SAN FRANCISCO, March 1, 1929.

Governor C. C. Young,

Members of the Senate and Assembly Legislature, Sacramento, California.

GENTLEMEN: Be warned by the Cemetery Protective Organization of the danger lurking in certain measures concerning cemeteries and the extension of the privileges of eminent domain! Their audacity is almost incredible!

The consequences of the passage of these bills will be very far-reaching—impairing titles and lands throughout the State of California.

Be on your guard, when called upon to consider Assembly Bills Nos 670, 960, 961, 857, 987, and Senate Bill No. 751.

Assembly Bill No 670, Sec 1, 1254, line 15 and following needs to be scrutinized. No. 960, Sec 1, 1238, 2a (——). This provision is inserted, ostensibly for the purpose of making it possible for the Masonic Cemetery, of San Francisco, to be taken over by St Ignatius College.

However, its force is not expended there, but could be invoked by other like colleges throughout the State to get possession of coveted lands. There are many such, as you will find!

No. 961, page 2, line 48, beginning with the word "provided," sets forth a plan for legalizing a grossly illegal option. The provision has been inserted, evidently, for the purpose of paving the way for St. Ignatius College to exercise such an option on the above named Masonic Cemetery, incorporated under the statute of 1859. It contains at the present time about 11,000 bodies of the founders and builders of San Francisco and the State of California.

Three times at referendum elections, the citizens of San Francisco have defeated the proposition for the removal of those bodies "Land-grabbers" and recreant trustees are trying to walk rough-shod over property and contract rights.

No. 857, Sec 1, 1244a. Very bad, as may be seen on first reading! No. 987, Sec. 1, 1238, 2 (———), an extension of the right of eminent domain. Far-reaching, as hereinbefore stated. The institution referred to is no doubt St Ignatius College. There are many like colleges! Beware of such dangerous privileges being thus conferred!

Senate Bill No. 751, Sec 1, 1238, 2 (———), a companion bill of Assembly Bill No 987. Very dangerous!

Be it understood that the Cemetery Protective Organization is non-sectarian.

We trust that our appeal for the defeat of these measures may not be made in vain!

We look to you, our representatives, for protection against them. If passed, they would shake the very foundations of land titles and contract obligations!

Yours sincerely,

CEMETERY PROTECTIVE ORGANIZATION.
MADAME C. E. GROSJEAN, Secretary.

Blueprints.

(b) Every application for a permit or license to establish, conduct, maintain or operate a "clothes cleaning establishment," and every application to alter or reconstruct an existing "clothes cleaning establishment" shall be accompanied by four blueprints not exceeding twenty-four by forty-two inches in size, on which shall be shown a plot plan, made to a scale of one-eighth of an inch to one foot, showing the boundary lines of the property devoted or to be devoted to the establishment, with its dimensions figured; all adjacent streets, alleys or easements, tiled, and with their widths figured; the relation to such street, alley or easement lines of all buildings or structures existing, or to be erected, with all dimensions figured; the materials of construction of all existing and proposed buildings, including that of existing buildings on adjacent property, with wall sections and openings indicated, and the figured location, size, and materials of construction of the boiler house, including the type and horsepower of the boiler; and, in addition to said plot plan, a three-eighths or one-half inch scale detail plan of all hazardous buildings and rooms, including their heights, with all major dimensions figured, showing the sections and materials of construction of walls, partitions, roofs and floors; the location and size of all door, window and skylight openings, and the location of the wall vents; the location of the riser ducts of the ventilating system; the run of all steam or other fixed fire extinguishing equipment, including the location of all outlets and control valves, and the arrangement of all operating apparatus and appliances, including the location of motors, and no permit shall be granted unless the arrangement, materials and construction shown on the said blueprints have been approved by the department of industrial relations. If such investigation reveals that the "clothes cleaning establishment," or the plans, specifications, premises, or character or ability of such applicant to conduct a "clothes cleaning establishment" are not in compliance with the provisions of law or in any manner jeopardizes the public welfare or in any manner in the opinion of the department of industrial relations, or its duly authorized representatives, makes such proposed establishment a menace to the public welfare and safety, the department of industrial relations in its discretion is empowered to deny such applicant a permit or license to establish or maintain a "clothes cleaning establishment."

The failure of any established "clothes cleaning establishment" or its owners to pay such license fee to the department of industrial relations on or before the first day of January of each and every year of the operation of such "clothes cleaning establishment," shall be prima facie evidence of the violation of this act.

Moneys Collected.

The department of industrial relations is further empowered and directed to abate fire nuisances in any "clothes cleaning establishment" pending a hearing upon such nuisance.

In the event that any person, firm, association, copartnership, corporation or organization to whom such license or permit, has been issued to establish, conduct, maintain or operate a "clothes cleaning establishment" or to store or to keep any volatile and inflammable product therein, shall violate or shall cause or permit to be violated any of the provisions of this act regulating such "clothes cleaning establishment," or shall conduct, maintain, or operate, or cause, or permit to be conducted, maintained or operated such "clothes cleaning establishment" in an unlawful or careless manner dangerous to person or property, within the discretion of the department of industrial relations or its duly authorized representatives, it shall be the duty of said department of industrial relations, and said department of industrial relations is hereby authorized and directed to revoke the permit or license issued to any such person, firm, association, copartnership, corporation or organization; provided, however, that no such permit or license shall be revoked until after a hearing as hereinafter provided has been had by said department of industrial relations in the matter of revocation of such permit or license. Notice of such hearing shall be given in writing and served upon the holder of such permit or license or some representative thereof if such permit or license is issued in the name of more than one person, or their manager or agent, which notice shall state the grounds of complaint against such holder or holders, or against such establishment, and shall also state the time and place when and where such hearing shall be held. Such notice shall be served upon the holder or holders of such permit or their representative by delivering the same to such holder, or either of them, or to his or their manager, representative, or agent, or to any person in charge of or employed in such establishment, or by leaving such notice at such establishment, or at the residence of such holder, or either or any of them with some person of suitable age and description. If such notice be not served personally upon the holder, or any or either of them, of such permit, a copy of such notice, in addition to such notice being served as otherwise hereinabove provided, shall be deposited in the United States post office, in a sealed envelope, postage prepaid, addressed to the holder of such permit at the address of such establishment. Such notice shall be served as hereinabove provided at least five (5) days prior to the date of such hearing.

Any person, firm, association, corporation, copartnership or organization violating any of the provisions of this act, or who shall violate or fail to comply with any order or regulation made hereunder, or who shall construct, in violation of any detailed statement or specifications or plans submitted and approved hereunder by the department of industrial relations, any establishment or portion thereof herein provided for, or who shall violate the terms of any license, or permit, issued hereunder, shall severally and for each portion or noncompliance respectively be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars ($200) or imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. If any sentence, clause, or portion of this act should be declared unconstitutional such decision shall not invalidate any remaining portions of this act.

COMMUNICATION.

The following communication, relative to Senate Bill No. 31 and Assembly Bill No. 94, was read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Bishop:

SAN FRANCISCO, February 27, 1929.

*Hon. Roy Bishop, Assembly Chamber,
Sacramento, California.*

DEAR MR. BISHOP: 1. I have been informed that it has been claimed that Senate Bill No. 31 and Assembly Bill No. 94, now pending before the present session of the Legislature and relating to a transfer of the State harbor property to San Francisco, follow in substance the form of a bill of similar character once drawn by me as counsel for the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. Those making such a claim are mistaken.

2. In the legislative session of 1911 certain tide and marsh lands were granted by the State to Los Angeles, Long Beach, Oakland and San Diego. In that same session a bill was introduced in the Senate (Senate Bill No. 1200) to accomplish the grant to San Francisco of all property at that time under the jurisdiction of the State Board of Harbor Commissioners. Since that time the following bills have been introduced bearing upon the same subject of a transfer to San Francisco of the State harbor property: In 1919 Senate Bill No. 94, in 1921 Senate Bill No. 360 and Assembly Bill No. 608, in 1923 Senate Bill No. 179, in 1925 Senate Bill No. 904, and in 1927 Assembly Bill No. 393. None of these bills was drawn by me.

3. I have been general counsel for the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce since its organization in June, 1911. Every one of the foregoing bills arising since its organization has been consistently opposed by that organization.

4. In 1920 I prepared a charter amendment to the charter of San Francisco providing a municipal board of harbor commissioners with authority to manage the affairs of the harbor in the event that any transfer of the State harbor should thereafter be made to San Francisco. I prepared this amendment at the request of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. It was submitted to popular vote and approved in November of 1920, and ratified by the Legislature of 1921. In advocating that amendment the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce was not urging a transfer of the harbor from State to municipal control, but did realize the importance of having the appropriate machinery provided in the city charter for the management of the harbor if at any future time the State might be disposed to transfer control of the harbor from the State to the city.

Faithfully yours,

ALLEN G. WRIGHT.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. Woolwine announced that California is honored before the world today by having its own distinguished son, Herbert Hoover, inaugurated as President of the United States. To commemorate this event and in order that a record may be preserved for future history and our posterity, Mr. Woolwine asked for and was granted unanimous consent to have the inaugural address of President Hoover printed in the Journal.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF HON. HERBERT HOOVER.

My Countrymen.

This occasion is not alone the administration of the most sacred oath which can be assumed by an American citizen. It is a dedication and consecration under God to the highest office in service of our people. I assume this trust in the humility of knowledge that only through the guidance of Almighty Providence can I hope to discharge its ever increasing burdens.

It is in keeping with tradition throughout our history that I should express simply and directly the opinions which I hold concerning some of the matters of present importance.

If we survey the situation of our nation both at home and abroad, we find many satisfactions; we find some causes for concern. We have emerged from the losses of the great war and the reconstruction following it with increased virility and strength.

From this strength we have contributed to the recovery and progress of the world. What America has done has given renewed hope and courage to all who have faith in government by the people. In the large view, we have reached a higher degree of comfort and security than ever existed before in the history of the world.

Through liberation from widespread poverty we have reached a higher degree of individual freedom than ever before. The devotion to and concern for our institutions are deep and sincere. We are steadily building a new race—a new civilization great in its own attainments.

The influence and high purposes of our nation are respected among the peoples of the world. We aspire to distinction in the world, but to a distinction based upon confidence in our sense of justice as well as our accomplishments within our own borders and in our own lives. For wise guidance in this great period of recovery the nation is deeply indebted to Calvin Coolidge.

But all this majestic advance should not obscure the constant dangers from which self-government must be safeguarded. The strong man must at all times be alert to the attack of insidious disease.

The most malign of all these dangers today is disregard and disobedience of law. Crime is increasing. Confidence in rigid and speedy justice is decreasing. I am not prepared to believe that this indicates any decay in the moral fiber of the American people. I am not prepared to believe that it indicates an impotence of the federal government to enforce its laws.

It is only in part due to the additional burdens imposed upon our judicial system by the eighteenth amendment. The problem is much wider than that. Many influences had increasingly complicated and weakened our law enforcement organization long before the adoption of the eighteenth amendment.

To re-establish the vigor and effectiveness of law enforcement we must critically consider the entire federal machinery of justice, the redistribution of its functions, the simplification of its procedure, the provision of additional special tribunals, the better selection of juries, and the more effective organization of our agencies of investigation and prosecution that justice may be sure and that it may be swift. While the authority of the federal government extends to but part of our vast system of national, state and local justice, yet the standards which the federal government establishes have the most profound influence upon the whole structure.

We are fortunate in the ability and integrity of our federal judges and attorneys. But the system which these officers are called upon to administer is in many respects ill-adapted to present day conditions. Its intricate and involved rules of procedure have become the refuge of both big and little criminals. There is a belief abroad that by invoking technicalities, subterfuges and delay the ends of justice may be thwarted by those who can pay the cost.

Reform, reorganization and strengthening of our whole judicial and enforcement system both in civil and criminal sides have been advocated for years by statesmen, judges and bar associations. First steps toward that end should not longer be delayed. Rigid and expeditious justice is the first safeguard of freedom, the basis of all ordered liberty, the vital force of progress.

It must not come to be in our republic that it can be defeated by the indifference of the citizen, by exploitation of the delays and entanglements of the law, or by combinations of criminals. Justice must not fail because the agencies of enforcement are either delinquent or inefficiently organized. To consider these evils, to find their remedy, is the most sore necessity of our times.

Of the undoubted abuses which have grown up under the eighteenth amendment, part are due to the causes I have just mentioned; but part are due to the failure of some states to accept their share of responsibility for concurrent enforcement and to the failure of many states and local officials to accept the obligation under their oath of office zealously to enforce the laws. With the failures from these many causes has come a dangerous expansion in the criminal elements who have found enlarged opportunities in dealing in illegal liquor.

But a large responsibility rests directly upon our citizens. There would be little traffic in illegal liquor if only criminals patronized it. We must awake to the fact that this patronage from large numbers of law-abiding citizens is supplying the rewards and stimulating crime.

I have been selected by you to execute and enforce the laws of the country I propose to do so to the extent of my own abilities, but the measure of success that the government shall attain will depend upon the moral support which you, as citizens, extend. The duty of citizens to support the laws of the land is co-equal with the duty of their government to enforce the laws which exist.

No greater national service can be given by men and women of good will—who, I know, are not unmindful of the responsibilities of citizenship—than that they should, by their example, assist in stamping out crime and outlawry by refusing participation in and condemning all transactions with illegal liquor.

Our whole system of self-government will crumble either if officials elect what laws they will enforce or citizens elect what laws they will support. The worst evil of disregard for some law is that it destroys respect for all law. For our citizens to patronize the violation of a particular law on the ground that they are opposed to it is destructive of the very basis of all that protection of life, of homes and property which they rightly claim under other laws. If citizens do not like a law, their duty as honest men and women is to discourage its violation: their right is openly to work for its repeal.

To those of criminal mind there can be no appeal but vigorous enforcement of the law. Fortunately they are but a small percentage of our people. Their activities must be stopped.

I propose to appoint a national commission for a searching investigation of the whole structure of our federal system of jurisprudence, to include the method of enforcement of the eighteenth amendment and the causes of abuse under it. Its purpose will be to make such recommendations for reorganization of the administration of federal laws and court procedure as may be found desirable. In the meantime it is essential that a large part of the enforcement activities be transferred from the treasury department to the department of justice as a beginning of more effective organization.

The election has again confirmed the determination of the American people that regulation of private enterprise and not government ownership or operation is the course rightly to be pursued in our relation to business. In recent years we have established a differentiation in the whole method of business regulation between the industries which produce and distribute commodities on the one hand, and public utilities on the other.

In the former, our laws insist upon effective competition. In the latter, because we substantially confer a monopoly by limiting competition, we must regulate their services and rates.

The rigid enforcement of the laws applicable to both groups is the very base of equal opportunity and freedom from domination for all our people, and it is just as essential for the stability and prosperity of business itself as for the protection of the public at large.

Such regulation should be extended by the federal government within the limitations of the constitution and only when the individual states are without power to protect their citizens through their own authority. On the other hand, we should be fearless when the authority rests only in the federal government.

The larger purpose of our economic thought should be to establish more firmly stability and security of business and employment and thereby remove poverty still further from our borders. Our people have in recent years developed a new-found capacity for cooperation among themselves to effect high purposes in public welfare. It is an advance toward the highest conception of self-government.

Self-government does not and should not imply the use of political agencies alone. Progress is born of cooperation in the community—not from governmental restraints. The government should assist and encourage these movements of collective self-help by itself cooperating with them. Business has by cooperation made great progress in the advancement of service, its stability, in regularity of employment and in the correction of its own abuses. Such progress, however, can continue only so long as business manifests its respect for law.

There is an equally important field of cooperation by the federal government with the multitude of agencies, state, municipal and private, in the systematic development of those processes which directly affect public health, recreation, education and the home. We have need further to perfect the means by which government can be adapted to human service.

Although education is primarily a responsibility of the states and local communities, and rightly so, yet the nation as a whole is vitally concerned in its development everywhere to the highest standards and to complete universality. Self-government can succeed only through an instructed electorate. Our objective is not simply to overcome illiteracy. The nation has marched far beyond that. The more complex the problems of the nation become, the greater is the need for more and more advanced instruction. Moreover, as our numbers increase and as our life expands with science and invention, we must discover more and more leaders for every walk of life.

We cannot hope to succeed in directing this increasingly complex civilization unless we can draw all the talent of leadership from the whole people. One civilization after another has been wrecked upon the attempt to secure sufficient leadership from a single group or class. If we would prevent growth of class distinctions and would constantly refresh our leadership with the ideals of our people, we must draw constantly from the general mass. The full opportunity for every boy and girl to rise through the selective processes of education can alone secure to us this leadership.

In public health the discoveries of science have opened a new era. Many sections of our country and many groups of our citizens suffer from diseases the eradication of which are mere matters of administration and moderate expenditure. Public health service should be as fully organized and as universally incorporated into our governmental system as is public education. The returns are a thousand fold in economic benefits, and infinitely more in reduction of suffering and promotion of human happiness.

The United States fully accepts the profound truth that our own progress, prosperity and peace are interlocked with the progress, prosperity and peace of all humanity. The whole world is at peace. The dangers to a continuation of this peace today are largely the fear and suspicion which still haunt the world. No suspicion or fear can be rightly directed toward our country.

Those who have a true understanding of America know that we have no desire for territorial expansion, for economic or other domination of other peoples. Such purposes are repugnant to our ideals of human freedom.

Our form of government is ill adapted to the responsibilities which inevitably follow permanent limitation of the independence of other peoples. Superficial observers seem to find no destiny for our abounding increase in population, in wealth and power except that of imperialism. They fail to see that the American people are engrossed in the building for themselves of a new economic system, a new social system, a new political system—all of which are characterized by aspirations of freedom of opportunity and thereby are the negation of imperialism.

They fail to realize that because of our abounding prosperity our youth are pressing more and more into our institutions of learning; that our people are seeking a larger vision through art, literature, science and travel; that they are moving toward stronger moral and spiritual life—that from these things our sympathies are broadening beyond the bounds of our nation and race toward their true expression in a real brotherhood of man.

They fail to see that the idealism of America will lead it to no narrow or selfish channel, but inspire it to do its full share as a nation toward the advancement of civilization.

It will do that not by mere declaration but by taking a practical part in supporting all useful international undertakings. We not only desire peace with the world, but to see peace maintained throughout the world. We wish to advance the reign of justice and reason toward the extinction of force.

The recent treaty for the renunciation of war as an instrument of national policy sets an advanced standard in our conception of the relations of nations. Its acceptance should pave the way to greater limitation of armament, the offer of which we sincerely extend to the world.

But its full realization also implies a greater and greater perfection in the instrumentalities for pacific settlement of controversies between nations. In the creation and use of these instrumentalities we should support every sound method of conciliation, arbitration and judicial settlement.

American statesmen were among the first to propose and they have constantly urged upon the world the establishment of a tribunal for the settlement of controversies of a justiciable character. The permanent court of international justice in its major purpose is thus peculiarly identified with American ideals and with American statesmanship. No more potent instrumentality for this purpose has ever been conceived and no other is practicable of establishment. The reservations placed upon our adherence should not be misinterpreted.

The United States seeks by these reservations no special privilege or advantage but only to clarify our relation to advisory opinions and other matters which are subsidiary to the major purpose of the court. The way should, and I believe will, be found by which we may take our proper place in a movement so fundamental to the progress of peace.

Our people have determined that we should make no political engagements such as membership in the League of Nations, which may commit us in advance as a nation to become involved in the settlements of controversies between other countries. They adhere to the belief that the independence of America from such obligations, increases its ability and availability for service in all fields of human progress.

I have lately returned from a journey among our sister republics of the western hemisphere. I have received unbounded hospitality and courtesy as their expression of friendliness to our country. We are held by particular bonds of sympathy and common interest with them.

They are each of them building a racial character and a culture which is an impressive contribution to human progress. We wish only for the maintenance of their independence, the growth of their stability and their prosperity. While we have had wars in the western hemisphere yet on the whole the record is in encouraging contrast with that of other parts of the world. Fortunately the new world is largely free from the inheritances of fear and distrust which have so troubled the old world. We should keep it so.

It is impossible, my countrymen, to speak of peace without profound emotion. In thousands of homes in America, in millions of homes around the world, there are vacant chairs. It would be a shameful confession of our unworthiness if it should develop that we have abandoned the hope for which all these men died.

Surely civilization is old enough, surely mankind is mature enough so that we ought in our own lifetime to find a way to permanent peace. Abroad, to west and east, are nations whose sons mingled their blood with the blood of our sons on the battlefields. Most of these nations have contributed to our race, to our culture, our knowledge and our progress. From one of them we derive our very language and from many of them much of the genius of our institutions. Their desire for peace is as deep and sincere as our own.

Peace can be contributed to by respect for our ability in defense. Peace can be promoted by the limitation of arms and by the creation of the instrumentalities for peaceful settlement of controversies. But it will become a reality only through self-restraint and active effort in friendliness and helpfulness. I covet for this administration a record of having further contributed to advance the cause of peace.

In our form of democracy the expression of the popular will can be effected only through the instrumentality of political parties. We maintain party government not to promote intolerant partisanship but because opportunity must be given for expression of the popular will, and organization provided for the execution of its mandates and for accountability of government to the people.

It follows that the government both in the executive and legislative branches must carry out in good faith the platforms upon which the party was entrusted with power. But the government is that of the whole people; the party is the instrument through which policies are determined and men chosen to bring them into being. The animosities of elections should have no place in our government for government must concern itself alone with the common weal.

Action upon some of the proposals upon which the Republican party was returned to power, particularly further agricultural relief and limited changes in the tariff, can not in justice to our farmers, our labor and our manufacturers be postponed. I shall therefore request a special session of Congress for the consideration of these two questions. I shall deal with each of them upon the assembly of the Congress.

It appears to me that the more important further mandates from the recent election were the maintenance of the integrity of the constitution; the vigorous enforcement of the laws; the continuance of economy in public expenditures; the continued regulation of business to prevent domination in the community; the denial of ownership of operation of business by the government in competition with its citizens; the avoidance of policies which would involve us in the controversies of foreign nations; the more effective reorganization of the departments of the federal government; the expansion of the public works; and the promotion of welfare activities affecting education and the home.

These were the more tangible determinations of the election, but beyond them was the confidence and belief of the people that we would not neglect the support of the embedded ideals and aspirations of America.

These ideals and aspirations are the touch-stones upon which the day to day administration and legislative acts of government must be tested. More than this, the government must, so far as lies within its proper powers, give leadership to the realization of these ideals and to the fruition of these aspirations. No one can adequately reduce these things to the spirit, to phrases or to a catalogue of definitions. We do know what the attainments of these ideals should be. The preservation of self-government and its full foundations in local government; the perfection of justice whether in economic or in social fields, the maintenance of ordered liberty; the denial of domination by any group or class; the building up and preservation of equality of opportunity; the stimulation of initiative and individuality; absolute integrity in public affairs; the choice of officials for fitness to office; the direction of economic progress toward prosperity and the further lessening of poverty; the freedom of public opinion, the sustaining of education and of the advancement of knowledge; the growth of religious spirit and the tolerance of all faiths; the strengthening of the home; the advancement of peace.

There is no short road to the realization of these aspirations. Ours is a progressive people, but with a determination that progress must be based upon the foundation of experience. Ill-considered remedies for our faults bring only penalties after them. But if we hold the faith of the men in our mighty past who created these ideals, we shall leave them heightened and strengthened for our children.

