If the council for any reason shall determine any such assessment to be void or unenforceable at such hearing for any cause, then in such event the council shall order a reassessment to be issued as provided in subdivision (b) of section 11 hereof, and thereafter such proceedings shall be taken as provided in said last mentioned subdivision. The estimated cost of the publications herein provided for and of the printing of such bonds shall be deemed to be an incidental expense of the work and be allowed by and included in the assessment issued to the contractor. In the event bonds can not be issued upon the security of any particular unpaid assessments by reason of any restraining order, injunction or other cause not applicable to other unpaid assessments, then the issuance of bonds upon the security of the assessments not affected by such restraining order, injunction or other cause, shall not be delayed, but such bonds may be issued in advance of the issuance of the bonds so affected.

SEC. 7. A new section to be known as section 5a is hereby added to said "Improvement bond act of 1915" to read as follows:

Sec 5a. If proceedings are had under the street opening act of 1903 the proceeds of the sale of such improvement bonds shall be paid into the fund of the proceeding to represent assessments in which said bonds were issued. If any bonds be sold for an amount in excess of par, such excess shall be paid into the general fund of the city.

SEC. 8. Section 6 of said improvement bond act of 1915 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec 6. Said bonds shall each be substantially in the following form:

IMPROVEMENT BOND
City (or other form of municipality) of (naming it)

§----- No -----
Under and by virtue of the act of the Legislature of the State of California, entitled (title of this act) the-----of----- (a municipal corporation) will on the second day of July, 19-----, out of the redemption fund for the payment of the bonds issued upon the assessments made for the work upon and improvements on certain streets (or on-----street, or in improvement district No----- or on certain rights of way owned by, or by other suitable description, (or for the laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening or acquiring of certain streets, as they are more particularly set forth in ordinance or (resolution) of intention No -----) more fully described in the certain resolution of intention passed by the city council (or other board) of said municipality on the-----day of -----, 19-----, pay to bearer, the sum of ----- ($-----) with interest thereon from the-----day of -----, 19-----, at the rate of-----per cent per annum, all as is hereinafter specified, and at the office of the treasurer of said municipality

This bond is one of several annual series of bonds of like date, tenor and effect, but differing in amounts and maturities, issued by said municipality under said act for the purpose of providing means for paying for the work and improvements described in said resolution of intention, and is secured by the moneys in said redemption fund and by the unpaid assessments made for the payment of said work, and, including principal and interest, is payable exclusively out of said fund.

The interest is payable semiannually, to wit: On the second days of January and July in each year hereafter, upon presentation of the proper coupons therefor, provided, that the first of said coupons is for the interest to the second day of January 19-----, and thereafter the interest coupons are for the semiannual interest.

This bond will continue to bear interest after maturity at the rate above stated; provided, it is presented at maturity and payment thereof is refused upon the sole ground that there is not sufficient moneys in said redemption fund with which to pay same. If it is not presented at maturity interest thereon will run until maturity.

This bond may be redeemed and paid in advance of maturity upon the second of January or July in any year by giving the notice provided in said act and by paying principal and accrued interest together with a premium equal to five per centum of the principal.

In witness whereof, said-----of-----has caused this bond to be signed by the treasurer of said-----and by its clerk and has caused its clerk to affix thereto its corporate seal all on the-----day of -----, 19-----.

Clerk.

Treasurer.

SEC. 9 Section 13 of said improvement bond act of 1915 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 13 (a) Interest on all unpaid assessments shall begin to run from the date of filing of the contractor's statement, or as otherwise provided in said street work act, or from thirty days after the first publication of notice of recording the assessment, if proceedings are had under street opening act of 1903, and shall be computed at the same rate specified in the bonds secured by such assessments. Such interest shall be payable annually or semiannually as above provided, according as such general municipal taxes on real property in such city are payable annually or semiannually, but shall for each year be computed and collected up to the next second day of July succeeding, no deduction being made by reason of any installment of such assessment being due or paid prior thereto in such year.

(b) Wherever it shall appear to the council that, according to the dates when taxes are collected in any city, there will be an insufficient amount on hand to pay the interest when due, according to the method of collection provided by the preceding provisions of this act, then said council may direct that such interest or some portion of same be collected in the year preceding that in which the same would otherwise be collected under this act, and thereupon such interest or portion thereof shall be extended on the rolls for such preceding year and be due and collected therein.

Sec. 10. Section 18 of said "Improvement bond act of 1915" is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 18. The term "city auditor" as used in this act shall be held to mean and include any person who under whatever name or title, is charged with the duty of extending taxes upon the assessment rolls and lists. The term "tax collector" as used in this act shall be held to mean and include any person who, under whatever name or title, is charged with the duty of collecting taxes, advertising delinquent lists of unpaid taxes, selling lands thereunder and executing certificates of sale and deeds thereon. Wherever in this act the name of any municipal body or other officer is used, or any word or phrase is used which is not herein expressly defined, it means and shall be taken to mean such municipal body or officer, or word or phrase as the same respectively is expressly defined in said street work act.

The phrase "work and improvement" and the terms "work" and "improvement" shall be deemed to include any work or improvements provided for in any of the street works acts herein referred to, and when appropriate to the context shall include the laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening or acquiring of public streets, squares, lanes, alleys, easements, courts or places.

SEC. 11. Section 20 of said Improvement bond act of 1915 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 20. This act shall in no wise affect an act entitled "An act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvement within municipalities, and also for payment of said bonds," approved February 27, 1893, nor part three of the "Improvement act of 1911" hereinbefore referred to, nor an act entitled "An act providing for the issuance of improvement bonds to represent certain special assessments for public improvements, and providing for the effect and enforcement of such bonds," approved April 27, 1911, nor any similar acts on the same subject, or apply to proceedings had thereunder, but is intended to and does provide an alternate system for the issuance of bonds to represent and be secured by the assessments mentioned in this act, and it shall be in the discretion of the legislative body of any city to proceed under the provisions of this act or of such other acts; but when any proceedings for the issuance of bonds are commenced under this act, as amended from time to time, the provisions of this act, and of such amendments thereof as may be hereafter adopted, and no other, shall apply to all such proceedings, and any provisions contained in said acts or any acts in conflict herewith shall be void and of no effect as to such proceedings commenced under this act. This act may be designated and referred to as the "Improvement bond act of 1915."

Amendments adopted.

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, engrossment, and third reading.

AMENDMENT NUMBER EIGHTEEN

On page 26, line 10 of the printed bill, immediately following line 10, add the following paragraphs:

"SEC 44. In any case where the harbor district is wholly contained within the limits of any one city, the said city may constitute any of its boards or commissions authorized under its charter to manage or control such lands or improvements as are included under this act as the board of governors of said harbor district and said board or commission so authorized by said city shall exercise all the functions and have all the powers herein granted to boards of governors of harbor districts

SEC 45 In any case where contiguous territory not originally included within the boundaries of any harbor district formed hereunder shall desire to annex to said harbor district and be included within the same, then, by petition signed in the manner hereinbefore provided for the formation of an original harbor district hereunder and upon the filing with the board of governors of said harbor district of said petition said board of governors may call two elections, which elections shall be called and held in the manner generally provided by law and notice thereof shall be given to the electors residing within the territories within which such elections are to be held, by mailing a sample ballot to each of said electors not less than twenty days prior to the date when such elections are to be held. The first of these two said elections may be held within the territory proposed to be annexed and a resolution authorizing the calling of said election shall be adopted by the board of governors. In each said resolution the total indebtedness of the harbor district on account of district bonds, interest, or otherwise shall be stated, and the proportionate amount of such total indebtedness, if any, to be assumed by the territory proposed to be annexed shall be stated and the ballot used at said election shall state the question "Shall that certain territory (describing same) be annexed to-----harbor district (naming the harbor district to which annexation is proposed) and shall the said territory to be annexed assume to pay the sum of-----dollars of the total indebtedness of said district, which said total indebtedness of said district is herein stated to be-----dollars (naming the total indebtedness of the district)?"

The votes cast at said election shall be canvassed by the board of governors of the harbor district and if it is found as a result of said canvass that a majority of the votes cast at said election within the territory stated to be annexed to the harbor district are favorable to the annexation thereof then, and in that event, the board of governors shall call an election to be held within the harbor district and the ballot shall state the proposition as follows:

"Shall that certain territory (describing same) be annexed to-----harbor district (naming the harbor district) and assume to pay-----dollars (naming the amount) of the total indebtedness of-----harbor district (naming the harbor district) said total indebtedness being in the sum of-----dollars (naming the amount of said total indebtedness)?"

The board of governors shall, after said election is held, canvass the returns thereof, and if, as a result of said canvass, it is found that a majority of votes cast at said election are in favor of the annexation of said additional territory then the board of governors shall adopt a resolution stating the fact that said additional territory is included within-----harbor district (naming the harbor district) and that the said additional territory so annexed has assumed to pay the sum of-----dollars of the total indebtedness of the harbor district

A copy of said resolution shall be certified and transmitted to the county auditor or county auditors any of whose territory is included within the enlarged harbor district and the said resolution shall constitute authority of the officials of said county or counties to annually charge the lands contained within the annexed territory with the amounts required to discharge that portion of the harbor district's indebtedness assumed to be paid by such annexed territory. Collection of said sums so to be paid by said annexed territory to be effected by the levy and collection of taxes within the lands of said annexed territory in the manner and form as provided hereinbefore for the collection of moneys for the payment of bond sinking funds, interest and maintenance charges of said harbor district."

Amendments adopted.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE.

The following report of standing committee was received and read:

ON FISH AND GAME.

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, May 6, 1920.

MR. SPEAKER Your Committee on Fish and Game, to which was referred the following resolution by Mr. Heisinger:

A RESOLUTION.

Relative to fish, game, and migratory game birds; providing for the creation of a committee of the Assembly to study the life and habits of same in California; and to prepare and submit a report of their findings to the Governor for transmittal to the Legislature and making an appropriation to cover the cost and expenses of the members of said committee incurred in the performance of such work.

WHEREAS, There is a general lack of knowledge as to the true status of the fish, game and migratory game life in California; and

WHEREAS, There is an almost universal desire on the part of the members of the Legislature of this State to preserve our fish and game life and to conserve it in such fashion as will benefit the present as well as future generations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, That there is hereby created an Assembly committee to consist of three members to be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly.

It shall be the duty of said committee to make a special study and investigation of fish, game and migratory wild game; their breeding habits, their breeding grounds, their productivity, their supply, the effects of nesting places upon their supply, whether private sanctuaries are harmful or beneficial to such wild life, and in addition thereto to determine what factor is most beneficial to the continued numbers of such fish, game and migratory wild game life.

It shall also be the duty of said committee to gather all available data possible from the federal government and from other states in regard to migratory wild life and to compile all data so obtained and from such compilation to render its report to the Governor of this State to be transmitted by the Governor to the Legislature. Such report shall be submitted not later than the 31st day of December, 1930.

The members of said committee shall receive no compensation for their services as a member of such committee but they shall receive all actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing their duties as a member of such committee.

There is hereby appropriated $2,000 from the contingent fund of the Assembly or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in making the investigation and report herein referred to. Same to be paid by the Controller on warrants drawn against the amount herein appropriated, when duly signed by the chairman of said committee.

RESOLUTION.

The following resolution was offered:

By Mr. Feeley:

RESOLUTION.

Relating to the Investigating of the Cannery at the Mouth of the Klamath River.

WHEREAS, The continued existence and operation of the fish cannery at the mouth of the Klamath River is inimical to the best interests of the Klamath River Fish and Game District, in that commercial fishing resorted to within the river is not beneficial to the run of salmon and steelhead trout; and

WHEREAS, This river is the last great source of supply of salmon and steelhead trout spawn and is necessary to supply the hatcheries of the State with those species of food fishes for artificial propagation; and

WHEREAS, There has been introduced in the last two sessions of the Legislature a bill prohibiting commercial fishing of salmon in the Klamath River; and

WHEREAS, These bills have been defeated by the committees of both houses on the grounds that the said bills would take away the right of private property and would be a condemnation of the cannery operating on the Klamath River without due process of law; and

WHEREAS, It has been suggested by the Fish and Game Commission and members of the Legislature that the said fish cannery operating at the mouth of the Klamath River be purchased by the State of California, so as to prohibit the commercial fishing on the said Klamath River; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California. That the Speaker of the Assembly appoint a committee of three members of the Assembly to make an investigation and appraisal of the said cannery located at the mouth of the Klamath River, and the said committee confer with the Fish and Game Commission for the purpose of reaching an amicable adjustment and fair value of the said cannery for the purpose of having the Bureau of Fish and Game of the Department of Natural Resources immediately proceed with the purchase of the said cannery, and that the cost thereof be defrayed out of the fish and game preservation funds, and be it further

Resolved. That the sum of $1,000 is hereby appropriated out of the contingent fund for the purpose of making said investigation and appraisal of the said cannery property located at the mouth of the Klamath River

Mr. Feeley moved the adoption of the resolution.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 46 ordered transmitted to the Senate.

ASSEMBLY CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 46.

Relative to the creation of a committee for the making of a comprehensive study of legislative organization and procedure and related matters.

WHEREAS, There is need of a comprehensive study of legislative bodies, their organization, procedure and times of meeting to the end that the members of the Legislature of this State may be properly informed and advised as to such changes in respect thereto as may best suit the needs of California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That a committee of five members, consisting of three members of the Assembly to be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and two members of the Senate, to be appointed by the President of the Senate. It is the duty of this committee to investigate and report on all matters and things which in its judgment are necessary or convenient to enable the Legislature to consider and recommend to the electors of the State such changes as may be deemed desirable in the constitution, organization and procedure of the Legislature of this State, comprehending among other things, the study of legislative systems of other states, frequency of regular sessions, compensation of members of legislative bodies, limitation upon the number of legislative bills which may be introduced by members, the policy and practice of introduction of bills by committees and the organization and work of committees between sessions; and be it further

Resolved, That said committee shall proceed to organize by the election of one of its members as chairman and by the election of a secretary and shall proceed with said investigation in such manner as may be determined by the committee; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee is hereby authorized to hold hearings at any place in this State, at which hearings, the people shall have an opportunity to present their views to the committee with reference to any suggested change with reference to questions under consideration by the committee and the committee may send any of its members or its secretary to any state in the union to make an investigation of conditions and/or to confer with other persons and organizations interested in solving the same or similar problems; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee is hereby authorized to do any and all things necessary to make a full and complete investigation of the matters herein referred to require the production of books, documents, records and papers of any kind; to issue subpoenas, to compel the attendance of witnesses and to procure testimony. Each member of the commission is hereby authorized to administer wants and all the provisions of article VIII, of chapter VIII, of title I, of part III, of the Political Code, relating to the attendance of witnesses before the Legislature and committees thereof shall apply to the committee appointed under this resolution and the committee shall submit its report to the Legislature of this state during the first week of the forty-ninth session thereof; and be it further

Resolved, That the sum of $5,000 is hereby set apart, reserved and appropriated out of the respective contingent funds of the Assembly and Senate, said sum to be payable one-half from the contingent fund of the Assembly and one-half from the contingent fund of the Senate but not exceeding the sum of $5,000 in all, for the purpose of paying the expenses incurred by the committee and the members thereof under the authority hereof, said payments to be disbursed from time to time by Controller's warrants to be drawn against said contingent funds upon written orders of the chairman of the committee. The members of the committee shall receive no salaries as members thereof, but they shall receive their necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties hereunder.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 35.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the constitution of said State, by amending sections 2, 3, 15, 23 and 23a of article IV thereof, relating to the legislative department.

Resolved, by the Assembly, the Senate concurring. That the Legislature of the State of California at its forty-eighth session, commencing on the seventh day of January, 1929, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby proposes to amend sections 2, 3, 15, 23 and 23a of article IV of the constitution of the said State of California to read as follows:

Sec. 2. All sessions of the Legislature shall be annual, unless the Governor shall, in the interim, convene the Legislature, by proclamation, in extraordinary session. All sessions other than extraordinary shall commence at twelve o'clock m. on the first Monday after the first day of January each year.

Sec. 3. Members of the Assembly shall be elected in the year 1930 at the time and in the manner provided by law. Thereafter members of the Assembly shall be chosen for the term of four years and each election shall be on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, unless otherwise ordered by the Legislature; provided, however, that the seats of the forty Assemblymen elected in the year 1932 from the odd-numbered districts shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year so that one-half of the members of the Assembly shall be elected every two years.

Sec. 15. No law shall be passed except by bill. Neither house shall place any bill upon final passage until the same, with the amendments thereto, have been printed for the use of the members and thirty days have elapsed from the date of its introduction, unless in case of urgency, two-thirds of the members of the house of origin, by a vote of yeas and nays, dispense with this provision. Nor shall any bill become a law unless the same be read on three several days in each house, unless, in case of urgency, two-thirds of the house where such bill may be pending, shall, by a vote of yeas and nays, dispense with this provision. Any bill may originate in either house, but may be amended or rejected by the other; and on the final passage of all bills they shall be read at length, and the vote shall be by yeas and nays upon each bill separately, and shall be entered on the Journal, and no bill shall become a law without the concurrence of a majority of the members elected to each house.

Sec. 23. The members of the Legislature shall receive for their services the sum of $3,600 each for each year of the term for which they are elected, to be paid at such times during the session as may be provided by law.

Sec. 23a. Each house of the Legislature may, by resolution, provide for the employment of help, prescribe the duties and fix the compensation thereof; but in no case shall the total expense for officers, employees and attaches exceed the sum of $400 per day for the Senate and $450 per day for the Assembly, at any regular session, exclusive of the salary of the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, who shall each receive such salary as shall be fixed by law, nor the sum of $150 per day for each house at any special or extraordinary session, exclusive of the salaries of the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly. Except as herein otherwise specified, the provisions of this section shall be self-executing.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 24.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California, an amendment to the constitution of said State by adding a new article thereto to be known as article XIII½, relating to revenue and taxation.

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California, at its forty-eighth regular session, commencing on the seventh day of January 1929, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the constitution of said State be amended by adding a new article thereto, to be known as article XIII½, to read as follows:

ARTICLE XIII½.

SECTION 1. Subject to the provisions of section 1 of article IV and subdivision IV of section 16 of article XIII of the constitution, the Legislature is given and shall have and exercise full, complete and unrestricted power and authority (a) to define and classify property, not exempt under this constitution or under the laws of the United States, for taxation for State purposes, (b) to levy and impose taxes for State purposes and provide for the collection thereof, (c) to determine and provide the method, manner and means of raising and providing revenue for State purposes, and (d) to do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary, proper or convenient to exercise and carry into effect any or all of the powers and authority conferred by this article; provided, that until the Legislature shall have exercised the power and authority conferred by this article and made provision for the support and maintenance of the State government and for the necessary revenue for said purposes as herein authorized, the method, manner and means of levying and collecting taxes and raising revenue for State purposes now in force shall remain and continue, but when the Legislature shall have exercised the power and authority herein conferred upon it and made provision for the support of the State government and for the necessary revenues for State purposes, all parts and portions of this constitution in conflict with this article shall be deemed repealed.

If any of the provisions of this section conflict with the provisions of any other amendment to this constitution approved and ratified by the electors at the same election as that at which this amendment is approved and ratified, the provisions of this section shall prevail.

ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION No. 15

Relative to memorializing and petitioning Congress to enact legislation for the exclusion of Filipinos.

WHEREAS, The policy of unrestricted immigration as an aid to cheap labor has had a tendency towards destruction of American ideals and American racial unity; and

WHEREAS, This policy has tended to exploit the Negroes, the Chinese, the Japanese and the Hindus, resulting in their regulation or exclusion; and

WHEREAS, Filipinos have not been among those excluded under the Immigration Laws of the United States in accordance with our national policy of restrictive immigration; and

WHEREAS, The present absence of restriction on immigration from the Philippine Islands opens the door annually to thousands of Filipinos, causing unjust and unfair competition to American labor, and nullifying the beneficial results to be expected from a national policy of restrictive immigration; therefore be it

Resolved, by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly. That the Legislature of the State of California earnestly petitions Congress to enact legislation which will exclude Filipinos from the United States or, at least, restrict immigration from the Philippine Islands; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly be and he is hereby directed to send copies of this resolution to each member of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States the constitutional mandate with respect to mechanics' liens and to suggest remedial legislation.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 47 was adopted.

ASSEMBLY CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No 47.

A resolution calling for the appointment of a special legislative committee to consider the constitutional mandate with respect to mechanic's liens and to suggest remedial legislation.

WHEREAS, The constitution of the State of California declares that mechanics, materialmen, artisans and laborers shall have a lien upon the property upon which they have bestowed labor or furnished material and provides that the Legislature shall provide for a speedy and efficient enforcement of such liens; and

WHEREAS, It appears that existing statutes do not efficiently provide for the protection of such classes of lienors and that the purpose of such constitutional mandate seems to be defeated; and

WHEREAS, It appears that remedial legislation may be urgently needed, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That a joint legislative committee of four, two of whom shall be members of the Assembly and appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and two of whom shall be members of the Senate and appointed by the Lieutenant Governor, be appointed to consider the matter and make a report at the next session of this Legislature and to suggest any appropriate legislation that in their opinion may be proper with respect thereto.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 13.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the constitution of said State by amending section 1 of article XIII of the constitution relating to taxation

Resolved by the Assembly the Senate concurring. That the Legislature of the State of California, at its forty-eighth regular session, commencing on the seventh day of January, 1929, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that section 1 of article XIII of the constitution of this State be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. All property in the State except as otherwise in this constitution provided, not exempt under the laws of the United States, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, to be ascertained as provided by law, or as hereinafter provided. The word "property," as used in this article and section, is hereby declared to include moneys, credits, bonds, stocks, dues, franchises, and all other matters and things, real, personal, and mixed, capable of private ownership, provided, that a mortgage, deed of trust, contract, or other obligation by which a debt is secured when land is pledged as security for the payment thereof, together with the money represented by such debt shall not be considered property subject to taxation; and provided, further, that property used for free public libraries and free museums, growing crops, property used exclusively for public schools, and such as may belong to the United States, this State, or to any county, city and county, municipal corporation, or irrigation district, within this State shall be exempt from taxation, except such lands and the improvements thereon located outside of the county or city and county, and except such lands and the improvements thereon located outside of the county or counties or city and county in which the municipal corporation or irrigation district owning the same is located, as were subject to taxation at the time of the acquisition of the same by said county, city and county, or municipal corporation or irrigation district; provided, that no improvements of any character whatever constructed by any county, city and county, municipal corporation or irrigation district shall be subject to taxation. All lands or improvements thereon, belonging to any county, city and county, municipal corporation or irrigation district not exempt from taxation, shall be assessed by the assessor of the county, city and county, or municipal corporation in which said lands or improvements are located; provided, that the assessed valuation shall at no time be greater than that shown for the same property upon the equalized assessment roll of the county for the year prior to that in which the property was acquired by the county, city and county, municipal corporation or irrigation district. The Legislature may provide, except in the case of credits secured by mortgage or deed of trust, for a deduction from credits of debts due to bona fide residents of this State.

ASSEMBLY CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 48.

Relative to certain abuses arising from the conduct of fruit and vegetable auctions within this State.

WHEREAS, The orderly and systematic conduct of fruit and vegetable markets within this State, is of essential interest and concern to the producer and consumer alike, and

WHEREAS, Current reports clearly indicate that subsidiaries of certain public utilities operating fruit and vegetable auctions within this State, are guilty of unethical practices, including the sale of fruit and vegetables in carload lots, at auction, for less than the f. o. b. price thereof at loading points, and the granting of rebates in various forms to purchasers, thus demoralizing the producers' markets without benefiting the consumers; and

WHEREAS, These fruit and vegetable auctions are controlled or owned by, or are subsidiaries of corporations controlled or owned by, public utilities engaged in public freight and passenger transportation within this State; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate concurring. That the Railroad Commission of this State is hereby requested fully to investigate and study the operations of the aforesaid fruit and vegetable auctions and to ascertain whether such auctions operating as aforesaid are subject to the regulation and control of the commission, and if so to take such steps as may be necessary in order to eliminate the aforesaid abuses; and, if such auctions are not so subject to the commission to determine the nature and extent of legislation necessary in order to eliminate such abuses and to preclude further unfair trade practices on the part of such public utilities; and, be it further

Resolved, That the Railroad Commission is requested to report the result of its investigation and study to the Legislature at its next session, together with the commission's recommendations for legislation, if any, necessary in order to accomplish the purposes herein indicated.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 9.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the constitution of said State by adding section 15 to article IX thereof, relating to the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery.

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring. That the Legislature of the State of California at its forty-eighth regular session, beginning on the seventh day of January, 1929, two-thirds of all members elected to each of the houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby proposes to the qualified electors of the State of California, an amendment to the constitution of said State by adding to article IX thereof a new section to be numbered 15 and to read as follows.

Sec 15. The trusts and estates created for the founding, endowment and maintenance of the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery, under and in accordance with an act of the Legislature approved March 10, 1885, chapter 47 of the Statutes of California of 1885, by the endowment grant executed by Henry E. Huntington and Arabella D. Huntington on the thirtieth day of August, 1919, and recorded in book 6937, page 97 of deeds, records of Los Angeles, California, on the fifteenth day of September, 1919, and by the amendments of such grant and by gifts and grants supplementary thereto and by confirmatory grants, are permitted, approved and confirmed. The board of trustees of the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery, as such, or in the name of the institution, or by other intelligible designation of the trustees, or of the institution, may receive property, real or personal, and wherever situated, by gift, grant, devise, or bequest, for the benefit of the institution, and such property, unless otherwise provided, shall be held by the trustees of the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery upon the trusts provided for in the grant founding the institution, and amendments thereof and grants supplementary thereto. All property as of July 1, 1929, held in trust for the founding, maintenance or benefit of the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery and the increments thereof and all personal property received in exchange therefor shall be exempt from taxation. The Legislature may modify, suspend and revive at will the exemption from taxation herein given. The trustees of said institution shall annually report their proceedings to the person who for the time being shall fill the office of Secretary of State of the State of California, and said trustees shall accompany said report with a full account of their financial operations for the preceding year and with a statement of the financial affairs of the institution.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENTS.

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

In the title of the printed bill, as amended in Senate April 3, 1929, strike out lines 1 to 6, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"An act to amend sections 283, 285, 290, 290*b*, 292, 296, 297, 301, 305, 308, 309, 312, 317, 318, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 354, 355, 359, 362, 403, 452*a*, 591, 593, 594, 602*b*, 605, 606, 649*a*, 653*d*, 653*o*, 653*v*, 653*hh*, 653*ab* of the Civil Code, to add four new sections to said code, numbered 296*a*, 326*a*, 361*b* and 399 respectively, and to repeal sections 290*c*, 290*e*, 290*f*, 290*g*, 290¹/₂, 291, 293, 294, 295, 321*a*, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 349, 360, 361, 473, 587*a*, 588, 590, 603 and 604*a*, all relating to corporations."

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, as amended in Senate April 3, 1929, strike out lines 1 to 20, inclusive, also strike out pages 2 to 11, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SECTION 1. Section 283 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

283. The provisions of this title are applicable to every private corporation, unless there be a special provision in relation thereto inconsistent with some provision of this title, in which case the special provision prevails.

SEC. 2. Section 285 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

285. Corporations may be formed by the voluntary association of any three or more persons in the manner prescribed in this title, for any lawful purpose or purposes

SEC 3 Section 290 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

290. Articles of incorporation shall state

1. The name of the corporation.

2. The purposes for which it is formed.

3. The county in this state where the principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation is to be located

4. The number of shares which may be issued and, if the shares are to have a par value, the par value of each share and the aggregate par value of all shares; if the shares are to be without par value, it shall be so stated.

5. If the shares are to be classified, a description of the classes of shares and a statement of the number of shares of each kind or class, and the nature and extent of the preferences, rights, privileges and restrictions granted to or imposed upon the holders of the respective classes of stock, and, except as to the matters and things so stated, no distinction shall exist between said classes of stock or the holders thereof.

6. The total number of shares actually subscribed, the names of the subscribers and the number of shares, respectively, for which they have subscribed and the amount to be paid by them for such shares.

7. The number of its directors, not less than three, and the names and residences of the persons who are appointed to act until the first annual meeting of shareholders or until the selection and qualification of their successors.

8. The articles of incorporation may also contain provisions:

(a) Prescribing special qualifications of persons who may be shareholders, or restricting the right to transfer or hypothecate shares;

(b) Granting or denying to the directors the power to levy assessments upon the shares or any class thereof, or restricting such power;

(c) Denying to shareholders preemptive rights to subscribe to any or all issues of shares or denying or placing limitations upon such rights.

SEC. 4. Section 290b of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

290b. (1) Subject to any limitations in the articles of incorporation, or any amendment thereof, any corporation having shares without par value may issue such shares for such amount of consideration as may be determined from time to time by the board of directors, with due regard to the interests of existing shareholders and for a fair value, and when such consideration has been received by the corporation, such shares shall be deemed fully paid. Every person to whom shares without par value are issued, except as a share dividend, shall be obligated to pay the corporation a definite price or value in property or services for each share to be determined as provided in this section.

(2) If, upon issue of shares having no par value, any part of the consideration received by the corporation is to be treated as paid-in surplus rather than as capital, the directors or shareholders as the case may be, who determine the amount of the consideration, shall at that time specify what proportion of such consideration is to be considered as surplus and what proportion thereof is to be considered as capital. In the absence of such designation all consideration for shares without par value shall be credited to capital. Amounts of surplus paid in by shareholders shall be shown on the books of the corporation as a separate item designated "paid-in surplus."

(3) The provisions of section 309 and section 309½ as to "capital stock" shall apply to the capital of corporations which issue shares without par value. Subject to preferences granted in the articles, each share without par value shall be equal to every other share.

SEC. 5. Section 292 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

292. Each person named therein as a director must sign the articles of incorporation and acknowledge such execution before an officer designated by the laws of this state as one before whom an acknowledgment may be made. Any other signatures to the articles must be acknowledged in the same manner.

Any certificate of an acknowledgment taken without the state must be authenticated by the certificate of an officer having the requisite official knowledge of the qualifications of the officer before whom the acknowledgment was made.

SEC. 6. Section 296 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

296. If the articles of incorporation conform to law, the secretary of state shall file them in his office and put an indorsement of filing thereon. The corporate existence shall begin upon the filing of the articles of incorporation and shall continue for an indefinite term unless it be in this code otherwise expressly provided.

A copy of the articles of incorporation, certified by the secretary of state and bearing the indorsement of the date of filing in his office, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the corporation is to have its principal office.

The secretary of state shall not file articles of incorporation which set forth a name which is likely to mislead the public or which is the same as, or resembles so closely as to tend to deceive.

(1) The name of a domestic corporation, or

(2) The name of a foreign corporation which is authorized to transact intrastate business in this state, or

(3) A name which is under reservation, as provided in section 296a of this code, unless the certificate of reservation is presented at the time of filing such articles or it is established to the satisfaction of the secretary of state that said name was reserved for such use.

The use by a corporation of a name in violation of this section may be enjoined notwithstanding that its articles may have been filed by the secretary of state.

The secretary of state shall not file articles of incorporation setting forth a name in which the words "trust" or "trustee" appear, unless the certificate of approval of the superintendent of banks is attached thereto.

SEC. 7. A new section is hereby added to the Civil Code to be numbered 296a, and to read as follows:

296a. Any applicant therefor may, upon payment of a fee of two dollars, obtain from the secretary of state a certificate of reservation of any name which is not the same as, or which does not resemble, so closely as to tend to deceive, that of a corporation formed under the laws of this state or that of a corporation formed under the laws of another state, territory or foreign country and authorized to transact intrastate business in this state, and which is not already under reservation, as herein provided, and upon the issuance of such certificate the name stated therein shall be reserved for a period of thirty days.

SEC. 8. Section 297 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

297. A copy, certified by the secretary of state, of any articles filed or of any certificate of incorporation heretofore issued by the secretary of state shall have the same force and effect in evidence as the originals, and except as against the state, either the original or a copy thereof so certified shall be conclusive evidence of the creation of the corporation and of a sufficient compliance with the conditions prescribed by law as precedent to incorporation, and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated in such instrument and that the corporation is in existence.

SEC. 9. Section 301 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

301. A corporation may adopt by-laws consistent with its articles and with the laws of the state at a meeting, by the vote of shareholders or members entitled to exercise a majority of the voting power, or by the written assent of holders of shares representing two-thirds of the voting power, without a meeting for that purpose, provided, that the written assent of two-thirds of the incorporators of a corporation which has accepted no subscriptions for shares other than the subscriptions set forth in its articles of incorporation shall be sufficient for the adoption of by-laws.

SEC. 10. Section 305 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

305. The business of every corporation shall be managed by a board of at least three directors, who need not be shareholders unless the articles of incorporation or by-laws so require. A director shall hold office for the term for which he was appointed or elected and until his successor is elected and qualified.

The articles or by-laws may fix the term of office of the directors at not more than two years from the date of election and until the election and qualification of successors.

Unless otherwise prescribed in the articles or by-laws, directors other than those named in the articles shall be elected annually by the shareholders.

Directors named in the articles shall have full power to manage all the business of the corporation until the annual election, or until their successors are elected and qualified.

Vacancies in the board of directors may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum, unless it is otherwise provided in the articles or the by-laws, and each director so elected shall hold office until his successor is elected at the next annual meeting of the shareholders, or at any special meeting duly called for that purpose prior thereto.

A vacancy shall be deemed to exist in case the shareholders shall increase the authorized number of directors, but shall fail, for a period of thirty days from the effective date of such increase, to elect the additional directors so provided for, or in case the shareholders fail at any time to elect the full number of authorized directors.

When one or more of the directors shall give notice of his or their resignation to the board, effective at a future date, the board shall have the power to fill such vacancy or vacancies to take effect when such resignations shall become effective. Each director so appointed shall hold office during the remainder of the term of office of the resigning director or directors, or until their successors are appointed and qualify.

A majority of the authorized number of directors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless the by-laws shall provide that a different number shall constitute a quorum, which shall in no case be less than one-third the total number of directors, nor less than two. Every act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be valid as the act of the board of directors, unless a greater number is required by this title or by the articles of incorporation or by-laws.

SEC. 11. Section 308 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

308. Upon their election the directors shall meet and organize by the election of a president, a secretary and a treasurer. They may also appoint a chairman of the board, one or more vice presidents, assistant secretaries and assistant treasurers. Any two or more of such offices, except those of president and secretary, may be held by the same person. Any vice president, assistant treasurer or assistant secretary respectively may exercise any of the powers of the president, the treasurer or the secretary as provided in the by-laws or directed by the board of directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be imposed upon him.

The by-laws may provide for the appointment by the board of directors of an executive committee, and may authorize the board to delegate to such committee any of the powers and authority of the board except the power to declare dividends and to make any changes in the by-laws. Such committee shall be composed of members of the board and shall act only in the intervals between meetings of the board and shall be subject at all times to the control of the board of directors.

A majority of the prescribed number of directors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless the by-laws provide that a different number shall constitute a quorum, which in no case shall be less than one-third the total number of directors, nor less than two.

Every act or decision of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present, made or done when duly assembled, shall be valid as the act of the board of directors, unless a greater number is required by this code or by the articles or by-laws; provided, that a minority of the directors in the absence of a quorum, may adjourn from day to day but may not transact any business.

SEC. 12. Section 309 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

309. Unless they shall have been first permitted or authorized so to do by the commissioner of corporations, directors of corporations must not make dividends except from the surplus profits arising from the business thereof; nor must they divide, withdraw, or pay to the stockholders, or any of them, any part of the capital stock, except as hereinafter provided, *provid*ed, that dividends may be paid upon shares entitled to cumulative preferential dividends from paid-in surplus as well as from profits arising from the business, but the holders of such shares shall be notified when dividends are paid from paid-in surplus. Nothing herein prohibits a division and distribution of the capital stock of any corporation which remains after the payment of all its debts, upon its dissolution, or the expiration of its term of existence.

In case of any wilful or negligent violation of the provisions of this section, the directors under whose administration the same shall have happened, except those who cause their dissent therefrom to be entered on the minutes of such directors at the time, or were not present at that time, shall be jointly and severally liable to the shareholders of such corporation to the full amount of any loss sustained by such shareholders, or in case of the insolvency of the corporation to the corporation or its receiver, liquidator or trustee in bankruptcy to the full amount in either case of any loss sustained by the shareholders or creditors by reason of such unauthorized dividend, withdrawal or distribution.

Any director against whom a claim is asserted under or pursuant to this section, and who is held liable under or pursuant hereto shall be entitled to contribution from other directors who are liable pro rata according to the number of such directors, and also from the shareholders who knowingly accepted or received any dividend or distribution not authorized by this title to be made, and such shareholders shall contribute in proportion to the amounts received by them respectively. Any one or more directors and stockholders may be sued in the same action.

SEC. 13. Section 312 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

312. The presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote at any meeting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A majority of the members or shares entitled to vote in the case of nonprofit corporations shall constitute a quorum unless otherwise provided in the articles or by-laws.

Unless the articles or by-laws otherwise provide, the board of directors may fix a time not exceeding thirty days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders, or the date fixed for the payment of any dividend or distribution, or for the allotment of rights, or when any change or conversion or exchange of shares shall go into effect, as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at any such meeting or entitled to receive any such dividend or distribution, or any such allotment of rights, or to exercise the rights in respect to any such change conversion or exchange of shares and in such case, only shareholders of record on the date so fixed shall be entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting, or to receive such dividend, distribution or allotment of rights, or to exercise such rights, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any shares on the books of the corporation after any record date fixed as aforesaid. The board of directors may close the books of the corporation against transfers of shares during the whole or any part of such period.

Any regular or called meeting of the shareholders or members may adjourn from day to day, from time to time, if for any reason there are not present the holders of a majority of the shares or a quorum of members entitled to vote, or no election is had, such adjournment and the reasons therefor being recorded in the minutes of the proceedings.

SEC. 14. Section 317 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

317. When all the shareholders or members of a corporation are present at any meeting, or when the shareholders or members not represented thereat give their written consent to the holding thereof at the time and place the meeting is held, and such written consent is made a part of the records of such meeting, the proceedings had at such meeting are valid irrespective of the manner in which the meeting is called or the place where it is held.

SEC. 15. Section 319 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

319. Meetings of the board of directors or trustees of a corporation may be held at any place, within or without the state, fixed by a quorum thereof, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or by-laws. Meetings of the shareholders or members of a corporation may be held at the principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation, or at any other place, within or without the state, designated in the articles of incorporation or by-laws.

SEC. 16. A new section is hereby added to the Civil Code to be numbered 326a and to read as follows:

326a. Whenever shares of a corporation are to be, or have been, issued or transferred to a person or corporation as trustee, whether or not the certificate representing such shares describes the trust or identifies any beneficiary, it shall be conclusively presumed in favor of such corporation and its transfer agent that such trustee has the power to accept and transfer title to such shares, and there shall be no duty upon the corporation or its transfer agent to inquire into or determine the existence or validity of any trust or the terms thereof, nor to recognize any equitable interest in or claim to such shares on the part of any other person, whether disclosed by such certificate or otherwise unless enjoined by a court of competent jurisdiction.

SEC. 17. Section 331 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

331. (1) Shares are not assessable except as provided in this article. If the articles expressly confer such authority, and subject to any limitations therein contained the directors of any corporation may in their discretion, levy and collect assessments upon all shares of any or all classes made subject to assessment by the articles. This authority is additional to that of making calls for the unpaid subscription price of shares.

(2) Corporations without shares of stock may levy dues or assessments on their members, if so provided in their articles, in proportion to their interests, enforceable either by action or by forfeiture of membership upon reasonable notice.

(3) Any corporation organized for or engaged in the business of selling, distributing, supplying or delivering water for irrigation purposes or domestic use, and not as a public utility, may levy assessments upon its shares, whether or not fully paid, unless otherwise provided in its articles. If any shares of any such corporation which have been made appurtenant to any land as provided in section 324 of this code, become delinquent in the payment of assessments the right to receive water or dividends thereon may be denied, and they may be sold and transferred without said lands as if not appurtenant thereto, and the purchaser shall acquire the right to receive water as provided in the articles or by-laws of the corporation, or they may be forfeited to the corporation.

SEC. 18. Section 332 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

332. Every resolution levying an assessment must specify the amount thereof, when to whom and where payable; fix a day, subsequent to the actual service or publication of the assessment notice on which the unpaid assessments shall be delinquent, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the time of passing the resolution levying the assessment; and a day for the sale of delinquent shares not less than fifteen nor more than sixty days from the date the shares become delinquent.

SEC. 19. Section 333 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

333. Upon the passing of the resolution levying the assessment, the secretary shall cause to be mailed and published a notice thereof in substantially the following form:

(Name of corporation in full. Location of principal office.)

Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the board of directors held on the (date) an assessment of (amount) per share was levied upon the shares of the corporation payable (when, to whom and where). Any shares upon which this assessment remains unpaid on the (day fixed) will be delinquent, and unless payment is made in the meantime, the said shares, or so many of said shares as may be necessary, will be sold at the (particular place) on the (date) at (the hour) of such day, to pay the delinquent assessment, together with five per cent penalty. (Name of secretary with location of office.)

SEC. 20. Section 334 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

334. The notice must be personally served upon each shareholder, or, in lieu of personal service must be sent through the mail addressed to each shareholder at his address, if it appears on the books of the corporation, and if it does not appear, at the place where the principal office of the corporation is located. In the absence of personal service on each shareholder a notice shall be published once in some newspaper of general circulation published at the city or town of the principal office of the corporation. If there be no newspaper published in the city of the principal office of the corporation, then the publication must be made in some newspaper of the county if there be one, and if there be none then in some newspaper published in an adjoining county.

SEC. 21. Section 335 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

335. The date of sale of delinquent shares fixed in any resolution levying an assessment may be extended from time to time for not more than thirty days at a time by order of the directors entered on the records of the corporation, or when delinquent sale is restrained by order of a court. Notice of such extension shall be given by announcement by the secretary, assistant secretary, or other person authorized to conduct such sale, made at the time of sale last theretofore fixed.

SEC. 22. Section 336 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

336. At the place and time appointed in the notice of sale, the secretary must, unless otherwise ordered by the directors, sell or cause to be sold at public sale to the highest bidder for cash so many shares of each shareholder of the assessed shares of stock as may be necessary to pay the assessment and charges thereon according to the notice; if payment is made before the sale, the shareholder shall pay a penalty of five per cent in addition to the assessment. The person offering at such sale to pay the assessment and penalty for the smallest number of shares is the highest bidder, and the stock purchased must be transferred to him on the stock books of the corporation on the payment of the assessment and penalty. No corporation shall be required to accept an offer for a fraction of a share. If no bidder can be found to pay the amount due on the shares, together with the penalty, the shares shall be declared forfeited to the corporation in satisfaction of the assessment and penalty thereon, and shall have the status of authorized but unissued shares. The only remedy for the collection of any assessment on fully paid shares shall be by sale or forfeiture unless the remedy by action is expressly authorized in the articles but calls or installments of the unpaid balance of the subscription price may be collected when due either by action or, after the notice hereinbefore provided, by sale or forfeiture.

SEC. 23. Section 337 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

337. When no provision as to the time or times of payment of the consideration for the issue of shares is made in the agreement of subscription or purchase, shares shall be paid for on the call of the board of directors. Thirty days notice of the amount called and of the time and place of payment shall be given either personally or by registered mail to the last known address of each shareholder or by publication in a newspaper as in case of assessments upon fully paid shares. When any shareholder fails to pay any installment of the subscription price or call upon his shares at the time when such payment is due, the corporation, its receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may collect the amount by action, or by sale or forfeiture as in case of assessments upon fully paid shares. Claims against two or more shareholders may be joined in the same action.

354. Every corporation, as such, has power:

1. Of succession, by its corporate name, for the period limited; and when no period is limited, perpetually;
2. To sue and be sued, in any court;
3. To make and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure;
4. To acquire, hold, lease, encumber, convey or otherwise dispose of real and personal property;
5. To appoint such subordinate officers or agents as the business of the corporation may require, and to allow them suitable compensation;
6. To make by-laws, not inconsistent with any existing law, for the management of its property, the regulation of its affairs, and for the transfer of its stock;
7. To admit stockholders or members, and to sell their stock or shares for the payment of assessments or installments; provided, that a corporation shall not, in issuing shares or taking subscriptions therefor, agree to repurchase such shares, or give to the subscriber a right to surrender or resell the same to the corporation;
8. To purchase and cancel upon its books and restore to the status of authorized but unissued shares any of its outstanding shares as follows:
 - (a) To collect or compromise in good faith a debt, claim or controversy with any shareholder;
 - (b) From surplus available for cash dividends when authorized by vote or written consent of the holders of two-thirds of each class of shares outstanding exclusive of the shares to be purchased;
 - (c) From one who as an employee has purchased such shares from the corporation under an agreement giving the corporation the right to repurchase;
 - (d) To eliminate fractional shares;
 - (e) To carry out provisions of its articles or amended articles of incorporation authorizing the redemption of such shares;
9. To enter into any obligations or contracts or to do any acts incidental to the transaction of its business, or conducive to the attainment of the purposes of the corporation.

SEC. 25. Section 355 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

355. The enumeration in the articles of the objects, purposes, powers and authorized business of the corporation shall have no effect other than as between the corporation and its directors or officers, as an authorization to the directors and as a limitation upon the actual authority of the representatives of the corporation.

No limitation upon the business, purposes or powers of the corporation contained in or implied by the articles shall be asserted as between the corporation or any shareholder and any third person. Such limitations may be asserted in an action by a shareholder or at the suit of the state, to enjoin the continuation of unauthorized business, or to dissolve the corporation, or in an action by the corporation or by the shareholders suing in a representative suit, against the officers or directors of the corporation for violation of their authority.

Any contract or conveyance made in the name of a corporation, which is authorized or ratified by the directors, or is done within the scope of the authority, actual or apparent, given by the directors, shall bind the corporation, and the corporation shall acquire rights thereunder, whether the contract be executed or wholly or in part executory.

359. By complying with the following provisions, any corporation formed under the laws of this state may create a bonded indebtedness or increase the same, and two or more corporations formed under the laws of this state may create or increase a consolidated bonded indebtedness:

(1) A resolution authorizing such creation or increase of bonded indebtedness and stating the amount of the bonded indebtedness to be created, or the amount to which the bonded indebtedness is to be increased, shall be adopted by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the directors or trustees of such corporation, at a regular or special meeting, which resolution must be approved by the vote or written assent or assents of stockholders representing at least two-thirds of the subscribed shares of each class of stock of the corporation, or of a majority of the members of a corporation without shares of stock. If approved by the vote of stockholders or members, such vote may be had at a regular or a special meeting, and a resolution, containing a copy of the resolution adopted by the board of directors and setting forth the fact of the approval thereof by the stockholders or members, must be adopted by the votes of stockholders either present in person or represented by proxy at said meeting and representing at least two-thirds of the subscribed shares of each class of stock of the corporation, or, except as hereinafter provided, by the votes of a majority of the members of a corporation without shares of stock. In lieu of the approval of such resolution at a meeting of stockholders or members, such resolution may be approved by the written assent or assents of stockholders representing at least two-thirds of the subscribed shares of each class of stock of the corporation or, except as hereinafter provided, by the written assent or assents of a majority of the members of a corporation without shares of stock, which assent or assents shall contain a copy of such resolution and shall state the fact of the approval thereof by the stockholders or members and shall be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

Such assent may be executed and filed by the attorney-in-fact of any stockholder or member with the same effect as if executed and filed by his principal. If, pursuant to the articles of incorporation or amended articles of incorporation of any corporation without shares of stock, the respective members thereof have unequal voting power, the affirmative vote or written assent of members representing a majority of the votes in such corporation shall be sufficient to approve the resolution passed by the directors or trustees.

If the by-laws of a corporation without shares of stock fix the number of members constituting a quorum, the affirmative vote or written assent of members equal in number to two-thirds of such number shall be sufficient to approve the resolution passed by the directors or trustees.

A corporation without shares of stock, whose articles of incorporation, or any amendment thereto, authorize its board of directors or trustees to create a bonded indebtedness or increase the same without the approval of its members, shall not be subject to the provisions of this section requiring approval of the resolution of such board by such members.

(2) Any two or more corporations formed under the laws of this state may, by complying separately with the provisions of this section relating to the creation or increase of bonded indebtedness, create or increase a consolidated bonded indebtedness which shall be binding jointly and severally on such corporations, and which may be secured by a consolidated mortgage or deed of trust executed by all such corporations, mortgaging or conveying in trust all or any of the properties of all such corporations acquired or to be acquired.

SEC. 27. A new section is hereby added to the Civil Code, to be designated 361b, and to read as follows:

361b. Any two or more corporations may be: (a) merged into one of such constituent corporations, which is herein designated as the surviving corporation, or (b) consolidated into a new corporation, as follows:

(1) The board of directors of each corporation shall approve an agreement which shall set forth the terms of merger or consolidation, and the mode of carrying the same into effect, as well as the manner and basis of converting the shares of the constituent corporations into the shares of the consolidated or surviving corporation. If the agreement is for a consolidation, it shall state the matters required to be stated in articles of incorporation by section 290, except the matter of subscriptions, and these statements shall be deemed to be the articles of incorporation of the corporation created by the agreement.

