candidates equally, or proportionately, is to make an arbitrary inference that the illegal votes were cast for each in the same proportion. The only other alternative is to declare the entire election void.

Presumably the statutory provision for withdrawing and destroying the excess ballots has not been followed at the polls. If it has been and the votes have been counted as provided by law, the Assembly may appropriately let the matter rest. If the statutory procedure has not been complied with, and all the ballots have been preserved, the procedure can still be complied with as outlined in the answer to Question No. 1. We can see no valid objection to doing at this juncture the same thing that should have been done at the polls if the same condition can be restored as then existed.

If for any reason this cannot be done, we think the next best procedure would be to throw out the precinct vote entirely or, if the ballot stuffing was prevalent in a large number of precincts, to declare the election void.

There is respectable authority for disregarding the precinct vote in such a situation (see cases collected in 155 A. L. R. 683). If, however, the vote of a number of precincts would be thrown out by this process so that the number of voters in the remaining precincts would be relatively small, the Assembly would be justified in determining that it is impossible to determine the will of the people with any degree of satisfaction and that no one was properly elected.

There is also respectable authority for the pro-rata deduction of the excess votes on the basis of the number received by each candidate in the precinct (see cases collected in 155 A. L. R. 684). The Assembly is free to adopt this solution if it chooses. However, a statutory method having been provided for disposing of excess votes, the Assembly may consider it more appropriate to follow that method if it can be done.

Question 4. How should the Assembly rule where it finds a cross on the line standing between the names of two candidates for the office?

In Garrison vs. Rourke, 32 Cal. 2d 430, at 438, the court, in discussing a situation where the printed line ran just below the middle of the cross, said that whether or not there was a sufficient portion of the cross in the square opposite the defendant's name to count as a vote for him was a question of fact and refused to disturb the trial court's conclusion that it was not possible to ascertain which candidate was intended. The court also said that the provision of Section 7050 of the Elections Code that a cross partly within and partly without a voting square does not invalidate the ballot does not necessarily include a situation where the cross is partly within two voting squares.

We think it would be a fair rule if the Assembly considered that when the major portion of the cross appeared in one voting square it should count as a vote for that candidate even though a portion of the cross were in the voting square of another candidate.

Question 5 How should the Assembly rule when there is an X mark and a blotted mark caused by excess ink?

If the blot is clearly an offset of a marked cross and the blot is not a distinguishable cross of itself, the blot may be disregarded. If the blot forms a distinguishable cross and there is a stamped cross opposite the name of the other candidate, the ballot should not be counted for either. (See Garrison vs. Rourke, 32 Cal. 2d 430, at 440.)

Question 6. Is an indelible pencil marked ballot acceptable?

Section 7050 of the Elections Code provides that a ballot not marked as provided by law shall be void. Section 5707 of the code requires the voter to be orally instructed to mark his ballot only with the stamp provided or his ballot will not be counted.

Therefore, except in the case of absent voters' ballots which may be marked with pen and ink or pencil, a pencil marked ballot is not properly marked.

Question 7. Must a ballot, to be acceptable, be marked with an X in ink as well as with a stamp?

As stated above, the stamp only must be used in voting ballots other than absent voters' ballots.

Question 8. What should the Assembly do with properly marked ballots which were rejected by the election board and placed in an envelope with the void ballots?

An effort should be made to find out the facts. It is possible that the precinct board found that it had an excess number of ballots and withdrew these before counting the ballots but, instead of destroying them, retained them and put them with the void ballots. It is also possible that these ballots were properly counted but inadvertently left out of the proper envelope and simply tucked into the envelope in which they are found.

If the ballots in question were rejected when they should not have been rejected, the proper thing to do is to count them.

Question 9. Where five election solicitors were stationed at the front door of the polls, distributed campaign literature to all comers, entered the election premises and booths and continued to distribute campaign material all day long, and the vote in the precinct is such that it would determine the election, may the Assembly, in its discretion, purge the entire vote of the precinct where the result of such malconduct showed a disproportionately large vote for the party wilfully soliciting the votes in said precinct?

This is a "loaded" question and the obvious answer is "Yes." The Assembly may disregard the precinct vote for any reason it may find sufficient and is accountable to nobody but itself as to how it determines a contest.

In permitting such solicitation the precinct board was presumably guilty of improper conduct. Section 8512 of the Elections Code provides that no irregularity or improper conduct of the judges avoids the election unless it is such as to produce the election of a person who has not received the requisite vote.

In a judicial proceeding it would seem to be incumbent upon the contestant to show that such misconduct affected the result and the mere fact that violations of the law against soliciting in or near the polls was committed or countenanced would not of itself serve to show that the result was affected.

The Assembly is not bound by the rules applicable to contests in the courts If the Assembly should determine that as a result of the unlawful solicitation in or near the polls a candidate received an undue advantage over his opponent, the Assembly could take whatever steps it considered appropriate to correct the situation.

If the Assembly should find that the presence of the solicitors at or near the polls prevented a free expression of the will of the voters, it would have the power to throw out the precinct vote. What facts would be necessary to establish this would be a question for the Assembly to determine.

The throwing out of the precinct vote would presumably disfranchise a certain number of voters who were not influenced by the solicitation. It would be extremely difficult to determine the extent, if any, to which such solicitation had any effect. If, however, in the terms of the question, "the result of the malconduct showed a disproportionately large vote for the party wilfully soliciting the votes in the precinct," the Assembly could determine that the solicitation adversely affected the other party. How such a "disproportionately large vote" could be shown to have resulted is not apparent, but if it can be shown to have resulted, the Assembly is entitled to consider the matter and proceed as in its discretion it determines.

Request for Dismissal, With Prejudice

CALIFORNIA ASSEMBLY
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Contested Election of WALLACE HENDERSON, for Office of Assemblyman, Thirty-fourth District.

J. H. MORRIS, WILLIAM E. REYNOLDS, JESS A. TRISCUIT,	Contestants,	DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE vs.
WALLACE HENDERSON,	Contestee

To the Clerk of the Assembly:

You are hereby requested to dismiss, with prejudice, the above entitled contest.

Dated: March 10, 1951

LUCIUS POWERS
Attorney for Contestants

Since the Legislature is reconvening on Monday for important business, and in order to be fair to Mr. Wallace Henderson and his many supporters who voted for him at the election wherein the official recount now shows he received a plurality of 119 votes more than George Schroeder, we feel that we should not unduly prolong the election contest and leave Mr. Henderson in doubt as to his legal standing. We are, therefore, today recommending to the Elections Committee of the State Assembly, that the election contest be dismissed as of this date and Mr Henderson be declared the duly elected Assemblyman of the Thirty-fourth Assembly District.

On the other hand, we believe the ruling of the Legislative Committee on March 7, 1951, indicated that malconduct of election officials or candidates and their agents should be handled by the law enforcement agencies, removes a considerable portion of the contest relating to certain irregularities in certain important precincts won by Wallace Henderson. We believe it would be interesting to the public to know that in sampling 50 registered voters in one precinct, we found 7 people having voted illegally in that they had changed their residences outside of the precinct and were still continuing to vote contrary to the law.

We think that without doubt prompt steps should be taken to tighten up the election procedure in Fresno County so that our elections held hereafter will conform to the law.

We desire to state that we have not found any evidence of corruption or fraud on the part of the county clerk, his assistant, or any member of the election boards. We feel that the public should know that they have honest boards in Fresno County even though they may not be observing all of the requirements set forth in the Elections Code. Similarly we desire to express our appreciation for the cooperation given by Mr. Brown and all the members of the various election boards. We firmly believe that secrecy at election and the voting franchise should be scrupulously preserved and protected.

We also wish to express our appreciation for the cooperation rendered by Chairman Charles Lyon and the members of his Election Committee, to Laughlin Waters, and to the various members who served on the Election Contest Committee. Their sincere and earnest attention to our contest and the promptness with which it was handled, deserve everyone's commendation.

We think that the election contest has shown many weaknesses in our present election laws and we will have five or six specific amendments to propose to the present voting laws, which should bring about an improvement in the present election system.

DEAR CHAIRMAN LYON:

In Re: J. N. Morris et al., Contestants,
vs. Wallace Henderson, Contestee

On the part of the contestants in the above entitled case, we desire to request dismissal as of this date of the above entitled election contest and request you, and your committee, to declare Wallace Henderson officially elected Assemblyman of the Thirty-fourth Assembly District, following official recount and canvass of the ballots voted at the November 7th election.

As attorney for the contestants, we desire to express our appreciation for the prompt, courteous manner in which your committee handled this contest. We feel that the results of this contest have been most constructive and helpful in guiding future elections and a possible drafting of certain needed amendments to our present voting procedure, as set forth in our present election laws In this regard, I desire to forward you, within the next few days, some of the results of the canvass and proposed Elections Code amendments.

Sincerely yours,

LUCIUS POWERS

ELECTION CONTEST

Eldon James Markwort, Contestant

Patrick D. McGee, Contestee

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER
SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA, March 13, 1951

Hon. Laughlin Waters, Chairman
Assembly Committee on Elections and Reapportionment
Capitol Building, Sacramento, California

MR. CHAIRMAN: Your Subcommittee on Elections and Reapportionment, to which was referred the contest of Mr. Eldon James Markwort of the election of Patrick D. McGee to the office of Member of the Assembly from the Sixty-fourth Assembly District of the State of California, met pursuant to previous notice on January 19, 1951, with a full committee present, perfected its organization, and the members were advised of the statement of grounds of said contest filed by said Eldon James Markwort; pursuant to instructions to the chairman of the committee by the members of the committee, a stipulation was drawn and executed between Eldon James Markwort and Patrick D. McGee and approved by your chairman, which provided that the election contest would be submitted to the committee upon the reporter's transcript in the Superior Court of the State of California, and copies of the briefs filed by the respective parties on appeal of the election contest and considered by the Appellate and Supreme Courts of the State of California together with all exhibits filed at the time of the trial in said superior court together with a photostatic copy of application for World War II veterans military pay filed with the State of Michigan; further provided that each of the parties may call additional witnesses or produce additional testimony before said committee not later than February 15, 1951, and that neither of the parties to the stipulation avail themselves of such opportunity; that the issue in the above entitled contest shall be submitted for decision by your subcommittee as provided in the stipulation.

Pursuant to the stipulation, all of the members of your committee read and considered all of the documents referred to in the stipulation.

Subsequently, on March 12, 1951, pursuant to previous notice duly given, your committee met with all members present and considered the issues in said contest.

The principle grounds of contest as set forth by contestant are as follows:

"That said McGee was and is still ineligible to the office of Member of Assembly in the State of California, in that he has not and will not have been a citizen and inhabitant of the State of California three years next before November 7, 1950, as required by Art. IV. Sec. 4, of the Constitution of the State of California.

That Contestant has been informed and believes and, upon his information and belief, alleges the fact to be that said McGee has only been a bonafide resident of the State of California since March 10, 1948, at or about which time he came to California to take the California Bar examination; that prior thereto, said McGee was a bonafide resident of the State of Massachusetts and resided at 14 Prentiss Street, in the City of Cambridge, from which residence he registered to vote on September 19, 1947, and thereafter did vote and in his Affidavit of Registration claimed one and one-half years residence in the City of Cambridge at the time of his said registration.

That Contestant is further informed and believes and, upon his information and belief, alleges the fact to be that said McGee resided in Detroit, Michigan, at 90 Collingwood Avenue, for the period from 1932 to 1945; at Cambridge, Massachusetts, as aforesaid, at 14 Prentiss Street, from 1945 to 1948; and at Pasadena, California, at 708 East California Street, from on or about March 10, 1948, to July, 1948. That Contestant further avers on information and belief that Contestee's statement in his Declarations of Candidacy filed as aforesaid, that he has been a resident of the State of California for twelve (12) years, is false and untrue.

That said McGee, in his Declarations of Candidacy filed as aforesaid, alleged in said Declarations of Candidacy that he has been a citizen of the United States for thirteen (13) years. That Contestant is informed and believes and, upon such information and belief, alleges the fact to be that said McGee was naturalized on a derivative paper issued in the State of Pennsylvania on January 27, 1944, Application No. 8-A-4206, No. A98887. That, based upon said information and belief, Contestant alleges that said McGee's statement in his Declarations of Candidacy, that he has been a citizen of the United States for thirteen (13) years, is likewise false and untrue."

To all of which your committee, after giving careful consideration to the documentary evidence introduced in the matter before it, respectfully reports the same back with the following findings:

That said Patrick D. McGee received the highest number of votes cast for the office of Member of the Assembly from the Sixty-fourth Assembly District at both said primary and general elections and that Honorable Frank M. Jordan, Secretary of State of California did issue to the said Patrick D. McGee a certificate of election certifying that the said Patrick D. McGee has been elected to the office of Member of the Assembly for the Sixty-fourth Assembly District.

That Patrick D. McGee has been a bonafide citizen and inhabitant of the State of California for more than three (3) years and will have been a bonafide citizen and inhabitant of the State of California for more than three (3) years immediately preceding November 7, 1950, as required by Article IV, Section 4 of the Constitution of the State of California.

That Patrick D. McGee has been a bonafide citizen and inhabitant of the Sixty-fourth Assembly District of the State of California for more than one (1) year and has been a bonafide citizen and inhabitant of the Sixty-fourth Assembly District of the State of California for more than one (1) year immediately preceding November 7, 1950, as required by Article IV, Section 4 of the Constitution of the State of California

That Patrick D. McGee has been a bonafide citizen of the United States of America since May 4, 1931.

In view of the foregoing, your committee is of the opinion that Patrick D McGee qualified for the office of Assemblyman of the Sixty-fourth Assembly District and that the contest should be dismissed.

Wherefore your committee respectfully submits this report.

ELECTION OFFENSES AT THE POLLS—No. 5905

DEAR MR. WATERS: You have asked for a summary of the provisions of law relating to election offenses at the polling places, including the method of enforcement of such provisions.

Offenses

The following is a list of activities in or about polling places which are made criminal by various provisions of the Elections Code.

1. Forging or counterfeiting returns of an election purporting to be held at a precinct where no election was in fact held. (Elec. C. 11550.)

2. Willfully executing forged or counterfeited returns of election in the place of true returns for a precinct where an election was actually held. (Elec. C. 11550.)

3. Willfully adding to, or subtracting from, the votes actually cast at an election, in any official or unofficial returns, or altering returns. (Elec. C. 11551.)

4 Opening or examining, or permitting to be opened or examined, the folded ballot of any voter which has been handed in; marking any folded ballot with the purpose of ascertaining the name of any person for whom the voter has voted. These offenses apply only to inspectors, judges, or clerks of an election. (Elec. C. 5729.)

5. Aiding in changing or destroying any poll list or official ballot; aiding in wrongfully placing any ballots in the ballot box, or in taking any therefrom; adding, or attempting to add, any ballots to those legally polled at any election, by fraudulently putting them into the ballot box, either before or after the ballots therein have been counted; adding to, or mixing with, or attempting to add to, or mix with, the ballots polled, any other ballots, while they are being counted or canvassed, or at any other time, with intent to change the result of the election, or allowing another to do so; carrying away or destroying, or permitting the carrying away or destroying, of any poll list, ballot box, or ballots lawfully polled. These provisions apply only to officers or clerks of election. (Elec. C. 11553.)

6. Aiding or abetting the commission of any of the offenses mentioned in Sections 5729, 11550, 11551, or 11553, all of which are summarized above. (Elec. C. 11552.)

7. Willfully neglecting or refusing to perform official duties defined by, or knowingly or fraudulently acting in contravention of any provisions of, the Elections Code, on the part of any person charged with the performance of any duty under any laws of the State relating to elections. (Elec. C. 11502.)

8. Soliciting a vote or speaking to a voter on the subject of marking his bill within 100 feet of a polling place. (Elec. C. 5560.)

9. Electioneering on election day within 100 feet of any polling place. (Elec. C. 5561.)

10. Voting by person not entitled to vote, or voting more than once at any one election, or aiding in the commission of such offense. (Elec. C. 5701, 11700.)

11. Impersonating or attempting to impersonate a voter, or aiding in the commission of such offense. (Elec. C. 11700.)

12. Assisting or advising another person to vote, knowing that such person is not qualified. (Elec. C. 11701.)

13. Refusing to be sworn and examined by a precinct board concerning the right of another to vote. (Elec. C. 11702.)

Enforcement

It is the duty of the district attorney of the county in which any of the above described offenses have occurred to institute proceedings before magistrates for the arrest of persons charged with or reasonably suspected of such offenses when he has information that such offenses have been committed. (Gov. C. 26500, 26501.)

The grand jury of the county may inquire into all public offenses committed or triable therein, and present them to the court by indictment. (Pen. C. 915.)

Accordingly, should any person have knowledge of, or information about, an election offense committed within his county, he may present such information as he may have to the district attorney or to the grand jury, or to both, for further action pursuant to law.

Very truly yours,

RALPH N. KLEPS

Pour out Thy spirit upon our Nation so that the sense of true brotherhood may be quickened and we may do our full share in the establishment of a bond of fellowship among the nations of the world.

Grant guidance to all who are in places of leadership in these days of crisis. Hasten the day when the kingdoms of this world shall become the Kingdoms of our Lord, the Prince of Peace.

"Eternal Ruler of the ceaseless round
Of circling planets singing on their way;
Guide of the nations from the night profound
Into the glory of the perfect day
Rule in our hearts, that we may ever be Guided and strengthened and upheld by Thee."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Speaker Sam L. Collins announced that Sacramento Chapter No. 4 of the International Footprinters' Association is holding its Past Presidents' night dinner meeting on Thursday, March 22d, at the Elks Temple, 11th and J Streets, at 6.30 p.m.; that the price of the dinner is $2 50 per person; and, on behalf of the above mentioned organization, extended a cordial invitation to all Members of the Assembly to be present

Speaker Sam L. Collins announced that the office of the Legislative Counsel will be closed from 3 p.m., Friday, March 16th, until 8 a m. Monday, March 19th, for the purpose of moving into new quarters in the Capitol Annex; that said office will be open for business on Monday morning in the Capitol Annex; and that any legislative matters of urgency should be immediately referred to the office of the Legislative Counsel if his attention is needed.

Speaker Sam L. Collins announced that, beginning at 5.30 p.m tomorrow, Friday, March 16th, the United Airlines will again start operation of its Legislative Special DC-6 Mainliner, a 50-passenger plane, for the convenience of members of the legislative crowd desiring to fly to Los Angeles for the weekend. Those wishing reservations are urged to immediately contact the United Airlines.

Speaker Sam L. Collins announced that many committees are guilty of sending bills out of committee with a recommendation "amend, and re-refer to committee" and that sometimes a bill is amended and reprinted two or three times, and that he is strenuously opposed to this procedure because it costs the taxpayers money if bills are reprinted. He specifically stated that such procedure must stop and urged that, since all members seem to be in favor of an economy program, that an economy procedure should be adhered to as well as verbally sponsored; and urged all committee chairmen to review every possible amendment in their committees so that costly reprinting of amended bills may be minimized.

By Speaker Sam L. Collins:

The following communication was received, read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

THE RECLAMATION BOARD OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

The Honorable Sam L. Collins
The State Capitol, Sacramento, California

DEAR SIR: Chapter 103 of the Resolutions of 1949 (S. J. R. 21), directs the Reclamation Board of the State of California to keep a strict account of all expenditures made for the repair of the damages resulting to the flood control works of the Sacramento River as a result of the closing of the outlet gates of Shasta Dam on May 14, 1948, by the Bureau of Reclamation.

Chapter 103 further directs the Reclamation Board to periodically address the Federal Bureau of Reclamation for reimbursement of the expenditures made by the State of California arising out of the situation, and requires the Reclamation Board to continually urge for such reimbursement, and to secure the assistance of the Governor, the Senators and Congressmen of the State of California in urging such claim.

Report was made to the Legislature on June 8, 1949, advising that the Reclamation Board had rendered the first invoice to the Bureau of Reclamation and outlining the progress made to that date.

On March 6, 1950, the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation was forwarded Reclamation Board Bill Collectible No. 1925, being Invoice No. 2, in the amount of $211,624.30, plus unpaid balance of Invoice No. 1 in the amount of $14,064.56, making a total bill in the amount of $225,688.86, and representing expenditures of the State, through its agent the Reclamation Board, to the close of the period January 31, 1950.

Under date of February 5, 1951, Invoice No. 3, being Bill Collectible No 1925 continued, was forwarded to the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation. This bill detailed an expenditure of $99,633.76 for the period February 1, 1950, through December 31, 1950, which, together with the totals of Invoices Nos 1 and 2, resulted in total expenditures through the close of the 1950 calendar year in the amount of $325,322.62.

To the present date, no official word has been received from the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation other than acknowledgment of the receipt of Invoice No. 1.

In March, 1950, representatives of the Attorney General and representatives of the Reclamation Board, were in Washington in connection with appropriations to the Sacramento River Flood Control Project. These representatives took up with the Congressmen from California, the question of methods and procedures necessary to secure reimbursement to the State Senators Downey and Knowland at our request, prepared bills on the Senate side, and Congressmen Scudder, Engle, and Johnson, prepared bills on the House side, providing that the United States District Court for the Northern District of California be empowered by the Congress to hear, determine, and render judgment upon the claims of the State of California against the United States for reimbursement of the amounts expended, and to be expended, in repairing the damage to levees and other flood control works of the Sacramento River as a result of the closing of the outlet gates of Shasta Dam by the Bureau of Reclamation in May, 1948. These bills failed to receive passage at that session of Congress.

Following the above action, the Reclamation Board contacted Senator Knowland, Senator Nixon, Mr. Scudder, Mr. Allen, Mr. Engle, and Mr Johnson, with the result that similar bills have been introduced in the Eighty-second Congress providing for the same action as contained in the bills introduced in the Eighty-first Congress. We are now awaiting word from these gentlemen as to action on said bills. The Reclamation Board and the Attorney General are prepared to make appropriate representation in the committee when advised so to do.

The Reclamation Board at this date estimates that the total expenditure of state funds required to complete the repair of damages, including that heretofore expended, will approximate $750,000. This sum is mainly for the acquisition of the necessary levee rights of way, flowage easements, and lands required, but also contains the revision of public utilities, county and farm roads, administrative salaries and expenses, appraisers' time, and pro-rata cost of operation of state automobiles necessary to the work.

There is attached to this report, a copy of the bill introduced by Senator Knowland for himself and Mr. Downey, in the Eighty-first Session of Congress. The language of the bills introduced in the Eighty-second Session is similar thereto There is also attached, a copy of Invoice No 3 of Bill Collectible No 1925 continued, as recently forwarded to the U. S Bureau of Reclamation.

Yours very truly,

THE RECLAMATION BOARD
A. M. BARTON
Chief Engineer and General Manager

RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. Elliott:

House Resolution No. 87

Relative to memorializing the Congress of the United States regarding the Social Security Administration under the Federal Security Agency

WHEREAS, Employees making contributions under the old-age survivors insurance system of the Social Security Act are uncertain of their status and of the amounts contributed by their employers; and

WHEREAS, Persons applying for benefits have found, in some cases, that neglect in turning in funds on the part of some employers has made it difficult and at times impossible to straighten out their records so that they could establish their eligibility to obtain old age benefit payments under the Federal Social Security Law; and

WHEREAS, The intent and purpose of our Social Security Act will be more clearly expressed by advising the employee annually of his status thereunder; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Assembly of the State of California hereby memorializes the Congress of the United States to investigate and consider the feasibility of taking action which will require the Social Security Administration under the Federal Security Agency to furnish employees making contributions for old-age survivors insurance with an annual statement of their status and of the amount paid into the fund by their employers, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

Resolution read, and ordered referred to the Committee on Rules.

Amendment No. 2

On page 2 of said bill, after line 11, insert

"SEC. 2. Section 2924b of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2924b. Any person desiring a copy of any notice of default and of any notice of sale under any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale upon real property, as to which deed of trust or mortgage the power of sale cannot be exercised until such notices are given for the time and in the manner provided in section 2924 may, at any time subsequent to recordation or registration of such deed of trust or mortgage and prior to recordation of notice of default thereunder, cause to be filed for record in the office of the recorder of any county in which any part or parcel of the real property is situated, a duly acknowledged request for a copy of any such notice of default and of sale. This request shall set forth the name and address of the person requesting copies of such notices, shall identify the deed of trust or mortgage by stating the names of the parties thereto, the date of recordation or registration thereof and the book and page where the same is recorded or the recorder's or registrar's serial number and shall be in substantially the following form:

"In accordance with section 2924b, Civil Code, request is hereby made that a copy of any notice of default and a copy of any notice of sale under the deed of trust (or mortgage) recorded _____, 19____ in Book _____ page _____ records of _____ County, (or filed for record with recorder's serial number _____, or registered under registrar's number _____ County) California, executed by _____ as trustor (or mortgagor) in which _____, is named as beneficiary (or mortgagee) and _____ as trustee be mailed to _____ at _____.

Name Address

Signature_____"

Immediately upon the filing for record of such request, the recorder shall enter upon the margin of the record of the deed of trust or mortgage therein referred to a reference to the place where such request is recorded, which reference shall be substantially in the following form:

"Request recorded in Book _____ page _____ of _____ for copy of notice of default and sale."

The mortgagee, trustee or other person authorized to record the notice of default, shall within ten days following recordation of such notice of default deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, registered and with postage prepaid, containing a copy of such notice with the recording date shown thereon, addressed to each person whose name and address are set forth in a duly recorded request therefor, and a reference to which request has, prior to recordation of said notice of default, been entered on the margin of the record of the deed of trust or mortgage, directed to the address designated in said request, and at least twenty days before date of sale the mortgagee, trustee or other person authorized to make the sale shall deposit or cause to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope, registered and with postage prepaid, containing a copy of the notice of the time and place of sale, addressed to each person whose name and address are set forth in a request therefor recorded, within the time herein provided, a reference to which request has been entered upon the record as above provided at the address set forth in such request.

Any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale hereafter executed upon real property may contain a request that a copy of any notice of default and a copy of any notice of sale thereunder shall be mailed to any person a party thereto at the address of such person given therein, and a copy of any notice of default and of any notice of sale shall be mailed to each such person at the same time and in the same manner required as though a separate request therefor had been filed by each of such persons as herein authorized. If, in any deed of trust or mortgage with power of sale hereafter executed, except a deed of trust or mortgage of any of the classes excepted from the provisions of section 2924, no address of the trustor or mortgagor is therein set forth and if no request for notice by such trustor or mortgagor has been recorded as herein provided, a copy of the notice of default shall be published once a week for at least four weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the property is situated, such publication to commence within 10 days after the filing of the notice of default. In lieu of such publication a copy of the notice of default may be delivered personally to the trustor or mortgagor within such 10 days or at any time before publication is completed.

A recital in the deed executed pursuant to the power of sale of compliance with all requirements of law regarding the mailing of copies of notices for which requests have been recorded or the publication of a copy of the notice of default or of personal delivery of the copy of the notice of default shall constitute prima facie evidence of compliance therewith and conclusive evidence thereof in favor of bona fide purchasers and encumbrancers for value and without notice.

No request for copy of any notice filed for record pursuant to this section nor any statement or allegation in any such request nor any record thereof shall affect the title to real property or be deemed notice to any person that any person requesting copies of notice has or claims any right, title or interest in, or lien or charge upon the property described in the deed of trust or mortgage referred to therein."

On page 16 of said bill, strike out lines 1 to 7, inclusive, and insert

"SEC. 17. Section 15 of said act is amended to read.

Sec. 15. Whenever the board of directors deems it necessary for the district to incur a bonded indebtedness, [it] the board shall, by resolution, so declare and state [the proposition to be submitted to the electors,] the purpose for which the proposed debt is to be incurred, the amount of debt to be incurred, the maximum term the bonds proposed to be issued shall run before maturity, which shall not exceed forty years, [and] the maximum rate of interest to be paid, which shall not exceed five percent per annum[.] , and the measure to be submitted to the voters. The board of directors shall fix a date upon which an election shall be held for the purpose of authorizing said bonded indebtedness to be incurred. It shall be the duty of the board of directors to provide for holding such special election on the day[s] so fixed and in accordance with the [general election laws of the State] provisions of the Elections Code so far as the same shall be applicable, except as herein otherwise provided. Such board of directors shall give notice of the holding of such election, which notice shall contain the text of the resolution adopted by the board of directors of the [water] district, [boundaries] the designation of precincts, the location of polling places, and the names of the officers selected to conduct the election, who shall consist of one judge, one inspector and two clerks in each precinct In case such election is consolidated with a state or county election, the precincts, polling places, and election officers shall be the same as provided for such state or county election, and it shall be sufficient if the resolution and notice so state. Such notice shall be published once each week for two weeks, the last publication to be made not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks prior to the date of the proposed election, in at least one newspaper, and not more than three newspapers, published in such [water] district, which newspaper or newspapers shall be designated by the board of directors[;] . [and if] If there is no newspaper [printed] published in such [water] district, then [by posting] such notice shall be posted in three public places [therein,] in such district not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks prior to the date of the proposed election. All the expenses of holding such election shall be borne by the district The returns of such election shall be made, the votes canvassed by said board of directors [on the first Monday] within seven days following said election, and the results thereof ascertained and declared in accordance with the [general laws of the State] provisions of the Elections Code, so far as they may be applicable, except as [herein] in this act otherwise provided The secretary of the board of directors, as soon as the result is declared, shall enter in the records of such board a statement of such results No irregularities or informalities in conducting such election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have otherwise been fairly conducted. [In all respects not otherwise provided for herein said election shall be called, managed and directed as is by law provided for general elections in this state applicable thereto, except as herein otherwise provided]

Any action or proceeding, wherein the validity of any such bonds or of the proceedings in relation thereto is contested, questioned or denied, shall be commenced within three months from the date of such election : otherwise said bonds and all proceedings in relation thereto shall be held to be valid and in every respect legal and incontestable

SEC. 17a. Section 16 is added to said act, to read:

Sec. 16. As an alternative to the method of incurring bonded indebtedness authorized by Section 15 of this act, any district organized hereunder is authorized to incur a bonded indebtedness pursuant to the following subdivisions:

(1) Whenever the board of directors deems it necessary for the district to incur a bonded indebtedness which in the opinion of the board will not benefit the whole of the district, the board shall, by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of at least four directors, so declare and state".

Section 1. Out of any moneys unappropriated in the Postwar Unemployment and Construction Fund in the State Treasury the sum of one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) is hereby appropriated to the Emergency Fund specified in Item 277 of the Budget Act of 1950, to be expended by the Department of Public Works acting through the agency of the State Engineer (1) during the 1950-1951 Fiscal Year beginning July 1, 1950, and ending June 30, 1951, the 1951-52 Fiscal Year beginning July 1, 1951, and ending June 30, 1952, and the 1952-53 Fiscal Year beginning July 1, 1952, and ending June 30, 1953, (2) for the cost of repair or restoration, or both, of levees, flood control works, channels, irrigation works, city and county roads and bridges and other property damaged or destroyed by storm and flood or flood conditions, or by the effect of necessary use of such works, roads, bridges, or other property while in a weakened condition caused by such storm and flood or flood conditions, subsequent to October 1, 1950, and for which no appropriation or insufficient appropriation, has otherwise been made by law, (3) subject to each and all of the following (in addition to other) conditions, restrictions and limitations:

None of the moneys hereby appropriated shall be expended, allotted or encumbered, or become available for expenditure, for a work of repair, or restoration, except for the making of investigations, estimates or reports hereunder by said department unless and until:

(a) Such expenditure and purpose is first approved by the Director of Finance.

(b) The department has first investigated and reported upon the proposed work, has found it to be a matter of general public and state interest and concern, has estimated the cost of the work and filed its report thereon with the Department of Finance.

(c) Moneys equal to or in excess of the amount expendable from this appropriation for said work shall be made available (by a political subdivision, public district, municipality, county or public agency, including agencies of local and Federal Government but excluding agencies which are a part of the Executive Department of the State Government) for expenditure by the department for such work to the end that any sums expended from this appropriation shall be matched by like or greater amounts from public sources other than the State Treasury or funds of any agency which is a part of the executive department of the State Government Money allocated or assigned to a political subdivision, public district, municipality, county or public agency pursuant to the provisions of the Construction and Employment Act or any other law shall not be considered to be funds from the State Treasury or funds of any agency which is a part of the executive department of the State Government and may be used for matching purposes under this act notwithstanding provisions of the Construction and Employment Act or such other law.

The department may perform all or any portion of said work directly by contract or force account or the department and any entity herein authorized to match the appropriation herein made may enter into a contract whereby all or any portion of such work may be performed by any party to such contract Such contracts may include reimbursement for the cost of work already performed by such entity or the acceptance of such cost in lieu of matching funds, where it was necessary that such work be performed prior to the fulfillment of the requirements of this section, either because of the urgent character of such work, the unavailability of matching funds, or failure of the work to meet the requirements then in effect.

Not more than 20 percent of the money appropriated by this act shall be expended in any one county.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Recent occurrences of storms and floods have caused extensive damage to levees, flood control works, channels, irrigation works, city and county roads and bridges and other property.

While funds have been appropriated for the repair and restoration of the damaged property, it has been ruled that such funds may not be used to repair damage resulting from the necessary use of such property while in a weakened condition caused by such floods; nor has adequate relief been afforded to counties or other political entities that had to undertake repairs before prior approval and investigation by State departments either because of the urgent need for the repairs, the unavailability of matching funds, or the failure of the work to meet the requirements then in effect. Inasmuch as the repair of such flood damaged property must be performed at once and the reimbursement of the counties and public entities be made at once in order to provide money for further repairs and other essential services, it is necessary in the interest of public health and safety that this act take effect immediately."

Amendment No. 5

On page 1 of said bill, strike out lines 3 to 20, inclusive, and strike out pages 2 and 3.

Amendments read, and adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, engrossed, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Municipal and County Government.

Assembly Bill No. 182—An act to provide for the preparation, issuance and sale of state bonds to create a fund to provide for the purchase of revenue bonds issued by counties, cities, districts, municipal corporations, political subdivisions, public corporations, or other public agencies of the State to finance the acquisition and construction of, public improvements of such agencies, or combination of such agencies; defining the powers and duties of state officers in respect to the administration of the provisions hereof; providing ways and means for the payment of the interest of such bonds as such interest falls due, and also for the payment and discharge of the principal of such bonds as such principal matures; and appropriating money for the expense of preparing and of advertising the sale of bonds herein authorized to be issued, and for the administration of this act.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Committee Amendments

The following amendments were proposed by the Committee on Municipal and County Government:

Amendment No. 1

Strike out the title of the printed bill, and insert

"An act providing for the issuance and sale of state bonds to create a fund for the purchase of bonds issued by any public agency of the State of California, including any county, city and county, city, political subdivision, municipal corporation, public corporation, public district, public board, commission, department, authority, officer, body or entity, or any other public agency, statewide or local, or any combination of such public agencies, for public improvements; defining the powers and duties of state officers in respect to the administration of the provisions hereof; providing ways and means for the payment of the interest on such state bonds as such interest falls due, and also for the payment and discharge of the principal of such state bonds as such principal matures; and appropriating money for the payment of principal and interest of the bonds authorized hereby and for the payment of expenses incurred in, or as incidental to, the preparation, sale and issuance of the bonds authorized hereby and the administration of the said fund"

Amendment No. 2

On page 1 of said bill, strike out line 1, and insert

"Article 1.

Short Title and Definitions.

SECTION 1. This act may be cited as the Public Agencies Improvement Bond Act of 1951.

SEC. 2. As used in this act:

(a) "Public agency" means a county, city and county, city, political subdivision, municipal corporation, public corporation, public district, public board, commission, department, authority, officer, body or entity, or any other public agency, statewide or local.

(b) "Commission" means the commission created by Section 4 of this act.

(c) "Fund" means the fund created by Section 5 of this act

(d) "Public improvement" means any public work, undertaking or improvement, whether by original acquisition or construction, or by the acquisition or construction of any extension or betterment of, or addition to, any existing public work, undertaking or improvement, and shall include maintenance, repair and operation of any such public work, undertaking or improvement.

Article 2

Authorization and Purposes of Bonds.

SEC. 3. The issuance and sale of bonds of the State of California, and the creation of an indebtedness, or indebtedness, liability or liabilities, of the State of California, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of one billion dollars ($1,000,000,000) is hereby authorized, and the proceeds of said bonds shall be used:

(a) To provide a fund to purchase bonds issued by any public agency of the State of California, including any county, city and county, city, political subdivision, municipal corporation, public corporation, public district, public board, commission, department, authority, officer, body or entity, or any other public agency, state-wide or local, or by any combination of such public agencies, for public improvements.

(b) To pay expenses incurred in, or as incidental to, the preparation, sale and issuance of the bonds authorized hereby and the administration of the said fund.

The said sum shall be a limitation upon the aggregate amount of all bonds which may be issued hereunder, and not merely upon the amount which may be outstanding at any one time.

Article 3.

Creation of Commission and Fund

SEC. 4. There is hereby created a State Public Agencies Improvement Finance Commission composed of the Governor, State Controller, Attorney General, Superintendent of Banks, Director of Finance, State Treasurer, and Director of Public Works, all of whom shall serve thereon without compensation and a majority of whom shall be empowered to act for said commission. Two Members of the Senate appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules and two Members of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker, shall meet and advise with the commission to the extent that such advisory participation is not incompatible with their respective positions as Members of the Legislature. The Director of Finance shall provide such assistance to the State Public Agencies Improvement Finance Commission as it may require. The Attorney General of the State shall be the legal adviser of the commission.

SEC. 5. There is hereby created in the State Treasury a fund to be known as the Public Agencies Loan Fund.

Appropriation for Expenses.

SEC. 6. Out of any money in the General Fund not otherwise appropriated, the sum of _____ dollars ($_____) is hereby appropriated to the State Treasurer, without regard to fiscal years, to pay the expenses incurred by the State Treasurer in preparing the bonds of the first issue of the bonds authorized by this act, and in advertising for the sale thereof, or in any manner in connection therewith, and out of any money in the General Fund not otherwise appropriated, the sum of _____ ($_____) is hereby appropriated to the commission, without regard to fiscal years, to pay the expenses incurred by the commission in the administration of the fund. When any bonds of the first issue authorized by this act have been sold, out of money received from the sale of such bonds, there shall be deposited in the General Fund to the credit of the appropriations made by this section such amount as the State Treasurer has expended for the said purposes, and as the said commission has expended for the said purposes. Upon the deposit of such amounts to the credit of such appropriations, respectively, such appropriations shall revert to the unappropriated surplus in the General Fund. Upon the reversion of the General Fund appropriations made by this section, respectively, as herein provided, all expenses subsequently incurred by the State Treasurer in preparing, advertising for sale, or advertising the redemption prior to maturity of any bonds authorized by this act, and all expenses subsequently incurred by the commission in the administration of the fund, shall be payable out of the fund.

Article 5.

Amounts, Maturities and other terms of Bonds.

