(Approved by Governor, July 10, 1959. Filed with Secretary of State, July 13, 1959. Chapter 1762.)

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 8 (commencing at Section 12930) is added to Part 6 of Division 6 of the Water Code, to read:

CHAPTER 8. WATER RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT BONDS

12930. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the California Water Resources Development Bond Act.

12931. The object of this chapter is to provide funds to assist in the construction of a State Water Resources Development System for the State of California. Said system shall be comprised of the State Water Facilities as defined in Section 12934(d) hereof and such additional facilities as may now or hereafter be authorized by the Legislature as a part of (1) the Central Valley Project or (2) the California Water Plan, and including such other additional facilities as the department deems necessary and desirable to meet local needs, including, but not restricted to, flood control, and to augment the supplies of water in the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta and for which funds are appropriated pursuant to this chapter. The enactment of this chapter shall not be construed as creating any right to water or the use thereof nor as affecting any existing legislation with respect to water or water rights, except as expressly provided herein, nor shall anything herein contained affect or be construed as affecting vested water rights. Any facilities heretofore or hereafter authorized as a part of the Central Valley Project or facilities which are acquired or constructed as a part of the State Water Resources Development System with funds made available hereunder shall be acquired, constructed, operated, and maintained pursuant to the provisions of the code governing the Central Valley Project, as said provisions may now or hereafter be amended. All references in this chapter to "herein" shall be deemed to refer both to this chapter and such law.

12933. There is hereby created a California Water Resources Development Finance Committee composed of the Governor, the State Treasurer, the State Controller, Director of Finance and Director of Water Resources, all of whom shall serve without compensation, and the majority of whom shall be empowered to act for said committee. All such revenues shall constitute a trust fund and are hereby pledged for the uses and purposes above set forth and such pledge shall inure to the direct benefit of the owners and holders of all general obligation bonds issued under this chapter. The department, subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Legislature, shall enter into contracts for the sale, delivery or use of water or power, or for other services and facilities, made available by the State Water Resources Development System with public or private corporations, entities, or individuals Such contracts shall not be impaired by subsequent acts of the Legislature during the time when any of the bonds authorized herein are outstanding and the State may sue and be sued with respect to said contracts. All moneys deposited in the fund are hereby appropriated to the department for expenditure and allocation by the department without regard to fiscal years for the State Water Facilities as herein defined and, to the extent provided in this Section 12938, for additions to the State Water Resources Development System. Of the total amount of the bonds authorized herein, one hundred thirty million dollars ($130,000,000) and no more shall be available exclusively for the provision of water development facilities for local areas as set forth in subdivision (d)(6) of Section 12934 Any money in the California Water Fund, and any surplus revenue as described in Section 12937(b)4, available for expenditure for the State Water Resources Development System shall be used for the construction of the State Water Facilities in lieu of the proceeds of bonds authorized by this chapter. Such additional facilities for local needs shall include those necessary to conserve or develop water which is tributary to the stream upon which any of the facilities of the State Water Resources Development System are constructed and it shall be the duty of the department to diligently plan such full development and submit plans and reports thereon to the Legislature. All moneys in the California Water Fund and all accruals thereto are hereby appropriated to the department for expenditure and allocation by the department without regard to fiscal years for the State Water Resources Development System as defined in Section 12931 except that in any fiscal year the Legislature may appropriate for any lawful purpose any money in the California Water Fund which is unexpended at the beginning of that fiscal year and any money accruing to that fund during the fiscal year

12939 Upon the written request of the board, supported by a statement of the expenditures made and to be made for the State Water Resources Development System, the committee shall determine whether or not it is necessary or desirable to issue any bonds authorized under this chapter in order to make such expenditures and, if so, the amount of bonds then to be issued and sold The committee and the board shall file with the Legislature detailed reports of all expenditures from the California Water Resources Development Bond Fund and the California Water Fund, setting forth descriptions of the purposes of all such expenditures Such reports shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of each regular legislative session and shall show schedules of expenditures and the dates on which additional water will be available for sale from principal termini of the State Water Resources Development System and the total amount then available for sale at these termini Successive issues of bonds may be authorized and sold to make such expenditures progressively and it shall not be necessary that all of the bonds herein authorized to be issued shall be sold at any one time.