If the agreement is for a merger it shall state any matters with respect to which the articles of the surviving corporation are to be amended.

(2) The agreement shall be signed by the president or a vice president and the secretary or an assistant secretary of each corporation, and acknowledged by the officers executing the same on behalf of their respective corporations.

(3) The agreement must be approved by the vote of the holders of not less than two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of each class of its stock of each of the constituent corporations at a meeting duly called upon notice of the purpose thereof, mailed to the last known post-office address of each shareholder at least twenty days prior to the date of such meeting. There shall be mailed with the notice of such meeting a statement of the terms of the proposed agreement. In lieu of such vote of stockholders of any of said corporations it may be approved with like effect by the written consent of shareholders representing not less than two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of each class of its stock, which shall be filed with the secretary of such corporation.

If the agreement is approved by the required vote or written consent, that fact shall be certified on the agreement by the secretary of each meeting or the secretary of each corporation.

(4) Any amendment to the agreement may be adopted, and the agreement so amended may be approved, by like vote at such meeting, or like written consent of the shareholders of any of the constituent corporations, and if the agreement so amended be approved by like vote at such meeting, or like written consent of the stockholders of the other constituent corporation or corporations, and by the board of directors of each of the constituent corporations, the agreement so amended shall be signed and acknowledged and shall have certified upon it the approval of stockholders in the same manner as provided for the original agreement, and shall then be considered the merging or consolidating agreement.

(5) The agreement so approved, certified, executed and acknowledged shall be filed with the secretary of state, and shall thereupon become effective, and the several parties thereto shall be one corporation. A copy of said agreement, certified by the secretary of state, shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which the principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation is to be located, and a copy thereof, thus certified, shall be filed with the county clerk of any county in which any party to the agreement has real property or its principal office. A certified copy of such agreement shall have the same force in evidence as the original, and, except as against the state, shall be evidence of the performance of all conditions precedent to such consolidation or merger, and the creation or existence of the new or surviving corporation, and shall be prima facie evidence that the corporation is still in existence.

(6) The surplus appearing on the books of the constituent corporations, to the extent to which it is not capitalized by the issue of shares or otherwise, may be entered as earned or paid-in surplus, as the case may be, on the books of the consolidated or surviving corporation, and may thereafter be dealt with as such.

(7) Upon the merger or consolidation, as provided herein, the separate existence of the constituent corporations shall cease, except that of the surviving corporation in case of merger, and the consolidated or surviving corporation shall succeed, without other transfer, to all the rights and property of each of the constituent corporations, and shall be subject to all the debts, liabilities and duties of each, in the same manner as if the surviving or new corporation had itself incurred them. Any action or proceeding pending by or against any of such constituent corporations may be prosecuted to judgment, which shall bind the new or surviving corporation, or the new or surviving corporation may be proceeded against or substituted in its place.

(8) The merger or consolidation of any number of railroad corporations, incorporated under the laws of this state, with any number of railroad corporations incorporated under the laws of other states or territories of the United States may be effected as provided in this section if the laws of each state or territory in which said corporations were formed authorize such consolidation.

362. By complying with the following provisions, any domestic corporation may amend its articles of incorporation for any or all of the following purposes:

(1) To change its name to any name not likely to mislead the public, or which is not the same as, and does not resemble, so closely as to tend to deceive,

(a) The name of a domestic corporation, or

(b) The name of a foreign corporation which is authorized to transact intrastate business in this state, or

(c) A name which is under reservation, as provided in section 296a of this code, unless the certificate of reservation is presented at the time of filing of the certificate of such amendment or it is established to the satisfaction of the secretary of state that such name was reserved for such use.

(2) To change or add to its powers and purposes; or to set forth different or additional powers or purposes;

(3) To change the location of its principal office or place of business to any other county within the state; provided, that no amendment need be made to change the principal office from one location to another in the same county or city and county;

(4) To state, if it so desires, the period of its existence as extended;

(5) To increase or diminish the number of its directors;

(6) To increase or decrease the authorized number of its shares or the aggregate par value thereof.

(7) To provide for the classification of its shares of stock, in which event there must be set forth a statement of the number of shares of each kind or class, and the nature and extent of the preferences, rights, privileges and restrictions granted to or imposed upon the holders of the respective classes of stock, and, except as to the matters and things so stated, no distinction shall exist between said classes of stock or the holders thereof;

(8) To change the statement of such classification or the nature and extent of such preferences, rights, privileges or restrictions of the shares issued or unissued, or to repeal such statement and eliminate such classification of the shares;

(9) To change shares having par value into the same or a different number of shares without par value; to increase or reduce the par value of shares; to change shares without par value into the same or a different number of shares with or without any par value;

(10) Generally, to alter its articles in any other respect, lawful at the time of making the amendment.

A resolution providing for any such amendment must be adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors or trustees of the corporation, and must be approved by the vote or written assent of shareholders holding at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares, or by the vote or written assent of the members representing a majority of the voting power, if the corporation has no shares of stock. If any proposed amendment provides for an increase in the aggregate par value of the shares of a corporation or would make any change in the preferences, rights, privileges, or restrictions of any class of issued and outstanding shares, the vote or written assent of the holders of two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of each class of stock shall be necessary to the approval thereof, or such larger majority as the articles of incorporation or any amendment thereto may require. The resolution or assents of such shareholders or members must contain a copy of the resolution of the directors or trustees and state the fact of approval thereof.

After such amendment has been approved, the president or a vice president and the secretary or an assistant secretary shall execute a certificate, under the seal of the corporation, which shall be verified by their oath and shall set forth:

(1) The time and place of the meeting of the board of directors or trustees;

(2) A copy of resolution adopted thereat;

(3) The vote in favor of such resolution;

(4) The time and place of the meeting of the shareholders or members and the total vote by which such resolution was approved, or, if the approval was by written assent, the number of shares or members represented by the assents filed with the secretary of the corporation;

(5) The fact that the resolution or assents of the shareholders or members contained a copy of the resolution of the board of directors or trustees and expressed their approval of said resolution;

(6) The number of issued and outstanding shares, and number of each class of such shares, if classified, or the number of members of the corporation;

Provided, that two-thirds of the incorporators of any corporation which has not accepted subscriptions for shares other than those set forth in its articles of incorporation, may adopt any such amendment by executing a certificate stating that no subscriptions for shares other than those set forth in the articles of incorporation have been accepted by the corporation and that the signers thereof thereby adopt the amendment therein set forth, which certificate shall be verified by the oath of each signer thereof.

Any certificate of amendment may contain a copy of the articles of incorporation, as amended.

The certificate shall be submitted to the secretary of state, who shall file the same and put an endorsement of filing thereon if he finds that it shows a compliance with the provisions of this section. Thereupon, the articles of incorporation shall be deemed amended in accordance with such certificate and a copy of such amendment and the certificate thereto, certified by the secretary of state shall be prima facie evidence of the performance of the conditions necessary to the adoption thereof.

The secretary of state shall forthwith issue a certified copy of said certificate and transmit said copy to the county clerk of the county in which the principal place of business of the corporation was situated at the time said corporation was incorporated, which copy shall be filed by said county clerk upon payment of the fee prescribed by law. A copy of such certificate, certified by the secretary of state, shall be filed by such corporation in the office of the county clerk of every other county in which such corporation has or holds real property. Any corporation which shall amend its articles of incorporation and shall fail to file certified copies, as required by the preceding sentence, shall be subject to the penalties and liabilities provided for in section 299 of this code for a failure of corporations to file copies of their articles of incorporation in the office of the county clerks of the counties in which they shall purchase, hold, or locate real property.

Nothing appearing herein shall be construed to permit a corporation to extend or reduce the term of its existence by amending its articles of incorporation.

SEC. 29. A new section is hereby added to the Civil Code, to be numbered 399, and to read as follows:

399. All corporations, whether they expire by their own limitation, by forfeiture of charter or by order of court, or are otherwise dissolved, shall nevertheless continue to exist for the purpose of winding up their affairs, prosecuting and defending actions by or against them, and of enabling them to collect and discharge obligations, to dispose of and convey their property, and to collect and divide their assets, but not for the purpose of continuing the business for which the corporation was established.

Any assets inadvertently or otherwise omitted from the winding up shall continue in the dissolved corporation for the benefit of the persons who would have been entitled thereto upon dissolution of the corporation, and on realization shall be distributed accordingly.

Before the payment of any part of the capital and before beginning the business for which the corporation was created, the incorporators named in any articles of incorporation may dissolve the corporation by filing in the office of the secretary of state a certificate, verified by the oath or affirmation of a majority of the incorporators named in the articles of incorporation, that no part of the capital has been paid and no debts are unpaid, and thereupon the said corporation shall be dissolved.

SEC. 30. Section 403 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

403. Every domestic corporation may file with the secretary of state a designation of a natural person, residing at a stated address in this state, as its agent for the purpose of service of process, and the delivery, to such agent, of a copy of any process against such corporation shall constitute valid service on such corporation. Such corporation shall file with the secretary of state notice of any change in the address of the person thus designated, and may revoke any such designation by filing notice thereof with the secretary of state.

If such designation has not been filed with the secretary of state, or if process against any domestic corporation can not, with the exercise of due diligence, be served upon the person designated or in any other manner provided by law, service may be had upon such corporation by delivering to the secretary of state, or to any person employed in his office in the capacity of a deputy, duplicate copies of such process, together with a fee of five dollars, which shall be included in the taxable costs of the suit, action or proceeding. Upon the receipt of such process and fee, the secretary of state shall forthwith give notice of the service of such process to the corporation at its principal office in this state, and shall forward to such office, by registered mail with request for return receipt, a copy of such process; provided, however, that failure to give such notice or to mail copies of such process shall not affect the validity of the service. The defendant shall appear and answer within thirty days after such service upon the secretary of state.

The secretary of state shall keep a record of all process served upon him under this or any other law of this state, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto.

This section shall not apply to banks, trust companies, insurance companies or any corporation subject to the jurisdiction of the railroad commission.

SEC. 31. Section 452a of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

452a. Twenty-five or more persons may incorporate an association for the purpose of paying the nominee of any member thereof a sum, upon the death of the member, not exceeding three dollars for each member of the association, but not exceeding, in any case, the sum of three thousand dollars. The articles of incorporation must contain the statements required by section 593, except that they must provide that the voting power, property rights, and interests of the respective members shall be equal.

SEC. 32. Section 591 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

591. Corporations for the formation and organization of chambers of commerce, boards of trade, mechanic's institutes, and other associations for the extension and promotion of trade and commerce, or the advancement, protection, and improvement of the mechanic arts, may be formed with or without capital stock by twenty or more persons. If the corporation is to issue shares it may be incorporated in the manner prescribed in chapter one of title one of this part, or it may be incorporated without shares as provided in section 593. No corporation formed under this title must engage in any mercantile, commercial, or mechanical business.

SEC. 33. Section 593 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

593. Any religious association or body of this state, composed of constituent churches, parishes, congregations, societies or missions which have a common convention, synod, council, assembly, or conference, or any church, diocese, synod, district or other religious organization and any other unincorporated association, society, club or organization not for profit and any number of persons, not less than three, may incorporate under this title.

The articles of incorporation shall state that the corporation is formed under this title for purposes other than pecuniary profit and shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation.
 2. The purposes for which it is formed.
 3. The county in this state where the principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation is to be located.

4. The names and residences of three or more persons who are to act in a capacity equivalent to that of directors until the selection and qualification of their successors, and who may be styled directors, trustees, governors, or members of the executive board or may be given such equivalent titles as may be deemed appropriate, but who shall be subject to all laws of this state relating to directors or trustees of such corporations, except as otherwise in this title provided. The number of persons so named shall constitute the number of directors of the corporation until changed in the manner provided by law.

5. The articles of incorporation may fix the voting power, property rights and interests of the members and may provide for different classes of membership, but unless otherwise provided therein there shall be but one class of members, whose voting power, property rights and interests shall be equal.

The persons who are to act in the capacity of directors must subscribe to the articles of incorporation and the signatures of any other persons desiring to associate with said persons for the purpose of forming such corporation shall also be subscribed thereto, and such execution shall be acknowledged as provided in section 292 of this code; provided, that the articles of incorporation of any church, diocese, synod, district or other religious organization or any other association, society or club which has a presiding officer, president or other head and an acting secretary, clerk, scribe or other similar officer, need be subscribed and acknowledged only by such officers, but there shall be attached thereto an affidavit by said officers that such association has at a meeting duly voted to authorize its incorporation, and that they executed the articles by authority of the association.

Upon the filing of the articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, the corporation shall be formed and shall continue to exist as a corporation until dissolved, with the capacity possessed by a natural person to contract, convey, take gifts of real and personal property, sue and defend, borrow money, give promissory notes or bonds therefor and secure the payment thereof by mortgage or deed of trust upon property real or personal and perform all other acts within or without the state to the same extent as a natural person, and to receive bequests and devises by will for its own use or upon trusts, to the same extent as a natural person, subject however to the provisions of section 1313 of the Civil Code of the State of California. The limitations of section 595 of the Civil Code shall not apply to such corporations heretofore organized or formed or hereafter organized under this section.

The directors of such corporation may be elected and by-laws for its government may be made and amended in accordance with the constitution, by-laws, discipline, rules and regulations of such church, society, or other organization, or in accordance with the by-laws adopted by it.

SEC. 34. Section 594 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

594. Any association of this state made up of constituent or member clubs, or other subordinate bodies, having a common periodical or occasional convention or other general assemblage whether of members or delegates, and operating on the federation plan, whether state, district or otherwise, or having no fixed meeting place for such assemblages, or having no fixed office or principal place of business in any one county or city and county or for the meetings of its agencies or committees or officers, and which association determines such place or places from time to time through its agencies and according to its rules and customs, may incorporate for purposes other than profit, and without capital stock in the manner prescribed by section 593, except that in lieu of stating the county in this state where the principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation is to be located, the articles of incorporation shall set forth a means whereby the office and constitutional principal place of business of the corporation, which must be in this state, as it exists from time to time, may be ascertained; or must state that same shall be provided by constitution or by-law; and, until such provision is otherwise made, said place shall be the place of business, or if none such the residence, from time to time, in this state of the chief executive officer of the corporation.

SEC. 35. Section 602b of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

602b. Amendment of articles of incorporation of corporations sole. The bishop, chief priest, presiding elder, or other incumbent of any corporation sole, incorporated under the laws of this state, may at any time amend the articles of incorporation of said corporation sole by changing the name of said corporation sole or the term of its existence or its territorial jurisdiction or the manner of filling any vacancy in the incumbency thereof, or by providing for any mode of administering the temporalities and property of said corporation sole during any vacancy in the incumbency thereof, or during the absence or disability of the incumbent, and may by amended articles of incorporation make provision for any act or thing for which provision is authorized in original articles of incorporation of corporations sole by any law of this state. In any amended articles of incorporation so filed, it shall be competent to ratify or confirm any change made prior to the enactment of this section in respect of any matter which it is herein provided may be the subject matter of amendment of articles of incorporation of a corporation sole.

Amended articles of incorporation of a corporation sole shall be subscribed and verified by the affidavit of the incumbent of said corporation sole, and shall be filed with the secretary of state, and a copy thereof, certified by the secretary of state, shall be filed with the clerk of the county in which said incumbent resides.

SEC. 36. Section 605 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

605. Any corporation organized under the laws of this state for purposes other than profit may consolidate with any other like association or associations, or corporation or corporations, created under the laws of this state, so as to form a new or consolidated corporation, in such manner as may be authorized by the respective boards of directors or trustees of such associations or corporations by resolution adopted at meetings of the respective boards called for that purpose.

The resolution to be adopted by each of the respective boards shall state the names of all the corporations or associations to be united by the consolidation, the dates of their respective incorporation, and the name of the new or consolidated corporation, and shall designate three or more persons by whom articles of incorporation of the new or consolidated corporation shall be subscribed and acknowledged in compliance with this section.

The persons so designated may incorporate the new or consolidated corporation in the manner prescribed by section 503, except that in addition to containing the matters required by said section, the articles of incorporation shall state the names and dates of incorporation of the respective corporations which are to be consolidated, and there shall be attached to said articles copies of the aforesaid resolutions of the several associations or corporations uniting in the consolidation, certified by the respective secretaries of such associations or corporations under the corporate seal thereof; and the said articles of incorporation shall in the body thereof refer to the said resolutions and to the certified copies thereof so attached, and by such reference make the said certified copies a part of the said articles.

From and after the filing of such articles of incorporation with the secretary of state the former associations or corporations uniting in the consolidation and comprising the component parts of the new or consolidated corporation shall cease to exist, and the new or consolidated corporation shall succeed to all the rights, duties and powers of the component associations or corporations, and shall be possessed of all the rights, duties and powers set forth in its articles of incorporation not inconsistent with this title, and shall be subject to all the liabilities and obligations of the former component associations or corporations, and shall succeed to and become vested with all the property thereof, both real and personal, of every name and nature, and may make by-laws and do all things permitted by this title; provided, however, that no corporation shall be authorized to transact any business until it shall have filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which its principal business is to be transacted, a copy of its articles of incorporation certified by the secretary of state.

SEC. 37. Section 606 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

606. Twenty five or more persons may organize a nonprofit corporation for the purpose of receiving, acquiring, holding, managing, administering and expending property and funds for charitable and eleemosynary purposes, including the assistance and support of charitable and eleemosynary institutions, associations and undertakings.

Such corporation shall, as an incident of its purpose and without any necessity for expressing the same in its articles of incorporation, have the following powers which it may exercise in full measure without the necessity of obtaining any order of court of authorization, approval or confirmation:

1. To act as trustee under charitable and eleemosynary trusts, receiving, holding, managing, administering and expending property and funds in accordance with the respective trusts upon which the same are acquired and held.

2. To receive, hold, manage, administer and expend property and funds upon the general charitable and eleemosynary trust that the same, either as to principal or income or both shall be applied to the assistance and support of such charitable or eleemosynary institutions or objects, and at such times and to such extent as the corporation may in its judgment deem most conducive to the public welfare. No bequest, devise, gift or transfer of property or funds to such corporation for a charitable or eleemosynary purpose shall be invalid because of indefiniteness or uncertainty as to the purposes of the beneficiaries thereof, but, to the extent to which such indefiniteness or uncertainty exists, the same shall be resolved by the corporation in the manner which, in its judgment, is most consonant with the purpose of the donor and most conducive to the public welfare.

3. Subject to the provisions of section 1313 of the Civil Code, to take property and funds by will, gift or otherwise and with or without specification of any charitable or eleemosynary purpose, but in case no charitable or eleemosynary purpose is specified, the property or funds so received shall, nevertheless, be held upon the trust that the same shall be used for charitable and eleemosynary purposes. Such corporation shall not have the power to take or hold property or funds for any purpose other than a charitable or eleemosynary one.

4. To hold, in its own name and right, real and personal property of every nature and description without limitation as to extent, character or amount and with all the powers of control, management, investment, change and disposal incident to the absolute ownership of property or funds by a private person, subject only to the terms of particular trusts and to the general trust that all its properties and funds shall be held for charitable and eleemosynary purposes.

5. To borrow money, either upon or without security, giving such promissory notes or other evidences of indebtedness and such pledges, mortgages or other instruments of hypothecation as it may be advised.

6. To appoint and pay officers and agents to conduct and administer the affairs of the corporation, but no member of the board of trustees shall receive any compensation.

7. To adopt by-laws prescribing the duties of the officers and agents of the corporation, the detail of its organization, the time and manner of its meetings, and any and all detail incident to its organization and the efficient conduct and management of its affairs.

8. To do any and all things which a natural person might do necessary or desirable for the general purpose for which the corporation is organized.

The exercise of the powers of the corporation, with the right to delegate to officers and agents the performance of duties and the exercise of powers, shall be vested in a board of trustees of not less than nine nor more than twenty-five persons, provided that the articles of incorporation may prescribe that the matter of controlling, managing, investing and disposing of the property of the corporation for the purpose of earning an income therefrom, as distinguished from the matter of applying property and funds to charitable and eleemosynary purposes, shall be exclusively in a finance committee consisting of not less than three members of the board, designated or appointed in some particular manner; and provided also, that the matter of controlling, managing, investing and disposing of the property of the corporation for the purpose of earning an income therefrom may be delegated either in whole or in part to one or more trust companies or banks duly authorized to conduct a trust or banking business in this state.

The articles of incorporation shall specify how the trustees shall be chosen and their terms of office, which shall not exceed six years. It shall be permissible that some or all of the trustees be chosen by specified associations or corporations or by those who are officers thereof and by public officials. As the articles of incorporation may prescribe, the board of trustees may constitute the corporation, or the corporation may have a membership distinct from the board of trustees. In the latter case the by-laws shall prescribe the terms and qualifications of membership.

The corporation shall be subject at all times to examination on behalf of the state to ascertain the condition of its affairs and to what extent, if at all, it may fail to comply with trusts which it has assumed or may depart from the general purpose for which it is formed. Such right of examination shall pertain ex officio to the attorney general. In case of any such failure or departure the attorney general shall institute, in the name of the state, the proceedings necessary to correct the same. Except as specially approved by the attorney general there shall be no accumulation of income by such corporation for a period longer than five years.

The expenses of the corporation may be apportioned to the extent necessary against the various trust funds and property held by it, in the manner which seems just and equitable to the corporation, and the meeting of such expenses shall be deemed a charitable or eleemosynary purpose.

The articles of incorporation of each such corporation shall set forth:

- (a) Its name;
- (b) That it is a nonprofit corporation organized solely for general charitable and eleemosynary purposes under section 606 of the Civil Code of California;
- (c) The county in this state where the principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation is to be located;
- (d) The number of trustees, their terms of office and how they are to be chosen;
- (e) The names and residences of the members of the first board of trustees;
- (f) Any other matter which it is provided herein may or should be set out in the articles of incorporation.

SEC 38. Section 649a of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

649a. If the proposed articles of incorporation of any college or seminary of learning provide for the conferring of academic or professional degrees, the secretary of state shall ascertain whether the conditions stated in the articles have been complied with and shall not file such articles until he is satisfied that such conditions have been complied with.

SEC 39. Section 653d of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

653d. The articles of incorporation of any such association shall state:
The name of the association;
The purposes for which it is formed,
The county in this state where the principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation is to be located;

The number of the directors thereof, and the names and residences of those selected for the first year, the amount which each member is to pay upon admission as a membership fee, and that each member signing the articles has actually paid in such sum, and that the interest and right of each member therein is to be equal.

SEC. 40. Section 653c of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

653c. The articles of incorporation of any such association shall state:

1. The name of the association;
2. The purpose for which it is formed;
3. The county in this state where the principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation is to be located;

4. The number of directors thereof, which must not be less than three and which may be any number in excess thereof, and the names and residences of those selected for the first year and until their successors shall have been elected, and shall have accepted office.

5. Whether the voting power and the property rights and interest of each member shall be equal or unequal, and if unequal the articles shall set forth a general rule or rules applicable to all members by which the voting power and property rights and interests, respectively, of each member may and shall be determined and fixed, but the association shall have power to admit new members who shall be entitled to vote and to share in the property of the association with the old members, in accordance with such general rule. This provision of the articles of incorporation shall not be altered, amended, or repealed except by the unanimous written consent or the vote of all of the members.

SEC. 41. Section 653r of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

653r. The articles of incorporation of any such corporation shall state:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The purpose for which it is formed.
3. The county in this state where the principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation is to be located.

4. The number of directors thereof, which must not be less than three and which may be any number in excess thereof, and the names and residences of those selected for the first year and until their successors shall have been elected, and shall have accepted office.

5. Whether the voting power and the property rights and interest of each member shall be equal or unequal, and if unequal the articles shall set forth a general rule or rules applicable to all members by which the voting power and the property rights and interests, respectively, of each member may and shall be determined and fixed, but the corporation shall have power to admit new members who shall be entitled to vote and to share in the property of the corporation with the old members, in accordance with such general rule.

SEC. 42. Section 653hh of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

653hh. The articles of incorporation of any such association shall state:

- (a) The name of the association.
- (b) The purposes for which it is formed.
- (c) The county in this state where the principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation is to be located.

(d) The number of directors thereof, which must be not less than five (5) and may be any number in excess thereof; the term of office of such directors; and the names and residence of those who are to serve as incorporating directors for the first term, or until election and qualification of their successors.

(e) If organized without capital stock, whether the voting power and the property rights and interest of each member shall be equal or unequal; and if unequal, the general rule or rules applicable to all members by which the voting power and the property rights and interests, respectively, of each member may and shall be determined and fixed; and providing for the admission of new members who shall be entitled to vote and to share in the property of the association with the old members, in accordance with such general rule or rules. Any such provision shall not be altered, amended, or repealed except by the written consent or vote of three-fourths of the members.

(f) If organized with capital stock, the amount of such stock and the number of shares into which it is divided and the par value thereof, also the total number of shares actually subscribed, the names of the subscribers and the number of shares, respectively, for which they have subscribed and the amount to be paid by them for such shares.

The capital stock may be divided into preferred and common stock. If so divided, the articles of incorporation must contain a statement of the number of shares of stock to which no preference is granted and the nature and definite extent of the preference and privileges granted.

SEC. 43. Section 653ab of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

653ab. Three or more persons may incorporate under this title for the purpose of establishing a library, to be conducted without pecuniary profit. The articles of incorporation shall state that the corporation is formed under this title but otherwise shall contain the statements required by section 593.

SEC. 44. Sections 290c, 290e, 290f, 290g, 290i, 291, 293, 294, 295, 321a, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 349, 360, 361, 473, 587a, 588, 590, 603 and 604a of the Civil Code are hereby repealed."

COMMITTEE AMENDMENTS.

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

On page 1 of the printed bill, as amended in the Senate April 5, 1929, strike out the title of said bill, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"An act to amend the title and sections 2, 4, 5, 8, 9, 10, 11, 17, 18, 22, 23, 24, 25, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 44, 45, of an act of the Legislature in the State of California known and designated as the "Acquisition and Improvement Act of 1925," approved May 23, 1925, as amended, and to add new sections to said act to be numbered 21a, 25a, 25b, 25c, 25d, 25e, 25f, 27a and 35a, relating to procedure, to the time and manner of notice, hearing and effect of protests and providing for the manner of the payment of the costs and the expenses of the acquisitions and improvements under said act to term and character of bonds issued and period of deferred payments on principal thereof, number of zones, levy and effect of special assessment taxes and bonds, suit to determine validity and supplemental issue of bonds under ad valorem plan of assessment, restricting the use of the ad valorem plan to acquisitions only, and providing a method of direct assessment and reassessment plan to cover the costs and expenses of such acquisitions and such improvements, and providing for the issuance and payment of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the costs and expenses of such acquisitions and for the costs and expenses of such improvements, and providing a method for the payment of such bonds, and providing as to what proceedings shall be affected by the foregoing amendments."

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

On page 1 of the printed bill, as amended in the Senate April 5, 1929, strike out lines 1 to 11, inclusive, and all of the remainder of said bill, to and including page 42 thereof, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SECTION 1. The title of an act entitled "An act to provide for the acquisition of, including the laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening, and acquiring in any manner, in whole or in part, and for the improvement of and work upon public highways, roads, streets, avenues, boulevards, lanes, alleys, courts, places, parks, pleasure grounds, commons, and all public ways and other property and rights of way of the public, including any property over which possession and right of use have been obtained under the provisions of section 14 of article one of the constitution of the State of California, in whole or in part, whether lying entirely within unincorporated territory of a county or the territory of a municipality, or lying within such unincorporated territory and one or more municipalities, or lying within two or more municipalities, or forming the exterior boundary of any municipality where the same joins unincorporated territory of a county or the territory of another municipality, whether partly or wholly within or without said boundary, and the establishment and change of grade thereof; and providing for the payment of the costs and expenses of such acquisitions and such work and improvements, and the issuance and effect of bonds therefor and the payment of such bonds by special assessment taxes raised in assessment districts established for that purpose, and the enforcement of such bonds and taxes; and providing for aid from counties and municipalities in such acquisitions, work and improvements; and providing for the establishment and administration of revolving funds to assist in the carrying out of such acquisitions, work and improvements," approved May 23, 1925, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

An act to provide for the acquisition of, including the laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening, and acquiring in any manner, in whole or in part, and for the improvement of and work upon public highways, roads, streets, avenues, boulevards, lanes, alleys, courts, places, parks, pleasure grounds, commons, and all public ways and other property and rights of way of the public, including any property over which possession and right of use have been obtained under the provisions of section 14 of article one of the constitution of the State of California, in whole or in part, whether lying entirely within unincorporated territory of a county or the territory of a municipality, or lying within such unincorporated territory and one or more municipalities, or lying within two or more municipalities, or forming the exterior boundary of any municipality where the same joins unincorporated territory of a county or the territory of another municipality, whether partly or wholly within or without said boundary, and the establishment and change of grade thereof; and providing for the payment of the costs and expenses of such acquisitions and such work and improvements, and the issuance and effect of bonds therefor and the payment of such bonds by special assessment taxes raised in assessment districts established for that purpose, providing for the payment for acquisitions under an ad valorem plan of special assessment taxes or under a direct assessment plan of special assessments, and providing for the payment for work and improvement by the direct assessment method, and the enforcement of such bonds and special assessment taxes and special assessments; and providing for aid from counties and municipalities in such acquisitions, work and improvements; and providing for the establishment and administration of revolving funds to assist in carrying out of such acquisitions, work and improvements; and providing for the issuance and payment of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the costs and expenses of any of such acquisitions or improvements, and providing a method for the payment of such bonds.

SEC. 1a. Section 2 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. Whenever the public interest or convenience may require, the legislative body of any county and the legislative body of any municipality are hereby severally authorized and empowered to order the acquisition, or improvement (as those terms are defined hereafter in this act), or both such acquisition and improvement, of any one or more of the public ways or of property or of rights of way of the public over which they are herein invested with jurisdiction. Separate proceedings may be had and taken for such an acquisition or improvement or both such acquisition and improvement may be included within and consummated in a single proceeding. Where the latter procedure is followed, public ways already acquired, as well as the whole or a portion of those to be acquired under the proceeding, may be improved under the one proceeding. The acquisitions and improvements above provided for may comprehend and include the whole or any portion or portions, either in length or in width, of any one or more of such public ways, property and rights of way, whether the same are contiguous or otherwise and neither the various items of the improvement or improvements, nor of the acquisition or acquisitions, nor the improvement and acquisition as a whole, included in a proceeding need be contiguous or coterminous. In addition to the above authority, power and jurisdiction, there is hereby granted the following authority, power and jurisdiction: To issue and sell or otherwise dispose of bonds representing the costs and expenses of any acquisitions, and in the event it may be determined in any specific proceeding that such costs and expenses are to be met by ad valorem assessment, taxes, to constitute a fund for the payment of such bonds; and also to make and issue special assessments, diagrams and warrants representing the costs and expenses of acquisitions and improvements as in this act hereafter provided, and to issue bonds to represent unpaid assessments therefor; and to levy and collect special assessment taxes upon districts for acquisitions and to enforce special assessments against specific lots, pieces or parcels of land within the districts, all as in this act hereafter provided; to establish such districts and determine their boundaries and in the event of an acquisition to be paid for under the ad valorem tax plan, to establish and fix the boundaries of the zones in the district; to establish grades for the doing of any work or the making of any improvement authorized in this act, as in this act hereafter provided; to make transfers of money from county funds or funds of the municipality to such special funds as are in this act hereafter provided; to purchase material and furnish the same to be used in any of the improvements comprehended in this act, as in this act hereafter provided; to make direct contributions of money in part payment of the expenses of any one or more or all of the acquisitions and improvements comprehended in this act; to create and administer revolving funds to facilitate and assist in the carrying on and completing of such acquisitions and improvements, as in this act hereafter provided; and to do any and all things necessary or incidental to the accomplishment of the things which are permitted to be done under this act. The jurisdiction of the legislative body of a county shall extend over and it shall have said power and authority to acquire or improve public ways within the boundaries of such county, and also those forming the exterior boundary of any municipality or municipalities where the same join unincorporated territory of the county, and also public ways and publicly owned property lying within one or more municipalities, where, in the case of an acquisition, the proposed acquisition, in the judgment of said legislative body, is necessary or proper to complete, connect with, or render of greater use to the public any public way or ways or public property in unincorporated territory of the county already acquired or to be acquired under the proceeding; and where, in the case of an improvement, the proposed improvement, in the judgment of said legislative body, is necessary or proper to complete, connect with, or render of greater use to the public any existing improvements in or on any public way or ways or public property in unincorporated territory of the county, or any improvements to be made under the proceeding; provided, that the consent of the legislative body or bodies of such municipality or municipalities, within the boundaries of which such public ways and property lie, shall first be obtained thereto and to the assessment of the property therein, which, in the opinion of the legislative body of the county, will be benefited thereby. Likewise, the jurisdiction of the legislative body of a municipality shall be extended over and it shall have said power and authority to acquire and improve public ways within the boundaries of such municipality, and also those forming its exterior boundaries where it joins unincorporated territory of the county or the territory of another municipality, and also public ways and public property lying within unincorporated territory of a county and of one or more other municipalities, where, in the case of an acquisition, the proposed acquisition, in the judgment of said legislative body, is necessary or proper to complete, connect with, or render of greater use to the public, any public way or ways or public property within the municipality for which said legislative body functions, whether already acquired or to be acquired under the proceeding; and where, in the case of an improvement, the proposed improvement, in the judgment of said legislative body, is necessary or proper to complete, connect with, or render of greater use to the public any existing improvements in or on any public way or ways or public property within said municipality, or any improvements to be made under the proceeding; provided, that the consent of the legislative body or bodies of the county and of such other municipality or municipalities within the boundaries of which such public ways and property lie, expressed by resolution, shall first be obtained thereto and to the assessment of the property therein, which, in the judgment of the legislative body of the municipality conducting the proceeding will be benefited thereby. The true intent and meaning of the above provisions for such acquisitions and improvements is that the necessary jurisdiction and power for the consummation thereof shall be vested in, and proceedings therefor may be had and taken by, the legislative body either of the county or of any municipality in which the public interest or convenience is affected thereby and that each of said legislative bodies shall have concurrent jurisdiction to initiate such proceedings; provided, that the legislative body initiating the proceedings and adopting the resolution of intention therefor, as hereinafter provided, shall thereafter have exclusive jurisdiction of the proceeding and of all acquisitions and improvements comprehended therein, for the purposes of consummating the same.

Sec. 1b. Section 4 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4. The legislative body desiring to initiate proceedings for the making of any acquisition or improvement, or both an acquisition and improvement, under the provisions of this act, may, by an order to be entered upon its minutes, designate some county officer, if the legislative body be that of a county, or some municipal officer, if it be that of a municipality, or some other competent person, in either case, and direct him to prepare and furnish specifications for the proposed acquisition or improvement, or both. The said specifications, in the case of an improvement, shall include all plans, profiles, cross-sections and specifications necessary therefor, together with a statement of the estimated cost of the improvement (inclusive of incidental expenses and the costs of the proceeding), a description of the district to be benefited by the proposed improvement and a map or plat showing the same, and shall show the grades to which the contemplated improvements are to be constructed. In the case of an acquisition, the said specification shall include a description of all property to be acquired, together with a map or plat showing the same, the total sum of the estimated expense of said acquisition (which expenses shall include the estimated amount of just compensation and damages, the estimated expenses chargeable to the plaintiff in the condemnation action, and the estimated incidental expenses of the proceeding) and a description of the district to be benefited by the proposed acquisition and a map or plat showing the same and also the different zones within said district (if any are necessary because of varying benefits), with a statement as to what percentage of the total amount to be levied each year shall be levied upon the lands within each zone in the district; provided, that the expense is to be collected by the ad valorem method under a special assessment tax. In the event that the contemplated proceeding includes both an acquisition and an improvement, two distinct districts may be provided, one for the acquisition and one for the improvement. In the event that a single district only is provided for both the acquisition and the improvement, then the provisions with reference to zoning shall apply to the district only for the purpose of acquisition where the expense is to be met by an ad valorem assessment tax. Said specifications shall be signed by the person designated and directed to prepare them and be presented to the legislative body ordering them. Said legislative body shall examine the said specifications and may approve them or order modifications or changes to be made therein. When approved by the legislative body they shall be filed with the clerk of said body. At any time before the adoption of a resolution of intention the specifications may be corrected or modified by the order of said body.

Any error or informality in the appointment of any officer or other person to prepare specifications, or the omission of a formal order of appointment altogether, shall not invalidate or in any way affect the proceedings.

In case the consent of any legislative body other than the one conducting the proceedings is required, as provided in section 2 of this act, then, after the specifications shall have been approved and filed, the legislative body conducting the proceeding shall, by resolution, request such consent (or consents, if more than one is necessary), and a copy of the resolution requesting such consent, together with a copy of the specifications, shall be filed with the legislative body, or bodies, whose consent is requested. Such legislative body, or bodies, may consent by resolution.

SEC 2 Section 5 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC 5 Before ordering any acquisition or any improvement authorized by this act, the legislative body which is to conduct the proceeding shall adopt a resolution of intention so to do, referring to the public way, in the case of a public way already acquired, by its lawful or official name, or the name by which it is commonly known, and, in the case of a public way to be acquired under the proceeding, by the name by which such public way is to be called upon its acquisition (which name shall thereby be fixed and established), and when the acquisition or improvement is of property or a right of way owned or to be acquired by the public, then by briefly describing the said property or right of way. No proceeding for any improvement taken or had under this act shall ever be held to be invalid on the ground that the public way or ways, or any portion thereof, upon which the work or improvement, or any part thereof, is to be or was done has not been dedicated or acquired; provided, the same is lawfully dedicated or acquired or an order of immediate possession and use thereof has been obtained at any time before judgment is entered in the suit involving such proceeding.

In the case of an acquisition, the resolution shall briefly set forth that a public way or property or right of way (naming it or otherwise briefly describing it) is to be acquired state the purpose of such acquisition, and describe the property necessary or convenient to be taken therefor, and refer to the specifications on file for all details and for the estimated expense of the acquisition. It shall be determined in said resolution that the public interest and necessity require the acquisition therein set forth, and that said property to be taken is necessary therefor. Said resolution shall contain a description of the district of the lands to be benefited by said proposed acquisition which shall be known and referred to in each instance thereafter as the "acquisition assessment district." The said description of the acquisition assessment district may be in general terms, referring to a plat or map approved by the legislative body conducting the proceeding, which shall be on file in the office of the clerk of such legislative body at the time of the adoption of said resolution of intention, and which shall indicate by a boundary line the extent of the territory to be included in the proposed acquisition assessment district, which said plat or map shall govern for all details as to the extent of said acquisition assessment district. Said resolution, in the case of an acquisition, shall be adopted by a vote of two-thirds of the members of said legislative body. In the case of an improvement, said resolution shall determine that the contemplated improvement is of more than local or ordinary public benefit and that the public interest and necessity require the improvement set forth in the resolution and that the expenses of said improvement shall be chargeable upon a district which said legislative body shall declare in said resolution to be the district benefited by said improvement, and to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof. Said resolution shall contain a description of the district of lands to be benefited by said proposed work of improvement which shall be known and referred to thereafter in the proceeding as the "improvement assessment district." The said description of the improvement assessment district may be in general terms, referring to a plat or map approved by the legislative body conducting the proceeding, which shall be on file in the office of the clerk of such legislative body at the time of the adoption of said resolution of intention and which shall indicate by a boundary line the extent of the territory to be included in the proposed improvement assessment district, which said plat or map shall govern for all details as to the extent of said improvement assessment district. Said resolution shall briefly describe the improvement, it being sufficient to state in general terms the class or kind of work contemplated (such as grading, paving, sewerage, or other work or improvement), and to give in general the location of the proposed improvement and refer to the plans, profiles, detail drawings and specifications therefor, or such of them as may be suitable or proper (which shall be approved by said legislative body and be on file in the office of the clerk thereof at the time of the adoption of said resolution), for the estimated cost of the improvement (inclusive of incidental expenses and costs of the proceeding), for a full and detailed description and location of said proposed improvement and of the grades to which said improvement is to be constructed.

Said resolution shall contain the following statement: "The notice of all persons is directed to the grades for the proposed improvement and to the provisions of the acquisition and improvement act of 1925 relating to grades," and in cases where the construction of the proposed improvement will result in a substantial change (considered with reference to existing physical conditions) with respect to the relation of the elevation of any abutting property to that of the public way as it will exist upon being improved to the proposed grade, there shall be included in said statement the following: "Particular notice is directed to the fact that substantial changes in the relation of the elevation of abutting property to that of said public way (or ways), as it (or they) will exist after being improved, will result from the construction of the above mentioned improvements to the proposed grades." If both an acquisition and improvement are contemplated in the same proceeding, one resolution of intention, containing the above requirements in the respective cases, shall be sufficient. Each proceeding under this act may, for convenience, be entitled, and such entitling shall be sufficient for all purposes: "In the matter of acquisition and improvement district No. _____ of the county (or city, as the case may be) of _____" (giving a different number to each district for which a proceeding is had) and a like designation of the district (omitting the words "in the matter of") shall be a sufficient designation of the district at all times and for all purposes. Said resolution shall also contain a statement that, for the expenses of the things therein proposed to be done, in connection with and incident to the acquisition in the event that the expenses of such acquisition is to be met by the ad valorem plan of an assessment tax, bonds will be issued to the total amount of the cost or costs thus to be raised by an ad valorem assessment tax, excepting the amount, if any, to be contributed thereto by the county or municipality in money, said bonds to bear interest at the rate of _____ (not to exceed eight) _____ per cent per annum, payable semiannually, the first interest payment to be made on the second day of January or the second day of July (whichever month first succeeds the date of the bonds) next succeeding one year after the date of such bonds, and the aggregate principal of such bonds issued under the proceeding to be paid and discharged within (not to exceed thirty) _____ years after the date of issuance, approximately one _____ (not less than one-thirtieth) _____ part of such aggregate principal to be payable annually, all in gold coin, and that a special fund for the payment of such bonds will be constituted by the levy of special assessment taxes upon the lands within the acquisition assessment district, in accordance with the provisions of this act, according to the assessed value of said lands, exclusive of the improvements thereon, except as in this act otherwise provided. Said resolution shall state that the first payment on the aggregate principal of the acquisition and immediate possession bonds issued will be made _____ (either two or three years, as said legislative body shall determine) after the issuance thereof. In the event that it is provided that the cost and expenses of the acquisition shall be met by the specific direct assessment plan, and also with respect to all expenses for work and improvement, said resolution shall contain a statement that the costs and expenses of the acquisition and of the proposed improvement, less any amount, if any, to be contributed under section 7 of this act, shall be assessed upon each particular lot, piece or parcel of land lying within the improvement assessment district in accordance with the estimated benefit which each such lot, piece or parcel of land will receive as provided by this act. Said resolution shall also contain a statement that serial bonds shall be issued to represent assessments of twenty-five dollars or more, for the cost of the whole or any portion of the work or improvement authorized by this act and also for the cost of the whole or any portion of the acquisition in the event that the direct assessment plan is to be followed and that said bonds shall be issued under the provisions of part three of an act of the Legislature of the State of California, entitled "An act to provide for work in and upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, within municipalities, and upon property and rights of way owned by municipalities, or of which a municipality has possession and the right of use under the provisions of section 14 of article one of the constitution, and for establishing and changing the grades of any such streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places, sidewalks, properties or rights of way and providing for the issuance and payment of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost thereof, and providing a method for the payment of such bonds," approved April 7, 1911, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended excepting therefrom section 64 and the said provisions of said part three of said act and the amendments which may hereafter be made thereto are hereby incorporated in and adopted as a part of this act, save and excepting section 64 which is covered by section 25a of this act. Wherever in said part three of said act the following phrases shall be deemed to and are hereby declared to include in appropriate cases the following, to wit: "City or council" includes "board of supervisors"; "city" or "municipality" includes "county"; "treasurer" or "city treasurer" includes "county treasurer"; "street superintendent" includes "county surveyor"; "tax rolls of said city" includes "tax rolls of said county"; the bond may be designated as "series _____ in the _____ (city or county) of _____."

The time within which the acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds to be issued under the proceeding shall be paid and discharged may differ from the time within which the improvement bonds issued under the proceeding may be paid and discharged, in which case the resolution of intention shall state all matters as to the time within which the bonds issued under the proceedings will be paid and discharged as hereinbefore required, both for the improvement bonds and also for all acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds, if any.

Said resolution of intention may provide that the interest rate to be paid on all acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds, if any, which shall be issued under the proceedings under the ad valorem plan of special assessment tax shall not exceed a maximum rate to be stated in said resolution, which maximum rate shall not exceed eight per cent per annum, payable semiannually, and if such maximum rate be provided for in the case of acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds, without giving the final and exact interest rate at which such bonds will eventually be issued and sold, said resolution shall contain a statement thereof with respect to such bonds, in lieu of the statement hereinbefore in this section provided.

The lands upon which special assessment taxes and special assessments shall be levied, as in this act provided, shall be all those lying within the assessment district, including any lands which are the operative property of any public utility, except as otherwise provided in this section; provided, said lands shall not include any lands belonging to the United States government or the State of California, but shall include all lands belonging to a county, municipality, district, public agency, mandatory of the government, school board, educational, penal or reformatory institution, or institution for the feeble-minded or insane, included within the assessment district, whether being in use in the performance of any public function or otherwise; provided, however, that the legislative body conducting the proceedings may, in the resolution of intention, declare that any land or lands, describing the same, belonging to any county, municipality, district, public agency, mandatory of the government, school board, educational, penal or reformatory institution, or institution for the feeble-minded or insane, lying within the assessment district, or any of them, shall be omitted from the said district and from the levy and collection of the special assessment taxes and special assessments thereafter to be levied and collected to cover the expenses of the acquisition or improvement, or both, as the case may be, and in the event that said lands or any of them shall by said resolution be so omitted then the total expenses of the things done in the proceedings shall be met by the levying and collection of such special assessment taxes and special assessments upon and from the remaining lands within the assessment district, without regard to such omitted lands. In order that any such lands may be so omitted, however, it must be determined and set forth in the resolution of intention that such lands are in use in the performance of a public function.

If, in the judgment of the legislative body conducting the proceeding, it is desirable to assess the cost upon the ad valorem special assessment tax plan and varying benefits will be derived from the acquisitions by the different parcels of land lying within the acquisition assessment district so require, the said acquisition district shall be divided into zones. Said acquisition district may be divided into as many zones, not to exceed twenty in number, as may be deemed necessary because of varying benefits, and each zone shall be composed of and include the lands within the district which will be benefited in a like measure. If more than twenty zones are necessary because of varying benefits, the procedure of this act shall not be available and the method of assessing the costs and expenses by direct assessment plan shall be followed. In the event that the ad valorem assessment tax method is followed, said legislative body shall also determine the percentage of the total amount to be levied each year which shall be levied upon the lands within each zone in the acquisition assessment district. When the acquisition assessment district is divided into such zones the resolution of intention shall so state, giving said percentages to be levied each year upon the lands in each zone. Each zone shall be designated by a different letter or number and shall be plainly shown upon the map or plat of the acquisition assessment district filed in the office of the clerk of such legislative body and referred to in the resolution of intention, either by separate boundaries, coloring, or other convenient and graphic method, so that all persons interested may with accuracy ascertain within which zone any parcel of land is located. It shall be sufficient in all cases where the acquisition assessment district is to be divided into such zones according to benefits if the resolution of intention states that fact and refers to said plat or map for the boundaries and all details concerning the said zones.

Said resolution shall contain a notice of the day, hour and place (to be fixed therein) when and where any and all persons having any objections to the proposed acquisition or improvement or both (if both be included in the proceeding), to the proposed grades to which the improvement (if any) is to be constructed, to the extent of the improvement assessment district, or to the extent of the acquisition assessment district, to the zones (if any) into which said acquisition assessment district is to be divided, or to the percentages to be raised from each of said zones or to any or all of the foregoing, or other matters to which objections may be made, may appear before the legislative body conducting the proceeding and be heard. Said time shall not be less than thirty nor more than seventy-five days from the date of the adoption of said resolution. The clerk of said legislative body shall cause said resolution of intention to be published by at least two insertions. The date of the first publication shall not be less than twenty days before the day fixed in said resolution for said hearing.

SEC. 4. Section 8 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 8. Not later than twenty days prior to the date fixed in the resolution of intention for the hearing the superintendent of work shall cause to be conspicuously posted along the line of said contemplated work or improvement, if an improvement is contemplated, at not more than three hundred feet in distance apart, but not less than three in all, and along all the open streets within the improvement assessment district at not more than three hundred feet in distance apart on each street so posted, and along the line of the property to be acquired, if an acquisition is contemplated, at not more than three hundred feet in distance apart but not less than three in all, notices of the adoption of said resolution; provided, however, that the failure to post any or all of said notices shall in no event affect the validity of the proceedings or the jurisdiction and power of the legislative body to order the acquisition or improvement, or both. Said notices shall be entitled "Notice of public improvement" in letters of not less than one inch in height; and shall, in legible characters, state the fact of the adoption of the resolution of intention, its date, and briefly and in general terms, the improvement or acquisition, or both, as the case may be, proposed, and refer to the resolution of intention for further particulars. The said notices need not contain a description of either the acquisition assessment district or improvement assessment district described in the resolution of intention but may refer to said resolution therefor. Said notices shall contain also a statement of the day, hour and place when and where any and all persons having any objections to the proposed improvement or acquisition, or both, as the case may be, or to the grade or grades to which the improvement is proposed to be constructed, or to the extent of the acquisition assessment district or improvement assessment district or to the zones, if any, into which the acquisition assessment district is divided, or to the percentages of the total amount to be levied each year which shall be levied upon the lands within each zone, or to any or all of the foregoing, may appear before the legislative body and be heard.