SEC. 7. The commission shall determine the necessity or desirability of issuing any bonds authorized under this act in order to purchase bonds issued by any public agency or agencies to finance public improvements, and the amount of bonds then to be issued and sold. Successive issues of bonds may be authorized and sold to make such purchases progressively and shall be designated by an appropriate number or other designation. It shall not be necessary that all of the bonds herein authorized to be issued shall be sold at any one time.

SEC. 8. Whenever the commission shall have determined that the sale of all or any part of the bonds authorized to be issued under this act is necessary or desirable to purchase bonds issued by any public agency or agencies to finance public improvements, it shall adopt a resolution to that effect. The said resolution shall authorize and direct the State Treasurer to provide for the preparation of the requisite number of suitable bonds then authorized to be sold and shall specify as to such bonds then to be sold:

1. The aggregate number, aggregate par value, denominations and the date of the bonds to be then sold. Such denominations shall be in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), or multiples thereof.

2. The dates of maturity, and the amount and numerical sequence of the bonds maturing at each date of maturity, which amounts need not be equal, but which dates shall be at annual or semiannual intervals, and the first of which dates of maturity shall be not less than five years, and the last of which dates of maturity shall be not more than 45 years, after the date of said bonds.

3. The provisions for the redemption of said bonds at any time or times prior to their maturity, the manner of the call thereof, and the price or prices at which said bonds shall be subject to redemption.

4. The maximum annual rate, or rates, of interest which the bonds to be issued shall bear, which shall be in multiples of one-fourth of 1 percent, and which rate, or rates, shall not exceed five percent per annum, payable semiannually.

5. The number, numerical sequence and due dates of the interest coupons to be attached to said bonds.

6. The technical form and language of said bonds and of the interest coupons to be attached thereto.

7. Whether or not the right is reserved to make delivery in the form of temporary or interim bonds, certificates or receipts, exchangeable for definitive bonds when executed and available for delivery, and if such right is reserved the denominations and form of such temporary securities.

8. Whether or not the bonds are to be subject to registration, and if so, whether such registration is to be as to principal only, or as to both principal and interest, or in either of said forms at the option of the holder, and the form and all of the terms and conditions of such registration. If such registration is provided for, all of the provisions of this act with reference to the payment of bonds and interest coupons shall be subject to the terms and conditions of such registration with respect to the payment of registered bonds and the interest thereon

9. All other terms and conditions of the bonds and of the execution, issuance and sale thereof, which shall be consistent with all of the provisions of this act.

10. The date and hour fixed for the sale of the bonds, but such date may be changed by the Governor, in his discretion, by his directions given to the State Treasurer under Section 20 of this act.

SEC. 9. In determining the dates of maturity of the said state bonds, and the amount thereof to mature at each date of maturity, the commission shall be guided, so far as it may deem to be practicable, by the estimated amounts and dates of maturity of, and interest payments on, the bonds of public agencies expected to be purchased, and the expected amount and time of the receipt of the proceeds of the resale thereof, and shall fix and determine said dates and amounts of such maturities of such state bonds in such manner that, together with the dates and amounts of interest payments on the bonds of said issue, they shall coincide, as nearly as it may deem to be practicable, with the dates and amounts of such estimated receipts.

SEC. 10. The rate of interest to be borne by the said state bonds need not be uniform for all bonds of the same issue, and the interest coupons first payable may be so payable at any time within one year after the date of such bonds.

SEC. 11. Both principal of and interest on the state bonds hereby authorized shall be payable in lawful money of the United States, at the office of the State Treasurer, or at the office of the state fiscal agent, in the City of New York, State of New York, or at the office of any duly authorized agent of the State Treasurer.

SEC. 12. Each bond issued under this act shall contain a reference to this act, and to the resolution or resolutions of the commission under which said bond is issued, and, if subject to call or redemption prior to maturity, shall contain a recital to that effect.

Article 6.

Preparation and Execution of Bonds.

SEC. 13. Immediately after the adoption by the commission of any resolution provided for in Section 8 of this act, the State Treasurer shall arrange for the preparation of the requisite number of suitable bonds, in accordance with the specifications contained in said resolution, and in so doing shall arrange for the imprinting thereon of the interest rates and other appropriate matter after the sale of the bonds and the awarding thereof to the successful bidder.

SEC. 14. All bonds issued under this act shall bear the facsimile signature of the Governor and the facsimile countersignature of the Controller and shall be endorsed by the State Treasurer either by original signature or by a signature stamp, and each of said bonds shall bear an impress of the Great Seal of the State of California Interest coupons attached to each bond shall bear the facsimile signature of the State Treasurer Each such signature shall be that of the person who shall be in office at the date of the affixing thereof, in the case of original or stamped signature, or at the date of authorizing the affixing thereof, in the case of facsimile signatures. Bonds and coupons so executed shall be valid and binding notwithstanding any of such persons having ceased to hold his respective office before their issuance and delivery.

SEC. 15 Whenever the commission may determine by resolution that for any reason any bonds which have been prepared and executed under the foregoing provisions should not be sold or issued, the State Treasurer shall cancel the same by perforation with a suitable device in a manner to indicate such cancellation and the date thereof. Upon the commission so determining by resolution, new bonds, conforming to its directions, may be prepared and executed in lieu of any bonds so cancelled, and may be sold and issued in the same manner as other bonds authorized by this act

SEC. 16 If the right so to do has been reserved in the resolution adopted under Section 8 of this act, temporary or interim bonds, certificates or receipts may be issued and delivered in lieu of definitive bonds, and shall be exchangeable for such definitive bonds when they are executed and available for delivery Such temporary securities shall conform to such resolution, and the signature of the State Treasurer alone, which may be by signature stamp, shall be sufficient execution thereof.

Article 7.

Pledge of Full Faith and Credit, and Authorization of Taxation.

SEC. 17 All bonds herein authorized, which shall have been duly sold and delivered as herein provided, shall constitute valid and legally binding general obligations of the State of California, and the full faith and credit of the State of California is hereby pledged for the punctual payment of both the principal thereof and the interest thereon

SEC 18. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in the State Treasury such sum annually as will be necessary to pay the principal of and the interest on the bonds issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of this act, as said principal and interest become due and payable.

SEC. 19 There shall be collected annually in the same manner and at the same time as other state revenue is collected such a sum, in addition to the ordinary revenues of the State, as together with such sums as may be made available from the fund created by this act, shall be required to pay the principal of and interest on said bonds as herein provided, and it is hereby made the duty of all officers charged by law with any duty in regard to the collection of said revenue, to do and perform each and every act which shall be necessary to collect such additional sum

Sale of Bonds.

SEC 20 Following the adoption by the commission of any resolution provided for in Section 8 of this act, the Governor shall direct the State Treasurer, in writing, under the seal of the State, to offer the bonds specified in said resolution for sale at a specified day and hour

SEC 21 Due notice of the time and place of sale of the said bonds shall be given by the State Treasurer by publication in one newspaper published in the City and County of San Francisco, by publication in one newspaper published in the City of Sacramento, and by publication in one newspaper published in the City of Los Angeles, once a week during two weeks prior to such sale In addition to the notice last above provided for, the State Treasurer may give such further notice as he may deem advisable, but the expense and cost of such additional notice shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) for each sale so advertised.

SEC 22 The State Treasurer may from time to time, by public announcement at the place and time fixed for the sale, continue such sale to such time and place as he may select.

SEC 23 Each bid shall be in writing and signed by the bidder and sealed, and shall be accompanied by the deposit of a certified check or cashier's check for one percent (1%) of the par value of the bonds so offered for sale, drawn on a bank or trust company authorized to transact and transacting business in the State of California, payable to the Treasurer of the State of California Such deposit shall not bear interest

SEC 24. The said bonds specified in said resolution and in said direction of the Governor shall be sold by the State Treasurer at the time so directed by the Governor, at public sale, upon sealed bids, to the bidder whose bid will result in the lowest net interest cost on account of such bonds, but the State Treasurer must reject any and all bids for said bonds which shall be below the par value thereof plus the interest which shall have accrued thereon from the date thereof (or, if any past due coupon or coupons have been detached from said bonds prior to the delivery thereof, then from the due date of the latest coupon so detached) to the date of the purchaser's payment for said bonds. The net interest cost under each bid shall be determined by ascertaining the total amount of interest which the State would be required to pay under that bid, from the date of sale to the respective maturity dates of the bonds then offered for sale, at the coupon rate or rates specified in such bid, less the total amount of the premium (if any) offered by such bid. The bid under which the amount so ascertained is the least shall be deemed to be the bid resulting in the lowest net interest cost. Such sale shall be for cash, payable upon the delivery of the bonds in definitive form, or if the right to deliver temporary securities has been reserved, then upon the delivery of such temporary securities.

SEC. 25. The deposit of each unsuccessful bidder shall be returned to him immediately upon the rejection of his bid or the acceptance of another bid.

The deposit of the successful bidder shall, immediately upon the acceptance of his bid, become and be the property of the State of California and be placed in the State Treasury to the credit of the fund, and shall be credited to the successful purchaser upon the purchase price of the bonds bid for in case such purchase price is paid in full by him within the time mutually agreed upon between the successful bidder and the State Treasurer. If the purchase price is not so paid, the successful bidder shall have no right in and to said bonds or by reason of said bid, nor, unless it shall appear that the bonds would not be validly issued if delivered to the purchaser in the form and manner proposed, shall such successful bidder have any right to the recovery of said deposit accompanying said bid or to any allowance or credit by reason of such deposit.

SEC. 26. Upon payment in full for said bonds, the same shall be delivered to the purchaser in definitive form, unless the right to deliver temporary securities has been reserved or the purchaser has waived the right to receive definitive bonds at the time of payment, in either of which events such temporary securities, exchangeable for definitive bonds, may be delivered upon such payment. In case the purchase price is not so paid, the bonds so sold but not paid for shall be resold by the State Treasurer, upon notice, as provided in case of original sale.

SEC. 27. The proceeds of each sale of bonds authorized by this act, and such amount as may have been paid as accrued interest on such bonds, shall be forthwith paid over by the State Treasurer into the fund. All money deposited in the fund under the provisions of this section which is derived from premium and accrued interest on bonds sold shall be reserved in said fund and shall be available for transfer to the General Fund as provided by Section 38 of this act.

SEC. 28. Whenever the commission deems that it will increase the salability or the price of the bonds to obtain, prior to or after sale, a legal opinion, other than that of the Attorney General, as to the validity of the bonds, the commission may authorize the State Treasurer or the Department of Finance, or both, to obtain such a legal opinion. Payment for such legal services shall be made from the fund, upon approval of the State Board of Control and on Controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose.

Administration of Fund

SEC. 29. The commission shall have full charge and control of the administration of the fund. The proceeds of the sale of all bonds authorized by this act, other than such sums as may be received as premiums or as accrued interest, shall be used exclusively for the purchase of bonds issued by public agencies for public improvements, excepting only that, to such extent as other moneys are not available therefor, such proceeds may be used for the purposes specified in paragraph (b) of Section 3 of this act. The commission may also use for the purchase of such bonds issued by public agencies any money in the fund, whether derived from the re-sale of bonds of public agencies or otherwise, not required by the terms of this act to be applied to some other purpose.

SEC. 30. The commission shall not disburse in any fiscal year for the purchase of bonds issued by public agencies any amount in excess of an amount determined by the Legislature and by it budgeted for such use.

SEC. 31. Before any bonds of a public agency, other than general obligation bonds, are purchased by the commission:

(a) The public agency shall have approved the public improvement for which its bonds are issued.

(b) The commission shall have satisfied itself, either through a thorough study and investigation made by or for it, or through studies and reports, satisfactory to the commission, furnished by the public agency, that the public improvement for which the bonds are issued is economical and feasible and that the receipts of the public agency charged with the payment of such bonds will be sufficient to pay all sums accruing as principal or interest on said bonds until they have been fully paid, in addition to paying all other charges against said receipts. If it so determines, it shall approve the public improvement.

(c) The issuance of such bonds of such public agency shall have been authorized or approved by a majority of the electors thereof voting on the proposition at an election at which the same shall have been duly submitted; provided, however, that the commission may waive the requirement of this paragraph (c) in any case where the law or charter under which the bonds of the public agency are issued does not require such vote, but accords to the electors thereof the right of referendum on the question of the issuance of such bonds, or in any case where the commission shall determine by resolution that, for reasons stated in such resolution, it is in the public interest so to do.

(d) The commission may require the public agency to furnish a legal opinion as to the validity of the bonds, rendered by bond counsel approved by the commission.

SEC. 32. The commission shall not purchase any bonds issued by any public agency unless it shall be satisfied that such bonds will yield to the State an average rate of return of not less than one-fourth of one percent (¼%) above the net interest cost to the State of the money used for such purpose. It is the intent of this provision that the differential between the yield received by the State on bonds of public agencies purchased and the net interest cost of the money used for such purchase shall be the primary source from which the expenses of administering the fund shall be paid, and the prices to be paid for bonds of public agencies shall be such as in the judgment of the commission will result in its operations becoming self-sustaining at the earliest practicable time. At any time after the operations of the commission have become fully self-sustaining, and after all amounts advanced from the General Fund for payments of principal or interest on state bonds issued under this act, not met by moneys in the fund, have been repaid, the commission may purchase bonds of any public agency on a basis estimated to yield less than one-fourth of one percent (¼%) in excess of the net interest cost of the money used, but not less than it shall estimate to be sufficient to keep the operations of the commission self-sustaining

SEC. 33. The commission may purchase any such bonds of a public agency either by direct negotiation or by becoming a bidder when any such bonds are offered for public sale. In any case where the commission may purchase any such bonds of a public agency which are issued to provide only a part of the cost of a public improvement and it is contemplated that one or more additional issues of such bonds will thereafter be issued to provide the cost of completing such public improvement, the commission may enter into a commitment to purchase such future issues, subject to such limitations of price and interest rates and such other terms and conditions as the commission may deem proper.

SEC. 34. Whenever any combination of public agencies shall be authorized to undertake any public improvement jointly or in cooperation, bonds issued by any such public agencies jointly, or by any board or commission established to administer or control such undertaking, to finance the same, shall be deemed to be bonds of a public agency within the meaning of this act, and, to the extent necessary to give effect to this section, the words " public agency" and "public agencies," wherever used in this act, shall be deemed to include such combination of public agencies or such board or commission; provided, however, that the approval required by paragraph (a) of Section 31 of this act shall be the approval of each public agency so joining or cooperating, and the approval by vote of the electors required by paragraph (c) of said section, unless waived as therein provided, shall be the approving vote of a majority of the electors of each public agency so joining or cooperating voting on the proposition.

SEC. 35. Whenever the commission shall deem it to be in the interests of the State so to do, it may offer any or all bonds of public agencies held by it for public sale at such times and places and after such notice as it may determine to be proper. Sales need not be made after such offer, but the commission may withdraw such bonds from sale, and may again offer them for sale from time to time as it may determine to be proper to effectuate the purposes of this act, and as the commission may determine to be required by sound financial administration

SEC. 36. The proceeds of the sale of bonds pursuant to Section 35 of this act shall be deposited in the fund.

SEC. 37. All interest paid by any public agency upon bonds purchased by the commission pursuant to this act shall be deposited in the fund

SEC 38. On the several dates when payments of principal or interest become due on bonds issued under this act there shall be transferred into the General Fund in the State Treasury from the fund, so far as available therein, amounts equal to all sums so becoming due for principal or interest on said bonds. Money in the fund derived from the differential provided for in Section 32 of this act or derived from the proceeds of the sale of bonds authorized by this act (other than sums received as premiums or accrued interest) shall not be deemed to be available for such transfer, provided, however, that if the commission shall deem the amount in the fund derived from such differential to be inadequate to meet the current expenses of administering the fund, it may direct that such additional amount as it may specify shall be withheld from such transfers, and provided, further, that if the commission shall deem the amount in the fund derived from such differential to be more than sufficient to meet such current expenses, it may direct that such amount thereof as it may specify shall be included in any such transfer to the General Fund

SEC. 39. If the amounts transferred to the General Fund pursuant to Section 38 of this act are insufficient to reimburse the General Fund in full for all amounts of principal and interest paid on said bonds, the balance remaining unpaid shall be transferred from the fund to said General Fund as soon thereafter as such transfer can be made consistently with the provisions of Section 38 of this act as to the availability of moneys in the fund.

SEC. 40. All actual and necessary expenses of the commission and of the members thereof incurred in the performance of their duties arising out of the provisions of this act shall be paid out of the fund. Such expenses incurred by members of the commission shall be so paid upon claims filed with the State Controller by the member or members of said commission who incurred such expenses.

SEC. 41. The Department of Finance is authorized, to invest any surplus money in the fund in bonds or other obligations of the United States, or of the State of California, or of any public agency, and to sell such bonds, or obligations, or any of them, at the governing market rates. Interest earned or other increment derived from investments made pursuant to this section shall, on order of the State Controller, be deposited in the Fund, and shall be available only for transfer to the General Fund, as provided in Section 38 of this act.

SEC. 42 The Controller, the State Treasurer and the commission shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act and they shall transmit to the Governor an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder, with an annual report, to be transmitted by the Governor to the Legislature annually; and all books and papers pertaining to the matters provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the Governor, or the Attorney General, or a committee of either branch of the Legislature, or a joint committee of both, or any citizen of the State

Article 10.

Payment and Cancellation of Bonds

SEC. 43. The State Treasurer, directly or through the State Fiscal Agent, at New York, New York, or through a duly authorized agent, shall, on the respective dates of maturity of all bonds issued under this act, or on the date fixed for the prior redemption of any thereof which may be duly called for redemption, and on the respective due dates of all coupons pertaining to any of said bonds (other than coupons cancelled because of the redemption of any of said bonds prior to maturity) or as soon thereafter as said bonds or coupons respectively are surrendered to him, or to such State Fiscal Agent, or other duly authorized agent, pay the same

SEC 44 Upon the payment of any such bond or coupon, the State Treasurer, or such State Fiscal Agent, or other duly authorized agent, shall perforate the same with a suitable device in a manner to indicate such payment and the date thereof The State Treasurer, or such State Fiscal Agent, or other duly authorized agent, shall also on the respective dates of maturity of any such bonds which have been executed but which remain unsold, cancel the same by perforation with a suitable device in a manner to indicate such cancellation and the date thereof, and on the respective due dates of all coupons attached to any such bond remaining unsold, shall detach all such coupons the due date of which has been reached, and cancel them in the same manner as provided for the cancellation of bonds remaining unsold.

SEC. 45. Not less than four (4) years after the final maturity date of any particular issue of bonds, the State Treasurer, or such State Fiscal Agent, or other duly authorized agent, may destroy or cremate any or all bonds of such issue and any or all coupons pertaining thereto which have been previously paid or cancelled as provided herein.

SEC 46 Whenever any payment of principal of any bonds issued under this act shall become due, either upon the maturity of any of said bonds or upon the redemption of any thereof prior to maturity, and whenever any interest on any of said bonds shall fall due, warrants shall be drawn against the appropriation made by Section 18 of this act from the General Fund by the Controller of the State in favor of the State Treasury, or the State Fiscal Agent, or other duly authorized agent, pursuant to claims filed with the State Controller by the State Treasurer, in the amounts so falling due, and the amounts so paid for such principal and interest shall be charged against the proceeds of said warrants.

Redemption of Bonds

SEC. 47. Whenever the commission shall determine that any bonds issued under this act and then outstanding, and which by their terms are subject to redemption prior to maturity, should be redeemed, and that money sufficient for such redemption will be available in the fund at the time proposed for such redemption, it may by resolution direct the State Treasurer to call and redeem any such bonds, at a time specified in such resolution, and the State Treasurer shall thereupon give notice of such proposed redemption and redeem said bonds in accordance with the provisions for redemption provided for in the resolution of the Commission adopted under Section 8 of this act pursuant to which the bonds so to be called were issued

Article 12.

Other Laws Applicable.

SEC. 48. So far as consistent with the provisions of this act, all of the provisions of Part 3, entitled "State Bonds", of Division 4, Title 2, of the Government Code, and of such other acts of the Legislature as relate to state bonds generally, and to the powers and duties of state officers related thereto, but not such acts as relate to specific issues of state bonds, or to state bonds of specified classes, shall be applicable to the bonds authorized by this act and to the powers and duties of state officers related thereto.

Article 13.

Taking Effect of this Act

SEC. 49. This act shall take effect only if an amendment to the Constitution of the State of California authorizing the issuance of bonds of the State of California in the sum of one billion dollars ($1,000,000,000) for the purposes specified in Section 3 of this act, and ratifying, validating, confirming and making fully and completely effective this act, shall be adopted by the voters and become effective, and in such case this act shall take effect at the same time such amendment takes effect."

PRINTER'S NOTE—There being no 7-point strikeout type available, the material which should appear in strikeout type in the following amendment is indicated by being enclosed within brackets.

Amendment No. 1

On page 12 of the printed bill, between lines 7 and 8, insert "be applicable to the counties, as agents of the State for the purposes of administering state and federal funds provided for assistance under the cited portions of this code, in employing personnel for such purposes.

In the exercise of its functions under this section, the State Department of Social Welfare shall exercise no authority with respect to the selection, tenure of office and compensation of any individual if he is employed in accordance with such standards.

Nothing in this section shall prevent any county from establishing its own merit system and determining thereunder the personnel standards to be applicable to its employees, but as to those employees engaged in the administration of state and federal funds granted to a county as agent of the State for the cited portions of this code, the State Department of Social Welfare shall have a supervisory power to insure compliance with the personnel standards it establishes to the end that this State shall at all times conform to the requirements of federal law for the continued receipt of federal grants-in-aid.

SEC. 8. Section 124 of said code is amended to read.

124. There is a Social Welfare Fund established in the State Treasury, in which there shall be deposited:

(a) All grants of money received by the State from the United States under the provisions of Title I, IV, [and] X, XIV, and Part 3, of Title V of the Social Security Act, and any other grants, the expenditure of which is administered through or under the direction of the State Department of Social Welfare.

(b) All money appropriated by the State for the support of the State Department of Social Welfare. The department may use the money within this subdivision for the purposes for which the money in subdivision (a) is made available by the United States for expenditure by this State but all money so used by the department shall be returned to the support appropriation from the next subsequent grant or grants of the United States. The money to be deposited in the Social Welfare Fund under this subdivision shall be transferred to the Social Welfare Fund in such amounts as may be authorized by executive order of the Director of Finance.

The State Department of Social Welfare may and the Controller shall keep a record of the classes and sources of income credited to the Social Welfare Fund and of the disbursement therefrom

Unless otherwise expressly provided, all money deposited in the Social Welfare Fund under an appropriation by the State shall be available for all expenditures incurred for the purposes for which it was appropriated during the period thereof, and shall be subject to the provisions of Section 16304 of the Government Code.

SEC. 9. Section 145 of said code is amended to read:

145. The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the continued operation of the state plans for aid to the aged, the needy blind, the disabled, and needy children in the event that federal assistance therefor is temporarily delayed or not available.".

SECOND READING OF ASSEMBLY BILLS (RESUMED)

Assembly Bill No. 3126—An act to amend Section 2 of an act entitled "An act making an appropriation to the emergency fund specified in Item 278 of the Budget Act of 1949, relating to the repair and restoration of property damaged or destroyed by storms or floods and the expenditure of money appropriated therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately," approved June 9, 1949, relating to repair and restoration of property damaged and destroyed by storms or floods.

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Committee Amendments

The following amendments were proposed by the Committee on Conservation, Planning, and Public Works:

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "2", and insert "1".

Amendment No. 2

In line 9 of the title of said bill, after "floods", insert "and the expenditure of money appropriated therefor, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately".

Amendment No. 3

On page 1 of said bill, strike out lines 1 and 2, and insert

"SECTION 1. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read:

Section 1. The entire unencumbered balance of the appropriation provided for by an act entitled "An act making an appropriation to the emergency fund specified in Item 325 of the Budget Act of 1947, relating to the repair and restoration of property damaged or destroyed by storms or floods and the expenditure of money appropriated therefor," approved July 18, 1947, is hereby appropriated to the emergency fund specified in Item 278 of the Budget Act of 1949, to be expended by the Department of Public Works acting through the agency of the State Engineer (1) during the 1949-50 Fiscal Year beginning July 1, 1949, and ending June 30, 1950 and the 1950-51 Fiscal Year beginning July 1, 1950 and ending June 30, 1951, (2) for the cost of repair or restoration, or both, of levees, flood control works, roads, canals, ditches and flumes, channels, irrigation works, city and county roads and bridges and other property damaged or destroyed by storm, storm and flood or flood conditions or by the effect of necessary use of such works, roads, bridges, or other property while in a weakened condition caused by such storm and flood or flood conditions, subsequent to December 31, 1948, and for which no appropriation or insufficient appropriation, has otherwise been made by law, (3) subject to each and all of the following (in addition to other) conditions restrictions and limitations

None of the moneys hereby appropriated shall be expended, allotted or encumbered, or become available for expenditure, for a work of repair, or restoration, except for the making of investigations, estimates or reports hereunder by said department unless and until:

(a) Such expenditure and purpose is first approved by the Director of Finance.

(b) The department has first investigated and reported upon the proposed work, has found it to be a matter of general public and state interest and concern, has estimated the cost of the work and filed its report thereon with the Department of Finance

(c) Moneys equal to or in excess of the amount expendable from this appropriation for said work shall be made available (by a political subdivision, public district, municipality, county or public agency, including agencies of local and Federal Government but excluding agencies which are a part of the executive department of the State Government) for expenditure by the department for such work to the end that any sums expended from this appropriation shall be matched by like or greater amounts from sources other than the State Treasury or funds of any agency which is a part of the executive department of the State Government Money allocated or assigned to a political subdivision, public district, municipality, county or public agency pursuant to the provisions of the Construction and Employment Act or any other law shall not be considered to be funds from the State Treasury or funds of any agency which is a part of the executive department of the State Government and may be used for matching purposes under this act notwithstanding provisions of the Construction and Employment Act or such other law.

The department may perform all or any portion of said work directly by contract or force account or the department and any entity herein authorized to match the appropriation herein made may enter into a contract whereby all or any portion of such work may be performed by any party to such contract Such contracts may include reimbursement for the cost of work already performed by such entity or the acceptance of such cost in lieu of matching funds, where it was necessary that such work be performed prior to the fulfillment of the requirements of this section, either because of the urgent character of such work, the unavailability of matching funds, or failure of the work to meet the requirements then in effect.

Not more than 20 percent of the money appropriated by this act shall be expended in any one county.

SEC. 2 This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Recent occurrences of storms and floods have caused extensive damage to levees, flood control works, channels, irrigation works, city and county roads and bridges and other property.

While funds have been appropriated for the repair and restoration of the damaged property, it has been ruled that such funds may not be used to repair damage resulting from the necessary use of such property while in a weakened condition caused by such floods; nor has adequate relief been afforded to counties or other political entities that had to undertake repairs before prior approval and investigation by state departments either because of the urgent need for the repairs, the unavailability of matching funds, or the failure of the work to meet the requirements then in effect. Inasmuch as the repair of such flood damaged property must be performed at once and the reimbursement of the counties and public entities be made at once in order to provide money for further repairs and other essential services, it is necessary in the interest of public health and safety that this act take effect immediately."

Amendment No. 5

Consideration of Committee Amendments

The following amendments were proposed by the Committee on Education:

Amendment No. 1

In line 4 of the title of the printed bill, after "war", insert ", declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately".

Amendment No. 2

On page 1 of said bill, after line 11, insert

"SEC. 3. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The United States of America is in a state of emergency The continued maintenance of all parts of the Public School System being essential to the welfare of the United States and of the State of California it is necessary that provision be made immediately for the securing of the necessary materials and supplies to operate the Public School System. Because of the unsettled condition of prices and because of the scarcity of materials it is becoming increasingly difficult to secure the materials and supplies needed to operate the Public School System through ordinary notice and bidding procedure It is therefore necessary to authorize school districts to acquire materials and supplies without the necessity of calling for and receiving bids in the ordinary manner"

Amendments read, and adopted

Bill ordered reprinted, engrossed, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Education.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO TAKE UP HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 80

Mr. Davis asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that he be permitted to take up House Resolution No. 80, out of order, at this time.

CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 80

By Mr. Davis:

House Resolution No. 80

Relative to the passing of John P. Branley

WHEREAS, The Members of the Assembly have learned with regret of the passing on January 29, 1951, of John P. Branley, former member of the Board of Supervisors of Plumas County; and

WHEREAS, John P Branley had served for 14 years as member of the County Board of Supervisors, retiring in 1947; and

WHEREAS, He was active in civic and community affairs having rendered splendid services in Indian Valley and Greenville; and

WHEREAS, John P Branley had a host of sincere friends throughout the State who knew him because of his efforts in connection with the Supervisors' Association and the Western Mining Council in which field he was most active; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly hereby express their deep sorrow at the passing of John P Branley; and be it further

Resolved, That when the Assembly shall this day adjourn, it do so in respect to the memory of John P. Branley; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to Annis E Branley, his widow, and Molly Treleaver, Greenville, Margaret Hall, Sacramento, and Jenny Terrell Chester

Resolution read, and adopted unanimously.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO TAKE UP HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 85

Mr Lyon asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that he be permitted to take up House Resolution No 85, out of order, at this time.

By Mr Lyon:

House Resolution No. 85

Relative to a St Patrick's Day celebration in the Assembly, and appropriation of $150 therefor

WHEREAS, It has become a national and often international custom for men of good will and tolerance to join in a celebration of St. Patrick's Day throughout the lands wherein the Sons of Ireland reside; and

WHEREAS, The State of California and more particularly the Assembly of the State are served by no few number of the Sons of Ireland; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby made available from the Contingent Fund of the Assembly to the Rules Committee for the celebration of St Patrick's Day 1951.

Resolution read.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. Dickey announced that a new policy has been adopted by the Committee on Rules and that every House resolution will be considered on its individual merits. He reminded members that most resolutions pay respect to people who have died who are well known in their districts but little known statewide, and that if the work of this session is to be expedited and concluded on the date of adjournment, the file on House resolutions must be minimized He urged every member to please cooperate and use discretion in the introduction of all resolutions.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT THAT ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 2213 BE WITHDRAWN FROM COMMITTEE, AND BE RE-REFERRED

Mr. Grant asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that Assembly Bill No. 2213 be withdrawn from the Committee on Municipal and County Government, and be re-referred to the Committee on Public Utilities and Corporations.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT THAT ALL BILLS HOLD PLACES ON FILE

Mr. Waters asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that all bills passed on file today, hold their places on file on the next legislative day.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT THAT LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL BE PRINTED IN JOURNAL

Mr. Crowley announced that a Report of the Joint Legislative Interim Committee on the California State Program for the Adult Blind is being printed as a separate document, by said committee, and that copies will soon be available to members, and asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that the letter of transmittal to this report be printed in the Journal, and that the accompanying copy of the report be ordered filed.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

Sacramento, March, 1951

To HONORABLE GOODWIN J. KNIGHT, President of the Senate
and HONORABLE SAM L. COLLINS, Speaker of the Assembly

Pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 28 of the 1949 Regular Session of the Legislature, creating an Interim Committee on the State Program for the Adult Blind, we hand you herewith our report covering the activities of the committee, which you will find contains under Section I information gathered by the committee and listed in seven separate subheads in the table of contents of this report, and likewise the conclusions and the recommendations of the committee

We believe the work of the committee has furthered the principle contained in the resolution creating the committee, namely, the assisting in developing a program of (1) the proper orientation of the blind, particularly the newly blind, and (2) the training of blind adults to the end that they may become self-supporting citizens and not dependent upon state aid, and (3) the adoption of new policies that are necessary to permit the full use of any methods and techniques to achieve these ends. The committee has various recommendations to carry out this program via two methods: one, by an improved method of administration practices by the various state departments dealing with blind adults; the other, certain legislation clarifying state policies relative to the program for the adult blind.

We trust this report will be of assistance to the Legislature and all interested citizens in understanding the adult blind program in California

Respectfully submitted,

JOINT INTERIM COMMITTEE ON STATE PROGRAM FOR THE ADULT BLIND, S C. R. No. 28

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Dr. Clarence A. Kircher:

Our Father, which art in Heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name.

We bring to Thy throne this day our Nation and our defenders, our President, our Governor, the Speaker and Members of this Assembly, our citizens and our allies. We acknowledge the teaching of Thy Holy Book—"righteousness exalteth a Nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." We pray for a righteous victory in the conflict which has come upon us, and for a just and durable peace for the days to come.

"Drop Thy still dews of quietness, Till all our strivings cease;
Take from our souls the strain and stress, And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of Thy peace."—AMEN.

CONSIDERATION OF DAILY FILE (RESUMED)
THIRD READING OF ASSEMBLY BILLS (RESUMED)

By Mr. Smith:

House Resolution No. 86

Relating to the Golden Jubilee Anniversary of Glendale High School

WHEREAS, Glendale High School has completed its first 50 years of secondary educational service to the youth of the State of California, developing scholarship, industry and athletic abilities in the student bodies, as well as an appreciation of the arts; and

WHEREAS, This occasion of the Fiftieth Anniversary is being marked by a week's program of alumni visits, social gatherings and historical revues, with the cooperation and guidance of students, alumni and faculty; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Principal of Glendale High School, the faculty and the Superintendent of the Board of Education of the Glendale Unified School District, and the Glendale High School Alumni Association be commended for the outstanding contribution made to the welfare of the people of the State of California, and be commended for the endless personal sacrifices so necessary for the success they have brought to their school, our State and our Nation; and be it further

Resolved, That the Clerk of the Assembly transmit forthwith suitable copies of this resolution to the Principal of Glendale High School, to the Superintendent of the Board of Education of Glendale Unified School District, and to the Glendale High School Alumni Association.

Resolution read, and adopted unanimously.

Speaker Pro Tempore Presiding

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO TAKE UP ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 586

Mr. Lowrey asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that he be permitted to take up Assembly Bill No 586, temporarily passed on file, for purpose of amendment, at this time.

CONSIDERATION OF ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 586

Assembly Bill No. 586—An act to amend Sections 274, 275, and 285.3 of the Agricultural Code, relating to apiary inspection and equipment brands.

Bill read third time.

Motion to Amend

Mr. Lowrey moved the adoption of the following amendments:

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, as amended in the Assembly on January 23, 1951, strike out "and 285.3 of", and insert "276, and 285.3 of, and to add Section 275.5 to,".

Amendment No. 2

On page 1 of said bill, strike out lines 5 to 26, inclusive; and on page 2, strike out lines 1 to 13, inclusive, and insert "cages returning empty, unless each hive of bees, used equipment or appliance in the load, lot or shipment has been stamped with an indelible official stamp showing the state of origin and date of inspection, and unless each separate load, lot or shipment is accompanied by a valid certificate signed by the State Entomologist or State Apiary Inspector or comparable officer in charge of apiary inspection for the state of origin, certifying the following facts

(1) The name and address of the owner or shipper, the county of destination and method of transportation.

(2) The number of hives or nuclei containing bees, the number of used hives either empty or containing frames or combs, and a complete list of any other used beekeeping equipment in the shipment.

(3) The county and state of origin.

(4) The date on which inspection was last made of the apiary in which the bees, used hives and equipment originated.

(5) That such inspection was made at a time when sufficient brood was present to establish the actual presence or absence of disease.

(6) The total number of colonies in the apiary at the time of inspection, and the number of colonies found diseased.

(7) That all diseased colonies of bees found upon said inspection were destroyed prior to the issuance of the certificate.

(8) The dates of all prior inspections of said apiary within the two-year period immediately preceding the issuance of the certificate, together with the total number of colonies and the number of diseased colonies found upon each inspection, and a statement of the disposition of such diseased colonies, if known.

Each certificate required by this section shall be delivered by the person importing or transporting the bees or the used hives or appliances to the commissioner in the county of destination within forty-eight (48) hours of the arrival of the bees or used hives or appliances. No such certificate shall be valid longer than sixty (60) days after the last date of inspection of the apiary shown on the certificate, except that a certificate covering a shipment arriving prior to April 1 from a locality having severe winters shall be valid if it shows the last inspection of the apiary to have been made on or after September 15th of the preceding year."

Amendment No. 3

On page 2 of said bill, strike out lines 24 and 25, and insert

"Any shipment arriving in this State without an accompanying certificate shall be refused entry or destroyed at the option and expense of the owner or person in charge."

Amendment No. 4

On page 3 of said bill, strike out lines 1 to 4, inclusive, and insert

"SEC. 3. A new section is added to the Agricultural Code to read:

275.5. It is unlawful to place in any combless package of bees or queens, offered for sale or shipment, any food containing honey.

It is unlawful to ship any package bees and queens within the State unless the shipment is accompanied by a certificate of inspection showing that the bees from which such package bees and queens have been taken have been inspected and found free from disease."

Amendment No. 5

On page 3 of said bill, between lines 4 and 5, insert

"SEC. 4. Section 276 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

276. The commissioner shall, whenever he deems it necessary, make or cause to be made an inspection of any apiary within his jurisdiction. If any disease exists therein the inspector making the inspection shall plainly mark the hives containing diseased bees, and shall report his inspection and findings to the commissioner. The inspector shall destroy the diseased bees and the contents of the hives so marked on written consent signed by the owner or bailee in the manner hereinafter specified; or the commissioner shall in writing notify the owner or person in charge or in possession of such apiary, stating in the notice the nature of the disease found in each colony respectively, identifying such colony by reference to the mark placed upon the hive thereof, and ordering the eradication of such disease within a specified time. The notice may be served upon the person having possession or owning such diseased apiaries, personally or by registered mail to his last-known address. When the owner or person in charge or possession of any apiary is not known, the notice shall be served by posting in a conspicuous place in the apiary. Such person must eradicate such disease within a certain time specified in the notice. If the disease be American foulbrood the time specified in the notice shall not be less than 24 hours nor more than 48 hours from the time of serving the notice, and the eradication of said American foulbrood shall be by killing the bees in the hives and burning the diseased colonies, including the bees, combs, frames, honey, and wax, in a pit or in an incinerator approved by the director, burying the ashes no less than two feet below the surface of the ground and disinfecting by scorching the hives, bodies, bottom boards, cover, and supers associated therewith."

Amendment No. 6

On page 3, line 5, of said bill, strike out "3", and insert "5".

Amendments read, and adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, engrossed, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL AND REPORT OF SUBCOMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS AND REAPPORTIONMENT

ASSEMBLY, CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE, March 19, 1951

Honorable Sam L. Collins
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: Submitted herewith is the third and final report of the subcommittees assigned to investigate contested elections.

It is the recommendation of your Committee on Elections and Reapportionment that this report be approved and that Mr. Howard Q. Parker be confirmed as a member of this body.

