4966. Except as provided in Section 4969, a license which has expired may be renewed at any time within three years after its expiration on filing of an application for renewal on a form provided by the committee and the payment of all accrued and unpaid renewal fees. If the license is not renewed within 30 days after its expiration, the acupuncturist, as a condition precedent to renewal, shall also pay the prescribed delinquency fee. Renewal under this section shall be effective on the date on which the application is filed, on the date on which the renewal fee is paid, or on the date the delinquency fee is paid, whichever occurs last. If so renewed, the license shall continue in effect through the expiration date provided in Section 4965, after the effective date of the renewal, when it shall expire and become invalid if it is not again renewed.

SEC. 180. Section 4967 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4967. A person who fails to renew his or her license within three years after its expiration may not renew it, and it may not be restored, reissued, or reinstated thereafter, but that person may apply for and obtain a new license if he or she meets all of the following requirements:

(a) Has not committed any acts or crimes constituting grounds for denial of licensure under Division 1.5 (commencing with Section 475).

(b) Takes and passes the examination, if any, which would be required of him or her if an initial application for licensure was being made, or otherwise establishes to the satisfaction of the committee that, with due regard for the public interest, he or she is qualified to practice as an acupuncturist.

(c) Pays all of the fees that would be required if an initial application for licensure was being made. The committee may provide for the waiver or refund of all or any part of an examination fee in those cases in which a license is issued without an examination pursuant to this section.

SEC. 181. Section 4969 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4969. (a) A suspended license is subject to expiration and shall be renewed as provided in this article, but the renewal does not entitle the acupuncturist, while the license remains suspended, and until it is reinstated, to engage in the practice of acupuncture, or in any other activity or conduct in violation of the order or judgment by which the license was suspended.

(b) A revoked license is subject to expiration as provided in this article, but it may not be renewed. If it is reinstated after its expiration, the former licensee, as a condition to reinstatement, shall pay a reinstatement fee in an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the license was reinstated, plus the delinquency fee, if any, accrued at the time of its expiration.

SEC. 183. Section 4980.90 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4980.90. (a) Experience gained outside of California shall be accepted toward the licensure requirements if it is substantially equivalent to that required by this chapter provided that the applicant has gained a minimum of 250 hours of supervised experience in direct counseling within California while registered as an intern with the board.

(b) Education gained outside of California shall be accepted toward the licensure requirements if it is substantially equivalent to the education requirements of this chapter, provided that the applicant has completed all of the following:

(1) A two semester or three quarter unit course in California law and professional ethics for marriage, family, and child counselors which shall include areas of study as specified in Section 4980.41.

(2) A minimum of seven contact hours of training or coursework in child abuse assessment and reporting as specified in Section 28, and any regulations promulgated thereunder.

(3) A minimum of 10 contact hours of training or coursework in sexuality as specified in Section 25, and any regulations promulgated thereunder.

(4) A minimum of 15 contact hours of training or coursework in alcoholism and other chemical substance dependency as specified by regulation.

(5) With respect to human sexuality and alcoholism and other chemical substance dependency, the board may accept training or coursework acquired out of state.

(c) For purposes of this section, the board may, in its discretion, accept education as substantially equivalent if the applicant has been granted a degree in a single integrated program primarily designed to train marriage, family, and child counselors and if the applicant's education meets the requirements of Sections 4980.37 and 4980.40 provided, however, that the degree title and number of units in the degree program need not be identical to those required by subdivision (a) of Section 4980.40. Where the applicant's degree does not contain the number of units required by subdivision (a) of Section 4980.40, the board may, in its discretion, accept the applicant's education as substantially equivalent if the applicant's degree otherwise complies with this section and the applicant completes the units required by subdivision (a) of Section 4980.40.

SEC. 184. Section 4982.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended and renumbered to read:

4982.15. (a) The board may place a license or registration on probation under the following circumstances:

(1) In lieu of, or in addition to, any order of the board suspending or revoking the license or registration of any licensee or intern.

(2) Upon the issuance of a license to an individual who has been guilty of unprofessional conduct, but who had otherwise completed all education and training and experience required for licensure.

(3) As a condition upon the reissuance or reinstatement of any license that has been suspended or revoked by the board.

(b) The board may adopt regulations establishing a monitoring program to ensure compliance with any terms or conditions of probation imposed by the board pursuant to subdivision (a). The cost of probation or monitoring may be ordered to be paid by the licensee, registrant, or applicant.

(c) The board, in its discretion, may require any licensee or registrant who has been placed on probation, or whose license or registration has been suspended, to obtain additional professional training, and to pass an examination upon completion of that training, and to pay any necessary examination fee. The examination may be written, oral, or a practical or clinical examination.

SEC. 185. Section 4982.2 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4982.2. (a) A licensed marriage, family, and child counselor, licensed clinical social worker, or educational psychologist whose license has been revoked or suspended or who has been placed on probation may petition the board for reinstatement or modification of penalty, including modification or termination of probation, after a period not less than the following minimum periods has elapsed from the effective date of the decision ordering the disciplinary action, or if the order of the board, or any portion of it, is stayed by the board itself, or by the superior court, from the date the disciplinary action is actually implemented in its entirety:

(1) At least three years for reinstatement of a license which was revoked for unprofessional conduct, except that the board may, in its sole discretion at the time of adoption, specify in its order that a petition for reinstatement may be filed after two years.

(2) At least two years for early termination of any probation period of three years, or more.

(3) At least one year for modification of a condition, or reinstatement of a license revoked for mental or physical illness, or termination of probation of less than three years.

(b) The petition may be heard by the board itself, or the board may assign the petition to an administrative law judge pursuant to Section 11512 of the Government Code. The board shall give notice to the Attorney General of the filing of the petition. The petitioner and the Attorney General shall be given timely notice by letter of the time and place of the hearing on the petition, and an opportunity to present both oral and documentary evidence and argument to the board. The petitioner shall at all times have the burden of production and proof to establish by clear and convincing evidence that he or she is entitled to the relief sought in the petition. The board, when it is hearing the petition itself, or an administrative law judge sitting for the board, may consider all activities of the petitioner since the disciplinary action was taken, the offense for which the petitioner was disciplined, the petitioner's activities during the time his or her license was in good standing, and the petitioner's rehabilitative efforts, general reputation for truth, and professional ability.

(c) The hearing may be continued from time to time as the board or the administrative law judge deems appropriate.

(d) The board itself, or the administrative law judge if one is designated by the board, shall hear the petition and shall prepare a written decision setting forth the reasons supporting the decision. In a decision granting a petition reinstating a license or modifying a penalty, the board itself, or the administrative law judge may impose any terms and conditions that the agency deems reasonably appropriate, including those set forth in Sections 823 and 4982.15. Where a petition is heard by an administrative law judge sitting alone, the administrative law judge shall prepare a proposed decision and submit it to the board.

(e) The board may take such action with respect to the proposed decision and petition as it deems appropriate.

(f) The petition shall be on a form provided by the board, and shall state any facts and information as may be required by the board including, but not limited to, proof of compliance with the terms and conditions of the underlying disciplinary order.

(g) The petitioner shall pay a fingerprinting fee and provide a current set of his or her fingerprints to the board. The petitioner shall execute a form authorizing release to the board or its designee, of all information concerning the petitioner's current physical and mental condition. Information provided to the board pursuant to such a release shall be confidential and shall not be subject to discovery or subpoena in any other proceeding, and shall not be admissible in any action, other than before the board, to determine the petitioner's fitness to practice as required by Section 822.

(h) The petition shall be verified by the petitioner, who shall file an original and sufficient copies of the petition, together with any supporting documents, for the members of the board, the administrative law judge, and the Attorney General.

(i) The board may delegate to its executive officer authority to order investigation of the contents of the petition, but in no case, may the hearing on the petition be delayed more than 180 days from its filing without the consent of the petitioner.

(j) The petitioner may request that the board schedule the hearing on the petition for a board meeting at a specific city where the board regularly meets.

(k) No petition shall be considered while the petitioner is under sentence for any criminal offense, including any period during which the petitioner is on court-imposed probation or parole, or subject to an order of registration as a mentally disordered sex offender pursuant to Section 290 of the Penal Code. No petition shall be considered while there is an accusation or petition to revoke probation pending against the petitioner.

(l) Except in those cases where the petitioner has been disciplined for violation of Section 822, the board may in its discretion deny without hearing or argument any petition that is filed pursuant to this section within a period of two years from the effective date of a prior decision following a hearing under this section.

SEC. 186. Section 4996.16 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 187. Section 4996.16 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4996.16. Nothing in this chapter shall apply to any clinical social worker from outside this state, when in actual consultation with a licensed practitioner of this state, or when an invited guest of a professional association, or of an educational institution for the sole purpose of engaging in professional education through lectures, clinics, or demonstrations, if he or she is at the time of the consultation, lecture, or demonstration licensed to practice clinical social work in the state or country in which he or she resides. These clinical social workers shall not open an office or appoint a place to meet clients or receive calls from clients within the limits of this state.

SEC. 188. Section 4996.17 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4996.17. Experience gained outside of California shall be accepted toward the licensure requirements if it is substantially the equivalent of requirements of this chapter. A person who qualifies for licensure based on experience gained outside California may apply for and receive an associate registration to practice clinical social work.

SEC. 190. Section 5029 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5029. The board may appoint a continuing education committee of not less than five members. The committee shall perform the following duties, and the committee shall be vested with the full powers of the board for the following purposes:

(a) To evaluate programs to determine whether they qualify under the regulations adopted by the board pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 5027. Educational courses offered by professional accounting societies shall be accepted by the board as qualifying if the courses are approved by the committee as meeting the requirements of the board under the regulations.

(b) To consider applications for exceptions as permitted under Section 5028.

(c) To consider other matters relating to the requirements of this article as the board may assign to the committee.

SEC. 191. Section 5070.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5070.7. (a) A permit that is not renewed within five years following its expiration may not be renewed, restored, or reinstated thereafter, and the certificate of the holder of the permit shall be canceled immediately upon expiration of the five-year period, except as provided in subdivision (e).

(b) A partnership whose certificate has been canceled by operation of this section may obtain a new certificate and permit only if it again meets the requirements set forth in this chapter relating to registration and pays the registration fee and initial permit fee.

(c) A certified public accountant whose certificate is canceled by operation of this section may apply for and obtain a new certificate and permit if:

(1) He or she is not subject to denial of a certificate and permit under Section 480.

(2) He or she pays all of the fees that would be required of him or her if he or she were then applying for the certificate and permit for the first time.

(3) He or she takes and passes the examination which would be required of him or her if he or she were then applying for the certificate for the first time. The examination may be waived in any case in which the applicant establishes to the satisfaction of the board that, with due regard for the public interest, he or she is qualified to engage in practice as a certified public accountant.

(d) The board may, by appropriate regulation, provide for the waiver or refund of all or any part of the application fee in those cases in which a certificate is issued without an examination under this section.

(e) Revoked permits may not be renewed, but may be reinstated by the board, without regard to the length of time that has elapsed since the permit was revoked, and with conditions and restrictions as the board shall determine.

SEC. 192. Section 5081.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5081.1. An applicant for admission to the examination for a certified public accountant certificate shall comply with one of the following:

(a) He or she shall present satisfactory evidence that he or she has received a baccalaureate degree from a university, college or other four-year institution of learning accredited by a regional or national accrediting agency or association included in a list of such agencies or associations published by the United States Commissioner of Education under the requirements of Section 253 of the Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1952, known as Public Law 550 of the 82nd Congress, as amended, with a major in accounting or related subjects requiring a minimum of 45 semester hours of instruction in such subjects. If the applicant has received a baccalaureate degree in a nonaccounting major, the applicant shall present satisfactory evidence of study substantially the equivalent of accounting major, including courses in related business administration.

(b) He or she shall present satisfactory evidence that he or she has successfully completed a two-year course of study at college grade or received an associate in arts degree from a junior college, either institution accredited by a regional or national accrediting agency or association which association is included in a list published by the United States Commissioner of Education under the provisions of federal law provided above, and that he or she has studied accounting, commercial law, economics, finance and related business administration subjects for a period of at least four years.

(c) The applicant shall show to the satisfaction of the board that he or she has had the equivalent of the educational qualifications required by subdivisions (a) or (b), or shall pass a preliminary written examination approved and administered by an agency approved by the California State Department of Education and shall have completed a minimum of 10 semester hours or the equivalent in accounting subjects. The 10 semester hours in accounting subjects shall be completed at a college, university, or other institution of higher learning accredited at the college level by an agency or association which association is included in a list published by the United States Commissioner of Education under the federal law provided above.

(d) He or she shall be a public accountant registered under this chapter.

SEC. 193. Section 5680.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5680.1. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a certificate which has expired may be renewed at any time within three years after its expiration on filing of application for renewal on a form prescribed by the board, and payment of the renewal fee in effect on the last preceding regular renewal date. If the certificate is renewed more than 30 days after its expiration, the certificate holder, as a condition precedent to renewal, shall also pay the delinquency fee prescribed by this chapter. Renewal under this section shall be effective on the date on which the application is filed, on the date on which the renewal fee is paid, or on the date on which the delinquency fee, if any, is paid, whichever last occurs. If so renewed, the certificate shall continue in effect through the date provided in Section 5680 which next occurs after the effective date of the renewal, when it shall expire if it is not again renewed.

SEC. 194. Section 5680.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5680.2. A certificate which is not renewed within three years after its expiration may not be renewed, restored, reissued, or reinstated thereafter, but the holder of the certificate may apply for and obtain a new certificate if:

(a) No fact, circumstance, or condition exists which, if the certificate were issued, would justify its revocation or suspension,

(b) The applicant pays all of the fees which would be required of the applicant if the applicant were then applying for the certificate for the first time, and

(c) The applicant takes and passes the examination which would be required of the applicant if the applicant were then applying for the certificate for the first time, or otherwise establishes to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant is qualified to practice landscape architecture.

The board may, by regulation, authorize the waiver or refund of all or any part of the examination fee in those cases in which a certificate is issued without an examination under this section.

SEC. 195. Section 6529 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Section 2 of Chapter 1673 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

6529. No raise in fees for any one category of fees imposed by the State Board of Barbering and Cosmetology in any given biennial renewal period shall exceed the sum of five dollars ($5) for any one category of fees except for barber colleges, which fees shall not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25). No fee shall exceed the maximum amount allowable for fees for any purpose set forth in this chapter.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1994.

SEC. 196. Section 6704 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6704. In order to safeguard life, health, property, and public welfare, no person shall practice civil, electrical, or mechanical engineering unless appropriately registered or specifically exempted from registration under this chapter, and only persons registered under this chapter shall be entitled to take and use the titles "consulting engineer," "professional engineer," or "registered engineer," or any combination of those titles, and according to registration with the board the engineering branch titles specified in Section 6732, or the authority titles specified in Section 6763, or "engineer-in-training."

The provisions of this act pertaining to registration of professional engineers other than civil engineers, do not apply to employees in the communication industry; nor to the employees of contractors while engaged in work on communication equipment; however, those employees may not use any of the titles listed in Section 6732 unless registered.

The provisions of this section shall not prevent the use of the title "consulting engineer" by a person who has qualified for and maintained exemption for using that title under the provisions of Section 6732.1, or by a person licensed as a photogrammetric surveyor.

SEC. 197. Section 6715 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6715. The executive officer shall keep a complete record of all applications for registration and the board's action thereon and, once every two years, shall prepare a roster showing the names and addresses of all registered professional engineers, and the names and addresses of the holders of all delinquent certificates of registration and certificates of authority.

A copy of the roster shall be filed with the Secretary of State. Copies shall be available to the general public. The roster shall be a public record.

SEC. 198. Section 6735.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6735.3. All electrical engineering plans, specifications, reports, or documents prepared by a registered electrical engineer or by a subordinate under his or her direction shall be signed by the engineer to indicate his or her responsibility for them. In addition to his or her signature, the engineering plans, specifications, reports, or documents shall bear the seal or stamp of the registrant, and the expiration date of the registration. If the final electrical engineering plans, specifications, or reports have multiple pages or sheets, the signature, seal or stamp, and the expiration date of the certificate of authority need only appear on the originals of the plans and on the original title sheet of the specifications and reports.

SEC. 199. Section 6735.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6735.4. All mechanical engineering plans, specifications, reports, or documents prepared by a registered mechanical engineer or by a subordinate under his or her direction shall be signed by the engineer to indicate his or her responsibility for them. In addition to his or her signature, the engineering plans, specifications, reports, or documents shall bear the seal or stamp of the registrant, and the expiration date of the registration. If the final mechanical engineering plans, specifications, or reports have multiple pages or sheets, the signature, seal or stamp, and the expiration date of the certificate of authority need only appear on the originals of the plans and on the original title sheet of the specifications and reports.

SEC. 200. Section 6736.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6736.1. (a) On or after July 1, 1984, no person shall use the title, "soil engineer," unless he or she is a registered civil engineer in this state and he or she has been found qualified as a soil engineer according to the rules and regulations established for soil engineers by the board. Any registered civil engineer using the title "soil engineer" on or before July 1, 1984, may, for a period of two years, continue to use the title "soil engineer." On and after July 1, 1986, no person may use the title "soil engineer," "soils engineer," or "geotechnical engineer," unless he or she files an application to use the appropriate title with the board and the board determines the applicant is qualified to use the requested title.

(b) The board shall establish qualifications and standards to use the title "soil engineer," "soils engineer," or "geotechnical engineer." However, each applicant shall demonstrate a minimum of four years qualifying experience beyond that required for registration as a civil engineer, and shall pass the examination specified by the board.

(c) For purposes of this section, “qualifying experience” means proof of responsible charge of soil engineering projects in at least 50 percent of the major areas of soil engineering, as determined by the board.

(d) Nothing contained in this chapter requires existing references to “soil engineering,” “soils engineering,” “geotechnical engineering,” “soil engineer,” “soils engineer,” or “geotechnical engineer,” in local agency ordinances, building codes, regulations, or policies, to mean that those activities or persons must be registered or authorized to use the relevant title or authority.

SEC. 201. Section 6737.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6737.3. A contractor, licensed under Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3, is exempt from the provisions of this chapter relating to the practice of electrical or mechanical engineering so long as the services he or she holds himself or herself out as able to perform or does perform, which services are subject to the provisions of this chapter, are performed by, or under the responsible supervision of a registered electrical or mechanical engineer insofar as the electrical or mechanical engineer practices the branch of engineering for which he or she is registered.

This section shall not prohibit a licensed contractor, while engaged in the business of contracting for the installation of electrical or mechanical systems or facilities, from designing those systems or facilities in accordance with applicable construction codes and standards for work to be performed and supervised by that contractor within the classification for which his or her license is issued, or from preparing electrical or mechanical shop or field drawings for work which he or she has contracted to perform. Nothing in this section is intended to imply that a licensed contractor may design work which is to be installed by another person.

SEC. 202. Section 6737.4 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 203. Section 6796 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6796. Except as otherwise provided in this article, certificates of registration as a professional engineer, and certificates of authority may be renewed at any time within three years after expiration on filing of application for renewal on a form prescribed by the board and payment of all accrued and unpaid renewal fees. If the certificate is renewed more than 60 days after its expiration, the certificate holder, as a condition precedent to renewal, shall also pay the delinquency fee prescribed by this chapter. Renewal under this section shall be effective on the date on which the application is filed, on the date on which the renewal fee is paid, or on the date on which the delinquency fee, if any, is paid, whichever last occurs.

The expiration date of a certificate renewed pursuant to this section shall be determined pursuant to Section 6795.

SEC. 204. Section 6796.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6796.3. Certificates of registration as a professional engineer, and certificates of authority to use the title "structural engineer," "soil engineer," or "consulting engineer" which are not renewed within five years after expiration may not be renewed, restored, reinstated, or reissued unless all the following apply:

(a) The registrant or certificate holder has not committed any acts or crimes constituting grounds for denial of registration or of a certificate under Section 480.

(b) The registrant or certificate holder takes and passes the examination which would be required of him or her if he or she were then applying for the certificate for the first time, or otherwise establishes to the satisfaction of the board that, with due regard for the public interest, he or she is qualified to practice the branch of engineering in which he or she seeks renewal or reinstatement.

(c) The registrant or certificate holder pays all of the fees that would be required of him or her if he or she were then applying for the certificate for the first time. If the registrant or certificate holder has been practicing in this state with an expired or delinquent license and receives a waiver from taking the examination as specified in subdivision (b) then he or she shall pay all accrued and unpaid renewal fees.

The board may, by regulation, provide for the waiver or refund of all or any part of the application fee in those cases in which a certificate is issued without an examination pursuant to this section.

SEC. 205. Section 6796.6 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 206. Section 7051 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7051. This chapter does not apply to a licensed architect or a registered civil or professional engineer acting solely in his or her professional capacity or to a licensed structural pest control operator acting within the scope of his or her license or a licensee operating within the scope of the Geologist and Geophysicist Act.

SEC. 206.5. Section 7071.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7071.6. (a) Except as provided in Section 7071.8 and subdivision (b), the board shall require, as a condition precedent to the issuance, reinstatement, reactivation, or renewal of a license, that the applicant file or have on file a contractor's bond in the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500). No bond shall be required of a holder of an inactive license during the period the license is inactive.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the board shall require, as a condition precedent to the issuance, reinstatement, reactivation, or renewal of a license for the license classification of swimming pool contractor, that the applicant file or have on file a contractor's bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). No bond shall be required of a holder of an inactive license during the period the license is inactive.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board shall require, as a condition to the continued maintenance of any active license, that the holder of a license file, or have on file, upon renewal, a contractor's bond in the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500); provided, that the holder of a license for the classification of swimming pool contractor file, or have on file, a contractor's bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board shall require, as a condition precedent to the issuance, reinstatement, or reactivation of a license, that an applicant, previously found to have failed or refused to pay a contractor, subcontractor, consumer, materials supplier, or employee based on an entered and unsatisfied final judgment from a court of law, file or have on file with the board a judgment bond or other security sufficient to guarantee payment of an amount equal to the unsatisfied final judgment or judgments. The applicant shall have 90 days from date of notification by the board to file the bond or the application shall become void and the applicant shall reapply for issuance, reinstatement, or reactivation of a license. The board may not issue, reinstate, or reactivate a license until the judgment bond is filed with the board. The judgment bond is in addition to the contractor's bond. The bond shall be on file for a minimum of one year, after that the bond may be removed by submitting proof of satisfaction of all debts. The applicant may provide the board with a notarized copy of any accord, reached with any judgment creditor holding an unsatisfied final judgment, to satisfy a debt in lieu of filing the bond. Failure to maintain the bond or failure to abide by the accord shall result in the automatic suspension, by operation of law, of any license to which this section applies. After a license is suspended for failure to maintain the bond or abide by the accord the license can only be reinstated when proof of a satisfaction of all debts is made.

Except as otherwise provided, the judgment bond shall remain in full force in the amount posted until the entire debt is satisfied. If at the time of renewal, the licensee submits proof of partial satisfaction of the outstanding final judgment, the board may authorize the judgment bond be reduced to the amount of the unsatisfied portion of the outstanding judgment. When the licensee submits proof of satisfaction of all debts, the judgment bond requirement may be removed.

The board shall include on the license application for issuance, reinstatement, or reactivation, a statement, to be made under penalty of perjury, as to whether there are any entered and unsatisfied judgments against the applicant on behalf of contractors, subcontractors, consumers, or the applicant's employees. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if it is found that the applicant falsified the statement then the license will be retroactively suspended to date of issuance and the license will stay suspended until the judgment bond is filed.

This subdivision applies only with respect to an unsatisfied judgment which is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of the license being applied for. This section shall not apply to an applicant for issuance, reinstatement, or reactivation where an unsatisfied judgment has been fully discharged in a completed bankruptcy proceeding.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the licensee shall notify the registrar in writing of any entered and unsatisfied judgments within 90 days from the date of judgment.

If the licensee fails to notify the registrar in writing within 90 days, the license shall be automatically suspended and the licensee shall automatically be prohibited from serving as the responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee for any other licensee from the date that the registrar is informed, or is made aware of the unsatisfied judgment. The suspension of the license and prohibition against serving as the responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee for any other licensee shall not be removed until proof of satisfaction of judgment is submitted to the registrar.

If the licensee is serving as the person who is the responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee of any other licensee at the time the suspension arises, the suspension of a license under this section shall constitute a disassociation pursuant to Section 7068.2 and the date of the suspension shall constitute the date of disassociation for the purposes of Section 7068.2. The registrar shall notify the licensee of the disassociation of the qualified person under this section. This notice shall be sent to each remaining member of the personnel of the licensee by first-class mail to the licensee's address of record. In the event that proof of full satisfaction of judgment is submitted to the registrar within the 90-day period provided in Section 7068.2, the disassociation of the responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee shall be terminated and the qualified person shall be permitted to serve as the responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee for the licensee.

This section applies only with respect to an unsatisfied judgment which is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of the license being applied for. In lieu of submitting proof of satisfaction of judgment in order to remove this suspension a licensee may submit proof that the unsatisfied judgment has been fully discharged in a completed bankruptcy proceeding.

If the licensee notifies the registrar in writing within 90 days of the date of judgment of any entered and unsatisfied judgments the board shall require as a condition to the continual maintenance of the license that the licensee file or have on file with the board a judgment bond or other security sufficient to guarantee payment of an amount equal to the unsatisfied judgment or judgments. The licensee has 90 days from date of notification by the board to file the bond or at the end of the 90 days the license shall be automatically suspended. The licensee may provide the board with a notarized copy of any accord, reached with any individual holding an unsatisfied judgment, to satisfy a debt in lieu of filing the bond. Failure to maintain the bond or failure to abide by the accord shall result in the automatic suspension, by operation of law, to any license that this section applies. If a licensee does not file the bond within 90 days from the board's date of notification and the license is suspended or if the bond is not maintained and the license is suspended or if the licensee does not abide by the accord and the license is suspended, the license suspension and prohibition against serving as a responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee for any other licensee can only be removed and the license reinstated or the licensee allowed to serve as a responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee for any other licensee when proof of a satisfaction of all debts is made.

Except as otherwise provided, the judgment bond shall remain in full force in the amount posted until the entire debt is satisfied. If at the time of renewal, the licensee submits proof of partial satisfaction of the outstanding final judgment, the board may authorize the judgment bond be reduced to the amount of the unsatisfied portion of the outstanding judgment. When the licensee submits proof of satisfaction of all debts, the judgment bond requirement may be removed.

(f) The board shall take the actions required by this section upon notification by any party having knowledge of the outstanding judgment upon a showing of proof of the judgment.

(g) For the purposes of this section, the term "judgment" includes any final arbitration award.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, as a condition precedent to licensure, the board may require an applicant to post a contractor's bond in twice the amount required pursuant to subdivision (a) until such time as the license is renewed, under the following conditions:

(1) The applicant has either been convicted of a violation of Section 7028 or has been cited pursuant to Section 7028.7.

(2) If the applicant has been cited pursuant to Section 7028.7, the citation has been reduced to a final order of the registrar.

(3) The violation of Section 7028, or the basis for the citation issued pursuant to Section 7028.7, constituted a substantial injury to the public.

(i) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1994, and as of January 1, 1995, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 206.7. Section 7071.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7071.6. (a) Except as provided in Section 7071.8 and subdivision (b), the board shall require, as a condition precedent to the issuance, reinstatement, reactivation, or renewal of a license, that the applicant file or have on file a contractor's bond in the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500). No bond shall be required of a holder of an inactive license during the period the license is inactive.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the board shall require, as a condition precedent to the issuance, reinstatement, reactivation, or renewal of a license for the license classification of swimming pool contractor, that the applicant file or have on file a contractor's bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). No bond shall be required of a holder of an inactive license during the period the license is inactive.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board shall require, as a condition to the continued maintenance of any active license, that the holder of a license file, or have on file, on and after July 1, 1994, a contractor's bond in the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500); provided, that the holder of a license for the classification of swimming pool contractor file, or have on file, a contractor's bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board shall require, as a condition precedent to the issuance, reinstatement, or reactivation of a license, that an applicant, previously found to have failed or refused to pay a contractor, subcontractor, consumer, materials supplier, or employee based on an entered and unsatisfied final judgment from a court of law, file or have on file with the board a judgment bond or other security sufficient to guarantee payment of an amount equal to the unsatisfied final judgment or judgments. The applicant shall have 90 days from date of notification by the board to file the bond or the application shall become void and the applicant shall reapply for issuance, reinstatement, or reactivation of a license. The board may not issue, reinstate, or reactivate a license until the judgment bond is filed with the board. The judgment bond is in addition to the contractor's bond. The bond shall be on file for a minimum of one year, after that the bond may be removed by submitting proof of satisfaction of all debts. The applicant may provide the board with a notarized copy of any accord, reached with any judgment creditor holding an unsatisfied final judgment, to satisfy a debt in lieu of filing the bond. Failure to maintain the bond or failure to abide by the accord shall result in the automatic suspension, by operation of law, of any license to which this section applies. After a license is suspended for failure to maintain the bond or abide by the accord the license can only be reinstated when proof of a satisfaction of all debts is made.

Except as otherwise provided, the judgment bond shall remain in full force in the amount posted until the entire debt is satisfied. If at the time of renewal, the licensee submits proof of partial satisfaction of the outstanding final judgment, the board may authorize the judgment bond be reduced to the amount of the unsatisfied portion of the outstanding judgment. When the licensee submits proof of satisfaction of all debts, the judgment bond requirement may be removed.

The board shall include on the license application for issuance, reinstatement, or reactivation, a statement, to be made under penalty of perjury, as to whether there are any entered and unsatisfied judgments against the applicant on behalf of contractors, subcontractors, consumers, or the applicant's employees. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if it is found that the applicant falsified the statement then the license will be retroactively suspended to date of issuance and the license will stay suspended until the judgment bond is filed.

This subdivision applies only with respect to an unsatisfied judgment which is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of the license being applied for. This section shall not apply to an applicant for issuance, reinstatement, or reactivation where an unsatisfied judgment has been fully discharged in a completed bankruptcy proceeding.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the licensee shall notify the registrar in writing of any entered and unsatisfied judgments within 90 days from the date of judgment.

If the licensee fails to notify the registrar in writing within 90 days, the license shall be automatically suspended and the licensee shall automatically be prohibited from serving as the responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee for any other licensee from the date that the registrar is informed, or is made aware of the unsatisfied judgment. The suspension of the license and prohibition against serving as the responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee for any other licensee shall not be removed until proof of satisfaction of judgment is submitted to the registrar.

If the licensee is serving as the person who is the responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee of any other licensee at the time the suspension arises, the suspension of a license under this section shall constitute a disassociation pursuant to Section 7068.2 and the date of the suspension shall constitute the date of disassociation for the purposes of Section 7068.2. The registrar shall notify the licensee of the disassociation of the qualified person under this section. This notice shall be sent to each remaining member of the personnel of the licensee by first-class mail to the licensee's address of record. In the event that proof of full satisfaction of judgment is submitted to the registrar within the 90-day period provided in Section 7068.2, the disassociation of the responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee shall be terminated and the qualified person shall be permitted to serve as the responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee for the licensee.

This section applies only with respect to an unsatisfied judgment which is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of the license being applied for. In lieu of submitting proof of satisfaction of judgment in order to remove this suspension a licensee may submit proof that the unsatisfied judgment has been fully discharged in a completed bankruptcy proceeding.

If the licensee notifies the registrar in writing within 90 days of the date of judgment of any entered and unsatisfied judgments the board shall require as a condition to the continual maintenance of the license that the licensee file or have on file with the board a judgment bond or other security sufficient to guarantee payment of an amount equal to the unsatisfied judgment or judgments. The licensee has 90 days from date of notification by the board to file the bond or at the end of the 90 days the license shall be automatically suspended. The licensee may provide the board with a notarized copy of any accord, reached with any individual holding an unsatisfied judgment, to satisfy a debt in lieu of filing the bond. Failure to maintain the bond or failure to abide by the accord shall result in the automatic suspension, by operation of law, to any license that this section applies. If a licensee does not file the bond within 90 days from the board's date of notification and the license is suspended or if the bond is not maintained and the license is suspended or if the licensee does not abide by the accord and the license is suspended, the license suspension and prohibition against serving as a responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee for any other licensee can only be removed and the license reinstated or the licensee allowed to serve as a responsible managing officer, responsible managing partner, or responsible managing employee for any other licensee when proof of a satisfaction of all debts is made.

Except as otherwise provided, the judgment bond shall remain in full force in the amount posted until the entire debt is satisfied. If at the time of renewal, the licensee submits proof of partial satisfaction of the outstanding final judgment, the board may authorize the judgment bond be reduced to the amount of the unsatisfied portion of the outstanding judgment. When the licensee submits proof of satisfaction of all debts, the judgment bond requirement may be removed.

(f) The board shall take the actions required by this section upon notification by any party having knowledge of the outstanding judgment upon a showing of proof of the judgment.

(g) For the purposes of this section, the term "judgment" includes any final arbitration award.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, as a condition precedent to licensure, the board may require an applicant to post a contractor's bond in twice the amount required pursuant to subdivision (a) until such time as the license is renewed, under the following conditions:

(1) The applicant has either been convicted of a violation of Section 7028 or has been cited pursuant to Section 7028.7.

(2) If the applicant has been cited pursuant to Section 7028.7, the citation has been reduced to a final order of the registrar.

(3) The violation of Section 7028, or the basis for the citation issued pursuant to Section 7028.7, constituted a substantial injury to the public.

(i) This section shall become operative July 1, 1994.

SEC. 207. Section 7306 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7306. (a) Members shall be appointed for four-year terms expiring June 1 of the fourth year following the year in which the previous term expired. Members shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of their successors or until one year shall have elapsed since the expiration of the term for which they were appointed, whichever first occurs. No person shall serve as a member of the board for more than two consecutive terms.

(b) Vacancies occurring during a term shall be filled for the unexpired term.

(c) The Governor shall appoint three of the public members, one licensed cosmetologist and one licensed barber who shall not be affiliated with any school, as defined in Article 8 (commencing with Section 7362) nor have dual licensure in cosmetology, barbering, or electrolysis, and two other members representing the professions. The Senate Committee on Rules and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint one public member.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Director of Consumer Affairs may make a formal recommendation to the appointing power that a board member be removed for cause, provided that the director must provide prior written notice to the appointing power and to the member stating the basis for the recommendation.

(e) The appointing powers shall give consideration to members of the State Board of Barbering and Cosmetology holding office on June 1, 1992, in making first appointments to the new board, provided those members' terms were scheduled to expire after June 1, 1992, and they would have been eligible for reappointment to the State Board of Barbering and Cosmetology.

(f) The first four members selected as first appointments to the new board shall be appointed for two-year terms expiring June 1 of the second year following the year of their appointment.

SEC. 208. Section 7685.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7685.3. Commencing January 1, 1994, the current address, telephone number, and name of the State Board of Funeral Directors and Embalmers shall appear prominently any contract for goods and services offered by a funeral director. At a minimum, the information shall be in 8-point boldface type and make this statement:

“FOR MORE INFORMATION ON FUNERAL MATTERS, CONTACT: STATE BOARD OF FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS, (ADDRESS); TELEPHONE NUMBER (NUMBER).”

For the period of January 1, 1993, through December 31, 1993, a funeral director shall supply the above information in writing when presenting a sales contract to any individual.

SEC. 209. Section 7851 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 210. Section 8000 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8000. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a Court Reporters Board of California, which consists of five members, three of whom shall be public members and two of whom shall be holders of certificates issued under this chapter who have been actively engaged as shorthand reporters within this state for at least five years immediately preceding their appointment.

SEC. 211. Section 8005 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8005. The Court Reporters Board of California is charged with the executive functions necessary for effectuating the purposes of this chapter. It may appoint committees as it deems necessary or proper. The board may appoint, prescribe the duties, and fix the salary of an executive officer. Except as provided by Section 159.5, the board may also employ other employees as may be necessary, subject to civil service and other provisions of law.

SEC. 212. Section 8018 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8018. Any natural person holding a valid certificate as a shorthand reporter, as provided in this chapter, shall be styled and known as a “certified shorthand reporter.” Except as provided in Section 8043, no other person, firm, or corporation shall assume or use the title “certified shorthand reporter,” or the abbreviation “C.S.R.,” or use any words or symbols indicating or tending to indicate that the person is certified under this chapter, or in any manner whatever represent that he, she, or it is certified under this chapter.

SEC. 213. Section 8027 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8027. (a) As used in this section, “school” means a court reporter training program or an institution which provides a course of instruction approved by the board, and which is approved by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education, is a public school in this state, or is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

(b) A court reporting school shall be primarily organized to train students for the practice of shorthand reporting, as defined in Sections 8016 and 8017. Its educational program shall be on the postsecondary or collegiate level, and shall be a residence program; its educational program shall not be a correspondence program. It shall be legally organized and authorized to conduct its program under all applicable laws of the state, and shall conform to and offer the minimum prescribed course of study established by the board. Its records shall be kept and shall be maintained in a manner to render them safe from theft, fire, or other loss. The records shall indicate positive daily and clock-hour attendance of each student; apprenticeship and graduation reports; high school transcripts or equivalent; transcript of other education; and, student progress to date.

(c) The board may grant provisional recognition to a new court reporting school upon satisfactory evidence that it has met all of the provisions of subdivision (b). Recognition may be granted by the board to a provisionally recognized school after it has been in continuous operation for a period of no less than three, and no more than five, consecutive years from the date provisional recognition was granted, during which period the school shall provide satisfactory evidence that at least one person has successfully completed the entire course of study established by the board and complied with the provisions of Section 8020, and has been issued a certificate to practice shorthand reporting as defined in Sections 8016 and 8017. Failure to meet the provisions and terms of this section shall require the board to deny recognition after the five-year period.

(d) Application for recognition of a court reporting school shall be made upon a form prescribed by the board and shall be accompanied by all evidence, statements, or documents requested. Each branch, extension center or off-campus facility requires separate application.

(e) All recognized and provisionally recognized court reporting schools shall notify the board of any change in school name, address, telephone number, responsible court reporting program manager, owner of private schools, and the effective date thereof, within 30 days of the change. The board shall be notified, immediately, of the discontinuance, or pending discontinuance of the school or program. All of these notifications shall be made in writing.

(f) The board shall maintain a roster of currently recognized and provisionally recognized court reporting schools including, but not limited to, the name, address, telephone number, and the name of the responsible court reporting program manager of each school.

(g) The board shall maintain statistics which display the number and passing percentage of all first-time examinees including, but not limited to, those qualified by each recognized or provisionally recognized school and those first-time examinees qualified by other methods as defined in Section 8020.

(h) Inspections and investigations shall be conducted by the board as necessary to carry out this section.

(i) Each court reporting school shall file with the board, not later than June 30 of each year, a current school catalog which shows all course offerings and staff, and for private schools, the owner, except that where there have been no changes to the catalog within the previous year, no catalog need be sent. In addition, each school shall also file with the board a statement certifying that the school is in compliance with all statutes and the rules and regulations of the board, signed by the responsible court reporting program manager.

SEC. 214. Section 8030 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8030. All fees and other revenues received by the board shall be reported promptly to the State Controller and shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to be placed in the Court Reporters' Fund, which fund is continued in existence in the State Treasury and is appropriated to carry out this chapter.

SEC. 215. Section 8030.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8030.2. (a) To provide shorthand reporting services to low-income litigants in civil cases, who are unable to otherwise afford those services, funds generated by fees received by the board pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 8031 in excess of funds needed to support the board's operating budget for the fiscal year in which a transfer described below is made shall be used by the board for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a Transcript Reimbursement Fund. The Transcript Reimbursement Fund shall be established by a transfer of funds from the Court Reporters' Fund and shall be maintained in an amount no less than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) for each fiscal year.

(b) All moneys held in the Court Reporters' Fund on the effective date of this section in excess of the board's operating budget for the 1986-87 fiscal year shall be used as provided in subdivision (a).

(c) Refunds and unexpended funds that are anticipated to remain in the Transcript Reimbursement Fund at the end of the fiscal year shall be considered by the board in establishing the fee assessment pursuant to Section 8031 so that the assessment shall maintain the Transcript Reimbursement Fund at the appropriate level in the following fiscal year.

(d) The Transcript Reimbursement Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, moneys in the Transcript Reimbursement Fund are continuously appropriated for the purposes of this chapter.

(e) Applicants who have been reimbursed pursuant to this chapter for services provided to litigants and who are awarded court costs or attorneys' fees by judgment or by settlement agreement, shall refund the full amount of that reimbursement to the fund within 90 days of receipt of the award or settlement.

(f) Subject to the limitations of this chapter, the board shall maintain the fund at a level which is sufficient to pay all qualified claims. To accomplish this objective, the board shall utilize all refunds, unexpended funds, fees, and any other moneys received by the board.

(g) Notwithstanding Section 16346 of the Government Code, all unencumbered funds remaining in the Transcript Reimbursement Fund as of June 29, 1986, shall be transferred to the Transcript Reimbursement Fund established by this section.

(h) Notwithstanding Section 16346 of the Government Code, all unencumbered funds remaining in the Transcript Reimbursement Fund as of June 29, 1996, shall be transferred to the Court Reporters' Fund.

This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1996, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 216. Section 8040 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8040. A shorthand reporting corporation is a corporation which is authorized to render professional services, as defined in Section 13401 of the Corporations Code, as long as that corporation and all of its shareholders, officers, directors, and employees rendering professional services who are certified shorthand reporters are in compliance with the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act, this article, and all other statutes and regulations now or hereafter enacted or adopted pertaining to that corporation and the conduct of its officers. With respect to a shorthand reporting corporation, the governmental agency referred to in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act is the Court Reporters Board of California.

SEC. 217. Section 8712 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8712. The executive officer shall prepare, once every two years, a roster containing the names and addresses of all licensed land surveyors, and the names and addresses of the holders of delinquent licenses. The roster shall be a part of the roster of registered professional engineers issued by the board.

A copy of the roster shall be filed with the Secretary of State.

Copies of the roster shall be available to the general public.

The roster shall be a public record.

SEC. 218. Section 8750 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8750. Upon being licensed, each licensee may obtain a stamp or seal of the design authorized by the board bearing the licensee's name, number of certificate, and the legend "Licensed Land Surveyor," or "Professional Land Surveyor." The stamp or seal shall contain the expiration date of the license, or a space within which the expiration date must be written.

SEC. 219. Section 8762 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8762. After making a survey in conformity with the practice of land surveying, the surveyor or civil engineer may file with the county surveyor in the county in which the survey was made, a record of the survey.

After making a survey in conformity with the practice of land surveying, the licensed land surveyor or registered civil engineer shall file with the county surveyor in the county in which the survey was made a record of the survey relating to land boundaries or property lines, if the survey discloses any of the following:

(a) Material evidence or physical change, which in whole or in part does not appear on any subdivision map, official map, or record of survey previously recorded or filed in the office of the county recorder or county surveying department, or map or survey record maintained by the Bureau of Land Management of the United States.

(b) A material discrepancy with the information contained in any subdivision map, official map, or record of survey previously recorded or filed in the office of the county recorder or the county surveying department, or any map or survey record maintained by the Bureau of Land Management of the United States. For purposes of this subdivision, a "material discrepancy" is limited to a material discrepancy in the position of points or lines, or in dimensions.

(c) Evidence that, by reasonable analysis, might result in materially alternate positions of lines or points, shown on any subdivision map, official map, or record of survey previously recorded or filed in the office of the county recorder or the county surveying department, or any map or survey record maintained by the Bureau of Land Management of the United States.

(d) The establishment of one or more points or lines not shown on any subdivision map, official map, or record of survey, the positions of which are not ascertainable from an inspection of the subdivision map, official map, or record of survey without trigonometric calculations.

(e) The points or lines set during a survey of any parcel described in any deed or other instrument of title recorded in the county recorder's office are not shown on any subdivision map, official map, or record of survey.

The record of survey required to be filed pursuant to this section shall be filed within 90 days after the setting of boundary monuments during the performance of a survey or within 90 days after completion of a survey, whichever occurs first.

If the 90-day time limit contained in this section cannot be complied with for reasons beyond the control of the licensed land surveyor or registered civil engineer, the 90-day time period shall be extended until such time as the reasons for delay are eliminated. If the licensed land surveyor or registered civil engineer cannot comply with the 90-day time limit, he or she shall, prior to the expiration of the 90-day time limit, provide the county surveyor with a letter stating that he or she is unable to comply. The letter shall provide an estimate of the date for completion of the record of survey, the reasons for the delay, and a general statement as to the location of the survey, including the assessor's parcel number or numbers.

The licensed land surveyor or registered civil engineer shall not initially be required to provide specific details of the survey. However, if other surveys at the same location are performed by others which may affect or be affected by the survey, the licensed land surveyor or registered civil engineer shall then provide information requested by the county surveyor without unreasonable delay.

Any record of survey filed with the county surveyor shall, after being examined by him or her, be filed with the county recorder.

SEC. 220. Section 8802 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8802. Except as otherwise provided in this article, licenses issued under this chapter may be renewed at any time within three years after expiration on filing of application for renewal on a form prescribed by the board and payment of all accrued and unpaid renewal fees. If the license is renewed more than 30 days after its expiration, the licensee, as a condition precedent to renewal, shall also pay the delinquency fee prescribed by this chapter. Renewal under this section shall be effective on the date on which the application is filed, on the date on which the renewal fee is paid, or on the date on which the delinquency fee, if any, is paid, whichever last occurs. If so renewed, the license shall continue in effect through the date provided in Section 8801 which next occurs after the effective date of the renewal, when it shall expire if it is not again renewed.

SEC. 221. Section 8803 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8803. A license which is not renewed within three years after its expiration may not be renewed, restored, reissued, or reinstated thereafter, unless all of the following apply:

(a) The licensee has not committed any acts or crimes constituting grounds for denial of licensure under Section 480.

(b) The licensee pays all of the fees which would be required if applying for the license for the first time. If the registrant or certificate holder has been practicing in this state with an expired or delinquent license and receives a waiver from taking the examination as specified in subdivision (c) then he or she shall pay all accrued and unpaid renewal fees.

(c) The licensee takes and passes the examination which would be required if applying for the license for the first time, or otherwise establishes to the satisfaction of the board that, with due regard for the public interest, the licensee is qualified to engage in the practice of land surveying.

The board may, by appropriate regulation, authorize the waiver or refund of all or any part of the application fee in those cases in which a license is issued without an examination under this section.

SEC. 222. Section 8806 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 223. Section 9662 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9662. Commencing January 1, 1994, the current address, telephone number, and name of the Cemetery Board shall appear prominently on any contract for goods and services offered by a cemetery authority or crematory. At a minimum the information shall be in 8-point boldface type and make the following statement:

“FOR MORE INFORMATION ON CEMETERY AND CREMATION MATTERS, CONTACT: THE CEMETERY BOARD, (ADDRESS); TELEPHONE NUMBER (NUMBER).”

For the period January 1, 1993, through December 31, 1993, a cemetery authority or crematory operator shall supply the above information in writing when presenting a sales contract to any individual.

SEC. 224. Section 18605 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

18605. A majority of the appointed members of the commission constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The affirmative vote of a majority of those commissioners present at a meeting of the commission constituting at least a quorum is necessary to render a decision or pass a motion.

SEC. 225. Section 13401 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

13401. As used in this part:

(a) “Professional services” means any type of professional services which may be lawfully rendered only pursuant to a license, certification, or registration authorized by the Business and Professions Code or the Chiropractic Act.

(b) “Professional corporation” means a corporation organized under the General Corporation Law or pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 13406 which is engaged in rendering professional services in a single profession, except as otherwise authorized in Section 13401.5, pursuant to a certificate of registration issued by the governmental agency regulating the profession as herein provided and which in its practice or business designates itself as a professional or other corporation as may be required by statute. However, any professional corporation or foreign professional corporation rendering professional services by persons duly licensed by the Medical Board of California or any examining committee under the jurisdiction of the board, the State Board of Pharmacy, the Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine, the Board of Architectural Examiners, the Certified Court Reporters Board, or the Board of Registered Nursing shall not be required to obtain a certificate of registration in order to render those professional services.

(c) “Foreign professional corporation” means a corporation organized under the laws of a state of the United States other than this state that is engaged in a profession of a type for which there is authorization in the Business and Professions Code for the performance of professional services by a professional corporation.

(d) “Licensed person” means any natural person who is duly licensed under the provisions of the Business and Professions Code or the Chiropractic Act to render the same professional services as are or will be rendered by the professional corporation or foreign professional corporation of which he or she is or intends to become, an officer, director, shareholder, or employee.

(e) "Disqualified person" means a licensed person who for any reason becomes legally disqualified (temporarily or permanently) to render the professional services which the particular professional corporation or foreign professional corporation of which he or she is an officer, director, shareholder, or employee is or was rendering.

SEC. 226. Section 13401.5 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

13401.5. Notwithstanding subdivision (c) of Section 13401 and any other provision of law, the following licensed persons may be shareholders, officers, directors, or professional employees of the professional corporations designated in this section so long as the sum of all shares owned by those licensed persons does not exceed 49 percent of the total number of shares of the professional corporation so designated herein, and so long as the number of those licensed persons owning shares in the professional corporation so designated herein does not exceed the number of persons licensed by the governmental agency regulating the designated professional corporation:

SEC. 227. Section 69274.6 of the Education Code is amended to read:

69274.6. When making recommendations to the Director of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development concerning the funding of family practice programs or departments, family practice residencies, and programs for the training of primary care physician assistants and primary care nurse practitioners, the commission shall give priority to programs that have demonstrated success in the following areas:

- (a) Actual placement of individuals in medically underserved areas.
- (b) Success in attracting and admitting members of minority groups to the program.

(c) Success in attracting and admitting individuals who were former residents of medically underserved areas.

(d) Location of the program in a medically underserved area.

(e) The degree to which the program has agreed to accept individuals with an obligation to repay loans awarded pursuant to the Minority Health Professions Education Fund.

SEC. 228. Section 94304 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94304. (a) There is hereby established in state government a Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education. The council shall have the responsibility for approving and regulating private postsecondary educational institutions and for developing state policies for private postsecondary and vocational education in California. The council shall represent the private postsecondary educational institutions in all state level planning and policy discussions about postsecondary and vocational education, and shall have as its objective the development of a strong, vigorous, and widely respected sector of private postsecondary and vocational education.

(b) The council shall be composed of 15 voting members, including the following representatives:

(1) Two representatives from private degree granting institutions approved under Section 94310.

(2) Two representatives from vocational institutions approved under Section 94311.

(3) Two representatives from accredited private postsecondary institutions operating in California. One representative shall be from an out-of-state accredited degree-granting postsecondary educational institution approved under Section 94310, and one representative shall be from an accredited vocational institution approved under Section 94311.

(4) A representative of the California Student Aid Commission, nominated by the executive director of the commission, and appointed by the Governor.

(5) The Superintendent of Public Instruction, or his or her designee.

(6) The Secretary of State and Consumer Services, or his or her designee.

(7) Six members of the general public.

(8) The appointment process for the council shall be as follows:

(A) The Governor shall appoint one representative from an institution approved under Section 94310, one representative from a vocational institution approved under Section 94311, one representative from an accredited vocational school, and three members from the general public.

(B) The Senate Rules Committee shall appoint one representative from an institution approved under Section 94310, one representative from an out-of-state accredited degree granting college or university operating in California, and one member of the general public.

(C) The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint one representative from a vocational institution approved under Section 94311, and two members of the general public.

(D) The institutional representatives shall be appointed from a list or lists of persons nominated by private postsecondary or vocational educational institutions.

(9) In addition, the following shall serve as nonvoting ex officio members of the council:

(A) The Attorney General of the State of California, or his or her designee.

(B) The Director of the Department of Employment Development, or his or her designee.

(C) The Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission, or his or her designee.

(D) The Director of the Youth, Adult, and Alternative Educational Services Division of the State Department of Education, or his or her designee.

(E) The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, or his or her designee.

(10) The members of the council designated in paragraphs (5) and (6) shall serve at the pleasure of their respective appointing authorities. All other voting members of the council shall serve a four-year term, and no members shall serve more than two full terms.

(11) Any person appointed to the council as a representative from an institution described in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, who no longer represents the institutions that made him or her eligible for appointment shall automatically and immediately forfeit his or her membership on the council, thereby creating an immediate vacancy. Any person appointed to the council as a member of the general public pursuant to paragraph (7) who no longer qualifies as a member of the general public shall automatically and immediately forfeit his or her membership on the council, thereby creating an immediate vacancy.

(12) No person who is employed by an institution of public or private postsecondary or vocational education, or who is employed by a private organization owning an interest in a private postsecondary or vocational institution, shall be appointed to, or serve on, the council as a member of the general public.

(13) It is the intent of the Legislature that the members of the general public appointed to the council have a strong interest in developing private postsecondary and vocational education, and include representation from businesses that employ persons in positions requiring academic, vocational, or technical education.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the council shall be broadly and equitably representative of the general public and that it include adequate representation on the basis of gender and on the basis of the significant racial, ethnic, and economic groups in the state. No person appointed pursuant to this section shall, with respect to any matter before the council, vote for or on behalf of, or in any way exercise the vote of, any other member of the council.

(d) The council shall meet as often as it deems necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities. Any member of the council who in any calendar year misses more than one-third of the meetings of the full council forfeits his or her office, thereby creating a vacancy.

(e) The council shall select a chair from among the members representing the general public. The chair shall hold office for a term of two years.

(f) The council may appoint any subcommittees or advisory committees it deems necessary to advise the council on matters of educational policy. The council shall appoint and may remove a director in the manner prescribed in this section. The director shall appoint persons to any civil service staff positions authorized by the council. The staffing shall include individuals with responsibilities for each of the following areas:

(1) The approval of vocational institutions.

(2) The approval of degree granting institutions.

(3) The approval of courses offered to veterans by vocational and degree granting institutions. For the purposes of implementing the requirements of this paragraph, the council is hereby designated as the state agency responsible for the administration of veteran educational benefit programs.

(4) Institutional relations to develop strong relationships with agencies such as the State Department of Education, the California Postsecondary Education Commission, the Student Aid Commission, the Department of Consumer Affairs, and nongovernmental accrediting associations.

(5) Legislative and public affairs.

(6) Staff administrative services.

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature that the council's approval and regulating responsibilities be funded solely through approval fees and federal funding provided to implement the approval process for courses offered to veterans by vocational and degree granting institutions. All fees derived from postsecondary degree granting institutions and their veterans' educational benefits shall be deposited in a special degree granting institution account, which is hereby created, in the Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Administration Fund. All fees derived from vocational education institutions and their veterans' educational benefits shall be deposited into a special vocational education account, which is hereby created, in the Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Administration Fund. The council shall establish an accounting procedure to allocate the time required to approve all degree granting institutions and all vocational education institutions and shall charge these accounts accordingly. Any general administrative expenses shall be allocated on a pro rata basis.

(h) The council shall prescribe rules for the transaction of its own affairs, subject to all the following requirements and limitations:

(1) The votes of all representatives shall be recorded.

(2) Effective action shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of all the duly appointed members of the council, not including vacant council seats.

(3) The affirmative votes of two-thirds of all the duly appointed members of the council, not including vacant council seats, shall be necessary for the appointment or removal of the director.

(i) There is hereby established an advisory committee to the council and the director, consisting of representatives of the State Board of Barbering and Cosmetology, the Board of Vocational Nurse and Psychiatric Technician Examiners, the Board of Behavioral Science Examiners, the California Committee of Bar Examiners, the Commissioner of Real Estate, and other state agencies responsible for monitoring private postsecondary institutions. Meeting agenda items and associated documents of the council shall be provided to the advisory committee in a timely manner.

SEC. 229. Section 1322 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1322. In addition to any other statutory provisions requiring confirmation by the Senate of officers appointed by the Governor, the appointments by the Governor of the following officers and the appointments by him or her to the listed boards and commissions are subject to confirmation by the Senate:

- (1) California Horse Racing Board.
- (2) Court Reporters Board of California.
- (3) Chief, Division of Occupational Safety and Health.
- (4) Chief, Division of Labor Standards Enforcement.
- (5) Commissioner of Corporations.
- (6) Contractors State License Board.
- (7) Director of Fish and Game.
- (8) State Director of Health Services.
- (9) Chief Deputy, State Department of Health Services.
- (10) Real Estate Commissioner.
- (11) State Athletic Commissioner.
- (12) State Board of Barbering and Cosmetology Examiners.
- (13) State Librarian.
- (14) Director of Social Services.
- (15) Chief Deputy, State Department of Social Services.
- (16) Director of Mental Health.
- (17) Chief Deputy, State Department of Mental Health.
- (18) Director of Developmental Services.
- (19) Chief Deputy, State Department of Developmental Services.
- (20) Director of Alcohol and Drug Abuse.
- (21) Director of Rehabilitation.
- (22) Chief Deputy, Department of Rehabilitation.
- (23) Director of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(24) Deputy, Health and Welfare Agency.

SEC. 230. Section 11126 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11126. (a) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body from holding closed sessions during a regular or special meeting to consider the appointment, employment, or dismissal of a public employee or to hear complaints or charges brought against that employee by another person or employee unless the employee requests a public hearing. As a condition to holding a closed session on the complaints or charges to consider disciplinary action or to consider dismissal, the employee shall be given written notice of his or her right to have a public hearing, rather than a closed session, which notice shall be delivered to the employee personally or by mail at least 24 hours before the time for holding a regular or special meeting. If notice is not given, any disciplinary or other action taken against any employee at the closed session shall be null and void. The state body also may exclude from any public or closed session, during the examination of a witness, any or all other witnesses in the matter being investigated by the state body. Following the public hearing or closed session, the body may deliberate on the decision to be reached in a closed session.

For the purposes of this section, "employee" shall not include any person who is elected to, or appointed to a public office by, any state body. However, officers of the California State University who receive compensation for their services, other than per diem and ordinary and necessary expenses, shall, when engaged in that capacity, be considered employees.

(b) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent state bodies which administer the licensing of persons engaging in businesses or professions from holding closed sessions to prepare, approve, grade, or administer examinations.

(c) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an advisory body of a state body which administers the licensing of persons engaged in businesses or professions from conducting a closed session to discuss matters which the advisory body has found would constitute an unwarranted invasion of the privacy of an individual licensee or applicant if discussed in an open meeting, provided the advisory body does not include a quorum of the members of the state body it advises. Those matters may include review of an applicant's qualifications for licensure and an inquiry specifically related to the state body's enforcement program concerning an individual licensee or applicant where the inquiry occurs prior to the filing of a civil, criminal, or administrative disciplinary action against the licensee or applicant by the state body.

(d) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit a state body from holding a closed session to deliberate on a decision to be reached in a proceeding required to be conducted pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 or similar provisions of law.

(e) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any state body from holding a closed session to consider matters affecting the national security.

(f) Nothing in this article shall be construed to grant a right to enter any correctional institution or the grounds of a correctional institution where that right is not otherwise granted by law, nor shall anything in this article be construed to prevent a state body from holding a closed session when considering and acting upon the determination of a term, parole, or release of any individual or other disposition of an individual case, or if public disclosure of the subjects under discussion or consideration is expressly prohibited by statute.

(g) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any closed session to consider the conferring of honorary degrees, or gifts, donations, and bequests which the donor or proposed donor has requested in writing to be kept confidential.

(h) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board from holding a closed session for the purpose of holding a deliberative conference as provided in Section 11125.

(i) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body from holding closed sessions with its negotiator prior to the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease of real property by or for the state body to give instructions to its negotiator regarding the price and terms of payment for the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease.

However, prior to the closed session, the state body shall hold an open and public session in which it identifies the real property or real properties which the negotiations may concern and the person or persons with whom its negotiator may negotiate.

For purposes of this subdivision, the negotiator may be a member of the state body.

For purposes of this subdivision, "lease" includes renewal or renegotiation of a lease.

Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude a state body from holding a closed session for discussions regarding eminent domain proceedings pursuant to subdivision (q).

(j) (1) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the California Postsecondary Education Commission from holding closed sessions to consider matters pertaining to the appointment or termination of the Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

(2) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education from holding closed sessions to consider matters pertaining to the appointment or termination of the Executive Director of the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

(k) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Franchise Tax Board from holding closed sessions for the purpose of discussion of confidential tax returns or data the public disclosure of which is prohibited by law, or from considering matters pertaining to the appointment or removal of the executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board.

(l) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Board of Corrections from holding closed sessions when considering reports of crime conditions under Section 6027 of the Penal Code.

(m) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the State Air Resources Board from holding closed sessions when considering the proprietary specifications and performance data of manufacturers.

(n) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body that invests retirement, pension, or endowment funds from holding closed sessions when considering investment decisions. For purposes of consideration of shareholder voting on corporate stocks held by the state body, closed sessions for the purposes of voting may be held only with respect to election of corporate directors, election of independent auditors, and other financial issues that could have a material effect on the net income of the corporation. For the purpose of real property investment decisions that may be considered in a closed session pursuant to this subdivision, a state body shall also be exempt from the provision of subdivision (i) relating to the identification of real properties prior to the closed session.

(o) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, or boards, commissions, administrative officers, or other representatives that may properly be designated by law or by a state body, from holding closed sessions with its representatives in discharging its responsibilities under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3500) of Division 4 of Title 1 as the sessions relate to salaries, salary schedules, or compensation paid in the form of fringe benefits. For the purposes enumerated in the preceding sentence, a state body may also meet with a state conciliator who has intervened in the proceedings.

(p) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any meeting of the Public Utilities Commission at which the rates of entities under the commission's jurisdiction are changed shall be open and public.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Public Utilities Commission from holding closed sessions to deliberate on the institution of proceedings, or disciplinary actions against regulated utilities.

(q) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, based on the advice of its legal counsel, from holding a closed session to confer with, or receive advice from, its legal counsel regarding pending litigation when discussion in open session concerning those matters would prejudice the position of the state body in the litigation.

For purposes of this article, all expressions of the lawyer-client privilege other than those provided in this subdivision are hereby abrogated. This subdivision is the exclusive expression of the lawyer-client privilege for purposes of conducting closed-session meetings pursuant to this article. For purposes of this subdivision, litigation shall be considered pending when any of the following circumstances exist:

(1) An adjudicatory proceeding before a court, an administrative body exercising its adjudicatory authority, a hearing officer, or an arbitrator, to which the state body is a party, has been initiated formally.

(2) (A) A point has been reached where, in the opinion of the state body on the advice of its legal counsel, based on existing facts and circumstances, there is a significant exposure to litigation against the state body; or

(B) Based on existing facts and circumstances, the state body is meeting only to decide whether a closed session is authorized pursuant to subparagraph (A).

(3) Based on existing facts and circumstances, the state body has decided to initiate or is deciding whether to initiate litigation.

The legal counsel of the state body shall prepare and submit to it a memorandum stating the specific reasons and legal authority for the closed session. If the closed session is pursuant to paragraph (1), the memorandum shall include the title of the litigation. If the closed session is pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3), the memorandum shall include the existing facts and circumstances on which it is based. The legal counsel shall submit the memorandum to the state body prior to the closed session, if feasible, and in any case no later than one week after the closed session. The memorandum shall be exempt from disclosure pursuant to Section 6254.25.

For purposes of this subdivision, "litigation" includes any adjudicatory proceeding, including eminent domain, before a court, administrative body exercising its adjudicatory authority, hearing officer, or arbitrator.

Disclosure of a memorandum required under this subdivision shall not be deemed as a waiver of the lawyer-client privilege, as provided for under Article 3 (commencing with Section 950) of Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Evidence Code.

(r) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body operating under a joint powers agreement for insurance pooling from holding a closed session to discuss a claim for the payment of tort liability or public liability losses incurred by the state body or any member agency under the joint powers agreement.

(s) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the examining committee established by the State Board of Forestry, pursuant to Section 763 of the Public Resources Code, from conducting a closed session to consider disciplinary action against an individual professional forester prior to the filing of an accusation against the forester pursuant to Section 11503.

(t) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an administrative committee established by the State Board of Accountancy pursuant to Section 5020 or 5020.3 of the Business and Professions Code from conducting a closed session to consider disciplinary action against an individual accountant prior to the filing of an accusation against the accountant pursuant to Section 11503. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an examining committee established by the Board of Accountancy pursuant to Section 5023 of the Business and Professions Code from conducting a closed hearing to interview an individual applicant or accountant regarding the applicant's qualifications.

(u) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.2, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter that properly could be considered in closed session by the state body whose authority it exercises.

(v) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.7, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter that properly could be considered in a closed session by the body defined as a state body pursuant to Section 11121, 11121.2, or 11121.5.

(w) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.8, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter that properly could be considered in a closed session by the state body it advises.

(x) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the State Board of Equalization from holding closed sessions for either of the following:

(1) When considering matters pertaining to the appointment or removal of the executive secretary of the State Board of Equalization.

(2) For the purpose of hearing confidential taxpayer appeals or data, the public disclosure of which is prohibited by law.

(y) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the California Earthquake Prediction Evaluation Council, or other body appointed to advise the Director of the Office of Emergency Services or the Governor pursuant to Section 8590 concerning matters relating to volcanic or earthquake predictions, from holding closed sessions when considering the evaluation of possible predictions.

(z) This article shall not prevent the Teachers' Retirement Board or the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System from holding closed sessions when considering matters pertaining to the recruitment, appointment, employment, or removal of the chief executive officer or when considering matters pertaining to the recruitment or removal of the chief investment officer of the State Teachers' Retirement System or the Public Employees' Retirement System.

(aa) This article shall not prevent the Commission on Teacher Credentialing from holding closed sessions when considering matters relating to the recruitment, appointment, or removal of its executive director.

SEC. 233. Section 26509 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26509. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including any provision making records confidential, and including Title 1.8 (commencing with Section 1798) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, the district attorney shall be given access to, and may make copies of, any complaint against a person subject to regulation by a consumer-oriented state agency and any investigation of the person made by the agency, where that person is being investigated by the district attorney regarding possible consumer fraud.

(b) Where the district attorney does not take action with respect to the complaint or investigation, the material shall remain confidential.

(c) Where the release of the material would jeopardize an investigation or other duties of a consumer-oriented state agency, the agency shall have discretion to delay the release of the information.

(d) As used in this section, a consumer-oriented state agency is any state agency which regulates the licensure, certification, or qualification of persons to practice a profession or business within the state, where the regulation is for the protection of consumers who deal with the professionals or businesses. It includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

- (1) The Board of Dental Examiners of California.
- (2) The Medical Board of California.
- (3) The State Board of Optometry.

SEC. 234. Section 69942 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69942. No person shall be appointed to the position of official reporter of any court unless there is satisfactory evidence of his or her good moral character, and unless he or she has been first examined as to his or her competency by at least three members of the bar practicing in the court and designated by the judge or judges of the court, or has first obtained a license to practice as a certified shorthand reporter from the Court Reporters Board of California.

SEC. 235. Section 286.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

286.5. In processing and awarding contracts, grants, or agreements pursuant to this article, the State Department of Health Services shall evaluate the ability of applicants to meet, to the maximum extent possible, the following criteria:

(a) The applicant's prior experience in providing community-based, comprehensive perinatal care and services to low-income women and infants.

(b) The applicant's ability to provide comprehensive perinatal care, either directly or through subcontract. Those services comprising comprehensive perinatal care include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (1) Initial and ongoing physical assessment.
- (2) Psychosocial assessments and counseling, and referral when appropriate.

(3) Nutrition assessments, counseling and referral to counseling on food supplement programs, vitamins, and breast-feeding.

(4) Health educational assessments, and intervention and referral, including childbirth preparation and parenting.

(5) Outreach and community education.

(6) Laboratory, radiology, and other specialized services as indicated.

(7) Delivery, postpartum followup, and pediatric care through the first year of life.

(c) The quality of care that is being, or has been provided to low-income women and infants by health care providers.

(d) Whether the area which is, or which will be, serviced by the applicant is medically underserved or has otherwise demonstrated the need for comprehensive, community-based perinatal services.

(e) The applicant's ability to use an appropriate multidisciplinary staff working as a team, in consultation with obstetricians, pediatricians, and family practitioners when appropriate, to provide a full range of comprehensive perinatal care services. Staffing patterns shall reflect, to the maximum extent feasible, at all levels, the cultural, linguistic, ethnic, and other social characteristics of the community served. This staff shall include at least one of those persons described in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, of this subdivision, as follows, and may include, but not be limited to, a combination of those persons described in paragraphs (4) to (10), inclusive, of this subdivision, as follows:

(1) An obstetrician.

(2) A pediatrician.

(3) A family practice physician.

(4) Certified nurse midwives, public health nurses, nurse practitioners, or physician assistants.

(5) Nutritionists.

(6) Social workers.

(7) Health and childbirth educators.

(8) A family planning counselor.

(9) Community outreach peer workers.

(10) A translator.

SEC. 236. Section 447.30 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

447.30. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that evidence exists to support the development of health promotion and health-risk reduction programs as an effective method of constraining the annual inflation rate for expenditures in the health industry. It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature that a health manpower education program be developed to demonstrate the health promotion and health-risk reduction concept at educational institutions, with special emphasis on health manpower development in urban areas having a disproportionate share of disadvantaged and indigent persons.

(b) The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall establish a contract program for funding allied health manpower training projects related to health promotion and health-risk reduction. The contract program shall provide funds to eligible institutions, as determined by the statewide office, for all of the following purposes:

(1) Teaching existing and future primary care providers about health-risk reduction through the institutions' basic curricula.

(2) Recruiting, remediating, and retaining minority allied health professionals, including, but not limited to, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, nurse midwives, public health nurses, health educators, dietitians, and nutritionists, especially those who provide in-home patient care.

(3) Increasing the supply of medical care in underserved urban areas and demonstrating methods which reduce cost through the use of allied health personnel.

(c) These funds shall be available to institutions which currently operate programs for training family practice physicians, other primary care physicians, and those health professionals identified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(d) The recipients of the funds shall provide, but shall not be limited to providing, orientation and training of primary care providers in teaching methods related to patient health education and health promotion, such as educating allied health professionals in the principles of self-care management as it relates to specific health problems in medically underserved communities.

(e) The office shall consult with organizations and experts in the field regarding the establishment of this program, and beginning with the 1986-87 fiscal year, this program shall be implemented to the extent funds are provided in the Budget Act. This program shall be designed to accommodate an appropriation request in the range of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) to eighty thousand dollars ($80,000) per year.

(f) The Director of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development may waive any of the requirements of subdivisions (b) and (c) if a potential contractor demonstrates an ability to meet the goals and objectives of the program.

SEC. 237. Section 447.50 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

447.50. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that many people in the state are denied access to health care due to the lack of sufficient health care providers in some urban and rural communities, especially medically underserved areas.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that one way of increasing access to health care for those living in these communities may be to encourage the increased use of allied health professionals, such as registered dietitians, physical therapists, and physician assistants. Allied health professionals are an underrecognized, but important, human health care resource.

(c) The Legislature further finds and declares that data and other information on the allied health professions and allied health professionals is unfortunately inadequate for serious policy-making purposes. While the value of allied health professionals is seldom disputed, there is a need for a study of the availability, need, utilization, and current distribution of these professionals, and other topics relevant to allied health professionals that could increase their use in the future, if appropriate.

SEC. 238. Section 10203 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10203. The medical and health section data and the time of death shall be completed and attested to by the physician and surgeon last in attendance, or in the case of a patient in a skilled nursing or intermediate care facility at the time of death, by the physician and surgeon last in attendance or by a licensed physician assistant under the supervision of the physician and surgeon last in attendance if the physician and surgeon or licensed physician assistant is legally authorized to certify and attest to these facts, and if the physician assistant has visited the patient within 72 hours of the patient's death. In the event the licensed physician assistant certifies the medical and health section data and the time of death, then the physician assistant shall also provide on the document the name of the last attending physician and surgeon and provide the coroner with a copy of the certificate of death. However, the medical health section data and the time of death shall be completed and attested to by the coroner in those cases in which he or she is required to complete the medical and health section data and certify and attest to these facts.

SEC. 239. Section 10225 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10225. The physician and surgeon last in attendance, or in the case of a patient in a skilled nursing or intermediate care facility at the time of death, the physician and surgeon last in attendance or a licensed physician assistant under the supervision of the physician and surgeon last in attendance, on a deceased person shall state on the certificate of death the disease or condition directly leading to death, antecedent causes, other significant conditions contributing to death and any other medical and health section data as may be required on the certificate; he or she shall also specify the time in attendance, the time he or she last saw the deceased person alive, and the hour and day on which death occurred, except in deaths required to be investigated by the coroner. The physician and surgeon or physician assistant shall specifically indicate the existence of any cancer as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 211.3, of which the physician and surgeon or physician assistant has actual knowledge.

A physician and surgeon may designate, one or more other physicians and surgeons who have access to the physician and surgeon's records, to act as agent for the physician and surgeon for purposes of the performance of his or her duties under this section, provided that any person so designated acts in consultation with the physician and surgeon.

SEC. 240. Section 10250 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10250. A physician and surgeon, physician assistant, funeral director, or other person shall immediately notify the coroner when he or she has knowledge of a death which occurred or has charge of a body in which death occurred under any of the following circumstances:

- (a) Without medical attendance.
- (b) During the continued absence of the attending physician and surgeon.
- (c) Where the attending physician and surgeon or the physician assistant is unable to state the cause of death.
- (d) Where suicide is suspected.
- (e) Following an injury or an accident.
- (f) Under circumstances as to afford a reasonable ground to suspect that the death was caused by the criminal act of another.

Any person who does not notify the coroner as required by this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 241. Section 11027 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11027. (a) "Prescription" means an oral order or electronic transmission prescription for a controlled substance given individually for the person(s) for whom prescribed, directly from the prescriber to the furnisher or indirectly by means of a written order of the prescriber.

(b) "Electronic transmission prescription" includes both image and data prescriptions. "Electronic image transmission prescription" is any prescription order for which a facsimile of the order is received by a pharmacy from a licensed prescriber. "Electronic data transmission prescription" is any prescription order, other than an electronic image transmission prescription, which is electronically transmitted from a licensed prescriber to a pharmacy.

SEC. 242. Section 11164 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11164. Except as provided in Section 11167, no person shall prescribe a controlled substance, nor shall any person fill, compound, or dispense such a prescription unless it complies with the requirements of this section.

(a) Each prescription for a controlled substance classified in Schedule II shall be wholly written in ink or indelible pencil in the handwriting of the prescriber upon the official prescription form issued by the Department of Justice. Each prescription shall be prepared in triplicate, signed, and dated by the prescriber, and shall contain the name and address of the person for whom the controlled substance is prescribed, the name, quantity, and strength of the controlled substance prescribed, directions for use, and the address, category of professional licensure, and the federal controlled substance registration number of the prescriber. The original and duplicate of the prescription shall be delivered to the pharmacist filling the prescription. The duplicate shall be retained by the pharmacist and the original, properly endorsed by the pharmacist with the name and address of the pharmacy, the pharmacy's state license number, the date the prescription was filled and the signature of the pharmacist, shall be transmitted to the Department of Justice at the end of the month in which the prescription was filled. Upon receipt of an incompletely prepared official prescription form of the Department of Justice, the pharmacist may enter on the face of the prescription the address of the patient.

(b) Each prescription for a controlled substance classified in Schedule III, IV, or V, except as authorized by subdivision (c), shall be subject to the following requirements:

(1) The prescription shall be signed and dated by the prescriber and shall contain the name of the person for whom the controlled substance is prescribed, the name and quantity of the controlled substance prescribed, and directions for use. With respect to prescriptions for controlled substances classified in Schedules III and IV, the signature, date, and information required by this paragraph shall be wholly written in ink or indelible pencil in the handwriting of the prescriber.

(2) In addition, the prescription shall contain the name, address, telephone number, category of professional licensure, and federal controlled substance registration number of the prescriber. The information required by this paragraph shall be either preprinted upon the prescription blank, typewritten, rubber stamped, or printed by hand. Notwithstanding any provision in this section, the prescriber's address, telephone number, category of professional licensure, or federal controlled substances registration number need not appear on the prescription if that information is readily retrievable in the pharmacy.

(3) The prescription shall also contain the address of the person for whom the controlled substance is prescribed. If the prescriber does not specify this address on the prescription, the pharmacist filling the prescription or an employee acting under the direction of the pharmacist shall write or type the address on the prescription or maintain this information in a readily retrievable form in the pharmacy.

(c) Any controlled substance classified in Schedule III, IV, or V may be dispensed upon an oral or electronically transmitted prescription, which shall be reduced to writing by the pharmacist filling the prescription or by any other person expressly authorized by provisions of the Business and Professions Code. The date of issue of the prescription and all the information required for a written prescription by subdivision (b) shall be included in the written record of the prescription. The pharmacist need not reduce to writing the address, telephone number, license classification, or federal registry number of the prescriber or the address of the patient if that information is readily retrievable in the pharmacy.

Pursuant to authorization of the prescriber, any employee of the prescriber on behalf of the prescriber may orally or electronically transmit a prescription for a controlled substance classified in Schedule III, IV, or V, if in these cases the written record of the prescription required by this subdivision specifies the name of the employee of the prescriber transmitting the prescription.

(d) The use of commonly used abbreviations shall not invalidate an otherwise valid prescription.

(e) Notwithstanding any provision of subdivisions (b) and (c), prescriptions for a controlled substance classified in Schedule V may be for more than one person in the same family with the same medical need.

(f) In addition to the prescriber's record required by Section 11190, any practitioner dispensing a controlled substance classified in Schedule II in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 11158 shall prepare a written record thereof on the official forms issued by the Department of Justice, pursuant to Section 11161, and shall transmit the original to the Department of Justice in accordance with any rules that the department may adopt for completion and transmittal of the forms.

SEC. 243. Section 11167 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11167. In the event of an epidemic, accident, or calamity, any controlled substance classified in Schedule II may be dispensed upon an oral or electronically transmitted prescription if failure to issue a prescription might result in loss of life or intense suffering. Prior to filling an oral or electronic prescription, the pharmacist shall reduce it to writing. The date of issue of the prescription and all the information required for a written prescription by Section 11164 shall be included in the written record of the oral or electronic prescription.

Additionally, in an emergency a prescriber may issue a written prescription for a controlled substance classified in Schedule II upon a form other than the official prescription form issued by the Department of Justice. However, an oral or electronic prescription shall in all other respects comply with the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 11164.

When an emergency oral or written prescription is issued pursuant to this section, the prescriber shall within 72 hours submit the prescription in the form required by Section 11164 to the pharmacy or pharmacist filling the prescription. If the prescriber does not provide the prescription within 72 hours, the pharmacist filling the emergency prescription shall, within 144 hours of the time the prescription was filled, so inform the Department of Justice, and in addition, shall maintain for three years a written, readily retrievable record identifying (1) the prescriber; (2) the name, strength, and quantity of the controlled substance dispensed; (3) the circumstances under which the emergency prescription was filled; and (4) the date and method of notifying the Department of Justice, including the name or names of any departmental agents to whom oral notice was furnished.

SEC. 244. Section 11167.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11167.5. (a) An order for a controlled substance classified in Schedule II in a licensed skilled nursing facility, an intermediate care facility, or a licensed home health agency providing hospice care may be dispensed upon an oral or electronically transmitted prescription. Prior to filling the prescription, the pharmacist shall reduce it to writing in ink or indelible pencil in the handwriting of the pharmacist upon an official prescription form issued by the Department of Justice for that purpose. The prescriptions shall be prepared in triplicate and shall contain the date the prescription was orally or electronically transmitted by the prescriber, the name of the person for whom the prescription was authorized, the name and address of the licensed facility or home health agency providing hospice care in which that person is a patient, the name and quantity of the controlled substance prescribed, the directions for use, and the name, address, category of professional licensure, and federal controlled substance registration number of the prescriber. The duplicate shall be retained by the pharmacist, and the triplicate shall be forwarded to the prescriber by the end of the month in which the prescription was issued. The original shall be properly endorsed by the pharmacist with the pharmacy's state license number, the signature of the pharmacist, the name and address of the pharmacy, and the signature of the person who received the controlled substances for the licensed facility or home health agency providing hospice care and shall be forwarded by the pharmacist to the Department of Justice at the end of the month in which the prescription was filled. A skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, or licensed home health agency providing hospice care shall forward to the dispensing pharmacist a copy of any signed telephone orders, chart orders, or related documentation substantiating each oral or electronically transmitted prescription transaction under this section.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "hospice care" means interdisciplinary health care which is designed to alleviate the physical, emotional, social, and spiritual discomforts of an individual who is experiencing the last phases of a terminal disease and to provide supportive care for the primary care person and the family of the patient under hospice care.

SEC. 245. Section 11215 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11215. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), any narcotic controlled substance employed in treating an addict for addiction shall be administered by:

- (1) A physician and surgeon.
- (2) A registered nurse acting under the instruction of a physician and surgeon.

(3) A physician assistant licensed pursuant to Chapter 7.7 (commencing with Section 3500) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code acting under the patient-specific authority of his or her physician and surgeon supervisor approved pursuant to Section 3515 of the Business and Professions Code.

(b) When acting under the direction of a physician and surgeon, the following persons may administer methadone or other controlled substances orally in the treatment of an addict for addiction to a controlled substance:

(1) A psychiatric technician licensed pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 4500) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(2) A vocational nurse licensed pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 2840) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(3) A pharmacist licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 4000) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(c) Except as permitted in this section, no person shall order, permit, or direct any other person to administer a narcotic controlled substance to a person being treated for addiction to a controlled substance.

SEC. 246. Section 14134.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14134.5. All of the following provisions apply to the provision of services pursuant to subdivision (v) of Section 14132:

(a) "Comprehensive perinatal provider" means any general practice physician, family practice physician, obstetrician-gynecologist, pediatrician, certified nurse midwife, a group, any of whose members is one of the above-named physicians, or any preferred provider organization or clinic holding a valid and current Medi-Cal provider number and certified pursuant to the standards of this section.

(b) "Perinatal" means the period from the establishment of pregnancy to one month following delivery.

(c) "Comprehensive perinatal services" shall include, but not be limited to, the provision of the combination of services developed through the Department of Health Services Obstetrical Access Pilot Program.

(d) The comprehensive perinatal provider shall schedule visits with appropriate providers and shall track the patient to verify whether services have been received. As part of the reimbursement for coordinating these services, the comprehensive perinatal provider shall ensure the provision of the following services either through the provider's own service or through subcontracts or referrals to other providers:

(A) A psychosocial assessment and when appropriate referrals to counseling.

(B) Nutrition assessments and when appropriate referral to counseling on food supplement programs, vitamins and breast-feeding.

(C) Health, childbirth, and parenting education.

(e) Except where existing law prohibits the employment of physicians, a health care provider may employ or contract with all of the following medical and other practitioners for the purpose of providing the comprehensive services delineated in this section:

(1) Physicians, including a general practitioner, a family practice physician, a pediatrician, or an obstetrician-gynecologist.

(2) Certified nurse midwives.

(3) Nurses.

(4) Nurse practitioners.

(5) Physician assistants.

(6) Social workers.

(7) Health and childbirth educators.

(8) Registered dietitians.

The department shall adopt regulations which define the qualifications of any of these practitioners who are not currently included under the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. Providers shall, as feasible, utilize staffing patterns which reflect the linguistic and cultural features of the populations they serve.

(f) The California Medical Assistance Program and the Maternal and Child Health Branch of the State Department of Health Services in consultation with the California Conference of Local Health Officers shall establish standards for health care providers and for services rendered pursuant to this subdivision.

(g) The department shall assist local health departments to establish a community perinatal program whose responsibilities may include certifying and monitoring providers of comprehensive perinatal services. The department shall provide the local health departments with technical assistance for the purpose of implementing the community perinatal program. The department shall, to the extent feasible, and to the extent funding for administrative costs is available, utilize local health departments in the administration of the perinatal program. If these funds are not available, the department shall use alternative means to implement the community perinatal program.

(h) It is the intent of the Legislature that the department shall establish a method for reimbursement of comprehensive perinatal providers which shall include a fee for coordinating services and which shall be sufficient to cover reasonable costs for the provision of comprehensive perinatal services. The department may utilize fees for service, capitated fees, or global fees to reimburse providers. However, if capitated or global fees are established, the department shall set minimum standards for the provision of services including, but not limited to, the number of prenatal visits and the amount and type of psychosocial, nutritional, and educational services patients shall receive.

Notwithstanding the type of reimbursement system, the comprehensive perinatal provider shall not be financially at risk for the provision of inpatient services. The provision of inpatient services which are not related to perinatal care shall not be subject to the provisions of this section. Inpatient services related to services pursuant to this subdivision shall be reimbursed, in accordance with Section 14081, 14086, 14087, or 14087.2, whichever is applicable.

(i) The department shall develop systems for monitoring and oversight of the comprehensive perinatal services provided in this section. The monitoring shall include, but shall not be limited to, collection of information using the perinatal data form.

(j) Participation for services provided pursuant to this section shall be voluntary. The department shall adopt patient rights safeguards for recipients of the comprehensive perinatal services.

SEC. 247. Section 14132.55 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14132.55. For the purposes of reimbursement under the Medi-Cal program, a speech pathologist or audiologist shall be licensed by the Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology Examining Committee of the Medical Board of California or similarly licensed by a comparable agency in the state in which he or she practices. Licensed speech-language pathologists or licensed audiologists are authorized to utilize and shall be reimbursed for the services of those personnel in the process of completing requirements under the provisions of subdivision (d) of Section 2532.2 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 249. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 250. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the consumer protections afforded by this act may be implemented as quickly as possible, it is necessary for this act to go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 27

An act to amend Sections 43012, 44001.5, 44003, 44005, 44010, 44011, 44012, 44013, 44014, 44015, 44017, 44017.3, 44020, 44021, 44031.5, 44032, 44033, 44034, 44034.1, 44035, 44036, 44036.8, 44037, 44038, 44040, 44050, 44051, 44056, and 44060 of, to add Sections 39032.5, 44014.5, 44014.7, 44024, 44025, 44036.1, 44037.1, 44041, 44045.5, 44045.6, 44062.1, 44062.2, 44063, 44070.5, 44072.10, 44072.11, and 44081.6 to, to repeal Sections 44003.1, 44003.5, 44022, 44031, 44082, and 44083 of, and to repeal and add Sections 44000, 44001, and 44081 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 4000.3, 5204, and 27156 of, and to add Sections 9250.18 and 40517 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 30, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State March 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39032.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39032.5. "Gross polluter" means a vehicle with excess hydrocarbon, carbon monoxide, or oxides of nitrogen emissions as established by the department in consultation with the state board.

SEC. 2. Section 43012 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

43012. (a) For the purpose of enforcing or administering any federal, state, or local law, order, regulation, or rule relating to vehicular sources of emissions, the executive officer of the state board or an authorized representative of the executive officer, or a representative of the department, upon presentation of credentials or, if necessary under the circumstances, after obtaining an inspection warrant pursuant to Title 13 (commencing with Section 1822.50) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, has the right of entry to any premises owned, operated, used, leased, or rented by any new or used car dealer, as defined in Sections 285, 286, and 426 of the Vehicle Code, for the purpose of inspecting any vehicle for which emissions standards have been enacted or adopted or for which emissions equipment is required and which is situated on the premises for the purpose of emission-related maintenance, repair, or service, or for the purpose of sale, lease, or rental, whether or not the vehicle is owned by the dealer. The inspection may extend to all emission-related parts and operations of the vehicle, and may require the on-premises operation of an engine or vehicle, the on-premises securing of samples of emissions from the vehicle, and the inspection of any records which relate to vehicular emissions required by the Environmental Protection Agency or by any state or local law, order, regulation, or rule to be maintained by the dealer in connection with the dealer's business.

(b) The right of entry for inspection under this section is limited to the hours during which the dealer is open to the public, except when the entry is made pursuant to warrant or whenever the executive officer or an authorized representative, or a representative of the department, has reasonable cause to believe that a violation of any federal, state, or local law, order, regulation, or rule has been committed in his or her presence. No vehicle shall be inspected pursuant to this section more than one time without an inspection warrant or without reasonable cause unless the vehicle undergoes a change of ownership or the inspection reveals that the vehicle has failed to comply with required emissions standards or equipment, in which case one additional inspection may be made to verify the violation or to verify that the violation has been corrected.

(c) With respect to vehicles not owned by the dealer, the state board or the department may not prosecute, without the owner's knowledge or consent, any violation by the owner of any law pertaining to vehicular emissions unless prior notice of the inspection has been given to the owner.