If deemed advisable and the legislative body so orders, said notices may consist of printed copies of the resolution of intention, entitled as above provided, and the same shall be sufficient for all purposes of said notice.

The clerk of the legislative body conducting the proceeding shall mail postcard notices to all owners of land within the acquisition assessment district or improvement assessment district or both, as the case may be (as said ownerships appear upon the last equalized assessment roll of the city or county as the case may be, or as otherwise known to the clerk) stating in substance the fact and date of the adoption of the resolution of intention, referring to the resolution of intention for a description of the improvement or acquisition, or both, as the case may be, and of the district, and for further particulars, and stating that land of the addressee is within the assessment district and the time and place at which objections will be heard. No failure of the clerk to send any of said notices and no failure of any property owners or others interested to receive the same and no defects in such notice shall in any way vitiate or invalidate the proceeding, but the legislative body conducting the proceeding shall not order the acquisition or improvement, or both, until the clerk shall have filed in the record of proceedings in his office an affidavit that he has diligently and in good faith attempted to ascertain the addresses of the owners of land within the acquisition assessment district or improvement assessment district, or both, as the case may be and that he has mailed notices to all of such land owners whose addresses he found, at least fifteen days prior to the date of hearing stated in the notice. Such affidavit shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

SEC. 5. Section 9 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 9. At any time not later than the hour set for hearing objections as provided in the preceding section, any owner of land within the boundaries of the acquisition assessment district or improvement assessment district as set forth in said resolution may, severally, or with other such owners, file with the clerk of the legislative body conducting the proceedings written objection to the thing or things proposed to be done, whether it be an improvement or acquisition, or both, or to the grade or grades to which the improvement is proposed to be constructed, or to the extent of the improvement assessment district or acquisition assessment district, or to the zones, if any, into which the acquisition assessment district is divided, or to the percentage of the total amount to be levied each year which is to be levied upon the lands in each of said zones, or to any or all of the matters to which objections may be made. Upon such hearing all objections and protests to the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done shall be heard and considered. If upon said hearing it appears that the owners of more than one-half of the area of the property included within the entire acquisition assessment district, as proposed, have in writing made objection to the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done, in connection with the acquisition, in their entirety, and to the ordering of the same, the legislative body shall, by a resolution to be entered upon its minutes, so find and thereupon no further proceeding for substantially the same acquisition may be begun within a period of six months from the date of such finding unless such protest shall be overruled by a four-fifths vote of the legislative body. In order that such objections constitute a bar, as aforesaid, they must specifically state that the objections are to the doing of the thing or things proposed in connection with the acquisition in their entirety and not merely to some item, class, kind or part of the thing or things proposed to be done in connection with the acquisition. If the fact be that the owners of more than one-half of the area of the property included within the entire acquisition assessment district as proposed have not so in writing made objection going to the ordering of the thing or things proposed to be done in connection with the acquisition, as an entirety, the legislative body shall so find, and may thereupon proceed with the hearing, but such finding need not be in writing and may, for the purpose of proceeding with the hearing, be a mere announcement of the body. Next shall be heard, in any order desired by such body, such objections as shall be made to the extent of the district and to the zones, if any, into which said acquisition assessment district is divided and to the said percentages as set forth in the resolution of intention. Next shall be considered the protests, if any, which may have been made in writing against the work or improvement if the proceedings call for the same.

In the case of an improvement, next shall be heard such objections as shall be made to the proposed improvement as provided hereinbefore. Any owner of land liable to be assessed for said work or improvement may make written protests against the proposed work or against the extent of the district to be assessed therefor, or both, and may also file objections to the grade or grades to which the improvement is proposed to be constructed. Such protests or objections must be in writing and be delivered to the said clerk of the city council or board and no other protests or objections shall be considered. At the time set for hearing protests, the city council or board shall proceed to hear and pass upon all protests so made and its decision shall be final and conclusive. If upon said hearing it appears that the owners of more than one-half of the area of the property included within the entire improvement assessment district, as proposed, have in writing made objection to the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done in connection with the improvement, in their entirety, and to the ordering of the same, the legislative body shall, by a resolution to be entered upon its minutes, so find and thereupon no further proceedings for substantially the same improvement may be begun within a period of six months from the date of such finding, unless such protests shall be overruled by a four-fifths vote of the legislative body. In order that such objections constitute a bar, as aforesaid, they must specifically state that the objections are to the doing of the thing or things proposed in connection with the improvement in their entirety and not merely to some item, class, kind or part of the thing or things proposed to be done in connection with the improvement. If the fact be that the owners of more than one-half the area of the property included within the entire improvement assessment district as proposed have not so in writing made objection going to the ordering of the thing or things proposed to be done in connection with the improvement, as an entirety, the legislative body shall so find, and may thereupon proceed with the hearing but such finding need not be in writing, and may for the purpose of proceeding with the hearing, be a mere announcement of the body and if the owners of more than fifty per cent of such area have made such written objection and such objection has been overruled by a four-fifths vote of the legislative body, it shall thereupon proceed with the hearing. Next shall be heard in any order desired by such body, such objections as shall be made to the extent of the district and to the grade or grades to which the improvement is proposed to be constructed.

The hearing may be continued from time to time by the legislative body by an order to be entered upon its minutes.

SEC 6. Section 10 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 10. Unless the power to proceed shall have ceased as hereinbefore provided, the legislative body shall in conclusion of the aforementioned hearing and as a determination of all questions arising thereat, by resolution to be entered upon its minutes, declare its findings that the owners of more than fifty per cent of the area of the property included in the acquisition assessment district have not made written objection going to the entirety of the thing or things proposed to be done, in connection with the acquisition, or if such objections have been made by the owners of more than fifty per cent of such area that such objections are overruled by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of the members of the legislative body, and that the owners of more than fifty per cent of the area of the property included in the improvement assessment district have not made written objection going to the entirety of the thing or things proposed to be done in connection with the improvement, or if such objections have been made by the owners of more than fifty per cent of such area that such objections are overruled by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of the members of the legislative body. Said legislative body may at the conclusion of the hearing thereon and in said resolution determine the extent and boundaries of the acquisition assessment district and may exclude from the acquisition assessment district described in the resolution of intention any parcels of land which it may find will not be benefited by the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done in connection with such acquisition. It may also change or modify either as to number or boundaries the zones, if any, in the event that the expenses of the acquisition are to be met by the ad valorem plan of an assessment tax, into which said acquisition district is divided, so that each zone shall be composed of the lands within said acquisition assessment district which will be benefited in like measure, and it may also change the percentage of the total amount to be levied each year which shall be levied upon the lands within each zone in the acquisition assessment district, said legislative body may also in said resolution determine the extent and boundaries of the improvement assessment district and may also exclude from the improvement assessment district described in the resolution of intention, any parcels of land which it may find will not be benefited by the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done in connection with said improvement; said legislative body may also change or modify the boundary of said improvement assessment district. If no changes be made in the boundaries of the acquisition assessment district or improvement assessment district as the same are set forth in the resolution of intention, or no changes are made in the zones or the percentages to be levied on the lands in said acquisition assessment district each year as set forth in said resolution, it shall be sufficient to state that the boundaries of the improvement assessment district and the acquisition assessment district, and the zones and the percentages of said acquisition assessment district to be levied thereon each year, are those set forth in the resolution of intention, but if any changes be made in the boundaries of the improvement assessment district or the acquisition assessment district, the boundaries as finally determined shall be fully set forth in said resolution, and the plat or map of the acquisition assessment district and the plat or map of the improvement assessment district on file in the office of the clerk of such legislative body and referred to in the resolution of intention shall be made to show said boundaries as finally determined, and if any changes be made in the zones referred to in the resolution of intention, the description of the boundaries of said zones, as finally determined, shall be fully set forth, and said plat or map on file in the office of the clerk of the legislative body shall be changed to show the boundaries of said zones as finally determined, and, if any changes be made in the percentages of the amount to be levied each year upon the lands within each zone of the acquisition assessment district, the resolution shall so state, giving such percentages, as finally determined. In the event that the expenses of the proposed acquisition is to be levied by the direct assessment plan, the hearing shall be confined to the matter of the extent of and the boundaries of the assessment district. The boundaries of the acquisition assessment district, as the same are set forth in the resolution of intention, shall not be so changed as to include within the district any territory not within its boundaries as set forth in said resolution.

The boundaries of the improvement assessment district, as the same are set forth in the resolution of intention, shall not be so changed as to include within the district any territory not within its boundaries as set forth in said resolution.

Said legislative body may also change or modify the grades as set forth in the plans and specifications and referred to in the resolution of intention. If no change or modification be made as to the grades, as the same are set forth in the plans and specifications and referred to in the resolution of intention, it shall be sufficient to state in the resolution adopted at the conclusion of said hearing, that the grades as finally determined, are those set forth in such plans and specifications, but if any changes are made in the grades, as set forth in the plans and specifications and referred to in the resolution of intention, such changes shall be set forth in said resolution adopted at the conclusion of said hearing.

If any changes or modifications be made in the boundaries of the improvement assessment district or the acquisition assessment district or the zones, or the percentages to be levied each year upon the lands within each zone in the acquisition assessment district, or the grades, or any or all of the foregoing, such changes or modifications shall be made by a four-fifths vote of the legislative body.

The boundaries of the improvement assessment district and acquisition assessment district, the location and extent of the zones, if any, and the percentages of the total amount to be levied each year which shall be levied upon the lands within each zone in the acquisition assessment district in those instances where the cost and expenses are to be collected under the ad valorem plan of an assessment tax, so determined, shall then be established and prevail for all purposes of the proceeding and until any bonds to be issued under the proceedings shall have been fully paid and discharged. When the expenses for the acquisition are to be met by the direct assessment method, the boundaries of the district shall remain as established until the assessments have been paid and until any bonds issued to represent unpaid assessments shall have been fully discharged, and the grades so determined shall be the grades for all the purposes of the proceeding and the improvement to be done thereunder. The findings and determination of said legislative body shall be final and conclusive.

SEC 7. Section 11 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec 11. Having thus taken action upon all objections and protests to the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done and having determined the boundaries of the improvement assessment district and the boundaries of the acquisition assessment district and also in the event that the expenses of the acquisition are to be met by a special assessment tax on the ad valorem plan, then also of the zones, if any, and the percentages heretofore referred to, and the grades for the improvement, the legislative body shall have jurisdiction and may, by resolution, order the thing or things proposed to be done in the resolution of intention to be done. The resolution ordering the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done may be the same in which all of the final determinations above mentioned are made, or it may be a separate resolution, in which latter case it shall refer to the resolution making said final determination. Neither said resolution ordering the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done nor any resolutions, notices, orders or determinations thereafter made or given in the proceeding need contain a description of the work or improvement to be done or the property to be acquired, and it shall be sufficient in any of the foregoing to refer therein to the resolution of intention for a description of the work or improvement to be done, or the property to be acquired, or both, as the case may be, and, if the boundaries of the improvement assessment district and the boundaries of the acquisition assessment district, the zones, percentages and grades set forth in the resolution of intention have not been changed, it shall be sufficient in any of the foregoing to refer therein to the description of the same set forth in the resolution of intention, but if said boundaries, said zones, said percentages and said grades or any or all of the same have been changed then it shall be sufficient to refer to the resolution changing and determining the same for a description thereof and all details relative thereto.

If said resolution ordering the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done include the acquisition of property, the legislative body shall therein direct an action to be brought by the attorney, in the proper superior court, in the name of the county or of the municipality for which the legislative body conducting the proceedings functions, as the case may be, for the condemnation of the property necessary or convenient to be taken therefor.

If said resolution orders work or improvement to be done, the legislative body shall therein fix a time for receiving bids for doing said work or improvement and direct the clerk thereof to give notice accordingly, inviting sealed bids. In the event the proceeding includes the acquisition of property which must be acquired before the construction of the improvement can be commenced, the time for receiving bids may be fixed as the first regular meeting day of the legislative body after the expiration of fifteen days following the signing of the decree or order of the court entitling the plaintiff in the action to possession and use of the property sought to be acquired, and the clerk shall be directed in said resolution to give the notice inviting bids after the signing of such decree or order or a future day and hour certain may be fixed, and if a decree or order giving possession is not obtained at a time prior to such day sufficient to permit the first publication of the notice inviting bids to be had at least ten days prior thereto, the legislative body may, by resolution, refix said day for receiving bids and direct the clerk to give notice inviting bids for said new day so fixed. A single exercise shall not exhaust this power to refix the day for receiving bids in such cases, but it may be resorted to as many times as are necessary.

In the event that the proceeding includes both an acquisition and improvement, the legislative body may require the bidders who submit bids for performing the work and improvement to purchase the bonds which have been or are to be issued to cover the cost of the acquisition and immediate possession, or either or both, and to include in their bid for the improvement a bid for said bonds, which shall not be for less than par. Such determination and requirement shall be made by resolution and shall direct the clerk to give notice accordingly in the notice inviting bids, stating the total par value of such bonds, and the interest rate, if fixed; otherwise the maximum interest rate. In the event such determination and requirement are made the time fixed for receiving bids for the improvement may be any time after directing the issuance of the bonds under the provisions of section 28 or section 30 of this act, fixing a day certain, but the power to refix such time shall exist as heretofore in this section provided. In such event the provisions made elsewhere for the notice of sale and sale of such bonds shall not apply, where inconsistent herewith. The successful bidder shall, within fifteen days after the first publication of the notice of award, make payment to the treasurer in cash for such bonds, which shall be used by said treasurer in the same manner as if such bonds were sold separately; provided, however, that the successful bidder shall not be entitled to a contract for the said work or improvement until such payment is made and until the plaintiff in the action to acquire the public way or ways required has obtained a valid court order, judgment or decree entitling it to possession of the public way or ways to be improved. In such cases, the twenty days after the first publication of the notice of award provided in section 14 for entering into the contract shall be extended to ten days after the entry of such order, judgment or decree

SEC. 8. Section 17 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 17. The superintendent of work is hereby authorized, in his capacity as such superintendent of work, to execute the contract with the awardee of the same, and to receive and approve all bonds by this act required on the part of such awardee. He shall, by the terms of said contract, fix the time for the commencement of the work or improvement, which shall not be more than twenty days from the date thereof, and for the completion of said work or improvement under all contracts entered into by him, and the contract shall provide that the work shall be prosecuted with diligence until completed. The time of completion fixed in the contract may be extended from time to time by said superintendent of work, under the direction of the legislative body expressed by resolution, a copy of which shall be certified by the clerk of said legislative body and attached to the contract. Such extension of time may be granted by the legislative body at any time before the expiration of three months after the time originally fixed for completion in the contract or by the last previous extension of time, and the extension so granted shall be deemed to commence and be effective from the date of such expiration. Any such extension of time shall not release any surety or sureties upon any bond required under this act.

Said contract shall provide that the work or improvement to be done shall be under the direction and to the satisfaction of said superintendent of work, and that the materials used shall comply with the specifications and be to the satisfaction of said superintendent of work, and shall undertake on behalf of the county or municipality, as the case may be, that, upon the performance and completion of the contract on the part of the contractor, and under the provisions of the "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," all steps will be taken, in and by said act authorized to be taken, to effect the issuance of the assessments, diagrams, warrants and bonds in said act authorized to be issued. Said contract shall also contain an express notice that in no case, except where it is otherwise provided by law, or the charter of the county or municipality whose legislative body is conducting the proceedings, as the case may be, shall the county or municipality, as the case may be, or any officer thereof, be liable for any portion of the expense or be helden under said contract in any way except for the discharge of official duty under the law, nor shall said county or municipality as the case may be, be liable for any materials or sums of money except those which the resolution of intention shall provide will be furnished or paid.

SEC. 9. Section 18 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 18. If, after the execution of the contract, the contractor shall fail to begin the work in good faith within the time provided in said contract, or shall fail at any time thereafter to prosecute said work diligently according to the terms of the contract, the superintendent of work shall make a report to the legislative body setting forth wherein the contractor is in default. Thereupon the legislative body shall cause written notice to be mailed to said contractor at his last known address that at a time, to be set in the notice and which must be not less than five days after the mailing of the notice, said body will hold a hearing to determine whether or not the contract shall be declared forfeited

At the time set in said notice, or at any time to which the matter may be continued, the legislative body shall determine whether or not the contractor is in default either in respect to beginning said work or in respect to its diligent prosecution. If said body determines that the contractor is in default it may declare the contract forfeited. In such event it may again call for bids and award the contract as provided heretofore for awarding the contract in the first instance.

If bids are again called for and a new contract entered into at a price greater than that in the contract declared forfeited, suit shall be brought on the bond of the original contractor for an amount equal to the excess of the second contract over the first, plus the incidental expense incurred in entering into the new contract. The sum recovered shall be placed in the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be.

SEC. 9a. A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered section 21a and to read as follows:

Sec. 21a. In case of an improvement, the legislative body shall direct the engineer of work to make a diagram of the property affected or benefited by the proposed work or improvement, as described in the resolution of intention, and to be assessed to pay the expenses thereof. Such diagram shall show each separate lot, piece or parcel of land, and the dimensions of each such lot, piece or parcel of land, and the relative location of the same to the work proposed to be done, all within the limits of the improvement assessment district; and when said diagram shall have been approved by the legislative body, the clerk shall certify the fact and date thereof. Immediately thereafter the said diagram shall be delivered to the superintendent of work, who shall, after the contractor has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of said superintendent of work or legislative body on appeal, proceed to estimate upon the lands, lots or portions of lots within the improvement assessment district, as shown by said diagram, the benefits arising from such work, and to be received by each such lot, portion of such lot, piece or subdivision of land, and shall thereupon assess upon and against said lands in said improvement assessment district the total amount of the costs and expenses of such work, and in so doing shall assess said total sum upon the several pieces, parcels, lots or portions of lots, and subdivisions of land in said improvement assessment district, benefited thereby, to wit, upon each respectively, in proportion to the estimated benefits to be received by each of said several lots, portions of lots, or subdivisions of land. In other respects the assessment shall be as provided in the next section. The assessment and apportionment of the expenses of all of such improvement shall be made by the superintendent of work, as set forth in this act; provided, however, that the legislative body may by resolution provide that the assessment thereafter to be made in the proceeding shall be made and signed by the superintendent of streets or county surveyor, as the case may be, instead of by the superintendent of work, and in such event, the provisions outlined in this act with reference to the duties of the superintendent of work shall be construed as being complied with when such duties are so performed by said superintendent of streets or said county surveyor, in lieu of the superintendent of work.

SEC. 10 Section 22 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 22 In case of an improvement, after the contractor has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of the superintendent of work, the superintendent of work, or the superintendent of streets, or the county surveyor, as the case may be, if the power and duty so to do has been delegated to him as heretofore provided, shall make an assessment covering the sum due for the work performed and specified in the said contract (including all incidental expenses), in conformity with the provisions of the preceding section according to the character of the work done. The assessment shall briefly refer to the contract, the work contracted for and performed, and shall show the amount to be paid therefor, together with all incidental expenses, the amount of each assessment against each lot or portion of lot, the number of each lot or portion or portions of a lot so assessed, and shall have attached thereto a diagram exhibiting each street or street crossing, lane, alley, place or court, property or rights of way on which any work has been done, showing the relative location of each lot, or portion of lot to the work done, numbered to correspond with the numbers of the assessments. The said assessment shall then be filed with the city clerk or the county clerk, as the case may be, and said clerk shall then give notice of the filing of said assessment and of a time to be therein fixed by the said clerk when all persons interested in the work done, or in the assessment will be heard by the city council or board of supervisors, as the case may be. Such notice shall be posted for not less than five (5) days on or near the council chamber door, or the chamber door of the board of supervisors, and in addition be published in a newspaper published twice in a newspaper published in such city or county, if there be any, the first of which publications shall not be less than fifteen (15) days before the time fixed for such hearing. Such notice shall also be given by mailing a post card to the owner of each lot listed according to the name and address appearing on the last equalized assessment roll, for city taxes or for county taxes, as the case may be, prior thereto, or as known to the clerk; provided, that a failure of the clerk to give such notice by mailing or of any persons addressed to receive same, shall not affect the jurisdiction of the council or board, to proceed with the hearing noticed. Reference shall therein be made to the resolution of intention and the date of its passage, for a description of the work therein mentioned and no other description thereof shall be necessary. The owners, the contractor or his assigns, and all other persons interested in any work done under this act, or in the assessment, feeling aggrieved by any act or determination of the superintendent of work, engineer of work, superintendent of streets, or the county surveyor, in relation thereto or who claim that the work has not been performed according to the contract in a good and substantial manner, or who claim that any portion of the work for any reason was omitted or illegally included in the contract for the same, or having or making any objection to the correctness of the assessment or diagram or other act, determination or proceeding of the superintendent of work, engineer of work, superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, shall prior to the day fixed for the hearing upon the assessment, appeal to the city council or to the board of supervisors, as the case may be, by briefly stating in writing the grounds of appeal. Upon such appeal, the said city council or board of supervisors, as the case may be, may remedy and correct any error or informality in the proceedings, and revise and correct any of the acts or determinations of the superintendent of work, engineer of work, superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, relative to the said work; may confirm, amend, alter, modify or correct the assessment or diagram in such manner as to them shall seem just and require the work to be completed according to the directions of the city council or the board of supervisors, as the case may be; and may instruct and direct the superintendent of work, the engineer of work, the superintendent of streets, or the county surveyor, as the case may be, to correct the warrant, assessment or diagram in any particular. All the decisions and determinations of the said city council or of the board of supervisors, as the case may be, upon notice and hearing as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive upon all persons entitled to appeal under the provisions of this section, as to all errors, informalities, and irregularities, which said city council or board of supervisors might have avoided, or have remedied, during the progress of the proceedings, or which it can at that time remedy. No assessment, warrant, or diagram, and no proceedings prior to the assessment, shall be held invalid by any court for any error, informality, or other defect in the same, where the resolution of intention of the council or board of supervisors, as the case may be, to do the work, has been actually published as herein provided. When no appeal is taken or when the orders and determinations of the council or board of supervisors, as the case may be, upon appeal have been complied with, and the council or board of supervisors, as the case may be, is satisfied with the correctness of the assessment, thereupon the street superintendent or county surveyor, as the case may be, shall attach thereto a warrant bearing the date of said order of said city council or board of supervisors as the case may be.

The said treasurer shall immediately mail a demand to the owners of the property assessed, as shown upon the last equalized assessment roll, or as otherwise known to him, stating the amount of the assessment and the time and place for cash payment thereof, and for thirty (30) days after the recordation shall receive the amount due upon any assessment and give a receipt therefor, and cancel said assessment of record, provided that any omissions or irregularities in the making or receiving of such demand shall not, however, constitute a defect in the proceedings, or in any way affect the validity of the proceedings or the bonds issued to represent the unpaid assessments.

Any property owner who is also a defendant in the condemnation suit for an acquisition may offset his award or any portion of his award in such action against the assessment made to cover the costs and expenses of the acquisition upon any lot, piece or parcel of land owned by him, or he may apply said award pro tanto upon such assessments, in which case the treasurer shall make an entry upon the assessment roll showing the amount paid by offset and the source of such amount. Such property owner shall execute duplicate receipts for such part due him as is offset against such assessments, one of which shall be retained by the treasurer and the other shall be filed with the clerk of the court, and the plaintiff shall thereupon be entitled to a satisfaction pro tanto of the interlocutory judgment.

Sec. 11. Section 23 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 23. To said assessment shall be attached a warrant, which shall be signed by the superintendent of work, or by the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, as the case may be, if the power and duty to do so has been delegated to him as hereinbefore provided, and countersigned by the mayor of said municipality, or the president of said board. The said warrant shall be substantially in the following form:

By virtue hereof, I, _____, (name of superintendent of work, or superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, as the case may be) of _____ (city or county) of _____, county of _____, State of California, by virtue of the authority vested in me as said _____ (superintendent of work, or superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, as the case may be) do authorize and empower _____ (name of contractor) _____ (his, their or its) agents or assigns to demand and receive the several assessments upon the assessment and diagram hereto attached, and this shall be _____ (his, their or its) warrant for the same. Serial bonds bearing interest at the rate of _____ per cent per annum, and extending over a period ending _____ years from and after the second day of January next succeeding the fifteenth day of the next November following the date of said bonds are to be issued to represent the cost and expenses of the work described in the assessment and in the manner and form prescribed by law, and notice is hereby given that a bond in such series will issue to represent each assessment of twenty-five dollars or more remaining unpaid for thirty days after the date of recording this warrant.

(Name of superintendent of work, superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, as the case may be) Countersigned by (name of mayor of municipality or president of board)

Said warrant, diagram and assessment shall be recorded in the office of said superintendent of streets or county surveyor, as the case may be. When so recorded the several amounts assessed shall be a lien upon the lands, lots, or portions of lots assessed, respectively, and such lien shall so continue until it be discharged of record. Such lien shall be subordinate to all special assessment liens previously imposed upon the same property, but it shall have priority over all special assessment liens which may thereafter be created against the said property and from and after the date of said recording of any warrant, assessment and diagram, all persons shall be deemed to have notice of the contents thereof. After said warrant, assessment and diagram are recorded, the same shall be delivered to the contractor, or his agent, or assigns, on demand but not until after the payment of the incidental expenses not previously paid by the contractor, or his assigns; and by virtue of said warrant said contractor, or his agents or assigns, shall be authorized to receive the amount of the several assessments made to cover the sum due for the work specified in such contract and assessments.

The warrant hereinbefore mentioned, shall be and constitute full authority to the contractor, his agents or assigns, to collect the said assessments and they shall be free to make demands upon the owners by virtue of the said warrant and to demand and receive payment of the same, and give receipt therefor, and they shall, whenever the owner so demands give a receipt to him, and the street superintendent or county surveyor, as the case may be, thereafter shall, upon presentation of such receipt, mark upon the said assessment note of the said payment.

SEC. 12. Section 24 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 24 The warrant shall be returned to the superintendent of streets or the county surveyor, as the case may be, on or after thirty (30) days after the date of recording same, with the written statement of all payments received upon the assessment, signed by the contractor or his assigns. Thereupon the superintendent of streets or county surveyor, as the case may be, shall file the statement so made with the record of the warrant and assessment by attaching it in the same book and immediately following the record of the assessment. Upon such filing the warrant shall be redelivered to the contractor, or his assigns.

The said superintendent of streets or county surveyor, as the case may be, is authorized at any time to receive the amount due upon any assessment and warrant issued by him and give a good and sufficient discharge therefor; provided, a bond has not been issued to represent said assessment; provided, further, that when suit shall have been brought to collect the amount due upon any assessment as herein provided, the plaintiff shall file with the superintendent of streets or county surveyor, as the case may be, a written notice of the pendency of said action showing the particular assessments affected by said action or actions; and after the filing of said notice the said superintendent of streets or county surveyor, as the case may be, shall not receive any money on account of said assessment, and thereafter he shall have no authority to cancel said assessment or give a discharge thereof without the written consent of the owner of said assessment until judgment has been rendered in said action or the same has been dismissed. In case any warrant is lost, upon proof of such loss a duplicate can be issued, upon which collections may be made, with the same effect as on the original. After the filing of the written statement of payments as aforesaid, all amounts remaining due thereon shall draw interest at the rate of one per cent per month until paid, said interest to be computed from the date of the filing of the contractor's statement and if such amount be not paid within six months thereafter, there shall be added thereto a penalty of five per cent of the principal amounts then due thereon.

SEC. 13. Section 25 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 25. No assessment, warrant or diagram and no proceedings prior to the assessment, shall be held invalid by any court for any error, informality, or other defect in the same where the resolution of intention of the council or the board of supervisors to do the work, has been actually published as herein provided. No action, suit or proceeding to set aside, cancel, avoid, annul, or correct any assessment or reassessment, or to review any of the proceedings, acts, or determinations therein, or to question the validity of, or enjoin the collection of the assessment, or reassessment, or to enjoin the issuance of bonds to represent the same, shall be maintained by any person unless such action or actions shall have been commenced within thirty (30) days after the recording of the warrant, assessment and diagram or reassessment, and thereafter all persons shall be barred from any such action or any defense of invalidity of the assessment or of bonds issued thereon, or of the reassessment, if such be made and of bonds issued thereon.

SEC. 14 A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925" as amended, to be numbered section 25a and to read as follows:

Sec. 25a. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets or county surveyor on or before the fourth Monday of September of each year to certify to the city tax collector of the city conducting said proceedings or to the county tax collector as the case may be, or in case the city taxes are collected by the county, to the county tax collector, a list of the properties within said city or cities or county upon which there is a lien for delinquent assessments, as shown by the records of the street superintendent, or county surveyor. In case the assessment district for said improvement includes territory in more than one city or in one or more cities and a county said notice herein provided for shall be placed on the county tax bill. Such tax collector shall cause to be pasted or attached to or printed or stamped upon the tax bill or tax receipt, a notice which shall in substance be as follows:

"Notice of Assessments

"There is an assessment lien on this property which must be paid to city street superintendent (or bureau of assessments in cities where such bureau exists, or to county surveyor as the case may be), to avoid foreclosure."

At any time after the first day of July next succeeding nine months following the date of recording of such assessment, the contractor or his assignee may sue in his own name the owner of the land, lots or portions of lots assessed on the day of the date of recording of the warrant, assessment and diagram, and recover the amount of any assessment remaining unpaid together with interest and any penalties allowed hereunder; provided, that if any state, county or municipal taxes or other special assessment or assessments be delinquent on said property then such action may be brought at any time after ninety days after the recording of such assessment.

When suit has been brought in accordance with the provisions of this section, the plaintiff shall be entitled to have and recover five dollars attorney fees on each assessment sued on, in addition to all taxable costs, notwithstanding that the suit may be settled or a tender may be made before a recovery in said action, and he may have judgment therefor; provided, that if the court finds an unnecessary number of actions have been brought, where the parties are identical, it may allow the costs of one action only, and provided, further, that such attorney's fee in any one action shall not exceed five dollars where said action shall be settled before trial or where judgment shall be taken on default. Suit may be brought in the superior court within whose jurisdiction said work has been done, and in case any of the assessments are made against lots, portions of lots, or lands, the service of process must be had in said action, in such manner as is prescribed in the codes and laws of this state. It shall be competent to bring a single action under any such assessment irrespective of the number of lots assessed where the parties defendant are identical, and where separate actions are brought, the same may be consolidated by order of the court. The said warrant, assessment and diagram, with proof of nonpayment shall be held prima facie evidence of the regularity and correctness of the assessment and of the prior proceedings and acts of the superintendent of streets or county surveyor and city council or board upon which said warrant, assessment and diagram are based, and like evidence of the right of the plaintiff to recover in the action. The plaintiff in such action may recover the costs of any abstract or report of search of title procured in good faith in order to determine ownership, such search to be by a reputable abstractor or title company and such cost not to exceed five dollars per lot, and such abstract or report of search with affidavit of payment to be filed in the action.

In a complaint in any such action it shall be held sufficient to allege briefly that the city council or board ordered the work, the performance of the work under the contract, the making of the assessment, the issuing of said warrant and the making of said diagram; that an assessment (naming the amount) was levied against that certain lot or parcel of land (describing the same) which, according to the information and belief of the plaintiff, is owned by the defendant; that payment of said assessment has not been made.

In describing said lot or parcel of land in said complaint it shall be sufficient to refer to the same by its number upon said diagram, provided a certified copy of said warrant, assessment and diagram shall have been previously filed in the office of the recorder of the county or city and county in which the same is situated. It shall be the duty of such recorder to so file any such certified copy presented to him upon payment of the filing fee therefor, which fee is hereby fixed at fifty (50) cents.

If the contractor or his agent or any person acting in behalf of the contractor shall, prior to the filing of a complaint for the recovery of any assessment as herein provided or subsequent to the filing of suit and prior to the allowance of attorney fees and costs as herein provided, make any written demand upon or present any bill or notice in writing to such owner, demanding, requesting or notifying such owner to pay or that there is due, attorney's fees or court costs in connection with the collection of such assessment, then, the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor is authorized, upon written demand of such owner, accompanied by the affidavit of such owner, that such written demand, bill or notice for the payment of attorney's fees and costs, or either thereof, was made upon or presented to such owner prior to the commencement of suit, or subsequent to the filing of suit and prior to the allowance of attorney's fees and costs, together with such written demand, bill or notice to mark said assessment "paid" and such assessment shall thereby be deemed to be paid and the lien thereof, released; provided, that this clause shall not be held to apply to the service of summons and complaint in a civil action.

Should suit be brought for the recovery of any assessment prior to the time permitted for bringing same as herein provided, then in such action, so brought the plaintiff shall not recover and defendant shall be entitled to have and recover such attorney's fees as the court may deem reasonable in addition to all taxable costs and he may have judgment therefor.

Sec. 15. A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered section 25b and to read as follows:

Sec. 25b. The council, or board, instead of waiting until the completion of the improvement, may, in its discretion, and not otherwise, upon the completion of two blocks or more of any improvement, order the street superintendent, or county surveyor, to make an assessment for the proportionate amount of the contract completed, and thereupon proceedings and rights of collection of such proportionate amount shall be had as provided herein.

Sec. 15a. A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered section 25c and to read as follows:

Sec. 25c. The records kept by the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, in conformity with the provisions of this act, and signed by him, shall have the same force and effect as other public records, and copies therefrom, duly certified, may be used in evidence with the same effect as the originals. The said records shall, during all office hours, be open to the inspection of any citizen wishing to examine them, free of charge.

SEC. 15b. A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered section 25d and to read as follows:

Sec 25d. In those instances where the expenses of the acquisition are to be met by special assessments under the direct assessment plan, the resolution of intention shall so state and said special assessments shall be issued under the provisions of sections 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26 of an act of the Legislature entitled "An act to provide for the laying out, opening, extending, widening or straightening, in whole or in part, of public streets, squares, lanes, alleys, courts, and places, within municipalities, for the condemnation of property necessary or convenient for such purposes, or of any interest therein and for the establishment of assessment districts and the assessment of property therein to pay the expense of such improvement, and authorizing the payment by any municipality of the whole, or any percentage of, or any sum toward the expense of such improvements," as amended, and as the same may hereafter be amended. The said provisions of said sections 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26 of said act and the amendments which may hereafter be made thereto are hereby incorporated in and adopted as a part of this act. Whenever in said sections 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26 of said act the following phrases are used, they shall be deemed to and are hereby declared to include in appropriate cases the following, to wit: "city council" includes "board of supervisors"; "city engineer" includes "engineer of work or superintendent of work or county surveyor, as the case may be"; "assessment district" includes "acquisition assessment district"; "council" or "city council" includes "board of supervisors."

Sec 16. A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered section 25e and to read as follows:

Sec. 25e. Any council or board of supervisors passing a resolution of intention under the provisions of this act shall have power to determine that serial bonds shall be issued to represent assessments of twenty-five dollars, or more, for the cost of the whole or any portion of any acquisition or acquisitions or any work or improvement authorized by this act, whether in incorporated or unincorporated territory; and when any council or board of supervisors, shall determine that such serial bonds shall be issued, it shall so declare in the resolution or ordinance of intention to do the work, and the said bonds shall be issued under the provisions of part three of an act of the Legislature of the State of California, entitled "An act to provide for work in and upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, within municipalities, and upon property and rights of way owned by municipalities, or of which a municipality has possession and the right of use under the provisions of section 14 of article one of the constitution, and for establishing and changing the grades of any such streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places, sidewalks, properties or rights of way, and providing for the issuance and payment of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost thereof, and providing a method for the payment of such bonds," approved April 7, 1911, as amended and as the same may hereafter be amended, excepting therefrom section 64. The said provisions of said part three of said act and the amendments which may hereafter be made thereto are hereby incorporated in and adopted as a part of this act, save and excepting section 64, which is covered by 25a of this act, and it is also hereby provided that the period of time over which the said bonds may extend may be longer than the period provided in the improvement act of 1911, that is, the bonds to represent special assessments for the acquisitions may extend over a period not to exceed twenty-nine (29) years from the second day of January next succeeding the fifteenth day of the next November following their date and the bonds to represent special assessments for improvement may extend over a period not to exceed nineteen (19) years from the second day of January next succeeding the fifteenth day of the next November following their date. In either of such cases, an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable by coupon on the second day of January every year after the fifteenth day of the next November following the date of the said bonds until the whole is paid and the interest shall be payable semiannually by coupons on the second day of January and the second day of July respectively of each year after the date of the bonds, at a rate not to exceed seven per cent (7%) on all sums unpaid, until the whole of said principal and interest are paid. (Otherwise all of the provisions of said part three of the improvement act of 1911 shall be applicable.) Wherever in said part three of said act the following phrases shall be deemed to and are hereby declared to include in appropriate cases the following, to wit: "City or council" includes "board of supervisors"; "city" or "municipality" includes "county"; "treasurer" or "city treasurer" includes "county treasurer"; "street superintendent" includes "county surveyor"; "tax rolls of said city" includes "tax rolls of said county"; the bond may be designated as "series ----- in the county or city of -----"

In the event that it is provided that the costs and expenses of the acquisition, or acquisitions, shall be met by the specific direct assessment plan, the phrase, date of the warrant, shall be deemed to and is hereby declared to include, the date of the first publication of notice that said sums assessed are due and payable, and the street superintendent, or county surveyor, as the case may be, shall make and certify to the city treasurer or county treasurer, as the case may be, a complete list of all assessments unpaid, which amount to twenty-five dollars or over, after the full expiration of thirty days from the date of the said first publication of notice that the sums assessed are due and payable.

SEC 17. A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered 25f, and to read as follows:

Sec. 25f. Whenever any assessment heretofore issued or which may be hereafter issued is or shall be void, or unenforceable, for any cause, or if bonds shall have been, or shall be, issued to represent any assessments and such issuance shall not have been, or shall not be effective through the curative provisions in relation thereto, or any curative act that may be passed by the Legislature in relation thereto to make them valid and enforceable, then, in any of such events a reassessment therefor may be issued. The true intent and meaning of this section is to make the cost and expense of work or improvement made through an attempted compliance with this act, payable by the real estate benefited by such work or improvement by making a reassessment therefor.

Such power of reassessing embraces both a full and a partial reassessment, and is not exhausted by a single attempted exercise thereof.

A reassessment shall be ordered under any one of four circumstances:

First—Where the owner or holder of any assessments, or of bonds issued under this act to represent assessments, request the legislative body of the city or the county, as the case may be, in which the assessment has been or shall be issued to order a reassessment. In such event if said legislative body be of the opinion that the assessments or bonds in question are not enforceable it shall order the making and issuing of a reassessment covering only the assessments owned or held by the petitioner or the assessments represented by the bonds owned or held by such petitioner.

Second—Whenever any court of competent jurisdiction in any suit to foreclose the lien of any assessment or to enforce the obligation of any bond issued to represent any assessments issued under this act, has for any reason held such lien unenforceable, then it shall in and by its decree direct the making of a reassessment to cover the assessments involved in such suit.

Third—Whenever any court of competent jurisdiction in any suit to set aside the lien of any assessment or of any bond representing any assessment, or in any suit to quiet title against the lien of any such assessment, or bond, or in any suit to enjoin the making, filing, confirmation or issuance of any assessment or bond to pay for the cost and expenses of any work done hereunder, shall in its judgment decree such assessments or bonds to be void, or unenforceable, then it shall in and by its decree direct the making of a reassessment to cover the assessments involved in such suit.

Fourth—Whenever any contractor or assignee of a contractor shall have done or performed any work or improvements pursuant to proceedings had and taken in attempted compliance with the provisions of this act, and whenever prior to the issuance of any assessments, any court of competent jurisdiction in any suit to invalidate the contract or any of such proceedings shall for any reason declare said contract or other proceedings to be invalid, then such court shall in and by its decree direct the making of a reassessment for the reasonable value of the work and improvement actually done and performed in good faith by the contractor, or such portion thereof as was of a kind that could lawfully have been ordered under the provisions of this act.

The manner of making, issuing and enforcing the reassessment shall be as follows:

The superintendent of streets or county surveyor shall, upon the entering of a decree of court directing a reassessment or upon the making of an order by the legislative body of the city or county, as the case may be, directing a reassessment, proceed to make a reassessment in the following manner:

If the reassessment be a partial one only, then it shall not be necessary for the diagram to show any other lots than the ones covered by such partial reassessment. If it be a full reassessment, however, then the superintendent of streets or county surveyor shall prepare and file with the reassessment a diagram showing the lots, pieces or parcels of land deemed by him to have been benefited by the work or improvement. The reassessment shall assess upon and against each of the lots, pieces or parcels of land, contained therein an amount arrived at as follows: The benefits derived, or to be derived by each of the said lots, pieces or parcels of land from the work or improvement estimated as of the date of the filing in the clerk's office of the original assessment shall first be listed. Then there shall be added thereto interest thereon from twenty (20) days after the date of filing the original assessment at the rate of seven per cent (7%) per annum, and the total sum shall constitute and be the amount of the proposed several assessments in such reassessment. The total of such reassessment, however, exclusive of interest, shall not exceed the cost of the work or improvement. Such assessment need not be in any prescribed form, but shall refer to the original assessment, give the date of the original assessment and state that it is made pursuant to the orders of the legislative body of the city or county, as the case may be, or decree of the court, and shall be accompanied by a diagram showing the lots to be reassessed and their relation to the work. It shall then be presented to the legislative body, which shall fix a time for hearing before it. Such time must be at least twenty (20) days after the reassessment is so presented. The city clerk or county clerk, as the case may be, shall then advertise the time of such hearing before the legislative body by publishing a notice in the newspaper in which the notice of award of contract for the improvement for which the assessment was made, was published unless the legislative body directs publication in some other paper. In said notice a description of the district shall be set forth and the assessment diagram referred to for particulars. Such notice shall be published for five insertions, if the paper be a daily, or by two insertions if the paper be published less frequently. At the time fixed for said hearing, or at such time or times to which the same may be thereafter adjourned, the legislative body shall consider the objections to said reassessment and in its discretion informally direct the revision, correction or modification of such reassessment in such manner as is most equitable to apportion to each lot, piece or parcel of land thereby benefited the amount of the actual benefits derived from such improvement. When such reassessment shall have been revised, or corrected or modified so as to comply with the judgment of said legislative body, then it shall pass a resolution confirming the reassessment. The street superintendent or county surveyor shall thereupon record the reassessment with a certificate at the end thereof by the city clerk or county clerk, as the case may be, that it is the reassessment approved by said legislative body. He shall also note opposite the several assessments in the original assessment that have been displaced by the reassessment note the fact that the reassessment has been made, giving its date, and shall credit upon such reassessment or upon the bonds issued to represent the same, together with all payments theretofore made upon the original assessment, interest on such payments at the rate of seven per cent (7%) per annum from and after the date of such payments. Such reassessment shall be collectible and payable in the same manner as an original assessment and shall be enforceable by suit in the same manner provided in this act for enforcing an original assessment, and shall have the same weight in evidence. Bonds issued under the original assessment shall also issue upon the reassessment for such sum as may be reassessed against the lots, pieces or parcels of land covered thereby. When the reassessment is recorded, the original assessment shall be canceled by the street superintendent or the county surveyor so far as it affects the particular assessments involved. New bonds shall not be issued until the original bonds are delivered up to the city treasurer or county treasurer, as the case may be, who shall cancel the same. The lien of such reassessment shall hold its relative rank as to other special assessment liens as of the date of the original assessment.

In the event such work or improvement made in attempted compliance with this act, is fully completed to the satisfaction of the street superintendent or county surveyor, as the case may be, then it shall be the duty nevertheless of the proper officer to make and file an assessment for the costs and expenses thereof, so as to form the basis of a reassessment in the event such assessment should be unenforceable.

SEC. 17a. A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered 27a and to read as follows.

SEC. 27a. In those instances where the cost and expenses of the acquisition are to be met by a special assessment tax under the ad valorem plan, immediate possession and use of all or any portion of the property sought to be condemned may be had as provided by sections 28, 28½, and 28¾ of this act.

SEC. 17b. A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered 35a, and to read as follows.

SEC. 35a. In those instances where the costs and expenses of the acquisition are to be met by a special assessment tax under the ad valorem plan, the issuance and sale of the bonds in connection with such acquisition shall be had as provided by sections 36, 36½ and 36¾ of this act. In the instances where the costs and expenses of the acquisition, or acquisitions, are to be met by the direct assessment plan, the bonds issued hereunder in connection with such acquisition, or acquisitions, shall be sold to the highest cash bidder after advertising for bids, which advertisement shall be published by at least two insertions. Said bonds shall not be sold for less than the amounts of the assessments for which they were issued. If any bond be sold for an amount in excess of the amount for which it was issued, such excess shall be paid into the general fund of the city or county, as the case may be. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be paid into the fund of the proceeding to represent assessments in which said bonds were issued.

SEC. 19. Section 38 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 38. If for any reason, in those instances where the ad valorem plan of special assessment tax is followed, the funds derived from the issuance of bonds as heretofore provided for any acquisition under a proceeding had and taken under this act, shall be insufficient to pay the interlocutory judgment or judgments and all incidental expenses of the proceedings, or any additional moneys are required to be deposited in court in order that possession and use of the property sought to be condemned, or any portion thereof, may be had or retained, the legislative body conducting the proceedings may meet such deficit by an appropriation out of the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, or by ordering a supplemental issue of bonds of the district and the sale of such bonds, which bonds shall be issued and sold in like manner and form and under like procedure and with like notice to that heretofore in this act prescribed for the issuing of bonds to obtain funds for deposit in order that immediate possession and use of the property sought to be condemned may be obtained or to defray the expenses of an acquisition, as the case may be. The report of the attorney that additional funds are needed for any of the purposes in this section stated shall be made to the legislative body conducting the proceeding and such legislative body shall thereafter proceed as hereinbefore in this section provided. In the event such a supplemental issue of bonds is made, said legislative body may advance the moneys required from the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, and thereafter reimburse said fund from the proceeds of such supplemental issue.

Also if the funds derived from the issuance of bonds for any improvement are insufficient to pay the cost of the same and all incidental expenses thereof the legislative body which conducted the proceedings may meet such deficiency by an appropriation out of the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, or by ordering a supplemental issue of bonds of the district and the sale of such bonds as provided for a supplemental issue of acquisition bonds, except that the report that additional funds are needed shall be made by the superintendent of work.

SEC 18. Section 39 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 39. The bonds issued under and in pursuance of this act for an acquisition in those instances where the expenses of the acquisition is to be met by a special assessment tax under the ad valorem plan may in form and shall in substance (using designations and filling blanks as appropriate under the proceeding) be as indicated following, to wit:

ACQUISITION AND IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT BOND

Acquisition and Improvement District No. _____ of the county (or city) of _____, State of California.

§ _____ Bond No. _____ Series _____

Under and by virtue of an act of the Legislature of the State of California, known as the "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," the county (or city) of _____, State of California, will pay to the bearer, out of the fund hereinafter designated, at the office of the treasurer of said county (or city), on the _____ day of _____, 19____, the sum of _____ dollars in gold coin of the United States of America, with interest thereon in like gold coin at the rate of _____ per cent per annum, payable semiannually on the second day of January and the second day of July in each year from the date hereof (except that the first interest payment will be made on the second day of _____ next succeeding one year after the date of this bond and the last installment of interest payment will be paid at the maturity of this bond) upon the presentation and surrender, as they respectively become due, of the proper interest coupons hereto attached, the first of which is for interest from the date hereof to the second day of _____ (here insert the month, January or July, which next succeeds the date of the bond) next succeeding one year after the date of this bond, and the last for interest to the maturity hereof from the last preceding date of interest payment.

This bond is issued under and in conformity with the provisions of the above mentioned "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925" and is one of a series of bonds to be issued to represent the expenses of certain acquisitions of property by the public, authorized by the provisions of said act and comprehended in the proceedings had for the above named district. It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all proceedings, acts and things required by law precedent to or in the issuance of this bond have been regularly had, done and performed, and this bond is by law made conclusive evidence thereof.

This bond is payable out of the "Acquisition and Improvement District No. _____ of the county (or city) of _____ interest and sinking fund" exclusively, as the said fund appears upon the books of the treasurer of said county (or city) and neither said county (or city), nor any officer thereof shall be holden for its payment otherwise, but in accordance with the provisions of said act a special assessment tax will be levied and collected upon the lands in said district in an amount clearly sufficient to pay the principal and interest of said bonds as the same shall become payable.

In witness whereof the _____ (here designate the legislative body) _____ of the said county (or city) has caused this bond to be signed by the treasurer of said county (or city) and the seal of _____ (here use the words "the board of supervisors of said county" or the words "the city," as the case may be) to be affixed this _____ day of _____ 19____

[SEAL]

Treasurer of the county (or city) of _____,
State of California.