12940 If any resolution determining that the sale of all or any part of the bonds herein authorized is necessary or desirable, the committee may in its discretion provide for the interexchange of bonds of different denominations, which may be in any multiple of one thousand dollars ($1,000), the issuance of bonds of different denominations in lieu of or in exchange for bonds of a like aggregate principal amount but of different denominations, the issuance of registered bonds in such denominations as may be specified by the committee and the exchange of such registered bonds for coupon bonds of a like aggregate principal amount but of different denominations. The committee may also provide for the authentication of any bonds by the State Controller or by any deputy state controller If authentication is so required, no bond authorized hereunder shall be valid unless so authenticated in the manner so required

12941 In computing the net interest cost under Section 16754 of the Government Code, the committee may determine that interest shall be computed either from the date of sale or from the date of the bonds or from the last preceding interest payment date to the respective maturity dates of the bonds then offered for sale at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, such computation to be made on a 360-day year basis, and the committee shall make appropriate provision therefor in the form of notice of sale of the bonds

12942. PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Brown, the following prayer was offered by Rev. William James Hunt, Pastor of Kyles Temple, A.M E. Zion Church, Sacramento, California

Our Father, We thank Thee for the privilege of living and for the right to share in the making of our own lives We know that the good life does not come for the asking; but that we have the special right, as men, to participate in the making of our own salvation.

We are especially grateful for this right, because it is the handle by which we can lift ourselves—even in days as trying and difficult as these Help us, therefore, to find in this God-given privilege the strength that we need to live through the storms and the floods that break in upon us—every day.

We thank Thee for great men; men who have stood tall in history; men, like Abe Lincoln, who have helped to push us forward; men who have found the strength to lift us up. We thank Thee for all who have been great in public service.

May the spirit of Christ abide with us, as we face up to the problems of today. Help us to see that we cannot do our jobs aright unless the picture of the wholeness of life is larger than the picture of self. In the Name of Jesus Christ, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of the Speaker, the following prayer was offered by Rabbi William Fertig of the Mosaic Law Congregation of Sacramento:

O God, Our Father, We seek Thy guidance and inspiration as we assemble this morning As Members of this great legislature, we are charged with responsibilities of vision, insight and understanding.

As each problem is pondered and each issue examined, we pray that our decisions be just and beneficial to our State and its citizens.

We are grateful to participate in the development and progress of our beloved California As our State continues to grow in numbers, so, too, may our people grow in spiritual vitality, ethical sensitivity and a quest for harmonious living.

Even as Scripture states "and the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the seas," so, too, may His spirit permeate our lives and our communities.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of the Speaker, the following prayer was offered by Dr. Theophilus Taylor, Presbyterian National Moderator:

Lord God of Our Fathers, Who dost hold in Thy hands the destinies of men and nations, grant, we beseech Thee, that this Assembly of those whom the people of this State of California have elected to represent the best interests of this State and Nation, and to legislate the laws necessary thereto, may be so directed of Thy Spirit, as to conduct the affairs of government this day in a manner pleasing to Thee. Do

Thou keep ever brightly before them those principles of our founding fathers which have made our Nation strong, sanctity of life, worth of the individual, equality of opportunity for all regardless of race or creed, government of the people, for the people, and by the people, and full recognition that we are a "nation under God." Uphold and encourage these servants of the people in all things right, and just, and true. Teach Thou them "to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with" Thee. Bestow upon them true concern for the downtrodden and unfortunate among men. Then at this day's end, O Heavenly Father, put within their hearts that peace and satisfaction which comes from unselfish service of their fellow men, and from knowledge of a task well done.—AMEN.

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Infinite God, Set our minds on things distant and profound—that the goal of a noble society may never get lost in lesser matters such as how fast shall we travel on our highways, or how shall we prevent collisions in midair. Important as these things are, it is more essential, Our Father, to know our destination. We dare to pray that those who live in this State 100 years from now will look back with gratitude to the 1959 Legislature. Make us to be courageous architects of a better way of life, for we pray in the name of One who set in men's minds an eternal dream of a kingdom of heaven here on earth and near at hand.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Merciful God, Make the opening prayer each day to be a time of personal dedication for each Assembly Member and state employee. We would all speak to Thee on this day in words once written in a letter by a son to his mother:

"I would be true, for there are those who trust me;
I would be pure, for there are those who care;
I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;
I would be brave, for there is much to dare.

I would be friend of all, the foe, the friendless;
I would be giving, and forget the gift;
I would be humble, for I know my weakness;
I would look up, and laugh, and love, and lift"—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

O God and Father of Mankind, As Thou hast led us to opposing points of view, resolve our differences, beginning within each one of us. Reserving the right to think for ourselves, let us give to others the same right, without ascribing error, if they differ from us Without knowledge in their specialties, let us be patient with those who do not know things that we know. Opinionated ourselves, give us respect for the opinions of others; partisan, help us to appreciate a party different from our own; forgetful, help us to bear cheerfully with this same failing in others; impatient, let us run with patience the race that is set before us. As those who frequently trespass, we make our prayer in the name of Him who bade us pray for those who trespass against us—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Most Gracious God, We pray for one of life's rarest blessings, a sense of humor, greatly to be desired in this Assembly and wherever men work and live. Reveal to us the similarity of humor and faith, humor dealing with surface incongruities and surprises, faith dealing with deep variances and uncertainties. If the deep center of life is tragic and unsound, then we may not smile, for there are some things too serious and sad to smile about. Grant to us, O God, such faith as will provide a sound base for an undiscourageable good humor, else life is bereft of joy. Give us understanding of a word reputedly spoken by a son of Ireland, "Now abideth faith, hope, love, these three, and the greatest of these is a sense of humor."—AMEN.

