PRAYER

Upon invitation of the Chief Clerk, the following prayer was offered by Rev. Jean Shaw-Connelly, Presbyterian Minister:

Amazing One

In this room is a new spirit.
Mark us, sear us, scar us with this new beginning.
Let this be the day we remember.
Let this be the day for which we are remembered as beginning a new course of governing.

Give these lawmakers the new clarity to realize that "The World" is not contained solely in this building—and the most important world is the world of their families.

Give the families that support and surround these women and men the courage to understand the sacrifice and schedules that know no weekend.

Instill in the Legislators who are returning
A rekindling of excitement
A renewal of honor
A reminder of the Faith

That we as citizens place on their shoulders.

Grace the men and women who join this body today with
The investment of humility
The integrity of conscience and courage to confront that first voice of temptation.

Remind us that whatever party brought us here today we were all once children and still are—of a God who loves us, loves us, loves us and calls us Her own.

Upon invitation of the Chief Clerk, Senior Member-elect and Dean of the Assembly, Willie L. Brown, Jr., then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

SAM FARR, Assembly Member
Twenty-seventh District

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 3580

December 7, 1992

E. Dotson Wilson, Chief Clerk
California State Assembly
State Capitol
Sacramento, California

Dear Dotson: This letter is to clarify that my intent in authoring AB 3580 (Chapter 1281 of 1992) was that the bill repeal and reenact Vehicle Code Section 23157.

In an attempt to avoid chaptering out one or more other bills, amendments were taken to my bill which erroneously added the section without repealing the existing section. While judicial construction would find the more recent section controlling, I provide this letter in clarification of my intent. Clean-up legislation will be pursued to correct this error.

Sincerely,

SAM FARR, Assembly Member
Twenty-seventh District

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell.

Eternal God, Whose Love and Concern Cannot Be Contained in Calendar, Clock or Time, but Is Evident Throughout Eternity, Be near to this Assembly. Bless these who are elected for the high purpose of serving the people of California. Without You, O God, Your care and grace, all of their efforts here are like ships which are rigged but cannot sail. Without Your truth, all labor here is in vain. Brood over this Assembly on this first day of new session. Bind all their efforts together, that they may become a working force for good in the lives of so many, Your people. As You have brought them from many districts, from North, South, East and West of this state, as You have brought to these desks, men and women of many skills, gifts and graces, blend them together to do so great this work. Help them, that their eyes may see and their ears may hear signs and cries of the world state and clime. As we move forth into and beyond this day, be their guide and stay. We hold up to You, O Lord, Speaker Willie L. Brown who is in the throes of loss and grief because of the death of his mother. We ask You to sustain him and keep him and he may return in peace and satisfaction.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell.

Eternal God, How challenging it is to be at these desks, a part of the legislative working of the State of California. We ask You to make us truly aware of the privileges we share and the serious responsibilities with which we are entrusted. You have permitted us to be in these high offices aware that the state awaits on us to make the process work.

Grant us therefore, O Lord, wisdom and understanding above the common display and a sensitivity to life in our time as it unfolds and change as it evolves faster each day.

Save us from ourselves and our fears which blind, that we may be more serious and honest as we face urgencies and alarming issues which abound. Cause us not to forget any who are afflicted, the homeless widow, the orphan child, the poor and innocent, the victims of plenty but have no way. Be near to us, Lord, in all we do, that what we do will make dangers recede and opportunities abound. In the name of all those who seek peace and the greening of the future.—AMEN.

GOVERNOR'S ADDRESS PRINTED IN JOURNAL

Without objection, Speaker pro Tempore O'Connell ordered the Governor's State of the State address printed in the Journal:

GOVERNOR'S STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS

The following is the text of Governor Pete Wilson's State of the State address:

"Setting the Stage for a California Comeback"

Lt. Gov. McCarthy, Mr. Speaker pro Tempore, Mr. President pro Tempore, Constitutional Officers, Members of the Legislature, thank you and Happy New Year . . .

I include in my greeting and new year's wish our friend, the distinguished Speaker of the Assembly. He's not with us today because of the death of his beloved mother, Mrs. Minnie Collins Boyd. Willie, you have our deepest sympathies. We know you made your mother proud.

The Speaker will return to a new Legislature facing an old challenge—to turn this state around.

California needs our leadership as never before . . . because California is in crisis. We have lost 800,000 jobs. At least one in ten Californians is out of work.

As a result, state government lacks the revenues and cannot pay . . . can not pay . . . for all the increased services we are asked to provide.

Economists say America's recession is ending.

But we know better. We know that Californians are still losing their jobs, or live in fear of losing their jobs. The end of recession will come not just when we start to create more jobs than we lose. The recession will end only when people can once again feel secure and confident about the future.

There's no time to waste. There's no time for politics as usual. There's no time for partisan fingerpointing, and no time for self-pity.

You and I have little time to make a difference for California. Let's get the job done. But let's begin by showing the world all that is right and good about California . . .

What kind of people are we?

We're the kind of people who, in the midst of a terrible recession at home, risk our lives to restore hope in a forsaken land called Somalia.

We're the people who made the first movies, the first home computers, designed the Space Shuttle and gave America the tools for victory in the Cold War.

We face hard times now, but we can change that. We can make our own future. California has courage equal to any challenge. We have the daring, we have the vision and we have the talent to change our luck.

Last spring, we saw one of America's great cities in flames, the casualty of violence and bitterness, of grief and economic devastation that linger with us yet . . .

We saw merchants, many of them newcomers struggling to make it in America, stoutly defend their stores and their families.

We saw the very worst bring out the very best.

We saw Angelenos with guts enough to wade through violent crowds, risking their very lives to save total strangers.

We saw the Rev. Bennie Newton, an African-American minister throw his body over a severely beaten Latino man and cry out: Kill him and you'll have to kill me too.

California has other kinds of heroes, those whose courage or vision is on display not in a single dramatic moment, but every day of their working lives. Michael Stennis saw the riots threaten not his life, but his life's work.

For 35 years, the Stennis family's chain of restaurants has been a landmark of South-Central L.A. But on one tragic night in April, seven of their stores were vandalized and looted. Two others were burned to the ground.

But Michael Stennis isn't giving up. He could rebuild anywhere. But he's doing it right in South-Central L.A. And he's continuing to rebuild his community with scholarships for neighborhood kids.