This is not the time and place for extended discussion. The questions before our country are problems of progress to higher standards; they are not the problems of degeneration. They demand thought and they serve to quicken the conscience and enlist our sense of responsibility for their settlement. And that responsibility rests upon you, my countrymen, as much as upon those of us who have been selected for office.

Ours is a land rich in resources; stimulating in its glorious beauty; filled with millions of happy homes; blessed with comfort and opportunity. In no nation are the institutions of progress more advanced. In no nation are the fruits of accomplishment more secure. In no nation is the government more worthy of respect. No country is more loved by its people. I have an abiding faith in their capacity, integrity and high purpose. I have no fears for the future of our country. It is bright with hope.

In the presence of my countrymen, mindful of the solemnity of this occasion, knowing what the task means and the responsibility which it involves, I beg your tolerance, your aid and your co-operation. I ask the help of Almighty God in this service to my country to which you have called me.

Sec. 27. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets on or before the third Monday of September of each year to certify to the county tax collector, a list of the properties within said city upon which there was a lien for unpaid assessments which had not gone to bond, as shown by the records of the street superintendent on the second Monday of August preceding.

The notice herein provided to be attached to or pasted to or printed or stamped upon the tax bill shall if the county tax collector so requires be prepared by the superintendent of streets and shall be forwarded to the county tax collector on or before the date herein provided for forwarding said list. Such tax collector, shall cause to be pasted or attached to or printed or stamped upon the tax bill or tax receipt, a notice which shall, in substance be as follows:

"Notice of Assessments

There was on the second Monday in August 19___, a delinquent assessment lien on this property which must be paid to city street superintendent (or bureau of assessments in cities where such bureau exists) to avoid foreclosure."

At any time after the first day of July next succeeding eight months following the date of return of such assessment to the superintendent of streets, the contractor or his assignee may bring action to foreclose any assessment against any of the land, lots, or portions of lots assessed on the assessment and diagram which have not been paid, and may recover the amount of such assessment, together with interest, penalties and costs allowed hereunder.

At any time after the return of such assessment to the superintendent of streets the contractor or his assignee may bring such action to foreclose if there should be a sale advertised of the property by the state for taxes or if proceedings should have been commenced for foreclosure of any special assessment lien prior to the one sued upon

When suit has been brought in accordance with the provisions of this section, the plaintiff shall be entitled to have and recover five dollars attorney fees, and not exceeding five dollars for the cost of a report of search by a reputable title company to determine those persons interested in the property, which report shall be filed in the action on each assessment sued on, in addition to all taxable costs, if the suit be settled or a tender be made before a recovery in said action, and he may have judgment therefor; provided, that if the court finds an unnecessary number of actions have been brought, where the parties are identical, it may allow the costs of one action only; and provided, further, that such attorney's fee in any one action shall not exceed fifteen dollars where said action shall be settled before trial or where judgment shall be taken on default. Suit may be brought in the superior court within whose jurisdiction the city is, in which said work has been done, and the service of process must be had in said action, in such manner as is prescribed in the codes and laws of this state. It shall be competent to bring a single action under any such assessment irrespective of the number of lots assessed where the parties defendant are identical, and where separate actions are brought, the same may be consolidated by order of the court. The said warrant, assessment and diagram, with proof of nonpayment shall be held prima facie evidence of the regularity and correctness of the assessment and of the prior proceedings and acts of the superintendent of streets, and city council upon which said warrant, assessment and diagram are based, and like evidence of the right of the plaintiff to recover in the action. The court in said suit shall have the power to adjudge and decree a lien against the lot or parcel of land covered by said assessment and to cause the same to be sold to satisfy and discharge such lien. On appeal, the appellate court shall have the same power to adjudge and decree a lien and order the premises to be sold as is conferred on the court from which an appeal is taken.

In ordering the sale of the property on foreclosure of any assessment the date of the sale shall be set by the court within thirty days from date of judgment unless same be earlier than eighteen months following the date of the return to the superintendent of the warrant, when it shall follow such eighteen months within thirty days. The court shall order that a deed immediately issue upon the consummation of the sale and that such premises shall not thereafter be redeemable. The court shall also require the plaintiff to provide a certificate or guaranty from a title company authorized under the laws of California to issue policies of title insurance to the effect that they have examined the regularity of all of the proceedings and that the deed of the sheriff to be issued at the sale will convey a good title to the premises subject only to liens prior to the lien foreclosed upon, enumerating the said prior liens. The plaintiff shall pay for such certificate or guaranty and shall be entitled to recover the cost thereof. The said cost, however, to be subject to approval by the court.

In a complaint in any such action it shall be held sufficient to allege briefly that the city council ordered the work. The performance of the work under the contract, the making of the assessment, the issuing of said warrant and the making of said diagram; that an assessment (naming the amount) was levied against that certain lot or parcel of land (describing the same) which, according to the information and belief of the plaintiff, is owned by the defendant; that payment of said assessment has not been made.

If the contractor or his agent, or any person acting in behalf of the contractor shall, prior to the filing of a complaint for the recovery of any assessment as herein provided or subsequent to the filing of suit and prior to the allowance of attorney fees and costs as herein provided, make any written demand upon or present any bill or notice in writing to such owner, demanding, requesting or notifying such owner to pay or that there is due, attorney's fees or court costs in connection with the collection of such assessment, then the superintendent of streets is authorized, upon written demand of such owner, accompanied by affidavit of such owner, that such written demand, bill or notice for the payment of attorney's fees and costs, or either thereof was made upon or presented to such owner prior to the commencement of suit, or subsequent to the filing of suit and prior to the allowance of attorney's fees and costs, together with such written demand, bill or notice to mark said assessment "paid" and such assessment shall thereby be deemed to be paid and the lien thereof released; provided, that this clause shall not be held to apply to the service or summons and complaint in a civil action.

Should suit be brought for the recovery of any assessment prior to the time permitted for bringing same as herein provided, then in such action, so brought the plaintiff shall not recover and defendant shall be entitled to have and recover such attorney's fees as the court may deem reasonable in addition to all taxable costs and he may have judgment therefor.

Upon dismissal of an action brought hereunder or before paying to the plaintiff the portion due such plaintiff of the proceeds of a sale hereunder the clerk of the court must forthwith notify the superintendent of streets who shall upon receiving such notice cancel the assessment upon the records of his office and mark the same "Canceled through order of court in action No.-----"

If, for any reason, the funds derived from the issuance of bonds as heretofore provided for any acquisition under a proceeding had and taken under this act, shall be insufficient to pay the interlocutory judgment or judgments and all incidental expenses of the proceedings, or any additional moneys are required to be deposited in court in order that possession and use of the property sought to be condemned, or any portion thereof, may be had or retained, the legislative body conducting the proceedings may meet such deficit by an appropriation out of the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, or by ordering a supplemental issue of bonds of the district and the sale of such bonds, which bonds shall be issued and sold in like manner and form and under like procedure and with like notice to that heretofore in this act prescribed for the issuing of bonds to obtain funds for deposit in order that immediate possession and use of the property sought to be condemned may be obtained or to defray the expenses of an acquisition, as the case may be. The report of the attorney that additional funds are needed for any of the purposes in this section stated shall be made to the legislative body conducting the proceeding and such legislative body shall thereafter proceed as hereinbefore in this section provided. In the event such a supplemental issue of bonds is made, said legislative body may advance the moneys required from the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, and thereafter reimburse said fund from the proceeds of such supplemental issue.

Also if the funds derived from the issuance of bonds for any improvement are insufficient to pay the costs of the same and all incidental expenses thereof the legislative body which conducted the proceedings may meet such deficiency by an appropriation out of the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, or by ordering a supplemental issue of bonds of the district and the sale of such bonds as provided for a supplemental issue of acquisition bonds, except that the report that additional funds are needed shall be made by the superintendent of work.

SEC. 22. Section 40 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows.

Sec. 40. The principal and interest of the bonds issued under this act shall be payable in gold coin of the United States of America at the office of the treasurer issuing the same. The legislative body is hereby vested with power to determine, and shall in the resolution of intention determine, the number of years, not to exceed thirty, in the case of acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds, and not to exceed twenty in the case of improvement bonds, after the issuance of any bonds issued, within which the aggregate principal of all bonds to be issued in any proceeding under this act shall be paid and discharged, and to fix the rate of interest, not to exceed eight per cent per annum, payable semiannually, to be paid thereon; provided, however, that in the case of acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds the rate stated in the resolution need only be a maximum rate, which shall not exceed eight per cent per annum, payable semiannually, in which case the exact rate of interest shall be determined upon the sale of the bonds, as heretofore provided. It shall be a sufficient determination and fixing of the term and interest rate of said bonds to set forth in the resolution of intention that bonds will be issued for the expense of the things to be done in any language which will fairly indicate such time, the fractional part of the principal to be paid each year, and the interest rate for improvement bonds and either the interest rate or the maximum interest rate for which acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds will be issued. It may be provided in said resolution that the first payment of principal shall become due, either one, two, or three years after the date of said bonds. The number of installments of payments on the principal shall be indicated in said resolution of intention, and in any proceeding the number of installments of payment on the principal of improvement bonds may differ from the number of installments of payments on the principal of acquisition bonds and immediate possession bonds, if any, to be issued in said proceeding. The amount of the principal due in each annual payment need not be exactly the same, but with respect to each installment except the last may be made to differ not more than five hundred dollars from the amount obtained by dividing the total of the principal amount due under the bonds by the number of installments. Each installment, except the last, shall be an even multiple of one hundred and the last installment shall be for the balance of the total principal amount not provided to be paid in the previous installments.

In case the amount of any supplemental issue of bonds, or the amount of any issue of acquisition bonds after immediate possession bonds have been issued in the proceedings, is insufficient for such bonds to mature in multiples of one hundred dollars over the term of maturity of the bonds to be issued, as stated in the resolution of intention, in that event the legislative body conducting the proceedings may fix the maturities of such bonds, and the denominations thereof, so that the same may be issued in multiples of one hundred dollars and in that event such bonds shall mature in as nearly as possible equal, annual amounts and the first payment on the principal thereof shall be as stated in the resolution of intention.

All bonds issued hereunder shall be dated as provided in this act, and in case immediate possession bonds, improvement bonds, and acquisition bonds be issued, the respective dates of such bonds shall be the dates of the respective resolutions ordering the issuance of the same.

The interest payments on said bonds shall be payable semiannually on the second day of January and the second day of July of each year, except that the first interest payment shall be made on the second day of January or the second day of July (whichever month first succeeds the date of the bonds) next succeeding one year after the date of said bonds, and except that the last installment of interest shall be payable at the maturity of the bonds, in the manner indicated in the form of bond in this act set forth. It shall not be necessary, either in the resolution of intention or otherwise, to set forth or determine the days of the month on which payments of interest are to be made, nor that payments shall be made in gold coin, nor that payments shall be made at such treasurer's office, but all persons are charged with notice of the contents of this section, especially in the aforesaid particulars.

Whenever any of said bonds or any payment of principal or interest thereon shall become due and there shall not be sufficient money in said interest and sinking fund to pay the same, the legislative body which conducted the proceeding may, pending the levy and collection of a special assessment tax therefor, order the amount of money necessary to pay said bonds, or payment of principal or interest so falling due, to be transferred from the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, to said interest and sinking fund, and the amount of money so transferred shall be deemed a loan to said interest and sinking fund and shall be repaid to the general fund from the first money coming into said interest and sinking fund thereafter. Any money remaining in any acquisition and improvement district interest and sinking fund after all of the bonds of the district have been retired shall be transferred to the general fund of the county or municipality, as the case may be, whose legislative body conducted the proceeding and shall by said body be used in repairing any public way in said district, the repair of which in their judgment will be of benefit to the taxpayers in the district in the same relative degree as the improvement originally made in the district, regardless of whether a portion or all of the district as originally formed may have been included within one or more municipalities which did not include such portion or all of the district at the time the proceedings for the same were initiated.

The legislative body and other officers and bodies named are hereby vested with power and jurisdiction to do all and singular the things which in this section it is declared shall or may be done by it or them."

Sec 13 Section 42 of said "Acquisition and improvement act of 1925," as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows

Sec. 42. All bonds issued in pursuance of the provisions of this act shall be negotiable and shall by their issuance be conclusive evidence of the regularity, validity and legal sufficiency of all proceedings, acts and determinations in any wise pertaining thereto, had or made under this act, and after the same are issued no tax levied or collected for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on said bonds shall be held to be invalid or illegal, or set aside or refunded, by reason of any error, informality, irregularity, omission or defect in any of the proceedings, acts or determinations in any wise pertaining to the issuance or payment of said bonds, nor shall any action or proceeding be thereafter commenced or maintained to cancel or set aside said bonds or to prevent the payment thereof or the levy or collection or enforcement of a tax for such payment.

The legislative body conducting the proceedings may at any time after any bonds have been ordered issued, but before the delivery of the same, or after any contract has been awarded, but before the same has been signed, bring an action in the superior court of the county in which the district lies to determine the validity of such bonds or contract. The jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of summons at least once a week for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which said suit is brought, such paper to be designated by the court having jurisdiction of the proceeding. Said summons shall contain a statement of the title of the action, the approximate amount of bonds involved in the action or the approximate amount of the contract price as nearly as the same may be estimated, a general description of Jurisdiction shall be complete thirty days after the first publication of such summons in the manner herein provided. Any person interested may at any time before the expiration of said thirty days appear and by proper proceedings contest the validity of such bonds or contract. Such action shall be speedily tried and judgment rendered declaring such bonds or contract either valid or invalid.

The court hearing said action, in inquiring into the regularity, legality or correctness of such proceedings, must disregard any error, irregularity or omission which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties to said action. The rules of pleading and practice provided by the Code of Civil Procedure, where not inconsistent with this act, are applicable to the action herein provided for. Any motion for a new trial must be heard and determined within ten days from the filing of the notice of intention. The costs of the hearing in such action may be allowed and apportioned between the parties or taxed to the losing party in the discretion of the court. Either party shall have the right to appeal to the supreme court within thirty days after the rendition of such judgment and the appeal must be heard and determined within three months from the time of taking such appeal.

Such action shall be a proceeding in rem and the judgment therein shall be final and conclusive of the validity of such bonds or said contract and of the validity of all proceedings prior to the issuance of such bonds or the awarding of such contract and shall be conclusive evidence of the validity of such bonds or contract and of the validity of all proceedings prior to the issuance of such bonds or the award of such contract."

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from the Governor was read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

To the Members of the Senate and Assembly.

In accordance with the provisions of section 34, article IV, of the State constitution, I propose at this time certain amendments to the budget and the budget bill as originally presented to you on January 8, 1929. The changes are few in number and except for two or three items are chiefly of minor nature.

The items providing for the larger increases deserve some comment.

In presenting the budget to the Legislature no provision was made for permanent improvements at the California School for the Deaf at Berkeley. This was purposely omitted until the legislative committee appointed to report upon the needs of future development of the school had made its report. The committee made a careful study of the problem and after several conferences with the Department of Finance regarding the building needs of this institution have recommended the sum of $300,000 in the next biennium for beginning the reconstruction program. Therefore, an item of $300,000 has been recommended for permanent improvements for this school.

The University of California has presented to us the absolute necessity for an increase in the budget recommendations for the support of this institution because of unusual expenses which will have to be met during the next biennium in connection with the removal of the University in Los Angeles to the site of its new campus. For this reason an increase of $150,000 has been recommended for the support of the university.

Upon the recommendation of the Department of Public Works the special item for acquiring and construction of additional works in connection with flood control, irrigation, reclamation, and power development on the Sacramento and San Joaquin and Feather rivers has been reduced by $50,000 and the special item for maintenance, operation and emergency protection of the Sacramento flood control project has been increased $50,000. This does not result in any increase in the budget.

At the Home for the Adult Blind a serious condition exists in that the broom shop of that institution is situated in an old two-story frame building, in which the blind are working on the second floor. There is constant danger of fire which might result in a serious loss of life if the condition is not immediately remedied. An item of $40,000 for the construction of a fireproof building with workshop on the ground floor is recommended.

A deduction of $11,800 is recommended from the support appropriation for the State Board of Equalization. A letter has been received from the Board of Equalization stating that this amount can be saved from their direct expenses in making the general franchise tax assessments under the new law and could be deducted from their budget.

In the original budget request of the Board of Equalization approximately $109,000 additional was requested to provide for the additional work required for the contemplated new form of taxation. This amount added to the sum of $11,800, which the Board of Equalization stated covered the direct expenses in connection with making the general corporate franchise tax assessments, totals approximately $120,000. It is believed, with the cooperation assured by the Board of Equalization and the Controller, that expenses in connection with the new form of tax can be kept within $100,000 and an item of $100,000 is recommended for the support of the Tax Commissioner's office.

An opportunity has been presented by the county of Sacramento whereby the State may acquire approximately fourteen acres of land adjoining the State Fair Grounds in Sacramento. This land has been appraised by realtors at approximately $3,500 an acre but through an agreement with the Sacramento County board of supervisors, the land is offered to the State at the price of $1,000 per acre. We believe that this land should be acquired and have recommended an increase of $14,250 for this purpose.

At the request of the Department of Institutions the minor improvement items for the Norwalk State Hospital have been decreased $15,000 and the minor improvement items for Patton State Hospital increased $15,000. Since the budget was completed it has been found that funds are available in the present biennium for completion of certain work at the Norwalk State Hospital which had been contemplated for the ensuing biennium. At the request of the Department of Institutions, these changes in the budget items have been made. The changes do not result in any increase in the total budget.

An increase of $14,000 is recommended for the support of the Adjutant General and the National Guard to provide for two new National Guard units. The Adjutant General of the State has presented a statement of the need of such units and we believe the increased amount should be provided to take advantage of corresponding provision made by the United States government.

The Department of Natural Resources has presented to us the fact that in the acquisition of park sites under the recent bond issue, the cost of investigation and survey of available sites is provided for only in case that the State acquires title to contemplated sites. If the sites are rejected, no provision is made to pay the cost of investigation. An item of $40,000 has therefore been recommended to provide for the expenses in connection with the investigation of these sites.

An opportunity presents itself to the State to acquire at a very reasonable price three parcels of land needed to provide additional area for the San Quentin Prison. The acreage now owned by the State has long been recognized as inadequate but heretofore there has been no additional land available at a satisfactory price. We believe that advantage should be taken of the present opportunity and have recommended an item of $54,000 for the purchase of the land.

I submit herewith a detailed list of the amendments at this time recommended to you. Amendments which modify the language of the budget bill without changing the amounts appropriated have not been included in this tabulation. The proposed amendments to the budget bill are presented in a special document herewith.

RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the board of supervisors of Yuba County that certain bills have been introduced in the Legislature which seek to change the present method of registration of voters and put into effect a system designated as permanent registration of voters; and

WHEREAS, The proponents of said bills seek to justify the reasons for said proposed change in registration by specious arguments that it will be much simpler for the voters, that it will involve less work and detail in the offices of those now charged with registration matters, that it will be much more inexpensive than the present method and thus result in the saving of vast sums of money to the tax payers; and

WHEREAS, After a careful consideration of said bills, this board is firmly convinced that they will not accomplish any of the purposes claimed but will, on the other hand, set up a system that will prove to be more involved and cumbersome than the present one, that they will cause a greater amount of labor and annoyance to the officers charged with the registrations of voters, and, in the last analysis, will prove exceedingly more expensive than the present system; and

WHEREAS, This board is firmly convinced that under the present method of having a new registration every two years whereby our elections are conducted with new and clean lists of registered voters, there has been very little crookedness in elections throughout the State of California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we most emphatically oppose any attempt to set up a system of permanent registration of voters because we believe that all elections should be conducted with new and clean registration lists, and that said registration lists can only be kept clean by having a new registration of voters every two years; and, be it further

Resolved, That the clerk of this board be, and he hereby is, instructed and directed to mail copies of this resolution to the Senator and Assemblyman from this district and to each member of the committee on elections of both houses of the Legislature.

Passed and adopted by the board of supervisors of Yuba County this fifth day of March, 1929, by the following vote

Ayes—Willard F. Roberts, W. T. Ellis, David Morrison, W. J. Forbes, W. J. Mellon.

Noes—None.

Absent—None.

COMMUNICATION.

The following communication was read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Speaker:

HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NUMBER SIXTEEN.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the State of California.

Your memorialists, the Legislature of the state of Oregon, respectfully represent that:

WHEREAS, The state of Oregon, with Klamath and Lake counties, has completed three important roads to the California State line, east of the Cascade Mountains, and the State of California, thus far, has not deemed it advisable to designate or build connecting highways equal in character and standards on the California side; and

WHEREAS, The Klamath Falls-Weed highway has been completed as a high standard market road by cooperation between the state highway department of the state of Oregon, and the county court of Klamath County, Oregon, to the California line, but the road from there to Weed, in California, is impassable much of the year, and at all other times not a satisfactory road for automotive traffic; and

WHEREAS, Were this highway completed, San Francisco would be only one day's drive from Crater Lake via Klamath Falls, and over this highway Californians could reach Yellowstone Park without ever leaving a permanent all-the-year-round road, and the residents of Washington, Montana, Idaho and eastern Oregon could drive over this highway twelve months in the year to San Francisco and Los Angeles and other California points, whereas, now, they can only reach California by a wide detour; and

WHEREAS, The The Dalles-California highway has been for several years a completed state highway throughout Oregon from the Columbia River on the north boundary of Oregon, to the California State line near Malin in Klamath County, Oregon, and, if there were a good connecting highway to Alturas, the result would be that this thriving county seat would have much important business with Klamath Falls and other points in Oregon, which business is now seriously hindered until an adequate highway is provided; and

WHEREAS, The Fremont highway in Oregon is rapidly approaching completion from central Oregon through Lakeview to the California line, and said highway should be connected with a highway extending from the California State line to Alturas, the road's logical southern terminus; therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Oregon, the Senate jointly concurring therein, That we respectfully urge upon your honorable body that it is to the mutual interest of the states of California and Oregon and to the Pacific coast in general that the aforesaid highways be forthwith authorized and constructed. We recognize that the future of Oregon is closely bound with the future of California and with the rest of the Pacific coast and we believe that not only would these connecting highways make for better social contact between the Pacific coast states, but that the economic benefits of said highways would justify the cost of construction many times over. We further urge and represent that the scenic resources of the Pacific northwest and of the Dominion of Canada, together with those of California, will attract more tourist travel, and indirectly therefrom investments, by cooperation in road building than if each state and locality attempted to attract tourist travel unaided; and, be it further

Resolved. That the Secretary of State be, and he hereby is instructed to transmit a copy of this memorial to the presiding officers of the two houses of the legislative assembly of the State of California and a copy also to the Governor of that State.

Adopted by the House February 28, 1929.

R. S. HAMILTON, Speaker of the House.

Concurred in by the Senate March 1, 1929

ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION No. 5.

Relating to the participation of California in the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater Association to facilitate and expedite the prosecution of the construction of a seaway connecting the Great Lakes with the Atlantic Ocean.