The designation of the district by its name and number set forth at the top of the bond shall be sufficient to identify and distinguish each and all of the bonds thereof from any other issue. The bonds issued shall be designated by a separate series from those issued thereafter, if any, to defray the remaining expenses of the acquisition, as for example, "Series A" for the bonds issued to raise funds necessary to obtain an order of immediate possession and use of the property to be acquired before trial as in this act provided, and "Series B" for the bonds issued for the remaining expenses of the acquisition. The bonds issued for the expenses of the acquisition shall be designated by separate series, as for example, those issued to raise funds to obtain such an order of possession as "Series A" and those issued for the remaining expenses of the acquisition as "Series B," according to the order, in point of time, in which the respective issues are made.

All bonds issued under this act shall be signed by the treasurer of the county or municipality whose legislative body conducts the proceeding and shall have the seal of the board of supervisors of the county or the seal of the city, as the case may be, thereto affixed, and when so signed shall be binding according to the terms thereof as prescribed in the above form therefor. The interest coupons attached to said bonds shall be in such form as the said treasurer shall determine, subject to the provisions of this act and the determination made by the legislative body, and the signature on said interest coupons by said treasurer, by either written or engraved or printed fac-simile signature shall be sufficient.

SEC. 20. Section 40 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 40. The principal and interest of the bonds issued in those instances where the expenses of the acquisition are to be met by a special assessment tax under the ad valorem plan under this act shall be payable in gold coin of the United States of America at the office of the treasurer issuing the same. The legislative body is hereby vested with power to determine, and shall in the resolution of intention determine, the number of years, not to exceed thirty, in the case of bonds for an acquisition and bonds for immediate possession, after their issuance within which the aggregate principal thereof to be issued in any proceeding under this act shall be paid and discharged, and to fix the rate of interest, not to exceed eight per cent per annum, payable semiannually, to be paid thereon; provided, however, that in the case of acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds the rate stated in the resolution need only be a maximum rate, which shall not exceed eight per cent per annum, payable semiannually, in which case the exact rate of interest shall be determined upon the sale of the bonds, as heretofore provided. It shall be a sufficient determination and fixing of the term and interest rate of said bonds to set forth in the resolution of intention that bonds will be issued for the expense of the things to be done in any language which will fairly indicate such time, the fractional part of the principal to be paid each year, and the interest rate for improvement bonds and either the interest rate or the maximum interest rate for which acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds will be issued. It may be provided in said resolution that the first payment of principal shall become due, either two, or three years after the date of the acquisition and immediate possession bonds. The number of installments of payments on the principal shall be indicated in said resolution of intention, and in any proceeding the number of installments of payment on the principal of improvement bonds may differ from the number of installments of payments on the principal of acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds, if any, to be issued in said proceeding. The amount of the principal due on the acquisition and immediate possession bonds, issued under the ad valorem plan of special assessment tax in each annual payment need not be exactly the same, but with respect to each installment except the last may be made to differ not more than five hundred dollars from the amount obtained by dividing the total of the principal amount due under the bonds by the number of installments. Each installment, except the last, shall be an even multiple of one hundred and the last installment shall be for the balance of the total principal amount not provided to be paid in the previous installments.

In the case of the amount of any supplemental issue of bonds, or the amount of any issue of acquisition bonds after immediate possession bonds have been issued in the proceedings, is insufficient for such bonds to mature in multiples of one hundred dollars over the term of maturity of the bonds to be issued, as stated in the resolution of intention, in that event the legislative body conducting the proceedings may fix the maturities of such bonds, and the denominations thereof, so that the same may be issued in multiples of one hundred dollars and in that event such bonds shall mature in as nearly as possible equal, annual amounts and the first payment on the principal thereof shall be as stated in the resolution of intention.

All bonds issued hereunder in those instances where the expenses of the acquisition are to be met by a special assessment tax under the ad valorem plan shall be dated as provided in this act, and in case immediate possession bonds, and acquisition bonds are provided to be issued as hereinabove just noted, the respective dates of such bonds shall be the dates of the respective resolutions ordering the issuance of the same.

The interest payments on said acquisition and immediate possession bonds issued as hereinabove just provided shall be payable semiannually on the second day of January and the second day of July of each year, except that the first interest payment shall be made on the second day of January or the second day of July (whichever month first succeeds the date of the bonds) next succeeding one year after the date of said bonds, and except that the last installment of interest shall be payable at the maturity of the bonds, in the manner indicated in the form of bond in this act set forth. It shall not be necessary, either in the resolution of intention or otherwise, to set forth or determine the days of the month on which payments of interest are to be made, nor that payments shall be made in gold coin, nor that payments shall be made at such treasurer's office, but all persons are charged with notice of the contents of this section, especially in the aforesaid particulars.

SEC. 21. Section 41 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 41. For each district in which acquisition and immediate possession bonds have been issued as hereinabove just provided under the provisions of this act a special fund to be named "Acquisition and improvement district No. _____ of the county (or city) of _____ interest and sinking fund" (the number to be that of the district) for the discharge and payment of such bonds, and interest thereon, shall be constituted by the county or municipality (as the case may be) whose legislative body has conducted the proceedings, as follows, to wit: In case the district is entirely within one municipality there shall each year at the time of levying taxes for general municipal purposes be levied by the legislative body of such municipality against and upon all of the lands within said district a special assessment tax in an amount clearly sufficient, together with any moneys which are or may be in said fund, to pay all the principal which has become or will become payable and all interest which has become or will become payable on the acquisition and immediate possession bonds issued under the proceeding before the proceeds of another tax levy made at the time of the next general tax levy for general municipal purposes can be made available for the payment of said principal and interest.

In case the district is entirely within unincorporated territory of the county, or partly within unincorporated territory of the county, and partly within one or more municipalities, or within two or more municipalities, there shall each year at the time of the general tax levy for county taxes be levied by the board of supervisors against and upon all the lands within said acquisition assessment district a special assessment tax, in an amount clearly sufficient, together with any moneys which are or may be in said fund, to pay all the principal which has become or will become payable and all interest which has become or will become payable on the acquisition and immediate possession bonds issued under the proceeding before the proceeds of another tax levy made at the time of the general tax levy for county purposes can be made available for the payment of said principal and interest.

The lands within any such district shall include any land which is the operative property of any public utility and include any lands belonging to any county, municipality, district, public agency, mandatory of the government, school board, educational, penal or reformatory institution or institution for the feeble-minded or insane, whether being used in the performance of a public function or not, unless declaration was made in the resolution of intention omitting any of said lands from the assessment to be made, but shall not include any lands belonging to the United States government or to the State of California.

If the acquisition assessment district has been divided into zones and the percentage of the total amount to be levied each year which shall be levied upon the lands within each zone in the district has been determined, as provided in this act, in that event the total amount of the special assessment tax to be levied each year shall be divided according to said percentages and such percentage to be levied upon the lands in each zone shall be levied upon the lands therein as above provided.

In case the acquisition assessment district is entirely within one municipality the assessment-rolle for general municipal taxes for such municipality shall be the basis for the levy and computation of such tax (except as to property not assessed thereon), and in case said district lies entirely within unincorporated territory of the county, or partly in unincorporated territory of the county and partly within one or more municipalities, or within two or more municipalities, the county assessment roll for general county taxes shall be the basis for the levy and computation of the tax (except as to property not assessed thereon). Such special assessment taxes shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for county purposes or for municipal purposes, as the case may be, and shall be levied, computed, entered, collected and enforced in the same manner and by the same persons and at the same time and with the same penalties and interest as are other taxes for county purposes or for municipal purposes, as the case may be, and all laws applicable to the levy, collection and enforcement of taxes for county purposes or for municipal purposes, as the case may be, are hereby made applicable to said special assessment tax.

It shall be the duty of the county assessor or the city assessor, as the case may be, to assess, exclusive of any improvements thereon, all lands heretofore in this section mentioned (if any there may be in any acquisition assessment district formed under this act) not otherwise assessed for purposes of general county taxes or general taxes of a municipality, as the case may be, against which such special assessment taxes are to be levied. The assessment of such lands (if any such there be in the district) shall be made at the same time and in the same manner and by the same persons as the assessment for general county taxes or general taxes of a municipality, as the case may be, and shall be equalized at the same time and in the same manner and by the same persons as such general county taxes or general taxes of a municipality are equalized. And the official or officials who are required to give notice of the equalization of the general county assessment roll or the general municipal assessment roll, as the case may be, shall give notice to all persons interested, for the same time and in the same manner as that given on the equalization of said general assessment rolls, of the equalization of assessments of such lands for the purpose of taxing the same to pay the principal and interest of acquisition and immediate possession bonds issued under this act. Said lands need not be described in said notice, but it shall be sufficient to state therein that the lands assessed include all lands in certain acquisition and improvement districts, designating them by their proper names, which are not assessed on the general county or municipal assessment roll, as the case may be, but are subject to assessment under the proceedings creating said assessment districts. At said hearing all persons interested in any lands in said districts may appear and be heard upon any matter of equalization affecting any lands within such districts, and the notice of equalization shall so state.

In the event that there is included within such district any land belonging to any county, municipality, district, public agency, mandatory of the government, school board, educational, penal or reformatory institution or institution for the feeble-minded or insane, and which is being used in the performance of a public function, and no declaration was made in the resolution of intention omitting such land from the assessment to be made, the amount of the special assessment tax levied each year against said land, as above provided, shall be an enforceable obligation against the owner of or the governing body controlling said land, and it shall be the duty of the officer or body having charge of the disbursement of the funds of the owner of said land to pay the amount of said special assessment tax levied, from any of the funds thereof available, immediately upon its becoming due. If for any reason there are no moneys in any of such funds, then the county or municipality, as the case may be, whose legislative body conducted the proceedings shall pay said special assessment tax against said land and the said owner or governing body controlling said land shall reimburse such county or municipality immediately upon the receipt of sufficient moneys in any of its available funds. In all cases in which sufficient funds are not available to make such reimbursement before the time of another tax levy, the board or officers whose duty it is to levy taxes for said owners shall include in the next tax levy an amount, in addition to moneys for all other purposes, sufficient to reimburse said county or municipality.

The legislative body of the county or municipality, as the case may be, which conducted the proceedings for the acquisition, in those instances where the expenses of the acquisition, or acquisitions, are to be met by a special assessment tax under the ad valorem special assessment tax plan provisions of this act may annually at or prior to the time said tax levy is made, transfer from the general fund of such county or municipality or from any fund which may be used for acquisitions of a similar character to those made under the proceeding, to the interest and sinking fund above provided for, such amount as in the judgment of said legislative body should be transferred. It is the intention of this provision that further assistance in addition to that, if any, provided for in the resolution of intention and that which may be given as elsewhere provided in this act, may be given by such county or municipality toward the payment of the expenses of the thing or things done under the proceedings after acquisition or immediate possession bonds for said expenses shall have been issued and sold, and apart from the loans, and apart from the advances under the revolving fund elsewhere in this act provided.

In any event, it shall be the duty of the legislative body, which is required by this section to levy the special assessment tax, to levy a special assessment tax each year upon all of the said lands within the acquisition assessment district, and if zones have been established, then in accordance with the percentages prescribed, clearly sufficient to pay the principal and interest of said acquisition and immediate possession bonds as the same shall become payable, and in this behalf the legislative body is hereby empowered to include in the said levy such an amount as to it, in its best judgment, shall be deemed reasonable to provide for anticipated delinquencies in the payment of such special assessment taxes.

Whenever any of said acquisition or immediate possession bonds or any payment of principal or interest thereon shall become due and there shall not be sufficient money in said interest and sinking fund to pay the same, the legislative body which conducted the proceeding may, pending the levy and collection of a special assessment tax therefor, order the amount of money necessary to pay said acquisition and immediate possession bonds, or payment of principal or interest so falling due, to be transferred from the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, to said interest and sinking fund, and the amount of money so transferred shall be deemed a loan to said interest and sinking fund and shall be repaid to the general fund from the first money coming into said interest and sinking fund thereafter. Any money remaining in any acquisition and improvement district interest and sinking fund after all of the acquisition and immediate possession bonds of the acquisition assessment district have been retired shall be transferred to the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, whose legislative body conducted the proceeding and may by said body be used in repairing any public way in said district, regardless of whether a portion or all of the district as originally formed may have been included within one or more municipalities which did not include such portions or all of the district at the time the proceedings for the same were initiated.

The legislative body and other officers and bodies named are hereby vested with power and jurisdiction to do all and singular the things which in this section it is declared shall or may be done by it or them.

In all cases in which the proceeding is conducted by the legislative body of a municipality where the taxes are required by this section to be levied by the board of supervisors of the county, the clerk of the legislative body conducting the proceeding, in addition to transmitting to the treasurer of such municipality an attested copy of any order or orders for the issuance of acquisition or immediate possession bonds in the proceeding, shall transmit to the legislative body of the county a certified copy of such order or orders for the issuance of such bonds, together with certified copies of the resolution of intention and of the resolutions and orders in which are set forth the boundaries of the acquisition assessment district, the number of zones, if any, and the percentage of the total amount to be levied each year which shall be levied upon the lands within each zone in said district, as said matters were finally determined, and shall also transmit to such legislative body a certified copy of the map of the acquisition assessment district showing the boundaries of said district and of the zones therein, if any, as finally determined, and upon the filing with such legislative body of said certified copies it shall thereupon have jurisdiction and the other officers of the county shall have jurisdiction and it shall be their duty to take the steps required in this section for the assessment, levy, computation, entry, collection and enforcement of such special assessment taxes.

In all cases in which the legislative body of a municipality conducted the proceedings, and the county officials levy and collect the taxes, as heretofore provided, the proper officers of said county upon collecting the taxes aforesaid shall, not later than the thirtieth day of each month in which said taxes are collected, transmit the same to the city treasurer of the municipality, the legislative body of which conducted the proceedings, together with a statement of the amounts delinquent in each acquisition assessment district, if there be any delinquencies; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the city officials of any municipality which has availed itself of the provisions of any law permitting the duties of city officials relating to the assessment, collection and enforcement of taxes to be performed by county officials, to perform any of the duties herein prescribed relating to the assessment, collection and enforcement of taxes which are performed for said city by county officers, and the taxes required to be levied hereunder shall be assessed, collected and enforced by the persons who perform such duties for said city.

SEC. 22. Section 42 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec 42. All acquisition and immediate possession bonds issued under the ad valorem special assessment tax plan provisions of this act bonds issued in pursuance of the provisions of this act shall be negotiable and shall by their issuance be conclusive evidence of the regularity, validity and legal sufficiency of all proceedings, acts and determinations in anywise pertaining thereto, had or made under this act, and after the same are issued no tax levied or collected for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on said bonds shall be held to be invalid or illegal, or set aside or refunded, by reason of any error, informality, irregularity, omission or defect in any of the proceedings, acts or determinations in anywise pertaining to the issuance or payment of said bonds, nor shall any action or proceeding be thereafter commenced or maintained to cancel or set aside said bonds or to prevent the payment thereof or the levy or collection or enforcement of a tax for such payment.

The legislative body conducting the proceedings may at any time after any acquisition or immediate possession bonds have been ordered issued, but before the delivery of the same, or after any contract has been awarded, but before the same has been signed, bring an action in the superior court of the county in which the district lies to determine the validity of such bonds or contract. The jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of summons at least once a week for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which said suit is brought, such paper to be designated by the court having jurisdiction of the proceeding. Said summons shall contain a statement of the title of the action, the approximate amount of bonds involved in the action or the approximate amount of the contract price as nearly as the same may be estimated, a general description of the acquisition assessment district to be assessed for the payment of principal and interest of acquisition and immediate possession bonds issued or to be issued in the proceeding, a reference to the petition on file in such action for a description of the work or improvement or of the acquisition, as the case may be, and for all particulars of such action, and the prayer of the petitioner for relief. Jurisdiction shall be complete thirty days after the first publication of such summons in the manner herein provided. Any person interested may at any time before the expiration of said thirty days appear and by proper proceedings contest the validity of such bonds or contract. Such action shall be speedily tried and judgment rendered declaring such bonds or contract either valid or invalid.

The court hearing said action, in inquiring into the regularity, legality or correctness of such proceedings, must disregard any error, irregularity or omission which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties to said action. The rules of pleading and practice provided by the Code of Civil Procedure, where not inconsistent with this act, are applicable to the action herein provided for. Any motion for a new trial must be heard and determined within ten days from the filing of the notice of intention. The costs of the hearing in such action may be allowed and apportioned between the parties or taxed to the losing party in the discretion of the court. Either party shall have the right to appeal to the supreme court within thirty days after the rendition of such judgment and the appeal must be heard and determined within three months from the time of taking such appeal.

Such action shall be a proceeding in rem and the judgment therein shall be final and conclusive of the validity of such bonds or said contract and of the validity of all proceedings prior to the issuance of such bonds or the awarding of such contract and shall be conclusive evidence of the validity of acquisition and immediate possession bonds or contract and of the validity of all proceedings prior to the issuance of such bonds or the award of such contract.

SEC 22a. Section 44 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec 44. Whenever any court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that any proceedings, steps or actions purporting to have been taken, or any bond or bonds issued under this act, in those instances where the ad valorem plan of special assessment tax is followed is or are void, invalid or unenforceable, or shall for any cause enjoin the issuance of any bonds proposed to be issued under this act, said court shall determine whether the acquisitions made or purported to have been made are such as might have been ordered under the provisions of this act. If the court shall find that any acquisition has been made or attempted to be made which could have been made under the provisions of this act then the said court shall direct the legislative body which conducted the proceeding to take proceedings as in this section provided for the issuing of new bonds to cover the reasonable value of the expenses of such acquisitions as have been made. Said legislative body may also, without any decree of any court, upon the written application of any bondholder, or upon the written application of any person interested in an acquisition attempted to be had under the proceeding, or of any bondholder, determine that the proceedings authorizing said acquisition, are for any reason invalid, and direct that new proceedings be had as provided in this section for the issuing of bonds to cover the reasonable value of so much of the expenses of the acquisition or acquisitions of such property as might have been ordered under this act.

It is hereby declared to be the true intent and meaning of this section to make the costs and expenses of all acquisitions had or to be had through an attempted compliance with and exercise of the powers conferred by the provisions of this act, payable by the lands benefited or to be benefited by such acquisitions, by the issuance of new bonds to defray the expenses thereof.

Upon a decree of court or an order of the legislative body having been made as above provided, the said legislative body shall cause to be made by the superintendent of work or by some other county (or city) officer, as the case may be, or by some other competent person appointed by it for that purpose, a report for a proposed new bond issue. Said report shall set forth a description of such acquisitions as have been found by the court or said legislative body to be of such kind as might have been ordered under this act, and shall state the amount necessary to defray the expenses thereof (which shall not exceed the total amount of the original expense thereof, including incidental expenses of the original proceedings therefor and interest thereon at the same rate proposed for the new bond issue from the date of the order of the legislative body for the issuance of the original bonds for said acquisition, if any). In the event any payments have been made upon the principal or interest of any bonds outstanding, which have been declared invalid, by the owners of lands within the assessment district by the payment of any special assessment taxes which have been levied therefor, the amounts of such payments shall be ascertained and deducted from the amount for which new bonds are to be issued under this section and said report shall set forth the amount of the payments made and state that a credit or offset is to be made for said amount in the issuance of such new bonds. Said report shall be entitled in the matter of the same acquisition and improvement district as the original proceedings under which such improvements or acquisitions were made, shall be signed by the person making said report and be filed with the clerk of said legislative body. Upon the filing of said report the legislative body shall fix a day, hour and place for a hearing thereon, which time shall not be less than twenty days after the time of the filing, and direct the clerk of said body to give notice of the filing of said report and of said hearing, as provided in this section. The said clerk shall thereupon give notice of the filing of said report and of said hearing, which notice may, in form, and shall, in substance be (filling blanks) as follows:

NOTICE OF HEARING OF PROPOSED NEW BOND ISSUE.

In the matter of acquisition and improvement district No. _____ (giving the same number as in the original proceedings) of the county (or city), of _____, State of California.

Notice is hereby given that a report for a proposed new bond issue in the above entitled matter has been filed with the clerk of the _____ (designating the legislative body) _____ of the county (or city) of _____. Said report describes an acquisition of property by the public, the expenses of which is declared to be the sum of $ _____ and includes the following: (Here insert in general terms a description of the property acquired and for what purpose acquired.) Said report declares that the district of the lands benefited by said acquisition is described as follows: (Here insert description of the district contained in the report.) Said report also declares that the lands in said district are divided into the following zones (if such be the case), each zone including the lands benefited in like measure: (Here insert a description of the zones in which the district is divided.) The percentages of the amounts to be raised by special assessment taxes against the lands in each of said zones to defray said expenses are as follows: (Here insert the alphabetical or numerical designation of each zone and opposite it the percentage to be raised therefrom.)

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested that it is proposed to issue new bonds for said acquisitions to the amount (or amounts) of the reasonable value and the expenses thereof, being the amount (or amounts) above stated—less the sum (if there be any) of _____ dollars, which has been paid upon bonds previously issued, by the payment of special assessment taxes levied therefor, and for which a credit or offset will be made in the issuance of said new bonds—said bonds to bear interest at the rate of _____ per cent per annum, payable semiannually, all in gold coin of the United States (and such other language as is necessary to describe said bonds) and to pay the principal and interest of said bonds by the levy of special assessment taxes annually upon the lands within the district above described, all as provided for in the "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925" to which statute the notice of all persons interested is hereby directed; and that a hearing on the said matter will be held before the said legislative body at the hour of _____ m. on the _____ day of _____, 19____, at the chambers thereof, located at _____.

Given by order of said legislative body (describing same) this _____ day of _____, 19____.

Clerk of _____ (designating the legislative body.)

Said notice shall be signed by the clerk of the legislative body, and shall be published by at least three insertions and a copy thereof shall be posted for five days (not necessarily simultaneously) on or near the chamber door of said legislative body. Said publication and posting shall be completed not less than ten days before the date fixed for said hearing.

At the time fixed for the hearing of said report, or at any time to which said hearing may be continued, any person interested may appear and be heard upon any of the matters set forth in said report. Said legislative body shall have the power to confirm said report and to revise, correct or modify said report in such manner as it shall deem just and in accordance with the facts, in respect to the acquisition or acquisitions made or to be made and the expenses thereof (which shall not exceed the aggregate of the amounts paid or to be paid for the property acquired and the incidental expenses of the proceedings for such acquisition and shall also include interest upon the bonds issued or to be issued at the same rate adopted for the new bond issue from the date of the order of the legislative body directing the issuance of the original bonds), to the question of the district of the lands to be benefited (but any lands not included within the description set forth in said report shall not be included within said district), to the zones (if any) into which said district is divided, or to the percentages to be raised in each of said zones, or in respect to all of said matters; and at the conclusion of the hearing shall adopt a resolution declaring its findings and determinations in the matter, which shall be final and conclusive upon all persons and in all proceedings as to all matters so found and determined. If no changes are made in any of the matters set forth in said report it shall be sufficient in said resolution to declare that said report is confirmed and that bonds shall be issued as therein provided, but if any changes are made such changes shall be set forth and it may be declared that said report is confirmed as so modified by the changes set forth. The clerk of the legislative body shall at once transmit an attested copy of said resolution to the treasurer and upon receipt of the same the treasurer shall proceed to issue bonds as therein ordered. Said bonds shall be dated as of the date of the adoption of said resolution ordering the issuance of the same, and shall be issued and signed in all respects by the same officers and in the same manner and form as the bonds issued under the provisions for the original bond issue and special assessment taxes shall be levied, collected and enforced for the payment of the same in like manner and by the same officers as hereinbefore provided. Said bonds by their issuance shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all proceedings prior thereto under this act and after the same are issued no tax levied or collected for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on said bonds shall be held to be illegal or set aside or refunded by reason of any error, informality, irregularity, omission or defect in any of the proceedings prior to the issuance of said bonds, nor shall any action or proceeding be thereafter commenced or maintained to cancel or set aside said bonds or prevent the payment thereof, or the levy, collection or enforcement of any taxes for such payment.

Upon the issuance of said new bonds for an acquisition and the expenses thereof shall, upon their issuance, if bonds have been issued and sold prior thereto for such acquisition and expenses and declared invalid, be delivered to the then holders of such outstanding bonds declared invalid, upon surrender for cancellation of such bonds, and, if no bonds have been issued and sold, then said new bonds shall be sold as in this act provided for the sale of bonds originally issued for the payment of the expenses of acquisition and the proceeds of such sale used to defray the expenses of the acquisition as heretofore provided.

All payments made, through the payment of special assessment taxes levied, upon any bonds issued under proceedings taken or purporting to have been held or determined to be invalid or void, as in this section provided, subsequent to the issuance and sale of said bonds, shall, upon the issuance of new bonds, as in this section provided, for the balance remaining after crediting such payments, be deemed to have been made upon the new bonds issued hereunder, the same as though said new bonds had been issued for the total amount set forth in the report, without crediting any payments made upon bonds previously issued, and the payments which had been made returned; and no payments so made shall in such case ever be recovered or any tax proceedings or sales held invalid on that account.

SEC 22a. Section 45 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 45. Any bonds which shall be issued under the provisions of this act, for an acquisition or acquisitions, shall be legal investments for all trust funds, and for the funds of insurance companies, banks, both commercial and savings, and trust companies, and for state school funds, and whenever any money or funds may by any law now or hereafter enacted be invested in bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts or irrigation districts within the State of California, such money or funds may be invested in acquisition and immediate possession bonds issued under this act and in accordance with its provisions, and whenever bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts or irrigation districts within this state may by any law now or hereafter enacted be used as security for the performance of any act or the deposit of any public moneys, the said acquisition and immediate possession bonds issued under this act and in pursuance of its provisions may be so used.

SEC. 23. The foregoing amendments to existing sections of the said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, and the new sections added thereto by this act shall not apply to or affect any proceeding in which a resolution ordering specifications shall have been adopted prior to the effective date of this act, but in such a proceeding the said act, as in effect prior to this enactment, shall govern and control as to all matters in such a proceeding."

RESOLUTION

By Miss Miller:

WHEREAS, In Philadelphia on May 10, 1913, the second Sunday in May was first designated by the House of Representatives as Mother's Day, and has since been so observed by the American people; and

WHEREAS, The portrait of Abraham Lincoln which hangs before us on the wall of the Assembly Chamber reminds us today of his much-quoted tribute, "All that I am, and all that I hope to be, I owe to my angel mother"; therefore, it is deemed appropriate, and be it

Resolved, That we do emulate his example in this regard and that we pause in our day's occupation to pay tribute to those mothers who gave us life; who directed our youthful steps; and whose eloquent life and triumphant faith and love blessed our every endeavor, ripened our every holy impulse and enlarged every hopeful horizon of our lives; and be it further

Resolved, That we express our devotion and deep gratitude not only to our own high-souled, heroic mothers, but that we voice appreciation of all mothers who embody in their lives that parental affection which inspires the love of children; that strength of character which commands obedience to rightful authority; and that wisdom of the heart which recognizes the majesty and significance of motherhood, to the end that with quenchless fidelity to duty the home may be a fountain of happiness and a bulwark of the state; and be it further

Resolved, That this Assembly Chamber be fittingly decorated with floral offerings in commemoration of Mother's Day and that in furtherance thereof the Superintendent of Capitol Grounds be requested to provide the requisite floral tributes in this respect; and be it further

Resolved, That when we adjourn today we do so out of appreciation and devotion to all mothers.

MOTHER O' MINE

If I were hanged on the highest hill,
 Mother o' mine, O Mother o' mine,
 I know whose love would follow me still,
 Mother o' mine, O Mother o' mine.
 If I were drowned in the deepest sea,
 Mother o' mine, O Mother o' mine,
 I know whose tears would come down to me,
 Mother o' mine, O Mother o' mine.
 If I were damned of body and soul,
 Mother o' mine, O Mother o' mine.
 I know whose prayers would make me whole,
 Mother o' mine, O Mother o' mine.

—Rudyard Kipling.

Resolution read, and unanimously adopted.

By Mr. Speaker:

NAPA, CALIFORNIA.

Hon. Edgar Levey, Speaker of the Assembly.

DEAR SIR: Mr. Coombs was quite overcome upon receipt of the beautiful flowers sent him by his fellow members.

He wishes me to assure them of his deep appreciation of the friendship which prompted the sending.

It is his deep regret that he will be unable to share the closing hours of the session as well as its responsibilities.

Very truly,

B. R. (MRS. FRANK L.) COOMBS.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

The following petitions were presented, and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Speaker:

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, April 30, 1929.

Speaker Edgar C. Levey, Assembly, Sacramento, California.

DEAR SIR: The Italian Federation of California, Incorporated, respectfully urges you to advocate the adoption of the Senators Murphy and Canepa Resolution No. 4560, relating to the equalization of immigration restriction.

The Italian Federation of California, Incorporated, respectfully urges your interest that the Congress of the United States give immediate consideration to the actual preposterous apportionment of the immigration restriction, that the expiring basis of the 1890 census be not revived.

That the 1924 Immigration Act be amended as to extend the restriction also to the countries of the western hemisphere, and that the quotas be placed on the latest census.

Whereas the statute of the Immigration Act of 1924 gives unduly advantages to the British Empire, to Mexico and to Germany, inasmuch that of the present average of 310,308 immigrants a year (without including the immigrants from the United States possessions of the Philippine Islands) during the fiscal years from 1925 to 1928, the average immigration from the British Empire (Great Britain, Ireland and Canada) has been of 139,236 a year, the average immigration from Mexico has been of 50,754 a year, and the average immigration from Germany has been of 47,695 a year, or making the present total average immigration from the British Empire, Mexico and Germany 237,685 a year (1928 Report of the Commissioner General of Immigration—table 84, page 196).

While the total of the yearly quotas for all the countries of southern, eastern and central Europe less Germany is of 20,447 only (table at page 5446, volume 70, Congressional Record, March 15, 1929), and the average of the total of all their immigration, that is including also all the immigrants extra-quota as wives and minor children of citizens, for the last four fiscal years, has been of 35,534 a year only (1928 Report of the Commissioner General of Immigration—table 82, page 190).

Whereas by such ruling of the immigration, while hundreds of thousands of plain immigrant workers—without family tie whatsoever in this country—from Canada, Great Britain and Ireland, Mexico, Germany and the Philippines are admitted every year in the United States (table at page 5446, volume 70, Congressional Record, already quoted—which considers only quota-countries immigrants—shows that for the period of six months from July 1 to December 31, 1928, 52,617 of the 71,900 immigrants from northwestern Europe, were nonpreference immigrants, or immigrants who had not special reasons as family bond, or because agricultural workers, for being admitted, that is they were just plain immigrant workers);

In the same time, wives, children, parents of immigrants from southern, eastern and central Europe less Germany, must stay in the waiting line for many and many years (the table of the Congressional Record just quoted shows that though in them nearly nine-tenths of the visas are given to preference-immigrants; there are, without counting the cases not registered, 68,328 registered demands of preference immigrants—first preference: parents of immigrants 20,136, farmers 25,456; second preference: wives and children of immigrants 22,736—and the total of their quotas being but 20,447, it will take more than three years to have only the cases already registered being included in the quotas).

Whereas the "national origins" plan, though it would still increase the unduly privileges of the British Empire as a whole, and it would not affect the Mexican immigration, it would increase by about 4000 (from 20,447 to about 24,000) the total of the quotas from southern, eastern and central Europe less Germany, and that this increase, though slight, would yet mean that 4000 more parents, wives and children of immigrants per year would be taken from the waiting line affording relief to thousands of families;

The Italian Federation of California, Incorporated, while denouncing both basis, the 1890 census and the "national origins" as utterly unscientific and non-American (among other things, if applied to every country as they should, by both basis the scanty immigration from new countries as Argentina and Brazil would be practically wiped out as it has been nearly wiped out the small immigration from Australia);

Respectfully point out that for the stated reasons the "national origins" is nevertheless preferable to the 1890 census basis; and

Urges that the restriction be based on the 1920 census and be extended to every country. Thus, beside to distribute the quotas in even proportion to the number of immigrants of the different nationalities already here, the total number of immigrant aliens would be cut from the present 310,308 per year to less than 275,000 (the 1920 census of white immigrants was 13,712,754: the 2 per cent of it, is 274,255). The problem of the separation of the families would be soon eliminated, thus carrying out the platforms' pledges of both political parties.

Very respectfully yours,

ITALIAN FEDERATION OF CALIFORNIA, INCORPORATED.

By Chief Clerk:

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, May 8, 1929.

Clerk, State Assembly, Sacramento, California.

DEAR SIR: I wish to protest against the so-called slander legislation aimed at radio broadcasting, recently passed by the Senate.

It seems to me that there are plenty of laws now existing regarding slander to cover every emergency without this additional legislation. The only means the public have of finding out the facts are over the radio and nothing should be done to prevent these facts being broadcast.

If possible, have this protest read, and oblige,

Respectfully yours,

E. A. MOREY.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, May 8, 1929.

Clerk of Assembly, Sacramento, California.

DEAR SIR: As a voter and large property owner in this State, I wish to enter my protest against any bill that will curtail free speech, particularly over radio station KGEF of this city.

I feel that the bill is aimed at this particular station, and I wish to say that it is doing a tremendous amount of good, and therefore I wish to oppose any such bill as I understand is before the Assembly.

If possible, I would like this letter to be read before the committee.

Thanking you, I am

Yours very truly,

A. A. EAGER.

Clerk of the California Assembly.

DEAR SIR: In the name of a large family of voters, and also a wide circle of friends and club associates, I wish to enter our protest against the so-called "Radio Anti-Slander Bill," introduced in the Senate by Senator Rochester of Los Angeles.

We are watching the vote on this measure and noting the attitude of the respective members of the Legislature toward it.

We consider it a menace against legitimate free speech, calculated to interfere with the exposure of public evils which should be uncovered in the interest of public morals and clean government.

Please read this communication to the Assembly.

Yours truly,

B. V. CUSHMAN.

Also.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, May 8, 1929.

Mr. Secretary of the Assembly.

Will you please do all in your power to have Rev. R. P. Schuler's radio kept on the air. Really you must know something about conditions down here, and he is doing more good to help straighten up and clean up things in this city and put people wise to what should be done than anyone else. Thank you.

Respectfully,

MRS. B. V. GINADER.

Also:

NORWALK, CALIFORNIA, May 8, 1929.

The Clerk of the Assembly, Sacramento, California.

DEAR SIR: I desire, through you, to register my protest to the State Assembly against the iniquitous attack on the freedom of speech that I understand has passed the Senate and is now before the Assembly, in the bill pretending to aim at curbing slander on the radio stations.

Very respectfully,

W. T. BURGNER.

SANTA MONICA, CALIFORNIA, May 8, 1929.

Clerk of the House, Sacramento, California.

DEAR SIR: I wish as a citizen and taxpayer to protest, through you, to our Legislature, most emphatically, against the passage of any law providing any penalty for libel applying to the radio, from that pertaining to printed or spoken libel.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN I. RINAHER.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, May 7, 1929.

Clerk of State Assembly, Sacramento, California.

DEAR SIR: I wish to enter my protest on the "Radio Slander" Bill passed by Senate May 6, 1929, for I feel it is a direct attack on station KGEF, a station doing more good in Los Angeles than most of the others. The passing of that bill is truly un-American, and besides free speech is still allowed in this good old United States of America. There are surely enough measures to cover direct slander without passing new laws.

Please read this letter before Assembly.

Sincerely,

GROVER C. MARTIN.

Also.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, May 8, 1929.

To the Clerk of the Assembly, Sacramento, California.

MY DEAR SIR: I note that the Senate has passed a bill to limit the rights of free speech over the radio. I certainly do not concur with the Senate action and hope and trust that the Assembly will not support this un-American measure. Please submit this protest to the Assembly.

Sincerely,

S. E. SOLOMON.

Clerk of the House, Sacramento.

DEAR SIR: As citizens and taxpayers, we wish through you to protest most emphatically against the passage of any law providing any penalty for libel, applying to the radio, any different from that pertaining to printed or spoken libel. The present laws are adequate to punish any improper use of the right of free speech.

Yours truly,

N. O. RINAKER.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 24 ordered transmitted to the Senate.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 24

Relative to salmon fishing on the Pacific Coast, and directing the State Fish and Game Commission to confer and cooperate with the states of Oregon, Washington, and with the United States Department of Fisheries, relative to the control of salmon fishing.

WHEREAS, The reports of the Fish and Game Commission of the State of California show that for some years last past the amount of salmon taken in the waters of the State of California has been diminishing, and that one of the chief causes thereof has been the excessive use of trolling, both adjacent to and off the coasts of California, Oregon and Washington; and.

WHEREAS, It has been reported that by reason of the fact that a part of said trolling activities have been conducted so far off-shore that no state, acting alone, has ample jurisdiction to regulate, prohibit or control the said fishing by trolling, and that millions of immature salmon are taken in their natural feeding grounds in this manner, thereby reducing the annual catch of this valuable food fish; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring. That the Fish and Game Commission of the State of California, be, and is hereby directed to confer with the proper officials of the states of Oregon and Washington, and also with the United States Department of Fisheries, to the end that a comprehensive plan for the protection and control of the salmon industry may be outlined, and to report to the Legislature at the next regular session its findings and recommendations.

MINORITY REPORT.

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, May 10, 1929.

MR. SPEAKER: A minority of your Committee on Constitutional Amendments, to which was referred Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 44—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the constitution of said State by adding a new article to be numbered XXV thereto, relating to the construction, maintenance and operation of a salt water barrier, or a combination of a salt water barrier or bridge or other works at or near Carquinez Straits, for salinity control, flood control, navigation, domestic use, irrigation and other public uses, and for the construction of dams and other works on the Santa Ana River for flood control and water conservation, and relating to the issuance and sale of State bonds providing for and creating a fund for the carrying out of the purposes of this article; authorizing the expenditure of the moneys in said fund for the said purposes; creating an interest and sinking fund for the payment of interest on said bonds and of the redemption of same; and making an appropriation therefor, and making an appropriation of $20,000 for the expense of printing, lithographing and selling of said bonds—has had the same under consideration, and respectfully reports the same back with the recommendation that it be not adopted, for the following reasons:

The State of California has spent hundreds of thousands of dollars for engineering investigations of the water resources of California and for preparation of the report. Furthermore, the joint legislative committee of this Legislature has put in two years of hard work studying the State-wide water conservation and have filed recommendations to the Legislature.

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 44 ignores all of the results of this great expenditure of labor and money and is in effect, whether so designed or not, an attempt to destroy the entire State-wide water conservation plan.

We further point to the fact that the State at this time is making a considerable appropriation for the further investigation of the State-wide water program, which appropriation includes $100,000 for the study and investigation of the feasibility of the salt water barrier.

Furthermore, we insist that there were no facts presented to our committee on which to base a recommendation of approval, and accordingly we, the minority, Fisher and Anderson, recommend that Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 44 be not adopted.

ANDERSON, Chairman.
FISHER.

RECESS.

At twelve o'clock and thirty-two minutes p.m., on motion of Mr. Jones, the Assembly was declared at recess until one o'clock and thirty minutes p. m. of this day.

REASSEMBLED.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT.

During second reading of the bill, the following amendment was submitted by the committee:

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE

On page 1, line 8, of the printed bill, as amended in Senate March 20, 1929, strike out lines 8 to 24, inclusive, also strike out all of pages 2 to 5, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following

"1. The county clerk three thousand dollars per annum, and shall be allowed in addition the sum of six hundred dollars a year for every year that an election is held throughout the State of California; he shall be allowed in addition the sum of ten cents per name for each voter registered in the county, which shall be in full for all service required in registering voters and making up the great register and performing all other acts incident to or pertaining to elections; provided, further, that in counties of this class there shall be and there is hereby allowed to the county clerk, two deputies and one copyist, who shall be appointed by the county clerk, and who shall be paid the following compensation, one at two thousand one hundred dollars per annum, one at one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum, and one at one thousand two hundred dollars per annum. All deputies and copyists shall be paid in the same manner and out of the same funds as the salary of the county clerk is paid. Commencing on the first day of January, 1928, said county clerk shall be allowed one additional deputy which office is hereby created at a salary of one hundred twenty-five dollars per month.

2 Sheriff, three thousand dollars per annum; provided, that there shall be and there is hereby allowed to said sheriff an undersheriff who shall receive a salary of two thousand one hundred dollars per annum, and one deputy sheriff, who shall act as night jailer, at a salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum, also one deputy who shall receive a salary of three hundred dollars per annum, and two deputy sheriffs who shall receive salaries of one hundred eighty dollars each per annum, and one deputy who shall receive one hundred seventy-five dollars per month and furnish his own transportation. The said undersheriff and the said deputies to be appointed by the sheriff and the salaries of whom shall be paid by the county in monthly installments at the same time and in the same manner and out of the same fund as the salary of the sheriff is paid; and also provided, that the sheriff may employ from one to two persons to act as deputy sheriffs at salaries not to exceed five dollars per day each when in the judgment of the sheriff such deputies are necessary; provided, however, that the total amount of the compensation of such additional deputies to be paid per diem shall not in any fiscal year exceed the total sum of one thousand dollars per annum; and also provided, that the compensation of the last mentioned deputies shall be paid on presentation of duly verified claims filed with the board of supervisors of the said county and in the same manner that other claims are filed and paid; and provided, further, that in addition thereto, the sheriff shall receive and retain for his own use and benefit all of the fees, per diem, mileage and expenses which are now or which may hereafter be allowed by law, and the fees and commissions for the service of all papers whatsoever issued by any court in the state outside of the county in and for which the sheriff is elected.

3 The recorder three thousand dollars per annum and he shall be allowed the following deputies who shall be appointed by said recorder and shall be paid salaries and compensations as follows: On chief deputy at a salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; one deputy at a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum, one deputy at a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; the said deputies to be paid at the same time and out of the same fund as the recorder's salary is paid. Said recorder may employ as many copyists as he may deem necessary by certifying to the auditor the names, the number of folios copied and the time required. The auditor shall thereupon draw his warrant in favor of such copyist; provided further, that all comparing shall be done by the paid deputies and in no event is the recorder to receive for his own use any fees of any description notwithstanding a statute may provide thereto.

4 The auditor, three thousand dollars per annum; provided, that in counties of this class the auditor shall be allowed one deputy at a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum, and provided further, that in counties of this class the auditor shall be allowed such additional clerks and copyists as he may require and whose compensation in the aggregate shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars in any one calendar year. The deputy, clerks and copyists named herein shall be appointed by the auditor and their salaries shall be paid in the same manner and at the same time and out of the same fund as the salary of the auditor is paid.

5. The treasurer and tax collector, three thousand dollars per annum and such fees as are allowed by law, provided, that in counties of this class the treasurer and tax collector shall be allowed one deputy who shall be paid a salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum, one deputy who shall be paid a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum and one deputy who shall be paid a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; and provided, further, that in counties of this class there shall be and hereby is allowed to the treasurer and tax collector such additional assistants as may be required and whose compensation in the aggregate shall not exceed the sum of one thousand two hundred dollars in one calendar year.

6. The assessor, three thousand dollars per annum, provided, that in counties of this class the assessor shall be allowed one office deputy at a salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum, one draftsman at a salary of two thousand one hundred dollars per annum, and one rural appraiser who would be employed the entire year at an annual salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars and necessary equipment to perform the duties of his office. Said deputy and said draftsman and said rural appraiser shall be appointed by said assessor and said salaries shall be paid by said county at the same time and in the same manner and out of the same funds as the salary of the assessor is paid, and provided, further, that said assessor shall be allowed such field deputies, assistants, clerks and copyists as he may require and whose compensation in the aggregate shall not exceed the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars in any one year. Said field deputies, assistants, clerks and copyists shall be appointed by the said assessor and their salaries shall be paid by said county, in monthly installments, at the same time and in the same manner and out of the same funds as the assessor is paid, upon the assessor duly certifying to the county auditor, the names of, the position filled and the amount due to each. It is hereby found as a fact that the changes provided for in this section do not work an increase in compensation for the officer, and it is intended that the same shall apply immediately to the present incumbents.

7. The district attorney, three thousand dollars per annum; provided, in counties of this class there shall hereby be allowed to the district attorney, one deputy, at an annual salary of six hundred dollars, provided, that the deputy shall be employed in a place other than the county seat. In addition to the deputy, the district attorney shall be allowed a clerk and stenographer who shall be paid an annual salary of one thousand two hundred dollars. All salaries herein provided shall be paid in monthly installments out of the same fund as the district attorney's salary is paid. The said stenographer shall perform all services required by the district attorney in his official capacity in civil and criminal actions in which the county is interested. The provisions contained in this paragraph numbered 7 shall go into effect on January 1, 1931.

8. The coroner, such fees as are now or may be hereafter allowed by law.

9. The public administrator, such fees as are now or may be hereafter allowed by law.

10. The superintendent of schools, two thousand one hundred dollars per annum, and actual traveling expenses when visiting the schools of his county, provided, that in counties of this class there shall be and there is hereby allowed to the superintendent of schools, a deputy which office is hereby created, at a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum, and who shall be appointed by the superintendent of schools. The salary of said deputy herein provided for shall be paid by said county in monthly installments at the same time and in the same manner and out of the same fund as the salary of the superintendent of schools is paid.

11. The county surveyor shall receive three thousand dollars per annum. The surveyor shall be allowed a clerk and stenographer at an annual salary of one thousand two hundred dollars.

12. Board of supervisors, each member of the board of supervisors one hundred twenty-five dollars per month and no mileage, which shall be in full for all services and expenses incurred within the county; provided, that whenever it shall be necessary for any member of the board of supervisors to leave the county in and for which he is elected for the purpose of performing any of his duties, that then and in that event, said supervisor shall be allowed his actual expenses.

The supervisors while acting as road commissioners, shall give their personal attention to the repair, maintenance, construction and improvement of all roads under their supervision. The supervisors in addition to the meetings otherwise provided by law shall meet on the seventh of each month or on the next legal day following the seventh.

13. In counties of this class there shall be two judicial townships and the board of supervisors shall on or before the first day of July, 1926, so designate and fix the boundaries thereof. Townships which shall contain a city of the fifth class shall be a township of the first class and the other shall be a township of the second class. In townships of the first class the justice of the peace shall receive a salary of three thousand dollars per annum and clerical help not to exceed three hundred dollars in each year. In townships of the second class the justice shall be paid a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum and clerical help not to exceed nine hundred dollars in each year, and the board of supervisors shall provide him with the necessary office room; provided, however, that from and after the first day of January, 1931, the justice shall be paid a salary of two thousand one hundred dollars a year and clerical help not to exceed three hundred dollars in each year.

14. In each of the townships herein provided for, there shall be one constable who shall receive a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; provided, that in addition to the salaries herein allowed, each constable shall be paid out of the general fund of the county for traveling expenses incurred for the services of the warrant of arrest or any other process in a criminal case (where said service is in fact made) his actual expenses each way for each mile traveled outside of the county both going to and returning from the place of arrest or other services of process; also the transportation of prisoners to the county jail, the constable shall be allowed his actual expenses each way. In addition to the monthly salaries herein allowed, each constable may receive and retain for his own use such fees as are now or may hereafter be allowed by law for services rendered by him in civil cases, and also all fees now allowed him by law for the arrest of violators of the fish and game laws.

15. The official reporter of the superior court shall receive the fees allowed by law.

16. In fixing the compensation of the above named officers in the amounts hereinabove specified, it is hereby expressly provided that the salaries and fees above provided shall be in full compensation for all services of every kind and description rendered by the officers named herein, either as officers or ex officio officers, their deputies and assistants; and it is hereby further expressly provided, that all of the fees, commissions, per diem and expenses provided for in section 4290 of the Political Code of the State of California, and all other moneys coming into the hands of the county and township officers, no matter from what source derived or received, shall belong to and be the property of the county, in counties of this class, and shall be paid into the county treasury by said officers at the same time and in the same manner that other moneys are required by law to be paid into the county treasury by him; save and except, however, that the provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to the offices of sheriff, treasurer, district attorney, county surveyor and superintendent of schools, and they are expressly exempted from the provisions of this subdivision, and as to said offices herein last named, to wit, sheriff, treasurer, district attorney and superintendent of schools, they shall receive the salaries, fees and commissions provided for by law, and as provided for in subdivisions two, three, five, seven and ten of this act.

17. All officers who are allowed extra compensation for carrying out the work of their offices shall certify to the auditor the names of the persons to whom the money is paid and the amount.

18. In counties of this class grand jurors, and trial jurors in the superior court, shall each receive for each day's attendance, per day the sum of three dollars and for each mile actually and necessarily traveled from their residence to the county seat, in going only, the sum of fifteen cents per mile, such mileage to be allowed but once during each session such jurors are required to attend.

19. The sealer of weights and measures shall receive a salary of two thousand one hundred dollars per annum and he is hereby allowed his actual and necessary traveling expenses while engaged in the performance of his duties as such sealer of weights and measures."

PRESENTATION OF PETITION.

The following petition was presented, and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Chief Clerk:

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, May 13, 1929.

Clerk of the Assembly.

Sacramento, California.

Emphatically protest passage Senate Bills Nos. 459 and 460 as real menace to free speech, being openly boasted as aimed to silence certain agency in Los Angeles which is doing more to promote civic righteousness than all others combined. Present libel laws amply protect all honest people.