The Rev. Newton had the courage to put himself on the line. Michael Stennis had the courage to work for a community comeback.

If we are to lead, you and I must follow their example. It's time to put ourselves on the line for California. It's time for us to set the stage for the great California Comeback . . .

We can no longer afford to be a collection of disparate, rival interest groups. We must all be Californians first.

We must work together to keep a solemn promise, an especially American obligation.

I first learned it from my father Jim Wilson. He believes there is an unspoken bond between the generations. It's the promise parents make to their children to leave them a world of greater opportunity.

You and I have increased the number of children receiving early mental health counseling five-fold. We've doubled the number of four-year-olds in pre-school. We've helped thousands of low-income, uninsured pregnant women and their newborns receive prenatal and well-baby care. And our Healthy Start program will help 60,000 kids this year to overcome inadequate nutrition, and a host of mental and physical problems.

But, my fellow Californians, we're the first generation in American history in danger of breaking that special promise to our children.

We'll never be able to continue to do right by them, to keep our word, to save our schools or protect the public, if we do not restore California as the best place in America to live and work.

Today I want to speak exclusively of jobs; because along with the personal cost of being out of work comes a public cost. People who are out of work can't pay taxes. And as a result—and yes, I repeat—state government cannot pay for all the increased services we're asked to provide.

In the weeks ahead, I'll be traveling up and down our state to detail my vision of how California can better educate our children and make our streets safer. But today I want to speak only of jobs.

After all, it takes three jobs just to pay the cost of sending one undergraduate to the University of California.

It takes 22 jobs to support one elementary school classroom.

It takes five jobs to keep one additional dangerous criminal in prison.

And it takes almost a quarter-of-a-million jobs just to meet this year's growth—just the growth mind you—in Medi-Cal recipients.

All public programs begin not in this Chamber, but in the sweat and toil of working men and women. Jobs make all else possible. That's why we must rebuild California . . . job . . . by job . . . by job.

To do that, California must start easing the burden on job-creators. You can't have employees without employers. You can't love jobs and hate job-creators.

All through the presidential campaign, we heard that America needs jobs, jobs and more jobs. But California will never get our share if we greet job-creators with taxes, taxes and more taxes.

After all, California is in sharp competition with other states and other nations that tax a lot less than we do. That's why I insisted we hold the line against taxes last year. It meant tough, painful choices, but the alternative was to lose even more jobs.

We must hold the line again. But if we are to create new jobs, we'll have to do more than reject higher taxes. If we are to create jobs, we'll have to cut taxes . . .

A temporary half-cent sales tax is set to expire on June 30th. Some say government can't afford to let that happen. I say we can't afford to let more Californians be thrown out of work. Higher California taxes simply mean fewer California jobs.

So I ask this new Legislature to create new jobs—to put Californians back to work by enacting tax incentives and other changes to create jobs.

First, California is the great incubator of ideas. After all, Hewlett-Packard was once just Bill Hewlett and Dave Packard working out of a garage. So I ask you to invest in the jobs of the future by enhancing the tax credit for the research and development of new technologies. And I ask you to make it permanent.

Small business led us out of the last recession by creating three-quarters of all job growth. Small business will lead us out of this recession too. So second, I ask you to pass a small business investment tax credit to encourage more people to invest in these small, but powerful, engines of job growth.

Third, for small employers to grow large, they need time to become profitable. Too many don't survive their heavy start-up costs long enough to provide the jobs they should. To keep them in business through those tough, early times, we should keep the bargain we made two years ago and reinstitute the net operating loss carry-forward.

We can do even more.

I ask you to expand the loan guarantee program for small business men and women. Our goal should be to provide up to $300 million in credit for these job-creating entrepreneurs.

And I ask you to work with me to restructure our state's competitive technology program. We must compete for federal defense conversion funds. These are resources California needs as we move from building weapons for global military competition to building products for global economic competition.

We must consider doing even more to create jobs. After all, we lead a nation-state possessing the eighth largest economy in the world. California has a larger gross domestic product and about one-fifth more people than Canada. California abounds in economic expertise. I think it's time for California to benefit from the wisdom of a Council of Economic Policy Advisors.

I'll soon name the full membership of this Council. But today, I'm proud to announce that former Secretary of the Treasury and former Secretary of State George Shultz has agreed to serve as our chairman.

One of the things we must do is encourage the growth of manufacturing jobs in California. Even in a high-tech information age, manufacturing will continue to be critical to our economic health. An earnings tax credit or sales tax exemption for the purchase of manufacturing equipment would spur investment in jobs for California.

This is one of the first questions I want to put before this new Council: Whether and how California can offer this incentive in so challenging a time, a time of both budget gap and painfully high unemployment.

Ninety-eight percent of California employers have 100 or fewer employees. We all know that California businesses are fleeing to other states that offer a lesser cost of doing business. But all too many of these small business employers don't have the option to leave. Instead, when they finally decide they just can't make a go of it in California, they simply—sadly—close their doors. They go out of business, putting proud men and women on the street and adding a dimension of individual human suffering to the public cost of unemployment.

We moved closer last year but failed to reform a corrupt, costly and terribly unfair system of workers' compensation. People like Mike Stennis will tell you that he can survive the L.A. riots . . . but that California's fraud-ridden system of workers' compensation may do him in, along with the workers who depend on him. Let's reform this corrupt system. Let's get the job done.

On New Year's Day, Gayle and I were invited by friends to join a family gathering. Their son-in-law, Fred Silva, is a superb craftsman who owns a business that puts down wood flooring.

After three years as a small employer, Fred has decided to call it quits. Though he's never had a claim filed against him, his workers' compensation costs have become unaffordable. He'll still take jobs he can do by himself. But he just can't afford to be an employer any longer. He just can't make it.

Fred's wife Donna told me: "It's just not fair to our employees," putting into words the pain on her husband's face.

She's right. It makes no sense that workers' comp—a system intended to protect injured workers and their families— is today hurting many more workers than it helps. It's stealing from them. It's stealing their jobs—jobs we all need both to put food on the table, and to take pride and dignity from doing something that has value each day.

It's just not fair.

Last year, the Council on California Competitiveness accused state and local governments of becoming a "job-killing machine." John Vasconcellos, you and your ADEPT report reached the same conclusions. Those of you on both sides of the aisle seem to agree on the urgent need for a cure. What remains is for us to take action to get the job done.