WHEREAS, The growth of the essential industries of the State of California depends in large measure upon the extension of her commerce with the interior of the nation—an interior now handicapped in its development by high transportation rates to and from the sea; and

WHEREAS, Such handicap, both to present commerce and to the development of a still larger, wider and more valuable commerce, may be overcome only by bringing ocean transportation to the heart of the continent, thereby giving to the interior direct low cost transportation to its markets, both selling and buying, throughout the world, and by reason of such action stimulating a business development and population growth that shall enlarge the market outlets for the products of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The Panama Canal has made it possible for the producers of the State of California to reach the seaboard markets of the Atlantic Coast to their very great advantage, while the equally desirable markets upon and surrounding the Great Lakes are still closed to our producers, and

WHEREAS, The Joint Board of Engineers for the United States and Canada has declared that a seaway connecting the Great Lakes with the Atlantic by way of the St. Lawrence River, thereby extending to our producers the full benefits of direct ocean connection with the interior of the continent, is practical from the engineering standpoint, and the St. Lawrence Commission of the United States, on December 27, 1926, after an investigation, at the instance of the national government, of the economic needs and requirements, declared "The construction of the shipway from the Great Lakes to the sea is imperative"; and

WHEREAS, Eighteen states, by action of their legislatures, have joined the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater Association, an association of sovereign states, having as its object the early undertaking and completion of this improvement; and

WHEREAS, The transportation situation now existing constitutes an emergent need calling for immediate relief; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the State of California is hereby associated in the above named organization with its neighboring commonwealths in pressing to advance to completion this undertaking, and that participation by this State in the council of the said associated states by the Governor and by those whom he may appoint to said council as representing the State of California is hereby ordered and approved, and that the representatives of this State in the Congress of the United States are hereby requested to facilitate and expedite in every possible way the prosecution of this undertaking for the economic freedom of a landlocked continent.

WHEREAS, There has been introduced in the Legislature Senate Bill No. 492, providing for the construction of the Tisdale Weir bridge by the State of California, and making an appropriation for that purpose; now therefore, be it

Resolved, By the board of supervisors of the county of Sutter, in regular session assembled this fourth day of March, 1929, do hereby approve the purposes and objects of said Senate Bill No. 492, and do hereby respectfully request that the Legislature of the State of California take favorable action thereon.

ALBERT B. BROWN, of Supervisors of Sutter County.

Also:

WHEREAS, The attention of this board has been called to Senate Bill No. 714, now pending before the Legislature of the State of California, providing for the appointment by the chief of the Division of Motor Vehicles, of superintendent and assistant superintendent of the traffic patrol, and of inspectors, captains, lieutenants, sergeants and officers, the whole to constitute a division of peace officers to be known as the "California highway patrol," the same to be under the direction and control of the chief of the Division of Motor Vehicles; and

WHEREAS, Said California highway patrol is to be financed by putting aside for such purpose from the motor vehicle fund all moneys received as operators' license and chauffeurs' license fees and duplicate operators' and chauffeurs' license fees and in addition thereto not exceeding in any registration year 25 per cent of the said motor vehicle fund, and

WHEREAS, The counties will be directly charged for the maintenance of such "patrol" by the cutting down of the receipts of the counties from the net receipts of said motor vehicle fund; and

WHEREAS, Under the present existing law, the counties recommend the appointment of motor officers and fix their salaries before appointment by the State, and are thereby enabled to maintain sufficient control, to have highways, other than State roads, patrolled when necessity and the safety of the public require, without additional cost to the county, and

WHEREAS, Outside of the fact that the counties must pay the cost of these officers and therefore should have the right to say who should be hired and the salaries to be paid, it appears that under the proposed law that the counties must pay for patrolling "State highways" and can not have county highways patrolled without paying for additional patrolmen; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That this board objects to the passage of Senate Bill No. 714, with its inevitable result of unnecessary multiplication of motor officers and the cost of highway control; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to each member of the Legislature representing Yolo County and to each board of supervisors in the State of California.

AMENDMENT NUMBER SIX.

On page 14, line 9, of the printed bill, commencing with the word "At", strike out all printed matter down to and including the word "justice" in line 24, page 15, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"It shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets or county surveyor on or before the fourth Monday of September of each year to certify to the city tax collector of the city conducting said proceeding or to the county tax collector as the case may be, or in case the city taxes are collected by the county, to the county tax collector, a list of the properties within said city or cities or county upon which there is a lien for delinquent assessments, as shown by the records of the street superintendent, or county surveyor. In case the assessment district for said improvement includes territory in more than one city or in one or more cities and a county said notice herein provided for shall be placed on the county tax bill. Such tax collector shall cause to be pasted or attached to or printed or stamped upon the tax bill or tax receipt, a notice which shall, in substance, be as follows:

"Notice of Assessments.

There is an assessment lien on this property which must be paid to city street superintendent (or bureau of assessments in cities where such bureau exists, or to county surveyor as the case may be), to avoid foreclosure."

At any time after the first day of July next succeeding nine months following the date of recording of such assessment, the contractor or his assignee may sue in his own name the owner of the land, lots or portions of lots assessed on the day of the date of recording of the warrant, assessment and diagram, and recover the amount of any assessment remaining unpaid together with interest and any penalties allowed hereunder; provided, that if any state, county or municipal taxes or other special assessment or assessments be delinquent on said property then such action may be brought at any time after ninety days after the recording of such assessment.

When suit has been brought in accordance with the provisions of this section, the plaintiff shall be entitled to have and recover five dollars attorney fees on each assessment sued on, in addition to all taxable costs, notwithstanding that the suit may be settled or a tender may be made before a recovery in said action, and he may have judgment therefor; provided, that if the court finds an unnecessary number of actions have been brought, where the parties are identical, it may allow the costs of one action only; and provided, further, that such attorney's fee in any one action shall not exceed five dollars where said action shall be settled before trial or where judgment shall be taken on default. Suit may be brought in the superior court within whose jurisdiction said work has been done, and in case any of the assessments are made against lots, portions of lots, or lands, the service of process must be had in said action, in such manner as is prescribed in the codes and laws of this state. It shall be competent to bring a single action under any such assessment irrespective of the number of lots assessed where the parties defendant are identical, and where separate actions are brought, the same may be consolidated by order of the court. The said warrant, assessment and diagram, with proof of nonpayment shall be held prima facie evidence of the regularity and correctness of the assessment and of the prior proceedings and acts of the superintendent of streets or county surveyor and city council or board upon which said warrant, assessment and diagram are based, and like evidence of the right of the plaintiff to recover in the action. The plaintiff in such action may recover the costs of any abstract or report of search of title procured in good faith in order to determine ownership, such search to be by a reputable abstractor or title company and such cost not to exceed five dollars per lot, and such abstract or report of search with affidavit of payment to be filed in the action.

In a complaint in any such action it shall be held sufficient to allege briefly that the city council or board ordered the work, the performance of the work under the contract, the making of the assessment, the issuing of said warrant and the making of said diagram; that an assessment (naming the amount) was levied against that certain lot or parcel of land (describing the same) which, according to the information and belief of the plaintiff, is owned by the defendant; that payment of said assessment has not been made.

In describing said lot or parcel of land in said complaint it shall be sufficient to refer the same by its number upon said diagram, provided a certified copy of said warrant, assessment and diagram shall have been previously filed in the office of the recorder of the county or city and county in which the same is situated. It shall be the duty of such recorder to so file any such certified copy presented to him upon payment of the filing fee therefor, which fee is hereby fixed at fifty (50) cents.

If the contractor or his agent or any person acting in behalf of the contractor shall, prior to the filing of a complaint for the recovery of any assessment as herein provided or subsequent to the filing of suit and prior to the allowance of attorney fees and costs as herein provided, make any written demand upon or present any bill or notice in writing to such owner, demanding, requesting or notifying such owner to pay or that there is due, attorney's fees or court costs in connection with the collection of such assessment, then, the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor is authorized, upon written demand of such owner, accompanied by the affidavit of such owner, that such written demand, bill or notice for the payment of attorney's fees and costs, or either thereof, was made upon or presented to such owner prior to the commencement of suit, or subsequent to the filing of suit and prior to the allowance of attorney's fees and costs, together with such written demand, bill or notice to mark said assessment "paid" and such assessment shall thereby be deemed to be paid and the lien thereof released; provided, that this clause shall not be held to apply to the service of summons and complaint in a civil action.

Should suit be brought for the recovery of any assessment prior to the time permitted for bringing same as herein provided, then in such action, so brought the plaintiff shall not recover and defendant shall be entitled to have and recover such attorney's fees as the court may deem reasonable in addition to all taxable costs and he may have judgment therefor."

In the event that the council shall, in such resolution of intention, declare that said lots, pieces or parcels of land so owned as aforesaid, or any of them, shall be included in the assessment, or in the event that no declaration is made respecting such lots, pieces or parcels of land, or any of them, then said city shall be liable for such sum or sums as may thereafter be assessed against any such lots, pieces or parcels of land so owned and used, and so included in the assessment by reason of the aforesaid declarations, or such lots, pieces or parcels of land so owned and used respecting which the resolution of intention makes no declaration, which shall be payable by the said city out of the general fund unless the legislative body shall in its resolution of intention designate another fund, provided, however, that any such sum or sums which may be assessed against any such lots, pieces or parcels of land so owned and used, shall not be payable by the city when such sum or sums are paid by the owner of or the governing body controlling such lots, pieces or parcels of land.

Sec. 20h. It shall be lawful for the owner or owners of lots or lands fronting upon any street, the width and grade of which have been established by the city council, to perform, at his or their own expense (after obtaining permission from the council so to do, but before said council has passed its resolution of intention to order grading inclusive of this), any grading upon said street, to its full width, or to the center line thereof, and to its grade as then established, and thereupon to procure, at his or their own expense, a certificate from the city engineer, setting forth the number of cubic yards of cutting and filling made by him or them in said grading, and the proportions performed by each owner, and that the same is done to the established width and grade of said street, or to the center line thereof, and thereafter to file said certificate with the superintendent of streets, which certificate the superintendent shall record in a book kept for that purpose in his office, properly indexed. Whenever hereafter the city council orders the grading of said street, or any portion thereof, on which any grading certified as aforesaid has been done, the bids and contracts must express the price by the cubic yard for cutting and filling in grading; and the said owner or owners and his or their successor in interest, shall be entitled to credit, on the assessment upon his or their lots and lands fronting on said streets for the grading thereof, to the amount of the cubic yards of cutting and filling set forth in his or their certificate, at the prices named in the contract for said cutting and filling; or, if the grade meanwhile has been duly altered, only for so much of said certified work as would be required for grading to the altered grade; provided, however, that such owner or owners shall not be entitled to such credit as may be in excess of the assessments for grading upon the lots and lands owned by him or them, and proportionately assessed for the whole of said grading, and the superintendent of streets shall include in the assessment for the whole of said grading upon the same grade the number of cubic yards of cutting and filling set forth in any and all certificates so recorded in his office, or for the whole of said grading to the duly altered grade so much of said certified work as would be required for grading thereto, and shall enter corresponding credits, deducting the same as payments upon the amounts assessed against the lots and lands owned, respectively, by said certified owners and their successors in interest; provided, however, that he shall not so include any grading quantities or credit any sums in excess of the proportionate assessments for the whole of the grading which are made upon any lots and lands fronting upon said street and belonging to any such certified owners or their successors in interest. Whenever any owner or owners of any lots and lands fronting on any street have heretofore done, or shall hereafter do any work (except grading) on such street, in front of any block, at his or their own expense and the city council shall subsequently order any work to be done of the same class in front of the same block, said work so done at the expense of such owner or owners shall be excepted from the order ordering work to be done; provided, that the work so done at the expense of such owner or owners shall be upon the official grade, and in condition satisfactory to the street superintendent at the time said order is passed.

SEC. 14. A new section, to be numbered section 20i, is hereby added to said act to read as follows.

Sec. 20i. Whenever the resolution of intention declares that the cost and expenses of the work and improvement are to be assessed upon a district, the city engineer shall prior to completion of the contract make a diagram of the property affected or benefited by the proposed work or improvement, as described in the resolution of intention, and to be assessed to pay the expenses thereof. Such diagram shall show each separate lot, piece or parcel of land, and the relative location of the same to the work proposed to be done, all within the limits of the assessment district, and when said diagram shall have been approved by the city council, the clerk shall certify the fact and date thereof. Immediately thereafter the said diagram shall be delivered to the superintendent of streets of said city, who shall immediately, after the contractor of any street work has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of said superintendent of streets or city council on appeal, proceed to estimate upon the lands, lots or portions of lots within said assessment district, as shown by said diagram, the benefits arising from such work, and to be received by each such lot, portion of such lot, piece or subdivision of land, and shall thereupon assess upon and against said lands in said assessment district the total amount of the costs and expenses of such work, and in so doing shall assess said total sum upon the several pieces, parcels, lots or portions of lots, and subdivisions of land in said assessment district, benefited thereby, to wit: upon each respectively, in proportion to the estimated benefits to be received by each of said several lots, portions of lots, or subdivisions of land. In other respects the assessment shall be as provided in the next section, and the provisions of sections 20, 20a, 20b, 20c, 20d, 20e and 20f of this act shall not be applicable to the work or improvement provided for in this section.

SEC 15 A new section, to be numbered section 20j, is hereby added to said act to read as follows:

Sec 20j The terms, lot, lots, lands, piece or parcel of land wherever mentioned in this act shall be deemed to include and shall include property owned or controlled by any person, firm or corporation as a railroad, street or interurban railroad right of way, and whenever a railroad, street or interurban railroad right of way shall front on or abut or parallel or be included with or divide longitudinally any street improved under the provisions of this act or shall be included within any district to be assessed for the cost of any improvement provided in this act, such railroad right of way (whether the same is owned in fee or as an easement) shall be included in the warrant, assessment and diagram and shall be assessed in the manner and with the same effect as other lots, lands or pieces or parcels of land are assessed as provided in this act and such railroad, street or interurban railroad right of way shall be subject to sale for nonpayment of assessments as in this act provided.

SEC 16 Section 21 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec 21 After the contractor of any street work has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of the street superintendent of said city, or the city engineer, if such power has been delegated to him, as hereinbefore provided, shall make an assessment to cover the sum due for the work performed and specified in said contract (including all incidental expenses), in conformity with the provisions of the preceding section according to the character of the work done. The assessment shall briefly refer to the contract, the work contracted for and performed, and shall show the amount to be paid therefor, together with all incidental expenses, the amount of each assessment against each lot or portion of a lot, the number of each lot or portion or portions of a lot so assessed, and shall have attached thereto a diagram exhibiting each street or street crossing, lane, alley, place or court, property or rights of way on which any work has been done, showing the relative location of each lot, or portion of lot to the work done, numbered to correspond with the numbers of the assessments. The said assessment shall then be filed with the city clerk. Said clerk shall then give notice of the filing of said assessment and of a time to be therein fixed by said clerk when all persons interested in the work done, or in the assessment will be heard by the city council. Such notice shall be posted for not less than five (5) days on or near the council chamber door, and in addition be published twice in a newspaper published in such city if there be any, the first of which publications shall be not less than fifteen (15) days before the time fixed for such hearing. Such notice shall also be given by mailing a post card to the owner of each lot listed according to the name and address appearing on the last equalized assessment roll for city taxes prior thereto or as known to the clerk; provided, that a failure of the clerk to give such notice by mailing or of the person addressed to receive same shall not affect the jurisdiction of the council to proceed with the hearing noticed. Reference shall therein be made to the resolution of intention and the date of its passage for a description of the work therein mentioned and no other description thereof shall be necessary. The owners, the contractor, or his assigns, and all other persons interested in any work done under this act, or in the assessment, feeling aggrieved by any act or determination of the superintendent of streets, or city engineer in relation thereto, or who claim that the work has not been performed according to the contract in a good and substantial manner or who claims that any portion of the work for any reason was omitted or illegally included in the contract for the same, or having or making any objection to the correctness of the assessment or diagram or other act, determination or proceedings of the superintendent of streets, or city engineer, shall prior to the day fixed for the hearing upon the assessment, appeal to the city council by briefly stating in writing the grounds of appeal. Upon such appeal, the said city council may remedy and correct any error or informality in the proceedings, and revise and correct any of the acts or determinations of the street superintendent or city engineer, relative to said work; may confirm, amend, alter, modify or correct the assessment or diagram in such manner as to them shall seem just, and require the work to be completed according to the directions of the city council; and may instruct and direct the street superintendent to correct the warrant, assessment, or diagram in any particular. All the decisions and determinations of said city council, upon notice and hearing as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive upon all persons entitled to appeal under the provisions of this section, as to all errors, informalities, and irregularities which said city council might have avoided, or have remedied during the progress of the proceedings or which it can at that time remedy. No assessment, warrant, or diagram, and no proceedings prior to the assessment, shall be held invalid by any court for any error, informality, or other defect in the same, where the resolution of intention of the council to do the work, has been actually published as herein provided. When no appeal is taken or when the orders and determinations of the council upon appeal have been complied with, and the council is satisfied with the correctness of the assessment, thereupon the council shall forthwith confirm the proceedings and the street superintendent shall attach thereto a warrant bearing the date of said order of said city council."

AMENDMENT NUMBER FOURTEEN

On page 6, line 23, of the printed bill, strike out the numeral "5", and insert in lieu thereof the numerals "17".

AMENDMENT NUMBER FIFTEEN.

On page 7, between lines 9 and 10, of the printed bill, insert the following.

"Sec. 18 Section 27 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec 27 It shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets on or before the fourth Monday of September of each year to certify to the city tax collector, or in the city taxes are collected by the county, to the county tax collector, a list of the properties within said city upon which there is a lien for delinquent assessments, as shown by the records of the street superintendent.

In cases where the county collects city taxes the notice herein provided to be attached to or pasted to or printed or stamped upon the tax bill shall if the county tax collector so requires be prepared by the superintendent of streets and shall be forwarded to the county tax collector on or before the dates herein provided for forwarding said list. Such tax collector shall cause to be pasted or attached to or printed or stamped upon the tax bill or tax receipt, a notice which shall, in substance be as follows:

"Notice of Assessments.

There is an assessment lien on this property which must be paid to city street superintendent (or bureau of assessments in cities where such bureau exists) to avoid foreclosure."

At any time after the first day of July next succeeding nine months following the date of recording of such assessment, the contractor or his assignee may sue in his own name the owner of the land, lots or portions of lots assessed on the day of the date of the recording of the warrant, assessment and diagram, and recover the amount of any assessment remaining unpaid together with interest and any penalties allowed hereunder, provided, that if any state, county or municipal taxes or other special assessment or assessments be delinquent on said property then such action may be brought at any time after ninety days after the recording of such assessment.

When suit has been brought in accordance with the provisions of this section, the plaintiff shall be entitled to have and recover five dollars attorney fees on each assessment sued on, in the event that said suit be settled or a tender made prior to the trial of said action, or in the event that judgment be taken by default; if said suit proceeds to trial then in that event the court having jurisdiction of said cause shall fix and allow a reasonable attorney fee for the prosecution of said suit which fee in either case shall be in addition to all taxable costs and the plaintiff may have judgment therefor; provided, that if the court finds an unnecessary number of actions have been brought, where the parties are identical, it may allow the costs of one action only. Suit may be brought in the superior court within whose jurisdiction the city is, in which said work has been done, and in case any of the assessments are made against lots, portions of lots, or lands, the service of process may be had in said action, in such manner as is prescribed in the codes and laws of this state. It shall be competent to bring a single action under any such assessment irrespective of the number of lots assessed where the parties defendant are identical, and where separate actions are brought, the same may be consolidated by order of the court. The said warrant, assessment and diagram, with proof of nonpayment shall be held prima facie evidence of the regularity and correctness of the assessment and of the prior proceedings and acts of the superintendent of streets, and city council upon which said warrant, assessment and diagram are based, and like evidence of the right of the plaintiff to recover in the action. The plaintiff in such action may recover the cost of any abstract or report of search of title procured in good faith in order to determine ownership, such search to be by a reputable abstractor or title company and such cost not to exceed five dollars per lot, and such abstract or report of search with affidavit of payment to be filed in the action. The provisions hereof shall not be applicable to assessments represented by the issuance of bonds nor to assessments collected on the tax rolls but shall be applicable only to cash assessments levied pursuant to part one of this act.

In a complaint in any such action it shall be held sufficient to allege briefly that the city council ordered the work, the performance of the work under the contract, the making of the assessment, the issuing of said warrant and the making of said diagram; that an assessment (naming the amount) was levied against that certain lot or parcel of land (describing the same) which, according to the information and belief of the plaintiff, is owned by the defendant; that payment of said assessment has not been made. Upon the entry of judgment or dismissal of said suit the county clerk shall forthwith mail to the street superintendent of the city having jurisdiction over the proceeding in which said assessment was levied, a certificate of said judgment or evidence sufficient to advise the street superintendent of the judgment of the court in said action.

In describing said lot or parcel of land in said complaint it shall be sufficient to refer to the same by its number upon said diagram, provided a certified copy of said warrant, assessment and diagram shall have been previously filed in the office of the recorder of the county or city and county in which the same is situated. It shall be the duty of such recorder to so file any such certified copy presented to him upon payment of the filing fee therefor, which fee is hereby fixed at fifty (50) cents.

If the contractor or his agent or any person acting in behalf of the contractor shall, prior to the filing of a complaint for the recovery of any assessment as herein provided or subsequent to the filing of suit and prior to the allowance of attorney fees and costs as herein provided, make any written demand upon or present any bill or notice in writing to such owner, demanding, requesting or notifying such owner to pay or that there is due, attorney's fees or court costs in connection with the collection of such assessment, then, the superintendent of streets is authorized, upon written demand of such owner, accompanied by the affidavit of such owner, that such written demand, bill or notice for the payment of attorney's fees and costs, or either thereof, was made upon or presented to such owner prior to the commencement of suit, or subsequent to the filing of suit and prior to the allowance of attorney's fees and costs, together with such written demand, bill or notice to mark said assessment "paid" and such assessment shall thereby be deemed to be paid and the lien thereof released, provided, that this clause shall not be held to apply to the service of summons and complaint in a civil action.

Should suit be brought for the recovery of any assessment prior to the time permitted for bringing same as herein provided, then in such action, so brought, the plaintiff shall not recover and defendant shall be entitled to have and recover such attorney's fees as the court may deem reasonable in addition to all taxable costs and he may have judgment therefor.

SEC. 19. Section 40 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 40. The city council may, in its discretion, provide, by resolution that the whole or any part of the cost and expenses of any of the work mentioned in this act be paid out of the treasury of the municipality from such fund as the council may designate, in which case it shall be so stated in the resolution of intention and the liability and obligation to pay any sum so provided for shall accrue and become fixed upon the date of the confirmation of the assessment by said council, and thereupon said council shall order said amount to be forthwith paid. Whenever a part of such cost and expenses is so provided to be paid, the superintendent of streets, in making up the assessment heretofore provided for such cost and expenses, shall first deduct from the whole cost and expenses such part thereof as has been so ordered to be paid out of the municipal treasury, and shall assess the remainder of said costs and expenses proportionately upon the lots, parts of lots and lands fronting on the streets where said work was done, or liable to be assessed for such work, and in the manner heretofore provided.