C. P. COLONEUS,
And others.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

The following report of standing committee was received and read:

Resolved, That the Assembly has heard with regret of the passing of Michael J. Doyle, and Resolved, further, that the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to convey to his family this expression of regret from the Assembly of the State of California.

Resolution read, and unanimously adopted.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, May 11, 1929.

To the Assembly of the State of California

Assembly Bill No. 594 is herewith returned without my approval.

One of the authors of this measure has advised me that it is not an important one in the automobile legislative program involved. It requires that an application for "original registration" of a motor vehicle shall include a statement as to whether the vehicle is covered by insurance and the amount. The purpose would be to provide a source of statistical data, but the value of such data seems to have been largely destroyed by the "original registration" provision which was amended into the bill after its introduction.

I can not see that information gathered pursuant to this bill would reflect in any substantial measure the percentage of insured vehicles. The required statement refers solely to the original registration of a motor vehicle. The reference seems limited to new cars, and would not include annual renewals or transfers of ownership. I am advised that original registration in many, if not most cases, is made before an owner takes out or receives a public liability policy. If so, this bill would require data as to the extent of such insurance, even on the limited number of cars it would reach, which would be misleading rather than valuable. Discussions which I have had with different parties interested in the measure have but confirmed these views.

For these reasons I am withholding my approval of the bill
Respectfully submitted.

C. C. YOUNG, Governor.

The question being put: Shall the bill become a law notwithstanding the veto of the Governor?

NOES—Adams, Anderson, Arnold, Badham, Baum, Brock, Byrne, Cloudman, Cloudsley, Collier, Craig, Crawford, Cronin, Crowley, Deuel, DeYoe, Dillinger, Easley, Eddy, Emmett, Feeley, Feigenbaum, Fisher, Fry, Gilmore, Harper, Hawes, Heisinger, Hoffman, Hornblower, Jepsen, Jewett, Jones, Jost, Keaton, Kline, Little, Luttrell, Lyons, McDonough, McGinness, Meeker, Miller, Eleanor; Miller, James A. Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, MAY 11, 1929

To the Assembly of the State of California.

Assembly Bill No. 597 is herewith returned without my approval.

The purpose of this bill is threefold—requirement of certain data upon application for a license; requirement that all persons who sign an application for a license shall verify their signatures; and provision against issuance of a new license during suspension of an existing license, or until one year after the date of revocation of a prior license.

Unfortunately, accomplishment of these purposes is sought through amendment of section 61 of the California Vehicle Act, a section also amended by Senate Bill No. 714, which has already been signed.

The Legislative Counsel and the Attorney General's office advise me that should two or more conflicting amendments to a single section be made during one legislative session, the last signed in point of time would, in their opinion, probably become the law. It is not desired to disturb the amendment already effected with respect to section 61 by the bill referred to.

Fortunately the provisions of this bill are not vital to the automobile legislation program. Speaker Levey has confirmed my impression in this respect. Certain of the amendatory matter is such as can be required by a departmental regulation, and as I thoroughly approve the purposes of the bill I am requesting the department to do this so that no substantial loss will result.

For these reasons I am withholding approval of this bill

Respectfully submitted.

C. C. YOUNG, Governor.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, MAY 11, 1929

To the Assembly of the State of California.

Assembly Bill No. 599 is herewith returned without my approval.

This measure seeks to amend section 142 of the California Vehicle Act, the principal purpose being to create a traffic and safety bureau within the Division of Motor Vehicles. The bill is objectionable in that this section has also been amended by Senate Bill No. 714, which has already been signed.

Section 142 as amended by Senate Bill No. 714 contains certain provisions which the Division of Motor Vehicles is very anxious to retain, but which would be lost if this bill superseded such provisions. The division also feels that adequate machinery is already at hand to accomplish what the new matter in this bill contemplates, and that its enactment is therefore not essential.

The chairman of the joint legislative committee sponsoring the automobile measures has advised me that the present bill is not a vital feature of the committee's program. However, present laws authorize the creation of necessary bureaus and I shall ask the proper officers to consult with the committee with a view to carrying out their recommendation.

Accordingly, I am returning the bill at this time without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

C. C. YOUNG, Governor.

The question being put: Shall the bill become a law notwithstanding the veto of the Governor?

The roll was called, and the veto of the Governor sustained by the following vote:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, May 11, 1929.

To the Assembly of the State of California.

Assembly Bill No. 489 is herewith returned without my approval.

The measure proposes the admission of private carriers into a field of public insurance now served by the State compensation fund alone. The proposition is not a new one. It has been advanced in substance at other sessions of the Legislature, but always without success. The fund is an established institution which has performed, and is performing, a great public service. It affords adequate protection at the lowest net cost obtainable. Receiving more than an average proportion of the small and least desirable risks, it is entitled to the assistance of public business which aids in averaging down its overhead.

Reservation of this particular field to the fund is a policy justified by the service it affords. Further, the policy has support in the minimum net cost to the public agencies whose business is handled by the fund. The future may see conditions which will justify the admission of private carriers into this field on a competitive basis. I can not agree that such a time has come, however. There seems no good reason, as yet, for departing from the policy of previous legislative sessions.

The only affirmative argument I have heard for this measure occurred in one or two isolated instances where proponents have suggested a cause for complaint on the score of unnecessary delay in the service which the fund affords. On the other hand I have received many scores of communications in defense of the fund and in opposition to any change in its operations. In so far as need can be shown for improvement in service, this will of course be made. But the enactment, at this time, of a measure such as here proposed is unnecessary to such a remedy.

The author and proponents of this measure have been extremely fair in recognizing that responsibility for final judgment upon bills is mine alone. They have advised me that several interested groups have by agreement refrained from opposing the measure in the Legislature or while the bill has been before me. My decision is made with due regard to the reported agreement of the groups mentioned, but it is made, as it must be, solely upon the merits of the bill and not as a sequence to negotiations or agreements to which I was not a party.

I have considered this bill fairly as to its effect on those whom the Legislature inevitably has in mind as parties at interest in such legislation. I see no means by which it will aid the injured workmen, for no other carrier offers safer coverage than the State fund. I see no possible aid to the cities, counties or districts, for no private carrier can provide the coverage at a net cost as low as does the State fund.

For these reasons I am withholding my approval of the bill.

Respectfully submitted.

C. C. YOUNG, Governor.

SENATE MESSAGES.

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, May 10, 1929.

MR. SPEAKER: I am directed to inform your honorable body that the Senate amended, and on this day passed as amended, Assembly Bill No. 1022—An act to amend section 2322, 26 of chapter 4b of part III, title V of the Political Code of the State of California—and respectfully requests your honorable body to concur in said amendments.

AMENDMENT NUMBER SIX.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out all of lines 1 to 23, inclusive, and also strike out all of page 2, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "SECTION 1. The provisions of article eight a of this act shall be interpreted in the same manner and shall be construed as having the same scope and application as would be the case if they were a part of chapter six of part one of division two of the School Code as adopted at the forty-eighth session of the Legislature.

As used in this act the term "this part" means part one of division two of said School Code.

Article eight a of this act embracing sections 2.440 a to 2.454 a, inclusive, reads as follows:

Article VIII*a*—Exclusion of Elementary School Districts from High School Districts and Subsequent Formation into High School Districts.

Sec. 2.440*a*. Whenever a majority of the heads of families or of the electors residing in an elementary school district or union elementary school district having six hundred or more units of average daily attendance in the elementary or union elementary schools thereof as shown by the last reports of the teachers in the district and a total assessed valuation of at least eight million five hundred thousand dollars and lying less than two and one-half miles from any public high school building by the nearest traveled road, which elementary or union elementary school district is a part of any high school district, as shown by the affidavits of one or more of the petitioners, shall present to the superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over such elementary or union elementary school district, a petition asking for the organization of a high school district to be composed of the elementary or union elementary school district represented in the petition, specifying in the petition the name of the proposed high school district, the county superintendent of schools shall within twenty days after receiving the petition verify the signatures thereto and if he finds them sufficient submit the petition to the state board of education for approval.

Sec. 2.441*a*. The petition shall not be approved by the state board of education unless it appears from a certified statement of the county assessor of the county or counties within which the high school district from which said elementary or union elementary school district is withdrawing is situated, that the assessed valuation of the territory remaining in the said high school district after the withdrawal of the said elementary or union elementary school district will be in excess of twenty million dollars, and unless it appears from a certified statement of the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the said high school district that the average daily attendance in the high schools of the said high school district after the withdrawal of the said elementary or union elementary school district will be in excess of one thousand.

Sec. 2.442*a*. Should the state board of education approve the petition the superintendent of schools shall within twenty days after receipt of such approval call an election for the determination of the question, and shall appoint three qualified electors in such elementary district or in each elementary district comprising such union elementary district petitioning to conduct the election therein as in this article provided.

Sec. 2.443*a*. The election shall be called by posting notices thereof in three public places in the district, one of which places shall be a public schoolhouse thereof, at least two weeks before the election, and by publishing such notice at least once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published within the proposed high school district, if there be such a newspaper, the first publication to be not less than two weeks before the election.

Sec. 2.444*a*. The election shall be held at a public schoolhouse in the district petitioning.

Sec. 2.445*a*. The election shall be conducted by the officers appointed for that purpose in the manner provided by law for conducting elections of school trustees.

Sec. 2.446*a*. The ballots used in the election shall contain the words "High School District—Yes" and "High School District—No", and electors voting at the election shall make a cross with pencil, ink, or rubber stamp after the answer they desire to give.

Sec. 2.447*a*. It shall be the duty of the election officers to canvass the vote of the election as soon as the polls are closed, and report the result to the superintendent of schools within five days subsequent to the holding of the election.

Sec. 2.448*a*. Within ten days after receiving the returns of the election, the superintendent of schools shall declare and record the result, with the details of the vote, in a book kept by him for that purpose.

Sec. 2.449a. If a majority of the votes cast at the election are in favor of the formation of the high school district, he shall also file with the county clerk of the county, or of each county in which any part of the elementary or union elementary school district is situated, a certificate showing the total number of votes cast in the district in favor of the high school district, the total number of votes cast in the district against the high school district, the aggregate result of the election and the boundaries of the proposed district.

Sec. 2.450a. If it shall appear from the certificate filed by the superintendent of schools that a majority of the votes cast at the election were cast in favor of the formation of the district, the board of supervisors having jurisdiction shall make an order excluding the elementary or union elementary school district from the high school district of which it was a part.

Sec. 2.451a. No order excluding territory from any high school district under the provisions of this article shall be made if the exclusion of the territory would reduce the assessed valuation of the high school district to twenty million dollars or less.

Sec. 2.452a. Any elementary or union elementary school district electing to withdraw from a high school district at an election petitioned for and called under the provisions of this article shall continue to remain liable for such proportion of the bonded indebtedness, incurred before such withdrawal, of the said high school district, as it would have been liable for had it not withdrawn.

Sec. 2.453a. The order of the board of supervisors excluding the elementary or union elementary school district from the high school district shall be entered by the clerk of the board of supervisors in his record of high school districts, and he shall also send a copy thereof to the county clerk of each county in which any part of the high school district is situated, which county clerk shall enter it in his record of high school districts.

Sec. 2.454a. The board of supervisors, after making the order of exclusion, shall make an order establishing the high school district asked for in the petition, and the county clerk shall record the certificate of the county superintendent of schools and the orders of the board of supervisors in full in his record of high school districts."

MR SPEAKER I am directed to inform your honorable body that the Senate amended, and on this day passed as amended, Assembly Bill No. 574—An act to amend the Political Code by adding a new section thereto to be numbered section 594c, relating to the sale of securities and capital stock of companies organized for the purpose of transacting an insurance business, and to brokers and agents engaged in the sale of such securities and capital stock, providing for the supervision thereof, defining the powers and duties of the Insurance Commissioner in relation thereto and prescribing penalties for violation of the provisions thereof—and respectfully requests your honorable body to concur in said amendments.

J. A. BEEK, Secretary of Senate.
By C. A. McLEAN, JR., Assistant Secretary.

The question being put: Shall the Assembly concur in the following Senate amendments to Assembly Bill No. 574?

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE

In line 6 of the title of the printed bill, as amended in Assembly April 11, 1929, strike out the period, and insert in lieu thereof a comma and the following: "and to brokers and agents engaged in the sale of such securities and capital stock, providing for the supervision thereof, defining the powers and duties of the insurance commissioner in relation thereto and prescribing penalties for violation of the provisions thereof."

On page 1, line 15, of the printed bill, between lines 15 and 16, insert the following:

"594c. The word "security" as herein used shall include any note, stock, treasury stock, bond, debenture, evidence of indebtedness, certificate of interest or participation, certificate of interest in a profit-sharing agreement, collateral trust certificate, preorganization certificate, preorganization subscription, any transferable share, investment contract, or beneficial interest in title to property, profits or earnings or any other instrument commonly known as a security, but shall not include:

(a) Bills of exchange, trade acceptances, promissory notes and other commercial paper issued, given or acquired in a bona fide way in the ordinary course of legitimate business, trade or commerce;

(b) Promissory notes, whether secured or unsecured, where the notes are not offered to the public, or are not sold to an underwriter for the purpose of resale;

(c) Mortgage participation certificates issued under and in accordance with the provisions of chapter eight of title two of part four of division one of the Civil Code.

"Sale" or "sell" as used in this section shall include every disposition, or attempt to dispose, of a security or interest in a security for value. Any security given or delivered with, or as a bonus on account of, any purchase of securities or any other thing, shall be conclusively presumed to constitute a part of the subject of such purchase and to have been sold for value. "Sale" or "sell" shall also include a contract of sale, an exchange, an attempt to sell, an option of sale, a solicitation of a sale, a subscription or an offer to sell, directly or by an agent, or a circular letter, advertisement or otherwise; provided, that a privilege pertaining to a security giving the holder the privilege to convert such security into another security of the same company shall not be deemed a sale of such other security within the meaning of this definition; and provided further, that the issue or transfer of a right pertaining to a security and entitling the holder of such right to subscribe to another security of the same company shall not be deemed a sale of such security within the meaning of this definition, but the sale of such other security upon the exercise of such right shall be subject to the provisions of this section.

The word "broker" as used in this section includes every person, firm or corporation, other than an agent, who shall, in this state, engage either wholly or in part in the business of selling, offering for sale, negotiating for the sale of, or otherwise dealing in any security as defined in this section, issued by others, or of underwriting any issue of such securities, or of purchasing such securities with the purpose of reselling them, or of offering them for sale to the public.

The word "agent" as used in this section means and includes every person, firm or corporation employed or appointed by a company or broker who shall, within this state, either as an employee or otherwise, for a compensation, sell, offer for sale, negotiate for the sale of or take subscriptions for any security as defined in this section."

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE

On page 2, line 6, of the printed bill, as amended in Assembly April 11, 1929, after said line, add the following:

"The application for the permit shall be verified as provided in the Code of Civil Procedure for the verification of pleadings, and shall be filed in the office of the commissioner. In such application the applicant shall set forth the names and addresses of its officers, the location of its office, an itemized account of its financial condition, the amount and character of its assets and liabilities, a detailed statement of the plan upon which it proposes to transact business, a copy of any security it proposes to issue, a copy of any contract it proposes to make concerning the same, a copy of any prospectus or advertisement, or other description of such securities, then prepared by or for it for distribution or publication, and such additional information concerning the company, its condition and affairs as the commissioner may require. If the applicant is a partnership or an unincorporated association or joint stock company, it shall file with its application a copy of its articles of partnership or association, and all other papers pertaining to its organization. If the applicant is a corporation, it shall file with its application a copy of all minutes of any proceedings of its directors or stockholders or members relating to or affecting the issue of such securities, and also a copy of its articles of incorporation and of its by-laws and of any amendments thereto. If the applicant is a corporation or association organized under the laws of any other state, territory, or government, it shall also file with its application a certificate, executed by the proper officer of such state, territory, or government not more than thirty days before the filing of such application, showing that such applicant is authorized to transact business in such state, territory, or government; and also, in such form as the commissioner may prescribe, its written instrument, irrevocably appointing the commissioner and his successor in office its true and lawful attorney upon whom all process in any action or proceeding against it may be served, with the same effect as if said corporation or association were organized or created under the laws of this state and had been lawfully served with process therein.

Upon the filing of such application, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to examine it and the other papers and documents filed therewith, and he may, if he deems it advisable, make or have made a detailed examination, audit, and investigation of the applicant and its affairs. If he finds that the proposed plan of business of the applicant is not unfair, unjust, or inequitable, that it intends to fairly and honestly transact its business, and that the securities that it proposes to issue and the methods to be used by it in issuing or disposing of them are not such as, in his opinion, will work a fraud upon the purchaser thereof, the commissioner shall issue to the applicant a permit authorizing it to issue and dispose of securities, as therein provided, in this state, in such amounts and for such considerations and upon such terms and conditions as the commissioner may in said permit provide. Otherwise, he shall deny the application and refuse such permit and notify the applicant in writing of his decision. Every permit shall recite in bold type that the issuance thereof is permissive only and does not constitute a recommendation or endorsement of the securities permitted to be issued. The commissioner may impose conditions requiring the deposit in escrow of securities, the impoundment of the proceeds from the sale thereof, limiting the expense in connection with the sale thereof and such other conditions as he may deem reasonable and necessary or advisable to insure the disposition of the proceeds of such securities in the manner and for the purposes provided in such permit. The commissioner may, from time to time for cause, amend, alter or revoke any permit issued by him hereunder, or temporarily suspend the rights of the applicant under such permit. The commissioner shall have the power to establish such rules and regulations as may be reasonable or necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this section.

Every company authorized by the commissioner to sell securities shall thereafter, at such times as it may be required by the commissioner, make and file in the office of the commissioner a report, setting forth, in such form as the commissioner may prescribe, the securities sold by it under the authority of any permit issued by him, the proceeds derived therefrom, the disposition of such proceeds, and such other information concerning its property, officers, or affairs, relating to or affecting the value of such securities, as the commissioner may require.

No person, firm or corporation shall act as an agent or broker unless he shall have first applied for and secured from the insurance commissioner a certificate, then in effect, authorizing him so to do.

Every such certificate shall expire on the first day of July next after its issue, unless sooner suspended or revoked. To secure such certificate, the applicant shall make and file in the office of the commissioner an application therefor in writing, verified by or in behalf of the applicant. In such application, the applicant shall set forth, in addition to such other information as may be required by the commissioner:

1. The name and address of the applicant, and if it be a corporation, association, or joint stock company, the name and address of each of its managing officers and agents, and, if it be a partnership, the name and address of each of the partners;
2. A succinct statement of facts showing that the applicant and its managing officers and agents, if it be a corporation, or members, if it be a partnership, have a good business reputation;
3. If the applicant is a broker, the general plan and character of the business of the applicant.

At the time of filing an application for a broker's certificate, the applicant shall file with the commissioner a good and sufficient bond for five thousand dollars, payable to the people of the State of California, for the use and benefit of any interested person, executed by said applicant and by sufficient surety or sureties, and to be approved by the commissioner. Said bond shall be conditioned upon the strict compliance with the provisions of this section, and the honest and faithful application of all funds received and the faithful and honest performance of all obligations and undertakings in the purchase or sale of securities, by said broker, his agents and employees. Said bond shall be further conditioned upon the payment of all damages suffered by any person damaged or defrauded by reason of the violation of any of the provisions of this section, or by reason of any fraud connected with or growing out of any transaction contemplated by the provisions of this section. Any person who sustains an injury covered by such bond, may in addition to any other remedy that he may have, bring an action in his own name upon said bond for the recovery of any damages sustained by him. Upon such action being commenced the commissioner may in his discretion, require the filing of a new bond, and immediately upon the recovery in any action on such bond, such broker shall file a new bond, and upon failure to file the same within ten days in either case such failure shall constitute sufficient grounds for the suspension or revocation of such broker's certificate.

If the applicant is a corporation or association organized under the laws of any other state, territory or government, it shall file with its application a copy of its articles of incorporation or association, together with a certificate executed by the proper officer of such state, territory, or government not more than thirty days before the filing of such application, showing that such applicant is authorized to transact business in such state, territory, or government, and also in such form as the commissioner may prescribe, its written instrument, irrevocably appointing the commissioner and his successor in office its true and lawful attorney upon whom all process in any action or proceeding against it, arising out of or founded upon the fraud of such applicant in the sale of securities within this state, or in any action upon any bond provided by this section, may be served, with the same effect as if said corporation or association were organized or created under the laws of this state and had been lawfully served with process therein.

The commissioner shall examine such application, and shall make such further investigation of the applicant and its affairs as he shall deem advisable. If, from such examination, the commissioner, shall be satisfied of the good business reputation of the applicant and of its officers or members, if any, that the sale of the securities proposed to be sold by it would not be unfair, unjust or inequitable to the purchasers thereof, that neither it nor its officers or members have violated any of the provisions of this act and that neither it nor its officers or members have engaged or are about to engage in any fraudulent transaction he shall issue such certificate. Otherwise, he shall refuse the same and deny the application and notify the applicant of his decision. The commissioner may at any time temporarily suspend or revoke any broker's or agent's certificate issued by him if he shall find that the holder thereof is of bad business repute, or has violated any provision of this act, or has engaged, or is about to engage in any fraudulent transaction.

Every broker shall, at such times as it may be required by the commissioner, make and file in the office of the commissioner a true and correct statement concerning any security sold or offered for sale by such broker, showing the name and location of the principal office of the issuer of such security; the names of its managing officers, if it is a corporation, or of its members, if it is a partnership; its assets, liabilities, and issued capital stock, at the close of its fiscal year then last ended, or at a later date; its gross income, expenses, and fixed charges for the year next preceding such date, or for such time as such issuer of such security has transacted business, if for less than one year, and the approximate price at which such broker has sold or proposes to sell such security, together with such other information, of which the broker may have knowledge, as the commissioner may require, nor shall any broker sell or offer for sale any security after notice in writing given to it by the commissioner that in his opinion, the sale thereof would be unfair, unjust, or inequitable to the purchaser thereof, unless the commissioner shall subsequently in writing withdraw such objection to the sale thereof.

No person, partnership, association, or corporation, other than a broker holding a broker's certificate, then in effect, shall issue, circulate, or publish any advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus, or circular concerning any security, to be issued by any company, that such person, partnership, association, or corporation desires or proposes to sell, until the company proposing to issue such security shall have first secured from the commissioner a permit authorizing it to issue or sell such security; nor shall any company, broker, or agent, or any other person, issue, circulate, or publish any advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus, or circular concerning any security sold or offered for sale by it, unless the name of the company, broker, agent, or person issuing, circulating, or publishing the same shall be subscribed thereto, and a true copy thereof shall have been first filed in the office of the commissioner at least one day prior thereto; provided, however, that the filing of a copy of such advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus or circular, as herein provided, shall not be required in any case in which the commissioner shall have authorized or consented to the issuance, circulation or publication thereof; nor shall any company, broker, or agent, or any other person, issue, circulate, or publish any such advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus, or circular after notice in writing given to it by the commissioner that, in his opinion, the same contains any statement that is false or misleading or otherwise likely to deceive a reader thereof.

All papers, documents, reports, and other instruments in writing filed with the commissioner under this section shall be open to public inspection; provided, that if, in his judgment, the public welfare or the welfare of any company, demands that any portion of such information be not made public, he may, in his discretion, withhold such information from public inspection for such time as in his judgment is necessary. The commissioner may at any time give, issue, or make public any information concerning any company or any contracts, stocks, bonds, or other securities, sold or offered for sale within this state, if in his judgment the giving, issuing, or publishing of the same will be of public interest or advantage or will tend to prevent the fraudulent sale of such securities.

Every order, decision, permit or other official act of the commissioner made, issued or done under the provisions of this section, shall be subject to review, in accordance with the provisions of chapter one of title one of part three of the Code of Civil Procedure. Upon such review, the burden of proof shall be upon the appellant, and the court shall receive and consider any pertinent evidence, whether oral or documentary, concerning the action of the commissioner under review, but shall be limited to a consideration and determination of the question whether there has been an abuse of discretion on the part of the commissioner in making such order, decision or permit.

Every security issued by any company, without a permit of the commissioner authorizing the same then in effect, shall be void, and every security issued by any company, with the authorization of the commissioner but not conforming in its provisions to the provisions if any, which it is required by the permit of the commissioner to contain, shall be void.

Every company which shall directly or indirectly offer for sale, or negotiate for the sale of or sell, or issue, or cause to be issued any security contrary to the provisions of this section, or of the constitution of this state, or in nonconformity with a permit of the commissioner authorizing the same, or which applies the proceeds from the sale thereof, or any part thereof, to any purpose other than the purpose or purposes, if any, specified in such permit, or to any purpose specified in such permit in excess of any amount limited in such permit to be used for such purpose, shall be guilty of a public offense and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars.

Every officer, agent, or employee of any company, and every other person, who knowingly authorizes, directs, or aids in the issue or sale of, or issues or executes, or sells, or causes or assists in causing to be issued, executed, or sold, any security, in nonconformity with a permit of the commissioner then in effect authorizing such issue, or contrary to the provisions of this section, or of the constitution of this state, or who, in any application to the commissioner, or in any proceeding before him, or in any examination, audit, or investigation made by him or his authority, knowingly makes any false statement or representation, or who, with knowledge of its falsity, files or causes to be filed in the office of the commissioner any false statement or representation concerning such company or the property which it then holds or proposes to acquire, or concerning its officers or its financial condition or other affairs, or concerning its proposed plan of business, or who, with knowledge of the falsity of any such statement or representation, issues, executes, or sells, or causes to be issued, executed, or sold, any security, without first informing the commissioner of the falsity of such statement in writing, or who, directly or indirectly, knowingly applies, or causes or assists in causing to be applied, the proceeds, or any part thereof, from the sale of any security to any purpose contrary to the provisions of the permit authorizing the issue of such security, or to any purpose specified in such permit in excess of any amount limited in such permit to be issued for such purpose, or who, with knowledge that any security has been issued or executed, in violation of any of the provisions of this section, sells or offers the same for sale, or who, with knowledge that any advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus, or circular concerning any security contains any statement that is false or misleading, or otherwise likely to deceive a reader thereof, issues, circulates, or publishes the same, or shall cause the same to be issued, circulated, or published, or who, in any respect, wilfully violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section, or who, in any other respect, wilfully violates or fails, omits, or neglects to obey, observe, or comply with any order, permit, decision, demand, or requirement, or any part or provision thereof, of the commissioner under the provisions of this act, or who with one or more other persons conspires to violate any permit or order issued by the commissioner or any of the provisions of this act, is guilty of a public offense and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or in a county jail not exceeding two years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

The commissioner in the exercise of his powers and the performance of his duties in accordance with this section shall charge and collect the following fees:

1. For filing an original or supplemental application for a permit to issue securities, ten dollars, plus

One-twentieth of one per cent of the amount of any excess of the aggregate value of the securities sought to be issued over twenty thousand dollars and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars;

One-twenty-fifth of one per cent of such amount in excess of fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars;

One-fiftieth of one per cent of such amount in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; and

One one-hundredth of one per cent of such amount in excess of five hundred thousand dollars.

For the purpose of determining the above fees:

(a) The value of such securities shall be deemed to be their par or face value unless the consideration for such securities is in excess of such par or face value, in which case the value will be deemed to be the amount of the consideration so received.

(b) Where the securities proposed to be issued have no nominal or par value, the value of such securities shall be deemed to be the price at which the company proposes to sell or issue the same, or the value, as alleged in the application, of the consideration (if other than money) to be received in exchange therefor; provided, however, until a new value shall have been established, that each share of no par value stock proposed to be issued shall be deemed to have a value equal to the value which has been established by previous sales for money or other property of other shares of the same class.

(c) Rights, warrants or other certificates evidencing stockholders' rights to purchase additional securities shall be deemed to have a value equal to the difference between the selling price of the securities represented by such rights, warrants or other certificates and the market value of the securities so represented at the date of filing of application.

(d) Where an application is made to issue securities containing a provision entitling the holder or holders thereof to convert or exchange the same for a different class of securities, the value of the securities to be so issued shall be deemed to be an amount equal to twice the amount of the consideration to be received for the securities containing the conversion or exchange provision.

2. For filing any application for a broker's certificate twenty-five dollars.

3. For filing any application for an agent's certificate five dollars.

4. For any examination, audit, or investigation, ten dollars per day or fraction thereof, if made by the commissioner, or the actual amount of the salary or other compensation paid to any deputy or other employee of the commissioner, if made by a deputy or other employee, for each day or fraction thereof that such commissioner, deputy, or other employee shall necessarily be absent from his office for the purpose of making such examination, audit, or investigation, plus the actual amount of expenses reasonably incurred in the performance of such work.

5. For filing any application for an amendment to an existing permit to issue securities, or for a permit to negotiate for the sale of securities, ten dollars.

No fees shall be charged or collected for copies of papers, records, or official documents furnished to public officers for use in their official capacity or for the reports of the commissioner in the ordinary course of distribution.

AMENDMENT NUMBER SIX.

On page 8, line 21, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out the comma following the word "period", and the word "and", and insert in lieu thereof a semicolon and the following: "the principal of said unpaid assessments shall thereafter become due and payable to said treasurer in equal annual payments on the first day of July of each year, and the first of which shall be due on the first day of July next following the date of such bond. The interest on said unpaid assessments shall be payable on the first day of July of each year, the first payment of which shall be due on the first day of July next following the date of such bond. In the event it is provided in the resolution of intention that the first payment of principal shall become due at a date following the first day of July next following the date of said bond, then in that event an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be due on the date so fixed and provided and on the first day of July each year thereafter until the whole is paid. Such bonds shall".

AMENDMENT NUMBER SEVEN.

On page 9, commencing with line 51, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out all printed matter down to and including line 19 on page 10 thereof, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SEC. 4. Section 5 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. The city treasurer shall enter in a book kept for that purpose in his office, a record of each bond issued hereunder, specifying the date of its issue, the amount for which issued, to whom delivered, its duration and a description of the lot against which issued. Payments of principal and interest on account of any bond issued hereunder shall be made to the city treasurer, who shall keep a separate account of all such payments (entering the same in the record herein required to be kept), and place the same in appropriate funds for the payment of principal and interest of the bonds on account of which paid, and who shall, upon the surrender of the coupons attached to said bond, pay to the holder thereof, or his order, the amount called for by said coupons out of the funds in his possession applicable thereto.

The owner of or any person interested in any lot or parcel of land upon which a bond has been issued under the terms of this act may at any time before commencement of proceedings for sale pay off such bond and discharge the land described in the bond from the lien of the assessment, by paying to the city treasurer, for the holder of such bond, the amount then unpaid on the principal sum thereof, with interest thereon calculated up to the due date of the next maturing interest coupon at the rate named in the bond, together with interest for six months at the rate named in the bond. Upon such payment being made to the city treasurer he shall forthwith mark paid in his record of such bond the assessment to represent which such bond was issued, and thereupon the lien of said assessment shall cease and the city treasurer shall forthwith notify the holder of the bond and call in the same. The city treasurer shall enter in his record of such bond the amount paid and the date of payment, and upon the lien of the assessment being extinguished as aforesaid, shall cancel said bond and file it in his office."

Sec. 5. Section 7 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 7. Improvement bonds, or any number of such bonds issued hereunder, except as otherwise provided in section 9 hereof, shall be sold to the highest cash bidder after advertising for bids, which advertisement shall be published for at least three times in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city, or if there be no such newspaper, then such advertisement shall be published once in a weekly or semiweekly newspaper so published and circulated; provided, however, that said bonds shall not be sold for less than the amounts of the assessments for which they were issued. In the event that it is provided in the resolution of intention that the bonds shall be issued at a maximum rate of interest leaving the exact rate of interest at which the bonds are to be issued and sold to be determined at the sale of such bonds, then the notice provided for in this section shall state that said bonds will bear interest at a rate not to exceed the maximum rate therefor named in said resolution, stating the same. Upon the issuance of said bonds by the treasurer, the city council shall advertise for the sale of said bonds, calling for bids therefor and fixing a time for the receipt of bids. At the time fixed for the receipt of such bids, or as soon thereafter as the city council can conveniently do so, it shall publicly open, examine and declare the same. Said bonds shall be sold to the best responsible bidder for cash therefor, and consideration shall be given to the rate of interest at which the bonds are offered to be purchased and the premium offered, if any. The rate of interest at which said bonds are sold shall not exceed the maximum rate named in the resolution of intention; and the rate of interest at which the legislative body sells said bonds shall thereupon be fixed as the rate of interest therefor, and such fixing and determination of such rate of interest shall be final and conclusive. If any bond be sold for an amount in excess of the amount for which it was issued, such excess shall be paid into the general fund of the city.

SEC. 6. A new section to be numbered 7a is hereby added to said act, to read as follows:

Sec. 7a. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3 of said act, as amended by this act, and notwithstanding the provisions of any ordinance or resolution relating to the issuance of improvement bonds, as permitted by said act, passed prior to the date this act becomes effective, the city council of any city shall, at any time prior to the date of the re-creation of the assessment roll for any work or improvement for which bonds may be issued under the provisions of said act, have the power to provide by resolution that bonds may be issued under and in accordance with said act as amended by this act for any work or improvement the proceedings for which shall have been commenced prior to the date of this act becomes effective. Said resolution shall contain the identical provisions relative to bonds required to be set forth in the resolution of intention as required by section 3 of said act as amended by this act. Bonds issued under this section shall be issued in the manner and form prescribed in section 4 of said act as amended by this act, and such bonds shall be subject to all of the provisions of said act as amended by this act."

The roll was called, and Senate amendments to Assembly Bill No. 363 were concurred in by the following vote:

AYES—Adams, Anderson, Arnold, Badham, Baum, Brock, Byrne, Cloudman, Cloudsley, Collier, Craig, Crawford, Cronin, Crowley, Deuel, DeYoe, Dillinger, Easley, Eddy, Emmett, Feeley, Feigenbaum, Fisher, Flynn, Fry, Gilmore, Harper, Hawes, Hensinger, Hoffman, Jespersen, Jewett, Jones, Jost, Keaton, Kline, Little, Lottrell, Lyons, McDonough, McGinley, McGuinness, Meeker, Miller, Eleanor, Miller, James A., Mixer, Moran, Morrison, Nielsen, Noyes, Olin, Parkman, Patterson, Quigley, Remdollar, Roberts, Roland, Scofield, Sewell, Snyder, Spalding, Stockwell, West, Williamson, Witter, Wright, Young, and Mr. Speaker—68

MR. SPEAKER: I am directed to inform your honorable body that the Senate amended, and on this day passed as amended, Assembly Bill No. 790—An act to amend section 564 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the appointment of receivers—and respectfully requests your honorable body to concur in said amendments.

J. A. BEEK, Secretary of Senate,
By PAUL MASON, Assistant Secretary.

The question being put: Shall the Assembly concur in the following Senate amendments to Assembly Bill No. 790?

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

On page 1, line 5, of the printed bill, strike out all of the printed matter down to and including the semicolon in line 12, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"1. In an action by a vendor to set aside a fraudulent purchase of real or personal property, or by a creditor holding a lien to subject any property or fund to his lien, or between partners or any other joint or common owners of a business, property, or funds, or the proceeds thereof, where the interest of the applicant for such appointment is apparent and the probability of loss, damage, waste or deterioration of the business, property, or fund, or the misappropriation or loss of such fund, is shown.

2. In an action for foreclosure of a mortgage or for the foreclosure of a deed of trust, and sale of the property mortgaged or held in trust where it appears that the debt thereby secured is due and unpaid or that any condition thereof has been broken and the property upon which it is a lien is insufficient in value to insure the payment of the debt; and in an action to set aside or avoid a mortgage or trust deed or to restrain a foreclosure of a mortgage or the exercise of the power of sale in a trust deed where it appears that the property upon which such mortgage is a lien or which is held in trust is likely to be insufficient in value to satisfy the debt thereby secured, or is in danger of waste, destruction or depreciation, or that the rents and issues thereof are being misappropriated or diverted to purposes other than the discharge of such debt."

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

On page 1, line 25, of the printed bill, strike out all of the printed matter down to and including the period on page 2, line 11, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"3 After judgment, to carry the judgment into effect, or to dispose of property according to the judgment, or to preserve or protect it pending appeal, or in proceedings in aid of judgment after the return of execution unsatisfied, or where the judgment debtor refuses to apply his property to the satisfaction of the judgment.

4. In cases where a corporation has been dissolved, or has become insolvent or is in imminent danger of insolvency, or when a majority of the board of directors of a corporation or the owners of more than one-half of its voting capital stock shall have been indicted on charges of fraud or other criminal conduct arising out of the management of the corporation's affairs, or where a corporation has incurred liability to forfeiture of its charter or has forfeited its charter.

5. In an action of unlawful detainer in those cases in which the superior court has original jurisdiction.

6 In actions for divorce, annulment of marriage, separate maintenance or support of minor children, where it appears necessary for the enforcement of an order or a judgment, or for the protection of the rights of any party or of the rights of minor children of any party.

7. At the instance of an attaching creditor or creditors when the property attached is of a perishable nature or is otherwise in danger of waste, impairment or destruction or where the debtor has absconded or abandoned the property and it is necessary to conserve or protect it, or to dispose of it immediately.

8. In all other cases where it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or judge that irreparable injury or damage is likely to result unless a receiver be appointed and for which no other adequate remedy exists."

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE.

On page 2, lines 49 and 50, of the printed bill, strike out the following: "has incurred liability to forfeiture of its charter or".

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, as amended in Assembly March 22, 1929, strike out all of lines 1 to 8, inclusive, and also strike out all of page 2, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SECTION 1. Section 19 of the juvenile court law, approved June 5, 1915, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 19. In counties of the first class and fifteenth class the judge of the juvenile court may appoint referees in juvenile court matters. Said referees shall have the usual power of referees in chancery cases in all such cases submitted to them by the court; shall hear the testimony of witnesses and certify to the judge of the juvenile court their findings upon the case submitted to them, together with their recommendation as to the judgment or order to be made in the case in question.

The court, after notice of the presentation of such findings and recommendation, to the parents of such person, may make the order recommended by the referee, or any other order in the judgment of the court required by the findings of the referee, or may hear additional testimony, or may set aside said findings and hear the case anew.

In appointing a referee for the trial of females a female referee shall be appointed where possible. Such referee shall serve without compensation save that in counties of the first class having charters, the boards of supervisors shall fix the compensation for at least two such referees; and in counties of the fifteenth class such referee shall receive compensation at the rate of ten dollars per day to be paid out of the county treasury upon an order of court; provided, however, that said referee shall not be compensated for more than two days' services rendered in any one calendar month. Where a case has been submitted to a referee, as herein provided, without any previous order for temporary custody having been made, the referee shall from time to time, recommend to the court such order or orders for temporary custody as may seem necessary. Thereupon such order shall be made unless the court shall determine otherwise.

In counties of the fifteenth class it shall be the duty of the county clerk to provide one female deputy county clerk who shall attend upon the hearings held by the female referee as clerk and it shall be the duty of the sheriff to provide one female deputy sheriff who shall attend upon hearings held by said referee as bailiff, provided that such clerk and bailiff shall not be required to attend hearings oftener than two days each month."

MR. SPEAKER: I am directed to inform your honorable body that the Senate amended, and on this day passed as amended, Assembly Bill No. 568—An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the formation, government, operation and dissolution of mosquito abatement districts in any part of the State, to facilitate the extermination of mosquitoes, flies and other insects; and to provide for the assessment, levy, collection and disbursement of taxes therein," approved May 29, 1915, as amended, by amending sections 2, 3, 4, 7, 8 and 9 thereof, and adding new sections thereto to be numbered 3a, 3b, 3c, 7a, 7b, 7c, 7d, 7e, 12, 13 and 14, relating to the formation, government, operation, consolidation and dissolution of such districts, whether situate in one or more than one county, and providing for the annexation of territory thereto—and respectfully requests your honorable body to concur in said amendments.

J. A. BEEK, Secretary of Senate.
By PAUL MASON, Assistant Secretary.

The question being put: Shall the Assembly concur in the following Senate amendments to Assembly Bill No. 568?

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

In the title of the printed bill, as amended in Assembly March 20, 1929, strike out lines 7 to 11, inclusive, of the title and insert in lieu thereof the following: "as amended, by amending sections 2, 3, 4, 7, 8 and 9 thereof, and adding new sections thereto to be numbered 3a, 3b, 3c, 7a, 7b, 7c, 7d, 7e, 12, 13 and 14, relating to the formation, government, operation, consolidation and dissolution of such districts, whether situate in one or in more than one county, and providing for the annexation of territory thereto"

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, as amended in Assembly March 20, 1929, strike out lines 1 to 15, inclusive; also strike out all of pages 2 to 9, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SECTION 1. Section 2 of the act entitled "An act to provide for the formation, government, operation and dissolution of mosquito abatement districts in any part of the state, to facilitate the extermination of mosquitoes, flies and other insects; and to provide for the assessment, levy, collection and disbursement of taxes therein," approved May 29, 1915, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. Any county or counties, or portion thereof, in this state, whether including incorporated territory or not, having a population of not less than one hundred inhabitants, may be created a mosquito abatement district under the provisions of this act by proceeding as herein provided

Sec. 2. Section 3 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. A petition, which may consist of any number of separate instruments, shall be presented at a regular meeting of the board of supervisors of the county in which the proposed mosquito abatement district, or the greater portion thereof, is located, signed by the registered voters within the boundaries of the proposed district, equal in number to at least ten per cent of the number of votes cast in said proposed district for the office of governor of the state at the last general election prior to the presenting of the petition; provided, that if one or more municipal corporations, or part thereof, be included in such proposed mosquito abatement district, such petition must be signed by registered voters of each municipality, or part thereof, and of the unincorporated territory, if any, equal in number in each, respectively, to ten per cent of the votes cast therein for governor at said last general election, and in addition thereto the common council, board of trustees or other governing body of each such municipality, shall by resolution duly authenticated, request the inclusion of such incorporated territory in such district; further, that if said proposed district includes two or more counties, or portions thereof, the petition must be signed by registered voters of each such county, or portion thereof, equal in number in each county, or portion thereof, respectively, to ten per cent of the votes cast therein for governor at said last general election

Sec. 3. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 3a and to read as follows:

Sec. 3a Such petition shall set forth and describe the proposed boundary of such district, and shall pray that the same be created under the provisions of this act, and the text of such petition shall be published for at least two weeks before the time at which the same is to be presented in a newspaper printed and published in the county where the petition is presented, and also a newspaper printed and published in each municipality or part thereof included in such proposed district, and if there be no newspaper published in any such municipality the text of such petition shall be posted for the same length of time as required to be published, in three public places within such municipality or part thereof included in such proposed district, and the text of such petition so published or posted shall have annexed thereto a notice stating the time of the meeting of the board of supervisors at which the same will be presented. If any portion of the proposed district lies within another county or counties, then said petition and notice shall be likewise published in a newspaper printed and published in each of such other counties. When contained upon more than one instrument, one copy only of such petition need be published and posted. No more than five of the names attached to said petition need appear in such publication or posting of said petition and notice, but the number of signers shall be stated.

With such publication there shall also be published, and if posted, there shall also be posted, a notice of the time of the meeting of the board when such petition will be considered, and that all persons interested therein may then appear and be heard. At such time the board of supervisors shall hear the petition and those appearing thereon, and also all protests and objections to the same, and may adjourn such hearing from time to time, not exceeding two months in all. No defect in the contents of the petition or in the title to or form of the notice or signatures, or lack of signatures thereto, shall vitiate any proceedings thereon, provided such petition or petitions have a sufficient number of qualified signatures attached thereto.

SEC. 4. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 3b and to read as follows:

Sec. 3b. On the final hearing said board shall make such changes in the proposed boundaries as may be deemed advisable and shall define and establish such boundaries; provided, that if said board deems it proper to include therein any territory not included within the said proposed boundaries, they shall first cause notice of their intention so to do, to be mailed to each owner of land within said territory proposed to be included whose name appears as such on the last completed assessment roll of the county wherein said territory lies, addressed to such owner at his address given on such assessment roll, or if no address is so given, then to his last known address; or if it be not known, then at the county seat of the county in which his land lies, which said notice shall describe the territory so proposed to be included, and shall fix a time, not less than two weeks from the date of mailing thereof, when all persons interested may appear before said board and be heard; and further, provided, that the boundaries lying within a municipality shall not be altered unless the municipal board of such municipality shall, by resolution, assent to the alteration of such boundaries therein.

SEC. 5. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 3c and to read as follows:

Sec. 3c. Upon such hearing of such petition the board shall determine whether or not the public necessity or welfare of the proposed territory and of the inhabitants thereof requires the formation of such district, and shall also determine whether or not said petition complies with the provisions of this act, and for that purpose must hear all competent and relevant testimony offered in support of or in opposition thereto. A finding of the board of supervisors in favor of the genuineness and sufficiency of the petition and notice shall be final and conclusive against all persons except the State of California, upon suit commenced by the attorney general. If, from the testimony adduced before said board, it appears to said board that the public necessity or welfare requires the formation of such district, the said board shall, by an order entered on its minutes, declare such to be its finding, and shall further declare and order that the territory within the boundaries so fixed and determined, be created a mosquito abatement district, under an appropriate name to be selected by said board, which name shall contain the words "mosquito abatement district." The county clerk shall immediately cause to be filed for record in the office of the county recorder of each county in which any portion of the lands embraced in such district is situated, and must also forward to each board of supervisors of each of the other counties, if any, in which any portion of the district is situated, and also must cause to be filed with the secretary of state a certified copy of such order of the board of supervisors, and from and after the date of the filing of such certified copy with the secretary of state, the district named therein shall be deemed incorporated as a mosquito abatement district, with all the rights, privileges and powers set forth in this act, or necessarily incident thereto.

SEC. 6. Section 4 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4. Within thirty days after the said filing with the secretary of state of the certificate of incorporation of said district, a governing board of trustees for said district shall be appointed. Said board shall be appointed as follows:

(a) If the district is situate within one county only and consists wholly of unincorporated territory, five trustees therefor shall be appointed by the board of supervisors of the county;

(b) If the district is situate entirely within one county and includes incorporated and unincorporated territory one trustee shall be appointed from the district at large by the board of supervisors of the county and one trustee from each municipality, the whole or part of which is situate in the district, by the governing body of such municipality; provided, that if the board of trustees thereby created consists of less than five members then the board of supervisors shall appoint from the district at large enough additional members to make a board of five trustees.

(c) If the district is situate in two or more counties and is comprised wholly of unincorporated territory, one trustee shall be appointed from each county or portion of a county situate in the district, by the board of supervisors; provided, that if the board of trustees thereby created consists of less than five members then the board of supervisors of the county in which the greater portion of the district is situate shall appoint from such district at large enough additional members to make a board of five trustees;

(d) If the district is situate in two or more counties and consists both of incorporated and unincorporated territory one trustee shall be appointed by the board of supervisors of each of said counties from that portion of the district lying in each of such counties respectively, and one trustee from each municipality or portion thereof situate within the district, by the governing body of such municipalities respectively; provided, that if the board of trustees thereby created shall consist of less than five members, then the board of supervisors in which the greater portion of the district is situated shall appoint from the district at large enough additional members to make a board of five trustees. The governing board of such district shall be called "The board of trustees of-----mosquito abatement district." Each trustee appointed by a municipal board shall be an elector of the municipality from which he is appointed, and a resident of that portion of the municipality which is situate within the district. Each trustee appointed from a county or portion of a county shall be an elector thereof and a resident of that portion of the county which is situate within the district. Each trustee appointed at large shall be an elector of the district.

All such trustees shall hold office for the term of two years from and after the second day of the calendar year succeeding their appointment; provided, however, that the first board of trustees appointed in any district under the provisions of this act shall at their first meeting so classify themselves by lot that one-half of their number, if the total membership is an even number, and if uneven then that a bare majority of their number shall go out of office at the expiration of one year and the remainder at the expiration of two years from the second day of the calendar year next succeeding their appointment.

SEC. 7. Section 7 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 7. The board of trustees of each mosquito abatement district shall at least fifteen days before the first day of the month in which the board of supervisors of the county in which such district is situate, is required by law to levy the amount of taxes required for county purposes, furnish to the board of supervisors and to the county auditor, respectively, or if the district is not entirely within one county then as hereinafter provided to the board of supervisors and auditor of each county in which any portion of the district is situated, an estimate in writing of the amount of money necessary for all purposes required under the provisions of this act during the next ensuing fiscal year.

SEC. 8. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 7a, and to read as follows:

Sec. 7a. If the district is in more than one county the total estimate as provided for in the preceding section shall be divided by the board of trustees in proportion to the value of the taxable property of the district in each county. This value must be determined from the values of the last equalized assessment rolls of such counties. When such division of the estimate has been made the board shall furnish the supervisors and auditors of the respective counties a written statement of that part of the estimate apportioned to that county.

SEC. 9. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 7b and to read as follows:

Sec. 7b. The board of supervisors of each county wherein is situated a mosquito abatement district or any part thereof must annually, at the time of levying county taxes, levy a tax to be known as the "-----mosquito abatement district tax," sufficient to raise the amount reported to them by the district board of trustees as herein provided. The board of supervisors must determine the rate of such tax by deducting fifteen per cent for anticipated delinquencies from the total assessed value of the taxable property of the district within the county as it appears on the assessment roll of the county, and then dividing the sum reported to said board of supervisors by the board of trustees as required in that county to be raised, by the remainder of such total assessed value, provided that the maximum rate of the tax must not be greater than ten cents on each one hundred dollars of taxable property of the district in that county.