We all agree that government must stop being an adversary to job-creators and start being a partner.

We all agree that regulations stifle growth. And yet we have a maze of rules and regulations that only high-priced lawyers can navigate.

California must not be a passive victim of recession.

When Los Angeles was ravaged by riots, we created a revitalization zone . . . a place where rules and regulations take a back seat to jobs and opportunity. But today we need a revitalization plan not just for South-Central, but for all of L.A.

And not just for L.A., but for all of California . . . for the small business owner in the San Fernando Valley, the farmer in the Central Valley and the inventor in the Silicon Valley.

Our economy is drowning in a sea of red-tape. That's why I've ordered every agency in state government to streamline policies and regulations, to create jobs and to get the job done.

When my Administration hears of a major California employer who is considering leaving our state, we unleash a strike force, modeled after what is known in the aerospace industry as a "Red Team."

These teams, drawn from leaders in the public and private sector, cut through the usual bureaucratic procedures, fix problems and save jobs. In short, they do what's needed to let California and California companies compete and win jobs. They get the job done . . . if they can't, I want them to call me or call Julie Wright, our new Secretary of Trade and Commerce.

But saving the jobs of the present isn't enough. We must look ahead to the industries and the jobs of the future, from biotechnology to the many offspring of defense conversion.

We must take advantage of fiber-optics, a new technology that can link classroom, office, library and home; one that can free our highways of congestion and bring more jobs to California.

I ask the Public Utilities Commission to develop and implement new policies. And I ask them to report to us by September 1 on how California can take full advantage of this new technology, so we may take action this year.

Let me share with you another example of California's enormous potential as a world leader in technology.

Environmental technology is already a $25-billion-a-year business in our state. Cleaning up environmental degradation throughout Europe and Asia is a gigantic effort worth hundreds of billions of dollars more and tens of thousands of more jobs.

That's why I have directed Cal-EPA and the Trade and Commerce Agency to work as a partner with California business, to assist in marketing our environmental technology around the world—and bring more jobs to California.

In fact, we must compete even more aggressively for California's share of world markets of all kinds. We have to build on the success of our foreign trade offices, which now will function under the aegis of the newly created California Trade and Commerce Agency.

Well over one million Californians already owe their jobs to world trade. California export trade is booming, providing a silver lining to the gray clouds of recession. We've just begun to fight for California's market share. I respectfully but strongly urge President-elect Clinton to follow his instincts and let us benefit from the North American Free Trade Agreement. If ratified by Congress, it promises vast new markets and new jobs on both sides of the border.

Few challenges to our future are as great as those posed by our relentless population growth.

If we are to bequeath to our children a robust economy and a healthy environment, we must strategically shape our growth. I will shortly release a plan, two years in the making, that will do just that.

And I invite the leaders of the Legislature and all who have drafted bills on growth management to sit down with me, to compare our plans, and then to take action.

We must shape our future, not suffer it.

One way our generation is failing to keep its promise to the next relates to shelter and has two profound impacts. The first is to deny the prospect of affordable housing to our children—many will not live in homes as good as those they grew up in. The second is to deny construction workers jobs in building homes. I refuse to accept either.

To assist both first-time homebuyers throughout California and the residential construction industry, I have asked the California Housing Finance Agency to initiate and insure home loans up to ninety-seven percent of the purchase price. Present FHA mortgage limits fail to reflect the reality of California's much higher home prices. This effectively denies too many young California families the chance for home ownership.

I've also asked this agency to address the critical need for housing construction financing, to become a housing partner.

Government could stand to be more of a partner in almost every arena. It's time to remember that government is meant to serve the people, not the other way around.

To make government more responsive to the people, I will issue an executive order establishing a Task Force on Quality Government.

We've got to streamline government, eliminate bureaucratic delay, and begin treating the taxpayer like a customer, to focus on results, not process. It's our job to make government fit the people—not make the people fit the government.

I've talked this afternoon about how we can get the job done in California. There are many Californians who are impatient for change. They've already tried to get the job done by undertaking the arduous task of bringing initiatives to the ballot. To be blunt, these folks are more than skeptical. Based on years of evidence, they just don't believe that we are capable of enacting even the most obviously needed reforms.

Well, friends, there's a way to prove the skeptics wrong: We can enact the reforms the people need and deserve.

I'll put California employers and California workers up against anybody.

California CAN have a magnificent future—provided you and I in this Chamber work together to undo and cure all the costs, delays, burdens, regulations, taxes and lawsuits . . . that kill jobs in California.

To make these desperately needed changes, we must work together. Two years ago in my first State of the State message, I said to you in the Legislature that if we do the people's business and make state government work—we'll find there's ample credit to share.

I can't do it without you. And you can't do it without me. But together, we can get the job done.

Let's not require the people to resort to the initiative to do what they elected us to do.

If together we make those changes, California will have the magnificent future it deserves.

It will be America's premiere export state.

It will be the cutting edge in high-tech innovation.

It will produce today's jobs for us . . . and tomorrow's jobs for our children . . . enough jobs to replace austerity with prosperity . . . prosperity that will pay for the kind of education, public safety and children's services we all want.

It will allow us to keep that special promise to bequeath to our children a California of ever-greater opportunity.

That's our task—to make that change.

Together, let's begin today to keep our promise. Let's get the job done. Let the great California Comeback begin today. Right here in this Chamber.

PRAYER

Eternal God, Whose Spirit Surrounds Everyone, in Such a Deep and Personal Way, Make us grateful for these moments in presence, as we are met in session today. How blessed we are, that from You we are given so much more, than what we bring. Yet we would, that You give us deeper insights that we might grasp and understand the needs and opportunities, so beholden, in California. Settle us down Lord, as we would await inspiration which flows so abundantly from the wisdom of history and time. Be with this Assembly in a special way, its members and staff and every hand which in any way supports so great this purpose. In these efforts toward justice and peace, may this Assembly know the touch of Your guiding hand as they labor this field to bring forth a harvest an abundance for California.—AMEN.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following Budget Message from the Governor was received, and ordered printed in the Journal:

Governor's Office
January 8, 1993

To the Senate and Assembly of the California Legislature:

I submit for your consideration the Governor's Budget for 1993–94.

