SECTION 1. Section 736.15 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Local control boards

736.15. The director may appoint local control boards for the marketing areas established pursuant to this chapter to assist and advise him in matters pertaining to the marketing, distribution and sale of fluid milk or fluid cream or both. The board shall consist of eight members, who shall be residents of or engaged in business within the marketing area for which they are appointed by the director, three of whom shall be persons whose major interest is the distribution, marketing or sale of fluid milk or fluid cream or both, one producer-distributor, two retail storekeepers, one person active in the restaurant business, and one person, representative of the consuming public, who has no connection with the milk or cream business. The terms of office of each member shall be two years, unless the plan is terminated before said term expires. Said local board shall meet in regular session each month, and each member shall be allowed five dollars ($5) per diem and mileage at the rate of five cents ($0.05) per mile for attending such regular meetings. Said board with the previous approval of the director may employ such personnel as may be necessary in the performance of its duties and shall adopt rules and regulations for its conduct. The board shall submit a budget of its expenses to the director for his approval The funds to be used for the maintenance of the board shall be paid from the proceeds of fees and licenses paid to the director under the plan upon verified claims presented by the board to the director. The board shall not incur any expenses other than those for per diem and mileage, unless approved by the director.

CHAPTER 112

An act to amend Section 38c of the State Employees' Retirement Act, relating to retirement systems.

Stats 1931, p 1442, amended

[Approved by Governor April 7, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 7, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1939, p 2605

SECTION 1. Section 38c of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read:

See also Stats 1943, Ch 640

Sec. 38c. After receiving from the Board of Administration, a quotation of the approximate contribution provided for in Section 58b, any municipal corporation in the State may participate in the State Employees' Retirement System, making its employees members of said system, by contract entered into between the legislative body of said municipal corporation and the Board of Administration of the said retirement system, subject to the provisions of this act. Said contract may include any provisions consistent with this act, necessary in the administration of the retirement system as it affects said employees and municipal corporation. The approval and termination of said contract shall be subject to the following provisions, in addition to the other provisions of this act:

Participation by cities Contracts

Approval and termination

(1) Said legislative body shall adopt a resolution giving notice of intention to approve said contract, which resolution shall contain a summary of the major provisions of the proposed retirement system. Such contract shall not be approved unless and until an election has been held to permit the employees proposed to be included in the retirement system to express by secret ballot their approval or disapproval of said retirement proposal. The ballot at such election shall include the summary of the retirement system as set forth in the foregoing resolution. The election shall be conducted in such a manner as to permit the firemen, the policemen, and the other city employees proposed to be included in the system separately to express their approval or disapproval thereof. Said election shall be conducted in such manner as shall be prescribed by the legislative body of the city. Approval of the contract shall be by ordinance adopted by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of said legislative body, not less than 20 days after the adoption of said resolution, or by an ordinance adopted by a majority vote of the electorate of the city voting thereon. The legislative body shall not include in the retirement system any of the three groups above mentioned, a majority of whose members voted to disapprove the proposed system.

(2) If the contract was approved by an ordinance adopted by the legislative body, said legislative body may terminate said contract by the adoption of a resolution giving notice of intention to terminate, and by the adoption, not less than one year after the adoption of said resolution and by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of said legislative body, of an ordinance terminating said contract. If the contract was approved by an ordinance adopted by a majority vote of the electorate voting thereon, the legislative body may terminate said contract in the manner provided in this subdivision but only under authority granted by ordinance adopted by such a majority vote of the electorate of the contracting city.

(3) The Board of Administration may and it shall be its duty to terminate said contract, by resolution adopted by a majority vote of its members, effective 60 days after notice of the adoption of said resolution has been mailed by registered mail to the legislative body of said city; provided, said city shall fail for one year to pay to the system any installment of contributions required of it by this act.

(4) Forthwith upon the termination of said contract, all memberships in the retirement system existing because of said contract, shall be terminated, and for the purposes of Section 75, the employees whose memberships are terminated, shall be considered as permanently out of State service, and their accumulated contributions shall be refunded accordingly. Notwithstanding anything in this act to the contrary, no event occurring on or after the effective date of said termination, shall be considered in determining the right of any such employee to a death benefit or to retire for service or disability.

The right to a retirement allowance, of a person who has retired prior to the effective date of the termination of said contract, or who has qualified and applied for retirement by written document received at the board's office in Sacramento, California, prior to said effective date, even though the board shall not approve said application until a later date, and the right of any person to a benefit on account of a death which occurred prior to said effective date, shall not be affected by said termination of said contract, except as herein provided in the event the contracting city shall fail to make contributions required of it because of the participation of its employees in the system.

(5) Upon the termination of said contract, the Board of Administration shall refund to said contracting city such portion of the accumulated contributions then held by the retirement system and credited to, or as having been made by it, as are in excess of an amount actuarially equivalent, as determined by the actuary and approved by the board, to all benefits the system is obligated to pay after the effective date of said termination, to or on account of persons who are or have been employed by said city, and on account of service rendered by said persons to said city. If the said accumulated contributions credited to, or as being made by said city at the date of said termination, shall not be at least equal to said actuarial equivalent, said city shall contribute to the retirement system under terms fixed by the Board of Administration, an amount equal to the difference between said accumulated contributions and said actuarial equivalent. If said city shall fail to make such contribution, the portion of benefits described in the first sentence of this paragraph, payable after the board declares said city in default of said contribution, from the contributions previously made by said city, shall be reduced in the proportion the said accumulated contributions credited to, or as having been made by said city, bears to said actuarial equivalent of said benefits as of the date said board declared the default. The right of an employee of a contracting city, or his beneficiary, to a benefit under the system, whether before or after retirement or death, shall be subject to the adjustment provided in the sentence next preceding. The Board of Administration may postpone the payment of any amount due to said city, under this paragraph, if to make said payment would require the sale of securities, which, in the opinion of the board, would affect adversely the interests of the retirement system. If the board delays said payment longer than the period reasonably necessary for the determination of the amount due and for the necessary action by the board, interest shall be allowed on the amount remaining due and unpaid from time to time, at the rate then in use under the system, and shall be paid to the contracting city at the same time and in the manner as the original amount due.

Employees included within contract

(6) Said municipal corporation shall include under said contract all of its firemen and policemen and/or all of its other employees, except as exclusions may be agreed to between it and the Board of Administration, said exclusions to be based on groups of employees such as by departments, by duties or by age, and not on individual employees. The Board of Administration, however, shall have the right to disapprove the exclusion of any group, if in its opinion said exclusion affects adversely the interests of said retirement system. Membership in the retirement system shall be compulsory for all employees included under said contract.

Stats. 1915, p 841, amended

An act to amend Sections 3 and 7 of "An act authorizing municipalities to declare noxious or dangerous weeds growing upon the streets or sidewalks, or upon private property within municipalities, to be a public nuisance, creating a lien upon the property fronting upon such streets or sidewalks or upon which such nuisance exists for the cost of abating the same," approved May 26, 1915, relating to noxious or dangerous weeds.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 7, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State April 7, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1915, p 841

SECTION 1. Section 3 of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read:

Notice to destroy weeds

Sec. 3. After the passage of said resolution, the street superintendent shall cause to be conspicuously posted on or in front of the property on which or in front of which such nuisance exists, one notice to each piece or parcel of property in separate ownership of not over 50 feet frontage, or not more than two notices to any piece or parcel of property in separate ownership with a frontage of 100 feet or less. If the frontage of any piece or parcel of property in separate ownership is greater than 100 feet notices shall be posted at not more than 100 feet apart. Such notices shall be headed "notice to destroy weeds," such heading to be in words not less than one inch in height and substantially in the following form:

NOTICE TO DESTROY WEEDS

Notice is hereby given that on the_____day of_____, 19___, the (name of the legislative body) passed a resolution declaring that noxious or dangerous weeds were growing upon or in front of the property on this street, in said_____, and more particularly described in said resolution, and that the same constitute a public nuisance which must be abated by the removal of said noxious or dangerous weeds, otherwise they will be removed and the nuisance will be abated by the municipal authorities, in which case the cost of such removal shall be assessed upon the lots and lands from which or in front of which such weeds are removed, and such costs will constitute a lien upon such lots or lands until paid. Reference is hereby made to said resolution for further particulars.

All property owners having any objections to the proposed removal of such weeds are hereby notified to attend a meeting of the (name of the legislative body) of said (city or town) to be held (give date), when their objections will be heard and given due consideration.

Dated this_____day of_____, 19___.

Street Superintendent (city or town of_____)

Said notices shall be posted at least five days prior to the time for hearing objections by the legislative body of the municipality.

SEC. 2. Section 7 of said act is amended to read: Stats 1937, p 183

Sec. 7. At the time fixed for receiving and considering said report, the legislative body shall hear the same, together with any objections which may be raised by any of the property owners liable to be assessed for the work of abating said nuisance and thereupon make such modifications in the report as they may deem necessary, after which, by motion or resolution, said report shall be confirmed. Confirmation of report

The amounts of the cost for abating such nuisance in front of or upon the various parcels of the land mentioned in said report shall constitute special assessments against the respective parcels of land, and after thus made and confirmed shall constitute a lien on said property for the amount of such assessments, respectively. Special assessments

After confirmation of said report a copy shall be turned over to the assessor and the tax collector of such municipality, whereupon it shall be the duty of said officers to add the amounts of the respective assessments to the next regular bills for taxes levied against the said respective lots and parcels of land for municipal purposes. Where the duties of assessing property and collecting municipal taxes are performed for such municipality by the county assessor and the county tax collector in the manner provided by law, a certified copy of said report shall be filed with the county auditor on or before the tenth day of August. In each such report so filed with the county auditor, the descriptions of the properties reported shall be the descriptions used for the same properties on the map books of the county assessor for the then current year. The county auditor shall enter the amounts of the respective assessments on the county tax roll opposite the respective parcels of land and thereafter said amounts shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as ordinary municipal taxes are collected, and shall be subject to the same penalties and the same procedure under foreclosure and sale in case of delinquency as provided for ordinary municipal taxes; provided, that, as an alternative method of procedure, when the municipal taxes are collected by the county tax collector, the said county tax collector may, in his discretion, proceed to collect such assessments without reference to the general taxes, by issuing separate bills therefor and issuing separate receipts for collections on account of such assessments. All laws applicable to the levy, collection, and enforcement of county taxes are hereby made applicable to such special assessment taxes. Collection

The superintendent of streets is authorized to receive the amount due for the cost of abating such nuisance, and to issue Time of payment receipts therefor at any time after the confirmation of said report and until 10 days before a copy of said report shall be turned over to the assessor and tax collector of such municipality, or, where the duties of assessing property and collecting municipal taxes are performed for such municipality by the county assessor and the county tax collector in the manner provided by law, until the first day of August next succeeding the confirmation of said report.

CHAPTER 114

An act to amend Section 1557 of the Penal Code, relating to the return of fugitives from justice.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 7, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 7, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1929, p. 483

SECTION 1. Section 1557 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Expense of return to this State of fugitives from justice

1557. When the Governor of this State, in the exercise of the authority conferred by Section 2, Article IV, of the Constitution of the United States, or by the laws of this State, demands from the executive authority of any State of the United States, or of any foreign government, the surrender to the authorities of this State of a fugitive from justice, who has been found and arrested in such State or foreign government, the accounts of the person employed to bring back such fugitive, including any money paid by such person to the authorities of a sister State for subsistence of the fugitive while detained by such sister State and without payment of which, the authorities of such State refuse to surrender such fugitive, must be audited by the Board of Control and paid out of the State Treasury; provided, however, that the State shall not pay the expenses of any such person so employed where the fugitive so returned is not so arraigned or placed on trial, that such expenses shall be a charge upon the county asking the requisition; provided further, that when a warrant has been issued by any magistrate after the filing of a complaint or the finding of an indictment and its presentation to the court and filing by the clerk, and the person named therein as defendant is a fugitive from justice, who has been found and arrested in any State of the United States or in any foreign government, the county auditor shall draw his warrant and the county treasurer shall pay to the person designated to return the fugitive, the amount of expenses estimated by the district attorney to be incurred in the return of such fugitive; provided further, the person designated to return the fugitive shall make no disbursements from any such fund so advanced without a receipt being obtained therefor showing the amount, the purpose for which said sum is expended, place, date, and to whom paid.

Receipt for disbursement

Such receipts must be filed by such person with the county auditor or State Board of Control, as the case may be, together with an affidavit by such person that the expenditures represented by said receipts were necessarily made in the performance of duty, and when such advance has been made by the county treasurer to the person designated to return the fugitive, and has thereafter been audited by the State Board of Control, the payment thereof shall be made by the State Treasurer to the county treasury, which has advanced the said funds; provided further, that when no advance has been made to the person designated to return the fugitive, the sums expended by him, when audited by the Board of Control, shall be paid by the State Treasury to the said person so designated. In every case where the expenses of such person so employed to bring back such fugitive as herein provided, are less than the amount advanced on the recommendation of the district attorney, such persons so employed to bring back such fugitive shall return to the county treasurer the difference in amount between the aggregate amount of receipts so filed by him, as herein employed, and the amount advanced to such person upon the recommendation of the district attorney.

Affidavit

When no advance made

CHAPTER 115

An act to add Section 1160.5 to the Harbors and Navigation Code, relating to pilots, to take effect immediately.

Stats 1937, p 792, amended

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943]

In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1160.5 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

New section

1160.5. Subject to the provisions of this division, except Sections 1160, 1190, 1191, 1192 and 1193, the board may examine and issue temporary licenses to 10 bar pilots in addition to the 20 bar pilots it is authorized to license pursuant to Section 1160. Such temporary licenses are revocable at the pleasure of the board with or without cause. A temporary license to act as a bar pilot shall not be issued while the number of bar pilots licensed pursuant to Section 1160 is less than 20. If the number of outstanding licenses to act as bar pilot issued pursuant to Section 1160 falls below 20 and there are at the time outstanding temporary licenses to act as bar pilot, persons holding such temporary licenses shall be entitled to be licensed under Section 1160 in the relative order in which they received their temporary licenses and prior to any other person, but the number of licenses issued and outstanding under Section 1160 shall not at any time exceed 20.

Temporary licenses

Suspension or revocation

A temporary license to act as bar pilot may be suspended or revoked by the board at any time with or without cause upon written notice of such suspension or revocation by the board to the holder of the license.

Bar pilots need not keep any vessels for their exclusive use.

Duration

This section shall remain in effect until the ninety-first day after final adjournment of the Fifty-sixth Regular Session of the Legislature or until the cessation of hostilities in all wars in which the United States is now engaged, whichever first occurs While this section is in effect it shall supersede any existing provisions of law which are in conflict with this section; but such provisions are not repealed by this section and after this section is no longer effective shall have the same force as though this section had not been enacted.

Urgency

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, within the meaning of Section 1, Article IV, of the Constitution of the State of California and shall therefore go into effect immediately. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

This act provides for an increase in the number of bar pilots under Division V Chapter 2 of the Harbors and Navigation Code. Emergency conditions made necessary by the war and the volume and manner of shipping to and from San Francisco Bay and tributaries make immediately necessary the appointment of additional bar pilots to take care of this condition and unless this act becomes effective immediately the expeditious movement of shipping and vital war cargoes will be impaired.

SEC. 3. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, within the meaning of Section 1, Urgency

Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California and as such shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity:

Crates used for the transportation and sale of carrots as well as containers used in the handling of other fruits and vegetables, are made from lumber which is a material vital to the war effort.

Because of the scarcity of box lumber and the burden of orders for war material shipping containers, the box shook factories are having great difficulty in accumulating any amount of shook suitable for the construction of the "heads" (ends) of vegetable crates previously used for carrots. Material suitable for the construction of the heads for vegetable crates required in container 45B (17½ inches wide) proposed as standard for carrots in this act, is accumulated by the factories in the manufacture of box shook for other fruits and vegetables and, therefore, is more readily obtainable during the present scarcity of box lumber. Carrots are now being harvested and shipped in several parts of the State and producers and packers are unable to obtain the proper size crate as now required by law, for the transportation and sale of this product, for which reason it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

Stats. 1939, p 2979, amended

An act amending Section 1 of "An act granting to the City of San Diego certain parcels of the State-owned lands in Mission Bay State Park upon certain trusts and conditions," approved July 24, 1939, relating to tidelands in Mission Bay State Park.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1939, p 2979

SECTION 1. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read:

Grant

Section 1. There is hereby granted to the City of San Diego all of the right, title and interest of the State of California in and to those certain parcels of land described in Section 2 of this act owned by it in Mission Bay State Park.

Charter

All of said real property hereby granted shall be held by the City of San Diego as a part of its city park system, and administered by said city in accordance with the provisions of its charter.

Right to fish

There is hereby reserved to the people of the State of California the absolute right to fish in the waters of Mission Bay, with the right of convenient access to such waters over the real property hereby granted, for the purpose of fishing.

There is also reserved to the State of California all the deposits of minerals, including oil and gas, in the real property hereby granted, and there is reserved to the State of California, or persons authorized by the State of California, the right to prospect for, mine, and remove such deposits from the real property granted and to occupy and use so much of the surface as may be required therefor. An act to add Section 439.5 to the Political Code, relating to the administration of oaths by employees of the State Controller.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. Section 439.5 is added to the Political Code, to read:

Administration of oaths

439.5. The State Controller may designate any one or more of his employees to administer oaths to any persons in respect to returns, reports, affidavits or other documents that are required to be filed with the Controller.

CHAPTER 123

Stats 1941, p 1225, amended

An act to amend the title and Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 of an act entitled "An act providing for the creation of county treasurers' cash difference funds and overage funds in the counties of the State," approved April 23, 1941, relating to county officers' cash difference funds and overage funds.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1941, p 1225

SECTION 1. The title of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read:

Title

An act providing for the creation of county officers' cash difference funds and overage funds in the counties of the State.

Stats 1941, p 1225

SEC. 2. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read:

Cash difference fund

Section 1. The board of supervisors of any county desiring to establish a county treasurer's cash difference fund for the use of the treasurer of the county, or a county tax collector's cash difference fund for the use of the tax collector of the county, may do so by adopting a resolution setting forth the amount of such fund. Any such board of supervisors may establish either of such funds or may, by separate resolutions, establish both of such funds separately. Certified copies of such resolution shall be transmitted to the county auditor and county treasurer. In the event the board of supervisors of any county elects to establish such a fund, said board of supervisors shall by said resolution also establish a county fund to be known as an overage fund for such treasurer or for such tax collector. Overage fund

Resolution

SEC. 3. Section 2 of said act is amended to read: Stats 1941, p 1225

Sec. 2. Upon the adoption of such resolution it shall be the duty of the county auditor to draw his warrant in favor of the county treasurer, or the county tax collector as the case may be, in the amount set forth in said resolution, and the county treasurer shall cash said warrant. The county treasurer, or the county tax collector, so entrusted with such a cash difference fund shall not be authorized to expend any portion thereof except for cash deficits reported in the manner hereinafter set forth. Drawing of warrant

SEC. 4. Section 3 of said act is amended to read: Stats 1941 p 1225

Sec. 3. Each cashier, teller, or person similarly receiving and disbursing the county moneys and all other money placed in his custody as directed by law or by official authority, in the office of such county treasurer, or in the office of such county tax collector, shall, at the close of each business day render a written report, setting forth the exact sum constituting any cash deficit or overage in his account for that day, to said county treasurer, or to said county tax collector as the case may be. A failure to so report any cash deficit or overage at the close of the business day in which it occurred shall be a violation of this act. Report to treasurer

SEC. 5. Section 4 of said act is amended to read: Stats 1941, p 1225

Sec. 4. Immediately upon the county treasurer, or the county tax collector, receiving such a written report setting forth the sum constituting a cash deficit, he shall reimburse the cash charged to such person in the amount of such cash deficit; provided, such reimbursement can not exceed the amount in the cash difference fund unless said fund is replenished by the board of supervisors in the manner hereinafter provided, and then only in an amount not exceeding the sum so appropriated by said board of supervisors. Upon his receiving such a written report setting forth the sum constituting an overage, he shall immediately deposit such overage in the overage fund in the county treasury. Reimbursement of deficit

SEC. 6. Section 5 of said act is amended to read: Stats 1941, p 1225

Sec. 5. The county treasurer, or the county tax collector, entrusted with such a cash difference fund shall upon demand of the auditor or board of supervisors give account of said fund. Account

SEC. 7. Section 6 of said act cited is amended to read: Stats 1941, p 1225

Sec. 6. If at any time such cash difference fund becomes exhausted, the county treasurer, or the county tax collector as the case may be, may make a written application to the Replenishment of fund board of supervisors to have said fund replenished and shall itemize in such application each and every cash deficit as to amount, date of occurrence, and the name of the cashier, teller or person, whose account was reimbursed from said cash difference fund in the manner hereinabove set forth. The board of supervisors may then in its discretion replenish such a cash difference fund by resolution directing the county auditor to draw his special warrant therefor on the county general fund, and the county treasurer, or the county tax collector as the case may be, shall cash said warrant and be entrusted with any such sum in accordance with, and in conformity to, the provisions of this act relating to such a cash difference fund.

Stats 1941, p 1225

SEC. 8. Section 7 of said act is amended to read:

Discontinuance of fund

Sec. 7. The board of supervisors may at any time discontinue such a cash difference fund. If such a cash difference fund is discontinued, the county treasurer, or the county tax collector as the case may be, shall immediately give account thereof and deposit any balance remaining therein in the county general fund.

CHAPTER 124

Stats 1933, p 394, amended

An act to add Sections 101 and 480.5 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to the creation of a new fish and game district and the taking of fish therein.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. Section 101 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

An act to amend Section 1 of an act entitled "An act to authorize and control the deposit in banks of money belonging to or in the custody of any county, city and county, city, town, municipality or other public or municipal corporation within this State, and to repeal all acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act," approved April 28, 1933, relating to deposit of public moneys, to declare the urgency thereof, and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately. Stats. 1933, p. 642, amended

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of the act referred to in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1941, p. 1591

Section 1. All moneys belonging to or in the custody of any county, city and county, city, town, municipality or other public or municipal corporation within the State, including all moneys collected by, or paid to the treasurer of any county, city and county, city, town, municipality, or other public or municipal corporation within the State, or other official having authority to collect or receive the same, for the payment of principal, interest or penalties of bonds required by law, ordinance or resolution, to be paid to, or collected by, such treasurer or other official, shall, so far as possible, be deposited in such State or National bank or banks in the State as the treasurer of the county, city and county, city, town, municipality or other public or municipal corporation, as the case may be, or other official having the legal custody thereof, shall Deposit of public funds select for safekeeping of such deposits, and any sum so deposited shall be deemed to be in the treasury of such county, city and county, city, town, municipality or other public or municipal corporation; provided, that the bank or banks in which such money is deposited shall furnish security as hereinafter provided and said bank or banks are hereby empowered so to do. Such depositary bank or banks shall be selected from those agreeing to pay the highest rate of interest, not less than 2 per centum per annum, for such deposits, as may be determined by bids to be submitted at such times and in such manner as the treasurer shall direct; provided, however, that until and including September 1, 1945, such treasurer may in the absence of a higher bid or bids deposit such moneys upon interest of not less than one-half of 1 per centum per annum on active deposits and one-half of 1 per centum per annum on inactive deposits; and provided further, that such deposit shall not exceed the paid-up capital, exclusive of reserve and surplus of any depositary bank. Any and all bids may be rejected by the treasurer and new bids asked for. The expenses of transportation of moneys to and from such depositaries shall be borne by such depositaries and they shall handle, collect and pay all checks, drafts and other exchange without cost to such county, city and county, city, town, municipality or other public or municipal corporation. Such deposits, with interest thereon, shall be subject to withdrawal at any time upon the demand of the treasurer or other authorized official; provided, however, that all inactive deposits shall be subject to notice of at least 30 days for the payment thereof; and provided further, that the treasurer may, with the consent of the governing body of the county, city and county, city, town, municipality or other public or municipal corporation, deposit any part of such moneys for a definite term and may agree with any depositary bank or banks as to the period of time of any deposit or deposits, but no such agreement shall provide for the deposit of any of said moneys for a longer period than one year; and provided further, that such treasurer is hereby authorized, under such conditions as he, with the approval of the governing body of such county, city and county, city, town, municipality or other public or municipal corporation may fix, to deposit moneys in any bank, or banks within or without this State, necessary for the payment of the principal and interest of bonds at the place or places at which the same are payable, and the requirements of this act shall not apply to deposits for such purposes.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall, therefore, go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are as follows:

Unless this act becomes effective immediately, grave doubt may exist as to the validity of many millions of dollars of public funds which may be on deposit in banks on September 1, 1943, due to inability to effect deposits in compliance with the terms of the present law and unless this act is in effect on that date, treasurers of cities, counties, school districts, and other political subdivisions of this State may be compelled to withdraw from banks large sums of public money then on deposit at interest, and either hold the same in currency in their offices or deposit the same without interest. It is necessary that the withdrawal of such an amount of currency from circulation at one time, and the loss of interest thereon, be prevented, and that the radical and objectionable changes in the handling of public financial transactions that would immediately ensue as an inevitable consequence of such withdrawal and holding of currency be obviated, and that the means of deriving revenue from the deposit of such public funds be impeded as little as possible.

CHAPTER 126

An act to amend Section 5.45 of the School Code and to amend Section 20377 of the Education Code, relating to leaves of absence of employees of State colleges not in State civil service.

Stats. 1943, Ch. 71, amended

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5.45 of the School Code is amended to read:

Stats 1941, p 2238
See also Stats 1943, Ch 71

5.45. The Director of Education, on the recommendation of the president of a State college, may grant a leave of absence, without compensation, for not to exceed one calendar year, to any employee of such State college not serving in the State civil service, after said person has been employed by the State college for not less than one calendar year

Leave of absence Non-civil service employee

A leave of absence granted hereunder to any person may be extended for not to exceed one calendar year by the Director of Education on the recommendation of the president of the State college in which the employee is employed except that during any National emergency declared by the President of the United States of America, such a leave of absence may be extended from year to year by the Director of Education on the recommendation of the president of the State college in which such employee is employed.

Extension

Upon the expiration of any such leave of absence the person to whom such leave of absence was granted shall be entitled to reinstatement in the position he held at the time such leave of absence was granted him, if such position is still in existence, or to any other comparable existing vacant position for which the person is qualified.

Note.—See Stats. 1943, Ch. 71.

Effect Stats 1943, Ch. 71

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act becomes operative only if the Education Code is enacted by the Legislature at its Fifty-fifth Session, and, in such case, at the same time as said code takes effect; at which time Section 5.45 of the School Code amended by this act is hereby repealed.

Chapter 2. Administration

Article 1. The Real Estate Board

10050. There is in the Department of Investment a State Real Estate Division, the chief officer of which division is the Real Estate Commissioner. Division created

10051. There is a Real Estate Board which consists of the Real Estate Commissioner and six other members. Board created

All members of the board shall be appointed by the Governor.

10052. Members of the board shall be appointed for a term of four years and they shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of their successors. Terms of board members

The terms of the members of the board in office when this section takes effect shall expire as follows: One member, January 15, 1944; two members, January 15, 1945; two members, January 15, 1946; and two members, including the Real Estate Commissioner, January 15, 1947.

The terms shall expire in the same relative order as to each member as the term for which he holds office before this section takes effect.

Vacancies from any cause shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired term.

Business of board member

10053. No person shall be appointed a member of the board who has not been for five years a real estate broker actively engaged in business as such in California.

Districts appointed from 10054. Three members of the board shall be residents of the northern district of California, and three members shall be residents of the southern district of California. The commissioner shall be appointed at large. Not more than two members shall be appointed from any one county.

The northern district shall consist of all that portion of the State north of the northerly lines of the counties of San Luis Obispo, Kern and San Bernardino, and the southern district shall consist of all that portion of the State south of the northerly lines of these three counties.

Salary of commissioner

10055. Each member of the board, except the commissioner, shall serve without compensation.

See also Stats. 1943, Ch. 672

The commissioner shall receive an annual salary of six thousand dollars ($6,000), to be paid monthly out of the State Treasury upon a warrant of the Controller.

Expenses

Each member shall be allowed his actual and necessary traveling expenses in the discharge of his duties.

Board meetings

10056. The board shall meet together for the transaction of business at least once each quarter-year, at such place in California as it may designate. It may meet more often upon five days' written notice of the time and place of meeting, signed by the commissioner or a majority of the members of the board.

Chairman of board

10057. The commissioner shall be chairman of the board.

Quorum

10058. A majority of the board constitutes a quorum for the transaction of any business, for the performance of any duty, or for the exercise of any power or authority of the board.

A vacancy on the board does not impair the right of the remaining members to perform all the duties and exercise all the power and authority of the board.

The act of the majority of the board, when in session as a board, is the act of the board.

Functions of board

10059. The board may:

(a) Inquire into the needs of the real estate licensees of California, the functions of the division and the matter of the business policy thereof.

(b) Confer and advise with the Governor and other State officers as to how the division may best serve the State and the real estate licensees of the division.

(c) Make such recommendations and suggestions of policy to the commissioner as the board deems beneficial and proper for the welfare and progress of the real estate licensees and of the public and of the real estate business in California.

Article 2. The Real Estate Commissioner

Commissioner as representative

10070. The Real Estate Commissioner shall be the representative of the State Real Estate Division in the Department of Investment for the purpose of representation in the Governor's Council.

Enforcement

10071. The commissioner shall enforce the provisions of this part and of Chapter 1 of Part 2. He has full power to regulate and control the issuance and revocation, both temporary and permanent, of all licenses to be issued under the provisions of this part, and to perform all other acts and duties provided in this part and Chapter 1 of Part 2 and necessary for their enforcement.

Bond

10072. The commissioner shall execute to the people of the State of California a bond in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), executed by two or more sureties or by a surety company duly authorized to do business in California, to be approved by the Governor of the State, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office.

Personnel

10073. The commissioner shall employ such deputies, clerks and employees as he may need to discharge in proper manner the duties imposed upon him by law.

Vocations restricted See also Stats. 1943, Ch. 749

10074. After qualifying as such, neither the commissioner nor any of the deputies, clerks or employees of the division shall be interested in any business opportunity company, business opportunity brokerage firm, cemetery business, cemetery brokerage firm, real estate company or any real estate brokerage firm, as director, stockholder, officer, member, agent or employee, or act as a broker or salesman, or act as a copartner or agent for any broker or brokers, salesman or salesmen.

Duties and compensation

10075. Deputies, clerks and employees shall perform such duties as the commissioner shall assign to them.

Subject to the powers of the State Personnel Board and the Director of Finance, the commissioner shall fix the compensation of such deputies, clerks and employees, which compensation shall be paid monthly on a certificate of the commissioner, and on the warrant of the Controller out of the State Treasury.

Oath of office

10076. Each deputy shall, after his appointment, take and subscribe to the constitutional oath of office and file the same in the office of the Secretary of State.

Each clerk and employee shall take such oaths as may be required by law.

Main and branch offices

10077. The commissioner shall have his principal office in the City of Sacramento, and may establish branch offices in the City and County of San Francisco, the City of Los Angeles and in such other cities as the commissioner may deem necessary, subject to the approval of the Department of Finance.

Seal

10078. The commissioner shall adopt a seal with the words "Real Estate Commissioner State of California" and such other device as the commissioner may desire engraved thereon, by which he shall authenticate the proceedings of his office.

Copies of all records and papers in the office of the commissioner certified under the hand and seal of the commissioner shall be received in evidence in all cases equally and with like effect as the originals.

Legal adviser

10079. The Attorney General shall render to the commissioner opinions upon all questions of law relating to the construction or interpretation of this part or Chapter 1 of Part 2 or arising in the administration thereof that may be submitted to him by the commissioner. The Attorney General shall act as the attorney for the commissioner in all actions and proceedings brought by or against him under or pursuant to any of the provisions of this part or of Chapter 1 of Part 2.

Rules

10080. The commissioner may from time to time promulgate necessary rules and regulations for the conduct of his office and the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this part and of Chapter 1 of Part 2.

Right to injunctions

10081. Whenever the commissioner believes from evidence satisfactory to him that any person has violated or is about to violate any of the provisions of this part or of Chapter 1 of Part 2 or any order, license, permit, decision, demand or requirement, or any part or provision thereof, he may bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court of the State of California against such person to enjoin such person from continuing such violation or engaging therein or doing any act or acts in furtherance thereof.

In this action an order or judgment may be entered awarding such preliminary or final injunction as may be proper, but no preliminary injunction or temporary restraining order shall be granted without at least five days' notice to the opposite party.

Directory

10082. The commissioner shall publish or cause to be published on or about the first day of October of each year a directory or list of licensed brokers and salesmen and may publish therewith such matter as he may deem pertinent to this part and Chapter 1 of Part 2. He shall mail one copy of such directory to each licensed broker upon his request therefor, without charge.

Bulletin

10083. The commissioner may periodically issue a bulletin containing matter relating to his division, and to the provisions of this part and of Chapter 1 of Part 2, and the administration thereof, and may publish the same character of matter in any established periodical published in the State which in his opinion would be most likely to disseminate such matter and information to licensees under this part.

10084. The commissioner shall enforce the provisions of this part relating to cemetery brokerage.

So far as practicable, the commissioner and his appointees have all of the powers and duties given them by the provisions of this part relating to real estate for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of Chapter 5 of this part.

Application to cemetery brokerage

10085. The provisions of this part relating to real estate shall govern, so far as possible, the treatment of violations of Chapter 5 of this part.

The enumeration of certain powers of the commissioner in Chapter 5 of this part is not exclusive and the commissioner has all the powers, in enforcing Chapter 5 of this part, which he has under any other statute.

Article 3. Hearings

Disciplinary procedure

10100. Before denying, suspending or revoking any license issuable or issued under the provisions of this part, the commissioner shall proceed as prescribed by this article.

Temporary broker's license

10101. In case a hearing is called on an application for a broker's license, the commissioner, upon the request of the applicant, and upon the payment of the additional temporary broker's license fee shall issue a temporary broker's license in accordance with that chapter of this part under which the applicant held an unrevoked or unsuspended license on June 30th of the preceding fiscal year as an individual broker, a corporation, an officer of a corporation, a copartnership or member of a copartnership. The temporary broker's license shall expire at the time the decision rendered by the commissioner takes effect.

Temporary salesman's license

10102. In case a hearing is called on an application for a salesman's license, the commissioner, upon the request of the applicant, accompanied by the recommendation of the broker under whom the salesman is seeking a license, and upon the payment of the additional temporary salesman's license fee, shall issue a temporary salesman's license in accordance with that chapter of this part under which the applicant held an unrevoked or unsuspended salesman's or broker's license on June 30th of the preceding fiscal year. The temporary salesman's license shall expire at the time the decision rendered by the commissioner takes effect.

10103. The commissioner shall notify, in writing, the applicant or licensee of the charges against him and afford him an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel with reference to the charges.

Service upon the licensee or applicant of the charges against him or of the notice of the time and place of trial shall be fully effected by mailing a true copy of the charges or notice by United States registered mail in a sealed envelope with postage fully prepaid thereon to the licensee or applicant at his latest address of record in the division. Within 10 days after service of a copy of the charges, the accused licensee or applicant shall appear and file a verified answer to the charges.

When decision takes effect

10104. In suspending or revoking any license, or in denying any application for a license where the applicant is the holder of a temporary license, either as a broker or salesman, the decision of the commissioner shall not take effect until 10 days after its date.

Review of decision

10105. The decision of the commissioner in denying, suspending or revoking any license is subject to judicial review in accordance with law.

Transcript

10106. Any party aggrieved by the decision of the commissioner may make a demand in writing for a certified transcript of all the papers on file in his office affecting or relating to such decision and all the evidence taken on the hearing and paying ten cents ($0.10) for each folio of the transcript and one dollar ($1) for the certification thereof. Thereupon the commissioner shall, within 30 days, make and certify such transcript.

Powers of commissioner

10107. The commissioner may administer oaths, certify to all official acts and issue subpenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers.

Service of process

10108. In any hearing in any part of the State the process issued by the commissioner shall extend to all parts of the State and may be served by any person authorized to serve process of courts of record or by any person designated for that purpose by the commissioner.

Compensation for service of process

10109. The person serving any process issued by the commissioner shall receive such compensation as may be allowed by the commissioner, not to exceed the fees prescribed by law for similar service. The fees shall be paid in the same manner as provided in this article for the payment of the fees of witnesses.

Witness fees

10110. Each witness who appears by order of the commissioner shall receive for his attendance the same fees and mileage allowed by law to a witness in civil cases, which amount shall be paid by the party at whose request the witness is subpenaed.

Witness fees

10111. When any witness who has not been required to attend at the request of any party is subpenaed by the commissioner his fees and mileage shall be paid from the funds appropriated for the use of the division in the same manner as other expenses of the division are paid.

Powers of superior court

10112. The superior court in and for the county in which any hearing may be held by the commissioner may compel the attendance of witnesses, the giving of testimony and the production of books and papers as required by any subpena issued by the commissioner.

Attendance of witnesses

10113. In case of the refusal of any witness to attend or testify or produce any papers required by such subpena, the commissioner may petition the superior court in and for the county in which the hearing is pending, setting forth:

(a) That due notice has been given to the witness of the time and place of attendance or for the production of papers.

(b) That the witness has been summoned in the manner prescribed in this article.

(c) That the witness has failed and refused to attend or produce the papers required by subpena before the commissioner in the cause or proceeding named in the subpena, or has refused to answer questions propounded to him in the course of the hearing.

(d) A request for an order of court compelling the witness to attend and testify or produce the papers before the commissioner.

Order to show cause to witness

10114. The court upon petition of the commissioner shall enter an order directing the witness to appear before the court at a time and place to be fixed by the court in its order, the time to be not more than 10 days from the date of the order, and then and there show cause why he has not attended or testified or produced the papers before the commissioner. A copy of the order shall be served upon the witness.

Contempt of court

If it shall appear to the court that the subpena was regularly issued by the commissioner, the court shall thereupon enter an order that the witness appear before the commissioner at the time and place fixed in the order and testify or produce the required papers, and upon failure to obey the order, the witness shall be dealt with as for contempt of court.

Depositions

10115. The commissioner may in any hearing before him cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the State to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the superior courts of this State, and to that end may compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers.

Right of attendance of witnesses

10116. Any party to any hearing before the commissioner shall have the right to the attendance of witnesses in his behalf at such hearing or upon deposition upon making request therefor to the commissioner and designating the person or persons sought to be subpenaed.

CHAPTER 3. REAL ESTATE REGULATIONS

Article 1. Scope of Regulation

License required

10130. It is unlawful for any person to engage in the business, act in the capacity of, advertise or assume to act as a real estate broker or a real estate salesman within this State without first obtaining a real estate license from the division.

Prosecution for violations

The commissioner may prefer a complaint for violation of this section before any court of competent jurisdiction, and the commissioner and his counsel, deputies or assistants may assist in presenting the law or facts at the trial.

It is the duty of the district attorney of each county in this State to prosecute all violations of this section in their respective counties in which the violations occur.

Broker defined

10131. A real estate broker within the meaning of this part is a person who, for a compensation, sells or offers for sale, buys, or offers to buy, lists, or solicits for prospective purchasers, or negotiates the purchase or sale or exchange of real estate, or who, for compensation, negotiates loans on real estate, leases, or offers to lease, or negotiates the sale, purchase, or exchange of leases, rents, or places for rent, or collects rent from real estate, or improvements thereon, for another or others.

Salesman defined

10132. A real estate salesman within the meaning of this part is a natural person who for a compensation is employed by a licensed real estate broker to sell, or offer for sale, or to list, or to buy, or to offer to buy, or to negotiate the purchase or sale or exchange of real estate, or to solicit for prospective purchasers of real estate, or to negotiate a loan on real estate, or to lease, or to negotiate the sale, purchase or exchange of leases, or offer to lease, rent or place for rent, any real estate, or improvements thereon.

Persons exempt

10133. The provisions of this chapter, except Section 10140, do not apply to:

(a) Anyone who directly performs any of the acts within the scope of this chapter with reference to his own property or, in the case of a corporation which, through its regular officers receiving no special compensation therefor, performs any of the acts with reference to the corporation's own property.

(b) Anyone holding a duly executed power of attorney from the owner.

(c) Services rendered by an attorney at law in performing his duties as such attorney at law.

(d) Any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, or any person acting under order of any court.

(e) Any trustee selling under a deed of trust.

One act constitutes person, etc., broker or salesman

10134. One act, for a compensation of buying or selling real estate of or for another, or offering for another to buy or sell or exchange real estate, or negotiating the purchase or sale or exchange of, or listing or soliciting prospective purchasers of real estate, or negotiating a loan on or leasing or renting or placing for rent real estate, or collecting rent therefrom constitutes the person making such offer, sale or purchase, exchange or lease, or negotiating the loan, or so renting or placing for rent or collecting the rent or listing or soliciting, a real estate broker or real estate salesman within the meaning of this part.

Lease

10135. When a lease or leasing is referred to in this article, it includes any lease, whether such lease is the sole transaction involved, or the principal or an incidental part of the transaction involved.

Action for compensation

10136. No person engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of a real estate broker or a real estate salesman within this State shall bring or maintain any action in the courts of this State for the collection of compensation for the performance of any of the acts mentioned in this article without alleging and proving that he was a duly licensed real estate broker or real estate salesman at the time the alleged cause of action arose.

Unlawful payment of compensation

10137. It is unlawful for any licensed real estate broker to employ or compensate, directly or indirectly, any person for performing any of the acts within the scope of this chapter who is not a licensed real estate broker, or a real estate salesman licensed under the broker employing or compensating him.

No real estate salesman shall be employed by or accept compensation from any person other than the broker under whom he is at the time licensed.

It is unlawful for any licensed real estate salesman to pay any compensation for performing any of the acts within the scope of this chapter to any real estate licensee except through the broker under whom he is at the time licensed.

For a violation of any of the provisions of this section, the commissioner may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke the license of the real estate licensee, in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Misdemeanor punishable by fine

10138. It is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) for each offense, for any person, whether obligor, escrow holder or otherwise, to pay or deliver to anyone a compensation for performing any of the acts within the scope of this chapter, who is not known to be or who does not present evidence to such payor that he is a regularly licensed real estate broker at the time such compensation is earned.

Penalty for violation

For a violation of any of the provisions of this section, the commissioner may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke the license of the real estate licensee in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Penalty acting without license

10139. Any person acting as a real estate broker or real estate salesman without a license or who advertises using words indicating that he is a real estate broker without being so licensed shall, upon conviction thereof, if a natural person, be punished by a fine of not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court; or if a corporation, be punished by a fine of not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

Penalty for false statements

10140. Every officer, agent or employee or any company, and every other person who knowingly authorizes, directs or aids in the publication, advertisement, distribution or circularization of any false statement or representation concerning any land or subdivision thereof (as defined in Chapter 1 of Part 2 of this division), offered for sale or lease, and every person who, with knowledge that any advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus or letter concerning any said land or subdivision (as defined in Chapter 1 of Part 2 of this division) contains any written statement that is false or fraudulent, issues, circulates, publishes or distributes the same, or causes the same to be issued, circulated, published or distributed, or who, in any other respect, wilfully violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section, or who in any other respect wilfully violates or fails, omits or neglects to obey, observe or comply with any order, permit, decision, demand or requirement of the commissioner under this section, is guilty of a public offense, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed two years, by a fine of not to exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000), and, if a real estate licensee, he shall be held to trial by the commissioner for a suspension or revocation of his license, as provided in the provisions of this part relating to hearings. The district attorney of each county in this State shall prosecute all violations of the provisions of this section in respective counties in which the violations occur.

Article 2. Licenses

Application broker's license

10150. Application for license as real estate broker shall be made in writing to the commissioner. The application shall be accompanied by the real estate broker's examination fee and the original real estate broker's license fee and by the recommendation of two real estate owners of the county in which the applicant resides or has his place of business, certifying that the applicant is honest, truthful and of good reputation, and recommending that a real estate broker's license be granted to him.

If the applicant has resided, or has engaged in business for less than one year in the county from which the application is made, the application shall also be accompanied by the recommendation of two real estate owners of each of the counties where he has formerly resided or engaged in business during this period of one year prior to the filing of the application, certifying that the applicant is honest, truthful and of good reputation and recommending that a license be granted the applicant.

Salesman's application

10151. Application for license as real estate salesman shall be made in writing to the commissioner. The application shall be signed by the applicant, and shall set forth the period of time during which he has been engaged in the business, stating the name of his last employer and the name and place of business of the person then employing him, or in whose employ he is to enter. The application shall be accompanied by the real estate salesman's examination fee and the original real estate salesman's license fee and by the recommendation of his employer, if employed, certifying that the applicant is honest, truthful and of good reputation, and recommending that a real estate salesman's license be granted to the applicant.

Hearing on application

10152. The commissioner may require such other proof as he may deem advisable concerning the honesty, truthfulness and good reputation of any applicant for a real estate license, or of the officers of any corporation, or of the members of any copartnership making such application, before authorizing the issuance of a real estate license. For this purpose the commissioner may call a hearing in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Qualification test

10153. In addition to the proof of honesty, truthfulness and good reputation required of any applicant for a real estate license, the commissioner shall ascertain by written examination that the applicant, and in case of a copartnership or corporation applicant for a real estate broker's license that each officer, agent or member thereof through whom it proposes to act as a real estate licensee, has:

(a) Appropriate knowledge of the English language, including reading, writing and spelling and of elementary arithmetic.

(b) A fair understanding of the rudimentary principles of real estate conveyancing, the general purposes and general legal effect of deeds, mortgages, land contracts of sale and leases, and of the elementary principles of land economics and appraisals.

(c) A general and fair understanding of the obligations between principal and agent, of the principles of real estate practice and the canons of business ethics pertaining thereto, as well as of the provisions of this part relating to real estate and of Chapter 1 of Part 2.

Provisional salesman's license

10154. In the case of any applicant for a salesman's provisional real estate license, who complies with the required qualifications of honesty, truthfulness and good reputation, the commissioner need only ascertain by written examination that the applicant has (i) appropriate knowledge of the English language, including reading, writing and spelling, and of elementary arithmetic, and (ii) a fair understanding of the obligations between principal and agent and the provisions of this part relating to real estate and of Chapter 1 of Part 2.

After filing a complete application with the division and after qualifying by examination, the commissioner shall issue to the applicant a provisional real estate salesman's license upon the payment of the provisional licensee fee. The provisional real estate salesman's license is good either for (i) the remainder of the fiscal year or (ii) for not exceeding 120 days from the date of issuance, whichever is the shorter. The holder of a provisional real estate salesman's license shall not be entitled after the expiration of his provisional license to further real estate license unless he has first satisfied the commissioner by written examination that he has a fair understanding of (i) the rudimentary principles of real estate conveyancing, (ii) the general purposes and general legal effect of deeds, mortgages, land contracts of sale and leases, the elementary principles of land economics and appraisals and (iii) the principles of real estate practice and the canons of business ethics pertaining thereto.

Provisional salesman's license not transferable or renewable 10155. The holder of a provisional salesman's license may not transfer his employment under the license to another real estate broker or brokers. A provisional real estate salesman's license shall not be renewed.

Waiver of test

10156. The commissioner may, in his discretion, waive the examination of any applicant for a real estate broker's license who held an unrevoked or unsuspended real estate license on June 30th of the preceding fiscal year, as an individual broker, an officer of a corporation or member of a copartnership.

The commissioner may, in his discretion, waive the examination of any applicant for a real estate salesman's license who held an unrevoked or unsuspended real estate salesman's license on June 30th of the preceding fiscal year and who had previously qualified by passing the written examination.

License limitations

10157. No real estate license gives authority to do any act specified in this chapter to any person, other than the person to whom the license is issued.

Corporation and partnership licenses

10158. When a real estate license is issued to a corporation, if it desires any of its officers other than its president, to act under its license as a real estate broker, it shall procure an additional license to so employ each of such officers. When a real estate license is granted to a copartnership, if it desires any of its members other than the one or ones through whom it is already licensed to act as a real estate broker, it shall procure an additional license to so employ each of such additional members.

Limitations on corporation and partnership licenses

10159. Each officer of a corporation through whom it is licensed to act as a real estate broker, and each member of a copartnership through whom it is licensed to act as a real estate broker, is, while so employed under such license, a licensed real estate broker, but licensed only to act as such for and on behalf of the corporation or the copartnership, as officer or member, respectively.

Display of license

10160. The real estate licenses of both broker and salesman shall be prominently displayed in the office of the real estate broker.

The real estate salesman's license shall remain in the possession of the licensed real estate broker employer until canceled or until the salesman leaves the employ of the broker.

Cancellation of salesman's license

10161. Immediately upon the real estate salesman's withdrawal from the employ of the real estate broker, the real estate broker shall return the real estate salesman's license to the commissioner for cancellation. A license canceled but not suspended or revoked may be reinstated within the fiscal year upon receipt of application therefor and the fee for the reinstatement of his license.

Definite office required

10162. Every licensed real estate broker shall have and maintain a definite place of business in the State of California which shall serve as his office for the transaction of business.

No real estate license authorizes the licensee to do business except from the location stipulated in the real estate license.

Change of business location

Notice in writing shall be given the commissioner of change of business location of a real estate broker, whereupon the commissioner shall issue a new license for the unexpired period. The change or abandonment of business location without notification to the commissioner and the issuance by him of a new real estate license shall automatically cancel the license theretofore issued.

Additional license for branch office

10163. If the applicant for a real estate broker's license maintains more than one place of business within the State he shall apply for and procure an additional license for each branch office so maintained by him. Every such application shall state the name of the person and the location of the place or places of business for which such license is desired. The commissioner may determine whether or not a real estate broker is doing a real estate brokerage business at or from any particular location which requires him to have a branch office license.

Display of sign

10164. Each real estate broker shall erect and maintain a sign in a conspicuous place on the premises to indicate that he is a licensed real estate broker and his name shall be clearly shown thereon. The size and place of the sign shall conform to regulations that may be adopted by the commissioner.

Penalties for violations

10165. For a violation of any of the provisions of Sections 10160, 10161, 10162, and 10164, the commissioner may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke the license of the real estate licensee in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Article 3. Disciplinary Action

Revocation or suspension of licenses

10175. Upon grounds provided in this article and the other articles of this chapter, the license of any real estate licensee may be revoked or suspended in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Revocation of licenses

10176. The commissioner may, upon his own motion, and shall upon the verified complaint in writing of any person, investigate the actions of any person engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of a real estate licensee within this State, and he may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke a real estate license at any time where the licensee within the immediately preceding three years, while a real estate licensee, in performing or attempting to perform any of the acts within the scope of this chapter has been guilty of any of the following:

Causes for revocation

(a) Making any substantial misrepresentation.

(b) Making any false promises of a character likely to influence, persuade or induce.

(c) A continued and flagrant course of misrepresentation or making of false promises through real estate agents or salesmen.

(d) Acting for more than one party in a transaction without the knowledge or consent of all parties thereto.

(e) Commingling the money or other property of his principal with his own.

(f) Any other conduct, whether of the same or a different character than specified in this section, which constitutes fraud or dishonest dealing.

Additional causes for revocation

10177. The commissioner may suspend or revoke the license of any real estate licensee, who within three years immediately preceding has done any of the following:

(a) Procured a real estate license, for himself or any salesman, by fraud, misrepresentation or deceit.

(b) Been convicted of a felony, knowledge of which the commissioner did not have at the time of last issuing a real estate license to him.

(c) Knowingly authorized, directed, connived at or aided in the publication, advertisement, distribution, or circulation of any material false statement or representation concerning his business or any land or subdivision (as defined in Chapter 1 of Part 2 of this division) offered for sale.

(d) Wilfully disregarded or violated any of the provisions of this part relating to real estate or of Chapter 1 of Part 2.

(e) Wilfully used the term "realtor" without legal right so to do.

(f) Acted or conducted himself in a manner which would have warranted the denial of his application for a real estate license, or for a renewal thereof.

Employer's statements

10178. When any real estate salesman is discharged by his employer for a violation of any of the provisions of this article prescribing a ground for disciplinary action, a certified written statement of the facts with reference thereto shall be filed forthwith with the commissioner by the employer and if the employer fails to notify the commissioner as required by this section, the commissioner may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke the real estate license of the employer, in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Knowledge by employer of violation

10179. No violation of any of the provisions of this part relating to real estate or of Chapter 1 of Part 2 by any real estate salesman or employee of any licensed real estate broker shall cause the revocation or suspension of the license of the employer of the salesman or employee unless it appears upon a hearing by the commissioner that the employer had guilty knowledge of such violation.

Effect upon corporations and partnerships

10180. The commissioner may deny, suspend or revoke the real estate license of a corporation as to any officer or agent acting under its license, and the real estate license of a copartnership as to any member acting under its license, without revoking the license of the corporation or of the copartnership.

Article 4. Fees

License fees

10200. The fee for all real estate licenses shall at all periods of the fiscal year be the same as provided in this article. All real estate license fees shall be payable in advance of issuing the licenses and all examination fees shall be payable before taking the examination.

Unless otherwise provided, all licenses expire on June 30th of each year at midnight.

Renewals

10201. If a person fails to apply for a renewal of his real estate license prior to the date of expiration thereof, no license shall be issued to him except upon another original application, except that within one year of such expiration, a renewal license may be issued upon payment of a fee double the amount otherwise required for renewal.

Application of definitions

10202. The definitions contained in this article are solely for the purposes of this article.

Original broker's license

10203. An original real estate broker's license is a real estate license issued to a person who did not have a real estate broker's license on June 30th of the fiscal year previous to the fiscal year for which the license is issued.

Renewal broker's license

10204. A renewal real estate broker's license is a real estate license issued to a person who had a real estate broker's license unrevoked and unsuspended on June 30th of the fiscal year previous to the fiscal year for which the renewal real estate license is issued.

Salesman's license

10205. An original real estate salesman's license is a real estate license issued to a person who did not have a real estate salesman's or a broker's license either individually or as an officer of a corporation, or as a member of a copartnership, on June 30th of the fiscal year previous to the fiscal year for which the salesman's license is issued.

Renewal salesman's license

10206. A renewal real estate salesman's license is a real estate license issued to a person who had a real estate salesman's or a broker's license either individually or as an officer of a corporation, or as a member of a copartnership, on June 30th of the fiscal year previous to the fiscal year for which the salesman's license is issued.

Fixing of fees

10207. The amount of the real estate fees prescribed for a license under this chapter is that fixed by the following provisions of this article.

Broker's fees

10208. The original real estate broker's license fee is five dollars ($5). The real estate broker's examination fee is fifteen dollars ($15) which examination fee covers all examinations prior to the issuance of such original broker's license.

Temporary broker's license fee

10209. The additional temporary broker's license fee is five dollars ($5).

Renewal broker's fee

10210. For a renewal real estate broker's license, the annual fee is five dollars ($5).

When licensee is corporation

10211. If the licensee is a corporation, the renewal license issued to it entitles the president thereof, on behalf of the corporation, to engage in the business of real estate broker without the payment of any further fee. For each officer other than the president of a licensed corporation, through whom it engages in the business of real estate broker, the annual fee is two dollars ($2) in addition to the fee paid by the corporation.

When licensee is a partnership

10212. If the licensee is a copartnership, the license issued to it entitles one member only of the copartnership to engage on behalf of the copartnership in the business of real estate broker, which member shall be designated in the application of the copartnership for a license. For each other member of the copartnership who on behalf of the copartnership engages in the business of real estate broker the annual fee is two dollars ($2) in addition to the fee paid by the copartnership.

Salesman's fees

10213. The original real estate salesman's license fee is two dollars ($2). The real estate salesman's examination fee is three dollars ($3), which examination fee covers all examinations prior to the issuance of an original salesman's license.

Temporary salesman's fee

10214. The additional temporary salesman's license fee is two dollars ($2).

Renewal salesman's fee

10215. For a renewal real estate salesman's license, the annual fee is two dollars ($2).

Provisional fees

10216. The provisional license fee is two dollars ($2). The examination fee for a provisional license is three dollars ($3).

Branch office fee

10217. For a branch office broker's license the fee is one dollar ($1).

Change of name or address

10218. For change of name or of address of licensee on the records of the division the fee is one dollar ($1).

Transfer of salesman's license

10219. For transfer of a salesman's license on change of employer, the fee is one dollar ($1).

Duplicate license fee

10220. For a duplicate license the fee is one dollar ($1).

Reinstatement of license fee

10221. For reinstatement of a license within the fiscal year the fee is one dollar ($1).

CHAPTER 4. BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY REGULATIONS

Article 1. Scope of Regulation

License required for business opportunity broker and salesman

10250. It is unlawful for any person to engage in the business, act in the capacity of, or assume to act as a business opportunity broker or a business opportunity salesman within this State without first obtaining a license from the division.

Complaint for violation

The commissioner may prefer a complaint for violation of this section before any court of competent jurisdiction, and the commissioner and his counsel, deputies or assistants may assist in presenting the law or facts at the trial.

Duty of district attorney

It is the duty of the district attorney of each county in this State to prosecute all violations of this section in their respective counties in which the violations occur.

"Business opportunity"

10251. As used in this part, the words "business opportunity" shall mean and include business, business opportunity and good will of an existing business or any one or combination thereof.

Business opportunity broker

10252. A business opportunity broker within the meaning of this part is a person who, for a compensation, sells or offers for sale, rents, or offers to rent, or collects rent, buys, or offers to buy, lists, leases or offers to lease, or solicits for prospective tenants or purchasers, or negotiates the purchase or sale or the renting, leasing or exchanging of a business, business opportunity, or interest therein, or the good will of an existing business, for another or others.

Business opportunity salesman

10253. A business opportunity salesman within the meaning of this part is a natural person who for a compensation is employed by a licensed business opportunity broker to sell, or offer for sale, to rent, or offer to rent, or collect rent, or to list or offer to list, or to buy, or to offer to buy, or to lease or offer to lease, or to solicit for prospective tenants or purchasers, or to negotiate the purchase or sale or the renting, leasing, or exchanging of a business, business opportunity, or interest therein, or the good will of an existing business.

10254. The provisions of this chapter, except Section 10261, do not apply to:

(a) Anyone who directly performs any of the acts within the scope of this chapter with reference to his own property or, in case of a corporation, through its regular officers receiving no special compensation therefor, performs any of the acts with reference to the corporation's own property.

(b) Anyone holding a duly executed power of attorney from the owner.

(c) Services rendered by an attorney at law in performing his duties as such attorney at law.

(d) Any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, or any person acting under order of any court.

(e) A trustee selling under a deed of trust.

(f) A real estate broker or real estate salesman while acting as such in connection with the sale, lease or exchange of real property or an interest therein when the transfer of a business, business opportunity or good will of an existing business is purely incidental to the sale, lease or exchange of real property.

One act constitutes person, etc., broker or salesman

10255. One act, for a compensation of buying or selling a business opportunity of or for another, or offering for another to buy or sell or exchange a business opportunity, or negotiating the purchase or sale or exchange of, or listing or soliciting prospective purchasers of business opportunities, or negotiating a loan on or leasing or renting or placing for rent a business opportunity, or collecting rent therefrom constitutes the person making such offer, sale or purchase, exchange or lease, or negotiating the loan, or so renting or placing for rent or collecting the rent or listing or soliciting, a business opportunity broker or salesman within the meaning of this part.

Lease

10256. When a lease or leasing is referred to in this article, it includes any lease, whether such a lease is the sole transaction involved, or the principal or an incidental part of the transaction involved.

Action for compensation

10257. No person engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of a business opportunity broker or a business opportunity salesman within this State shall bring or maintain any action in the courts of this State for the collection of compensation for the performance of any of the acts mentioned in this article without alleging and proving that he was a duly licensed business opportunity broker or business opportunity salesman at the time the alleged cause of action arose.

Unlawful payment of compensation

10258. It is unlawful for any licensed business opportunity broker to employ or compensate, directly or indirectly, any person for performing any of the acts within the scope of this chapter who is not a licensed business opportunity broker, or a business opportunity salesman licensed under the broker employing or compensating him.

No business opportunity salesman shall be employed by or accept compensation from any person other than the business opportunity broker under whom he is at the time licensed.

It is unlawful for any licensed business opportunity salesman to pay any compensation for performing any of the acts within the scope of this chapter to any business opportunity licensee except through the business opportunity broker under whom he is at the time licensed.

For a violation of any of the provisions of this section, the commissioner may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke the license of the business opportunity licensee in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Misdemeanor punishable by fine

10259. It is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) for each offense, for any person, whether obligor, escrow holder or otherwise, to pay or deliver to anyone a compensation for performing any of the acts within the scope of this chapter, who is not known to be or who does not present evidence to such payor that he is a regularly licensed business opportunity broker at the time such compensation is earned.

Penalty for violation

For a violation of any of the provisions of this section, the commissioner may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke the license of the business opportunity licensee in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Penalty acting without license

10260. Any person acting as a business opportunity broker or business opportunity salesman without a license shall, upon conviction thereof, if a natural person, be punished by a fine of not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court; or if a corporation, be punished by a fine of not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

Penalty for false statements

10261. Every officer, agent or employee of any company, and every other person who knowingly authorizes, directs or aids in the publication, advertisement, distribution or circularization of any false statement or representation concerning any business opportunity, and every person who, with knowledge that any advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus or letter concerning any business opportunity or any written statement that is false or fraudulent, issues, circulates, publishes or distributes the same, or causes the same to be issued, circulated, published or distributed, or who in any other respect wilfully violates or fails, omits, or neglects to obey, observe or comply with any order, permit, decision, demand or requirement of the commissioner under the provisions of this part relating to business opportunity regulation, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed six months, or by a fine of not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), and, if a business opportunity licensee, he shall be held to trial by the commissioner for a suspension or revocation of his business opportunity license, as provided in the provisions of this part relating to hearings. It shall be the duty of the district attorney of each county in this State to prosecute all violations of the provisions of this section in respective counties in which the violations occur.

Article 2. Licenses

Application business opportunity broker's license

10275. Application for license as business opportunity broker shall be made in writing to the commissioner. The application shall be accompanied by the business opportunity broker's examination fee and the original business opportunity broker's license fee and by the recommendation of two real estate owners of the county in which the applicant resides or has his place of business, certifying that the applicant is honest, truthful and of good reputation, and recommending that a business opportunity broker's license be granted to him.

If the applicant has resided, or has engaged in business for less than one year in the county from which the application is made, the application shall also be accompanied by the recommendation of two real estate owners of each of the counties where he has formerly resided or engaged in business during this period of one year prior to the filing of the application, certifying that the applicant is honest, truthful and of good reputation and recommending that a license be granted to the applicant.

Application business opportunity salesman's license

10276. Application for license as business opportunity salesman shall be made in writing to the commissioner. The application shall be signed by the applicant and shall set forth the period of time during which he has been engaged in the business, stating the name of his last employer and the name and place of business of the person then employing him, or in whose employ he is to enter. The application shall be accompanied by the business opportunity salesman's examination fee and the original business opportunity salesman's license fee and by the recommendation of his employer, if employed, certifying that the applicant is honest, truthful and of good reputation, and recommending that a business opportunity license be granted to the applicant.

Hearing on application

10277. The commissioner may require such other proof as he may deem advisable concerning the honesty, truthfulness and good reputation of any applicant for a business opportunity license, or of the officers of any corporation, or of the members of any copartnership making such application, before authorizing the issuance of a business opportunity license. For this purpose the commissioner may call a hearing in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Qualification test

10278. In addition to the proof of honesty, truthfulness and good reputation required of an applicant for a business opportunity license, the Real Estate Commissioner shall ascertain by written examination that the applicant, and in case of a copartnership or corporation applicant for a business opportunity broker's license that each officer, agent or member thereof through whom it proposes to act as a business opportunity licensee, has:

(a) Appropriate knowledge of the English language, including read, writing and spelling, and of elementary arithmetic.

(b) A fair understanding of the general purposes and general legal effect of deeds, mortgages, chattel mortgages, contracts of sale, bills of sale, liens and leases, of the elementary principles of business economics, appraisals, and the purchase, sale, renting and leasing of personal property.

(c) A general and fair understanding of the obligations between principal and agent, of the principles of business opportunity brokerage practice and the business ethics pertaining thereto, as well as of the provisions of this part relating to business opportunity regulation.

Waiver of examination

10279. The commissioner may, in his discretion, waive the examination of any applicant for a business opportunity broker's license who held an unrevoked or unsuspended business opportunity license on June 30th of the preceding fiscal year as an individual broker, an officer of a corporation, or member of a copartnership.

The commissioner may, in his discretion, waive the examination of any applicant for a business opportunity salesman's license who held an unrevoked or unsuspended business opportunity salesman's license on June 30th of the preceding fiscal year and who had previously qualified by passing the written examination.

License limitations

10280. No business opportunity license gives authority to do any act specified in this chapter to any person, other than the person to whom the license is issued.

Corporation and partnership licenses

104281. When a business opportunity license is issued to a corporation, if it desires any of its officers other than its president, to act under its license as a business opportunity broker, it shall procure an additional license to so employ each of such officers. When a business opportunity license is granted to a copartnership, if it desires any of its members other than the one or ones through whom it is already licensed to act as a business opportunity broker, it shall procure an additional license to so employ each of such additional members.

Limitations on corporation and partnership licenses

10282. Each officer of a corporation through whom it is licensed to act as a business opportunity broker, and each member of a copartnership through whom it is licensed to act as a business opportunity broker, is, while so employed under such license a licensed business opportunity broker, but licensed only to act as such for and on behalf of the corporation or the copartnership, as officer or member, respectively.

Display of licenses

10283. The business opportunity licenses of both broker and salesman shall be prominently displayed in the office of the business opportunity broker.

The business opportunity salesman's license shall remain in the possession of the licensed business opportunity broker employer until canceled or until the salesman leaves the employ of the broker.

Cancellation of salesman's license

10284. Immediately upon the salesman's withdrawal from the employ of the broker, the broker shall return the salesman's license to the commissioner for cancellation. A license canceled but not suspended or revoked may be reinstated within the fiscal year upon receipt of application therefor and the fee for the reinstatement of his license.

Definite office required

10285. Every licensed business opportunity broker shall have and maintain a definite place of business in the State of California which shall serve as his office for the transaction of business.

No business opportunity license authorizes the licensee to do business except from the location stipulated in the business opportunity license.

Change of location

Notice in writing shall be given the commissioner of change of business location of a business opportunity broker, whereupon the commissioner shall issue a new business opportunity license for the unexpired period. The change or abandonment of business location without notification to the commissioner and the issuance by him of a new business opportunity license shall automatically cancel the business opportunity license theretofore issued.

Additional license for branch office

10286. If the applicant for a business opportunity broker's license maintains more than one place of business within the State he shall apply for and procure an additional license for each branch office so maintained by him. Every such application shall state the name of the person and the location of the place or places of business for which such license is desired.

The commissioner may determine whether or not a broker is doing a business opportunity brokerage business at or from any particular location which requires him to have a branch office license.

Display of sign

10287. Each business opportunity broker shall erect and maintain a sign in a conspicuous place on the premises to indicate that he is a licensed business opportunity broker and his name shall be clearly shown thereon. The size and place of the sign shall conform to regulations that may be adopted by the commissioner.

Penalties for violations

10288. For a violation of any of the provisions of Sections 10283, 10284, 10285 and 10287, the commissioner may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke the license of the business opportunity licensee in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Article 3. Disciplinary Action

Revocation or suspension of business opportunity licenses

10300. Upon grounds provided in this article and the other articles of this chapter, the license of any business opportunity licensee may be revoked or suspended in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Revocation of licenses

10301. The commissioner may, upon his own motion, and shall, upon the verified complaint in writing of any person, investigate the actions of any person engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of a business opportunity licensee, within this State, and he may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke a business opportunity license at any time if the licensee, within the immediately preceding three years, while a business opportunity licensee, in performing or attempting to perform any of the acts within the scope of this chapter has been guilty of any of the following:

Causes for revocation

(a) Making any substantial misrepresentation.

(b) Making any false promises of a character likely to influence, persuade or induce.

(c) A continued and flagrant course of misrepresentation or making of false promises through business opportunity agents or salesmen.

(d) Acting for more than one party in a transaction without the knowledge or consent of all parties thereto.

(e) Commingling the money or other property of his principal with his own.

(f) Any other conduct, whether of the same or a different character than specified in this section, which constitutes fraud or dishonest dealing.

Additional causes for revocation

10302. The commissioner may suspend or revoke the license of any business opportunity licensee, who within three years immediately preceding has done any of the following:

(a) Procured a business opportunity license, for himself or any salesman, by fraud, misrepresentation or deceit.

(b) Been convicted of a felony, knowledge of which the commissioner did not have at the time of last issuing a business opportunity license to him.

(c) Knowingly authorized, directed, connived at or aided in the publication, advertisement, distribution, or circulation of any material false statement or representation concerning his business or any business opportunity offered for sale.

(d) Wilfully disregarded or violated any of the provisions of this part relating to business opportunity regulation.

(e) Acted or conducted himself in a manner which would have warranted the denial of his application for a business opportunity license, or for a renewal thereof.

Employer's statements

10303. When any business opportunity salesman is discharged by his employer for a violation of any of the provisions of this article prescribing a ground for disciplinary action, a verified written statement of the facts with reference thereto shall be filed forthwith with the commissioner by the employer and, if the employer fails to notify the commissioner as required by this section, the commissioner may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke the business opportunity license of the employer in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Effect upon corporations and partnerships

10304. The commissioner may deny, suspend or revoke the business opportunity license of a corporation as to any officer or agent acting under its business opportunity license, and the business opportunity license of a copartnership as to any member acting under its business opportunity license, without revoking the business opportunity license of the corporation or of the copartnership.

Article 4. Fees

License fees

10320. The fee for all business opportunity licenses shall at all periods of the fiscal year be the same as provided in this article. All business opportunity license fees shall be payable in advance of issuing the licenses and all examination fees shall be payable before taking the examination.

Term of license

10321. All business opportunity licenses shall be issued for the fiscal year of July 1st to June 30th, inclusive, and shall expire on June 30th of each fiscal year at midnight.

Application of definitions

10322. The definitions contained in this article are solely for the purposes of this article.

Original business opportunity broker's license

10323. An original business opportunity broker's license is a business opportunity license issued to a person who did not have a business opportunity broker's license on June 30th of the fiscal year previous to the fiscal year for which the license is issued.

Renewal license

10324. A renewal business opportunity broker's license is a business opportunity license issued to a person who had a business opportunity broker's license unrevoked and unsuspended on June 30th of the fiscal year previous to the fiscal year for which the renewal business opportunity license is issued.

Original business opportunity salesman's license

10325. An original business opportunity salesman's license is a business opportunity license issued to a person who did not have a business opportunity salesman's or a broker's license either individually or as an officer of a corporation, or as a member of a copartnership, on June 30th of the fiscal year previous to the fiscal year for which the salesman's license is issued.

Renewal license

10326. A renewal business opportunity salesman's license is a business opportunity license issued to a person who had a business opportunity salesman's or a broker's license either individually or as an officer of a corporation, or as a member of a copartnership, on June 30th of the fiscal year previous to the fiscal year for which the salesman's license is issued.

Fixing of fees

10327. The amount of the business opportunity fees prescribed for a license under this chapter is that fixed by the following provisions of this article.

Broker's fees

10328. The original business opportunity broker's license fee is five dollars ($5). The business opportunity broker's examination fee is fifteen dollars ($15) which examination fee covers all examinations prior to the issuance of such original broker's license.

Temporary broker's license fee

10329. The additional temporary broker's license fee is five dollars ($5).

Renewal broker's fee

10330. For a renewal business opportunity broker's license, the annual fee is five dollars ($5).

Licenses for corporations

10331. If the licensee is a corporation, the renewal license issued to it entitles the president thereof, on behalf of such corporation, to engage in the business of business opportunity broker without the payment of any further fee. For each officer other than the president of a licensed corporation, through whom it engages in the business of business opportunity broker, the annual fee is two dollars ($2) in addition to the fee paid by the corporation.

Licenses for partnerships

10332. If the licensee is a copartnership, the license issued to it entitles one member only of the copartnership to engage on behalf of the copartnership in the business of business opportunity broker, which member shall be designated in the application of the copartnership for a license. For each other member of the copartnership who on behalf of the copartnership engages in the business of business opportunity broker the annual fee shall be two dollars ($2) in addition to the fee paid by the copartnership.

Salesman's fees

10333. The original business opportunity salesman's license is two dollars ($2). The business opportunity salesman's examination fee is seven dollars and fifty cents ($7.50), which examination fee covers all examinations prior to the issuance of an original salesman's license.

Temporary salesman's fee

10334. The additional temporary salesman's license fee is two dollars ($2).

Renewal salesman's fee

10335. For a renewal business opportunity salesman's license, the annual fee is two dollars ($2).

Branch office fee

10336. For a branch office broker's license the fee is one dollar ($1).

Change of name or address

10337. For change of name or of address of licensee on the records of the division the fee is one dollar ($1).

Transfer of salesman's license

10338. For transfer of a salesman's license on change of employer, the fee is one dollar ($1).

Duplicate license fee

10339. For a duplicate license the fee is one dollar ($1).

Reinstatement of license fee

10340. For reinstatement of a license within the fiscal year the fee is one dollar ($1).

CHAPTER 5. CEMETERY BROKERAGE REGULATIONS

Article 1. Scope of Regulation

License required

10350. No person shall engage in the business of, act in the capacity of, advertise or assume to act as, a cemetery broker or cemetery salesman in this State without first obtaining a license from the commissioner.

Cemetery broker

10351. A cemetery broker is a person who, for a compensation, sells or offers for sale, buys, or offers to buy, lists, leases or offers to lease, or solicits, or negotiates the purchase or sale, lease or exchange of cemetery property, or interest therein, for another.

Cemetery salesman

10352. A cemetery salesman is a natural person who for a compensation is employed by a cemetery broker to sell, or offer for sale, list or offer to list, or to buy, or to offer to buy, or to lease, or to offer to lease, or to solicit, or to negotiate the purchase or sale or lease or exchange of cemetery property, or any interest therein.

"Burial park" 10353. "Burial park" has the meaning ascribed to it by Section 7004 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Mausoleum" 10354. "Mausoleum" has the meaning ascribed to it by Section 7005 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Columbarium" 10355. "Columbarium" has the meaning ascribed to it by Section 7007 of the Health and Safety Code.

"Cemetery" 10356. "Cemetery" has the meaning ascribed to it by Section 7003 of the Health and Safety Code.

Persons exempt 10357. This chapter, except Section 10363, does not apply to the following cases or to the following persons:

(a) A person acting with reference to his own property.

(b) The regular officers of a cemetery corporation acting with reference to the corporation's property when they receive no special compensation therefor.

(c) Persons holding a duly executed power of attorney from others.

(d) The services rendered by an attorney at law in performing his duties as such.

(e) A receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, any person acting under orders of any court, or a trustee selling under a deed of trust.

(f) A real estate broker or real estate salesman, acting as such in connection with the sale, lease or exchange of real property, or interest therein, when the transfer of cemetery property is purely incidental to the sale, lease or exchange of real property.

One act constitutes person, broker or salesman 10358. Any act for a compensation of buying or selling, leasing or exchanging cemetery property of or for another, or offering for another to buy or sell, lease or exchange cemetery property, or negotiating the purchase or sale, lease or exchange of cemetery property, or negotiating the purchase or sale, lease or exchange of, or listing or soliciting, or negotiating a loan on or leasing of cemetery property constitutes the person making such offer, sale or purchase, exchange or lease, or negotiating the loan, or listing or soliciting, a cemetery broker or a cemetery salesman.

Action for compensation 10359. No person engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of a broker or a salesman within this State shall bring or maintain any action in the courts of this State for the collection of compensation for the performance of any of the acts mentioned in this article without alleging and proving that he was a duly licensed cemetery broker or cemetery salesman at the time the alleged cause of action arose.

Unlawful payment of compensation 10360. No cemetery broker shall employ or compensate, directly or indirectly, any person for performing any of the acts within the scope of this chapter who is not a licensed cemetery broker, or a cemetery salesman licensed under the cemetery broker employing or compensating him. No cemetery salesman shall be employed by or accept compensation from any person other than the cemetery broker under whom he is at the time licensed.

No salesman shall pay any compensation for performing any of the acts within the scope of this chapter to any licensee except through the cemetery broker under whom he is at the time licensed.

For a violation of any of the provisions of this section, the commissioner may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke the license of the cemetery licensee in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Misdemeanor punishable by fine

10361. It is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) for each offense, for any person, whether obligor, escrow holder or otherwise, to pay or deliver to anyone a compensation for performing any of the acts within the scope of this chapter, who is not known to be or who does not present evidence to such payor that he is a licensed cemetery broker at the time such compensation is earned.

Penalty for false statements

For violation of any of the provisions of this section, the commissioner may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke the license of the cemetery licensee in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Penalties imposed

10362. Any person acting as a cemetery broker or cemetery salesman without a license, or who advertises so as to indicate he is a cemetery broker without being so licensed, is guilty of a misdemeanor. If such person is a corporation, it shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

Penalty for false statements

10363. Every officer, agent or employee of any company, and every other person who knowingly authorizes, directs or aids in the publication, advertisement, distribution or circularization of any false statement or representation concerning any cemetery or cemetery brokerage business and every person who, with knowledge that any advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus or letter concerning any cemetery brokerage business or any written statement that is false or fraudulent, issues, circulates, publishes or distributes the same, or causes it to be issued, circulated, published or distributed, or who in any other respect wilfully violates or fails, omits or neglects to obey, observe or comply with any order, permit, decision, demand or requirement of the commissioner under the provisions of this part relating to cemetery brokerage, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and, if a cemetery licensee, he shall be held to trial by the commissioner for a suspension or revocation of his cemetery license, as provided in the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Article 2. Licenses

Application and recommendations for cemetery broker's license

10375. Application for license as cemetery broker shall be made in writing to the commissioner. The application shall be accompanied by the cemetery broker's examination fee and the original cemetery broker's license fee and by the recommendation of two real estate owners of the county in which such applicant resides or has his place of business, certifying that the applicant is honest, truthful and of good reputation, and recommending that a cemetery license be granted to him. If the applicant has resided or has engaged in business for less than one year in the county from which the application is made, the application shall also be accompanied by the recommendation of two real estate owners of each of the counties where he has formerly resided or engaged in business during this period of one year prior to the filing of the application, certifying that the applicant is honest, truthful and of good reputation and recommending that a license be granted the applicant.

Salesman's application and recommendation

10376. Application for license as cemetery salesman shall be made in writing to the commissioner, signed by the applicant, and shall set forth the period of time during which he has been engaged in the business, state the name of his last employer and the name and place of business of the person then employing him or about to employ him. The application shall be accompanied by the cemetery salesman's examination fee and the original cemetery salesman's license fee and by the recommendation of his employer, if employed, certifying that the applicant is honest, truthful and of good reputation, and recommending that a cemetery license be granted to the applicant.

Additional proof

10377. The commissioner may require such other proof as he may deem advisable concerning the honesty, truthfulness and good reputation of any applicant for a cemetery license, or of the officers of any corporation, or of the members of any copartnership making such application, before authorizing the issuance of a cemetery license. For this purpose, the commissioner may call a hearing in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Qualification test

10378. In addition to proof of honesty, truthfulness and good reputation required of an applicant for a cemetery license, the commissioner shall ascertain by written examination that the applicant, and, in case of a copartnership or corporation applicant for a cemetery broker's license, that each officer, agent or member thereof through whom it proposes to act as a cemetery licensee has:

(a) Appropriate knowledge of the English language, including reading, writing and spelling, and of elementary arithmetic.

(b) A fair understanding of:

(1) Cemetery associations, cemetery corporations and duties of directors.

(2) Plot ownership, deeds, certificates of ownership, contracts of sale, liens and leases.

(3) Establishing, dedicating, maintaining, managing, operating, improving and conducting a cemetery.

(4) The care, preservation and embellishment of cemetery property.

(5) The care and preservation of perpetual care funds, trust funds, and the investment thereof.

(c) A general and fair understanding of the obligations between principal and agent, of the principles of cemetery brokerage practice and the business ethics pertaining thereto, as well as of the provisions of this part relating to cemetery brokerage.

Waiver of test

10379. The commissioner may, in his discretion, waive the examination of any applicant for a cemetery broker's license who held an unrevoked or unsuspended cemetery license on June 30th of the preceding fiscal year as an individual broker, an officer of a corporation, or member of a copartnership. The commissioner may waive the examination of any applicant for a cemetery salesman's license who held an unrevoked or unsuspended cemetery salesman's license on June 30th of the preceding fiscal year and who previously qualified by passing a written examination.

Temporary salesman's license

10380. The commissioner shall issue, without examination, to any person who otherwise qualifies, a temporary salesman's license, good for a period of three months from the date of issuance, irrespective of the fact that the fiscal year may terminate within such three months. An applicant shall not be entitled to more than one temporary license without examination.

License limitations

10381. No cemetery license gives authority to do any act specified in this chapter to any person other than the person to whom the license is issued.

Corporation and co-partnership licenses

10382. When a cemetery brokerage license is issued to a cemetery brokerage corporation, if it desires any of its officers other than the officer through whom it is already licensed to act under its license as a cemetery broker, it shall procure an additional license for each such officer. When a cemetery brokerage license is granted to a cemetery brokerage copartnership, if it desires any of its members other than the one through whom it is already licensed to act as a cemetery broker, it shall procure an additional license for each such member.

Limitations on corporation and co-partnership licenses

10383. Each officer of a corporation through whom it is licensed to act as a cemetery broker, and each member of a copartnership through whom it is licensed to act as a cemetery broker, is, while so employed under such license, a licensed cemetery broker, but licensed only to act as such for and on behalf of the corporation or the copartnership, as officer or member, respectively.

Display of license

10384. The cemetery licenses of both broker and salesman shall be prominently displayed in the office of the broker.

The cemetery salesman's license shall remain in the possession of the licensed cemetery broker employer until canceled or until the salesman leaves the employ of the broker.

Cancellation of salesman's license

10385. Immediately upon the salesman's withdrawal from the employ of the broker, the broker shall return the salesman's license to the commissioner for cancellation. A license canceled but not suspended or revoked may be reinstated within the fiscal year upon receipt of application therefor and the fee for the reinstatement of his license.

Definite office required

10386. Every licensed cemetery broker shall have and maintain a definite place of business in this State which shall serve as his office for the transaction of business.

No cemetery license authorizes the licensee to do business except from the location stipulated in the cemetery license.

Change of business location

Notice in writing shall be given the commissioner of change of business location of a cemetery broker, whereupon the commissioner shall issue a new cemetery license for the unexpired period. The change or abandonment of business location without notification to the commissioner and the issuance by him of a new cemetery license shall automatically cancel the license theretofore issued.

Additional license for branch office

10387. If the applicant for a cemetery broker's license maintains more than one place of business within the State he shall apply for and procure an additional license for each branch office so maintained by him. Every such application shall state the name of the person and the location of the place of business for which such license is desired.

The commissioner may determine whether or not a broker is doing a cemetery brokerage business at or from any particular location which requires him to have a branch office license.

Display of sign

10388. Each cemetery broker shall erect and maintain a sign in a conspicuous place on the premises to indicate that he is a licensed cemetery broker and his name shall be clearly shown thereon. The size and place of the sign shall conform to regulations that may be adopted by the commissioner.

Penalties for violations

10389. For a violation of any of the provisions of Sections 10384, 10385, 10386, and 10388, the commissioner may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke the license of the cemetery licensee in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Article 3. Disciplinary Action

Revocation or suspension of licenses

10400. Upon grounds provided in this article and the other articles of this chapter, the license of any cemetery licensee may be revoked or suspended in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Revocation of licenses

10401. The commissioner may, upon his own motion, and shall, upon the verified complaint in writing of any person, investigate the actions of any person engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of a cemetery licensee, and he may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke a license at any time where the licensee, within the immediately preceding three years, while a cemetery licensee, in performing or attempting to perform any of the acts specified in this chapter, has been guilty of any of the following:

Causes for revocation

(a) Making any substantial misrepresentation.

(b) Making any false statement of a character likely to influence or persuade.

(c) A continued and flagrant course of misrepresentation or making of false promises through cemetery agents or salesmen.

(d) Acting for more than one party in a transaction without the knowledge or consent of all parties thereto.

(e) Commingling the money or other property of his principal with his own.

(f) Any other conduct, whether of the same or a different character than specified in this section, which constitutes fraud or dishonest dealing.

The misrepresentations and false statements mentioned in this section include also misrepresentation and false statements as to other property than that which the cemetery licensee may be selling or attempting to sell.

Additional causes for revocation

10402. The commissioner may suspend or revoke the license of any cemetery licensee who, within three years immediately preceding has done any of the following:

(a) Procured a cemetery license, for himself or any salesman, by fraud, misrepresentation or deceit.

(b) Been convicted of a felony, knowledge of which the commissioner did not have at the time of last issuing a cemetery license to him.

(c) Knowingly authorized, directed, connived at or aided in the publication, advertisement, distribution, or circulation of any material false statement or representation concerning his business or any cemetery property offered for sale.

(d) Wilfully disregarded or violated any of the provisions of this part relating to cemetery brokerage.

(e) Acted or conducted himself in a manner which would have warranted the denial of his application for a cemetery license, or for a renewal thereof.

Employer's statements

10403. When any salesman is discharged by his employer for a violation of any of the provisions of this article prescribing a ground for disciplinary action, a verified written statement of the facts with reference thereto shall be filed forthwith with the commissioner by the employer and, if the employer fails to notify the commissioner as required by this section, the commissioner may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke the cemetery license of the employer in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to hearings.

Effect upon corporations and partnerships

10404. The commissioner may deny, suspend or revoke the cemetery license of a corporation as to any officer or agent acting under its cemetery license, and the cemetery license of a copartnership as to any member acting under its cemetery license, without revoking the cemetery license of the corporation or of the copartnership.

Article 4. Fees

License fees

10420. The fee for all cemetery licenses at all periods of the fiscal year is the same as provided in this article. All cemetery license fees are payable in advance of issuing the licenses and all examination fees are payable before taking the examination. Except a temporary salesman's license, for which other provision is made, all licenses shall be issued for the fiscal year and shall expire on June 30th of each fiscal year at midnight.

Application of definitions

10421. The definitions contained in this article are solely for the purposes of this article.

Original cemetery broker's license

10422. An original cemetery broker's license is a cemetery license issued to a person who did not have a cemetery broker's license on June 30th of the fiscal year previous to the fiscal year for which the license is issued.

Renewal license

10423. A renewal cemetery broker's license is a cemetery license issued to a person who had a cemetery broker's license unrevoked and unsuspended on June 30th of the fiscal year previous to the fiscal year for which the renewal cemetery license is issued.

Original cemetery salesman's license

10424. An original cemetery salesman's license is a cemetery license issued to a person who did not have a cemetery salesman's or a broker's license either individually or as an officer of a corporation, or as a member of a copartnership, on June 30th of the fiscal year previous to the fiscal year for which the salesman's license is issued.

Renewal license

10425. A renewal cemetery salesman's license is a cemetery license issued to a person who had a cemetery salesman's or a broker's license either individually or as an officer of a corporation, or as a member of a copartnership, on June 30th of the fiscal year previous to the fiscal year for which the salesman's license is issued.

Fixing of fees

10426. The amount of the cemetery fees prescribed for a license under this chapter is that fixed by the following provisions of this article.

Broker's fees

10427. The original cemetery broker's license fee is five dollars ($5). The cemetery broker's examination fee is fifteen dollars ($15), which examination fee shall be paid for each examination taken by applicant.

Temporary broker's fee

10428. The additional temporary broker's license fee is five dollars ($5).

Renewal broker's fee

10429. For a renewal cemetery broker's license the annual fee is five dollars ($5).

Licenses for corporations

10430. If the licensee is a cemetery brokerage corporation, the renewal license issued to it entitles one officer only, on behalf of such corporation, to engage in the business of cemetery broker without the payment of further fee, such officer to be designated in the application of the corporation for a license. For each other officer of a licensed cemetery brokerage corporation, through whom it engages in the business of cemetery broker, the annual fee is two dollars ($2), in addition to the fee paid by the corporation.

Licenses for partnerships

10431. If the licensee is a cemetery brokerage copartnership, the license issued to it entitles one member only of the copartnership to engage on behalf of the copartnership in the business of cemetery broker, which member shall be designated in the application of the copartnership for a license. For each other member of the copartnership who on behalf of the copartnership engages in the business of cemetery broker, the annual fee is two dollars ($2) in addition to the fee paid by the copartnership.

Fees for salesman's license

10432. The original cemetery salesman's license fee is two dollars ($2). The cemetery salesman's examination fee is three dollars ($3), which examination fee shall be paid for each examination taken by an applicant.

Temporary salesman's fee

10433. The additional temporary salesman's license fee is two dollars ($2).

Renewal salesman's fee

10434. For a renewal cemetery salesman's license the annual fee is two dollars ($2).

Branch office fee

10435. For a branch office broker's license, the fee is one dollar ($1).

Change of name or address

10436. For change of name or of address of licensee on the records of the commissioner, the fee is one dollar ($1).

Transfer of salesman's license

10437. For transfer of a salesman's license on change of employer, the fee is one dollar ($1).

Duplicate license fee

10438. For a duplicate license the fee is one dollar ($1).

Reinstatement of license fee

10439. For reinstatement of a license within the fiscal year, the fee is one dollar ($1).

CHAPTER 6. REVENUE

Article 1. Real Estate Fund

Real Estate Fund

10450. All fees charged and collected under this part and under Chapter 1 of Part 2 shall be paid by the commissioner at least once a week, accompanied by a detailed statement thereof, into the Treasury of the State to the credit of the Real Estate Fund, which fund is continued in existence.

Use to which fund appropriated

10451. All money paid into the State Treasury and credited to the Real Estate Fund is hereby appropriated to be used by the commissioner in carrying out the provisions of this part and Chapter 1 of Part 2, including the payment of the salaries of the commissioner and his deputies, clerks and assistants. The money credited to the fund shall remain therein.

Warrants on fund

10452. The Controller shall draw his warrant on the fund from time to time in favor of the commissioner for the amounts expended under his direction, and the Treasurer shall pay the same.

Expenditures

10453. All of the expenditures of the commissioner, including his salary, shall be paid only from the Real Estate Fund.

Revolving fund

10454. The commissioner may, with the consent of the Department of Finance, withdraw from the Real Estate Fund moneys to be used as a revolving fund where cash advances are necessary. The commissioner shall account for the sum withdrawn from the revolving fund at any time upon demand of the Department of Finance. The commissioner semiannually shall certify under oath to the State Treasurer and Secretary of State the total amount of receipts and expenditures of his department for the six months preceding.

Reversion of funds

10455. All moneys in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) remaining in the State Treasury to the credit of the Real Estate Fund at noon on the thirtieth day of June of each year shall on or before the fifteenth day of the succeeding month be transferred from the Real Estate Fund to the General Fund of the State.

Article 2. Exemption from Fees

Military licensees

10460. As used in this article:

(a) "Military licensee" refers to all of the following:

(1) A person who, while licensed under the California Real Estate Act, entered the Military Service of the United States and notified the commissioner in accordance with the provisions of Section 10c of that act.

(2) A person who, while licensed under the Business Opportunity Act, entered the Military Service of the United States and notified the commissioner in accordance with the provisions of Section 9b of that act.

(3) A person who, while licensed under the Cemetery Brokerage Act, entered the Military Service of the United States and notified the commissioner in accordance with the provisions of Section 115 of that act.

(4) A person who, while licensed under the California Real Estate Act, the Business Opportunity Act or the Cemetery Brokerage Act entered the Military Service of the United States and notifies the commissioner of that fact under this article within two months of his entry.

(5) A person who, while licensed under this part, enters the Military Service of the United States and notifies the commissioner of that fact within two months of his entry.

(b) "Military service," "period of military service" and "person in the Military Service of the United States" have the meanings ascribed to them by Section 101 or the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940.

Renewal of license by military licensee

10461. A military licensee shall not be required for the period of military service to renew his license under this part. His license shall remain in full force and effect for the period of military service and until the termination of the license period during which his period of military service terminates. If his period of military service terminates during the last two months of the license period, no penalty shall attach for failure to file renewal application within the time required by law, and the time for filing his application shall be extended for two months after termination of the license period.

PART 2. REGULATION OF TRANSACTIONS

CHAPTER 1. SUBDIVIDED LANDS

Article 1. General Provisions

Definitions

11000. "Subdivided lands" and "subdivision" refer to land or lands divided or proposed to be divided for the purpose of sale or lease, whether immediate or future, into five or more lots or parcels.

Rules

11001. The Real Estate Commissioner (hereafter referred to in this chapter as the commissioner) may from time to time promulgate rules and regulations for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this chapter and he is authorized to issue any order, permit, decision, demand, or requirement to effect this purpose.

Liens existing Aug. 14, 1931

11002. No lien, encumbrance, option, contract or trust agreement existing on August 14, 1931, and no extension, renewal or refinancing of any such existing lien, encumbrance, option, contract or trust agreement shall be affected by any amendment to Section 20a of the California Real Estate Act by Chapter 601 of the Statutes of 1931 and any continuation of such amendments in this chapter.

Article 2. Investigation, Regulation and Report

Notify commissioner of subdivisions

11010. Prior to the time when subdivided lands are to be offered for sale or lease, the owner, his agent or subdivider shall notify the commissioner in writing of his intention to sell such offering.

The notice of intention shall contain the following information:

(a) The name and address of the owner.

(b) The name and address of the subdivider.

(c) The legal description and area of lands.

(d) A true statement of the condition of the title to the land, particularly including all encumbrances thereon.

(e) A true statement of the terms and conditions on which it is intended to dispose of the land, together with copies of any contracts intended to be used.

(f) Such other information as the owner, his agent, or subdivider, may desire to present.

Additional information and fee

11011. After receiving the notice of intention, the commissioner may require such additional information concerning the project as he deems necessary, for which purpose he may prepare a questionnaire for the owner, his agent or subdivider, to answer. A filing fee of fifty dollars ($50) shall accompany the answered questionnaire.

Notice of change in setup required

11012. It is unlawful for the owner, his agent, or subdivider, of the project, after it is submitted to the Real Estate Division, to materially change the setup of such offering without first notifying the Real Estate Division in writing of such intended change.

Encumbered lands

11013. In case the lands to be subdivided are subject to a lien or encumbrance securing or evidencing the payment of money other than taxes or assessments levied by public authority, or in case the interest of the owner, his agent, or subdivider, is held under option or contract of purchase or in trust, it is unlawful to sell any land in such subdivision unless provisions exist in such lien, encumbrance, option, contract or trust agreement, or in a valid supplementary agreement enabling the vendor to deliver title to each parcel sold free of the lien, encumbrance, option, contract or trust agreement, upon completion of all payments and performance of all the terms and provisions required to be made and performed, or either, by the vendee under the agreement of sale. Certified or verified copies of documents containing the required provisions shall be filed with the Real Estate Division prior to the sale of any part of the subdivision.

Expense of inspection

11014. The commissioner at the expense of the owner, his agent, or subdivider, may investigate any subdivision being offered for sale or lease in this State. The total cost of such examination shall be borne by the owner, his agent, or subdivider, of the project on the basis of actual costs to the Real Estate Division.

Out-of-State lands

11015. When an inspection is to be made of subdivided lands, situated outside the State of California, being offered for sale or lease in this State, the questionnaire shall be accompanied by the filing fee, together with an amount equivalent to five cents ($0.05) a mile for each mile going and returning, estimated by the commissioner to be traveled by railroad from Sacramento to the location of the project, and an amount estimated to be necessary to cover the additional expenses of such inspection, not to exceed ten dollars ($10) a day for each day consumed in the examination of the project.

Lands within State

11016. When an inspection is to be made of subdivided lands, situated within this State, being offered for sale or lease, and not to be used for residential or for business purposes, the questionnaire shall be accompanied by the filing fee, together with an amount estimated by the Real Estate Commissioner to be necessary to cover the actual expenses of such inspection, not to exceed ten dollars ($10) a day for each day consumed in the examination of the project. If the subdivided lands are situated in this State, and are to be offered for sale or lease for residential and for business purposes, or for either, the questionnaire shall be accompanied by the filing fee only.

Deposit of funds

11017. All fees and earned expense collected under this chapter shall be deposited in the Real Estate Fund under Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 4 of this code.

Public report

11018. When the Real Estate Division makes an examination of any subdivision, the commissioner shall make a public report of his findings thereon. He may publish the report.

Order prohibiting sale or lease

11019. An order prohibiting the sale and lease, or either, of the property in this State may be issued by the commissioner if the examination of the project shows that the sale or lease would constitute misrepresentation to or deceit or fraud of the purchasers of lots or parcels in the subdivision.

Hearing on order of prohibition

Before such order of prohibition shall be issued by the commissioner, a hearing shall be held by the Real Estate Division, and the same procedure shall be followed as provided in Article 3 of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 4 of this code. An order of the commissioner is subject to judicial review in accordance with law.

Penalties for violations of provisions of chapter

11020. Every officer, agent or employee of any company, and every other person who knowingly authorizes, directs or aids in the publication, advertisement, distribution or circularization of any false statement or representation concerning any land, or subdivision thereof offered for sale or lease, and every person who, with knowledge that any advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus or letter concerning any said land or subdivision contains any written statement that is false or fraudulent, issues, circulates, publishes or distributes the same, or shall cause the same to be issued, circulated, published or distributed, or who, in any other respect, wilfully violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter, or who in any other respect wilfully violates or fails, omits or neglects to obey, observe or comply with any order, permit, decision, demand or requirement of the commissioner under this chapter, is guilty of a public offense, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed two years, or by a fine of not to exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000), and, if a real estate licensee, he shall be held to trial by the commissioner for a suspension or revocation of his license, as provided in Article 3 of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 4 of this code. The district attorney of each county in this State shall prosecute all violations of the provisions of this chapter in respective counties in which the violations occur.

Duty of district attorneys

SEC. 2. Section 30042 is added to said code, to read:

Acts repealed

30042. The following acts, together with all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, are hereby repealed:

General Laws

Stats 1939, p 1274, amended

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 2, comprising Sections 11500 to 11628, is added to Part 2 of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

New chapter

CHAPTER 2. SUBDIVISION MAPS

Article 1. General Provisions

11500. This chapter may be cited as the Subdivision Map Act.

Short title

11501. The definitions in this article apply to the provisions of this chapter only and do not affect any other provisions of this code.

Limitation of definitions

11502. "County surveyor" includes county engineer, if there is no county surveyor.

"County surveyor"

11503. "Tentative map" refers to a map made for the purpose of showing the design of a proposed subdivision and the existing conditions in and around it and need not be based upon an accurate or detailed final survey of the property.

"Tentative map"

11504. "Final map" refers to a map prepared in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and those of any applicable local ordinance, which map is designed to be placed on record in the office of the county recorder of the county in which any part of the subdivision is located.

11505. "Record of survey map" refers to a map prepared as provided in this chapter and conforming to the provisions of Chapter 15 of Division 3 of this code.

"Record of survey map"

11506. "Local ordinance" refers to an ordinance regulating the design and improvement of subdivisions, enacted by the governing body of any city or county under the provisions of this chapter or any prior statute, regulating the design and improvement of subdivisions, in so far as the provisions of the ordinance are consistent with and not in conflict with the provisions of this chapter.

"Local ordinance"

"Subdivision" 11507. "Subdivision" refers to any land or portion thereof subject to the provisions of this chapter. See Section 11535.

"Subdivider" 11508. "Subdivider" refers to a person, firm, corporation, partnership or association who causes land to be divided into a subdivision for himself or for others.

"Advisory agency" 11509. "Advisory agency" refers to an official or an official body designated by a local ordinance and charged thereby with the duty of making investigations and reports on the design and improvement of proposed subdivisions.

"Design" 11510. "Design" refers to street alignment, grades and widths, alignment and widths of easements and right of ways for drainage and sanitary sewers and minimum lot area and width.

"Improvement" 11511. "Improvement" refers to only such street work and utilities to be installed, or agreed to be installed, by the subdivider on the land dedicated or to be dedicated for streets, highways, public ways, and easements, as are necessary for the general use of the lot owners in the subdivision and local neighborhood traffic and drainage needs, as a condition precedent to the approval and acceptance of the final map thereof.

Article 2. Administration

Control of design and improvement of land subdivisions 11525. Control of the design and improvement of subdivisions is vested in the governing bodies of cities and of counties but, in all matters concerning such design and improvement, any decision by a governing body is subject to review as to its reasonableness by the superior court in and for the county in which the land is situated.

Superior court proceedings Any subdivider or person claiming to be aggrieved by the decision of a governing body may within 90 days after the rendering of the decision bring a special proceeding in the superior court to determine the reasonableness of the decision. The proceeding shall take precedence over all matters upon the calendar of the court, criminal, probate, eminent domain and forcible entry and unlawful detainer proceedings excepted.

Governing provisions 11526. The design, improvement and survey data of subdivisions and the form and content of tentative, record of survey and final maps thereof, and the procedure to be followed in securing official approval are governed by the provisions of this chapter and by the additional provisions of local ordinances dealing with subdivisions, the enactment of which is authorized by this chapter.

Jurisdiction of governing body 11527. The governing body of a county has jurisdiction only to approve the map of a subdivision, or such part thereof, as may lie within unincorporated area, and the governing body of a city has jurisdiction only to approve a map of a subdivision, or such part thereof, as may lie within the incorporated area of the city.

Subdivisions outside territorial boundaries 11528. The legislative body of any city or county which desires to inspect and make recommendations concerning the map or maps of proposed subdivisions adjacent to but outside of its jurisdictional boundary line, may file with the clerk of the governing body or the advisory agency of any adjoining city or county having jurisdiction, a map or an amended map of territory within such second mentioned city or county in which territory it is interested in proposed subdivisions. The territory may not extend a distance of more than three miles from the common boundary line of the cities or counties.

Receipt and transmission of map

The clerk of the governing body or the advisory agency of the city or county having jurisdiction shall issue a receipt for the territorial map and thereafter shall transmit to the official designated by the requesting city or county, within three days after the receipt thereof, one copy of each tentative map of any subdivision located wholly or partly within the territory outlined on the territorial map.

Recommendations

Any requesting city or county, which receives a copy of a tentative map, shall make its recommendations, if any, to the clerk of the governing body or advisory agency from which the tentative map was received within 15 days after receipt thereof. The recommendations shall be taken into consideration by the governing body or advisory agency of the city or county having jurisdiction before action is taken upon the tentative map.

Certificate required

11529. The county surveyor or city engineer shall make such detailed examination of final maps and record of survey maps and such field check, if any, as may be necessary to enable him to make the certificate required by subsection (c) of Section 11576 and by Section 11593. Local ordinances may provide a proper and reasonable fee to be collected from the subdivider for such examination.

Recordation of certified copy of ordinance

11530. A certified copy of each local ordinance and amendments thereto shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder.

See also Stats 1943, Ch 668

Article 3. Scope of Regulation

"Subdivision"

11535. (a) "Subdivision" refers to any land or portion thereof, shown on the last preceding tax roll as a unit or as contiguous units, which is divided for the purpose of sale, whether immediate or future, by any subdivider into five or more parcels within any one-year period.

Exemptions

(b) "Subdivision" does not include either of the following:

(1) Any parcel or parcels of land in which all of the following conditions are present: (i) which contain less than five acres, (ii) which abut upon dedicated streets or highways, (iii) in which street opening or widening is not required by the governing body in dividing the land into lots or parcels, and (iv) the lot design meets the approval of the governing body.

(2) Any parcel or parcels of land divided into lots or parcels, each of a net area of two and one-half acres or more, a tentative map of which has been submitted to the governing body and has been approved by it as to street alignment and widths, drainage provisions and lot design.

(c) In either case provided in subsection (b) of this section, there shall be filed a record of survey map pursuant only to the provisions of Chapter 15 of Division 3 of this code.

Permissible recording

11536. Nothing contained in this chapter prevents the recording under the provisions of this chapter and any applicable local ordinances of a final map of any land not defined as a subdivision.

Scope of chapter

11537. (a) This chapter does not prohibit the filing of a map in accordance with (i) the provisions of Chapter 3 of this part and the use thereof for purposes therein provided or (ii) the provisions of any act requiring the filing of licensed surveyor's or registered civil engineer's records of surveys.

Previously subdivided acreage land, etc

(b) A final map may be recorded under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of showing as acreage land previously subdivided into parcels or lots or blocks, and a map may likewise be recorded if it does not divide into two or more taxable parcels any parcel of land which is described as a unit on the latest adopted county tax roll. In either of the cases mentioned in this subsection, if sufficient recorded data exist from which an accurate map may be compiled, there need not be a certificate by a surveyor or engineer.

Tax bond not required

(c) A tax bond shall not be required in any of the cases covered by this section.

Recordation or filing of map prior to sale

11538. (a) It is unlawful for any person to offer to sell, to contract to sell or to sell any subdivision or any part thereof until a final map or record of survey map thereof in full compliance with the provisions of this chapter and any local ordinance has been duly recorded or filed in the office of the recorder of the county in which any portion of the subdivision is located.

Exceptions

(b) Subsection (a) does not apply to any parcel or parcels of a subdivision offered for sale, contracted for sale or sold in compliance with or exempt from any law (including a local ordinance), regulating the design and improvement of subdivisions in effect at the time the subdivision was established.

Restriction on conveyance

11539. Conveyances of any part of a subdivision shall not be made by lot or block number, initial or other designation, unless and until a final map has been recorded.

Voidable contracts, etc

11540. Any sale or contract to sell made contrary to the provisions of this chapter is voidable at the sole option of the buyer or person contracting to purchase, his heirs, personal representative, or trustee in insolvency or bankruptcy within one year after the date of execution of the sale or contract to sell, but the sale or contract to sell is binding upon any assignee or transferee of the buyer or person contracting to purchase, other than those above enumerated, and upon the vendor, or person contracting to sell, or his assignee, heir or devisee.

Penalties

11541. Any offer to sell, contract to sell or sale contrary to the provisions of this chapter is a misdemeanor, and any person, firm, or corporation, upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars

($25) and not more than five hundred dollars ($500), or imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Civil remedies not barred

11542. This chapter does not bar any legal, equitable, or summary remedy to which any aggrieved municipality or other political subdivision, or any person, firm or corporation may otherwise be entitled, and any such municipality or other political subdivision or person, firm or corporation may file a suit in the superior court of the county in which any property attempted to be subdivided or sold in violation of this chapter is located, to restrain or enjoin any attempted or proposed subdivision or sale in violation of this chapter.

Article 4. Tentative Maps

Preparation and filing of tentative maps

11550. The initial action in connection with the making of any subdivision shall be the preparation of a tentative map or maps which shall show, or be accompanied by, such data as are specified in the local ordinance in addition to the data specified by the provisions of this chapter.

The subdivider shall file copies of the tentative map or maps with the advisory agency or with the clerk of the governing body if there is no advisory agency.

The official with whom the tentative map or maps are filed shall comply with the provisions of Section 11528 with respect to the request of any adjoining city or county.

Compliance with local requirements

See also Stats 1943, Ch 668

11551. In case there is a local ordinance, the subdivider shall comply with its provisions before the map or maps of a subdivision may be approved. In case there is no local ordinance, the governing body may, as a condition precedent to the approval of the map or maps of a subdivision, require streets and drainage ways properly located and of adequate width, but may make no other requirements.

Approval or disapproval of tentative maps

11552. If there is no advisory agency, the clerk of the governing body shall submit the tentative map to the governing body at its next regular meeting, which shall act thereon within 40 days thereafter.

If there is an advisory agency, it shall report on the map or maps of any subdivision submitted to it within 30 days after the tentative map has been filed and the report shall approve, conditionally approve or disapprove the map or maps of the subdivision.

The governing body may authorize the advisory agency to report its action direct to the subdivider. If the governing body does not so authorize the advisory agency, the advisory agency shall make its report to the governing body, which body shall act upon the report within 10 days or at its next succeeding regular meeting after receipt of the report.

Appeal to legislative body

If the subdivider is dissatisfied with any action of the advisory agency he may, within 15 days after such action, appeal to the governing body. The governing body shall hear the appeal, unless the subdivider consents to a continuance, within 10 days or at its next succeeding regular meeting.

The governing body may, by a majority vote of its members, overrule any ruling of the advisory agency in regard to the tentative map and may make such findings as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter or local ordinance adopted pursuant to this chapter.

Failure to act, etc

11553. The time limits for acting and reporting on tentative maps as specified in this article may be extended by mutual consent of the subdivider and the governing body or advisory agency as the case may be.

If no action is taken within these time limits, the tentative map as filed shall be deemed to be approved and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the governing body to certify the approval.

Preparation of final map or sale
See also Stats 1943, Ch 668

11554. Within one year after approval or conditional approval of the tentative map or maps, the subdivider may cause the subdivision, or any part thereof, to be surveyed and a final map to be prepared in accordance with the tentative map as approved, or he may proceed with the sale by metes and bounds or other similar definite description of the parcels or parts thereof as shown on an approved record of survey map.

Failure to record map
See also Stats 1943, Ch 668

11555. Any failure to record a final map or to file a record of survey map within one year from the approval or conditional approval of the tentative map shall terminate all proceedings. Before a final map may thereafter be recorded, approved record of survey map filed or any sales made, a new tentative map shall be submitted.

Article 5. Final Maps

Election to record final map

11565. In case the subdivider desires to record a final map under the provisions of this chapter, he shall comply with all the provisions of the chapter, and, if there is a local ordinance, with all of its provisions.

Survey and final map

11566. The survey and final map shall be made by a registered civil engineer or licensed surveyor who shall set sufficient durable monuments so that another engineer or surveyor may readily retrace the survey. Monuments need not be set at the time the survey is made if a satisfactory assurance is given of their being set later.

Form of final map

11567. The final map shall conform to all of the following provisions:

(a) It shall be clearly and legibly drawn in black waterproof India ink upon good tracing cloth, but affidavits, certificates and acknowledgments may be legibly stamped or printed upon the map with opaque ink.

(b) The size of each sheet shall be 18 by 26 inches. A marginal line shall be drawn completely around each sheet, leaving an entirely blank margin of one inch. The scale of the map shall be large enough to show all details clearly and enough sheets shall be used to accomplish this end. The particular number of the sheet and the total number of sheets comprising the map shall be stated on each of the sheets, and its relation to each adjoining sheet shall be clearly shown.

(c) It shall show all survey and mathematical information and data necessary to locate all monuments and to locate and retrace any and all interior and exterior boundary lines appearing thereon, including bearings and distances of straight lines, and radii and arc length for all curves, and such information as may be necessary to determine the location of the centers of curves.

(d) Each lot shall be numbered and each block may be numbered or lettered. Each street shall be named.

(e) The exterior boundary of the land included within the subdivision shall be indicated by colored border. The map shall show the definite location of the subdivision, and particularly its relation to surrounding surveys.

(f) It shall also satisfy any additional survey and map requirements of the local ordinance.

Article 6. Record of Survey

Filing record of survey map

11575. If the subdivider does not elect to prepare and record a final map, then before proceeding with the sale of any part of the subdivision, he shall file, in the office of the county recorder, a record of survey map conforming, in respect to design, to the approved tentative map or maps.

In this event, the governing body may require only such street grading and surfacing and drainage provisions reasonably necessary for lot access and local neighborhood traffic and drainage needs.

The construction of any of these improvements may be accomplished as provided in Article 9.

Certificates on record of survey map

11576. The following certificates shall appear on a record of survey map:

(a) A certificate for execution by the clerk of each approving governing body stating that the body approved the map for subdivision purposes in accordance with the conditional approval of the tentative map.

(b) A certificate by the engineer or surveyor responsible for the survey giving the date of the survey and stating that the survey was made by him or under his direction and setting forth the name of the owner who authorized him to make the survey and that the survey is true and complete as shown. This certificate shall also state that the monuments are of the character and occupy the positions indicated or that they will be set in such positions and at such time as is agreed upon under Section 11566. This certificate shall also state that the monuments are or will be sufficient to enable the survey to be retraced.

(c) A certificate or certificates of the county suveyor or city engineer relating to the examination of the map such as is required in the case of a final map.

Article 7. Certificates and Acknowledgments on Final Maps

Certificates and acknowledgments on final map

11585. The certificates and acknowledgments for which provision is made in this article shall appear on the final map and may be combined where appropriate.

Liens

11586. A lien for State, county, municipal or local taxes and for special assessments or beneficial interest under trust deeds or trust interest under bond indentures, does not constitute an interest in land for the purpose of this article.

Omission of signatures

11587. Signatures required by this article, of parties owning the following types of interests, may be omitted if their names and the nature of their respective interests are indorsed on the map:

(a) Rights of way, easements or other interests, none of which can ripen into a fee and which signatures are not required by the governing body.

(b) Rights of way, easements or reversions, which by reason of changed conditions, long disuse or laches appear to be no longer of practical use or value and which signatures it is impossible or impractical to obtain. In this case a reasonable statement of the circumstances preventing the procurement of the signatures shall also be indorsed on the map.

Recording of maps without consent

11588. Any map including territory originally patented by the United States or the State of California, under patent reserving interest to either or both of these entities, may be recorded under the provisions of this chapter without the consent of the United States or the State of California thereto or to dedications made thereon.

Consent to preparation and recording by interested parties

11589. A certificate, signed and acknowledged by all parties having any record title interest in the land subdivided, consenting to the preparation and recordation of the final map is required.

Dedication requires certificate

11590. In event of dedication, there is required a certificate, signed and acknowledged by those parties having any record title interest in the land subdivided, offering certain parcels of land for dedication for certain specified public uses, subject to such reservations as may be contained in any such offer.

The certificate may state that any certain parcel or parcels are not offered for dedications. However, a local ordinance may require as a condition precedent to the approval of any final map that any or all of the parcels of land shown thereon and intended for any public use shall be offered for dedication for public use except those parcels, other than streets, intended for the exclusive use of the lot owners in the subdivision, their licensees, visitors, tenants and servants.

Certificate by approving governing bodies

11591. There is required a certificate for execution by the clerk of each approving governing body stating that the body approved the map and accepted or rejected on behalf of the public any parcels of land offered for dedication for public use in conformity with the terms of the offer of dedication.

Certificate by one responsible for survey and final map

11592. A certificate by the engineer or surveyor responsible for the survey and final map is required. His certificate shall give the date of the survey and state that the survey was made by him or under his direction and that the survey is true and complete as shown.

The certificate shall also state that the monuments are of the character and occupy the positions indicated, or that they will be set in such positions and at such time as is agreed upon under Section 11566. The certificate shall also state that the monuments are or will be sufficient to enable the survey to be retraced.

Certificate by county surveyor or city engineer

See also Stats 1943, Ch 668

11593. (a) If a subdivision lies within an unincorporated area, a certificate by the county surveyor and, if a subdivision lies within a city, a certificate by the city engineer is required. The appropriate official shall state that:

(1) He has examined the map.

(2) The subdivision as shown is substantially the same as it appeared on the tentative map, and any approved alterations thereof.

(3) All provisions of this chapter and of any local ordinance applicable at the time of approval of the tentative map have been complied with.

(4) He is satisfied that the map is technically correct.

(b) Upon mutual agreement between the county surveyor and any city engineer, with the approval of their respective governing bodies, the county surveyor may perform any or all of the duties assigned to the city engineer, including the required certification. Whenever such duties are divided between the county surveyor and the city engineer, each officer shall certify to the duties performed by him.

Article 8. Taxes and Assessments

Certificate of official computing redemptions, etc.

11600. Prior to the filing of the final map with the governing body, the subdivider shall file with the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county, in which any part of the subdivision is located, a certificate from the official computing redemptions in any county or any municipal corporation in which any part of the subdivision is located, showing that, according to the records of his office, there are no liens against the subdivision or any part thereof for unpaid State, county, municipal or local taxes or special assessments collected as taxes, except taxes or special assessments not yet payable.

As to taxes or special assessments collected as taxes not yet payable, the subdivider shall file with the clerk of the board of supervisors mentioned, a certificate by each proper officer giving his estimate of the amount of taxes and assessments which are a lien but which are not yet payable.

Bond or deposit to secure payment of taxes

11601. Whenever any part of the subdivision is subject to a lien for taxes or special assessments collected as taxes which are not yet payable, the final map shall not be recorded until the owner or subdivider executes and files with the board of supervisors of the county wherein any part of the subdivision is located, a good and sufficient bond to be approved by the board and by its terms made to inure to the benefit of the county and conditioned upon the payment of all State, county, municipal and local taxes and all special assessments collected as taxes, which at the time the final map is recorded are a lien against the property, but which are not yet payable. In lieu of a bond, a deposit may be made of money or negotiable bonds in the same amount, and of the kind approved for securing deposits of public money.

Bond where portion of larger parcel

11602. If the land being subdivided is a portion of a larger parcel shown on the last preceding tax roll as a unit, the bond or deposit for payment of taxes need be only for such sum as may be determined by the board of supervisors to be sufficient to pay the taxes on the land being subdivided, together with all accrued penalties and costs if such taxes are allowed to become delinquent.

Redemption of portion of larger parcel

If the land being subdivided is sold for taxes it may be redeemed from such sale without the redemption of the remainder of the larger parcel of which it is a part pursuant to the provisions of the Revenue and Taxation Code as if it were held in ownership separate from and other than the ownership of the remainder.

Security for payment of special assessments

11603. Whenever land subject to a special assessment or bond which may be paid in full, is divided by the line of a lot or parcel of the subdivision, such assessment or bond shall be paid in full or a bond filed with the board of supervisors in all respects similar to that provided in this article, payable to the county as trustee for the assessment bondholders for the payment of such special assessments.

Recovery on bond

11604. If the taxes or special assessments secured by bond or deposit are allowed to become delinquent, the county shall recover from the surety the principal sum of the bond without proof of loss.

The clerk of the board of supervisors shall apply the sum received in payment of any or all of such taxes or special assessments, including penalties and costs, if any, accruing thereto, to the proper State, county, municipal or district officers, for the satisfaction of the tax and special assessment liens, and shall pay the balance, if any, over to the surety.

Sale of securities

11605. In the event that a deposit of money or negotiable bonds has been made with the clerk of the board in lieu of a bond required by this article, the clerk shall, subject only to such rules as the board of supervisors may in its discretion provide, dispose of the negotiable bonds, if any, and apply the proceeds thereof, and any money deposited with him, to the payment of the taxes and special assessments including penalties and costs in the same manner provided when a bond has been executed. In the event the clerk of the board, as a result of this section, has funds in his possession and can not locate the owner thereof, he shall deposit the same in the county treasury for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto.

Article 9. Final Approvals

Filing of final map for approval

11610. When all the certificates which appear on the final map (except the approval certificate of the governing body) have been signed and, where necessary, acknowledged, the final map may be filed for approval.

If the subdivision lies entirely within the territory of a city, then the filing shall be with the governing body of that city; if entirely within the unincorporated area of a county, then with the governing body of the county; and if partially within two or more of such territories then with the governing body of each, and in the latter case each body shall act thereon as provided in this article.

Approval of final map

11611. The governing body shall at its next meeting or within a period of not more than 10 days after the filing approve the map if it conforms to all the requirements of this chapter and of any local ordinance applicable at the time of approval of the tentative map, or any rulings made thereunder.

The governing body shall at that time also accept or reject any or all offers of dedication and may, as a condition precedent to the acceptance of any streets or easements, require that the subdivider, at his option, either improve or agree to improve the streets or easements.

Agreement to improve streets. Bond See also Stats 1943, Ch 668

11612. In the event an agreement for the improvement of the streets or easements is entered into, the governing body may require that the agreement shall be secured by a good and sufficient bond in an amount not in excess of the estimated cost of the improvement. However, the subdivider, at his option, in lieu of the agreement to construct improvements, and the bond to secure it, may enter into a contract with the governing body, secured by a faithful performance bond, if required by the governing body, in an amount not to exceed the estimated cost of the improvement, by which he agrees, within such time as may be provided in the contract, to initiate and to consummate proceedings under an appropriate special assessment act for the formation of a special assessment district covering the subdivision or part thereof, for the financing and construction of designated improvements upon the streets or easements dedicated by the map.

Deposit in lieu of bond

11613. In lieu of any bond, a deposit may be made, either with the proper governing body or a responsible escrow agent or trust company, subject to the approval of the governing body, of money or negotiable bonds of the kind approved for securing deposits of public money.

Approval and recordation of final map

11614. Upon the execution by the subdivider, of either one of the agreements or contracts and the posting of the required bond, or the deposit of the required money or negotiable bonds, the map of such subdivision shall forthwith be approved and accepted for recordation.

Title to dedicated property

11615. Title to property the dedication of which is accepted shall not pass until the final map is duly recorded under the provisions of this chapter.

Offer of dedication

11616. If at the time the final map is approved any streets are rejected, the offer of dedication shall remain open and the governing body may by resolution at any later date, and without further action by the subdivider, rescind its action and accept and open the streets for public use, which acceptance shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder.

If a resubdivision or reversion to acreage of the tract is subsequently filed for approval, any offer of dedication previously rejected shall be deemed to be terminated upon the approval of the map by the governing body.

Transmission of map to board of supervisors and county recorder

11617. If the subdivision lies within a city, subsequent to the approval of the final map by the governing body of the city, the clerk of the governing body of the city shall thereupon transmit the map to the clerk of the county board of supervisors. When all bonds, money or negotiable bonds required under the provisions of this chapter to secure the payment of taxes and assessments which are a lien on some part of the subdivision but which are not yet payable, have been deposited with and approved by the board of supervisors, the clerk of the board shall transmit the final map to the county recorder.

If the subdivision lies within unincorporated territory, then when the map has been approved and the bonds, money or negotiable bonds have been deposited and approved, the clerk of the board of supervisors shall transmit the map to the recorder.

In either case the clerk of the board of supervisors shall certify to the recorder that the provisions of this chapter have been complied with regarding deposits.

Article 10. Recording

Evidence of parties

11625. The subdivider shall present to the recorder evidence that, upon the date of recording, as shown by public records, the parties consenting to the recordation of the map are all the parties having a record title interest in the land subdivided whose signatures are required by the provisions of Article 7, otherwise the map shall not be recorded.

Acceptance of final map for recording

11626. Except as provided in Section 11537, no final map of a subdivision shall be accepted by the county recorder for record unless there has been a compliance with all provisions of this chapter and of any local ordinance.

The recorder may have not more than 10 days to examine the final map before accepting or refusing it for recordation.

Final determination of validity of map

11627. The approval in accordance with the provisions of this chapter by the appropriate governing body or bodies, and the recordation of the final map or the filing of a record of survey map shall automatically and finally determine the validity of the map, so far as the property thereon shown is included within such city, or county, under the terms and provisions of this chapter and local ordinances.

Public record

11628. When any final map is presented to the county recorder and is accepted by him, he shall so certify on the face thereof and shall fasten the same securely in a book of maps of subdivisions or of cities and towns which he shall keep in his office. Upon acceptance by the recorder, the final map shall be a public record.

The county recorder shall also keep a separate indexed book of local ordinances relating to subdivisions.

SEC. 2. Chapter 3, comprising Sections 11650 to 11658, is added to Part 2 of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code, to read: New chapter

CHAPTER 3. OFFICIAL MAPS

11650. This chapter applies to all counties and, whether incorporated or not, to all cities, towns and villages in this State. Application of chapter

11651. As used in this chapter: Definitions

(a) "City council or board of supervisors" includes the proper corresponding governing board and authority in each place where the chapter applies.

(b) "City engineer" and "county surveyor" includes the like or corresponding officer, subject to the direction of the corresponding governing board and authority in each place where the chapter applies.

(c) If there is no city engineer or county surveyor subject to such direction, the corresponding board and authority may employ competent engineers and surveyors to the extent necessary for the carrying out of the purposes of this chapter in the places subject to its jurisdiction, and the persons so appointed shall have the same authority and shall perform the same duties as are given to and enjoined upon city engineers and county surveyors, respectively, in like cases. The services of engineers and surveyors so employed shall be contracted for, examined, passed upon, audited and paid as are other debts contracted by such governing boards and authorities.

11652. Whenever any city, town or subdivision of land is platted or divided into lots or blocks, and whenever any addition to any city, town or subdivision is laid out into lots or blocks for the purpose of sale or transfer, the city engineer or the county surveyor, under the direction and with the approval of the city council or board of supervisors, may make an official map of the city, town or subdivision, giving to each block on the map a number, and to each lot or subdivision in the block a separate number or letter, and giving names to such streets, avenues, lanes, courts, commons or parks, as may be delineated on the official map. Official map of additions to city

11653. The engineer or surveyor, under the direction and with the approval of the city council or board of supervisors, may compile the map from maps on file, or may resurvey or renumber the blocks, or renumber or reletter the lots in the blocks, or change the names of streets. Compilation of maps

11654. Each and every map made and adopted under this chapter shall be certified under the hands of a majority of the members and the presiding officer and secretary and Maps to be certified official seal, if any, of the authority adopting the same. The certificate shall set forth in full the resolution adopting the map, with the date of adoption.

Maps to be filed with recorder

11655. The map, so certified, shall be forthwith filed in the office of the county recorder of the county wherein the platted lands are situate. The recorder shall immediately securely fasten and bind each map so filed in one of a series of firmly bound books to be provided, together with the proper indexes thereof and appropriately marked for the reception of the maps provided for in this chapter.

Official map

11656. The map shall become an official map for all the purposes of this chapter when certified, filed and bound, but not before.

Description of lot by map reference

11657. Whenever the city council or board of supervisors adopts a map prepared under this chapter as the official map of the subdivision, town, city or county, it shall be lawful and sufficient to describe the lots or blocks in any deeds, conveyances, contracts, or obligations affecting any of the lots or blocks as designated on the official map, a reference sufficient for the identification of the map being coupled with the description.

Surveys and field notes

11658. All surveys and the field notes thereof made by any engineer or surveyor, under the provisions of this chapter, or in surveying officially any lots or parcels of land in any city, town or county for the purposes of any map under this chapter, shall be filed in the office of the surveyor or engineer, as the case may be, and shall become a part of the public records of the city, town or county.

SECTION 1. Chapter 8, comprising Sections 6850 to 6955, is added to Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 8. COLLECTION AGENCIES

Article 1. General Provisions

6850. The following terms as used in this chapter have the meanings expressed in this article.

"Person"

6851. "Person" includes firm, partnership, association or corporation.

"Collection agency"

6852. "Collection agency" means and includes all persons engaging, directly or indirectly and as a primary or secondary object, business or pursuit, in soliciting claims for collection or in the collection of claims owed or due or asserted to be owed or due to another. Any person, when engaged in collecting claims for another, where the employment is for one or more persons, is engaged as a collection agency.

Person using fictitious name for collection

6853. Any person using a fictitious name in collecting its own claims with the intention of conveying to the debtor that a third party has been employed and any person, who sells, or offers to sell, forms represented to be a collection system, scheme, or device, intended or calculated to be used to collect claims is a collection agency and is subject to the provisions of this chapter.

Exemptions See also Stats 1943, Ch 549

6854. "Collection agency" does not include any of the following unless they are conducting collection agencies:

(a) Attorneys at law.

(b) Persons regularly employed on a regular wage or salary, in the capacity of credit men or in similar capacity, except as an independent contractor.

(c) Banks.

(d) Common carriers.

(e) Abstract companies, while doing an escrow business.

(f) Duly licensed real estate brokers or agents doing a real estate business.

(g) Merchant-owned nonprofit credit associations.

"Claim" 6855. "Claim" means any obligation for the payment of money or its equivalent and any sum or sums owed or due or asserted to be owed or due to another, for which any person may be employed to demand payment and to collect or enforce payment thereof.

"Customer" 6856. "Customer" means any person authorizing or employing a collection agency for any of the purposes permitted or authorized by this chapter.

"Superintendent" 6857. (a) "Superintendent" refers to the Superintendent of Collection Agencies.

"Board" (b) "Board" refers to the Examining Board.

Article 2. Administration

Administration of chapter 6860. The administration of this chapter is vested in the office of the Secretary of State as set forth in this chapter.

Superintendent of collection agencies 6861. The Secretary of State shall appoint one Superintendent of Collection Agencies whose duties are provided in this chapter, and whose salary may be fixed by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Director of Finance.

Employees The Secretary of State shall appoint such clerical, expert, technical and other assistants as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and one or more assistants to the superintendent who may perform the duties delegated to the superintendent under the supervision of the superintendent.

Collection Agency Fund All personnel shall be paid for services rendered from the Collection Agency Fund.

Qualifications of superintendent 6862. The superintendent shall be a resident of the State for a period of not less than five years immediately preceding the date of appointment and he shall have had at least five years actual collection agency experience in this State immediately preceding the date of appointment.

Duties of superintendent 6863. The superintendent shall discover violations of this chapter by persons engaged in business as collection agencies who fail to obtain licenses and shall gather evidence of violations and furnish the same to prosecuting officers of any county or city for the purpose of prosecuting all violations of this chapter occurring within their jurisdiction.

The superintendent, for the purpose of discovering violations of this chapter, shall investigate the business and examine the books, accounts, records and files used therein by the licensee and for such purpose the superintendent shall have free access to the offices and places of business, books, accounts, records, papers, files, safes and vaults of all licensees.

Examining board 6864. The Secretary of State may constitute and appoint an examining board of three members.

The board may examine all applicants and certify the names of those applicants who fulfill the requirements of Article 5 and successfully pass the examination.

The superintendent shall act as secretary of the board.

Membership requirement

6865. One of the members of the board shall be a licensee and shall have had at least five years actual collection experience in this State immediately preceding the date of appointment.

Term of office

The members of the board shall be appointed for a period of three years, except that an appointment to fill a vacancy shall be for the unexpired term only. The terms of the members of the board in office when this chapter takes effect shall expire in the order heretofore determined. Each member shall serve until his successor has been appointed and qualified.

Expenses

No member of the board shall receive any other compensation than his necessary expenses connected with the performance of his duties as a member of the board, which expenses shall be paid out of the Collection Agency Fund.

Rules and regulations: Enforcement

6866. The Secretary of State may establish and enforce such rules and regulations as may be reasonable or necessary for the examination and licensing of applicants, for the conduct of licensees and for the general enforcement of the various provisions of this chapter in the protection of the public. All rules shall be printed, published and issued by the Secretary of State.

Revocation of license

The wilful violation of any rules and regulations established by the Secretary of State for the conduct of licensees is sufficient ground for revocation of the license of a licensee after hearing and determination as provided in this chapter.

Record of applications and bonds

6867. The Secretary of State shall keep in his office in a suitable record provided for the purpose all applications for licenses, accompanying certificates, statements and documents and all bonds required to be filed under this chapter. The record shall state whether or not a license has been issued under the application and bond, and if revoked the date of filing the order of revocation, and if reinstated the date of filing the order of reinstatement. The Secretary of State shall keep a list of all persons, whose licenses have been revoked. In the record all licenses issued shall be indicated by their serial numbers as well as by the name and address of the licensee. The record shall be open for inspection as a public record in the office of the Secretary of State.

Article 3. Scope of Chapter

Collection agencies to be licensed

6870. No person shall conduct within this State a collection agency or engage within the State in the business of collecting claims for others, or of soliciting the right to collect or receive payment for another of any claim, or advertise, or solicit, either in print, by letter, in person or otherwise, the right to collect or receive payment for another of any claim, or seek to make collection or obtain payment of any claim on behalf of another without having first applied for and obtained a license.