SEC. 10. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 7c and to read as follows:

Sec. 7c. Whenever it appears to the board of trustees of such district that the amount of funds required during the next ensuing fiscal year shall exceed the maximum amount which the supervisors are authorized to levy for the annual district tax, as hereinabove in this act provided, then said board of trustees may in their judgment call an election and submit to the electors of the district the question whether a tax shall be voted for raising the necessary additional funds, and notice thereof shall be published for at least four weeks prior to such election in a newspaper printed and published in such district; provided, that no particular form of ballot shall be required nor shall any informalities in conducting such election invalidate the same, if the election shall have otherwise been fairly conducted. At such election the ballots must contain the words "Shall the district vote a tax to raise the additional sum of $-----?" The board of trustees shall canvass said votes cast at such election and if a majority of the votes cast are in favor of the imposition of said tax the board of trustees must report the same to the board of supervisors of the county wherein the district is situated, stating the additional amount of money required to be raised; provided, that if the district is situated in more than one county said additional amount shall be divided by the board of trustees in proportion to the value of the taxable property of the district in each county, determined from the last equalized assessment rolls of such counties, whereupon the board shall furnish the supervisors and auditors of the respective counties a written statement of that part of said additional amount apportioned to that county. The board of supervisors of each county shall at the time of levying county taxes, levy an additional tax upon all of the taxable property in the county and in the district voting such additional tax sufficient to raise the amount voted, or if the district is situate in more than one county, that portion of the additional amount apportioned to that county.

SEC. 11. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 7d and to read as follows:

Sec 7d. All taxes levied under the provisions of this act shall be computed and entered on the county assessment roll by the county auditor and collected at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes; and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of the district.

If the district is in more than one county the treasury of the county wherein the district was organized shall be the depository of all the funds of the district. For this purpose the treasurers of any other counties wherein is situated a portion of the district must, at any time, not oftener than twice each year, upon the order of the board of directors, settle with said board and pay over to the treasurer of the county where the district was organized, all moneys in their possession belonging to the district. Said last named treasurer is authorized and required to receive and receipt for the same and to place the same to the credit of the district.

SEC. 12. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 7e and to read as follows:

Sec. 7e. The funds shall be withdrawn from the county treasury upon the warrant of the board of trustees of such district signed by the president or acting president of the board, and countersigned by its secretary.

SEC. 13. Section 8 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec 8. Any territory, incorporated or unincorporated, lying adjacent and contiguous to a mosquito abatement district, whether in the same county or in different counties, may be added and annexed to such district, at any time, upon proceedings being had and taken as in this act provided. The board of trustees of such district, upon receiving a written petition therefor containing a description of the new territory sought to be annexed to such district, signed by registered voters within the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed equal in number to at least ten per cent of the number of votes cast in said territory for the office of governor of the state at the last general election prior to the presentation of the petition, must set the petition for hearing and give notice thereof by publishing a copy of the petition together with notice of the time and place set for the hearing, in one newspaper published in each county in which any part of the district or of the territory proposed to be added to the district is situated, and in one newspaper published in each municipality situate wholly or in part within the territory proposed to be added to the district; provided, that if there be no newspaper published in any such municipality then a copy of the petition and of said notice shall be posted for the same length of time in three public places within such municipality or part thereof included in said territory proposed to be annexed. Not more than five of the names attached to said petition need appear in such publication or posting, but the number of signers shall be stated. At the time set for the hearing, or at such time or times to which it may be adjourned by the board of trustees, the board of trustees of the district shall hear the petition and those appearing thereon and also all protests and objections to the same and may adjourn such hearing from time to time not exceeding two months in all. On the final hearing said board shall make such changes as by the board may be deemed advisable in the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed, and shall define and establish such boundaries, and shall determine whether or not said petition complies with the provisions of this act and for that purpose must hear all competent and relevant testimony offered in support of or in opposition thereto. The failure of any person interested in said district, or in the matter of the proposed annexation of territory to said district, to protest or object to the said proposed annexation shall be deemed and taken as an assent on his part to the change in the boundaries in the district as prayed for in the petition or to such a change thereof as will include a part of said lands. The filing of such petition with said board as aforesaid shall be deemed and taken as an assent on the part of each and all of such petitioners to such a change in the boundaries in the district as may include the whole or any portion of the lands described in the petition. If upon the hearing before said board it appears that the petition and the proceedings thereon comply with the provisions of this act and that it is desirable and to the interests of the district and of the territory proposed to be annexed that the territory proposed to be annexed with the boundaries as fixed and determined by the board should be annexed to and become a part of the district and the board so finds, the board shall order the boundaries of the district to be changed so that said territory, or such portion or portions thereof as the board shall deem it desirable and for the best interests of the district and of said territory to include, shall be included within the district. The order shall describe the boundaries of the land so included within the district and also that portion of the boundary of the district which coincides with the boundary of the land so included, and for the purposes of said order the board may cause a survey of such portion of said boundaries as may be deemed necessary. If more than one petition for the annexation of territory has been presented the board may in one order include within the district any number of separate tracts of land. Said order shall be entered in the minutes of the board and a certified copy thereof shall be filed with the secretary of state and with the county clerk and with the county recorder of each county in which such mosquito abatement district or any part thereof is situated. From and after the date of the filing and recording of the certified copies of such order the territory named therein shall be deemed added and annexed to and form a part of said mosquito abatement district, with all the rights, privileges and powers set forth in this act and necessarily incident thereto. If the property so proposed to be annexed is included within a municipality, consent to such annexation shall first be obtained from the governing body of such municipality, and an authenticated copy of the resolution or order of such board so consenting to such annexation, shall be attached to the petition, and be made a part thereof.

From and after the annexation of territory to a mosquito abatement district the board of trustees shall consist of the number and shall be appointed in the same manner as prescribed by the provisions of section 4 of this act, for a district originally formed with boundaries the same as the boundaries of the district after such annexation; provided, that members of the board of trustees in office at the time of such annexation shall continue to serve as trustees during the remainder of the terms for which they have been respectively appointed.

SEC. 14. Section 9 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 9. The district may at any time be dissolved upon the vote of two-thirds of the qualified electors thereof, upon an election called by its board of trustees upon the question of dissolution, and the proposition which shall be submitted to the electors at such election shall be as follows: "Shall the district be dissolved?" Such election must be called and held; and notice thereof shall be published for at least four weeks prior to such election in a newspaper printed and published in such district. If two-thirds of the votes at such election shall be in favor of the dissolution of the district, the board of trustees shall certify such fact to the secretary of state, and upon receipt of such last mentioned certificate, the secretary of state shall thereupon issue his certificate reciting that the mosquito abatement district (naming it) has been dissolved, and a copy of such certificate of the secretary of state shall be transmitted to and filed with the county clerk of each county in which such mosquito abatement district, or any part thereof, is situated. From and after the date of such certificate the district named therein shall be deemed discontinued, and the property of the district shall thereupon vest in the county, wherein said district is situate; provided, that if the district at the time of its dissolution is situate wholly within the boundaries of a single municipality its property shall thereupon vest in such municipality; provided, further, that if the district comprises unincorporated territory alone and is situate within two or more counties, then its property shall be ratable apportioned amongst the several counties in proportion to the assessed value of the property included within the district in each county as shown upon the last equalized county assessment rolls; provided, further, that if the district comprises incorporated and unincorporated territory whether situate in one or more counties, then, in such event, its property shall be ratable apportioned amongst the municipality or municipalities and the county or counties in proportion to the property in the district within each municipality or county respectively as shown upon the last equalized county assessment rolls; provided, however, that any real property, easements or rights of way, belonging to said district shall, in such event, remain the property of the municipality wherein the same is situate, if situated within incorporated territory, otherwise the same shall vest in and remain the property of the county in which situate.

It is provided, however, that if at the time of the election to dissolve a mosquito abatement district there be outstanding any indebtedness of the district then in such event the vote to dissolve the district shall dissolve the same for all purposes except only the levy and collection of taxes for the payment of such indebtedness and for the payment of expenses of assessing, levying and collecting the same and from the time such district is thus dissolved and until such indebtedness with the interest thereon, if any, is fully paid, satisfied and discharged the board of supervisors of the county in which the district or the greater part thereof is situate is constituted, ex officio, the board of trustees of the district, and it is hereby made the duty of such board to levy or cause to be levied such taxes and perform such other acts as may be necessary in order to raise money for the payment of such indebtedness and such interest.

SEC. 15. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 12, and to read as follows:

Sec. 12. Any two or more mosquito abatement districts having territory lying contiguous may be consolidated as in this act provided. Whenever in the judgment of the board of trustees of a mosquito abatement district it is for the best interest of such district that it be consolidated with one or more other districts organized under the provisions of this act it may by a two-thirds vote of the trustees adopt a resolution reciting such facts, declaring the advisability of such consolidation and the willingness of the board to consolidate, and forward a copy thereof to the board of trustees of each of the other districts with which consolidation is proposed. It shall thereupon be the duty of the board of trustees of each of such other districts to consider said proposal and give notice of its decision thereon to the board making the proposal. If each of such other boards, by two-thirds vote of its membership, adopts a resolution in favor of consolidation and declaring its willingness to consolidate, it shall be the duty of the board of trustees of each district proposed to be consolidated forthwith to call a special election in its district at which shall be submitted to the electors of such district the question whether or not said consolidation shall be effected. The said election shall be called and conducted, and the returns thereof canvassed and declared so far as practicable in accordance with the requirements of this act for submission to the voters of a district of the question whether or not the district shall vote a tax to raise an additional sum of money in any year. The ballot shall contain the words "Consolidated—Yes" and "Consolidated—No" or words equivalent thereto, and if a majority of the votes cast in each district are in favor of consolidation then such districts shall be consolidated.

The returns of the election in each district shall be declared by the board of trustees thereof, whereupon each such board of trustees shall cause the results thereof to be certified to the board of supervisors of the county in which the districts or the greater portion of the land therein, as consolidated, are situated. If upon such returns it appears that a majority of the votes cast in each district are in favor of consolidation, then said board of supervisors shall so find and declare by order entered in its minutes, and cause a certified copy of said order to be transmitted to the board of supervisors of each of the other counties, if any, in which any portion of the district, as consolidated, is situate, and cause a like copy to be recorded in the office of the county recorder of each of the counties in which any portion of the district is situate, and also cause to be filed a like copy in the office of the secretary of state. From and after the date of such transmission, recording and filing, the territory within such districts shall be deemed merged and consolidated into and form a single consolidated mosquito abatement district with all the rights, privileges and powers set forth in this act and necessarily incident thereto.

From and after such consolidation the board of trustees of the consolidated district shall consist of the same number and shall be appointed in the same manner as prescribed by the provisions of section 4 of this act for a district originally formed hereunder, and having boundaries the same as the boundaries of said district as consolidated: provided, that the members of the boards of trustees of the several districts thus consolidated who are in office at the time of consolidation shall continue to serve as members of the board of trustees of the consolidated district during the remainder of the terms for which they have been respectively appointed.

SEC 16. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered 13, and to read as follows:

Sec. 13. In the original resolution proposing consolidation the board of trustees shall specify the name proposed for the consolidated district, and if such consolidation is effected the consolidated district under said name shall succeed to all of the rights, privileges and properties of all of the districts participating in such consolidation, and shall be subject to all of the indebtedness thereof.

SEC 17. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 14, and to read as follows:

Sec. 14. Whenever used in this act the term "county" means and includes any county or city and county, and the term "counties" means and includes any and all "counties" or "cities and counties" in this state."

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE.

On page 18 of the printed bill, strike out lines 45 to 48, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "consolidated district shall have and exercise all the rights, powers, duties, privileges and obligations of a new district formed under the provisions of this act: provided, that if at the time of consolidation there be outstanding any indebtedness of any former districts included in such consolidated district, such indebtedness shall be paid in the same manner as provided in section 9 of this act for the payment of indebtedness upon dissolution of a district, and such consolidated district shall not be liable for any indebtedness of any former districts included therein which was outstanding at the time of consolidation, and no property within any of the former districts shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness of any other of such former districts contracted prior to or existing at the date of such consolidation."

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE

On page 2 of the printed bill, as amended in Assembly March 20, 1929, strike out lines 31 to 53 inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"(b) Whenever any lot or parcel of land affected is subdivided, or the ownership of a portion of such parcel of land is transferred to another person, the legislative body which conducted the proceeding may in its discretion order the street superintendent, or other officer charged with the duty of making such assessments, to file with the clerk of said legislative body an amended assessment of the original parcel of land affected by such subdivision or transfer of ownership, segregating and apportioning the unpaid installments of said original assessment in accordance with the benefits to said portions of said original parcel. The person so appointed shall file with the clerk of the legislative body a report and an amended assessment of such parcels of land as have been ordered by said legislative body, together with a map or plat showing how such parcels have been divided. The total amount of the assessments of the several portions of any one original parcel shall be equal to the unpaid assessments upon said original parcel of land. Upon the filing of said report and amended assessment the clerk of said legislative body shall fix a time and place for a hearing upon said amended assessment and shall give notice of said hearing by publication by two insertions in a newspaper. Said notice shall contain a statement of the time fixed for the hearing upon said amended assessment and any objections thereto, which time shall not be less than fifteen days from the first publication of said notice. Said notice shall contain a reference to the original assessment and to the proceedings, and shall refer to the report and map or plat of the amended assessment for particulars and no other description shall be necessary. All persons interested in said original assessment, or in the lands affected thereby or in the bonds secured by issuance thereof, may, at the time of said hearing or at the time to which said hearing may be conducted, appear and protest against the same. At such hearing said legislative body shall have full power to hear and determine all objections as to the division of such assessments and shall confirm or modify the same. All determinations and decisions of said legislative body upon notice and hearing, as aforesaid, shall be conclusive upon all persons entitled to object under the provisions of this section. Final action of said legislative body upon said report and amended assessment shall be taken on or before the fifteenth day of July of any year. Upon confirmation or modification in accordance with the order of the legislative body the clerk shall file such amended assessment with the auditor, who shall annually thereafter enter upon the assessment roll the installments becoming due on each component part of the original parcel opposite a description of the respective parcels so assessed, when collections upon said assessment are made by county officials the clerk shall transmit a copy of said amended assessment to the county auditor."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. Keaton asked as a matter of personal privilege that the following communication relative to Senate Bill No. 524 be printed in the Journal:

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, April 29, 1929.

We, the undersigned, respectively, the president and secretary, of the South Basin Property Owners Association, 403 de Young Building, San Francisco, California, hereby certify that we have authority from, and represent at the present moment, 60 per cent, by area, by private ownership, of the bona fide property owners in what is known as the South Basin area-South Basin Reclamation District, located south of Hunters Point, San Francisco, California, and that these owners are absolutely opposed at this time to Senate Bill No. 524, as now amended.

Our opposition is based upon our knowledge of the situation and our desire to be allowed to proceed with the progressive development of our property along our present line and in a safe, intelligent and businesslike manner.

The enactment of Senate Bill No. 524 into a law will hinder us in the contract we are now working upon which provides for the reclamation of several units aggregating some two hundred acres.

SOUTH BASIN PROPERTY OWNERS ASSOCIATION.

By AUGUSTUS TAYLOR, President

F. H. AINSWORTH, Secretary

State of California, City and County of San Francisco, ss.

On this 29th day of April, in the year 1929, before me, Charles R. Holton, a notary public in and for said city and county, residing therein, duly commissioned and sworn, personally appeared Augustus Taylor and F. H. Ainsworth, known to me to be the president and secretary, respectively, of South Basin Property Owners Association, the association that executed the within and foregoing instrument, and to be the officers who executed the said instrument on behalf of said association therein named, and they acknowledged to me that said association executed the same.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal at my office in the said city and county of San Francisco, the day and year in this certificate last above written

CHARLES R. HOLTON,
Notary Public in and for the City and County of San Francisco,
State of California

My commission expires October 9, 1930

MOTION TO RECONSIDER.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 8.

Relative to the framing and ratifying of municipal charters and amendments thereto.

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its forty-eighth regular session beginning on the seventh day of January, 1929, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof, proposes to the people of the State that section 8 of article XI of the constitution of the State be amended to read as follows:

Sec 8 Any city or city and county containing a population of more than 3500 inhabitants, as ascertained by the last preceding census taken under the authority of the Congress of the United States or the Legislature of California, may frame a charter for its own government consistent with and subject to this constitution; and any city, or city and county having adopted a charter may adopt a new one. Any such charter shall be framed by a board of 15 freeholders chosen by the electors of such city at any general or special election, but no person shall be eligible as a candidate for such board unless he shall have been, for the five years next preceding, an elector of said city. An election for choosing freeholders may be called by a two-thirds vote of the legislative body of such city, and, on presentation of a petition signed by not less than 15 per cent of the registered electors of such city, the legislative body shall call such election at any time not less than 30 or more than 60 days from date of the filing of the petition. Any such petition shall be verified by the authority having charge of the registration records of such city or city and county, and the expenses of such verification shall be provided by the legislative body thereof. Candidates for the office of freeholders shall be nominated either in such manner as may be provided for the nomination of officers of the municipal government or by petition, substantially in the same manner as may be provided by general laws for the nomination by petition of electors of candidates for public offices to be voted for at general elections. The board of freeholders shall, within 120 days after the result of the election is declared, prepare and propose a charter for the government of such city; but the said period of 120 days may, with the consent of the legislative body of such city be extended by such board not exceeding a total of 60 days. The charter so prepared shall be signed by a majority of the board of freeholders and filed in the office of the clerk of the legislative body of said city. The legislative body of said city shall, within 15 days after such filing, cause such charter to be published once in the official paper of said city; (or in case there be no such paper, in a paper of general circulation); and shall cause copies of such charter to be printed in convenient pamphlet form, and shall, until the date fixed for the election upon such charter, advertise in one or more papers of general circulation published in said city a notice that such copies may be had upon application therefor. Such charter shall be submitted to the electors of said city at a date to be fixed by the board of freeholders, before such filing and designated on such charter, either at a special election held not less than 60 days from the completion of the publication of such charter as above provided, or at the general election next following the expiration of said 60 days. If a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon at such general or special election shall vote in favor of such proposed charter, it shall be deemed to be ratified, and shall be submitted to the Legislature, if then in session, or at the next regular or special session of the Legislature. The Legislature shall by a concurrent resolution approve or reject such charter as a whole, without power of alteration or amendment; and if approved by a majority of the members elected to each house it shall become the organic law of such city or city and county, and supersede any existing charter and all laws inconsistent therewith. One copy of the charter so ratified and approved shall be filed with the Secretary of State, one with the recorder of the county in which such city is located, and one in the archives of the city; and thereafter the courts shall take judicial notice of the provisions of such charter. The charter of any city or city and county may be amended by proposals therefor submitted by the legislative body of the city on its own motion or on petition signed by 15 per cent of the registered electors, or both. Such proposals shall be submitted to the electors at either a special election called for that purpose or at any general or special election. Petitions for the submission of any amendment shall be filed with the legislative body of the city or city and county not less than 60 days prior to the election. The signatures on such petition shall be verified by the authority having charge of the registration records of such city or city and county, and the expenses of such verification shall be provided by the legislative body thereof. If such petitions have a sufficient number of signatures the legislative body of the city or city and county shall so submit the amendment or amendments so proposed to the electors. Amendments proposed by the legislative body and amendments proposed by petition of the electors may be submitted at the same election. The amendments so submitted shall be advertised in the same manner as herein provided for the advertisement of a proposed charter, and the election thereon, held at a date to be fixed by the legislative body of such city, not less than 40 nor more than 60 days after the completion of the advertising in the official paper. If a majority of the qualified voters voting on any such amendment vote in favor thereof it shall be deemed ratified, and shall be submitted to the Legislature at the regular session next following such election; and approved or rejected without power of alteration in the same manner as herein provided for the approval or rejection of a charter. In submitting any such charter or amendment separate propositions, whether alternative or conflicting, or one included within the other, may be submitted at the same time to be voted on by the electors separately, and as between those so related, if more than one receive a majority of votes, the proposition receiving the larger number of votes shall control as to all matters in conflict. It shall be competent in any charter framed under the authority of this section to provide that the municipality governed thereunder may make and enforce all laws and regulations in respect to municipal affairs, subject only to the restrictions and limitations provided in their several charters, and in respect to other matters they shall be subject to general laws. It shall be competent in any such charter, or amendment thereof, to provide for the creation of boroughs in all or any part of the territory of the city or city and county governed thereby, and to provide that each such borough may exercise such general or special municipal powers, and to be administered in such manner, as may be prescribed for each such borough in such charter; provided, however, that after the creation of any such borough, the powers thereof shall not be modified, amended or abridged in any manner without the consent of a majority of the qualified electors of such borough voting at a regular or special election.

The percentages of the registered electors herein required for the election of freeholders or the submission of amendments to charters shall be calculated upon the total vote cast in the city or city and county at the last preceding general State election; and the qualified electors shall be those whose names appear upon the registration records of the same or preceding year. The election laws of such city or city and county shall, so far as applicable, govern all elections held under the authority of this section.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 24.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to article XII of the constitution of the State of California amending section 7, and repealing sections 2, 3, 9, 11, 12 and 14 of that article

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring. That the Legislature of the State of California, at its forty-eighth regular session commencing January 7, 1929, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that article XII of the constitution of the State of California be amended as follows

Section 1 of article XII of the constitution of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1 The Legislature shall have power, by general laws and not otherwise, to provide for the formation, organization and regulation of corporations and to prescribe their powers, rights, duties and liabilities and the powers, rights, duties and liabilities of their officers and stockholders or members. All laws now in force in this State concerning corporations and all laws that may be hereafter passed pursuant to this section may be altered from time to time or repealed

For the purpose of removing existing limitations upon the power granted by section 1 of article XII of the constitution amended as herein proposed sections 2, 3, 9, 11, 12 and 14 of article XII of the constitution are hereby repealed, and section 7 of article XII of the constitution is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 7. The Legislature shall not extend any franchise, nor remit the forfeiture of any franchise, of any quasi public corporation, but may provide by general laws, applicable to all corporations formed for a limited period, for the extension of the term of existence of any corporation.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 12

Requesting the United States Senate to pass a resolution, relating to the appointment of a committee to investigate the organization and operation of public utility corporations supplying telephone communications

WHEREAS, It seems to the best interests of the people of California that an investigation be made by the United States government of all corporations supplying telephone communications, with a view of securing facts and information which will assist the California State Railroad Commission in determining and fixing just and equitable rates for telephone service, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby respectfully requests that Congress cause a federal investigation to be conducted into the affairs and operations of telephone companies, including controlled, affiliated and subsidiary companies and organizations for the purpose of ascertaining if the relations between these companies and their subsidiaries constitute a monopoly in the production or selling of telephone service and telephone equipment and supplies throughout the United States and that the said investigation also be directed towards ascertaining the cost of production and fair price of telephone apparatus, equipment and supplies, the nature and value of the services rendered any and all subsidiary, controlled or affiliated companies and that the investigation determine if a fair division of revenues derived from toll service between connecting lines of different telephone companies throughout the United States is made; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges the Senators and Representatives in Congress from California to use all honorable means in furtherance of the adoption of such legislation and means as will secure the investigation and information herein requested; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the Senate of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and each of the members from California of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States

RESOLUTION.

By Messrs Nielsen, West and Dillinger:

WHEREAS, The Grim Reaper has called from our midst in the person of Major Charles A Swisler, a distinguished citizen of our State, and a former member of this Assembly, a member of the California bar and a well known and able counsellor one who has won distinction in the military service of our great State, bearing the rank of Major, and one whose admirable personal traits and character have won for him a warm place in the hearts of all who knew him; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved family our deepest sympathy; that when we do this day adjourn we do so out of respect to the memory of our distinguished departed citizen that this resolution be suitably engrossed, and that the Chief Clerk of this Assembly transmit a copy thereof to the bereaved family.

Resolution unanimously adopted.

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE.

On page 5, between lines 5 and 6, of the printed bill, insert the following:

"SEC. 4½. Section 10 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 10. The commission shall, as soon as practicable, after determining what damages will be caused by said improvement, and, after the signing of the contract for the work, assess the total amount of all the incidental expenses of such improvement, which shall include the necessary expenses and disbursements of the commission, the cost of making the assessment, and all expenses necessarily incurred by the city in connection with the proposed improvement for maps, diagrams, plans, surveys and other matters incident thereto, upon the respective lots or parcels of land in the assessment district described in the ordinance or resolution of intention, in proportion to the benefits to be received by such lots or parcels of land, respectively, from the said improvement, and shall make and file with the clerk of the legislative body a report in writing containing the following:

1. A schedule describing the lots or parcels of property belonging to each petitioner for damages and which will be damaged by said proposed improvement, stating the amount of damage to each lot or parcel and to each separate estate or interest therein as determined by the commission, and the name of the owner of each such lot or parcel of property or of any interest or estate therein so damaged.

2. A diagram showing the assessment district, and also the boundaries and dimensions of the respective lots or parcels of land within said district, and each of such lots or parcels of land shall be given a separate number in red ink upon said diagram.

3. A proposed assessment of the total amount of damages that will be caused by said improvement, as determined by the commission, the total amount of the contract price for the work and the total amount of the incidental expenses thereof as above specified, upon the respective lots or parcels of land in said district in proportion to the benefits to be received by such lots or parcels of land, respectively, from said improvement. Said assessment shall refer to such lots or parcels of land upon said diagram by the red ink numbers thereof, and need contain no other description thereof, and shall show the names of the owners, if known, otherwise designating them as unknown; but no mistake in the name of the owner of any lot or parcel of land shall affect the validity of the assessment thereon.

In case the commissioners do not all agree, a majority of the whole number may make such report."

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, strike out said line 1, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SECTION 1. Section 831 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

831. The municipal court must, on motion, based upon a demand of the defendant therefor in writing, accompanied by an affidavit of merits, made and filed at the time he answers or demurs, change the place of trial of an action commenced in such court to another court in which such action is cognizable, as follows:

1 For the recovery of possession of real property, and for injuries thereto; to the municipal court or justice's court, if the action be cognizable in such justice's court, established in the city or township, respectively, where the real property is situated.

Where the real property is situated partly within and partly without a city in which there is established a municipal court, the plaintiff may elect whether to sue in the municipal court or the appropriate justice's court, or in the superior court, and the court so selected in the proper court for the trial of such action; provided, that all such actions must be tried in a court in which such action is cognizable, established in the county in which such real property or some part thereof is situated.

2. For the recovery of the penalty or forfeiture imposed by statute; to the municipal court or justice's court, if the action be cognizable therein, established in the city or township, respectively, where the cause of action, or some part thereof, arose; provided, said cause, or some part thereof, arose within the county in which the municipal court, in which such action is commenced, is situated; otherwise, to the court in which said action is cognizable, situated in the county where said cause of action arose; and provided, that when such penalty or forfeiture is imposed for an offense committed on a lake, river, or other stream of water, situated partly within and partly without the city in which there is established a municipal court, the plaintiff may elect whether to sue in the municipal court of such city, or in the appropriate justice's or superior court, and the court so selected is the proper court for the trial of such action.

3 Against a public officer, or person especially appointed to execute his duties, for an act done by him in virtue of his office; or against a person who, by his command or in his aid, does anything touching the duties of such officer; to the municipal or justice's court, if the action be cognizable therein, established in the city or township, respectively, where the cause, or some part thereof, arose; provided, said cause, or some part thereof, arose within the county in which the municipal court, in which such action is commenced, is situated; otherwise, to the court in which such action is cognizable, situated in the county where the cause of action arose.

4. In all other cases: to the municipal or justice's court, if the action be cognizable therein, established in the city or township, respectively, in which the defendants, or some of them, reside at the commencement of the action, if within the county in which the municipal court established in the city in which either of the parties reside, and none of the defendants reside in the city where the action is commenced; and cases in which none of the defendants reside in the county in which such action is commenced, to the municipal or justice's court, if cognizable therein, situated in the city or township, as the case may be, where the defendants, or some of them reside; otherwise to the superior court of such county.

When the action is for injury to person or personal property, or for death from wrongful act or negligence, the plaintiff may elect whether to sue in the municipal court or the appropriate justice's or superior court, having jurisdiction over the territory where the injury occurs, or the injury causing death occurs, or in which the defendants, or some of them, reside at the commencement of the action, and the court so selected is the proper court for the trial of such action.

If any person is improperly joined as a defendant, or has been made a defendant solely for the purpose of having the action tried in the municipal court established in the city where he resides, his residence must not be considered in determining the demand for change of place of trial of the action.

If none of the defendants reside in the state, or, if residing in the state and the place in which they reside is unknown to the plaintiff, the plaintiff may elect to sue in any municipal court, and the court so selected is the proper court for the trial thereof.

If the defendant is about to depart from the state, the plaintiff may elect to sue in the municipal court established in the city in which either of the parties reside, and the court so selected is the proper court for the trial thereof.

Sec. 2. Section 831b of said code is".

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

The following petitions were presented, and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Chief Clerk:

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, May 13, 1929.

*Clerk of the Assembly,
Sacramento, California*

As an American citizen, a World War veteran realizing the danger to our constitution by curbing free speech either over the radio or through the press, and realizing the danger of the proposed Rochester bill, I wish to protest the passage of Senate Bills Nos 459 and 460.

U. S. HAMBLY,
And many others.

COWELL, CALIFORNIA, May 11, 1929.

WHEREAS, It has come to our attention that a bill has been introduced in the California Legislature now in session proposing to cut down the hours which a man may work in the cement and other industries to eight hours, and

WHEREAS, We the undersigned employees of the Cowell Portland Cement Company working in the mill and its kiln room on a twelve-hour basis do not approve of any attempt to say to us how many hours we shall work and to prohibit us from working twelve hours, and

WHEREAS, The work in a cement mill is not laborious, machinery does the work and the men are operators, oilers, watchers and on duty to see that the material passes through the various stages of manufacture properly, and

WHEREAS, The fact that we are not overworked is shown by the admirable safety record which this plant has been able to maintain; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the undersigned, the men who work the twelve-hour shifts for the Cowell Portland Cement Company, are perfectly satisfied with our hours and wages as it enables us to earn that much more money to help provide more properly for our families.

RAMON JASSO,
And 60 others.

COMMUNICATION.

The following communication was received, and ordered printed in the Journal:

*Hon Charles F Reindollar,
Sacramento, California.*

DEAR CHARLIE: I received a very beautiful tribute from my fellow members of the Legislature in the form of a resolution offered by yourself. I want to assure you, and, through you, the members of the Assembly, that I was very greatly moved by their expressions—the good will, friendship and thoughtfulness so beautifully expressed. I have taken it unto myself as a piece of flattery to think that it was all sincerely intended, because there could be nothing more flattering to take unto myself the thought that I was in any way deserving of such beautiful expressions of good will.

It will be impossible for me to be with my fellow members again during this session, although I would dearly love to look in upon you during its closing hours. I can look back upon the time of our first convening in January and recall to mind the efforts of every one of my fellow members, and it is a matter of pride in my mind to think that I have been associated in the State's endeavors with such a loyal, earnest and honest body of men. There has been nothing to mar the pleasant recollections which will follow the adjournment of the forty-eighth session, and the friendships which have come to me out of its associations will always be cherished.

Whether we shall ever be thrown again together in public endeavor, it is only for fate to determine, but I feel as if I was going out of the Legislature with many cherished memories which will not be forgotten.

I have learned how friends have taken care of the measures in which I am interested, and I thank them very much for this attention.

With my best wishes for the prosperity of each of you, I am

FRANK L. COOMBS.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 30.

Approving two certain amendments to the charter of the city of San Diego, a municipal corporation in the county of San Diego, State of California, voted for and ratified by the electors of said city of San Diego at the general municipal election held therein on the second day of April, 1929.

WHEREAS, Proceedings have been had and taken for the proposal, adoption, and ratification of certain amendments, hereinafter set forth, to the charter of the city of San Diego, a municipal corporation in the county of San Diego, State of California, as set out in the certificate of the mayor and city clerk of said city of San Diego, as follows, to wit:

State of California, }
 County of San Diego, } ss
 City of San Diego, }

We, the undersigned, Harry C. Clark, mayor of the city of San Diego, and Allen H. Wright, city clerk of said city, do hereby certify and declare as follows:

The city of San Diego, in the county of San Diego, State of California, contains a population of over 75,000 inhabitants, and has been ever since the year 1889, and is now, organized and existing under and pursuant to the provisions of a freeholders' charter adopted in accordance with and by virtue of the provisions of section 8 of article XI of the constitution of the State of California, which charter was duly ratified by the qualified electors of said city at a special election held for that purpose on the second day of March, in the year 1889, in manner, form and substance as required by law, and was thereafter duly approved by joint resolution of the Legislature of the State of California, adopted on the sixteenth day of March, 1889.

The legislative body and authority of said city, being the common council thereof, did, on its own motion, by resolutions passed and adopted by said common council on the twenty-first day of January, 1929, and on the fifteenth day of February, 1929, pursuant to section 8 of article XI of the constitution of the State of California, duly propose to the qualified electors of the city of San Diego, certain amendments to the charter of said city.

The said common council did, by resolution duly passed and adopted on the fifteenth day of February, 1929, proclaim and fix the second day of April, 1929, as the date upon which all of said amendments, so proposed, would be submitted to the qualified electors of said city.

The said common council did, by Resolution No. 49118, passed by said common council on the fifteenth day of February, 1929, submit said amendments so proposed as aforesaid to the qualified electors of said city for their approval at the general municipal election held in said city on the second day of April, 1929.

The amendments so proposed and submitted to the electors of said city for their approval by said Resolution No. 49118, were, and each of them was, on the nineteenth day of February, 1929, and within fifteen days after the passage and adoption of said resolution submitting said amendments, published once in the Evening Tribune, the official newspaper of said city of San Diego.

The common council of the city of San Diego caused copies of all of said amendments to be printed in convenient pamphlet form, and from the eighteenth day of February, 1929, until the second day of April, 1929, being the date fixed for the election upon such charter amendments, did advertise a notice in the Evening Tribune, a paper of general circulation, published in the city of San Diego, that such copies of said amendments in pamphlet form were to be had upon application therefor at the office of the city clerk in the city hall of said city.

Said amendments were submitted pursuant to the terms of resolution numbered 49118 of the common council to the qualified voters of said city at the general municipal election held in said city on the second day of April, 1929, being not less than forty nor more than sixty days after the completion of the advertisement of said amendments, and of each of them, in the Evening Tribune, the official paper of the city of San Diego.

On the eighth day of April, 1929, being the first Monday following said election, at a regular meeting of the common council of said city, said common council duly and regularly canvassed the returns of said election, and duly declared the result thereof, and did thereby find and determine that those two certain charter amendments proposed in said resolutions and submitted to the electors of said city, and designated in said Resolution No. 49118, as Proposition One and Proposition Three, respectively, were, and each of them was, duly and regularly ratified by a majority of the qualified voters voting on each such amendment.

The said two certain charter amendments so ratified by the qualified voters of the city of San Diego at said election are in words as follows, to wit:

PROPOSITION ONE.

Amend article X, section 16 of the city charter, so as to read as follows:

"Section 16. Unless otherwise provided by this charter any officer, board or department authorized to appoint any deputy, clerk, assistant or employee shall have the right to remove for cause as hereinafter provided any person in the classified service so appointed who has not been continuously employed within that department for a period of six calendar months or more; provided that a notice of such discharge shall be given to said employee and the civil service commission.

No officer or employee in the classified service after six months continuous employment shall be removed or discharged except for some cause relating to his efficiency, conduct or loyalty to his oath of office and only after written charges shall have been filed and served in writing to said officer or employee and transmitted to the civil service commission and after an opportunity to be heard in his own defense at a public hearing before the civil service commission, and in accordance with the rules of said commission. The decision of the civil service commission shall be certified to the appointing officer, board or department and shall be binding upon all city officers including said officer, board or department."

PROPOSITION THREE

Amend section 5 of chapter 7 of article V of the city charter, so as to read as follows:

"Section 5. That the said common council shall levy annually, in addition to all other taxes provided for in this charter, not less than ten (10) cents nor more than sixteen (16) cents on each $100 valuation of property, for the purpose of maintaining and improving said parks, plazas and squares. At least two (2) cents on each $100 valuation of property of this special tax shall be used by the board of park commissioners exclusively for the maintenance in Balboa Park of a zoological exhibit."

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set out hands and caused the seal of the city of San Diego to be affixed this 12th day of April, 1929.

HARRY C. CLARK,

ALLEN H. WRIGHT,

City Clerk of the city of San Diego.

WHEREAS, The said proposed amendments are now submitted to the Legislature of the State of California for approval or rejection without power of alteration or amendment in accordance with section 8 of article XI of the constitution of said State; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly concurring, a majority of all the members elected to each house voting therefor and concurring therein, That said amendments to the said charter herein set forth as proposed and submitted to and adopted and ratified by the qualified electors of said city, be, and the same are, and each of them is, hereby approved as a whole, without amendment or alteration, for and as amendments, to and as part of, the charter of the said city of San Diego.

THIRD READING OF SENATE BILLS—(RESUMED).

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FORTY-FOUR.

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 44—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the constitution of said State by adding a new article to be numbered XXV thereto, relating to the construction, maintenance and operation of a salt water barrier, or a combination of a salt water barrier or bridge or other works at or near Carquinez Straits, for salinity control, flood control, navigation, domestic use, irrigation and other public uses, and for the construction of dams and other works on the Santa Ana River for flood control and water conservation, and relating to the issuance and sale of State bonds providing for and creating a fund for the carrying out of the purposes of this article; authorizing the expenditure of the moneys in said fund for the said purposes; creating an interest and sinking fund for the payment of interest on said bonds and of the redemption of the same; and making an appropriation therefor; and providing for the application on the interest and principal of said bonds of all moneys received by the State under the terms of this article; and making an appropriation of $20,000 for the expense of printing, lithographing and selling of said bonds.

AYES—Arnold, Badham, Baum, Bishop, Brock, Byrne, Cloudman, Craig, Crawford, Cronin, Crowley, Dillinger, Easley, Feeley, Feigenbaum, Fry, Gilmore, Hawes, Hoffman, Hornblower, Jones, Jost, Klune, Little, McDonough, McGinley, McGuinness, Miller, James A., Morgan, Morrison, Oliva, Quigley, Reindollar, Scofield, Seawell, Sewell, Snyder, Williamson, and Woolwine—39.

NOES—Adams, Anderson, Bernard, Bliss, Cloudsley, Collier, Crittenden, Deuel, DeYoe, Eddy, Fisher, Harper, Heisinger, Ingels, Jespersen, Jewett, Keaton, Luttrell, Meeker, Mixer, Nielsen, Noyes, Patterson, Roberts, Roland, Scudder, Spalding, Stockwell, West, Williams, Witter, Wright, and Young—33.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

The following explanation of vote was received, and ordered printed in the Journal:

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly.

In explanation of my vote in opposition to Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 44, I will say that it may seem on the surface to be satisfactory to the local communities which would be directly benefited, but if we take into consideration the general plan as worked out by the Department of Public Works, or if we carefully look at the findings of the Water Commission, we will find that the passage of this amendment without providing for those parts of the State which are in immediate need of water would be one of the most unjust actions this Legislature could take.

It is my opinion that such a plan as is now before us would not be an appeal sufficient to secure the approval by the people. This proposed bond issue, if carried, would be a direct drain upon the moneys of the State with no provision to meet it in whole or in part except from the treasury. I believe if the State undertakes any such plan it should be State-wide in its scope. To my mind this plan which leaves out the Sacramento and the San Joaquin valleys, is especially weak because that part of California tributary to the bay cities will be retarded and held back for a long time in its development. It seems to me that the State as a whole should realize these problems of conservation and of flood control are State problems that can only be solved by State aid.

I strongly believe when the State embarks upon a plan of conservation for flood control, irrigation and water for domestic uses, that it might be well to provide for such dams as will effect flood control within the Sacramento and San Joaquin watersheds of northern and central California, and of the Santa Ana, Los Angeles and San Gabriel rivers in southern California. Such a program, carefully worked out, providing the machinery to methodically care for the several units as the need becomes pressing, would command the attention of the State, and if adopted would be of untold value to the commonwealth.

If California is to become the great empire that nature has marked for her, her several communities should unselfishly work in harmony for the good of all;

Therefore, as the measure now before us would encourage the selfish or local construction, and would be a hindrance to the best development of the State-wide program as outlined in all our public reports, I feel impelled to vote no.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

The following explanation of vote was received, and ordered printed in the Journal.

I voted against Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 44 for the following reasons:

- (a) That it would jeopardize the coordinated water plan;
- (b) That if federal aid should be secured in connection with this project it would preclude getting any aid for the balance of the water plan.
- (c) That there is a great difference of opinion among engineers as to whether or not the barrier can be safely built without the construction of retaining reservoirs.
- (d) That the American River Flood Control Plan which will undoubtedly soon be under way will be the means of taking care of the salinity problem of the delta region

On page 4, line 5, of the printed bill, after said line 5, insert the following:

"SEC 13. An aircraft may operate under a letter of authority from the secretary of commerce pending the official examination of such aircraft; provided, the application for aircraft license is on file with the secretary of commerce. Airmen who have filed their applications for licenses will be permitted to perform duties as licensed airmen of the class for which they apply, pending their official examination by the secretary of commerce.

SEC. 14. If and when it shall be finally determined by the supreme court that any portion of either section 2 or section 3 of this act is unconstitutional, then and in that event

(a) There shall be appointed by the governor a commission, to be known as the aviation commission of California, consisting of three members, each of whom shall be a person engaged or trained and experienced in aviation, shall hold office at the pleasure of the governor and shall receive no compensation, but shall receive the actual necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of his duties. The commission may appoint, prescribe the duties and fix the compensation of a secretary and such employees as may be necessary. Said commission shall function under the jurisdiction of the department of public works and shall be represented on the governor's council by the director of the department of public works.

(b) Said commission is hereby authorized and empowered:

(1) To formulate rules and regulations for the examination of aircraft, as to their air-worthiness, and the licensing of the same; and for the examination of airmen, as to their qualifications, and the licensing of the same,

(2) To examine and license aircraft and airmen;

(3) To revoke for cause, after written notice to the holder and a hearing being had thereon, any license issued by the commission hereunder.

Such rules and regulations must be consistent with the provisions of this act and shall provide standards for determining the air-worthiness of aircraft and the requisite skill, experience and qualifications of airmen, may cover such other matters as are authorized by the provisions hereof, and shall conform to and coincide with, so far as possible, the provisions of the air commerce act of 1926 and amendments thereto passed by the congress of the United States, and the air commerce regulations issued from time to time pursuant thereto.

(c) In accordance with the provisions of this section the rules and regulations formulated hereunder:

(1) Airmen licenses will be issued upon application, for a period of one year from date of issue, and upon the expiration of the respective terms of such licenses the licensees will be relicensed upon application for like periods, if the applicant is eligible therefor and has the necessary skill, experience and other qualifications.

(2) Aircraft licenses will be issued upon the application of the owner for a period of one year from date of issue and upon the expiration of the respective terms of such licenses the aircraft will be relicensed upon like applications for like periods if the aircraft be air-worthy and conforms to the requirements of this act and said rules and regulations.

(d) For licenses issued hereunder, the commission shall charge and collect the following fees.

(1) A fee of twenty-five dollars for an airman's license, if issued upon examination; five dollars, if issued without examination.

(2) A fee of fifty dollars for an aircraft license, if issued upon examination; ten dollars, if issued without examination.

(e) All airmen licensed by the United States government and all aircraft licensed by the United States government are expressly excepted from any of the licensing provisions of this section.

(f) Any person who (1) navigates any aircraft within the State of California unless said aircraft is licensed under the provisions of this section or is licensed and registered under the laws of the United States and any regulations made pursuant thereto, or (2) operates or participates in the operation of any aircraft within the State of California or acts as an airman in connection therewith unless he is licensed therefor under the provisions of this section or is registered and licensed therefor under the laws of the United States and any regulations made pursuant thereto, or operates or participates in the operation of any aircraft at a height of less than one thousand feet over the congested parts of cities, towns, settlements or over any open-air assembly of persons or elsewhere at a height of less than five hundred feet, except where indispensable to an industrial flying operation and exclusive of taking off or landing, or acrobatically operates or participates in the operation of any aircraft over a congested area in any city, town or settlement or over any open-air assembly of persons or below two thousand feet in height over any established or civil airway or at any height over any certified airport or landing field or within one thousand feet horizontally thereof or while carrying passengers for hire or reward, without the approval of the secretary of commerce of the United States, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 15. An aircraft may operate under a letter of authority from the secretary of commerce pending the official examination of such aircraft: provided, the application for aircraft license is on file with the secretary of commerce. Airmen who have filed their applications for licenses will be permitted to perform duties as licensed airmen of the class for which they apply, pending their official examination by the secretary of commerce.

SEC. 16. The sum of five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to carry out the purposes of this act. Such funds shall be expended under the direction of the aviation committee of California.

SEC. 17. In case any section, sections, or parts thereof shall be found to be unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, the remainder of the act, except as herein provided, shall not thereby be invalidated but shall remain in full force and effect. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses and phrases be declared not constitutional."

FLOOR AMENDMENT.

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

On page 2, line 9, of the printed bill, after the word "therein", insert the following:

"(4) When an answer is filed in an action to recover a debt or liquidated demand, if it is claimed that there is no defense to the action, on motion of the plaintiff, supported by a verified complaint, or if not verified then by the affidavit of the plaintiff or of any other person having knowledge of the facts, the answer may be stricken out and judgment may be entered, in the discretion of the court, unless the defendant by affidavit shall show such facts as may be deemed by the judge hearing the motion sufficient to entitle him to defend.

Such affidavit shall be made by the defendant, or by any other person, having knowledge of the facts, and shall set forth facts showing that the defendant has a good and substantial defense to the plaintiff's action (or to a portion thereon) upon the merits, as the deponent verily believes, and it shall appear in the affidavit that the facts pertaining to the action have been fully and fairly stated to defendant's counsel, naming him, and that the defendant upon such statement has been advised by such counsel that he has a defense to the action (or to some portion thereof) upon the merits. The facts so stated shall be the personal knowledge of the affiant, shall be set forth in the affidavit with particularity, and the affidavit shall show affirmatively that the affiant, if sworn as a witness, can testify competently thereto. If all facts relied upon as tending to establish such meritorious defense are not within the personal knowledge of one person, then such as are not within the knowledge of the person making the affidavit of merits shall be supported by the affidavit or affidavits of the person or persons qualified, as above, and said supporting affidavits shall be drawn with like particularity.

If it appear that such defense applies only to a part of the plaintiff's claim, or that any part is admitted, the plaintiff may have judgment entered forthwith for so much of his claim as such defense does not apply to, or as is admitted, on such terms as may be just, and the cause of action may be severed accordingly. A judgment entered under this section is an appealable judgment, as in other cases."

Amendment adopted.

Bill read third time, ordered to reprint, and on file for third reading.

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, May 14, 1929.

MR. SPEAKER. I am directed to inform your honorable body that the Senate on this day concurred in Assembly amendments to Senate Bill No. 406—An act to amend sections 2, 4, 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, and 46 of an act entitled "An act to provide for the establishment and change of public streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and rights of way, and of any of the following avenues of public travel, namely, tunnels, subways, viaducts, bridges or independent subterranean ways in municipalities and providing for the construction or improvement thereof, in cases where any damage to private property would result from such improvement, and for the assessment of the costs, damages and expenses thereof upon the property benefited thereby, and to provide a system of local improvement bonds to represent the assessments for the costs, damages and expenses of such improvement, and for the payment and effect of such bonds," approved June 16, 1913, as amended.

J. A. BEEK, Secretary of Senate.
By PAUL MASON, Assistant Secretary.

THIRD READING OF SENATE BILLS—(RESUMED).

Senate Bill No. 184—An act to amend sections 4, 5, 8, 9, 10, 11, 38, 40, 41 and 42 of an act of the Legislature of the State of California known and designated as the "Acquisition and Improvement Act of 1925," approved May 23, 1925, as amended, relating to procedure, to the time and manner of notice, effect of protests, term of bonds, period of deferred payments on principal of bonds, number of zones, levy and effect of assessments and bonds, suit to determine validity, and supplemental issues; and to add fourteen new sections to said act, to be numbered sections 2a, 2b, 5a, 25a, 25b, 25c, 25d, 25e, 25f, 25g, 25h, 25i, 25j and 25k, relating to limitations on the use of said act, and to provisions for an alternative method for making assessments and reassessments, the payment and enforcement of the same and the issuance, payment and enforcement of bonds; and providing for the proceedings which shall be affected by the foregoing amendments.

Bill read third time.

FLOOR AMENDMENTS.

During reading of the bill, the following amendments were submitted by Mr. Crawford:

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

Strike out the title of the printed bill, as amended, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"An act to amend sections 4, 5, 8, 9, 10, 11, 38, 40, 41, and 42 of an act of the Legislature of the State of California known and designated as the "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," approved May 23, 1925, as amended, relating to procedure, to the time and manner of notice, effect of protests, term of bonds, period of deferred payments on principal of bonds, number of zones, levy and effect of assessments and bonds, suit to determine validity, and supplemental issues; and to add new sections to said act to be numbered 2a, 2b, 5a, 25a, 25b, 25c, 25d, 25e, 25f, 25g, 25h, 25i, 25j, and 25k, relating to limitations on the use of said act, and to provisions for an alternative method for making assessments and reassessments, the payment and enforcement of the same and the issuance, payment and enforcement of bonds; and providing for the proceedings which shall be affected by the foregoing amendments."

