Gracious God, Who Turns the Shadows of Night into the Brightness of a New Day, We gather here in the freshness of a morning hour. We come as solons seeking direction before undertaking the tasks of the day. Grant us, such ability and skill to weave some positive achievement into the fabric of the hours we work here today. And as we begin, so hopefully, cause us to have in mind the people of this state, for whom we work, especially the troubled and anxious, the unemployed, the burdened, the afflicted and sick. By what we do, cause pathways through the uncertainties of tomorrow to be brightened. And the hearts of those under shadows of gloom be gladdened, and the prospects of the future of California, rise above prediction. You have called us to these desks, and in this hour, may Your presence as light in darkness, lead us forth.—AMEN.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following veto messages from the Governor were received and ordered printed in the Journal and the bills ordered to the unfinished business file:

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 394

Governor's Office, Sacramento
July 8, 1993

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill No. 394 without my signature.

This bill would require the State Controller to either select or determine the Proposition 98 guarantee level in the event that a joint certification is not received from the Director of Finance and the Superintendent of Public Instruction within nine months following the end of any fiscal year. It would make a similar change to parallel statues requiring joint certification by the Director of Finance and the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges.

While current law governing the certification process does not provide for a method to resolve differences between the Director of Finance and the Superintendent or the Chancellor, I do not believe that this bill provides an appropriate method for that resolution. Allowing the State Controller to independently calculate the Proposition 98 guarantee could potentially result in an amount for the Proposition 98 guarantee that does not agree with calculations made by either the Director of Finance or the Superintendent or Chancellor.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

RECEIPT

I acknowledge receipt this 9th day of July 1993, at 10:05 a.m., of Assembly Bill No. 394, without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Karen Morgan.

E. DOTSON WILSON
Chief Clerk of the Assembly

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 846

Governor's Office, Sacramento
July 8, 1993

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill No. 846 without my signature.

This bill would define "evidence of financial responsibility" for the purpose of specifying what forms of such evidence would be acceptable to the Department of Motor Vehicles when it requests to see evidence of financial responsibility prior to administering the driving test.

The number of uninsured vehicles discovered by the expanded level of proof required in this bill will be minimal. Moreover, requiring additional documentation could lead to inefficiency in the DMV drivers' testing process and considerable inconvenience to the public when applicants do not bring the proper documentation to their appointment and have to reschedule.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

RECEIPT

I acknowledge receipt this 9th day of July 1993, at 10:06 a.m., of Assembly Bill No. 846, without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Karen Morgan.

July 8, 1993

Assemblymember Honeycutt
State Capitol, Room 4009
Sacramento, California

Dear Ms. Honeycutt, We have been made aware that, in discussing contractor "bid-shopping" in committee yesterday, you used the term "Jew down" to describe this practice. Upon the objections of Assemblyman Sher, you apologized to him.

Your simple apology does not in any way mitigate your unthinking and highly insensitive anti-Semitic remark. On behalf of the Jewish population as well as the rest of the people of this state, we object to such racial slurs, be they intentionally malicious or inadvertent slips. The conversational manner in which you used this slur is indicative of a thought process we find frightening.

Our responsibilities as members of the California State Legislature include a responsibility to lead, to set an example. How can we expect the people of our state to act to end the evil of racism and hate crimes when leaders are guilty of promoting racism.

It is also our responsibility to bring the people of this state together. Many of us here have made sincere, concerted efforts to this end. But these efforts mean nothing when our colleagues continue to contaminate the good intentions of this body with displays of their personal racist and bigoted tendencies.

We hope that this letter will cause you to reflect upon your comment and attitude and that you will take appropriate steps to see that it never happens again.

The Honorable Richard Katz
Assemblyman, 39th District
State Capitol, Room 3146
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Katz: Thank you for your letter of July 8 advising me of the offense you took to the inappropriate remark I made Wednesday in the Assembly Consumer Protection Committee. I deeply regret that the remark caused you or anyone else offense.

Following my remarks in committee, Assemblyman Sher pointed out the inappropriateness and his offense at my statement. I immediately apologized. Subsequently, when asked by members of the news media, I again repeated my apology and sincere regrets at having made the statement.

On Monday, when session is reconvened, I plan to express my regrets and sincere apology to every member of the legislature and citizen of the state.

I can offer no excuse for what happened. I only hope we can get through this incident so we can focus together on the legislative challenges before us.

Looking back on what I said, I realize it was anti-Semitic and offensive, and appreciate Assemblyman Sher's immediately pointing this out to me.

I could not feel worse about what I said, because I find the practice of stereotyping anyone to be abhorrent. I taught my children not to do it. To them, the Legislature and all the people of California, particularly those in the Jewish community I say again that I am truly sorry and I hope you and they will forgive me.

Thank you again for pointing out my careless action and I promise to learn from this mistake.

Sincerely,

KATHLEEN M. HONEYCUTT, Assembly Member
Thirty-fourth District

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Whose Mercy Extends to All Those Who Seek Your Presence, We commend to Your love and care people whose joy and peace are dimmed and do not brightly shine. We remember thousands of victims of flooding waters of many rivers, whose powers are made deadly, by overflow storm and rain. Immediate in our minds are our own memories of fire, flood and quakes. Help us, to do for them, what was done for us. This afternoon of a bright day in California, we remember, before You, the hurting and everyone who suffers need; the unemployed, and those who face unemployment to come. We lift up to You the tired who greet another weary day. We know children who cannot play, blind who cannot see and the oppressed who seek freedom but are not yet free. Reveal Your healing spirit, in oceans of goodness and mercy upon our world, and grant us as we begin our work, such a vivid sense of what we can do, that darkness will take flight from the light our work can bring today.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker Brown, Assembly Member Hannigan then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Willie - I ask to be excused from Assembly session on Tuesday, July 13, Wednesday, July 14th and Thursday, July 15th, on legislative business. I will be participating in a "Foundation for Dialogue" seminar in Oregon beginning the evening of Tuesday, July 13th, concluding at noon on Friday, July 16th.

This seminar is an historic gathering of seventy persons from around the world, convened by the pioneers in the cutting edge, state-of-the-art organizational and leadership development process known as "dialogue." Dialogue, and this seminar, are especially about discovering and developing the keys to collective learning and the transformation of systems and institutions into trusting, collaborative learning organizations.

This seminar thereby offers me an uncommon learning experience which I expect will further develop my capacities to exercise effectively the various responsibilities I hold here in the Assembly and in the Legislature.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal:

Governor's Office, Sacramento
July 12, 1993

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I have signed this date Assembly Bill No. 258. I am informed the bill may among other things, impact a financial interest which I have fully and publicly disclosed in accordance with the State's conflict of interest laws. Public documents on file with the Fair Political Practices Commission indicate my financial interest in a blind trust which owns stock in a business entity that might be affected by the veto or enactment of AB 258.

The Political Reform Act prohibits a public official from making or participating in a governmental decision in which he or she has a financial interest. However, a public official is not prevented from making or participating in a decision when his or her participation is legally required for the decision to be made.

The Constitution requires each bill passed by the Legislature to be presented to the Governor for a decision to sign the bill, return it without signature, or take no action. If no action is taken within 12 days, the bill becomes law. Therefore, as Governor, I am legally required to make a decision with respect to each bill presented by the Legislature, including AB 258.

With this understanding, I have signed AB 258.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Each day, and especially in this time of the legislative year, time makes its demands upon us. Each day presents tasks that are demanding of our thoughts, decisions and actions. And through it all, we remember with concern the days gone by, when we were unable to finish tasks which were so ever with us. We remember with regret, the days spent in indolence when we fell short of fulfilling the responsibilities with which we were entrusted. And how well, O Lord, do we remember with gladness, the days of achievement, when we finished work committed to this floor.

As we are positioned this morning behind these desks, our heads bowed, our minds alert, grant us understanding, vision and willingness, so that come the end of this day, we may leave these desks with glad memories of great tasks, well done.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker Brown, Assembly Member Peace then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

July 15, 1993

The Honorable Willie L. Brown, Jr.
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 219
Sacramento, California

Willie - I ask to be excused from Assembly session on Friday, July 16th, on legislative business. I will be participating in a "Foundation for Dialogue" seminar in Oregon beginning the evening of Tuesday, July 13th, concluding at noon on Friday, July 16th.

This seminar is an historic gathering of seventy persons from around the world, convened by the pioneers in the cutting edge, state-of-the-art organizational and leadership development process known as "dialogue." Dialogue, and this seminar, are especially about discovering and developing the keys to collective learning and the transformation of systems and institutions into trusting, collaborative learning organizations.

This seminar thereby offers me an uncommon learning experience which I expect will further develop my capacities to exercise effectively the various responsibilities I hold here in the Assembly and in the Legislature.

I wish you well,

JOHN VASCONCELLOS, Assembly Member
Twenty-second District

Speaker Willie L. Brown, Jr.
State Capitol

Dear Speaker Brown: I am writing to inform you that I will not participate in any way in the consideration of, or the votes on, the Worker's Compensation legislation that comes out of the Workers' Compensation Conference Committee, because my husband has a professional practice specializing in workers' compensation cases.

I deeply regret not being able to participate in the vote on the extremely important issue. However, I believe that the goal of preventing even the appearance of a conflict of interest by an elected official must take precedence in this case.

Sincerely,

Assembly Member Conroy was granted unanimous consent that the following communication be printed in the Journal:

July 8, 1993

The Honorable Mickey Conroy
Member of the Assembly
Room 4101, State Capitol
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Conroy: This letter confirms the conversation between you and Colonel Paul Monroe, California National Guard's Government Affairs Officer, relating to AB 1534.

National Guard members on Title 10 or 32 USC, federal active duty, are entitled to federal benefits when injured while performing such duty. Our headquarters has the authority to pay our soldiers up to six months federal compensation for injuries sustained during federal duty.

This procedure takes approximately two weeks to complete for eighty percent of our personnel. Practically all informal applications are completed within thirty days. During some critical situations, we have been able to get a soldier paid within seventy-two hours.

Colonel Monroe will keep you advised of the status of our federal program. Should you have questions on any of our policies, please contact Colonel Monroe or me at any time.

Thank you for carrying AB 1534 for the Military Department, and for your support of the California National Guard.

Sincerely,

ROBERT J. BRANDT
Brigadier General
Assistant Adjutant General

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following messages from the Governor were received and ordered printed in the Journal:

Governor's Office, Sacramento
July 16, 1993

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I have signed this date Assembly Bill No. 110.

This bill is part of a 5-bill comprehensive package of legislation, each of which is double-joined, relating to workers' compensation reform.