PRAYER

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

What does it mean, O Lord God, That Thou hast matched us with this hour of the world's life? Surely there is some great thing which we should attempt, some cause to which we should give ourselves. Challenge us to move toward greatness that has seemed just out of our reach.

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints in the sands of time."

Enable us to see that the depths of our footprints in the sands of history will be determined by the weight of the cross which we bear. We pray in the name of One who bore His cross for our sakes, and calls, "Come, follow Me"—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Great God,

"Give me wide walls to build my House of Life
The North shall be of Love, against the winds of fate;
The South of Tolerance, that I may outreach hate;
The East of Faith, that rises clear and new each day;
The West of Hope, that even dies a glorious way.
The threshold 'neath my feet shall be Humility;
The roof—the very sky itself—Infinity.
Give me wide walls to build my House of Life!"

And so may my life and the life of every lawmaker be good enough and great enough to be used in building a more perfect structure of law and order in this State.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Almighty and Eternal God. The work of this Assembly moves inexorably to the place where deliberation must lead to decision and conviction will sorely test co-operation When issues become sharpened and emotions deeply stirred, we will need Thee, O God, all the more. In all our doings let us put service above self, justice above personal triumph, idealism above personal gain. There was one who set us all an example when he said, "Here I stand, God help me, I can do no other." So may we stand, humbly, but firmly, always for the right as we see it, standing over against other men, good men and true, if we must so stand.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Great and Merciful God, Since it is not given us to see ourselves as others see us, deliver us from undue dread of what they may see when they look our way. Since the labor of this Assembly requires that we work closely together, make us to be cheerful when it is difficult to be cheerful, and patient when it is difficult to be patient. Enable us to push on when we want to stand still, to keep silent when we want to talk, and to be agreeable when we really want to be disagreeable. Give to us a courtesy born of a knowledge that every person fights a battle to keep rested, and to keep his spirits high. We pray to Thee, Our Father, who dost alone see us as we really are, and hast promised to forgive all.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Brown, the following prayer was offered by Rev. Robert S. Romeis, Pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church of Sacramento, a former Chaplain of the Assembly:

Almighty and Everlasting God, Remind us on this day—Friday the 13th—that the true issues of life are not decided by luck or by ill-luck, but rather by the choices which we human beings make day by day. Purge our souls of selfishness, cleanse our hearts of pride, sweep from our minds the cobwebs of shallow thought and hasty judgment. Enable us, O Father, to make choices that are right in Thy sight, that are comfortable to our consciences, that will stand the strictest test of sincerity and truth. Help us so to do Thy will, O Lord, that this day will be a good day, a lucky day for the people of California, a prelude to a better tomorrow and a finer future; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

O God, Thou who dost call some men to special leadership, guide and sustain the President of the United States and the Governor of California. In like manner, we would pray for leaders with whom we work each day: the Speaker of this Assembly, the Speaker pro Tempore, and all committee chairmen. In loyal support, let there be no tinge of envy, no subtle attempt to correct or discipline, no feeling of superiority, no stalling which drops to the level of obstructionism. Working together constructively, may every legislator be glad to note the effort of every other We pray in the name of the greatest leader of men the world has known, of whom it was said, "Never man spake as this Man."—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

As we pray today, we quote from the West Point Cadet Prayer:

"O God, our Father... Strengthen and increase our admiration for honest dealing and clean thinking... Make us to choose the harder right instead of the easier wrong, and never to be content with a half truth when the whole can be won. Endow us with courage that is born of loyalty to all that is noble and worthy, that scorns compromise with vice and injustice and knows no fear when truth and right are in jeopardy. Guard us against flippancy and irreverence in the sacred things of life... May we find genuine pleasure in clean and wholesome mirth and feel inherent disgust for all coarse-minded humor. Help us, in our work and in our play, to keep ourselves physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.—AMEN."