Respectfully submitted,

LAUGHLIN E. WATERS, Chairman
Committee on Elections and Reapportionment

REPORT OF SUBCOMMITTEE OF STANDING COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS AND REAPPORTIONMENT IN THE MATTER OF THE ELECTION CONTEST OF JOHN P. SPAENHOWER, CONTESTANT, AND AGAINST HOWARD Q. PARKER, CONTESTEE

On January 8, 1951, John P. Spaenhower of Stockton filed with the Chief Clerk of the Asesmbly a verified statement contesting the election of Howard Q. Parker, as Member of the Assembly from the Eleventh Assembly District, San Joaquin County. The statement of contest alleged that Mr. Spaenhower and Mr. Parker were the duly elected Republican and Democratic candidates respectively for the office of Assemblyman for the Eleventh District, San Joaquin County, in the November, 1950 general election. It was alleged that certain fraudulent and corrupt practices were engaged in by the supporters of Mr. Parker in connection with the alteration and changing of the official endorsement pamphlets of the California Labor League for Political Education, a political affiliate of the American Federation of Labor in California and that such fraudulent practices deceived and influenced the voters of the Eleventh District with the result that Mr. Parker was elected by the plurality of 291 votes. The statement of contest prayed that the Assembly refuse to permit said Howard Q. Parker to take the oath of office and that it be referred to a duly and regularly constituted committee of the Assembly for proper investigation.

Thereafter and pursuant to appointment by Assemblyman Laughlin E. Waters, Chairman of the standing Committee on Elections and Reapportionment, the subcommittee, consisting of Assemblymen Burke, Burkhalter, Coats, Hinckley, and Tomlinson, as Chairman, met on January 10th and considered the said verified statement of contest and, after full discussion participated in by a member of the Legislative Counsel's staff, recommended to the full cmmittee that the said statement contained sufficient grounds to warrant further and formal investigation. The committee also determined that the statement was not frivolous.

On January 17th, a subcommittee met with the contestant, contestee, and their respective counsel. The parties were advised of the rules of procedure previously adopted by the Assembly pursuant to House Resolution No. 31, following which the respective parties were invited to make an opening statement as to the facts expected to be proved in support of and in opposition to the statement of contest. At the conclusion of such statement, the subcommittee deliberated and concluded that a further hearing should be conducted and evidence introduced, whereupon January 22d, at the hour of 9 o'clock, was determined upon as the date and time of hearing, to be held at the State Capitol.

On Tuesday, January 22d, the committee convened at the hour of 9 a.m., and proceeded to hear testimony from 31 witnesses, and received in evidence numerous documentary exhibits.

At the hour of 10.10 p.m. of the same day, the committee concluded the hearing of testimony, and upon deliberation found the following facts to be true:

1. That John P. Spaenhower and Howard Q. Parker were, at the direct primary election of 1950, duly elected as the nominees of the Republican and Democratic parties respectively.

2. That John P. Spaenhower was, on the twenty-eighth day of August, 1950, duly endorsed for the office of Assemblyman of the Eleventh Assembly District by the San Joaquin County Labor League for Political Education, a local affiliate of the California Labor League for Political Education, which was the state-wide organization for political action of the American Federation of Labor, in California.

3. That on July 31, 1950, and on September 25, 1950, the San Joaquin County Labor League for Political Education refused to endorse Howard Q. Parker for the office of Assemblyman.

4. That prior to the general election of November 7, 1950, the California Labor League for Political Education caused to be published and widely distributed among members of organized labor throughout the State of California an illustrated, colored leaflet containing the endorsees of the League for federal and state offices.

5. That the leaflet as originally published and distributed throughout the State and San Joaquin County included the endorsement of John P. Spaenhower for the office of Assemblyman, Eleventh District.

6. That on or about October 30, 1950, the Muldowney Printing Company of Stockton "overprinted" 2,000 of said leaflets by imprinting thereon the words "Write in—C. M. Weber" in the space therein provided for endorsements of candidates for State Senate offices.

7. That on or about the first day of November, 1950, the said 2,000 overprinted leaflets were delivered to E. George Kaufman.

8. That E. George Kaufman was then, and had been, active in the campaign of Howard Q. Parker.

9. That Phoebe Roberts was employed by the committee for the election of C. M. Weber, candidate for State Senate, San Joaquin County, and subsequent to the election, Mrs. Roberts married the said E. George Kaufman.

10. That several days before the election, the Stockton Printing Company, a commercial printing firm of Stockton, "overprinted" approximately four thousand of the leaflets by striking out with line type the figures and words "11—John P Spaenhower" and adding the figures and words "11—Howard Q. Parker" at the top and bottom of the column in said leaflet containing the names of endorsees for the various offices of State Assembly; on approximately one-half of the leaflets "overprinted" by the said printing firm, the figures and words "20 Write in—C. M. Weber" were added to the column of said leaflet containing endorsees for State Senate; approximately one-half of the said leaflets so "overprinted" by said Stockton Printing Company contained the "overprinting" previously made by the Muldowney Printing Company.

11. That the said "overprint" job was referred to Robert Wilson of the Stockton Printing Company by Carmen Pareno, of the commercial printing firm of Pareno & Vitek, Stockton.

12. That Robert Wilson, for his firm, Stockton Printing Company, mailed a bill for $40 to E George Kaufman, and Mr. Wilson subsequently discussed the matter of payment with Mr. Kaufman; that Kaufman did not deny the charge, but indicated that he would arrange for payment.

13. That on Saturday, November 4th, Sunday November 5th, and Monday, November 6th, the "overprinted" or altered leaflets were distributed in the City of Stockton by Phoebe Roberts and E. George Kaufman.

14. That prior to commencing the job of "overprinting" of said leaflets, Albert Wilson communicated by telephone with Howard Q. Parker, explained the proposed job to him, and received from Mr. Parker a complete disclaimer of responsibility for the job.

15. That the distribution of said altered leaflets came to the attention of Mrs. Myrtle Emmett, the person in charge of the Stockton Democratic Headquarters, on Saturday, November 4th, whereupon strenuous efforts were made by Mrs. Emmett and others to recover any and all leaflets that had been so distributed 16 That it was the concensus of opinion of persons associated with and active in the Democratic campaign in San Joaquin County and in the Eleventh Assembly District that the alteration and distribution of the altered LLPE leaflets was detrimental to the campaign of Howard Q. Parker.

17. That it was the concensus of opinion of numerous officials of various Railroad Brotherhood organizations and other local union organizations that the alteration and distribution of the leaflets was detrimental to the candidacy of Howard Q. Parker, and that many voters changed from Parker to Spaenhower on account thereof.

18 That the endorsement of John P Spaenhower by the San Joaquin LLPE was not concurred in by all local unions officially or by all of the membership of such unions.

19. That the Stockton Labor Journal, an official AFL publication of the Central Labor Council and Building and Construction Trades Council of San Joaquin County, in its issue of Friday, November 3, 1950, covered "local" LLPE endorsements, including that of John P. Spaenhower for State Assembly, Eleventh District; that said publication was distributed by mail and other means to members of labor organizations in San Joaquin County, including the Eleventh Assembly District. That the same issue of the Stockton Labor Journal contained at least two political advertisements wherein the endorsement of John P Spaenhower by the San Joaquin County LLPE was prominently displayed.

20. That John P Spaenhower and Howard Q. Parker, in a telephone conversation on Sunday, November 5, 1950, discussed the matter of the altered leaflets, and an understanding or agreement was reached between them that nothing further was to be done or said concerning the matter.

21. That no authority, express or implied, for the alteration or distribution of said spurious leaflets was given or granted by Howard Q. Parker, or any officer or person in authority of the American Federation of Labor, the San Joaquin Labor League for Political Education, or the San Joaquin County Democratic Central Committee, with the exception of E. George Kaufman, who was then a member of said San Joaquin County Democratic Central Committee

From the foregoing facts, the subcommittee concludes that the unauthorized alteration of the official campaign leaflets of the California Labor League for Political Education was done with the fraudulent and corrupt intent of deceiving and misleading the voters of the Eleventh Assembly District, San Joaquin County, and particularly those voters who would rely, to any extent, upon the leadership of the American Federation of Labor or the San Joaquin Labor League for Political Education as to the qualifications of candidates endorsed by such organizations. The subcommittee further concludes that the "overprinting" and alteration of the said leaflets was done with the full knowledge and approval of E. George Kaufman and others who were disgruntled on account of the prior official endorsement of John P Spaenhower, the Republican candidate. The subcommittee further concludes that the candidacy of John P Spaenhower was not seriously affected by the distribution of the said leaflets particularly in view of the fact that his endorsement by organized labor through the LLPE was prominently displayed in the official labor newspaper of San Joaquin County which was distributed to members of organized labor on the same days that the spurious leaflets were distributed, and it is the opinion of the subcommittee that the alteration and distribution of said leaflets adversely affected and damaged the candidacy of Howard Q. Parker.

The subcommittee is of the further opinion that, although it would ordinarily have been proper for a candidate upon learning of the distribution of such altered leaflets, to have publicly repudiated and denounced such conduct, under the circumstances, Howard Q. Parker was apparently lulled into silence through his conversation with Mr. Spaenhower, and hence acted in good faith in not making such public announcement.

The subcommittee is of the opinion that the testimony before the committee of E. George Kaufman and Mrs. Phoebe Roberts, now Kaufman, was grossly unsatisfactory, and that particularly in the instance of Mr. Kaufman that there are good grounds to believe that certain of his testimony was wilfully and deliberately false.

In making its findings of fact and drawing its conclusions therefrom, the subcommittee feels it necessary to condemn and denounce the political knavery, fraud, and corrupt action engaged in by the persons responsible for the alteration and distribution of the official leaflets of the political affiliate of the largest and strongest labor organization in this State, and to condemn the flagrant attempt to steal and appropriate the official political endorsement of such a large and respected labor organization of the candidate of its choice. No candidate, however innocent he may be of participation in such fraudulent practices, should be permitted to enjoy the fruits of such conduct and hold a public office gained by such methods. However, as in this case, where it is made to appear that the result of the election was not changed by reason of such unethical and reprehensible practices, it would not be just to deprive the victorious, but innocent candidate of his office. The subcommittee is of the further opinion that (1), means should be provided, through appropriate legislation, for (2) the summary removal from membership on any official political committee, such as the county or state central committees, of any person or persons responsible for the perpetration of such political improprieties as occurred in San Joaquin County in the last general election campaign, and (3) the punishment of the perpetration of such improprieties as a criminal offense. Until such time as practices of the sort engaged in the latter part of this Assembly campaign are brought up with a "tight hitch", there can be no honor in elections, and the public cannot be expected to accept any candidate for public office at face value, but instead can be expected to view them with suspicion and as men and women not above reproach.

It is, therefore, recommended that the election contest of John P. Spaenhower be dismissed, and that Howard Q. Parker be confirmed as the Assemblyman for the Eleventh Assembly District, San Joaquin County.

Respectfully submitted

March 20, 1951

Almighty and Eternal God, Father of All Nations, Creator and Preserver of Mankind, we assemble again in Thy Holy sight. Within these hallowed precincts, we seek Thy presence and Thy guidance. Help us lift our labor out of the realm of the ordinary, so that we may see opportunities for service in that which otherwise would be drab routine. Grant us Thy presence throughout this day that we may live without strain, face our problems without fear, meet our temptations without dishonor, bear our burdens without complaint.

"Spirit divine, attend our prayers,
And make this house Thy home:
Descend with all Thy gracious powers,
O come, great Spirit, come!"

—AMEN.

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was offered:

By Mr. Dickey:

House Resolution No. 91

Relative to the publication of the Constitutions of the United States and of the State of California and other historical documents and information

WHEREAS, It is essential that the children of this Nation should be instructed in the principles of Americanism; and

WHEREAS, The information necessary to build a firm knowledge of the principles of good government may be obtained through the study of the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of the State of California, and other historical documents of the Nation and State; and

WHEREAS, Since such a course of study is required in the schools of the State, it has been customary for many years that the Legislature provide for the printing and free distribution of the Constitution for the use of students and others especially interested in the study of civics; and

WHEREAS, The last edition of the Constitution as compiled and printed by the Assembly is now exhausted, and there are a great number of requests for copies of this publication; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly be and he is hereby directed to compile, revise, and have published a volume similar to those previously issued by the Assembly containing information of an educational nature pertaining to the Legislature of the State of California, together with the Constitutions of the United States and the State of California and other historical documents and information; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk is hereby authorized to distribute such publication on request of Members of the Assembly and to others properly entitled thereto; provided that no member receive more than 50 copies; and be it further

Resolved, That the cost of compilation and printing of this publication be charged to and payable from the Legislative Printing Fund.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Dr Clarence A. Kircher:

Almighty God, whom our fathers trusted, we thank Thee for the privileges of this new day We seek Thy blessing and direction upon all who are in places of responsibility

Clear our minds for the duties of this day Give us courage to change what ought to be changed, patience to bear what cannot be changed and wisdom to tell one from the other.

"I know not what the Future hath
Of marvel or surprise.
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.
And Thou, O Lord! by whom are seen
Thy creatures as they be,
Forgive me if too close I lean
My human heart on Thee."

In Jesus' name.—AMEN

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Committee on Legislative Procedure

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 21, 1951

MR. SPEAKER: Your Committee on Legislative Procedure has examined:

Assembly Bill No. 259

And reports the same correctly re-engrossed.

BURKE, Chairman

Above reported bill ordered to third reading.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT THAT ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 629 BE RE-REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

Mr. Erwin asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that Assembly Bill No. 629 be withdrawn from the third reading file, and be re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were offered:

By Messrs. Maloney, Lyon, and Sam L. Collins:

House Resolution No. 92

Congratulating Governor Warren upon his birthday anniversary

WHEREAS, On the nineteenth day of March, in the midst of his busy program conducting the affairs of State, our esteemed Governor, Earl Warren, is celebrating his sixtieth birthday anniversary; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of this Assembly on behalf of the people of the State of California hereby congratulate Governor Warren and extend to him heartiest felicitations upon the anniversary of his birth; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to Governor Earl Warren as an expression of the warmest regard in which the members hold him and of their good wishes on his birthday.

Request for Unanimous Consent

Mr. Maloney asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to take up House Resolution No. 92, at this time, without reference to committee or file.

Resolution read, and adopted unanimously.

By Mr. Kilpatrick:

House Resolution No. 93

Relative to the licensing of parking lots and the revenue derived therefrom

WHEREAS, The annual license revenue derived from 1,100 licensed parking lots in the City of Los Angeles is only $26,000, or about one-fourth of the total license revenue collected from other licensed businesses in that community; and

WHEREAS, It would appear that the sum mentioned is relatively incommensurate with the dollar magnitude of the parking lot business in the City of Los Angeles; and

WHEREAS, The revenue derived from the licensing of parking lots in the City of Los Angeles is far below the cost of the public services received by such lots; and

WHEREAS, It is fit and proper that all businesses should, by way of license fees or otherwise, pay an adequate compensation for public services rendered them; and

WHEREAS, The situation in the City of Los Angeles regarding parking lots may also exist elsewhere in the State; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Assembly Interim Committee on State and Local Taxation (created by House Resolution No. 133 of the 1949 General Session) is hereby directed to hold hearings throughout the State of California, and particularly in the City of Los Angeles, for the purpose of investigating, ascertaining, and studying the facts regarding the licensing of parking lots and the revenue derived therefrom; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee submit a report to the Legislature containing its findings on such investigation and study, together with such recommendations for legislation on the subject as may seem necessary.

Resolution read, and ordered referred to the Committee on Rules.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Many of the people in Mono County have been isolated from their schools, stores, shops, and means of livelihood because of the destruction of and damage to bridges on county roads caused by floods during the past winter. It is necessary to the public health and safety that these county roads be restored to use at the earliest possible date. Weather conditions now permit the immediate commencement of the repair work and it is therefore necessary that this act take effect immediately."

Bill read second time.

Consideration of Committee Amendments

The following amendments were proposed by the Committee on Finance and Insurance:

PRINTER'S NOTE—There being no 7-point strikeout type available, the material which should appear in strikeout type in the following amendments is indicated by being enclosed within brackets.

Amendment No. 1

In line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "Subdivision 1 of".

Amendment No. 2

In line 3 of the title of said bill, strike out "18663", and insert "18405, 18663, 18664".

Amendment No. 3

Strike out lines 4, 5, and 6 of the title of said bill, insert "Code, relating to penalties and powers applicable to industrial loan companies."

Amendment No. 4

On page 1, line 12, of said bill, after the period, insert "the loan contracts of three hundred dollars ($300) or less or certificates of investment issued in connection with such loans shall require substantially uniform weekly, semi-monthly, or monthly payments over the period of the loan, with the final payment not payable until the maturity date of the loan. The borrower may purchase certificates of investment issued in connection with loans of a face value not exceeding the face amount of the loan simultaneously with each loan transaction and shall pledge the certificate with the corporation as security for the loan.

Second—To sell or negotiate investment certificates either in certificates, or in receipt book form, in addition to the sale of installment investment certificates with loans, for the payment of money at any time, either fixed or uncertain, and to receive payments therefor in installments or otherwise, with or without an allowance of interest upon such installments. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize corporations hereunder to receive deposits or to issue certificates of deposit. The investment certificates herein authorized shall bear the indorsement on the face of the instrument, "This Is Not a Certificate of Deposit."

Third—The term "Charges" as used in this act, includes the aggregate interest, fees, bonuses, commissions, brokerage, discounts, expenses, and other forms of costs charged, contracted for, or received by an industrial loan company or any other person in connection with the investigating, arranging, negotiating, procuring, guaranteeing, making, servicing, collecting and enforcing of a loan or [for] forbearance of money, credit, goods or things in action, or any other service or services rendered.

However, it is hereby provided that the charges by an industrial loan company, broker and all other persons on any loan, forbearance of money, credit, goods or things in action under this act, shall not exceed in the aggregate 2½ percent per month on that portion of the unpaid principal balance up to, including but not in excess of one hundred dollars ($100), 2 percent per month on that portion of the unpaid principal balance in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) up to, including but not in excess of three hundred dollars ($300), and 10 percent per annum on that portion of the unpaid principal balance in excess of three hundred dollars ($300). If, however, in connection with any loan, insurance is taken in favor of the industrial loan company, the total amount which may be contracted for and received for interest, brokerage and all other charges shall not exceed in the aggregate 2 percent per month on that portion of the unpaid principal balance up to, including but not in excess of three hundred dollars ($300) and 10 percent per annum on that portion of the unpaid principal balance in excess of three hundred dollars ($300). For the purpose of computing the charges set forth in this paragraph, a month shall be any period of 30 consecutive days. All payments made by the borrower on the installment investment certificates purchased by the borrower in connection with the making of the loan shall be regarded as payments on the loan and shall be applicable, first, to interest and all other charges within the maximum statutory rate provided in this paragraph and, secondly, to reduction of the unpaid principal of the loan advanced to the borrower in determining the "Unpaid Principal Balance" as hereinabove referred to.

However, it is provided that nothing in this section denies the right to the industrial loan company in addition to interest, brokerage and all other charges herein provided to contract for, collect and receive at the time of making the loan or at any time thereafter, the statutory fee paid by it to any public officer for acknowledging, filing, recording or releasing in any public office any instrument securing the loan or executed in connection therewith. Also, nothing in this section prohibits the lender from collecting in addition to the interest, brokerage and all other charges herein provided the costs for insurance, of tangible personal or real property offered as security for a loan, reasonably insured against loss for a reasonable term considering the circumstances of the loan; provided, such insurance is sold at standard rates through a duly licensed insurance agent.

The term "Unpaid Principal Balance" as used in this act shall mean the net amount of money, credit, goods or things in action received by the borrower at the time of entering into the transaction and the decreasing balances thereof after application in accordance with the provisions of this act of each payment made on the obligation.

Nothing in this section shall deny the right to any industrial loan company, in addition to all other charges herein provided, in the enforcing and collecting of a delinquent loan of an unpaid principal balance in excess of three hundred dollars ($300):

(a) To collect and receive the court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees allowed by a court in a judgment against a defaulting debtor:

(b) To contract for, collect and receive the bona fide expenses actually incurred and paid by the industrial loan company, not exceeding 10 percent of the unpaid principal balance of the loan where no judgment at law is sought.

No charge shall be collected unless a loan shall have been made. Whenever the interest and/or charges deducted in advance shall exceed the maximum provided by this section, by reason of subsequent repayment of the loan or any portion thereof prior to maturity or prepayment of installments on the investment certificate purchased with the loan, such excess shall be refunded to the borrower or credited on any balance owing by the borrower to the company.

Fourth—To establish offices or places of business within the State of California.

Fifth—To purchase, sell or discount bona fide trust receipts, choses in action, secured or unsecured, chattel mortgages or conditional sales contracts, which shall have a maturity within [two] three years from the date of said purchase.

Sixth—To make loans, purchase or discount notes, mortgages, contracts or other commercial paper, which loans or commercial paper are insured by the Federal Housing Administrator, Veterans' Administration, or other federal agency. Loans so insured may be made for a term up to but not to exceed 20 years

In addition to the powers herein enumerated, every corporation under the provisions of this act shall have the general powers conferred upon corporations by [Chapter 10, Title 1, Part 4, Division 1 of the Civil Code] the General Corporation Law except as herein otherwise provided."

Amendment No. 5

On page 2 of said bill, after line 15, insert

"SEC. 3. Section 18405 of the Financial Code is amended to read.

18405. An industrial loan company may purchase, sell or discount bona fide trust receipts, secured or unsecured choses in action, chattel mortgages or conditional sales contracts, which have a maturity within [two] three years from the date of purchase."

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT THAT FIVE OPINIONS OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL RELATIVE TO REAPPORTIONMENT BE PRINTED IN THE JOURNAL

Mr. Waters asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that five opinions of the Legislative Counsel relative to reapportionment be ordered printed in the Journal in 10 point type, as follows:

Opinion of Legislative Counsel

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA, October 20, 1950

Honorable Laughlin E. Waters
624 Roosevelt Building
727 West 7th Street
Los Angeles 14, California

ASSEMBLY DISTRICTS—NO. 2681

DEAR MR. WATERS:

Question

You have asked whether Section 6 of Article IV of the California Constitution, relating to reapportionment of legislative districts, requires that each assembly district after the first must be geographically located southward of the district preceding it in numerical order. That is to say, for example, if a bill was introduced which would locate Assembly District No. 10 20 miles south of Assembly District No. 20, would such a bill be invalid?

We answer your question in the negative.

With respect to the numbering of Assembly districts, it is our opinion that Section 6 of Article IV requires only that such districts be numbered from 1 to 80 in numerical order, commencing at the northern boundary of the State and ending at the southern boundary. We do not believe the Constitution requires that the north to south numbering pattern must be arranged between the First and Eightieth District so that every district must be southward of its numerical predecessor.

Analysis

Section 6 of Article IV of the California Constitution provides that the State shall be divided into 40 senatorial and 80 assembly districts each 10 years on the basis of population for the purpose of choosing Members of the Legislature. Various requirements are imposed upon the Legislature in making the decennial reapportionment. The portion of Section 6 with which we are here concerned reads as follows:

> "The senatorial districts shall be numbered from 1 to 40, inclusive, in numerical order, and the assembly districts shall be numbered from 1 to 80 in the same order, commencing at the northern boundary of the State and ending at the southern boundary thereof." (Emphasis added)

To our knowledge, the above quoted part of Section 6 has never been construed by the courts.

The provisions of the Constitution are mandatory and prohibitory, unless by express words they are declared to be otherwise (Art. I, Sec. 22). It is therefore clear that Assembly District No. 1 must be in the north and No. 80 in the south. It does not follow, however, that a rigid geographical numbering pattern must be followed southerly from 1 to 80.

In re-districting the State in the past, the Legislature has established the policy of numbering assembly and senatorial districts in a general southerly direction. Both Senatorial and Assembly Districts No. 1 have always been along the northern boundary of the State and Senatorial District No. 40 and Assembly District No. 80 have been located along the southern boundary. However, the Legislature has not in the past interpreted Section 6 of Article IV as requiring that every legislative district must be geographically south of its numerical predecessor. There have been many instances wherein a district located wholly or partly to the north of other districts has been given a higher number than one or more of its southerly neighbors. The present senatorial and assembly districts furnish convenient examples. Senatorial District No. 19 is wholly to the north of Senatorial Districts Nos. 16, 17, and 18, and is partly to the north of Senatorial District No. 15. The distance between No. 19 and No. 18 is well in excess of 20 miles. While no such separation occurs in the assembly districts, District 39 (Kern County) is northerly of District 38 (Ventura County). The same general situation existed under the 1931 reapportionment.

This legislative construction is entirely reasonable, since the Constitution specifies only that the numbering must commence in the north and end in the south. No geographical numbering pattern is prescribed for achieving this result, but it naturally follows that the numbering will proceed generally southward.

We have referred to these precedents since in construing provisions of the Constitution legislative enactments have great significance. Although the Legislature cannot fix the meaning of the Constitution, and its interpretation is not controlling upon the court, where the meaning of a provision is doubtful, the contemporaneous and long standing construction thereof by the Legislature will be given great weight by the courts (Pacific Indemnity Co. vs. Industrial Accident Commission, 215 Cal. 461, 464; Delaney vs. Lowery, 25 Cal. 2d 561, 569).

Moreover, it is established that the presumption of constitutionality attaches to reapportionment acts in the same manner that it does to any other act of the Legislature, and any doubt as to the power of the Legislature to pass the particular act must result in a finding that the act is within the legislative power (People ex rel Heffernan vs. Carlock (Ill.), 65 N.E. 109; Fletcher vs Ruhe (Nev.), 52 Pac 274; Warson vs. Howell (Wash.), 159 Pac. 777).

From all the foregoing, we conclude that the portion of Section 6 of Article IV of the California Constitution relating to the numbering of assembly districts would not be violated by a Reapportionment Act which located Assembly District No. 10 20 miles south of Assembly District No. 20 We believe that legal compliance with the Constitution can be achieved if the assembly districts are numbered in a pattern which in general proceeds southerly from Number 1 in the north to Number 80 in the south.

REAPPORTIONMENT—NO. 5774

DEAR MR. WATERS: You have asked the following four questions relating to reapportionment of congressional districts

Questions

1. What is the authority for the Legislature to reapportion congressional districts?

2 Is there any provision in the California or United States Constitutions which would require the California Legislature to reapportion congressional districts at this session?

3. How would the new Congressmen to which California will be entitled under the 1950 Census figures be elected if the Legislature does not reapportion the congressional districts at this session or before the next congressional elections?

4. In the event the Legislature fails to reapportion the congressional districts at this session, would the Reapportionment Commission be authorized to do so?

Opinion

In our opinion:

1. The California Legislature is authorized to reapportion congressional districts at this session by the provisions of Sections 2 and 4 of Article I of the United States Constitution, Section 2 of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, the Federal Apportionment Act (2 U.S.C., Sec. 2a), and Section 27 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

2. Although authorized, the Legislature is not required to reapportion congressional districts at this session. Reapportionment of congressional districts may be made at any subsequent session of the Legislature prior to the next Decennial Federal Census, or not at all, as the Legislature chooses.

3. The new Congressmen would be elected by the State at large.

4. The Reapportionment Commission would have no authority with respect to congressional districts.

Analysis

Sections 2 and 4 of Article I of the United States Constitution and Section 2 of the Fourteenth Amendment thereto provide that Representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers excluding Indians not taxed. The number of Representatives cannot exceed one for every 30,000 people but each state is entitled to at least one Representative. The times, places, and manner of holding elections for Representatives is to be prescribed by each State Legislature, but Congress may also make regulations relating thereto.

Section 2a of Title 2 of the United States Code provides for the time and manner for the reapportionment of Representatives in Congress. This section provides the means by which Congress determines the number of Representatives to which each state is entitled based upon the population as established by the 1950 Federal Census. It has been estimated that California will be entitled to approximately seven additional seats in Congress. There is nothing in this section, or in any other provision of federal law of which we are aware, which prescribes the times, places, or manner of holding elections of Congressmen within the several states. Consequently, the task of providing places within this State from which additional Congressmen will be elected is left to the Legislature.

We have been unable to find any express prescription in either the Constitution or laws of this State as to when the re-formation of congressional districts shall be made. Section 27 of Article IV of the California Constitution prescribes how congressional districts shall be formed but it does not specify when. Presumably, however, the reformation of congressional districts will be made by the Legislature during this session at the same time as the re-formation of senatorial and assembly districts takes place.

Should the Legislature not reapportion the congressional districts and provide new districts from which the new Congressmen may be elected, the provisions of subsection (c) of Section 2a, of Title 2 of the United States Code, will come into operation to provide a method of electing the new Congressmen until such time as the California Legislature acts to establish new districts Subdivision (2) of subsection (c) of Section 2a, of Title 2 of the United States Code, provides as follows:

> "(2) If there is an increase in the number of Representatives, such additional Representative or Representatives shall be elected from the State at large and the other Representatives from the districts then prescribed by the law of such State;"

If the reapportionment of congressional districts is made by the Legislature at this session, this provision of federal law will not become operative in so far as California is concerned. Should the Legislature not reapportion such districts at this session, the new Congressmen will be elected at large at each election until such time as redistricting by the Legislature takes place. No provision is made for any other agency to reapportion the congressional districts of California should the Legislature fail to do so. The Reapportionment Commission which is provided for in Section 6 of Article IV of the California Constitution will reapportion the senatorial and assembly districts should the Legislature fail so to do at this session. This commission has no authority over congressional districts.

REAPPORTIONMENT—NO. 3412

DEAR MR WATERS: You ask whether a Reapportionment Bill would be subject to the referendum.

In our opinion it would.

Section 1 of Article IV of the California Constitution provides, with certain exceptions not here applicable, that no act passed by the Legislature shall go into effect until 90 days after the final adjournment of the session of the Legislature which passed it. The section also sets out the method by which the people may act on such a measure in an election if a petition is filed within the 90-day period. We see no reason why these provisions are not applicable to a reapportionment act as well as to other acts.

The Constitution preserves the referendum right of the people even in the event that the Legislature should fail to reapportion and the reapportionment is made by the Reapportionment Commission provided for in Section 6 of Article IV. The section specifically provides that in such an event the reapportionment shall be effective the same as if made by act of the Legislature and subject to the same provisions of referendum as apply to acts of the Legislature.

DEAR MR. WATERS: In reference to reapportionment of the representation of the State in Congress and the Legislature, you have asked certain questions which are set forth and considered separately below.

Question 1

Are Reapportionment Bills to be handled regularly as other bills, needing only a majority vote for passage, or are there special requirements concerning the procedure to be followed in the Legislature in processing such bills?

Opinion and Analysis

We are aware of no law or rule requiring a Reapportionment Bill to be processed in a manner different from other bills and are, therefore, of the opinion that it should be handled in each house of the Legislature in all respects just as any other bill and may be passed by a majority vote in each house.

Question 2

In forming assembly districts, may a city or town be divided?

Opinion

In our opinion this question should be answered in the affirmative, with the single exception of a city which is also a county and does not contain sufficient population within itself to form two or more assembly districts.

Analysis

With respect to assembly districts, Section 6 of Article IV of the California Constitution provides in part that no county, or city and county, shall be divided unless it contains sufficient population within itself to form two or more districts. There is no such prohibition relating to cities or towns. The only area comprising a city and county in California at the present time is San Francisco, and since it contains sufficient population within itself to form two or more assembly districts, it may be divided.

Question 3

Are there any circumstances under which an assembly district may include portions of two counties?

Opinion

We are of the opinion that this question should be answered in the negative.

Analysis

Section 6 of Article IV of the California Constitution provides in part that no portion of any county, or city and county, shall be united with any other county, or city and county, in forming any assembly district. The result of this prohibition is that while an assembly district may include several contiguous whole counties, it may not include parts of different counties under any circumstances

Can a congressional district be formed consisting of two and one-half counties?

Opinion

In our opinion such a district may validly be formed.

Analysis

Section 27 of Article IV of the California Constitution provides that any county, or city and county, with a population greater than the number required for one congressional district shall be formed into one or more districts, according to its population. The section further provides that any residue left after the formation of such congressional district or districts shall be attached by compact adjoining assembly districts to a contiguous county or counties to form another congressional district.

From the foregoing constitutional requirement, it is clear that a congressional district may consist of two and one-half counties. The situation would occur when it is found that a county has too many people for one congressional district, but not enough for two or more. The area remaining after forming one or more districts contained wholly within the county could then be attached to a contiguous county or counties to form another district. The area so attached might be half, or more or less than half, of the divided county, depending upon the circumstances.

An example of the operation of the above constitutional provision is found at present in the Twenty-first Congressional District. Approximately one-half of Los Angeles County is united with San Bernardino County to form the district. The lower approximate one-half of Los Angeles County comprises the Twelfth through the Twentieth Congressional Districts. If the upper half of Los Angeles County were united with Kern County as well as San Bernardino, an exact example of the situation in question would be afforded. Kern County is now, however, a part of the 10th Congressional District.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO, March 9, 1951

Honorable Laughlin E. Waters
Assembly Chamber

REAPPORTIONMENT—NO. 5177

DEAR MR. WATERS: You have asked three questions relating to reapportionment of assembly and congressional districts which are set forth and considered separately below.

Question

Is the Legislature prohibited from reapportioning assembly and congressional districts more than once following each Decennial Federal Census?

Opinion

It is established case law in California that the Legislature may reapportion assembly districts but once following each Decennial Federal Census.

Whether or not this rule applies to congressional districts has never been established by the California courts. We are of the opinion, however, that the rule would probably also be applied to congressional districts, resulting in a holding that the legislative power to reform congressional districts can be exercised but once after each census.

Analysis

In fixing and readjusting the boundaries of assembly districts, the Legislature acts pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

This section provides in part as follows:

> "The census taken under the direction of the Congress of the United States in the year 1920 and every 10 years thereafter, shall be the basis of fixing and adjusting the legislative districts; and the Legislature shall, at its first regular session following the adoption of this section and thereafter at the first regular session following each Decennial Federal Census, adjust such districts, and reapportion the representation * * *."

In the cases of Wheeler vs. Herbert (152 Cal. 224) and Dowell vs. McLees (199 Cal. 144) the California Supreme Court held that the provisions of Section 6 of Article IV, being mandatory and prohibitory, prohibit the Legislature from forming assembly districts more than once during the period between one United States Census and the succeeding one.

We have found only one case which has considered the same problem with respect to congressional districts. This was a case in the State of New York in 1918, which is discussed below, holding that more than one reapportionment of congressional districts each 10 years is valid.

The provisions of law relating to reapportionment of congressional districts are Sections 2 and 4 of Article I of the United States Constitution, Section 2 of the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution, the Federal Apportionment Act (2 U. S. C. Sec. 2a), and Section 27 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

The federal laws referred to above require the President to inform Congress after each census of the number of Representatives in Congress to which each state is entitled based upon the populations of each as determined by the census. The Clerk of the House of Representatives then notifies the governor of each state of the number of Representatives to which it is entitled. This procedure has occurred.

The places within each state from which the various Representatives to which it may be entitled are elected are determined by the State Legislatures (Art. I, Sec. 4, U. S. Const.).

Section 27 of Article IV of the California Constitution is the only California law which relates to the reapportionment of congressional districts. That section specifies the geographical limitations on the formation of congressional districts, but it contains nothing specifying when or how often a re-formation of such districts shall take place.

Therefore, we are aware of nothing in the Federal or California law which specifies when the reapportionment of congressional districts must be made. Presumably, it will be made by the Legislature during the present session, although there appears to be no requirement that it be made at this session.

The specific language of Section 6 of Article IV of the California Constitution (quoted above) which specifies when the reapportionment of assembly and senatorial districts shall be made, plus the provisions in the section establishing a Reapportionment Commission to act in the event the Legislature fails to do so in the first session following the census, are absent from, and have no application to, the provisions of Section 27 of Article IV, which specifies the manner in which congressional districts shall be formed.

It was the restrictive language of Section 6 of Article IV upon which the Supreme Court based its holdings in the Wheeler and Dowell cases. Although this express language is absent from the provisions relating to congressional districts, it is our opinion that the federal laws relating to reapportionment impliedly prohibit the state legislatures from re-defining the boundaries of the congressional districts therein more often than once each 10 years.

The fundamental basis of the readjustment of the representation in the United States House of Representatives is the population of the States as determined each 10 years in the census. All reapportionment is based upon these population figures, and these figures remain the basis for legislative and congressional representation for the next 10 years.

Pursuant to its powers under Section 4 of Article I of the United States Constitution, by which it is given the power to make laws relating to the time, places, and manner of election of Representatives, the Congress has enacted from time to time various statutes relating to reapportionment of congressional districts within the states. Section 2a of Title 2 of the United States Code (known as the Permanent Reapportionment Act) presently provides the method of election of Congressmen in each state after a Federal Decennial Census and until the state has redefined the boundaries of the congressional districts therein. The fact that the census is the basis of all reapportionment, that it occurs only once in each 10 years, and that the Permanent Reapportionment Act provides for the manner of electing Congressmen after each census and until the states are redistricted after each census, raises a strong implication in our opinion that redistricting is to occur only once, if at all, in each state following each census It is difficult to perceive upon what valid premise a state legislature could base a second redistricting, since the official population figures upon which the first would be based would remain the same until the next decennial federal census

Consequently, we believe it to be probable that the California Supreme Court would reach the same result with respect to congressional districts as it did with regard to assembly and senatorial districts in the Wheeler and Dowell cases, but upon the grounds of the implied restriction in the federal law rather than upon any specific provision of the California Constitution.

An opposite holding is of course possible, since no specific prohibition exists.

The Court of Appeals of New York, in the case of People vs. Voorhis (119 N. E. 106), decided in 1918, found nothing express or implied in the law to prohibit the New York Legislature from partially redistricting the congressional districts of the state by statute in 1917 when an entire reapportionment of congressional districts had been made by statute in 1911, based upon the 1910 Census. The court held that the power of the New York Legislature under federal law was not exhausted when it reapportioned in 1911 and that it had a continuing duty to maintain the congressional districts in such a form that they contain as nearly as practicable an equal population. This was at that time a requirement of federal law. There is no longer such a federal requirement.

Concerning the federal law at that time, the New York court stated (at p 108):

> "The language used in the congressional act indicates as clearly as anything can that Congress in its enactment took into consideration the fact that after a state had once been divided into congressional districts, by reason of shifting population, it might, from time to time, become necessary to redistrict it in order fully to comply with the intent and purpose of the act."

There were two dissenting opinions in the case which pointed out that the theory of reapportionment with every shift in population from year to year did not appear to be contained in either the Federal Constitution or laws, but that to the contrary the Constitution and federal law appeared to contemplate but one reapportionment based upon the population as ascertained by the census each 10 years, and that there was no machinery provided for determining population for the purpose of reapportionment more often than each 10 years

We are inclined to believe that the California Supreme Court would reason along the lines of the dissenting opinions of the New York case. Furthermore, there is no longer a requirement in the federal law that congressional districts be as nearly equal in population as possible. We, therefore, conclude that the court would probably hold that congressional districts, like assembly districts, may be reformed but once each 10 years.

We do not believe, however, that such a ruling would prevent the Legislature from amending a reapportionment law at a later date to correct technical defects or errors which might appear in the legal description of boundaries.

Question 2

If a congressional or assembly district is abolished and reconstituted in another area, the new district being given the same number as the abolished district, can the incumbent of the old district (assuming he meets all the residential qualifications of the new district) run on the ballot as the "incumbent" of the new district?

Opinion and Analysis

In our opinion this question should be answered in the affirmative.