For years, California's fraud-ridden workers' compensation system has been the single greatest barrier to job creation in our state. By one estimate, it's been costing us 60,000 jobs a year. But with the signing of this measure, we're starting the process of tearing down that barrier, freeing Californians to create tens of thousands of new jobs a year.

It has been a long tortuous two and one-half years which has brought us to this point. Since the 1991 budget debate when I raised the issue of the critical need for workers' compensation reform in order to stimulate jobs and increase state budget revenues, through the inadequate reforms of 1992 which I vetoed, to a frustrating, unsuccessful special session, to this year—a year which produced bipartisan cooperation, and honest debate.

It took a cooperative effort by a bipartisan group of state legislators who were determined to see real reform enacted this year. I want to thank each and every one of them for their tireless work. They have shown that the Legislature can buck the special interests. They have shown we can work together to bring real change to California.

The legislation I am signing today will reduce workers' compensation costs by at least $1.5 billion—that's 14% of the $11 billion system.

Half of the savings will be used to increase benefits for workers—raising maximum disability benefits from $336 a week to $490 a week over the next three and one-half years—and half of the savings will go to employers so they can invest in new jobs for California.

This package of reforms saves money by tightening the standard for stress claims in the system, the fastest growing type of claim in the workers' compensation.

It limits medical costs by allowing employers and insurance companies to use managed care organizations, and it imposes tighter cost controls on medical costs.

It deflates the skyrocketing cost of medical-legal evaluations, caps the cost of vocational rehabilitation and strengthens conflict-of-interest rules.

But equally important, these reforms crack down on those who are defrauding the system. This legislation marks the beginning of the end for the stress-mill millionaires.

In short, this legislation gives us a significant handle on what have been exploding costs of workers' compensation.

These reforms certainly won't please special interests in Sacramento with a stake in the status quo, but they are a major victory for the workers and job-creators of California.

That's why this package was approved by the Labor-Management Task Force I appointed to review any reforms passed by the Legislature.

This legislation isn't a total fix for California's jobs climate. But it is a major landmark on our road to recovery. We will still fight for continued improvements in the workers' compensation system. I will continue to work with the Legislature to streamline the permitting process and cut red-tape—which must be our next major focus of reform for California's jobs climate.

This legislation sends a powerful message to job-creators around the nation and around the globe. That message is: California's coming back.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following messages from the Governor were received and ordered printed in the Journal:

Governor's Office, Sacramento
July 20, 1993

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I have on this date signed Assembly Bill No. 19, which would establish an *inter*district public school choice program on an optional basis.

I have actively supported this proposal for more than two years. It represents an important step in affording parents more decision-making authority and in creating a healthy competition that will strengthen the education of California's children. In addition, today I have signed Assembly Bill No. 1114, which provides for *intra*district public school choice. The two measures taken together provide the potential for statewide open enrollment in the public schools.

These bills are a fitting follow-up to the charter schools legislation I signed last year. Reforms such as these were unimaginable just a year or two ago. I applaud the Legislature for its ability to move forward on such important educational issues. I am hopeful that school districts will seize upon this opportunity to better serve the schoolchildren of California and their parents.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

Governor's Office, Sacramento

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I have on this date signed Assembly Bill No. 1114, which would require school districts to adopt policies to provide for *intra*district public school choice programs.

This proposal represents an important step in affording parents more decision-making authority and in creating a healthy competition that will strengthen the education of California's children. In addition, today I have signed Assembly Bill No. 19, which provides for *inter*district public school choice. The two measures taken together provide the potential for statewide open enrollment in the public schools.

These bills are a fitting follow-up to the charter schools legislation I signed last year. Reforms such as these were unimaginable just a year or two ago. I am hopeful that school districts will seize upon this opportunity to better serve the schoolchildren of California and their parents.

Cordially,

Governor's Office, Sacramento
July 26, 1993

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am signing this date Assembly Bill No. 2059, which ensures continued access to health insurance for certain employers which purchase their health coverage through association sponsored health plans.

This bill responds to important concerns expressed by the association community regarding potential unintended consequences of last year's AB 1672 reforms, landmark legislation to reform the small employer health insurance market to make coverage more affordable and more available to small businesses. Associations have expressed concern that association members not meeting the current definition of small employer, defined as all small businesses with between 5 and 50 employees, could potentially lose access to health coverage should their association-based plan be cancelled.

An urgency bill, AB 2059 immediately addresses this potential gap in coverage by ensuring that associations have a guaranteed right to purchase coverage in the small group market for all their employer members—including individuals and very small groups. Further, it guarantees the continuation of access to coverage for vulnerable association members, such as retirees and widows.

Finally, and importantly, this bill addresses the issues raised by associations in a manner consistent with the integrity of last year's legislation which reformed insurance underwriting and rating practices in the small group market and established the nation's first statewide purchasing pool for small businesses.

Those reforms, which became effective July 1, 1993, have already begun to lower the cost of health insurance to California's small businesses. AB 2059 protects and builds upon these important reforms by ensuring that associations can participate in the AB 1672 market.

Major reform efforts often require legislative clean-up efforts. I believe this bill is a reasonable approach to the issues raised by the associations to date. I remain willing to work with the association community and members of the legislature to consider necessary and appropriate clean-up legislation, consistent with the framework established in AB 1672 and this bill, should the need arise.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

Gracious God, As once again we assemble here, renewed by time to ourselves and our families, we beseech You to bless our new beginning this morning, as we are at these desks. It is with gratitude that we recall the work and achievements before our days of rest. And so it is today, we set our trust in Your goodness in the workability of all that is before us. Keep before us, the vision of work well done. Help us not to fear amid the pressures along the way. When the way is sunny and glad and we step forward with eagerness and joy, or when the path is rough and we bear a weary load, be Thou our guide and stay. Give us strength for the journey and should our steps falter, give us a song of courage, our lips to sing.—AMEN.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following item veto message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal and the bills ordered to the unfinished business file:

Item Veto—Assembly Bill No. 2097

Governor's Office, Sacramento
July 19, 1993

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am deleting the $2,511,000 from the General Fund appropriation contained in Section 4 of Assembly Bill No. 2097.

This bill will extend statutory authority for the state to settle tax matter disputes from June 30, 1993 to June 30, 1994.

I am signing this bill because it is part of the budget solution; however, Section 4 is unnecessary because funding for this purpose was previously appropriated in Chapter 75, (Assembly Bill 102), Statutes of 1993.

With the above deletion, I hereby approve Assembly Bill No. 2097.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

RECEIPT

I acknowledge receipt this 19th day of July 1993, at 4:45 p.m., of the Governor's statement of the items of appropriation reduced or eliminated from Assembly Bill No. 2097 delivered to me personally by Karen Morgan.

E. DOTSON WILSON
Chief Clerk of the Assembly

The following veto message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal and the bill ordered to the unfinished business file:

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 343

Governor's Office, Sacramento
July 30, 1993

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill No. 343 without my signature.

This bill would extend the time that a sentencing court may recall a state prison sentence from the current 120 days to 180 days.

Since the proponents have not demonstrated a need for extending the current recall period and since I have not received a request from the California Judges' Association to do so, this bill is unnecessary.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

RECEIPT

Gracious God, of All Power, Who Knows the Goodness in Our Every Intention as We Come to These Desks; and Measures What We Intend to Do, by What We Do, Be near to us. Strengthen our resolve for good purposes which can meet the crying needs of our ailing state. Forbid that we should be satisfied with short measure, half-finished tasks or empty gestures which claim much, but accomplish little. Help us, that our purpose, here, is strong, like steel. Sustain us against the pressures which menace completion of the agenda on this floor. You are our guide and stay and, we ask in the names of all those who once sat here, never in a hurry, but finished the work they came to do.—AMEN.

Gracious God, Our lives are open books before You. You know the darkest hours of defeat, the times of doubt and our innermost secret fears. You witness our halting purposes, our unwillingness to face struggles and our reluctance to rock the boat. You know our frame and remember that we are of dust. As we come to these desks in this bright morning, enter our hearts and minds with the spirit of power. Strengthen us with the force of new convictions and readied enthusiasms. And grant us a perseverance that seeks no reward but to serve You and the people of this state.—AMEN.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Legislative Intent—Senate Bill No. 509 and Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 1

August 17, 1993

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Wilson: This letter is to express my understanding of the legislative intent of certain provisions of SB 509 and SCA 1 of the 1993–94 Regular Session.

As a participant in the leadership negotiations on the 1993–94 budget package it was my intent, and I believe the intent of the legislature, that the proceeds of the one-half cent sales tax levied pursuant to both SB 509 and SCA 1 may be used to cover any costs of cities and counties related to public safety services, including those costs of city attorneys directly related to public safety. Section 30052 of the Revenue and Taxation Code specifies that "public safety services" include, but are not limited to, sheriffs, police, fire protection, county district attorneys, and county corrections. This is clearly an exemplary list of functions, not an exclusive list. County and city governing bodies have the authority under this law to allocate sales tax revenues to other activities, such as city attorneys, provided those activities relate directly to public safety and fire protection services.

Sincerely,

WILLIE L. BROWN, JR.
Speaker of the Assembly

Explanation of Vote—Senate Bill No. 82

August 24, 1993

E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Dotson: This letter is to verify a vote change I made during the Assembly Floor Session of Monday, August 23, 1993.

During Session, I inadvertently cast an aye vote on Senate Bill 82. My intention was to vote no. Upon close of the session, I announced the vote change, from aye to no, at the rostrum as required. However I neglected to verify my signature on the back of the ballot to complete the vote change process and the vote change was not recorded.

Please ensure that the record shows that I cast a no vote on Senate Bill 82.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

BARBARA LEE, Assembly Member
Sixteenth District

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Assembly Member Archie-Hudson was granted unanimous consent that the following statement of legislative intent be printed in the Journal:

Legislative Intent--Assembly Bill No. 2942

August 30, 1993

Mr. E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Asembly
Assembly Chamber

Dear Chief Clerk: This letter is to address the legislative intent of Assembly Bill 2942, Chapter 1076. I am placing in the Assembly Journal an opinion issued by Legislative Counsel to clarify AB 2942. Notwithstanding Legislative Counsel's opinion regarding the operative date of this legislation, it is the legislative intent of the author that only industrial containers, as described in AB 2942, which are manufactured on or after September 1, 1993, are subject to this legislation.