(d) If the executive officer or authorized representative, or a representative of the department, upon inspection, finds that a used motor vehicle fails to comply with applicable emissions standards or equipment, the state board or the department shall issue a notice to correct. Until all violations in the notice have been corrected and the dealer has sent proof of correction by certified mail to the state board or the department, whichever issued the notice, the motor vehicle shall prominently display the following disclosure affixed to the windshield in at least 18-point type:

NOT FOR SALE

THIS VEHICLE IS PRESENTLY NOT IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE CALIFORNIA VEHICLE POLLUTION CONTROL LAWS AND MAY NOT BE SOLD UNTIL A VALID CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE HAS BEEN ISSUED.

Any dealer who sells a vehicle prohibited to be sold under this subdivision is subject to a civil penalty of not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000). For purposes of this subdivision, "proof of correction" shall consist of a copy of a certificate of compliance or noncompliance issued following the issuance of a notice to correct by a licensed test station or licensed repair station not affiliated with or owned by the dealer or any other proof of repair satisfactory to the inspecting officer. The dealer shall send the copy of the certificate of compliance or noncompliance by certified mail to the state board or the department, whichever issued the notice, within three days of obtaining the certificate.

(e) Civil penalties may be assessed or recovered for one or more violations by a dealer involving the tampering with or disabling of a vehicle's air injection, exhaust gas recirculation, crankcase ventilation, fuel injection or carburetion systems, ignition timing or evaporative controls, fuel filler neck restrictor, oxygen sensor or electronic controls, or missing catalytic converter.

(f) No civil penalty or criminal penalty may be assessed for a violation by a dealer identified in a notice to correct as a result of an inspection under this section if the violation is related to lack of maintenance or customer tampering or vandalism, including, but not limited to, a missing gasoline filler cap and a disconnected or missing heated air intake tube or vacuum hose. However, if notices to correct are issued under this subdivision to more than 20 percent of the vehicles offered for sale on a dealer's premises during each of three consecutive inspections conducted 30 or more days apart during any one-year period, civil penalties may be assessed and recovered for each vehicle issued a notice to correct.

(g) If the executive officer or authorized representative, upon inspection, finds that a certificate of compliance or noncompliance was issued to a motor vehicle that fails to comply with applicable emissions standards or equipment, the state board shall immediately refer these findings to the department for investigation under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 44000). The state board may refer any other suspected violation to the department for appropriate action.

(h) Notwithstanding Section 17150 of the Vehicle Code, the state shall be liable for any injury or damage caused by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of the operator of any vehicle which is operated pursuant to this section.

(i) This section provides the exclusive authority for inspections of motor vehicles for the purposes specified in this section.

(j) As used in this section, the terms "tampering" and "disabling" mean an unauthorized modification, alteration, removal, or disconnection.

SEC. 3. Section 44000 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 44000 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44000. By the enactment of the 1994 amendments to this chapter made pursuant to the act that added this section, the Legislature hereby declares its intent to meet or exceed the air quality standards established by the amendments enacted to the federal Clean Air Act in 1990 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 7401 et seq., as amended by P.L. 101-549), to enhance and improve the existing vehicle inspection and maintenance network, and to periodically monitor the performance of the network against stated objectives.

SEC. 5. Section 44001 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 44001 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44001. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that California has been required, by the amendments enacted to the Clean Air Act in 1990, and by regulations adopted by the Environmental Protection Agency, to enhance California's existing vehicle inspection and maintenance program to meet new, more stringent emission reduction targets. Therefore, the Legislature declares that the 1994 amendments to this chapter are adopted to implement further improvements in the existing inspection and maintenance program so that California will meet or exceed the new emission reduction targets.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares all of the following:

(1) California is recognized as a leader in establishing performance standards for its air quality programs and those standards have been adopted by many other states and countries.

(2) Studies show that a minority of motor vehicles produce a disproportionate amount of the pollution caused by vehicle emissions. Those vehicles are referred to as gross polluters.

(3) The concept of periodic testing alone does not act as a sufficient deterrent to tampering, or as a sufficient incentive for vigilant vehicle maintenance by a significant percentage of motorists. Gross polluters continue to be driven on the roadways of California.

(4) New technology, known as remote sensing, offers great promise as a cost-effective means to detect vehicles emitting excess emissions as the vehicles are being driven. This type of detection offers many valuable applications, especially its use between scheduled tests, as an inexpensive, random, and pervasive means of identifying vehicles which are gross polluters and targeting those vehicles for repair or other methods of emission reduction.

(5) California continues to seek strict adherence to federal and state performance standards and to results-based evaluations that meet the state's unique circumstances, and which consist of all of the following:

(A) Acceptance of the shared obligation and personal responsibility required to successfully inspect and maintain millions of motor vehicles. Specifically, that obligation begins with this chapter, and extends through those regulators charged with its implementation and enforcement. Through the enactment of the 1994 amendments to this chapter, the Legislature hereby recognizes and seeks to encourage, through a number of innovative and significant steps, the critical role that each California motorist must play in maintaining his or her vehicle's emission control systems in proper working order, in such a way as to continuously meet mandated emission control standards and ensure for California the clean air essential to the health of its citizens, its communities, and its economy.

(B) A focus on the detection, diagnosis, and repair of broken, tampered, or malfunctioning vehicle emission control systems.

(C) Flexibility to incorporate future new scientific findings and technological advances.

(D) Consideration of convenience and costs to those who are required to participate, including motorists, smog check stations, and technicians.

(E) An enforcement program which is vigorous and effective and includes monitoring of the performance of the smog check test or repair stations and technicians, as well as the monitoring of vehicle emissions as vehicles are being driven.

(c) The Legislature further finds and declares that California is, as of the effective date of this section, implementing a number of motor vehicle emission reduction strategies far beyond the effort undertaken by any other state, including all of the following:

(1) California certification standards exceed those of the other 49 states, increasing the cost of a new car to a California consumer by one hundred fifty dollars ($150) or more.

(2) State board regulations mandate increasing availability for sale of low-emission, ultra-low emission, and zero-emission vehicles, including, by 1998, 2 percent; by 2001, 5 percent; and, by 2003, 10 percent zero-emission vehicles.

(3) Effective in 1996, state board regulations mandate the reformulation of gasoline for reduced emissions, at an estimated increased cost to the consumer of 12 to 17 cents per gallon due to refinery modifications and higher production costs.

(4) Cleaner diesel fuel regulations, more stringent than federal standards, took effect in California in October 1993, increasing diesel fuel costs by 4 to 6 cents per gallon.

(5) California law provides for vehicle registration surcharges of up to four dollars ($4) per vehicle in nonattainment areas for air quality-related projects.

(6) California law taxes cleaner fuels at one-half the rate of gasoline and diesel fuel.

(7) California law provides tax credits for the purchase of low-emission vehicles.

(8) California requires smog checks and repairs whenever a vehicle changes ownership, some 3 million vehicles annually, in addition to the regular biennial tests.

(9) Low-value vehicles are discouraged from entering California due to the imposition of a three hundred dollar ($300) smog impact fee on vehicles that are not manufactured to California certification standards.

(10) California imposes sales taxes on motor vehicle fuels and dedicates most of those revenues to mass transit. This increases the cost of fuels by seven cents ($.07) per gallon.

(11) Transportation sales taxes in most urban counties also generate substantial funding for transit and other congestion-reduction measures, costing the average urban California resident fifty dollars ($50) to one hundred dollars ($100) annually, which would be the equivalent of another 8 to 16 cents per gallon of fuel.

SEC. 7. Section 44001.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44001.5. (a) There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a

Bureau of Automotive Repair under the supervision and control of the director. A duty of enforcing and administering this chapter is vested in the chief of the bureau who is responsible to the director.

(b) The department shall take those actions consistent with its statutory authority to ensure that the reduction in vehicle emissions of hydrocarbons, carbon monoxide, and oxides of nitrogen meet or exceed the reductions required by the amendments enacted to the Clean Air Act in 1990. The department shall endeavor to achieve these vehicle emission reductions as expeditiously as practicable, but not later than the deadlines established by the amendments enacted to the Clean Air Act in 1990.

(c) The department shall also ensure that gross polluters are identified and failed when tested pursuant to this chapter and that vehicles meeting the state standards are protected from being falsely failed.

(d) The department may exercise the emergency rulemaking powers in Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code in order to promptly issue any regulations required to implement the 1994 amendments to this chapter.

SEC. 8. Section 44003 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44003. (a) (1) An enhanced vehicle inspection and maintenance program is established in each urbanized area of the state, any part of which is classified by the Environmental Protection Agency as a serious, severe, or extreme nonattainment area for ozone or a moderate or serious nonattainment area for carbon monoxide with a design value greater than 12.7 ppm, and in other areas of the state as provided in this chapter.

(2) A basic vehicle inspection and maintenance program shall be continued in all other areas of the state where a program was in existence under this chapter as of the effective date of this paragraph.

(b) The department may prescribe different test procedures and equipment requirements for those areas described in subdivision (a). Program components shall be operated in all program areas unless otherwise indicated, as determined by the department. In those areas where the biennial program is not implemented and smog check inspections are required to complete the requirements set forth in Sections 4000.1 and 4000.2 of the Vehicle Code, program elements that apply in basic areas, including test equipment requirements for smog check stations, shall apply.

(c) (1) Districts classified as attainment areas may request the department to implement all or part of the program elements defined in this chapter. However, the department shall not implement the program established by Section 44010.5 in any area other than an urbanized area, any part of which is classified by the Environmental Protection Agency as a serious, severe, or extreme nonattainment area for ozone or a moderate or serious nonattainment area for carbon monoxide with a design value greater than 12.7 ppm.

(2) Districts that include areas classified as basic program nonattainment areas pursuant to subdivision (a) may, except as provided in paragraph (1), request the implementation in those areas of test procedures and equipment required for enhanced program areas and any other program requirement specified for enhanced program areas.

SEC. 9. Section 44003.1 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 44003.5 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 44005 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44005. (a) The Department of Motor Vehicles shall cooperate with the department in implementing any changes to enhance the program to achieve greater efficiency, cost-effectiveness, and convenience, or to reduce excess emissions in accordance with this chapter.

(b) The program shall provide for inspection of motor vehicles upon initial registration, biennially upon renewal of registration, upon transfer of ownership, upon the citation of a gross polluter pursuant to Section 44081, and as otherwise provided in this chapter.

SEC. 12. Section 44010 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44010. The motor vehicle inspection program shall provide for privately operated stations which shall be referred to as smog check stations and are authorized pursuant to Section 44015 to issue certificates of compliance or noncompliance to vehicles which meet the requirements of this chapter.

SEC. 13. Section 44011 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44011. (a) All motor vehicles powered by internal combustion engines which are registered within an area designated for program coverage shall be required biennially to obtain a certificate of compliance or noncompliance, except for all of the following:

(1) Every motorcycle, and every diesel-powered vehicle, until the department, pursuant to Section 44012, implements test procedures applicable to motorcycles or to diesel-powered vehicles, or both.

(2) Any motor vehicle which has been issued a certificate of compliance or noncompliance or an emission cost waiver upon a change of ownership or initial registration in this state during the preceding six months, or which has been issued a certificate of exemption pursuant to Section 4000.6 of the Vehicle Code.

(3) Any motor vehicle manufactured prior to the 1966 model-year.

(4) Any other motor vehicle which the department determines would present prohibitive inspection or repair problems.

(5) Any vehicle registered to the owner of a fleet licensed pursuant to Section 44020 if the vehicle is garaged exclusively outside the area included in program coverage, and is not primarily operated inside the area included in program coverage.

(b) Vehicles designated for program coverage in enhanced areas shall be required to obtain inspections from appropriate smog check stations operating in enhanced areas.

SEC. 14. Section 44012 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44012. The test at the smog check stations shall be performed in accordance with procedures prescribed by the department, pursuant to Section 44013, shall require, at a minimum, loaded mode dynamometer testing in enhanced areas, and two-speed testing in all other program areas, and shall ensure all of the following:

(a) Emission control systems required by state and federal law are reducing excess emissions in accordance with the standards adopted pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (c) of Section 44013.

(b) Motor vehicles are preconditioned to ensure representative and stabilized operation of the vehicle's emission control system.

(c) For other than diesel-powered vehicles, the vehicle's exhaust emissions of hydrocarbons, carbon monoxide, carbon dioxide, and oxides of nitrogen in an idle mode or loaded mode are tested in accordance with procedures prescribed by the department. In determining how loaded mode and evaporative emissions testing shall be conducted, the department shall ensure that the emission reduction targets for the enhanced program are met.

(d) For other than diesel-powered vehicles, the vehicle's fuel evaporative system and crankcase ventilation system are tested to reduce any nonexhaust sources of volatile organic compound emissions, in accordance with procedures prescribed by the department.

(e) For diesel-powered vehicles, if the department determines that the inclusion of those vehicles is technologically and economically feasible, a visual inspection is made of emission control devices and the vehicle's exhaust emissions in an idle mode or loaded mode are tested in accordance with procedures prescribed by the department. The test may include testing of emissions of any or all of the pollutants specified in subdivision (c) and, upon the adoption of applicable standards, measurement of emissions of smoke or particulates, or both.

(f) A visual or functional check is made of emission control devices specified by the department, including the catalytic converter in those instances in which the department determines it to be necessary to meet the findings of Section 44001. The visual or functional check shall be performed in accordance with procedures prescribed by the department.

(g) A determination as to whether the motor vehicle complies with the emission standards for that vehicle's class and model-year as prescribed by the department.

(h) The test procedures may authorize smog check stations to refuse the testing of a vehicle that would be unsafe to test, or that cannot physically be inspected, as specified by the department by regulation. The refusal to test a vehicle for those reasons shall not excuse or exempt the vehicle from compliance with all applicable requirements of this chapter.

SEC. 15. Section 44013 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44013. (a) (1) The department, in cooperation with the state board, shall prescribe maximum emission standards to be applied in inspecting motor vehicles under this chapter.

(2) In prescribing the standards, the department shall undertake studies and experiments which are necessary and feasible, evaluate available data, and confer with automotive engineers.

(3) The standards shall be set at a level reasonably achievable for each class and model of motor vehicle when operating in a reasonably sound mechanical condition, allowing for the effects of installed motor vehicle pollution control devices and the motor vehicle's age and total mileage.

(4) The standards shall be designed so that motor vehicles failing the test specified in Section 44012 will be operated, as soon as possible, with a substantial reduction in emissions, and shall be revised from time to time as experience justifies.

(b) The department, in cooperation with the state board, shall research and prescribe test procedures to be applied in inspecting motor vehicles under this chapter, which procedures shall be simple, cost-effective, and consistent with Section 44012. The department may revise the test procedures from time to time as experience justifies. To the extent that any test procedure revision requires new equipment, or a change in equipment, at licensed smog check stations, the department shall provide a reasonable period of time for the acquisition and installation of that new or changed equipment.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the maximum emission standards and test procedures prescribed in subdivisions (a) and (b) for a motor vehicle class and model-year shall not be more stringent than the emission standards and test procedures under which that motor vehicle's class and model-year was certified. Emission standards and test procedures prescribed by the department shall ensure that not more than 5 percent of the vehicles or engines, which would otherwise meet the requirements of this part, will fail the inspection and maintenance test for that class of vehicle or engine.

SEC. 16. Section 44014 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44014. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the testing and repair portion of the program shall be conducted by smog check stations licensed by the department, and by smog check technicians who have qualified pursuant to this chapter.

(b) A smog check station may be licensed by the department as a smog check test-only station and, when so licensed, need not comply with the requirement for onsite availability of current service and adjustment procedures specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 44030. A smog check technician employed by a smog check test only station shall be qualified in accordance with this section.

(c) A smog check station may also be licensed as a repair-only station, and if so licensed, may perform repairs to reduce excessive emissions on vehicles which have failed the smog check test. Repair procedures and equipment requirements shall be established by the department. Technicians employed by a smog check repair-only station shall be qualified in accordance with this section.

(d) Smog check technicians are qualified to test and repair only those classes and categories of vehicles for which they have passed a qualification test administered by the department. The department shall provide for smog check technicians to be qualified for different categories of motor vehicle inspection based on vehicle classification and model-year.

(e) The consumer protection-oriented quality assurance portion of the program, shall be conducted by more than one private entity pursuant to contracts with the department.

SEC. 17. Section 44014.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44014.5. (a) The enhanced program shall provide for the testing and retesting of vehicles in accordance with Section 44010.5 and this section.

(b) The repair of vehicles at test-only stations shall be prohibited, except that the minor repair of components damaged by station personnel during inspection at the station, any minor repair which is necessary for the safe operation of a vehicle while at a station, or other minor repairs, such as the reconnection of hoses or vacuum lines, may be undertaken at no charge to the vehicle owner or operator if authorized in advance in writing by the department.

(c) The department shall provide for the distribution to consumers by test-only stations of a list, compiled by region, of smog check stations licensed to make repairs of vehicular emission control systems. A test-only station shall not refer a vehicle owner to any particular provider of vehicle repair services.

(d) The department shall establish standards for training, equipment, performance, or data collection for test-only facilities.

(e) The department, by regulation, shall prohibit test-only stations from engaging in other business activities that represent a conflict of interest, as determined by the department.

(f) The test-only station may charge a fee, established by the department, sufficient to cover the station's cost to perform the tests required by this chapter. In addition, the station shall charge and collect the certificate fee established pursuant to Section 44060. This subdivision shall apply only to stations contracted for pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 44010.5.

(g) The department shall ensure that there is a sufficient number of test-only facilities to provide convenient testing for the following vehicles:

(1) All vehicles cited and confirmed as gross polluters pursuant to Section 44081 and Section 27156 of the Vehicle Code.

(2) All vehicles identified by a smog check station prior to repairs as gross polluters or as having been tampered with.

(3) All vehicles designated by the department pursuant to Sections 44014.7 and 44020.

(h) The department shall provide a sufficient number of test-only facilities authorized to perform referee functions to provide convenient testing for those vehicles that are required to report to, and receive a certificate of compliance from, a test-only station by this chapter, including all of the following:

(1) All vehicles seeking to utilize state-operated financial assistance or inclusion in authorized scrap programs.

(2) All vehicles unable to obtain a certificate of compliance from a licensed smog check station pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 44015.

(3) Any other vehicles that may be designated by the department.

(i) (1) Gross polluters shall be referred to a test-only facility for a post-repair inspection and retest pursuant to subdivision (g). Simply passing the emissions test shall not be a sufficient condition for receiving a certificate of compliance. A certificate of compliance shall only be issued to a vehicle which does not have any defects with its emission control systems or any defects which could lead to damage of its emission control system, as provided in regulations adopted by the department.

(2) The department shall require all vehicles which are tested pursuant to this chapter and found to be gross polluters, or which are found to have been tampered with, to be tested annually at a test-only station for at least two, but not more than five, consecutive years, as the department determines to be necessary to ensure that the program will comply with Environmental Protection Agency performance standards.

SEC. 18. Section 44014.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44014.7. (a) The department shall require 2 percent of the vehicles required to obtain a certificate of compliance each year in enhanced program areas to receive their certificate from a test-only facility.

(b) The department may require a number not to exceed 2 percent of the vehicles required to obtain a certificate of compliance each year in basic program areas to receive their certificate from a test-only facility.

(c) The vehicles specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be selected at random. The vehicles may be included among the vehicles subject to subdivision (d) of Section 44010.5, to the extent that the vehicles are registered in enhanced program areas. The review committee may review the selection process to ensure that it is a statistically significant representation of the vehicles subject to the basic and enhanced programs. The department shall select the vehicles and the Department of Motor Vehicles shall notify the owners of their obligation under this section pursuant to Section 4000.3 of the Vehicle Code. Selection shall be made from vehicles in an area where a test-only facility is located.

SEC. 19. Section 44015 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44015. (a) A licensed smog check station shall not issue a certificate of compliance, except as authorized by this chapter, to any vehicle which meets the following criteria:

(1) A vehicle that has been tampered with.

(2) A vehicle that, prior to repairs, has been identified by the smog check station as a gross polluter.

(3) A vehicle that has been identified through roadside auditing as a gross polluter pursuant to Sections 44081 and 44081.6.

(4) A vehicle described in subdivision (c).

(b) If a vehicle meets the requirements of Section 44012, a smog check station licensed to issue certificates shall issue a certificate of compliance or a certificate of noncompliance.

(c) A certificate of compliance shall be issued by a test-only facility authorized to perform referee functions for a vehicle which has been properly tested but does not meet the applicable emission standards when it is determined that no adjustment or repair can be made that will reduce emissions from the inspected motor vehicle without exceeding the applicable cost limit established under Section 44017 and that every defect specified by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 43204, and by paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 43205, has been corrected. A certificate issued pursuant to this subdivision shall be deemed an emission cost waiver. No emission cost waiver shall be issued until there has been an actual expenditure by the vehicle owner of an amount at least equal to the applicable repair cost limit specified in Section 44017. No emission cost waiver shall be issued under any of the following circumstances:

(1) If a vehicle was issued an emission cost waiver in the previous biennial inspection of that vehicle.

(2) If a vehicle is designated as a gross polluter pursuant to this chapter, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision or Section 44017.

(3) Upon initial registration of all of the following: a direct import vehicle, a vehicle previously registered outside this state, a dismantled vehicle pursuant to Section 11519 of the Vehicle Code, a vehicle that has had an engine change, an alternate fuel vehicle, and a specially constructed vehicle.

(d) A certificate of compliance or noncompliance shall be valid for 90 days.

(e) A test may be made at any time within 90 days prior to the date otherwise required.

SEC. 20. Section 44017 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44017. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the cost limit for repairs under the program, including parts and labor, shall be a minimum of four hundred fifty dollars ($450) in all areas where the program operates.

(b) The limit established pursuant to subdivision (a) shall not become operative until January 1, 1995, or until the repair subsidy program required pursuant to Section 44062.1 is implemented, whichever occurs first. Prior to that time, the following cost limits shall remain in effect:

(1) For motor vehicles of 1971 and earlier model-years, fifty dollars ($50).

(2) For motor vehicles of 1972 to 1974, inclusive, model-years, ninety dollars ($90).

(3) For motor vehicles of 1975 to 1979, inclusive, model-years, one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125).

(4) For motor vehicles of 1980 to 1989, inclusive, model-years, one hundred seventy-five dollars ($175).

(5) For motor vehicles of 1990 and later model-years, three hundred dollars ($300).

(c) The department shall periodically revise the cost limits specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) in accordance with changes in the Consumer Price Index, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics.

(d) No cost limit shall be imposed in those cases where emissions control equipment is missing or is partially or totally inoperative as a result of being tampered with or when the vehicle has been cited as a gross polluter pursuant to Section 44081 and verified as a gross polluter at a test-only station. The cost limits prescribed pursuant to this section, when implemented, shall not be imposed on vehicles identified as gross polluters prior to repairs at a smog check station. However, if there is no evidence of tampering and the vehicle owner has had repairs performed as necessary to bring the vehicle's emissions below the appropriate threshold established for gross polluters, the emission cost waiver provisions shall apply.

SEC. 21. Section 44017.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44017.3. (a) Each smog check station shall have posted conspicuously in an area frequented by customers a sign advising of the minimum or maximum amounts established by law to be spent on repairs required to cause a motor vehicle to pass a smog check. The sign shall be required in all stations where smog check inspections are performed. In stations where licensed smog check technician repairs are not performed, the station shall have posted conspicuously in an area frequented by customers a statement that repair technicians are not available and repairs are not performed.

(b) The specific amounts enumerated on the sign shall be consistent with Section 44017 and shall also refer to the exceptions in subdivision (d) of Section 44017.

(c) The sign shall include language, as determined by the department, to warn consumers of the penalties for obtaining a certificate by means of fraud.

SEC. 22. Section 44020 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44020. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the department may license any registered owner of a fleet of 10 or more motor vehicles subject to this chapter, who so elects, to implement and conduct the tests and to perform necessary service and adjustment on the fleet's vehicles under this chapter, subject to all of the following conditions:

(a) The registered owner's facilities or personnel, or both, or a designated contractor of the registered owner, shall be licensed by the department as a fleet smog check station, and the test and repair system shall conform, in the department's determination, with all provisions of this chapter and all rules and regulations adopted by the department. The regulations shall provide for adequate onsite inspection by the department. Mobile testing equipment certified by the department may be used in accordance with procedures established by the department. The department may prohibit the use of mobile testing equipment if violations occur.

(b) A license issued under this section is subject to Sections 44035, 44050, and 44072.10, and may be suspended or revoked by the department whenever the department determines, on the basis of random periodic spot checks of the owner's inspection system and fleet vehicles, that the system fails to conform or that certificates of compliance have been issued by the owner in violation of regulations adopted by the department. Any person licensed to conduct tests and service and adjustments under this section is deemed to have consented to provide the department with whatever access, information, and other cooperation the department reasonably determines are necessary to facilitate the random periodic spot checks.

(c) The department or its contractor, on a random periodic basis, shall inspect or observe the inspections performed by licensed fleet smog check stations on not less than 2 percent of the total business fleet vehicles subject to this chapter.

(d) A fleet owner licensed to conduct tests or make repairs pursuant to this chapter shall issue certificates of compliance for motor vehicles. The cost limits in Section 44017 shall not apply to any motor vehicle owned by a fleet owner licensed pursuant to this section.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (d), certificates of compliance or noncompliance prepared solely for the disposal or sale of motor vehicles owned by a fleet owner licensed pursuant to this section shall be subject to the cost limits in Section 44017.

(f) The department shall establish initial and renewal license fees, which shall not exceed the reasonable costs of administering this section.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, fleets consisting of vehicles for hire or vehicles which accumulate high mileage, as defined by the department, shall go to a test-only station when a smog check certificate of compliance is required. Initially, high mileage vehicles shall be defined as vehicles which accumulate 50,000 miles or more each year. In addition, fleets which do not operate high mileage vehicles may be required to obtain certificates of compliance from the test-only station if they fail to comply with this chapter.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the department shall have the authority, by regulation, to require testing of vehicle fleets consistent with regulations adopted by the Environmental Protection Agency, if necessary to meet the emission reduction performance standard established by the agency, as determined by the department.

SEC. 23. Section 44021 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44021. (a) (1) A review committee is hereby created to analyze the effect of the improved inspection and maintenance program established by the 1994 amendments to this chapter on motor vehicle emissions and air quality. The functions of the review committee shall be advisory in nature and primarily pertain to the gathering, analysis, and evaluation of information.

(2) The members of the review committee shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed by the department for their reasonable expenses in performing committee duties. The state board and the department shall provide the review committee with any necessary technical and clerical support in its evaluation and study.

(3) (A) The review committee shall consist of 13 members, nine to be appointed by the Governor, two by the Senate Committee on Rules, and two by the Speaker of the Assembly. All members shall be appointed to four-year terms, and the Governor shall appoint from among his or her appointees the chairperson of the review committee.

(B) The appointees of the Governor shall include an air pollution control officer from an enhanced program nonattainment area, three public members, an expert in air quality, an economist, a social scientist, a representative of the inspection and maintenance industry, and a representative of stationary source emissions organizations.

(C) The appointees of the Senate Committee on Rules shall include an environmental member with expertise in air quality, and a representative from the inspection and maintenance industry.

(D) The appointees of the Speaker of the Assembly shall include an environmental member with expertise in air quality, and a representative of a local law enforcement agency charged with prosecuting violations of this chapter in an enhanced program nonattainment area.

(4) In preparing its evaluations of program effectiveness as provided in paragraph (1), the review committee shall consult with the Department of the California Highway Patrol, the Department of Motor Vehicles, and any other appropriate agencies, as well as the department and the state board, shall schedule and conduct periodic meetings in the performance of its duties, and shall meet and consult with local, state, and federal officials involved in the evaluation of motor vehicle inspection and maintenance programs. At the request of the committee, the department or the state board may, on behalf of the committee, contract with independent entities to assist in the committee's evaluations.

(b) The review committee shall submit periodic written reports to the Legislature and the Governor on the performance of the program and make recommendations on program improvements at least every 12 months. The review committee's reports shall quantify the reduction in emissions and improvement in air quality attributed to the program. Any reports, other than those required by this section, that the review committee is required to provide pursuant to this chapter shall also be transmitted to the Secretary for Environmental Protection and the Secretary for State and Consumer Services.

(c) The review committee shall work closely with all interested parties in preparing the information required by subdivisions (a) and (b). The review committee shall hold at least one public hearing on its findings and recommendations prior to submitting its reports. The reports shall include statutory language to implement its recommendations, and shall recommend the timeframe for making any changes to the program. The review committee shall seek comments from the department, the Department of Motor Vehicles, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, and the state board prior to submitting its reports, and those comments shall be published as an appendix to the report.

(d) The review committee shall participate in the demonstration program authorized by Section 44081.6, as provided by that section.

SEC. 24. Section 44022 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 25. Section 44024 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44024. (a) The department, in cooperation with the state board, shall investigate new technologies, including the role of onboard diagnostic systems in vehicles, as a means both for detecting excess emissions and defective emission control equipment, and for assisting in determining what repairs would be effective. The department shall report to the review committee on the results of its investigation for inclusion in the committee's annual report to the Legislature.

(b) To incorporate new technologies into the program, the department may institute the following changes if the department determines that the changes will be cost-effective and convenient to vehicle owners:

- (1) The schedule for testing and certifying vehicles.
- (2) The location and method for complying with the test requirements otherwise applicable under this chapter.
- (3) The equipment requirements and repair procedures, including the imposition of new or revised diagnostic procedures, to be used at licensed smog check stations.
- (4) The training, skill, and licensing requirements for smog check technicians.
- (5) The applicable test procedures and emission standards, as applied at smog check stations, and during roadside inspection.

SEC. 26. Section 44025 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44025. The department shall act as a clearinghouse to provide access to the vendors who possess service information generated by the vehicle manufacturers.

SEC. 27. Section 44031 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 28. Section 44031.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44031.5. (a) No smog check technician may perform tests or make repairs required by this chapter, for compensation, unless qualified by the department for the class and category of vehicle being tested or repaired. To qualify, smog check technicians shall pass a qualification test administered by the department, in addition to meeting prerequisite minimum experience and training criteria established by the department, pursuant to Section 44045.5. Passage of the qualification test shall also be required upon each biennial renewal of the smog check technician's license.

(b) The department shall prescribe training and periodic retraining courses for licensed smog check technicians pursuant to Section 44045.6.

(c) Whenever the department determines, through investigation, that a previously qualified smog check technician may lack the skills to reliably and accurately perform the test or repair functions within the required qualification, the department may prescribe for the technician one or more retraining courses which have been certified by the department. The smog check technician may request and be granted a hearing, pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, on the department's determination. The request for a hearing shall be submitted within 30 days of the department's notification of its determination. A failure to complete the prescribed retraining course within the time designated by the department, or to request a hearing within 30 days of the department's notification of its determination, shall result in loss of qualification. Upon a later completion of the prescribed department certified retraining course, the department may reinstate the smog check technician's qualification.

(d) Smog check technicians shall have the option to do hands-on work in lieu of written work in order to successfully complete the department certified training and retraining courses.

(e) The institution administering the department certified training or retraining courses shall issue a certificate of completion to each person who successfully completes the certified courses. The certificate shall be valid for one year.

(f) The department may, by regulation, establish procedures relating to the issuance and use of photo identification cards for licensed technicians.

SEC. 29. Section 44032 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44032. No person shall perform, for compensation, tests or repairs of emission control devices or systems of motor vehicles required by this chapter unless the person performing the test or repair is a qualified smog check technician and the test or repair is performed at a licensed smog check station. Qualified technicians shall perform tests of emission control devices and systems in accordance with Section 44012.

SEC. 30. Section 44033 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44033. (a) Any facility meeting the requirements established by the department pursuant to this chapter may be licensed as a test-only, test and repair, or repair-only smog check station. A licensed smog check station shall display an identifying sign prescribed by the department in a manner conspicuous to the public.

(b) No licensed smog check station shall require, as a condition of performing the test, that any needed repairs or adjustment be done by the person, or at the facility of the person, performing the test.

(c) If a motor vehicle, including a commercial vehicle, is tested at a facility licensed to perform tests and repairs pursuant to this chapter, the facility shall provide the customer with a written estimate pursuant to Section 9884.9 of the Business and Professions Code. The written estimate shall contain a notice to the customer stating that the customer may choose another smog check station to perform needed repairs, installations, adjustments, or subsequent tests.

(d) Charges for testing or repair, or both, shall be separately stated.

(e) The department shall require the posting of station licenses and qualified technicians' certificates prominently in each place of business so as to be readily visible to the public.

SEC. 31. Section 44034 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44034. Annual license fees for smog check stations and biennial license fees for smog check technicians shall be imposed by the department, but shall not exceed the reasonable cost of administering the qualifications and licensing program.

SEC. 32. Section 44034.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44034.1. The department may impose an examination fee, sufficient to recover the reasonable cost of administering, developing, and updating the examination, for initial and biennial renewal smog check technician applicants. Payment of the fee entitles the applicant to be scheduled for an examination. The department may contract for collection of the fee.

SEC. 33. Section 44035 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44035. (a) A smog check station's license or a qualified smog check technician's qualification may be suspended or revoked by the department, after a hearing, for failure to meet or maintain the standards prescribed for qualification, equipment, performance, or conduct. The department shall adopt rules and regulations governing the suspension, revocation, and reinstatement of licenses and qualifications and the conduct of the hearings.

(b) The department or its representatives, including quality assurance inspectors, shall be provided access to licensed stations for the purpose of examining property, station equipment, repair orders, emissions equipment maintenance records, and any emission inspection items, as defined by the department.

SEC. 34. Section 44036 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44036. (a) The consumer protection-oriented quality assurance portion of the motor vehicle inspection program shall ensure uniform and consistent tests and repairs by all qualified smog check technicians and licensed smog check stations throughout the state, and shall include a number of stations providing referee functions available to consumers.

(b) All licensed smog check stations shall utilize original equipment and replacement parts that are certified by the department. The department shall charge a fee for certification testing of the equipment or the replacement parts. The fee for certification testing of equipment shall be fixed by the department based upon its actual costs of certification testing, shall be calculated from the time that the equipment is submitted for certification testing until the time that the certification testing is complete, and shall in no event exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000). The fee for certification testing of replacement parts shall be fixed by the department based upon its actual costs of certification testing, shall be calculated from the time that the replacement part is submitted for certification testing until the time that the certification testing is complete, and shall in no event exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500). The department shall adopt, and may from time to time revise, standards for certification and decertification of the equipment, which may include a device for testing of emissions of oxides of nitrogen. As expeditiously as possible, the department shall adopt equipment standards which shall include a test analyzer system containing all of the following:

(1) A microprocessor to control test sequencing, selection of proper test standards, the automatic pass or fail decision, and the format for the test report and the recorded data file. The microprocessor shall be capable of using a standardized programming language specified by the department.

(2) An exhaust gas analysis portion with an analyzer for hydrocarbons, carbon monoxide, and carbon dioxide which is designed to accommodate an optional oxides of nitrogen analyzer. An oxides of nitrogen analyzer shall be required in the enhanced program areas.

(3) Equipment necessary to perform visual and functional tests of emission control devices required by the department.

(4) A device to accept and record motor vehicle identification information, including a device capable of reading bar code information pursuant to regulations of the state board. The device shall have the ability to identify, with the cooperation of the Department of Motor Vehicles, smog inspections performed on vehicles sold by used car dealers.

(5) A device to provide a printed record of the test process and diagnostic information for the motorist.

(6) A mass storage device capable of storing not less than the minimum amount of program software and data specified by the department.

(7) A device to provide for the periodic modification of all program and data files contained on the mass storage device, using a standardized form of removable media conforming to specifications of the department.

(8) A device which provides for the storage of test records on a standardized form of removable media conforming to specifications of the department.

(9) One or more communications ports conforming to the specifications established by the department as necessary to provide real time communication, or communication which is consistent with maintaining a superior quality assurance program and efficient information transfer, between the test equipment and the centralized computer data base through the computer network maintained by the department pursuant to Section 44037.1.

(10) An interface capable of monitoring equipment used with loaded mode testing, idle testing, on board diagnostic testing, or other tests prescribed by the department.

(11) Any other features that the department determines are necessary to increase the effectiveness of the program, including, but not limited to, a loaded mode dynamometer for purposes of oxides of nitrogen detection, and other equipment necessary to detect nonexhaust-related volatile organic compound emissions such as found in fuel system evaporative emissions and crankcase ventilation emissions.

(c) The department shall require all smog check stations to use equipment meeting the requirements of subdivision (b) as soon as possible, but not later than January 1, 1996. However, the department may defer the requirement for any equipment, external to the chassis of the test analyzer system, needed to read bar code information until a substantial portion of the vehicles subject to this chapter are equipped with bar code labels. Prior to the imposition of a requirement for equipment meeting the requirements of subdivision (b), every smog check station shall use equipment meeting the specifications of the department in effect on January 1, 1988.

(d) The quality assurance portion shall provide for inspections of licensed smog check stations, data collection and forwarding, equipment accuracy checks, operation of referee stations, and other necessary functions. In contracting for services pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 44014, the department shall prepare detailed specifications and solicit bids from private entities for the implementation of the quality assurance functions.

(e) The department may revise the specifications for equipment annually if the cost thereof is less than 20 percent of the total system cost. A more comprehensive revision to the specifications may be required not more often than every five years.

(f) (1) Equipment manufacturers shall furnish to the department, and shall install, software updates as specified by the department. The department shall allow equipment manufacturers six months, from the date the department issues its proposed specifications for periodic software updates, to obtain department approval that the updates meet the proposed specifications and to install the updates in all equipment subject to the updates. During the first 30 days of the six-month period, the manufacturers shall be permitted to review and to comment upon the proposed specifications. However, notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the department may order manufacturers to install software changes in a shorter period of time upon a finding by the department that a previously installed update does not meet current specifications. A manufacturer's failure to furnish or install software updates as so specified is cause for the department to decertify the manufacturer's test analyzer system or to issue a citation to the manufacturer. The citation shall specify the nature of the violation and may specify a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day the manufacturer fails to furnish or install the specified software updates by the specified period. In assessing a civil penalty pursuant to this subdivision, the department shall give due consideration, in determining the appropriateness of the amount of the civil penalty, to factors such as the gravity of the violation, the good faith of the manufacturer, and the history of previous violations.

(2) The citations shall be served pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 11505 of the Government Code. The manufacturer may request a hearing in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. A request for a hearing shall be submitted in writing within 30 days of service of the citation, and shall be delivered to the office of the department in Sacramento. Hearings and related procedures under this subdivision shall be conducted in the same manner as proceedings for adjudication of an accusation under that Chapter 5, except as otherwise specified in this article.

(3) If within 30 days from service of the citation, the manufacturer fails to request a hearing, the citation shall be deemed the final order of the department.

(4) Any failure to comply with the final order of the department for payment of a civil penalty, or to pay the amount specified in any settlement executed by the licensee and the Director of Consumer Affairs, is cause for decertification of the manufacturer's test analyzer system.

SEC. 35. Section 44036.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44036.1. The department may require that equipment manufacturers, submitting equipment for certification pursuant to Section 44036, submit proof of financial security, including, but not limited to, insurance sufficient to cover product liability claims, and secured funds for prepaid warranty or service contracts.

SEC. 36. Section 44036.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44036.8. The data collected by the equipment used by a smog check station, as required by regulations of the Bureau of Automotive Repair, may be used by a licensed smog check station technician or operator when appealing a citation issued by the Bureau of Automotive Repair.

SEC. 37. Section 44037 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44037. (a) The department shall compile and maintain records, using the sampling methodology necessary to ensure their scientific validity and reliability, of tests and repairs performed by qualified smog check technician at licensed smog check stations pursuant to this chapter on all of the following information:

(1) The motor vehicle identification information and the test data collected at the station.

(2) The number of maintenance and repair operations performed on motor vehicles which fail to pass a test conducted pursuant to this chapter.

(3) The correlation between maintenance and repairs recommended by the department pursuant to Section 44016 and maintenance and repairs performed.

(4) The charges assessed for the service and repairs and the correlation between the amount charged for repairs and the amount of emission reduction.

(5) Data received and compiled through the use of the centralized computer data base and computer network to be established pursuant to Section 44037.1, and any other information determined to be essential by the department for program enhancement to achieve greater efficiency, cost-effectiveness, convenience, or emission reductions.

(6) The frequency of specific smog check stations which issue a passing certificate for vehicles which have failed a previous inspection at other smog check stations within the preceding 30 days.

(b) A written summary of the information specified in subdivision (a) shall be available annually for the technicians and smog check stations in each district and to the public upon request.

SEC. 38. Section 44037.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44037.1. (a) On or before January 1, 1995, the department shall design and establish the equipment necessary to operate a centralized computer data base and computer network which is readily accessible by all licensed smog check technicians on a real time basis.

(b) The centralized computer data base and network shall be designed with all of the following capabilities:

(1) To provide smog check technicians with immediate access to vehicle-specific information regarding the location of all emission control equipment, pattern failure data, and other vehicle-specific technical information relevant to the efficient identification, diagnosis, and repair of emission problems.

(2) To provide smog check technicians and the department with information as to the date and result of prior smog check tests performed on each vehicle in order to discourage vehicle owners from shopping for certificates of compliance and to permit the department to identify smog check stations for further investigation as potential violators of this chapter.

(3) To provide the department with data on the failure rates and repair effectiveness for vehicles of each make and model-year on a statewide basis, and by smog check station and technician, to facilitate identification of smog check stations and technicians as potential violators of this chapter.

(4) Upon a determination that a smog check station or technician has engaged in a pattern of violating this chapter, or that a vehicle failed one or more emissions tests before obtaining a certificate of compliance, to provide the information necessary to identify and contact vehicle owners who obtained certificates from the station or technician, or may have obtained certificates of compliance in violation of this chapter, for purposes of requiring the retesting of their vehicles.

(5) To be compatible with the eventual transition to a fully computerized smog certification program that will not require the use of printed certificates as evidence of compliance.

(6) To be compatible with bar code scanning of vehicles as provided in Section 44041.

(7) To permit ongoing entry of information from each smog check station into the centralized data base to enlarge and improve the data base on a continuous basis.

(8) To be compatible with the department's recordkeeping and compilation requirements established by Section 44037.

(9) To meet the needs of a remote-sensing program to identify gross polluters, as specified by the department.

(10) To meet any other needs specified by the department to enhance the benefits of the program through the storage of vehicle-specific information, such as that pertaining to scrap programs and to the referee station program.

(c) After January 1, 1995, each smog check station shall transmit vehicle data emission test results to the department's centralized data base. Each smog check station shall also transmit vehicle data and emission measurements made before and after repair. The department shall establish, by regulation, the form, manner, and frequency of the data transmittals.

SEC. 39. Section 44038 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44038. Until implementation of the centralized computer data base required pursuant to Section 44037.1, each smog check station shall transmit vehicle data and emission test or repair results to the department and transmit to the department vehicle data and emission measurements made before and after repair. The department shall establish, by regulation, the form, manner, and frequency of those data transmittals.

SEC. 40. Section 44040 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44040. The department may require certificates of compliance and certificates of noncompliance to contain a unique number encoded in bar code. These certificates may be sold to licensed smog check stations by the department, printed by test analyzer systems, or transmitted by electronic means. The department, with the cooperation of the Department of Motor Vehicles, shall periodically check certificates to determine their validity.

SEC. 41. Section 44041 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44041. In order to expedite emissions testing and to eliminate errors in the transcription of vehicle data, the department shall, in cooperation with the Department of Motor Vehicles, furnish bar code labels to all vehicle owners at the time of their vehicle's annual registration renewal. The labels shall contain vehicle identification numbers and other vehicle-specific information, to be determined by the department, which can be recorded by smog check station technicians utilizing the scanning devices required by Section 44036.

SEC. 42. Section 44045.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44045.5. (a) This section describes the qualifications to be met by smog check technician applicants effective January 1, 1995. The department shall, by regulation, establish requirements for the licensure of smog check technicians which are necessary to enable the program to meet the applicable emission reduction performance standards, to include, at a minimum:

(1) Either of the following:

(A) Certification standards for all technicians in the program which are equivalent or superior to the standards applicable for certification by an established national certification or accrediting institution to perform service on automotive engines and electrical systems.

(B) Successful completion of a training program certified by the department under Section 44045.6.

(2) In addition to the requirement in paragraph (1), a minimum of two years' experience performing repairs to motor vehicle emission control systems or experience approved by the department, or an associate degree in an automotive technology curriculum or an equivalent degree as determined by the department.

(3) An examination process that effectively determines whether applicants are all of the following:

(A) Knowledgeable regarding the visual, functional, and exhaust and evaporative emissions inspection and testing procedures specified by the department, including a demonstrated understanding of loaded mode testing principles, purpose, procedures and equipment.

(B) Knowledgeable regarding misfire detection, air injection testing, closed-loop system testing, and generic idle adjustment procedures specified by the department.

(C) Capable of using emissions manuals and tuneup labels to properly identify required emission control systems and components on any vehicle subject to the enhanced program.

(4) Not later than July 1, 1995, the examination shall use state-of-the-art technology, which may include computer simulations or other computer-based examination formats to determine whether applicants can properly identify, diagnose, and repair emission-related problems. The department may contract for the development and administration of this examination.

(b) The department shall not license any technician unless the department has determined that the person is able to perform the inspection, testing, and repair tasks required under the program on all vehicles subject to the program, except that the department may limit this requirement to specified makes or models of vehicles if a technician requests licensing limited to specified makes or models of vehicles.

(c) The department may establish more than one category or level of licensure, and may provide for the licensing of interns or trainees if those persons do all of their test and repair work under the supervision of a licensed technician.

(d) The department shall require the renewal of smog check technician licenses every two years, and shall establish any necessary and appropriate requirements for renewal.

SEC. 43. Section 44045.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44045.6. (a) The department shall, by regulation, establish requirements for the training of smog check technicians which are necessary to enable the program to meet the applicable emission reduction performance standards, to include, at a minimum, all of the following:

(1) Criteria for facilities, instructors, equipment, reference materials, and instructional materials.

(2) A detailed outline of lectures and laboratory work.

(3) A final examination and recommended passing score.

(4) In lieu of the requirements in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, the department may accept certification by an established national training institution of training in relevant curricula, including electrical systems, engine performance, and electronic emissions diagnostics.

(b) Training facilities meeting the requirements of subdivision (a) shall be certified by the department to provide smog check training.

(c) The department may require remedial training at a certified training facility or may take disciplinary action, whichever the department determines to be the most appropriate, for any licensed technician who the department determines cannot perform inspections, testing, or repairs as required under the program. The failure to complete the remedial training when required by the department shall be a ground for revocation or suspension of a smog check technician's license under Section 44072.2.

(d) The department may contract to ensure the availability of training and retraining courses required by this chapter whenever these courses are not otherwise available. Charges for courses offered by contractors pursuant to this subdivision shall be borne by course attendees.

SEC. 44. Section 44050 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44050. (a) If, upon investigation, the department has probable cause to believe that a licensed smog check station, a test-only station contractor, or a fleet owner licensed under Section 44020 has violated this chapter, or any regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter, the department may issue a citation to the licensee, contractor, or fleet owner. The citation shall specify the nature of the violation and may specify a civil penalty assessed by the department pursuant to Section 44051 or 44051.5.

(b) If, upon investigation, the department has probable cause to believe that a qualified smog check technician has violated Section 44012, 44015, 44016, or 44032, or any regulation of the department adopted pursuant to this chapter, the department may issue a citation to the technician. The citation shall specify the nature of the violation and, in addition, whichever of the following applies:

(1) For a first citation, the smog check technician shall successfully complete one or more retraining courses prescribed by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 44031.5.

(2) For a second citation, the smog check technician shall successfully complete one or more retraining courses prescribed by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 44031.5 and the technician shall perform inspections or repairs pursuant to this chapter under the direction of a technician in good standing, as defined by the department.

(3) For a third citation, the smog check technician shall successfully complete an advanced retraining course prescribed by the department and shall perform no inspection or repair pursuant to this chapter until that completion.

(4) For a fourth citation, the smog check technician's qualification may be permanently revoked.

(c) The citation shall be served pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 11505 of the Government Code.

SEC. 45. Section 44051 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44051. The civil penalty for a violation of the specified provisions of this chapter is as follows:

Section	Short Description of Violation	Civil Penalty
		Minimum	Maximum
44002	Smog check estimates and invoices	$ 50	$ 500
44012	No emission control system inspection, no emissions test, or inspection test procedures	250	1,500
44014	Unlicensed smog check station	250	1,500
44015	Improper issuance of certificate	150	1,000
44016	Failure to follow established repair procedures	150	1,000
44017	Cost limit requirement	150	1,000
44031.5	Test/repair by unlicensed smog check station or nonqualified smog check technician	250	1,500
44032	Qualified smog check technician required	250	500
44033	Smog check station requirement, test on condition of mandatory repair, written estimate requirements	250	1,500
44036	Smog check station certified	150	1,500
44060	equipment requirement Sale, transfer, or	250	1,500

certificate charges

SEC. 46. Section 44056 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44056. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 44051 and 44051.5, any person who violates this chapter, or any order, rule, or regulation of the department adopted pursuant to this chapter, is liable for a civil penalty of not less than one hundred fifty dollars ($150) and not more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for each day in which each violation occurs. Any action to recover civil penalties shall be brought by the Attorney General in the name of the state on behalf of the department, or may be brought by any district attorney, city attorney, or attorney for a district.

(b) The penalties specified in subdivision (a) do not apply to an owner or operator of a motor vehicle, except an owner or operator who does any of the following:

(1) Obtains, or who attempts to obtain, a certificate of compliance or noncompliance without complying with the requirements of Section 44015.

(2) Obtains, or attempts to obtain, a certificate of compliance by means of fraud, including, but not limited to, offering or giving any form of financial or other inducement to any person for the purpose of obtaining a certificate of compliance for a vehicle which has not been tested or has been tested improperly.

(3) Registers a motor vehicle at an address other than the owner's or operator's residence address for the purpose of avoiding the requirements of this chapter.

(4) Obtains, or attempts to obtain, a certificate of compliance by other means when required to report to the test-only facility after being identified as a tampered vehicle or gross polluter pursuant to Section 44015 or 44081.

SEC. 47. Section 44060 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44060. (a) The department shall prescribe the form of the certificate of compliance or noncompliance.

(b) Effective not later than January 1, 1996, the certificate shall be in the form of an electronic entry filed with the department, the Department of Motor Vehicles, and any other person designated by the department. In meeting the January 1, 1996, deadline, the department shall ensure that adequate lead time is provided for conversion to an electronic entry type of certificate. The department shall ensure that the vehicle owner or operator is provided with a written report, signed by the licensed technician who performed the inspection, of any test performed by a smog check station, including a pass or fail indication, and written confirmation of the issuance of the certificate.

(c) (1) The department shall charge a fee to a smog check station, including a test-only station, and a station providing referee functions, for a vehicle inspected at that station which meets the requirements of this chapter and is issued a certificate of compliance, a certificate of noncompliance, or an emission cost waiver.

(2) The fee charged pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be calculated to recover the costs of the department and any other state agency directly involved in the implementation, administration, or enforcement of the motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program, and shall not exceed the amount reasonably necessary to fund the operation of the program, including all responsibilities, requirements, and obligations imposed upon the department or any of those state agencies by this chapter, which are not otherwise recoverable by fees received pursuant to Section 44034.

(3) Except for adjustments to reflect changes in the Consumer Price Index, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, the fee for each certificate shall not exceed seven dollars ($7).

(4) Fees collected by the department pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund. It is the intent of the Legislature that a prudent surplus be maintained in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund. If the surplus exceeds the reasonable costs of administration of the programs specified in this chapter and in Chapter 20.3 (commencing with Section 9880) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, the department shall, by regulation, prescribe a lower fee for the certificate.

(d) The sale or transfer of the certificate by a licensed smog check station or test-only station to any other licensed smog check station or to any other person, and the purchase or acquisition of the certificate by any person, other than from the department, the department's designee, or pursuant to a vehicle's inspection or repair conducted pursuant to this chapter, is prohibited.

(e) Following implementation of the electronic entry certificate under subdivision (b), the department may require the modification of the analyzers and other equipment required at smog check stations to prevent the entry of a certificate which has not been issued or validated through prepayment of the fee authorized by subdivision (c).

(f) The fee charged by licensed smog check stations to consumers for a certificate shall be the same amount that is charged by the department.

SEC. 48. Section 44062.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44062.1. The department shall develop and implement a repair subsidy program not later than January 1, 1996.

SEC. 49. Section 44062.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44062.2. (a) The state board shall adopt, by regulation, procedures to establish an emissions credit exchange program whereby persons may contribute to the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund, and receive equitable emission reduction credits for those contributions.

(b) Districts may establish procedures to generate marketable emission reduction credits from contributions toward the repair subsidy program specified in Section 44062.1. Emission reduction credits generated pursuant to this subdivision may be used to meet or offset transportation control measure requirements, average vehicle ridership reductions, or other mobile source emission requirements, as determined by the district.

(c) The credits established pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall not be allowed until the emission reduction goals established by the amendments enacted in 1990 to the Clean Air Act (P.L. 101-549) have been achieved.

SEC. 50. Section 44063 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44063. (a) There may be transferred into the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund the proceeds of the litigation known as M.D.L. Docket No. 150 AWT, as adjudicated in the United States District Court for the Central District of California.

(b) The money transferred pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for use by the department to establish and implement a program for the repair, retrofit, or removal of gross polluting vehicles.

SEC. 51. Section 44070.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44070.5. (a) The department shall develop and continuously conduct a public information program, in consultation with the state board. The program shall be designed to develop and maintain public support and cooperation for the motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program and shall include information on all of the following:

(1) The health damage caused by air pollution.

(2) The contribution of automobiles to air pollution and the gross polluter problem.

(3) Whether a motorist's vehicle could be a gross polluter without the motorist knowing.

(4) The importance of maintaining a vehicle's emission control devices in good working order and the importance of the program.

(b) That information shall be disseminated by all means that the department determines to be feasible and cost-effective, including, but not limited to, television, newspaper, and radio advertising and trailers in movie theaters. The department may also utilize grass roots community networks, including local opinion leaders, churches, the PTA, and the workplace. Extensive marketing research shall be performed to identify the target population.

SEC. 52. Section 44072.10 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44072.10. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 44072 and 44072.4, the director, or the director's designee, may, pending a hearing conducted pursuant to subdivision (f), temporarily suspend any smog check station or technician's license issued under this chapter, for a period not to exceed 60 days, if the department determines that the licensee's conduct would endanger the public health, safety, or welfare before the matter could be heard pursuant to subdivision (f), based upon reasonable evidence of any of the following:

(1) Fraud.

(2) Tampering.

(3) Intentional or willful violation of this chapter or any regulation, standard, or procedure of the department implementing this chapter.

(4) A pattern or regular practice of violating this chapter or any regulation, standard, or procedure of the department implementing this chapter.

(b) If a motor vehicle dealer sells any used vehicle, knowing that the vehicle has been fraudulently certified, that act shall be additional grounds for suspension or revocation pursuant to Section 11705 of the Vehicle Code. A dealer's license so revoked shall not be reinstated for any reason for a period of at least five years.

(c) The department shall issue a citation to a smog check station licensee if any fraudulent certification of vehicles occurs on the premises of the station. If, within two years of the issuance of a citation, any fraudulent certification of vehicles occurs at the station, the department shall revoke the station's license. The department shall, pending any hearing on revocation under this section, temporarily suspend any smog check station's or technician's license for not more than 60 days.

(d) The department shall revoke the license of any smog check technician or station licensee who fraudulently certifies vehicles or participates in the fraudulent certification of vehicles. A fraudulent certification includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Clean piping, as defined by the department.

(2) Tampering with a vehicle emission control system or test analyzer system.

(3) Intentional or willful violation of this chapter or any regulation, standard, or procedure of the department implementing this chapter.

(e) Once a license has been revoked for a smog check station or technician under subdivision (a), (c), or (d), the license shall not be reinstated for any reason. A hearing shall be held and a decision issued within 60 days after the date on which the notice of the temporary suspension was provided unless the time for the hearing has been extended, or the right to a hearing has been waived, by the licensee.

(f) The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, or by court order.

(g) The department shall adopt, by regulation, procedures to ensure that any affected licensee is provided adequate notice and opportunity to be heard prior to issuing an order temporarily suspending a license under this section.

SEC. 53. Section 44072.11 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44072.11. (a) The department may refuse to issue or renew a license for a smog check station or technician who is subject to a 60-day suspension pursuant to Section 44072.10.

(b) Any smog check station or technician's license granted by the department is a privilege and not a vested right, and may be revoked or suspended by the department for any of the reasons specified in Section 44072.1 or on evidence that the station or technician is not in compliance with any of the requirements of subdivision (a).

SEC. 54. Section 44081 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 55. Section 44081 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44081. (a) (1) The department, in cooperation with the state board, shall institute procedures for auditing the emissions of vehicles while actually being driven on the streets and highways of the state. The department may undertake those procedures itself or seek a qualified vendor of these services. The primary object of the procedures shall be the detection of gross polluters. The procedures shall consist of techniques and technologies determined to be effective for that purpose by the department, including, but not limited to, remote sensing. The procedures may include pullovers for roadside emissions testing and inspection. The department shall consider the recommendations of the review committee based on the outcome of the pilot demonstration program conducted pursuant to Section 44081.6.

(2) The department may additionally use other methods to identify gross polluting vehicles for out-of-cycle testing and repair.

(b) The department shall, by regulation, establish a program for the out-of-cycle testing and repair of vehicles found, through roadside auditing, to be emitting at levels that exceed specified standards. The program shall include all of the following elements:

(1) Emission standards, and test and inspection procedures and regulations, adopted in coordination with the state board, applicable to vehicles tested during roadside auditing. Emission standards for citation as a gross polluter shall be designed to maximize the identification of vehicles with substantial excess emissions.

(2) Procedures for issuing citations to owners of gross polluters, either at the time of the roadside audit, or subsequently by certified mail, or by obtaining a certificate of mailing as evidence of service, using technologies for recording license plate numbers. The citation shall provide that, unless the vehicle is brought to a designated test-only station for emissions testing within 30 days, the owner will be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500) to be imposed and collected by the Department of Motor Vehicles at the next annual registration renewal or the next change of ownership of the vehicle, whichever occurs first. The regulations may authorize a penalty increasing at the rate of five dollars ($5) per day up to the five hundred dollars ($500) maximum.

(3) Procedures for the testing of vehicles cited as gross polluters by a designated test-only facility to confirm that the vehicle exceeds the minimum emission standard for gross polluters set by the department.

(4) Procedures requiring owners of vehicles confirmed as gross polluters to have the vehicle repaired, resubmitted for testing, and obtain a certificate of compliance from a designated test-only facility within 30 days or be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500) imposed and collected by the Department of Motor Vehicles at the next annual registration renewal or the next change of ownership, whichever occurs first. The regulations may authorize a penalty increasing at the rate of five dollars ($5) per day up to the five hundred dollars ($500) maximum, and may authorize impoundment of a vehicle after the maximum penalty has accrued. No vehicle cited as a gross polluter that has not received a certificate of compliance shall be registered in California. Except as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 9250.18 of the Vehicle Code, any penalty revenues collected by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to this subdivision and Section 9250.18 of the Vehicle Code shall be deposited in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund. If the ownership of the vehicle is transferred, the penalty provided for in this subdivision shall be waived if the vehicle is brought into compliance.

(5) A procedure for notifying the Department of Motor Vehicles of citations issued, so that the Department of Motor Vehicles may provide effective enforcement of the penalty for noncompliance. The Department of Motor Vehicles shall cooperate with, and implement the requirements of, the department in that regard, by regulation.

(6) The department may adopt any other regulations necessary for the effective implementation of this section, as determined by the department.

(c) Upon the request of the department, the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall provide assistance in conducting roadside auditing, to consist of (1) the stopping of vehicles and traffic management, and (2) the issuance of citations to gross polluters. The department shall reimburse the Department of the California Highway Patrol for its costs of providing those services. The Department of Transportation and affected local agencies shall provide necessary assistance and cooperation to the department in the operation of the program.

(d) There shall be no repair cost limit imposed pursuant to Section 44017 for any repairs that are required to be made under the roadside auditing program, except as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 44017.

SEC. 56. Section 44081.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44081.6. (a) The California Environmental Protection Agency, the state board, and the department, in cooperation with, and with the participation of, the Environmental Protection Agency, shall jointly undertake a pilot demonstration program to do all of the following:

(1) Determine the emission reduction effectiveness of alternative loaded mode emission tests compared to the IM240 test.

(2) Quantify the emission reductions, above and beyond those required by Environmental Protection Agency regulation or by the biennial test requirement, achievable from a remote sensing-based program that identifies gross polluting and other vehicles and requires the immediate repair and retest of those gross polluting vehicles at a test-only station established by this chapter.

(3) Determine if high polluting vehicles can be identified and directed to test-only stations using criteria other than, or in addition to, age and model year, and whether this reduces the number of vehicles which would otherwise be subject to inspection at test-only stations.

(4) Qualify emission reductions above and beyond those that are required by the regulations of the Environmental Protection Agency, achievable from other program enhancements pursuant to this chapter.

(5) Determine the extent to which the capacity of the test-only station network established pursuant to Section 44010.5 needs to be expanded to comply with Environmental Protection Agency performance standards.

(b) The California Environmental Protection Agency shall enter into a memorandum of agreement with the Environmental Protection Agency to establish the protocol for the pilot demonstration program. The memorandum of agreement shall ensure, to the extent possible, that the Environmental Protection Agency will accept the results of the pilot demonstration program as the findings of the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency. The pilot demonstration program shall be conducted pursuant to the memorandum of agreement.

(c) The review committee established pursuant to Section 44021 shall review the protocol for the pilot demonstration program, as established in the signed memorandum of agreement, and recommend any modification that the review committee finds to be appropriate for the pilot demonstration program. Any such modification shall become effective only upon the written agreement of the California Environmental Protection Agency and the Environmental Protection Agency.

(d) The department shall contract, on behalf of the committee, with an independent entity to ensure quality control in the collection of data pursuant to the pilot demonstration program. The department shall also contract, on behalf of the committee, for an independent analysis of the data produced by the pilot demonstration program.

(e) Any contract entered into pursuant to this section shall not be subject to any restrictions that are applicable to contracts in the Government Code or in the Public Contract Code. The department shall report to the Legislature any action that is taken in accordance with this subdivision.

(f) To the extent possible, the pilot demonstration program shall be conducted using equipment, facilities, and staff of the state board, the department, and the Environmental Protection Agency.

(g) The pilot demonstration program shall provide for, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) For the purposes of this section, any vehicle subject to the inspection and maintenance program may be selected to participate in the pilot demonstration program regardless of when last inspected pursuant to this chapter.

(2) Registered owners of vehicles selected to participate in the pilot demonstration program shall make the vehicle available for testing within a time period and at a testing facility designated by the department. If necessary, the department shall increase the capacity of the existing referee network in the area or areas where the pilot demonstration program will be operating, in order to accommodate the convenient testing of selected vehicles.

(3) If the department finds that a vehicle is emitting excessive emissions, the vehicle owner shall be required to make necessary repairs within the existing cost limits and return to a testing facility designated by the department. The vehicle owner shall have additional repairs made if the repairs are requested and funded by the department. The department shall also fund the cost of any necessary repairs if the owner of the vehicle has, within the last two years, already paid for emissions-related repairs to the same vehicle in an amount at least equal to the existing cost limits, in order to obtain a certificate of compliance or an emission cost waiver.

(4) Vehicle owners that fail to bring the vehicle in for inspection or fail to have repairs made pursuant to this section shall be subject to citation. The citation shall provide that, unless the vehicle is brought to a designated testing facility for testing, or repair facility for repairs, within 15 days of notice of the requirement, the owner will be subject to a civil penalty of five dollars ($5) a day, not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), to be imposed at the next annual registration renewal or the next change of ownership of the vehicle, whichever occurs first. All penalties shall be collected by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to this subdivision and shall be deposited into the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(h) The Department of Motor Vehicles, the Department of Transportation, local agencies, and the state board shall provide necessary support for the program established pursuant to this section.

(i) As soon as possible after the effective date of this section, the department and the state board shall develop, implement, and revise as needed, emissions test procedures and emissions standards necessary to conduct the pilot demonstration program.

SEC. 57. Section 44082 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 58. Section 44083 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 59. Section 4000.3 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4000.3. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 44011 of the Health and Safety Code, the department shall require biennially, upon renewal of registration of any motor vehicle subject to Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, a valid certificate of compliance issued in accordance with Section 44015 of the Health and Safety Code. The department, in consultation with the Department of Consumer Affairs, shall develop a schedule under which vehicles shall be required biennially to obtain certificates of compliance.

(b) The Department of Consumer Affairs shall provide the department with information on vehicle classes that are subject to the motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program.

(c) The department shall include any information pamphlet provided by the Department of Consumer Affairs with notification of the inspection requirement and with its renewal notices.

SEC. 60. Section 5204 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

5204. (a) Except as provided by subdivisions (b) and (c), a tab shall indicate the year of expiration and a tab shall indicate the month of expiration, which tabs shall be attached to the rear license plate assigned to the vehicle for the last preceding registration year in which license plates were issued, and, when so attached, the license plate with the tabs shall, for the purposes of this code, be deemed to be the license plate, except that truck tractors, and commercial motor vehicles having an unladen weight of 10,000 pounds or more, shall display the tabs upon the front license plate assigned to the truck tractor or commercial motor vehicle.

(b) The requirement of subdivision (a) that the tabs indicate the year and the month of expiration does not apply to fleet vehicles subject to Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 5300).

(c) Subdivision (a) does not apply when proper application for registration has been made pursuant to Section 4602 and the new indicia of current registration have not been received from the department.

(d) This section is enforceable against any motor vehicle that is driven, moved, or left standing upon a highway, or in an offstreet public parking facility, in the same manner as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 4000.

SEC. 61. Section 9250.18 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

9250.18. (a) The department shall collect the penalty established pursuant to Sections 44081 and 44081.6 of the Health and Safety Code upon the renewal of registration or transfer of ownership of any motor vehicle registered in the state.

(b) On a monthly basis, after deducting its reasonable costs, the department shall transmit all revenues, including accrued interest, received pursuant to this section, for deposit in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund, for use by the Department of Consumer Affairs pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 44000) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code. Alternatively, the department and the Department of Consumer Affairs may, by interagency agreement, establish a procedure for the Department of Consumer Affairs to reimburse the department for its reasonable costs incurred in collecting the penalties.

SEC. 62. Section 27156 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

27156. (a) No person shall operate or leave standing upon any highway any motor vehicle which is a gross polluter, as defined in Section 39032.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) No person shall operate or leave standing upon any highway any motor vehicle which is required to be equipped with a motor vehicle pollution control device under Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code or any other certified motor vehicle pollution control device required by any other state law or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to that law, or required to be equipped with a motor vehicle pollution control device pursuant to the National Emission Standards Act (42 U.S.C. Secs. 1857f-1 to 1857f-7, inclusive) and the standards and regulations adopted pursuant to that federal act, unless the motor vehicle is equipped with the required motor vehicle pollution control device which is correctly installed and in operating condition. No person shall disconnect, modify, or alter any such required device.

(c) No person shall install, sell, offer for sale, or advertise any device, apparatus, or mechanism intended for use with, or as a part of, any required motor vehicle pollution control device or system which alters or modifies the original design or performance of any such motor vehicle pollution control device or system.

(d) If the court finds that a person has willfully violated this section, the court shall impose the maximum fine that may be imposed in the case, and no part of the fine may be suspended.

(e) "Willfully," as used in this section, has the same meaning as the meaning of that word prescribed in Section 7 of the Penal Code.

(f) No person shall operate a vehicle after notice by a traffic officer that the vehicle is not equipped with the required certified motor vehicle pollution control device correctly installed in operating condition, except as may be necessary to return the vehicle to the residence or place of business of the owner or driver or to a garage, until the vehicle has been properly equipped with such a device.

(g) The notice to appear issued or complaint filed for a violation of this section shall require that the person to whom the notice to appear is issued or against whom the complaint is filed produce proof of correction pursuant to Section 40150 or proof of exemption pursuant to Section 4000.1 or 4000.2.

(h) This section shall not apply to an alteration, modification, or modifying device, apparatus, or mechanism found by resolution of the State Air Resources Board to do either of the following:

(1) Not to reduce the effectiveness of any required motor vehicle pollution control device.

(2) To result in emissions from any such modified or altered vehicle which are at levels which comply with existing state or federal standards for that model year of the vehicle being modified or converted.

(i) This section applies to motor vehicles of the United States or its agencies, to the extent authorized by federal law.

SEC. 63. Section 40517 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

40517. (a) Whenever a written notice to appear as a gross polluter pursuant to Section 44081 of the Health and Safety Code has been prepared by a peace officer or by a qualified employee or agent of the Bureau of Automotive Repair, on a form delivered by mail to the current address on file with the department, with a certificate of mailing being obtained as evidence of service, an exact and legible duplicate copy of the notice when filed with the department shall constitute a complaint to which the defendant may enter a plea. That notice shall not, however, constitute an arrest. If the notice to appear is not responded to by the person or business named in the notice, the department shall, not sooner than 15 days from the date to appear specified in the notice, place a hold on the registration of the vehicle described in the notice.

(b) Thereafter, if the party named in the written notice to appear complies with the requirements of the notice, the department shall remove any hold placed on the registration of the vehicle pursuant to subdivision (a), except that any other hold not related to the specific notice shall not be removed.

SEC. 64. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 65. The sum of twelve million twelve thousand dollars ($12,012,000) is hereby appropriated from the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund to the Department of Consumer Affairs and the State Air Resources Board for the purpose of implementing enhancements to the vehicle inspection and maintenance program enacted by the Legislature in 1994. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no transfer shall be made to the General Fund from the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund pursuant to item 1150-011-421 of the Budget Act of 1993 (Chapter 55 of the Statutes of 1993).

SEC. 66. Sections 1 to 61, inclusive, of Chapter 1 of the Statutes of 1994 shall not become operative.

SEC. 67. This act shall become operative only if SB 521 is enacted and adds Section 44010.5 to the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 68. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure compliance with Environmental Protection Agency regulatory guidelines and the requirements of the Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 28

An act to add Section 2982.2 to the Civil Code, to add Article 9 (commencing with Section 44090) to Chapter 5 of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 4000.6 to the Vehicle Code, relating to air pollution, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 30, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State March 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2982.2 is added to the Civil Code, to read:
2982.2. Any contract for the sale of a new motor vehicle shall contain a notification to the buyer of the availability of a certificate of exemption pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 4000.6 of the Vehicle Code.

SEC. 2. Article 9 (commencing with Section 44090) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 9. Repair or Removal of High Polluters

44090. For purposes of this article, the following terms have the following meaning:

(a) "Account" means the High Polluter Repair or Removal Account created pursuant to subdivision (a) Section 44091.

(b) "High polluter" means a high-emission motor vehicle, including, but not limited to, a gross polluter.

44091. (a) The High Polluter Repair or Removal Account is hereby created in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund. All money deposited in the account pursuant to this article and paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 4000.6 of the Vehicle Code shall be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to the department to establish and implement a program for the repair or replacement of high polluters pursuant to this article.

(b) The department may accept donations or grants of funds from any person for purposes of the program and shall deposit that money in the account.

(c) The funds which are available in the account in any fiscal year for a particular area that is subject to an inspection and maintenance program shall be determined by calculating the percentage of vehicles registered in that area to the total number of vehicles registered in areas that are subject to inspection and maintenance programs. That percentage shall be the percentage of the total funds allocated to the program in that fiscal year which are available for that particular area.

44092. (a) The high polluter repair or removal program shall be designed to repair or remove motor vehicles registered in this state that are subject to an inspection and maintenance program and are producing high levels of emissions as a result of their use in this state.

(b) To achieve the most cost-effective emission reduction, the state board, in cooperation with the department, shall determine the class of vehicles to be repaired or removed under the program.

44093. (a) The repair of high polluters under the program shall be designed to offer repair cost assistance to qualified low-income motor vehicle owners for vehicles that are in need of repairs to obtain a certificate of compliance, as determined by the department.

44094. (a) Participation in the high polluter repair or removal program shall be voluntary and shall be available to the owners of high polluters that are registered in an area that is subject to an inspection and maintenance program, have been registered to the owner for at least 24 months, are presently operational, and meet other criteria, as determined by the department.

(b) (1) The program shall provide for both of the following:

(A) As to the repair of a high polluter, payment to the owner of up to 80 percent of the total cost of repair, as determined by the department, but the payment shall not exceed four hundred fifty dollars ($450).

(B) As to the removal of a high polluter, payment to the owner of the market value of the high polluter, as determined by the department, but not to exceed eight hundred dollars ($800).

(2) The department may increase the payment amount limits specified in paragraph (1) to reflect changes in the Consumer Price Index, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics.

(c) A high polluter that is removed under the program shall not be registered or operated in this state. Any funds received by the department from the sale of high polluters that are removed under the program, or from the sale of any of their components, shall be deposited in the account.

(d) The department may authorize participation in the program based on a reasonable estimate of the future revenues that will be available to the program.

44095. (a) The department shall administer the program in accordance with regulations adopted by the department.

(b) (1) Nothing in this article shall be construed as superseding or precluding any similar program that is administered by a district, any other public agency, or any other person.

(2) The state board shall develop a methodology for, and shall undertake, a uniform data analysis of the program operated pursuant to this article and any similar programs operated in this state for the purpose of providing an accounting of the emission reductions that are achieved by all such programs.

(c) The department may directly operate the program or may provide for the program's operation pursuant to contract. The department may contract with local agencies, community colleges, or private entities to perform all or any portion of the program.

SEC. 3. Section 4000.6 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

4000.6. (a) For purposes of subdivision (a) of Section 4000.3, for any vehicle which is registered for the first time in this state on or after January 1, 1994, the first certificate of compliance shall be required upon the second renewal of its registration.

(b) (1) At the time of application for the initial registration of a new motor vehicle which is subject to Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, an additional payment may, at the option of the applicant, be made to the department. The Department of Consumer Affairs shall determine the amount of the additional payment, but the amount shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50). The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the payment is in the nature of a donation for purposes of the high polluter repair or removal program established pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 44090) of Chapter 5 of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) (A) On a monthly basis, the department shall transmit all payments received pursuant to paragraph (1), including any accrued interest, to the Treasurer for deposit in the High Polluter Repair or Removal Account created pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 44091 of the Health and Safety Code, for expenditure, upon appropriation by the Legislature, by the Department of Consumer Affairs pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 44090) of Chapter 5 of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) The department and the Department of Consumer Affairs shall, by interagency agreement, establish a procedure for the Department of Consumer Affairs to reimburse the department for its reasonable costs incurred in collecting the payments received pursuant to paragraph (1).

(3) (A) Upon receipt of a payment pursuant to paragraph (1), the department shall issue for the subject vehicle a certificate of exemption from the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 4000.3. The certificate of exemption shall be valid for the first biennial inspection due after the date of initial registration of the vehicle, and shall have the same force and effect as a certificate of compliance issued in accordance with Section 44015 of the Health and Safety Code. The certificate of exemption shall be void if the title to, or any interest in, the vehicle is transferred pursuant to Section 5600.

(B) The department may charge a fee for the issuance of the certificate of exemption which is equal to the fee that is charged for the issuance of a certificate of compliance. All fee revenue received pursuant to this subparagraph shall be deposited in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund and be available for purposes of administering and enforcing the vehicle inspection and maintenance program.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure compliance with Environmental Protection Agency regulatory guidelines and the requirements of the Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990 (Public Law 101-549), it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 29

An act to add Section 44010.5 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 30, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State March 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44010.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44010.5. (a) The department shall implement a program with the capacity to commence, by January 1, 1995, the testing at test-only stations, in accordance with this chapter, of 15 percent of that portion of the total state vehicle fleet consisting of vehicles subject to inspection each year in the biennial program and that are registered in the enhanced program area, as established pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 44003.

(b) The department shall increase the capacity of the program so that the capacity exists to commence, by January 1, 1996, the testing at test-only stations of that portion of the state vehicle fleet that is subject to inspection and is registered in the enhanced program area, which is sufficient to meet the emission reduction performance standards established by the Environmental Protection Agency in regulations adopted pursuant to the Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990, taking into account the results of the pilot demonstration program established pursuant to Section 44081.6.

(c) The program shall utilize loaded mode dynamometer test equipment, as determined through the pilot demonstration program.

(d) Vehicles in the enhanced program area which are not subjected to the program established by this section may be tested at smog check stations licensed pursuant to Section 44014 that use loaded mode dynamometers.

(e) The department shall implement the program established pursuant to subdivision (a) through a network of privately operated test-only stations established pursuant to contracts to be awarded pursuant to this section.

(f) No person shall be a contractor of the department for test-only stations in all air basins, exclusively, where the enhanced program is in effect unless the department determines, after a public hearing, that there is not more than one qualified contractor. The South Coast Air Basin shall have at least two contractors, and the combined enhanced program area that includes Bakersfield, Fresno, and Sacramento shall have at least two contractors. The department may operate test-only stations on an interim basis while contractors are being sought.

(g) (1) In awarding contracts under this section, the department shall request bids through the issuance of a request for proposal.

(2) The department shall first determine which bidders are qualified, and then award the contract to the qualified bidder, giving priority to the test cost and convenience to motorists.

(3) The department shall provide a contractual preference, as determined by the department, not to exceed 10 percent of the total proposal evaluation score, based on the following factors:

(A) Up to 5 percent to bidders providing firm commitments to employ businesses that are licensed or otherwise substantially participating in the smog check program after January 1, 1994.

(B) Up to 5 percent to bidders based on the extent to which bidders maximize the potential economic benefit of the smog check program on this state over the term of the contract. That potential economic benefit shall include the percentage of work performed by California-based firms, the potential of the total project workforce who will be California residents, and the percentage of subcontracts that will be awarded to California-based firms.

(4) Any contract executed by the department for the operation of a test-only station shall expressly require compliance with this chapter and any regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this chapter.

(h) The department shall ensure that there is a sufficient number of test-only stations, and that they are properly located, to ensure reasonable accessibility and convenience to all persons within an enhanced program area, and that the waiting time for consumers is minimized. The department may operate test-only stations on an interim basis to ensure convenience to consumers. The department shall specify in the request for proposal the minimum number of test-only stations that are required for the program. Any contracts initially awarded pursuant to this section shall ensure that the contractors are capable of fulfilling the requirements of subdivision (a).

(i) Any data generated at a test-only station shall be the property of the state, and shall be fully accessible to the department at any time. The department may set contract specifications for the storage of that data in a central data storage system or facility designated by the department.

(j) The department shall ensure an effective transition to the new program by implementing an effective public education program and may specify in the request for proposal a dollar amount that bidders are required to include in their bids for public education activities, to be implemented pursuant to Section 44070.5.

(k) The department shall ensure the effective management of the test-only stations and shall specify in the request for proposal that a manager be present during all hours of station operation.

(l) The department shall ensure and facilitate the effective transition of employees of businesses that are licensed or otherwise substantially participating in the smog check program and may specify in the request for proposal that test-only station management be Automotive Service Excellence (ASE) certified, or be certified by a comparable program as determined by the department.

(m) As part of the contracts to be awarded pursuant to subdivision (e), the department may require contractors to perform functions previously undertaken by referee stations throughout the state, as determined by the department, at some or all of the affected stations in enhanced areas, and at additional stations outside enhanced areas only to the extent necessary to provide appropriate access to referee functions.

(n) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, to avoid delays to the program implementation timeline required by this chapter or the Clean Air Act, the Department of General Services, at the request of the department, may exempt contracts awarded pursuant to this section from existing laws, rules, resolutions, or procedures that are otherwise applicable, including, but not limited to, restrictions on awarding contracts for more than three years. The department shall identify any exemptions requested and granted pursuant to this subdivision and report thereon to the Legislature.

(o) This section shall not be implemented unless the memorandum of agreement described in Section 44081.6 is signed by both the California Environmental Protection Agency and the Environmental Protection Agency.

(p) The department shall implement the program established in this section only in urbanized areas classified by the Environmental Protection Agency as a serious, severe, or extreme nonattainment area for ozone or a moderate or serious nonattainment area for carbon monoxide with a design value greater than 12.7 ppm, and shall not implement the program in any other area.

(q) If existing smog check stations, in order to participate in the enhanced program, have been required to make additional investments of more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), the department shall submit recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature for any appropriate mitigation measures.

SEC. 2. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 2018 is enacted.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure compliance with Environmental Protection Agency regulatory guidelines and the requirements of the Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990 (Public Law 101-549), it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 30

An act to amend Sections 7514 and 15364.21 of, to repeal Article 6 (commencing with Section 12261) of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 3 of Title 2 of, and to repeal and add Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16640) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, and to amend Sections 8276, 8277, 8278, and 8279 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to investments in South Africa, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 30, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State March 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7514 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7514. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law except Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 16649.80) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2, any state or local public retirement system may invest, subject to and consistent with the standard for prudent investment set forth in Section 17 of Article XVI of the California Constitution, its assets in the bonds or other evidences of indebtedness unconditionally guaranteed by any foreign government that has met the payments of similar bonds or other evidences of indebtedness when due.

(b) A portion of the assets invested pursuant to this section may be used to purchase rated or unrated bonds, notes, or other instruments unconditionally guaranteed by Canada, Israel, or Mexico.

SEC. 2. Article 6 (commencing with Section 12261) of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 15364.21 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15364.21. The service shall do all of the following consistent with federal law and national and state policy:

(a) Consult with and coordinate all state government agencies with duties pertaining to international matters, including, but not limited to, the California State World Trade Commission, the State Offices of Trade and Investment, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, and the Department of Food and Agriculture, in order to implement the provisions of this article.

(b) Promote rapid global commercialization of California products and technologies by identifying and developing product and capital market linkages between California universities and colleges (including community colleges), private sector entities engaged in public/private partnerships with these universities and colleges, and their global private and public counterparts.

(c) Contribute to the development of immediate and long-term policy strategies, in close consultation with the California Council on Science and Technology, the President of the University of California, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, and the Chancellor of the California State University, with attention to stimulating California's economy towards meeting economic adjustment needs and fulfilling California's yet untapped potential in the six areas of economic development as follows:

- (1) Employment generation.
- (2) Education and human resource development.
- (3) Export development.
- (4) Environmental remediation and preservation.
- (5) Entrepreneurship.
- (6) Equal access to knowledge.

(d) Facilitate global market access for California enterprises by studying the feasibility of, and coordinating the development of, a statewide interactive electronic data base and network utilizing appropriate technologies such as CD-ROM (compact disk-read only memory) and on-line, recording global market needs and resources identified through various state and other sources, and linking these needs with the needs and capabilities of subscribing California enterprises. In studying the feasibility of, and coordinating the development of, the data base and network, the service shall work closely with the President of the University of California, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, and the Chancellor of the California State University, and with other California public and private universities and colleges, state and federal government agencies, and industry, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (1) The California Education Research and Federation Network headquartered at the San Diego Supercomputer Center, and affiliates, including the California Internet Federation, the Federation of American Research Networks, and the National Research and Education Network.

(2) The Automated Trade Lead System project of the California State World Trade Commission, in association with the California State University at Fresno.

(3) The Pacific Rim Commercial Exchange Project at the California State University at Sacramento.

(4) The MEMEX Institute at the California State University at Chico.

(5) The California Community Colleges ED-NET system.

(e) Promote access for California enterprises in emerging growth opportunities in developed and developing economies and assist California enterprises in benefiting from the growth of free market forces in developing nations' economies, including selected countries in Asia, Southern Africa, Central America, Latin America, the Caribbean, and Eastern Europe, by doing the following:

(1) Providing assistance and information to private enterprises in these countries, and, with the approval of the United States Secretary of State, to their governments.

(2) Providing support for and assisting, to the extent practicable, in soliciting private sector or other nonstate support and in-kind contributions on behalf of select teams of academicians, technical specialists, and professionals associated with California universities and colleges (including community colleges) for purposes of conducting extended stays and providing onsite technical assistance in regions and to entities indicated in paragraph (1). The service shall select teams on the merits of their ability to contribute to fulfilling the mandate of the service as stipulated in subdivisions (b) to (h), inclusive. While it is the intent of the Legislature that the selected teams be self-funding or funded by nonstate sources to the extent possible, the service may pay for travel expenses and increases in living expenses incurred by the teams. The service may also provide members of the teams with stipends for reports to the Legislature and Governor documenting the respective teams' contributions to fulfilling the mandate of the service.

(3) Providing technical assistance and information to California enterprises, leveraging existing public resources, and utilizing existing delivery systems, including, but not limited to, technical assistance and training networks such as the California Community Colleges Economic Development Network, among others.

(4) Identifying and acting as the intermediary between foreign entities and California-based enterprises with products and services reflecting low, intermediate, and advanced technology capabilities, including, but not limited to, the following disciplines: electronics, biosciences, environmental sciences, commodity and specialty agriculture, food processing, computer hardware and software, telecommunications, and other manufacturing sectors.

(f) Facilitate the transformation of the technological infrastructure of developing countries in order to generate demand for California exports, including California-based information services and technology-based products, among other related services and products, while meeting the needs of the peoples of developing countries in their pursuit of an improved quality of life.

(g) Coordinate and focus existing public and private entities in California towards developing technological collaborations with counterparts throughout the world, with particular attention to Europe, Japan, the newly industrialized countries of Asia, Australia and nearby nations, and Canada, in addition to developing countries, in order to facilitate the export of California-based information services and technology-based products among other related services and products.

(h) Develop immediate and long-term policy strategies regarding access to global markets for information services and technology-based products, among other related services and products, with attention to stimulating California's economy towards meeting economic adjustment needs and fulfilling California's yet untapped potential in the six areas of economic development specified in subdivision (c).

SEC. 4. Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16640) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16640) is added to Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5. INDEMNIFICATION

16640. Present and former members of the governing board of any trust fund, jointly and individually, state officers and employees, and investment managers under contract with the state shall be indemnified from the General Fund by the State of California from all claims, demands, suits, actions, damages, judgments, costs, charges, and expenses, including court costs and attorney's fees, and against all liability, losses, and damages of any nature whatsoever that these present or former board members, officers, employees, or contract investment managers shall or may at any time have sustained by reason of any decision not to invest in business firms with business operations in South Africa or business arrangements with the government of South Africa, or any decision not to invest in financial institutions extending credit to the government of South Africa or South African corporations, pursuant to former Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16640) of this part as it read prior to its repeal by the act adding this section.

16641. Present and former Regents of the University of California, jointly and individually, officers and employees of the University of California, and investment managers under contract with the University of California shall be indemnified from the General Fund by the State of California from all claims, demands, suits, actions, damages, judgments, costs, charges, and expenses, including court costs and attorney's fees, and against all liability, losses, and damages of any nature whatsoever that these present or former regents, officers, employees, or contract investment managers shall or may at any time have sustained by reason of any decision not to invest in business firms with business operations in South Africa or business arrangements with the government of South Africa, or any decision not to invest in financial institutions extending credit to the government of South Africa or South African corporations, pursuant to former Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16640) of this part as it read prior to its repeal by the act adding this section.

SEC. 6. Section 8276 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

8276. The commission shall prohibit any public utility that has any retirement funds invested in the government of Libya, or in any corporation based in that country, from including in its plant operating budget any losses incurred as a result of those investments.

SEC. 7. Section 8277 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

8277. The commission shall require every public utility to provide the commission with a list of its retirement fund investments in the government of Libya, or in any corporation based in that country.

SEC. 8. Section 8278 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

8278. The commission shall verify the accuracy of the information provided pursuant to Section 8277, and shall disallow any losses incurred as a result of investments in the government of Libya, or in any corporation based in that country, in establishing rates for the public utility.

SEC. 9. Section 8279 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

8279. This article does not prevent the commission from applying this article to public utility retirement fund investments in other countries such as, but not limited to, Libya, if comparable conditions warrant that application.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that immediate and substantial support may be provided to the newly formed government of South Africa at the earliest possible time and that the economic success of South Africa be supported as soon as possible so that apartheid will not be reinstated, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 31

An act to amend Sections 7514 and 15364.21 of, to repeal Article 6 (commencing with Section 12261) of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 3 of Title 2 of, and to repeal and add Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16640) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, and to amend Sections 8276, 8277, 8278, and 8279 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to investments in South Africa, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

In order that the state may make investments in South Africa at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 32

An act to amend Sections 54952.1, 54952.2, 54953, 54953.5, 54953.6, 54954, 54954.2, 54954.3, 54954.5, 54956, 54956.8, 54956.9, 54957, 54957.1, 54957.5, 54957.6, 54959, 54960, 54960.1, 54961, and 54962 of, and to repeal Section 54925.1 of, the Government Code, relating to open meetings, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 30, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State March 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 54925.1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 54952.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54952.1. Any person elected to serve as a member of a legislative body who has not yet assumed the duties of office shall conform his or her conduct to the requirements of this chapter and shall be treated for purposes of enforcement of this chapter as if he or she has already assumed office.