SEC. 20. Section 41 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 41. The city engineer, or where there is no city engineer, the county or city and county surveyor or engineer of work hereinafter mentioned, shall be the proper officer to do the surveying and other engineering work necessary to be done under this act, and to survey and measure the work to be done under contracts for grading, macadamizing or improving streets and other work done hereunder, and to estimate the costs and expenses thereof, and perform such other duties hereunder as may be directed by the city council; and every certificate signed by him in his official character shall be prima facie evidence in all courts in this state of the truth of the contents. He shall also keep a record of all surveys made under the provisions of this act, as in other cases. In its discretion, the city council may appoint an engineer of work, other than the city engineer or in place of the city engineer, and all provisions of this act applicable to the city engineer shall apply to such engineer of work. The city council shall initially fix or if not thereafter confirm the compensation of such city engineer, surveyor or engineer of work."

"Sec. 25*g*. All unpaid assessments shall be payable in such installments, not necessarily equal, as shall be annually determined by the legislative body which conducted the proceedings. Such unpaid assessments shall bear interest to the dates of maturity of the bonds issued against the same at the rate stated in the bonds. The city or county treasurer with whom the assessment is recorded shall annually prepare during the term of the bonds a statement of the amount of interest and principal, if any, which shall be payable upon said bonds on January second and July second of the next year, together with a statement of the total amount in the fund which may be used for the payment of said principal and interest, a statement of the amount in the funds derived from the assessments paid in full, if any, and a statement of the total amount of unpaid assessments not due.

Such statement shall be filed with the legislative body which conducted the proceedings at least two weeks before the first business day in August of each year. Thereafter said legislative body shall prior to said first business day in August, call an installment of the unpaid assessment sufficient to pay the said principal, if any, and, if the legislative body deems it advisable to provide an additional sum with which to call a bond, the balance it deems necessary to call such bond, and order the collection of interest on all unpaid assessments to July second of the next year. In addition to such installment of assessment and interest, and such balance deemed necessary to call a bond, if any, said legislative body shall levy such an additional percentage of the installment of assessment and interest as it may deem necessary to provide for anticipated delinquencies, not exceeding, however, fifteen per cent of the said installment of assessment and interest, and also one-fourth of one per cent of the total amounts shall be added thereto for costs of collection and shall be retained by the city or county making such collection, and all of said sums shall comprise and shall hereinafter be referred to as the "annual levy."

When the said legislative body shall have determined the annual levy as hereinbefore in this section provided it shall order the treasurer of the city or county, as the case may be, to prepare an assessment roll which shall describe separately each lot, piece or parcel of land within the district as the same appears on the assessment on file with said treasurer; the number by which the same is designated thereon; the name of the owner of each such lot, piece or parcel of land, if known, otherwise the word "unknown" shall be placed opposite the description of each such lot, piece or parcel; the total assessment against each such lot, piece or parcel as shown on the original assessment on file with the treasurer; the amount of the annual levy against each such lot, piece or parcel and the installments, if any, in which such amount is payable. No mistake in the name of the owner or supposed owner shall render the levy on any such lot, piece or parcel invalid.

If the assessment district is entirely within the boundaries of one municipality such assessment roll for said annual levy shall be filed with the city tax collector, except as hereinafter provided, and the amounts thereon shall be payable and be collected at the same time and in the same manner and become delinquent at the same time and with the same penalties as the general city taxes. In all other cases and in those cases in which county officers collect the general city taxes for the city in which such district lies, said assessment roll for said annual levy shall be filed with the county tax collector and the amounts thereon shall be payable and be collected at the same time and in the same manner and become delinquent at the same time and with the same penalties as general county taxes.

Notice of the amount to be paid on any lot, piece or parcel shall be given and in the discretion of the tax collector, may be given by a separate bill, to be sent with the general tax bill, or by a separate statement of such amount on the general tax bill, or the amount may be included in the total amount to be paid as shown on the general tax bill, with a statement on such general tax bill in substance that there is included in the amount to be paid as shown on such bill a sum for a direct assessment for acquisition and improvement district number-----of the city (or county) of----- (inserting proper designation). Failure to send or receive the tax bill or any informality or irregularity in same shall in no wise affect the validity of any penalty or any sale of any lot, piece or parcel for delinquency in the payment of the amount of such annual levy.

When any amount payable has become delinquent said amount and the penalties thereon may be paid to the treasurer prior to the date of sale as in this act provided.

All payments on assessments against which bonds have been issued, as provided in section 25*d*, together with all interest and penalties thereon and any additional levy to provide for anticipated delinquencies, shall be placed in a fund to be designated "acquisition and improvement district number _____ of the county (or city) of _____ direct assessment fund," and shall be used exclusively for the purpose of paying the said bonds, and the interest thereon.

If any assessment is fully paid prior to the maturity thereof, as provided in section 25*j* hereof, such portion thereof as is available for calling a bond shall be placed in a fund to be designated acquisition and improvement district number _____ of the county (or city) of _____ bond redemption fund, and any sum included in the annual levy for the purpose of calling a bond shall be paid into the said fund and the moneys in said fund shall be used to call a bond or bonds as herein provided. Such portion of the assessment paid in full as would have been included in any annual levy thereafter made, had such assessment not been paid in full, may be transferred to the direct assessment fund and used to pay principal and interest of bonds to be paid from such annual levy.

When said bonds and the interest thereon have been fully paid, any surplus remaining in said fund shall be repaid to the various property owners in the district in the percentages in which they paid into the total fund."

Upon the expiration of one year after the date of said certificate of sale the city or county treasurer, as the case may be, or his successor in office, shall upon application of the purchaser or his assignee, if no redemption shall have been made, execute and deliver to the purchaser or his assignee a deed to the property, which deed shall transfer to the grantee therein named the title to said property, free and clear of all encumbrances, except that the title thereby conveyed shall be subordinate to all special assessment liens previously levied upon the said property and subordinate to all liens for state, county and municipal taxes."

"Sec. 2a. Before any resolution of intention can be adopted under the provisions of this act, a report shall be made and action shall be taken thereon by the legislative body conducting the proceeding, as prescribed herein.

The legislative body which is to conduct the proceeding shall designate and order some city or county officer, or body, as the case may be, to prepare and furnish a report as in this section provided. The officer or body so designated must be one who will not receive any remuneration in connection with the proceeding, if subsequently carried out, unless it be as incidental expenses, payable to him or it for deposit in the public funds, by reason of his or its office.

Such report shall set forth the following matters with respect to the proposed proceeding: a statement of the assessed valuation of the lands proposed to be assessed in the proceeding (in case all the lands to be assessed are within one municipality, the last equalized assessment roll used by said municipality for general municipal tax purposes shall be used, and in all other cases the last equalized assessment roll of the county shall be used); a statement of the indebtedness of the said lands by reason of outstanding bonds against such lands issued to defray the expenses of acquiring or improving street or road areas, under special assessment procedure statutes of this state: a statement of the amount, if any, proposed to be contributed from public funds toward the proposed proceeding; and a statement of the total estimated cost of the proposed proceeding. In the event that said officer or body discovers, in the preparation of said report, that the total estimated cost of the proceeding, less any sum or sums to be contributed from public funds, shall, when added to the amount of the above described indebtedness, exceed one hundred per cent, for the estimated cost of an acquisition, and one hundred per cent for the estimated cost of an improvement (or the combined percentages where both are included in a single proceeding) of the total assessed valuation, of the lands proposed to be assessed in the proceeding as shown in said report, (which shall constitute "an excess of the limitation," as that term is herein employed), then said officer or body shall include in such report a statement of his or its opinion upon the following matters: first, the total market value of the lands proposed to be assessed, estimated as of the date of the report; second, the reasons or necessity for the proposed proceeding, third, the estimated total market value of said lands as the same will be upon the completion of the things proposed to be done in the proceeding; fourth, the feasibility of the proposed proceeding from the standpoint of the ability of the said lands to carry the burden of the proposed proceeding; and fifth, such other matters as may appear advisable to be included in said report. In reporting upon the outstanding indebtedness, as required above, in those cases where the proposed assessment district is not coextensive with other districts in which such bonds are outstanding, or where apportionment of a specific amount of indebtedness to each parcel of land has not been made, or where both such conditions exist, said officer or body shall estimate as fairly as possible, computing, where necessary, according to area or by such other method as to him or it shall appear most accurate, the bonded indebtedness of the lands in the proposed district by reason of such other bonds outstanding. In those cases where land which is owned and used in the performance of a public function, or land not assessed for purposes of general city or county taxes but subject to the payment of special assessments, or both such kinds of property, is included within the proposed district and such property is proposed to be assessed, such property shall be included in the computation and report as to the relation between the estimated cost plus the said bonded indebtedness and the assessed valuation; and in those cases where an assessed valuation of such land has not been made said officer or body shall estimate such assessed valuation as accurately as possible in accordance with the assessed valuation placed upon other lands of similar character in the proximity of such land.

In the event the proceeding is thereafter carried on the cost of making such report shall be included in the incidental expenses of the proceeding.

Upon the receipt of said report the said legislative body shall at its earliest convenience proceed to consider the same. It shall first determine whether the carrying on of the proceeding will constitute an excess of the limitation above set forth. SEC. 2. As used in this act, the term "needy blind person" shall be construed to mean any person who by reason of loss or impairment of eyesight is of such condition that he can not be rehabilitated for self-support through the facilities offered by the department of education or the department of institutions or who is unable to provide himself with the necessities of life and who has not sufficient means of his own to maintain himself as further set forth in section 5 of this act.

SEC. 3. In order that any person who may have become blind while a resident of the State of California, may be entitled to aid under the provisions of this act, such person must be sixteen years of age and a resident of the county in which his application is filed for one year prior to the application; and that in order that any person, whose blindness originated while he was not a resident of the State of California, may be entitled to aid under the provisions of this act, such person must be sixteen years of age and a resident of the county in which the application is filed for a period of one year and a resident of the State of California for a period of ten years immediately preceding the filings of his application; provided, however, that no applicant shall receive such aid while he is an inmate of any institution supported in whole or in part by the state or any of its political subdivisions; and provided, that no one shall receive aid under this act who has any relatives, responsible for his support under the laws of this state, who have sufficient income to pay a tax under the provisions of the federal income tax law; and provided, further, that no person shall be eligible to receive aid under this act who publicly solicits alms in any part of the state. The county board of supervisors shall then pay to such blind person the sum awarded by the state board of social welfare.

SEC. 6. The county board of supervisors shall investigate, annually or oftener, the qualifications of the blind persons receiving aid hereunder, and may increase or decrease the allowance within the limits prescribed in this act, or if said board is satisfied that any person so on the list is not entitled to aid hereunder, said board shall entirely remove him from said list and shall forthwith notify the county auditor and the state department of social welfare of such action. Provided, however, that the person receiving aid may make an appeal to the board of social welfare from such action as if it were an original application for aid.

The board of supervisors of each county or city and county in this state is hereby authorized and empowered to levy, in addition to the taxes now levied by law for other purposes than these herein provided, a tax not exceeding two-tenths of one mill per dollar on the assessed value of the property of their respective counties and cities and counties, to be levied and collected as now provided by law for the assessment and collection of taxes, for the purpose of creating a fund for the aid of the needy blind of their respective counties or cities and counties.

SEC. 8. Any person qualified for and receiving aid hereunder, in any county of the state, and who removes to another county in the state, shall be entitled to aid under the provisions of this act after ninety days residence in the county to which he has removed; and the removal of any person receiving aid hereunder from one county to another within this state shall not work a forfeiture during such ninety day period of the state aid awarded under this act.

SEC. 9. Such certified claims shall be audited by the state department of social welfare and the state controller and when approved, the state controller shall draw warrants therefor in the sum of one-half the amount paid out by said county or city and county to blind persons under the provisions of this act during the period for which the claim is made, and the amount of such warrants shall be paid by the state treasurer to the treasurer of said county or city and county.

SEC. 10. The department of social welfare is hereby authorized on behalf of the state at any time to inquire in such manner as it may deem fit into the management by any county or city and county of aid to blind persons hereunder. Any county or city and county refusing, upon due demand, to permit such inquiry or refusing to comply with the provisions of section 5 of this act shall not thereafter receive any aid or reimbursement from the state under the provisions of this act until it has complied with all the requirements hereof.

By Chief Clerk:

SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA, March 5, 1929

*Mr. Arthur A. Ohnimus, Chief Clerk,
State Assembly, Sacramento, California*

DEAR MR. OHNIMUS: After conferring with the parties concerned, I have arranged with our California Real Estate Magazine staff photographer, Mr. B. Hodson of Sacramento, to take a panorama picture of the Governor and State officers, members of the Legislature and officers thereof, accredited active members of the "Fourth Estate," on the front steps of the west wing of the State Capitol at 12:15 p.m., Thursday, March 14, 1929.

The forty-eighth session of the California Legislature is notable for several historic reasons due to the impending reapportionment, the impeachment trial, enactment of Colorado River compact, and it is the first Legislature of the State of California to have been in session at the time a Californian was inaugurated President of the United States.

We will appreciate suggestions and assistance of the officers of the Legislature and the secretaries to the Governor in making a perfect picture. It would be advisable to have an announcement given to each member and from the rostrum, and promptness must be observed in order to conserve the time of everyone concerned.

We expect to publish this picture in the California Real Estate Magazine of the April issue.

Undoubtedly members of the Legislature will desire to have a panorama framed for their own particular homes and offices.

Sincerely yours,

GLEN D. WILLAMAN,

State Secretary, California Real Estate Association.

It is believed by the undersigned that the interests of the school children of the State of California will be best served by subjecting this measure to careful study for a period of at least two years, before enacting a law which involves such great changes in the educational system as this bill proposes.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from the Governor was read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, March 11, 1929.

To the Members of the Senate and the Assembly.

I am herewith transmitting to you the final report of the California Tax Commission—a body created by chapter 455, Statutes of 1927, "to investigate the systems of revenue and taxation in force in this and other states, and particularly to examine into any and all matters appertaining to the subjects of revenue and taxation in this State." This portion of the Commission's investigation is embodied in Part One, as found on pages 11 to 132 of the report.

The same statute also specifically required the making of "a special investigation and report upon the matter of the relative burden of taxes borne by general property values and such property values as are taxed directly by the State under the existing system of taxation." The Commission's very full and illuminating discussion of this phase of the subject comprises Part Two of the report, and is printed on pages 133 to 241.

A final portion of the report concerns itself with the emergency problem of bank taxation with which practically every state in the Union is now struggling, and which California has solved in advance of the others by our recent constitutional amendment and bank tax legislation. Most of this portion of the report has already been transmitted to the Legislature by special message under date of September 4, 1928, but, in order to round it out, is here included as Part Three, pages 243 to 291, and Part Four, pages 293 to 305. The latter was submitted on January 15 of this year, and contains the Commission's recommendation against a real estate offset to the proposed State franchise tax. This offset in a modified form, however, was subsequently granted by the Legislature.

The remainder of the report, and the portion which will probably receive the most intensive study is the general introduction, particularly as found on pages 4 through 9, and the summary of recommendations included in the preface under the roman numerals XXI to XXIV. The report as a whole, however, is exceedingly well worth reading, and its careful perusal will richly repay every legislator and every student of State finance.

WORK OF THE COMMISSION.

In presenting this report I should be remiss if I did not render proper acknowledgment to the California Tax Commission and its staff of experts for their faithful and untiring work in making possible its preparation. Many conferences and hearings in all portions of the State, a large number of meetings of the Commission itself, the continuous, daily labors of Mr. Irving Martin, president of the Commission, and other commissioners with whom he has been in constant contact—all these help fill out the picture of a very fine, unselfish public service.

This report of the Commission, which I am transmitting to you, is a fitting result of its endeavors. It must not be imagined that California is the only state which is wrestling with these problems of taxation. It is more than probable that a substantial majority of all the states, either through permanent or temporary tax commissions, are engaged in precisely similar work; but it is also probable that this report of California's Commission will be pronounced as outstanding among them all. In fact, it will unquestionably take rank as one of the best and most comprehensive taxation studies ever made.

I would particularly call attention to the large number of statistical and financial tables with which the report is interspersed. These will be found of almost incalculable value, whether use of them is made this year or in future years. Many of these tables, occupying only a single page in the report, obviously must have taken weeks of preparation. Through their use any tax revision, whenever undertaken, may be based on solid fact, rather than on guess-work or theory. The money value of the Commission's activities in helping to save our past and future bank taxes, and in furnishing a sound and legal basis for the taxation of intangibles, amounts to more than a hundred times the appropriation for this work, to say nothing of the value which will be evidenced as we enter upon a final solution of our larger tax problems.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMISSION.

The recommendations of the Commission as included in its report, may, I think, be set down in five groups. One of these concerns a suggested major change in our State tax system, to take place in the near future; one, a major change to follow the first, but to be undertaken later; while three of them are miscellaneous recommendations, some of which, at least, may be followed out at once. I shall briefly, and in order, attempt to set down what each of these three groups proposes to accomplish:

1. Assess through some State agency the operative real estate of all public utility corporations, and let this be taxed directly by counties and cities at their local tax rates. Abolish all the gross receipts tax now supporting the State government, and make it up by a general ad valorem State tax on all property. Place no tax on the operative personal property of public utility corporations, but levy instead a business tax equal to four per cent of their net income, as in the case of other corporations. This is a virtual abandonment of the so-called "Constitutional Amendment No. 1," and as such would require the adoption of a new constitutional amendment.

2. Do away with personal property taxes of all kinds, of both corporations and individuals, and substitute therefor a personal income tax. This would, among other things, abolish the recently enacted tax on intangibles, as well as taxes on other classes of personal property. In fairness to the Commission it must be noted that for the present it is proposed, as to personal income tax, merely that "the issue should be raised for discussion." in order that the Legislature may determine when this proposition may properly be submitted to the people.

3. Reduce the taxes on insurance companies in the amount of about $800,000 per biennium; and adjust the rates and exemptions of the inheritance tax law, with a resulting reduction of approximately $3,000,000 per biennium; thus, in some respects, establishing California as the most liberal of all the states imposing inheritance taxes.

4. Abolish the present personal property taxes on automobiles, increasing the present $3 license fee sufficiently to reimburse the counties for the loss of revenue involved, and still further equalize the taxation of motor carriers.

5. Abandon the personal property taxes of corporations, and thus do away with the offset of such personal property taxes against the franchise tax of these corporations; and, finally, establish a permanent appointive Tax Commission of three to administer the State taxes, in place of the existing State Board of Equalization.

TAX DISCUSSION IN BIENNIAL MESSAGE.

Before entering upon any discussion as to the use which may be made of this tax report, I would call attention to the text of my biennial message as printed on pages 101 and 102, and reading in part as follows.

"Conditions surrounding the commission's main report will be very different from those at the time of the bank tax emergency. Then action was imperative at once if any relief was to be secured. Hence the special legislative session and the prompt submission of the constitutional amendment to the voters. In this case, however, no such haste will be necessary. * * * There will be no desire on the part of either the Commission or myself to force any tax change for which an actual demand does not exist."

In line with this policy, I shall take up the five groups of the Commission's recommendations, in order that the Legislature may be able to give proper weight to the recommendations of the Commission and may determine the order in which these recommendations may best be carried out. In order to conclude the two major tax changes discussed by the Commission, I shall take up the groups of recommendations in the reverse order from that which I have used in naming them above.

FURTHER ANALYSIS OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

The recommendations included in group number five have to do with the abolishment of the personal property taxes of corporations and the creation of an appointive permanent Tax Commission. To do either of these would require a constitutional amendment. To do the first would probably require that the corporate franchise tax be increased from 4 to 5 per cent, and that a portion of this be remitted to the counties and cities to take the place of the personal property taxes formerly received from corporations. As to an appointive Tax Commission, such bodies exist in a majority of the states, and will undoubtedly be found necessary in California when any major tax revision is finally undertaken.

The recommendations of group number four include a substitute for the present personal property tax on motor vehicles, and an equalizing of the taxes on motor carriers. As for the latter, the Commission recommends two years further study before any change is attempted. As to personal taxes on automobiles, however, I think practically every member of the Legislature would desire to see some immediate change which would make impossible the evasion of automobile taxes which is now so prevalent. It is for you to determine whether the equivalent of this tax should be secured by an increased license fee, as the Commission proposes, or some other plan shall be evolved which will permit the tax to be paid at the same time the license is issued. It should be kept clearly in mind that whatever form of tax replaces the present unsatisfactory personal property tax on automobiles, or whatever method of tax collection may be employed, the proceeds, as at present, are entirely for local and not for State uses. At all events, this is something which can be attended to at once.

The third group of recommendations concerns a reduction in the taxes of insurance companies and an adjustment and reduction in inheritance taxes, so as to conform more nearly to similar taxes in other states. The first of these reductions can be effected partly, and the second wholly, without a constitutional amendment. If both things were done, the State would lose nearly $4,000,000 a biennium, which would have to be compensated for by other tax adjustments.

This brings us to group number two, comprising a major tax change which the Commission recommends as an ultimate objective, but which it does not propose until the people have had full opportunity to study it and to express themselves clearly upon it. This is the abolishment of personal property taxes, and the substitution of a personal income tax, based on ability to pay. Regarding this, however, the Commission says, "It would be unwise to propose the adoption of a personal income tax in advance of the development of a strong public sentiment in its favor. Such a tax requires a full assent, even an enthusiastic assent from the taxpayers, if it is to be successfully administered. In the belief that such action would be premature, the Commission does not at this time propose the imposition of a personal income tax." However, it does propose a careful study; and this, at least, would appear a reasonable request.

Now we come to the major tax change included under number one, which the majority of the Commission would undoubtedly like to see submitted at once as a constitutional amendment, and to which the Legislature is respectfully referred. As shown above, this is the virtual abandonment of the so-called "Constitutional Amendment No. 1," and would secure our State revenue by an ad valorem State tax on all property, rather than by a gross receipts tax on public utilities as at present. Meanwhile the operative real estate of public utilities would be subject to tax both by the State and by local subdivisions, on a valuation to be fixed by a central assessing body. Finally, the personal property taxes of public utilities would be abolished, and be supplanted by a business tax based on net income, as in the case of other corporations.

WHEN A MAJOR TAX CHANGE SHOULD BE MADE.

I believe that anyone who studies the Commission's report will agree that the time is coming when we must devise some other tax system to take the place of the one created by "Constitutional Amendment No. 1." The thing for the Legislature to determine is whether the change should be attempted now, or whether it should be preceded by a more thorough public discussion and a more pronounced public demand.

I would suggest that a Tax Commission might perform extremely valuable service during the next two years, not only through a discussion of tax problems and tax systems in various portions of the State, but also by carrying out the recommendations of the present commission as expressed on page 4 of their report, in which attention is called to "the advisability of making a study of public expenditures to ascertain what, if any, limitations on such expenditures may be imposed, and what economies may be made, in the public interest." The Commission further advises that this survey of public expenditures should include those of counties and municipalities, as well as of the State, and that the findings of this investigation should be reported to the Governor and the Legislature.

After all, the real purpose of any tax revision must be the reducing of the tax burdens of the ordinary taxpayer, rather than the mere creation of any new tax system. The taxpayer at the present time especially feels the weight of the local taxes which he has to pay; and if by a change in the system an ad valorem State tax were to be added, I feel that he would want to be convinced that there would be absolute certainty of a corresponding reduction in his county or city or school district taxes. If in spite of the wider local tax base only moderate reductions were made, it might easily transpire that the new local tax plus the new ad valorem State tax might together constitute a tax burden greater than now exists. I believe that a plan can be devised by which a genuine tax reduction may be safeguarded; but I am wondering if such a plan should not be thoroughly worked out before any major change in our system is attempted.