Sincerely,

MARGUERITE ARCHIE-HUDSON, Assembly Member
Forty-eighth District

Sacramento, California
August 30, 1993

Honorable Marguerite Archie-Hudson
5016 State Capitol

Warning Labels on Industrial Containers—#27687

Dear Mrs. Archie-Hudson:

You have asked us several questions regarding Chapter 4.3 (commencing with Section 24425) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code [1] (hereafter Chapter 4.3), which took effect January 1, 1993, becomes operative on September 1, 1993 (Sec. 24428.5), and reads as follows:

"CHAPTER 4.3. CHILD SAFETY WARNING LABELS

"24425. A manufacturer, distributor, or seller of plastic or metal four-gallon to six-gallon, inclusive, straight sided, slightly tapered, open head, industrial containers, as defined by the American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state, irrespective of point of origin, shall ensure that the industrial containers bear warning labels, which shall be applied prior to release for shipment into the stream of commerce, and shall meet all of the following requirements:

"(a) The labels shall be a permanent paper, plastic, silk screened, or an offset printed label and shall be easily removable only by the use of tools or a solvent.

"(b) The labels shall be at least five inches in height, by two and three-quarters in width or any larger size as the labeler may voluntarily choose, and shall be centered on each side of the bucket near where the handle is inserted.

[1] All further code references are to the Health and Safety Code, unless otherwise specified

The label on one side shall be in Spanish, and the label on the other side shall be in English.

"(c) The label shall contain on a contrasting background both the word 'WARNING' in block print and the words 'Children Can Fall Into Bucket and Drown—Keep Children Away From Buckets With Even a Small Amount of Water.'

"(d) The label shall contain a picture of a child reaching into an industrial container and shall include an encircled slash and a triangle with an exclamation point upon a contrasting field before the word 'WARNING'.

"24427. Any person subject to the labeling requirements of this chapter is exempt from those requirements if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with the requirements of this chapter.

"24428. Any person who violates this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17200) of Part 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

"24428.5. This chapter shall become operative on September 1, 1993, and shall remain in effect unless or until preempted by federal law."

QUESTION NO. 1

What is the definition of the phrase "into the stream of commerce," as used in Chapter 4.3?

OPINION NO. 1

The phrase "into the stream of commerce," as used in Chapter 4.3, means into business intercourse between persons by way of sale, exchange, or traffic.

ANALYSIS NO. 1

Statutory terms should be construed in accordance with the usual or ordinary meaning of the words used (People ex rel. Younger v. Superior Court, 16 Cal. 3d 30, 43). A court has interpreted the term "commerce" as follows:

> "It is not every money-making activity that comes under the definition of commerce. There must also be present the element of business intercourse between persons by way of sale, exchange or traffic.
> "The products of manufacture are usually for commerce, but manufacture is not itself commerce. . . ." (Dillon v. San Diego Unified Port Dist., 27 Cal. App. 3d 296, 309–310.)

Thus, the court distinguished manufacture and industrial use from commerce (see also Markey v. Danville Warehouse & Lbr., Inc., 119 Cal. App. 2d 1, 5) and held that, in order to constitute commerce, there must be present the element of business intercourse between persons by way of sale, exchange, or traffic. [2]

Therefore, we conclude that the phrase "into the stream of commerce," as used in Chapter 4.3, means into business intercourse between persons by way of sale, exchange, or traffic.

QUESTION NO. 2

Under Chapter 4.3, may English and Spanish be included on the same label that appears on both sides of the container.

OPINION NO. 2

Under Chapter 4.3, English and Spanish may be included on the same label that appears on both sides of the container, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

ANALYSIS NO. 2

Subdivision (b) of Section 24425 requires a label to be at least five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, and requires the label on one side of a container to be in Spanish, and the label on the other side of the container to be in English. Subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 24425 require a label to contain certain words and a picture. Section 24427 exempts from those requirements a person subject to those labeling requirements if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3.

A statute is to be given a reasonable and common sense construction in accordance with the apparent purpose and intention of the lawmaker (County of Alameda v. Kuchel, 32 Cal. 2d 193, 199; see also Select Base Materials v. Board of Equal., 51 Cal. 2d 640, 645).

We think the apparent purpose of the minimum size requirement is to ensure that the warning words and picture are large enough to be easily read by a person using the container. Since one label of the minimum size is required to be in English, and one label of the minimum size is required to be in Spanish (subd. (b), Sec. 24425), we think, in order to substantially comply with Chapter 4.3, an area of a label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and

[2] The term "stream of commerce" is also "used to describe goods which remain in interstate commerce though held within a state for a short period of time If such goods remain in the stream of commerce, they are not subject to local taxation" (Black's Law Dictionary, Fifth Edition at p 1274).

There is no indication in Chapter 4 3 that the Legislature intended to limit the scope of the chapter only to industrial containers in interstate commerce The uncodified findings and declarations of the Legislature regarding Chapter 4 3 reflect a concern to promote safety and eliminate child and infant drownings (Sec 1, Ch 1076, Stats. 1992)

Statutes for the protection of the public welfare are ordinarily to be given a broad construction (Askew v Parker, 151 Cal App 2d 759, 762) Consequently, we do not think a court would construe "stream of commerce" to limit the industrial containers only to those in interstate commerce, but would apply Chapter 4 3 to those containers in intrastate commerce as well three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is required to be devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of a label is required to be devoted solely to Spanish.

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, English and Spanish may be included on the same label that appears on both sides of the container, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

QUESTION NO. 3

Under Chapter 4.3, may a third language be added to a label?

OPINION NO. 3

Under Chapter 4.3, a third language may be added to a label, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

ANALYSIS NO. 3

For the same reasons set forth in Analysis No. 2, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, a third language may be added to a label, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

QUESTION NO. 4

Under Chapter 4.3, may a label be located slightly behind or in front of the place on a container where the handle is inserted?

OPINION NO. 4

Under Chapter 4.3, a label may be located slightly behind or in front of the place on a container where the handle is inserted.

ANALYSIS NO. 4

Subdivision (b) of Section 24425 requires a label to be "centered on each side of the bucket near where the handle is inserted." Section 24427 exempts from those requirements a person subject to those requirements if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3.

We think a label located slightly behind or in front of, rather than centered on, the place on a container where the handle is inserted would substantially comply with the requirement of subdivision (b) of Section 24425, especially since subdivision (b) of Section 24425 requires only that the label be "near" where the handle is inserted.

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, a label may be located slightly behind or in front of the place on a container where the handle is inserted.

QUESTION NO. 5

Under Chapter 4.3, may a label contain the word "liquid" instead of the word "water"?

OPINION NO. 5

Under Chapter 4.3, a label may contain the word "liquid" instead of the word "water".

ANALYSIS NO. 5

Subdivision (c) of Section 24425 requires a label to contain the words "Children Can Fall Into Bucket and Drown—Keep Children Away From Buckets With Even a Small Amount of Water." Section 24427 exempts from those requirements a person subject to those requirements if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3. In addition, legislative findings and declarations regarding Chapter 4.3 state that "infants and small children have drowned after falling into industrial containers containing water or other liquids." (Sec. 1, Ch. 1076, Stats. 1992; emphasis added.)

We think a label containing the word "liquid" instead of the word "water" would substantially comply with the requirements of subdivision (c) of Section 24425, especially since Chapter 4.3 was intended to prevent infants and small children from drowning after falling into industrial containers containing water or other liquids.

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, a label may contain the word "liquid" instead of the word "water".

QUESTION NO. 6

If an industrial container would otherwise be subject to Chapter 4.3, would it remain subject to that chapter if federal law requires the industrial container to have a danger warning when it contains a certain product?

OPINION NO. 6

If an industrial container would otherwise be subject to Chapter 4.3, it would remain subject to that chapter even though federal law requires the industrial container to have a danger warning when it contains a certain product.

ANALYSIS NO. 6

Legislative findings and declarations regarding Chapter 4.3 read, in part, as follows:

> "(d) Although these five-gallon industrial containers can be purchased new in stores for heavy-duty household tasks, they are generally used to transport bulk or commercial quantities of products, including food, paint, cleaning solutions, and construction materials. When emptied of their original contents, these industrial containers sometimes find their way into homes.
> "(e) These industrial containers, when used around the home, present a profound and extreme hazard to infants and small children, because of the possibility of falling in head first, and drowning in the contents." (Sec. 1, Ch. 1076, Stats. 1992.)

We think the intent of Chapter 4.3 is to prevent an infant or small child from drowning in the contents of an industrial container, by warning of the danger of the industrial container itself, when it contains liquid. We do not think a label affixed to an industrial container warning of the danger of the contents of the industrial container would serve to warn of the danger of the industrial container itself, when it contains liquid.

Moreover, when the industrial container is emptied of its original contents, and the label warning of its contents is no longer accurate, the industrial container still presents the danger that Chapter 4.3 is intended to address.

Therefore, we conclude that, if an industrial container would otherwise be subject to Chapter 4.3, it would remain subject to that chapter even though federal law requires the industrial container to have a danger warning when it contains a certain product.

QUESTION NO. 7

Would federal law relating to the subject matter of Chapter 4.3 preempt Chapter 4.3? Would the federal law preempt Chapter 4.3 if the law excludes metal containers from its purview?

OPINION AND ANALYSIS NO. 7

Federal law relating to the subject matter of Chapter 4.3 [3] would be enacted pursuant to the power to regulate interstate commerce (para. (3), Sec. 8, Art. I, U.S. Const.). In determining whether federal law that is enacted pursuant to the power to regulate interstate commerce preempts state law, the courts have consistently used a two-prong test. The federal law will preempt the state law if it is found that there is actual conflict between the two schemes of regulation, so that both cannot stand in the same area, or where there is evidence of congressional design to preempt the field (People v. Conklin, 12 Cal. 3d 259, 264). If Congress has indicated an intention to occupy a particular field of law, any state legislation touching that same field is forbidden, regardless of whether there is any actual conflict between the two (Pennsylvania v. Nelson, 100 L. Ed. 640, 653).

Therefore, we conclude that federal law relating to the subject matter of Chapter 4.3 would preempt Chapter 4.3 if there is actual conflict between the federal law and Chapter 4.3, or if there is evidence of congressional design to preempt the subject matter of Chapter 4.3. Federal law, even if it excludes metal containers from its purview, still would preempt Chapter 4.3 to the extent there is actual conflict between the law and Chapter 4.3, or if there is evidence of congressional design to preempt the subject matter of Chapter 4.3.

QUESTION NO. 8

What is the penalty for a violation of Chapter 4.3?

OPINION NO. 8

A person who violates Chapter 4.3 is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is as well subject to an injunction, a civil penalty not to exceed $2,500, and an additional civil penalty not to exceed $6,000 for intentional violation of the injunction.[3]

---

[3] We have been directed to no federal law or pending legislation concerning this subject and thus we have set forth the test a court will apply in a particular context.

ANALYSIS NO. 8

Section 24428 provides that any person who violates Chapter 4.3 is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17200) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code (hereafter Chapter 5). Chapter 5 relates to enforcement against unfair competition, which is defined as follows:

> "17200. As used in this chapter, unfair competition shall mean and include any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice and unfair, deceptive, untrue or misleading advertising and any act prohibited by Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 17500) of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code." (Sec. 17200, B.& P.C.)