Penalty

6871. In addition to any other penalty, any person, firm, corporation or voluntary association, or any officer or director of any corporation or association carrying on business as a collection agency without first having obtained from the Secretary of State a license or who carries on such business after the revocation or expiration of any license is guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment not exceeding six months or by both fine and imprisonment.

Prosecuting officer

The prosecuting officer of any county or city shall prosecute all violations of this chapter occurring within his county.

Practice of law

6872. Nothing in this chapter authorizes or empowers a collection agency to practice law either directly or indirectly.

Suit on assigned claim

No collection agency shall bring a suit on any claim assigned to it in its own name as the real party in interest in any court unless it appears by a duly authorized and licensed attorney at law; nor shall any appearance be made in any court by a collection agency unless made by a duly authorized and licensed attorney at law.

Article 4. Applications for License

Application for license

6875. Application for a license shall be made in writing to the Secretary of State in such form as may be required by him.

Subject to the provisions of this chapter, any application for a license may be made by any person who has passed the examination.

Statements in application

6876. The application shall state, among other things that may be required, the name of applicant together with the name under which the applicant expects to do business, and the location by street and number, city and State of the office of the business for which the license is sought.

The application shall also state in the case of an individual, the full residence address of the applicant, including street and number, city and State; in the case of a partnership, the full name and residence address of all partners and, in the case of a corporation or voluntary association, the name and residence address of each of the directors and officers.

Additional statements required

6877. The application shall further disclose that the applicant, if an individual, is a qualified elector, or if a partnership, corporation or voluntary association, that the partner, director or trustee signing the application is a qualified elector of the State.

The application shall state that the applicant, if an individual, or the signer thereof, if the applicant is a partnership, voluntary association or corporation, is to be actively in charge of the business for which the license is sought.

Verification and filing

6878. The application shall be subscribed and sworn to by the applicant, if an individual, or, if a partnership, corporation or voluntary association, by a partner, director or trustee on its behalf. It shall be filed with the Secretary of State.

Statement of character and competency

6879. The application shall be accompanied by sworn statements of three reputable freeholders, each of whom shall certify that he has personally known the person who signed the application for a period of at least five years prior to the date of execution, that he is not related or connected by blood or marriage to the person concerning whom he is certifying, and that the person is competent to engage in the collection business, is honest, truthful and of good character and reputation.

Financial statement

6880. The application shall also be accompanied by a financial statement of the applicant, showing the assets and liabilities of the applicant and truly reflecting that the applicant's net worth is not less than the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000), in cash or its equivalent available for the use of licensee's business. The financial statement shall be sworn to by the applicant, if the applicant is an individual, or by a partner, director or trustee in its behalf, if the applicant is a partnership, corporation or voluntary association. The information contained in the financial statement shall be confidential and not a public record.

Examination

6881. Any applicant may be examined concerning his competency, experience, character and qualifications by the Secretary of State or by the superintendent, either of whom may take testimony of anyone in regard thereto under oath, which each may administer.

Article 5. Examinations

Application and examination for license

6885. No application for an original license shall be granted by the Secretary of State unless the applicant has met the requirements of this article in addition to all other requirements of this chapter and any rules and regulations established under the chapter.

In addition to applicants for license, any other person may take the examination upon filing with the Secretary of State an application, in such form as may be required by rules and regulations, which shall show among other things that he possesses the qualifications required of an applicant for a license by this article.

Examination fee

Any person taking the examination shall pay the examination fee to the Secretary of State. Subject to such conditions as may be imposed by the rules and regulations he shall be permitted to take subsequent examinations without payment of an additional fee therefor.

Qualifications

6886. The applicant, if an individual, or a partner, director or trustee, if a partnership, corporation or voluntary association, shall:

(a) Be a citizen of the United States.

(b) Be at least 21 years of age.

(c) Be of good moral character.

(d) Be a bona fide resident of this State continuously for at least one year prior to the date of the filing of the application.

(e) Possess the necessary qualifications of learning and ability.

(f) Pass the examination required.

Rules and regulations

6887. The Secretary of State, subject to the provisions of this chapter, may fix and determine by rule and regulation the qualifications of applicants.

Requirements of rules and regulations

The rules and regulations shall require, among other things, both of the following:

(a) That the educational qualifications of applicants shall be at least graduation from a four-year high school, or proof satisfactory to the examining board that applicants are possessed of the equivalent of a four-year high school education in point of intellectual competency and achievement.

(b) Proof satisfactory to the examining board that applicants have diligently and in good faith studied the subjects specified as subjects for examination.

Time and place of examinations

6888. Examinations shall be held at least every six months, at such times and places as the Secretary of State directs and according to the rules and regulations established by him.

Publication of notice

Notice of the examination shall be published at least one month prior to the date of each examination in two or more newspapers of general circulation and in one publication circulated among collection agencies. The newspapers and publication shall be selected by the Secretary of State from newspapers or publications published within this State.

Character and subjects of examinations

6889. All examinations shall be practical in character and sufficiently thorough to ascertain the fitness of the persons required to be examined, and both questions and answers shall be written in the English language.

Questions on the following subjects may be included: Business mathematics, elementary accounting, business English, economics, psychology, sociology, money and banking, investments and investment analysis, merchandising and salesmanship, credits and credit management, collection methods and practices and the canons of business ethics pertaining thereto as well as the rules and regulations governing collection agencies.

There may also be included elementary questions in business law, covering such subjects as agency, bankruptcy, contracts, creditor's rights, negotiable instruments, partnership, real and personal property, sales, and securities.

Submission of questions to Secretary of State

6890. The examining board shall prepare and submit to the Secretary of State, at least 10 days prior to the examination, all questions for that examination. The questions may be approved, rejected, changed or altered in any manner by the Secretary of State.

Details of examinations

The number of the questions, the method of grading them, the general average to be obtained by the person examined, and other details of the examination not covered expressly by this chapter may be determined by rules and regulations established by the Secretary of State.

Retention of examination papers

6891. The examination papers of any person shall be kept for the period of one year and may then be destroyed.

Inspection

The examination papers shall be open to inspection during the one-year period only by the Secretary of State, the superintendent, members of the examining board, their clerical assistants, and by the applicant or by someone appointed by the latter to inspect them, or by a court of competent jurisdiction in a proceeding where the contents of the papers is properly involved.

Article 6. Bonds

Surety bond

6895. The applicant for a license shall file with the Secretary of State within such time after the filing of the application as may be fixed by the Secretary of State by rules and regulations a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) which shall run to the people of the State of California.

The bond shall be executed and acknowledged by the applicant as principal, and by a corporation which is licensed by the Insurance Commissioner of this State to transact the business of fidelity and surety insurance, as surety.

Conditions of bond

6896. The bond shall be conditioned that the principal shall and will, upon demand in writing, pay and turn over to or for the use of any customer from whom any claim is taken or received for collection the proceeds of the collection, in accordance with the terms of the agreement made between the principal and the customer, and conditioned that the principal will comply with all requirements of this or any other statute now in force or hereafter enacted and any rules and regulations established under this chapter with respect to the duties, conduct, obligations and liabilities of licensees.

Scope of bond

6897. The bond shall cover all claims collected or property converted by the licensee during the term of the license applied for.

The aggregate liability of the surety for any and all claims which arise under the bond shall in no event exceed the amount of the penalty of the bond.

Limitation of actions

6898. No action shall be brought upon any bond after the expiration of one year from the revocation or expiration of the license issued thereunder. From and after the expiration of the period of one year, all liability of the surety upon the bond shall cease if no action has been commenced upon the bond before the expiration of the period.

Form and duration of bond

6899. The bond shall be continuous in form and remain in full force and effect and shall run concurrently with the license period and for any renewals thereof, as provided in Section 2852 of the Civil Code, unless terminated or canceled by action of the surety as provided by law or unless terminated or canceled as provided in this chapter.

Withdrawal as surety

6900. Upon the filing of notice with the Secretary of State by any surety company of its withdrawal as the surety of any licensee pursuant to Section 2851 of the Civil Code, the Secretary of State shall forthwith give notice to the licensee of the withdrawal which notice shall be by registered mail with request for return receipt and shall be addressed to the licensee at his main office as shown by the records of the Secretary of State. The license of any licensee shall be void upon the termination of the bond of the surety company as provided in Section 2851 unless, prior to the termination, a new bond has been filed with the Secretary of State.

New bond

6901. A licensee may file a new bond with the Secretary of State at any time.

Cancellation of bond

6902. The Secretary of State shall forthwith cancel the bond of any surety company upon being advised that its license to transact the business of fidelity and surety insurance has been revoked by the Insurance Commissioner and shall forthwith advise any licensee for whom the company acted as surety of the fact of the cancellation, by collect telegram addressed to the licensee at his main office, as shown by the records of the Secretary of State. The license of the licensee shall be suspended, subject to the right of the licensee to file a new bond with the Secretary of State within 30 days thereafter and upon the filing of the new bond the license of the licensee to conduct a collection agency shall forthwith be restored.

Suspension of license pending new bond

Article 7. Licenses

Issuance of license

6905. Upon receiving and filing the application and bond specified in Articles 4 and 6, and upon a showing by the applicant of compliance with the other requirements of this chapter and any rules and regulations established under it, the Secretary of State shall grant and issue a license substantially in the form provided in this chapter.

Prohibitions

6906. The Secretary of State shall not issue a license:

(a) If the applicant was previously a licensee and his license was revoked.

(b) If, where the applicant is a partnership, trust, association or corporation, any member, partner, trustee, officer, stockholder or employee was previously a licensee and his license was revoked for cause.

(c) If a certified copy of the record of the conviction of an applicant, or the managing partner, trustee or director thereof, for the crime of fraud, embezzlement or any crime involving moral turpitude, is filed with the Secretary of State.

Disciplinary proceedings pending

6907. If upon the filing of an application it is found that the applicant, if an individual, or if a partnership, trust, association or a corporation, that any member, partner, trustee, officer, stockholder or employee, was previously a licensee against whom there was a disciplinary action filed, and the disciplinary action was not disposed of for any reason, the Secretary of State shall not issue a license to the applicant until there has been a hearing upon the complaint and a disposition thereof as provided for in Article 10.

Statements in license

6908. The license, when issued, shall state:

(a) The name of the licensee.

(b) The name under which the licensee is to operate.

(c) The location by street and number, city, county and State where the licensee is to carry on business.

(d) The number and the date of the license.

The license shall further state that it is issued pursuant to this chapter and the rules and regulations established under it, and that the licensee is duly authorized under this chapter.

Right to conduct business

6909. Upon receipt of the license, the licensee has the right to conduct the business of a collection agency, with all the powers and privileges contained in but subject always to all the provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations established under it.

Display

6910. Each license shall be framed in a suitable frame under glass, and hung in a conspicuous place upon the walls of the place of business.

Nontransferable

6911. The license shall not be transferable.

Term

The license shall be valid and effectual until the first day of July next ensuing the date thereof unless previously revoked.

Change of location

6912. Upon removal from any location or change of name under which any licensee does business, as stated in his license, the licensee shall, within 10 days thereafter, deposit the license and a written notification of the removal, or change of name with the Secretary of State and shall pay the removal fee.

The license, if not deposited with the Secretary of State within such time, shall be suspended until it has been so deposited.

The Secretary of State shall note the removal or change of name upon the face of the license, and shall enter in his records, in an appropriate place therefor, a notation of the removal or change of name and shall thereupon return the license to the licensee.

Change of ownership

6913. Whenever there is a change in the ownership of any collection agency, other than a corporation or voluntary association, the license issued to it shall forthwith become void and its right to conduct business thereunder shall terminate.

Whenever there is a change in the ownership of more than 50 per cent of the stock of any corporation, other than the change in ownership caused by the death of the holder of the stock, or a change in the majority of the membership of a voluntary association the license issued to it shall forthwith become void and its right to conduct business thereunder shall terminate.

Death of licensee, representative's license

6914. In case of the death of an individual licensee who leaves an established business as part of or all the assets of his estate or the dissolution of a licensed partnership by death or operation of law, the Secretary of State shall issue a license to a representative designated by the executor or administrator of the estate or by a majority of the surviving partners, respectively, notwithstanding the provisions of Articles 4 and 5, upon the filing by the representative of the bond and upon payment of the representative's fee. The representative's license shall be effective for a period of one year from the date thereof and shall not be renewed. The authority of the representative licensee is limited to such activities as may be necessary to wind up the business of the former licensee.

Article 8. Statements

Financial statements

6915. The licensee shall, not later than the thirty-first day of January of each calendar year, file with the Secretary of State a financial statement as of the thirty-first day of December of the previous year, duly verified by the licensee, if an individual, or by the managing partner, director or trustee, if a partnership, corporation or voluntary association, showing the exact amount of money which has been collected for the benefit of the licensee's customers, which has not previously either been remitted to any customer or properly accounted for or both, and also showing the exact balance he has on deposit in any bank or in his possession for the purpose of liquidating any and all amounts due his customers. Any wilful false statement made shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this chapter and shall be sufficient ground for revocation of the license of the licensee after hearing and determination as provided in this chapter.

Revocation of license

Revocation for failure to file

6916. If the financial statement required is not filed as required, the failure to file shall be ground for the immediate revocation of the license, and the Secretary of State shall make an order revoking the license of the licensee and enter the same upon the records of the department and notify the licensee of the action by registered mail except that for good cause shown and upon satisfactory proof furnished by the licensee showing that the failure to file the statement was due to a condition not within his control, the Secretary of State may permit the filing of the statement after the time limited, upon payment of a delinquency fee.

Statement to customer

6917. Each licensee, if demand therefor be made by any customer, shall, at intervals not less frequent than once each 30 days send to the customer a statement showing all claims collected for the benefit of the customer that have not been previously remitted to the customer.

Article 9. Offices

Application and bond for branch office

6920. Application for a license for any branch office or offices may be made by any licensee. The application shall state the location and address of the branch office and the name and address of the person to be in charge. The application shall be accompanied by the bond required by Article 6. The original license fee required by Article 12 shall be paid for filing such application.

Office manager

6921. Every office licensed after May 1, 1941, whether a main or branch office, shall be under the active charge of a person who has passed the examination.

This section does not apply to an office licensed prior to May 2, 1941.

Notice of change of manager

6922. Whenever a person actively in charge of an office to which Section 6921 applies ceases to be in charge, the licensee shall notify the Secretary of State in writing within 10 days from such cessation.

If the notice is given the license shall remain in force for a reasonable period to be determined by the rules and regulations. If the licensee fails to give the notice as required, at the end of the 10-day period the license shall be ipso facto suspended, but the license shall be reinstated upon the filing of an affidavit by the licensee, if an individual, or by a partner, trustee or director of the licensee, if a partnership, voluntary association or corporation to the effect that the person formerly in charge of the office has been replaced by another person who has passed the examination.

Restriction upon branch office manager

6923. No person shall be in charge of any branch office if he was previously a licensee and his license was revoked after a hearing upon a complaint or upon written charges by the superintendent or if he was a partner, trustee or director of a partnership, voluntary association or corporation, which was previously a licensee whose license was revoked after such a hearing.

Article 10. Disciplinary Action

Charges against licensee

6925. A verified complaint may be filed with the Secretary of State against a licensee alleging fraud or misrepresentation or any act or omission inconsistent with the faithful discharge of his duties and obligations or in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or rules and regulations established under it.

The complaint shall be verified, or if not verified by the complainant, the reasons therefor shall be stated. Facts not within the actual knowledge of the person verifying but believed by him to be true may be stated on information or belief.

The complaint shall be accompanied by an affidavit showing service of a copy of the complaint upon the licensee personally or by registered mail at the address shown in the records of the Secretary of State.

Investigation of charges

6926. Investigations may be made by the superintendent without the filing or presentation of any complaint. He may initiate and conduct investigation of all matters affecting or relating to any collection agency or its affairs. The superintendent, after investigation, may thereupon file written charges against the licensee.

Notice of hearing

6927. Upon the filing of a verified complaint or written charges, the superintendent shall designate a time and place of hearing thereon and give notice to the complainant and the licensee.

Place of hearing

In all cases involving written charges or verified complaints against licensees, the hearing shall be held either in the county where the principal office of the licensee charged or complained against is maintained, or where the licensee resides or where the alleged offense is committed, as may be determined in the discretion of the superintendent.

Notice by registered mail

6928. Notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be given to the licensee and a true copy of the charge as filed shall be served upon licensee by registered mail at the address shown on the records of the Secretary of State. The licensee shall file with the Secretary of State, at least five days before the date of the hearing, an answer to the charge or verified complaint.

Answer

Upon proper cause shown, time for filing the answer may be extended by the superintendent for a period not exceeding 30 days and the hearing thereof may be continued for not more than 30 days after the filing of the answer.

Defense against charge

6929. Any licensee against whom a written charge is made, or a verified complaint is filed shall be given reasonable notice and have a reasonable opportunity and right to defend against the charge by the introduction of evidence, and shall have the right to be represented by counsel, to examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to have issued subpenas for the attendance of witnesses to appear and testify or to produce books, papers and documents pertaining to the matter under investigation.

Grounds for revocation

6930. If it appears, upon the hearing, that the licensee has wilfully violated any of the provisions of this chapter, or the rules and regulations established under it by the Secretary of State, or that he has been guilty of fraud or misrepresentation, or any act or omission inconsistent with the faithful discharge of his duties or obligations, or that he has been found guilty of a felony, his license shall be revoked.

Findings, recommendations and order

6931. The superintendent shall make written findings and recommendations within 10 days after the hearing. After the written findings and recommendations of the superintendent have been filed with the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State shall file his order either revoking the license or dismissing the charge, and shall mail a copy of the order to the complainant and send a copy thereof by registered mail to the licensee at the address shown in the records of the Secretary of State.

Review by superior court

Appeal

6932. The order of the Secretary of State revoking any license is subject to judicial review by the superior court in accordance with law. The party desiring such review shall file his petition therefor in the superior court within 20 days after service upon him of the order. A judgment or revocation of license by the superior court shall be subject to appeal or review in accordance with the provisions of law as to appeal from or review of judgments of superior courts.

Rights of superintendent

6933. The superintendent may:

(a) Administer oaths.

(b) Take testimony of any witnesses.

(c) Compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, documents and other records under their control pertaining to the matter under investigation or to the trial or hearing and to issue subpenas for these purposes.

Attendance of witness

6934. No witness shall be compelled to attend a hearing outside the county in which he resides unless the distance be less than 100 miles from his place of residence to the place of hearing.

Contempt

6935. Whenever any person subpenaed to appear and give testimony or to produce books, papers, documents or other records as required by a subpena, refuses to appear or testify before the superintendent, or to answer any pertinent or proper questions, he is in contempt of the superintendent.

Attachment Jurisdiction by superior court

The superintendent shall report the fact to the superior court, in and for the county in which the investigation, trial or hearing is being held. Thereupon the court shall issue an attachment in the form usual in the superior court, directed to the sheriff of the county commanding the sheriff to attach such person and forthwith bring him before the court. On the return of the attachment, and the production of the person attached, the superior court shall have jurisdiction of the matter, and the person charged may purge himself of contempt in the same way, and the same proceedings shall be had, and the same penalties may be imposed, and the same punishment inflicted, as in the case of a witness subpenaed to appear and give evidence on the trial of a civil cause before a superior court.

Depositions

6936. In hearings before the superintendent, depositions may be taken and used in the same manner as in civil cases.

Record of hearings

6937. A record of all hearings shall be made and preserved by the superintendent. The Secretary of State shall furnish to any person involved in the proceedings who applies for it a certified copy of any part of the record, certified by him, upon payment of the copy fee.

Unlawful practice

6938. No licensee shall, directly or indirectly, aid or abet any unlicensed person to engage in business as a collection agency or to receive compensation therefrom.

Sale of collection forms

6939. A licensee shall not print, publish or otherwise prepare for distribution, any system of collection letters, demand forms or other printed matter upon his stationery, or upon stationery upon which the licensee's name appears in such manner as to indicate that a demand is being made by the licensee for the payment of any sum or sums due or asserted to be due, where such forms containing such message are to be sold or furnished to any person, other than the licensee, to be used by such person, at any address different from the address of the licensee as shown on the face of the license.

Sale of claim

6940. No licensee shall advertise for sale or threaten to advertise for sale any claim as a means of endeavoring to enforce payment thereon, nor agree to do so for the purpose of solicitation of claims. This section shall not, however, affect any licensee with respect to claims he has acquired as assignee for the benefit of creditors or acting under any order of court.

Publication of "dead beat" lists

6941. No licensee shall publish or post or cause to be published or posted any lists of debtors, commonly known as "dead beat" lists.

Collection contrary to postal regulations

6942. No licensee shall collect or attempt to collect by the use of any methods contrary to the postal regulations of the United States.

Unfair methods of competition

6943. The use of unfair methods of competition as defined in the Unfair Practices Act shall be ground for revocation of the license after a hearing.

Commingling of moneys

6944. A licensee shall not commingle the money of his customers with his own.

Article 11. Continuation of License

Continuation of license

6950. A licensee desiring a continuation of his license shall, on or before the thirtieth day of June of each year, file with the Secretary of State a request for a continuation on such forms as may be designated by the rules and regulations established by the Secretary of State. The request shall be accompanied by the continuation fee.

The Secretary of State shall issue a receipt to the licensee which shall be dated the first day of July next ensuing and shall bear in conspicuous type the words "continuation of license" and the date to and including which the license is continued.

Military licensees

6951. Any person having a license at the time of entering the military service, as defined in the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, who is otherwise eligible to apply therefor may, within 30 days after the termination of such service, upon payment of the continuation fee, file with the Secretary of State a request for a continuation of his license. Thereupon the Secretary of State shall issue a receipt to such person which shall bear upon its face in conspicuous type the words "continuation of license" and the date to and including which the license is continued.

Article 12. Revenue

Collection Agency Fund

6955. All money received under this chapter by the Secretary of State shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Collection Agency Fund, which fund is hereby continued in existence and from which fund all expenses of carrying out the provisions of this chapter shall be defrayed.

Fees

6956. The Secretary of State shall charge and collect the following fees:

(a) An original license fee of fifty dollars ($50) for each original license.

(b) A continuation fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) annually payable on or before the thirtieth day of June of each year.

(c) A removal fee of ten dollars ($10).

(d) A representative's fee of ten dollars ($10).

(e) A delinquency fee of ten dollars ($10).

(f) An examination fee of twenty-five dollars ($25).

(g) A copy fee of twenty-five cents ($0.25) per 100 words copied.

New section

SEC. 2. Section 30044 is added to said code, to read:

Repeal

30044. Chapter 485 of the Statutes of 1927, at page 822, together with all acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, is repealed.

CHAPTER 134*

An act to establish a Government Code, thereby consolidating and revising the law relating to the organization, operation, and maintenance of a system of State and local government, and repealing acts and parts of acts specified herein.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943]

NOTE.—The Government Code, as prepared by the California Code Commission, consists of this chapter as originally enacted. As here set forth, Chapter 134 also contains all of the amendments to the Code made during the Fifty-fifth Session of the Legislature, namely by Chapters 96, 186, 319, 328, 381, 385, 469, 536, 557, 746, 1010, 1012, 1019.

Chapter 134 is in effect August 4, 1943. For approval, filing and effective dates of the amendatory chapters see the respective chapters in their numerical sequence.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Short title

1. This act shall be known as the Government Code.

Code restatement of law

2. The provisions of this code in so far as they are substantially the same as existing statutory provisions relating to the same subject matter shall be construed as restatements and continuations, and not as new enactments.

Existing officers

3. All persons who at the time this code takes effect, hold office under any of the acts repealed by this code, which offices are continued by this code, continue to hold them according to their former tenure.

Existing rights

4. No action or proceeding commenced before this code takes effect, and no right accrued, is affected by this code, but all procedure thereafter taken therein shall conform to the provisions of this code so far as possible.

Construction of code

5. Unless the provision or the context otherwise requires, these general provisions, rules of construction, and definitions shall govern the construction of this code.

Headings

6. Title, division, part, chapter, article, and section headings do not in any manner affect the scope, meaning, or intent of the provisions of this code.

Deputies

7. Whenever a power is granted to, or a duty is imposed upon, a public officer, the power may be exercised or the duty may be performed by a deputy of the officer or by a person

"Signature" and "subscription"

16. "Signature" or "subscription" includes mark when the signer or subscriber can not write, such signer's or subscriber's name being written near the mark by a witness who writes his own name near the signer's or subscriber's name; but a signature or subscription by mark can be acknowledged or can serve as a signature or subscription to a sworn statement only when two witnesses so sign their own names thereto.

"Person"

17. "Person" includes any person, firm, association, organization, partnership, business trust, corporation, or company.

"State"

18. "State" means the State of California, unless applied to the different parts of the United States. In the latter case, it includes the District of Columbia and the territories.

"County"

19. "County" includes city and county.

"City"

20. "City" includes "city and county" and "incorporated town," but does not include "unincorporated town" or "village."

"Town"

21. "Town" includes "unincorporated town" and "village."

"Process"

22. "Process" includes a writ or summons issued in the course of judicial proceedings of either a civil or criminal nature.

Constitutionality

23. If any provision of this code, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the code, or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

TITLE 1. GENERAL

DIVISION 1. SOVEREIGNTY AND PEOPLE OF THE STATE

CHAPTER 1. SOVEREIGNTY OF THE STATE

Article 1. Residence of Sovereignty

"Sovereignty" "Process"

100. The sovereignty of the State resides in the people thereof, and all writs and processes shall issue in their name.

Article 2. Territorial Jurisdiction

Sovereignty and jurisdiction

110. The sovereignty and jurisdiction of this State extends to all places within its boundaries as established by the constitution. The extent of such jurisdiction over places that have been or may be ceded to, purchased, or condemned by the United States is qualified by the terms of the cession or the laws under which the purchase or condemnation is made.

Acquisition of land by United States for military purposes

111. The Legislature consents to the purchase or condemnation by the United States of any tract of land within the State for the purpose of erecting forts, magazines, arsenals, dockyards, and other needful buildings, reserving the authority to serve and execute process and the State's entire power of taxation as provided in this article.

Acquisition of land by United States for National forests

112. The Legislature consents to the acquisition by the United States by purchase, gift or condemnation of such lands in the State as in the opinion of the United States may be needed for the establishment, consolidation and extension of National forests in this State under the provisions of the act of Congress approved March 1, 1911, and entitled "An act to enable any State to cooperate with any other State or States or with the United States for the protection of the watersheds of navigable streams and to appoint a commission for the acquisition of lands for the purpose of conserving the navigability of navigable rivers," as amended. The State reserves:

Concurrent jurisdiction of State for civil and criminal process

(a) A concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over lands so acquired for the execution thereon, in like manner as if consent had not been given, of civil process in all cases, and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of the State against any person charged with the commission of any crime without or within the lands.

(b) The State's entire power of taxation.

Exclusive jurisdiction of United States while owner of land

113. The State cedes to the United States exclusive jurisdiction over such land as has been or may be ceded or conveyed to the United States, during the time the United States is the owner thereof, reserving the administration of the criminal law of the State, the authority to serve and execute process and the State's entire power of taxation.

Exclusive jurisdiction of United States over land ceded for military purposes

114. The State cedes to the United States exclusive jurisdiction over all lands within the State held, occupied, or reserved on March 2, 1897 by the United States for military purposes or defense, and over all land which thereafter has been or which may be ceded or conveyed to the United States for such purposes reserving the authority to serve and execute process, and the State's entire power of taxation. A sufficient description by metes and bounds and a map or plat of the lands shall first be filed in the proper office of record in the county in which the lands are situated.

Limitation of jurisdiction of United States

115. All jurisdiction ceded to the United States by this article is limited by the terms of any retrocession of jurisdiction heretofore or hereafter granted by the United States and accepted by the State.

Reservation by State of right of process and taxation in lands ceded to United States

116. Any law to the contrary notwithstanding, the State reserves the authority to serve and execute process and the State's entire power of taxation with respect to any land over which any jurisdiction is ceded or granted by the State to the United States under any law of the State now in effect or which may hereafter be adopted.

Service of civil and criminal process

117. All civil process issued from the courts of the State, and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of the State, against any person charged with crime, may be served and executed on any land purchased or condemned by the United States with the State's consent or over which any jurisdiction is ceded or granted by the State to the United States in the same mode and manner and by the same officers as if the purchase or condemnation had not been made or jurisdiction had not been ceded or granted. The State reserves its entire power of taxation with respect to such land and may levy and collect all taxes now or hereafter imposed in the same manner and to the same extent as if consent had not been granted or jurisdiction had not been ceded or granted.

Reservation of tax power by State

Use of adjacent State waters by United States for military purposes

118. The State consents to the use by the United States of the territorial waters of the State adjacent to any land on the coast of the State now or hereafter owned by or under the control of the United States, and occupied for military purposes, in connection with conducting target practice operations of any type on the land. Before any of the waters are used in connection with conducting target practice operations of any type the United States shall take all appropriate measures and shall make and publish necessary regulations for the protection of the person and property of all persons using the waters. The use herein consented to shall not be so exercised as to interfere unreasonably with the public use of the waters

Exemption of State liability

This section shall not be construed to impose any liability whatsoever upon the State in connection with the use of the waters as herein set forth.

Exclusive jurisdiction of United States over "Kings Canyon National Park": reservations by State

119. Exclusive jurisdiction shall be and the same is hereby ceded to the United States over and within all of the territory which is now or may hereafter be included in those several tracts of land in the State of California set aside and dedicated for park purposes by the United States as "Kings Canyon National Park"; saving however to the State of California the right to serve civil or criminal process within the limits of the aforesaid park in suits or prosecutions for or on account of rights acquired, obligations incurred, or crimes committed in said State outside of said park; and saving further to the said State the right to tax persons and corporations, their franchises and property on the lands included in said park, and the right to fix and collect license fees for fishing in said park; and saving also to the persons residing in said park now or hereafter the right to vote at all elections held within the county or counties in which said park is situate. The jurisdiction granted by this section shall not vest until the United States through the proper officer notifies the State of California that it assumes police jurisdiction over said park.

Acceptance of jurisdiction by United States

(Added by Stats. 1943, Ch. 95.)

Recordation by Governor of notification of acceptance

120. Upon receipt of notification of the acceptance by the United States of exclusive jurisdiction over lands situated within the State of California, the Governor shall cause to be filed a true and correct copy of said notification in the office of the recorder of the county in which said lands are located and in the office of the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county in which said lands are located.

(Added by Stats. 1943, Ch. 536.)

Article 3. State Boundaries

State boundaries

160. The line run and marked by the Surveyor General of the State in accordance with Chapter 402 of the Statutes of 1863 from the southern boundary of the State of Oregon to the 39th degree of north latitude and the line established and marked by the United States coast and geodetic survey, as completed in 1900, extending southeastward from the intersection of the 39th degree of north latitude with the 120th degree of longitude west from Greenwich to the Colorado River comprise the legal eastern boundary line of the State from the Oregon boundary to the Colorado River, and shall be so considered by the courts of the State.

Article 4. Rights Over Property

"Property"

180. As used herein, "property" includes real and personal property.

Right to property

181. The original and ultimate right to all property within the limits of the State is in the people thereof.

Escheat

182. All property within the limits of the State, which does not belong to any person, belongs to the people. Whenever the title to any property fails for want of heirs or next of kin, it reverts to the people.

Acquisition of property by State by taxation

183. The State may acquire property by taxation in the modes authorized by law.

Acquisition of property by State or others for public use

184. The State may acquire or authorize others to acquire title to property for public use in the cases and in the mode provided by law.

Article 5. Rights Over Persons

1090. Members of the Legislature, State, county, township and city officers shall not be interested in any contract made by them in their official capacity, or by any body or board of which they are members.

Purchasers or vendors at sales made in official capacity

1091. State, county, township and city officers shall not be purchasers at any sale nor vendors at any purchase made by them in their official capacity.

Avoidance of contract

1092. Every contract made in violation of any of the provisions of Sections 1090 and 1091 may be avoided at the instance of any party except the officer interested therein.

Purchase or sale of State, county or city evidences of indebtedness

1093. The State Treasurer and Controller, county and city officers, and their deputies and clerks shall not purchase or sell, or in any manner receive for their own or any other person's use or benefit any State, county or city warrants, scrip, orders, demands, claims, or other evidences of indebtedness against the State, or any county or city thereof. This section does not apply to evidences of indebtedness issued to or held by such an officer, deputy or clerk for services rendered by them, nor to evidences of the funded indebtedness of the State, county, or city.

Exceptions

Affidavit of compliance

1094. Every officer whose duty it is to audit and allow the accounts of other State, county, or city officers shall, before allowing such accounts, require each of such officers to make and file with him an affidavit that he has not violated any of the provisions of this article.

Nonpayment of evidence of indebtedness

1095. Officers charged with the disbursement of public moneys shall not pay any warrant or other evidence of indebtedness against the State, county, or city when it has been purchased, sold, received, or transferred contrary to any of the provisions of this article.

1096. Upon the officer charged with the disbursement of public moneys being informed by affidavit that any officer, whose account is about to be settled, audited, or paid by him, has violated any of the provisions of this article, the disbursing officer shall suspend such settlement or payment, and cause the district attorney to prosecute the officer for such violation. If judgment is rendered for the defendant upon such prosecution, the disbursing officer may proceed to settle, audit, or pay the account as if no affidavit had been filed. Suspension of payment and prosecution for violation

1097. Every officer or person prohibited by the laws of this State from making or being interested in contracts, or from becoming a vendor or purchaser at sales, or from purchasing scrip, or other evidences of indebtedness, who violates any of the provisions of such laws, is punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in the State prison for not more than five years, and is forever disqualified from holding any office in this State. Punishment: Fine or imprisonment; barred from office

Article 5. Withholding Salary on Contest of Title

1130. When the title of the incumbent of any office in this State is contested by proceedings instituted in any court for that purpose, no warrant shall thereafter be drawn or paid for any part of his salary until such proceedings have been finally determined. Withholding of salary until title finally determined

1131. As soon as the proceedings are instituted, the clerk of the court in which they are pending shall certify the facts to the officers whose duty it would otherwise be to draw the warrant or pay the salary. Certification of facts to disbursing officer

1132. This article does not apply to any party to a contest or proceeding who holds the certificate of election or commission of office and discharges the duties of the office. No certification by the clerk need be made. Such party shall receive the salary of the office the same as if no contest or proceeding was pending. Salary not withheld, no certification

Article 6. Salary and Wage Deductions

1150. As used in this article, "United States savings bonds" includes similar United States obligations. "United States savings bonds"

1151. As used in this article, "public agency" includes counties, cities, municipal corporations, political subdivisions, public districts, and other public agencies of the State. "Public agency"

1152. Officers and employees of public agencies may authorize deductions to be made from their salaries or wages for the purchase of United States savings bonds in accordance with provision made by the governing body of the public agency. Deductions from salary for purchase of United States savings bonds by officers and employees of public agencies

All auditors, treasurers, and other disbursing officers of public agencies are authorized to recognize and act upon such requests for salary or wage deductions and to establish special accounts for each officer or employee so that sufficient funds may be accumulated to the credit of such officer or employee for the purchase of United States savings bonds. All funds so accumulated are trust funds.

Deductions for purchase of United States savings bonds by State officers and employees

1153. State officers and employees may authorize deductions to be made from their salaries or wages for the purchase of United States savings bonds in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Control.

The State Controller and all other officers, departments, boards, commissions, and other agencies of the State shall recognize and act upon such requests for salary or wage deductions. All amounts so deducted shall be paid by the Controller to the Board of Administration of the State Employees' Retirement System for deposit in the State Treasury to the credit of the employees' defense savings account, which account is continued in the Special Deposit Fund in the State Treasury.

Signature of married person or minor sufficient for making deduction

1154. If a request for a salary or wage deduction for the purpose of purchasing United States savings bonds is made by an officer or employee who is a married person or a minor, his signature is a sufficient authorization for the making of a deduction.

Wage and salary deductions for credit union shares

1155. Public officers and employees may authorize wage and salary deductions for the purchase of shares in or the payment of money to any regularly chartered credit union. Auditors, treasurers and other disbursing officers of any public agency or the State are authorized to recognize and act upon such wage or salary assignments.

Wage and salary deductions of State officers and employees for insurance premiums

1156. State officers and employees may authorize deductions to be made from their salaries or wages, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Controller, for the payment of:

(a) Premiums on any policy or certificate of group insurance issued to the officer or employee insured under any plan of group insurance approved by the Director of Finance.

(b) Dues or charges of a nonprofit membership corporation for the purpose of defraying the cost of medical service (including service rendered by doctors of medicine, doctors of osteopathy, or doctors of chiropractic) or hospital care, or both, under any plan approved by the Director of Finance.

Wage and salary deductions of officers and employees of public agency for insurance premiums

1157. Officers and employees of a public agency may authorize the governing body of the public agency to make deductions from their salaries or wages for the payment of premiums on group life, accident or health insurance, or on all three, under a system of group insurance adopted and carried into effect by the governing body. Employees of a public agency may authorize the governing body of the public agency to make deductions from their salaries or wages for the payment of dues of nonprofit membership corporations for defraying the cost of medical service (including services rendered by doctors of medicine, doctors of osteopathy, or doctors of chiropractic), or hospital care, or both, under a system of medical service, or hospital care, or both, adopted and carried into effect by the governing body.

Precedence over conflicting law

1158. No provision of law prohibiting, restricting or limiting the assignment or order for wages or salaries in any way prohibits, restricts or limits the powers conferred in this article.

Article 7. Deputies and Subordinates

Appointment by superior officer

1190. All assistants, deputies, and other subordinate officers, whose appointments are not otherwise provided for, shall be appointed by the officer or body to whom they are respectively subordinate.

When appointment need be in writing and filed

1191. When not otherwise provided for, the appointment of deputies and other subordinate officers shall be made in writing and filed in the office of the appointing power or the office of its clerk.

Taking and filing oath

1192. When not otherwise provided for, within 10 days after receiving notice of their appointment, deputies and other subordinate officers shall take and file an oath in the manner required of their principals.

Number of deputies

1193. When the number of deputies or other subordinate officers is not fixed by law, it is limited only by the discretion of the appointing power.

Powers and duties of deputy 1194. When not otherwise provided for, each deputy possesses the powers and may perform the duties attached by law to the office of his principal.

Withholding by superior of salary or fee of deputy a felony

1195. Every officer of the State, or of any county, city, or township who accepts, keeps, retains or diverts for his own use or the use of any other person any part of the salary or fees allowed by law to his deputy, or other subordinate officer, is guilty of a felony.

Article 8. Miscellaneous

Ex officio duties

1220. When an officer discharges ex officio the duties of another office than that to which he is elected or appointed, his official signature and attestation shall be in the name of the office the duties of which he discharges.

Seals of office

1221. Where not otherwise provided, the seals of office of the various executive officers are those in use by such officers on January 1, 1873.

When omission to perform public duty is a misdemeanor

1222. Every willful omission to perform any duty enjoined by law upon any public officer, or person holding any public trust or employment, where no special provision is made for the punishment of such delinquency, is punishable as a misdemeanor.

Traveling expenses

1223. When traveling expenses are allowed by law to any State, county, township, or city officer, he may contract with the appropriate authorities for an allowance or mileage rate for the use of vehicles owned or rented and used by him in the performance of duty, in lieu of the usual transportation charges.

Refund for postage

1224. Any money paid by a State, county, township, or city officer for United States postage for use in conducting the official business of his office may be refunded to him by claim allowed in accordance with law.

CHAPTER 2. APPOINTMENTS, NOMINATIONS, COMMISSIONS, AND OATHS

Article 1. General

Appointment by Governor

1300. Every officer, the mode of whose appointment is not prescribed by law, shall be appointed by the Governor.

Term of office

1301. Every office, the term of which is not fixed by law, is held at the pleasure of the appointing power.

Expired term

1302. Every officer whose term has expired shall continue to discharge the duties of his office until his successor has qualified.

Failure to take oath or give bond a misdemeanor

1303. Every person who exercises any function of a public office without taking the oath of office, or without giving the required bond, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Validity of acts

This section does not affect the validity of acts done by a person exercising the functions of a public office in fact, where other persons than himself are interested in maintaining the validity of such acts.

Article 2. Nominations by Governor

Nominations by Governor

1320. Nominations made by the Governor to the Senate shall be in writing, designating the residence of the nominee and the office for which he is nominated.

Concurrence by Senate

1321. Whenever the Senate concurs in a nomination, its secretary shall immediately deliver a copy of the resolution of concurrence, certified by the president and secretary, to the Secretary of State, and another copy, certified by the secretary, to the Governor.

Article 3. Commissions

Commissions by Governor

1340. The Governor shall commission:

(a) All officers elected by the people whose commissions are not otherwise provided for.

(b) All officers elected by the Legislature.

(c) All officers of the Militia.

(d) All officers appointed by the Governor, or by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate.

How issued

1341. The commissions of all officers commissioned by the Governor shall be issued in the name of the people of the State. They shall be signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State, under the Great Seal.

How signed

1342. The commissions of all other officers, where no special provision is made by law, shall be signed by the presiding officer of the body or by the person making the appointment.

Article 4. Oath of Office

Oath or affirmation

1360. Unless otherwise provided, before any officer enters on the duties of his office, he shall take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of _____ according to the best of my ability."

When oath taken, subscribed and filed

1361. Whenever a different time is not prescribed by law, the oath of office shall be taken, subscribed, and filed:

(a) Within 30 days after the officer has received the certificate or commission of his election or appointment, or

(b) Before the expiration of 15 days from the commencement of his term of office, when no certificate or commission has been received.

Before whom oath taken

1362. Unless otherwise provided, the oath may be taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths.

How oath filed

1363. Unless otherwise provided, every oath of office certified by the officer before whom it was taken shall be filed within the time required as follows:

(a) The oath of all officers whose authority is not limited to any particular county, in the office of the Secretary of State.

(b) The oath of all officers elected or appointed for any county, and of all officers whose duties are local, or whose residence in any particular county is prescribed by law, in the office of the clerk of their respective counties, and a copy in the office of the county auditor of their respective counties.

(c) Each judge of a superior court and county clerk shall file a copy of his official oath, signed with his own proper signature, in the office of the Secretary of State as soon as he has taken and subscribed his oath.

Additional test or qualification, removal from office or position of public trust

1364. It is unlawful to remove a person from an office or position of public trust because such person has not complied with any law, charter, or regulation prescribing an additional test or qualification for such office or position of public trust, other than tests and qualifications provided for under civil service and retirement laws, whenever such person:

(a) Holds the office or position of public trust, and

(b) Upon entering upon the office or position of public trust, has taken, or after his election or appointment, has offered to take the oath of office prescribed by this article.

Removal of appointing officer

1365. It is unlawful for any person having the power of removal from office of any officer to remove or threaten to remove the officer from his office because the officer, in the appointment of any person to a position of public trust under himself, refuses to require any additional test or qualification, other than the oath prescribed by this article and tests and qualifications provided for under civil service and retirement laws, as a condition of permitting the appointee to enter upon or remain in the position of public trust.

Remedies for removal or threat of removal

1366. Any officer or person who is removed or threatened with removal from any office or position of public trust may bring an action to restrain such unlawful removal or to enforce restoration by process of injunction, both prohibitory and mandatory, if the real reason for the removal or threat thereof is noncompliance with provisions requiring such additional test or qualification or the refusal to require any additional test or qualification in the appointment to a position of public trust.

CHAPTER 3. OFFICIAL BONDS

Article 1. General

Filing of official bond

1450. Unless otherwise provided, every official bond shall be filed in the proper office within the time prescribed for filing the oath.

Approval of official bond

1451. The approval of every official bond shall be indorsed thereon and signed by the officer approving the bond.

Approval before filing

1452. No officer with whom any official bond is required to be filed shall file such bond until approved.

Recordation

1453. Official bonds shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose entitled "Record of Official Bonds."

Official bonds of State officers

1454. Unless otherwise provided, the official bonds of State officers prescribed by law shall be approved by the Governor and filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of State.

Official bonds not expressly prescribed by law

1455. Unless otherwise provided, all official bonds of State officers and employees not expressly prescribed by law shall be forwarded to the Department of Finance for recordation. Upon such recordation the Department of Finance shall forward the bonds to the Secretary of State where they shall be filed.

Bond of Secretary of State

1456. The official bond of the Secretary of State shall be filed in the office of the Treasurer after it is recorded.

Bonds of county and township officers

1457. Unless otherwise provided, the official bonds of county and township officers shall be approved by the judge of the superior court, recorded in the office of the county recorder, and then filed in the county clerk's office.

Approval of other bonds

1458. The bonds of supervisors, treasurers, county clerks, auditors, sheriffs, tax collectors, district attorneys, recorders, assessors, surveyors, superintendents of schools, public administrators, coroners, justices of the peace, and constables shall be approved by the judge or majority of judges, if there be more than one, of the superior court before the bonds can be recorded and filed. In counties having five or more judges, the approval of three judges is sufficient.

Bond of county clerk

1459. After being recorded, the official bond of the county clerk shall be filed in the office of the county treasurer.

Certified copies of bonds for fee

1460. Every officer with whom official bonds are filed shall carefully keep and preserve the bonds. He shall give certified copies thereof to any person demanding copies, upon being paid the same fees as are allowed by law for certified copies of papers in other cases.

Bond of vacancy appointee

1461. Any person appointed to fill a vacancy shall give a bond, corresponding in substance and form with the bond required of the officer originally elected or appointed, before entering upon the duties of the office.

Article 2. Bonds Not Required by Statute

Individual official bond

1480. Every officer, agent or employee not required by statute to give an official bond may be required to give an individual official bond in an amount to be fixed by the appointing power.

Master official bond

1481. When deemed expedient by the appointing power, a master official bond may be used with a schedule attached containing the name of the officer, agent or employee required to give an official bond and the amount for which each such person is bonded.

Conformity with official bond

1482. The contents of a bond given pursuant to this article shall conform to the required condition of an official bond.

Term of individual and master official bond

1483. The term of any individual official bond, and the term of coverage of any officer, agent, or employee on the schedule of any master official bond shall not exceed one year.

Cancellation

1484. Each official bond may contain a provision authorizing the appointing power to cancel it, if it is an individual official bond, or the contract of coverage of any officer, agent or employee on the schedule, if it is a master official bond.

Article 3. Form and Conditions

Bonds payable to State

1500. All official bonds shall be made payable to the State of California in such penalty and with such conditions as required by this article, or the law creating or regulating the duties of the office.

Condition of official bond

1501. The condition of an official bond shall be that the principal will well, truly, and faithfully perform all official duties then required of him by law, and also all such additional duties as may be imposed on him by any existing law of the State or law enacted subsequently to the execution of the bond.

Signature of official bond, corporation as surety

1502. An official bond shall be signed by the principal and at least two sureties. A corporation, such as is mentioned in Section 1056 of the Code of Civil Procedure, may be one of the sureties on a bond the penal sum of which amounts to more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or be accepted as sole and sufficient surety upon any bond, subject to the provisions of Sections 1056 and 1057 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Form of official bond

1503. All official bonds shall be in form joint and several. When the penal sum of any bond required to be given amounts to more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), the sureties may become severally liable for portions of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) thereof.

Obligations of principal and sureties

1504. Every official bond executed by any officer pursuant to law is in force and obligatory upon the principal and sureties therein for:

(a) Any and all breaches of the conditions thereof committed during the time such officer continues to discharge any of the duties of or hold the office, and whether such breaches are committed or suffered by the principal officer, his deputy, or clerk.

(b) The faithful discharge of all duties which may be required of such officer by any law enacted subsequently to the execution of the bond.

Special liability on bond

1505. Whenever, except in criminal prosecutions, any special penalty, forfeiture, or liability is imposed on any county or township officer for nonperformance or malperformance of official duties, the liability therefor attaches to the official bond of the officer, and to the principal and sureties thereon.

Article 4. Justification of Sureties

Several justification of sureties

1530. The officer whose duty it is to approve official bonds required of State officers and of county or township officers not named in Section 1458 shall not accept or approve any such bond unless each of the sureties severally justify before an officer authorized to administer oaths, as follows:

(a) On a bond given by a State officer, that such surety is a resident and freeholder, or householder, within the State.

(b) On a bond given by a county or township officer not named in Section 1458, that such surety is a resident and freeholder, or householder, within such county or within an adjoining county.

(c) That such surety is worth the amount for which he becomes surety, over and above all his debts and liabilities, in unincumbered property situated within the State, exclusive of property exempt from execution and forced sale.

Approval of sureties on bonds of officers named in Section 1458

1531. The sureties on the bonds of all county and township officers named in Section 1458 shall first be approved by the judge or judges of the superior court as is provided for the approval of the bond of their principals, before their principals' bonds may be recorded and filed. All persons offered as sureties may be examined on oath touching their qualifications.

Qualifications of surety on above bonds

No person can be admitted as surety on any such bond unless he is:

(a) A resident and freeholder, or householder, within the State.

(b) Worth in real or personal property, or both, situate in the State, the amount of his undertaking, over and above all sums for which he is already liable, exclusive of property exempt from execution and forced sale.

Disqualification as surety

1532. A member of the board of supervisors shall not be accepted as surety upon the official bond of any county or township officer of his county. The sheriff, county clerk, tax collector, treasurer, recorder, auditor, assessor, or district attorney of the same county shall not become sureties upon official bonds for each other.

Article 5. Suits on Bonds

Beneficiaries of official bonds

1550. Every official bond, given pursuant to law and executed by any officer of the State, of any county or any subdivision thereof, or of any city is in force and obligatory upon the principal and sureties therein to and for:

(a) The State of California, or such municipal corporation;

(b) The use and benefit of all persons who may be injured or aggrieved by the wrongful act or default of such officer in his official capacity.

Suit on bond

Any person so injured or aggrieved may bring suit on the bond in his own name, without an assignment thereof.

Suit on bond over $1,000

1551. If any bond, the penal sum of which is more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), becomes forfeited, an action may be brought thereon against all or any number of the obligors. Judgment shall be entered against them, either jointly or severally, as they may be liable. Judgment shall not be entered against a surety severally bound for a greater sum than that for which he is specially liable by the terms of the bond.

Judgment

Contribution of sureties to each other

1552. Each surety is liable to contribution to his cosureties in proportion to the amount for which he is liable.

Judgment no bar to further suits on bond

1553. No official bond is void on the first recovery of a judgment thereon. Until the whole penalty of the bond is exhausted, suit may be brought, from time to time, and judgment recovered thereon by the State or by any person to whom a right of action has accrued against the officer and his sureties.

Equitable liability on bond

1554. Whenever an official bond does not contain the substantial matter or conditions required by law, or there are any defects in the approval or filing thereof, it is not void so as to discharge the officer and his sureties. They are equitably bound to the State or party interested.

Suit on defective bond

The State or the party interested may, by action in any court of competent jurisdiction, suggest the defect in the bond, approval, or filing, and recover the proper and equitable demand or damages from the officer and the persons who intended to become and were included as sureties in such bond.

Affidavit re real estate interest of defendant in suit on bond

1555. When an action is commenced in any court in the State for the benefit of the State, to enforce the penalty of or to recover money upon an official bond or obligation, or any bond or obligation executed in favor of the State or of the people of the State, the person prosecuting the action may file with the court in which the action is commenced an affidavit stating, either positively or on information and belief, that:

(a) The bond or obligation was executed by the defendant or one or more of the defendants (designating whom), and made payable to the people or to the State of California,

(b) The defendant or defendants have real estate or interest in lands (designating the county or counties in which the same is situated),

(c) The action is prosecuted for the benefit of the State.

Certificate to recorder of county in which real estate situated 1556. The clerk receiving the affidavit shall certify to the recorder of the county in which the real estate is situated:

(a) The names of the parties to the action,

(b) The name of the court in which the action is pending,

(c) The amount claimed in the complaint,

(d) The date of the commencement of the suit.

Certificate acts as lis pendens

1557. Upon receiving the certificate the county recorder shall indorse upon it the time of its reception, and it shall be filed and recorded in the same manner as notices of the pendency of an action affecting real estate.

Judgment a lien on real property

1558. Any judgment recovered is a lien upon all real estate belonging to the defendant, or to one or more defendants, situated in any county in which the certificate is filed for the amount that the owner thereof is or may be liable upon the judgment, from the filing of the certificate.

Specific performance of real property affected by the lien

1559. In any action to compel the specific performance of an agreement to sell real estate affected by the lien created by the filing of a certificate the agreement having been made prior to the filing of the certificate and the purchase price under the agreement not having become due until after the filing of the certificate, the judge of the superior court in which the action for specific performance is tried shall order the purchaser to pay the purchase price, or so much thereof as may be due, to the State Treasurer, and to take his receipt therefor, if the purchaser is otherwise entitled to specific performance of the agreement.

Proceeds of sale of real property subject to lien

1560. Upon payment, the purchaser is entitled to enforcement of specific performance of the agreement, and shall take the real estate free from the liens created by the filing of the certificate. The state treasurer shall hold the money pending the litigation mentioned in the certificate, and subject to the lien created by the filing of the certificate.

Article 6. Additional Bond and Suits Thereon

Issuance of citation on subsequent disqualification of sureties

1580. The person or body whose duty it is to approve the official bond of any officer may issue a citation to the officer whenever it is shown by the affidavit of a credible witness, or it otherwise comes to the attention of such person or body, that since the bond was approved, one or more of the sureties have died, removed from the State, become insolvent, or from any other cause have become incompetent or insufficient sureties.

Officer to show cause for not vacating office

1581. The citation shall require the officer to appear and show cause on a day named why the office should not be vacated. The day named shall not be less than three nor more than 10 days after the date on the citation. The citation shall be served and return thereof made as in other cases.

Failure to appear and show good cause or give additional security

1582. If the officer fails to appear and show good cause on the day named why the office should not be vacated, or fails to give ample additional security, the person or body shall make an order vacating the office.

Provisions of additional bond

1583. The additional bond shall be:

(a) In such penalty as directed by the person or body whose duty it is to approve the bond,

(b) In all other respects similar to the original bond,

(c) Approved by and filed with the same officer as required in case of the approval and filing of the original bond.

Legal effect of additional bond filed and approved

1584. Every additional bond so filed and approved is of like force and obligation from the time of its execution upon the principal and sureties therein, and subjects the officer and his sureties to the same liabilities, suits, and actions as are prescribed respecting the original bonds of officers.

Original bond not affected

1585. In no case is the original bond discharged or affected when an additional bond has been given. The original bond remains of like force and obligation as if the additional bond had not been given.

Liability on either or both bonds

1586. After the execution of the additional bond, the officer and his sureties are liable upon either or both bonds to any party injured by the breach of any condition of an official bond. The party may bring his action upon either bond, or he may bring separate actions on both bonds, allege the same cause of action, and recover judgment therefor in each suit.

Separate judgments on bonds

1587. If separate judgments are recovered on the bonds for the same cause of action, the injured party may have execution issued on both judgments. He may only collect, by execution or otherwise, the costs of both suits and the amount actually adjudged to him on the same causes of action in one of the suits.

Contribution by sureties on either bond to the others

1588. Whenever the sureties on either bond have been compelled to pay any sum of money on account of the principal obligor therein, they are entitled to recover of the sureties on the remaining bond a distributive part of the sum thus paid, in the proportion which the penalties of such bonds bear one to the other and to the sums thus paid, respectively.

Article 7. Release of Sureties and Supplemental Bonds

When additional bond not required

1600. If the original bond is given for an amount in excess of the sum required by law and the withdrawal or removal of a surety does not reduce the bond below the amount required by law to be secured by sureties, no supplemental or additional bond is required or necessary.

Condition for discharge of surety on official bond

1601. Whenever any sureties on the official bond of any officer wish to be discharged from their liability, they and the officer may procure the discharge if the officer will execute a new bond with sufficient sureties in like form, penalty, and conditions as the original bond.

Exoneration of first sureties

Liability of new sureties on new bond

1602. Upon the filing and approval of the new bond in the same manner as the original bond, the first sureties are exonerated from all further liability. Their bond remains in full force as to all liabilities incurred previous to the approval of the new bond. The liability of the sureties in the new bond is in all respects the same and may be enforced in like manner as the liability of the sureties in the original bond.

Relief of surety from subsequent liabilities

1603. Any surety on the official bond of a State, county or city officer may be relieved from liabilities thereon afterwards accruing by complying with the following provisions.

Surety to file written statement

1604. The surety shall file with the person or body authorized by law to approve the official bond a statement in writing setting forth the desire of the surety to be relieved from all liabilities afterwards arising thereon, and the reasons therefor.

Verification of statement

1605. The statement shall be subscribed and verified by the affidavit of the party filing it.

Service of copy of statement, and affidavit of service or due return

1606. A copy of the statement shall be served on the officer named in the official bond and due return or affidavit of service made thereon. If the officer has removed himself from the State, has absconded, conceals himself within the State to avoid service or can not after due diligence and inquiry be found therein, and the facts so appear to the satisfaction of the person or body authorized to hear the statement, such person or body may make an order that service be had by mailing a copy of the statement to the last known address of the officer. Service is complete upon compliance with the order and has the same validity and effect as if personal service had been made upon the officer.

Service by publication

Order affecting subsequent liability of surety

1607. In 10 days after the service of the statement the person or body with whom it is filed shall make an order:

(a) Releasing the surety from all liability thereafter to arise on the official bond,

(b) Declaring the office vacant, unless the officer has before that time executed and filed a supplemental bond.

Supplemental bond by principal

1608. Whenever a surety on any official bond serves a statement of intention to withdraw therefrom, is removed, becomes insolvent, or becomes otherwise incompetent, within 10 days after the service of the statement or disqualification the principal on the bond shall execute and file a supplemental bond. In the supplemental bond there shall be recited the names of the remaining original sureties, the name or names of the new surety or sureties who are substituted in lieu of the released or disqualified surety, and the amounts for which the new sureties have each become bound.

Conditions and amount of supplemental bond

1609. The supplemental bond shall be subject to the same conditions as the original bond. It shall be executed and approved in the same manner as the original bond and for the amount for which the withdrawing or incompetent surety was bound by the original bond.

Publication of notice of filing supplemental bond

1610. When any supplemental bond is filed and approved, the officer with whom the bond is filed or in whose office it is recorded shall give 10 days notice of the filing of the bond and the name of the party withdrawing from the former and the substitute on the new bond. The notice shall be given by publication in a paper published in the county, or if there is no paper in the county, then in the county nearest to it in which a newspaper is published. If the bond is that of a State officer, publication shall be made in a paper published in the City of Sacramento.

Liability of sureties on former bond

1611. Until the filing and approval of the supplemental bond the sureties on the former bond are liable for all the acts of their principal.

Remaining liability of released surety

1612. No surety is released from damages or liabilities for acts, omissions, or causes existing or which arose before the making of the order releasing the surety. Legal proceedings may be had therefor in all respects as though no order had been made.

1613. The release, discharge, voluntary withdrawal, or incompetency of a surety on any official bond does not affect the bond as to the remaining sureties thereon, or alter or change their liability in any respect. Liability of remaining sureties

Article 8. Payment of Premiums

1650. This article does not apply to notaries public. Notaries public

1651. The premium or charge for bonds given by surety companies for the officers, herein named, and for their deputies, clerks, assistants or subordinate officers shall be paid as follows: Payment of premium or charge for bonds

(a) State officers, by the State.

(b) County officers, by the county.

(c) Township officers, by the county in which the township is situated.

(d) School districts or other special district officers, by the school district or other special district, respectively.

(e) City officers, by the city.

1652. No premium or charge paid by the State, a county, city, or district shall exceed one-half of 1 per cent per annum on the amount of the bond. Amount to be paid

1653. The payment of premiums for the official bonds of deputies, clerks, assistants or subordinate officers of county officers shall not be a county charge unless the amount fixed for such bond has been approved by the board of supervisors. Approval for payment of premiums

Chapter 4. Resignations and Vacancies

Article 1. Resignations

1750. Resignations shall be in writing, and made as follows: To whom resignations made

(a) By the Governor and Lieutenant Governor, to the Legislature, if it is in session; and if not, then to the Secretary of State.

(b) By all officers commissioned by the Governor, to the Governor.

(c) By Senators and Members of the Assembly, to the presiding officers of their respective houses, who shall immediately transmit the resignation to the Governor.

(d) By all county and township officers not commissioned by the Governor, to the clerk of the board of supervisors of their respective counties.

(e) By officers of a municipal corporation, to the clerk of the legislative body of their corporation.

(f) By all other appointed officers, to the body or officer that appointed them.

1751. In all cases not otherwise provided for in this article or elsewhere, a resignation is made by filing the resignation in the office of the Secretary of State. Other resignations

Article 2. Vacancies

1770. An office becomes vacant on the happening of any of the following events before the expiration of the term: Vacancies

(a) The death of the incumbent.

(b) His insanity, when determined by a final judgment or final order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(c) His resignation.

(d) His removal from office.

(e) His ceasing to be an inhabitant of the State, or if the office be local, of the district, county, city, or township for which he was chosen or appointed, or within which the duties of his office are required to be discharged.

(f) His absence from the State without the permission required by law beyond the period allowed by law.

(g) His ceasing to discharge the duties of his office for the period of three consecutive months, except when prevented by sickness, or when absent from the State with the permission required by law.

(h) His conviction of a felony or of any offense involving a violation of his official duties.

(i) His refusal or neglect to file his official oath or bond within the time prescribed.

(j) The decision of a competent tribunal declaring void his election or appointment.

(k) The making of an order vacating his office or declaring his office vacant when he fails to furnish an additional or supplemental bond.

(l) His commitment to a hospital or sanitarium by a court of competent jurisdiction as a drug addict, dipsomaniac, inebriate or stimulant addict; but in that event the office shall not be deemed vacant until the order of commitment has become final.

(Amended by Stats. 1943, Ch. 166.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

1770. An office becomes vacant on the happening of any of the following events before the expiration of the term:

(a) The death of the incumbent.

(b) His insanity, found upon a commission of lunacy issued to determine the fact.

(c) His resignation.

(d) His removal from office.

(e) His ceasing to be an inhabitant of the State, or if the office be local, of the district, county, city, or township for which he was chosen or appointed, or within which the duties of his office are required to be discharged.

(f) His absence from the State without the permission required by law beyond the period allowed by law.

(g) His ceasing to discharge the duties of his office for the period of three consecutive months, except when prevented by sickness, or when absent from the State with the permission required by law.

(h) His conviction of a felony or of any offense involving a violation of his official duties.

(i) His refusal or neglect to file his official oath or bond within the time prescribed.

(j) The decision of a competent tribunal declaring void his election or appointment.

(k) The making of an order vacating his office or declaring his office vacant when he fails to furnish an additional or supplemental bond.

Notice to fill vacancy

1771. When an officer is removed, declared insane, or convicted of a felony or offense involving a violation of his official duty, or when his election or appointment is declared void, the body or person before whom the proceedings are had shall give notice thereof to the officer empowered to fill the vacancy.

Commission by Governor to fill vacancy

1772. When any office becomes vacant and no mode is provided by law for filling the vacancy, the Governor shall fill the vacancy by granting a commission, to expire at the end of the next session of the Legislature or at the next election by the people.

Writ of election to fill vacancy

1773. When a vacancy occurs in either house of the Legislature, the Governor shall at once issue a writ of election to fill the vacancy.

Appointment by Governor subject to action thereon at next session of Legislature

1774. When an office, the appointment to which is vested in the Governor and Senate, or in the Legislature, either becomes vacant or the term of the incumbent of which expires during the recess of the Legislature, the Governor may appoint a person to the office. The appointee can only hold the office until the adjournment of the next session of the Legislature.

Within 10 days after the meeting of the Legislature, the Governor shall transmit to it a list of all such appointments.

Appointment by Governor for unexpired term

1775. A vacancy in the office of either the Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer, or Attorney General shall be filled by a person appointed by the Governor, who shall hold his office for the balance of the unexpired term.

Appointment by Governor with or without advice of the Senate, for unexpired term

1776. Except as otherwise provided in the Constitution, when a person is appointed by the Governor, or by the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, either to fill a vacancy in any office or to fill an office when the appointment is not made until after the expiration of the preceding term, the appointee holds office only for the balance of the unexpired term as provided by the law creating the office.

Rights and duties of vacancy appointee

1777. After filing his official oath and bond, any person elected or appointed to fill a vacancy possesses all the rights and powers and is subject to all the liabilities, duties, and obligations of the officer whose vacancy he fills.

Chapter 5. Obtaining Possession of Office

Possession of records pertaining to office

1850. Every officer is entitled to the possession of all books and papers pertaining to his office, or in the custody of a former incumbent by virtue of his office.

Right of incumbent to petition for delivery of office records

1851. If any person, including a former incumbent, refuses or neglects to deliver to the actual incumbent any such books or papers, the actual incumbent may petition any court of record sitting in the county where the person so refusing or neglecting resides, or any judge of the superior court residing therein.

Proceeding to determine petition

1852. After notice to the adverse party, the court or judge shall proceed in a summary way to hear the allegations and proof of the parties, and to order any such books or papers to be delivered to the petitioner.

Enforcement of order for delivery of records

1853. The execution of the order and the delivery of the books and papers may be enforced by:

(a) Attachment as for a witness,

(b) At the request of the petitioner, by a warrant directed to the sheriff or a constable of the county commanding him to search for such books and papers, and to take and deliver them to the petitioner.

Wrongful occupation of office a misdemeanor

1854. Every person who wilfully and knowingly intrudes himself into any public office to which he has not been elected or appointed, and every person who, having been an executive, administrative or ministerial officer, wilfully exercises any of the functions of his office after his term has expired, and a successor has been elected or appointed and has qualified, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Punishment for withholding or destroying records

1855. Every officer whose office is abolished by law, or who, after the expiration of the time for which he may be appointed or elected, or after he has resigned or been legally removed from office, wilfully and unlawfully

(a) mutilates, destroys, or takes away the records, papers, documents, or other writings appertaining or belonging to his office, or

(b) withholds or detains from his successor, or other person entitled thereto, the records, papers, documents, or other writings appertaining or belonging to his office, or any money or property in his custody as such officer, is punishable by imprisonment in the State prison not less than one nor more than 10 years.

CHAPTER 6. LIABILITY OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

Article 1. General

Definition

1950. As used in this chapter, "board" means board of supervisors, board of city trustees, city council, board of education, board of school trustees or the legislative body of a county, city or school district, whatever the name by which it is known.

Definition

1951. As used in this chapter, "public property" means public street, highway, bridge, building, park, grounds, works or property.

Construction

1952. This article shall not be construed as enlarging the duty or liability of any public officer.

Liability of officer of State, district, county or city for damage to person or property

1953. No officer of the State or of any district, county, or city is liable for any damage or injury to any person or property resulting from the defective or dangerous condition of any public property, unless all of the following first appear:

(a) The injury sustained was the direct and proximate result of such defective or dangerous condition.

(b) The officer had notice of such defective or dangerous condition or such defective or dangerous condition was directly attributable to work done by him, or under his direction, in a negligent, careless or unworkmanlike manner.

(c) He had authority and it was his duty to remedy such condition at the expense of the State or of a political subdivision thereof and that funds for that purpose were immediately available to him.

(d) Within a reasonable time after receiving such notice and being able to remedy such condition, he failed so to do, or failed to take reasonable steps to give adequate warning of such condition.

(e) The damage or injury was sustained while such public property was being carefully used, and due care was being exercised to avoid the danger due to such condition.

Liability of board members for negligence of subordinates

1954. No member of any board is liable for the negligent act or omission of any appointee or employee appointed or employed by him in his official capacity, whether the appointment or employment was made singly or in conjunction with other members of the board, unless the member or members of the board making the appointment or employment either:

(a) Knew or had notice that the person appointed or employed was inefficient and incompetent to perform or render the service or services for which he was appointed or employed.

(b) Retained such inefficient or incompetent person after knowledge or notice of such inefficiency or incompetency.

Liability when law declared unconstitutional

1955. If any officer, agent, or employee of the State, a district, county, political subdivision, or city acts in good faith and without malice under the apparent authority of any law of the State, whether an initiative measure or an act enacted by the Legislature and the law subsequently is judicially declared to be unconstitutional as in conflict with the Constitution of the State or of the United States, he is not civilly liable in any action in which he would not have been liable if the law had not been declared unconstitutional, nor is he liable to any greater extent than he would have been if the law had not been declared unconstitutional.

Insurance and premium charge

1956. The State, school districts, counties, and municipalities may insure their officers, including officers as defined in Article 2, against any liability, other than a liability which may be insured against under the provisions of Division 4 of the Labor Code, for injuries or damages resulting from their negligence or carelessness during the course of their service or employment and for the injuries or damages resulting from the dangerous or defective condition of public property, including public property as defined in Article 2, and due to their alleged negligence or carelessness, either by self-insurance or in any insurer authorized to transact such insurance in the State. The premium for the insurance is a proper charge against the Treasury of the State, school district, county or municipality.

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

1956. The State, school districts, counties, and municipalities may insure their officers, including officers as defined in Article 2, against any liability, other than a liability which may be insured against under the provisions of Division 4 of the Labor Code, for injuries or damages resulting from the dangerous or defective condition of public property, including public property as defined in Article 2, and due to their alleged negligence or carelessness, either by self-insurance or in any insurer authorized to transact such insurance in the State. The premium for the insurance is a proper charge against the treasury of the State, school district, county or municipality.

Article 2. Presentment of Claims

Definitions

1980. As used in this article:

(a) "Person" includes any pupil attending the public schools of any school or high school district.

(b) In addition to the definition of public property as contained in Section 1951, "public property" includes any vehicle, implement or machinery whether owned by the State, a school district, county, or municipality, or operated by or under the direction, authority or at the request of any public officer.

(c) "Officer" or "officers" includes any deputy, assistant, agent or employee of the State, a school district, county or municipality acting within the scope of his office, agency or employment.

Verified claim for damages

1981. Whenever it is claimed that any person has been injured or any property damaged as a result of the negligence or carelessness of any public officer or employee occurring during the course of his service or employment or as a result of the dangerous or defective condition of any public property, alleged to be due to the negligence or carelessness of any officer or employee, within 90 days after the accident has occurred a verified claim for damages shall be presented in writing and filed with the officer or employee and the clerk or secretary of the legislative body of the school district, county, or municipality, as the case may be. In the case of a State officer the claim shall be filed with the officer and the Governor.

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

1981. Whenever it is claimed that any person has been injured or any property damaged as a result of the dangerous or defective condition of any public property, and alleged to be due to the negligence or carelessness of any officer, within 90 days after the accident has occurred a verified claim for damages shall be presented in writing and filed with the officer and the clerk or secretary of the legislative body of the school district, county, or municipality, as the case may be. In the case of a State officer the claim shall be filed with the officer and the Governor.

Contents of claim

1982. The claim shall specify the name and address of the claimant, the date and place of the accident and the extent of the injuries or damages received.

Article 3. Suits for Damages

Cost of defending suit against member of a board; to whom chargeable

2000. Whenever suit for damages resulting from

(a) injuries caused by or due to the inefficiency or incompetency of any appointee or employee of any board or any member thereof, or

(b) negligence in failing or neglecting to remedy the dangerous or defective condition of any public property or to take such action as is reasonably necessary to protect the public against the condition is brought against any member of a board, the cost of defending the suit, including attorney fees actually expended in defending the suit, is a charge against the county, city or school district of which the member was an officer if the member had neither knowledge nor notice of

(1) the inefficiency or incompetency of the appointee or employee at the time of the injury, or

(2) the dangerous or defective condition.

Attorney for State, district, county, municipality, or other public or quasi public corporations to defend suits

2001. (a) Whenever suit for damages is brought against any officer of the State or of any district, county, or city both

(1) on account of injuries to persons or property resulting from the dangerous or defective condition of any public property and

(2) on account of any action or work done by him in his official capacity, when done under and according to the provisions of the law respecting his office, or

(b) Whenever suit for damages is brought against any officer, including officers as defined in Article 2, of the State or of any school district, county or municipality on account of injuries to persons or property, alleged to have been received as a result of

(1) the negligence or carelessness of such officer occurring during the course of his service or employment, or

(2) the dangerous or defective condition of any public property, alleged to be due to the negligence or carelessness of such officer, it is the duty of the attorney for the State, district, county, municipality, or other public or quasi-public corporation, as the case may be, to act as counsel in defense of such suit, unless lawful provision has been made for the employment of other counsel in connection therewith.

The fees and expenses involved in a suit referred to in subdivision (b) are a lawful charge against the State, school district, county or municipality, as the case may be.

Suits for damages for official acts, Attorney General or district attorney to defend 2002. Whenever suit for damages is brought against any State or county officer or employee on account of his official actions the officer or employee may

(a) If he is a State officer or employee, with the consent of the head of the department in which he is employed, have the action referred to the Attorney General,

(b) If he is a county officer or employee, with the consent of the board of supervisors, have the action referred to the district attorney.

Upon the determination of such attorney that the officer or employee performed his official duty in good faith and without malice, it is the duty of the attorney to appear and defend the officer or employee or, in the case of a State officer or employee, to authorize any attorney in the department to appear and defend the State officer or employee.

The costs and expenses involved in such an action against a State or county officer or employee are a lawful charge against the funds of the department by which the State officer or employee was employed or of the county by which the county officer or employee was employed, and for which he was acting officially. The department or the county may recover from the officer or employee any costs or expenses paid out by it under the provisions of this section if it develops that the officer or employee acted in bad faith or with malice.

County counsel

In any county having a county counsel the board of supervisors may direct him to perform the duties imposed by this section upon district attorneys.

CHAPTER 7. REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

Article 1. General

Forfeiture of office

3000. An officer forfeits his office upon conviction of designated crimes as specified in the Constitution and laws of the State.

Intoxication a misdemeanor—forfeiture of office, filling of vacancy

3001. Any State, county, or city officer who is intoxicated while in discharge of the duties of his office, or by reason of intoxication is disqualified for the discharge of, or neglects his duties, is guilty of a misdemeanor. On conviction of such misdemeanor he forfeits his office, and the vacancy occasioned thereby shall be filled in the same manner as if the officer had filed his resignation in the proper office.

Article 2. Impeachment

Subject to impeachment

3020. The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer, Attorney General, Chief Justice, Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, the Presiding Justice and Associate Justices of the District Courts of Appeal, and the judges of the superior court are liable to impeachment for any misdemeanor in office.

By resolution

3021. All impeachments shall be by resolution adopted, originated in, and conducted by managers elected by the Assembly.

Articles of impeachment, trial before Senate

3022. The managers shall prepare articles of impeachment, present them at the bar of the Senate, and prosecute them. The trial shall be before the Senate, sitting as a court of impeachment.

Impeachment for misdemeanor

3023. When an officer is impeached by the Assembly for a misdemeanor in office, the articles of impeachment shall be delivered to the President of the Senate.

Day for hearing impeachment

3024. The Senate shall assign a day for the hearing of the impeachment and inform the Assembly thereof.

Service on defendant of articles of impeachment

3025. Not less than 10 days before the day fixed for the hearing, the President of the Senate shall have served on the defendant a copy of the articles of impeachment, with a notice to appear and answer the same at the time and place appointed.

Personal service or by publication

3026. The service shall be made upon the defendant personally. If upon diligent inquiry he can not be found within the State, upon proof of that fact the Senate may order publication to be made, in such manner as it deems proper, of a notice requiring him to appear at a specified time and place and answer the articles of impeachment.

Procedure optional with Senate where defendant absent

3027. If the defendant does not appear, upon proof of service or publication the Senate may, of its own motion or for cause shown, assign another day for hearing the impeachment, or may proceed to trial and judgment in the absence of the defendant.

Defendant's pleadings

3028. When the defendant appears, he may object in writing to the sufficiency of the articles of impeachment, or he may answer the articles by an oral plea of not guilty.

Senate proceedings on refusal to plead or plea of guilty

3029. If the objection to the sufficiency of the articles of impeachment is not sustained by a majority of the members of the Senate who heard the argument, the defendant shall be ordered forthwith to answer the articles of impeachment. If he then pleads guilty, or refuses to plead, the Senate shall render judgment of conviction against him.

Plea of not guilty

3030. If the defendant pleads not guilty, the Senate shall try the impeachment at the time it appoints. The plea shall be entered upon the Senate Journal, and puts in issue every material allegation of the articles of impeachment.

Oath by Senate members present

3031. At the time and place appointed, and before the Senate acts on the impeachment, the secretary shall administer to the President of the Senate, and the President of the Senate to each of the members of the Senate present, an oath truly and impartially to hear, try, and determine the impeachment. No member of the Senate can act or vote upon the impeachment, or upon any question arising thereon, without having taken such oath.

Number of votes for impeachment

3032. The defendant can not be convicted on impeachment without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members elected, voting by ayes and noes. If two-thirds of the members elected do not concur in a conviction, he shall be acquitted.

Judgment by resolution

3033. After conviction and at the time appointed by the Senate, it shall pronounce judgment, in the form of a resolution entered upon the Senate Journal.

Adoption of resolution

3034. On the adoption of the resolution by a majority of the members present who voted on the question of acquittal or conviction, it becomes the judgment of the Senate.

Form of judgment

3035. The judgment may be that the defendant be suspended, or that he be removed from office and disqualified to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit under the State.

Judgment of suspension

3036. If judgment of suspension is given, during the continuance of the judgment the defendant is disqualified from receiving the salary, fees, or emoluments of the office.

Temporary suspension

3037. Whenever articles of impeachment against any officer subject to impeachment are presented to the Senate, the officer is temporarily suspended from his office and can not act in his official capacity until he is acquitted.

Temporary appointee for suspended office

3038. Upon temporary suspension of any officer other than the Governor, his office shall at once be temporarily filled by an appointment made by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate. The office shall be filled by the appointee until the acquittal of the party impeached or, in case of his removal, until the vacancy is filled at the next election.

Impeachment of Lieutenant Governor

3039. If the Lieutenant Governor is impeached, notice of the impeachment shall be immediately given to the Senate by the Assembly in order that another president may be chosen.

Impeachment no bar to criminal prosecution

3040. If the offense for which the defendant is convicted on impeachment is also the subject of an indictment or information, the indictment or information is not barred thereby.

Article 3. Removal Other Than by Impeachment

Accusation of misconduct

3060. An accusation in writing against any district, county, township, or municipal officer, for willful or corrupt misconduct in office, may be presented by the grand jury of the county for or in which the officer accused is elected or appointed. An accusation may not be presented without the concurrence of at least 12 grand jurors.

Offense charged

3061. The accusation shall state the offense charged in ordinary and concise language, and without repetition.

Delivery of accusation

3062. The accusation shall be delivered by the foreman of the grand jury to the district attorney of the county, unless he is the officer accused.

Service on defendant; notice of appearance

3063. The district attorney shall have a copy of the accusation served upon the defendant, and by notice in writing shall require the accused to appear before the superior court of the county, at a time stated in the notice, and answer the accusation. Appearance shall not be required in less than 10 days from the service of the notice. After service, the original accusation shall be filed with the clerk of the court.

Appearance, default

3064. The defendant shall appear at the time stated in the notice and answer the accusation, unless for some sufficient cause the court assigns another day for that purpose. If he does not appear, the court may proceed to hear and determine the accusation in his absence.

Answer

3065. The defendant may answer the accusation either by objecting to its sufficiency or any article therein, or by denying the truth of the accusation.

Objection

3066. If he objects to the legal sufficiency of the accusation, the objection shall be in writing. The objection need not be in any specific form. It is sufficient if it presents intelligibly the grounds of the objection.

Denial

3067. If he denies the truth of the accusation, the denial may be oral and without oath. The denial shall be entered upon the minutes.

Answer after objection

3068. If an objection to the sufficiency of the accusation is not sustained, the defendant shall answer thereto forthwith.

Plea of guilty or refusal to answer

Trial on denial

3069. If the defendant pleads guilty, or refuses to answer the accusation, the court shall render judgment of conviction against him. If he denies the matters charged, the court shall immediately, or at such time as it appoints, try the accusation.

Jury trial

3070. The trial shall be by a jury, and conducted in all respects in the same manner as the trial of an indictment.

Process

3071. The district attorney and the defendant are each entitled to such process as is necessary to enforce the attendance of witnesses as upon a trial of an indictment.

Conviction and removal

3072. Upon a conviction and at the time appointed by the court it shall pronounce judgment that the defendant be removed from office. To warrant a removal, the judgment shall be entered upon the minutes, and the causes of removal shall be assigned therein.

Removal of district attorney

3073. The same proceedings may be had on like grounds for the removal of a district attorney, except that the accusation shall be delivered by the foreman of the grand jury to the clerk, and by him to a judge of the superior court of the county. The judge shall appoint a person to act as prosecuting officer in the matter, or place the accusation in the hands of the district attorney of an adjoining county, and require him to conduct the proceedings.

DIVISION 5. PUBLIC WORK AND PUBLIC PURCHASES

CHAPTER 1. COST RECORDS TO BE KEPT

Work exempted

4000. This chapter does not apply to maintenance work, work occasioned by emergency, and work costing less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

Definition

4001. As used in this chapter, "engineer" means the State Highway Engineer, the State Engineer, the State Architect and every county engineer, county surveyor, county highway engineer, road commissioner, city engineer, commissioner of public works, superintendent of streets, harbor engineer, flood control engineer, the engineer of any board or commission of the State, the engineer of any board or commission of any city, and the engineer of any reclamation, irrigation or other district, political subdivision or agency of the State.

Definition

4002. As used in this chapter, "public work" means the construction of any bridge, road, street, highway, ditch, canal, dam, tunnel, excavation, building or structure within the State by day's labor or force account.

Accounts

4003. The engineer directing, supervising or superintending the construction, or in charge of the engineering work for or in connection with public work shall keep an accurate account of the cost of the public work.

Plans and specifications

4004. Prior to the commencement of the public work, the engineer shall prepare and file in his office full, complete and accurate plans and specifications, and an estimate of the cost thereof, except where other and adequate provision is made by law requiring the preparation and filing of such plans, specifications and estimates of cost by some other officer or in some other office.

Certificate of completion

4005. Within 60 days from the completion of any public work, the engineer shall prepare and file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the public work is performed, or if any reclamation, irrigation or other such district maintains an office, then in the office of his own district instead of the office of the county clerk, a certificate in writing verified by him in the same manner as complaints in civil actions, setting forth:

(a) The estimate of cost.

(b) Names of bidders with prices bid, if bids there be.

(c) Changes in adopted or approved plans and specifications.

(d) That the work performed has or has not been done in accordance with such plans and specifications.

(e) The total cost of the work, segregated so as to show the actual cost of all labor, materials, equipment, engineering or architectural services, including the services of public employees in connection with such work, and other expense. The cost shown for equipment shall include rentals paid or, if the equipment is publicly owned, a reasonable amount for depreciation and the cost of repairs thereon while so used.

(Amended by Stats. 1943, Ch. 469.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

4005. Within 60 days from the completion of any public work, the engineer shall prepare and file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the public work is performed, or if any reclamation, irrigation or other such district maintains an office, then in the office of his own district instead of the office of the county clerk, a certificate in writing verified by him in the same manner as complaints in civil actions, setting forth:

(a) The estimate of cost.

(b) Names of bidders with prices bid, if bids there be.

(c) Changes in adopted or approved plans and specifications.

(d) That the work performed has or has not been done in accordance with such plans and specifications.

(e) A list of any publicly-owned equipment used in the work.

(f) An itemized statement of the actual cost of all labor, materials, rentals, repairs, compensation and other insurance, transportation of labor, equipment and materials, engineering or architectural services, including the services of public employees in connection with the work, and any and all cost entering into the work performed, including a reasonable amount for depreciation of publicly-owned equipment used in the work and the cost of repairs thereon while so used.

Inspection as public records

4006. Plans, specifications and certificates referred to in this chapter are open to inspection and examination as a public record.

Violation a misdemeanor

4007. Every engineer who wilfully violates any of the provisions of this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 2. SUBLETTING AND SUBCONTRACTING

Exceptions

4100. This chapter does not apply to contracts for the construction, improvement or repair of State highways, including bridges, nor to city or county projects financed in whole or in part with motor vehicle fuel funds.

Legal and equitable rights and remedies

4101. Nothing in this chapter limits or diminishes any rights or remedies, either legal or equitable, which:

(a) An original or substituted subcontractor may have against the contractor, his successors or assigns.

(b) The State or any county, city, body politic, or public corporation, or public agency may have against the contractor, his successors or assigns, including the right to take over and complete the contract.

Details for bids

4102. Any officer, department, board or commission taking bids for the construction of any public work or improvement shall provide in the specifications prepared for the work or improvement or in the general conditions under which bids will be received for the doing of the work incident to the public work or improvement that any person making a bid or offer to perform the work, shall, in his bid or offer, set forth:

(a) The name and the location of the mill, shop or office of each subcontractor who will perform work or labor or render service to the contractor in or about the construction of the work or improvement.

(b) The portion of the work which will be done by each subcontractor.

Failure to specify subcontractor

4103. If a contractor fails to specify a subcontractor for any portion of the work to be performed under the contract, he agrees to perform that portion himself.

Change in terms of accepted bid

4104. No contractor whose bid is accepted shall, without the consent of the awarding authority, either:

(a) Substitute any person as subcontractor in place of the subcontractor designated in the original bid.

(b) Permit any subcontract to be assigned or transferred or allow it to be performed by anyone other than the original subcontractor.

(c) Sublet or subcontract any portion of the work as to which his original bid did not designate a subcontractor.

Public emergency ground for change

4105. Subletting or subcontracting of any portion of the work as to which no subcontractor was designated in the original bid shall only be permitted in cases of public emergency or necessity, and then only after a finding reduced to writing as a public record of the awarding authority setting forth the facts constituting the emergency or necessity.

Cancellation of contract recovery barred

4106. A contractor violating any of the provisions of this chapter violates his contract and the awarding authority may cancel the contract. After any such violation, the contractor can not recover thereon for any of the work done or materials furnished on the public work or improvement.

Right of subcontractor

4107. The failure on the part of a contractor to comply with any provision of this chapter does not constitute a defense to the contractor in any action brought against him by a subcontractor.

Chapter 3. Contractor's Bond

Bond

4200. Every person to whom is awarded a contract involving an expenditure in excess of one hundred dollars

($100) for the improvement, erection or construction of any building, road, bridge or other structure, excavating, or other mechanical work for the State, or for any political subdivision or agency of the State shall, before entering upon the performance of the work, file a good and sufficient bond with the officer or body by whom the contract was awarded.

Approval of bond

4201. The contractor's bond shall be approved by the officer or body by whom the contract was awarded.

Terms of bond

4202. To be approved, the contractor's bond shall be in a sum not less than:

(a) One-half of the total amount payable by the terms of the contract when the total amount payable does not equal or exceed five million dollars ($5,000,000).

(b) One-fourth of the total amount payable by the terms of the contract when the total amount payable is not less than five million dollars ($5,000,000) and does not exceed ten million dollars ($10,000,000).

If the total amount payable by the terms of the contract exceeds ten million dollars ($10,000,000), a bond in the sum of two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000) is sufficient.

Sureties

4203. To be approved, the contractor's bond shall be executed by either two or more good and sufficient sureties or by a corporate surety, as provided by law, in an amount not less than the sum specified in the bond.

Sureties liability

4204. To be approved, the contractor's bond shall provide that if the person or his subcontractors, fail to pay for any materials, provisions, provender or other supplies, or teams, used in, upon, for or about the performance of the work contracted to be done, or for any work or labor thereon of any kind, that the surety or sureties will pay for the same, in an amount not exceeding the sum specified in the bond, and also, in case suit is brought upon the bond, a reasonable attorney's fee, to be fixed by the court.

Beneficiaries of bond

4205. To be approved, the contractor's bond shall by its terms inure to the benefit of any and all persons entitled to file claims under Section 1184e of the Code of Civil Procedure so as to give a right of action to them or their assigns in any suit brought upon the bond.

Suit against sureties

4206. Suit against the surety or sureties on the contractor's bond may be brought by any claimant, or his assign, at any time after the claimant has ceased to perform labor or furnish material, or both, and until the expiration of six months after the period in which verified claims may be filed as provided in Section 1184e of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Verified claim not condition precedent

4207. The filing of a verified claim is not a condition precedent to the maintenance of an action against the surety or sureties on the contractor's bond. An action on the bond may be maintained separately from and without the filing of an action against the officer or body by whom the contract was awarded.

Upon the trial of the action, the court shall award to the prevailing party a reasonable attorney's fee, to be taxed as costs, and to be included in the judgment therein rendered. Attorney's fee

4208. Unless a contractor's bond is filed and approved as provided in this chapter, no claim in favor of the contractor arising under the contract shall be audited, allowed, or paid by any officer of the State, or of any political subdivision or State agency. Persons who have in good faith performed work upon the contract, or supplied materials for the execution thereof, shall receive payment of their respective claims in the manner provided by Sections 1184, 1184a, 1184b, and 1184c of the Code of Civil Procedure upon giving notice by filing statements as provided in Section 1184e of the Code of Civil Procedure. Payment under contract; Payment when bond not filed and approved

CHAPTER 4. PREFERENCE FOR MATERIALS

Article 1. American-made Materials

4300. As used in this article:

(a) "United States" means the United States of America, and includes any Territory or insular possession of the United States. Definitions

(b) "Produced" includes mined and manufactured.

(c) "Materials" includes articles and supplies.

4301. This article does not apply to materials which are of a class or kind which are not, or which are manufactured from materials which are not produced in the United States. Materials exempted

4302 This article does not apply to medical and surgical instruments, scientific equipment, microscopes, lenses, or instruments used for scientific or medical purposes, including research. Medical and scientific exemptions

4303. The governing body of any political subdivision, municipal corporation, or district, and any public officer or person charged with the letting of contracts for (1) the construction, alteration, or repair of public works or (2) for the purchasing of materials for public use, shall let such contracts only to persons who agree to use or supply only such unmanufactured materials as have been produced in the United States, and only such manufactured materials as have been manufactured in the United States, substantially all from materials produced in the United States. Use or supply of American-made materials

4304. Every contract for the construction, alteration or repair of public works or for the purchase of materials for public use shall contain a provision that only unmanufactured materials produced in the United States, and only manufactured materials manufactured in the United States, substantially all from materials produced in the United States shall be used in the performance of the contract. Provision in contract regarding American-made materials

Any person who fails to comply with such provision shall not be awarded any contract to which this article applies for a period of three years from the date of the violation. Violation of provision

Posting of violation

4305. The name of the person failing to comply, together with a report of the facts constituting the violation, shall be posted by the governing board or person who let the contract in at least three public places in the county in which the contract was made.

Article 2. California-made Materials

Definition

4330. As used in this article, "supplies" includes goods, wares, merchandise, manufactures, and produce.

Preferences for local products

4331. Price, fitness and quality being equal, any body, officer, or other person charged with the purchase, or permitted or authorized to purchase supplies for the use of the State, or of any of its institutions or offices, or for the use of any county or city shall always prefer supplies grown, manufactured, or produced in the State, and shall next prefer supplies partially manufactured, grown, or produced in the State.

Advertisements to contain preferences

4332. All State, county, or city officers, all bodies, and other persons charged with advertising for supplies shall state in their advertisement that such preferences for California-made supplies will be made.

Prevention of proper competition

4333. In any advertisement for supplies no bid shall be asked for any article of a specific brand or mark nor any patent apparatus or appliances, when such requirement would prevent proper competition on the part of dealers in other articles of equal value, utility, or merit.

Restrictions on letting of contracts

4334. Public officers and bodies charged with the letting of contracts for public work, with the construction of public bridges, buildings and other structures, or with the purchase of supplies for any public use may give such contracts and purchase such supplies from persons manufacturing in the State the supplies to be used pursuant to contract or the supplies to be purchased if:

(a) The bids of such persons, or the prices quoted by them, do not exceed by more than 5 per cent the lowest bids or prices quoted by persons manufacturing the supplies outside the State.

(b) The major portion of the work of manufacturing the supplies is not done outside the State.

(c) In the opinion of the public officers or bodies, the public good will be served thereby.

DIVISION 6. PUBLIC BONDS AND OBLIGATIONS

CHAPTER 1. REGISTRATION OF BONDS

Conversion of coupon or bearer bond

5000. The owner of any coupon bond, or of any bond payable to bearer, issued by the State, or any county, municipal corporation, or other public corporation in the State may present the bond to the treasurer or other officer who by law performs the duties of treasurer and request the conversion of the bond into a registered bond.

Conversion to registered bond

5001. The treasurer, or officer performing the duties of treasurer, shall cut off and cancel the coupons of a coupon bond so presented, and shall stamp, print, or write upon the back or the face of a coupon or bearer bond so presented a statement to the effect that the bond is registered in the name of the owner, and that thereafter the interest and principal of the bond are payable to the registered owner.

Statement of conversion

5002. The statement may be in substantially the following form:

(Date, giving month, year, and day.)

This bond is registered pursuant to the statute in such cases made and provided in the name of (Here insert name of owner) and the interest and principal thereof are hereafter payable to such owner.

Treasurer (or such other officer).

Registered owner

5003. After any bond is registered, the principal and interest of the bond are payable to the registered owner.

Record of registered bonds and owners

5004. The treasurer, or other officer performing the duties of treasurer, shall keep in his office a book which shall at all times show what bonds are registered and in whose names respectively.

Transfer of registered bond

5005. After a bond is registered it may be transferred from time to time by the registered owner, in person or by attorney, on presentation of the bond to the treasurer, or such other officer, and the bond be again registered as before.

Issuance of bonds

5006. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any law or municipal charter authorizing the issuance of bonds, whenever under any statute of the State or any charter of any municipal corporation in the State, any bonds are issued, they may be issued either in the form of coupon bonds, in the form of registered bonds, or some in the form of coupon bonds and some in the form of registered bonds, as may be provided in the proceedings for the issuance of the bonds. The provisions of this chapter apply to coupon bonds so issued.

5007. (Repealed by Stats. 1943, Ch. 746.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

5007. With the consent of the State Treasurer or of the legislative body of the county, municipal corporation, or other public corporation which issued the bonds, bonds registered under this chapter may be reconverted into coupon bonds at the expense of the holder thereof. The fee to be charged the holder of any bond for such reconversion shall be fixed by the State Treasurer or legislative body.

Fee for registering bond

5008. The treasurer, or officer performing the duties of treasurer, shall be entitled for registering a bond to charge and collect a fee of fifty cents ($0.50) for every one thousand dollars ($1,000) of the par value thereof for the purposes of providing the additional supplies and clerical help necessary in complying with this chapter.

Disposition of moneys

5009. All moneys received by the State Treasurer under this chapter shall be paid monthly into the State Treasury for credit to the General Fund.

CHAPTER 2. PROTECTION OF BOND GUARANTORS

Construction

5100. This chapter shall be liberally construed to the end that the purpose hereof may be made effective.

"Bonds"

5101. As used in this chapter, "bonds" means State, county, municipal, or other public corporation or district bonds.

"Guarantor"

5102. As used in this chapter, "guarantor" means the person or persons guaranteeing the payment of bonds, the repurchase thereof, or the payment or repurchase of any interest therein.

"Issuing body"

5103. As used in this chapter, "issuing body" means the State, any subdivision thereof, municipality, public corporation, or district.

"Order"

5104. As used in this chapter, "order" means declaration, proclamation, or order of any officer or court having jurisdiction to make the declaration, proclamation, or order.

Modification of guarantors' obligations

5105. Whenever by operation of law or by order the bonded indebtedness of any issuing body is reduced in amount, the interest thereon reduced, the time for the payment thereof or of any tax or assessment levied to pay the indebtedness, the interest thereon, or any portion of both or either of them, extended, or any other term or condition for the payment thereof altered, the obligations of all guarantors are reduced as to principal and interest, or either of them, extended as to the time of payment and altered as to any and all terms thereof in the same manner and to the same extent as the obligation or obligations of the issuing body and the tax or assessment payers, or either of them, are reduced, extended or altered.

Effect of default on guarantors' obligations

5106. Whenever by operation of law or by order any issuing body defaults in the payment of its bonded indebtedness, the obligations of guarantors shall be extended for the period of the default but not to exceed three years after the commencement thereof.

Limitation on relief of guarantors

5107. The relief of guarantors is limited to the extent of defaults in principal, interest, or both principal and interest of the bonds guaranteed.

Duties of trustees

5108. If the guarantors function in the capacity of trustee or if the custody of the bonds is in the possession of a trustee, and administered by the trustee, he shall be required to distribute interest and principal, in the proportion that each is received by him, to the beneficiaries under the trust.

CHAPTER 3. PAYMENT OF TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS WITH BONDS

"Bond"

5200. As used in this chapter, "bond" means bond, coupon, check, warrant, or other written evidence of indebtedness.

"Public body"

5201. As used in this chapter, "public body" means the State, any county, city, or any subdivision of the State or of a county or city, any body politic and any public district of any kind organized under any law of the State or ordinance of any county, city or subdivision of the State, or any of them.

"Tax or assessment"

5202. As used in this chapter, "tax or assessment" means any tax or assessment levied to pay for the acquisition of any property in connection with, or for the opening, widening, construction and improvement, or any of them, of any public street or highway, or to pay the interest, principal or sinking fund of any bonds issued to pay therefor.

Bond as payment of tax or assessment

5203. Any tax or assessment levied by any public body under any law of the State or any ordinance or order of any subdivision thereof or of any municipality therein which is due and payable, together with any penalty or interest due thereon, may be paid and shall be extinguished, together with any lien created as security for the payment thereof, to the extent of the face value of any valid, outstanding, and unpaid bond of the public body presented in payment. To be used in payment, the bond shall either be due at the time presented or become due within 60 days thereafter.

Bond as part payment of tax or assessment

5204. If the tax or assessment sought to be extinguished is in excess of the face value of the bond presented, the indebtedness shall be satisfied to the extent of the bond presented, satisfaction to be applied first to penalty, then to interest or coupons due, and then on account of principal.

Credit for excess of amount of bond

5205. If the face value of the bond presented is in excess of the total indebtedness, then credit may be given without interest thereon for any such excess on account of any subsequent, but then not due, liability of the tax or assessment payer presenting the bond. No money or other consideration except such credit shall be given for any excess, and any excess which is over and above the total present and future liability of the tax or assessment payer shall be canceled.

Undue bond as payment of tax or assessment

5206. Valid, outstanding, and unpaid bonds not yet due may also be used in payment of any tax or assessment. The public body to which payment is made shall not accept nor be required to accept any bond not yet due if the acceptance thereof impairs the rights or obligations of the public body issuing the bond, of any holder of any such bond, or of any person owning any property subject to the lien, if any, of such bond.

Cancellation of bonds

5207. All bonds surrendered or paid in shall be canceled, and the treasurer or person exercising the duties of treasurer of the public body shall make the appropriate entries upon the books of the public body.

DIVISION 7. MISCELLANEOUS

CHAPTER 1. PUBLICATIONS AND OFFICIAL ADVERTISING

Article 1. General

"Newspaper of general circulation"

6000. A "newspaper of general circulation" is a newspaper published for the dissemination of local or telegraphic news and intelligence of a general character, which has a bona fide subscription list of paying subscribers, and has been established, printed and published at regular intervals in the State, county, or city where publication, notice by publication, or official advertising is to be given or made for at least one year preceding the date of the publication, notice or advertisement.

Special newspapers

6001. A newspaper devoted to the interests, or published for the entertainment or instruction of a particular class, profession, trade, calling, race, or denomination, or for any number thereof, when the avowed purpose is to entertain or instruct such classes, is not a newspaper of general circulation.

"Established" newspaper

6002. For a newspaper to be "established," it shall have been in existence under a specified name during the whole of the one year period.

"Printed" newspaper

6003. For a newspaper to be "printed," the mechanical work of producing it, that is the work of typesetting and impressing type on paper, shall have been performed during the whole of the one year period.

If a monthly average of at least 50 per cent of the work of typesetting and a monthly average of at least 50 per cent of the work of impressing type on paper is done in accordance with the other provisions of this article, the requirements embodied in "printed" are met.

"Published" newspaper

6004. For a newspaper to be "published," it shall have been issued from the place where it is printed and sold to or circulated among the people and its subscribers during the whole of the one year period.

"Printed" and "published" distinguished

6005. "Printed" and "published" are not synonymous. Each relates to separate acts or functions necessary to constitute a newspaper of general circulation

Standing of certain newspapers not altered

6006. Nothing in this chapter alters the standing of any newspaper which, prior to the passage of Chapter 258 of the Statutes of 1923, was an established newspaper of general circulation, irrespective of whether it was printed in the place where it was published for a period of one year as required.

Article 2. Establishing Standing as Newspaper of General Circulation

Establishment as newspaper of general circulation

6020. Whenever a newspaper desires to have its standing as a newspaper of general circulation ascertained and established, it may, by its publisher, manager, editor or attorney, file a verified petition in the superior court of the county in which it is established, printed and published, setting forth the facts which justify such action.

Petition

6021. The petition or the substance thereof, together with a notice that the petitioner intends on a named day to apply for an order declaring it to be a newspaper of general circulation, shall be published for 10 days:

(a) In the petitioning newspaper, and

(b) In some other newspaper if the court so directs.

Publication, notice of hearing, appearance

6022. Upon proof of the publication of the petition and notice, the court shall set the petition for hearing. Any person may appear and contest the petition either prior to or on the day set for the hearing or the day to which it is continued.

Hearing, decision, and judgment

6023. The court shall hear the proofs of the petitioner and contestant, if there be any. Within 10 days thereafter it shall render its decision and judgment and the clerk shall enter it in the records of the court.

Vacating, modifying or setting aside of decision and judgment

6024. The decision and judgment may be vacated, modified or set aside by the court on its own motion, or on the motion of any person, whether a party to the original proceeding or not, upon:

(a) A verified statement of facts being made to the court.

(b) Ten days' notice to the petitioner.

(c) A satisfactory showing made to the court that the newspaper has ceased to be a newspaper of general circulation.

Validity of publications

6025. All publications made in a newspaper during the period it was adjudged to be a newspaper of general circulation are valid and sufficient.

Appeal

6026. An appeal may be taken to the supreme court from any final decision or judgment, or from any final order vacating, modifying or setting aside a decision or judgment previously entered.

Permissive

6027. This article is not obligatory upon nor does it require any newspaper to comply with its provisions in order to be in fact, or in law, a newspaper of general circulation. Any newspaper may at its option avail itself of the provisions of this article.

Article 3. Publications

Publication

6040. Whenever any official advertising, notice, resolution, order, or other matter of any nature whatsoever is required by law to be published in a newspaper, such publication shall be made only in a newspaper of general circulation.

Publication within limited jurisdiction

6041. Whenever any publication, or notice by publication, or official advertising is required by any law of the State to be given or made by any State, county or city officer, by the officer of any political subdivision of the State, or by any officer of any court, the publication, notice by publication, or official advertising shall be given or made only in a newspaper of general circulation published within the jurisdiction of the officer.

Publication at place nearest to required jurisdiction

6042. Where no newspaper of general circulation is published within the jurisdiction of the officer, then the publication, notice by publication, or official advertising shall be given or made in a newspaper of general circulation published nearest thereto.

Set-up and contents

6043. All such publications, notices by publication, or official advertisements shall be set in type not smaller than nonpareil, and shall be preceded with words printed in blackface type, not smaller than nonpareil, describing or expressing in general terms the purport or character of the notice intended to be given.

Responsibility of officers

6044. State, county or city officers, officers of political subdivisions, and officers of courts who violate or disregard the provisions of this article, or of Article 1, are responsible personally and on their official bonds for all damages occasioned thereby, together with one hundred dollars ($100) liquidated damages in each case, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction by the person aggrieved or interested.

CHAPTER 2. FEES

Performance for fees only

6100. State, county and township officers shall not perform any official services unless upon the payment of the fees prescribed by law for the performance of the services, except as provided in this chapter.

Habeas corpus exception

6101. No fee shall be charged in proceedings upon habeas corpus.

Appointment of guardian under relief laws exception

6102. No fee shall be charged in proceedings for the appointment of a guardian for any persons receiving charity or relief under the laws of the State.

No fees for official filing or service

6103. Neither the State nor any county, city, district, or other political subdivision, nor any public officer or body, acting in his official capacity on behalf of the State, or any county, city, district or other political subdivision, shall pay or deposit any fee for the filing of any document or paper, for the performance of any official service, or for the filing of any stipulation or agreement which may constitute an appearance in any court by any other party to the stipulation or agreement. This section does not apply where a public officer is acting with reference to private assets or obligations which have come under his jurisdiction by virtue of his office, or where it is specifically provided otherwise.

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

6103. Neither the State nor any county, city, district, or other political subdivision, nor any public officer or body, acting in his official capacity on behalf of the State, or any county, city, district or other political subdivision, shall pay or deposit any fee for the filing of any document or paper, or for the performance of any official service. This section does not apply where a public officer is acting with reference to private assets or obligations which have come under his jurisdiction by virtue of his office, or where it is specifically provided otherwise.

6104. Whenever an oath or affidavit is necessary in order that the State or any political subdivision thereof may recover funds or property due the State or political subdivision, no fee shall be charged for the taking of the oath.

No fee to those applying for charity

6105. Whenever an oath or affidavit is necessary in order that a person may obtain charity or relief from any agency or department of the United States, the State or any political subdivision thereof, no fee shall be charged for the taking of the oath.

No fee for official services relating to pensions

6106 Neither the State, nor any county or city, nor any public officer or body acting in his official capacity on behalf of the State, any county, or city, including notaries public, shall receive any fee or compensation for services rendered in an affidavit, or application relating to the securing of a pension, or the payment of a pension voucher, or any matter relating thereto.

Free official services to veterans or men in armed forces

6107. Neither the State nor any county, or city, nor any public officer or body acting in his official capacity on behalf of the State, any county, or city, including notaries public, shall demand or receive any fee or compensation for:

(a) Recording or indexing any discharge of a soldier, sailor, or marine of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or of a nurse who served in the American Red Cross or in the Army or Navy Nursing Corps.

(b) Issuing certified copies of such discharges.

(c) Any service whatever rendered in the matter of a pension claim, application, affidavit, voucher, or any claim to be presented to the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs under the World War Veterans' Act, 1924.

(d) Furnishing a certified copy of the public record of marriage, death, birth or divorce, deed of trust, mortgage, or property assessment, or making the search for them, when they are to be used in a claim for pension, or a claim for allotment, allowance, compensation, insurance, automatic insurance, or otherwise under the World War Veterans' Act, 1924 or under any other act of Congress for service in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps.

Liability for non-performance

The services specified in this section shall be rendered on the request of a United States official, a claimant, or his guardian or attorney. An officer is liable on his official bond for every failure or refusal to render the services.

(Amended by Stats. 1943, Ch. 319.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

6107. Neither the State nor any county, or city, nor any public officer or body acting in his official capacity on behalf of the State, any county, or city, including notaries public, shall demand or receive any fee or compensation for:

(a) Recording or indexing any discharge of a soldier, sailor, or marine of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or of a nurse who served in the American Red Cross or in the Army or Navy Nursing Corps.

(b) Issuing certified copies of such discharges.

(c) Any service whatever rendered in the matter of a pension claim, application, affidavit, voucher, or any claim to be presented to the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs under the World War Veterans' Act, 1924.

(d) Furnishing a verified copy of the public record of marriage, death, birth or divorce, deed of trust, mortgage, or property assessment, or making the search for them, when they are to be used in a claim for pension, or a claim for allotment, allowance, compensation, insurance, automatic insurance, or otherwise under the World War Veterans' Act, 1924

The services specified in this section shall be rendered on the request of a United States official, a claimant, or his guardian or attorney. An officer is liable on his official bond for every failure or refusal to render the services.

No fee relating to oath of office or claim against county

6108. No county or township officer shall charge or receive any fee or compensation for administering or certifying the oath of office or for filing or swearing to any claim or demand against any county in the State.

Receipt for fees

6109. Every county and township officer, upon receiving any fees for official duty or service, may be required by the person paying the fees to make out in writing and to deliver to the person a particular account of the fees. The account shall specify for what the fees, respectively, accrued, and the officer shall receipt it. If the officer refuses or neglects to do so when required, he is liable to the person paying the fees in treble the amount so paid.

Performance upon payment of fees Liability on bond

6110. Upon payment of the fees required by law, the officer shall perform the services required. For every failure or refusal to do so, the officer is liable upon his official bond.

CHAPTER 3. CRIMES RELATING TO PUBLIC RECORDS, DOCUMENTS, AND CERTIFICATES

Punishment for misuse of public records by officer

6200. Every officer having the custody of any record, map, or book, or of any paper or proceeding of any court, filed or deposited in any public office, or placed in his hands for any purpose, who is guilty of stealing, wilfully destroying, mutilating, defacing, altering or falsifying, removing or secreting the whole or any part of such record, map, book, paper, or proceeding, or who permits any other person to do so, is punishable by imprisonment in the State prison not less than one nor more than 14 years.

Punishment for misuse of public records by others

6201. Every person not an officer referred to in Section 6200, who is guilty of any of the acts specified in that section, is punishable by imprisonment in the State prison not exceeding five years, or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

False certificates or writings

6203. Every officer authorized by law to make or give any certificate or other writing is guilty of a misdemeanor if he makes and delivers as true any certificate or writing containing statements which he knows to be false.

CHAPTER 4. FOREIGN TRADE ZONES

"Public corporation"

6300. As used in this chapter, "public corporation" means the State, any political subdivision thereof, any incorporated municipality therein, any public agency of the State, of any political subdivision thereof, or of any municipality therein, or any corporate municipal instrumentality of this State or of this State and one or more other States.

19 U.S.C. 81, et seq

6301. As used in this chapter, "act of Congress" means the act of Congress approved June 18, 1934, entitled "An act to provide for the establishment, operation, and maintenance of foreign-trade zones in ports of entry of the United States, to expedite and encourage foreign commerce, and for other purposes" (48 U. S. Stats. at L. Ch. 590.).

Application by public corporation for foreign-trade zone

6302. Any public corporation may make application for the privilege of establishing, operating and maintaining a foreign-trade zone in accordance with the act of Congress.

Application by private corporation for foreign-trade zone

6303. Any private corporation organized under the laws of the State subsequent to September 15, 1935, for the purpose of establishing, operating and maintaining a foreign-trade zone in accordance with the act of Congress may make application for the privilege of establishing, operating and maintaining a foreign-trade zone in accordance with the act of Congress.

Establishment of foreign-trade zone

6304. Any public or private corporation authorized by this chapter to make such application and whose application is granted pursuant to the terms of the act of Congress may establish, operate, and maintain the foreign-trade zone:

(a) Subject to the conditions and restrictions of the act of Congress, and any amendments thereto.

(b) Under such rules and regulations and for the period of time that may be prescribed by the board established by the act of Congress to carry out the provisions of the act.

TITLE 2. GOVERNMENT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

DIVISION 1. GENERAL

CHAPTER 1. INTERSTATE COOPERATION

Senate Committee on Interstate Cooperation

8000. There is in the State Government a Senate Committee on Interstate Cooperation, consisting of five members of the Senate. The members and chairman of this committee shall be designated in the same manner as are the members and chairmen of standing committees of the Senate. The President of the Senate may serve as one of the five members of this committee.

Assembly Committee on Interstate Cooperation

8001. There is in the State Government an Assembly Committee on Interstate Cooperation consisting of five members of the Assembly. The members and the chairman of this committee shall be designated in the same manner as are the members and chairmen of standing committees of the Assembly. The Speaker of the Assembly may serve as one of the five members of this committee.

Period of functioning

8002. The Committee of the Senate and the Committee of the Assembly shall function during the regular sessions of the Legislature and also during the interim between such sessions. Their members shall serve until their successors are designated and they shall respectively constitute for the State the Senate and the Assembly Executive Committees of the American Legislators' Association.

California Commission on Interstate Cooperation

8003. There is in the State Government the California Commission on Interstate Cooperation.

Composition of commission

8004. The California Commission on Interstate Cooperation consists of 15 members, namely:

(a) The five members of the Senate Committee on Interstate Cooperation.

(b) The five members of the Assembly Committee on Interstate Cooperation.

(c) Five officers of the State appointed by the Governor who hold office during the pleasure of the Governor and one of whom shall be designated by him as chairman of the commission.

The Governor is ex officio an honorary nonvoting member of the commission.

Function of commission

8005. It is the function of the California Commission on Interstate Cooperation:

(a) To carry forward the participation of this State as a member of the Council of State Governments both regionally and nationally.

(b) To confer with officers of other States and of the Federal Government.

(c) To formulate proposals for cooperation between this State and the other States, and with the Federal Government.

(d) To organize and maintain governmental machinery for such purposes.

Establishment of committees and boards by commission

8006. The commission may establish such committees and advisory boards as it deems advisable to conduct conferences and to formulate proposals concerning subjects of intergovernmental cooperation. Subject to the approval of the commission, the members of every committee and advisory board shall be appointed by the chairman of the commission.

Members of committees and boards

8007. State officials who are not members of the commission may be appointed as members of any committee or advisory board which it establishes, and private citizens may serve on any board. At least one member of the commission shall be a member of every committee and board.

Rules for committees and boards

8008. The commission may establish rules concerning the membership and the functioning of any committee and board which it establishes.

Report by commission

8009. The commission shall report to the Governor and to the Legislature within 15 days after the convening of each regular legislative session and at such other times as it deems appropriate.

No compensation for services, paid necessary expenses

8010. The members of the commission and the members of all committees which it establishes shall serve without compensation. They may be paid their necessary expenses incurred in carrying out the obligations imposed upon them by this chapter.

Necessary help and expenses

8011. The commission may employ such persons and incur other expenses as may be necessary for the proper performance of its duties. It may, by contributions to the Council of State Governments and other similar governmental organizations affiliated with it, participate with other States in maintaining the council's regional and central secretariats and other similar governmental services.

CHAPTER 2. NEVADA COMPACT

Agreement with State of Nevada

8100. The Governor shall execute for, in behalf of, and in the name of the State of California, a compact or agreement with the State of Nevada for the purpose of:

(a) Promoting, fostering, and encouraging a spirit of comity and good will between the people of the State of California and of the State of Nevada with reference to the Boulder Canyon Project.

(b) Adjusting matters pertaining to the proposed taxation by the State of Nevada, or by political subdivisions thereof, of property which is or will be located in Nevada, and which is or will be used in connection with the impounding, storage, generation, transmission, distribution, or other handling or disposal of water or electric energy produced in connection with Boulder Canyon Project, and which is or will be the property of the State of California or any political subdivision thereof.

Approval by Legislature

8101. No compact or agreement is binding on the State of California until it has been approved by the Legislature of this State.

CHAPTER 3. NOTARIES PUBLIC

Number of notaries

8200. The Governor may appoint and commission notaries public for the several counties of the State in such number as he deems necessary for the public convenience, except that in the counties of the second class the number shall not exceed 222.

(Amended by Stats. 1943, Ch. 328.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

8200 The Governor may appoint and commission notaries public for the several counties of the State in such number as he deems necessary for the public convenience, except that in counties of the second class the number shall not exceed 191.

Requirements for notaries public

8201. Every person appointed as notary public shall:

(a) Be, at the time of appointment, a citizen of the United States and of this State, and at least 21 years of age.

(b) Have resided in the county for which the appointment is made for six months.

Eligibility

8202. No county officer, or his deputy, is eligible to or may perform the duties of the office of notary public. This section does not apply to district attorneys, treasurers, deputy county clerks who do not receive regular annual salaries, and public administrators and public defenders.

(Amended by Stats. 1943, Ch. 1019.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

8202. No county officer, or his deputy, is eligible to or may perform the duties of the office of notary public. This section does not apply to district attorneys, treasurers, deputy county clerks who do not receive regular annual salaries, and public administrators.

Notary public at Presidio

8203. At least one notary public appointed and commissioned for the City and County of San Francisco shall keep an office for the transaction of business in the portion of the city and county known as the Presidio.

Term for notary public

8204. The term of office of a notary public is four years from and after the date of his commission.

Duty of notary public

8205. It is the duty of a notary public:

(a) When requested, to demand acceptance and payment of foreign and inland bills of exchange, or promissory notes, to protest them for nonacceptance and nonpayment, and to exercise such other powers and duties as by the law of nations and according to commercial usages, or by the laws of any other State, government, or country, may be performed by notaries.

(b) To take the acknowledgment or proof of powers of attorney, mortgages, deeds, grants, transfers, and other instruments of writing executed by any person, and to give a certificate of such proof or acknowledgment, indorsed on or attached to the instrument.

(c) To take depositions and affidavits, and administer oaths and affirmations, in all matters incident to the duties of the office, or to be used before any court, judge, officer, or board in this State.

Records to be kept

8206. A notary public shall keep a record of all official acts done by him and a record of the parties to, date, and character of every instrument acknowledged or proved before him.

Certified copy of notary's record

When requested, and upon payment of the fee therefor, a notary public shall make and give a certified copy of any record in his office.

Notary seal

8207. A notary public shall provide and keep an official seal, upon which shall be engraved the State seal, the words "Notary Public," and the name of the county for which he is commissioned. He shall authenticate with his official seal all official acts.

Protest by notary public

8208. The protest of a notary public, under his hand and official seal, of a bill of exchange or promissory note for nonacceptance or nonpayment, specifying:

(a) The time and place of presentment.

(b) The fact that presentment was made and the manner thereof.

(c) The cause or reason for protesting the bill.

(d) The demand made and the answer given, if any, or the fact that the drawee or acceptor could not be found, is prima facie evidence of the facts recited therein.

Disposition of records of nonacting notary

8209. If any notary public dies, resigns, is disqualified, removed from office, or removes from the county for which he is appointed, his records and all his public papers shall be delivered to the clerk of the county within 30 days. The clerk shall deliver them to the notary's successor, when qualified.

Certified copies by successor

8210. Every notary public having in his possession the records and papers of his predecessor in office may grant certificates or give certified copies of such records and papers, in like manner and with the same effect as the predecessor could have done.

Fees of notary public

8211. The fees of a notary public are:

(a) For drawing and copying every protest for the nonpayment of a promissory note or for the nonpayment or nonacceptance of a bill of exchange, draft, or check, two dollars ($2).

(b) For drawing and serving every notice of nonpayment of a promissory note or of nonpayment or nonacceptance of a bill of exchange, order, draft, or check, one dollar ($1).

(c) For recording every protest, one dollar ($1).

(d) For drawing an affidavit, or other paper for which provision is not made herein, ten cents ($0.10) for each folio.

(e) For all services rendered in connection with the taking of any deposition, the sum of five dollars ($5). In the event the notary public is required to be present during the taking of the deposition, or the deposition is read and corrected by the witness and certified to by the notary public, he is entitled, in lieu of the fee of five dollars ($5), to a fee equal to ten cents ($0.10) per each folio contained in the deposition, and in addition thereto, the sum of fifty cents ($0.50) for administering the oath to the witness and the sum of one dollar ($1) for the certificate to such deposition.

Fees for reporting and transcribing depositions

The fees herein provided for are exclusive of any fees for services rendered either by a notary public or another in connection with the reporting or transcription of depositions. All fees for services rendered in reporting or transcribing depositions are the same as those provided in Section 274 of the Code of Civil Procedure for official reporters.

(f) For taking an acknowledgment or proof of a deed, or other instrument, to include the seal and the writing of the certificate, for the first two signatures, one dollar ($1) each, and for each additional signature, fifty cents ($0.50).

(g) For administering an oath or affirmation, fifty cents ($0.50).

(h) For every certificate, to include writing the same, and the seal, one dollar ($1).

Official bond

8212. Every person appointed a notary public shall execute an official bond in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000). Unless the bond is executed by an admitted surety insurer, it shall be approved by a judge of the superior court of the county in which the person is commissioned to act as notary public.

(Amended by Stats. 1943, Ch. 1010.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

8212. Each notary public shall execute an official bond in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000). The bond shall be approved by a judge of the superior court of the county in which the notary is commissioned to act. After approval the bond shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder and then filed and kept in the office of the county clerk.

Filing of bond and taking oath of office

8213. Within 20 days from the date of his commission, every person appointed a notary public shall deposit with the county recorder of the county in which he was commissioned to act, the fee payable for recording his official bond and shall file his official bond, and take, subscribe, and file his oath of office in the office of the county clerk of the county. Upon filing the oath and bond, the county clerk shall forthwith transmit to the Secretary of State his certificate setting forth the fact of such filing and containing a copy of the official oath, signed by the notary with his own proper signature, and shall forthwith deliver the bond to the county recorder. Upon receipt of the bond, the recorder shall record it and then return it to the county clerk.

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

8213. Each notary public shall file his official bond, and take, subscribe, and file his oath of office in the office of the county clerk within 20 days from the date of his commission. He shall transmit a certificate of the facts, under the hand and seal of the county clerk, together with a copy of his official oath, signed by him with his own proper signature, to the office of the Secretary of State, to be filed therein within 30 days from the date of his commission.

Liability of notary public and sureties

8214. For the official misconduct or neglect of a notary public, he and the sureties on his official bond are liable to the persons injured thereby for all the damages sustained.

CHAPTER 4. COMMISSIONERS OF DEEDS

Commissioners of deeds

8300. The Governor may appoint in each State of the United States, or in any foreign country, one or more commissioners of deeds. They shall hold office for the term of four years from and after the date of their commission.

Publication of names

8301. The names of all persons appointed commissioners shall be published three times in a weekly newspaper published at the City of Sacramento.

Documents sent to appointee

8302. The Secretary of State shall transmit to the appointee together both a commission and a certified copy of this chapter and of Section 8211.

Official oaths of commissioners

8303. The official oaths of commissioners of deeds shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State within six months after they are taken.

Duties of commissioners

8304. Every commissioner of deeds within the State or country for which he is appointed may:

(a) Administer and certify oaths.

(b) Take and certify depositions and affidavits.

(c) Take and certify the acknowledgment or proof of powers of attorney, mortgages, transfers, grants, deeds, or other instruments for record.

Seal

8305. Every commissioner of deeds shall provide and keep an official seal, upon which shall be engraved the State seal, the words "Commissioner of Deeds for the State of California," and the name of the State for which he is commissioned. He shall authenticate with his official seal all his official acts.

Force and effect of commissioner's acts

8306. All oaths administered, depositions and affidavits taken, and all acknowledgments and proofs certified by commissioners of deeds have the same force and effect as if done and certified in this State by any officer authorized by law to perform such acts.

Fees for services

8307. The fees of commissioners of deeds are the same as those prescribed for notaries public.

DIVISION 2. LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

PART 1. LEGISLATURE

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL

Article 1. Numbering and Election of Legislators

Number of legislators

9000. The Legislature consists of:

(a) Forty Senators.

(b) Eighty members of the Assembly.

9001. The term of office of a Senator is four years. The term of office of a Member of the Assembly is two years. Terms of office

9002. At the general election in every fourth year after 1908 a Senator shall be elected in each odd-numbered senatorial district. At the general election in every fourth year after 1910 a Senator shall be elected in each even-numbered district. Election of Senators

9003. At the general election in every even-numbered year a Member of the Assembly shall be elected in each of the Assembly districts. Election of Assemblymen

Article 2. Meeting and Organization of the Legislature

9020. The Legislature shall assemble at the City of Sacramento at 12 o'clock m., on the first Monday after the first day of January in every odd-numbered year. Assembling of Legislature

9021. The certificate of election is prima facie evidence of the right to membership. Evidence of membership

9022. At the day and hour appointed for the assembling of any regular session of the Legislature, the President of the Senate, or in case of his absence or inability, the senior member present, shall take the chair, call the members and members elect to order, and have the secretary call over the senatorial districts, in their order, from which members have been elected at the preceding election. As the districts are called the members elect shall present their certificates, take the constitutional oath of office, and assume their seats. If a quorum is present, the Senate may then elect its officers. Assembling of Senate

9023. At the day and hour appointed for the assembling of any regular session of the Legislature, the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, or in case of his absence or inability, the senior member elect present, shall take the chair, call the members elect to order, and call over the roll of counties in alphabetical order. As the counties are called the members elect shall present their certificates, take the constitutional oath of office, and assume their seats. If there is more than one senior member elect present and the senior members are unable to agree as to who shall call the session to order, the attorney general or one of his deputies shall call the session to order. Convening of Assembly

If a quorum is present, the Assembly shall then elect its officers, and there shall be no other business, motion or resolution considered before the election of the Speaker, save and except a motion to adjourn or a motion for a call of the house.

9024. Members of the Legislature who did not take the oath of office at the assembling of the Legislature may take the oath at any time during the term for which they were elected. Oath subsequent to assembling

9025. An entry of the oath taken by members of the Legislature shall be made on the journals of the proper house. Entry of oaths on journals

9026. All standing committees of either the Senate or Assembly shall be appointed by the presiding officer of their respective house if the house by resolution or its rules does not direct otherwise. Standing committees

Article 3. Crimes Against the Legislative Power

Interference with organization of Legislature a felony

9050. Every person who wilfully, and by force or fraud, prevents the Legislature, either of the houses composing it, or any of the members thereof from meeting or organizing is guilty of a felony.

Interference with Legislature while in session a misdemeanor

9051. Every person who wilfully disturbs the Legislature, or either of the houses composing it, while in session, or who commits any disorderly conduct in the immediate view and presence of either house tending to interrupt its proceedings or impair the respect due to its authority is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Alteration of bill or resolution a felony

9052. Every person who fraudulently alters the draft of any bill or resolution which has been presented to either of the houses composing the Legislature for passage or adoption, with intent to procure it to be passed or adopted by either house, or certified by the presiding officer of either house, in language different from that intended by such house, is guilty of a felony.

Alteration of enrolled bills or resolutions a felony

9053. Every person who fraudulently alters the enrolled copy of any bill or resolution which has been passed or adopted by the Legislature, with intent to procure it to be approved by the Governor, certified by the Secretary of State, or printed or published by the State in language different from that in which it was passed or adopted by the Legislature is guilty of a felony.

Obtaining money to improperly influence vote of Legislature a felony

9054. Every person who obtains, or seeks to obtain, money or other thing of value from another person upon a pretense, claim, or representation that he can or will improperly influence in any manner the action of any member of a legislative body in regard to any vote or legislative matter, is guilty of a felony. Upon the trial no person otherwise competent as a witness may be excused from testifying concerning the offense charged on the grounds that the testimony may criminate himself, or subject him to public infamy. The testimony shall not afterwards be used against him in any judicial proceeding except for perjury in giving the testimony.

Testimony

Additional punishment

9055. Every member of the Legislature convicted of any crime defined in this article, in addition to the punishment prescribed, forfeits his office and is forever disqualified from holding any office in the State.

Article 4. Legislative Offices

(Article 4 added by Stats. 1943, Ch. 1012.)

Offices authorized

9100. Legislative offices for the use of the Members of the Legislature in the performance of their legislative duties, shall be maintained at all times, and without regard to whether the Legislature is or is not in session, in the State Building in Los Angeles, in the State Building in San Francisco and in a State building in Alameda County.

Control of office

9101. The legislative office in Los Angeles shall be under the management and control of the Senator elected from the County of Los Angeles, the legislative office in San Francisco shall be under the management and control of the Senator elected from the City and County of San Francisco and the legislative office in Alameda County shall be under the management and control of the Senator elected from the County of Alameda.

(Added by Stats. 1943, Ch. 1012.)

Employee

9102. The Senator having the management and control of a legislative office shall have the authority to employ in such office one person holding a confidential position to such Senator, at a compensation of one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per month and there shall be no other employees.

The salary of the employee shall be paid in the same way as the expenses incurred by other State officers are paid.

(Added by Stats. 1943, Ch. 1012.)

Department of Finance

9103. The Department of Finance shall provide suitable office space in the State Building in Los Angeles and in the State Building in San Francisco and in a State building in Alameda County for the offices provided for in this article, and shall provide for the maintenance and upkeep of the same.

(Added by Stats. 1943, Ch. 1012.)

Support

9104. Appropriations for the support of the offices provided for in this article shall be included in the Budget Bill.

(Added by Stats. 1943, Ch. 1012.)

CHAPTER 2. OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF THE LEGISLATURE

Article 1. Temporary Officers and Employees

Duties performed until successors qualify

9150. The Secretary of the Senate, the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, and the minute clerks and Sergeant-at-Arms of each house for any session shall perform the duties of their offices at the next succeeding session, until their successors are elected and qualify.

Temporary employees

9151. The Secretary of the Senate may appoint such temporary employees as are in his opinion necessary for the proper organization of the Senate. The Chief Clerk of the Assembly may appoint such temporary employees as are in his opinion necessary for the proper organization of the Assembly. They shall serve only until the permanent organization is completed.

Article 2. Permanent Officers and Employees

Senate officers and employees

9170. The officers and employees of the Senate are:

(a) A President.

(b) A President pro tempore, one secretary, one Sergeant-at-Arms, one minute clerk and one chaplain.

(c) Other officers and employees deemed necessary by the Senate and provided for by resolution of the Senate.

Officers and employees in subdivision (b) shall be elected by a majority vote of the duly elected and qualified members of the Senate.

Assembly officers and employees

9171. The officers and employees of the Assembly are:

(a) A Speaker, a Speaker pro tempore, one Chief Clerk, one Sergeant-at-Arms, one minute clerk and one chaplain.

(b) Other officers and employees deemed necessary by the Assembly and provided for by resolution of the Assembly.

Officers and employees in subdivision (a) shall be elected by a majority vote of the duly elected and qualified members of the Assembly.

Permanent officers and employees of Senate

9172. All permanent officers and employees of the Senate or Assembly, except the President of the Senate, shall be elected by the house to which they are attached.

Removal of officer or employee

9173. Any officer or employee appointed or elected by the Senate or Assembly may at any time be removed in the same manner as is provided for his election or appointment.

Article 3. Powers and Duties

Administer oaths of office to legislators and officers

9190. The President or President pro tempore of the Senate may administer the oath of office to any Senator and to the officers of the Senate and the Speaker or Speaker pro tempore of the Assembly may administer the oath of office to any Assemblyman and to the officers of the Assembly.

Duties of Secretary of Senate and Chief Clerk of Assembly

9191. The Secretary of the Senate and Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall:

(a) Administer the constitutional oath of office to the employees of their respective houses.

(b) Attend the session each day.

(c) Perform the duties as prescribed for them by law or by the rules of their respective houses.

Duties of assistant secretaries and clerks

9192. The assistant secretaries of the Senate and the assistant clerks of the Assembly shall take charge of all bills, petitions, and other papers presented to their respective houses, file and enter them in the books provided for that purpose, and perform such other duties as may be directed by the Secretary of the Senate and Chief Clerk of the Assembly.

Duties of Minute Clerks

9193. The Minute Clerk of the Senate and the Minute Clerk of the Assembly shall keep a correct record of the proceedings of their respective houses.

Duties of Sergeants-at-Arms

9194. The Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate and of the Assembly shall:

(a) Under the direction of their presiding officers, have general supervision of the Senate and Assembly chambers, and the rooms attached.

(b) Attend during the sittings of their respective bodies, and execute their commands and all process issued by their authority.

(c) Keep an account for pay and mileage of members.

Assistant Sergeants-at-Arms

9195. The Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms of each house shall perform the duties of doorkeeper and keep order in the halls and lobbies. They shall prohibit all persons, other than members, officers, employees, other persons who have the privilege of the floor assigned them by the rules of each house, and persons invited to enter within the bar, from entering within the bar of the House.