Whatever plan is finally adopted, it will fail of its purpose if it does not succeed in lightening the tax burden upon the property of the average taxpayer. Real estate and the improvements thereon are ever visible to the local assessor, and in consequence now bear more than their just share of the load. The man who has worked and saved for many years, and has put the results of his labor into a home or a farm, finds that the tax collector is taking more from him than from his more prosperous neighbor who has put his money into investment securities of various kinds. Some way must be found to compel that neighbor to pay his share of the cost of government, to the end that the burden upon the home owner may be correspondingly lightened. The Tax Commission believes that the only way to give adequate relief to the existing tax burden on visible property is to provide for a tax on persons, based on their prosperity and ability to pay. It may be well to defer any major tax revision until the people of the State can thoroughly study into this report of the commission, and can determine for themselves how this spread of the tax burden may most justly and equitably be accomplished.

READJUSTMENT OF PUBLIC UTILITY TAX RATES.

On the assumption that a constitutional amendment might be proposed by the present Legislature, done away with the present gross receipts taxes on public utilities, no revision of their rates was suggested by the Commission in the report, although the need for such revision is clearly shown. If, however, the Legislature decides not to recommend a major change in the tax system at the present time, I would submit that there should at least be a readjustment of public utility tax rates, especially in view of the fact that no readjustment or revision has been made during the past eight years. This suggestion by no means implies a second "King Tax Bill" contest, since the very splendid studies included in Part Two of this report have given us a basis of accurate knowledge as to comparative tax burdens which was altogether wanting at the time of the King Tax Bill. Heads of public utilities have been kept in touch with the computations of experts during the preparation of the report, and have generally expressed themselves as agreeing to the substantial fairness and accuracy of these figures.

As may be seen in the table on page 185, and in numerous other places of the report, as compared with $1.79 or $1.81, which the Board of Equalization has determined to be the tax burden on common property, the tax burden on the properties of certain public utilities is distinctly too high, just as on those of some others it is clearly too low. I am satisfied that public utilities have no desire to evade their fair share of the tax burden, and that, in view of the very carefully compiled existing data, no resistance will be offered to such moderate readjustment as the Legislature may see fit to make.

NECESSITY FOR THIS READJUSTMENT.

Aside from the mere equalizing of tax burdens, there is great present necessity for a readjustment of public utility rates, since the net increase of revenues coming from such readjustment is needed to offset the loss we are sustaining through changes in our tax system. For instance, in the note on page 244, the experts of the Commission figure that through the liberalizing of the franchise tax law and the addition of the real estate offset, there will be produced about $2,300,000 less revenue per year than had been anticipated, or approximately $2,300,000 less than our present revenues. Computation has shown that a fair and reasonable readjustment in public utility gross receipts rates will almost exactly make up for this loss of revenue.

Moreover, if we are to make the recommended changes in insurance and inheritance tax rates, this will mean an additional loss of nearly $2,000,000 per year. But there is still another expense which I believe we should undertake, and for which we must clearly have additional income in order to prevent our surplus from being too rapidly used up. I refer to a moral obligation to come to the aid of certain counties which have been suffering from an undue tax burden, owing to the continued operation of "Constitutional Amendment No. 1," and the consequent removal from the local tax base of the operative property of public utilities.

These counties have a large proportion of operative property in comparison with the rest of the property in the county, and when this is withdrawn from taxation other property in the county has to pay a correspondingly higher tax rate. I accordingly would suggest a constitutional amendment to provide that a certain limited portion of our State surplus shall be allocated to these counties on the basis of the relative proportion which the value of their operative property bears to property which is nonoperative. While it is probably true that such allocation can not meet the relative deserts of these counties with mathematical exactness, I am of the opinion that some formula may be devised by which substantial justice may be done.

CONCLUSION.

In concluding this message, I would again call attention to the long and faithful labors of the California Tax Commission, and to the excellence of their thoroughgoing and very valuable report. I can not too strongly commend to you a careful study of this report, for I am satisfied that such study on the part of yourselves and the public will suggest the basis of a future tax system so well founded that its permanence may be assured. Tax systems are not built up in a day. Even that embodied in "Constitutional Amendment No. 1" was six years in the making; yet I imagine there are few who believe that to retain this as our permanent system would be wise. In working out a new system, however, I am satisfied that this report, with its thorough analysis and carefully prepared tables, will give us a foundation to build upon which we have never had before.

Meanwhile I would recommend that this Commission be continued with augmented personnel and powers, not to repeat the excellent technical study and investigation which has already been made; but rather to get into direct touch with public sentiment on the subject of taxation in all portions of the State, and to bring into one picture more thoroughly than has yet been done the whole subject of interrelated State and local taxation and expenditures. These questions are looming large in every state of the Union, but in California this is especially true, owing to our exceedingly rapid growth and the necessarily continuous increase in governmental expense which this growth entails. I believe that such a study, continued for two years more and based upon the achievements of the past two years, will point the way to a State tax system not only sound and permanent, but, in addition, so coordinated with the problems of local taxation as to insure that the total tax burden upon our people may be far better adjusted and very materially lightened.

Respectfully submitted

C. C. YOUNG, Governor.

Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 5 ordered transmitted to the Senate.

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT No. 5.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the constitution of the State by amending section 1 of article IV of the constitution, relating to the initiative and referendum.

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California, at its forty-eighth regular session commencing on the seventh day of January, 1929, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof, hereby proposes to amend section 1, of article IV of the constitution to read as follows:

Section 1. The legislative power of this State shall be vested in a Senate and Assembly which shall be designated "The Legislature of the State of California," but the people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and amendments to the constitution, and to adopt or reject the same, at the polls independent of the Legislature, and also reserve the power, at their own option, to so adopt or reject any act, or section or part of any act, passed by the Legislature. The enacting clause of every law shall be "The people of the State of California do enact as follows."

The first power reserved to the people shall be known as the initiative. Upon the presentation to the Secretary of State of a petition certified as herein provided to have been signed by qualified electors, equal in number to 8 per cent of all the votes cast for all candidates for Governor at the last preceding general election, at which a Governor was elected, proposing a law or amendment to the constitution, set forth in full in said petition, the Secretary of State shall submit the said proposed law or amendment to the constitution to the electors at the next succeeding general election occurring subsequent to ninety days after the presentation aforesaid of said petition, or at any special election called by the Governor in his discretion prior to such general election. All such initiative petitions shall have printed across the top thereof in twelve-point black-face type the following: "Initiative measure to be submitted directly to the electors."

Upon the presentation to the Secretary of State, at any time not less than ten days before the commencement of any regular session of the Legislature, of a petition certified as herein provided to have been signed by qualified electors of the State equal in number to five per cent of all the votes cast for all candidates for Governor at the last preceding general election, at which a Governor was elected, proposing a law set forth in full in said petition, the Secretary of State shall transmit the same to the Legislature as soon as it convenes and organizes. The law proposed by such petition, shall be either enacted or rejected without change or amendment by the Legislature, within forty days from the time it is received by the Legislature. If any law proposed by such petition shall be enacted by the Legislature it shall be subject to referendum, as hereinafter provided. If any law so petitioned for be rejected, or if no action is taken upon it by the Legislature, within said forty days, the Secretary of State shall submit it to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing general election. The Legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different one on the same subject by a yea and nay vote upon separate roll call, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by the Secretary of State to the electors for approval or rejection at the next ensuing general election or at a prior special election called by the governor, in his discretion, for such purpose. All said initiative petitions last above described shall have printed in twelve-point black-face type the following: "Initiative measure to be presented to the Legislature."

The second power reserved to the people shall be known as the referendum. No act passed by the Legislature shall go into effect until ninety days after the final adjournment of the session of the Legislature which passed such act, except acts calling elections, acts providing for tax levies or appropriations for the usual current expenses of the State, and urgency measures necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, passed by a two-thirds vote of all members elected to each house. Whenever it is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety that a law shall go into immediate effect, a statement of the facts constituting such necessity shall be set forth in one section of the act, which section shall be passed only upon a yea and nay vote, upon a separate roll call thereon; providing, however, that no measure creating or abolishing any office or changing the salary, term or duties of any officer, or granting any franchise or special privilege, or creating any vested right or interest, shall be construed to be an urgency measure. Any law so passed by the Legislature and declared to be an urgency measure shall go into immediate effect.

Upon the presentation to the Secretary of State within ninety days after the final adjournment of the Legislature of a petition certified as herein provided, to have been signed by qualified electors equal in number to five per cent of all the votes cast for all candidates for Governor at the last preceding general election at which a Governor was elected, asking that any act or section or part of any act of the Legislature be submitted to the electors for their approval or rejection, the Secretary of State shall submit to the electors for their approval or rejection, such act, or section or part of such act, at the next succeeding general election occurring special election which may be called by the Governor, in his discretion, prior to such regular election, and no such act or section or part of such act shall go into effect until and unless approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting at any time subsequent to thirty days after the filing of said petition or at any time thereon; but if a referendum petition is filed against any section or part of any act the remainder of such act shall not be delayed from going into effect.

Any act, law or amendment to the constitution submitted to the people by either initiative or referendum petition and approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon, at any election, shall take effect five days after the date of the official declaration of the vote by the Secretary of State. No act, law or amendment to the constitution, initiated or adopted by the people, shall be subject to the veto power of the governor, and no act, law or amendment to the constitution, adopted by the people at the polls under the initiative provisions of this section, shall be amended or repealed except by a vote of the electors, unless otherwise provided in said initiative measure; but acts and laws adopted by the people under the referendum provisions of this section may be amended by the Legislature at any subsequent session thereof. If any provision or provisions of two or more measures, approved by the electors at the same election, conflict, the provision or provisions of the measure receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail. Until otherwise provided by law, all measures submitted to a vote of the electors, under the provisions of this section, shall be printed, and together with arguments for and against each such measure by the proponents and opponents thereof, shall be mailed to each elector in the same manner as now provided by law as to amendments to the constitution, proposed by the Legislature; and the persons to prepare and present such arguments shall, until otherwise provided by law, be selected by the presiding officer of the Senate.

At any such election where an initiative or referendum measure provided for in this section is to appear on the ballot no other measures are to appear on the ballot except such initiative and referendum measures and amendments to the constitution as provided for in section 1, of article XVIII of this constitution but this provision shall not be construed to prevent the name of any candidate for public office from appearing on or being voted for on such ballot.

If for any reason any initiative or referendum measure, proposed by petition as herein provided, be not submitted at the election specified in this section, such failure shall not prevent its submission at a succeeding general election, and no law or amendment to the constitution, proposed by the Legislature shall be submitted at any election unless at the same election there shall be submitted all measures proposed by petition of the electors, if any be so proposed, as herein provided.

Any initiative or referendum petition may be presented in sections, but each section shall contain a full and correct copy of the title and text of the proposed measure. Each signer shall add to his signature his place of residence, giving the street and number if such exist. His election precinct shall also appear on the paper after his name. The number of signatures attached to each section shall be at the pleasure of the person soliciting signatures to the same. Any qualified elector of the State shall be competent to solicit said signatures within the county or city and county of which he is an elector. Each section of the petition shall bear the name of the county or city and county in which it is circulated, and only qualified electors of such county or city and county shall be competent to sign such section. Each section shall have attached thereto the affidavit of the person soliciting signatures to the same, stating his own qualifications and that all the signatures to the attached section were made in his presence and that to the best of his knowledge and belief each signature to the section is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be, and no other affidavit thereto shall be required. The affidavit of any person soliciting signatures hereunder shall be verified free of charge by any officer authorized to administer oaths. Such petitions so verified shall be prima facie evidence that the signatures thereon are genuine and that the persons signing the same are qualified electors. Unless and until it be otherwise proven upon official investigation, it shall be presumed that the petition presented contains the signatures of the requisite number of qualified electors.

Each section of the petition shall be filed with the clerk or registrar of voters of the county or city and county in which it was circulated, but all said sections circulated in any county or city and county shall be filed at the same time. Within twenty days after the filing of such petition in his office the said clerk, or registrar of voters, shall determine from the records of registration what number of qualified electors have signed the same, and if necessary the board of supervisors shall allow said clerk or registrar additional assistance for the purpose of examining such petition and provide for their compensation. The said clerk or registrar, upon the completion of such examination, shall forthwith attach to said petition, except the signatures thereto appended, his certificate, properly dated, showing the result of said examination and shall forthwith transmit said petition, together with his said certificate, to the Secretary of State and also file a copy of said certificate in his office. Within forty days from the transmission of the said petition and certificate by the clerk or registrar to the Secretary of State, a supplemental petition identical with the original as to the body of the petition but containing supplemental names, may be filed with the clerk or registrar of voters, as aforesaid. The clerk or registrar of voters shall within ten days after the filing of such supplemental petition make like examination thereof, as of the original petition, and upon the completion of such examination shall forthwith attach to said petition his certificate, properly dated, showing the result of said examination, and shall forthwith transmit a copy of said supplemental petition, except the signatures thereto appended, together with his certificate, to the Secretary of State.

When the Secretary of State shall have received from one or more county clerks or registrars of voters a petition certified as herein provided to have been signed by the requisite number of qualified electors, he shall forthwith transmit to the county clerk or registrar of voters of every county or city and county in the State his certificate showing such fact. A petition shall be deemed to be filed with the Secretary of State upon the date of the receipt by him of a certificate or certificates showing said petition to be signed by the requisite number of electors of the State. Any county clerk or registrar of voters shall, upon receipt of such copy, file the same for record in his office. The duties herein imposed upon the clerk or registrar of voters shall be performed by such registrar of voters in all cases where the office of registrar of voters exists.

The initiative and referendum powers of the people are hereby further reserved to the electors of each county, city and county, city and town of the State, to be exercised under such procedure as may be provided by law. Until otherwise provided by law, the legislative body of any such county, city and county, city or town may provide for the manner of exercising the initiative and referendum powers herein reserved to such counties, cities and counties, cities and towns, but shall not require more than fifteen per cent of the electors thereof to propose any initiative measure nor more than ten per cent of the electors thereof to order the referendum. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as affecting or limiting the present or future powers of cities or cities and counties having charters adopted under the provisions of section 8 of article XI of this constitution. In the submission to the electors of any measure under this section all officers shall be guided by the general laws of this State, except as is herein otherwise provided. This section is self-executing, but legislation may be enacted to facilitate its operation, but in no way limiting or restricting either the provisions of this section or the powers herein reserved.

ARTHUR A. OHNIMUS, Chief Clerk.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

The following petitions were presented, and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Chief Clerk:

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, March 6, 1929.

Mr. Arthur A. Ohnimus,

HONORABLE SIR: The undersigned is interested in Tulare County. That county is face to face with an irrigation crisis. By pump irrigation the farmers have drained the underground reservoir faster than the water could be replaced. The water level is dropping nearly five feet a year and the limit of the pumping possibilities will soon be reached. Our farmers face ruin unless an outside source of water is made available to them within a short time.

The state-wide water plan, now under consideration by the Legislature, provides a means of relief. It has been evolved through years of study and is sound. It is an investment in prosperity for the entire State, as you may determine by looking into it.

We bespeak your favorable consideration of this measure.

Respectfully yours,

A. M. GILBERT AND COMPANY.

We, the undersigned judges of the superior court, protest against the adoption of the above mentioned amendment

Our fundamental objection is that no active practicing attorney should be given such power that he may decide judicial matters presented by fellow practicing attorneys. No judicial officer ought in any manner to be permitted to practice law.

HEMET WOMAN'S CLUB, HEMET, CALIFORNIA.

Inasmuch as there is now pending at Sacramento, legislation which if enacted will absolutely require pasteurization of all milk offered for sale in the State, and in this will deprive the municipalities of the prerogative they now have of regulating the production and distribution of dairy products to suit their peculiar requirements; and

WHEREAS, Pasteurization is a highly expensive operation and could be installed by only the largest dairymen and would work toward monopoly and the elimination of many smaller producers with consequent decrease in supply and raise in price of retail milk, which would make its use prohibitive to the poorer classes that are now using it very generally; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Hemet Woman's Club vigorously protest this intended legislation and request its Senator and Assemblyman to use their best efforts in defeating the measure.

BLANCHE S. HUNTCOX, Recording Secretary.

EFFIE G. CARR, President.

Also:

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Hemet Woman's Club that a bill is to be introduced at the next session of our Legislature, changing the present district management of our schools to a county management; and

WHEREAS, That change takes away from each community all participation in the conduct of its schools, viz. the hiring of teachers, janitors, bus drivers, etc., and vests this authority in a county supervisor and five county trustees; and

WHEREAS, It further states that any bond issue for local improvement must be voted on by the whole county, and that small schools must be consolidated into one large unit, all of which we consider as detrimental to the best interests of our local schools; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Hemet Woman's Club, assembled this twentieth day of December, does hereby go on record as opposed to the introduction or passage of this bill, and that copies of this resolution be sent to our Assemblyman, Senator and Governor.

EFFIE G. CARR, President.

BLANCHE S. HUNTOON, Recording Secretary.

Also:

INDIO, CALIFORNIA, March 6, 1929.

We, The Women's Club of Indio, Riverside County, California, do hereby protest the passage of Assembly Bill No. 459, introduced by Assemblyman Baum and commonly known as The California Taxpayers County Unit School Bill; and do petition the Legislators of the State of California to a commission appointed by the Governor for further study.

It is believed by the undersigned that the interests of the school children of the State of California will be best served by subjecting this measure to careful study for at least two years before enacting a law which involves such great changes in the educational system as this bill proposes.

CORDELIA R. AMES,

Chairman Legislative Committee.

By Mr. Seawell:

*To His Excellency, C. C. Young,
Governor of the State of California, and to the Legislature of the State of California.*

We, the undersigned, residents and taxpayers of the State of California, do hereby respectfully represent as follows:

That the State Highway Commission of the State of California, according to information received by us, has sufficient funds and money with which to do all necessary work upon the State highways of the State of California; that there have been, during the year of 1928, a large number of unemployed free men in the State of California who would be greatly benefited by an opportunity for employment upon the State highway system of the State, that we are informed that the State Highway Commission has ample money and funds to its credit now to employ free labor upon the State highways; that the employment of free labor upon the State highways would greatly benefit residents of districts through which said highways traverse; that many residents of the State are opposed to the establishment of convict camps for work upon the State highway in the neighborhood, or vicinity, of their homes.

Therefore, we respectfully but earnestly protest against the further employment of convict labor upon the California State highway system by the California State Highway Commission, and do hereby respectfully urge and petition that that certain act of the Legislature of the State of California, known as the "Convict Labor Act," enacted June 9, 1923, and as amended by that certain act of the Legislature of the State of California, chapter 653, Statutes of 1927, be repealed.

F. B. ROSSI,

And 70 others.

By Mr. Witter:

RESOLUTION

CALIPATRIA, CALIFORNIA.

WHEREAS, There has been introduced in the Assembly of the State of California "An act providing for the management, control, administration and support of the public school system of the State of California" numbered Assembly Bill No. 459 and entitled "The School Code of the State of California" but popularly known as the County Unit Bill, and

WHEREAS, The board of trustees of the Calipatria Union High School District in regular meeting assembled on February 11, 1929, have carefully considered the provisions of Assembly Bill No. 459 and believe that said bill will not promote the best interests of the schools of this State for various reasons among which are:

1st. That the bill provides for a "county fragment" system, rather than a true county unit system, and

2d. That the number 1500 which is set as the minimum number of pupils in average daily attendance in independent school districts is entirely arbitrary and is not justified by facts and conditions as they actually exist, and

3d. That the bill does not contain an adequate or feasible method of setting up independent districts other than by this act created, when and if facts and conditions justify them, and

4th. That in our own county of Imperial, under the clumsy and unfair provisions of the bill, the three men who would virtually appoint the first board of education, who would elect a superintendent for four years, and thereby practically determine the policy of the schools, do not live within the boundaries of, nor have any immediate interest in the proposed Imperial County School District, and

5th. That in our own county of Imperial the proposed county unit would be broken up territorially to such an extent that efficient administration would be difficult if not impossible, and

6th. That it seems doubtful if increased efficiency can result anywhere in the State under the provisions of this bill in spite of the increased revenues allowed the schools, and it is certain that hardships will be worked upon the smaller communities in many instances.

Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the board of trustees of the Calipatria Union High School District in regular meeting assembled on the 11th day of February, 1929, that this board do everything in their power to prevent the passage of Assembly Bill No. 459; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Hon. Nelson T. Edwards, Senator from the Thirty-ninth Senatorial District, and to the Hon. Myron D. Witter, Assemblyman from the Seventy-eighth Assembly District, and to the boards of trustees of the Brawley, El Centro, Holtville, Imperial, and Calexico high school districts.

(Signed)

THOMAS M. MONTGOMERY, President.

T. N. MYERS, Clerk.

Petitions of protest against Assembly Bill No. 459 from the following districts in Imperial County: Holtville Grammar, Alamo, McCabe, Silsbee, Eucalyptus, Magnolia Union, Lantana, Westmoreland

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from the Governor was received, and ordered printed in the Journal:

MESSAGE ON HIGHWAYS.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
SACRAMENTO, March 12, 1929.

To the Members of the Senate and the Assembly.

In the message transmitted to you at the opening of the present legislative session, and again in the message accompanying the budget, there was discussed the importance of our State highway system to the prosperity and growth of California. In these messages the following statement was made relative to the inclusion of new roads in the State system.

"At this time it will be necessary to establish some policy relative to the inclusion of new roads within the State highway system. There is a certain 'orphan' section of highway which, by error in description, by oversight, or through other fault, was not included in the State system when the parent roads were designated as State highways. This probably should be annexed to the present system at once. It comprises about five miles. But aside from this I am very doubtful whether other additions can be made just now without disrupting our entire highway program.

There are certain other roads, now a part of county highway systems, that are largely devoted to State rather than local uses. These roads clearly have prior rights to become a part of the State system, when that system is expanded. The question now is as to when such transfer should take place. I would suggest to the Director of Public Works that during the next two years he make a comprehensive traffic study of those county highways in California which now serve as arterial highways, or of routes not now in the State system of probable arterial value, to determine what roads should be added to the system, and the order in which they should be added as determined by State use and traffic needs, together with an estimate of the probable time when such roads can be included in the State system without imposing an impossible burden on that system.

No governor should be asked or expected to sign a bill providing for the extension of the State highway system, except upon recommendation of the Department of Public Works—a recommendation in its turn based upon a careful study of traffic requirements and highway use, in line with the broad general policy of long-time planning. Any other plan will break down our program of highway construction and will savor of political expediency rather than of safe and businesslike procedure. Whatever policy may be adopted must be based on traffic and not political pressure."

POLICY FOR INCLUSION OF NEW ROADS.

Having thus recognized that there are unquestionably roads which should be added to the State system, and having suggested a study of these roads during the next two years, it becomes necessary to adopt a policy which at the earliest possible moment may afford relief to those localities where county roads, due to the large volume of State traffic using them, have in effect become State roads, thus throwing an undue maintenance burden upon the counties in which these roads lie. It is only fair and proper that this situation be corrected through a gradual expansion of our secondary road system.

Accordingly I would suggest that by resolution the Legislature direct that a study of this problem be immediately begun in order to determine:

(1) Roads not now in the State highway system, which in the opinion of the California Highway Commission and the Department of Public Works, should properly be included in it.