Since Section 24428 requires any person who violates Chapter 4.3 to be subject to Chapter 5, we think a violation of Chapter 4.3 constitutes unfair competition for purposes of Chapter 5.

Chapter 5 authorizes any person who engages, has engaged, or proposes to engage in unfair competition to be enjoined in any court of competent jurisdiction (Sec. 17203, B.& P.C.). In addition, Chapter 5 requires any person who engages, has engaged, or proposes to engage in unfair competition to be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed $2,500 for each violation of Chapter 5 (Sec. 17206, B.& P.C.). Finally, Chapter 5 requires any person who intentionally violates any injunction issued pursuant to Section 17203 of the Business and Professions Code to be liable for an additional civil penalty not to exceed $6,000, and requires each day of the violation to be a separate and distinct violation if the conduct is of a continuing nature (Sec. 17207, B.& P.C.).

Therefore, we conclude that a person who violates Chapter 4.3 is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is as well subject to an injunction, a civil penalty not to exceed $2,500, and an additional civil penalty not to exceed $6,000 for intentional violation of the injunction.

QUESTION NO. 9

What agency may enforce Chapter 4.3?

OPINION NO. 9

The Attorney General, a district attorney, a county counsel, a city prosecutor, or a city attorney may enforce Chapter 4.3.

ANALYSIS NO. 9

The district attorney is the public prosecutor, except as otherwise provided by law, and is required to initiate and conduct on behalf of the people all prosecutions for public offenses (Sec. 26500, Gov. C.). In addition, the Attorney General is required to see that the laws of the state are uniformly and adequately enforced and has direct supervision over district attorneys, sheriffs, and other law enforcement officers (Sec. 13, Art. V, Cal. Const.; Secs. 12550 and 12560, Gov. C.). Hence, a district attorney and the Attorney General bear responsibility for enforcing the misdemeanor sanction of Chapter 4.3.

With respect to actions brought under Chapter 5, the Attorney General, any district attorney, or a county counsel, city prosecutor, or city attorney, under certain circumstances, may bring actions for any relief pursuant to the chapter (Sec. 17204, B.& P.C.; see also Secs. 17204.5, 17206, and 17207, B.& P.C.).

Accordingly, we conclude that the Attorney General, a district attorney, a county counsel, a city prosecutor, or a city attorney may enforce Chapter 4.3.

QUESTION NO. 10

Under Chapter 4.3, is a label required to be recyclable?

OPINION NO. 10

Under Chapter 4.3, a label is not required to be recyclable.

ANALYSIS NO. 10

Chapter 4.3 contains no provision requiring that a label be recyclable. Moreover, there is no general provision of law that requires the label to be recyclable. However, provisions of the California Integrated Waste Management Act of 1989 (Div. 30 (commencing with Sec. 40000), P.R.C.) may apply to the industrial container itself (see Ch. 5.5 (commencing with Sec. 42300), Div. 30, P.R.C. (concerning manufacturing requirements for rigid plastic packaging containers); also see Ch. 1 (commencing with Sec. 18000), Div. 12.7, P.R.C. (concerning the labeling of plastic bottles and containers to indicate the type of resin used)).

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, a label is not required to be recyclable.

QUESTION NO. 11

Under Chapter 4.3, does a manufacturer, distributor, or seller have the first responsibility to apply a warning label?

OPINION AND ANALYSIS NO. 11

Section 24425 requires a manufacturer, distributor, or seller of a container subject to Chapter 4.3 that is intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state to ensure that the container bears a warning label, and requires the label to be applied prior to release for shipment into the stream of commerce. Thus, the person with the first responsibility to apply a warning label is the manufacturer, distributor, or seller who first releases the container for shipment into the stream of commerce. However, every manufacturer, distributor, or seller of a container subject to Chapter 4.3 that is intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state is required to ensure that the container bears a warning label.

Therefore, we conclude that the person with the first responsibility to apply a warning label to a container subject to Chapter 4.3 that is intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state, is the manufacturer, distributor, or seller who first releases the container for shipment into the stream of commerce. However, every manufacturer, distributor, or seller of a container subject to Chapter 4.3 that is intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state, is required to ensure that the container bears a warning label.

QUESTION NO. 12

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is the container subject to Chapter 4.3 if it is manufactured, filled, and packed on a pallet before September 1, 1993, and stored in inventory on that date?

OPINION NO. 12

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, it is subject to Chapter 4.3 although it is manufactured, filled, and packed on a pallet before September 1, 1993, and stored in inventory on that date.

ANALYSIS NO. 12

Section 24428.5 requires Chapter 4.3 to become operative on September 1, 1993. Thus, on and after September 1, 1993, a manufacturer, distributor, or seller of certain industrial containers is required to ensure that the containers bear warning labels, and the labels are required to be applied prior to shipment into the stream of commerce (Sec. 24425). There is no exception to this requirement for a container that is manufactured, filled, and packed on a pallet before September 1, 1993, and stored in inventory on that date.

Therefore, we conclude that if a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, it is subject to Chapter 4.3 although it is manufactured, filled, and packed on a pallet before September 1, 1993, and stored in inventory on that date.

QUESTION NO. 13

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is the container subject to Chapter 4.3 if it is in the stream of commerce prior to September 1, 1993?

OPINION NO. 13

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, the container is subject to Chapter 4.3, on and after September 1, 1993, although it is in the stream of commerce prior to September 1, 1993.

ANALYSIS NO. 13

For the same reasons set forth in Analysis No. 12, we conclude that, if a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, the container is subject to Chapter 4.3, on and after September 1, 1993, although it is in the stream of commerce prior to September 1, 1993.

QUESTION NO. 14

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is the container subject to Chapter 4.3 if it is sold to a variety of different markets?

OPINION NO. 14

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, the container is subject to Chapter 4.3 although it is sold to a variety of different markets, if it is intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state.

ANALYSIS NO. 14

Under Chapter 4.3, a manufacturer, distributor, or seller of certain industrial containers is required to ensure that the containers bear warning labels, which are required to be applied prior to release for shipment into the stream of commerce, if the containers are intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state (Sec. 24425). There is no exception to this requirement for a container that is sold to a variety of different markets.

Therefore, we conclude that, if a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, the container is subject to Chapter 4.3 although it is sold to a variety of different markets, if it is intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state.

QUESTION NO. 15

Under Chapter 4.3, may multiple languages be included on the same label that appears on both sides of the container?

OPINION NO. 15

Under Chapter 4.3, multiple languages may be included on the same label that appears on both sides of the container, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

ANALYSIS NO. 15

For the same reasons set forth in Analysis No. 2, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, multiple languages may be included on the same label that appears on both sides of the container, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

QUESTION NO. 16

Under Chapter 4.3, may a single label be used, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish?

OPINION NO. 16

Under Chapter 4.3, a single label may not be used, even if an area of the label is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

ANALYSIS NO. 16

Subdivision (b) of Section 24425 requires the label "on one side" to be in Spanish and the label "on the other side" to be in English. Therefore, subdivision (b) of Section 24425 contemplates that there will be two labels, one on each side of a container. Section 24427 exempts from those requirements a person subject to those labeling requirements if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3.

A statute is to be given a reasonable and common sense construction in accordance with the apparent purpose and intention of the lawmaker (County of Alameda v. Kuchel, supra, at p. 199).

We think the apparent purpose of requiring a label on each side of the container, each containing a picture, is to ensure that a person using the container may easily see one of the two labels, no matter which way the container is turned. We do not think a single label would ensure that a person using the container may easily see one of the two labels, no matter which way the container is turned. Hence, we do not think a single label is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3.

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, a single label may not be used, even if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

QUESTION NO. 17

Is a metal industrial container, otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, exempt from Chapter 4.3 if the container is not intended for residential use?

OPINION NO. 17

A metal industrial container, otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is not exempt from Chapter 4.3 although the container is not intended for residential use.

ANALYSIS NO. 17

Section 24425 requires a manufacturer, distributor, or seller of certain metal industrial containers to ensure that the containers bear warning labels, which are required to be applied prior to release for shipment into the stream of commerce, if the containers are intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state. There is no exception for metal industrial containers not intended for residential use Moreover, legislative findings and declarations regarding Chapter 4.3 stated that industrial containers "sometimes find their way into homes" (Sec. 1, Ch. 1076, Stats. 1992). Thus, we think the Legislature intended metal industrial containers to be subject to Chapter 4.3, even if the containers are not intended for residential use, because the containers may eventually be used in homes.

Therefore, we conclude that a metal industrial container, otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is not exempt from Chapter 4.3 although the container is not intended for residential use.

QUESTION NO. 18

Does Chapter 4.3 apply to a manufacturer, filler, retailer, and user of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3?

For purposes of this question, you have informed us that a "filler" of an industrial container is a person who purchases an industrial container, fills it with a product, then distributes or sells the filled container.

OPINION NO. 18

Chapter 4.3 applies to a manufacturer, filler, and retailer of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3, but does not apply to a user of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3.

ANALYSIS NO. 18

Section 24425 requires a manufacturer, distributor, or seller of certain industrial containers to ensure that the containers bear warning labels, which are required to be applied prior to release for shipment into the stream of commerce. Thus, by the terms of Section 24425, Chapter 4.3 applies to a manufacturer or an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3.

Since a filler, by definition, distributes or sells an industrial container, the issue is presented whether Chapter 4.3 applies to a person who distributes or sells an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3, when the container is filled with a product, and the person is not distributing or selling the container as a container, but is only distributing or selling the container as a means of distributing or selling the product inside the container.

Statutes for the protection of the public welfare are ordinarily to be given a broad construction (Askew v. Parker, supra, at p. 762). We think the intent of Chapter 4.3 is to prevent an infant or small child from drowning in the contents of an industrial container, by warning the public of the danger of the container. Thus, by broadly construing Chapter 4.3 to apply to a person who distributes or sells an industrial container, although the person distributes or sells the container only as a means of distributing or selling the product inside the container, we think the public is better protected by requiring the person to warn of the danger of the container. Accordingly, we conclude that Chapter 4.3 applies to a filler of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3.

With respect to a retailer, statutory terms should be construed in accordance with the usual or ordinary meaning of the words used (People v. ex rel. Younger v. Superior Court, 16 Cal. 3d 30, 43). The term "retailer" is defined in Webster's Third New International Dictionary (p. 1938) as "a merchant middleman who sells goods mainly to ultimate consumers." Thus, we think a retailer is a seller and, as such, is subject to Chapter 4.3. Moreover, we think Chapter 4.3 applies to a retailer regardless of whether the retailer sells the container alone, or sells the container only as a means of selling the product inside the container.