SEC. 3. Section 54952.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54952.2. (a) As used in this chapter, “meeting” includes any congregation of a majority of the members of a legislative body at the same time and place to hear, discuss, or deliberate upon any item that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the legislative body or the local agency to which it pertains.

(b) Except as authorized pursuant to Section 54953, any use of direct communication, personal intermediaries, or technological devices that is employed by a majority of the members of the legislative body to develop a collective concurrence as to action to be taken on an item by the members of the legislative body is prohibited.

(c) Nothing in this section shall impose the requirements of this chapter upon any of the following:

(1) Individual contacts or conversations between a member of a legislative body and any other person.

(2) The attendance of a majority of the members of a legislative body at a conference or similar gathering open to the public that involves a discussion of issues of general interest to the public or to public agencies of the type represented by the legislative body, provided that a majority of the members do not discuss among themselves, other than as part of the scheduled program, business of a specified nature that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the local agency. Nothing in this paragraph is intended to allow members of the public free admission to a conference or similar gathering at which the organizers have required other participants or registrants to pay fees or charges as a condition of attendance.

(3) The attendance of a majority of the members of a legislative body at an open and publicized meeting organized to address a topic of local community concern by a person or organization other than the local agency, provided that a majority of the members do not discuss among themselves, other than as part of the scheduled program, business of a specific nature that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the legislative body of the local agency.

(4) The attendance of a majority of the members of a legislative body at an open and noticed meeting of another body of the local agency, provided that a majority of the members do not discuss among themselves, other than as part of the scheduled meeting, business of a specific nature that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the legislative body of the local agency.

(5) The attendance of a majority of the members of a legislative body at a purely social or ceremonial occasion, provided that a majority of the members do not discuss among themselves business of a specific nature that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the legislative body of the local agency.

SEC. 4. Section 54953 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54953. (a) All meetings of the legislative body of a local agency shall be open and public, and all persons shall be permitted to attend any meeting of the legislative body of a local agency, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the legislative body of a local agency may use video teleconferencing for the benefit of the public or the legislative body of a local agency in connection with any meeting or proceeding authorized by law.

(2) The use of video teleconferencing, as authorized by this chapter, shall be limited to the receipt of public comment or testimony by the legislative body and to deliberations of the legislative body.

(3) If the legislative body of a local agency elects to use video teleconferencing, it shall post agendas at all video teleconference locations and adopt reasonable regulations to adequately protect the statutory or constitutional rights of the parties or the public appearing before the legislative body of a local agency.

(4) The term "video teleconference" shall mean a system which provides for both audio and visual participation between all members of the legislative body and the public attending a meeting or hearing at any video teleconference location.

(c) No legislative body shall take action by secret ballot, whether preliminary or final.

SEC. 5. Section 54953.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54953.5. (a) Any person attending an open and public meeting of a legislative body of a local agency shall have the right to record the proceedings with an audio or video tape recorder or a still or motion picture camera in the absence of a reasonable finding by the legislative body of the local agency that the recording cannot continue without noise, illumination, or obstruction of view that constitutes, or would constitute, a persistent disruption of the proceedings.

(b) Any tape or film record of an open and public meeting made for whatever purpose by or at the direction of the local agency shall be subject to inspection pursuant to the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1), but, notwithstanding Section 34090, may be erased or destroyed 30 days after the taping or recording. Any inspection of a video or tape recording shall be provided without charge on a video or tape player made available by the local agency.

SEC. 6. Section 54953.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54953.6. No legislative body of a local agency shall prohibit or otherwise restrict the broadcast of its open and public meetings in the absence of a reasonable finding that the broadcast cannot be accomplished without noise, illumination, or obstruction of view that would constitute a persistent disruption of the proceedings.

SEC. 7. Section 54954 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54954. (a) The legislative body of a local agency shall provide, by ordinance, resolution, bylaws, or by whatever other rule is required for the conduct of business by that body, the time and place for holding regular meetings.

(b) Regular and special meetings of the legislative body shall be held within the boundaries of the territory over which the local agency exercises jurisdiction, except to do any of the following:

(1) Comply with state or federal law or court order, or attend a judicial or administrative proceeding to which the local agency is a party.

(2) Inspect real or personal property which cannot be conveniently brought within the boundaries of the territory over which the local agency exercises jurisdiction provided that the topic of the meeting is limited to items directly related to the real or personal property.

(3) Participate in meetings or discussions of multiagency significance that are outside the boundaries of a local agency's jurisdiction. However, any meeting or discussion held pursuant to this subdivision shall take place within the jurisdiction of one of the participating local agencies and be noticed by all participating agencies as provided for in this chapter.

(4) Meet in the closest meeting facility if the local agency has no meeting facility within the boundaries of the territory over which the local agency exercises jurisdiction, or at the principal office of the local agency if that office is located outside the territory over which the agency exercises jurisdiction.

(5) Meet outside their immediate jurisdiction with elected or appointed officials of the United States or the State of California when a local meeting would be impractical, solely to discuss a legislative or regulatory issue affecting the local agency and over which the federal or state officials have jurisdiction.

(6) Meet outside their immediate jurisdiction if the meeting takes place in or nearby a facility owned by the agency, provided that the topic of the meeting is limited to items directly related to the facility.

(7) Visit the office of the local agency's legal counsel for a closed session on pending litigation held pursuant to Section 54956.9, when to do so would reduce legal fees or costs.

(c) Meetings of the governing board of a school district shall be held within the district except under the circumstances enumerated in subdivision (b), or to do any of the following:

(1) Attend a conference on nonadversarial collective bargaining techniques.

(2) Interview members of the public residing in another district with reference to the trustees' potential employment of the superintendent of that district.

(3) Interview a potential employee from another district.

(d) Meetings of a joint powers authority shall occur within the territory of at least one of its member agencies, or as provided in subdivision (b). However, a joint powers authority which has members throughout the state may meet at any facility in the state which complies with the requirements of Section 54961.

(e) If, by reason of fire, flood, earthquake, or other emergency, it shall be unsafe to meet in the place designated, the meetings shall be held for the duration of the emergency at the place designated by the presiding officer of the legislative body or his or her designee in a notice to the local media that have requested notice pursuant to Section 54956, by the most rapid means of communication available at the time.

SEC. 8. Section 54954.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54954.2. (a) At least 72 hours before a regular meeting, the legislative body of the local agency, or its designee, shall post an agenda containing a brief general description of each item of business to be transacted or discussed at the meeting, including items to be discussed in closed session. A brief general description of an item generally need not exceed 20 words. The agenda shall specify the time and location of the regular meeting and shall be posted in a location that is freely accessible to members of the public.

No action or discussion shall be undertaken on any item not appearing on the posted agenda, except that members of a legislative body or its staff may briefly respond to statements made or questions posed by persons exercising their public testimony rights under Section 54954.3. In addition, on their own initiative or in response to questions posed by the public, a member of a legislative body or its staff may ask a question for clarification, make a brief announcement, or make a brief report on his or her own activities. Furthermore, a member of a legislative body, or the body itself, subject to rules or procedures of the legislative body, may provide a reference to staff or other resources for factual information, request staff to report back to the body at a subsequent meeting concerning any matter, or take action to direct staff to place a matter of business on a future agenda.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the legislative body may take action on items of business not appearing on the posted agenda under any of the conditions stated below. Prior to discussing any item pursuant to this subdivision, the legislative body shall publicly identify the item.

(1) Upon a determination by a majority vote of the legislative body that an emergency situation exists, as defined in Section 54956.5.

(2) Upon a determination by a two-thirds vote of the legislative body, or, if less than two-thirds of the members are present, a unanimous vote of those members present, that there is a need to take immediate action and that the need for action came to the attention of the local agency subsequent to the agenda being posted as specified in subdivision (a).

(3) The item was posted pursuant to subdivision (a) for a prior meeting of the legislative body occurring not more than five calendar days prior to the date action is taken on the item, and at the prior meeting the item was continued to the meeting at which action is being taken.

SEC. 9. Section 54954.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54954.3. (a) Every agenda for regular meetings shall provide an opportunity for members of the public to directly address the legislative body on any item of interest to the public, before or during the legislative body's consideration of the item, that is within the subject matter jurisdiction of the legislative body, provided that no action shall be taken on any item not appearing on the agenda unless the action is otherwise authorized by subdivision (b) of Section 54954.2. However, the agenda need not provide an opportunity for members of the public to address the legislative body on any item that has already been considered by a committee, composed exclusively of members of the legislative body, at a public meeting wherein all interested members of the public were afforded the opportunity to address the committee on the item, before or during the committee's consideration of the item, unless the item has been substantially changed since the committee heard the item, as determined by the legislative body. Every notice for a special meeting shall provide an opportunity for members of the public to directly address the legislative body concerning any item that has been described in the notice for the meeting before or during consideration of that item.

(b) The legislative body of a local agency may adopt reasonable regulations to ensure that the intent of subdivision (a) is carried out, including, but not limited to, regulations limiting the total amount of time allocated for public testimony on particular issues and for each individual speaker.

(c) The legislative body of a local agency shall not prohibit public criticism of the policies, procedures, programs, or services of the agency, or of the acts or omissions of the legislative body. Nothing in this subdivision shall confer any privilege or protection for expression beyond that otherwise provided by law.

SEC. 10. Section 54954.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54954.5. For purposes of describing closed session items pursuant to Section 54954.2, the agenda may describe closed sessions as provided below. No legislative body or elected official shall be in violation of Section 54954.2 or 54956 if the closed session items were described in substantial compliance with this section. Substantial compliance is satisfied by including the information provided below, irrespective of its format.

(a) With respect to a closed session held pursuant to Section 54956.7:

(h) With respect to every item of business to be discussed in closed session pursuant to Sections 1461, 32106, and 32155 of the Health and Safety Code or Sections 37606 and 37624.3 of the Government Code:

REPORT INVOLVING TRADE SECRET

Discussion will concern: (Specify whether discussion will concern proposed new service, program, or facility)

Estimated date of public disclosure: (Specify month and year)

HEARINGS

Subject matter: (Specify whether testimony/deliberation will concern staff privileges, report of medical audit committee, or report of quality assurance committee)

SEC. 11. Section 54956 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54956. A special meeting may be called at any time by the presiding officer of the legislative body of a local agency, or by a majority of the members of the legislative body, by delivering personally or by mail written notice to each member of the legislative body and to each local newspaper of general circulation, radio or television station requesting notice in writing. The notice shall be delivered personally or by mail and shall be received at least 24 hours before the time of the meeting as specified in the notice. The call and notice shall specify the time and place of the special meeting and the business to be transacted or discussed. No other business shall be considered at these meetings by the legislative body. The written notice may be dispensed with as to any member who at or prior to the time the meeting convenes files with the clerk or secretary of the legislative body a written waiver of notice. The waiver may be given by telegram. The written notice may also be dispensed with as to any member who is actually present at the meeting at the time it convenes.

The call and notice shall be posted at least 24 hours prior to the special meeting in a location that is freely accessible to members of the public.

SEC. 12. Section 54956.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54956.8. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a legislative body of a local agency may hold a closed session with its negotiator prior to the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease of real property by or for the local agency to grant authority to its negotiator regarding the price and terms of payment for the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease.

However, prior to the closed session, the legislative body of the local agency shall hold an open and public session in which it identifies the real property or real properties which the negotiations may concern and the person or persons with whom its negotiator may negotiate.

For the purpose of this section, the negotiator may be a member of the legislative body of the local agency.

For purposes of this section, "lease" includes renewal or renegotiation of a lease.

Nothing in this section shall preclude a local agency from holding a closed session for discussions regarding eminent domain proceedings pursuant to Section 54956.9.

SEC. 13. Section 54956.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54956.9. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent a legislative body of a local agency, based on advice of its legal counsel, from holding a closed session to confer with, or receive advice from, its legal counsel regarding pending litigation when discussion in open session concerning those matters would prejudice the position of the local agency in the litigation.

For purposes of this chapter, all expressions of the lawyer-client privilege other than those provided in this section are hereby abrogated. This section is the exclusive expression of the lawyer-client privilege for purposes of conducting closed-session meetings pursuant to this chapter.

For purposes of this section, "litigation" includes any adjudicatory proceeding, including eminent domain, before a court, administrative body exercising its adjudicatory authority, hearing officer, or arbitrator.

For purposes of this section, litigation shall be considered pending when any of the following circumstances exist:

(a) Litigation, to which the local agency is a party, has been initiated formally.

(b) (1) A point has been reached where, in the opinion of the legislative body of the local agency on the advice of its legal counsel, based on existing facts and circumstances, there is a significant exposure to litigation against the local agency.

(2) Based on existing facts and circumstances, the legislative body of the local agency is meeting only to decide whether a closed session is authorized pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

(3) For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), "existing facts and circumstances" shall consist only of one of the following:

(A) Facts and circumstances that might result in litigation against the local agency but which the local agency believes are not yet known to a potential plaintiff or plaintiffs, which facts and circumstances need not be disclosed.

(B) Facts and circumstances, including, but not limited to, an accident, disaster, incident, or transactional occurrence that might result in litigation against the agency and that are known to a potential plaintiff or plaintiffs, which facts or circumstances shall be publicly stated on the agenda or announced.

(C) The receipt of a claim pursuant to the Tort Claims Act or some other written communication from a potential plaintiff threatening litigation, which claim or communication shall be available for public inspection pursuant to Section 54957.5.

(D) A statement made by a person in an open and public meeting threatening litigation on a specific matter within the responsibility of the legislative body.

(E) A statement threatening litigation made by a person outside an open and public meeting on a specific matter within the responsibility of the legislative body so long as the official or employee of the local agency receiving knowledge of the threat makes a contemporaneous or other record of the statement prior to the meeting, which record shall be available for public inspection pursuant to Section 54957.5. The records so created need not identify the alleged victim of unlawful or tortious sexual conduct or anyone making the threat on their behalf, or identify a public employee who is the alleged perpetrator of any unlawful or tortious conduct upon which a threat of litigation is based, unless the identity of the person has been publicly disclosed.

(F) Nothing in this section shall require disclosure of written communications that are privileged and not subject to disclosure pursuant to the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1).

(c) Based on existing facts and circumstances, the legislative body of the local agency has decided to initiate or is deciding whether to initiate litigation.

Prior to holding a closed session pursuant to this section, the legislative body of the local agency shall state on the agenda or publicly announce the subdivision of this section that authorizes the closed session. If the session is closed pursuant to subdivision (a), the body shall state the title of or otherwise specifically identify the litigation to be discussed, unless the body states that to do so would jeopardize the agency's ability to effectuate service of process upon one or more unserved parties, or that to do so would jeopardize its ability to conclude existing settlement negotiations to its advantage.

A local agency shall be considered to be a "party" or to have a "significant exposure to litigation" if an officer or employee of the local agency is a party or has significant exposure to litigation concerning prior or prospective activities or alleged activities during the course and scope of that office or employment, including litigation in which it is an issue whether an activity is outside the course and scope of the office or employment.

SEC. 14. Section 54957 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54957. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the legislative body of a local agency from holding closed sessions with the Attorney General, district attorney, sheriff, or chief of police, or their respective deputies, on matters posing a threat to the security of public buildings or a threat to the public's right of access to public services or public facilities, or from holding closed sessions during a regular or special meeting to consider the appointment, employment, evaluation of performance, discipline, or dismissal of a public employee or to hear complaints or charges brought against the employee by another person or employee unless the employee requests a public session.

As a condition to holding a closed session on specific complaints or charges brought against an employee by another person or employee, the employee shall be given written notice of his or her right to have the complaints or charges heard in an open session rather than a closed session, which notice shall be delivered to the employee personally or by mail at least 24 hours before the time for holding the session. If notice is not given, any disciplinary or other action taken by the legislative body against the employee based on the specific complaints or charges in the closed session shall be null and void.

The legislative body also may exclude from the public or closed meeting, during the examination of a witness, any or all other witnesses in the matter being investigated by the legislative body.

For the purposes of this section, the term "employee" shall include an officer or an independent contractor who functions as an officer or an employee but shall not include any elected official, member of a legislative body or other independent contractors. Nothing in this section shall limit local officials' ability to hold closed session meetings pursuant to Sections 1461, 32106, and 32155 of the Health and Safety Code or Sections 37606 and 37624.3 of the Government Code. Closed sessions held pursuant to this section shall not include discussion or action on proposed compensation except for a reduction of compensation that results from the imposition of discipline.

SEC. 15. Section 54957.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54957.1. (a) The legislative body of any local agency shall publicly report any action taken in closed session and the vote or abstention of every member present thereon, as follows:

(1) Approval of an agreement concluding real estate negotiations pursuant to Section 54956.8 shall be reported after the agreement is final, as specified below:

(A) If its own approval renders the agreement final, the body shall report that approval and the substance of the agreement in open session at the public meeting during which the closed session is held.

(B) If final approval rests with the other party to the negotiations, the local agency shall disclose the fact of that approval and the substance of the agreement upon inquiry by any person, as soon as the other party or its agent has informed the local agency of its approval.

(2) Approval given to its legal counsel to defend, or seek or refrain from seeking appellate review or relief, or to enter as an amicus curiae in any form of litigation as the result of a consultation under Section 54956.9 shall be reported in open session at the public meeting during which the closed session is held. The report shall identify, if known, the adverse party or parties and the substance of the litigation. In the case of approval given to initiate or intervene in an action, the announcement need not identify the action, the defendants, or other particulars, but shall specify that the direction to initiate or intervene in an action has been given and that the action, the defendants, and the other particulars shall, once formally commenced, be disclosed to any person upon inquiry, unless to do so would jeopardize the agency's ability to effectuate service of process on one or more unserved parties, or that to do so would jeopardize its ability to conclude existing settlement negotiations to its advantage.

(3) Approval given to its legal counsel of a settlement of pending litigation, as defined in Section 54956.9, at any stage prior to or during a judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding shall be reported after the settlement is final, as specified below:

(A) If the legislative body accepts a settlement offer signed by the opposing party, the body shall report its acceptance and identify the substance of the agreement in open session at the public meeting during which the closed session is held.

(B) If final approval rests with some other party to the litigation or with the court, then as soon as the settlement becomes final, and upon inquiry by any person, the local agency shall disclose the fact of that approval, and identify the substance of the agreement.

(4) Disposition reached as to claims discussed in closed session pursuant to Section 54956.95 shall be reported as soon as reached in a manner that identifies the name of the claimant, the name of the local agency claimed against, the substance of the claim, and any monetary amount approved for payment and agreed upon by the claimant.

(5) Action taken to appoint, employ, dismiss, accept the resignation of, or otherwise affect the employment status of a public employee in closed session pursuant to Section 54957 shall be reported at the public meeting during which the closed session is held. Any report required by this paragraph shall identify the title of the position. The general requirement of this paragraph notwithstanding, the report of a dismissal or of the nonrenewal of an employment contract shall be deferred until the first public meeting following the exhaustion of administrative remedies, if any.

(6) Approval of an agreement concluding labor negotiations with represented employees pursuant to Section 54957.6 shall be reported after the agreement is final and has been accepted or ratified by the other party. The report shall identify the item approved and the other party or parties to the negotiation.

(b) Reports that are required to be made pursuant to this section may be made orally or in writing. The legislative body shall provide to any person who has submitted a written request to the legislative body within 24 hours of the posting of the agenda, or to any person who has made a standing request for all documentation as part of a request for notice of meetings pursuant to Section 54954.1 or 54956, if the requester is present at the time the closed session ends, copies of any contracts, settlement agreements, or other documents that were finally approved or adopted in the closed session. If the action taken results in one or more substantive amendments to the related documents requiring retyping, the documents need not be released until the retyping is completed during normal business hours, provided that the presiding officer of the legislative body or his or her designee orally summarizes the substance of the amendments for the benefit of the document requester or any other person present and requesting the information.

(c) The documentation referred to in paragraph (b) shall be available to any person on the next business day following the meeting in which the action referred to is taken or, in the case of substantial amendments, when any necessary retyping is complete.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require that the legislative body approve actions not otherwise subject to legislative body approval.

(e) No action for injury to a reputational, liberty, or other personal interest may be commenced by or on behalf of any employee or former employee with respect to whom a disclosure is made by a legislative body in an effort to comply with this section.

SEC. 16. Section 54957.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54957.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 6255 or any other provisions of law, agendas of public meetings and any other writings, when distributed to all, or a majority of all, of the members of a legislative body of a local agency by any person in connection with a matter subject to discussion or consideration at a public meeting of the body, are disclosable public records under the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1), and shall be made available upon request without delay. However, this section shall not include any writing exempt from public disclosure under Section 6253.5, 6254, or 6254.7.

(b) Writings which are public records under subdivision (a) and which are distributed during a public meeting shall be made available for public inspection at the meeting if prepared by the local agency or a member of its legislative body, or after the meeting if prepared by some other person.

(c) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the legislative body of a local agency from charging a fee or deposit for a copy of a public record pursuant to Section 6257.

(d) This section shall not be construed to limit or delay the public's right to inspect any record required to be disclosed under the requirements of the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1). Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require a legislative body of a local agency to place any paid advertisement or any other paid notice in any publication.

SEC. 17. Section 54957.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54957.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a legislative body of a local agency may hold closed sessions with the local agency's designated representatives regarding the salaries, salary schedules, or compensation paid in the form of fringe benefits of its represented and unrepresented employees, and, for represented employees, any other matter within the statutorily-provided scope of representation. Closed sessions of a legislative body of a local agency, as permitted in this section, shall be for the purpose of reviewing its position and instructing the local agency's designated representatives. Closed sessions, as permitted in this section, may take place prior to and during consultations and discussions with representatives of employee organizations and unrepresented employees.

Closed sessions with the local agency's designated representative regarding the salaries, salary schedules, or compensation paid in the form of fringe benefits may include discussion of an agency's available funds and funding priorities, but only insofar as these discussions relate to providing instructions to the local agency's designated representative.

Closed sessions held pursuant to this section shall not include final action on the proposed compensation of one or more unrepresented employees.

For the purposes enumerated in this section, a legislative body of a local agency may also meet with a state conciliator who has intervened in the proceedings.

(b) For the purposes of this section, the term "employee" shall include an officer or an independent contractor who functions as an officer or an employee, but shall not include any elected official, member of a legislative body, or other independent contractors.

SEC. 18. Section 54959 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54959. Each member of a legislative body who attends a meeting of that legislative body where action is taken in violation of any provision of this chapter, and where the member intends to deprive the public of information to which the member knows or has reason to know the public is entitled under this chapter, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 19. Section 54960 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54960. (a) The district attorney or any interested person may commence an action by mandamus, injunction or declaratory relief for the purpose of stopping or preventing violations or threatened violations of this chapter by members of the legislative body of a local agency or to determine the applicability of this chapter to actions or threatened future action of the legislative body, or to determine whether any rule or action by the legislative body to penalize or otherwise discourage the expression of one or more of its members is valid or invalid under the laws of this state or of the United States, or to compel the legislative body to tape record its closed sessions as hereinafter provided.

(b) The court in its discretion may, upon a judgment of a violation of Section 54956.7, 54956.8, 54956.9, 54956.95, 54957, or 54957.6, order the legislative body to tape record its closed sessions and preserve the tape recordings for the period and under the terms of security and confidentiality the court deems appropriate.

(c) (1) Each recording so kept shall be immediately labeled with the date of the closed session recorded and the title of the clerk or other officer who shall be custodian of the recording.

(2) The tapes shall be subject to the following discovery procedures:

(A) In any case in which discovery or disclosure of the tape is sought by either the district attorney or the plaintiff in a civil action pursuant to Section 54959, 54960, or 54960.1 alleging that a violation of this chapter has occurred in a closed session which has been recorded pursuant to this section, the party seeking discovery or disclosure shall file a written notice of motion with the appropriate court with notice to the governmental agency which has custody and control of the tape recording. The notice shall be given pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1005 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(B) The notice shall include, in addition to the items required by Section 1010 of the Code of Civil Procedure, all of the following:

(i) Identification of the proceeding in which discovery or disclosure is sought, the party seeking discovery or disclosure, the date and time of the meeting recorded, and the governmental agency which has custody and control of the recording.

(ii) An affidavit which contains specific facts indicating that a violation of the act occurred in the closed session.

(3) If the court, following a review of the motion, finds that there is good cause to believe that a violation has occurred, the court may review, in camera, the recording of that portion of the closed session alleged to have violated the act.

(4) If, following the in camera review, the court concludes that disclosure of a portion of the recording would be likely to materially assist in the resolution of the litigation alleging violation of this chapter, the court shall, in its discretion, make a certified transcript of the portion of the recording a public exhibit in the proceeding.

(5) Nothing in this section shall permit discovery of communications which are protected by the attorney-client privilege.

SEC. 20. Section 54960.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54960.1. (a) The district attorney or any interested person may commence an action by mandamus or injunction for the purpose of obtaining a judicial determination that an action taken by a legislative body of a local agency in violation of Section 54953, 54954.2, 54954.5, 54954.6, or 54956 is null and void under this section. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent a legislative body from curing or correcting an action challenged pursuant to this section.

(b) Prior to any action being commenced pursuant to subdivision (a), the district attorney or interested person shall make a demand of the legislative body to cure or correct the action alleged to have been taken in violation of Section 54953, 54954.2, 54954.5, 54954.6, or 54956. The demand shall be in writing and clearly describe the challenged action of the legislative body and nature of the alleged violation.

(c) (1) The written demand shall be made within 90 days from the date the action was taken unless the action was taken in an open session but in violation of Section 54954.2, in which case the written demand shall be made within 30 days from the date the action was taken.

(2) Within 30 days of receipt of the demand, the legislative body shall cure or correct the challenged action and inform the demanding party in writing of its actions to cure or correct or inform the demanding party in writing of its decision not to cure or correct the challenged action.

(3) If the legislative body takes no action within the 30-day period, the inaction shall be deemed a decision not to cure or correct the challenged action, and the 15-day period to commence the action described in subdivision (a) shall commence to run the day after the 30-day period to cure or correct expires.

(4) Within 15 days of receipt of the written notice of the legislative body's decision to cure or correct, or not to cure or correct, or within 15 days of the expiration of the 30-day period to cure or correct, whichever is earlier, the demanding party shall be required to commence the action pursuant to subdivision (a) or thereafter be barred from commencing the action.

(d) An action taken that is alleged to have been taken in violation of Section 54953, 54954.2, 54954.5, 54954.6, or 54956 shall not be determined to be null and void if any of the following conditions exist:

(1) The action taken was in substantial compliance with Sections 54953, 54954.2, 54954.5, 54954.6, and 54956.

(2) The action taken was in connection with the sale or issuance of notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness or any contract, instrument, or agreement thereto.

(3) The action taken gave rise to a contractual obligation, including a contract let by competitive bid other than compensation for services in the form of salary or fees for professional services, upon which a party has, in good faith and without notice of a challenge to the validity of the action, detrimentally relied.

(4) The action taken was in connection with the collection of any tax.

(5) Any person, city, city and county, county, district, or any agency or subdivision of the state alleging noncompliance with subdivision (a) of Section 54954.2, Section 54956, or Section 54956.5, because of any defect, error, irregularity, or omission in the notice given pursuant to those provisions, had actual notice of the item of business at least 72 hours prior to the meeting at which the action was taken, if the meeting was noticed pursuant to Section 54954.2, or 24 hours prior to the meeting at which the action was taken if the meeting was noticed pursuant to Section 54956, or prior to the meeting at which the action was taken if the meeting is held pursuant to Section 54956.5.

(e) During any action seeking a judicial determination pursuant to subdivision (a) if the court determines, pursuant to a showing by the legislative body that an action alleged to have been taken in violation of Section 54953, 54954.2, 54954.5, 54954.6, or 54956 has been cured or corrected by a subsequent action of the legislative body, the action filed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be dismissed with prejudice.

(f) The fact that a legislative body takes a subsequent action to cure or correct an action taken pursuant to this section shall not be construed or admissible as evidence of a violation of this chapter.

SEC. 21. Section 54961 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54961. (a) No legislative body of a local agency shall conduct any meeting in any facility that prohibits the admittance of any person, or persons, on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, or sex, or which is inaccessible to disabled persons, or where members of the public may not be present without making a payment or purchase. This section shall apply to every local agency as defined in Section 54951.

(b) No notice, agenda, announcement, or report required under this chapter need identify any victim or alleged victim of tortious sexual conduct or child abuse unless the identity of the person has been publicly disclosed.

SEC. 22. Section 54962 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54962. Except as expressly authorized by this chapter, or by Sections 1461, 32106, and 32155 of the Health and Safety Code or Sections 37606 and 37624.3 of the Government Code as they apply to hospitals, or by any provision of the Education Code pertaining to school districts and community college districts, no closed session may be held by any legislative body of any local agency.

SEC. 23. This act shall become operative on April 1, 1994.

SEC. 24. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to resolve inconsistencies created by several acts revising the Ralph M. Brown Act before these acts become operative on April 1, 1994, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 33

An act to add Section 15046.1 to the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 170, 17207, and 24347.5 of, and to add Sections 196.94, 196.95, and 196.96 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to disaster relief, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 30, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State March 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15046.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

15046.1. (a) The payment of the filing fee described in Section 15046 may be postponed by the statewide office if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The proposed construction or alteration has been proposed as a result of a seismic event that has been declared to be a disaster by the Governor.

(2) The statewide office determines that the applicant cannot presently afford to pay the filing fee.

(3) The applicant has applied for federal disaster relief from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) with respect to the disaster described in paragraph (1).

(4) The applicant is expected to receive disaster assistance within one year from the date of the application.

(b) If the statewide office does not receive full payment of any fee for which payment has been postponed pursuant to subdivision (a) within one year from the date of plan approval, the statewide office may request an offset from the Controller for the unpaid amount against any amount owed by the state to the applicant, and may request additional offsets against amounts owed by the state to the applicant until the fee is paid in full. This subdivision shall not be construed to establish an offset as described in the preceding sentence as the exclusive remedy for the collection of any unpaid fee amount as described in that same sentence.

SEC. 2. Section 170 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

170. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, provide that every assessee of any taxable property, or any person liable for the taxes thereon, whose property was damaged or destroyed without his or her fault, may apply for reassessment of that property as provided herein.

To be eligible for reassessment the damage or destruction to the property shall have been caused by any of the following:

(1) A major misfortune or calamity, in an area or region subsequently proclaimed by the Governor to be in a state of disaster, if that property was damaged or destroyed by the major misfortune or calamity that caused the Governor to proclaim the area or region to be in a state of disaster. As used in this paragraph "damage" includes a diminution in the value of property as a result of restricted access to the property where that restricted access was caused by the major misfortune or calamity.

(2) A misfortune or calamity.

(3) A misfortune or calamity that, with respect to a possessory interest in land owned by the state or federal government has caused the permit or other right to enter upon the land to be suspended or restricted. As used in this paragraph, "misfortune or calamity" includes a drought condition such as existed in this state in 1976 and 1977.

The application for reassessment may be filed within the time specified in the ordinance, or, if no time is specified, within 60 days of the misfortune or calamity, by delivering to the assessor a written application requesting reassessment showing the condition and value, if any, of the property immediately after the damage or destruction, and the dollar amount of the damage. The application shall be executed under penalty of perjury, or if executed outside the State of California, verified by affidavit.

An ordinance may be made applicable to a major misfortune or calamity specified in paragraph (1) or to any misfortune or calamity specified in paragraph (2), or to both, as the board of supervisors determines. An ordinance may not be made applicable to a misfortune or calamity specified in paragraph (3), unless an ordinance making paragraph (2) applicable is operative in the county. The ordinance may specify a period of time within which the ordinance shall be effective, and, if no period of time is specified, it shall remain in effect until repealed.

(b) Upon receiving a proper application, the assessor shall appraise the property and determine separately the full cash value of land, improvements and personalty immediately before and after the damage or destruction. If the sum of the full cash values of the land, improvements and personalty before the damage or destruction exceeds the sum of the values after the damage by five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, the assessor shall also separately determine the percentage reductions in value of land, improvements and personalty due to the damage or destruction. The assessor shall reduce the values appearing on the assessment roll by the percentages of damage or destruction computed pursuant to this subdivision, and the taxes due on the property shall be adjusted as provided in subdivision (e). However, the amount of the reduction shall not exceed the actual loss.

(c) The assessor shall notify the applicant in writing of the amount of the proposed reassessment. The notice shall state that the applicant may appeal the proposed reassessment to the local board of equalization within 14 days of the date of mailing the notice. If an appeal is requested within the 14-day period, the board shall hear and decide the matter as if the proposed reassessment had been entered on the roll as an assessment made outside the regular assessment period. The decision of the board regarding the damaged value of the property shall be final, provided that a decision of the local board of equalization regarding any reassessment made pursuant to this section shall create no presumption as regards the value of the affected property subsequent to the date of the damage.

Those reassessed values resulting from reductions in full cash value of amounts, as determined above, shall be forwarded to the auditor by the assessor or the clerk of the local equalization board, as the case may be. The auditor shall enter the reassessed values on the roll. After being entered on the roll, those reassessed values shall not be subject to review, except by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(d) If no application is made and the assessor determines that within the preceding six months a property has suffered damage caused by misfortune or calamity that may qualify the property owner for relief under an ordinance adopted under this section, the assessor shall provide the last known owner of the property with an application for reassessment. The property owner shall file the completed application within 30 days of notification by the assessor but in no case more than six months after the occurrence of said damage. Upon receipt of a properly completed, timely filed application, the property shall be reassessed in the same manner as required in subdivision (b).

(e) The tax rate fixed for property on the roll on which the property so reassessed appeared at the time of the misfortune or calamity, shall be applied to the amount of the reassessment as determined in accordance with this section and the assessee shall be liable for: (1) a prorated portion of the taxes that would have been due on the property for the current fiscal year had the misfortune or calamity not occurred, such proration to be determined on the basis of the number of months in the current fiscal year prior to the misfortune or calamity; plus, (2) a proration of the tax due on the property as reassessed in its damaged or destroyed condition, to be determined on the basis of the number of months in the fiscal year after the damage or destruction, including the month in which the damage was incurred. If the damage or destruction occurred after March 1 and before the beginning of the next fiscal year, the reassessment shall be utilized to determine the tax liability for the next fiscal year provided, however, that if the property is fully restored during the next fiscal year, taxes due for that year shall be prorated based on the number of months in the year before and after the completion of restoration.

(f) Any tax paid in excess of the total tax due shall be refunded to the taxpayer pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 5096) of Part 9, as an erroneously collected tax or by order of the board of supervisors without the necessity of a claim being filed pursuant to Chapter 5.

(g) The assessed value of the property in its damaged condition, as determined pursuant to subdivision (b) compounded annually by the inflation factor specified in subdivision (a) of Section 51, shall be the taxable value of the property until it is restored, repaired, reconstructed or other provisions of the law require the establishment of a new base year value.

If partial reconstruction, restoration, or repair has occurred on any subsequent lien date, the taxable value shall be increased by an amount determined by multiplying the difference between its factored base year value immediately before the calamity and its assessed value in its damaged condition by the percentage of the repair, reconstruction, or restoration completed on that lien date.

When the property is fully repaired, restored or reconstructed, its new taxable value shall be the lesser of (1) its full cash value, or (2) its factored base year value or its factored base year value as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 70. The new taxable value shall be enrolled on the supplemental roll following completion of the repair, restoration, or reconstruction.

(h) This section applies to all counties, whether operating under a charter or under the general laws of this state.

(i) Any ordinance in effect pursuant to Section 155.1, 155.13, or 155.14 shall remain in effect according to its terms as if such ordinances were adopted pursuant to this section, subject to the limitations of subdivision (b).

(j) In lieu of subdivision (d), if no application is made and the assessor determines that within the preceding six months a property has suffered damage caused by misfortune or calamity, that may qualify the property owner for relief under an ordinance adopted under this section, the assessor may, with the approval of the board of supervisors, reassess the property as provided in subdivision (b) and notify the last known owner of the property of the reassessment.

SEC. 3. Section 196.94 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

196.94. In the 1993-94 fiscal year, or as soon as possible thereafter, the county auditor of an eligible county, proclaimed by the Governor to be in a state of disaster as a result of fire or any other related casualty that occurred in the County of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, or Ventura, during October or November of 1993, shall certify to the Director of Finance an estimate of the total amount of the reduction in property tax revenues on both the regular secured roll and the supplemental roll for that fiscal year resulting from the reassessment of eligible properties by the county assessor pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 170, except that the amount certified shall not include any estimated property tax revenue reductions to school districts (other than basic state aid school districts) and county offices of education. For purposes of this section, "basic state aid school district" means any school district that does not receive a state apportionment pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 42238 of the Education Code, but receives from the state only a basic apportionment pursuant to Section 6 of Article IX of the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. Section 196.95 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

196.95. After the county auditor of an eligible county, as described in Section 196.94, has made the applicable certification to the Director of Finance pursuant to Section 196.94, the director shall, within 30 days after verification of the county auditor's estimate, certify this amount to the Controller for allocation to the county. Upon receipt of certification from the Director of Finance, the Controller shall make the appropriate allocation to the county within 10 working days thereafter.

SEC. 5. Section 196.96 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

196.96. On or before December 31, 1994, each eligible county, as described in Section 196.94, shall compute and remit to the Controller for deposit in the General Fund an amount equal to the amount allocated to it by the Controller pursuant to Section 196.94, less the actual amount of its property tax revenue lost in the immediately preceding fiscal year on the regular secured and supplemental rolls with respect to eligible properties as a result of the reassessment of those properties pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 170, excluding any property tax revenue lost by school districts (other than basic state aid school districts) and county offices of education. If the actual amount of property tax revenue lost by an eligible county in the immediately preceding fiscal year, as described and limited in the preceding sentence, exceeds the amount allocated by the Controller to that county pursuant to Section 196.95, the Controller shall allocate the amount of that excess to that eligible county. For purposes of this section, "basic state aid school district" means any school district that does not receive a state apportionment pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 42238 of the Education Code, but receives from the state only a basic apportionment pursuant to Section 6 of Article IX of the California Constitution.

SEC. 6. Section 17207 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17207. (a) For disaster losses that qualify for treatment under Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code, to the extent that those losses, as computed pursuant to Section 165(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, exceed the adjusted taxable income of the year of loss or, if the election under Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code is made, the adjusted taxable income of the year preceding the loss, then that "excess loss," at the election of the taxpayer, may be carried to other taxable years as provided in subdivision (b), with respect to disaster losses resulting from any of the following:

(1) Forest fire or any other related casualty occurring in 1985 in California.

(2) Storm, flooding, or any other related casualty occurring in 1986 in California.

(3) Any loss sustained during 1987 as a result of a forest fire or any other related casualty.

(4) Earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty occurring in 1987 in California.

(5) Earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty occurring in 1989 in California.

(6) Any loss sustained during 1990 as a result of fire or any other related casualty in California.

(7) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, any loss sustained as a result of the Oakland/Berkeley Fire of 1991, or any other related casualty.

(8) Any loss sustained as a result of storm, flooding, or any other related casualty occurring in February 1992 in California.

(9) Earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty occurring in April 1992 in the County of Humboldt.

(10) Riots, arson, or any other related casualty occurring in April or May 1992 in California.

(11) Any loss sustained as a result of the earthquakes that occurred in the County of San Bernardino in June and July of 1992, or any other related casualty.

(12) Any loss sustained as a result of the Fountain Fire that occurred in the County of Shasta, or as a result of either of the fires in the Counties of Calaveras and Trinity that occurred in August 1992, or any other related casualty.

(13) Any loss sustained as a result of a fire that occurred in the County of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, or Ventura, during October or November of 1993, or any other related casualty.

(b) For losses covered by Sections 165(c) (1) and 165(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to trade or business losses, losses resulting from transactions entered into for profit, and for losses covered by Section 165(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to personal casualty losses, the "excess loss" may be carried forward to each of the five taxable years following the year the loss is claimed.

However, if there is any "excess loss" remaining after the five-year period, then 50 percent of that "excess loss" may be carried forward to each of the next 10 taxable years.

(c) The entire amount of any "excess loss" as defined in subdivision (a) shall be carried to the earliest of the taxable years to which, by reason of subdivision (b), the loss may be carried. The portion of the loss which shall be carried to each of the other taxable years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of "excess loss" over the sum of the adjusted taxable income for each of the prior taxable years to which that "excess loss" may be carried.

(d) The provisions of this section and Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable to any of the following losses sustained in any county or city in this state which was proclaimed by the Governor to be in a state of disaster:

(1) Any loss sustained during February 1986 as a result of storm, flooding, or any other related casualty.

(2) Any loss sustained during 1987 as a result of forest fire or any other related casualty.

(3) Any loss sustained during October 1987 as the result of earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty.

(4) Any loss resulting from the earthquake which occurred in October 1989, aftershock, or any other related casualty.

(5) Any loss sustained during 1990 as the result of fire in the County of Santa Barbara.

(6) Any loss sustained as a result of storm, flooding, or any other related casualty occurring in February 1992 in California.

(7) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, any loss sustained as a result of the Oakland/Berkeley Fire of 1991, or any other related casualty.

(8) Any loss sustained during April 1992 as a result of earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty in the County of Humboldt.

(9) Any loss sustained during April or May 1992 as a result of riots, arson, or any other related casualty.

(10) Any loss sustained as a result of earthquakes that occurred in the County of San Bernardino in June and July of 1992, or any other related casualty.

(11) Any loss sustained as a result of the Fountain Fire that occurred in the County of Shasta, or as a result of either of the fires in the Counties of Calaveras and Trinity that occurred in August 1992, or any other related casualty.

(12) Any loss sustained as a result of a fire that occurred in the County of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, or Ventura, during October or November of 1993, or any other related casualty.

(e) Losses described in this section may not be taken into account in computing a net operating loss deduction under Section 17201, as modified by Sections 17276, 17276.1, and 17276.2.

(f) For purposes of this section, "adjusted taxable income" shall be defined by Section 1212(b)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(g) For losses described in paragraph (13) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (12) of subdivision (d), the election under Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code may be made on a return or amended return filed on or before the due date of the return (determined with regard to extension) for the taxable year in which the disaster occurred.

SEC. 6.5. Section 17207 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17207. (a) For disaster losses that qualify for treatment under Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code, to the extent that those losses, as computed pursuant to Section 165(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, exceed the adjusted taxable income of the year of loss or, if the election under Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code is made, the adjusted taxable income of the year preceding the loss, then that "excess loss," at the election of the taxpayer, may be carried to other taxable years as provided in subdivision (b), with respect to disaster losses resulting from any of the following:

(1) Forest fire or any other related casualty occurring in 1985 in California.

(2) Storm, flooding, or any other related casualty occurring in 1986 in California.

(3) Any loss sustained during 1987 as a result of a forest fire or any other related casualty.

(4) Earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty occurring in 1987 in California.

(5) Earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty occurring in 1989 in California.

(6) Any loss sustained during 1990 as a result of fire or any other related casualty in California.

(7) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, any loss sustained as a result of the Oakland/Berkeley Fire of 1991, or any other related casualty.

(8) Any loss sustained as a result of storm, flooding, or any other related casualty occurring in February 1992 in California.

(9) Earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty occurring in April 1992 in the County of Humboldt.

(10) Riots, arson, or any other related casualty occurring in April or May 1992 in California.

(11) Any loss sustained as a result of the earthquakes that occurred in the County of San Bernardino in June and July of 1992, or any other related casualty.

(12) Any loss sustained as a result of the Fountain Fire that occurred in the County of Shasta, or as a result of either of the fires in the Counties of Calaveras and Trinity that occurred in August 1992, or any other related casualty.

(13) Any loss sustained as a result of a fire that occurred in the County of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, or Ventura, during October or November of 1993, or any other related casualty.

(14) Any loss sustained as a result of the earthquake, aftershocks, or any other related casualty that occurred in the Counties of Los Angeles, Orange, and Ventura on or after January 17 in 1994.

(b) For losses covered by Sections 165(c) (1) and 165(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to trade or business losses, losses resulting from transactions entered into for profit, and for losses covered by Section 165(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to personal casualty losses, the "excess loss" may be carried forward to each of the five taxable years following the year the loss is claimed. However, if there is any "excess loss" remaining after the five-year period, then 50 percent of that "excess loss" may be carried forward to each of the next 10 taxable years.

(c) The entire amount of any "excess loss" as defined in subdivision (a) shall be carried to the earliest of the taxable years to which, by reason of subdivision (b), the loss may be carried. The portion of the loss which shall be carried to each of the other taxable years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of "excess loss" over the sum of the adjusted taxable income for each of the prior taxable years to which that "excess loss" may be carried.

(d) The provisions of this section and Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable to any of the following losses sustained in any county or city in this state which was proclaimed by the Governor to be in a state of disaster:

(1) Any loss sustained during February 1986 as a result of storm, flooding, or any other related casualty.

(2) Any loss sustained during 1987 as a result of forest fire or any other related casualty.

(3) Any loss sustained during October 1987 as the result of earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty.

(4) Any loss resulting from the earthquake which occurred in October 1989, aftershock, or any other related casualty.

(5) Any loss sustained during 1990 as the result of fire in the County of Santa Barbara.

(6) Any loss sustained as a result of storm, flooding, or any other related casualty occurring in February 1992 in California.

(7) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, any loss sustained as a result of the Oakland/Berkeley Fire of 1991, or any other related casualty.

(8) Any loss sustained during April 1992 as a result of earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty in the County of Humboldt.

(9) Any loss sustained during April or May 1992 as a result of riots, arson, or any other related casualty.

(10) Any loss sustained as a result of earthquakes that occurred in the County of San Bernardino in June and July of 1992, or any other related casualty.

(11) Any loss sustained as a result of the Fountain Fire that occurred in the County of Shasta, or as a result of either of the fires in the Counties of Calaveras and Trinity that occurred in August 1992, or any other related casualty.

(12) Any loss sustained as a result of a fire that occurred in the County of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, or Ventura, during October or November of 1993, or any other related casualty.

(13) Any loss sustained as a result of the earthquake, aftershocks, or any other related casualty that occurred in the Counties of Los Angeles, Orange, and Ventura on or after January 17 in 1994.

(e) Losses described in this section may not be taken into account in computing a net operating loss deduction under Section 17201, as modified by Sections 17276, 17276.1, and 17276.2.

(f) For purposes of this section, "adjusted taxable income" shall be defined by Section 1212(b)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(g) For losses described in paragraphs (13) and (14) of subdivision (a) and paragraphs (12) and (13) of subdivision (d), the election under Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code may be made on a return or amended return filed on or before the due date of the return (determined with regard to extension) for the taxable year in which the disaster occurred.

SEC. 7. Section 24347.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24347.5. (a) In lieu of Section 24347, Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to disaster losses, shall apply to each of the following:

(1) Forest fire or any other related casualty occurring in 1985 in California.

(2) Storm, flooding, or any other related casualty occurring in 1986 in California.

(3) Any loss sustained during 1987 as a result of a forest fire or any other related casualty.

(4) Earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty occurring in October 1987 in California.

(5) Earthquake, aftershock, or any related casualty occurring in October 1989 in California.

(6) Any loss sustained during 1990 as a result of fire or any other related casualty in California.

(7) Earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty occurring in April 1992 in the County of Humboldt.

(8) Riots, arson, or any other related casualty occurring in April or May 1992 in California.

(9) Any loss sustained as a result of a fire that occurred in the County of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, or Ventura, during October or November of 1993, or any other related casualty.

(b) To the extent that losses under subdivision (a) exceed the net income of the year of loss or, if the election under Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code is made, the net income of the year preceding the loss, then that "excess loss," at the election of the taxpayer, may be carried forward to each of the five income years following the income year the loss is claimed. However, if there is any “excess loss” remaining after the five-year period, then 50 percent of that “excess loss” may be carried forward to each of the next 10 income years.

(c) The entire amount of any “excess loss” as defined in subdivision (b) shall be carried to the earliest of the income years to which, by reason of subdivision (b), the loss may be carried. The portion of the loss which shall be carried to each of the other income years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of “excess loss” over the sum of the net income for each of the prior income years to which that “excess loss” may be carried.

(d) This section and Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable to any of the following losses sustained in any county or city in this state which was proclaimed by the Governor to be in a state of disaster:

(1) Any loss sustained during February 1986 as a result of storm, flooding, or any other related casualty.

(2) Any loss sustained during 1987 as a result of forest fire or any other related casualty.

(3) Any loss sustained during October 1987 as the result of earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty.

(4) Any loss resulting from the earthquake which occurred in October 1989, aftershock, or any other related casualty.

(5) Any loss sustained during 1990 as the result of fire in the County of Santa Barbara.

(6) Any loss sustained during April 1992 as a result of earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty in the County of Humboldt.

(7) Any loss sustained during April or May 1992 as a result of riots, arson, or any other related casualty.

(8) Any loss sustained as a result of a fire that occurred in the County of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, or Ventura, during October or November of 1993, or any other related casualty.

(e) Any corporation subject to the provisions of Section 25101 or 25101.15 that has disaster losses pursuant to this section, shall determine the “excess loss” to be carried to other income years under the principles specified in Section 25108 relating to net operating losses.

(f) Losses described in this section may not be taken into account in computing a net operating loss deduction under Section 24416 or 24416.1.

(g) For losses described in paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (8) of subdivision (d), the election under Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code may be made on a return or amended return filed on or before the due date of the return (determined with regard to extension) for the income year in which the disaster occurred.

SEC. 7.5. Section 24347.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24347.5. (a) In lieu of Section 24347, Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to disaster losses, shall apply to each of the following:

(1) Forest fire or any other related casualty occurring in 1985 in California.

(2) Storm, flooding, or any other related casualty occurring in 1986 in California.

(3) Any loss sustained during 1987 as a result of a forest fire or any other related casualty.

(4) Earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty occurring in October 1987 in California.

(5) Earthquake, aftershock, or any related casualty occurring in October 1989 in California.

(6) Any loss sustained during 1990 as a result of fire or any other related casualty in California.

(7) Earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty occurring in April 1992 in the County of Humboldt.

(8) Riots, arson, or any other related casualty occurring in April or May 1992 in California.

(9) Any loss sustained as a result of a fire that occurred in the County of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, or Ventura, during October or November of 1993, or any other related casualty.

(10) Any loss sustained as a result of the earthquake, aftershocks, or any other related casualty that occurred in the Counties of Los Angeles, Orange, and Ventura on or after January 17 in 1994.

(b) To the extent that losses under subdivision (a) exceed the net income of the year of loss or, if the election under Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code is made, the net income of the year preceding the loss, then that "excess loss," at the election of the taxpayer, may be carried forward to each of the five income years following the income year the loss is claimed. However, if there is any "excess loss" remaining after the five-year period, then 50 percent of that "excess loss" may be carried forward to each of the next 10 income years.

(c) The entire amount of any "excess loss" as defined in subdivision (b) shall be carried to the earliest of the income years to which, by reason of subdivision (b), the loss may be carried. The portion of the loss which shall be carried to each of the other income years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of "excess loss" over the sum of the net income for each of the prior income years to which that "excess loss" may be carried.

(d) This section and Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable to any of the following losses sustained in any county or city in this state which was proclaimed by the Governor to be in a state of disaster:

(1) Any loss sustained during February 1986 as a result of storm, flooding, or any other related casualty.

(2) Any loss sustained during 1987 as a result of forest fire or any other related casualty.

(3) Any loss sustained during October 1987 as the result of earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty.

(4) Any loss resulting from the earthquake which occurred in October 1989, aftershock, or any other related casualty.

(5) Any loss sustained during 1990 as the result of fire in the County of Santa Barbara.

(6) Any loss sustained during April 1992 as a result of earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty in the County of Humboldt.

(7) Any loss sustained during April or May 1992 as a result of riots, arson, or any other related casualty.

(8) Any loss sustained as a result of a fire that occurred in the County of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, or Ventura, during October or November of 1993, or any other related casualty.

(9) Any loss sustained as a result of the earthquake, aftershocks, or any other related casualty that occurred in the Counties of Los Angeles, Orange, and Ventura on or after January 17 in 1994.

(e) Any corporation subject to the provisions of Section 25101 or 25101.15 that has disaster losses pursuant to this section, shall determine the "excess loss" to be carried to other income years under the principles specified in Section 25108 relating to net operating losses.

(f) Losses described in this section may not be taken into account in computing a net operating loss deduction under Section 24416 or 24416.1.

(g) For losses described in paragraphs (9) and (10) of subdivision (a) and paragraphs (8) and (9) of subdivision (d), the election under Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code may be made on a return or amended return filed on or before the due date of the return (determined with regard to extension) for the income year in which the disaster occurred.

SEC. 8. The Legislature finds and declares that this act fulfills a statewide public purpose because of both of the following:

(a) The Governor of California has officially proclaimed that the fires that occurred in the Counties of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, and Ventura, during October or November of 1993, were disasters, thus qualifying persons affected for various forms of governmental assistance and relief.

(b) This act is consistent with and supplements the proclaimed disaster relief by providing necessary tax relief to affected taxpayers to allow them to repair damage to, and to restore, their homes and businesses.

SEC. 9. Sections 6.5 and 7.5 of this bill incorporate amendments to Sections 17207 and 24347.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2290. These sections shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Sections 17207 and 24347.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2290, in which case Sections 4 and 5 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to promptly provide vitally necessary relief and facilitate recovery from the heavy damage to lives and property inflicted by the fires that took place in California in October and November of 1993, and the earthquake and aftershocks that took place in California on or after January 17 in 1994 it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 34

An act to add Chapter 3.2 (commencing with Section 15378.5) to Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to economic development, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor March 30, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State March 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3.2 (commencing with Section 15378.5) is added to Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.2. DEFENSE INSTALLATION CONVERSION

15378.5. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that obtaining federal, state, and local permits in the process of converting Department of Defense installations to nonmilitary uses may be more difficult at several locations.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that this chapter expand existing one-stop permit programs to assist applicants for development projects on converted military bases.

15378.6. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Local agency" means any city, county, or district.

(b) "Permit" means any license, certificate, registration, permit, or any other form of authorization required by a state agency or by a local agency to engage in a particular activity or action. "Permit" does not include a legislative action by a local agency and does not include any certification or decision made pursuant to Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code.

(c) "State agency" means any agency, department, board, commission, office, or bureau of the state government.

15378.7. The Secretary for Environmental Protection, in coordination with appropriate federal, state, and local agencies that have entered into a memorandum of agreement pursuant to Section 15378.8, shall expand a one-stop permit process pursuant to this chapter for use by permit applicants for a development project at a Department of Defense installation converted to nonmilitary use at an existing one-stop permit process center if all of the following requirements are met:

(a) A center has been established by the Secretary for Environmental Protection.

(b) There is a Department of Defense installation converted to nonmilitary use in the same county where the center is located, or, in the determination of the Secretary for Environmental Protection, there is such an installation located near the center.

(c) The Secretary for Environmental Protection and the Secretary of the Trade and Commerce Agency have determined that the existing center is necessary for base reuse development projects.

15378.8. (a) For purposes of this chapter, the Secretary for Environmental Protection shall develop a memorandum of agreement for coordination of permits with all appropriate federal, state, and local agencies issuing permits that may be required for use of the converted installation.

(b) The Secretary for Environmental Protection shall seek to obtain approval of the memorandum of agreement by appropriate federal, state, and local agencies. Each appropriate state and local agency shall consider the memorandum of agreement prior to notifying the Secretary for Environmental Protection of its determination.

15378.9. Any costs incurred by a state or local agency in considering the proposed memorandum of agreement, entering into an agreement, or coordinating with the Secretary for Environmental Protection in establishing the one-stop permit process under this chapter shall be borne by the state or local agency. A local agency shall be authorized to charge a fee, in addition to any fees charged for permits, in order to defray the cost of complying with this chapter.

15378.10. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect compliance with any requirement of federal, state, or local law, ordinance, or other requirement pertaining to the conversion of installations of the Department of Defense to nonmilitary uses.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to expedite the conversion of Department of Defense installations to nonmilitary uses and to thereby prevent unnecessary unemployment at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 35

An act to amend Sections 18601, 24632, 24634, and 24636 of, and to repeal Section 24635 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor April 7, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 8, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18601 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18601. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b) or (c), every taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) shall, within two months and 15 days after the close of its income year, transmit to the Franchise Tax Board a return in a form prescribed by it, specifying for the income year, all the facts as it may by rule, or otherwise, require in order to carry out this part. A tax return, disclosing net income for any income year, filed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501) of Part 11 shall be deemed filed pursuant to the proper chapter of Part 11 for the same income period, if the chapter under which the return is filed is determined erroneous.

(b) In the case of cooperative associations described in Section 24404, returns shall be filed on or before the 15th day of the ninth month following the close of its income year.

(c) In the case of taxpayers required to file a return for a short period under Section 24634, the due date for the short period return shall be the same as the due date of the federal tax return that includes the net income of the taxpayer for that short period, or the due date specified in subdivision (a) if no federal return is required to be filed that would include the net income for that short period.

SEC. 2. Section 24632 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24632. The income year of a taxpayer may not be different than the taxable year used for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code, unless initiated or approved by the Franchise Tax Board, or otherwise required under Section 24634.

SEC. 3. Section 24634 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24634. (a) A return for a period of less than 12 months (referred to in this article as "short period") shall be made under any of the following circumstances:

(1) When the taxpayer, with the approval of the Franchise Tax Board, changes its annual accounting period. In such a case, the return shall be made for the short period beginning on the day after the close of the former income year and ending at the close of the day before the day designated as the first day of the new income year.

(2) When the taxpayer is in existence during only part of what would otherwise be its income year, except if the taxpayer's existence terminates as a result of a reorganization described in Section 368(a) (1) (F) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) When the Franchise Tax Board terminates the taxpayer's income year under Sections 19081 and 19082 (relating to tax in jeopardy).

(4) When the taxpayer is required to make a federal return for a period of less than 12 months.

(b) This section shall apply whether or not a federal return is required to be filed for a period of less than 12 months.

(c) If a return is required to be filed under this section for a period of less than 12 months, that period shall be deemed to be an income year.

SEC. 4. Section 24635 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed:

SEC. 5. Section 24636 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24636. (a) If a separate return is made by a taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2, under Section 24634 on account of a change in the accounting period the net income, computed on the basis of the period for which the separate return is made, referred to in this section as "the short period," shall be placed on an annual basis by multiplying the amount thereof by 12, and dividing by the number of months in the short period. The Franchise Tax Board shall compute the amount of a tax on the income placed on such annual basis, and shall allow the offset provided for in Article 3 of Chapter 2, from such tax. The tax due under this section, which shall not be subject of offset, shall be such part of the tax, less the offset allowed, computed on such annual basis as the number of months in the short period is of 12 months.

(b) If a taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2 establishes the amount of its net income for the period of 12 months beginning with the first day of the short period, computed as if such 12-month period were an income year, under the law applicable to such year, then the tax for the short period shall be reduced to an amount which is such part of the tax computed on the net income for such 12-month period as the net income computed on the basis of the short period is of the net income for the 12-month period. The taxpayer (other than a taxpayer to which the next sentence applies) shall compute the tax and file its return without the application of this section. If the taxpayer has disposed of substantially all its assets prior to the end of such 12-month period, then in lieu of the net income for such 12-month period there shall be used for the purposes of this section the net income for the 12-month period ending with the last day of the short period. The tax computed under this section shall in no case be less than the tax computed on the net income for the short period without placing such net income on an annual basis. The benefits of this section shall not be allowed unless the taxpayer, at such time as regulations prescribed hereunder require (but not after the time prescribed for the filing of the return for the first income year which ends on or after 12 months after the beginning of the short period), makes application therefor in accordance with such regulations. Such application, in case the return was filed without regard to this section, shall be considered a claim for credit or refund with respect to the amount by which the tax is reduced under this section. The Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe such regulations as it may deem necessary for the application of this section.

(c) In the case of a taxpayer required to file a short period return pursuant to Section 24634, the alternative minimum tax shall be determined in accordance with Section 443(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 6. Sections 1 to 4, inclusive, of this act shall apply to each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995. Section 5 of this act shall apply to each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1991.

CHAPTER 36

An act to amend Section 89501 of, and to add Sections 53065.5 and 82048.5 to, the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor April 7, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 8, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53065.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53065.5. Notwithstanding Section 87207, each special district, as defined by Section 82048.5, shall, at least annually, disclose any reimbursement paid by the district within the immediately preceding fiscal year of at least one hundred dollars ($100) for each individual charge for services or product received. "Individual charge" includes, but is not limited to, one meal, lodging for one day, transportation, or a registration fee paid to any employee or member of the governing body of the district. The disclosure requirement shall be fulfilled by including the reimbursement information in a document published or printed at least annually by a date determined by that district and shall be made available for public inspection.

SEC. 2. Section 82048.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

82048.5. "Special district" means any agency of the state established for the local performance of governmental or proprietary functions within limited boundaries. "Special district" includes a county service area, a maintenance district or area, an improvement district or zone, an air pollution control district, or a redevelopment agency. "Special district" shall not include a city, county, city and county, or school district.

SEC. 3. Section 89501 of the Government Code is amended to read:

89501. (a) No local elected officeholder, elected or appointed member of the governing board of a special district, or designated employee of a local government agency shall accept any honorarium, as defined in subdivisions (b), (c), and (e) of Section 89502.

(b) No local elected officeholder, elected or appointed member of the governing board of a special district, or designated employee of a local government agency shall accept any gifts, from any single source, which is in excess of two hundred fifty dollars ($250), in any calendar year, except reimbursement for actual travel expenses and reasonable subsistence in connection therewith. The commission shall adjust this gift limitation to make it equal to the prevailing gift limitation amount applicable to elected state officers in effect on January 1, 1995, and thereafter shall adjust this gift limit at the same time and in the same amount as the gift limit applicable to elected state officers is adjusted pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 89504.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 37

An act to amend the heading of Article 3 (commencing with Section 24100) of Chapter 1 of Division 20 of, and to add Section 24101.6 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to public swimming pools.

[Approved by Governor April 7, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 8, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The heading of Article 3 (commencing with Section 24100) of Chapter 1 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

Article 3. Swimming Pool Sanitation and Safety

SEC. 2. Section 24101.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

24101.6. (a) "Public swimming pool," as used in this section, means any public swimming pool defined in Section 24100 that is owned or operated by the state or any local governmental entity, including, but not limited to, any city, county, city and county, charter city, charter county, or charter city and county.

(b) All dry-niche light fixtures, and all underwater wet-niche light fixtures operating at more than 15 volts in public swimming pools shall be protected by a ground-fault circuit interrupter in the branch circuit, and all light fixtures in public swimming pools shall have encapsulated terminals. This subdivision is declaratory of existing law.

(c) Any public swimming pools that do not meet the requirements specified in subdivision (b) by January 1, 1995, shall be retrofitted to comply with these requirements by January 1, 1996.

(d) The ground-fault circuit interrupter required pursuant to this section shall comply with Underwriter's Laboratory standards.

(e) Any state or local governmental entity that owns or operates a public swimming pool shall have its public swimming pool inspected by a qualified inspector prior to July 1, 1996, to determine compliance with this section.

(f) A public swimming pool may charge a fee, or increase its fee charged, to the public for use of the pool, for the purpose of recovering the administrative and other costs of retrofitting pools in compliance with this section. The charge or increase due to this section shall terminate when funds sufficient to cover these costs are collected.

(g) All electrical work required for compliance with this section shall be performed by an electrician licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution as a result of costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

Moreover, no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for certain costs because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act related to those costs.

Further, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Also, notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 38

An act to amend Section 313.1 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 313.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:
313.1. (a) Every person who, with knowledge that a person is a minor, or who fails to exercise reasonable care in ascertaining the true age of a minor, knowingly sells, rents, distributes, sends, causes to be sent, exhibits, or offers to distribute or exhibit by any means, including, but not limited to, live or recorded telephone messages, any harmful matter to the minor shall be punished as specified in Section 313.4.

It does not constitute a violation of this section for a telephone corporation, as defined by Section 234 of the Public Utilities Code, to carry or transmit messages described in this chapter or to perform related activities in providing telephone services.

(b) Every person who misrepresents himself or herself to be the parent or guardian of a minor and thereby causes the minor to be admitted to an exhibition of any harmful matter shall be punished as specified in Section 313.4.

(c) (1) Any person who knowingly displays, sells, or offers to sell in any coin-operated or slug-operated vending machine or mechanically or electronically controlled vending machine that is located in a public place, other than a public place from which minors are excluded, any harmful matter displaying to the public view photographs or pictorial representations of the commission of any of the following acts shall be punished as specified in Section 313.4: sodomy, oral copulation, sexual intercourse, masturbation, bestiality, or a photograph of an exposed penis in an erect and turgid state.

(2) Any person who knowingly displays, sells, or offers to sell in any coin-operated vending machine that is not supervised by an adult and that is located in a public place, other than a public place from which minors are excluded, any harmful matter, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 313, shall be punished as specified in Section 313.4.

(d) Nothing in this section invalidates or prohibits the adoption of an ordinance by a city, county, or city and county that restricts the display of material that is harmful to minors, as defined in this chapter, in a public place, other than a public place from which minors are excluded, by requiring the placement of devices commonly known as blinder racks in front of the material, so that the lower two-thirds of the material is not exposed to view.

(e) Any person who sells or rents video recordings of harmful matter shall create an area within his or her business establishment for the placement of video recordings of harmful matter and for any material that advertises the sale or rental of these video recordings. This area shall be labeled "adults only." The failure to create and label the area is an infraction, punishable by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100). The failure to place a video recording or advertisement, regardless of its content, in this area shall not constitute an infraction. Any person who sells or distributes video recordings of harmful matter to others for resale purposes shall inform the purchaser of the requirements of this section. This subdivision shall not apply to public libraries as defined in Section 18710 of the Education Code.

(f) Any person who rents a video recording and alters the video recording by adding harmful material, and who then returns the video recording to a video rental store, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. It shall be a defense in any prosecution for a violation of this subdivision that the video rental store failed to post a sign, reasonably visible to all customers, delineating the provisions of this subdivision.

(g) It shall be a defense in any prosecution for a violation of subdivision (a) by a person who knowingly distributed any harmful matter by the use of telephones or telephone facilities to any person under the age of 18 years that the defendant has taken either of the following measures to restrict access to the harmful matter by persons under 18 years of age:

(1) Required the person receiving the harmful matter to use an authorized access or identification code, as provided by the information provider, before transmission of the harmful matter begins, where the defendant previously has issued the code by mailing it to the applicant after taking reasonable measures to ascertain that the applicant was 18 years of age or older and has established a procedure to immediately cancel the code of any person after receiving notice, in writing or by telephone, that the code has been lost, stolen, or used by persons under the age of 18 years or that the code is no longer desired.

(2) Required payment by credit card before transmission of the matter.

(h) It shall be a defense in any prosecution for a violation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) that the defendant has taken either of the following measures to restrict access to the harmful matter by persons under 18 years of age:

(1) Required the person receiving the harmful matter to use an authorized access or identification card to the vending machine after taking reasonable measures to ascertain that the applicant was 18 years of age or older and has established a procedure to immediately cancel the card of any person after receiving notice, in writing or by telephone, that the code has been lost, stolen, or used by persons under the age of 18 years or that the card is no longer desired.

(2) Required the person receiving the harmful matter to use a token in order to utilize the vending machine after taking reasonable measures to ascertain that the person was 18 years of age or older.

(i) Any list of applicants or recipients compiled or maintained by an information-access service provider for purposes of compliance with paragraph (1) of subdivision (g) is confidential and shall not be sold or otherwise disseminated except upon order of the court.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 39

An act to add and repeal Section 5782.27 of the Public Resources Code, relating to recreation and park districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5782.27 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5782.27. (a) In addition to the powers which may be exercised pursuant to this chapter, the Camp Meeker Recreation and Park District may exercise the powers of a county water district as set forth in Article 1 (commencing with Section 31000) to Article 5 (commencing with Section 31080), inclusive, of Part 5 of Division 12 of the Water Code, Part 6 (commencing with Section 31300) of Division 12 of the Water Code, and Part 7 (commencing with Section 31650) of Division 12 of the Water Code.

(b) The powers granted to the Camp Meeker Recreation and Park District by this section may be exercised by the district only if the authority to exercise these powers is approved by the local agency formation commission.

(c) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of the unique circumstances posed by water problems in the area of the Camp Meeker Recreation and Park District. The county is expected to soon receive five million dollars ($5,000,000) in loans for maintaining and improving water facilities in the area and the local agency formation commission needs additional time to complete proceedings for a change of organization or reorganization relating to another entity with the capacity to provide water service within the area of the Camp Meeker Recreation and Park District. The district is willing and able to provide that service until that time

SEC. 4. if authorized to do so. The provisions of Section 1 of this act are necessary, therefore, to authorize the Camp Meeker Recreation and Park District to provide urgently needed water service within the district.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for Sonoma County to receive five million dollars ($5,000,000) in loans for maintaining and improving water facilities within Sonoma County, it is necessary that the Camp Meeker Recreation and Park District have immediate authority to exercise the powers of a water district.

CHAPTER 40

An act to amend Section 366.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to amend Sections 19255, 21320, and 21351 of the Probate Code, relating to civil proceedings, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 366.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

366.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c):

(1) If a person against whom an action may be brought on a liability of the person, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, dies before the expiration of the applicable limitations period, and the cause of action survives, an action may be commenced within one year after the date of death, and the limitations period that would have been applicable does not apply.

(2) The limitations period provided in this section for commencement of an action is not tolled or extended for any reason.

(b) This section is subject to:

(1) Part 4 (commencing with Section 9000) of Division 7 of the Probate Code (creditor claims in administration of estates of decedents).

(2) Part 8 (commencing with Section 19000) of Division 9 of the Probate Code (payment of claims, debts, and expenses from revocable trust of deceased settlor).

(3) Part 3 (commencing with Section 21300) of Division 11 of the Probate Code (no contest clauses).

(c) This section applies to actions brought on liabilities of persons dying on or after January 1, 1993.

SEC. 2. Section 19255 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

19255. (a) A rejected claim is barred as to the part rejected unless the claimant brings an action on the claim or the matter is referred to a referee or to arbitration within the following times, excluding any time during which there is a vacancy in the office of the trustee:

(1) If the claim is due at the time of giving the notice of rejection, 90 days after the notice is given.

(2) If the claim is not due at the time of giving the notice of rejection, 90 days after the claim becomes due.

(b) In addition to any other county in which an action on a rejected claim may be commenced, the action may be commenced in the county or city and county wherein the principal place of administration of the trust is located.

(c) The claimant shall file a notice of the pendency of the action or the referral to a referee or to arbitration with the court clerk in the trust proceeding, together with proof of giving a copy of the notice to the trustee as provided in Section 1215. Personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint on the trustee is equivalent to the filing and giving of the notice.

(d) Any property distributed by the trustee under the terms of the trust after 120 days from the later of the time the notice of rejection is given or the claim is due and before the notice of pendency of action or referral or arbitration is filed and given, excluding therefrom any time during which there is a vacancy in the office of the trustee, is not subject to the claim. Neither the trustee nor the distributee is liable on account of the distribution.

(e) The prevailing party in the action shall be awarded court costs and, if the court determines that the prosecution or defense of the action against the prevailing party was unreasonable, the prevailing party shall be awarded reasonable litigation expenses, including attorney's fees. For the purpose of this subdivision, the prevailing party shall be the trustee if the creditor recovers an amount equal to or less than the amount of the claim allowed by the trustee, and shall be the creditor if the creditor recovers an amount greater than the amount of the claim allowed by the trustee.

SEC. 3. Section 21320 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

21320. (a) If an instrument containing a no contest clause is or has become irrevocable, a beneficiary may apply to the court for a determination whether a particular motion, petition, or other act by the beneficiary, including, but not limited to, creditor claims under Part 4 (commencing with Section 9000) of Division 7 and Part 8 (commencing with Section 19000) of Division 9, would be a contest within the terms of the no contest clause.

(b) A no contest clause is not enforceable against a beneficiary to the extent an application under subdivision (a) by the beneficiary is limited to the procedure and purpose described in subdivision (a) and does not require a determination of the merits of the motion, petition, or other act by the beneficiary.

(c) A determination of whether Section 21306 or 21307 would apply in a particular case may not be made under this section.

SEC. 4. Section 21351 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

501(c) (3) or 501(c) (19) of the Internal Revenue Code, or a trust holding an interest for this entity, but only to the extent of the interest of the entity, or the trustee of this trust. This subdivision shall retroactively apply to an instrument that becomes irrevocable, or is executed by a person who dies, on or after July 1, 1993.

SEC. 5. Sections 1, 2, and 3 of this act shall become operative January 1, 1995.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to eliminate confusion relating to the manner with which public and nonprofit entities may arrange for and receive charitable donations, it is necessary that this bill take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 41

An act to amend Section 472b of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to civil procedure.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 472b of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

472b. When a demurrer to any pleading is sustained or overruled, and time to amend or answer is given, the time so given runs from the service of notice of the decision or order, unless the notice is waived in open court, and the waiver entered in the minutes or docket. When an order sustaining a demurrer without leave to amend is reversed or otherwise remanded by any order issued by a reviewing court, any amended complaint shall be filed within 30 days after the clerk of the reviewing court mails notice of the issuance of the remittitur.

CHAPTER 42

An act to add Section 1267.5 to the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1267.5 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

1267.5. On or before June 1, 1995, the department shall prepare and submit to the Legislature a study, at a cost not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) from existing funds, on methods for providing incentives to encourage recipients of unemployment insurance benefits to seek education and retraining during hours they are not actively seeking employment.

CHAPTER 43

An act to amend Sections 832, 13551, and 13552 of, and to add Sections 13511.3 and 13519.9 to, the Penal Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 832 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

832. (a) Every person described in this chapter as a peace officer shall satisfactorily complete an introductory course of training prescribed by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training. On or after July 1, 1989, satisfactory completion of the course shall be demonstrated by passage of an appropriate examination developed or approved by the commission. Training in the carrying and use of firearms shall not be required of any peace officer whose employing agency prohibits the use of firearms.

(b) (1) Every peace officer described in this chapter, prior to the exercise of the powers of a peace officer, shall have satisfactorily completed the course of training described in subdivision (a).

(2) Every peace officer described in Section 13510 or in subdivision (a) of Section 830.2 may satisfactorily complete the training required by this section as part of the training prescribed pursuant to Section 13510.

(c) Persons described in this chapter as peace officers who have not satisfactorily completed the course described in subdivision (a), as specified in subdivision (b), shall not have the powers of a peace officer until they satisfactorily complete the course.

(d) Any peace officer who, on March 4, 1972, possesses or is qualified to possess the basic certificate as awarded by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training shall be exempted from this section.

(e) (1) Any person completing the training described in subdivision (a) who does not become employed as a peace officer within three years from the date of passing the examination described in subdivision (a), or who has a three-year or longer break in service as a peace officer, shall pass the examination described in subdivision (a) prior to the exercise of the powers of a peace officer, except for any person described in paragraph (2).

(2) The requirement in paragraph (1) does not apply to any person who meets any of the following requirements:

(A) Is returning to a management position that is at the second level of supervision or higher.

(B) Has successfully requalified for a basic course through the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training.

(C) Has maintained proficiency through teaching the course described in subdivision (a).

(D) During the break in California service, was continuously employed as a peace officer in another state or at the federal level.

(f) The commission may charge appropriate fees for the examination required by subdivision (e), not to exceed actual costs.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the commission may charge appropriate fees for the examination required by subdivision (a) to each applicant who is not sponsored by a local or other law enforcement agency, or is not a peace officer employed by, or under consideration for employment by, a state or local agency, department, or district, or is not a custodial officer as defined in Sections 831 and 831.5. The fees shall not exceed actual costs.

SEC. 2. Section 13511.3 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

13511.3. The commission may evaluate and approve pertinent training previously completed by any jurisdiction's law enforcement officers as meeting current training requirements prescribed by the commission pursuant to this chapter. The evaluations performed by the commission shall conform to the standards established under this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 13519.9 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

13519.9. (a) On or before January 1, 1995, the commission shall establish the Robert Presley Institute of Criminal Investigation which will make available to criminal investigators of California's law enforcement agencies an advanced training program to meet the needs of working investigators in specialty assignments, such as arson, auto theft, homicide, and narcotics.

(b) The institute shall provide an array of investigation training, including the following:

(1) Core instruction in matters common to all investigative activities.

(2) Advanced instruction through foundation specialty courses in the various investigative specialties.

(3) Completion of a variety of elective courses pertaining to investigation.

(c) (1) Instruction in core foundation and specialty courses shall be designed not only to impart new knowledge, but to evoke from students the benefit of their experience and ideas in a creative and productive instructional design environment.

(2) Instructors shall be skilled and knowledgeable both in subject matter and in the use of highly effective instructional strategies.

(d) (1) The commission shall design and operate the institute to constantly improve the effectiveness of instruction.

(2) The institute shall make use of the most modern instructional design and equipment, including computer-assisted instruction, scenarios, and case studies.

(3) The institute shall ensure that proper facilities, such as crime scene training areas, are available for use by students.

SEC. 4. Section 13551 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13551. (a) The Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training shall develop regulations and professional standards on or before July 1, 1996, for the law enforcement accreditation program. The program shall provide standards for the operation of law enforcement agencies and the program shall be available on or before July 1, 1996. The standards shall serve as a basis for the uniform operation of law enforcement agencies throughout the state to best serve the interests of the people of this state.

(b) The commission may, from time to time, amend the regulations and standards or adopt new standards relating to the accreditation program.

SEC. 5. Section 13552 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13552. (a) Participation in this accreditation program is limited to police departments, sheriffs' departments, and the California Highway Patrol. Other law enforcement agencies shall be eligible for accreditation after January 1, 1998.

(b) Participation shall be voluntary and shall be initiated upon the application of the chief executive officer of each agency.

CHAPTER 44

An act to add Section 5025.1 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to accountants, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5025.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

5025.1. (a) The board may contract with and employ certified public accountants and public accountants as consultants and experts to assist in the investigation and prosecution of judicial and administrative matters.

(b) Contracts made pursuant to this section are not subject to Article 4 (commencing with Section 19130) of Chapter 5 of Part 2 of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code, except that the board shall apply the standards set forth in Section 19130 in awarding personal service contracts under this section.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may contract with these consultants and experts on a sole source basis.

(d) If a person, not a regular employee of the board, is hired or under contract to provide expertise to the board in the evaluation of the conduct of a licensee, and that person is named as a defendant in a civil action for defamation, tortious interference with prospective business advantage, or other civil causes of action directly resulting from opinions rendered, statements made, or testimony given to the board, its committees, staff, legal counsel, or other representatives, or in any proceeding instituted by the board or to which the board is a party, the board shall provide for representation required to defend that person in that civil action and shall indemnify that person for any judgment rendered against him or her. This right of defense and indemnification shall be the same as, and no greater than, the right provided to a public employee pursuant to Section 825 of the Government Code. Nothing herein shall be construed as expanding or limiting any immunity from liability otherwise provided by law.

(e) On or before June 1 of each year, the board shall report to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of each house of the Legislature the terms of the contract or contracts entered into each fiscal year pursuant to this section. The report shall include the cost, services, terms and duration provided under each contract, the identity of the firms or individuals awarded any contract, and data demonstrating the cost effectiveness of the board's sole-source contracting in the investigation and prosecution of the board's enforcement programs.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

It is necessary for the Board of Accountancy to contract with and employ certified public accountants and public accountants as consultants and experts to assist in the investigation and prosecution of disciplinary matters involving, among other things, audit failures that have contributed to large consumer losses. To prevent disruption in the continuity of ongoing investigations and to avoid delays in the initiation of new investigations, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 45

An act to amend Sections 1105 and 1106 of, and to add Sections 13308 and 13328 to, the Water Code, relating to water, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1105 of the Water Code is amended to read:

1105. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), no person shall be excused from testifying or from producing any evidence in any investigation or inquiry by or hearing before the board upon the ground that the testimony or evidence required of him or her may tend to incriminate him or her or subject him or her to any penalty.

(b) The board may grant immunity to any person who is compelled to testify or to produce documentary evidence before the board and who invokes the privilege against self-incrimination.

(c) If the board does not grant immunity after a person invokes the privilege against self-incrimination, the board shall excuse the person from giving any testimony or producing any evidence to which the privilege against self-incrimination applies, and the board shall dismiss, continue, or limit the scope of the proceedings as necessary to ensure that the unavailability of the testimony or evidence does not deny due process of law to any party.

SEC. 2. Section 1106 of the Water Code is amended to read:

1106. No person who is granted immunity under subdivision (b) of Section 1105 shall be criminally prosecuted or be subjected to any criminal penalty for or on account of any act, transaction, matter, or thing material to the matter under investigation by the board concerning which he or she has been compelled as a witness to testify or to produce documentary evidence pursuant to the granting of immunity; but no person so testifying or producing shall be exempt from prosecution and punishment for any perjury committed by him or her in that testimony.

SEC. 3. Section 13308 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13308. (a) If the regional board determines there is a threatened or continuing violation of any cleanup or abatement order, cease and desist order, or any order issued under Section 13267 or 13383, the regional board may issue an order establishing a time schedule and prescribing a civil penalty which shall become due if compliance is not achieved in accordance with that time schedule.

(b) The amount of the civil penalty shall be based upon the amount reasonably necessary to achieve compliance, and may not include any amount intended to punish or redress previous violations. The amount of the penalty may not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each day in which the violation occurs.

(c) Any person who fails to achieve compliance in accordance with the schedule established in an order issued pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be liable civilly in an amount not to exceed the amount prescribed by the order. The regional board may impose the penalty administratively in accordance with Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 13323). If the regional board imposes the penalty in an amount less than the amount prescribed in the order issued pursuant to subdivision (a), the regional board shall make express findings setting forth the reasons for its action based on the specific factors required to be considered pursuant to Section 13327.

(d) The state board may exercise the powers of a regional board under this section if the violation or threatened violation involves requirements prescribed by an order issued by the state board.

(e) Funds collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the State Water Pollution Cleanup and Abatement Account.

(f) Civil liability may be imposed pursuant to this section only if civil liability is not imposed pursuant to Section 13261, 13265, 13268, 13350, or 13385.

SEC. 4. Section 13328 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13328. After the time for judicial review under Section 13325 has expired, the state board may apply to the clerk of the appropriate court in the county in which the civil penalty was imposed, for a judgment to collect the penalty. The application, which shall include a certified copy of the state board or regional board action, constitutes a sufficient showing to warrant issuance of the judgment. The court clerk shall enter the judgment immediately in conformity with the application. The judgment so entered has the same force and effect as, and is subject to all the provisions of law relating to, a judgment in a civil action, and may be enforced in the same manner as any other judgment of the court in which it is entered.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 46

An act to amend Section 7514 of the Government Code, relating to public retirement systems.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7514 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7514. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law except Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 16649.80) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2, any state or local public retirement system may invest, subject to and consistent with the standard for prudent investment set forth in Section 17 of Article XVI of the California Constitution, its assets in the bonds or other evidences of indebtedness unconditionally guaranteed by any foreign government that has met the payments of similar bonds or other evidences of indebtedness when due.

(b) A portion of the assets invested pursuant to this section may be used to purchase rated or unrated bonds, notes, or other instruments unconditionally guaranteed by Canada, Israel, Mexico, or South Africa.

CHAPTER 47

An act to amend Section 186.22 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 186.22 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

186.22. (a) Any person who actively participates in any criminal street gang with knowledge that its members engage in or have engaged in a pattern of criminal gang activity, and who willfully promotes, furthers, or assists in any felonious criminal conduct by members of that gang, shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for a period not to exceed one year, or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or 2 or 3 years.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), any person who is convicted of a felony committed for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with any criminal street gang, with the specific intent to promote, further, or assist in any criminal conduct by gang members, shall, upon conviction of that felony, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of one, two, or three years at the court's discretion. However, if the underlying felony is committed on the grounds of, or within 1,000 feet of, a public or private elementary, vocational, junior high, or high school, during hours in which the facility is open for classes or school related programs or when minors are using the facility, the additional term shall be two, three, or four years, at the court's discretion. The court shall order the imposition of the middle term of the sentence enhancement, unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation. The court shall state the reasons for its choice of sentence enhancements on the record at the time of the sentencing.

(2) Any person who violates this subdivision in the commission of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for life, shall not be paroled until a minimum of 15 calendar years have been served.

(c) If the court grants probation or suspends the execution of sentence imposed upon the defendant for a violation of subdivision (a), or in cases involving a true finding of the enhancement enumerated in subdivision (b), the court shall require that the defendant serve a minimum of 180 days in a county jail as a condition thereof.

(d) Notwithstanding any other law, the court may strike the additional punishment for the enhancements provided in this section or refuse to impose the minimum jail sentence for misdemeanors in an unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served, if the court specifies on the record and enters into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by that disposition.

(e) As used in this chapter, "pattern of criminal gang activity" means the commission, attempted commission, or solicitation of two or more of the following offenses, provided at least one of those offenses occurred after the effective date of this chapter and the last of those offenses occurred within three years after a prior offense, and the offenses are committed on separate occasions, or by two or more persons:

(1) Assault with a deadly weapon or by means of force likely to produce great bodily injury, as defined in Section 245.

(2) Robbery, as defined in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 211) of Title 8 of Part 1.

(3) Unlawful homicide or manslaughter, as defined in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 187) of Title 8 of Part 1.

(4) The sale, possession for sale, transportation, manufacture, offer for sale, or offer to manufacture controlled substances as defined in Sections 11054, 11055, 11056, 11057, and 11058 of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) Shooting at an inhabited dwelling or occupied motor vehicle, as defined in Section 246.

(6) Discharging or permitting the discharge of a firearm from a motor vehicle, as defined in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 12034.

(7) Arson, as defined in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 450) of Title 13.

(8) The intimidation of witnesses and victims, as defined in Section 136.1.

(9) Grand theft, as defined in Section 487, when the value of the money, labor, or real or personal property taken exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(10) Grand theft of any vehicle, trailer, or vessel, as described in Section 487h.

(11) Burglary, as defined in Section 459.

(12) Rape, as defined in Section 261.

(13) Looting, as defined in Section 463.

(14) Moneylaundering, as defined in Section 186.10.

(15) Kidnapping, as defined in Section 207.

(16) Mayhem, as defined in Section 203.

(17) Aggravated mayhem, as defined in Section 205.

(18) Torture, as defined in Section 206.

(19) Felony extortion, as defined in Sections 518 and 520.

(20) Felony vandalism, as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 594.

(21) Carjacking, as defined in Section 215.

(f) As used in this chapter, "criminal street gang" means any ongoing organization, association, or group of three or more persons, whether formal or informal, having as one of its primary activities the commission of one or more of the criminal acts enumerated in paragraphs (1) to (21), inclusive, of subdivision (e), having a common name or common identifying sign or symbol, and whose members individually or collectively engage in or have engaged in a pattern of criminal gang activity.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and on that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to give effect to changes made to Section 186.22 of the Penal Code by bills enacted by the Legislature during the 1993-94 Regular Session that did not become effective, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 48

An act to amend Sections 17052.11, 17052.14, 17052.18, 17053, 17053.1, 19604, 19605, 23603, 23605, 23612.5, and 23617.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17052.11 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 2.5 of Chapter 875 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

17052.11. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1996, there shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) an amount equal to 55 percent of the qualified costs paid or incurred by the taxpayer for low-emission motor vehicles or low-emission conversion devices. The credit allowed by this section shall be claimed for the taxable year in which the low-emission conversion device is installed or, in the case of a new low-emission motor vehicle, for the taxable year in which the low-emission motor vehicle is placed in service, and shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) per automobile, motorcycle, or two person passenger vehicle, or three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) for a vehicle whose weight is in excess of 5,750 pounds.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Device" means any apparatus not otherwise required by federal or California law that is designed and installed to convert a new or used motor vehicle to a low-emission motor vehicle as certified by the state board.