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

God of Wisdom, God of Love, We lift up to Thee important issues which are never simple, for they are surrounded by various kinds of values. Bills seldom seem to be perfect, for they reveal the limitations of their authors and the imperfect society out of which they come. There are always two sides to every question, and sometimes three, or more. The matters before this Assembly run the wide gamut of our complex public life. Who is wise enough for all these things? We pray for Thy wisdom, all-wise and loving Father, that the decisions made may prove to be right, and wiser than we know. Thy Wisdom and Will, not ours, be done on earth as it is in heaven.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Almighty God, Who didst send Thy Son to ride in majesty into Jerusalem, let Him enter our cities, take captive our homes, and command the hearts of all assembled here. Cleanse our temples, after His example, and if our cities still call forth His tears, and the affairs of state are such that He would weep over them, correct and purify our public life May these days of Holy Week, our Father, be a special season of prayer and yielding to Thy will and purpose as revealed so clearly in the compassionate and steadfast Son of Man and Servant of all —AMEN.

Upon invitation of Speaker Brown, the following prayer was offered by Rev. Parthenios Kirmitsis, Pastor of the Greek Orthodox Church of Sacramento, on the occasion of the 138th Anniversary of the Independence of Greece:

Almighty God, the Father of All Mankind and the Judge of All Nations, We are Thy children and we come to Thee bringing our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving Thou hast made us, and Thy love is the light of our life and Thy grace the strength of our hearts We believe in Thy presence at this moment in the midst of us and we pray Thee to accept this our prayer and praise.

We praise Thee for the blessings which Thou has given us and to our Nation, and especially for Thy gifts of justice, freedom and democracy.

Give us grace that amidst all our worldly cares and occupations we may never forget Thee, but remember that, wherever Thou art there is always freedom and goodness

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Our Heavenly Father. As we commemorate today the first assembly of Christ and His disciples in an upper room, this Assembly room, too, becomes a place where men are held together by important business, the changing of a part of the world. Since no divisive forces in history have been able to destroy the essential unity of Christ and His followers, we venture to pray for unyielding unity among lawmakers in this Legislature that, sharing one far purpose, and welded together by the spirit of service, men may stand shoulder to shoulder, transcending sectionalism and party lines, knowing themselves to be leaders of a great State, citizens of a still greater Nation, part of a world community, members of the human race, children of the Most High God —AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Brown, the following prayer was offered by Rev. J. Wesley Pierson, Pastor of the Sierra Arden Community Church:

God, our Father, We give thanks for Thy great love for men of every race and nation and we pray that such love may be ours. Give us wisdom to understand people with whom we disagree and insight to perceive the human flaws in our own judgments. As we share the privilege of representing our fellow citizens, may we be worthy of such trust. Lift us above pettiness and self interest when great issues are at stake. May our deliberations always reflect a profound concern for what is right for our people.

Teach us to work together so that our State and Nation may demonstrate to the world our desire for a brotherhood of mankind living under the Fatherhood of God.—AMEN.

As we love mercy, let our public programs go beyond welfare, detention, and punishment, extending to rehabilitation and reclamation, restoring men to worthy places in our society Since we cannot do these things in our own strength, make us willing to seek Thy help and ready to walk humbly with Thee, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Great and Beneficent God. A vivid portrayal of Kern County reminded many of us last evening of the goodness and abundance of our entire State. We confess we sometimes forget to be vibrantly grateful We thank Thee, O God, for a way of life, for noble traditions and high ideals, for civil and religious liberty, and for all good gifts of the past committed to our charge. Let us share in the faith of James Russell Lowell.

"Our country hath a gospel of her own
To preach and practice before all the world—
The freedom and divinity of man,
The glorious claims of human brotherhood—
And the soul's fealty to none but God."—AMEN.

Gracious God and Father, Thou dost bring us to the threshold of another week's work, refreshed by a weekend with family, neighbors, and worship in churches of our own choosing. Make us glad for the privilege of our labor and may our gratitude be so expressed that:

In the home, it is kindness;
In business, it is honesty;
In society, it is courtesy;

In work, it is thoroughness;
In play, it is fairness;
Toward the fortunate, it is congratulation;
Toward the unfortunate, it is sympathy;
Toward the weak, it is help;
Toward the wicked, it is resistance;
Toward the strong, it is trust;
Toward the penitent, it is forgiveness;
And toward Thee, O God, it is reverence and love.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R Wilbur Simmons:

O Father God, Make our minds to be intent on great ideas. Give us the thrill and the enlargement that are to be found in keeping pace with the great minds of the ages Save us from easy contentment with small thoughts which cost little and whose rewards are slight. Stir within us some flaming passion for truth, justice, and right. Give us the courage to follow in the tradition of George Washington when he said.

> "Let us raise a standard to which the wise and honest can repair. The event is in the hand of God."