With respect to a user, when the language of a statute is clear, a court interpreting it should follow its plain meaning (Great Lakes Properties, Inc. v. City of El Segundo, (19 Cal. 3d 152, 155). No provision of Chapter 4.3 applies to a user of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3. Thus, we conclude that Chapter 4.3 does not apply to a user of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3.

In conclusion, Chapter 4.3 applies to a manufacturer, filler, and retailer of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3, but does not apply to a user of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3.

QUESTION NO. 19

Under Chapter 4.3, may a label be printed in one color or shade of black, white, or gray?

OPINION NO. 19

Under Chapter 4.3, a label may not be printed in one color or shade of black, white, or gray.

ANALYSIS NO. 19

As a practical matter, we question whether a label purporting to contain words or symbols, as is the case here, could be monochromatic or contain only one shade of black, white, or gray, and still be readable or decipherable. In any event, subdivision (c) of Section 24425 requires a label to contain "on a contrasting background" certain words. Thus, we think the words are required to be a different color or shade of black, white, or gray than the background on which the words are placed. Hence, we think the label is required to contain at least two colors or shades of black, white, or gray.

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, a label may not be printed in one color or shade of black, white, or gray.

QUESTION NO. 20

If an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3 bears a permanent label meeting the requirements of Chapter 4.3, may the container also bear a nonpermanent paper label that covers up the permanent label, if the nonpermanent paper label meets the requirements of Chapter 4.3, except that the label is nonpermanent?

OPINION NO. 20

If an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3 bears a permanent label meeting the requirements of Chapter 4.3, the container may also bear a nonpermanent paper label that covers up the permanent label, if the nonpermanent paper label meets the requirements of Chapter 4.3, except that the label is nonpermanent.

ANALYSIS NO. 20

Subdivision (a) of Section 24425 requires a label to be a permanent paper, plastic, silk screened, or an offset printed label and requires the label to be easily removable only by the use of tools or a solvent. Thus, under Chapter 4.3, a label is required to be permanent. However, Section 24427 exempts from the requirements of Chapter 4.3 a person subject to those labeling requirements if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3. We think that if an industrial container bears a permanent label meeting the requirements of Chapter 4.3, an additional label, that meets the requirements of Chapter 4.3, except that the label is nonpermanent, is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3.

Therefore, we conclude that, if an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3 bears a permanent label meeting the requirements of Chapter 4.3, the container may also bear a nonpermanent paper label that covers up the permanent label, if the nonpermanent paper label meets the requirements of Chapter 4.3, except that the label is nonpermanent.

QUESTION NO. 21

Is the definition contained in the Emergency Standard for Specification of Cautionary Labeling for Five Gallon Open-Head Containers (Buckets) of the American Society for Testing and Materials, issued December 30, 1992, incorporated into Chapter 4.3?

OPINION NO. 21

The definition contained in the Emergency Standard for Specification of Cautionary Labeling for Five Gallon Open-Head Containers (Buckets) of the American Society for Testing and Materials, issued December 30, 1992, is incorporated into Chapter 4.3.

ANALYSIS NO. 21

Section 24425 describes the industrial containers that are subject to Chapter 4.3, and reads, in part, as follows:

> "24425. A manufacturer, distributor, or seller of plastic or metal four-gallon to six-gallon, inclusive, straight sided, slightly tapered, open head, industrial containers, as defined by the American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) . . . .
> * * *"

Thus, Section 24425 applies to certain industrial containers, as defined by the American Society for Testing and Materials. The American Society for Testing and Materials issued an Emergency Standard for Specification of Cautionary Labeling for Five Gallon Open-Head Containers (Buckets) on December 30, 1992, heavy duty plastic lid hammered in place that cannot be removed without the use of a special tool that is not made available to purchasers of the container, such that the container does not have a full diameter unrestricted opening at the top.

QUESTION NO. 24

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is the container exempt from Chapter 4.3 if it is a five-gallon stainless steel commercial stock pot sold to, and used for cooking in, restaurants?

OPINION NO. 24

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, the container is not exempt from Chapter 4.3 although it is a five-gallon stainless steel commercial stock pot sold to, and used for cooking in, restaurants.

ANALYSIS NO. 24

Section 24425 requires a manufacturer, distributor, or seller of certain metal industrial containers to ensure that the containers bear warning labels, which are required to be applied prior to release for shipment into the stream of commerce, if the containers are intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state. There is no exception for metal industrial containers intended only for restaurant use. Thus, we think a five-gallon stainless steel commercial stock pot that otherwise meets the description set forth in Section 24425 is subject to Chapter 4.3 regardless of whether it is intended only for restaurant use. Moreover, legislative findings and declarations regarding Chapter 4.3 state that industrial containers "sometimes find their way into homes." (Sec. 1, Ch. 1076, Stats. 1992). Thus, we think the Legislature intended metal industrial containers to be subject to Chapter 4.3, even if the containers are intended only for restaurant use, because the containers may eventually be used in homes.

QUESTION NO. 25

Under Chapter 4.3, may the word "HAZARD" in block print be used in place of the work "WARNING"?

OPINION NO. 25

Under Chapter 4.3, the word "HAZARD" in block print may be used in place of the word "WARNING."

ANALYSIS NO. 25

Subdivision (c) of Section 24425 requires a label to contain the word "WARNING" in block print. We think the purpose of that requirement is to draw the attention of a user of the container to the label, so that the user will read, or otherwise take note of, the contents of the label and be warned of the danger of drowning. Section 24427 exempts from that requirement a person subject to that requirement if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3. We think a label containing the word "HAZARD" in block print instead of the word "WARNING" would substantially comply with the requirements of subdivision (c) of Section 24425, since the word "HAZARD" in block print would serve to draw the attention of a user of the container to the label.

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, the word "HAZARD" in block print may be used in place of the word "WARNING."

Gracious God, How thankful we are for the night through which we have come, for sleep and rest and Your unending care. In this moment of quiet we ask Your blessing and guidance as we begin the work of the day. Grant that we may live this day abundantly, without hurt, sickness, or death. So undergird us, that we can match every responsibility and task before us. In everything keep us mindful that we are ever in Your presence and You hear every word and know our every thought. Direct us as we deliberate on this floor; bring to pass, in what we do, all that is good and just. Help us to keep in mind as we labor here, the people of this state, their needs and hope, their fears and pains, the belief they have in us. For all these, may we reaffirm our solemn pledge, to remember the peoples' needs, but guided by You.—AMEN.

Clarification of Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 119

August 25, 1993

Mr. E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Dotson: It has come to my attention that on page 3261 of the July 16, 1993 Assembly Daily Journal, a letter of intent incorrectly referenced Assembly Bill 110 (Peace/Brulte).

The correct reference should have been to Assembly Bill 119 (Brulte), of the 1993 session which related to the compensability of psychiatric injuries.

The workers' compensation conference committee considered and rejected the notion that psychiatric injuries which are denied compensation under the new "predominant" or "substantial" cause tests are eligible for tort.

It is my intent that, as with past changes to Section 3208.3 of the Labor Code, AB 119 not affect the exclusive remedy doctrine.

Please have the Final Assembly Journal cross-reference the Assembly Daily Journal of July 16, 1993 (page 3261) with this letter (including the appropriate date and page).

Sincerely,

JAMES L. BRULTE
Assembly Republican Leader

OPINION OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL PRINTED IN JOURNAL

Pursuant to unanimous consent granted to Assembly Member Archie-Hudson on August 30, 1993, the following opinion of Legislative Counsel was printed in the Journal:

Mr. E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk
State Capitol, Room 3196

Dear Chief Clerk: This letter is to address the legislative intent of Assembly Bill 2942, Chapter 1076. I am placing in the Assembly Journal an opinion issued by Legislative Counsel to clarify AB 2942. Notwithstanding Legislative Counsel's opinion regarding the operative date of this legislation, it is the legislative intent of the author that only industrial containers, as described in AB 2942, which are manufactured on or after September 1, 1993, are subject to this legislation.

Warning Labels on Industrial Containers—#27687

Dear Mrs. Archie-Hudson:

You have asked us several questions regarding Chapter 4.3 (commencing with Section 24425) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code [1] (hereafter Chapter 4.3), which took effect January 1, 1993, becomes operative on September 1, 1993 (Sec. 24428.5), and reads as follows:

"CHAPTER 4.3. CHILD SAFETY WARNING LABELS

"24425. A manufacturer, distributor, or seller of plastic or metal four-gallon to six-gallon, inclusive, straight sided, slightly tapered, open head, industrial containers, as defined by the American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state, irrespective of point of origin, shall ensure that the industrial containers bear warning labels, which shall be applied prior to release for shipment into the stream of commerce, and shall meet all of the following requirements:

"(a) The labels shall be a permanent paper, plastic, silk screened, or an offset printed label and shall be easily removable only by the use of tools or a solvent.

"(b) The labels shall be at least five inches in height, by two and three-quarters in width or any larger size as the labeler may voluntarily choose, and shall be centered on each side of the bucket near where the handle is inserted. The label on one side shall be in Spanish, and the label on the other side shall be in English.

"(c) The label shall contain on a contrasting background both the word 'WARNING' in block print and the words 'Children Can Fall Into Bucket and Drown—Keep Children Away From Buckets With Even a Small Amount of Water.'

"(d) The label shall contain a picture of a child reaching into an industrial container and shall include an encircled slash and a triangle with an exclamation point upon a contrasting field before the word 'WARNING'.

"24427. Any person subject to the labeling requirements of this chapter is exempt from those requirements if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with the requirements of this chapter.

"24428. Any person who violates this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17200) of Part 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

"24428.5. This chapter shall become operative on September 1, 1993, and shall remain in effect unless or until preempted by federal law."

QUESTION NO. 1

What is the definition of the phrase "into the stream of commerce," as used in Chapter 4.3?

OPINION NO. 1

The phrase "into the stream of commerce," as used in Chapter 4.3, means into business intercourse between persons by way of sale, exchange, or traffic.

ANALYSIS NO. 1

Statutory terms should be construed in accordance with the usual or ordinary meaning of the words used (People ex rel. Younger v. Superior Court, 16 Cal. 3d 30, 43). A court has interpreted the term "commerce" as follows:

"It is not every money-making activity that comes under the definition of commerce. There must also be present the element of business intercourse between persons by way of sale, exchange or traffic.

"The products of manufacture are usually for commerce, but manufacture is not itself commerce. . . ." (Dillon v. San Diego Unified Port Dist., 27 Cal. App. 3d 296, 309–310.)