Duties of other employees of Senate and Assembly

9196. The secretary and assistant secretaries, the chief clerk and assistant clerks, and the engrossing and enrolling clerks and the minute clerks of the Senate and Assembly shall mark, label, and arrange all bills and papers belonging to the archives of their respective houses at the close of each session of the Legislature. They shall then deliver the bills and papers and all the books of both houses to the Secretary of State, who shall certify to their reception.

CHAPTER 3. COMPENSATION OF LEGISLATORS, OFFICERS, AND EMPLOYEES

Article 1. Legislators

Compensation of members of Legislature

9300. The members of the Legislature shall receive as compensation for their services two thousand four hundred dollars ($2,400) biennially, during the term for which they are elected, payable as follows:

(a) One thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200) during each odd numbered year at the rate of twelve dollars ($12) per day payable weekly during the regular session, until one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200) is paid. In the event of final adjournment before the one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200) is paid, the balance shall be paid immediately.

(b) One hundred dollars ($100) per month in each even numbered year, payable in the same manner and at the same time as salaries of other State officers.

Mileage allowed

9301. Upon the convening of each regular, special, or extraordinary session, members shall receive five cents ($0.05) per mile for each mile of travel to and from their residences and the place of holding the session.

Unpaid salary of member who dies

9302. The unpaid portion of the salary of a member who dies during his term shall be paid to his legal heirs. In the event that the vacancy in the office of the member is filled for the unexpired portion of the term, the salary of the deceased member shall be paid to his legal heirs only up to the time of the filling of the vacancy.

Article 2. Officers and Employees

Compensation of officers and employees

9320. The compensation of each officer and employee of the Senate or Assembly shall be fixed, in so far as such compensation is fixed, by the Senate or Assembly, respectively, by resolution.

Mileage allowed

9321. The Secretary of the Senate, the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, and the minute clerks and Sergeant-at-Arms of each house, and no others, shall be allowed mileage.

CHAPTER 4. WITNESSES

"Committee"

9400. As used in this chapter, "committee" means a committee of either the Senate or Assembly, a joint committee of both houses, or, when any of the foregoing committees is authorized to create subcommittees, a subcommittee.

Issuance of subpena

9401. A subpena requiring the attendance of any witness before the Senate, Assembly, or a committee may be issued by the President of the Senate, Speaker of the House, or the chairman of any committee before whom the attendance of the witness is desired.

Sufficiency of subpena

9402. A subpena is sufficient if it:

(a) States whether the proceeding is before the Senate, Assembly, or a committee.

(b) Is addressed to the witness.

(c) Requires the attendance of the witness at a time and place certain.

(d) Is signed by the President of the Senate, Speaker of the Assembly, or chairman of the committee before whom attendance of the witness is desired.

Service of subpena

9403. The service of a subpena may be made by any person over 18 years of age.

Oaths of witnesses

9404. The members of any committee may administer oaths to witnesses in any matter under examination.

Contempt

9405. If any witness neglects or refuses to obey a subpena, or appearing, neglects or refuses to testify, or to produce upon reasonable notice any material and proper books, papers or documents in his possession or under his control, he has committed a contempt.

Contempt before Senate or Assembly

9406. If the contempt is committed before the Senate or Assembly, the Senate or Assembly may commit him for contempt by resolution entered on the Senate or Assembly Journal, as the case may be.

Contempt before committee during session of Legislature

9407. If the contempt is committed before a committee during the session of the Legislature, the committee shall report the contempt to the Senate or Assembly, as the case may be, for such action as may be deemed necessary by the Senate or Assembly.

Contempt before committee when Legislature not in session

9408. If the contempt is committed before a committee when the Legislature is not in session, the superior court in and for the county in which any inquiry, investigation, hearing or proceeding may be held by the committee may compel the attendance of the witness, the giving of testimony, and the production of books, papers, documents and accounts, as required by the subpena issued by the committee, on the filing by the committee of a petition to the court asking that the witness be so compelled.

Arrest of witness for disregard of subpena

9409. Any witness neglecting or refusing to attend in obedience to subpena may be arrested by the Sergeant-at-Arms and brought before the Senate, Assembly or committee, as the case may be. The only warrant or authority necessary authorizing the arrest is a copy of a resolution of the Senate, the Assembly or committee signed by the President of the Senate, Speaker of the Assembly or chairman of the committee, as the case may be, and countersigned by the Secretary of the Senate, the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or a majority of the members of the committee, as the case may be.

Immunity of witness from criminal prosecution, except for perjury

9410. A person sworn and examined before the Senate or Assembly, or any committee, can not be held to answer criminally or be subject to any penalty or forfeiture for any fact or act touching which he is required to testify. Any statement made or paper produced by such witness is not competent evidence in any criminal proceeding against the witness. The witness can not refuse to testify to any fact or to produce any paper touching which he is examined for the reason that his testimony or the production of the paper may tend to disgrace him or render him infamous. Nothing in this section exempts any witness from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed by him on examination.

Discharge for contempt

9411. Every State department, office, board, commission or bureau, including The Regents of the University of California, shall discharge any person who commits a contempt before any committee. Such person shall receive no compensation from the State or any agency thereof for services rendered after the date of such refusal.

Barred from future employment

No State department, office, board, commission or bureau, including The Regents of the University of California, shall ever employ or compensate for services any person who has at any time prior to the proposed employment or compensation committed a contempt before any committee.

Section to be read to person in contempt

The committee shall read this section to the person so refusing, and shall certify the refusal to the State Personnel Board and to the State Controller. Upon receipt of such certificate, the State Personnel Board shall immediately notify every State department, office, board, commission or bureau, including The Regents of the University of California, by whom such person is or has at any time been employed.

Contempt a misdemeanor

9412. Every person who, being summoned to attend as witness before the Senate, Assembly, or any committee, refuses or neglects, without lawful excuse, to attend pursuant to such summons, and every person who, being present before the Senate, Assembly, or any committee, wilfully refuses to be sworn, to answer any material and proper question, or to produce, upon reasonable notice, any material and proper books, papers, or documents in his possession or under his control is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Additional punishment for member of Legislature

Every member of the Legislature convicted of a misdemeanor under this section, in addition to the punishment prescribed, forfeits his office and is forever disqualified from holding any office in the State.

CHAPTER 5. ENACTMENT OF STATUTES AND ADOPTION OF RESOLUTIONS

"Clerk"

9500. As used in this chapter, "clerk" means the engrossing and enrolling clerk or the employee who performs the duties of engrossing and enrolling clerk when no employee is so designated by name.

"Committee"

9501. As used in this chapter, "committee" means the engrossing and enrolling committee of the house ordering the engrossing or enrolling of a bill or other document or the committee of such house which performs the duties of engrossing and enrolling committee when no committee is so designated by name.

Bills and documents ordered engrossed or enrolled

9502. All bills and other documents ordered engrossed or enrolled by the Senate or Assembly shall be delivered by the Secretary of the Senate or Chief Clerk of the Assembly, as the case may be, to the clerk of the house ordering the engrossment or enrollment.

Delivery to State Printer

9503. The clerk shall deliver the bills and documents without delay, in the order of their receipt, to the State Printer.

Printing of engrossed or enrolled bills

9504. The State Printer shall receipt for the bills or documents, and without delay engross or enroll (print) them in the order of their receipt by him. So soon as printed, at least one enrolled copy, with proper blanks for the signatures of the officers whose duty it is to sign enrolled bills and documents, shall be printed on bond paper.

Delivery by State Printer

9505. The State Printer shall deliver the engrossed or enrolled copy of the bill or document, with the original thereof, to the clerk from whom he received the original. The clerk shall carefully compare the engrossed or enrolled copy with the original. If correctly engrossed or enrolled, he shall report it back with the original to the committee.

When bills and documents presumed engrossed

9506. All bills and documents that have been printed shall be considered engrossed if no amendments have been made after being printed. The original bill or document shall be delivered to the clerk of the house where it originated. He shall compare the original with the printed bill or document, and forthwith deliver it to the committee for return to the house in the same manner as engrossed bills.

Signature of enrolled copy of bill

9507. If the enrolled copy of a bill or other document is found to be correct, the committee shall present it to the proper officers for their signatures. When the officers sign their names thereon, as required by law, it is enrolled.

Approval of enrolled bills

9508. Enrolled bills shall be transmitted to the Governor for his approval. Until otherwise provided by the joint rules of the Legislature, enrolled constitutional amendments and enrolled joint and concurrent resolutions shall be transmitted to the Governor and then filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

Endorsement of enrolled bill

9509. As soon as an enrolled bill is delivered to the Governor, it shall be indorsed as follows: "This bill was received by the Governor this _____ day of _____, nineteen _____." The indorsement shall be signed by the private secretary of the Governor.

Approval of bill by Governor

9510. When the Governor approves a bill, he shall affix his name thereto, with the date of his approval, and deposit it in the office of the Secretary of State, where it becomes the official record.

Objection by Governor to item of appropriation

9511. If a bill presented to the Governor contains an item or several items of appropriation, he may object to one or more items while approving other portions of the bill. In such case he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the items to which he objects, and the reasons therefor. If the Legislature is in session, the Governor shall transmit to the house in which the bill originated a copy of the statement. The items so objected to shall be separately reconsidered in the same manner as bills which have been disapproved by the Governor.

Authentication as law of bill, item or items objected to by Governor

9512. When a bill has passed both houses of the Legislature and is returned by the Governor without his signature, and with objections thereto, or if it be a bill containing an item or several items of appropriation which is returned with objections to one or more items, and upon reconsideration the bill, item, or items pass both houses by the constitutional majority, the bill, item, or items shall be authenticated as having become a law by a certificate.

Certificate of authentication

9513 The certificate shall be indorsed on or attached to the bill, or indorsed on or attached to the copy of the statement of objections. It shall be in the following form: "This bill having been returned by the Governor with his objections thereto, and, after reconsideration, having passed both houses by the constitutional majority, has become a law this _____ day of _____, _____"; or, "The following items in the within statement (naming them) having, after reconsideration, passed both houses by the constitutional majority, have become a law this _____ day of _____, _____." A certificate signed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the Assembly is a sufficient authentication thereof.

Delivery to Governor

9514. The bill or statement so authenticated shall then be delivered to the Governor, and by him deposited with the laws in the office of the Secretary of State.

Return of unapproved bill by Governor during daily adjournment of house of origin

9515. If on the day the Governor desires to return a bill without his approval and with his objections thereto the house in which it originated has adjourned for the day (but not for the session), he may deliver the bill with his message to the presiding officer, secretary, chief clerk, or any member of the house. If the Governor, on the first day the house is again in session, by message notifies it of such delivery and of the time when and the person to whom delivery was made, the delivery is as effectual as though returned when the house was meeting.

Bills not returned by Governor within 10 days

9516. Every bill which has passed both houses of the Legislature, and has not been returned by the Governor within 10 days, thereby becoming a law, is authenticated by the Governor causing the fact to be certified thereon by the Secretary of State in the following form: "This bill having remained with the Governor 10 days (Sundays excepted), and the Legislature being in session, it has become a law this _____ day of _____, _____." The certificate shall be signed by the Secretary of State and deposited with the laws in his office.

CHAPTER 6. OPERATION OF STATUTES AND RESOLUTIONS

Effective date of enacted statute

9600. Every statute, unless a different time is prescribed therein, takes effect on the ninety-first day after the final adjournment of the session of the Legislature which passed such statute.

Effective date of joint resolution

9601. Every joint resolution, unless a different time is prescribed therein, takes effect from its passage.

Effective date of concurrent resolution

9602. Every concurrent resolution takes effect upon the filing of it with the Secretary of State.

Construction of statutes

9603. The general rules for the construction of statutes are contained in the preliminary provisions of the different codes.

Construction of statute carried into another

9604. When the provisions of one statute are carried into another statute under circumstances in which they are required to be construed as restatements and continuations and not as new enactments, any reference made by any statute, charter or ordinance to such provisions shall, unless a contrary intent appears, be deemed a reference to the restatements and continuations.

Construction where section or part of statute amended

9605. Where a section or part of a statute is amended, it is not to be considered as having been repealed and reenacted in the amended form. The portions which are not altered are to be considered as having been the law from the time when they were enacted, and the new provisions are to be considered as having been enacted at the time of the amendment.

Repeal of statute

9606. Any statute may be repealed at any time, except when vested rights would be impaired. Persons acting under any statute act in contemplation of this power of repeal.

Revival of repealed statute or part of statute

9607. No statute or part of a statute, repealed by another statute, is revived by the repeal of the repealing statute without express words reviving such repealed statute or part of a statute.

Punishment for crime committed not barred by repeal of law creating the crime

9608. The termination or suspension (by whatsoever means effected) of any law creating a criminal offense does not constitute a bar to the indictment or information and punishment of an act already committed in violation of the law so terminated or suspended, unless the intention to bar such indictment or information and punishment is expressly declared by an applicable provision of law.

(Amended by Stats. 1943, Ch. 381.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION]

9608. The repeal of any law creating a criminal offense does not constitute a bar to the indictment or information and punishment of an act already committed in violation of the law so repealed, unless the intention to bar the indictment or information and punishment is expressly declared in the repealing statute.

No amendment of repealed statute

9609. A statute amending a section of a repealed statute is void.

Fixing of salary not an appropriation

9610. The fixing or authorizing the fixing of the salary of a State officer or employee by statute is not intended to and does not constitute an appropriation of money for the payment of the salary. The salary shall be paid only in the event that moneys are made available therefor by another provision of law.

Effect of temporary suspension, or temporary modification or repeal

9611. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, whenever a provision of law is temporarily suspended, or is expressly or impliedly modified or repealed by a provision which is declared to be effective for only a limited period, the original provisions are not to be deemed repealed, but upon the expiration of the time of the temporary suspension or the effectiveness of the inconsistent provision, the original provision shall have the same force and effect as if the temporary provision had not been enacted.

CHAPTER 135

An act to amend Section 528 of the Political Code, relating to the printing and distribution of laws.

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1933, p. 2549

SECTION 1. Section 528 of the Political Code is amended to read:

See also Stats 1943, Ch. 289

528. 1. There must be printed of the laws of each session of the Legislature, 2,250 copies, in English, to be deposited with the Secretary of State, who, after retaining a sufficient number of said volumes for distribution, in accordance with the provisions of Section 410 of the Political Code, shall sell the remaining copies at a price to be approved by the State Board of Control, who may authorize the Superintendent of Printing to compile and print any number of additional copies; the moneys thus received to be paid into the State treasury at the end of each month.

Distribution of laws

Fixing price

2. Whenever a law is signed by the Governor, official notice shall be forwarded, in writing, to the Superintendent of State Printing of the fact. Upon the receipt of said official notice, the Superintendent of State Printing shall cause to be printed, for the use of the Legislature, 240 copies of said law, joint or concurrent resolution, to be distributed, one-third to the Senate and two-thirds to the Assembly, the sergeant-at-arms of the respective houses to receipt to the Superintendent of State Printing for the same, whose receipt shall be a proper voucher for the work. He shall also cause to be printed the requisite number of sheets to make the number of copies of the Statutes required by law to be printed, the one composition of type to answer the purpose of printing the three editions.

Printing of chapters

Statutes

The Superintendent of State Printing shall have the Laws, Journals of Senate and Assembly, and the appendices thereto, properly indexed and bound, the Laws in law buckram binding, and deliver the same to the Secretary of State for distribution as soon as practical after the final adjournment of the Legislature, and the receipt of the Secretary of State shall be his voucher therefor.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1923, p 134

SECTION 1. Section 4022 of the Political Code is amended to read:

Official bonds of county officers

4022. The board of supervisors of each county shall, on or before the first Monday in September, preceding the election of the following officers, prescribe the amount in which said officers must execute official bonds: Treasurer, county clerk, auditor, sheriff, tax collector, district attorney, recorder, assessor, surveyor, superintendent of schools, public administrator, coroner, justice of the peace, and constable. The judge or judges of the superior court shall, on or before the said first Monday of September prescribe the amount in which each member of the board of supervisors must execute an official bond before entering upon the discharge of the duties of his office. The tax collector shall also before qualifying give a bond as license collector in such sum as may be fixed by the board of supervisors, to be approved as provided in this section. The board of supervisors of each county shall require of the sheriff thereof a bond in such amount as may be prescribed by said board in reference to civil matters and shall require an additional bond from the sheriff in such amount as may be prescribed by said board in reference to criminal matters.

CHAPTER 138

An act to amend Section 665.5 of the Political Code, relating to deductions from the salaries and wages of officers and employees of the State for the purpose of buying United States bonds or similar United States obligations.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943]

Stats 2d Ex Sess, 1942, Ch 2

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 665.5 of the Political Code is amended to read:

Salary deductions for savings bond purchases by State officers and employees

665.5. The State Board of Control is hereby authorized and directed to make rules and regulations governing the deductions of such sums of money from the salary or wages of any officer or employee of the State of California as may be requested in writing by any such officer or employee for the purpose of purchasing United States savings bonds or similar United States obligations.

Special accounts

The Board of Administration of the State Employees' Retirement System, in addition to the accounts maintained for employees' retirement contributions, is also authorized to establish special accounts for such officer or employee requesting such salary or wage deductions in order that sufficient funds may be accumulated to the credit of such officer or employee for the purchase of United States savings bonds or similar United States obligations. All funds so accumulated are trust funds and may be withdrawn from the Treasury upon claims filed by said Board of Administration for the purchase of United States savings bonds or similar United States obligations, or for refunds.

Trust funds

CHAPTER 139

An act to add Section 1184e to the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to claims against public agencies, including claims against those persons rendering services or supplying personal property to public agencies.

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1184e is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

New section

1184e. Any materialman or person furnishing materials, provisions, provender or other supplies used in, upon, for or about the performance of work contracted to be executed or performed, to which Chapter 3 of Division 5, Title 1 of the Government Code applies, or any person renting or hiring teams or implements or machinery for or contributing to the work to be done, or any person who performed work or labor upon the same, or any person who supplies both work and materials, and whose claim has not been paid by the contractor or person to whom the contract has been awarded, or by the subcontractors of the contractor or person, may at any time prior to the expiration of the period within which claims of lien must be filed for record as prescribed by Section 1187 file with the commissioners, managers, trustees, officers, board of supervisors, board of trustees, common council, or other body, by whom the contract was awarded, or with the controller, auditor, or other public disbursing officer whose duty it is to make payments under the provisions of such contract a verified statement of such claims, together with a statement that the same have not been paid.

Claims

Stats 1943, Ch 134

Within 10 days after the completion of any contract, structure, or work of improvement to which Chapter 3 of Division

Filing of notice

5, Title 1 of the Government Code applies, or within 10 days after there has been a cessation from labor thereon for a period of 30 days, the State, or any public board, commission, or officer thereof, or any political subdivision thereof, may file for record in the office of the county recorder of the county or counties where the property is situated, a notice setting forth the date when the same was completed or on which cessation from labor occurred, together with the name of the State or such public board, commission or officer thereof, or such political subdivision thereof and a description of the property or public work or structure sufficient for identification and the name of the contractor or contractors, the names of the sureties, if any. The notice shall be verified by some officer of the State or some member of such board, commission or officer thereof, or of such political subdivision thereof. If the notice is not so filed, the failure to do so has the same effect as is provided in Section 1187 with reference to the "owner."

Actions

Actions against the State, public board, commission, or officer thereof, or the political subdivision of the State, or the disbursing officer whose duty it is to make payments under the provisions of the contract for the public improvement in question, brought by any claimant who has filed claim under this section, or his assign, shall be governed by the provisions of Sections 1184, 1184a, 1184b, and 1184c and the verified notice provided for in those sections is equivalent for all purposes to the verified claim provided for herein.

Assignment

No assignment by the contractor of the whole or any part of the money due him or to be due him under the contract, or for "extras" in connection therewith, whether made before a verified claim is filed as provided for herein or after the claim is filed, takes priority over claims filed under this section and such assignment has no binding force in so far as the rights of the claimants who file claims hereunder, or their assigns, are concerned.

Payment

This section does not prohibit the payment of any money to the contractor or his assigns, so long as no verified claim is on file before the disbursing officer has actually surrendered possession of the warrant, checks, bonds, or money or the payment to the contractor or his assigns of any money due him or his assigns over and above the total amount of the claims filed at that time plus such interest and court costs as might be reasonably anticipated in connection with the claims.

Dispute

If the contractor, subcontractor or other person against whom any claim is filed as provided in this section disputes the correctness or validity of any claim so filed, the controller, auditor or other public disbursing officer whose duty it is to make payments under the provisions of such contract or the commissioner, managers, trustees, officers, board of supervisors, board of trustees, common council or other body by whom the contract for the improvement was awarded, in its or his discretion, may permit the contractor to whom the contract was awarded to deliver to such board, commission or officer a bond executed by some corporation authorized to issue surety bonds in the State of California, in a penal sum equal to one and one-fourth times the amount of the claim, which bond shall guarantee the payment of any sum which the claimant may recover on the claim together with his costs of suit in the action, if he recovers therein. Upon the filing of the bond by and with the consent of such board, commission or officer, then such board, commission or officer shall not withhold any moneys from the contractor on account of the claim. The sureties upon the bond are jointly and severally liable to the claimant with the sureties upon the contractor's bond given in accordance with Chapter 3 of Division 5, Title 1 of the Government Code. SEC. 3. Section 17356 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17356. In computing net income there shall be allowed as a deduction all of the salary, wages, bonuses, allowances, and other compensation received by an individual for his services as a member of the armed forces of the United States, including any auxiliary branch thereof, or the State Guard.

SEC. 4. Section 18434 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read: New section See also Stats 1943, Ch. 659

18434. (a) In the case of a taxpayer who is serving as a member of the armed forces of the United States or any auxiliary branch thereof, or the Merchant Marine, beyond the boundaries of the continental United States, the commissioner shall automatically grant, without application being made therefor, an extension of time, free from interest and penalties, for filing the return, for payment of the tax, for taking any of the steps required by Sections 18590, 18593, 19053, 19057 and 19058 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, until 180 days after his discharge or release from active service therein or until 180 days after the termination of hostilities in which the United States is now engaged, whichever first occurs. Extension of time

(b) "Continental United States," as used in subsection (a), means the 48 States of the United States.

SEC. 5. The provisions of this act adding Section 8.2 to the Personal Income Tax Act and Section 17356 to the Revenue and Taxation Code shall apply to income received or accrued in the taxable year of 1942, and in all taxable years thereafter; the provisions of this act adding Section 13.1 to the Personal Income Tax Act and Section 18434 to the Revenue and Taxation Code shall apply to returns to be made for income received or accrued in any taxable years ending prior to the effective date of this act, and for all taxable years on or thereafter. Application

SEC. 6. If any provision of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. Constitutionality

SEC. 7. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows: Urgency

The United States is at war, and members of the armed forces, auxiliary branches thereof, and Merchant Marine are often serving in foreign lands where it is impossible to make income tax returns on the date specified or at all. Therefore it is necessary to the public health, peace, and safety to allow the persons serving in the armed forces to delay making their income tax returns until after their discharge from the army. For the members of the armed forces who are serving their country, it is a particular hardship for them to be compelled to pay an income tax on the compensation they receive for such service, and they should be relieved of this hardship immediately and before the date for making income tax returns in April, 1943.

SEC. 8. Sections 3 and 4 of this act shall be operative only if Part 10, Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is enacted by the Legislature at its Fifty-fifth Session, and in such case, at the same time as the said Part 10 takes effect; at which time Sections 8.1 and 13.1 of the Personal Income Tax Act, as added by this act are hereby repealed.

Insane prisoners: Examination and certificate

2681. When the warden of any prison at which such a psychopathic hospital is located, and such other officers as may be designated by the board to act with him in such cases, shall be of opinion that any prisoner confined therein is insane, they shall make proper examination, and if they remain of the opinion that the person is insane, the warden shall forthwith send the prisoner to the psychopathic hospital for care and treatment and shall make and file in the records of the prison a certificate that the prisoner has, on a date specified, been found insane and has been placed in the psychopathic hospital.

Stats. 1941, p. 1080

SEC. 2. Section 2682 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Transmittal to psychopathic hospital

2682. When the warden of a State prison other than one at which a psychopathic hospital is located, and such other officers as may be designated by the board to act with him in such cases, shall be of opinion that any prisoner confined therein is insane, they shall make proper examination, and if they remain of the opinion that the person is insane, the warden shall certify the fact to the warden of any prison in which such a psychopathic hospital is located, and shall forthwith send the prisoner to such psychopathic hospital for care and treatment. The warden of the prison at which the psychopathic hospital is located shall receive the insane prisoner, confine him in the psychopathic hospital, and there keep him until cured or transferred to a State hospital for the insane as hereinafter provided.

Stats 1941, p 1080

SEC. 3. Section 2683 of the Penal Code is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 154

An act to amend Sections 25 and 78 of the Civil Code and Sections 1433 and 1590 of the Probate Code, relating to minors, and effect of marriage upon minority and guardianship of minors. Stats 1931, p 537, amended

[Approved by Governor April 14, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 14, 1943] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25 of the Civil Code is amended to read: Stats 1931, p 1941

25. Minors are all persons under 21 years of age; provided, that this section shall be subject to the provisions of the titles of this code on marriage and shall not be construed as repealing or limiting the provisions of Section 204 of this code; provided, further, that any female who has reached the age of 18 years and thereafter contracts a lawful marriage, or who has contracted a lawful marriage and thereafter reaches the age of 18 years, shall in the first instance upon contracting such marriage, and in the second instance upon reaching the age of 18 years, be of the age of majority and be deemed an adult person for the purpose of entering into any engagement or transaction respecting property or her estate, or for the purpose of entering into any contract, the same as Minors defined if she was 21 years of age. Subsequent judgment of annulment of such marriage shall not deprive such female person of her adult status once attained under the foregoing provision, unless such judgment is obtained in an action commenced prior to her reaching the age of 18 years, in which latter event she shall be deemed to have remained a minor at all times notwithstanding such marriage.

Stats 1883, p 3

SEC. 2. Section 78 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

Proceeding to determine validity of marriage

78. If either party to any marriage denies the same, or refuses to join in a declaration thereof, the other may proceed, by action in the superior court, to have the validity of the marriage determined and declared.

If the female party to any marriage, who has reached the age of 18 years, desires to have the validity of said marriage established in order to establish the fact or time, or both, of her attaining majority, she may proceed, by action in the superior court, brought against the husband, to have the validity of the marriage determined and declared and the fact or time, or both, of her attaining majority established and declared; and even though she be under the age of 21 years, such action may be commenced and prosecuted by her in her own name and right, and need not be brought or prosecuted in her behalf by general guardian or by a guardian ad litem; but if she has a general guardian of her estate he shall, unless he prosecutes the action on her behalf, be joined as a defendant together with the husband, in which latter event no judgment shall be made in such action until such general guardian of the estate has either appeared in the action, or defaulted after due service of summons on him; and provided further, that if the plaintiff in such action has no general guardian of her estate the court may, in its discretion require the appointment of a guardian ad litem to prosecute the action on her behalf and to safeguard her interests in the action.

Stats 1931, p 587

SEC. 3. Section 1433 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

Married minor

1433. No guardian shall be appointed of the person of a married minor solely by reason of such minority; and no guardian shall be appointed of the estate of a married female who has reached the age of 18 years solely by reason of her age.

Stats 1931, p 587

SEC. 4. Section 1590 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

Events which terminate guardianship

1590. (1) Where the appointment of a guardian was made solely because of the ward's minority, the marriage of a minor ward terminates the guardianship of the person; and the guardianship of the estate of a minor female ward is terminated upon her attaining majority as provided in Section 25 of the Civil Code.

(2) If the appointment of a guardian is made solely because of the ward's minority, the guardianship is terminated by his attaining majority.

(3) In all other cases the guardianship is terminated only by order of the court upon application of the guardian or the ward, after such notice to the other as the court or judge may require.

CHAPTER 155

An act to amend Sections 749, 750 and 751 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the determination of conflicting claims to real property.

[Approved by Governor April 14, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 14, 1943]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 749 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Stats 1939, p. 1736

749. An action may be brought, either as a separate action, or joined with an action under Section 738 of this code, to determine the adverse claims to and clouds upon title to real property by a person who, by himself or by himself and his predecessors in interest, has been in the actual, exclusive and adverse possession of such property continuously for 20 years prior to the filing of the complaint, claiming to own the same in fee against the whole world, and who, by himself or by himself and his predecessors in interest, has paid all taxes of every kind levied or assessed against the property and which were payable during the period of five years continuously next preceding the filing of the complaint. Said action shall be commenced by the filing of a verified complaint averring the matters above set forth.

Determination of adverse claims to real property

The said complaint may include as defendants in such action, in addition to such persons as appear of record to have, all other persons who are known to the plaintiff to have, some claim or cloud on the real property described in the complaint adverse to plaintiff's ownership, and other persons unknown claiming any right, title, estate, interest or lien in such real property, or cloud upon the title of plaintiff thereto, and the plaintiff may describe such unknown defendants in the complaint as follows: "also all other persons unknown, claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property described in the complaint adverse to plaintiff's ownership, or any cloud upon plaintiff's title thereto."

Defendants

Unknown defendants

If the person or all persons having a claim or cloud on the title to said real property are unknown to plaintiff, the latter may describe them in the complaint as "all persons unknown, claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property described in the complaint adverse to plaintiff's ownership, or any cloud upon plaintiff's title thereto."

Defendant claiming through plaintiff

If any known defendant named in the complaint is a person claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in and to the real property under the plaintiff or any predecessor in interest of the plaintiff, which claim has arisen, or has been created by the plaintiff or any predecessor in interest of the plaintiff, within 20 years prior to the filing of the complaint, then as to any such defendant the complaint shall contain allegations appropriate to an action under Section 738 of this code, and as to any such defendant the action shall be deemed and considered brought under the provisions of Section 738 and sections pertinent thereto of this code, and as to any such defendant the proceedings in the action shall be governed by the provisions of said Section 738 and said sections pertinent thereto; and the provisions of Section 750 of this code shall not apply to the proceedings as to any such defendant.

Lis pendens

Within 10 days after the filing of the complaint, plaintiff shall file, or cause to be filed, in the office of the county recorder of the county where the property is situated, a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the matters required by Section 409 of this code.

Stats. 1939, p. 1736

SEC. 2. Section 750 of said code is amended to read:

Summons

750. Within one year after the filing of the complaint, as required by the preceding section, a summons must be issued, which shall contain the matters required by Section 407 of this code, and in addition, a description of the property and a statement of the object of the action. In said summons the said unknown defendants shall be designated as in the complaint, whether they are the sole defendants or not. If as to any defendant the action is one brought under the provisions of Section 738 and sections pertinent thereto of this code, such defendant may be named in the same summons and no separate or additional summons need be issued directed to such defendant.

Posting

Within 30 days after the issuance of the summons, the plaintiff shall post or cause to be posted a copy thereof in a conspicuous place on the property described in the complaint.

Affidavit

At any time after the issuance of the summons, the plaintiff, or his agent or attorney, shall make and file an affidavit wherein there shall be stated the following matters:

(a) The names of the defendants, if any, as to whom the action is brought under the provisions of Section 738 and sections pertinent thereto of this code. If there is no such defendant that fact shall be stated,

(b) The names of all the defendants who have been served personally, if any. If there is none that fact shall be stated,

(c) The names of the defendants who reside out of the State and their places of residence, if known to the plaintiff, and

(d) The names of the defendants residing in or out of the State whose place of residence is unknown to the plaintiff.

All defendants as to whom the action is one brought under the provisions of Section 738 and sections pertinent thereto of this code, shall be served with said summons in the manner provided in Title 5 of Part 2 of this code. Service

All other defendants residing in the State of California, whose place of residence is known to the plaintiff shall be served personally with said summons; provided, that any such defendant who conceals himself to avoid service of summons may be served as provided in Sections 412 and 413 of this code. Publication of summons

Except as otherwise provided, upon the making and filing of the aforesaid affidavit, the court or a judge thereof shall make an order directing the said summons to be served upon the defendants residing out of the State, whose place of residence is known to the plaintiff and upon the defendants residing in or out of the State, whose place of residence is unknown to the plaintiff, and upon all the unknown defendants as stated in the complaint and summons, by publication in some daily or weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county where the property is situated, and if there be no such paper in such county, then in some adjoining county, to be designated by the court or a judge thereof, which publication shall be once a week during four successive weeks, that is to say, there shall be at least four weekly insertions and publications of said summons in said newspaper. Order

Within 10 days after the making of the said order directing publication of summons, a copy of the summons and complaint, properly addressed and with the postage thereon fully prepaid, shall be mailed to each of the defendants whose names are known who reside out of the State, at their place of residence, if known, and also to the defendants whose names are known residing in or out of the State, whose place of residence is unknown to plaintiff, addressed to them at the county seat of the county where the action is commenced. Mailing

All such unknown persons so served shall have the same rights as are provided by law in cases of all other defendants named, upon whom service is made by publication, or personally, and the action shall proceed against such unknown persons in the same manner as against the defendants who are named upon whom service is made by publication or personally, and with like effect; and any such unknown person who has or claims to have any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the said property, or cloud on the title thereto, adverse to plaintiff, at the time of the commencement of the action, who has been duly served as aforesaid, and any one claiming under him, shall be concluded by the judgment in such action as effectually as if the action was brought against the said person by his or her name and personal service of process was obtained, notwithstanding any such unknown person may be Rights and liabilities of unknown defendants under legal disability. Service shall be deemed complete upon the completion of the mailing and publication.

Actions under Sec. 738

In the event that service of any summons shall be required to be by publication as to any defendant as to whom the action is brought under the provisions of Section 738 of this code, the order for such publication, made pursuant to the provisions of Sections 412 and 413 of this code may be made either as a part of the order for publication of summons made as to other defendants, or as a separate order, as the court or a judge thereof may consider proper in the particular case.

Stats 1903, p 104

SEC. 3. Section 751 of said code is hereby amended to read:

Hearing

751. When the summons has been served as provided in the preceding section and the time for answering has expired, the court shall proceed to hear the case as in other cases and shall have jurisdiction to examine into and determine the legality of plaintiff's title and of the title and claim of all the defendants and of all unknown persons, and to that end must not enter any judgment by default, but must in all cases require evidence of plaintiff's title and possession, and hear such evidence as may be offered respecting the claims and title of any of the defendants and must thereafter direct judgment to be entered in accordance with the evidence and the law.

Proof

The court before proceeding to hear the case must require proof to be made that the summons has been served and posted as hereinbefore directed and that the required notice of pendency of action has been filed.

Judgment

The judgment after it has become final is conclusive against all the persons named in the summons and complaint who have been served and against all unknown persons as stated in the complaint and summons who have been served by publication, but shall not be conclusive against the State of California or the United States. Said judgment shall have the effect of a judgment in rem except as against the State of California and the United States; and provided further, that the said judgment shall not bind or be conclusive against any person claiming any estate, title, right, possession, or lien to the property under the plaintiff or his predecessors in interest, which claim, lien, estate or right of possession has arisen or has been created by the plaintiff or his predecessors in interest within 20 years prior to the filing of the complaint, unless proceedings shall have been taken against such defendant and summons served upon him as provided with respect to actions brought under the provisions of Section 738 of this code, or unless such defendant shall have appeared voluntarily in the action.

Actions under Sec 738

Remedies cumulative

The remedy provided in this and the two preceding sections shall be construed as cumulative and not exclusive of any other remedy, form or right of action or proceeding allowed by law.

CHAPTER 156

An act to amend Section 401 of the Vehicle Code, relating to the operation of authorized emergency vehicles.

Stats 1935, p 93, amended

[Approved by Governor April 14, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 14, 1943]

CHAPTER 158

Stats. 1939, p. 482, amended

An act to repeal Section 14407 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to repayment of the cost of furnishing fire-fighting equipment and services.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 15, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 15, 1943]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1939, p. 482

SECTION 1. Section 14407 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 159

An act to amend Section 373 of the Civil Code and Section 411 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to service of summons.

[Approved by Governor April 15, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 15, 1943] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 373 of the Civil Code is amended to read: Stats 1941, p. 3088

373. Every domestic corporation may file with the Secretary of State a designation of a natural person, stating his residence or business address in this State, as its agent for the purpose of service of process, and the delivery to such agent of a copy of any process against such corporation shall constitute valid service on such corporation. Such corporation shall file with the Secretary of State notice of any change in the address of the person thus designated, and may revoke any such designation by filing notice of the revocation thereof with the Secretary of State. Domestic corporations

If such designation has not been filed with the Secretary of State, and if personal service of process against such domestic corporation can not be made with the exercise of due diligence in any other manner provided by law and the fact appears by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court or a judge thereof, such court or judge may make an order that the service be made upon such corporation by delivering to the Secretary of State, or to any person employed in his office in the capacity of assistant or deputy, one copy of such process for each defendant to be served. Service in such manner shall be and constitute personal service upon such corporation. Service on Secretary of State

Upon the receipt of such copy of process, the Secretary of State shall give notice of the service of such process to the corporation at its principal office in this State, by forwarding to such office, by registered mail with request for return receipt, such copy of such process. The defendant shall appear and answer within 30 days after delivery of such process to the Secretary of State. Notice to corporation

The Secretary of State shall keep a record of all process served upon him under this title, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto. Record of service

This section shall not apply to banks, trust companies, insurance companies or any corporation subject to the jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission. Exceptions

SEC. 2. Section 411 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read: Stats 1941, p 3088

411. The summons must be served by delivering a copy thereof as follows: Service of summons

1. If the suit is against a domestic corporation: To the president or other head of the corporation, a vice president, Domestic corporations a secretary, an assistant secretary, general manager, or a person designated for service of process or authorized to receive service of process. If such corporation is a bank, to any of the foregoing officers or agents thereof, or to a cashier or an assistant cashier thereof. If no such officer or agent of the corporation can be found within the State after diligent search, then to the Secretary of State as provided in Section 373 of the Civil Code, unless the corporation be of a class expressly excepted from the operation of that section.

Foreign corporations

2. If the suit is against a foreign corporation, or a nonresident joint stock company or association, doing business in this State; in the manner provided by Section 406a of the Civil Code.

Minors

3. If against a minor, under the age of 14 years, residing within this State: To such minor, personally, and also to his father, mother, or guardian; or if there be none within this State, then to any person having the care or control of such minor, or with whom he resides, or in whose service he is employed.

Incompetent persons

4. If against a person residing within this State who has been judicially declared to be of unsound mind, or incapable of conducting his own affairs, and for whom a guardian has been appointed: To such person, and also to his guardian.

City or county

5. If against a county, city or town: To the president of the board of supervisors, president of the council or trustees, or other head of the legislative department thereof.

Corporation whose charter is forfeited

6. In all cases where a corporation has forfeited its charter or right to do business in this State, or has dissolved, by delivering a copy thereof to one of the persons who have become the trustees of the corporation and of its stockholders or members; or, in a proper case, as provided in Section 402a of the Civil Code.

All other cases

7. In all other cases to the defendant personally.

CHAPTER 160

Stats 1933, p 60, amended

An act to amend Sections 271, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 281, and 283, and to repeal Section 279, of the Agricultural Code, relating to bee diseases and inspection.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 15, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 15, 1943]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1937, p. 1968

SECTION 1. Section 271 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Definitions

271. As used in this article:

(a) "Bees" mean honey-producing insects of the species Apis mellifica and include the adults, eggs, larvae, pupae, or other immature stages thereof, together with such materials as are deposited into hives by their adults, except honey and rendered beeswax.

(b) "Apiary" includes bees, hives, and appliances wherever the same are kept, located or found.

(c) "Hive" means any receptacle or container made or prepared for the use of bees, or box or similar container of which bees have taken possession.

(d) "Appliance" means any implement or other device used in manipulating bees or their brood, or containers thereof.

(e) "Disease" means American foulbrood or anything affecting bees or their brood which may cause an epidemic.

(f) "Inspector" means any person authorized to enforce the provisions of this article.

(g) "Location" means any premises upon which an apiary is located.

SEC. 2. Section 273 of said code is amended to read: Stats. 1933, p 60

273. The director, with the approval of the Governor, may establish, maintain, and enforce quarantine at the boundaries of or within the State, to protect the bee industry against contagion or infection by any bee disease. He may make and enforce such rules or regulations as may be necessary to prevent any bees, or their brood, used hives or appliances from passing over any quarantine line established and proclaimed pursuant to this article. All approvals by the Governor shall be signed by the Governor in duplicate and one copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and the other in the office of the director before such quarantine regulations shall take effect. Quarantine

The director may establish quarantine regulations, without the approval of the Governor, for a period of 30 days when in his opinion it is necessary to meet emergencies.

SEC. 3. Section 274 of said code is amended to read: Stats. 1933, p 1524

274. It is unlawful to import or transport into the State any bees or used hives or appliances, except used package bee cages returning empty, unless accompanied by an official certificate from a duly authorized inspector of apiaries or bee inspector, certifying that such bees or used hives or appliances originated in an apiary which had been inspected within sixty (60) days prior to importation or transportation into this State and found free from American foulbrood at time of inspection, except that the certificate accompanying bees arriving prior to April 1st of any year from those States having severe winters will satisfy the time requirement if it certifies that inspection was made on or after October 15th of the previous year, and said certificate shall be delivered by the person importing or transporting the bees or the used hives or appliances to the commissioner in the county of destination within forty-eight (48) hours of the arrival of the bees or the used hives or appliances. Said certificate shall give the name and address of the owner or person in charge or possession, the county and State of origin, and the county of destination, method of transportation, the number of hives or nuclei containing bees, and the Importation of bees or hives Restrictions number of used hives either empty or containing frames and combs, and a complete list of any other used beekeeping equipment to be transported into the State. Any bees, used hives or appliances which have been used in or as an apiary, infected with American foulbrood at time of inspection, are hereby prohibited entry into California for any purpose whatsoever and any such articles arriving in California from an infected apiary, or without aforementioned official certificate, shall be immediately sent out of the State or destroyed at option and expense of owner or bailee.

Foulbrood

Food containing honey

It is unlawful to place in any combless package of bees or queens, offered for sale or shipment, any food containing honey.

Stats 1937, p. 1968

SEC. 4. Section 275 of said code is amended to read:

Movement of bees: Statement of movement

275. It is unlawful for any person to move bees within the State unless he files with the commissioner or county inspector of apiaries in the county of origin, within five days from the date of moving, a statement of the number of colonies of bees moved, and the definite point of destination to which said bees have been moved. The commissioner or inspector with whom such statement is filed shall immediately mail a copy thereof to the commissioner at destination, if the same be other than the county of origin.

Notice of holding

Whenever the director or the commissioner finds in any apiary more than one colony containing disease in each 100 colonies or fraction thereof, he shall hold such apiary, giving notice thereof to the owner or bailee and posting a copy of said notice in a conspicuous place in said apiary. When any such notice has been given as herein provided, it is unlawful to move such apiary, or any part thereof, or any other bee equipment from the location until all diseased bees have been destroyed as provided in Section 276. When in the opinion of the director or the commissioner the disease has been eradicated, he shall issue a permit to move such apiary. Any permit issued under the conditions specified in this paragraph shall state thereon that the apiary had been under a hold order at the point of origin, and had been released therefrom, giving the date of release.

Permit

Certificate of inspection

All package bees and queens shipped within the State shall be accompanied by a certificate of inspection showing that the bees from which such package bees and queens have been taken have been inspected and found free from disease.

Stats 1933, p 60

SEC. 5. Section 276 of said code is amended to read:

Marking and permissive destruction of diseased hives

276. The commissioner shall, whenever he deems it necessary, make or cause to be made an inspection of any apiary within his jurisdiction. If any disease exists therein the inspector making the inspection shall plainly mark the hives containing diseased bees, and shall report his inspection and findings to the commissioner. The inspector shall destroy the diseased bees and the contents of the hives so marked on written consent signed by the owner or bailee in the manner hereinafter specified; or the commissioner shall in writing notify the owner or person in charge or in possession of such apiary, stating in the notice the nature of the disease found in each colony respectively, identifying such colony by reference to the mark placed upon the hive thereof, and ordering the eradication of such disease within a specified time. The notice may be served upon the person having possession or owning such diseased apiaries, personally or by registered mail to his last-known address. When the owner or person in charge or possession of any apiary is not known, the notice shall be served by posting in a conspicuous place in the apiary. Such person must eradicate such disease within a certain time specified in the notice. If the disease be American foulbrood the time specified in the notice shall not be less than 24 hours nor more than 48 hours from the time of serving the notice, and the eradication of said American foulbrood shall be by killing the bees in the hives and burning the diseased colonies, including the bees, combs, frames, honey, and wax, in a pit, burying the ashes no less than two feet below the surface of the ground and disinfecting by scorching the hives, bodies, bottom boards, cover, and supers associated therewith.

An act to amend Section 369 of the Agricultural Code, relating to estrays.

In effect August 1, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 15, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 15, 1943]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1933, p 60

SECTION 1. Section 369 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Estrays defined

369. Any bovine animal found in the possession of any person who can not prove ownership by a brand certificate or a registered brand, which is registered to the persons in possession of such animal, or a bill of sale from the owner of the brand on said animal or a description of an unbranded animal giving breed, color and sex; or any bovine animal presented for inspection, either before shipment or slaughter, which is not claimed by consignor or consignee, for the purposes of this section, is hereby defined as an estray.

Seizure

Any such estray shall be seized by the director who will search the brand record for brands and marks on branded animals to ascertain the owner of the animal. If the owner is found said animal shall, on reasonable proof, be turned over to the owner upon payment to the director of all reasonable expenses incurred in the handling of said animal. If the owner is not found, the director shall advertise for three successive weeks in a local paper in the vicinity where the animal was found, or in the locality in which the animal is known to have originated if such origin is known, giving brands and marks on branded animals, and for unbranded animals giving breed, weight, color and sex. If after 30 days from date of seizure no claim is made for the animal the director shall sell said animal at public sale, previously advertised as herein provided, or at private sale at a price not less than the appraised value as determined by a board of three cattlemen in the area, one to be named by the director, one by the person in possession of the animal and the third by the first two so

An act to add Sections 89.5, 89.6, 89.7 and 89.8 to the Agricultural Code, relating to the powers and duties of district agricultural associations, and the use of county fair property and declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

Stats 1933, p 60, amended

[Approved by Governor April 20, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 20, 1943.]

In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 89.5 is added to the Agricultural Code, to read:

New section

89.5. In addition to the purposes and powers of district agricultural associations including associations described in Section 94 of this article as set forth in this article, each association, may use or permit the use of any property, real or personal, owned, managed, or controlled by it, for the purpose of agricultural labor camps or for military purposes during the calendar years 1943, 1944, and 1945. Each association may, with the approval of the Department of Finance, expend any moneys apportioned or otherwise available to it under this article in making necessary alterations, arrangements, or use of such property to accomplish this purpose and in maintaining these agricultural labor camps when established. Any income received by an association from the operation of agricultural labor camps or for use of such property for military purposes shall be retained by the association for its use for any of the purposes of the association. The Department of Finance may advance moneys in accordance with Section 92 to any association and any advancements may be expended for the purposes set forth in this section.

District agricultural associations may use property for labor camps

New section

SEC. 2. Section 89.6 is added to the Agricultural Code, to read:

County fair property may be used for labor camps

89.6. The board of supervisors of any county may use or permit the use of any property, real or personal, owned, managed, or controlled by the county for fair purposes, for the purpose of agricultural labor camps during the calendar years 1943, 1944 and 1945. Each county may, with the approval of the State Department of Finance, expend any moneys apportioned or otherwise available to it under this article in making necessary alterations, arrangements, or use of such property to accommodate this purpose and in maintaining these agricultural labor camps when established. Any income received by a county from the operation of agricultural labor camps may be used only to accommodate this purpose or for fair purposes. The Department of Finance may advance moneys in accordance with Section 92 to any county and any advancements may be expended for the purposes set forth in this section.

New section

SEC. 3. Section 89.7 is added to the Agricultural Code, to read:

Approval of California Farm Production Director

89.7. No funds or property may be used or be permitted to be used for agricultural labor camps pursuant to Sections 89.5 or 89.6 after the California Food and Fiber Production Act takes effect except with the approval of the California Farm Production Director appointed pursuant to said act, nor prior to the time said act takes effect except with the approval of the Director of Agriculture.

New section

SEC. 4. Section 89.8 is added to the Agricultural Code, to read:

Definition of "agricultural labor camps"

89.8. As used in Section 89.5 and 89.6, the term "agricultural labor camps" includes student harvest camps and any and all camps for persons engaged in agricultural labor.

Urgency

SEC. 4. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

Due to the disruption of the normal agricultural labor supply caused by the entrance into the armed services of large numbers of persons formerly engaged in agricultural pursuits and to the removal from the agricultural areas of the State of those of Japanese descent, additional facilities to care for migratory agricultural labor are imperative. It is essential that such facilities be provided at the earliest possible date to permit maximum production of agricultural products during the year 1943, and it is therefore declared that this act shall take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 169

An act making an appropriation for administrative expenses of the Department of Social Welfare, to take effect immediately.

An act to amend Section 307 of the Agricultural Code, relating to meat. Stats 1933, p. 60, amended

[Approved by Governor April 21, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 21, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 307 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read: Stats 1941, p. 2213

307. Nothing in this article restricts or prohibits: Exemptions from inspection

(a) A live stock producer from slaughtering animals on his own premises that are a part of his own herd for his own consumption or from disposing of the carcasses and products of those animals thus slaughtered; provided, they can be identified as such, and are sound, healthful, wholesome, and fit for human food, and are disposed of in his locality; when cattle, sheep, swine or goats are sold by said producer in the vicinity where produced and slaughtered there shall be attached to said meat or meat products a statement giving substantially the following:

I hereby certify that the uninspected meat (or meat products as the case may be) to which this certificate is attached is from animals slaughtered by the undersigned, a farmer, on his farm and that at this date it is sound, healthful, wholesome, and fit for human food. Certificate

(b) A live stock producer or dairyman from slaughtering upon his own premises calves under the age of eight months which are the actual increase of his own herd, if the calves are accompanied by a certificate of ownership, offered for inspection at any point where inspection is maintained in accordance with regulations issued by the director, and are marketed by whole carcass with hide on.

(c) The slaughter of animals of the bovine species under the age of eight months in establishments located in counties where meat inspection is not mandatory and which meet the sanitary requirements of the department and shipment thereof to counties where State inspection or approved municipal or county inspection is maintained, and said animals so slaughtered shall there be inspected and the carcasses stamped.

(d) Any butcher located in a remote section of a county in which the inspection provisions of this article are mandatory, when in the opinion of the director it is impractical or impossible to assign an inspector, may, upon written application, be granted an exemption certificate to be used in accordance with the regulations of the director; provided, that the meat of animals slaughtered in accordance with such exemption shall be offered for sale only in the immediate locality where the animals were slaughtered. The certificate must be renewed the first day of January of each year. Should facilities for inspection become available at any time, the director is empowered to withdraw such exemption certificate. The director is also empowered to withdraw such exemption certificate when, in his opinion, the person to whom the same is issued has not complied with the rules and regulations pertaining to the use thereof.

(e) The producer or owner of meats from curing or smoking or grinding or having cured or smoked or ground in his behalf such meats or portions thereof when same are for use for purposes other than sale; provided, however, that any meats or portions thereof referred to in this paragraph which have originated from any carcass which has not been officially inspected shall not be cured or smoked or ground in an establishment wherein Federal, State or municipal meat inspection is maintained. The operator of an establishment who cures, smokes, or grinds meat for a producer or owner of such meat shall report quarterly to the director the amount and kind of meat cured, smoked or ground during the quarter for each producer or owner. Such report shall give the name and address of each person for whom such meat is cured, smoked or ground.

An act to add Chapter 7 to Division 4 of the Public Resources Code, relating to the cutting of immature trees for lumber.

Stats 1939, p 1067, amended

[Approved by Governor April 21, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State April 21, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7, consisting of Sections 4850 to 4853, inclusive, is added to Division 4 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

New chapter

CHAPTER 7. LOGGING PERMITS

4850. It is unlawful to cut for conversion into lumber any sound live coniferous tree that is less than 18 inches in average diameter measured outside of the bark at a point on

Unlawful to cut certain trees without permit the trunk six inches above the general level of the ground surrounding the tree, in that part of California lying north of the 6th Parallel, South, unless a permit so to do is first obtained from the State Forester as provided in this chapter.

This chapter shall not apply to the cutting of trees less than 18 inches in diameter to complete contracts entered into prior to the time this chapter becomes effective.

"Lumber" defined

4851. "Lumber," as used in this chapter, means products of the forest that are processed into boards, planks or timbers by sawing three or more sides lengthwise of the piece.

Permits

4852. The State Forester shall issue a permit to cut trees of lesser diameter than that specified in the next preceding section if, on the basis of facts presented to him or from data, information, and records available to him, he finds either of the following to be true:

(a) That the cutting of such trees would improve forest growth conditions on the land where the trees are proposed to be cut.

(b) The land on which such trees are to be cut is thereafter to be devoted to purposes other than forest growth.

Applications

4853. Applications for permits under this chapter shall be in such form and shall contain such information and data as the State Forester may prescribe.

Penalty

4854. The violation of any provision of this chapter is a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 173

An act to amend Section 4076a of the Political Code, relating to procedure for audit allowance and payment or rejection of claims in counties.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 21, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 21, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1941, p 2101

SECTION 1. Section 4076a of the Political Code is amended to read:

Audit and allowance of claims

4076a. In any county the board of supervisors may, by resolution, adopt the procedure prescribed in this section.

When the purchase or furnishing of articles and services or articles or services and the cost thereof have been authorized by purchase orders issued by the purchasing agent or other officer authorized by the board of supervisors to issue purchase orders, or when such purchase or furnishing of articles and services or articles or services have been authorized by contract, lease, ordinance, resolution or order of the board of supervisors, or when expenditures under the Welfare and Institutions Code have been ordered by the board of supervisors, claims therefor shall be audited and allowed by the county auditor and the allowance of such claims by the board of supervisors or the members thereof shall be dispensed with, except as hereinafter provided, and the allowance of such claims by the auditor shall be in lieu of and shall have the same force and effect as the allowance thereof by the board of supervisors or the members thereof. The auditor shall issue his warrant on the county treasury for such an amount for each of such claims as he shall find to be a correct and legal county charge; he shall not so issue his warrant for any claim that has not been on file in his office for at least three days.

When the auditor finds that any claim presented is a proper county charge, but is greater in amount than is justly due, he may allow the claim in part and issue his warrant for the portion allowed. If the claimant is unwilling to receive such amount in full payment, he shall return the warrant to the county auditor within 30 days after the tender thereof, together with his written refusal to accept such amount in full payment of the claim. The auditor shall immediately transmit the claim to the board of supervisors, together with a statement of his action thereon, his reasons therefor, and claimant's said refusal. The board shall consider such claim within 10 days thereafter and may allow such an amount in payment thereof as is a proper county charge, not in excess of the amount originally claimed, and the auditor shall issue his warrant therefor.

When the auditor finds that any claim presented is not payable by the county, or is not a proper county charge, he must reject such claim and must endorse his rejection thereon. He shall transmit to the board of supervisors, at least once each week, reports of all claims rejected by him and not previously so reported, showing, as to each such claim: Date, fund, name of claimant, amount, and reason for rejection.

The auditor shall prepare duplicate lists of all claims allowed in accordance with this section, showing, as to each claim: Date allowed, fund, warrant number, name of claimant and amount allowed; he shall certify that such lists are correct, shall file one copy thereof in the office of the board of supervisors and shall preserve the other in his own office; such lists shall, as to such claims, constitute, respectively, the allowance book and the warrant book, within the meaning of Section 4039 of this code.

The board of supervisors shall prescribe, by resolution, the procedure for the filing, audit and disposition of claims to which this section relates and shall provide that the auditor shall require the certificates of the authorized requisitioning, inspecting or receiving officers that the articles and services or articles or services have been received or furnished.

CHAPTER 177

An act to amend Section 345 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to limitation of actions.

[Approved by Governor April 21, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 21, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 345 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read: Stats. 1921, p. 722

345. The limitations prescribed in this chapter apply to actions brought in the name of the State or county or for the benefit of the State or county, in the same manner as to actions by private parties, except that actions for the recovery of money due on account of the support of patients at State or county hospitals may be commenced at any time within four years after the accrual of the same. SECTION 1. Section 3.30 of the School Code is amended to read:

3.30. During the continuance of a state of war between the United States of America and any foreign power, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, with the approval of the Governor, shall have power, whenever in his opinion such step is necessary for the planting or harvesting of crops or for other agricultural or horticultural purposes and is for the welfare of the State, to make an order closing for such time as may be specified therein, any or all educational institutions supported wholly or in part by the State, or any grade or class thereof, and may, in like manner, by similar order, postpone the opening of any or all such educational institutions, or any grade or class thereof, during the continuance of a state of war.

Urgency

SEC. 6. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

Teachers and pupils have proven themselves to be valuable elements in the labor necessary to provide food for victory. The ordinary requirements for the opening and closing of schools seriously interfere with the service which may be rendered by the teachers and pupils. The shortage of agricultural labor is becoming increasingly serious and it is essential that teachers and pupils be available immediately to perform some of the necessary work to be done. The Superintendent of Public Instruction who is in close contact with the schools of the State should be given authority to regulate the opening and closing of schools during the existence of war.

An act to add Section 6 to an act entitled "An act authorizing the creation of a personnel system, merit system, or civil service system in cities; the creation of the office of personnel director; the appointment of a civil service commission; the delegation of certain authority to said personnel officer or commission in municipalities within this State; and prohibiting certain political activities and providing penalties for the violation of said provisions," approved April 11, 1935, relating to war emergency appointments, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Stats 1935, p 380, amended

[Approved by Governor April 21, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 21, 1943.]

In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6 is added to the act cited in the title, to read:

New section

Sec. 6. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this act, the legislative body of any municipality which has adopted a personnel, merit, or civil service system may during the war emergency provide for the emergency employment of any person or persons, to fill any offices or positions of employment in such municipality, without requiring that such person or persons shall be subject to the requirements, regulations, and qualifications of the personnel, merit, or civil service system so adopted by such municipality. No such emergency appointee shall acquire civil service or other permanent status because of such emergency appointment. The legislative body may prescribe that if such emergency appointee shall have been selected from an eligible list and was otherwise eligible and qualified for permanent appointment he may acquire such rights as may be expressly provided for under such rules and regulations as may be adopted hereunder.

Emergency employment

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

Urgency

Military and naval authorities have drafted into the armed forces of the United States many qualified officials and employees of municipalities.

There is a shortage of qualified persons to meet the requirements of personnel, merit and civil service systems. It is desirable as public policy that public officials now serving in the armed forces of the United States, be reinstated in their former positions upon their return to civil life.

It is necessary to employ during the war emergency temporary officers and employees to carry on the activities of municipalities, all for the public peace, health and safety.

An act to release The Regents of the University of California from all obligations assumed by said The Regents of the University of California pursuant to the provisions of Sections 1, 2 and 3 of an act entitled, "An act appropriating five hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($525,000) to be used and expended by The Regents of the University of California for the construction and equipment of a building or buildings on the site of the University of California at Los Angeles; providing that none of said money shall be drawn or expended until said The Regents shall deliver to the Chairman of the Department of Finance an obligation binding said The Regents (a) to set aside for sale certain real property in Los Angeles owned by said The Regents; (b) not to use or permit to be used the same so as to interfere with or prevent its sale, provided, that said The Regents may lease the whole or part of said property for periods of not more than six months; (c) to sell parts or parcels of said property or the whole at such prices and on such terms and conditions as said The Regents with approval of the Department of Finance shall fix; (d) to pay over to the State treasury all sums received from sales or rentals, less the costs of selling and leasing and the necessary costs of care and maintenance of said real property; providing that on sale of the last part or the whole of said real property and payment of all moneys agreed to be paid into the State treasury by said The Regents, the Chairman of the Department of Finance shall deliver to said The Regents a written acknowledgment that all requirements of said The Regents' obligation have been performed and further providing that said The Regents shall thereupon be discharged of every duty and requirement in the premises, declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately," approved May 31, 1929, assenting to the conveyance to the State of California by The Regents of the University of California of certain real property in the City of Los Angeles, providing for the transfer to the State of California of leases and contracts of sale affecting said real property, and providing for the sale of such property by the State.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 21, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 21, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Declaration of purpose

SECTION 1. Chapter 625, Statutes of 1929 contained an appropriation to The Regents of the University of California to be used and expended for the purposes in Section 1 of said Chapter 625, Statutes of 1929 specified. The expenditure of said appropriation was conditioned upon the execution by The Regents of the University of California and the delivery to the Chairman of the Department of Finance of an instrument in writing, binding said The Regents, among other things, (a) to set aside for sale certain real property then owned by The Regents of the University of California, situate in the City of Los Angeles, County of Los Angeles, State of California, and more particularly described in Section 2 of this act, (b) from time to time to sell parts of said real property, or the whole at one time, at prices and upon terms and conditions to be fixed by said The Regents with the approval of the Department of Finance, (c) to pay over to the State treasury all sums received as the sale price of said real property and as rental for the same, less the cost and expenses of every sale and leasing of said property or parts thereof, and less also the necessary cost and expense of the care and maintenance thereof. By an instrument in writing dated the eighteenth day of June, 1929, The Regents of the University of California assumed the obligations required by the provisions of Chapter 625, Statutes of 1929 to be by said The Regents assumed, and the Legislature and The Regents of the University of California now deem it to be to the best interests of the people of the State of California and The Regents of the University of California to have the hereinabove mentioned and hereinafter described real property conveyed to the State of California and said The Regents released from the hereinabove mentioned obligations.

Execution and delivery of release

SEC. 2. The Director of Finance is hereby authorized and directed to execute in the name of the State of California and deliver to The Regents of the University of California an instrument in writing releasing the said The Regents of the University of California from the written obligation dated the eighteenth day of June, 1929, executed by the said The Regents of the University of California and delivered to the Chairman of the Department of Finance of the State of California pursuant to the provisions of Section 2 of the act cited in the title hereof; provided that contemporaneously with the execution and delivery by the Director of Finance to the said The Regents of the University of California of the hereinabove mentioned instrument of release, The Regents of the University of California shall execute and deliver to the State Lands Commission a deed conveying to the State of California all of those certain lots, pieces or parcels of land situate, lying and being in the City of Los Angeles, County of Los Angeles, State of California, and more particularly described as follows:

Deed

Lots twenty-three (23), twenty-four (24), twenty-five (25), twenty-six (26), twenty-seven (27), twenty-eight (28), thirty (30), thirty-one (31), thirty-two (32), thirty-seven (37), thirty-eight (38), forty (40), forty-two (42), forty-three (43), forty-four (44), forty-six (46), forty-eight (48), ninety-five (95), ninety-six (96), ninety-seven (97), ninety-eight (98), ninety-nine (99), one hundred (100), one hundred one (101), one hundred two (102), one hundred four (104), one hundred six (106), one hundred seven (107), one hundred eight (108), one hundred nine (109), one hundred ten (110), one hundred eleven (111), one hundred twelve (112), one hundred fourteen (114), one hundred fifteen (115), one hundred sixteen (116), one hundred seventeen (117), one hundred eighteen (118), one hundred nineteen (119), one hundred twenty (120), one hundred twenty-one (121), one hundred twenty-two (122), all in tract No. 1206 as said tract is shown on map recorded in book eighteen, page one of maps, in the office of the county recorder of Los Angeles County, excepting a strip 10 feet wide along the easterly edge of lots twenty-three (23), twenty-four (24), twenty-five (25), twenty-six (26), twenty-seven (27), twenty-eight (28), thirty (30), thirty-one (31), and thirty-two (32);

and shall assign to the State of California all leases and contracts of sale affecting said real property; provided further, that any such leases and contracts of sale shall meet with approval of the Department of Finance.

Assent

SEC. 3. The State of California hereby assents to the conveyance to it by The Regents of the University of California of the hereinabove mentioned lots, pieces or parcels of land, and authorizes the Director of Finance, in the name of the State, to accept the conveyance thereof.

Release from obligations

SEC. 4. Upon the execution and delivery to The Regents of the University of California by the Director of Finance of the instrument of release hereinabove in Section 2 of this act mentioned, the said The Regents of the University of California shall be forever freed and discharged of any and every duty and requirement arising under and from the hereinabove mentioned obligation dated the eighteenth day of June, 1929, entered into as required by the provisions of Section 2 of the act cited in the title hereof, and from every duty and requirement arising under and from the provisions of Sections 1, 2 and 3 of said act.

Authority to sell

SEC. 5. The State Lands Commission, upon receipt of the deed specified in Section 2 of this act, is authorized, with the approval of the Department of Finance, to sell all or any portion of said real property. Any moneys received from the sale of said property, after deducting any expenses or cost incident to such sale, shall be deposited in the State treasury for credit to the General Fund.

An act to validate the organization, boundaries, governing officers or boards, acts, proceedings, and bonds of districts organized under the California Water District Act. Stats. 1913, p. 815

[Approved by Governor April 21, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 21, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All water districts heretofore organized and functioning under, or under color of "The California Water District Act" (approved June 13, 1913, California Stats. 1913, p. 815) as amended are hereby declared to have been legally organized and to be legally functioning as such water districts. Every such water district shall have all the rights, powers, and privileges, and be subject to all the duties and obligations of such a water district regularly formed pursuant to law. Validation· Organization

Boundaries

SEC. 2. The boundaries of every such water district as heretofore established, defined, or recorded are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally established.

Officers

SEC. 3. In so far as any other matter to which this act relates is or may be affected, the members of the governing board or the governing officers of every such water district heretofore elected or appointed and acting as such, are hereby declared the legally appointed or elected, qualified and acting governing officers or members of such governing board.

Acts and proceedings

SEC. 4. All acts and proceedings heretofore taken by any such water district under any law, or under color of any law, for the issuance, sale, or exchange of bonds of any such water district for any public purpose are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective. This shall include all acts and proceedings of the governing board of such water district and of any other public officer or agency heretofore done or taken in connection with any election upon the question of the issuance, sale, or exchange of such bonds if any election be required by law.

Bonds

All such bonds heretofore issued, or heretofore authorized to be issued when hereafter issued in substantially the form contemplated in such authorization, shall be, in the form and manner in which issued and delivered, the legal, valid and binding obligations of the water district.

Effect of statute

SEC. 5. (a) This act shall be limited to the correction of defects, irregularities, and ministerial errors in complying with statutory requirements which the Legislature originally could have omitted from the law under which such acts or proceedings were taken.

(b) This act shall be limited to the validation of acts and proceedings to the extent to which the same can be effectuated under the State and Federal Constitutions.

CHAPTER 188

Stats 1913, p. 815, amended

An act to amend Section 36 of, and to add Sections 8b and 9a to, the California Water District Act, relating to districts organized under said act, declaring the urgency of this act, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor April 21, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 21, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. Section 8b is added to the California Water District Act, to read:

Estimated amount of water sales

Sec. 8b. The board of directors may also include in any annual estimate such an amount as it anticipates will be derived from sales of water by the district pursuant to Section 36 of this act and be available as needed to discharge obligations of the district during the year next following, and such amount shall not be included in the sum required to be raised by assessment for such year pursuant to Section 8 of this act.

Elimination of assessment

If, at the time any annual estimate is required to be filed, the board of directors anticipates that the amount derived from such sales of water or from other sources will be sufficient and available as needed to discharge all obligations of the district during the year next following, the board of directors, in lieu of filing such estimate may report to the board of supervisors that no assessment pursuant to Section 8 of this act will be required for such year and, in that event, no such assessment shall be levied.

New section

SEC. 2. Section 9a is added to said act, to read:

Exemption from Pol C, Sec 3714b

Sec. 9a. The provisions of Section 3714b of the Political Code are not applicable to districts heretofore or hereafter organized under this act and all assessments heretofore levied by any such district without compliance with said Section 3714b shall nevertheless be valid notwithstanding such non-compliance.

Stats 1931, p. 784

SEC. 3. Section 36 of said act is amended to read:

Sale of water

Sec. 36. In lieu in whole or in part of raising money for district purposes by assessment pursuant to Section 8 of this act, the board of directors of any district organized under this act on or after July 30, 1917, shall have the power to sell water to owners of land in the district and to fix rates for the sale of water, and such rates may vary in different months and in different localities of the district to correspond to the cost and value of the service, and to collect for all water sold and to use so much of the proceeds of the sale of water as may be necessary to defray the ordinary operating expenses of the district and any funds derived from the sale of water, in excess of the amount necessary for operating expenses, shall be applied by the treasurer of the district upon the payment of interest on bonds or to create a sinking fund.

Ratable apportionment

Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 29 of this act, water so sold to land owners shall be apportioned ratably to each land owner making application therefor under such rules and regulations as the board of directors may from time to time establish.

Urgency

SEC. 4. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and therefore shall take immediate effect. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity:

Large areas of productive land within this State are within water districts organized under the California Water District Act and the fiscal affairs of such districts have an important bearing upon the production of essential food products in the areas involved. This bill amends and clarifies the law relating to assessments and charges for water in such districts and will permit the orderly conduct of the affairs of such districts in the public interest and unless this act takes immediate effect the fiscal affairs of certain districts may become unnecessarily complicated so as to result in difficulties in operation which might seriously interfere with agricultural production in the areas affected.

CHAPTER 189

Stats 1933, p. 394, amended

An act to add Section 1347 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to elk.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 21, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 21, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. Section 1347 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

Tule elk

1347. The commission may determine and fix the area or areas, the seasons and hours, the bag and possession limit, and the total number that may be taken during any open season for the taking of dwarf elk (Cervus nannodes) commonly known as tule elk under such rules and regulations as the commission may prescribe from time to time. Only citizens and bona fide residents of the State of California may apply for or obtain a license for the taking of said elk. The fee for said license is ten dollars ($10). The fees provided herein shall be deposited in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund, and shall be expended in addition to moneys provided in the budget for salaries of the Division of Fish and Game for the expense of enforcing the provisions of this section.

CHAPTER 190

Stats. 1939, p. 49, amended

CHAPTER 192

Stats 1933, p 60, amended

An act to amend Section 611 of the Agricultural Code, relating to oleomargarine.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 23, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 23, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1941, p 2495

SECTION 1. Section 611 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Imitation milk products License to handle

611. It is unlawful except as to oleomargarine sold, dealt in or furnished by a retail dealer to engage in the business or occupation of manufacturing, selling, dealing in or furnishing, or to have in possession for any purposes other than for consumption in his own family, or for transportation in case of a boat or railroad company, or for the purpose of storage in the case of a warehouse or cold storage company, (a) imitation milk, (b) oleomargarine, renovated butter or a substitute for butter, or (c) imitation cheese or substitute for cheese, (d) imitation ice cream or imitation ice milk, without first having applied for and obtained a license so to do. To engage in any such businesses or occupations, other than that of a retail dealer in oleomargarine, a person shall first apply each year to the department for a license, and upon payment of the license fee mentioned in Section 612 the department shall issue a license to engage in the business for which the license is issued. Separate licenses are required for each such business or occupation, except that no license shall be required of a retail dealer in oleomargarine.

All licenses pertaining to oleomargarine, renovated butter or substitute for butter shall contain the following proviso:

Provided, that this license does not authorize the holder thereof to manufacture, sell, deal in or furnish any oleomargarine, or any substitute for butter, which contains any coloring matter or which resembles yellow butter in appearance, except oleomargarine or substitutes for butter containing coloring matter or resembling butter which are manufactured, dealt in, sold, or furnished for export to points outside of the United States and the Territories and territorial possessions of the United States.

An act relating to officers, deputies, assistants and employees of counties, cities and counties, and cities, and their rights and privileges in relation to their several public offices and employments during and after termination of their service in civilian defense, declaring the urgency of this act, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In regulating the method of appointment and terms of office or employment of officers, deputies, assistants, and employees of counties, cities and counties, and cities, the governing bodies thereof have the power and are hereby granted the power and responsibility to provide that any person leaving such office or employment for service of the State in the administration of the California War Powers Act or of the United States in the Office of Civilian Defense shall have the right to return to his said office or employment under the county, city and county, or city within six months after the termination of his said office or employment under the Return to office or employment after civilian defense service

State or United States, but in no case later than six months after the date of the cessation of hostilities in all wars in which the United States is now engaged, and shall retain and reacquire the rights and privileges he had and would have had in the absence of any interruption in his service to such county, city and county, or city.

Urgency

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

The development of effective leadership in civilian defense activities requires the utilization of the services of persons who have acquired familiarity with the problems of local defense activities through actual experience in local governmental agencies. Many men hesitate to sacrifice their civil service and similar rights to local office or employment to enter into civilian defense activities and as a result the State and Nation are deprived of the services of efficient and badly needed personnel in the conduct of civilian defense activities.

CHAPTER 202

Stats 1935, p 1338 amended

An act to amend Section 395.2 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to leaves of absence of school employees, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1941, p 749

SECTION 1. Section 395.2 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

Return to employment of non-certificated school employees

395.2. Any employee of a board of school trustees or board of education in a position not requiring certification qualifications who pursuant to the laws of the United States serves with the armed forces of the United States and who receives an honorable discharge therefrom shall regain all rights to his position and shall be reinstated thereto upon his application at any time within 90 days of the termination of that service, but in any event within one year from the date of a treaty of peace terminating the hostilities in which the United States is now engaged.

Urgency

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

The United States of America is in a state of war. It has been proposed that a system for compulsory service in civilian defense and in war industry be put into operation. Should such plan be put into effect it is necessary to protect the rights of noncertificated employees that their positions be held open for them in the same manner as though their service were in the armed forces.

CHAPTER 207

An act, relating to the relief of gold and silver mining operators, permitting postponement of sales under certain chattel mortgages, mortgages, deeds of trust or contracts of purchase on gold and silver mines and gold and silver mining machinery and equipment, or postponement of forfeitures and terminations under gold and silver mining contracts and leases, regulating appointment of receivers in certain cases, extending the time in which the purchase price may be paid and extending the statute of limitations, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Due to the necessity of conserving labor and strategic materials in connection with the war effort, the United States War Production Board has issued an order directing the cessation of operations of gold mines throughout the United States. The issuance of this order has caused widespread distress among the gold miners of California, and the Legislature finds that as a war measure it is necessary to provide for the relief of said distress in the following manner until causes of said distress have been removed by cessation of the war. Necessity for act

This act shall, therefore, be effective until six months after the termination of hostilities between the United States and all nations with which the United States is at war as determined by an act of Congress or proclamation of the President of the United States, or until October 1, 1945, whichever first occurs. Duration

SEC. 2. Any person who is or has been engaged in mining gold or silver from any mining property of which property he is the owner and which property produces no revenue except from the mining of gold and silver, and against which property he has incurred obligations in connection with its purchase, or which he holds under contract (1) providing for his purchase or lease of such property or giving him an option to purchase or lease such property, or an interest therein, or stock in a corporation which holds title thereto, and (2) requiring the performance of certain work on such property, or on adjacent property or properties or periodic rental or installment payments with respect thereto, or minimum royalties, or (3) holds the property subject to a mortgage or trust deed or (4) holds gold or silver mining machinery or equipment under contract of sale or subject to chattel mortgage, and who has been prevented by reason of any statute, rule, regulation, or order of the United States, or of any officer or agency of the United States made in connection with the National defense or war effort from (1) obtaining Moratorium Who entitled to necessary supplies or equipment with which to perform the minimum work requirements of his contract, or (2) from obtaining or employing the necessary workmen to carry out the terms of his contract, or (3) as a result of said prevention, from producing ore or gold-bearing gravel from the proceeds of which payments on said obligations could be made, or payment could be made on the purchase, lease or option to purchase of other mining property in California or stock in a corporation which holds title thereto, which the person is purchasing or leasing for the purpose of fulfilling his program of mining operations, shall be entitled, upon establishing these facts, to the satisfaction of any superior court having jurisdiction in the premises, to receive a moratorium order suspending his obligations under said contract under which he holds the property, or an interest therein, or the right to acquire stock in any corporation holding the title thereto as aforesaid, during the effective period of such statute, rule, regulation, or order, and for a period of six months after the termination of said effective period. In considering whether or not such petitioner is entitled to receive a moratorium order the court to whom the petition is addressed may consider the issuance of any such regulation, rule or order pursuant to the terms of a statute of the United States as conclusive evidence of the prevention of the petitioner from performing his contract by causes wholly beyond his control, if the court finds that such regulation, rule or order has prevented said petitioner from carrying on operations on said property or producing gold or silver therefrom.

Suspension of obligations, etc

SEC. 3. The court, in its discretion, if it finds that the ability of such person to produce gold and silver sufficient in quantity to enable him to make the payments required under such contract from the proceeds of his operation or otherwise to perform the terms of his contract has been impaired by reason of said order, rule or regulation, (a) may make an order suspending, in whole or in part, the requirement that such work be performed or such payments be made; and (b) may make such other disposition of the case as may be equitable to conserve the interests of all parties, including an extension of the term of any contract or lease for a period corresponding to the period during which such war order, rule or regulation remains in effect; provided, however, that in no case shall such suspension under (a) extend for more than six months after the termination of the present war.

Conditional sales contracts, etc

SEC. 4. The relief made possible under this act shall also extend to a person who is or has been engaged in mining gold or silver from any mining property, and has been prevented from continuing operations for any of the reasons mentioned in Section 2 hereof with respect (1) to the payment of the balance of the purchase price of any equipment which may have been purchased on a conditional sales contract and placed on the premises prior to the effective date of said order, rule, or regulation preventing continued operation; and (2) to the enforcement of any mortgage, attachment, or other lien against said premises or against the mining property covered by said prevented operation for nonpayment of any debt, or for nonpayment of taxes accruing after the effective date of said preventing order, rule or regulation.

Petition

SEC. 5. Subject to the limitations as to time provided in Section 1 hereof, any operator of gold or silver mining property who has ceased operating pursuant to the restrictions imposed on gold or silver mining by the United States, and who is in danger of forfeiture under any of the instruments named in Section 2 hereof, may file a petition in the superior court of the county in which such gold or silver mining property or machinery or equipment or the major portion thereof is situated, praying for an order postponing the sale of such property or machinery and equipment, or prevention of forfeiture under the instruments set forth in Section 2 hereof.

Service of petition

SEC. 6. A copy of such petition shall be served upon the trustee and the beneficiary under such deed of trust, upon the mortgagee under such mortgage, upon the lessor in a lease providing for payment of minimum royalties and upon the holder of the contract of sale or chattel mortgage on machinery and equipment or the obligee in any contract mentioned in Section 2 hereof, as the case may be, in the manner provided by law for the service of summons in a civil action.

Notice

A notice of pendency of such petition shall immediately be recorded in each county in which any of such property is situated, and on the day of such recordation a copy thereof shall be mailed, postage prepaid, from a post office within this State, addressed to such trustee and beneficiary, such mortgagee, or the holder of the contract of sale or chattel mortgage on machinery and equipment, or upon the lessor in a lease providing for payment of minimum royalties or the obligee in any contract mentioned in Section 2 hereof, as the case may be, at their respective places of residence, if known to petitioner, if not, then at the county seat of the county, or at the city and county, where the proceeding is pending.

Such notice of pendency shall state the name of the petitioner, the nature of the petition, and the book and page of the records of the county recorder in which the mortgage or deed of trust or other instrument is recorded.

Hearing

SEC. 7. Upon application of the petitioner, after service of such petition, or upon application of any other interested party after the filing of the petition, a hearing shall be had thereon within 20 days after such application, upon such notice as the court shall reasonably prescribe; provided, however, that the court if it finds equitable grounds therefor, may postpone such hearing for not to exceed 10 days.

Prevention of sale or forfeiture

After the filing of such petition and the recording and mailing of the notice of the pendency thereof as provided in Sections 5 and 6 of this act, no sale under the power of sale conferred by such deed of trust or such mortgage or other instrument shall be held nor shall any forfeiture be effected under any of the instruments set forth in Section 2 hereof until the court makes its order in the matter, but nothing herein contained shall prevent such sale or forfeiture at any time after October 1, 1945, or six months after termination of the war, whichever shall first occur.

Order

SEC. 8. Upon such hearing the court may make its order, if it finds equitable grounds for relief, and finds that the security will not be unreasonably jeopardized thereby, ordering that such sale shall not be held or forfeiture declared until after such date as the court considers just and equitable, but in no event shall such date be beyond October 1, 1945, or six months after termination of the war, whichever first occurs, or may make its order dismissing such proceedings.

Payment of income or rental toward debt

If the court orders the sale or forfeiture postponed it shall determine the reasonable value of the income from such property, or if the property has no income, then the reasonable rental value of such property, or if the property is unimproved, a reasonable sum to be paid by the trustor or mortgagor, or holder under other instrument set forth in Section 2 hereof, as determined by the court, and by such order shall require the trustor or mortgagor to pay all or at least a reasonable part of such income, rental value, or sum so determined by the court, in or toward the payment of taxes, insurance, interest, or principal of the indebtedness at such times and in such manner as are determined to be just and equitable under the circumstances.

Maintenance and repair

SEC. 9. The court must include in such order provisions requiring maintenance and repair by the trustor or mortgagor, or holder under other instrument set forth in Section 2 hereof, regulating the disposition of any income from the property and such other provisions as it deems just and equitable for the protection of the security, but in no event shall the court order the payment by the trustor or mortgagor or holder under other instrument set forth in Section 2 hereof of a lesser sum than necessary to pay (a) current taxes, (b) all delinquent taxes, except that such taxes may be paid in installments as may be provided by law, and (c) any insurance premiums required to be paid by the petitioner under the contract between the parties.

Extension of redemption period

SEC. 10. When any mortgage or deed of trust upon property, or upon machinery and equipment attached to or used in operating gold or silver mining property or other instrument, has been foreclosed, and the property covered thereby has been sold in whole or in part under decree of foreclosure, and the period of redemption has not yet expired, the mortgagor or trustor thereof, or holder under other instrument set forth in Section 2 hereof, having the right of redemption, may at any time not later than October 1, 1945, or six months after termination of the war, whichever first occurs, file a petition in the superior court of the county in which the property so sold or the major portion thereof is situated, praying for an order extending such period of redemption.

SEC. 11. A copy of such petition shall be served upon the purchaser of such property at the foreclosure sale, or, if there has been a redemption, upon the last redemptioner, in the manner provided by law for the service of summons in a civil action. Service of petition

A notice of pendency of such petition shall immediately be recorded in each county in which any of such property is situated, and, on the day of such recordation, a copy thereof shall be mailed, postage prepaid, from a post office within this State, addressed to such purchaser or last redemptioner, as the case may be, at his place of residence, if known to petitioner, if not, then at the county seat of the county, or at the city and county, where the proceeding is pending. Notice

Such notice of pendency shall state the name of the petitioner, the nature of the petition, and the book and page of the records of the county recorder in which the mortgage or deed of trust or other instrument is recorded.

SEC. 12. Upon application of the petitioner after service of such petition, or upon application of any other interested party, after the filing of the petition, a hearing shall be had thereon within 20 days after such application, upon such notice as the court shall reasonably prescribe; provided, however, that the court, if it finds equitable grounds therefor, may postpone such hearing for not to exceed 10 days. Hearing

Upon the filing of such petition and the recording and mailing of the notice of pendency thereof as provided in Sections 10 and 11 of this act, the period of redemption, if such period would sooner terminate, shall be extended until 10 days after the court makes its order in the matter, but in no event beyond October 1, 1945, or six months after termination of the war, whichever first occurs.

SEC. 13. Upon such hearing the court may make its order, if it finds equitable grounds for relief and finds that the security will not be unreasonably jeopardized thereby, extending such period of redemption for such additional time as the court considers just and equitable, but in no event beyond October 1, 1945, or six months after termination of the war, whichever first occurs, or may make its order dismissing such proceeding. Order

If the court by its order extends the period of redemption, it shall determine the reasonable value of the income from such property, or if the property has no income, then the reasonable rental value of such property, or if the property is unimproved, a reasonable sum to be paid by the operator as determined by the court. Payment of income or rent toward taxes, etc

The court shall require the operator to pay all or at least a reasonable part of such income, rental value, or sum so determined by the court, in or toward the payment of taxes upon such property, the cost of insurance and the sums to which the purchaser of such property at such foreclosure sale, or the last redemptioner, as the case may be, is entitled under the provisions of Section 707 of the Code of Civil Procedure, at such times and in such manner determined to be just and equitable under the circumstances.

Maintenance and repair

SEC. 14. The court may include in such order provisions requiring maintenance and repair by the operator, regulating the disposition of any income from the property, and such other provisions as it deems just and equitable for the protection of the interest and security of the purchaser or last redemptioner, as the case may be.

Minimum payment

In no event shall the court order the payment by the operator of a lesser sum than the greater of (1) the amount of such reasonable value of the income, or such reasonable rental value, or such reasonable sum so determined by the court, or (2) a sum sufficient to pay (a) current taxes, (b) all delinquent taxes, except that such taxes may be paid in installment as provided by law, and (c) a sum reasonably necessary for fire and other insurance upon any improvement upon such property.

Credit

SEC. 15. Any sums paid to a purchaser or redemptioner pursuant to Sections 13 or 14 of this act shall be a credit upon the redemption money to be paid as provided in Section 707 of the Code of Civil Procedure; but in the event no redemption is made, the same shall belong to such purchaser or redemptioner.

Statutory right of redemption

SEC. 16. Nothing in this act shall be construed as abridging or limiting the statutory right of redemption provided in Sections 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706 and 707 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or as shortening the period of redemption as therein provided, or as altering the mode or procedure for redemption as therein provided.

Postponement of mortgage sales

SEC. 17. In any decree rendered prior to October 1, 1945, foreclosing a mortgage or deed of trust upon real property, the court may provide that the sale of the property shall not be held until on or after such date as the court considers just and equitable, but in no event later than October 1, 1945. If the court provides in such decree that the sale shall not be held until on or after such date as it shall fix, it shall determine the reasonable value of the income from such property, or if the property has no income, then the reasonable rental value of such property, or if the property is unimproved, a reasonable sum to be paid by the trustor or mortgagor or holder under other instrument set forth in Section 2 hereof, as determined by the court, and shall require the trustor or mortgagor or holder under other instrument set forth in Section 2 hereof to pay all or at least a reasonable part of such income, rental value, or sum so determined by the court, in or toward the payment of taxes, insurance, interest, or principal of the indebtedness at such times and in such manner determined to be just and equitable under the circumstances. The court may include in such order provisions requiring maintenance and repair regulating the disposition of any income from the property, and such other provisions as it deems just and equitable for the protection of the security.

After such hearing the court, if it shall determine that it is equitable and just so to do and that the security will not be unreasonably jeopardized thereby, may make its order postponing to a date not later than October 1, 1945, or six months after termination of the war, whichever shall first occur, the foreclosure, termination or forfeiture of the petitioners' interest under such contract of purchase on substantially the same terms and conditions as those prescribed in Sections 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 of this act, or the court may make its order dismissing such proceeding. Postponement of foreclosure, etc

SEC. 18. If the trustor, mortgagor or purchaser under a contract of purchase commits waste or defaults in any payment or act required by order or decree of court, the court, unless good excuse therefor is shown, shall order that the sale, foreclosure, termination or forfeiture postponed by its order or decree proceed as provided by law, or that the period of redemption extended by its order or decree shall expire on the making of its order or within the time provided by law, whichever shall last occur, and that the moneys to be paid on redemption, if theretofore reduced, be increased to the extent of such previous reduction, if it finds after hearing upon such notice to the original petitioner or his attorney as it prescribes, that there has been such waste or such default, unless good excuse therefor is shown, amounting to a material breach of the order or decree of postponement or extension. Waste or default

SEC. 19. No suit or action shall be commenced against the guarantor of any note secured by a mortgage or deed of trust upon gold or silver mining property, or upon chattels attached to or used in connection with gold or silver mining property, in any case while, pursuant to the provisions of this act, no sale may be made under any power of sale contained in such mortgage or deed of trust or while no sale may be made under the final decree of foreclosure rendered in an action to foreclose such mortgage. Prohibitions Suits

SEC. 20. No sale shall be made under any decree of foreclosure, of, or under any power of sale contained in, any chattel mortgage upon any personal property located in and used in connection with the operation of any building located upon gold or silver mining property, until on or after such date as a sale of such gold or silver mining property is lawfully held under such mortgage, deed of trust, or contract of purchase, when such chattel mortgage was given as additional security for an obligation also secured by deed of trust, mortgage, or contract of purchase, on such real property or other instrument mentioned in Section 2 hereof. Sales

SEC. 21. Whenever the time within which an action may be commenced upon any obligation founded upon a written instrument secured by chattel mortgage, mortgage, deed of trust or contract of purchase, or founded upon any guarantee of such obligation or any contract of suretyship therefor or any endorsement of such instrument, would expire by virtue of Section 337 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or any other Period of limitation extended provision of law, during the period commencing with the effective date of this act and ending on the date upon which this act shall cease to be in effect, with respect to any property or chattel relating to which a petition has been filed under this act, such time is hereby extended so as not to expire until December 31, 1945, or nine months after cessation of the war, whichever shall first occur.

Exceptions

SEC. 22. Nothing contained in this act shall apply to or be deemed to affect:

(a) Any mortgage, deed of trust, lease agreement, operating agreement or contract of sale upon gold or silver mining property, or upon chattels attached to real property, executed after the effective date of this act.

(b) Any mortgage or deed of trust while held and owned by the original lender securing any loan made by the United States Government or any agency thereof or any loan insured by the United States Government or any agency thereof; and any judgment entered in favor of, or any sheriff's or commissioner's certificate of sale issued to the United States Government or any agency thereof in an action to foreclose any such mortgage or deed of trust;

(c) Any mortgage or deed of trust securing an obligation in default at the time the owner or owners acquired title by purchase subsequent to the effective date of this act.

Definitions

SEC. 23. As used in this act:

(a) The terms "mortgagor," "mortgagee," "trustor," "trustee," "purchaser," "vendor," "lessee," and "guarantor," shall include their personal representatives, assigns or successors in interest, and the singular shall include the plural.

(b) The term "trustee" shall also include the beneficiary of a deed of trust.

(c) As used in this act, the term "chattels attached to mining property," or similar designation, includes anything which is deemed affixed or attached to land, or as forming part of the land.

(d) The term "mining" means gold or silver mining.

(e) The term "real property" means gold or silver mining property.

(f) The term "operator" includes all persons, firms or corporations engaged in gold or silver mining operations.

(g) "Machinery" and "equipment" shall mean "gold or silver mining machinery" and "equipment."

Waiver

SEC. 24. Nothing contained in this act shall preclude any trustor under a deed of trust or any mortgagor of chattels or any mortgagor under a mortgage or any purchaser under a contract for the purchase of real property, or chattels attached to real property, from executing and delivering at any time a deed to his beneficiary, mortgagee or vendor, or the purchaser at any foreclosure sale or a redemptioner, as the case may be, and the execution and delivery of any such deed by any such trustor, mortgagor or purchaser shall constitute a waiver of the benefit of all the provisions of this act. The failure on the part of any trustor, mortgagor or purchaser or operator to file a petition within the times specified in this act, shall be deemed a waiver of the benefits of the provisions of this act.

Voidable sales and forfeitures

SEC. 25. Any sale of property under a chattel mortgage, or of real property, or of chattels attached to real property, under a deed of trust, mortgage, or chattel mortgage, and any forfeiture made in violation of this act shall be voidable, except as against a bona fide purchaser or encumbrancer for value, at the instance of the record owner of such real or personal property at the time of such sale, or the operator at the time of such forfeiture; provided, that any action to avoid such sale or any deed executed pursuant thereto must be brought within one year of the date of such sale.

Fees

SEC. 26. There shall be no filing fees for the filing of any document with the county clerk under the provisions of this act.

Receivers

SEC. 27. Until October 1, 1945, or six months after termination of the war, whichever shall first occur, no receiver shall be appointed at the instance of the mortgagee of any mortgage or the trustee or beneficiary of any deed of trust, with respect to real property or chattels attached to real property subject to mortgage or deed of trust, except in a suit or action for the foreclosure of such mortgage or deed of trust or for the enforcement of the covenants, or any thereof, contained in such mortgage or deed of trust, or in a proceeding ancillary to any such suit or action, or until after recording notice of default.

Constitutionality

SEC. 28. If any section, clause or part of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is finally determined by the courts to be unconstitutional such section, clause or part shall no longer be effective or such application shall no longer control, but all other sections, clauses or parts or the application thereof to other persons and circumstances shall continue in full force and effect; it being the intent of the Legislature to make this act as effective as possible to relieve operators in the manner herein provided.

Composition or settlement

SEC. 29. Whenever any petition under this act is to be or is being heard by the court, the interested parties may submit to the court, in writing, a composition of the indebtedness involved in the proceeding, or a compromise settlement of the proceeding, and the court shall have jurisdiction and may by its order confirm and approve such composition or settlement.

Rights not affected

SEC. 30. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as affecting any rights which have accrued under Chapter 1, Statutes of the Extra Session of 1934, or shorten the time within which any action may be commenced.

Same

SEC. 31. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as affecting any rights which have accrued under Chapter 7, Statutes of 1935; Chapter 348, Statutes of 1935; Chapter 5 or Chapter 167, Statutes of 1937; Chapter 86, Statutes of 1939; or Chapter 208, Statutes of 1941; or shorten the time within which any action may be commenced, or affect any proceedings taken thereunder.

Temporary orders

SEC. 32. Whenever a proceeding is instituted in accordance with Sections 2, 3, or 4 of the act, the court may, upon cause shown, make a temporary order suspending the requirements for performing work and making payments under the contract or restraining the enforcement of liens for any of the items mentioned in Sections 3 or 4 hereof, pending final disposition of such proceedings, and may make such additional and supplementary orders as may be necessary for proper disposition of the case.

Liability

SEC. 33. No person shall be held liable in any proceeding in any court for any damages, penalty, or forfeiture on account of any act done or omitted to be done in good faith in accordance with or in reliance upon any provision of this act, or any order or judgment of a court made pursuant to any such provision.

"Person"

SEC. 34. For the purposes of this act, the term "person" includes any individual, partnership, firm, corporation, association, or other organization, or the legal representative of any of the foregoing.

Urgency

SEC. 35. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

The United States War Production Board has ordered the cessation of gold mining for the duration of the war. Many persons engaged in gold and silver mining face financial ruin as a result of this order unless given immediate relief.

CHAPTER 208

An act to amend Section 227 of, and to add Section 227aa to, the Civil Code, relating to adoption.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1931, p 2401

SECTION 1. Section 227 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

Hearing Appearance

227. The person or persons desiring to adopt a child, and the child proposed to be adopted, must appear before the court; provided, that if said adoptive parent is then commissioned or enlisted in the military service, or auxiliary thereof, of the United States, or of any of its allies, or in the American Red Cross, so that it is impossible or impracticable, because of such person's absence from the State of California, or otherwise, for said person to make such appearance in person, and said circumstances are established by satisfactory evidence, said appearance may be made for such person by his or her counsel, commissioned and empowered in writing so to do and which said power of attorney may be incorporated in the petition for adoption. The court must examine all persons appearing before it pursuant to this section, each separately, and if satisfied that the interests of the child will be promoted by the adoption, the party or parties adopting shall execute or acknowledge an agreement in writing that the child shall be treated in all respects as the lawful child of the party or parties, and the court shall thereupon make an order awarding the custody of the child to the adopting parent or parents; provided, that in any case where said adoptive parent is permitted to appear by counsel hereunder, or otherwise, the court may, in its discretion, cause such examination of said adoptive parent, other interested party, or witness to be made upon deposition, as it deems necessary, said deposition to be taken upon commission, as prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure, and the expense thereof to be borne by the petitioner. The petition, relinquishment, agreement, order, and any power of attorney and deposition must be filed in the office of the county clerk and shall not be open to inspection by any other than the parties to the action and their attorneys and the State Department of Social Welfare except upon the written authority of the judge of the superior court.

SEC. 2. Section 227aa is added to said code, to read:

New section

227aa. In the case of an adoption of a child by a stepparent where one natural parent retains his or her custody and control of said child, the stepparent may appear by attorney if he or she is in the military, naval or marine service of the United States. The natural parent retaining custody of the child and the child proposed to be adopted must appear before the court; provided, that if said natural parent is then commissioned or enlisted in the military service, or auxiliary thereof, of the United States, or of any of its allies, or in the American Red Cross, so that it is impossible or impracticable, because of such person's absence from the State of California, or otherwise for said person to make such appearance in person, and said circumstances are established by satisfactory evidence, said appearance may be made for such person by his or her counsel, commissioned and empowered in writing so to do and which said power of attorney may be incorporated in the petition for adoption. The court must examine all persons appearing before it pursuant to this section, each separately, and if satisfied that the interests of the child will be promoted by the adoption shall order that the stepparent shall execute or acknowledge an agreement in writing that the child shall be treated in all respects as the lawful child of the party. The agreement shall be executed or acknowledged before a notary public or other person authorized under Civil Code Sections 1182, 1183 and 1183.5 to acknowledge instruments or a commissioned officer in command of the stepparent executing or acknowledging the agreement. If the court approves the agreement, it shall thereupon make an order awarding the

CHAPTER 209

An act to amend Section 444 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to grounds of demurrer to the answer.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1907, p 705

SECTION 1. Section 444 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended, to read:

Demurrer to answer Grounds

444. The demurrer may be taken upon one or more of the following grounds:

1. That several causes of counterclaim have been improperly joined, or not separately stated;

2. That the answer does not state facts sufficient to constitute a defense or counterclaim;

3. That the answer is ambiguous;

4. That the answer is unintelligible;

5. That the answer is uncertain; or

6. That, where the answer pleads a contract, it can not be ascertained from the answer, whether or not the contract is written or oral.

CHAPTER 210

Stats 1939, p 482, amended

An act to add Section 249 to, and to amend Sections 250, 257, and 268 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to services for physically handicapped children providing for receipt and administration of Federal funds, providing for cooperation with the Federal Government.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. Section 249 is hereby added to Article 2 of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read as follows:

Services for handicapped children

249. The Department of Public Health shall have the power to establish and administer a program of services for physically defective or handicapped persons under the age of 21 years, in cooperation with the Federal Government through its appropriate agency or instrumentality in developing, extending and improving such services, to receive and expend all funds made available to the department by the Federal Government, the State, its political subdivisions or from other sources, and shall have power to supervise those services included in the State plan which are not directly administered by the State, and to cooperate with the medical, health, nursing and welfare groups and organizations, and any agency of the State charged with the administration of laws providing for vocational rehabilitation of physically handicapped children.

SEC. 2. Section 250 of the Health and Safety Code is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1939, p 482

250. "Handicapped child," as used in this article, means a physically defective or handicapped person under the age of 21 years who is in need of services. "Handicapped child"

SEC. 3. Section 257 of the Health and Safety Code is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1939, p 482

257. It may without the possession of a certificate, pay the expenses for services required by any physically handicapped child out of any funds received by it through gift, devise, or bequest, or from private, State, Federal or other grant or source. Payment for services without certificate

SEC. 4. Section 268 of the Health and Safety Code is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1939, p 482

268. The board of supervisors in each county may provide for services for any handicapped child in each county, when the parents or guardian consent in writing and when the parents or estate of the child is not financially able to provide services. The county may cooperate in this service with the State department and pay the cost as provided in this article or may perform the services independently, if such services meet minimum standards set by the State Board of Public Health for the care of physically handicapped children. CHAPTER 211

An act to amend Sections 2271, 2274 and 2275 of the Public Resources Code, relating to the Ore Buyer's License Fund. Stats 1939, p 1067, amended

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2271 of the Public Resources Code is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1939, p 1067

2271. Upon the trial, the court shall hear all parties who have appeared. If any party proves ownership or that he Trial and judgment has any right or interest therein, the court shall make an order for the delivery of the property to him, or the sale thereof and a distribution of the proceeds to discharge the right or interest which he has therein, the balance of the proceeds to escheat to the State; otherwise, the court shall declare the property to have escheated to the State. Thereafter the State Mineralogist may sell the ores, concentrates and amalgams not theretofore sold by court order and shall account for and report the proceeds of the sale to the State Controller and at the same time remit the money to the State treasury to be credited to the General Fund.

Sale of escheated ores

Stats 1939, p 1067

SEC. 2. Section 2274 of the Public Resources Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Enforcement of chapter

2274. Any violation of Sections 2250, 2251, 2252, 2265, 2266, 2267, or 2272 is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment. The State Mineralogist shall notify the district attorney of the county in which the offense occurs of any such violation, and the district attorney shall institute criminal proceedings for the enforcement of this chapter before any court of competent jurisdiction.

Disposition of forfeited bail and fines

All forfeited bail and fines received under the provisions of this section shall be sent without delay by the magistrate receiving them, 50 per cent to the State Treasurer, to be deposited in the State treasury to the credit of the General Fund and 50 per cent to the city treasurer of the city, if incorporated, or to the county treasurer of the county in which the prosecution is conducted.

Stats 1939, p 1067

SEC. 3. Section 2275 of the Public Resources Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Disposition of proceeds

2275. All money received by the State Mineralogist under this chapter, shall be accounted for and reported monthly to the State Controller, to be remitted by the Controller to the State treasury to the credit of the General Fund. All money deposited with the State Mineralogist for fees for licenses which have not been granted shall be retained by him in the trust fund of the division to be remitted to the State Treasurer upon the issuance of the license or returned to the applicant in case a license is refused.

Ore Buyer's License Fund abolished

SEC. 4. The Ore Buyer's License Fund is abolished. Any unexpended balance in the fund shall be transferred to the General Fund in the State treasury.

CHAPTER 212

An act to add Section 156.1 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to travel expenditures by the Department of Institutions.

Stats 1937, p. 1005, amended

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 156.1 is hereby added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read as follows:

New section

156.1. The department may expend moneys in accordance with law for the actual and necessary travel expenses of officers and employees of the department and any officer or employee of any institution within the department who are authorized to absent themselves from the State of California on official business.

Out-of-State travel expenses

For the purposes of this section and of Section 352 of the Political Code, the following constitutes, among other purposes, official business for said officers and employees for which such officers and employees shall be allowed actual and necessary traveling expenses when incurred either in or out of this State upon approval of the Governor and Director of Finance:

Official business

Attending meetings of any National association or organization having as its principal purpose the study of matters relating to administration of institutions, and care and treatment of mental, feeble-minded or other institutional inmates; conferring with officers or employees of the United States or other States, relative to problems of institutional care, treatment or management; and obtaining information therefrom, which information would be useful in the conduct of institutional, psychiatric, medical, and similar activities of the Department of Institutions.

CHAPTER 213

An act to provide for the disposal of certain real property of the State in Sonoma County and for the disposition of the proceeds of such sale.

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Director of Institutions with the approval of the Director of Finance is hereby authorized and directed to sell and convey on behalf of the State the property belonging to the State situated in the County of Sonoma, State of California and more particularly described as follows:

Authority to sell

Parcel one: Commencing on the northern boundary of what is known as the "Lac" survey of the Buena Vista, at the crossing of the west branch of the Arroyo Seco, which point of crossing is south 53° east, distant 1524 feet from the northwest corner of said Lac Survey; thence along said northern boundary line, south 53° east 2186 feet to the east branch of the Arroyo Seco; thence down the same to its junction with said west branch; thence up said west branch to the point of beginning, containing 38 acres of land, more or less. Courses true.

Description

Parcel two: Beginning at the most northerly corner of lot numbered 70, as said lot is delineated and so designated on that certain map entitled "Map of Sonoma Mission Farms No. 5," filed in the office of the county recorder of Sonoma County on July 13, 1914, and recorded in Book 31 of Maps, pages 6 and 7; running thence along the northwesterly boundary line of said lot numbered 70, to the most westerly corner thereof; thence south 74° 20′ east 1730.7 feet to a stake in the center of the creek; thence north 14° 26′ east 4650 feet to a point on the northeasterly boundary line of said lot numbered 70, which point is 1114.66 feet south 34° 17′ east of the said most northerly corner of said lot numbered 70; thence north 34° 17′ west along said northeasterly boundary line of said lot numbered 70, 1114.66 feet to the point of beginning, containing 140.31 acres, more or less.

Being a portion of said lot numbered 70, of said Sonoma Mission Farms No. 5, and also included within lot numbered 14 of the hereinafter mentioned referee's map of certain property belonging to Kate Johnson Estate Company, et al.

Parcel three: Subdivisions seven (7), eight (8), nine (9), ten (10), fifteen (15), and all that portion of Subdivision five (5) which would lie southeast of Buena Vista Avenue, if said avenue were continued in a straight line through lots 5 and 8 instead of as shown on the map hereinafter referred to, all as designated and laid down upon the map entitled "Referee's Map of certain property belonging to Kate Johnson Estate Company, et al., in Sonoma and Napa Counties, California, showing the subdivision thereof as divided and sold by the referees in partition, in the suit entitled "Kate Johnson Estate Company, et al. vs. Clara Turnbull, et al. Superior Court of the City and County of San Francisco, State of California," filed in the office of the county recorder of Sonoma County, on April 29, 1907, and recorded in Book 21 of Maps, page 2.

Saving and excepting from Subdivisions 8 and 15, however, the following portion thereof, to wit:

Beginning at a point in the center line of Buena Vista Avenue at the southeast corner of lot No. 1 of Sonoma Mission Farms No. 1, the same being designated and delineated on the map entitled, "Sonoma Mission Farms No. 1," on file in the county recorder's office of Sonoma County, California; thence north 32° west 916.72 feet along and with the easterly line of said lot No. 1 to the southeast corner of lot No. 10; thence north 32° west 196.94 feet along and with the easterly line of lot No. 10 to the southwest corner of lot 8, section 5, township 5 north, range 5 west M.D.M.; thence north 566 feet along the westerly line of lot 8, section 5, township 5 north, range 5 west, M.D.M. to a point; thence south 32° 05′ east 1584.7 feet to a point in the aforementioned center line of Buena Vista Avenue, extended; thence south 58° 13′ west, 300 feet along and with the center line of said avenue, to the point of beginning, containing 9.52 acres of land.

Also saving and excepting from Subdivision 10, however, the following portion thereof, to wit:

Beginning at the southeast corner of said lot 10, as shown upon the referee's map mentioned above; thence north 7° 16′ east to the center of a proposed road, 1093.3 feet; thence north 79° 55′ west 147.9 feet; south 1° 55′ west 284.1 feet; south 22° 19′ west 398.3 feet; south 43° 33′ west 147.8 feet; south 61° 01′ west 148 feet; south 67° 49′ west 95.2 feet; north 83° 35′ west 156.7 feet; north 74° 13′ west 81.8 feet; south 48° 35′ west 85.4 feet to the south line of said lot 10; thence leaving the center of said proposed road and along the said south line of said lot 10 easterly, to the point of beginning, bearings true. Saving and excepting from the above tract of land a strip 20 feet in width adjoining and parallel to the center line of said proposed road on the southerly and easterly side. The tract of land hereby described, containing six acres, a little more or less.

Mineral deposits

SEC. 2. There is hereby excepted and reserved to the State of California all deposits of minerals, including oil and gas, in said lands, together with the right to prospect for, extract and remove such deposits of minerals, including oil and gas, therefrom.

Proceeds of sale

SEC. 3. The proceeds of the sale of said lands shall be deposited in the General Fund in the State treasury.

Sale formalities

SEC. 4. Any grant made pursuant to this act shall be signed, sealed and countersigned in conformity to Section 14 of Article V of the Constitution of California.

Any laboratory doing tests called for in this article shall prepare the report in triplicate. The original of this report shall be transmitted by the laboratory doing such test together with the certificate form to the certifying physician. The duplicate reports shall be forwarded at weekly intervals to the California State Department of Public Health. The triplicate shall be retained by the laboratory on file for five years and shall be open during that time for inspection by any authorized representative of the California State Department of Public Health.

CHAPTER 215

An act to amend Section 50¼ of the Public Utilities Act, relating to fees for applications for certificates of public convenience and necessity.

Stats. 1915, p. 115, amended

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50¼ of the Public Utilities Act is amended to read:

Stats. 1931, p. 2598

Sec. 50¼. No passenger stage corporation shall hereafter operate or cause to be operated any passenger stage over any public highway in this State without first having obtained from the Railroad Commission a certificate declaring that public convenience and necessity require such operation, but no such certificate shall be required of any passenger stage corporation as to the fixed termini between which, or the route over which, it is actually operating in good faith at the time this act becomes effective in compliance with the provisions of an act known as Chapter 213, Statutes of 1917, of the State of California, approved May 10, 1917, and amendments thereto, nor shall any such certificate be required of any person or corporation who on January 1, 1927, was operating, or during the calendar year 1926 had operated a seasonal service of not less than three consecutive months' duration, sight-seeing buses on a continuous sight-seeing trip with one terminus only. Any right, privilege, franchise or permit held, owned, or obtained by any passenger stage corporation may be sold, assigned, leased, mortgaged, transferred, inherited, or otherwise encumbered as other property, only upon authorization by the Railroad Commission. Every applicant for a certificate shall file in the office of the commission an application therefor in such form as shall be required by the commission, and the Railroad Commission shall have power, with or without hearing, to issue said certificate as prayed for, or to refuse to issue the same, or to issue it for the partial exercise only of said privilege sought, and may attach to the exercise of the rights granted by said certificate such terms and conditions as, in its judgment, the public convenience and necessity may require; provided, that the Railroad Commission shall have power, after hearing, to issue said certificate when an applicant requests a certificate to operate in a territory already served by a certificate holder under this act only when the existing passenger stage corporation or corporations serving such territory will not provide the same to the satisfaction of the Railroad Commission. The Railroad Commission, in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred upon it by the Constitution of this State and by this act, shall have power and authority to grant certificates of public convenience and necessity and make decisions and orders and to prescribe rules and regulations affecting passenger stage corporations, notwithstanding the provisions of any ordinance or permit of any incorporated city or town, city and county, or county and in case of conflict between any such order, rule or regulation, and any such ordinance or permit, the certificate, decision, order, rule or regulation of the Railroad Commission shall in each instance prevail.

Order to cease and desist

When a complaint has been filed with the commission alleging that any passenger stage is being operated without a certificate of public convenience and necessity, contrary to or in violation of the provisions of this act, the commission shall have the power, with or without notice, to make its order requiring the corporation, or person, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, operating or managing such passenger stage, to cease and desist from such operation, until the commission makes and files its decision on said complaint, or until further order of the commission.

Operation between fixed termini

Whether or not any stage, auto stage, or other motor vehicle is being, or is proposed to be operated as a passenger stage corporation "between fixed termini or over a regular route" within the meaning of this act shall be a question of fact, and the finding of the Railroad Commission thereon shall be final and shall not be subject to review. Any act of transporting or attempting to transport any person or persons by stage, auto stage, or other motor vehicle upon a public highway of this State between two or more points not both within the limits of a single incorporated city, town or city and county, where the rate, charge or fare for such transportation is computed, collected or demanded on an individual fare basis, shall be presumed to be an act of operating as a passenger stage corporation within the meaning of this act.

Fee

Each application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity made under the provisions of this section must be accompanied by a fee of fifty dollars ($50), unless the applicant is already operating in the immediate vicinity under the jurisdiction of the commission.

CHAPTER 216

An act to amend Section 675 of the Political Code, relating to the powers of the Director of Finance.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1937, p 1390

SECTION 1. Section 675 of the Political Code is amended to read:

General powers of director

675. The Director of Finance shall have power:

1. To let, with the consent of the State department, board, commission, or officer concerned, for a period of not to exceed five years, any property, real or personal, which belongs to the State, except where such letting is expressly prohibited by law, if in the judgment of the director such letting will be for the best interests of the State.

2. To hire or lease, upon the written request of the State department, board, commission, or officer concerned, any property, real or personal, if in the judgment of the director such hiring or leasing will be for the best interests of the State.

3. To authorize, with the consent of the State department, board, commission, or officer concerned, the sale or exchange of any personal property which belongs to the State if in the judgment of the director such sale or exchange will be for the best interests of the State.

4. To acquire title to real property in the name of the State of California whenever the acquisition of such property is authorized or contemplated by law, if no other agency of the State is specifically directed and empowered to acquire such title.

5. To execute grants to real property belonging to the State of California in the name of, and upon behalf of, the State of California, whenever the sale or exchange of such real property is authorized or contemplated by law, if no other agency of the State is specifically directed and empowered to execute such grants; to execute grants to any real property belonging to the State of California in the name of, and upon the behalf of, the State of California with the consent of the State agency, if any, concerned, to the United States of America, in exchange for lands of the latter, or for such other considerations, as may appear to the Director of Finance to be to the best interests of the State; any real property acquired by the State of California by exchange pursuant to the provisions of this subsection shall be subject to the laws governing real property of the class to which such acquired real property belongs.

6. To render such advisory, investigational or other similar service to any city, county, city and county, district or any other political subdivision of the State or to the Federal Government, as may be deemed expedient by the director, said service to be rendered only upon such terms and conditions as may be satisfactory to the Director of Finance.

7. To institute, in the name of the State of California, condemnation proceedings for the acquiring of any land authorized by law to be obtained for any State department, board, commission or institution, except land to be acquired by the Department of Public Works for highway uses and purposes, and to proceed if necessary to condemn under the terms of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to such proceedings, if no other agency of the State is specifically directed and empowered to institute such proceedings.

8. To grant and convey in the name of the State of California, with the approval of the department concerned, easements and rights of way over and across real property belonging to the State except real property used for highway rights of way, for such purposes and upon such consideration and subject to such conditions, limitations, restrictions and reservations as in his judgment may be to the interest of the State.

9. To grant and convey by deed or otherwise to abutting property owners all right, title and interest of the State of California, in and to abandoned river channels.

10. To withdraw from sale any and all of the public lands belonging to the State of California by executive order, with the approval of the Governor, and by like procedure, to return any or all of any such lands so withdrawn for the purpose of sale or other disposition in accordance with law.

11. To establish, with the consent of the State agency concerned, boundaries between the property of the State of California held in proprietary capacity and real property in private ownership, and to execute in behalf of and in the name of the State of California, and to accept upon behalf thereof, instruments necessary to the establishment of any such boundary.

12. To authorize the transfer or loan between State department, boards, commissions, or officers of personal property owned by the State if in the judgment of the director such transfer or loan, and the terms and conditions thereof, will be for the best interests of the State.

CHAPTER 217

Stats 1939, p 2520, repealed

An act to provide for the final liquidation of the State Land Settlement, for the disposition by the State of all real and personal property and funds owned or held by the State in connection therewith, and to repeal the Land Settlement Act, an act entitled "An act authorizing the Department of Finance to manage, administer, or dispose of certain real and personal property owned by the State of California at Delhi State Lands Settlement, and acquired through trade of property at Delhi State Lands Settlement," approved July 22, 1939, and Sections 361e, 361f, 361g, 361h, 361i, 690a, 690b, 690c and 690d of the Political Code.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Purpose

SECTION 1. This act is intended to provide for the final and complete liquidation of the State Land Settlement, originally established under Chapter 755 of the Statutes of 1917, and for the sale or other disposition of all remaining real or personal property owned by the State, directly or indirectly, in connection therewith.

Merced property

SEC. 2. Complete jurisdiction and control of all of the land owned by the State in the Delhi Colony in Merced County, consisting of approximately 58.50 acres, are hereby transferred to the State Department of Finance. The department may sell all or any part thereof, reserving to the State the minerals including oil and gas in such lands, and reserving to the State or persons authorized to do so by the State the right to prospect for, extract and remove, said minerals, oil and gas therefrom, for cash at a price fixed by the Director of Finance. The department may lease all or any part of the land for such rental and upon such terms and conditions as are provided for other State lands of similar character. All money received by the Department of Finance under this section shall be deposited in the General Fund in the State treasury.

State Fair Grounds property

SEC. 3. Jurisdiction and control of the real property in the City of Sacramento, described as lots 62, 63, 64 and 65 on Fifth Avenue and Fifty-seventh Street, and now merged with the land comprising the State Fair Grounds, are hereby transferred to the State Agricultural Society, for use for State Fair purposes.

Other property in Sacramento

SEC. 4. Jurisdiction and control of the remaining real property in the City of Sacramento, consisting of property known as the State Garage on L Street, and lots designated 83, 84 and H on Fifth Street, are hereby vested in the Department of Finance for use for State purposes. The department may sell all or part thereof upon such terms and conditions as the Director of Finance deems for the best interests of the State.

Personal property

SEC. 5. All personal property shall be held by the Department of Finance for use by it, for transfer to other State agencies which receive their support from the General Fund for use by such agencies, or said property may be sold.

Disposition of money

SEC. 6. The State Lands Settlement Fund in the State treasury is abolished and the unencumbered balance of the money therein, together with any money held by any State agency for the account or use of the State Land Settlement, shall be deposited in the General Fund.

Stats 1917, p 1566

SEC. 7. (a) The Land Settlement Act (Chapter 755 of the Statutes of 1917) is hereby repealed.

Stats 1939, p 2520

(b) An act entitled "An act authorizing the Department of Finance to manage, administer, or dispose of certain real and personal property owned by the State of California at Delhi State Lands Settlement, and acquired through trade of property at Delhi State Lands Settlement," approved July 22, 1939, is hereby repealed.

Repeals

(c) Sections 361e, 361f, 361g, 361h, 361i, 690a, 690b, 690c and 690d of the Political Code are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 219

An act to amend Section 669 of the Penal Code, relating to terms of imprisonment.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1941, p 2262

SECTION 1. Section 669 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Terms of imprisonment upon conviction for two or more crimes

669. When any person is convicted of two or more crimes, whether in the same proceeding or court or in different proceedings or courts, and whether by judgment rendered by the same judge or by different judges, the second or other subsequent judgment shall direct whether the terms of imprisonment or any of them to which he is sentenced shall run concurrently, or whether the imprisonment to which he is or has been sentenced upon the second or other subsequent conviction shall commence at the termination of the first term of imprisonment to which he has been sentenced, or at the termination of the second or subsequent term of imprisonment to which he has been sentenced, as the case may be; provided, however, if the punishment for any of said crimes is expressly prescribed to be life imprisonment, whether with or without possibility of parole, then the terms of imprisonment on the other convictions, whether prior or subsequent, shall be merged and run concurrently with such life term. In the event that the court at the time of pronouncing the second or other judgment upon such person had no knowledge of a prior existing judgment or judgments, or having knowledge, fails to determine how the terms of imprisonment shall run in relation to each other, then, upon such failure so to determine, or upon such prior judgment or judgments being brought to the attention of the court at any time prior to the expiration of 60 days from and after the actual commencement of imprisonment upon the second or other subsequent judgments, the court shall, in the absence of the defendant and within 60 days of such notice, determine how the term of imprisonment upon said second or other subsequent judgment shall run with reference to the prior incompleted term or terms of imprisonment. Upon the failure of the court so to determine how the terms of imprisonment on the second or subsequent judgment shall run, the term of imprisonment on the second or subsequent judgment shall run concurrently.

The State Board of Prison Directors shall advise the court pronouncing the second or other subsequent judgment of the existence of all prior judgments against the defendant, the terms of imprisonment upon which have not been completely served.

CHAPTER 220

An act to amend Section 70 of and to add Sections 70.1 and 70.2 to the Streets and Highways Code, relating to the California Highway Commission and providing for the organization thereof. Stats 1935, p 248, amended

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 70 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read: Stats 1935, p 248

70. There is in the department the California Highway Commission, consisting of seven members. The Director of Public Works shall be an ex officio member and chairman of California Highway Commission the commission. The Governor shall nominate and, with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint the other six members of the commission. Except as provided in Section 70.1, the members shall hold office for terms of four years and until their successors are appointed and qualify. The members shall receive their actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties and a per diem of fifteen dollars ($15) per day while in attendance at the meetings of the commission. Each member of the commission shall take the oath of office prescribed for other State officers.

New section

SEC. 2. Section 70.1 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

Appointments

70.1. The Governor shall make the first appointments hereunder for terms expiring, respectively, on the fifteenth day of January, one in each of the years 1944 and 1946 and two in each of the years 1945 and 1947, and shall appoint a successor to any term expiring before the next session of the Legislature convenes. Whenever a term expires or a vacancy occurs when the Legislature is not in session, the Governor shall appoint a successor to fill the vacancy. The Senate shall consider without further presentation any appointment made when the Legislature is not in session. If the Senate consents to any appointment, such person shall hold office to the end of the term to which appointed. If the Senate takes no final action on any appointment at the next regular session of the Legislature following such appointment, the person so appointed shall hold office only until the adjournment of such session. If the Senate by final vote refuses to consent, the person so appointed shall hold only until such refusal.

New section

SEC. 3. Section 70.2 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

Representation

70.2. Each member of the California Highway Commission shall represent the State at large and not any particular district or section. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Legislature to provide for advance planning and continuity of fiscal policy in the construction and improvement of the State Highway System and in the administration of the expenditures from the State Highway Fund. The commission is directed to follow such policy in so far as possible.

Policy

Incumbents

SEC. 4. The members of the California Highway Commission appointed prior to the effective date of this act shall continue to hold office until replaced by appointments made hereunder. The Governor shall designate the member heretofore appointed to be replaced by each appointment made hereunder, except that the Director of Public Works, as ex officio member of the commission, shall on the effective date hereof, replace the member heretofore appointed and designated as chairman of the commission.

Powers

SEC. 5. The California Highway Commission as organized under the provisions of this act shall have all the powers, duties, jurisdiction and responsibilities now or hereafter vested in or imposed upon the California Highway Commission under the provisions of the Streets and Highways Code or any other law of this State.

CHAPTER 222

An act to abolish the Waste Utilization Commission and to provide for the transfer of its property, powers, and duties to the Department of Agriculture, and to repeal certain acts specified herein.

[Approved by Governor April 24, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 24, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Waste Utilization Commission is abolished. The Department of Agriculture shall succeed to and have possession of all records, books, papers, equipment, supplies, moneys, funds, appropriations, and all other property, both real and personal, now or hereafter belonging to, held by, or for the benefit of the Waste Utilization Commission, and all such property is transferred to the Department of Agriculture.

An act to amend the title and Sections 1 and 2 of an act entitled "An act authorizing the investment and reinvestment and dispositions of any surplus moneys in the treasury of any county, city and county, incorporated city or town, municipal utility district, irrigation district, or flood control district," approved April 23, 1913, as amended, and to repeal an act entitled "An act authorizing the investment and reinvestment, and disposition, of any moneys in any sinking fund of any county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, and repealing an act entitled 'An act authorizing the investment and reinvestment and disposition of any moneys in any sinking fund of any county, city and county, or incorporated city or town,' approved March 3, 1909," approved April 3, 1911, relating to the investment of moneys in the sinking funds of or surplus moneys in the treasury of any county, city and county, incorporated city, or any department of any incorporated city having control of its own funds, or other public or municipal corporation or public district, and declaring the urgency hereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1941, p 430 See also Stats 1943, Ch 571

SECTION 1. The title of an act entitled "An act authorizing the investment and reinvestment and dispositions of any surplus moneys in the treasury of any county, city and county, incorporated city or town, municipal utility district, irrigation district, or flood control district," approved April 23, 1913, is amended to read:

Title

An act authorizing the investment and reinvestment and dispositions of any moneys in any sinking fund of or any surplus moneys in the treasury of any county, city and county, incorporated city or any department of any incorporated city having control of its own funds, or other public or municipal corporation or public district.

Stats 1941, p 430 See also Stats 1943, Ch 571

SEC. 2. Section 1 of said act is amended to read:

Investment of surplus funds

Section 1. Any county, city and county, incorporated city or any department of any incorporated city having control of its own funds, or other public or municipal corporation or public district, which now has, or hereafter shall have, any moneys in any sinking fund of or any surplus money in the treasury thereof, not required for the immediate necessities of the said county, city and county, incorporated city, department, or other public or municipal corporation or public district, is hereby authorized to invest such portion of any such moneys as the governing body of the said county, city and county, incorporated city, department, or other public or municipal corporation or public district, may deem wise or expedient in (1) any bonds already issued or hereafter issued by such county, city and county, incorporated city, department, or other public or municipal corporation or public district, respectively, and (2) treasury notes or bonds of the United States or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest, or of this State, or of any county, city and county, city, department, or other public or municipal corporation or public district respectively within this State, or registered warrants of this State; provided, said notes, bonds or registered warrants are legal investment for savings banks in the State of California. Any such investment may be made by direct purchase of any issue of notes, bonds or registered warrants, or part thereof, at the original sale of such notes, bonds or registered warrants, or by the purchase of such notes, bonds or registered warrants after they have been thus issued. Any notes, bonds or registered warrants thus purchased and held may, from time to time, be sold and the proceeds reinvested in notes, bonds or registered warrants as above provided. Sales of any notes, bonds or registered warrants thus purchased and held shall, from time to time, be made in season so that the proceeds may be applied to the purposes for which the money with which the notes, bonds or registered warrants were originally purchased, was placed in the sinking fund or the treasury of the county, city and county, incorporated city, department, or public or municipal corporation or public district.

Sale and reinvestment

Any bonds so purchased, which were issued by the purchaser, may be canceled, either in satisfaction of sinking fund obligations, or otherwise, and when canceled shall no longer be deemed to be outstanding, or in the discretion of the governing body any bonds so purchased may be held uncanceled so long as may be determined upon, and while so held uncanceled may be resold. Any interest and the proceeds of any such resale, shall be deposited in the fund out of which the bonds were purchased.

Cancellation and resale

SEC. 3. Section 2 of said act is amended to read:

Stats 1941, p 430. See also Stats 1943, Ch 571

Sec. 2. The functions and duties authorized by this act shall be performed by the legislative or governing body of the county, city and county, incorporated city or department thereof, or public or municipal corporation or public district, or under its authority. In the case of any department of any incorporated city having control of its own funds, the board having control of such department and of the expenditure of such funds shall be deemed to be the governing body thereof within the meaning of this act.

Authority vested in governing body

SEC. 4. An act entitled, "An act authorizing the investment and reinvestment and disposition, of any moneys in any sinking fund of any county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, and repealing an act entitled 'An act authorizing the investment and reinvestment and disposition of any moneys in any sinking fund of any county, city and county, or incorporated city or town,' approved March 3, 1909,'' approved April 3, 1911, is repealed.

Stats 1911, p 582

Urgency

SEC. 5. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and as such shall take effect immediately.

The facts constituting such necessity are as follows:

Many public agencies now have money in sinking funds or surplus funds in their treasuries upon which they are receiving no or slight return, the loss of which income adds in direct proportion to the assessment rates therein, which causes additional delinquent assessments, endangering the public peace, health and safety.

CHAPTER 228

An act to amend Section 328b of the Civil Code, relating to the transfer by trustees.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1933, p 1358

SECTION 1. Section 328b of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Presumption, etc., as to fiduciary's authority

328b. Whenever certificates for shares or other securities issued by a domestic or foreign corporation are to be or have been issued or transferred to a person or corporation as trustee or in any other fiduciary capacity, or to the nominee of such person or corporation, on the books or records of the corporation, whether or not such certificates or other securities or the instrument of transfer describe the trust or other document or appointment under which the fiduciary is acting or identify any heir, legatee, ward or beneficiary, it shall be presumed in favor of such corporation and its transfer agent that such fiduciary or the nominee of such fiduciary has the power to accept and transfer title to such certificates or other securities and there shall be no duty upon the corporation or its registrar or transfer agent to inquire into or determine the existence or validity of any trust or other document or appointment under which the fiduciary is acting or the terms thereof, or whether the fiduciary is committing a breach of obligation or exceeding his authority. The corporation, its registrar or transfer agent, shall be liable for recording or causing to be recorded a transfer of such certificates or other securities only if this is done with actual knowledge of a breach of trust or of the invalidity of the trust or other document or appointment under which the fiduciary is acting, or if it has been enjoined therefrom by a court of competent jurisdiction.

CHAPTER 229

An act to provide for precautions against enemy attack, including blackout and dimout regulations, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

CHAPTER 1. ZONES OF RESTRICTED LIGHTING

SECTION 1. The present situation requires as a matter of military necessity that a Zone of Restricted Lighting be established within the areas described herein, and that illumination Necessity of act

PROCLAMATIONS UNDER CHAPTER 229, STATUTES OF 1943

Prior to the publication of this volume, four proclamations under Chapter 229 have been issued by the Governor. The text of these proclamations is printed as an addendum following page 3968 of this volume.

Lassen National Forest projected north along the Mount Diablo Meridian to the southerly boundary of Shasta County, Tulare—all that portion situated westerly of Sierra National Forest, Sequoia National Park and Sequoia National Forest, Tuolumne—all that portion situated westerly of Stanislaus National Forest.

Illumination prescribed

SEC. 2. Illumination within the entire area of said Zone of Restricted Lighting described in Section 1 shall be extinguished or controlled at all times at night from sunset to sunrise, as follows:

Signs, etc

(a) Signs, Floodlighting, Display and Interior Lighting. Illuminated signs and ornamental lighting of every description which are located out-of-doors, and floodlighting which illuminates buildings or signs (including but not limited to all exterior advertising signs, billboards, display lighting, theater marquee signs, illuminated poster panels and building outline lighting), and all interior light sources (as hereinafter defined) which emit direct rays above the horizontal out-of-doors, shall be extinguished. The words, "light sources," as used herein are intended and shall be construed to mean and include any light generating elements and the bright portion of any reflector, lens, luminaire, transparency, or other equipment associated therewith for the control or diffusion of light. This Section 2 (a) shall not apply to illumination for industrial or protective purposes except to the extent provided for in Section 2 (b) hereof.

Outdoor areas

(b) Illumination of Outdoor Areas; Street and Highway Lights. Illumination of outdoor areas and industrial and protective illumination, shall be controlled as follows:

(1) Except as provided in Section 2 (b) (2) hereof, illumination on all outdoor areas (including but not limited to automobile service station yards, outdoor parking areas, recreation areas and outdoor structures and roofs) shall not exceed one foot candle at any point when measured on a horizontal plane at any level of such outdoor areas, and all outdoor light sources shall be shielded so that no direct rays from the light source are emitted above the horizontal. All interior lighting of every description shall be reduced or controlled so that it does not contribute more than one foot candle of illumination upon any outdoor area. All street and highway lights shall also be shielded so that each light source emits no more than 10 per cent of its total lamp lumens at angles above the horizontal. Provided the foregoing requirements are met, any further reduction or extinguishment of street or highway illumination which would unnecessarily aggravate traffic hazards is not required.

Industrial and protective lighting

(2) Variations from the foregoing requirements shall be permitted in the case of illumination for industrial and protective purposes, and from industrial processes, whether interior or exterior, but not including street or highway lights, only when and to the extent that it is necessary to vary from such requirements in order to achieve and maintain maximum efficiency; but only with the written approval of the Commanding General of the Western Defense Command or an agency designated by such commander to approve such variations, obtained in advance.

Traffic signs

(c) Traffic Signs and Signals. Illuminated signs and signals which are authorized or maintained by governmental authority for the purpose of controlling or directing street or highway traffic shall be shielded so that no direct rays from the light source are emitted above the horizontal in respect to lights mounted 10 feet or more above the ground, or above an angle of more than six degrees above the horizontal in respect to lights mounted less than 10 but more than three feet above the ground, or above an angle of more than 12 degrees above the horizontal in respect to lights mounted less than three feet above the ground. Relative variations in the upward limit of light are permissible to compensate for grades.