(2) The extent to which there is a lack of balance which prevents a well-ordered and unified system and the manner in which such lack of balance may be corrected.

(3) A study of the State highway system, which will give information regarding the cost of bringing the system up to a stage where traffic on our highways is adequately and economically served.

(4) The extent to which highways may be added in the next two years to the State system without unduly jeopardizing existing and future maintenance and construction funds; and

(5) Some method by which these maintenance and construction funds may as soon as possible be made available for the new roads that may be added to the State system.

I think we would all agree that, considering the many hundreds of miles of unimproved and undeveloped roads in our existing State highway system, we should not add new roads to that system in any careless or haphazard way. I think we would agree that before a road is added a traffic and economic study should determine its necessity, and a survey as to rights of way, grades, economy of construction, and the like, should determine its location.

I think we would also agree that new roads should not be added more rapidly than they can be adequately cared for. Money spent on these new roads can be expended only on the theory that they are more immediately important to the State than other roads in the existing system whose development might thereby be postponed. I am of the opinion that the California Highway Commission and the Department of Public Works are justified in their belief that at the present time a mileage increase of approximately 10 to 12 per cent. or between 650 and 800 miles, is about all the system can safely stand.

NECESSITY OF EQUALIZING SECONDARY MILEAGE

I think we would agree that in developing our highway system we must do justice to all sections of the State. The Breed law, in allocating gas tax funds, proportioned the amounts given to primary roads in the northern and southern portions according to the primary mileage in these two sections these being roads of state-wide interest and importance. For the secondary roads, however, an equal amount of funds was given to the north and to the south. I believe that the best interests of the State will be served by maintaining this equality of allotment.

However, the present highway system as built up during previous administrations included only 525 miles of secondary roads in the southern counties as against 1778 miles in the north. This means that whereas the north has 1778 miles over which to spread its allotment of secondary highway funds, the south has only 525 miles on which to use an equal allotment, thus requiring that, until this lack of balance is adjusted by taking in other roads which may qualify for a place in the State system, there must be an uneven development of the secondary system in the two ends of the State.

No one, I am sure, would wish to disturb the equal allotment of funds to northern and to southern secondary roads. It is obvious, therefore, that an unsatisfactory condition will exist until the present great disparity in secondary mileage is reduced. The Highway Commission assures me that on the basis of preliminary investigations it is also obvious that, in the 10 to 12 per cent increase referred to above, they must of necessity recommend the addition of three or four times as much mileage in the south as in the north. This addition will be confined to the secondary system and by so doing it will more nearly equalize the secondary mileage in the State.

UNDISPUTED FAIRNESS OF SOUTHERN POSITION.

I have noted certain newspaper accounts which would seem to indicate that it is proposed to change the present equal allocation of funds to northern and to southern secondary roads. Nothing can be further from the facts, since neither south nor north seeks to disturb this wise provision of the Breed law. The only change suggested is a rather generous increasing of the 525 miles of southern secondary roads until they shall more nearly approach in extent the 1778 miles of secondary roads in the north.

Fortunately no one wants to precipitate a conflict between the two ends of the State. The south is not asking for a single dollar additional for the construction or reconstruction of its secondary road system. It is asking, however, for an increased secondary mileage over which to spread the allotment which it now receives; and I have yet to meet a friend of good roads, in the Legislature or out of it, who considers this an unreasonable request. It is not right that, with practically equal traffic and almost equal area, one end of the State should continue to have nearly three and one-half times as much secondary mileage as the other; and that the latter owing to this limited mileage, must continue to convey its equal traffic so largely over locally maintained county roads.

On one point, however, I must reiterate what I have already quoted from my biennial message, that we must see to it that no extensions whatever shall be made to the State highway system except after careful study and survey on the part of our highway engineers. To do otherwise would be to include roads which afterwards we might all regret, just as we now regret hundreds of miles which without sufficient study were long ago unwisely included in our present highway system. Having made this mistake once, we must not make it again. Even for the roads which are included we must make certain of the engineering data which shall make each of them the very best road possible for the community which it serves. The Highway Commission and Department of Public Works have indicated that they are prepared to commence this work at once, thus assuring that the necessary new secondary roads shall be promptly added. I thoroughly approve of this, and also approve of the ratio by which it is proposed to begin the correction of the very indefensible disparity of secondary mileage in the two ends of the State.

Nevertheless, while this disparity is gradually being corrected, the study as proposed must ultimately include every road in every section of the State whose probable right to a place in the State system can be demonstrated. Thus from time to time other roads will be added, both north and south, until our secondary highway system is complete. This, when finally brought about, must be only through the admission of roads on which such adequate study has been made, and whose right to a place in the secondary highway system can not be disputed.

PROMPT INCLUSION OF NEW ROADS INSURED

It only remains to discover a method by which when new roads are recommended to the Legislature for adoption into the system, these roads may share in construction and maintenance funds as speedily thereafter as possible. In other words, if these roads are not formally adopted until the next legislative session, how can they be included in the highway budget made just previous to the beginning of that session?

While it might be questioned whether authority can be delegated to a highway commission actually to "adopt" new roads into the system without legislative ratification, the Highway Commission can at least, after proper study, submit these to the Legislature and include them in its proper highway budget, thus making certain that they can be cared for as State highways two years from next July.

By this procedure no time will be lost in providing for the construction and maintenance of the new roads thus to be taken into the system. The highway budget for the present biennium is already made up, but these roads will go into the next budget, will be recommended in my next biennial message, and beyond the shadow of a doubt will be formally ratified by the next Legislature. Meanwhile, with entire justice to every section of the State, we shall have established the principle that roads shall be added to our highway system, not through political pressure, but as the result of an impartial, unbiased study of our highway needs. This will also give to the members of the Legislature supporting data for the roads in which they are interested and which they may hereafter seek to have added to the system.

BASIC PRINCIPLES FOR HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

I feel very strongly that the time is now ripe, and the opportunity here, to formulate a policy and establish a precedent that will govern future additions to the State highway system upon the basis of their ability to qualify as of State importance. This policy and precedent may be tersely stated as providing that expert study by State authorities must precede, rather than follow, the inclusion of roads into the State highway system.

In conclusion, permit me to call your attention to the fact that our major highway problems have been solved in a substantially satisfactory manner, with the exception of the method by which additions to the State highway system shall be made. The greatest contribution that this Legislature can make to our highway system is to formulate a policy of highway extension that will give to the system its necessary and proper measure of protection.

I feel that a program outlined in a concurrent resolution, embodying by reference what I have tried to express in this message, is one in which friends of good roads all over California can join. I feel also that this is a most happy time for the formulation of these principles, since at this particular time our action will not jeopardize the interest or delay the improvement of any road in any section of the State.

Respectfully submitted,

C. C. YOUNG, Governor.

Grade Number 1 Grade Number 1 shall consist of sweet potatoes of similar varietal characteristics which are firm, fairly smooth, not badly misshapen; which are free from black rot, decay, and freezing injury; and free from damage caused by dirt, discoloration, secondary rootlets, bruises, cuts, scars, growth cracks, grass roots, scald, scurf or other disease, nematode, wire worm, or other insects, and mechanical or other means, and shall be in new clean standard lidded containers.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

The following petitions were presented, and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Kline:

COACHELLA, CALIFORNIA, February 15, 1929.

Chester A. Kline, Sacramento, California.

DEAR SIR: The following resolution was adopted by the board of directors of the Coachella Valley County Water District at a special meeting of the board held yesterday:

WHEREAS, The inadequacy of the secondary State highways in the southern district of California, south of the Tehachapi, has obviously hindered the growing demands of traffic, and

WHEREAS, The secondary system has been recommended to be enlarged by the regional council of the California Development Association and the Automobile Club of Southern California, to include certain roads of more than ordinary local importance, which roads recommended to be included comprise a comprehensive program upon which the entire aforesaid area is united, and particular reference to the highway between El Centro and Calexico and between Brawley and Niland in Imperial County, now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the board of directors of the Coachella Valley County Water District do hereby supplement the aforesaid recommendation to the regional council of the California Development Association and the Automobile Club of Southern California and to Senator Nelson T. Edwards and Assemblyman M. D. Witter, representing the Seventy-eighth District, and request the Legislature to enact a bill embodying the aforesaid proposal, and further that we urge the Governor of the State of California give favorable consideration to the bill by signing same; and, be it further

Resolved, That we endorse the construction of the aforesaid highways embodied in the proposed secondary highway system, and that our secretary be instructed to forthwith make proper distribution of these resolutions

Very truly yours,

COACHELLA VALLEY COUNTY WATER DISTRICT.
By MABEL CRAIG, Secretary.

Also:

RIVERSIDE COUNTY FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS.

WHEREAS, The mourning dove is one of the most useful birds to the farmer, its principal food being the seeds of noxious weeds, and

WHEREAS, Through the shooting of the mother dove, a great wrong is being done the bird and its young, as thousands of nestlings are forced to starve each year, and

WHEREAS, The species is continuing to decrease on account of this wholesale destruction, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the County Federation of Women's Clubs, do hereby petition the Legislature of the State of California to extend the season for the protection of doves until October first, and that the open season last for two weeks only.

Also:

RIVERSIDE COUNTY FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS.

WHEREAS, There is pending at Sacramento legislation, which, if enacted, will absolutely require pasteurization of all milk offered for sale in the State, and in this will deprive the municipalities of the prerogative they now have of regulating the production and distribution of dairy products to suit their peculiar requirements, and

WHEREAS, Pasteurization is a highly expensive operation and could be installed by only the largest dairymen and would work toward monopoly and the elimination of many smaller producers with consequent decrease in supply and raise in price of retail milk, which would make its use prohibitive to the poorer classes that are now using it very generally; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the County Federation of Women's Clubs vigorously protest this intended legislation and request its Senator and Assemblyman to use their best efforts in defeating the measure.

By Mr. Heisinger:

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, CALIFORNIA, March 12, 1929.

Assemblyman H. L. Heisinger, State Capitol, Sacramento, California.

DEAR SIR: Your proposal to establish an agency to forward the scientific study of the various activities of the State is a real piece of constructive work (reference to Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 14). There are especially three of these lines, Fish and Game, Mining, and Parks, which have suffered for years because the State was trying to carry on a highly technical operation with practically no scientific knowledge upon which to base a policy.

I enclose a memorandum on one phase of the fish and game business which you will find interesting.

Very truly yours,

THEODORE J. HOOVER.

By Mr. Miller:

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, February 12, 1929.

We, the undersigned, residents of the city and county of San Francisco, who through the grace of God have been privileged to enjoy the affection and loyalty of dogs, file herewith a most solemn protest against Senate Bill No. 25, now before the Legislature of the State of California.

We rise to the defense of man's devoted friend, unable as he is to protect himself from the slander that brands even the least offensive of his kind bandit and outlaw. We object to a bill which fixes in dollars and cents companionship and understanding upon which no commercial value may be placed.

We aver that an act which would make of any person an executioner of the friend of the friendless is inhuman and unjust and beg the legislators of the State of California to vote against this bill.

L. R. MORIARTY.

And 100 others.

By Mr. Bernard:

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, March 13, 1929.

Assembly Committee on Commerce and Navigation, Senate Chamber, State Capitol, Sacramento.

The Down Town Association of San Francisco, with representation of over fifteen hundred of San Francisco's leading business houses on its membership and organized for the good of San Francisco and California, has by unanimous action of its board of directors most strongly endorsed proposition for establishment of refrigerating plant on San Francisco waterfront. San Francisco can not prosper unless farming interests prosper also, and consummation of this project is of such incalculable importance to our future prosperity and development that we most strongly urge passage of legislation insuring establishment of such plant at earliest possible moment.

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, strike out all of lines 1 to 23, inclusive; also strike out all of pages 2 to 11, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SECTION 1 The duties, powers and jurisdiction conferred by this act are invested in the department of public works and shall be administered and exercised through the state engineer. The word "department" when used in this act shall mean the department of public works and shall be construed in accordance with said administration and exercise of duties, powers, and jurisdiction through the agency of the state engineer. The state engineer shall be responsible to the director of public works for the proper administration of this act.

SEC. 2. The word "dam" whenever used in this act shall mean any dam and appurtenant works for the impounding or diversion of water which will be either fifteen feet or more in height from ground level to crest of spillway or whose impounding capacity will be ten acre feet or more; provided, that no obstruction used to raise or lower water in a canal or divert water therefrom shall be considered a dam within the meaning of this act. The word "owner" whenever used in this act includes the state and all its departments, institutions and agencies whatsoever, every municipal or quasi municipal corporation, political subdivision, public utility, district, corporation, company, association or person and their duly authorized agents, lessees, trustees, and receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, controlling, operating, maintaining or managing any dam as defined in this act.

SEC. 3. The department is hereby invested with authority under the police power of the state and directed to supervise dams for the protection of life and property as hereinafter provided. All dams in the State of California whether heretofore or hereafter built or now under construction shall be under the jurisdiction of the department and it shall be unlawful to construct, enlarge, repair, alter, remove, maintain or operate any dam except upon approval of the department as hereinafter provided. The department shall employ such clerical, engineering and other assistants and at such compensation in accordance with civil service regulations as may be necessary for carrying on the work of dam supervision in accordance with this act. The department may employ such consultants none of whom need be civil service employees, as may be necessary. The records pertaining to the supervision of dams shall be public documents. The department shall adopt and revise from time to time such rules and regulations and issue such general orders for carrying out the provisions of this act as may be necessary.

SEC. 4. Every owner of a dam completed prior to the effective date of this act shall, within six months after the effective date of this act, file an application for the approval of such dam. A separate application shall be made for each dam and shall be filed with the department and upon forms to be supplied by it and shall supply such available and appropriate information concerning said dam as may be required by the department. Upon the expiration of said six months period, the department shall give notice to file to owners who have failed to do so as herein required, and a failure to file within thirty days after such notice shall be punishable as hereinafter provided. The notice herein provided for may be given by registered mail and a return receipt signed by such owner shall constitute prima facie evidence of service. Within three years after the effective date of this act, the department shall cause an examination to be made of all such completed dams in the state and shall, within said time, issue either licenses for the operation and maintenance of such dams or orders directing such work as may be necessary to insure safety and fixing the time for completion of such work. Upon the completion of any work so ordered to the satisfaction of the department, it shall issue a license for the dam involved. Costs of examinations conducted under this section shall be borne by the state and paid for out of funds appropriated for use by the department, but work ordered hereunder shall be done at the expense of the owner.

SEC 5. After the effective date of this act construction of any new dam or the enlargement of any dam shall not be commenced until the owner has applied for and obtained from the department written approval of plans and specifications. A separate application for each dam shall be filed with the department upon forms to be provided by it and shall give the name and address of the owner, the location, type, size and height of the proposed dam and appurtenant works, the storage capacity of the reservoir and such other pertinent information as the department shall require. It shall also give as accurately as may be readily obtained, the area of the drainage basin, rainfall and stream flow records and flood flow records and estimates. The department may also require data concerning subsoil and foundation conditions and may require that the site be drilled or otherwise prospected and may require such other appropriate information as may be necessary in a given instance but in instances wherein the physical conditions involved and the size of the dam are such as to render the above requirements as to drainage areas, rainfall, stream flow and flood flow and drilling or prospecting of site unnecessary, said requirements may be waived.

The application shall set forth the purpose for which the impounded or diverted water is to be used and shall be accompanied by maps and plans and specifications of such character and size, and setting forth such pertinent details and dimensions as the department may require. Such maps and plans and specifications shall be a part of the application. Also the application shall set forth the estimated cost, as hereinafter defined, of the dam or enlargement and shall be accompanied by a filing fee based upon said estimated cost and according to the following schedule, to wit: for the first one hundred thousand dollars a fee of one per cent of the estimated cost; for the next nine hundred thousand dollars a fee of one-half of one per cent; for the next four million dollars a fee of one-tenth of one per cent; and for all costs in excess of five million dollars a fee of one-twentieth of one per cent. In no case, however, shall the minimum fee be less than twenty dollars. For the purposes of this act, the estimated cost of the dam, or enlargement involved shall include the cost of all labor and materials entering into the construction of the dam and appurtenant works, the cost of preliminary investigations and surveys, and the cost of the construction plant properly chargeable to the cost of the dam; and any and all other items entering directly into the cost of the dam; provided, that the costs of right of way, detached power houses, electrical generating machinery and roads and railroads affording access to the dam should not be included among the items used in the determination of cost. An application shall not be considered by the department until the filing fee is received. In the event that the actual cost exceeds the estimated cost by more than ten per cent, a further fee shall be required by the department before final approval and shall be in twice the amount by which the original fee is less than it would have been had the cost it was based upon been the same as the actual cost. Any dam which the department finds was not ninety per cent constructed at the date this act goes into effect, shall be subject to the same provisions as a dam commenced after the effective date of this act; provided, however, that construction work on such a dam may proceed, if an application for approval thereof is filed within sixty days after the effective date of this act, until an order from the department is received approving said dam or specifying how its construction must be made or altered to render it safe. After receipt of an order directing the construction of such a dam work thereafter must be in accordance with said order. Either an application for the approval of a dam under construction must be filed within sixty days after the effective date of this act or a statement must be filed showing that such dam was ninety per cent or more constructed at the effective date of this act. Dams found to be ninety per cent or more constructed at the effective date of this act shall be subject to the same supervision as dams which were completed prior to the effective date of this act. Applications for dams found by the department to have been less than ninety per cent constructed at the effective date of this act shall be accompanied by fees as much less than provided for dams commenced after the effective date of this act as the percentage of construction found by the department to have been completed at the effective date of this act. All filing fees collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid once each month into the state treasury. The fees herein provided for shall be required of all enumerated in the definition of owner as made in section 2 of this act.

SEC 6. Before commencing the repair, alteration or removal of a dam, whether it was completed before or after the effective date of this act, the owner must secure the written approval of the department, except as hereinafter provided. Application for such approval shall give the name and address of applicant, and shall adequately detail, with appropriate references to the existing dam, the changes which it is proposed to effect and shall be accompanied by maps and plans and specifications which shall be a part of said application and which shall be of such character and size and set forth such pertinent details and dimensions as the department may require; provided, that the department may waive any of the above requirements if found by it unnecessary. Such application shall also give such other pertinent information or data concerning the dam and reservoir as may be required by the department and such information as to other matters appropriate to a thorough consideration of the safety of such a change as may be required by the department and shall also state the proposed time of commencement and of completion of construction. In case of an emergency where repairs are necessary to safeguard life and property repairs may be started immediately, but in the event of such emergency repairs the department shall be notified at once of proposed repairs and of work under way and said proposed repairs and work shall be made to conform to such orders as the department shall issue.

SEC. 7. Upon receipt of an application, the department shall give its consideration thereto and shall approve or disapprove, or approve subject to such conditions as may be necessary to insure safety. A defective application made in a bona fide attempt to conform to the law and rules and regulations of the department shall not be rejected but notice of defect shall be sent to the applicant by ordinary and registered mail and if within thirty days of the date of mailing said notice applicant shall not file an amended and perfected application, said application shall be rejected and canceled unless for good cause shown the department shall allow applicant further time. No application shall be approved in less than ten days from the receipt of said application, nor shall an application pend unacted upon for more than sixty days after it has been filed in the required form and content, unless the department shall find that additional information or data are necessary and that action must therefore be deferred for the time found necessary to acquire and study such information or data. Approvals shall be granted under terms, conditions and limitations necessary to safeguard life and property. Actual construction shall be started within one year after date of approval, otherwise the approval shall become void; provided, however, that the department may upon written application and for good cause shown, extend the time for beginning of construction. Notice shall be given the department at least ten days before construction is to be started and such other notices shall be given to the department as may be required by it.

SEC. 8. During the construction, enlargement, repair, alteration or removal of any dam under an approval of the department, it shall make or cause to be made such continuous or periodical inspections, investigations or examinations as may be necessary to secure conformity with the provisions of such approval and approved plans and specifications. If, after any such inspections, investigations or examinations, or at any time as the work progresses it shall be found by the department that amendments, modifications or changes are necessary to insure safety, the department shall have authority to revise the approval as may be necessary or, if conditions are revealed which will not permit of the construction of a safe dam in accordance with the approved plans and specifications, the approval may be revoked. In the event that conditions imposed may be waived or made less burdensome without sacrificing a proper margin of safety, the department shall have authority to revise the approval accordingly. If at any time during construction, enlargement, repair or alteration of any dam the department shall find that the work is not being done in accordance with the provisions of the approval and the approved plans and specifications or in accordance with the approval or plans and specifications as same may have been revised, it shall give a written notice and order by registered mail or by personal service to the owner. Said notice and order shall state the particulars in which the approval and approved plans and specifications or the approval and approved plans and specifications as revised are not being or have not been complied with and shall order the immediate compliance with the approval and approved plans and specifications or with the approval and approved plans and specifications as revised as may be the case. Also, the department may order that no further work be done until such compliance has been effected and approved by the department. A failure to comply with the approval and approved plans and specifications as originally approved or revised as may be the case, shall render such approval subject to revocation by the department, if compliance is not made in accordance therewith after notice and order from the department as above provided.

SEC. 9. Immediately upon completion of a new dam or enlargement of a dam the owner shall give a notice of completion to the department and as soon thereafter as possible there shall be filed with the department supplementary drawings or descriptive matter showing or describing the dam as actually constructed, including a record of all grout holes and grouting; a record of permanent location points and bench marks; a record of tests of concrete or other material used in the construction of the dam, and any other items which may be of permanent value and have a bearing on the safety and permanency of the dam; provided, that in connection with the enlargement of a dam, the supplementary drawings and descriptive matter need apply only to the new work. No license shall be issued by the department until the above data and such other pertinent data as may be required by it are filed. As soon as practicable the completed dam shall be inspected by the department and upon a finding that the work has been done as required and that the same is safe a license shall be issued forthwith subject to such terms, conditions, and limitations as may be necessary for the protection of life and property. Pending issuance of a license by the department the dam shall not be used except upon written consent from the department and subject to such conditions as may be imposed by it for the protection of life and property.

SEC. 10. Immediately upon completion of the repair or alteration of any dam, the owner shall give notice of completion to the department and as soon thereafter as possible there shall be filed with it supplementary drawings or descriptive matter showing or describing the dam as actually repaired or altered together with such maps, data, records and information pertaining to such dam as repaired or altered as the department may require. No license for a dam as repaired or altered shall be issued by the department until the above data and such other pertinent data as may be required by the department is filed. As soon as practicable the dam as repaired or altered shall be inspected by the department and upon a finding that the work has been done as required and that the dam is safe a license shall be issued forthwith subject to such terms and conditions as may be necessary for the protection of life and property and shall either supersede any previous license issued for the dam so repaired or altered or be supplemental thereto as may be declared by the department. No such repaired or altered dam shall be used prior to the issuance of a new license or a supplemental license except upon written consent from the department and subject to such conditions as may be imposed by it for the protection of life and property.

Upon completion of the removal of a dam, such evidence as may be required by the department shall be filed with said department. This evidence shall show that a sufficient portion of the dam has been removed to permit the safe passage of floods down the water course across which the dam was located. Before final approval of the removal of a dam shall be issued, the department shall inspect the work and determine that all danger to life and property has been eliminated.