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

Strike out all of the printed matter of the bill as amended, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended, to read as follows:

Sec. 4. The legislative body desiring to initiate proceedings for the making of any acquisition or improvement, or both an acquisition and improvement, under the provisions of this act, may, by an order to be entered upon its minutes, designate some county officer, if the legislative body be that of the county, or some municipal officer, if it be that of a municipality, or some other competent person, in either case, and direct him to prepare and furnish specifications for the proposed acquisition or improvement, or both. The said specifications, in the case of an improvement, shall include all plans, profiles, cross-sections and specifications necessary therefor, together with a statement of the estimated cost of the improvement (inclusive of incidental expenses and the costs of the proceeding), a description of the district to be benefited by the proposed improvement and a map or plat showing the same and also the different zones within said district (if any are necessary because of varying benefits), with a statement as to what percentage of the total amount to be levied each year shall be levied upon the lands within each zone in the district, and shall show the grades to which the contemplated improvements are to be constructed. In the case of an acquisition, the said specification shall include a description of all property to be acquired, together with a map or plat showing the same, the total sum of the estimated expense of said acquisition (which expenses shall include the estimated amount of just compensation and damages, the estimated expenses chargeable to the plaintiff in the condemnation action, and the estimated incidental expenses of the proceeding) and a description of the district to be benefited by the proposed acquisition and a map or plat thereof; and the other matters relating to zones and percentages as above required in the case of improvements. In the event that the contemplated proceeding includes both an acquisition and improvement, all of the above requirements shall be included in the specifications; the district, zones and percentages set forth to comprehend both the contemplated acquisition and improvement. Said specifications shall be signed by the person designated and directed to prepare them and be presented to the legislative body ordering them. Said legislative body shall examine the said specifications and may approve them or order modifications or changes to be made therein. When approved by the legislative body they shall be filed with the clerk of said body. At any time before the adoption of a resolution of intention the specifications may be corrected or modified by the order of said body.

Any error or informality in the appointment of any officer or other person to prepare specifications, or the omission of a formal order of appointment altogether, shall not invalidate or in any way affect the proceedings.

In case the consent of any legislative body other than the one conducting the proceedings is required, as provided in section 2 of this act, then, after the specifications shall have been approved and filed, the legislative body conducting the proceeding shall, by resolution, request such consent (or consents, if more than one is necessary), and a copy of the resolution requesting such consent, together with a copy of the specifications, shall be filed with the legislative body, or bodies, whose consent is requested. Such legislative body, or bodies, may consent by resolution.

SEC. 2. Section 5 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. Before ordering any acquisition or any improvement authorized by this act, the legislative body which is to conduct the proceeding shall adopt a resolution of intention so to do, referring to the public way, in the case of a public way already acquired, by its lawful or official name, or the name by which it is commonly known, and, in the case of a public way to be acquired under the proceeding, by the name by which such public way is to be called upon its acquisition (which name shall thereby be fixed and established), and when the acquisition or improvement is of property or a right of way owned or to be acquired by the public, then by briefly describing the said property or right of way. No proceeding for any improvement taken or had under this act shall ever be held to be invalid on the ground that the public way or ways, or any portion thereof, upon which the work or improvement, or any part thereof, is to be or was done has not been dedicated or acquired; provided, the same is lawfully dedicated or acquired or an order of immediate possession and use thereof has been obtained at any time before judgment is entered in the suit involving such proceeding.

In the case of an acquisition, the resolution shall briefly set forth that a public way or property or right of way (naming it or otherwise briefly describing it) is to be acquired state the purpose of such acquisition, and describe the property necessary or convenient to be taken therefor, and refer to the specifications on file for all details and for the estimated expense of the acquisition. It shall be determined in said resolution that the public interest and necessity require the acquisition therein set forth, and that said property to be taken is necessary therefor. Said resolution, in the case of an acquisition, shall be adopted by a vote of two-thirds of the members of said legislative body. In the case of an improvement, said resolution shall determine that the public interest and necessity require the improvement set forth in the resolution and shall briefly describe the improvement, it being sufficient to state in general terms the class or kind of work contemplated (such as grading, paving, sewerage, or other work or improvement), and to give in general the location of the proposed improvement and refer to the plans, profiles, detail drawings and specifications therefor, or such of them as may be suitable or proper (which shall be approved by said legislative body and be on file in the office of the clerk thereof at the time of the adoption of said resolution), for the estimated cost of the improvement (inclusive of incidental expenses and costs of the proceeding), for a full and detailed description and location of said proposed improvement, and of the grades to which said improvement is to be constructed.

Said resolution shall contain the following statement: "The notice of all persons is directed to the grades for the proposed improvement and to the provisions of the acquisition and improvement act of 1925 relating to grades," and in cases where the construction of the proposed improvement will result in a substantial change (considered with reference to existing physical conditions) with respect to the relation of the elevation of any abutting property to that of the public way as it will exist upon being improved to the proposed grade, there shall be included in said statement the following: "Particular notice is directed to the fact that substantial changes in the relation of the elevation of abutting property to that of said public way (or ways), as it (or they) will exist after being improved, will result from the construction of the above mentioned improvements to the proposed grades." If both an acquisition and improvement are contemplated in the same proceeding, one resolution of intention containing the above requirements in the respective cases, shall be sufficient. Said resolution shall also contain a description of the district of the lands to be benefited by said proposed improvement or acquisition, or both, as the case may be, which shall be known thereafter and which will in this act hereafter be referred to as the "assessment district." Each proceeding under this act, may, for convenience be entitled, and such entitling shall be sufficient for all purposes: "In the matter of acquisition and improvement district No _____ of the county (or city, as the case may be) of _____" (giving a different number to each district for which a proceeding is had) and a like designation of the district (omitting the words "in the matter of") shall be a sufficient designation of the district at all times and for all purposes. The said description of the assessment district may be in general terms, referring to a plat or map approved by the legislative body conducting the proceeding, which shall be on file in the office of the clerk of such legislative body at the time of the adoption of said resolution of intention, and which shall indicate by a boundary line the extent of the territory to be included in the proposed assessment district, which said plat or map shall govern for all details as to the extent of said assessment district. Said resolution shall also contain a statement that, for the expenses of the things therein proposed to be done, bonds will be issued to the total amount of the same, excepting the amount, if any, to be contributed thereto by the county or municipality in money or by the furnishing of materials therefor, said bonds to bear interest at the rate of _____ (not to exceed eight) _____ per cent per annum, payable semiannually, the first interest payment to be made on the second day of January or the second day of July (whichever month first succeeds the date of the bonds) next succeeding one year after the date of such bonds, and the aggregate principal of all bonds issued under the proceeding to be paid and discharged within _____ (not to exceed thirty, in the case of acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds, and not to exceed twenty in the case of improvement bonds) _____ years after the date of issuance, approximately one

----- (not less than one-thirtieth in the case of acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds, and not less than one-twentieth in the case of improvement bonds) ----- part of such aggregate principal to be payable annually, all in gold coin, and that a special fund for the payment of said bonds will be constituted by the levy of special assessment taxes upon the lands within the assessment district, in accordance with the provisions of this act, according to the assessed value of said lands, exclusive of the improvements thereon, except as in this act otherwise provided. Said resolution shall state that the first payment on the aggregate principal of the bonds issued will be made ----- (either two or three years, as said legislative body shall determine) after the issuance thereof.

The time within which the acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds to be issued under the proceeding shall be paid and discharged may differ from the time within which the improvement bonds issued under the proceeding may be paid and discharged, in which case the resolution of intention shall state all matters as to the time within which the bonds issued under the proceedings will be paid and discharged as hereinbefore required, both for the improvement bonds and also for all acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds, if any.

Said resolution of intention may provide that the interest rate to be paid on all acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds, if any, which shall be issued under the proceedings shall not exceed a maximum rate to be stated in said resolution, which maximum rate shall not exceed eight per cent per annum, payable semiannually, and if such maximum rate be provided for in the case of acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds, without giving the final and exact interest rate at which such bonds will eventually be issued and sold, said resolution shall contain a statement thereof with respect to such bonds, in lieu of the statement hereinbefore in this section provided.

The lands upon which such special assessment taxes shall be levied shall be all those lying within the assessment district, including any lands which are the operative property of any public utility, except as otherwise provided in this section; provided, said lands shall not include any lands belonging to the United States government or the State of California, but shall include all lands belonging to a county, municipality, district, public agency, mandatory of the government, school board, educational, penal or reformatory institution, or institution for the feeble-minded or insane, included within the assessment district, whether being in use in the performance of any public function or otherwise; provided, however, that the legislative body conducting the proceedings may, in the resolution of intention, declare that any land or lands, describing the same, belonging to any county, municipality, district, public agency, mandatory of the government, school board, educational, penal or reformatory institution, or institution for the feeble-minded or insane, lying within the assessment district, or any of them, shall be omitted from the said district and from the levy and collection of the special assessment taxes thereafter to be levied and collected to cover the expenses of the acquisition or improvement, or both, as the case may be, and in the event that said lands or any of them shall by said resolution be so omitted then the total expenses of the things done in the proceedings shall be met by the levying and collection of such special assessment taxes upon and from the remaining lands within the assessment district, without regard to such omitted lands. In order that any such lands may be so omitted, however, it must be determined and set forth in the resolution of intention that such lands are in use in the performance of a public function.

If, in the judgment of the legislative body conducting the proceeding, varying benefits to be derived by the different parcels of land lying within the assessment district so require, the said district shall be divided into zones. Said district may be divided into as many zones, not to exceed twenty in number, as may be deemed necessary because of varying benefits, and each zone shall be composed of and include the lands within the district which will be benefited in a like measure. If more than twenty zones are necessary because of varying benefits, the procedure of this act shall not be available (except as provided in the alternative plan of direct assessment). Said legislative body shall also determine the percentage of the total amount to be levied each year which shall be levied upon the lands within each zone in the district. When the district is divided into such zones the resolution of intention shall so state, giving said percentages to be levied each year upon the lands in each zone. Each zone shall be designated by a different letter or number and shall be plainly shown upon the map or plat of the assessment district filed in the office of the clerk of such legislative body and referred to in the resolution of intention, either by separate boundaries, coloring, or other convenient and graphic method, so that all persons interested may with accuracy ascertain within which zone any parcel of land is located. It shall be sufficient in all cases where the assessment district is to be divided into such zones according to benefits if the resolution of intention states that fact and refers to said plat or map for the boundaries and all details concerning the said zones.

In those cases where the improvement consists of a separation of grades at any crossing of a street railroad, interurban railroad or railroad by any public way, or vice versa, as provided in section 50 hereof, all operative property owned or operated by the public utility which owns or operates the said railroad shall be omitted from the district and from the levy and collection of special assessment taxes therefor where any part of the cost and expense of such construction is to be, or has been, under an order of the railroad commission of this state, or pursuant to the provisions of any franchise owned or operated by such public utility, borne or paid by such public utility; but where the work of constructing such grade separation, a part of the cost of which is so borne or paid by such public utility, constitutes only a part of the improvement or improvement and acquisition included in the proceeding, the operative property owned and operated by such public utility in the district shall be separately zoned to relieve such property from the levy and collection of any special assessment taxes to cover the expense, as estimated, of the construction of such grade separation, and the percentage assigned to such zone shall represent only the proportionate part of the benefits accruing to such property from the remainder of such improvement or improvement and acquisition, exclusive of the estimated cost and expense of such grade separation.

Said resolution shall contain a notice of the day, hour and place (to be fixed therein) when and where any and all persons having any objections to the proposed acquisition or improvement, or both (if both be included in the proceeding), to the proposed grades to which the improvement (if any) is to be constructed, to the extent of the assessment district, to the zones (if any) into which said district is to be divided, or to the percentages to be raised from each of said zones, or to any or all of the foregoing, may appear before the legislative body conducting the proceeding and be heard. Said time shall not be less than twenty-five nor more than sixty days from the date of the adoption of said resolution. The clerk of said legislative body shall cause said resolution of intention to be published by at least two insertions. The date of the first publication shall not be less than twenty days before the day fixed in said resolution for said hearing.

Sec. 5a. The following procedure to be known as the "direct assessment method," is hereby provided as an alternative method of assessing the costs and expenses of the things in this act authorized to be done. Whenever the legislative body shall determine that the costs and expenses of the proposed acquisition or improvement, or both, less any amount contributed under section 7 hereof, should be assessed upon each particular lot, piece or parcel of land lying within the assessment district in accordance with the estimated benefit which each such lot, piece or parcel will receive, the resolution of intention shall so state and the "direct assessment method" of procedure shall be followed as provided in sections 25a, 25b, 25c, 25d, 25e, 25f, 25g, 25h, 25i, 25j, and 25k of this act.

In such event the resolution of intention shall also state that serial bonds will be issued to represent and be secured by such assessments, reassessments, and supplemental assessments levied upon each particular lot, piece or parcel of land lying within the assessment district and remaining unpaid at the expiration of thirty (30) days from and after the delivery of the assessment to the treasurer setting forth the rate of interest, if determined, otherwise the maximum rate at which bonds may be issued, which shall not exceed eight per cent per annum, payable semiannually, the first interest payment to be made on the second day of January or July next succeeding one year after the date of issuance of the bonds. Said resolution shall also state that the first maturity of the said bonds shall be on the second day of July next succeeding ----- (two or three years as determined by said legislative body) ----- after the date of issuance thereof, and the number of annual installments in which the bonds to be issued under the proceeding shall be payable, and the last maturity of said bonds shall not exceed for acquisition and immediate possession bonds thirty years from the second day of July next succeeding the date of issuance thereof and for improvement bonds twenty years from the second day of July next succeeding the date of issuance thereof.

In all matters not specifically provided for under the direct assessment method provisions, the provisions elsewhere in this act shall be followed and govern, where applicable.

The legislative body conducting the proceeding may in one proceeding provide that either the acquisition or the improvement shall be payable by the "direct assessment method," as provided in this section, and that the acquisition or the improvement (whichever is not payable by the "direct assessment method" provided in this section), may be payable by the "ad valorem assessment method" of assessment provided in section 5 and other sections of this act.

In the event it shall be necessary to secure the consent of a legislative body, other than the one conducting the proceedings, as is provided in sections 2 and 4 hereof, and it is contemplated that the costs and expenses of the acquisition or improvement, or both, shall be assessed as provided in these sections, then it shall be stated in the specifications that it is proposed to assess each particular lot, piece or parcel of land in the assessment district in accordance with the "direct assessment method" herein provided.

SEC. 4. Section 8 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 8. Not later than twenty days prior to the date fixed in the resolution of intention for the hearing the superintendent of work shall cause to be conspicuously posted along the line of said contemplated work or improvement, if an improvement is contemplated, and along the line of the property to be acquired, if an acquisition is contemplated, at not more than three hundred feet in distance apart but not less than three in all, notices of the adoption of said resolution; provided, however, that the failure to post any or all of said notices shall in no event affect the validity of the proceedings or the jurisdiction and power of the legislative body to order the acquisition or improvement, or both. Said notices shall be entitled "Notice of public improvement" in letters of not less than one inch in height; and shall, in legible characters, state the fact of the adoption of the resolution of intention, its date, and briefly and in general terms, the improvement or acquisition, or both, as the case may be, proposed, and refer to the resolution of intention for further particulars. The said notices need not contain a description of the assessment district described in the resolution of intention but may refer to said resolution therefor. Said notices shall contain also a statement of the day, hour and place when and where any and all persons having any objections to the proposed improvement or acquisition, or both, as the case may be, or to the grade or grades to which the improvement is proposed to be constructed, or to the extent of the assessment district, or to the zones, if any, into which such district is divided, or to the percentages of the total amount to be levied each year which shall be levied upon the lands within each zone, or to any or all of the foregoing, may appear before the legislative body and be heard.

If deemed advisable and the legislative body so orders, said notices may consist of printed copies of the resolution of intention, entitled as above provided, and the same shall be sufficient for all purposes of said notice.

The clerk of the legislative body conducting the proceeding shall mail postcard notices to all owners of land within the assessment district (as said ownerships appear upon the last equalized assessment roll of the city or county as the case may be, or as otherwise known to the clerk) stating in substance the fact and date of the adoption of the resolution of intention, referring to the resolution of intention for a description of the improvement or acquisition or both, as the case may be, and of the district, and for further particulars, and stating that land of the addressee is within the assessment district and the time and place at which objections will be heard. No failure of the clerk to send any of said notices and no failure of any property owners or others interested to receive the same and no defects in such notice shall in any way vitiate or invalidate the proceeding, but the legislative body conducting the proceeding shall not order the acquisition or improvement, or both, until the clerk shall have filed in the record of proceedings in his office an affidavit that he has diligently and in good faith attempted to ascertain the addresses of the owners of land within the assessment district and that he has mailed notices to all of such land owners whose addresses he found, at least fifteen days prior to the date of hearing stated in the notice. Such affidavit shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

SEC 5. Section 9 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 9. At any time not later than the hour set for hearing objections as provided in the preceding section, any owner of land within the boundaries of the assessment district as set forth in said resolution may, severally, or with other such owners, file with the clerk of the legislative body conducting the proceedings written objection to the thing or things proposed to be done, whether it be an improvement or acquisition, or both, or to the grade or grades to which the improvement is proposed to be constructed, or to the extent of the assessment district, or to the zones, if any, into which the said district is divided, or to the percentage of the total amount to be levied each year which is to be levied upon the lands in each of said zones, or to any or all of the foregoing. Upon such hearing all objections and protests to the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done shall be heard and considered. If upon said hearing it appears that the owners of more than one-half of the area of the property included within the entire assessment district, as proposed, have in writing made objection to the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done, i. e., the improvement or acquisition, or both, as the case may be, in their entirety, and to the ordering of the same, the legislative body shall, by a resolution to be entered upon its minutes, so find and thereupon no further proceeding for substantially the same acquisition or improvement, or both, as the case may be, may be begun within a period of six months from the date of such finding unless such protest shall be overruled by a four-fifths vote of the legislative body. In order that such objections constitute a bar, as aforesaid, they must specifically state that the objections are to the doing of the thing or things proposed in their entirety and not merely to some item, class, kind or part of the thing or things proposed to be done. If the fact be that the owners of more than one-half of the area of the property, included within the entire district as proposed have not so in writing made objection going to the ordering of the thing or things proposed to be done, as an entirety, the legislative body shall so find, and may thereupon proceed with the hearing, but such finding need not be in writing and may, for the purpose of proceeding with the hearing, be a mere announcement of the body. Next shall be heard, in any order desired by such body, such objections as shall be made to the extent of the district and to the zones, if any, into which said district is divided and to the said percentages as set forth in the resolution of intention, and objections to the grade or grades to which the improvement is proposed to be constructed.

The hearing may be continued from time to time by the legislative body by an order to be entered upon its minutes.

Owners of land within the meaning of this section are those, and those only, who appear to be such upon the records in the recorder's office of the county in which the district is situated on the day before the day set for said hearing, and an executor or administrator shall be deemed representative of his decedent, and a trustee of an express trust in land, other than as security for the payment of money, of the land held in such trust, and a trustee in bankruptcy of the bankrupt, and a guardian of his ward. Owners of land within the meaning of this section shall also include any person who holds a valid contract to purchase land, which fact must either be shown to be such upon the records in said recorder's office or the owner signing the protest must exhibit his contract to purchase; provided, however, that if both the owner of record and the contract purchaser shall present protests for the same land, only one protest shall be counted. The objection of any owner may be made by the signature of his agent; provided, that there must be attached to the objection the affidavit of the agent that he is duly authorized to sign said objection. Every written objection must contain a description of the property in which each signer thereof is interested sufficient to identify it, and must set forth the nature of his interest therein and, if signed by more than one objector, must be accompanied by the affidavit of one of the signers thereto that each signature thereto is the genuine signature of the person whose name is thereto subscribed. Any written objection not complying with the foregoing requirements shall not be considered by the legislative body in determining whether objection has been made to the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done, as an entirety, by the owners of more than one-half of the area of the property included within the assessment district.

Sec. 10 Unless the power to proceed shall have ceased as hereinbefore provided, the legislative body shall in conclusion of the aforementioned hearing and as a determination of all questions arising thereat, by resolution to be entered upon its minutes, declare its findings that the owners of more than fifty per cent of the area of the property included in the assessment district have not made written objection going to the entirety of the thing or things proposed to be done. Said legislative body may at the conclusion of the hearing thereon and in said resolution determine the extent and boundaries of the assessment district and may exclude from the district described in the resolution of intention any parcels of land which it may find will not be benefited by the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done. It may also change or modify either as to number or boundaries the zones, if any, into which said district is divided, so that each zone shall be composed of the lands within said district which will be benefited in like measure; and it may also change the percentage of the total amount to be levied each year which shall be levied upon the lands within each zone in the district. If no changes be made in the boundaries of the assessment district, as the same are set forth in the resolution of intention, or no changes are made in the zones or the percentages to be levied thereon each year as set forth in said resolution, it shall be sufficient to state that the boundaries of the district, the zones and the percentages to be levied thereon each year, are those set forth in the resolution of intention, but if any changes be made in the boundaries of the assessment district, the boundaries as finally determined shall be fully set forth in said resolution, and the plat or map of the assessment district on file in the office of the clerk of such legislative body and referred to in the resolution of intention shall be made to show said boundaries as finally determined, and if any changes be made in the zones referred to in the resolution of intention, the description of the boundaries of said zones, as finally determined, shall be fully set forth, and said plat or map on file in the office of the clerk of the legislative body shall be changed to show the boundaries of said zones as finally determined, and, if any changes be made in the percentages of the amount to be levied each year upon the lands within each zone of the district, the resolution shall so state, giving such percentages, as finally determined. The boundaries of the district, as the same are set forth in the resolution of intention, shall not be so changed as to include within the district any territory not within its boundaries as set forth in said resolution.

Said legislative body may also change or modify the grades as set forth in the plans and specifications and referred to in the resolution of intention. If no change or modification be made as to the grades, as the same are set forth in the plans and specifications and referred to in the resolution of intention, it shall be sufficient to state in the resolution adopted at the conclusion of said hearing, that the grades as finally determined are those set forth in such plans and specifications, but if any changes are made in the grades, as set forth in the plans and specifications and referred to in the resolution of intention, such changes shall be set forth in said resolution adopted at the conclusion of said hearing.

If any changes or modifications be made in the boundaries of the assessment district, the zones, the percentages to be levied each year upon the lands within each zone in the district, the grades, or any or all of the foregoing, such changes or modifications shall be made by a four-fifths vote of the legislative body.

The boundaries of the assessment district, the location and extent of the zones, if any, and the percentages of the total amount to be levied each year which shall be levied upon the lands within each zone in the district, so determined, shall then be established and prevail for all purposes of the proceeding and until any bonds to be issued under the proceeding shall have been fully paid and discharged, and the grades so determined shall be the grades for all the purposes of the proceeding and the improvement to be done thereunder. The findings and determination of said legislative body shall be final and conclusive.

SEC. 7. Section 11 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 11. Having thus taken action upon all objections and protests to the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done and having determined the boundaries of the district and of the zones, if any, and the percentages heretofore referred to, and the grades for the improvement, the legislative body shall have jurisdiction and may, by resolution, order the thing or things proposed to be done in the resolution of intention to be done. The resolution ordering the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done may be the same in which all of the final determinations above mentioned are made, or it may be a separate resolution, in which latter case it shall refer to the resolution making said final determination. Neither said resolution ordering the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done nor any resolutions, notices, orders or determinations thereafter made or given in the proceeding need contain a description of the work or improvement to be done or the property to be acquired, and it shall be sufficient in any of the foregoing to refer therein to the resolution of intention for a description of the work or improvement to be done, or the property to be acquired, or both, as the case may be, and, if the boundaries of the district, the zones, percentages and grades set forth in the resolution of intention have not been changed, it shall be sufficient in any of the foregoing to refer therein to the description of the same set forth in the resolution of intention, but if said boundaries, said zones, said percentages and said grades or any or all of the same have been changed, then it shall be sufficient to refer to the resolution changing and determining the same for a description thereof and all details relative thereto.

If said resolution ordering the doing of the thing or things proposed to be done include the acquisition of property, the legislative body shall therein direct an action to be brought by the attorney, in the proper superior court, in the name of the county or of the municipality for which the legislative body conducting the proceedings functions, as the case may be, for the condemnation of the property necessary or convenient to be taken therefor.

If said resolution orders work or improvement to be done, the legislative body shall therein fix a time for receiving bids for doing said work or improvement and direct the clerk thereof to give notice accordingly, inviting sealed bids. In the event the proceeding includes the acquisition of property which must be acquired before the construction of the improvement can be commenced, the time for receiving bids may be fixed as the first regular meeting day of the legislative body after the expiration of fifteen days following the signing of the decree or order of the court entitling the plaintiff in the action to possession and use of the property sought to be acquired, and the clerk shall be directed in said resolution to give the notice inviting bids after the signing of such decree or order; or a future day and hour certain may be fixed, and if a decree or order giving possession is not obtained at a time prior to such day sufficient to permit the first publication of the notice inviting bids to be had at least ten days prior thereto, the legislative body may, by resolution, refix said day for receiving bids and direct the clerk to give notice inviting bids for said new day so fixed. A single exercise shall not exhaust this power to refix the day for receiving bids in such cases, but it may be resorted to as many times as are necessary.

In the event that the proceeding includes both an acquisition and improvement, the legislative body may require the bidders who submit bids for performing the work and improvement to purchase the bonds which have been or are to be issued to cover the cost of the acquisition and immediate possession, or either or both, and to include in their bid for the improvement a bid for said bonds, which shall not be for less than par. Such determination and requirement shall be made by resolution and shall direct the clerk to give notice accordingly in the notice inviting bids, stating the total par value of such bonds, and the interest rate, if fixed; otherwise the maximum interest rate. In the event such determination and requirement are made the time fixed for receiving bids for the improvement may be any time after directing the issuance of the bonds under the provisions of section 28 or section 36 of this act, fixing a day certain, but the power to refix such time shall exist as heretofore in this section provided. In such event the provisions made elsewhere for the notice of sale and sale of such bonds shall not apply, where inconsistent herewith. The successful bidder shall, within fifteen days after the first publication of the notice of award, make payment to the treasurer in cash for such bonds, which shall be used by said treasurer in the same manner as if such bonds were sold separately; provided, however, that the successful bidder shall not be entitled to a contract for the said work or improvement until such payment is made and until the plaintiff in the action to acquire the public way or ways required has obtained a valid court order, judgment or decree entitling it to possession of the public way or ways to be improved. In such cases, the twenty days after the first publication of the notice of award provided in section 14 for entering into the contract shall be extended to ten days after the entry of such order, judgment or decree.

Sec. 25a. If the legislative body conducting the proceedings shall have determined that the cost and expenses of the acquisition or improvement, or both, should be assessed upon each particular lot, piece or parcel of land lying within the assessment district as provided in section 5a, then the person designated the "superintendent of work" shall, in the case of an improvement, after the contractor has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of said superintendent of work, file a certificate of said fact with the legislative body and shall make an assessment to cover the sum due for the work performed and specified in said contract, including all incidental expenses of the proceedings chargeable thereto, less the amount, if any, contributed from public funds, upon the several lots, pieces or parcels of land in said assessment district benefited thereby, to wit, upon each respectively in proportion to the estimated benefits to be received by each of said lots, pieces or parcels of land.

In case of an acquisition, upon the entry of the interlocutory judgment the superintendent of work shall make an assessment to cover the amount of said judgment and all costs and expenses chargeable to plaintiff in the condemnation suit, and all incidental expenses chargeable to the acquisition, less any amount contributed from public funds.

In case of an improvement, the assessment shall briefly refer to the contract, the work contracted for and performed, and shall show the amount to be paid therefor, together with all incidental expenses chargeable thereto, and in case of an acquisition, it shall refer to the resolution of intention and show the amount to be paid on the interlocutory judgment, together with all incidental expenses chargeable to said acquisition, the amount of each assessment against each lot, piece or parcel of land, the number of each assessment, and shall have attached thereto a diagram exhibiting each public way on which any work has been done, or for which land is to be acquired in the proceeding, showing the relative location of each lot, piece or parcel of land thereto, numbered to correspond with the number of the assessments. The said assessment shall be filed with the clerk of the legislative body conducting the proceedings. Said clerk shall give notice of the filing of said assessment and of a time to be therein fixed by said clerk when all persons interested in the work done, or in the acquisition, as the case may be, or in the assessment, may appear and be heard by the legislative body conducting the proceedings. Such notice shall be published twice in a newspaper, the first of which publications shall be not less than fifteen (15) days before the time fixed for such hearing. Such notice shall also be given by mailing a postcard to the owner of each lot, piece or parcel of land within the assessment district as the same appears listed as to name and address on the last equalized assessment roll for city or county taxes, as the case may be, or as known to the clerk; provided, that a failure of the clerk to give such notice by mailing or of the person addressed to receive the same shall not affect the jurisdiction of the legislative body. Said mailing shall be completed at least ten (10) days prior to the date of hearing. Reference shall be made in such notice to the resolution of intention and the date of its passage for a description of the acquisition or improvement, or both, therein mentioned, and no other description thereof shall be necessary. Any person interested in the acquisition or improvement, or both, or in the assessment, feeling aggrieved by any act or determination of any person in connection with said proceedings, or claiming that any portion of or any interest in the land sought to be acquired in any condemnation suit is omitted from the interlocutory judgment, or has not been condemned or claiming that the work has not been performed according to the contract in a good and substantial manner, or claiming that any portion of the work for any reason was omitted or illegally included in the contract for the same, or having or making any objection to the correctness of the assessment or diagram or other act, determination or proceedings of any person in connection with said proceedings shall, prior to the day fixed for the hearing, file with the clerk of said legislative body his objections in writing. At such hearing or any adjournment thereof, upon its own motion, the said legislative body may remedy and correct any error or informality in the proceedings, and revise and correct any act or determination of any persons relative to said work, may confirm, amend, alter, modify or correct the assessment or diagram in such manner as to it shall seem proportional to the estimated benefits and require the work to be completed in accordance with its directions, and may instruct and direct the superintendent of work to change the assessment or diagram in any particular; and may direct the attorney conducting the condemnation suit to take further steps in said suit. All of the decisions and determinations of said legislative body, upon notice and hearing as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive upon all persons entitled to object under the provisions of this section as to all errors, informalities and irregularities which said legislative body might have avoided or have remedied during the progress of the proceedings, or which it can at that time remedy. No assessment or diagram, and no proceedings prior to the assessment shall be held invalid by any court for any error, informality, or other defect in the same, where the resolution of intention has been actually published as hereinbefore provided. Where no objection is made or when the orders and determinations of the legislative body have been complied with and the legislative body is satisfied with the work and the assessment, it shall by resolution accept the said work and confirm the assessment, and thereupon the clerk shall deliver the diagram and assessment to the treasurer of the city or the county, the legislative body of which conducted the proceedings. He shall record the same in his office.

In the event the "direct assessment method" is followed the provisions elsewhere in this act as to the manner of holding a hearing on the acceptance of the work and on the issuance of bonds for acquisitions or improvements, and other matters inconsistent with said direct assessment method shall not be applicable.

Upon the recording of the assessment and diagram by the treasurer the amounts contributed from public funds toward the costs and expenses of the improvement, less the amount of any incidental expenses chargeable to said improvement and not paid by the contractor or his assignee, shall be paid to said contractor or his assignee.

SEC. 9 A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered section 25*b*, and to read as follows:

Sec. 25*b* When so recorded, the several amounts assessed shall be a lien upon the lots, pieces or parcels of land assessed, and each of such assessments together with interest, penalties and any additional amounts levied shall be and remain a lien upon the lot, piece or parcel of land assessed until such assessment is fully paid or until four (4) years after the date of maturity of the last series of the bonds issued thereon, as hereinafter provided. Such lien shall be subordinate to all special assessment liens previously imposed upon the same property, but it shall have priority over all special assessment liens which may thereafter be created against the said property and shall be paramount to all other liens or encumbrances except those for state, county and municipal taxes. From and after the date of said recording of any assessment and diagram, all persons shall be deemed to have notice of the contents thereof.

The said treasurer shall immediately mail a demand to the owners of the property assessed, as shown upon the last equalized assessment roll or as otherwise known to him, stating the amount of the assessment and the time and place for cash payment thereof, and for thirty (30) days after the recording shall receive the amount due upon any assessment and give a receipt therefor, and cancel said assessment of record, provided, that any omissions or irregularities in the making or receiving of such demand shall not however, constitute a defect in the proceedings, or in any way affect the validity of the proceedings or the bonds issued to represent the unpaid assessments.

Any property owner who is also a defendant in the condemnation suit for an acquisition may offset his award or any portion of his award in such action against the assessment made to cover the costs and expenses of the acquisition upon any lot, piece or parcel of land owned by him, or he may apply said award pro tanto upon such assessments, in which case the treasurer shall make an entry upon the assessment roll showing the amount paid by offset and the source of such amount. Such property owner shall execute duplicate receipts for such part due him as is offset against such assessments, one of which shall be retained by the treasurer and the other shall be filed with the clerk of the court, and the plaintiff shall thereupon be entitled to a satisfaction pro tanto of the interlocutory judgment.

All assessments for an improvement which are collected by the said treasurer within the said thirty-day period shall be by him paid to the contractor, or his assignee. Said assessments shall not be paid to said contractor, however nor shall any bonds issued against unpaid assessments be delivered to him, until he shall have paid to the treasurer all incidental expenses which are chargeable to the improvement. The provisions of section 21 of this act relating to labor and materialmen's liens on bonds shall apply to money derived from assessments paid in cash within the thirty-day period and to the bonds to be issued against the assessments unpaid at the expiration of said period; provided, that prior to the expiration of said thirty-day period the verified statement provided in said section 21 has been filed, demanding the withholding of sufficient of said bonds and money to satisfy said claim and all costs which can reasonably be anticipated.

All assessments for an acquisition which are collected by the said treasurer during the said period shall be placed in a fund designated by the name of the district, and shall, together with the amount, if any, contributed from public funds and the proceeds of the sale of the bonds be used to pay the costs and expenses of the acquisition.

SEC. 10 A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered section 25*c*, and to read as follows:

Sec. 25*c*. No action, suit, or proceeding to set aside, cancel, avoid, annul or correct any assessment, reassessment, supplemental assessment, or to review any of the proceedings, acts, or determinations thereon, or to question the validity of, or to enjoin the collection of the said assessment, reassessment, supplemental assessment, or to enjoin the issuance of bonds to represent the same, shall be maintained by any person unless such action or actions shall have been commenced within ninety (90) days after the recording of the diagram and assessment, reassessment, or supplemental assessment, and thereafter all persons shall be barred from any such action or any defense of invalidity of the assessment or of the bonds issued thereon or of the reassessment if such be made and of bonds issued thereon

SEC 11 A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered 25d, and to read as follows

Sec 25d Serial bonds shall be issued in the manner and form herein provided to represent and be secured by the assessments unpaid at the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date of recording the assessment and said treasurer shall make and certify a complete list of all such assessments unpaid Bonds shall be issued in the total amount of said unpaid assessments and shall be dated the thirty-first day after the date of the recordation of the assessment The earliest maturity of the said bonds shall be on the second day of July next succeeding one, two or three years after the date of issuance thereof and the resolution of intention shall state the time of the first maturity and the number of annual installments in which the bonds to be issued under the proceeding shall be payable All bonds issued under this section shall mature on July second In all respects not provided in this section said bonds shall be issued as nearly as may be in accordance with section 39 and section 40 of this act.

All bonds issued under this section shall be in substantially the following form

In witness whereof, the _____ (here designate the legislative body) _____ of the said county (or city) has caused this bond to be signed by the treasurer of said county (or city) and the seal of _____ (here use the words "the board of supervisors of said county" or the words "the city," as the case may be) _____ to be affixed this _____ day of _____ 19____.

[SEAL]

Treasurer of the county (or city) of _____, State of California

All improvement bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall be delivered to the contractor, or his assignee All acquisition bonds issued under the provisions of this section shall be sold in accordance with the provisions of section 36 of this act, and if the resolution of intention has stated a maximum interest rate for such bonds, the same shall be sold in accordance with section 36½ of this act The proceeds of such sale shall be used as provided in section 36, 36½ and 37 of this act

SEC 12 A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered section 25e, and to read as follows:

Sec. 25e Whenever prior to the completion of the contract for any improvement in proceedings purporting to be taken under the direct assessment provisions of this act, the proceedings or the contract have been adjudged invalid, or whenever any contractor in any improvement proceeding taken under the direct assessment provisions of this act shall have been enjoined from completing the improvement work included in the said contract by any court of competent jurisdiction, and said contractor has performed a portion of the work included in the said contract in compliance with such contract, or whenever prior to the filing of an assessment in any proceedings for the construction of an improvement under the direct assessment provisions of this act the proceedings or the contract have been adjudged invalid or the making of an assessment enjoined or the legislative body conducting the proceedings deems such proceedings invalid, and the contractor has performed the work included in the contract in compliance with the contract therefor, said contractor or his assignee shall be entitled to have an assessment levied upon each particular lot, piece or parcel of land within the assessment district and benefited by the work done in accordance with the benefits to each such lot, piece, or parcel of land from such work. Such assessment shall be prepared by the superintendent of work immediately upon the entry of a judgment declaring the contract or other proceeding invalid, or permanently enjoining said contractor from completing his contract, or whenever the legislative body conducting the proceeding shall order the preparation of such assessment, and shall be for the reasonable value of the work performed by the contractor in good faith. The assessment shall be apportioned upon such lots, pieces or parcels of land within the assessment district as shall be benefited by the work performed in proportion to the benefits to each such lot, piece or parcel of land from such work.

The assessment shall briefly describe the work done or performed, state the reasonable value thereof, which shall include such itemized incidental expenses of the proceedings as are properly chargeable to such work, provided that the prices for such work stated in the contract shall not be exceeded in fixing the reasonable value thereof. In all other respects, such assessment shall be as nearly as possible in the same form as the assessment provided for in section 25a hereof. Said assessment shall be filed with the clerk of the legislative body conducting the proceedings, and thereafter notice shall be given and hearing had the same as on an assessment made as provided in section 25a hereof, and when said assessment has been confirmed as presented or as modified, the same shall be recorded in the same office and in the same manner, and after such recordation, shall be of the same effect, collected in the same manner, and bonds issued against the same in all respects as in the case of an assessment made as provided in section 25a hereof.

In all cases in which an assessment made under the direct assessment provisions of this act is adjudged invalid or unenforceable, or in which the legislative body conducting the proceedings is of the opinion that the assessment is invalid or unenforceable, then a reassessment for the reasonable value of the improvement or acquisition for which the original assessment was issued shall be made as provided herein.

The court, in any action or proceeding in which said assessment is adjudged invalid or unenforceable, shall in its judgment or decree order the making of a reassessment for the reasonable value of the improvement made or acquisition had.

The legislative body which conducted the proceedings for the improvement shall upon request of the contractor or his assignee, prior to the issuance of bonds to said contractor or his assignee, or at the request of the holders of a majority in value of the bonds, after said bonds are issued to said contractor or his assignee, order a reassessment hereunder, if, in the opinion of such legislative body, the original assessment is invalid or unenforceable. Said legislative body may, either before or after the issuance of bonds to the contractor or his assignee, if in the opinion of the legislative body the assessment or the bonds secured thereby is invalid or unenforceable, order a reassessment hereunder.

The legislative body which conducted the proceedings for the acquisition may, prior to the issuance of bonds in such proceedings, and shall, after bonds have been issued at the request of the holder or holders of a majority in value of said bonds, order a reassessment hereunder, if in the opinion of such legislative body the original assessment is invalid or unenforceable. In the event said legislative body orders a reassessment, it shall direct the superintendent of work to make such reassessment as provided in this section.

In the case of an improvement, the reasonable value shall not exceed the aggregate of the contract price for the work, together with the incidental expenses of such work and of the proceedings chargeable to such work, and shall include interest at the rate stated in the resolution of intention from the date of recordation of the original assessment, if the same has been recorded, and if the original assessment has not been recorded, no interest shall be included, and the estimated cost of the making the reassessment.

In the case of an acquisition, the reasonable value shall not exceed the amount of the interlocutory judgment entered in the condemnation suit together with all incidental expenses of the condemnation suit and of the proceedings chargeable to such acquisition, and if bonds have been issued, shall include interest from the date of such bonds at the rate stated therein, and shall include the estimated cost of making such reassessment.

The reassessment shall be prepared by the superintendent of work and need not be in any prescribed form, but shall refer to the original assessment, give the date of filing of said original assessment, and state that it is made pursuant to an order of the legislative body or a decree of the court, as the case may be, and shall be accompanied by a diagram showing the lots, pieces, or parcels of land to be reassessed and their relation to the improvement work or acquisition. Said reassessment shall be filed with the clerk of the legislative body conducting the proceedings and thereafter notice shall be given and hearing had the same as on an assessment made as provided in section 25a hereof and when said reassessment has been confirmed as presented or as modified the same shall be recorded in the same office and in the same manner, and after such recordation shall be of the same effect as an assessment made as provided in section 25a hereof.

If bonds have not been issued said reassessment shall be collected in the same manner and bonds issued against the same in all respects as in the case of an assessment made as provided in section 25a hereof.

If bonds have been issued the reassessment shall be and constitute a trust fund for the redemption and payment of the original bonds so issued.

The treasurer shall note opposite the several assessments in the original assessment that have been displaced by the reassessment the fact that the reassessment has been made, giving its date, and shall credit upon such reassessment all payments made on the original assessment, together with interest on such payments at the rate used in the reassessment from and after the date of such payments.

SEC. 13. A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered section 25f, and to read as follows:

Sec. 25f. The treasurer may advance the maturity of any bond issued under section 25d to the second day of January or July in any year and pay and cancel the same whenever there shall be provided moneys in the redemption fund with which to pay same, by giving notice of such redemption as herein provided. Such notice may be given in writing to the holder or owner thereof by registered mail or personal service, or it may be addressed "To whom it may concern" and be given by publication twice in a daily or weekly newspaper; provided, that if such notice be so given by publication, then a copy of same shall be mailed to the last known holder or owner thereof at his last known address at least sixty (60) days prior to such date of advanced maturity. If the service be made personally it shall be made at least sixty (60) days before the date fixed for advanced maturity; if by mail, the mailing shall be made at least sixty (60) days before such date; if by publication, the first publication shall be made at least sixty (60) days before such date. In the event of such notice being given the maturity of such bond shall be advanced and said bond shall be deemed to mature on the date fixed for the advanced maturity of same, at which time the same shall be paid; provided, however, that the holder or owner of such bond may prior thereto surrender same and receive the principal thereof together with interest thereon to date of payment and together with a premium thereon equal to five per centum of the principal. On said second day of January or July fixed for advanced maturity, if said bond has not been sooner surrendered, the treasurer shall set aside to the credit of the owner of said bond the amount of principal and accrued interest then due on said bond together with such premium of five per centum of the principal, and said bond shall then be deemed to have matured and interest thereon shall thereafter cease to accrue on said bond. The amount so set aside shall on demand be paid to the holder or owner of said bond on surrender and cancellation of the same. The costs of such advertising, or other service, shall be paid from the redemption fund. More than one bond may be covered in a single notice. Prior to the surrender of any bond or the setting aside of said funds, the treasurer may waive and vacate any notice of advanced maturity upon being tendered for cancellation some other bond or bonds of an equivalent amount and of the same year of maturity; providing, that ten days' notice of his intention so to do shall have first been given by mail or otherwise to the holder or owner of said bond and such holder or owner shall not have objected to such action. The treasurer shall call in succession a bond of each annual maturity beginning with the last.

SEC. 14. A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered section 25g, and to read as follows:

Sec. 25g. All unpaid assessments shall be payable in such installments, not necessarily equal, as shall be annually determined by the legislative body which conducted the proceedings. Such unpaid assessments shall bear interest to the dates of maturity of the bonds issued against the same at the rate stated in the bonds. The city or county treasurer with whom the assessment is recorded shall annually prepare during the term of the bonds a statement of the amount of interest and principal, if any, which shall be payable upon said bonds on January 2 and July 2 of the next year, together with a statement of the total amount in the fund which may be used for the payment of said principal and interest, a statement of the amount in the funds derived from the assessments paid in full, if any, and a statement of the total amount of unpaid assessments not due.

Such statement shall be filed with the legislative body which conducted the proceedings at least two weeks before the first business day in August of each year. Thereafter said legislative body shall, prior to said first business day in August, call an installment of the unpaid assessment sufficient to pay the said principal, if any, and, if the legislative body deems it advisable to provide an additional sum with which to call a bond the balance it deems necessary to call such bond, and order the collection of interest on all unpaid assessments to July 2 of the next year. In addition to such installment of assessment interest, and such balance deemed necessary to call a bond, if any, said legislative body shall levy such an additional percentage of the installment of assessment and interest as it may deem necessary to provide for anticipated delinquencies, not exceeding, however, fifteen per cent of the said installment of assessment and interest, and also one-fourth of one per cent of the total amounts shall be added thereto for costs of collection and shall be retained by the city or county making such collection, and all of said sums shall comprise and shall hereinafter be referred to as the "annual levy."

When the said legislative body shall have determined the annual levy as hereinbefore in this section provided it shall order the treasurer of the city or county, as the case may be, to prepare an assessment roll which shall describe separately each lot, piece or parcel of land within the district as the same appears on the assessment on file with said treasurer; the number by which the same is designated thereon; the name of the owner of each such lot, piece or parcel of land, if known, otherwise the word "unknown" shall be placed opposite the description of each such lot, piece or parcel; the total assessment against each such lot, piece or parcel as shown on the original assessment on file with the treasurer; the amount of the annual levy against each such lot, piece or parcel and the installments, if any, in which such amount is payable. No mistake in the name of the owner or supposed owner shall render the levy on any such lot, piece or parcel invalid.

If the assessment district is entirely within the boundaries of one municipality such assessment roll for said annual levy shall be filed with the city tax collector, except as hereinafter provided, and the amounts thereon shall be payable and be collected at the same time and in the same manner and become delinquent at the same time and with the same penalties as the general city taxes. In all other cases and in those cases in which county officers collect the general city taxes for the city in which such district lies, said assessment roll for said annual levy shall be filed with the county tax collector and the amounts thereon shall be payable and be collected at the same time and in the same manner and become delinquent at the same time and with the same penalties as general county taxes.

Notice of the amount to be paid on any lot, piece or parcel shall be given and in the discretion of the tax collector, may be given by a separate bill, to be sent with the general tax bill, or by a separate statement of such amount on the general tax bill, or the amount may be included in the total amount to be paid as shown on the general tax bill, with a statement on such general tax bill in substance that there is included in the amount to be paid as shown on such bill a sum for a direct assessment for acquisition and improvement district No. _____ of the city (or county) of _____ (inserting proper designation). Failure to send or receive the tax bill or any informality or irregularity in same shall in no wise affect the validity or any penalty or any sale of any lot, piece or parcel for delinquency in the payment of the amount of such annual levy.

When any amount payable has become delinquent said amount and the penalties thereon may be paid to the treasurer prior to the date of sale as in this act provided.

All payments on assessments against which bonds have been issued, as provided in section 25*d*, together with all interest and penalties thereon and any additional levy to provide for anticipated delinquencies, shall be placed in a fund to be designated "Acquisition and improvement district No. _____ of the county (or city) of _____, direct assessment fund," and shall be used exclusively for the purpose of paying the said bonds, and the interest thereon.

If any assessment is fully paid prior to the maturity thereof, as provided in section 25*j* hereof, such portion thereof as is available for calling a bond shall be placed in a fund to be designated acquisition and improvement district No. _____ of the county (or city) of _____, bond redemption fund, and any sum included in the annual levy for the purpose of calling a bond shall be paid into the said fund and the moneys in said fund shall be used to call a bond or bonds as herein provided. Such portion of the assessment paid in full as would have been included in any annual levy thereafter made, had such assessment not been paid in full, may be transferred to the direct assessment fund and used to pay principal and interest of bonds to be paid from such annual levy.

When said bonds and the interest thereon have been fully paid, any surplus remaining in said fund shall be repaid to the various property owners in the district in the percentages in which they paid into the total fund.