Navigation and railroad lights

(d) Navigation and Railroad Lights. Authorized lights necessary to facilitate air or water navigation, authorized railroad signal lights, and headlights of railroad locomotives when in motion, are hereby excepted from all the provisions of this chapter.

"Visible from the sea"

SEC. 3. Definition of "Visible From the Sea." The phrase "visible from the sea," as used herein, is intended and shall be construed to mean and include the following:

Visible at any time from the waters of the Pacific Ocean, or visible from any of those bodies of water located on the shoreline of the State of California generally known and described as follows: Santa Monica Bay, Santa Barbara Channel, San Luis Obispo Bay, Estero Bay, and Monterey Bay; provided, however, that the waters of San Francisco Bay, lying easterly of a line extending from Point Bonita through Mile Rock, is not intended and shall not be construed to be a part of the sea; and solely for the purposes of Section 3 (c) hereof, concerning street and highway traffic, the phrase "areas visible from the sea" is also intended and shall be construed to mean and include that portion of streets or highways which may not in fact be visible from the sea but which is within areas generally visible from the sea.

Areas visible from sea

In addition to the restrictions hereinbefore imposed, illumination within that part of the Zone of Restricted Lighting which is visible from the sea, as herein defined, shall be further diminished or obscured at all times at night from sunset to sunrise, as follows:

Street and traffic lights

(a) Street, Highway and Traffic Lights. Street and highway lights, and illuminated signs (but not signals) which are authorized or maintained by governmental authority for the purpose of controlling or directing street or highway traffic and which are visible from the sea, shall be so shielded that they are not visible from the sea at night and so that no direct rays from the light source are emitted above the horizontal.

Windows

(b) Residential, Commercial and Industrial Windows. No lighting shall be permitted behind windows or glazed doors visible from the sea unless they are covered by drapes or shades.

Automobiles

(c) Street and Highway Traffic. Within areas visible from the sea, but subject to the exceptions hereinafter stated, vehicles shall operate at night, regardless of the direction of travel, with two lighted driving lamps, but not more than two, and each such lamp shall provide a maximum of not more than 250 beam candlepower. Normal rear lights, license plate lights and clearance lights (where required by law) are permitted. Vehicles which are classified as authorized emergency vehicles under the laws of this State or under Federal laws or regulations, when displaying an illuminated red spotlight, and when responding to a fire alarm, or when in the immediate pursuit of an actual or suspected violator of the law, or when going to or transporting a person who is in apparent need of immediate emergency medical or surgical care, or when responding to some other emergency involving the protection of life or property, shall be excepted from the foregoing provision.

Industrial and protective lighting

(d) Industrial and Protective Illumination. Light sources for industrial purposes and light from industrial processes within areas visible from the sea, shall comply with the requirements of Section 2 (b) hereof, and shall also be shielded so that they are not visible from the sea at night; provided, that variations from these requirements may be permitted in case of illumination for industrial and protective purposes, and from industrial processes, whether interior or exterior (but not including street or highway lights), only when and to the extent that it is necessary to vary from such requirements in order to achieve and maintain maximum efficiency; but only with the written approval of the Commanding General of the Western Defense Command or of any other military agency designated by the Secretary of War, or an agency designated by such commander to approve such variations, obtained in advance.

Other illumination

(e) Other Illumination. Except as hereinabove provided in this Section 3, all other lights visible from the sea are prohibited at night, including but not limited to light from fires, bonfires, parked cars, flashlights and lanterns.

Additional restrictions

SEC. 4. Whenever the California State War Council, after such study, investigation or hearing as it may make, direct or conduct, shall find and determine that additional or different provisions restricting lighting are required in the areas described in Section 1 hereof, or that restrictions on such lighting are required in other areas in order to prevent aiding the operations of the enemy, the said State War Council shall address its findings to the Governor, and if the Governor concurs therein, he shall proclaim such additional or different restrictions and regulations governing illumination which shall thereupon become effective and shall have the same effect as laws of this State and shall supersede to the extent of any conflict the provisions of this chapter (including persons or subjects herein excluded from the operation of this chapter) and any other provisions of law governing illumination. The violation of any such regulations shall constitute a misdemeanor and be punishable as a violation of this chapter. In making such investigations and determinations, the State War Council is hereby directed to consider the findings and recommendations of the Commanding General of the Western Defense Command or such other military agency as may be designated by the Secretary of War, and in no event shall the Governor proclaim more restrictive regulations than those specified by said Commanding General, it being the intention that insofar as possible the regulations so adopted shall be uniform with the orders or recommendations of the said Commanding General.

Findings of military authorities

Chapter 2. Air Raid Precautions

Sec. 5. "Air raid signal" shall mean a public notice or signal requiring compliance with the provisions of this chapter covering precautions against possible or assumed enemy attack within a specified area. The form of said public notice or signal shall be an audible signal of approximately two minutes duration, made by siren, whistle, horn or other audible device, consisting of a fluctuating or warbling sound of varying pitch, or a succession of intermittent blasts of approximately five seconds duration separated by a succession of silent periods of approximately three seconds duration. "All clear signal" shall mean a public notice or signal indicating termination of the requirement of compliance with the provisions of this chapter. The form of said notice or signal shall be a continuous audible signal of approximately two minutes duration at a steady pitch, made by a siren, whistle, horn or other audible device. The form of air raid or all clear signals may be varied to meet local conditions when a permit to vary the form of such signals has been granted by the State Director of Civilian Protection.

"Air raid signal"

"All clear signal"

"Period of Air Raid Alarm" shall mean the interval of time between the giving of the air raid signal and the giving of the next succeeding all clear signal.

"Period of Air Raid Alarm"

"Period of Blackout" shall mean a period of air raid alarm occurring at night between sunset and sunrise.

"Period of Blackout"

"Area of Air Raid Alarm" shall mean the district or area in respect to which an air raid signal is given, as such district may have been defined by the State War Council and the Commanding General, Western Defense Command, or such other military agency as may be designated by the Secretary of War.

"Area of Air Raid Alarm"

Sec. 6. None of the signals described in Section 5 hereof shall be given except by or under the authority of the IV Fighter Command, or such other military agency as may be designated by the Secretary of War.

Giving signals

Sec. 7. Immediately upon the commencement of a blackout period, every person in control of lighting within an area of air raid alarm shall extinguish or obscure all lighting which

Extinguishment of lighting is visible from out-of-doors and shall keep such lighting extinguished or obscured until such blackout period is ended.

Unattended lighting

SEC. 8. No person in control of lighting shall permit any such lighting visible from out-of-doors to be left unattended at night from sunset to sunrise. Lighting shall be unattended within the meaning hereof unless it is left under the control of a competent person who has undertaken responsibility for such lighting or unless the lighting is controlled by a mechanical device competent to control such lighting. Persons in control of lighting shall be responsible for the timely and proper functioning of any such mechanical device relied upon for the control of lighting.

Operator of vehicle

SEC. 9. At the commencement of a period of air raid alarm (occurring during either day or night), the operator of any vehicle shall forthwith bring such vehicle as far as possible to the side of the street, road or highway off the main traveled portion thereof, and the operator of such vehicle, and the operator of any street car, shall bring such vehicle or street car to a stop clear of any crossing, intersection, fire house, fire plug, hospital or other emergency depot or area, and during a period of blackout shall extinguish all lights therein or thereon, and said vehicle or street car shall remain so situated during the period of air raid alarm, unless directed or ordered to move by any highway patrolman, peace officer, auxiliary policeman, air raid warden or other authorized person.

Taking shelter

SEC. 10. All persons within an area of air raid alarm in an unsheltered place shall immediately go to the nearest shelter and remain therein until the period of air raid alarm is ended except:

(a) Uniformed members of the armed forces of the United States or of the State Guard, and regular firemen, peace officers or highway patrolmen, all when acting under official orders.

(b) Persons lawfully wearing any arm band with insignia prescribed by the Director of the United States Office of Civilian Defense, and persons lawfully wearing arm bands authorized for the Aircraft Warning Service, only when and to the extent that such persons are required to move or remain away from shelter in the performance of their emergency duties.

Law not applicable to

SEC. 11. The provisions of this chapter shall not include the following:

"Authorized emergency vehicles"

(a) "Authorized emergency vehicles" when responding to a fire alarm or when going to or transporting a person who is in apparent need of immediate emergency medical care, or when in immediate pursuit of an actual or suspected violator of the law, or when transporting essential personnel to posts of duty in compliance with specific orders, or when responding to some other emergency involving the immediate protection of life or property or when returning to a dispatching station;

"Auxiliary emergency vehicles"

(b) "Auxiliary emergency vehicles" in respect to which a valid written vehicle permit has been issued by, and which is displaying insignia or other identifying devices or articles authorized by, the State Director of Civilian Protection in accordance with rules established by the State War Council. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3 (c) of this act auxiliary emergency vehicles shall be permitted to travel, as provided in this paragraph, in areas visible from the sea during periods of blackout when operated under the conditions prescribed by this paragraph.

Vehicles of armed forces

(c) Vehicles under the control of the armed forces of the United States, the operators of which are acting under official orders.

Illumination for railroad operation, etc

(d) Illumination in connection with railroad operations (except passenger and freight stations, offices and warehouses), aeronautical operations, and illumination in connection with water navigation and in and about ports under the jurisdiction of the United States Navy, and all lights operated by military or naval authority.

Exempt lighting

SEC. 12. The blackout provisions of this chapter shall not include the following:

(a) Incandescent electric lamps lawfully marked "Indoor Blackout—War Department Standard," and complying with the specifications therefor expressed in "War Department Specifications—Blackout of Buildings," may be left burning in commercial and industrial building interiors without the complete obscuration of doors and windows, only if such lamps are installed in accordance with the following specifications:

(1) In any one room, only one lamp shall be permitted for each two hundred (200) square feet of floor area or fraction thereof.

(2) Lamps shall be spaced not less than 10 feet apart in every direction.

(3) In hallways and corridors only one row of lamps shall be permitted, spaced not less than fifteen (15) feet apart, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (2) hereof.

(4) Lamps shall be placed at least three (3) feet from any window or other exterior opening in the building which is not completely obscured, and lamps shall not be pointed toward any such window or other exterior opening.

(5) All lamps shall be located or shielded so that they are not directly visible from out-of-doors when viewed from a point above the level of the bottom of the lamp.

(b) Red exit lights shall be permitted within buildings which are open to the public; provided, that all such lights are located or shielded so that no direct rays from such lights are emitted out-of-doors and provided that such lights shall be restricted to not more than one lamp of not more than fifteen (15) watts at each exit or at each turning point in the route to an exit.

(c) Flashlights may be used during periods of blackout in areas of air raid alarm; provided, that such flashlights shall not be pointed above the horizontal and provided that the lens, cover glass or lamp of such flashlights shall be completely screened with material which is the equivalent, in density and light reduction properties, of three thicknesses of ordinary newspaper in the case of flashlights operated by two (2) dry cell batteries plus one additional thickness of such paper for each additional dry cell battery used in the operation of such flashlight.

(d) Lanterns may be left unattended and may be left burning during blackout periods in areas of air raid alarm for the purpose of marking excavations or obstructions in areas open to the public if such lanterns are equipped with red globes and if they are shielded so that no direct rays from the light source are emitted upward beyond twelve degrees (12°) above the base of the lantern flame, and if such lanterns are spaced at least ten (10) feet apart.

(e) Light emitted from industrial processes, such as furnaces, foundries and kilns, where the extinguishment of the light would involve serious difficulties in resuming operations after the blackout, shall be permitted during blackout periods in areas of air raid alarm; provided, that the light is shielded, obscured, reduced in intensity and otherwise controlled to as great an extent as may be practicable to reduce to a minimum the amount of light visible out-of-doors; and provided, that such light is specifically permitted in writing in advance by the Commanding General, Western Defense Command, or any other military agency designated by the Secretary of War, or an agency designated by such commanding general to approve such variations. Steam or smoke shall be reduced to the lowest practicable minimum except where such steam or smoke is used for protective concealment in accordance with plans approved by military authorities.

Unauthorized signals

SEC. 13. All persons are forbidden to order, alter, publish, sound or simulate in any manner, any air raid or all clear signal unless authorized to do so as provided in this chapter.

Unauthorized arm bands, etc.

SEC. 14. All persons are forbidden to wear, exhibit or use any arm band, pennant, permit, identification card or other identifying article or device unless lawfully authorized to do so.

Additional regulations

SEC. 15. Whenever the State War Council after such study, investigation or hearing as it may make, direct or conduct, shall find and determine that additional or different air raid precaution regulations are required in order to protect life or property, the State War Council shall address its findings to the Governor and if the Governor and the Commanding General of the Western Defense Command or such other military agency as may be designated by the Secretary of War concurs therein, the Governor shall proclaim such additional or different air raid precaution regulations which shall thereupon become effective and shall have the same effect as laws of this State. Such regulations shall supersede to the extent of any conflict the provisions of this chapter (including persons or subjects herein excluded from the operation of this chapter) and also any other provision of law which interferes with the purposes of this chapter. The violation of any such regulations shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall be punishable as a violation of this chapter.

Violation

CHAPTER 3. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Public nuisance

SEC. 16. Any lighting remaining visible out-of-doors contrary to the provisions of this act constitutes a public nuisance, and the same shall be summarily abated by any peace officer or highway patrolman. Such nuisance may be abated by authorized civilian defense personnel if forcible entry or destruction of property is not required. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section any city, county, or city and county may provide by ordinance or resolution for the summary abatement of such nuisance by an auxiliary policeman or air raid warden.

Proclamation by Governor

SEC. 17. Any proclamation issued by the Governor pursuant to the provisions of this act shall be in writing and shall take effect immediately upon issuance thereof. As soon thereafter as possible such proclamation shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State. The Governor shall cause widespread publicity and notice to be given such proclamation. Within 10 days after the convening of the next session of the Legislature the Governor shall make a report thereto of the provisions of any such proclamation.

Penalties

SEC. 18. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this act or who refuses or wilfully neglects to obey any lawful rule, regulation or order promulgated or issued as provided in this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment for not to exceed six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Duration

SEC. 19. This act shall remain in effect only until the cessation of hostilities in the present war in which the United States is engaged, as declared by the President or the Congress of the United States, or until such time as the Governor after recommendation made by the Western Defense Command or such other military agency as may be designated by the Secretary of War proclaims the provisions of this act are no longer necessary as a matter of military necessity, or to preserve life and property.

Immediate effect

SEC. 20. If any section, subsection, subdivision, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be not in immediate effect, it is the express legislative intent that such decision shall not affect the immediate operation or validity of the remaining portions of this act.

It is the intent of the Legislature that this entire act shall take effect immediately and that if any portion thereof can not, under the Constitution of this State, so take effect, that all of the remaining provisions hereof shall take effect immediately and that such portion or portions, if any, that can not take effect immediately, shall take effect at the time provided by law. Any portion of this act that may for any reason be held to be not in immediate effect is hereby expressly declared to be severable from the remaining portions of this act.

Further, in the event it is determined that the inclusion of a provision in this act that can not take effect immediately would prevent this act from being construed to be an urgency measure, then any such provision in this act shall be held to be inoperative, and the remaining portions of this act shall take effect immediately.

Constitutionality

SEC. 21. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this act, or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Urgency

SEC. 22. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the State Constitution, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety. The statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

The Western Defense Command of the United States Army has found that military necessity requires the restriction of the intensity of lights in certain areas of this State, and has by order prohibited the use of lights of more intensity than that prescribed. While a violation of such order is a crime under Federal law, there is no satisfactory available means by which the Federal Government can enforce such order and it is essential to the war effort that the State be enabled at the earliest possible moment to enforce the provisions of such order. The effect of this bill will be to permit such enforcement by the State.

Uniform air raid precautions are urgently needed to minimize the effect of enemy attack upon life and property and military installations within this State and uniformity is necessary so that all persons going from one area of the State into another may know their duties and conform to the law. It is therefore provided that this act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 233

An act to amend Sections 10490, 10500, 10971, 10972 and 10974 of, and to add Section 10971.4 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

Stats 1935, p 496, amended

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10490 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

Stats 1941, p 2726 See also Stats. 1943, Ch 957

10490. This article is applicable only to life and disability insurance. Except as otherwise expressly permitted by this code, life or disability insurance shall not be transacted in this State by any person other than a corporation. A person shall not transact life or disability insurance in this State except pursuant to a valid and unrevoked certificate of authority issued by the commissioner or under a valid and unrevoked certificate of exemption issued by the commissioner pursuant to this article. Nothing in this article shall apply to any person expressly exempted by or subject to Chapter 10 of this part.

10500. Every person not expressly exempted by or subject to Chapter 10 of this part who transacts life or disability insurance without a valid and unrevoked certificate of authority or without a valid and unrevoked certificate of exemption issued pursuant to this article, is guilty of a misdemeanor. Every employee, officer or agent of any person who knowingly assists any person in the transaction of insurance in violation of this article, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Misdemeanor

SEC. 3. Section 10971 of said code is amended to read:

Stats 1941, p 2726

10971. This chapter shall not, except as provided by Section 10972, affect:

Certain societies exempt

(a) A lodge or association of local lodges or any corporation or association formed by a lodge or fraternal society which confines its membership to the members of such lodge or fraternal society and which provides death benefits not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) on the death of any one person, disability benefits not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) in any one year to any one person, or both such types of benefits.

(b) Contracts of reinsurance on a plan under subdivision (a).

(c) Domestic societies which limit their membership to the employees of a particular city or town, designated firm, business house or corporation.

(d) Domestic lodges, orders or associations of a purely religious or charitable or benevolent description, and which do not provide for a death benefit of more than one hundred dollars ($100), or for disability benefits of more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150) to any one person in any one year.

New section

SEC. 3A. Section 10971.4 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

Characteristics of exempt lodges

10971.4. A lodge, association of lodges, association or corporation within the meaning of Section 10971 shall have all of the following characteristics:

(a) It is organized without capital stock.

(b) It is organized and operated solely for the benefit of its members or their beneficiaries and not for profit.

(c) It has a lodge system and representative form of government within the meaning of Section 10992, holds regular meetings at periodical intervals, and has a ritualistic form of work.

Stats 1935, p 496

SEC. 4. Section 10972 of said code is amended to read:

Compliance with chapter

10972. Any lodge, corporation, association, order, society, or organization otherwise covered by Section 10971, which does not provide for death or disability benefits in its by-laws or rules or regulations, or which issues to any person a policy or certificate providing for the payment of benefits, shall comply with all the requirements of this chapter.

Stats 1935, p 496

SEC. 5. Section 10974 of the Insurance Code is hereby amended to read:

Restriction on exempted societies

10974. A society which is exempted from the requirements of this chapter by subdivisions (b) or (c) of Section 10971 shall not give or allow, nor promise to give or allow, any compensation for procuring new members.

CHAPTER 234

Stats 1933, p 394, amended

An act to amend Section 1340.6 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to bear

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1937, p 683

SECTION 1. Section 1340.6 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

Bear

1340.6. Bear may be taken between October 15th and December 31st, except in District 1¼ in which bear may be taken between August 1st and December 31st. Not more than two bears may be taken during the open season. Bear may be taken only with firearms or with bow and arrow. Nothing in this code shall prohibit the owners of live stock from protecting such live stock from depredations of bear, nor to prohibit Federal, State or county trappers from killing or trapping bear when such bear are killing or molesting live stock.

CHAPTER 235

An act to repeal Section 64.5 of, and to amend Section 1270 of, the Fish and Game Code, relating to deer seasons, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Stats 1933, p 394, amended

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 64.5 of the Fish and Game Code is repealed.

Stats 1939, p. 1724

SEC. 2. Section 1270 of the code is amended to read:

Stats 1941, p 2843

1270. In District 2, excepting that part of District 2 within Mendocino County, and in District 3, deer may be taken between August 1st and September 15th; in that part of District 2 lying within Mendocino County, and in Districts 2¼, 2½ and 2¾ deer may be taken between August 15th and October 1st; in District 3½ and 4⅛ deer may be taken between August 10th and September 9th; elsewhere in the State deer may be taken between September 16th and October 15th.

Deer

SEC. 3. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

Urgency

The effect of this act is to postpone the opening of the deer hunting season in an area on and near the north coast of the State from August until mid-September. This will result in reducing certain fire hazards in that area and will also tend to assure that the meat of deer taken in that area will be better preserved and kept suitable for use for human consumption. In view of the shortage of manpower for forest fire protection and the need for the fullest utilization of wild life as a wholesome food supply during the current year it is necessary that this act go into effect without delay.

CHAPTER 236

An act to amend Sections 1731.5 and 1732 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to commitments to the Youth Correction Authority.

Stats 1937, p 1005, amended

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1731.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

Stats 1941, p. 2522

1731.5. After certification to the Governor as provided in this article and until January 1, 1946, a court shall commit

Prerequisites of commitment to the authority any person convicted of a public offense whom the authority believes can be materially benefited by the procedure herein provided for, and for whose care and maintenance there exists, in the opinion of the authority, proper and adequate facilities, and who

(a) Is found to be less than 23 years of age at the time of apprehension.

(b) Is not sentenced to death, imprisonment for life, imprisonment for not more than 90 days, or the payment of a fine.

Stats 1941, p 2522 Commitment

SEC. 2. Section 1732 of said code is amended to read:

1732. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter the court shall commit to the authority every person convicted of a public offense after January 1, 1946, who

(a) Is found to be less than 23 years of age at the time of apprehension, and

(b) Is not sentenced to death, imprisonment for life, imprisonment for not more than 90 days, or the payment of a fine, and

(c) Is not granted probation.

CHAPTER 237

Stats 1937, p 1005, amended

An act to add Section 1714.5 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, and to amend Sections 1717 and 1718 thereof, relating to the Youth Correction Authority, and providing for the appointment of temporary members thereof.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. Section 1714.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Temporary member

1714.5. Pending appointment by the Governor of a person recommended by the advisory panel to fill any vacancy occurring in the second or third positions on the authority by reason of a cause other than expiration of a term, the Governor may appoint any qualified person as a temporary member of the authority to serve until the vacancy can be filled by the appointment of a person recommended by the panel. In no event, however, shall any such person so appointed serve as such temporary member for a period of more than 90 days from the date of the occurrence of the vacancy, nor shall any such temporary members consecutively appointed serve for an aggregate period of more than 90 days from the date of the occurrence of the vacancy. Any person appointed as a temporary member of the authority shall be a member of the authority for all purposes during the time he so serves, except that the appointment of a temporary member shall not be deemed to fill the vacancy so as to preclude the appointment by the Governor of a person recommended by the panel to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

SEC. 2. Section 1717 of said code is amended to read: Stats 1941, p 2522

1717. All appointments to a vacancy occurring by reason of any cause other than the expiration of a term shall be for the unexpired term. Each member shall hold until the appointment and qualification of his successor. Term

The provisions of this section do not apply to persons appointed as temporary members of the authority. Exception

SEC. 3. Section 1718 of said code is amended to read: Stats 1941, p 2522

1718. All appointments to membership on the authority except appointments as temporary members shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate, as provided in this article. Confirmation

If the first appointments to the authority, or any of the succeeding appointments to fill vacancies, are made while the Senate is not in session, the persons appointed shall immediately undertake the performance of their duties and their names shall be submitted to the Senate for confirmation at the session of the Legislature first occurring thereafter, whether regular or extraordinary. As used in this section, the Senate is in session when it has convened, has not adjourned sine die, and has not recessed for more than three days. Failure of the Senate to confirm or reject the appointments, unless it adopts the resolution provided for in the next succeeding section, is equivalent to confirmation.

CHAPTER 238

An act to add Section 1767.3 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to the Youth Correction Authority, and providing for the return to the custody of the authority of persons committed thereto who are at liberty on parole or otherwise. Stats 1937, p 1005 amended

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1767.3 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read: New section

1767.3. The authority may suspend, cancel, or revoke any parole without notice, and may order returned to the custody of the authority any person committed to it who is upon parole. Suspension or revocation of parole

The written order of the chairman of the authority is a sufficient warrant for any peace officer to return to the custody of the authority any person committed to it who is upon parole, who has been permitted his liberty upon condition, or who has escaped from the custody of the authority or from any institution in which he has been placed by the authority.

All peace officers shall execute any such order in like manner as ordinary criminal process.

CHAPTER 239

Stats 1909, p. 969, amended

An act to add Section 20.7 to the Personal Property Brokers Act as revised by Chapters 952 and 1044 of the Statutes of 1939, relating to licensees in military service.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

An act to add Section 656.5 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to salmon.

Stats 1933, p. 394, amended

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 656.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

New section

656.5. In Districts 6 and 7, salmon may be taken with hook and line, between April 1st and October 15th with no bag limit, and between October 16th and December 31st with a bag limit of two per day. The size limit in either case is as provided in Section 661 of this code.

Salmon limit

This section shall remain in effect until the ninety-first day after final adjournment of the Fifty-sixth Regular Session of the Legislature or until the cessation of hostilities in all wars in which the United States is now engaged, whichever first occurs. While this section is in effect it shall supersede any existing provisions of law which are in conflict with this section; but such provisions are not repealed by this section and after this section is no longer effective shall have the same force as though this section had not been enacted.

An act to amend Section 25.1 of the Agricultural Prorate Act, relating to changes in proration zone boundaries.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1939, p 2485

SECTION 1. Section 25.1 of the Agricultural Prorate Act is amended to read:

Annexation to proration zone

Sec. 25.1. Any other area or areas within the State of California producing the same kind or variety of agricultural commodity as a proration zone already established under this act, and competing with such proration zone, may be added to such already established proration zone in the following manner:

Procedure: Petition

Upon the receipt of a petition for modification of the boundaries of any proration zone, filed by producers owning or operating not less than 10 per cent of the producing factors located either within the boundaries of the zone as constituted, or within the boundaries of the area proposed to be added, requesting that the existing marketing program or a proposed marketing program as amended be made applicable to the entire area included within the recommended modified boundaries of the proration zone, the director shall, on behalf of the commission, hold a public hearing, as provided in Section 9 of this act, and receive testimony and evidence as to whether or not the boundaries of the proration zone as established shall be modified as recommended. The director shall further, at said hearing, receive testimony and evidence with respect to the marketing program which is to be applicable to all of the area within the proposed modified boundaries of the proration zone.

Hearing

Boundaries modified

If after the public hearing the commission finds that a modification of the boundaries of the zone is necessary to the effectuation of the purposes of the act, said commission shall make effective such modified boundaries of said zone, and if the commission further finds after the public hearing that the proposed marketing program for said proration zone as modified will tend to effectuate the declared purposes of the act within the standards prescribed in said act, the commission shall approve said marketing program.

Following the approval of said marketing program by the commission, the director shall submit said marketing program to all growers of record with the department within said zone as modified who are affected by such program, for their assent, as required by Section 16 of this act.

Assent of producers

If the director finds that the number of producers with the number of producing factors in the zone as modified have given their assent as required in Section 16, to said marketing program, he shall declare and fix the effective date of said program. If the director finds that the requisite assent has not been given, he shall make an order dismissing the proceedings, and the program in operation at the time the proceedings were instituted shall continue in operation within the boundaries of the zone as then constituted, with the same force and effect as though no proceedings had been instituted under the provisions of this section. An act to amend Sections 18.1 and 19.1 of the Agricultural Prorate Act, relating to hearings on marketing program modifications and to functions of program committees under marketing programs. Stats. 1933, p 1969, amended

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18.1 of the Agricultural Prorate Act is amended to read: Stats 1941, p 2858

Sec. 18.1. The marketing program to be made effective in any proration zone shall be so formulated as to rectify as far Program Character as possible the adverse marketing conditions specified in Section 10 hereof, and to maintain market stability under the limitations of this act. Such marketing program after being in effect may be altered or modified in minor particulars from time to time by such program committee with the approval of the commission; provided, that the commission may require the director to hold a hearing in the zone prior to such approval. If any alteration or modification is proposed by the program committee altering the program then in effect, by the addition of any one or more of the particulars (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) or (g) of Section 19.1 hereof, the commission shall not approve such alteration or modification unless a public hearing is held thereon. Following the public hearing a referendum shall be conducted by sending a mail ballot to all producers or their duly authorized agent as shown on the lists of producers of the commodity affected compiled in accordance with the provisions of this act and such alteration or modification shall not become effective if 40 per cent or more of said producers vote against such proposed alteration or modification. Before approving any alteration or modification of any marketing program, the commission must find that the same is reasonably calculated to carry out the purposes and attain the objectives of this act.

SEC. 2. Section 19.1 of the Agricultural Prorate Act is amended to read:

Powers of program committee re adverse marketing conditions

Sec. 19.1. The program committee for the purpose of minimizing the effect of surpluses or other adverse market conditions may be empowered in any marketing program in any one or more of the following particulars:

(a) To establish and maintain stabilization and surplus pools. The program committee shall be authorized to receive from each producer for delivery into a stabilization or surplus pool the uncertificated portions of the marketable supply of the agricultural commodity covered by a marketing program and market the same by varieties, grades or sizes for the account of such producers when it can be disposed of advantageously either in its original or converted state. The program committee shall designate the quantity or the percentage of the marketable supply of such commodity that shall be placed in the stabilization pool and the quantity or the percentage of the marketable supply of such commodity that shall be placed in the surplus pool. Quantities or percentages so established shall be applicable to each producer. In operating any stabilization or surplus pool, the program committee may receive and account for the commodity on the basis of variety, grade or size classifications and may fix servicing charges to be assessed against the total quantity of any commodity received into such pools. The program committee shall have title to all of the commodity in each of such pools and shall handle all of such commodity received into each of such pools and account for the same to each producer who is beneficially interested therein upon a pooled basis.

(1) In the case of a stabilization pool, the contents thereof may be disposed of or may be marketed from time to time as the program committee deems advisable, consistent with the maintenance of stabilized marketing conditions.

(2) In the case of a surplus pool, the contents of any such pool shall not be marketed in any form which would directly compete with that portion of the commodity which is regularly certificated or which is in a stabilization pool. However, any part of any such surplus pool may be transferred by a program committee on a gratuitous basis to charitable organizations, self-help cooperatives and similar agencies under proper safeguards to prevent any part of the commodity so disposed of from directly competing with the part of the commodity marketed through the usual channels of trade.

(b) To establish and maintain diversion or substandard pools. The program committee shall be authorized to receive from each producer for delivery into a diversion or a substandard pool such quantity of each producer's production or deliveries as fails to qualify for marketing or sale in regular marketing channels, under grade, quality or size regulations established in the marketing program or under standardization laws or other laws of the State or of the United States. In operating any such diversion or substandard pool, the program committee may fix servicing charges to be assessed against the commodity received into such pool and may receive and account for such commodity on a basis of variety, grade and size classifications. The program committee shall have title to all of the commodity in either of such pools and shall handle all of such commodity received into either of such pools and account for the same to each producer who is beneficially interested therein upon a pooled basis. The contents of any diversion or substandard pool shall be disposed of for by-products or for other purposes under proper safeguards to prevent that part of the commodity so disposed of from directly competing with the part of the commodity marketed in its usual form through the usual channels of trade.

(c) To create, establish or otherwise obtain and operate facilities for the financing, grading, packing, servicing, processing, preparing for market, selling and disposal of the contents of any pools provided for in this section

(d) To create, maintain and disburse an equalization fund to be used for the removal of any inequalities between producers as to the total volume marketed through prorated channels resulting from errors in estimating production or surplus or for indemnifying producers whose production, in whole or in part, is diverted in green form or otherwise from normal marketing outlets or diverted to relief, by-products, or other noncompetitive purposes pursuant to a marketing program.

No part of any funds raised for equalization fund purposes as specified in this paragraph shall be applied to the cost of maintenance of the commission and the Department of Agriculture.

(e) To establish, adopt and apply methods for correlating the marketable supply of any commodity to the reasonable market demands therefor by means of volume limitation, time limitation, diversion, or by grade, quality or size regulations applicable to the total production of any commodity, or to that portion of any commodity which qualifies for marketing pursuant to standards authorized in the marketing program or standardization laws or other laws of this State, or of the United States.

(f) To broaden distribution and increase consuming outlets by appropriate educational and trade stimulation efforts of a general industry nature and not unfairly depreciative of the quality of any other food product.

Cost

The cost of the exercise of such powers as are herein granted to the program committee shall be a part of the cost of the operation of the program and shall be obtained through fees in the same manner as other costs of the program.

Acreage adjustment payments

(g) For the purpose of providing for the adjustment of production of any agricultural commodity by means of tree or vine pulling, the program committee may receive applications from growers for acreage adjustment payments. The program committee shall, upon proper review and certification, make such acreage adjustment payments on an equitable basis from funds collected for such purpose on a uniform basis from all commercial growers of such agricultural commodity in this State, or from funds received from Federal, State or other agencies for such purpose.

No program of production adjustment adopted hereunder shall authorize payments for the removal of acreages of trees or vines of the species, variety or varieties specified in the program which have, during the three years immediately preceding the date of application, produced an annual yield per acre in excess of the comparably computed average yield from bearing trees or vines of the same species, variety or varieties for the State as a whole, such yields and averages to be determined by the director from statistical data compiled by State or Federal agencies or such other data as the director deems to be representative and reliable.

Liability

No member or alternate member of any program committee nor any employee thereof shall be held liable individually in any way whatsoever to any person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member, alternate member or employee, except for acts of dishonesty.

CHAPTER 245

An act to amend Section 21 of the Agricultural Prorate Act, relating to the disposition of funds collected under marketing programs.

Stats 1933, p 1969, amended

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21 of the Agricultural Prorate Act is amended to read:

Stats 1941, p. 2858

Sec. 21. The zone agent for each marketing program shall collect, either for each primary certificate or for each secondary certificate or for both such kinds of certificates issued to producers, a reasonable and proportional fee to be fixed by the program committee, subject to the approval of the director, so calculated as to provide an amount adequate to defray the necessary expenses of instituting and carrying out such marketing program and a proper proportion of the cost of the maintenance of the commission and of the Department of Agriculture in the performance of duties required by this act. The proportion of the fees payable to the commission and to the Department of Agriculture may vary upon a seasonal basis for each program according to the estimated expense to be incurred by the director and the commission in administering such program; provided, that the amount so required shall not exceed fifteen per cent (15%) of the certificate fees collected by the zone agent specifically for administrative purposes and in addition such proportion of fees collected for any trade stimulation or sales promotion program as may be required by the commission and the director to administer such program which shall in no event exceed five per cent (5%) of the fees collected for such purpose, unless the payment of a larger proportion of such funds is approved by the program committee for such marketing program.

Fees

Upon request of any program committee of any marketing program, the commission shall confer with said committee or its representatives prior to fixing the amount or proportion of any fees of said marketing program payable to the Department of Agriculture for maintenance of the commission and the department in the performance of the duties required by this act.

All such fees shall be deposited promptly by the zone agent in a bank or banks approved by the Director of Finance, and shall be accounted for forthwith to the Director of Agriculture. Such deposit shall be made in the name of the zone under which such funds are collected and shall be disbursed by the director, pursuant to rules and regulations prescribed by the director, and approved by the commission, only for the expenditures incurred by the program committee in carrying out the specific purposes and provisions of such marketing program, including all necessary expenses incurred in the formulation, administration and enforcement of such marketing program.

Deposit and disbursement

Support of Department of Agriculture

The proportionate amount of fees payable, as determined herein, to the Department of Agriculture shall be withdrawn from such funds monthly by the director and paid into the Department of Agriculture Fund in the State Treasury and shall be used only for the support of the commission and of the Department of Agriculture in carrying out their duties as required by this act.

Surplus funds

At the end of any marketing season as designated in each marketing program, after proper provision has been made for the payment of all necessary expenses incurred in connection therewith, any funds remaining to the credit of the program committee shall be refunded upon a pro rata basis to all persons from whom such funds were collected; provided, that, if the marketing program continues in effect, such refund may, upon the resolution of the program committee with the approval of the director, be deferred so as to permit the program committee to use such residual funds to meet operating expenses in the succeeding season or until sufficient funds have been collected or the collection of sufficient funds is assured to enable such committee to make such refund and to defray the expenses of the then current marketing season, including an allowance for preliminary expenses of the next succeeding season. At the time such refund is made, the program committee shall file with the director a claim for such refund to growers entitled thereto. If the director finds that as of the end of any marketing season the amount remaining to the credit of the program committee is so small as to make impractical the computation and remitting of such pro rata refund, the director may authorize the transfer of such funds to the then current marketing season for expenditure in carrying out the marketing program.

Bond

No agent or employee of the program committee shall have or receive any funds collected pursuant to the provisions of this act until such agent or employee has filed with the director a bond in such form and in such penal sum as the director may prescribe.

CHAPTER 246

An act to add Section 21.1 to the Agricultural Prorate Act, relating to proceedings for the collection of fees.

Stats 1933, p 1969, amended

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21.1 is added to the Agricultural Prorate Act, to read:

New section

Sec. 21.1. Any fee for primary certificates or secondary certificates fixed by the program committee with the approval of the director, pursuant to Section 21, shall be due and payable by each producer upon all units of the commodity of such producer which are subject to such certificates and shall constitute a personal debt of such producer. In the event that any such producer has authorized a handler as herein defined to obtain secondary certificates and pay secondary certificate fees on behalf of such producer, or in the event that the handler has been a party to noncompliance with respect to payment for certificates or corresponding fees, the amounts unpaid shall constitute a personal debt of such handler.

Fees for primary and secondary certificates

The director, in addition to other remedies provided by law, may direct suit in the name of the people of the State of California as plaintiff, to be brought for the recovery of fees as herein provided; and in such case the director may make the necessary affidavit for and a writ of attachment may issue, without any bonds being given on behalf of the plaintiff. All fees collected hereunder shall be handled in the same manner as provided in Section 21.

least biennially for the purpose of making such determination. An expression by a majority of the producers participating in the referendum shall govern the action of the commission and the director in declaring a program modified, continued or suspended. In conducting such referendum, the commission and the director may require the majority expression to be that of producers in terms of volume of production in addition to numbers of producers voting.

The amendment of any marketing program to provide for a referendum shall be deemed to be an alteration or modification of the program in a minor particular as provided in Section 18.1.

Mammal damage

1293. Any owner or tenant of land or property that is being damaged or destroyed or is in danger of being damaged or destroyed by deer, elk, bear or beaver, may apply to the commission for a permit to kill such mammals. The commission, upon satisfactory evidence of such damage or destruction, actual or threatened, shall issue a revocable permit for the taking of such mammals under regulations promulgated by the commission. Mammals so taken shall not be sold, nor shipped from the premises on which they are taken, except under instructions from the commission.

CHAPTER 250

An act to amend Section 20 of the "Personal Property Brokers Act" as revised and set forth in Chapters 952 and 1044 of the Statutes of 1939, relating to personal property brokers and to persons who, as brokers, negotiate loans made by personal property brokers.

Stats. 1909, p. 969, amended

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20 of the act cited in the title hereof, as revised by Chapter 952 of the Statutes of 1939, is amended to read:

Stats 1939 p. 2667

Sec. 20. Prohibition. No person, except as authorized by this act, shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any interest, discount, or consideration greater than the lender would be permitted by law to charge if he were not a licensee hereunder upon the loan, use, or forbearance of money, goods, or things in action, or upon the loan, use, or sale of credit of the amount or value of three hundred dollars ($300) or less.

Charges of nonlicensees

The foregoing prohibition shall apply to any person, who by any device, subterfuge, or pretense whatsoever shall charge, contract for, or receive greater interest, consideration, or charges than is authorized by this act for any such loan, use, or forbearance of money, goods, or things in action or for any such loan, use, or sale of credit.

No loan of the amount or value of three hundred dollars ($300) or less, for which a greater rate of interest, consideration, brokerage, and charges than is permitted by this act has been charged, contracted for, or received, made within the State of California, shall be enforced in this State, and every person in anywise participating therein in this State shall be subject to the provisions of this act.

Enforcement of California loans

A loan lawfully made outside the State of California of the amount or value of three hundred dollars ($300) or less, may be enforced in this State as to the unpaid principal balance of said loan together with the interest, consideration, brokerage and all other charges, to the extent of but not to exceed said unpaid principal balance and the aggregate amount of interest, consideration, brokerage and all other charges permitted by this act in connection with a loan of the same amount made within this State. Any person who in anywise collects or attempts to collect in this State the unpaid principal balance of a loan made outside the State of California, and a greater aggregate amount of interest, consideration, brokerage and all other charges in connection with such loan than is permitted by this act in connection with a loan of the same amount made within this State, shall be subject to the provisions of this act. Any person who contracts for or negotiates

Enforcement of out-of-State loans in this State a loan to be made outside the State of California for the purpose of evading or avoiding this act, shall be subject to the provisions of this act.

Collateral contracts

No licensee or any other person in connection with or incidental to the making of any loan, may require the borrower to contract for, purchase, or agree to purchase any other thing in connection with the loan, and no licensee or any other person in connection with or incidental to the making of such loan shall require the borrower to enter into any collateral sales agreement or contract, other than the contract of pledge, assignment or mortgage of personal property by the borrower to the lender as security for the repayment of the loan and charges thereon. The licensee shall deliver to the borrower at the time of making the loan an amount to be retained by the borrower equal to the face value of the loan and note evidencing same.

Profit from collateral contracts

Any profit or advantage of any kind whatsoever that any personal property broker or broker may contract for, collect, receive or in anywise obtain by a collateral sale, purchase, or agreement, in connection with the negotiating, arranging, making or otherwise in connection with any loan of three hundred dollars ($300) or less, except commissions received as a licensed insurance agent or broker on insurance written as hereinafter permitted, shall be deemed to be charges for the purposes of regulation under this act. Such transactions shall be governed by and subject to the provisions of this act. How-

CHAPTER 256

An act to amend Sections 44 and 44.1 of the Vehicle Code, relating to motor vehicles, and declaring the urgency of this act. Stats 1935, p. 93, amended

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read: Stats 1941, p. 1374

44. Authorized Emergency Vehicle. An "authorized emergency vehicle" is a vehicle of any of the following types: "Authorized emergency vehicle"

(a) A vehicle publicly owned and operated in the performance of his duty, by a member of any police or fire department, any sheriff, constable, or deputy sheriff, or traffic law enforcement officer who is regularly employed by the State, or any city, or any city and county, or any county in responding to emergency calls or in a traffic patrol duty.

(b) A motorcycle, either publicly or privately owned, operated by a police or traffic law enforcement officer in enforcing the provisions of this code.

(c) A motor vehicle, either publicly or privately owned, operated by a State or county forest ranger, or a fire warden on salary and directly in charge of fire protection work upon behalf of the State or in any county, or the chief or assistant chief of an organized fire department, in responding to emergency fire calls.

(d) Any fire fighting equipment designed and operated exclusively as such by an oil company and used in responding to emergency fire calls and in combating fires

(e) When used in responding to emergency calls, any privately owned ambulance, specially constructed and maintained exclusively for ambulance purposes, authorized by permit issued by the Chief of the California Highway Patrol, and any publicly owned ambulance.

(f) An emergency repair vehicle of a utility or public utility, whether privately, municipally or publicly owned, used in responding to emergency calls when authorized by the Chief of the California Highway Patrol.

(g) Any fire fighting equipment, emergency wrecking equipment or emergency repair equipment, owned and operated by a bridge and highway district for the purpose of extinguishing fires, removing wrecked motor vehicles, caring for injured persons, or repairing damaged lighting, or electrical equipment, of such bridge and highway district, when such vehicles are responding to emergency calls.

(h) A motor vehicle, owned by the State, and operated by a regularly employed special agent or investigator of the Attorney General's office in the performance of his duties under Section 476 of the Political Code.

Stats 1939, p 2214

SEC. 2. Section 44.1 of the Vehicle Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Authorized emergency vehicle" (privately owned)

44.1. Authorized Emergency Vehicle, Privately Owned. In addition to the vehicles defined as "authorized emergency vehicle" by Section 44, the provisions of this code relating to authorized emergency vehicles shall apply to vehicles publicly maintained in whole or in part by the State, or city, or city and county, or county, and privately owned and operated by a member of, and who receives salary from, and is regularly employed by, an organized municipal police department, or by any sheriff, constable, or deputy sheriff and such vehicles shall be "authorized emergency vehicles," but only under each and all of the following conditions:

1. When such vehicle has a permit from the Director of the Department of Motor Vehicles.

2. When said vehicle has affixed to the license plates thereon distinguishing signs of a type approved by the Director of the Department of Motor Vehicles and when said signs are so located as to be plainly visible at a distance of not less than 50 feet from the front and rear of said vehicle.

3. Where said person operates such vehicle so owned by him in responding to emergency calls or fire alarms or in street or highway patrol duty, or operates such vehicle in the pursuit of actual or suspected violators of the law.

4. When the State, city, or any city and county, or any county does not furnish to such sheriff, constable, or deputy sheriff, a publicly owned vehicle for the purpose above stated.

5. Whenever such vehicle is being used for purposes other than those specifically authorized herein, the siren must be disconnected and the red lights covered. Any violation of this provision shall constitute a misdemeanor and the permit granted hereunder shall be revoked.

Urgency

SEC. 3. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

That by reason of the emergency created by war the Federal Government has made rules and regulations for blackout periods and areas and relate to the operation of emergency vehicles. That such rules require additional demands upon the law enforcement officers in patrolling such areas and protecting the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and this act should therefore take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 263

Stats 1933, p 394, amended

An act to add Section 1290.5 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to deer skins, declaring the urgency of this act, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. Section 1290.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

Deer skins and hides

1290.5. It shall be lawful for any person to have in possession the skin or hide, tanned or untanned, of any deer lawfully taken, and such skins or hides may be lawfully donated, or sold, for the purpose of tanning and/or manufacturing into articles, suitable for and needed by the armed forces of the United States; except that these provisions shall not be construed to permit any person or agency other than the commission to sell the skins or hides of deer killed under special permits as protection to crops. The commission shall prescribe, from time to time, such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper handling of skins and hides of deer and enforcement of this section. Violation of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25), nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

Exception

Penalty

This section shall remain in effect until the ninety-first day after final adjournment of the Fifty-sixth Regular Session of the Legislature or until the cessation of hostilities in all wars in which the United States is now engaged, whichever first occurs. While this section is in effect it shall supersede any existing provisions of law which are in conflict with this act; but such provisions are not repealed by this act and after this act is no longer effective shall have the same force as though this section had not been enacted. Duration. Existing law.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows: Urgency.

Military authorities require deer skins for the manufacture of certain necessary articles for use by the armed forces of the United States.

CHAPTER 264

An act to repeal Section 20431 of the Education Code, relating to the admission of persons not residents of California to the State colleges. Stats. 1943, Ch. 71, amended.

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943.

Note.—See Stats. 1943, Ch. 71.

CHAPTER 265

An act to amend Section 5050 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to the safekeeping and examination of persons alleged to be mentally ill. Stats. 1937, p. 1005, amended.

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5050 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read: Stats. 1939, p. 1549.

5050. Whenever it appears, by petition pursuant to this chapter, to the satisfaction of a judge of the superior court in any county that any person therein is mentally ill, and in need of supervision, treatment, care or restraint, the judge shall make such orders as may be necessary to provide for examination into the state of mental health of the person, and Apprehension. Order for detention.

for the safekeeping of the person, pending hearing, in the county psychopathic hospital, in his own home, or in such other place as will afford access to medical examiners for the purpose of examination and suitable provision for the safety and comfort of the person. If it appears to the judge that the mental health of the person requires it, the judge shall issue and deliver to some peace or probation officer for service, an order directing that the person be detained in a place designated in the order.

CHAPTER 266

Stats 1937, p 1005, amended

An act to amend Sections 5404 and 5406 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to the commitment of persons addicted to the intemperate use of stimulants, and the parole and discharge thereof.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1939, p. 1749

SECTION 1. Section 5404 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

Order of commitment

5404. If the judge, after such hearing and examination, believes the person is so far addicted to the intemperate use of stimulants as to have lost the power of self-control, or is subject to dipsomania or inebriety in such a degree as to require custodial care and treatment, he shall make an order that the person be confined in a hospital for the care and treatment of the insane designated in such order, or that such person be confined in an industrial farm or industrial road camp within the county or, in the event that the county maintains a branch of the county jail at which inmates thereof are required to perform agricultural and other out-of-doors labor, in such branch of the county jail. The order shall be accompanied by a written statement of the judge as to the financial condition of the patient and of the persons legally liable for his maintenance, as far as can be ascertained.

Statement of financial condition

Evidence of reputation

Before a person is committed to a State hospital, however, satisfactory evidence shall be submitted to the trial judge showing that the person to be committed is not of bad repute or bad character, apart from his habit for which the commitment is made, and that there is reasonable ground for believing that the person, if committed, will be permanently benefited by treatment.

Person previously committed as narcotic

No person who has been committed under the provisions of Article 1 of this chapter as an intemperate user of narcotics, and who has been discharged or has escaped, shall be again committed to any hospital unless permission for such recommitment be first obtained from the medical superintendent thereof.

SEC. 2. Section 5406 of said code is hereby amended to read: Stats 1937, p. 1005

5406. The court shall commit the person for a definite period, not to exceed two years, but he may be paroled by the medical superintendent under the same rules and conditions under which the insane are paroled, and the Department of Institutions may, upon recommendation of the hospital superintendent, discharge any person committed under this article when it is satisfied that he will not receive substantial benefit from further hospital treatment, with the same power as contained in Article 8, Chapter 1, Part 4, Division 6 of this code. In the event that the person shall have been committed to an industrial farm or industrial road camp or branch of the county jail, as provided in Section 5404 of this code, he may be paroled by the medical director of the county under the same rules and conditions under which insane persons may be paroled by the medical superintendents of the State hospitals, and the medical director of the county may discharge any person so committed to an industrial farm or industrial road camp or branch of the county jail, when he is satisfied that the person will not receive substantial benefit from further confinement there. Parole and discharge

CHAPTER 270

An act to amend Section 822 of the Agricultural Code, relating to markings on containers of apples.

Stats. 1933, p. 60, amended

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 822 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Stats. 1941, p. 1718

822. All containers of apples shall bear upon them in plain sight and in plain letters on one outside end: The name of the person who first authorized the packing of the apples or the name under which such packer is engaged in business, together with a sufficiently explicit address to permit ready location of such packer; name of variety of the apples contained therein, if known, and when not known the words "unknown variety"; the grade of such apples; the minimum net weight of the apples contained therein, or the cubical contents of the package, and in the case of wrapped packed apples the numerical count. A variation of five apples, more or less, than the number stated, shall be allowed. Containers of apples which are place packed shall be required to show only the name and address of the person who first packed or authorized the packing of the apples, the variety of apples, and the designation of grade. Open containers of apples which are not packed shall be required to show only the name and address of the person who first packed or authorized the packing of the apples, and the designation of grade.

Markings

In lieu of the standard grade markings required by this section any container of apples may be marked with the name of the equivalent grade established for such apples in the United States standards for apples promulgated by the United States Department of Agriculture and approved by the director.

CHAPTER 271

Stats 1937, p 1005, amended

An act to add Section 1756.5 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to the Youth Correction Authority, and authorizing the authority to return persons committed thereto who are found to be mentally abnormal to the committing court for recommitment to the Department of Institutions for placement in State institutions.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. Section 1756.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Return to committing court

1756.5. Whenever the authority finds that any person committed to the authority is feeble-minded, insane, mentally ill, a sexual psychopath, or a defective or psychopathic delinquent, the authority may return the person to the committing court for discharge from the control of the authority and recommitment in accordance with law to the Department of Institutions for placement in the appropriate State institution.

CHAPTER 272

An act to amend Section 4300l of the Political Code, relating to municipal court fees and costs.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1941, p. 2085

SECTION 1. Section 4300*l* of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Municipal court fees

4300*l*. Municipal Court Fees. The clerk of each municipal court, except as otherwise provided by law, shall charge for all services to be performed, the following fees:

CHAPTER 274

An act to amend Sections 736.3, 737.5, 737.6, 737.8, and 737.11 of the Agricultural Code, relating to licensing and bonding of distributors of fluid milk and fluid cream, and the fees therefor; providing for records of purchases, and for proceedings to refuse, revoke or suspend such licenses.

Stats 1933, p 60, amended

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 736.3 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Stats 1941, p 3008

736.3. Any stabilization and marketing plan shall contain the following provisions:

Provisions of marketing plan

(a) Provisions for prohibiting distributors and retail stores from engaging in the unfair practices hereinafter set forth:

Unfair practices

(1) The payment, allowance or acceptance of secret rebates, secret refunds, or unearned discounts by any person, whether in the form of money or otherwise.

(2) The giving of any milk, cream, dairy products, services or articles of any kind, except to bona fide charities, for the purpose of securing or retaining the fluid milk or fluid cream business of any customer.

(3) The extension to certain customers of special prices or services not made available to all customers who purchase fluid milk or fluid cream of like quantity under like terms and conditions.

(4) The false or misleading advertising of fluid milk or fluid cream as defined in Section 654a of the Penal Code.

(5) The purchase of any fluid milk in excess of 200 gallons monthly from any producer or association of producers unless a written contract has been entered into with such producer or association of producers stating the amount of fluid milk to be purchased for any period; the quantity of such milk to be paid for as Class 1, and the price to be paid for all milk received, but in any marketing area where an equalization pool is a part of a stabilization and marketing plan, such contract need not specify the quantity of milk in any one class. The contract shall also state the date and method of payment for such fluid milk, which shall not be later than the last day of the month following the month during which the fluid milk was purchased, the charges for transportation if hauled by the distributor, and may contain such other provisions as are not in conflict with this chapter, and shall contain a proviso to the effect that the producer shall not be obligated to deliver in any calendar month fluid milk to be paid for at the minimum price for fluid milk that is used for Class 4, as said class is defined in Section 735 3 of this code. A signed copy of such contract shall be filed by the distributor with the director within five days from the date of its execution.

(6) The purchasing, processing, bottling, transporting, delivering or otherwise handling in any marketing area of any fluid milk or fluid cream which is to be or is sold or otherwise disposed of by such distributor at any place in the geographical area within the outer, outside and external boundaries or limits of such marketing area, whether such place is a part of the marketing area or not, at less than the minimum wholesale and minimum retail prices effective in such marketing area.

(7) The payment of a lesser price by a distributor to any producer for fluid milk or fluid cream which is distributed to any person, including agencies of the Federal, State or local government, located upon property within the geographical limits of any marketing area for less than the minimum prices established by the director to be paid by distributors to producers for fluid milk or fluid cream for said marketing area.

(8) The purchasing or receiving of any fluid milk or fluid cream by distributors from producers within a marketing area wherein a stabilization and marketing plan is in effect for less than the minimum prices established in such plan, regardless of whether such milk or cream is subsequently sold or distributed within or without such marketing area, or within or without the jurisdiction of the State of California; provided, however, that if such fluid milk or fluid cream is subsequently sold or distributed in another marketing area within the State of California where a stabilization and marketing plan is in effect, then the distributor shall pay the producer thereof not less than the minimum prices established in such plan in the marketing area wherein such milk or cream is sold or distributed; and provided further, that in the event such fluid milk or fluid cream is subsequently sold or distributed in any place within the jurisdiction of the State of California where no stabilization and marketing plan is in effect, then such milk or cream may be paid for by the distributor to the producer thereof at not less than the average price paid by distributors to producers for milk or cream of similar grade and quality at the plants in the vicinity where such milk or cream is so sold or distributed, as such prices are determined by the director from contracts required to be filed with him pursuant to this section.

Minimum prices: Fluid milk

(b) Provisions whereby the director designates and prescribes or provides methods for designating or prescribing minimum prices to be paid by distributors to producers, for fluid milk in one or more of the various classes; provided, however, that the prices so designated or prescribed shall be based upon the economic relationship of the price of fluid milk for the marketing area involved to the price of manufacturing milk, taking into consideration the additional costs incurred in producing and marketing fluid milk over and above costs incurred in producing and marketing manufacturing milk; and provided further, the director finds that such prices will tend to effectuate the purposes and policy of this chapter and will insure consumers a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk.

Any stabilization and marketing plan may contain the following provisions:

Distributor reports

(c) Provisions whereby distributors shall report to each producer from whom fluid milk is secured, the volume of fluid milk received from such producer in pounds of milk, the milk fat test of such milk and the amount of fluid milk in milk fat pounds paid for in the several classes and the prices paid for the various classes for each month.

Minimum prices Fluid cream

(d) Provisions whereby the director designates and prescribes or provides methods for designating or prescribing minimum prices to be paid by distributors to producers for fluid cream; provided, that the prices so designated or prescribed shall be based upon the economic relationship of the price of fluid cream for the marketing area involved to the price of manufacturing cream, taking into consideration the additional costs incurred in producing and marketing fluid cream over and above costs incurred in producing and marketing manufacturing milk; and provided further, that the director finds that such prices will tend to effectuate the purposes and policy of this chapter and will insure consumers a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome cream.

Uniform prices

(e) Provisions whereby the director designates or prescribes methods to provide uniform prices to be paid to all producers supplying fluid milk to distributors for pasteurization purposes in the marketing area involved by pooling the returns of all such fluid milk; provided, that no equalization pool shall be established unless the director, after hearing, determines that producers who supply distributors with not less than sixty-five (65) per cent of the total volume of fluid milk used for pasteurization purposes and who represent not less than sixty-five (65) per cent of the total number of such producers desire the establishment of such pool, but no hearing shall be necessary if said sixty-five (65) per cent, by volume and production, of such producers petition the director in writing to establish such equalization pool as a part of the plan. If the director finds that an equalization pool is necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter he shall make provision therefor. The director may designate the local control board for the marketing area as his agency to operate the equalization pool and may permit such local board to employ a pool manager and such other necessary personnel and to incur such expenses incidental to the operation of the pool as the director finds are necessary. The director is hereby empowered to require distributors to make reports to the pool manager at such intervals and in such detail as he finds is necessary for the operation of the pool which reports shall be kept confidential as to any individual distributor but shall be available to the director or his agents and the pool manager, and such employees of the pool as are necessary to the operation of the equalization pool.

Premiums for quality, etc

No provision of any pooling program shall prevent any distributor from paying premiums for quality; provided, all producers supplying fluid milk of like quality to such distributor are paid similar premiums, nor shall any provision prohibit the paying of different prices to producers based on differentials in transportation, adjustments or deductions made by a cooperative association of producers to its members, including the blending of proceeds received from the sale of fluid milk by such cooperative in other markets. Distributors who purchase fluid milk from producers for pasteurization purposes shall deduct from payments due such producers at such time and in such manner such sums as the director determines are sufficient to insure uniform prices to all producers subject to the provisions of the equalization pool, irrespective of the usage of such fluid milk by the distributors. Distributors shall make, in addition to the deductions herein prescribed, such additional deductions per pound milk fat as the director finds necessary to pay all expenses incidental to the operation of the equalization pool, including the establishment of a reserve account to insure prompt payments to producers. The deductions herein prescribed are in addition to any other deductions prescribed by this chapter.

Sales stimulation program

(f) Provision whereby sales stimulation or consumer educational programs may be formulated and administered to increase the consumption of fluid milk and fluid cream, or other dairy products; provided, that such programs shall be carried on without reference to a particular brand or trade name; and provided further, that no such sales stimulation or consumer educational program shall be carried on which shall make use of false or unwarranted claims on behalf of such products or which disparages the quality, value, sale or use of any fluid milk or fluid cream or any other agricultural commodity authorized by law to be marketed within such marketing area.

Petition

Before any stabilization and marketing plan may provide for sales stimulation and consumer educational programs, not less than 65 per cent of the producers and who produce not less than 65 per cent of the total volume of fluid milk consumed in any marketing area shall petition the director in writing for the inclusion of such a program as part of the stabilization and marketing plan. If such a program is requested by distributors it shall be necessary that not less than 65 per cent of the total number of distributors and who distribute not less than 65 per cent of the total volume of fluid milk for consumption in the marketing area shall petition the director in writing for the inclusion of such a program as part of the stabilization and marketing plan.

The petition shall bear the signatures of petitioners, their addresses and the approximate daily volume of fluid milk handled in gallons and milk-fat pounds and the type of product distributed, together with the estimated cost of the program each month and the number of months the program is to continue in operation.

Financing

A sales stimulation and consumer educational program instituted by producers shall be financed by all producers supplying fluid milk to the marketing area. Such program, if instituted by distributors, shall be financed by all distributors supplying fluid milk to the marketing area. If such program is instituted by both producers and distributors, both producers and distributors shall finance the program equally.

Assessments

If the program is instituted by producers the director is hereby empowered to require producers to pay assessments of not more than two mills ($0.002) per pound milk fat, or if the program is instituted upon a gallonage basis not more than seven mills ($0.007) for each 10 gallons of fluid milk received by distributor, including the production of distributors who are also producers.

If the program is instituted by distributors the director is hereby empowered to require distributors to pay assessments of not more than two mills ($0.002) per pound milk fat, or if the program is instituted upon a gallonage basis not more than seven mills ($0.007) for each 10 gallons of fluid milk received by distributors, including the production of distributors who are also producers.

If the program is instituted by both producers and distributors, the director is hereby empowered to require both producers and distributors to pay assessments for the purpose of providing funds for formulating, administering, and carrying on such program. The assessments to be paid by distributors shall not exceed two mills ($0.002) per pound milk fat, or if the program is instituted upon a gallonage basis not more than seven mills ($0.007) for each 10 gallons of fluid milk received by distributors including the production of distributors who are likewise producers. Assessments of not more than two mills ($0.002) per pound milk fat, or if the program is instituted upon a gallonage basis, not more than seven mills ($0.007) for each 10 gallons of fluid milk produced by producers and received by distributors, shall likewise be paid by producers. In no instance shall the combined assessments exceed four mills ($0.004) per pound milk fat, or if the program is instituted upon a gallonage basis not more than 14 mills ($0.014) for each 10 gallons of fluid milk received from producers and processed by distributors for distribution in the marketing area in the form of whole milk, fluid cream, or manufactured dairy products derived from fluid milk.

Hearing

Before a program may be instituted a public hearing shall be called by the director, the procedure for which public hearing is to be the same as that required for the institution of a stabilization and marketing plan for fluid milk. At such public hearing testimony and evidence shall be taken to determine the necessity of such a program, the estimated costs of the program, the time during which the program is to be continued, and such other matters as are necessary in the institution of the program.

Order

If, after public hearing and consideration of the testimony and evidence presented at said hearing, the director finds that a sales stimulation and consumer educational program will tend to effectuate the purposes of this chapter, he shall issue an order making effective such program. Such order shall state the number of months the program shall continue in operation, the rate of assessment per pound milk fat or per gallon to be paid by those petitioning for the program, the names, addresses and business locations of the persons appointed to administer the program and such order may contain other provisions which are necessary and incidental to the operation of the program.

Person administering program

The person named in the order to administer the program shall be selected by the director in the following manner and in the following number:

(a) If the program was instituted by producers the director shall name five representative producers from nominations made at the public hearing by the petitioners.

(b) If the program was instituted by distributors the director shall name five representative distributors from nominations made at the public hearing by the petitioners.

(c) If the program was instituted by both producers and distributors the director shall name three representative producers from nominations made at the public hearing by the petitioning producers and three representative distributors from nominations made at the public hearing by petitioning distributors.

Eligibility of distributors

(d) Distributors who are also producers shall be eligible to nomination for service on, and may be named by the director to serve on the committee to administer any program for which they will be required to pay assessments, and at least one of the persons named by the director to serve on any committee to administer any program for which distributors who are also producers will be required to pay assessments shall be a distributor who is also a producer.

Administration of programs

All programs shall be administered by the persons named in the order of the director making the program effective, and shall be administered subject to the approval of the director. All amounts required to be paid to the director under this section by producers or distributors shall be paid to such director on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the month during which such fluid milk was received by distributors and all distributors receiving milk from producers in any area where the provisions of this section are in effect whereby the director is empowered to require payments from producers shall deduct and pay to the director such payments provided for under this section from the payments due for such distributors to such producers for fluid milk.

Upon the termination of any program, if there are any obligations arising thereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any producer or distributor or by the persons appointed to administer the program or by the director, the power or duty to perform such further acts shall continue, notwithstanding such termination. Termination of program

All moneys received by the director pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Department of Agriculture Fund in the State Treasury allocated to each separate marketing area from which they are collected and disbursed only for the purposes specified subject to the approval of the director. Disposal of proceeds

Any money received by the director in excess of the amount required for any program shall be returned at such time as the director may determine on a pro rata basis to the persons from whom such funds were collected. Refunds

SEC. 1.5. Section 737.5 of said code is amended to read: Stats 1941, p 3008

737.5. (a) After thirty (30) days after the effective date of this chapter no distributor shall deal in fluid milk or fluid cream without first having obtained a license from the director. The special licenses provided in this section are in addition to any and all licenses required by any other section of Division 4, Agricultural Code, or any law or ordinance of any county or municipality of this State. Applications for the licenses herein provided shall be made on forms prescribed by the director and shall state the name and address of the applicant and such details as to the nature of the applicant's business as the director may require. Such applicant shall further satisfy the director of his or its character, responsibility and good faith in seeking to carry on the business stated in the application. Licenses shall be issued for a period of twelve (12) months from the first day of each year or for the remainder of the calendar year from the date of issuance. Application for a new license for the following year by a licensee shall be made at least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of such year, and if not so made the applicant shall pay an additional sum equal to 50 per cent of the license fee before such license shall be issued. Distributor's license; Term; Renewal

(b) Every distributor before purchasing any fluid milk or fluid cream from a producer must execute and deliver to the director a surety bond in the minimum sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company qualified and authorized to do business in this State as surety. Said bond shall be upon a form approved by the director, and shall be conditioned upon the payment in the manner required by this chapter, of all amounts due to producers for fluid milk and fluid cream purchased by such licensee or applicant during the license year. Said bond shall be to the State in favor of every producer of fluid milk and fluid cream. In case of failure by a distributor to pay any producer or producers for fluid milk or fluid cream in the manner required by this chapter, the director shall proceed forthwith to ascertain the names and Distributor's bond addresses of all producer-creditors of such distributor, together with the amounts due and owing to them and each of them by such distributor, and shall request all such producer-creditors to file a verified statement of their respective claims with the director. Thereupon the director shall bring an action on the bond on behalf of said producer-creditors. Upon any action being commenced upon said bond, the director may require the filing of a new bond and immediately upon a recovery in any action upon such bond, such distributor shall file a new bond, and upon failure to file same within ten (10) days in either case, such failure shall constitute grounds for the revocation or suspension of the license of such distributor. In the event that recovery upon the bond is not sufficient to pay all of the claims as finally determined and adjudged by the court, any such amount recovered shall be divided pro rata among said producer-creditors.

Amount of bond

The minimum bond of one thousand dollars ($1,000) shall be required of distributors purchasing an average daily quantity of fluid milk of less than 100 gallons; distributors purchasing an average daily quantity of 100 gallons and less than 200 gallons during any calendar month during a license year must post a bond in the amount of two thousand dollars ($2,000); distributors purchasing an average daily quantity of 200 gallons and less than 300 gallons during any calendar month during a license year must post a bond in the amount of three thousand dollars ($3,000); distributors purchasing an average daily quantity of 300 gallons or more during any calendar month during a license year shall post a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

The same bond requirements shall apply to purchases of fluid cream, except that for the purposes of computation of the required bond, 10 gallons of fluid cream shall be deemed the equivalent of 100 gallons of fluid milk.

In the event that any distributor so increases his purchases of fluid milk or fluid cream during the license year that said purchases exceed the amount for which said distributor is bonded, said distributor shall forthwith post such additional bond or bonds as may be required to comply with the provisions of this section.

The licenses and bonds provided for in this section shall be required for each distributor, and for the purposes of this section each subsidiary milk plant or branch milk plant whether under one ownership or not shall be considered as an individual distributor.

Failure of any distributor who purchases fluid milk or fluid cream from producers to execute and deliver the bond as herein provided and required shall constitute a violation of this chapter; failure of any such distributor to post such additional bond or bonds as may be required to comply with the provisions of this chapter shall likewise constitute a violation of this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 737.6 of said code is amended to read: Stats 1937, p 42 See also Stats 1943 Chs 387 and 615

737.6. The fees for all licenses shall be as follows, based on the volume of fluid milk and fluid cream handled for the previous year, provided that any distributor who has not previously engaged in such business during such prior year shall pay such minimum license fee as provided by this chapter.

Distributor's license fee

(a) Distributors purchasing or handling an average daily quantity of fluid milk of less than 50 gallons shall pay a license fee of three dollars ($3); distributors purchasing or handling an average daily quantity of 50 gallons and less than 100 gallons shall pay a license fee of five dollars ($5); distributors purchasing or handling an average daily quantity of 100 gallons, and less than 200 gallons, shall pay a license fee of ten dollars ($10); distributors purchasing or handling an average daily quantity of 200 gallons, and less than 300 gallons, shall pay a license fee of fifteen dollars ($15); distributors purchasing or handling an average daily quantity of 300 gallons, and less than 500 gallons, shall pay a license fee of twenty-five dollars ($25); distributors handling an average daily quantity of 500 gallons or more shall pay a license fee of fifty dollars ($50).

The same license requirements shall apply to purchases of fluid cream, except, for the purpose of computation of the required license fee, 10 gallons of fluid cream shall be deemed the equivalent of 100 gallons of fluid milk.

Deductions from payments

(b) Distributors who are subject to the provisions of any stabilization and marketing plan made effective by this chapter, shall deduct from payments due producers for fluid milk, fluid cream or both, including each distributor's own production, the sum of two mills ($0.002) per pound milk fat on all milk fat contained in fluid milk, fluid cream or both, or in the case of distributors who do not purchase or receive fluid milk, fluid cream or both, in milk fat pounds, the sum of seven mills ($0.007) for each 10 gallons of fluid milk sold. The amount so deducted shall be paid to the director on or before the fifteenth of the month following the month during which such fluid milk or fluid cream was received. The amounts so received by the director shall be used in the administration and enforcement of this chapter, or any stabilization and marketing plan established by this chapter. Any amounts in excess of that required for this purpose shall be returned at such time as the director may determine to producers pro rata from whom such sums were collected.

Use of deductions

Refunds

SEC. 3. Section 737 8 of said code is amended to read: Stats 1937, p 42

737.8. All such distributors shall make and file with the director at least once each month such reports as the director may require to enable him to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

Reports

Every distributor who purchases fluid milk or fluid cream from a producer shall make and keep for one year a correct

Records for fluid milk or cream record showing in detail the following with reference to the handling, sale, or storage of such fluid milk or fluid cream:

(a) The name and address of the producer.

(b) The date the fluid milk or fluid cream was received.

(c) The amount of fluid milk or fluid cream received.

(d) The official butterfat test of the fluid milk or fluid cream if purchased on a butterfat basis.

(e) The usage of the fluid milk or fluid cream.

(f) Evidence of payment for the fluid milk or fluid cream purchased.

(g) Such further records as the director may require.

Stats 1941, p 3008

SEC. 4. Section 737.11 of said code is amended to read:

Refusal or revocation of license

737.11. The director may refuse to grant any license herein provided and may, after due hearing upon his own motion or upon a verified complaint signed and filed with the director by any interested person, refuse, revoke or suspend any such license as the case may require, when he is satisfied that any applicant or licensee has violated any provision of this chapter, or any provision of any stabilization and marketing plan formulated under the provisions of this chapter, or of any order of the director establishing minimum wholesale and minimum retail prices for fluid milk or fluid cream formulated under the provisions of this chapter. Upon the filing of such a verified complaint, the director shall cause a copy thereof, together with a notice of the time and place of hearing of such complaint, to be served personally or by mail upon the person or persons named as respondent or respondents therein. Such service shall be made at least ten (10) days before said hearing, which shall be held in the city or town in which is situated the principal place of business of the licensee or respondent, or in which the transaction or violation complained of is said to have occurred, or in the county seat of the county in which the transaction or violation complained of is said to have occurred, or in the nearest office of the State Department of Agriculture, at the discretion of the director. At the time and place appointed for such hearing the director or his agents shall hear the parties to said complaint, and shall enter in the office of the director at Sacramento a decision either dismissing such complaint or specifying the facts established on such hearing.

Complaint and notice

Hearing

Decision

Such decision may include an order refusing, revoking or suspending the license applied for or held by the respondent, or affixing such other conditional and probationary orders as may be proper for the enforcement of this chapter or any provision of any stabilization and marketing plan formulated under the provisions of this chapter, or of any order of the director establishing minimum wholesale and minimum retail prices for fluid milk or fluid cream formulated under the provisions of this chapter. A copy of the decision shall be furnished to the complainant and licensee.

Order to show cause

After any decision including any conditional or probationary orders, should respondent fail, refuse or neglect to comply with any of such orders, the director may thereupon and in the premises issue to and serve upon said respondent an order directing said respondent to show cause why the license of said respondent should not be suspended or revoked for the failure to comply with such conditional or probationary orders as above described.

Notice

A copy of said order to show cause, together with the notice of the time and place of hearing upon said order, shall be served personally or by mail upon said respondent. Said order shall refer to an attached copy of the conditional or probationary orders in such a way as to advise and inform the respondent of the charge or violation upon which said order is based and pursuant to which it is issued. Such service shall be made at least ten (10) days before said hearing, which shall be held in the city or town in which is situated the principal place of business of the respondent, or in which the transaction or violation complained of is said or charged to have occurred, or in the county seat of the county in which the transaction or violation complained of is said or charged to have occurred, or at the nearest office of the State Department of Agriculture, at the discretion of the director.

Hearing

Order

At the time and place appointed for such hearing the director or his agents shall hear the matter set forth in the order, and the showing of the licensee in the premises, and shall enter in the office of the director at Sacramento an order and decision specifying the facts, dismissing the order to show cause or directing the suspension or revocation of the license or licenses held by the licensee, or making such further conditional or probationary orders as may be proper, upon the evidence presented at such hearing. A copy of said order and decision shall be furnished to the licensee.

Previous violation

Previous violation by any applicant, or by any person connected with said applicant, of any provision of this chapter, or of any provision of any stabilization and marketing plan formulated under the provisions of this chapter, or of any order of the director establishing minimum wholesale and minimum retail prices for fluid milk or fluid cream, formulated under the provisions of this chapter, shall be good and sufficient ground for denial, revocation or suspension of a license.

CHAPTER 275

An act to amend Section 489 of the Agricultural Code, relating to the sale of graded milk.

Stats 1933, p 60, amended

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 489 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats 1941, p 475

489. Where a milk inspection service has been approved or established as provided in this code, market milk shall be

Grading of market milk and cream graded and designated as follows: "Certified milk," "guaranteed milk," "grade A milk." Market cream shall conform to all of the standards set for market milk of the same grade except those relating to milk fat and solids not fat, and except that the maximum bacterial count for market cream shall be not more than three times as great as that for the corresponding grade of milk.

CHAPTER 276

Stats 1933, p 60, amended

An act to amend Section 498 of, and to add Section 498.5 to, the Agricultural Code, relating to dairy farm building requirements and qualifications for milk and dairy inspectors.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1941, p 1385

SECTION 1. Section 498 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Duties of director

498. The director shall either directly or indirectly through his authorized agents:

Supervise milk inspection services

(a) Supervise the operation of all approved milk inspection services in the enforcement of the provisions of this division and the rules and regulations promulgated by him.

Establish standards

(b) Establish rules and regulations and provide plans and specifications at cost for the construction of sanitary milk barns and milk houses used in the production of market milk, which rules and regulations, plans and specifications shall provide that said buildings shall be sound, readily cleanable, and of sanitary construction; that said buildings shall afford the proper working space and be constructed to admit sufficient light and ventilation. The rules, regulations, plans and specifications herein provided may be varied to suit the climatic and other differences in the various sections of the State, and when such rules, regulations, plans and specifications shall have been adopted or established by the director, they shall be the standard building requirements of all market milk dairy farms operating in the same geographical area of the State. After the effective date of this act, minimum construction standards for new market milk dairy farms shall not be less than those established by the director under the authority hereby conferred upon him; provided, that any dairy farm buildings heretofore or hereafter constructed in accordance with the rules, regulations, plans and specifications heretofore or hereafter promulgated by the director shall not be required to be rebuilt to conform to any future change thereof; and, provided further, that no authority is conferred upon the director or any approved milk inspection service to require the rebuilding of any existing dairy farm buildings unless the owner thereof is making repairs thereto to the extent of 75 per cent of the value of such building; provided, all existing structures used in the production of market milk shall be kept in repair in accordance with the sanitary requirements and standards of Division 4 of this code.

New section

SEC. 2. A new section to be numbered 498.5 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code, to read:

Employee qualifications

498.5. The State Personnel Board shall hold examinations in various parts of the State for the purpose of determining the qualifications of persons desiring to become employed by the department in the enforcement of the provisions of this division and the rules and regulations of the director, and shall establish an eligible list therefor; provided, however, that persons in the employ of the State of California or any county or city or city and county in California may be eligible for employment by any county or city without being on such eligible list if such person was in the employ of the State of California or any county or city or city and county in California, and while so employed, enforcing laws, rules, regulations and ordinances pertaining to milk and milk products within two years immediately preceding date of such subsequent employment.

(a) No person shall be eligible to take such examination unless he possesses one of the following qualifications:

(1) One year of experience in the production, processing, or inspection of milk or milk products and education equivalent to graduation from an agricultural or veterinary college of recognized standing with specialization in studies relating to the dairy industry, or (2) three years of experience in the dairy industry involving work in dairy inspection, dairy bacteriology, marketing milk, or manufacturing milk products and education equivalent to completion of the twelfth grade supplemented by a nondegree course in an agricultural college of recognized standing with specialization in studies relating to the dairy industry, or (3) three years of experience in work equivalent to that of junior dairy inspector in the State Dairy Service.

Certification of eligibles

(b) The State Personnel Board shall, upon the written request of any county or city, certify to it a complete list of all persons upon such eligible list No person shall be hereafter employed by the department or any county or city for the purpose of the enforcement of the provisions of this division or the rules and regulations of the director or any ordinance of a county or city relating to the inspection of dairy farms, milk products plants, or milk products, unless he was at the time of such employment on such eligible list or previously employed as provided for in this section.

(c) In case the employees of any county or city inspecting dairy farms, milk products plants, or milk products are subject to qualification by a civil service board or commission, it shall be a condition prerequisite to the taking of such examination that such person shall be upon such eligible list or previously employed as provided for in this section; in the event that a county or city charter provision requires local residence as a prerequisite to employment, and the number of persons upon such eligible list who can meet such residence requirement is less than three, or if there be less than three persons upon such eligible list, the State Personnel Board shall prepare and certify to each county and city requesting the same, a list of persons eligible for temporary appointment pending the establishment of a suitable eligible list.

Training courses

(d) The director shall from time to time conduct special training courses, not to exceed five days, at various convenient places in the State for the purpose of training persons in the employ of the department and of each county and city in the enforcement of the provisions of this division, and the rules and regulations of the director, or the ordinance of any county or city relating to the inspection of dairy farms, milk products plants, or milk products, in dairy science, in uniform methods of enforcement of the provisions of this division, the rules and regulations of the director, ordinances of counties and cities, and other pertinent information concerning dairy farms, milk products plants, and milk products. Attendance at such training course shall be mandatory, in the discretion of the director, upon any or all persons employed by the department and each county and city in the inspection of dairy farms, milk products plants, and milk products.

(e) Any person employed by the department or any county or city, while attending such special training courses shall be paid his salary or compensation while so engaged.

Exceptions

(f) None of the provisions of this section shall apply to clerical employees, nor to any person employed in a laboratory.

CHAPTER 277

Stats 1931, p 483, amended

An act to amend Section 10.05 of, and to add Section 3.06 to, the Building and Loan Association Act, relating to audits of building and loan associations, and shares as legal investments.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 27, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State April 27, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1933, p 1089

SECTION 1. Section 10.05 of the Building and Loan Association Act is amended to read:

Annual audit

Sec. 10.05. Annual Audit by Public Accountant. Each association, at least once in each year, shall cause its books and accounts to be audited at its own expense by a certified or other public accountant or firm of certified or other public accountants selected by such association and approved by the commissioner. Such annual audit shall cover the fiscal year unless the commissioner shall fix a different period which he may do in the case of any association. Each association shall furnish to the commissioner annually, within 90 days after the end of the period covered by such audit, two signed copies of the report of such public accountant or accountants showing the result of such audit and including a balance sheet of such association at the date of such audit and a statement of the income and expenses of such association during the year ending with the date of such audit, which balance sheet and statement of income and expenses shall be certified by such public accountant or accountants. The commissioner shall have power to prescribe the scope of such audit, and to require such accountant or accountants to furnish him with information additional to that contained in the report of such audit. A copy of each report furnished to the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be kept at each office of the commissioner, and shall be open to examination by any investor of the association in question, subject to Section 13.01 of this act and to such reasonable regulations as the commissioner may prescribe. The audit required by this section shall be additional to, and shall not be in substitution for, the examination of associations by the commissioner or his deputies or examiners required by Section 13.06 of this act; provided, however, that in lieu of such audit, or as a portion of such audit, the commissioner may accept any audit, or that portion of any audit, made exclusively by the examiners for the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, Federal Home Loan Bank or Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, or by such examiners in conjunction with the deputies and examiners of the Building and Loan Commissioner.

CHAPTER 278

Stats 1937, p 1229, amended

An act to amend Section 6021 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to election of officers of the Board of Bar Governors.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 28, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State April 28, 1943]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1939, p 347

SECTION 1. Section 6021 of the Business and Professions Code is amended, to read:

Election of officers

6021. The president and vice presidents shall be elected by the board from among its members at an organization meeting to be held immediately following the annual meeting, after the commencement of the term of office of new members of the board, as provided in Section 6016 of this code.

The newly elected president and vice presidents shall assume the duties of their respective offices at the conclusion of the meeting at which they are elected.

CHAPTER 279

Stats 1937, p 1005, amended

An act to amend Sections 105 and 106 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to the Director of Social Welfare, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1937, p 1218

SECTION 1. Section 105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

Director

105. The Governor may appoint with the advice and consent of the Senate an executive officer, who shall act as the secretary of the board and who shall be the Director of the Department of Social Welfare. He shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor.

Stats 1937, p 1218

SEC. 2. Section 106 of said code is amended to read:

Qualifications and compensation

106 The director shall be appointed wholly on the basis of training, demonstrated ability, experience, and leadership in organized social welfare administration.

He shall receive the salary provided in Section 130.

Urgency

SEC. 3. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

The State Board of Social Welfare is the chief administrative agency of the State Department of Social Welfare and will continue to act as such under the provisions of this act. It is necessary, however, that the views of the chief executive officer of the State be adequately represented and presented to the State Board of Social Welfare and for this reason it is necessary to provide that the Director of Social Welfare shall be appointed by the Governor and hold office at the pleasure of the Governor. In this way the State Board of Social Welfare will be immediately informed and cognizant of the views of the chief executive officer with reference to social welfare problems and will, therefore, be adequately able to meet and deal with such problems consistent with the general policies of the entire State Government. Unless this act takes effect immediately, the State Board of Social Welfare will not be able to function adequately with respect to the general policies adopted by the State Government as a whole and as a result the public peace, health and safety will be in danger.

CHAPTER 280

An act to add Section 161 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to contracts for the publication of notices, delinquent lists and other documents.

Stats 1939 p 1274, amended

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 161 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

New section

161. Whenever any notice, delinquent list or other document required to be made under this code is to be published, the county shall contract directly with the newspaper in which publication is proposed to be made. Any contract so made or any moneys due thereunder shall not be assignable. The newspaper shall not pay, or contract to pay, to any person, firm or corporation, by way of commissions, any part of the moneys received from the county in payment of said publication.

Contract on publication

CHAPTER 281

Stats 1909, p 87, amended

An act to amend Section 80.1 of the Bank Act, relating to loans by banks which are covered by guarantees or agreements to purchase made by any Federal Reserve Bank or by the United States or any department or agency thereof, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1935, p 2152

SECTION 1. Section 80.1 of the Bank Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Restrictions not applicable to certain loans by commercial banks

Sec. 80.1. None of the limitations or restrictions contained in Section 80 of this Bank Act shall apply to loans made by any commercial bank of the character prescribed by the provisions of Section 13b of the Federal Reserve Act or of Section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as said sections have been amended; provided, however, that any portion of such a loan in excess of the limitations fixed by this Bank Act shall be covered by a commitment of the Federal Reserve Bank or the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to repurchase such excess portion on demand, at any time on or prior to maturity of the notes evidencing the indebtedness, without recourse upon the bank. Nothing in this Bank Act contained, limiting or restricting loans by banks, shall affect or be applicable to that portion of any loan heretofore or hereafter made by any bank which is secured or covered by a guaranty or commitment or agreement to take over or purchase, made by any Federal Reserve Bank or by the United States or any department, board, bureau, commission, or establishment of the United States, including any corporation wholly owned, directly or indirectly by the United States.

Urgency

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

To aid in the effective prosecution of the war, the Congress of the United States has authorized various agencies and departments of the Federal Government charged with the procurement of war supplies to guarantee in whole or in part loans made by banks to persons and corporations engaged in the production of war materials for the purpose of financing the production of such materials. Doubt has arisen as to the authority under the State Bank Act for State banks to make loans so guaranteed when such loans may exceed the limits otherwise prescribed by Section 80 of the Bank Act. It is urgently necessary in order to enable the State banks to use their funds for the financing of the war effort that this doubt be removed.

CHAPTER 282

An act to amend Section 4808 of the Penal Code, relating to the membership of the Advisory Pardon Board.

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4808 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1941, p 1080

4808. An Advisory Pardon Board of and for the State of California, is hereby created, which shall consist of the Lieutenant Governor, who shall be chairman of said board, the Attorney General and the Director of the Department of Penology. Should the Lieutenant Governor be absent or unable to perform the duties herein prescribed the President pro tempore of the Senate shall act in his place. The board shall have and exercise the powers and duties hereinafter set forth and specified. The members of said board shall not receive any salary or compensation. Advisory Pardon Board

CHAPTER 283

An act to amend Sections 224, 226 and 227a of the Civil Code, relating to the adoption of children.

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 224 of the Civil Code is amended to read: Stats 1939, p 1811

224. A legitimate child can not be adopted without the consent of its parents if living; provided, however, that after the custody of any child has by any judicial decree, been given to the mother, and the father for a period of one year shall wilfully fail to pay for the care, support and education of such child when able to do so, then the mother alone may consent to such adoption, but only after the father has been personally served with a copy of a citation requiring him to appear at the time and place set for the appearance in court under Section 227 of this code; if the father can not be located for personal service, the same may be made by publication as provided for the publication of summons in Section 413 of the Code of Civil Procedure; nor an illegitimate child without the consent of its mother if living; except that the consent of a father or mother is not necessary in the following cases: Consent to adoption When consent unnecessary

1. When such father or mother has been judicially deprived of the custody and control of such child by order of the juvenile court, declaring such child to be free from the custody and control of either or both of his parents as provided in the Welfare and Institutions Code, adopted May 25, 1937, or any act or acts superseding or amending the same.

2. Where such father or mother of any child has deserted the child without provision for its identification.

3. Where such father or mother of any child has relinquished said child for adoption as provided in Section 224m of this code.

4. Where such father or mother, whose consent is otherwise required, has been declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be feeble-minded or insane, if the State Director of Institutions and the superintendent of the State hospital of which, if any, such father or mother, is an inmate or patient, certify that such father or mother will not be capable of supporting or controlling the child in a proper manner.

Stats 1939, p 1811
See also Stats 1943, Ch 901

SEC. 2. Section 226 of said code is amended to read:

Petition for adoption

226. Any person desiring to adopt a child may for that purpose petition the superior court of the county in which the petitioner resides and the clerk of the court shall immediately notify the State Department of Social Welfare at Sacramento in writing of the pendency of the action. In all cases in which consent is required, except in the case of an adoption by a stepparent where one natural parent retains his or her custody and control of the child, unless a society licensed by the State Department of Social Welfare to find homes for children and place children in homes for adoption joins in the petition for adoption, the consent of the natural parent or parents for the adoption must be signed in the presence of an agent of the State Department of Social Welfare on a form prescribed by such department and filed with the clerk of the superior court, in the county of the petitioner's residence.

Execution of consent

Effect of consent

Such consent, when reciting that the person giving it is entitled to the sole custody of the minor child, shall, when duly acknowledged before such agent, be prima facie evidence of the right of the person making it to the sole custody of the child and such person's sole right to consent.

Department of Social Welfare

In all cases of adoption in which no agency licensed to place children for adoption is a party, except in the case of an adoption by a stepparent where one natural parent retains his or her custody and control of the said child, it shall be the duty of the Department of Social Welfare to ascertain whether the child is a proper subject for adoption and whether the proposed home is suitable for the child, prior to accepting the consent of a natural parent to the adoption of the child by the petitioner.

Department's consent

In all cases in which the consent of the natural parent or parents is not necessary and a society licensed to place children for adoption is not a party to the petition, the State Department of Social Welfare shall, prior to the hearing of the petition, file its consent to the adoption with the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the petition is filed. Such consent shall not be given by the Department of Social Welfare unless the child's welfare will be promoted by the adoption.

Report

Except in the case of the adoption of a child by a stepparent where one natural parent retains his or her custody and control of the child, it shall be the duty of the Department of Social Welfare to submit to the court a full report of the facts disclosed by its inquiry with a recommendation regarding the granting of the petition within 180 days after the filing of the petition; provided, however, that the court may allow such additional time for the filing of said report as in its discretion it may see fit. The report required of the Department of Social Welfare may be waived by the department in all cases in which a society, licensed by the Department of Social Welfare to place children in homes for adoption, is a party or joins in the petition for adoption. Such waiver may be issued by the department at any time, either before or after the filing of the petition for adoption.

Waiver

Adoption by stepparent

In case of an adoption of a child by a stepparent where one natural parent retains his or her custody and control of said child, the consent of either or both parents must be signed in the presence of a county clerk or probation officer of any county of this State on a form prescribed by the State Department of Social Welfare and the county clerk or probation officer before whom such consent is signed shall immediately file said consent with the clerk of the superior court of the county where the petition is filed and said clerk shall immediately file a certified copy of such consent to adoption with the State Department of Social Welfare.

Consent of nonresident parent

If the father or mother of a child to be adopted resides outside the State of California, his or her consent may be signed before a notary and in such case the consent of the Department of Social Welfare will also be necessary.

Minor parents

A parent who is a minor shall have the right to sign a consent for the adoption of his or her child and such consent shall not be subject to revocation upon such parent reaching his or her majority.

Appeal

If for a period of 180 days from the date of filing the petition, or upon the expiration of any extension of said period granted by the court, the Department of Social Welfare fails or refuses to accept the consent of the natural parent or parents to the adoption, or if said department fails or refuses to file or to give its consent to an adoption in those cases where its consent is required by this chapter, either the natural parent or parents or the petitioner may appeal from such refusal to the superior court of the county in which the petition is filed, in which event the clerk shall immediately notify the Department of Social Welfare of such appeal and the department shall within 10 days file a report of its findings and the reasons for its failure or refusal to consent to the adoption or to accept the consent of the natural parent. After the filing of said findings, the court may, if it deems that the welfare of the child will be promoted by said adoption, allow the signing of the consent by the natural parent or parents in open court, or if the appeal be from the refusal of said department to consent thereto, grant the petition without such consent.

Notice

Court action

Stats 1933, p 1436

SEC. 3. Section 227a of said code is amended to read:

Investigation by probation officer

227a. The probation officer in the county in which the action for adoption is pending shall make an investigation of each case of adoption by a stepparent. No order of adoption shall be made by the court until after such probation officer shall have filed his report and recommendation and the same shall have been considered by the court.

CHAPTER 284

Stats 1935, p 248, amended

An act to add Division 16, comprising Sections 25000 to 25551, inclusive, to the Streets and Highways Code, and to add Section 50005 to Division 50 of said code, thereby consolidating and revising the law relating to the creation, organization and government of joint highway districts composed of two or more counties of the State of California, and providing for the issuance of bonds and the levy and collection of all taxes, assessments and other moneys necessary for the retirement and payment thereof, and for the payment of the costs of all acquisitions and improvements and all other expenses hereunder.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New division

SECTION 1. Division 16, comprising Sections 25000 to 25551, inclusive, is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

DIVISION 16. HIGHWAY DISTRICTS

PART 1. JOINT HIGHWAY DISTRICTS

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Short title

25000. This part may be cited as the Joint Highway District Act.

Construction

25001. Unless the particular provision or the context otherwise requires, the definitions and general provisions contained in this chapter shall govern the construction of this part.

"District"

25002. "District," means a joint highway district, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

"Improvement"

25003. "Improvement," and any of its variants, includes the laying out, construction, improvement, and maintenance of public highways and appurtenances thereto, including tunnels which are incident to highway purposes.

Application

25004. This part shall apply only to those districts which are organized or reorganized under this part and to those districts organized or reorganized on or after August 14, 1931, under the Joint Highway District Act.

Prior districts

25005. All districts organized or existing prior to August 14, 1931, may continue their operations and the discharge of their obligations pursuant to the provisions of all laws appertaining to such districts in effect prior to that date.

Liberal construction

25006. This part shall be liberally construed, in order to effectuate its purposes. No error, defect, irregularity, informality and no neglect or omission of any officer or person, in any procedure taken under this part, which does not affect the jurisdiction of the board of directors to proceed shall render void or invalidate any proceeding hereunder, any bonds issued or levied, or taxes or assessment taxes levied or imposed hereunder.

CHAPTER 2. ORGANIZATION AND REORGANIZATION OF DISTRICTS

Creation

25025. Districts, to be composed of two or more counties, may be created in accordance with this part for the purpose of improving public highways.

Resolution

25026. The board of supervisors of any county may initiate proceedings proposing the creation of a district by adopting a resolution reciting:

(a) That the public interest requires the improvement of one or more public highways and the acquisition of any necessary rights of way therefor.

(b) The general location and extent of the highways to be improved.

(c) That it is proposed to create a district composed of the counties of_____(naming them) which will be benefited by the proposed improvement.

Representative of county

25027. Upon the adoption of the resolution the board of supervisors shall name and appoint one of its members to represent that county upon the board of directors of the district proposed to be organized.

Copies to other counties

25028. The clerk of the board of supervisors adopting the resolution shall transmit certified copies of the resolution to the clerk of the board of supervisors of each of the other counties named in the resolution.

Action by other counties

25029. Upon receipt of a copy of the resolution, the boards of supervisors of the several counties affected shall consider the advisability of creating and organizing a district as proposed in the resolution. After determining the facts involved, each of the boards of supervisors shall adopt a resolution either rejecting or approving the proposal to create the district.

Resolution of approval

25030. Each resolution of approval shall, in addition to the matter otherwise required therein, name and appoint a member of the board of supervisors of the county adopting the resolution, to represent such county upon the board of directors of the proposed district. A certified copy of the resolution of approval shall be forthwith transmitted to the clerk of the board of supervisors initiating the proceedings.

Adoption by original county

25031. The adoption of the original resolution by the board of supervisors of the county initiating the proceedings shall constitute a sufficient approval in behalf of that county.

Declaration of organization

25032. After the receipt by the board of supervisors instituting the proceedings of a copy of the resolution approving the proposal from the board of supervisors of each county proposed to be included within the district, that board shall adopt a resolution declaring the district to be created and organized and setting forth the names of the counties composing the district.

Filing with Secretary of State

25033. The board of supervisors adopting the resolution declaring the creation and organization of the district shall file a certified copy of that resolution with the Secretary of State whereupon the district shall come into existence and shall have all of the powers granted in this part. The district shall constitute a public corporation and shall be known as "Joint Highway District No.____ of the State of California."

Certificate of organization

25034. The Secretary of State shall furnish and transmit to the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county adopting the initial resolution for the organization of the district a certificate of organization of the district. Within 10 days after the receipt of the certificate, the clerk shall notify: (a) the clerks of the several boards of supervisors of the counties constituting the district, (b) the Director of Public Works of the State of California and (c) each supervisor appointed as a member of the board of directors of the district that the district has been organized.

Notice

Register of districts

25035. All districts shall be numbered by the Secretary of State, in the order of their creation and he shall keep and maintain in his office a list and register showing the districts organized under the provisions of this part or the Joint Highway District Act.

Reorganization

25036. All districts organized or tentatively organized prior to August 14, 1931, may reorganize under this part. The board of directors of the district or tentative district proposing to reorganize under this part may adopt a resolution declaring its intention so to do. It shall then transmit a certified copy of the resolution to the boards of supervisors of the several counties composing the district for their approval. If the boards of supervisors of all of the counties composing the district consent to the reorganization, the board of directors of the district shall adopt a resolution setting forth such consent and declaring the district or tentative district reorganized under this part. Thereupon the reorganization shall be complete and the district shall thereafter conform to the provisions of this part and shall have all of the powers and duties in this part provided. A certified copy of the resolution declaring reorganization shall be transmitted to the Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 3. GENERAL POWERS OF DISTRICTS

Powers of district

25050. The district, acting through its board of directors, shall have power to:

(a) Improve public highways.

(b) Issue bonds and levy and impose taxes and assessment taxes upon property within the boundaries of the district.

(c) Accept in the name of the district all gifts, donations or contributions from any source whatsoever made to further the purposes of the district.

(d) Exercise the right of eminent domain for the purpose of acquiring lands or rights of way for any of the authorized purposes of the district.

(e) Acquire and use such personal property as may in the opinion of the board of directors be necessary for the exercise of the powers granted by this part.

(f) Employ such labor and services as may in the opinion of the board of directors be necessary for the exercise of the powers granted by this part.

(g) Arrange for the safekeeping of all funds belonging to the district and appoint a treasurer and depositary to keep the funds of the district and exact from such treasurer and depositary such surety bonds or other security as the board of directors deems proper.

(h) Sue and be sued.

(i) Adopt a seal.

(j) Exercise all other powers expressly granted to it together with such powers as are reasonably implied therefrom and which are necessary and proper to carry out the objects and purposes of the district.

Conveyances to district

25051. The counties composing the district may convey to the district such public highways or rights of way as may be utilized as a part of, or in connection with any highway which the district is authorized to improve.

Eminent domain

25052. Before exercising the right of eminent domain the board of directors of the district shall adopt a resolution describing the lands or rights of way sought to be acquired and declaring that the public interest and necessity require the acquisition thereof for the purposes of the district. The adoption of the resolution shall be conclusive evidence that:

(a) The public necessity requires the improvement for which the condemnation is proposed.

(b) The condemnation and acquisition of the property or rights of way is necessary for the improvement.

(c) The proposed improvement is planned and located in the manner which will be most compatible with the greatest public good and the least private injury.

CHAPTER 4. DISTRICT BOARDS OF DIRECTORS

Board of directors

25070. The district shall be managed by, and the powers conferred upon the district shall be exercised by a board of directors appointed as provided in this part.

Term and compensation

25071. The members of the board of directors shall serve during the pleasure of the appointing power. They shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be allowed the actual expenses incurred by them in connection with the discharge of their duties under this part.

Termination of membership

25072. The term of office of any member of the board of directors shall immediately cease and determine upon the termination of the term of office of such director as a member of the board of supervisors of a county within the district, except in the case of a member appointed by the Director of Public Works.

Additional member

25073. If an even number of counties comprise a district, an additional member of the board of directors shall be appointed by the directors already named in behalf of the several boards of supervisors. If the directors fail to make the appointment within 30 days after the date set for the first meeting of the board of directors, the secretary of the board shall, or any member thereof may, notify the Director of Public Works of that fact and he shall, within 30 days after receiving the notification, appoint a member of the board of supervisors of any county within the district or a person residing in the district and owning real property within the boundaries thereof, to serve as the additional member of the board of directors.

Vacancies

25074. If a position on the board of directors becomes vacant, the vacancy shall be filled by the appointing authority whose appointee last held the position.

First meeting

25075. Within 10 days after the receipt of the certificate of organization of the district, the clerk of the initiatory board of supervisors shall notify the persons selected to serve as members of the board of directors of the district of the time and place at which the first meeting of the board shall be held. The clerk may select the place and fix any time within 30 days after the date of mailing notices for the holding of the first meeting.

Quorum

25076. The persons appointed as members of the board of directors shall meet at the time and place fixed for the first meeting. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and in the absence of a quorum, any lesser number of directors may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present.

Organization

25077. At the first meeting the board of directors shall organize by selecting from among its membership a president, vice president and secretary. The officers thus selected shall severally perform such duties as the board may from time to time prescribe.

Transaction of business

25078. The board of directors shall fix a place or places within the district for the transaction of business. It may hold meetings from time to time in any place that will, in its opinion, best serve the interest or convenience of the board and of the public. The board of directors may make all necessary rules relative to the orderly transaction of its business and the business of the district.

CHAPTER 5. DISTRICT OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

Officers and employees

25100. The board of directors shall appoint a treasurer and a district engineer, and may appoint an assistant secretary. The board may employ such clerical, legal, or additional engineering services as may in its discretion be required, and may fix the compensation to be paid to any officers or employees of the district. No officer of any county shall receive any compensation for services rendered in any capacity in behalf of the district.

Treasurer Qualifications

25101. The treasurer shall be a resident of the district and a person competent in the handling of financial matters. Before entering upon the duties of his office, he shall furnish to the district a bond which is satisfactory in form and amount to the board of directors.

Duties

25102. The treasurer shall have charge and custody of all of the funds of the district and he and his bondsmen shall be responsible for the safekeeping of those funds. He shall deposit all funds of the district in a depositary designated by the board of directors. He shall make report of the funds in his possession as required by the board of directors, and shall perform all the duties required of him by this part, and by the board.

Engineer.

25103. The district engineer shall be a qualified civil engineer, licensed to practice as such under the laws of this State. He shall perform all of the engineering services and duties required of him by this part and by the board of directors

Duties

Control

25104. All engineering work performed in the district shall be done under the direction and control of the district engineer.

Assistant secretary

25105. If an assistant secretary is appointed, he shall perform such duties as the board of directors determine. He may during the absence of the secretary, or under his direction, perform all of the duties and functions of the secretary.

CHAPTER 6. CONTINGENT FUND

Creation

25120. Immediately following the organization of the district, the several boards of supervisors of the counties composing the district shall provide the district with a sufficient contingent fund to enable the district and its officers to perform their prescribed functions and duties. The proportionate contributions of the several counties within the district may be suggested to the several boards of supervisors thereof by the board of directors of the district and the board of directors shall from time to time report to the said boards of supervisors its requirements and in general its expenditures.

Contributions

25121. The boards of supervisors of the counties within the district may contribute to the contingent fund from any funds of the several counties not otherwise appropriated, including any moneys received from the State by the counties as a result of any tax or license upon motor vehicles or motor vehicle fuels. The State may contribute to the contingent fund any amount that it may desire out of any funds available for joint highway district purposes. The State may, through the director of public works, designate the purposes for which any money contributed by it to the contingent fund may be used and the purposes designated may be any which are authorized under the provisions of this part.

Use

25122. The contingent fund may be used for the following purposes:

(a) For any purpose necessary to create and maintain the organization of the district.

(b) For making reconnaissance, preliminary and final location surveys.

(c) For all necessary or proper engineering, legal or clerical work incident to the organization and operation of the district.

(d) For the improvement of any public highway to be improved under this part.

(e) For procuring any and all necessary lands or rights of way usable for the purposes for which the district is created.

CHAPTER 7 PRELIMINARY SURVEYS AND REPORT OF DISTRICT PROJECTS

Highway location

25150. The board of directors shall as soon as practicable cause the route of the highway or highways proposed to be improved by the district, to be tentatively located. For this purpose the board may employ all necessary engineering and other assistance and shall have such preliminary surveys made as in the judgment of the board of directors may be required.

Estimate of costs

25151. The district engineer shall make a preliminary report to the board of directors setting forth the result of his preliminary surveys and showing the tentative location of the highway or highways proposed to be improved together with an estimate of the approximate cost of improvement, the incidental expenses thereof and the estimated cost of the acquisition of any necessary property or rights of way therefor.

Method of finance

25152. In his preliminary report the district engineer shall also recommend an apportionment of the construction and other costs among the State, if any contribution is to be requested from it, and the counties comprising the district. The district engineer shall also recommend a method or methods for financing the project. Upon completion of the preliminary report the district engineer shall file it with the secretary of the board of directors.

Consideration of preliminary report

25153. As soon as practicable after the filing of the engineer's preliminary report, the board of directors shall give it full consideration and shall formulate a report of the project or projects for which the district is organized

Report of board of directors

25154. The report of the board of directors shall contain the following:

(a) A general description of the approximate route and location of the highway or highways proposed to be improved.

(b) The estimated cost of the improvement.

(c) The general location and extent of any property or rights of way necessary for the entire improvement or for the improvement of the unit proposed to be immediately undertaken, together with the estimated cost of acquisition.

(d) A statement and recommendation of the portion or unit of the project which the board of directors recommends for immediate improvement, which may be the whole or any part of the project proposed.

(e) A statement of the estimated cost of each unit proposed to be immediately improved in the event that the board of directors determines upon the improvement of any unit less than the whole.

(f) A statement of the method of financing proposed by the board of directors

(g) A statement of the amount of contribution, if any, to be requested of the State

(h) A statement of the proportionate amounts of the cost of the unit or units proposed to be borne within the several counties composing the district, after deducting any contribution to be made by the State.

(i) If any particular unit is proposed for immediate construction and that unit is less than the whole project, a statement of a proposed program for the improvement of the other units necessary to complete the project.

Highways outside boundaries

25155. If highways are to be required or improved beyond the boundaries of the district, the consent of the governing body controlling the territory through which the proposed highways are to pass shall be first obtained.

CHAPTER 8. STATE APPROVAL AND CONTRIBUTION

Copy to Department of Public Works

25175. If the report of the project as adopted by the board of directors, contains a request for contribution from the State, the board shall, immediately upon its adoption, file a certified copy thereof with the State Director of Public Works

Action by department

25176. Within 90 days after its receipt the Department of Public Works, through its proper officers, boards or commissions, shall consider and pass upon the report so filed. It may approve or reject the request for contribution, and may reject, approve or modify the report in whole or in part, or may suggest modifications thereof. Failure of the department to act on the report within the 90-day period shall operate as a rejection on the part of the State.

Contribution by State

25177. If the whole or any part of the project proposed in the report is approved and a contribution by the State is recommended, the State Highway Commission shall thereupon adopt a resolution setting forth the amount of the contribution, the time and manner of payment thereof and the purposes for which the contribution shall be used and the State shall be committed and obligated to make the specified contribution out of any funds which are then or thereafter available for joint highway purposes.

Certificate of commitment

25178. The Director of Public Works shall issue and transmit to the secretary of the district a certificate of commitment showing the decision of his department upon the report and setting forth the amount of contribution, if any, and the terms relative to the payment thereof.

Modification of report

25179. The board of directors may amend its report of the project to conform with any suggestions, modifications or recommendations of the Department of Public Works or the Highway Commission.

Contingency of obligation

25180. The obligation of the State for any contribution shall be contingent upon the approval by all counties comprising the district of the balance of the costs of the project, or of the particular unit thereof proposed to be immediately improved.

CHAPTER 9. COUNTY APPROVAL AND CONTRIBUTION

Copies of reports to counties

25200. Upon the receipt of the certificate of commitment from the Director of Public Works or, if no contribution is requested from the State, then upon the adoption of the report the board of directors shall transmit certified copies of their report of the project to each of the boards of supervisors of the counties composing the district.

Action by counties

25201. Upon receipt of the report of the project, each of the boards of supervisors shall forthwith consider it. Within 60 days after the receipt of the report, each board of supervisors shall by resolution approve or reject the report. Failure of any board of supervisors to act within the time allowed shall be deemed a rejection, but such rejection or a rejection by other means shall be without prejudice to the submission at any time of a new or amended report by the board of directors of the district.

Notification of district

25202. Each board of supervisors shall cause a certified copy of its resolution adopting or rejecting the report of the project to be sent to the secretary of the board of directors of the district.

Notice of hearing

25203. Upon receipt of the report of the project the clerk of each board of supervisors shall cause a notice to be published twice in a newspaper of general circulation published and circulated in the county receiving the report. The last publication of the notice shall be at least 20 days prior to the date of the hearing on the report. The notice shall set forth:

(a) That the report has been received and is on file for public inspection.

(b) The time at which the board of supervisors will consider the report and hold the hearing thereon.

(c) That all interested persons may present any protests or suggestions which they have to offer concerning the report at that time.

Effect until report approved

25204. No county within the district shall be obligated or committed hereunder until the board of supervisors thereof approves the report of the project and until that report is approved by the boards of supervisors of all other counties in the district. The proportions of contribution provided for in the report thus approved shall not be exceeded without the consent of the board of supervisors of each county in the district.

Excess contributions

Referendum

25205. At any time prior to the approval of the report of the project by the board of supervisors of any county, the matter of the participation of the county in any issuance of bonds proposed in the report may be referred to a vote of the qualified electors of the county. Such reference shall be had upon the petition of 5 per cent of the registered electors of the county, or upon the resolution of the board of supervisors of the county.

Election

25206. The matter may be submitted at a special election called for that purpose or may be consolidated with any other election involving the entire county. All laws governing county elections shall apply to such election in so far as they may be applicable. The notice of election, in addition to the matters otherwise required, shall refer to the report of the project, a copy of which shall be on file in the office of the county clerk.

Rejection

25207. If at the election a two-thirds majority of the electors voting thereon do not approve the proposition, the county shall not participate in the issue of bonds proposed in the report of the project unless the same or any amended proposition for such participation is thereafter, at a subsequent election, approved by the electors.

Extension of time for approval

25208. If any county thus refers the matter of its participation in the issuance of bonds to the electors of the county, the time for the approval of the report by the board of supervisors of that county shall be extended to and including 30 days after the date of canvassing the returns upon the election.

Exception

25209. The provisions of this chapter relating to the submission of the question of county participation in the issuance of bonds to the electors shall not apply to bonds issued under Chapter 19 of this part.

CHAPTER 10 FINAL SURVEYS, PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS AND DRAWINGS

Proceedings toward construction

25230. After receiving the certificate of commitment for contribution by the State, if any, and certified copies of the resolutions of approval of the boards of supervisors of all of the counties comprising the district, the board of directors of the district may proceed with final surveys, the preparation of final plans and specifications, the award of contracts and the acquisition and improvement of the highway or highways constituting the project or the unit thereof which has been approved for immediate construction.

Preparation and approval of final surveys, etc

25231 In proceeding with a project, or unit thereof, the board of directors shall have all necessary final surveys, plans, specifications and detailed drawings prepared by the district engineer. Upon completion thereof the surveys, plans, specifications and detailed drawings shall be filed with and approved by the board of directors.

Estimate of cost

25232. The final surveys, plans, specifications and detailed drawings shall include a final estimate of cost. If the final estimate exceeds by more than 10 per cent the estimate named in the preliminary report of the district engineer, the final surveys, plans, specifications, and detailed drawings shall not be approved by the board of directors until the increase in estimated costs is approved by the board of supervisors of each county comprising the district, and by the Director of the Department of Public Works if any contribution is to be made by the State.

Approval by Director of Public Works

25233 Upon the adoption of the final surveys, plans, specifications and detailed drawings by the board of directors, a certified copy thereof shall be transmitted to the Director of Public Works for his approval.

CHAPTER 11. BIDS AND AWARD OF CONTRACT

Work to lowest bidder

25250. All construction work shall be done by contract awarded to the lowest responsible bidder after advertising for bids in a newspaper of general circulation published and circulated within the district which has been designated by the secretary or the board of directors for that purpose. The advertising shall be done by means of two publications of the notice inviting bids the first of which shall be not less than 10 days prior to the time fixed for receiving the bids.

Notice inviting bids

25251. The notice inviting bids shall be upon such terms and conditions as the board of directors may determine, and shall require that each bid be accompanied either by a check certified to by some responsible bank within the State, or by a cashier's check issued by a responsible bank in the State, and made payable to the district in an amount not less than 10 per cent of the aggregate amount of the bid No bid shall be considered unless the check which accompanies it is satisfactory to the board of directors.

Opening of bids

25252. All bids shall be delivered to the secretary of the board of directors not later than the hour fixed for receiving bids and shall thereafter be publicly opened by the secretary in the presence of the board of directors assembled in public session.

Award or rejection of bids

25253. The board of directors shall award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder. However, before awarding the contract the board may:

(a) Reject all bids should it deem this necessary for the good of the district.

(b) Reject the bid of any bidder who has been delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with either the district, or any county composing the district, or with the State.

(c) Reject the bid of any bidder who is unable to satisfy the board of directors of his ability, financially or otherwise, to perform the contract for the proposed work.

Day labor where bids rejected

25254. If all bids have been rejected because it appears that they are too high and that the work can be done more cheaply by day labor, the board may, in lieu of readvertising for bids, order the work done by day labor under the supervision of the district engineer.

Contract

25255. The bidder to whom any contract is awarded shall, within 20 days after the date of the award by the board of directors, execute a contract to perform the work. The contract shall be in a form approved by an attorney employed by the board of directors.

Bonds

25256. Before the contract is executed, the person to whom it is awarded shall execute bonds for the faithful performance of the contract and for the payment of all claims for labor and material thereunder in the manner provided by law and in the form approved by an attorney employed by the board of directors.

Terms of bonds

25257. All of the bonds shall be executed by the bidder and by a corporate surety duly authorized to do business as such under the laws of the State of California. Each bond shall be in an amount not less than 50 per cent of the aggregate contract price. The contract shall not be executed on behalf of the district until all the contract bonds are approved by the president of the board of directors and the district engineer.

Authorization of officers

25258. The president or vice president and secretary or assistant secretary shall sign and attest all construction contracts on behalf of the district.

Labor provisions

25259. All construction contracts shall provide that a maximum of eight hours shall constitute a day's labor and that three dollars ($3) shall be the minimum amount paid for a day's labor performed upon any construction work covered by the contract.

Forfeit

25260. If any bidder to whom a contract is awarded fails to enter into the contract and execute the required bonds, the board of directors shall declare the check accompanying the bid of such bidder to be forfeited. Upon cashing the check the proceeds shall be placed to the credit of the construction fund of the district. The board of directors may thereupon award the contract to the next lowest responsible and acceptable bidder, or may call for new bids.

Control of highway

25261. During the course of the improvement of any highway the highway or project shall be under the control of the board of directors. The board of directors may make all necessary regulations, not in conflict with law, concerning the use of the highway. During that period, the board may exclude from the highway any vehicular or other traffic which may, in the opinion of the board of directors, be detrimental to the public safety or will result in injury to the roadway during the progress of the improvement.

State highway laws

25262. All laws relating to the use of State highways shall be applicable to any highways under the control of any district.

CHAPTER 12. ACQUISITION OF PROPERTY AND RIGHTS OF WAY

Request

25280. The board of directors of the district may request the board of supervisors and the proper officers of any county situated within the district to condemn and acquire property or rights of way within that county which are necessary for the projects of the district. Upon receipt of the request, the board of supervisors shall undertake the condemnation and acquisition requested by the board of directors and the cost thereof shall be a proper deduction from any levy made by the district upon or within that county. Any excess in such cost over and above the amount of any such levy shall be paid to the county by the district out of any funds provided for that purpose. The proceedings required to be taken by any county or county officers under the provisions of this section may include the taking of immediate possession of any property or rights of way necessary for district purposes.

Condemnation, etc

Expenditure as required by Constitution

25281. If it is decided that any money authorized to be expended from the State treasury shall be expended as required by Section 22 of Article IV of the Constitution, the Director of Public Works shall have the exclusive management and control of such expenditure, if the boards of supervisors of the several counties concerned assent to the relinquishment and transfer of such management and control. However, the Director of Public Works may delegate his powers to the board of directors of the district which is hereby declared to be a State institution within the meaning of Section 22 of Article IV of the Constitution. The board of directors of the district may vest in the Director of Public Works, authority to supervise all or part of the work of improvement.

CHAPTER 13. COOPERATION WITH FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

Cooperation

25300. If the Federal Government desires to include any highway improved or to be improved by a district in any scheme of National defense and to use or assume the use of the highway for military or other purposes, the board of directors of the district, either directly or through the proper board or officers of the State, may enter into negotiations respecting the highway and may enter into such contracts or agreements in relation thereto as are mutually satisfactory.

Chapter 14. Completion of Projects

Declaration of completion

25320. Upon the completion of the improvement of any portion of any highway by the district, the board of directors may, and on the completion of the whole of any such highway, the board of directors shall, adopt a resolution declaring such completion and transmit a copy of the same to the board of supervisors of the county in which such highway or portion of highway is situated.

Reversion to counties

25321. Upon receipt of the resolution of completion by the board of supervisors, the control of the highway, or portion thereof, shall revert to the county in which it is situated and become a part of the county highway system and the county shall be liable for its future maintenance and care.

Certificate of Director of Public Works

25322. The board of directors shall not adopt any resolution of completion until it obtains from the Director of Public Works a certificate in writing showing that the highway, or portion thereof, proposed to be surrendered to the county within which it is situated has been improved in accordance with the plans and specifications previously adopted therefor. Unless the highway, or portion thereof, has been improved under his supervision, the Director of Public Works shall not be required to furnish the certificate until the district engineer delivers his certificate to the Director of Public Works showing that the highway, or portion thereof, has been improved in accordance with the plans and specifications previously adopted.

Chapter 15. General Financing and County Levies

Construction fund

25340. All moneys of the district applicable to the payment of improvement costs shall be placed in a fund designated "construction fund," the moneys in which shall be disbursed by the treasurer of the district as ordered by the board of directors. This fund may be used to pay all improvement costs, all necessary engineering, legal and other operating costs of the district, including salaries of officers, agents and employees, and for the payment of the cost of the purchase and acquisition of all necessary property and rights of way required for any district project.

Financing

25341. The board of directors of the district shall provide for the financing of any projects to be undertaken by the district in one or more of the methods prescribed by this part.

Provision for payment for improvement

25342. Upon the award of a contract for the improvement of any project or unit thereof, the board of directors shall provide for the payment of the cost thereof unless such provision has been made prior to the award of the contract.

Levy

25343. A levy shall be made within and upon the several counties composing the district to provide for the payment of the costs and expenses of any acquisitions of property or rights of way, or improvement undertaken by the district.

Estimate

25344. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth in general terms the amount of money proposed to be raised by the levy and the project or portion thereof which is to be financed by the proposed levy. The proposed amount may be the total estimated amount payable under any contract awarded for improvement, or for any portion thereof, or for any excess of cost over the amount of any past levies already made for that purpose. There shall first be deducted from the amount of the levy any amount to be contributed thereto by the State and the balance of the levy shall be distributed among the several counties composing the district in the proportions set forth in the report of the board of directors.

Deduction

Notice of levy

25345. The resolution shall specifically set forth the sum of money levied upon each county within the district and shall briefly recite the facts requiring the levy. After the adoption of the resolution a certified copy of the same shall be forthwith transmitted to the clerks of the several boards of supervisors of the counties composing the district. The counties shall then be obligated to pay the amount of the levy unless other provisions for financing are made.

Obligation

Payment of levy

25346. The board of supervisors of each county shall, within 90 days after the resolution providing for the levy has been adopted by the board of directors, pay at least one-fifth of the total amount levied upon that county into the treasury of the district. The board of supervisors of each county is hereby authorized to and obligated to make such payment and may make payment of the entire amount of the levy made but not less than one-fifth of the total thereof. For the purpose of making the payment the board of supervisors of each county may utilize any funds of the county not otherwise allocated or appropriated, including any money received by the county from the State as the result of any tax or license upon motor vehicles or motor vehicle fuels.

Installments

25347. If the board of supervisors of any county within the district does not pay the entire amount of any levy made upon it within 90 days, the board of directors of the district shall provide for financing the balance in not to exceed four additional annual installments.

Statement

25348. The treasurer of the district shall, prior to the fifteenth day of August in each year, transmit to the board of supervisors of each county within the district a statement of the total sum to be collected within that county during

Duty of county officers

the fiscal year in behalf of the district. It shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of each county in the district, and of the other proper fiscal officers thereof, to cause the amount so certified by the district treasurer to be collected from the taxable property within the county and the total amount of such collections shall be transmitted to and deposited with the district treasurer not later than the first day of each month following the date of their collection.

When levy not needed

25349. If, upon receiving the report of the district treasurer showing the amount to be raised within the county for the current year, the board of supervisors pays that amount out of any moneys of the county available for that purpose, no levy of district taxes within that county need be made for the year covered by that payment.

Collection

25350. All district taxes shall be collected in behalf of the district by the proper county officers in the several counties in the district at the same time and in the same form and manner as county taxes, and district taxes shall become due and payable in the same time and manner as county taxes are due and payable and shall become delinquent at the same times and in the same proportionate amounts and bear the same proportionate penalties and interest after delinquency as do county taxes, and, unless expressly provided to the contrary, all laws applicable to the levy, collection and enforcement of county taxes are hereby made applicable to district taxes.

CHAPTER 16. GENERAL BOND PROVISIONS

Application

25370. The provisions of this chapter shall apply to all bonds issued under the authority of this part.

Legal investments

25371. All bonds issued by joint highway districts shall be legal investments for the funds of:

(a) Trusts.

(b) Insurance companies.

(c) Banks, both commercial and savings.

(d) Trust companies.

(e) State schools.

(f) Any other body whose funds may be invested in bonds of cities, counties, school districts or irrigation districts within the State of California.

Use as security

25372. Whenever bonds of cities, counties, school districts or irrigation districts may be used as security for the performance of any act or the deposit of any public moneys, any bonds issued by joint highway districts may be so used.

Purchase by State

25373. The State Director of Finance may purchase any bonds issued by joint highway districts and pay for them out of any surplus money in the State treasury which, in his judgment, is not required for governmental purposes prior to the maturity of such bonds. The boards of supervisors of the several counties within the district may likewise purchase such bonds with any surplus funds under their control.

Period

25374. If the report of the board of directors shows that the proposed project or any unit thereof, is estimated to cost more than one million dollars ($1,000,000), the board of directors may provide that any bonds issued to finance the same shall be extended over a period of not to exceed 15 annual installments, in which event the initial payment from each county within the district shall be not less than the sum obtained by dividing the total amount payable in each county by the number of installments in which the bonds are to be paid.

Validity of issuance

25375. The issuance of any bonds by the district shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity, validity and legal sufficiency of all proceedings, acts and determinations in any wise pertaining thereto. After the bonds are issued no assessment tax or tax or other charge levied or collected for the purpose of paying the principal or interest thereon shall be held to be invalid or illegal or set aside or refunded, by reason of any error, informality, irregularity, omission or defect in any of the proceedings, acts or determinations in any wise pertaining to the issuance or payment of the bonds. No action or proceeding shall be thereafter commenced or maintained to cancel or set aside the bonds or to prevent the payment thereof or the levy, collection or enforcement of any assessment tax, tax or other charge made for such payment.

Limitation on amount

25376. No bonds shall be issued by the district in an amount which will aggregate at any time an obligation in excess of 10 per cent of the assessed value of the aggregate total taxable property within the district as shown by the then current taxation assessment rolls of the several counties within the district.

Limitation on obligation of property

25377. The taxable property within any county shall not at any time be obligated for all joint highway district purposes, in any amount in excess of the following limitations:

(a) In counties having a total assessed value of all taxable property therein of one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) or less, not more than 3 per cent thereof.

(b) In counties having a total assessed value of all taxable property therein of more than one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), not more than 2 per cent thereof.

CHAPTER 17. REVENUE BONDS

Authority to issue

25400. The board of directors of the district may cause revenue bonds to be issued upon the security of the anticipated unpaid installments of any levies made upon the counties within the district.

Special fund

25401. All revenue bonds shall be payable out of a fund of the district designated "Joint Highway District No._____ of the State of California Revenue Bond Fund" and into which shall be paid all sums necessary for the retirement of any revenue bonds which may be issued by the district.

Denomination, maturity and interest

25402. The board of directors shall prescribe the denominations of the revenue bonds which shall mature serially in convenient amounts not necessarily equal. Revenue bonds shall bear such rate of interest not to exceed 6 per cent per annum as may be determined by the board of directors.

25403. Revenue bonds shall be in substantially the following form (filling in blanks as appropriate): Form

REVENUE BOND

Joint Highway District No._____of the State of California
$_____Bond No._____Series_____.

Under and by virtue of Part 1 of Division 16 of the Streets and Highways Code, the treasurer of Joint Highway District No _____of the State of California will pay to the bearer, out of the fund hereinafter designated, at the office of the treasurer of said district, on the_____day of_____, 19__, the sum of_____dollars, in lawful money of the United States of America, with interest thereon in like lawful money at the rate of_____per cent per annum, payable semiannually on the second day of January and the second day of July of each year from the date hereof (except the last installment thereof, which shall be payable at the maturity of this bond), upon presentation and surrender, as they respectively become due, of the proper interest coupons hereto attached, the first of which is for interest from date hereof to the next date of interest payment, and the last for interest to maturity hereof from the last preceding date of interest payment. This bond is issued under and in conformity with the provisions of the above mentioned Part 1 of Division 16 of the Streets and Highways Code, relative to the issuance of revenue bonds and is a primary obligation of the joint highway district above named.

This bond is payable out of the "Joint Highway District No. _____ of the State of California Revenue Bond Fund," in accordance with the provisions of the said Part 1 of Division 16 of the Streets and Highways Code.

It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all proceedings, acts and things required by law precedent to or in the issuance of this bond have been regularly had, done and performed, and this bond is by law made conclusive evidence thereof.

In witness whereof the board of directors of said joint highway district has caused this bond to be signed by the treasurer of said district, attested by the secretary of said board, and the official seal of said district to be affixed hereto, this_____day of_____, 19___.

(SEAL) _____
Treasurer of Joint Highway District No._____of the State of California

Attest:

Secretary of the Board of Directors.

25404. Revenue bonds shall be dated as of the date of the resolution or order of the board of directors authorizing their issuance. The board of directors may use any available moneys of the district, not already allocated to some other purpose, for Date and payment the payment of any interest or principal due or past due on any revenue bonds of the district, and may advance moneys of the district for such purposes and in the event of such advancement shall be entitled to reimbursement in the amount thereof out of any levies thereafter made or any moneys thereafter collected and applicable to the payment of such bonds.

Number

25405. Any number of series of revenue bonds may be issued under this part for any portion of a single or different projects in the district.

Signature

25406. All revenue bonds shall be signed by the treasurer of the district, attested by the secretary of the board of directors thereof and shall have the official seal of the district attached thereto. The form of the interest coupons attached to the bonds shall be determined by the treasurer subject to the approval of the board of directors. The signature on the interest coupons shall be that of the treasurer and may be either written or engraved or printed facsimile.

Interest coupons

Conditions of payment

25407. The principal and interest of all revenue bonds shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the office of the treasurer of the district issuing the same. Revenue bonds shall be serial in character and an approximately even proportion of the total amount of each issue shall be payable annually. The amount of the principal due in each annual payment excepting the last may be made to differ not more than five hundred dollars ($500) from the amount obtained by dividing the total of the principal amount due under the bonds, by the number of installments which shall not exceed four. The last installment shall be for the balance of the total principal amount not provided to be paid in the previous installments.

Sale

25408. The revenue bonds shall be issued and sold by the board of directors at such times and manner and in such amounts as may be required to meet the demands of the district as may be determined by the board of directors or they may be delivered to any contractor performing any work for the district, at par, in satisfaction of any sum due upon his contract.

Tax levy

25409. The board of directors shall levy a tax annually within the district sufficient to meet the principal and interest of all outstanding revenue bonds coming due in each fiscal year.

Determination of amount

25410. The treasurer of the district shall annually determine the amount of money necessary to be raised for the payment of principal and interest coming due each fiscal year upon any outstanding revenue bonds. The treasurer shall add to that amount a sum sufficient, in his judgment, to cover anticipated delinquencies and the resulting sum shall be levied upon all of the property taxable for county purposes, in the several counties composing the district, according to the percentages and proportions established for each county.

CHAPTER 18. FUNDING BONDS

Purpose

25430. As a separate and cumulative method of financing, the board of directors of the district may issue funding bonds to cover the costs and expenses of the whole or any part of any acquisitions of property and improvements undertaken by the district.

Provisions cumulative

25431. The provisions of this chapter relating to the issuance of funding bonds shall be cumulative and shall not affect any of the other provisions or sections of this part relative to other bonds or levies. Any number of series of funding bonds may be issued for any portion or portions of a single or different projects of the district.

Number

Resolution Contents

25432. If the board of directors propose to issue funding bonds, they shall first adopt a resolution setting forth their intention so to do, and the resolution shall also contain the following:

(a) A general description of the boundaries of the funding district to be charged with the payment of any funding bonds which are proposed to be issued. The funding district may embrace the whole or any portion of the joint highway district, and the funding district shall be divided into zones composed of the counties, or portions thereof, composing the joint highway district. It shall be a sufficient description of the boundaries of the funding district and the zones therein, if the same are clearly shown upon a map or plat attached to the resolution.

(b) A description in general terms of the location, character and cost of the acquisition of property or improvement for which it is proposed to issue the funding bonds.

(c) A statement of the proposed amount for which funding bonds are to be issued, together with a statement of the maximum time for which such bonds are proposed to be issued (which shall not exceed five years from the date of the order providing for their issuance), and the rate of interest which such bonds shall bear, not to exceed 6 per cent per annum.

(d) A statement of the percentage of the total amount of the annual sums to be levied upon the lands, exclusive of improvements, within each zone in the funding district for the purpose of retiring the principal and interest of the funding bonds. The amount to be thus levied shall not exceed the proportionate amounts chargeable against the several counties within the district as set forth in the report of the board of directors adopted pursuant to Section 25154.

(e) A statement of the time and place fixed for the hearing upon the matter of the proposed issuance of funding bonds, in the manner provided for in this resolution.

Notice

25433. Upon the adoption of the resolution of intention to issue funding bonds, the secretary shall cause a notice of the time and place of hearing to be published twice in a newspaper of general circulation published at the county seat of each county embraced within the boundaries of the proposed funding district. The newspapers in which such publication shall be made may be designated by the board of directors or, if the board does not make the designation, the secretary may do so.

Hearing

25434. The time fixed for the hearing shall not be less than 15 days after the completion of the required publication. Not less than 30 days prior to the time fixed for the hearing, a copy of the notice of the hearing shall be transmitted by the secretary of the board of directors to the several boards of supervisors of the counties comprising the district. No county or portion of a county shall be assessed within any funding district for the payment of any amount which has previously been paid by such county into the district treasury upon any amount previously levied within and upon such county.

Objections

25435. All persons interested may appear at the hearing and they may set forth in writing any objections they may have to the issuance of the funding bonds or to the boundaries of the proposed funding district or the zones therein, or to the amount of benefits to be derived by any parcel of land within the proposed funding district.

Determinations

25436. The board of directors shall hear and determine all objections presented at the hearing. The board may alter the boundaries of the proposed funding district or change the amount for which funding bonds are proposed to be issued, but it may not enlarge the boundaries of the funding district or increase the amount of bonds proposed to be issued. At the conclusion of the hearing, the board of directors shall finally determine the boundaries of the funding district and the zones therein and shall determine the amount of funding bonds to be issued, and the proportions of the bonds to be charged against each zone, which amounts shall not exceed the benefits to be derived by the lands within the funding district from the project for which the funding bonds are to be issued.