Since May 1990, California has lost over 800,000 jobs, which is over 6 percent of the state's total payroll. These job losses result from the restructuring of the global economy, from substantial reductions in federal assistance, especially aerospace and defense contracts, and many other factors. These job losses have had a dramatic impact on state and local revenues.

Clearly, the key to restoring the state's fiscal health is retaining and expanding California jobs. This budget is only part of a broader effort to make California competitive in the global economy, so that future generations may maintain and improve the lifestyle that has brought millions to the Golden State.

Now, more than ever, it is incumbent upon all of us to work together to make these difficult decisions so that California's future can be as bright and prosperous as its people deserve. Together we can lead our State through these difficult times and build a solid foundation for our children and the generations that will follow.

I look forward to your responsible leadership throughout 1993.

Sincerely,

PETE WILSON

Accompanying Governor's Budget and Budget Summary ordered filed with the Secretary of State.

I acknowledge receipt this 8th day of January, 1993, at 12:55 p.m., of the budget for the 1993–94 fiscal year, together with an explanatory message delivered to me personally by Karen Morgan.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell.

Eternal God, As the ancient one acclaimed: "Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised." So may we this morning, praise God. As You have blessed California with rain, storm and snow replenishing the good earth that things may grow, so grant us understanding with courage to engage the voluminous tasks which we are here to undertake. Cause our efforts to bring results that the life and economy of our state might grow. Although we face the same problems with differences across the aisle, grant us a tension which is creative, a challenge to our best. Call us to a unity of purpose that our work may proceed in kind. All this we pray in the names of all those who are heralds of good news that our work gives light to Your kingdom to come.—AMEN.

Assembly Member Murray was granted unanimous consent that when the Assembly adjourns on this day it do so out of respect to the memory of legendary jazz musician John Birks "Dizzy" Gillespie, and was granted unanimous consent that the following statement be printed in the Journal:

I want to adjourn in the memory of John Birks Gillespie, popularly known as Dizzy Gillespie, who died of cancer in Englewood, New Jersey at age 75. The jazz community mourns the loss of one of its greatest trumpeters, composers, and arrangers.

Gillespie is considered a key figure in American music and social history. He served as an ambassador of good will for the United States under the sponsorship of the Department of State in 1956 and 1973 and became known as the "Abraham Lincoln of Jazz" upon his self-declared candidancy for president in 1964 in an effort to mend the tense race relations of those times.

Gillespie is known by the jazz community as one of the creators of Bebop—a unique harmonic form with rhythmic nuances which influenced the entire field of jazz during the 1940s.

He won widespread acclaim for his technical musicianship, genius for musical arrangement, and showmanship wherever he appeared—his bulging cheeks and upturned trumpet bell symbolized jazz to world audiences.

Gillespie began his career in 1935 when he joined Frank Fairfax. It was during this time he earned his nickname "Dizzy" because of his eccentric mannerisms and zany show style.

He went on to record and perform with Teddy Hill, Cab Calloway, Earl Hines, Bill Eckstine, Charlie Parker and Thelonious Monk. It was with Parker and Monk that Dizzy developed and named the new musical expression of the 1950s generation, Bebop.

Dizzy formed several of his own bands, recorded numerous jazz recordings, founded a record company, and received many awards from a variety of notable arts and television organizations.

He formed his third band in 1987 which made a world tour to celebrate his 70th birthday.

Gillespie's compositions include Bebop classics "A Night in Tunisia", "Manteca", and "Blue n' Boogie".

Dizzy Gillespie's legend is very present in the jazz community today. Let's join them in our thoughts by adjourning in his memory.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF BIRTHDAY OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

Assembly Member Lee was joined by the Members of the Assembly in acknowledgment and celebration of the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and unanimous consent was granted that the following statement be printed in the Journal:

Mr. Speaker and Members:

Today, January 15 is the birthday of one of our national heroes and saints, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

I want to thank and honor my predecessor, now the mayor of Oakland, Mayor Elihu Harris for his vision in bringing to this Legislature a bill to make Dr. King's birthday a state holiday. It was a difficult bill to get passed. In fact, it barely made it through both Houses.

It was through the dreams of a few students at a school in my district, Oakland Technical School, that Mayor Harris was given the inspiration to mount this fight which ultimately made California one of the first states in the country to commemorate, officially, the birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr.

Today, let us reflect upon the meaning of Dr. King's life and death as we make critical decisions affecting the people of this state. Let us remember that Dr. King died seeking justice and a decent quality of life for garbage workers, no different than what we want for ourselves, our families and our constituents.

So, happy birthday Dr. King. Happy birthday to his dedicated family, to the people of this great state and the nation. I want to say thank you to Mayor Elihu Harris and the students at Oakland Technical High School for your leadership, your dreams and your work in making sure that California was one of the first states written in the history books as being on the right side of history early on.

Eternal God, May the healing of Your presence be with us as we assemble on this Floor. Make what is done here this day a blessing for the people of California. Anoint these leaders, members and staff with an abundance of working energy that great tasks may be done in this room. Keep their hands to the plow, and ever mindful of the perils which afflict our state. Save them from indifference and distractions which lead to neglect. Let not their feet tread safe paths or roads with a plethora of caution. Let sound and just legislation be the goal of all who labor here. May Your purposes challenge their eagerness and courage, so that when the day's end shall come, they may go forth rejoicing bringing their sheaves behind them.—AMEN.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Assembly Member McDonald was granted unanimous consent that when the Assembly adjourns on this day it do so out of respect to the memory of Justice Thurgood Marshall, and was granted unanimous consent that the following tribute be printed in the Journal:

Tribute to Justice Thurgood Marshall

As a native of Birmingham, Alabama and a veteran of the Civil Rights Movement, it is particularly appropriate that this Member honor the memory of Thurgood Marshall on the Assembly Floor today.

In memorializing Justice Marshall I would like to highlight some of his life experiences. A great-grandson of slaves and the grandson of a Civil War Veteran, Thurgood Marshall grew up in Baltimore. He was denied enrollment at his local public school and the University of Maryland Law School because of his color. He received his law degree from Howard University in Washington, where he graduated first in his class in 1933. As a legal counsel for the NAACP Legal Defense Fund, Marshall challenged racism through the court system in the '30s and '40s. He was named head of the Defense Fund in the early 1950s. He tried and won Brown vs. Topeka Board of Education in 1954, challenging the segregation of the nation's schools and the denial of human rights based on color. Thurgood Marshall joined the Supreme Court as the first African-American Supreme Court Justice in 1967. He served on the Supreme Court for twenty-four years as a champion of civil rights and the rights of individuals. Thurgood Marshall resigned from the Supreme Court in 1991, but left a legacy of service, advocacy and empowerment for future generations.