(2) "Differential cost" means the difference in retail cost between a low-emission motor vehicle and a comparable motor vehicle that is not a low-emission motor vehicle. This amount shall be determined by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission (hereafter referred to as the California Energy Commission), based on information supplied by the taxpayer and subject to the guidelines adopted under subdivision (e).

(3) "Low-emission motor vehicle" means a vehicle as defined under Section 39037.05 of the Health and Safety Code.

(4) "Qualified costs" means each of the following:

(A) The total cost (including installation charges but excluding interest charges) of a device designed and installed to convert a qualified motor vehicle to a low-emission motor vehicle.

(B) The differential cost of a new qualified motor vehicle that is equipped from the factory to operate as a low-emission motor vehicle and is certified by the state board to be a low-emission motor vehicle.

(C) Fifteen percent of the purchase price of a nonrecreational motor vehicle that is a low-emission motor vehicle intended to be used on private roads, private school campuses, or commercial or industrial worksites in this state.

(5) "Qualified motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle, as defined by Section 415 of the Vehicle Code, that is either of the following:

(A) A motor vehicle that is intended to be used on public roads and highways and is registered in this state.

(B) A nonrecreational motor vehicle that is intended to be used on private roads, private school campuses, or commercial or industrial worksites in this state.

(6) "State board" refers to the Air Resources Board.

(c) The taxpayer or partnership shall qualify for the credit after application to and certification by the California Energy Commission that all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The device or vehicle qualifies for the credit under this section.

(2) Credit allocation is available.

(d) The taxpayer or partnership shall do all of the following:

(1) (A) Apply to the California Energy Commission for credit allocation and certification.

(B) The application for credit allocation shall include all information that is required by the California Energy Commission, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(i) A plan to purchase a device, as defined in subdivision (b), or a vehicle.

(ii) The cost estimates of the device or vehicle.

(2) Notify the California Energy Commission in a form and manner specified by the California Energy Commission that the device or vehicle has actually been purchased.

(3) Retain a copy of the certification issued by the California Energy Commission.

(4) Make the certification available to the Franchise Tax Board upon demand.

(5) The partnership shall disclose in its tax return each year all of the following:

(A) The name of each partner who received a credit allocation.

(B) The partner's social security number or identification number.

(C) The amount of credit allocated to each partner.

(e) The California Energy Commission shall do all of the following:

(1) Establish criteria for allocation of the credit amounts in the case where more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) of credits are requested annually.

(2) Provide guidelines and criteria for application for credit allocation. These guidelines shall be exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. However, these guidelines shall be adopted by the California Energy Commission at a noticed meeting and after one or more public workshops.

(3) Accept applications and issue certificates including the credit amount to which the taxpayer or partnership is entitled.

(4) Provide an annual listing to the Franchise Tax Board (preferably on magnetic tape or other machine-readable form, and in a form and manner agreed upon by the Franchise Tax Board and the California Energy Commission) of the qualified taxpayers or partnerships who were issued the certification and the allowable amount of the credit allocated to each taxpayer or partnership.

(f) The taxpayers' social security numbers or identification numbers obtained through the tax credit application and certification process shall be used exclusively for state tax administrative purposes.

(g) The "qualified costs" shall be reduced by an amount equal to any amount allowable, for purposes of computing federal income tax, as a credit under Section 30 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to credit for qualified electric vehicles, for the same vehicle.

(h) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "net tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "net tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(i) The aggregate amount of tax credits granted pursuant to this section and Section 23603 shall not exceed seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) per year. The California Energy Commission shall not authorize any credit if the credit would cause the total amount of credit authorized in any year under the Personal Income Tax Law and the Bank and Corporation Tax Law to exceed seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(j) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision shall apply only to each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1993.

(k) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1,

1996, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 17052.14 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17052.14. (a) (1) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1994, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039), an amount equal to 40 percent of the cost of qualified property purchased and placed in service on or after January 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1994, and for which a certification has been obtained pursuant to subdivision (e). The amount of the allowable credit shall be claimed as provided in subdivision (c).

(2) Notwithstanding the total cost of the qualified property, the amount of cost that may be taken into account for purposes of claiming the credit allowed under this section and Section 23612.5 shall not exceed six hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($625,000) per facility during the five-year credit period.

(3) The basis of any qualified property for which a credit is allowed shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the taxable year for which the credit is allowed.

(b) The credit shall be allowed by this section only if both of the following apply:

(1) The total adjusted basis of all qualified property owned on the last day of the taxable year exceeds the largest total adjusted basis of all qualified property owned at any one time during the base year.

(2) The total capacity of qualified property to use recycled materials on the last day of the taxable year exceeds the largest total capacity of qualified property at any one time during the base year. If a qualified property owned in the base year is replaced by qualified property of larger capacity, the eligible costs shall be proportional to the increase in capacity.

(c) The amount of the allowable credit shall be claimed as follows:

(1) Twenty percent of the cost, as limited by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), shall be allowed for the taxable year the qualified property is placed in service.

(2) Fifteen percent of the cost, as limited by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), shall be allowed for the taxable year immediately succeeding the taxable year the qualified property is placed in service.

(3) Five percent of the cost, as limited by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), shall be allowed for the taxable year immediately succeeding the taxable year specified in paragraph (2).

(d) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Qualified property" means machinery or equipment located within California, that has not previously been certified, and is used by the taxpayer exclusively to manufacture finished products composed of at least 50 percent secondary waste material of which at least 10 percent is composed of postconsumer waste generated from within California. "Qualified property" may include manufacturing equipment that utilizes 100 percent secondary waste, including at least 80 percent postconsumer waste that is contained within a finished product regardless of the finished product's percent postconsumer content. Equipment used in each step of a manufacturing process may be qualified property, even though the equipment is owned and used by different taxpayers. "Qualified property" includes, but is not limited to, deinking equipment utilized in the production of fine quality paper, equipment utilized in the production of compost, equipment utilized to reclaim plastic to be used either as a raw material or sold to a manufacturer for use in the manufacture or fabrication of finished products, equipment that processes used plastic milk bottles into flakes, equipment that processes resin pellets from the flakes, and equipment that manufactures toys from the pellets.

(2) "Postconsumer waste" is only those products generated within California by a business or consumer that have served their intended end uses and would normally be disposed of as solid waste, having completed their life cycle as a consumer item.

(3) "Secondary waste" means those products generated within California that, if not recovered, would otherwise be solid waste, and that are intended for sale, use, reuse, or recycling, including preconsumer and postconsumer waste, but excluding manufacturing waste.

(4) "Finished product" means a marketable product or component thereof that has an economic value to a consumer and is ready to be used without the requirement of further alteration of its form. "Compost," as defined in Section 40116 of the Public Resources Code, is a finished product if it meets all the criteria of the definition of "finished product."

(5) "Base year" is the taxable year immediately preceding the taxable year for which the credit allowed by this section is claimed.

(6) For purposes of this section "recycle" and "recycling" are defined in Section 40180 of the Public Resources Code.

(7) "Facility" means a single distribution terminal, plant, or refinery and any such property contiguous thereto.

(8) "Preconsumer waste" means those materials generated during any step in the production of a product, that have been removed from or otherwise diverted from the solid waste stream for the purpose of recycling, but does not include manufacturing waste, as defined.

(9) "Manufacturing waste" means those materials and byproducts generated from, and commonly reused within, a manufacturing process (for example, mill broke).

(e) The California Integrated Waste Management Board shall do all of the following:

(1) Certify that the qualified property is purchased and used by the taxpayer as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) and subdivision (d).

(2) Provide an annual listing to the Franchise Tax Board, (preferably on magnetic tape or other machine-readable form, and in a form and manner agreed upon by the Franchise Tax Board and the California Integrated Waste Management Board), of the qualified taxpayers who were issued the certification.

(3) Provide the taxpayer with a copy of the certification to retain for his or her records.

(4) Obtain the taxpayer's identification number, or in the case of a partnership, all of the partners' taxpayer identification numbers. For purposes of this paragraph, "taxpayer identification number" includes, but is not limited to, a social security number or a federal employer identification number. Any social security number obtained by the board pursuant to this paragraph shall be utilized for tax administration purposes only.

(f) The taxpayer shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide the California Integrated Waste Management Board with documents, as deemed necessary by the California Integrated Waste Management Board, verifying the purchase of the qualified property and that the machinery or equipment meets the recycling requirements specified in this section.

(2) Retain for his or her records a copy of the certificate issued by the California Integrated Waste Management Board specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e).

(3) Provide a copy of the certification specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) to the Franchise Tax Board upon request. Where the taxpayer fails to comply with the requirement of this paragraph, no credit shall be allowed to that taxpayer under this section for the taxable year unless the taxpayer subsequently complies.

(4) Provide the California Integrated Waste Management Board with his or her taxpayer identification number, or in the case of a partnership, all of the partners' taxpayer identification numbers.

(g) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "net tax," for any taxable year for which a credit is allowed by subdivision (c), the excess may be carried over to reduce the "net tax," in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit is exhausted.

(h) If a taxpayer disposes of or no longer uses the qualified property as defined in subdivision (d), then any amount that would have been otherwise allowed as a credit for the taxable year of disposition or nonuse shall not be allowed.

(i) The California Integrated Waste Management Board shall, no later than March 1, 1994, submit a report to the Legislature evaluating the impact of the tax expenditure in this section. The report shall include information about the number of taxpayers claiming the credit, the total dollar amount of credit allocated, and the equipment for which the credit was used. The report shall also determine to what extent, if any, the tax expenditure authorized by this section increased recycling activities in California. The California Integrated Waste Management Board shall work cooperatively with the Franchise Tax Board to determine the relevant tax return data necessary to complete the report and the time the data is required. The Franchise Tax Board shall be responsible for providing the data to the California Integrated Waste Management Board.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (g), until the credit has been exhausted.

SEC. 3. Section 17052.18 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17052.18. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1988, and before January 1, 1995, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined by Section 17039) an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (b).

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this section shall be 50 percent of the cost paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after September 23, 1988, for contributions to a qualified care plan made on behalf of any dependent of the taxpayer's California employee who is under the age of 15.

(2) The amount of the credit allowed by this section in any taxable year shall not exceed six hundred dollars ($600) for contributions to a full-time qualified care plan or to a part-time qualified care plan made on behalf of the employee's dependents.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified care plan" includes, but is not limited to, onsite service, center-based service, in-home care or home-provider care, and a dependent care center as defined by Section 21 (b) (2) (D) of the Internal Revenue Code that is a specialized center with respect to short-term illnesses of an employee's dependents, provided the facility is located in this state and is operated under the authority of a license when required by state law.

(2) "Specialized center" means a facility that provides care to mildly ill children and that may do all of the following:

(A) Be staffed by pediatric nurses and day care workers.

(B) Admit children suffering from common childhood ailments (including colds, flu, and chickenpox).

(C) Make special arrangements for well children with minor problems associated with diabetes, asthma, breaks or sprains, and recuperation from surgery.

(D) Separate children according to their illness and symptoms in order to protect them from cross-infection.

(3) "Full-time qualified care plan" means an average of eight or more hours of dependent care per day for at least 42 weeks per year in a qualified care plan.

(4) "Part-time qualified care plan" means an average of two to eight hours of dependent care per day for at least 42 weeks per year in a qualified care plan.

(5) "Contributions" include employer reimbursements to employees for the employee's qualified care plan expenses, or direct payments to child care programs or providers, or both.

(6) The term "employee" includes, for any year, an individual who is an employee within the meaning of Section 401(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to self-employed individuals).

(d) In the case where an employer makes contributions to a qualified care plan and also collects fees from parents to support a child care facility owned and operated by the employer, no credit shall be allowed under this section for contributions in the amount, if any, by which the sum of the contributions and fees exceed the total cost of providing care. The Franchise Tax Board may require information about fees collected from parents of children.

(e) In the case where the child care received is of less than 42-week duration, the employer shall claim a prorated portion of the allowable credit. The employer shall prorate the credit using the ratio of the number of weeks of care received divided by 42 weeks.

(f) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "net tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "net tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary until the credit has been exhausted.

(g) The credit shall not be available to an employer if the care provided on behalf of an employee is provided by an individual who:

(1) Qualifies as a dependent of that employee or that employee's spouse under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 17054.

(2) Is (within the meaning of Section 17056) a son, stepson, daughter, or stepdaughter of that employee under the age of 19 at the close of that taxable year.

(h) The contributions to a qualified care plan shall not discriminate in favor of employees who are officers, owners, or highly compensated, or their dependents.

(i) No deduction shall be allowed as otherwise provided in this part for that portion of expenses paid or incurred for the taxable year that is equal to the amount of the credit allowed under this section.

(j) In the case where the credit is taken by an employer for contributions to a qualified care plan that is used at a facility owned by the employer, the basis of that facility shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the taxable year for which the credit is allowed.

(k) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (f), until the credit has been exhausted.

SEC. 4. Section 17053 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1996, there shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivisions (b), (c), and (f).

(b) The amount of the credit allowed by this subdivision shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of an employer with 200 or more employees, the credit shall be 20 percent of the cost paid or incurred by an employer for the purchase of a company shuttle bus, company commuter bus or van, or company motor pool vehicle that is provided as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program for employees conducted principally in this state.

(2) In the case of an employer with less than 200 employees, the credit shall be 30 percent of the cost specified in paragraph (1).

(3) The credit provided in this subdivision shall be claimed in the state income tax return for the taxable year in which the ridesharing vehicle is purchased and placed in service.

(4) The basis of any ridesharing vehicle purchased for which a credit is allowed shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the taxable year for which the credit is allowed.

(5) If a ridesharing vehicle purchased for which a credit is provided in this subdivision is disposed of, or is no longer used as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program, within three years of its acquisition, that portion of the credit provided in this subdivision that represents the pro rata share of that remaining three-year period shall be added to the employer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse. The basis of the vehicle shall be increased by an amount equal to that amount added to the employer's tax liability.

(c) The amount of the credit allowed by this subdivision shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of an employer with 200 or more employees, the credit shall be 20 percent of the cost paid or incurred by an employer for leasing or contracting a company shuttle bus, company commuter bus or van, or company motor pool vehicle that is provided as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program for employees conducted principally in this state. This credit shall be based on the total payments to the lessor or vehicle provider during the life of the lease or contract. The lessor or vehicle provider of a vehicle specified in this subdivision shall not be eligible for this credit.

(2) In the case of an employer with less than 200 employees, the credit shall be 30 percent of the cost specified in paragraph (1).

(3) The credit provided in this subdivision shall be claimed in the state income tax return for the taxable year in which the ridesharing vehicle is first leased or contracted for and placed in service. However, with respect to a ridesharing vehicle first leased or contracted for prior to the 1989 taxable year, the credit provided in this subdivision shall be claimed in the state income tax return for the 1989 taxable year based on the total payments to the lessor or vehicle provider during the 1989 taxable year and the total payments to be made during the remaining life of the lease or contract.

(4) If a ridesharing vehicle leased or contracted for which a credit is provided in this subdivision is disposed of, or is no longer used as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program, prior to the expiration date of the lease or contract, that portion of the credit provided in this subdivision that represents the pro rata share of the remaining life of that lease or contract shall be added to the employer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse.

(d) The credits allowed by subdivisions (b) and (c) shall not apply to the cost of purchasing, leasing, or contracting a company shuttle bus, company commuter bus or van, or company motor pool vehicle that would otherwise be required as part of the employer's business activities in the absence of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program.

(e) The employer shall do all of the following with respect to the credits allowed in subdivisions (b) and (c):

(1) Keep a contemporaneous log of the vehicle's use in order that it can be determined that it meets the requirements specified in subdivision (h). The log information shall include, but not be limited to, dates and times the vehicle was driven, the mileage for each trip, and the purpose of the trip.

(2) Retain vehicle documents verifying the vehicle's weight requirements, if applicable, and fuel efficiency standards as specified in subdivision (h). These documents shall include, but not be limited to, the vehicle's owners manual and the vehicle's registration.

(3) Provide upon the request of the Franchise Tax Board the information specified in paragraphs (1) and (2).

(f) A credit shall be allowed by this subdivision for the cost paid or incurred by an employer for providing subsidized public transit passes to an employee as follows:

(1) Forty percent of the cost if the employer provides no free or subsidized parking.

(2) Twenty percent of the cost if the employer provides subsidized parking.

(3) Ten percent of the cost if the employer provides free parking.

(g) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "net tax" the excess may be carried over to reduce the "net tax" in the following years and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(h) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Employer" means a taxpayer for whom services are performed by an employee, except government agencies.

(2) "Employee" means an individual who performs service for an employer for more than 10 hours per week for remuneration.

(3) "Employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program" means a program undertaken by an employer either alone or in cooperation with other employers to encourage or provide, or both, fiscal or other incentives to employees to make the home-to-work commute trip by any mode other than the single-occupant motor vehicle.

(4) "Company shuttle bus" means a highway vehicle that meets all of the following criteria:

(A) Has a seating capacity of at least seven adults, including the driver.

(B) At least 80 percent of the mileage of which reasonably can be expected to be for any of the following purposes:

(i) Transporting employees on a scheduled-route basis.

(ii) Interfacing with public transportation facilities.

(iii) Transporting employees on a demand-response basis.

(C) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of the enactment of this section, except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c).

(D) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on his or her return for the taxable year in which the vehicle is placed in service.

(E) Is made available to all employees on a nondiscriminatory basis in the normal course of the taxpayer's business.

(5) "Company commuter bus or van" means a highway vehicle which meets all of the following criteria:

(A) Has a seating capacity of at least seven adults, including the driver.

(B) At least 50 percent of the mileage of which can be reasonably expected to be used for the purpose of transporting employees to and from work.

(C) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of enactment of this legislation, except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c).

(D) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on his or her return for the taxable year in which the vehicle is placed in service.

(E) Is made available to all employees on a nondiscriminatory basis in the normal course of the taxpayer's business.

(6) "Company motor pool vehicle" means a highway vehicle which meets all of the following criteria:

(A) Is an automobile with a gross vehicle weight of 6,000 pounds or less.

(B) Meets or exceeds certain fuel efficiency standards pursuant to the provisions of Title II of Public Law 95-618.

(C) Is made available to all employees on a nondiscriminatory basis during the course of the taxpayer's business, and at least 50 percent of its mileage during the taxable year can reasonably be expected to be used for the purpose of providing transportation to employees.

(D) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of the enactment of this section, except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c).

(E) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on his or her return for the taxable year in which the vehicle is placed in service.

(7) "Subsidized parking" means any parking provided to employees at the worksite of the employee receiving the transit pass that is not charged at its fair market value, represented by the prevailing price charged for similar parking within a half-mile radius of the worksite, as certified by the employer.

(i) The credits provided in this section shall be in lieu of any deduction under this part to which the taxpayer otherwise may be entitled for costs to which the credit applies.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (g), until the credit has been exhausted.

SEC. 5. Section 17053.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.1. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1996, there shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (b).

(b) An employee in a non-employer-sponsored vanpool program shall be allowed a credit in an amount equal to 40 percent of all vanpool subscription costs paid or incurred in this state, for which receipts are available. In the case of a husband and wife, each shall be allowed a credit equal to 40 percent of their individual vanpool subscription costs paid or incurred in this state. The credit allowed by this subdivision shall not exceed four hundred eighty dollars ($480), applied separately to a husband and wife.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Employer" means any individual for whom or entity for which services are performed by employees.

(2) "Employee" means an individual who performs services for an employer for at least 10 hours per week for remuneration, and who vanpools to and from work at least three days a week or 15 days per month for at least six months of the year.

(3) "Non-employer-sponsored vanpool program" means a program under which vehicles and related equipment and services are made available for use by employers and employees for purposes of commuting to and from work and that is administered and operated by an individual or organization, including a governmental agency, for the commuting purposes of other employers and employees who are not employees of that individual or organization.

(4) "Vanpool" means a vehicle with a seating arrangement designed to carry 7 to 15 adults, including the driver, and in which an average of seven or more persons commute on a daily basis to and from work.

(5) "Vanpool subscription costs" includes, but is not limited to, vehicle lease payments, repairs, maintenance, fuel, and insurance.

(6) An employee, within the meaning of paragraph (2), whose employer is not subject to tax under this part or under Chapter 2

(commencing with Section 23101) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501) of Part 11 shall be deemed to be an employee in a non-employer-sponsored vanpool program.

(d) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "net tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "net tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been used.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 19604 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19604. (a) Except for fees received for services under Section 23305e, all moneys and remittances received by the Franchise Tax Board as tax imposed under Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), and related penalties, additions to tax, and interest imposed under this part, shall be deposited in a special fund in the State Treasury, to be designated the Bank and Corporation Tax Fund. The moneys in the fund shall, upon the order of the Controller, be drawn therefrom for the purpose of making refunds under this part or be transferred into the General Fund. All undelivered refund warrants shall be redeposited into the Bank and Corporation Tax Fund upon receipt by the Controller. Fees received for services under Section 23305e shall be treated as reimbursement of the Franchise Tax Board's costs and shall be deposited into the General Fund.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all moneys in the Bank and Corporation Tax Fund are hereby continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal year, to the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of making all payments as provided in this section.

SEC. 7. Section 19605 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19605. All moneys and remittances received by the Franchise Tax Board as fees imposed under Section 19531 or 19561 shall be treated as reimbursement of the Franchise Tax Board's costs and shall be deposited into the General Fund.

SEC. 8. Section 23603 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 3.5 of Chapter 875 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

23603. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1996, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) an amount equal to 55 percent of the qualified cost paid or incurred by the taxpayer for low-emission motor vehicles or low-emission conversion devices. The credit allowed by this section shall be claimed for the income year in which the low-emission conversion device is installed or, in the case of a new low-emission motor vehicle, for the income year in which the low-emission motor vehicle is placed in service, and shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) per automobile, motorcycle, or two-person passenger vehicle, or three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) for a vehicle whose weight is in excess of 5,750 pounds.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Device" means any apparatus not otherwise required by federal or California law that is designed and installed to convert a new or used motor vehicle to a low-emission motor vehicle as certified by the state board.

(2) "Differential cost" means the difference in retail cost between a low-emission motor vehicle and a comparable motor vehicle that is not a low-emission motor vehicle. This amount shall be determined by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission (hereafter referred to as the California Energy Commission), based on information supplied by the taxpayer and subject to the guidelines adopted under subdivision (e).

(3) "Low-emission motor vehicle" means a vehicle as defined under Section 39037.05 of the Health and Safety Code.

(4) "Qualified costs" means each of the following:

(A) The total cost (including installation charges but excluding interest charges) of a device designed and installed to convert a qualified motor vehicle to a low-emission motor vehicle.

(B) The differential cost of a new qualified motor vehicle that is equipped from the factory to operate as a low-emission motor vehicle and is certified by the state board to be a low-emission motor vehicle.

(C) Fifteen percent of the purchase price of a nonrecreational motor vehicle that is a low-emission motor vehicle intended to be used on private roads, private school campuses, or commercial or industrial worksites in this state.

(5) "Qualified motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle, as defined by Section 415 of the Vehicle Code, that is either of the following:

(A) A motor vehicle that is intended to be used on public roads and highways and is registered in this state.

(B) A nonrecreational motor vehicle that is intended to be used on private roads, private school campuses, or commercial or industrial worksites in this state.

(6) "State board" refers to the Air Resources Board.

(c) The taxpayer shall qualify for the credit after application to and certification by the California Energy Commission that all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The device or vehicle qualifies for the credit under this section.

(2) Credit allocation is available.

(d) The taxpayer shall do all of the following:

(1) (A) Apply to the California Energy Commission for credit allocation and certification.

(B) The application for credit allocation shall include all information that is required by the California Energy Commission, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(i) A plan to purchase a device, as defined in subdivision (b), or a vehicle.

- (ii) The cost estimates of the device or vehicle.
- (2) Notify the California Energy Commission in a form and manner specified by the California Energy Commission that the device or vehicle has actually been purchased.
- (3) Retain a copy of the certification issued by the California Energy Commission.
- (4) Make the certification available to the Franchise Tax Board upon demand.
- (5) The S corporation shall disclose in its tax return each year all of the following:
 - (A) The name of each shareholder who received a credit allocation.
 - (B) The shareholder's social security number or identification number.
 - (C) The amount of credit allocated to each shareholder.
- (e) The California Energy Commission shall do all of the following:
 - (1) Establish criteria for allocation of the credit amounts in the case where more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) of credit are requested annually.
 - (2) Provide guidelines and criteria for application for credit allocation. These guidelines shall be exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. However, these guidelines shall be adopted by the California Energy Commission at a noticed meeting and after one or more public workshops.
 - (3) Accept applications and issue certificates including the credit amount to which the taxpayer is entitled.
 - (4) Provide an annual listing to the Franchise Tax Board (preferably on magnetic tape or other machine-readable form, and in a form and manner agreed upon by the Franchise Tax Board and the California Energy Commission) of the qualified taxpayers who were issued the certification and the allowable amount of the credit allocated to each taxpayer.
 - (f) The taxpayers' identification numbers obtained through the tax credit application and certification process shall be used exclusively for state tax administrative purposes.
 - (g) The "qualified costs" shall be reduced by an amount equal to any amount allowable, for purposes of computing federal income tax, as a credit under Section 30 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to credit for qualified electric vehicles, for the same vehicle.
 - (h) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.
 - (i) The aggregate amount of tax credits granted pursuant to this section and Section 17052.11 shall not exceed seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) per year. The California Energy Commission shall not authorize any credit if the credit would cause the total amount of credit authorized in any year under the Personal Income Tax Law and the Bank and Corporation Tax Law to exceed seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(j) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision shall apply only to each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1993.

(k) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 23605 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23605. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1996, there shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of "tax" (as defined in Section 23036) an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivisions (b), (c), and (f).

(b) The amount of the credit allowed by this subdivision shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of an employer with 200 or more employees, the credit shall be 20 percent of the cost paid or incurred by an employer for the purchase of a company shuttle bus, company commuter bus or van, or company motor pool vehicle that is provided as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program for employees conducted principally in this state.

(2) In the case of an employer with less than 200 employees, the credit shall be 30 percent of the cost specified in paragraph (1).

(3) The credit provided in this subdivision shall be claimed in the state return for the income year in which the ridesharing vehicle is purchased and placed in service.

(4) The basis of any ridesharing vehicle purchased for which a credit is allowed shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the income year for which the credit is allowed.

(5) If a ridesharing vehicle purchased for which a credit is provided in this subdivision is disposed of, or is no longer used as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program, within three years of its acquisition, that portion of the credit provided in this subdivision that represents the pro rata share of that remaining three-year period shall be added to the employer's tax liability in the income year of that disposition or nonuse. The basis of the vehicle shall be increased by an amount equal to that amount added to the employer's tax liability.

(c) The amount of the credit allowed by this subdivision shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of an employer with 200 or more employees, the credit shall be 15 percent of the cost paid or incurred by an employer for leasing or contracting a company shuttle bus, company commuter bus or van, or company motor pool vehicle that is provided as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program. This credit shall be based on the total payments to the lessor or vehicle provider during the life of the lease or contract. The lessor or vehicle provider of a vehicle specified in this subdivision is not eligible for this credit.

(2) In the case of an employer with less than 200 employees, the credit shall be 30 percent of the cost specified in paragraph (1).

(3) The credit provided in this subdivision shall be claimed in the state income tax return for the income year in which the ridesharing vehicle is leased or contracted for and placed in service. However, with respect to a ridesharing vehicle first leased or contracted for prior to the 1989 income year, the credit provided in this subdivision shall be claimed in the state income tax return for the 1989 income year based on the total payments to the lessor or vehicle provider during the 1989 income year and the total payments to be made during the remaining life of the lease or contract.

(4) If a ridesharing vehicle leased or contracted for which a credit is provided in this subdivision is disposed of, or is no longer used as part of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program, prior to the expiration date of the lease or contract, that portion of the credit provided in this subdivision that represents the pro rata share of the remaining life of that lease or contract shall be added to the employer's tax liability in the income year of that disposition or nonuse.

(d) The credits allowed by subdivisions (b) and (c) shall not apply to the cost of purchasing, leasing, or contracting a company shuttle bus, company commuter bus or van, or company motor pool vehicle that would otherwise be required as part of the employer's business activities in the absence of an employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program.

(e) The employer shall do all of the following with respect to the credits allowed in subdivisions (b) and (c):

(1) Keep a contemporaneous log of the vehicle's use such that it can be determined that it meets the requirements specified in subdivision (h). The log information shall include, but not be limited to, dates and times the vehicle was driven, the mileage for each trip, and the purpose of the trip.

(2) Retain vehicle documents verifying the vehicle's weight requirements, if applicable, and fuel efficiency standards as specified in subdivision (h). These documents shall include, but not be limited to, the vehicle's owners manual and the vehicle's registration.

(3) Provide upon the request of the Franchise Tax Board the information specified in paragraphs (1) and (2).

(f) A credit shall be allowed by this subdivision for the cost paid or incurred by an employer for providing subsidized public transit passes to an employee as follows:

(1) Forty percent of the cost if the employer provides no free or subsidized parking.

(2) Twenty percent of the cost if the employer provides subsidized parking.

(3) Ten percent of the cost if the employer provides free parking.

(g) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the “tax” the excess may be carried over to reduce the “tax” in the following years and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(h) For purposes of this section:

(1) “Employer” means a taxpayer for whom services are performed by an employee, except government agencies.

(2) “Employee” means an individual who performs service for an employer for more than 10 hours per week for remuneration.

(3) “Employer-sponsored ridesharing incentive program” means a program undertaken by an employer either alone or in cooperation with other employers to encourage or provide, or both, fiscal or other incentives to employees to make the home-to-work commute trip by any mode other than the single-occupant motor vehicle.

(4) “Company shuttle bus” means a highway vehicle that meets all of the following criteria:

(A) Has a seating capacity of at least seven adults, including the driver.

(B) At least 80 percent of the mileage of which reasonably can be expected to be for any of the following purposes:

(i) Transporting employees on a scheduled-route basis.

(ii) Interfacing with public transportation facilities.

(iii) Transporting employees on a demand-response basis.

(C) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of the enactment of this section, except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c).

(D) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on its return for the income year in which the vehicle is placed in service.

(E) Is made available to all employees on a nondiscriminatory basis in the normal course of the taxpayer’s business.

(5) “Company commuter bus or van” means a highway vehicle that meets all of the following criteria:

(A) Has a seating capacity of at least seven adults, including the driver.

(B) At least 50 percent of the mileage of which can be reasonably expected to be used for the purpose of transporting employees to and from work.

(C) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of enactment of this section, except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c).

(D) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on its return for the income year in which the vehicle is placed in service.

(E) Is made available to all employees on a nondiscriminatory basis in the normal course of the taxpayer’s business.

(6) “Company motor pool vehicle” means a highway vehicle that meets all of the following criteria:

(A) Is an automobile with a gross vehicle weight of 6,000 pounds or less.

(B) Meets or exceeds certain fuel efficiency standards pursuant to the provisions of Title II of Public Law 95-618.

(C) Is made available to all employees on a nondiscriminatory basis during the course of the taxpayer's business, and at least 50 percent of its mileage during the taxable year can reasonably be expected to be used for the purpose of providing transportation to employees.

(D) Is acquired by the taxpayer on or after the date of the enactment of this section, except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c).

(E) With respect to which the taxpayer makes an election under this paragraph on its return for the income year in which the vehicle is placed in service.

(7) "Subsidized parking" means any parking provided to employees at the worksite of the employee receiving the transit pass that is not charged at its fair market value, represented by the prevailing price charged for similar parking within a half-mile radius of the worksite, as certified by the employer.

(i) The credit provided in this section shall be in lieu of any deduction under this part to which the taxpayer otherwise may be entitled for costs to which the credit applies.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (g), until the credit has been exhausted.

SEC. 10. Section 23612.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23612.5. (a) (1) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1994, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined in Section 23036), an amount equal to 40 percent of the cost of qualified property purchased and placed in service on or after January 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1994. The amount of the allowable credit shall be claimed as provided in subdivision (c), and shall not be granted in the absence of a certification obtained pursuant to subdivision (e).

(2) Notwithstanding the total cost of the qualified property, the amount of cost that may be taken into account for purposes of claiming the credit allowed under this section and Section 17052.14 shall not exceed six hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($625,000) per facility during the five-year credit period.

(3) The basis of any qualified property, as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d), for which a credit is allowed shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the income year for which the credit is allowed.

(b) The credit shall be allowed by this section only if both of the following apply:

(1) The total adjusted basis of all qualified property owned on the last day of the income year exceeds the largest total adjusted basis of all qualified property owned at any one time during the base year.

(2) The total capacity of qualified property to use recycled materials on the last day of the income year exceeds the largest total capacity of qualified property at any one time during the base year. If a qualified property owned in the base year is replaced by qualified property of larger capacity, the eligible costs shall be proportional to the increase in capacity.

(c) The amount of the allowable credit shall be claimed as follows:

(1) Twenty percent of the cost, as limited by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), shall be allowed for the income year the qualified property is placed in service.

(2) Fifteen percent of the cost, as limited by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), shall be allowed for the income year immediately succeeding the income year the qualified property is placed in service.

(3) Five percent of the cost, as limited by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), shall be allowed for the income year immediately succeeding the income year specified in paragraph (2).

(d) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Qualified property" means machinery or equipment located within California, that has not previously been certified, and is used by the taxpayer exclusively to manufacture finished products composed of at least 50 percent secondary waste material of which at least 10 percent is composed of postconsumer waste generated from within California. "Qualified property" may include manufacturing equipment that utilizes 100 percent secondary waste, including at least 80 percent postconsumer waste that is contained within a finished product regardless of the finished product's percent postconsumer content. Equipment used in each step of a manufacturing process may be qualified property, even though the equipment is owned and used by different taxpayers. "Qualified property" includes, but is not limited to, deinking equipment utilized in the production of fine quality paper, equipment utilized in the production of compost, equipment utilized to reclaim plastic to be used either as a raw material or sold to a manufacturer for use in the manufacture or fabrication of finished products, equipment that processes used plastic milk bottles into flakes, equipment that processes resin pellets from the flakes, and equipment that manufactures toys from the pellets.

(2) "Postconsumer waste" is only those products generated within California by a business or consumer that have served their intended end uses and would normally be disposed of as solid waste, having completed their life cycle as a consumer item.

(3) "Secondary waste" means those products generated within California that, if not recovered, would otherwise be solid waste, and that are intended for sale, use, reuse, or recycling, including preconsumer and postconsumer waste, but excluding manufacturing waste.

(4) "Finished product" means a marketable product or component thereof that has an economic value to a consumer and is ready to be used without the requirement of further alteration of its form. "Compost," as defined in Section 40116 of the Public Resources Code, is a finished product if it meets all the criteria of the definition of "finished product."

(5) "Base year" is the income year immediately preceding the income year for which the credit allowed by this section is claimed.

(6) For purposes of this section "recycle" and "recycling" are defined in Section 40180 of the Public Resources Code.

(7) "Facility" means a single distribution terminal, plant, or refinery and any such property contiguous thereto.

(8) "Preconsumer waste" means those materials generated during any step in the production of a product, that have been removed from or otherwise diverted from the solid waste stream for the purpose of recycling, but does not include manufacturing waste, as defined.

(9) "Manufacturing waste" means those materials and byproducts generated from, and commonly reused within, a manufacturing process (for example, mill broke).

(e) The California Integrated Waste Management Board shall do all of the following:

(1) Certify that the qualified property is purchased and used by the taxpayer as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) and subdivision (d).

(2) Provide an annual listing to the Franchise Tax Board, (preferably on magnetic tape or other machine-readable form, and in a form and manner agreed upon by the Franchise Tax Board and the California Integrated Waste Management Board), of the qualified taxpayers who were issued the certification.

(3) Provide the taxpayer with a copy of the certification to retain for its records.

(4) Obtain the taxpayer's identification number, or in the case of a partnership, all of the partners' taxpayer identification numbers. For purposes of this paragraph, "taxpayer identification number" includes, but is not limited to, a social security number, corporate identification number or a federal employer identification number. Any social security number obtained by the board pursuant to this paragraph shall be utilized for tax administration purposes only.

(f) The taxpayer shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide the California Integrated Waste Management Board with documents, as deemed necessary by the California Integrated Waste Management Board, verifying the purchase of the qualified property and that the machinery or equipment meets the recycling requirements specified in this section.

(2) Retain for its records a copy of the certificate issued by the California Integrated Waste Management Board specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e).

(3) Provide a copy of the certification specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) to the Franchise Tax Board upon request. Where the taxpayer fails to comply with the requirement of this paragraph, no credit shall be allowed to that taxpayer under this section for the taxable year unless the taxpayer subsequently complies.

(4) Provide the California Integrated Waste Management Board with its taxpayer identification number.

(g) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "tax," for any income year for which a credit is allowed by subdivision (c), the excess may be carried over to reduce that "tax," in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit is used.

(h) If a taxpayer disposes of or no longer uses the qualified property as defined in subdivision (d), then any amount that would have been otherwise allowed as a credit for the income year of disposition or nonuse shall not be allowed.

(i) The California Integrated Waste Management Board shall, no later than March 1, 1994, submit a report to the Legislature evaluating the impact of the tax expenditure in this section. The report shall include information about the number of taxpayers claiming the credit, the total dollar amount of credit allocated, and the equipment for which the credit was used. The report shall also determine to what extent, if any, the tax expenditure authorized by this section increased recycling activities in California. The California Integrated Waste Management Board shall work cooperatively with the Franchise Tax Board to determine the relevant tax return data necessary to complete the report and the time the data is required. The Franchise Tax Board shall be responsible for providing the data to the California Integrated Waste Management Board.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (g), until the credit has been exhausted.

SEC. 11. Section 23617.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23617.5. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1988, and before January 1, 1995, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (b).

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this section shall be 50 percent of the cost paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after September 23, 1988, for contributions to a qualified care plan made on behalf of any dependent of the taxpayer's California employee who is under the age of 15 years.

(2) The amount of the credit allowed by this section in any income year shall not exceed six hundred dollars ($600) for contributions to a full-time qualified care plan or a part-time qualified care plan made on behalf of the employee's dependent.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified care plan" includes, but is not limited to, onsite service, center-based service, in-home care or home-provider care, and a dependent care center as defined by Section 21(b)(2)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code that is a specialized center with respect to short-term illnesses of an employee's dependents, provided the facility is located in this state and is operated under the authority of a license when required by state law.

(2) "Specialized center" means a facility that provides care to mildly ill children and that may do all of the following:

(A) Be staffed by pediatric nurses and day care workers.

(B) Admit children suffering from common childhood ailments (including colds, flu, and chickenpox).

(C) Make special arrangements for well children with minor problems associated with diabetes, asthma, breaks or sprains, and recuperation from surgery.

(D) Separate children according to their illness and symptoms in order to protect them from cross-infection.

(3) "Full-time qualified care plan" means an average of eight or more hours of dependent care per day for at least 42 weeks per year in a qualified care plan.

(4) "Part-time qualified care plan" means an average of two to eight hours of dependent care per day for at least 42 weeks per year in a qualified care plan.

(5) "Contributions" include employer reimbursements to employees for the employee's qualified care plan expenses, or direct payments to child care programs or providers, or both.

(6) The term "employee" includes, for any year, an individual who is an employee within the meaning of Section 401(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to self-employed individuals).

(d) In the case where an employer makes contributions to a qualified care plan and also collects fees from parents to support a child care facility owned and operated by the employer, no credit shall be allowed under this section for contributions in the amount, if any, by which the sum of the contributions and fees exceed the total cost of providing care. The Franchise Tax Board may require information about fees collected from parents of children served in the facility from taxpayers claiming credits under this section.

(e) In the case where the child care received is of less than 42-week duration, the employer shall claim a prorated portion of the allowable credit. The employer shall prorate the credit using the ratio of the number of weeks of care received divided by 42 weeks.

(f) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(g) The credit shall not be available to an employer if the care provided on behalf of an employee is provided by an individual who:

(1) Qualifies as a dependent of that employee or that employee's spouse under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 17054.

(2) Is (within the meaning of Section 17056) a son, stepson, daughter, or stepdaughter of that employee under the age of 19 years at the close of that taxable year.

(h) The contributions to a qualified care plan shall not discriminate in favor of employees who are officers, owners, or highly compensated, or their dependents.

(i) No deduction shall be allowed as otherwise provided in this part for that portion of expenses paid or incurred for the income year that is equal to the amount of the credit allowed under this section.

(j) In the case where the credit is taken by an employer for contributions to a qualified care plan that is used at a facility owned by the employer, the basis of that facility shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the income year for which the credit is allowed.

(k) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (f), until the credit has been exhausted.

SEC. 12. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide for the reimbursement of certain administrative costs of the Franchise Tax Board in a timely manner and thereby avoid a deficiency for the 1993-94 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 49

An act to amend Sections 41422, 46206, and 46392 of, and to add Section 8209 to, the Education Code, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8209 is added to the Education Code, to read:

8209. (a) In the event a state of emergency is declared by the Governor, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may waive, for the purpose of maintaining continuity of services or assisting in disaster recovery, any requirements of this code or regulations adopted pursuant to this code relating to child care and development programs operated pursuant to this chapter.

(b) In the event a state of emergency is declared by the Governor, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may waive, for the purpose of maintaining continuity of services or assisting in disaster recovery, any requirements of this code or regulations adopted pursuant to this code relating to child nutrition programs in child care and development programs operated pursuant to this chapter.

(c) A waiver granted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall not exceed 45 calendar days.

(d) For purposes of this section, "state of emergency" includes fire, flood, earthquake, or a period of civil unrest.

SEC. 2. Section 41422 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41422. A district that is prevented from maintaining its schools during a fiscal year for at least 175 days or is required to operate sessions of shorter length than otherwise prescribed by law because of fire, flood, earthquake, or epidemic, or because of any order of any military officer of the United States or of the state to meet an emergency created by war, or of any civil officer of the United States, of the state, or of any county, city and county, or city authorized to issue that order to meet an emergency created by war, or because of other extraordinary conditions, or because of inability to secure or hold a teacher, or because of the illness of the teacher, which fact shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Superintendent of Public Instruction by the affidavits of the members of the governing board of the school district and of the county superintendent of schools, shall receive the same apportionment from the State School Fund as it would have received had it not been so prevented from maintaining school for at least 175 full-length days.

This section shall also apply to districts which, in the absence of one or more of the conditions prescribed by this section, would have qualified for funds under Sections 46200 or 46201.

SEC. 3. Section 46206 of the Education Code is amended to read:

46206. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, beginning with the 1984-85 school year and each school year thereafter, the State Board of Education may waive all or any portion of the fiscal penalties that may be levied for failing to maintain the prescribed minimum length of time for the instructional schoolday and year as provided in this article. Any waiver granted by the board pursuant to this section shall be applicable only to the district receiving the waiver for one year and shall be granted only when the time involved is equal to or less than 900 minutes of instructional time. The waiver shall include a plan for the district to make up any instructional time lost, which precipitated the need for the waiver during a school year, in the school year immediately following the year in which the waiver is granted. If a school district fails to make up the lost instructional time in accordance with the plan submitted to the State Board of Education, the fiscal penalties set forth in Sections 46200, 46200.5, 46201, 46201.1, 46201.5, and 46202 shall be imposed. Any waiver granted pursuant to this section shall be included in an annual report by the State Board of Education to the Legislature regarding waivers granted by the State Board of Education pursuant to this section.

(b) Exceptions to the one-year limitation, the 900-minute limit, and the provisions to make up the lost instructional time may be granted to any school district that maintained a single session kindergarten class in the 1982-83 school year for more than the maximum number of 240 minutes permitted by state law, and that, due to the school district's growth and facilities limitations, is required to operate two sessions of kindergarten per day in the same classroom.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the State Board of Education grant waivers as authorized by subdivision (a) only in the event of circumstances that involve the health and safety of pupils or unavoidable human error, other than those circumstances set forth in Section 41422. It is the further intent of the Legislature that the State Board of Education waive only an appropriate portion of the fiscal penalties that may be levied based on the number of pupils affected. In addition, it is the intent of the Legislature that school districts make every effort to make up any instructional time lost during the school year in which the loss of time occurred, rather than seeking a waiver pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 4. Section 46392 of the Education Code is amended to read:

46392. (a) Whenever the average daily attendance of any school district, county office of education, or regional occupational center or program during any fiscal year has been materially decreased during any fiscal year because of any of the following, the fact shall be established to the satisfaction of the Superintendent of Public Instruction by affidavits of the members of the governing board of the school district or county office of education, and the county superintendent of schools:

- (1) Fire.
- (2) Flood.
- (3) Impassable roads.
- (4) An epidemic.
- (5) An earthquake.
- (6) The imminence of a major safety hazard as determined by the local law enforcement agency.
- (7) A strike involving transportation services to pupils provided by a nonschool entity.
- (8) An order provided for in Section 41422.

(b) In the event a state of emergency is declared by the Governor in a county, any decrease in average daily attendance in the county below the approximate total average daily attendance that would have been credited to a school district, county office of education, or regional occupational center or program had the state of emergency not occurred shall be deemed material. The superintendent shall determine the length of the period during which average daily attendance has been reduced by the state of emergency. This period which is determined by the superintendent shall not extend into the next fiscal year following the declaration of the state of emergency by the Governor, except upon a showing by a school district, county office of education, or regional occupational center or program, to the satisfaction of the superintendent, that extending the period into the next fiscal year is essential to alleviate continued reductions in average daily attendance attributable to the state of emergency.

(c) The average daily attendance of the district, county office of education, or regional occupational center or program for the fiscal year shall be estimated by the superintendent in a manner that credits to the school district, county office of education, or regional occupational center or program for determining the apportionments to be made to the district, county office of education, or regional occupational center or program from the State School Fund approximately the total average daily attendance that would have been credited to the school district, county office of education, or regional occupational center or program had the emergency not occurred or had the order not been issued.

(d) This section applies to any average daily attendance that occurs during any part of a school year.

SEC. 5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 88003 of the Education Code, the Santa Clarita Community College District may exclude from the classified service a substitute or short-term employee hired or reemployed as a result of conditions related to the Northridge earthquake, irrespective of the number of days for which the individual is employed and paid.

(b) The governing board of the Santa Clarita Community College District shall meet and confer with the exclusive representatives of the classified employees prior to exercising the authority granted by subdivision (a).

(c) This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1994, and, as of January 1, 1995, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 6. (a) In lieu of the allowances specified in Sections 41851 and 41851.5 of the Education Code, for the 1994-95 fiscal year, a school district or county office of education that operated home-to-school transportation services or special education transportation services, as defined in Section 41850 of the Education Code, during the 1993-94 fiscal year may receive, upon review and approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the same proportional share of the statewide total amount of funding provided in the Budget Act of 1994, when chaptered, for either type of transportation service as the school district or county office of education received of the statewide total amount of funding provided in the Budget Act of 1993 for either type of transportation service.

(b) In order to receive the allowances specified in subdivision (a), the school district or county office of education shall provide certification to the Superintendent of Public Instruction showing that the costs for home-to-school transportation services or special education transportation services approved for the 1993-94 fiscal year decreased below the allowance received for either type of transportation service in the 1993–94 fiscal year as a direct result of the Northridge earthquake of 1994.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

It is necessary that this act take effect immediately because the Northridge earthquake of 1994 has caused serious problems in the general operation of community colleges in the Santa Clarita Community College District and serious problems in the general operation of schools and in the operation of child care and development programs in schools.

CHAPTER 50

An act to add Sections 4816, 4817, 4819, and 4820 to the Labor Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor April 19, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 19, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4816 is added to the Labor Code, to read:
4816. Pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement applicable to members of the California State University Police Department, whenever any member of that police department falling within the “law enforcement” class is disabled by injury or illness arising out of and in the course of his or her duties, he or she shall become entitled, regardless of his or her period of service with the police department, to enhanced industrial disability leave equivalent to the injured employee’s net take home salary on the date of occurrence of the injury. For the purposes of this section, “net take home salary” means the amount of salary received after federal income tax, state income tax, and the employee’s retirement contribution has been deducted from the employee’s gross salary, in lieu of disability payments under this chapter, for a period of not exceeding one year. No benefits shall be paid under this section for any psychiatric disability or any physical disability arising from a psychiatric injury.

This section shall apply only to members of the California State University Police Department whose principal duties consist of active law enforcement, and shall not apply to persons employed in the California State University Police Department whose principal duties are those of telephone operator, clerk, stenographer, machinist, mechanic, or otherwise clearly not falling within the scope of active law enforcement service, even though the person is subject to occasional call or is occasionally called upon to perform duties within the scope of active law enforcement service.

SEC. 2. Section 4817 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

4817. It shall be the duty of the appeals board to determine, in the case of members of the California State University Police Department, upon the request of the Board of Trustees of the California State University, whether or not the disability referred to in Section 4816 arose out of and in the course of duty. The appeals board shall, also in any disputed case, determine when such disability ceases.

SEC. 3. Section 4819 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

4819. Whenever the disability of a member of the California State University Police Department continues for a period beyond one year, that member shall thereafter be subject, as to disability indemnity, to the provisions of this division other than Section 4816, which refers to temporary disability only, during the remainder of the disability.

SEC. 4. Section 4820 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

4820. No disability indemnity shall be paid to a member of the California State University Police Department as temporary disability concurrently with wages or salary payments.

CHAPTER 51

An act to validate the organization, boundaries, acts, proceedings, and bonds of public bodies, and to provide limitations of time wherein actions may be commenced, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

(b) "Bonds" means all instruments evidencing an indebtedness of a public body incurred or to be incurred for any public purpose, all leases, installment purchase agreements, or similar agreements wherein the obligor is one or more public bodies, all instruments evidencing the borrowing of money in anticipation of taxes, revenues, or other income of that body, all instruments payable from revenues or special funds of those public bodies, all certificates of participation evidencing interests in the leases, installment purchase agreements, or similar agreements, and all instruments funding, refunding, replacing, or amending any thereof or any indebtedness.

(c) "Hereafter" means any time subsequent to the effective date of this act.

(d) "Heretofore" means any time prior to the effective date of this act.

(e) "Now" means the effective date of this act.

SEC. 3. All public bodies heretofore organized or existing under, or under color of, any law, are hereby declared to have been legally organized and to be legally functioning as those public bodies. Every public body, heretofore described, shall have all the rights, powers, and privileges, and be subject to all the duties and obligations, of those public bodies regularly formed pursuant to law.

SEC. 4. The boundaries of every public body as heretofore established, defined, or recorded, or as heretofore actually shown on maps or plats used by the assessor, are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally established.

SEC. 5. All acts and proceedings heretofore taken by any public body or bodies under any law, or under color of any law, for the annexation or inclusion of territory into those public bodies or for the annexation of those public bodies to any other public body or for the withdrawal or exclusion of territory from any public body or for the consolidation, merger, or dissolution of any public bodies are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective. This shall include all acts and proceedings of the governing board of any public body and of any person, public officer, board, or agency heretofore done or taken upon the question of the annexation or inclusion or of the withdrawal or exclusion of territory or the consolidation, merger, or dissolution of those public bodies.

SEC. 6. All acts and proceedings heretofore taken by or on behalf of any public body under any law, or under color of any law, for, or in connection with, the authorization, issuance, sale, execution, delivery, or exchange of bonds of any public body for any public purpose are hereby authorized, confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective. This shall include all acts and proceedings of the governing board of public bodies and of any person, public officer, board, or agency heretofore done or taken upon the question of the authorization, issuance, sale, execution, delivery, or exchange of bonds.

All bonds of, or relating to, any public body heretofore issued shall be, in the form and manner issued and delivered, the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. All bonds of, or relating to, any public body heretofore awarded and sold to a purchaser and hereafter issued and delivered in accordance with the contract of sale and other proceedings for the award and sale shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. All bonds of, or relating to, any public body heretofore authorized to be issued by ordinance, resolution, order, or other action adopted or taken by or on behalf of the public body and hereafter issued and delivered in accordance with that authorization shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. All bonds of, or relating to, any public body heretofore authorized to be issued at an election and hereafter issued and delivered in accordance with that authorization shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. Whenever an election has heretofore been called for the purpose of submitting to the voters of any public body the question of issuing bonds for any public purpose, those bonds, if hereafter authorized by the required vote and in accordance with the proceedings heretofore taken, and issued and delivered in accordance with that authorization, shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body.

SEC. 7. (a) This act shall operate to supply legislative authorization as may be necessary to authorize, confirm, and validate any acts and proceedings heretofore taken pursuant to authority the Legislature could have supplied or provided for in the law under which those acts or proceedings were taken.

(b) This act shall be limited to the validation of acts and proceedings to the extent that the same can be effectuated under the state and federal Constitutions.

(c) This act shall not operate to authorize, confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding, or other matter being legally contested or inquired into in any legal proceeding now pending and undetermined or that is pending and undetermined during the period of 30 days from and after the effective date of this act, and shall not operate to authorize, confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding, or other matter that has heretofore been determined in any legal proceeding to be illegal, void, or ineffective.

(d) This act shall not operate to authorize, confirm, validate, or legalize a contract between any public body and the United States.

SEC. 8. Any action or proceeding contesting the validity of any action or proceeding heretofore taken under any law, or under color of any law, for the formation, organization, or incorporation of any public body, or for any annexation thereto, exclusion therefrom, or other change of boundaries thereof, or for the consolidation, merger, or dissolution of any public bodies, or for, or in connection with, the authorization, issuance, sale, execution, delivery, or exchange of bonds thereof upon any ground involving any alleged defect or illegality not effectively validated by the prior provisions of this act and not otherwise barred by any statute of limitations or by laches shall be commenced within six months of the effective date of this act; otherwise each and all of those matters shall be held to be valid and in every respect legal and incontestable. This act shall not extend the period allowed for legal action beyond the period that it would be barred by any presently existing valid statute of limitations.

SEC. 9. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to render the creation of any public body, or any change in the boundaries of any public body, effective for purposes of assessment or taxation unless the statement, together with the map or plat, required to be filed pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 54900) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, is filed within the time and substantially in the manner required by those sections.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

To validate the organization, boundaries, acts, proceedings, and bonds of public bodies as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 52

An act to add Division 18 (commencing with Section 28000) to the Public Resources Code, relating to state estuaries.

[Approved by Governor April 26, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 26, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Division 18 (commencing with Section 28000) is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

DIVISION 18. MORRO BAY MANAGEMENT PLAN

28000. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) There has long been a public concern for protecting and preserving the natural resources, wildlife habitat, recreational, and other environmental values, and public health at Morro Bay and its watershed, beginning with Senate Resolution 176 in 1966.

(b) In 1966, the Senate declared that the preservation of Morro Bay's fish, wildlife, recreational and aesthetic resources is of great importance to the people of California, and directed the Resources Agency to conduct a study of Morro Bay and its watershed and to prepare a plan for the preservation of the natural resources of the bay and watershed.

(c) The need for a management plan for Morro Bay was demonstrated in a 1966 study by the Department of Fish and Game, resulting from the Senate resolution, which described Morro Bay's rich natural resources and proposed the formation of a multiagency planning task force to prepare a comprehensive area plan for approval by the Legislature.

(d) The need for developing a management plan for Morro Bay was recognized in 1975 by the report of an intergovernmental task force, "A Coastal Watershed Environmental Management System—Morro Bay, California," which recommended various models of cooperative and comprehensive planning and management of Morro Bay and its watershed.

(e) The Morro Bay Task Force, composed of representatives of 50 government agencies and interest groups, was established in 1987 and adopted as a goal the long-term preservation, conservation, and enhancement of Morro Bay. It selected management planning as the best means to pursue that goal.

(f) The need to develop and carry out a management plan for Morro Bay and its watershed has been clearly recognized by the Legislature in adopting Assembly Concurrent Resolution 118 in 1990 (Resolution Chapter 58 of the Statutes of 1990).

(g) This need is also recognized by the approval by the Governor of the nomination of Morro Bay for the National Estuary Program, as developed and adopted by the State Water Resources Control Board. The development of a management plan for Morro Bay will improve the likelihood that Morro Bay will be accepted into the National Estuary Program.

(h) The Congress of the United States is expected to renew and revise the Clean Water Act (33 U.S.C. Sec. 1250 et seq.), and to include funding for watershed management planning. Designating Morro Bay and its watershed as a management planning area will increase the likelihood that Congress will allocate federal funds for Morro Bay management planning.

(i) There is now clear and compelling evidence that Morro Bay is suffering from an unnaturally rapid, undesirable, and irreversible deterioration as a unique and valuable natural resource, including (1) a 1988 study, funded by the State Coastal Conservancy, which determined that Morro Bay has lost over 30 percent of its estuary over the last 100 years, and that it continues to be threatened by unnaturally rapid sedimentation and the loss of riparian flow caused by activities on state-owned and local agency-owned properties and on privately owned agricultural lands within the watershed, and (2) occasional, recent measurements by the State Department of Health Services of coliform content that exceed safe levels.

(j) The need to prevent erosion in the Morro Bay watershed, which results in further sedimentation and loss of bay habitat, has been clearly recognized by the commitment of over three million dollars ($3,000,000) to watershed enhancement projects, mostly through the State Coastal Conservancy.

(k) The Morro Bay watershed was selected as the pilot watershed for developing California's nonpoint source pollution regulations to comply with the federal Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 (16 U.S.C. Sec. 1451 et seq.).

(l) There are unknown factors influencing the health of Morro Bay which need study, including (1) unsafe levels of nitrates in groundwater in residential areas adjoining the bay, coupled with rapidly increasing coverage of intertidal mudflats with algae, and (2) occasional quarantine of oyster production in Morro Bay because of paralytic poisoning caused by planktonic invasion.

(m) Morro Bay is an essential link in the Pacific Flyway, providing the state's largest waterfowl habitat south of San Francisco. Annually, Morro Bay has the second or third largest Audubon count of bird species in the nation.

(n) Morro Bay offers many beneficial human uses, such as oyster farming, harboring commercial and recreational fishing boats, recreational boating, and aesthetic tourist attractions supporting a large business community. A healthy bay is important for all of these activities and enterprises.

(o) Morro Bay remains relatively unspoiled. Action to maintain and enhance it will be far less costly than restoring it after deterioration.

(p) Through the efforts of governmental agencies and volunteer organizations communicating through the Morro Bay Task Force, strong, widespread, bipartisan support for the development of a management plan has arisen. Cooperative effort and the involvement of all concerned has already been established as the method to follow in planning.

(q) It is necessary to develop a comprehensive management plan for Morro Bay to conduct research, to coordinate the monitoring of sediment and water quality, to promote coordinated education and public outreach programs, and to identify and seek sources of funding for these activities.

28001. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this division to do all of the following:

(a) Recognize the importance of preserving and enhancing Morro Bay and its watershed as one of the state's rare natural treasures.

(b) Recognize the importance of commercial enterprises in and around Morro Bay to the economic and employment base of the area.

(c) Authorize the development of a management plan for Morro Bay and its watershed that will protect its natural attributes in balance with the maintenance and enhancement of human activity and enterprise in the bay and its watershed.

(d) Provide a basis for public agencies which have jurisdiction over parts of, or over activities within, the bay and its watershed, to carry out the management plan.

(e) Encourage federal agencies and nongovernmental groups to support the accomplishment of these purposes.

(f) Provide for continuing current legal uses in the bay and its watershed.

28002. For purposes of this division, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Agency" means the California Environmental Protection Agency.

(b) "Bay" means Morro Bay and its watershed.

(c) "Plan" means the Morro Bay management plan developed pursuant to this division.

(d) "State Estuary" means a saltwater bay or body of water and its watershed within the state where freshwater streams enter, that supports beneficial human uses and wildlife and merits high-priority action for preservation.

28003. Morro Bay and San Diego Bay are each hereby designated a State Estuary. Morro Bay and its watershed are hereby designated a State Estuary planning area.

28004. (a) (1) The agency shall convene the Morro Bay Management Plan Task Force to develop the plan. The Central Coast Regional Water Quality Control Board shall be utilized to carry out necessary administrative functions, including selecting a temporary chairperson of the task force, until such time as the task force establishes its own organization, leadership, and procedures.

The task force shall meet at least four times each calendar year. The task force shall submit the plan to the San Luis Obispo County Board of Supervisors and to the Morro Bay City Council for approval. Following that approval, the task force shall, on or before July 1, 1997, submit the plan to the Legislature.

(2) On and after July 1, 1997, the task force shall, on an ongoing basis, make recommendations to the agency regarding the need for any revisions in the plan.

(3) The task force shall terminate as of June 30, 2007.

(b) The agency shall encourage all local, state, and federal agencies with jurisdiction over parts of, or activities within, the bay and its watershed to participate in the task force. The agency shall also encourage the participation of all interested business and agricultural groups, commercial organizations, environmental groups, and any other interested groups or individuals.

(1) Participating agencies may include, but are not limited to, the agency, the National Guard, the Department of Parks and Recreation, the Department of Fish and Game, the Department of Corrections, the State Department of Health Services, the California Coastal Commission, the State Water Resources Control Board, the Central Coast Regional Water Quality Control Board, the Coastal San Luis Resource Conservation District, the State Coastal Conservancy, the California Conservation Corps, California Polytechnic State University San Luis Obispo, the University of California Agricultural Extension, the County of San Luis Obispo, and the City of Morro Bay.

(2) Other participants may include, but are not limited to, the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, agricultural groups, commercial fishing, mariculture, and fish processing groups, local chambers of commerce, and members of the tourist industry.

(3) The costs incurred by each voluntary participant in the task force shall be limited to the costs of its own participation at the meetings called by the chairperson of the task force.

28005. The plan shall include provisions for the protection and enhancement of every aspect of the health of the bay. Proposed actions and projects for those purposes shall have target dates for completion and provisions for participation by state and local agencies in those actions and projects. The plan shall identify research that is needed to make future decisions in revising the plan.

28006. This division does not provide any funds to carry out the plan. However, state, local, and federal agencies are hereby encouraged to allocate funds to carry out the plan. Private foundations, businesses, and nonprofit corporations are urged to donate funds to achieve the objectives of the plan.

28007. At two-year intervals after the plan is submitted to the Legislature, the agency shall call a task force meeting to evaluate the effectiveness of the plan and to make any necessary revisions in the plan. The revisions shall be subject to the same approval process as the original plan.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 53

An act to amend Section 740.4 of, and to add Section 12827 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 26, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 26, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 740.4 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

740.4. (a) The commission shall authorize public utilities to engage in programs to encourage economic development.

(b) Reasonable expenses for economic development programs, as specified in this section, shall be allowed, to the extent of ratepayer benefit, when setting rates to be charged by public utilities electing to initiate these programs.

(c) Economic development activities may include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) Community marketing and development.

(2) Technical assistance to support technology transfer.

(3) Market research.

(4) Site inventories.

(5) Industrial and commercial expansion and relocation assistance.

(6) Business retention and recruitment.

(7) Management assistance.

(d) This section shall not be interpreted to permit the funding of economic development activities that benefit any affiliated companies or parent holding companies beyond that which is authorized by law as of January 1, 1992.

(e) (1) This section shall not authorize the commission to establish discriminatory rates for the purpose of attracting or benefiting specific industries or business entities, except that incentives may be provided for the benefit of industries or business entities located within the boundaries of enterprise zones, economic incentive areas, or recycling market development zones in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) and Article 1 (commencing with Section 7080) of Chapter 12.9 of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, and Article 2 (commencing with Section 42145) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of the Public Resources Code.

(2) The commission may apply the incentives authorized by this subdivision that benefit industries or business entities located within the boundaries of economic enterprise zones or incentive areas to attract a federal Department of Defense Finance and Accounting Service Center at the existing site of Norton Air Force Base in San Bernardino County. This paragraph shall become inoperative if the federal Department of Defense Finance and Accounting Service Center is not located upon the premises known as Norton Air Force Base in San Bernardino County and shall also become inoperative on February 1, 1994, if that facility has not been awarded to that site before that date.

(f) The commission may provide incentives pursuant to subdivision (e) to industries or business entities located within the boundaries of an enterprise zone that engage in activities in connection with the conversion of Fort Ord to other uses.

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Public Utilities Commission, in implementing this chapter, shall allow rate recovery of expenses supporting economic development programs within the geographic area served by any public utility to the extent the utility incurring or proposing to incur, those expenses demonstrates that the ratepayers of the public utility will derive a benefit from those programs. Further, it is the intent of the Legislature that expenses for economic development programs incurred prior to the effective date of this chapter, which have not been previously authorized to be recovered in rates, shall not be subject to rate recovery.

SEC. 1.5. Section 740.4 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

740.4. (a) The commission shall authorize public utilities to engage in programs to encourage economic development.

(b) Reasonable expenses for economic development programs, as specified in this section, shall be allowed, to the extent of ratepayer benefit, when setting rates to be charged by public utilities electing to initiate these programs.

(c) Economic development activities may include, but not be limited to, the following:

- (1) Community marketing and development.
- (2) Technical assistance to support technology transfer.
- (3) Market research.
- (4) Site inventories.
- (5) Industrial and commercial expansion and relocation assistance.
- (6) Business retention and recruitment.
- (7) Management assistance.
- (d) This section shall not be interpreted to permit the funding of economic development activities that benefit any affiliated companies or parent holding companies beyond that which is authorized by law as of January 1, 1992.

(e) (1) This section shall not authorize the commission to establish discriminatory rates for the purpose of attracting or benefiting specific industries or business entities, except that incentives may be provided for the benefit of industries or business entities located within the boundaries of enterprise zones, economic incentive areas, economic development centers, or recycling market development zones in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070), Article 1 (commencing with Section 7080) of Chapter 12.9, and Chapter 12.97 (commencing with Section 7110) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, and Article 2 (commencing with Section 42145) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of the Public Resources Code.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the commission may apply the incentives authorized by this subdivision to benefit industries and business entities located within the economic development center at the premises known as Norton Air Force Base in San Bernardino County until January 1, 1999.

(f) The commission may provide incentives pursuant to subdivision (e) to industries or business entities located within the boundaries of an enterprise zone that engage in activities in connection with the conversion of Fort Ord to other uses.

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature that the commission, in implementing this chapter, shall allow rate recovery of expenses supporting economic development programs within the geographic area served by any public utility to the extent the utility incurring, or proposing to incur, those expenses demonstrates that the ratepayers of the public utility will derive a benefit from those programs. Further, it is the intent of the Legislature that expenses for economic development programs which are incurred prior to the effective date of this chapter, which have not been previously authorized to be recovered in rates, shall not be subject to rate recovery.

SEC. 2. Section 12827 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

12827. The board of a district that has owned and operated an electric distribution system for at least eight years and has a population of 250,000 or more may engage in programs to encourage economic development that benefits its ratepayers.

SEC. 3. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 740.4 of the Public Utilities Code proposed by both this bill and A.B. 2 of the 1993-94 First Extraordinary Session. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 740.4 of the Public Utilities Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after A.B. 2 of the 1993-94 First Extraordinary Session, in which case Section 740.4 of the Public Utilities Code, as amended by Section 1 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of A.B. 2 of the 1993-94 First Extraordinary Session, at which time Section 1.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to facilitate economic development to improve the economy at the earliest possible time, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 54

An act to amend Items 3860-101-786 and 3860-101-790 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1993 (Chapter 55 of the Statutes of 1993), relating to resources, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State April 26, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Item 3860-101-786 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1993 (Chapter 55 of the Statutes of 1993) is amended to read:

3860-101-786—For local assistance, Department of Water Resources, Program 10.10—Water Management Planning, payable from the California Wildlife, Coastal, Park Land Conservation Fund of 1988 for the California Wildlife, Coastal, and Park Land Conservation Program	743,091
--	---------

SEC. 2. Item 3860-101-790 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1993 (Chapter 55 of the Statutes of 1993) is amended to read:

3860-101-790—For local assistance, Department of Water Resources, Program 10.29—Conservation Loans, payable from the Water Conservation Bond Fund of 1988.....	30,726,307

Provisions:

1. Of the amount appropriated in this item, $11,726,307 shall be available for loans from the Water Conservation and Groundwater Recharge Account for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 3 of Chapter 1049 of the Statutes of 1992, and paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of, and paragraphs (2) and

- (8) of subdivision (c) of, Section 1 of Chapter 10 of the 1991-92 First Extraordinary Session.
2. Of the amount appropriated in this item, $5,000,-000 shall be available for loans from the Local Water Projects Assistance Account for the purpose of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 3 of Chapter 1049 of the Statutes of 1992.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to enable the Department of Water Resources, as soon as possible, to make grants from the California Wildlife, Coastal, and Park Land Conservation Fund of 1988 and loans from the 1988 Water Conservation Fund, thereby protecting the public health and safety, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 55

An act to amend Sections 311.2, 311.3, 311.4, 311.11, and 312.3 of the Penal Code, relating to sexual exploitation of children.

[Approved by Governor April 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State April 26, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 311.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

311.2. (a) Every person who knowingly sends or causes to be sent, or brings or causes to be brought, into this state for sale or distribution, or in this state possesses, prepares, publishes, produces, or prints, with intent to distribute or to exhibit to others, or who offers to distribute, distributes, or exhibits to others, any obscene matter is for a first offense, guilty of a misdemeanor. If the person has previously been convicted of any violation of this section, the court may, in addition to the punishment authorized in Section 311.9, impose a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(b) Every person who knowingly sends or causes to be sent, or brings or causes to be brought, into this state for sale or distribution, or in this state possesses, prepares, publishes, produces, develops, duplicates, or prints, with intent to distribute or to exhibit to, or to exchange with, others for commercial consideration, or who offers to distribute, distributes, or exhibits to, or exchanges with, others for commercial consideration, any obscene matter, knowing that the matter depicts a person under the age of 18 years personally engaging in or personally simulating sexual conduct, as defined in Section 311.4, is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in state prison for two, three, or six years, or by a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), in the absence of a finding that the defendant would be incapable of paying such a fine, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(c) Every person who knowingly sends or causes to be sent, or brings or causes to be brought, into this state for sale or distribution, or in this state possesses, prepares, publishes, produces, develops, duplicates, or prints, with intent to distribute or to exhibit to, or to exchange with, a person 18 years of age or older, or who offers to distribute, distributes, or exhibits to, or exchanges with, a person 18 years of age or older any matter, knowing that the matter depicts a person under the age of 18 years personally engaging in or personally simulating sexual conduct, as defined in Section 311.4, is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for up to one year, or by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by both such fine and imprisonment. It is not necessary to prove commercial consideration or that the matter is obscene in order to establish a violation of this subdivision. If a person has been previously convicted of a violation of this subdivision, he or she is guilty of a felony.

(d) Every person who knowingly sends or causes to be sent, or brings or causes to be brought, into this state for sale or distribution, or in this state possesses, prepares, publishes, produces, develops, duplicates, or prints, with intent to distribute or to exhibit to, or to exchange with, a person under 18 years of age, or who offers to distribute, distributes, or exhibits to, or exchanges with, a person under 18 years of age any matter, knowing that the matter depicts a person under the age of 18 years personally engaging in or personally simulating sexual conduct, as defined in Section 311.4, is guilty of a felony. It is not necessary to prove commercial consideration or that the matter is obscene in order to establish a violation of this subdivision.

(e) Subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, shall not apply to the activities of law enforcement and prosecuting agencies in the investigation and prosecution of criminal offenses or to legitimate medical, scientific, or educational activities, or to lawful conduct between spouses.

(f) This section shall not apply to matter which depicts a child under the age of 18, which child is legally emancipated, including lawful conduct between spouses when one or both are under the age of 18.

(g) It does not constitute a violation of this section for a telephone corporation, as defined by Section 234 of the Public Utilities Code, to carry or transmit messages described in this chapter or perform related activities in providing telephone services.

SEC. 2. Section 311.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

311.3. (a) A person is guilty of sexual exploitation of a child when he or she knowingly develop, duplicate, print, or exchange any film, photograph, video tape, negative, or slide in which a person under the age of 18 years engaged in an act of sexual conduct.

(b) As used in this section "sexual conduct" means any of the following:

(1) Sexual intercourse, including genital-genital, oral-genital, anal-genital, or oral-anal, whether between persons of the same or opposite sex or between humans and animals.

(2) Penetration of the vagina or rectum by any object.

(3) Masturbation, for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer.

(4) Sadoomasochistic abuse for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer.

(5) Exhibition of the genitals, pubic or rectal areas of any person for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer.

(6) Defecation or urination for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer.

(c) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to the activities of law enforcement and prosecution agencies in the investigation and prosecution of criminal offenses or to legitimate medical, scientific, or educational activities, or to lawful conduct between spouses.

(d) Every person who violates subdivision (a) is punishable by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. If such person has been previously convicted of a violation of subdivision (a) or any section of this chapter, he or she is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison.

(e) The provisions of this section shall not apply to an employee of a commercial film developer who is acting within the scope of his employment and in accordance with the instructions of his employer, provided that the employee has no financial interest in the commercial developer by which he is employed.

SEC. 3. Section 311.4 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

311.4. (a) Every person who, with knowledge that a person is a minor, or who, while in possession of any facts on the basis of which he or she should reasonably know that the person is a minor, hires, employs, or uses the minor to do or assist in doing any of the acts described in Section 311.2, is, for a first offense, guilty of a misdemeanor. If the person has previously been convicted of a violation of this section, the court may, in addition to the punishment authorized in Section 311.9, impose a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(b) Every person who, with knowledge that a person is a minor under the age of 18 years, or who, while in possession of any facts on the basis of which he or she should reasonably know that the person is a minor under the age of 18 years, knowingly promotes, employs, uses, persuades, induces, or coerces a minor under the age of 18 years, or any parent or guardian of a minor under the age of 18 years under his or her control who knowingly permits the minor, to engage in or assist others to engage in either posing or modeling alone or with others for purposes of preparing a film, photograph, negative, slide, or live performance involving sexual conduct by a minor under the age of 18 years alone or with other persons or animals, for commercial purposes, is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for three, six, or eight years.

(c) Every person who, with knowledge that a person is a minor under the age of 18 years, or who, while in possession of any facts on the basis of which he or she should reasonably know that the person is a minor under the age of 18 years, knowingly promotes, employs, uses, persuades, induces, or coerces a minor under the age of 18 years, or any parent or guardian of a minor under the age of 18 years under his or her control who knowingly permits the minor, to engage in or assist others to engage in either posing or modeling alone or with others for purposes of preparing a film, photograph, negative, slide, or live performance involving sexual conduct by a minor under the age of 18 years alone or with other persons or animals, is guilty of a felony. It shall not be necessary to prove commercial purposes in order to establish a violation of this subdivision.

(d) As used in subdivisions (b) and (c), "sexual conduct" means any of the following, whether actual or simulated: sexual intercourse, oral copulation, anal intercourse, anal oral copulation, masturbation, bestiality, sexual sadism, sexual masochism, penetration of the vagina or rectum by any object in a lewd or lascivious manner, exhibition of the genitals, pubic, or rectal area for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer, any lewd or lascivious sexual act as defined in Section 288, or excretory functions performed in a lewd or lascivious manner, whether or not any of the above conduct is performed alone or between members of the same or opposite sex or between humans and animals. An act is simulated when it gives the appearance of being sexual conduct.

(e) This section shall not apply where the minor is legally emancipated, including lawful conduct between spouses when one or both are under the age of 18.

(f) In every prosecution under this section involving a minor under the age of 14 years at the time of the offense, the age of the victim shall be pled and proven for the purpose of the enhanced penalty provided in Section 647a. Failure to plead and prove that the victim was under the age of 14 years at the time of the offense shall not be a bar to prosecution under this section if it is proven that the victim was under the age of 18 years at the time of the offense.

SEC. 4. Section 311.11 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

311.11. (a) Every person who knowingly possesses or controls any matter, the production of which involves the use of a person under the age of 18 years, knowing that the matter depicts a person under the age of 18 years personally engaging in or simulating sexual conduct, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 311.4, is guilty of a public offense and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for up to one year, or by a fine not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) If a person has been previously convicted of a violation of this section, he or she is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment of two, four, or six years.

(c) It is not necessary to prove that the matter is obscene in order to establish a violation of this section.

(d) For purposes of this section, matter as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 311, also includes developed or undeveloped film, negatives, photocopies, filmstrips, slides, and videotapes, the production of which involves the use of a child under the age of 18 years. This section shall not apply to drawings, figurines, statues, or any film rated by the Motion Picture Association of America, nor shall it apply to live or recorded telephone messages when transmitted, disseminated, or distributed as part of a commercial transaction.

SEC. 5. Section 312.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

312.3. (a) Matter which depicts a person under the age of 18 years personally engaging in or personally simulating sexual conduct as defined in Section 311.4 and which is in the possession of any city, county, city and county, or state official or agency is subject to forfeiture pursuant to this section.

(b) An action to forfeit matter described in subdivision (a) may be brought by the Attorney General, the district attorney, county counsel, or the city attorney. Proceedings shall be initiated by a petition of forfeiture filed in the superior court of the county in which the matter is located.

(c) The prosecuting agency shall make service of process of a notice regarding that petition upon every individual who may have a property interest in the alleged proceeds, which notice shall state that any interested party may file a verified claim with the superior court stating the amount of their claimed interest and an affirmation or denial of the prosecuting agency's allegation. If the notices cannot be given by registered mail or personal delivery, the notice shall be published for at least three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the property is located. All notices shall set forth the time within which a claim of interest in the property seized is required to be filed.

(d) (1) Any person claiming an interest in the property or proceeds may, at any time within 30 days from the date of the first publication of the notice of seizure, or within 30 days after receipt of actual notice, file with the superior court of the county in which the action is pending a verified claim stating his or her interest in the property or proceeds. A verified copy of the claim shall be given by the claimant to the Attorney General or district attorney, county counsel, or city attorney, as appropriate.

(2) If, at the end of the time set forth in paragraph (1), an interested person has not filed a claim, the court, upon motion, shall declare that the person has defaulted upon his or her alleged interest, and it shall be subject to forfeiture upon proof of compliance with subdivision (c).

(e) The burden shall be on the petitioner to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that matter is subject to forfeiture pursuant to this section.

(f) It shall not be necessary to seek or obtain a criminal conviction prior to the entry of an order for the destruction of matter pursuant to this section. Any matter described in subdivision (a) which is in the possession of any city, county, city and county, or state official or agency, including found property, or property obtained as the result of a case in which no trial was had or which has been disposed of by way of dismissal or otherwise than by way of conviction may be ordered destroyed.

(g) A court order for destruction of matter described in subdivision (a) may be carried out by a police or sheriff's department or by the Department of Justice. The court order shall specify the agency responsible for the destruction.

(h) As used in this section, "matter" means any book, magazine, newspaper, or other printed or written material or any picture, drawing, photograph, motion picture, or other pictorial representation, or any statue or other figure, or any recording, transcription or mechanical, chemical or electrical reproduction, or any other articles, equipment, machines, or materials.

(i) This section shall not apply where the minor depicted is lawfully emancipated, including lawful conduct between spouses when one or more are under the age of 18.

(j) It shall be a defense in any forfeiture proceeding that the matter seized was lawfully possessed in aid of legitimate scientific or educational purposes.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for these costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 56

An act to amend Section 3701 of the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation.

[Approved by Governor April 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State April 26, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3701 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3701. (a) Each year every private self-insuring employer shall secure incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation and the performance of the obligations of employers imposed under this chapter by renewing the prior year's security deposit or by making a new deposit of security. If a new deposit is made, it shall be posted within 60 days of the filing of the self-insured employer's annual report with the director, but in no event later than May 1.

(b) The minimum deposit shall be 125 percent of the private self-insurer's estimated future liability for compensation to secure payment of compensation plus 10 percent of the private self-insurer's estimated future liability for compensation to secure payment of all administrative and legal costs relating to or arising from the employer's self-insuring. In no event shall the security deposit for the incurred liabilities for compensation be less than two hundred twenty thousand dollars ($220,000).

(c) In determining the amount of the deposit required to secure incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation and the performance of obligations of a self-insured employer imposed under this chapter, the director shall offset estimated future liabilities for the same claims covered by a self-insured plan under the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (33 U.S.C. Sec. 901 et seq.), but in no event shall the offset exceed the estimated future liabilities for the claims under this chapter.

(d) The director may only accept as security, and the employer shall deposit as security, cash, securities, surety bonds, or irrevocable letters of credit in any combination the director, in his or her discretion, deems adequate security. The current deposit shall include any amounts covered by terminated surety bonds or excess insurance policies, as shall be set forth in regulations adopted by the director pursuant to Section 3702.10.

(e) Surety bonds, irrevocable letters of credit, and documents showing issuance of any irrevocable letter of credit shall be deposited with, and be in a form approved by, the director, shall be exonerated only according to its terms and, in no event, by the posting of additional security.

(f) The director may accept as security a joint security deposit that secures an employer's obligation under this chapter and that also secures that employer's obligations under the federal Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act.

(g) The liability of the Self-Insurers' Security Fund, with respect to any claims brought under both this chapter and under the federal Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, to pay for shortfalls in a security deposit shall be limited to the amount of claim liability owing the employee under this chapter offset by the amount of any claim liability owing under the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, but in no event shall the liability of the fund exceed the claim liability under this chapter. The employee shall be entitled to pursue recovery under either or both the state and federal programs.

(h) Securities shall be deposited on behalf of the director by the self-insured employer with the Treasurer. Securities shall be accepted by the Treasurer for deposit and shall be withdrawn only upon written order of the director.

(i) Cash shall be deposited in a financial institution approved by the director, and in the account assigned to the director. Cash shall be withdrawn only upon written order of the director.

(j) Upon the sending by the director of a request to renew, request to post, or request to increase or decrease a security deposit, a perfected security interest is created in the private self-insured's assets in favor of the director to the extent of any then unsecured portion of the self-insured's incurred liabilities. That perfected security interest is transferred to any cash or securities thereafter posted by the private self-insured with the director and is released only upon either of the following:

(1) The acceptance by the director of a surety bond or irrevocable letter of credit for the full amount of the incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation.

(2) The return of cash or securities by the director.

The private self-insured employer loses all right, title, and interest in, and any right to control, all assets or obligations posted or left on deposit as security. The director may liquidate the deposit as provided in Section 3701.5 and apply it to the self-insured employer's incurred liabilities either directly or through the Self-Insurers' Security Fund.

CHAPTER 57

An act to amend Section 361.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor April 26, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State April 26, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 361.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

361.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), whenever a minor is removed from a parent's or guardian's custody, the juvenile court shall order the probation officer to provide child welfare services to the minor and the minor's parents or guardians for the purpose of facilitating reunification of the family within a maximum time period not to exceed 12 months. The court also shall make findings pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 366. When counseling or other treatment services are ordered, the parent or guardian shall be ordered to participate in those services, unless the parent's or guardian's participation is deemed by the court to be inappropriate or potentially detrimental to the child. Services may be extended up to an additional six months if it can be shown that the objectives of the service plan can be achieved within the extended time period. Physical custody of the minor by the parents or guardians during the 18-month period shall not serve to interrupt the running of the period. If at the end of the 18-month period, a child cannot be safely returned to the care and custody of a parent or guardian without court supervision, but the child clearly desires contact with the parent or guardian, the court shall take the child's desire into account in devising a permanency plan.

Except in cases where, pursuant to subdivision (b), the court does not order reunification services, the court shall inform the parent or parents of Section 366.25 or 366.26 and shall specify that the parent's or parents' parental rights may be terminated.

(b) Reunification services need not be provided to a parent or guardian described in this subdivision when the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, any of the following:

(1) That the whereabouts of the parent or guardian is unknown. A finding pursuant to this paragraph shall be supported by an affidavit or by proof that a reasonably diligent search has failed to locate the parent or guardian. The posting or publication of notices is not required in that search.

(2) That the parent or guardian is suffering from a mental disability that is described in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7820) of Part 4 of Division 12 of the Family Code and that renders him or her incapable of utilizing those services.

(3) That the minor had been previously adjudicated a dependent pursuant to any subdivision of Section 300 as a result of physical or sexual abuse, that following that adjudication the minor had been removed from the custody of his or her parent or guardian pursuant to Section 361, that the minor has been returned to the custody of the parent or parents or guardian or guardians from whom the minor had been taken originally, and that the minor is being removed pursuant to Section 361, due to additional physical or sexual abuse. However, this section is not applicable if the jurisdiction of the juvenile court has been dismissed prior to the additional abuse.

(4) That the parent or guardian of the minor has been convicted of causing the death of another child through abuse or neglect.

(5) That the minor was brought within the jurisdiction of the court under subdivision (e) of Section 300 because of the conduct of that parent or guardian.

(6) That the minor has been adjudicated a dependent pursuant to any subdivision of Section 300 as a result of severe sexual abuse or the infliction of severe physical harm by a parent or guardian, as defined in this subdivision, and the court makes a factual finding that it would not benefit the child to pursue reunification services with the offending parent or guardian.

A finding of severe sexual abuse, for the purposes of this subdivision, may be based on, but is not limited to, sexual intercourse or stimulation involving genital-genital, oral-genital, anal-genital, or oral-anal contact, whether between the parent or guardian and the child, or between the child and another person or animal with the actual or implied consent of, and for the financial gain or other advantage of, the parent or guardian; or the penetration or manipulation of the child's genital organs or rectum by any animate or inanimate object, for the sexual gratification of the parent or guardian, or for the sexual gratification of another person with the actual or implied consent of, and for the financial gain or other advantage of, the parent or guardian.

A finding of the infliction of severe physical harm, for the purposes of this subdivision, may be based on, but is not limited to, deliberate and serious injury inflicted to or on a child's body by an act or omission of the parent or guardian, or of another individual or animal with the consent of the parent or guardian; deliberate and torturous confinement of the child in a closed space; or any other torturous act or omission which would be reasonably understood to cause serious emotional damage.

(7) That the minor was conceived by means of the commission of an offense listed in Section 288 or 288.5 of the Penal Code, or by an act committed outside this state which if committed in this state would constitute such an offense. This paragraph only applies to the parent who perpetrated the offense or act.

(c) In deciding whether to order reunification in any case in which this section applies, the court shall hold a dispositional hearing. The probation officer shall prepare a report which discusses whether reunification services shall be provided. When it is alleged, pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), that the parent is incapable of utilizing services due to mental disability, the court shall order reunification services unless competent evidence from mental health professionals establishes that, even with the provision of services, the parent is unlikely to be capable of adequately caring for the child within 12 months.

When paragraph (3), (4), or (5), inclusive, of subdivision (b) is applicable, the court shall not order reunification unless it finds that, based on competent testimony, those services are likely to prevent reabuse or continued neglect of the child or that failure to try reunification will be detrimental to the child because the child is closely and positively attached to that parent. The probation officer shall investigate the circumstances leading to the removal of the minor and advise the court whether there are circumstances which indicate that reunification is likely to be successful or unsuccessful and whether failure to order reunification is likely to be detrimental to the child.

The failure of the parent to respond to previous services, the fact that the child was abused while the parent was under the influence of drugs or alcohol, a past history of violent behavior, or testimony by a competent professional that the parent's behavior is unlikely to be changed by services are among the factors indicating that reunification services are unlikely to be successful. The fact that a parent or guardian is no longer living with an individual who severely abused the minor may be considered in deciding that reunification services are likely to be successful, provided that the court shall consider any pattern of behavior on the part of the parent that has exposed the child to repeated abuse.

The court shall not order reunification for a parent who perpetrated an offense or act specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) unless the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that reunification is in the best interest of the minor.

(d) If reunification services are not ordered pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) and the whereabouts of a parent become known within six months of the out-of-home placement of the minor, the court shall order the probation officer to provide family reunification services in accordance with this subdivision. However, the time limits specified in subdivision (a) and Section 366.25 are not tolled by the parent's absence.

(e) (1) If the parent or guardian is incarcerated or institutionalized, the court shall order reasonable services unless the court determines, by clear and convincing evidence, those services would be detrimental to the minor. In determining detriment, the court shall consider the age of the child, the degree of parent-child bonding, the length of the sentence, the nature of the treatment, the nature of crime or illness, the degree of detriment to the child if services are not offered and, for minors 10 years of age or older, the minor's attitude toward the implementation of family reunification services, and any other appropriate factors. Reunification services are subject to the 18-month limitation imposed in subdivision (a). Services may include, but shall not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) Maintaining contact between parent and child through collect phone calls.

(B) Transportation services, where appropriate.

(C) Visitation services, where appropriate.

(D) Reasonable services to extended family members or foster parents providing care for the child if the services are not detrimental to the child.

An incarcerated parent may be required to attend counseling, parenting classes, or vocational training programs as part of the service plan if these programs are available.