Decisions conclusive

25437. All decisions, findings and determinations of the board of directors made upon notice and hearing shall, in the absence of actual fraud, be final and conclusive upon all persons entitled to present objections at such hearing.

Bar to issuance

25438. If at the hearing, the owners of more than 25 per cent in area of the property within any proposed funding district object in writing to the issuance of funding bonds, the board of directors shall have no power to cause such funding bonds to issue.

Same

25439. Following the hearing the board of directors shall, if it determines to issue funding bonds, cause its findings in relation thereto to be transmitted to the boards of supervisors of the several counties within the district. If any board of supervisors makes objection to the issuance of the funding bonds within 35 days after receiving notice thereof, the board of directors shall have no power to cause the same to be issued, but may take new proceedings in the same manner as provided in the first instance covering an amended proposition for the issuance of funding bonds for the same or any different project or any portions thereof. If no objections are made by any board of supervisors as in this section provided, the board of directors may proceed to issue the funding bonds.

25440. Funding bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be in substantially the following form (filling in blanks as appropriate): Form

FUNDING BOND

Joint Highway District No._____of the State of California
$_____ Bond No._____ Serial_____.

Under and by virtue of Part 1 of Division 16 of the Streets and Highways Code the treasurer of Joint Highway District No._____of the State of California will pay to the bearer, out of the fund hereinafter designated, at the office of the treasurer of said district, on the_____day of_____, 19____, the sum of_____dollars, in lawful money of the United States of America, with interest thereon in like lawful money at the rate of_____per cent per annum, payable semiannually on the second day of January and the second day of July in each year from the date hereof (except the last installment thereof, which shall be payable at the maturity of this bond), upon presentation and surrender, as they respectively become due, of the proper interest coupons hereto attached, the first of which is for interest from date hereof to the next date of interest payment, and the last for interest to maturity hereof from the last preceding date of interest payment. This bond is issued under and in conformity with the provisions of the above mentioned Part 1 of Division 16 of the Streets and Highways Code, and is one of a series of bonds of like date and effect numbered from one to_____ consecutively. It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all proceedings, acts and things required by law precedent to or in the issuance of this bond have been regularly had, done and performed, and this bond is by law made conclusive evidence thereof.

This bond is payable out of the "Joint Highway District No._____of the State of California Funding Bond Redemption Fund," exclusively, as the same appears upon the books of the treasurer of said district, and in accordance with the provisions of Part 1 of Division 16 of the Streets and Highways Code special assessment taxes will be levied and collected upon the lands within Funding District No._____ in said joint highway district in an amount clearly sufficient to pay the principal and interest of said bonds as same shall become due and payable.

In witness whereof the board of directors of said district has caused this bond to be signed by the treasurer of said district attested by the secretary of said board and the official seal of said district to be affixed hereto this_____day of _____, 19_____.

Date

25441. Funding bonds shall be dated as of the date of the resolution or order of the board of directors authorizing their issuance.

Payment

25442. The board of directors may use any available moneys of the district, not already allocated to some other purpose, for the payment of any interest or principal due or past due upon any funding bonds of the district, and may advance moneys of the district for that purpose. If an advancement is made the district shall be entitled to reimbursement out of any levies thereafter made or any moneys thereafter collected and applicable to the payment of the funding bonds.

25443. All funding bonds shall be signed by the treasurer of the district, attested by the secretary, and shall have the official seal of the district affixed thereto. The form of the interest coupons attached to the funding bonds shall be determined by the treasurer subject to the approval of the board of directors. The signature on the interest coupons shall be that of the treasurer and may be either written, or an engraved or printed facsimile. The principal and interest of the funding bonds shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the office of the treasurer of the district issuing the same.

Interest coupons

How and where payable

Amount

25445. All funding bonds shall be serial in character and approximately an even proportion of the total amount of each issue shall be payable annually. The amount of the principal due in each annual payment need not be exactly the same but with respect to each installment excepting the last may be made to differ not more than five hundred dollars ($500) from the amount obtained by dividing the total of the principal amount due under the bonds, by the number of installments. The last installment shall be for the balance of the total principal amount not provided to be paid in the previous installments.

Form, rate of interest, etc

25446 The funding bonds shall be issued by the board of directors at such time and manner and in such amounts as may be required to meet the demands of the district, as may be determined by the board of directors The form, denomination, rate of interest, time, place and manner of payment and all matters relating to such issuance shall be determined by the board of directors, but the rate of interest shall not exceed 6 per cent per annum.

The funding bonds so issued may be sold in such amounts and at such times and in such manner as the board of directors may determine, or they may be delivered to any contractor performing any work for the district, at par, in satisfaction of any sum due upon his contract. Sale

25447. In each district in which funding bonds have been issued there is hereby created a special fund to be designated "Joint Highway District No ____ of the State of California Funding Bond Redemption Fund No. ____" (each such fund to be consecutively numbered within each district as created) for the discharge and payment of principal and interest on such bonds. Special fund

25448. The treasurer of the district shall annually before the fifteenth day of August transmit to the several boards of supervisors within the funding district, a statement showing the amount to be raised in such year by the levy and collection of special assessment taxes upon the lands only, exclusive of improvements, within each county which is within the funding district and subject to be taxed for the payment of principal, interest and delinquencies upon any funding bonds of the district The statement shall show the percentages of the total amount to be levied upon the lands in each county in accordance with the zones established for each such funding district. The engineer of the district shall cause to be prepared and filed in the office of the clerk of the board of supervisors of each county within the district, a map or plat showing the boundaries of the lands in each county which are within any funding district showing the boundaries of the zones therein and the percentage of the total assessment to be paid by each zone. Special assessments Statement Map

25449. The special assessment taxes levied for the payment of funding bonds shall be independent of and distinct from any other levies authorized by this part and shall be levied, collected and enforced by the proper officers of the several counties within the district, in behalf of the joint highway district and in the same manner and by the same persons and at the same time and with the same penalties and interest as are taxes for county purposes, and all laws applicable to the levy, collection and enforcement of taxes for county purposes are hereby made applicable to these special assessment taxes where such laws are not in conflict with the provisions of this part except that such special assessment taxes shall be levied and collected upon land only, exclusive of the improvements thereon. Duties of county officers

25450. It shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of each county within the district to annually cause to be levied upon the lands only, exclusive of improvements, within the county liable therefor the amounts reported to it by the treasurer of such district, which amounts shall be clearly sufficient to pay the principal and interest coming due or past due in such year upon any funding bonds of the district together with a sufficient amount to cover delinquencies. Levy

CHAPTER 19. EMERGENCY BONDS

Determination by court

25490. If a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any contract, proceeding, step or action taken, levy made, or any bonds issued under this part are void, invalid or unenforceable, or if such court shall for any reason enjoin the issuance or payment of any bonds proposed to be issued or paid under the provisions of this part the court shall also determine whether or not any improvement has been made or services rendered by any person in behalf of and for the benefit of the district under any invalid contract or proceeding or under any contract pursuant to which invalid bonds were issued or proposed to be issued, and if so what part, if any, is of a kind that the district might have lawfully authorized.

Order

25491. If the court finds that any such improvement has been made, or services rendered, or necessary rights of way or property acquired, the court shall order the board of directors of the district to take the steps authorized in this chapter for the issuance of bonds to cover the cost of the same. The board of directors of the district may also utilize the provisions of this chapter without order of court when it is necessary to correct any invalid act or proceeding which has resulted in a benefit to the district and which it might have lawfully authorized.

Purpose of chapter

25492. It is the purpose of this chapter to make the costs and expenses of all improvements made, or services rendered, and all necessary acquisitions of property or rights of way obtained, under an attempted compliance with and exercise of the powers and rights conferred by this part, payable by the property benefited or to be benefited thereby, by the issuance of bonds as provided in this chapter for the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses thereof

Report of board

25493. The board of directors shall cause a report on the bond issue proposed under this chapter to be made and filed by the district engineer or some other competent person appointed for that purpose. The report shall contain:

Contents

(a) A statement in general terms of what the proposed bond issue is to cover, together with the total amount of the same. The total amount shall not exceed the original charge made against the district for the items included, plus a reasonable interest thereon not to exceed 6 per cent per annum.

(b) A description of the lands benefited by the items for which the bonds are proposed to be issued.

(c) A description of the zones, if any, into which such district is to be divided, and a statement of the amounts (not exceeding the percentages of the total sum established for the several counties within the district under Section 25154 hereof) proposed to be made chargeable against each of such zones.

(d) A description of the bonds to be issued for the total amount set forth in the report.

Notice

25494. The report shall be filed with the secretary of the board of directors, who shall thereupon fix a time and place for hearing the report and shall give notice thereof. Notice of the hearing shall be published at least twice in one or more newspapers of general circulation selected by the secretary, from those which are published and circulated within the boundaries of the land within the district which will be benefited by the items for which the bonds are to be issued. The last publication of notice of hearing shall be not less than 20 days prior to the date set for the hearing.

Hearing

25495. At the time of the hearing, or at any time to which the hearing may be continued, any person interested may appear and be heard upon any of the matters set forth in the report. The board of directors may confirm, revise, correct or modify the report in accordance with the facts found.

Confirmation of report, etc.

25496. At the conclusion of the hearing the board shall adopt a resolution declaring its findings upon the report. When adopted the resolution shall be final and conclusive upon all persons and in all proceedings or actions as to all matters so found. If no changes are made in the report, the board shall declare that the report is confirmed and that declaration shall constitute the findings of the board.

Chapter 18 applicable

25497. The bonds issued under this chapter shall in terms and form conform substantially to the provisions contained in Chapter 18 relating to funding bonds and shall be payable in not more than five annual installments. The annual amounts required for the payment of principal and interest on any bonds issued under this chapter shall be levied and collected in the same manner as the annual amounts required for the payment of principal and interest on funding bonds.

Issuance

25498. Upon the adoption of the resolution by the board, the treasurer of the district shall immediately cause bonds to be issued in the amount and manner provided in the resolution. The bonds shall be dated as of the date of the resolution and shall be issued and delivered to the persons entitled thereto. No action or proceeding shall be commenced or maintained after 60 days from the date of their issuance to cancel or set aside the bonds or prevent the payment thereof, or the levy, collection or enforcement of any taxes, assessment taxes or other charges or levies for such payment.

Date

Cancellation

CHAPTER 20. DISSOLUTION

Resolution

25520. Upon the completion of the projects for which the district is organized and upon the payment and retirement of all outstanding bonds and obligations of the district, the district shall be dissolved by resolution of its board of directors. The secretary shall or any member of the board of directors may call a meeting for the dissolution of the district. If a meeting for dissolution is not called the board of supervisors of any county within the district may demand the calling of such meeting and the dissolution of the district. A copy of the resolution of dissolution shall be transmitted to the Secretary of State and to the boards of supervisors of the several counties composing the district.

Distribution of property

25521. Any property or money belonging to the district at the time of dissolution shall be distributed by the board of directors to the several counties composing the district in the proportions in which such counties have contributed to the expense and operation of the district.

New section

SEC. 2. Section 50005 is added to Division 50 of said code, to read:

Repeal

50005. Chapter 52 of the Statutes of 1917, at page 46, together with all acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, is repealed.

CHAPTER 285

Stats 1935, p 248, amended

An act to add Part 2, comprising Sections 26000 to 26263, inclusive, to Division 16 of the Streets and Highways Code, and to add Section 50006 to Division 50 of said code, thereby consolidating and revising the law relating to the formation, establishment and government of boulevard districts, and the construction, acquisition, maintenance, control and use of boulevards by such districts, and providing for the voting, issuing and selling of bonds and the levying of taxes to finance such boulevards.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New part

SECTION 1. Part 2, comprising Sections 26000 to 26263, inclusive, is added to Division 16 of the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

PART 2. BOULEVARD DISTRICTS

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

"District"

26000. "District," means a boulevard district unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

"Commission"

26001. "Commission," means the boulevard commission unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

"Boulevard"

26002. "Boulevard," means a highway not less than 30 and not more than 100 feet in width and upon, along, and over the portion or portions of which where the same is less than 60 feet in width no railroad, electric road, or street railroad shall, except upon a permit granted therefor by the board or body in control of such boulevard evidenced by an order entered in its minutes, be constructed or operated; and any easements granted or condemned for the building of said boulevard shall be so granted or condemned. This section does not prevent or limit the use of vehicles across the boulevard.

Elections

26003. Except as otherwise provided in this part, all elections conducted in the district shall be conducted as nearly as practicable in accordance with the general election laws of the State. The provisions of such election laws relating to the form of ballots and the making of nominations and the selection or appointment of officers of election, shall not apply to district elections.

No irregularity or informality in conducting any district election which does not substantially affect adversely the legal rights of any person who is entitled to vote at that election shall invalidate or affect the election.

Voters

26004. At each election held pursuant to this part, every registered voter residing in the district as proposed or established, who would be entitled on the date of the election to vote in the district at a general election, is entitled to vote.

CHAPTER 2. FORMATION PETITION

Authority and designation

26020. A boulevard district may be formed from any portion of a county not already contained in a boulevard district. When formed, the district shall be known and designated as _____ boulevard district (using the name of the district) of_____ county (using the name of the county in which the district is located).

Petition

26021. A petition for the formation of a district may be presented to the board of supervisors of the county in which the district is proposed to be formed. The petition shall be signed by not less than 10 freeholders, owning land within the proposed district and shall contain:

(a) The name of the proposed district.

(b) The boundaries of the proposed district, and an estimate of the number of inhabitants residing within those boundaries.

(c) An estimate of the number of acres contained within the boundaries of the proposed district and the assessed value of the land and of the improvements.

(d) A request that an election be called within the proposed district for the purpose of determining whether or not a district shall be formed for the purpose of constructing and maintaining a boulevard.

Bond

26022. At the time of the filing of the petition for the formation of the district the petitioners shall file a bond with the board of supervisors for not more than three hundred dollars ($300), with two sufficient sureties, approved by the board who shall each qualify in double the amount of the bond, upon the condition that they will pay the expense and cost of the election in an amount not exceeding the amount of the bond if the proposition to organize the district is defeated.

Presentation

26023. The petition shall be presented at a regular meeting of the board of supervisors which shall thereupon fix a time, not less than 20 nor more than 60 days after the date of presentation, for hearing the petition.

Notice of hearing

26024. The board of supervisors shall publish a notice of the fact that the petition has been filed and refer to it on file with the clerk of the board of supervisors for further particulars. The notice shall give the time and place at which the petition shall be heard, and direct all parties interested to appear at that time and place, and show cause, if any they have, why the petition should not be granted.

Publication

26025. The notice shall be published at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published and circulated in the proposed district. If no newspaper is published in the proposed district, the notice shall be published in a newspaper published and circulated at the county seat of the county in which the proposed district is located.

Hearing

26026. Upon the day specified, the board of supervisors shall hear the petition and any objections thereto. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time, for not more than 60 days in all.

CHAPTER 3. ESTABLISHING DISTRICT BOUNDARIES

Exclusion

26040. In fixing the final boundaries of the district the board of supervisors may exclude any lands which it finds have been improperly included.

Inclusion of adjacent lands

26041. The board of supervisors may include any lands adjacent to those described in the petition, either on:

(a) Petition of the owners of the adjacent lands; or

(b) Upon notice of its intention to include the adjacent lands within the district.

If the lands are included upon notice, the notice shall be published in the same manner and for the same time as the original notice of hearing.

Notice of intention to include

26042. The notice of intention to include adjacent lands shall refer to the petition for the formation of the district on file with the board of supervisors, shall describe the adjacent territory intended to be included within the proposed boundaries of the proposed district and direct all persons interested to appear at a specified time and place and show cause if any there be why the described lands should not be included within the district.

Establishment of boundaries

26043. Upon the petition and evidence produced at the hearings the board of supervisors shall determine and fix the boundaries of the district and shall, by order entered in its minutes, define and establish such boundaries.

CHAPTER 4. CALLING AND CONDUCTING ELECTIONS

Order of board of supervisors

26060. Within 30 days after the establishment of the boundaries of the district, the board of supervisors shall, by order, call an election to be held in the proposed district for the purpose of determining whether or not the district shall be formed.

The order shall:

(a) Fix the day of the election, which shall be within 60 days after the date of the order.

(b) Show the boundaries of the proposed district.

(c) State that at the election one member of the commission will be voted for.

This order shall be entered in the minutes of the board and shall be conclusive evidence of:

(a) The due presentation of a proper petition.

(b) The fact that each of the petitioners was, at the time of the signing and presentation of the petition, a freeholder owning land within the proposed district.

(c) The fact that all other steps preliminary to the making of the order, including the hearing of the petition and establishment of the boundaries of the district, have been properly taken.

Notice of election

26061. Notice of the election shall be given by posting a copy of the order for three successive weeks prior to the election, in three public places within the proposed district, and by publication of a copy of the order at least once a week for three successive weeks prior to the election in a newspaper published in the proposed district, if there be one, and if not, in a newspaper published at the county seat of the county in which the district is located.

Polling places and officers

26062. At least 15 days prior to the election, the board of supervisors shall select one or more polling places within the proposed district, and make all suitable arrangements for the holding of the election. It shall select and appoint from among the qualified electors of the proposed district one inspector and two judges of election in each polling place, who shall constitute the officers of the election and the election board. If no officers are so appointed or if any officer appointed does not attend at the opening of the polls on the morning of the election, the electors present may appoint substitutes to fill the election board.

Election of member

26063. At the election there shall be elected one member of the commission, whose term of office shall be for four years and until the election, or appointment, and qualification of his successor.

Ballot

26064. The ballot shall contain the words "Boulevard District—Yes," and "Boulevard District—No," and shall also make provision for voting for one member of the commission.

Canvass

26065. The officers of election shall make a return of the election to the board of supervisors, which shall canvass the returns as provided by law. If a majority of the votes cast at the election are in favor of creating the district the board of supervisors shall make and enter in its minutes an order declaring that the district of the name, and with the boundaries theretofore established (setting forth the boundaries), has been duly created, and shall declare the person receiving the highest number of votes for member of the commission, duly elected.

Conclusiveness

The order shall be conclusive evidence of the fact and of the regularity of all prior proceedings provided for by this part, and of the existence of, and the validity of the creation of, the district.

Vote against creation

26066. If a majority of the votes cast are against the creation of the district, the board of supervisors shall by order entered in its minutes so declare, and no other proceeding shall be taken in relation thereto until the expiration of one year from the date of the presentation to the board of supervisors of the petition pursuant to which the election was called.

CHAPTER 5. SELECTION OF THE BOULEVARD COMMISSION

Number and qualifications

26080. The commission shall consist of the chairman of the board of supervisors and the county surveyor, or the county engineer, as the case may be, of the county in which the district is situated, who shall be ex officio members, and a third member elected pursuant to Chapter 4 of this part. The elected member shall have been a bona fide resident and freeholder within the boundaries of the district for at least one year prior to his election.

Vacancies

26081. Any vacancy in the membership of the commission shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term by the board of supervisors from among the bona fide resident freeholders within the district who shall have been resident freeholders for at least one year prior to their appointment. No member of the board of supervisors, except the chairman thereof, shall be eligible to hold office on the commission or to hold any position in connection therewith.

Replacement of county surveyor or engineer

26082. Upon the receipt of a petition in writing, signed by at least 25 per cent in number of the registered voters residing within the district, the State Highway Commission shall declare the position on the commission theretofore held by the county surveyor, or county engineer, as the case may be, vacant, and nominate and appoint a person to fill the vacancy who is a civil engineer, and who, in the opinion of the State Highway Commission, is qualified to serve on the commission.

Member appointed by State Highway Commission

26083. The member appointed by the State Highway Commission shall hold office for the term of four years from and after his appointment, and until the appointment and qualification of his successor. All appointments to fill any vacancy in the position of that member either during or at the expiration of his term of office shall be made by the State Highway Commission upon the receipt of written notice from the commission, of the vacancy. No petition shall be necessary to authorize the appointment to fill the vacancy.

Members' bonds

26084. Each member of the commission shall give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) which has been approved by a judge of the superior court of the county in which the district is located, to the district for the faithful performance of his duties. The members of the commission shall receive no compensation whatever either for general or special services for or on behalf of the district.

Time of election

26085. An election shall be held on the first Monday after the first Tuesday in March in the fourth year after the formation of the district, and in every fourth year thereafter, for the purpose of electing a member to succeed the elected member of the commission whose term shall expire during that year.

Notice

26086. At least 20 days before the day of the election the commission shall post a notice of the election in three public places in the district. The notice shall specify the time and place of election, the hours during which the polls will be kept open, and the officer to be elected.

Polling places and officers

26087. The commission shall select one or more polling places within the district; shall appoint one inspector and two judges of election in each polling place, and make all necessary and proper arrangements for holding the election. The election officers shall constitute the election board. If no election officers are appointed by the commission, or if any of those appointed are not present at the time of the opening of the polls, the electors present may appoint substitutes to fill the election board who shall conduct the election as if they had been appointed by the commission and were present.

Canvass

26088. The election board shall publicly canvass the votes immediately after the closing of the polls, and shall make return of the election within 24 hours thereafter to the board of supervisors. The board of supervisors at its first meeting after receiving the returns shall canvass the same and shall make, sign and deliver a certificate of election to the person elected.

Certificate of election

Chapter 6. Powers and Duties of the Commission

Organization

26110. The commission shall be the governing body of the district, and shall exercise all of the powers which are vested in the district. At its first meeting or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, the commission shall choose one of its members as president, and another of its members as secretary. All written documents shall be signed in the name of the district by the president of the commission, and countersigned by the secretary.

Meetings

26111. The commission shall hold all meetings in the district at an appointed place, at such times as may be convenient. If either the president or the secretary are absent or unable to act, the commission shall, by order entered upon its minutes, choose from its members a president pro tempore, or secretary pro tempore, as the case may be.

Quorum

26112. A majority of the members of the commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and every decision of the majority made when duly assembled, is valid as an act of the commission.

Powers

26113. The district may use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the commission and may:

(a) Sue and be sued in its own name.

(b) Lay out, establish, construct, acquire and maintain boulevards within the district, and for this purpose acquire by purchase, gift, devise, condemnation proceedings or otherwise, and pay for and hold, real and personal property and rights of way within the district.

Any easement procured for the building of a boulevard, whether procured by grant or condemnation, shall permit the use of the boulevard by a railroad, electric road, or street railroad pursuant to this part.

(c) Make and accept all contracts, deeds, releases and documents of any kind which shall be necessary or proper to the exercise of any of the powers of the district.

(d) Direct the payment of all lawful claims and demands against the district.

(e) Issue bonds as hereinafter provided, and provide for their payment.

(f) When directed to do so by a vote of the people of the district, have sufficient taxes levied for the construction, maintenance or repair of district boulevards, and the payment of all indebtedness and running expenses of the district.

(g) Employ all necessary engineers, surveyors, agents and workmen to do the work on or in connection with the boulevards in the district.

(h) Do any and all things necessary or proper for the complete exercise of its powers and the accomplishment of the purposes for which it was formed.

Constructing of boulevards, etc

26114. For the purposes of this part the district may take over, control, operate, and use in whole or in part any county road or public highway and may construct any boulevard in whole or in part, over, along, or upon all or any part of any county road or public highway. District funds may be expended in the improvement of such road or highway to conform to the width and general character of the balance of the boulevard.

Exercise of powers of Department of Public Works

26115. At its option, the commission may make application to the State Department of Public Works for the exercise by that department of any powers, duties or authority which that department may have with respect to the ownership, construction, maintenance or improvement of any boulevard pursuant to this part, including the preparation of plans, specifications and estimates and the handling and expenditure of district moneys for such construction, maintenance or improvement. Any such application to the Department of Public Works shall be made in accordance with the provisions of law defining the powers, duties or privileges of that department in relation to such matters, and upon the granting of any such application by the department, the commission shall have full power to carry out the terms of the application on its part.

CHAPTER 7. PRELIMINARY PLANS AND SURVEYS

Engineers to prepare

26130. Before the construction of any boulevard and before the calling of any election for the issuance of bonds, the commission shall employ one or more engineers who shall make all necessary surveys, prepare maps showing the location, cross-section and profile of the proposed boulevard. The engineer shall also prepare specifications for the construction of the boulevard and estimates of the cost of construction and of acquiring rights of way.

Approval by commission

These surveys, maps, specifications and estimates shall, upon approval by the commission, be formally adopted by order entered upon its minutes and filed with its secretary and when so adopted shall constitute the plan of the district for the proposed boulevard. The commission may, at its option, direct the county surveyor, or county engineer, as the case may be, to do any of the engineering work.

Allowance of expense

26131. The expense of making the preliminary surveys may be allowed by the board of supervisors out of the county general fund or the general county road fund upon claims regularly presented and allowed in the manner provided by law.

Chapter 8. Bids and Award of Contract

Publication of notice

26140. The commission shall, pursuant to an order entered in its minutes, advertise for bids for the construction of the boulevard, either as a whole or in sections as it may see fit, in accordance with the plan theretofore adopted and filed, by publishing a notice calling for bids at least once a week for two successive weeks in a weekly newspaper published within the district if there is such a newspaper published therein, otherwise in a newspaper published at the county seat of the county in which the district is located. The notice shall refer to the order and plan for further particulars. If the commission elects to receive separate bids for the construction of sections of the boulevard, the order shall describe the sections for which separate bids are desired.

The commission may advertise at the same time and in the same notice both for bids for the construction of the boulevard as a whole and for bids for the construction of separate sections.

Letting of contract, etc

26141. Every contract for the construction of the boulevard or for any section, if it is to be constructed in sections, shall be let, after advertisement, to the lowest responsible bidder, or the commission shall reject all bids for the construction of the boulevard or for any section and may readvertise for bids for doing the work in the same manner and for the same time as bids were originally called for.

Bond

26142. Before the making of any contract the bidder shall give a bond to the district for the faithful performance of his contract, which shall be signed by the bidder and sureties satisfactory to the commission in an amount equal to at least 50 per cent of the amount of the contract price.

Approval or rejection by electors

26143. The contract shall be executed on behalf of the district by the commission, subject to approval or rejection by the electors of the district, expressed at an election called for the purpose of issuing bonds for the payment of the contract. If the electors fail to approve the bond issue, the contract shall be void and the commission shall immediately return the bond to the contractor.

Contracts under $1000

26144. If the cost of any construction work on the boulevard does not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) the commission may make contracts therefor without advertisement or it may do the work without letting any contract.

Maintenance

26145. The commission may do any or all maintenance or repair work upon the boulevard, either with or without contract, and with or without advertising for bids for contracts unless the cost of the work exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000), in which event it shall only be done under contract after advertising for bids in the same manner as provided for advertising for bids and letting contracts for construction work.

Employees

26146. The commission may hire all necessary engineers, inspectors and superintendents to supervise the performance of contracts entered into by the commission, or to have charge of doing all work done without contract.

Chapter 9. Approval of Construction Plans

Election on bond issue

26160. At any time after the adoption of a plan for a boulevard or the letting of a contract for the construction of the whole or any portion of any boulevard, the commission may by order entered in its minutes call an election for the purpose of determining whether bonds shall be issued for the acquisition of rights of way for, and the construction of, such boulevard, or for the payment of such contract.

Order

26161. The order shall fix the day of the election, shall specify the amount of the bond issue, and shall state in general terms that the money raised from the sale of the bonds shall be used for the acquisition of rights of way for, and the construction of, boulevards in the district.

If the election is called for the payment of a contract already entered into by the commission, the order shall state the terms of the contract in such manner as will advise the electors of its contents. Any money raised by means of a bond issue which remains on hand after the acquisition of rights of way and the construction have been completed, shall be expended in the betterment and maintenance of the boulevard.

Notice

26162. Notice of the election shall be given in the manner and for the time provided for in Section 26061.

Polling places

26163. At any time prior to the day fixed for the election the commission shall select one or more polling places within the district, and appoint from among the qualified electors

Officers

within the district, one inspector, and two judges for each polling place who shall constitute the officers of the election and the election board, and shall make all other necessary and proper arrangements for holding the election. The ballots shall contain the words "Bonds, Yes" and "Bonds, No."

Ballots

Canvass

26164. After the vote has been counted and the result announced by the election officers the ballots shall be sealed up and delivered to the secretary of the commission with the election returns. The commission shall, at its next meeting, canvass the returns and enter the result upon its minutes.

This entry in the minutes is conclusive evidence of the fact and regularity of all prior proceedings required by this part and of the facts stated in the entry.

Vote

26165. If, at the election, two-thirds of the votes cast are in favor of the issuance of bonds, the commission is authorized to issue and sell the bonds as proposed in the order calling the election. If the result of the election is against the issuance of bonds no other election upon the same question shall be called or held for one year after such election.

Taxation

26166. A boulevard may be constructed with money raised by taxation instead of a bond issue if authorized by a majority of the votes cast at an election called for the purpose of determining if the boulevard shall be so constructed.

Elections to authorize the construction of boulevards with money raised by taxation shall be called and held in the same manner as is provided for bond elections.

Chapter 10. The Bond Issue

Denominations

26180. All bonds shall be issued in such denominations as the commission may determine, except that they shall not be less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

How and where payable

Interest

When payable

26181. All bonds shall be payable in lawful money of the United States at the office of the county treasurer of the county in which the district is situated, and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed 6 per cent per annum which shall be payable semiannually. Not less than one-thirtieth part of the total issue of bonds shall be payable each year, commencing not more than five years after the date of the bond issue.

Signing and serialization

26182. The bonds shall be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of the commission. They shall be numbered consecutively, in the order of their maturity, and shall have coupons for interest attached, attested by the facsimile signature of the secretary of the commission.

Sale

26183 The bonds may be sold by the commission in such manner and in such quantities as it may determine. However no bond may be sold for less than its face value.

Boulevard fund

26184. The proceeds of the sale of bonds shall be deposited with the county treasurer and shall be placed by him in a fund in the county treasury to be called the boulevard fund of --------boulevard district (naming it). The money in the fund shall be used for the purposes indicated in the order calling the election at which the issuance of the bonds was authorized.

Chapter 11. Levy and Collection of Taxes

Estimate of amount needed

26200. At or before the first meeting of the board of supervisors in September of each year, the commission shall furnish the board of supervisors and the auditor of the county in which the district is situated, an estimate in writing of the amount of money needed for the purposes of the district for the ensuing fiscal year. The amount shall be sufficient to pay:

(a) The interest on all outstanding bonds of the district which will become due during the ensuing fiscal year.

(b) The principal of all outstanding bonds of the district which will mature during the ensuing fiscal year.

(c) The estimated cost of repairs and maintenance of the boulevard, and the running expenses of the district.

Annual levy

26201. Annually, at the time of levying county taxes, the board of supervisors shall levy a tax to be known as the "_____(name of district) boulevard district tax," sufficient to raise the amount estimated by the commission to be necessary for the purposes of the district for the ensuing fiscal year. The board of supervisors shall determine the rate of the tax by deducting 15 per cent for anticipated delinquencies from the total assessed value of the real property within the district, as it appears on the assessment roll of the county, and dividing the sum required to be raised, by the remainder of the total assessed value.

Determination of rate

Computation

26202. The tax so levied shall be computed and entered on the assessment roll by the county auditor, and if the board of supervisors fails to levy the tax the auditor shall do so.

Collection

The tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as county taxes, and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of the district.

County tax laws

The provisions of law prescribing the manner of levying and collecting county taxes and the duties of the several county officers with respect to taxation are, so far as they are not in conflict with this part, applicable to taxation under this part. Such officers shall be liable upon their several official bonds for the faithful discharge of the duties imposed upon them by this part.

Ownership of funds

26203. All money raised by taxation which is authorized by this part shall belong to the district.

CHAPTER 12. COUNTY CONTRIBUTIONS

County contributions

26220. The board of supervisors shall set apart and turn over to the commission out of the general fund of the county 25 per cent of the cost of acquiring the rights of way for, and construction of, the boulevard and 25 per cent of the cost of maintaining and repairing the boulevard. All money so set apart and turned over to the commission shall be used exclusively for the purposes for which it was so set apart and turned over.

Money raised for district

The board of supervisors shall set apart and use for road work in the district all moneys raised in the district by the county for road purposes.

CHAPTER 13. DISTRICT FUNDS

Deposit in county treasury

26221. The treasury of the county in which the district is situated shall be the depository for the funds of the district. The county treasurer shall receive and receipt for the funds of the district, and shall place all such funds to the credit of the district. He shall be responsible upon his official bond for their safekeeping and proper disbursement.

Funds established

26222. The following funds are hereby established in the county treasury to which the money belonging to the district, and raised by taxation shall be apportioned by the treasurer:

(a) Bond fund.

(b) Construction and maintenance fund.

(c) District expense fund.

Payments

The treasurer shall pay out district funds only upon warrants of the commission, signed by the president and attested by the secretary, except that all bonds and coupons shall be paid on presentation by the county treasurer out of the bond fund without warrant.

Treasurer's report

Upon request of the commission or its secretary, the treasurer shall report in writing to the commission the amount of money in the various funds. the amount of receipts since his last report and the amounts paid out.

CHAPTER 14. TRANSFER OF DISTRICT BOULEVARDS

Transfer to county

26230. After any boulevard has been completely constructed the commission may, at its option, convey all the right, title and interest of the district in and to that boulevard to the county within which the district is situated, if the board of supervisors of the county consents to and accepts the conveyance and agrees to maintain the boulevard as a boulevard and as part of the county highway system. All boulevards so conveyed shall be held by the county as county boulevards without any further liability or responsibility on the part of the district. No such conveyance shall affect the liability of the district for, or any bonds previously issued by the district.

CHAPTER 15. DISSOLUTION

Election

26240. Whenever it shall deem it advisable, the commission shall, by resolution, order that an election be held in the district upon the question of dissolution of the district. The election shall be called and conducted in the same manner as other elections of the district, and if two-thirds of the electors of the district vote in favor of dissolution, the district shall be dissolved.

Distribution of property

26241. Upon dissolution, any property in unincorporated territory which may have been acquired by the district shall vest in the county, and any property within the boundaries of an incorporated city shall vest in the city.

Outstanding debts

26242. If at the time of the election to dissolve the district there is outstanding any bonded indebtedness of the district, the vote to dissolve shall dissolve the district for all purposes except the levy and collection of taxes for the payment of that outstanding indebtedness.

From the time of dissolution until the bonded indebtedness together with the interest thereon is fully paid, the board of supervisors of the county shall constitute ex officio the boulevard commission of the district, and shall levy such taxes and perform such other acts as may be necessary to raise money for the payment of the outstanding indebtedness of the district.

CHAPTER 16. DETERMINATION OF LEGALITY OF THE DISTRICT

Suit

26260. Any district, in order to determine the legality of its existence, may institute a proceeding in the superior court of the county of its formation.

Complaint

26261. The proceeding is instituted by filing with the county clerk a complaint setting forth:

(a) The name of the district.

(b) Its exterior boundaries.

(c) The date of its organization.

(d) A prayer that the district be adjudged legally formed under this part.

Summons

26262. The summons shall be addressed generally to all persons interested in the district or in any of the lands contained in the district, and shall be served by publishing a copy once a week for four weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county.

Answer

26263. Within 30 days after the last publication of summons any person interested may appear and answer the complaint. The answer shall set forth the facts relied upon to show the invalidity of the district. If no answer is filed within the time allowed, the court shall render judgment as prayed for in the complaint. If an answer is filed the court shall proceed as in other civil cases. The proceeding is a proceeding in rem and the judgment rendered is conclusive against all persons who could have appeared in the action, and against the State of California.

Judgment

New section

SEC. 2. Section 50006 is added to Division 50 of said code, to read:

Repeals

50006. Chapter 737 of the Statutes of 1911, at page 1425, together with all acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, is repealed.

CHAPTER 286

An act to add Part 3, comprising Sections 27000 to 27325, inclusive, to Division 16 of the Streets and Highways Code, and to add Section 50007 to Division 50 of said code, thereby consolidating and revising the law relating to the incorporation, organization and management of bridge and highway districts and to provide for the acquisition and construction by said districts of highways, bridges and approaches thereto, and for the acquisition of all property necessary therefor, and also provide for the issuance and payment of bonds by said districts, for the levying of taxes and the collection of tolls by said districts and for the annexation of additional territory thereto.

Stats. 1935, p. 248, amended

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Part 3, comprising Sections 27000 to 27325, inclusive, is added to Division 16 of the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

New part

PART 3. BRIDGE AND HIGHWAY DISTRICTS

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Short title

27000. This part may be cited as the Bridge and Highway District Act.

"District"

27001. As used in this chapter "District" means a bridge and highway district unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

"Board"

27002. As used in this chapter "Board" means the board of directors of the district unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

"Contiguous counties"

27003. As used in this chapter, "Contiguous counties" include those counties separated by any of the waters of this State.

"Tolls"

27004. As used in this chapter, "Tolls" include tolls, charges, rentals, rates, traffic charges and other rates of income for the use of the facilities for travel constructed by the district.

Registrar of voters

27005. In any county having a registrar of voters, the powers conferred and the duties imposed by this part upon the county clerk in relation to matters of election and polling places, shall be exercised and performed by the registrar of voters.

General election laws

27006. Except as otherwise provided in this part, all elections held by the district shall be conducted as nearly as practicable in accordance with the general election laws of the State.

Irregularity in election

27007. No irregularity or informality in conducting any district election which has been otherwise fairly conducted shall invalidate or affect the election.

CHAPTER 2. ORDINANCE OF INTENTION

Authority

27020. A bridge and highway district may be organized and incorporated in accordance with this part. When so incorporated it shall be entitled to exercise the powers expressly or impliedly conferred upon it by this part.

Composition

27021. A district may consist of part or all of one or more contiguous counties.

Ordinance:

27022. Proceedings for the incorporation of a district may be instituted by the adoption of an ordinance by the board of supervisors of each county desiring to form a district or by the electors of each such county under the provisions of law applicable to passage of ordinances by initiative declaring that the county, or part of the county, intends to unite with such other counties as may adopt like ordinances to form the district.

General statement

The ordinance need not name the counties to be included in the district, and a general statement in the ordinance that the county adopting it intends to unite with any other counties which may adopt like ordinances to form the district, shall be sufficient.

Petition

27023. The ordinance of intention shall provide that a petition for the formation of the district be circulated, and the board of supervisors shall, by resolution name and appoint persons to circulate and secure signatures for the petition.

Name

27024. The ordinance of intention may also contain a distinctive corporate name for the proposed district.

Adoption

27025. The ordinance of intention may be adopted by the board of supervisors at any time after application shall be made to it for that purpose. If the board of supervisors neglects to act upon the application for the adoption of the ordinance for a period of 60 days after it is submitted to it, the ordinance may be submitted to the electors of the county under the provisions of the initiative applicable to ordinances generally in the county.

Referendum

27026. If the ordinance is adopted by the board of supervisors, it shall be subject to the referendum provisions applicable to ordinances generally in the county.

CHAPTER 3. PROCEEDING BY PETITION

Contents of petition

27040. The petition for the formation of the district shall give the name of the district, which shall be the legal name under which the district shall be known, and shall set forth the extent of the proposed district, either by describing its exterior boundaries, or by naming the counties proposed to be included in it and shall contain a prayer that the proposed district be incorporated under the provisions of this part.

Description of part of county

27041. If only part of any county is proposed to be included in the district, the extent of the part of the county included may be indicated by naming the county and excepting therefrom some administrative or governmental subdivisions thereof, such as townships, school districts or other similar subdivisions, or the excluded portion may be described by its boundaries. In any description of included or excluded territory, reference to recorded instruments may be made for the purpose of defining boundaries.

Ordinance attached

27042. Attached to each copy of the petition shall be a copy of the ordinance providing for its circulation.

Circulation and signatures

27043. The petition circulated in each county may consist of any number of separate copies of the original instrument and shall be signed by voters residing within the boundaries of the county or portion of the county proposed to be included in the district equal in number to at least 10 per cent of the number of voters in the county or portion thereof from which the petition is presented who voted for Governor of this State at the last general election at which a Governor was elected prior to the presentation of the petition.

Verification

27044. The copies of the petition from each county shall be grouped or fastened together and submitted to the county clerk of that county for examination and verification. The county clerk shall have 10 days' time for the examination of the copies of the petition left with him for verification. Within that period of time he shall verify each of the signatures on the copies of the petition left with him, attach thereto his certificate that the copies of the petition have been signed by the requisite number of registered voters and forward the copies of the petition with his certificate attached to the Secretary of State.

Additional signatures

27045. If the county clerk finds that the copies of the petition are not signed by the requisite number of registered voters residing within his county he shall certify to the number of registered voters required to make the petition sufficient. Within 20 days from the date of such certificate, copies of the petition containing additional signatures secured either by the same persons theretofore appointed to secure signatures, or by other persons appointed by the board of supervisors for that purpose may be filed with the county clerk.

Verification of additional signatures

27046. The county clerk shall within 10 days after the filing of the supplemental copies of the petition examine and verify each of the signatures thereon and certify to the result of his examination as he did in connection with the original copies of the petition.

Certification to Secretary of State

27047. If the petition as supplemented contains a sufficient number of signatures the county clerk shall present it with his certificate to that effect attached to the Secretary of State without delay.

Certification and filing

27048. If the certificate of the county clerk shows that any petition as originally filed or as supplemented is insufficient he shall so certify and the petition with his certificate attached shall be filed by him with the Secretary of State and kept by the Secretary of State as a public record, without prejudice however, to the filing of a new petition to the same effect.

CHAPTER 4. PROCEEDING BY ELECTION

Election in lieu of petition

27060. The board of supervisors of any county may, instead of proceeding by petition, call a special election for the purpose of submitting the question of the inclusion of the county, or that part of the county which is proposed to be included, in the district, to the electors of the county, or to the electors of that portion of the county proposed to be included in the district.

Majority vote

27061. If a majority of the registered voters voting at the election vote in favor of including the county or a specified part thereof in the district, the county or the part thereof approved for inclusion in the district, shall be included therein.

Election laws

27062. The election shall be called and held in accordance with the general provisions of the election laws governing the calling and holding of special elections in counties.

Certification of results

27063. The county clerk shall certify the results of the election to the Secretary of State together with a copy of the action of the board of supervisors calling the election.

CHAPTER 5. EXCLUSION OF COUNTIES PROPOSED FOR INCLUSION IN THE DISTRICT

Failure to adopt ordinance of intention to unite

27080. If, within 120 days after application is made to it the board of supervisors of any county named in the petitions from other counties engaged in the formation of the district fails to adopt an ordinance of intention to unite with the other counties in the formation of the district, and no proceedings for the adoption of such an ordinance under the provisions of law relating to the initiative are on file with the county clerk, the clerk shall upon receipt of an affidavit of an elector of the county, setting forth: (a) The date the original application was made to the board of supervisors and (b) the failure of that body to act thereon for 60 days thereafter, issue his certificate to the Secretary of State certifying that on the date of the issuing thereof no proceedings have been filed in his office to submit such ordinance to the electors under the provisions applicable to the initiative. The clerk shall immediately transmit the certificate and affidavit to the Secretary of State.

Exclusion by Secretary of State

27081. The Secretary of State shall file the affidavit with the certificate attached and he shall exclude the county from which the affidavit and certificate have been received from the proposed district in the same manner as if the county had been excluded by order of the superior court.

Rejection by voters

27082. If an ordinance declaring it to be the intention of a county to become part of the district has been submitted to the people and has failed of adoption, that fact shall be certified to the Secretary of State by the county clerk, and that county shall be excluded from the district.

27083. If a county which is excluded because no ordinance of intention is adopted by it, separates another county, from which sufficient petitions have been received to become a part of the district, from the remainder of the counties of the proposed district, the county thus separated shall not be excluded from the district but shall be included therein even though it is not contiguous to the other counties composing the district. Noncontiguous counties

CHAPTER 6. INCORPORATION OF THE DISTRICT

27100. When all of the petitions, or certifications of the result of elections have been received from the county clerks of the counties having any portion of their territory within the boundaries of the proposed district the Secretary of State shall publish the text of the petition, together with a notice fixing the time within which protests against the inclusion of property within the proposed district may be filed. Publication of petition; Notice of time for protest

27101. The petition and notice shall be published for at least three weeks prior to the last day in which protests may be filed in at least one and not to exceed three newspapers printed and published in each of the counties from which petitions have been presented. Length of publication

27102. Neither the names attached to the petition, nor the certificates of any of the county clerks, need be published with the petition. It shall be sufficient to state that the petition has been signed by a certain number of electors, naming it, and duly verified by the county clerk of the county in which the petition was circulated. Sufficiency of publication

27103. Any owner of property which is subject to taxation within the boundaries of the proposed district may, within the time specified, protest against the formation of the district. Protest

The protest shall be in writing and shall be filed with the Secretary of State. The protest shall contain:

(a) The name and address of the person protesting and the name and address of his attorney, if he has one.

(b) The grounds upon which the protestant claims that his property will not be benefited by the formation of the proposed district.

27104. The Secretary of State shall attach the protests which he receives from each county to the petition filed from that particular county, and forward the petition with the protests attached to the superior court of that county. The superior court in each county shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the protests so received. The clerk of the court shall set the protests for hearing, and give notice thereof in writing to the protestants, and to their attorneys if they have any, at least 10 days before the date set for the hearing. Court hearing

27105. At the time specified in the notice, or at such other time to which the said hearing may be continued, the superior court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters urged by the protestants against the formation of the Jurisdiction of court proposed district, or against the inclusion of their lands therein.

Exclusion by court

27106. The superior court shall have jurisdiction to exclude any lands from the proposed district, together with any other lands contiguous to the excluded lands, and contiguous to the exterior boundaries of the proposed district which are similarly situated to the lands of the protestants, to the end that isolated tracts may not be excluded from the district without also rectifying the boundaries thereof so that the district when finally formed shall be compact, continuous and without tracts of land excluded therefrom which are totally surrounded by other lands which are left within the district.

Judgment final

27107. The judgment of the superior court shall not be appealable, and all questions of fact therein contained shall be final and conclusive.

Writ of review

27108. The judgment shall only be subject to review by the Supreme Court of this State, upon a writ of review issued out of that court in such cases as writs of review are now permissible against superior courts.

Proceedings for a writ of review may only be taken within 10 days after the entry of the judgment in the superior court and if not so taken all such judgments of the superior court shall become final.

Certification of judgment

27109. After the judgment of the court has become final the county clerk shall certify the judgment together with the petition and the protests which he received, to the Secretary of State.

Certificate of incorporation

27110. When the results of the final judgments upon all protests have been certified to the Secretary of State, he shall issue his certificate of incorporation declaring the district with the boundaries as finally established to be duly incorporated. He shall file the original certificate of incorporation in his office, and have a certified copy of the certificate recorded in the office of the county recorder of each of the counties having any territory within the boundaries of the district.

Establishment of district

27111. Upon the issuance of the certificate of incorporation the district shall come into existence and shall have all the rights, powers and privileges expressly or impliedly conferred upon it by this part.

Sufficiency not questionable

27112. After the Secretary of State has issued his certificate of incorporation of the district, the sufficiency of any petition shall not be subject to judicial review or be otherwise questioned.

Informality

27113. No informality in any proceeding not substantially affecting adversely the legal rights of any person shall invalidate the incorporation of any district.

Limitation on proceedings

All proceedings to contest the validity of the incorporation of any district may only be commenced within three months from the date of the issuance of the certificate of incorporation. If no such proceedings are commenced within the time allowed, the incorporation of the district, and all proceedings in connection therewith, shall be valid and incontestable.

Chapter 7. Appointment and Tenure of the Board of Directors

Notice of incorporation

27120. Within five days after the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the Secretary of State shall notify the boards of supervisors of each of the counties in which any portion of the territory of the district is located, of the incorporation of the district.

Appointment

27121. Within 30 days after the receipt of the notice of incorporation of the district each of the boards of supervisors so notified shall appoint the persons to represent the county on the board of directors of the district.

Number

27122. The number of directors to which each county is entitled shall be determined as follows:

(a) Each county having a population of 40,000 or less, one director.

(b) Each county having a population over 40,000 and not more than 100,000, two directors.

(c) Each county having a population of more than 100,000 and less than 500,000, three directors.

(d) Each county having a population of 500,000 and over, five directors, or that number of directors equal to the total number of directors appointed from all of the counties within the district having a population of less than 500,000, whichever is greater.

Method of appointment

27123. The directors shall be appointed by resolution of the board of supervisors, a certified copy of which shall be immediately forwarded to the Secretary of State.

Term

27124. The term of office of all directors shall be four years from and after their appointment and until the appointment and qualification of their successors. Any director may be removed for cause by the board of supervisors appointing him, if notice is given and a hearing is held upon the complaint against him.

First members

27125. The first board of directors shall classify themselves by lot and one-half of their number shall hold office for two years only. If at the time of classification the number of directors is an odd number, the odd member of the board shall also hold office for two years. The board of supervisors which originally appointed a director whose term has expired shall appoint his successor for a full term of four years. Any vacancy in the board shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the board of supervisors which originally appointed the director whose position has become vacant.

Vacancy

Chapter 8. Organization and Powers of the Board and the Executive Officers

General authority

27140. The board shall be the governing body of the district and shall outline rules of policy, approve plans, and vote or withhold appropriations to carry the same into effect.

First meeting

27141. Within two weeks after the Secretary of State has received certified copies of the resolutions of the board of supervisors of each county in the district, appointing the members of the board of directors from that county, he shall call the first meeting of the board of directors and shall designate an appropriate time, which shall be within that two week period, and place at which the meeting shall be held.

Organization

27142. At the first meeting the board shall organize by choosing one of its members as president, and choosing a secretary, who shall not be a member of the board. At its first meeting the board shall also provide for the time and place of holding its meetings, and the manner in which its special meetings may be called.

Meetings

27143. All meetings of the board, whether regular or special, shall be open to the public. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Procedural rules

27144. The board shall adopt rules to govern its proceedings.

Office

27145. The board shall select an office and place of business within the district.

Special meetings

27146. For the purpose of considering local questions affecting a particular county or group of counties the board may hold meetings in the chambers of the boards of supervisors of that county or of any county in the group, if suitable for the purpose, or at any other suitable place the board may designate which is conveniently located with respect to the county or group of counties concerned.

Ordinances and resolutions

27147. All official action of the board shall be by ordinance or resolution.

The ayes and noes shall be taken upon the passage of all ordinances and resolutions, and entered upon the journal of the proceedings of the board. No ordinance or resolution shall be passed or become effective without the affirmative votes of at least a majority of the members of the board.

Enacting clause

27148. The enacting clause of all ordinances passed by the board shall be "Be it ordained by the board of directors of_____bridge and highway district as follows:" All resolutions and ordinances shall be signed by the president of the board and attested by the secretary.

Formalities

Compensation of members

27149. Each member of the board shall receive the sum of twenty dollars ($20) for attending each meeting of the board and his necessary traveling expenses, and he shall receive no other compensation. No director shall be paid for attending more than three meetings in any one calendar month.

Officers

27150. The board shall at its first meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, appoint by a majority vote a general manager, an auditor and a secretary. No director shall be eligible for appointment to any district office except president or vice president of the board. The compensation of the general manager, auditor, and secretary shall be fixed by the board, and such officers shall serve during the pleasure of the board.

General manager

27151. The general manager shall be the executive officer of the district. He shall employ and discharge at pleasure all subordinate officers, employees and assistants, prescribe their duties, and subject to the approval of the board, he shall fix their compensation. He shall have full charge and control of the construction, maintenance and operation of all works of the district. The general manager shall report to the board in accordance with such rules and regulations as the board may adopt.

Attorney and subordinate officers

27152. The board shall appoint an attorney and all subordinate officers not provided to be appointed by the general manager, and shall fix their salaries. Subordinate officers appointed by the board shall serve at its pleasure.

Change in name

27153. The board may change the name of the district by resolution, which shall become effective upon the filing of a certified copy of the resolution with the Secretary of State and with the clerk of the board of supervisors of each county included in the district.

CHAPTER 9. DISTRICT POWERS

Perpetual succession

27160. The district shall have perpetual succession and acting through the board shall have the powers prescribed in this chapter in addition to any others expressly conferred on it by this chapter.

Suits

27161. The district may sue and be sued in its corporate name in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction.

Seal

27162. The district may adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure.

Property

27163. The district may take by grant, purchase, gift, devise or lease, and hold, use, enjoy and lease and dispose of real or personal property of every kind within or without the district necessary to the full exercise of its powers.

Acquisition of bridges etc

27164. The district may acquire, or contract to acquire; and may construct under contract, or by its own employees, maintain, improve and operate bridges, abutments, rights of way, roads, tunnels, railroads, streetcar lines, interurban lines, telephone and telegraph lines, footpaths, viaducts, toll gates, toll houses, subways, and all other forms of property necessary or proper for the successful prosecution of the project for which the district was organized, including all machinery or other property useful or necessary to construct, maintain, operate or otherwise make use of toll bridges and highways, and complete, add to, repair or otherwise improve any of such property acquired by it.

Acquisition of property

Tolls

27165. The district may acquire by purchase, gift or condemnation, or lease from the United States, this State, or from any person, or public or private corporation, lands, rights of way, or rights in, over or across lands or waters which are necessary or proper for the construction or operation of bridges, and the approaches thereto, fix and collect tolls, for the purpose of meeting the obligations of the district and repaying the same, and dispose of the surplus to the various counties within the district.

Eminent domain

27166. The district may have and exercise, in the name of the district, the right of eminent domain for the condemnation of any property necessary for the construction of bridges, or the approaches thereto, or highways leading thereto, whether such property is already devoted to the same use or another public use, or otherwise. The district may condemn any existing highway, or right of way, or any portion thereof, whether the same be publicly or privately owned. In any proceeding to exercise the right of eminent domain the district shall have the same rights, powers and privileges as the State of California. If property is condemned by the district, the district may take possession and use the property in accordance with the provisions of Section 1254 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Bonds

27167. The district may borrow money, incur indebtedness and issue bonds or other evidences of such indebtedness; and refund or retire any indebtedness or lien that may exist against the district or any of its property.

Purchase or condemnation

27168. The district may purchase or condemn any works which might be constructed by the district, whether completed or partly completed, and conduct and manage the same.

Taxes

27169. The district may have taxes levied and collected in accordance with the provisions of this part for the purpose of paying running expenses, organization expenses and the investigation expenses of the district before the issuance of bonds, and for the purpose of paying the obligations of the district.

Contracts and employment

27170. The district may make contracts, employ labor, and all kinds of employees, whether skilled or unskilled, for the purpose of carrying on the business of the district.

Rules for operation of property

27171. The district may establish all necessary rules, regulation or conditions under which the property of the district may be used by the public and fix and collect all tolls for the use thereof, and enter into contracts with any persons or public officers or public or private corporations, whereby the facilities constructed by the district may be made use of, by such persons, officers, or corporations, and at the tolls or for the consideration fixed by such contracts.

General powers

27172. The district may do all things necessary for the complete exercise of the powers described in this chapter.

CHAPTER 10. DUTIES OF DISTRICT OFFICERS

President

27180. The president shall sign all contracts on behalf of the district, and perform such other duties as may be imposed by the board.

Secretary

27181. The secretary shall countersign all contracts on behalf of the district and perform such other duties as may be imposed by the board. The secretary shall devote his full time during office hours to the affairs of the district.

Auditor

27182. The auditor shall install and maintain a system of auditing and accounting which shall completely show the financial condition of the district at all times. He shall draw warrants to pay those demands made against the district which have been approved by the general manager, and the auditing committee, consisting of at least three members of the board, and passed by the board.

Engineer

27183. The engineer, under the direction of the general manager, shall have full charge of the constructions and of the works of the district.

Attorney

27184. The attorney shall have full charge of the legal matters pertaining to the district, and shall be the legal adviser to the board, the general manager, and all of the officers of the district.

Fund depositaries

27185. The board shall designate a bank of good standing as the depositary for district funds. The board may also designate other banks as branch depositaries. The depositary and each branch depositary shall give security sufficient to secure the district against possible loss, and shall pay the warrants drawn by the auditor for demands against the district under such rules as the board may prescribe.

The board may also deposit all or part of the funds of the district in the State Treasury, and the State Treasurer shall receive any district funds sent to him for deposit and pay out said funds upon warrants of the district, under such rules as the board may prescribe.

Bonds

27186. The general manager, secretary, auditor, engineer, and attorney, and any other officers or employees of the district who may be required to do so by the board, shall give such bonds to the district, conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties, as the board may prescribe.

Preparation of plans

27187. After the organization of the district the board, the general manager, and all of the other officers of the district shall prepare plans, both engineering and financial, for the purpose of putting into operation the project for which the district has been organized, and secure the necessary data, contracts, agreements, plans and specifications for the prosecution of such work as will enable them to put the matter before the voters at an election held for the purpose of authorizing the issuance of bonds by the district.

Chapter 11. Taxation for Preliminary District Expenses

New projects

27200. No taxes shall be levied under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of carrying out new projects undertaken by the district after the original project for which the district was formed has been completed.

Tax rate

27201. During July of each year the board shall determine the amount of money required by the district which must be raised by taxation, and shall fix a rate of taxation which will raise that amount. If the purpose of the taxation is to supply funds for investigating the project prior to the issuance of bonds and the payment of the officers and employees of the district prior to the time when the works of the district are earning revenue the tax rate shall not exceed ten cents ($0.10) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed valuation.

Running expenses

27202. All running expenses of the district prior to the time the works of the district are earning revenue, being a part of the cost of constructing or acquiring or both the works, may be paid from the proceeds of any bonds issued by the district.

Levy

27203. Within a reasonable time prior to the time that the boards of supervisors of the counties having any portion of their territory within the boundaries of the district are required by law to fix their tax rates, the board shall certify to the board of supervisors of each of the said counties the rate of taxation fixed for district purposes and at the time and in the manner required by law for the levying of taxes for county purposes each shall levy and collect a tax for district purposes in addition to any other tax levied by such board of supervisors at the rate certified by the board.

Collection

27204. All county officers charged with the duty of collecting taxes shall collect district taxes at the same time and in the same form and manner as county taxes are collected, and when collected pay the proceeds to the district. The appropriate county officers shall pay the taxes collected for the district to the secretary of the district who shall deposit them in the district depositary or in the State Treasury to the credit of the district.

Lien

27205. Taxes levied by the board of supervisors of a county for the benefit of the district shall be a lien upon all property within the district, and shall have the same force and effect as other liens for taxes. Their collection may be enforced in the same manner as liens for county taxes are enforced.

Special levy

27206. If during the month of July next preceding the expiration of the time estimated for the construction of the works it shall appear to the board that the construction of the works may be delayed beyond the time so estimated the board shall estimate the period of such delay and cause a tax to be levied and collected in accordance with the provisions of this chapter which shall be sufficient to produce the amount required to pay one year's interest on the bonds or, if the estimated period of delay will be less than one year, the amount required to pay the interest which will accrue on the bonds during such estimated period of delay.

The amount of any such tax shall be reduced to the extent that the district has funds on hand and available for the purpose of paying such interest.

CHAPTER 12. AUTHORITY FOR ISSUANCE AND SALE OF DISTRICT BONDS

Resolution

27220. Whenever the board deems it necessary for the district to incur a bonded indebtedness it shall, by resolution so declare. The resolution shall contain:

(a) A statement of the proposition to be submitted to the electors, including the purpose for which the proposed debt is to be incurred.

(b) The amount of debt to be incurred, which shall not exceed 15 per cent of the assessed value of all taxable property in the district.

(c) The maximum term, which shall not exceed 40 years, that the bonds proposed to be issued shall run before maturity.

(d) The maximum rate of interest to be paid, which shall not exceed 6 per cent per annum.

(e) A statement that interest, to be paid upon such bonds, during the period of construction of the works of the district and before any revenue is obtained therefrom shall be a capital charge, and shall be payable out of the principal sum realized from the sale of the bonds.

Election

27221. The board shall fix a date upon which a special election shall be held for the purpose of authorizing the bonded indebtedness to be incurred and shall provide for holding the election on the date so fixed.

Notice

27222. The board shall give notice of the holding of the election.

The notice shall:

(a) Refer to the resolution adopted by the board calling the election.

(b) Specify the precincts or consolidated precincts in each county or portion of a county which are adopted for the purposes of the election.

(c) Designate the location of the balloting places, and the names of the officers selected to conduct the election, who shall consist of one inspector and two judges in each precinct.

Publication

27223. The notice shall be published for two weeks in at least one newspaper and not more than three newspapers designated by the board, which are published in each county or portion of a county within the district. The notice as published in each county shall contain only the reference to the precincts, polling places and election officers in the county or portion of the county in which it is published.

If there is no newspaper published in any county the notice shall be posted in three public places in that county.

Expenses

27224. All the expenses of holding the election shall be borne by the district.

Canvass

27225. The returns of the election shall be made and the votes canvassed by the board within 30 days after the holding of the election, and the results thereof designated and declared in accordance with the general election laws of the State in so far as they may be applicable, and except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

As soon as the result is declared the secretary shall enter a statement of the results in the records of the board.

Favorable vote

27226. If more than two-thirds of the votes cast at the election are in favor of incurring the indebtedness, the board may by resolution at any time it deems proper provide for the form and execution of the bonds, and for the issuance of any part thereof, and may sell or dispose of the bonds so issued at such times or in such manner either for cash in lawful money of the United States, or its equivalent as it may deem to be to the public interest.

Legal investments

27227. All bonds issued by the district shall be legal investments for savings banks, and shall have the same force and effect and shall be equivalent to bonds issued by any municipality, and shall be exempt from all taxation within this State.

CHAPTER 13. ISSUANCE OF DISTRICT BONDS AND DISPOSITION OF SURPLUS PROCEEDS

Estimate

27240. At or before the time of issuing any bonds the board shall estimate:

(a) The total cost of constructing or acquiring or both the works for which the bonds are to be issued.

(b) The period of construction of such works.

(c) The amount of bonds which will be required to pay the total estimated cost and to pay interest on the bonds during the estimated period of construction and for six months thereafter.

No bonds shall be issued if the estimated amount of bonds required to pay the estimated cost and interest exceeds the total amount of bonds authorized to be issued by the district.

Additional bonds

27241. If the estimated amount of bonds required to pay the estimated cost and interest exceeds the total amount of bonds theretofore authorized, the board may submit to the electors of the district the proposition of authorizing additional bonds for the purpose of meeting the estimate. No error or informality in any estimate shall invalidate any bonds of the district.

Amounts

27242. Bonds may be issued in accordance with the estimate in such amounts not exceeding the total amount of bonds authorized as will produce a sum sufficient to pay the cost of constructing or acquiring or both the works for which they were authorized and interest on the bonds so issued during the period of construction and six months thereafter. The failure to issue the full amount of bonds authorized shall not invalidate any bonds of the district.

Temporary bonds

27243. Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds the board may issue temporary bonds of any denomination and with or without coupons and subject to the same restrictions imposed upon the issuance of definitive bonds. Temporary bonds shall be exchangeable for definitive bonds upon the issuance of the latter.

Nonincumbency of signing officer

27244. If, after any bond has been duly signed by any properly authorized officer, that officer ceases to hold office, the bond may nevertheless be delivered with the same effect as if it had been signed by the person holding the office at the time of delivery.

Registration

27245. The district bonds may be made registerable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the board prior to the issuance thereof.

Purchase by board

27246. The board may purchase district bonds from money in the sinking or other fund for the payment of bonds, at not more than the par value thereof. All bonds so purchased shall be canceled and shall not be issued again.

Reserve interest fund

27247. If after paying the cost of constructing or acquiring or both the works and interest on the bonds during the actual period of construction and for a period of six months thereafter, there is a surplus of the proceeds of the bonds issued by the district, including all premiums paid there shall be set aside out of such surplus in a reserve interest fund an amount equal to one year's interest on the bonds, or, if the surplus shall be less than one year's interest on the bonds, all of the surplus shall be so set aside.

Use of fund

27248. The money in the reserve interest fund shall be deposited in the same manner as other funds of the district or invested in securities which are legal investments for public funds, and the fund shall be used solely for the payment of interest on such bonds whenever there shall be a deficit in the revenues of the works and only to the extent of such deficit.

Proceeds, surplus

27249. If the surplus from the proceeds of the bonds exceeds one year's interest on the bonds, the balance shall be placed in the fund for the payment of the principal of such bonds.

Chapter 14. Rights of Way for District Works

Intersecting waters, etc

27260. The board may construct works across any stream, strait, bay, water course, street, avenue, highway, railway, canal, ditch, or flume which the route of the works may intersect or cross. The works may also be constructed along any street, avenue, or highway, if they are constructed so as to afford security for life and property. The board shall restore the crossings and intersections as nearly as possible to their former state or in a manner not to have impaired unnecessarily their usefulness.

Cooperation

27261. Every person, city or county or public corporation whose right of way is intersected or crossed by the works of the district shall cooperate with the board in forming such intersection or crossing, and grant the necessary rights of way therefor. The district shall pay the necessary expenses of any intersection and damages to any public corporation, city or county or abutting property owner for expenses caused by the construction of the works of the district.

Expenses

Rights of way over State property

27262. The necessary right of way is hereby given, dedicated and set apart to the district to locate, construct and maintain works over and through any of the lands which are the property of this State, including highways, and to have the same rights and privileges appertaining thereto that are granted to cities.

Chapter 15. Toll Charges

Fixation and collection

27280. The board shall fix all tolls for the use of the facilities of travel constructed by the district, and shall collect such tolls through the general manager.

Estimate

27281. The general manager shall furnish the board with an estimate of the tolls necessary to pay the obligations of the district. The board shall, upon the recommendation of the general manager, or such modifications thereof as it may adopt, fix such tolls as will:

(a) Pay the operating expenses of the district.

(b) Provide for repairs and depreciation of works, owned or operated by it.

(c) Pay the interest on any bonded debt, and

(d) As far as possible, provide a sinking or other fund for the payment of the principal of such debt, as it may become due, it being the intention of this part to require the district to pay the interest and principal of its bonded debt from the revenues of the district.

CHAPTER 16. DISPOSITION AND MAINTENANCE OF ADEQUATE DISTRICT REVENUES

Setting aside revenue

27300. The board shall in each fiscal year set aside in separate funds out of the revenues of the works sufficient sums to:

(a) Pay the operating expenses of the district.

(b) Provide for repairs and depreciation of the works.

(c) Pay the interest on district bonds as it becomes due.

(d) Provide a sinking or other fund for the payment of the principal of such bonds as they become due.

Pledge

The revenues of the works are hereby pledged to the aforesaid purposes.

Borrowing

27301. For the purpose of paying the principal or interest of bonds due or to become due within four months, and not otherwise adequately provided for, the district may borrow money in anticipation of the receipt of either the revenues and taxes of the fiscal year in which the loan is made or the revenues and taxes of the next succeeding fiscal year. The money borrowed shall be payable not later than the end of such next succeeding fiscal year.

Notes

27302. Negotiable notes shall be issued for all money borrowed by the district. The notes may be renewed from time to time, and money may be borrowed upon new notes from time to time after the payment of any indebtedness evidenced thereby; but all notes and loans shall mature within the time limited for the payment of the original loan.

Authorization of notes

27303. All notes shall be authorized by a resolution of the board, which shall fix the actual or maximum face amount of the notes, the actual or maximum rate of interest to be paid upon the amount borrowed, which shall not exceed the maximum rate permitted by law, and the actual or approximate maturity of the notes.

The form and manner of execution of the notes shall be determined by the board and the notes may be disposed of in such a manner as the board may determine.

Levy of tax

27304. After the completion of construction of the works, the board shall, in the month of July in each year, cause a tax to be levied and collected in the manner provided in Chapter 11 of this part. The amount of such tax, after deducting any available and applicable moneys on hand (exclusive of moneys in the reserve interest fund) and the estimated amount of revenues of the works for the ensuing 12 months, which estimated amount shall not exceed the actual revenues for the preceding 12 months or, if the works have not been in operation for as long as 12 months, not to exceed an amount computed on the basis of the average daily revenues for the lesser period, shall be sufficient to produce the sums required to be set aside into separate funds by Section 27300, as well as any deficit in such funds and the principal and interest of any outstanding revenue and tax anticipation notes.

Liability for tax

27305. The taxes required to be levied and collected under this chapter shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for county purposes, and all taxable property of the district shall be and remain liable to be taxed as provided in this chapter until the entire principal and interest of the bonded indebtedness of the district has been paid in full.

Disposal of surplus revenues

27306. If the revenues of the works for any fiscal year produce a surplus over and above an amount sufficient to provide the sums required to be set aside out of the revenues and the amount of any deficit of revenues for any preceding fiscal year and a sum equal to the estimated operating expenses of the district and repairs of the works for the ensuing six months, there shall be set aside out of that surplus and deposited in the reserve interest fund a sum equal to one year's interest on the bonds then outstanding less the amount already contained in such reserve interest fund. Any remainder of the surplus shall be divided by the board and apportioned to each county within the district in the proportion which the assessed value of property within the county or part of a county within the district bears to the total assessed value of all the property within the district. If only a part of a county is within the district, the amount so apportioned to that county shall be deemed a partial payment of county taxes for the current or next succeeding year upon property situate within that portion of the district which lies within that county, and shall be credited pro rata against those taxes.

CHAPTER 17. ANNEXATION OF TERRITORY

Resolution

27320. Any county or any portion thereof may be added to the district at any time, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter by resolution of the board upon request of the board of supervisors of the county by an ordinance applying for permission for the county or portion thereof to become a part of the district.

Terms

27321. If the annexation of any county or portion thereof is proposed to any district already organized the board shall prescribe the terms upon which the territory proposed to be annexed shall be admitted, including the payment of a just proportion of the organization and preliminary expenses originally incurred by the district. No county or portion thereof shall be annexed without first complying with those terms.

Where bonded debt has been incurred

27322. If the board consents to the annexation after any bonded debt of this district has been authorized, the board of supervisors so applying for annexation shall call an election at which the proposition to join the district and assume the obligation of the bonds of the district along with the territory already included therein, shall be submitted to the electors of the county or portion thereof as one proposition.

Election

Unless the proposition receives two-thirds of the vote cast at the election the county or part thereof shall not be annexed to the district. If the proposition carries by two-thirds or more of the votes cast at the election the result of the election shall be certified to the Secretary of State by the county clerk of the county and thereupon the Secretary of State shall give notice and call for protests in the same manner as upon the original incorporation of the district.

Notice

Where not incurred

27323. If the district has not incurred a bonded indebtedness at the time of the application by the board of supervisors to join the district, the county or part thereof may be annexed if the board of supervisors passes an ordinance declaring its intention to join the district and upon petition presented in the manner provided in this part for the organization of the district. The petition shall be presented to the Secretary of State, who shall give notice of the presentation thereof, and of the date set for receiving protests against the annexation in the same manner as for original petitions, and all of the provisions of this part which are applicable to original petitions shall be applicable to petitions for annexations.

Notice

Certificate of annexation

27324. After all protests have been disposed of in the same manner as protests upon the incorporation of the district, the Secretary of State shall issue his certificate certifying to the annexation and describing the boundaries of the district as finally determined, which certificate shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of each county wherein any portion of the annexed territory is located, and thereupon the Appointment of director boards of supervisors of the county shall appoint a member or members of the board to serve until the expiration of the term of the directors then holding for the term of office that will soonest expire.

Annexation

27325. Upon the issuance of the certificate of annexation by the Secretary of State the territory named therein shall become a part of the district.

CHAPTER 288

An act to amend Sections 23, 23a, 23b, 24.1 and 24.5, and to repeal Sections 19, 25, 26, 26a, 26b, 26c, 27, 31, 31a, 31b, 31c, 31d, 31e, 31f, 31g and 32 of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act and to add thereto new sections to be designated Sections 19, 23c, 23d, 26, 27 and 38.2, relating to the taxation of beer and wine and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately.

Stats 1935, p 1123, amended

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1943.]

In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23 of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats 1941, p 1850

Sec. 23. An excise tax is hereby imposed upon all beer and wine sold in this State by a manufacturer or importer, except as otherwise in this act provided, at the following rates:

Excise tax on beer and wine

(a) On all beer sixty-two cents ($0.62) for every barrel containing 31 gallons and at a proportionate rate for any other quantity; (b) on all still wines containing not more than 14 per cent of absolute alcohol by volume, one cent ($0.01) per wine gallon and at a proportionate rate for any other quantity; (c) on all still wines containing more than 14 per cent of absolute alcohol by volume two cents ($0.02) per wine gallon and at a proportionate rate for any other quantity; (d) on champagne, sparkling wine, excepting sparkling hard cider, whether naturally or artificially carbonated one and one-half cents ($0.01½) on each bottle or other container for each half pint or fraction thereof contained therein; (e) on sparkling hard cider two cents ($0.02) per wine gallon and at a proportionate rate for any other quantity.

SEC. 2. Section 23a of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats 1937, p. 2126

Sec. 23a. Beer consumed by employees of manufacturers upon the premises of such manufacturers shall be exempted from the excise tax mentioned in Section 23 hereof under such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe.

Exemption

SEC. 3. Section 23b of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1937, p. 2126

Sec. 23b. It shall be presumed, for the purposes of this act, that all beer manufactured in this State by a manufacturer, or delivered to a manufacturer here, has been sold in this State by such manufacturer unless proven to the satisfaction of the board, in verified reports on forms prescribed by the board, that such alcoholic beverage (1) is still in the possession of such licensee or (2) has been sold and delivered to another manufacturer of such alcoholic beverage or (3) has been exported without this State or sold for export by the licensee making the report, or (4) prior to the termination of possession has been lost through unintentional destruction, or (5) was spoiled beer which was destroyed in the presence of a representative of the board or of the United States Bureau of Internal Revenue, or (6) prior to the termination of possession has been unaccountably lost, but such unaccounted for loss shall not exceed a tolerance to be fixed by the board; or (7) is beer otherwise exempted from taxation under this act.

Presumption re beer

Exempt sales

No excise tax mentioned in Section 23 hereof shall be or is imposed by this act upon any beer exported by a licensed manufacturer from within this State to any place without the State or sold by a licensed manufacturer for export from within this State to any place without the State and actually exported from this State or upon any beer specifically mentioned in any subdivision (1) to (7) of this section, and no excise tax mentioned in Section 23 hereof shall be or is imposed by this act upon any transaction whereby any beer is sold by the licensed manufacturer to another licensed manufacturer.

Any claim for exemption from excise tax under this section must be made to the board, in such manner as the board shall prescribe.

Credit

In the event excise taxes under this act have been paid on beer subsequently exported from the State or sold for export and actually thereafter exported from this State, a taxpayer may claim and shall be allowed credit with respect to such tax in any report filed or assessment made under this act.

Stats 1941, p 1544

SEC. 4. Section 24.1 of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Taxpayer"

Sec. 24.1. "Taxpayer," whenever used in this act, means a person liable for the payment of a tax pursuant to the provisions of this act.

Stats 1941, p 1544

SEC. 5. Section 24.5 of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Bond for payment of excise taxes

Sec. 24.5. Every taxpayer as defined in this act is required to file with the board in such form as the board prescribes a bond or bonds duly executed by such taxpayer as principal and a corporation such as is mentioned in Section 1056 of the Code of Civil Procedure in this State, as surety, payable to the people of the State of California, conditioned upon the payment of all excise taxes, penalties, and other obligations of the taxpayer arising under this act.

Subject to the limitations provided in this section, the board shall fix the total amount of the bond or bonds required of any taxpayer and may increase or reduce the amount at any time. In fixing the total amount, the board shall require a bond or bonds equivalent in total amount to twice the taxpayer's estimated monthly excise tax ascertained in such manner as the board may deem proper. The total amount of the bond or bonds required of any taxpayer shall never be less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

SEC. 6. Sections 19, 25, 26, 26a, 26b, 26c, 27, 31, 31a, 31b, 31c, 31d, 31e, 31f, 31g and 32 of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act are hereby repealed. Repeals

SEC. 7. A new Section 19 is hereby added to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, to read as follows: New section

Sec. 19. A wine manufacturer's license shall only be issued to, or held by, a person operating a winery, wine storeroom or field warehouse bonded under the internal revenue laws of the United States. Every person operating a winery or wine storeroom bonded under the internal revenue laws of the United States shall apply for, and hold, a wine manufacturer's license. Wine manufacturer's license

SEC. 8. A new Section 23c is hereby added to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, to read as follows: New section

Sec. 23c. It shall be presumed, for the purposes of this act, that all wine removed from a winery or wine storeroom bonded under the internal revenue laws of the United States on payment of the internal revenue tax by a wine manufacturer has been sold in this State by such manufacturer unless proven to the satisfaction of the board, in verified reports, on forms prescribed by the board, that such wine (1) has been exported from this State or sold for export by the manufacturer making the report and actually exported from this State (2) is otherwise exempt from taxation under this act. In the event excise taxes under this act have been paid on wine subsequently exported from this State or sold for export and actually thereafter exported from this State, a taxpayer may claim and shall be allowed a credit with respect to such tax in any report filed or assessment made under this act. Presumption re wine

Exempt sales

No excise tax mentioned in Section 23 hereof shall be or is imposed by this act upon any wine sold or delivered in internal revenue bond to another wine manufacturer in this State.

SEC. 9. A new Section 23d is hereby added to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, to read as follows: New section

Sec. 23d. It shall be presumed, for the purposes of this act, that all beer and wine imported into this State by a beer or wine manufacturer or importer has been sold in this State at the time such alcoholic beverage is received by such licensee unless proven to the satisfaction of the board, on forms prescribed by the board, that such beer or wine (1) is still in the possession of such wine manufacturer in internal revenue bond within this State, or (2) has been exported from this State by the licensee making the report, or has been sold by such licensee for export and actually exported from this State, or (3) is otherwise exempt under this act. In the event excise taxes under this act have been paid on beer or wine subsequently exported from the State or sold for export and actually thereafter exported from this State, a taxpayer may claim and shall be allowed credit with respect to such tax in any report filed or assessment made under this act. New section

SEC. 10. A new Section 26 is hereby added to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, to read as follows:

When tax payable

Sec. 26. The excise tax imposed by Section 23 hereof is a direct obligation of the taxpayer and shall be due and payable monthly on or before the first day of the second calendar month following each calendar month.

Return

Each taxpayer on or before the first day of August, 1943, and on or before the first day of each and every month thereafter, shall make out a verified return for the month preceding the previous calendar month, in such form as shall be prescribed by the board, showing the amount of beer or wine sold in this State, the amount of tax for the period covered by the return, together with such other information as the board may deem necessary. The taxpayer shall deliver the return, together with a remittance of the amount of tax due to the office of the board on or before such date.

Presumptions

It shall be presumed for the purpose of this act that any wine in the possession of a wine manufacturer at 12 o'clock midnight, June 30, 1943, on which the United States internal revenue tax had been previously paid, but on which the excise tax imposed by Section 23 of this act had not been paid, and that any beer or wine in the possession of a beer or wine importer at 12 o'clock midnight, June 30, 1943, previously imported into California, but on which the tax imposed by Section 23 of this act had not been paid, has been sold, and such wine manufacturer or beer or wine importer shall pay the tax imposed by Section 23 of this act. Such wine manufacturer or beer or wine importer shall file a report of such beer or wine, together with a remittance of the amount of tax due, to the office of the board on or before August 1, 1943.

New section

SEC. 11. A new Section 27 is hereby added to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, to read as follows:

Distilled spirits

Sec. 27. All of the provisions of Sections 27b, 27c, 30, 33, 33a, 33b, 33c, 33d, 33f, 33g, 34a, 34b, 34c, 34d, 34f, 34g, 34h, 34i and 34j shall apply to beer and wine with the same force and effect as they apply to distilled spirits. Whenever the words "distilled spirits" occur in such sections they shall include "beer and wine," and whenever the words "Section 24" occur in said sections they shall include "Section 23."

New section

SEC. 12. A new Section 38.2 is hereby added to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, to read as follows:

Rules and regulation

Sec. 38.2. The board shall adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to coordinate the system of wine taxation imposed by this act with the system of wine taxation imposed by the internal revenue laws of the United States.

SEC. 13. Nothing herein contained shall affect any liability for excise taxes imposed upon the sale of alcoholic beverages occurring prior to the operative date of this act.

Constitutionality

SEC. 14. If any section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act which is reasonably separable from the remaining portion of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining portions of this act irrespective of the fact that any section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act be declared unconstitutional.

SEC. 15. This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy for the usual current expenses of the State, shall, under the provisions of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately; provided, however, that the provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act as they existed on January 1, 1943, are hereby continued in force and effect until July 1, 1943, and that the provisions of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1943. CHAPTER 289

An act to amend Sections 528 and 540 of the Political Code, relating to State printing.

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 540 of the Political Code is amended to read: Stats 1899, p. 68

540. Subdivision 1. There is hereby created a fund to be known as the State Printing Fund of the State Treasury. State Printing Fund

Subdivision 2. The State Printing Fund shall consist of all moneys appropriated by the Legislature for the support of the State Printing Office, and all moneys received into the State Treasury from any source whatever in payment of all printing, ruling, and binding done in the State Printing Office. From it all expenses for the support of the State Printing Office shall be paid.

Subdivision 3. The reports of all State officers, boards of officers, commissions, trustees, regents, and directors, required or authorized by law to make reports, or to publish any circulars, bulletins, and to obtain any printed books, stationery, or printed matter of any kind, must be printed, ruled, and bound at the State Printing Office, at the expense of their respective funds or appropriations, after being first authorized in each instance by the State Board of Examiners. Reports of State officers, etc

Subdivision 4. The State Printer, subject to the approval of the Department of Finance, shall install a cost system for prepricing all orders for printing executed in the State Printing Plant and compile a schedule showing the value of each of the different types of work or operations which can be performed. The schedule shall be subject to revision and modification by the State Printer and the Department of Finance whenever the necessity therefor shall arise. Cost schedule

Transfer

Subdivision 5. The Controller and Treasurer are hereby authorized and directed to transfer from the General Fund to the State Printing Fund any and all moneys appropriated from time to time by the Legislature for the support of the State Printing Office.

Monthly reports

Subdivision 6. The Superintendent of State Printing shall render monthly reports to the State Controller of all moneys received under the provisions of this section, and shall pay same into the State Treasury to the credit of the State Printing Fund.

Transfer

Subdivision 7. The Board of Examiners may at any time order the Controller to transfer money from the sum allowed to any officer, board, or other body mentioned in Subdivision 3 of this section, for printing and other work at the State Printing Office, to the credit of any other such officer, board, or other body that may need the same, and whose allowance for that purpose has been exhausted.

SEC. 2. Section 528 of said code is amended to read:

Printing and sale of statutes

528. 1 There must be printed of the laws of each session of the Legislature, 1,800 copies in English, to be deposited with the Secretary of State, who, after retaining a sufficient number of said volumes for distribution, in accordance with the provisions of Section 410 of the Political Code, shall sell the remaining copies at a price to be approved by the State Board of Control, who may authorize the Superintendent of Printing to compile and print any number of additional copies; the moneys thus received to be paid into the State Treasury at the end of each month.

Printing and distribution of individual laws

2. Whenever a law is signed by the Governor, official notice shall be forwarded, in writing, to the Superintendent of State Printing of the fact. Upon the receipt of said official notice, the Superintendent of State Printing shall cause to be printed, for the use of the Legislature, 240 copies of said law, joint or concurrent resolution, to be distributed, one-third to the Senate and two-thirds to the Assembly, the Sergeant-at-Arms of the respective houses to receipt to the Superintendent of State Printing for the same, whose receipt shall be a proper voucher for the work. He shall also cause to be printed the requisite number of sheets to make the number of copies of the Statutes required by law to be printed, the one composition of type to answer the purpose of printing the three editions.

Delivery to Secretary of State

The Superintendent of State Printing shall have the laws, Journals of Senate and Assembly, and the appendices thereto, properly indexed and bound, the laws in law buckram binding, and deliver the same to the Secretary of State for distribution as soon as practical after the final adjournment of the Legislature, and the receipt of the Secretary of State shall be his voucher therefor.

acquittals, probations granted or denied, commitments to and transfers and discharges from places of incarceration, and other data and information useful in determining the cause and amount of crime in this State, or in carrying out the powers and duties of the Authority.

All officers and employees of the State and of every county and city shall furnish to the Authority upon request such statistics and other information within their knowledge and control as the Authority deems necessary or proper to be collected by it pursuant to the provisions of this section.

CHAPTER 292

Stats 1933, p 394, amended

An act to amend Section 1346 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to antelope, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1941, p 3091

SECTION 1. Section 1346 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

Male antelope

1346. Male antelope may be taken during any 10 consecutive days, as may be determined and fixed by the commission, between May 20th and September 30th but only as provided in this section. The commission shall prepare applications, pursuant to this section, and such applications shall be filed with the commission, 30 days prior to the opening day of hunting as may be prescribed by the commission, of each year. If 500 applications, or any lesser number of applications, are filed, the commission shall grant special permits to each application. If more than 500 applications are filed, the commission shall grant permits by lot. In no event, however, shall more than one permit in any calendar year be given to any one person. The fee for each permit issued shall be five dollars ($5). The fees provided herein shall be deposited in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund. The commission may make such regulations not in conflict with this section as it deems desirable and may authorize the taking of male antelope pursuant to this section and such regulations in any district or area in this State, including game refuges.

The provisions of Section 1275.5 of this code shall apply to the possession of antelope meat.

Urgency

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

Inasmuch as application to hunt antelope must be filed prior to the first day of the month of May, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect as otherwise prospective applicants would not have previous knowledge of the dates for open season for the hunting of antelope as provided by this act.

CHAPTER 293

An act making an appropriation to be expended under the direction of the Governor to effectuate the purposes of the California State War Powers Act, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1943.] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated there is hereby appropriated the sum of one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000), or as much thereof as may be necessary, to be expended, under the direction of the Governor, in carrying out the objects and purposes of the California War Powers Act. Appropriation California War Powers Act

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows: Urgency

The war in which the United States is engaged demands that effective steps in preparation for complete defense of the State and its institutions, people, industries and interests shall be taken without delay, and that the legislation of this State in support of the National war effort shall be fully implemented.

CHAPTER 294

An act to amend Sections 1509.4 and 1571 of and to add Sections 1509.6, 1509.7, 1509.8, and 1509.9 to the Military and Veterans Code, relating to and providing for State and local participation in civilian defense and the war effort and for the administration of the California War Powers Act, declaring the urgency hereof, to take effect immediately. Stats 1935, p. 1338, amended

[Approved by Governor April 29, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1943.] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1509.4 of the Military and Veterans Code is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats First Ex. Sess 1943, Ch 1

1509.4. No salary provided by this chapter shall exceed the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) per Maximum salary

Rights of civil service appointee annum. Any State civil service employee who may be appointed by the Governor to any position under this chapter has the right, upon termination of such appointment, to be reinstated to the civil service position vacated by him upon his acceptance of such appointment hereunder, and during the period of his appointment hereunder shall as to vacation, sick leave, continuity of service and seniority have and enjoy the same rights and privileges as he would if he were holding a position in the State civil service.

New section

SEC. 2. Section 1509.6 is added to said code, to read:

Powers of Governor

1509.6. In carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the Governor may:

(a) Procure and maintain offices in such parts of the State as may be necessary or convenient;

(b) Acquire property, real or personal, or interests therein;

(c) Cooperate and contract with public and private agencies for the performance of such acts, the rendition of such services and the affording of such facilities as may be necessary and proper;

(d) Do such other acts and things as may be necessary and incidental to the exercise of powers and the discharge of duties conferred or imposed by the provisions of this chapter.

New section

SEC. 3. Section 1509.7 is added to said code, to read:

Assistance

1509.7 Each department, division, bureau, board, commission, and officer of this State and of each agency, political subdivision, or local governmental unit of the State shall render all possible assistance to the Governor in carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

New section

SEC. 4. Section 1509.8 is added to said code, to read:

Transfer: Duties, etc

1509.8. Except as in this chapter otherwise provided the War Council succeeds to and is vested with all the duties, powers, purposes, responsibilities and jurisdiction of the State Council of Defense; and except as in this chapter otherwise provided whenever by the provisions of any statute or law now in force or that may hereafter be enacted a duty or jurisdiction is imposed or authority conferred upon the State Council of Defense such duty, jurisdiction and authority are hereby imposed upon and transferred to the War Council and the appropriate officers thereof with the same force and effect as though the title of the War Council had been specifically set forth and named therein in lieu of the State Council of Defense.

Books and funds

The War Council and the appropriate officers thereof shall be in possession and control of all records, books, papers, offices, equipment, supplies, moneys, funds, appropriations, land and other property, real or personal, now or hereafter in the custody or under the control of the State Council of Defense or held for the benefit or use of the State Council of Defense.

New section

SEC. 5. Section 1509.9 is added to said code, to read:

Expenditures

1509.9. The Governor and the War Council are empowered to expend the moneys in any appropriation or in any special fund in the State treasury now remaining or made available by law for expenditure by the California State Council of Defense or for the use, support or maintenance of the California State Council of Defense.

Stats First Ex Sess 1943, Ch 1

SEC. 6. Section 1571 of said code is amended to read:

1571. The emergency power which may be vested in a local commander, during a period of a state of extreme emergency duly proclaimed as provided in this chapter, shall be subject or subordinate to the powers herein vested in the Governor and in the regional civilian protection officer of the protective region in which such county, city and county or city is located.

Limit on local commander powers

SEC. 7. The provisions of Sections 1 to 6, inclusive, of this act shall become and be operative and applicable on and after the day when the California War Powers Act takes effect.

Effective date

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and as such shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity:

Urgency

The California War Powers Act will soon take effect. The amendments and additions which are hereby made thereto are urgently necessary to assure immediate and completely effective State, local and regional participation in civilian defense and the war effort.

CHAPTER 295

An act to repeal Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Military and Veterans Code and Sections 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 of the California Guard Act of 1942 and to add Chapter 4 to Part 2 of Division 2 of the Military and Veterans Code relating to the California State Guard, providing for the pay, privileges, allowances and rights of the California State Guard, for the organization and administration of the California State Guard to permit the efficient operation thereof consistent with such privileges, allowances and rights, permitting school districts to make school busses available for use by the California State Guard, declaring the urgency of this act, and providing that it shall take effect immediately.

Stats 1937, p 1338, amended
Stats First Ex Sess 1941, Ch 19

[Approved by Governor May 1, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature declares that it is the policy of the people of the State of California to accept and assume the responsibility for internal security of facilities and commodities within the State in accordance with the basic United States War Department policy as expressed in paragraph 3 of the War Department's Memorandum No. S 380-4-43, dated February 18, 1943, which reads:

Policy

"The primary responsibility for the internal security of facilities or commodities rests upon the operators, owners, and local and State Governments. It is of the utmost importance that appropriate military commanders make every effort to impress upon operators, owners, and State and local officials the extreme importance of their assuming their full responsibility in this matter. Federal troops will be used for such purposes only when the above-mentioned responsible agencies have exhausted their available means or when the protection furnished, in the opinion of the appropriate military commander, is inadequate."

The State of California is in an area designated as a combat zone and has heretofore provided for the organization and equipment of a State Guard. It has been impossible to recruit, maintain and equip the organization in a manner to enable the State to effectively and properly assume the responsibility herein outlined, because the United States Selective Service System has not provided deferments to enable the State Guard to enlist and keep sufficient personnel for, and Federal priorities on arms, ammunition, material, communications and transportation have prevented proper maintenance of, the State Guard. It is therefore necessary that the rights and privileges of the State Guard be immediately redefined and that an effective State Guard be provided to meet the demands of State and National defense and for the internal security of the facilities or commodities in this State.

Operation under existing law

SEC. 2. The State Guard shall continue to operate under the provisions of law heretofore in effect, until the Governor shall determine and declare by proclamation that the Selective Service System has provided deferments for personnel and Federal priorities have been adjusted to allow the State Guard to be recruited to effective strength and be properly armed and equipped, or until July 1, 1943, whichever first occurs.

If the Governor shall issue the proclamation above referred to prior to July 1, 1943, the State Guard shall be organized and shall operate under the provisions of this Chapter 4 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Military and Veterans Code which is added by this act. If the proclamation shall not be issued prior to July 1, 1943, no active units shall be organized or operate under said chapter.

Repeals

SEC. 3. Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Military and Veterans Code and Sections 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 of the California Guard Act of 1942, are repealed, to take effect July 1, 1943.

New chapter

SEC. 4. Chapter 4 is added to Part 2 of Division 2 of the Military and Veterans Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4. VOLUNTARY ORGANIZATIONS

Short title

560. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the California State Guard Act of 1943.

State Guard

561. Whenever any part of the National Guard of the State is in active Federal service, the Governor is hereby authorized to organize and maintain within the State during such period, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe for discipline in training, such military forces as the Governor may deem necessary to defend the State and for the internal security of facilities or commodities within the State. Such forces shall be known as the California State Guard and shall be composed of:

(a) The Adjutant General, and the commissioned and enlisted personnel comprising his staff.

(b) Active units.

(c) Inactive units.

Two commissioned officers and three noncommissioned officers may be placed on active duty for each 1,000 inactive enlistees, whether or not active forces be organized.

Membership

562. The California State Guard shall be composed of officers commissioned or assigned, such able-bodied male citizens, or aliens who have declared their intentions to become citizens as shall volunteer for active or inactive service therein, and, such able-bodied female citizens or aliens who have declared their intention of becoming citizens who shall volunteer for active or inactive service as nurses therein.

Such forces shall be additional to and distinct from the National Guard.

Rules and regulations

563. The rules and regulations governing the California State Guard shall, when not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter or rules and regulations prescribed by the Governor, conform to existing laws governing and pertaining to the National Guard and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and shall prohibit the acceptance of gifts, donations, gratuities or anything of value by such forces or by any member of such forces from any person, firm, association or corporation by reason of such membership.

Expenses

564. There shall be allowed to each organization out of the appropriation for military purposes an amount fixed by The Adjutant General sufficient to pay for armory rental, janitor service, clerical service, recruiting, care of arms and equipment, purchase of ammunition, and proper incidental expenses; no obligation, however, shall be incurred except when authorized by The Adjutant General.

Active force

565. The active force shall be of such number as the Governor may deem necessary but not to exceed two infantry regiments and necessary auxiliary troops which shall be organized in conformity with the United States Army Table of Organization.

Inactive force

566. The inactive force shall be of such number and organization as the Governor deems necessary. It may be called into service, in addition to the active force, only when there exists a state of extreme emergency as defined in Division 7 or in case of local disaster, and no member shall, without his consent, serve outside the county in which he enlisted.

Limited active duty

567. The members of any unit of the California State Guard, including both the active membership and the inactive forces, may at any time voluntarily serve on limited active duty pursuant to the authorization thereof by the Governor or The Adjutant General and subject to such general or special orders as the Governor or The Adjutant General may issue, whenever such service is in connection with National defense problems, or for a limited period of time to be determined by The Adjutant General, for the purpose of instruction and training.

Removal

568. The Adjutant General, with the approval of the Governor, may remove and relieve from service, any officer or member of the California State Guard.

School bus use

569. Upon request of a regimental commander the governing board of any school district may permit the California State Guard to use any school bus owned by the district, without charge, for the transportation of members of the State Guard engaged in State Guard activities. Use of any school bus by the California State Guard shall not impose any liability by reason thereof upon the district or the members of the governing board thereof.

Ornament

570. There shall be prescribed a distinctive ornament to be worn on the left shoulder as part of the uniform of each member of the California State Guard and the same ornament shall be prominently displayed on all official motor vehicles and airplanes used by the California State Guard.

Penalties

571. The members of the California State Guard when called into active service by order of the Governor shall be subject to all military penalties and punishments for violation of the orders of the Governor or any officer placed in command of such organization by order of the Governor.

Articles of War

During such time as the United States is at war the commissioned and enlisted personnel of the State Guard will be subject to the Articles of War governing the Army of the United States, under the same conditions as now apply to the Army of the United States, without the restrictions or modifications heretofore applicable to the members of the National Guard of California. All sentences in excess of two years and all sentences directing dismissal of commissioned officers will be subject to approval by the Governor.

Pay and allowances

572. (a) Commissioned officers of the California State Guard while in active service shall receive the same pay and allowances as officers of similar grade in the Army of the United States, except that there shall be no longevity pay.

(b) Enlisted men of the California State Guard when in active service shall receive the same pay and allowances as are received by enlisted men of the same grade in active service with the Army of the United States, except that there shall be no longevity pay nor dependent allowances.

Termination of pay

573. No officer or member of the California State Guard shall be paid for active service at any time after the National Guard is no longer in active Federal service.

574. All of the members of the California State Guard are hereby declared to be engaged in military service within the meaning of that term as used in Article XXIV of the Constitution of this State and are exempt from civil service. Engagement in military service

575. (a) Members of the California State Guard shall have the right to unemployment insurance benefits and it is the purpose of this section to provide such benefits without loss because of active service with the California State Guard. Unemployment insurance benefits

(b) Benefit rights of members of the California State Guard shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Unemployment Insurance Act, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(c) Where there are 45 days (hereinafter referred to as the minimum period) or more of active service within any calendar quarter of the base period as determined under Section 52.2 of the Unemployment Insurance Act, then his benefits shall be determined under whichever of the following methods results in the higher maximum total amount of benefits payable: Computation

1. The base period is to be determined in accordance with Section 52.2 of the Unemployment Insurance Act.

2. (i) The base period is to consist of the first four out of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year, except that every calendar quarter in which the individual was in active service with the California State Guard for the minimum period or more days shall be excluded from the base period and, in lieu of each excluded calendar quarter, a calendar quarter prior to the normal base period shall be considered until there are four calendar quarters, none of which contain the minimum period or more days of active service in the California State Guard, from which to determine his benefits.

(ii) Where benefits are computed and paid upon the basis provided in subparagraph (i), that proportion of benefits based upon quarters within the normal base period as defined in Section 52.2 of the Unemployment Insurance Act, shall be charged against the account of employers employing the individual during the normal base period quarters and that proportion of benefits based upon quarters outside the normal base period shall not be charged against any employer.

(d) If, under an act of Congress, payments with respect to the unemployment of individuals who have completed a period of active service in the California State Guard are payable by the United States, an individual shall be disqualified for benefits with respect to any week for which he receives such payments and no benefits shall be paid under the Unemployment Insurance Act until he has exhausted all his rights to such payments from the United States. Payments by United States

Pension

576. No member of the California State Guard shall by reason of service therein be entitled to any pension, bounty, bonus or gratuity.

Compensation benefits

Members of the California State Guard are employees within the meaning of Division 4 of the Labor Code and as such are entitled to the benefits provided by said division, subject to the restrictions established in this section.

Medical care

577. The Adjutant General shall provide such medical, surgical and hospital care, including transportation, as may reasonably be necessary to maintain the health of active members of the California State Guard, and he shall pay not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) burial benefit to persons who incur necessary expenses of burial of a deceased California State Guardsman who dies while on active service, and whom he finds to be equitably entitled to receive such payment.

Authority of The Adjutant General to provide medical, surgical and hospital care to any person under the provisions of this section ceases when the latter's active membership in the California State Guard terminates from any cause.

The Adjutant General may enter into an agreement with the State Compensation Insurance Fund, with approval of the Director of Finance, to authorize the fund to render services in accordance with the terms and intent of the agreement, in the administration of the power conferred on The Adjutant General by this section. The agreement may authorize the fund to investigate facts and to select and designate physicians and hospitals in any case. The agreement shall provide that the fund shall make all expenditures required to be made to carry out the authority conferred on it by such contract, and that The Adjutant General shall reimburse the fund for all such expenditures, and the contract shall provide for a service charge and that The Adjutant General shall pay the same.

No liability shall exist against the State or The Adjutant General or the State Compensation Insurance Fund or any officer or employee thereof for damages for refusal or failure to provide medical, surgical or hospital care authorized by this section.

Death of member

578. The Adjutant General may cause the body of any member of the California State Guard who dies while in active membership therein to be transported to the decedent's home, when located within this State, and The Adjutant General is authorized to pay the necessary expense related thereto, and this expense is in addition to burial allowance.

Call to active service

579. Whenever the Governor deems it necessary for the public safety, he may call the California State Guard into active service of the State for the causes and purposes for which he may call the National Guard into active service. Such California State Guard shall rendezvous and report for active service at such time and place and to such officer as the Governor designates, and shall enter the active service of the State and obey all lawful orders and commands issued by the Governor or any officer placed in command by his orders in the same manner as if such California State Guard were a part of the National Guard. This section shall not be construed as a modification of Section 566.

Military service of United States

580. Nothing in this act shall be construed as authorizing such forces, or any part thereof to be called, ordered or in any manner drafted, as such, into the military service of the United States, but no person shall by reason of his enlistment or commission in any such forces be exempted from military service under any law of the United States.

Associations

581. No civil organization, society, club, post, order, fraternity, association, brotherhood, body, union, league, or other combination of persons or civil group shall be enlisted in such forces as an organization or unit.

Prior dishonorable discharge

582. No person shall be commissioned or enlisted in the California State Guard who has been expelled or dishonorably discharged from any military or naval organization of this State, or of another State, or of the United States.

Oath

583. The oath to be taken by officers commissioned in such forces shall be substantially in the form prescribed for officers of the National Guard, substituting the words California State Guard where necessary.

Enlistment

584. Enlistments shall be for the present emergency and thereafter while any part of the National Guard of the State is in active Federal service. The oath to be taken upon enlistment in such forces shall be substantially in the form prescribed for enlisted men of the National Guard.

Courts-martial

585. (a) Whenever such forces or any part thereof shall be ordered out for active service the Articles of War of the United States applicable to members of the National Guard of this State in relation to courts-martial, their jurisdiction and the limits of punishment and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder shall be in full force and effect with respect to the California State Guard.

Arrest

(b) No officer or enlisted man of such forces shall be arrested on any warrant, except for treason or felony, while going to, remaining at, or returning from a place where he is ordered to attend for military duty. Every officer and enlisted man of such active forces shall, during his service therein, be exempt from service upon any posse comitatus and from jury duty.

"Licensed Military Companies"

586. The Governor may revoke the license of any organization, company or body of men heretofore organized as "Licensed Military Companies." Such revocation automatically cancels all commissions and enlistments of officers and members of such units. The present "Licensed Military Companies" or the present members of the inactive State Guard may be inducted into the California State Guard herein created, in a body and without the necessity of a new enlistment.

Specialists

587. The Adjutant General, with the approval of the Governor, whenever he may deem it necessary to do so for the best interest of the State, may, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2 of this act, enlist, as members of the State Guard, such number of specialists as he may determine upon, to guard property owned by the State or any agency thereof. The specialists shall receive pay to be fixed by The Adjutant General, such pay, however, not to be greater than the prevailing wage for private guards in the community where the specialists are employed.

Such specialists shall have the power of peace officers while in active service and in the performance of their duties, and not otherwise, on the premises, and in the immediate vicinity thereof, which they are assigned to guard, concerning any act or conduct which might affect the safety of such premises.

Urgency

SEC. 5. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is contained in Section 1 of this act.

Constitutionality

SEC. 6. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this act, or the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Stats 1917, p 658, amended

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3a is added to the act cited in the title hereof, to read:

New section

Sec. 3a. All fees collected under this act shall be deposited in the State treasury to the credit of the General Fund. The administration of this act shall be supported out of the General Fund.

Deposit and administration support

SEC. 2. Section 15 of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read:

Stats 1941, p 2945

Sec. 15. For the purpose of discovering violations of this act or securing information lawfully required by him hereunder, the commissioner may at any time, either personally or by a person or persons duly designated by him, investigate the loans and business and examine the books, accounts, records and files used therein, of every corporation which shall be engaged in the business of an industrial loan company or broker, whether such corporation shall act or claim to act as principal or agent, or under or without the authority of this

Examination of books, etc

act. For that purpose the commissioner and his duly designated representatives shall have free access to the offices and places of business, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes and vaults of all such corporations. The commissioner shall have authority to require the attendance of witnesses and to examine under oath all persons whomsoever whose testimony he may require relative to such loans or such business or to the subject matter of any examination, investigation, or hearing.

The commissioner shall make such an examination of the affairs, business, office and records of each industrial loan company at least once each year.

Prosecution

Whenever, after an examination, investigation or hearing under this act, the commissioner deems it of public interest or advantage, he may certify a record to the proper prosecuting official of the county, city and county, or city in which the act or acts complained of, examined or investigated, occurred.

New section

SEC. 3. Section 15a is added to the act cited in the title hereof, to read:

Costs of administration

Sec. 15a. To defray the costs of administration of this act, including examinations and supervision, the commissioner shall require each company incorporated under and by virtue of the Industrial Loan Act to pay in advance to him its pro rata amount of all such costs as estimated by the commissioner for the ensuing year and it is hereby made the duty of every such company to pay the same. Such pro rata shall be the proportion which its assets bear to the aggregate assets of all companies incorporated under and by virtue of the Industrial Loan Act as shown by the latest annual reports of such companies to the commissioner.

Assessments

On or before the thirtieth day of November in each year, the commissioner shall notify each of such companies by mail of the amount assessed and levied against it and that the same must be paid within 20 days thereafter; and should payment not be made to him within said 20 days, he shall assess and collect a penalty in addition thereto of 5 per cent for each month or part of a month that such payment may be delayed or withheld.

Provided, however, that in the levying and collection of such assessment, no company shall be assessed for nor be permitted to pay less than ten dollars ($10) per annum and any such company hereafter formed shall be required to pay not less than one dollar ($1) per month or fraction thereof for the unexpired year ending December 31st succeeding its incorporation.

CHAPTER 299

An act to amend Section 2 of "An act requiring individuals, as in said act defined, to obtain a certificate from the Commissioner of Corporations prior to soliciting, receiving or collecting contributions, fees or funds from security owners or holders for the purpose of protecting, enforcing or representing the rights of such security owners or holders; authorizing the Commissioner of Corporations to regulate and supervise the solicitation, collection and application of such funds; and providing for the enforcement of said act and penalties for the violation thereof," approved July 1, 1937, relating to the deposit of fees in the General Fund and support from the General Fund.

Stats 1937, p 2232, amended

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of the act cited in title hereof is amended to read:

Stats 1937, p 2232

Sec. 2. No individual, as in this act defined, shall, within this State, solicit, receive or collect any contributions, fees or funds, or compensation of any kind, or solicit any subscription or contract to pay the same, from any owner or holder of securities, for the purpose of protecting, enforcing or representing the rights of such security owners or holders evidenced by such security, until such individual has first applied for and secured from the commissioner a certificate then in effect authorizing such individual so to do. To secure such certificate, the applicant shall make and file in the office of the commissioner an application therefor in writing, verified by or in behalf of the applicant. In such application the applicant shall set forth, in addition to such other information as may be required by the commissioner:

Certificate of authorization

Application

(1) The name and address of the applicant and the name and address of each of its directors, managing officers and agents, if any;

(2) A succinct statement of facts showing that the applicant and its directors, managing officers and agents, if any, have a good business reputation;

(3) The particular securities and the name of the company issuing the same, in respect of which the individual proposes to solicit contributions, fees or funds from the holders thereof;

(4) A statement of the character and extent of services proposed to be rendered by the individual, together with a prima facie showing of the necessity therefor, and a statement of the total amount of contributions which it is estimated are to be solicited.

For filing such application the applicant shall pay the commissioner a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25), and all such fees charged and collected by the commissioner shall be paid into the State treasury and credited to the General Fund. The administration of this act shall be supported from the General Fund of the State of California.

CHAPTER 300

Stats 1939, p 2874, amended

An act to add Section 20.5 to the Personal Property Brokers Act, approved July 24, 1939, relating to the deposit of money in the State treasury and to provide for support of the administration of said act out of the General Fund.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. Section 20.5 is added to the act cited in the title hereof, to read:

Deposit and administration support

Sec. 20.5. All money paid or collected under this act shall be deposited in the State treasury to the credit of the General Fund. The administration of this act shall be supported out of the General Fund.

CHAPTER 301

Stats 1917, p. 673, amended

An act to amend Sections 25, 26 and 28 of the Corporate Securities Act, relating to deposit of fees in and support from the General Fund, revision of fees, declaring the urgency of this act, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1931, p 937

SECTION 1. Section 25 of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read:

Offices

Sec. 25. The commissioner shall have his principal office in the City of Sacramento, and may establish branch offices in the City and County of San Francisco, in the City of Los Angeles, and in the City of San Diego, and he shall from time to time obtain the necessary furniture, stationery, fuel, light, and other proper conveniences for the transaction of the business of the department; the expenses of which shall be paid out of the General Fund, in accordance with law.

Stats. 1937, p 2320

SEC. 2. Section 26 of said act is amended to read:

Fees

Sec. 26. The commissioner shall charge and collect the following fees:

1. For filing an original or supplemental application for a permit to issue securities (except certificates of deposit or any guarantee of any security, both of which are covered in paragraphs 10 and 11 of this Section 26; and except any application filed pursuant to paragraph 12 of this Section 26), twenty dollars ($20), plus—

Fifteen one-hundredths of 1 per cent of the amount of any excess of the aggregate value of the securities sought to be issued over one thousand dollars ($1,000) and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000);

Five one-hundredths of 1 per cent of such amount in excess of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000);

Three one-hundredths of 1 per cent of such amount in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000); and

One one-hundredth of 1 per cent of such amount in excess of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

For the purpose of determining the above fees:

(a) The value of such securities shall be deemed to be their par or face value unless the consideration for such securities is in excess of such par or face value, in which case the value will be deemed to be the amount of the consideration so received.

(b) Where the securities proposed to be issued have no nominal or par value, the value of such securities shall be deemed to be the price at which the company proposes to sell or issue the same, or the value, as alleged in the application, or the actual value, as determined by the commissioner, of the consideration (if other than money) to be received in exchange therefor; provided, however, until a new value shall have been established, each share of no par value stock proposed to be issued shall be deemed to have a value equal to the value which has been established by previous sales for money or other property of other shares of the same class.

(c) Interim or voting trust certificates shall be deemed to have a value equal to the aggregate value of the securities to be represented by said interim or voting trust certificates.

(d) Rights, warrants or other certificates evidencing stockholder's rights to purchase additional securities shall be deemed to have a value equal to the difference between the selling price of the securities represented by such rights, warrants or other certificates and the market value of the securities so represented at the date of filing of application.

(e) Where an application is made to issue securities containing a provision entitling the holder or holders thereof to convert or exchange the same for a different class of securities, the value of the securities to be so issued shall be deemed to be an amount equal to twice the amount of the consideration to be received for the securities containing the conversion or exchange provision.

2. For acting as escrow holder for securities as herein provided, up to par, stated or permit value of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), twenty-five dollars ($25); in excess of par, stated or permit value of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), fifty dollars ($50). In addition a fee of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) shall be paid for the deposit with the commissioner of each new certificate, or other document resulting from a transfer in escrow.

2a. For filing an application for an order consenting to the transfer in escrow of securities, two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50).

3. For filing any application for a broker's or an investment counsel's certificate, twenty-five dollars ($25).

Provided, however, that if after a certificate shall have been issued to any broker operating as a partnership there shall be a change of interest affecting less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the whole interest therein, no new application need be made, but there shall be filed with the commissioner, accompanied by payment of a fee of ten dollars ($10), written notice of such change, stating the names and addresses of the partners and their respective interests, and any other information which may be required by the commissioner, together with evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that the bond theretofore filed by such broker is and will be maintained in good standing notwithstanding such change. The commissioner may in his discretion require a new application, in which event the procedure and fee shall be the same as upon an original application for a broker's certificate. If the commissioner shall approve such change without a new application, the certificate theretofore issued and in force and any agents' licenses theretofore issued to agents of such partnership and then in force, shall continue in full force and effect.

4. For filing any application for an agent's certificate, fifteen dollars ($15).

5. For any examination, audit, or investigation, the actual amount of the salary or other compensation paid to the person or persons making the examination, audit or investigation plus the actual amount of expenses, reasonably incurred in the performance of such work.

6. For copies of papers and records not required to be certified or otherwise authenticated by the commissioner, ten cents ($0.10) for each folio.

7. For certified copies of official documents, orders and other papers filed in his office; for making and mailing copies of process served upon him under the provisions of Section 24 of this act, and for transcript on appeal, fifteen cents ($0.15) for each folio and one dollar ($1) for each certificate under seal affixed thereto.

8. For certificate of service and mailing of process served upon the commissioner under the provisions of Section 24 of this act, two dollars ($2).

9. For filing any application for an amendment to an existing permit to issue securities, or for a permit to negotiate for the sale of securities or requesting the written consent of the commissioner to a proposed instrument amending, supplementing or abrogating any portion of any mortgage, deed of trust, indenture or other instrument under which bonds, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness are issued or secured, fifteen dollars ($15).

10. For filing any application for a permit to issue certificates of deposit, twenty-five dollars ($25), plus a sum, as estimated by the commissioner, to cover the actual expense of noticing and holding any hearing held in connection therewith.

11. For filing any application for a permit to execute or issue any guarantee of any security, twenty-five dollars ($25).

12. For filing any application for a permit or for an amendment to a permit not fully exercised, to issue securities evidencing changed preferences, rights, privileges, or restrictions granted to or imposed upon outstanding securities in exchange for said outstanding securities theretofore issued by the applicant company, after any change in the stock or share structure of any company by an amendment to the articles, certificate of incorporation or other agreement authorizing the issuance of stock or shares, which amendment has the effect of changing the number of, or the preferences, rights, privileges, or restrictions granted to or imposed upon said securities, or changing or eliminating the par value of said securities, or changing said securities from a no par to a par value (except where such amendment only increases or decreases the number of shares authorized but unissued pursuant to the articles, certificate or other agreement authorizing the issuance of stock or shares, in which case no permit shall be required by reason of such amendment), twenty-five dollars ($25).

No fees shall be charged or collected for copies of papers, records, or official documents furnished to public officers for use in their official capacity or for the reports of the commissioner in the ordinary course of distribution; but the commissioner may fix a reasonable charge for the publications issued under his authority.

Disposition of fees

All fees charged and collected under this section shall be paid at least once each week, accompanied by a detailed statement thereof, into the treasury of the State to the General Fund. The Corporation Commission Fund is hereby abolished. All money in said fund on the effective date of this act shall be transferred to the General Fund.

Stats 1931, p 937

SEC. 3. Section 28 of said act is amended to read:

Administration support

Sec. 28. The administration of this act shall be supported from the General Fund of the State of California.

1943 appropriation

SEC. 4. Any appropriation made or to be made by the Budget Act of 1943 for the support of the Division of Corporations, Department of Investment, payable from the Corporation Commission Fund, shall be paid out of the General Fund.

Urgency

SEC. 5. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall take effect immediately and become operative July 1, 1943. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

The Division of Corporations administers several acts essential to the preservation of the public peace, health and safety. During the present emergency the income from said acts has been reduced endangering the continuance of the functions of said division. A transfer to the General Fund as of July 1, 1943, is necessary in order to insure the continued functioning of said division and the preservation of the public health, peace and safety.

CHAPTER 302

Stats 1939, p 2886, amended

An act to add Section 21.5 to the California Small Loan Act, approved July 24, 1939, relating to the deposit of money in the State treasury and to provide for support of the administration of said act out of the General Fund.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. Section 21.5 is added to the act cited in the title hereof, to read:

Deposits and administration support

Sec. 21.5. All money paid or collected under this act shall be deposited in the State treasury to the credit of the General Fund. The administration of this act shall be supported out of the General Fund.

CHAPTER 303

An act granting certain tide lands, submerged lands and filled tide lands of the State of California to the City of Avalon, upon certain trusts and conditions.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Grant

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted to the City of Avalon, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all the right, title and interest of the State of California held by said State by virtue of its sovereignty, in and to all of the tide lands, submerged lands and filled tide lands lying within the corporate limits of the City of Avalon and bordering upon, in and under the Pacific Ocean, situated below the line of mean high tide of the Pacific Ocean, to be forever held by the City of Avalon and its successors in trust for the uses and purposes and upon the express conditions following, to wit: Conditions of grant

(a) Said lands shall be used by said city and by its successors solely for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor and for the establishment and construction of bulkheads, or breakwaters for the protection of lands within its boundaries, or for the protection of its harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereof of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, ways and streets and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion or accommodation of commerce and navigation, and for the protection of the lands within said city. And said city or its successors shall not at any time grant, convey, give or alien said lands or any part thereof to any individual, firm or corporation, for any purpose whatever; provided, that said city or its successors may grant franchises thereon for a period not exceeding 50 years for wharves and other public uses and purposes, and may lease said lands or any part thereof for limited periods, in any event not to exceed 50 years for any and all purposes which shall not interfere with commerce or navigation and are not inconsistent with the trusts upon which said lands are held by the State of California or with the requirements of commerce or navigation at said harbor.

(b) Said harbor shall be improved by said city without expense to the State and shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have at all times the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvement constructed on said lands or any part thereof for any vessel or other water craft or railroad owned or operated by the State of California.

(c) In the management, conduct or operation of said harbor or any of the utilities, structures or appliances mentioned in paragraph (a) no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges or in facilities for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city, or by its successors. The absolute right to fish in the waters of said harbor with the right of convenient access to said water over said lands for said purpose is hereby reserved to the people of the State of California.

There is hereby excepted and reserved to the State of California all deposits of minerals, including oil and gas in said land, and to the State of California, or persons authorized by the State of California, the right to prospect for, mine, and remove such deposits from such land. Reservations

Stats 1939, p. 1274, amended

An act to amend Sections 3791 and 3792 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property sold or deeded for taxes.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1939, p 1274

SECTION 1. Section 3791 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

Purchase by taxing agency

3791. Whenever tax-deeded property has been sold for taxes for two or more years or has been deeded for taxes to another taxing agency than the State, the governing body of the taxing agency may, as provided in this article, make an agreement with the board of supervisors of the county in which the property is situated for the purchase of, or for an option to purchase, all or any of the tax-deeded property.

Stats 1939, p 1274

SEC. 2. Section 3792 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

Joint purchase

3792. If tax-deeded property has been sold for taxes for two or more years or has been deeded for taxes to two or more taxing agencies, they may make a joint agreement with the board of supervisors under this article. The joint agreement may provide for the conveyance of all or any interest in the property to one of them or to any combination of them.

CHAPTER 305

Stats 1931, p 587, amended

An act to amend Section 41 of the Probate Code, relating to bequests to charity and charitable use.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1937, p 1435

SECTION 1. Section 41 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

Restrictions

41. No estate, real or personal, may be bequeathed or devised to any charitable or benevolent society or corporation, or to any person or persons in trust for charitable uses, by a testator who leaves a spouse, brother, sister, nephew, niece, descendant or ancestor surviving him, who, under the will, or the laws of succession, would otherwise have taken the property so bequeathed or devised, unless the will was duly executed at least 30 days before the death of the testator. If so executed at least 30 days before death, such devises and legacies shall be valid, but they may not collectively exceed one-third of the testator's estate as against his spouse, brother, sister, nephew, niece, descendant or ancestor, who would otherwise, as aforesaid, have taken the excess over one-third, and if they do, a pro rata deduction from such devises and legacies shall be made so as to reduce the aggregate thereof to one-third of the estate. All property bequeathed or devised contrary to the provisions of this section shall go to the spouse, brother, sister, nephew, niece, descendant or ancestor of the testator, if and to the extent that they would have taken said property as aforesaid but for such devises or legacies; otherwise the testator's estate shall go in accordance with his will and such devises and legacies shall be unaffected.

Construction

Nothing herein contained is intended to, or shall be deemed or construed to vest any property devised or bequeathed to charity or in trust for a charitable use, in any person who is not a relative of the testator belonging to one of the classes mentioned herein, or in any such relative, unless and then only to the extent that such relative takes the same under a substitutional or residuary bequest or devise in the will or under the laws of succession because of the absence of other effective disposition in the will.

CHAPTER 306

An act making an appropriation for support of Division of Beaches and Parks, Department of Natural Resources, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of thirty-nine thousand five hundred forty-four dollars ($39,544) is hereby appropriated out of the State Park Maintenance and Acquisition Fund for support of the Division of Beaches and Parks, Department of Natural Resources, in addition to, and in augmentation of, the appropriation contained in Item 152 in "The Budget Act of 1941" for expenditure during the Ninety-fourth Fiscal Year. The amount herein appropriated shall augment the schedules contained in said Item 152 in "The Budget Act of 1941" as the Director of Finance by executive order may direct.

Appropriation Division of Beaches and Parks

SEC. 2. This act, inasmuch as it makes an appropriation for the usual current State expenses, shall under provision of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution take effect immediately.

An act to amend Section 7b of the Municipal Court Act of 1925, relating to the salaries of marshal's deputies and assistants in cities of the first and one-half class.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1931, p 1537

SECTION 1. Section 7b of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read:

Marshal's deputies

Sec. 7b. The marshal of the municipal court in cities of the first and one-half class shall appoint the following deputies and attaches who shall receive as monthly compensation the sums set opposite the title of their respective offices or positions:

One assistant marshal at four hundred dollars ($400); one deputy (chief clerk) at three hundred dollars ($300);

Three deputies (captains) at two hundred sixty dollars ($260);

Four deputies (lieutenants) at two hundred thirty-five dollars ($235);

Fifteen deputies at two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225);

Thirty deputies at two hundred ten dollars ($210);

Six deputies at one hundred eighty-five dollars ($185);

Six deputies at one hundred sixty dollars ($160);

Three deputies at one hundred forty dollars ($140);

One hundred deputies (custodians), at the fee allowed by law for keeping property.

The deputy marshals serving as custodians shall be paid only for their actual services as keepers of property taken under legal process and shall be paid out of the funds deposited by the parties to the action in which such services are rendered.

In addition to the salaries in this section above provided, the marshal and deputy marshals shall be allowed their necessary incidental expenses incurred in the performance of their duty. They may be furnished with automobiles at public expense for use in the service of writs and processes or may in lieu of the traveling expenses be allowed not to exceed six cents ($0.06) per mile for the operation of automobiles furnished by themselves while actually used on public business in the performance of their duty.

CHAPTER 308

An act to amend Section 45 of the Elections Code, relating to petitions and papers signed by voters.

Stats 1939, p 49, amended

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 45 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

Stats 1939, p 318

45. Wherever, by the Constitution or laws of this State any initiative, referendum, recall or nominating petition or paper, or any other petition or paper, is required to be signed by voters, only a voter who is a registered qualified voter at the time he signs the petition or paper, is entitled to sign it. Each signer shall at the time of signing the petition or paper himself affix thereto his place of residence, giving street and number, and if no street or number exists, then a designation of his place of residence which will enable the location to be readily ascertained; provided, however, that each signer of any municipal initiative, referendum, recall or any nominating petition or paper shall in addition to the other requirements of this section, at the time of signing the petition or paper affix thereto the date of his signing. Where successive signers reside in the same city or town, each signer need not repeat the name of said city or town, but may use marks to indicate that the city or town in which he resides is the same as the one which the prior signer has indicated as his residence. The date of signing shall appear opposite each name, but if successive signers sign on the same date, marks may be used to indicate that the dates are the same.

Petitions or papers signed by voters

Wherever, by the Constitution or laws of this State, any such petition or paper is required to be accompanied by the affidavit of the person soliciting signatures thereto, that affidavit shall set forth the dates between which all signatures on the petition or paper were secured by him.

Accompanying affidavit

CHAPTER 309

An act to amend Sections 2.02, 2.04 and 12.06 of the Building and Loan Association Act, relating to building and loan associations, names and articles, and restrictions on advertising.

Stats 1931, p 483, amended

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2.02 of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read:

Stats 1931, p 483

Sec. 2.02 Restrictions on corporate name. The name of each domestic association hereafter incorporated, and the name

Corporate name of each foreign association hereafter qualifying to do business in this State, shall include the words "building and loan association" or "building-loan association" or "savings and loan association"; provided, however, that no domestic association hereafter incorporated, and no foreign association hereafter qualifying to do business in this State, shall include the word "mutual" in its name unless it shall be organized without stock, nor shall it include the word "guaranty" or "guarantee" in its name unless it shall be organized to issue stock.

Stats 1931, p 483

SEC. 2. Section 2.04 of said act is amended to read:

Approval of articles

Sec. 2.04. Articles to be approved by commissioner. Before the articles of incorporation of any proposed domestic association, or the articles of incorporation, certificate of incorporation, charter, or any similar document relating to any foreign association, shall hereafter be filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of California, there must be attached thereto a certificate of the commissioner approving

Application

the same. Such articles, certificate, charter, or other similar document shall be submitted to the commissioner with a copy of the by-laws and an application, signed by a majority and verified by one of the directors, requesting such approval; which application shall set forth (a) the names and addresses of the incorporators, directors and officers, with a statement of their character, experience and general fitness to engage in the building and loan business; (b) an itemized statement of the estimated receipts and expenditures of such association for the first year or such longer period as the commissioner in his discretion may require; (c) a statement that such association will not issue either stock or investment certificates, or in the alternative, a showing that the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the formation of such association or its qualification to do business in this State; and (d) such other matters as the commissioner may require. Upon receipt of such articles, certificates, charter, or other similar document, and of such application, the commissioner shall immediately examine and investigate into all the facts connected with the formation or qualification of such association, including its incorporators, directors and officers, its proposed location, its estimated receipts and expenditures and, unless such application shall have stated that such association will not issue either stock or investment certificates, whether the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the formation or qualification of such association. The commissioner may refuse to execute his certificate of approval, if, upon his examination and investigation, he has reason to believe that the corporation is to be formed or qualified for any business other than legitimate building and loan business, or that the incorporators, directors or officers lack the character, experience or general fitness to engage in such business, or that such association's financial program is unsound, or, unless such application shall have stated that such association will not issue either stock or investment certificates, that the public convenience and advantage will not be promoted by the formation or qualification of such association. The commissioner, however, shall not execute such certificate until he has given written notice by mail to each association then existing in this State having a name raising the presumption hereinafter mentioned, directed to it with postage thereon prepaid at its principal office in this State, that an application for the issuance by him of such certificate has been made, together with the name of the association in respect of which such application shall have been made, and that a hearing will be held by him at his office at a time to be therein specified, which shall not be less than 10 days after the mailing thereof; and the commissioner shall give such notices, and at the time and place specified in such notices shall hold a hearing at which any person, firm or corporation may appear in person or by agent or attorney, and orally or in writing show cause why such certificate should not be issued upon the ground that the name of such association is the same as one already adopted or appropriated by any association then existing in this State, or so similar thereto as to be likely to mislead the public; and if, upon such hearing or his examination or investigation, the commissioner shall have reason to believe that the name of the association is the same as one already adopted or appropriated by any association then existing in this State, or so similar thereto as to be likely to mislead the public, he shall refuse to issue such certificate; and the commissioner shall conclusively presume that the use of any word or words in the name of the association the same as or similar in spelling or sound to any word or words already adopted, appropriated, or used in its corporate name by any association then existing in this State, except the words: "the," "and," "mutual," "guaranty," "guarantee," "building," "loan," "savings," or "association," constitutes such similarity of names as to be likely to mislead the public; provided, further, that if any and all associations then existing in this State causing such presumption file consent in writing thereto with the commissioner, the commissioner may nevertheless issue such certificate. Wherever in this section reference is made to the by-laws, incorporators, directors and officers, such reference in the case of a proposed domestic association shall refer to the proposed by-laws, incorporators, directors and officers thereof.

Investigation

Similarity of name

No association which in its application to the commissioner referred to in this section shall have stated that it would not issue either stock or investment certificates, shall issue any stock or investment certificates except with the prior written consent of the commissioner. In applying for such consent such association shall set forth (a) the names and addresses of its directors and officers with a statement of their character, experience and general fitness to engage in the new type of building and loan business proposed; (b) a showing that the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by permitting such association to issue stock or investment certificates as proposed in such application; and (c) such other matters as the commissioner may require. Upon receipt of such application the commissioner shall immediately examine and investigate into all the facts stated in such application; and the commissioner may refuse to give his written consent if upon his examination and investigation he has reason to believe that the directors or officers lack the character, experience or general fitness to engage in the new type of building and loan business proposed, or that the public convenience and advantage will not be promoted by permitting such association to issue stock or investment certificates. No domestic association hereafter incorporated, and no foreign association hereafter qualifying to do business in this State, which shall include the word "mutual" in its name, shall be permitted to issue stock without first eliminating from its name the word "mutual." The term "existing in this State," wherever used in this section, shall include foreign associations licensed to do building and loan business in this State.

Sec. 12.06. Restrictions on advertising. No association shall issue or publish or cause or permit to be issued or published, any advertisement that it is doing or permitted to do any business which is prohibited by law to an association, or any advertisement which shall misrepresent the nature of the shares, stock or investment certificates of such association, or the rights of investors in respect thereto. Any association whose corporate name does not include the words "building and loan," "building-loan" or "savings and loan" shall in all advertisements state "This is a building and loan association" or "This is a savings and loan association," or words to that effect. The commissioner shall have power to require any or all associations, before issuing, circulating or publishing any advertisement, to file a true copy of the proposed text thereof in the office of the commissioner at least one day prior thereto; and if the commissioner shall have made the aforesaid requirement as to any association, such association shall comply therewith and shall not issue, circulate or publish any advertisement after notice in writing from the commissioner that in his opinion the same is unauthorized, false, misleading or otherwise likely to deceive a reader or hearer thereof. No association in any advertisement shall state that it is under State supervision or control, or shall include in any advertisement or in any instrument used by it, a replica of the Great Seal of the State of California.

An act to add Section 174 to the State Civil Service Act, relating to reinstatement of persons who leave the civil service to serve as seamen on vessels of the United States in time of war. Stats 1937, p. 2085

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 174 is added to the State Civil Service Act, to read: New section

SEC. 174. Any officer or employee of the State having civil service status who in time of war leaves or has left his position to serve as a seaman on board any vessel of the United States shall retain all civil service rights to his position and shall be reinstated to his position upon application within 90 days after the termination of such service or the termination of the war, as proclaimed by the President of the United States, whichever is the earlier; provided, however, that any such Reinstatement to former position officer or employee whose service shall be terminated in a foreign country and who shall leave the foreign country to return to the United States within 90 days after termination of service shall have 90 days after return to the United States within which to make application.

"Seaman" As used in this section the term "seaman" means any person, including the master and officers, employed on board any vessel of the United States in the care, preservation, operation, management or navigation of such vessel, but it does not include any person who is a member of the land or naval forces of the United States; and the term "vessel of the United States" means any vessel registered, enrolled or licensed under the laws of the United States, any vessel acquired by the United States under the provisions of the act entitled "An act to authorize the acquisition by the United States of title to or the use of domestic or foreign merchant vessels for urgent needs of commerce and National defense, and for other purposes," approved June 6, 1941, as amended, or any other merchant or cargo vessel not of foreign registry owned or operated by or on behalf of the United States, except that the term does not include any fishing or whaling vessel or yacht.