Section 6 of Article IV of our State Constitution provides in part that "each assembly district shall choose one Member of Assembly." Therefore, the office which each Assemblyman holds is that of Assemblyman from the district which elected him. The same principle applies to Congressmen (Calif. Const., Art. IV, Sec. 27 and Elec. C. Sec. 10500).

Section 3819 of the Elections Code, which governs the designation which appears under a candidate's name on the ballot provides that the word "incumbent" may be used only if the candidate is a candidate for the same office which he then holds. We, therefore, conclude that an incumbent Congressman or Member of the Legislature may use the word "incumbent" on the ballot only if he is running for reelection in a district which bears the same number as the district from which he was last elected.

Question 3

Where two assembly on congressional districts are consolidated into one, may both of the incumbents of the old districts run in the new district on the ballot as "incumbents?"

Opinion and Analysis

We believe this question should be answered in the negative.

As pointed out above in the analysis of Question Number 2, we believe that an incumbent Congressman or Member of the Legislature may use the word "incumbent" on the ballot only if he is running for reelection in a district which bears the same number as the district from which he was last elected. Under the facts presented by this question, it would be impossible for one or the other of the incumbents to comply with this requirement, since the new district could not have the same number as both the old districts which it replaced.

This does not mean, however, that a Congressman or Assemblyman who is running in a district, which because of the reformation bears a different number, cannot have printed on the ballot the name of the office which he then holds, since Section 3819 of the Elections Code gives candidates the option of having one of the following designations printed on the ballot following his name:

Members of the Assembly may use either of the following designations: 'Assemblyman, _____ District, California Legislature' or 'Member of the Assembly, _____ District, California Legislature,' or any other appropriate designation, the blanks to be filled with the appropriate district number.

* * * * * * *

Words designating the profession, vocation or occupation of the candidate which shall not exceed three in number * * *."

Pursuant to the above-quoted provisions, an incumbent Assemblyman who is running in a district with a different number than the district of which he is an incumbent may have the fact that he is an Assemblyman from a given numbered district printed on the ballot. An incumbent Congressman could state his occupation as "Member of Congress,"

"Representative in Congress," or with other appropriate language, not exceeding three words.

By Mr. Doyle:

An act to add Section 6516 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to assessments for sales and use taxes.

BURKE, Chairman

The roll was called.

Call of the Assembly

Pending the announcement of the vote, Mr. Munnell moved a call of the Assembly.

Motion carried. Time, 1.34 p.m.

Beck, Berry, Brady, Brown, Cloyed, Connolly, Conrad, Dickey, Dills, Dolwig, Dunn, Elliott, Evans, Fleury, Gaffney, Geddes, Gubser, Hahn, Hawkins, Hollibaugh, Kilpatrick, Kirkwood, Levering, Lindsay, Lowrey, Lyon, McCarthy, McCollister, McGee, McMillan, Meyers, Morris, Niehouse, Shaw, Stewart, and Tomlinson—36.

PROCEEDINGS UNDER CALL OF THE ASSEMBLY BY UNANIMOUS CONSENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF ASSEMBLY RULE NO. 85

Mr. Dolwig asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that Assembly Rule No. 85 be temporarily suspended for the purpose of placing a call of the Assembly on any matter on file.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT THAT REPORT BE PRINTED IN JOURNAL

Mr. Dolwig asked for unanimous consent that a Report of the Assembly Committee on Legislative Representation be ordered printed in the Journal, in 10-point type

Mr. Collier withheld unanimous consent.

Motion to Print Report

Mr. Dolwig moved that a Report of the Assembly Committee on Legislative Representation be ordered printed in the Journal in 10-point type.

Mr. Brady seconded the motion.

Motion carried.

(Above mentioned report will appear prior to the motion to adjourn.)

FURTHER PROCEEDINGS UNDER CALL OF THE ASSEMBLY DISPENSED WITH ON REQUEST BY MR. DOYLE TO INTRODUCE A BILL

At 1.43 p.m., on motion of Mr. Stewart, further proceedings under the call of the Assembly were dispensed with.

AYES—Babbage, Belotti, Berry, Brady, Brown, Burke, Burkhalter, Caldecott, Chapel, Clarke, Cloyed, Coats, Collier, George D. Collins, Connolly, Conrad, Crowley, Davis, Dickey, Dolwig, Doyle, Dunn, Elliott, Erwin, Fleury, Gaffney, Geddes, Grant, Gubser, Hagen, Hahn, Hansen, Hawkins, Henderson, Hinckley, Hollibaugh, Kelly, Kilpatrick, Kirkwood, Klocksiem, Lanterman, Levering, Lincoln, Lindsay, Lipscomb, Lowrey, Luckel, Lyon, Maloney, McCarthy, McFall, McGee, Meyers, Moss, Munnell, Niehouse, Parker, Porter, Rosenthal, Rumford, Shaw, Sherwin, Silliman, Smith, Stanley, Stewart, Thomas, Tomlinson, Waters, and Mr. Speaker—70.

NOES—None.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Collier arose to the following point of order: That business has been transacted without the presence of a quorum.

Point of Order

Mr. Waters arose to the following point of order: That the point of order by Mr. Collier is not timely, and is not in order.

Ruling By Speaker

Speaker Sam L. Collins ruled the point of order well taken because the roll call was upon the introduction of a bill and not upon a quorum call; and that a quorum was present at the time of the call of the House, but not 60 votes, as needed for permission to introduce a bill.

INTRODUCTION, FIRST READING, AND REFERENCE OF ASSEMBLY BILLS (RESUMED)

The following bill was introduced, and read the first time:

Assembly Bill No. 3386: By Mr. Doyle—An act to add Section 6516 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to assessments for sales and use taxes.

Referred to Committee on Revenue and Taxation.

MOTION TO APPROVE JOURNALS

Upon motion of Mr. Dickey, the Assembly Journals for Monday, March 12, 1951; Tuesday, March 13, 1951; Wednesday, March 14, 1951; Thursday, March 15, 1951; and Friday, March 16, 1951, were approved, as corrected by the Minute Clerk.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT THAT ADDRESS BY SENATOR EDWIN J. REGAN AT THE SAINT PATRICK'S DAY CELEBRATION BE PRINTED IN JOURNAL

Mr. Lyon asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that the address delivered by Senator Edwin J. Regan at the Saint Patrick's Day Celebration held in the Assembly Chamber on Friday, March 16th, upon adjournment, be ordered printed in the Journal, in 10 point type.

Speaker Pro Tempore Presiding

FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 500

Assembly Bill No. 500—An act making appropriations for the support of the State of California and for several public purposes in accordance with the provisions of Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, to take effect immediately.

Bill read second time.

Further Consideration of Proposed Committee Amendments

The following amendments were proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means:

Consideration of Amendments Nos. 61 and 62

Amendment No. 61

On page 7 of said bill, after line 15, insert

"44.1—For expenses of special commissions assisting the Board of Corrections in making a study of crime conditions pursuant to Sections 6027 and 6028 of the Penal Code, Department of Corrections..... 56,057".

Amendment No. 62

On page 7 of said bill, before line 16, insert

"44.2—For compensation, fees, and expenses of confidential personnel furnished by the Director of Corrections to the special commissions assisting the Board of Corrections in the study of crime, Department of Corrections (exempt from the provisions of Sections 12410, 13320, 16003, and 17031 of the Government Code)..... 45,000 provided, that claims for such compensation shall be presented by the Director of Corrections in his own name with a statement that the charges have been incurred pursuant to this item and when so presented shall be paid therefrom; and provided further that upon the completion of each secret investigation, and in any event within not more than one year after the payment of any claims, the Director of Corrections shall file with the Controller vouchers in support of the claims; provided that the Controller shall not divulge any information conveyed by the vouchers, except upon order of a court of records in cases where the information is relevant and material evidence or upon order of the Legislature; and provided further, that such oaths of office as may be required of persons whose compensation is paid from this item may be kept in the confidential files of the Director of Corrections"

Amendments read.

Demand for Previous Question

Messrs. Babbage, Geddes, Klocksiem, Lincoln, and Kirkwood demanded the previous question.

Demand for previous question sustained.

The question being on the adoption of Amendments Nos. 61 and 62 to Assembly Bill No. 500.

The roll was called, and the amendments adopted by the following vote:

No state officer or employee shall use, or permit the use of, any state-owned motor vehicle other than in the conduct of state business

The State Board of Control shall prescribe rules and regulations which:

(a) Define the use of state-owned motor vehicles which constitutes use in the conduct of state business and distinguish such use from misappropriation for private use;

(b) Prescribe the procedure for determining and collecting the actual costs to the State attributable to misuse of state-owned motor vehicles and the disposition of such collections;

(c) Prescribe the records and reports to be kept and made by state agencies relating to the use of state-owned motor vehicles to the end that misuse may be discovered with a minimum of record-keeping; provided that every state officer or employee who has operated a state-owned motor vehicle during the preceding month shall file a statement certifying under penalty of perjury as to all statements made in such reports, including a statement that he has not used or permitted the use of any state-owned motor vehicle other than in the conduct of state business as prescribed by the State Board of Control; no money appropriated by this Act shall be expended for payment of the salary of any state officer or employee who has operated a state-owned motor vehicle in the preceding month unless he has filed the reports and certification as provided in this section; provided, however, that with the approval of the Director of Finance such reports and certification may be filed on behalf of any state employee by the employee's supervising officer in those cases where it is determined that there are valid reasons which would prevent the employee from complying with the certification and filing requirements of the act;

(d) Establish methods of vehicle control and accounting which will facilitate and encourage the pooling of vehicles for their most effective utilization;

(e) Govern the storage of state-owned motor vehicles.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the incumbents of elective state offices.

The Department of Finance shall administer the provisions of this section and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto; provided, however, that it shall be the duty of the head or governing body of each state agency to carry out and enforce this section and said rules and regulations within such state agency.

Any violation by a state officer or employee of this section or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto shall constitute misuse of state property under Section 19572 of the Government Code

The State Personnel Board, upon its own initiative or upon request of any person, may suspend from state service without pay for a period not exceeding 30 days, any officer or employee of the State exempt from civil service for violating this section or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto The procedure prescribed in the State Civil Service Act for taking punitive action against state employees shall apply to punitive action taken under this paragraph "

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was offered:

By Messrs. Collier, Stewart, Lanterman, Burke, Lipscomb, and Doyle:

House Resolution No. 94

Relating to the necessity for installation of telephones along the Arroyo Seco Parkway

WHEREAS, The Arroyo Seco Parkway handles one of the largest traffic volumes in the world; and

WHEREAS, The Arroyo Seco Parkway, except at its entrances and exits, some of which are more than a mile apart, is enclosed by a wire fence; and

WHEREAS, Such fence and the small number of entrances and exits to Arroyo Seco Parkway cause considerable inconvenience to motorists whose automobiles come into disrepair or exhaust their fuel supplies upon the parkway by making it extremely difficult for such motorists to seek assistance; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the California Highway Commission is requested to cause telephones to be installed at convenient locations along the Arroyo Seco Parkway for the use of motorists who may require them to call for emergency assistance in the operation of their vehicles along said parkway; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly be hereby directed to transmit copies of this resolution to the members of the California Highway Commission.

Resolution read, and ordered referred to the Committee on Rules.

MOTION TO DISPLAY MAPS

Mr. Dolwig moved that the maps showing proposed congressional, senatorial, and assembly district reapportionment plans be displayed in the Assembly Chamber, under the supervision of the Chairman of the Committee on Rules, for the use of members.

Mr. Silliman seconded the motion.

Motion carried.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Dr. Clarence A. Kircher:

O Thou Light of Life, shine out in the darkness of our disturbed world and hasten the day of peace and brotherhood.

In our responsibilities of government, we pray for vision to believe, faith to pursue and courage to complete the tasks set before us. Grant unto us that inner radiance by which we are enabled to look serenely upon this troubled world and take our place in the planning for a new and better day.

"Light of the world, before Thee
Our spirits prostrate fall;
We worship, we adore Thee,
Thou Light, the Life of all;
With Thee is no forgetting
Of all Thine hand hath made;
Thy rising hath no setting,
Thy sunshine hath no shade"

Through Jesus Christ our Lord.—AMEN.

SEC. 8. Section 28452 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

28452. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 28451, the State Department of Public Health and the Department of Finance may authorize the deposit in the Special Deposit Fund of cash deposits received by the State Department of Public Health under the provisions of Section 28412; and in such event, upon the determination by the State Department of Public Health that all or a part of any such deposit is due the State for payment on account of the depositor's pro rata share of costs incurred by the State under this chapter, the amount so determined shall, on order of the State Controller, be transferred from the Special Deposit Fund to the General Fund.

All money deposited in the Special Deposit Fund under the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of Article 2 of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 9. Upon authorization of the State Department of Public Health and the Department of Finance pursuant to Section 28452 of the Health and Safety Code, that portion of the amount transferred to the General Fund under the provisions of Subdivision (b) of Section 10 of this act that represents the unexpended balance of cash deposits paid to the State under Section 28452 of the Health and Safety Code, and not yet determined to be due the State or to be refundable to the depositor, shall, on order of the State Controller, be transferred to the Special Deposit Fund, subject to the provisions of said Section 28452.

SEC. 10. All money in the Department of Public Health Fund on July 1, 1951, shall be disposed of as follows:

(a) All money in the Department of Public Health Fund that was derived from money appropriated by the State from the General Fund for the support of the State Department of Public Health or of any division, bureau, or organization unit thereof, or the expenditure of which is administered through or under the direction of the State Department of Public Health, and transferred to the Department of Public Health Fund prior to July 1, 1951, under the provisions of subdivision (c) of Section 115 of the Health and Safety Code, shall, on order of the State Controller, be transferred from the Department of Public Health Fund to the General Fund, and shall be credited to the appropriation in the latter fund from which such money was originally derived. The unexpended balance of each such General Fund appropriation shall continue to be available for expenditure for the purposes for which such appropriation was made, and shall be subject to all of the provisions of the act making such appropriation with respect thereto.

(b) All money in the Department of Public Health Fund that was derived from money received by the State under the provisions of Chapter 8 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code, or under the provisions of Chapter 428 of the Statutes of 1925, as amended, and deposited in the Department of Public Health Fund under the provisions of Section 2 of Chapter 1092 of the Statutes of 1941, shall, on order of the State Controller, be transferred from the Department of Public Health Fund to he General Fund, and shall be available for expenditure therefrom for the same purposes, and subject to the same conditions, limitations, and restrictions, for which it was available for expenditure from the Department of Public Health Fund prior to such transfer.

An amount equal to the unexpended balance of each appropriation made from the Department of Public Health Fund prior to July 1, 1951, that is available by law for the payment of expenses incurred by the State Department of Public Health in enforcing the provisions of Chapter 8 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code, is hereby appropriated from the General Fund for expenditure for the same purposes, and subject to the same periods of availability, as each such appropriation originally made from the Department of Public Health Fund.

(c) All money in the Department of Public Health Fund that was derived from grants of money received by the State from the United States, the expenditure of which is administered through or under the direction of the State Department of Public Health, shall, on order of the State Controller, be transferred from the Department of Public Health Fund to the Public Health Federal Fund, and shall be available for expenditure from the latter fund, without regard to fiscal years, for the purposes for which it is made available by the United States.

(d) All money in the Department of Public Health Fund that was derived from grants or donations from sources other than the United States, the expenditure of which is administered through or under the direction of the State Department of Public Health, shall, on order of the State Controller, be transferred from the Department of Public Health Fund to the Special Deposit Fund, and shall be credited to the appropriate account in the latter fund, as provided by Section 121 of the Health and Safety Code. The amount so transferred shall be available, without regard to fiscal years, for expenditure from the Special Deposit Fund for the purposes for which it was made available under the terms and conditions of the grant or donation.

(e) All other money in the Department of Public Health Fund the disposition of which is not otherwise provided by law, shall, on order, of the State Controller, be transferred from the Department of Public Health Fund to the General Fund

SEC. 11. The Board of Control shall provide for the transfer of the appropriation made by Item 232, Section 2 of the Budget Act of 1951 from the Department of Public Health Fund to the General Fund in accordance with Section 28 of the Budget Act of 1951.

SEC. 12. This act shall become operative July 1, 1951.

SEC. 13. SEC. 2. Section 124.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

124.1. The Social Welfare Federal Fund in the State Treasury is hereby created. All grants of money received by the State from the United States, the expenditure of which is administered through or under the direction of the Department of Social Welfare, shall, on order of the State Controller, be deposited in the Social Welfare Federal Fund.

SEC. 3. Section 124.2 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

124.2. All money in the Social Welfare Federal Fund is hereby appropriated to the Department of Social Welfare, without regard to fiscal years, for expenditure for the purposes for which the money deposited therein is made available by the United States for expenditure by the State.

SEC. 4. Section 124.3 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

124.3. The Department of Social Welfare and the State Controller shall keep a record of the classes and sources of income deposited in, or transferred to, the Social Welfare Federal Fund, and of the disbursements therefrom.

SEC. 5. Section 124.4 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

124.4. The Director of Finance and the State Controller may approve any general plan whereby:

(a) Any expenditures which are a proper charge against the money made available by the United States and deposited in the Social Welfare Federal Fund may be paid, in the first instance, from the General Fund, and

(b) The General Fund shall be reimbursed for expenditures made therefrom that are a proper charge against the Social Welfare Federal Fund.

Such a general plan may provide for advance transfers from the Social Welfare Federal Fund to the General Fund, based on estimates of expenditures to be made from the General Fund which will be subject to reimbursement from the Social Welfare Federal Fund pursuant to such plan, and may provide for reimbursements to the Social Welfare Federal Fund.

Requests for reimbursement pursuant to such a plan shall be furnished to the State Controller in writing by the Department of Social Welfare, accompanied by such financial statements as the plan may provide; and on order of the State Controller, the required amount shall be transferred in accordance therewith.

SEC. 6. All money in the Social Welfare Fund on July 1, 1951, shall be disposed of as follows:

(a) All money in the Social Welfare Fund that was derived from money appropriated by the State from the General Fund for the support of the Department of Social Welfare and transferred to the Social Welfare Fund prior to July 1, 1951, under the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 124 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall, on order of the State Controller, be transferred from the Social Welfare Fund to the General Fund, and shall be credited to the appropriation in the latter fund from which such money was originally derived. The unexpended balance of each such General Fund appropriation shall continue to be available for expenditure for the purposes for which such appropriation was made, and shall be subject to all of the provisions of the act making such appropriation, with respect thereto.

(b) All money in the Social Welfare Fund that was derived from grants of money received by the State from the United States, the expenditure of which is administered through or under the direction of the Department of Social Welfare, shall, on order of the State Controller, be transferred from the Social Welfare Fund to the Social Welfare Federal Fund, and shall be available for expenditure from the latter fund, without regard to fiscal years for the purposes for which it is made available by the United States.

(c) All other money in the Social Welfare Fund, the disposition of which is not otherwise provided by law, shall, on order of the State Controller, be transferred from the Social Welfare Fund to the General Fund.

SEC. 7. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1951.

SEC. 8. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the State Constitution, and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

This act provides for the discontinuance of the commingling of General Fund appropriations with federal monies in a single fund for the purpose of facilitating the financial administration of the current expenses appropriated for the operations of the Department of Social Welfare."

Amendments read, and adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, engrossed, and to be re-referred to the Committee on Social Welfare.

"SEC. 12. Section 1356 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1356. In the bonds of any other political subdivision, public corporation, or district of the State of California (herein referred to generally as public corporations) having the power, without limit as to rate or amount, to levy taxes to pay the principal and interest of such bonds upon all property within its boundaries subject to taxation by such public corporation, and in the bonds of any special district established by and within any municipal utility district, provided:

(a) An amount exceeding 25 percent of the paid-up capital and surplus of the savings bank or exceeding 2 percent of the bank's savings deposits, whichever is greater, may not be invested in the bonds of any one such public corporation or special district;

(b) The net direct debt of such public corporation or of such special district together with its net overlapping debt does not exceed 20 percent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property within its boundaries according to the last official equalized county assessment roll.

SEC. 13 Section 1357 of said code is amended to read.

1357. An amount not exceeding in all 20 percent of the bank's savings deposits in (a) the bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of, or which are unconditionally guaranteed by, the Dominion of Canada, the Territory of Hawaii, or any state of the United States other than California, for the payment of both principal and interest of which in United States' dollars the faith and credit of such dominion, territory, or state are pledged; (b) in limited obligations of any state of the United States, other than California, payable only from special taxes which are pledged to the payment of principal and interest of such limited obligations; and (c) in the bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any city, county, political subdivision, public corporation, or district (herein referred to generally as public corporations) of any state of the United States other than California, having the power without limit as to rate or amount to levy taxes to pay the principal and interest of such bonds upon all property within its boundaries subject to taxation by such public corporation, provided.

(a) An amount exceeding 25 percent of the paid-up capital and surplus of the savings bank or 1 percent of the savings deposits of the bank, whichever is greater, may not be invested in the bonds or other obligations of any one state other than California, or in the bonds of any one public corporation located in a state other than California;

(b) In the case of bonds constituting general obligations of any such state, such state has not within 10 years prior to such investment defaulted for a period of more than 90 days in the payment of any part of either principal or interest of any of its debts;

(c) In the case of such limited obligations of any such state, (1) that such state has not within 10 years prior to the date of such investment defaulted for a period of more than 90 days in the payment of either principal or interest of any of its debts; (2) the special taxes pledged for the payment of such limited obligations shall have been collected for five fiscal years next preceding any investment and during said five fiscal years shall have averaged at least one and one-half times the [highest] debt service requirements, including those for principal, interest, and sinking fund, on all such special obligations existing at [any] the time [during said five fiscal years] ; and (3) such special taxes for each of said five fiscal years shall have equalled at least the amount of all such debt service requirements on such special obligations; and

(d) In the case of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any such public corporation of any state other than California:

(1) Such public corporation has had a corporate existence or been otherwise established and functioning for at least 10 years prior to the time of such investment;

(2) Such public corporation has a population of at least 50,000 inhabitants according to the last federal or state census;

(3) Such public corporation for a period of at least 10 years prior to such investment has not defaulted in the payment of any part of the principal or interest of any of its debts for a period of more than 90 days; and

(4) The net direct debt together with the net overlapping debt of such public corporation does not exceed 10 percent of the assessed valuation of the property subject to taxation by such public corporation according to the last official equalized assessment roll or list upon the basis of which taxes for debt service are based.

SEC. 14. Section 1359 of said code is amended to read:

1359. An amount not exceeding in all 5 percent of the bank's savings deposits in bonds of any irrigation district, water storage district, water conservation district, county water district, reclamation district, drainage district, and any district the primary function of which is the irrigation, reclamation or drainage of land within its boundaries, located in California, other than bonds referred to in Section 1355.1, provided:

(a) Such bonds qualify under Section 1356; or

[(a)] (b) Such bonds have been certified as legal securities for savings banks pursuant to Chapter 1 of Division 10 of the Water Code and such certification remains unrevoked; and

[(b)] (c) The total outstanding bonded indebtedness of the district including bonds authorized but not issued, but excluding bonds payable solely from revenues and not directly or indirectly from assessments, does not exceed 50 percent of the aggregate of the assessed value of the lands, exclusive of improvements, subject to assessment by the district, and the value of the property owned by the district or to be acquired or constructed with the proceeds of the bonds under consideration.

[(c) The district is required and obligated to establish and maintain a reserve fund consisting of cash or United States bonds in an amount not less than the amount of the annual debt service requirements of its outstanding bonded indebtedness in addition to its current debt service requirements and which fund is not subject to any other lien or charge; and]

(d) An amount exceeding 25 percent of the paid-up capital and surplus of the savings bank or exceeding 1 percent of the savings deposits of the bank, whichever is greater, may not be invested in the bonds of any one such district.

SEC. 15. Section 1362 of said code is amended to read:

1362. An amount not exceeding in all 10 percent of the bank's savings deposits in revenue securities of any state of the United States and of any city, county, city and county, political subdivision, public corporation, or district (herein referred to generally as public corporations) of any such state and of any department, board, agency, or authority of any such state or of any such public corporation, provided:

(a) An amount exceeding 25 percent of the paid-up capital and surplus of the savings bank or exceeding 1 percent of the savings deposits of the bank, whichever is greater, may not be invested in revenue securities payable from the income from any one revenue producing property or project or issued by any one public corporation whether issued directly or through a department, board, agency, or authority thereof;

(b) Such revenue securities [are] constitute obligations payable out of the revenues from a revenue producing property owned, controlled, or operated by such state, public corporation, or by a department, board, agency, or authority thereof and [are secured by a direct and exclusive charge and lien upon such revenues] are secured by such revenues;

(c) The net income from such property available for the payment of such securities for the five fiscal years next preceding any such investment shall have averaged at least one and one-tenth times all debt service requirements for principal, interest, and sinking fund of all revenue securities payable only out of the revenues from such property during each of such fiscal years, and for each of such five fiscal years shall have equaled at least all debt service requirements for principal, interest, and sinking fund of such securities, and for the last fiscal year shall have amounted to at least the maximum annual debt service requirement for any fiscal year thereafter on all such securities which were outstanding during such last fiscal year and which will be outstanding in any fiscal year thereafter;

(d) The gross income from the property, the net income from which is pledged for the payment of such securities, in the last fiscal year prior to such investment was not less than [two] one million [five hundred thousand] dollars [($2,500,000)] ($1,000,000) if located in California, and was not less than five million dollars ($5,000,000) if located elsewhere; [and]

(e) The issuer of the securities is obligated to maintain rates at least sufficient to meet debt service requirements and such obligation is legally enforceable; and

[(e)] (f) The public corporation which issues the securities or the public corporation, any department, board, agency, or authority of which issues the securities, if existing elsewhere than in California, has not within 10 years prior to such investment defaulted for a period of more than 90 days in the payment of principal or interest on any of its debts.

SEC. 16. Section 1363 is amended to read as follows:

1363. [An amount not exceeding in all 5 percent of the bank's savings deposits in bonds issued by housing authorities established pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law of the State of California, provided:

(a) An amount in excess of 25 percent of the savings bank's paid-up capital and surplus or 1 percent of the bank's savings deposits, whichever is greater, may not be invested in the bonds of any one housing authority;

(b) Such bonds are additionally secured by a pledge of annual contributions to be paid by an agency of the United States over a fixed period of years and for the payment of which contributions the faith and credit of the United States is pledged conditioned only upon a compliance with the conditions of the contract for such contributions;

(c) Such contributions are sufficient in amount to assure the payment by such authority of both principal and interest on the bonds as they become due;

(d) The housing authority covenants that it will not transfer title to the property upon which the proceeds of the bonds are to be expended in any manner which would constitute grounds for the termination of said contributions; and

(e) Such bonds are secured by a covenant of the authority to observe all agreements and conditions set forth in the contributions contract and giving the bondholders remedies by which they may enforce observant of the same.]

An amount not exceeding in all 5 percent of the bank's savings deposits in bonds of any local public housing agency (as defined in Section 110 (h) of the Housing Act of 1949) as are secured either, (1) by an agreement between the public housing agency and the Public Housing Administration in which the public housing agency agrees to borrow from the Public Housing Administration, and the Public Housing Administration agrees to lend to the public housing agency, prior to the maturity of such obligations (which obligations shall have a maturity of not more than 18 months), moneys in an amount which (together with any other moneys irrevocably committed to the payment of interest on such obligations) will suffice to pay the principal of such obligations with interest to maturity thereon, which moneys under the terms of said agreement are required to be used for the purpose of paying the principal of and the interest on such obligations at their maturity, or (2) by a pledge of annual contributions under an annual contribution contract between such public housing agency and the Public Housing Administration which is authorized by subsection (G) of Section 22 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended, and if the maximum sum and the maximum period specified in such contract pursuant to said subsection 22 (G) shall not be less than the annual amount and the period for payment which are requisite to provide for the payment when due of all installments of principal and interest on such obligations.

SEC. 17. Section 1364 of said code is amended to read:

1364. An amount not exceeding in all 10 percent of the bank's savings deposits in evidences of indebtedness of companies incorporated in the United States and, directly or indirectly, engaged in manufacturing, extraction, merchandising or commercial financing, provided:

(a) An amount exceeding 25 percent of the paid-up capital and surplus of the savings bank or exceeding 1 percent of the savings deposits of the bank, whichever is greater, may not be invested in such evidences of indebtedness of any one company;

(b) Any unsecured evidences of indebtedness must be issued by a company whose property is free of mortgage and shall carry a covenant by the obligor that they will be secured equally with any mortgage bond which may be later issued;

SEC. 18. Section 1366 of said code is amended to read:

1366. An amount not exceeding in all 10 percent of the bank's savings deposits in the bonds and debentures of gas and electric companies meeting the requirements of subparagraph (b), in the bonds and debentures of telephone companies meeting the requirements of subparagraph (c), and in the bonds and debentures of water companies meeting the requirements of subparagraph (d), provided.

(a) Of said 10 percent of the bank's savings deposits not more than three-fourths thereof may be invested in bonds and debentures of gas and electric companies, not more than one-half thereof in bonds and debentures of telephone companies, and not more than one-quarter thereof in bonds and debentures of water companies; and provided, that an amount exceeding 25 percent of the paid-up capital and surplus of the savings bank or 1 percent of its savings deposits, whichever is greater, may not be invested in any of such bonds or debentures issued by any one such public utility company;

(b) Bonds or debentures of a gas and electric [companies] company must be of an issue which originally amounted to not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) and, if bonds, be secured by a mortgage on [currently usable] substantially all of its physical property, and, if debentures, must be issued by a company substantially all of whose physical property is free of mortgage and must carry a covenant to be secured equally with any mortgage indebtedness subsequently issued, and both bonds and debentures must be issued by a public utility corporation, which

(1) Derives [at least 80 percent] more than 50 percent of its gross operating revenue from the business of supplying electricity, artificial gas, or natural gas or all or any of them, and at least 80 percent of its gross operating revenue from all or any of the public utility businesses enumerated in this section;

(2) Shall have had a gross operating revenue of not less than seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000) for its most recent fiscal year;

(3) Has a funded debt not exceeding [50 percent] two-thirds of the value of its [fixed assets] physical property as shown by the books of the corporation or by a statement of a certified public accountant issued within one year, which statement may be based upon the books of the corporation, less the amount of any reserves for depreciation, retirement or amortization of such physical property (Physical property of a corporation shall include the physical property of a subsidiary corporation if the corporation owns not less than 90 percent of the outstanding voting shares of the subsidiary corporation); and

(4) Shall have had earnings including earnings of subsidiaries mentioned in paragraph (3), available for interest payments, before deduction of state and federal taxes imposed on or measured by income or profits, during four of the five most recent fiscal years and during the most recent fiscal year equal to at least twice the existing annual interest charges on the corporation's total funded debt [not including current liabilities] during such respective fiscal years.

(c) Bonds or debentures of telephone companies must be of an issue originally amounting to at least one million dollars ($1,000,000) and, if bonds, be secured by a mortgage on [the] substantially all of the physical property of the company, and if debentures must be issued by a company substantially all of whose physical property is free of mortgage and must carry a covenant to be secured equally with any mortgage indebtedness subsequently issued, and both bonds and debentures must be issued by a company:

(1) Which during its last fiscal year had gross revenues of at least seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000), [at least 80 percent] more than 50 percent of which was derived from owned properties used in furnishing telephone and other communication services and at least 80 percent of its gross revenues from all or any of the public utility businesses enumerated in this section;

(2) Whose funded debt does not exceed [50 percent] two-thirds of the value of its [fixed assets] physical property as shown by the books of the corporation or by a statement of a certified public accountant issued within one year, which statement may be based upon the books of the corporation, less the amount of any reserves shown on said statement for depreciation, retirement or amortization of such physical property. (Physical property of a corporation shall include the physical property of a subsidiary corporation if the corporation owns not less than 90 percent of the outstanding voting shares of the subsidiary corporation) ; and

(3) Which for four of the five most recent fiscal years and for the last fiscal year had earnings including earnings of subsidiaries mentioned in paragraph (2) available for the payment of interest charges, before deduction of state and federal taxes imposed on or measured by income or profits, at least equal to twice the interest charges on the company's total funded debt [other than current indebtedness] during such respective fiscal years.

(d) Water company bonds or debentures must be of an issue originally amounting to at least one million dollars ($1,000,000) and if bonds, be secured by a first mortgage on the company's property, and if debentures, must be issued by a company whose property is free of mortgage and must carry a covenant to be secured equally with any mortgage indebtedness subsequently issued, and both bonds and debentures must be issued by a company:

(1) Which is the supplier of substantially all water for domestic use in a community or communities having a population of not less than 25,000;

(2) Whose funded debt does not exceed [60 percent] two-thirds of the value of its [fixed assets as established for rate making purposes by the public regulatory body having jurisdiction thereof] physical property as shown by the published statement of the company for its next preceding fiscal period, less the amount of any reserves shown for depreciation, retirement or amortization of such physical property. (Physical property of a corporation shall include the physical property of a subsidiary corporation if the corporation owns not less than 90 percent of the outstanding voting shares of the subsidiary corporation) ; and

(3) Which for four out of the five most recent fiscal years and for the most recent fiscal year shall have had earnings including those of subsidiaries mentioned in paragraph (2) available for the payment of interest charges, before deduction of state and federal taxes imposed on or measured by income or profits, of at least one and one-half times the interest charges on the company's total [indebtedness] funded debt during such respective fiscal years.

The term "funded debt" as used in this chapter means all interest bearing indebtedness of a corporation not maturing within one year of the date it was incurred.

SEC. 19. Section 1367 of said code is amended to read:

1367. An amount not exceeding in all 25 percent of the paid-up capital and surplus of the savings bank or not exceeding 1 percent of the bank's savings deposits, whichever is lesser, may be invested in securities, other than corporation shares, [not herein otherwise expressly authorized,] whether or not such securities are herein expressly authorized and whether or not they qualify hereunder, in which in the informed opinion of the bank it is prudent to invest savings funds.

SEC. 20 Section 1371 is added to said code, to read:

1371. The superintendent is authorized upon the written application of any person made upon such form and containing such information as he may prescribe and when in his opinion the purposes of this chapter will be served thereby, to issue his certificate certifying that in his opinion and upon the information furnished him, specifying the same, any particular security of a class in this chapter referred to constitutes a security in which savings banks are permitted to invest pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. The superintendent may request any public official in whose office information relative to the assessed valuation of taxable property of any political subdivision, public corporation, or district is kept, or in whose office information relative to the direct debt or the overlapping debt of any political subdivision, public corporation or district, is kept, or in whose office any other information pertinent to a determination of whether or not any bonds issued by any political subdivision, public corporation, or district are qualified as investments for savings banks under this chapter is kept, to furnish him such information, and upon such request being made it shall be the duty of such public official to furnish to the superintendent such information

SEC. 21. Section 1371 of said code is renumbered to read Section 1372 and is amended to read as follows:

1372. The provisions of this chapter govern the investment of funds by savings banks but wherever by any law of this State it is now provided that the moneys of any pension fund, retirement plan, trust fund, or the moneys of any special fund the investment of which is governed by law, or the funds of any political subdivision or public corporation may or shall be invested in securities which are a legal investment for savings banks, then such law shall be deemed to authorize or require, as the case may be, that such moneys be invested in securities in which savings banks were authorized to invest their funds by the provisions of the Bank Act as it read prior to January 1, 1949, or by any other law of this State or in which savings banks are authorized to invest their funds by the provisions of Sections 1350 to 1366, inclusive, of this chapter ; provided, that the provisions of said sections limiting the amount which a savings bank may invest in securities to a specified percent of its paid-up capital and surplus, or savings deposits, shall not apply to investments authorized by the terms of this section .

SEC. 22. Section 3396 of said code is amended to read :

3396. No person shall represent by advertisement, circular, or otherwise, or in any manner mislead anyone to believe, that any securities are legal investments for savings banks in this State or conform to the requirements of law relating to such investments, unless such securities are in fact at such time legal investments for such banks or do in fact so conform to such requirements or, unless such person, in making such representation, has acted in good faith and in reliance upon a certificate issued by the superintendent pursuant to Section 1371 issued within one year, upon published reports of the public or private corporations issuing such securities, upon information furnished by a public official in his official capacity or upon information furnished by any established statistical agency approved for this purpose by the superintendent. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 23. Sections 12 to 22, inclusive, of this act become operative only if Division 1 of the Financial Code is enacted by the Legislature at its 1951 Regular Session, and in such case at the same time as said Division 1 takes effect, at which time Sections 1356, 1357, 1359, 1362, 1363, 1364, 1366, 1367, 1371, and 3396 of the Banking Code as amended by this act, and Section 1371 added to the Banking Code by this act are repealed."

Amendments read, and adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, and re-engrossed.

CONSIDERATION OF ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 129

Recommendation of the Governor

In accordance with Article IV, Section 34, of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the passage of Assembly Bill No. 129:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, March 21, 1951

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
Sacramento, California

GENTLEMEN:

Assembly Bill No. 129, "An act making an appropriation to the Emergency Fund in augmentation of the appropriation in Item 277, Budget Act of 1950, to take effect immediately,"

in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

This appropriation is required to meet a deficiency in the Emergency Fund caused largely by price increases.

I therefore recommend consideration of Assembly Bill No. 129 as an emergency measure.

Respectfully submitted,

EARL WARREN, Governor

Assembly Bill No. 129—An act making an appropriation to the Emergency Fund in augmentation of the appropriation in Item 277, Budget Act of 1950, to take effect immediately.

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were offered:

By Messrs. Kilpatrick, Morris, Munnell, Burke, Hahn, and Burkhalter:

House Resolution No. 96

Relating to memorializing the Federal Government to deport criminals who are aliens or naturalized by fraud

WHEREAS, Organized crime in the United States is increasing at an alarming rate; and

WHEREAS, The syndication of crime is on an interstate basis, making it difficult for the several states to uproot the out-of-state sources or leaders, with the result that state convictions for crime bring only a replacement from a national syndicate; and

WHEREAS, The leaders of national crime syndicates are often free from personal participation in the elements of a punishable crime; and

WHEREAS, Experience has shown that many of these leaders and underlings are aliens or have obtained their citizenship by fraud; and

WHEREAS, Such persons are abusing the privileges of entry or naturalization, and are undesirable persons to have within the United States; and

WHEREAS, The Federal Government is the proper sovereign power to rid ourselves of such undesirables through the immigration and naturalization powers of the Federal Government; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Congress of the United States, the President of the United States, the Department of Justice and the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization be memorialized to take whatever action is necessary under Title 8, §§ 155 and 738 United States Code, and related sections, or enact appropriate legislation, to effect the deportation of proven members of a crime syndicate or criminal organization, or who have been convicted of a felony, who are either aliens or have obtained naturalization by fraud; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the Assembly to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Attorney General of the United States and to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization.

Resolution read, and ordered referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. Hahn, Morris, Thomas, Porter, Grant, McGee, Klocksiem, Hawkins, McMillan, Mrs. Niehouse, Messrs. Munnell, Kilpatrick Rosenthal, Dills, Chapel, Stanley, Beck, Burke, Hollibaugh, and Elliott:

House Resolution No. 97

Relating to a Governor's Mansion in Southern California

WHEREAS, A large part of the population of the State, many vital industries, and a substantial number of state offices are located in Southern California; and

WHEREAS, The business of the State necessitates frequent trips to Southern California by the Governor of our State; and

WHEREAS, There exists a need for a Governor's Mansion in Southern California for the accommodation of the Governor on his frequent trips; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the State Public Works Board is requested to investigate the feasibility of constructing a Governor's Mansion in Southern California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the State Public Works Board.