And to add to this, may I say I am a product of his teachings and his works. May we all recognize the good he has done for all humankind.

Assembly Member Archie-Hudson was granted unanimous consent that when the Assembly adjourns on this day it do so out of respect to the memory of Justice Thurgood Marshall, and was granted unanimous consent that the following tribute be printed in the Journal:

Tribute to Justice Thurgood Marshall

I rise to honor the distinguished memory of Justice Thurgood Marshall who succumbed yesterday to heart failure at the age of 84. This venerable man was a looming figure in contemporary U.S. history and is generally recognized as the greatest American lawyer of the 20th century. I wish to acknowledge the man and his body of work because he did so much as head of the NAACP legal defense team to change my life and that of every American. We should remember that even before he was named to the U.S. Supreme Court by President Johnson, Mr. Justice Marshall established a nearly peerless record of successful argument before the Supreme Court and served as U.S. Solicitor General.

When the young Thurgood Marshall was denied admission to the University of Maryland law school because of his race, he enrolled in Howard University in Washington D.C. There, he studied under Charles Houston, the premier advocate of civil rights jurisprudence as a constitutional law specialty. Upon graduation, he sued the University of Maryland for race discrimination, and won! From there, he traveled to many hostile locales, both in the south and in the north, to argue civil rights cases. His life was threatened many times but he never wavered.

His most famous case was Brown vs. Topeka Board of Education, the 1954 decision that overturned the tenet of "separate but equal" in public education. While the fame the case brought to him personally never waned, he argued until the end of his life that the interpretation of the words in the decision "with all deliberate speed" was the very essence of the ruling. He felt very strongly that the nation had turned away from the rule established by the Warren Court and concentrated on more peripheral issues to the detriment of all American schoolchildren.

Mr. Justice Marshall felt that his most enduring legacy was in the area of voting rights. In securing the franchise for African Americans, the way was open for full participation in the political and social life of the nation in a way that educational opportunity alone could not secure. But for his efforts, the number of African American elected officials would still be miniscule. The fruits of his labor can be seen in the current 103rd U.S. Congress. For the first time since Reconstruction, several southern states with significant African American populations have African American representatives, and we have an African American female Senator from Illinois. I can look around this Chamber to see the impact of Mr. Justice Marshall as well as I count the number of African Americans, Latinos, Asian Americans and women seated in this Legislature.

As the architect of the legal struggle for voting rights, Mr. Justice Marshall ensured that all Americans would be better able to enjoy the rights and privileges granted by the U.S. Constitution. He understood however that the struggle for freedom is hard fought and that the struggle is far from over. He often said "We should stop talking about how far we have come and talk about how close we are." I hope that as we reflect on this great life of service we will heed his admonition, and know that our work in pursuit of the goal of full equality is not yet completed.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell.

Eternal God, Who Dispelled Darkness and Brought Forth Light When Time Was Young and the Earth Was Void, We turn to You in the troubled world of today. Send down light and truth and let them lead us. Help us in our efforts here, to dispel so great the darkness engulfing the affairs of people and the governance of our state. As we are met to labor on this Floor, illumined by the light of a beautiful day, open our eyes to the prospects, so many which surround us, heralding the dawn of a better tomorrow. Inspire us to reach high, though sometimes the goal is unseen and victory elusive. May we know that we can never stray beyond Your love and care, so patiently there, a bulwark against fear, a roadway above doubt. Give us understanding and courage for today as we face whatever task, need or cause which lies in darkness, waiting for light.—AMEN.

With this legislative tool and empowerment of this office, can I make for better life in California?

In the words of Your servant Mordicai, to Esther who had favor in the kingdom, "Who knoweth whether Thou are come to the kingdom for such a time as this?" Gracious God, Who Knows Us Better Than We Know Ourselves and Is Acquainted with All Our Ways, How thankful we are, for life and the favor given us to be here at this time of opportunity. In the freshness of the morning, as we are come to these desks, be near to us. Renew in us minds that grow in understanding the needs of the day and the spirit to do something about them. Help us to be sensitive to, and alert for, the good we can do today. Make clearer to us the opportunities both obvious and hidden calling out today. When this day is done and our work load is put away may we hear deep within, Your voice as though speaking to us, as You have to others in another day, saying, "Well done my faithful servant, you have been diligent in this vineyard, go and in good conscience take Your rest, earned today."—AMEN.

For not only do we need Your nearness in such a time as this but we seek Your greatness. Grant us a wide margin of insight and wisdom as we are busy here to do this work. Bless our every effort of mind and spirit with the courage to make the crooked straight and rough places plain. Also, we hold up for Your blessing the recognition of Black History Month and all it commends for a better world. But should the day be long and the light become dim, sustain us lest we fear or fall. Inspire us with what we need to know that You have the whole world in Your hand.—AMEN.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Assembly Members Bornstein and McDonald were granted unanimous consent that when the Assembly adjourns on this day it do so out of respect to the memory of tennis champion Arthur Ashe.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Assembly Member McDonald was granted unanimous consent that the following statement be printed in the Journal:

Arthur Ashe Remembrance

I would like to adjourn today's session in memory of Arthur Ashe, who died Saturday from AIDS-related pneumonia. His death marked the passage of a superb athlete, a civil rights advocate firm in his convictions about ending racism and discrimination, and a noble fighter in the sports and political arenas.

Arthur Ashe was born and raised in a middle-class section of segregated Richmond, Virginia in 1943. He showed early athletic promise in the sport of tennis, but also experienced the biting sting of racism. At the age of 12, Arthur Ashe was excluded from a City tennis tournament because of his color. Rather than be discouraged, however, he used this event to strengthen his political convictions and renew his athletic determination.

Arthur Ashe was the first African/American to become a member of a United States Davis Cup Team, the first to win a U.S. men's singles championship, the first to achieve the number one ranking by the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association, and the first to reach the final of the South African Open.