SEC. 15. A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," approved May 23, 1925, as amended, to be numbered 25*h*, and to read as follows:

Sec 25*h*. Not later than sixty (60) days after the time at which the last installment of general city or county taxes, as the case may be, becomes delinquent each lot, piece or parcel of land on which any amount levied hereunder is delinquent shall be sold by the city or county treasurer, as the case may be. Such treasurer shall publish by two insertions in a newspaper a notice of such sale, which notice shall contain a description of the property assessed, the name of the person to whom it is assessed or a statement that it is assessed to unknown owners, if such is the fact, the total amount of said assessment delinquent including all interest, penalties and other charges to the date of sale stated in said notice, and a notice that the property assessed will be sold to the highest responsible bidder for cash on the date therein stated at the office of the treasurer of such city or county, as the case may be, to pay such amount. The date of said sale shall not be less than fifteen days after the date of the first publication of said notice. The said treasurer shall, in addition to such published notice, mail a copy of said published notice to the owner or owners of the property to be sold as their names and addresses are shown upon the last equalized assessment roll, or as otherwise known to him; provided, that any omission or irregularity in the mailing or receiving of such notice shall not constitute a defect in the sale or affect in any way the validity thereof. At the time stated in said notice, or such other time to which said sale may have been postponed by the treasurer, unless prior thereto he shall have received payment of the delinquent installment and all amounts due thereon including interest, penalties and other charges, the treasurer must sell said property to the highest bidder for gold coin of the United States, except the treasurer may receive from any purchaser in lieu thereof, bonds of said district or their interest coupons which will mature within sixty days after such sale at their face value. Out of the proceeds of said sale the treasurer must place the amount due on said property in the proper redemption fund and pay to the owner thereof any surplus remaining over and above said amount. The treasurer may postpone said sale from time to time for not less than ten nor more than thirty days at any one time by written notice posted at the place of sale. In case said sale is postponed, the sum for which said property shall be sold shall include in addition to the amount stated in the notice additional interest to such postponed date of sale.

If no bid is made for said property equal to the amount due thereon the treasurer shall become the purchaser and such property shall be struck off to him for said amount. Thereafter said treasurer may sell said property so struck off to him at private sale for not less than the amount for which it was purchased by him, plus interest at the rate of two per cent a month on such purchase price, and the proceeds from such sale shall be placed in the redemption fund. If such property is struck off to the treasurer, he shall not be required to advance the amount due against such property until he shall have resold said property and received payment therefor. When said property is struck off to said treasurer he shall hold the same as a trustee for the city or county conducting the proceedings. A certificate of sale bearing date of the day of sale shall be executed by the treasurer to the purchaser, or to himself as trustee if the property shall have been struck off to him, and said certificate of sale shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder in which such property is located. Any person interested in said property may redeem the same at any time within one year after the date of said certificate of sale by paying to the said treasurer the amount for which said property was sold and interest on said amount at the rate of two per cent per month from the date of said sale.

No action, suit or proceeding to set aside, cancel or question the validity of such sale or to quiet title of lands affected thereby shall be maintained by any persons unless the same shall have been commenced within six months after the date of such certificate of sale, and thereafter all persons shall be barred from commencing or prosecuting any such action or maintaining any defense of any action based upon the invalidity of such sale. Upon the expiration of one year after the date of said certificate of sale the city or county treasurer, as the case may be, or his successor in office, shall upon application of the purchaser or his assignee, if no redemption shall have been made, execute and deliver to the purchaser or his assignee a deed to the property, which deed shall transfer to the grantee therein named the title to said property, free and clear of all encumbrances, except that the title thereby conveyed shall be subordinate to all special assessment liens previously levied upon the said property and subordinate to all liens for state, county and municipal taxes.

In the event of nonpayment of any assessment, or of any interest thereon, together with any penalties and other levies and charges, and not later than four years after the due date of the last installment of principal, as a cumulative remedy, the same when due and delinquent may by order of the legislative body which conducted the proceedings be collected by suit brought in the superior court to foreclose the lien thereof. The costs shall be fixed and allowed by the court and shall include a reasonable attorney's fee, interest, penalties and other charges and advances as herein provided and when so fixed and allowed by the court shall be included in the judgment. The court shall have the power to adjudge and decree a lien against the lot, piece or parcel of land covered by the assessment for the amounts of the judgment and order said property to be sold on execution as in other cases of the sale of real estate by the process of said court, with the same rights of redemption. On appeal, the appellate courts shall have the same power to adjudge and decree a lien and order such property to be sold on execution as is herein provided for the superior court. The foreclosure suit shall be governed and regulated by the provisions hereof and also, when not in conflict herewith, by the codes of this state.

The city or county whose legislative body conducted the proceedings shall have the right to advance and pay county or other taxes whenever necessary to protect its interests in property against which there is a delinquent assessment. It may also at its discretion temporarily transfer moneys into the redemption fund from other funds in which such moneys are not immediately needed, the moneys so transferred to be used to pay sums from such redemption fund and to be retransferred therefrom out of the first available receipts.

Such action shall be brought in the name of the city or county whose legislative body conducted the proceedings and may be brought at any time prior to the expiration of four years subsequent to the date of delinquency of the last installment due or to become due thereunder. The complaint may be brief and include substantially only the following allegations with reference to the assessment and other sums sought to be collected: That on a date stated the legislative body passed its resolution ordering the improvement or acquisition, as the case may be, without describing the same; that the improvement was made or that the acquisition was made, as the case may be, thereunder; that an assessment to pay the cost thereof was duly given and made; that same was recorded on a stated date; that certain property (describing it) was therein assessed a stated amount; that bonds upon the security of the assessments made under the proceeding were duly issued, giving the date of said bonds, their interest rate and the number of years the last installment of same were to run and that same were duly issued under this act, but it shall be unnecessary to state the amount, number, denomination or other terms thereof; that on a date stated a certain sum came due against said property on said assessment and had not been paid and that the legislative body had directed the action to foreclose. A certified copy of so much of said recorded assessment as pertains to the assessment being foreclosed shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity and validity of the assessment and of all proceedings prior thereto. The amount of penalties, costs and interest due shall be calculated as hereinbefore set forth in the case of a treasurer's sale up to the date of the judgment. In such action the plaintiff, upon recovering judgment, shall be entitled to a reasonable counsel's fee to be allowed by the court and taxed as costs.

The term assessment, as in the section employed, shall include all original assessments, reassessments, partial assessments and supplemental assessments.

SEC. 16. A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered section 25i, and to read as follows:

SEC. 25i. In addition to advancing the maturity of bonds as provided in section 25f said treasurer may, at any time that there is a surplus in the redemption fund, purchase any bonds outstanding at the market value thereof; provided, however, that said treasurer shall in no event purchase bonds at a price of more than par, accrued interest to date of surrender of such bond, and a premium of five per centum of the par value of such bonds.

SEC. 17. A new section is hereby added to said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, to be numbered section 25j, and to read as follows:

SEC. 25j. After bonds have been issued any person interested may pay off any assessment or unpaid balance and secure a release thereof by depositing with the treasurer the total amount of the unpaid balance of such assessment, together with all additional amounts levied and all penalties and interest accrued and interest on the assessment to the second day of January or the second day of July next succeeding eight months from and after the date of payment, together with an additional sum of five per centum of the unpaid balance of such assessment and the sum of one dollar to be used for the purpose of calling a bond. In order to provide funds sufficient with which to advance the maturity of bonds as provided in section 25f herein, the legislative body conducting the proceedings may advance moneys from the revolving fund provided in section 43 of this act, and thereafter reimburse said fund from the amounts received by persons paying off assessments as provided in this section.

Whenever any single parcel of land within the district is subdivided or the ownership of a portion of said parcel is transferred to another person, the legislative body which conducted the proceeding may in its discretion order any public officer or other competent person to file with the clerk of said legislative body an amended assessment of the original parcel of land affected by such subdivision or transfer of ownership, segregating and apportioning said original assessment in accordance with the benefits to said portions of said original parcel. The person so appointed shall file with the clerk of the legislative body a report and an amended assessment of such parcels of land as have been ordered by said legislative body, together with a map or plat showing how such parcels have been divided. Said report shall conform in all respects to the original and the total amount of the assessments of the several portions of any one original parcel shall be equal to the unpaid assessment of said original parcel of land.

Each portion of the parcel of land of which an amended assessment is made shall retain the original number designating said parcel of land and shall be further identified by a secondary number or suffix and thereafter reference to said portion by said original number and suffix shall be a sufficient description for all purposes. Upon the filing of said report and amended assessment the clerk of said legislative body of the city or county, as the case may be, shall fix a time and place for hearing upon said amended assessment and shall give notice of said hearing by publication by two insertions in a newspaper. Said notice shall contain a statement of the date fixed for the hearing upon said amended assessment and any objections thereto, which date shall not be less than fifteen days from the first publication of said notice. Said notice shall contain a reference to the original assessment and to the proceedings in which it was issued and shall refer to the report and map or plat of the amended assessment for the particulars and no other description shall be necessary. All persons interested in said original assessment or in the lands affected thereby, or in the bonds secured by assessments thereon, may at any time prior to the date of hearing object in writing to the amended assessment and may at the time of said hearing, or at the time to which said hearing may be continued, appear and protest against the same. At such hearing said legislative body shall have full power to hear and determine all objections as to the division of such assessment and shall confirm or modify the same. All determinations and decisions of said legislative body upon notice and hearing as aforesaid shall be final and conclusive upon all persons entitled to object under the provisions of this section. Final action of said legislative body upon said report and amended assessment shall be taken on or before the fifteenth day of July in any year. After confirmation or modification in accordance with the order of the legislative body said amended assessment shall be recorded with the treasurer of the city or county, as the case may be, and thereafter shall supersede and replace the assessment of the original parcel and all subsequent installments, levies and other charges shall be collected upon such amended assessment.

SEC 25*k*. In the event of a delinquency in the redemption fund, after the auditor has reported the collections upon the final installment of the assessment, the legislative body which conducted the proceeding may cause a supplemental assessment to be made to pay the principal and interest of the bonds issued for the costs and expenses of the original improvement or acquisition, as the case may be. Said supplemental assessment together with the assessment theretofore made, shall not exceed on each parcel of land within the district the benefits received by such parcel from the improvement or acquisition, as the case may be. Said supplemental assessment shall be ordered by said legislative body and the superintendent of work shall be directed to prepare the same. The amount for which the assessment shall be made shall be fixed in the order of the legislative body ordering such supplemental assessment. Such supplemental assessment shall be made in accordance with the benefits received by the various lots, pieces or parcels of land and as soon as completed by said superintendent of work shall be filed with the clerk of said legislative body. Said clerk shall thereupon give notice of a time and place for hearing on such supplemental assessment. Notice of such hearing stating the boundaries of the district, the total amount of the supplemental assessment, and the date of the hearing thereon shall be published by at least three insertions in a newspaper. The time fixed for the hearing shall not be less than fifteen days from the date of first publication. The cost of making the supplemental assessment and the publication of notices thereof, as estimated, shall be included in the total amount for which such supplemental assessment is made. At the time and place fixed for hearing, the legislative body shall proceed to hear all persons interested in such supplemental assessment, and may vacate, modify or confirm such supplemental assessments as shall seem to said legislative body in accordance with the benefits received by the several parcels of land included in said assessment district. Upon such supplemental assessment being confirmed, either as originally presented or as modified by said legislative body, the assessment roll shall be filed in the office of the treasurer of the city or county, as the case may be, and recorded thereon, and thereafter any sum therein levied on any lot shall be and constitute a lien on such lot and shall bear interest from the date of recordation at the rate specified in the bonds. Said supplemental assessment shall be collected with the city or county taxes, as the case may be, next levied after the date of recordation, and in all other respects said supplemental assessment shall be collected and enforced the same as the original assessment.

SEC. 19. Section 38 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 38. If, for any reason, the funds derived from the issuance of bonds as heretofore provided for any acquisition under a proceeding had and taken under this act, shall be insufficient to pay the interlocutory judgment or judgments and all incidental expenses of the proceedings, or any additional moneys are required to be deposited in court in order that possession and use of the property sought to be condemned, or any portion thereof, may be had or retained, the legislative body conducting the proceedings may meet such deficit by an appropriation out of the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, or by ordering a supplemental issue of bonds of the district and the sale of such bonds, which bonds shall be issued and sold in like manner and form and under like procedure and with like notice to that heretofore in this act prescribed for the issuing of bonds to obtain funds for deposit in order that immediate possession and use of the property sought to be condemned may be obtained or to defray the expenses of an acquisition, as the case may be. The report of the attorney that additional funds are needed for any of the purposes in this section stated shall be made to the legislative body conducting the proceeding and such legislative body shall thereafter proceed as hereinbefore in this section provided. In the event such a supplemental issue of bonds is made, said legislative body may advance the moneys required from the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, and thereafter reimburse said fund from the proceeds of such supplemental issue.

Also if the funds derived from the issuance of bonds for any improvement are insufficient to pay the cost of the same and all incidental expenses thereof the legislative body which conducted the proceedings may meet such deficiency by an appropriation out of the general fund of the county of municipality, as the case may be, or by ordering a supplemental issue of bonds of the district and the sale of such bonds as provided for a supplemental issue of acquisition bonds, except that the report that additional funds are needed shall be made by the superintendent of work.

Sec. 20. Section 40 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 40. The principal and interest of the bonds issued under this act shall be payable in gold coin of the United States of America at the office of the treasurer issuing the same. The legislative body is hereby vested with power to determine, and shall in the resolution of intention determine, the number of years, not to exceed thirty, in the case of bonds for an acquisition and bonds for immediate possession, and not to exceed twenty in the case of bonds for an improvement, after the issuance of any bonds issued, within which the aggregate principal of all bonds to be issued in any proceeding under this act shall be paid and discharged, and to fix the rate of interest, not to exceed eight per cent per annum, payable semiannually, to be paid thereon; provided, however, that in the case of acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds the rate stated in the resolution need only be a maximum rate, which shall not exceed eight per cent per annum, payable semiannually, in which case the exact rate of interest shall be determined upon the sale of the bonds, as heretofore provided. It shall be a sufficient determination and fixing of the term and interest rate of said bonds to set forth in the resolution of intention that bonds will be issued for the expense of the things to be done in any language which will fairly indicate such time, the fractional part of the principal to be paid each year, and the interest rate for improvement bonds and either the interest rate or the maximum interest rate for which acquisition bonds and immediate bonds will be issued. It may be provided in said resolution that the first payment of principal shall become due, either two, or three years after the date of said bonds. The number of installments of payments on the principal shall be indicated in said resolution of intention, and in any proceeding the number of installments of payment on the principal of improvement bonds may differ from the number of installments of payments on the principal of acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds, if any, to be issued in said proceeding. The amount of the principal due in each annual payment need not be exactly the same, but with respect to each installment except the last may be made to differ not more than five hundred dollars from the amount obtained by dividing the total of the principal amount due under the bonds by the number of installments. Each installment, except the last, shall be an even multiple of one hundred and the last installment shall be for the balance of the total principal amount not provided to be paid in the previous installments.

In case the amount of any supplemental issue of bonds, or the amount of any issue of acquisition bonds after immediate possession bonds have been issued in the proceedings, is insufficient for such bonds to mature in multiples of one hundred dollars over the term of maturity of the bonds to be issued, as stated in the resolution of intention, in that event the legislative body conducting the proceedings may fix the maturities of such bonds, and the denominations thereof, so that the same may be issued in multiples of one hundred dollars and in that event such bonds shall mature in as nearly as possible equal, annual amounts and the first payment on the principal thereof shall be as stated in the resolution of intention.

All bonds issued hereunder shall be dated as provided in this act, and in case immediate possession bonds, improvement bonds, and acquisition bonds be issued, the respective dates of such bonds shall be the dates of the respective resolutions ordering the issuance of the same.

The interest payments on said bonds shall be payable semiannually on the second day of January and the second day of July of each year, except that the first interest payment shall be made on the second day of January or the second day of July, whichever month first succeeds the date of the bonds) next succeeding one year after the date of said bonds, and except that the last installment of interest shall be payable at the maturity of the bonds, in the manner indicated in the form of bond in this act set forth. It shall not be necessary, either in the resolution of intention or otherwise, to set forth or determine the days of the month on which payments of interest are to be made, nor that payments shall be made in gold coin, nor that payments shall be made at such treasurer's office, but all persons are charged with notice of the contents of this section, especially in the aforesaid particulars.

SEC 21. Section 41 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 41. For each district in which bonds have been issued under the provisions of this act a special fund to be named "Acquisition and improvement district No. _____ of the county (or city of _____ interest and sinking fund" (the number to be that of the district) for the discharge and payment of such bonds, whether issued for an acquisition or improvement, or both, and interest thereon, shall be constituted by the county or municipality (as the case may be) whose legislative body has conducted the proceedings, as follows, to wit: In case the district is entirely within one municipality there shall each year at the time of levying taxes for general municipal purposes be levied by the legislative body of such municipality against and upon all of the lands within said district a special assessment tax in an amount clearly sufficient, together with any moneys which are or may be in said fund, to pay all the principal which has become or will become payable and all interest which has become or will become payable on the bonds issued under the proceeding before the proceeds of another tax levy made at the time of the next general tax levy for general municipal purposes can be made available for the payment of said principal and interest.

In case the district is entirely within unincorporated territory of the county, or partly within unincorporated territory of the county, and partly within one or more municipalities, or within two or more municipalities, there shall each year at the time of the general tax levy for county taxes be levied by the board of supervisors against and upon all the lands within said district a special assessment tax, in an amount clearly sufficient, together with any moneys which are or may be in said fund, to pay all the principal which has become or will become payable and all interest which has become or will become payable on the bonds issued under the proceeding before the proceeds of another tax levy made at the time of the general tax levy for county purposes can be made available for the payment of said principal and interest.

The lands within any such district shall include any land which is the operative property of any public utility and include any lands belonging to any county, municipality, district, public agency, mandatory of the government, school board, educational, penal or reformatory institution or institution for the feeble-minded or insane, whether being used in the performance of a public function or not, unless declaration was made in the resolution of intention omitting any of said lands from the assessment to be made; but shall not include any lands belonging to the United States government or to the State of California.

If the said district has been divided into zones and the percentage of the total amount to be levied each year which shall be levied upon the lands within each zone in the district has been determined, as provided in this act, in that event the total amount of the special assessment tax to be levied each year shall be divided according to said percentages and such percentage to be levied upon the lands in each zone shall be levied upon the lands therein as above provided.

In case the district is entirely within one municipality, the assessment roll for general municipal taxes for such municipality shall be the basis for the levy and computation of such tax (except as to property not assessed thereon), and in case the district lies entirely within unincorporated territory of the county, or partly in unincorporated territory of the county and partly within one or more municipalities, or within two or more municipalities, the county assessment roll for general county taxes shall be the basis for the levy and computation of the tax (except as to property not assessed thereon). Such special assessment taxes shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for county purposes or for municipal purposes, as the case may be, and shall be levied, computed, entered, collected and enforced in the same manner and by the same persons and at the same time and with the same penalties and interest as are other taxes for county purposes or for municipal purposes, as the case may be, and all laws applicable to the levy, collection and enforcement of taxes for county purposes or for municipal purposes, as the case may be, are hereby made applicable to said special assessment tax.

It shall be the duty of the county assessor or the city assessor, as the case may be, to assess, exclusive of any improvements thereon, all lands heretofore in this section mentioned (if any there may be in any assessment district formed under this act) not otherwise assessed for purposes of general county taxes or general taxes of a municipality, as the case may be, against which such special assessment taxes are to be levied. The assessment of such lands (if any such there be in the district) shall be made at the same time and in the same manner and by the same persons as the assessment for general county taxes or general taxes of a municipality, as the case may be, and shall be equalized at the same time and in the same manner and by the same persons as such general county taxes or general taxes of a municipality are equalized. And the official or officials who are required to give notice of the equalization of the general county assessment roll or the general municipal assessment roll, as the case may be, shall give notice to all persons interested, for the same time and in the same manner as that given on the equalization of said general assessment rolls, of the equalization of assessments of such lands for the purpose of taxing the same to pay the principal and interest of bonds issued under this act. Said lands need not be described in said notice, but it shall be sufficient to state therein that the lands assessed include all lands in that certain acquisition and improvement districts, designating them by their proper names, which are not assessed on the general county or municipal assessment roll, as the case may be, but are subject to assessment under the proceedings creating said assessment districts. At said hearing all persons interested in any lands in said districts may appear and be heard upon any matter of equalization affecting any lands within such districts, and the notice of equalization shall so state.

In the event that there is included within such district any land belonging to any county, municipality, district, public agency, mandatory of the government, school board, educational, penal or reformatory institution or institution for the feeble-minded or insane, and which is being used in the performance of a public function, and no declaration was made in the resolution of intention omitting such land from the assessment to be made, the amount of the special assessment tax levied each year against said land, as above provided, shall be an enforceable obligation against the owner of or the governing body controlling said land, and it shall be the duty of the officer or body having charge of the disbursement of the funds of the owner of said land to pay the amount of said special assessment tax levied, from any of the funds thereof available, immediately upon its becoming due. If for any reason there are no money in any of such funds, then the county or municipality, as the case may be, whose legislative body conducted the proceedings shall pay said special assessment tax against said land and the said owner or governing body controlling said land shall reimburse such county or municipality immediately upon the receipt of sufficient moneys in any of its available funds. In all cases in which sufficient funds are not available to make such reimbursement before the time of another tax levy, the board or officers whose duty it is to levy taxes for said owners shall include in the next tax levy an amount, in addition to moneys for all other purposes, sufficient to reimburse said county or municipality.

The legislative body of the county or municipality, as the case may be, which conducted the proceedings for the acquisition or the imprisonment, or both, may annually at or prior to the time said tax levy is made, transfer from the general fund of such county or municipality or from any fund which may be used for acquisitions or improvements of a similar character to those made under the proceeding, to the interest and sinking fund above provided for, such amount as in the judgment of said legislative body should be transferred. It is the intention of this provision that further assistance in addition to that, if any, provided for in the resolution of intention and that which may be given as elsewhere provided in this act, may be given by such county or municipality toward the payment of the expenses of the thing or things done under the proceedings after bonds for said expenses shall have been issued and sold, and apart from the loans, and apart from the advances under the revolving fund elsewhere in this act provided.

In any event, it shall be the duty of the legislative body, which is required by this section to levy the special assessment tax, to levy a special assessment tax each year upon all of the said lands within such district, and if zones have been established, then in accordance with the percentages prescribed, clearly sufficient to pay the principal and interest of said bonds as the same shall become payable, and in this behalf the legislative body is hereby empowered to include in the said levy such an amount as to it, in its best judgment, shall be deemed reasonable to provide for anticipated delinquencies in the payment of such special assessment taxes.

Whenever any of said bonds or any payment of principal or interest thereon shall become due and there shall not be sufficient money in said interest and sinking fund to pay the same, the legislative body which conducted the proceeding may, pending the levy and collection of a special assessment tax therefor, order the amount of money necessary to pay said bonds, or payment of principal or interest so falling due, to be transferred from the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, to said interest and sinking fund, and the amount of money so transferred shall be deemed a loan to said interest and sinking fund and shall be repaid to the general fund from the first money coming into said interest and sinking fund thereafter. Any money remaining in any acquisition and improvement district interest and sinking fund after all of the bonds of the district have been retired shall be transferred to the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, whose legislative body conducted the proceeding and may by said body be used in repairing any public way in said district, regardless of whether a portion or all of the district as originally formed may have been included within one or more municipalities which did not include such portions or all of the district at the time the proceedings for the same were initiated.

The legislative body and other officers and bodies named are hereby vested with power and jurisdiction to do all and singular the things which in this section it is declared shall or may be done by it or them.

In all cases in which the proceeding is conducted by the legislative body of a municipality where the taxes are required by this section to be levied by the board of supervisors of the county, the clerk of the legislative body conducting the proceeding, in addition to transmitting to the treasurer of such municipality an attested copy of any order or orders for the issuance of bonds in the proceeding, shall transmit to the legislative body of the county a certified copy of such order or orders for the issuance of bonds, together with certified copies of the resolution of intention and of the resolutions and orders in which are set forth the boundaries of the district, the number of zones, if any, and the percentage of the total amount to be levied each year which shall be levied upon the lands within each zone in the district, as said matters were finally determined, and shall also transmit to such legislative body a certified copy of the map of the assessment district showing the boundaries of the district and of the zones therein, if any, as finally determined, and upon the filing with such legislative body of said certified copies it shall thereupon have jurisdiction and the other officers of the county shall have jurisdiction and it shall be their duty to take the steps required in this section for the assessment, levy, computation, entry, collection and enforcement of such special assessment taxes.

In all cases in which the legislative body of a municipality conducted the proceedings, and the county officials levy and collect the taxes, as hereinbefore provided, the proper officers of said county upon collecting the taxes aforesaid shall, not later than the thirtieth day of each month in which said taxes are collected, transmit the same to the city treasurer of the municipality, the legislative body of which conducted the proceedings, together with a statement of the amounts delinquent in each such district, if there be any delinquencies; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the city officials of any municipality which has availed itself of the provisions of any law permitting the duties of city officials relating to the assessment, collection and enforcement of taxes to be performed by county officials, to perform any of the duties herein prescribed relating to the assessment, collection and enforcement of taxes which are performed for said city by county officers, and the taxes required to be levied hereunder shall be assessed, collected and enforced by the persons who perform such duties for said city.

SEC. 22 Section 42 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec 42. All bonds issued in pursuance of the provisions of this act shall be negotiable and shall by their issuance be conclusive evidence of the regularity, validity and legal sufficiency of all proceedings, acts and determinations in any wise pertaining thereto, had or made under this act, and after the same are issued no tax levied or collected for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on said bonds shall be held to be invalid or illegal, or set aside or refunded, by reason of any error, informality, irregularity, omission or defect in any of the proceedings, acts or determinations in any wise pertaining to the issuance or payment of said bonds, nor shall any action or proceeding be thereafter commenced or maintained to cancel or set aside said bonds or to prevent the payment thereof or the levy or collection or enforcement of a tax for such payment

The legislative body conducting the proceedings may at any time after any bonds have been ordered issued, but before the delivery of the same, or after any contract has been awarded, but before the same has been signed, bring an action in the superior court of the county in which the district lies to determine the validity of such bonds or contract. The jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of summons at least once a week for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which said suit is brought, such paper to be designated by the court having jurisdiction of the proceeding. Said summons shall contain a statement of the title of the action, the approximate amount of bonds involved in the action or the approximate amount of the contract price as nearly as the same may be estimated, a general description of the district to be assessed for the payment of principal and interest of the bonds issued or to be issued in the proceeding, a reference to the petition on file in such action for a description of the work or improvement or of the acquisition, as the case may be, and for all particulars of such action, and the prayer of the petitioner for relief. Jurisdiction shall be complete thirty days after the first publication of such summons in the manner herein provided. Any person interested may at any time before the expiration of said thirty days appear and by proper proceedings contest the validity of such bonds or contract. Such action shall be speedily tried and judgment rendered declaring such bonds or contract either valid or invalid.

The court hearing said action, in inquiring into the regularity, legality or correctness of such proceedings, must disregard any error, irregularity or omission which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties to said action. The rules of pleading and practice provided by the Code of Civil Procedure, where not inconsistent with this act, are applicable to the action herein provided for. Any motion for a new trial must be heard and determined within ten days from the filing of the notice of intention. The costs of the hearing in such action may be allowed and apportioned between the parties or taxed to the losing party in the discretion of the court. Either party shall have the right to appeal to the supreme court within thirty days after the rendition of such judgment and the appeal must be heard and determined within three months from the time of taking such appeal.

Such action shall be a proceeding in rem and the judgment therein shall be final and conclusive of the validity of such bonds or said contract and of the validity of all proceedings prior to the issuance of such bonds or the awarding of such contract and shall be conclusive evidence of the validity of such bonds or contract and of the validity of all proceedings prior to the issuance of such bonds or the award of such contract.

SEC. 23. The foregoing amendments to existing sections of the said "Acquisition and Improvement act of 1925," as amended, and the new sections added thereto by this act shall not apply to or affect any proceeding in which a resolution of intention shall have been adopted prior to the date upon which the governor shall approve this act, but in such a proceeding the said act, as in effect prior to this enactment, shall govern and control as to all matters in such a proceeding.

The question being on the adoption of the amendments.

POINT OF ORDER.

The following point of order was raised by Mr Little: That Senate Bill No. 184 has heretofore been amended by inserting committee amendments. The effect of the amendments offered by Mr. Crawford would be to strike from the bill the committee amendments.

RULING BY SPEAKER.

The Speaker ruled the point of order well taken.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NUMBER ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY-FOUR.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 5

A resolution to propose and submit to the people of the State of California an amendment to section 2, article XVIII of the constitution of the State of California, providing for the election of delegates to be assembled in convention for the purpose of framing a new constitution for the State of California.

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California, at its regular session commencing on the seventh day of January, A. D. 1929, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby proposes that section 2 of article XVIII of the constitution of the State of California be amended to read as follows, to wit:

Sec. 2. Within ten months after the adoption hereof, a special election shall be held throughout the State, on a day to be fixed by proclamation of the Governor, whereat 120 delegates, one from each Assembly district and one from each Senatorial district who may or may not be members of the Legislature, shall be elected, having the same qualifications and being chosen in the same manner as members of the Legislature, to form a convention, to meet in the State Capitol, for the purpose of framing a new constitution for the State of California. Such convention shall assemble and organize for the transaction of its business within three months after said election of delegates, on a day to be fixed by proclamation of the Governor, and shall thereafter continue in session in the State Capitol until it shall have completed its business of framing a new constitution and provided for submitting the same to the vote of the people of the State for adoption or rejection. The compensation of each member of said convention in full payment for all services rendered, shall be fixed by the Legislature, but each delegate shall be entitled to the same mileage as is allowed to a member of the Legislature, and the convention shall have authority to employ such clerks and other attaches as may be reasonably necessary for the transaction of its business and the accomplishment of its purpose, in addition to such experts as the convention shall deem necessary, and it shall be the duty of the Legislature to provide by law for the payment of all and singular the expenses of said election of delegates and their compensation and mileage and other expenses of said convention herein authorized. Within six months after the adjournment of said convention, on a day to be fixed by proclamation of the Governor, a special election shall be held throughout the State, whereat the new constitution framed and proposed by said convention shall be submitted to the people for adoption or rejection, and it shall be the duty of the Legislature to provide by law for the payment of all and singular the expenses of such special election. At such special election the ballot shall contain the phrases "For the new constitution" and "Against the new constitution," printed thereon in a suitable place, with an appropriate space for each elector to designate his intention with reference to the adoption or rejection of the proposed new constitution. The election officers in each and every voting precinct in the State shall ascertain and make returns of the number of votes cast in favor of the new constitution and the number of votes cast against the new constitution, as aforesaid, in like manner and with the same particularity as other votes are by law required to be counted and returned, and an abstract thereof shall be transmitted by the several county clerks and registrars of voters throughout the State to the Secretary of State, in the same manner and within the same time as votes for State officers are by law required to be transmitted. The Secretary of State shall have authority and it shall be his duty to compel the making and transmission of such returns, and, when the same have been received by him, he shall forthwith prepare and present to the Governor a complete abstract of the whole number of votes cast in favor of the new constitution and of the whole number of votes cast against the new constitution. If it shall appear from such returns that a majority of the electors voting at such special election on the question of the adoption or rejection of such proposed new constitution shall have voted in favor of its adoption, the Governor shall forthwith issue his proclamation declaring the result of said election and proclaiming such new constitution, thus ratified by the people as aforesaid, to be the constitution of the State of California, and the same shall thereupon become and be, subject only to the constitution of the United States of America, the supreme law and constitution of the State of California.

SENATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 45.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to section 1 of article XIII of the constitution of the State, relating to property exempt from taxation.

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its forty-eighth regular session commencing on the seventh day of January, 1929, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that section 1 of article XIII of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. All property in the State except as otherwise in this constitution provided, not exempt under the laws of the United States, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, to be ascertained as provided by law, or as hereinafter provided. The word "property," as used in this article and section, is hereby declared to include moneys, credits, bonds, stocks, dues, franchises, and all other matters and things, real, personal, and mixed, capable of private ownership; provided, that a mortgage, deed of trust, contract, or other obligation by which a debt is secured when land is pledged as security for the payment thereof, together with the money represented by such debt, shall not be considered property subject to taxation; and further provided, that property used for free public libraries and free museums, growing crops, property used exclusively for public schools, and such as may belong to the United States, this State, or to any county, city and county, or municipal corporation within this State shall be exempt from taxation, except such lands and the improvements thereon located outside of the county, city and county, or municipal corporation owning the same as were subject to taxation at the time of the acquisition of the same by said county, city and county, or municipal corporation; provided, that no improvements of any character whatever constructed by any county, city and county or municipal corporation shall be subject to taxation. When the State or any department or governmental agency thereof acquires any toll bridge or the real or personal property used for any toll bridge, said property and toll bridge shall continue to be subject to taxation by the county, city and county, political subdivision and municipal corporation wherein the same is located, and the State shall pay to the county or city and county granting the franchise for said bridge such amounts as may become due to such county or city and county for the franchise for the construction of such toll bridge. All lands or improvements thereon, belonging to any county, city and county, or municipal corporation, not exempt from taxation, shall be assessed by the assessor of the county, city and county, or municipal corporation in which said lands or improvements are located, and said assessment shall be subject to review, equalization and adjustment by the State Board of Equalization. The Legislature may provide, except in the case of credits secured by mortgage or trust deed, for a deduction from credits of debts due to bona fide residents of this State.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the constitution of said State, by adding to article XVI thereof a new section to be numbered 8, authorizing the issuance and sale of 10,000 bonds of the State of California in the denomination of $1,000 each, authorizing the disposition of the proceeds of the sale of said bonds for certain purposes, and approving, adopting, legalizing, validating and making fully and completely effective the San Francisco Harbor Improvement Act of 1929 as passed by the Senate and Assembly at the forty-eighth session of the Legislature and approved by the Governor.

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its regular session commencing on the seventh day of January, 1929, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the said Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the constitution of said State be amended by adding to article XVI thereof a new section to be numbered 8, reading as follows:

Sec. 8 The issuance and sale of 10,000 bonds of the State of California in the denomination of $1,000 each, and the use and disposition of the proceeds of the sale of said bonds, all as provided in the San Francisco Harbor Improvement Act of 1929, as passed by the Senate and Assembly at the forty-eighth session of the Legislature and approved by the Governor, authorizing the issuance and sale of State bonds in the sum of $10,000,000 for the purpose of providing a fund for the construction in San Francisco Harbor of wharves, piers, seawalls, State railroad, spurs, betterments and appurtenances and for necessary dredging and filling in connection therewith and providing for the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds by the State Treasurer from revenues collected for dockage, tolls, rents, wharfage, crannage, demurrage, switching and any and all collections now or hereafter authorized by law paid into the fourth San Francisco seawall sinking fund, is hereby authorized and the said San Francisco Harbor Improvement Act of 1929 is hereby approved, adopted, legalized, validated, and made fully and completely effective. All provisions of this section shall be self-executing and shall not require any legislative action in furtherance thereof, but this shall not prevent such legislative action. Nothing in this section contained shall be a limitation upon the provisions of this section.

MR. SPEAKER: I am directed to inform your honorable body that the Senate amended, and on this day passed as amended, Assembly Bill No. 81—An act to amend section 3817 of the Political Code, relating to the redemption of property sold for taxes—and respectfully requests your honorable body to concur in said amendments.

J. A. BEEK, Secretary of Senate.

By CHAS. A. McLEAN, JR., Assistant Secretary.

The question being put: Shall the Assembly concur in the following Senate amendments to Assembly Bill No. 81?

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

In the title of the printed bill, strike out lines 1 and 2, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"An act to amend sections 3747, 3764 and 3817 of the Political Code, relating to the payment of taxes on real estate separately valued, the publication of the delinquent list, and the redemption of property sold for taxes; declaring the existing law with reference to the entries on the assessment roll and delinquent list; validating certain tax sales, tax certificates, tax deeds and tax conveyances; and declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately."

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out lines 1 and 2, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SECTION 1. Section 3747 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3747. The taxes on any particular lot, piece or parcel of land contained in any assessment may be paid separately from the whole assessment, if such lot, piece, or parcel has a separate valuation on the assessment roll, by paying the amount of state and county taxes due on such lot, piece, or parcel of land, with a proper proportion of the amounts due as tax on personal property, penalties, if any, and a proper proportion of the tax due to any school, road, or other lesser taxation district. The tax collector shall make an entry on the margin of the assessment book, with deductions from the total assessment as extended on the assessment roll, showing what certain property has been released by the payment of the taxes as herein provided, together with the amounts of such taxes separately and specifically set forth.

Sec. 2. Section 3764 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3764. (1) On or before the eighth day in June of each year, the tax collector shall publish the delinquent list, which must contain the names of persons and a description of the property delinquent, and an amount equal to the total amount of all taxes, assessments, penalties, and costs due, and which are a lien thereon. Whenever any property appears in this list, which was sold to the state five years previous to the date fixed herein for the sale to be had under the provisions of section 3771a of this code, there shall appear immediately following the description of such property a notice, which notice shall be in substance, and may be in form as follows:

See sale No.-----in addenda to this list."

(2) In addition to the publication prescribed in subdivision one of this section, there shall be appended thereto a notice of sale, and a list of all property which was sold to the state five years previous to the date fixed herein for the sale to be had under the provisions of section 3771a of this code, on which the taxes remain unpaid, or which has not been redeemed or the sale thereon canceled, and to which property the state would otherwise be entitled to a deed thereof after the lapse of five years from the date of said previous sale. Such notice shall state the day and hour and the place of sale, which sale must be had not less than twenty-one or more than twenty-eight days from the time of the first publication, and the place shall be in the tax collector's office, and shall contain a description of the property to be sold and the least amount which will be accepted as a bid thereon, which amount shall be the amount of all taxes, penalties and costs for which the property was sold to the state at said sale. The properties enumerated shall each be preceded by a sale number, such sale numbers running in regular sequence. Said notice herein provided for shall be in substance, and may be in form as follows:

Notice of sale of property for delinquent taxes of 19----at public auction.

In pursuance of law, public notice is hereby given that, commencing on the _____ day of _____ 19____ at the hour of _____ o'clock ____ m., of that day, and continuing from day to day thereafter, if additional time is required to complete the sale, in the office of the tax collector of the county of _____, State of California, the undersigned tax collector, will, unless the delinquent taxes thereon are sooner redeemed, sell or offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, in lawful money of the United States, the several parcels and lots of property hereinafter described upon which date five years will have elapsed from the date of the sale of said property to the state. No bid for said property will be accepted for less than the amount of all taxes, penalties and costs due on said property for the year the same was sold to the state (in the year 19____ for the taxes of the year 19____) which minimum amounts are set forth opposite the description of each of said properties.

In order to entitle the successful bidder to a deed of the property purchased he must, in addition to the price paid pursuant to his bid at such sale, within thirty days pay by redemption any and all further delinquent taxes and assessments against said property, together with all penalties, costs, interest and charges accrued thereon.

After a bid has been made and accepted at such sale, the right of redemption (except by the purchaser) shall cease.

Dated this_____ day of _____ 19_____

Tax collector of _____ County,
State of California.

The properties to be sold and the subject of this notice are situated in the county of _____ State of California, and particularly described as follows, to wit:

SEC. 3. Section 3817 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows: "

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE.

On page 2, line 44, of the printed bill, after the period following the word "state", insert the following:

"SEC. 4. The Legislature hereby declares that the amendments to sections 3747 and 3764 of the Political Code contained in this act are not a change in, but a statement and declaratory of the law as the Legislature intended it to be by the terms of those sections prior to this amendment. All publications of delinquent lists or notices of sale under sections 3771 and 3771a of the Political Code failing to enter taxes, penalties and costs as separate entries but entering the foregoing amounts in one total sum and all sales, certificates of sale, tax deeds or other tax conveyances based upon such entries on any assessment roll or delinquent list are hereby confirmed, validated and legalized, and the same shall be construed and operate at all times and upon all occasions in law in the same manner as if such entries were separately set forth on the delinquent list and notices of sale under sections 3771 and 3771a.

SEC. 5. The Legislature hereby declares that it deems it necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety that this act shall, under the provisions of section 1, article four, of the constitution of the State of California, take effect immediately.

The following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity:

Due to the recent decision of the supreme court of the State of California in the case of Gottstien vs Kelly, 77 Cal Dec. 485, the possible construction to be placed upon the provisions of sections 3747 and 3764 of the Political Code would require that taxes, penalties and costs should be separately shown on the publication of delinquent lists and notices of sale under sections 3771 and 3771a; inasmuch as the tax collectors of the state have completed preparatory work on the publication of the delinquent list which must be published on or before June 8, 1929, and great expense would be involved in the publication of the delinquent list to state as separate items the amount of taxes, penalties and costs due on property subject to tax sales and the possibility of error would be greatly increased, many tax titles acquired at tax sales would be jeopardized.

This act shall take effect immediately."

"SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to chapter two of title three of part one of the Code of Civil Procedure to be numbered 259a and to read as follows:

259a. Subject to the supervision of the court, every court commissioner of a county or city and county having a population of nine hundred thousand inhabitants or more shall, in addition to the powers and duties contained in section 259 of this code, have power:

1. To hear and determine ex parte motions for orders and alternative writs and writs of habeas corpus in the superior court of the county, or city and county, for which he is appointed;

2. To take proof and make and report his findings thereon as to any matter of fact upon which information is required by the court; but any party to any contested proceeding may except to such report within five days after written notice that the same has been filed, and may argue his exceptions before the court on giving notice of motion for that purpose;

3. To take and approve bonds and undertakings whenever the same may be required in actions or proceedings in such superior courts, and to examine the sureties thereon when an exception has been taken to their sufficiency, and to administer oaths and affirmations, and take affidavits and depositions in any action or proceeding in any of the courts of this state, or in any matter or proceeding whatever, and to take acknowledgments and proof of deeds, mortgages and other instruments requiring proof or acknowledgment for any purpose under the laws of this or any other state or country;

4 To act as judge pro tempore when otherwise qualified so to act and when appointed for that purpose; provided, that while acting as such he shall receive no compensation therefor other than his compensation as commissioner;

5. When ordered by the court appointing him so to do, to hear, and report his findings and conclusions to the court for approval, rejection or change, all preliminary matters including motions or petitions for the custody and support of children, the allowance of temporary alimony, costs and attorneys' fees, and issues of fact in contempt proceedings in divorce, maintenance and annulment of marriage cases;

6. When ordered by the court appointing him so to do, to hear, report on and determine all uncontested actions and proceedings other than actions for divorce, maintenance or annulment of marriage;

7. To charge and collect the same fees for the performance of official acts as are now, or may hereafter be, allowed by law to notaries public in this state for like services, provided, that this subdivision shall not apply to any services of such commissioner, the compensation for which is expressly fixed by law; provided, further, that in each county, or city and county, having a population of nine hundred thousand inhabitants or more, the fees so collected shall be paid by said commissioner to the treasurer of the county, or city and county, in which said commissioner is appointed and acting, and such fees shall be deposited in the general fund of such county, or city and county, by said treasurer;

SEC. 3. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional."

RESOLUTION.

By Mr. Patterson:

WHEREAS, There is need of comprehensive study of legislative bodies, their organization, procedure and time of meeting, to the end that the members of the Legislature of this State may be properly informed and advised as to such changes in respect thereto as may best suit the needs of California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, That a committee of three members be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, one of whom shall be the Speaker of the Assembly. It is the duty of this committee to investigate and report on all matters and things which in its judgment are necessary or convenient to enable the Legislature to consider and recommend to the electors of the State such changes as may be deemed desirable in the constitution, organization and procedure of the Legislature of this State, comprehending among other things, the study of legislative systems of other states, frequency of regular sessions, compensation of members of legislative bodies, limitation upon the number of legislative bills which may be introduced by members, the policy and practice of introduction of bills by committees and the organization and work of committees between sessions, and be it further

Resolved, That said committee shall proceed to organize by the election of one of its members as chairman and by the election of a secretary and shall proceed with said investigation in such manner as may be determined by the committee; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee is hereby authorized to hold hearings at any place in this State at which hearings, the people shall have an opportunity to present their views to the committee with reference to any suggested change with reference to questions under consideration by the committee and the committee may send any of its members or its secretary to any State in the Union to make an investigation of conditions and/or to confer with other persons and organizations interested in solving the same or similar problems; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee is hereby authorized to do any and all things necessary to make a full and complete investigation of the matters herein referred to, require the production of books, documents, records and papers of any kind, to issue subpoenas, to compel the attendance of witnesses and to procure testimony. Each member of the committee is hereby authorized to administer oaths and all of the provisions of article VIII of chapter 8 of title I of part III of the Political Code, relating to the attendance of witnesses before the Legislature and committees thereof shall apply to the committee appointed under this resolution and the committee shall submit its report to the Legislature of this State during the first week of the forty-ninth session thereof; and be it further

Resolved, That the sum of $5,000 is hereby set apart, reserved and appropriated out of the contingent fund of the Assembly for the purpose of paying the expenses incurred by the committee and the members thereof under the authority hereof, said payments to be disbursed from time to time by Controller's warrants to be drawn against said contingent fund upon written order of the chairman of the committee. The members of the committee shall receive no salaries as members thereof, but they shall receive their necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties hereunder.

Mr. Patterson moved the adoption of the resolution.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, May 15, 1929.

To the Assembly of the State of California.

I am herewith returning Assembly Bill No. 650 without my approval

This bill is an exact copy of Assembly Bill No. 681, voted upon but not passed at the legislative session of 1927. During that session I made a careful study of the proposition involved and definitely determined that the program as presented did not meet the requirements of wise public policy. I have similarly considered the bill as repeated this session, and am still more firmly fixed in my opinion that it should not become a law. For this reason I think it fairer to all concerned to express my disapproval now rather than encourage the hopes of the proponents by a delayed decision.

I believe that every one would desire the expansion of California's mining industry in so far as such expansion may be profitable and safely made. Section 1424 of the Civil Code, enacted in 1893, provides that "The business of hydraulic mining may be carried on within the State of California wherever and whenever the same can be carried on without material injury to navigable streams or to the lands adjacent thereto." During the 36 years since the passage of that act no one has ventured to resume hydraulic mining on any large scale on a navigable stream, presumably because it could not be carried on profitably without the injury referred to in the code section.

To insure against this injury dams and reservoirs to receive the tailings from the mines are required. No legislation is needed to permit the construction of such dams. The attempt to provide for the cost of these dams in whole or in part from State funds is obviously in the nature of a direct subsidy from the State treasury for private industry.

The $200,000 appropriation provided in this bill could do little or nothing for hydraulic mining. Taken alone, its effect on the industry can not be of any great value. Hydraulic mining is now permissible, provided it is conducted without injury to our streams and the lands adjacent thereto. The bill leaves these limitations unchanged; its proponents do not advocate their change.

Considered as the initial step in an indefinite State program of subsidization, a program which, to be helpful, must necessarily run into many millions of dollars, the bill must also fail. Furthermore, no such subsidy program, leading to expenditures as large as this would seem to invite, should be entered upon without the express consent of the people.

A further consideration at the present time is the necessity on the part of the State to develop its water resources. The employment of important reservoir sites for the purpose of holding back the vast volume of debris from mining operations might very possibly present serious conflicts with our coordinated water development as finally determined. I feel that we should fairly enter upon this water program before launching upon any policy of expending State funds as provided in this measure.

For these reasons I am unable to give approval to the bill.

C. C. YOUNG, Governor.

The question being put: Shall the bill become a law notwithstanding the veto of the Governor?

AYES—Anderson, Arnold, Baum, Cloudman, Dillinger, Jost, Morgan, Patterson, Seawell, Sewell, Stockwell, Williams, and Young—13.

NOES—Adams, Bernard, Bliss, Brock, Cloudsley, Collier, Craig, Crawford, Crittenden, Cronin, Crowley, Deuel, DeYoe, Easley, Eddy, Emmett, Feeley, Fisher, Fry, Gilmore, Harper, Hawes, Hoffman, Hornblower, Ingels, Jespersen, Jewett, Jones, Kline, Luttrell, McGuinness, Meeker, Miller, Eleanor; Miller, James A., Mixer, Morrison, Nielsen, Noyes, Parkman, Reindollar, Roberts, Roland, Scofield, Scudder, Snyder, Spalding, West, Witter, Woolwine, Wright, and Mr. Speaker—51.

Also:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

SACRAMENTO, May 15, 1929.

To the Assembly of the State of California.

I am herewith returning Assembly Bill No. 1025 without my approval.

This bill seeks to raise the salaries of superior court judges in Los Angeles County from $9,000 to $10,000. The proposition of an increase in the present salaries was made to me several months ago by some of the judges and their friends, and has been frequently urged upon me since that time. In every instance, however, whether by personal solicitation or by letter, I have replied that I can not consistently approve an increase at this session of the Legislature.

My reason for this stand is the fact that at the last legislative session an increase in these salaries of $2,000, or almost 30 per cent, was approved—twice as large an increase as was ever before given—and I feel that another increase at the very next session is a little too much to expect. Previous increases had never been more than $1,000, and then at very long intervals, in some cases as much as twenty years.

A raise in these salaries at the present time would throw our whole scale of judicial salaries out of line, and would in fact make the new salary equal to that of the judges of our appellate courts.

It is unquestionably true that in public service, not only in the judicial field, but also in other departments of government requiring specialized ability and training, there can be no adequate competition with what would be paid for similar work in private employment. A change in this situation has failed to find support in public opinion, however, in most every instance where opportunity for an expression of opinion on the part of the people has presented itself. Attempts in matters of this kind to pass too far ahead of public sentiment is inappropriate, whatever a person's individual views may be.

C. C. YOUNG, Governor.

The question being put: Shall the bill become a law notwithstanding the veto of the Governor?
