DIRECTIONS.

To find when an Assembly Bill, the number of which is known, was introduced and passed, look in the last part of the index. If the number is not known, search for the subject of the bill, where will be stated the number of the bill, its author, and date of introduction. When a committee reported, it may be found under the name of the committee, and when it passed, under "Ayes and Noes." When a Senate Bill was received by the House will be found under "Messages from Senate," and when it passed, under title "Senate Bills, etc., Passed." The action of each member will be discovered under his name.