Thus, the court distinguished manufacture and industrial use from commerce (see also Markey v. Danville Warehouse & Lbr., Inc., 119 Cal. App. 2d 1, 5) and held that, in order to constitute commerce, there must be present the element of business intercourse between persons by way of sale, exchange, or traffic. [2]

Therefore, we conclude that the phrase "into the stream of commerce," as used in Chapter 4.3, means into business intercourse between persons by way of sale, exchange, or traffic.

QUESTION NO. 2

Under Chapter 4.3, may English and Spanish be included on the same label that appears on both sides of the container?

OPINION NO. 2

Under Chapter 4.3, English and Spanish may be included on the same label that appears on both sides of the container, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

ANALYSIS NO. 2

Subdivision (b) of Section 24425 requires a label to be at least five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, and requires the label on one side of a container to be in Spanish, and the label on the other side of the container to be in English. Subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 24425 require a label to contain certain words and a picture. Section 24427 exempts from those requirements a person subject to those labeling requirements if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3.

A statute is to be given a reasonable and common sense construction in accordance with the apparent purpose and intention of the lawmaker (County of Alameda v. Kuchel, 32 Cal. 2d 193, 199; see also Select Base Materials v. Board of Equal., 51 Cal. 2d 640, 645).

We think the apparent purpose of the minimum size requirement is to ensure that the warning words and picture are large enough to be easily read by a person using the container. Since one label of the minimum size is required to be in English, and one label of the minimum size is required to be in Spanish (subd. (b), Sec. 24425), we think, in order to substantially comply with Chapter 4.3, an area of a label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and

[2] The term "stream of commerce" is also "used to describe goods which remain in interstate commerce though held within a state for a short period of time. If such goods remain in the stream of commerce, they are not subject to local taxation" (Black's Law Dictionary, Fifth Edition at p. 1274).

There is no indication in Chapter 4.3 that the Legislature intended to limit the scope of the chapter only to industrial containers in interstate commerce The uncodified findings and declarations of the Legislature regarding Chapter 4.3 reflect a concern to promote safety and eliminate child and infant drownings (Sec 1, Ch. 1076, Stats 1992).

Statutes for the protection of the public welfare are ordinarily to be given a broad construction (Askew v. Parker, 151 Cal. App. 2d 759, 762). Consequently, we do not think a court would construe "stream of commerce" to limit the industrial containers only to those in interstate commerce, but would apply Chapter 4.3 to those containers in intrastate commerce as well three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is required to be devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of a label is required to be devoted solely to Spanish.

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, English and Spanish may be included on the same label that appears on both sides of the container, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

QUESTION NO. 3

Under Chapter 4.3, may a third language be added to a label?

OPINION NO. 3

Under Chapter 4.3, a third language may be added to a label, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

ANALYSIS NO. 3

For the same reasons set forth in Analysis No. 2, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, a third language may be added to a label, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

QUESTION NO. 4

Under Chapter 4.3, may a label be located slightly behind or in front of the place on a container where the handle is inserted?

OPINION NO. 4

Under Chapter 4.3, a label may be located slightly behind or in front of the place on a container where the handle is inserted.

ANALYSIS NO. 4

Subdivision (b) of Section 24425 requires a label to be "centered on each side of the bucket near where the handle is inserted." Section 24427 exempts from those requirements a person subject to those requirements if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3.

We think a label located slightly behind or in front of, rather than centered on, the place on a container where the handle is inserted would substantially comply with the requirement of subdivision (b) of Section 24425, especially since subdivision (b) of Section 24425 requires only that the label be "near" where the handle is inserted.

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, a label may be located slightly behind or in front of the place on a container where the handle is inserted.

QUESTION NO. 5

Under Chapter 4.3, may a label contain the word "liquid" instead of the word "water"?

OPINION NO. 5

Under Chapter 4.3, a label may contain the word "liquid" instead of the word "water".

ANALYSIS NO. 5

Subdivision (c) of Section 24425 requires a label to contain the words "Children Can Fall Into Bucket and Drown—Keep Children Away From Buckets With Even a Small Amount of Water." Section 24427 exempts from those requirements a person subject to those requirements if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3. In addition, legislative findings and declarations regarding Chapter 4.3 state that "infants and small children have drowned after falling into industrial containers containing water or other liquids." (Sec. 1, Ch. 1076, Stats. 1992; emphasis added.)

We think a label containing the word "liquid" instead of the word "water" would substantially comply with the requirements of subdivision (c) of Section 24425, especially since Chapter 4.3 was intended to prevent infants and small children from drowning after falling into industrial containers containing water or other liquids.

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, a label may contain the word "liquid" instead of the word "water".

QUESTION NO. 6

If an industrial container would otherwise be subject to Chapter 4.3, would it remain subject to that chapter if federal law requires the industrial container to have a danger warning when it contains a certain product?

OPINION NO. 6

If an industrial container would otherwise be subject to Chapter 4.3, it would remain subject to that chapter even though federal law requires the industrial container to have a danger warning when it contains a certain product.

ANALYSIS NO. 6

Legislative findings and declarations regarding Chapter 4.3 read, in part, as follows:

> "(d) Although these five-gallon industrial containers can be purchased new in stores for heavy-duty household tasks, they are generally used to transport bulk or commercial quantities of products, including food, paint, cleaning solutions, and construction materials. When emptied of their original contents, these industrial containers sometimes find their way into homes.
> "(e) These industrial containers, when used around the home, present a profound and extreme hazard to infants and small children, because of the possibility of falling in head first, and drowning in the contents." (Sec. 1, Ch. 1076, Stats. 1992.)

We think the intent of Chapter 4.3 is to prevent an infant or small child from drowning in the contents of an industrial container, by warning of the danger of the industrial container itself, when it contains liquid. We do not think a label affixed to an industrial container warning of the danger of the contents of the industrial container would serve to warn of the danger of the industrial container itself, when it contains liquid.

Moreover, when the industrial container is emptied of its original contents, and the label warning of its contents is no longer accurate, the industrial container still presents the danger that Chapter 4.3 is intended to address.

Therefore, we conclude that, if an industrial container would otherwise be subject to Chapter 4.3, it would remain subject to that chapter even though federal law requires the industrial container to have a danger warning when it contains a certain product.

QUESTION NO. 7

Would federal law relating to the subject matter of Chapter 4.3 preempt Chapter 4.3? Would the federal law preempt Chapter 4.3 if the law excludes metal containers from its purview?

OPINION AND ANALYSIS NO. 7

Federal law relating to the subject matter of Chapter 4.3 [3] would be enacted pursuant to the power to regulate interstate commerce (para. (3), Sec. 8, Art. I, U.S. Const.). In determining whether federal law that is enacted pursuant to the power to regulate interstate commerce preempts state law, the courts have consistently used a two-prong test. The federal law will preempt the state law if it is found that there is actual conflict between the two schemes of regulation, so that both cannot stand in the same area, or where there is evidence of congressional design to preempt the field (People v. Conklin, 12 Cal. 3d 259, 264). If Congress has indicated an intention to occupy a particular field of law, any state legislation touching that same field is forbidden, regardless of whether there is any actual conflict between the two (Pennsylvania v. Nelson, 100 L. Ed. 640, 653).

Therefore, we conclude that federal law relating to the subject matter of Chapter 4.3 would preempt Chapter 4.3 if there is actual conflict between the federal law and Chapter 4.3, or if there is evidence of congressional design to preempt the subject matter of Chapter 4.3. Federal law, even if it excludes metal containers from its purview, still would preempt Chapter 4.3 to the extent there is actual conflict between the law and Chapter 4.3, or if there is evidence of congressional design to preempt the subject matter of Chapter 4.3.

QUESTION NO. 8

What is the penalty for a violation of Chapter 4.3?

OPINION NO. 8

A person who violates Chapter 4.3 is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is as well subject to an injunction, a civil penalty not to exceed $2,500, and an additional civil penalty not to exceed $6,000 for intentional violation of the injunction.

[3] We have been directed to no federal law or pending legislation concerning this subject and thus we have set forth the test a court will apply in a particular context

ANALYSIS NO. 8

Section 24428 provides that any person who violates Chapter 4.3 is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17200) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code (hereafter Chapter 5). Chapter 5 relates to enforcement against unfair competition, which is defined as follows:

> "17200. As used in this chapter, unfair competition shall mean and include any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice and unfair, deceptive, untrue or misleading advertising and any act prohibited by Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 17500) of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code." (Sec. 17200, B.& P.C.)

Since Section 24428 requires any person who violates Chapter 4.3 to be subject to Chapter 5, we think a violation of Chapter 4.3 constitutes unfair competition for purposes of Chapter 5.

Chapter 5 authorizes any person who engages, has engaged, or proposes to engage in unfair competition to be enjoined in any court of competent jurisdiction (Sec. 17203, B.& P.C.). In addition, Chapter 5 requires any person who engages, has engaged, or proposes to engage in unfair competition to be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed $2,500 for each violation of Chapter 5 (Sec. 17206, B.& P.C.). Finally, Chapter 5 requires any person who intentionally violates any injunction issued pursuant to Section 17203 of the Business and Professions Code to be liable for an additional civil penalty not to exceed $6,000, and requires each day of the violation to be a separate and distinct violation if the conduct is of a continuing nature (Sec. 17207, B.& P.C.).

Therefore, we conclude that a person who violates Chapter 4.3 is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is as well subject to an injunction, a civil penalty not to exceed $2,500, and an additional civil penalty not to exceed $6,000 for intentional violation of the injunction.

QUESTION NO. 9

What agency may enforce Chapter 4.3?

OPINION NO. 9

The Attorney General, a district attorney, a county counsel, a city prosecutor, or a city attorney may enforce Chapter 4.3.

ANALYSIS NO. 9

The district attorney is the public prosecutor, except as otherwise provided by law, and is required to initiate and conduct on behalf of the people all prosecutions for public offenses (Sec. 26500, Gov. C.). In addition, the Attorney General is required to see that the laws of the state are uniformly and adequately enforced and has direct supervision over district attorneys, sheriffs, and other law enforcement officers (Sec. 13, Art. V, Cal. Const.; Secs. 12550 and 12560, Gov. C.). Hence, a district attorney and the Attorney General bear responsibility for enforcing the misdemeanor sanction of Chapter 4.3.

With respect to actions brought under Chapter 5, the Attorney General, any district attorney, or a county counsel, city prosecutor, or city attorney, under certain circumstances, may bring actions for any relief pursuant to the chapter (Sec. 17204, B.& P.C.; see also Secs. 17204.5, 17206, and 17207, B.& P.C.).

Accordingly, we conclude that the Attorney General, a district attorney, a county counsel, a city prosecutor, or a city attorney may enforce Chapter 4.3.

QUESTION NO. 10

Under Chapter 4.3, is a label required to be recyclable?