Resolution read, and ordered referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. Gaffney, George D. Collins, McCarthy, Maloney, Brady, Berry, Connolly, and Meyers:

House Resolution No. 98

Relative to congratulating Assemblyman Conrad on his recent marriage

WHEREAS, Charles James Conrad has married Grace Irene Odell on February 10, 1951, at the First Congregational Church of Los Angeles; and

WHEREAS, The bride was born in Dayton, Ohio, the daughter of the late Arthur W. and Lillian (Kirchner) Odell. In 1930 she came to Hollywood where she became active in the Hollywood Young Republicans for which she was Vice Chairman in Charge of Social Activities, and there met the future benedict; and

WHEREAS, The groom was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the son of the late Charles J. and Anna (Beath) Conrad. He came to Hollywood in 1935 and there met his future bride during his first campaign for the State Legislature in 1946; and

WHEREAS, Charley Conrad has been a good legislator, and by his punctual attendance and diligent application to the duties imposed upon him in service of the people of the State and his constituents of the Fifty-seventh Assembly District he has earned the friendship of his colleagues and merited the reward of a life long happiness with his charming bride; and

WHEREAS, The Speaker, Speaker pro Tempore, attaches and Members of the Assembly wish Charles J. and Mrs. Conrad every happiness; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That best wishes are hereby extended to Mrs. Conrad, and that congratulations are hereby extended to Assemblyman Conrad; and, be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit forthwith a suitable engrossed copy of this resolution to Assemblyman and Mrs. Conrad Resolution read, and ordered referred to the Committee on Rules.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Dr. Clarence A. Kircher:

March 23, 1951

O Thou Savior of Mankind, Who hath redeemed us by Thy cross, teach us that which is good in Good Friday.

Remind us that You were wounded for our transgressions and bruised for our iniquities.

We stand in awe of so great a love revealing how all mankind should follow in the great example of humility and obedience.

We thank You for making us partners of Thy resurrection and eternal life, showing us that earth's saddest day and gladdest day were but one day apart.

"In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.
Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that thro' all time abide"

—AMEN.

COMMUNICATIONS

By the Chief Clerk:

The following communication was received, read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

STATE OF NEW MEXICO
SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO, March 19, 1951

Clerk, House of Representatives

DEAR SIR. I am forwarding to you under separate cover at the request of the Twentieth Legislative Assembly of the State of New Mexico, a copy of House Joint Resolution No 12

This resolution makes application to the Congress of the United States to call a convention to amend the Constitution of the United States to limit the taxing power of the Federal Government.

I believe the resolution is self-explanatory

Yours very truly,

SANTOS QUINTANA, Chief Clerk

Upon receipt, the above mentioned resolution will be ordered referred to the Committee on Revenue and Taxation.

By the Chief Clerk:

The following communication was received, read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

STATE OF IOWA, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
DES MOINES, IOWA, March 20, 1951

Chief Clerk,
House of Representatives,
Sacramento, California

DEAR SIR: Enclosed is a copy of a bill that the Ways and Means Committee of the Iowa Legislature passed out with recommendation that it do pass.

We think it is a good bill. We think it is a fair bill; and we think it ought to be enacted into law here so that we can reciprocate with other states. But, unless other states also have this type of legislation, it cannot work to the mutual benefit and best interests of all, so we would appreciate your bringing this to the attention of the appropriate committee, if it does not already apply, and to consider legislation of this type for the interest of your State and ours.

Sincerely yours,

DEWEY E. GOODE, Chairman
Ways and Means Committee

Above mentioned copy of bill ordered referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Speaker Sam L. Collins and Mr. Stanley announced the birthday, today, of Mrs. Niehouse, and Mr. Stanley presented flowers to her with appropriate wishes from all Members of the Assembly, on behalf of the people of San Diego, for the San Diego Delegation.

Consideration of Committee Amendments

The following amendments were proposed by the Committee on Municipal and County Government:

Amendment No. 1

On page 5 of the printed bill, after line 42, insert

"SEC. 66. All contracts for the construction of any unit of work, except as hereinafter provided, estimated to cost in excess of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder in the manner hereinafter provided. The board shall advertise by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation published in the district inviting sealed proposals for the construction of the work before any contract shall be made therefor, and may let by contract separately any part of said work. The board shall require the successful bidder to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of the claims for labor and material in connection therewith, such bonds to contain the terms and conditions set forth in Chapter 3 of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code, and to be subject to the provisions of that chapter. The board shall also have the right to reject any and all bids, in which case the board may advertise for new bids. In the event no proposals are received pursuant to advertisement therefor, or where the estimated cost of such work does not exceed the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or where the work consists of emergency work necessary in order to protect life and property, the board of directors, by unanimous vote of all members present, may without advertising for bids therefor have said work done by force account. The district shall have the power to purchase in the open market without advertisement for bids thereof, materials and supplies for use in any work therewith either under contract or by force account; provided, however, that materials and supplies for use in any new construction work or improvement, except work referred to in the preceding sentence, may not be purchased if the cost thereof exceeds two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), without advertising for bids and awarding the contract therefor to the lowest responsible bidder.

The provisions of this section shall have no application to a contract entered into with the United States under the authority of Section 46, or to a contract authorized by a vote of the electorate of the district."

PRINTER'S NOTE—There being no 7-point strikeout type available, the material which should appear in strikeout type in the following amendment is indicated by being enclosed within brackets.

Amendment No. 3

On page 1, line 1, of said bill, strike out "Section 32127.5 is added to the Health and", and insert "Section 32127 of the Health and Safety Code is hereby amended to read:

32127. The hospital district shall establish its own treasury and shall appoint a treasurer charged with the safekeeping and disbursal of the funds in the treasury of the district. The board of directors shall fix the amount of the bond to be given by such treasurer and shall provide for the payment of the premium therefor out of the maintenance and operation fund.

All moneys derived from that portion, if any, of the annual tax or assessment levied for capital outlay purposes shall be placed in the capital outlay fund. Any moneys derived from a special tax or assessment levied under Article 3 of Chapter 3 hereof shall be placed in a special assessment fund and shall be used exclusively for the purposes for which such special tax or assessment was voted

All moneys derived from the regular annual tax or assessment provided in Article 1, Chapter 3 hereof, except any part thereof levied for capital outlay purposes, shall be placed in the maintenance and operation fund. All receipts and revenues of any kind from the operation of the hospital shall be paid daily into the treasury of said district and placed in the maintenance and operation fund. Moneys in the maintenance and operation fund may be expended for any of the purposes of the district. Whenever it appears that the sum in the bond interest and sinking fund will be insufficient to pay the interest or principal of bonds next coming due and payable therefrom, a sum sufficient to pay such principal and interest shall be transferred by the board of directors from the maintenance and operation fund to said bond interest and sinking fund.

Except as to principal and interest of bonds, moneys in the treasury of the district shall be paid out by the treasurer thereof only on written order signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary. The treasurer shall keep such order as his voucher and shall keep accounts of all receipts into the district treasury and all disbursements therefrom.

Where bonds of the district are payable at the office of the district, all receipts from taxes levied to pay the principal and interest of such bonds shall be paid into the treasury of the district, and the treasurer of the district shall pay therefrom the principal and interest of such bonds

Where bonds of the district are payable at the office of the county treasurer of the organizing county, at the option of the holder, or otherwise, all receipts from taxes levied to pay principal and interest of such bonds shall be paid into the treasury of the organizing county and shall be placed by the county treasurer in the bond interest and sinking fund of the district, and he shall pay the principal and interest of such bonds therefrom and shall keep an account of all moneys received into and paid out of said fund.

Any moneys in the treasury of the district and any moneys of the district in the bond interest and sinking fund of the district in the treasury of the organizing county may be deposited in accordance with the provisions of the general laws of the State of California governing the deposit of public moneys of cities or counties in such bank or banks in the State of California as may be authorized to receive deposits of public funds, in the same manner and upon the same security as public moneys of cities and counties are deposited in such banks, and with like force and effect The board of directors of the district are authorized to create a revolving fund which fund shall not exceed the sum of 10 percent of the estimated annual expenditures of the district at any one time and which shall be used for the purpose of paying the interim expenses of the operation of any hospital within the district without the necessity of a written order signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary as provided herein The treasurer is authorized to deposit said fund in such bank or banks in the county as may be authorized to receive deposits of public funds in the same manner and upon the same security as public moneys of cities and counties are deposited in such banks and with like force and effect, and shall be subject to withdrawal upon the signature of the treasurer for the use and purpose provided for herein

SEC 2 Section 32130 of the Health and Safety Code is hereby amended to read:

32130 The district may borrow money and incur indebtedness in anticipation of the estimated tax revenue and other income for the current year in which the indebtedness is incurred [or for the ensuing year thereafter] Such indebtedness shall not exceed 50 per cent of the total amount of the estimated tax revenue and other income for [either] the current year [or the ensuing year] The district is further authorized when funds shall be needed for immediate requirements to pay obligations lawfully incurred, to borrow money on certificates of indebtedness or other evidence of indebtedness in an amount not to exceed one-half of one percent of the assessed valuation of the district, said certificates of indebtedness to run for a period not to exceed five years and to bear interest not to exceed 5 percent per annum.

All such certificates of indebtedness or other evidence of indebtedness shall be issued after the adoption by a two-thirds vote of the board of directors of the district of a resolution setting forth the necessity for such borrowing and the amount of the assessed valuation of the district and the amount of funds to be borrowed thereon. All such certificates of indebtedness or other evidence of indebtedness shall be offered at public sale by the board of directors of the district after not less than ten days advertising in a newspaper of general circulation within the district and if no newspaper of general circulation is printed within the district, then in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the district is located. Each such sale shall be made to the bidder offering the lowest rate of interest or whose bid represents the lowest net cost to the district; provided, however, that the rate of interest shall not exceed 5 percent per annum.

Such certificates of indebtedness or other evidences of indebtedness shall be signed on behalf of the district by the presiding officer and attested by the secretary of the board of directors of the district. The board of supervisors of the county in which the district lies shall, at the time of fixing the general tax levy, sometimes called the annual assessment or regular annual assessment for such district, and in the manner for such general tax levy provided, levy and collect annually each year all sums coming due for principal and interest on such certificates of indebtedness or other evidence of indebtedness, a tax sufficient to pay the interest on such certificates of indebtedness as the same becomes due and also, to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof at maturity. Said tax shall be in addition to all of the taxes levied for district purposes and shall be placed in a certificate of indebtedness, interest and sinking fund of the district and, until all of the principal of the interest and certificates of indebtedness is paid, the money in said fund shall be used for no other purpose than the payment of said certificates of indebtedness and accruing interest thereon."

Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 5—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State by adding Section 17 to Article XVI thereof, relating to the issuance of bonds to provide a fund for the purchase of revenue bonds issued by counties, cities, districts, municipal corporations, political subdivisions, public corporations, or other public agencies of the State, or combination of such agencies.

Resolution read.

Consideration of Committee Amendments

The following amendments were proposed by the Committee on Constitutional Amendments:

Amendment No. 1

In line 4 of the title of the printed measure, strike out "relating to", and insert "authorizing".

Amendment No. 2

Strike out lines 5 to 8, inclusive, of the title of said measure, and insert "to create a fund for the purchase of bonds issued by any public agency of the State of California, including any county, city and county, city, political subdivision, municipal corporation, public corporation, public district, public board, commission, department, authority, officer, body or entity, or any other public agency, statewide or local, or by any combination of such public agencies, for public improvements"

Amendment No. 3

On page 1 of said measure, strike out line 9, and insert

"SEC. 17. The issuance and sale of bonds of the State of California in the sum of one billion dollars ($1,000,000,000) is hereby authorized.

The proceeds of such bonds shall be used:

(a) To provide a fund to purchase bonds issued by any public agency of the State of California, including any county, city and county, city, political subdivision, municipal corporation, public corporation, public district, public board, commission, department, authority, officer, body or entity, or any other public agency, statewide or local, or by any combination of such public agencies, for public improvements.

(b) To pay expenses incurred in, or as incidental to, the preparation, sale and issuance of the bonds authorized hereby and the administration of the said fund.

All matters pertaining to the terms and conditions of the bonds authorized hereby, and to their preparation, execution, sale and issuance, or in any manner relating to said bonds, and all matters pertaining to the administration of the fund created by the sale thereof, shall be as from time to time provided by the Legislature

The Public Agencies Improvement Bond Act of 1951 (Chapter ___, Statutes of 1951) is hereby ratified, validated, confirmed, and made fully and completely effective. No further act of the Legislature shall be necessary in furtherance of the provisions hereof, but this shall not prevent such legislative action.

The Public Agencies Revenue Bond Law (Chapter ___, Statutes of 1951) is also hereby ratified, validated, confirmed, and made fully and completely effective, and it is hereby declared that the issuance under said act, or under any other law or charter, of bonds payable out of revenues, and for the payment of which the power of taxation cannot be exercised, shall not constitute the incurring of indebtedness within the meaning of any provision of this Constitution, and nothing in this Constitution shall be a limitation upon the provisions of this section.

The ratification, validation, confirmation and making effective of said acts shall not preclude the subsequent amendment of said acts, or either of them, by the Legislature, provided that no such amendment of either of said acts shall impair or adversely affect the rights or interests of the holders of any bonds theretofore issued under said act

The people of the State of California in adopting this section hereby declare that the great growth in population of the State has made it necessary to provide for the welfare of the people through facilitating the establishment of public improvements as rapidly as possible, and at the lowest cost consistent with sound planning, and it is therefore in the interest of the State and of the people thereof for the State to finance public improvements of State and local public agencies through the purchase of bonds of such agencies issued therefor."

Amendment No. 4

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was offered:

By Mr. Hollibaugh:

House Resolution No. 101

Relative to the creation of the Assembly Interim Committee on State and Local Taxation

WHEREAS, The impact of federal, state, and local taxes are of immediate and vital concern to each and every person in this State; and

WHEREAS, It is a prerequisite to sound government that the tax burden be equal as between all taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, Taxes cannot be fairly imposed, unless the administration thereof by government officers and agencies is uniform and efficient as to each and every taxpayer; and

WHEREAS, There is need to ascertain the extent to which it is sound financial policy for revenues raised by one governmental unit to be granted or subvented to, or shared with, another governmental unit; and

WHEREAS, The need for taxes for each governmental unit cannot be ascertained unless the need for revenue for each such unit is also ascertained with exactitude; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, As follows:

1. The Assembly Interim Committee on State and Local Taxation is hereby created and authorized and directed to ascertain, study and analyze all facts relating to state and local taxation, including the relationship thereof to federal taxes, subventions or grants of financial assistance by the State to cities, cities and counties, counties, and districts and by the Federal Government to the State and local Governments, the sharing of revenues by the State, the administration and expenditure of all state and local taxes, with special reference to the adequacy of the tax base for each and the simplification of their fiscal interrelation, including but not limited to the operation, effect, administration, enforcement and needed revision of any and all laws in any way bearing upon or relating to the subject and recitals of this resolution, and to report thereon to the Assembly, including in the reports its recommendations for appropriate legislation.

2. The committee shall consist of the membership of the Standing Committee on Revenue and Taxation. The chairman shall be appointed by the Speaker. Vacancies occurring in the membership of the committee shall be filled by the appointing power.

3. The committee is authorized to act during this session of the Legislature, including any recess, and after final adjournment until the adjournment of the 1953 Regular Session, with authority to file its final report not later than the last legislative day of that session.

4. The committee and its members shall have and exercise all of the rights, duties and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the provisions of the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly and of the Standing Rules of the Assembly as they are adopted and amended from time to time at this session, which provisions are incorporated herein and made applicable to this committee and its members.

5. The committee has the following additional powers and duties:

(a) To select a vice chairman from its membership.

(b) To contract with such other agencies, public or private, as it deems necessary for the rendition and affording of such services, facilities, studies and reports to the committee as will best assist it to carry out the purposes for which it is created.

(c) To cooperate with and secure the cooperation of county, city, city and county, and other local law enforcement agencies in investigating any matter within the scope of this resolution and to direct the sheriff of any county to serve subpenas, orders and other process issued by the committee.

(d) To report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature and to the people from time to time and at any time, not later than herein provided.

(e) To do any and all other things necessary or convenient to enable it fully and adequately to exercise its powers, perform its duties, and accomplish the objects and purposes of this resolution.

6. The committee, and any subcommittee thereof when so authorized by the committee, may meet and act without as well as within the State of California, and is hereby authorized to leave the State in the performance of its duties.

7. The sum of _____ or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby made available from the Contingent Fund of the Assembly for the expenses of the committee and its members and for any charges, expenses or claims it may incur under this resolution, to be paid from the said Contingent Fund and disbursed, after certification by the chairman of the committee, upon warrants drawn by the State Controller upon the State Treasurer.

Resolution read, and ordered referred to the Committee on Rules.

CONSIDERATION OF DAILY FILE (RESUMED)

By Mr Elliott:

House Resolution No. 87

Relative to memorializing the Congress of the United States regarding the Social Security Administration under the Federal Security Agency

WHEREAS, Employees making contributions under the Old-age Survivors Insurance System of the Social Security Act are uncertain of their status and of the amounts contributed by their employers, and

WHEREAS, Persons applying for benefits have found in some cases, that neglect in turning in funds on the part of some employers has made it difficult and at times impossible to straighten out their records so that they could establish their eligibility to obtain old age benefit payments under the Federal Social Security Law, and

WHEREAS, The intent and purpose of our Social Security Act will be more clearly expressed by advising the employee annually of his status thereunder, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Assembly of the State of California hereby memorializes the Congress of the United States to investigate and consider the feasibility of taking action which will require the Social Security Administration under the Federal Security Agency to furnish employees making contributions for old-age survivors insurance with an annual statement of their status and of the amount paid into the fund by their employers, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States

Resolution read, and adopted.

CONSIDERATION OF ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 28

Recommendation of the Governor

In accordance with Article IV, Section 34, of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the passage of Assembly Bill No. 28:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, March 23, 1951

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
Sacramento, California

GENTLEMEN:

Assembly Bill No. 28, "An act making an appropriation to Mono County from the Emergency Fund specified in Item 277 of the Budget Act of 1950, relating to the repair and restoration of property damaged or destroyed by storms or floods and the expenditure of money appropriated therefor, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately,"

in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

This act makes an appropriation to the County of Mono for the construction of bridges damaged or destroyed by the recent floods Until this work is done many of the people of Mono County will be isolated, and the work should be done as soon as possible.

I therefore recommend consideration of Assembly Bill No. 28 as an emergency measure.

Respectfully submitted,

EARL WARREN, Governor

Assembly Bill No. 28—An act making an appropriation to Mono County from the Emergency Fund specified in Item 277 of the Budget Act of 1950, relating to the repair and restoration of property damaged or destroyed by storms or floods and the expenditure of money appropriated therefor, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

SUPPLEMENTARY PRELIMINARY REPORT OF THE ASSEMBLY INTERIM COMMITTEE ON FINANCE AND INSURANCE

H.R. 239

ASSEMBLY, CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE
COMMITTEE ON FINANCE AND INSURANCE, March 23, 1951

Honorable Sam L. Collins
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

DEAR MR SPEAKER: As explained in the within report your Interim Committee on Finance and Insurance has received material which allows me at this date to make a report on certain proposed legislation referred to this committee for study during the interim

In making this supplementary preliminary report which we ask be printed in the Journal I am placing in the hands of the committee members and the Legislature matters pertinent to the subject legislation as well as legislation in the current session.

Very truly yours,

ERNEST R. GEDDES, Chairman

RELATING TO CERTAIN BILLS ON WHICH CONSIDERATION WAS DEFERRED BY THE COMMITTEE

The Assembly Interim Committee on Finance and Insurance at its hearings held at the State Capitol in Sacramento on November 16 and 17, 1950, deferred consideration of the subject matter of those bills referred to it having to do with unemployment disability benefits as follows: Assembly Bills Nos. 28, 29, 66, 78, 79, 85, 86, 87 and 88 (introduced at the 1950 First Extraordinary Session).

When the chairman called for presentation of the first bill in this class Mr. Harold Leavey addressed the committee as follows:

*MR. LEAVEY: Mr. Chairman, I wonder if, with Mr. Condon's leave, I might make a statement in connection with these bills?

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: First, will you identify yourself for the record, please Mr. Leavey?

From the record we quote relevant excerpts as follows.

"MR. LEAVEY: My name is Harold Leavey, Representative of the California Western States Life Insurance Company. I've appeared before this committee on numerous occasions in connection with Disability Insurance matters. At the outset, let me say that there has been a discussion going on for some period of time with representatives of organized labor that sponsored the original writing of the Disability Insurance Act. There has been recognition on the part of the insurance carriers that there was an unhappy situation in Sacramento in 1949 session and I think there is recognition on the part of everyone concerned, that the excess of income over outgo in 1950 will be relatively small and that some consideration might be given to getting together on a discussion of where this Act is going. In line with that, we have suggested to the sponsors of some of this legislation, specifically, Mr. Haggerty † and Mr. Scully ‡ that it might be desirable to ask this committee to postpone or defer hearings on the Disability Insurance phases of these several bills. Discussion was had with Mr. Condon, as I understand it, and it is agreeable with him. One of the reasons we're asking and, perhaps primarily, is that there has been a discussion going on among the insurers as to how far changes might be made and still keep this Act on a sound and solvent basis. The insurance carriers are having a meeting in conjunction with the Insurance Commissioners' Convention in Los Angeles, December 10th to 13th. It is the thought that at that time it may be possible to reach some conclusions and perhaps present, on the part of the insurance industry and the representatives of labor, this committee with certain conclusions. If there is an attempt to explore fully all of the bills before this committee now, it seems to me that ultimate conclusions may be defeated on the basis on which it's currently being attempted. I think too, that if it is not possible for the representatives of the insurance industry and organized labor to meet and agree late in December, there would then be some time at least for this committee to have a hearing, or a discussion on all of these bills, prior to January 15th, when I understand, your report is due to be filed. Therefore, I would ask that the committee determine now that they go along with what I understand is Mr. Condon's, Mr. Scully's and Mr. Haggerty's agreement with the insurance carriers, to defer consideration on the Disability Insurance phases of these several bills pending before this committee.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: Now, Hal, you have particular reference to A.B. 56, 86 and 87, introduced at the First Extraordinary Session, last March. Is that right?

MR. LEAVEY: Yes, but further than that, there is 88, and then there are some of the bills that have to deal with U.I ‡, which also deal with D.I.‡ in part, because the same Section of the statute covers both U.I. and D.I. In other words, the request for deferment goes to all the bills that touch in any way upon D.I.

MR. SCULLY: I think I have a list here.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: Would you just give it to me and we'll get the record straight.

MR. SCULLY: As I understand it, the list would include A.B. 66, 78, 79, 85, 88 and 111.

MR. LEAVEY: Well, Mr. Chairman, there are certain other bills that should be included in that, for instance, 59 relates to Section 54, which would increase the weekly benefit amount, both for D I. purposes and U.I. purposes.

MR. SCULLY: I think that could be included

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: You'd agree with that? All right. In other words, as has been pointed out, there was a meeting of the minds as to the need for revision and amplification of some of the benefits and perhaps some corresponding offsets, so that all parties could come into agreement. You feel, Mr. Leavey, that this is particularly an argument right now, as between the companies and those represented by Mr. Scully, rather than the insurers, generally, or the general public?

MR. LEAVEY: Well I think, being realistic here, this Disability Insurance Act was sponsored by representatives of organized labor, principally those of the A.F.L. Since that time, of course, other representatives of organized labor have presented various proposals for changes in the benefit structure. I don't know just where some of the authors obtained bills, or for whom they are represented, but it seems to me that the proposed changes are broad enough to include careful consideration of all aspects if we are to still keep the Act sound.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: We'll first hear from the committee if there's any objection, particularly from Mr. Condon, who is the particular author of these bills.

‡ U I, Unemployment Insurance
D.I, (Unemployment) Disability

MR. CONDON: As Mr. Leavey said, I have discussed this matter with both Mr. Leavey and Mr. Scully, and I have no objection. I think that probably A.B. 58, should also be included because that also touches on Disability Insurance. As far as I am personally concerned, it is perfectly agreeable with me for the matter to go off the calendar at this particular session of the committee, as long as it is necessary and if we can have some kind of hearings before next March on the subject of Disability Insurance.

MR. LEAVEY: We'll have them before that.

MR. CONDON: Yes.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: It will be entirely possible, of course, for the committee to meet when we're here in January, by withholding from its final report, recommendation on these particular pieces of legislation. I also think we should contemplate, if agreement is made and the committee does make recommendation in favor of the proposed legislation, that it could be pretty well wrapped up in maybe one or two bundles instead of in as many different bills as we have here.

MR. LEAVEY: I would think that would be swell, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: However, I would like to point out, in order that some very valuable work, in my estimation, won't be entirely lost, that we have as a basis for our considerations the data filed immediately back of each of these bills, consisting of estimates by the Department of Employment and others on what the cost would be if these bills are passed, based on the data obtained at the date the estimates were made and that this should be shown when we make report on what's done here today.

MR. LEAVEY: Well, Mr. Chairman, it seems to me, those estimates necessarily tie in with whatever is ultimately worked out by way of agreement or otherwise with the representatives of organized labor and it seems to me that no purpose is served by spreading on your records or anybody else's, the detail of what the Department of Employment has filed. Some of those reports would clearly show there are certain pieces of legislation if enacted, the Department, insofar as D.I. on a current basis would be operating on a deficit basis, that is, their current outgo would exceed their current income Now, I think that the representatives of organized labor have taken the attitude that they don't stand for and are not arguing for deficit financing Therefore, I would think that that which we come in with after the December conferences will necessarily include a discussion for you gentlemen of what the costs will be and what those estimates are. I have no doubt, in conjunction with that, we will have conferences with the Department of Employment and I believe that we will probably be in accord. The labor people, management people, insurance people and the Department as to the probable, or estimated cost of whatever we may present.

MR. MALONEY: I move the request be granted, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: All right, moved by Mr. Maloney, seconded by Mr. Morris, that the request be granted.

MR DOYLE. On the motion, I think it would be well to add something to that motion I think inasmuch as Mr. Condon is familiar with this type of legislation and probably some other members of the committee, it might be well that they notify them when they have these meetings and you authorize them as a subcommittee to attend those meetings so that they will be in a position to come before this committee and explain it to us in our language. I think it would be well for them to be included in those meetings.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: We don't need a motion on that. The Chairman can do it now and I would be very glad to if its . .

MR. DOYLE. Would you intend doing that, would you . . .

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: Yes, certainly.

MR. DOLWIG: Talking on the motion. I don't see why a subcommittee should spend the time with these gentlemen at these conferences, because the purposes of their conference is to give us the information. When they have resolved whatever differences they have, they will come to us and make their presentation, so I don't see what we would gain by having a sub-committee meeting with these groups.

MR DOYLE My only reason for making that suggestion is this, that somebody's got to carry this stuff on the floor and be in position—there'll be a lot of verbal stuff there that won't be in the report—they'd be in position to answer questions on the floor. There's no question but these bills are going to be controversial on the floor, regardless of whether capital and labor or industry and labor gets together on them. There's going to be some fellows on the floor that will be either pro or against them. And, I think it might be well to have somebody there that will know all the answers.

MR. MALONEY That's up to the author of the bill, he has to follow it through and know all the answers

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: I'd like to point out, just for the information of those who may be listening to this discussion, that in the files, adjacent to the copy of Assembly Bill No. 58, is an estimate which was filed with this committee, showing that if this bill is passed the estimated amount of Unemployment Insurance Benefit payments for the calendar year of 1951 would amount to 170 million. It was based on what I would assume to be a valid estimate and was made by a State Department. Now, if there are any changes in any of these estimates that have been used in making the calculations—which are certainly something that the committee should report—as noncontroversial, but as having a direct bearing on the matter—any change in the effect, occasioned by passage of suggested and recommended legislation, then we want as part of the statement of agreement between the persons speaking here and who seek to speak later, their revisions to these figures, if they are other than these before the committee now.

MR. LEAVEY: Well, I would think, we certainly could do that. I think for clarity, for understanding and for purposes of having the whole thing that relates to this altogether, the committee itself and the legislators who go through whatever report you file will find it much easier if you not make a partial report here based on the Department's estimates, but throw the whole thing together when you have a hearing late in December or January, when you come back here.

Certainly, as I indicated a few minutes ago, if there are changes in the proposed estimates, or if these proposals will change those estimates, I think that we can have gotten together with the Department of Employment and come in and spread the whole thing on the table before you gentlemen, at whatever meeting you set.

MR. DUNN: Before I vote on this motion, I'd like to have it clearly understood that the request of Mr. Leavey is concurred in by everyone who has an interest in it. We have Mr. Condon's statement, I think, that he is willing to defer consideration of the bills that he has authored on the subject of Unemployment and I think one on Disability Unemployment Insurance Is that correct 58?

MR. CONDON: Well, they're both on both, 58 and 59.

MR. DUNN: And Mr. Leavey has quoted the representatives of the A.F L. I think they should speak for themselves. I think if there's anyone else, who is representative of industry or of another employee group, they should also be on record before this committee votes on the thing. I think that we should be clear in our own minds at least, that in suspending further consideration of these bills that the interested parties may have an opportunity to compromise their differences and present legislation which will be supported, that we have heard from at least a majority of both sides. I'd like you to ask these other people, Mr. Chairman, if they will come forth and put themselves on record.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES · All right. Mr. Scully.

MR. SCULLY: Well, other than Mr. Condon's three bills, all the remaining bills are A.F.L. sponsored bills. It is my understanding, after speaking with Mr. Leavey and Mr. Haggerty that we are agreeable to the suggestion and we would join in the request that the committee postpone consideration until the end of December or January, so that the national group of the insurance companies interested can also be consulted and they can have an opportunity to discuss it with them. So, we would be on record as to the remaining bills requesting they be complete.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES · Now, let me point out before we hear from these other parties that this committee, when it was set up, had certain purposes or functions to perform.

By a resolution adopted by the Assembly, the bills which are the subject matter which is before us today, were specifically placed in our hands with the directive that we report thereon, and that report is going to be made on the fifteenth day of January, as far as the Chairman is concerned. I believe that the Legislature, if they're going to effectively use the information we provide them, has to have it in time for use in drawing bills and in making up their minds, and in deciding who are going to be the authors Therefore, I think we mustn't lose sight of the fact that if we adopt this motion it is going to be with the understanding that the people here represented are those principally interested. The committee has complied with its directive, as far as these particular bills are concerned, in affording an opportunity for them to be heard and considered. I have no objection to this procedure, if all sides are in conformity with the suggestion or request made. Certainly the committee is in no position to insist that the proponent of a bill present it at this time if he doesn't care to. Furthermore, let me say, that all authors and co-authors of legislation, the subject matter of which we are considering, have been notified of this hearing and have been given this opportunity, so the record will be clear in that regard. Now, is there anyone who would like to speak before we put the motion? You may come forward at this time, if there is anyone.

Mr. Hawkins, will you identify yourself for the record, please?

MR. HAWKINS: F. H. Hawkins, representing the Life Insurance Association of America. The life companies are in thorough agreement with this proposal that has been outlined by Mr. Leavey and Mr. Scully and we would request, if the committee sees proper, a vote for the motion before the committee at the present time.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: Mr Hawkins, is it your understanding that if we do this, it is only with two objectives in mind: One, to come to some agreement, if that is possible, and the other to give this committee additional valid information that we report back to the Legislature, as to costs and other effects and that will take the place of the information obtained to date on these bills and which we have taken at face value?

MR. HAWKINS: Exactly.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: All right. Thank you, sir.

MR. GROEZINGER: Mr. Leland B. Groezinger speaking on behalf of the American Mutual Life and several of the other U.C.D. carriers. I just want to state that I'm in accord with what Mr. Leavey, Mr. Scully and Mr. Hawkins have just stated.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: All right, that's very good. Mr. Knauft, do you have any statement?

MR. KNAUFT: John Knauft, representing the California Manufacturers Association. We would be thoroughly in accord with a thorough study of this through the joint meetings being arranged.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: Thank you, sir. Is there anyone else?

MR. DUNN: Mr. Chairman, with reference to A.B. 79, I don't recall whether that one was on the list.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: That's not on the list.

MR. DUNN: I note Mr. Kragen is representing several other bills, and with that exception that's all the people that appear to be named here.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: Mr. Doyle, you're author of A.B. 88.

MR. DOYLE: Wait until I look and see. I think that's Brother Scully's bill.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: Now, Mr. Brady, isn't present, though he was afforded the opportunity. Mr. Beck is a committee member and hasn't appeared though he has been placed on notice. Mr. Doyle accedes. Mr. Meyers is a committee member and he isn't present.

MR. MALONEY: I assume, Mr. Chairman, that this committee is going to meet, take all these bills into consideration and relieve the Chairman of all of that work and then put in a report to you on how they feel about the program that they may come to a conclusion on. I said "may," I didn't say they "would."

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: It comes down to the question I put a few minutes ago and that is that there are two things we want. One, is a report on any agreement reached and, two, a thorough analysis of the matter of costs, something valid which we can report to the Legislature.

MR. MALONEY: Not only that, following out your suggestion, I think it's essential they get a report in here earlier than anticipated today. You cannot afford to put your report in later than January the 15th, for the simple reason that we will be limited to 120 days at this session, so, the sooner it's in the better for everyone concerned.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: I'd like to have it included in the motion, that any such report made to the Chairman of this committee, must be made not later than January 1st.

MR. MALONEY: That's all right.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: Is that all right with the proponents? Is there any further discussion?

MR. BRADY: One thing, Mr. Chairman, I hear constant conversation about getting accurate figures from the insurance companies and those interested. Shall we not also perhaps recommend policy? Because do not some of these bills contain policies that differ from current policies?

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: Can you answer that, Mr. Scully, or . . .

MR. SCULLY: I think that very definitely is the case, or subject to.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: Policy is one matter of controversy and costs another. Statistics must be posed on estimates which we believe to be correct or assumptions which are valid under the circumstances.

MR. LEAVEY: Mr. Chairman, that I may understand the suggestion made. The report would be filed by January 1st? Now, the thing which we were proposing, is that whatever conclusions we reach, we would report. I had presumed that another open meeting of this kind of this committee would be held. Now, do I understand that the committee is asking that whatever is determined upon be reduced to writing and filed, rather than having another meeting of this kind with the committee?

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: That is right. Then when we come up here on January 8th, I will call this committee together again, because I doubt that it's going to be possible to get a full committee hearing here, or anywhere else in California before we come up in January.

It's just too hard to get thirteen members, or even the ten such as we have today, together all at one time in one place. We will be here on January 8, which will give us time to hold one hearing, or two hearings, during the first part of the session, when we don't have regular committee work, and still make our report and have it included in our printed report to the Legislature. If we can't get it done by the first of January, we should go ahead and give consideration to each of these bills now, or we're going to have a hole in our obligation to the entire Legislature that will be big enough to drive a truck through.

CHAIRMAN GEDDES: Are you ready for the question? All in favor, as proposed? (Voted unanimously) It is so ordered."

In the interval which followed the November hearings, the executive secretary of this committee and the chairman were several times in communication with Mr Scully and Mr Groezinger, who, it appeared, seemed to be the spokesmen of the insurance carriers as far as it had come to our notice.

The purport of these letters was that various meetings had been held and that it appeared that a basis of agreement would be reached but that in view of the necesstiy of presenting any final agreement to various memberships of the California State Federation of Labor and also of obtaining the final approval of the insurance carriers whose home offices were on the East Coast, it would not be possible to file the complete report with the chairman in time for him to conduct hearings in December In January, 1951, the same condition continued, as it did during the constitutional recess of the 1951 Session However, about the end of February, the chairman received a telephonic communication from Mr. Scully informing him that it appeared likely that the matter could be reported within the next few days. Accordingly, the chairman met with Mr. Scully and Mr. Groezinger in Los Angeles on March 2d, and received a verbal report that agreement had been reached, and the points of agreement were sketched in.

On his return to the Capitol on March 8th, prior to the opening of the Session, the chairman received from Mr. Scully and Mr Groezinger the following communication dated March 7, 1951:

"DEAR MR. GEDDES:

You will recall that at the hearing of the interim committee in Sacramento in November, 1950, when the committe was about to consider certain proposed bills referred to it by action of the previous session dealing with disability insurance, the sponsors of the legislation and representatives of interested groups, including the insurance companies, advised the committee that their groups had been meeting in the hope of reaching a compromise which would eliminate the necessity of hearings on all of this type of legislation. You, as chairman, and your committee, were gracious enough to postpone consideration of these bills conditioned upon a report to yourself and the Committee on such meetings.

Since that time a series of additional meetings have been held between the groups both in San Francisco and Los Angeles, at which were present, representing the sponsors of the bills, Mr. C. J. Haggerty, Secretary of the California State Federation of Labor, A.F.L., Mr Thomas Pitts, President of the Federation, Mr. Wendell Phillips, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions of the Federation, and Mr. Charles P. Scully, General Counsel of the Federation, and representatives of the other interested groups consisting of Mr. Clarence Tookey, Actuarial Vice President of the Occidental Life Insurance Company of California, Mr. Perry Taft, Mr Frederick Hawkins, and Mr. Leland B Groezinger, counsel for various insurance trade associations and independent carriers

We are glad to advise you that agreement has been reached between these parties which we believe will fairly and equitably dispose of the subject matter of the bills referred to this committee and will eliminate the necessity of any extended hearings or controversy on this subject matter at the coming session of the Legislature. Attached you will find a complete bill incorporating the agreements reached at such meetings which, on the one hand, will afford liberalization of benefits to the employees covered under the program and, on the other hand, afford equitable relief to other interested groups, without in any way endangering the solvency of the funds from which benefits are paid

It is our understanding that the department will be in a position to submit to you statistical information which will establish our belief that the attached bill will not endanger the solvency of the fund from which these benefits are payable. For your convenience, we have enclosed an additional copy of the bill which you may submit to the department for such purpose if you desire.

We desire at this time to express our sincere appreciation to you and to your committee for the courtesy afforded to us and the cooperation shown, without which we are certain this most desirable compromise could not have been accomplished.