CHAPTER 312

An act to amend Section 869a of the Civil Code, relating to the effect of omitting beneficiaries in instruments to trustee affecting real property.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1923, p. 274

SECTION 1. Section 869a of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Undisclosed beneficiary. Presumption

869a. Whenever any estate or interest in, or lien on or encumbrance on real property is conveyed, created, aliened, mortgaged, encumbered or affected by an instrument in writing to or in favor of a person or persons in trust, or (a) where such person is designated "trustee" or "as trustee," or (b) where such persons are designated "trustees" or "as trustees," and regardless of whether a joint tenancy or right of survivorship as between such persons is expressed or not, then, if no beneficiary be indicated or named in said instrument, it shall be presumed that said person or persons, as the case may be, holds or hold the title to the estate, interest, lien or encumbrance absolutely in his or their own individual right and free from any trust, and an instrument executed by such person or persons, whether purporting to be the act of such person or persons in his or their individual right, or in his or their capacity as trustee or trustees, shall prima facie affect such estate, interest, lien or encumbrance according to the tenor of such instrument. As to such instrument last mentioned and any judgment against such person affecting the title, such presumption shall be and become conclusive as to such undisclosed beneficiary and the original grantor or trustor and anyone claiming under them in favor of a purchaser or encumbrancer in good faith and for valuable consideration upon the filing of such instrument last mentioned for record in the office of the recorder of the county wherein the land affected thereby is situated.

Action

In any action or proceeding involving the estate, interest, lien or encumbrance affected by the instrument first mentioned instituted against such person or persons, he or they shall be deemed the only necessary representative of such undisclosed beneficiary and of the original grantor or trustor and anyone claiming under them, and any judgment or decree shall be binding upon and conclusive against them as to all matters finally adjudicated therein.

Exceptions

Provided, however, that as to such instruments so filed for record prior to the taking effect of this act, such presumption shall not become conclusive except in favor of a purchaser or encumbrancer in good faith and for a valuable consideration until one year after the taking effect of this act when it shall become conclusive without any qualification whatsoever and no action to avoid or impugn any such instrument last mentioned shall be commenced after the time when such presumption becomes conclusive as hereinbefore provided; and further provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as depriving such original grantor or trustor or undisclosed beneficiary, or anyone claiming under them, from commencing and maintaining actions other than actions affecting the land the subject of such instruments.

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1921, p 906

SECTION 1. Section 43 of the act cited in the title is amended to read:

Payment of claims

Sec. 43. No claims shall be paid until allowed by the board, and only upon a warrant signed by any two officers.

CHAPTER 314

Stats 1935, p 1338, amended

An act to add Section 395.8 to the Military and Veterans Code, relating to the reinstatement of officers of any city, who shall have left the services of such city to enter upon active services of the armed forces of the United States, upon his discharge or release from such active service; to provide for temporary officers to serve during such absence of officers; and declaring the urgency hereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. Section 395.8 is hereby added to the Military and Veterans Code, to read as follows:

Reinstatement to office of city officers in armed forces

395.8. Any officer, elective or otherwise, who leaves or shall have left the service of any city in order to enter upon active service with the armed forces of the United States shall be reinstated and restored to his office upon his discharge or release from such active service with the armed forces; provided, such discharge or release is prior to the expiration of the term for which he has been elected or appointed.

Exception

The rights created by this section shall have no application to any officer who shall have been dishonorably discharged or released from such armed forces, or shall have been so mentally or physically disabled as to be incapable of performing the duties of his office or shall fail to present himself to the legislative body or other appointing authority of such city ready and willing to assume the duties of his office, within ninety (90) days from the time of his discharge or release from active service with the armed forces.

Temporary appointee

The office from which such officer absents himself to enter upon active service with the armed forces shall not be considered to be vacant but the legislative body or other appointing authority, as the case may be, may appoint an officer to temporarily replace any such officer so absenting himself to enter upon active service with the armed forces. Such temporary officers shall have all of the powers and duties of the office to which he may be temporarily appointed and shall hold said office until the expiration of the term thereof or until the officer returns from service with the armed forces, whichever event first occurs.

Urgency

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California and as such shall take effect immediately. Following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity:

An emergency exists in the United States and the State of California in providing adequate armies and facilities of defense. The arming of the Nation is resulting in many city elected officers resigning from their positions because of entry into the armed forces. To protect these officers in their positions and to enable them to return to necessary public work at the expiration of the existing National emergency, it is necessary to immediately adopt laws permitting leaves of absence for the duration of the war or at least until the expiration of their terms.

An act to amend Section 202 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to county contracts for hospital care and services.

Stats. 1937, p. 1005, amended

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 202 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

Stats. 1941, p. 2891

202. (a) The board shall not let the care, maintenance, or attendance of such indigent sick or dependent poor by contract to any person. However, in cases of unusual difficulty or which require treatment or the use of facilities not immediately available in the county hospital, the board may secure by agreement, for the indigent sick, hospital service within or without the county, at cost from any public hospital, clinic, rest home or sanitarium, or at an agreed rate from any private hospital, clinic, rest home or sanitarium in the State. Such agreements shall be made only with those hospitals, clinics, rest homes or sanitariums which are qualified to render and are actually rendering services to the sick, economically and efficiently, and the books of which reflect accurately in monthly statements the per diem cost of hospital service.

Contracts for care

(b) The county may also contract with public or private hospitals or clinics for emergency hospital service to persons admissible to the county hospital, and for continued hospital service to indigent patients at the expense of the county after the emergency has ceased to exist, if the per diem cost, inclusive of all services of whatsoever nature, does not exceed the cost of the same type of service in a hospital operated by the county pursuant to Section 203 of this code. The county shall pay to the public or private hospital or clinic the cost of the emergency service provided during the first 24 hours to all patients who are unable to pay for the service provided to them.

(c) As used in this section, "hospital service" includes medical, surgical, radiological, laboratory, nursing and such other care and service as may be necessary for the treatment of the sick or injured.

An act to add Section 5.45-1 to the School Code and to add Section 20380 to the Education Code, relating to employees of State colleges not serving in the State civil service.

In effect August 1, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. Section 5.45-1 is added to the School Code, to read:

Reinstatement of non-civil service State college employee in armed forces

5.45-1. Every employee of a State college not serving in the State civil service who has entered or who hereafter enters the active military service of the United States of America or of the State of California, including active service in any uniformed auxiliary of, or to, any branch of such military service created or authorized as such auxiliary by the Congress of the United States of America or by the Legislature of the State of California, or in the full-time paid service of the American Red Cross, during any period of National emergency declared by the President of the United States of America or during any war in which the United States of America is engaged, shall be deemed to have been entitled or shall be entitled to absent himself from his duties as an employee of the college.

Within 90 days after such employee honorably leaves such service or has been placed on inactive duty he shall be entitled to return to the position held by him at the time of his entrance into such military service, at the salary to which he would have been entitled had he not absented himself from his duties as an employee of the college under this section.

Note.—See Stats. 1943, Ch. 71.

Effect Stats 1943, Ch 71

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act becomes operative only if the Education Code is enacted by the Legislature at its Fifty-fifth Session, and, in such case, at the same time as said code takes effect; at which time Section 5.45-1 of the School Code added by this act is hereby repealed.

An act to amend Sections 12, 21.30 and 21.90 of, and to add Section 31 to, an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal utility districts, authorizing such districts to incur bonded indebtedness for the acquisition and construction of works and property, and to levy and collect taxes to pay the principal and interest thereon," approved May 23, 1921, relating to municipal utility districts.

Stats. 1921, p. 245, amended

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12 of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read:

Stats. 1941, p. 1478

Sec. 12. Any municipal utility district incorporated as herein provided shall have power:

Powers of district

First—To have perpetual succession.

Second—To sue and be sued, except as otherwise provided herein or by law, in all actions and proceedings, in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction.

Third—To adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure.

Fourth—To take by grant, purchase, gift, devise, or lease, or condemn in proceedings under eminent domain, or otherwise acquire, and to hold and enjoy real and personal property of every kind within or without the district necessary to the full or convenient exercise of its powers. The directors of the district may lease, mortgage, sell or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property within or without the district when in their judgment it is for the best interests of the district so to do. The provisions of this section shall apply to all sales or mortgages heretofore or hereafter made.

Fifth—To acquire, construct, own, operate, control or use, within or without, or partly within and partly without, the district, works or parts of works for supplying the inhabitants of said district and public agencies therein, or some of them, with light, water, power, heat, transportation, telephone service, or other means of communication, or means for the collection, treatment or disposition of garbage, sewage, or refuse matter, and to do all things necessary or convenient to the full exercise of the powers herein granted; also to purchase any of the commodities or services aforementioned from any other utility district, public agency, person, or private company, and distribute the same. Whenever there is a surplus of water, light, heat or power above that which may be required by such inhabitants or public agencies within the district, such district shall have power to sell or otherwise dispose of such surplus outside of the district to persons, firms, and public or private corporations, or public agencies outside said district.

Whenever any of the facilities, works, or utilities of the district, or part thereof, is not used or employed to its fullest capacity for the benefit or requirements of the district or its inhabitants, such district shall have power to enter into an agreement or agreements with public agencies or any person, firm or corporation, upon such terms and conditions as may be satisfactory to its board of directors, for renting, leasing, or otherwise using the available portion or parts of such facilities, works, or utilities, and in connection with any such agreement, renting or leasing, the district may undertake or perform any services incidental thereto.

Sixth—To have or exercise the right of eminent domain in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of private property for public use. To take any property necessary or convenient to the exercise of the powers herein granted, whether such property be already devoted to the same use or otherwise. In the proceedings, venue and trial, relative to the exercise of such right the district shall have all the rights, powers and privileges of an incorporated city or town, and all rights, powers and privileges herein conferred.

Seventh—To construct works across or along any street or public highway, or over any of the lands which are now or may be the property of this State, and to have the same rights and privileges appertaining thereto as have been or may be granted to municipalities within the State, and to construct its works across any stream of water or water-course. The district shall restore any such street or highway to its former state as near as may be, and shall not use the same in a manner to unnecessarily impair its usefulness.

Eighth—To borrow money and incur indebtedness, and to issue bonds or other evidences of such indebtedness; also to refund or retire any indebtedness that may exist against or be assumed by the district, and any special district established pursuant to the provisions of this act; provided, no indebtedness shall be incurred exceeding the ordinary annual income and revenue of the district without the approval of a two-thirds vote of the electors voting on the proposition to incur such indebtedness; provided, however, that a further vote of the electors is not required for any indebtedness heretofore or hereafter incurred within the purposes and not exceeding the available amount of any previously authorized bond issue and as to such indebtedness the proceeds of any of such bonds unexpended in the treasury of the district, or the par value of any of such bonds which are unsold shall be deemed a part of the ordinary annual income and revenue of such district; provided further, that any district operating a utility under rules and regulations requiring applicants for extensions to advance the expenses of such extensions and facilities for serving additional territory may enter into agreements to refund to such applicants in a subsequent year the whole or any part of such expenses so advanced and such refunds may be paid out of the revenues of such subsequent years.

Ninth—To levy and collect, or cause to be levied and collected, taxes for the purpose of carrying on the operations and paying the obligations of the district, and any special district established pursuant to the provisions of this act.

Tenth—To make contracts and to enter into stipulations of any nature whatsoever, either in connection with eminent domain proceedings or otherwise, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, contracts and stipulations to indemnify and save harmless, also to employ labor, and to do all acts necessary and convenient for the full exercise of the powers herein in this act granted.

Eleventh—To proceed in the name of the district in case of condemnation proceedings.

Twelfth—To invest any surplus money in the district treasury, including money in any sinking fund established for the purpose of providing for the payment of the principal or interest of any bonded or other indebtedness or for any other purpose, not required for the immediate necessities of the district, in its own bonds, or in bonds of any special district established pursuant to the provisions of this act or in treasury notes or bonds of the United States, or of this State, or bonds of any county, city and county, city, school district, or in bonds of any other public or municipal corporation or public district within this State which are legal as security for the deposit of public funds, or in obligations issued pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, approved June 22, 1932, as now or hereafter amended, or in obligations issued pursuant to Title IV of the National Housing Act, approved June 27, 1934, as now or hereafter amended, and such investment may be made by direct purchase of any issue of such bonds, treasury notes, or obligations, or part thereof, at the original sale of the same or by the subsequent purchase of such bonds, treasury notes, or obligations. Any bonds, treasury notes, or obligations thus purchased and held may from time to time be sold and the proceeds reinvested in bonds, treasury notes, or obligations as above provided. Sales of any bonds, treasury notes, or obligations thus purchased and held shall from time to time be made in season so that the proceeds may be applied to the purposes for which the money, with which the bonds, treasury notes, or obligations were originally purchased, was placed in the treasury of the district.

Thirteenth—To sell, or otherwise dispose of any water, sewage effluent, fertilizer or other by-product resulting from the operation of a sewage disposal system, and to construct, maintain and operate such pipe lines and other works as may be necessary for that purpose.

Fourteenth—To accept, without limitation by any other provisions of this act requiring approval of indebtedness, contributions or loans from the United States of America, or any department, instrumentality or agency thereof, for the purpose of financing the construction, maintenance and operation of any enterprise in which the district is authorized to engage, and to enter into contracts and cooperate with, and accept cooperation from, the United States of America, or any department, instrumentality or agency thereof, in the construction, maintenance and operation, and in financing the construction, maintenance and operation, of any such enterprise in accordance with any legislation which Congress may have heretofore adopted or may hereafter adopt, under which aid, assistance and cooperation may be furnished by the United States of America in the construction, maintenance and operation or in financing the construction, maintenance and operation of any such enterprise; and to do any and all things necessary in order to avail itself of such aid, assistance and cooperation under any Federal legislation now or hereafter enacted.

Fifteenth—To accept, without limitation by any other provisions of this act requiring approval of indebtedness, contributions of money, rights of way, labor, materials and any other property for the construction, maintenance and operation of any enterprise in which the district is authorized to engage, and to enter into any contracts and cooperate with, and accept cooperation from, the State of California, or any department, instrumentality or agency thereof, or any public agency of this State in the construction, maintenance and operation of, and in financing the construction, maintenance and operation of, any such enterprise.

SEC. 2. Section 21.30 of said act is amended to read:

Incumbents

Sec. 21.30. The incumbents of permanent positions who have held such positions for a period of at least one year continuously next preceding the time that a civil service system shall first be adopted pursuant to the provisions of this act shall be continued in their positions as if appointed thereto after examination and certification from a list of eligibles and shall be governed thereafter by the provisions of this act and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto but shall not be subject to the six months' probation period.

Whenever any district acquires existing facilities from a public utility, whether by proceedings in eminent domain or otherwise, any or all of the officers or employees of the public utility whose duties pertained to the facilities acquired may be appointed to positions in the district's civil service system without examination and certification from a list of eligibles and shall be governed thereafter by the provisions of this act and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto but shall not be subject to the six months' probation period.

In the event that a civil service system is adopted for a district pursuant to this section during the period of a leave of absence granted under Section 395.4 of the Military and Veterans Code or similar legislation, the officer or employee shall, on the termination of his leave of absence, be restored to a position in the district's civil service system wherein he shall have the same or equivalent status as of the last working day before his leave of absence began. Such officer or employee shall hold that position as if appointed thereto after examination and certification from a list of eligibles, and shall be governed thereafter by the rules and regulations of the civil service system, except that if such officer or employee had held a permanent position with the district for a period of one year continuously next preceding the beginning of his leave of absence, he shall not be subject to the six months' probation period.

Stats 1943, Ch 24

SEC. 3. Section 21.90 of said act is hereby amended to read:

Civil service rules and regulations

Sec. 21.90. The general manager shall adopt rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of the civil service provisions of this act and may from time to time amend existing rules, and except as otherwise provided herein such rules shall govern applications, examinations, eligibility, duration of eligible lists; certifications of eligibles; appointments; promotions; transfers; resignations; layoffs or reductions in force, both permanent and temporary, due to lack of work or funds, retrenchment, or completion of work; the filling of positions, temporary, seasonal and permanent; classification; and such other matters as are not in conflict with the civil service provisions of this act. Said rules and regulations or any proposed amendments thereto shall be in writing and a copy thereof shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the office of the district and shall not become effective until 20 days after the posting thereof. Any person interested may within 10 days after such posting file written objections to such proposed rules or amendments, or any part thereof, with the general manager, in which event such rules or amendments shall not become effective until the general manager has given notice of a hearing and heard objections thereto and announced his decision on the objections; provided, however, that anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding the civil service provisions hereof shall not apply to any district until such time as it has operated, controlled or used works or parts of works for the providing of the inhabitants and municipalities within the boundaries of said district with the utility services, or any of them, specified in this act. A civil service system may, however, be adopted under Section 21 at any time after the district commences to operate, control, or use works or parts of works for the providing of the inhabitants and municipalities within the boundaries of said district with the utility services, or any of them, specified in the act, and such system shall be adopted within six months thereafter.

CHAPTER 318

Stats 1935, p 496, amended

An act to add Section 10505 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. Section 10505 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

Exempt labor unions

10505. (A) A labor union having all of the following characteristics is exempt from the provisions of this code relating to life and disability insurance in respect to the benefits herein specified and transactions connected therewith:

1. It is composed of members of one craft or industry or allied crafts or industries.

2. It is organized for the purpose of collective bargaining concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of employment, or conditions of work and for the mutual benefit of its members and not for profit.

3. Either (a) it does not issue policies but provides for payment of such benefits in its by-laws, constitution or rules and regulations; or (b) it limits its membership to one hazardous occupation.

4. Such payment of benefits is incidental to the purposes of such union.

(B) Any incorporated organization, the membership and insurance in which are restricted to members of such a labor union and the officers of which are the officers of the labor union, is likewise exempt from the provisions of this code to the same extent as such labor union.

An act to amend Section 1203.2a of the Penal Code, relating to probation and terms of imprisonment.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1941, p 2100

SECTION 1. Section 1203.2a of the Penal Code is amended to read:

Probationer again committed

1203.2a. If any defendant who has been released on probation is committed to a prison in this State for another offense, the court which released him on probation shall have jurisdiction to impose sentence, if no sentence has previously been imposed for the offense for which he was granted probation, in the absence of the defendant.

Report of commitment

The probation officer may, upon learning of such defendant's imprisonment, and must within 30 days after being notified in writing by the defendant or his counsel, or the warden or superintendent or clerk of the prison in which the defendant is confined, report such commitment to the court which released the defendant on probation.

Action of court which granted probation

Upon being informed by the probation officer of the defendant's confinement, or upon receipt from the warden, superintendent or clerk of any prison in this State of a certificate showing that the defendant is confined in prison, the court shall issue its commitment if sentence has previously been imposed, or shall impose sentence and issue its commitment if sentence has not previously been imposed, or shall make other final order terminating its jurisdiction over the defendant in the case in which the order of probation was made, and if no such order is made within 30 days after the court has been notified as herein provided of the defendant's confinement, then the court shall be deprived thereafter of any jurisdiction over the defendant in the case on which he was granted probation.

Term of sentence

Upon imposition of sentence hereunder the commitment shall be dated as of the date upon which probation was granted and if the defendant is then in a State prison for an offense committed subsequent to the one upon which he has been on probation, the term of imprisonment of such defendant under a commitment issued hereunder shall commence upon the date upon which defendant was delivered to prison under commitment for his subsequent offense, unless the court shall order that the sentence for the prior offense shall commence upon termination of the sentence for said subsequent offense. The sentence of the court may be imposed in the absence of the defendant in such cases. In the event the probation officer fails to report such commitment to the court or the court fails to impose sentence as herein provided, the court shall be deprived thereafter of all jurisdiction it may have retained in the granting of probation in said case.

CHAPTER 322

An act to add Section 2710.2 to the Penal Code, relating to the California Institution for Men Working Revolving Fund, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section California Institution for Men Working Revolving Fund

SECTION 1. Section 2710.2 is hereby added to the Penal Code, to read as follows:

2710.2. There is hereby constituted a permanent revolving fund in the sum of not less than one hundred thousand dollars

($100,000) to be known as the California Institution for Men Working Revolving Fund to be used to meet the expenses necessary in the purchasing of material and equipment and for the maintenance of the work program at the State Prison at the California Institution for Men. Said fund shall at all times contain the amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) after it has once reached that amount, either in cash or assets, consisting of raw materials and finished or unfinished products inventory at cost, or both, or proper charges made under this section. Money received from the rendering of services or the sale of manufactured products at California Institution for Men shall be paid to the State Treasurer monthly and shall be credited to said revolving fund. At such time as the board or the Director of Finance decide that the balance in said revolving fund is greater than is necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, it, or he, shall so inform the State Controller and request a transfer of the unneeded balance from the said revolving fund to the General Fund of the State of California. The Controller is authorized to transfer such balances upon the request of the Director of Finance.

Urgency

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and as such shall go into immediate effect.

The following is a statement of facts constituting such necessity:

The United States of America is now at war with certain foreign powers and its manpower is being severely taxed to meet the personnel requirements of the Army and Navy and the National defense plants necessary to supply the Army and Navy with materials, supplies and equipment; that the Federal Government has called upon the State and Federal prisons to turn their inmate manpower and equipment previously done by unskilled workmen, such as the harvesting and planting of crops, the fighting of forest fires and the salvaging of scrap to productive war work and particularly to do work of the unskilled workman; that under the present laws the State prisons can not utilize their inmate manpower and equipment to the fullest extent for war work and this act is necessary to create a revolving fund to carry out the purposes of other urgency legislation passed at this session of the Legislature.

CHAPTER 326

Stats 1937, p 2204, amended

An act to amend Section 1 of an act entitled "An act to provide for the retirement with retirement allowance, of justices of the Supreme Court and of the district courts of appeal, and of judges of the superior courts and municipal courts," approved July 1, 1937, relating to retirement of judges.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1941, p 2939

SECTION 1. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read:

Retirement for service

Section 1. (a) Every justice of the Supreme Court, or of a district court of appeal, or judge of a superior court or municipal court

(1) Who has attained the age of 70 years and who has been a judge or justice of the Supreme Court, a district court of appeal or superior court or municipal court, or any two or more of said courts, for 10 years in the aggregate within the period of 15 years immediately preceding, or

(2) Who has attained the age of 65 years, and who has been a judge or justice of the Supreme Court, a district court of appeal or superior court or municipal court, or any two or more of said courts, for 20 years in the aggregate within the period of 24 years immediately preceding, or

(3) Who has attained the age of 70 years and who has been a judge or justice of the Supreme Court, a district court of appeal, superior court or municipal court, or any two or more of said courts, for 20 years in the aggregate, the last five years of which period or periods shall have been served as said judge or justice immediately prior to the filing of the notice of retirement herein provided, and who has paid into the Judges' Retirement Fund a sum equal to the amount he would have paid had he been a judge or justice of the Supreme Court, a district court of appeal, superior court or municipal court for a period of 10 years immediately preceding the filing of said notice, may retire by filing written notice of retirement with the Secretary of State, and a successor shall thereupon be appointed to fill the vacancy.

(b) Every justice of the Supreme Court, or of a district court of appeal, or judge of a superior court

(1) Who has attained the age of 70 years and who has been a judge of a municipal court or a judge or justice of the Supreme Court, a district court of appeal or superior court, or any two or more of said courts, for 10 years in the aggregate within the period of 15 years immediately preceding, having served over six years of that period as a judge or justice of the Supreme Court, a district court of appeal, superior court, or any two or more of said courts, or

(2) Who has attained the age of 65 years, and who has been a judge of a municipal court or a judge or justice of the Supreme Court, a district court of appeal or superior court, or any two or more of said courts for 20 years in the aggregate within the period of 24 years immediately preceding, having served over six years of that period as a judge or justice of the Supreme Court, a district court of appeal or superior court, or any two or more of said courts, may retire if he pays into the Judges' Retirement Fund a sum equal to the amount he would have paid had he been a judge or justice of the Supreme Court, a district court of appeal or superior court during the time he was a judge of the municipal court during the 15- or 24-year period. Any sums paid into any State retirement fund under any existing law or under any law hereafter adopted for the retirement of judges of a municipal court, shall be deemed paid into the fund for the retirement of judges or justices of the Supreme Court, a district court of appeal or superior court or municipal court if such funds are transferred to the fund for the retirement of such judges or justices.

Any justice or judge who has served 30 days less than the aggregate number of years required for retirement shall be deemed to have been a justice or judge for such aggregate number of years within the meaning of this section.

Any justice or judge whose term of office expires within 30 days before he shall have attained the age required for his retirement, shall be deemed to have attained such age within the meaning of this section at any time during the 30-day period immediately preceding his actual attainment of such age.

CHAPTER 327

An act to amend Sections 9.09 and 9.18 of the Building and Loan Association Act, relating to building and loan associations and the making of loans by such associations.

Stats 1931, p 483, amended

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9.09 of the act cited in the title is amended to read:

Stats 1933, p 1089

Sec. 9.09. Loan Terms. For the purposes of this act, an amortized loan shall be one which provides for payments to be made on the principal in installments to be paid at regular intervals at least semiannually and to commence not later than one year after the date of the loan. Such installments may include interest and either as to principal alone or as to combined principal and interest, shall be approximately equal (except that the last installment may be unequal), and whether or not such loan be written for a shorter period such stipulated installments, if of principal alone shall be at least of a sufficient amount so that if continued at such regular intervals they would result in paying the entire principal in not more than 20 years from their commencement, and if of combined principal and interest, shall be at least of a sufficient amount so that if continued at such regular intervals they would result in paying the entire loan both principal and interest in not more than 20 years from their commencement. Such loans may provide for payment of interest or principal or both, in addition to such regular installments and in the event such regular installments are not sufficient to pay the entire principal within the term thereof, such loans must provide that the entire amount unpaid come due and payable within not more than six months after the due date of the last regular installment; provided, however, that the commissioner may by rules permit and prescribe a longer maximum term than as herein provided in the case of amortized loans upon particular classes of security, which classes he shall have power to prescribe and define.

Loans may be made by an association which may or may not provide for payments on account of the principal thereof during an initial period not to exceed three years. If any loan does not provide for the payment, commencing not later than one year after the date thereof, of installments either of principal alone or of combined principal and interest at a rate at least equal to the rate hereinabove provided for an amortized loan, the same shall not be an amortized loan for the purpose of Section 9.10 of this act; but for the purpose of Section 9.14 of this act, any loan held by an association may be classified as an amortized loan during any period within which payments are being made, or within which the note or obligation representing such loan provides for payments to be made, of installments either of principal alone or combined principal and interest thereof at a rate not less than that hereinabove provided for an amortized loan.

Solely for the purposes of this section and Section 9.14 of this act, but not for any other purpose, on loans made on the mutual plan where the installments are to be applied in payment of its own membership shares pledged therewith, such installments together with accumulated earnings thereon shall be construed as having been applied to the principal of such loans.

In the case of all loans hereafter made on the mutual plan, the note or other obligation of the borrower shall expressly provide that in the event such association shall thereafter sell, exchange, transfer, or otherwise dispose of such note or obligation, or in the event such association shall thereafter be liquidated, either voluntarily or involuntarily, then the value of the shares pledged therefor, plus the accrued earnings thereon to the date of such sale or disposition or to the date of the commencement of such liquidation, shall be applied first to advances on account of such loans, second to the interest accrued and unpaid thereon, and third to the principal thereof; and said note or other obligation shall also expressly provide that in the event such association shall thereafter pledge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber such note or obligation, then the value of the shares pledged therefor, plus the accrued earnings thereon to the date of such pledge, hypothecation or encumbrance may, at the option of such association, be applied as aforesaid, and that if the association shall not exercise said option at the time of such pledge, hypothecation or other encumbrance then in the event such note or obligation shall be sold pursuant to such pledge, hypothecation or other encumbrance, the value of such shares, plus the accrued earnings thereon to the date of such sale, shall be applied as aforesaid. In any such case such shares from the time of such application shall be deemed surrendered to the association and canceled. In computing accrued earnings in any such case, the rate used in the last apportionment shall be applied.

Stats 1935, p 798

SEC. 2. Section 9.18 of the said act is amended to read:

National Housing Act loans and insurance

Sec. 9.18. National Housing Act Loans and Insurance. An association (a) either with or without security, may make loans, advance credit, and purchase obligations representing loans and advances of credit, pursuant to Title 1 of the National Housing Act, as amended, if the Federal Housing Administrator shall insure such association against losses which it may sustain as a result of such loans, advances of credit and purchases made by such association for such purposes, to the extent of 10 per cent of the total amount of the loans, advances of credit and purchases made by such association for such purposes on and after the date of the enactment of the National Housing Act Amendments of 1938; (b) may make loans upon the security of improved real property pursuant to the provisions of this section and pursuant to Title 2 and Title 6 of the National Housing Act, as amended, if the Federal Housing Administrator pursuant to said Title 2 or Title 6 shall have insured, or shall have made a commitment to insure, such association against losses of principal which it may sustain as a result of such loans; and (c) may secure insurance pursuant to said National Housing Act. No law of this State prescribing the nature, amount or form of security or requiring security upon which loans or advances of credit may be made or prescribing or limiting the period for which loans or advances of credit may be made, shall be deemed to apply to loans, advances of credit or purchases made pursuant to this section.

New section

SEC. 6. Section 1655 is added to said code, to read:

Approval of contracts

1655. Every artists' manager shall submit to the Labor Commissioner a form or forms of contract to be utilized by such artists' manager in entering into written contracts with artists for the employment of the services of such artists' manager by such artists, and secure the approval of the Labor Commissioner thereof. Such approval shall not be withheld as to any proposed form of contract unless such proposed form of contract is unfair, unjust and oppressive to the artist. Each such form of contract, except under the conditions specified in Section 1647.5 of this code, shall contain an agreement by the artists' manager to refer any controversy between the artist and the artists' manager relating to the terms of the contract to the Labor Commissioner for adjustment. There shall be printed on the face of the contract in prominent type the following: "This artists' manager is licensed by the Labor Commissioner of the State of California."

SEC. 7. Section 1656 is added to said code, to read:

Fee schedules

1656. Every person engaged in the occupation of an artists' manager shall file with the Labor Commissioner a schedule of fees to be charged and collected in the conduct of such occupation, and shall also keep a copy of said schedule posted in a conspicuous place in the office of such artists' manager.

Changes in schedules

Changes in the schedule may be made from time to time, but no change shall become effective until seven days after the date of filing thereof with the Labor Commissioner, and until posted for not less than seven days in a conspicuous place in the office of such artists' manager.

New section

SEC. 8. Section 1657 is added to said code, to read:

Reimbursement of expenses to artist

1657. In cases where an artist is sent by an artists' manager beyond the limits of the city in which the office of such artists' manager is located upon the representation of such artists' manager that employment of a particular type will there be available for the artist and the artist does not find such employment available, such artists' manager shall reimburse the artist for any actual expenses incurred in going to and returning from the place where the artist has been so sent.

New section

SEC. 9. Section 1658 is added to said code, to read:

Display of law

1658. Every artists' manager shall post in a conspicuous place in the office of such artists' manager a printed copy of this chapter and of such other statutes as may be specified by the Labor Commissioner. Such copies shall also contain the name and address of the officer charged with the enforcement of this chapter. The Labor Commissioner shall furnish to artists' managers printed copies of any statute required to be posted under the provisions of this section.

New section

SEC. 10. Section 1659 is added to said code, to read:

Suspension or revocation of license

1659. The Labor Commissioner may revoke or suspend any license when it is shown that:

(a) The licensee or his agent has violated or failed to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter, or

(b) The licensee has ceased to be of good moral character, or

(c) The conditions under which the license was issued have changed or no longer exist.

New section

SEC. 11. Section 1660 is added to said code, to read:

Notification of labor trouble

1660. No artists' manager shall knowingly secure employment for an artist in any place where a strike, lock-out, or other labor trouble exists, without notifying the artist of such conditions.

New section

SEC. 12. Section 1661 is added to said code, to read:

Records

1661. Every artists' manager shall keep records approved by the Labor Commissioner, in which shall be entered: (1) The name and address of each artist employing such artists' manager; (2) the amount of fee received from such artist; (3) the employment in which such artist is engaged at the time of employing such artists' manager, and the amount of compensation of the artist in such employment, if any, and the employments subsequently secured by such artist during the term of the contract between the artist and the artists' manager, and the amount of compensation received by the artists pursuant thereto; and (4) other information which the Labor Commissioner requires.

No artists' manager, its agent or employees, shall make any false entry in any such records.

SEC. 13. Section 1662 is added to said code, to read: New section

1662. The definitions of "theatrical engagement," "motion picture engagement," "emergency engagement," as now contained in Section 1553 of this code; the definition of "fee," as now contained in Section 1554 of this code; and the definitions of "registration fee," "license" and "licensee," as now contained in Section 1555 of this code, shall be applicable to artists' managers with the same force and effect as though said definitions had been enacted with express reference to artists' managers. Incorporation of definitions by reference

SEC. 14. Section 1663 is added to said code, to read: New section

1663. No part of the provisions of Part 6, Chapter 1 of this code shall be applicable to an artists' manager, except as expressly provided in Sections 1650 to 1663, inclusive, of this code, and except that the following sections, in the terms thereof now in effect, shall be so applicable, to wit: Sections 1550, 1582, 1583, 1584, 1585, 1586, 1587, 1589, 1590, 1591, 1592, 1593, 1594, 1595, 1597, 1598, 1599, 1620, 1621, 1623, 1630, 1636, 1637, 1638, 1639, 1640, 1640.5, 1642, 1643, 1644, 1646, 1647, 1647.5, and 1648; and for such purpose, each of said sections, in the terms thereof now in effect, shall be read, applied, administered and enforced as though expressly made applicable to an artists' manager. An act to add Section 1648.3 to the Insurance Code, relating to the qualifications of insurance producers. Stats 1935, p 496, amended

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.] In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1648.3 is hereby added to the Insurance Code, to read: New section

1648.3. Before being permitted to take the qualifying examination for license to act as an insurance broker or to qualify to exercise the brokership powers of a corporation, association or partnership, an applicant or a person named to exercise such brokership powers shall have either: Qualifications of insurance brokers

(a) Successfully completed a course or courses of study approved as to method of instruction and content by the commissioner, covering the principal branches of the insurance business and requiring not less than 50 hours of classroom work or the equivalent thereof in correspondence work; or

(b) Been regularly employed by an insurance company, insurance broker, or an insurance agent, or licensed under this article, for a period or periods aggregating not less than one year during the three years next preceding the date of application, in responsible insurance duties relating to classes of insurance other than life; provided, that time spent in military service shall be excluded in computing such three-year period; and he shall submit affidavits stating facts which show compliance with this requirement.

Course of study

Such course or courses either (1) shall be given by a degree conferring college or university which has, when such course is taken by such individual, a curriculum or curricula approved by the commissioner, whether such course be given as part of any such curriculum or separately or (2) shall have been given by any other institution which maintains equivalent satisfactory standards of instruction, and which shall have been approved for such purpose by the commissioner.

Approval of course

The commissioner shall not approve any curricula, whether given by a degree conferring college or university, a correspondence school, or any other institution, unless it includes instruction in: Classes of insurance except life insurance; the fundamental characteristics of each of the types of insurers admitted to transact insurance in California; the laws of the State of California relating to the transaction of insurance by insurance agents, brokers and solicitors; and such other subjects as the commissioner finds to be necessary to qualify a person to discharge his responsibilities as an insurance broker or to exercise brokership powers.

Persons covered

This section shall be applicable to all persons required to take the qualifying examination for a license to act as an insurance broker, or to qualify to exercise the brokership powers of a corporation, association or partnership, who make application for said licenses or to so qualify after January 1, 1944.

An act to amend Sections 396 and 397 of the Agricultural Code, relating to estrays.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1933, p 60

SECTION 1. Section 396 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Sale of animals

396. If no person appears and claims the animal or animals taken up within 30 days after the filing of the notice hereinbefore mentioned or if a person does appear and claims the animal or animals seized within 30 days after the filing of the notice above referred to, but fails to pay to the lienholder the expenses as provided in Section 393 or fails to commence and prosecute with diligence an action for the recovery of the possession of such estray animal or animals within the time required by Section 394; or if the award in said action is ineffective; then the lienholder shall, in writing, notify the Director of Agriculture that he has complied with all the provisions of this article, that one of the foregoing conditions exists and that such animal or animals are held by him subject to sale. The director shall proceed to sell or cause to be sold such animal or animals at public sale, in conformity with the general procedure provided in the law concerning sales on execution, and the department shall be entitled to the same fees as are provided by law for sales under execution.

SEC. 2. Section 397 of the Agricultural Code is amended to read: Stats 1933, p. 60

397. Out of the money realized from the sale of estrays, the director shall first retain his fees for conducting the sale; he shall then pay to the taker-up his expenses estimated as provided in Section 393, or so much thereof as the funds in his hands will permit, and the surplus, if any, he shall pay to the Department of Agriculture Fund to be held for the owner of the estray or estrays for which it was received in payment. If any person shall, within one year thereafter, prove, to the satisfaction of the director that he is entitled to the sum so held, or any part thereof, the director shall order such sum to be paid to him; if not so proven within one year, the same becomes a part of the Department of Agriculture Fund and shall be expended in carrying out the provisions of this code relating to hide and brand inspection. An act to amend Sections 701, 777 and 778 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to minors who should be declared free from parental control, and relating to the procedure in such cases.

Stats 1937, p 1005, amended

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 701 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

Stats 1937, p 1005

701. The jurisdiction of the juvenile court extends also to any person who should be declared free from the custody and control of either or both of his parents. The words "person who should be declared free from the custody and control

Person declared free from custody and control of parent or parents of either or both of his parents" shall include any person under the age of 21 years who comes within any of the following descriptions:

(a) Who has been left by either or both of his parents in the care and custody of another without any provision for his support, or without communication from either or both of his parents, for the period of one year with the intent on the part of such parent or parents to abandon such person. Such failure to provide, or such failure to communicate for the period of one year, shall be presumptive evidence of the intent to abandon. Such person shall be deemed and called a person abandoned by the parent or parents abandoning him.

(b) Who has been cruelly treated or neglected by either or both of his parents, if such person has been a ward of the juvenile court, and such parent or parents deprived of his custody because of such cruel treatment or neglect, for the period of one year continuously immediately prior to the filing of a petition praying that he be declared free from the custody and control of such cruel or neglectful parent or parents.

(c) Whose parent or parents are habitually intemperate, or morally depraved, if such person has been a ward of the juvenile court, and the parent or parents deprived of his custody because of such intemperance, or moral depravity, for the period of one year continuously immediately prior to the filing of the petition praying that he be declared free from the custody and control of such habitually intemperate or morally depraved parent or parents.

(d) Whose parent or parents are deprived of their civil rights due to the conviction of a felony, if, after investigation and service of citations as prescribed in this chapter, upon the parent or parents who are imprisoned, the court decides that the felony of which such parent or parents were convicted is of such nature as to prove the unfitness of such parent or parents to have the future custody and control of the child, or that the term of sentence of such parent or parents is of such length that the child will be deprived of a normal home for a period of years.

(e) Whose parent or parents have, in a divorce action, been found to have committed adultery and been divorced on that ground, if the court, after service of citations as prescribed in this chapter upon such parent or parents, and the presentation of all the evidence, finds that the future welfare of the child will be promoted by an order depriving such parent or parents of the control and custody of the child.

(f) Whose parent or parents have been declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be feeble-minded or insane, if the State Director of Institutions and the superintendent of the State hospital of which, if any, such parent or parents are inmates or patients certify that such parent or parents so declared to be feeble-minded or insane will not be capable of supporting or controlling the child in a proper manner.

SEC. 2. Section 777 of said code is amended to read: Stats 1937, p 1005

777. The father or mother of such person, if residing within the State, and if his or her place of residence is known to the petitioner, or, if there is no parent so residing, or if the place of residence of such father or mother is not known to the petitioner, then some relative of such person, if there is any residing within the State, and if his residence and relationship to such person are known to the petitioner, shall be notified of the proceedings by service of a citation requiring such person or persons to appear at the time and place stated in such citation. In all cases where one parent has relinquished his child for the purpose of adoption, or has signed a consent for adoption as provided in Sections 224m and 226 of the Civil Code, no notice as herein provided shall be given to the parent who has signed such relinquishment or consent. Service of such citations shall be made at least 10 days before the time stated therein for such appearance. Service of citation. When service need not be made

SEC. 3. Section 778 of said code is amended to read: Stats 1937, p 1005

778. If the father or mother of such person resides outside the State, or if his or her place of residence is not known to the petitioner, the petitioner or his agent or attorney shall make and file an affidavit, and shall state therein the name of the father or mother who resides outside the State and his or her place of residence, if known to the petitioner, and the name of the father or mother residing in or out of the State whose place of residence is unknown to the petitioner. Thereupon the judge of the juvenile court shall make an order that the service be made by the publication of a citation requiring such father or mother to appear at the time and place stated therein, and that said citation be published in a newspaper to be named and designated as most likely to give notice to the father or mother to be served once a week for four successive weeks. In case of publication where the residence of a nonresident or absent parent is known, the judge must direct a copy of the citation to be forthwith deposited in the post office, directed to such parent to be served, at his or her place of residence. When publication is ordered, personal service of a copy of the citation out of the State is equivalent to publication and deposit in the post office, and in either case the service of the citation is complete at the expiration of the time prescribed by the order for publication. Service when either parent nonresident or residence unknown. Publication

If one or both of the parents of such child be unknown or if the name or either or both of his parents be uncertain, then said fact shall be set forth in said affidavit and the court shall order the citation to be directed and addressed to either the father and/or the mother, or both, of the person sought to be declared free from parental custody and control, naming and otherwise describing said latter person, and to all persons When parent or parents unknown claiming to be the father or mother of said person. Such citation shall be addressed in substantially the following form:

Acquisition and improvements

Sec. 17. District Airport Acquisition and Improvements. All public improvements of said district, including the acquisition of land for district airport purposes, or the improvement thereof, or the acquisition of lands for airport approaches, or the improvement thereof, may be made or done in pursuance of general laws of the State empowering municipalities to acquire lands for any public purpose or to make local improvements and to assess the costs thereof upon the frontage or district of lands benefited thereby; provided, however, that whenever it is proposed to include the whole or any part of the lands within a municipality in said district in the frontage, or within the district of lands, to be assessed for such acquisition or improvement, the formal consent of the legislative body of such municipality shall first be obtained before the institution of such proceeding; provided further, that such consent shall be dispensed with in any local improvement proceeding or proceeding to acquire land, or make improvements, for district purposes where all lots and lands within the airport district are included in the assessment district and all assessments proposed or levied upon the taxable property in said district are computed on an ad valorem basis. In addition to other acts mentioned herein, the provisions of that certain act, entitled "An act to provide for work in and upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks within municipalities——," etc., approved April 7, 1911, and the acts amendatory thereto; and the provisions of that certain act, entitled "An act to provide for the issuance of improvement bonds to represent and be secured by certain assessments made for the cost of certain work and improvements——," etc., approved June 11, 1915, and of acts amendatory thereto, are hereby made applicable to the "Monterey Peninsula Airport District" and local airport district work and improvements therein; provided, however, that the words "city council" and "council" used in said, and other such, acts, shall be understood to mean the board of directors of said airport district: the words "city" and "municipality" shall be understood to mean the "Monterey Peninsula Airport District": the words "clerk" and "city clerk" shall be understood to mean "secretary" of said board of directors: the words "superintendent of streets" and "street superintendent" and the words "city engineer" shall be understood to mean the manager and the engineer, respectively, of said airport district: the words "tax collector" and the words "treasurer" or "city treasurer" shall be understood to mean the county tax collector and the county treasurer, respectively, of the County of Monterey; and provided further, that all of the powers and duties conferred by the provisions of said acts, and the acts amendatory or supplementary thereto, upon city councils, superintendents of streets, clerks and city clerks, tax collectors, treasurers and engineers, are hereby conferred and imposed upon respective officers and boards above specified; provided, however, that, notwithstanding anything herein contained, if protest against the proposed work is made by the owners of a majority of the property fronting on the proposed work or by the owners of more than one-half of the area of the property included within the assessment district to be assessed for the improvement (as the case may be) as provided in Section 5222 of the Streets and Highways Code, then and in either of such events the board of directors shall have no right or authority to overrule such majority protests and the proceedings for the making of such improvement shall thereupon terminate and no further proceedings shall thereafter be instituted within a period of one year from the date of filing of such majority protest.

Stats 1911, p 730

Stats 1915, p 1441

Termination of proceedings

CHAPTER 344

An act to amend Sections 615.1 and 615.2 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish.

Stats 1933, p 394, amended

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 615.1 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

Stats 1939, p 1429

615.1. In District 103.5 trout may be taken from May 1st to June 30th. In District 103.6 it is unlawful to take any fish at any time except from the first day of December to the last day of February, only on the Saturdays, Sundays, Wednesdays, and any legal holiday within such period including the opening and closing days of the season. The bag limit on trout or salmon is two per day in the aggregate, irrespective of size, and not more than one daily bag limit may be possessed by any person during one day.

District 103 5 Trout 103 6 Fish

SEC. 2. Section 615.2 of said code is amended to read:

Stats 1941, p 2644

615.2. It is unlawful to use or possess within 100 yards of that part of the San Lorenzo River comprising District 103.6 any treble hooks, landing gear, gaffs, nets, or spears.

CHAPTER 345

Stats 1939, p 1274, amended

An act to amend Section 3572 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to the termination of the right of redemption of tax-delinquent property, declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1941, p 1423

SECTION 1. Section 3572 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

Notice of termination

3572. Within one year after June 1, 1944, or within six months after default under any plan for payment of delinquent taxes in installments, whichever is later, the tax collector shall send a notice of termination of right of redemption to the last assessee of every assessment of tax-deeded property which was deeded to the State before June 1, 1942, except as provided in Section 3571.3. The notice shall be sent by registered mail to the assessee at his last known address, and if no address is known for him, or if the property was assessed to unknown owners, the tax collector shall make an affidavit of such fact and file the affidavit with his record of notices sent. The notice need not be mailed if the assessee files with the tax collector a waiver of the notice.

The auditor shall cooperate with the tax collector in the performance of the duties required of the tax collector by this chapter.

Urgency

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

There is pending before the Supreme Court of California the case of Mercury Herald Company v. Moore bearing on this problem. A decision will not be reached in sufficient time for the tax collector to send out the notices of termination of right of redemption before June 1, 1943, as required in Section 3572 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Therefore, it is essential that the time limit for the tax collector to give these notices be extended to permit him a reasonable time to carry out the provisions of the section.

CHAPTER 346

An act to add Sections 453.5, 453.6, 453.7 and 453.8 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to storage locker plants.

Stats 1933, p 394, amended

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

In effect August 4, 1943

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 453.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

New section

453.5. All cold storage plants and cold storage locker plants in which legally taken wild game birds, or mammals, may be stored beyond the regular open season, as prescribed by this code, and for the storage of which beyond the regular open season a permit is required under the provisions of this code, shall be bonded in an amount to be determined by the commission. Such bond shall be conditioned upon the payment to the commission of the amounts required to be remitted to it pursuant to Section 453.7. The premium for such bond shall be paid by the commission out of any money available for the support of the commission.

Bonding of cold storage plants and lockers

Premium

SEC. 2. Section 453.6 is added to the said code, to read:

New section

453.6. The commission shall designate and authorize a person or persons in each such storage plant to issue permits for the storage beyond the regular open season of such wild game birds, or mammals; and to collect lawful fees to be paid, and stamps, or tags to be affixed to such mammals. Such permit forms, stamps, tags, or other such materials required for the enforcement of this section shall be supplied by the commission.

Issuance of permits

SEC. 3. Section 453.7 is added to the said code, to read:

New section

453.7. Bonded cold storage plants and bonded cold storage locker plants may retain one-half of all legal fees received for their services in marking such mammals, deposited with them to be stored in such plants, and shall remit one-half of such fees to the commission at such time, or times as the commission may determine. The commission shall deposit all such fees received by it to the credit of the Fish and Game Preservation Fund.

Disposition of fees

SEC. 4. Section 453.8 is added to the said code, to read:

New section

453.8. Bonded cold storage plants and bonded cold storage locker plants shall make and keep a complete detailed record of all wild game birds, or mammals, stored in such plants. Each wild game bird, or mammal shall be entered in such record at the time it is received at such plant for storage.

Such record shall be open for inspection at all times by wardens of the Division of Fish and Game.

CHAPTER 347

Stats 1939, p 1274 amended

An act to amend Section 105 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property taxes.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1939, p 1274

SECTION 1. Section 105 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

"Improvements"

105. "Improvements" includes:

(a) All buildings, structures, fixtures, and fences erected on or affixed to the land, except telephone and telegraph lines.

(b) All fruit, nut bearing, or ornamental trees and vines, not of natural growth, and not exempt from taxation, except date palms under eight years of age.

CHAPTER 348

Stats 1907, p 124, amended

An act to amend Section 5a of an act entitled "An act to regulate the sale and use of poisons in the State of California and providing a penalty for the violation thereof," approved March 6, 1907, as amended, relating to poison schedules and economic poisons.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor May 2, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 2, 1943.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1929, p. 240
See also Stats 1943, Ch 977

SECTION 1. Section 5a of the act mentioned in the title hereof is amended to read:

Schedule "A"

Sec. 5a. The following is schedule "A" referred to in Section 1, viz.: Schedule "A", arsenic, its compounds and preparations, poisonous salts of barium, corrosive sublimate and other poisonous derivatives of mercury, cyanide of potassium, strychnine, hydrocyanic acid, oils of croton, rue, savin, and tansy, phosphorous and its poisonous derivatives and compounds, strophanthus or its preparations, aconite, belladonna, nux vomica, veratrum viride, their preparations, alkaloids or derivatives, ant poisons containing any of the poisons enumerated in this schedule except ant poisons which contain not to exceed 0.40 per cent by weight of arsenic expressed in terms of metallic arsenic; provided, however, that the following shall not be included in this schedule, pills or tablets of aloin belladonna and strychnine, plasters composed of aconite or belladonna, or elixir of iron quinine and strychnine or ethyl alcohol denatured in accordance with any formula approved by the Internal Revenue Department of the Federal Government for external use, and all economic poisons, as that term is defined in Article 3 of Chapter 7 of Division 5 of the Agricultural Code, and licensed and registered thereunder and sold in original sealed packages and labeled with the official poison labels, except the following: Arsenate of lead, arsenate of calcium, paris green, london purple and hydrocyanic acid in original sealed packages of less than one pound and labeled with the official poison labels, any economic poison containing more than two (2) per cent strychnine or ten (10) per cent elemental phosphorous, ant poisons containing more than 0.40 per cent by weight of arsenic expressed in terms of metallic arsenic, corrosive sublimate and cyanide of potassium; all of which economic poisons, with the above exceptions, may be sold by dealers generally, when prepared, packaged, and sold in accordance with rules and regulations authorized by the provisions of said article of the Agricultural Code, anything in this or any other act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Schedule "B"

The following is schedule "B": Hydrochloric or muriatic acid, nitric acid, oxalic acid, sulphuric acid, bromine, chloroform, cowhage, creosote, ether, solution of formaldehyde or formalin, cantharides, cocculus indicus, all of their preparations; iodine or its tincture, oil of pennyroyal, tartar emetic and other poisonous derivatives of antimony, sugar of lead, sulphate of zinc, wood alcohol, lysol and compound solution of cresol.

CHAPTER 349

An act to amend Section 69 of the Civil Code, relating to marriage, declaring the urgency hereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 5, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 5, 1943.]

In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

Stats 1935, p 398

69. All persons about to be joined in marriage must first obtain a license therefor, from the county clerk of the county in which the marriage is to be celebrated, which license must show:

Marriage licenses

1. The identity of the parties.
2. Their real and full names, and places of residence.
3. Their ages; and
4. Whether white, Mongolian, Negro, Malayan or mulatto.

No license must be granted when either of the parties, applicants therefor, is an imbecile, or insane, or is at the time of making the application, for said license, under the influence of any intoxicating liquor, or narcotic drug; and no license may be issued authorizing the marriage of a white person with a Negro, mulatto, Mongolian or member of the Malay race.

If the male is under the age of 21 years, or the female is under the age of 18 years, and such person has not been previously married, no license may be issued by the county clerk unless the consent in writing of the parents of the person under age, or one of such parents, or of his or her guardian, is presented to him, duly verified by such parents, or parent, or guardian; and such consent must be filed by the clerk, and he must state such facts in the license. For the purpose of ascertaining all the facts mentioned or required in this section, the clerk, at the time the license is applied for may, if he deems it necessary in order to satisfy himself as to matters in this section enumerated, examine the applicants for a license on oath, which examination shall be reduced to writing by the clerk, and subscribed by them.

Urgency

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

Many persons enlisted in the armed forces of the United States are temporarily in the State of California on furlough for a short period of time, sometimes for only one day or two, and unless this section is amended as proposed, many such persons will be unable to marry. It is necessary for the public peace, health and safety that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 350

Stats 1933, p 394, amended

An act to amend Sections 794, 799, 800 and 801 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to abalones, and declaring the urgency of this act, to take effect immediately.

In effect immediately

[Approved by Governor May 6, 1943 Filed with Secretary of State May 6, 1943]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats 1933, p 394

SECTION 1. Section 794 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Abalones

794. It is unlawful to take any abalone the shell of which, measured in greatest diameter, is less than the following specifications: Red abalone, seven inches, red abalone taken or possessed in Districts 7, 18, or 19 for commercial purposes, eight inches; green abalone, six and one-half inches; green abalone taken or possessed in District 18 or 19 for commercial purposes, seven and one-quarter inches; pink abalone, six inches; black abalone, five inches.

Stats 1937, p 469

SEC. 2. Section 799 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Diving apparatus

799. Diving apparatus may not be used for the purpose of taking abalones in Districts 7, 10, 15, 16, 17, 20 and 20A.

SEC. 3. Section 800 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1937, p. 381

800. In Districts 6, 7, 15, 16, 17, 20, and 20A not more than 10 abalones per day, nor more than 20 abalones per week, may be taken. Not more than one daily bag limit of abalones may be possessed by any person during one day. The bag limits prescribed herein for Districts 15, 16, and 17 do not apply to abalones taken outside of said districts and brought in by boats. Abalones

SEC. 4. Section 801 of said code is amended to read: Stats 1939, p 1787

801. In District 18 the bag limit is 10 abalones per day, in District 19 the bag limit is 10 abalones per day and 20 per week, and in District 10 the bag limit is five abalones per day, when the abalones are taken in water less than 20 feet in depth. Abalones so taken may not be sold. Abalones Districts 10, 18 and 19

SEC. 5. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows: Urgency

The shortage of food supplies in the present war emergency necessitates the utilization of all seafood products to the greatest extent compatible with proper conservation. Inasmuch as this act releases certain restrictions on the taking of abalones it will operate to increase the available supply of healthful food products and to release a comparable amount of food for use for war purposes.

CHAPTER 351

An act to amend Sections 1, 2, 3, 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12, 14, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 29 of, and to add three new sections to be numbered 7.1, 8.1, and 18.1 to, The Corporation Income Tax Act, relating to taxes upon the income of corporations, associations and Massachusetts or business trusts, and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately. Stats 1937, p 2184, amended

[Approved by Governor May 7, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 7, 1943.] In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of The Corporation Income Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch 38

Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Corporation Income Tax Act." Short title

SEC. 2. Section 2 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch 38

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this act and unless otherwise required by the context: Definitions

(a) The word "commissioner" as used in this act means the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Commissioner.

(b) The term "corporation" as herein used shall include every corporation, association, and Massachusetts or business trust, except a bank or banking association. It shall also include any corporation operated by any receiver, liquidator, referee, trustee or other officers or agents appointed by any court. For the purposes of this act a Massachusetts or business trust includes every business organization consisting essentially of an arrangement whereby property is conveyed to one, or more than one, trustee for purposes other than the mere conservation of assets, collection and disbursing of fixed and periodic income, or the securing of an obligation.

(c) The words "taxable year" mean the calendar year or the fiscal year, upon the basis of which the net income is computed under this act; if no fiscal year has been established they mean the calendar year.

"Taxable year" includes, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year under the provisions of this act or under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, the period for which such return is made.

(d) The words "fiscal year" mean an accounting period of 12 months ending on the last day of any month other than December.

(e) The words "paid or incurred" and "paid or accrued" shall be construed according to the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed under this act.

(f) The word "State" shall include the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, the District of Columbia, and the possessions of the United States.

(g) The term "counsel for the commissioner," as used in Sections 20, 23 and 24 of this act, means attorney or attorneys appointed or employed by the commissioner and acting subject to the approval and under the supervision of the Attorney General.

Stats 1943, Ch 38

SEC. 3. Section 3 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Tax levy

Sec. 3. There shall be levied, collected and paid for each taxable year, a tax at the rate of 4 per centum upon the net income of every corporation derived from sources within this State on or after January 1, 1937, other than income for any period for which the corporation is subject to taxation under the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act, Statutes of 1929, Chapter 13, as amended, according to or measured by net income. There shall be offset against the tax hereby imposed for any period the amount of any tax imposed on the corporation under the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act for the same period. In the event that taxes, interest and penalties have been or shall be assessed against, paid by or collected from a corporation under this act, which assessment, payment or collection should have been made under the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act, such taxes, interest and penalties shall be considered as having been assessed, paid or collected under the Bank and Corporation

Franchise Tax Act as of the date or dates they were made. Income from sources within this State includes income from tangible or intangible property located or having a situs in this State and income from any activities carried on in this State, regardless of whether carried on in intrastate, interstate or foreign commerce.

SEC. 4. Section 6 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch 38

Sec. 6. (a) "Gross income" includes gains, profits, and income derived from salaries, wages, or compensation for personal service, or whatever kind and in whatever form paid, or from professions, vocations, trades, businesses, commerce, or sales, or dealings in property, whether real or personal, growing out of the ownership or use of or interest in such property; also from interest, rent, dividends, securities, or the transaction of any business carried on for gain or profit, or gains or profits and income derived from any source whatever, including interest which now or hereafter constitutionally may be taxed. Gross income

(b) The following items shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from taxation under this act: Exclusions

(1) Amounts received under life insurance policies and contracts paid by reason of the death of the insured, but if such amounts are held by the insurer under an agreement to pay interest thereon, the interest payments shall be included in gross income.

(2) Amounts received (other than amounts paid by reason of the death of the insured) under life insurance, endowment or annuity contracts, either during the term or at maturity or upon surrender of the contract, equal to the total amount of premiums paid thereon. In the case of a transfer for a valuable consideration by assignment or otherwise, of a life insurance, endowment or annuity contract or any interest therein, only the actual value of such consideration and the amount of the premiums and other sums subsequently paid by the transferee shall be excluded from gross income under paragraph (1) of this subsection. The preceding sentence shall not apply in the case of such a transfer if such contract or interest therein has a basis for determining gain or loss in the hands of a transferee determined in whole or in part by reference to such basis of such contract or interest therein in the hands of the transferor.

(3) Income which this State is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution or laws of the United States of America or under the Constitution of this State.

(4) Income, other than rent, derived by a lessor of real property upon the termination of a lease, representing the value of such property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by the lessee.

(5) Income attributable to the recovery during the taxable year of a bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount, to the extent of the amount of the recovery exclusion with respect to such debt, tax, or amount. For the purposes of this paragraph:

(A) The term "bad debt" means a debt on account of worthlessness or partial worthlessness of which a deduction was allowed for a prior taxable year.

(B) The term "prior tax" means a tax on account of which a deduction or credit was allowed for a prior taxable year.

(C) The term "delinquency amount" means an amount paid or accrued on account of which a deduction or credit was allowed for a prior taxable year and which is attributable to failure to file return with respect to a tax, or pay a tax, within the time required by the law under which the tax is imposed, or to failure to file return with respect to a tax or pay a tax.

(D) The term "recovery exclusion," with respect to a bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount, means the amount, determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner of the deductions or credits allowed, on account of such bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount, which did not result in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax under this act or the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act, reduced by the amount excludible in previous taxable years with respect to such debt, tax, or amount under this paragraph.

(6) The amount of any income of a corporation attributable to the discharge, within the taxable year, of any indebtedness of the taxpayer (or for which a corporation is liable) evidenced by a security (as hereinafter in this paragraph defined) if a corporation makes and files at the time of filing the return, in such manner as the commissioner by regulations prescribes, its consent to the regulations prescribed under Section 12(b) (3). In such case the amount of any income of a corporation attributable to any unamortized premium (computed as of the first day of the taxable year in which such discharge occurred) with respect to such indebtedness shall not be included in gross income and the amount of the deduction attributable to any unamortized discount (computed as of the first day of the taxable year in which such discharge occurred) with respect to such indebtedness shall not be allowed as a deduction. As used in this paragraph the term "security" means any bond, debenture, note, or certificate, or other evidence of indebtedness, issued by any corporation.

(7) The amount of any income attributable to the discharge, within the taxable year, of any indebtedness of a railroad corporation, as defined in Section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, to the extent that such income is deemed to have been realized by reason of a modification in or cancellation in whole or in part of such indebtedness pursuant to an order of a court in a receivership proceeding or in a proceeding under Section 77 of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended. In such case the amount of any income of the corporation attributable to any unamortized premium (computed as of the first day of the taxable year in which such discharge occurred) with respect to such indebtedness shall not be included in gross income and the amount of the deduction attributable to any unamortized discount (computed as of the first day of the taxable year in which such discharge occurred) with respect to such indebtedness shall not be allowed as a deduction. Subsection 6(b) (6) shall not apply with respect to any discharge of indebtedness to which this paragraph applies.

Dividends

(c) (1) The term "dividend" when used in this act means any distribution made by a corporation to its shareholders, whether in money or in other property, out of its earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, or out of the earnings or profits of the taxable year (computed as of the close of the taxable year without diminution by reason of any distributions made during the taxable year), without regard to the amount of the earnings and profits at the time the distribution was made.

(2) For the purposes of this act every distribution is made out of earnings or profits to the extent thereof, and from the most recently accumulated earnings or profits. Any earnings or profits accumulated, or increase in value of property accrued, before March 1, 1913, may be distributed exempt from tax, after the earnings and profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, have been distributed, but any such tax-free distribution shall be applied against and reduce the adjusted basis of the stock provided in Section 12.

(3) Amounts distributed in complete liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in full payment in exchange for the stock and amounts distributed in partial liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in part or full payment in exchange for the stock. The gain or loss to the distributee resulting from such exchange shall be determined under Section 10. In the case of amounts distributed (whether before or after the effective date of this amendment) in partial liquidation (other than a distribution within the provisions of subdivision (7) of this subsection of stock or securities in connection with a reorganization) the part of such distribution which is properly chargeable to capital account shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits. In the case of amounts distributed (whether before January 1, 1934, or on or after such date) in partial liquidation (other than a distribution within the provisions of subdivision (7) of this subsection or stock or securities in connection with a reorganization) the part of such distribution which is properly chargeable to capital account shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits within the meaning of subdivision (2) of this subsection for the purpose of determining the taxability of subsequent distributions by the corporation.

(4) If any distribution (not in partial or complete liquidation) made by a corporation to its shareholders is not out of increase in value of property accrued before March 1, 1913, and is not a dividend, then the amount of such distribution shall be applied against and reduce the adjusted basis of the stock provided in Section 12, and if in excess of such basis, such excess shall be taxable in the same manner as a gain from the sale or exchange of property.

(5) (A) A distribution made by a corporation to its shareholders in its stock or in rights to acquire its stock shall be treated as a dividend to the extent that it constitutes income to the shareholder within the meaning of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

(B) Whenever a distribution by a corporation is, at the election of any of the shareholders (whether exercised before or after the declaration thereof), payable either (i) in its stock or in rights to acquire its stock, of a class which if distributed without election would be exempt from tax under paragraph (A), or (ii) in money or any other property (including its stock or rights to acquire its stock, of a class which if distributed without election would not be exempt from tax under paragraph (A)), then the distribution shall constitute a taxable dividend in the hands of all shareholders, regardless of the medium in which paid.

(6) If a corporation cancels or redeems its stock (whether or not such stock was issued as a stock dividend) at such time and in such manner as to make the distribution and cancellation or redemption in whole or in part essentially equivalent to the distribution of a taxable dividend, the amount so distributed in redemption or cancellation of the stock, to the extent that it represents a distribution of earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, shall be treated as a taxable dividend.

(7) The distribution heretofore or hereafter made to a distributee by or on behalf of a corporation of its stock or securities or stock or securities in another corporation shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits of any corporation:

(A) If no gain to such distributee from the receipts of such stock or securities was recognized under the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1936 or prior Federal revenue acts in effect at the time of the distribution, or

(B) If the distribution was not subject to tax in the hands of such distributee under the Federal Revenue Act of 1936 or prior Federal revenue acts in effect at the time of the distribution because it did not constitute income to him within the meaning of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States or because exempted to him under Section 115 (f) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1934, or a corresponding provision of a prior Federal revenue act.

As used in this subsection, the term "stock or securities" includes rights to acquire stock or securities.

(8) As used in this subsection the term "amount distributed in partial liquidation" means a distribution by a corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of a part of its stock, or one of a series of distributions in complete cancellation or redemption of all or a portion of its stock.

(9) If the whole or any part of a dividend is paid to a shareholder in any medium other than money the property received other than money shall be included in gross income at its fair market value at the time as of which it becomes income to the shareholder.

(10) The gain or loss realized from the sale or other disposition (after February 28, 1913) of property by a corporation for the purpose of the computation of earnings and profits of the corporation for any period beginning after February 28, 1913, shall be determined by using as the adjusted basis the adjusted basis (under the law applicable to the year in which the sale or other disposition was made) for determining gain. Gain or loss so realized shall increase or decrease the earnings and profits to, but not beyond, the extent to which such a realized gain or loss was recognized in computing net income under the law applicable to the year in which such sale or disposition was made. Where in determining the adjusted basis used in computing such realized gain or loss the adjustment to the basis differs from the adjustment proper for the purpose of determining earnings or profits, then the latter adjustment shall be used in determining the increase or decrease above provided. For the purposes of this subsection, a loss with respect to which a deduction is disallowed under Section 7(d) of this act or Section 8(d) of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act shall not be deemed to be recognized.

Where a corporation receives (after February 28, 1913) a distribution from a second corporation which (under the law applicable to the year in which the distribution was made) was not a taxable dividend to the shareholders of the second corporation, the amount of such distribution shall not increase the earnings and profits of the first corporation in the following cases:

(A) No such increase shall be made in respect of the part of such distribution which (under such law) is directly applied in reduction of the basis of the stock in respect of which the distribution was made.

(B) No such increase shall be made if (under such law) the distribution causes the basis of the stock in respect of which the distribution was made to be allocated between such stock and the property received.

For the purposes of this subdivision, the words "law applicable to the year" shall be deemed to refer to this act or, prior to January 1, 1937, the United States Revenue Act in force for the year in which the distribution, sale or other disposition was made.

(11) (A) If any increase or decrease in the earnings or profits for any period beginning after February 28, 1913, with respect to any matter would be different had the adjusted basis of the property involved been determined without regard to its March 1, 1913, value, then, except as provided in paragraph (B), an increase (properly reflecting such difference) shall be made in that part of the earnings and profits consisting of increase in value of property accrued before March 1, 1913.

(B) If the application of subdivision (10) to a sale or other disposition after February 28, 1913, results in a loss which is to be applied in decrease of earnings and profits for any period beginning after February 28, 1913, then, notwithstanding subdivision (10) and in lieu of the rule provided in paragraph (A) of this subdivision, the amount of such loss so to be applied shall be reduced by the amount, if any, by which the adjusted basis of the property used in determining the loss, exceeds the adjusted basis computed without regard to the value of the property on March 1, 1913, and if such amount so applied in reduction of the decrease exceeds such loss, the excess over such loss shall increase that part of the earnings and profits consisting of increase in value of property accrued before March 1, 1913.

Canceled debts

(d) If the indebtedness of a corporation is canceled or forgiven in whole or in part without payment, the amount so canceled or forgiven shall constitute income to the extent the value of the property (including franchises) of the corporation exceeds its liabilities immediately after the cancellation or forgiveness. The remainder of the amount of indebtedness so canceled or forgiven, if any, shall be applied in reduction of the basis of the assets to the extent the basis thereof exceeds the value thereof immediately after the cancellation or forgiveness, such reduction to be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

If an indebtedness is not paid by the time an action to enforce payment is barred by limitation, the indebtedness shall be considered canceled or forgiven within the meaning of this subsection unless it can be established that the period of limitation has been extended by a new promise in writing.

Stats. 1943, Ch. 38

SEC. 5. Section 7 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Deductions from gross income

Sec. 7. In computing "net income" the following deductions shall be allowed:

Expenses

(a) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on business, including a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered, and rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession for business purposes of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which it has no equity.

(1) No deduction shall be allowable under subparagraph (a) to a corporation for any contribution or gift which would be allowable as a deduction under subsection (l) were it not for the 5 per centum limitation therein contained and for the requirement therein that payment must be made within the taxable year.

(2) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year for the production or collection of income, or for the management, conservation, or maintenance of property held for the production of income shall be allowed.

Interest (b) Interest paid or accrued during the taxable year on indebtedness of the taxpayer to the extent that such interest exceeds the corporation's income from intangible personal property (other than dividends deductible under the provisions of subdivision (h) of this section and other than dividends from corporations, 50 per centum or more of the outstanding stock of which is owned by the taxpayer) which is exempt from the tax imposed by this act.

Taxes (c) Taxes or licenses paid or accrued during the taxable year, other than taxes paid to the State under this act, and other than taxes on or according to or measured by income or profits paid or accrued within the taxable year imposed by the authority of (1) the Government of the United States or any foreign country, (2) any State, Territory, county, city and county, school district, municipality, or other taxing subdivision of any State or Territory, and other than taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, but this shall not exclude the allowance as a deduction of so much of said taxes assessed against local benefits as is properly allocable to maintenance or interest charges.

(1) In the case of a tax imposed by any State, Territory, District, or possession of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof, upon persons engaged in selling tangible personal property at retail, which is measured by the gross sales price or the gross receipts from the sale or which is a stated sum per unit of such property sold, or upon persons engaged in furnishing services at retail, which is measured by the gross receipts for furnishing such services, if the amount of such tax is separately stated, then to the extent that the amount so stated is paid by the purchaser (otherwise than in connection with the purchaser's trade or business) to such person such amount shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the net income of such purchaser as if such amount constituted a tax imposed upon and paid by such purchaser.

Losses (d) Losses sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, except that such losses may, with the consent of the commissioner, be accounted for as of a different period. In the case of any loss claimed to have been sustained in any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities where it appears that within 30 days before or after the date of such sale or other disposition, the taxpayer has acquired (otherwise than by bequest or inheritance) or has entered into a contract or option to acquire substantially identical property and the property so acquired is held by the taxpayer for any period after such sale or other disposition, no deduction for the loss shall be allowed unless the claim is made by a taxpayer, a dealer in stocks or securities, and with respect to a transaction made in the ordinary course of its business. If such acquisition or the contract or option to acquire is to the extent of part only of substantially identical property, then only a proportionate part of the loss shall be disallowed. Upon the subsequent sale or disposition of shares of stock or securities, in respect of which a loss has been disallowed, the basis for measuring gain or loss in the case of the property so acquired shall be the basis in the case of the stock or securities so sold or disposed of, except that if the repurchase price was in excess of the sale price such basis shall be increased in the amount of the difference, or if the repurchase price was less than the sale price such basis shall be decreased in the amount of the difference.

Worthless debts

(e) Debts which become worthless within the taxable year, or, in the discretion of the commissioner, a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts. When satisfied that a debt is recoverable in part only the commissioner may allow such debt as a deduction in an amount not in excess of the amount which becomes worthless in the taxable year; provided, however, that if a debt was actually worthless prior to January 1, 1943, but was not ascertained to be worthless and charged off prior to said date, a deduction may be taken therefor during the first taxable year ending after December 31, 1942; and, provided, that if a portion of a debt is claimed and allowed as a deduction in any year no deduction shall be allowed in any subsequent year for any portion of the debt which in any prior year became worthless, regardless of whether claimed as a deduction in such prior year.

Obsolescence, etc

(f) A reasonable allowance for exhaustion, wear and tear and obsolescence of property used in the trade or business, or of property held for the production of income. The basis on which such allowance is to be computed in respect of any property is the adjusted basis provided in Section 12 (b) for the purpose of determining the gain upon the sale or other disposition of such property. A taxpayer may elect to claim a deduction for amortization of emergency facilities (as defined by Section 124 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended) under regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Depletion

(g) (1) In the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements, according to the peculiar conditions in each case, such reasonable allowance in all cases to be made under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner. In any case in which it is ascertained as a result of operations or of development work that the recoverable units are greater or less than the prior estimate thereof, then such prior estimate (but not the basis for depletion) shall be revised and the allowance under this subsection for subsequent taxable years shall be based upon such revised estimate. In the case of leases the deductions shall be equitably apportioned between the lessor and the lessee.

(2) (A) The basis upon which depletion is to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in Section 12 (b) for the purpose of determining the gain upon the sale or other disposition of such property, except as provided in paragraphs (B), (C) and (D) of this subsection. Basis for depletion allowance

(B) In the case of mines (other than metal, coal, fluorspar, ball and sagger clay, rock asphalt or sulphur mines) discovered by the taxpayer after February 28, 1913, the basis for depletion shall be the fair market value of the property at the date of discovery or within 30 days thereafter, if such mines were not acquired as the result of purchase of a proven tract or lease, and if the fair market value of the property is materially disproportionate to the cost. The depletion allowance under subdivision (1) of this subsection based on discovery value provided in this paragraph shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property upon which the discovery was made, except that in no case shall the depletion allowance under subdivision (1) of this subsection be less than it would be if computed without reference to discovery value. Discoveries shall include minerals in commercial quantities contained within a vein or deposit discovered in an existing mine or mining tract by the taxpayer after February 28, 1913, if the vein or deposit thus discovered was not merely the uninterrupted extension of a continuing commercial vein or deposit already known to exist, and if the discovered minerals are of sufficient value and quantity that they could be separately mined and marketed at a profit.

(C) In the case of oil and gas wells the allowance for depletion under subdivision (1) of this subsection shall be 27½ per centum of the gross income from the property during the taxable year, excluding from such gross income an amount equal to any rents or royalties paid or incurred by the taxpayer in respect of the property. Such allowance shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property, except that in no case shall the depletion allowance under subdivision (1) of this subsection be less than it would be if computed without reference to this paragraph. Oil and gas wells of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property, except that in no case shall the depletion allowance under subsection (1) of this section be less than it would be if computed without reference to this paragraph.

(D) The allowance for depletion under subdivision (1) of this subsection shall be, in the case of coal mines, 5 per centum, in the case of metal mines, fluorspar, ball and sagger clay or rock asphalt mines, 15 per centum, and, in the case of sulphur mines or deposits, 23 per centum, of the gross income from the property during the taxable year, excluding from such gross income an amount equal to any rents or royalties paid or incurred by the taxpayer in respect of the property. Such allowance shall not exceed 50 per centum Coal mines, etc.

Dividends taxed to corporat on declaring.

(h) Dividends received during the taxable year from a corporation taxable under this act declared from income which has been taxed under the provisions of this act to the corporation declaring the dividends, and dividends received during the taxable year from a bank or corporation doing business in this State declared out of income which has been included in the measure of the tax imposed by the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act, Statutes 1929, Chapter 13, as amended, upon the bank or corporation declaring the dividends.

Return paid by building and loan associations on money borrowed, etc

(i) In the case of a building and loan association, organized and operating wholly or partly on a mutual plan, the return paid or credited on or apportioned to the withdrawable shares of such association, but not exceeding the return such shares would receive computed at the average rate paid by all such associations in this State, or by such associations in a particular locality, as the Building and Loan Commissioner of this State may determine, on money borrowed or obtained through the issue during the income year of the association of all classes of notes and investment certificates not evidencing any proprietary interest in the association, such rate to be determined by the Building and Loan Commissioner and certified by him to the Franchise Tax Commissioner on or before the first day of March of each year.

Income of cooperative marketing associations

(j) In the case of farmers, fruit growers, or like associations organized and operated in whole or in part on a cooperative or a mutual basis, (1) for the purpose of marketing the products of members or other producers, and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary marketing expenses, which may include reasonable reserves, on the basis of either the quantity or the value of the products furnished by them, or (2) for the purpose of purchasing, or producing, supplies and equipment for the use of members or other persons, and turning over such supplies and equipment to them at actual cost, plus necessary expenses, all income resulting from or arising out of such business activities for or with their members carried on by them or their agents; or when done on a nonprofit basis for or with nonmembers.

Other cooperative associations

(k) In the case of other associations organized and operated in whole or in part on a cooperative or a mutual basis, all income resulting from or arising out of business activities for or with their members, or with nonmembers, done on a nonprofit basis.

Gifts

(l) In the case of a corporation, contributions or gifts payment of which is made within the taxable year to or for the use of:

(1) The United States, any State, Territory, or any political subdivision thereof or the District of Columbia, or any possession of the United States, for exclusively public purposes; or

(2) A corporation, trust, or community chest, fund, or foundation, created or organized in the United States or in any possession thereof or under the law of the United States, or of any State or Territory, or of the District of Columbia, or of any possession of the United States, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes or for the prevention of cruelty to children (but in the case of contributions or gifts to a trust, chest, fund, or foundation, payment of which is made within a taxable year beginning after the date of the cessation of hostilities in the present war, as proclaimed by the President, only if such contributions or gifts are to be used within the United States or any of its possessions exclusively for such purposes), no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation; to an amount which does not exceed 5 per centum of the taxpayer's net income as computed without the benefits of this subsection. Such contributions or gifts shall be allowable as deductions only if verified under rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Contributions by employer to stock bonus, etc, plans

(m) (1) If contributions are paid by an employer to or under a stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing, or annuity plan, or if compensation is paid or accrued on account of any employee under a plan deferring the receipt of such compensation, such contributions or compensation shall not be deductible under subsection (a) but shall be deductible, if deductible under subsection (a) without regard to this subsection, under this subsection but only to the following extent:

Stats 1943, Ch 353

(A) In the taxable year when paid, if the contributions are paid into a pension trust, and if such taxable year ends within or with a taxable year of the trust for which the trust is exempt under Section 12 (f) of The Personal Income Tax Act, in an amount determined as follows:

(i) An amount not in excess of 5 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during the taxable year to all the employees under the trust, but such amount may be reduced for future years if found by the commissioner upon periodical examinations at not less than five-year intervals to be more than the amount reasonably necessary to provide the remaining unfunded cost of past and current service credits of all employees under the plan, plus

(ii) Any excess over the amount allowable under clause (i) necessary to provide with respect to all of the employees under the trust the remaining unfunded cost of their past and current service credits distributed as a level amount, or a level percentage of compensation, over the remaining future service

of each such employee, as determined under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, but if such remaining unfunded cost with respect to any three individuals is more than 50 per centum of such remaining unfunded cost, the amount of such unfunded cost attributable to such individuals shall be distributed over a period of at least five taxable years, or

(iii) In lieu of the amounts allowable under (i) and (ii) above, an amount equal to the normal cost of the plan, as determined under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, plus, if past service or other supplementary pension or annuity credits are provided by the plan, an amount not in excess of 10 per centum of the cost which would be required to completely fund or purchase such pension or annuity credits as of the date when they are included in the plan, as determined under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, except that in no case shall a deduction be allowed for any amount (other than the normal cost) paid in after such pension or annuity credits are completely funded or purchased.

(iv) Any amount paid in a taxable year in excess of the amount deductible in such year under the foregoing limitations shall be deductible in the succeeding taxable years in order of time to the extent of the difference between the amount paid and deductible in each such succeeding year and the maximum amount deductible for such year in accordance with the foregoing limitations.

(B) In the taxable year when paid, in an amount determined in accordance with subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, if the contributions are paid toward the purchase of retirement annuities and such purchase is a part of a plan which meets the requirements of Section 12 (f) of The Personal Income Tax Act, and if refunds of premiums, if any, are applied within the current taxable year or next succeeding taxable year toward the purchase of such retirement annuities.

(C) In the taxable year when paid, if the contributions are paid into a stock bonus or profit-sharing trust, and if such taxable year ends within or with a taxable year of the trust with respect to which the trust is exempt under Section 12 (f) of The Personal Income Tax Act, in an amount not in excess of 15 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during the taxable year to all employees under the stock bonus or profit-sharing plan. If in any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, there is paid into the trust, or a similar trust then in effect, amounts less than the amounts deductible under the preceding sentence, the excess, or if no amount is paid, the amounts deductible, shall be carried forward and be deductible when paid in the succeeding taxable years in order of time, but the amount so deductible under this sentence in any such succeeding taxable year shall not exceed 15 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during such succeeding taxable year to the beneficiaries under the plan. In addition, any amount paid into the trust in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, in excess of the amount allowable with respect to such year under the preceding provisions of this subparagraph shall be deductible in the succeeding taxable years in order of time, but the amount so deductible under this sentence in any one such succeeding taxable year together with the amount allowable under the first sentence of this subparagraph shall not exceed 15 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during such taxable year to the beneficiaries under the plan. The term "stock bonus or profit-sharing trust," as used in this subparagraph, shall not include any trust designed to provide benefits upon retirement and covering a period of years, if under the plan the amounts to be contributed by the employer can be determined actuarily as provided in subparagraph (A). If the contributions are made to two or more stock bonus or profit-sharing trusts, such trusts shall be considered a single trust for the purposes of applying the limitations in this subparagraph.

(D) In the taxable year when paid, if the plan is not one included in paragraphs (A), (B), or (C), if the employees' rights to or derived from such employer's contribution or such compensation are nonforfeitable at the time the contribution or compensation is paid.

(E) For the purposes of subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C), a taxpayer on the accrual basis shall be deemed to have made a payment on the last day of the year of accrual if the payment is on account of such taxable year and is made within 60 days after the close of the taxable year of accrual.

(F) If amounts are deductible under subparagraphs (A) and (C), or (B) and (C), or (A), (B), and (C), in connection with two or more trusts, or one or more trusts and an annuity plan, the total amount deductible in a taxable year under such trusts and plans shall not exceed 25 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during the taxable year to the persons who are the beneficiaries of the trusts or plans In addition, any amount paid into such trust or under such annuity plans in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, in excess of the amount allowable with respect to such year under the preceding provisions of this subparagraph shall be deductible in the succeeding taxable years in order of time, but the amount so deductible under this sentence in any one such succeeding taxable year together with the amount allowable under the first sentence of this subparagraph shall not exceed 30 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during such taxable years to the beneficiaries under the trusts or plans. This subparagraph shall not have the effect of reducing the amount otherwise deductible under subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C), if no employee is a beneficiary under more than one trust, or a trust and an annuity plan.

If there is no plan but a method of employer contributions or compensation has the effect of a stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing, or annuity plan, or similar plan deferring the receipt of compensation, this paragraph shall apply as if there were such a plan.

(2) Any deduction allowable under this act (as it read prior to the 1943 amendment) for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1943, which was apportioned to any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1943, shall be allowed as a deduction for the years to which so apportioned to the extent allowable under this subsection as it then read if it had remained in force with respect to such year.

Amortizable bond premium

(n) In the case of a bondholder, who makes the election in the method and under the conditions prescribed in Section 7 (n) (4), the deduction for amortizable bond premium provided in subsection 7 (n) (1), (2) and (3).

Rules applicable

(1) In the case of any bond, as defined in subsection (3), the following rules shall apply to the amortizable bond premium (determined under subsection (2)) on the bond for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942:

(A) In the case of a bond (other than a bond the interest on which is excludible from gross income), the amount of the amortizable bond premium for the taxable year shall be allowed as a deduction.

(B) In the case of any bond the interest on which is excludible from gross income, no deduction shall be allowed for the amortizable bond premium for the taxable year.

(2) (A) For the purposes of paragraph (B), the amount of bond premium, in the case of the holder of any bond, shall be determined with reference to the amount of the basis (for determining loss on sale or exchange) of such bond, and with reference to the amount payable on maturity or on earlier call date, with adjustments proper to reflect unamortized bond premium with respect to the bond, for the period prior to the date as of which subsection (1) becomes applicable with respect to the taxpayer with respect to such bond.

(B) The amortizable bond premium of the taxable year shall be the amount of the bond premium attributable to such year.

(C) The determinations required under paragraphs (A) and (B) shall be made—

(i) In accordance with the method of amortizing bond premium regularly employed by the holder of the bond, if such method is reasonable;

(ii) In all other cases, in accordance with regulations prescribing reasonable methods of amortizing bond premium, prescribed by the commissioner.

"Bond"

(3) As used in this section, the term "bond" means any bond, debenture, note, or certificate or other evidence of indebtedness, issued by any bank or corporation and bearing interest (including any like obligation issued by a government or political subdivision thereof), with interest coupons or in registered form, but does not include any such obligation which constitutes stock in trade of the taxpayer or any such obligation of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or any such obligation held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business.

Election

(4) The amount of the amortizable bond premium for the taxable year shall be allowed as a deduction only if a taxpayer has elected to claim such deduction. Such election shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner shall prescribe. If such election is made with respect to any bond, it shall also apply to all such bonds held by the taxpayer at the beginning of the first taxable year to which the election applies and to all such bonds thereafter acquired by it, and shall be binding for all subsequent taxable years with respect to all such bonds of the taxpayer, unless, upon application by the taxpayer, the commissioner permits him, subject to such conditions as the commissioner deems necessary, to revoke such election.

New section

SEC. 5 (a). Section 7.1 is hereby added to said act, to read as follows:

Sec. 7.1. (a) For the purposes of this act—

Property lost or destroyed in course of military or naval operations

(1) Property destroyed or seized on or after December 7, 1941, in the course of military or naval operations by the United States or any other country engaged in the present war shall be deemed to have been destroyed or seized on a date chosen by the taxpayer in the manner provided in paragraph (4), which falls between—

(A) The latest date, as established to the satisfaction of the commissioner, on which such property may be considered as not destroyed or seized, and

(B) The earliest date, as established to the satisfaction of the commissioner, on which such property may be considered as having already been destroyed or seized.

For the purposes of this paragraph property within an area which comes under the control of a country at war with the United States after the date war with such country is declared by the United States shall be deemed to have been destroyed or seized in the course of military or naval operations by such country, and the date specified in subparagraph (A) shall not be later than the latest date determined by the commissioner as the date on which such area was under the control of the United States or a country not at war with the United States, and the date specified in subparagraph (B) shall not be later than the earliest date determined by the commissioner as the date on which such area may be considered under the control of the country which is at war with the United States.

(2) Property within any country at war with the United States, or within an area under the control of any such country on the date war with such country was declared by the United States, shall be deemed to have been destroyed or seized on the date war with such country was declared by the United States.

(3) Any interest in, or with respect to, property described in paragraph (1) or (2) (including any interest represented by a security) which becomes worthless shall be considered to have been destroyed or seized (and the loss therefrom shall be considered a loss from the destruction or seizure) on the date chosen by the taxpayer which falls between the dates specified in paragraph (1), or on the date prescribed in paragraph (2), as the case may be, when the last property (described in the applicable paragraph) to which the interest relates would be deemed destroyed or seized under the applicable paragraph. This paragraph shall apply only if the interest would have become worthless if the property had been destroyed. For the purposes of this paragraph, an interest shall be deemed to have become worthless notwithstanding the fact that such interest has a value if such value is attributable solely to the possibility of recovery of the property, compensation (other than insurance or similar indemnity) on account of its destruction or seizure, or both. Under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, a taxpayer which owns 100 per centum (excluding qualifying shares), of each class of stock of a corporation may elect to determine the worthlessness of its interest, described in this paragraph, in or with respect to the property of the corporation, without regard to the amount of the property of such corporation which would be excluded under subsection (e) (2) (A) in determining the adjusted basis of all the assets of the corporation for the purposes of subsection (e), but such amount shall be treated under subsection (b) (1) as a recovery by the taxpayer in the taxable year with respect to such interest.

Choice of date

(4) The taxpayer's choice of a date under paragraph (1) or (3) shall be effective only if made within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

(b) In the case of any property or interest in or with respect to property deemed to be destroyed or seized under subsection (a).

Amount of loss

(1) The amount of the loss on account of such property or interest shall be determined with regard to any recoveries with respect thereto in the taxable year but without regard to any possibility of recovering such property or interest, or of receiving any compensation (other than insurance or similar indemnity) on account of such property or interest in the taxable year or in any future taxable year.

(2) The taxpayer may choose to decrease the amount of the loss by all obligations or liabilities of the taxpayer with respect to such property or interest discharged or satisfied out of the property or interest upon its destruction or seizure, if the commissioner is satisfied that such obligations or liabilities are so discharged or satisfied in a subsequent taxable year, or that the taxpayer is unable to determine whether or not such obligations or liabilities are in fact discharged or satisfied.

No loss shall be deemed to have been sustained upon the destruction or seizure of such property or interest to the extent that it is compensated for by the discharge or satisfaction of obligations and liabilities of the taxpayer out of such property or interest in the taxable year in which such destruction or seizure is deemed to have occurred. The taxpayer's choice under this subsection shall be effective only if made within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Recovery

(c) (1) Upon the recovery in the taxable year of any money or property in respect of property considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized in any prior taxable year, the amount of such recovery shall be included in gross income to the extent provided in paragraph (2).

Amount of recovery

(2) The amount of the recovery of any money or property in respect of property considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of such money and the fair market value of such property, determined as of the date of the recovery. To the extent that such amount plus the aggregate of the amounts of previous such recoveries do not exceed that part of the aggregate of the allowable deductions in prior taxable years on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a) which did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act, such amount shall not be includible in gross income and shall not be deemed gain upon the involuntary conversion of property as a result of its destruction or seizure. To the extent that such amount plus the aggregate of the amounts of previous such recoveries exceed that part of the aggregate of such deductions which did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act and do not exceed that part of the aggregate of such deductions which did result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act, such amount shall be included in gross income but shall not be deemed a gain upon the involuntary conversion of property as a result of its destruction or seizure. To the extent that such amount plus the aggregate of the amounts of previous such recoveries exceed the aggregate of the allowable deductions in prior taxable years on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a), such amount shall be considered a gain upon the involuntary conversion of property as a result of its destruction or seizure and shall be recognized or not recognized as provided in Section 11 (f). If for any previous taxable year the taxpayer chooses under subsection (b) to treat any obligations and liabilities as discharged or satisfied out of the property or interest described in subsection (a), and if such obligations and liabilities were not so discharged or satisfied, the amount of such obligations and liabilities treated as discharged or satisfied under subsection (b) shall be considered for the purposes of this section as a deduction by reason of this section which did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act. For the purposes of this paragraph an allowable deduction for any taxable year on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a) shall, to the extent not allowed in computing the tax of the taxpayer for such taxable year, be considered an allowable deduction which did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), the restoration in whole or in part of the value of any interest described in subsection (a) (3) by reason of any recovery of money or property in respect of property to which such interest related and which was considered under subsection (a) (1) or (2) as destroyed or seized shall be deemed a recovery of property in respect of property considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized.

Unadjusted basis of property recovered

(d) The unadjusted basis of property recovered in respect of property considered destroyed or seized under subsection (a) shall be determined under this subsection. Such basis shall be an amount equal to the fair market value of such property, determined as of the date of the recovery, reduced by an amount equal to the excess of the aggregate of such fair market value and the amounts of previous recoveries of money or property in respect of property considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized over the aggregate of the allowable deductions in prior taxable years on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a), and increased by that portion of the amount of the recovery which under subsection (c) is treated as a recognized gain from the involuntary conversion of property. Upon application of the taxpayer, the aggregate of the bases (determined under the preceding sentence) of any properties recovered in respect of properties considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized may be allocated among the properties so recovered in such manner as the commissioner may determine under regulations prescribed by him, and the amounts so allocated to any such property so recovered shall be the unadjusted basis of such property in lieu of the unadjusted basis of such property determined under the preceding sentence.

Corporate property destroyed or seized

(e) (1) If a taxpayer owns not less than 50 per centum of each class of stock of a corporation, if such corporation has property described in subsection (a) (1) or (2) deemed to be destroyed or seized, the adjusted basis for determining loss of which is at least 75 per centum of the adjusted basis for determining loss of all such corporation's property, and if such corporation completely liquidates (by distributing all the assets which it is able to distribute and all its rights to assets which it is not able to distribute, including the right to the recovery of the property described in subsection (a) (1) and (2)) within one year after such property is deemed to be destroyed or seized, or by December 31, 1943, whichever is the later, then that part of the loss by the taxpayer on such liquidation which would be attributable to the destruction or seizure of such property, as established to the satisfaction of the commissioner, shall be treated for the purposes of this act as a loss by the taxpayer upon the destruction or seizure of the part of the stock or other interest of the taxpayer to which such loss is allocable. Such part of the stock or other interest of the taxpayer shall be treated for the purposes of subsections (b), (c), and (d) as property described in subsection (a) (3).

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)—

Adjusted basis

(A) In determining the adjusted basis of all the property of the corporation, there shall be excluded money in the United States, bank deposits, the right to receive money from any person not situated in a country at war with the United States or in a territory under the control of such a country, and obligations issued or guaranteed as to principal or interest by the United States, except that there shall not be excluded any such property which is destroyed or seized as described in subsection (a) within or before the taxable period.

(B) The adjusted basis of property of such corporation shall be determined as of the date immediately preceding the first date on which any property was destroyed or seized, as described in subsection (a), or as of any later date falling within or before the taxable period on the basis of which such determination will produce a greater amount.

(f) The determination as to whether and to what extent an allowable deduction on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a) did or did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act shall be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

SEC. 6. Section 8 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Items not deductible

Sec. 8. In computing net income no deduction shall be allowed for:

(a) Any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property; or for

(b) Any amount expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made; or for

(c) Premiums paid on any life insurance policy covering the life of any officer or employee, or of any person financially interested in any trade or business carried on by the taxpayer, when the taxpayer is directly or indirectly a beneficiary under such policy;

(d) Any amount otherwise allowable as a deduction which is allocable to one or more classes of income not included in the measure of the tax imposed by this act.

(1) Any amount paid or accrued on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase a single premium life insurance or endowment contract. For the purposes of this paragraph, if substantially all the premiums on a life insurance or endowment contract are paid within a period of four years from the date on which such contract is purchased, such contract shall be considered a single premium life insurance or endowment contract;

(2) Amounts paid or accrued for such taxes and carrying charges as, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, are chargeable to capital account with respect to property, if the taxpayer elects, in accordance with such regulations, to treat such taxes or charges as so chargeable.

(e) Except in case of distributions in liquidation, losses from sales or exchanges of property directly or indirectly between an individual and a corporation in which such individual owns directly or indirectly more than 50 per centum in value of the outstanding stock. For the purpose of this subdivision an individual shall be considered as owning the stock owned directly or indirectly by his family and the family of an individual shall include only his brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood), spouse, ancestors and lineal descendants.

(f) In computing net income no deduction shall be allowed under Section 7 (a), relating to expenses incurred, or under Section 7 (b), relating to interest accrued:

(1) If such expenses or interest are not paid within the taxable year or within two and one-half months after the close thereof; and

(2) If, by reason of the method of accounting of the person or corporation to whom the payment is to be made, the amount thereof is not, unless paid, includible under the provisions of The Personal Income Tax Act or Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act or this act in the gross income of such person or corporation for the year in which or with which the taxable year of the taxpayer ends; and

Stats 1929, p 19

(3) If, at the close of the taxable year of the taxpayer or at any time within two and one-half months thereafter, both the taxpayer and the person to whom the payment is to be made are persons between whom losses would be disallowed under Section 8 (e), or if the corporation to which payment is to be made is owned by, or owns, the taxpayer to the extent of more than 50 per centum in value of the outstanding stock.

The amount of expenses incurred or interest accrued the deduction of which is disallowed under this subsection in the year incurred or accrued, may be deducted in the year paid.

New section

SEC. 7. Section 8.1 is hereby added to said act, to read as follows:

Renegotiated contracts with U S

Sec. 8.1. (a) In the case of a contract with the United States or any agency thereof, or any subcontract thereunder, which is made by the taxpayer, if a renegotiation is made in respect of such contract or subcontract and an amount of excessive profits received or accrued under such contract or subcontract for a taxable year (hereinafter referred to as

"prior taxable year") is eliminated and, in a taxable year ending after December 31, 1941, the taxpayer is required to pay or repay to the United States or any agency thereof the amount of profits eliminated or the amount of profits eliminated is applied as an offset against other amounts due the taxpayer, then the profits so eliminated shall be excluded from gross income for the prior taxable year if they were included in gross income for the prior taxable year. For the purposes of this section— Exclusion from gross income

(1) The term "renegotiation" includes any transaction which is a renegotiation within the meaning of Section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act (Public 528, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.) or such section, as amended, any modification of one or more contracts with the United States or any agency thereof, and any agreement with the United States or any agency thereof in respect of one or more such contracts or subcontracts thereunder. "Renegotiation"

(2) The term "excessive profits" includes any amount which constitutes excessive profits within the meaning assigned to such term by subsection (a) of Section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act (Public 528, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, any part of the contract price of a contract with the United States or any agency thereof, any part of the subcontract price of a subcontract under such a contract, and any profits derived from one or more such contracts or subcontracts. "Excessive profits"

(3) The term "subcontract" includes any purchase order or agreement which is a subcontract within the meaning assigned to such term by subsection (a) of Section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act (Public 528, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942. "Subcontract"

(b) In the case of a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract between the United States or any agency thereof and the taxpayer, if an item for which the taxpayer has been reimbursed by the United States or any agency thereof is disallowed as an item of cost chargeable to such contract, and, in a taxable year ending after December 31, 1941, the taxpayer is required to repay the United States or any agency thereof the amount disallowed, or the amount disallowed is applied as an offset against other amounts due the taxpayer, for the purposes of this act the amount so disallowed or so applied as an offset shall be allowed as a deduction in the taxable year in which the reimbursement for such item was received or was accrued to the extent that the taxpayer's taxable net income for the year in which the cost was incurred would have been reduced had no such reimbursement been received or accrued. Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract

(c) The amount of the payment, repayment or offset described in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) shall not constitute a deduction for the year in which paid or incurred. When not deductible

Accounting method

(d) The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply in respect of any contract if the taxpayer shows to the satisfaction of the commissioner that a different method of accounting for the amount of the payment, repayment, or disallowance clearly reflects income, and in such case the payment, repayment, or disallowance shall be accounted for with respect to the taxable year provided for under such method.

Refund

(e) Any overpayment in tax which results from the application of this section shall be credited or refunded as provided in this act. Notwithstanding the provisions of any statute of limitations, such credit or refund shall be made if claim therefor is filed within four years from the last day prescribed for filing the return or within two years from the date of payment, repayment, or offset described in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this section, whichever is later.

Claim in abatement

(f) If prior to the payment of the last installment of tax for the taxable year the taxpayer becomes entitled to the exclusions or deductions provided in this section for its taxable year, the taxpayer may, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, file a claim in abatement of any unpaid tax or portion thereof, but not in excess of the reduction in tax resulting from the application of this section.

(g) In any case in which a claim in abatement is filed pursuant to subsection (f), and the commissioner makes such abatement, the tax disclosed by the original return shall, for the purpose of Section 19 of this act, be deemed to be reduced by the amount of the tax so abated.

Stats 1943, Ch 38

SEC. 8. Section 9 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Inventories

Sec 9. (1) Whenever, in the opinion of the commissioner, the use of inventories is necessary clearly to determine the income of any taxpayer, inventory shall be taken by such taxpayer upon such basis as the commissioner may prescribe, conforming as nearly as may be to the best accounting practice and most clearly reflecting the income.

Methods

(2) (A) A taxpayer may use the following method (whether or not such method has been prescribed under subdivision (1)) in inventorying goods specified in the application required under paragraph (B): (1) Inventory them at cost; (2) treat those remaining on hand at the close of the taxable year as being: First, those included in the opening inventory of the taxable year (in the order of acquisition) to the extent thereof, and second, those acquired in the taxable year; and (3) treat those included in the opening inventory of the taxable year in which such method is first used as having been acquired at the same time and determine their cost by the average cost method.

(B) The method described in paragraph (A) may be used (1) only in inventorying goods (required under subdivision (1) to be inventoried) specified in an application to use such method filed at such time and in such manner as the commissioner may prescribe; and (2) only if the taxpayer establishes to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the taxpayer has used no procedure other than that specified in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of paragraph (A) in inventorying such goods to ascertain the income, profit, or loss of the first taxable year for which the method described in paragraph (A) is to be used, for the purpose of a report or statement covering such taxable year (i) to shareholders, partners, or other proprietors, or to beneficiaries, or (ii) for credit purposes.

(C) The change to, and the use of, such method shall be in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe as necessary in order that the use of such method may clearly reflect income.

(D) In determining income for the taxable year preceding the taxable year for which such method is first used, the closing inventory of such preceding year of the goods specified in such application shall be at cost.

Change in method

(E) If a taxpayer, having complied with paragraph (B), uses the method described in paragraph (A) for any taxable year, then such method shall be used in all subsequent taxable years unless with the approval of the commissioner a change to a different method is authorized; or the commissioner determines that the taxpayer has used for any such subsequent taxable year some procedure other than that specified in (2) of paragraph (A) in inventorying the goods specified in the application to ascertain the income, profit, or loss of such subsequent taxable year for the purpose of a report or statement covering such taxable year (i) to shareholders, partners, or other proprietors, or beneficiaries, or (ii) for credit purposes; and requires a change to a method different from that prescribed in paragraph (1) beginning with such subsequent taxable year or any taxable year thereafter.

In either of the above cases, the change to, and the use of, the different method shall be in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe as necessary in order that the use of such method may clearly reflect income.

Involuntary liquidation

(3) (A) If, for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, and prior to the termination of the present war as proclaimed by the President of the United States, the closing inventory of a taxpayer inventorying goods under the method provided in this subsection reflects a decrease from the opening inventory of such goods for such year, and if, at the time of the filing of the taxpayer's income tax return for such year, the taxpayer elects to have the provisions of this paragraph apply and so notifies the commissioner, and if, at the time of such election, it is established to the satisfaction of the commissioner, in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, that such decrease is attributable to the involuntary liquidation of such inventory as defined in subparagraph (B), and if the closing inventory of a subsequent taxable year, ending not more than three years after the termination of the present war as proclaimed by the President, reflects a replacement, in whole or in part, of the goods so previously liquidated, the net income of the taxpayer otherwise determined for the year of such involuntary liquidation shall be adjusted as follows:

Adjustment

(i) Increased by an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the aggregate cost of such goods reflected in the opening inventory of the year of involuntary liquidation over the aggregate replacement cost; or

(ii) Decreased by an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the aggregate replacement cost of such goods over the aggregate cost thereof reflected in the opening inventory of the year of the involuntary liquidation.

The taxes imposed by this act for the year of such liquidation and for all taxable years intervening between such year and the year of replacement shall be redetermined, giving effect to such adjustments. Any increase in such taxes resulting from such adjustments shall be assessed and collected as a deficiency but without interest, and any overpayment so resulting shall be credited or refunded to the taxpayer without interest.

"Involuntary liquidation"

(B) The term "involuntary liquidation," as used in this paragraph, means the sale or other disposition of goods inventoried under the method described in this subsection, either voluntary or involuntary, coupled with a failure on the part of the taxpayer to purchase, manufacture, or otherwise produce and have on hand at the close of the taxable year in which such sale or other disposition occurred such goods as would, if on hand at the close of such taxable year, be subject to the application of the provisions of this subsection, if such failure on the part of the taxpayer is due, directly and exclusively, (i) to enemy capture or control of sources of limited foreign supply; (ii) to shipping or other transportation shortages; (iii) to material shortages resulting from priorities or allocations; (iv) to labor shortages; or (v) to other prevailing war conditions beyond the control of the taxpayer.

Increase

(C) If, in the case of any taxpayer subject to the provisions of subparagraph (A), the closing inventory of the taxpayer for a taxable year, subsequent to the year of involuntary liquidation but prior to the complete replacement of the goods so liquidated, reflects an increase over the opening inventory of such goods for the taxable year, the goods reflecting such increase shall be considered, in the order of their acquisition, as having been acquired in replacement of the goods most recently liquidated (whether or not in a year of involuntary liquidation) and not previously replaced, and if the liquidation was an involuntary liquidation shall be included in the inventory of the taxpayer for the year of replacement at the inventory cost basis of the goods replaced.

Election

(D) An election by the taxpayer to have the provisions of this paragraph apply, once made, shall be irrevocable and shall be binding for the year of the involuntary liquidation and for all determinations for subsequent taxable years in so far as they are related to the year of liquidation or replacement.

Prevented adjustments

(E) If the adjustments specified in subparagraph (A) are, with respect to any taxable year, prevented, on the date of the filing of the income tax return of the taxpayer for the year of the replacement, or within three years from such date, by any provision or rule of law (other than this subparagraph), such adjustments shall nevertheless be made if, in respect of the taxable year for which the adjustment is sought, a notice of deficiency is mailed or a claim for refund is filed, as the case may be, within three years after the date of the filing of the income tax return for the year of replacement. If, at the time of the mailing of such notice of deficiency or the filing of such claim for refund, the adjustment is so prevented, then the amount of the adjustment authorized by this paragraph shall be limited to the increase or decrease of the tax imposed by this act previously determined for such taxable year which results solely from the effect of subparagraph (A), and such amount shall be assessed and collected, or credited or refunded, in the same manner as if it were a deficiency or an overpayment, as the case may be, for such taxable year and as if, on the date of the filing of the income tax return for the year of the replacement, three years remain before the expiration of the periods of limitation upon assessment or the filing of claim for refund for the taxable year. The tax previously determined shall be ascertained in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner. The amount to be assessed and collected under this paragraph in the same manner as if it were a deficiency or to be credited or refunded in the same manner as if it were an overpayment shall not be diminished by any credit or set-off based upon any item, inclusion, deduction, credit, exemption, gain, or loss, other than one resulting from the effect of subparagraph (A). Such amount, if paid, shall not be recovered by a claim or suit for refund, or suit for erroneous refund based upon any item, inclusion, deduction, credit, exemption, gain, or loss, other than one resulting from the effect of subparagraph (A)

SEC. 9. Section 11 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch 38

Sec. 11. (a) Upon the sale or exchange of property the entire amount of the gain or loss, determined under Section 10, shall be recognized, except as hereinafter provided in this section. Recognition of gain or loss

(b) (1) No gain or loss shall be recognized if property held for productive use in trade or business or for investment (not including stock in trade or other property held primarily for sale, nor stocks, bonds, notes, choses in action, certificates of trust or beneficial interest, or other securities or evidences of indebtedness or interest) is exchanged solely for property of a like kind to be held either for productive use in trade or business or for investment.

(2) No gain or loss shall be recognized if common stock in a corporation is exchanged solely for common stock in the same corporation, or if preferred stock in a corporation is exchanged solely for preferred stock in the same corporation.

(3) No gain or loss shall be recognized if stock or securities in a corporation a party to a reorganization are, in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, exchanged solely for stock or securities in such corporation or in another corporation a party to the reorganization.

(4) No gain or loss shall be recognized if a corporation a party to a reorganization exchanges property, in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, solely for stock or securities in another corporation a party to the reorganization.

(5) No gain or loss shall be recognized if property is transferred to a corporation by one or more taxpayers solely in exchange for stock or securities in such corporation, and immediately after the exchange such taxpayer or taxpayers are in control of the corporation; but in the case of an exchange by two or more taxpayers this paragraph shall apply only if the amount of the stock and securities received by each is substantially in proportion to its interest in the property prior to the exchange.

Where the transferee assumes a liability of a transferor, or where the property of a transferor is transferred subject to a liability, then for the purpose only of determining whether the amount of stock or securities received by each of the transferors is in the proportion required by this paragraph, the amount of such liability (if under subsection (k) it is not to be considered as other property or money) shall be considered as stock or securities received by such transferor.

Distribution in complete liquidation

(6) No gain or loss shall be recognized upon the receipt by a corporation of property distributed in complete liquidation of another corporation. For the purposes of this paragraph a distribution shall be considered to be in complete liquidation only if:

(A) The corporation receiving such property was, on the date of the adoption of the plan of liquidation, and has continued to be at all times until the receipt of the property, the owner of stock (in such other corporation) possessing at least 80 per centum of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote and the owner of at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock (except nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends), and was at no time on or after the date of the adoption of the plan of liquidation and until the receipt of the property the owner of a greater percentage of any class of stock than the percentage of such class owned at the time of the receipt of the property; and

(B) No distribution under the liquidation was made before the first day of the first taxable year of the corporation beginning after December 31, 1935; and either

(C) The distribution is by such other corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of all its stock, and the transfer of all the property occurs within the taxable year; in such case the adoption by the shareholders of the resolution under which is authorized the distribution of all the assets of such corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of all its stock, shall be considered an adoption of a plan of liquidation, even though no time for the completion of the transfer of the property is specified in such resolution; or

(D) Such distribution is one of a series of distributions by such other corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of all its stock in accordance with a plan of liquidation under which the transfer of all the property under the liquidation is to be completed within three years from the close of the taxable year during which is made the first of the series of distributions under the plan, except that if such transfer is not completed within such period, or if the taxpayer does not continue qualified under subparagraph (A) until the completion of such transfer, no distribution under the plan shall be considered a distribution in complete liquidation.

If such transfer of all the property does not occur within the taxable year the commissioner may require of the taxpayer such bond, or waiver of the statute of limitations on assessment and collection, or both, as he may deem necessary to insure, if the transfer of the property is not completed within such three-year period, or if the taxpayer does not continue qualified under subparagraph (A) until the completion of such transfer, the assessment and collection of all taxes imposed by this act then due or to become due, to the extent attributable to property so received. A distribution otherwise constituting a distribution in complete liquidation within the meaning of this paragraph shall not be considered as not constituting such a distribution merely because it does not constitute a distribution or liquidation within the meaning of the corporate law under which the distribution is made; and for the purposes of this paragraph a transfer of property of such other corporation to the taxpayer shall not be considered as not constituting a distribution (or one of a series of distributions) in complete cancellation or redemption of all the stock of such other corporation, merely because the carrying out of the plan involves (i) the transfer under the plan to the taxpayer by such other corporation of property, not attributable to shares owned by the taxpayer, upon an exchange described in paragraph (4) of this subsection, and (ii) the complete cancellation or redemption under the plan, as a result of exchanges described in paragraph (3) of this subsection, of the shares not owned by the taxpayer.

(7) No gain or loss shall be recognized to a shareholder from a distribution of stocks or securities in liquidation of a corporation made pursuant to an order of the Federal Securities and Exchange Commission under authority vested in it by that act of Congress known as the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 as amended.

(8) No loss shall be recognized if property of a railroad corporation, as defined in Section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, is transferred, after December 31, 1942, in pursuance of an order of the court having jurisdiction of such corporation—

(A) In a receivership proceeding, or

(B) In a proceeding under Section 77 of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, to a railroad corporation, as defined in Section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, organized or made use of to effectuate a plan of reorganization approved by the court in such proceeding. The term "reorganization," as used in this paragraph, shall not be limited by the definition of such term in subsection (g).

Particular exchanges

(c) (1) If an exchange would be within the provisions of subsection (b) (1), (2), (3), or (5) of this section if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of property permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain, but also of other property or money, then the gain, if any, to the recipient shall be recognized, but in an amount not in excess of the sum of such money and the fair market value of such other property.

(2) If a distribution made in pursuance of a plan of reorganization is within the provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection but has the effect of the distribution of a taxable dividend, then there shall be taxed as a dividend to each distributee such an amount of the gain recognized under paragraph (1) as is not in excess of his ratable share of the undistributed earnings and profits of the corporation accumulated after February 28, 1913. The remainder, if any, of the gain recognized under paragraph (1) shall be taxed as a gain from the exchange of property.

(d) If an exchange would be within the provisions of subsection (b) (4) of this section if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of stock or securities permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain, but also of other property or money, then:

(1) If the corporation receiving such other property or money distributes it in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, no gain to the corporation shall be recognized from the exchange, but

(2) If the corporation receiving such other property or money does not distribute it in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, the gain, if any, to the corporation shall be recognized, but in an amount not in excess of the sum of such money and the fair market value of such other property so received, which is not so distributed.

(e) If an exchange would be within the provisions of subsection (b) (1) to (5), inclusive, of this section if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of property permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain or loss, but also of other property or money, then no loss from the exchange shall be recognized.

(f) If property (as a result of its destruction in whole or in part, theft or seizure, or an exercise of the power of requisition or condemnation, or the threat or imminence thereof) is compulsorily or involuntarily converted into property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted, or into money which is forthwith in good faith, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, expended in the acquisition of other property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted, or in the acquisition of control of a corporation owning such other property, or in the establishment of a replacement fund, no gain shall be recognized, but loss shall be recognized. If any part of the money is not so expended, the gain, if any, shall be recognized to the extent of the money which is not so expended (regardless of whether such money is received in one or more taxable years and regardless of whether or not the money which is not so expended constitutes gain).

(g) As used in this section and Section 12:

"Reorganization" (1) The term "reorganization" means (A) a statutory merger or consolidation, or (B) the acquisition by one corporation in exchange solely for all or a part of its voting stock: Of at least 80 per centum of the voting stock and at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of another corporation; or of substantially all the properties of another corporation, but in determining whether the exchange is solely for voting stock, the assumption by the acquiring corporation of a liability of the other, or the fact that property acquired is subject to a liability, shall be disregarded, or (C) a transfer by a corporation of all or a part of its assets to another corporation if immediately after the transfer the transferor or its shareholders or both are in control of the corporation to which the assets are transferred, or (D) a recapitalization, or (E) a mere change in identity, form, or place of organization, however effected.

"Party to a reorganization" (2) The term "a party to a reorganization" includes a corporation resulting from a reorganization and includes both corporations in the case of a reorganization resulting from the acquisition by one corporation of stock or properties of another.

"Control" (h) As used in this section the term "control" means the ownership of stock possessing at least 80 per centum of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote and at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of the corporation.

Corporation created in foreign country (i) In determining the extent to which gain shall be recognized in the case of any of the exchanges (made after the date of the enactment of this act) described in subsection (b) (3), (4), (5), or (6), or described in so much of subsection (c) as refers to subsection (b) (3) or (5), or described in subsection (d), a corporation created or organized in a foreign country shall not be considered as a corporation unless, prior to such exchange, it has been established to the satisfaction of the commissioner that such exchange is not in pursuance of a plan having as one of its principal purposes the avoidance of income taxes or franchise taxes imposed by this State.

Installment obligations

(j) For nonrecognition of gain or loss in the case of installment obligations, see Section 10 (e) (4).

Assumption of taxpayer's liability

(k) Where upon an exchange the taxpayer receives as part of the consideration property which would be permitted by subsection (b) (4) or (5) of this section to be received without the recognition of gain if it were the sole consideration, and as part of the consideration another party to the exchange assumes a liability of the taxpayer or acquires from the taxpayer property subject to a liability, such assumption or acquisition shall not be considered as "other property or money" received by the taxpayer within the meaning of subsection (c), (d) or (e) of this section and shall not prevent the exchange from being within the provisions of subsection (b) (4) or (5); except that if, taking into consideration the nature of the liability and the circumstances in the light of which the arrangement for the assumption or acquisition was made, it appears that the principal purpose of the taxpayer with respect to the assumption or acquisition was a purpose to avoid State tax on the exchange, or, if not such purpose, was not a bona fide business purpose, such assumption or acquisition (in the amount of the liability) shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered as money received by the taxpayer upon the exchange. In any suit or proceeding where the burden is on the taxpayer to prove that such assumption or acquisition is not to be considered as money received by the taxpayer, such burden shall not be considered as sustained unless the taxpayer sustains such burden by the clear preponderance of the evidence.

Burden of proof

SEC. 10. Section 12 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Basis of property

Sec. 12. (a) The basis of property shall be the cost of such property; except that:

(1) If the property should have been included in the last inventory, the basis shall be the last inventory value thereof.

(2) If the property was acquired by gift after December 31, 1920, the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the donor or the last preceding owner by whom it was not acquired by gift, except that if such basis (adjusted for the period prior to the date of the gift as provided in subsection (b)) is greater than the fair market value of the property at the time of the gift, then for the purpose of determining loss the basis shall be such fair market value. If the facts necessary to determine the basis in the hands of the donor or the last preceding owner are unknown to the donee, the commissioner shall, if possible, obtain such facts from such donor or last preceding owner, or any other person cognizant thereof. If the commissioner finds it impossible to obtain such facts, the basis in the hands of such donor or last preceding owner shall be the fair market value of such property as found by the commissioner as of the date or approximate date at which, according to the best information that the commissioner is able to obtain, such property was acquired by such donor or last preceding owner.

(3) If the property was acquired after December 31, 1920, by a transfer in trust (other than by a transfer in trust by a gift, bequest or devise) the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the grantor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the grantor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made.

(4) If the property was acquired, after February 28, 1913, upon an exchange described in Section 11 (b) to (e), inclusive, the basis (except as provided in paragraph (12) of this subsection) shall be the same as in the case of the property exchanged, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer that was recognized upon such exchange under the law applicable to the year in which the exchange was made. If the property so acquired consisted in part of the type of property permitted by Section 11 (b) to be received without the recognition of gain or loss, and in part of other property, the basis provided in this paragraph shall be allocated between the properties (other than money) received, and for the purpose of the allocation there shall be assigned to such other property an amount equivalent to its fair market value at the date of the exchange. Where as a part of the consideration to the taxpayer another party to the exchange assumed a liability of the taxpayer or acquired from the taxpayer property subject to a liability, such assumption or acquisition (in the amount of the liability) shall, for the purposes of this paragraph, be considered as money received by the taxpayer upon the exchange. This paragraph shall not apply to property acquired by a corporation by the issuance of its stock or securities as the consideration in whole or in part for the transfer of the property to it.

(5) If the property was acquired:

(A) After December 31, 1917, and in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1936, by a corporation in connection with a reorganization, and immediately after the transfer an interest or control in such property of 50 per centum or more remained in the same persons or any of them; or

(B) In a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1935, by a corporation in connection with a reorganization, then the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the transferor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the transferor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made. This paragraph shall not apply if the property acquired consists of stock or securities in a corporation a party to the reorganization, unless acquired by the issuance of stock or securities of the transferee as the consideration in whole or in part for the transfer.

(6) If the property was acquired after December 31, 1920, by a corporation:

(A) By the issuance of its stock or securities in connection with a transaction described in Section 11 (b) (5) (including, also, cases where part of the consideration for the transfer of such property to the corporation was property or money, in addition to such stock or securities), or

(B) As paid in surplus or as a contribution to capital, then the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the transferor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the transferor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made.

(7) If the property was acquired, after February 28, 1913, as the result of a compulsory or involuntary conversion described in Section 11 (f), the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property so converted, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer which was not expended in accordance with the provisions of law (applicable to the year in which such conversion was made) determining the taxable status of the gain or loss upon such conversion, and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer recognized upon such conversion under the law applicable to the year in which such conversion was made.

(8) If the property consists of stock or securities the acquisition of which (or the contract or option to acquire which) resulted in the nondeductibility (under Section 7 (d) of this act, relating to wash sales) of the loss from the sale or other disposition of substantially identical stock or securities, then the basis shall be the basis of the stock or securities so sold or disposed of, increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the difference, if any, between the price at which the property was acquired and the price at which such substantially identical stock or securities were sold or otherwise disposed of.

(9) In the case of property acquired by a corporation, during a period of affiliation, from a corporation with which it was affiliated, the basis of such property, after such period of affiliation, shall be determined, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner, without regard to intercompany transactions in respect of which gain or loss was not recognized. The basis in case of property acquired by a corporation during any period, in the taxable year 1929 or any subsequent taxable year, in respect of which a consolidated return is made by such corporation under Section 141 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1928 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1932 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1936, or the Federal Revenue Act of 1938, shall be determined in accordance with regulations prescribed under Section 141 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1928 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1932 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1936 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1938. The basis in the case of property held by a corporation during any period, in the taxable year 1929 or any subsequent taxable year, in respect of which a consolidated return is made by such corporation under Section 141 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1928 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1932 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1936, or the Federal Revenue Act of 1938, shall be adjusted in respect of any items relating to such period, in accordance with regulations prescribed under Section 141 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1928 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1932 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1936, or the Federal Revenue Act of 1938, applicable to such period.

(10) If the property was acquired, after February 28, 1913, in any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1934, and the basis thereof, for the purposes of the Federal Revenue Act of 1932 was prescribed by Section 113 (a) (6), (7), or (9) of such act, then for the purposes of this act the basis shall be the same as the basis therein prescribed in the Federal Revenue Act of 1932.

(11) In the case of property acquired before March 1, 1913, if the basis otherwise determined under this subsection, adjusted (for the period prior to March 1, 1913) as provided in subsection (b), is less than the fair market value of the property as of March 1, 1913, then the basis for determining gain shall be such fair market value. In determining the fair market value of stock in a corporation as of March 1, 1913, due regard shall be given to the fair market value of the assets of the corporation as of that date.

(12) If the property was received by a corporation upon a distribution in complete liquidation of another corporation within the meaning of Section 11 (b) (6), then the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the transferor.

(13) If the property was acquired after February 28, 1913, in any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1936, and the basis thereof, for the purposes of the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 was prescribed by Section 113 (a) (6), (7), or (8) of such act, then for the purposes of this act the basis shall be the same as the basis therein prescribed in the Federal Revenue Act of 1934.

(14) (A) If the property was acquired by a shareholder in a corporation and consists of rights to acquire stock in such corporation acquired by him after February 28, 1913, in a distribution by such corporation, and (1) the right to acquire such stock was acquired in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1937 (except as provided in subparagraph (B)), or (2) the right to acquire such stock was acquired in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1936, and its distribution did not constitute income to the shareholder within the meaning of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, then the basis of the stock in respect of which the rights were declared and the right to acquire stock, respectively, shall, in the shareholder's hands be determined by allocating between the stock and the right to acquire stock the adjusted basis of the stock, such allocation to be made under regulations which shall be prescribed by the commissioner.

(B) If a stock right was acquired prior to January 1, 1937, and it constituted income within the purview of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, the basis of the stock in respect of which the rights were declared shall not be affected and the basis of the right shall be its fair market value as of the date of its acquisition.

(C) Where the shareholder acquired the right to acquire such stock in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1943, and sold the same, and there was included in the gross income for such year of sale the entire amount of the proceeds of such sale, then if before the effective date of the 1943 amendments to this act the taxpayer has not asserted (by claim for a refund or credit or otherwise) that any part of the proceeds of the sale of such rights should be excluded from gross income for the year of its sale, the basis of the stock shall be determined without regard to paragraphs (A) and (B) and no part of the proceeds of the sale of such rights shall ever be excluded from the gross income for the year of such sale.

(15) If the property of a railroad corporation, as defined in Section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, was acquired after December 31, 1942, in pursuance of an order of the court having jurisdiction of such corporation—

(A) In a receivership proceeding, or

(B) In a proceeding under Section 77 of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended,

and the acquiring corporation is a railroad corporation, as defined in Section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, organized or made use of to effectuate a plan or reorganization approved by the court in such proceeding, the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the railroad corporation whose property was so acquired. The term "reorganization," as used in this paragraph, shall not be limited by the definition of such term in Section 11 (g).

(16) If the property of any street, suburban, or interurban electric railway corporation engaged as a common carrier in the transportation of persons or property in interstate commerce was acquired after December 31, 1942, in pursuance of an order of the court having jurisdiction of such corporation in a proceeding under Section 77B of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, and the acquiring corporation is a street, suburban, or interurban electric railway engaged as a common carrier in the transportation of persons or property in interstate commerce, organized or made use of to effectuate a plan of reorganization approved by the court in such proceeding, then, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 270 of Chapter X of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, the basis, for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the corporation whose property was so acquired. The term "reorganization," as used in this paragraph, shall not be limited by the definition of such term in Section 11 (g).

(17) In the case of stocks or securities received by a taxpayer on or after January 1, 1943, under circumstances described in Section 11 (b) (7), the basis of such stocks or securities shall be the same as that of the stocks or securities for the surrender of which they were acquired.

Adjusted basis

(b) The adjusted basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property, whenever acquired, shall be the basis determined under subsection (a), adjusted as hereinafter provided.

(1) Proper adjustment in respect of the property shall in all cases be made:

(A) For expenditures, receipts, losses, or other items, properly chargeable to capital account, but no such adjustment shall be made for taxes or other carrying charges for which deductions have been taken by the taxpayer in determining net income for the taxable year or prior taxable years;

(B) For exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion, to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1937, and for periods thereafter to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under this act; provided, however, that if a taxpayer has not claimed an amortization deduction for an emergency facility, an adjustment shall be made only to the extent ordinarily provided under Section 7 (f).

(C) In the case of stock (to the extent not provided for in the foregoing subparagraphs) for the amount of distributions previously made which, under the law applicable to the year in which the distribution was made, either were tax-free or were applicable in reduction of basis (not including distributions made by a corporation, which was classified as a personal service corporation under the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921, out of its earnings or profits which were taxable in accordance with the provisions of Section 218 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921).

(D) In the case of any bond (as defined in Section 7 (n) (3)) the interest on which is wholly exempt from the tax imposed by this act, to the extent of the amortizable bond premium disallowable as a deduction pursuant to Section 7 (n) (1) (B), and in the case of any other bond (as defined in such section) to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to Section 7 (n) (1) (A) with respect thereto.

"Substituted basis"

(2) The term "substituted basis" as used in this subsection means a basis determined under any provision of subsection (a) of this section, providing that the basis shall be determined:

(A) By reference to the basis in the hands of a transferor, donor, or grantor, or

(B) By reference to other property held at any time by the person for whom the basis is to be determined.

Whenever it appears that the basis of property in the hands of the taxpayer is a substituted basis, then the adjustments provided in paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be made after first making in respect of such substituted basis proper adjustments of a similar nature in respect of the period during which the property was held by the transferor, donor, or grantor, or during which the other property was held by the person for whom the basis is to be determined. A similar rule shall be applied in the case of a series of substituted bases.

(3) Where in the case of a corporation any amount is excluded from gross income under Section 6 (b) (6) on account of the discharge of indebtedness the whole or a part of the amount so excluded from gross income shall be applied in a reduction of the basis of any property held (whether before or after the time of the discharge) by the taxpayer during any portion of the taxable year in which such discharge occurred. The amount to be so applied (not in excess of the amount so excluded from gross income, reduced by the amount of any deduction disallowed under Section 6 (b) (6)) and the particular properties to which the reduction shall be allocated, shall be determined under regulations (prescribed by the commissioner) in effect at the time of the filing of the consent by the taxpayer referred to in Section 6 (b) (6). The reduction shall be made as of the first day of the taxable year in which the discharge occurred except in the case of property not held by the taxpayer on such first day, in which case it shall take effect as of the time the holding of the taxpayer began.

Leased property

(c) Neither the basis nor the adjusted basis of any portion of real property shall, in the case of the lessor of such property, be increased or diminished on account of income derived by the lessor in respect of such property and excludible from gross income under Section 6 (b) (4). If an amount representing any part of the value of real property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by a lessee in respect of such property was included in gross income of the lessor for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1943, the basis of each portion of such property shall be properly adjusted for the amount so included in gross income.

Stats 1943, Ch 38

SEC. 11. Section 14 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Corporations owned or controlled by same interests

Sec. 14. In the case of two or more corporations or of one or more corporations owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, the commissioner may permit or require the filing of a combined report and such other information as he deems necessary and is authorized to impose the tax due under this act as though the combined entire net income was that of one corporation, or to distribute, apportion, or allocate the gross income or deductions between or among such corporations, if he determines that such consolidation, distribution, apportionment, or allocation is necessary in order to prevent evasion of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of any such corporations.

In the case of a corporation doing business within the meaning of this act, whether under agreement or otherwise, in such manner as either directly or indirectly to benefit the members or stockholders of the corporation, or any of them, or any person or persons, directly or indirectly interested in such business, by rendering services of any nature whatsoever, or acquiring or disposing of its products or the goods or commodities in which it deals, at less than a fair price therefor, the commissioner, in order to prevent evasion of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of such corporation, may require a report of such facts as he deems necessary, and may determine the amount which shall be deemed to be the entire net income allocable to this State of the business of such corporation for the calendar or fiscal year, and compute the tax upon such net income. In determining the entire net income the commissioner shall have regard to the fair profits which, but for any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, might be or could have been obtained from dealing in such products, goods or commodities.

In the case of a corporation liable to report under this act owning or controlling, either directly or indirectly, another corporation, or other corporations, and in the case of a corporation liable to report under this act and owned or controlled, either directly or indirectly by another corporation, the commissioner may require a consolidated report showing the combined net income or such other facts as he deems necessary. The commissioner is authorized and empowered, in such manner as he may determine, to assess the tax against either of the corporations whose net income is involved in the report upon the basis of the combined entire net income and such other information as he may possess, or he may adjust the tax in such other manner as he shall determine to be equitable, if he determines it to be necessary in order to prevent evasion of taxes or to clearly reflect the net income earned by said corporation or corporations from business done in this State.

Ownership or control

Direct or indirect ownership or control of more than 50 per centum of the voting stock of the bank or corporation shall constitute ownership or control for the purposes of this section.

Stats 1939, p. 2902

SEC. 12. Section 15 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Accounting period

Sec. 15. The net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxpayer's annual accounting period, fiscal year or calendar year as the case may be, in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books of such taxpayer; but if no such method of accounting has been so employed, or if the method employed does not clearly reflect the income, the computation shall be made in accordance with such method as in the opinion of said commissioner does clearly reflect the income. If the taxpayer's annual accounting period is other than a fiscal year, or if the taxpayer has no annual accounting period or does not keep books, the net income shall be computed on the basis of the calendar year.

Increase in redemption price

If, in the case of a taxpayer owning any noninterest-bearing obligation issued at a discount and redeemable for fixed amounts increasing at stated intervals, the increase in the redemption price of such obligation occurring in the taxable year does not (under the method of accounting used in computing its net income) constitute income to taxpayer in such year, such taxpayer may, at its election made in its return for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, treat such increase as income received in such taxable year. If any such election is made with respect to any such obligation, it shall apply also to all such obligations owned by the taxpayer at the beginning of the first taxable year to which it applies and to all such obligations thereafter acquired by taxpayer and shall be binding for all subsequent taxable years, unless upon application by the taxpayer the commissioner permits taxpayer, subject to such conditions as the commissioner deems necessary, to change to a different method. In the case of any such obligations owned by the taxpayer at the beginning of the first taxable year to which its election applies, the increase in the redemption price of such obligations occurring between the date of acquisition and the first day of such taxable year shall also be treated as income received in such taxable year.

Election

Change in accounting period

If the taxpayer changes its accounting period from fiscal year to calendar year, from calendar year to fiscal year, or from one fiscal year to another, the net income shall, with the approval of the commissioner, be computed on the basis of such new accounting period subject to the following provisions:

(a) If a taxpayer, with the approval of the commissioner, changes the basis of computing net income from fiscal year to calendar year, a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last fiscal year for which return was made and the following December 31. If the change is from calendar year to fiscal year, a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last calendar year for which return was made and the date designated as the beginning of the fiscal year. If the change is from one fiscal year to another fiscal year a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the former fiscal year and the date designated as the beginning of the new fiscal year.

(b) Where a separate return is made under paragraph (a) on account of a change in the accounting period then the income shall be computed on the basis of the period for which separate return is made. The due date of the separate return for such period is the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of that period.