We pray for no less noble an effort in this Assembly, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Almighty and Most Merciful Father. We have erred, and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare Thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore Thou those who are penitent; according to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus, our Lord. And grant, O Most Merciful Father, for His sake; that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of Thy Holy Name.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Create in us clean hearts, O God, and renew right spirits within us. Like men of old, we need thus to pray, for our spirits become frayed, especially on the days in this Assembly when great issues arise and hard decisions must be made In the midst of honest differences let there be more light than heat, more firmness than stubbornness, and rather than hard words, more soft answers which turn away wrath. Let each day's debate belong to the day that is gone, and with each new day let us come to our labors with rested bodies and minds, with no rancor remaining. We pray in the name of our Most Gracious Lord and Master.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

All-wise God, Our Father. We pray for a long, objective look at our beloved State of California. Enable us to see the areas of need as Thou dost see them, masses of humanity in the skid rows of our cities at whose expense the great cheap food supply seems to be in part provided, a society which produces too many criminals, juvenile and adult; a great increasing population in our mental institutions; a tragic divorce rate, too many children for existing school facilities and faculties; public welfare loads which ought not to have to exist; thirsty and potentially productive acres waiting for water We pray humbly for wisdom to meet the needs in this moment of eternity —AMEN

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Almighty God, Days turn into weeks and weeks into months, and in these legislative halls it will be easy to become weary in well-doing. Amendments pointing to essential change may seem less imperative; the fine line of discriminating thought may be harder to achieve; the party line may be too easy to follow; the "Daily File" may not seem too interesting or important on a given day; the fight for the right as we see it may seem to be just not worth the effort. We find in ourselves, O God, an instinct to finish the course; we would keep the faith a day at a time; finally, we would be able to say, "I have finished the work Thou gavest me to do."—AMEN.

Most Gracious God, Thou who seest our intentions as well as our actions, and hearest the longing of our hearts as well as our words, strengthen the fiber of our wills so that we need not be ashamed when our thoughts stand revealed and our work is made known. Give us that clarity of mind which can hold an image of truth

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Most Gracious God, Our Father, We cannot begin another week in any better way than to pray. Family and friends have helped to restore our spirits, and now, O God, we are ready for the most important week of our lives We have never brought so much experience to any other week All of our past life has been preparation for this moment The issues are great, demanding our undivided attention; pressure groups, party policies, and clamoring constituents, notwithstanding May we work in the strong conviction that it is better to be right than to be Assemblyman, and that, while we may be expendable, right principles can never be dispensed with.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Help us, O God, "It just won't come right." We have often said so, seeking words to match our thoughts. So it is, even with this prayer. So it is with the first draft of bills, with amendments, and yet the laws are not all that we would like them to be "It just won't come right," we have said looking at the affairs of State, Nation, and the world Remind us, our Father, that as Thy spirit strives to make our lives and hearts more perfect, that even Thou dost find that "It just won't come right." That explains so much. God, help us, each one, to become right within.—AMEN.

PRAYER

We thank Thee, O God, for the privilege given to this Assembly to make decisions on issues of far-reaching import. We believe, our Father, that good laws can only be achieved by strong and courageous lawmakers; men who are not concerned with whether their position is popular; men who keep no weather eye out for personal advantage or advancement; men who, above all else, take counsel with their own consciences and seek to enact God's laws in human society. O God, send us such men and leaders to shape our future.—AMEN

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Almighty and Eternal God, If in jest we suggest that looking at the men of this Assembly, we ought to be moved in sympathy to pray for the people of the State, let us in dead earnestness, as we look at the people, be moved to pray for their elected representatives So much is expected; so many and strange demands are made. How can one man represent diverse elements, or be responsible for opposing interests, or agree to demands for which there is no money? Give to those who are thus called to do the impossible, spiritual graces unlimited and unending, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Great and Good God, Let no one consider himself good merely on the basis of things he does not do, for that is only to be good for nothing. To be good for something, on the basis of deeds done, that is our prayer today. Grant us a goodness which breaks out into kindness; a courage which scorns the risk of criticism; a faithfulness to duty which enables us to be effective. Make us to be salty characters, something like those whom Jesus described as "the salt of the earth," and let there be such light in the lives of those assembled here that we may merit His further word, "Ye are the light of the world."—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

All-wise God, Our Father, We do not know what another week will bring forth, what tests will be made upon our wisdom and patience. We pray only that we may be guided; and when guidance comes that we may recognize it, and accept it, and not be surprised that we had not already thought of it; for Thy ways are not our ways and Thy thoughts are not our thoughts. Make us attentive to all the thoughts about us, for we never can predict the voice in which Thou wilt speak, and it may be where we least expect it. Speak, Lord, for Thy servants in this Assembly would hear Thy voice.—AMEN.