Very truly yours,

/s/ CHARLES P SCULLY
/s/ LELAND B GROEZINGER"

The chairman determined to poll the committee as to whether or not the various members favored the proposed legislation This, in effect, would indicate approval or disapproval of the suggestions made by the interested parties by allowing members of the committee to become co-authors with him of the proposed bill However because of the announcement by the Speaker that "sponsors" of legislation introduced after the recess would be considered as authors, and thus, each member signing would lose a "spot," he determined to introduce the bill without co-authors. However Mr. Maloney and Mr. Dunn have joined with him as co-authors of Assembly Bill 3376 which was introduced on the fourteenth day of March, 1951 and referred to the Assembly Standing Committee on Finance and Insurance. The text of the bill follows:

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—1951 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL No. 3376

Introducd by Messrs. Geddes, Maloney, and Dunn

March 14, 1951

REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON FINANCE AND INSURANCE

An act to amend Sections 44.2, 151, 203, 208, 209, 400, and 456 of, and to add Sections 209.1, 310, 310.5, and 452.5 to the Unemployment Insurance Act, relating to unemployment compensation disability insurance.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44.2 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read:

Sec. 44.2. (a) The provisions of Section 44 of this act requiring the payment of worker contributions shall not apply to ~~that part of remuneration which, after remuneration equal to three thousand dollars ($3,000) has been paid to an individual by an employer with respect to employment during any calendar year, is paid after December 31, 1939, and prior to January 1, 1947, to such individual by such employer with respect to employment during such calendar year, or~~ that part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to three thousand dollars ($3,000) with respect to employment after 1939 has been paid to an individual by an employer during any calendar year after 1946 and prior to 1952, is paid to such individual by such employer during such calendar year ; or that part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to three thousand six hundred dollars ($3,600) with respect to employment after 1939 has been paid to an individual by an employer during any calendar year after 1951, is paid to such individual by such employer during such calendar year.

~~(b) If by reason of a worker rendering service for more than one employer during any calendar year after the calendar year 1943, the wages of the worker with respect to employment during such year exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000), the~~

~~worker shall be entitled to a refund of any amount of tax, with respect to such wages, imposed by Section 41, deducted from such wages and paid to the commission, which exceeds the tax with respect to the first three thousand dollars ($3,000) of such wages received. Refunds under this subdivision shall be made by the commission if the worker (i) makes a claim, establishing his right thereto, after the calendar year in which the employment was performed with respect to which refund of tax is claimed, and (ii) such claim is made within six months after the calendar year in which the wages are received with respect to which refund of tax is claimed. No interest shall be allowed or paid with respect to any such refund. No refund shall be made under this subsection with respect to wages received after December 31, 1946.~~

~~(c)~~ (b) If, by reason of an employee receiving wages from more than one employer during any calendar year after the calendar year 1946 and prior to the calendar year 1952, the wages received by him during such year exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000), and the sum of the amount of tax imposed by Section 44 plus the amount of contributions under Section 456, if any, deducted from such wages exceeds thirty dollars ($30), the employee shall be entitled to a refund of the amount of such excess. If, by reason of an employee receiving wages from more than one employer during any calendar year after the calendar year 1951, the wages received by him during such year exceed three thousand six hundred dollars ($3,600), and the sum of the amount of tax imposed by Section 44 plus the amount of contributions under Section 456, if any, deducted from such wages exceeds thirty-six dollars ($36), the employee shall be entitled to a refund of the amount of such excess.

(c) Refunds under ~~this~~ subdivision (b) shall be made by the commission from the Disability Fund if, within six months after the calendar year in which the wages are received with respect to which refund is claimed, the employee makes a claim establishing his right thereto. No interest shall be allowed or paid with respect to any such refund. The commission shall in accordance with authorized regulations determine the portion of the aggregate amount of such refunds made during any calendar year which is applicable to voluntary plans for which deductions were made under Section 456, such determination to be based upon the relation during the preceding calendar year of the amount of wages subject to contributions to the Disability Fund to the amount of wages exempt from contributions to the Disability Fund under Section 455. The commission shall in accordance with authorized regulations prorate such aggregate amount among the applicable voluntary plans and shall assess and recover from the employer, or the insurer if the insurer has indemnified the employer with respect thereto, the amount so prorated. The provisions of Section 459 in respect to assessment and recovery of amounts paid by the Disability Fund shall apply to the assessments under this section.

SEC. 2. Section 151 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read:

Sec. 151. (a) Except as otherwise provided, the provisions and definitions of Articles 1 to 9, inclusive, of this act apply to this article. In case of any conflict between the provisions of Articles 1 to 9, inclusive, and the provisions of this article, the provisions of this article shall prevail with respect to unemployment compensation disability benefits and the provisions of Articles 1 to 9, inclusive, prevail with respect to unemployment compensation benefits.

(b) The provisions of Article 3 of the act do not apply to this article.

(c) Sections 52, 55, 57, and 57.5 of the act do not apply to this article.

(d) Subdivisions (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), and (m) of Section 6 of the act do not apply to this article.

(e) An individual who is disqualified from receiving unemployment compensation benefits under Section 58 of this act shall be presumed to be ineligible to receive unemployment compensation disability benefits under this article for the same period or periods unless the individual establishes to the satisfaction of the commission that he is suffering a bona fide illness or injury and the commission finds that there is good cause for paying such benefits.

(f) An individual who is disqualified from receiving unemployment compensation benefits under Section 56 of this act shall be presumed to be ineligible to receive unemployment compensation disability benefits under this article for the same period or periods unless the individual establishes pursuant to authorized regulations that his alleged disability was not caused by and did not arise out of the trade dispute and that the alleged disability would have occurred and would have prevented him from continuing his work if the trade dispute had not occurred. Such an individual shall, except as provided in Section 252, be subject to examination without cost to him by a medical examiner selected by the department, the insurer or self-insurer as the case may be to determine whether the conditions hereinabove set forth have been met.

SEC. 3. Section 203 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read:

Sec. 203. The total amount of unemployment compensation disability benefits and the weekly benefit amount payable to an eligible individual under this article during any one benefit year shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of Sections 53 and 54 of this act. ; provided, however, that for periods of disability commencing on and after January 1, 1952 an individual's weekly benefit amount, for the purpose of computing unemployment compensation disability benefits, shall be the amount appearing in column B in the table set forth in this section on the line of which, in column A of such table, there appears a wage bracket containing the amount of wages paid to such individual for employment by employers during the quarter of his base period in which such wages were the highest:

A Amount of wages in highest quarter	B Weekly benefit amount
$75–$579.99	As provided in Section 54
580– 611.99	$25
612– 643.99	26
644– 675.99	27
676– 707.99	28
708– 739.99	29
740– 771.99	30
772– 803.99	31
804– 835.99	32
836– 867.99	33
868– 899.99	34
900 and over	35

SEC. 4. Section 208 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read:

Sec. 208. ~~No individual shall be paid unemployment compensation disability benefits with respect to any week if he continues to receive his regular wages, or any part thereof; provided, however, that if such wages are less than the unemployment compensation disability benefits which would otherwise be due, he shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, unemployment compensation disability benefits, reduced by the amount of such wages. Such benefit, if not a multiple of one dollar ($1), shall be computed to the next higher multiple of one dollar ($1).~~

An individual who would have been paid unemployment compensation disability benefits for any day except for his receipt of remuneration from his employer shall nevertheless be paid unemployment compensation disability benefits up to his maximum benefit amount for such day in an amount which, together with any remuneration he receives from his employer for such day, does not exceed his regular daily remuneration immediately prior to the commencement of his disability.

SEC. 5. Section 209 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read:

Sec. 209. Commencing January 1, 1950, any disabled individual eligible for benefits under Article 10 of this act shall, during his confinement in a hospital, be entitled to receive in addition to all benefits otherwise provided in this act, and irrespective of his receipt of remuneration from his employer, the amount of eight dollars ($8) for each day not in excess of twelve (12) days in any one benefit year, during which he is so confined pursuant to orders of his physician; and any such individual shall not be subject to any waiting period requirement as a condition precedent to the receipt of any benefits under Article 10 of this act during the disability which caused such confinement.

SEC. 6. Section 400 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read:

Sec. 400. On and after the effective date of this article each individual performing services for an employer in employment shall contribute to the Disability Fund established by this article the contributions required of such individual by Sections 44 and 44.2 of this act.

For the purposes of Sections 44 and 44.2 of this article, the term "wages" means wages as defined in Section 11, except that it shall not include remuneration in excess of three thousand six hundred ($3,600) paid to an individual by an employer during any calendar year after 1951.

SEC 7. Section 456 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read:

Sec. 456. An employer may, but need not, assume all or part of the cost of the plan, and may deduct from the wages of an employee covered by the plan for the purpose of providing the disability benefits specified in Part 2 and the costs as set forth in Section 460 of this article an amount not in excess of that which would be required by ~~Section 44~~ Sections 44 and 44.2 of this article if the employee were not covered by the plan ~~.~~ ; provided, however, that as to each individual covered by a voluntary plan on January 1, 1952, the amount of such deduction on and after January 1, 1952, may be increased to a maximum of 1 percent of three thousand six hundred dollars ($3,600) annual taxable wages without any further consent of such individual or approval of the department.

SEC. 8. Section 209.1 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Act, to read as follows:

Sec. 209.1. When an individual is furnished or is compensated for hospitalization pursuant to the Workmen's Compensation Law or an employer's liability law of this State or of any other state or of the Federal Government he shall be ineligible to receive the eight dollars ($8) per day as provided in Section 209 for any day for which he is receiving or is eligible to receive in the form of cash payments benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law or an employer's liability law of this State or of the Federal Government or for which he is serving any waiting period required by any such law.

SEC. 9. Section 310 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Act, to read as follows:

Sec. 310. (a) Each insurer insuring approved voluntary plans shall report to the department on or before December 1, 1953 and each December 1st thereafter, the amount of premium tax it has paid to the State of California under the Constitution or laws of the State of California on all premiums received by it for unemployment disability insurance based on wages paid during the preceding calendar year. The department shall keep a separate account for each such insurer and, subject to the provisions of subdivision (b) hereof, shall credit to that account all sums so reported and charge said account with the amount of the insurer's assessments under Section 309 which are based on wages paid on and after January 1, 1952. To the extent that there are credits to such account, such assessments shall be deemed collected.

(b) In the event the total amount of premium tax reported by all such insurers in accordance with subsection (a) hereof exceeds seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) for any year, the amount to be credited to each such insurer's account for such year shall be determined by multiplying the amount of such premium tax so reported by each insurer by a fraction composed of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) as numerator and such total amount of premium tax as denominator.

SEC. 10. Section 310.5 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Act, to read as follows:

Sec. 310.5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act, whenever an approved voluntary plan is insured by an admitted disability insurer, the insurer shall be substituted for the employer with respect to any assessments under this act which relate to the portion of the voluntary plan insured by such insurer.

SEC. 11. Section 452.5 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Act, to read as follows:

Sec. 452.5. Whenever eighty-five percent (85%) of the employees to whom a plan is available have consented to the plan, the employer, a majority of the employees employed in this State of the employer, or both, may elect to make the plan applicable to all employees to whom it is available, except those who reject the plan. Such a plan may provide for deductions from the wages of employees covered by the plan but not in an amount in excess of that which would be required by Sections 44, 44.2 and 400 if the employees were not covered by the plan.

In such case, there shall be filed with the commission a notice stating that the requisite percentage of employees has consented to the plan and fixing the date upon which the plan will become applicable to all employees to whom it is available. At least 10 days before the date fixed in the notice so filed, a notice shall be posted and circulated in such manner as is reasonably calculated to bring it to the attention of all employees to whom the plan is available but who have not consented thereto. The notice to such employees shall set forth the date the plan is to become applicable and the manner in which an employee may reject it.

From the time fixed in the notice filed with the commission all employees to whom the plan is available shall be deemed to have elected to be covered by the plan, except those who advise the employer in writing of such rejection within the time so fixed.

Every person employed after the time so fixed, and to whom the plan is available, shall be deemed to have elected to be covered by the plan from the time of employment unless he rejects the plan prior to or at the time of employment. Each such employee at the time of employment shall be given a written notice specifying his right to consent to or to reject such plan and a written statement setting forth the essential features of the plan.

The form of the statement and the forms of the notices hereinabove required under this section shall be approved by the commission.

Any employee covered by a plan may withdraw from the plan as of the beginning of any calendar quarter upon giving reasonable notice in writing directed to the employer.

SEC. 12. The amendments to Sections 151, 208 and 209 and the additions of Sections 209.1 and 452 5 of the Unemployment Insurance Act as provided in this act shall become operative as of January 1, 1952.

SEC. 13. Sections 1 through 12, inclusive, of this act are declared to be inseparable and if any such section is declared to be inoperative then each of the remaining sections of this bill shall immediately become inoperative

O

SUMMARY OF ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3376

1. Raises the maximum weekly benefit amount of disability benefits to $35 per week. To be entitled to the maximum weekly benefit amount a claimant must have earned $900 in the highest quarter of his benefit year, or approximately $70 per week.

2. Raises maximum employee contributions from 1 percent of $3,000 to 1 percent of $3,600.

3. Modifies present provision which prohibits payments when claimant is in receipt of regular wages so as to allow claimant to receive a total amount of benefits and partial wage or salary continuance which total amount does not exceed claimant's normal earnings.

4. Modifies trade dispute disqualification to allow payment of benefits during trade disputes when disability is not caused by and does not arise out of the trade dispute and would have occurred regardless of trade dispute.

5. The State Fund pays no acquisition cost or premium tax. This amendment, through credit off-sets, tends to equalize the competitive position of private underwriters with the State Fund without reducing state General Fund revenues.

6. Facilitates voluntary plan coverage by providing for automatic coverage of all eligible employees where 85 percent of the eligible employees of a particular employer have consented to the plan. Each employee is given the privilege to refuse to be covered and the right to withdraw at any time.

The provisions of the bill would become effective January 1, 1952.

The Department of Employment was asked by the chairman to furnish us with an estimate of what the provisions contained in the bill would do to the solvency of the Unemployment Disability Fund. This estimate appears immediately following together with the letter accompanying it:

March 20, 1951

Honorable E. R. Geddes, Chairman
Assembly Interim Committee on Finance and Insurance
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

DEAR MR. GEDDES: In accordance with your request, we have prepared estimates (attached) of the effect of AB 3376. These estimates were prepared on two bases, namely: the effect on the State Disability Fund had the provisions of AB 3376 been operative during calendar year 1950; and its effect in a future year in which the maximum potential developments have occurred. The latter estimate is based upon our forecasts of employment, unemployment and disability claims for 1951.

You also asked for information regarding coverage under voluntary plans of disability insurance. As of March 1, 1951, there were 36,727 plans insured by 46 admitted disability insurers, with 1,244,834 employees eligible for coverage as of the date of approval of such plans. As of that date there were also 61 self-insured plans in effect with 53,266 employees eligible for coverage under such plans as of the date of approval, making a total of 36,788 voluntary plans of both types with 1,298,100 eligible employees. As of February 15, 1951, it is estimated that of the 2,608,000 employees who were working in covered employment approximately 1,309,900 were covered by the State Disability Fund.

If you desire any further information, please do not hesitate to call upon us.

Very truly yours,

Proposed Changes in Revenue and Benefit Provisions for Disability Insurance

The probable changes in amount of Fund income and benefit payments that would result from the proposals in AB 3376 can be set out either as a modification of recent actual experience, or as a part of an income and payment estimate for a future year for which it is assumed that the full developments to be expected as a result of the proposals have occurred. In the first case, it is not appropriate to assume any increase in filing rates or any changes in the provisions of existing wage continuation plans. In the latter case, it is necessary to assume that filing rates will have increased as a result of the improved benefits and existing wage continuation plans will have been modified to supplement disability insurance payments in preference to letting the wage continuation be supplemented by the disability payments.

Given below are estimates of (a) the effects of AB 3376 as a modification of 1950 experience and (b) the ultimate effects of AB 3376 in a future year in which expected 1951 income and expenditures are used as a basis and the full extent of developments likely under AB 3376 have been taken into account.

	Estimates for 1950	Estimates for a future year
Balance in Disability Fund on January 1	$96.1 million	xxx
Estimated disability fund income under proposal
A. Total revenues under Act as in effect in 1950	$36.6 million	$37.0 million
B. Additional estimated fund income from taxing wages of $3,001 through $3,600 in calendar year	$2.1 million	$2.3 million
	$38.7 million	$39.3 million
C. Less amount of proposed credit to extended liability account for carriers' taxes	$0.7 million	$0.7 million
D Estimated Total Disability Fund income if AB 3376 had been fully in effect in year	$38.0 million	$38.6 million
Estimated Expenditures under Proposal
Basic benefits
1. Basic benefits paid under present provisions of the Act	$23.7 million	$24.0 million
2. Additional estimated cost of increasing weekly benefit amount by $1 above $25 for each $32 above $580 in high quarter earnings, up to $35 maximum	$4.3 million	$5.8 million
3. Additional estimated cost of supplementing wage continuation plans	$1.8 million	$3.9 million
4. Additional estimated cost of allowing benefits regardless of trade dispute status	$0.1 million	$0.3 million
Hospital Benefits
5. Hospital benefits paid under present provisions of the Act	$2.7 million	$2.8 million
6. Additional estimated cost of providing hospital benefits regardless of wage continuation	$0.2 million	$0.4 million
7. Additional estimated cost of providing hospital benefits regardless of trade dispute status	$10,000	$30,000
Administrative Costs	$2.6 million	$2.6 million
Estimated Balance in Disability Fund on December 31, if AB 3376 had been in effect	$98.7 million	xxx
Estimated change in Fund Balance during year	$2.6 million increase	$1.2 million decrease

This complete explanation of the matter is made here because of the fact that Assemblyman Levering, member of the committee, in a purported interview to the press, as it appeared in the San Francisco Examiner for March 16, 1951, stated "My information, from sources in which I have the utmost confidence, is that this agreement was hatched in a San Francisco hotel room during the early morning hours of January 2nd * * *". The inference of the article was that the representatives of the insurance companies had been "black jacked" into agreement.

Without trying the merits of the case here we should note that in legislation now before the Legislature the committee followed the procedure of submitting from state departments legislation which had been agreed to by the departments or commissions and interested members of industry. We refer particularly to those bills introduced at the request of the Insurance Commissioner after he had conducted industry meetings and hearings and a basis of agreement had been reached. Likewise there are bills, one of which, Assembly Bill No. 51, has already become law, which were the result of labor-management-department conferences held by the Department of Employment. There is also legislation introduced at the request of the Commissioner of Corporations resulting from his conferences with members of various industries. Therefore there is nothing any more untoward in the representatives of labor and the insurance carriers getting together and seeking to iron out their differences than there is in the other instances quoted. In view of the fact that this bill, Assembly Bill No. 3376, embodies the agreement between the most interested parties we have not burdened this report with a discussion of the various bills upon which consideration was deferred.

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, March 25, 1951

Hon. Sam L. Collins
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento

Citizens of San Diego County demand full explanation or investigation of alteration of committee's recommendation and official records on reapportionment affecting our county. Please advise.

CLINTON D McKINNON, M C.
Twenty-third Congressional District

ANNOUNCEMENT

Speaker Sam L. Collins announced, in reference to the telegram which appears above, that members of this House will welcome an investigation relative to the alleged alteration of committee amendments to Assembly Bills Nos 41 and 42.

No alterations were made in the amendments. The amendments adopted by the Committee on Elections and Reapportionment were the amendments which appeared in the preprint bills; but which, due to an inadvertence, were not the sets of amendments which were placed across the desk, ordered printed in the Journal, and adopted by the Assembly.

In order that the amended bills might truly reflect the action taken by the Assembly in adopting the amendments, despite the fact that the amendments adopted were not correct, it was necessary that the bills be corrected.

The action of the Assembly subsequently expunging the record and correcting its own mistake placed the last amended bills in the same condition as the preprints, which contained the amendments adopted by the committee.

54152. As used in this chapter, "public agency" means any county, city and county, city, political subdivision, municipal corporation, public corporation, public district, public board, commission, department, authority, officer, body or entity, or any other public agency, statewide or local.

54153. As used in this chapter, "public improvement" means any revenue producing public work, undertaking or improvement, whether by original acquisition or construction, or by the acquisition or construction of any extension or betterment of, or addition to, any existing public work, undertaking or improvement, and shall include maintenance, repair and operation of any such public work, undertaking or improvement.

54154. As used in this chapter, "legislative body" means the board of supervisors in the case of a county or city and county, the city council, board of trustees or other legislative body in the case of a city, and the board of directors or other governing body in the case of a district or other public agency which has such a board of directors or other governing body. In the case of a public agency which is itself a board, "legislative body" means such board In the case of any other public agency, "legislative body" shall mean the board or officer having control of the expenditure of the funds of such public agency.

54156. As used in this chapter, "revenue" means all fees, rates, charges, rentals, or other income and revenue actually received or receivable by or for the account of the public agency from the operation of any revenue producing public works, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, interest allowed on any money or securities in which any revenues or other moneys applicable to the payment of such bonds may have been invested, any proceeds derived from the sale of any such securities, and any consideration in any way derived from any such revenue producing public works owned, controlled, operated or maintained by the public agency

54157. When any public agency is now or hereafter authorized by law to undertake any public improvement, either by itself or in conjunction with any other public agency, such improvement may be undertaken through the issuance of revenue bonds, pursuant to this chapter

54158. No revenue bonds shall be issued by any public agency under this act unless and until there shall have been submitted to the electors of such public agency at a general or special election the proposition of issuing such revenue bonds, and such proposition shall have received the approving vote of a majority of such electors voting upon the proposition; provided, however, that in the case of any public agency which has already established any public works for supplying any public service to the inhabitants of any area and thereby assumed the obligation to supply such service within such area, such public agency may issue under this act bonds for any extension or betterment of, or addition to, such existing works, without such vote, if the proceedings for issuing such bonds are so taken that the proposition of issuing such bonds is made subject to the right of the voters to invoke a referendum upon such proposition

Authority to Issue Revenue Bonds and Powers Incidental Thereto.

54160. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, any public agency may borrow money to provide funds to pay the cost of any such public improvements as in the opinion of the legislative body may be reasonably necessary for the welfare of the inhabitants of the area to be served thereby and may issue revenue bonds to evidence the indebtedness created by such borrowing Such bonds may be issued in the amount of the cost of such public improvement, including the cost of preliminary reports, studies, preparations, plans and specifications, legal and engineering costs; the cost of the acquisition of any necessary rights of way, easements, lands and other property of every kind and description and appurtenance; interest on the bonds during, and for not to exceed two years after, the period of the construction of a public improvement, or in the case of bonds issued for the acquisition of a public improvement, until, and for not to exceed two years after, the completion of such acquisition; expenses of administration pertaining to the project prior to, during, and for not to exceed one year after, the period of such construction, or prior to, and for not to exceed one year after, the completion of such acquisition; and all other costs of the authorization, preparation, sale and issuance of the bonds, or the carrying out of the undertaking, or incidental to any of such matters; and such cost may include such items which have already been paid out of other funds, to be reimbursed out of the proceeds of such bonds.

54160.1 Whenever any combination of public agencies shall be authorized to undertake any public improvement jointly or in cooperation, such public agencies jointly, or any board or commission established to administer or control such undertaking, may issue, subject and pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, revenue bonds to finance the same. Such bonds shall be deemed to be bonds of a public agency within the meaning of this chapter, and, to the extent necessary to give effect to this section, the words "public agency" and "public agencies" wherever used in this chapter, shall be deemed to include such combination of public agencies or such board or commission; provided, however, that such public improvement must be approved by each public agency so joining or cooperating, and that the approval by vote of the electors required by Section 54158 shall be the approving vote of a majority of the electors of each public agency so joining or cooperating, voting on the proposition, or in cases coming within the proviso of said section, the provisions as to referendum shall be such as to accord the right of referendum to the electors of each such public agency separately

54161. Such revenue bonds may be issued for any public improvement or groups of public improvements. Each individual improvement or group of improvements, work or undertaking for which any issue of revenue bonds is proposed to be issued shall be designated as a "project" and is so referred to in this chapter.

54162 If in the opinion of the legislative body, it is advisable that any project be undertaken and financed through the issuance of revenue bonds pursuant to this chapter, it shall cause a report thereon to be made by any appropriate public agency officer or officers, or by independent experts employed for the purpose, which shall include:

(a) An estimate of the probable cost of the project, including all incidental expenses, engineering, legal and administrative;

(b) An estimate of probable sources of income and the amount thereof;

(c) An estimate of the cost of maintenance and for the operation upon completion, including the cost of all repairs, administrative and overhead charges.

The expense of the preparation of the report shall be a public charge and the legislative body shall make provision for the payment thereof out of any funds of the public agency available therefor.

54163 If the report is approved by the legislative body, it may adopt a resolution declaring that the public interest and necessity demand the undertaking of the project, the purpose, nature and extent of which shall be described in general terms, and authorizing such project. The legislative body may thereupon authorize the issuance of revenue bonds for the purpose of obtaining funds in an amount estimated by it to be sufficient for such project The adoption of such resolution shall be conclusive evidence of the making and sufficiency of such report

54169 The proceeds of the sale of any revenue bonds issued pursuant to this act shall be used only for the purposes for which such bonds are issued, except that any premium received on the sale thereof and any sums received as interest accrued to the date of the delivery thereof may be used for the payment of principal of and interest on such bonds

54170. Wherever by the terms of this chapter the legislative body is empowered to authorize, or the public agency to enter into, any covenant or agreement to do or perform any act or thing, such legislative body and such public agency, respectively, shall have the power so to do and perform such act or thing

54173 This chapter provides a procedure alternative to any procedure otherwise provided by law or charter for financing any project, and shall not operate to limit or control the power of the public agency to finance any project in any other manner authorized by law or charter.

Article 3.

Issuance, Terms and Conditions of Revenue Bonds.

54175 The public agency shall have power to issue revenue bonds in its name.

54175.2. In specifying the revenues and funds upon which such bonds are to be a charge and from which they are to be payable, there may be included:

(a) Revenue, as defined in Section 54156, whether to be derived from the project, or from public works previously existing, or from any future extension or betterment of, or addition to any such public works;

(b) Contributions in aid of the project; and

(c) Funds from any source which the public agency may lawfully apply to the purpose, other than the proceeds of taxation

54175 3. Nothing in this chapter, nor in the specification in the proceedings for the issuance of any bonds of the sources of payment thereof, shall preclude

(a) The payment of interest on or principal of any such bonds out of sums received as premiums or accrued interest on the sale thereof;

(b) The payment of principal of or interest on, or premiums on the redemption of, any such bonds out of the proceeds of the sale of refunding bonds issued for that purpose;

(c) The payment of any interest on any such bonds accruing during, and for not to exceed two years after, the period of the construction of a public improvement on account of which they were issued, or for any other reasonably limited period, out of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds;

(d) The payment of any principal of, interest on, or premiums on the redemption of, any such bonds by the purchasers thereof, or by any entity other than the public agency issuing the same, in any case where such purchasers or entity may have guaranteed such payment; or

(e) The application to the payment of any principal of, interest on, or premiums on the redemption of, any such bonds of any funds which the public agency may lawfully so apply.

54176 The legislative body shall have power to determine, by resolution, or by indenture, contract or other agreement made with, or for the benefit of, the bondholders, with reference to each issue of bonds to be issued under this chapter, all the terms and conditions of such bonds, and of the sale and issuance thereof, and any and all matters necessary or appropriate to be determined in connection therewith, excepting only as such power is limited by, or under the authority of, express provisions of this chapter. Without excluding the exercising of any other powers under, or in any way limiting the generality of, the preceding general grant of power, or in any way excluding or limiting the exercising of any or all other powers granted by this chapter, the general power granted by this section shall include, and each such public agency shall have and in its discretion may exercise, the specific powers provided by this chapter.

54177 The legislative body may provide for the aggregate principal amount, date or dates, maturities, interest rate or rates, interest payment dates, denominations, and form of such bonds, and may provide for the issuance thereof as serial bonds or sinking fund bonds, as payable to bearer or to named payees, or as registered bonds, and for the issuance thereof with or without coupons, and for the subsequent registration of bonds, and for the transfer and interchange of such bonds, and for all other terms and conditions upon which the same shall be executed, issued, secured, sold, paid, redeemed, or refunded. The legislative body may provide that any resolution or resolutions adopted in connection with the authorization of any bonds shall constitute a contract with the holders of such bonds, not subject to repeal, and not subject to any modification other than to an extent and in a manner provided in any such resolution. Reference on the face of the bonds to any such resolution by the date of its adoption, or to any such indenture, contract or other agreement by the date of its execution, or the apparent date on the face thereof, is sufficient to incorporate all of the provisions thereof and of this chapter into the body of the bonds and their appurtenant coupons; provided, however, that with respect to such provisions of this chapter as invest the legislative body with discretion as to the inclusion or non-inclusion in the proceedings for the issuance of the bonds of certain provisions, or as to the form thereof, such provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to be incorporated only to the extent to which the legislative body has exercised its discretion to include such provisions and in accordance with the form thereof adopted by the legislative body. Each taker and subsequent holder of the bonds or coupons, whether the coupons are attached to or detached from the bonds, has recourse to all of the provisions of any such resolution, indenture, contract or other agreement and of this chapter, and is bound thereby, subject to the foregoing proviso with reference to the provisions of this chapter vesting the legislative body with discretion.

54178 The legislative body may provide for such covenants and agreements on the part of the public agency as the legislative body deems necessary or advisable for the better security of any bonds.

54180 The legislative body may provide for the making of a covenant requiring the public agency to continuously operate in an efficient and economical manner, any or all facilities and properties, any revenues of which are charged with the payment of any bonds in connection with which such covenant is made.

54181. The legislative body may provide for the making of a covenant requiring the public agency to make all repairs, renewals and replacements necessary to the operation of any or all facilities and properties, any revenues of which are charged with the payment of any bonds in connection with which such covenant is made, and to keep any and all such facilities and property at all times in good repair.

54183. The legislative body may provide for the making of a covenant requiring the public agency to pay and discharge or cause to be paid and discharged from the funds available for that purpose all lawful claims for labor, materials and supplies or other charges which, if unpaid, might become a lien or charge upon the revenues, or any part thereof, of any or all facilities and properties, any revenues of which are charged with the payment of any bonds in connection with which such covenant is made, or upon any of the physical properties thereof which might impair the security of the bonds.

54184. The legislative body may provide for the making of a covenant which limits, restricts, or prohibits any right, power or privilege of the public agency to mortgage or otherwise encumber, sell, lease or dispose of any or all facilities and properties, any revenues of which are charged with the payment of any bonds in connection with which such covenant is made, or to enter into any lease or agreement which might impair or impede the operation of such facilities or properties, or any part thereof, or which might otherwise impair or impede the rights of the holders of the bonds with respect to such revenues.

54185. The legislative body may provide for the making of a covenant requiring the fixing, prescribing, and collection, with respect to any or all facilities and properties, any revenues of which are charged with the payment of any bonds in connection with which such covenant is made, of fees, tolls, rentals or other charges in connection with the services and facilities furnished from any of such properties operated by it, and the fixing, prescribing and collection of rentals or other charges for any such properties leased by it to others for operation, sufficient, with such other funds as may have been made available for and charged with such payment, to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds as they become due and payable, together with all expenses of operation, maintenance and repair of such facilities and properties, and with such additional sums as may be required for any sinking fund, reserve fund or other special fund provided for the further security of such bonds or as a depreciation charge or other charge in connection with such facilities and properties, and all other charges payable out of said revenues or funds, and requiring that all receipts from all or any such fees, tolls, rentals or other charges shall be deposited in a certain specified fund or in certain specified funds. If, under the law or charter applicable to the public agency, the power to fix and prescribe any such fees, tolls, rentals or other charges is vested in any other board or body, or is subject to approval by any other board or body, such other board or body may provide for the making of a covenant to the same effect as stated in this section, or a covenant to approve fees, tolls, rentals, or other charges fixed or prescribed by the legislative body which shall be sufficient for the purposes specified in this section 54185.1. The legislative body may provide for the making of a covenant requiring the fixing and prescribing by the public agency and the collection by any lessee of any or all facilities and properties, any revenues of which are charged with the payment of any bonds in connection with which such covenant is made, of all fees, tolls, rentals, or other charges in connection with the services and facilities furnished by such lessee, sufficient to assure the payment by such lessee to such public agency of the rentals or other charges so payable.

54186 The legislative body may provide for the making of a covenant requiring the establishment and maintenance of reserve funds, sinking funds or other special funds, in the treasury in which the funds of the public agency are deposited, or special trust accounts in a bank or trust company, to insure payment when due or payable, whether at maturity or upon redemption, of the principal of and interest on any bonds, including premiums if any due upon the redemption of any thereof, or to insure the application of the proceeds of such bonds to the purposes for which the same were issued, or requiring the establishment and maintenance of a reserve fund or trust account for any other appropriate purpose, or requiring that any money placed in any such reserve fund or trust account shall constitute a trust fund to be applied only to the purposes for which such reserve fund was created

54187. The legislative body may provide for the making of a covenant requiring the public agency to apply the proceeds of the bonds in connection with which such covenant is made, or any part thereof, to the acquisition or construction of a specified facility, or other specified purpose.

54189 The legislative body may provide for the making of a covenant requiring the public agency to carry insurance on any facilities or properties any revenues of which are charged with the payment of any bonds in connection with which such covenant is made, or any operations incident thereto, specifying or limiting the kind, amount and character of such insurance and providing for the use and disposition of the proceeds of any such insurance thereafter collected.

54189.2. The legislative body may provide for the making of a covenant restricting, limiting or prohibiting the rendering or furnishing of service or facilities free of charge, or at less than the regularly established charges therefor, by or from any facilities and properties, any revenues of which are charged with the payment of any bonds in connection with which such covenant is made.

54190. The legislative body may provide for the terms and conditions upon which any bonds may become or be declared due and payable prior to maturity, upon the happening of any specified event of default, and the terms and conditions upon which such declaration and its consequences may be waived.

54191. The legislative body may provide for the rights, limitations, powers and duties arising upon breach by the public body of any of the covenants, conditions or obligations contained in any resolution, indenture, contract or agreement.

54192 The legislative body may provide for a procedure by which certain specified terms and conditions of any resolution, indenture, contract or agreement may be subsequently amended or modified, or any provision thereof waived, with the consent of the legislative body and the vote or written assent of the holders of a specified principal amount of the bonds issued and outstanding. Such provision may authorize meetings of bondholders and specify the manner in which the consent of the bondholders may be given Such provision shall specifically state the effect of such amendment, modification or waiver upon the rights of the holders of all of the bonds and interest coupons appertaining thereto, whether attached thereto or detached therefrom. The provisions for such procedure may include an agreement that bonds held by the public agency, or by any other person or entity who or which the legislative body may determine to be so interested in the matter as to make it proper, shall not be counted as outstanding bonds, and that the holders thereof shall not be entitled to vote or assent with respect to such amendment, modification or waiver, but shall nevertheless be subject thereto

54193. The legislative body may provide for such other acts and matters as it may deem to be necessary or convenient or desirable in order to secure the bonds or to make the bonds more marketable.

54194 The legislative body may designate a bank or trust company as a trustee for the holders of bonds issued hereunder, and may authorize the trustee to act on behalf of the holders of the bonds, and to exercise and prosecute on behalf of the holders of the bonds such rights and remedies as may be available to the holders.

54195 The legislative body may fix and determine the conditions upon which any trustee shall receive, hold or disburse any or all funds coming into its hands pursuant to any resolution, indenture, contract or agreement The legislative body may prescribe the duties and powers of such trustee with respect to the payment of principal and interest on bonds, the redemption of bonds, the registration and discharge from registration of bonds, and the management of any sinking fund or other fund provided as security for bonds, and with respect to any other appropriate matter

54196 The legislative body may provide for the issuance of bonds in series, and for the division of any issue into two or more divisions, and may fix different maturities or dates of such bonds, different rates of interest, or prescribe different terms and conditions for the bonds of the several series or divisions It is not necessary that all bonds of the same authorized issue be of the same kind or character, have the same security, or bear the same interest rate, but the terms thereof shall in each case be provided for by the legislative body After the authorization or issuance of bonds, the legislative body may, from time to time thereafter, authorize the issuance of other bonds, subject to any covenants it may have made restricting the future issuance of bonds

54199 Bonds may be callable upon such terms, conditions, and upon such notice as the legislative body may determine, and upon the payment of the premium, if any, fixed by the legislative body in the proceedings for the issuance of the bonds No bond shall be subject to call or redemption prior to its fixed maturity date unless the right to exercise such call is expressly stated on the face of the bond.

54200 The legislative body may provide for the principal and interest of bonds being payable in any specified coin or currency of the United States and at any place within the State of California, or for such principal and interest being payable or collectible at any place without the State of California

54201. All of the signatures on said bonds and on the interest coupons thereof may be printed, lithographed or engraved facsimile, except that on the bonds, but not on the interest coupons, the countersignature of the clerk or other officer or representative of the public agency designated by the legislative body shall be manually affixed. If any of the officers or representatives whose signatures or countersignatures appear upon the bonds or coupons cease to be officers or representatives before the delivery of the bonds or coupons, their signatures or countersignatures are nevertheless valid and of the same force and effect as if the officers or representatives had continued to hold their respective offices or positions until the delivery of the bonds and coupons

54202. Payments of any serial bonds, and payments into the sinking fund for any sinking fund bonds, may be deferred, but the first maturity of any such serial bonds, and the first payment into the sinking fund for any such sinking fund bonds, shall be no later than five (5) years from the date of the bonds, and no bond, whether serial or sinking fund, shall mature more than forty (40) years from its date. In the event any authorized issue is divided into two or more series or divisions, the periods specified in this section shall be calculated from the date on the face of each bond separately, irrespective of the fact that different dates may be prescribed for the bonds of each separate series or division of any authorized issue.

54203. No bonds shall be sold except at public sale, after advertising for proposals and to the bidder whose bid will result in the lowest net interest cost, determined in a manner specified in the notice of such sale, provided, however, that such advertising and public sale shall not be necessary, first, if the bonds are sold to the United States, or any agency thereof, or to the State of California, or any agency thereof, second, if upon advertising for proposals for the purchase thereof, no satisfactory proposal is received, or, third, if the legislative body shall determine, by resolution, that by reason of war, disaster, conditions affecting the public health, or other reason of extreme urgency, it is in the public interest to sell any such bonds without advertising or public sale. If the legislative body shall adopt any such resolution, the reasons for its determination shall be fully and clearly stated in such resolution. Bonds may be sold at less than their par or face value but no bond may be sold at a price which would result in a yield to the purchaser of an average of more than six (6) percent per annum, payable semiannually, according to standard tables of bond values.

54207. The legislative body may provide for the issuance and delivery, pending the actual issuance or delivery of definitive bonds, of temporary or interim bonds, certificates or receipts of any denominations whatsoever, and with or without coupons, to be exchanged for definitive bonds when ready for delivery.

54210. The legislative body may provide for the issuance, sale, or exchange of refunding bonds for the purpose of redeeming or retiring any revenue bonds issued by the public agency. All provisions of this act applicable to revenue bonds and to the issuance and sale thereof, other than the provisions of Sections 54158, 54162 and 54163, are applicable to refunding bonds and to the issuance and sale thereof; provided, however, that the legislative body may provide that in lieu of the sale of such refunding bonds they, or any part thereof, may be exchanged for bonds to be refunded thereby, upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper.