OPINION NO. 10

Under Chapter 4.3, a label is not required to be recyclable.

ANALYSIS NO. 10

Chapter 4.3 contains no provision requiring that a label be recyclable. Moreover, there is no general provision of law that requires the label to be recyclable. However, provisions of the California Integrated Waste Management Act of 1989 (Div. 30 (commencing with Sec. 40000), P.R.C.) may apply to the industrial container itself (see Ch. 5.5 (commencing with Sec. 42300), Div. 30, P.R.C. (concerning manufacturing requirements for rigid plastic packaging containers); also see Ch. 1 (commencing with Sec. 18000), Div. 12.7, P.R.C. (concerning the labeling of plastic bottles and containers to indicate the type of resin used)).

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, a label is not required to be recyclable.

QUESTION NO. 11

Under Chapter 4.3, does a manufacturer, distributor, or seller have the first responsibility to apply a warning label?

OPINION AND ANALYSIS NO. 11

Section 24425 requires a manufacturer, distributor, or seller of a container subject to Chapter 4.3 that is intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state to ensure that the container bears a warning label, and requires the label to be applied prior to release for shipment into the stream of commerce. Thus, the person with the first responsibility to apply a warning label is the manufacturer, distributor, or seller who first releases the container for shipment into the stream of commerce. However, every manufacturer, distributor, or seller of a container subject to Chapter 4.3 that is intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state is required to ensure that the container bears a warning label.

Therefore, we conclude that the person with the first responsibility to apply a warning label to a container subject to Chapter 4.3 that is intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state, is the manufacturer, distributor, or seller who first releases the container for shipment into the stream of commerce. However, every manufacturer, distributor, or seller of a container subject to Chapter 4.3 that is intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state, is required to ensure that the container bears a warning label.

QUESTION NO. 12

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is the container subject to Chapter 4.3 if it is manufactured, filled, and packed on a pallet before September 1, 1993, and stored in inventory on that date?

OPINION NO. 12

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, it is subject to Chapter 4.3 although it is manufactured, filled, and packed on a pallet before September 1, 1993, and stored in inventory on that date.

ANALYSIS NO. 12

Section 24428.5 requires Chapter 4.3 to become operative on September 1, 1993. Thus, on and after September 1, 1993, a manufacturer, distributor, or seller of certain industrial containers is required to ensure that the containers bear warning labels, and the labels are required to be applied prior to shipment into the stream of commerce (Sec. 24425). There is no exception to this requirement for a container that is manufactured, filled, and packed on a pallet before September 1, 1993, and stored in inventory on that date.

Therefore, we conclude that if a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, it is subject to Chapter 4.3 although it is manufactured, filled, and packed on a pallet before September 1, 1993, and stored in inventory on that date.

QUESTION NO. 13

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is the container subject to Chapter 4.3 if it is in the stream of commerce prior to September 1, 1993?

OPINION NO. 13

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, the container is subject to Chapter 4.3, on and after September 1, 1993, although it is in the stream of commerce prior to September 1, 1993.

ANALYSIS NO. 13

For the same reasons set forth in Analysis No. 12, we conclude that, if a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, the container is subject to Chapter 4.3, on and after September 1, 1993, although it is in the stream of commerce prior to September 1, 1993.

QUESTION NO. 14

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is the container subject to Chapter 4.3 if it is sold to a variety of different markets?

OPINION NO. 14

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, the container is subject to Chapter 4.3 although it is sold to a variety of different markets, if it is intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state.

ANALYSIS NO. 14

Under Chapter 4.3, a manufacturer, distributor, or seller of certain industrial containers is required to ensure that the containers bear warning labels, which are required to be applied prior to release for shipment into the stream of commerce, if the containers are intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state (Sec. 24425). There is no exception to this requirement for a container that is sold to a variety of different markets.

Therefore, we conclude that, if a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, the container is subject to Chapter 4.3 although it is sold to a variety of different markets, if it is intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state.

QUESTION NO. 15

Under Chapter 4.3, may multiple languages be included on the same label that appears on both sides of the container?

OPINION NO. 15

Under Chapter 4.3, multiple languages may be included on the same label that appears on both sides of the container, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

ANALYSIS NO. 15

For the same reasons set forth in Analysis No. 2, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, multiple languages may be included on the same label that appears on both sides of the container, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

QUESTION NO. 16

Under Chapter 4.3, may a single label be used, if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish?

OPINION NO. 16

Under Chapter 4.3, a single label may not be used, even if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

ANALYSIS NO. 16

Subdivision (b) of Section 24425 requires the label "on one side" to be in Spanish and the label "on the other side" to be in English. Therefore, subdivision (b) of Section 24425 contemplates that there will be two labels, one on each side of a container. Section 24427 exempts from those requirements a person subject to those labeling requirements if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3.

A statute is to be given a reasonable and common sense construction in accordance with the apparent purpose and intention of the lawmaker (County of Alameda v. Kuchel, supra, at p. 199).

We think the apparent purpose of requiring a label on each side of the container, each containing a picture, is to ensure that a person using the container may easily see one of the two labels, no matter which way the container is turned. We do not think a single label would ensure that a person using the container may easily see one of the two labels, no matter which way the container is turned. Hence, we do not think a single label is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3.

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, a single label may not be used, even if an area of the label that is substantially five inches in height, by two and three-quarters inches in width, or larger, is devoted solely to English, and a substantially equal area of the label is devoted solely to Spanish.

QUESTION NO. 17

Is a metal industrial container, otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, exempt from Chapter 4.3 if the container is not intended for residential use?

OPINION NO. 17

A metal industrial container, otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is not exempt from Chapter 4.3 although the container is not intended for residential use.

ANALYSIS NO. 17

Section 24425 requires a manufacturer, distributor, or seller of certain metal industrial containers to ensure that the containers bear warning labels, which are required to be applied prior to release for shipment into the stream of commerce, if the containers are intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state. There is no exception for metal industrial containers not intended for residential use. Moreover, legislative findings and declarations regarding Chapter 4.3 stated that industrial containers "sometimes find their way into homes" (Sec. 1, Ch. 1076, Stats. 1992). Thus, we think the Legislature intended metal industrial containers to be subject to Chapter 4.3, even if the containers are not intended for residential use, because the containers may eventually be used in homes.

Therefore, we conclude that a metal industrial container, otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is not exempt from Chapter 4.3 although the container is not intended for residential use.

QUESTION NO. 18

Does Chapter 4.3 apply to a manufacturer, filler, retailer, and user of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3?

For purposes of this question, you have informed us that a "filler" of an industrial container is a person who purchases an industrial container, fills it with a product, then distributes or sells the filled container.

OPINION NO. 18

Chapter 4.3 applies to a manufacturer, filler, and retailer of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3, but does not apply to a user of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3.

ANALYSIS NO. 18

Section 24425 requires a manufacturer, distributor, or seller of certain industrial containers to ensure that the containers bear warning labels, which are required to be applied prior to release for shipment into the stream of commerce. Thus, by the terms of Section 24425, Chapter 4.3 applies to a manufacturer or an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3.

Since a filler, by definition, distributes or sells an industrial container, the issue is presented whether Chapter 4.3 applies to a person who distributes or sells an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3, when the container is filled with a product, and the person is not distributing or selling the container as a container, but is only distributing or selling the container as a means of distributing or selling the product inside the container.

Statutes for the protection of the public welfare are ordinarily to be given a broad construction (Askew v. Parker, supra, at p. 762). We think the intent of Chapter 4.3 is to prevent an infant or small child from drowning in the contents of an industrial container, by warning the public of the danger of the container. Thus, by broadly construing Chapter 4.3 to apply to a person who distributes or sells an industrial container, although the person distributes or sells the container only as a means of distributing or selling the product inside the container, we think the public is better protected by requiring the person to warn of the danger of the container. Accordingly, we conclude that Chapter 4.3 applies to a filler of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3.

With respect to a retailer, statutory terms should be construed in accordance with the usual or ordinary meaning of the words used (People v. ex rel. Younger v. Superior Court, 16 Cal. 3d 30, 43). The term "retailer" is defined in Webster's Third New International Dictionary (p. 1938) as "a merchant middleman who sells goods mainly to ultimate consumers." Thus, we think a retailer is a seller and, as such, is subject to Chapter 4.3. Moreover, we think Chapter 4.3 applies to a retailer regardless of whether the retailer sells the container alone, or sells the container only as a means of selling the product inside the container.

With respect to a user, when the language of a statute is clear, a court interpreting it should follow its plain meaning (Great Lakes Properties, Inc. v. City of El Segundo, (19 Cal. 3d 152, 155). No provision of Chapter 4.3 applies to a user of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3. Thus, we conclude that Chapter 4.3 does not apply to a user of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3.

In conclusion, Chapter 4.3 applies to a manufacturer, filler, and retailer of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3, but does not apply to a user of an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3.

QUESTION NO. 19

Under Chapter 4.3, may a label be printed in one color or shade of black, white, or gray?

OPINION NO. 19

Under Chapter 4.3, a label may not be printed in one color or shade of black, white, or gray.

ANALYSIS NO. 19

As a practical matter, we question whether a label purporting to contain words or symbols, as is the case here, could be monochromatic or contain only one shade of black, white, or gray, and still be readable or decipherable. In any event, subdivision (c) of Section 24425 requires a label to contain "on a contrasting background" certain words. Thus, we think the words are required to be a different color or shade of black, white, or gray than the background on which the words are placed. Hence, we think the label is required to contain at least two colors or shades of black, white, or gray.

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, a label may not be printed in one color or shade of black, white, or gray.

QUESTION NO. 20

If an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3 bears a permanent label meeting the requirements of Chapter 4.3, may the container also bear a nonpermanent paper label that covers up the permanent label, if the nonpermanent paper label meets the requirements of Chapter 4.3, except that the label is nonpermanent?

OPINION NO. 20

If an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3 bears a permanent label meeting the requirements of Chapter 4.3, the container may also bear a nonpermanent paper label that covers up the permanent label, if the nonpermanent paper label meets the requirements of Chapter 4.3, except that the label is nonpermanent.

ANALYSIS NO. 20

Subdivision (a) of Section 24425 requires a label to be a permanent paper, plastic, silk screened, or an offset printed label and requires the label to be easily removable only by the use of tools or a solvent. Thus, under Chapter 4.3, a label is required to be permanent. However, Section 24427 exempts from the requirements of Chapter 4.3 a person subject to those labeling requirements if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3. We think that if an industrial container bears a permanent label meeting the requirements of Chapter 4.3, an additional label, that meets the requirements of Chapter 4.3, except that the label is nonpermanent, is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3.