Change in law applicable to tax computation

(c) The tax for any period beginning in one calendar year (hereinafter in this section called "first calendar year") and ending in the following calendar year (hereinafter in this section called "second calendar year") where the law applicable to the computation of taxes for the taxpayers reporting on a calendar year basis differs for the second calendar year from the law applicable to the first calendar year, shall be the sum of (1) the same proportion of a tax for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the first calendar year and at the rates for such year, which the portion of such period falling within the first calendar year is of the entire period; and (2) the same proportion of a tax for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the second calendar year and at the rates for such year, which the portion of such period falling within the second calendar year is of the entire period.

Any tax that has been paid under the law applicable to the first calendar year if in excess of the tax imposed by this section shall be refunded or credited to the taxpayer as provided in Section 20. Any tax in addition to that paid under the law applicable to the first calendar year made necessary by this section shall be immediately due and payable upon notice and demand from the commissioner.

SEC. 13. Section 16 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch 38

Sec. 16. Every corporation deriving income from sources within this State subject to the tax imposed by this act shall, within two months and 15 days after the close of its taxable year, transmit to the commissioner a return in a form prescribed by him, specifying, for the taxable year, all such facts as he may by rule, or otherwise, require in order to carry out the provisions of this act. Returns should be verified by an executive officer of the corporation. Time for filing returns

Any return filed under the provisions of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act which discloses the net income for any period shall likewise constitute a return filed for the same period under this act if a return should have been filed under this act.

A reasonable extension of time for filing the return may be granted by the commissioner whenever in his judgment good cause exists. Requests for extensions must be made on or before the due date for filing the return. The commissioner is hereby required to keep a record of each extension and the reason therefor. No such extension or extensions shall aggregate more than six months from the due date for filing the return. Extension

SEC. 14. Section 18 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch. 38

Sec. 18. (a) If any taxpayer fails to make and file a return required by this act on or before the due date of the return or the due date as extended by the commissioner, then, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to wilful neglect, 5 per centum of the tax shall be added to the tax for each 30 days or fraction thereof elapsing between the due date of the return and the date on which Interest and additions to tax· Failure to file return filed, but the total addition shall not exceed 25 per centum of the tax. The amount so added to the tax shall be due and payable upon notice and demand from the commissioner.

If any taxpayer, upon notice and demand by the commissioner, fails or refuses to make and file a return required by this act, the commissioner is authorized to make an estimate of the net income and to compute and levy the amount of the tax due under this act from any available information, and in such case 25 per centum of the tax (in addition to the amounts added under the provisions of the preceding paragraph of this subsection) shall be added to the tax and shall be due and payable upon notice and demand from the commissioner.

If any corporation fails or refuses to furnish any information as requested in writing by the commissioner, the commissioner may add a penalty of 25 per centum of the amount of any additional tax assessed by the commissioner concerning the determination of which such information was required.

(b) If any part of any deficiency is due to negligence, or intentional disregard of rules and regulations but without intent to defraud, 5 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency and other additions provided in this section) shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency.

If any part of any deficiency is due to fraud with intent to evade tax, then 50 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency and other additions provided in this section) shall be assessed, collected and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency.

Failure to pay tax

(c) If the tax imposed by this act (whether determined by the commissioner or the taxpayer) or any installment or portion thereof is not paid on or before the date prescribed for its payment, there shall be collected as a part of the tax interest upon such unpaid amount at the rate of 6 per centum per year from the date prescribed for its payment until it is paid.

Extension of time

If the time for the payment of the tax or any installment thereof is extended by the commissioner, or if the collection of a jeopardy assessment is stayed under Section 18.1 of this act, there shall be collected as part of such tax interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum a year from the date upon which such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted or collection had not been stayed until the date the tax is paid.

Interest upon the amount determined as a deficiency shall be assessed and paid at the same time as the deficiency at the rate of 6 per centum per year from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (or, if the tax is paid in installments, from the date prescribed for the payment of the first installment) to the date the deficiency is assessed; provided, however, if any portion of the deficiency is paid prior to the date it is assessed, interest shall accrue on such portion only to the date paid.

Where a deficiency, or any interest or additional amounts assessed in connection therewith, or any addition to the tax in case of delinquency provided for in subsection (a) of this section, is not paid in full within 10 days from the date of notice and demand from the commissioner, there shall be collected as a part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 6 per centum a year from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid.

SEC. 15. Section 18.1 is hereby added to said act, to read as follows: New section

Sec. 18.1. (a) If the commissioner finds that the assessment or the collection of a tax or a deficiency for any year, current or past, will be jeopardized in whole or in part by delay, he may mail or issue notice of such finding to the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax or the deficiency declared to be in jeopardy (including interest, penalties and additions thereto). In the case of a tax for a current period, the commissioner may declare the taxable period of the taxpayer immediately terminated and shall cause notice of such finding and declaration to be mailed or issued to the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax based on the period declared terminated, including therein income accrued and deductions incurred up to such date of termination if not otherwise properly includible or deductible in respect of such period, and such tax shall be immediately due and payable whether or not the time otherwise allowed by law for filing the return and paying the tax has expired. Jeopardy assessments

(b) The jeopardy assessments provided for in this section shall be immediately due and payable and proceedings for collection may be commenced at once; provided, that the taxpayer may stay collection and prevent the jeopardy assessment from becoming final by filing, within 10 days after the date of mailing or issuing the notice of jeopardy assessment, a petition for reassessment, accompanied by a bond or other security in such amount as the commissioner may deem necessary, not exceeding double the amount (including interest, penalties, and additions thereto) as to which the stay is desired. The commissioner shall consider such petition for reassessment, and notify the taxpayer of his decision thereon, which decision shall be final. If the taxpayer has so requested in its petition, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to grant said taxpayer, or its authorized representative, an oral hearing. If petition for reassessment, accompanied by bond or other security, is not filed within the 10-day period, the assessment shall become final. Collection. Petition for reassessment. Oral hearing

(c) In any proceedings brought to enforce payment of taxes made due and payable by virtue of the provisions of this section, the finding of the commissioner, made as herein provided, whether made after notice to the taxpayer or not, shall be for all purposes presumptive evidence that the assessment or collection of the tax or the deficiency was in jeopardy. A Finding of commissioner certificate of the commissioner of the mailing or issuing the notices specified in this section shall be presumptive evidence that such notices were mailed or issued.

Stats 1943, Ch. 38

SEC. 16. Section 19 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Additional tax Notice

Sec. 19. As soon as practicable after the return is filed, the commissioner shall examine it and shall determine the correct amount of the tax. If the commissioner determines that the tax disclosed by the original return is less than the tax disclosed by his examination he shall mail notice or notices to the taxpayer at its post-office address (which must appear on its return) of the additional tax proposed to be assessed against it. Each notice shall set forth the details of the proposed additional assessment and of computing said tax.

Protest

Within 60 days after the mailing of said notice the taxpayer may file with the commissioner a written protest against the levy of the proposed additional tax, as computed by the commissioner, specifying therein the grounds upon which the protest is based. The protest must be under oath.

Hearing, etc

If no such protest is so filed the amount of the tax shall be final upon the expiration of said 60-day period. If a protest is so filed it shall be the duty of the commissioner to reconsider the computation and levy of the tax complained of, and if the taxpayer has so requested in its protest, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to grant said taxpayer, or its authorized representatives, an oral hearing. After consideration of the protest and the evidence adduced in the event of such oral hearing, the commissioner's action upon the protest shall be final upon the expiration of 30 days from the date when he mails to the taxpayer notice of his action, unless within that 30-day period the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of the commissioner to the State Board of Equalization. The appeal must be addressed and mailed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, and a copy of the appeal addressed and mailed at the same time to the commissioner at Sacramento. Said board shall hear and determine the same and thereafter shall forthwith notify the taxpayer and the commissioner of its determination, and the reasons therefor. Such determination shall be final upon the expiration of 30 days from the time of such determination unless within such 30-day period the taxpayer or the commissioner files a petition for rehearing with said board, in which event the board's determination shall not become final until the expiration of 30 days from the time the board issues its opinion on said petition.

Appeal

Notice and demand

When a deficiency has been determined and the tax has become final under the provisions of this section, the commissioner shall mail notice and demand to the taxpayer for the payment thereof, and such tax shall be due and payable at the expiration of 10 days from the date of such notice and demand.

Certificate of commissioner

A certificate by the commissioner or of said board, as the case may be, of the mailing of the notices specified in this section shall be prima facie evidence of the computation and levy of the deficiency in tax and of the giving of said notices.

Limitation

Except in the case of a fraudulent return, every notice of additional tax proposed to be assessed hereunder shall be mailed to the taxpayer within four years after the return was filed and no deficiency shall be assessed or collected with respect to the year for which such return was filed unless such notice is mailed within such period; provided, that in the case of any taxpayer which shall agree with the United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue for an extension (or renewals thereof) of the period for proposing and assessing deficiencies in Federal income tax for any year, the period for mailing notices of proposed deficiency tax pursuant to this section shall (unless otherwise agreed between the commissioner and the taxpayer) be four years after the return was filed or six months after the date of the expiration of the agreed period for assessing deficiencies in Federal income tax, whichever period expires the later. For the purposes of this paragraph a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day.

Extension of assessment period

Where before the expiration of the time prescribed in this section for the assessment of the tax, the taxpayer has consented in writing to its assessment after such time, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

Excess tax due to mathematical error

Any amount of tax in excess of that disclosed by the return, due to a mathematical error, notice of which has been mailed to the taxpayer, shall not be considered a deficiency assessment within the meaning of this section. The taxpayer shall have no right of protest or appeal as herein provided, based on such notice, nor shall such assessment or collection be prohibited by any of the provisions of this section.

SEC. 17. Section 20 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Credits and refunds

Sec. 20. If, in the opinion of the commissioner, or the State Board of Equalization, as the case may be, there has been an overpayment of tax, penalty or interest by a taxpayer for any year for any reason, the amount of such overpayment shall be credited against any taxes then due from the taxpayer under this act, and the balance shall be refunded to the taxpayer or its successor through reorganization, merger, or consolidation, or to stockholders upon dissolution. No such credit or refund shall be allowed or made until approved by the State Board of Control. No such credit or refund shall be allowed or made after four years from the last day prescribed for filing the return or after one year from the date of overpayment, whichever period expires the later, unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer, or unless before the expiration of such period the commissioner has certified the overpayment to the State

Extension of time

Board of Control for approval of the refunding or the crediting thereof. If (a) the taxpayer has, within the period prescribed in the preceding sentence, agreed in writing, under the provisions of Section 19, to extend the time within which the commissioner may propose an additional assessment, or (b) if the taxpayer has agreed with the United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue for an extension (or renewals thereof) of the period for proposing and assessing deficiencies in Federal income tax for any year, the period within which a claim for credit or refund may be filed, or credit or refund allowed or made if no claim is filed, shall be the period within which the commissioner may make an assessment under such circumstances, except that the provisions of the preceding sentence shall apply to any claim filed, or credit or refund allowed or made, before the execution of such agreement. Insofar as the claim for credit or refund relates to an overpayment on account of the deductibility, under Section 7(e), of a debt as one which became worthless, or an erroneous inclusion of an amount attributable to the recovery of a bad debt, prior tax or delinquency amount, under Section 6(b) (5) due to an adjustment of a bad debt deduction under Section 7(e), in lieu of the period of limitation prescribed in the second preceding sentence, the period shall be seven years from the date prescribed by law for filing the return for the year with respect to which the claim is made. A refund claim upon which action has become final shall not thereafter be considered a refund claim within the meaning of the foregoing provision except to the extent allowed. Every claim for refund must be in writing under oath and must state the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded.

Disallowance

If the commissioner disallows any claim for refund, he shall notify the taxpayer accordingly. At the expiration of 90 days from the mailing of such notice, the commissioner's action upon the claim shall be final unless, within such 90-day period, the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of the commissioner to the State Board of Equalization. If the commissioner fails to mail notice of action on any refund claim within six months after the claim was filed, the taxpayer may, prior to mailing of notice of action on the refund claim, consider the claim disallowed and appeal to said board. Appeals must be addressed and mailed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, and a copy of the appeal addressed and mailed at the same time to the commissioner taxpayer or the commissioner files a petition for rehearing with said board, in which event the board's determination shall not become final until the expiration of 30 days from the time the board issues its opinion on said petition.

Interest shall be allowed and paid upon any overpayment of any tax, if the overpayment was not made because of an error or mistake on the part of the taxpayer, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum as follows: Interest

(1) In the case of a credit, from the date of the overpayment to the date of the allowance of the credit. Any interest allowed on any credit shall first be credited on any taxes due from the taxpayer under this act.

(2) In the case of a refund, from the date of the overpayment to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than 30 days, such date to be determined by the commissioner.

Any refund or any portion thereof which is erroneously made, and any credit or any portion thereof which is erroneously allowed, may be recovered, together with interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date the refund was made or the credit allowed, in an action brought by the commissioner in a court of competent jurisdiction in the County of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California, and such actions shall be tried in the County of Sacramento unless the court, with the consent of the Attorney General or the counsel for the commissioner, orders a change of place of trial. The Attorney General or the counsel for the commissioner must prosecute such action and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for. SEC. 18. Section 21 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch 38

Sec. 21. If any return required by this act is not made, or if any taxpayer files a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax, the commissioner, at any time, may require a return or a supplementary return under oath, or may make an estimate of the net income, from any available information, and may compute the amount of tax, interest and penalties due under this act. All the provisions of this act, not in conflict herewith, relative to delinquent taxes shall be applicable to the tax, interest and penalties computed and levied hereunder A proceeding in court for the collection of the tax, interest and penalties provided for in this section may be begun without assessment at any time. Failure to file return, etc

Upon the adjudication of bankruptcy of any taxpayer in any bankruptcy proceeding or the appointment of a receiver for any taxpayer in any receivership proceeding before any court of the United States or of any State or Territory or of the District of Columbia, any deficiency (together with all interest, additional amounts, or additions to the tax provided for by law) determined by the commissioner in respect of a Bankruptcy tax imposed by this act upon such taxpayer may be immediately assessed. In such cases the trustee in bankruptcy or receiver shall give notice in writing to the commissioner of the adjudication of bankruptcy or the appointment of the receiver, and the running of the statute of limitations on the making of assessments shall be suspended for the period from the date of adjudication in bankruptcy or the appointment of the receiver to a date 30 days after the date upon which the notice from the trustee or receiver is received by the commissioner; but the suspension under this sentence shall in no case be for a period in excess of two years. Claims for the deficiency and such interest, additional amounts and additions to the tax may be presented, for adjudication in accordance with law, to the court before which the bankruptcy or receivership proceeding is pending, despite the pendency of proceedings for the redetermination of the deficiency in pursuance of a petition to the Board of Equalization but no petition for any such redetermination shall be filed with said board after the adjudication of bankruptcy or the appointment of the receiver. Any portion of the claim allowed in such bankruptcy or receivership proceeding which is unpaid shall be paid by the taxpayer upon notice and demand from the commissioner after determination of such proceeding and may be collected in the manner provided in this act for the collection of delinquent taxes at any time within six years after termination of such proceeding.

SEC. 19. Section 22 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Tax lien

Sec. 22. The taxes imposed by this act and disclosed on the return shall constitute a lien upon the real property of the taxpayer, which lien shall have the same force, effect and priority as a judgment lien and shall attach on the last day of the "taxable year"; provided, that taxes imposed by this act and determined pursuant to the provisions of Sections 18 (a), 19 or 21 shall constitute a lien on all real property of the taxpayer located in any county in which there is filed for records in the office of the county recorder a certificate executed by the commissioner stating that payment of a tax determined under the provisions of Sections 18 (a), 19 or 21 of this act has been demanded and has not been paid, and specifying the amount thereof and the name of the taxpayer, and such lien shall attach at the time the certificate is recorded and shall have the same force, effect and priority as a judgment lien. The lien provided for in this section shall remain until the taxes are paid or the property subject to the lien is sold for the payment thereof; provided, however, that the commissioner may at any time release all or any portion of the property subject to the lien from the lien or subordinate the lien to other liens if he determines that the taxes are sufficiently secured by a lien on other property of the taxpayer or that the release or subordination of the lien will not endanger or jeopardize the collection of such taxes. A certificate by the commissioner to the effect that any property has been released from the lien herein provided for or that such lien has been subordinated to other liens shall be conclusive evidence that the property has been released or that the lien has been subordinated as provided in the certificate. No decree of dissolution shall be made and entered by any court, nor shall the county clerk of any county or the Secretary of State file any such decree, or file any other document by which the term of existence of any taxpayer shall be reduced or terminated, nor shall the Secretary of State file any certificate of the surrender by a foreign corporation of its right to do intrastate business in this State until the tax, penalties, and interest shall have been paid or are secured by bond, deposit, or otherwise.

Release or subordination

SEC. 20. Section 23 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch 38

Sec. 23. No injunction or writ of mandate or other legal or equitable process shall issue in any suit, action or proceeding in any court against this State or against any officer thereof to prevent or enjoin the assessment or collection of any tax under this act, but any taxpayer claiming that the tax computed and levied against it pursuant to Sections 18.1 and 19 of this act is void in whole or in part may bring an action against the commissioner for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount paid. Such action must be filed within four years from the last date prescribed for filing the return or within one year from the date the tax was paid, whichever period expires the later; provided, that no action shall be filed for the recovery of a deficiency assessment unless the taxpayer has made protest to the commissioner of the computation and levy complained of under the provisions of Section 19 hereof. Action to recover tax paid Limitation

Within 90 days after the mailing of the notice of the commissioner's action upon any refund claim, or in case of an appeal to the State Board of Equalization from the disallowance of any refund claim, within 90 days after the mailing of the notice of the board's determination of the appeal, the taxpayer may bring an action against the commissioner on the grounds set forth in such claim for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount claimed as an overpayment.

If the commissioner fails to mail notice of action on any refund claim within six months after the claim was filed, the taxpayer may, prior to mailing of notice of action on the refund claim, consider the claim disallowed and bring an action against the commissioner on the grounds set forth in such claim for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount claimed as an overpayment.

Whenever under the provisions of this section an action is commenced against the commissioner, a copy of the complaint and the summons must be served upon the commissioner, or the assistant commissioner. A second copy of the complaint and summons must be furnished to the commissioner, but this requirement shall not be considered jurisdictional. At the Service of papers time the commissioner demurs or answers, he may demand that the action be tried in the Superior Court of the County of Sacramento, which demand must be granted. The Attorney General or the counsel for the commissioner must defend the action. The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for. A failure to begin such action within the time herein specified shall be a bar against the recovery of such taxes. In any such action the court shall have power to render judgment for plaintiff for any part or portion of the tax, interest, penalties or cost found to be void and so paid by plaintiff upon such assessment.

Interest

In any judgment of any court rendered for any overpayment in respect of any tax imposed by this act, interest shall be allowed at the rate of 6 per centum per annum upon the amount of the overpayment, from the date of the payment or collection thereof to the date of allowance of credit on account of such judgment or to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than 30 days, such date to be determined by the commissioner.

Substitution

In all actions now pending against the State Treasurer under the provisions of this act, the commissioner shall be substituted for the State Treasurer by the court wherein the action is pending. This substitution shall not in any way affect the rights of the plaintiff in said action.

If judgment is rendered against the commissioner, the amount thereof shall first be credited against any taxes and interest due from the taxpayer under this act and the remainder refunded to the taxpayer or its successor by the State Treasurer on warrant drawn by the Controller.

SEC. 21. Section 24 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Collection of delinquent taxes

Court action

Sec. 24. (a) At any time within three years after the determination of liability for any tax, penalties, and interest, or any installment thereof, the commissioner may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction in the County of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California to collect the amount delinquent, together with penalties, and interest, and such action shall be tried in the County of Sacramento unless the court, with the consent of the Attorney General or the counsel for the commissioner, orders a change of place of trial. The Attorney General or the counsel for the commissioner must prosecute such action, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings, herein provided for. In such action a writ of attachment may be issued, and no bond or affidavit previous to the issuing of said attachment is required. In such action a certificate by the commissioner showing the delinquency shall be prima facie evidence of the levy of the tax, penalties, and interest, of the delinquency and of compliance by the commissioner and the State Board of Equalization with all the provisions of this act in relation to the computation and levy of the tax.

Certificate of commissioner

(b) At any time within which an action can be brought to collect any delinquent amounts as provided in the preceding paragraph, the commissioner may collect the tax, together with penalties and interest, in the following manner: The commissioner shall seize any personal property, owned by the corporation against whom the tax is assessed, and thereafter sell at public auction such property so seized, or a sufficient portion thereof, to pay the tax due hereunder, together with any interest, and any penalty or penalties imposed hereby for such delinquency, and any and all costs that may have been incurred on account of such seizure and sale. Notice of such intended sale and the time and place thereof, shall be given to such delinquent corporation and to all persons appearing of record to have an interest in such property, in writing at least 10 days before the date set for such sale by inclosing such notice in an envelope addressed to said corporation at its last known place of business in this State if any, and, in the case of any person appearing of record to have an interest in such property, addressed to such person at the last known place of residence, if any, and depositing the same in the United States mail, postage prepaid, and by publication for at least 10 days before the date set for such sale in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or city and county in which the property seized is to be sold; provided, however, that if there be no newspaper of general circulation in such county or city and county, then by the posting of such notice in three public places in such county or city and county for said 10-day period. The said notice shall contain a description of the property to be sold, together with a statement of the amount of the taxes, interest, penalties and costs, the name of the corporation, and the further statement that, unless such taxes, interest, penalties and costs are paid on or before the time fixed in said notice for such sale, said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary, will be sold in accordance with law and said notice.

Seizure and sale of property

Notice of sale

At any such sale, the property shall be sold by said commissioner or his duly authorized agent in accordance with law and said notice, and the commissioner shall deliver to the purchaser a bill of sale for the property so sold and such bill of sale shall vest title in the purchaser. The unsold portion of any property so seized may be left at the place of sale at the risk of said corporation. If, upon any such sale, the moneys so received shall exceed the amount of all taxes, interest, penalties and costs due the State from such corporation, any such excess shall be returned to the corporation and a receipt therefor obtained; provided, however, that if any person having an interest in or lien upon the property has filed with the commissioner prior to any such sale notice of such interest or lien the commissioner shall withhold any such excess pending a determination of the rights of the respective parties thereto by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Disposition of proceeds of sale, etc

If, for any reason, the receipt of such corporation shall not be available, the commissioner shall deposit such excess moneys with the State Treasurer, as trustee for such owner, subject to the order of such corporation or its successor through reorganization, merger, or consolidation, or its stockholders upon dissolution.

Action in Federal or foreign court

(c) The commissioner may bring an appropriate action (whether in the form of a common law action of debt or indebitatus assumpsit, or a code or other action), in any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States or in a foreign country, in the name of the people of the State of California, to recover the amount of any taxes and interest due under this act. The Attorney General or the counsel for the commissioner of this State must prosecute such action.

Remedies cumulative

(d) It is expressly provided that the foregoing remedies of the State shall be cumulative and that no action taken by the commissioner shall be or be construed to be an election on the part of the State or any of its officers to pursue any remedy hereunder to the exclusion of any other remedy for which provision is made in this act.

Suspension of corporate powers

(e) If any tax, or any portion thereof, together with penalties, and interest thereon, which is due and payable either at the time the return is required to be filed or on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of the income year, is not paid on or before 6 o'clock p.m. on the last day of the twelfth month after the close of the income year or if any tax due and payable upon notice and demand from the commissioner, together with penalties and interest thereon, is not paid on or before 6 o'clock p.m. on the last day of the eleventh month following the due date of such tax, except in case of jeopardy or fraud assessments, in which case, if such tax, interest and penalties are not paid within 40 days from the date such tax, penalties and interest are due and payable (unless the bond required by this act is filed to stay the collection of such tax, penalties and interest and such tax, interest and penalties are paid within 60 days after notice by the commissioner on taxpayer's petition for reassessment), the corporate powers, rights and privileges of the delinquent taxpayer shall be suspended and shall be incapable of being exercised in any manner which it is within the power of this State to prohibit; provided, that in any action or suit at law or in equity in which such suspended taxpayer shall seek to prosecute or shall be named as defendant, if such taxpayer has not been notified by the commissioner of its liability for tax, such action shall be continued on motion of the suspended taxpayer for a period of 90 days, or until such time as the tax determined by the commissioner to be due shall be paid, whichever expires or occurs the earlier. The certificate of the commissioner setting forth that the suspended taxpayer has been notified of its liability for tax under this act and that such tax has not been paid, shall constitute prima facie evidence of such facts. The suspension shall be terminated on payment of the tax, and the certificate of the commissioner that the tax has been paid shall be evidence of the termination of the suspension.

Liability of persons other than the taxpayer

(f) The taxes imposed by this act upon any taxpayer for which any bank, corporation or person other than the taxpayer is liable, at law or in equity, may be assessed against such bank, corporation or person in the same manner as is provided in Section 19 for the assessment of deficiencies and may be assessed at any time within which deficiency assessments may be made against the taxpayer. The provisions of this section and other provisions of this act respecting the collection of such taxes shall apply to the collection of such taxes from such bank, corporation or person to the same extent and with the same force and effect as though such bank, corporation or person were the taxpayer.

SEC. 22. Section 25 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Information and withholding at source

Sec. 25. (a) The commissioner may, by regulation, require any bank, corporation or person, including any officer or department of the State or any political subdivision or agency of the State, to withhold from payments of interest (other than interest coupons payable to bearer), dividends, rent, prizes, winnings, and fees, commissions, compensation for personal services, including bonuses, an amount equal to the tax that would be imposed by this act upon such payments if they, together with all similar payments since the beginning of the calendar year, represented net income of the payee and to transmit the amounts withheld to the commissioner at such time as he may designate. Any bank, corporation or person failing to withhold from any payments and transmit to the commissioner any amounts required by the commissioner pursuant to this paragraph to be withheld and transmitted shall be liable for any taxes due from the taxpayer to whom such payments are made for the year in which made to an extent not in excess of the amounts required to be withheld, unless it is shown that such failure was due to reasonable cause.

(b) The commissioner may by notice served personally or by registered mail require any bank, corporation or person, including any officer or department of the State or any political subdivision or agency of the State, to withhold from any payments of any nature to any taxpayer the amount of any tax, interest or penalties due from the taxpayer under this act and to transmit the amount withheld to the commissioner at such times as he may designate. Any bank, corporation or person failing to withhold the tax due from any taxpayer and transmit the same to the commissioner as required by the commissioner pursuant to this paragraph shall be liable for such tax.

(c) Any bank, corporation or person required to withhold and transmit any amount pursuant to this section must comply with such requirement, without resort to any legal or equitable action in a court of law or equity, and any bank, corporation or person paying to the commissioner any amount required by him to be paid pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of this section shall not be liable therefor to the bank, corporation or person from which withheld unless the amount withheld is refunded to the withholding agent. The foregoing sentence shall not be construed as a limitation upon the right of said banks, corporation or person to file an action in interpleader when a bona fide dispute has arisen as to priority of lien between the tax levied under this act and that of a Federal taxing agency.

Remedies

(d) Any taxpayer from which a tax has been collected by withholding under this section shall be entitled to the remedies set forth in Sections 20 and 23 of this act; provided, however, that any refund of such tax under Section 20 shall be made to the witholding agent instead of directly to the taxpayer, if requested in writing by the withholding agent at the time the amounts refundable were transmitted to the commissioner.

any report or return required under this act; provided, however, that such information may upon request of a committee appointed by either the Assembly or the Senate be furnished to such committee, but it shall be unlawful for such committee or any member, clerk or other officer or employee thereof to divulge or make known in any manner, any particulars of the information so furnished except to law enforcement officers for the purpose of aiding the detection or prosecution of crimes committed in violation of this act.

Publication of statistics

Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the publication of statistics, so classified as to prevent the identification of particular reports or returns and the items thereof, or the publication of the percentage of dividends paid by any corporation which is deductible by the recipients thereof under the provisions of this act or the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act, or the inspection by the Attorney General or other legal representative of the State, of the report or return of any taxpayer who shall bring action to set aside or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action or proceeding has been instituted to recover any tax or any penalty imposed by this act. Reports and returns shall be preserved for four years and thereafter until the commissioner orders them to be destroyed.

The term "business affairs," as herein used, means the details relative to the business activities of the corporation as disclosed by the return but shall exclude extraneous matters, such as the exact corporate title, corporate number, the date of commencement of business in this State, taxable year adopted, filing date of return, name, date and title of persons signing affidavit to the return, due date of taxes, taxes unpaid, taxpayer's address, private address of officers and directors. Tax levy

SEC. 25. (a) This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy for the usual current expenses of the State, shall, under the provisions of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution take effect immediately. Except as hereinafter provided in subsections (b) to (f), inclusive, the provisions of this act effecting changes in the computation of taxes shall be applied only in the computation of taxes for the taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942, and the remaining provisions of this act shall become effective on the effective date of this act. Provisions effecting changes in the computation of taxes shall include those affecting income, deductions, rates, methods of calculating tax, exclusions, exemptions and credits.

Application of provisions

(b) The provisions of this act adding Section 8.1, subsections 6 (b)(5), 7 (a)(1), 9 (2), 11 (k) and amending subsection 11(b), 11(g), 12(a) (relating to assumption of liability by transferee) shall be retroactive.

(c) The provisions of this act adding Section 7.1 shall be applicable to taxable years ending after December 6, 1941.

(d) The provisions of this act amending subsection 7(f) relating to emergency facilities shall be applicable to taxable years ending after October 6, 1940.

(e) The provisions of this act adding subsection 7(m) shall be applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942, except that

(1) In the case of a stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing, or annuity plan in effect on or before September 1, 1943,

(A) Such a plan shall not become subject to the requirements of Section 12 (f) (1) (C), (D), (E) and (F) of The Personal Income Tax Act, until the beginning of the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1943,

(B) Such a plan shall be considered as satisfying the requirements of Section 12 (f) (1) (C), (D), (E) and (F) of The Personal Income Tax Act for the period beginning with the beginning of the first taxable year following December 31, 1943, and ending December 31, 1944, if the plan satisfies such requirements by December 31, 1944,

(C) If the contribution of an employer to such a plan in the employer's taxable year beginning in 1943 exceeds the maximum amount deductible for such year under Section 7(m), the amount deductible in such year shall be not less than the sum of—

(i) The amount paid in such taxable year prior to September 1, 1943, and deductible under Section 7(a), and

(ii) With respect to the amount paid in such taxable year on or after September 1, 1943, that proportion of the amount deductible for the taxable year under Section 7(m), which the number of months after August 31, 1943, in the taxable year bears to 12.

(2) In the case of a stock bonus, pension, profit sharing or annuity plan put into effect after September 1, 1943, such a plan shall be considered as satisfying the requirements of Section 12 (f) (1) (C), (D), (E) and (F) of The Personal Income Tax Act for the period beginning with the date such plan is put into effect and ending December 31, 1944, if the plan satisfies such requirements by December 31, 1944.

(f) The provisions of this act amending subsection 12(b)(1)(B) shall be applicable to taxable years ending after October 6, 1940.

CHAPTER 352

An act to amend Sections 4, 4a, 5, 6, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 16, 17, 20, 21, 24, 25, 25.1, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32 and 35 of, and to add three new sections to be numbered 8.1, 9.1 and 24.1 to, the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act, relating to bank and corporation taxes, and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately.

Stats. 1929, p. 19, amended

[Approved by Governor May 7, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 7, 1943.]

In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1941, p. 2211. See also Stats. 1943, Ch. 984

Sec. 4. (1) Every financial corporation doing business within the limits of this State, taxable under the provisions of Section 16 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State, shall annually pay to the State for the privilege of exercising its corporate franchises within this State, a tax according to or measured by its net income, to be computed, in the manner hereinafter provided, upon the basis of its net income for the next preceding fiscal or calendar year at the rate provided for in Section 4a hereof.

Tax on financial corporations

(2) Each such financial corporation shall be entitled to an offset against said franchise tax, in the manner hereinafter provided, in the amount of personal property taxes and license fees for the privilege of operating as personal property brokers, or brokers as defined in Chapter 634, Statutes of 1909, as amended, paid to this State or to any county, city and county, city, town or other political subdivision of the State, and licenses for the privilege of operating motor vehicles paid to this State under Chapter 362, Statutes of 1935, as amended; provided, however, that the tax on such financial corporation after the allowance of offset shall not be less than 4 per centum of its net income for the preceding fiscal or calendar year or less than twenty-five dollars ($25).

Offsets

(3) With the exception of financial corporations, every corporation doing business within the limits of this State and not expressly exempted from taxation by the provisions of the Constitution of this State or by this act, shall annually pay to the State, for the privilege of exercising its corporate franchises within this State, a tax according to or measured by its net income, to be computed, in the manner hereinafter provided, at the rate of 4 per centum upon the basis of its net income for the next preceding fiscal or calendar year.

Tax on corporations other than financial

Minimum tax

In any event, each such corporation shall pay annually to the State, for the said privilege, a minimum tax of twenty-five dollars ($25).

Holding corporations

(4) Any corporation organized to hold the stock or bonds of any other corporation or corporations, and not trading in such stock or bonds or other securities held, and engaging in no other activities than the receipt and disbursement of dividends from such stock or interest from such bonds, shall not be considered a corporation doing business in this State for the purposes of this act.

Tax on corporations not otherwise taxed

(5) Every corporation not otherwise taxed in pursuance of this section and not expressly exempted by the provisions of this act or the Constitution of this State shall pay annually to the State a tax of twenty-five dollars ($25).

Exempt corporations

(6) (a) Corporations organized for religious, charitable, social, cemetery, scientific, educational, recreational, literary, fraternal or civic purposes, if their organization or activities are not designed for, and do not result in financial or pecuniary gain or profit to the stockholders or members thereof, shall not be taxed under this act.

(b) Corporations organized for the exclusive purpose of holding title to property, collecting income therefrom, and turning over the entire amount thereof, less expenses, to an organization which itself is exempt from the tax imposed by this act, shall not be taxed under this act.

When taxes accrue

(7) Taxes under this section and under Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall accrue on the last day of the "income year," as defined in Section 11 hereof.

Ad valorem taxes and special franchises

Taxes under this section shall be in lieu of all ad valorem taxes and assessments of every kind and nature upon the general corporate franchises of the corporations taxable hereunder but shall not be in lieu of any taxes or assessments upon special franchises owned, held or used by said corporations. All such special franchises shall be assessed annually by the State Board of Equalization (at their actual value) in the same manner as is provided for the assessment of other property to be assessed by said board under Section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State, and shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as other property so assessed by said board. Said board is hereby authorized and directed to assess said special franchises as of the first Monday in March of 1935 and annually thereafter.

SEC. 1.1. Section 4a of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Rate of tax

Sec. 4a. The rate of tax on national banking associations and other banks and financial corporations mentioned in Sections 1, 2 and 4 of this act shall be a percentage equal to the percentage of the total amount of net income, allocable to this State, of every corporation taxable under subdivision (3) of Section 4 of this act, for the next preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended during such calendar year, required to be paid to this State as franchise taxes according to or measured by such net income, and required to be paid to this State or its political subdivisions as personal property taxes during the preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended in such calendar year; provided, however, that said rate of tax shall not exceed 8 per centum. The percentage of the net income of every corporation taxable under subdivision (3) of Section 4 of this act, required to be paid to this State or its political subdivisions in personal property taxes shall be determined by ascertaining the ratio which the total amount of such personal property taxes, less 4 per centum thereof, bears to the total amount of net income of such corporations, allocable to California, increased by the amount of such personal property taxes; provided, however, that if any such corporation sustains a net loss allocable to California the personal property taxes required to be paid by such corporation to this State or its political subdivisions during the preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended during such calendar year shall be considered for the purpose of determining such ratio only to the extent which such personal property taxes exceed such net loss allocable to California.

Net income determination

Net loss

The commissioner, after public hearing and opportunity given to examine the data on which his determination is based, shall determine not later than the thirty-first day of December of each year the average percentage of net income above specified, and, within 30 days after his determination, shall mail notice of his determination and the amount of tax payable on the basis of such determination to all banks and financial corporations affected thereby, which are then classified on his records as banks or financial corporations, but such determination shall not be considered a deficiency assessment within the meaning of Section 25 hereof. The data gathered by the commissioner in determining the rate, referred to herein, shall be made available to the taxpayers affected by such determination at the time and in the manner prescribed by regulations adopted by the commissioner.

Determination and notice of tax

If it be judicially determined that the rate of tax on any bank or corporation is higher than is authorized by law such bank or corporation shall be relieved of liability for any tax imposed by this act only to the extent of the excess beyond that legally authorized.

Higher tax than authorized

SEC. 2. Section 5 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Stats. 1935, p. 1245

Sec. 5. The term "corporation," as herein used, shall include every corporation, other than a bank or banking association, and other than those expressly exempted from the tax by the provisions of this act or the Constitution of the State of California.

"Corporation"

The term "bank," as hereinafter used, shall include national banking associations.

"Bank"

The term "bank" and the term "corporation" as herein used shall include any "bank" or any "corporation" operated by any receiver, liquidator, referee, trustee or other officers or agents appointed by any court.

"Doing business" The term "doing business," as herein used, means actively engaging in any transaction for the purpose of financial or pecuniary gain or profit.

"Counsel for the commissioner" The term "counsel for the commissioner," as used in Sections 27, 30 and 31 of this act, means attorney or attorneys appointed or employed by the commissioner and acting subject to the approval and under the supervision of the Attorney General.

Stats 1913, Ch 37 SEC. 3. Section 6 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Gross income Sec. 6. (a) The term "gross income," as herein used, includes gains, profits and income derived from business, of whatever kind and in whatever form paid; gains, profits or income from dealings in real or personal property; gains, profits or income received as compensation for services, as interest, rents, commissions, brokerage or other fees, or otherwise received in carrying on such business; all interest received from Federal, State, municipal or other bonds, and, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, all dividends received on stocks.

Exclusions (b) The term "gross income" does not include the following items which shall be exempt from taxation under this act:

(1) Amounts received under life insurance policies and contracts paid by reason of the death of the insured but if such amounts are held by the insurer under an agreement to pay interest thereon, the interest payments shall be included in gross income.

(2) Amounts received (other than amounts paid by reason of the death of the insured) under life insurance, endowment or annuity contracts, either during the term or at maturity or upon surrender of the contract, equal to the total amount of premiums paid thereon. In the case of a transfer for a valuable consideration by assignment or otherwise, of a life insurance, endowment or annuity contract or any interest therein, only the actual value of such consideration and the amount of the premiums and other sums subsequently paid by the transferee shall be excluded from gross income under paragraph (b) (1) of this section. The preceding sentence shall not apply in the case of such a transfer if such contract or interest therein has a basis for determining gain or loss in the hands of a transferee determined in whole or in part by reference to such basis of such contract or interest therein in the hands of the transferor.

(3) Income, other than rent, derived by a lessor of real property upon the termination of a lease, representing the value of such property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by the lessee.

(4) Income attributable to the recovery during the income year of a bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount, to the extent of the amount of the recovery exclusion with respect to such debt, tax, or amount. For the purposes of this paragraph:

(A) The term "bad debt" means a debt on account of worthlessness or partial worthlessness of which a deduction was allowed for a prior income year. "Bad debt"

(B) The term "prior tax" means a tax on account of which a deduction or credit was allowed for a prior income year. "Prior tax"

(C) The term "delinquency amount" means an amount paid or accrued on account of which a deduction or credit was allowed for a prior income year and which is attributable to failure to file return with respect to a tax, or pay a tax, within the time required by the law under which the tax is imposed, or to failure to file return with respect to a tax or pay a tax. "Delinquency amount"

(D) The term "recovery exclusion," with respect to a bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount, means the amount, determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner, of the deductions or credits allowed, on account of such bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount, which did not result in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax under this act or the Corporation Income Tax Act, reduced by the amount excludible in previous income years with respect to such debt, tax, or amount under this paragraph. "Recovery exclusion" Stats 1937, p 2184

(5) The amount of any income of a bank or corporation attributable to the discharge, within the income year, of any indebtedness of the taxpayer (or for which the taxpayer is liable) evidenced by a security (as hereinafter in this paragraph defined) if the taxpayer makes and files at the time of filing the return, in such manner as the commissioner by regulation prescribes, its consent to the regulations prescribed under Section 21 (b) (3). In such case the amount of any income of the taxpayer attributable to any unamortized premium (computed as of the first day of the income year in which such discharge occurred) with respect to such indebtedness shall not be included in gross income and the amount of the deduction attributable to any unamortized discount (computed as of the first day of the income year in which such discharge occurred) with respect to such indebtedness shall not be allowed as a deduction. As used in this paragraph the term "security" means any bond, debenture, note, or certificate, or other evidence of indebtedness, issued by any corporation. Discharge of debts

(6) The amount of any income attributable to the discharge, within the income year, of any indebtedness of a railroad corporation, as defined in Section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, to the extent that such income is deemed to have been realized by reason of a modification in or cancellation in whole or in part of such indebtedness pursuant to an order of a court in a receivership proceeding or in a proceeding under Section 77 of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended. In such case the amount of any income of the taxpayer attributable to any unamortized premium (computed as of the first day of the income year in which such discharge occurred) with respect to such indebtedness shall not be included in gross income and the amount of the deduction attributable to any unamortized discount (computed as of the first day of the income year in which such discharge occurred) with respect to such indebtedness shall not be allowed as a deduction. Subsection 6 (b) (5) shall not apply with respect to any discharge of indebtedness to which this paragraph applies.

Dividends

(c) (1) The term "dividend" when used in this act means any distribution made by a corporation to its shareholders, whether in money or in other property, out of its earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, or out of the earnings or profits of the income year (computed as of the close of the income year without diminution by reason of any distributions made during the income year), without regard to the amount of the earnings and profits at the time the distribution was made.

(2) For the purposes of this act every distribution is made out of earnings or profits to the extent thereof, and from the most recently accumulated earnings or profits. Any earnings or profits accumulated, or increase in value of property accrued, before March 1, 1913, may be distributed without being included in the gross income of the recipient, after the earnings and profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, have been distributed, but any such distribution shall be applied against and reduce the adjusted basis of the stock provided in Section 21 (b).

(3) Amounts distributed in complete liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in full payment in exchange for the stock and amounts distributed in partial liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in part or full payment in exchange for the stock. The gain or loss to the distributee resulting from such exchange shall be determined under Section 19. In the case of amounts distributed (whether before or after the effective date of this amendment) in partial liquidation (other than a distribution within the provisions of subdivision (7) of this subsection of stock or securities in connection with a reorganization) the part of such distribution which is properly chargeable to capital account shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits. In the case of amounts distributed (whether before January 1, 1934, or on or after such date) in partial liquidation (other than a distribution within the provisions of subdivision (7) of this subsection or stock or securities in connection with a reorganization) the part of such distribution which is properly chargeable to capital account shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits within the meaning of subdivision (2) of this subsection for the purpose of determining the taxability of subsequent distributions by the corporation.

(4) If any distribution (not in partial or complete liquidation) made by a corporation to its shareholders is not out of increase in value of property accrued before March 1, 1913, and is not a dividend, then the amount of such distribution shall be applied against and reduce the adjusted basis of the stock provided in Section 21, and if in excess of such basis, such excess shall be included in gross income in the same manner as a gain from the sale or exchange of property.

(5) (A) A distribution made by a corporation to its shareholders in its stock or in rights to acquire its stock shall be treated as a dividend to the extent that it constitutes income to the shareholder within the meaning of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

(B) Whenever a distribution by a corporation is, at the election of any of the shareholders (whether exercised before or after the declaration thereof), payable either (i) in its stock or in rights to acquire its stock, of a class which if distributed without election would not be included in gross income under paragraph (A), or (ii) in money or any other property (including its stock or rights to acquire its stock, of a class which if distributed without election would be included in gross income under paragraph (A)), then the distribution shall constitute a taxable dividend in the hands of all shareholders, regardless of the medium in which paid.

(6) If a corporation cancels or redeems its stock (whether or not such stock was issued as a stock dividend) at such time and in such manner as to make the distribution and cancellation or redemption in whole or in part essentially equivalent to the distribution of a taxable dividend, the amount so distributed in redemption or cancellation of the stock, to the extent that it represents a distribution of earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, shall be treated as a taxable dividend.

(7) The distribution heretofore or hereafter made to a distributee by or on behalf of a corporation of its stock or securities or stock or securities in another corporation shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits of any corporation:

(A) If no gain to such distributee from the receipts of such stock or securities was recognized under the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1936 or prior Federal revenue acts in effect at the time of the distribution, or

(B) If the distribution was not subject to tax in the hands of such distributee under the Federal Revenue Act of 1936 or prior Federal revenue acts in effect at the time of the distribution because it did not constitute income to him within the meaning of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States or because exempted to him under Section 115 (f) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1934, or a corresponding provision of a prior Federal revenue act.

As used in this subsection, the term "stock or securities" includes rights to acquire stock or securities.

(8) As used in this subsection the term "amount distributed in partial liquidation" means a distribution by a corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of a part of its stock, or one of a series of distributions in complete cancellation or redemption of all or a portion of its stock.

(9) If the whole or any part of a dividend is paid to a shareholder in any medium other than money the property received other than money shall be included in gross income at its fair market value at the time as of which it becomes income to the shareholder.

(10) The gain or loss realized from the sale or other disposition (after February 28, 1913) of property by a bank or corporation for the purpose of the computation of earnings and profits of the bank or corporation for any period beginning after February 28, 1913, shall be determined by using as the adjusted basis the adjusted basis (under the law applicable to the year in which the sale or other disposition was made) for determining gain. Gain or loss so realized shall increase or decrease the earnings and profits to, but not beyond, the extent to which such a realized gain or loss was recognized in computing net income under the law applicable to the year in which such sale or disposition was made. Where, in determining the adjusted basis used in computing such realized gain or loss, the adjustment to the basis differs from the adjustment proper for the purpose of determining earnings or profits, then the latter adjustment shall be used in determining the increase or decrease above provided. For the purposes of this subsection, a loss with respect to which a deduction is disallowed under Section 8 (d) of this act or Section 7 (d) of the Corporation Income Tax Act shall not be deemed to be recognized.

Where a bank or corporation receives (after February 28, 1913) a distribution from a second bank or corporation which (under the law applicable to the year in which the distribution was made) was not a taxable dividend to the shareholders of the second bank or corporation, the amount of such distribution shall not increase the earnings and profits of the first bank or corporation in the following cases:

(A) No such increase shall be made in respect of the part of such distribution which (under such law) is directly applied in reduction of the basis of the stock in respect of which the distribution was made.

(B) No such increase shall be made if (under such law) the distribution causes the basis of the stock in respect of which the distribution was made to be allocated between such stock and the property received.

For the purposes of this subdivision, the words "law applicable to the year" shall be deemed to refer to this act or, prior to January 1, 1928, the United States Revenue Act in force for the year in which the distribution, sale or other disposition was made.

(11) (A) If any increase or decrease in the earnings or profits for any period beginning after February 28, 1913, with respect to any matter would be different had the adjusted basis of the property involved been determined without regard to its March 1, 1913, value, then, except as provided in paragraph

(B), an increase (properly reflecting such difference) shall be made in that part of the earnings and profits consisting of increase in value of property accrued before March 1, 1913.

(B) If the application of subdivision (10) to a sale or other disposition after February 28, 1913, results in a loss which is to be applied in decrease of earnings and profits for any period beginning after February 28, 1913, then, notwithstanding subdivision (10) and in lieu of the rule provided in paragraph (A) of this subdivision, the amount of such loss so to be applied shall be reduced by the amount, if any, by which the adjusted basis of the property used in determining the loss, exceeds the adjusted basis computed without regard to the value of the property on March 1, 1913, and if such amount so applied in reduction of the decrease exceeds such loss, the excess over such loss shall increase that part of the earnings and profits consisting of increase in value of property accrued before March 1, 1913.

Canceled debts

(d) If the indebtedness of a bank or corporation is canceled or forgiven in whole or in part without payment, the amount so canceled or forgiven shall constitute income to the extent the value of the property (including franchises) of the bank or corporation exceeds its liabilities immediately after the cancellation or forgiveness. The remainder of the amount of indebtedness so canceled or forgiven, if any, shall be applied in reduction of the basis of the assets to the extent the basis thereof exceeds the value thereof immediately after the cancellation or forgiveness, such reduction to be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

If an indebtedness is not paid by the time an action to enforce payment is barred by limitation, the indebtedness shall be considered canceled or forgiven within the meaning of this subsection unless it can be established that the period of limitation has been extended by a new promise in writing.

Stats 1943, Ch 37

SEC. 4. Section 8 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Deductions from gross income

Sec. 8. In computing "net income" the following deductions shall be allowed:

Business expenses

(a) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the income year in carrying on business, including a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered, and rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession for business purposes of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which it has no equity.

(1) No deduction shall be allowable under subparagraph (a) to a bank or corporation for any contribution or gift which would be allowable as a deduction under subsection (i) were it not for the 5 per centum limitation therein contained and for the requirement therein that payment must be made within the income year.

Interest on debts

(b) All interest paid or accrued during the income year on indebtedness of the taxpayer to the extent in excess of income of the taxpayer from interest and dividends (other than dividends deductible under the provisions of subdivision (h) of this section and other than dividends from corporations, 50 per centum or more of the outstanding stock of which is owned by the taxpayer), which is not included in the measure of the tax imposed by this act.

Taxes

(c) Taxes or licenses paid or accrued during the income year, other than taxes paid to the State under this act, and other than taxes on or according to or measured by income or profits paid or accrued within the income year imposed by the authority of (1) the Government of the United States or any foreign country, (2) any State, Territory, county, city and county, school district, municipality, or other taxing subdivision of any State or Territory, and other than taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, but this shall not exclude the allowance as a deduction of so much of said taxes assessed against local benefits as is properly allocable to maintenance or interest charges.

Sales taxes

(1) In the case of a tax imposed by any State, Territory, district, or possession of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof, upon persons engaged in selling tangible personal property at retail, which is measured by the gross sales price or the gross receipts from the sale or which is a stated sum per unit of such property sold, or upon persons engaged in furnishing services at retail, which is measured by the gross receipts for furnishing such services, if the amount of such tax is separately stated, then to the extent that the amount so stated is paid by the purchaser (otherwise than in connection with the purchaser's trade or business) to such person such amount shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the net income of such purchaser as if such amount constituted a tax imposed upon and paid by such purchaser.

Losses

(d) Losses sustained during the income year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, except that such losses may, with the consent of the Franchise Tax Commissioner, hereinafter designated "commissioner," be accounted for as of a different period. In the case of any loss claimed to have been sustained in any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities where it appears that within 30 days before or after the date of such sale or other disposition, the taxpayer has acquired (otherwise than by bequest or inheritance) or has entered into a contract or option to acquire substantially identical property and the property so acquired is held by the taxpayer for any period after such sale or other disposition, no deduction for the loss shall be allowed unless the claim is made by a taxpayer, a dealer in stocks or securities, and with respect to a transaction made in the ordinary course of its business. If such acquisition or the contract or option to acquire is to the extent of part only of substantially identical property, then only a proportionate part of the loss shall be disallowed. Upon the subsequent sale or disposition of shares of stock or securities, in respect of which a loss has been disallowed, the basis for measuring gain or loss in the case of the property so acquired shall be the basis in the case of the stock or securities so sold or disposed of, except that if the repurchase price was in excess of the sale price such basis shall be increased in the amount of the difference, or if the repurchase price was less than the sale price such basis shall be decreased in the amount of the difference.

Worthless debts

(e) Debts which become worthless within the income year, or, in the discretion of the commissioner, a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts. When satisfied that a debt is recoverable in part only the commissioner may allow such debt as a deduction in an amount not in excess of the amount which becomes worthless in the income year; provided, however, that if a debt was actually worthless prior to January 1, 1943, but was not ascertained to be worthless and charged off prior to said date, a deduction may be taken therefor during the first income year ending after December 31, 1942; and, provided, that if a portion of a debt is claimed and allowed as a deduction in any year no deduction shall be allowed in any subsequent year for any portion of the debt which in any prior year became worthless, regardless of whether claimed as a deduction in such prior year.

Obsolescence

(f) A reasonable allowance for exhaustion, wear and tear and obsolescence of property used in the trade or business. The basis on which such allowance is to be computed in respect of any property is the adjusted basis provided in Section 21 (b) for the purpose of determining the gain upon the sale or other disposition of such property. A taxpayer may elect to claim a deduction for amortization of emergency facilities (as defined by Section 124 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended) under regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Depletion

(g) (1) In the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements according to the peculiar conditions in each case, such reasonable allowance in all cases to be made under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner. In any case in which it is ascertained as a result of operations or of development work that the recoverable units are greater or less than the prior estimate thereof, then such prior estimate (but not the basis for depletion) shall be revised and the allowance under this subsection for subsequent taxable years shall be based upon such revised estimate. In the case of leases the deductions shall be equitably apportioned between the lessor and the lessee.

Basis

(2) (A) The basis upon which depletion is to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in Section 21 (b) for the purpose of determining the gain upon the sale or other disposition of such property, except as provided in paragraphs (B), (C), and (D) of this subsection.

Mines

(B) In the case of mines (other than metal, coal, fluorspar, ball and sagger clay, rock asphalt or sulphur mines) discovered by the taxpayer after February 28, 1913, the basis for depletion shall be the fair market value of the property at the date of discovery or within 30 days thereafter, if such mines were not acquired as the result of purchase of a proven tract or lease, and if the fair market value of the property is materially disproportionate to the cost. The depletion allowance under subdivision (1) of this subsection based on discovery value provided in this paragraph shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property upon which the discovery was made, except that in no case shall the depletion allowance under subdivision (1) of this subsection be less than it would be if computed without reference to discovery value. Discoveries shall include minerals in commercial quantities contained within a vein or deposit discovered in an existing mine or mining tract by the taxpayer after February 28, 1913, if the vein or deposit thus discovered was not merely the uninterrupted extension of a continuing commercial vein or deposit already known to exist, and if the discovered minerals are of sufficient value and quantity that they could be separately mined and marketed at a profit.

Oil and gas wells

(C) In the case of oil and gas wells the allowance for depletion under subdivision (1) of this subsection shall be 27½ per centum of the gross income from the property during the income year, excluding from such gross income an amount equal to any rents or royalties paid or incurred by the taxpayer in respect of the property. Such allowance shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property, except that in no case shall the depletion allowance under subdivision (1) of this subsection be less than it would be if computed without reference to this paragraph.

Coal mines, etc

(D) The allowance for depletion under subdivision (1) of this subsection shall be, in the case of coal mines, 5 per centum, in the case of metal mines, fluorspar, ball and sagger clay or rock asphalt mines, 15 per centum, and, in the case of sulphur mines or deposits, 23 per centum, of the gross income from the property during the income year, excluding from such gross income an amount equal to any rents or royalties paid or incurred by the taxpayer in respect of the property. Such allowance shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property except that in no case shall the depletion allowance under subsection (1) of this section be less than it would be if computed without reference to this paragraph.

Dividends taxed to corporation declaring

(h) Dividends received during the income year declared from income which has been included in the measure of the tax imposed by this act upon the bank or corporation declaring the dividends, or from income which has been taxed under the provisions of the Corporation Income Tax Act to the corporation declaring the dividends.

Gifts

(i) In the case of a bank or corporation, contributions or gifts payment of which is made within the taxable year to or for the use of:

(1) The United States, any State, Territory, or any political subdivision thereof or the District of Columbia, or any possession of the United States, for exclusively public purposes; or

(2) A corporation, trust, or community chest, fund, or foundation, created or organized in the United States or in any possession thereof or under the law of the United States, or of any State or Territory, or of the District of Columbia, or of any possession of the United States, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes or for the prevention of cruelty to children (but in the case of contributions or gifts to a trust, chest, fund, or foundation, payment of which is made within a taxable year beginning after the date of the cessation of hostilities in the present war, as proclaimed by the President, only if such contributions or gifts are to be used within the United States or any of its possessions exclusively for such purposes), no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation; to an amount which does not exceed 5 per centum of the taxpayer's net income as computed without the benefits of this subsection. Such contributions or gifts shall be allowable as deductions only if verified under rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Return paid by building and loan association on money borrowed, etc

(j) In the case of a building and loan association, organized and operating wholly or partly on a mutual plan, the return paid or credited on or apportioned to the withdrawable shares of such association, but not exceeding the return such shares would receive computed at the average rate paid by all such associations in this State, or by such associations in a particular locality, as the Building and Loan Commissioner of this State may determine, on money borrowed or obtained through the issue during the income year of the association of all classes of notes and investment certificates not evidencing any proprietary interest in the association, such rate to be determined by the Building and Loan Commissioner and certified by him to the Franchise Tax Commissioner on or before the first day of March of each year.

Interest paid to depositors by certain banks

(k) In the case of a mutual savings bank, the entire amount of interest paid to depositors possessing no proprietary interest in the institution or in its surplus, and interest on their deposits to members possessing a proprietary interest in the institution or in its surplus at a rate determined by the State Superintendent of Banks to be the going rate of interest upon savings deposits in the State during the calendar year preceding the taxable year, such rate to be certified by him to the commissioner on or before the first day of March of each year.

Income of cooperative marketing associations

(l) In the case of farmers, fruit growers, or like associations organized and operated in whole or in part on a cooperative or mutual basis, (1) for the purpose of marketing the products of members or other producers, and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary marketing expenses, which may include reasonable reserves, on the basis of either the quantity or the value of the products furnished by them, or (2) for the purpose of purchasing, or producing, supplies and equipment for the use of members or other persons, and turning over such supplies and equipment to them at actual cost, plus necessary expenses, all income resulting from or arising out of such business activities for or with their members carried on by them or their agents; or when done on a nonprofit basis for or with nonmembers.

Other cooperative associations

(m) In the case of other associations organized and operated in whole or in part on a cooperative or a mutual basis, all income resulting from or arising out of business activities for or with their members, or with nonmembers, done on a nonprofit basis.

Amortizable bond premium

(n) In the case of a bondholder, who makes the election in the method and under the conditions prescribed in Section 8 (o) (4), the deduction for amortizable bond premium provided in subsection (o).

Rules applicable

(o) (1) In the case of any bond, as defined in subsection (3), the following rules shall apply to the amortizable bond premium (determined under subsection (2)) on the bond for any income year beginning after December 31, 1942.

(A) In the case of a bond, the amount of the amortizable bond premium for the income year shall be allowed as a deduction.

(2) (A) For the purposes of paragraph (B), the amount of bond premium, in the case of the holder of any bond, shall be determined with reference to the amount of the basis (for determining loss on sale or exchange) of such bond, and with reference to the amount payable on maturity or on earlier call date, with adjustments proper to reflect unamortized bond premium with respect to the bond, for the period prior to the date as of which subsection (1) becomes applicable with respect to the taxpayer with respect to such bond.

(B) The amortizable bond premium of the income year shall be the amount of the bond premium attributable to such year.

(C) The determinations required under paragraphs (A) and (B) shall be made—

(i) In accordance with the method of amortizing bond premium regularly employed by the holder of the bond, if such method is reasonable;

(ii) In all other cases, in accordance with regulations prescribing reasonable methods of amortizing bond premium, prescribed by the commissioner.

(3) As used in this section, the term "bond" means any bond, debenture, note, or certificate or other evidence of indebtedness, issued by any corporation and bearing interest (including any like obligation issued by a government or political subdivision thereof), with interest coupons or in registered form, but does not include any such obligation which constitutes stock in trade of the taxpayer or any such obligation of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the income year, or any such obligation held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business. "Bond"

(4) The amount of the amortizable bond premium for the income year shall be allowed as a deduction only if a taxpayer has elected to claim such deduction. Such election shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner shall prescribe. If such election is made with respect to any bond, it shall also apply to all such bonds held by the taxpayer at the beginning of the first income year to which the election applies and to all such bonds thereafter acquired by it, and shall be binding for all subsequent income years with respect to all such bonds of the taxpayer, unless, upon application by the taxpayer, the commissioner permits him, subject to such conditions as the commissioner deems necessary, to revoke such election. Election

(p) (1) If contributions are paid by an employer to or under a stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing, or annuity plan, or if compensation is paid or accrued on account of any employee under a plan deferring the receipt of such compensation, such contributions or compensation shall not be deductible under subsection (a) but shall be deductible, if deductible under subsection (a) without regard to this subsection, under this subsection but only to the following extent: Contributions by employer to stock bonus, etc., plans

(A) In the income year when paid, if the contributions are paid into a pension trust, and if such income year ends within or with an income year of the trust for which the trust is exempt under Section 12 (f) of the Personal Income Tax Act, in an amount determined as follows: Stats 1943, Ch. 353

(i) An amount not in excess of 5 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during the income year to all the employees under the trust, but such amount may be reduced for future years if found by the commissioner upon periodical examinations at not less than five-year intervals to be more than the amount reasonably necessary to provide the remaining unfunded cost of past and current service credits of all employees under the plan, plus

(ii) Any excess over the amount allowable under clause (i) necessary to provide with respect to all of the employees under the trust the remaining unfunded cost of their past and current service credits distributed as a level amount, or a level percentage of compensation, over the remaining future service of each such employee, as determined under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, but if such remaining unfunded

cost with respect to any three individuals is more than 50 per centum of such remaining unfunded cost, the amount of such unfunded cost attributable to such individuals shall be distributed over a period of at least five income years, or

(iii) In lieu of the amounts allowable under (i) and (ii) above, an amount equal to the normal cost of the plan, as determined under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, plus, if past service or other supplementary pension or annuity credits are provided by the plan, an amount not in excess of 10 per centum of the cost which would be required to completely fund or purchase such pension or annuity credits as of the date when they are included in the plan, as determined under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, except that in no case shall a deduction be allowed for any amount (other than the normal cost) paid in after such pension or annuity credits are completely funded or purchased.

(iv) Any amount paid in an income year in excess of the amount deductible in such year under the foregoing limitations shall be deductible in the succeeding income years in order of time to the extent of the difference between the amount paid and deductible in each such succeeding year and the maximum amount deductible for such year in accordance with the foregoing limitations.

(B) In the income year when paid, in an amount determined in accordance with subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, if the contributions are paid toward the purchase of retirement annuities and such purchase is a part of a plan which meets the requirements of Section 12 (f) of the Personal Income Tax Act, and if refunds of premiums, if any, are applied within the current income year or next succeeding income year towards the purchase of such retirement annuities.

(C) In the income year when paid, if the contributions are paid into a stock bonus or profit-sharing trust, and if such income year ends within or with an income year of the trust with respect to which the trust is exempt under Section 12 (f) of the Personal Income Tax Act, in an amount not in excess of 15 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during the income year to all employees under the stock bonus or profit-sharing plan. If in any income year beginning after December 31, 1942, there is paid into the trust, or a similar trust then in effect, amounts less than the amounts deductible under the preceding sentence, the excess, or if no amount is paid, the amounts deductible, shall be carried forward and be deductible when paid in the succeeding income years in order of time, but the amount so deductible under this sentence in any such succeeding income year shall not exceed 15 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during such succeeding income year to the beneficiaries under the plan. In addition, any amount paid into the trust in an income year beginning after December 31, 1942, in excess of the amount allowable with respect to such year under the preceding provisions of this subparagraph shall be deductible in the succeeding income years in order of time, but the amount so deductible under this sentence in any one such succeeding income year together with the amount allowable under the first sentence of this subparagraph shall not exceed 15 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during such income year to the beneficiaries under the plan. The term "stock bonus or profit-sharing trust," as used in this subparagraph, shall not include any trust designed to provide benefits upon retirement and covering a period of years, if under the plan the amounts to be contributed by the employer can be determined actuarily as provided in subparagraph (A). If the contributions are made to two or more stock bonus or profit-sharing trusts, such trusts shall be considered a single trust for the purposes of applying the limitations in this subparagraph.

(D) In the income year when paid, if the plan is not one included in paragraphs (A), (B), or (C), if the employees' rights to or derived from such employer's contribution or such compensation are nonforfeitable at the time the contribution or compensation is paid.

(E) For the purposes of subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C), a taxpayer on the accrual basis shall be deemed to have made a payment on the last day of the year of accrual if the payment is on account of such income year and is made within 60 days after the close of the income year of accrual.

(F) If amounts are deductible under subparagraphs (A) and (C), or (B) and (C), or (A), (B), and (C), in connection with two or more trusts, or one or more trusts and an annuity plan, the total amount deductible in an income year under such trusts and plans shall not exceed 25 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during the income year to the persons who are the beneficiaries of the trusts or plans. In addition, any amount paid into such trust or under such annuity plans in an income year beginning after December 31, 1942, in excess of the amount allowable with respect to such year under the preceding provisions of this subparagraph shall be deductible in the succeeding income years in order of time, but the amount so deductible under this sentence in any one such succeeding income year together with the amount allowable under the first sentence of this subparagraph shall not exceed 30 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during such income years to the beneficiaries under the trusts or plans. This subparagraph shall not have the effect of reducing the amount otherwise deductible under subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C), if no employee is a beneficiary under more than one trust, or a trust and an annuity plan. If there is no plan but a method of employer contributions or compensation has the effect of a stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing, or annuity plan, or similar plan deferring the receipt of compensation, this paragraph shall apply as if there were such a plan.

(2) Any deduction allowable under this act (as it read prior to the 1943 amendment) for an income year beginning before January 1, 1943, which was apportioned to any income year beginning after December 31, 1943, shall be allowed as a deduction for the years to which so apportioned to the extent allowable under this subsection as it then read if it had remained in force with respect to such year.

Deductions discriminating against national banking associations

(q) If any deduction provided for in this section is finally adjudged discriminatory against a national banking association contrary to Section 5219 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, or is for any reason finally adjudged invalid, in that event the tax of the favored taxpayer shall be recomputed by the commissioner for the taxable year in question, as of the time of allowance of the deduction, by disallowing the deduction, and any difference between the amount of the tax as recomputed and the amount of the tax as originally computed shall be subject to the provisions hereof relating to original computations.

New section

SEC. 4(a). Section 8.1 is hereby added to the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act, to read as follows:

Property lost or damaged in course of military or naval operations

Sec. 8.1. (a) For the purposes of this act—

(1) Property destroyed or seized on or after December 7, 1941, in the course of military or naval operations by the United States or any other country engaged in the present war shall be deemed to have been destroyed or seized on a date chosen by the taxpayer in the manner provided in paragraph (4), which falls between—

(A) The latest date, as established to the satisfaction of the commissioner, on which such property may be considered as not destroyed or seized, and

(B) The earliest date, as established to the satisfaction of the commissioner, on which such property may be considered as having already been destroyed or seized.

For the purposes of this paragraph property within an area which comes under the control of a country at war with the United States after the date war with such country is declared by the United States shall be deemed to have been destroyed or seized in the course of military or naval operations by such country, and the date specified in subparagraph (A) shall not be later than the latest date determined by the commissioner as the date on which such area was under the control of the United States or a country not at war with the United States, and the date specified in subparagraph (B) shall not be later than the earliest date determined by the commissioner as the date on which such area may be considered under the control of the country which is at war with the United States.

(2) Property within any country at war with the United States, or within an area under the control of any such country on the date war with such country was declared by the United States, shall be deemed to have been destroyed or seized on the date war with such country was declared by the United States.

(3) Any interest in, or with respect to, property described in paragraph (1) or (2) (including any interest represented by a security) which becomes worthless shall be considered to have been destroyed or seized (and the loss therefrom shall be considered a loss from the destruction or seizure) on the date chosen by the taxpayer which falls between the dates specified in paragraph (1), or on the date prescribed in paragraph (2), as the case may be, when the last property (described in the applicable paragraph) to which the interest relates would be deemed destroyed or seized under the applicable paragraph. This paragraph shall apply only if the interest would have become worthless if the property had been destroyed. For the purposes of this paragraph, an interest shall be deemed to have become worthless notwithstanding the fact that such interest has a value if such value is attributable solely to the possibility of recovery of the property, compensation (other than insurance or similar indemnity) on account of its destruction or seizure, or both. Under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, a taxpayer which owns 100 per centum (excluding qualifying shares) of each class of stock of a corporation may elect to determine the worthlessness of its interest, described in this paragraph, in or with respect to the property of the corporation, without regard to the amount of the property of such corporation which would be excluded under subsection (e) (2) (A) in determining the adjusted basis of all the assets of the corporation for the purposes of subsection (e), but such amount shall be treated under subsection (b) (1) as a recovery by the taxpayer in the income year with respect to such interest.

Choice of date

(4) The taxpayer's choice of a date under paragraph (1) or (3) shall be effective only if made within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

(b) In the case of any property or interest in or with respect to property deemed to be destroyed or seized under subsection (a)—

Amount of loss

(1) The amount of the loss on account of such property or interest shall be determined with regard to any recoveries with respect thereto in the income year but without regard to any possibility of recovering such property or interest, or of receiving any compensation (other than insurance or similar indemnity) on account of such property or interest in the income year or in any future income year.

(2) The taxpayer may choose to decrease the amount of the loss by all obligations or liabilities of the taxpayer with respect to such property or interest discharged or satisfied out of the property or interest upon its destruction or seizure, if the commissioner is satisfied that such obligations or liabilities are so discharged or satisfied in a subsequent income year, or that the taxpayer is unable to determine whether or not such obligations or liabilities are in fact discharged or satisfied.

No loss shall be deemed to have been sustained upon the destruction or seizure of such property or interest to the extent that it is compensated for by the discharge or satisfaction of obligations and liabilities of the taxpayer out of such property or interest in the income year in which such destruction or seizure is deemed to have occurred. The taxpayer's choice under this subsection shall be effective only if made within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Recovery

(c) (1) Upon the recovery in the income year of any money or property in respect of property considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized in any prior income year, the amount of such recovery shall be included in gross income to the extent provided in paragraph (2).

Amount of recovery

(2) The amount of the recovery of any money or property in respect of property considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of such money and the fair market value of such property, determined as of the date of the recovery. To the extent that such amount plus the aggregate of the amounts of previous such recoveries do not exceed that part of the aggregate of the allowable deductions in prior income years on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a) which did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act, such amount shall not be includible in gross income and shall not be deemed gain upon the involuntary conversion of property as a result of its destruction or seizure. To the extent that such amount plus the aggregate of the amounts of previous such recoveries exceed that part of the aggregate of such deductions which did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act and do not exceed that part of the aggregate of such deductions which did result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act, such amount shall be included in gross income but shall not be deemed a gain upon the involuntary conversion of property as a result of its destruction or seizure. To the extent that such amount plus the aggregate of the amounts of previous such recoveries exceed the aggregate of the allowable deductions in prior income years on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a), such amount shall be considered a gain upon the involuntary conversion of property as a result of its destruction or seizure and shall be recognized or not recognized as provided in Section 20 (f). If for any previous taxable year the taxpayer chooses under subsection (b) to treat any obligations and liabilities as discharged or satisfied out of the property or interest described in subsection (a), and if such obligations and liabilities were not so discharged or satisfied, the amount of such obligations and liabilities treated as discharged or satisfied under subsection (b) shall be considered for the purposes of this section as a deduction by reason of this section which did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act. For the purposes of this paragraph an allowable deduction for any income year on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a), shall, to the extent not allowed in computing the tax of the taxpayer for such income year, be considered an allowable deduction which did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), the restoration in whole or in part of the value of any interest described in subsection (a) (3) by reason of any recovery of money or property in respect of property to which such interest related and which was considered under subsection (a) (1) or (2) as destroyed or seized shall be deemed a recovery of property in respect of property considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized.

Unadjusted basis of property recovered

(d) The unadjusted basis of property recovered in respect of property considered destroyed or seized under subsection (a) shall be determined under this subsection. Such basis shall be an amount equal to the fair market value of such property, determined as of the date of the recovery, reduced by an amount equal to the excess of the aggregate of such fair market value and the amounts of previous recoveries of money or property in respect of property considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized over the aggregate of the allowable deductions in prior income years on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a), and increased by that portion of the amount of the recovery which under subsection (c) is treated as a recognized gain from the involuntary conversion of property Upon application of the taxpayer, the aggregate of the bases (determined under the preceding sentence) of any properties recovered in respect of properties considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized may be allocated among the properties so recovered in such manner as the commissioner may determine under regulations prescribed by him, and the amount so allocated to any such property so recovered shall be the unadjusted basis of such property in lieu of the unadjusted basis of such property determined under the preceding sentence.

Corporate property destroyed or seized

(e) (1) If a taxpayer owns not less than 50 per centum of each class of stock of a corporation, if such corporation has property described in subsection (a) (1) or (2) deemed to be destroyed or seized, the adjusted basis for determining loss of which is at least 75 per centum of the adjusted basis for determining loss of all such corporation's property, and if such corporation completely liquidates (by distributing all the assets which it is able to distribute and all its rights to assets which it is not able to distribute, including the right to the recovery of the property described in subsection (a) (1) and (2)) within one year after such property is deemed to be destroyed or seized, or by December 31, 1943, whichever is the later, then that part of the loss by the taxpayer on such liquidation which would be attributable to the destruction or seizure of such property, as established to the satisfaction of the commissioner, shall be treated for the purposes of this act as a loss by the taxpayer upon the destruction or seizure of the part of the stock or other interest of the taxpayer to which such loss is allocable. Such part of the stock or other interest of the taxpayer shall be treated for the purposes of subsections (b), (c), and (d) as property described in subsection (a) (3).

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)—

Adjusted basis

(A) In determining the adjusted basis of all the property of the corporation, there shall be excluded money in the United States, bank deposits, the right to receive money from any person not situated in a country at war with the United States or in a territory under the control of such a country, and obligations issued or guaranteed as to principal or interest by the United States, except that there shall not be excluded any such property which is destroyed or seized as described in subsection (a) within or before the taxable period.

(B) The adjusted basis of property of such corporation shall be determined as of the date immediately preceding the first date on which any property was destroyed or seized, as described in subsection (a), or as of any later date falling within or before the taxable period on the basis of which such determination will produce a greater amount.

(f) The determination as to whether and to what extent an allowable deduction on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a) did or did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this chapter shall be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Stats. 1943, Ch. 37

SEC. 5. Section 9 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Items not deductible

Sec. 9. In computing net income no deduction shall be allowed for:

(a) Any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property; or for

(b) Any amount expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made; or for

(c) Premiums paid on any life insurance policy covering the life of any officer or employee, or of any person financially interested in any trade or business carried on by the taxpayer, when the taxpayer is directly or indirectly a beneficiary under such policy.

(d) Any amount otherwise allowable as a deduction which is allocable to one or more classes of income not included in the measure of the tax imposed by this act.

(1) Any amount paid or accrued on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase a single premium life insurance or endowment contract. For the purposes of this paragraph, if substantially all the premiums on a life insurance or endowment contract are paid within a period of four years from the date on which such contract is purchased, such contract shall be considered a single premium life insurance or endowment contract;

(2) Amounts paid or accrued for such taxes and carrying charges as, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, are chargeable to capital account with respect to property, if the taxpayer elects, in accordance with such regulations, to treat such taxes or charges as so chargeable.

(e) Except in case of distributions in liquidation, losses from sales or exchanges of property directly or indirectly between an individual and a corporation in which such individual owns directly or indirectly more than 50 per centum in value of the outstanding stock. For the purpose of this subdivision an individual shall be considered as owning the stock owned directly or indirectly by his family and the family of an individual shall include only his brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood), spouse, ancestors and lineal descendants.

(f) In computing net income no deduction shall be allowed under Section 8(a), relating to expenses incurred, or under Section 8(b), relating to interest accrued:

(1) If such expenses or interest are not paid within the income year or within two and one-half months after the close thereof; and

(2) If, by reason of the method of accounting of the person or corporation to whom the payment is to be made, the amount thereof is not, unless paid, includible under the provisions of the Personal Income Tax Act, Corporation Income Tax Act or this act in the gross income of such person or corporation for the taxable year in which or with which the income year of the taxpayer ends; and

Stats. 1937, p 2184

(3) If, at the close of the income year of the taxpayer or at any time within two and one-half months thereafter, both the taxpayer and the person to whom the payment is to be made are persons between whom losses would be disallowed under Section 9(e), or if the corporation to which payment is to be made owns, or is owned by, the taxpayer to the extent of more than 50 per centum in value of the outstanding stock.

The amount of expenses incurred or interest accrued, the deduction of which is disallowed under this subsection in the year incurred or accrued, may be deducted in the year paid.

New section

SEC. 6. Section 9.1 is hereby added to the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act, to read as follows:

Renegotiated contracts with U. S

Sec. 9.1. (a) In the case of a contract with the United States or any agency thereof, or any subcontract thereunder, which is made by the taxpayer, if a renegotiation is made in respect of such contract or subcontract and an amount of excessive profits received or accrued under such contract or subcontract for an income year (hereinafter referred to as "prior income year") is eliminated and, in an income year ending after December 31, 1941, the taxpayer is required to pay or repay to the United States or any agency thereof the amount of profits eliminated or the amount of profits eliminated is applied as an offset against other amounts due the taxpayer, then the profits so eliminated shall be excluded from gross income for the prior income year if they were included in gross income for the prior income year. For the purposes of this section—

"Renegotiation" (1) The term "renegotiation" includes any transaction which is a renegotiation within the meaning of Section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act (Public 528, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.) or such section, as amended, any modification of one or more contracts with the United States or any agency thereof, and any agreement with the United States or any agency thereof in respect of one or more such contracts or subcontracts thereunder.

"Excessive profits" (2) The term "excessive profits" includes any amount which constitutes excessive profits within the meaning assigned to such term by subsection (a) of Section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act (Public 528, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, any part of the contract price of a contract with the United States or any agency thereof, any part of the subcontract price of a subcontract under such a contract, and any profits derived from one or more such contracts, or subcontracts.

"Subcontract" (3) The term "subcontract" includes any purchase order or agreement which is a subcontract within the meaning assigned to such term by subsection (a) of Section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act (Public 528, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942.

Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract (b) In the case of a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract between the United States or any agency thereof and the taxpayer, if an item for which the taxpayer has been reimbursed by the United States or any agency thereof is disallowed as an item of cost chargeable to such contract, and, in an income year ending after December 31, 1941, the taxpayer is required to repay the United States or any agency thereof the amount disallowed, or the amount disallowed is applied as an offset against other amounts due the taxpayer, for the purposes of this act the amount so disallowed or so applied as an offset shall be allowed as a deduction in the income year in which the reimbursement for such item was received or was accrued to the extent that the taxpayer's taxable net income for the year in which the cost was incurred would have been reduced had no such reimbursement been received or accrued.

When not deductible (c) The amount of the payment, repayment, or offset described in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) shall not constitute a deduction for the year in which paid or incurred.

Accounting method (d) The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply in respect of any contract if the taxpayer shows to the satisfaction of the commissioner that a different method of accounting for the amount of the payment, repayment, or disallowance clearly reflects income, and in such case the payment, repayment, or disallowance shall be accounted for with respect to the income year provided for under such method.

(e) Any overpayment in tax which results from the application of this section shall be credited or refunded as provided in this act. Notwithstanding the provisions of any statute of limitations, such credit or refund shall be made if claim therefor is filed within four years from the last day prescribed for filing the return or within two years from the date of payment, repayment, or offset described in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this section, whichever is later. Refund

(f) If prior to the payment of the last installment of tax for the taxable year the taxpayer becomes entitled to the exclusions or deductions provided in this section for its income year, the taxpayer may, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, file a claim in abatement of any unpaid tax or portion thereof, but not in excess of the reduction in tax resulting from the application of this section. Claim in abatement

(g) In any case in which a claim in abatement is filed pursuant to subsection (f) and the commissioner makes such abatement, the tax disclosed by the original return shall, for the purpose of Section 25 of this act, to be deemed to be reduced by the amount of the tax so abated.

SEC. 7. Section 11 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch 37

Sec. 11. (a) The term "income year," as herein used, means the calendar year, or the fiscal year ending during such calendar year, upon the basis of which the net income is computed herein. "Income year" includes, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year, the period for which such return is made. "Income year"

(b) The term "taxable year," as herein used, means the calendar year, or the fiscal year ending during such calendar year, for which the tax is payable. A "taxable year" may constitute a period of 12 months or of less duration. "Taxable year"

(c) The term "fiscal year," as herein used, means an accounting period of 12 months or less ending on the last day of any month other than December. "Fiscal year"

(d) The terms "paid or incurred" and "paid or accrued" shall be construed according to the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed hereunder. "Paid or incurred"

(e) For the purposes of this act, unless otherwise required by the context, the word "State" shall include the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, the District of Columbia, and the possessions of the United States. "State"

SEC. 8. Section 12 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1939, p 2934

Sec. 12. The net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxpayer's annual accounting period, fiscal year or calendar year as the case may be, in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books of such taxpayer; but if no such method of accounting has been Accounting period so employed, or if the method employed does not clearly reflect the income, the computation shall be made in accordance with such method as in the opinion of said commissioner does clearly reflect the income. If the taxpayer's annual accounting period is other than a fiscal year, or if the taxpayer has no annual accounting period or does not keep books, the net income shall be computed on the basis of the calendar year.

Increase in redemption price

If, in the case of a taxpayer owning any noninterest-bearing obligation issued at a discount and redeemable for fixed amounts increasing at stated intervals, the increase in the redemption price of such obligation occurring in the income year does not (under the method of accounting used in computing its net income) constitute income to taxpayer in such year, such taxpayer may, at its election made in its return for any income year beginning after December 31, 1942, treat such increase as income received in such income year. If any such election is made with respect to any such obligation, it shall apply also to all such obligations owned by the taxpayer at the beginning of the first income year to which it applies and to all such obligations thereafter acquired by taxpayer and shall be binding for all subsequent income years, unless upon application by the taxpayer the commissioner permits taxpayer, subject to such conditions as the commissioner deems necessary, to change to a different method. In the case of any such obligations owned by the taxpayer at the beginning of the first income year to which its election applies, the increase in the redemption price of such obligations occurring between the date of acquisition and the first day of such income year shall also be treated as income received in such income year.

Change in accounting period

If the taxpayer changes his accounting period from fiscal year to calendar year, from calendar year to fiscal year, or from one fiscal year to another, the net income shall, with the approval of the commissioner, be computed on the basis of such new accounting period subject to the following provisions:

(a) If a taxpayer, with the approval of the commissioner, changes the basis of computing net income from fiscal year to calendar year, a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last fiscal year for which return was made and the following December 31. If the change is from calendar year to fiscal year, a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last calendar year for which return was made and the date designated as the beginning of the fiscal year. If the change is from one fiscal year to another fiscal year a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the former fiscal year and the date designated as the beginning of the new fiscal year.

(b) Where a separate return is made under paragraph (a) on account of a change in the accounting period then the income shall be computed on the basis of the period for which separate return is made. The due date of the separate return for such period is the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of that period.

"The short period"

(c) (1) If a separate return is made under paragraph (a) on account of a change in the accounting period, the net income, computed on the basis of the period for which separate return is made (referred to in this subsection as "the short period"), shall be placed on an annual basis by multiplying the amount thereof by 12, and dividing by the number of months in the short period. The commissioner shall compute the amount of a tax on the income placed on such annual basis, and shall allow the offset provided for in Section 26 from such tax. The tax due under this section (which shall not be subject to offset) shall be such part of the tax (less the offset allowed) computed on such annual basis as the number of months in the short period is of 12 months.

(2) If the taxpayer establishes the amount of its net income for the period of 12 months beginning with the first day of the short period, computed as if such 12-month period were an income year, under the law applicable to such year, then the tax for the short period shall be reduced to an amount which is such part of the tax computed on the net income for such 12-month period as the net income computed on the basis of the short period is of the net income for the 12-month period. The taxpayer (other than a taxpayer to which the next sentence applies) shall compute the tax and file his return without the application of this paragraph. If the taxpayer has disposed of substantially all its assets prior to the end of such 12-month period, then in lieu of the net income for such 12-month period there shall be used for the purposes of this paragraph the net income for the 12-month period ending with the last day of the short period. The tax computed under this paragraph shall in no case be less than the tax computed on the net income for the short period without placing such net income on an annual basis. The benefits of this paragraph shall not be allowed unless the taxpayer, at such time as regulations prescribed hereunder require (but not after the time prescribed for the filing of the return for the first income year which ends on or after 12 months after the beginning of the short period), makes application therefor in accordance with such regulations. Such application, in case the return was filed without regard to this paragraph, shall be considered a claim for credit or refund with respect to the amount by which the tax is reduced under this paragraph. The commissioner shall prescribe such regulations as he may deem necessary for the application of this paragraph.

Change in law applicable to tax computation

(d) The tax on any bank or corporation for a period beginning in one calendar year (hereinafter in this section called "first calendar year") and ending in the following calendar year (hereinafter in this section called "second calendar year") where the law applicable to the computation of taxes for calendar year banks or corporations for the second calendar year is different from the law applicable to computation of taxes for calendar year banks or corporations for the first calendar year, shall be the sum of: (1) The same proportion of a tax for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the first calendar year and at the rates for such year, which the portion of such period falling within the first year is of the entire period; and (2) the same proportion of a tax for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the second calendar year and at the rates for such year, which the portion of such period falling within the second calendar year is of the entire period.

Any tax that has been paid under the law applicable to the first calendar year if in excess of the tax imposed by this section shall be refunded or credited to the bank or corporation as provided in Section 27. Any tax in addition to that paid under the law applicable to the first calendar year made necessary by this section shall be immediately due and payable upon notice and demand from the commissioner.

Contract requiring more than year to complete

(e) Where a corporation is engaged in the performance of a contract in this State which will require more than a year to complete, the commissioner may require that the income from the contract be reported on the basis of percentage of completion unless the corporation furnishes bond or other security guaranteeing the payment of a tax measured by the income received on the completion of the contract, even though the corporation is not doing business in this State in the year subsequent to the year of completion.

Stats 1943, Ch 37

SEC. 9. Section 13 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Returns

Sec. 13. (a) Every bank and corporation subject to the tax imposed by this act shall, within two months and 15 days after the close of its income year, transmit to the commissioner a return in a form prescribed by him, specifying, for the income year, all such facts as he may by rule, or otherwise, require in order to carry out the provisions of this act. Any return filed under the provisions of the Corporation Income Tax Act, which discloses the net income for any period, shall likewise constitute a return filed for the same period under this act, if the corporation should have filed a return under this act.

In the event that taxes, interest and penalties have been or shall be assessed against, paid by or collected from a corporation under this act, which assessment, payment or collection should have been made under the Corporation Income Tax Act, such taxes, interest and penalties shall be considered as having been assessed, paid or collected under the Corporation Income Tax Act as of the date or dates they were made.

Prepayment of minimum tax

(b) A corporation which incorporates or organizes under the laws of this State or qualifies to do business in this State, after the effective date of this act, shall thereupon prepay the minimum tax hereunder, which prepayment must be made before the corporation files with the Secretary of State its articles of incorporation or duly certified copy thereof as the case may be.

Tax for first and second taxable years

(c) If a bank or a corporation commences to do business in this State during its first taxable year its tax for that year shall be adjusted upon the basis of the net income received during that taxable year, at the rate applicable to that year, a credit being allowed for the prepayment of the minimum tax The return for the first taxable year, which shall be filed within two months and 15 days after the close of that year, shall also, in accordance with Sections 23 to 26, inclusive, be the basis for the tax of said bank or corporation for its second taxable year, if its first taxable year is a period of 12 months. In every case in which the first taxable year of a bank or corporation constitutes a period of less than 12 months, or in which a bank or corporation does business for a period of less than 12 months during its first taxable year, said bank or corporation shall pay as a prepayment of the tax for its second taxable year a tax based on the income for the first taxable year computed under the law and at the rate applicable to the second taxable year, the same to be due and payable at the same times and in the same manner as if that amount were the entire amount of its tax for that year; and upon the filing of its tax return within two months and 15 days after the close of its second taxable year it shall pay a tax for said year, at the rate applicable to that year, based upon its net income received during that year, allowing a credit for the prepayment; but in no event shall the tax for the second taxable year be less than the amount of the prepayment for that year, and said return for its second taxable year shall also, in accordance with Sections 23 to 26, inclusive, be the basis for the tax of said bank or corporation for its third taxable year.

Tax when business commenced in year other than of incorporation or qualification

(d) When any bank or corporation commences to do business in this State for the first time in any taxable year other than the year of incorporation or qualification, its tax for that taxable year and for the succeeding taxable year shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (c) of this section relative to first and second taxable years, a credit being allowed for any tax payable under subdivision (5) of Section 4 hereof, for the year in which it commences to do business.

Payment of adjusted tax

(e) The adjusted tax, as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d) of this section, for any taxable year in excess of the prepayment for that year, shall be due and payable in one amount on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of that taxable year, or on or before the expiration of the period of extension where an extension has been granted by the commissioner under the provisions of Section 15 of this act, and, if not so paid, interest shall be added thereto in the manner and at the rate or rates provided in Section 24 of this act.

Deferred income

(f) In the case of a bank or corporation taxable in the manner provided in subdivisions (c) and (d) of this section, reporting income from any source on a deferred basis, the commissioner is authorized to distribute or apportion such income, or deductions applicable thereto, if he determines that such distribution or apportionment is necessary in order to prevent avoidance of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of such bank or corporation.

Reorganized banks and corporations

(g) Subsections (c), (d), and (e) of this section shall not apply to a bank or a corporation which commences to do business in this State, pursuant to a reorganization of a bank or corporation as defined in subsection (j) of this section.

Reorganization. Returns and taxes

(h) (1) Where, pursuant to a reorganization, all or a substantial portion of the business or property of a bank or corporation, a party to the reorganization, is transferred to another bank or corporation, a party to the reorganization: (A) The net income of the transferor from the business or property so transferred to any bank or corporation for the taxable year in which the transfer occurs, shall be included in the measure of the tax on the transferee for the taxable year succeeding the taxable year in which the transfer occurs if the taxable year of the transferee in which the transfer occurs ends at the same time as or before the time the taxable year of the transferor in which the transfer occurs ends. Income of the transferor so included in the measure of the tax on the transferee shall be considered the income of the transferee for the purposes of this act.

(B) If the taxable year of the transferee in which the transfer occurs ends after the taxable year of the transferor in which the transfer occurs ends, the transferee shall, within two months and 15 days after the close of the taxable year of the transferor in which the transfer occurs, file a return disclosing the net income of the transferor from the business or property transferred for the taxable year in which the transfer occurs, and pay a tax measured by such income.

(2) If, at the time of any of the transfers referred to in the preceding subdivision (1), the transferor has not become subject to a tax measured by its income for the taxable year preceding the taxable year in which the transfer occurs, the transferee shall within two months and 15 days after the close of the month in which the transfer occurs file a return disclosing the net income of the transferor for such preceding year and pay a tax measured by such income.

(3) Whenever under this subsection the transferee is required to pay a tax measured by the income of the transferor, the rate of tax applicable to the transferee shall apply.

(4) The transferee shall, pursuant to the provisions of Sections 4 and 26 of this act, be entitled to the same offset against any tax imposed on it measured by the income of the transferor for taxes on the business or property transferred as would have been allowed the transferor had the reorganization not occurred.

(i) Where income of the transferor is required to be included in the computation of a tax on the transferee, such income shall not thereafter be included in the measure of a tax on the transferor.

"Reorganization" (j) The term "reorganization" as used in this section means (1) a transfer by a bank or corporation of all or a substantial portion of its business or property to another bank or corporation if immediately after the transfer the transferor or its stockholders or both are in control of the bank or corporation to which the assets are transferred; or (2) a mere change in identity, form or place of organization however effected; or (3) a merger or consolidation; or (4) a distribution in liquidation by a bank or corporation of all or a substantial portion of its business or property to a bank or corporation stockholder. As used in this paragraph the term "control" means the ownership of at least 80 per centum of the voting stock and at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of the bank or corporation.

"Control"

Dissolved banks and corporations (k) Any bank or corporation which is dissolved and any foreign corporation which withdraws from the State during any taxable year shall pay a tax hereunder only for the months of such taxable year which precede the effective date of such dissolution or withdrawal, according to or measured by such proportionate part of the net income of the preceding income year as the number of months of the taxable year prior to the effective date of such dissolution or withdrawal bears to the entire preceding income year; provided, however, that in the case of any bank or corporation which is dissolved, or which withdraws from the State during any taxable year, the offset from the tax for the months of such taxable year prior to the effective date of such dissolution or withdrawal shall not exceed that proportion of the offset computed under Section 26 which the number of said months prior to the effective date of such dissolution or withdrawal bears to the number of months of the preceding income year; and provided further, that the taxes levied under this act shall not be subject to abatement or refund because of the cessation of business or corporate existence of any bank or corporation pursuant to a reorganization, consolidation, or merger In any event, each such corporation shall pay a tax not subject to offset for such period in an amount equal to the minimum tax provided for in Section 4 of this act.

Abatement or refund

Minimum tax

Bank or corporation discontinuing business (l) When a corporation discontinues doing business within the State during any taxable year and does not dissolve or withdraw from the State during that year, and does not resume doing business during the succeeding taxable year, its tax for the year in which it resumes doing business shall be computed upon the basis of the net income for the year in which it discontinued doing business (except where such income has already been included in the measure of a tax imposed by this act), a credit being allowed for any tax payable under subdivision (5) of Section 4 of this act. One-half the amount of such tax shall be due and payable at the time the corporation resumes doing business, or on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of its income year, whichever is later, and the balance shall be due and payable within six months of the time the corporation resumes doing business, or on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of the income year, whichever is later, but, in no event shall the balance of the tax be due and payable later than the close of the taxable year in which it resumes doing business. All the provisions of this act relating to delinquent taxes shall be applicable to such tax if it is not paid on or before its due date.

Revived banks and corporations

(m) The tax of any bank or corporation which has suffered the suspension or forfeiture provided in Section 32 of this act, and which revives in any taxable year other than the taxable year in which suspension or forfeiture occurred, but did not transact business, as defined in Section 5 of this act, during the period of such suspension or forfeiture, shall be computed in the same manner as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d) of this section relative to the computation of taxes of banks and corporations commencing to do business for the first time after incorporation or qualification. Such a bank or corporation shall, in addition to the taxes, penalties, and interest specified in Section 33 of this act, prepay a tax in an amount equal to the minimum tax provided for in Section 4 of this act as a condition precedent to the issuance of a certificate of revivor.

Tax prepayment

Tax not a deficiency

(n) Any tax, imposed pursuant to this section, based on the net income as disclosed by the return, shall not be considered a deficiency assessment within the meaning of Section 25 of this act.

Attaching of liability

(o) The tax liability imposed under this act shall attach whether a bank or corporation has a taxable year of 12 months or of less duration.

Stats. 1943, Ch 37

SEC. 10. Section 14 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Allocation of income or deductions among affiliated banks and corporations

Sec. 14. In the case of two or more corporations or banks or of one or more banks and one or more corporations owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, the commissioner may permit or require the filing of a combined report and such other information as he deems necessary and is authorized to impose the tax due under this act as though the combined entire net income was that of one corporation, or to distribute, apportion, or allocate the gross income or deductions between or among such corporations or banks, if he determines that such consolidation, distribution, apportionment, or allocation is necessary in order to prevent evasion of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of any such corporations or banks.

In the case of a corporation doing business within the meaning of this act, whether under agreement or otherwise, in such manner as either directly or indirectly to benefit the members or stockholders of the corporation, or any of them, or any person or persons, directly or indirectly interested in such business, by rendering services of any nature whatsoever, or acquiring or disposing of its products or the goods or commodities in which it deals, at less than a fair price therefor, the commissioner, in order to prevent evasion of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of such corporation, may require a report of such facts as he deems necessary, and may determine the amount which shall be deemed to be the entire net income allocable to this State of the business of such corporation for the calendar or fiscal year, and compute the tax upon such net income. In determining the entire net income the commissioner shall have regard to the fair profits which, but for any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, might be or could have been obtained from dealing in such products, goods or commodities.

Consolidated report

In the case of a corporation liable to report under this act owning or controlling, either directly or indirectly, another corporation, or other corporations, and in the case of a corporation liable to report under this act and owned or controlled, either directly or indirectly, by another corporation, the commissioner may require a consolidated report showing the combined net income or such other facts as he deems necessary.

Assessment of tax

The commissioner is authorized and empowered, in such manner as he may determine, to assess the tax against either of the corporations whose net income is involved in the report upon the basis of the combined entire net income and such other information as he may possess, or he may adjust the tax in such other manner as he shall determine to be equitable if he determines it to be necessary in order to prevent evasion of taxes or to clearly reflect the net income earned by said corporation or corporations from business done in this State.

Direct or indirect ownership or control of more than 50 per centum of the voting stock of the bank or corporation shall constitute ownership or control for the purposes of this section.

SEC. 11. Section 16 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Computation in absence of return

Sec. 16. If any return required by this act is not made, the commissioner, at any time, may require a return, under oath, or may make an estimate of the net income, from any available information, and may compute and levy the amount of tax, interest and penalties due under this act. All the provisions of this act (not in conflict herewith) relative to delinquent taxes shall be applicable to the tax, interest and penalties computed and levied hereunder. A proceeding in court for the collection of the tax, interest and penalties provided for in this section may be begun without assessment at any time.

SEC. 12. Section 17 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Inventories

Sec. 17. (1) Whenever, in the opinion of the commissioner, the use of inventories is necessary clearly to determine the income of any taxpayer, inventory shall be taken by such taxpayer upon such basis as the commissioner may prescribe, conforming as nearly as may be to the best accounting practice and most clearly reflecting the income.

Methods

(2) (A) A taxpayer may use the following method (whether or not such method has been prescribed under subdivision (1)) in inventorying goods specified in the application required under paragraph (B): (1) Inventory them at cost; (2) Treat those remaining on hand at the close of the income year as being: First, those included in the opening inventory of the income year (in order of acquisition) to the extent thereof, and second, those acquired in the income year; and (3) Treat those included in the opening inventory of the income year in which such method is first used as having been acquired at the same time and determine their cost by the average cost method.

(B) The method described in paragraph (A) may be used (1) only in inventorying goods (required under subdivision (1) to be inventoried) specified in an application to use such method filed at such time and in such manner as the commissioner may prescribe; and (2) only if the taxpayer establishes to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the taxpayer has used no procedure other than that specified in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of paragraph (A) in inventorying such goods to ascertain the income, profit, or loss of the first income year for which the method described in paragraph (A) is to be used, for the purpose of a report or statement covering such income year (i) to shareholders, partners, or other proprietors, or to beneficiaries, or (ii) for credit purposes.

(C) The change to, and the use of, such method shall be in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe as necessary in order that the use of such method may clearly reflect income.

(D) In determining income for the income year preceding the income year for which such method is first used, the closing inventory of such preceding year of the goods specified in such application shall be at cost.

Change in method

(E) If a taxpayer, having complied with paragraph (B), uses the method described in paragraph (A) for any income year, then such method shall be used in all subsequent income years unless with the approval of the commissioner a change to a different method is authorized; or the commissioner determines that the taxpayer has used for any such subsequent income year some procedure other than that specified in (2) of paragraph (A) in inventorying the goods specified in the application to ascertain the income, profit, or loss of such subsequent income year for the purpose of a report or statement covering such income year (i) to shareholders, partners, or other proprietors, or beneficiaries, or (ii) for credit purposes; and requires a change to a method different from that prescribed in paragraph (1) beginning with such subsequent income year or any income year thereafter.

In either of the above cases, the change to, and the use of, the different method shall be in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe as necessary in order that the use of such method may clearly reflect income.

Involuntary liquidation

(3) (A) If, for any income year beginning after December 31, 1942, and prior to the termination of the present war as proclaimed by the President of the United States, the closing inventory of a taxpayer inventorying goods under the method provided in this subsection reflects a decrease from the opening inventory of such goods for such year, and if, at the time of the filing of the taxpayer's income tax return for such year, the taxpayer elects to have the provisions of this paragraph apply and so notifies the commissioner, and if, at the time of such election, it is established to the satisfaction of the commissioner, in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, that such decrease is attributable to the involuntary liquidation of such inventory as defined in subparagraph (B), and if the closing inventory of a subsequent income year, ending not more than three years after the termination of the present war as proclaimed by the President, reflects a replacement, in whole or in part, of the goods so previously liquidated, the net income of the taxpayer otherwise determined for the year of such involuntary liquidation shall be adjusted as follows:

Adjustment

(i) Increased by an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the aggregate cost of such goods reflected in the opening inventory of the year of involuntary liquidation over the aggregate replacement cost; or

(ii) Decreased by an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the aggregate replacement cost of such goods over the aggregate cost thereof reflected in the opening inventory of the year of the involuntary liquidation.

The taxes imposed by this act for the year of such liquidation and for all income years intervening between such year and the year of replacement shall be redetermined, giving effect to such adjustments. Any increase in such taxes resulting from such adjustments shall be assessed and collected as a deficiency but without interest, and any overpayment so resulting shall be credited or refunded to the taxpayer without interest.

"Involuntary liquidation"

(B) The term "involuntary liquidation," as used in this paragraph, means the sale or other disposition of goods inventoried under the method described in this subsection, either voluntary or involuntary, coupled with a failure on the part of the taxpayer to purchase, manufacture, or otherwise produce and have on hand at the close of the income year in which such sale or other disposition occurred such goods as would, if on hand at the close of such income year, be subject to the application of the provisions of this subsection, if such failure on the part of the taxpayer is due, directly and exclusively, (i) to enemy capture or control of sources of limited foreign supply; (ii) to shipping or other transportation shortages;

(iii) to material shortages resulting from priorities or allocations; (iv) to labor shortages; or (v) to other prevailing war conditions beyond the control of the taxpayer.

Increase

(C) If, in the case of any taxpayer subject to the provisions of subparagraph (A), the closing inventory of the taxpayer for an income year, subsequent to the year of involuntary liquidation but prior to the complete replacement of the goods so liquidated, reflects an increase over the opening inventory of such goods for the income year, the goods reflecting such increase shall be considered, in the order of their acquisition, as having been acquired in replacement of the goods most recently liquidated (whether or not in a year of involuntary liquidation) and not previously replaced, and if the liquidation was an involuntary liquidation shall be included in the inventory of the taxpayer for the year of replacement at the inventory cost basis of the goods replaced.

Election

(D) An election by the taxpayer to have the provisions of this paragraph apply, once made, shall be irrevocable and shall be binding for the year of the involuntary liquidation and for all determinations for subsequent income years in so far as they are related to the year of liquidation or replacement.

Prevented adjustments

(E) If the adjustments specified in subparagraph (A) are, with respect to any income year, prevented, on the date of the filing of the income tax return of the taxpayer for the year of the replacement, or within three years from such date, by any provision or rule of law (other than this subparagraph), such adjustments shall nevertheless be made if, in respect of the income year for which the adjustment is sought, a notice of deficiency is mailed or a claim for refund is filed, as the case may be, within three years after the date of the filing of the income tax return for the year of replacement. If, at the time of the mailing of such notice of deficiency or the filing of such claim for refund, the adjustment is so prevented, then the amount of the adjustment authorized by this paragraph shall be limited to the increase or decrease of the tax imposed by this act previously determined for such income year which results solely from the effect of subparagraph (A), and such amount shall be assessed and collected, or credited or refunded, in the same manner as if it were a deficiency or an overpayment, as the case may be, for such income year and as if, on the date of the filing of the income tax return for the year of the replacement, three years remain before the expiration of the periods of limitation upon assessment or the filing of claim for refund for the income year. The tax previously determined shall be ascertained in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner. The amount to be assessed and collected under this paragraph in the same manner as if it were a deficiency or to be credited or refunded in the same manner as if it were an overpayment shall not be diminished by any credit or set-off based upon any item, inclusion, deduction, credit, exemption, gain, or loss, other than one resulting from the effect of subparagraph (A). Such amount, if paid, shall not be recovered by a claim or suit for refund, or suit for erroneous refund based upon any item, inclusion, deduction, credit, exemption, gain, or loss, other than one resulting from the effect of subparagraph (A).

SEC. 13. Section 20 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch. 37

Sec. 20. (a) Upon the sale or exchange of property the entire amount of the gain or loss, determined under Section 19, shall be recognized, except as hereinafter provided in this section. Recognition of gain or loss

(b) (1) No gain or loss shall be recognized if property held for productive use in trade or business or for investment (not including stock in trade or other property held primarily for sale, nor stocks, bonds, notes, choses in action, certificates of trust or beneficial interest, or other securities or evidences of indebtedness or interest) is exchanged solely for property of a like kind to be held either for productive use in trade or business or for investment.

(2) No gain or loss shall be recognized if common stock in a corporation is exchanged solely for common stock in the same corporation, or if preferred stock in a corporation is exchanged solely for preferred stock in the same corporation.

(3) No gain or loss shall be recognized if stock or securities in a corporation a party to a reorganization are, in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, exchanged solely for stock or securities in such corporation or in another corporation a party to the reorganization.

(4) No gain or loss shall be recognized if a corporation a party to a reorganization exchanges property, in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, solely for stock or securities in another corporation a party to the reorganization.

(5) No gain or loss shall be recognized if property is transferred to a corporation by one or more taxpayers solely in exchange for stock or securities in such corporation, and immediately after the exchange such taxpayer or taxpayers are in control of the corporation; but in the case of an exchange by two or more taxpayers this paragraph shall apply only if the amount of the stock and securities received by each is substantially in proportion to its interest in the property prior to the exchange. Where the transferee assumes a liability of a transferor, or where the property of a transferor is transferred subject to a liability, then for the purpose only of determining whether the amount of stock or securities received by each of the transferors is in the proportion required by this paragraph, the amount of such liability (if under subsection (k) it is not to be considered as other property or money) shall be considered as stock or securities received by such transferor.

(6) No gain or loss shall be recognized upon the receipt by a corporation of property distributed in complete liquidation of another corporation. For the purposes of this paragraph Distributions in complete liquidation a distribution shall be considered to be in complete liquidation only if:

(A) The corporation receiving such property was, on the date of the adoption of the plan of liquidation, and has continued to be at all times until the receipt of the property, the owner of stock (in such other corporation) possessing at least 80 per centum of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote and the owner of at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock (except nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends), and was at no time on or after the date of the adoption of the plan of liquidation and until the receipt of the property the owner of a greater percentage of any class of stock than the percentage of such class owned at the time of the receipt of the property; and

(B) No distribution under the liquidation was made before the first day of the first taxable year of the corporation beginning after December 31, 1935; and either

(C) The distribution is by such other corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of all its stock, and the transfer of all the property occurs within the income year; in such case the adoption by the shareholders of the resolution under which is authorized the distribution of all the assets of such corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of all its stock, shall be considered an adoption of a plan of liquidation, even though no time for the completion of the transfer of the property is specified in such resolution; or

(D) Such distribution is one of a series of distributions by such other corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of all its stock in accordance with a plan of liquidation under which the transfer of all the property under the liquidation is to be completed within three years from the close of the taxable year during which is made the first of the series of distributions under the plan, except that if such transfer is not completed within such period, or if the taxpayer does not continue qualified under subparagraph (A) until the completion of such transfer, no distribution under the plan shall be considered a distribution in complete liquidation.

If such transfer of all the property does not occur within the income year the commissioner may require of the taxpayer such bond, or waiver of the statute of limitations on assessment and collection, or both, as he may deem necessary to insure, if the transfer of the property is not completed within such three-year period, or if the taxpayer does not continue qualified under subparagraph (A) until the completion of such transfer, the assessment and collection of all taxes imposed by this act then due or to become due, to the extent attributable to property so received. A distribution otherwise constituting a distribution in complete liquidation within the meaning of this paragraph shall not be considered as not constituting such a distribution merely because it does not constitute a distribution or liquidation within the meaning of the corporate law under which the distribution is made; and for the purposes of this paragraph a transfer of property of such other corporation to the taxpayer shall not be considered as not constituting a distribution (or one of a series of distributions) in complete cancellation or redemption of all the stock of such other corporation, merely because the carrying out of the plan involves (i) the transfer under the plan to the taxpayer by such other corporation of property, not attributable to shares owned by the taxpayer, upon an exchange described in paragraph (4) of this subsection, and (ii) the complete cancellation or redemption under the plan, as a result of exchanges described in paragraph (3) of this subsection, of the shares not owned by the taxpayer.

(7) No gain or loss shall be recognized to a shareholder from a distribution of stocks or securities in liquidation of a corporation made pursuant to an order of the Federal Securities and Exchange Commission under authority vested in it by that act of Congress known as the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 as amended.

(8) No loss shall be recognized if property of a railroad corporation, as defined in Section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, is transferred, after December 31, 1942, in pursuance of an order of the court having jurisdiction of such corporation—

(A) In a receivership proceeding, or

(B) In a proceeding under Section 77 of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended,

to a railroad corporation, as defined in Section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, organized or made use of to effectuate a plan of reorganization approved by the court in such proceeding The term "reorganization," as used in this paragraph, shall not be limited by the definition of such term in subsection (g).

(c) (1) If an exchange would be within the provisions of subsection (b) (1), (2), (3), or (5) of this section if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of property permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain, but also of other property or money, then the gain, if any, to the recipient shall be recognized, but in an amount not in excess of the sum of such money and the fair market value of such other property. Particular exchanges

(2) If a distribution made in pursuance of a plan of reorganization is within the provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection but has the effect of the distribution of a taxable dividend, then there shall be treated as a dividend to each distributee such an amount of the gain recognized under paragraph (1) as is not in excess of his ratable share of the undistributed earnings and profits of the corporation accumulated after February 28, 1913. The remainder, if any, of the gain recognized under paragraph (1) shall be treated as a gain from the exchange of property.

(d) If an exchange would be within the provisions of subsection (b) (4) of this section if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of stock or securities permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain, but also of other property or money, then:

(1) If the corporation receiving such other property or money distributes it in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, no gain to the corporation shall be recognized from the exchange, but

(2) If the corporation receiving such other property or money does not distribute it in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, the gain, if any, to the corporation shall be recognized, but in an amount not in excess of the sum of such money and the fair market value of such other property so received, which is not so distributed.

(e) If an exchange would be within the provisions of subsection (b) (1) to (5), inclusive, of this section if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of property permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain or loss, but also of other property or money, then no loss from the exchange shall be recognized.

(f) If property (as a result of its destruction in whole or in part, theft or seizure, or an exercise of the power of requisition or condemnation, or the threat or imminence thereof) is compulsorily or involuntarily converted into property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted, or into money which is forthwith in good faith, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, expended in the acquisition of other property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted, or in the acquisition of control of a corporation owning such other property, or in the establishment of a replacement fund, no gain shall be recognized, but loss shall be recognized. If any part of the money is not so expended, the gain, if any, shall be recognized to the extent of the money which is not so expended (regardless of whether such money is received in one or more income years and regardless of whether or not the money which is not so expended constitutes gain).

(g) As used in this section and Section 21:

"Reorganization" (1) The term "reorganization" means (A) a statutory merger or consolidation, or (B) the acquisition by one corporation in exchange solely for all or a part of its voting stock: of at least 80 per centum of the voting stock and at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of another corporation; or of substantially all the properties of another corporation, but in determining whether the exchange is solely for voting stock, the assumption by the acquiring corporation of a liability of another, or the fact that property acquired is subject to a liability, shall be disregarded, or (C) a transfer by a corporation of all or a part of its assets to another corporation if immediately after the transfer the transferor or its shareholders or both are in control of the corporation to which the assets are transferred, or (D) a recapitalization, or (E) a mere change in identity, form, or place of organization, however effected.

"Party to a reorganization"

(2) The term "a party to a reorganization" includes a corporation resulting from a reorganization and includes both corporations in the case of a reorganization resulting from the acquisition by one corporation of stock or properties of another.

"Control"

(h) As used in this section the term "control" means the ownership of stock possessing at least 80 per centum of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote and at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of the corporation.

Corporation created in foreign country

(i) In determining the extent to which gain shall be recognized in the case of any of the exchanges (made after the date of the enactment of this act) described in subsection (b) (3), (4), (5), or (6), or described in so much of subsection (c) as refers to subsection (b) (3) or (5), or described in subsection (d), a corporation created or organized in a foreign country shall not be considered as a corporation unless, prior to such exchange, it has been established to the satisfaction of the commissioner that such exchange is not in pursuance of a plan having as one of its principal purposes the avoidance of income taxes or franchise taxes imposed by this State.

Installment obligations

(j) For nonrecognition of gain or loss in the case of installment obligations, see Section 19 (e) (4).

Assumption of taxpayer's liability

(k) Where, upon an exchange, the taxpayer receives as part of the consideration property which would be permitted by subsection (b) (4) or (5) of this section to be received without the recognition of gain if it were the sole consideration, and as part of the consideration another party to the exchange assumes a liability of the taxpayer or acquires from the taxpayer property subject to a liability, such assumption or acquisition shall not be considered as "other property or money" received by the taxpayer within the meaning of subsection (c), (d) or (e) of this section and shall not prevent the exchange from being within the provisions of subsection (b) (4) or (5); except that if, taking into consideration the nature of the liability and the circumstances in the light of which the arrangement for the assumption or acquisition was made, it appears that the principal purpose of the taxpayer with respect to the assumption or acquisition was a purpose to avoid State tax on the exchange, or, if not such purpose, was not a bona fide business purpose, such assumption or acquisition (in the amount of the liability) shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered as money received by the taxpayer upon the exchange. In any suit or proceeding where the burden is on the taxpayer to prove that such assumption or acquisition is not to be considered as money received by the taxpayer, such burden shall not be considered as sustained unless the taxpayer sustains such burden by the clear preponderance of the evidence.

Burden of proof

SEC. 14. Section 21 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Basis of property

Sec. 21. (a) The basis of property shall be the cost of such property; except that:

(1) If the property should have been included in the last inventory, the basis shall be the last inventory value thereof.

(2) If the property was acquired by gift after December 31, 1920, the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the donor or the last preceding owner by whom it was not acquired by gift, except that if such basis (adjusted for the period prior to the date of the gift as provided in subsection (b)) is greater than the fair market value of the property at the time of the gift, then for the purpose of determining loss the basis shall be such fair market value. If the facts necessary to determine the basis in the hands of the donor or the last preceding owner are unknown to the donee, the commissioner shall, if possible, obtain such facts from such donor or last preceding owner, or any other person cognizant thereof. If the commissioner finds it impossible to obtain such facts, the basis in the hands of such donor or last preceding owner shall be the fair market value of such property as found by the commissioner as of the date or approximate date at which, according to the best information that the commissioner is able to obtain, such property was acquired by such donor or last preceding owner.

(3) If the property was acquired after December 31, 1920, by a transfer in trust (other than by a transfer in trust by a gift, bequest or devise) the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the grantor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the grantor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made.

(4) If the property was acquired, after February 28, 1913, upon an exchange described in Section 20 (b) to (e), inclusive, the basis (except as provided in paragraph (12) of this subsection) shall be the same as in the case of the property exchanged, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer that was recognized upon such exchange under the law applicable to the year in which the exchange was made. If the property so acquired consisted in part of the type of property permitted by Section 20 (b) to be received without the recognition of gain or loss, and in part of other property, the basis provided in this paragraph shall be allocated between the properties (other than money) received, and for the purpose of the allocation there shall be assigned to such other property an amount equivalent to its fair market value at the date of the exchange.

Where, as part of the consideration to the taxpayer, another party to the exchange assumed a liability of the taxpayer or acquired from the taxpayer property subject to a liability, such assumption or acquisition (in the amount of the liability) shall, for the purposes of this paragraph, be considered as money received by the taxpayer upon the exchange. This paragraph shall not apply to property acquired by a corporation by the issuance of its stock or securities as the consideration in whole or in part for the transfer of the property to it.

(5) If the property was acquired:

(A) After December 31, 1917, and in an income year beginning before January 1, 1936, by a corporation in connection with a reorganization, and immediately after the transfer an interest or control in such property of 50 per centum or more remained in the same persons or any of them, or

(B) In an income year beginning after December 31, 1935, by a corporation in connection with a reorganization, then the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the transferor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the transferor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made. This paragraph shall not apply if the property acquired consists of stock or securities in a corporation a party to the reorganization, unless acquired by the issuance of stock or securities of the transferee as the consideration in whole or in part for the transfer.

(6) If the property was acquired after December 31, 1920, by a corporation:

(A) By the issuance of its stock or securities in connection with a transaction described in Section 20 (b) (5) of this act or Section 9.2 (b) (4) of the Personal Income Tax Act or Section 11 (b) (5) of the Corporation Income Tax Act (including, also, cases where part of the consideration for the transfer of such property to the corporation was property or money, in addition to such stock or securities), or

(B) As paid-in surplus or as a contribution to capital, then the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the transferor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the transferor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made.

(7) If the property was acquired, after February 28, 1913, as the result of a compulsory or involuntary conversion described in Section 20 (f), the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property so converted, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer which was not expended in accordance with the provisions of law (applicable to the year in which such conversion was made) determining the taxable status of the gain or loss upon such conversion, and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer recognized upon such conversion under the law applicable to the year in which such conversion was made.

(8) If the property consists of stock or securities the acquisition of which (or the contract or option to acquire which) resulted in the nondeductibility (under Section 8 (d) of this act, relating to wash sales) of the loss from the sale or other disposition of substantially identical stock or securities, then the basis shall be the basis of the stock or securities so sold or disposed of, increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the difference, if any, between the price at which the property was acquired and the price at which such substantially identical stock or securities were sold or otherwise disposed of.

(9) In the case of property acquired by a corporation, during a period of affiliation, from a corporation with which it was affiliated, the basis of such property, after such period of affiliation, shall be determined, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner without regard to intercompany transactions in respect of which gain or loss was not recognized. The basis in case of property acquired by a corporation during any period, in the taxable year 1929 or any subsequent taxable year, in respect of which a consolidated return is made by such corporation under Section 13½ of this act or Section 141 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1928 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1932 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1936, shall be determined in accordance with regulations prescribed under Section 13½ of this act or Section 141 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1928 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1932 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1936. The basis in the case of property held by a corporation during any period, in the taxable year 1929 or any subsequent taxable year, in respect of which a consolidated return is made by such corporation under Section 13½ of this act or Section 141 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1928 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1932 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1936, shall be adjusted in respect of any items relating to such period, in accordance with regulations prescribed under Section 13½ of this act or Section 141 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1928 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1932 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1936, applicable to such period.

(10) If the property was acquired, after February 28, 1913, in any income year beginning prior to January 1, 1934, and the basis thereof, for the purposes of the Revenue Act of 1932 was prescribed by Section 113 (a) (6), (7), or (9) of such act, then for the purposes of this act the basis shall be the same as the basis therein prescribed in the Revenue Act of 1932.

(11) In the case of property acquired before March 1, 1913, if the basis otherwise determined under this subsection, adjusted (for the period prior to March 1, 1913) as provided in subsection (b), is less than the fair market value of the property as of March 1, 1913, then the basis for determining gain shall be such fair market value. In determining the fair market value of stock in a corporation as of March 1, 1913, due regard shall be given to the fair market value of the assets of the corporation as of that date.

(12) If the property was received by a corporation upon a distribution in complete liquidation of another corporation within the meaning of Section 20 (b) (6), then the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the transferor.

(13) Whenever a corporation has realized gain or loss upon the receipt after January 1, 1928, at a time when it was subject to a tax under this act measured by income, of all or substantially all of the business or property of a corporation over which it exercised control within the meaning of subsection 20 (h), and such gain or loss actually was not taken into account in the computation of taxes imposed by this act, the basis of the property or business acquired shall be the same as it was in the hands of the transferor.

(14) If the property was acquired after February 28, 1913, in any income year beginning prior to January 1, 1937, and the basis thereof, for the purposes of the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 was prescribed by Section 113 (a) (6), (7), or (8) of such act, then for the purposes of this act the basis shall be the same as the basis therein prescribed in the Federal Revenue Act of 1934.

(15) (A) If the property was acquired by a shareholder in a corporation and consists of rights to acquire stock in such corporation acquired by him after February 28, 1913, in a distribution by such corporation, and (1) the right to acquire such stock was acquired in an income year beginning before January 1, 1937 (except as provided in subparagraph (B)), or (2) the right to acquire such stock was acquired in an income year beginning after December 31, 1936, and its distribution did not constitute income to the shareholder within the meaning of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, then the basis of the stock in respect of which the rights were declared and the right to acquire stock, respectively, shall, in the shareholder's hands be determined by allocating between the stock and the right to acquire stock the adjusted basis of the stock, such allocation to be made under regulations which shall be prescribed by the commissioner.

(B) If a stock right was acquired prior to January 1, 1928, and it constituted income within the purview of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, the basis of the stock in respect of which the rights were declared shall not be affected and the basis of the right shall be its fair market value as of the date of its acquisition.

(C) Where the shareholder acquired the right to acquire such stock in an income year beginning before January 1, 1943, and sold the same, and there was included in the gross income for such year of sale the entire amount of the proceeds of such sale, then if before the effective date of the 1943 amendments to this act the taxpayer has not asserted (by claim for a refund or credit or otherwise) that any part of the proceeds of the sale of such rights should be excluded from gross income for the year of its sale, the basis of the stock shall be determined without regard to paragraphs (A) and (B), and no part of the proceeds of the sale of such rights shall ever be excluded from the gross income for the year of such sale.

(16) If the property of a railroad corporation, as defined in Section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, was acquired after December 31, 1942, in pursuance of an order of the court having jurisdiction of such corporation—

(A) In a receivership proceeding, or

(B) In a proceeding under Section 77 of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended,

and the acquiring corporation is a railroad corporation, as defined in Section 77m of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, organized or made use of to effectuate a plan or reorganization approved by the court in such proceeding, the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the railroad corporation whose property was so acquired. The term "reorganization," as used in this paragraph, shall not be limited by the definition of such term in Section 20 (g).

(17) If the property of any street, suburban, or interurban electric railway corporation engaged as a common carrier in the transportation of persons or property in interstate commerce was acquired after December 31, 1942, in pursuance of an order of the court having jurisdiction of such corporation in a proceeding under Section 77B of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, and the acquiring corporation is a street, suburban, or interurban electric railway engaged as a common carrier in the transportation of persons or property in interstate commerce, organized or made use of to effectuate a plan of reorganization approved by the court in such proceeding, then, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 270 of Chapter X of the National Bankruptcy Act, as amended, the basis, for any income year beginning after December 31, 1942, shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the corporation whose property was so acquired. The term "reorganization," as used in this paragraph, shall not be limited by the definition of such term in Section 20 (g).

(18) In the case of stocks or securities received by a taxpayer on or after January 1, 1943, under circumstances described in Section 20 (b) (7), the basis of such stocks or securities shall be the same as that of the stocks or securities for the surrender of which they were acquired.

Adjusted basis

(b) The adjusted basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property, whenever acquired, shall be the basis determined under subsection (a), adjusted as hereinafter provided.

(1) Proper adjustment in respect of the property shall in all cases be made—

(A) For expenditures, receipts, losses, or other items properly chargeable to capital account, but no such adjustment shall be made for taxes or other carrying charges for which deductions have been taken by the taxpayer in determining net income for the income year or prior income years;

(B) For exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion, to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1928, and to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under this act, except that no deduction shall be made for (1) amounts in excess of the amount which would have been allowable had depreciation not been computed on the basis of January 1, 1928, value; (2) amounts in excess of the adjustments required by Section 113 (b) (1) (B) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1938 for depletion prior to January 1, 1932; provided, however, that if a taxpayer has not claimed an amortization deduction for an emergency facility, an adjustment shall be made only to the extent ordinarily provided under Section 8 (f).

(C) In the case of stock (to the extent not provided for in the foregoing subparagraphs) for the amount of distributions previously made which, under the law applicable to the year in which the distribution was made, either were tax-free or were applicable in reduction of basis (not including distributions made by a corporation, which was classified as a personal service corporation under the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921, out of its earnings or profits which were taxable in accordance with the provisions of Section 218 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921).

(D) In the case of any bond (as defined in Section 8 (o) (3)) to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to Section 8 (o) (1) (A) with respect thereto.

"Substituted basis"

(2) The term "substituted basis" as used in this subsection means a basis determined under any provision of subsection (a) of this section providing that the basis shall be determined:

(A) By reference to the basis in the hands of a transferor, donor, or grantor, or

(B) By reference to other property held at any time by the person for whom the basis is to be determined.

Whenever it appears that the basis of property in the hands of the taxpayer is a substituted basis, then the adjustments provided in paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be made after first making in respect of such substituted basis proper adjustments of a similar nature in respect of the period during which the property was held by the transferor, donor, or grantor, or during which the other property was held by the person for whom the basis is to be determined. A similar rule shall be applied in the case of a series of substituted bases.

(3) Where in the case of a bank or corporation any amount is excluded from gross income under Section 6 (b) (5) on account of the discharge of indebtedness the whole or a part of the amount so excluded from gross income shall be applied in a reduction of the basis of any property held (whether before or after the time of the discharge) by the taxpayer during any portion of the income year in which such discharge occurred. The amount tc be so applied (not in excess of the amount so excluded from gross income, reduced by the amount of any deduction disallowed under Section 6 (b) (5)) and the particular properties to which the reduction shall be allocated, shall be determined under regulations (prescribed by the commissioner) in effect at the time of the filing of the consent by the taxpayer referred to in Section 6 (b) (5). The reduction shall be made as of the first day of the income year in which the discharge occurred except in the case of property not held by the taxpayer on such first day, in which case it shall take effect as of the time the holding of the taxpayer began.

Leased property

(c) Neither the basis nor the adjusted basis of any portion of real property shall, in the case of the lessor of such property, be increased or diminished on account of income derived by the lessor in respect of such property and excludible from gross income under Section 6 (b) (3). If an amount representing any part of the value of real property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by a lessee in respect of such property was included in gross income of the lessor for any income year beginning before January 1, 1942, the basis of each portion of such property shall be properly adjusted for the amount so included in gross income.

SEC. 15. Section 24 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Interest and additions to tax Failure to file return

Sec. 24. (a) If any taxpayer fails to make and file a return required by this act on or before the due date of the return or the due date as extended by the commissioner, then, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to wilful neglect, 5 per centum of the tax shall be added to the tax for each 30 days or fraction thereof elapsing between the due date of the return and the date on which filed, but the total addition shall not exceed 25 per centum of the tax. The amount so added to the tax shall be due and payable upon notice and demand from the commissioner.

If any taxpayer, upon notice and demand by the commissioner, fails or refuses to make and file a return required by this act, the commissioner is authorized to make an estimate of the net income and to compute and levy the amount of the tax due under this act from any available information, and in such case 25 per centum of the tax (in addition to the amounts added under the provisions of the preceding paragraph of this subsection) shall be added to the tax and shall be due and payable upon notice and demand from the commissioner.

If any bank or corporation fails or refuses to furnish any information as requested in writing by the commissioner, the commissioner may add a penalty of 25 per centum of the amount of any additional tax assessed by the commissioner concerning the determination of which such information was required.

(b) If any part of any deficiency is due to negligence, or intentional disregard of rules and regulations but without intent to defraud, 5 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency and other additions provided in this section) shall be assessed, collected and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency.

If any part of any deficiency is due to fraud with intent to evade tax, then 50 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency and other additions provided in this section) shall be assessed, collected and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency.

Failure to pay tax

(c) If the tax imposed by this act (whether determined by the commissioner or the taxpayer) or any installment or portion thereof is not paid on or before the date prescribed for its payment, there shall be collected as a part of the tax interest upon such unpaid amount at the rate of 6 per centum per year from the date prescribed for its payment until it is paid.

Extension of time

If the time for the payment of the tax or any installment thereof is extended by the commissioner, or if collection of a jeopardy assessment is stayed under Section 24.1 of this act, there shall be collected as part of such tax interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum a year from the date upon which such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted or collection had not been stayed until the date the tax is paid.

Interest upon the amount determined as a deficiency shall be assessed and paid at the same time as the deficiency at the rate of 6 per centum per year from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (or, if the tax is paid in installments, from the date prescribed for the payment of the first installment) to the date the deficiency is assessed; provided, however, if any portion of the deficiency is paid prior to the date it is assessed, interest shall accrue on such portion only to the date paid.

Where a deficiency, or any interest or additional amounts assessed in connection therewith, or any addition to the tax in case of delinquency provided for in subsection (a) of this section, is not paid in full within 10 days from the date of notice and demand from the commissioner, there shall be collected as a part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 6 per centum a year from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid.

Credit for overpayment

(d) When the correction of an erroneous inclusion or deduction of an item in the computation of income of any year results in an overpayment for one year and a deficiency for another year, the overpayment, if the period within which credit for the overpayment may be allowed has not expired, shall be credited on the deficiency, if the period within which the deficiency may be proposed has not expired, and the balance, if any, shall be credited or refunded as provided in Section 27. No interest shall be assessed on such portion of the deficiency as is extinguished by the credit for the period of time subsequent to the date the overpayment was made.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 27, no interest shall in any case be allowed on any overpayment to the extent credited on deficiencies pursuant to the provisions of this section.

New section

SEC. 16. Section 24.1 is hereby added to the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act:

Jeopardy assessment

Sec. 24.1. (a) If the commissioner finds that the assessment or the collection of a tax or a deficiency for any year, current or past, will be jeopardized in whole or in part by delay, he may mail or issue notice of such finding to the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax or the deficiency declared to be in jeopardy (including interest, penalties and additions thereto). In the case of a tax for a current period, the commissioner may declare the income period of the taxpayer immediately terminated and shall cause notice of such finding and declaration to be mailed or issued to the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax based on the period declared terminated, including therein income accrued and deductions incurred up to such date of termination if not otherwise properly includible or deductible in respect of such period, and such tax shall be immediately due and payable whether or not the time otherwise allowed by law for filing the return and paying the tax has expired.

Collection

(b) The jeopardy assessments provided for in this section shall be immediately due and payable and proceedings for collection may be commenced at once; provided, that the taxpayer may stay collection and prevent the jeopardy assessment from becoming final by filing, within 10 days after the date of mailing or issuing the notice of jeopardy assessment, a petition for reassessment, accompanied by a bond or other security in such amount as the commissioner may deem necessary, not exceeding double the amount (including interest, penalties, and additions thereto) as to which the stay is desired. The commissioner shall consider such petition for reassessment, and notify the taxpayer of his decision thereon, which decision shall be final. If the taxpayer has so requested in its petition, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to grant said taxpayer, or its authorized representative, an oral hearing. If petition for reassessment, accompanied by bond or other security, is not filed within the 10-day period, the assessment shall become final.

Petition for reassessment

Oral hearing

Finding of commissioner

(c) In any proceedings brought to enforce payment of taxes made due and payable by virtue of the provisions of this section, the finding of the commissioner, made as herein provided, whether made after notice to the taxpayer or not, shall be for all purposes presumptive evidence that the assessment or collection of the tax or the deficiency was in jeopardy. A certificate of the commissioner of the mailing or issuing the notices specified in this section shall be presumptive evidence that such notices were mailed or issued.