54211. Refunding bonds may be issued in a principal amount sufficient to provide funds for the payment of all bonds to be refunded thereby, and in addition for the payment of all expenses incident to the calling, retiring or paying of such outstanding bonds, and the issuance of such refunding bonds. These expenses include the difference in amount between the par value of the refunding bonds and any amount less than par for which the refunding bonds are sold, any amount necessary to be made available for the payment of interest upon such refunding bonds from the date of sale thereof to the date of payment of the bonds to be refunded or to the date upon which the bonds to be refunded will be paid pursuant to the call thereof or agreement with the holders thereof, and the premium, if any, necessary to be paid in order to call or retire the outstanding bonds and the interest accruing thereon to the date of the call or retirement.

54212. All bonds issued under the provisions of this act are negotiable instruments.

54213. Prior to the issuance of any bonds, the public agency, on authorization by the legislative body, may commence a special proceeding to determine the right to issue the bonds and their validity in the superior court of the county in which the public agency is located, or, if the public agency is a state agency, in any county in which such agency maintains an office. Such proceeding shall be instituted and prosecuted in the same manner as provided by Sections 22670 to 22674, inclusive, and 22676 to 22684 inclusive, of the Water Code, as these sections now read or may hereafter be amended to read, and these sections apply to and govern all such proceedings instituted under this act; provided, however, that in so applying said provisions, all references to a district shall be understood as references to the public agency; all references to any assessment or the levying thereof shall be disregarded, and the provisions of Section 22681 relating to the exchanging of bonds for property shall be understood as relating to the exchanging of refunding bonds for bonds to be refunded thereby. Such proceeding is a proceeding in rem and the judgment rendered therein is conclusive against all persons whomsoever and against all entities whatsoever, public or private, including the public agency and the State of California.

54214. Whenever the legislative body deems that it will increase the salability or price of the bonds to obtain a legal opinion, other than or in addition to that of the regular legal adviser of the public agency, it may obtain such legal opinion.

Article 4.

Duty to Perform Covenants

54220. It shall be the duty of the public agency fully and faithfully to keep and perform any covenant it may make pursuant to Section 54185 with or for the benefit of the holders of the bonds with respect to the fixing and maintaining of fees, tolls, rentals or other charges, and each and every other covenant it may make pursuant to any provision of this act, with or for the benefit of the holders of any bonds.

Article 5.

Rights of Bondholders.

54230. The holder of any bond issued pursuant to this chapter may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding, require and compel the performance of any of the duties imposed upon the public agency, the legislative body or the officers, agents, or employees of the public agency, by this chapter, in all cases where the failure to perform such duty might impair the rights of such bondholder or the security of any bond or bonds held by him. This shall not exclude the exercise or prosecution of any other rights or remedies available to the holders of bonds issued pursuant to this chapter.

54231. While any revenue bonds issued by the public agency remain outstanding, its powers and duties, and the powers and duties of the legislative body, shall not be diminished or impaired in any manner that will adversely affect the interest and rights of the holders of such bonds. This shall not preclude any reorganization or change of the public agency, by consolidation, change of the boundaries, or otherwise, or any modification, change or transfer of the powers and duties of the legislative body, or any transfer of physical properties; provided, however, that such act or matter is done, arranged and carried into effect in such manner as to preserve all the substantial rights and benefits to which the holders of such bonds are entitled.

Article 6.

Contributions and Cooperation.

54240. The legislative body may accept contributions or appropriations from the United States, the State, or any public agency of this State, or from any other source 54241. The legislative body may authorize the making by the public agency of any contract, arrangement, or agreement with the State or any public agency, to cooperate with such State or public agency for the development, maintenance, operation, or use of any project or the services or facilities thereof financed in whole or in part through the issuance of revenue bonds, and the public agency may so cooperate.

54242 The public agency, when authorized by the legislative body, may cooperate and contract with the United States under the War Mobilization and Reconversion Act of 1944, approved October 3, 1944, and any acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, or under any other act of Congress heretofore or hereafter enacted, authorizing or permitting such cooperation.

Article 7.

Funds.

54250. The proceeds from each sale of bonds authorized under this chapter, other than any sums received as premium or accrued interest, shall be deposited in the treasury in which funds of the public agency are kept, to the credit of a fund, which the legislative body shall establish therein, and which shall be designated by an appropriate name, to insure the application of such proceeds to the purposes for which the bonds were issued; provided, however, that where successive sales are made of bonds of a public agency, and the same are issued for the same identical purpose, such proceeds of more than one sale may be deposited in such treasury to the credit of the same fund. The provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this article with respect to the establishment of other reserve funds and trust accounts.

54251. The proceeds from each sale of bonds authorized under this chapter received as premium or accrued interest, shall be deposited in such treasury to the credit of the fund out of which payments on the principal of and interest on such bonds are to be made, whether such fund shall be a fund already established or a reserve fund established pursuant to Section 54252, and shall be applied only to the payment of such principal and interest.

54252. The legislative body may from time to time establish one or more reserve funds in the said treasury, for any of the purposes specified in this section. Any such fund may be so established as a sinking fund, or otherwise, to insure the payment, when due and payable, of the interest on any such bonds, the principal thereof, whether upon maturity or redemption prior to maturity, and premiums upon the redemption thereof prior to maturity, or for any of said purposes, or for any other purpose related to the expenditure of the proceeds of such bonds, the security of the bondholders or the payment of such bonds.

54253. If, under the law or charter applicable to the public agency, the power to establish funds in said treasury is not vested in the legislative body, then the officer or board having power to establish such funds, shall establish any fund provided for in this article, upon the request of the legislative body.

54254. The money in any fund provided for in this article, other than any previously established fund referred to in Section 54251, shall be kept separate and apart from all other funds in the treasury, and, subject to all provisions of this article, shall be paid out and disbursed on the order of the legislative body in the same manner that other funds of the public agency are paid out and disbursed.

54255. In lieu of the establishment of any fund by or at the request of the legislative body pursuant to this article, the legislative body may provide for the establishment of a trust account with a responsible bank or trust company for any of the purposes for which any such fund could be established.

54256. Money so deposited in any fund or special trust account established pursuant to this article shall remain therein until from time to time expended for the purposes for which said fund or trust account was created, and shall not be used for any other purpose whatsoever, but may be invested as hereinafter in this article provided, and provided

(a) that money may be paid or transferred from any such fund or account in furtherance of its establishment to any other such fund or account established for a like purpose in connection with the same bonds to such extent as may be required or permitted under the terms of the issuance thereof, and

(b) that any surplus money remaining in any such fund or trust account after the full accomplishment of the purposes for which such fund or trust account was established, or which is in excess of the full amount required to accomplish all such purposes, may be applied to the payment of principal, interest or premiums on redemption of such bonds, if any thereof remain unpaid, or to capital costs or expenses incident to any facilities or properties the revenues of which were charged with the payment of the bonds, or, if it cannot be so applied, then to any purpose to which the legislative body may direct that it be applied, subject, however, to any covenant which may have been made in connection with the issuance of such bonds.

54256. If, under the law or charter under which the public agency exists, provision is made for the establishment of funds or trust accounts to accomplish substantially the same purposes as provided for in this article, such funds or trust accounts may be established pursuant to such law or charter instead of pursuant to this article.

54257. Pending use for the purposes for which any reserve fund or special trust account established pursuant to this article was so established, money deposited therein may be invested when and to such extent and in such manner as may be directed by the legislative body and as may be consistent with any covenant made upon the issuance of the bonds in connection with which such fund or account was created. Such investment shall be in bonds and other obligations eligible for investment of surplus funds of the public agency, or eligible for investment of surplus county money. If, under the law or charter under which the public agency exists, the power to direct the investment of surplus money is not vested in the legislative body, then the direction provided for in this section shall be the direction of such board or officer as is vested with such power. Any income, interest or increment resulting from such investment shall be added to and become a part of the fund or trust account out of which such investment was made."

"SEC. 2. Section 8604 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read.

8604. "Fuel" includes:

(a) For purposes of the tax imposed by Section 8651, any combustible gas or liquid, by whatever name the gas or liquid may be known or sold, of a kind used in an internal combustion engine for the generation of power to propel a motor vehicle on the highways except fuel that is subject to the tax imposed by Part 2 of this division

(b) For purposes of the tax imposed by Section 8651.5, fuel included in (a) of this section and fuel that is subject to the tax imposed by Part 2 of this division.

SEC. 3. Section 8608 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

8608. "User" includes any person who, within the meaning of the term "use" as defined in this chapter, uses fuel as defined in Section 8604(a), or uses in a commercial vehicle fuel that is subject to the tax imposed by Part 2 of this division.

SEC. 4. Section 8610 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read.

8610. "'Commercial vehicle' means any motor vehicle of a type subject to registration under the provisions of the Vehicle Code used or maintained for the transportation of persons for hire, compensation or profit or designed, used or maintained primarily for the transportation of property."

SEC. 5. Section 8611 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

8611. "Tax" means the tax imposed by Section 8651 or 8651.5, or the taxes imposed by both sections

SEC. 6. Section 8706 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

8706. Before operating a commercial vehicle upon the highways, each user shall obtain for the vehicle from the Department of Motor Vehicles plates or emblems indicating that a use fuel tax permit has been obtained by him. Each plate or emblem shall be attached to and conspicuously displayed upon the vehicle for which it was issued in such manner as the department may require. The department shall immediately notify the board of the issuance of the plates or emblems

SEC. 7. Section 9256 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

9256. Before registering any motor vehicle, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall ascertain from the applicant for registration whether or not the motor vehicle sought to be registered is propelled by a fuel the use of which is subject to the excise tax imposed [under this part] by Section 8651. If the motor vehicle is propelled by the use of such a fuel, the department shall notify the board.

SEC. 8. Section 9257 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

9257. The Highway Patrol shall assist the board in the enforcement of the provisions of this part prohibiting a user from operating a commercial vehicle upon the highways without first obtaining the permit required by Section 8701 and without displaying on the vehicle the plates or emblems required by Section 8706. The Highway Patrol shall promptly transmit to the board on a form prescribed by it information respecting any vehicle found by the Highway Patrol to have been operated in violation of this part.

SEC. 9. Section 9258 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code to read:

9258. Each seller of motor vehicle fuel shall issue a sales invoice for each sale and delivery of fuel the use of which is subject to the tax imposed by Section 8651.1.

SEC. 10. Section 9259 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code to read:

9259. A copy of the invoice shall be retained by the seller for a period of five years unless the board shall approve the destruction thereof prior thereto. The invoices shall be serially numbered and each invoice shall show the name of the user, the user's permit number, the date of sale and the type, quantity in gallons and price of fuel sold.

SEC. 11. Section 9260 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code to read:

9260. The sales invoices and such other records of the seller of motor vehicle fuel as may be pertinent to the enforcement of this part shall be made available to the board for inspection.

SEC. 12. Section 9261 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code to read:

9261. A seller who fails to record a sale of fuel to a user as herein required or who sells fuel to a user who does not hold a valid user's permit and display upon his vehicle the emblem required by this part, or who by any other manner, means or device acts in collusion with a user or independently to evade the tax imposed by this part shall be held jointly with the user or severably liable for the tax, interest and penalties imposed by this part with respect to the fuel sold by him and used in a commercial vehicle and shall be guilty of a misdemeanor unless by other law of this State he is guilty of a felony.

SEC. 13. Section 9262 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code to read:

9262. After due hearing and upon a ruling or decision of the board that a seller has violated the requirements of this part, or in the event the seller has been convicted of a criminal offense under Section 9261, the board shall notify the State Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Weights and Measures which department shall forthwith suspend any and all motor vehicle fuel pump license tags issued under the provisions of Division 8, Chapter 7, Article 3a of the Business and Professions Code for the motor vehicle fuel pumps used by the seller and shall close and seal such pumps as provided in Section 20774 of the said code.

SEC. 14. Section 9263 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code to read:

9263. It shall thereafter be unlawful for the seller to engage in the sale of motor vehicle fuel until all amounts due under this part have been paid and the board has so notified the Department of Agriculture. The motor vehicle fuel pump license shall not be reinstated until the seller pays to the Department of Agriculture a fee of ten dollars ($10) for the reinstatement of each pump license, and the seller has posted with the board a bond of faithful performance with surety in an amount to be determined by the board but not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

SEC. 15. Part 4, Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, comprising Sections 9601 to and including 10501, is repealed, except that the provisions of said part are continued in effect as respects the collection of all amounts due or which may become due under said part arising from operations as defined in said part prior to January 1, 1952, and as respects refunds of amounts erroneously paid in connection with such operations.

SEC. 16. This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy shall, under the provisions of Section 1, Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately; provided, however, that the provisions hereof shall become operative on January 1, 1952."

RECOMMENDATION OF THE GOVERNOR

In accordance with Article IV, Section 34, of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the passage of Assembly Bill No 126.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, March 22, 1951

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
Sacramento, California

GENTLEMEN:

Assembly Bill No. 126, "An act making an appropriation in augmentation of the appropriation in Item 130 of the Budget Act of 1950 for support of Local Allocations Division, Department of Finance, to take effect immediately,"

in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill

This is an appropriation in augmentation of the appropriation in the current budget for the support of the Local Allocations Division. The increasing of the allocation of bond money for the construction of schools authorized by the last special session of the Legislature has increased the work of the Division of Allocations and necessitates this additional appropriation

I therefore recommend consideration of Assembly Bill No. 126 as an emergency measure.

Respectfully submitted.

EARL WARREN, Governor

CONSIDERATION OF DAILY FILE (RESUMED)
THIRD READING OF ASSEMBLY BILLS

Assembly Bill No. 126—An act making an appropriation in augmentation of the appropriation in Item 130 of the Budget Act of 1950 for support of Local Allocations Division, Department of Finance, to take effect immediately.

Bill read third time.

The roll was called, and the bill passed by the following vote:

AYES—Babbage, Beck, Berry, Brown, Burke, Burkhalter, Caldecott, Chapel, Clarke, Cloyed, Coats, Collier, Connolly, Conrad, Cooke, Crowley, Dickey, Dills, Dolwig, Doyle, Dunn, Elliott, Erwin, Evans, Fleury, Gaffney, Geddes, Grant, Grunsky, Gubser, Hansen, Hawkins, Henderson, Hollibaugh, Kelly, Kilpatrick, Klocksiem, Lanterman, Levering, Lindsay, Lipscomb, Lowrey, Luckel, Lyon, Maloney, McCarthy, McCollister, McGee, McMillan, Morris, Moss, Munnell, Niehouse, Parker, Porter, Shaw, Sherwin, Smith, Stanley, Thomas, Waters, and Mr Speaker—62

NOES—None.

Bill ordered transmitted to the Senate.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE GOVERNOR

In accordance with Article IV, Section 34, of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the passage of Assembly Bill No. 128:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, March 22, 1951

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
Sacramento, California

GENTLEMEN:

Assembly Bill No. 128, "An act making an appropriation from the Fair and Exposition Fund in augmentation of the Poultry Testing Project Fund, to take effect immediately,"

in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

This appropriation from the Fair and Exposition Fund is required immediately for the Poultry Testing Project Fund to cover additional expenses incurred by the Poultry Improvement Commission.

I therefore recommend consideration of Assembly Bill No. 128 as an emergency measure.

Respectfully submitted.

EARL WARREN, Governor

CONSIDERATION OF DAILY FILE (RESUMED)
THIRD READING OF ASSEMBLY BILLS (RESUMED)

Assembly Bill No. 128—An act making an appropriation from the Fair and Exposition Fund in augmentation of the Poultry Testing Project Fund, to take effect immediately.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE GOVERNOR

In accordance with Article IV, Section 34, of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the passage of Assembly Bill No. 259:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, March 22, 1951

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
Sacramento, California

GENTLEMEN:

Assembly Bill No. 259, "An act making an appropriation to reimburse the Emergency Fund, Item 277, Budget Act of 1950, and providing for the reimbursement of the State Highway Fund, to take effect immediately,"

in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

This appropriation from the Highway Fund is necessary to reimburse the Emergency Fund for a loan made from the Emergency Fund to cover the cost of studying the need for an additional toll bridge crossing for San Francisco Bay.

I therefore recommend consideration of Assembly Bill No. 259 as an emergency measure.

Respectfully submitted.

EARL WARREN, Governor

CONSIDERATION OF DAILY FILE (RESUMED)

RECOMMENDATION OF THE GOVERNOR

In accordance with Article IV, Section 34, of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the passage of Assembly Bill No. 390:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, March 22, 1951

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
Sacramento, California

GENTLEMEN:

Assembly Bill No. 390, "An act making an appropriation in augmentation of the appropriation in Item 278 of the Budget Act of 1950, for Salary Increase Fund, to take effect immediately,"

in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

The appropriation contained in this bill is for the purpose of augmenting the Salary Increase Fund for the current fiscal year to cover salary increases made by the State Personnel Board.

I therefore recommend consideration of Assembly Bill No. 390 as an emergency measure.

Respectfully submitted.

EARL WARREN, Governor

Statement of Vote

Because I was called to the telephone, I was unable to cast an affirmative vote on Assembly Constitutional Amendment No 9 when the roll was called.

JAMES W. SILLIMAN

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Speaker Sam L. Collins announced that, since his name had been mentioned in the debate on Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 9, he desired to call the attention of the membership to the fact that when the Speaker originally opposed Senate Bill No. 132, in the 1949 Session, he based his opposition on two premises:

First, the oath pledged allegiance "to the enemy, both foreign and domestic." That error has been corrected. The allegiance now is pledged to the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California.

Second objection was to the unconstitutionality, the Constitution of the State of California being very explicit that no other test should be required than that contained in the Constitution. Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 9 now requires the new form for oath instead of the old form, which has been in the Constitution for almost one hundred years Therefore, both objections now have been eliminated in that we now pledge allegiance to the Constitution instead of "enemies, both foreign and domestic," and the constitutional amendment, if adopted by the people, will make the oath constitutional

Mr. Levering announced that the statement by Speaker Sam L. Collins is absolutely correct, and that Speaker Collins spoke to him long before Senate Bill No. 132 was debated, and voiced his criticism of the weak spots in said bill. He further stated that he made every effort to avoid duplicate defects in the wording of Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 9.

ASSEMBLY, CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE
March 26, 1951

MR. SPEAKER AND MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY:

Attached hereto is a partial report of the Assembly Interim Committee on Crime and Corrections, created by House Resolution No. 243—1949 Regular Session.

This section of the report deals with the handling of juvenile delinquents in certain state institutions, and in addition takes cognizance of adult cases, including the case of Marjorie Mae Massow, the rehabilitation efforts and correctional responsibilities of the Youth Authority, and to some extent, the suggestions of many authorities in this field. It is not a study of the juvenile as a delinquent, because such a study has been done many times by other agencies and committees This report chiefly concerns itself with the system of handling California juveniles who have fallen into the delinquent class.

Respectfully submitted,

VERNON KILPATRICK, Chairman
MONTIVEL A. BURKE, Vice Chairman
KATHRYN T. NIEHOUSE, Secretary
HARLAN HAGEN
CHARLES W. MEYERS

I subscribe to the contents of the full report of this committee with the exception of the subcommittee report on Marjorie Mae Massow (Madge Meredith) to which I definitely do not subscribe.

KATHRYN T. NIEHOUSE

INTRODUCTION

After a study of the adult penal institutions of California as well as careful scrutiny of the prosecution methods in the widely-publicized "Marjorie Mae Massow case" (the Madge Meredith affair), your committee turned to the problem of the juvenile offender and the correctional system for handling juvenile delinquents in the State.

Your committee sought the opinions of some of the leading California authorities, and the second part of this report deals with certain suggestions from some Los Angeles workers in this field. This county was selected because it has the highest juvenile delinquency rate in the State together with the greatest number of juvenile correctional facilities.

In conducting its study, your committee was struck by the lack of uniform terminology in the arresting, booking, and ultimate disposition of juvenile offenders. It is not too much to say that in the 58 counties of this State, there are also 58 forms of terminology used to facilitate juvenile correction. As these reports are used throughout the State (and the record of the juvenile offender follows him), the importance of a uniform legal terminology becomes readily apparent. In the opinion of your committee the most comprehensive manual on the subject of juvenile correction is the one used by the juvenile officers of the police department of the City of Los Angeles.

REPORT OF SUBCOMMITTEE ON MARJORIE MAE MASSOW (MADGE MEREDITH)

On the morning of June 30, 1947, there occurred in Los Angeles County a "kidnapping and assault" upon the persons of Nicholas D. Gianaclis and Verne Davis which resulted in the conviction and sentencing of Marjorie Mae Massow and three others.

Miss Massow, a motion picture actress more commonly known as Madge Meredith, was sentenced to from five years to life at Tehachapi. Albert W. Tucker received a similar sentence to San Quentin. Damon Klinkenberg and James Hatfield received 30 and 60 days respectively in the county jail.

The case, Superior Court Case No. 114360, was tried before a jury in the court of Judge Charles W Fricke. It was prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney J. Miller Leavy. Miss Massow was defended by Attorney Ward Sullivan.

Appeals by Miss Massow before the Second District Court of Appeals and the State Supreme Court were denied. She now is in her third year of a minimum 10-year sentence.

This conviction of Miss Massow prompted numerous prominent, respected citizens to voice before this committee a protest that justice had not been served. That the crime itself was a hoax, and Miss Massow was, in fact, the victim of a "frame."

A preliminary investigation by your subcommittee revealed a very definite and general feeling of unrest among many prominent business and professional people as well as disinterested private citizens concerning all aspects of the case.

In January, 1950, this subcommittee launched a formal investigation into all phases of the case. The background, investigation by police, the girl's defense, trial transcripts, and subsequent developments all became objects of intense study by investigators for the subcommittee.

After approximately 175 persons had been interviewed, the investigation was climaxed 13 months later with sworn depositions from some 30 key witnesses.

Following are the findings, opinions, and conclusions of this investigation:

First, it can be said that so far as the findings of this subcommittee are concerned, there is grave doubt that Defendant Massow was criminally implicated in the crime for which she was prosecuted and sentenced.

The case, from beginning to end, is a mockery of investigation, of defense counseling, of trial procedure, and of justice itself.

There is shocking evidence of perjury, suppression of evidence, prejudice, and an almost unbelievable reluctance on the part of defense counsel to investigate the cause of Defendant Massow. Nor are the tactics of the prosecution above reproach. That witnesses were intimidated is a matter of court record.

One of the most disturbing factors found by the subcommittee was the failure of defense counsel to call three key witnesses. There is evidence, in fact, that the defense made little if no effort to seek out and interview said witnesses.

The witnesses in question, two of which have made voluntary sworn statements to the subcommittee, are:

Albert Pettit, a resident of Laurel Canyon whose home is but 150 feet from the scene of the alleged beating and who was standing in his yard at the time of the incident.

Robert Gary, who also resided in the vicinity of the crime and whose car had been tampered with by one of the principles in an effort to expedite the crime.

Frank Markevikeo, friend of Hatfield, who, according to Hatfield, procured him to help in the crime.

These and other strong witnesses were totally ignored, even above protest by Defendant Massow, by Defense Counselor Ward Sullivan. It is a matter of record that Defendant Massow paid the sum of $800 "for investigation, plus expenses"—an investigation she did not receive.

Trial testimony failed to show any effort by Miss Massow to summon police. Yet Albert Pettit under oath, told this subcommittee that Defendant Massow approached him in an hysterical condition while the beating was in progress.

Gary, owner of a Ford automobile from which Tucker admittedly removed an ignition wire on the morning of June 30, 1947, testified under oath before this subcommittee that he passed and witnessed the true position of Gianaclis' car minutes after the incident, but was never in court to testify.

The people failed to hold as a witness Frank Markevikeo, named by Hatfield as the "contact man," who most assuredly could have shed much light on this fantastic case.

If one is to place any credence in the sworn affidavits of this subcommittee, it becomes all to obvious that the trial of Defendant Massow et al, was punctuated with perjured statements—not only deliberate

Let us examine the testimony of Witness Barbara Jean Whitworth, appearing for the prosecution:

(Miss Whitworth can be identified as the girl friend of Tucker and admittedly was in on the plot from its inception Specifically, her job was to obtain the car used in the kidnapping.)

First, with reference to her statement given Sheriff's Officers Skelly and Robinson on July 5, 1947, and which is confessed by said officers was not properly recorded (note Sheriff's Criminal Division File No. A-90728, page 82, line 5):

Q After the men returned, what happened?

A. Tucker sent Marjorie and I to Hollywood to rent a car. He asked her if she had enough money, and then gave her $50 to rent it with. Marjorie drove to the Tanner Motor Livery on Sunset Blvd., and drove into the garage. She gave me the $50, a twenty, a ten, and four five-dollar bills, and I went into the office and rented the car—a Nash four-door sedan, it was light grey in color. It was then about 7 30 on Monday morning.

Contrast this with testimony given by Miss Whitworth at the preliminary hearing (see P.H.T., page 228, line 12):

Q. Was there any discussion before you left?

A. Yes, Tucker gave me $50.

(Page 228, lines 19, 20, 21, 22, and 23)

A. He said he had some business to attend to, and would I rent him a car.

The Court: Would you what?

A. Would I rent him a car in Hollywood.

Q. Did he tell you what kind of a car to get?

A. No, he didn't.

Q. Did you hear him make any remarks to Miss Meredith as to whether or not she had enough money before you left, before he gave you the $50?

A. No, not that I remember.

Q. What kind of money did he give you, do you remember?

A. I think it was tens and fives.

Again, contrast the above preliminary hearing testimony with that taken from the superior court trial transcript (see page 218, line 17):

Q. How much did you pay to rent the car?

A. $50.

Q. Where did you get that money?

A. It was given to me.

Q. By whom?

A. By Madge Meredith.

Q. What time and place?

A. When I arrived at Tanner's Service.

Q. Where was she when she gave you the $50?

A. She was in the car.

Q. And did you see Mr. Tucker, Mr. Klinkenberg, or Mr. Hatfield give any money to Miss Massow before you left with her and went to Hollywood?

A. No, I did not.

In view of such glaring discrepancies, this subcommittee asked for and received from Miss Whitworth a sworn affidavit which read, in part: "Marjorie Mae Massow gave me no money for any such purpose, ever at any time. I may have asked her to change some bills, but she gave me no money."

Certainly, if the statements given by Miss Whitworth in her deposition to the subcommittee are true, there never did exist a union of joint operation of act and intent by and/or between Defendants Tucker and Massow which was alleged by the people to have been in existence, wherein Tucker and Miss Massow were accused of conspiracy to have Miss Whitworth rent an automobile.

There can be no other interpretation but that perjury had been committed by either person.

Miss Whitworth further swore to this subcommittee's investigators that she knew of the kidnapping a week or more before it occurred, that Defendant Tucker informed her that he was being paid to frame Miss Massow.

The subcommittee cannot lightly regard comparative testimony by Arthur Kachel, witness for the prosecution.

(Kachel, prominent Hollywood drama coach and retired high school teacher, lived in the Laurel Canyon area and was associated with Miss Massow and Gianaclis in some extremely involved property deals. During superior court trial he testified that he was out of town at the time of the alleged beating and kidnapping.)

Kachel stated to Committeeman Kilpatrick that he did not return to Los Angeles until 5.45 p.m. on the 30th. However, when shown a deposit slip under the date June 30th where he had deposited several hundred dollars in three checks he said, "Well, maybe I returned earlier."

At that point he was shown the ledger sheet of the Hollywood Athletic Club, his residence, which contained a dining room charge in the amount of $0.52 for the previous day. Kachel replied with: "What do you want me to say?"

Miss Massow, in court, testified that she had purchased liquor for Kachel on a number of occasions. Kachel denied this, stating he did not drink.

Yet the same club ledger revealed bar charges on numerous days during the month of July following for small amounts ranging from $0.25 to $0.70. This would tend to prove that he may not have been a teetotaler, at least.

A Hollywood high school check issued on July 5th in the amount of $125 was marked "W. E. July 3." Interpretation revealed this to mean "weekending July 3." So it was established that Kachel drew pay for a full week when he contended that he was in Bishop on a brief outing. In reply, Kachel said he was gone only for the weekend.

It can only be concluded that the above is another instance of perjury committed by a prosecution witness, also left unchallenged by defense counsel. The statements to your subcommittee by Miss Whitworth, and numerous other details which coincide with facts obtained by the subcommittee under oath, but which positively contradict trial testimony, have been reiterated by Tucker from his cell in San Quentin.

Tucker has made a full confession, completely exonerating Defendant Massow of any complicity in the crime.

The subcommittee considers highly controversial the facts pertaining to a $4,000 cashier's check. It appears to have been a vital piece of evidence for the defense, but never was introduced in court.

(The above mentioned check is confessed by Tucker to have been "payment" by Gianaclis for the frame of Defendant Massow. Gianaclis, however, denies this and asserts the check was taken from him by the kidnappers in lonely Lopez Canyon where Gianaclis and Davis ultimately made their escape from the kidnappers.)

Regarding said check: The kidnapping occurred June 30th. The check was dated February 1st and drawn on the Hollywood State Bank. Gianaclis told the subcommittee on two occasions that the check was given to him by one Gene Sancola, a Ventura Blvd. drive-in restaurant operator. Yet, under oath, Mr. Sancola vehemently denied ever having given Gianaclis a $4,000 cashier's check.

Sancola produced an account of all his dealings with Gianaclis prior to February 1st. They amounted to a total of $2,033.99.

The subcommittee regards as highly significant the fact that on July 21, 1947, Gianaclis, in a statement to the Hollywood State Bank, said bandits had taken the check from him on June 30th. But Prosecuting Attorney J. Miller Leavy declared the check was lost. This statement never was contested by Defense Counsel Ward Sullivan.

Considerable time was spent delving into the backgrounds of all concerned with the trial.

Defendant Massow was found to have been of the highest moral character. Her arrest for this crime was her very first brush with the law. It was impossible to find a single untruth in her many statements to this subcommittee. Statements by her probation officer, Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz, and the Los Angeles County Jail chaplain were of an exemplary nature. All recommended leniency, and many expressed doubt that Defendant Massow was capable of the crime with which she was charged.

It appears that she was treated especially harsh by the district attorney's office and Judge Fricke. Miss Massow spent 11 months of "dead time" in the county jail awaiting hearings of her appeals. She was denied an appeal bond by Judge Fricke.

It was convict Tucker's confession that the motive behind Gianaclis desire to involve Miss Massow in criminal conspiracy to kidnap him and Verne Davis was: First, his personal affection for Miss Massow; Second, that she was a most promising source of lavish income, since she had entered into contracts with motion picture producers on escalator terms reading into seven figures; and Third, that she was breaking away from the domination he had held over her during several of her young and tender years, and this framed kidnaping was a devise of revenge and a means to force her to return to his domination.

On the other hand, Gianaclis, the man whom she was convicted of kidnapping and assaulting, was found to be almost contemptuous in dealing with the subcommittee. His background has been more than questionable.

He claims he does not know his age. He claims to have been born in Greece, yet when applying for his marriage license he listed Canada as his birthplace. He declared to sheriff's deputies Klinkenberg not to be one of the kidnapers even though it was Klinkenberg, armed, who held Gianaclis and Davis at bay more than three hours in lonely Lopez Canyon

Seldom does he use his real name in the course of his business relations. Since his marriage (he now is divorced) he has used his wife's maiden name, Vera Wall or V. Wall. He carried at least two accounts in the Hollywood State Bank prior to the kidnapping episode—one under the name of Hollywood Restaurant Supply, V. Wall, and another in the name of Bob Noe. Each of these accounts were about equal in deposit value, generally around $2,000.

In suing for divorce, his wife, Vera, testified that he had used at least 20 aliases.

Gianaclis now is under investigation by the United States Government, and has been for several years.

The subcommittee regrets that it was unable to question defendant Klinkenberg, who, it is understood, now resides outside the State of California It was hoped that Klinkenberg could be questioned regarding defendant Hatfield's allegation that he, Klinkenberg, was brutally beaten by Los Angeles sheriff's officers in efforts to obtain testimony damaging to Miss Massow. Hatfield, under oath, swore to this subcommittee that while incarcerated in the county jail Klinkenberg displayed bruises and cuts about his body which he said were inflicted by sheriff's investigators.

During the course of its investigation the subcommittee and its investigators were, on several occasions, threatened with great bodily harm should they continue their probe. These were in the form of anonymous telephone calls.

And it was demonstrated on numerous occasions that witnesses called before the subcommittee were extremely reluctant to testify, openly stating that they feared for their lives if asked to testify against Gianaclis. Nearly all residents of Laurel Canyon, in the neighborhood of Gianaclis, expressed grave fear of the man.

Yet many disinterested citizens voluntarily approached the subcommittee asking that they be of assistance in righting an obvious wrong. Two such citizens, Herbert Scofield, a retired Hollywood banker, and Charles Wilson, prominent Hollywood realtor, devoted fully six months time and their own funds to assist in gathering pertinent information.

It is the unequivocal opinion of this subcommittee, that had Miss Massow been properly defended in a court free of prejudice she undoubtedly would have been proven innocent of the crime she now is charged.

The subcommittee report is heavily briefed from a volumnious and detailed report delivered to the Adult Authority on December 19th last, at which time the subcommittee sat in with all the members of the Adult Authority for an extensive interview covering many of the ramifications of this kidnapping episode.

The subcommittee is very appreciative of the attention given by each and every member of the Adult Authority and the authority's executive secretary in the course of the subcommittee's extensive investigation.

We would like to state that each of the members of the Adult Authority has spent many late hours in addition to his regular duties in the study of the above case. It is probably true that no appeal for clemency has ever received greater attention by the authority than has the Massow case

We believe that the material supplied to the Adult Authority by the subcommittee had much to do with its recommendation that the Massow term be reduced to time served

The case is now before Governor Warren for final action

Respectfully submitted,

A LOS ANGELES COUNTY JUVENILE OFFICER

This officer was most cooperative and eager to review the whole problem of handling juvenile delinquents and juvenile nondelinquents in the hope that legislation which would correct some of the faults in the present system might be enacted.

This officer has been in juvenile work for more than 25 years. He is past president of the California Juvenile Officers Association; formerly an instructor at the Delinquency Control Institute of the University of Southern California, and is an acknowledged authority on the problems of handling delinquents.

It was this officer's opinion that the greatest weakness of the existing program is insufficient personnel. Especially there is a great need for more personnel to give "first aid" in the way of juvenile officer counseling A larger staff would make it possible to put more minor offenders and border-line cases under voluntary police supervision. This would prevent minor cases from ever entering juvenile court. As he puts it, "I believe it is most important to keep as many juveniles from going to juvenile court as possible."

Another weakness in the law, according to this officer, is the mandatory provision compelling juvenile officers and/or juvenile departments to file a petition on an offender within 48 hours after apprehension. This section of the law, originally intended to protect the juvenile, works to his disadvantage in many cases. The over-worked staff of the average juvenile department has not sufficient time, within the 48-hour period, to make the necessary investigation and determine if the filing of a petition is warranted. In many cases a thorough investigation might reveal the comparatively minor character of the offense, and the juvenile might well be placed under voluntary police supervision.

In other cases a juvenile may be released if, within the 48-hour period, insufficient evidence is uncovered. A thorough investigation might show a definite need for juvenile court action and sterner treatment.

Many times, this officer believes, there has been too much leniency Some offenders have become opportunists. It causes them to become court-wise or juvenile court law-wise to the point of knowing that they might steal an automobile, drive it around and abandon it, and still have a good chance of escaping with probation or some other reprimand if apprehended. These cases are found to be more frequent among the "better families." The court often recognizes the parents as responsible citizens and returns the juvenile offender to them for reprimand and supervision.

This officer's first suggestion was the standardization of qualifications and compensation for juvenile officers throughout the State. A second suggestion was for a protective center for women and children who are nondelinquent, but who are held in protective custody. This would answer the need of mothers with small children, of abandoned children, or of orphans left without homes due to loss of both parents. Especially there are many cases where a wife and mother is deserted by her husband and left without means.

Such a protective center has been needed in Los Angeles County for years. In connection with this recommendation, he believes, there should be a greater degree of cooperation between the Bureau of Public Assistance and law-enforcing agencies in protective cases.

There is also a need for clarification of the law regarding the contacting of children in the public schools by juvenile officers. This officer believes that the principal of the school should be present at all interviews with students who are contacted at the school proper.

He believes there should be some provision in the law making it a misdemeanor for a family to allow a child to spend the night in their home without first ascertaining if permission has been granted by the child's parents. The practice of one child going to the home of another to spend the night, without parental consent, has caused the department much concern. Many times, he states, they have put their entire force to work searching for the "missing child," tying up police emergency equipment, and spending unnecessary dollars and man-hours, only to have the child return to her home next morning after spending the night with her girl friend. Such a law would reduce this problem by a very large percentage.

One of the major needs, concurred in by juvenile officers and police chiefs in smaller incorporated towns in Los Angeles County, is the appointment by the court of qualified juvenile or probation officers to act as juvenile court referee in the disposition of juvenile traffic violations. This system would authorize the suspending of the juvenile's driving license, when warranted, for a certain period of time. At present the parent's consent and cooperation is required, thus, many juvenile traffic cases go unreprimanded.

A SOCIAL SERVICE LEADER

In developing its study for the handling of juveniles, your committee talked with many prominent social service leaders in the community. In these informal discussions on the subject opinions of competent authorities were noted; and it was thought these conclusions should be incorporated into the committee report.

When asked what is most needed in order to improve the over-all juvenile program in the city and county, a social service leader stated, "A better method of educating minority groups." This could be done by training teachers in the schools in the proper methods of teaching minority groups, specifically, the Mexican-Americans. Due to language difficulties this group should have a special type of instruction in order to take their proper place in community life. He also states there is a great need for more training for all those who come in contact with youth. Constant in-service training is needed by school teachers, police officers and all staff members of public or private agencies that have contact with juveniles.

Another weakness noted by a social service leader is our juvenile court. This statement was qualified by saying it is weak from the standpoint of case load or a lack of modern thinking, but he does believe that it is weak. Also he believes there is a need for a larger probation staff—in the prevention field and the group guidance field particularly. The recent abolishing of the Group Guidance Unit of the County Probation Department, due to lack of funds, is a particularly severe blow. He believes there is a definite need for more camps and similar programs for the handling of juveniles delinquents, where they may be properly segregated—and will be treated as individuals instead of groups.

It was stated that public and private agencies take care of different facets of youth delinquency; but greater coordination should exist between the public and private programs and agencies. However, it was the general belief, that the most effective work could be done by the public agencies, due to the fact the force of law is behind them; while the family could accept or reject the program of the private agencies.

A YOUTH AUTHORITY OFFICER

In discussing the handling of juveniles with a consultant on juvenile control who is employed by the California Youth Authority, the consultant stated that police officers—the men on the beat—need training in the handling of juveniles because they are usually the first ones to contact the juvenile offender.

The thing most lacking and most needed is more psychiatric services and more probation personnel, and on a state level, more counselors for police departments. Cooperation between police departments and case work agencies is extremely important, he believes. Minor offenders may be sent to agencies where they can be handled, the family investigated and advised, he explained.

The Prevention Department of the Probation Department, known as the Community Coordinating Council, would be the most effective agency in the handling of juveniles if it could be expanded and able to place more workers in the field. Also, the case load of the probation services should be lightened by the addition of more personnel, allowing probation officers to work more closely with the individual.