In addition to his momentous athletic achievements, Arthur Ashe helped to raise national consciousness about the injustices of Apartheid in South Africa, contributing to the efforts to ban South Africa from Davis Cup competition.

He was active in the promotion of academic achievement of young African/Americans, particularly athletes, calling for them to reach for high standards and graduation attainment.

Arthur Ashe began his greatest fight in 1989, upon learning he had contracted the HIV virus through a blood transfusion. Choosing to wage a private battle, Ashe drew comfort from his family until April of 1992, when he went public with his affliction.

Arthur Ashe did not look back after his emotional public disclosure of his illness. Instead, he became a champion of the fight to combat AIDS in this nation and the world. He realized the growing numbers of people stricken with AIDS, and brought to life the idea that AIDS is not a "hidden" affliction, only striking an invisible population. He helped to teach us that AIDS knows no color, gender, or any other boundaries.

Perhaps Arthur Ashe's greatest legacy may be his introduction into the national consciousness that AIDS is a disease that can affect anyone. His strength, courage, and character will live on as a positive example to our youth and to ourselves.

Eternal Spirit, In Whose Hands Are Our Lives and Times, We thank You for all those men and women in every generation, who have lived with faces imbued with hope waiting for the sunrise. Those among us, who have refused to be content with affairs as they are. All those who have possessed courage to live and work led by the power of a hope which never gives up. Their expectations welcoming each day, even a ray of light on a glory to be revealed and all flesh shall see it together. Inspire us here this morning with their expectancy, and cause us to both labor and keep alive the hope which is the herald of things to come.—AMEN.

February 9, 1993

The Honorable Willie L. Brown, Jr.
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 219
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Speaker: I would like to be excused from session on legislative business on February 11, 1993. I will be participating in a meeting and press conference on the issues surrounding the retention of the Los Angeles Air Force Base in El Segundo.

For your information, this was the number one issue at our mini-summit. Because the base houses the research and development function of the Air Force, approximately 3,760 high-wage jobs would be lost, 54,000 people would indirectly be affected and the region would realize a $5.4 billion loss if the base were relocated to Albuquerque.

Should you have any questions, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

DEBRA BOWEN, Assembly Member
Fifty-third District.

The following communication was presented by the Chief Clerk, and ordered printed in the Journal:

Explanation of Vote—Assembly Bill No. 5

February 9, 1993

Mr. Dotson Wilson, Chief Clerk
California State Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196

Dear Mr. Clerk: I am writing this letter to declare my unwavering support for Assembly Bill 5, relating to the creation of the Bureau of State Audits.

AB 5 was brought to a vote before the full Assembly on February 2nd, and passed on a bipartisan vote of 58–8. I fully intended to vote for AB 5, and when the vote was called I believed I had cast that vote through our electronic voting system. Unfortunately my vote in the affirmative was not recorded on the roll, therefore I was recorded as "Not Voting."

While I recognize that it is too late to change my vote I would like the membership to know where I stand on this important issue.

Sincerely,

VALERIE K. BROWN, Assembly Member
Seventh District

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell.

Gracious God, Who Has Promised That As Our Days Go, So Shall Our Strength Be, Be near to us. As through the years, our predecessors sought to embrace the needs and opportunities of our state, but faltered until they looked up and beheld the openness of a rising sun or a guiding star, no more can we know the vastness of need and opportunity which looms before us now. Lead us beyond this valley and all dimming views that we might outgrow fear which blinds the way. Face us with our peoples' concerns. Give us the strength to serve, our work here to supply. Keep us ever mindful of who we are, our heritage in this nation's life, and may we by these splendors, receive the strength as our days go.—AMEN.

God of Grace and God of Glory, On Your people pour Your power. Free our hearts to work and praise for the living of these days. O Lord, as we come to this Floor You know the goodness in our every intention, but also the weakness in our performance. Strengthen us to cope with what we struggle and to attain the high purposes to which we are sworn. Forbid that we should be satisfied with half measures, with half finished tasks, or empty victories. Be near to us, and may Your purpose guide us to fulfillment of the urgent needs and aspirations of California's people. Sustain us in Your name, and all those in other days who once labored here, and persevered.—AMEN.

RECESS IN CELEBRATION OF BLACK HISTORY MONTH

By unanimous consent, at 12:31 p.m., Speaker Brown declared the Assembly recessed to permit the introduction of a special guest.

Speaker Brown then appointed Assembly Members Moore, Lee, Alpert, Polanco, Brulte, and Honeycutt as a Select Committee to Escort Rosa Louise McCauley Parks to the Rostrum. Assembly Member Moore then introduced well-known civil rights activist Rosa Louise McCauley Parks to the Members of the Assembly, whereupon she then addressed the assemblage. The Clerk was then instructed to read the following resolution:

MEMBER'S RESOLUTION

By the Honorable Gwen Moore, 47th Assembly District; Relative to honoring

ROSA LOUISE McCAULEY PARKS
DURING BLACK HISTORY MONTH

WHEREAS, Much of the history of this nation has been written with the blood, sweat, and tears of Black Americans; and

WHEREAS, Black men and women helped to settle the continent and advance the American frontier; they distinguished themselves on the field of battle, expanded our intellectual horizons, inspired our artistic endeavors, forged the concepts of liberty and justice, and gave life to the ideal that America is truly the land of the free; and

WHEREAS, Black History Month is a time to honor those Americans who arrived in chains and paid with their lives the extraordinary cost of freedom; and

WHEREAS, Black History Month is a time to note with pride the names and accomplishments of individuals such as Harriet Tubman, Frederick Douglass, Martin Luther King, Jr., Malcolm X, Thurgood Marshall, and a quiet, bespectacled Alabama seamstress named Rosa Louise McCauley Parks; and

WHEREAS, On December 1, 1955, while riding home on a bus in Montgomery, Alabama, Rosa Parks made a personal decision that changed the course of her life and the future of an entire nation for generations to come; and

WHEREAS, By the simple act of refusing to give up her rightful seat on a bus, Rosa Parks challenged the whole concept of segregation, with its centuries of entrenched bigotry and blind ignorance; and

WHEREAS, Rosa's individual act of dignity sparked a revolution of conscience that spread through the country like a giant tidal wave, eventually beating on the doors of the Supreme Court and breaking down the walls of segregation forever; and