SEC. 11. The findings of the department and the terms and conditions of the approval and the license for any dam, issued by the department shall be final and conclusive as to safety of design, construction, maintenance and operation of such dam and shall be accepted as such by all other state agencies, regulatory or otherwise.

SEC. 12. Supervision over the maintenance and operation of dams in so far as necessary to safeguard life and property from injury by reason of the failure thereof shall be vested in the department. The department shall cause inspections to be made, require reports from the owner and issue rules and regulations and orders necessary to secure maintenance and operation which will safeguard life and property. If any owner shall fail to comply with such rules and regulations or orders, the department shall have authority to forthwith employ any remedial means necessary to protect life and property. If the condition of any dam is so dangerous to the safety of life or property as not to permit of time for the issuance and enforcement of an order relative to maintenance or operation or if passing or imminent floods threaten the safety of any dam, the department shall have authority immediately to employ any remedial means necessary to protect life and property. In applying the remedial means provided for in this section, the department may in emergency lower the water level by releasing water from the reservoir, or may completely empty the reservoir and may take such other steps as may be essential to safeguard life and property and shall continue in full charge and control of such dam and reservoir and its appurtenances until the same have been rendered safe or the emergency occasioning the action shall have ceased. The cost and expenses of such remedial means as herein provided, including costs of any work done to render such a dam or its appurtenances safe shall be recoverable by the state from the owner by action brought by the department in the superior court of the county wherein the dam or any part thereof is situate.

SEC. 13. Upon receipt of a written complaint alleging that the person or property of the complainant is endangered by the construction, maintenance or operation of any dam the department shall cause an inspection to be made unless the data, records and inspection reports on file with it are found adequate to enable a determination whether or not the complaint is meritorious, but if complainant insists upon an inspection and deposits with the department a sum estimated by the department to be sufficient to cover costs of an inspection the same shall be made or caused to be made by the department despite its finding as to the sufficiency of its records to determine the alleged danger. If it be found that an unsafe condition exists, the department shall take such action as shall be necessary to render or cause said condition to be rendered safe and any money deposited to secure an inspection shall be returned but if after an inspection made on account of a complaint, the complaint is found by the department to have been without merit, any money deposited therefor shall be payable into the state treasury.

SEC. 14. For the purpose of enabling decisions to be made which will be as compatible with economy and public safety as possible the department shall make or cause to be made such investigations and shall gather or cause to be gathered such data as may be needed for a proper review and study of the various features of the design and construction of dams, reservoirs, and appurtenances and shall also make or cause to be made such watershed investigations and studies as may facilitate such decisions. In the making of any of its investigations or inspections as required or authorized by this act the department or its representatives shall have the right to enter upon private property as may be necessary.

SEC. 15. No action shall be brought against the state or the department or its agents or employees for the recovery of damages caused by the partial or total failure of any dam or through the operation of any dam upon the ground that such defendant is liable by virtue of the approval of such a dam or by virtue of the issuance or enforcement of orders relative to maintenance or operation, or by virtue of control and regulation of such a dam or by virtue of measures taken to protect against failure during an emergency.

SEC. 16. Nothing in this act shall be construed to relieve an owner or operator of a dam of the legal duties, or obligations, or liabilities incident to such ownership or operation.

SEC. 17. Every violation of the provisions of this act or of any approval, order, rule, regulation or requirement of the department shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or both, and in the event of a continuing violation each day that such a violation continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

Any person wilfully obstructing, hindering or preventing the department or its agents or employees from performing the duties imposed by this act or who wilfully resists the exercise of the control and supervision conferred by this act upon the department or its agents or employees shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable as herein provided.

Any owner, or any person acting as a director, officer, agent or employee of such owner, or any contractor or agent or employee of such contractor who shall engage in the construction, enlargement, repair, alteration, maintenance, or removal of any dam, who shall knowingly do work or permit work to be executed thereon without an approval or in violation of or contrary to any approval as provided for in this act or any inspector or agent or employee of the department who shall have knowledge of such work being done and who shall fail to immediately notify the department thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable as herein provided.

SEC. 18. Whenever any owner or any person acting as a director, officer, agent or employee of any owner or any contractor or agent or employee of such contractor is failing or omitting or about to fail or omit to do anything required of him by this act or by any approval, order, rule, regulation, or requirement of the department under the authority of this act or is doing or permitting anything or about to do or permit anything to be done in violation of or contrary to this act or any approval, order, rule, regulation, or requirement of the department under this act the department may commence an action or proceeding in the superior court in and for the county, or city and county, in which the cause or some part thereof arose, or in which the owner or person complained of has its principal place of business, or in which the person complained of resides, for the purpose of having such violations or threatened violations stopped and prevented, either by mandamus or injunction. The department shall bring such action or proceeding by petition in such superior court, alleging the violation or threatened violation complained of, and praying for appropriate relief by way of mandamus or injunction. It shall then be the duty of such court to specify a time, not exceeding twenty days after the service of the copy of the petition within which the owner or person complained of must answer the petition, and in the meantime said owner or person may be restrained. In case of default in answer or after answer the court shall immediately inquire into the facts and circumstances of the case. Such parties shall be joined as the court may deem necessary or proper in order to make its judgment, order or writ effective. The final judgment in such action or proceeding shall either dismiss the action or proceeding or direct that the writ of mandamus or injunction issue or be made permanent as prayed for in the petition, or in such modified or other form as will afford appropriate relief. The department is hereby authorized and empowered to employ necessary counsel to institute any and all proceedings to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 19. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act the sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, and the state controller is hereby directed to draw warrants upon such sum from time to time upon the demand of the department for the purposes of this act and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay such warrants.

SEC. 20. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more of the sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

SEC 21. All acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed and the jurisdiction hereby conferred is exclusively vested in the department."

RE: ASSEMBLY BILL NUMBER SIX HUNDRED SIXTY-SIX.

DEAR SIR: May the writer invite your attention to the above bill which, it is understood, has been referred to your committee for consideration and recommendation.

This measure is known in all the states as the "Basic Science Bill," sponsored by the medical interests. It is introduced wherever there have been established laws and boards for the regulation of the nonmedical healing systems, freed from medical domination.

The proposed measure leaves the existing laws and boards in putative operation, but establishes an additional board to be appointed from the medical faculties of the universities of the State—some of them, that is to say, not all. It shall be the business of the board thus constituted to give a prior examination in the basic subjects already covered by the medical, chiropractic and osteopathic acts, before such an applicant can be reexamined therein by the board administering the law regulating the profession he aims to practice.

It is thus hoped by indirection to reestablish the conditions whose existence prior to 1922 resulted in the passage of the chiropractic and osteopathic acts by the people, the former by a majority vote of 152,000 odd.

We believe your study of the above measure will demonstrate the accuracy of the foregoing analysis and that your committee will see fit to render the Assembly a negative recommendation.

Thanking you for your consideration, I am,

Yours very truly,

RAY S. LA BARRE, D. C.

Such premium rates or system of schedule rating (or merit rating, so-called) shall take no account of any physical impairment of employees or the extent to which employees may have persons dependent upon them for support.

The state insurance commissioner may subsequently approve or issue a uniform system of schedule rating (or merit rating, so-called) for all insurance carriers, or may modify or change any such system previously approved or issued after holding a hearing to determine its effect upon the adequacy or inadequacy of rates, and may approve or issue additional uniform rates and classifications or uniform changes in rates and classifications after holding hearings to determine upon the adequacy or inadequacy of such additions or changes.

On or after October 1, 1915, no insurance carrier may issue, renew or carry beyond anniversary date insurance for employers or employees under the workmen's compensation, insurance and safety act at premium rates which are less than the rates previously approved or issued by the state insurance commissioner for all insurance carriers as adequate for the risks to which they respectively apply; provided, however, if the state insurance commissioner shall have previously approved or issued a uniform system of schedule rating (or merit rating, so-called), insurance carriers may apply the same to any risks subject thereto, but basis rates no less than the rates previously approved or issued by the state insurance commissioner and any reductions therefrom on account of the application of such system of schedule rating (or merit rating, so-called) shall be clearly set forth in insurance contracts or endorsements attached thereto.

Nothing in this section shall affect the right of any insurance carrier to issue compensation participating policies, provided, however, that no refund by reason of such participating provision may be made to policyholders by any insurance carrier except from surplus accumulated from premiums on compensation insurance policies insuring employers or employees under the workmen's compensation, insurance and safety act of this state, provided, further, that no refund, cash dividend, or premium credit shall be paid or allowed under any such participating provision to policyholders in this state by any insurance carrier except reciprocals and interinsurance exchanges, except in accordance with a schedule of dividends which must be filed with the state insurance commissioner by all insurance carriers, except reciprocals and interinsurance exchanges issuing such policies, not later than the fifteenth day of February of each year, and said schedules of dividends must show the dividends earned and to be returned to policyholders for the year ending December thirty-first preceding the filing of the schedule, and must be prepared by the classifications in use in the rate manual approved by the state insurance commissioner as applicable to workmen's compensation insurance in this state, said schedules must provide for the return of dividends to all policyholders at the same rate on all premiums earned in the same manual classifications without regard to the minimum premium requirements in the policy except that said schedules may be prepared to show the average dividends earned in any classification and may provide for a uniform variation from said average in accordance with the loss experience under the individual policies, but no discrimination in said schedule shall be made between risks having the same loss experience in the same classification, the payment of said earned dividends shall not be conditioned upon the renewal of the policy or policies under which said dividends were earned, said schedules when filed with the state insurance commissioner shall be open to public inspection and no payments thereunder shall be made until the said schedules have been approved by the state insurance commissioner and after the schedule of any insurance carrier has been approved the said schedule shall not be departed from until a new schedule is prepared and filed and approved as provided herein. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this provision are hereby repealed.

The statistical and actuarial data compiled by the industrial accident commission and the state compensation insurance fund shall at all times be available to the state insurance commissioner for his use in judging the adequacy or inadequacy of rates and schedules filed, and it shall be the duty of the manager of the state compensation insurance fund, or other officers of the state compensation insurance fund who may be designated for such duty by the industrial accident commission, to render all possible assistance to the state insurance commissioner in carrying out the provisions of this section.

The state insurance commissioner may require every insurance carrier, which insures employers or employees under the workmen's compensation, insurance and safety act, to file with its annual statement a sworn report of its loss experience in such detail and form as may be prescribed by the state insurance commissioner.

The state insurance commissioner shall have power, after hearing, to suspend or revoke the certificate of authority of any insurance carrier to write liability insurance for violating any of the provisions hereof, and any insurance broker, or agent, or employee of any insurance carrier, who violates any provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

THE SPEAKER IN THE CHAIR.

COMMUNICATION.

The following communication was read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Jones:

SACRAMENTO, March 14, 1929.

Hon. Isaac Jones, Assembly Chamber,

State Capitol Building, Sacramento, California

MY DEAR MR JONES: To the point of your resolution offered in Assembly, and adding to my brief telegram to you concerning the situation at Las Vegas, Nevada, to which your resolution is directed, please be advised that the State Real Estate Department has long since taken full cognizance of the grave situation, and we have repeatedly sent our deputies there to investigate and report.

Briefly stated, we have stopped the sale of residential subdivisions lots in and around Las Vegas, and Kingman, Arizona, unless such subdivisions first install or provide, by a financial setup, a proper impoundment of money in trust, for the installation of a substantial and enduring water system, and for graded and packed streets. We also require that such subdivisions must not be farther away from Las Vegas or Kingman than about 3 miles. We have resolutely refused permission of all others farther away to sell their products in this State even with such improvements, until they can, by recognized rules of land economics, show a use and demand for such a subdivision.

Indeed, we have gone farther than the Real Estate Act, under which we operate, permits us in terms of law to go, relying as we do upon a broad interpretation of honesty and truthfulness in the sale of such property. We hold that anyone who sells any land for which there is no economic use, whether such land be in acreage or lots, is selling something worthless to the purchaser. It is true that despite these restrictions, some of these lots and land are being sold in this State through power of attorney, but where we find them getting around our act in this manner, and at the same time holding a real estate agent's license, we divest them of such license on the grounds stated.

Therefore, I feel that we have the situation now very well in hand. We will, of course, continue our vigilance of this matter.

The amendments to our act passed by the Senate today, and we hope will become law very soon, and among other things, will give us a little more money with which to employ a sufficient number of deputies to properly check up on these matters and to stop the evils complained of before they are committed.

I am, yours very respectfully,

STEPHEN BARNSON.

Commissioner, State Real Estate Department.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 5 ordered transmitted to the Senate.

ASSEMBLY CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 5.

Relative to speculation in desert lands.

WHEREAS, The passage by Congress of the Boulder Canyon Project Act, approved December 21, 1928, has aroused interest in desert lands heretofore of little or no value; and

WHEREAS, B B Smith Registrar of the Federal Land Office at Los Angeles, is reported to have declared that prospective settlers and land buyers already have been defrauded of hundreds of thousands of dollars by unscrupulous promoters in the area below the projected Boulder Dam; and

WHEREAS, Congressman Phil Swing has declared that the completion of the dam will require a period of from 7 to 10 years and that certain lands are now being offered for sale because of the passage of the Boulder Canyon Project Act, which lands cannot be reclaimed from the water to be derived from said project or any other project; and

WHEREAS, The sale of these lands to persons uninformed as to desert conditions, or to persons who are led to believe that these lands can be irrigated immediately from the waters of the Colorado River, will result in distressing injury to the purchasers and will further result in placing valuable lands in other portions of the state under suspicion as to their utility as well as casting a doubt as to the integrity of real estate operators in California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the Legislature of California hereby requests the Real Estate Commissioner of this State to fully investigate the character of lands now being offered for sale as lands that will be irrigated from the Colorado River, and the methods employed in offering these lands for sale, and if unfair or fraudulent methods are being employed that cannot effectively be stopped and enjoined under existing provisions of law, that the commissioner submit to the Legislature of California during its forty-eighth session recommendations as to legislation that may be needed for the protection of purchasers and prospective purchasers of such lands.

We, the undersigned school trustees of the Elsinore Union High School District of Riverside County, do hereby petition the legislators of the State of California to enact into law Assembly Bill No. 118, introduced by Assemblyman Heisinger, the same being an act to amend 1609 of the Political Code, relating to persons employed in the public school service. If this law were enacted it would do away with the present Teacher Tenure Law of the State of California. By Mr Lyons:

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, March 12, 1929.

*Assemblymen, State Legislature,
Sacramento, California.*

HONORABLE SIRS: The undersigned, being engaged in the business of cleaning and dyeing in the State of California, are advised that a bill has been proposed in the present Legislature by Assemblyman Morrison of San Francisco, which will repeal the act regulating the business of cleaning and dyeing establishments which was passed by the State Legislature two years ago.

We wish to state most vigorously that the firms which we represent oppose the repeal of this act. The established and accredited cleaners and dyers of this State have been endeavoring for years to secure legislation providing a reasonable regulation of our business, for we have thoroughly understood that the business in which we are engaged is a hazardous one, that has in the course of years taken a heavy toll of life and property. We have always welcomed reasonable regulation, but in the absence of this a condition arises wherein it is possible for persons to engage in this business without regulation or governmental supervision of any character. This brings about a situation which we deem extremely unfair, for those of us who desire to operate their business in a manner consistent with safety are compelled, against their will and best judgment, to meet competition which necessitates a lowering of standards of safety, both in construction and operation.

At this time hundreds, and perhaps thousands, of plants, large and small, have accepted the requirements of the present State act and have built or altered their plants in order to be in full compliance therewith. To change the statute at this time would be very unfair, as it would make the question of cheap competition more acute than before the passage of that legislation.

In lieu of this pernicious piece of legislation first above referred to, the undersigned beg to urge your active support of Assembly Bill No. 433, proposed by Assemblyman Fry. This bill is designed to strengthen the present act, and you may be sure that its passage will be welcomed by the stable and responsible members of our industry. All the large cities of the State and nation have found regulation desirable and necessary.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 16 adopted.

Title read and approved.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 16 ordered transmitted to the Senate.

ASSEMBLY CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 16.

Relative to the orderly addition of new roads to the State highway system, after engineering and economic studies by the California Highway Commission and the Department of Public Works

WHEREAS, It appears that some highways not now in the State highway system are carrying a volume of State traffic that far exceeds the local traffic carried on said roads thus placing upon the counties in which these roads are located an undue and heavy maintenance burden; and

WHEREAS, A preliminary investigation by the California Highway Commission and Department of Public Works indicates that there is at the present time a decidedly greater mileage of such roads in the south, as compared with those in the north, carrying this excessive State traffic; and

WHEREAS, An executive message was transmitted to the Legislature under date of March 12 in which was suggested certain underlying principles to be observed in the inclusion of new secondary roads within the State highway system; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the principles enunciated in said executive message be observed in the inclusion of new roads within the State highway system, and that the California Highway Commission and the Department of Public Works be, and they are hereby directed to observe the following principles in the inclusion of new roads within the State highway system.

1. Additions shall during the next 2 years be made to the present secondary highway system, totaling between 10 and 12 per cent of existing State highway mileage, said mileage to be added in the ratio of not less than 3 or 4 miles in the south to 1 mile in the north.

2. For budgeting purposes this mileage shall be included as a part of the State highway system by the California Highway Commission when the necessary surveys are completed; provided, however, no money be expended on same until they have been finally included in the system by legislative act.

3. There shall be no change in the present statutory division of secondary highway funds; and, be it further

Resolved, That the California Highway Commission and the Department of Public Works be and they are hereby directed to make a careful study of the State highway system to ascertain and determine routes not now in the system which, either by reason of the large volume of State traffic that they are now carrying, or by reason of the relief that they would afford to heavy traffic upon present highways, or as highways serving as important interstate links, might properly be included and added to the State highway system, and be it further

Resolved, That this study shall, in accordance with the above mentioned executive message, include an investigation into the engineering, economic and traffic facts involved in the matter, that a comprehensive report shall be made to the forty-ninth Legislature embodying such recommendations as the investigation may disclose as proper and a recital of such facts as may have been taken into account; that this investigation shall begin not later than May 1, 1929, and that this report shall be completed and made public not later than August 1, 1930, and that pending the adoption of such report authority be hereby given to the California Highway Commission to take into consideration for its next budget such roads as it is thus designating and bringing to the attention of the Legislature at its next session.

We, the undersigned, school trustees of the Escondido Union High School District, do hereby petition the legislators of the State of California to submit Assembly Bill No. 459, introduced by Assemblyman Baum, and commonly known as the California Taxpayers' County Unit School Bill, to a commission appointed by the Governor for further study.

It is believed by the undersigned that the interests of the school children of the State of California will be best served by subjecting this measure to careful study for a period of at least two years, before enacting a law which involves such great changes in the educational system as this bill proposes.

RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, There has been introduced in the Legislature of the State of California a certain measure known as the "County Unit Plan" for schools, and

WHEREAS, The said measure provides that home rule of elementary and high schools having an average daily attendance of less than 1500 be taken from the present school district and vested in a board of county control; and

WHEREAS, We believe that the morale of the schools will be destroyed and the tax rate increased by thus attempting to centralize authority; and

WHEREAS, We further believe that said bill possesses many features which are socialistic, undemocratic and an attempt at bureaucracy; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the San Diego Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, is opposed to the enactment into law of this measure or any other measure founded upon like principles; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be placed in the hands of every Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution of the State of California, in the hands of the educational committee, the members of the Legislature and the newspapers.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from the Governor was read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

To the Members of the Senate and Assembly.

In accordance with the provisions of section 34, article IV of the State constitution, I propose at this time three additional amendments to the budget and the Budget Bill as originally presented to you on January 7, 1929. One of the items is for an increase of $20,000 in the amount set forth in the budget for emergency flood protection and rectification of river channels in cooperation with other agencies. The provisions of the federal appropriation for cooperation under the "Curry Bill" will not be sufficient for this for the coming two years. We were without this information at the time the budget item for this purpose was considered.

At the time the budget for the University of California was being considered, a request was made that $150,000 be included for the erection of an insectary and laboratory at the citrus experiment station at Riverside. At that time it did not seem possible to include this item in the budget. A very definite showing of facts has since convinced us that a part of this improvement should be provided for in the coming biennium, and I therefore recommend that an amount of $25,000 be added to the item for permanent improvements in the budget for the University of California.

The third item is for an increase in the support appropriation for the office of the Attorney General. The Attorney General requested an additional allowance of $25,000 to provide for needed deputy attorneys to properly handle the volume of work assigned to his office. After a conference the increase requested was reduced to $20,000.

The detail list of the changes is as follows:

INCREASES.

Respectfully submitted.

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

On page 1 of the printed bill, as amended in Assembly January 16, 1929, strike out lines 4 to 21, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "to any and all liens, mortgages, trust deeds or other incumbrances upon the premises and improvement to which the liens provided for in this chapter attach, except mortgages, trust deeds, liens or other incumbrances, the entire consideration for which shall, in good faith, have been actually delivered to and placed in the sole, absolute and unrestricted control of the incumbrancer in payment of such incumbrance and the note secured thereby, either concurrently with, or prior to the delivery of such incumbrance; provided, however, that this exception shall not apply either (1) to any mortgage, trust deed or other incumbrance, any part of the consideration for which is executory; or (2) to any lien, mortgage, trust deed or other incumbrance which may have attached subsequent to the time when the structure or work of improvement in connection with which the lien claimant has done his work or furnished his materials was commenced, or (3) to any mortgage, trust deed or other incumbrance of which the lien holder had no notice and which was unrecorded at the time when such structure or work of improvement was commenced, whether commenced by the person filing the lien or by any other person employed in connection with said structure or work of improvement, whether such employment was by the owner or any contractor. provided, however, that in the event the owner or holder of any mortgage, trust deed or other incumbrance shall procure, or cause to be procured, a bond with good and sufficient sureties which shall be conditioned for the payment in full of the claims of all persons performing labor upon or furnishing materials to be used in, or furnishing appliances, teams or power contributing to such work of improvement, and shall cause to be incorporated in said bond a provision by its express terms making it inure to the benefit of any and all persons who perform labor upon, or furnish materials to be used in, or furnish appliances, teams or power contributing to such work of improvement, so as to give such persons a right to recover upon said bond in any suit brought to foreclose the liens provided for in this chapter, or in a separate suit brought on said bond, then such mortgage, trust deed or other incumbrance shall be prior and paramount to the liens provided for in this chapter arising out of such work of improvement, irrespective of whether or not such mortgage, trust deed, or other incumbrance attached before or after the time when the work of improvement commenced, and irrespective of the nature of the consideration of such mortgage, incumbrance or trust deed or when such consideration passes. Such bond given under this section must, in order to comply with its requirements, be a bond with good and sufficient sureties in an amount not less than the face principal amount of such mortgage, trust deed or other incumbrance and shall be given for the sole benefit of persons performing labor upon, or furnishing materials to be used in, or furnishing appliances, teams or power contributing to the work of improvement to which said bond refers. No change or alteration, or modification in the work or scheme of improvement referred to in said bond nor in the plans, specifications, or agreements pertaining to the structure or improvement, or agreements pertaining to the furnishing of labor or materials therein, or change in the terms of payment, or extension of time thereof, nor rescission of said bond, nor conditions precedent, nor conditions subsequent contained therein, attempting to limit the right of recovery under said bond shall release or exonerate any surety or sureties on said bond. All bonds given pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be construed most strongly against the surety and in favor of all persons for whose benefit such bond is given, and under no circumstances shall a surety be in any wise released from liability to such laborers or materialmen, or persons furnishing appliances, teams or power by reason of any breach of contract between the incumbrancer and the incumbrance holder or owner, but the sole condition of recovery on the part of such persons furnishing labor or materials or appliances, teams or power, as aforesaid, shall be that said labor or material has been used or consumed in, or said appliances, teams or power have contributed to the work of improvement to which said bond refers, and that the person for whose benefit said bond has so been made to inure has not been paid some part or all of the sums due him for the same."