(2) The presiding judge of the juvenile court of each county may convene representatives of the county welfare department, the sheriff's department, and other appropriate entities for the purpose of developing and entering into protocols for ensuring the notification, transportation, and presence of an incarcerated or institutionalized parent at all court hearings involving proceedings affecting the minor pursuant to Section 2625 of the Penal Code.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the incarcerated parent is a woman seeking to participate in the community treatment program operated by the Department of Corrections pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 3410) of Title 2 of Part 3 of the Penal Code, the court shall determine whether the parent's participation in a program is in the child's best interest and whether it is suitable to meet the needs of the parent and child.

(f) If a court, pursuant to paragraph (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), or (7) of subdivision (b) or paragraph (1) of subdivision (e), does not order reunification services, it shall conduct a hearing pursuant to Section 366.25 or 366.26 within 120 days of the dispositional hearing. However, the court shall not schedule a hearing so long as the other parent is being provided reunification services pursuant to subdivision (a). The court may continue to permit the parent to visit the minor unless it finds that visitation would be detrimental to the minor.

(g) Whenever a court orders that a hearing shall be held pursuant to Section 366.25 or 366.26 it shall direct the agency supervising the child and the licensed county adoption agency, or the State Department of Social Services when it is acting as an adoption agency in counties which are not served by a county adoption agency, to prepare an assessment which shall include:

(1) Current search efforts for an absent parent or parents.

(2) A review of the amount of and nature of any contact between the minor and his or her parents since the time of placement.

(3) An evaluation of the minor's medical, developmental, scholastic, mental, and emotional status.

(4) A preliminary assessment of the eligibility and commitment of any identified prospective adoptive parent or guardian, particularly the caretaker, to include a social history including screening for criminal records and prior referrals for child abuse or neglect, the capability to meet the minor's needs, and the understanding of the legal and financial rights and responsibilities of adoption and guardianship.

(5) The relationship of the minor to any identified prospective adoptive parent or guardian, the duration and character of the relationship, the motivation for seeking adoption or guardianship, and a statement from the minor concerning placement and the adoption or guardianship, unless the minor's age or physical, emotional, or other condition precludes his or her meaningful response, and if so, a description of the condition.

(6) An analysis of the likelihood that the minor will be adopted if parental rights are terminated.

(h) In determining whether reunification services will benefit the child pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (b), the court shall consider any information it deems relevant, including the following factors:

(1) The specific act or omission comprising the severe sexual abuse or the severe physical harm inflicted on the child.

(2) The circumstances under which the abuse or harm was inflicted on the child.

(3) The severity of the emotional trauma suffered by the child.

(4) Any history of abuse of other children by the offending parent or guardian.

(5) The likelihood that the child may be safely returned to the care of the offending parent or guardian within 18 months with no continuing supervision.

(6) Whether or not the child desires to be reunified with the offending parent or guardian.

(i) The court shall read into the record the basis for a finding of severe sexual abuse or the infliction of severe physical harm under paragraph (6) of subdivision (b), and shall also specify the factual findings used to determine that the provision of reunification services to the offending parent or guardian would not benefit the child.

CHAPTER 58

An act to amend Sections 636, 34501.12, 34505.5, 34505.6, and 40000.21 of, and to add and repeal Section 34505.9 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor April 26, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 26, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 636 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

636. A "trailer bus" is a trailer or semitrailer designed, used, or maintained for the transportation of more than 15 persons, including the driver, and includes a connected towing motor vehicle that is a motor truck, truck tractor, or bus.

SEC. 2. Section 34501.12 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

34501.12. (a) Notwithstanding Section 408, as used in this section and Sections 34505.5 and 34505.6, "motor carrier" means the registered owner of any vehicle described in subdivision (a), (b), (e), (f), or (g) of Section 34500, except in the following circumstances:

(1) The registered owner leases the vehicle to another person for a term of more than four months. If the lease is for more than four months, the lessee is the motor carrier.

(2) The registered owner operates the vehicle exclusively under the authority and direction of another person. If the operation is exclusively under the authority and direction of another person, that other person may assume the responsibilities as the motor carrier. If not so assumed, the registered owner is the motor carrier. A person who assumes the motor carrier responsibilities of another pursuant to subdivision (b) shall provide to that other person whose motor carrier responsibility is so assumed, a completed copy of a department form documenting that assumption, stating the period for which responsibility is assumed, and signed by an agent of the assuming person. A legible copy shall be carried in each vehicle or combination of vehicles operated on the highway during the period for which responsibility is assumed. That copy shall be presented upon request by any authorized employee of the department. The original completed departmental form documenting the assumption shall be provided to the department within 30 days of the assumption. If the assumption of responsibility is terminated, the person who had assumed responsibility shall so notify the department in writing within 30 days of the termination.

(b) (1) A motor carrier may combine two or more terminals for purposes of the inspection required by subdivision (d) subject to all of the following conditions:

(A) The carrier identifies to the department, in writing, each terminal proposed to be included in the combination of terminals for purposes of this subdivision prior to an inspection of the designated terminal pursuant to subdivision (d).

(B) The carrier provides the department, prior to the inspection of the designated terminal pursuant to subdivision (d) a written listing of all its vehicles of a type subject to subdivision (a), (b), (e), (f), or (g) of Section 34500 which are based at each of the terminals combined for purposes of this subdivision. The listing shall specify the number of vehicles of each type at each terminal.

(C) The carrier provides to the department at the designated terminal during the inspection all maintenance records and driver records and a representative sample of vehicles based at each of the terminals included within the combination of terminals.

(2) If the carrier fails to provide the maintenance records, driver records, and representative sample of vehicles pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1), the department shall assign the carrier an unsatisfactory terminal rating and require a reinspection to be conducted pursuant to subdivision (h).

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given:

(A) "Driver records" includes pull notice system records, driver proficiency records, and driver timekeeping records.

(B) "Maintenance records" includes all required maintenance, lubrication, and repair records and drivers' daily vehicle condition reports.

(C) "Representative sample" means the following, applied separately to the carrier's fleet of motor trucks and truck tractors and its fleet of trailers:

Fleet Size	Representative Sample
1 or 2	All
3 to 8	3
9 to 15	4
16 to 25	6
26 to 50	9
91 or more	20

(c) Each motor carrier who, in this state, directs the operation of, or maintains, any vehicle of a type described in subdivision (a) shall designate one or more terminals, as defined in Section 34515, in this state where vehicles can be inspected by the department pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 34501 and where vehicle inspection and maintenance records and driver records will be made available for inspection.

(d) The department shall inspect, at least every 25 months, every terminal, as defined in Section 34515, of any motor carrier who, at any time, operates any vehicle described in subdivision (a).

As used in this section and in Sections 34505.5 and 34505.6, subdivision (f) of Section 34500 includes only those combinations where the gross vehicle weight rating (GVWR) of the towing vehicle exceeds 10,100 pounds, and subdivision (g) of Section 34500 includes only those vehicles transporting hazardous material for which the display of placards is required pursuant to Section 27903, a license is required pursuant to Section 32000.5, or for which hazardous waste hauler registration is required pursuant to Section 25163 of the Health and Safety Code. Historical vehicles, as described in Section 5004, vehicles which display special identification plates in accordance with Section 5011, implements of husbandry, as defined in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 36000) of Division 16, and vehicles owned or operated by an agency of the federal government are not subject to this section or to Sections 34505.5 and 34505.6.

(e) (1) It is the responsibility of the motor carrier to schedule with the department the inspection required by subdivision (d). The motor carrier shall submit an application form supplied by the department, accompanied by the required fee. The fee, which is nonrefundable, is four hundred dollars ($400) per terminal, except in the case of an owner-operator, as defined in Section 3557 of the Public Utilities Code, or a nonregulated motor carrier who owns, leases, or otherwise operates not more than one heavy power unit and not more than three towed vehicles described in subdivision (a), (b), (e), (f), or (g) of Section 34500, for which the fee shall be one hundred dollars ($100). Federal, state, and local public entities are exempt from the fee requirements of this section.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (4), the inspection term for each inspected terminal of a motor carrier shall expire 25 months from the date the terminal receives a satisfactory compliance rating, as specified in subdivision (h). Applications and fees for subsequent inspections shall be submitted not earlier than nine months and not later than seven months before the expiration of the motor carrier's then current inspection term. If the motor carrier has submitted the inspection application and the required accompanying fees, but the department is unable to complete the inspection within the 25-month inspection period, then no additional fee shall be required for the inspection requested in the original application.

(3) All fees collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund. An amount equal to the fees collected shall be available for appropriation by the Legislature from the Motor Vehicle Account to the department for the purpose of conducting truck terminal inspections and for the additional roadside safety inspections required by Section 34514.

(4) To avoid the scheduling of a renewal terminal inspection pursuant to this section during a carrier's seasonal peak business periods, the current inspection term of a terminal that has paid all required fees and has been rated satisfactory in its last inspection may be reduced by not more than nine months if a written request is submitted by the carrier to the department at least four months prior to the desired inspection month, or at the time of payment of renewal inspection fees in compliance with paragraph (2), whichever date is earlier. A motor carrier may request this adjustment of the inspection term during any inspection cycle. A request made pursuant to this paragraph shall not result in a fee proration and does not relieve the carrier from the requirements of paragraph (2).

(f) It is unlawful for a motor carrier to operate any vehicle subject to this section without having submitted an inspection application and the required fees to the department as required by subdivision (e) or (h).

(g) On and after July 1, 1992, it is unlawful for any motor carrier to operate any vehicle subject to this section after submitting an inspection application to the department, without the inspection described in subdivision (d) having been performed and a safety compliance report having been issued to the motor carrier within the 25-month inspection period or within 60 days immediately preceding the inspection period.

(h) (1) Any inspected terminal that receives an unsatisfactory compliance rating shall be reinspected within 120 days after the issuance of the unsatisfactory compliance rating.

(2) A terminal's first required reinspection under this subdivision shall be without charge unless one or more of the following is established:

(A) The motor carrier's operation presented an imminent danger to public safety.

(B) The motor carrier was not in compliance with the requirement to enroll all drivers in the pull notice program pursuant to Section 1808.1.

(C) The motor carrier failed to provide all required records and vehicles for a consolidated inspection pursuant to subdivision (b).

(3) If the unsatisfactory rating was assigned for any of the reasons set forth in paragraph (2), the carrier shall submit the required fee as provided in paragraph (4).

(4) Applications for reinspection pursuant to paragraph (3) or for second and subsequent consecutive reinspections under this subdivision shall be accompanied by the fee specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) and shall be filed within 60 days of issuance of the unsatisfactory compliance rating. The reinspection fee is nonrefundable.

(5) When a motor carrier's Public Utilities Commission operating authority is suspended as a result of an unsatisfactory compliance rating, the department shall conduct no reinspection until requested to do so by the Public Utilities Commission.

(i) It is the intent of the Legislature that the department make its best efforts to inspect terminals within the resources provided. In the interest of the state, the Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol may extend for a period not to exceed six months the inspection terms beginning prior to July 1, 1990.

(j) To encourage truck terminal operators to attain continuous satisfactory compliance ratings, the department may establish and implement an incentive program consisting of the following:

(1) After the second consecutive satisfactory compliance rating assigned as a result of an inspection conducted pursuant to subdivision (d), and each consecutive satisfactory compliance rating thereafter, an appropriate certificate, denoting the number of consecutive satisfactory ratings, shall be awarded to the terminal.

(2) Unless the department's evaluation of the motor carrier's safety record indicates a declining level of compliance, a terminal that has attained two consecutive satisfactory compliance ratings assigned following inspections conducted pursuant to subdivision (d) is eligible for an administrative review in lieu of the next required inspection. An administrative review shall consist of all of the following:

(A) A signed request by a terminal management representative requesting the administrative review in lieu of the required inspection containing a promise to continue to maintain a satisfactory level of compliance for the next 25-month inspection term.

(B) A review with a terminal management representative of the carrier's record as contained in the department's files.

(C) Absent any cogent reasons to the contrary, upon completion of subparagraphs (A) and (B), the safety compliance rating assigned during the last required inspection shall be extended for 25 months.

(3) Administrative reviews may not be conducted consecutively. At the completion of the 25-month inspection term following an administrative review, a terminal inspection shall be conducted pursuant to subdivision (d). If this inspection results in a satisfactory compliance rating, the terminal shall again be eligible for an administrative review in lieu of the next required inspection. If the succession of satisfactory ratings is interrupted by a rating of other than satisfactory, the terminal shall again attain two consecutive satisfactory ratings to become eligible for an administrative review.

SEC. 3. Section 34505.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

34505.5. (a) Every motor carrier operating any vehicle described in subdivision (a), (b), (e), (f), or (g) of Section 34500, except those vehicles exempted under Section 34501.12, shall, as a part of the systematic inspection, maintenance, and lubrication services required of all motor carriers, require the vehicle or vehicles for which it is responsible pursuant to Section 34501.12 to be inspected at least every 90 days, or more often if necessary to ensure safe operation. Vehicles which are out of service for periods greater than 90 calendar days are not required to be inspected at 90-day intervals if they are inspected before operation on the highway. This inspection shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Brake adjustment.

(2) Brake system components and leaks.

- (3) Steering and suspension systems.
- (4) Tires and wheels.
- (5) Vehicle connecting devices.

(b) No vehicle subject to this section shall be operated on the highway other than to a place of repair until all defects listed during the inspection conducted pursuant to subdivision (a) have been corrected and attested to by the signature of the motor carrier's authorized representative.

(c) Records of inspections conducted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be kept at the motor carrier's terminals, as designated in accordance with Section 34501.12. The records shall be retained by the motor carrier for two years, and shall be made available for inspection upon request by any authorized employee of the department. Each record shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Identification of the vehicle, including make, model, license number, company vehicle number, or other means of positive identification.

(2) Date and nature of each inspection and any repair performed.

(3) Signature of the motor carrier's authorized representative attesting to the inspection and to the completion of all required repairs.

(d) Printouts of inspection and maintenance records maintained in computer systems shall be accepted in lieu of signed inspection or repair records if the printouts include the information required in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (c).

(e) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, records of 90-day inspections need not be retained in California for interstate vehicles which are not physically based in California. However, when these vehicles are present in California, they are subject to inspection by the department. If the inspection results indicate maintenance program deficiencies, the department may require the motor carrier to produce the maintenance records or copies of those records for inspection within 10 working days.

SEC. 4. Section 34505.6 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

34505.6. (a) Upon determining that a motor carrier operating any vehicle described in subdivision (a), (b), (e), (f), (g), or (k) of Section 34500 has done either of the following: (1) failed to maintain any vehicle used in transportation for compensation in a safe operating condition or to comply with the Vehicle Code or with regulations contained in Title 13 of the California Code of Regulations relative to motor carrier safety, and, in the department's opinion, that failure presents an imminent danger to public safety or constitutes a consistent failure as to justify a recommendation to the Public Utilities Commission or the Interstate Commerce Commission, or (2) failed to enroll all drivers in the pull notice system as required by Section 1808.1, the department shall recommend to the Public Utilities Commission that the carrier's operating authority be suspended, denied, or revoked, or to the federal Highway Administration Office of Motor Carriers, that appropriate administrative action be taken against the carrier's Interstate Commerce Commission operating authority, whichever is appropriate. For purposes of this subdivision, two consecutive unsatisfactory compliance ratings for an inspected terminal assigned because the motor carrier failed to comply with the periodic report requirements of Section 1808.1 or the cancellation of the carrier's enrollment by the Department of Motor Vehicles for nonpayment of required fees is a consistent failure. The department shall retain a record, by operator, of every recommendation made pursuant to this section.

(b) Before transmitting a recommendation pursuant to subdivision (a), the department shall notify the carrier in writing of all of the following:

(1) That the department has determined that the carrier's safety record is unsatisfactory, furnishing a copy of any documentation or summary of any other evidence supporting the determination.

(2) That the determination may result in a suspension, revocation, or denial of the carrier's operating authority by the California Public Utilities Commission or the Interstate Commerce Commission.

(3) That the carrier may request a review of the determination by the department within five days of its receipt of the notice required under this subdivision. If a review pursuant to this paragraph is requested by the carrier, the department shall conduct and evaluate that review prior to transmitting any notification pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 5. Section 34505.9 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

34505.9. (a) As used in this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) An "intermodal chassis" is a trailer designed for carrying intermodal freight containers.

(2) An "ocean marine terminal" is a terminal, as defined in Section 34515, located at a port facility that engages in the loading and unloading of the cargo of ocean-going vessels.

(b) An ocean marine terminal that receives and dispatches intermodal chassis may conduct the intermodal roadability inspection program, as described in this section, in lieu of the inspection required by Section 34505.5, if the terminal meets all of the following conditions:

(1) More than 1,000 chassis are based at the ocean marine terminal.

(2) The ocean marine terminal has, following the two most recent consecutive inspections required by Section 34501.12, received satisfactory compliance ratings.

(3) Each intermodal chassis exiting the ocean marine terminal shall have a current decal and supporting documentation in accordance with Section 396.17 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(4) The ocean marine terminal's intermodal roadability inspection program consists of all of the following:

(A) Each time an intermodal chassis is released from the ocean marine terminal, the chassis shall be inspected. The inspection shall include, but not be limited to, brake adjustment, brake system components and leaks, suspension systems, tires and wheels, vehicle connecting devices, and lights and electrical system.

(B) Each inspection shall be recorded on a daily roadability inspection report, which shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(i) Positive identification of the intermodal chassis, including company identification number.

(ii) Date and nature of each inspection.

(iii) Signature of the ocean marine terminal operator or an authorized representative.

(C) Records of each inspection conducted pursuant to subparagraph (A) shall be retained for 90 days at the ocean marine terminal at which each chassis is based and shall be made available upon request by any authorized employee of the department.

(D) Defects noted on any intermodal chassis shall be repaired, and the repairs shall be recorded on the intermodal chassis maintenance file, before the intermodal chassis is released from the control of the ocean marine terminal. No vehicle subject to this section shall be operated on the highway other than to a place of repair until all defects listed during the inspection conducted pursuant to subparagraph (A) have been corrected and attested to by the signature of the operator's authorized representative.

(E) Records of maintenance or repairs performed pursuant to the inspection in subparagraph (A) shall be maintained at the ocean marine terminal for two years and shall be made available upon request of the department. Repair records may be retained in a computer system if printouts of those records are provided to the department upon request.

(F) Individuals performing ocean marine terminal roadability inspections pursuant to this section shall, at a minimum, be qualified as set forth in Section 396.19 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Evidence of each inspector's qualification shall be retained by the ocean marine terminal operator for the period during which the inspector is performing intermodal roadability inspections.

(c) Following a terminal inspection in which the department determines an operator of an ocean marine terminal utilizing the intermodal roadability inspection program has failed to comply with the requirements of this section, the department shall conduct a reinspection within 120 days as specified in subdivision (h) of Section 34501.12. If the terminal fails the reinspection, the department shall direct the operator to comply with the requirements of Section 34505.5 until eligibility to utilize the inspection program described in this section is reestablished pursuant to subdivision (b). If any inspection results in an unsatisfactory rating due to conditions presenting an imminent danger to the public safety, as described in Section 34505.6, the department immediately shall direct the operator to comply with the requirements of Section 34505.5 until eligibility to utilize the inspection program described in this section is reestablished pursuant to subdivision (b).

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 40000.21 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40000.21. A violation of any of the following provisions is a misdemeanor, and not an infraction:

(a) Subdivision (a) of Section 34506, relating to the hours of service of drivers.

(b) Subdivision (b) of Section 34506, relating to the transportation of hazardous materials.

(c) Subdivision (c) of Section 34506, relating to schoolbuses.

(d) Subdivision (d) of Section 34506, relating to youth buses.

(e) Section 34505 or subdivision (e) of Section 34506, relating to tour buses.

(f) Section 34505.5 or subdivision (f) of Section 34506, relating to vehicles described in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) of Section 34500.

(g) Subdivision (a) of Section 34501.3, relating to unlawful scheduling of runs by motor carriers.

(h) Subdivision (g) of Section 34506, relating to school pupil activity buses.

(i) Subparagraph (D) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 34505.9, relating to intermodal chassis.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide, at the earliest possible time, for safety inspections of vehicles so that there will be fewer accidents and safer highway conditions, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 59

An act to amend Section 11857.1 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to the Sacramento Municipal Utility District.

[Approved by Governor April 26, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State April 26, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11857.1 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

11857.1. To effectuate the increase as provided in Section 11857, the board of directors in office on January 1, 1994, shall, by resolution or ordinance adopted within 90 days after that date, divide the territory of the district into seven wards, and fix the boundaries thereof. The boundaries shall be fixed so that the wards are as equal in population as may be.

CHAPTER 60

An act to amend Sections 19596, 19602, 19605.4, 19616.1, and 25503.26 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to events, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 3, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 3, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19596 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19596. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may do any of the following:

(1) Authorize an association conducting a racing meeting in this state to accept wagers on the results of out-of-state feature races having a gross purse of at least one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) during the period the association is conducting the racing meeting on days when live races are being run.

(2) Authorize an association in this state to accept wagers on any stakes race conducted by the racing association that conducts the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness Stakes, or the Belmont Stakes, if the stakes race is conducted on the same day as the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness Stakes, or the Belmont Stakes, and if the association in this state that accepts those wagers is then conducting a live racing meeting.

(3) Authorize the inclusion of wagers authorized pursuant to this section in the parimutuel pools of the out-of-state association that conducts the races on which the wagers are placed.

(b) The board authorization may be granted under this section only if both of the following conditions are met:

(1) The authorization complies with federal laws, including, but not limited to, Chapter 57 (commencing with Section 3001) of Title 15 of the United States Code.

(2) Wagering is offered only within the racing enclosure and only within seven days of the running of the out-of-state feature race.

SEC. 2. Section 19602 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19602. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any racing association in this state may authorize betting systems located outside of this state to accept wagers on a race or races conducted or disseminated by that association and may transmit live audiovisual signals of the race or races and their results to those betting systems, except that any authorization is subject to the consent of the host association and applicable federal laws, including, but not limited to, Chapter 57 (commencing with Section 3001) of Title 15 of the United States Code.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), any racing association described in subdivision (a), when it authorizes betting systems located outside of this state to accept wagers on a race, shall pay a license fee to the state in an amount equal to 8 percent of the total amount received by the association from the out-of-state betting system. In addition, with respect to thoroughbred racing only, 3 percent of the amount remaining after the payment of the license fee shall be deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2, and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2. The remaining amount received by the association shall be distributed to the association that conducts the racing meeting and to horsemen participating in that racing meeting as follows: 50 percent to the association as commissions, and 50 percent to the horsemen as purses. All rents, costs, and fees shall be deducted pursuant to a contract between the association that conducts the racing meeting and the horsemen participating in the racing meeting. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, racing associations may form a partnership, joint venture, or any other affiliation in order to negotiate terms and conditions of agreements with out-of-state betting systems.

(2) A thoroughbred association that hosts the series of races known as the "Breeder's Cup" shall not be required to pay to the state the license fees required pursuant to paragraph (1). Amounts received by the association from out-of-state betting systems as wagers on Breeder's Cup races shall be distributed as follows: 50 percent as commissions to the association that conducts the racing meeting, and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the meeting.

(c) With the permission of the board, wagers accepted by betting systems located outside of this state may be, but are not required to be, included in the parimutuel pool of the association that conducts the racing meeting in this state. If the wagers accepted by betting systems located outside of this state are included in the parimutuel pool of the association that conducts the racing meeting in this state, the betting system located outside of this state shall, if permissible under applicable law, deduct from the total amount handled in each conventional and exotic parimutuel pool the same total percentages deducted pursuant to Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 19610) by the association that conducts the racing meeting in this state. If the laws of the jurisdiction in which the betting system is located do not permit the betting system to deduct the same percentages as are deducted by the association that conducts the racing, the board may, nonetheless, permit the inclusion of those out-of-state wagers in the association's parimutuel pool if the board determines it to be in the public interest of this state to do so.

(d) If wagers accepted by an association conducting racing within the state and wagers accepted by a betting system located outside of the state are combined in one parimutuel pool and the association and the betting system both deduct the same total percentages as set forth in subdivision (c), the breakage shall be allocated between the association and the betting system on the basis of a calculation for distribution approved by the board.

(e) If wagers accepted by an association conducting racing within the state are combined in one parimutuel pool with wagers accepted by a betting system located outside the state and the association and the betting system deduct different percentages from the amount handled in the parimutuel pool, the precise calculation and distribution of payments on winning tickets and breakage between the association and the betting system shall be on the basis of a calculation for distribution approved by the board.

(f) The board shall report to the Department of Finance whenever it approves a calculation for distribution pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) and the projected impact of that calculation, if any, on state revenues.

(g) Breakage allocated pursuant to this section to an association conducting racing within this state shall be distributed in the same manner as would be breakage arising from wagers at the association in the absence of a combined parimutuel pool. This section does not apply to the disposition of breakage allocated to the betting system located outside of the state.

(h) If wagers accepted by a betting system located outside of this state are included in the parimutuel pool of an association conducting racing in this state, funds in the parimutuel pool attributable to unclaimed tickets relating to wagers accepted by the association conducting racing within the state shall be distributed in the same manner as unclaimed tickets relating to wagers accepted by that association in the absence of a combined parimutuel pool.

Funds in the parimutuel pool attributable to unclaimed tickets related to wagers accepted by the betting system located outside of this state shall be allocated to that betting system, and this section does not otherwise apply to the disposition of those funds at that location outside of the state.

SEC. 3. Section 19605.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19605.4. (a) Notwithstanding Section 19605.3, the live audiovisual signal of night harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, or Arabian races in the central or southern zone may be offered to satellite wagering facilities in the northern zone and the signal of those races in the northern zone may be offered to satellite wagering facilities in the central or southern zone. Racing associations may agree to accept that audiovisual signal. However, satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall not be required pursuant to that agreement to accept more than five night racing programs per week.

(b) (1) With respect to the live audiovisual signal of night harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, or Arabian racing, any association or fair that operates a satellite wagering facility shall conduct wagering on all racing that is offered to the satellite wagering facility, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on a night meeting, as determined by the board, and if sustaining a loss on a night meeting, as long as the satellite wagering facility is reimbursed for that loss by either an organization described in Section 19608.2 or an association. Any association that operates a satellite wagering facility may, but is not required to, accept an audiovisual signal. Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, an association that conducts a racing meeting and a fair that operates a satellite wagering facility may agree to provide an audiovisual signal and to accept wagering on less than all of the races.

(2) In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses of the satellite wagering facility that would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

SEC. 4. Section 19616.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19616.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, wagers accepted on out-of-state feature races pursuant to Section 19596 or on any multiple race exotic wager involving races from out of state that is designated by the board as a national wager and included in the parimutuel pool or pools of the entity conducting the out-of-state racing shall be distributed as provided in this section.

(b) From the amount handled by the association and included in the parimutuel pool or pools of the entity conducting the out-of-state racing, each association may, with the permission of the board, deduct a percentage equal to the percentage deducted by the entity conducting the out-of-state racing.

(c) From the amount deducted pursuant to subdivision (b), if any, each association shall pay a state license fee at a pro rata rate applicable to the races of the association's racing program for the day on which the out-of-state feature is offered.

(d) Breakage and unclaimed tickets on out-of-state feature races shall be distributed 50 percent as commission and 50 percent as purses.

(e) The amount remaining from the deduction under subdivision (b), if any, after payment of the state license fee and the contractual payment to the out-of-state host racing association, shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions and 50 percent as purses.

(f) From the amount distributed under subdivision (e) for Appaloosa purses, a sum equal to 13.33 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be paid as owners' premiums for California-breds winning at the meeting. The sum shall be deposited within 10 days of the close of the meeting with the officially recognized organization representing the respective breeds. After deduction of expenses, not to exceed 5 percent, and approval of all the deductions by the board, the funds shall be distributed on a prorated percentage basis of first moneys earned to persons owning California-bred racehorses at the time of their wins in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 19612.2 and subdivision (c) of Section 19617.

(g) From the amount distributed for thoroughbred purses under subdivision (e), a sum equal to 13.33 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2, and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2.

(h) From the amount distributed under subdivision (e) for quarter horse purses, a sum equal to 13.33 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 19617.7, and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (c), (d), and (e) of Section 19617.7.

(i) For the purposes of subdivisions (a) and (b), with respect to any multiple race exotic wager involving races from out of state that is designated by the board as a national wager, the out-of-state totalizator hub for the wager shall be considered the "entity conducting the out-of-state racing."

SEC. 5. Section 25503.26 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25503.26. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the holder of a beer manufacturer's or winegrower's license, or a manufacturer of distilled spirits, may purchase advertising space and time from, or on behalf of, an on-sale retail licensee subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The on-sale licensee is the owner, or is the lessee, or is a wholly owned subsidiary of the lessee, of an arena with a fixed seating capacity in excess of 10,000 seats, at least 60 percent of the use of which is for horseracing events, and which is located within Los Angeles County, Alameda County, or San Mateo County.

(2) The advertising space or time is purchased only in connection with events to be held on the premises of the arena owned or leased by the on-sale licensee.

(3) The on-sale licensee serves other brands of beer, distilled spirits, or wine in addition to the brand manufactured by the beer manufacturer or distilled spirits manufacturer or produced by the winegrower purchasing the advertising space or time.

(b) Any purchase of advertising space or time pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be conducted pursuant to a written contract entered into by the holder of the beer manufacturer's or winegrower's license, or the manufacturer of distilled spirits, and the on-sale licensee.

(c) Any holder of a beer manufacturer's or winegrower's license, or any manufacturer of distilled spirits, who, through coercion or other illegal means, induces a holder of a beer or wine or distilled spirits wholesaler's license to fulfill the contractual obligations entered into pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine in an amount equal to the entire value of the advertising space or time involved in the contract plus ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both imprisonment and fine. The person shall also be subject to license revocation pursuant to Section 24200.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for this act to apply to events, including horseracing events in the current racing season, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 61

An act to amend Section 8209 of the Education Code, and to make an appropriation in augmentation of Items 6110-101-001, 6110-106-001, and 6110-161-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1992, relating to education finance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 3, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 3, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8209, as added to the Education Code by Senate Bill No. 720 of the 1993-94 Regular Session, is amended to read:

8209. (a) If a state of emergency is declared by the Governor, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may waive any requirements of this code or regulations adopted pursuant to this code relating to child care and development programs operated pursuant to this chapter only to the extent that enforcement of the regulations or requirements would directly impede disaster relief and recovery efforts or would disrupt the current level of service in child care and development programs.

(b) If a state of emergency is declared by the Governor, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may waive, any requirements of this code or regulations adopted pursuant to this code relating to child nutrition programs in child care and development programs operated pursuant to this chapter only to the extent that enforcement of the regulations or requirements would directly impede disaster relief and recovery efforts or would disrupt the current level of service in child care and development programs.

(c) A waiver granted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall not exceed 45 calendar days.

(d) For purposes of this section, "state of emergency" includes fire, flood, earthquake, or a period of civil unrest.

(e) If a request for a waiver pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) is for a child care and development program or child nutrition program that receives federal funds and the waiver may be inconsistent with the state plan or any federal law or regulations governing the program, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall seek and obtain approval of the waiver from the appropriate federal agency prior to granting the waiver.

SEC. 2. Section 1 of this act shall only become operative if Senate Bill 720 of the 1993-94 Regular Session is chaptered and becomes operative on or before the effective date of this act.

SEC. 3. (a) The sum of one hundred six million six hundred fifty-six thousand dollars ($106,656,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in augmentation of Item 6110-101-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1992 for purposes of paying deficiencies.

(b) The sum of one million five hundred forty-six thousand dollars ($1,546,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in augmentation of Item 6110-106-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1992 for purposes of paying deficiencies. Prior to allocation of funds appropriated by this subdivision, the State Department of Education shall reach an agreement with the Department of Finance regarding the funded average daily attendance to be used for apportionment purposes for these funds, which shall reflect revisions to preliminary estimates of the deficiency for juvenile court and community school programs. Any funds appropriated by this subdivision or subdivision (a) that are not allocated as a result of that agreement shall immediately revert to the General Fund and any reverted amount shall not be considered an appropriation for purposes of Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

(c) The sum of ten million ninety-seven thousand dollars ($10,097,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in augmentation of Item 6110-161-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1992 for purposes of paying deficiencies.

(d) Pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 41206 of the Education Code, the appropriations made pursuant to this section to pay deficiencies are deemed to be appropriations made in the 1992-93 fiscal year for purposes of Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that appropriations to pay deficiencies in the state's minimum funding obligations for the 1992-93 fiscal year under Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution may be made immediately and in order to address the serious problems in the general operation of child care and development programs in schools resulting from the Northridge earthquake of 1994, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 62

An act to amend Sections 19533, 19613.2, 19613.3, and 19613.6 of, and to repeal and add Sections 19613 and 19613.1 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing.

[Approved by Governor May 9, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 10, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19533 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 5 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

19533. (a) Any license granted to an association other than a fair shall be only for one type of racing, thoroughbred, harness, or quarter horse racing as the case may be, except that the board may authorize the entering of thoroughbred and Appaloosa horses in quarter horse races at a distance not exceeding five furlongs at quarter horse meetings, mixed breed meetings, and fair meetings. If the board authorizes the entering of thoroughbred or Appaloosa horses in quarter horse races, the following conditions shall be met:

(1) Any race written for participation by quarter horses, Appaloosas, and thoroughbreds shall be written as quarter horse preferred.

(2) The number of races written as quarter horse preferred at a distance exceeding 870 yards shall not exceed more than three races per program without the consent of the quarter horse horsemen's organization contracting with the association.

(3) More than one-half of the races on any program shall be written for quarter horses at a distance not to exceed 550 yards, unless the consent of the quarter horse horsemen's organization is received.

(4) Mixed races with Appaloosa and quarter horses may only be written with the consent of the quarter horse horsemen's organization contracting with the association.

(b) The association that conducts the meeting shall pay to a thoroughbred trainers' organization an amount for a pension plan for backstretch personnel to be administered by that trainers' organization equivalent to 1 percent of the amount available to thoroughbred horses for purses. The remainder of the portion shall be distributed as purses. Any redistributable money paid to the board pursuant to Section 19641, which is paid to a welfare fund established by a horsemen's organization from races with both thoroughbred and quarter horses, shall be divided pro rata between the two welfare funds based on the number of thoroughbreds and quarter horses in the race.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any association licensed to conduct quarter horse racing may apply to the board for, and the board shall grant, authority to conduct thoroughbred racing as part of its racing program if all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The thoroughbred races are for a claiming price of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), and at a distance of four and one-half furlongs or less. The races may not be stakes, allowance races, or maiden allowance races.

(B) More than one-half of the races on any program shall be written for quarter horses at a distance not to exceed 550 yards, unless the consent of the quarter horse horsemen's organization is received.

(C) The consent of the quarter horse horsemen's organization contracting with the association is obtained with respect to the inclusion of thoroughbred racing.

(2) The quarter horse racing association conducting thoroughbred racing pursuant to this subdivision shall pay to a quarter horse horsemen's organization the amount specified in subdivision (e) of Section 19613, and an amount for a pension plan for backstretch personnel to be administered by a thoroughbred trainers' organization equivalent to 1 percent of the amount available to thoroughbred horses for purses. The remainder of the portion shall be distributed as purses. The quarter horse racing association shall also deduct the appropriate amount to comply with subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2 for distribution to the thoroughbred official registering agency.

SEC. 2. Section 19613 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Chapter 5 of the Statutes of 1994, is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 19613 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19613. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f), the portion deducted for purses pursuant to this chapter shall be paid to or for the benefit of the horsemen at the racing meeting.

(b) Any association other than a fair that conducts a thoroughbred racing meeting shall pay to the owners' organization contracting with the association with respect to the conduct of racing meetings for administrative expenses and services rendered to owners, an amount not to exceed two-thirds of 1 percent of the portion, and to a trainers' organization for administrative expenses and services rendered to trainers and backstretch employees an amount equivalent to one-third of 1 percent of the portion. That association shall also pay an amount for a pension plan for backstretch personnel to be administered by the trainers' organization equivalent to an additional 1 percent of the portion. The remainder of the portion shall be distributed as purses.

(c) Any other association may pay to the horsemen's organization contracting with the association with respect to the conduct of racing meetings for administrative expenses and services rendered to horsemen an amount out of the portion as may be determined by the association by agreement or otherwise, but, in all events, shall include, relative to a thoroughbred horsemen's organization racing, 1 percent of the portion for a pension plan for backstretch personnel to be administered by the trainers' organization. The remainder of the portion shall be distributed as purses.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b) and (c), any association conducting a fair racing meeting or conducting a mixed breed racing meeting shall pay to the horsemen's organizations contracting with the association with respect to the conduct of races for their respective breeds of horses at the meetings for administrative expenses and services rendered to their respective horsemen those amounts out of the portion as determined by the horsemen's organization for the respective breeds with the approval of the board.

Pursuant to this subdivision, amounts not to exceed 3 percent of the portion for the owners' and trainers' organizations shall be distributed to any thoroughbred owners' and trainers' organizations contracting with an association for a fair racing meeting or participating in mixed breed racing meetings as follows: two-thirds of one percent to the owners' organization and one-third of 1 percent to the trainers' organization for administrative expenses and services rendered to both owners and trainers, 1 percent for welfare funds, and 1 percent for a pension program for backstretch personnel, to be administered by the thoroughbred trainers' organization.

(e) Any association other than a fair that conducts a quarter horse racing meeting, except a mixed breed meeting, shall pay to the horsemen's organization contracting with the association with respect to the conduct of racing meetings for administrative expenses and services rendered to horsemen an amount equal to its expenses, but not to exceed 3 percent of the portion. The remainder of the portion shall be distributed as purses.

(f) For racing meetings other than thoroughbred meetings, if no contract has been signed between the association conducting the racing meeting and the organization representing the horsemen by the time the racing meeting commences, the distribution of purses shall be governed by the following:

(1) If the association conducted a racing meeting within the past 15 months and a contract was in existence for that meeting with the horsemen's organization and the association is conducting a subsequent meeting for the same breed or mixed breeds, the amounts payable to the horsemen's organization under subdivision (c) shall be computed under the provisions of the last signed contract between the parties.

(2) This subdivision applies regardless of the cause of the failure to execute a contract, whether that failure is a result of inadvertence or otherwise.

(3) For racing meetings that do not come within paragraph (1), the board shall, within 15 days after the commencement of the racing meeting, determine the amounts payable to the horsemen's organization for administrative expenses and services, and provide for the direct payment of those amounts.

SEC. 4. Section 19613.1 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Chapter 5 of the Statutes of 1994, is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 19613.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19613.1. (a) With respect to thoroughbred racing, except as provided in subdivision (b), the board shall determine which matters shall be the subject of negotiation and contract between the owners' organization and the association, and which matters shall be the subject of negotiation and contract between the trainers' organization and the association.

(b) The owners' organization shall generally be responsible for negotiating purse agreements, satellite simulcast agreements, and all other business agreements relating to the conduct of racing that affect the owners. The trainers' organization shall generally be responsible for negotiating issues relating to the backstretch, track safety, and the welfare of backstretch employees.

(c) The board shall resolve issues that are not settled between the associations and the organizations representing owners and trainers.

SEC. 6. Section 19613.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19613.2. (a) Any horsemen's, owners', or trainers' organization or organization representing horsemen, owners, or trainers shall be incorporated under the laws of the State of California in order to receive a distribution or deduction under this chapter. Each corporation shall represent a majority of the horsemen, owners, or trainers in the state with respect to the breed of horses the corporation represents. The board shall initially determine the organization that represents California horsemen with respect to each breed. Any distribution or deduction received by any of those organizations shall be used only for the benefit of California horsemen.

(b) No portion of the amount distributed pursuant to Section 19613 to an owners', trainers', or horsemen's organization shall be used for the purpose of making contributions to candidates for public office, or to urge or oppose any measure on the ballot. The organizations representing owners, trainers, and horsemen may expend no more than the amount reasonably necessary to represent its members before the Legislature and the board with respect to issues that directly affect services rendered to owners, trainers, and horsemen. The board shall annually review the budgets of the organizations representing owners, trainers, and horsemen and shall determine the appropriate amount to be expended for providing the representation authorized by this subdivision.

(c) If an owners', trainers', or horsemen's organization is conducting itself contrary to statute, regulation, or order of the board, the board may take disciplinary action against the organization, including ordering an association to withhold any distribution authorized pursuant to Section 19613.

SEC. 7. Section 19613.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19613.3. Each horsemen's organization, except an organization that solely represents owners, or an organization that solely represents trainers, shall provide for the representation of owners and trainers on its board of directors. The provisions setting forth the composition of the board of directors of each organization shall be in the bylaws of the organization and shall be submitted to the board. The bylaws and any changes thereto shall be approved by the board.

SEC. 8. Section 19613.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19613.6. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the owners' organization referred to in subdivision (a) of Section 19613.2 that represents thoroughbred owners may elect to contribute the purses from one race conducted annually by each licensed thoroughbred racing association or fair to a welfare fund. The contribution shall be used for the benefit of horsemen, and the trainers' organization shall make an accounting to the board within one calendar year of the receipt of the contribution. The designation of a specific race from which the horsemen elect to contribute the purses is subject to the mutual agreement of the horsemen's organization and the racing association or fair that conducts the race.

CHAPTER 63

An act to add Chapter 4.8 (commencing with Section 1174) to Title 7 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, relating to sentencing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 9, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 10, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares each of the following:

(a) During the past several years there has been a dramatic increase in the number of incarcerated women who are single mothers or primary caretakers of children. In 1989, more than 52,000 children under the age of 18 years had mothers who were in jail in the United States. Over one-half of the women in California prisons have minor children. As many as 6 percent of the women in jails and prisons are pregnant at any given time.

(b) Between 1983 and 1989, the female population in jail in the United States increased 138 percent. This increase represents a rate nearly double that for the increase of male inmates. During a similar period between 1984 and 1990, the number of women inmates in California prisons tripled.

(c) In 1990, a total of 83,729 women were arrested for felonies in this state. Of these arrests, 60,564 were for property, drug, or prostitution offenses. Of the approximately 7,000 women in California prisons, over 4,500 are serving sentences for property or drug offenses.

(d) In a survey conducted by the Federal Bureau of Justice Statistics, one-third of all female prisoners reported being under the influence of some drug at the time of their offense with 39 percent reporting daily drug use in the month before their offense. Over 70 percent of the women in California prisons report having used cocaine, heroin, or methamphetamines.

(e) An estimated 50 percent of the women in the same study reported previous history of physical or sexual abuse at some time in their lives.

(f) Several studies have shown that children of substance abusing or incarcerated parents consistently experience behavioral problems throughout their lives. The negative intergenerational impact upon children raised in circumstances involving substance abusing or incarcerated parents is a generally well-accepted principle.

(g) Female inmates consistently report being raised in substance abusing dysfunctional families resulting in their lack of opportunity to obtain any practical parenting or social skills, nutritional or health care practices, or life survival skills.

(h) Of the approximately 7,000 women presently in California prisons, 90 percent have never been in prison before, although 75 percent have been incarcerated in local jails prior to being sentenced to state prison.

(i) Without intervention, children of incarcerated women have a significantly increased likelihood of entering the child welfare and juvenile justice systems, becoming school dropouts, substance abusers, and pregnant as adolescents.

(j) Female offenders and their children are presently being provided services from a disjointed network of social services, medical providers, mental health providers, and correctional practitioners. A lack of local coordination often contributes to the duplication of services and results in few cost-effective, concentrated efforts directed toward this population.

(k) The costs of out-of-home care for children in California in 1990-91 totaled $760,000,000.

(l) The costs associated with caring for medically fragile babies born addicted to drugs is high and ever increasing.

(m) Few sentencing alternatives or programming initiatives exist that are designed to intervene in serving this population with special needs.

(n) The California Blue Ribbon Commission on Inmate Population Management, in its January 1990 report to the Governor and Legislature, concluded that in sentencing decisions, judges lack sufficient intermediate sanctions, punishment options, and treatment programs between routine probation and local or state incarceration.

(o) It is essential that California establish a new sentencing alternative for substance abusing female offenders with young children to both hold the women offenders accountable and afford both parent and child an opportunity to establish productive lives. It must be the responsibility of California communities to support and intervene in the intergenerational cycle of criminality through the establishment of sentencing alternatives. Sentencing alternatives are essential as 95 percent of all offenders eventually return to the community.

SEC. 2. Chapter 4.8 (commencing with Section 1174) is added to Title 7 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4.8. PREGNANT AND PARENTING WOMEN'S ALTERNATIVE SENTENCING PROGRAM ACT

1174. This chapter shall be known as the Pregnant and Parenting Women's Alternative Sentencing Program Act.

1174.1. For purposes of this chapter, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) "Agency" means the private agency selected by the department to operate this program.

(b) "Construction" means the purchase, new construction, reconstruction, remodeling, renovation, or replacement of facilities, or a combination thereof.

(c) "County" means each individual county as represented by the county board of supervisors.

(d) "Court" means the superior court sentencing the offender to the custody of the department.

(e) "Department" means the Department of Corrections.

(f) "Facility" means the nonsecure physical buildings, rooms, areas, and equipment.

(g) "Program" means an intensive substance abusing pregnant and parenting women's alternative sentencing program.

1174.2. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, the unencumbered balance of Item 5240-311-751 of Section 2 of the Budget Act of 1990 shall revert to the unappropriated surplus of the 1990 Prison Construction Fund. The sum of fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) is hereby appropriated to the Department of Corrections from the 1990 Prison Construction Fund for site acquisition, site studies, environmental studies, master planning, architectural programming, schematics, preliminary plans, working drawings, construction, and long lead and equipment items for the purpose of constructing facilities for pregnant and parenting women's alternative sentencing programs. These funds shall not be expended for any operating costs, including those costs reimbursed by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1174.3. Funds not expended pursuant to this chapter shall be used for planning, construction, renovation, or remodeling by, or under the supervision of, the Department of Corrections, of community-based facilities for programs designed to reduce drug use and recidivism, including, but not limited to, restitution centers, facilities for the incarceration and rehabilitation of drug offenders, multipurpose correctional centers and centers for intensive programs for parolees. These funds shall not be expended until legislation authorizing the establishment of these programs is enacted. If the Legislature finds that the Department of Corrections has made a good faith effort to site community-based facilities, but funds designated for these community-based facilities are unexpended as of January 1, 1998, the Legislature may appropriate these funds for other Level I housing.

(b) The Department of Corrections shall purchase, design, construct, and renovate facilities in counties or multicounty areas with a population over 450,000 people pursuant to this chapter. The department shall target for selection, among other counties, Los Angeles County, San Diego County, and a bay area and a central valley county as determined by the Director of Corrections. The department, in consultation with the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, shall design core alcohol and drug treatment programs, with specific requirements and standards. Residential facilities shall be licensed by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs in accordance with provisions of the Health and Safety Code governing licensure of alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facilities. Residential and nonresidential programs shall be certified by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs as meeting its standards for perinatal services. Funds shall be awarded to selected agency service providers based upon all of the following criteria and procedures:

(1) A demonstrated ability to provide comprehensive services to pregnant women or women with children who are substance abusers consistent with this chapter. Criteria shall include, but not be limited to, each of the following:

(A) The success records of the types of programs proposed based upon standards for successful programs.

(B) Expertise and actual experience of persons who will be in charge of the proposed program.

(C) Cost-effectiveness, including the costs per client served.

(D) A demonstrated ability to implement a program as expeditiously as possible.

(E) An ability to accept referrals and participate in a process with the probation department determining eligible candidates for the program.

(F) A demonstrated ability to seek and obtain supplemental funding as required in support of the overall administration of this facility from any county, state, or federal source that may serve to support this program, including the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, the State Department of Social Services, the State Department of Mental Health, or any county public health department. In addition, the agency shall also attempt to secure other available funding from all county, state, or federal sources for program implementation.

(G) An ability to provide intensive supervision of the program participants to ensure complete daily programming.

(2) Staff from the department shall be available to selected agencies for consultation and technical services in preparation and implementation of the selected proposals.

(3) The department shall consult with existing program operators that are then currently delivering similar program services, the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, and others it may identify in the development of the program.

(4) Funds shall be made available by the department to the agencies selected to administer the operation of this program.

(5) Agencies shall demonstrate an ability to provide offenders a continuing supportive network of outpatient drug treatment and other services upon the women's completion of the program and reintegration into the community.

(6) The department may propose any variation of types and sizes of facilities to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(7) The department shall secure all other available funding for its eligible population from all county, state, or federal sources.

(8) Each program proposal shall include a minimum of one year in which the person shall participate in the program. In addition, the program shall include a minimum of one year of transition services for women and their children, while under specialized parole supervision.

1174.3. (a) The department shall ensure that the facility designs provide adequate space to carry out this chapter, including the capability for nonsecure housing, programming, child care, food services, treatment services, educational or vocational services, intensive day treatment, and transitional living skills services.

(b) The agency selected to operate the program shall administer and operate the center and program consistent with the criteria set forth in this chapter and any criteria established by the department. These responsibilities shall include maintenance and compliance with all laws, regulations, and health standards. The department shall contract to reimburse the agency selected to operate this program for women who would otherwise be sentenced to state prison based upon actual costs not provided by other funding sources.

(c) Notwithstanding any other law, Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code shall not apply to any facility used for multiperson residential use in the last five years, including, but not limited to, motels, hotels, long-term care facilities, apartment buildings, and rooming houses, or to any project for which facilities intended to house no more than 75 women and children are constructed or leased pursuant to this chapter.

(d) Proposals submitted pursuant to this chapter are exempt from approval and submittal of plans and specifications to the Joint Legislative Committee on Prison Construction Operations and other legislative fiscal committees.

1174.4. (a) Persons eligible for participation in this alternative sentencing program shall meet all of the following criteria:

(1) Pregnant women with an established history of substance abuse, or pregnant or parenting women with an established history of substance abuse who have one or more children under six years old at the time of entry into the program. For women with children, at least one eligible child shall reside with the mother in the facility.

(2) Never served a prior prison term for, nor been convicted in the present proceeding of, committing or attempting to commit, any of the following offenses:

- (A) Murder or voluntary manslaughter.
- (B) Mayhem.
- (C) Rape.
- (D) Kidnapping.
- (E) Sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.
- (F) Oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.
- (G) Lewd acts on a child under 14 years of age, as defined in Section 288.
- (H) Any felony punishable by death or imprisonment in the state prison for life.
- (I) Any felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on any person, other than an accomplice, that has been charged and proved as provided for in Section 12022.7 or 12022.9, or any felony in which the defendant uses a firearm, as provided in Section 12022.5 or 12022.55, in which the use has been charged and proved.
- (J) Robbery.
- (K) Any robbery perpetrated in an inhabited dwelling house or trailer coach as defined in the Vehicle Code, or in the inhabited portion of any other building, wherein it is charged and proved that the defendant personally used a deadly or dangerous weapon, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 12022, in the commission of that robbery.
- (L) Arson in violation of subdivision (a) of Section 451.
- (M) Penetration by a foreign object in violation of subdivision (a) of Section 289 if the act is accomplished against the victim's will by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.
- (N) Rape or penetration of genital or anal openings by a foreign object in concert, in violation of Section 264.1.
- (O) Continual sexual abuse of a child in violation of Section 288.5.
- (P) Assault with intent to commit mayhem, rape, sodomy, oral copulation, rape in concert, with another, lascivious acts upon a child, or penetration by a foreign object.
- (Q) Assault with a deadly weapon or with force likely to produce great bodily injury in violation of subdivision (a) of Section 245.
- (R) Any violent felony defined in Section 667.5.
- (S) A violation of Section 12022.
- (T) A violation of Section 12308.
- (U) Burglary of the first degree.
- (V) A violation of Section 11351, 11351.5, 11352, 11353, 11358, 11359, 11360, 11370.1, 11370.6, 11378, 11378.5, 11379, 11379.5, 11379.6, 11380, or 11383 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) Has not been sentenced to state prison for a term exceeding 36 months.

(4) Prior to sentencing, if the court proposes to give consideration to a placement, the court shall consider a written evaluation by the probation department, which shall include the following:

(A) Whether the defendant is eligible for participation pursuant to this section.

(B) Whether participation by the defendant and her eligible children is deemed to be in the best interests of the children.

(C) Whether the defendant is amenable to treatment for substance abuse and would benefit from participation in the program.

(D) Whether the program is deemed to be in the best interests of an eligible child of the defendant by a representative of the appropriate child welfare services agency of the county if the child is a dependent child of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(5) The district attorney shall make a recommendation to the court as to whether or not the defendant would benefit from the program, which the court shall consider in making its decision. If the court's decision is without the concurrence of the district attorney, the court shall specify its reasons in writing and enter them into the record.

(6) If the court determines that the defendant may benefit from participation in this program, the court may impose a state prison sentence with the recommendation that the defendant participate in the program pursuant to this chapter. The court shall notify the department within 48 hours of imposition of this sentence.

(7) The Director of Corrections shall consider the court's recommendation in making a determination on the inmate's placement in the program.

(b) Women accepted for the program by the Director of Corrections shall be delivered by the county, pursuant to Section 1202a, to the facility selected by the department.

(c) Prior to being admitted to the program, each participant shall voluntarily sign an agreement specifying the terms and conditions of participation in the program.

(d) The department may refer inmates back to the sentencing court if the department determines that an eligible inmate has not been recommended for the program. The department shall refer the inmate to the court by an evaluative report so stating the department's assessment of eligibility, and requesting a recommendation by the court.

(e) Women who successfully complete the program, including the minimum of one year of transition services under intensive parole supervision, shall be discharged from parole. Women who do not successfully complete the program shall be returned to the state prison where they shall serve their original sentences. These persons shall receive full credit against their original sentences for the time served in the program, pursuant to Section 2933.

1174.5. The department shall be responsible for the funding and monitoring of the progress, activities, and performance of each program.

1174.6. On or before July 1, 1995, the department shall report to the Legislature the status of siting for construction and renovation of the program facilities authorized.

1174.7. The department shall report the status of this program to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1996, and each year thereafter.

1174.8. (a) The department shall adopt regulations pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code) to implement this chapter.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) and any other law, and except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, until July 1, 1996, the Director of Corrections shall have the power to implement, interpret, and make specific the changes made in this chapter by issuing director's criteria. These criteria shall be exempt from the requirements of Articles 5 (commencing with Section 11346) and 6 (commencing with Section 11349) of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code) and shall remain in effect until July 1, 1996, unless terminated or replaced by, or readopted as, emergency regulations pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) On or before July 1, 1995, the department shall file emergency regulations to implement this chapter with the Office of Administrative Law. These emergency regulations shall be considered by the office as necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare and shall remain in effect until July 1, 1996, unless terminated or replaced by, or readopted as, permanent regulations in compliance with Articles 5 (commencing with Section 11346) and 6 (commencing with Section 11349) of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code) pursuant to subdivision (d).

(d) The department shall file a certificate of compliance with the Office of Administrative Law to adopt permanent regulations on or before May 15, 1996.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

During the past several years there has been an alarming increase in the number of incarcerated women who are single mothers or primary caretakers of children. Because of the special needs associated with substance abusing females with young children, it is time for California to establish a new sentencing alternative to hold the women offenders accountable while affording both parent and child an opportunity to establish productive lives.

CHAPTER 64

An act to add and repeal Title 7.85 (commencing with Section 67650) of the Government Code, relating to Fort Ord, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 9, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 10, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 7.85 (commencing with Section 67650) is added to the Government Code, to read:

TITLE 7.85. FORT ORD REUSE AUTHORITY

CHAPTER 1. TITLE AND DECLARATION OF POLICY

67650. This title shall be known and may be cited as the "Fort Ord Reuse Authority Act."

67651. The Legislature hereby declares the following goals to be the policy of the State of California:

(a) To facilitate the transfer and reuse of the real and other property comprising the military reservation known as Fort Ord with all practical speed.

(b) To minimize the disruption caused by the base's closure on the civilian economy and the people of the Monterey Bay area.

(c) To provide for the reuse and development of the base area in ways that enhance the economy and quality of life of the Monterey Bay community.

(d) To maintain and protect the unique environmental resources of the area.

67652. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) The policy set forth in Section 67651 is most likely to be achieved if an effective governmental structure exists to plan for, finance, and carry out the transfer and reuse of the base in a cooperative, coordinated, balanced, and decisive manner.

(b) The County of Monterey and the Cities of Monterey, Salinas, Carmel, and Pacific Grove have requested the Legislature to establish a governmental structure for Fort Ord.

CHAPTER 2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

67655. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions contained in this chapter govern the construction of this title.

(a) "Authority" means the Fort Ord Reuse Authority.

(b) "Base-wide facility" means a public capital facility which, in the judgment of the board, is important to the overall reuse of Fort Ord, and has significance beyond any single city or the unincorporated area of the county.

(c) "Board" means the governing board of the authority, as specified in Section 67660.

(d) "Fort Ord Reuse Plan" means the plan for the future use of Fort Ord adopted pursuant to Section 67675.

(e) "Legislative body" means the city council of a city or the board of supervisors of a county, or the legislative body or governing board of any other public agency.

(f) "Local facility" means a public capital facility which, in the judgment of the board, is important primarily within a single city or the unincorporated area of the county.

(g) "Member agency" means the County of Monterey and the City of Carmel, the City of Del Rey Oaks, the City of Marina, the City of Sand City, the City of Monterey, the City of Pacific Grove, the City of Salinas, or the City of Seaside.

(h) "Fort Ord," including references to the territory or area of Fort Ord, means the geographical area described in the document entitled "Description of the Fort Ord Military Reservation Including Portion of the Monterey City Lands Tract No. 1, the Saucito, Laguna Seca, El Chamisal, El Toro and Noche Buena Ranchos, the James Bardin Partition of 1880 and Townships 14 South, Ranges 1 and 2 East and Townships 15 South, Ranges 2 and 3 East, M.D.B. and M. Monterey County, California," prepared by Bestor Engineers, Inc., and delivered to the Sacramento District Corps of Engineers on April 11, 1994.

(i) "Public capital facilities" means all public capital facilities described in the Fort Ord Reuse Plan, including, but not limited to, roads, freeways, ramps, air transportation facilities and freight hauling and handling facilities, sewage and water conveyance and treatment facilities, school, library, and other educational facilities, and recreational facilities, that could most efficiently and conveniently be planned, negotiated, financed, or constructed by the authority to further the integrated future use of Fort Ord.

(j) "Redevelopment authority," for purposes of federal law concerning the transfer of property at military bases, means the Fort Ord Reuse Authority.

67656. The local agencies specified in Section 67660 may establish the Fort Ord Reuse Authority in accordance with the provisions of this title upon the adoption of resolutions favoring the establishment of the authority by the governing bodies of those local agencies that would appoint a majority of the voting membership of the board as constituted by that section.

67657. (a) The authority is a public corporation of the State of California that is independent of the agencies from which its board is appointed. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the powers and duties of the authority are those granted or imposed by this title.

(b) The jurisdiction of the authority shall be the territory of Fort Ord. The jurisdiction of the authority is subject to the provisions of the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Division 3 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 5).

(c) The Legislature finds and declares that the planning, financing, and management of the reuse of Fort Ord is a matter of statewide importance, and that the powers and duties granted to the authority by this title shall prevail over those of any local entity, including any city or county, whether formed under the general laws of the State of California or pursuant to a charter, and any joint powers authority.

67658. The authority's purpose is to plan for, finance, and manage the transition of the property known as Fort Ord from military to civilian use.

67659. In accordance with Section 5151 of the Elections Code, the authority is a district for purposes of initiative and referendum under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 5150) of Division 5 of that code and the voters of the authority are the voters of Monterey County.

CHAPTER 3. ORGANIZATION

67660. (a) The authority shall be governed by a board of 13 members composed of the following:

- (1) One member appointed by the City of Carmel.
- (2) One member appointed by the City of Del Rey Oaks.
- (3) Two members appointed by the City of Marina.
- (4) One member appointed by Sand City.
- (5) One member appointed by the City of Monterey.
- (6) One member appointed by the City of Pacific Grove.
- (7) One member appointed by the City of Salinas.
- (8) Two members appointed by the City of Seaside.
- (9) Three members appointed by Monterey County.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), any local agency that does not adopt a resolution favoring establishment of the Fort Ord Reuse Authority pursuant to Section 67656 shall not be required to appoint a voting member to the board. The failure of a local agency to appoint a voting member to the board pursuant to this subdivision shall not alter or reduce the powers and duties of the authority or the board in any manner.

(c) Each member agency may appoint one alternate for each of its positions on the board, and each alternate shall have all the rights and authority of a board member when serving in that board member's place.

(d) Each board member and each alternate shall be a member of the legislative body making the appointment, except that alternates appointed by the Monterey County Board of Supervisors shall be members of the board of supervisors or county staff. Board members and alternates shall serve at the pleasure of the member agency making the appointment.

67661. The following may serve as ex officio nonvoting members of the board:

(a) A representative appointed by the Monterey Peninsula Community College District.

(b) A representative appointed by the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District.

(c) A representative designated by the Member of Congress from the 17th Congressional District.

(d) A representative designated by the Senator from the 15th Senate District.

(e) A representative designated by the Assembly Member from the 27th Assembly District.

(f) A representative designated by the United States Army.

(g) A representative designated by the Chancellor of the California State University.

(h) A representative designated by the President of the University of California.

(i) A representative designated by the Monterey County Water Resources Agency.

(j) A representative designated by the Transportation Agency of Monterey County.

67662. The board may appoint or remove additional ex officio nonvoting members at its pleasure.

67663. The board shall provide by resolution the dates on which and the time and place at which regular meetings of the board shall be held. A copy of each resolution establishing the date, time, and place of a regular meeting shall be filed with the secretary of the board and the clerk or secretary of the legislative body of each of the members. The board shall comply with the provisions of the Ralph M. Brown Act (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 54950) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5).

67664. The board may adopt rules and regulations for the conduct of its meetings and activities.

67665. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 4.7 (commencing with Section 1125) of Chapter 1 of Division 4 of Title 1, any member or ex officio member of the board who is also a member of another public agency, a county supervisor, or a city council person, and who has in that designated capacity voted or acted upon a particular matter, may vote or otherwise act upon or participate in the discussion of that matter as a member of the board.

67666. The secretary of the board shall maintain minutes of the meetings of the board and, as soon as possible after each meeting, shall cause a copy of the minutes to be forwarded to each member of the board.

67667. A majority of the voting members appointed to the board pursuant to Section 67660 shall constitute a quorum and may act for the authority.

67668. A resolution, ordinance, or other action of the board shall not be approved or adopted sooner than 72 hours after its introduction, unless approved by unanimous vote of all members present at the time of consideration. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, any action taken by the board shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the appointed members of the board.

67669. The members of the board shall serve without compensation.

67670. The board shall elect from its own members a chair and a vice chair at the first board meeting held each year. Each shall serve a term of one year and may be reelected.

67671. The board shall determine the qualifications of, and shall appoint and fix the salary of, the executive officer of the agency, and shall employ or contract with other staff or consultants as may be necessary to execute the powers and functions provided for under this title, including, but not limited to, attorneys, financing consultants, planners, accountants, engineers, architects, contractors, appraisers, and other consultants and advisors.

67672. The chief administrative officer or city manager of each member agency, or his or her designee, may serve on an administrative committee to the board to provide advice, analysis, and recommendations to the board as the board may request from time to time.

67673. The board may, at its pleasure, appoint an additional advisory committee or committees to provide the board with options, critique, analysis, and other information as it finds useful, and may provide mechanisms through which a committee may report to the board.

CHAPTER 4. POWERS AND DUTIES

67675. (a) The board shall prepare, adopt, review, revise from time to time, and maintain a plan for the future use and development of the territory occupied by Fort Ord as of January 1, 1993. The adopted plan shall be the official local plan for the reuse of the base for all public purposes, including all discussions with the Army and other federal agencies, and for purposes of planning, design, and funding by all state agencies.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the board may adopt the "Final Base Reuse Plan" prepared by the Fort Ord Reuse Group as the Fort Ord Reuse Plan for purposes of this title. The plan adopted pursuant to this subdivision may serve as the Fort Ord Reuse Plan until July 1, 1995. The board may prepare elements described in subdivision (c) that are generally consistent with the adopted plan. After July 1, 1995, only a plan containing the required elements and fully satisfying the requirements of this title shall serve as the Fort Ord Reuse Plan.

(c) The Fort Ord Reuse Plan shall include all of the following elements:

- (1) A land use plan for the integrated arrangement and general location and extent of, and the criteria and standards for, the uses of land, water, air, space, and other natural resources within the area of the base. The land use plan shall designate areas of the base for residential, commercial, industrial, and other uses, and may specify maximum development intensities and other standards and criteria. The land use plan shall provide for public safety.

(2) A transportation plan for the integrated development of a system of roadways, transit facilities, air transportation facilities, and appurtenant terminals and other facilities for the movement of people and goods to, from, and within the area of the base.

(3) A conservation plan for the preservation, development, use, and management of natural resources within the area of the base, including, but not limited to, soils, shoreline, scenic corridors along transportation routes, open spaces, wetlands, recreational facilities, historical facilities, and habitat of or for exceptional flora and fauna.

(4) A recreation plan for the development, use, and management of the recreational resources within the area of the base.

(5) A five-year capital improvement program that complies with the requirements of Section 65403. The program shall include an allocation of the available water supply, sewage treatment capacity, solid waste disposal capability, and other limited public service capabilities among the potential development within the area of the base. The program shall also identify both of the following:

(A) Base-wide facilities identified pursuant to Section 67679.

(B) Local facilities that are in the county or a city with territory occupied by Fort Ord and that primarily serve residents of the county or that city.

(d) In addition to the plan elements required pursuant to subdivision (c), the plan may also include any element or subject specified in Section 65302.

(e) The Fort Ord Reuse Plan may provide for development to occur in phases, with criteria concerning public facility development and other factors that must be satisfied within each time phase.

(f) In preparing, adopting, reviewing, and revising the reuse plan, the board shall be consistent with approved coastal plans, air quality plans, water quality plans, spheres of influence, and other county-wide or regional plans required by federal or state law, other than local general plans, including any amendments subsequent to the enactment of this title, and shall consider all of the following:

(1) Monterey Bay regional plans.

(2) County and city plans and proposed projects covering the territory occupied by Fort Ord or otherwise likely to be affected by the future uses of the base.

(3) Other public and nongovernmental entity plans and proposed projects affecting the planning and development of the territory occupied by Fort Ord.

67675.1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Title 7 (commencing with Section 65000), after the board has adopted a reuse plan, a member agency with jurisdiction within the territory of Fort Ord may adopt and rely on the Fort Ord Reuse Plan, including any amendments thereto, for purposes of its territory within Fort Ord as its local general plan for purposes of Title 7 until January 1, 1996.

67675.2. After the board has adopted a reuse plan, each county or city with territory occupied by Fort Ord shall submit its general plan or amended general plan to the board, which satisfies both of the following:

(a) The plan is submitted pursuant to a resolution adopted by the county or city, after a noticed public hearing, that certified that the portion of the general plan or amended general plan applicable to the territory of Fort Ord is intended to be carried out in a manner fully in conformity with this title.

(b) It contains, in accordance with guidelines established by the board, materials sufficient for a thorough and complete review.

67675.3. (a) The board shall, within 90 days after the submittal, after a noticed public hearing, either certify or refuse to certify, in whole or in part, the portion of the general plan or amended general plan applicable to the territory of Fort Ord.

(b) Where a general plan or amended general plan is refused certification, in whole or in part, the board shall provide a written explanation and may suggest modifications, which, if adopted and transmitted to the board by the county or a city, will allow the amended general plan to be deemed certified upon confirmation of the executive officer of the board. The county or a city may elect to meet the board's refusal of certification in a manner other than as suggested by the board and may then resubmit its revised general plan to the board. If the county or a city requests that the board not recommend or suggest modifications which if made will result in certification, the board shall refuse certification with the required findings.

(c) The board shall approve and certify the portions of a general plan or amended general plan applicable to the territory of Fort Ord, or any amendments thereto, if the board finds that the portions of the general plan or amended general plan applicable to the territory of Fort Ord meets the requirements of this title, and is consistent with the Fort Ord Reuse Plan.

67675.4. (a) Within 30 days after the certification of a general plan or amended general plan, or any portion thereof, the board shall, after consultation with the county or a city, establish a date for that county or city to submit the zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, and, where necessary, other implementing actions applicable to the territory of Fort Ord.

(b) If the county or a city fails to meet the schedule established pursuant to subdivision (a), the board may waive the deadlines for board action on submitted zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, and, where necessary, other implementing actions, as set forth in Section 67675.5.

67675.5. (a) The county and cities shall submit to the board the zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, and, where necessary, other implementing actions applicable to the territory of Fort Ord that are required pursuant to this title.

(b) The board may only reject zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, or other implementing actions on the grounds that they do not conform with, or are inadequate to carry out, the provisions of the certified general plan applicable to the territory of Fort Ord. If the board rejects the zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, or other implementing actions applicable to the territory of Fort Ord, it shall give written notice of the rejection specifying the provisions of the general plan with which the rejected zoning ordinances do not conform or which it finds will not be adequately carried out, together with its reasons for the action taken.

(c) The board may suggest modifications in the rejected zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, or other implementing actions, which, if adopted by the county or cities and transmitted to the board, shall be deemed approved upon confirmation by the executive officer of the board.

(d) The county or cities may elect to meet the board's rejection in a manner other than as suggested by the board and may then resubmit its revised zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, and other implementing actions to the board.

67675.6. (a) Except for appeals to the board, as provided in Section 67675.8, after the portion of a general plan applicable to Fort Ord has been certified and all implementing actions within the area affected have become effective, the development review authority shall be exercised by the respective county or city over any development proposed within the area to which the general plan applies.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any development proposed or undertaken on any tidelands, submerged lands, or on public trust lands, whether filled or unfilled, lying within the coastal zone.

67675.7. After the board has certified a general plan or an amended general plan, any amendments to that certified plan that are applicable to the territory of Fort Ord shall take effect only upon certification in the same manner as for the initially certified plan, as provided in this title.

67675.8. (a) After the board has adopted a reuse plan pursuant to this title, any revision or other change to that plan which only affects territory lying within the jurisdiction of one member agency may only be adopted by the board if one of the following conditions is satisfied:

(1) The revision or other change was initiated by resolution adopted by the legislative body of the affected member agency and approved by at least a majority affirmative vote of the board.

(2) The revision or other change was initiated by the board or any entity other than the affected member agency and approved by at least a two-thirds affirmative vote of the board.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding any provision of law allowing any city or county to approve development projects, no local agency shall permit, approve, or otherwise allow any development or other change of use within the area of the base that is not consistent with the plan as adopted or revised pursuant to this title. Except as required by state or federal law, other than state law authorizing cities and counties to approve development projects, the board shall be the final judge of this consistency with the requirements of this title. The board may adopt regulations to ensure compliance with the provisions of this title. No local agency shall permit, approve, or otherwise allow any development or other change of use within the area of the base that is outside the jurisdiction of that local agency.

(2) Subject to the consistency determinations required pursuant to this title, each member agency with jurisdiction lying within the area of Fort Ord may plan for, zone, and issue or deny building permits and other development approvals within that area. Actions of the member agency pursuant to this paragraph may be reviewed by the board on its own initiative, or may be appealed to the board. Under no circumstances shall development approvals of the following categories be held to be inconsistent with the Fort Ord Reuse Plan:

(i) The construction of one single family house or one multiple family house not exceeding four units on a vacant lot within an area appropriately designated in the plan.

(ii) Improvements to existing single family residences or to existing multiple family residences not exceeding four units, including remodels or room additions.

(iii) Remodels of the interior of any existing building or structure.

(iv) Repair and maintenance activities that do not result in an addition to, or enlargement or expansion of, any building or structure.

(v) Installation, testing, and placement in service or the replacement of any necessary utility connection between an existing service facility and development approved pursuant to this chapter.

(vi) Replacement of any building or structure destroyed by a natural disaster.

(c) The board may require any public or private entity seeking to initiate a revision or other change to a plan adopted pursuant to this section to pay a charge or charges sufficient to cover the reasonable costs of reviewing, evaluating, preparing, adopting, and publishing the proposed revision or change.

67677. The board may negotiate and enter into appropriate agreements with the United States or any of its agencies or departments for the purpose of determining the disposition, reuse, or conservation of the property or facilities within the area of Fort Ord.

67678. (a) The board shall be the principal local public agent for the acquisition, lease disposition, and sale of real property transferred pursuant to the "Pryor Amendment", except as otherwise provided in this section. The board may take title to property transferred pursuant to the "Pryor Amendment" within the area of the base that is either turned over to the board by the federal government at no cost or that is purchased. The board may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of this property at full market value or at less than full market value in order to facilitate the rapid and successful transition of the base to civilian use. In any transaction involving the transfer of federal property, the board shall fully satisfy all conditions, requirements, and understandings with the federal government with respect to the use and disposal of that property. In the sale, lease, or disposition of real property, the board shall follow the procedures and make those determinations that are required of redevelopment agencies pursuant to Article 11 (commencing with Section 33430) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) The board may mediate and resolve conflicts between local agencies concerning the uses of federal land to be transferred for public benefit purposes or other uses.

(c) The provisions of this title shall not preclude negotiations between the federal government and any local telecommunication, water, gas, electric, or cable provider for the transfer to any such utility or provider of federally owned distribution systems and related facilities serving Fort Ord.

(d) The provisions of this title shall not be construed to limit the rights of the California State University or the University of California to acquire, hold, and use real property at Fort Ord, including locating or developing educationally related or research oriented facilities on this property.

(e) Except for property transferred to the California State University, or to the University of California, and that is used for educational or research purposes, and except for property transferred to the California Department of Parks and Recreation, all property transferred from the federal government to any user or purchaser, whether public or private, shall be used only in a manner consistent with the plan adopted or revised pursuant to Section 67675.

67679. (a) The board shall identify those base-wide public capital facilities described in the Fort Ord Reuse Plan, including, but not limited to, roads, freeway ramps, air transportation facilities, and freight hauling and handling facilities; sewage and water conveyance and treatment facilities; school, library, and other educational facilities; and recreational facilities, that serve residents or will serve future residents of the base territory and could most efficiently or conveniently be planned, negotiated, financed, or constructed by the board to further the integrated future use of the base. The board shall undertake to plan for and arrange the provision of those facilities, including arranging for their financing and construction. The board may plan, design, construct, and finance these public capital facilities, or delegate any of those powers to one or more member agencies.

(b) If all or any portion of the Fritzsche Army Air Field is transferred to the City of Marina, the board shall not consider those portions of the air field that continue to be used as an airport to be base-wide capital facilities, except with the consent of the legislative body of the city. If all or any portion of the two Army golf courses within the territory of Seaside are transferred to the City of Seaside, the board shall not consider those portions of the golf courses that continue in use as golf courses to be base-wide capital facilities, except with the consent of the legislative body of the city.

(c) The board may seek state and federal grants and loans or other assistance to help fund public facilities.

(d) The board may, in any year, levy assessments, reassessments, or special taxes and issue bonds to finance these base-wide public facilities in accordance with, and pursuant to, any of the following:

(1) The Improvement Act of 1911 (Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code).

(2) The Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code).

(3) The Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 (Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Streets and Highways Code).

(4) The Benefit Assessment Act of 1982 (Chapter 6.4 (commencing with Section 54703)).

(5) The Landscape and Lighting Act of 1972 (Part 2 (commencing with Section 22500) of Division 15 of the Streets and Highways Code).

(6) The Integrated Financing District Act (Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 53175) of Division 2 of Title 5).

(7) The Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982 (Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5).

(8) The Infrastructure Financing District Act (Chapter 2.8 (commencing with Section 53395) of Division 2 of Title 5).

(9) The Marks-Roos Local Bond Pooling Act of 1985 (Article 4 (commencing with Section 6584) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1).

(10) The Revenue Bond Act of 1941 (Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Division 2 of Title 5).

(11) Fire suppression assessments levied pursuant to Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 50078) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5.

(12) The Habitat Maintenance Funding Act (Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 2900) of Division 3 of the Fish and Game Code).

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may create any of these financing districts within the area of Fort Ord to finance base-wide public facilities without the consent of any city or county. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no city or county with jurisdiction over any area of the base, whether now or in the future, shall create any land-based financing district or levy any assessment or tax secured by a lien on real property within the area of the base without the consent of the board, except that the city or county may create these financing districts for the purposes and subject to any financing limitations that may be specified in the capital improvement program prepared pursuant to Section 67675.

(e) The board may levy development fees on development projects within the area of the base. Any development fees shall comply with the requirements of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 66000) of Division 1 of Title 5. No local agency shall issue any building permit for any development within the area of Fort Ord until the board has certified that all development fees that it has levied with respect to the development project have been paid or otherwise satisfied.

67680. The board may enter into contracts and agreements as necessary to mitigate the impacts of the reuse of Fort Ord on rare and endangered species of flora and fauna. These contracts and agreements may include provisions for the long-term preservation and management of habitat areas, including acquisition or acceptance by the board of title to real property, restriction on the development of portions of the area of Fort Ord, and arrangements for the long-term management and biological monitoring of the flora and fauna of the base, including its financing.

67680.5. The board may enter into contracts and agreements as necessary to mitigate impacts of the reuse of Fort Ord in addition to those specified in Section 67680.

67681. The board may study, evaluate, and recommend cleanup of toxic and explosive substances within the area of the base to the federal government, including the Department of Defense, and the State of California, if it determines that doing so is in the best interests of the communities in the Monterey Bay area.

67683. The board shall aggressively pursue all possible federal funding for the transfer, cleanup, and reuse of Fort Ord, including funding to pay for the costs of public capital facilities and funding to attract and encourage the development of private businesses and public universities and other public facilities within the area of the base. The board may also pursue and accept federal and state funding to pay part of the expenses of operating the Fort Ord Reuse Authority.

67684. The board may take other action that is necessary or convenient to ensure the rapid and successful conversion of the area of Fort Ord to civilian use in a way that provides maximum benefits to the communities of the Monterey Bay area and the State of California.

67685. The applicability of any capital facilities fees imposed under this title to public educational agencies shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter 13.7 (commencing with Section 54999) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5.

CHAPTER 5. FUNDING

67690. In addition to any funds received from federal and state agencies for the expenses of operating the Fort Ord Reuse Authority, the board may receive contributions from agencies represented on the board. Each agency represented by a board member shall contribute to the authority, on or before August 1 of each fiscal year, the sum of fourteen thousand dollars ($14,000) for each board member that the agency appoints. Each public agency which is represented on the board by an ex officio member shall contribute to the authority, on or before August 1 of each fiscal year, the sum of seven thousand dollars ($7,000). For purposes of this section, the term "public agency" does not include any elected official of the federal or state government.

67691. The board and the member agencies may provide by contract for the transfer to the board or between member agencies of revenues available from sales tax, property tax, or other sources in order to help finance the cost of paying for services or capital facilities to serve or enhance the development of Fort Ord. The contract or contracts may provide for the transfer of funds to member agencies with responsibility for providing services of facilities within the area of Fort Ord for a specified number of years, and for the repayment of those funds in later years with interest, or for repayment in the form of an equity interest in property, sales, or other tax revenues that may be payable as a result of development occurring within the area of Fort Ord. Any such contract shall be effective only upon approval by the board and the member agencies involved.

67692. The board shall consider a program of local revenue sharing among the member agencies to ensure an equitable apportionment of revenues generated from the reuse of Fort Ord among those member agencies responsible for the provision of services to Fort Ord and member agencies that assist in the funding of services to Fort Ord.

CHAPTER 6. PLEDGE

67695. The State of California does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any bonds issued, and with any public or private entity with which the board has entered into a contract or an agreement, pursuant to the provisions of this title, that the state will not alter or change the structure, organization, programs, or powers hereby vested in the board until those bonds are fully met or discharged and until the board has fully met or discharged its obligations pursuant to those agreements or contracts. However, nothing in this act shall preclude an alteration or change if, and when, adequate provision shall have been made by law for the protection from impairment of the contracts represented by those bonds or contracts or agreements, and the right to so alter or change is hereby reserved. The board is authorized to include this pledge and undertaking of the state in its bonds and contracts or agreements.

CHAPTER 7. DISSOLUTION

67700. This title shall become inoperative when the board determines that 80 percent of the territory of Fort Ord that is designated for development or reuse in the plan prepared pursuant to this title has been developed or reused in a manner consistent with the plan adopted or revised pursuant to Section 67675, or June 30, 2014, whichever occurs first, and on January 1, 2015, this title is repealed.

The Monterey County Local Agency Formation Commission shall provide for the orderly dissolution of the authority including insuring that all contracts, agreements, and pledges to pay or repay money entered into by the authority are honored and properly administered, and that all assets of the authority are appropriately transferred.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that this act, which establishes the Fort Ord Reuse Authority, is necessary to address the unique and special base reuse problems in the Fort Ord area of Monterey County. Therefore, a general statute within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution cannot be made applicable to this area. Enactment of this special statute is necessary for the transfer of the real and other property comprising the military reservation known as Fort Ord in an expeditious manner, and for base planning, infrastructure financing, and development in a manner that involves entities affected by the transfer.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide for the transfer of the real and other property comprising the military reservation known as Fort Ord in Monterey County and to initiate planning and development for that property as soon as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 65

An act to amend Sections 25174, 25205.7, 25404.1, 25404.2, and 25404.4 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 9, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 10, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25174 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25174. (a) There is in the General Fund a Hazardous Waste Control Account which shall be administered by the director. In addition to any other money transferred by the Legislature to the Hazardous Waste Control Account, all of the following amounts shall be deposited in the account:

(1) The fees collected pursuant to Sections 25187.2, 25205.2, 25205.5, 25205.6, 25205.7, 25205.8, and 25221.

(2) The surcharges collected pursuant to Section 25205.9.

(3) The amount of fees collected pursuant to Section 2560 of the Vehicle Code, as allocated by Section 25168.6.

(4) Any interest earned upon the money deposited in the Hazardous Waste Control Account.

(5) Any money received from the federal government pursuant to the federal act.

(6) Any fines or penalties collected pursuant to this chapter.

(7) All money received from the sources described in subdivisions (a) to (h), inclusive, of Section 25330. That money shall not be deposited in the Hazardous Substance Account unless they are transferred pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) The funds deposited in the Hazardous Waste Control Account may be appropriated by the Legislature, for expenditure as follows:

(1) To the department for the administration of this chapter and Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) and for state operational costs.

(2) To the department for allocation to the State Board of Equalization to pay refunds of fees collected pursuant to Sections 43051 and 43053 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(3) To the department for allocation to the State Board of Equalization to pay any refunds due relating to the surcharges collected pursuant to Section 43055 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(4) To the department for the costs of environmental epidemiology and health effects studies related to toxic substances, including extremely hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25115, and hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25117.

(5) (A) To the office of the Attorney General for the support of the Toxic Substance Enforcement Program in the office of the Attorney General, in carrying out the purposes of this chapter and Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300).

(B) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), expenditures for the purpose of this paragraph shall not be subject to an interagency or interdepartmental agreement.

(C) On or before October 1 of each year, the Attorney General shall report to the Legislature on the expenditure of any funds appropriated to the office of the Attorney General pursuant to this paragraph for the preceding fiscal year.

(6) To the department for allocation to the State Water Resources Control Board for costs incurred in the administration of Section 13227 of the Water Code and for costs incurred as a result of the inspection of underground storage tanks and related enforcement costs pursuant to Section 13301 of the Water Code.

(7) To the department for allocation to the Office of Emergency Services for the support of the state's program to implement the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act of 1986 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 11001 et seq.).

(8) To the department upon transfer to the Hazardous Substance Account or the Site Remediation Account.

(9) (A) To the department for all purposes for which funds may be expended from the Hazardous Substance Account or the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund pursuant to Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), with the exceptions of repayments of principal of, and interest on, bonds sold pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 25385), and payments to contractors for site investigation, characterization, removal, or remediation.

(B) Funds expended pursuant to this paragraph shall be subject to the restrictions provided by Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) on expenditures from the Hazardous Substance Account or the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund.

(c) Except for the appropriation to the office of the Attorney General pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b), all expenditures from the Hazardous Waste Control Account for support of departments or agencies other than the Department of Toxic Substances Control shall, after appropriation to the Department of Toxic Substances Control by the Legislature, be subject to an interagency or interdepartmental agreement between the Department of Toxic Substances Control and the department or agency receiving the support.

SEC. 2. Section 25205.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.7. (a) The board shall assess a fee for any application for a new hazardous waste facilities permit, a permit for a hazardous waste facility which would manage extremely hazardous waste, a variance, or a permit modification issued by the department pursuant to this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. The fee shall be nonrefundable, even if the application is withdrawn or the permit, variance, or modification is denied. The department shall provide the board with any information which is necessary to assess fees pursuant to this section. The fee shall be collected in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and deposited into the Hazardous Waste Control Account. A person who submits a single application for a facility that falls within more than one fee category shall pay only the higher fee.

(b) The amounts stated in this section shall be base rates for the 1989-90 fiscal year. Thereafter the fees shall be adjusted annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index for the United States, as reported by the Department of Labor or a successor agency of the United States government. The fee shall be assessed upon application to the department. For a facility operating pursuant to interim status, the submittal of the application shall be the submittal of the Part B application in accordance with regulations adopted by the department. A person who submits an application for renewal of any existing permit shall pay an amount equal to the fee that would have been assessed had the person requested the same changes in a modification application, but not less than one-half the fee required for a new permit.

(c) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a land disposal facility shall pay eighty-three thousand dollars ($83,000) for a small facility, one hundred seventy-seven thousand dollars ($177,000) for a medium facility, and three hundred four thousand dollars ($304,000) for a large facility.

(d) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for any incinerator shall pay fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for a small facility, one hundred six thousand dollars ($106,000) for a medium facility, and one hundred eighty-two thousand dollars ($182,000) for a large facility.

(e) (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), a person submitting a hazardous waste facility permit application for a storage facility, a treatment facility, or a storage and treatment facility shall pay seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000) for a small facility, thirty-one thousand dollars ($31,000) for a medium facility, and sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) for a large facility.

(2) A person submitting an application for a standardized permit for a storage facility, a treatment facility, or a storage and treatment facility, as specified in Section 25201.6, shall pay thirty thousand fifty-one dollars ($30,051) for a series A standardized permit, eighteen thousand seven hundred sixty-two dollars ($18,762) for a series B standardized permit, and five thousand dollars ($5,000) for a series C standardized permit. The board shall assess these fees based upon the classifications specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25201.6.

(3) In addition to the fees specified in paragraph (2), the board shall assess a fee equal to the department's costs in reviewing and overseeing any corrective action program described in the application for a standardized permit pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 25201.6, and in reviewing and overseeing any corrective action work undertaken at the facility pursuant to that corrective action program.

(f) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a transportable treatment unit shall pay thirteen thousand dollars ($13,000) for a small unit, thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) for a medium unit, and sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) for a large unit.

(g) (1) A person submitting a request for a variance shall pay three thousand dollars ($3,000) for a variance from any hazardous waste storage requirements imposed by this chapter, three hundred dollars ($300) for a variance issued pursuant to Section 25179.8, three hundred dollars ($300) for a variance to allow the use of a test method or analytical method which is an alternative to the methods prescribed by regulation for use in classifying a waste, eight hundred dollars ($800) for a variance from the requirements for hazardous waste haulers imposed by this chapter.

(A) A person submitting a request for a variance not otherwise listed in this paragraph shall pay eight thousand dollars ($8,000), unless the applicant is a small business and the department determines in its discretion that payment of this fee would cause financial or other unreasonable hardship to the applicant. If that finding is made, the department may assess the applicant up to 50 percent of the standard fee. For the purposes of this subparagraph, "small business" means a business which is independently owned and operated, has 25 employees or less, and has a gross annual income which does not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(B) If the variance application requests a variance from more than one specific statute or regulation, a separate fee may be assessed for each statute or regulation from which the variance is requested.

(2) If the variance contains no significant changes from a variance previously issued to the same owner or operator, the fee shall be 25 percent of the amount otherwise provided for by this section. A change is a significant change if, had it been made to a permit, it would have been a class 2 or class 3 modification, as specified in subdivision (h).

(3) Any variance granted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 66260.21) of Chapter 10 of Division 4.5 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations is not subject to a fee under this section.

(h) (1) A person who applies for one or more class 1 permit modifications shall pay a fee of five hundred dollars ($500) for each unit directly impacted by the modification, up to a maximum of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) for each application.