WHEREAS, Rosa Parks taught by example that it is better to go thirsty than to drink at a segregated fountain . . . better to walk than to ride in a segregated bus . . . better to perish than to live without freedom and dignity; and

WHEREAS, As a lifetime member and former Deaconess of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, Rosa Parks has forged for herself a life of activism combined with prayer—refusing to be subjugated, but always willing to forgive; and

WHEREAS, With a firm belief that the destiny of mankind is largely determined at the ballot box, Rosa Parks has dedicated her life to the long struggle of extending the electoral process to people of color, and from church rallies to street corners, Rosa Parks has been responsible for empowering hundreds of thousands by registering them to vote; and

WHEREAS, Rosa Parks has continued to be a tireless speaker for civil rights; and

WHEREAS, The Rosa and Raymond Parks Institute for Self-Development reaches out to those in need—to those whose only hope for the future is the support and vision of an extraordinary woman who believes that true emancipation begins only when there is equal access to education, job training, employment, and unrestricted participation in a free society; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY ASSEMBLY MEMBER GWEN MOORE, That Rosa Louise McCauley Parks be commended for a lifetime of dedication to the cause of civil rights, and for her courageous and historic personal contribution to the ending of segregation in America; and be it further

RESOLVED, That although the proud statement that "Black is beautiful" did not begin, and will not end, with Rosa Parks, never could it be more aptly applied than in the case of this singularly remarkable and inspirational woman, who dared to stake her claim to the right of every human being to be treated with equality, respect, and human dignity, regardless of the color of their skin.

Assembly Member Moore then introduced Jasmine Walton, a member of the "Little Workman's Guild" and Brenda Holloway, a member of the Inspirational Choir, at St. Paul's Baptist Church, of Sacramento, whereupon they performed for the Members of the Assembly.

Upon invitation of Speaker Brown, the Members of the Assembly and guests in the Assembly Chamber sang "Happy Birthday" to Mrs. Rosa Louise McCauley Parks in celebration of her 80th birthday. Speaker Brown and Assembly Member Moore then presented a resolution to Mrs. Parks commending her for a lifetime of dedication to the cause of civil rights, and for her courageous and historic personal contribution to the ending of segregation in America.

Gracious God, Whose Spirit Is Ever So Near, Yet Forever Beyond Us, Hear us, for we come to You, the Source of calming power. Lift us that we might attain inner stability for the living of these days. In dark clouds looming over the tasks we face, we sometimes are restless, as autumn leaves blowing in the wind. We can feel as helpless as debris stirring in a raging flood, or as anxious as the homeless in winter's cold. Strengthen us with the power of a great conviction. Sustain us against whatever pressures beset our way. In all we confront, surely this day, help us to be strong and of good courage, set for the day.—AMEN.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Excerpt from William Marshall's
One-man Portrayal of Frederick Douglass

We debated his new plan most of Saturday and part of Sunday at the secret meeting to which he had called me—in an old quarry in Chambersburg, Penn. All of his arguments convinced me that he was walking into a steel trap and that, once in, he would never get out alive. I argued that the plan not only invited martyrdom but would tighten the fetters on the slave rather than loosen them.

And still, it was hard to say no to John Brown. When I rose to begin my journey back to Rochester, he put his arms around me in a manner more than friendly and said: "Come with me, Douglass. I'll defend you with my life. I want you for a special purpose. When I strike, the bees will begin to swarm and I shall want you to help me hive them." Had I not had my own firm sense of mission in the sacred cause, it would have been even harder to say No to John Brown.

Brown, Ossawatomi Brown, will trouble them more than ever when they've nailed his coffin down.

I summed up my own philosophy of reform before a group of old friends gathered to celebrate the twenty-third anniversary of West Indies Emancipation in 1833.

DOUGLASS

The whole history of the progress of human liberty shows that all concessions, yet made to her august claims, have been born of earnest struggle. The conflict has been exciting, agitating, all absorbing, and for the time being putting all other tumults to silence. It must do this or it does nothing. If there is no struggle, there is no progress. Those who profess to favor freedom and yet depreciate agitation, are men who want crops without plowing up the ground. They want rain without thunder and lightning. They want the ocean without the awful roar of its many waters. This struggle may be a moral one; or it may be a physical one; or it may be both moral and physical; but it must be a struggle. Power concedes nothing without a demand. It never did, and it never will. Find out just what people will quietly submit to, and you have found out the exact amount of injustice and wrong which will be imposed upon them; and these will continue till they are resisted with either words or blows, or with both. The limits of tyrants are prescribed by the endurance of those whom they oppress. In the light of these ideas, Negroes will be hunted at the North, and held and flogged at the South, so long as they submit to those devilish outrages, and make no resistance, either moral or physical. Men may not get all they pay for in this world; but they must certainly pay for all they get. If we ever get free from all the oppressions and wrongs heaped upon us, we must pay for their removal. We must do this by labor, by suffering, by sacrifice, and, if needs be, by our lives, and the lives of others.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Assembly Member Richter was granted unanimous consent that when the Assembly adjourns on this day it do so out of respect to the memory of Reseda High School student Michael Shean Ensley.

Gracious God, Good Shepherd of the Wandering Star, Whose Light Makes Bright the Paths We Take and the Distance We Tread, Our lives are open before You. For who else knows as You know our dark hours of defeat, the times of doubt and the myriad of secret fears. You know our halting purposes, our unwillingness to risk and our reluctance to be out front or enter the fray. You remember our make that we are of dust. As we come to these desks, in the quiet of this afternoon, enter our hearts with the spirit of power. Confirm our good resolutions, as hopeful now, as when first made. And grant us anew perseverance to follow through.—AMEN.

PRAYER

An Anonymous Prayer

O Lord, We buzz around like busy flies on the windowsill of life. Shock us into remembering that we are sent here for a purpose: To stand up when others would want us to be still; to speak out, when others would want us to be silent; to reach out when others would have us turn inward. You have given us eyes to see the unemployed and the underemployed. Ears to hear the cries of hungry children. Lips to speak up for civil and human rights. Lord give us minds that work for economic justice and peace in the world. Give us hands that reach the edge of freedom and liberty wherever they are denied. Give us feet that can't be moved and feet that stand on principle.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell.