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

O God, Give to this Assembly an ideal of public service which is as broad as the needs of all California citizens. When the day-by-day routine settles down to a test of private perseverance and endurance, keep our eyes on the stars, and our feet on the ground of practical affairs, and may we find Thee, O God, in both places. Let nothing ever shatter the high purposes which we bring to the work of this Assembly. Even though our ideas do not prevail, and we sometimes feel helpless and frustrated, comfort us with the knowledge that no good effort is ever without some good effect, and that it is better to fail in a cause which must ultimately win, than to succeed in a program which is doomed to ultimate failure. Thy will be done, O God, now or later.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Almighty and Gracious God, We pause to ask, what good are we doing here in this Assembly? Those who have left their mark on history have been, for the most part, those who have sought to lift the common man, whom Thou, O God, must love, having made so many. Help us not to be impatient that so much time and effort seem to be concerned with various needy segments of our society; enable us to see that here is our burden and our privilege, our chance to lift some load and carry more than our own weight. Make us honest enough not to pretend to love Thee whom we have not seen, if we love not these, our needy brethren, whom we have seen.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Almighty God, Source of All Being, Thou hast not created our world, set it spinning, and gone off and forgotten it. As we remember that, our labors in this Assembly take on a new dimension, for we know that a power greater than man is moving in the direction of a more perfect order. There is always a chance that Thou wilt include some word or thought of ours as Thou dost shape eternity. We may not see the connection, but we may believe it is there, if we have opened our hearts to the prompting of Thy Holy Spirit. Use us, in Thy divine plan, we humbly pray.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

God of our changing years, In a day when many scientific creations are obsolete before they are off the drawing boards, and when new laws and regulations are constantly required to keep pace with industry and changing customs, we thank Thee for moral principles and spiritual laws which change not. Help us to see, however, that new conditions make new applications of Christian truth imperative. Make clear to each of us that change and growth are the laws of our spiritual lives, especially, our Father, to so many of us whose religious training, for the most part, stopped with childhood. Keep us growing, changing, ever praying.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R Wilbur Simmons:

God of our Founding Fathers, If, in meeting deadlines, or for other reasons, we are ever inclined to neglect prayer, remind us that during a crisis in the Constitutional Convention Benjamin Franklin spoke these words: "We have been assured, sir, in the sacred writings, that except the Lord build a house they labor in vain that build it. I firmly believe this; and I also believe that without His concurring aid we shall succeed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel I therefore beg leave to move that henceforth prayers asking the assistance of heaven and its blessings on our deliberations be held in this Assembly every morning before we proceed to business."

Give to us in 1959 that same sense of the necessity and the power of prayer. —AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Gracious God, We would see all of life, and see it whole We confess that for the sake of comfort and clarity we have too often divided life into compartments, separating religion from politics, and humanitarianism from economic practice. We have occasionally relegated religion to one day in seven, and have sometimes seemed to feel that tenderness is weakness except in the area of the home and family Enable us to see that there is no spot in society where love and truth are not needed, and that there is no compartment in our own lives which is immune, and that the darker the corner, the greater is the need for Thy light and love.—Amen

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Ever-present God, We seek immediate attention to our prayer for we think we can afford only a few moments, and, please, God, answer our prayer instantly. If you have any word of guidance for us, speak promptly, but, please, God, do not expect promptness from us. Carelessly some of us waste the time of others who must wait in committee and on Assembly floor while we get ourselves organized. You know our excuses: the telephone, an office visitor, we just couldn't make it on time. We mean we could have, but did not. Forgive our self-deception and our lack of courtesy to others Help us, O God, to be present and ready for every duty, and thank you, God, for your prompt attention.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R Wilbur Simmons:

We Thank Thee, God, for the privilege of praying in this Assembly, which, when mentioned, usually brings from the public the quick reaction, "they need it." Can it be, Our Father, that our work is so important that we do greatly need the power of prayer? Does the public really have a sense of the pressures under which legislators work: importunate lobbyists, anxious and critical constituents, worthy opponents, rest and sleep in short supply? Sustain these lawmakers, we pray Thee, our Father, through weary days, for just laws are hard to produce, and it is difficult to be fair to all concerned. Hear our prayer for these Thy good and faithful public servants.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Brown, the following prayer was offered by Rev. Hartzell Cobbs, Pastor of the First Christian Church of Modesto:

Dear God, Our Father, We thank Thee for every opportunity that life affords to us. At this time we thank Thee for self-government, and we ask that these who have been entrusted with their great responsibility will see the importance of time, that they shall never forget that people count, and that integrity in life is the only way for good government. Bless this day to each of us. May at the close we may be able to say "it has been good to live." Through Christ, AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Almighty God, Give to every man a progressive list of loyalties: first, to himself, and he cannot then be false to any man; then to his family, as given to him for economic support and loving care; to his electorate, more than to the people of another district; to his section of the State, if the State be divided into sections with differing interests; to his State, above any other; to his Nation, more than any other, even the "old country"; to groups of nations, united in support of freedom and democracy; to the people of this planet, more than any other planet, as yet. Grant that such loyalties may never conflict with each other, for we are increasingly one community, one family under Thee, O God.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Eternal God, Whose creation continues in our labors, direct us to solutions to great problems such as taxation and water development to which we will give assent, though never completely satisfied. We pray that history may deal gently with the decisions that are made, that the doors of opportunity may be kept open, and that all good and essential things may be achieved for the greatest possible number of people. May incentive for personal effort be provided for every human being, and may industry and agriculture be so encouraged that research, experiment, and new capital outlay will continue to bring new blessings to all our people. We pray in the spirit of Jesus Christ, our Lord.—AMEN.

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

O God, Thou who dost see in secret, surely Thou dost know who does the work behind the public scenes. We pray, today, for those in office and home, and all legislative aides, whose loyal efforts add greatly to the comfort, convenience, and effectiveness of lawmakers. The spotlight of public attention, favorable or unfavorable, does not break for them the possible monotony of days, which have now become cluttered and crowded. The end of the session is in sight, but we cannot see the end of the work to be done. We pray, our Father, for a spirit of teamwork, kindness and consideration on every hand, and a deep conviction of the value of our labors, begun, continued, and ended with Thee.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Brown, the following prayer was offered by the Hon. Richard T. Hanna, Member of the Assembly from the Seventy-fifth District:

Our Heavenly Father, We Thy children, gather within this Assembly Hall upon a new day to turn our efforts again to the business of government for the people of California. We come to our tasks as Thou hast made us—in Thy image and with a spark of the divine. We are mindful Thou hast told us—that as man is, God once was; and as God is, man may become; and because of these things, we aspire to and seek perfection. Yet we are made mortal, in and of a mortal world that is too much with us, late and soon; and, because of these things, we are prone to error and destined to imperfection

Lord, we ask this day Thy divine guidance and inspiration so that all of us may rise a little higher towards our aspirations.

We seek also to share one with another the help and sustaining power of our different strengths; our diverse talents and our divided skills, to the end that none of us fall too far into error.

May this day's work be worthy of the day, we pray, in the Name of Jesus Christ.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

We Praise Thee, O God, For Assemblymen who, working together these many weeks, have revealed qualities essential to the making of good laws: for forthrightness and industry, for concern about the opinions of others and a capacity to stand alone, for willingness to follow and ability to lead, for shining integrity and for warmth of friendliness. Is there a man who has not felt himself to be used by ulterior forces, sometimes abused, forsaken, betrayed, misrepresented, let down by those expected to stand by? Lift up our hearts, we pray Thee, and remind us that minorities have wrought the great changes of history, and that Thou canst use all who are willing to seek and do Thy will.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

O God, Deliver us from physical weariness, emotional exhaustion, mental tiredness. In the midst of the demands of this day make our minds to be hosts to ideas that are truly important and significant; let us give audience to those who have something of value to say to us; make us too busy to give attention to trivial matters. Endow us with the memory of the wisdom of the past, imagination enough to visualize the results of contemplated action, and conscience to distinguish between truth and error. May all these powers of ours be renewed in daily dedication to public service and to Thee, O God, to whom we are ultimately responsible.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Our Father, God, If ever we have wondered why we got involved in lawmaking challenge our mood with the wisdom of these words: "This is the true joy of life, the being used for a purpose recognized by yourself as a mighty one; the being thoroughly worn out before you are thrown on the scrapheap; the being a force of Nature instead of a feverish, selfish little clod of ailments and grievances complaining that the world will not devote itself to making you happy." *

Enable us to be not merely a force of Nature, but a power for good, a power for Thee, O God.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

God and Father of us all, We are assembled as those who bear responsibility for the public, for all the public, with whom we would be identified in the spirit of words once expressed by a great-hearted man:

"While there is a lower class, I am in it,
While there is a criminal element, I am of it,
While there is a soul in jail, I am not free."