(2) A person who applies for one or more class 2 permit modifications shall pay a fee equal to 20 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 40 percent for each application, except that each person who applies for one or more class 2 permit modifications for a land disposal facility or an incinerator shall pay a fee equal to 15 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 30 percent for each application.

(3) A person who applies for one or more class 3 permit modifications shall pay a fee equal to 40 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 80 percent for each application, except that a person who applies for one or more class 3 permit modifications for a land disposal facility shall pay a fee equal to 30 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 60 percent for each modification.

(4) No facility which is exempted from fees imposed by this article pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 25205.3, nor any operator who is subject to paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (d) of Section 25205.2, shall be subject to any fee pursuant to this section for a permit modification resulting from a revision of the facility's or operator's closure plan.

(i) Permits for postclosure shall be required for hazardous waste facilities if hazardous wastes remain after closure which will not be subject to the requirements of any other hazardous waste facilities permit issued by the department at the time of postclosure permit approval.

(1) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a postclosure permit shall pay a fee of eight thousand dollars ($8,000) for a small facility, eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000) for a medium facility, and thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) for a large facility.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision and paragraph (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 25205.4, and notwithstanding subdivision (j), any facility or unit is "small" if 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste remain after closure, "medium" if more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons of hazardous waste remain after closure, and "large" if 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste remain after closure.

(j) For purposes of this section, and notwithstanding Section 25205.1, any facility or unit is "small" if it manages 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year, "medium" if it manages more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year, and "large" if it manages 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year.

(k) The fees assessed pursuant to this section do not apply to any permit or variance to operate a research, development, and demonstration facility, if the duration of the permit or variance is not longer than one year, unless the permit or variance is renewed pursuant to the regulations adopted by the department. For purposes of this section, a "research, development, and demonstration facility" is a facility which proposes to utilize an innovative and experimental hazardous waste treatment technology or process for which regulations prescribing permit standards have not been adopted.

(l) The fees assessed pursuant to this section do not apply to any of the following:

(1) Any variance issued to a public agency to transport wastes for purposes of operating a household hazardous waste collection facility, or to transport waste from a household hazardous waste collection facility, which receives household hazardous waste or hazardous waste from conditionally exempted small quantity generators pursuant to Article 10.8 (commencing with Section 25218).

(2) A permanent household hazardous waste collection facility.

(3) Any variance issued to a public agency to conduct a collection program for agricultural wastes.

(m) Except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (e), the department shall not access any fees for the department's costs in reviewing and overseeing a corrective action taken in conjunction with a hazardous waste facility permit application.

(n) The fees assessed pursuant to subdivision (h) do not apply to any government agency for hazardous wastes which result when the government agency, or its contractor, investigates, removes, or remedies a release of hazardous waste caused by another person.

(o) Any person producing or transporting extremely hazardous waste shall pay a fee to the department of two hundred dollars ($200) per calendar year, in addition to any other fee imposed by this section. The fee shall be collected by the department annually.

SEC. 3. Section 25404.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25404.1. (a) (1) All aspects of the unified program related to the adoption and interpretation of statewide standards and requirements shall be the responsibility of the state agency which is charged with that responsibility under existing law. For underground storage tanks, that agency shall be the State Water Resources Control Board. The Department of Toxic Substances Control shall have the sole responsibility for the issuances of variances pursuant to Section 25143, for the determination of whether or not a waste is hazardous or nonhazardous, and for the determination of whether or not a person is eligible to be deemed to be operating pursuant to a grant of conditional authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3, for conditional exemption pursuant to Section 25201.5, or for operation pursuant to a permit-by-rule.

(2) Those aspects of the unified program related to the application of statewide standards to particular facilities, including the grant of authorizations, the issuance of permits, the review of reports and plans, and the enforcement of those standards and requirements against particular facilities, shall be the responsibility of the certified unified program agency, except as provided in paragraph (1).

(b) (1) On or before January 1, 1996, each county shall apply to the secretary to be certified as a unified program agency to implement the unified program within the unincorporated area of the county and within each city in the county, in which area or city, as of January 1, 1996, the city or other local agency has not applied to be the certified unified program agency.

(2) (A) Any city or other local agency which, as of December 31, 1995, has been designated as an administering agency pursuant to Section 25502, or which has assumed responsibility for the implementation of Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280) pursuant to Section 25283, may apply to the secretary to become the certified unified program agency to implement the unified program within the jurisdictional boundaries of the city or local agency.

(B) A city or other local agency which, as of December 31, 1995, has not been designated as an administering agency pursuant to Section 25502, or which has not assumed responsibility for the implementation of Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280) pursuant to Section 25283, may apply to the secretary to become the certified unified program agency within the jurisdictional boundaries of the city or local agency if it enters into an agreement with the county to become the certified unified program agency within those boundaries. A county shall not refuse to enter into an agreement unless it specifies in writing its reasons for failing to enter into the agreement. However, if the city does not enter into the agreement with the county, within 30 days of receiving a county's reasons for failing to enter into agreement, a city may request that the secretary allow it to apply to be a certified unified program agency and the secretary may, in his or her discretion, approve the request.

(3) A city, county, or joint powers agency may propose, in its application for certification to the secretary, to allow other public agencies to implement certain elements of the unified program, but the secretary shall accept that proposal only if the secretary makes the findings specified in subdivision (d) of Section 25404.3.

(4) If a city or other local agency which, as of December 31, 1995, has been designated as an administering agency pursuant to Section 25502, or has assumed responsibility for the implementation of Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280) pursuant to Section 25283, requests that the county propose in its application for certification to the secretary that the city or local agency implement, within the jurisdictional boundaries of the city or local agency, those elements of the unified program which, as of December 31, 1995, the city or local agency has authority to administer, the county shall grant that request.

SEC. 4. Section 25404.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25404.2. (a) The certified unified program agency in each jurisdiction shall do all of the following:

(1) Develop and implement a program which consolidates all permits or other grants of authorization issued pursuant to the provisions specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404, or pursuant to any local ordinance or regulation relating to the handling of hazardous waste or hazardous materials, into a single permit or grant of authorization.

(2) To the maximum extent feasible within statutory constraints, consolidate, coordinate, and make consistent any local or regional regulations, ordinances, requirements, or guidance documents related to the implementation of the provisions specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404 or pursuant to any regional or local ordinance or regulation pertaining to hazardous waste or hazardous materials. This paragraph does not affect the authority of a certified unified program agency with regard to the preemption of the certified unified program agency's authority under state law.

(3) Develop and implement a single, unified inspection and enforcement program to ensure coordinated, efficient, and effective enforcement of the provisions specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404, and any local ordinance or regulation pertaining to the handling of hazardous waste or hazardous materials.

(4) Coordinate, to the maximum extent feasible, the single, unified inspection and enforcement program with the inspection and enforcement program of other federal, state, regional, and local agencies which affect facilities regulated by the unified program. This paragraph does not prohibit the unified program agency, or any other agency, from conducting inspections, or from undertaking any other enforcement-related activity, without giving prior notice to the regulated entity, except where the prior notice is otherwise required by law.

(b) Each air quality management district or air pollution control district, each publicly owned treatment works, and each office, board, and department within the California Environmental Protection Agency, shall coordinate, to the maximum extent feasible, those aspects of its inspection and enforcement program which affect facilities regulated by the unified program with the inspection and enforcement programs of each certified unified program agency.

(c) The certified unified program agency may incorporate, as part of the unified program within its jurisdiction, the implementation and enforcement of laws which the agency is authorized to implement and enforce, other than those specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25404, if that incorporation will not impair the ability of the certified unified program agency to fully implement the requirements of subdivision (a).

SEC. 5. Section 25404.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25404.4. (a) (1) The secretary shall periodically review the ability of each certified unified program agency to carry out this chapter. If a certified unified program agency fails to meet its obligations to adequately implement the unified program, the secretary may withdraw the agency's certification, or may enter into a program improvement agreement with the agency to make the necessary improvements. An agency with which the secretary has entered into a program improvement agreement may continue to implement the unified program while the program improvement agreement is in effect and the agency is in compliance with the agreement.

(2) Before withdrawing an agency's certification, the secretary shall submit to the certified unified program agency a notification of the secretary's intent to withdraw certification, in which the secretary shall specify the reasons why the certified unified program agency has failed to meet its obligations to adequately implement the unified program. The secretary shall provide the certified unified program agency with a reasonable time to respond to the reasons specified in the notification and to correct the deficiencies specified in the notification. The certified unified program agency may request a public hearing, at which the secretary shall hear the agency's response to the reasons specified in the notification.

(b) (1) If the secretary finds that a certified unified program agency has failed to adequately enforce the requirements of the unified program with respect to a particular facility, the secretary may direct the appropriate state agency to take any necessary actions and to issue necessary orders to the facility.

(2) If the secretary finds that the failure to adequately enforce the requirements of the unified program may result in an imminent and substantial endangerment to the environment or to the public health and safety, the secretary shall direct the appropriate state agency to take any necessary actions and to issue the necessary orders to the facility.

(3) This subdivision does not affect the authority of any state agency to take any other enforcement or implementation action authorized pursuant to state law.

SEC. 6. The amendment of Section 25205.7 of the Health and Safety Code made at the 1994 Regular Session of the Legislature does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, the existing law.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure the timely implementation of state law intended to reduce the release of hazardous substances into the environment, thereby protecting health and safety and the environment, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 66

An act to add Section 2079.11 to the Civil Code, relating to real property.

[Approved by Governor May 9, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 10, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2079.11 is added to the Civil Code, to read:
2079.11. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), to the extent permitted by law, the consumer information publications referred to in this article, including, but not limited to, the information booklets described in Section 10084.1 of the Business and Professions Code and Section 25402.9 of the Public Resources Code, shall be in the public domain and freely available.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the Seismic Safety Commission may charge a royalty fee not to exceed twenty-five cents ($0.25) per copy for the cost of developing, drafting, preparing, maintaining, updating, publishing, and disseminating the Homeowner's Guide to Earthquake Safety and the Commercial Property Owner's Guide to Earthquake Safety, until the commission has collected the actual cost thereof up to a total of three hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($375,000), or until December 31, 1995, whichever occurs first. After December 31, 1995, or the collection of three hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($375,000), whichever occurs first, the Homeowner's Guide to Earthquake Safety and the Commercial Property Owner's Guide to Earthquake Safety shall be in the public domain.

(c) Fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the General Fund and, upon appropriation, shall be made available to the Seismic Safety Commission for reimbursement expenses.

CHAPTER 67

An act to amend Section 25503.6 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor May 9, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 10, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25503.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25503.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the holder of a beer manufacturer's or winegrower's license may purchase advertising space and time from, or on behalf of, an on-sale retail licensee subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The on-sale licensee is the owner, manager, agent of the owner, assignee of the owner's advertising rights, or the major tenant of the owner of either of the following:

(A) An outdoor stadium or a fully enclosed arena with a fixed seating capacity in excess of 10,000 seats located within a county of the eighth class, as defined in Section 28029 of the Government Code.

(B) A fully enclosed arena with a fixed seating capacity in excess of 18,000 seats located in Orange County.

(2) The outdoor stadium or fully enclosed arena described in paragraph (1) is not owned by a community college district.

(3) The advertising space or time is purchased only in connection with events to be held on the premises of the stadium or arena owned by the on-sale licensee.

(4) The on-sale licensee serves other brands of beer or wine in addition to the brand manufactured by the beer manufacturer or produced by the winegrower purchasing the advertising space or time.

(b) Any purchase of advertising space or time pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be conducted pursuant to a written contract entered into by the holder of the beer manufacturer's or winegrower's license and the on-sale licensee.

(c) Any holder of a beer manufacturer's or winegrower's license who, through coercion or other illegal means, induces a holder of a beer or wine wholesaler's license to fulfill those contractual obligations entered into pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine in an amount equal to the entire value of the advertising space or time involved in the contract, plus ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both imprisonment and fine. The person shall also be subject to license revocation pursuant to Section 24200.

CHAPTER 68

An act to amend Section 6660 of, to repeal Sections 6650, 6654, 6655, 6656, 6657, 6658, and 6659 of, to repeal Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 15150) of Division 5 of, and to repeal Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 18330) of Division 7 of, the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 9, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 10, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6650 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 6654 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 6655 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 6656 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 6657 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 6658 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 6659 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 6660 of the Financial Code is amended to read:
6660. (a) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Account" means withdrawable or repurchasable shares, investment certificates, deposits, or savings accounts as defined in Section 561.2, 561.16, 561.28, 561.29, 561.42, or 563.6 of Title 12 of the Code of Federal Regulations pursuant to which the account holder from time to time may make deposits and effect withdrawals.

(2) "Account holder" means a person who is identified on the signature card for an account, or in the absence of a signature card, a person who has an interest in an account which is reflected on the records of the association for that account to whom statements of account or other notices are normally given, or the agent of such person.

(3) "Charges" means those charges which an association may, from time to time, impose on an account in the normal course of business in the operation of the account and, does not include:

(A) Charges which may be imposed for extraordinary services furnished at the specific request of the account holder.

(B) Charges or amounts required to be disclosed to the depositor pursuant to the Truth-in-Lending Act (15 U.S.C. Sec. 1601 et seq.) and Regulation Z (12 C.F.R. 226.1 et seq.), as amended.

(4) "Customer" means one or more natural persons.

(5) "Debt" means an interest-bearing obligation or an obligation that by its terms is payable in installments, which has not been reduced to judgment, arising from an extension of credit to a natural person primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, and does not mean a charge for savings and loan services, for a debit for uncollected funds, for dishonored checks cashed for a customer, or for an overdraft account imposed by an association on a savings account.

(b) An association is limited in exercising any setoff for a debt claimed to be owed to the association by a customer in that a setoff shall not result in an aggregate balance of less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) as shown on the records of the association for all accounts maintained by a customer with the association or any of its branches.

(c) Not later than the day following the exercise of any setoff with respect to an account for any debt claimed to be owed to the association by a customer, the association shall deliver to each customer personally or send by first-class mail postage prepaid to the address of each customer as shown on the records of the association a written notice in at least 10-point type containing the following:

(1) A statement that the association has set off all or part of a debt against the customer's account, identifying the account, and giving the respective balances before and after the setoff.

(2) A statement identifying the debt setoff against the account and giving the respective balances due before and after the setoff.

(3) A statement that if the customer claims that the debt has been paid or is not now owing, or that the funds in the account consist of moneys expressly exempt pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and listed in the notice, the customer may execute and return the notice to the association by mail at the address shown or personally to the branch where the customer's account is maintained not later than 20 days after the date of mailing or personal delivery.

(4) A statement that (A) if the notice is executed and returned, the association may file an action in court to collect the debt, (B) that if a lawsuit is filed, the customer will be notified and have an opportunity to appear and defend, and (C) that if the association is successful, the customer will be liable for court costs, and attorney's fees, if the debt so provides.

(5) A response form in at least 10-point type containing substantially the following:

"The debt described in the Notice of Setoff received from the savings and loan association is ____ is not ____ my debt or the debt of another person in whose name the account is maintained.

"I claim that the debt:

____ has been paid.

____ is not now owing.

____ is not subject to setoff because the money in the account is:

____ Paid earnings (CCP 704.070)

____ Proceeds from execution sale of or insurance for loss of a motor vehicle (CCP 704.010)

____ Proceeds from execution sale of household furnishings or other personal effects (CCP 704.020)

____ Relocation benefits (CCP 704.180)

____ Life insurance proceeds (CCP 704.100)

____ Disability and health insurance benefits (CCP 704.130)

____ Workers' compensation benefits (CCP 704.160)

____ Unemployment or strike benefits (CCP 704.120)

____ Retirement benefits including, but not limited to, social security benefits (CCP 704.080, 704.110, 704.115)

____ Public assistance benefits including welfare payments and supplemental security income (SSI) or charitable aid (CCP 704.170) and the federal deposit disclosure laws provide adequate safeguards for consumers. Furthermore, several provisions of the California deposit disclosure laws already were repealed on a de facto basis with the enactment of the federal deposit disclosure laws. Finally, in 1993, the Legislature repealed the California deposit disclosure laws pertaining to state-chartered banks, yet did not repeal the same laws which apply, respectively, to credit unions, savings associations, and industrial loan companies. Because of these facts, and the belief that it would not be in the public interest to continue to require financial institutions to comply with, and regulatory agencies to enforce, both the California deposit disclosure laws as well as the federal deposit disclosure laws, it is appropriate that the California deposit disclosure laws be repealed.

SEC. 12. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide immediate relief from regulatory redundancy and confusion and to provide parity among all state depository institutions, it is necessary that this act become effective immediately.

CHAPTER 69

An act to amend Sections 75504, 75506, 75516, 75523, 75524, 75532, 75533, 75534, 75535, 75538, 75539, 75542, 75543, 75544, 75582, 75585, 75589, 75595, 75596, 75597, 75598, 75601, 75611, 75612, 75613, 75614, 75615, 75616, 75618, 75619, 75631, 75633, 75636, and 75642 of, to amend and renumber Section 75514 of, to amend and renumber the headings of Article 6 (commencing with Section 75581), Article 7 (commencing with Section 75611), and Article 9 (commencing with Section 75641) of Chapter 13.5 of Division 22 of, to add Sections 75514, 75520.5, 75595.5, 75630, 75643.1, and 75643.2 to, to add an article heading immediately preceding Section 75630 of, to add Article 8 (commencing with Section 75651) to Chapter 13.5 of Division 22 of, to repeal Sections 75517, 75526, and 75600 of, to repeal Article 4 (commencing with Section 75551) and Article 5 (commencing with Section 75571) of Chapter 13.5 of Division 22 of, to repeal the heading of Article 8 (commencing with Section 75631) of Chapter 13.5 of Division 22 of, and to repeal and add Sections 75520, 75531, 75536, and 75617 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 9, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 10, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 75504 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75504. No action taken by the commission or by any individual in accordance with this chapter or with the regulations adopted under this chapter, is a violation of the so-called Cartwright Act (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 16700) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code), the Unfair Practices Act (Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 17000) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code), or any statutory or common law against monopolies or combinations in restraint of trade.

SEC. 2. Section 75506 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75506. It is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination that members of the commission are intended to represent and further the interest of a particular agricultural industry concerned and that this representation and furtherance is intended to serve the public interest. Accordingly, the Legislature finds that with respect to persons who are elected or appointed to the commission, the particular agricultural industry concerned is tantamount to and constitutes the public generally within the meaning of Section 87103 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. Section 75514 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended and renumbered to read:

75526. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Food and Agriculture.

SEC. 4. Section 75514 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

75514. (a) "Districts" consist of the following:

(1) District 1 consists of the Counties of Imperial, Kern, San Bernardino, San Diego, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, and Ventura.

(2) District 2 consists of the Counties of Alpine, Fresno, Inyo, Kings, Madera, Mariposa, Merced, Mono, Monterey, San Benito, Tulare, and Tuolumne.

(3) District 3 consists of the Counties of Alameda, Amador, Butte, Calaveras, Colusa, Contra Costa, Del Norte, El Dorado, Glenn, Humboldt, Lake, Lassen, Marin, Mendocino, Modoc, Napa, Nevada, Placer, Plumas, Sacramento, San Francisco, San Joaquin, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Shasta, Sierra, Siskiyou, Solano, Sonoma, Stanislaus, Sutter, Tehama, Trinity, Yolo, and Yuba.

(b) The boundaries of any district may be changed by a two-thirds vote of the members of the commission, which is concurred in by the secretary, when necessary to maintain similar total production among the districts and to ensure proper representation. These boundaries need not coincide with county lines.

SEC. 5. Section 75516 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75516. "Handler" means any person engaged in packing apples for fresh consumption or engaged in marketing apples for fresh consumption that the person has produced or that the person is marketing on behalf of a producer either directly or through an agent, employee, broker, or otherwise, and who, upon request by the commission, provides proof that he or she is engaged in handler activities.

SEC. 6. Section 75517 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 75520 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 75520 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

75520. "Marketing year" means the period beginning July 1 of each year and extending through June 30 of the following year.

SEC. 9. Section 75520.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

75520.5. "Member" means a person who serves on the commission's board of directors.

SEC. 10. Section 75523 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75523. "Producer" means any person who is engaged in the business of producing, or causing to be produced, apples for market, and who, upon request of the commission, provides proof of commodity sale.

SEC. 11. Section 75524 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75524. "Production research" means any research related to pest control and to the production, harvest, and postharvest handling of apples, other than marketing research.

SEC. 12. Section 75526 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 75531 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 75531 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

75531. (a) There is in the state government the California Apple Commission.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (e), the commission shall consist of 12 producer and handler members as specified in this article, and one public member.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (e), eligible persons from within the respective districts shall elect three producers and one handler from District 1, three producers and one handler from District 2, and three producers and one handler from District 3.

(d) The public member shall be appointed to the commission by the secretary from nominees recommended by other members of the commission.

(e) The commission may modify the number of producers who serve on the commission to no less than six members and no more than 15 members, and may modify the number of producers elected from each district. There shall be three handlers on the commission, one from each district.

(f) The secretary and other persons, as determined by the commission, shall be ex officio members of the commission.

SEC. 15. Section 75532 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75532. (a) The secretary may require the commission to correct or cease any activity or function of the commission that is determined by the secretary not to be in the public interest or that is in violation of this chapter.

(b) If the commission refuses or fails to cease the specified activities or functions or to make corrections required by the secretary, the secretary, upon written notice, may suspend all or a portion of the activities or functions of the commission until the time that the cessation or correction of the activities or functions, as required by the secretary, has been accomplished by the commission.

(c) Any action of the commission in violation of the written notice is without legal force or effect. The secretary, to the extent feasible, shall issue the written notice prior to the commission entering into any contractual relationship affecting the existing or proposed activities or functions that are the subject of the written notice.

(d) At the same time the written notice is provided to the commission, the secretary shall notify the commission in writing of the specific acts that the secretary determines are not in the public interest or are in violation of this chapter, the secretary's reasons for requiring a cessation or correction of specific existing or proposed activities or functions, and the secretary's recommendations with respect to any action that will make the activities or functions acceptable.

SEC. 16. Section 75533 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75533. The commission or the secretary may bring an action for judicial relief from the secretary's written notice, or from noncompliance by the commission with the written notice, as the case may be, in a court of competent jurisdiction, which may issue a temporary restraining order, permanent injunction, or other appropriate relief.

SEC. 17. Section 75534 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75534. If the secretary is required to concur in a decision of the commission, the secretary shall concur, refuse to concur, or request additional information from the commission within 15 working days from the date the secretary receives the notification of the decision.

SEC. 18. Section 75535 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75535. The commission shall reimburse the secretary for all expenditures incurred by the secretary in carrying out his or her duties and responsibilities pursuant to this chapter. However, a court, if it finds that the secretary acted arbitrarily or capriciously in restricting the activities or functions of the commission, may relieve the commission of the responsibility for payment of the secretary's legal costs with regard to that action.

SEC. 19. Section 75536 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 20. Section 75536 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

75536. (a) Three alternative members, one from each district, shall be selected pursuant to procedures adopted by the commission.

(b) Under procedures established by the commission, any alternate member may serve in place of any absent member on the commission in the alternate's district and shall have all of the rights, privileges, and powers of the member when serving on the commission.

(c) In the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of a member, the alternate member shall act as a member of the commission until a qualified successor is elected.

SEC. 21. Section 75538 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75538. (a) Any producer member shall be a producer or an employee representing a producer who has a financial interest in producing, or causing to be produced, apples for market. Qualifications of producer members shall be maintained during their entire term of office.

(b) Any handler member, or employee representing that person, shall have a financial interest in marketing or packing apples for market. Qualifications of handler members shall be maintained during their entire term of office.

(c) The public member and alternate on the commission, if appointed, shall have all of the powers, rights, and privileges of any other member or alternate member, respectively, on the commission. The public member and alternate, if appointed, shall not have any financial interest in the apple industry.

(d) Not more than one member and one alternate member shall be persons employed by, or connected in a proprietary capacity with, the same corporation, firm, partnership, association, or business organization. Any alternate serving on the commission who is employed by, or connected in a proprietary capacity with, a person serving as a member on the commission from the same company, firm, partnership, or business organization shall serve as an alternate to the member.

SEC. 22. Section 75539 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75539. The term of office of each member, except ex officio members, is three years, commencing with the beginning of the following marketing year and until a qualified successor is elected or appointed, unless the term is earlier terminated pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 75531 in accordance with procedures established by the commission.

However, with respect to the first producer and handler members of the commission, one-third shall serve for one year, one-third shall serve for two years, and one-third shall serve for three years, with the determination of the term of each member within each category to be made by lot.

SEC. 23. Section 75542 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75542. A quorum of the commission is a majority of the voting members. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the vote of a majority of the members present at a meeting at which there is a quorum constitutes the act of the commission.

SEC. 24. Section 75543 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75543. The secretary or his or her representatives shall be notified and may attend each meeting of the commission and any committee meeting of the commission. However, the secretary may not attend an executive session of the commission called for the purpose of discussing potential or actual litigation against the secretary.

SEC. 25. Section 75544 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75544. No member or alternate member of the commission, or member of a committee established by the commission who is a nonmember of the commission, shall receive any compensation. Each member of the commission or each alternate member serving in place of a member, except ex officio members, and each member of a committee established by the commission who is a nonmember of the commission, may receive necessary traveling expenses and meal allowances as approved by the commission.

SEC. 26. Article 4 (commencing with Section 75551) of Chapter 13.5 of Division 22 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 27. Article 5 (commencing with Section 75571) of Chapter 13.5 of Division 22 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 28. The heading of Article 6 (commencing with Section 75581) of Chapter 13.5 of Division 22 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 4. Powers and Duties of the Commission

SEC. 29. Section 75582 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75582. The commission may adopt, amend, and repeal regulations and operating procedures necessary to carry out this chapter, including regulations governing appeals from actions taken by the commission pursuant to any of its regulations or operating procedures.

SEC. 30. Section 75585 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75585. The commission may employ a person to serve at the pleasure of the commission as president and chief executive officer of the commission, and other personnel, including legal counsel, necessary to carry out this chapter. The commission may retain a management firm or the staff from any board, commission, or agency of the state or federal government to perform the functions prescribed by this section under the control of the commission. If any person employed by the commission engages in any conduct that the secretary determines is not in the public interest or that is in violation of this chapter, the secretary shall notify the commission of the conduct and request that corrective and, if appropriate, disciplinary action be taken by the commission. If the commission fails or refuses to correct the situation or to take disciplinary action satisfactory to the secretary, the secretary may suspend or discharge the person.

SEC. 31. Section 75589 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75589. The commission shall keep accurate books, records, and accounts of all its dealings that shall be subject to an annual audit by an auditing firm selected by the commission with the concurrence of the secretary. A summary of the audit shall be reported to all producers and a copy of the summary shall also be submitted to the secretary. In addition, the secretary, as he or she determines necessary, may conduct, or cause to be conducted, a fiscal and compliance audit of the commission.

SEC. 32. Section 75595 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75595. The commission may collect information, and publish and distribute without charge, bulletins and other communications for dissemination of information.

SEC. 33. Section 75595.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

75595.5. The commission may establish an annual assessment rate to defray the operating costs of the commission.

SEC. 34. Section 75596 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75596. The commission shall adopt an annual budget according to accepted practices. The secretary shall concur in the adoption of the budget prior to the encumbrance of funds, except for encumbrances necessary to pay the compensation of employees of the commission.

SEC. 35. Section 75597 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75597. The commission shall annually prepare and submit to the secretary, for his or her concurrence, a statement of contemplated activities authorized pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 36. Section 75598 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75598. The commission and the secretary shall keep confidential and shall not disclose, except when required by court order in a judicial proceeding, all lists of persons subject to this chapter in their possession.

SEC. 37. Section 75600 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 38. Section 75601 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75601. (a) The commission may recommend to the secretary the adoption of maturity standards authorized pursuant to the California Marketing Act of 1937 (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 58601) of Part 2 of Division 21) that are in accordance with the procedures specified in that act, unless otherwise specified in this article.

(b) Any standards that are adopted shall be implemented by the secretary at the beginning of the marketing year next succeeding the date in which they were approved by the secretary.

(c) Any standards recommended by the commission and approved by the secretary shall not be operative until approved by the vote specified in Section 75612.

(d) The commission shall serve as the advisory body to the secretary on all matters pertaining to this section.

SEC. 39. The heading of Article 7 (commencing with Section 75611) of Chapter 13.5 of Division 22 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 5. Implementation and Voting Procedures

SEC. 40. Section 75611 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75611. (a) Within 90 days of the effective date of the amendments made to this section during the 1994 portion of the 1993-94 Regular Session of the Legislature, the secretary shall establish a list of producers eligible to vote. In establishing the list, the secretary may require that producers, handlers, and agricultural commissioners submit the names and mailing addresses of all known producers who are subject to this chapter. The secretary also may require that the information provided include the quantity of apples produced by each producer or, in the alternative, may establish procedures for receiving the information at the time of the referendum vote specified in this article. The request for the information shall be in writing, and the requested information shall be filed within 30 days following receipt of the request.

(b) Any person whose name does not appear upon the appropriate list may have his or her name placed on the list by filing with the secretary a signed statement identifying himself or herself as a person eligible to vote. The absence of a person's name from the list shall not exempt the person from paying assessments and shall not invalidate any industry votes conducted pursuant to this article.

(c) Proponents and opponents of the commission may contact producers on the lists in a form and manner prescribed by the commission as long as all expenses associated with the contacts are paid in advance.

SEC. 41. Section 75612 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75612. This chapter, except as necessary to conduct an implementation referendum vote, shall not become operative until the secretary finds, in a referendum vote conducted by the secretary, that at least 40 percent of the total number of producers from the list established by the secretary pursuant to this article have participated and that either one of the following has occurred:

(a) Sixty-five percent of the eligible producers who voted in the referendum voted in favor of this chapter, and the eligible producers so voting produced and marketed a majority of the total quantity of apples in the current marketing year by all of the eligible producers who voted in the referendum.

(b) A majority of the eligible producers who voted in the referendum voted in favor of this chapter, and the eligible producers so voting produced and marketed 65 percent or more of the total quantity of apples in the current marketing year by all of the eligible producers who voted in the referendum.

SEC. 42. Section 75613 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75613. The secretary shall establish a period to conduct the referendum that shall not be less than 10 days or more than 60 days in duration, and may prescribe additional procedures that may be necessary to conduct the referendum. If the initial period established is less than 60 days, the secretary may extend the period to not more than 60 days.

SEC. 43. Section 75614 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75614. The failure of an eligible producer to receive a ballot shall not invalidate a referendum.

SEC. 44. Section 75615 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75615. If the secretary finds that a favorable vote has been given as provided in this article, the secretary shall certify and give notice of the favorable vote to all persons whose names and addresses are on file with the secretary.

SEC. 45. Section 75616 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75616. If the secretary finds that a favorable vote has not been given as provided in this article, the secretary shall certify and declare this chapter inoperative. The secretary may conduct another implementation referendum vote one or more years after the previous vote has been taken.

SEC. 46. Section 75617 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 47. Section 75617 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

75617. Upon certification of the commission, the secretary shall appoint the producer and handler members of the initial commission's board of directors from a list of eligible persons submitted to the secretary, or shall contact all eligible producers and handlers in each district by mail, or shall call meetings in each district for the purpose of nominating and electing persons to the commission. To be eligible for election, nominees, who may be producers or handlers, shall present to the secretary a nomination petition with the signatures of at least five eligible persons from the district from which the nominee is seeking election. Eligible persons may be nominated and elected from any district in which they produce or handle apples. Only eligible producers may vote for nominees, and each eligible producer may cast one vote in each district in which he or she produces apples. The volume of apples marketed by eligible producers who vote shall not be considered when tabulating the votes to elect members and alternate members to the commission.

SEC. 48. Section 75618 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75618. Subsequent to the first election of members of the commission pursuant to this chapter, persons to be elected to the commission shall be selected pursuant to nomination and election procedures that are adopted by the commission with the concurrence of the secretary.

SEC. 49. Section 75619 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75619. (a) Prior to the secretary holding the referendum pursuant to this article, the proponents of the commission shall deposit with the secretary the amount that the secretary determines necessary to defray the expenses of preparing the necessary lists and information and conducting the referendum.

(b) Any funds not used in carrying out this article shall be returned to the proponents of the commission who deposited the funds with the secretary.

(c) Upon the establishment of the commission, the commission may reimburse the proponents of the commission for any funds deposited with the secretary that were used in carrying out this article and for any legal expenses and other costs incurred in establishing the commission.

SEC. 50. An article heading is added immediately preceding Section 75630 as Article 6 (commencing with Section 75630) of Chapter 13.5 (commencing with Section 75501) of Division 22 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 6. Assessments and Records

SEC. 51. Section 75630 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

75630. (a) The commission shall establish the assessment for the marketing year by July 1 of each year or as soon thereafter as is possible.

(b) The assessment shall be one-fourth cent ($.0025) per pound of apples marketed for fresh consumption during the 1994-95 marketing year. Thereafter, the assessment shall not exceed three-fourth cent ($.0075) per pound of apples marketed for fresh consumption, except as provided in subdivision (d).

(c) Assessments provided for in this section shall be levied on the producer. The handler shall deduct the assessment from amounts paid by him or her to the producer, and is a trustee of the funds until they are paid to the commission at the time and in the manner prescribed by the commission.

(d) An assessment greater than the amount provided for in subdivision (b) may not be charged unless a greater fee is approved by a majority of the commission and by eligible producers pursuant to procedures specified in Section 75612.

SEC. 52. The heading of Article 8 (commencing with Section 75631) of Chapter 13.5 of Division 22 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 53. Section 75631 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75631. This chapter shall not apply to producers who produce no more than 40,000 pounds of apples per year and to production on a noncommercial basis for the producer's home use, or where the trees are used only for ornamental purposes. Producers from whom assessments are collected may apply for the refund of the payments following the close of any marketing season in which the payments have been made, and the commission shall refund the payments if the producer can demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the commission, that he or she is not subject to this chapter.

SEC. 54. Section 75633 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75633. (a) All proprietary information obtained by the commission or the secretary from producers or handlers is confidential and shall not be disclosed except when required by court order in a judicial proceeding.

(b) Information on volume shipments, product value, and any other related information that is required for reports to governmental agencies, financial reports to the commission, or aggregate sales and inventory information, and any other information that the commission requires that gives only totals, but excludes producer or handler information, may be disclosed by the commission.

SEC. 55. Section 75636 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75636. Any producer or handler who fails to file a return or pay the assessment within the time required by the commission shall pay to the commission a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the assessment determined to be due and, in addition, pay 1.5 percent interest per month on the unpaid balance. In addition to any other penalty imposed, the commission may require any person who fails to pay any assessment or related charge pursuant to this article to furnish and maintain a surety bond in a form and amount, and for a period of time, specified by the commission, as assurance that all payments to the commission will be made when due.

SEC. 56. The heading of Article 9 (commencing with Section 75641) of Chapter 13.5 of Division 22 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 7. Actions and Penalties

SEC. 57. Section 75642 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75642. The commission shall adopt procedures to grant individuals aggrieved by its actions or determinations an informal hearing before the commission or before a committee of the commission designated for this purpose. Appeals from decisions of the commission may be made to the secretary. The determination of the secretary is subject to judicial review upon petition filed with the appropriate superior court.

SEC. 58. Section 75643.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

75643.1. Any action by the commission to recover any penalty or obtain any other remedy that is prescribed under this chapter shall be commenced within two years from the date of the alleged violation. Any action against the commission by any person shall be commenced by the commission within two years from the date of the act of which the person complains.

SEC. 59. Section 75643.2 is added to Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

75643.2. It is not necessary for the commission to allege or prove that an adequate remedy at law does not exist in any action brought under this chapter.

SEC. 60. Article 8 (commencing with Section 75651) is added to Chapter 13.5 of Division 22 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 8. Continuation or Suspension and Termination

75651. During the marketing year that occurs five years after the implementation of this chapter, the commission shall conduct a referendum to determine whether the operations of this chapter shall be approved and continued in effect.

There is a favorable vote under this chapter if the secretary determines from the referendum that a majority of the eligible persons voted in favor of continuing the operations of this chapter. If the secretary finds that a favorable vote has been given, the secretary shall so certify and this chapter shall remain in effect.

If the secretary finds that a favorable vote has not been given, the secretary shall so certify and declare the operations of this chapter suspended at the end of the marketing year. Thereupon, operation of the commission shall be concluded and funds distributed in the manner provided in this chapter. No bond or security shall be required for the referendum.

75652. Following a favorable referendum conducted in accordance with this article, the commission shall conduct a referendum every fifth year thereafter, unless a referendum is conducted as the result of a petition filed pursuant to this article. In that case, the referendum shall be held every fifth year, pursuant to the procedure provided in Section 75651, following the industry petitioned referendum.

75653. (a) Upon a finding by a two-thirds vote of the membership of the commission that the operation of this chapter has not tended to effectuate its declared purposes, the commission may recommend to the secretary that the operation of this chapter be suspended. However, any suspension shall not become effective until the expiration of the current marketing year.

(b) The secretary shall, upon receipt of the recommendation, or may, after a public hearing to review a petition filed with the secretary requesting a suspension signed by not less than 20 percent of the eligible producers by number who produced not less than 20 percent of the total volume of apples in the immediately preceding marketing year, hold a referendum to determine if the operations of the commission shall be suspended. However, the secretary shall not hold a referendum as a result of the petition unless the petitioner shows, by a preponderance of evidence, in a manner prescribed by the secretary, that the operation of this chapter has not tended to effectuate its declared purposes.

(c) The secretary shall establish a referendum period, which shall not be less than 10 days or more than 60 days in duration. The secretary may prescribe additional procedures as may be necessary to conduct the referendum. At the close of the established referendum period, the secretary shall tabulate the ballots filed during the period. The secretary shall suspend the operation of this chapter if the secretary finds that at least 40 percent of the total number of persons from the list established by the secretary have participated in the referendum and that either one of the following has occurred:

(1) Sixty-five percent or more of the eligible producers who voted in the referendum voted in favor of suspension, and the eligible producers so voting produced and marketed a majority of the total quantity of apples in the preceding marketing year by all of the eligible producers who voted in the referendum.

(2) A majority of the eligible producers who voted in the referendum voted in favor of suspension, and the eligible producers so voting produced and marketed 65 percent or more of the total quantity of apples in the preceding marketing year by all of the eligible producers who voted in the referendum.

75654. (a) The secretary shall terminate the commission at the end of the then current marketing year if the secretary finds that the termination of the commission is requested in writing, within a 90-day period, by at least 51 percent of the eligible producers that produce and market at least 51 percent of the total volume of apples.

(b) The person or persons originating the request shall file a written notice with the secretary in a manner that establishes the date the request is initiated. Any person may withdraw his or her name from the petition requesting the termination prior to the time the request is presented to the secretary.

(c) The signatures on the petition requesting the termination need not all be appended to one sheet of paper. Each person signing the petition shall specify his or her place of business in a manner that will enable the location to be readily ascertained.

(d) The petition shall bear a copy of the notice of intention to terminate the commission. Signatures shall be secured within the time limit specified in this section.

75655. After the effective date of the suspension, the operation of the commission shall be concluded and any and all funds remaining, held by the commission, and not required to defray the expenses of concluding and terminating the operations of the commission, shall be returned upon a pro rata basis to all persons from whom assessments were collected in the immediately preceding marketing year. However, if the commission finds that the amounts so returnable are so small as to make impractical the computation and remitting of the pro rata refund to these persons, any funds remaining, after the payment of all expenses of winding up and terminating operations, shall be withdrawn from the approved depository and paid into an appropriate program conducted by the University of California or the California State University, or another state agency that deals with the purposes of this chapter. If no program exists, the funds shall be paid into the State Treasury as unclaimed trust funds.

75656. Upon suspension of this chapter, the commission shall mail a copy of the notice of suspension to all producers and handlers whose names and addresses are on file with the commission.

SEC. 61. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to effectuate the reorganization of the California Apple Commission at the earliest possible time, and before the commencement of the 1994-95 marketing year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 70

An act to add Section 5003.02.1 to the Public Resources Code, relating to the state park system.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5003.02.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5003.02.1. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the department and the City of Grover Beach, in a joint project, are in the process of entering into an operating agreement for the purpose of negotiating a concession contract for the development of extensive new facilities at Pismo Beach State Park, and that the standard, 20-year term is insufficient to enable the concessionaire to amortize the type and scale of improvements that the department and the city will require the concessionaire to make.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that approval of commercial development at Pismo Beach State Park does not provide precedent for commercial development in other units of the state park system and is a one-time exception to Sections 5019.53 and 5080.03 by reason of the following circumstances:

(1) The general plan for the state park provides for the project.

(2) The site is located on the perimeter of the state park and adjacent to State Route 1.

(3) The development will not impact the resources or the public's use of the state park.

(4) The land proposed to be developed is suitable for commercial development.

(c) Pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 5080.18, the term of the concession contract entered into by the department and the City of Grover Beach with a concessionaire for the development of new facilities at Pismo Beach State Park may be for a period not to exceed 50 years if the contract also provides that the rent be reviewed and adjusted at least every five years to reflect market rates and economic conditions prevailing in the area in which the concession is located.

(d) No contract subject to this section may be advertised for bid, negotiated, renegotiated, or amended in any material respect unless the Legislature reviews and approves the proposed contract in the annual Budget Act.

CHAPTER 71

An act to amend Sections 191.5 and 192 of the Penal Code, relating to vehicular manslaughter.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 191.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

191.5. (a) Gross vehicular manslaughter while intoxicated is the unlawful killing of a human being without malice aforethought, in the driving of a vehicle, where the driving was in violation of Section 23140, 23152, or 23153 of the Vehicle Code, and the killing was either the proximate result of the commission of an unlawful act, not amounting to a felony, and with gross negligence, or the proximate result of the commission of a lawful act which might produce death, in an unlawful manner, and with gross negligence.

(b) Gross vehicular manslaughter while intoxicated also includes operating a vessel in violation of subdivision (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of Section 655 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, and in the commission of an unlawful act, not amounting to felony, and with gross negligence; or operating a vessel in violation of subdivision (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of Section 655 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, and in the commission of a lawful act which might produce death, in an unlawful manner, and with gross negligence.

(c) Gross vehicular manslaughter while intoxicated is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 4, 6, or 10 years.

(d) This section shall not be construed as prohibiting or precluding a charge of murder under Section 188 upon facts exhibiting wantonness and a conscious disregard for life to support a finding of implied malice, or upon facts showing malice consistent with the holding of the California Supreme Court in People v. Watson, 30 Cal. 3d 290.

(e) This section shall not be construed as making any homicide in the driving of a vehicle or the operation of a vessel punishable which is not a proximate result of the commission of an unlawful act, not amounting to felony, or of the commission of a lawful act which might produce death, in an unlawful manner.

SEC. 2. Section 192 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

192. Manslaughter is the unlawful killing of a human being without malice. It is of three kinds:

(a) Voluntary—upon a sudden quarrel or heat of passion.

(b) Involuntary—in the commission of an unlawful act, not amounting to felony; or in the commission of a lawful act which might produce death, in an unlawful manner, or without due caution and circumspection. This subdivision shall not apply to acts committed in the driving of a vehicle.

(c) Vehicular—

(1) Except as provided in Section 191.5, driving a vehicle in the commission of an unlawful act, not amounting to felony, and with gross negligence; or driving a vehicle in the commission of a lawful act which might produce death, in an unlawful manner, and with gross negligence.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), driving a vehicle in the commission of an unlawful act, not amounting to felony, but without gross negligence; or driving a vehicle in the commission of a lawful act which might produce death, in an unlawful manner, but without gross negligence.

(3) Driving a vehicle in violation of Section 23140, 23152, or 23153 of the Vehicle Code and in the commission of an unlawful act, not amounting to felony, but without gross negligence; or driving a vehicle in violation of Section 23140, 23152, or 23153 of the Vehicle Code and in the commission of a lawful act which might produce death, in an unlawful manner, but without gross negligence.

This section shall not be construed as making any homicide in the driving of a vehicle punishable which is not a proximate result of the commission of an unlawful act, not amounting to felony, or of the commission of a lawful act which might produce death, in an unlawful manner.

“Gross negligence,” as used in this section, shall not be construed as prohibiting or precluding a charge of murder under Section 188 upon facts exhibiting wantonness and a conscious disregard for life to support a finding of implied malice, or upon facts showing malice, consistent with the holding of the California Supreme Court in People v. Watson, 30 Cal. 3d 290.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 72

An act to add Section 69.3 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69.3 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

69.3. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to the authority of paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, a county board of supervisors, after consultation with affected local agencies located within the boundaries of the county, may adopt an ordinance that authorizes the transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations of this section, of the base year value of real property that is located within another county in this state and has been substantially damaged or destroyed by a disaster to comparable replacement property of equal or lesser value, including land, that is located within the adopting county and has been acquired or newly constructed as a replacement for the damaged or destroyed property within three years after the damage or destruction of the original property.

(2) The base year value of the original property shall be the base year value of the original property as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property was substantially damaged or destroyed. The base year value of the original property shall also include any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the date of the substantial damage to, or destruction of, the original property and up to the date the replacement property is acquired or newly constructed. The base year or years used to compute the base year value of the original property shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Affected local agency" means any city, special district, school district, or community college district that receives an annual allocation of ad valorem property tax revenues.

(2) "Comparable replacement property" means a replacement property that has a full cash value of equal or lesser value as defined in paragraph (5).

(3) "Consultation" means a noticed hearing, that is conducted by a county board of supervisors concerning the adoption of an ordinance described in subdivision (a) and with respect to which all affected local agencies within the boundaries of the county are provided with reasonable notice of the time and the place of the hearing and a reasonable opportunity to appear and participate.

(4) "Disaster" means a major misfortune or calamity in an area subsequently proclaimed by the Governor to be in a state of disaster as a result of the misfortune or calamity.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement property does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement property is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the damage or destruction of the original property.

(B) One hundred ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement property is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the damage or destruction of the original property.

(C) One hundred fifteen percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement property is purchased or newly constructed within the third year following the date of the damage or destruction of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, if the replacement property is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement property is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of the purchase or the date of completion of new construction, whichever is later. For purposes of this paragraph, "full cash value of the original property" shall be the amount of its full cash value immediately prior to its substantial damage or destruction, as determined by the county assessor of the county in which the property is located.

(6) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, that is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated, that has been substantially damaged or destroyed by a disaster, as declared by the Governor. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size that is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. For purposes of this paragraph, each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(7) "Owner or owners" means an individual or individuals, but does not include any firm, partnership, association, corporation, company, other legal entity or organization of any kind.

(8) "Replacement property" means a building, structure, or other shelter, or other personal property, that is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of the land replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size that is used as the site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. For purposes of this paragraph, each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(9) "Substantially damaged or destroyed" means property that sustains physical damage amounting more to than 50 percent of its full cash value immediately prior to the disaster. Damage includes a diminution of value in the value of property as a result of restricted access to the property where the restricted access was caused by the disaster and is permanent in nature.

(c) At the time the base year value of the substantially damaged or destroyed property is transferred pursuant to an ordinance adopted under this section, the substantially damaged or destroyed property shall be reassessed at its full cash value. However, the substantially damaged or destroyed property shall retain its base year value notwithstanding that transfer. If the owner or owners of substantially damaged or destroyed property receive property tax relief under this section, that property shall not be eligible for property tax relief under subdivision (c) of Section 70 in the event of its reconstruction.

(d) Only the owner or owners of the property that has been substantially damaged or destroyed may receive property tax relief under an ordinance adopted pursuant to this section. Relief under an ordinance adopted pursuant to this section shall be granted to an owner or owners of a substantially damaged or destroyed property obtaining title to comparable replacement property. The acquisition of an ownership interest in a legal entity that, directly or indirectly, owns real property is not an acquisition of comparable replacement property for purposes of this section.

(e) A claim for relief under an ordinance adopted pursuant to this section shall be filed with the assessor of the county in which the replacement property is located in accordance with procedures and requirements as prescribed by the board. Those procedures and requirements that are prescribed by the board pursuant to this subdivision shall, to the extent not inconsistent with this section, be similar to those procedures and requirements established with respect to Section 69.5.

(f) Any taxes that were levied on the replacement property prior to the filing of a claim on the basis of the replacement property's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that taxes exceed the amount that would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base year value.

(g) This section shall apply to any comparable replacement property of equal or lesser value that is acquired or newly constructed as a replacement for property that has been substantially damaged or destroyed by a disaster occurring on or after October 20, 1991, and to the determination of base year values for the 1991-92 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter.

(h) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section that the scope and amount of the tax relief provided under an ordinance adopted pursuant to this section not exceed the scope and amount of tax relief provided under Section 69.5 as that section read on November 2, 1993.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that disaster victims who have lost or suffered heavy damage to their homes are provided with an opportunity for essential relief as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 73

An act to repeal Section 87615 of the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 87615 of the Education Code, as amended by Chapter 506 of the Statutes of 1993, is repealed.

CHAPTER 74

An act to amend Sections 102, 301, 302, 303, 304, 314, 315, 316, 701, and 703 of, and to add Section 803 to, the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992), relating to water, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 102 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

The board shall be composed of 19 members of which three shall be appointed by the City of San Diego, two each by the City of Chula Vista, the City of El Cajon, and the County of San Diego, and one each shall be appointed by each of the remaining member agencies, including the special status member agency. Each of the members appointed by the City of San Diego shall have two votes. The special status member agency has no vote.

SEC. 3. Section 302 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 302. (a) The governing body of each member agency shall appoint the board member or board members to represent that member agency on the board pursuant to Section 301. The governing body of the special status member agency shall appoint the board member to represent the special status member agency on the board pursuant to Section 301.

(b) All board members shall be members of the governing board of the member agency or special status member agency.

(c) No incompatibility of office shall result from an elected official serving on the board and on the governing body of a member agency or special status member agency. A board member may vote on contracts or other matters involving the member agency that he or she represents.

SEC. 4. Section 303 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 303. The governing body of each member agency or special status member agency may designate alternate members for each board member to act in the place of the board member if the board member is absent or unable to act.

SEC. 5. Section 304 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 304. (a) The term of each board member shall be for four years, except that the initial term shall be two years for one of the board members initially appointed by the City of San Diego, City of Chula Vista, and the County of San Diego, and for one-half of the remaining board members as determined by lot at the first meeting of the board.

(b) Any vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the governing body of the member agency or special status member agency from which the vacancy occurred. Any appointment to fill a vacancy during the term of a board member shall be for the unexpired term.

(c) Each board member, before undertaking the duties of his or her office, shall take and subscribe the oath as provided in Section 1360 of the Government Code, and a certificate of the subscribed oath shall be filed with the clerk of the member agency from which the board member has been appointed. A copy of the certificate shall be filed with the district.

(d) A board member may be removed from the board by the governing body of the member agency or special status member agency which appointed that board member.

SEC. 5.5. Section 304 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 304. (a) The term of each board member shall be for four years, except that the initial term shall be two years for one of the board members initially appointed by the City of San Diego, City of Chula Vista, the City of El Cajon, and the County of San Diego, and for one-half of the remaining board members as determined by lot at the first meeting of the board.

(b) Any vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the governing body of the member agency or special status member agency from which the vacancy occurred. Any appointment to fill a vacancy during the term of a board member shall be for the unexpired term.

(c) Each board member, before undertaking the duties of his or her office, shall take and subscribe the oath as provided in Section 1360 of the Government Code, and a certificate of the subscribed oath shall be filed with the clerk of the member agency from which the board member has been appointed. A copy of the certificate shall be filed with the district.

(d) A board member may be removed from the board by the governing body of the member agency or special status member agency which appointed that board member.

SEC. 6. Section 314 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 314. A representative of a member agency, except for the representatives of the City of San Diego pursuant to Section 301, shall have one vote on any motion, resolution, or ordinance before the board and a majority of the votes of the board is required to carry any motion, resolution, or ordinance, except when weighted voting is used pursuant to Sections 315 and 316. The special status member agency has no vote.

SEC. 7. Section 315 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 315. Any representative of a member agency may call for the use of weighted voting. The call shall be seconded by a board member representing a different member agency than the board member making the call. If the call is seconded by a board member from the City of San Diego, the City of Chula Vista, or the County of San Diego, or if the call is seconded by two board members representing other member agencies, weighted voting shall be used.

SEC. 8. Section 316 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 316. (a) Weighted voting shall be based upon the average daily flow of wastewater discharged by all member agencies, except the City of San Diego, into facilities of the district, as determined and established at the first meeting in July of each year by resolution of the board. When the weighted vote is taken there shall be a total of 100 possible votes. Fifty of those votes shall be allocated to the City of San Diego, irrespective of its average daily flow. The allocation of the remaining 50 votes to the remaining member agencies shall be determined pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) The average daily flow of the remaining member agencies shall be totaled and the ratio of each agency's portion to this total shall be calculated and the resulting fraction shall be multiplied by 50, with decimals of 0.50 or greater rounded up to the next whole number, thereby determining the number of the remaining 50 votes to be allocated to the agency. In no event shall a member agency have less than one vote. If a member agency has more than one member on the board, the board members of that member agency shall cast the vote or votes allocated to that member agency as a unit, as determined by the majority of the member agency's board members who are present. The affirmative vote of members representing more than 50 percent of the total number of votes of all members shall be necessary and, except as otherwise provided, shall be sufficient to carry any motion, resolution, or ordinance before the board.

(c) The special status member agency has no vote.

SEC. 9. Section 701 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 701. Any territory annexed to, or detached from, an entity or service area described in Section 202, other than the special status member agency, shall, upon completion of the annexation or detachment, be deemed incorporated into and annexed to, or detached from, the district. However, the property located within any territory detached from the district shall continue to be subject to the lien of ad valorem property tax levied to pay principal or interest on general obligation bonds approved by the voters prior to the detachment. The executive officer of the local agency formation commission of the county shall file with the district a copy of the executive officer's certificate of completion certifying the annexation to, or detachment from, the member agency.

SEC. 10. Section 703 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 703. A member agency or the special status member agency may withdraw, or detach from, the district without penalty if the withdrawal is within one year from formation of the district or before districtwide funding is committed for improvements exceeding the obligations included in the sewage disposal agreements described in Section 401, whichever occurs first. Any member agency which detaches from the district after districtwide funding is committed shall pay its proportionate share of the debt financing on debt issued prior to its detachment.

SEC. 11. Section 803 is added to the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) to read:

Sec. 803. (a) The district may not impose any fees, charges, or taxes on the special status member agency.

(b) The special status member agency is not subject to administrative, civil, or criminal liability in connection with any of the following:

- (1) Any financial obligation incurred by the district.
- (2) The payment or repayment of debt obligations incurred by the City of San Diego in connection with the construction of wastewater facilities.
- (3) Compliance with waste discharge requirements applicable to the district. The special status member agency shall not be a joint holder of the district's national pollutant discharge elimination system (NPDES) permit.
- (4) Compliance with any local, state, or federal law affecting district operations.
- (5) The condition of any physical facility or equipment owned or operated by the district or transferred to the district by any member agency.
- (6) Any obligation incurred in connection with United States of America v. City of San Diego (United States District Court, Southern District of California, Civil Case No. 88-1101-B).

SEC. 11.3. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 102 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act proposed by this bill and AB 2653. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 102 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2653, in which case Section 102 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act, as amended by AB 2653, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 1.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 11.5. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 301 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act proposed by this bill and AB 2653. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 301 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2653, in which case Section 301 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act, as amended by AB 2653, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 2.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 11.7. Section 5.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 304 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act proposed by this bill and AB 2653. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 304 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2653, in which case Section 304 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act, as amended by AB 2653, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 5.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 5 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 12. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to implement, as soon as possible, certain changes affecting the participation of the San Diego County Water Authority in the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 75

An act to amend Sections 695.220 and 695.221 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Section 69102 of the Government Code, to amend Section 4903 of the Labor Code, and to amend Section 1463.007 of the Penal Code, relating to judicial proceedings, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 695.220 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

695.220. Money received in satisfaction of a money judgment, except a money judgment for support, is to be credited as follows:

(a) The money is first to be credited against the amounts described in subdivision (b) of Section 685.050 that are collected by the levying officer.

(b) Any remaining money is next to be credited against any fee due the court pursuant to Section 6103.5 or 68511.3 of the Government Code, which are to be remitted to the court by the levying officer.

(c) Any remaining money is next to be credited against the accrued interest that remains unsatisfied.

(d) Any remaining money is to be credited against the principal amount of the judgment remaining unsatisfied. If the judgment is payable in installments, the remaining money is to be credited against the matured installments in the order in which they matured.

SEC. 2. Section 695.221 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

695.221. Satisfaction of a money judgment for support shall be credited as follows:

(a) The money shall first be credited against the current month's support.

(b) Any remaining money is next to be credited against the accrued interest that remains unsatisfied.

(c) Any remaining money shall be credited against the principal amount of the judgment remaining unsatisfied. If the judgment is payable in installments, the remaining money shall be credited against the matured installments in the order in which they matured.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), a collection received as a result of a tax refund offset shall first be credited against the interest and then the principal amount of past due support that has been assigned to the state pursuant to Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and federal regulations prior to the interest and then principal amount of any other past-due support remaining unsatisfied.

SEC. 3. Section 69102 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69102. The Court of Appeal for the Second Appellate District consists of five divisions having four judges each, and two divisions having three judges each. One division of three judges shall hold its regular sessions in Ventura County, Santa Barbara County, or San Luis Obispo County, at the discretion of the judges of that division, and the other divisions shall hold their regular sessions at Los Angeles.

SEC. 4. Section 4903 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4903. The appeals board may determine, and allow as liens against any sum to be paid as compensation, any amount determined as hereinafter set forth in subdivisions (a) through (i). If more than one such lien be allowed, the appeals board may determine the priorities, if any, between the liens allowed. The liens which may be allowed hereunder are as follows:

(a) A reasonable attorney's fee for legal services pertaining to any claim for compensation either before the appeals board or before any of the appellate courts, and the reasonable disbursements in connection therewith. No fee for legal services shall be awarded to any representative who is not an attorney, except with respect to those claims for compensation for which an application, pursuant to Section 5501, has been filed with the appeals board on or before December 31, 1991, or for which a disclosure form, pursuant to Section 4906, has been sent to the employer, or insurer or third-party administrator, if either is known, on or before December 31, 1991.

(b) The reasonable expense incurred by or on behalf of the injured employee, as provided by Article 2 (commencing with Section 4600) and, to the extent the employee is entitled to reimbursement under Section 4621, medical-legal expenses as provided by Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 4620) of Chapter 2 of Part 2.

(c) The reasonable value of the living expenses of an injured employee or of his or her dependents, subsequent to the injury.

(d) The reasonable burial expenses of the deceased employee, not to exceed the amount provided for by Section 4701.

(e) The reasonable living expenses of the spouse or minor children of the injured employee, or both, subsequent to the date of the injury, where the employee has deserted or is neglecting his or her family. These expenses shall be allowed in such proportion as the appeals board deems proper, under application of the spouse, guardian of the minor children, or the assignee, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, of the spouse, a former spouse, or minor children. A collection received as a result of a lien against a workers' compensation award imposed pursuant to this subdivision for payment of child support ordered by a court shall be credited as provided in Section 695.221 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(f) The amount of unemployment compensation disability benefits which have been paid under or pursuant to the Unemployment Insurance Code in those cases where, pending a determination under this division there was uncertainty whether such benefits were payable under the Unemployment Insurance Code or payable hereunder; provided, however, that any lien under this subdivision shall be allowed and paid as provided in Section 4904.

(g) The amount of unemployment compensation benefits and extended duration benefits paid to the injured employee for the same day or days for which he or she receives, or is entitled to receive, temporary total disability indemnity payments under this division; provided, however, that any lien under this subdivision shall be allowed and paid as provided in Section 4904.

(h) The amount of indemnification granted pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 13959) of Chapter 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(i) The amount of compensation, including expenses of medical treatment, and recoverable costs which have been paid by the Asbestos Workers' Account pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 4401) of Part 1.

SEC. 5. Section 1463.007 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463.007. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any county or court that implements or has implemented a comprehensive program to identify and collect fines and forfeitures which have not been paid after 60 days from the date on which they were due and payable, with or without warrant having been issued against the alleged violator, which are not being paid through time payments and for which the base fine excluding state and county penalties is at least one hundred dollars ($100), may deduct and deposit in the county treasury the cost of operating that program, excluding capital expenditures, from any revenues collected thereby prior to making any distribution of revenues to other governmental entities required by any other provision of law. For purposes of this section, a comprehensive collection program shall be a separate and distinct revenue collection activity and shall include at least 10 of the following components:

- (a) Monthly bill statements to all debtors.
- (b) Telephone contact with delinquent debtors to apprise them of their failure to meet payment obligations.
- (c) Issuance of warning letters to advise delinquent debtors of an outstanding obligation.
- (d) Requests for credit reports to assist in locating delinquent debtors.
- (e) Access to Employment Development Department employment and wage information.
- (f) The generation of monthly delinquent reports.
- (g) Participation in the Franchise Tax Board's tax intercept program.
- (h) The use of Department of Motor Vehicle information to locate delinquent debtors.

- (i) The use of wage and bank account garnishments.
- (j) The imposition of liens on real property and proceeds from the sale of real property held by a title company.
- (k) The filing of objections to the inclusion of outstanding fines and forfeitures in bankruptcy proceedings.
- (l) Coordination with the probation department to locate debtors who may be on formal or informal probation.
- (m) The initiation of drivers' license suspension actions where appropriate.
- (n) The capability to accept credit card payments.

A comprehensive collection plan shall also include a provision that the county shall share any debt collection information acquired with state agencies entitled to proceeds of restitution fines and orders.

Any county that exercises the authority granted in this section for the purpose of enhancing its revenue collections shall file an annual report of its activities with the Legislature.

This section shall be repealed on June 30, 1997, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before June 30, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

(a) In order to clarify the law with regard to the crediting of money received in satisfaction of a money judgment for child support, and to implement needed changes for the orderly administration of justice by the Court of Appeal for the Second Appellate District, at the earliest possible time, it is imperative that this act take effect immediately.

(b) In order to clarify provisions governing the distribution of fines and forfeitures collected when past due, and to continue those provisions which are to be repealed by their own terms on June 30, 1994, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 76

An act to amend Section 5326 of, and to add Section 5030.6 to, the Education Code, relating to school districts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5030.6 is added to the Education Code, to read:

5030.6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the members of the governing board of the Chula Vista Elementary School District may be elected under a method, as approved pursuant to Section 5019, that would require all of the following:

(a) That each membership position on the governing board be identified, by number or otherwise.

(b) That each person seeking election to the governing board be required to declare his or her candidacy for only one of those identified membership positions.

(c) That each of those identified membership positions on the governing board be filled by an election that includes the registered voters of the entire district.

SEC. 2. Section 5326 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5326. If, by 5:00 p.m. on the 83rd day prior to the day fixed for the governing board member election, only one person has been nominated for any elective office to be filled at that election, or no one has been nominated for the office, or in the case of members to be elected from the district at large, the number of candidates for governing board member at large does not exceed the number of offices to be filled at that election, or in the case of members to be nominated by trustee area and elected at large, the number of candidates do not exceed the number required to be elected governing board member at large nominated by that trustee area, or in the case of members to be elected at large in accordance with Sections 5030.5 and 5030.6, no more than one person has been nominated for each membership position, and a petition signed by 10 percent of the voters or 50 voters, whichever is the smaller number, in the district or trustee area, if elected by trustee area, requesting that a school district election be held for the offices has not been presented to the officer conducting the election, appointment will be made as prescribed by Section 5328.

The provisions of this section and Section 5328 shall also apply to elections for membership on a county board of education.

SEC. 3. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the method authorized by Section 5030.6 of the Education Code, as added by Section 1 of this act, under which each membership position on the governing board of the Chula Vista Elementary School District is to be identified, by number or otherwise, and each candidate for the governing board will be required to declare candidacy for only one identified membership position, will make the election process in that district more equitable by enabling more community members, including those with limited financial resources, to run for each membership position.

(b) Due to the unique circumstances specified in subdivision (a) concerning the Chula Vista Elementary School District, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to enable the Chula Vista Elementary School District to continue functioning in an orderly fashion and provide education to the pupils enrolled in those districts, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 77

An act to amend Section 6254.4 of the Government Code, to amend Section 146e of the Penal Code, and to amend Section 1808.4 of the Vehicle Code, relating to confidential information.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6254.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6254.4. (a) The home address, telephone number, occupation, precinct number, and prior registration information shown on the voter registration card for the following persons is confidential if the person requests confidentiality of that information at the time of registration or reregistration and shall not be disclosed to any person except pursuant to Section 615 of the Elections Code:

(1) Any active or retired judge, magistrate, or court commissioner.

(2) Any active or retired district attorney, assistant district attorney, or deputy district attorney.

(3) Any active or retired public defender or assistant public defender or public defender investigator.

(4) Any active or retired peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code.

(5) Any employee of a city police department or county sheriff's office.

(6) The spouse or children of any person included in paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, who are living with that person.

(b) Confidentiality granted under this section shall apply only to records prepared or generated on or after the date that the voter is granted confidentiality.

(c) A person who requests confidentiality of the information specified in subdivision (a) shall register or reregister to vote by means of a confidential affidavit of registration form which shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State and which shall be attested to under penalty of perjury by the affiant that he or she is a person entitled to confidential treatment pursuant to this section.

(d) The disclosure of the home address or telephone number of a peace officer, as specified in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a), an employee of a city police department or county sheriff's office, or the spouse or children of these persons who live with these persons by any person or public entity in violation of subdivision (a) is a misdemeanor. A violation of this subdivision that results in bodily injury to the peace officer, employee of the city police department or county sheriff's office, or the spouse or children of these persons is a felony.

(e) For purposes of this section, "home address" means only street address and does not include an individual's city or post office address.

SEC. 2. Section 146e of the Penal Code is amended to read:

146e. (a) Every person who maliciously, and with the intent to obstruct justice or the due administration of the laws, publishes, disseminates, or otherwise discloses the residence address or telephone number of any peace officer, nonsworn police dispatcher, or employee of a city police department or county sheriff's office, or that of the spouse or children of these persons, whether living with them or not, while designating the peace officer or nonsworn police dispatcher or relative of these persons as such, without the authorization of the employing agency, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) A violation of subdivision (a) with regard to any peace officer, employee of a city police department or county sheriff's office, or the spouse or children of these persons that results in bodily injury to the peace officer, employee of the city police department or county sheriff's office, or the spouse or children of these persons is a felony.

SEC. 3. Section 1808.4 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

1808.4. (a) The home address of any of the following persons, that appears in any record of the department, is confidential, if the person requests the confidentiality of that information:

- (1) Attorney General.
- (2) State public defender.
- (3) Members of the Legislature.
- (4) Judges or court commissioners.
- (5) District attorneys.
- (6) Public defenders.
- (7) Attorneys employed by the Department of Justice, the office of the State Public Defender, or a county office of the district attorney or public defender.
- (8) City attorneys and attorneys who submit verification from their public employer that they represent the city in matters that routinely place them in personal contact with persons under investigation for, charged with, or convicted of, committing criminal acts, if those attorneys are employed by city attorneys.
- (9) Nonsworn police dispatchers.
- (10) Child abuse investigators or social workers, working in child protective services within a social services department.
- (11) Active or retired peace officers, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code.

(12) Employees of the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, or the Prison Industry Authority specified in Sections 20017.77 and 20017.79 of the Government Code.

(13) Nonsworn employees of a city police department, a county sheriff's office, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, federal, state, and local detention facilities, and local juvenile halls, camps, ranches, and homes, who submit agency verification that, in the normal course of their employment, they control or supervise inmates or are required to have a prisoner in their care or custody.

(14) County counsels assigned to child abuse cases.

(15) Investigators employed by the Department of Justice, a county district attorney, or a county public defender.

(16) Members of a city council.

(17) Members of a board of supervisors.

(18) Federal prosecutors and criminal investigators and National Park Service Rangers working in this state.

(19) The spouse or children of persons listed in this section, regardless of the spouse's or child's place of residence.

(b) The confidential home address of any of the persons listed in subdivision (a) shall not be disclosed to any person, except a court, a law enforcement agency, the State Board of Equalization, or any governmental agency to which, under any provision of law, information is required to be furnished from records maintained by the department.

(c) Any record of the department containing a confidential home address shall be open to public inspection, as provided in Section 1808, if the address is completely obliterated or otherwise removed from the record. The home address shall be withheld from public inspection for three years following termination of office or employment except with respect to retired peace officers, whose home addresses shall be withheld from public inspection permanently upon request of confidentiality at the time the information would otherwise be opened. The department shall inform any person who requests a confidential home address what agency the individual whose address was requested is employed by or the court at which the judge or court commissioner presides.

(d) A violation of subdivision (a) by the disclosure of the confidential home address of a peace officer, as specified in paragraph (11) of subdivision (a), a nonsworn employee of the city police or county sheriff's office, or the spouse or children of these persons that results in bodily injury to the peace officer, employee of the city police or county sheriff's office, or the spouse or children of these persons is a felony.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district that will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 78

An act to amend Sections 44043.5 and 88207 of, and to add Section 87045 to, the Education Code, relating to community colleges, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44043.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44043.5. (a) The governing board of a school district or county office of education may establish a catastrophic leave program to permit employees of that district or county office to donate eligible leave credits to an employee when that employee or a member of his or her family suffers from a catastrophic illness or injury.

For the purposes of this section the following terms are defined as follows:

(1) "Catastrophic illness" or "injury" means an illness or injury that is expected to incapacitate the employee for an extended period of time, or that incapacitates a member of the employee's family which incapacity requires the employee to take time off from work for an extended period of time to care for that family member, and taking extended time off work creates a financial hardship for the employee because he or she has exhausted all of his or her sick leave and other paid time off.

(2) "Eligible leave credits" means vacation leave and sick leave accrued to the donating employee.

(b) Eligible leave credits may be donated to an employee for a catastrophic illness or injury if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The employee who is, or whose family member is, suffering from a catastrophic illness or injury requests that eligible leave credits be donated and provides verification of catastrophic injury or illness as required by the governing board of the school district or county office in which he or she is employed.

(2) The governing board of the school district or county office determines that the employee is unable to work due to the employee's or his or her family member's catastrophic illness or injury.

(3) The employee has exhausted all accrued paid leave credits.

(c) If the transfer of eligible leave credits is approved by the governing board of the school district or county office, any employee may, upon written notice to the governing board of the district or county office, donate eligible leave credits at a minimum of eight hours, and in hour increments thereafter.

(d) The governing board of a school district or county office that provides a catastrophic leave program pursuant to this section shall adopt rules and regulations for the administration of this section, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) The maximum amount of time for which donated leave credits may be used, but not to exceed use for a maximum period of 12 consecutive months.

(2) The verification of catastrophic injury or illness required pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b).

(3) Making all transfers of eligible leave credit irrevocable.

(e) An employee who receives paid leave pursuant to this section shall use any leave credits that he or she continues to accrue on a monthly basis prior to receiving paid leave pursuant to this section.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the governing board of a school district or county office and an exclusive bargaining representative of employees in that district or county may agree to include in any collective bargaining agreement, a provision setting forth requirements for a catastrophic leave program.

SEC. 2. Section 87045 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87045. (a) The governing board of a community college district may establish a catastrophic leave program to permit employees of that district to donate eligible leave credits to an employee when that employee or a member of his or her family suffers from a catastrophic illness or injury.

For the purposes of this section, the following terms are defined as follows:

(1) "Catastrophic illness" or "injury" means an illness or injury that is expected to incapacitate the employee for an extended period of time, or that incapacitates a member of the employee's family which incapacity requires the employee to take time off from work for an extended period of time to care for that family member, and taking extended time off work creates a financial hardship for the employee because he or she has exhausted all of his or her sick leave and other paid time off.

(2) "Eligible leave credits" means vacation leave and sick leave accrued to the donating employee.

(b) Eligible leave credits may be donated to an employee for a catastrophic illness or injury if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The employee who is, or whose family member is, suffering from a catastrophic illness or injury requests that eligible leave credits be donated and provides verification of catastrophic injury or illness as required by the governing board of the community college district in which he or she is employed.

(2) The governing board of the community college district determines that the employee is unable to work due to the employee's or his or her family member's catastrophic illness or injury.

(3) The employee has exhausted all accrued paid leave credits.

(c) If the transfer of eligible leave credits is approved by the governing board of the community college district, any employee may, upon written notice to the governing board, donate eligible leave credits at a minimum of eight hours, and in hour increments thereafter.

(d) The governing board of a community college district that provides a catastrophic leave program pursuant to this section shall adopt rules and regulations for the administration of this section, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) The maximum amount of time for which donated leave credits may be used, but not to exceed use for a maximum period of 12 consecutive months.

(2) The verification of catastrophic injury or illness required pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b).

(3) Making all transfers of eligible leave credit irrevocable.

(e) An employee who receives paid leave pursuant to this section shall use any leave credits that he or she continues to accrue on a monthly basis prior to receiving paid leave pursuant to this section.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the governing board of a community college district and an exclusive bargaining representative of employees in that district may agree to include in any collective bargaining agreement a provision setting forth requirements for a catastrophic leave program.

SEC. 3. Section 88207 of the Education Code is amended to read:

88207. Any days of absence for illness or injury earned pursuant to Section 88191 may be used by the contract or regular employee, at the employee's election, in cases of personal necessity, including any of the following:

(a) Death of a member of the employee's immediate family when additional leave is required beyond that provided both in Section 88194 and as a right by the governing board.

(b) Accident involving the person or property of the employee or of a member of his or her immediate family.

(c) Appearance in any court or before any administrative tribunal as a litigant, party, or witness under subpoena or any order made with jurisdiction.

(d) Any other reasons that may be prescribed by the governing board.

The governing board of each community college district shall adopt rules and regulations requiring and prescribing the manner of proof of personal necessity for the purpose of this section. No earned leave in excess of seven days may be used in any school year for the purposes enumerated in this section.

For purposes of this section, "immediate family" shall have the same meaning as provided in Section 88194.

This section shall apply to districts that have adopted the merit system in the same manner and effect as if it were a part of Article 3 (commencing with Section 88060).

This section shall apply also to community college districts that may be exempted from Section 88191. Authorized necessity leave shall be deducted from sick leave earned under the provisions of the exemption of Section 88191.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to authorize the governing boards of community college districts to establish catastrophic leave programs in the 1993-94 academic year, to modify the provisions governing personal necessity leave, and to clarify other provisions of law as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 80

An act to amend Section 25503.8 of, and to repeal Sections 23373.3 and 24750.5 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23373.3 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 24750.5 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 25503.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25503.8. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the holder of a beer manufacturer's or winegrower's license may purchase advertising space and time from, or on behalf of, an on-sale retail licensee if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The on-sale licensee is the owner of any of the following:

(A) A fully enclosed auditorium or theater with a fixed seating capacity in excess of 6,000 seats, at least 60 percent of the use of which is for plays or musical concerts, not including sporting events.

(B) A motion picture studio facility at which public tours are conducted for at least four million people per year.

(C) A retail, entertainment development adjacent to, and under common ownership with, a theme park, amphitheater, and motion picture production studio.

(2) The advertising space or time is purchased only in connection with one of the following:

(A) In the case of a fully enclosed auditorium or theater, in connection with sponsorship of plays or musical concerts to be held on the premises of the auditorium or theater owned by the on-sale licensee.

(B) In the case of a motion picture studio facility, in connection with sponsorship of the public tours or special events conducted at the studio facility.

(C) In the case of a retail, entertainment development, in connection with sponsorship of public tours or special events conducted at the development.

(3) The on-sale licensee serves other brands of beer or wine in addition to the brand manufactured by the beer manufacturer or produced by the winegrower purchasing the advertising space or time.

(b) Any purchase of advertising space or time conducted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be conducted pursuant to a written contract entered into by the holder of the beer manufacturer's or winegrower's license and the on-sale licensee, which contract shall not in any way involve the holder of a beer or wine wholesaler's license.

(c) Any holder of a beer manufacturer's license or winegrower's license who, through coercion or other means, induces a holder of a beer or wine wholesaler's license to fulfill those contractual obligations entered into pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine in an amount equal to the entire value of the advertising space or time involved in the contract, plus ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both imprisonment and fine. The person shall also be subject to license revocation pursuant to Section 24200.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that advertising space may be purchased in connection with events that are scheduled for the summer of 1994, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 81

An act to amend Section 15333.3 of the Government Code, relating to the California Spaceport Authority.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15333.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15333.3. (a) The Western Commercial Space Center, a nonprofit corporation, is designated as the California Spaceport Authority to provide the support and unique services required for the development of commercial launch, manufacturing, and academic and research operations related to space flight.

(b) The California Spaceport Authority shall be designated as an official recipient of federal grants for space related studies, services, infrastructure improvements and modernization, and defense transition programs to the extent permitted by federal law.

CHAPTER 82

An act to amend Sections 6254 and 9075 of the Government Code, relating to public records.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6254 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6254. Except as provided in Section 6254.7, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require disclosure of records that are any of the following:

(a) Preliminary drafts, notes, or interagency or intra-agency memoranda which are not retained by the public agency in the ordinary course of business, provided that the public interest in withholding those records clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure.

(b) Records pertaining to pending litigation to which the public agency is a party, or to claims made pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810), until the pending litigation or claim has been finally adjudicated or otherwise settled.

(c) Personnel, medical, or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(d) Contained in or related to:

(1) Applications filed with any state agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of the issuance of securities or of financial institutions, including, but not limited to, banks, savings and loan associations, industrial loan companies, credit unions, and insurance companies.

(2) Examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of, any state agency referred to in paragraph (1).

(3) Preliminary drafts, notes, or interagency or intra-agency communications prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of, any state agency referred to in paragraph (1).

(4) Information received in confidence by any state agency referred to in paragraph (1).

(e) Geological and geophysical data, plant production data, and similar information relating to utility systems development, or market or crop reports, which are obtained in confidence from any person.

(f) Records of complaints to, or investigations conducted by, or records of intelligence information or security procedures of, the office of the Attorney General and the Department of Justice, and any state or local police agency, or any investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local police agency, or any investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local agency for correctional, law enforcement, or licensing purposes, except that state and local law enforcement agencies shall disclose the names and addresses of persons involved in, or witnesses other than confidential informants to, the incident, the description of any property involved, the date, time, and location of the incident, all diagrams, statements of the parties involved in the incident, the statements of all witnesses, other than confidential informants, to the victims of an incident, or an authorized representative thereof, an insurance carrier against which a claim has been or might be made, and any person suffering bodily injury or property damage or loss, as the result of the incident caused by arson, burglary, fire, explosion, larceny, robbery, vandalism, vehicle theft, or a crime as defined by subdivision (c) of Section 13960, unless the disclosure would endanger the safety of a witness or other person involved in the investigation, or unless disclosure would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation. However, nothing in this division shall require the disclosure of that portion of those investigative files which reflect the analysis or conclusions of the investigating officer.

Other provisions of this subdivision notwithstanding, state and local law enforcement agencies shall make public the following information, except to the extent that disclosure of a particular item of information would endanger the safety of a person involved in an investigation or would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation:

(1) The full name, current address, and occupation of every individual arrested by the agency, the individual's physical description including date of birth, color of eyes and hair, sex, height and weight, the time and date of arrest, the time and date of booking, the location of the arrest, the factual circumstances surrounding the arrest, the amount of bail set, the time and manner of release or the location where the individual is currently being held, and all charges the individual is being held upon, including any outstanding warrants from other jurisdictions and parole or probation holds.

(2) Subject to the restrictions imposed by Section 841.5 of the Penal Code, the time, substance, and location of all complaints or requests for assistance received by the agency and the time and nature of the response thereto, including, to the extent the information regarding crimes alleged or committed or any other incident investigated is recorded, the time, date, and location of occurrence, the time and date of the report, the name, age, and current address of the victim, except that the address of the victim of any crime defined by Section 261, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 273.5, 286, 288, 288a, 289, 422.6, 422.7, or 422.75 of the Penal Code shall not be disclosed, the factual circumstances surrounding the crime or incident, and a general description of any injuries, property, or weapons involved. The name of a victim of any crime defined by Section 261, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 273.5, 286, 288, 288a, 289, 422.6, 422.7, or 422.75 of the Penal Code may be withheld at the victim's request, or at the request of the victim's parent or guardian if the victim is a minor. When a person is the victim of more than one crime, information disclosing that the person is a victim of a crime defined by Section 261, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 286, 288, 288a, 289, 422.6, 422.7, or 422.75 of the Penal Code may be deleted at the request of the victim, or the victim's parent or guardian if the victim is a minor, in making the report of the crime, or of any crime or incident accompanying the crime, available to the public in compliance with the requirements of this paragraph.

(g) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a licensing examination, examination for employment, or academic examination, except as provided for in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 99150) of Part 65 of the Education Code.

(h) The contents of real estate appraisals or engineering or feasibility estimates and evaluations made for or by the state or local agency relative to the acquisition of property, or to prospective public supply and construction contracts, until all of the property has been acquired or all of the contract agreement obtained. However, the law of eminent domain shall not be affected by this provision.

(i) Information required from any taxpayer in connection with the collection of local taxes which is received in confidence and the disclosure of the information to other persons would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the person supplying the information.

(j) Library circulation records kept for the purpose of identifying the borrower of items available in libraries, and library and museum materials made or acquired and presented solely for reference or exhibition purposes. The exemption in this subdivision shall not apply to records of fines imposed on the borrowers.

(k) Records the disclosure of which is exempted or prohibited pursuant to federal or state law, including, but not limited to, provisions of the Evidence Code relating to privilege.

(l) Correspondence of and to the Governor or employees of the Governor's office or in the custody of or maintained by the Governor's legal affairs secretary, provided that public records shall not be transferred to the custody of the Governor's legal affairs secretary to evade the disclosure provisions of this chapter.

(m) In the custody of or maintained by the Legislative Counsel, except those records in the public data base maintained by the Legislative Counsel that are described in Section 10248.

(n) Statements of personal worth or personal financial data required by a licensing agency and filed by an applicant with the licensing agency to establish his or her personal qualification for the license, certificate, or permit applied for.

(o) Financial data contained in applications for financing under Division 27 (commencing with Section 44500) of the Health and Safety Code, where an authorized officer of the California Pollution Control Financing Authority determines that disclosure of the financial data would be competitively injurious to the applicant and the data is required in order to obtain guarantees from the United States Small Business Administration. The California Pollution Control Financing Authority shall adopt rules for review of individual requests for confidentiality under this section and for making available to the public those portions of an application which are subject to disclosure under this chapter.

(p) Records of state agencies related to activities governed by Chapter 10.3 (commencing with Section 3512) of Division 4 of Title 1, Chapter 10.5 (commencing with Section 3525) of Division 4 of Title 1, and Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1, which reveal a state agency's deliberative processes, impressions, evaluations, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work products, theories, or strategy, or which provide instruction, advice, or training to employees who do not have full collective bargaining and representation rights under the above chapters. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the disclosure duties of a state agency with respect to any other records relating to the activities governed by the employee relations acts referred to in this subdivision.

(q) Records of state agencies related to activities governed by Articles 2.6 (commencing with Section 14081), 2.8 (commencing with Section 14087.5), and 2.91 (commencing with Section 14089) of Chapter 7 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which reveal the special negotiator's deliberative processes, discussions, communications, or any other portion of the negotiations with providers of health care services, impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories, or strategy, or which provide instruction, advice, or training to employees.

Except for the portion of a contract containing the rates of payment, contracts for inpatient services entered into pursuant to these articles, on or after April 1, 1984, shall be open to inspection one year after they are fully executed. In the event that a contract for inpatient services which is entered into prior to April 1, 1984, is amended on or after April 1, 1984, the amendment, except for any portion containing the rates of payment, shall be open to inspection one year after it is fully executed. If the California Medical Assistance Commission enters into contracts with health care providers for other than inpatient hospital services, those contracts shall be open to inspection one year after they are fully executed.

Three years after a contract or amendment is open to inspection under this subdivision, the portion of the contract or amendment containing the rates of payment shall be open to inspection.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the entire contract or amendment shall be open to inspection by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee. The Joint Legislative Audit Committee shall maintain the confidentiality of the contracts and amendments until such time as a contract or amendment is fully open to inspection by the public.

(r) Records of Native American graves, cemeteries, and sacred places maintained by the Native American Heritage Commission.

(s) A final accreditation report of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals which has been transmitted to the State Department of Health Services pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1282 of the Health and Safety Code.

(t) Records of a local hospital district, formed pursuant to Division 23 (commencing with Section 32000) of the Health and Safety Code, or the records of a municipal hospital, formed pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 37600) or Article 8 (commencing with Section 37650) of Chapter 5 of Division 3 of Title 4 of this code, which relate to any contract with an insurer or nonprofit hospital service plan for inpatient or outpatient services for alternative rates pursuant to Section 10133 or 11512 of the Insurance Code. However, the record shall be open to inspection within one year after the contract is fully executed.

(u) Information contained in applications for licenses to carry firearms issued pursuant to Section 12050 of the Penal Code by the sheriff of a county or the chief or other head of a municipal police department which indicates when or where the applicant is vulnerable to attack or which concerns the applicant's medical or psychological history or that of members of his or her family.

(v) (1) Records of the Major Risk Medical Insurance Program related to activities governed by Part 6.3 (commencing with Section 12695), and Part 6.5 (commencing with Section 12700), of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, and which reveal the deliberative processes, discussions, communications, or any other portion of the negotiations with health plans, or the impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories, or strategy of the board or its staff, or records that provide instructions, advice, or training to employees.

(2) (A) Except for the portion of a contract that contains the rates of payment, contracts for health coverage entered into pursuant to Part 6.3 (commencing with Section 12695), or Part 6.5 (commencing with Section 12700), of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, on or after July 1, 1991, shall be open to inspection one year after they have been fully executed.

(B) In the event that a contract for health coverage that is entered into prior to July 1, 1991, is amended on or after July 1, 1991, the amendment, except for any portion containing the rates of payment shall be open to inspection one year after the amendment has been fully executed.

(3) Three years after a contract or amendment is open to inspection pursuant to this subdivision, the portion of the contract or amendment containing the rates of payment shall be open to inspection.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the entire contract or amendments to a contract shall be open to inspection by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee. The Joint Legislative Audit Committee shall maintain the confidentiality of the contracts and amendments thereto, until the contract or amendments to a contract is open to inspection pursuant to paragraph (3).

(w) (1) Records of the Major Risk Medical Insurance Program related to activities governed by Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 10700) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, and that reveal the deliberative processes, discussions, communications, or any other portion of the negotiations with health plans, or the impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories, or strategy of the board or its staff, or records that provide instructions, advice, or training to employees.

(2) Except for the portion of a contract that contains the rates of payment, contracts for health coverage entered into pursuant to Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 10700) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, on or after January 1, 1993, shall be open to inspection one year after they have been fully executed.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the entire contract or amendments to a contract shall be open to inspection by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee. The Joint Legislative Audit Committee shall maintain the confidentiality of the contracts and amendments thereto, until the contract or amendments to a contract is open to inspection pursuant to paragraph (2).

(x) Financial data contained in applications for registration, or registration renewal, as a service contractor filed with the Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs pursuant to Chapter 20 (commencing with Section 9800) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, for the purpose of establishing the service contractor's net worth, or, financial data regarding the funded accounts held in escrow for service contracts held in force in this state by a service contractor.

Nothing in this section prevents any agency from opening its records concerning the administration of the agency to public inspection, unless disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law.

Nothing in this section prevents any health facility from disclosing to a certified bargaining agent relevant financing information pursuant to Section 8 of the National Labor Relations Act.