MOTION TO PRINT ADDRESS

On motion of Mr. Williamson, the address delivered by Hon. Frank Coombs, relative to the meritorious service rendered during the World War by Colonel Nelson M. Holderman of the Lost Battalion, was ordered printed in the Journal.

ADDRESS BY HON. FRANK COOMBS

Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Assembly

It is an honor and a pleasure to be able to introduce, as my guest, and to ask for the privilege of this floor for a distinguished soldier of this nation, Colonel Nelson M. Holderman, Commandant of the Veterans' Home of California, at Yountville, Napa County.

Colonel Holderman was Captain of Infantry during the World War and was one of but three Californians to receive the distinguished congressional medal. His last days in the war were in the Argonne, when he lay upon that bloody field with his comrades under the shot and shell of the enemy, and from which he never retired until after receiving sixteen wounds—seven gunshot wounds and nine grenade wounds—and when he was borne by his comrades from the scene of the dire conflict.

The days of that fighting will live not only in history, but will live to color history with the romance of olden days. One is reminded of the days when knighthood was in flower, and the glory that surrounds the achievements of that day adds luster to one of the brightest pages in American history.

It was there, upon that bloody field, wounded and stricken, the enemy's shells bursting around them, where the demand was made that they surrender, and the reply came, not from the commander of the forces as some supposed, but from the ranks and the common file of the soldiers—"Go to hell."

So they fought—many died—some were returned wounded, but they have written in letters that will never die, one of those heroic events which bespeak the pride of a nation and of the valor of a people. And the response, "Go to hell," is echoed many a time in the hearts of the American soldiers because it expressed the defiance which told the world that they knew how to fight and to die; and it is an honor that I prize in being able to present to you one of the heroes of that scene, Colonel Nelson M. Holderman.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

The following petitions were presented, and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Speaker:

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, March 19, 1929.

Assemblyman Edgar C. Leicy, Sacramento, California.

Pacific States Savings and Loan Company is one of more than 200 California building and loan associations. Its ownership is vested in over 3000 Californians and is serving more than 54,000 families, of which approximately 20,000 are in your vicinity. Its resources of $33,000,000 are being employed solely to contribute to this State's prosperity. It is financing 1686 parcels of property of an approximate aggregate value of $15,000,000 in your vicinity. We are unalterably opposed to Senate Bill No. 841, which proposes consolidation of various departments, including Insurance, Corporation, Building and Loan, Real Estate and Banking, under one head. These departments cover widely separated activities of such great variance that their efficient and wise administration by one head is obviously impossible. Bill gives no powers to proposed department and is therefore futile gesture. However, its proponents plan it as first step in centralization which will result in curtailment and submergence of building and loan associations. Under present method of administration California building and loan associations have rendered vital service in promotion of thrift and home ownership. They have a record of stability unequalled by any other type of financial institution. Building and Loan associations are to large extent competitive with banks and deem their administration by an identical department unfair to associations and inimical to public welfare. We therefore respectfully ask you to strenuously oppose passage of Senate Bill No. 841.

A. E. FALCH, Secretary.

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, March 19, 1929.

I desire most earnestly to protest against the repeal of section 772 of the Penal Code as proposed in Senate Bill No. 257, the purpose of which is to remove the reward for conviction of a public official for malfeasance and which has been given a "Do pass" recommendation upon the solicitation of Frank M. Carr, the legislative counsel of the Oakland city council. The grand jury of Alameda County is now investigating charges I made in affidavit form against members of the Oakland city council of collusion with representatives of patent pavement to pave the streets of Oakland only with patent pavements and it is no more proper for them to ask that the reward for their conviction be abolished than it would be for a bank robber to ask that the reward for the conviction of bank robbers be abolished.

The difference is this: That the district attorney will try to convict a bank robber whereas with a public official it is one grand brotherhood of politicians and therefore almost impossible for a citizen to bring about a conviction because of the influence he has to overcome and the time, detail and persistency required. With the public good accomplished he is entitled to a reward. To remove the reward feature is to encourage malfeasance.

At the recent recall election the defense made was that $40,000, the cost of the recall election, could be saved by going into the superior court to remove the commissioner and collect a $500.00 reward. Be consistent, give the taxpayer some protection.

The Oakland city council recently reeked with garbage collusion, now it is patent pavement and we have a district attorney who has ruled that a black eye is insufficient evidence of assault and battery to issue a warrant. The district attorney of Los Angeles has been sent to San Quentin with the grand jury getting their legal advice from such men. Please leave the law as it is so that a citizen can go direct to the superior court, and also leave the reward as it is so that citizens will be encouraged to expose malfeasance.

Instead of removing the reward for the conviction of crooks I believe in making laws so that crookedness is impossible and therefore herewith I am submitting laws to stop "paving graft," "election fraud" and laws to stop the wrecking of homes by "shyster lawyers."

Very truly yours,

LAKE MERRITT BOOSTERS CLUB.

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, March 19, 1929.

GENTLEMEN: We respectfully petition for relief from extortion by collusion between public officials and patent pavement representatives and to make a more equitable distribution of the cost of repaving and street openings.

Stop misrepresentation by patent pavement salesmen by making it mandatory on the part of the city, before starting any street paving proceedings, to notify each property owner by postal card to attend a meeting in the evening at the city hall to discuss with a city engineer the types of paving and how much their bill will amount to and how much difference in price between patented and nonpatented pavements and that no patent pavement petition be circulated before said meeting. This will end the present collusion between public officials and patent pavement companies and contractors to pave our streets only with patent pavements.

Make it mandatory that all side sewers be put in by public contract before paving is done to save tearing up newly paved streets. The location of the side sewer to be designated to the city engineer by the property owner, otherwise the city engineer shall use his own judgment. Improvement bonds to be issued giving the property owner the same time in which to pay for a side sewer as for a main sewer. Property owners will also benefit by the lower price with a public bid and side sewers all put in at one time by the contractor.

Make it mandatory that on bills for street work that the true terms of payment be printed thereon, instead of the present practice by collusion between public officials and contractors bills are sent out under the 1913 act, scaring property owners to pay at once at the city hall by stating on the bills that if not paid by a certain date the property will be sold, whereas the real facts are that bonds will be issued giving the property owner a number of years to pay the bill but unfair in that the interest starts before the paving is started.

Amend the 1913 Street Improvement Act so that property owners shall pay for street paving after the paving is done and the same terms as paving done under the 1911 Act instead of as at present when payment is demanded before the work is started and if not paid, interest starts immediately although the work has not been started, which is unjust, discriminatory and unnecessary as the 1913 act provides that the contractor shall advance the amount of damages awarded because of the cut and fill in grading the street or forfeit the contract.

Amend the 1903 act so that assessment bonds may be issued for street openings that have the same standing as street improvement bonds and therefore could easily be sold to pay for condemnation of property instead of requiring the assessed property owner to pay cash in thirty days as his property will be sold to pay the assessment.

Make it mandatory that one-half the cost of street openings be paid for from the gas tax as the automobiles are the cause. Provide that gas tax money can be used to pay interest and bonds for street openings where there is not sufficient gas tax money available to pay cash for street openings or repaving. In case the gas tax should be abolished or illegal the general funds of the city shall pay the deficit.

Make it mandatory that one-half the cost of repaving be paid for from the gas tax as it is done to make smoother riding for the automobiles and to save nuts and bolts rattling off. Repaving saves the automobilist money.

Make it mandatory that the cost of repaving all crossings be paid from the gas tax and that no assessment for paving be levied against any property where the paving does not border thereon.

Make it mandatory that on corner property where the cost of paving is confiscatory, one-half the cost of paving the side street shall be paid from the gas tax or general funds of the city.

Make it mandatory that the tax collector shall require the name and address of the property owner when tax bills are called for and thereafter all tax bills shall be mailed. Many people fail to get special assessment bills for work that is not done in front of the property. Penalties and costs in that case amount to $34.00 on a $25.00 bill, making the bill $59.00 because of the lack of the address of the property owner.

Make it mandatory to state on a deed the name and address of the new owner, otherwise the recorder may refuse to record the deed. The purpose of which is so that the city and county will always have the name and address of all property owners to mail all assessment bills and to notify property owners by mail of all proposed assessments and to call meetings to find out if it is satisfactory to those who have to pay the bill and what criticisms and suggestions they have to make in regard thereto.

Thanking you all for any assistance each of you can render in making this the law of California. This has the unanimous approval of the Lake Merritt Boosters Club.

GENTLEMEN: We respectfully petition for improvement in our election laws so that citizens will vote.

1. Make it legal for any citizen to hold office in any city in which he is a taxpayer. Then cities like Oakland where the best business men reside in nearby cities could serve the city where their business is located and most of their money is invested.

2. Change the hours for voting to be from twelve o'clock noon to eight o'clock p.m. About 50 per cent of the voting is done between five p.m. and seven p.m. Opening the polls at six a.m. makes the election clerks so tired when it comes to counting the votes that accuracy is impossible, and too long a day for the money they are paid. Opening the polls at noon will attract the higher type of citizens to serve as election officers and the public will have greater confidence in our elections.

3. Provide for "honest elections" by making it the law that anyone to serve as an election officer shall be a mother, as mothers can be depended on to resist influences contrary to public welfare.

4. Make it mandatory that in the application for election officer no mention shall be made as "references" of any public employee or elected official. The present practice is to give preference to those who name the incumbent candidate as a reference and elections therefore are not honest and impartial. If that is not done then the election law should be amended apportioning among the candidates for the highest office the selection of election clerks, instead of the present unfair advantage obtained by letting the incumbent candidates select all the election clerks.

5. Make it mandatory that the address of the polling place be printed in red on postal card notice, as often the polling place is changed and the voter has paid no attention to the address and can not find the place to vote.

6. Prohibit the use of tents for polling places as a waste of public funds, costing $14.00 as against $5.00 for a garage or store.

Thanking you all for any assistance each of you can render in making this the law of California. This has been unanimously approved by the Lake Merritt Boosters Club.

LAKE MERRITT BOOSTERS CLUB.

CHAS. X. NEWMAN, President.

P. S.—Please remedy the confusion in voting for the unexpired term of office and a new term for the same office at the same election by providing that the candidate elected for the full term shall fill the unexpired term.

At the present primary election in Oakland only three candidates filed for the unexpired term of commissioner because they feared the voters would not mark their names in both columns, so eight of the candidates filed only for the full term.

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, March 16, 1929.

GENTLEMEN: We respectfully petition for laws that will stop the wrecking of homes by "shyster lawyers" and making criminals out of divorce orphans.

1 Provide for a "domestic relations court" and that "no divorce action" shall be started or any attorney be allowed to interfere in domestic affairs until after 90 days separation of husband and wife and a preliminary hearing had in private before the judge of a domestic relations court. The reason for this is that "divorce shysters" instill hatred between husband and wife, make orphans of children who are left without the guidance of a father and become criminals.

Criminal records prove that the greatest crimes are committed by children of divorced parents. Three recent cases in California are Hickman, the child strangler; Erna Janoscheck, the baby strangler, and Dorothy Ellingson, the murderer of her own mother. All were the children of divorced parents, which divorces probably could have been averted by a domestic relations judge, who with growing children of his own would instinctively consider the future of the children and would know their need of both parents to give them the love and protection which they can not get with a broken home. To prevent the breaking up of homes would be the special function of the domestic relations court.

Under our present system before the court has heard any evidence of who is to blame, under threat of jail takes money away from a husband to give to the wife's attorney for making orphans. At present that is the first order of the court, regardless of whether the husband has to go out to steal to get the money for the attorney. A chance of going to jail in either case.

2 Provide that the "domestic relations court" be presided over by a judge who is the "father" or "mother" of growing children so that he or she may have a more human understanding of domestic affairs and who will not deprive children of either father or mother except in extreme cases. Give every child a chance to become a man among men instead of a candidate for the "noose."

Thanking you all for any assistance each of you can render in making this the law of California. This has been unanimously approved by the Lake Merritt Boosters Club.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 19 ordered transmitted to the Senate.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 19.

Relative to the orderly addition of new roads to the State highway system, after engineering and economic studies by the California Highway Commission and the Department of Public Works.

WHEREAS, It appears that some highways not now in the State highway system are carrying a volume of State traffic that far exceeds the local traffic carried on said roads thus placing upon the counties in which these roads are located an undue and heavy maintenance burden; and

WHEREAS, A preliminary investigation by the California Highway Commission and Department of Public Works indicates that there is at the present time a decidedly greater mileage of such roads in the south, as compared with those in the north, carrying this excessive State traffic; and

WHEREAS, An executive message was transmitted to the Legislature under date of March 12 in which was suggested certain underlying principles to be observed in the inclusion of new secondary roads within the State highway system; now, therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring. That the principles enunciated in said executive message be observed in the inclusion of new roads within the State highway system, and that the California Highway Commission and the Department of Public Works be, and they are hereby directed to observe the following principles in the inclusion of new roads within the State highway system.

1. Additions shall during the next two years be made to the present secondary highway system, totaling between 10 and 12 per cent of existing State highway mileage, said mileage to be added in the ratio of not less than three or four miles in the south to one mile in the north.

2. For budgetary purposes, this mileage shall be included as a part of the State highway system by the California Highway Commission when the necessary surveys are completed, provided, however, no money be expended on same until they have been finally included in the system by legislative act.

3. There shall be no change in the present statutory division of secondary highway funds; and, be it further

Resolved. That the California Highway Commission and the Department of Public Works be and they are hereby directed to make a careful study of the State highway system to ascertain and determine routes not now in the system which, either by reason of the large volume of State traffic that they are now carrying, or by reason of the relief that they would afford to heavy traffic upon present State highways, or as highways serving as important interstate links, might properly be included and added to the State highway system; and be it further

Resolved. That this study shall, in accordance with the above mentioned executive message, include an investigation into the engineering, economic and traffic facts involved in the matter; that a comprehensive report shall be made to the forty-ninth Legislature embodying such recommendations as the investigation may disclose as proper and a recital of such facts as may have been taken into account; that this investigation shall begin not later than May 1, 1929, and that this report shall be completed and made public not later than August 1, 1930, and that pending the adoption of such report authority be hereby given to the California Highway Commission to take into consideration for its next budget such roads as it is thus designating and bringing to the attention of the Legislature at its next session.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from the Governor was read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE, SACRAMENTO, March 19, 1929.

*Honorable Edgar C. Levy, State Assembly,
Sacramento, California.*

DEAR SPEAKER LEVEY: The time is near when bills in rapidly increasing volume will be coming to me for executive action. In fairness to their authors, I naturally wish to examine these bills as promptly as possible. Will you, therefore, be good enough to present this communication to the Assembly?

As was the case last session, I shall need a written explanation of each bill, since it is manifestly impossible to remember oral explanations of so many different measures. Last time, however, these explanations were not attempted until after final passage, at which time the author was so busy that I frequently did not hear from him at all, or far more briefly than would have been the case had the explanation been made at the time the bill passed in the house of its origin, and was consequently fresh in mind.

May I ask, therefore, that each member of the Assembly some time this week hand to Mr. Whitmore, Mr. Carlin, or Mr. Kennedy, an explanation of each of his bills which has thus far passed the Assembly, and that as bills pass in the future a similar explanation be handed in. If any of these bills is hereafter materially changed in the Senate, a supplementary explanation can describe such change.

May I ask that the following suggestions be observed in preparing these explanations

1. Please discuss each bill on a separate sheet of paper, in order that the statement may be filed away with the particular bill which it explains.

2. Each statement should set forth fully the purpose and object of the bill, its necessity, the forces which are back of it, the condition which it is designed to correct, and the like.

3. I should also appreciate receiving such communications from others regarding the bills as the members are willing to have filed with the bill in this office. This request also extends to all bills in which any Assemblyman is interested, either for or against, as well as to his own measures. These latter will be of great value, but the explanations of the author as set forth in "1" and "2" above are absolutely essential to any adequate study of the bill.

My only desire is to give to every bill the fullest and most sympathetic consideration. It is manifestly impossible, however, to do full justice to so many measures unless I am helped out by securing all possible information regarding each, aside from what can be gleaned from the mere text. I wish to thank the members in advance for the kind cooperation they will give me in this matter.

Yours very sincerely,

C C YOUNG, Governor.

PRESENTATION OF PETITION.

The following petition was presented, and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Speaker :

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, March 21, 1929.

*Edgar C. Levey, Speaker of Assembly,
Sacramento, California*

In behalf of my association I earnestly appeal to you to oppose licensing act known as Assembly Bill No. 563. The Master Painters Association of San Francisco disapproves of it because it will not improve our conditions because we already have a contractors license in San Francisco and because that license, as well as the license we already have, is only imposed on the legitimate contractors while the man that is ashamed to have his name on a sign or have his business classified in the city directory escapes all responsibility of any license. If you can find time to investigate you will discover that the fathers of that bill are painters who believe that by building a fence around the painting business by means of such a license they could secure all the business for themselves. It is a selfish, vicious bill and will not accomplish what it is designed for.

Please do your utmost to defeat it.

person returning same. All milk bottles, cans or containers of any kind in which milk or any product of milk is kept, stored, transported or delivered shall be sound, smooth, free from rust or open seams, and at all times kept in a condition which will permit thorough cleansing of all surfaces with which the milk or its products come in contact. Bottles, cans, tubs, cabinets, containers or other receptacles commonly used for the reception, storage or delivery of milk, cream, ice cream or other products of milk shall not be used as a receptacle for, or storage place of any vegetables, fish, fowls, meats, other foodstuffs, or refuse matter, bottles, or filthy, or offensive substance, or for any other purpose than that for which they were originally intended. The applicant shall also cause such description to be printed once a week for three successive weeks in one or more newspapers of general circulation published in the locality or localities in which said applicant shall be engaged in business. The department of agriculture of the State of California may refuse to register a brand when it appears that the same or a similar brand has been previously registered by another, and whenever it appears that two or more applicants have applied for the registration of the same or similar brands, the director of agriculture may after hearing determine the right of prior ownership in such brand; and when such right of prior ownership is determined, the director of agriculture shall refuse to register, or shall cancel the registration of, any duplicate or similar brand. Any person, firm, corporation or association acquiring any container marked with a brand registered under the provisions of this section, by purchase or by other lawful means, shall so notify the department of agriculture of the State of California, and shall not thereafter be required again to file and publish said description, but may acquire as a part of said purchase all such benefit as the vendor had under this act. It shall be the duty of every person who finds or receives in the regular course of business or in any other manner any container marked with a brand registered under the provisions of this section to make diligent effort to find the owner thereof and to restore or return the same.

(c) Whenever the owner or owners of said containers so marked or branded or of said equipment or supplies used in said business or businesses aforesaid, so marked or otherwise impressed, shall require taking or accepting of any sum of money as a deposit for security for the safekeeping and return of such article or articles, it shall not constitute a sale of such property, either optional or otherwise, in any proceeding under this act."

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 6.

Relating to an act of Congress of the United States restricting immigration of aliens ineligible to citizenship and a proposed modification of said act.

WHEREAS, In 1921 the Legislature of the State of California by appropriate resolution urged upon Congress the necessity for the continued adherence to the policy of the United States, restricting the right of citizenship and likewise protested against any attempt by treaty or otherwise to permit the immigration of ineligible aliens; and

WHEREAS, In 1924, after full investigation and consideration, Congress by general law prohibited the immigration of aliens ineligible to citizenship; and

WHEREAS, Various organizations have since the passage of said act persistently sought to influence Congress to recede from such policy, and the adherence to said policy has been urged by the American Legion, American Federation of Labor, the Grange, and the Native Sons of the Golden West, the first three of which organizations have repeatedly in their annual conventions by resolutions expressed their continued support of the congressional action; and

WHEREAS, There is now in progress a nation-wide campaign designed to substitute the quota system for the rigid and effective exclusion of Asiatic laborers as provided in the General Immigration Act of 1924; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly That the Legislature of this State protests against any character of action designed to modify the present immigration laws relating to the exclusion of Asiatic laborers and reaffirms its belief that the privilege of American citizenship should continue to be restricted as at present, and that the privilege of immigration should be extended only to those people who may become citizens of the United States; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senators and Representatives in Congress from the State of California be urged to present the seriousness of the present situation to the attention of their colleagues and to the departments of the federal government, and to use all honorable means to prevent modification of the present naturalization and exclusion laws; and be it further

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No 8.

Relating to the Federal Income Tax Law.

WHEREAS, Just and equitable taxation is a matter of paramount importance to all American citizens; and

WHEREAS, It is apparent that grave injustice results from the failure of the Federal Income Tax Law to properly differentiate between earned incomes and unearned incomes; and

WHEREAS, An earned income is the measure of value of service rendered by the worker to the community and unearned income is the measure of value received by the individual from the community, and earned incomes are thus received in return for service of any sort—mental or physical—as distinguished from incomes from investments or from property; and

WHEREAS, It is apparent that wealth received by an individual who did not create it should bear a heavier tax than wealth received by an individual who did create it; and

WHEREAS, To tax earned income heavily is to penalize thrift and industry, and is a direct tax on labor and tends to retard enterprise and achievement; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the President, the Secretary of the Treasury and the Congress of the United States be hereby memorialized and urged that a reduction of 50 per cent be made in the tax rate on earned incomes below the tax rate on unearned incomes; and, be it further

ADDRESS BY HON. FRANK COOMBS.

The following address delivered by Hon. Frank Coombs, relative to Marshal Ferdinand Foch was, on motion of Mr. Cloudsley, ordered printed in the Journal:

By Hon. Frank Coombs:

Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Assembly.

A great man has passed away. On the twentieth day of March, Paris time, Marshal Ferdinand Foch of France, died in the land his deeds had honored and whose liberties he, more than any of his countrymen, contributed to save.

It is but a small tribute that we can pay to his memory, yet, in part measure, it seems fitting that this body, when it adjourns today, do so out of respect to his memory.

I remember a September morning of 1927 when a reception was given by him to the American Legion, then in Paris, in the gardens of one of the palaces. In common with others, I took his extended hand and endeavored to say that all Californians would welcome a visit from him. He replied graciously, yet it seemed to me that his mind, even amid such gaieties, was upon far away events, the infantry, the battalions, the nation's airy navies, and the big wars that make ambition virtue. We were Americans, and the American name might have spelled a symbol a symbol which stood for liberty, and linked the hour when he threw into the field of chance the American marines at Chateau Thierry and checked the advance of the enemy toward Paris.

It is proper that the popular branch of the Legislature pay some tribute to his fame. I therefore move that when the Assembly this day adjourns, it do so out of respect to the memory of Marshal Ferdinand Foch—the most distinguished soldier of the great war.

ADJOURNMENT.

At four o'clock and fifteen minutes p.m., on motion of Mr. Jones, the Speaker declared the Assembly adjourned this day until ten o'clock a.m., Friday, March 22, 1929, out of respect to the memory of the late Marshal Ferdinand Foch.