May it be said of us, as it was once spoken of the poet Whittier, that his chief glory was "not that he could speak inspired words, but that he spoke them for the despised, the helpless, and the dumb, for those too ignorant to honor him, too poor to reward him." We make our prayer in the name of the compassionate Christ—AMEN

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Almighty and Most Merciful God, Why do we take this time for prayer? It is doubtless good to be quiet for a moment, but not worthwhile, actually, unless we sense Thy holy presence here. And, if for the moment, why not the whole day through? Is it not good to be reminded that because a man has religion, the way he votes may be influenced thereby? Is it not encouraging, Our Father, to hear it suggested that conscience should be our guide, provided the conscience be trained and kept sensitive to truth and right? O God, we pray Thee, take Thy rightful place in every single thing we think and say and do this day.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

God Our Father, Be in this day and in the fleeting hours of its passing; be in our awareness that after this week only three more weeks remain in this legislative session; be in our honest appraisal of work remaining to be done. Be in our personal acceptance of responsibility for the things to which we have aspired and failed, that we blame not the political party to which we do not belong, or the Senate across the hall, or pressure from outside forces. Be in our firm purpose to serve our State in the remaining days of this Assembly. God, be in our expression of loyalty to our Nation, now in mourning for a great public servant, John Foster Dulles, as we pledge allegiance to our Country's Flag.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

O God, Ruler of Creation, Rule firmly in the hearts of all lawmakers. We have seen nations destroyed for want of authority, or perish when evil forces took control; we have seen multitudes abandoning themselves to whatever authority would claim and protect them, for they had no center of authority within themselves. Make us to be men who can live without external authority, which on one hand relieves of responsibility and on the other hand provides a ready defense against change to a better way. Grant, O God, that the true center and government of our world, as of ourselves, may be in Jesus Christ, of whom it was once said, "He taught them as one who had authority."—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Gracious God, We begin to see the mixed harvest of our labors in this Assembly. Some things will be changed; confirm our hope in their efficacy. Other changes will not be made; in these grant us graceful acceptance. Help us to sort out the wheat from the chaff, and so to plant the wheat that we shall be gladdened by the hope of another harvest in some future legislative season. The last word has not been spoken. There will be another day and still another. We do not suggest that every action has been completely wise but we do pray that the foundations laid may support the future, and that we may be found serving our generation and Thine eternal purposes.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

O God, If it is better to be practical and direct in daily living, is it not also wiser to pray about specific things? So, today, we pray for traffic safety, especially on Memorial Day weekend. Some of us will not soon forget the faces of five young nurses, recent highway victims. We are moved, O God, to quit praying and start fighting, fighting against the real causes of such tragedy Show us the way to make our roads safer, the answer to human weakness which seeks escape in alcohol, and the method of dealing with the uncertain ego which must bolster itself by speed. Help us in these things, Our Father, and we will praise Thee forever—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons.

Lord God of Hosts, Be with us yet, lest we forget, lest we forget!

Thou hast moved us on this Memorial Day weekend to take note of "the rock from which we are hewn" and to pay tribute to those who have given life itself for the good world in which we live. Save us from any easy sentiment which becomes a poor substitute for doing our part in preserving liberties, hallowed by their sacrifice. How can we keep faith with them? Give us the same stern devotion to our present duty; the same bravery in this Assembly, where bravery and steadfastness are truly needed; the same willingness to make any sacrifice for truth and right; and so may we "follow in their train."—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Gracious and Eternal God, Less than three weeks remain; weeks which will demand some of the most careful thinking of this Legislative session, for there will be numerous adjustments between Senate and Assembly, and the import of every proposed change must be thoroughly understood. To the cumulative pressures already existing there is added still another, the pressure of time itself. We pray earnestly that all vital and important things may get done and that in no way will the people of the State suffer by any omission of this Assembly. Give us poise for a feeling of panic; deliver us from haste which makes waste; spare us the friction which creates only heat; and save us from uncontrolled words which were better unspoken. Give us strength which is greater than our own.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

Almighty God, As Thou hast revealed Thyself in Holy Writ, we read: "Then stood up * * * Gamaliel," one man standing for justice in the face of angry opposition What do we stand for, and why? Are we nudged to our feet by some powerful interest group? When the press reports, as it so often does, that a certain lobby was just too strong, what does that say about the men who are thereby imputed to be just too weak? Gamaliel stood, straight and tall, and said: "If this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to naught; but if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God." Spare us that, we humbly pray.—AMEN

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. R. Wilbur Simmons:

We thank Thee, O God, for the light that comes when we put heart and soul into work which contributes to the welfare of others. Otherwise we could not bear the strain of days and nights. The Psalmist said, "Man goes forth to his work and to his labor until the evening." Help us through long days and evenings of Assembly responsibilities with the same conviction expressed by George Washington Carver, great Negro scientist and benefactor of mankind, when he said, "When I go into my laboratory, I go with God." We pray not, Our Father, that Thou go with us, but merely that we go with Thee.—AMEN.

Ever-present and Loving Father, Keep us working with the same zest with which we began the labors of this Assembly. Inspire us to our noblest service; deepen the resources upon which we call; and strengthen the fellowship in which we work, so that truly the right man may have been in the right place at the right time; meriting the trust placed in him by his fellow citizens, and by his God, whose strength is equal to any event, even the service to which we are called this day.—AMEN.