SEC. 2. Section 9075 of the Government Code is amended to read:

9075. Nothing in this article shall be construed to invalidate or affect the operation of Sections 10207, 10208, 10525, and 10526 of this code, or Temporary Joint Rule 37 of the Senate and Assembly in effect on the effective date of this article, or to require the disclosure of records that are any of the following:

- (a) Preliminary drafts, notes, or legislative memoranda.
- (b) Records pertaining to pending litigation to which the Legislature is a party, or to claims made pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1, until the litigation or claim has been finally adjudicated or otherwise settled.
- (c) Personnel, medical, or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, provided that the Senate Committee on Rules, the Assembly Committee on Rules, or the Joint Rules Committee shall determine whether disclosure of these records constitutes an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
- (d) Records pertaining to the names and phone numbers of senders and recipients of telephone and telegraph communications, provided that records of the total charges for any such communication shall be open for inspection.
- (e) Records pertaining to the name and location of recipients of automotive fuel or lubricants expenditures, provided that records of the total charges for those expenditures shall be open for inspection.
- (f) In the custody of or maintained by the Legislative Counsel, except those records in the public data base maintained by the Legislative Counsel that are described in Section 10248. Legislative records shall not be transferred to the custody of the Legislative Counsel to evade the disclosure provisions of this chapter.
- (g) In the custody of or maintained by the majority and minority caucuses and majority and minority consultants of each house of the Legislature, provided that legislative records shall not be transferred to the custody of the majority and minority caucuses and majority and minority consultants of each house of the Legislature to evade the disclosure provisions of this chapter.
- (h) Correspondence of and to individual Members of the Legislature and their staff.
- (i) Records the disclosure of which is exempted or prohibited pursuant to provisions of federal or state law, including, but not limited to, provisions of the Evidence Code relating to privilege.
- (j) Communications from private citizens to the Legislature.
- (k) Records of complaints to or investigations conducted by, or records of security procedures of, the Legislature.

CHAPTER 83

An act to amend Section 44940 of the Education Code, relating to school employees.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44940 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44940. (a) For purposes of this section, “charged with a mandatory leave of absence offense” is defined to mean charged by complaint, information, or indictment filed in a court of competent jurisdiction with the commission of any sex offense as defined in Section 44010, or with the commission of any offense involving aiding or abetting the unlawful sale, use, or exchange to minors of controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, or III, as contained in Section 11054, 11055, and 11056 of the Health and Safety Code, with the exception of marijuana, mescaline, peyote, or tetrahydrocannabinols.

(b) For purposes of this section, “charged with an optional leave of absence offense” is defined to mean a charge by complaint, information, or indictment filed in a court of competent jurisdiction with the commission of any controlled substance offense as defined in Section 44011 or 87011, or a violation or attempted violation of Section 187 of the Penal Code, or Sections 11357 to 11361, inclusive, Section 11363, 11364, or 11370.1 of the Health and Safety Code, insofar as these sections relate to any controlled substances except marijuana, mescaline, peyote, or tetrahydrocannabinols.

(c) For purposes of this section and Section 44940.5, the term “school district” includes county offices of education.

(d) Whenever any certificated employee of a school district is charged with a mandatory leave of absence offense, as defined in subdivision (a), the governing board of the school district shall immediately place the employee upon compulsory leave of absence for a period of time extending for not more than 10 days after the date of entry of the judgment in the proceedings. The employee’s teaching or service credential shall be automatically suspended for the same period of time.

(e) Whenever any certificated employee of a school district is charged with an optional leave of absence offense as defined in subdivision (b), the governing board of the school district may immediately place the employee upon compulsory leave in accordance with the procedure in this section and Section 44940.5. If any certificated employee is charged with an offense deemed to fall into both the mandatory and the optional leave of absence categories, as defined in subdivisions (a) and (b), that offense shall be treated as a mandatory leave of absence offense for purposes of this section.

CHAPTER 84

An act to amend Section 607f of the Civil Code, relating to humane officers.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 607f of the Civil Code is amended to read:
607f. (a) Any corporation incorporated for the purpose of the prevention of cruelty to animals may by resolution of its board of directors or trustees duly entered on its minutes appoint any number of its members, who shall be citizens of the State of California, as humane officers. Each appointment of a humane officer shall be by separate resolution. The resolution shall state the full name and place of residence and the business or occupation of the person so appointed and the fact that he or she is a citizen of the State of California and shall also designate the number of the badge to be allotted to the officer.

(b) The society shall recommend any appointee to the judge of the superior court in and for the county or city and county in which the appointee resides, and shall deliver to the judge a copy of the resolution appointing the person, duly certified to be correct by the president and secretary of the corporation and attested by its seal, together with the fingerprints of the appointee taken on standard 8-x 8-inch cards, and proof of the society's proper incorporation in compliance with Part 9 (commencing with Section 10400) of Division 2 of the Corporations Code.

(c) The judge shall send a copy of the resolution, together with the fingerprints of the appointee, to the Department of Justice, which shall thereupon submit to the judge, in writing, a report of the record in its possession, if any, of the appointee. If the Department of Justice has no record of the appointee, it shall so report to the judge in writing.

(d) Upon receipt of the report the judge shall review the matter of the appointee's qualifications and fitness to act as a humane officer and, if he or she reaffirms the appointment, shall so state on a court order confirming the appointment. The appointee shall thereupon file a certified copy of the reviewed court order in the office of the county clerk of the county or city and county and shall at the same time take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed for constables or other peace officers.

(e) The county clerk shall thereupon immediately enter in a book to be kept in his or her office and designated "Record of Humane Officers" the name of the officer, the number of his or her badge, the name of the judge appointing him or her and the date of the filing. At the time of the filing the county clerk shall collect from the officer a fee of five dollars ($5), which shall be in full for all services to be performed by the county clerk under this section.

(f) All appointments of humane officers shall automatically expire if the society disbands or legally dissolves. In addition, all appointments of humane officers shall automatically expire within three years from the date on which the certified copy of the court order was filed with the county clerk. Officers whose appointments are about to expire may only be reappointed in the same manner as provided in this section for new appointments.

(g) The corporation appointing an officer may revoke an appointment at any time by filing in the office of the county clerk in which the appointment of the officer is recorded a copy of the revocation in writing under the letterhead of the corporation and duly certified by its executive officer. Upon the filing the county clerk shall enter the fact of the revocation and the date of the filing thereof opposite the name of the officer in the record of humane officers.

(h) On and after January 1, 1995, all humane officers shall, within one year of appointment, provide evidence satisfactory to the society that he or she has successfully completed courses of training in the following subjects:

(1) At least 20 hours of a course of training in animal care sponsored or provided by an accredited postsecondary institution, the focus of which shall be the identification of disease, injury, and neglect in domestic animals and livestock.

(2) At least 40 hours of a course of training in the state humane laws sponsored or provided by an accredited postsecondary institution.

(3) A course of training as prescribed by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, as specified in Section 832 of the Penal Code.

On and after January 1, 1995, every humane officer shall, within one year of reappointment, provide evidence satisfactory to the society that he or she has successfully completed at least 40 hours in courses of training during the preceding three years in either animal care as described by paragraph (1) or the current criminal and civil law pertinent to humane officers, or a combination of both, sponsored or provided by an accredited postsecondary institution or a local law enforcement agency.

(4) The corporation or local humane society appointing the humane officer shall pay the training expenses of the humane officer attending the above-stated courses of training.

(i) Humane officers, after qualifying as above provided, shall have power at all places within the state lawfully to interfere to prevent the perpetration of any act of cruelty upon any dumb animal and may use such force as may be necessary to prevent the same and to that end may summon to their aid any bystander. They may make arrests for the violation of any penal law of this state relating to or affecting animals in the same manner as a constable or other peace officer. Except as otherwise provided by this section, a humane officer shall serve only in the county in which he or she is appointed. A humane officer may serve in a county other than that in which he or she is appointed only if he or she first informs the sheriff of the county that he or she intends to serve in that county. A humane officer is authorized to carry weapons while engaged in his or her duties as a humane officer, upon satisfactory completion of training, as approved by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, in the use of weapons.

(j) Every humane officer shall, when making an arrest, exhibit and expose a suitable badge to be adopted by the corporation under this title of which he or she is a member which shall bear its name and a number.

(k) Any person resisting a humane officer in the performance of his or her duty as provided in this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who has not been appointed and qualified as a humane officer as provided in this section, or whose appointment has been revoked as provided in this section, or whose appointment, having expired, has not been renewed as provided in this section, who shall represent himself or herself to be or shall attempt to act as an officer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 85

An act to amend Section 2982.2 of the Civil Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2982.2 of the Civil Code, as added by Chapter 28 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

2982.2. Any conditional sale contract executed after June 30, 1994, for the sale of a new motor vehicle shall contain a notification to the buyer of the availability of a certificate of exemption pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 4000.6 of the Vehicle Code.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that motor vehicle dealers be allowed sufficient time to comply with Section 2982.2 of the Civil Code, and to avoid the potential invalidation of contracts executed without the notice required by that section, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 86

An act to add Section 10241.4 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to real estate.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10241.4 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

10241.4. (a) Prior to a borrower becoming obligated on any loan secured by a dwelling that provides for a balloon payment and is otherwise subject to Section 10240, if any agreement includes a promise, representation, or similar undertaking to extend or seek the extension of the term of the loan or refinancing of the loan, and the undertaking is not set forth in the promissory note evidencing the loan or in a rider to that note, the undertaking shall be in writing and the notice required by this section shall be provided to the borrower.

(b) The notice required by subdivision (a), shall state in at least 10-point boldface capitalized type:

“AS THIS LOAN PROVIDES FOR A BALLOON PAYMENT, SEE THE MORTGAGE LOAN DISCLOSURE STATEMENT/GOOD FAITH ESTIMATE FOR IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON BALLOON PAYMENTS. ALSO, REFER TO THE LOAN DOCUMENTS AND THIS EXTENSION AGREEMENT FOR YOUR SPECIFIC RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS.”

(c) The notice shall also contain, in at least 10-point boldface capitalized type, either of the following statements depending upon which statement best describes the nature of the undertaking:

(1) The lender or noteholder has agreed to an extension, refinancing, or renegotiation of the terms of this loan, and the lender's or noteholder's signed agreement is attached (or the notice may describe the method used to furnish that signed document). Transmission by a broker of a lender's or noteholder's undertaking or the broker's representation of that undertaking, pursuant to this section, does not of itself, create or alter any agency or similar relationship between the lender or noteholder and the borrower, or the lender or noteholder and the broker.

(2) The broker, _____ (insert name of broker making or arranging the loan), has agreed to use his or her best efforts to obtain a future extension, refinancing, or renegotiation of the loan by the lender or note owner. There can be no assurance or guarantee that the lender or note owner will agree.

SEC. 2. Section 1 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1995.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 87

An act to amend Section 67655 of the Government Code, relating to redevelopment, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 67655 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 64 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

67655. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions contained in this chapter govern the construction of this title.

(a) "Authority" means the Fort Ord Reuse Authority.

(b) "Base-wide facility" means a public capital facility which, in the judgment of the board, is important to the overall reuse of Fort Ord, and has significance beyond any single city or the unincorporated area of the county.

(c) "Board" means the governing board of the authority, as specified in Section 67660.

(d) "Fort Ord Reuse Plan" means the plan for the future use of Fort Ord adopted pursuant to Section 67675.

(e) "Legislative body" means the city council of a city or the board of supervisors of a county, or the legislative body or governing board of any other public agency.

(f) "Local facility" means a public capital facility which, in the judgment of the board, is important primarily within a single city or the unincorporated area of the county.

(g) "Member agency" means the County of Monterey and the City of Carmel, the City of Del Rey Oaks, the City of Marina, the City of Sand City, the City of Monterey, the City of Pacific Grove, the City of Salinas, or the City of Seaside.

(h) "Fort Ord," including references to the territory or area of Fort Ord, means the geographical area described in the document entitled "Description of the Fort Ord Military Reservation Including Portion of the Monterey City Lands Tract No. 1, the Saucito, Laguna Seca, El Chamisal, El Toro and Noche Buena Ranchos, the James Bardin Partition of 1880 and Townships 14 South, Ranges 1 and 2 East and Townships 15 South, Ranges 2 and 3 East, M.D.B. and M. Monterey County, California," prepared by Bestor Engineers, Inc., and delivered to the Sacramento District Corps of Engineers on April 11, 1994.

(i) "Public capital facilities" means all public capital facilities described in the Fort Ord Reuse Plan, including, but not limited to, roads, freeways, ramps, air transportation facilities and freight hauling and handling facilities, sewage and water conveyance and treatment facilities, school, library, and other educational facilities, and recreational facilities, that could most efficiently and conveniently be planned, negotiated, financed, or constructed by the authority to further the integrated future use of Fort Ord.

(j) "Redevelopment authority," for purposes of the transfer of property at military bases pursuant to Title XXIX of the National Defense Authorization Act for the 1994 fiscal year, means the Fort Ord Reuse Authority, except that, with respect to property within the territory of Fort Ord that is transferred or to be transferred to the California State University or to the University of California, "redevelopment authority" solely for purposes of the transfer of property at military bases pursuant to Title XXIX of the National Defense Authorization Act for the 1994 fiscal year means the California State University or the University of California, and does not mean the Fort Ord Reuse Authority.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to facilitate the transfer of property to the California State University or the University of California within the territory of the former Fort Ord military base at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this bill take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 88

An act to amend Section 655 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 655 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:
655. (a) A "truck tractor" is a motor vehicle designed and used primarily for drawing other vehicles and not so constructed as to carry a load, other than a part of the weight of the vehicle and the load so drawn. As used in this section, "load" does not include items carried on the truck tractor in conjunction with the operation of the vehicle if the load carrying space for these items does not exceed 34 square feet.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a truck tractor, operated by a motor carrier whose owner is licensed by the Department of the California Highway Patrol to transport explosives pursuant to Division 14 (commencing with Section 31600), may be equipped with a cargo container used exclusively for the transportation of explosives or munitions-related security material, as specified by the United States Department of Defense.

CHAPTER 89

An act to amend Section 140107 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor May 20, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State May 20, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(a) A mechanism is needed to permit the payment of salaries and benefits for Santa Clara County Traffic Authority employees after the March 31, 1995, expiration of the transactions and use tax being administered by the authority, since under current law the authority may continue to operate for two years after that date.

(b) Under existing law, the authority may not expend in any year, for salaries and benefits of its staff, more than six-tenths of 1 percent of the funds generated pursuant to Division 13 (commencing with Section 140000) of the Public Utilities Code, that created the authority. This limitation may seriously curtail the authority's ability to pay salaries and benefits after the March 31, 1995, termination of the transactions and use tax because very few additional funds, if any, are expected to be generated after that time. Salaries and benefits owed for the two years after termination of the tax will be paid from the authority's remaining cash balance.

SEC. 2. Section 140107 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

140107. (a) The authority shall rely to the extent possible on existing state, regional, and local transportation planning and programming data and expertise, rather than on a large duplicative authority staff and set of plans.

(b) The authority shall not expend more than six-tenths of 1 percent of the funds generated pursuant to this division in any year for salaries and benefits of its staff.

(c) During the period beginning April 1, 1995, and ending March 31, 1997, the authority shall not expend for salaries and benefits of its staff in each 12-month period an amount that is more than six-tenths of 1 percent of the revenues generated in any year pursuant to this division.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to enable the Santa Clara County Traffic Authority to continue to pay the salaries and benefits of its staff after March 31, 1995, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 90

An act to amend Section 2933 of the Penal Code, relating to sentencing credits, and declaring the urgency thereof to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 6, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2933 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2933. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that persons convicted of a crime and sentenced to the state prison, under Section 1170, serve the entire sentence imposed by the court, except for a reduction in the time served in the custody of the Director of Corrections for performance in work, training or education programs established by the Director of Corrections. Worktime credits shall apply for performance in work assignments and performance in elementary, high school, or vocational education programs. Enrollment in a two- or four-year college program leading to a degree shall result in the application of time credits equal to that provided in Section 2931. For every six months of full-time performance in a credit qualifying program, as designated by the director, a prisoner shall be awarded worktime credit reductions from his or her term of confinement of six months. A lesser amount of credit based on this ratio shall be awarded for any lesser period of continuous performance. Less than maximum credit should be awarded pursuant to regulations adopted by the director for prisoners not assigned to a full-time credit qualifying program. Every prisoner who refuses to accept a full-time credit qualifying assignment or who is denied the opportunity to earn worktime credits pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2932 shall be awarded no worktime credit reduction. Every prisoner who voluntarily accepts a half-time credit qualifying assignment in lieu of a full-time assignment shall be awarded worktime credit reductions from his or her term of confinement of three months for each six-month period of continued performance. Except as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 2932, every prisoner willing to participate in a full-time credit qualifying assignment but who is either not assigned to a full-time assignment or is assigned to a program for less than full time, shall receive no less credit than is provided under Section 2931. Under no circumstances shall any prisoner receive more than six months' credit reduction for any six-month period under this section.

(b) Worktime credit is a privilege, not a right. Worktime credit must be earned and may be forfeited pursuant to the provisions of Section 2932. Except as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 2932, every prisoner shall have a reasonable opportunity to participate in a full-time credit qualifying assignment in a manner consistent with institutional security and available resources.

(c) Under regulations adopted by the Department of Corrections, which shall require a period of not more than one year free of disciplinary infractions, worktime credit which has been previously forfeited may be restored by the director. The regulations shall provide for separate classifications of serious disciplinary infractions as they relate to restoration of credits; the time period required before forfeited credits or a portion thereof may be restored; and the percentage of forfeited credits that may be restored for these time periods. For credits forfeited for commission of a felony specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 2932, the Department of Corrections may provide that up to 180 days of lost credit shall not be restored and up to 90 days of credit shall not be restored for a forfeiture resulting from conspiracy or attempts to commit one of those acts; provided that no credits may be restored if they were forfeited for a serious disciplinary infraction in which the victim died or was permanently disabled. Upon application of the prisoner and following completion of the required time period free of disciplinary offenses, forfeited credits eligible for restoration under the regulations shall be restored unless, at a hearing, it is found that the prisoner refused to accept or failed to perform in a credit qualifying assignment or extraordinary circumstances are present that require that credits not be restored. "Extraordinary circumstances" shall be defined in the regulations adopted by the director.

The prisoner may appeal the finding through the Department of Corrections review procedure, which shall include a review by an individual independent of the institution who has supervisory authority over the institution.

(d) The provisions of subdivision (c) shall also apply in cases of credit forfeited under Section 2931 for offenses and serious disciplinary infractions occurring on or after January 1, 1983.

(e) Any person sentenced to a term in the state prison under subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 190 shall be eligible only for credit pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of Section 2931.

SEC. 2. This bill shall become operative only if Proposition 179 on the June 7, 1994, primary election ballot is adopted by the voters.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the intent of Proposition 179 on the June 7, 1994, primary election ballot may be carried out in the event that the measure is adopted by the voters, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 91

An act to amend Section 19542 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 6, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19542 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19542. Except as otherwise provided in this article and as required to administer subdivision (b) of Section 19005, it is a misdemeanor for the Franchise Tax Board or any member thereof, or any deputy, agent, clerk, or other officer or employee of the state (including its political subdivisions), or any former officer or employee or other individual, who in the course of his or her employment or duty has or had access to returns, reports, or documents required to be filed under this part, to disclose or make known in any manner information as to the amount of income or any particulars (including the business affairs of a bank or corporation) set forth or disclosed therein.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that the amendment to Section 19542 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by this act does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, existing law.

CHAPTER 92

An act to amend Section 1 of Chapter 1201 of the Statutes of 1991, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 6, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of Chapter 1201 of the Statutes of 1991 is amended to read:

Sec. 1. (a) The San Joaquin Valley Unified Air Pollution Control District formed by the Counties of Fresno, Kern, Kings, Madera, Merced, San Joaquin, Stanislaus, and Tulare pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 40150) of Part 3 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, and consisting of the Counties of Fresno, Kings, Madera, Merced, San Joaquin, Stanislaus, and Tulare, and that portion of the County of Kern that is within the San Joaquin Valley Air Basin, is a single integrated agency with all staff under one centralized management structure that is able to implement programs on a basinwide basis, and has all of the following:

(1) An individual air pollution control officer who is responsible for the issuance of all permits by the unified district.

(2) A single budget for the unified district with resources allocated based on the program needs of the San Joaquin Valley Air Basin.

(3) A uniform fee structure.

(4) Three hearing boards established pursuant to Section 40800 of the Health and Safety Code. One hearing board shall serve the northern region, one shall serve the central region, and one shall serve the southern region, as defined by the unified district board. Identical policies governing the operation of each hearing board shall be established by the unified district board and shall be binding upon each hearing board.

(5) A citizen's advisory committee.

(b) Rules and regulations adopted by the San Joaquin Valley Unified Air Pollution Control District are binding on all counties within the unified district. The unified district shall enforce all permits issued by the unified district and all permits issued by the individual county districts prior to formation of the unified district. The unified district shall review, revise, adopt, and implement any air pollution control plans required within the San Joaquin Valley Air Basin by state and federal law.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the San Joaquin

Valley Unified Air Pollution Control District shall (1) be governed by a district board as described in Section 41102 of the Health and Safety Code, and (2) have the authority set forth in Article 3 (commencing with Section 41120) of Chapter 11 of Part 3 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) If the San Joaquin Valley Unified Air Pollution Control District ceases to exist, Sections 39058.3, 39058.5, 40002, and 40104 of, and Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 41100) of Part 3 of Division 26, as added by Chapter 1201 of the Statutes of 1991, of, the Health and Safety Code shall become operative on the date that the unified district ceases to exist.

CHAPTER 93

An act to amend Sections 11751 and 11757 of the Government Code, relating to the Hawkins Data Center, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 6, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11751 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11751. There is in the Department of Justice the Hawkins Data Center. The Hawkins Data Center shall be under the supervision of a data center director who shall be appointed by the Attorney General, pursuant to civil service. The data center director shall be responsible for the efficient and effective management and operation of the data center.

SEC. 2. Section 11757 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11757. No exchange or transfer of data between data centers by intercoupling, or telecommunication, shall be made except with the approval of the Department of Finance. This section shall not prohibit the transmission of data from the Department of Motor Vehicles to the Hawkins Data Center in order to obtain vehicle registration and driver license data for criminal justice information purposes, or transmission of data between centers in the same state agency.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to conform applicable statutes as soon as possible to the item of appropriation listed in the 1994-95 Governor's Budget to the Hawkins Data Center, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 94

An act to add Title 6.7 (commencing with Section 63000) to the Government Code, and to amend Sections 50054, 50150, 50154, 50176, 50185, 50187, 50190, 50193, 50196, 50663, 50667, 50837, 50900, 50901, 50902, and 50908 of, and to amend the heading of Part 3 (commencing with Section 50900) of Division 31 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to economic development, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 6, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 6.7 (commencing with Section 63000) is added to the Government Code, to read:

TITLE 6.7. INFRASTRUCTURE FINANCE

DIVISION 1. THE BERGESON-PEACE INFRASTRUCTURE BANK ACT

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Findings and Declarations

63000. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) Economic revitalization, future development, and a healthy climate for jobs in California will depend upon a well-conceived system of public improvements that are essential to the economic well-being of the citizens of the state and are necessary to maintain, as well as create, employment within the state for business.

(b) It is necessary for public policy to support the efforts of businesses attempting to expand, businesses seeking to locate in California, and local economic development organizations, public agencies, and new entrepreneurs by dedicating public fiscal resources to confront obstacles and barriers that impede economic growth.

(c) Existing mechanisms that coordinate federal, state, local, and private financial resources are inadequate to attract and sustain that level of private investment that is essential to a growth economy.

(d) The high cost and limited availability of loans and capital has led a number of states to take action to remedy these conditions through concerted public and private investment programs that include efforts to do the following:

(1) Use the state's access to capital markets more effectively for economic development.

(2) Create financing pools to access national capital markets or help government sponsors, public-private economic development organizations, and private parties obtain credit enhancement on their own.

(3) Facilitate credit enhancement for selected specific projects.

(4) Provide or arrange for loan insurance.

(5) Create and support secondary markets for loan portfolios of urban and rural economic development corporations and others.

(6) Improve access to international capital markets.

(7) Provide opportunities for public pension funds and other institutional investors to play a larger role in state economic development.

(8) Arrange for or provide subordinated debt for selected projects.

(9) Increase support for local infrastructure development.

(e) Local governments in California bear a primary responsibility for the business of promoting job creation and economic development efforts. California's continued reliance on autonomous local entities often fails to adequately consider regional impacts of business expansion. Projects of a regional nature need the benefit of a state coordinating function to augment and enhance local economic development and environmental efforts.

(f) The State of California has not embarked on a major infrastructure financing effort since the decade of the 1960's, despite persistent unemployment and soaring population growth.

(g) California's ability to compete in a global economy depends upon its capacity to implement policies that take maximum advantage of public and private resources at the local, regional, state, and national levels. These policies should be coordinated with any future legislative plan involving growth management strategies designed to make economic growth compatible with environmental protections. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to create a mechanism to finance projects needed to implement economic development and job creation and growth management strategies, and to provide a secure and stable funding source for implementation of this act in order to meet critical economic, social, and environmental concerns.

(h) The State of California needs a financing entity structured with broad authority to issue bonds, provide guarantees, and leverage state funds using techniques that will target public investment to facilitate economic development. The goal is to produce more private sector jobs with less public sector investment.

(i) The mechanisms for financing public improvements and private job creation strategies provided for in this act are in the public interest, serve a public purpose, and will promote the health, welfare, and safety of the citizens of the state.

(j) The public policies and responsibilities of the state, including all of the above purposes and functions, cannot be fully obtained without the use of financing assistance and can be most effectively furthered by the creation of the California Infrastructure Bank.

63001. It is not the intent of this act to supersede the existing process for approving industrial development bonds or establish a process for approving industrial development bonds separate from that currently established in Title 10 (commencing with Section 91500).

63002. This division shall be known and may be cited as the Bergeson-Peace Infrastructure Bank Act.

Article 2. Definitions

63010. For purposes of this division, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly indicates or requires another or different meaning or intent:

(a) "Act" means the Bergeson-Peace Infrastructure Bank Act.

(b) "Agency" means the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency, created pursuant to Part 3 (commencing with Section 50900) of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, and any board, commission, department, or officer succeeding to the functions thereof, or to whom the powers conferred upon the agency by this division shall be given by law. For purposes of the state General Obligation Bond Law (Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16720) of Part 3 of Division 4 of Title 2), the agency shall be deemed to be the committee.

(c) "Bank" means the California Infrastructure Bank.

(d) "Board" means the board of directors of the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency.

(e) "Bond purchase agreement" means a contractual agreement executed between the bank and a sponsor whereby the bank agrees to purchase bonds of the sponsor.

(f) "Bonds" means bonds, notes (including bond, revenue, tax or grant anticipation notes), commercial paper, floating rate, and variable maturity securities, and any other evidences of indebtedness, including certificates of participation, or lease-purchase agreements, whether taxable or excludable from gross income for federal income taxation purposes.

(g) "Cost," as applied to a project or portion thereof financed under this division, means all or any part of the cost of construction, renovation, and acquisition of all lands, structures, real or personal property, rights, rights-of-way, franchises, licenses, easements, and interests acquired or used for a project; the cost of demolishing or removing any buildings or structures on land so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any lands to which the buildings or structures may be moved; the cost of all machinery and equipment and financing charges; interest prior to, during, and for a period after, completion of construction, renovation, or acquisition, as determined by the bank; provisions for working capital; reserves for principal and interest and for extensions, enlargements, additions, replacements, renovations, and improvements; the cost of architectural, engineering, financial and legal services, plans, specifications, estimates, administrative expenses, and other expenses necessary or incidental to determining the feasibility of any project or incidental to the construction, acquisition, or financing of any project.

(h) "Executive director" means the executive director of the agency appointed pursuant to Section 50908 of the Health and Safety Code.

(i) "Facilities" means real and personal property, structures, conveyances, equipment, thoroughfares, buildings, and supporting components thereof that are directly related to providing the following:

(1) "City streets" includes any street, avenue, boulevard, road, parkway, drive, or other way that is any of the following:

(A) An existing municipal roadway.

(B) Is shown upon a plat approved pursuant to law and includes the land between the street lines, whether improved or unimproved, and may comprise pavement, bridges, shoulders, gutters, curbs, guardrails, sidewalks, parking areas, benches, fountains, plantings, lighting systems, and other areas within the street lines as well as equipment and facilities used in the cleaning, grading, clearance, maintenance, and upkeep thereof.

(2) "County highways" includes any county highway as defined in Section 25 of the Streets and Highways Code, that includes the land between the highway lines, whether improved or unimproved, and may comprise pavement, bridges, shoulders, gutters, curbs, guardrails, sidewalks, parking areas, benches, fountains, plantings, lighting systems, and other areas within the street lines, as well as equipment and facilities used in the cleaning, grading, clearance, maintenance, and upkeep thereof.

(3) "Drainage and flood control" includes ditches, canals, levees, pumps, dams, conduits, pipes, storm sewers, and dikes necessary to keep or direct water away from people, equipment, buildings, and other protected areas as may be established by lawful authority, as well as the acquisition, improvement, maintenance, and management of floodplain areas and all equipment used in the maintenance and operation of the foregoing.

(4) "Educational facilities" includes libraries, child care facilities, including, but not limited to, day care facilities, and employment training facilities.

(n) "Participating party" means any person, company, corporation, partnership, firm, or other entity or group of entities engaged in business within the state and that applies for financing from the bank in conjunction with a sponsor for the purpose of implementing a project.

(o) "Project" means designing, acquiring, planning, permitting, entitling, constructing, improving, extending, restoring, financing, and generally developing facilities within the state.

(p) "Revenues" means all receipts, purchase payments, loan repayments, lease payments, and all other income or receipts derived by the bank or a sponsor from the sale, lease, or other financing arrangement undertaken by the bank, a sponsor or a participating party, including, but not limited to, all receipts from a bond purchase agreement, and any income or revenue derived from the investment of any money in any fund or account of the bank or a sponsor. Revenues shall not include moneys in the General Fund of the state.

(q) "Sponsor" means any subdivision of the state or local government including departments, agencies, commissions, cities, counties, nonprofit corporations formed on behalf of a sponsor, special districts, assessment districts, and joint powers authorities within the state or any combination of these subdivisions that has, or proposes to acquire, an interest in a project and that makes application to the bank for financial assistance in connection with a project in a manner prescribed by the bank.

(r) "State" means the State of California.

CHAPTER 2. CALIFORNIA INFRASTRUCTURE BANKArticle 1. Creation of the Bank

63020. (a) This division assigns powers and duties to the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency that are in addition to any other powers and duties provided by any other provision of law, including, but not limited to, all powers provided by Part 3 (commencing with Section 50900) of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code. These powers are incorporated into this division by reference, and made a part of the powers of the agency conferred by this division.

(b) No member of the agency shall participate in any agency action or attempt to influence any decision or recommendation by any employee of, or consultant to, the agency that involves a sponsor of which he or she is a representative, elected or appointed official, or in which the member has a direct personal financial interest within the meaning of Section 87100.

63021. (a) There is within the agency the California Infrastructure Bank which shall be responsible for administering the provisions of this division.

(b) The bank shall be under the direction of the executive director of the agency.

(c) A deputy to the executive officer for infrastructure and an infrastructure finance officer shall be appointed by the Governor, after consideration of the recommendation of the executive director. The deputy and infrastructure finance officer shall hold office at the pleasure of the executive director and shall receive a salary determined by the executive director, subject to the approval of the Department of Finance.

63022. The executive director shall manage and conduct the business and affairs of the bank, the infrastructure bank fund, and guarantee trust fund, subject to the direction of the board. Subject to any conditions that the board may from time to time prescribe, the executive director may exercise any power, function, or duty conferred by law on the bank in connection with the administration, management, and conduct of the business and affairs of the bank, the infrastructure bank fund, and the guarantee trust fund.

63023. In administering and directing the day-to-day operations of the agency in regard to this division, the executive director, or whoever he or she shall assign, may do any of the following without authorization by resolution of the board unless specifically restricted by resolution of the board:

(a) Enter into contracts for investment, guarantee, or enhancement.

(b) Establish procedures, guidelines, criteria, terms, conditions or other requirements of any contract, bond, grant, or program, as the case may be, in order to carry out the intents and purposes of the board in authorizing any bond, loan, or grant program pursuant to this division.

(c) Decline to guarantee any risk, or to enter into any contract, in which the minimum requirements of the guarantee trust fund or the infrastructure bank fund are not complied with.

(d) Reinsure any risk or any part of any risk.

(e) Make rules for payments through the infrastructure bank fund and the settlement of claims against the guarantee trust fund and determine to whom and through whom the payments are to be made.

(f) Enter into any contracts or obligations relating to the infrastructure bank fund and the guarantee trust fund.

(g) Invest and reinvest the moneys belonging to the infrastructure bank fund and the guarantee trust fund as provided by this division.

(h) Enter into any contract or agreement, execute any instrument, conduct all business and affairs, and perform all acts relating to the infrastructure bank fund and the guarantee trust fund whether or not specifically designated in this division.

63024. The executive director may contract with the Trade and Commerce Agency, the Department of Finance, the State Department of Health Services, the Department of Transportation, the Department of Water Resources, the California Integrated Waste Management Board, the State Water Resources Control Board, the Governor's Office of Planning and Research, and any other necessary persons to enable the agency to properly perform the duties imposed by this division.

63025. The bank may do any of the following:

(a) Adopt bylaws for the regulation of its affairs and the conduct of its business.

(b) Adopt an official seal.

(c) Sue and be sued in its own name.

(d) Issue bonds, including, at the option of the board, bonds bearing interest that is taxable for the purpose of federal income taxation, to pay all or any part of the cost of any project.

(e) Engage the services of private consultants to render professional and technical assistance and advice in carrying out the purposes of this division.

(f) Employ attorneys, financial consultants, and other advisers as may, in the bank's judgment, be necessary in connection with the issuance and sale of any bonds, notwithstanding Sections 11042 and 11043.

(g) Contract for engineering, architectural, accounting, or other services of appropriate state agencies as may, in its judgment, be necessary for the successful development of a project.

(h) Pay the reasonable costs of consulting engineers, architects, accountants, and construction, land use, recreation, and environmental experts employed by any sponsor or participating party if, in the bank's judgment, those services are necessary for the successful development of a project.

(i) On behalf of the state, take title to, and sell by installment sale or otherwise, lands, structures, real or personal property, rights, rights-of-way, franchises, easements, and other interests in lands that are located within the state as the bank may deem necessary or convenient for the financing of the project, upon terms and conditions that it considers to be reasonable.

(j) Receive and accept from any source including, but not limited to, the federal government, the state, or any agency thereof, loans, contributions, or grants, in money, property, labor, or other things of value, for, or in aid of, a project, or any portion thereof.

(k) Make secured loans to any sponsor or participating party in connection with the financing of a project in accordance with an agreement between the bank and the sponsor or a participating party. However, no loan shall exceed the total cost of the project as determined by the sponsor or the participating party and approved by the bank.

(l) Make secured loans to any sponsor or participating party in accordance with an agreement between the bank and the sponsor or participating party to refinance indebtedness incurred by the sponsor or participating party in connection with projects undertaken and completed prior to any agreement with the bank or expectation that the bank would provide financing.

(m) Mortgage all or any portion of the bank's interest in a project and the property on which any project is located, whether owned or thereafter acquired, including the granting of a security interest in any property, tangible or intangible.

(n) Assign or pledge all or any portion of the bank's interests in assets, things of value, mortgages, deeds of trust, bonds, bond purchase agreements, loan agreements, indentures of mortgage or trust, or similar instruments, notes, and security interests in property, tangible or intangible and the revenues therefrom, of a sponsor or a participating party to which the bank has made loans, and the revenues therefrom, including payment or income from any interest owned or held by the bank, for the benefit of the holders of bonds.

(o) Make or provide for the making of grants, contributions, guarantees, insurance, credit enhancements or liquidity facilities, or other financial enhancements to a sponsor or a participating party as financial assistance for a project.

(p) Lease the project being financed to a sponsor or a participating party, upon terms and conditions that the bank deems proper; charge and collect rents therefor; terminate any lease upon the failure of the lessee to comply with any of the obligations thereof; include in any lease, if desired, provisions that the lessee shall have options to renew the lease for a period or periods, and at rents determined by the bank; purchase any or all of the project; or, upon payment of all the indebtedness incurred by the bank for the financing of the project, the bank may convey any or all of the project to the lessee or lessees.

(q) Charge and equitably apportion among sponsors and participating parties the bank's administrative costs and expenses incurred in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred by this division.

(r) Issue, obtain, or aid in obtaining, from any department or agency of the United States, from other agencies of the state, or from any private company, any insurance or guarantee to, or for, the payment or repayment of interest or principal, or both, or any part thereof, on any loan, lease, or obligation or any instrument evidencing or securing the same, made or entered into pursuant to this division.

(s) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, enter into any agreement, contract, or any other instrument with respect to any insurance or guarantee; accept payment in the manner and form as provided therein in the event of default by a sponsor or a participating party; and issue or assign any insurance or guarantee as security for the bank's bonds.

(t) Enter into any agreement or contract, or execute any instrument.

(u) Combine and pledge revenues to the repayment of one or more series of bonds issued pursuant to this division.

(v) Enter into any agreement or contract, execute any instrument, and perform any act or thing necessary or convenient to, directly or indirectly, secure the bank's bonds or a sponsor's obligations to the bank (including, but not limited to, bonds of a sponsor purchased by the bank), with funds or moneys that are legally available and that are due or payable to the sponsor by reason of any grant, allocation, or appropriation of the state or agencies thereof, to the extent that the Controller shall be the custodian at any time of these funds or moneys; and in the event of written notice that the sponsor has not paid or is in default on its obligations to the bank, direct the Controller to withhold payment of those funds or moneys from the sponsor and to pay the same to the bank or an assignee of the bank, until the default has been cured and the amounts then due and unpaid have been paid to the bank or its assignee, or until arrangements satisfactory to the bank have been made to cure the default.

(w) Enter into any agreement or contract, execute any instrument, and perform any act or thing necessary, convenient, or appropriate to carry out any power expressly given to the bank by this division, including, but not limited to, agreements for the sale of all or any part (including principal, interest, redemption rights or any other rights or obligations) of bonds of the bank, liquidity agreements, contracts commonly known as interest rate swap agreements, forward payment conversion agreements, futures or contracts providing for payments based on levels of, or changes in, interest rates or currency exchange rates, or contracts to exchange cash flows or a series of payments, or contracts, including options, puts or calls to hedge payments, rate, spread, currency exchange, or similar exposure.

(x) Purchase, with the proceeds of the bank's bonds, bonds issued by any sponsor in connection with a project, pursuant to a bond purchase agreement or otherwise. Bonds purchased pursuant to this part may be held by the bank, pledged or assigned by the bank, or sold to public or private purchasers at public or negotiated sale, in whole or in part, separately or together with other bonds issued by the bank, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, may be bought by the bank at private sale.

(y) Enter into purchase and sale agreements with all entities, public and private, including state and local government pension funds, with respect to the sale or purchase of bonds.

(z) Invest any moneys held in reserve or sinking funds, or any moneys not required for immediate use or disbursement, in obligations that are authorized by law for the investment of trust funds in the custody of the Treasurer.

(aa) At the request of affected sponsors or participating parties, combine and pledge project revenues to repayment of one or more series of revenue bonds issued pursuant to this division.

(ab) Request the Pooled Money Investment Board for a loan from the Pooled Money Investment Account, in accordance with Section 16312, and execute those documents required by the Pooled Money Investment Board to obtain and repay the loan. The loan shall be deposited in the fund for the purpose of carrying out this chapter.

63026. (a) The fiscal powers granted to the bank by this part may be exercised without regard or reference to any other department, division, or agency of the state.

(b) No provision of this part shall be construed as a restriction or limitation upon any powers that the bank might otherwise have under any laws of this state, and this division is cumulative with respect to these powers. This division shall be deemed to provide a complete, additional, and alternative method for doing the things authorized by this division, and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws.

Article 2. General Provisions

63030. Bonds issued by the bank are legal investments for all trust funds, the funds of all insurance companies, banks, both commercial and savings, trust companies, executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries, for state school funds, pension funds, and for any funds that may be invested in county, school, or municipal bonds. These bonds are securities that may legally be deposited with, and received by, any state or municipal officer or agency or political subdivision of the state for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or obligations of the state is now, or may hereafter be, authorized by law, including, deposits to secure public funds.

63031. No liability shall be incurred by the bank beyond the extent to which funds have been provided under this division, except that, for the purposes of meeting the necessary expenses of initial organization and operation until the date that the bank derives revenues or proceeds from bonds as provided under this division, the bank may borrow money as needed for these expenses from the General Fund in the State Treasury. The borrowed money shall be repaid with interest within a reasonable time after the bank receives revenues or proceeds from bonds as provided under this division.

63032. (a) The bank is not required to pay any property taxes or assessments upon, or with respect to, any project or any property acquired by, or for, the bank under this division, or upon the income therefrom, so long as the bank, on behalf of the state, holds title to the project or to the property contained in the project.

(b) The exemption of the bank from taxation of any property shall cease when title to the property is transferred from the bank to any taxable person or entity. This section does not exempt any taxable person or entity from taxation, including, but not limited to, taxation upon a possessory interest, with respect to any project, or the property of facilities contained in any project that may otherwise be applicable to the person.

63033. The state does hereby pledge to, and agrees with, the holders of any bonds issued under this division, and with those parties who may enter into contracts with the bank pursuant to this division, that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the bank to finance any project and to fulfill the terms of any loan agreement, lease, or other contract with the agency pursuant to this division, or in any way impair the rights or remedies of the bondholders or of the parties until those bonds, together with interest thereon, are fully discharged or provision for this discharge has been made and those contracts are fully performed on the part of the bank. The bank, as agent for the state, may include this pledge and undertaking for the state in its obligations or contracts.

63034. The bank shall establish a reasonable schedule of administrative fees, which shall be paid by the sponsor or the participating party pursuant to Section 63074, to reimburse the state for the costs of administering this division.

63035. The bank shall, not later than November 1 of each year, submit to the Governor, the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, and the Legislature a report of its activities pursuant to this division for the preceding fiscal year. The report shall include all of the following:

(1) A listing of applications accepted, including a description of the expected employment impact of each project.

(2) A specification of bonds sold and interest rates thereon.

(3) The amount of other public and private funds leveraged by the assistance provided.

(4) A report of revenues and expenditures for the preceding fiscal year.

(5) A projection of the bank's needs and requirements for the coming year.

(6) Recommendations for changes in state and federal law necessary to meet the objectives of this division.

63036. It is the intent of the Legislature that the activities of the bank be fully coordinated with any future legislative plan involving growth management strategies designed to protect California's land resource, and ensure its preservation and use it in ways which are economically and socially desirable. Further, all public works financed pursuant to this division shall comply with Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1720) of Part 7 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

Article 3. Criteria for Selection of Projects

63040. Upon the advice of the executive director and, after consultation with the Director of the Governor's Office of Planning and Research and local government, the bank shall establish criteria, priorities, and guidelines for the selection of projects to receive financial assistance from the bank. These criteria, priorities, and guidelines shall be consistent with Section 63041.

63041. The criteria, priorities, and guidelines shall require at least the following:

(a) The project shall be consistent with the goals and policies contained in the State Environmental Goals and Policies Report, or its successor, approved pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 65041) of Chapter 1.5 of Division 1 of Title 7. After January 1, 1996, a finding of consistency under this subdivision is only required if the report is current and has been updated and approved by the Governor pursuant to the statutory timeframes included in Section 65030.

(b) If the sponsor of the project is a state agency or department, the project shall be consistent with the Capital and Infrastructure Project Planning Report prepared by the Director of Finance pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 13100) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Title 2.

(c) If the sponsor of the project is a city, county, city and county, special district, joint powers agency, or any other political subdivision of the state, the project shall be consistent with the general plan of the city or county in which the project is located. The project shall also be consistent with the capital improvement program adopted by the city or county. The capital improvement program of that city or county shall be substantially equivalent to the program described in Section 65403.

(d) The project shall facilitate effective and efficient use of existing and future public resources so as to promote both economic development and conservation of natural resources.

(e) The project shall develop and enhance public infrastructure in a manner that will attract, create, and sustain long-term employment opportunities.

(f) Higher priority shall be assigned to those projects that provide the greatest impact in generating long-term employment opportunities.

63042. (a) Prior to submitting a project to the bank for consideration, the legislative body or bodies of the sponsor or sponsors of the project shall find, by resolution passed at a regularly scheduled public hearing, and based on substantial evidence in the record, both of the following:

(1) The legislative body has considered the goals and policies contained in the State Environmental Goals and Policies Report, or its successor, approved pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 65041) of Chapter 1.5 of Division 1 of Title 7.

(2) The project is consistent with the general plan of the city or county, or city and county in which the project is located and a capital improvement plan adopted pursuant to Sections 65403 or 66002.

In the case where the membership of a legislative body does not consist of a majority of elected members, the resolution shall also be approved by the appointing authority of each appointed member of that legislative body at a regularly scheduled public hearing.

(b) The legislative body shall submit the resolution to the bank and to the Office of Planning and Research at the same time the project is submitted to the bank for consideration. Upon receipt, the bank shall circulate copies of the resolution to affected state agencies.

(c) Any public agency may appeal the validity of a legislative body's findings in writing to the Office of Planning and Research, within 30 days after receipt of the resolution by the Office of Planning and Research. A copy of the appeal shall be submitted to the board.

(d) In the case of an appeal, the Director of the Office of Planning and Research shall make a recommendation in writing to the board within 45 days of receiving the appeal on the validity of the legislative body's findings. The Director of the Office of Planning and Research shall consult with the appellants and affected agencies, and may consult with any group or person when reviewing the appeal.

(1) If the Director of the Office of Planning and Research determines, based on substantial evidence in the record, that the legislative body's findings are valid, the director shall recommend denial of the appeal. If the director determines that the legislative body's findings are not valid, the director may nevertheless recommend disapproval of the appeal if the director finds, based on a preponderance of evidence in the record, that the specific economic benefits of the proposed project outweigh the lack of valid findings.

The director shall not determine that the legislative body's findings are not valid based on the presence or absence of one or more local policies or programs enacted to improve housing supply and affordability, including measures to attain state goals for the construction, rehabilitation, and preservation of sufficient housing with a range of prices and types to assure housing opportunities for all income groups and specifically to provide for the housing needs of persons of average and below-average income.

Nothing contained in this paragraph shall provide a presumption, in any administrative or judicial proceeding, of the validity of the director's determination regarding the legislative body's findings described in subdivision (a).

(2) The Office of Planning and Research shall transmit a written copy of the director's recommendation to the chief executive officer, the sponsor or sponsors of the project, the appellant, and other affected agencies within seven days of the making of the recommendation pursuant to this section.

(3) The recommendation of the director shall be deemed the determination of the board unless, within 30 days of receipt of the recommendation pursuant to paragraph (2), the board modifies or rejects the recommendation by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the voting members of the board.

CHAPTER 3. CALIFORNIA INFRASTRUCTURE BANK FUND

Article 1. General

63050. (a) There is hereby created in the State Treasury the California Infrastructure Bank Fund for the purpose of implementing the objectives and provisions of this division. Within the fund there shall also be established a Sponsor Revenue Bond Account, a Participating Party Revenue Bond Account, a Grant Account, a State Infrastructure Revolving Account, a Bond Guarantee Trust Account, and additional accounts and subaccounts that the bank may establish from time to time.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 13340 and except as provided in subdivision (c), all moneys in the infrastructure bank fund are continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal years for the support of the bank and shall be available for expenditure for the purposes stated in this division.

(c) Moneys in the infrastructure bank fund shall be available for expenditure for general administration only upon appropriation by the Legislature. This subdivision shall not limit the authority of the bank to expend funds directly related to the servicing and administration of approved debt. No more than 5 percent of state general obligation bond revenues administered by the bank pursuant to this division may be expended for administrative costs.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, not more than 15 percent of the financing annually approved by the executive director that utilizes state funds from the infrastructure bank fund may be expended upon educational facilities, environmental mitigation measures, and parks and recreational facilities.

(e) The executive director may transfer funds between the infrastructure bank fund and the guarantee trust fund when appropriate to accomplish the financing objectives of this division.

63051. The Bond Guarantee Trust Account within the infrastructure bank fund shall consist of funds approved by voters in general obligation bond acts that shall be used to guarantee bonds issued for general or specific purposes. The bank may pledge any or all of the amounts in the account authorized as a guarantee for payment of bonds issued pursuant to this chapter, including the redemption price of bonds, the payment of trustee's fees, or other similar obligations, if all of the following requirements are met:

(a) General obligation bonds have been authorized for issuance by the bond finance committee.

(b) A loan from the Pooled Money Investment Account has been authorized by the Pooled Money Investment Board in an amount equal to or less than the amount of the bond authorization and the proceeds have been deposited in the Bond Guarantee Trust Account.

(c) General obligation bonds have been issued, the proceeds of which are to be deposited in the Bond Guarantee Trust Account.

63052. (a) The bank may pledge any or all of the moneys in the fund, including the Grant Account, as security for payment of the principal of, and interest on, any particular issuance of bonds issued pursuant to this chapter. For these purposes, or as necessary or convenient to the accomplishment of any other purpose of the bank, the bank may divide the fund into separate accounts or subaccounts. All moneys accruing to the bank pursuant to this division from any sources shall be deposited in the fund.

(b) Subject to priorities that may be created by the pledge of particular moneys in the infrastructure bank fund to secure any issuance of revenue bonds of the bank or a sponsor, and subject further to reasonable costs that may be incurred by the bank in administering the program authorized by this division, all moneys in the infrastructure bank fund derived from any source, shall be held in trust for the security and payment of revenue bonds of the bank or a sponsor and shall not be used or pledged for any other purpose so long as the revenue bonds are outstanding and unpaid. However, nothing in this section shall limit the power of the bank to authorize a sponsor to issue revenue bonds payable from revenues or to make loans with the proceeds of revenue bonds in accordance with the terms of the resolution authorizing the revenue bonds.

(c) Pursuant to any agreements with the holders of revenue bonds pledging any particular assets, revenues, or moneys, the bank may create separate accounts or subaccounts in the infrastructure bank fund to manage these assets, revenues, or moneys in the manner set forth in the agreements.

(d) The bank may, from time to time, direct the Treasurer to invest moneys in the infrastructure bank fund that are not required for its current needs, including proceeds from the sale of any bonds, in any eligible securities specified in Section 16430 as the bank shall designate. The bank may direct the Treasurer to deposit moneys in interest-bearing accounts in any bank in this state or in any savings and loan association in this state. The bank may alternatively require the transfer of moneys in the infrastructure bank fund to the Surplus Money Investment Fund for investment pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 16470) of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2. Notwithstanding Section 16305.7, all interest or other increment resulting from the investment or deposit of moneys from the infrastructure bank fund shall be deposited in the infrastructure bank fund. Moneys in the infrastructure bank fund shall not be subject to transfer to any other funds pursuant to any provision of Part 2 (commencing with Section 16300) of Division 4 of Title 2, except to the Surplus Money Investment Fund.

(e) Subject to any agreement with holders of particular bonds, in furtherance of Section 51373 of the Health and Safety Code, and to the extent permitted by law, the bank may also invest moneys of the infrastructure bank fund, including, but not limited to, proceeds of any of its bonds or refunding bonds, in obligations of financial institutions as are permitted by board resolution. The bank may alternatively require the transfer of moneys in the infrastructure bank fund to the Surplus Money Investment Fund for investment pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 16470) of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2.

(f) Subject to any agreement with the holders of particular bonds, all interest or other increment resulting from the investment or deposit shall be deposited in the infrastructure bank fund, notwithstanding Section 16305.7. Moneys in the infrastructure bank fund shall not be subject to transfer to any other fund pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 16300) of Division 4 of Title 2, excepting the Surplus Money Investment Fund.

(g) All moneys in the infrastructure bank fund, in excess of current requirements and not otherwise invested, may be deposited by the bank from time to time in financial institutions authorized by law to receive deposits of public moneys.

(h) The infrastructure bank fund shall be organized as a public enterprise fund.

(i) The bank shall cause all moneys in the infrastructure bank fund that are in excess of current requirements to be invested and reinvested, from time to time.

63053. (a) The bank may administer and distribute among its accounts and subaccounts, at its discretion, the revenues from any general obligation bonds issued in accordance with the State General Obligation Bond Law (Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16720) of Part 3 of Division 4 of Title 2).

(b) The assets of the infrastructure bank fund shall be available for the payment of the salaries and other expenses charged against it in accordance with this division.

63054. All expenses incurred in carrying out the purposes of this division shall be payable solely from funds provided pursuant to this division, and no liability or obligation shall be imposed upon the state and none shall be incurred by the agency beyond the extent to which money shall have been provided pursuant to this division.

63055. (a) Moneys in the infrastructure bank fund received from the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to this division may not be transferred to any other fund except as necessary to pay the expenses of operating the program authorized by this division, nor shall the bank utilize any moneys under the direction and control of the agency, including, but not limited to, moneys in the California Housing Loan Insurance Fund and the Housing Finance Fund, other than moneys in the infrastructure bank fund to satisfy liabilities arising from projects authorized by this division.

(b) The infrastructure bank fund, on behalf of the bank, may borrow or receive moneys from the bank or from any federal, state, or local agency or private entity, in order to create reserves in the infrastructure bank fund as provided in this division and as authorized by resolution of the board.

63056. Notwithstanding Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12850) of Part 2.5 of Division 3 of Title 2 and Article 2 (commencing with Section 13320) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 3 of Title 2, expenditures of the infrastructure bank fund shall not be subject to the supervision or approval of any other officer or division of state government. However, the bank's budget respecting the infrastructure bank fund shall be prepared and reviewed in accordance with Section 50913, and, not later than November 1 of each year, the agency shall submit to the Legislature a report of its activities for the prior fiscal year.

CHAPTER 4. CALIFORNIA INFRASTRUCTURE GUARANTEE TRUST FUND

63060. (a) There is hereby created in the State Treasury the California Infrastructure Guarantee Trust Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 13340 and except as provided in subdivision (b), all money in the guarantee trust fund is hereby continuously appropriated to the bank without regard to fiscal years for the purpose of insuring all or a portion of the accounts and subaccounts within the infrastructure bank fund, any contracts or obligations of the bank or a sponsor, and all or a part of any series of bonds issued by the bank or by a sponsor pursuant to this division, and for the purpose of defraying administrative expenses incurred by the bank in operating the programs of loan and bond guarantee. All insurance premiums received by the bank for insurance, guarantees, or enhancements provided pursuant to this division shall be deposited in the guarantee trust fund. The guarantee trust fund is authorized to guarantee all or a part of any of the accounts and subaccounts within the infrastructure bank fund, any contracts or obligations of the agency or a sponsor, and all or part of any series of bonds issued by the agency or by a sponsor and to authorize payment on any guarantee or enhancement of the guarantee trust fund.

(b) Moneys in the infrastructure bank fund shall be available for expenditure for general administration only upon appropriation by the Legislature. This subdivision shall not limit the authority of the bank to expend funds directly related to the servicing and administration of approved debt.

63061. Notwithstanding Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12850) of Part 2.5 of Division 3 of Title 2 and Article 2 (commencing with Section 13320) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 3 of Title 2, expenditure of the guarantee trust fund shall not be subject to the supervision or approval of any other officer or division of state government. However, the bank's budget respecting the guarantee trust fund shall be prepared and reviewed not later than November 1 of each year and the bank shall submit to the Legislature a report of its activities for the prior fiscal year.

63062. (a) The bank may, from time to time, direct the Treasurer to invest moneys in the guarantee trust fund that are not required for its current needs in any eligible securities specified in Section 16430 that the bank shall designate. The bank may direct the Treasurer to invest the moneys by entering into repurchase agreements or reverse repurchase agreements, which, for purposes of this section, shall mean agreements for the purchase or sale of eligible securities pursuant to which the seller or buyer agrees to repurchase or sell back the securities on or before a specified date and for a specified amount. The bank may direct the Treasurer to invest the moneys in investment agreements with corporations, financial institutions, or national associations within the United States that are rated by a nationally recognized rating service within the top three rating categories of the service. For purposes of this section, investment agreements shall mean any agreement for the investment of moneys in the guarantee trust fund whether at fixed or variable interest rates, and may include, but not be limited to, repurchase agreements, notes, uncollateralized time deposits, and certificates of deposit. The bank may direct the Treasurer to deposit moneys in interest-bearing accounts in state or national banks or other financial institutions having principal offices in this state.

(b) In furtherance of Section 51373 of the Health and Safety Code, and to the extent permitted by law, the bank may also invest moneys of the guarantee trust fund in obligations of financial institutions that are permitted by board resolution. The bank may alternatively require the transfer of moneys in the guarantee trust fund to the Surplus Money Investment Fund for investment pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 16470) of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2.

(c) All interest or other increment resulting from the investment or deposit shall be deposited in the guarantee trust fund, notwithstanding Section 16305.7.

(d) The bank may create other accounts within the guarantee trust fund as are necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of this article.

63063. (a) There is a guarantee reserve account in the guarantee trust fund to secure commitments under contracts to guarantee all or part of the bonds of the bank or of a sponsor, any contracts or obligations of the bank or of a sponsor, and all or part of the accounts or subaccounts within the infrastructure bank fund. The bank shall take all reasonable steps to assure that the guarantee reserve account is continuously maintained at not less than the reserve account requirement established pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 53540. The bank shall pay all of the following into the guarantee reserve account:

(1) Moneys appropriated and made available by the Legislature for deposit in the account.

(2) Any proceeds of bonds, including general obligation bonds, to the extent provided in the resolution, trust agreement, resolutions or trust agreements authorizing the issue thereof.

(3) Any other moneys which the bank may make available for the purpose of deposit to the guarantee reserve account.

(b) The bank shall not cause sums to be withdrawn from the guarantee reserve account in amounts which would reduce the moneys therein to less than the reserve account requirement, except as necessary to satisfy liabilities arising under contracts of guarantee. In the event that the loan guarantee reserve account is reduced to less than the reserve account requirement, the bank shall cease making commitments for, and contracts of, guarantees and enhancements until the guarantee reserve account has been restored to that requirement.

63064. (a) The Legislature may from time to time appropriate or transfer to the guarantee reserve account from funds or accounts that are legally available, an amount or amounts as the Legislature may determine. The Legislature may establish, and from time to time increase, for the guarantee reserve account a requirement that shall be known as the "reserve account requirement."

(b) If the bank determines that the amount in the reserve account is below the reserve account requirement, the executive director shall immediately certify in writing to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, the Speaker of the Assembly, the Senate Committee on Rules, and the Governor, the sum required to restore the reserve fund to the reserve account requirement.

(c) Upon making the certification, the chief executive officer shall ask the Governor to request an appropriation, and shall use his or her best efforts to have a sum requested and appropriated.

(d) Upon receiving notice that the amount in the reserve account is below the reserve account requirement, the Legislature may, at its discretion, choose to appropriate and pay to the bank for deposit into the guarantee reserve account that sum that would restore the reserve account to an amount equal to the reserve account requirement.

(e) The bank may utilize any moneys that may be appropriated to the guarantee trust fund from time to time by the Legislature for effectuating its purposes, including, but not limited to, the payment of the initial expenses of administration and operation and the restoration of the reserve account to the reserve account requirement.

63065. (a) The obligation of the bank and of the state to pay any guarantee benefit pursuant to contracts of guarantee or any other contracts or obligations of the bank or sponsor shall be a limited obligation of the bank payable solely from amounts deposited in the guarantee trust fund that are made available therefor under the respective contracts of guarantee. The guarantee of loans or bonds under this division shall not directly or indirectly or contingently obligate the state or any political subdivision thereof to levy or to pledge any form of taxation whatever therefor, or to make any appropriation for their payment.

(b) All contracts of guarantee or any other contracts or obligations of the bank or a sponsor pursuant to this division shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the following effect: "Neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State of California is pledged to the payment of the principal of or interest on this contract of guarantee.”

(c) Moneys in the guarantee trust fund may not be transferred to any other fund except for payment on any guarantee or enhancements or except as necessary to pay the expenses of operating the program of bond guarantee and enhancement authorized by this division, nor shall the bank utilize any moneys under the direction and control of the agency, including, but not limited to, moneys in the California Housing Loan Insurance Fund and the California Housing Finance Fund, other than moneys in the guarantee trust fund, to satisfy liabilities arising from contracts of guarantee authorized by this division.

63066. The bank may charge and collect insurance guarantee or enhancement premiums for the insurance guarantees or enhancements described in this chapter and make other reasonable charges for services performed in connection with approval and processing of the guarantees or enhancements.

63067. (a) Moneys in the infrastructure bank fund received from the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to this division may not be transferred to any other fund except as necessary to pay the expenses of operating the program authorized by this division, nor shall the bank utilize any moneys under the direction and control of the agency, including, but not limited to, moneys in the California Housing Loan Insurance Fund and the Housing Finance Fund, other than moneys in the infrastructure bank fund to satisfy liabilities arising from projects authorized by this division.

(b) The infrastructure bank fund, on behalf of the bank, may borrow or receive moneys from any federal, state, or local agency or private entity, in order to create reserves in the infrastructure bank fund as provided in this division and as authorized by resolution of the board.

CHAPTER 5. BONDS

63070. (a) The bank may, from time to time, issue its bonds in a principal amount that the bank shall determine to be necessary to provide sufficient funds for its purposes, which may include, but shall not be limited to, providing funds for the payment of costs of a project, for the purchase of bonds of a sponsor, payment of interest on bonds of the bank, establishment of reserves to secure bonds, refunding previously issued bonds or refunding bonds of the bank or a sponsor, and payment of other expenditures of the bank incident to issuance of bonds or refunding bonds of the bank.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bonds of any sponsor may be purchased by the bank by private sale pursuant to a bond purchase agreement, and may be issued pursuant to this title or any other provision of applicable law, and may be secured with any funds, moneys, or revenues that are legally available, including but not limited to any legally available funds or moneys that are due or payable to the sponsor by reason of any grant, allocation, or appropriation of the state or agencies thereof, to the extent that the Controller shall be the custodian at any time of these funds or moneys.

(c) The bank may also issue bonds for the purpose of making loans to a sponsor to be used by a sponsor to pay for the cost of a project, and that loan may be secured with any funds, moneys, or revenues that are legally available, including, but not limited to, any legally available funds or moneys that are due or payable to the sponsor by reason of any grant, allocation, or appropriation of the state or agencies thereof, to the extent that the Controller shall be the custodian at any time of these funds or moneys.

63071. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a sponsor may issue bonds for purchase by the bank pursuant to a bond purchase agreement. The bank may issue bonds. These bonds may be issued pursuant to the charter of any city or any city and county that authorized the issuance of these bonds as a sponsor and may also be issued by any sponsor pursuant to the Revenue Bond Law of 1941 (Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Division 2 of Title 5) to pay the costs and expenses pursuant to this title, subject to the following conditions:

(1) With the prior approval of the bank, the sponsor may sell these bonds in any manner as it may determine, either by private sale, or by means of competitive bid.

(2) Notwithstanding Section 54418, the bonds may be sold at a discount at any rate as the bank and sponsor shall determine.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 54402, the bonds shall bear interest at any rate and be payable at any time, as the sponsor shall determine with the consent of the bank.

(b) The total amount of bonds that may be outstanding at any one time under this chapter shall not exceed five billion dollars ($5,000,000,000).

(c) Bonds for which moneys or securities have been deposited in trust, in amounts necessary to pay or redeem the principal, interest, and any redemption premium thereon, shall be deemed not to be outstanding for purposes of this section.

63072. (a) The bank may give final approval for the issuance of the bonds upon terms it deems necessary or desirable.

(b) The executive director may establish the terms and conditions for the issuance of the bonds and take any other action necessary or desirable for the issuance of the bonds authorized by the bank.

(c) Any action under this section shall be at the discretion of the bank.

63073. The Treasurer is the elected representative of the state to approve the issuance of bonds issued by the bank or a sponsor pursuant to this chapter, to the extent this approval is required by federal tax law.

63074. (a) The bank is authorized from time to time to issue its bonds to provide funds to achieve its purposes.

(b) Bonds may be authorized to finance a single project for a single sponsor or a participating party, a series of projects for a single sponsor or a participating party, a single project for several sponsors or participating parties, or several projects for several sponsors or participating parties.

(c) Except as otherwise expressly provided by the bank, every issue of its bonds shall be payable from any revenues or other moneys of the bank available therefor and not otherwise pledged. These revenues or moneys may include the proceeds of additional bonds, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular revenues or moneys. Notwithstanding that the bonds may be payable from a special fund, these bonds shall be deemed to be negotiable instruments for all purposes.

(d) Subject to the limitations in Section 63071, bonds may be issued in one or more series, may be issued as serial bonds or as term bonds or as a combination thereof. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the bank and shall, as provided by the resolution, bear the date of issuance, the time of maturity, which shall not exceed 50 years from the date of issuance, bear the rate or rates of interest, be payable at the time or times provided, be in the denominations provided, be in the form or forms provided, carry the registration privileges provided, be executed in the manner provided, be payable in lawful money of the United States, or other designated currency, at the place or places provided, and be subject to any terms of redemption provided therein.

(e) Sale of the bonds of the bank shall be coordinated by the Treasurer. To obtain a date for the sale of bonds, the bank shall inform the Treasurer of the amount of the proposed issue. Upon that notification, the Treasurer shall provide three 10-day periods, within the 90 days next following, when the bonds can be sold. The bank may choose any date during the suggested periods or any other date to which the bank and the Treasurer have mutually agreed. The Treasurer shall sell the bonds on the date chosen according to terms approved by the bank.

(f) The sale may be a public or private sale, and for any price or prices, and on any terms and conditions, as the bank determines proper, after giving due consideration to the recommendations of any sponsor to be assisted from the proceeds of the bonds. Pending preparation of definitive bonds, the Treasurer may issue interim receipts, certificates, or temporary bonds that shall be exchanged for definitive bonds.

63075. Any resolution authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds of the bank or an authorized sponsor may contain the following provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds to be authorized:

(a) Provisions pledging the full faith and credit of the bank or the sponsor, or pledging all or any part of the revenues of any project, or any revenue-producing contract or contracts made by the bank with any sponsor, or any other moneys of the bank, to secure the payment of the bonds or of any particular issue of bonds, subject to those agreements with bondholders as may then exist.

(b) Provisions setting out the rentals, fees, purchase payments, loan repayments, and other charges, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues.

(c) Provisions setting aside reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof.

(d) Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured, and the refunding of outstanding bonds.

(e) The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds and the holders thereof that are required to give consent thereto, and the manner in which the consent may be given.

(f) Limitations on the bank's expenditures for operation and administration, or other expenses.

(g) Definitions of acts or omissions to act that constitute a default in the duties of the bank to holders of its obligations, and providing the rights and remedies of the holders in the event of a default.

(h) The mortgaging of any project and the site thereof for the purpose of securing the interests of the bondholders.

(i) The mortgaging of land, improvements, or other assets owned by a sponsor or participating party for the purpose of securing the interests of the bondholders.

63076. Neither the members of the agency nor any person executing the bonds shall be personally liable for the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

63077. The bank or any sponsor or participating party may, out of any funds available therefor, purchase their respective bonds. The bank may hold, pledge, cancel, or resell the bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

63078. In the discretion of the bank or the sponsor as the case may be, any bonds issued under this chapter may be secured by a trust agreement between the bank or the sponsor and a corporate trustee or trustees, that may include the Treasurer or any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the state.

(a) The trust agreement or the resolution providing for the issuance of the bonds may pledge or assign any funds or assets of the bank legally available for pledge or assignment, all or a portion of the revenues to be received by the bank, directly or indirectly, with respect to the project, or the proceeds of any contract or contracts, loan or loan agreements, bond or bond purchase agreements, and may convey or mortgage the project or projects, or any portion thereof, to be financed out of the proceeds of the bonds. The trust agreement or resolution providing for the issuance of the bonds may contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including provisions specifically authorized to be included in any resolution or resolutions of the agency or a sponsor authorizing bonds.

(b) Any bank or trust company doing business under the laws of the state that may act as a depository of the proceeds of bonds or of revenues or other moneys shall furnish indemnifying bonds or pledge securities when required by the bank or a sponsor.

(c) The trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee or trustees, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders. In addition, any trust agreement or resolution may contain other provisions that the bank may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders.

(d) The trust agreement may provide for the pledge or assignment of funds or moneys in the custody of the Controller that are legally available to a sponsor and that are due or payable to the sponsor by reason of any grant, allocation, or appropriation of the state or agencies thereof.

63079. (a) Bonds issued under this chapter do not constitute a debt or liability of the state or of any political subdivision thereof, other than the bank or the sponsor, and do not constitute a pledge of the full faith and credit of the state or any of its political subdivisions, other than the bank or a sponsor, but are payable solely from the funds provided therefor under this chapter. This subdivision shall in no way preclude bond guarantees or enhancements pursuant to this title. All the bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the following effect:

“Neither the full faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State of California is pledged to the payment of the principal of, or interest on, this bond.”

(b) The issuance of bonds under this chapter shall not directly or indirectly or contingently obligate the state or any political subdivision or any sponsor thereof to levy or to pledge any form of taxation therefor or to make any appropriation for their payment. Nothing in this section shall prevent, or be construed to prevent, the bank from pledging the full faith and credit of the infrastructure bank fund to the payment of bonds or issue of bonds authorized pursuant to this chapter.

63080. The validity of any bonds issued under this chapter shall not be affected by any proceedings related to the authorization or implementation of the project financed by the bonds.

63081. (a) The bank may issue bonds for the purpose of refunding any bonds, notes, or other securities of the bank or a sponsor then outstanding, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued, or to accrue, on their earliest or any subsequent date of redemption, purchase, or maturity of these bonds. The bank, or a sponsor, if it deems advisable, may issue or authorize a sponsor to issue bonds for the additional purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of constructing and acquiring additions, improvements, extensions, or enlargements of any project or any portion thereof.

(b) The proceeds of any bonds issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds as provided in subdivision (a) may, in the discretion of the bank, be applied to the purchase or retirement at maturity or redemption of those outstanding bonds either on their earliest or any subsequent redemption date or upon the purchase or retirement at the maturity thereof and may, pending this application, be placed in escrow to be applied to the purchase or retirement at maturity or redemption of those outstanding bonds on the date or dates as may be determined by the agency.

(c) Pending this use, the escrowed proceeds may be invested and reinvested by the Treasurer or a trustee in obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States, or in certificates of deposit or time deposits secured by obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States, maturing at the time or times appropriate to assure prompt payment, of the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of the outstanding bonds to be refunded. The interest, income, and profits, if any, earned or realized on the investment may also be applied to the payment of the outstanding bonds to be refunded. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied and carried out, any balance of the proceeds and interest, income, and profits, if any, earned or realized on the investments thereof, shall be returned to the agency for use in carrying out the purposes of this division.

(d) The portion of the proceeds of the bonds issued for the additional purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of construction and acquiring additions, improvements, extensions, or enlargements of any project may be invested and reinvested by the Treasurer or a trustee in obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States, or in certificates of deposit or time deposits secured by obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States, maturing not later than the time or times when these proceeds will be needed for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost. The interest, income, and profits, if any, earned or realized on this investment may be applied to the payment of all, or any part of, the cost or may be used by the bank in carrying out the purposes of this division.

63082. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this act shall be supplemental to, and not in lieu of, the right of any sponsor to issue general obligation bonds or bonds that it is otherwise lawfully authorized to issue or cause to be issued.

63083. Any and all bonds issued by the bank, their transfer and the income therefrom, shall at all times be free from taxation of every kind by the state and by all political subdivisions of the state.

SEC. 3. Section 50054 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50054. "Agency" means the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency. Any reference in this division or any other provision of law to the California Housing Finance Agency shall be deemed to mean the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency.

SEC. 4. Section 50150 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50150. This chapter sets forth the general responsibilities and roles of the Business, Transportation, and Housing Agency, the Department of Housing and Community Development, and the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency in carrying out state housing policies and programs. It is declaratory of existing law as to those roles and responsibilities, and shall not be construed as creating additional responsibilities.

SEC. 5. Section 50154 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50154. The California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency, within the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, is, among its other roles, a primary agency in the implementation of state housing policy. The agency's role in this respect is to make financing opportunities available for the construction, rehabilitation, and purchase of housing for persons and families of low or moderate income by (a) borrowing in the securities markets and relending to housing sponsors, developers, and homeowners and (b) insuring loans made by the agency or by others for the same purposes. In general, the agency pays for its operations out of the excess of its interest revenue from loan repayments over the cost of the money it borrows or, in the case of insurance, by the excess of fees charged for the provision of insurance over the value of claims paid. The agency shall seek to implement the goals, policies, and objectives of the California Statewide Housing Plan and shall annually report on its progress toward compliance with priorities in the California Statewide Housing Plan.

SEC. 6. Section 50176 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50176. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Allocation" means the maximum aggregate principal amount of qualified mortgage bonds that a state or local agency is allocated to issue in any calendar year as provided in Sections 50189, 50190, and 50191.

(b) "Certificate credit rate" means the rate of the credit allowed by this chapter which is specified in the mortgage credit certificate.

(c) "Certified indebtedness amount" means the amount of indebtedness which meets both of the following criteria:

(1) Is incurred by the taxpayer for any of the following purposes:

(A) To acquire the principal residence of the taxpayer.

(B) As a qualified home improvement loan, as defined by Section 103A(l)(6) of Title 26 of the United States Code, on that residence.

(C) As a qualified rehabilitation loan, as defined by Section 103A(l)(7) of Title 26 of the United States Code.

(2) Is specified in the mortgage credit certificate.

(d) "Committee" means the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee established pursuant to Section 50185.

(e) "Entitlement allocation" means the allocation of qualified mortgage bonds to a state agency pursuant to Section 50190, and with respect to a local agency, the allocation of qualified mortgage bonds pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 50189.

(f) "Federal act" means both of the following:

(1) For purposes of qualified mortgage bonds, Section 103A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as enacted by the Mortgage Subsidy Bond Tax Act of 1980 or as hereafter amended, and includes administrative regulations adopted pursuant to that act.

(2) For purposes of mortgage credit certificates, Section 612 of the Tax Reform Act of 1984 (Public Law 98-369).

(g) Except as otherwise provided in Section 50197, "issuer" means a state agency or local agency and includes a redevelopment agency, housing authority or other local entity, authorized by state law to issue bonds, to which a local agency has assigned an allocation under this chapter.

(h) "Local agency" means a city, county, or city and county.

(i) "Median household income" means "median household income," as defined by subdivision (f) of Section 52020.

(j) "Mortgage credit certificate" means any certificate which does all of the following:

(1) Is issued under a qualified mortgage credit certificate program by a state or local agency that has authority to issue qualified mortgage bonds to provide financing on the principal residence of a taxpayer.

(2) Is issued to a taxpayer by a state or local agency in connection with the acquisition, qualified rehabilitation, or qualified home improvement of the taxpayer's principal residence.

(3) Specifies the certificate credit rate and the certified indebtedness amount.

(k) "Mortgage credit certificate program" means any program which is established by the state or a local agency for any calendar year in which the state or a local agency is authorized to issue qualified mortgage bonds and under which the issuing agency elects not to issue an amount of qualified mortgage bonds which it may otherwise issue during the calendar year.

(l) "Qualified mortgage bonds" has the same meaning as that specified in the federal act, as defined by paragraph (1) of subdivision (f).

(m) "State agency" means the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency, the Veterans Affairs Department, the University of California Board of Regents, or any other state agency having the authority to issue qualified mortgage revenue bonds.

(n) "State ceiling" has the same meaning as that specified in the federal act, as defined by paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) and as established in accordance with that federal act by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee as provided in Section 50187.

(o) "Supplementary allocation" means the allocation of qualified mortgage bonds to a local agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 50189.

(p) "Territory" means for any city or city and county, the area within the boundaries of the city or city and county, and for any county, the area within the boundaries of the county not within the boundaries of any city.

SEC. 7. Section 50185 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50185. The Mortgage Bond Allocation Committee is hereby renamed the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee. The committee is composed of the Governor, or in the Governor's absence, the Director of Finance, the Controller, and the Treasurer. The Director of Housing and Community Development, the Executive Director of the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency, and two representatives of local government, one representative of the counties appointed by the Senate Rules Committee, and one representative of the cities appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly shall serve as ex officio, nonvoting members. The Treasurer shall be the chairperson of the committee. The members of the committee shall serve without compensation. A majority of voting members shall be empowered to act for the committee. The committee may employ an executive director to carry out its duties under this chapter. The committee may delegate to the executive director the authority to enter contracts on behalf of the committee.

SEC. 8. Section 50187 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50187. (a) The committee shall annually determine the state ceiling, on or before February 15 of each calendar year, in accordance with the federal act. Subject to Section 103A(g)(4) of the federal act and any regulations of the United States Department of the Treasury adopted thereunder, the committee shall include within its calculations all types of mortgages on single-family owner-occupied residences within the state, including, to the greatest extent practicable, first liens and subordinate liens, installment sales contracts, other seller financings, and refinancings, but not including mechanic's liens, tax liens, special assessment liens, or similar encumbrances, and shall utilize in its calculations, to the extent practicable and with appropriate adjustments, appropriate statistics compiled by the Federal Housing Administration, Veterans Administration, Farmers Home Administration, Federal Home Loan Bank Board, Comptroller of the Currency, California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency, Department of Veterans Affairs, Military Department, Department of Savings and Loan, Department of Corporations, lending institutions, associations of lending institutions, and surveys designed to determine mortgage activity of types (such as owner-financing) not reflected in the above statistics. Any such calculations shall include mortgages on manufactured housing, as defined in Section 18007.5, financed as real property.

(b) From January 1 to February 15, inclusive, or after February 15, if sufficient data on mortgages executed in the prior year is not available by February 15, the committee shall process applications on the basis of a provisional state ceiling, which shall be an amount which in the committee's judgment will assure that the state ceiling will not be exceeded during that calendar year. The provisional state ceiling shall remain in effect only until sufficient information is available to establish the state ceiling pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 9. Section 50190 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50190. (a) One-third of the state ceiling shall be reserved for qualified mortgage bonds or mortgage credit certificates of state agencies and shall be allocated as follows: 3 percent shall be allocated for programs under the California National Guard Members Revenue Bond Act of 1978, (Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 480) of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Military and Veterans Code), 6 percent shall be allocated to the Regents of the University of California faculty housing assistance program, 19 percent shall be allocated for programs under the Veterans Farm and Home Purchase Act of 1974 (Article 3.1 (commencing with Section 987.50) of Chapter 6 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code), and 72 percent shall be allocated to the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency, for programs conducted pursuant to Part 3 (commencing with Section 50900) and Part 6 (commencing with Section 52500) of this division.

(b) Each state agency shall submit to the committee by March 1 of each calendar year, a plan for utilizing its allocation. The plan shall specify the approximate date or dates on which the agency will issue bonds or establish a mortgage credit certificate program and the approximate amount of each bond issuance or the amount of mortgage credit certificates to be issued. On June 1 and September 1 each agency shall submit a report to the committee on its progress in utilizing its allocation. After June 1 of each year, the committee may reallocate such portion of a state agency's allocation as the committee finds the agency will be unable to utilize during the calendar year first to another state agency, and if the committee determines there is no other state agency able to use this allocation, then to local agencies in the manner provided in subdivision (b) of Section 50189.

(c) If in any year a state agency conducting a program or programs specified in this section determines it will be unable to utilize the full amount of the authority specified, it shall promptly notify the committee, which shall provide for reallocation to one or more of the state agencies for other programs specified in this section. If there is no other state agency able to use this allocation, then it shall be allocated to local agencies in the manner provided in subdivision (b) of Section 50189.

(d) The committee may reduce the amount of the allocation specified in subdivision (a) for any state agency which did not use all or a substantial portion of its previous year's allocation, and may reallocate such sums as provided in subdivision (b).

(e) A state agency which establishes a mortgage credit certificate program may charge a fee which is reasonably sufficient to cover the costs of administering the program.

SEC. 10. Section 50193 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50193. A local agency may assign all or any portion of its allocation of qualified mortgage bonds under this chapter to its redevelopment agency, its housing authority, or a joint powers agency created by an agreement to which it is a party or to the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 52060) of Part 5, permitting the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency to issue qualified mortgage bonds on behalf of the local agency or agencies.

A local agency that assigns a portion of its allocation to its redevelopment agency or housing authority shall have the portion assigned and the portion remaining treated as separate allocations for the purposes of expiration and use, including, but not limited to, deposits and extensions pursuant to Section 50191.

An allocation may not be assigned to a joint powers agency for a particular issue for use in the territory of a local agency that is not also assigning an allocation to the joint powers agency for the same issue. However, an allocation may be assigned to a joint powers agency by a local agency if the committee was notified prior to the granting that the allocation would be assigned. The notification shall include the amount that each local agency will receive of entitlement and supplementary allocation.

An allocation may be assigned to a joint powers agency that is created among local agencies that have already been granted an allocation. The joint powers agency shall notify the committee of the formation of the agency and of the members of the joint powers agency, within 15 days of the formation of the agency.

No local agency may assign to a joint powers agency any portion of its entitlement allocation unless such portion will be utilized to provide financing for properties located within the territory of the assigning local agency (including a proportionate share of costs of issuance, underwriters discount, capitalized interest, reserve funds and similar expenses associated with the financing), provided that such assignment shall not be deemed ineffective if, after issuance of the qualified mortgage bonds and for reasons beyond the control of the issuer, the issuer is unable to use any portion of the proceeds of such qualified mortgage bonds to provide financing for properties located within the territory of the assigning local agency, as required by such assigned allocation, and such proceeds are instead used to redeem the qualified mortgage bonds or to provide financing for properties authorized to be financed under the state law under which the bonds were issued and located within the joint powers agency in which the assigning local agency is a member.

This section shall become operative January 1, 1983.

SEC. 11. Section 50196 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50196. (a) The committee shall, after consultation with appropriate agencies including, but not limited to the Department of Business and Economic Development, the Department of Housing and Community Development, the Governor's Office of Planning and Research, the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency, the Senate Office of Research, the Assembly Office of Research, and the Department of Finance, designate areas of chronic economic distress in conformity with paragraph (3) of subdivision (k) of Section 103(A) of the Internal Revenue Code. Criteria to be used in designating areas of chronic economic distress include:

(1) The condition of the housing stock, including the age of the housing and the number of abandoned and substandard residential units.

(2) The need of area residents for owner-financing under this section, as indicated by low per capita income, a high percentage of families in poverty, a high number of welfare recipients, and high unemployment rates.

(3) The potential for use of owner-financing under this section to improve housing conditions in the area.

(4) The existence of a housing assistance plan which provides a displacement program and a public improvements and services program.

(b) The committee may evaluate and include other criteria it considers appropriate in determining areas of chronic economic distress including but not limited to:

(1) Low vacancy rates in residential units.

(2) Low volume of mortgage loan activity.

(3) The percentage of households paying more than 35 percent of income for rent.

(4) The existence of adequate transportation facilities between such designated areas and areas of employment concentration.

(c) State agencies and local agencies, including, but not limited to, redevelopment agencies, housing authorities, or other local entities authorized by the laws of this state to issue qualified mortgage bonds, may recommend on or before February 15 of each calendar year, the designation of an area of chronic economic distress to the committee.

The committee shall review all such proposals in making designations in accordance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (k) of Section 103(A) of the Internal Revenue Code or any appropriate regulations. The State Treasurer, or his or her designee, shall be responsible for seeking approval of that designation by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development of the United States and providing certification of these designations and is hereby designated as the official to make certifications for purposes of federal law.

SEC. 12. Section 50663 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50663. The department may contract with a local public entity or nonprofit corporation to provide any portion of uncommitted funds in the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund for making deferred-payment rehabilitation loans through such local public entity or nonprofit corporation in aid of a (a) rehabilitation loan program conducted in a concentrated rehabilitation area designated pursuant to Section 51302; (b) residential rehabilitation financing program conducted pursuant to Part 13 (commencing with Section 37910) of Division 24; (c) systematic enforcement program for which the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency has allocated funds for mortgage loans pursuant to Section 51311; (d) code enforcement agency repairing substandard dwellings following the owner's failure to commence work following a final notice or order from the enforcement agency; (e) program conducted by the agency in a mortgage assistance area, provided such area is located in a rural area; or (f) rehabilitation or code enforcement program being undertaken by a local public entity or nonprofit corporation in an area in which federal funds are being used or will be used in conjunction with the program established pursuant to this chapter. Eligibility for such loans shall be governed by the provisions of Sections 50664, 50665, 50666, 50667, 50667.5, or 50668.

SEC. 13. Section 50667 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50667. In those counties and cities in which the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency has allocated funds for mortgage loans for rehabilitation of housing developments pursuant to Section 51311, a person or family of low or moderate income who is the owner of an owner-occupied housing development may receive a deferred-payment rehabilitation loan for the excess of the cost of meeting rehabilitation standards over the amount of mortgage-loan financing the agency is able to provide without exceeding the owner's ability to afford the monthly payments required. Owners of rental housing developments in such counties and cities may receive deferred payment loans if necessary to avoid increases in monthly debt service which would result in rent increases causing permanent displacement of persons of low income residing in the housing development prior to rehabilitation, and if the owner accepts a mortgage loan from the agency with its limitation of rents and profits. Owners of rental housing developments in such counties and cities may also receive deferred-payment rehabilitation loans in the amount, if any, necessary to avoid such increases in monthly debt service as would make it economically infeasible to accept subsidies available to provide affordable rents to persons of low income if the owner agrees to accept such subsidies.

SEC. 14. Section 50837 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50837. (a) The Advisory Task Force on Affordable Housing is hereby created in the Department of Housing and Community Development to provide advisory recommendations on methods by which state housing programs may be restructured in order to benefit the greatest number of Californians by obtaining maximum federal funding under the Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act (Public Law 101-625), and, particularly, under Titles II and IV thereof. As part of the report, the Treasurer shall study, and report to the task force, about how the state bond programs can be counted as part of the nonfederal match and how they might specifically fund the HOME and HOPE programs.

(b) The members of the task force shall include the Director of Housing and Community Development, who shall serve as chairperson of the task force, the Controller, the Treasurer, the Director of the Department of Veterans Affairs, and the Executive Director of the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency, or their respective designees. The task force shall meet as deemed necessary by the chairperson.

(c) Each member of the task force shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties by his or her respective public agency.

(d) The task force shall be supported by a reasonable amount of staff time, which shall be provided by the agencies represented on the task force to the extent feasible within their existing resources.

(e) The task force may request data from, and shall utilize the technical expertise of, other state agencies.

(f) On or before April 15, 1992, the task force shall submit its written report to the Legislature.

SEC. 14.5. The heading of Part 3 (commencing with Section 50900) of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

PART 3. CALIFORNIA HOUSING AND INFRASTRUCTURE FINANCE AGENCY

SEC. 14.6. Section 50900 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50900. The California Housing Finance Agency is hereby renamed the California Housing and Infrastructure Finance Agency and continued in existence in the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency. The agency constitutes a public instrumentality and a political subdivision of the state, and the exercise by the agency of the powers conferred by this division shall be deemed and held to be the performance of an essential public function.

SEC. 15. Section 50901 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50901. The agency shall be administered by a board of directors consisting of 11 voting members, including a chairperson selected by the Governor from among his or her appointees. The State Treasurer, the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, and the Secretary of the Trade and Commerce Agency, or their designees, shall be members, in addition to six members appointed by the Governor, one member appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and one member appointed by the Senate Rules Committee. The Director of Finance, the Director of the State Office of Planning and Research, the Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development, the Director of the Department of Transportation, the Secretary of Resources, the Secretary of Environmental Protection, and the executive director of the agency shall serve as nonvoting ex officio members of the board.

SEC. 16. Section 50902 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50902. (a) Appointed members of the board shall be able persons broadly reflective of the economic, cultural, and social diversity of the state, including ethnic minorities and women. However, it is not intended that formulas or specific ratios be applied in order to achieve that diversity.

(b) The Governor shall select, subject to confirmation by the Senate, four of his or her six appointees from among the following categories: (1) an elected official of a city or county engaged in the planning or implementation of a housing, housing-assistance, or housing-rehabilitation program; (2) a person experienced in residential real estate in the savings and loan, mortgage banking, investment banking, or commercial banking industry; (3) a person experienced as a builder of residential housing; (4) a person experienced in organized labor in the residential or commercial construction industry; (5) a person experienced in the management of rental or cooperative housing occupied by lower income households; (6) a person experienced in manufactured housing finance and development; and (7) a person representing the public experienced in the planning or development of infrastructure; (8) a person representing the public who is experienced in matters involving the financing of local public improvement projects; (9) a person with experience in habitat or open space preservation. Not more than one person from each category may serve on the board at any one time, except that two members may be appointed by the Governor to represent the public.

(c) The Governor shall also appoint, subject to confirmation by the Senate, two members who are residents of rental or cooperative housing financed by the agency or who are persons experienced in counseling, assisting, or representing tenants.

(d) At least one of the members appointed by the Governor shall be a resident of a rural or nonmetropolitan area.