He said it is difficult to separate private and public programs but there is a definite need for more public programs to reach the boy who would ordinarily shun the average private agency program. He also believes that there is an urgent need for a program for juveniles between the ages of 16 and 21 years.

This officer stated that in his opinion there is a need for psychiatric clinics in conjunction with the school system and there is also a need for psychiatric social workers who are trained in the field of handling juveniles and their problems at the school level.

A COUNTY PROBATION DEPARTMENT OFFICER

A probation officer states that there is an urgent need for regional offices of the probation department in order to handle the outlying areas of Los Angeles County. These offices would bring the probation officers in closer touch with the people of the area. It would help in the field of prevention as the officers, working closer with the various police departments, could advise and help families before the juvenile became involved in serious trouble.

He also believes a better way must be found for handling protective cases which now come before the juvenile court. The future of a child is often impaired—once the juvenile has been declared a ward of the court.

A SECOND COUNTY PROBATION OFFICER

This probation officer proposed that a law be enacted giving a juvenile offender the opportunity to expunge his record. A child who commits an offense before the age of 16 would have his record expunged and all traces of it removed upon his reaching the age of 21; provided, of course, that he committed no offenses during that period. If the offense were committed between the age of 16 to 18, the record would be expunged at the age of 25, provided the same conditions were met.

This would be a great incentive for a youngster to straighten out if he were assured that a mistake, made in childhood, would not forever hang over his head like the Sword of Damocles. It would also be a great aid to the probation officer At present there is little incentive that officers can offer a juvenile offender which will convince him that, because of once having made a mistake, his future life will not remain rocky because of that one transgression.

AN OFFICIAL OF THE LOS ANGELES COUNTY YOUTH COMMITTEE

This official believes that the officers handling juveniles should be higher paid, and as a corollary would attract better qualified personnel. The law enforcement departments should send more of their personnel to the Delinquency Control Institute at the University of Southern California for training in this specialized field.

In keeping with this program of training, rigid minimum standards should be established for all applicants for the position of juvenile officer.

There is also a need for an educational program among parents—what danger signals to look for—what constitutes a good home. He believes a good home to be:

(a) One in which the child is loved and wanted, and knows it;
(b) One in which the child does not have too much nor too little for himself;
(c) One in which the child has space and a place of his own;
(d) One in which the child belongs to the family and the family to him;
(e) One in which the parents recognize that mistakes are a part of the process of growing up;

(f) One in which, commensurate with his age and abilities, he plans for and with the family;
(g) One in which his degree of freedom is fitted to his age, his needs and his responsibilities;
(h) One in which he is liked and loved equally with other members of the family;
(i) One in which he is made to recognize the existence of God and a moral law;
(j) One in which moderate correction and discipline are in force.

He does not believe that we can judge which agency, public or private, is doing the best job; as each agency has the same function but comes into contact with the child in a different way. The private agency sets up a program and invites the child to come to it. The public agency sets up a program and goes to the child.

There is need for a broadened preventive program which will appeal to the juvenile. He also believes that a need exists for a program, both public and private, to reach juveniles between the ages of 18 and 21. This group seems to be forgotten, according to this official.

A JUVENILE COURT JUDGE

The judge said that the waiting time after a juvenile has been committed to the Youth Authority is three to six months. This time lapse is obviously harmful to the juvenile. Offenders waiting for Youth Authority acceptance take up space in county juvenile facilities which could be used to treat minor offenders who could be helped by the program. Due to the overcrowding the court must release on probation many cases that need training.

According to the judge, this situation could be remedied if the existing state facilities were expanded and the state clinic processes were speeded up. A large diagnostic clinic has been proposed for a number of years. If such an institution were established, it would greatly aid the county and state in the handling and treatment of juvenile offenders.

At present the hospitals have not enough space to handle the children from the age of one year to 14 years. Children as young as 15 are often put in adult wards The judge states that he only requests aid from the existing clinic for extreme cases and where children would become dangerous if allowed to go untreated. Once a juvenile has been committed to the clinic, there is a minimum wait of three months before treatment. According to the judge, there is an urgent need for:

(a) Building and staffing of a mental hygiene hospital to care for cases classed as juvenile;
(b) More trained psychiatrists: this cannot be achieved until the pay scale for such trained personnel is raised. The present $500 per month is insufficient On the county level the pay is even lower.
(c) More out-patient treatment clinics for the mentally ill.

VENTURA SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

An inspection of this institution revealed a shocking fire hazard. The buildings (of wood-frame construction) are quite old and the hillside and canyon location of the school is constantly menaced by the natural fire hazard of the dry grass and brush surrounding the grounds. Moreover, it would be difficult to get fire fighting equipment to the institution, in case of a fire.

Between 175 and 180 girls, ages 16 to 21, are confined at the Ventura School. Your committee found that in each cottage the emergency exits from the second floor lead to a locked doorway that in turn opens on a wooden fire escape These fire escapes were constructed after a warning from the fire marshal that he would condemn the buildings if an additional outside stairway was not added.

It was stated that for security reasons the fire escape doors must remain locked. Under such conditions it is questionable whether or not the lone woman supervisor could evacuate the girls in case of fire.

Your committee found that fire extinguishers had not been checked according to manufacturers specifications or recommendations. Highly combustible material was found in unused laundry chutes, closets and basements. The boilers and heating units are not in fireproof rooms, and, apparently, little attempt is made to reduce the constant hazard of fire. For example, the girls are permitted to smoke anywhere on the institution grounds, This presents a constant danger during the dry season, as weeds and grass surround the buildings and in places have completely choked out the walks.

Supervisors at the institution explain the unkempt condition of the grounds by saying that they do not have enough male maintenance personnel to perform the necessary work and that the girls are unable to do this type of "heavy work," such as hoeing and pulling grass

It is the opinion of your committee that the girls, ages 16 to 21, are perfectly capable of doing this work. Your committee points to the womens' institution at Tehachapi with its well kept lawns and flowers maintained by the women inmates.

Perversion is something prevailing in every institution and must be constantly guarded against. Signs of homosexuality among these young women should receive psychiatric treatment, in the opinion of your committee. Many of the girls wear short butch-type haircuts and are typical of the homosexual type among girls When asked what control was exercised over sexual deviates at the school, a supervisor replied, "Well, we just ignore them; each one of the girls that you see with short haircuts, and others too, have had a very full sex life before they entered the institution; and we believe that if we make any remonstrances to them about the way they dress, the way they cut their hair, the way they talk and act, that it would make matters worse. The supervisor said that each of the tomboys had their "chicks"—girls they picked out as favorites and held hands with and at times had been found embracing and kissing. To her knowledge, that was as far as it went.

The facilities for rehabilitation at this institution are meager. No records are kept on the relative progress of the girls under the vocational rehabilitation program A hobby class, where the girls make hooked rugs, ceramics, etc., appears to be the extent of the rehabilitation program for these young women. Academic courses ranging from the lower grammar school grades to high school level plus a few college work courses are taught at the school. A course in homemaking is also taught at the institution. Many of these classes are conducted in the basement of the auditorium building in rather bleak surroundings.

An inspection of the cottages revealed the fact that none could meet the lowest standards of any boys' institution. The toilets, showers, and bath tubs at the school were actually filthy. The wash bowls were dirty and the fixtures unpolished. In the dormitories the beds were not made properly; gum coating was found on the beds and window sills, and dirty discarded underclothing was left lying under their beds. Dried orange peels, nut shells, candy wrappers and papers littered the tops of lockers. Even the hospital facilities at this institution do not appear up to standard. For example, dentistry equipment is antiquated and should be replaced.

Starches seem to predominate in the girls diet; potatoes, beans, and bread amounting to four slices per girl all at one meal. A tray being sent to a girl in the disciplinary quarters was noted as follows: four slices of bread, peanut butter, macaroni, milk and one apple. As might be imagined, most of the girls at the school are quite fat. A supervisor explained this by saying that most girl delinquents were of the obese type. This explanation is not borne out by visits to other institutions. Morale at the school is good. The girls all seem quite happy. The cost of maintaining this institution is approximately $2,400 per girl, per year. This is the highest per capita cost of any similar institution in the State.

It is the opinion of your committee that, on the whole, this institution is one of the greatest failures of the Youth Authority and correctional steps should be taken in order to carry out a program of rehabilitation of these girls.

LOS GUILUCOS SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

This institution for girls is located in the hills about 10 miles from Santa Rosa. Facilities for the staff and the inmates are very poor. Some of the buildings were constructed as far back as 1885. Approximately 125 girls, ages 13 to 16, are incarcerated in this minimum security institution.

The grounds are unsuited for recreational activities, and, aside from the swimming pool, the girls have little opportunity for recreation. A small bit of farming is done here. Some table vegetables are raised and a chicken ranch is located on the grounds.

The buildings are the same type of fire-trap structures which are in use at the girls school near Ventura. Weeds and grass are allowed to grow around the buildings and a fire hazard is constantly presented. The appearance of the grounds is very poor. The same excuse for the untidy condition, lack of male maintenance personnel, was given here. Again your committee feels these girls are perfectly capable of occasionally wielding a hoe or rake.

The fire-fighting equipment is in poor repair. The fire truck, donated to the State by the Department of Forestry, has extinguishers which show that the last fire inspection made here was in 1945.

The academic training the girls receive is equal to that given in the Public School System. Probationary teachers from the University of California at Berkeley, from Stanford University, from the University of San Francisco, and from other colleges in the vicinity come to Los Guilucos for a three-months period. These intern teachers supplement the regular teachers, observe the program, teach classes, and help supervise the girls in vocational training. A sewing room offers an opportunity for the girls to learn to sew. Laundry work and other tasks necessary for the maintenance of the institution are made a part of the vocational training here.

A full-time nurse is stationed at the school, and a doctor comes once a week for routine medical examination. The doctor is on call from Santa Rosa when medical attention is needed. The staff at this school appears to have gone to work in earnest to teach sex education, mental hygiene, and related subjects to the girls.

The cottages are partitioned into private rooms; in some cases two girls occupy one room containing bunk beds. They are allowed to keep their personal property in their rooms. Some of the rooms are quite large, allowing space for two dressers. There is ample closet space, and different colored bedspreads give some resemblance to a room they might have at home. It was noticed that more girls wear dresses here than was the case at the Ventura School for Girls.

A supervisor remarked that the girls received from Los Angeles County are the most difficult to handle Many of them have been drug addicts. Some come with tattoo marks on them and a strong inclination to form gang groups at the institution.

One thing observed by your committee was the fact that some of the girls did not belong in a correctional institution. One little girl, an orphan, was 11 years old—her greatest crime had been to run away from foster homes; and for this reason she must live in a correctional institution. It would appear that the occurrence of this misfortune is a failure on the part of the county probation department. Otherwise the child would not have been placed in a home from which she would want to run away.

The food at Los Guilucos is well prepared and the diet is adequate. The correctional officers, instructors, and inmates are all served the same food. This practice might be good to follow at other institutions.

The swimming pool is a great morale builder. It gives the girls, many who have never had an opportunity to swim before, a chance to excel at something. Students from the Santa Rosa College, boys and girls, come out and teach the girls how to swim. These students also give life saving instructions and lifeguard training. A number of the girls at Los Guillicos institution have received their lifeguard certificates.

Morale is quite good; the personnel is well-liked and from all appearances respected by girls.

PASO ROBLES SCHOOL FOR BOYS

The Paso Robles School for Boys is a temporary installation of the Youth Authority. This may account for the run-down condition of the buildings and grounds. New quarters are to be constructed shortly.

Approximately 125 boys aged 15 and 16 are housed in army surplus barracks at this minimum security institution. The average boy is sent here for minor infractions of the law, such as truancy or running away from home.

A quonset hut serves as a medical building, and a physical checkup of the boys is made periodically; but the institution does not have a full-time doctor or nurse. All medical attention given the boys outside of the clinic is done in the hospital at Paso Robles or Bakersfield.

The buildings are in very poor repair. The entire institution shows signs of neglect. Toilets are of the outside type and papers and scraps of soap litter the floor of these washrooms. These toilets are stained inside and outside, and the washbowls are coated with dirt. An odor about the boys reveals that they have not bathed properly or have not bathed often enough and have not received clean clothing when they should.

With the exception of a few garden vegetables raised on the grounds, everything consumed is purchased from the outside. There is no difference between staff and inmate food. Both are served at the same dining room. Your committee was told that rations were sent to them from a diet prepared in Sacramento, and as many as five bean meals in one week are served. It is the opinion of the committee that the food served is poorly prepared and inadequate for growing boys.

The boys are allowed considerable freedom of choice in developing hobbies. Model airplanes building is encouraged. Classrooms are small and cramped at the present time; however academic and vocational training is taught by a staff of competent instructors.

Discipline is not too rigid. A segregation unit, for boys who are constantly starting fights and cannot fit into the program, appeared to be clean and well kept. Of necessity the discipline in this unit is more strict than in the other cottages.

Your committee feels that the Youth Authority has allowed this institution to drop below minimum standards.

CALIFORNIA VOCATIONAL INSTITUTION

This temporary institution, located near Lancaster, in Los Angeles County, is under control of the Youth Authority. Originally it was a training center for pilots of the Royal Air Force, and at present the army type barracks are in a rundown condition. It is planned to relocate the plant near Tracy in the near future.

Boys between the ages of 16 and 21 years are confined here. A high, heavy mesh wire fence surrounds the grounds and armed guards are stationed at each gun tower. This institution would certainly be classified as of the maximum security type, and as a matter of record all attempted escapes have failed here.

An excellent record system has been installed and all the important information on each inmate is noted in his file A staff of psychiatrists, psychologists, and sociologists keep a constant progress report on each boy's ability to learn, his vocational program, his behavior and all related information. The report of the school chaplain is also included in each boy's case history.

A typical barrack houses 100 boys. Toilet facilities are located in the center of the building; this divides the building into two units. Each unit contains 50 beds. A correctional guard is stationed at a central position. At night he patrols the barrack and reports to the gate every 30 minutes. Some of these barracks have a wired off section at one end where boys who must be kept in protective custody are separated from the others. In this section are kept sexual deviates and others who might come to harm from the rest of the inmates.

Another maximum security building is used to confine boys who have broken some of the major rules, such as fighting, causing disturbances, or insubordination. It is used more as a place of meditation. A boy who is caught stealing from another boy's locker may be confined here.

The more difficult type of boy is kept in a separate segregation unit all of the time. These are boys who are always starting fights, aggressive homosexual types, and others who are thoroughly incorrigible. These boys are under constant 24-hour supervision and are not allowed to go to school or into the vocational trades until they have satisfactorily proved to the administration that they are capable of mingling with the other inmates.

The food is quite good and the diet well balanced. The correctional personnel have a choice of staff meals or "main line feeding," and in most cases select food from the line.

Recreational facilities are good: baseball, basketball and other sports are part of the physical training program. A large swimming pool, left by the air force, is used for swimming courses. The boys are also allowed to use the pool in their off hours.

A staff of instructors conduct classes ranging from primary school to college work. Some of the boys enter the institution completely illiterate. This group receives special attention and, according to the instructors, seem eager to learn.

Most of the vocational training classes are conducted in the hangar buildings that were left by the air force when the grounds were turned over to the State of California. A machine shop provides training in lathe work and related machine shop operations. A motor mechanics department has four automobiles which are torn down and rebuilt by the boys. Much of the maintenance of the institution is done by boys who have been trained in cabinet making and carpentry. A shoe shop offers vocational training plus shoe repairing for the inmates. House wiring, motor winding, and radio repair work is taught in the electrical department. Many of the boys, upon their release, will be competent to enter various trades as apprentices. All of the instructors were competent, cooperative, and very proud of their pupils.

The most coveted of all is the aircraft training course. The school has been granted authority to license men who have completed the 1,000 hours of training under C. A. A. guidance. In this course they have all the necessary equipment needed to train an aircraft maintenance man. They have the opportunity to work on a flyable C-46 aircraft that is parked just outside the security gate. A small cabin aircraft, single engine, is kept at the hangar. Several test stands for propellers and carburetors are part of the equipment.

The instructor in this department has had many years of aircraft experience. Before he will even allow a boy to enter the course, the boy must show a willingness for hard work and the ability to learn.

A mattress plant, that can renovate hundreds of mattresses in one day, is in full operation. This work is done for the Lancaster institution, as well as other state institutions, on an industrial basis.

The laundry department serves the institution and offers an excellent vocational course in laundry operation. Modern machinery has been installed equal to that of the average small laundry.

Your committee feels that this institution—The California Vocational Institute—deserves praise for its achievement under the direction of the Youth Authority.

PRESTON SCHOOL OF INDUSTRY

The Preston School of Industry, once an institution of terror, has become in recent years an actual industrial school for boys. Approximately 700 young men, ranging in ages from 16 to 21, are confined at this institution which has the reputation of being the last chance for a boy to straighten out and lead an upright, honest life. Boys, under control of the Youth Authority, are sent here according to the type of crime committed and their ability to adjust themselves to a program.

Inmates at Preston are called cadets. Cadet captains and others of higher rank have a certain amount of authority over the individual cadet. The system is somewhat analogous to the armed forces.

In past years much of the disciplinary action was done by the cadet captain. For example, if a boy was even suspected of some minor infraction of the rules, the cadet captain would slap, punch, or kick him, depending on the whim of the cadet captain. These cadet captains were selected for their size, ability to fight, and general all-around brutality and sadism.

Under the present administration, this disciplinary action has been completely abolished. The cadet system is still in force, but the cadet captain is chosen for his leadership, his ability, his integrity, and the example he sets. He still has a higher position than the others, but it is a position of honor. No cadet officer is allowed to discipline another inmate and the cadet officer positions are rotated periodically.

Vocational training facilities are inadequate at present. Some of the shops are located in buildings too small to accommodate more than a few boys at a time This condition is being remedied and newer buildings are being constructed.

An automotive shop provides training, under good guidance, for many of the boys. Repairs on automobiles, tractors, and other power-driven machinery used at the institution are done by the inmates. A garage set-up duplicates a modern service station, with gas pumps, wash rack, and all the usual facilities to be found at a first class service station.

Electric wiring, sheetmetal work, shoe repairing, carpentry, house painting and printing are among the other trades taught the boys here.

One of the most impressive training projects at Preston is the dairy farm A modern dairy farm is located just off the grounds, and the boys who train here are given the honor position at the school. They do not have intensive supervision and live in dormitories. These trainees start by cleaning up the cow barns. Then they move along through can washing, milking, and other occupations until they reach the end of the line which is the pasteurizing, separating, and homogenizing department. Evenings are spent studying and preparing for the state pasteurizing examination. Many of the boys have received their state license qualifying them for technical dairy work.

A farm program raises 75 percent of the products needed at the institution. A boy is given a plot of ground and told what he is to raise. Supervision is given and advice offered each boy. The boys take great pride in their gardens and compete against one another for the biggest tomatoes, etc.

Located in the segregation unit is the laundry of the institution. It is set apart from the rest of the buildings. Boys who cannot successfully associate with the others are housed here. In addition to the laundry the tailor shop is located in this same segregation unit. Pressing machines, operated by the inmates, meet the needs of the school and also give practical training in cleaning and pressing.

A modern well-equipped hospital has been established with an X-ray laboratory and surgery. Two doctors are on the staff, and inmates receive competent medical attention.

The Preston School has an auditorium with a seating capacity of 1,000. Adjoining the auditorium is a beautiful chapel, used by both Protestant and Catholic chaplains.

GUESTS EXTENDED COURTESIES OF ASSEMBLY

On request of Mr. McCollister, the usual courtesies of the Assembly for this day were unanimously extended to Hiram Hopkins of Petaluma.

On request of Messrs. Geddes and Lanterman, the usual courtesies of the Assembly for this day were unanimously extended to Richard M. Smith and Robert T. Radford of Monrovia.

On request of Mr. Stanley, the usual courtesies of the Assembly for this day were unanimously extended to Mr. and Mrs Maurice Stanley of Newport Harbor.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Dr Clarence A. Kircher:

O God, most Holy, Wise and Powerful, Creator, Preserver and Governor of all Thy creatures and their actions, keep us this day in health of body and mind, in purity of heart and cheerfulness of spirit, with charity in our hearts toward all mankind. Thou has bidden us to walk humbly with Thee, to act justly with others, and to seek peace with our fellow men.

Grant guidance to the President of the United States, our Governor, the Speaker of this Assembly, and each member in the discharge of our important responsibilities

"O God of Love, whose spirit wakes
In every human breast,
Whom love, and love alone, can know,
In whom all hearts find rest,
Help us to spread Thy gracious reign
Till greed and hate shall cease,
And kindness dwell in human hearts
And all the earth find peace"

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Clarence A. Kircher:

Now unto the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of Lords; Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light, grant wisdom and understanding, patience and forgiveness, courage and strength for the responsibilities which lie before us. Our prayer is for those who direct the destinies of our beloved Nation and for those who serve in the Armed Forces. As we perform our daily tasks, give us grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us do. Enrich us with the spirit of wisdom that we may be saved from false choices, that in Thy light our paths may be straight, and we need never stumble.

"Lord of the world, illumine
This darkened land of Thine,
Till everything that's human
Be filled with What's divine;
Till every tongue and nation,
From sin's dominion free,
Rise in the new creation
Which springs from love and Thee"

—AMEN.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO TAKE UP SENATE BILL NO. 743

Mr. McFall asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that he be permitted to take up Senate Bill No. 743, out of order, at this time.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 743

Recommendation of the Governor

In accordance with Article IV, Section 34, of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the passage of Senate Bill No. 743:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
SACRAMENTO, March 22, 1951

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly
Sacramento, California

GENTLEMEN:

Senate Bill No. 743, "An act to add Section 762.95 to the Agricultural Code, relating to inspection of canning tomatoes, making an appropriation for the purchase of color-meters for that purpose and providing for the return of the money so appropriated, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately," in my opinion constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in Section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill

Approval of this measure at this time is necessary because the devices mentioned may not be available much longer and should be contracted for as soon as possible if they are to be available for use during the 1951 season.

I therefore recommend consideration of Senate Bill No. 743 as an emergency measure.

Respectfully submitted,

EARL WARREN, Governor

Senate Bill No. 743—An act to add Section 762.95 to the Agricultural Code, relating to inspection of canning tomatoes, making an appropriation for the purchase of color-meters for that purpose and providing for the return to the State Treasury of the money so appropriated, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately

Bill read third time.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO 2, CALIFORNIA, March 26, 1951

Honorable Harold K. Levering
Assembly Chamber

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE—No. 6246

DEAR MR. LEVERING: You have requested our opinion as to the constitutionality of Section 310 of the Unemployment Insurance Act, which section would be added to said act by Assembly Bill No. 3376.

We have examined the proposed Section 310 and have found that it is substantially identical to the Section 310 which was proposed to be added by Senate Bill No. 377 of the 1949 Regular Session.

On June 21, 1949, we rendered an opinion to you on the question of the constitutionality of Section 310 as proposed to be added by Senate Bill No. 377, in which we expressed our opinion that the section was unconstitutional. Inasmuch as the two sections are substantially identical, the conclusions reached in that opinion apply likewise as to the constitutionality of Section 310 as proposed to be added by Assembly Bill No. 3376 of this session.

A copy of the aforementioned opinion is attached to this letter.

Opinion of Legislative Counsel

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO 2, CALIFORNIA, June 21, 1949

Honorable Harold K. Levering
Assembly Chamber

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE No. 7879

DEAR MR. LEVERING: Under Section 309 of the Unemployment Insurance Act an "extended liability account" is established, to be charged with all disability benefit payments made on or after January 1, 1948, in respect to uninterrupted periods of disability which commenced after the termination of employment. If, at the end of any year, there is a deficit in this account, an assessment (based on a certain ratio) is levied on employers with employees covered under a voluntary plan, and the account is credited with an amount equal to a certain ratio of wages of employees not covered under an approved voluntary plan.

Senate Bill 377 adds Section 310 to the act to provide, in effect, that a separate account shall be kept for each insurance company insuring approved voluntary plans, crediting the account with the amount of premium tax it has paid under Section 14¼ of Article XIII of the California Constitution, and charging the account with the amount of the insurer's extended liability assessment under Section 309 of the act; and to the extent that there is a credit balance in the account the assessment shall be deemed collected. In other words, insurance companies are given a credit for the amount of premium tax paid.

You have asked us to discuss the following two constitutional problems:

(1) Since the credit applies only to private insurance companies and not to self-insurers, does proposed Section 310 improperly discriminate against the latter?

(2) Does proposed Section 310 create an additional "in lieu tax exception" not presently recognized by Section 14¼ of Article XIII, and, if so, can this be done without a constitutional amendment?

In answer to your first question, it is our opinion that the proposed Section 310 would be held to be unreasonably discriminatory and therefore unconstitutional. In answer to your second question, it is our opinion that the section would not create an additional "in lieu tax exception."

In considering the effect of the proposed Section 310, the fundamental question which arises is whether the extended liability assessment imposed by Section 309 of the act, and which is paid by the insurance company in the case of insured voluntary plans, is a tax upon the insurance company.

If it were decided that it is a tax upon the insurance company, then it would be prohibited by Article XIII, Section 14¼ of the California Constitution, which imposes a premium tax which is to be in lieu of all other taxes with certain enumerated exceptions. If this were the case the proposed section would create an additional "in lieu tax exception," since if there is not a credit balance in the account of an insurance company it must pay the assessment. Thus, an amendment to Article XIII, Section 14¼ would be necessary to make this additional "in lieu tax exception."

Again, if this assessment were considered a tax on the insurance company, there would be no unreasonable discrimination in allowing a credit to the insurance company and not to a self-insurer, since the latter does not pay the premium tax levied under Article XIII, Section 14¼

It is our opinion, however, that the extended liability assessment imposed by Section 309 of the act is not a tax upon the insurance company, but in reality is an assessment of a special nature levied against employers with employees covered under an approved voluntary plan of disability insurance to help maintain a sufficient balance in an account created to protect employees who become disabled while unemployed and thus whose disability payments can be charged to no one employer

That the insurance companies pay these assessments is, in our opinion, merely an incident of the coverage extended to employers under their policies and would normally be reflected in an adjustment of premium rates. The employer would still seem to remain the person primarily liable for payment of such assessments

Thus, under such a view of the nature of the assessment, it is not a tax upon the insurance company and therefore no problem arises in connection with Article XIII, Section 14¾.

However, once it is determined that it is not a tax upon the insurance company, any logical basis for its exemption from paying the assessment, while a self-insurer is not exempted, disappears. If the assessment is not a tax, but merely a special type of assessment levied upon all employers with a voluntary plan, or upon insurance companies if the plan is insured, to provide their share in maintaining this special account for the benefit of employees, then the fact that insurance companies pay a tax on disability insurance premiums would not provide a reasonable basis for their exemption. No provision is made for transferring any portion of premium tax proceeds to this special account, so that it could be said that the companies have already contributed their share to this account. It would appear to be just as logical to say that because a self-insurer pays a high income tax on his profits he should be exempted from contributing to this account.

It is our opinion, therefore, that the courts would hold that there is no logical or reasonable basis for the exemption, and that there is therefore an unreasonable discrimination against self-insurers, in violation of Article I, Section 11, Article I, Section 21, and that it constitutes a local or special law in violation of Article IV Section 25(10) of the California Constitution

In summary, then, it is our opinion that the extended liability assessment is not a tax upon insurance companies and therefore no problem arises under Article XIII, Section 14¾, but that the credit allowed by proposed Section 310 is discriminatory against self-insurers.

Very truly yours

PRINTER'S NOTE—There being no 7-point strikeout type available, the material which should appear in strikeout type in the following amendment is indicated by being enclosed within brackets.

Amendment No. 1

On page 2 of the printed bill, after line 5, insert

"SEC. 2. Section 739 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

739. When the money so deposited is not claimed within five years, the county treasurer shall make an affidavit so showing, and the court or judge [, upon such showing by the affidavit of the county treasurer,] must direct the same to be deposited in the State Treasury for the benefit of such claimant or his legal representative [, to be paid to him whenever, within five years after such deposit, proof to the satisfaction of the State Controller and State Treasurer is produced that he is entitled thereto. When so claimed, a transcript of the evidence and the joint order of the controller and treasurer must be filed by the treasurer as his voucher, and the amount of the claim paid to the claimant or his legal representative, on filing the proper receipt].

If for any reason such money remains unclaimed in the county treasury for 10 years after the date of deposit in the county treasury it is presumed to be abandoned property, and the county treasurer must immediately deliver such money to the State Treasurer for deposit in the State Treasury for the benefit of such claimant or his legal representative, subject to the provisions of Title 10 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act becomes operative only if a new Title 10 is added to Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure by enactment of the Legislature at its 1951 Regular Session; and in such case, at the same time as said new Title 10 takes effect; at which time Section 1 of this act is repealed."

Consideration of Committee Amendments

The following amendments were proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 1

On page 1 of the printed bill, after line 28, insert

"If objection is made to the petition distributing the estate to the State of California, the matter shall be continued for 30 days and notice of such objection, together with notice of time and place of the hearing of objections to the petition for distribution, shall be given forthwith to the State Controller by the person or persons objecting."

Amendment No. 2

On page 2 of the printed bill, after line 30, insert

"SEC. 2. Section 1027 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1027. Executors or administrators, public or otherwise, must apply for distribution of an estate at the time of filing a final account. Notice of such application must be given in the manner provided in Section 1200 of the Probate Code. If the court, at the time set for the hearing of the final account, or such time thereafter to which the matter may be continued, does not distribute the entire balance of the estate remaining for distribution to known heirs, devisees or legatees entitled to succeed thereto, it must distribute to the State of California that portion of such estate not distributed to such known heirs, devisees or legatees

Whenever it appears that the estate or any portion thereof is to be distributed to the State of California because there are no known heirs or that the estate or any portion thereof is to be distributed to heirs, devisees or legatees whose whereabouts are unknown, the executor or administrator must serve the State Controller, personally or by mail, with a copy of the petition for distribution, together with notice of the hearing thereon, specifying the date of such hearing, and a copy of the latest account filed with the court, at least 30 days prior to the date of such hearing. A copy of any petition amending, modifying, or in objection to said petition for distribution must be served in like manner upon the State Controller, together with notice of the hearing thereon, at least 30 days prior to the date of such hearing.

If objection is made to the petition distributing the estate to the State of California, the matter shall be continued for 30 days and notice of such objection, together with notice of time and place of the hearing of objections to the petition for distribution, shall be given forthwith to the State Controller by the person or persons objecting.

If the court distributes the estate or any portion thereof to the State of California, and the distributing clause contains words otherwise creating a trust in favor of certain unknown or unidentified persons as a class, such distribution shall vest in the State of California both legal and equitable title to the property so distributed; saving, however, the right of claimants to appear and claim the estate or any portion thereof, as in this section provided.

Upon the rendition of a decree of distribution, any money distributed to the State of California and not held on deposit in a county treasury at the time the distribution is made by the court shall forthwith be delivered to the State Treasurer by the executor or administrator, and all other personal property so distributed shall forthwith be delivered to the State Controller for deposit in the State Treasury.

A certified copy of the decree of distribution and of any court orders amending the same must be delivered to the State Controller by the executor or administrator at the time of making any remittance in connection with an estate.

No deposit of property in an estate shall be made in the county treasury by any executor or administrator, public or otherwise, if the estate has previously been distributed to the State of California pursuant to this section, but such estate shall be transmitted forthwith to the State Treasurer or State Controller as provided in this section.

If the money or other personal property belonging to an estate has been deposited in the county treasury prior to the date of distribution to the State of California, upon the rendition of the decree of distribution, any money so distributed shall forthwith be delivered to the State Treasurer by the county treasurer, and all other personal property so distributed shall forthwith be delivered to the State Controller for deposit in the State Treasury. A certified copy of the decree of distribution and of any court orders amending the same, shall be delivered to the State Controller by the county treasurer at the time of making any remittance in connection with an estate as provided in this section

The property so distributed shall be held by the State Treasurer for a period of five years from the date of the decree making such distribution, within which time any person may claim the estate or any part thereof in the manner provided by Title 10 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure Rights of nonresident aliens shall be governed by the provisions of Section 1026 of this code

Any person who does not appear and claim, as herein required, shall be forever barred, and such property, or so much thereof as is not claimed, shall vest absolutely in the State

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act becomes operative only if a new Title 10 is added to Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure by enactment of the Legislature at its 1951 Regular Session, and in such case at the same time as said new Title 10 takes effect; at which time Section 1 of this act is repealed."

Amendment No. 8

On page 5 of said bill, after line 17, insert
"SEC. 8. Section 11200 of the Financial Code is amended to read:
11200. Shares or share accounts of a federal savings and loan association may be purchased by minors or married women, and when so purchased the shares or share accounts are held for the exclusive right and benefit of the married woman or minor, free from the control or lien of all other persons, except creditors. The receipt or acquittance of a married woman, or minor [of the age of 14 or over,] is a valid and sufficient release and discharge of the association for any payment or delivery to that person on account of their shares or share accounts.
SEC. 9. Section 11203 of the Financial Code is amended to read:
11203. Whenever a person dies holding shares or share accounts of a federal savings and loan association as trustee or other fiduciary, in trust for a named beneficiary, and no written notice of the revocation or termination of the trust relationship has been given to the association, the repurchase value of the shares or share accounts, and dividends thereon, or other rights relating thereto, may be paid or delivered, in whole or in part, to the named beneficiary of such trust The payment or delivery to any beneficiary pursuant to this section, or a receipt or acquittance signed by such beneficiary for any payment or delivery, whether or not such person is a minor, is a valid and sufficient release and discharge of the association for the payment or delivery so made.

SEC. 10. Section 11204 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

11204. When shares or share accounts in a federal savings and loan association are issued in the name of two or more persons, whether minor or adult, as joint tenants or in form to be paid to [either] any of them or the survivors, the shares or share accounts are the property of those persons as joint tenants [, and the] . Such shares or share accounts, together with all dividends thereon, shall be held for the exclusive use of such joint tenants and may be paid to any of them, or to the survivor or any one of the survivors [upon] after the death of [any] one or more of them By written instructions of all such joint tenants given to the association, they may require the signatures of more than one of such persons during their lifetimes or of more than one of the survivors after the death of any one of them on any request for withdrawal, check endorsement or receipt, in which case the association shall pay withdrawals and dividends only in accordance with such instructions, but no such instructions shall limit the right of the sole survivor or of all of the survivors to receive withdrawal payments or dividends.

Payment as provided in the preceding paragraph and the receipt or acquittance of the person to whom [the] such payment is made is a valid and sufficient release and discharge of the association for the payment made on account of the shares or share accounts prior to the receipt by such association of a notice in writing from any one of them not to make payments in accordance with the terms of the shares or share accounts [.] or of such instructions After receipt of such notice an association may refuse, without liability, to pay withdrawals or dividends pending determination of the rights of the parties.

SEC. 11. Section 11205 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

11205 The purchase or acceptance of shares or share accounts of a federal savings and loan association in the name of two or more persons to be paid to either of them or the survivors is, in the absence of fraud or undue influence, conclusive evidence, in any action or proceeding to which either the association or the surviving share or share account holders are a party, of the intention of the share or share account holders to vest title to the shares or share accounts and payments made on account thereof and dividents [and interest] thereon in such survivors.

SEC. 12. Section 11208 is added to the Financial Code to read:

11208. Where an attachment is levied upon any shares or share accounts of federal savings and loan association or upon any debts owing by any such association, the copy of writ and notice shall be left with the manager or any other officer of such association at the office or branch thereof at which such shares or share accounts were issued or such debt incurred if such office or branch is still being maintained, and otherwise at the principal office of such association. An attachment which has not been served as provided in this section shall not be effective as to any share or share account issued by any such association or as to any debt owing by any such association if such share or account was issued or such debt incurred at an office or branch not so served.

SEC. 13. Section 11209 is added to the Financial Code to read:

11209 No attachment or execution shall be issued against such association or its property in any suit, action or proceeding arising out of the claim of any holder of shares or share accounts to withdraw before final judgment that such holder of shares or share accounts is presently entitled to payment of such withdrawal.

SEC. 14. Section 11210 is added to the Financial Code to read:

11210. A transfer or encumbrance of shares or share accounts issued by a federal savings and loan association shall not be effective as to such association until written notice of such transfer or encumbrance has been given to the office of the association at which such shares or share accounts were issued, or at which the account of such association as to such shares or share accounts is kept, or to the principal office of such association. Until such notice has been given, the association may conclusively presume that shares and share accounts have not been transferred or encumbered, and may, in the absence of such notice, make any and all payments or issue new shares or share accounts to or in the name or names of the person or persons in whose name or names its shares or share accounts are issued, whether or not such shares or share accounts are presented at the time of such payment or issuance, and the association shall have no responsibility to a transferee or lienholder with respect to any shares or share accounts, or parts thereof, so paid or reissued

SEC. 15. Section 11211 is added to the Financial Code to read:

11211. Notice to any federal savings and loan association of an adverse claim to shares or share accounts standing on its books to the credit of, or to personal property held for the account of, any person may be disregarded until and unless the adverse claimant shall (a) procure and serve upon the association at the office at which the account is carried or the property is held a restraining order, injunction or other appropriate order against the association from a court of competent jurisdiction in an action in which the adverse claimant and all persons in whose name such account stands or for whose account such property is held are parties, or (b) execute and deliver to the association at the office at which the account is carried or the property held a bond in form and with surety acceptable to it and in an amount fixed by the association, but which amount in no event need be more than twice the value of the shares or share accounts or more than twice the market value of the property against which the adverse claim is made, indemnifying it and also all persons in whose names such account stands or for whose account such property is held, against all liability, loss, damage, costs and expenses arising out of the refusal to permit withdrawal from such account or to pay dividends thereon or to deliver such property. Unless such restraining order, injunction or other appropriate order is obtained, or such bond is given, the association, notwithstanding such notice, may honor notices of intention to withdraw and may pay withdrawals and dividends to the person or persons to whose credit the account stands or may deliver such property to or upon the order of the person for whose account such property is held, without any liability on the part of the association. If an adverse claimant delivers to the association at the office at which the account is carried or the property held his affidavit stating that of his own knowledge the person to whose credit the account stands or for whose account the property is held is a fiduciary for the adverse claimant and that such fiduciary is about to misappropriate the account or the property and stating the facts upon which the claim of a fiduciary relationship is based, the association may refuse to pay withdrawals or dividends on the account or may refuse to deliver such property until the adverse claim is finally adjudicated or released, without liability on its part and without liability for the sufficiency or truth of the facts alleged in the affidavit. The provisions of this section shall be applicable even though the name of the person appearing on the association's books to whose credit the account stands or for whose account the property is held is modified by a qualifying or descriptive term such as "agent," "trustee" or other word or phrase indicating that such person may not be the owner in his own right of the account or property.

SEC. 16. Sections 8 to 15, inclusive, of this act become operative only if Division 2 of the Financial Code is enacted by the Legislature at its 1951 Regular Session, and in such case at the same time as said Division 2 takes effect, at which time Sections 2, 3, and 4 of the act cited in the title, as amended by this act, and Sections 5, 6, and 7 of said act, as added by this act are repealed."