Therefore, we conclude that, if an industrial container subject to Chapter 4.3 bears a permanent label meeting the requirements of Chapter 4.3, the container may also bear a nonpermanent paper label that covers up the permanent label, if the nonpermanent paper label meets the requirements of Chapter 4.3, except that the label is nonpermanent.

QUESTION NO. 21

Is the definition contained in the Emergency Standard for Specification of Cautionary Labeling for Five Gallon Open-Head Containers (Buckets) of the American Society for Testing and Materials, issued December 30, 1992, incorporated into Chapter 4.3?

OPINION NO. 21

The definition contained in the Emergency Standard for Specification of Cautionary Labeling for Five Gallon Open-Head Containers (Buckets) of the American Society for Testing and Materials, issued December 30, 1992, is incorporated into Chapter 4.3.

ANALYSIS NO. 21

Section 24425 describes the industrial containers that are subject to Chapter 4.3, and reads, in part, as follows:

> "24425. A manufacturer, distributor, or seller of plastic or metal four-gallon to six-gallon, inclusive, straight sided, slightly tapered, open head, industrial containers, as defined by the American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) . . . .

Thus, Section 24425 applies to certain industrial containers, as defined by the American Society for Testing and Materials. The American Society for Testing and Materials issued an Emergency Standard for Specification of Cautionary Labeling for Five Gallon Open-Head Containers (Buckets) on December 30, 1992, that contains a definition of "5-gallon open-head container," which reads as follows:

> "3.1 5-gallon open-head container, n. - for purpose of this standard, a straight sided vessel having a capacity of 3½–6½ gal, having a full diameter unrestricted opening at the top, height of greater than 10 but not over 19 inches, and designed to be carried by hand and to be used to transport liquids or solids."

We are informed that the American Society for Testing and Materials has issued no other definition of "industrial containers."

Since Section 24425 refers to industrial containers "as defined by the American Society for Testing and Materials" and since the American Society for Testing and Materials has issued no other definition of "industrial containers" other than that contained in the Emergency Standard for Specification of Cautionary Labeling for Five Gallon Open-Head Containers (Buckets), we conclude that the definition contained in the Emergency Standard for Specification of Cautionary Labeling for Five Gallon Open-Head Containers (Buckets) of the American Society for Testing and Materials, issued December 30, 1992, is incorporated into Chapter 4.3.

QUESTION NO. 22

If the American Society for Testing and Materials issues a standard that defines "industrial containers" to mean plastic, but not metal, containers, would Chapter 4.3 continue to apply to metal containers?

OPINION NO. 22

If the American Society for Testing and Materials issues a standard that defines "industrial containers" to mean plastic, but not metal, containers, Chapter 4.3 would continue to apply to metal containers.

ANALYSIS NO. 22

It is a rule of statutory construction that significance should be attributed to every word and phrase of a statute, and a construction making some words surplusage should be avoided (People v. Woodhead, 43 Cal. 3d 1002, 1010). Moreover, a statute is to be given a reasonable and common sense construction in accordance with the apparent purpose and intention of the lawmaker (County of Alameda v. Kuchel, supra, at p. 199). Section 24425 applies to certain plastic or metal industrial containers, as defined by the American Society for Testing and Materials. If the Legislature intended the definition by the American Society for Testing and Materials to be the sole description of the types of containers subject to Section 24425, the further description of those containers in Section 24425 would be surplusage. Hence, we think Section 24425 applies to certain plastic or metal industrial containers, and the definition by the American Society for Testing and Materials is used to describe only those properties of the containers not expressly set forth in Section 24425.

Therefore, we conclude that if the American Society for Testing and Materials issues a standard that defines "industrial containers" to mean plastic, but not metal, containers, Chapter 4.3 would continue to apply to metal containers.

QUESTION NO. 23

Is an industrial container, otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, exempt from Chapter 4.3, if the container is designed to hold used medical sharps and has a heavy duty plastic lid hammered in place, with an opening of 110 millimeters, that cannot be removed without the use of a special tool that is not made available to purchasers of the container?

OPINION NO. 23

An industrial container, otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is exempt from Chapter 4.3, if the container is designed to hold used medical sharps and has a heavy duty plastic lid hammered in place that cannot be removed without the use of a special tool that is not made available to purchasers of the container, such that the container does not have a full diameter unrestricted opening at the top.

ANALYSIS NO. 23

Chapter 4.3 applies to certain open head industrial containers, as defined by the American Society for Testing and Materials (Sec. 24425). As set forth in Analysis No. 21, the definition of the American Society for Testing and Materials includes a container having a full diameter unrestricted opening at the top. If the lid of an industrial container is hammered in place in such a manner that the lid becomes a permanent part of the container such that the container itself no longer has a full diameter unrestricted opening at the top, then the container does not have an open head and is not subject to Chapter 4.3.

Therefore, we conclude that, an industrial container, otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is exempt from Chapter 4.3, if the container is designed to hold used medical sharps and has a heavy duty plastic lid hammered in place that cannot be removed without the use of a special tool that is not made available to purchasers of the container, such that the container does not have a full diameter unrestricted opening at the top.

QUESTION NO. 24

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, is the container exempt from Chapter 4.3 if it is a five-gallon stainless steel commercial stock pot sold to, and used for cooking in, restaurants?

OPINION NO. 24

If a container is otherwise subject to Chapter 4.3, the container is not exempt from Chapter 4.3 although it is a five-gallon stainless steel commercial stock pot sold to, and used for cooking in, restaurants.

ANALYSIS NO. 24

Section 24425 requires a manufacturer, distributor, or seller of certain metal industrial containers to ensure that the containers bear warning labels, which are required to be applied prior to release for shipment into the stream of commerce, if the containers are intended for use, sale, distribution, or any other purpose within the state. There is no exception for metal industrial containers intended only for restaurant use. Thus, we think a five-gallon stainless steel commercial stock pot that otherwise meets the description set forth in Section 24425 is subject to Chapter 4.3 regardless of whether it is intended only for restaurant use. Moreover, legislative findings and declarations regarding Chapter 4.3 state that industrial containers "sometimes find their way into homes." (Sec. 1, Ch. 1076, Stats. 1992). Thus, we think the Legislature intended metal industrial containers to be subject to Chapter 4.3, even if the containers are intended only for restaurant use, because the containers may eventually be used in homes.

QUESTION NO. 25

Under Chapter 4.3, may the word "HAZARD" in block print be used in place of the word "WARNING"?

OPINION NO. 25

Under Chapter 4.3, the word "HAZARD" in block print may be used in place of the word "WARNING."

ANALYSIS NO. 25

Subdivision (c) of Section 24425 requires a label to contain the word "WARNING" in block print. We think the purpose of that requirement is to draw the attention of a user of the container to the label, so that the user will read, or otherwise take note of, the contents of the label and be warned of the danger of drowning. Section 24427 exempts from that requirement a person subject to that requirement if the person has a label that is in substantial compliance with Chapter 4.3. We think a label containing the word "HAZARD" in block print instead of the word "WARNING" would substantially comply with the requirements of subdivision (c) of Section 24425, since the word "HAZARD" in block print would serve to draw the attention of a user of the container to the label.

Therefore, we conclude that, under Chapter 4.3, the word "HAZARD" in block print may be used in place of the word "WARNING."

Gracious God, As we contemplate our morning here, we ask that You help us to think wise thoughts and speak sincere words. Help us to begin with things as they are but never forgetting what they ought to be. With Your blessing we would have a part in making the world a better place, but beginning with what is nearer, the pressing problems of California. Enable us through our work to lift burdens from the weary and tired and provide succor for the hungry and those in need. How full of possibilities for good are the hours at hand? Grant us this morning the purpose and strength, to move mountains, these mountains, mountains of paper, rhetoric, and self . . . that every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill brought low and California shall know again, the fullness of life, for the rough places shall be made plane.—AMEN.

O Lord, Open my eyes that I may see the needs of others; open my ears that I may hear their cries; open my heart so that they need not be without succor. Let me not be afraid to defend the weak because of the anger of the strong, nor afraid to defend the poor because of the anger of the rich. COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was presented by the Chief Clerk, and ordered printed in the Journal:

Explanation of Vote—Senate Bill No. 114

September 3, 1993

Mr. E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk
Room 3196, State Capitol
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Wilson: I was inadvertently recorded as an aye vote on SB 114. I immediately signed the ballot for a vote change; however the rules do not allow vote changes below the required number to pass a bill. Other members switched their vote ahead of me, preventing me from correcting the record.

I am in strong opposition to SB 114 and will move to rescind the action whereby the bill passed on September 7, the next legislative day.

Sincerely,

RICHARD L. MOUNTJOY, Assembly Member
Fifty-ninth District

Gracious God, Who Knows Us Better than We Know Ourselves, Be near to us, as hopefully, we begin these last days of the session's year. Give us strength so needed to work this day. Let us not be found weak before its difficulties or unable to face its duties. Let us not lose faith in ourselves or in each other. Keep us able and sound of heart and mind, in spite of ingratitude or meanness. Preserve us from minding little stings or giving them. Help us to keep clear and clean in mind, and so work this day that no shock or failure will upset or take away the joy in our work. Open wide our eyes that we may see the good in all things. Inspire us with some new vision of truth and fill us with the spirit of gladness, because what we are here to do, can make glad, the people of California!—AMEN.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Assembly Member Epple was granted unanimous consent that the following statement of legislative intent be printed in the Journal:

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 3620

August 26, 1993

Mr. E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Wilson, Last year the Legislature passed and the governor signed into law my AB 3620 (Chapter 883, Statutes of 1992), which overhauled California law governing the use of lis pendens.

Since its enactment, the new law has been the subject of numerous questions from attorneys and judges wishing to know the Legislature's intent in enacting these changes.

To clarify this issue of legislative intent, I submit for publication in the Assembly Daily Journal the California Code Comments which were developed by the sponsors of AB 3620, the Real Property Law Section of the State Bar of California. These comments accompanied the draft legislation when it was submitted to me for authorship, were provided to Legislative Counsel for its use in drafting AB 3620, and were considered by legislative committee staff in both houses in preparing their official analyses of the bill. The comments have been modified only to reflect Legislative Counsel's re-numbering of the new code sections contained in the draft legislation as submitted, and to take into account the two substantive amendments made to the bill during its consideration by the Legislature:

1). New §405.21 was revised on March 26, 1992, to give a judge discretion to approve a notice of pendency of action.

2). New §405.4 was revised on April 29, 1992, to exempt from the provisions of the bill easements obtained pursuant to statute by any regulated public utility.

With these revisions, the Code Comments prepared by the Real Property Law Section should be considered an accurate, contemporaneous expression of the Legislature's intent in enacting AB 3620.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

BOB EPPLE, Assembly Member
Fifty-sixth District