Gracious God, Our Help in Ages Past and Our Hope for Years to Come, Only You, O Lord, can calm our fears. Only You can give us the courage to face inevitable change. Only You can move us to risk, when inwardly the spirit is weak. Calm and discipline our hurried and busied lives, our hectic and puzzled schedules, and our noisy and discordant hours. Guide us, that we may find hope renewed. Grant us that our feet or minds wander not in darkness missing new paths so brilliant with light. Send down Your light and Your truth, let them lead us, this day, O Lord, as we gather here to do this work.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker Brown, Assembly Member Valerie Brown then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Gracious God, You have called us to serve You in truth with gladness and appreciation. In appreciation for all creation and more especially the human family, created by You, male and female. This morning we lift up to You in particular, womanhood. In deep appreciation and respect, we thank You, for without women, we would not be. We thank You for women, everywhere, whose courage with faith, abilities and skills have made our lives richer because they too bear the burdens, sacrifices, and share acclaim in victories. By them the world is brought further along the way. In every aspect of human life, be it family and home, the marketplace and industry, government, education, health, religion and science, or in just being human, we thank You Lord for women.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell.

Gracious God, Lord of All Life and Its Shadow, Death, Grant us Your Presence as we come this morning with hearts made heavy, because of what death has done. For death has again cast its shadow over this House claiming another from this fold. As we feel with heartfelt concern, the death of Assemblyman B.T. Collins, we commend to Your comfort, his family, colleagues and friends. Give to them who most intimately mourn his going, wider avenues of consolation. Let Your mercy rest upon us, who remember with friendly affection, a servant who has departed this life. We would remember his lively presence among us. We thank You for his devotion to this high office, his noted activity in this body politic, his patriotism and heroic efforts in times of peace and war. O Lord, support us all, in our troublous lives, until our shadows lengthen, and evening comes, and the busy world for us is hushed, the fever of life over, and our work is done. Then in Your grace, grant us a safe lodging and peace at least.—AMEN.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Assembly Member Richter was granted unanimous consent that the following statement be printed in the Journal:

March 22, 1993

Mr. Speaker and Members:

How do we find the words to adequately describe a unique, unselfish and talented human being whose sole purpose in life was to serve and give to others?

How can we, because of our close association with him, benefit most from the experience of knowing him, working with him and being the beneficiaries of his counsel?

How can we make sure that we learn the lessons that he taught us, that patriotism was more than rhetoric and symbolism, but rather A WAY OF LIFE? That loving your country was not just a necessity but rather the most noble expression of the human spirit to which he dedicated his WHOLE LIFE. That giving, willingly giving and never taking unselfishly giving, was in fact the highest purpose of ALL LIFE.

How can we truly appreciate the irrepressible strength of his inner character to overcome pain and affliction, handicaps and burdens which besieged his body, but failed even so slightly to dim his spirit?

How can we emulate his consideration for others, his personal notes, his birthday remembrances, his equality of consideration without regard to station or rank?

How can we become as understanding as he was and learn to appreciate the diverse contributions of distinct groups, races and creeds and work together to lift the human spirit?

B.T. Collins belongs to all of us; to every race, men and women, Republicans and Democrats, Christians and Jews, Protestants and Catholics, Hindus and Muslims. He belongs to only one race, the human race, he indeed was a man of the world. But how proud I am that he was an American Patriot.

Mr. Speaker and Members, I believe that the highest tribute that we could pay to this man would be for those of us who remain in this House to commit and dedicate this 1993 session to his memory and to so bare ourselves in carrying out our duties and responsibilities as to bring honor and credit to this House in his name.

BERNIE RICHTER, Assembly Member
Third District

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell.

Gracious God, Who Knows Our Frame and Remembers Our Make from Dust, Grant us Your presence as we consider what shortcomings we bring to this place. We are mindful of a weakness to disregard truth especially when it seems to favor the other side. Forgive us the turning aside from opportunities to serve our people, now lost to silent neglect. Still are we thankful for strengthened faith when courage is low, the going is tough, and hours are long. We rejoice when deep inner conviction gives power, to stedfastness of purpose. We are grateful for experiences and inspiration which influence direction in the paths we take. Let Your presence attend us, O Lord, in all our ways, and may the contentments of today and the expectations of tomorrow, enliven hope, that our efforts in this place are one.—AMEN.

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore O'Connell, Assembly Member Solis then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Gracious God, Who Comes to Each of Us in Your Own Way, We thank You for these moments of quiet when beginning a new day. It is when we are in Your presence we can best know what it means to be alive, and here in this place. What it means to have the privilege, affirmed by the electorate, to sit at these desks. What it means to have the responsibility of so great this power and trust. Help us this day, O Lord, to have patience as we seek answers to the perplexing problems confronting our California state. As through many years You have brought this Assembly "through many dangers, toils, and snares", so inspire us anew, in the early hours of this day, and as we come to these desks, with the confidence and assurance that beneath whatever the challenge we face, are the Everlasting Arms, deep to contain us, strong to hold us, always there, now and every hour of the day.—AMEN.

Gracious God, Whose Love of Beauty Is Emblazoned in the Morning Sky, and Whose Creative Powers Beam Forth from Hills Made Green by Winter's Rain, We lift up our lives to You, grateful for Your creating power in us. Give us grace to lift our lives higher; sensitize us to meet life's besetments with silent music when amid the noise and clamor of crowded days. Forgive us when we fail goodness or kindness, or when we turn aside from fearful tasks. Help us to be true to the best we know. As again we come to these desks, mindful of the work we face, we pray for a quickening awareness of Your constant presence calling us to work.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell.

Gracious God, Who Calls His People to the Same Justice, a Measure for All, but Redeems Us Freely, from His Infinite Will, Be near to us, surely in this place. What is my workload today? Are there more letters from constituents, cranks and friends? Are there office memos from colleagues, staff and the endless drone of newly authored bills? Is that file of correspondence, unread or unattended matters still there to mock my day? Lord, help me so that the burden of what I ought to do not lessen my capacity for what I must do. O Lord, bless these desks with their backlog of work, new demands and all else unfulfilled. May we know that You are with us in commonplace hours of routine, in spectacular moments of excitement from new opportunities and adventures. O Lord, Who knows all things, what is on my desk today? Whatever it is Lord, Help me to get with it.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore O'Connell, Assembly Member Knowles then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.