SEC. 17. Section 25 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats. 1943, Ch 37

Sec. 25. As soon as practicable after the return is filed, the commissioner shall examine it and shall determine the correct amount of the tax. If the commissioner determines that the tax disclosed by the original return is less than the tax disclosed by his examination he shall mail notice or notices to the taxpayer at its post-office address (which must appear on its return) of the additional tax proposed to be assessed against it. Each notice shall set forth the details of the proposed additional assessment and of computing said tax. Additional tax. Notice

Within 60 days after the mailing of said notice the taxpayer may file with the commissioner a written protest against the levy of the proposed additional tax, as computed by the commissioner, specifying therein the grounds upon which the protest is based. The protest must be under oath. Protest

If no such protest is so filed the amount of the tax shall be final upon the expiration of said 60-day period. If a protest is so filed it shall be the duty of the commissioner to reconsider the computation and levy of the tax complained of, and if the taxpayer has so requested in its protest, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to grant said taxpayer, or its authorized representatives, an oral hearing. After consideration of the protest and the evidence adduced in the event of such oral hearing, the commissioner's action upon the protest shall be final upon the expiration of 30 days from the date when he mails to the taxpayer notice of his action, unless within that 30-day period the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of the commissioner to the State Board of Equalization. The appeal must be addressed and mailed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, and a copy of the appeal addressed and mailed at the same time to the commissioner at Sacramento. Said board shall hear and determine the same and thereafter shall forthwith notify the taxpayer and the commissioner of its determination, and the reasons therefor. Such determination shall be final upon the expiration of 30 days from the time of such determination unless within such 30-day period the taxpayer or the commissioner files a petition for rehearing with said board, in which event the board's determination shall not become final until the expiration of 30 days from the time the board issues its opinion on said petition. Hearing, etc. Appeal

When a deficiency has been determined and the tax has become final under the provisions of this section, the commissioner shall mail notice and demand to the taxpayer for the payment thereof, and such tax shall be due and payable at the expiration of 10 days from the date of such notice and demand. Notice and demand

A certificate by the commissioner or of said board, as the case may be, of the mailing of the notices specified in this section shall be prima facie evidence of the computation and levy of the deficiency in tax and of the giving of said notices.

Limitation

Except in the case of a fraudulent return, every notice of additional tax proposed to be assessed hereunder shall be mailed to the taxpayer within four years after the return was filed and no deficiency shall be assessed or collected with respect to the year for which such return was filed unless such notice is mailed within such period; provided, that in the case of any taxpayer which shall agree with the United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue for an extension (or renewals thereof) of the period for proposing and assessing deficiencies in Federal income tax for any year, the period for mailing notices of proposed deficiency tax pursuant to this section shall (unless otherwise agreed between the commissioner and the taxpayer) be four years after the return was filed or six months after the date of the expiration of the agreed period for assessing deficiencies in Federal income tax, whichever period expires the later. For the purposes of this paragraph a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day.

Extension of assessment period

Where, before the expiration of the time prescribed in this section for the assessment of the tax, the taxpayer has consented in writing to its assessment after such time, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

Excess tax due to mathematical error

Any amount of tax in excess of that disclosed by the return, due to a mathematical error, notice of which has been mailed to the taxpayer, shall not be considered a deficiency assessment within the meaning of this section. The taxpayer shall have no right of protest or appeal as herein provided, based on such notice, nor shall such assessment or collection be prohibited by any of the provisions of this section.

Bankruptcy of taxpayer

Upon the adjudication of bankruptcy of any taxpayer in any bankruptcy proceeding or the appointment of a receiver for any taxpayer in any receivership proceeding before any court of the United States or of any State or Territory or of the District of Columbia, any deficiency (together with all interest, additional amounts, or additions to the tax provided for by law) determined by the commissioner in respect of a tax imposed by this act upon such taxpayer may be immediately assessed. In such cases the trustee in bankruptcy or receiver shall give notice in writing to the commissioner of the adjudication of bankruptcy or the appointment of the receiver, and the running of the statute of limitations on the making of assessments shall be suspended for the period from the date of adjudication in bankruptcy or the appointment of the receiver to a date 30 days after the date upon which the notice from the trustee or receiver is received by the commissioner; but the suspension under this sentence shall in no case be for a period in excess of two years. Claims for the deficiency and such interest, additional amounts and additions to the tax may be presented, for adjudication in accordance with law, to the court before which the bankruptcy or receivership proceeding is pending, despite the pendency of proceedings for the redetermination of the deficiency in pursuance of a petition to the State Board of Equalization but no petition for any such redetermination shall be filed with said board after the adjudication of bankruptcy or the appointment of the receiver. Any portion of the claim allowed in such bankruptcy or receivership proceeding which is unpaid shall be paid by the taxpayer upon notice and demand from the commissioner after determination of such proceeding and may be collected in the manner provided in this act for the collection of delinquent taxes at any time within six years after termination of such proceeding.

SEC. 18. Section 25.1 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch 37

Sec. 25.1. (a) The commissioner may, by regulation, require any bank, corporation or person including any officer or department of the State or any political subdivision or agency of the State to withhold from payments of interest (other than interest coupons payable to bearer), dividends, rent, prizes, winnings, and compensation for personal services, including bonuses, a percentage equal to the rate of tax measured by income imposed by this act on the payee and to transmit the amounts withheld to the commissioner at such time as he may designate. Any bank, corporation or person failing to withhold from any payments and transmit to the commissioner any amounts required by the commissioner pursuant to this paragraph to be withheld and transmitted shall be liable for any taxes due from the taxpayer to which such payments are made for the year in which made to an extent not in excess of the amounts required to be withheld, unless it is shown that such failure was due to reasonable cause. Withholding and payment at source

(b) The commissioner may by notice served personally or by registered mail require any bank, corporation or person, including any officer or department of the State or any political subdivision or agency of the State, to withhold from any payments of any nature to any taxpayer the amount of any tax, interest or penalties due from the taxpayer under this act and to transmit the amount withheld to the commissioner at such times as he may designate. Any bank, corporation or person failing to withhold the tax due from any taxpayer and transmit the same to the commissioner as required by the commissioner pursuant to this paragraph shall be liable for such tax.

(c) Any bank, corporation or person required to withhold and transmit any amount pursuant to this section must comply with such requirement without resort to any legal or equitable action in a court of law or equity, and any bank, corporation or person paying to the commissioner any amount required by him to be paid pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of this section shall not be liable therefor to the taxpayer from which withheld unless the amount withheld is refunded to the withholding agent. The foregoing sentence shall not be construed as a limitation upon the right of said bank, corporation or person to file an action in interpleader when a bona fide dispute has arisen as to priority of lien between the tax levied under this act and that of a Federal taxing agency.

(d) Any taxpayer from which a tax has been collected by withholding under this section shall be entitled to the remedies set forth in Sections 27 and 30 of this act; provided, however, that any refund of such tax under Section 27 shall be made to the withholding agent instead of directly to the taxpayer, if requested in writing by the withholding agent at the time the amounts refundable were transmitted to the commissioner.

Stats 1943, Ch 37

SEC. 19. Section 27 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Credits and refunds

Sec. 27. If, in the opinion of the commissioner, or the State Board of Equalization, as the case may be, there has been an overpayment of tax, penalty or interest by a taxpayer for any year for any reason, the amount of such overpayment shall be credited against any taxes then due from the taxpayer under this act, and the balance shall be refunded to the taxpayer or its successor through reorganization, merger, or consolidation, or to stockholders upon dissolution. No such credit or refund shall be allowed or made until approved by the State Board of Control. No such credit or refund shall be allowed or made after four years from the last day prescribed for filing the return or after one year from the date of the overpayment, whichever period expires the later, unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer, or unless before the expiration of such period the commissioner has certified the overpayment to the State Board of Control for approval of the refunding or the crediting thereof. If (a), the taxpayer has, within the period prescribed in the preceding sentence, agreed in writing, under the provisions of Section 25, to extend the time within which the commissioner may propose an additional assessment, or (b) if the taxpayer has agreed with the United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue for an extension (or renewals thereof) of the period for proposing and assessing deficiencies in Federal income tax for any year, the period within which a claim for credit or refund may be filed, or credit or refund allowed or made if no claim is filed, shall be the period within which the commissioner may make an assessment under such circumstances, except that the provisions of the preceding sentence shall apply to any claim filed, or credit or refund allowed or made, before the execution of such agreements. Insofar as the claim for credit or refund relates to an overpayment on account of the deductibility under Section

Claim

Extension agreement

8 (e) of a debt as one which became worthless, or an erroneous inclusion of an amount attributable to the recovery of a bad debt, prior tax or delinquency amount under Section 6 (b) (4), due to an adjustment of a bad debt deduction under Section 8 (e), in lieu of the period of limitation prescribed in the second preceding sentence, the period shall be seven years from the date prescribed by law for filing the return for the year with respect to which the claim is made. A refund claim upon which action has become final shall not thereafter be considered a refund claim within the meaning of the foregoing provision except to the extent allowed. Every claim for refund must be in writing under oath and must state the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded.

Disallowance

If the commissioner disallows any claim for refund, he shall notify the taxpayer accordingly. At the expiration of 90 days from the mailing of such notice, the commissioner's action upon the claim shall be final unless within such 90-day period, the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of the commissioner to the State Board of Equalization. If the commissioner fails to mail notice of action on any refund claim within six months after the claim was filed, the taxpayer may, prior to mailing of notice of action on the refund claim, consider the claim disallowed and appeal to said board. Appeals must be addressed and mailed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, and a copy of the appeal addressed and mailed at the same time to the commissioner at Sacramento.

Appeal

Hearing and determination

Said board shall hear and determine the same and thereafter shall forthwith notify the taxpayer and the commissioner of its determination. Such determination shall be final upon the expiration of 30 days from the time of such determination unless within such 30-day period the taxpayer or the commissioner files a petition for rehearing with said board, in which event the board's determination shall not become final until the expiration of 30 days from the time the board issues its opinion on said petition.

Rehearing

Interest

Interest shall be allowed and paid upon any overpayment of any tax, if the overpayment was not made because of an error or mistake on the part of the taxpayer, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum as follows:

(1) In the case of a credit, from the date of the overpayment to the date of the allowance of the credit. Any interest allowed on any credit shall first be credited on any taxes due from the taxpayer under this act.

(2) In the case of a refund, from the date of the overpayment to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than 30 days, such date to be determined by the commissioner.

Recovery of erroneous refunds

Any refund or any portion thereof which is erroneously made, and any credit or any portion thereof which is erroneously allowed, may be recovered, together with interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date the refund was made or the credit allowed, in an action brought by the commissioner in a court of competent jurisdiction in the County of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California, and such actions shall be tried in the County of Sacramento, unless the court, with the consent of the Attorney General or the counsel for the commissioner, orders a change of place of trial. The Attorney General or the counsel for the commissioner must prosecute such action, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for.

Tax illegally levied

In the event that a tax has been illegally levied against a taxpayer, the commissioner shall set forth on his records the reasons therefor and thereafter shall authorize the cancellation of such tax.

Stats 1943, Ch 37

SEC. 20. Section 28 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Failure to file return, etc.

Sec. 28. If any taxpayer files a false or fraudulent return, or fails or neglects to file a return, with intent to evade tax, the commissioner, at any time, may require a return, or a supplementary return, under oath, or may make an estimate of the net income from any available information, and may compute and levy the amount of tax, interest and penalties due under this act. All the provisions of this act (not in conflict herewith) relative to delinquent taxes shall be applicable to the tax, interest and penalties computed hereunder. A proceeding in court for the collection of the tax, interest and penalties provided for in this section may be begun without assessment at any time.

Stats. 1943, Ch 37

SEC. 21. Section 29 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Tax lien

Sec. 29. (a) The taxes imposed by this act and disclosed on the return shall constitute a lien upon the real property of the taxpayer, which lien shall have the same force, effect and priority as a judgment lien and shall attach on the last day of the "income year," except that in the case of a bank or corporation incorporated under the laws of this State or a foreign bank or corporation qualified to do business within the limits of this State, after the effective date of this amendment, the lien of taxes for the first taxable year of such a bank or corporation shall attach at the time of such incorporation or qualification. The taxes imposed by this act and determined pursuant to Sections 16, 25 or 28 shall constitute a lien upon all real property of the taxpayer located in any county in which there is filed for record in the office of the county recorder a certificate executed by the commissioner stating that payment of a tax determined under the provisions of Sections 16, 25 or 28 of this act has been demanded and has not been paid and specifying the amount thereof and the name of the taxpayer, and such lien shall attach at the time the certificate is recorded and shall have the same force, effect and priority as a judgment lien. The lien provided for in this section shall remain until the taxes are paid or the property subject to the lien is sold for the payment thereof, or until the lien is released or otherwise extinguished. The commissioner may at any time release all or any portion of the property subject to the lien from the lien or subordinate the lien to other liens if he determines that the taxes are sufficiently secured by a lien on other property of the taxpayer or that the release or subordination of the lien will not endanger or jeopardize the collection of such taxes. A certificate by the commissioner to the effect that any property has been released from the lien herein provided for or that such lien has been subordinated to other liens shall be conclusive evidence that the property has been released or that the lien has been subordinated as provided in the certificate. Release or subordination

(b) No decree of dissolution shall be made and entered by any court, nor shall the county clerk of any county or the Secretary of State file any such decree, or file any other document by which the term of existence of any taxpayer shall be reduced or terminated, nor shall the Secretary of State file any certificate of the surrender by a foreign corporation of its right to do intrastate business in this State unless the taxpayer obtains from the commissioner and files with said court, county clerk or Secretary of State as the case may be, a certificate to the effect the commissioner is satisfied from the available evidence that all taxes imposed by this act have been paid or are secured by bond, deposit or otherwise. Within 30 days after receiving a request for a certificate, the commissioner shall either issue the certificate or notify the person requesting the certificate of the amount of tax that must be paid or the amount of bond, deposit or other security that must be furnished as a condition of issuing the certificate. The issuance of the certificate shall not relieve the taxpayer or any individual, bank, or corporation from liability for any taxes, penalties, or interest imposed by this act. Certificate of tax, payment, etc

SEC. 22. Section 30 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch 37

Sec. 30. No injunction or writ of mandate or other legal or equitable process shall issue in any suit, action or proceeding in any court against this State or against any officer thereof to prevent or enjoin the assessment or collection of any tax under this act but any taxpayer claiming that the tax computed and levied against it pursuant to Sections 24.1 and 25 of this act is void in whole or in part may bring an action against the commissioner for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount paid. Such action must be filed within four years from the last date prescribed for filing the return or within one year from the date the tax was paid, whichever period expires the later; provided, that no action shall be filed for the recovery of a deficiency assessment unless the taxpayer has made protest to the commissioner of the computation and levy complained of under the provisions of Section 25 hereof. Action to recover tax paid

Limitation

Within 90 days after the mailing of the notice of the commissioner's action upon any refund claim, or in case of an appeal to the State Board of Equalization from the disallowance of any refund claim, within 90 days after the mailing of the notice of the board's determination of the appeal, the taxpayer may bring an action against the commissioner on the grounds set forth in such claim for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount claimed as an overpayment.

If the commissioner fails to mail notice of action on any refund claim within six months after the claim was filed, the taxpayer may, prior to mailing of notice of action on the refund claim, consider the claim disallowed and bring an action against the commissioner on the grounds set forth in such claim for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount claimed as an overpayment.

Service of papers

Whenever under the provisions of this section an action is commenced against the commissioner, a copy of the complaint and the summons must be served upon the commissioner or assistant commissioner. A second copy of the complaint and summons must be furnished to the commissioner, but this requirement shall not be considered jurisdictional. At the time the commissioner demurs or answers, he may demand that the action be tried in the Superior Court of the County of Sacramento, which demand must be granted. The Attorney General or the counsel for the commissioner must defend the action. The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for. A failure to begin such action within the time herein specified shall be a bar against the recovery of such taxes. In any such action the court shall have power to render judgment for plaintiff for any part or portion of the tax, interest, penalties or cost found to be void and so paid by plaintiff upon such assessment.

Substitution

In all actions now pending against the State Treasurer under the provisions of this act, the commissioner shall be substituted for the State Treasurer by the court wherein the action is pending. This substitution shall not in any way affect the rights of the plaintiff in said action.

If judgment is rendered against the commissioner, the amount thereof shall first be credited against any taxes and interest due from the taxpayer under this act and the remainder refunded to the taxpayer or its successor by the State Treasurer on warrant drawn by the Controller.

Interest

In any judgment of any court rendered for any overpayment in respect of any tax imposed by this act, interest shall be allowed at the rate of 6 per centum per annum upon the amount of the overpayment, from the date of the payment or collection thereof to the date of allowance of credit on account of such judgment or to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than 30 days, such date to be determined by the commissioner.

SEC. 23. Section 31 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1939, p 2934

Sec. 31. At any time within three years after the determination of liability for any tax, penalties, and interest, or any installment thereof, the commissioner may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction in the County of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California to collect the amount delinquent, together with penalties, and interest, and such action shall be tried in the County of Sacramento unless the court, with the consent of the Attorney General or the counsel for the commissioner, orders a change of place of trial. The Attorney General or the counsel for the commissioner must prosecute such action, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings, herein provided for. In such action a writ of attachment may be issued, and no bond or affidavit previous to the issuing of said attachment is required. In such action a certificate by the commissioner showing the delinquency shall be prima facie evidence of the levy of the tax, penalties, and interest, of the delinquency and of compliance by the commissioner and the State Board of Equalization with all the provisions of this act in relation to the computation and levy of the tax. Collection of delinquent taxes. Court action. Certificate of commissioner

At any time within which an action can be brought to collect any delinquent amounts as provided in the preceding paragraph, the commissioner may collect the tax, together with penalties and interest, in the following manner: The commissioner shall seize any personal property owned by the bank or corporation against whom the tax is assessed, and thereafter sell at public auction such property so seized, or a sufficient portion thereof, to pay the tax due hereunder, together with any interest, and any penalty or penalties imposed hereby for such delinquency, and any and all costs that may have been incurred on account of such seizure and sale. Notice of such intended sale and the time and place thereof, shall be given to such delinquent bank or corporation and to all persons appearing of record to have an interest in such property, in writing at least 10 days before the date set for such sale by inclosing such notice in an envelope addressed to said bank or corporation at its last known place of business in this State if any, and, in the case of any person appearing of record to have an interest in such property, addressed to such person at the last known place of residence, if any, and depositing the same in the United States mail, postage prepaid, and by publication for at least 10 days before the date set for such sale in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or city and county in which the property seized is to be sold; provided, however, that if there be no newspaper of general circulation in such county or city and county, then by the posting of such notice in three public places in such county or city and county for said 10-day period. The said Seizure and sale of property. Notice of sale notice shall contain a description of the property to be sold, together with a statement of the amount of the taxes, nterest, penalties and costs, the name of the bank or corporation, and the further statement that, unless such taxes, interest, penalties and costs are paid on or before the time fixed in said notice for such sale, said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary, will be sold in accordance with law and said notice.

Liability of person other than taxpayer

The taxes imposed by this act upon any taxpayer for which any bank, corporation or person other than the taxpayer is liable, at law or in equity, may be assessed against such bank, corporation or person in the same manner as is provided in Section 25 for the assessment of deficiencies and may be assessed at any time within which deficiency assessments may be made against the taxpayer. The provisions of this section and other provisions of this act respecting the collection of taxes shall apply to the collection of such taxes from such bank, corporation or person to the same extent and with the same force and effect as though such bank, corporation or person were the taxpayer.

Disposition of proceeds of sale, etc.

At any such sale, the property shall be sold by said commissioner or his duly authorized agent in accordance with law and said notice, and the commissioner shall deliver to the purchaser a bill of sale for the property so sold and such bill of sale shall vest title in the purchaser. The unsold portion of any property so seized may be left at the place of sale at the risk of said bank or corporation. If, upon any such sale, the moneys so received shall exceed the amount of all taxes, interest, penalties and costs due the State from such bank or corporation, any such excess shall be returned to the bank or corporation and a receipt therefor obtained; provided, however, that if any person having an interest in or lien upon the property has filed with the commissioner prior to any such sale notice of such interest or lien the commissioner shall withhold any such excess pending a determination of the rights of the respective parties thereto by a court of competent jurisdiction.

If, for any reason, the receipt of such bank or corporation shall not be available, the commissioner shall deposit such excess moneys with the State Treasurer, as trustee for such owner, subject to the order of such bank or corporation or its successor through reorganization, merger, or consolidation, or its stockholders upon dissolution.

Action in Federal or foreign court

The commissioner may bring an appropriate action (whether in the form of a common law action of debt or indebitatus assumpsit, or a code or other action), in any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States or in a foreign country, in the name of the people of the State of California, to recover the amount of any taxes and interest due under this act. The Attorney General of this State, or the counsel for the commissioner must prosecute such action.

Remedies cumulative

It is expressly provided that the foregoing remedies of the State shall be cumulative and that no action taken by the commissioner shall be or be construed to be an election on the part of the State or any of its officers to pursue any remedy hereunder to the exclusion of any other remedy for which provision is made in this act.

SEC. 24. Section 32 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch 37

Sec. 32. (a) If any tax, or any portion thereof, together with penalties, and interest thereon, which is due and payable either at the time the return is required to be filed or on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of the income year, is not paid on or before six o'clock p.m. on the last day of the twelfth month after the close of the income year or if any tax due and payable upon notice and demand from the commissioner, together with penalties and interest thereon, is not paid on or before six o'clock p.m. on the last day of the eleventh month following the due date of such tax, except in case of jeopardy or fraud assessments, in which case, if such tax, interest and penalties are not paid within 40 days from the date such tax, penalties and interest are due and payable (unless the bond required by this act is filed to stay the collection of such tax, penalties and interest and such tax, interest and penalties are paid within 60 days after notice by the commissioner on taxpayer's petition for reassessment), the corporate powers, rights and privileges of the delinquent taxpayer, if it be a domestic bank or corporation, shall be suspended and shall be incapable of being exercised for any purpose or in any manner except for the purpose of amending the articles of incorporation to set forth a new name; if the delinquent taxpayer be a foreign bank or corporation the right to exercise its corporate powers, rights and privileges in this State shall be forfeited. Suspension of corporate powers

(b) The commissioner shall transmit the name of each such bank or corporation to the Secretary of State, and the suspension or forfeiture herein provided for shall thereupon become effective and the certificate of the Secretary of State shall be prima facie evidence of such suspension or forfeiture.

(c) Any person who attempts or purports to exercise any of the rights, privileges or powers of any such domestic bank or corporation, except as hereinabove permitted, or who transacts or attempts to transact any intrastate business in the State in behalf of any such foreign bank or corporation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) and not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than 50 days or more than 500 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The jurisdiction of such offense shall be held to be in any county in which any part of such attempted exercise of such powers, or any part of such transaction of business occurred, and the district attorney of the county must prosecute such offense. In addition to the penal provisions in this paragraph, any bank or corporation which transacts business Penalty for transacting business during the period of suspension or forfeiture shall be subject to tax under the provisions of this act.

Contract: (d) Every contract made in violation of this section is hereby declared to be voidable, at the instance of any party other than the taxpayer.

Stats 1913, Ch 37 SEC. 25. Section 35 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Penalty (b) Any offense against this section shall be a misdemeanor.

Inspection by Federal and other tax agencies (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), the commissioner may permit the Commissioner of Internal Revenue of the United States, or other tax officials of this State, or the proper officer of any State imposing an income tax or tax measured by income, or the authorized representative of either such officer, to inspect the returns of any bank or corporation, or may furnish to such officer or his authorized representative an abstract of the return of income of any taxpayer or supply him with information concerning any item of income contained in any return, or disclosed by the report of any investigation of the income or return of income of any taxpayer; but such permission shall be granted or such information furnished to such officer or his representative, only if the statutes of the United States or of such other State, as the case may be, grant substantially similar privileges to the proper officer of this State charged with the administration of this act. The information furnished or secured pursuant to this subsection shall be used solely for the purposes of administering the tax acts administered by the person or agency obtaining it, and unwarranted disclosures or uses of such information by such person or agency, or the employees or officers thereof, shall be subject to the penalty provisions of this section.

Charge

(d) Whenever under this act, or any act heretofore or hereafter enacted, the commissioner is permitted or required to disclose information, or furnish abstracts, or permit access to his records to, or by any official, department, bureau, or agency of this State (including its political subdivisions), or any other State, or the United States, he may charge such official, department, bureau or agency for the reasonable cost of such services.

Constitutionality

SEC. 26. If any section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act which is reasonably separable from the remaining portions of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining portions of this act, irrespective of the fact that any such section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act be declared unconstitutional.

Tax levy

SEC. 27. (a) This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy for the usual current expenses of the State, shall under the provisions of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately. Except as hereinafter provided in subsection (b), (c), (d) and (e), the provisions of this act effecting changes in the computation of taxes shall be applied only in the computation of taxes measured by income for income years beginning after December 31, 1942, and the remaining provisions of this act shall become effective on the effective date of this act. Provisions effecting changes in the computation of taxes shall include those affecting income, deductions, rates, methods of calculating tax, exclusions, exemptions and credits.

Application of provisions

(b) The provisions of this act adding Sections 6 (b) (4) and 9.1, subsections 8 (a) (1), 17 (2), 20 (k), and amending subsections 21 (a) (relating to assumption of liability by a transferee), 20 (b) and 20 (g) of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act shall be retroactive.

(c) The provisions of this act adding subsections 8.1 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act shall be applicable in the computation of income for income years ending after December 6, 1941.

(d) The provisions of this act amending subsection 8 (f) and 21 (b) (1) (B) of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act shall be applicable in computation of income for income years ending after October 6, 1940.

(e) The provisions of this act adding subsection 8 (p) (1) shall be applicable only in the computation of income for income years beginning after December 31, 1942, except that

(1) In the case of a stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing, or annuity plan in effect on or before September 1, 1943,

(A) Such a plan shall not become subject to the requirements of Section 12 (f) (1) (C) (D) (E) (F) of The Personal Income Tax Act until the beginning of the first income year beginning after December 31, 1943,

(B) Such a plan shall be considered as satisfying the requirements of Section 12 (f) (1) (C) (D) (E) (F) of The Personal Income Tax Act for the period beginning with the beginning of the first income year following December 31, 1943, and ending December 31, 1944, if the plan satisfies such requirements by December 31, 1944,

(C) If the contribution of an employer to such a plan in the employer's income year beginning in 1943 exceeds the maximum amount deductible for such year under Section 8 (p) (1), the amount deductible in such year shall be not less than the sum of—

(i) The amount paid in such income year prior to September 1, 1943, and deductible under Section 8 (a),

(ii) With respect to the amount paid in such income year on or after September 1, 1943, that proportion of the amount which the number of months after August 31, 1943, in the income year bears to 12.

(2) In the case of a stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing or annuity plan put into effect after September 1, 1943, such a plan shall be considered as satisfying the requirements of Section 12 (f) (1) (C) (D) (E) and (F) of The Personal Income Tax Act for the period beginning with the date such plan is put into effect and ending December 31, 1944, if the plan satisfies such requirements by December 31, 1944.

CHAPTER 353

An act to amend Sections 2, 7, 7.1, 8, 9, 9.2, 9.3, 9.4, 9.5, 10, 12, 13, 16, 19 and 20 of, and to add four new sections to be numbered 7.2, 8.1, 8.3 and 34.2 to, The Personal Income Tax Act and to repeal Sections 17054, 17155, 17303, 17818, 17819, 17820 and 18156 of, and to amend Sections 17126, 17127, 17154, 17159, 17211, 17213, 17310, 17311, 17313, 17316, 17351, 17503, 17506, 17560, 17562, 17563, 17672, 17673, 17711, 17713, 17743, 17744, 17782, 17783, 17813, 17817, 17952, 18133, 18135, 18431, 18596, and 19061 of, and to add Chapter 3.5 consisting of Sections 17250 to 17257, inclusive, to Part 10 of Division 2 of, and Article 1.5, consisting of Sections 17324 to 17324.16, inclusive, to Chapter 4 of Part 10 of Division 2 of, and Article 1.7, consisting of Sections 17325 to 17350, inclusive, to Chapter 4 of Part 10 of Division 2 of, and Article 1.5, consisting of Sections 17507 to 17516, inclusive, to Chapter 5 of Part 10 of Division 2 of, and Article 4, consisting of Sections 18470 to 18479, inclusive, to Chapter 10 of Part 10 of Division 2 of, and Sections 17019.3, 17019.5, 17019.7, 17055, 17056, 17057, 17104, 17105, 17106, 17107, 17125.3, 17125.5, 17125.7, 17131, 17132, 17133, 17134, 17135, 17136, 17163.5, 17302.5, 17305.5, 17317.5, 17318.05, 17318.1, 17318.2, 17318.3, 17318.4, 17318.5, 17318.7, 17319, 17319.3, 17319 5, 17320, 17320.3, 17320.5, 17320.7, 17321, 17321 3, 17321.5, 17321.7, 17322, 17322.3, 17322.5, 17322.7, 17322.9, 17322.11, 17357, 17560.3, 17560.5, 17560.7, 17560.9, 17567, 17568, 17569, 17716.5, 17721, 17722, 17723, 17724, 17784.5, 17787, 18156, 18157, 18158, 18159, 18160, 18161, 18162, 18163, 18164, 18172.3, 18172.5, 18172.7, 19053.3, 19053.5, and 19053.7 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxes upon the incomes of individuals, estates and trusts and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately.

Stats. 1939, p 1274, amended

[Approved by Governor May 7, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State May 7, 1943.]

In effect immediately

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of The Personal Income Tax Act is hereby amended as follows:

Stats 1941, p 3220 See also Stats 1943, Ch 659

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this act and unless otherwise required by the context—

Definitions

(a) The word "commissioner" as used in this act and the word "commissioner" as used in the "Revenue Act of 1936," when any part of that act is incorporated herein by reference, mean the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Commissioner

(b) The word "taxpayer" includes any individual, fiduciary, estate, or trust subject to the tax imposed by this act.

(c) The word "individual" means a natural person.

(d) The word "fiduciary" means a guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, conservator, or any person, whether individual or corporate, acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person, estate or trust.

(e) The word "person" includes individuals, fiduciaries, partnerships and corporations.

(f) The term "partnership" includes a syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, or other unincorporated organization, through or by means of which any business, financial operation, or venture is carried on, and which is not, within the meaning of this act, a trust or estate or a corporation; and the term "partner" includes a member in such a syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, or organization.

(g) The word "corporation" includes joint-stock companies or associations, insurance companies, business trusts or so-called "Massachusetts trusts."

(h) The words "taxable year" mean the calendar year or the fiscal year, upon the basis of which the net income is computed under this act; if no fiscal year has been established they mean the calendar year.

"Taxable year" includes, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year under the provisions of this act or under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, the period for which such return is made.

(i) The words "fiscal year" mean an accounting period of 12 months ending on the last day of any month other than December.

(j) The words "paid or incurred" and "paid or accrued" shall be construed according to the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed under this act

(k) Every natural person who is in the State of California for other than a temporary or transitory purpose is a resident and every natural person domiciled within this State is a resident unless he is a resident within the meaning of that term as herein defined of some other State, Territory or country. A natural person who is domiciled outside of this State is not a resident despite the fact that he is in this State for other than a temporary or transitory purpose if he was incompetent at the time he came into this State, and this fact is evidenced by a legal adjudication of incompetency either before or after he came into this State, and has remained incompetent during his sojourn in this State. Every natural person who spends in the aggregate more than nine months of the taxable year within the State or maintains a permanent place of abode within this State shall be presumed to be a resident. The presumption may be overcome by satisfactory evidence that such person is in the State for a temporary or transitory purpose. Any natural person who is or shall become a resident of this State shall continue to be a resident even though temporarily absent from the State. Every natural person other than a resident is a nonresident.

(l) The words "foreign country" mean any jurisdiction other than one embraced within the United States. The words "United States," when used in a geographical sense, include the States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, the District of Columbia and the possessions of the United States. The word "State" shall include the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, the District of Columbia, and the possessions of the United States.

(m) The words "Revenue Act of 1936" mean the act of Congress of the United States, approved June 22, 1936, and known and cited as the "Revenue Act of 1936."

(n) The words "trade or business" include the performance of the functions of a public office.

(o) The words "State board" mean the State Board of Equalization.

(p) As used in Sections 7 (k), 8 (o), 10 (b), and 12 (j), if the husband and wife therein referred to are divorced, wherever appropriate to the meaning of such sections, the term "wife" shall be read "former wife" and the term "husband" shall be read "former husband"; and, if the payments described in such sections are made by or on behalf of the wife or former wife to the husband or former husband instead of vice versa, wherever appropriate to the meaning of such sections, the term "husband" shall be read "wife" and the term "wife" shall be read "husband."

(q) The term "military or naval forces of the United States" includes the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the Army Nurse Corps, Female, the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, the Navy Nurse Corps, Female, and the Women's Reserve branch of the Naval Reserve.

(r) The term "counsel for the commissioner," as used in Sections 20, 21 and 30 of this act and the term "Franchise Tax Counsel" as used in Section 28 of this act, mean attorney or attorneys appointed or employed by the commissioner and acting subject to the approval and under the supervision of the Attorney General.

SEC. 2. Section 7 of The Personal Income Tax Act is hereby amended as follows: Stats 1941, p 3042 See also Stats 1943, Ch. 659

Sec. 7. (a) Gross income includes gains, profits, and income derived from salaries, wages, or compensation for personal service, of whatever kind and in whatever form paid, or from professions, vocations, trades, businesses, commerce, or sales, or dealings in property, whether real or personal growing out of the ownership or use of or interest in such property; also from interest, rent, dividends, securities, or the transaction of any business carried on for gain or profit, or gains or profits and income derived from any source whatever, and includes any salary, wages or compensation of any officer or employee of this State, or any political subdivision, district or municipality thereof, and any compensation of officers and employees of the United States or agencies or instrumentalities thereof to the extent the collection of State taxes thereon is not prohibited by the terms of the "Public Salary Tax Act of 1939," (it being hereby declared to be the policy of this State to comply with the provisions of said Gross income

act) and all other gains, profits and income which the State may now or hereafter constitutionally tax.

Exclusions: (b) The following items shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from taxation under this act:

Life insurance: (1) Amounts received under a life insurance contract paid by reason of the death of the insured, whether in a single sum or otherwise (but if such amounts are held by the insurer under an agreement to pay interest thereon, the interest payments shall be included in gross income);

(2) Amounts received (other than amounts paid by reason of the death of the insured and interest payments on such amounts and other than amounts received as annuities) under a life insurance or endowment contract, but if such amounts (when added to amounts received before the taxable year under such contract) exceed the aggregate premiums or consideration paid (whether or not paid during the taxable year) then the excess shall be included in gross income. Amounts received as an annuity under an annuity or endowment contract shall be included in gross income; except that there shall be excluded from gross income the excess of the amount received in the taxable year over an amount equal to 3 per centum of the aggregate premiums or consideration paid for such annuity (whether or not paid during such year), until the aggregate amount excluded from gross income under this act in respect of such annuity increased by the amount which would have been excluded from gross income in respect of such annuity had this act been in effect continuously from and after the date at which payments under such annuity were first received equals the aggregate premiums or consideration paid for such annuity. In the case of a transfer for a valuable consideration, by assignment or otherwise, of a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, or any interest therein, only the actual value of such consideration and the amount of the premiums and other sums subsequently paid by the transferee shall be exempt from taxation under paragraph (1) or this paragraph. This subparagraph and paragraph (1) shall not apply with respect to so much of a payment under a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, or any interest therein, as, under Section 7 (k), is includible in gross income.

Annuity contract: If an annuity contract is purchased by an employer for an employee under a plan with respect to which the employer's contribution is deductible under Section 8(m), or if an annuity contract is purchased for an employee by an employer exempt under Section 4 (6) of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act, or Section 4 of the Corporation Income Tax Act, the employee shall include in his income the amounts received under such contract for the year received except that if the employee paid any of the consideration for the annuity, the annuity shall be included in his income as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the consideration for such annuity being considered the amount contributed by the employee. In all other cases, if the employee's rights under the contract are nonforfeitable except for failure to pay future premiums, the amount contributed by the employer for such annuity contract on or after such rights become nonforfeitable shall be included in the income of the employee in the year in which the amount is contributed, which amount together with any amounts contributed by the employee shall constitute the consideration paid for the annuity contract in determining the amount of the annuity required to be included in the income of the employee under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

Gifts

(3) The value of property acquired by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance. There shall not be excluded from gross income under this paragraph, the income from such property, or, in case the gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance is of income from property, the amount of such income. For the purposes of this paragraph, if, under the terms of the gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, payment, crediting, or distribution thereof is to be made at intervals, to the extent that it is paid or credited or to be distributed out of income from property, it shall be considered a gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance of income from property;

Accident insurance, etc.

(4) Except in the case of amounts attributable to (and not in excess of) deductions allowed under Section 8 (q) in any prior taxable year, amounts received, through accident or health insurance or under workmen's compensation acts, as compensation for personal injuries or sickness, plus the amount of any damages received whether by suit or agreement on account of such injuries or sickness, and amounts received as a pension, annuity, or similar allowance for personal injuries or sickness resulting from active service in the armed forces of any country;

Rental of minister's home

(5) The rental value of a dwelling house and appurtenances thereof furnished to a minister of the gospel as part of his compensation;

Compensation of foreign country official

(6) Wages, fees, or salary of an employee of a foreign country (including a consular or other officer, or a nondiplomatic representative) received as compensation for official services to such country:

(A) If such employee is not a citizen of the United States; and

(B) If the services are of a character similar to those performed by employees of the United States in foreign countries; and

(C) If the foreign country and political subdivisions thereof do not tax the wages, fees or salaries of employees of the United States performing similar services in such foreign country.

Nontaxable income

(7) Income which this State is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution or laws of the United States of America or under the Constitution of this State.

Value of lessee's improvements

(8) Income, other than rent, derived by a lessor of real property upon the termination of a lease, representing the value of such property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by the lessee.

Bad debts

(9) Income attributable to the recovery during the taxable year of a bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount, to the extent of the amount of the recovery exclusion with respect to such debt, tax, or amount. For the purposes of this paragraph:

"Bad debt"

(A) The term "bad debt" means a debt on account of worthlessness or partial worthlessness of which a deduction was allowed for a prior taxable year.

"Prior tax"

(B) The term "prior tax" means a tax on account of which a deduction or credit was allowed for a prior taxable year.

"Delinquency amount"

(C) The term "delinquency amount" means an amount paid or accrued on account of which a deduction or credit was allowed for a prior taxable year and which is attributable to failure to file return with respect to a tax, or pay a tax, within the time required by the law under which the tax is imposed, or to failure to file return with respect to a tax or pay a tax.

"Recovery exclusion"

(D) The term "recovery exclusion," with respect to a bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount, means the amount, determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner, of the deductions or credits allowed, on account of such bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount, which did not result in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax under this act, reduced by the amount excludible in previous taxable years with respect to such debt, tax, or amount under this paragraph.

Inventories

(c) (1) Whenever in the opinion of the commissioner the use of inventories is necessary in order clearly to determine the income of any taxpayer, inventories shall be taken by such taxpayer upon such basis as the commissioner may prescribe as conforming as nearly as may be to the best accounting practice in the trade or business and as most clearly reflecting the income.

Methods

(2) (A) A taxpayer may use the following method (whether or not such method has been prescribed under subdivision (1)) in inventorying goods specified in the application required under paragraph (B): (1) Inventory them at cost; (2) Treat those remaining on hand at the close of the taxable year as being: First, those included in the opening inventory of the taxable year (in the order of acquisition) to the extent thereof, and second, those acquired in the taxable year; and (3) Treat those included in the opening inventory of the taxable year in which such method is first used as having been acquired at the same time and determine their cost by the average cost method.

(B) The method described in paragraph (A) may be used (1) only in inventorying goods (required under subdivision (1) to be inventoried) specified in an application to use such method filed at such time and in such manner as the commissioner may prescribe; and (2) only if the taxpayer establishes to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the taxpayer has used no procedure other than that specified in (2) and (3) of paragraph (A) in inventorying to ascertain the income, profit, or loss of the first taxable year for which the method described in paragraph (A) is to be used, for the purpose of a report or statement covering such taxable year (i) to shareholders, partners, or other proprietors, or to beneficiaries, or (ii) for credit purposes.

(C) The change to, and the use of, such method shall be in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe as necessary in order that the use of such method may clearly reflect income.

(D) In determining income for the taxable year preceding the taxable year for which such method is first used, the closing inventory of such preceding year of the goods specified in such application shall be at cost.

Change in method

(E) If a taxpayer, having complied with paragraph (B), uses the method described in paragraph (A) for any taxable year, then such method shall be used in all subsequent taxable years unless with the approval of the commissioner a change to a different method is authorized; or the commissioner determines that the taxpayer has used for any such subsequent taxable year some procedure other than that specified in (2) of paragraph (A) in inventorying the goods specified in the application to ascertain the income, profit, or loss of such subsequent taxable year for the purpose of a report or statement covering such taxable year (i) to shareholders, partners, or other proprietors, or beneficiaries, or (ii) for credit purposes, and requires a change to a method different from that prescribed in paragraph (A) beginning with such subsequent taxable year or any taxable year thereafter. In either of the above cases, the change to, and the use of, the different method shall be in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe as necessary in order that the use of such method may clearly reflect income.

Inventory liquidation

(F) (i) If, for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, and prior to the termination of the present war as proclaimed by the President of the United States, the closing inventory of a taxpayer inventorying goods under the method provided in this subsection reflects a decrease from the opening inventory of such goods for such year, and if, at the time of the filing of the taxpayer's income tax return for such year, the taxpayer elects to have the provisions of this paragraph apply and so notifies the commissioner, and if, at the time of such election, it is established to the satisfaction of the commissioner, in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, that such decrease is attributable to the involuntary liquidation of such inventory as defined in subparagraph (ii), and if the closing inventory of a subsequent taxable year, ending not more than three years after the termination of the present war as proclaimed by the President of the United States, reflects a replacement, in whole or in part, of the goods so previously liquidated, the net income of the taxpayer otherwise determined for the year of such involuntary liquidation shall be adjusted as follows:

Adjustment

Increased by an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the aggregate cost of such goods reflected in the opening inventory of the year of involuntary liquidation over the aggregate replacement cost; or

Decreased by an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the aggregate replacement cost of such goods over the aggregate cost thereof reflected in the opening inventory of the year of the involuntary liquidation.

The taxes imposed by this act for the year of such liquidation and for all taxable years intervening between such year and the year of replacement shall be redetermined, giving effect to such adjustments. Any increase in such taxes resulting from such adjustments shall be assessed and collected as a deficiency but without interest, and any overpayment so resulting shall be credited or refunded to the taxpayer without interest.

"Involuntary liquidation"

(ii) The term "involuntary liquidation," as used in this paragraph, means the sale or other disposition of goods inventoried under the method described in this subsection, either voluntary or involuntary, coupled with a failure on the part of the taxpayer to purchase, manufacture, or otherwise produce and have on hand at the close of the taxable year in which such sale or other disposition occurred such goods as would, if on hand at the close of such taxable year, be subject to the application of the provisions of this subsection, if such failure on the part of the taxpayer is due, directly and exclusively, to enemy capture or control of sources of limited foreign supply; to shipping or other transportation shortages; to material shortages resulting from priorities or allocations; to labor shortages; or to other prevailing war conditions beyond the control of the taxpayer.

Increase

(iii) If, in the case of any taxpayer subject to the provisions of subparagraph (i), the closing inventory of the taxpayer for a taxable year, subsequent to the year of involuntary liquidation but prior to the complete replacement of the goods so liquidated, reflects an increase over the opening inventory of such goods for the taxable year, the goods reflecting such increase shall be considered, in the order of their acquisition, as having been acquired in replacement of the goods most recently liquidated (whether or not in a year of involuntary liquidation) and not previously replaced, and if the liquidation was an involuntary liquidation shall be included in the inventory of the taxpayer for the year of replacement at the inventory cost basis of the goods replaced.

Election

(iv) An election by the taxpayer to have the provisions of this paragraph apply, once made, shall be irrevocable and shall be binding for the year of the involuntary liquidation and for all determinations for subsequent taxable years insofar as they are related to the year of liquidation or replacement.

(v) If the adjustments specified in subparagraph (i) are, with respect to any taxable year, prevented, on the date of the filing of the income tax return of the taxpayer for the year of the replacement, or within three years from such date, by any provision or rule of law (other than this subparagraph), such adjustments shall nevertheless be made if, in respect of the taxable year for which the adjustment is sought, a notice of proposed additional assessment is mailed or a claim for refund is filed, as the case may be, within three years after the date of the filing of the income tax return for the year of replacement. If, at the time of the mailing of such notice of proposed additional assessment or the filing of such claim for refund, the adjustment is so prevented, then the amount of the adjustment authorized by this paragraph shall be limited to the increase or decrease of the tax imposed by this act previously determined for such taxable year which results solely from the effect of subparagraph (i), and such amount shall be assessed and collected, or credited or refunded, in the same manner as if it were a deficiency or an overpayment, as the case may be, for such taxable year and as if, on the date of the filing of the income tax return for the year of the replacement, three years remain before the expiration of the periods of limitation upon assessment or the filing of claim for refund for the taxable year. The tax previously determined shall be ascertained in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner. The amount to be assessed and collected under this paragraph in the same manner as if it were a deficiency or to be credited or refunded in the same manner as if it were an overpayment shall not be diminished by any credit or set-off based upon any item, inclusion, deduction, credit, exemption, gain, or loss, other than one resulting from the effect of subparagraph (i). Such amount, if paid, shall not be recovered by a claim or suit for refund, or suit for erroneous refund based upon any item, inclusion, deduction, credit, exemption, gain, or loss, other than one resulting from the effect of subparagraph (i). Prevented adjustments

(d) In the case of a sale or other disposition of property, the gain or loss shall be computed as provided in Sections 9.1, 9.2 and 9.3 of this act. Gain or loss on sale

(e) In the case of sales or exchanges of capital assets, the gain shall be taken into account in computing net income to the extent provided in Section 9.4 of this act. Gain on sale of capital assets

(f) In the case of taxpayers other than residents the gross income includes only the gross income from sources within this State. Gross income from sources within and without this State shall be allocated and apportioned under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner. Gross income of non-residents

Income of nonresidents from stocks, bonds, notes, or other intangible personal property shall not be considered income from sources within this State unless the property has acquired a business situs in this State, except that if a nonresident buys or sells such property in this State or places orders with brokers in this State to buy or sell such property so regularly, systematically, and continuously as to constitute doing business in this State, the profit or gain derived from such activity is income from sources within this State irrespective of the situs of the property.

Income of estates and trusts distributed or distributable to nonresident beneficiaries is income from sources within this State only if distributed or distributable out of income of the estate or trust derived from sources within this State. For the purposes of this subparagraph, the nonresident beneficiary shall be deemed to be the owner of intangible personal property from which the income of the estate or trust is derived.

Dividends

(g) (1) The term "dividend" when used in this act means any distribution made by a corporation to its shareholders, whether in money or in other property, out of its earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, or out of the earnings or profits of the taxable year (computed as of the close of the taxable year without diminution by reason of any distributions made during the taxable year), without regard to the amount of the earnings and profits at the time the distribution was made.

(2) For the purposes of this act every distribution is made out of earnings or profits to the extent thereof, and from the most recently accumulated earnings or profits. Any earnings or profits accumulated, or increase in value of property accrued, before March 1, 1913, may be distributed exempt from tax, after the earnings and profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, have been distributed, but any such tax-free distribution shall be applied against and reduce the adjusted basis of the stock provided in Section 9.3 (b).

(3) Amounts distributed in complete liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in full payment in exchange for the stock and amounts distributed in partial liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in part or full payment in exchange for the stock. The gain or loss to the distributee resulting from such exchange shall be determined under Section 9.1, and shall be recognized only to the extent provided in Section 9.2. In the case of amounts distributed (whether before or after the effective date of this amendment) in partial liquidation (other than a distribution within the provisions of subdivision (7) of this subsection of stock or securities in connection with a reorganization) the part of such distribution which is properly chargeable to capital account shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits. In the case of amounts distributed (whether before January 1, 1934, or on or after such date) in partial liquidation (other than a distribution within the provisions of subdivision (7) of this subsection of stock or securities in connection with a reorganization) the part of such distribution which is properly chargeable to capital account shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits within the meaning of subdivision (2) of this subsection for the purpose of determining the taxability of subsequent distributions by the corporation.

(4) If any distribution (not in partial or complete liquidation) made by a corporation to its shareholders is not out of increase in value of property accrued before March 1, 1913, and is not a dividend, then the amount of such distribution shall be applied against and reduce the adjusted basis of the stock provided in Section 9.3 (b) of this act, and if in excess of such basis, such excess shall be taxable in the same manner as a gain from the sale or exchange of property.

(5) (A) A distribution made by a corporation to its shareholders in its stock or in rights to acquire its stock shall be treated as a dividend to the extent that it constitutes income to the shareholder within the meaning of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

(B) Whenever a distribution by a corporation is, at the election of any of the shareholders (whether exercised before or after the declaration thereof), payable either (i) in its stock or in rights to acquire its stock, of a class which if distributed without election would be exempt from tax under paragraph (A), or (ii) in money or any other property (including its stock or rights to acquire its stock, of a class which if distributed without election would not be exempt from tax under paragraph (A)), then the distribution shall constitute a taxable dividend in the hands of all shareholders, regardless of the medium in which paid.

(6) If a corporation cancels or redeems its stock (whether or not such stock was issued as a stock dividend) at such time and in such manner as to make the distribution and cancellation or redemption in whole or in part essentially equivalent to the distribution of a taxable dividend, the amount so distributed in redemption or cancellation of the stock, to the extent that it represents a distribution of earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, shall be treated as a taxable dividend.

(7) The distribution heretofore or hereafter made to a distributee by or on behalf of a corporation of its stock or securities or stock or securities in another corporation shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits of any corporation:

(A) If no gain to such distributee from the receipts of such stock or securities was recognized under the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1936 or prior Federal revenue acts in effect at the time of the distribution, or

(B) If the distribution was not subject to tax in the hands of such distributee under the Federal Revenue Act of 1936 or prior Federal revenue acts in effect at the time of the distribution because it did not constitute income to him within the meaning of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States or because exempted to him under Section 115 (f) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1934, or a corresponding provision of a prior Federal revenue act.

As used in this subsection, the term "stock or securities" includes rights to acquire stock or securities.

(8) As used in this subsection the term "amount distributed in partial liquidation" means a distribution by a corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of a part of its stock, or one of a series of distributions in complete cancellation or redemption of all or a portion of its stock.

(9) If the whole or any part of a dividend is paid to a shareholder in any medium other than money the property received other than money shall be included in gross income at its fair market value at the time as of which it becomes income to the shareholder.

(10) The gain or loss realized from the sale or other disposition (after February 28, 1913) of property by a corporation for the purpose of the computation of earnings and profits of the corporation for any period beginning after February 28, 1913, shall be determined by using as the adjusted basis the adjusted basis (under the law applicable to the year in which the sale or other disposition was made) for determining gain. Gain or loss so realized shall increase or decrease the earnings and profits to, but not beyond, the extent to which such a realized gain or loss was recognized in computing net income under the law applicable to the year in which such sale or disposition was made. Where in determining the adjusted basis used in computing such realized gain or loss the adjustment to the basis differs from the adjustment proper for the purpose of determining earnings or profits, then the latter adjustment shall be used in determining the increase or decrease above provided. For the purposes of this subsection, a loss with respect to which a deduction is disallowed under Section 8(d) of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act or Section 7(d) of the Corporation Income Tax Act shall not be deemed to be recognized.

Where a corporation receives (after February 28, 1913) a distribution from a second corporation which (under the law applicable to the year in which the distribution was made) was not a taxable dividend to the shareholders of the second corporation, the amount of such distribution shall not increase the earnings and profits of the first corporation in the following cases:

(A) No such increase shall be made in respect of the part of such distribution which (under such law) is directly applied in reduction of the basis of the stock in respect of which the distribution was made.

(B) No such increase shall be made if (under such law) the distribution causes the basis of the stock in respect of which the distribution was made to be allocated between such stock and the property received.

For the purposes of this subdivision, the words "law applicable to the year" shall be deemed to refer to the State act or the United States Revenue Act in force for the year in which the sale or other disposition was made.

(11) (A) If any increase or decrease in the earnings or profits for any period beginning after February 28, 1913, with respect to any matter would be different had the adjusted basis of the property involved been determined without regard to its March 1, 1913, value, then, except as provided in paragraph (B), an increase (properly reflecting such difference) shall be made in that part of the earnings and profits consisting of increase in value of property accrued before March 1, 1913.

(B) If the application of subdivision (10) to a sale or other disposition after February 28, 1913, results in a loss which is to be applied in decrease of earnings and profits for any period beginning after February 28, 1913, then, notwithstanding subdivision (10) and in lieu of the rule provided in paragraph (A) of this subdivision, the amount of such loss so to be applied shall be reduced by the amount, if any, by which the adjusted basis of the property used in determining the loss, exceeds the adjusted basis computed without regard to the value of the property on March 1, 1913, and if such amount so applied in reduction of the decrease exceeds such loss, the excess over such loss shall increase that part of the earnings and profits consisting of increase in value of property accrued before March 1, 1913.

Canceled debts

(h) If the indebtedness of a taxpayer is canceled or forgiven in whole or in part without payment, the amount so canceled or forgiven shall constitute income to the extent the value of the property of the taxpayer exceeds his liabilities immediately after the cancellation or forgiveness. The remainder of the amount of indebtedness so canceled or forgiven, if any, shall be applied in reduction of the basis of the assets to the extent the basis thereof exceeds the value thereof immediately after the cancellation or forgiveness, such reduction to be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

If an indebtedness is not paid by the time an action to enforce payment is barred by limitation, the indebtedness shall be considered canceled or forgiven within the meaning of this subsection unless it can be established that the period of limitation has been extended by a new promise in writing.

Excess value on purchase or exchange

(i) Where property is acquired in a transaction purporting to be a purchase or an exchange (including transactions described in Section 9.2, relating to the nonrecognition of gain, but excluding foreclosures or repossessions of properties held for security), and the value thereof is substantially in excess of the value of the money or property surrendered or agreed to be surrendered as a condition of such acquisition, the excess value shall be considered ordinary income taxable under the provisions of this act, unless it can be established (a) that the sole consideration for the acquisition of the property was the money or property surrendered or agreed to be surrendered, or (b) that the excess value was a gift, or (c) that for some other reason the excess value does not constitute income or the gain represented thereby is not recognized.

(j) The repeal in 1937 of Sections 2 (o) and 34 of The Personal Income Tax Act of 1935 shall not be construed to sanction double taxation of income.

Divorce or separation

(k) In the case of a wife who is divorced or legally separated from her husband under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance, periodic payments (whether or not made at regular intervals) received subsequent to such decree in discharge of, or attributable to property transferred (in trust or otherwise) in discharge of, a legal obligation which, because of the marital or family relationship, is imposed upon or incurred by such husband under such decree or under a written instrument incident to such divorce or separation shall be includible in the gross income of such wife, and such amounts received as are attributable to property so transferred shall not be includible in the gross income of such husband. This subsection shall not apply to that part of any such periodic payment which the terms of the decree or written instrument fix, in terms of an amount of money or a portion of the payment, as a sum which is payable for the support of minor children of such husband. In case any such periodic payment is less than the amount specified in the decree or written instrument, for the purpose of applying the preceding sentence, such payment, to the extent of such sum payable for such support, shall be considered a payment for such support. Installment payments discharging a part of an obligation the principal sum of which is, in terms of money or property, specified in the decree or instrument shall not be considered periodic payments for the purposes of this subsection; except that an installment payment shall be considered a periodic payment for the purposes of this subsection if such principal sum, by the terms of the decree or instrument, may be or is to be paid within a period ending more than 10 years from the date of such decree or instrument, but only to the extent that such installment payment for the taxable year of the wife (or if more than one such installment payment for such taxable year is received during such taxable year, the aggregate of such installment payments) does not exceed 10 per centum of such principal sum. For the purposes of the preceding sentence, the portion of a payment of the principal sum which is allocable to a period after the taxable year of the wife in which it is received shall be considered an installment payment for the taxable year in which it is received.

SEC. 3. Section 7.1 of The Personal Income Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Compensation covering 3 or more years period

Sec. 7.1. (a) If at least 80 per centum of the total compensation for personal services covering a period of 36 calendar months or more (from the beginning to the completion of such services) is received or accrued in one taxable year by an individual or a partnership, the tax attributable to any part thereof which is included in the gross income of any individual shall not be greater than the aggregate of the taxes attributable to such part had it been included in the gross income of such individual ratably over that part of the period which precedes the date of such receipt or accrual.

Compensation for artistic work or invention

(b) For the purposes of this subsection, the term "artistic work or invention," in the case of an individual, means a literary, musical, or artistic composition of such individual or a patent or copyright covering an invention of or a literary, musical, or artistic composition of such individual, the work on which by such individual covered a period of 36 calendar months or more from the beginning to the completion of such composition or invention. If, in the taxable year, the gross income of any individual from a particular artistic work or invention by him is not less than 80 per centum of the gross income in respect of such artistic work or invention in the taxable year plus the gross income therefrom in previous taxable years and the 12 months immediately succeeding the close of the taxable year, the tax attributable to the part of such gross income of the taxable year which is not taxable as a gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than one year shall not be greater than the aggregate of the taxes attributable to such part had it been received ratably over that part of the period preceding the close of the taxable year but not more than 36 calendar months.

(c) For the purposes of this section a fractional part of a month shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month in which case it shall be considered as a month.

SEC. 4. Section 7.2 is hereby added to The Personal Income Tax Act, as follows:

Gross income in respect of a decedent

Sec. 7.2. (a) (1) The amount of all items of gross income in respect of a decedent which are not properly includible in respect of the taxable period in which falls the date of his death or a prior period shall be included in the gross income, for the taxable year when received, of:

(A) The estate of the decedent, if the right to receive the amount is acquired by the decedent's estate from the decedent;

(B) The person who, by reason of the death of the decedent, acquires the right to receive the amount, if the right to receive the amount is not acquired by the decedent's estate from the decedent; or

(C) The person who acquires from the decedent the right to receive the amount by bequest, devise, or inheritance, if the amount is received after a distribution by the decedent's estate of such right.

(2) If a right, described in paragraph (1), to receive an amount is transferred by the estate of the decedent or a person who receives such right by reason of the death of the decedent or by bequest, devise, or inheritance from the decedent, there shall be included in the gross income of the estate or such person, as the case may be, for the taxable period in which the transfer occurs, the fair market value of such right at the time of such transfer plus the amount by which any consideration for the transfer exceeds such fair market value. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "transfer" includes sale, exchange, or other disposition, but does not include a transfer to a person pursuant to the right of such person to receive such amount by reason of the death of the decedent or by bequest, devise, or inheritance from the decedent.

(3) The right, described in paragraph (1), to receive an amount shall be treated, in the hands of the estate of the decedent or any person who acquired such right by reason of the death of the decedent, or by bequest, devise, or inheritance from the decedent, as if it had been acquired by the estate or such person in the transaction by which the decedent acquired such right; and the amount includible in gross income under paragraph (1) or (2) shall be considered in the hands of the estate or such person to have the character which it would have had in the hands of the decedent if the decedent had lived and received such amount.

Deductions in respect of a decedent

(b) The amount of any deduction specified in Section 8 (a), (b), (c), or (j) (relating to deductions for expenses, interest, taxes, and depletion), in respect of a decedent which is not properly allowable to the decedent in respect of the taxable period in which falls the date of his death, or a prior period, shall be allowed:

(1) In the case of a deduction specified in Section 8 (a), (b), or (c) in the taxable year when paid—

(A) To the estate of the decedent; except that

(B) If the estate of the decedent is not liable to discharge the obligation to which the deduction relates, to the person who, by reason of the death of the decedent or by bequest, devise, or inheritance acquires, subject to such obligation, from the decedent an interest in property of the decedent.

(2) In the case of the deduction specified in Section 8 (j), to the person described in subsection (a) (1) (A), (B), or (C) who, in the manner described therein, receives the income to which the deduction relates, in the taxable year when such income is received.

(c) (1) A person who includes an amount in gross income under subsection (a) shall be allowed, for the same taxable year, as a deduction an amount which bears the same ratio to the California inheritance tax attributable to the net value for estate tax purposes of all the items described in subsection (a) (1) as the value for inheritance tax purposes of the items of gross income or portions thereof in respect of which such person included the amount in gross income (or the amount included in gross income, whichever is lower) bears to the value for inheritance tax purposes of all the items described in subsection (a) (1).

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1):

(A) The term "inheritance tax" means the tax imposed upon the beneficiary of the decedent under the California Inheritance Tax Act.

(B) The net value for inheritance tax purposes of all the items described in subsection (a) (1) shall be the excess of the value for inheritance tax purposes of all the items described in subsection (a) (1) over the deductions from the gross estate in respect of claims which represent the deductions described in subsection (b).

(C) The inheritance tax attributable to such net value shall be an amount equal to the excess of the inheritance tax over the inheritance tax computed without including in the gross estate such net value.

SEC. 5. Section 8 of The Personal Income Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows: Stats 1943, Ch 26

See also Stats 1943, Ch 659

Sec. 8. In computing net income there shall be allowed as deductions:

Deductions from gross income:

(a) (1) (A) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered; traveling expenses (including the entire amount expended for meals and lodging) while away from home in the pursuit of a trade or business; and rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession, for purposes of the trade or business, of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which he has no equity. Business expenses

In the case of any taxpayer the deductions permitted by this subsection shall not be allowed if, and to the extent that they are connected with the production of income not taxable under this act, and proper apportionment and allocation of such deductions with respect to taxable and nontaxable income shall be determined under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner.

(B) No deduction shall be allowable under subparagraph (A) for any contribution or gift which would be allowable as a deduction under Subsection 8 (l) were it not for the 15 per centum limitation therein contained and for the requirement therein that payment must be made within the taxable year.

(2) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year for the production or collection of income, or for the management, conservation, or maintenance of property held for the production of income. Collection of income

(b) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness of the taxpayer; provided, however, in the case of any taxpayer the deduction permitted by this subdivision shall not be allowed if, and to the extent that such deduction is connected with income not taxable under this act; and provided further, no such deduction shall be allowed Interest on debts or taken for interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations, the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxes imposed by this act. The proper apportionment and allocation of such deductions with respect to taxable and nontaxable income shall be determined under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner.

Taxes or licenses

(c) Taxes or licenses paid or accrued during the taxable year, other than taxes paid or accrued to the State under this act, and other than taxes on or according to or measured by income or profits paid or accrued within the taxable year imposed by the authority of (1) the Government of the United States or any foreign country, (2) any State, Territory, county, city and county, school district, municipality or other taxing subdivision of any State or Territory, and other than estate, inheritance, legacy, succession and gift taxes, and other than taxes computed as an addition to, or as a percentage of taxes which are not deductible hereunder and other than taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, but this shall not exclude the allowance as a deduction of so much of said taxes assessed against local benefits as is properly allocable to maintenance or interest charges. Taxes or licenses paid or accrued to this State or its political subdivisions which are deductible under the provisions of this subsection shall be deductible by nonresidents even though not connected with income from sources within this State.

(1) In the case of a tax imposed by any State, Territory, district, or possession of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof, upon persons engaged in selling tangible personal property at retail, which is measured by the gross sales price or the gross receipts from the sale or which is a stated sum per unit of such property sold, or upon persons engaged in furnishing services at retail, which is measured by the gross receipts for furnishing such services, if the amount of such tax is separately stated, then to the extent that the amount so stated is paid by the purchaser (otherwise than in connection with the purchaser's trade or business) to such person such amount shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the net income of such purchaser as if such amount constituted a tax imposed upon and paid by such purchaser.

Losses

(d) Losses sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise:

(1) If incurred in trade or business; or

(2) If incurred in any transaction entered into for profit, though not connected with the trade or business; or

(3) Of property not connected with the trade or business, if the loss arises from fires, storms, shipwreck, or other casualty, or from theft.

The basis for determining the amount of deduction for losses sustained, to be allowed under this subsection shall be the adjusted basis provided in Section 9.3 (b) of this act for determining the loss from the sale or other disposition of property.

(e) Losses from wagering transactions shall be allowed only to the extent of the gains from such transactions. Wagering losses

(f) (1) Debts which become worthless within the taxable year (or in the discretion of the commissioner a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts) and when satisfied that a debt is recoverable only in part, the commissioner may allow such debt as a deduction, in an amount not in excess of the amount which becomes worthless in the taxable year; provided, however, that if a debt was actually worthless prior to January 1, 1943, but was not ascertained to be worthless and charged off prior to said date, a deduction may be taken therefor during the first taxable year ending after December 31, 1942; and, provided, that if a portion of a debt is claimed and allowed as a deduction in any year no deduction shall be allowed in any subsequent year for any portion of the debt which in any prior year became worthless, regardless of whether or not claimed as a deduction in such prior year. This paragraph shall not apply with respect to a debt evidenced by a security as defined in paragraph (3) of this subsection. Worthless debts

(2) If any securities (as defined in paragraph (3) of this subsection) become worthless within the taxable year and are capital assets, the loss resulting shall be considered as a loss from the sale or exchange, on the last day of such taxable year, of capital assets.

(3) As used in this subsection, the term "securities" means bonds, debentures, notes, or certificates, or other evidences of indebtedness, issued by any corporation (including those issued by a government or political subdivision thereof) with interest coupons or in registered form.

(g) In the case of any loss claimed to have been sustained from any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities where it appears that, within a period beginning 30 days before the date of such sale or disposition and ending 30 days after such date, the taxpayer has acquired (by purchase or by an exchange upon which the entire amount of gain or loss was recognized by law) or has entered into a contract or option so to acquire, substantially identical stock or securities, then no deduction for the loss shall be allowed. If the amount of stock or securities acquired (or covered by the contract or option to acquire) is less than the amount of stock or securities sold or otherwise disposed of, then the particular shares of stock or securities the loss from the sale or other disposition of which is not deductible shall be determined under rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner. Loss from disposition of securities

If the amount of stock or securities acquired (or covered by the contract or option to acquire) is not less than the amount of stock or securities sold or otherwise disposed of, then the particular shares of stock or securities the acquisition of which (or the contract or option to acquire which) resulted in the nondeductibility of the loss shall be determined under the rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Loss from sale or exchange of capital assets

(h) (1) Losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be allowed only to the extent provided in Section 9.4 of this act.

(2) If any securities (as defined in paragraph (3) of this subsection) become worthless during the taxable year and are capital assets, the loss resulting therefrom shall, for the purposes of this act, be considered as a loss from the sale or exchange, on the last day of the taxable year, of capital assets.

(3) As used in this subsection, the term "securities" means (A) shares of stock in a corporation, and (B) rights to subscribe for or to receive such shares.

Obsolescence, etc

(i) A reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear of property used in the trade or business, or of property held for the production of net income, including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence. A taxpayer may elect to claim a deduction for amortization of emergency facilities (as defined by Section 124 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended) under regulations prescribed by the commissioner. In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiaries and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each.

Depletion

(j) In the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits, and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements, according to the peculiar conditions in each case; such reasonable allowance in all cases to be made under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner. In any case in which it is ascertained as a result of operations or of development work that the recoverable units are greater or less than the prior estimate thereof, then such prior estimate (but not the basis for depletion) shall be revised and the allowance under this subsection for subsequent taxable years shall be based upon such revised estimate. In the case of leases the deductions shall be equitably apportioned between the lessor and the lessee. In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiaries and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each The percentage of depletion allowable under this subsection shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 9.5 (b) (3) and (4) of this act.

(k) The basis upon which depletion, exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be as provided in Section 9.5 of this act.

(l) In the case of an individual, contributions or gifts payment of which is made within the taxable year to or for the use of: Gifts

(1) The United States, any State, Territory or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for exclusively public purposes;

(2) A corporation, or trust, or community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation;

(3) The special fund for vocational rehabilitation authorized by Section 12 of the World War Veterans' Act, 1924;

(4) Posts or organizations of war veterans, or auxiliary units or societies of any such posts or organizations, if such posts, organizations, units, or societies are organized in the United States or any of its possessions, and if no part of their net earnings inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual; or

(5) A fraternal society, order, or association; operating under the lodge system, but only if such contributions or gifts are to be used exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals.

The deductions under this subsection shall be allowed to an amount which in all the above cases combined does not exceed 15 per centum of the taxpayer's net income as computed without the benefit of this subsection or of subsection (q). Such contributions or gifts shall be allowed as deductions only if verified under rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner. Limitation

In the case of an individual if in the taxable year and in each of the 10 preceding taxable years the amount of the contributions or gifts described in this subsection plus the amount of income, war profits, or excess profits taxes paid during such year in respect of preceding taxable years, exceeds 90 per centum of the taxpayer's net income for each such year, as computed without the benefit of this subsection then the 15 per centum limit imposed herein shall not be applicable.

In the case of a taxpayer other than a resident the deductions under this subsection shall be allowed only as to contributions or gifts to corporations or associations incorporated by or organized under the laws of this State or to the vocational rehabilitation fund above mentioned or to this State or any political subdivision thereof for exclusively public purposes.

Contributions by employer to stock bonus, etc., plans

(m) (1) If contributions are paid by an employer to or under a stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing, or annuity plan, or if compensation is paid or accrued on account of any employee under a plan deferring the receipt of such compensation, such contributions or compensation shall not be deductible under subsection (a) but shall be deductible, if deductible under subsection (a) without regard to this subsection, under this subsection but only to the following extent:

(A) In the taxable year when paid, if the contributions are paid into a pension trust, and if such taxable year ends within or with a taxable year of the trust for which the trust is exempt under Section 12 (f), in an amount determined as follows:

(i) An amount not in excess of 5 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during the taxable year to all the employees under the trust, but such amount may be reduced for future years if found by the commissioner upon periodical examinations at not less than five-year intervals to be more than the amount reasonably necessary to provide the remaining unfunded cost of past and current service credits of all employees under the plan, plus

(ii) Any excess over the amount allowable under clause (i) necessary to provide with respect to all of the employees under the trust the remaining unfunded cost of their past and current service credits distributed as a level amount, or a level percentage of compensation, over the remaining future service of each such employee, as determined under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, but if such remaining unfunded cost with respect to any three individuals is more than 50 per centum of such remaining unfunded cost, the amount of such unfunded cost attributable to such individuals shall be distributed over a period of at least five taxable years, or

(iii) In lieu of the amounts allowable under (i) and (ii) above, an amount equal to the normal cost of the plan, as determined under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, plus, if past service or other supplementary pension or annuity credits are provided by the plan, an amount not in excess of 10 per centum of the cost which would be required to completely fund or purchase such pension or annuity credits as of the date when they are included in the plan, as determined under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, except that in no case shall a deduction be allowed for any amount (other than the normal cost) paid in after such pension or annuity credits are completely funded or purchased.

(iv) Any amount paid in a taxable year in excess of the amount deductible in such year under the foregoing limitations shall be deductible in the succeeding taxable years in order of time to the extent of the difference between the amount paid and deductible in each such succeeding year and the maximum amount deductible for such year in accordance with the foregoing limitations.

(B) In the taxable year when paid, in an amount determined in accordance with subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, if the contributions are paid toward the purchase of retirement annuities and such purchase is a part of a plan which meets the requirements of Section 12 (f) (1) (C) (D) (E) (F), and if refunds of premiums, if any, are applied within the current taxable year or next succeeding taxable year toward the purchase of such retirement annuities.

(C) In the taxable year when paid, if the contributions are paid into a stock bonus or profit-sharing trust, and if such taxable year ends within or with a taxable year of the trust with respect to which the trust is exempt under Section 12 (f), in an amount not in excess of 15 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during the taxable year to all employees under the stock bonus or profit-sharing plan. If in any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, there is paid into the trust, or a similar trust then in effect, amounts less than the amounts deductible under the preceding sentence, the excess, or if no amount is paid, the amounts deductible, shall be carried forward and be deductible when paid in the succeeding taxable years in order of time, but the amount so deductible under this sentence in any such succeeding taxable year shall not exceed 15 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during such succeeding taxable year to the beneficiaries under the plan. In addition, any amount paid into the trust in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, in excess of the amount allowable with respect to such year under the preceding provisions of this subparagraph shall be deductible in the succeeding taxable years in order of time, but the amount so deductible under this sentence in any one such succeeding taxable year together with the amount allowable under the first sentence of this subparagraph shall not exceed 15 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during such taxable year to the beneficiaries under the plan. The term "stock bonus or profit-sharing trust," as used in this subparagraph, shall not include any trust designed to provide benefits upon retirement and covering a period of years, if under the plan the amounts to be contributed by the employer can be determined actuarily as provided in subparagraph (A). If the contributions are made to two or more stock bonus or profit-sharing trusts, such trusts shall be considered a single trust for the purposes of applying the limitations in this subparagraph.

(D) In the taxable year when paid, if the plan is not one included in paragraphs (A), (B), or (C), if the employees' rights to or derived from such employer's contribution or such compensation are nonforfeitable at the time the contribution or compensation is paid.

(E) For the purposes of subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C), a taxpayer on the accrual basis shall be deemed to have made a payment on the last day of the year of accrual if the payment is on account of such taxable year and is made within 60 days after the close of the taxable year of accrual.

(F) If amounts are deductible under subparagraphs (A) and (C), or (B) and (C), or (A), (B), and (C), in connection with two or more trusts, or one or more trusts and an annuity plan, the total amount deductible in a taxable year under such trusts and plans shall not exceed 25 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during the taxable year to the persons who are the beneficiaries of the trusts or plans. In addition, any amount paid into such trust or under such annuity plans in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, in excess of the amount allowable with respect to such year under the preceding provisions of this subparagraph shall be deductible in the succeeding taxable years in order of time, but the amount so deductible under this sentence in any one such succeeding taxable year together with the amount allowable under the first sentence of this subparagraph shall not exceed 30 per centum of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during such taxable years to the beneficiaries under the trusts or plans. This subparagraph shall not have the effect of reducing the amount otherwise deductible under subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C), if no employee is a beneficiary under more than one trust, or a trust and an annuity plan.

If there is no plan but a method of employer contributions or compensation has the effect of a stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing, or annuity plan, or similar plan deferring the receipt of compensation, this paragraph shall apply as if there were such a plan.

(2) Any deduction allowable under this subsection (as it read prior to the 1943 amendment) for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1943, which was apportioned to any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, shall be allowed as a deduction for the years to which so apportioned to the extent allowable under this subsection as it then read if it had remained in force with respect to such year.

Nonresident taxpayer

(n) In the case of a taxpayer other than a resident the deductions allowed by this section shall unless otherwise provided in this section be allowed only if and to the extent that they are connected with the income arising from sources within this State and taxable under this act to a nonresident taxpayer, and the proper apportionment and allocation of the deductions with respect to sources of income within and without the State shall be determined under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner.

Gross income of husband

(o) In the case of a husband described in Section 7 (k), amounts includible under Section 7 (k) in the gross income of his wife, payment of which is made within the husband's taxable year. If the amount of any such payment is, under Section 7 (k) or Section 12 (j), stated to be not includible in such husband's gross income, no deduction shall be allowed with respect to such payment under this subsection.

(p) In the case of a bondholder, the deduction for amortizable bond premium provided in subsections (1), (2) and (3). Amortizable bond premium

(1) In the case of any bond, as defined in subsection (3), the following rules shall apply to the amortizable bond premium (determined under subsection (2)) on the bond for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942.

(A) In the case of a bond (other than a bond the interest on which is excludible from gross income), the amount of the amortizable bond premium for the taxable year shall be allowed as a deduction.

(B) In the case of any bond the interest on which is excludible from gross income, no deduction shall be allowed for the amortizable bond premium for the taxable year.

(2) (A) For the purposes of paragraph (B), the amount of bond premium, in the case of the holder of any bond, shall be determined with reference to the amount of the basis (for determining loss on sale or exchange) of such bond, and with reference to the amount payable on maturity or on earlier call date, with adjustments proper to reflect unamortized bond premium with respect to the bond, for the period prior to the date as of which subsection (1) becomes applicable with respect to the taxpayer with respect to such bond.

(B) The amortizable bond premium of the taxable year shall be the amount of the bond premium attributable to such year.

(C) The determinations required under paragraphs (A) and (B) shall be made—

(i) In accordance with the method of amortizing bond premium regularly employed by the holder of the bond, if such method is reasonable;

(ii) In all other cases, in accordance with regulations prescribing reasonable methods of amortizing bond premium, prescribed by the commissioner.

(3) As used in this section, the term "bond" means any bond, debenture, note, or certificate or other evidence of indebtedness, issued by any corporation and bearing interest (including any like obligation issued by a government or political subdivision thereof), with interest coupons or in registered form, but does not include any such obligation which constitutes stock in trade of the taxpayer or any such obligation of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or any such obligation held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business. "Bond"

(4) The amount of the amortizable bond premium for the taxable year shall be allowed as a deduction only if a taxpayer has elected to claim such deduction Such election shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner shall prescribe. If such election is made with respect to any bond, it shall also apply to all such bonds held by the taxpayer at the beginning of the first taxable year to which the election applies and to all such bonds thereafter acquired by it, and shall be binding for all subsequent taxable years with respect Election to all such bonds of the taxpayer, unless, upon application by the taxpayer, the commissioner permits him, subject to such conditions as the commissioner deems necessary, to revoke such election.

Medical expenses

(q) Except as limited under paragraph (1) or (2), expenses paid during the taxable year, not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, for medical care of the taxpayer, his spouse, or a dependent of the taxpayer as specified in Section 10 (b). The term "medical care," as used in this subsection, shall include amounts paid for the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease, or for the purpose of affecting any structure or function of the body (including amounts paid for accident or health insurance).

Extent of deduction

(1) A husband and wife who file a joint return may deduct only such expenses as exceed 5 per centum of the aggregate net income of such husband and wife, computed without the benefit of this subsection, and the maximum deduction for the taxable year shall be not in excess of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) in the case of such husband and wife.

(2) An individual who files a separate return may deduct only such expenses as exceed 5 per centum of the net income of the taxpayer, computed without the benefit of this subsection, and the maximum deduction for the taxable year shall be not in excess of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) in the case of the head of a family, and not in excess of one thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($1,250) in the case of all other such individuals.

Tenant-stockholder

(r) (1) In the case of a tenant-stockholder (as defined in paragraph (2)), amounts, not otherwise deductible, paid or accrued to a cooperative apartment corporation within the taxable year, if such amounts represent that proportion of the real estate taxes on the apartment building and the land on which it is situated, allowable as deductions under subsection (c), paid or incurred by the corporation, or of the interest paid or incurred by the corporation on its indebtedness contracted in the acquisition, construction, alteration, rehabilitation, or maintenance of such apartment building or in the acquisition of the land on which the building is located, which the stock of the corporation owned by the tenant-stockholder is of the total outstanding stock of the corporation, including that held by the corporation.

(2) For the purposes of this subsection—

"Cooperative apartment corporation"

(A) The term "cooperative apartment corporation" means a corporation—

(i) Having one and only one class of stock outstanding,

(ii) All of the stockholders of which are entitled, solely by reason of their ownership of stock in the corporation, to occupy for dwelling purposes apartments in a building owned or leased by such corporation, and who are not entitled, either conditionally or unconditionally, except upon a complete or partial liquidation of the corporation, to receive any distribution not out of earnings and profits of the corporation, and

(iii) Eighty per centum or more of the gross income of which for the taxable year in which the taxes and interest described in paragraph (1) are paid or incurred is derived from tenant-stockholders.

(B) The term "tenant-stockholder" means an individual who is a stockholder in a cooperative apartment corporation, and whose stock is fully paid-up in an amount not less than an amount shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner as bearing a reasonable relationship to the portion of the value of the corporation's equity in the building and the land on which it is situated which is attributable to the apartment which such individual is entitled to occupy. "Tenant-stockholder"

(s) (1) In the case of a person described in Section 7.2(b), the amount of the deductions in respect of a decedent to the extent allowed by such subsection. Deductions in respect of decedent

(2) In the case of a person described in Section 7.2(b), the amount of the deductions in respect of a decedent to the extent allowed by Section 7.2(c).

SEC. 6. Section 8.1 is hereby added to The Personal Income Tax Act, to read as follows: New section See also Stats 1943, Ch 659

Sec. 8.1. (a) In the case of a contract with the United States or any agency thereof, or any subcontract thereunder, which is made by the taxpayer, if a renegotiation is made in respect of such contract or subcontract and an amount of excessive profits received or accrued under such contract or subcontract for a taxable year (hereinafter referred to as "prior taxable year") is eliminated and, in a taxable year ending after December 31, 1941, the taxpayer is required to pay or repay to the United States or any agency thereof the amount of profits eliminated or the amount of profits eliminated is applied as an offset against other amounts due the taxpayer, then the profits so eliminated shall be excluded from gross income for the prior taxable year if they were included in gross income for the prior taxable year. For the purposes of this section— Renegotiation contracts with U S

(1) The term "renegotiation" includes any transaction which is a renegotiation within the meaning of Section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act (Public 528, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.) or such section, as amended, any modification of one or more contracts with the United States or any agency thereof, and any agreement with the United States or any agency thereof in respect of one or more such contracts or subcontracts thereunder. "Renegotiation"

(2) The term "excessive profits" includes any amount which constitutes excessive profits within the meaning assigned to such term by subsection (a) of Section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act (Public 528, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, any part of the contract price of a contract with the United States or any agency thereof, any part of the subcontract price of a subcontract under such a contract, and any profits derived from one or more such contracts or subcontracts. "Excessive profits"

"Subcontract"

(3) The term "subcontract" includes any purchase order or agreement which is a subcontract within the meaning assigned to such term by subsection (a) of Section 403 of the Sixth Supplemental National Defense Appropriation Act (Public 528, 77th Cong., 2d Sess.), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942.

Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract

(b) In the case of a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract between the United States or any agency thereof and the taxpayer, if an item for which the taxpayer has been reimbursed by the United States or any agency thereof is disallowed as an item of cost chargeable to such contract, and, in a taxable year ending after December 31, 1941, the taxpayer is required to repay the United States or any agency thereof the amount disallowed, or the amount disallowed is applied as an offset against other amounts due the taxpayer, for the purposes of this act the amount so disallowed or so applied as an offset shall be allowed as a deduction in the taxable year in which the reimbursement for such item was received or was accrued to the extent that the taxpayer's taxable net income for the year in which the cost was incurred would have been reduced had no such reimbursement been received or accrued.

When not deductible

(c) The amount of the payment, repayment, or offset described in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) shall not constitute a deduction for the year in which paid or incurred.

Accounting method

(d) The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply in respect of any contract if the taxpayer shows to the satisfaction of the commissioner that a different method of accounting for the amount of the payment, repayment, or disallowance clearly reflects income, and in such case the payment, repayment, or disallowance shall be accounted for with respect to the taxable year provided for under such method.

Refund

(e) Any overpayment in tax which results from the application of this section shall be credited or refunded as provided in this act. Notwithstanding the provisions of any statute of limitations, such credit or refund shall be made if claim therefor is filed within four years from the last day prescribed for filing the return or within two years from the date of payment, repayment, or offset described in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this section, whichever is later.

Installment payments

(f) If prior to the payment of the last installment of tax for the taxable year the taxpayer becomes entitled to the exclusions or deductions provided in this section for his taxable year, the taxpayer may, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, file a claim in abatement of any unpaid tax or portion thereof, but not in excess of the reduction in tax resulting from the application of this section.

Claim in abatement

(g) In any case in which a claim in abatement is filed pursuant to subsection (f), and the commissioner makes such abatement, the tax disclosed by the original return shall, for the purpose of Section 19 of this act, be deemed to be reduced by the amount of the tax so abated.

SEC. 6 (a). Section 8.3 is hereby added to The Personal Income Tax Act, to read as follows: New section See also Stats 1943, Ch 659

Sec. 8.3. (a) For the purposes of this act—

Property lost or destroyed in course of military or naval operations

(1) Property destroyed or seized on or after December 7, 1941, in the course of military or naval operations by the United States or any other country engaged in the present war shall be deemed to have been destroyed or seized on a date chosen by the taxpayer in the manner provided in paragraph (4), which falls between—

(A) The latest date, as established to the satisfaction of the commissioner, on which such property may be considered as not destroyed or seized, and

(B) The earliest date, as established to the satisfaction of the commissioner, on which such property may be considered as having already been destroyed or seized.

For the purposes of this paragraph property within an area which comes under the control of a country at war with the United States after the date war with such country is declared by the United States shall be deemed to have been destroyed or seized in the course of military or naval operations by such country, and the date specified in subparagraph (A) shall not be later than the latest date determined by the commissioner as the date on which such area was under the control of the United States or a country not at war with the United States, and the date specified in subparagraph (B) shall not be later than the earliest date determined by the commissioner as the date on which such area may be considered under the control of the country which is at war with the United States.

(2) Property within any country at war with the United States, or within an area under the control of any such country on the date war with such country was declared by the United States, shall be deemed to have been destroyed or seized on the date war with such country was declared by the United States.

(3) Any interest in, or with respect to, property described in paragraph (1) or (2) (including any interest represented by a security as defined in Section 8 (h) (3) or Section 8 (f) (3)) which becomes worthless shall be considered to have been destroyed or seized (and the loss therefrom shall be considered a loss from the destruction or seizure) on the date chosen by the taxpayer which falls between the dates specified in paragraph (1), or on the date prescribed in paragraph (2), as the case may be, when the last property (described in the applicable paragraph) to which the interest relates would be deemed destroyed or seized under the applicable paragraph. This paragraph shall apply only if the interest would have become worthless if the property had been destroyed. For the purposes of this paragraph, an interest shall be deemed to have become worthless notwithstanding the fact that such interest has a value if such value is attributable solely to the possibility of recovery of the property, compensation (other than insurance or similar indemnity) on account of its destruction or seizure, or both. Section 8 (f) (2) and (h) (2) shall not apply to any interest which under this paragraph is considered to have been destroyed or seized. Under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, a taxpayer who owns 100 per centum (excluding qualifying shares) of each class of stock of a corporation may elect to determine the worthlessness of his interest, described in this paragraph, in or with respect to the property of the corporation, without regard to the amount of the property of such corporation which would be excluded under subsection (e) (2) (A) in determining the adjusted basis of all the assets of the corporation for the purposes of subsection (e), but such amount shall be treated under subsection (b) (1) as a recovery by the taxpayer in the taxable year with respect to such interest.

Choice of date

(4) The taxpayer's choice of a date under paragraph (1) or (3) shall be effective only if made within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Amount of loss

(b) In the case of any property or interest in or with respect to property deemed to be destroyed or seized under subsection (a)—

(1) The amount of the loss on account of such property or interest shall be determined with regard to any recoveries with respect thereto in the taxable year but without regard to any possibility of recovering such property or interest, or of receiving any compensation (other than insurance or similar indemnity) on account of such property or interest in the taxable year or in any future taxable year.

(2) The taxpayer may choose to decrease the amount of the loss by all obligations or liabilities of the taxpayer with respect to such property or interest discharged or satisfied out of the property or interest upon its destruction or seizure, if the commissioner is satisfied that such obligations or liabilities are so discharged or satisfied in a subsequent taxable year, or that the taxpayer is unable to determine whether or not such obligations or liabilities are in fact discharged or satisfied.

No loss shall be deemed to have been sustained upon the destruction or seizure of such property or interest to the extent that it is compensated for by the discharge or satisfaction of obligations and liabilities of the taxpayer out of such property or interest in the taxable year in which such destruction or seizure is deemed to have occurred. The taxpayer's choice under this subsection shall be effective only if made within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Recovery

(c) (1) Upon the recovery in the taxable year of any money or property in respect of property considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized in any prior taxable year, the amount of such recovery shall be included in gross income to the extent provided in paragraph (2).

Amount of recovery

(2) The amount of the recovery of any money or property in respect of property considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of such money and the fair market value of such property, determined as of the date of the recovery. To the extent that such amount plus the aggregate of the amounts of previous such recoveries do not exceed that part of the aggregate of the allowable deductions in prior taxable years on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a) which did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act, such amount shall not be includible in gross income and shall not be deemed gain upon the involuntary conversion of property as a result of its destruction or seizure. To the extent that such amount plus the aggregate of the amounts of previous such recoveries exceed that part of the aggregate of such deductions which did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act and do not exceed that part of the aggregate of such deductions which did result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act, such amount shall be included in gross income but shall not be deemed a gain upon the involuntary conversion of property as a result of its destruction or seizure. To the extent that such amount plus the aggregate of the amounts of previous such recoveries exceed the aggregate of the allowable deductions in prior taxable years on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a), such amount shall be considered a gain upon the involuntary conversion of property as a result of its destruction or seizure and shall be recognized or not recognized as provided in Section 9.2 (e). If for any previous taxable year the taxpayer chooses under subsection (b) to treat any obligations and liabilities as discharged or satisfied out of the property or interest described in subsection (a), and if such obligations and liabilities were not so discharged or satisfied, the amount of such obligations and liabilities treated as discharged or satisfied under subsection (b) shall be considered for the purposes of this section as a deduction by reason of this section which did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act. For the purposes of this paragraph an allowable deduction for any taxable year on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a) shall, to the extent not allowed in computing the tax of the taxpayer for such taxable year, be considered an allowable deduction which did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), the restoration in whole or in part of the value of any interest described in subsection (a) (3) by reason of any recovery of money or property in respect of property to which such interest related and which was considered under subsection (a) (1) or (2) as destroyed or seized shall be deemed a recovery of property in respect of property considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized.

Unadjusted basis of property recovered

(d) The unadjusted basis of property recovered in respect of property considered destroyed or seized under subsection (a) shall be determined under this subsection. Such basis shall be an amount equal to the fair market value of such property, determined as of the date of the recovery, reduced by an amount equal to the excess of the aggregate of such fair market value and the amounts of previous recoveries of money or property in respect of property considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized over the aggregate of the allowable deductions in prior taxable years on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a), and increased by that portion of the amount of the recovery which under subsection (c) is treated as a recognized gain from the involuntary conversion of property. Upon application of the taxpayer, the aggregate of the bases (determined under the preceding sentence) of any properties recovered in respect of properties considered under subsection (a) as destroyed or seized may be allocated among the properties so recovered in such manner as the commissioner may determine under regulations prescribed by him, and the amounts so allocated to any such property so recovered shall be the unadjusted basis of such property in lieu of the unadjusted basis of such property determined under the preceding sentence.

Corporate property destroyed or seized

(e) (1) If a taxpayer owns not less than 50 per centum of each class of stock of a corporation, if such corporation has property described in subsection (a) (1) or (2) deemed to be destroyed or seized, the adjusted basis for determining loss of which is at least 75 per centum of the adjusted basis for determining loss of all such corporation's property, and if such corporation completely liquidates (by distributing all the assets which it is able to distribute and all its rights to assets which it is not able to distribute, including the right to the recovery of the property described in subsection (a) (1) and (2)) within one year after such property is deemed to be destroyed or seized, or by December 31, 1943, whichever is the later, then that part of the loss by the taxpayer on such liquidation which would be attributable to the destruction or seizure of such property, as established to the satisfaction of the commissioner, shall be treated for the purposes of this act as a loss by the taxpayer upon the destruction or seizure of the part of the stock or other interest of the taxpayer to which such loss is allocable. Such part of the stock or other interest of the taxpayer shall be treated for the purposes of subsections (b), (c), and (d) as property described in subsection (a) (3).

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)—

Adjusted basis

(A) In determining the adjusted basis of all the property of the corporation, there shall be excluded money in the United States, bank deposits, the right to receive money from any person not situated in a country at war with the United States or in a territory under the control of such a country, and obligations issued or guaranteed as to principal or interest by the United States, except that there shall not be excluded any such property which is destroyed or seized as described in subsection (a) within or before the taxable period.

(B) The adjusted basis of property of such corporation shall be determined as of the date immediately preceding the first date on which any property was destroyed or seized, as described in subsection (a), or as of any later date falling within or before the taxable period on the basis of which such determination will produce a greater amount.

(f) The determination as to whether and to what extent an allowable deduction on account of the destruction or seizure of property described in subsection (a) did or did not result in a reduction of any tax of the taxpayer under this act shall be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

SEC. 7. Section 9 of The Personal Income Tax Act is hereby amended as follows: Stats 1939, p 2528 See also Stats 1943, Ch 659

Sec. 9. (a) In computing net income no deduction shall in any case be allowed in respect of: Items not deductible

(1) Personal, living, or family expenses, except extraordinary medical expenses deductible under Section 8 (q); Living expenses

(2) Any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate; Improvements

(3) Any amount expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made; Restoration of property

(4) Premiums paid on any life insurance policy covering the life of any officer or employee, or of any person financially interested in any trade or business carried on by the taxpayer, when the taxpayer is directly or indirectly a beneficiary under such policy; Life insurance premiums

(5) Any amount otherwise allowable as a deduction which is allocable to one or more classes of income (whether or not any amount of income of that class or classes is received or accrued) wholly exempt from the taxes imposed by this act; Amount allocable to exempt income

(6) Any amount paid or accrued on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase a single premium life insurance or endowment contract. For the purposes of this paragraph, if substantially all the premiums on a life insurance or endowment contract are paid within a period of four years from the date on which such contract is purchased, such contract shall be considered a single premium life insurance or endowment contract; or Payments on single premium policies

(7) Amounts paid or accrued for such taxes and carrying charges as, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, are chargeable to capital account with respect to property, if the taxpayer elects, in accordance with such regulations, to treat such taxes or charges as so chargeable. Taxes chargeable to capital account

(b) (1) In computing net income no deduction shall in any case be allowed in respect of losses from sales or exchanges of property, directly or indirectly: Losses from sales or exchanges

(A) Between members of a family, as defined in paragraph (2) (D);

(B) Except in the case of distributions in liquidation, between an individual and a corporation more than 50 per centum in value of the outstanding stock of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for such individual;

(C) Between a partnership and a member thereof, between partnerships where more than 50 per centum of the partnership interests in each are owned by the same persons, and between a partnership and a corporation 50 per centum of the stock of which is owned or controlled by the partnership or members thereof;

(D) Between a grantor and a fiduciary of any trust;

(E) Between the fiduciary of a trust and the fiduciary of another trust, if the same person is a grantor with respect to each trust; or

(F) Between a fiduciary of a trust and a beneficiary of such trust.

(2) For the purposes of determining, in applying paragraph (1), the ownership of stock:

(A) Stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for a corporation, partnership, estate, or trust, shall be considered as being owned proportionately by or for its shareholders, partners, or beneficiaries;

(B) An individual shall be considered as owning the stock or the partnership interest owned, directly or indirectly, by or for his family;

(C) An individual owning (otherwise than by the application of subparagraph (B)) any stock in a corporation shall be considered as owning the stock owned, directly or indirectly, by or for his partner;

(D) The family of an individual shall include only his brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood), spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants; and

(E) Stock constructively owned by a person by reason of the application of subparagraph (A) shall, for the purpose of applying subparagraph (A), (B), or (C), be treated as actually owned by such person, but stock constructively owned by an individual by reason of the application of subparagraph (B) or (C) shall not be treated as owned by him for the purpose of again applying either of such subparagraphs in order to make another the constructive owner of such stock.

Certain expenses and interest

(c) In computing net income no deduction shall be allowed under Section 8 (a), relating to expenses incurred, or under Section 8 (b), relating to interest accrued:

(1) If such expenses or interest are not paid within the taxable year or within two and one-half months after the close thereof; and

(2) If, by reason of the method of accounting of the person to whom the payment is to be made, the amount thereof is not, unless paid, includible in the gross income of such person for the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the taxpayer ends; and

(3) If, at the close of the taxable year of the taxpayer or at any time within two and one-half months thereafter, both the taxpayer and the person to whom the payment is to be made are persons between whom losses would be disallowed under Section 9 (b).

The amount of expenses incurred or interest accrued the deduction of which is disallowed under this subsection in the year incurred or accrued, may be deducted in the year paid.

Payments to life tenants, etc.

(d) Amounts paid under the laws of any State, Territory, District of Columbia, possession of the United States, or foreign country as income to the holder of a life or terminable interest acquired by gift, bequest, or inheritance shall not be reduced or diminished by any deduction for shrinkage (by whatever name called) in the value of such interest due to the lapse of time, nor by any deduction allowed by this act (except the deductions provided for in subsections (i) and (j) of Section 8) for the purpose of computing the net income of an estate or trust but not allowed under the laws of such State, Territory, District of Columbia, possession of the United States, or foreign country for the purpose of computing the income to which such holder is entitled.

Tax-free covenant bonds

(e) The obligor of a covenant bond shall not be allowed a deduction for the payment of the tax imposed by this act, or any other tax pursuant to the tax-free covenant clause, nor shall such tax be included in the gross income of the obligee.

Recognition of gain or loss

Sec. 9.2. (a) Upon the sale or exchange of property the entire amount of the gain or loss, determined under Section 9.1, shall be recognized, except as hereinafter provided in this section.

(b) (1) No gain or loss shall be recognized if property held for productive use in trade or business or for investment (not including stock in trade or other property held primarily for sale, nor stocks, bonds, notes, choses in action, certificates of trust or beneficial interest, or other securities or evidences of indebtedness or interest) is exchanged solely for property of a like kind to be held either for productive use in trade or business or for investment.

(2) No gain or loss shall be recognized if common stock in a corporation is exchanged solely for common stock in the same corporation, or if preferred stock in a corporation is exchanged solely for preferred stock in the same corporation.

(3) No gain or loss shall be recognized if stock or securities in a corporation a party to a reorganization are, in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, exchanged solely for stock or securities in such corporation or in another corporation a party to the reorganization.

(4) No gain or loss shall be recognized if property is transferred to a corporation by one or more persons solely in exchange for stock or securities in such corporation, and immediately after the exchange such person or persons are in control of the corporation; but in the case of an exchange by two or more persons this paragraph shall apply only if the amount of the stock and securities received by each is substantially in proportion to his interest in the property prior to the exchange. Where the transferee assumes a liability of a transferor, or where the property of a transferor is transferred subject to a liability, then for the purpose only of determining whether the amount of stock or securities received by each of the transferors is in the proportion required by this paragraph, the amount of such liability (if under subsection (i) it is not to be considered as "other property or money") shall be considered as stock or securities received by such transferor.

(5) No gain or loss shall be recognized to a shareholder from a distribution of stocks or securities in liquidation of a corporation made pursuant to an order of the Federal Securities and Exchange Commission under authority vested in it by that act of Congress known as the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, as amended.

Particular exchanges

(c) (1) If an exchange would be within the provisions of subsection (b) (1), (2), (3), or (4) of this section if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of property permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain, but also of other property or money, then the gain, if any, to the recipient shall be recognized, but in an amount not in excess of the sum of such money and the fair market value of such other property.

(2) If a distribution made in pursuance of a plan of reorganization is within the provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection but has the effect of the distribution of a taxable dividend, then there shall be taxed as a dividend to each distributee such an amount of the gain recognized under paragraph (1) as is not in excess of his ratable share of the undistributed earnings and profits of the corporation accumulated after February 28, 1913. The remainder, if any, of the gain recognized under paragraph (1) shall be taxed as a gain from the exchange of property.

(d) If an exchange would be within the provisions of subsection (b) (1) to (4), inclusive, of this section if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of property permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain or loss, but also of other property or money, then no loss from the exchange shall be recognized.

(e) If property (as a result of its destruction in whole or in part, theft or seizure, or an exercise of the power of requisition or condemnation, or the threat or imminence thereof) is compulsorily or involuntarily converted into property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted, or into money which is forthwith in good faith, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, expended in the acquisition of other property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted, or in the acquisition of control of a corporation owning such other property, or in the establishment of a replacement fund, no gain shall be recognized, but loss shall be recognized. If any part of the money is not so expended, the gain, if any, shall be recognized to the extent of the money which is not so expended (regardless of whether such money is received in one or more taxable years and regardless of whether or not the money which is not so expended constitutes gain).

(f) As used in this section and Section 9.3:

"Reorganization" (1) The term "reorganization" means (A) a statutory merger or consolidation, or (B) the acquisition by one corporation in exchange solely for all or a part of its voting stock: Of at least 80 per centum of the voting stock and at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of another corporation; or of substantially all the properties of another corporation, but in determining whether the exchange is solely for voting stock the assumption by the acquiring corporation of a liability of the other, or the fact that property acquired is subject to a liability, shall be disregarded, or (C) a transfer by a corporation of all or a part of its assets to another corporation if immediately after the transfer the transferor or its shareholders or both are in control of the corporation to which the assets are transferred, or (D) a recapitalization, or (E) a mere change in identity, form, or place of organization, however effected.

"Party to a reorganization" (2) The term "a party to a reorganization" includes a corporation resulting from a reorganization and includes both corporations in the case of a reorganization resulting from the acquisition by one corporation of stock or properties of another.

"Control" (g) As used in this section the term "control" means the ownership of stock possessing at least 80 per centum of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote and at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of the corporation.

Corporation created in foreign country (h) In determining the extent to which gain shall be recognized in the case of any of the exchanges (made after the date of the enactment of this act) described in subsection (b) (3) or (4), or described in so much of subsection (c) as refers to subsection (b) (3) or (4), or described in subsection (d), a corporation created or organized in a foreign country shall not be considered as a corporation unless, prior to such exchange, it has been established to the satisfaction of the commissioner that such exchange is not in pursuance of a plan having as one of its principal purposes the avoidance of income or franchise taxes.

Assumption of taxpayer's liability (i) Where upon an exchange the taxpayer receives as part of the consideration property which would be permitted by subsection (b) (4) of this section to be received without the recognition of gain if it were the sole consideration, and as part of the consideration another party to the exchange assumes a liability of the taxpayer or acquires from the taxpayer property subject to a liability, such assumption or acquisition shall not be considered as "other property or money" received by the taxpayer within the meaning of subsections (c) and (d) of this section and shall not prevent the exchange from being within the provisions of subsection (b) (2) except that if, taking into consideration the nature of the liability and the circumstances in the light of which the arrangement for the assumption or acquisition was made, it appears that the principal purpose of the taxpayer with respect to the assumption or acquisition was a purpose to avoid State tax on the exchange, or, if not such purpose, was not a bona fide business purpose, such assumption or acquisition (in the amount of the liability) shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered as money received by the taxpayer upon the exchange. In any suit or proceeding where the burden is on the taxpayer to prove that such assumption or acquisition is not to be considered as money received by the taxpayer, such burden shall not be considered as sustained unless the taxpayer sustains such burden by the clear preponderance of the evidence.

SEC. 9. Section 9.3 of The Personal Income Tax Act is hereby amended as follows:

See also Stats 1943, Ch 659

Sec. 9.3. (a) The basis of property shall be the cost of such property; except that:

Basis of property

(1) If the property should have been included in the last inventory, the basis shall be the last inventory value thereof.

(2) If the property was acquired by gift after December 31, 1920, the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the donor or the last preceding owner by whom it was not acquired by gift, except that if such basis (adjusted for the period prior to the date of gift as provided in subsection (b)) is greater than the fair market value of the property at the time of the gift, then, for the purpose of determining loss, the basis shall be such fair market value. If the facts necessary to determine the basis in the hands of the donor or the last preceding owner are unknown to the donee, the commissioner shall, if possible, obtain such facts from such donor or last preceding owner, or any other person cognizant thereof. If the commissioner finds it impossible to obtain such facts, the basis in the hands of such donor or last preceding owner shall be the fair market value of such property as found by the commissioner as of the date or approximate date at which, according to the best information that the commissioner is able to obtain, such property was acquired by such donor or last preceding owner.

(3) If the property was acquired after December 31, 1920, by a transfer in trust (other than by a transfer in trust by a gift, bequest or devise) the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the grantor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the grantor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made.

(4) If the property was acquired by gift or transfer in trust on or before December 31, 1920, the basis shall be the fair market value of such property at the time of such acquisition.

(5) If the property was acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance, or by the decedent's estate from the decedent, the basis shall be the fair market value of such property at the time of such acquisition. In the case of property transferred in trust to pay the income for life to or upon the order or direction of the grantor, with the right reserved to the grantor at all times prior to his death to revoke the trust, the basis of such property in the hands of the persons entitled under the terms of the trust instrument to the property after the grantor's death shall, after such death, be the same as if the trust instrument had been a will executed on the day of the grantor's death. For the purpose of this paragraph property passing without full and adequate consideration under a general power of appointment exercised by will shall be deemed to be property passing from the individual exercising such power by bequest or devise.

(6) If the property was acquired, after February 28, 1913, upon an exchange described in Section 9.2 (b) to (d), inclusive, the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property exchanged, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer that was recognized upon such exchange under the law applicable to the year in which the exchange was made. If the property so acquired consisted in part of the type of property permitted by Section 9.2 (b) to be received without the recognition of gain or loss, and in part of other property, the basis provided in this paragraph shall be allocated between the properties (other than money) received, and for the purpose of the allocation there shall be assigned to such other property an amount equivalent to its fair market value at the date of the exchange. Where, as part of the consideration to the taxpayer, another party to the exchange assumed a liability of the taxpayer or acquired from the taxpayer property subject to a liability, such assumption or acquisition (in the amount of the liability) shall, for the purposes of this paragraph, be considered as money received by the taxpayer upon the exchange.

(7) If the property was acquired, after February 28, 1913, as the result of a compulsory or involuntary conversion described in Section 9.2 (e), the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property so converted, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer which was not expended in accordance with the provisions of law (applicable to the year in which such conversion was made) determining the taxable status of the gain or loss upon such conversion, and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer recognized upon such conversion under the law applicable to the year in which such conversion was made.

(8) If the property consists of stock or securities the acquisition of which (or the contract or option to acquire which) resulted in the nondeductibility (under Section 8 (g) of this act, relating to wash sales) of the loss from the sale or other disposition of substantially identical stock or securities, then the basis shall be the basis of the stock or securities so sold or disposed of, increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the difference, if any, between the price at which the property was acquired and the price at which such substantially identical stock or securities were sold or otherwise disposed of.

(9) If the property was acquired after February 28, 1913, in any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1934, and the basis thereof, for the purposes of the Federal Revenue Act of 1932 was prescribed by Section 113 (a) (6), (7), or (9) of such act, then for the purposes of this act the basis shall be the same as the basis therein prescribed in the Federal Revenue Act of 1932.

(10) If the property was acquired after February 28, 1913, by a partnership and the basis is not otherwise determined under any other paragraph of this subsection, then the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the transferor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the transferor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made. If the property was distributed in kind by a partnership to any partner, the basis of such property in the hands of the partner shall be such part of the basis in his hands of his partnership interest as is properly allocable to such property.

(11) In the case of property acquired before March 1, 1913, if the basis otherwise determined under this subsection, adjusted (for the period prior to March 1, 1913) as provided in subsection (b), is less than the fair market value of the property as of March 1, 1913, then the basis for determining gain shall be such fair market value. In determining the fair market value of stock in a corporation as of March 1, 1913, due regard shall be given to the fair market value of the assets of the corporation as of that date.

(12) If the property was acquired after February 28, 1913, in any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1936, and the basis thereof, for the purposes of the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 was prescribed by Section 113 (a) (6), (7), or (8) of such act, then for the purposes of this act the basis shall be the same as the basis therein prescribed in the Federal Revenue Act of 1934.

(13) In the case of stocks or securities received by a taxpayer on or after January 1, 1939, under circumstances described in Section 9.2 (b) (5) the basis of such stocks or securities shall be the same as that of the stocks or securities for the surrender of which they were acquired.

(14) (A) If the property was acquired by a shareholder in a corporation and consists of rights to acquire stock in such corporation acquired by him after February 28, 1913, in a distribution by such corporation, and (1) the right to acquire such stock was acquired in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1937 (except as provided in subparagraph (B)), or (2) the right to acquire such stock was acquired in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1936, and its distribution did not constitute income to the shareholder within the meaning of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, then the basis of the stock in respect of which the rights were declared and the right to acquire stock, respectively, shall, in the shareholder's hands be determined by allocating between the stock and the right to acquire stock the adjusted basis of the stock, such allocation to be made under regulations which shall be prescribed by the commissioner.

(B) If a stock right was acquired prior to January 1, 1935, and it constituted income within the purview of the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, the basis of the stock in respect of which the rights were declared shall not be affected and the basis of the right shall be its fair market value as of the date of its acquisition.

(C) Where the shareholder acquired the right to acquire such stock in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1941, and sold the same, and there was included in the gross income for such year of sale the entire amount of the proceeds of such sale, then if before the effective date of the 1941 amendments to this act the taxpayer has not asserted (by claim for a refund or credit or otherwise) that any part of the proceeds of the sale of such rights should be excluded from gross income for the year of its sale, the basis of the stock shall be determined without regard to paragraphs (A) and (B), and no part of the proceeds of the sale of such rights shall ever be excluded from the gross income for the year of such sale.

Adjusted basis

(b) The adjusted basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property, whenever acquired, shall be the basis determined under subsection (a), adjusted as hereinafter provided.

(1) Proper adjustment in respect of the property shall in all cases be made:

(A) For expenditures, receipts, losses, or other items, properly chargeable to capital account, but no such adjustment shall be made for taxes or other carrying charges for which deductions have been taken by the taxpayer in determining net income for the taxable year or prior taxable years;

(B) For exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion, to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1935, and for periods thereafter to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under this act; provided, however, that if a taxpayer has not claimed an amortization deduction for an emergency facility, an adjustment shall be made only to the extent ordinarily provided under Section 8 (i);

(C) In the case of stock (to the extent not provided for in the foregoing subparagraphs) for the amount of distributions previously made which, under the law applicable to the year in which the distribution was made, either were tax-free or were applicable in reduction of basis (not including distributions made by a corporation, which was classified as a personal service corporation under the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921, out of its earnings or profits which were taxable in accordance with the provisions of Section 218 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921);

(D) In the case of any bond (as defined in Section 8(p)(3)) the interest on which is wholly exempt from the tax imposed by this act, to the extent of the amortizable bond premium disallowable as a deduction pursuant to Section 8(p)(1)(B), and in the case of any other bond (as defined in such section) to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to Section 8(p)(1)(A) with respect thereto.

"Substituted basis"

(2) The term "substituted basis" as used in this subsection means a basis determined under any provision of subsection (a) of this section; providing, that the basis shall be determined:

(A) By reference to the basis in the hands of a transferor, donor, or grantor, or

(B) By reference to other property held at any time by the person for whom the basis is to be determined.

Whenever it appears that the basis of property in the hands of the taxpayer is a substituted basis, then the adjustments provided in paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be made after first making in respect of such substituted basis proper adjustments of a similar nature in respect of the period during which the property was held by the transferor, donor, or grantor, or during which the other property was held by the person for whom the basis is to be determined. A similar rule shall be applied in the case of a series of substituted bases.

Leased property

(c) Neither the basis nor the adjusted basis of any portion of real property shall, in the case of the lessor of such property, be increased or diminished on account of income derived by the lessor in respect of such property and excludible from gross income under Section 7 (b) (8). If an amount representing any part of the value of real property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by a lessee in respect of such property was included in gross income of the lessor for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1943, the basis of each portion of such property shall be properly adjusted for the amount so included in gross income.

SEC. 10. Section 9.4 of The Personal Income Tax Act is hereby amended as follows:

Percentage of gain or loss considered in tax computation

Sec. 9.4. (a) In the case of any taxpayer, only the following percentages of the gain or loss recognized upon the sale or exchange of a capital asset shall be taken into account in computing net income:

One hundred per centum if the capital asset has been held for not more than one year;

Eighty per centum if the capital asset has been held for more than one year but not for more than two years;

Sixty per centum if the capital asset has been held for more than two years but not for more than five years;

Forty per centum if the capital asset has been held for more than five years but not for more than 10 years;

Thirty per centum if the capital asset has been held for more than 10 years.

"Capital assets"

(b) The term "capital assets" means property held by the taxpayer (whether or not connected with his trade or business), but does not include stock in trade of the taxpayer or other property of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, or property used in the trade or business of a character which is subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in Section 8 (i), or real property used in the trade or business of the taxpayer.

(c) For the purposes of subsection (a):

Determination of period for which property held

(1) In determining the period for which the taxpayer has held property received on an exchange there shall be included the period for which he held the property exchanged, if under the provisions of Section 9.3, the property received has, for the purpose of determining gain or loss from a sale or exchange, the same basis in whole or in part in his hands as the property exchanged. For the purposes of this subsection, an involuntary conversion described in Section 9.2 (e) shall be considered an exchange of the property converted for the property acquired.

(2) In determining the period for which the taxpayer has held property however acquired there shall be included the period for which such property was held by any other person, if under the provisions of Section 9.3, such property has, for the purpose of determining gain or loss from a sale or exchange, the same basis in whole or in part in his hands as it would have in the hands of such other person.

(3) In determining the period for which the taxpayer has held stock or securities received upon a distribution where no gain was recognized to the distributee under the provisions of Section 112 (g) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1928 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1932, there shall be included the period for which he held the stock or securities in the distributing corporation prior to the receipt of the stock or securities upon such distribution.

(4) In determining the period for which the taxpayer has held stock or securities the acquisition of which (or the contract or option to acquire which) resulted in the nondeductibility (under Section 8 (g) of this act, relating to wash sales) of the loss from the sale or other disposition of substantially identical stock or securities, there shall be included the period for which he held the stock or securities the loss from the sale or other disposition of which was not deductible.

(5) In determining the period for which the taxpayer has held stock or securities acquired from a corporation by the exercise of rights to acquire such stock or securities, there shall be included only the period beginning with the date upon which the right to acquire was exercised.

Loss allowance

(d) Losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be allowed only to the extent of two thousand dollars ($2,000) plus the gains from such sales or exchanges.

(e) For the purposes of this act:

Short sales

(1) Gains or losses from short sales of property shall be considered as gains or losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets; and

Failure to exercise option

(2) Gains or losses attributable to the failure to exercise privileges or options to buy or sell property shall be considered as gains or losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for one year or less.

Amounts received on obligation retirement

(f) For the purposes of this act, amounts received by the holder upon the retirement of bonds, debentures, notes, or certificates or other evidences of indebtedness issued by any corporation (including those issued by a government or political subdivision thereof), with interest coupons or in registered form, shall be considered as amounts received in exchange therefor.

Property used in trade or business

(g) (1) For the purposes of this subsection, the term "property used in the trade or business" means property used in the trade or business, of a character which is subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in Section 8 (i), and real property used in the trade or business, which is not

(A) Property of a kind which would properly be includible in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or

(B) Property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business.

(2) If, during the taxable year, the recognized gains upon sales or exchanges of property used in the trade or business, plus the recognized gains from the compulsory or involuntary conversion (as a result of destruction in whole or in part, theft or seizure, or an exercise of the power of requisition or condemnation or the threat or imminence thereof) of property used in the trade or business and capital assets into other property or money, exceed the recognized losses from such sales, exchanges, and conversions, such gains and losses shall be considered as gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets If such gains do not exceed such losses, such gains and losses shall not be considered as gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets. For the purposes of this paragraph:

(A) In determining under this paragraph whether gains exceed losses, the gains and losses described therein shall be included only if and to the extent taken into account in computing net income, except that subsections (b) and (d) shall not apply.

(B) Losses upon the destruction, in whole or in part, theft or seizure, or requisition or condemnation of property used in the trade or business of capital assets shall be considered losses from a compulsory or involuntary conversion.

SEC. 11. Section 9.5 of The Personal Income Tax Act is hereby amended as follows: Stats 1939, p 2528 See also Stats 1943, Ch 659

Sec. 9.5. (a) The basis upon which exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in Section 9.3 (b) for the purpose of determining the gain upon the sale or other disposition of such property. Basis for exhaustion allowance

(b) (1) The basis upon which depletion is to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in Section 9.3 (b) for the purpose of determining the gain upon the sale or other disposition of such property, except as provided in paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of this subsection. Basis for depletion allowance

(2) In the case of mines (other than metal, coal, fluorspar, ball and sagger clay, rock asphalt or sulphur mines), discovered by the taxpayer after February 28, 1913, the basis for depletion shall be the fair market value of the property at the date of discovery or within 30 days thereafter, if such mines were not acquired as the result of purchase of a proven tract or lease, and if the fair market value of the property is materially disproportionate to the cost. The depletion allowance under Section 8 (j) based on discovery value provided in this paragraph shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property upon which the discovery was made, except that in no case shall the depletion allowance under Section 8 (j) be less than it would be if computed without reference to discovery value. Discoveries shall include minerals in commercial quantities contained within a vein or deposit discovered in an existing mine or mining tract by the taxpayer after February 28, 1913, if the vein or deposit thus discovered was not merely the uninterrupted extension of a continuing commercial vein or deposit already known to exist, and if the discovered minerals are of sufficient value and quantity that they could be separately mined and marketed at a profit. Mines discovered after February 28, 1913

(3) In the case of oil and gas wells the allowance for depletion under Section 8 (j) shall be 27½ per centum of the gross income from the property during the taxable year, excluding Oil and gas wells from such gross income an amount equal to any rents or royalties paid or incurred by the taxpayer in respect of the property. Such allowance shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property, except that in no case shall the depletion allowance under Section 8 (j) be less than it would be if computed without reference to this paragraph.

Coal mines

(4) The allowance for depletion under Section 8 (j) shall be, in the case of coal mines, 5 per centum, in the case of metal, fluorspar, ball and sagger clay or rock asphalt mines, 15 per centum, and, in the case of sulphur mines or deposits, 23 per centum, of the gross income from the property during the taxable year, excluding from such gross income an amount equal to any rents or royalties paid or incurred by the taxpayer in respect of the property. Such allowance shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property, except in no case shall the depletion allowance under Section 8 (j) be less than it would be if computed without reference to this subsection.

Stats 1939, p 2528

SEC. 12. Section 10 of The Personal Income Tax Act is hereby amended as follows:

See also Stats 1943, Chs 354 and 659

Sec. 10. There shall be allowed for the purpose of the tax herein imposed:

Credits against net income Personal exemption

(a) In the case of a single person, a personal exemption of one thousand dollars ($1,000); or in case of the head of a family or a married person living with husband or wife, a personal exemption of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500). A husband and wife living together shall receive but one personal exemption. The amount of such personal exemption shall be two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500). If such husband and wife make separate returns, the personal exemption may be taken by either or divided between them;

Credits for dependents

(b) Four hundred dollars ($400) for each person (other than husband or wife living with the taxpayer) dependent upon and receiving his chief support from the taxpayer if such dependent person is under 18 years of age or is incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective; however, a payment to a wife, which is includible under Section 7(k) or Section 12(j) in the gross income of such wife shall not be considered a payment by her husband for the support of any dependent;

(1) If the taxpayer would not occupy the status of head of a family except by reason of there being one or more dependents for whom he would be entitled to credit under subsection (b), the credit under such subsection shall be disallowed with respect to one of such dependents.

Estates and trusts

(c) In the case of an estate an exemption of one thousand dollars ($1,000); in the case of a trust an exemption of one hundred dollars ($100);

Change of status

(d) If the status of the taxpayer, in so far as it affects the personal exemption or credit for dependents changes during the taxable year, the personal exemption and credit shall be apportioned, under such rules and regulations as are prescribed by the commissioner, in accordance with the number of months before and after such change. For the purpose of such apportionment a fractional part of a month shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month, in which case it shall be considered as a month.

SEC. 13. Section 12 of The Personal Income Tax Act is hereby amended as follows: Stats 1941, p 3042

Sec. 12. (a) The taxes imposed by this act upon individuals shall apply to, and be imposed upon, the income of estates or of any kind of property held in trust (other than so-called Massachusetts trusts), including: Tax on income of estates and trusts

(1) Income accumulated in trust for the benefit of unborn or unascertained persons or persons with contingent interests, and income accumulated or held for future distribution under the terms of the will or trust;

(2) Income which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and income collected by a guardian of an infant which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct;

(3) Income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate; and

(4) Income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiaries or accumulated.

(b) For the purposes of this section the word "settlor" shall mean and include every creator of a trust and every decedent and where in this section the settlor is spoken of as a resident or a nonresident the same shall be taken to include a decedent who upon his or her death is a resident or a nonresident as the case may be.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (d), (g) and (h) of this section, the income of an estate or trust shall be taxable to the estate or trust. The tax shall apply to the entire net income if, in the case of an estate, the decedent was a resident, regardless of the residence of the fiduciary or beneficiary, and in the case of trusts, if the fiduciary or beneficiary is a resident, regardless of the residence of the settlor. To whom taxable

Where the taxability of income under this subsection depends on the residence of the fiduciary and there are two or more fiduciaries for the trust, the income taxable under this subsection shall be apportioned according to the number of fiduciaries resident in this State, such apportionment being determined according to rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Where the taxability of income under this subsection depends on the residence of the beneficiary and there are two or more beneficiaries for the trust, the income taxable under this subsection shall be apportioned according to the number and interest of beneficiaries resident in this State, such apportionment being determined according to rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Taxes on income of an estate or trust which is taxable to the estate or trust shall be a charge upon the estate or trust and shall be paid by the fiduciary.

If, for any reason, the taxes imposed on income of a trust which is taxable to the trust because the fiduciary or beneficiary is a resident of this State are unpaid when due and remain unpaid when such income is distributable to the beneficiaries, or in case such income is distributable to the beneficiaries before the taxes are due, if such taxes are unpaid when due, such income shall be taxable to the beneficiaries when distributable to them except that in the case of nonresident beneficiaries such income shall be taxable only to the extent provided in subsection (f) of Section 7 of this act.

Computation of net income

(d) The net income of the estate or trust shall be computed in the same manner and on the same basis as in the case of an individual, except that:

(1) There shall be allowed as a deduction (in lieu of the deduction for charitable, etc., contributions authorized by subsection (l) of Section 8), any part of the gross income, without limitation, which pursuant to the terms of the will or deed creating the trust, is during the taxable year paid or permanently set aside for the purposes and in the manner specified in subsection (l) of Section 8 or is to be used exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, or for the establishment, acquisition, maintenance or operation of a public cemetery not operated for profit;

(2) There shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the legatees, heirs or beneficiaries, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the legatees, heirs or beneficiaries whether distributed to them or not. For the purpose of this paragraph amounts currently distributable to beneficiaries are distributable out of income of the estate or trust for the taxable year if there is income of the estate or trust for the taxable year out of which such distributions may be made and if, under the terms of the will or trust instrument, the distributions may be made out of such income, regardless of the fact that the will or trust instrument provides that the distributions may be made out of the corpus of the estate or trust. Any amount allowed as a deduction under this paragraph shall not be allowed as a deduction under paragraph (3) of this subsection in the same or any succeeding taxable year. In the case of the income of a beneficiary, not a resident, derived through such an estate or trust, such income will be taxable only to the extent provided in subsection (f) of Section 7 of this act;

(3) In the case of income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate, and in the case of income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiary or accumulated, there shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year, which is properly paid or credited during such year to any legatee, heir, or beneficiary, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the legatee, heir, or beneficiary. In such cases the income of the legatee, heir, or beneficiary, not a resident, shall be taxable only to the extent provided in subsection (f) of Section 7 of this act.

(e) If the taxable year of a legatee, heir, or beneficiary is different from that of the estate or trust, the amount which he is required, under subsection (d) (2) of this section, to include in computing his net income, shall be based upon the income of the estate or trust for any taxable year of the estate or trust ending within or with his taxable year.

Employer's stock bonus, etc., plan

(f) (1) A trust forming part of a stock bonus, pension, or profit-sharing plan of an employer for the exclusive benefit of his employees or their beneficiaries shall not be taxable under this section and no other provision of this section shall apply with respect to such trust or to its beneficiary—

(A) If contributions are made to the trust by such employer, or employees, or both, for the purpose of distributing to such employees or their beneficiaries the corpus and income of the fund accumulated by the trust in accordance with such plan;

(B) If under the trust instrument it is impossible, at any time prior to the satisfaction of all liabilities with respect to employees and their beneficiaries under the trust, for any part of the corpus or income to be (within the taxable year or thereafter) used for, or diverted to, purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of his employees or their beneficiaries;

(C) If the trust, or two or more trusts, or the trust or trusts and annuity plan or plans are designated by the employer as constituting parts of a plan intended to qualify under this subsection which benefits either—

(i) 70 per centum or more of all the employees, or 80 per centum or more of all the employees who are eligible to benefit under the plan if 70 per centum or more of all the employees are eligible to benefit under the plan, excluding in each case employees who have been employed not more than a minimum period prescribed by the plan, not exceeding five years, employees whose customary employment is for not more than 20 hours in any one week, and employees whose customary employment is for not more than five months in any calendar year, or

(ii) Such employees as qualify under a classification set up by the employer and found by the commissioner not to be discriminatory in favor of employees who are officers, shareholders, persons whose principal duties consist in supervising the work of other employees, or highly compensated employees; and

(D) If the contributions or benefits provided under the plan do not discriminate in favor of employees who are officers, shareholders, persons whose principal duties consist in supervising the work of other employees, or highly compensated employees.

(E) A classification shall not be considered discriminatory within the meaning of paragraphs (C) (ii) or (D) of this subsection merely because it excludes employees the whole of whose remuneration constitutes "wages" under Section 1426 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to the Federal Insurance Contributions Act) or the California Unemployment Insurance Act or merely because it is limited to salaried or clerical employees. Neither shall a plan be considered discriminatory within the meaning of such provisions merely because the contributions or benefits of or on behalf of the employees under the plan bear a uniform relationship to the total compensation, or the basic or regular rate of compensation, of such employees, or merely because the contributions or benefits based on that part of an employee's remuneration which is excluded from "wages" by Section 1426 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code or the California Unemployment Insurance Act differ from the contributions or benefits based on employee's remuneration not so excluded, or differ because of any retirement benefits created under State or Federal law.

(F) A plan shall be considered as meeting the requirements of paragraph (C) of this subsection during the whole of any taxable year of the plan if on one day in each quarter it satisfied such requirements.

(2) The amount actually distributed or made available to any distributee by any such trust shall be taxable to him, in the year in which so distributed or made available, under Section 7 (b) (2) as if it were an annuity the consideration for which is the amount contributed by the employee, except that if the total distributions payable with respect to any employee are paid to the distributee within one taxable year of the distributee on account of the employee's separation from the service, the amount of such distribution to the extent exceeding the amounts contributed by the employee, shall be considered a gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset.

(3) Contributions to a trust made by an employer during a taxable year of the employer which ends within or with a taxable year of the trust for which the trust is not exempt under Section 12 (f) (1) shall be included in the gross income of an employee for the taxable year in which the contribution is made to the trust in the case of an employee whose beneficial interest in such contribution is nonforfeitable at the time the contribution is made.

Revesting of corpus in trustor

(g) Where the title to any part of the corpus of the trust may at any time revest in the grantor without the consent of any person having a substantial adverse interest in any part of the corpus or the income therefrom, and the revesting is not contingent upon the death of all the beneficiaries, then the income of such part of the trust shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor if the grantor is a resident. If the grantor is a nonresident, such income shall be included in computing his income only to the extent derived from sources within this State; the balance of such income shall be taxable either to the trust or to the beneficiaries in accordance with the provisions of subsections (c) and (d) of this section.

Use of trust income for trustor's benefit

(h) Where any part of the income of a trust:

(1) Is, or in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income may be held or accumulated for future distribution to the grantor; or

(2) May, in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income, be distributed to the grantor; or

(3) Is, or in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income may be, applied to the payment of premiums upon policies of insurance on the life of the grantor (except policies of insurance irrevocably payable for the purposes and in the manner specified in subsection (l) of Section 8, relating to the so-called "charitable contribution" deduction); then such part of the income of the trust shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor if the grantor is a resident. If the grantor is a nonresident, such income shall be included in computing his income only to the extent derived from sources within this State; the balance of such income shall be taxable either to the trust or to the beneficiaries in accordance with the provisions of subsections (c) and (d) of this section.

(i) As used in subsections (g) and (h) of this section the term "in the discretion of the grantor," means "in the discretion of the grantor, either alone or in conjunction with any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of the part of the income in question."

Inclusion in gross income of divorced or separated wife

(j) (1) There shall be included in the gross income of a wife who is divorced or legally separated under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance the amount of the income of any trust which such wife is entitled to receive and which, except for the provisions of this section, would be includible in the gross income of her husband, and such amount shall not, despite Section 12 (g), Section 12 (h), or any other provision of this act, be includible in the gross income of such husband. This subsection shall not apply to that part of any such income of the trust which the terms of the decree or trust instrument fix, in terms of an amount of money or a portion of such income, as a sum which is payable for the support of minor children of such husband. In case such income is less than the amount specified in the decree or instrument, for the purpose of applying the preceding sentence, such income, to the extent of such sum payable for such support, shall be considered a payment for such support.

(2) For the purposes of computing the net income of the estate or trust and the net income of the wife described in Section 7 (k) or subsection (1) of this section, such wife shall be considered as the beneficiary specified in this section. A periodic payment under Section 7 (k) to any part of which the provisions of this section are applicable shall be included in the gross income of the beneficiary in the taxable year in which under this section such part is required to be included.

SEC. 14. Section 13 of The Personal Income Tax Act is hereby amended as follows:

Time and place for filing returns

Sec. 13. (a) Returns required by Section 4 shall be under oath; all other returns required by this act shall contain, or be verified by, a written declaration that they are made under the penalties of perjury. Such returns shall be in such form as the commissioner may from time to time prescribe, and shall be filed with the commissioner, at his main office or at any branch office which he may establish. The commissioner shall cause to be prepared blank forms for the said returns and shall cause them to be distributed throughout the State and to be furnished upon application, but failure to receive or secure the form shall not relieve any taxpayer from the obligation of making any return herein required.

(b) Any individual who wilfully makes and subscribes a return which he does not believe to be true and correct as to every material matter, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to the penalties prescribed for perjury by the Penal Code of this State.

(c) Returns made on the basis of the calendar year shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of April following the close of the calendar year. Returns made on the basis of a fiscal year shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year.

(d) The commissioner, under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe, may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing the return and/or for payment of the tax, or any installment thereof, disclosed by the return, due or to become due within the period of the extension, whenever in his judgment good cause exists therefor, and he shall keep a record of every such extension. No such extension or extensions shall aggregate more than six months from the due date provided in subsection (c) of this section.

SEC. 15. Section 16 of The Personal Income Tax Act is hereby amended as follows:

Computation of tax
Accounting period

Sec. 16 (a) The net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxpayer's annual accounting period (fiscal year or calendar year, as the case may be) in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books of such taxpayer; but if no such method of accounting has been so employed, or if the method employed does not clearly reflect the income, the computation shall be made in accordance with such method as in the opinion of the commissioner does clearly reflect the income. If the taxpayer's annual accounting period is other than a fiscal year as defined in Section 2 (i) or if the taxpayer has no annual accounting period or does not keep books, the net income shall be computed on the basis of the calendar year.

Change in accounting period

(b) If a taxpayer, with the approval of the commissioner, changes the basis of computing net income from fiscal year to calendar year a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last fiscal year for which return was made and the following December 31st. If the change is from calendar year to the fiscal year, a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last calendar year for which return was made and the date designated as the close of the fiscal year. If the change is from one fiscal year to another fiscal year a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the former fiscal year and the date designated as the close of the new fiscal year.

(1) Where a separate return is made under subsection (b) of this section on account of a change in the accounting period, and in all other cases where a separate return is required or permitted, by regulations prescribed by the commissioner, to be made for a fractional part of a year, then the income shall be computed on the basis of the period for which separate return is made.

"Short period"