(e) The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a person representing the public.

The term of members of the board shall be six years. Any person appointed to fill a vacancy on the board shall serve only for the remainder of the unexpired term. Members of the board shall, subject to continued qualification, be eligible for reappointment. If a member of the board ceases to meet the qualifications specified in this section, the membership of that person on the board shall be terminated.

It is the intent of the Legislature that persons who are members of the board on December 31, 1994, serve the remainder of their terms.

SEC. 16.5. Section 50908 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50908. (a) The Governor shall, subject to confirmation by the Senate, appoint an executive director of the agency, who shall, subject solely to supervision by the board, administer and direct the day-to-day operations of the agency. The term of office of the incumbent executive director shall expire on January 2, 1995, or the operative date of the amendment of this section made at the 1993-94 Regular Session of the Legislature, whichever is later. Any executive director appointed thereafter shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor.

(b) Except as provided in this part, the board shall from time to time determine the total number of authorized employees within the agency and shall determine the salaries of those employees of the agency whose salaries are not paid from moneys appropriated to the agency from the General Fund.

SEC. 17. This act shall not become operative until the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly receive written notice from the Governor that he or she has determined that sufficient funds are currently available to implement the provisions of the act.

SEC. 18. This act shall not become operative unless Senate Bill 101 of the 1993-94 Regular Session of the Legislature is enacted and becomes effective on or before January 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 95

An act to amend Sections 32912.5, 33704, 36991, 36992, 36994, 38193, and 62712 of, to amend the headings of Article 17 (commencing with Section 38521) and Article 19 (commencing with Section 38541) of Chapter 5 of Part 3 of Division 15 of, to add Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 39901) to Part 3 of Division 15 of, to repeal Sections 32912.7, 32920, 36003, and 38521 of, to repeal Article 3 (commencing with Section 36891), Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 36961), and Article 5.7 (commencing with Section 36971), of Chapter 2 of, and Article 28 (commencing with Section 38741) of Chapter 5 of, Part 3 of Division 15 of, and to repeal and add Sections 32912 and 38541 of, and to repeal and add Article 9 (commencing with Section 35971) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of, Article 2 (commencing with Section 36861), Article 4 (commencing with Section 36921), and Article 5 (commencing with Section 36951), of Chapter 2 of, Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 37401) of, Article 4 (commencing with Section 38231), Article 6 (commencing with Section 38261), Article 11 (commencing with Section 38361), Article 13 (commencing with Section 38421), Article 25 (commencing with Section 38671), Article 27 (commencing with Section 38731), Article 29 (commencing with Section 38761), Article 31 (commencing with Section 38791), Article 32 (commencing with Section 38801) and Article 35 (commencing with Section 38861) of, Chapter 5 of, Part 3 of Division 15 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 6, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 32912 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 32912 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

32912. Any milk or milk product, frozen dessert, or cheese that is subject to a standard of identity or standard of composition defined in this division may be specially formulated or processed to lower the content of its milkfat, alter its milkfat composition, or otherwise modify its nutrient profile to the extent that it will not comply with the compositional requirements of its standard of identity or composition. These modified foods shall be labeled in accordance with the applicable provisions of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 3. Section 32912.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

32912.5. Any labeling requirements adopted by the secretary pursuant to this section shall be in conformity with the labeling requirements established under the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. Sec. 301 et seq.) and Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Sample copies of all labels to be used in connection with advertising and consumer sales of milk, milk products, frozen desserts, cheeses, and products resembling milk products shall be submitted to the secretary for approval prior to the use of those labels.

SEC. 4. Section 32912.7 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 32920 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 33704 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

33704. (a) Sections 33701, 33731, 33732, 33733, 33734, 33767, 33768, 33770, 33771, 33776, and 34593 do not apply to the manufacture of ice cream that is manufactured from ice cream mix, to ice milk that is manufactured from ice milk mix, to frozen yogurt that is manufactured from frozen yogurt mix, or to nondairy frozen dessert that is manufactured from nondairy frozen dessert mix, if those products are manufactured in a freezing device from which those products are served directly in a semifrozen state, without packaging of any type, for consumption on the premises in or from rooms where food is served to the public.

Except for nondairy frozen dessert mix, all mixes so used shall be secured from a licensed manufacturer of milk products.

Ice cream mix, ice milk, frozen yogurt mix, frozen dairy dessert mix, and nondairy frozen dessert mix shall be manufactured into a semifrozen state without adulteration and freezing device salvage shall not be reused as a mix.

(b) A limited packaging permit may be issued by the secretary to a semifrozen (soft-serve) milk products plant for on-premises manufacture and packaging of hard frozen dairy products or hard frozen dairy product novelties. The permit may only be issued after the suitability of the facility for manufacture and packaging has been determined by the secretary. An annual onsite evaluation of compliance with the specific permit conditions shall be completed by the secretary prior to renewal of the limited packaging permit. A semifrozen milk products plant issued a limited packaging permit shall meet all of the following standards:

(1) The manufacturing and packaging of hard frozen dairy product novelties shall be done when the establishment is closed to the public.

(2) The hard frozen products shall only be sold to purchasers for consumption. No hard frozen product manufactured pursuant to the limited packaging permit shall be sold for resale.

(3) All frozen dairy product mixes used for the manufacture and packaging of hard frozen dairy product novelties shall be dispensed from single service containers sealed at the licensed milk products plant where processed and pasteurized. Reconstitution of dry mix or condensed mix is prohibited at a semifrozen milk products plant issued a limited packaging permit.

(4) Adequate facilities, consistent with recognized good manufacturing practices for the production and packaging of hard frozen dairy products, as determined by the secretary, shall be provided as a condition of the limited packaging permit. The facilities shall include, but are not limited to, adequate utensil and novelty mold washing, sterilization and storage, and sufficient sanitary work area, including handwashing facilities, dedicated to the manufacture and packaging of hard frozen dairy product novelties. Sanitation guidelines consistent with good manufacturing and handling practices for retail food establishments manufacturing and packaging hard frozen dairy products in conformance with Part 110 (commencing with Section 110.3) of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations shall be utilized by the secretary as a condition for issuance and renewal of the limited packaging permit.

(5) Each individually packaged hard frozen novelty shall be labeled with the name of the product and the name and address of the manufacturer.

(c) Nondairy frozen dessert mix shall be obtained from manufacturers licensed pursuant to Section 38931 or under Section 38984. Any dry or condensed mix to be reconstituted into freezable form shall be reconstituted on the premises in containers or equipment that meet the requirements of Sections 33763, 33764, 33765, and 33766. Any water used for reconstitution shall be treated in a manner to ensure a quality equal to potable pasteurized water. Upon reconstitution, the product shall be poured directly into the freezing unit or refrigerated at a temperature not to exceed 45 degrees Fahrenheit, and so maintained until frozen, or both.

(d) Where any retail establishment manufactures two or more of the products provided for under this section, each of those products shall be processed in a separate freezing device, and that freezing device shall be clearly identified as to the product being manufactured therein.

(e) The secretary may, by agreement with any approved milk inspection service, authorize the service to inspect and enforce requirements of this code applicable to the establishments covered by this section. Any agreement shall provide that the approved inspection service shall collect the applicable license fee for those establishments as provided in Sections 35221 and 38933. The fees so collected shall be retained by the approved service to cover its cost of enforcement, but 15 percent of the fees collected shall be remitted to the secretary to cover the cost of administration.

SEC. 7. Article 9 (commencing with Section 35971) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 15 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Article 9 (commencing with Section 35971) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 15 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 9. Half-and-Half

35971. Half-and-half is a food that complies with Section 131.180 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 16. Article 5 (commencing with Section 36951) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 15 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 5. Sherbet

36951. Sherbet is a food that complies with Section 135.140 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

36952. Yogurt sherbet is a product that meets all the requirements and standards prescribed for sherbet, except as follows:

(a) It shall have an acidity of not less than six-tenths of 1 percent calculated as lactic acid.

(b) Bacteria standards which are specified for sherbet do not apply to yogurt sherbet.

(c) It shall have a yogurt content of not less than 40 percent.

SEC. 17. Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 36961) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 15 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 18. Article 5.7 (commencing with Section 36971) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 15 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 19. Section 36991 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

36991. Frozen yogurt is a frozen dairy product. It shall be made from milk, with or without added milk solids, flavoring, or seasoning, which has been pasteurized and afterwards fermented by one or more strains of Lactobacillus bulgaricus, including yogurt strains, Streptococcus thermophilus and Lactobacillus acidophilus. It shall not be pasteurized following fermentation. Fruits may be added before or after the mix is pasteurized and cultured. That product may contain safe and suitable stabilizers or emulsifiers as specified in Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations. It shall have a titratable acidity of not less than 0.5 percent expressed as lactic acid, except when flavoring is added that contains no fruit or fruit flavoring the titratable acidity may be reduced to not less than 0.30 percent expressed as lactic acid, contain not more than 10 coliform bacteria per gram, contain not more than 10 colonies per gram each of molds, yeasts, and other fungi, and be free of any other objectionable bacteria that may impair the quality of the product. The product shall weigh not less than 4.0 pounds per gallon.

SEC. 20. Section 36992 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

36992. Frozen yogurt shall contain not less than 3.5 percent milkfat. The milkfat content of frozen fruit yogurt may be reduced to not less than 2.8 percent milkfat.

SEC. 21. Section 36994 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

36994. Frozen yogurt mix is an unfrozen product that is used in the manufacture of frozen yogurt. It shall comply with all the requirements for frozen yogurt. The use of fruits and flavoring in frozen yogurt mix, as used pursuant to Section 33704, shall be subject to the approval of the secretary.

SEC. 22. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 37401) of Part 3 of Division 15 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 23. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 37401) is added to Part 3 of Division 15 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

SEC. 47. Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 39901) is added to Part 3 of Division 15 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

CHAPTER 10. DAIRY BEVERAGES

39901. Dairy beverages are milk and dairy food beverages resembling milk or milk products. However, dairy beverages do not conform to the compositional standards for milk or milk products as established in this code or Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations because they contain safe and suitable ingredients or combinations of ingredients not specified in those standards. Dairy beverages are products intended for consumption as a beverage. Milk or the components or milk shall comprise at least 15 percent of the product on a dry matter basis or at least 2 percent on a total weight basis.

For purposes of establishing compliance with the minimum dairy ingredient criteria, dairy ingredients shall include all products, components, and derivatives of milk, including, but not limited to whey and whey products and caseinates specified in subdivision (c) of Section 135.110 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations, but excluding added lactose.

39902. The product may not contain any added fats or oils other than milkfat, except those fats present in incidental amounts that are naturally occurring in, or contributed by, flavorings or characterizing food ingredients. When the product contains water as an ingredient, water shall be declared in the ingredient list.

39903. The product shall be pasteurized, ultra-pasteurized, or UHT processed and packaged, pursuant to the specifications and procedures for the applicable process contained in the Code of Federal Regulations. The labeling shall comply with any applicable labeling requirements contained in the Code of Federal Regulations applicable to the heat treatment used on the product.

39904. The product may be cultured with safe and suitable bacterial cultures following pasteurization, ultra-pasteurization, or UHT processing.

39905. This article does not apply to any product regulated under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 38901) as a product resembling a milk product or any dairy product for which a standard is established in this division.

39906. The label of all products subject to this standard shall be submitted to the secretary for approval prior to sale. In addition to the labeling requirements specified in this article, the secretary may, by regulation, require or prohibit any other information, format, or design for the label that the secretary determines to be in the public interest.

39907. (a) The term “dairy beverage” or “a dairy beverage” may appear on the principal display panel of the product only when milk and the components or derivatives of milk comprise at least 30 percent of the product on a dry matter basis, or at least 4 percent on a total weight basis.

(b) When the term “dairy beverage” or “a dairy beverage” appears on the principal display panel, it shall be in letters not exceeding the height of the largest letters on the principal display panel.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), when the term “dairy beverage” or “a dairy beverage” appears on the information panel of the label of the product, it shall be clearly and conspicuously labeled in bold type and of a type size equal to that used in the ingredient list.

39908. The product shall be labeled with a common or usual name of the beverage or a fanciful name that does not mislead, deceive, or confuse the consumer. Use of the name “dairy beverage” or “a dairy beverage” is restricted to products that conform to the requirements of Section 39907. The name shall not cause the consumer to believe that the product is a milk product for which a standard is established in this division.

39909. Each container that contains the product shall be labeled with the name and address of the manufacturer or distributor, and in the event the address is not the address of the manufacturer or final packaging plant, the label shall include the national uniform federal information processing standards state code number to be immediately followed by a hyphen and the plant number assigned by the appropriate state regulatory agency.

39910. If the product is labeled “Grade A,” all dairy ingredients shall be derived from market milk.

39911. The label of the product may contain references to, and comparisons with, a milk product if those statements, symbols, marks, designs, or representations are reasonable, relevant, truthful, complete, and not deceptive or misleading. The secretary may require satisfactory proof of the compliance of any label with this section.

39912. No product subject to this standard shall be advertised, displayed for sale, or sold in any manner or under any circumstances or conditions that are likely to mislead, deceive, or confuse consumers into believing the products are products defined in this division. The secretary may require satisfactory proof of the compliance of a dairy beverage with this section.

SEC. 48. Section 62712 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

62712. (a) The secretary may require handlers, including cooperative associations acting as handlers, to make reports at any intervals and in any detail that he or she finds necessary for the operation of the pool. The secretary may impose and collect a civil penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) from any handler or cooperative association acting as a handler that does not file a report on the date specified by the secretary pursuant to this subdivision. Any funds collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund and, upon appropriation by the Legislature, the funds may be expended for the purposes of this chapter.

(b) For the purposes of enforcing this chapter, the secretary, through his or her duly authorized representatives and agents, shall have access to the records of every producer and handler. The secretary shall have at all times, free and unimpeded access to any building, yard, warehouse, store, manufacturing facility, or transportation facility in which any market milk or market milk product is produced, bought, sold, stored, bottled, handled, or manufactured.

Any books, papers, records, documents, or reports made to, acquired by, prepared by, or maintained by the secretary pursuant to this chapter, which would disclose any information about finances, financial status, or worth, composition, market share, or business operations of any producer or handler, excluding information that solely reflects transfers of production base and pool quota among producers, is confidential and shall not be disclosed to any person other than the person from whom the information was received, except pursuant to the final order of a court with jurisdiction, or as necessary for the proper determination of any proceeding before the secretary.

(c) In conjunction with the pools authorized by this chapter, the secretary may require handlers to make payments into a settlement fund for fluid milk received and the secretary may provide for the disbursement of moneys from the settlement fund in the course of administering the pools. Handlers who have a financial obligation to the pool resulting from the operation of the pooling plan shall pay the obligations to the pool manager each month as requested. All of these moneys shall be deposited in a bank or banks approved by the secretary, and shall be paid out by the pool manager to handlers who have pool credits resulting from the operation of the pooling plan. All financial operations of each pool shall be audited by the department at least once annually. The secretary may require handlers to make such deductions from amounts due to producers as he or she finds are necessary to establish a reserve fund to insure prompt payment to producers.

(d) The secretary may employ a pool manager to operate each pool and may permit the pool manager to employ such other necessary personnel and incur such expenses incidental to the operation of the pool as the secretary finds are necessary. The pool manager shall effectuate the purposes of Section 62711 by designating the percentage of each price class (i.e., classes 1, 2, 3, 4a, and 4b) to be paid within each pool settlement classification (i.e., quota pool, production pool, and overproduction pool), and in so doing he or she shall allocate the highest usage available, first to the quota pool, next to the production pool, and last to the overproduction pool.

(e) All pool quotas initially determined pursuant to Section 62707 shall be recognized and shall not in any way be diminished.

SEC. 49. The Department of Food and Agriculture shall repeal all regulations that are inconsistent with this act, including Sections 415, 415.1, 415.2 to 428.3, inclusive, Article 5 (commencing with Section 429), and Article 8 (commencing with Section 455) of Chapter 1 of Division 2 of Title 3 of the California Code of Regulations.

SEC. 50. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 51. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to bring the provisions of the Food and Agricultural Code governing the standards and labeling of dairy products into compliance with federal law on the date the federal Nutrition Labeling and Education Act of 1990 (P.L. 101-535; 21 U.S.C. Secs. 321, 337, 343, 345, and 371) takes effect, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 96

An act to amend Section 50662.7 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to disaster relief.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 6, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50662.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50662.7. For the purpose of providing disaster relief to those owners of owner-occupied dwellings that were damaged or destroyed as a result of a natural disaster defined by Section 8680.3 of the Government Code, resulting in a state of emergency proclaimed by the Governor pursuant to Section 8625 of the Government Code, financial assistance may be provided to disaster victims as prescribed in this chapter under the following special conditions, which shall prevail over conflicting provisions of this chapter and administrative regulations:

(a) (1) The loans shall be provided in any city, county, or city and county proclaimed by the Governor to be in a state of disaster: (A) to persons who do not qualify for loan assistance from an agency of the United States for repair of the damage caused by a natural disaster, (B) to the extent that federally provided or assisted financing may be insufficient to accomplish the necessary repair, and (C) to the extent required to enable the recipient to obtain and afford loan assistance from an agency of the United States to finance the necessary repair.

(2) The loans shall be made only to households that are victims of a natural disaster and only to the extent that other federal and state resources, private insurance proceeds, or private institutional lending sources, are not available or do not provide the assistance or coverage needed to rehabilitate or reconstruct their homes.

(3) This subdivision shall not be construed to prevent the processing of a loan application once a person or household has received loan approval from a federal, state, or private institutional lending source, nor shall this subdivision be construed to prevent the funding of short-term loans until other federal, state, or private loan proceeds become available.

(4) In allocating grants and loans, the department shall in no event provide a loan to a family with an annual income in excess of 150 percent of statewide median income, adjusted for family size. This paragraph shall apply to any disaster that occurs on or after January 18, 1994.

(b) (1) The loans shall be for the purpose of repairing, including reconstructing, dwellings that are owner-occupied or would be owner-occupied but for the damage caused by the natural disaster and for rental dwelling units of one to four units. Loan funds shall be used to fund work necessary to repair damaged dwellings and to correct serious, life-threatening violations of the state or local building code or housing standards that are required to be corrected prior to occupancy, including ensuring compliance with applicable seismic safety standards and related property improvements or to finance the reconstruction of dwellings destroyed as a result of the natural disaster up to a maximum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per unit. The department shall limit the square footage of units repaired or reconstructed using funds provided pursuant to this section to the predisaster size of the unit.

(2) In the case of manufactured housing or mobilehomes, loan funds shall be used to bring the manufactured home or mobilehome into compliance with the standards set forth in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18025) of Part 2 of Division 13.

(3) For the purposes of this section:

(A) "Owner-occupied dwellings" include single-family units, attached owner-occupied units, condominiums, townhouses, cooperatives, and manufactured homes, including mobilehomes.

(B) "Rental dwelling of one to four units" includes single-family units, condominiums, townhouses, cooperatives, duplexes, and manufactured homes, including mobilehomes.

(c) The loan, together with any existing indebtedness encumbering the secured property, shall not exceed the after-repair value of the property, except that the department may waive this limitation in individual cases to ensure, when necessary, correction of serious, life-threatening violations of the state or local building code or housing standards, seismic safety standards, and general property improvements relating to these standards pursuant to subdivision (b).

(d) (1) The outstanding balance of a loan provided under this section, including principal and accrued interest thereon, shall be due and payable, after 30 years or when either of the following occurs: (A) the borrower transfers ownership of the rehabilitated property, or (B) fails to occupy the rehabilitated property as his or her principal place of residence, whichever comes first. For rental dwellings, the term of the loan shall be 20 years.

(2) After the initial recordation of the deed of trust securing the department's loan, the department shall not subordinate its deed of trust to additional or other financing except in cases of extreme hardship necessary to protect the health or safety of the occupants or to the extent that the total principal of loans senior to the department's loan is unchanged or decreased and the department's security interest is not jeopardized, as determined by the department.

(e) The department may make loans directly to borrowers, or contract for the administration under this section of loans with one or more entities that it determines to have the necessary experience to successfully administer the loan program, including, but not limited to, local public agencies and private organizations. The department may authorize, under that contract, the payment of expenses incurred by the entities in administering the loan program and may prescribe the conditions pursuant to which the entities shall administer the loans.

(f) Sections 50663 and 50668 do not apply to loans made pursuant to this section.

(g) The department may set aside or use funds that are made available for the purposes of this section for the purpose of curing or averting an owner's default on the terms of any loan or other obligation where that default would jeopardize the department's security in the owner-occupied housing assisted pursuant to this section. The payment or advance of funds by the department pursuant to this subdivision shall be exclusively within the department's discretion, and no person shall be deemed to have any entitlement to the payment or advance of those funds. The amount of any funds expended by the department pursuant to this subdivision shall be added to the loan amount secured by the deed of trust and shall be payable to the department upon demand.

(h) Any rule, policy, or standard of general application employed by the Department of Housing and Community Development in implementing this section shall not be subject to the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(i) Fund allocations made pursuant to this section shall not be subject to review or approval by the Loan Committee of the Department of Housing and Community Development operating pursuant to Subchapter 1 (commencing with Section 6900) of Chapter 6.5 of Title 25 of the California Code of Regulations.

(j) (1) In order to be eligible for one or more loans pursuant to this section, the borrower shall agree to all of the following conditions:

(A) All buildings shall be connected to their foundation systems as necessary to meet the seismic requirements of the 1973 Edition of the Uniform Building Code of the International Conference of Building Officials in a manner approved by the department, which may include seismic strengthening of foundation cripple walls and affixing or bolting sill plates to the foundation.

(B) All water heaters shall be braced, anchored, or strapped to resist falling or horizontal displacement due to earthquake motion.

(C) Hazard insurance shall be obtained and maintained as required by the department.

(2) As a condition of receipt of assistance under this section, owners of rental dwellings shall agree, in writing, to all of the restrictions set forth in this subdivision.

(3) The loan shall include an amount sufficient to meet the requirements of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (1).

(k) Initial rents for rental housing rehabilitated under this section shall not exceed the rent charged immediately prior to the natural disaster. The department may allow for adjustments to the predisaster rents due to cost-of-living increases or increases necessary for debt service.

(l) The department shall adopt regulations establishing terms and conditions upon which repair loans may be made. These regulations shall be made available to the public by the department. The department may set interest rates for individual loans for each disaster at a rate that shall not exceed the rate for veterans' home loans established pursuant to Section 987.87 of the Military and Veterans Code on the date the Governor declares a state of emergency for that disaster, plus up to one-half percent for administrative costs not included in the interest rate. The Department of Housing and Community Development shall prepare an annual audit of administrative costs for the Department of Finance. All loans for each disaster shall bear the same interest rate. The department may also require periodic payments of interest, or principal and interest, or provide incentives for earlier repayment of principal and interest on owner-occupied dwellings. Incentives may include reduction of interest rates to a minimum of 3 percent for repayment that occurs within three years of the closing of the loan.

(m) Prior to full loan approval, the department may make loans not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) per loan to pay for the costs of predevelopment activity which must be undertaken prior to making eligible repairs if, in the opinion of the department, the borrower is unable to pay for these costs in advance of full loan approval. These loans shall bear interest at the rate of 6 percent simple interest per annum and shall be evidenced by a promissory note secured by a deed of trust. At the time of full loan approval, the predevelopment loan shall be canceled, and the principal amount of the loan and all accrued interest shall be included in the amount of the full loan and shall be subject to the same interest rate and terms and conditions as the full loan. For purposes of computing the maximum loan amount, the amount of any predevelopment loan shall be included.

CHAPTER 97

An act to amend Sections 8685 and 8686 of, and to add Section 8680.25 to, the Government Code, relating to natural disaster assistance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 6, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8680.25 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8680.25. For the purpose of allocating funds pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8879.3, "public infrastructure" includes a private nonprofit facility operated by a private nonprofit organization, as defined in paragraph (9) of Section 5122 of Title 42 of the United States Code and applicable federal regulations, on a nondiscriminatory basis.

This section applies only with respect to disaster assistance associated with the January 17, 1994, Northridge earthquake. This section shall not be construed to apply to any private nonprofit organization to the extent that it is prohibited from receiving public funds pursuant to this chapter by Section 8 of Article IX, or Section 3 or 5 of Article XVI, of the California Constitution, or the Establishment Clauses of the First Amendment of the United States Constitution and Section 4 of Article I of the California Constitution.

This section shall only become operative upon the approval of Chapter 15 of the Statutes of 1994, by a majority of the voters voting on the measure, as Proposition 1A, at the June 7, 1994, statewide primary election.

SEC. 2. Section 8685 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8685. From any money appropriated for that purpose, and subject to the conditions specified in this article, the Director of Emergency Services shall allocate funds to meet the cost of any one or more projects as defined in Section 8680.4. Applications by school districts shall be submitted to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for review and approval, in accordance with instructions or regulations developed by the Office of Emergency Services, prior to the allocation of funds by the Director of Emergency Services.

Moneys appropriated for the purposes of this chapter may be used to provide financial assistance for the following local agency and state costs:

(a) Local agency personnel costs eligible for funding or reimbursement under Part 206 of Title 44 of the Code of Federal Regulations, equipment costs, and the cost of supplies and materials used during disaster response activities, incurred as a result of a state of emergency proclaimed by the Governor, excluding the normal hourly wage costs of regularly assigned emergency services and public safety personnel.

(b) To repair, restore, reconstruct, or replace facilities belonging to local agencies damaged as a result of natural disasters as defined in Section 8680.3.

(c) Matching fund assistance for cost sharing required under federal public assistance programs.

(d) Indirect costs defined as eligible by the Office of Emergency Services and in accordance with the federal Office of Management and Budget Circular No. A-87, or its successors, and any other assistance deemed necessary by the Director of Emergency Services.

(e) Necessary and required site preparation costs for mobilehomes, travel trailers, and other manufactured housing units provided by the federal temporary housing assistance program operated by the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

(f) The amendments to this section made during the 1993-94 Regular Session of the Legislature apply with respect to natural disasters occurring on and after the date on which those amendments become operative.

SEC. 3. Section 8686 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8686. (a) For any eligible project, the state share shall amount to no more than 75 percent of total state eligible costs. The state shall make no allocation for any project application resulting in a state share of less than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the state share shall be up to 100 percent of total state eligible costs connected with the October 17, 1989, Loma Prieta earthquake, the October 20, 1991, East Bay fire, and the January 17, 1994, Northridge earthquake. The state shall make no allocation for any project application resulting in a state share of less than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) under this subdivision.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide victims of natural disasters in this state with needed assistance as soon as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 98

An act to amend Section 48204 of the Education Code, and to add Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 6550) to Division 11 of the Family Code, relating to minors, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 6, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that according to the latest federal decennial census, during the 1980's there was a 40-percent increase in the number of children who had lived with a nonparent relative. Furthermore, according to the 1990 California Census there are 673,563 minors living with nonparent relatives and 207,825 minors living with nonrelatives. The Legislature further finds and declares that the enactment of Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 6550) of Division 11 of the Family Code will help to ensure that minors living with nonparent caregivers will have unhindered access to public education and essential medical care.

SEC. 2. Section 48204 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 9.6 of Chapter 1296 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

48204. Notwithstanding Section 48200, a pupil shall be deemed to have complied with the residency requirements for school attendance in a school district, provided he or she is any of the following:

(a) A pupil placed within the boundaries of that school district in a regularly established licensed children's institution, or a licensed foster home, or a family home pursuant to a commitment or placement under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 200) of Part

1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

An agency placing a pupil in a home or institution described in this subdivision shall provide evidence to the school that the placement or commitment is pursuant to law.

(b) A pupil for whom interdistrict attendance has been approved pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 46600) of Part 26 of Division 3 of this title.

(c) A pupil whose residence is located within the boundaries of that school district and whose parent or legal guardian is relieved of responsibility, control, and authority through emancipation.

(d) A pupil who lives in the home of a caregiving adult that is located within the boundaries of that school district. Execution of an affidavit under penalty of perjury pursuant to Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 6550) of Division 11 of the Family Code by the caregiving adult shall be a sufficient basis for a determination that the pupil lives in the caregiver's home, unless the school district determines from actual facts that the pupil is not living in the caregiver's home.

(e) A pupil residing in a state hospital located within the boundaries of that school district.

(f) An elementary school pupil, one or both of whose parents, or whose legal guardian, is employed within the boundaries of that school district.

(1) Nothing in this subdivision requires the school district within which the pupil's parents or guardians are employed to admit the pupil to its schools. Districts may not, however, refuse to admit pupils under this subdivision on the basis, except as expressly provided in this subdivision, of race, ethnicity, sex, parental income, scholastic achievement, or any other arbitrary consideration.

(2) The school district in which the residency of either the pupil's parents or guardians is established, or the school district to which the pupil is to be transferred under this subdivision, may prohibit the transfer of the pupil under this subdivision if the governing board of the district determines that the transfer would negatively impact the district's court-ordered or voluntary desegregation plan.

(3) The school district to which the pupil is to be transferred under this subdivision may prohibit the transfer of the pupil if the district determines that the additional cost of educating the pupil would exceed the amount of additional state aid received as a result of the transfer.

(4) Any district governing board prohibiting a transfer pursuant to paragraph (1), (2), or (3) shall identify, and communicate in writing to the pupil's parent or guardian, the specific reasons for that determination and shall ensure that the determination, and the specific reasons therefor, are accurately recorded in the minutes of the board meeting in which the determination was made.

(5) The average daily attendance for pupils admitted pursuant to this subdivision shall be calculated pursuant to Section 46607.

(6) Unless approved by the sending district, this subdivision does not authorize a net transfer of pupils out of any given district, calculated as the difference between the number of pupils exiting the district and the number of pupils entering the district, in any fiscal year in excess of the following amounts:

(A) For any district with an average daily attendance for that fiscal year of less than 501, 5 percent of the average daily attendance of the district.

(B) For any district with an average daily attendance for that fiscal year of 501 or more, but less than 2501, 3 percent of the average daily attendance of the district or 25 pupils, whichever is greater.

(C) For any district with an average daily attendance of 2501 or more, 1 percent of the average daily attendance of the district or 75 pupils, whichever is greater.

Once a pupil is deemed to have complied with the residency requirements for school attendance pursuant to this subdivision and is enrolled in a school in a school district whose boundaries include the location where one parent or both parents of a pupil is employed, or where a pupil's legal guardian is employed, the pupil shall not have to reapply in the next school year to attend a school within that school district.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before June 30, 1995, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after July 1, 1995, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 48204 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 1191 of the Statutes of 1980, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 2.5. Section 48204 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 9.6 of Chapter 1296 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

48204. Notwithstanding Section 48200, a pupil shall be deemed to have complied with the residency requirements for school attendance in a school district, provided he or she is any of the following:

(a) A pupil placed within the boundaries of that school district in a regularly established licensed children's institution, or a licensed foster home, or a family home pursuant to a commitment or placement under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 200) of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

An agency placing a pupil in a home or institution described in this subdivision shall provide evidence to the school that the placement or commitment is pursuant to law.

(b) A pupil for whom interdistrict attendance has been approved pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 46600) of Part 26 of Division 3 of this title.

(c) A pupil whose residence is located within the boundaries of that school district and whose parent or legal guardian is relieved of responsibility, control, and authority through emancipation.

(d) A pupil who lives in the home of a caregiving adult that is located within the boundaries of that school district. Execution of an affidavit under penalty of perjury pursuant to Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 6550) of Division 11 of the Family Code by the caregiving adult shall be a sufficient basis for a determination that the pupil lives in the caregiver's home, unless the school district determines from actual facts that the pupil is not living in the caregiver's home.

(e) A pupil residing in a state hospital located within the boundaries of that school district.

(f) An elementary school pupil, one or both of whose parents, or whose legal guardian, is employed within the boundaries of that school district.

(1) Nothing in this subdivision requires the school district within which the pupil's parents or guardians are employed to admit the pupil to its schools. Districts may not, however, refuse to admit pupils under this subdivision on the basis, except as expressly provided in this subdivision, of race, ethnicity, sex, parental income, scholastic achievement, or any other arbitrary consideration.

(2) The school district in which the residency of either the pupil's parents or guardians is established, or the school district to which the pupil is to be transferred under this subdivision, may prohibit the transfer of the pupil under this subdivision if the governing board of the district determines that the transfer would negatively impact the district's court-ordered or voluntary desegregation plan.

(3) The school district to which the pupil is to be transferred under this subdivision may prohibit the transfer of the pupil if the district determines that the additional cost of educating the pupil would exceed the amount of additional state aid received as a result of the transfer.

(4) Any district governing board prohibiting a transfer pursuant to paragraph (1), (2), or (3) shall identify, and communicate in writing to the pupil's parent or guardian, the specific reasons for that determination and shall ensure that the determination, and the specific reasons therefor, are accurately recorded in the minutes of the board meeting in which the determination was made.

(5) The average daily attendance for pupils admitted pursuant to this subdivision shall be calculated pursuant to Section 46607.

(6) Unless approved by the sending district, this subdivision does not authorize a net transfer of pupils out of any given district, calculated as the difference between the number of pupils exiting the district and the number of pupils entering the district, in any fiscal year in excess of the following amounts:

(A) For any district with an average daily attendance for that fiscal year of less than 501, 5 percent of the average daily attendance of the district.

(B) For any district with an average daily attendance for that fiscal year of 501 or more, but less than 2501, 3 percent of the average daily attendance of the district or 25 pupils, whichever is greater.

(C) For any district with an average daily attendance of 2501 or more, 1 percent of the average daily attendance of the district or 75 pupils, whichever is greater.

(7) Once a pupil is deemed to have complied with the residency requirements for school attendance pursuant to this subdivision and is enrolled in a school in a school district whose boundaries include the location where one parent or both parents of the pupil is employed, or where the pupil's legal guardian is employed, the pupil shall not have to reapply in the next school year to attend a school within that school district and the district governing board shall allow the pupil to attend school through the 12th grade in that district if the parent or guardian so chooses subject to paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before July 1, 1998, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 48204 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 9.7 of Chapter 1296 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

48204. Notwithstanding Section 48200, a pupil shall be deemed to have complied with the residency requirements for school attendance in a school district, provided he or she is:

(a) A pupil placed within the boundaries of that school district in a regularly established licensed children's institution, or a licensed foster home, or a family home pursuant to a commitment or placement under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 200) of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

An agency placing a pupil in the home or institution shall provide evidence to the school that the placement or commitment is pursuant to law.

(b) A pupil for whom interdistrict attendance has been approved pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 46600) of Part 26 of Division 3 of this title.

(c) A pupil whose residence is located within the boundaries of that school district and whose parent or legal guardian is relieved of responsibility, control, and authority through emancipation.

(d) A pupil who lives in the home of a caregiving adult that is located within the boundaries of that school district. Execution of an affidavit under penalty of perjury pursuant to Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 6550) of Division 11 of the Family Code by the caregiving adult shall be a sufficient basis for a determination that the pupil lives in the caregiver's home, unless the school district determines from actual facts that the pupil is not living in the caregiver's home.

(e) A pupil residing in a state hospital located within the boundaries of that school district.

SEC. 3.5. Section 48204 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 9.7 of Chapter 1296 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

48204. Notwithstanding Section 48200, a pupil shall be deemed to have complied with the residency requirements for school attendance in a school district, provided he or she is:

(a) A pupil placed within the boundaries of that school district in a regularly established licensed children's institution, or a licensed foster home, or a family home pursuant to a commitment or placement under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 200) of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

An agency placing a pupil in the home or institution shall provide evidence to the school that the placement or commitment is pursuant to law.

(b) A pupil for whom interdistrict attendance has been approved pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 46600) of Part 26 of Division 3 of this title.

(c) A pupil whose residence is located within the boundaries of that school district and whose parent or legal guardian is relieved of responsibility, control, and authority through emancipation.

(d) A pupil who lives in the home of a caregiving adult that is located within the boundaries of that school district. Execution of an affidavit under penalty of perjury pursuant to Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 6550) of Division 11 of the Family Code by the caregiving adult shall be a sufficient basis for a determination that the pupil lives in the caregiver's home, unless the school district determines from actual facts that the pupil is not living in the caregiver's home.

(e) A pupil residing in a state hospital located within the boundaries of that school district.

(f) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1998.

SEC. 4. Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 6550) is added to Division 11 of the Family Code, to read:

PART 1.5. CAREGIVERS

6550. (a) A caregiver's authorization affidavit that meets the requirements of this part authorizes a caregiver 18 years of age or older who completes items 1-4 of the affidavit provided in Section 6552 and signs the affidavit to enroll a minor in school and consent to school-related medical care on behalf of the minor. A caregiver who is a relative and who completes items 1-8 of the affidavit provided in Section 6552 and signs the affidavit shall have the same rights to authorize medical care and dental care for the minor that are given to guardians under Section 2353 of the Probate Code.

(b) The affidavit shall not be valid for more than one year after the date on which it is executed.

(c) The decision of a caregiver to consent to or to refuse medical or dental care for a minor shall be superseded by any contravening decision of the parent or other person having legal custody of the minor, provided the decision of the parent or other person having legal custody of the minor does not jeopardize the life, health, or safety of the minor.

(d) No person who acts in good faith reliance on a caregiver's authorization affidavit to provide medical or dental care, without actual knowledge of facts contrary to those stated on the affidavit, is subject to criminal liability or to civil liability to any person, or is subject to professional disciplinary action, for such reliance if the applicable portions of the affidavit are completed.

This subdivision shall apply even if medical or dental care is provided to a minor in contravention of the wishes of the parent or other person having legal custody of the minor as long as the person providing the medical or dental care has no actual knowledge of the wishes of the parent or other person having legal custody of the minor.

(e) A person who relies on the affidavit has no obligation to make any further inquiry or investigation.

(f) Nothing in this section shall relieve any individual from liability for violations of other provisions of law.

(g) If the minor stops living with the caregiver, the caregiver shall notify any school, health care provider, or health care service plan that has been given the affidavit.

(h) A caregiver's authorization affidavit shall be invalid unless it substantially contains, in not less than 10-point boldface type or a reasonable equivalent thereof, the warning statement beginning with the word "warning" specified in Section 6552. The warning statement shall be enclosed in a box with 3-point rule lines.

(i) For purposes of this part:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, the state, or any city, county, city and county, or other public entity or governmental subdivision or agency, or any other legal entity.

(2) "Relative" means a spouse, parent, stepparent, brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother, half-sister, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, first cousin, or any person denoted by the prefix "grand" or "great," or the spouse of any of the persons specified in this definition, even after the marriage has been terminated by death or dissolution.

(3) "School-related medical care" means medical care that is required by state or local governmental authority as a condition for school enrollment, including immunizations, physical examinations, and medical examinations conducted in schools for pupils.

6552. The caregiver's authorization affidavit shall be in substantially the following form:

Caregiver's Authorization Affidavit

Use of this affidavit is authorized by Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 6550) of Division 11 of the California Family Code.

Instructions: Completion of items 1-4 and the signing of the affidavit is sufficient to authorize enrollment of a minor in school and authorize school-related medical care. Completion of items 5-8 is additionally required to authorize any other medical care. Print clearly.

The minor named below lives in my home and I am 18 years of age or older.

1. Name of minor: _____ .

2. Minor's birth date: _____ .

3. My name (adult giving authorization): _____ .

4. My home address: _____ .

_____ .

5. I am a grandparent, aunt, uncle, or other qualified relative of the minor (see back of this form for a definition of "qualified relative").

6. Check one or both (for example, if one parent was advised and the other cannot be located):

I have advised the parent(s) or other person(s) having legal custody of the minor of my intent to authorize medical care, and have received no objection.

I am unable to contact the parent(s) or other person(s) having legal custody of the minor at this time, to notify them of my intended authorization.

7. My date of birth: _____ .

8. My California's drivers license or identification card number: _____ .

Warning: Do not sign this form if any of the statements above are incorrect, or you will be committing a crime punishable by a fine, imprisonment, or both.
--

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated: _____ Signed: _____

Notices:

1. This declaration does not affect the rights of the minor's parents or legal guardian regarding the care, custody, and control of the minor, and does not mean that the caregiver has legal custody of the minor.
2. A person who relies on this affidavit has no obligation to make any further inquiry or investigation.
3. This affidavit is not valid for more than one year after the date on which it is executed.

Additional Information:

TO CAREGIVERS:

1. "Qualified relative," for purposes of item 5, means a spouse, parent, stepparent, brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother, half-sister, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, first cousin, or any person denoted by the prefix "grand" or "great," or the spouse of any of the persons specified in this definition, even after the marriage has been terminated by death or dissolution.
2. The law may require you, if you are not a relative or a currently licensed foster parent, to obtain a foster home license in order to care for a minor. If you have any questions, please contact your local department of social services.
3. If the minor stops living with you, you are required to notify any school, health care provider, or health care service plan to which you have given this affidavit.
4. If you do not have the information requested in item 8 (California driver's license or I.D.), provide another form of identification such as your social security number or Medi-Cal number.

TO SCHOOL OFFICIALS:

1. Section 48204 of the Education Code provides that this affidavit constitutes a sufficient basis for a determination of residency of the minor, without the requirement of a guardianship or other custody order, unless the school district determines from actual facts that the minor is not living with the caregiver.

2. The school district may require additional reasonable evidence that the caregiver lives at the address provided in item 4.

TO HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS AND HEALTH CARE SERVICE PLANS:

1. No person who acts in good faith reliance upon a caregiver's authorization affidavit to provide medical or dental care, without actual knowledge of facts contrary to those stated on the affidavit, is subject to criminal liability or to civil liability to any person, or is subject to professional disciplinary action, for such reliance if the applicable portions of the form are completed.

2. This affidavit does not confer dependency for health care coverage purposes.

SEC. 5. Sections 2.5 and 3.5 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 48204 of the Education Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2768. They shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 48204 of the Education Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2768, in which case Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative and Section 48204 of the Education Code, as amended by Section 2 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 2768, at which time Section 2.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that all minors currently living with a nonparent caregiver have unhindered access to public education and essential medical care at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 99

An act to amend Section 17151 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 6, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17151 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17151. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), Section 127 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to educational assistance programs, shall apply.

(b) (1) The provisions of Section 127(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to terminations, shall not apply.

(2) The provisions of Section 127 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to educational assistance programs, shall not apply to any taxable year (or portion thereof) that those provisions (or similar provisions) are not applicable for federal income tax purposes.

CHAPTER 100

An act to amend Section 180 of, and to add Section 180.7 to, the Streets and Highways Code, relating to highways.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 6, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 180 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

180. (a) For the purposes of this article, "project" means any activity of seismic retrofit work that includes either of the following:

(1) The structural modification of an existing highway structure that does not increase the number of mixed-flow lanes.

(2) The replacement of an existing highway structure by a newly constructed structure meeting seismic safety requirements that does not increase the number of mixed-flow lanes.

(b) For the purpose of this article:

(1) "Permit" includes any permit, authorization, approval, or consent in any form.

(2) "Permitting agency" includes any city, county, city and county, and any state or local public agency.

SEC. 2. Section 180.7 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

180.7. This article shall remain in effect only until March 15, 1997, and shall have no force or effect on or after that date, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before March 15, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 101

An act to amend Section 4420 of the Government Code, relating to public works, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 6, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4420 of the Government Code is amended to read:

4420. (a) No officer or employee of this state, or of any public agency or of any public authority, and no person acting or purporting to act on behalf of any officer, employee, or public agency or authority, except a public agency or authority created pursuant to agreement or compact with another state, shall, with respect to any public building or construction contract which is about to be or which has been competitively bid, require the bidder to make application to, or furnish financial data to, or to obtain or procure any surety bond or contract of insurance specified in connection with the contract, or specified by any law, ordinance, or regulation, from, a particular surety or insurance company, agent, or broker.

(b) No officer or employee, or person, firm, or corporation acting or purporting to act on behalf of any officer or employee, shall negotiate, make application for, obtain, or procure any such surety bond or contract of insurance (except contracts of insurance for builder's risk or owner's protective liability) which can be obtained or procured by the bidder, contractor, or subcontractor.

(c) Subdivision (b) shall not apply to the construction of any exclusive public mass transit guideway project in any county with a population exceeding 6,000,000, or in the County of Santa Clara or the City and County of San Francisco, to any exclusive public mass transit guideway project undertaken by either the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District or the Sacramento Regional Transit District, to any airport expansion project undertaken at the San Francisco International Airport, to any water, wastewater, or reclamation project undertaken by a public agency serving a population exceeding 250,000, to any exclusive public water storage or conveyance facility undertaken by a metropolitan water district that was organized under the Metropolitan Water District Act, Chapter 209 of the Statutes of 1969, as amended, to any county medical center within San Bernardino County or Riverside County, to any construction project undertaken by the Harbor Department of the City of Los Angeles, to any construction or renovation project undertaken by the Foothill/Eastern or San Joaquin Hills Transportation Corridor Agencies in Orange County, or to construction or renovation of additions to any county medical center located within Santa Clara County.

(d) As used in this section, "public agency" means any city, county, city and county, district, municipal or public corporation, or any agency or instrumentality thereof.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that due to unique circumstances concerning the Foothill/Eastern and San Joaquin Hills Transportation Corridor Agencies in Orange County and unique circumstances concerning the county medical center in Santa Clara County, a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Unless this act is adopted immediately, ongoing construction and projects imminently commencing may be delayed or aborted thereby potentially increasing costs to public agencies in Orange County.

CHAPTER 102

An act relating to elections, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 6, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 6, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The sum of eight million five hundred thirty-eight thousand dollars ($8,538,000) is hereby appropriated in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) Three million seven hundred thirty-eight thousand dollars ($3,738,000) for expenditure in the 1993-94 fiscal year in augmentation of Item 0890-001-001 of the Budget Act of 1993 for the purpose of covering expenses incurred by the Secretary of State's office related to the special statewide election held November 2, 1993.

(2) The amount appropriated is scheduled with Item 0890-001-001 of the Budget Act of 1993 as follows:

(A) Personal Services—ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(B) Operating Expenses and Equipment—one hundred sixty thousand dollars ($160,000).

(C) Special Items of Expense—three million five hundred sixty-eight thousand dollars ($3,568,000).

(b) The sum of four million eight hundred thousand dollars ($4,800,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Board of Control to reimburse counties for the state's share of special elections' costs, as required by Chapter 39 of the Statutes of 1993. This amount is based on and reimbursement shall be provided at a maximum rate of up to one dollar and twenty-nine cents ($1.29) per registered voter or the actual amount claimed, on or before May 4, 1994, with the State Board of Control for nonconsolidated elections, whichever is less, and a maximum rate of up to sixty-one cents ($0.61) per registered voter or the actual amount claimed, on or before May 4, 1994, with the State Board of Control for consolidated elections, whichever is less.

(c) The State Board of Control may approve claims of counties in which fewer than 20,000 registered voters were eligible to participate in a special election in amounts greater than the maximums specified in subdivision (a).

(d) The State Board of Control shall pay all expenses, authorized and necessarily incurred in the preparation for and conduct of elections proclaimed by the Governor to fill a vacancy in the office of Senator or Member of the Assembly, or to fill a vacancy in the office of United States Senator or Representative in the United States House of Representatives. If an election proclaimed by the Governor to fill a vacancy in an office specified in this subdivision is consolidated with any other local election, the State Board of Control shall only pay those additional expenses directly related to the election proclaimed by the Governor to fill a vacancy in that office.

(e) The funds appropriated in this act may only be used to pay claims received by the State Board of Control prior to May 4, 1994. Claims received after that date will be eligible for funding in subsequent legislation.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The Secretary of State's budget contains funding authority to support one statewide election per fiscal year. There was a special statewide election held in November 1993. In order for the Secretary of State's office to carry out its constitutional mandate to produce and distribute the state ballot pamphlet for the regularly scheduled statewide primary election in June 1994, its appropriation must be augmented immediately to cover the costs expended by that office for the November 1993 special statewide election. In addition, Chapter 39 of the Statutes of 1993, requires the state to reimburse counties for special elections called to fill a vacancy in the Congress or the Legislature and 10 such elections were conducted through December 28, 1993, with the costs thereof having been borne to date by the affected counties. It is therefore necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 103

An act to amend Sections 15373.2 and 15373.71 of the Government Code, relating to rural economic development, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 16, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 16, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15373.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.2. (a) In order to carry out this chapter, there is hereby created in the State Treasury the Rural Economic Development Fund.

(b) The fund shall receive state funds appropriated to it, repayment of loans and interest on those loans pursuant to this chapter, interest which accrues to the moneys in the fund pursuant to subdivision (c), fees or charges pursuant to subdivision (d), and penalties prescribed by the panel.

(c) (1) The Treasurer shall invest moneys contained in the fund not needed to meet current obligations in the same manner as other public funds are invested. The moneys resulting from this investment shall be used to support the three rural small business assistance and development centers previously established through the department and the Employment Development Department. The department shall grant these interest moneys to the centers upon request to provide for the continued operation of the centers.

(2) If sufficient interest moneys are not available at a time when the centers require additional funds, the department shall lend the centers necessary funds from the Rural Economic Development Fund, if the expected interest earnings from the fund will repay the loans. Funds received under this subdivision shall not be considered when the department reviews and approves applications pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 15397.3). Each center shall receive a maximum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) each fiscal year.

(3) Interest earnings in excess of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) per fiscal year shall be available for expenditure by the department pursuant to this chapter. The expenditures of these interest earnings in excess of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) shall include the costs associated with the provision of ongoing legal counsel to the Infrastructure Review Panel, created pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 15373.6) and reimbursement of expenses incurred by designated panel members while in the conduct of official panel business. The interest earnings in excess of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) may also be used by the department for administrative support and local assistance costs of activities consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(4) In addition to centers specified in paragraph (1), centers which are located in a county subject to this chapter may also be funded from interest earnings in an amount not to exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) annually for all additional centers, if there are sufficient funds available after support is provided for the three existing rural centers, and after the funding of other priorities established by this chapter.

(5) If sufficient interest earnings are available after support is provided to centers specified in paragraphs (1) and (4), and to other priorities established by this chapter, an amount not to exceed seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) annually may be used for support of the California Main Street Program (Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 15399)). Services rendered as a result of this increased support shall be targeted for Main Street Demonstration and Self-Initiated Cities in counties subject to this chapter.

(d) In order to defray costs to the agency for administration of Article 5 (commencing with Section 15373.6), the agency may impose reasonable charges on all applications, and approved loans. The agency may use these fees or other charges for those costs necessary to protect the state's position as a lender-creditor. These costs include, but are not limited to, foreclosure expenses, auction fees, title searches, appraisals, real estate brokerage fees, removal and storage for repossessed equipment and inventory, and additional expenditures to purchase a senior lien in foreclosure or bankruptcy proceedings.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 13340, all moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to, and shall remain available for expenditure by, the agency for the purposes of this chapter.

(f) Unless deemed appropriate by the local agency, no money in the fund shall be used in lieu of any existing state infrastructure financing program, including, but not limited to, the State Transportation Improvement Program or the Clean Water Bond Program.

(g) Proceeds of any bond or other obligation issued pursuant to the authority contained in this chapter may be deposited with a trustee. In the event that security for a bond includes any partially disbursed Rural Economic Development Infrastructure Program loan, the agency shall be authorized to transfer the encumbered funds to the trustee for disbursement.

(h) Interest earned on any funds collected pursuant to subdivision (g) may be deposited into the Rural Economic Development Fund and expended for support or loans in an amount not to exceed two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) in the 1994-95 fiscal year. Funding in subsequent years shall be subject to appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 2. Section 15373.71 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.71. (a) The agency may issue its bonds through the panel, from time to time, in the principal amount that the agency determines is necessary to provide sufficient funds for the purposes specified in this article and for establishment of reserves to secure the bonds and other expenditures of the agency incident to, and necessary or convenient to, issuance of the bonds.

(b) The aggregate principal amount of bonds that may be outstanding at any time pursuant to this section shall not exceed the aggregate principal amount of obligations outstanding pursuant to this article exclusive of bonds issued to refund previously issued bonds of the agency.

(c) Every issue of bonds shall be revenue obligations of the agency payable only out of moneys in the fund, or held pursuant to a trust agreement, subject only to any agreements with the holders of particular bonds pledging any particular assets, revenues, or moneys.

(d) Any bonds issued under this article may be secured by a trust agreement, indenture, or resolution by and between the agency and a trustee, which shall be a bank or trust company chartered under the laws of this state or of the United States.

(e) The bonds shall be authorized by resolution or resolutions of the panel, shall be in the form, shall bear date or dates, and shall mature at the time or times as the resolution or resolutions may provide, except that no bond shall mature more than 50 years from the date of its issue. The bonds shall bear interest at the rate or rates, be in the denominations, be in the form, be executed in the manner, be payable in the medium of payment at the place or places within or without the state, be subject to the terms of redemption and contain the terms and conditions as the resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds of the agency shall be sold at public or private sale by the Treasurer at, above, or below the par value, on the terms and conditions and for the consideration as the agency shall determine by resolution prior to the sale.

(f) Whenever the agency deems that it will increase the salability or the price of the bonds to obtain, prior to or after sale, a legal opinion, other than that of the Attorney General, as to the validity of the bonds, or as to the exclusion of interest on the bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes, the agency may obtain a legal opinion, including authorizing the Treasurer to obtain a legal opinion. Payment for the legal services may be made out of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds.

(g) The agency may employ financial consultants, advisers, and accountants as may be necessary in its judgment in connection with the issuance and sale of any bonds of the agency. Payment for these services may be made out of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds.

(h) Notwithstanding Section 13340, if the bond is payable from a fund, amounts necessary to pay debt service for any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this part are hereby appropriated without regard to fiscal years from the fund.

(i) Section 10295 and Sections 10335 to 10382, inclusive, of the Public Contract Code shall not apply to agreements entered into by the agency or the Treasurer in connection with the sale of bonds or notes authorized under this part.

(j) The bonds issued under this article shall be special obligations of the agency secured solely by the revenues received from the loans made pursuant to this article. No bond issued or sold pursuant to this article shall be or become a lien, charge, or liability against the State of California or against its property or funds except to the extent of the pledges expressly made by this article. Every bond issued pursuant to this article shall contain a recital on the face thereof stating that neither the payment of the principal nor any part thereof, nor any interest thereon, constitutes a debt, liability, or general obligation of the State of California other than as provided in this article. The agency has no power at any time or in any manner to pledge the credit or taxing power of the state or any of its local agencies, other than as provided in this article.

(k) Bonds issued pursuant to this article are a legal investment for any state special or trust fund notwithstanding any provision of law limiting the investments that may be made by the special or trust fund. The bonds of the agency shall be legal investments in which all public officers and public bodies of the state, its political subdivisions, all municipalities and municipal subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, savings and loan associations, savings banks and savings associations, investment companies, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, and all other persons authorized to invest in bonds or in other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest funds, including capital, in their control or belonging to them. The bonds may be used as security for public deposits. The bonds are also securities that may properly and legally be deposited with and received by all public officers and bodies of the state or any agency or political subdivision of the state and all municipalities and public corporations for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the state is authorized by law, including deposits to secured public funds.

(l) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, this article provides a complete, separate, additional, and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized by this article, including the authority of local agencies to have borrowed and to borrow in the future in accordance herewith, and is supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that the Rural Economic Development

Infrastructure Program loan program may continue to provide assistance to California's rural communities, it is essential that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 104

An act to add Chapter 30.5 (commencing with Section 7594.5) to Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, relating to blind and visually impaired people.

[Approved by Governor June 16, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 16, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 30.5 (commencing with Section 7594.5) is added to Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 30.5. BRAILLE WEEK

7594.5. The first week in January, commencing in 1995, is hereby designated as Braille Literacy Week. The purpose of California's Braille Literacy Week shall be to heighten citizen awareness of the great importance of braille and the great need to continue to provide braille reading materials for blind and visually impaired persons. The Governor and the Legislature shall annually issue proclamations and resolutions as they deem appropriate drawing public attention to this week in order to encourage the private sector and state and local agencies to initiate activities recognizing blind and visually impaired persons.

CHAPTER 105

An act to amend Section 7375 of the Labor Code, relating to occupational safety and health.

[Approved by Governor June 16, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 16, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7375 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

7375. (a) The division shall promulgate regulations for the certification of all cranes and derricks used in lifting service, exceeding three tons rated capacity. Tower cranes shall be certified annually and whenever they are erected on a new site.

(b) These regulations shall specify the procedure for licensing the certificating agencies or agents to conduct certification inspections, and shall establish specific criteria for licensure as a certifier, including a written examination. However, the division may waive the written examination for renewal of a certifier's license if the applicant has passed the written certification examination on or after January 1, 1992, is currently licensed at the time of application, and has been actively engaged in certifying cranes and derricks for the five preceding years.

(c) No individual may certify a crane in which the individual or his or her employer has a direct or indirect financial interest, nor may an individual certify equipment that belongs to his or her employer. An individual may not certify equipment or devices that it has manufactured or help manufacture, if the equipment is owned by his or her employer. However, this subdivision shall not prohibit the licensure of certifiers who are employed by insurance carriers who insure the specific crane.

(d) The certificating agency shall attest that it tested or examined the device or equipment and found it to meet the requirements of the division.

(e) The certificating agency shall notify the division of any deficiencies found during the crane certification inspection. A certificate shall not be issued until all deficiencies are corrected.

CHAPTER 106

An act to amend Section 26661 of the Food and Agricultural Code, and to amend Section 26575 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to poultry, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 16, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 16, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature declares its continuing concern for the quality of poultry offered for sale to consumers within California and for the health, safety, and welfare of consumers of poultry. It is a fact that poultry whose internal temperature is below 26 degrees Fahrenheit becomes solidified to an extent that the ordinary consumer would consider it to have been frozen. It is also a fact that many poultry producers freeze poultry below 26 degrees Fahrenheit, and then thaw the poultry for sale to California consumers as "fresh." The Legislature declares its concern that these practices are misleading and deceptive. Poultry consumers have no way of knowing whether poultry they purchase, which is marketed as "fresh," has, in fact, been previously frozen and thawed. Section 26661 of the Food and Agricultural Code was enacted to protect consumers from misleading claims that previously frozen poultry is "fresh." In addition to amending Section 26661 by this act, it is the intent of the Legislature, in amending Section 26575 of the Health and Safety Code, to clarify its intent to supersede that section with respect to the use of the term "fresh" in connection with poultry products.

SEC. 2. Section 26661 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

26661. (a) (1) No person who processes, butchers, slaughters, packs, repacks, or sells poultry or poultry meat shall advertise, hold out, distribute, or sell as "fresh" any poultry or poultry meat whose internal temperature has been below 26 degrees Fahrenheit.

(2) No person who processes, butchers, slaughters, packs, repacks, or sells poultry or poultry meat shall label as "fresh" any poultry or poultry meat whose internal temperature has been below 26 degrees Fahrenheit.

(3) No poultry or poultry meat that is distributed or sold as "fresh" shall be stored or handled in such a manner that it reaches an internal temperature below 26 degrees Fahrenheit.

(4) No person who processes, butchers, slaughters, packs, repacks, or sells poultry or poultry meat may sell or distribute poultry or poultry meat if it is adulterated, misbranded, or if its labeling is false or misleading in any particular.

(b) No poultry retailer is guilty of a violation of subdivision (a) or of the regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (c) unless the poultry retailer engages, with actual knowledge, in an act prohibited by subdivision (a).

(c) The secretary may adopt regulations reasonably necessary for carrying out this section, and those regulations shall be, insofar as possible, consistent with regulations adopted by the United States Department of Agriculture.

(d) Each prohibition in subdivision (a) stands alone and if any prohibition in subdivision (a) has been held, or in the future is held, to be unconstitutional, preempted by federal law, or otherwise invalid by any court, all of the other prohibitions set forth in subdivision (a) are intended to, and shall remain, fully effective and shall be interpreted to exclude the unconstitutional, preempted, or otherwise invalid prohibition or prohibitions. If any sentence, clause, word, or portion of this section is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, preempted by federal law, or otherwise invalid, that holding shall not affect the remaining portions of this section. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have enacted this section and each sentence, clause, word, or portion thereof despite the fact that one or more sentences, clauses, words, or portions of this section may be held unconstitutional, preempted by federal law, or otherwise invalid.

SEC. 3. Section 26575 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26575. (a) No retail food production and marketing establishment shall advertise, label, or otherwise hold out as fresh any meat or fish that has been previously frozen.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Frozen" means any meat or fish stored in a room or compartment in which the temperature is plus five degrees Fahrenheit or lower.

(2) "Retail food production and marketing establishment" means any room, building, or place, or portion thereof, maintained, used, or operated for, or in conjunction with, the retail sale of food, or preparation of food. "Retail food production and marketing establishment" does not include any food facility, such as any "mobile food preparation unit" any "vehicle," and any "vending machine" as defined in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 27500) of Division 22; any wholesale food manufacturing, distributing, or storage establishment, including, but not limited to, the licensed premises or branch office of any winegrower, any brandy manufacturer, or any wine blender, subject to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 28280) of Division 22; any frozen food locker plant subject to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 28700) of Division 22; any health facility subject to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2; any community care facility subject to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2; or any "official establishment" subject to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18650) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(c) On and after the effective date of the act that added this subdivision to this section during the 1993-94 Regular Session, Section 26661 of the Food and Agricultural Code shall apply, to the exclusion of any provision of this section, with respect to the advertising, labeling, or otherwise holding out, of poultry.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to protect consumers in California from fraud and to address concerns raised by the federal courts in pending litigation relating to an important consumer protection law enacted by the state last year at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 107

An act to add Section 340.7 to the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to limitation of actions.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 340.7 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

340.7. Notwithstanding subdivision (3) of Section 340, any civil action brought by, or on behalf of, any Dalkon Shield victim against the Dalkon Shield Claimants' Trust, shall be brought in accordance with the procedures established by A. H. Robins Company, Inc. Plan of Reorganization, and shall be brought within 15 years of the date on which the victim's injury occurred, except that the statute shall be tolled from August 21, 1985, the date on which the A. H. Robins Company filed for Chapter 11 Reorganization in Richmond, Virginia.

This section applies regardless of when any such action or claim shall have accrued or been filed and regardless of whether it might have lapsed or otherwise be barred by time under California law. However, this section shall only apply to victims who, prior to January 1, 1990, filed a civil action, a timely claim, or a claim which is declared to be timely under the sixth Amended and Restated Disclosure Statement filed pursuant to Section 1125 of the Federal Bankruptcy Code in re: A.H. Robins Company Inc., dated March 28, 1988, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Eastern District of Virginia, (Case number 85-01307-R).

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the unique and extraordinary circumstances surrounding the Dalkon Shield and the bankruptcy of A.H. Robins Co., Inc. warrants the enactment of Section 340.7 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Because of the unique and extraordinary circumstances involving the Dalkon Shield, it is the intent of the Legislature that enactment of Section 340.7 of the Code of Civil Procedure not be considered precedent for the enactment of similar legislation.

CHAPTER 108

An act to amend Sections 52616.4, 52616.16, 52616.18, 52616.19, and 62000.11 of the Education Code, relating to adult education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 52616.4 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52616.4. (a) Money in the Adult Education Fund of a school district may be expended only for the following charges:

(1) Direct instructional costs relating directly to the adult education program, including, but not limited to, the salaries and benefits of adult education teachers and aides, textbooks, instructional supplies, travel and conference expenses for employees who work in the adult education program, and repair, maintenance, acquisition, and replacement of instructional equipment used in the adult education program.

(2) Direct support costs for the adult education program. For the purposes of this section "direct support costs" means:

(A) Instructional administration and instructional media costs that are supported by auditable documentation. For purposes of this paragraph, instructional administration costs include the documented costs of individuals who, regardless of specific job title, administer the district's adult education program.

(B) School administration and pupil services costs that are supported by auditable documentation and that represent the activities of individuals whose employment by the school district is exclusively in support of the adult education program, or school administration and pupil services costs that are supported by auditable documentation and that meet all of the following conditions:

(i) Those costs are able to be identified in a separate contract with the adult education program.

(ii) The administration and services are provided exclusively to adult students and only for the period identified in the contract made pursuant to clause (i).

(iii) The services are provided during a time that is different than when services to pupils in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, are provided, and the administration is provided after 4:00 p.m.

(iv) The persons who provide the services and administration to adult students report to the adult education director during the period of the contract made pursuant to clause (i).

(v) The person providing the administration immediately supervises the adult school personnel.

(C) Plant maintenance and operations costs, including costs for facilities that are used to provide child care services to the children of the students attending the adult education program at a particular site as follows:

(i) For facilities that exclusively house adult education programs, the costs that are supported by auditable documentation. For purposes of this subparagraph, a facility that houses an adult education program and a regional occupational center or program or a child care program, or both, is a facility that exclusively houses an adult education program.

(ii) For facilities that are used by more than one program, including the adult education program, a district may charge the Adult Education Fund for an amount attributable to the adult education program, but this charge shall not exceed the amount derived from the following calculation:

(I) Calculate, according to the general description in the California School Accounting Manual, the prorated number of classroom units that the adult education program uses for instructional and child care purposes.

(II) Calculate the total number of classroom units in the district.

(III) Divide the amount calculated in (I) by the amount calculated in (II).

(IV) Multiply the quotient calculated in (III) by the district's total plant maintenance and operations costs.

(D) Facilities costs for nondistrict-owned facilities that exclusively house adult education programs, including, but not limited to, costs of facilities that are used to provide child care services to the children of the students attending the adult education program at the same site. For purposes of this paragraph, a facility that houses an adult education program and a regional occupational center or program or a child care program, or both, is a facility that exclusively houses an adult education program.

(E) Facilities costs for the acquisition of facilities originally acquired by adult education programs, or for the restoration of those facilities, including costs for debt service for the acquisition or restoration of a facility, including the costs of facilities that are used to provide child care services to the children of the students attending the adult education program at the same site.

For the purposes of this paragraph "auditable documentation" means time reports and other contemporaneous records that establish the time that individual employees spend working for the adult education program, and the documentation that supports nonpersonnel costs substantiating that the adult education program received the service, supply, or equipment. That documentation shall comply with the documentation requirements set forth in the California School Accounting Manual published pursuant to Section 41010.

(3) Indirect costs of the adult education program. For the purposes of this paragraph, "indirect costs" means the lesser of the school district's prior year indirect cost rate as approved by the State Department of Education or the statewide average indirect cost rate for the second prior fiscal year.

(4) As an alternative to charging the costs in both paragraphs (2) and (3) to the adult education program, a school district may transfer not more than 8 percent of the annual revenue deposited in the district's Adult Education Fund to the district's general fund for expenditures the district incurs in operating its adult education program.

(b) If the State Department of Education and the Department of Finance concur that a school district has violated this section, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall direct that school district to transfer double the amount improperly transferred to the district's general fund from that fund to the district's Adult Education Fund for the subsequent fiscal year, which amount shall be used for the improvement of the district's adult education program. If the school district fails to make that transfer as directed, the superintendent shall reduce the school district's regular apportionment determined pursuant to Section 42238 and increase the district's adult block entitlement determined pursuant to Section 52616 by that amount, which amount shall be used for improvement of the district's adult education program.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section that responsible school district officials be held fully accountable for the accounting and reporting of adult education programs and that minor and inadvertent instances of noncompliance be resolved in a fair and equitable manner to the satisfaction of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Department of Finance.

(d) The Superintendent of Public Instruction, with the approval of the Department of Finance, may waive up to the full transfer amount in subdivision (b) if he or she determines that the noncompliance involved is minor or inadvertent, or both.

SEC. 2. Section 52616.16 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52616.16. (a) For the 1993-94 fiscal year, each school district's adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall be determined as follows:

(1) (A) Add the total apportionment the school district received for the 1991-92 fiscal year for its adult education program and the portion of its state apportionment that represents the funding for those secondary school pupils concurrently enrolled in adult education.

(B) Add the school district's average daily attendance funded for the annual apportionment for the 1991-92 fiscal year for adult education and the portion of the district's funded regular average daily attendance for secondary school pupils concurrently enrolled in adult education.

(C) Divide subparagraph (A) by subparagraph (B) to determine the school district's adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance.

(2) (A) For a school district offering adult education courses and classes pursuant to Section 41976.2, multiply the funded average daily attendance for the second principal apportionment made in the 1991-92 fiscal year for independent study pupils 21 years of age or older and pupils 19 years of age or older who have not been continuously enrolled in kindergarten or any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, since their 18th birthday, as calculated pursuant to Section 46300.1, as that section read on January 1, 1992, by the statewide average funded adult education revenue limit for the 1992-93 fiscal year. This amount shall be added to the amount calculated pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

(B) Determine the funded average daily attendance made in the second principal apportionment for the 1991-92 fiscal year for independent study pupils 21 years of age or older and pupils 19 years of age or older who have not been continuously enrolled in kindergarten or any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, since their 18th birthday, as calculated pursuant to Section 46300.1, as that section read on January 1, 1992. This amount shall be added to the amount calculated pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

(3) If the amount determined in paragraph (1) is between one thousand seven hundred seventy-five dollars ($1,775) and two thousand fifty dollars ($2,050), that amount shall be the district's adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the 1993-94 fiscal year.

(4) If the amount determined in paragraph (1) is greater than two thousand fifty dollars ($2,050), the difference between that amount and two thousand fifty dollars ($2,050) shall be multiplied by 0.67 and that product shall be added to two thousand fifty dollars ($2,050). That amount shall be the district's adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the 1993-94 fiscal year.

(5) If the amount determined in paragraph (1) is less than one thousand seven hundred seventy-five dollars ($1,775), the difference between that amount and one thousand seven hundred seventy-five dollars ($1,775) shall be multiplied by .67 and that product shall be subtracted from one thousand seven hundred seventy-five dollars ($1,775). That amount shall be the district's adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the 1993-94 fiscal year.

(6) Any school district that establishes a new adult education program and receives a state apportionment for adult education on or after July 1, 1993, shall have an adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance equal to the statewide average adult education revenue limit for the 1993-94 fiscal year.

(b) For the 1994-95 fiscal year, each school district's adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall be determined as follows:

(1) (A) Add the total apportionment the school district received for the 1991-92 fiscal year for its adult education program and the portion of its state apportionment that represents the funding for those secondary school pupils concurrently enrolled in adult education.

(B) Add the school district's average daily attendance funded for the annual apportionment for the 1991-92 fiscal year for adult education and the portion of the district's funded regular average daily attendance for secondary school pupils concurrently enrolled in adult education.

(C) Divide subparagraph (A) by subparagraph (B) to determine the school district's adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance.

(2) (A) For a school district offering adult education courses and classes pursuant to Section 41976.2, multiply the funded average daily attendance for the second principal apportionment made in the 1991-92 fiscal year for independent study pupils 21 years of age or older and pupils 19 years of age or older who have not been continuously enrolled in kindergarten or any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, since their 18th birthday, as calculated pursuant to Section 46300.1, as that section read on January 1, 1992, by the statewide average funded adult education revenue limit for the 1992-93 fiscal year. This amount shall be added to the amount calculated pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

(B) Determine the funded average daily attendance for the second principal apportionment made in the 1991-92 fiscal year for independent study pupils 21 years of age or older and pupils 19 years of age or older who have not been continuously enrolled in kindergarten or any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, since their 18th birthday, as calculated pursuant to Section 46300.1, as that section read on January 1, 1992. This amount shall be added to the amount calculated pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

(3) If the amount determined in paragraph (1) is between one thousand seven hundred seventy-five dollars ($1,775) and two thousand fifty dollars ($2,050), that amount shall be the district's adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the 1994-95 fiscal year.

(4) If the amount determined in paragraph (1) is greater than two thousand fifty dollars ($2,050), the difference between that amount and two thousand fifty dollars ($2,050) shall be multiplied by 0.33 and that product shall be added to two thousand fifty dollars ($2,050). That amount shall be the district's adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the 1994-95 fiscal year.

(5) If the amount determined in paragraph (1) is less than one thousand seven hundred seventy-five dollars ($1,775), the difference between that amount and one thousand seven hundred seventy-five dollars ($1,775) shall be multiplied by .34 and that product shall be subtracted from one thousand seven hundred seventy-five dollars ($1,775). That amount shall be the district's adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the 1994-95 fiscal year.

(6) Any school district that establishes a new adult education program and receives a state apportionment for adult education on or after July 1, 1993, shall have an adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance that is equal to the statewide average adult education revenue limit for the 1994-95 fiscal year.

(c) For the 1995-96 fiscal year the adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall be one of the following:

(1) The amount determined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(2) Two thousand fifty dollars ($2,050) for any district that had a 1993-94 fiscal year adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance determined pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (a).

(3) One thousand seven hundred seventy-five dollars ($1,775) for any district that had a 1993-94 fiscal year adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance determined pursuant to paragraph (5) or paragraph (6) of subdivision (a).

(d) Commencing July 1, 1996, an inflation adjustment shall be calculated for each district so that over time the adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall be the same for all districts. A school district's adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall be the district's prior fiscal year's adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance increased by a dollar amount calculated as follows:

(1) Determine the dollar amount by multiplying the statewide average funded adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the prior fiscal year by the inflation adjustment used to increase revenue limits for unified school districts pursuant to Section 42238.1.

(2) Determine a factor as follows:

(A) Multiply the highest funded adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance in the state for the prior fiscal year by 1.02.

(B) Divide the amount determined in subparagraph (A) by the funded adult education revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance of the school district for the prior fiscal year.

(C) If the number determined in subparagraph (B) is greater than 1.10, that result shall be reduced to 1.10. If the number determined in subparagraph (B) is less than 1.02, that result shall be increased to 1.02.

(D) Subtract 1.0 from the number determined in subparagraph (C).

(E) Divide the number determined in subparagraph (D) by the inflation adjustment used to increase revenue limits for a unified school district pursuant to Section 42238.1.

(3) Multiply the dollar amount determined in paragraph (1) by the factor determined in paragraph (2).

(4) Add the amount determined in paragraph (3) to the funded adult revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance of the school district for the prior fiscal year. In no case shall any revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance be increased above the amount calculated in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2).

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall reallocate any amounts calculated for a district in excess of the amount calculated in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) to augment the inflation adjustments of other districts.

If the amount of funds needed to provide inflation adjustments calculated pursuant to this subdivision exceeds the amount appropriated in the annual Budget Act for adult education program inflation adjustments, the superintendent shall prorate the amounts calculated pursuant to this subdivision.

(e) When each district's adult education revenue per unit of average daily attendance is the same, each district, notwithstanding paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (d), shall receive the same inflation adjustment calculated pursuant to the inflation adjustment used to increase revenue limits for unified school districts pursuant to Section 42238.1.

(f) If there is an average daily attendance audit adjustment for any of the 1990-91, 1991-92, or 1992-93 fiscal years, for purposes of calculating the district's adjusted adult education revenue limit pursuant to this section, the superintendent, with the approval of the Department of Finance, may waive the average daily attendance audit adjustment if the superintendent determines that the audit exception was minor or inadvertent, or both.

SEC. 3. Section 52616.18 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52616.18. (a) Commencing July 1, 1993, and each fiscal year thereafter, notwithstanding that a school district was not authorized to operate an adult education program pursuant to Section 41976, any school district may apply to the State Department of Education for initial program approval and funding to begin any adult education programs specified in Section 41976 provided the district meets the following criteria:

(1) The district did not operate nor claim state apportionment for an adult education program in the prior fiscal year.

(2) The district enters into a written delineation of function agreement pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 8500) of Part 6 for the fiscal year for which initial funding is authorized between the applicant school district and the community college district in the same geographical area.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction may approve the program and state apportionment funding on the basis of the school district's documented need for adult education programs. The superintendent shall issue a program advisory that sets forth the criteria of need that a district is required to document.

(b) Any school district that receives state funding under this section shall ensure that priority for program service is given to persons applying for the district's adult education programs authorized by subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) of Section 41976.

(c) School districts that maintain a current delineation of function agreement with a community college district pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 8500) of Part 6 are authorized to divide the responsibility for offering courses pursuant to Section 41976 by mutual agreement of the boards of those districts.

(d) This section shall be operative to the extent that the superintendent determines that funds are available pursuant to Section 52616.19 to implement the section on or after July 1, 1993.

SEC. 4. Section 52616.19 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52616.19. (a) Commencing with the 1993-94 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, the only funding available for purposes of Sections 52616, 52616.16, 52616.17, and 52616.18 shall be the following:

(1) Funds that would have been apportioned for purposes of Section 52616, as that section read on June 30, 1993.

(2) Funds that would have been apportioned for purposes of concurrently enrolled average daily attendance pursuant to Section 42238.5, as that section read on June 30, 1993.

(3) Funds that would have been available for purposes of adult elementary and secondary independent study average daily attendance pursuant to Section 46300.1, as that section read on June 30, 1993.

(b) In the 1993-94 fiscal year, up to four million two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($4,250,000) shall be available for the start up of new adult education programs pursuant to Section 52616.18. In the 1994-95 fiscal year, up to eight million five hundred thousand dollars ($8,500,000) shall be available for the startup of new adult education programs and the continuation of programs started and funded in the 1993-94 fiscal year. Four million two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($4,250,000) of that amount shall only be available for new adult education programs if there is no deficit applied pursuant to subdivision (c). It is the intent of the Legislature that, commencing in the 1995-96 fiscal year, those adult education programs started and funded in the 1993-94 and 1994-95 fiscal years shall continue to be funded.

(c) If the funds available pursuant to subdivision (a) are not sufficient to fully fund Sections 52616, 52616.16, 52616.17, and 52616.18, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall reduce the adult education apportionment for each district that received funding pursuant to Section 52616.16.

(d) If the funds available pursuant to subdivision (a) exceed the amount needed to fund Sections 52616, 52616.16, 52616.17, and 52616.18, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall use any excess funds for the purposes of Section 52616.23.

SEC. 5. Section 62000.11 of the Education Code is amended to read:

62000.11. The adult education program shall sunset on June 30, 1997.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to avoid the sunset of the adult education program, pursuant to existing statutory law, and to make certain essential changes in adult education related financing, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 109

An act to amend Sections 5371.4 and 5387 of, and to add Sections 5385.6, 5386.1, 5387.5, and 5392.5 to, the Public Utilities Code, and to add Sections 5011.5 and 5011.6 to the Vehicle Code, relating to charter-party carriers, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5371.4 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5371.4. (a) The governing body of any city, county, or city and county may not impose a fee on charter-party carriers operating limousines. However, the governing body of any city, county, or city and county may impose a business license fee on, and may adopt and enforce any reasonable rules and regulations pertaining to operations within its boundaries for, any charter-party carrier domiciled or maintaining a business office within that city, county, or city and county.

(b) The governing body of any airport may not impose vehicle safety, vehicle licensing, or insurance requirements on charter-party carriers operating limousines that are more burdensome than those imposed by the commission. However, the governing board of any airport may require a charter-party carrier operating limousines to obtain an airport permit for operating authority at the airport.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), the governing body of any airport may adopt and enforce reasonable and nondiscriminatory local airport rules, regulations, and ordinances pertaining to access, use of streets and roads, parking, traffic control, passenger transfers, trip fees, and occupancy, and the use of buildings and facilities, which are applicable to charter-party carriers operating limousines on airport property.

(d) This section does not apply to any agreement entered into pursuant to Sections 21690.5 to 21690.9, inclusive, between the governing body of an airport and charter-party carriers operating limousines.

(e) The commission shall conduct an audit and review of the annual gross revenues earned by charter-party carriers operating limousines for the purpose of ascertaining whether the imposition of additional fees based on a charter-party carrier's gross annual revenues would place an undue administrative or financial burden on the charter-party carrier industry. The commission shall report its findings to the Legislature on or before June 30, 1992.

(f) The governing body of any airport shall not impose a fee based on gross receipts of charter-party carriers operating limousines.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) to (f), inclusive, nothing in this section prohibits a city, county, city and county, or the governing body of any airport, from adopting and enforcing reasonable permit requirements, fees, rules, and regulations applicable to charter-party carriers of passengers other than those operating limousines.

(h) For the purposes of this section, "limousine" includes any luxury sedan, of either standard or extended length, with a seating capacity of not more than nine passengers including the driver, used in the transportation of passengers for hire on a prearranged basis to or from airports within this state.

SEC. 2. Section 5385.6 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5385.6. (a) No charter-party carrier shall operate a limousine as defined by subdivision (h) of Section 5371.4 unless the limousine is equipped with the special license plates issued and distributed by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to Section 5011.5 of the Vehicle Code.

(b) The commission shall issue to each charter-party carrier operating limousines a permit or certificate for the number of vehicles verified by the carrier as employed in providing limousine service. The permit or certificate shall be submitted to the Department of Motor Vehicles, which will issue to each verified vehicle a set of unique, identifying license plates. The department shall maintain a record of each set of plates it issues and provide a copy of each record to the commission.

(c) The commission shall recover from any carrier whose permit or certificate is cancelled, suspended, or revoked any and all plates issued pursuant to this section.

(d) The special license plate shall be in lieu of the decal required to be issued and displayed pursuant to Section 5385.5.

(e) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1995.

SEC. 3. Section 5386.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5386.1. Every charter-party carrier operating a limousine in every written or oral advertisement of the services it offers, shall state the number of its permit or license plate number.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1995.

SEC. 4. Section 5387 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5387. It is unlawful for the owner of a charter-party carrier of passengers to permit the operation of any vehicle upon any public highway for compensation without (1) having obtained from the commission a certificate or permit pursuant to this chapter, (2) having complied with the vehicle identification requirements of Section 5385, 5385.5, or 5385.6, and (3) having complied with the accident liability protection requirements of Section 5391.

The amendments to this section made in 1994 shall become operative on July 1, 1995.

SEC. 5. Section 5387.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5387.5. The commission shall fund the costs of administering the special identification license plate program required by Section 5385.6 of this code and Section 5011.5 of the Vehicle Code, including the costs of the Department of Motor Vehicles, from the Public Utilities Commission Transportation Reimbursement Account.

The commission shall maintain a prudent level of fund balance in the account in any future year. The commission shall consider recovering the costs of this program from the limousine operators when the fund balance is drawn below a prudent level of reserve.

SEC. 6. Section 5392.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5392.5. No person, firm, or corporation holding a valid permit issued by the commission pursuant to this chapter shall be required by any agency of local government to provide insurance in a manner different from that required by the commission.

SEC. 7. Section 5011.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

5011.5. Every limousine operated by a charter-party carrier, as defined by subdivision (h) of Section 5371.4, shall display a special identification license plate issued pursuant to Section 5385.6 of the Public Utilities Code.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1995.

SEC. 8. Section 5011.6 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

5011.6. Not later than January 1, 1995, the department and the Public Utilities Commission shall adopt a memorandum of understanding governing the exchange of information regarding vehicle registrations, and reimbursement by the commission of the department's costs in producing and distributing special identification license plates for limousines required by Section 5011.5 and Section 5385.6 of the Public Utilities Code.

SEC. 9. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the Public Utilities Commission and law enforcement authorities to address the problem of unauthorized and uninsured limousine operators who offer their services to the public as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 110

An act to amend Section 31104.1 of the Public Resources Code, and to add Section 11.52 to the Budget Act of 1993 (Chapter 55 of the Statutes of 1993), relating to coastal resources, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31104.1 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

31104.1. The conservancy shall serve as a repository for lands whose reservation is required to meet the policies and objectives of the California Coastal Act of 1976 (Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000)), a certified local coastal plan or program, or the San Francisco Bay Plan as implemented by the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to Title 7.2 (commencing with Section 66600) of the Government Code. Pursuant to that authority, the conservancy may accept dedication of fee title, easements, development rights, or other interests in lands, including interests required to provide public access to recreation and resources areas in the coastal zone.

SEC. 2. Section 11.52 is added to the Budget Act of 1993 (Chapter 55 of the Statutes of 1993), to read:

Sec. 11.52. The funds appropriated in Item 3760-301-730 (2) of the Budget Act of 1991 shall be available, pursuant to Section 5096.265, for capital outlay or local assistance without regard to the maximum amounts allocated to any element of the program specified in Section 5096.232 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to promote a system of safe and navigable waterways and to promote related commerce and trade at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 111

An act relating to the City of Hesperia, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) Notwithstanding Section 33375 or 33674 of the Health and Safety Code, any redevelopment project area formed in the City of Hesperia under the Community Redevelopment Law (Part 1 (commencing with Section 33000) of Division of 24 of the Health and Safety Code) shall be effective for the purposes of receiving the portion of taxes mentioned in subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code for the 1994-95 fiscal year if all of the following are filed with the State Board of Equalization on or before June 30, 1994:

- (1) A description of the land within the project area.
 - (2) A statement that proceedings for the redevelopment of the project area have been instituted.
 - (3) A copy of the ordinance adopting the plan for the project area.
 - (4) A map indicating the boundaries of the project area.
- (b) (1) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1994. This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be construed to deprive the Hesperia Redevelopment Agency of any substantial right that would have existed had the inoperative date and repeal not been effected.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that, because of the unique circumstances applicable to the City of Hesperia and set forth in Section 3, a statute of general applicability cannot be enacted within the meaning of subdivision (b) of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution, and the enactment of this act is therefore necessary.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Unless this act takes effect immediately, the Hesperia Redevelopment Agency will not be able to receive tax-increment allocations necessary to fund operations in its Project Area No. 1 for the 1994-95 fiscal year. These operations are necessary to provide public infrastructure improvements, the lack of which constituted a substantial basis for the adoption of the redevelopment plan for that project area.

CHAPTER 112

An act to add Sections 588 and 2112.5 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 588 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

588. (a) Notwithstanding any regulation, tariff, opinion, or interim opinion of the Public Utilities Commission, or any other provision of law, an inspector or investigator, as defined in Section 830.1 of the Penal Code, who is employed in the office of a district attorney may request and shall receive from telephone, gas, and electric public utilities customer information limited to the full name, date of birth, social security number, address, prior address, forwarding address, place of employment, and date of service instituted, terminated, or suspended by, utility customers to the extent the information is stored within the utility records and computer data bases. However, in no case shall information be released disclosing customer usage of the services provided by the utility without a court order or subpoena.

(b) In order to protect the privacy interest of utility customers, a request to a public utility for customer information pursuant to this section shall meet the following requirements:

(1) The requested information is relevant and material to an investigation pursuant to Sections 3130, 3131, 3132, 3133, and 3134 of the Family Code concerning the kidnapping, abduction, concealment, detention, or retention of a minor child and that the inspector or investigator requesting the information has a reasonable, good faith belief that the utility customer information is needed to assist the inspector or investigator in the location or recovery of a minor child or abductor, coconspirator or aider and abettor of the continuing crime of child abduction or concealment.

(2) Only inspectors and investigators as defined in Section 830.1 of the Penal Code, who are employed in the office of a district attorney whose names have been submitted to the utility in writing by a district attorney's office, may request and receive customer and customer service information pursuant to this section. Each district attorney's office shall ensure that each public utility has at all times a current list of the names of inspectors and investigators authorized to request and receive customer and customer service information. Each district attorney's office shall immediately notify the utility in writing and withdraw the names of inspectors and investigators from the authorized list who no longer have a need for the access.

(3) This section does not authorize inspectors and investigators to obtain any utility customer information, other than that authorized by this section, without proper service of process as required by law.

(4) The district attorney's office requesting and receiving utility information shall ensure its confidentiality. At no time shall any information obtained pursuant to this section be disclosed or used for any purpose other than to assist in the location or recovery of a person or persons specified in paragraph (1).

(5) The inspector or investigator requesting utility information authorized for release by this section shall make a record on a form created and maintained by the district attorney's office, which shall include the name of the utility customer about whom the inquiry was made, the name of the inspector or investigator making the inquiry, the date of inquiry, the name of the utility, the utility employee to whom the request was made, and the information that was requested and received.

(6) The inspector or investigator requesting information pursuant to this section shall prepare and sign, under penalty of perjury, a written affidavit of probable cause, which shall be contained on a form created by the Attorney General's office in consultation with telephone, gas, and electric utilities. The form shall be retained by the utility for a period of one year and shall contain a statement of all the facts known to the inspector or investigator that support the existence of all of the requirements of this section. The affidavit shall also contain a statement of exigent circumstances, explaining why the inspector or investigator could not seek and obtain a search warrant, court order, or other court process for the production of the information sought.

(c) No public utility, or official or employee thereof, shall be subject to criminal or civil liability for the release of customer information in reasonable reliance on an affidavit appearing on its face to be valid, and which was submitted by a person whose name appears on the current authorization list, as required in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b). However, any person who willfully violates any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor, pursuant to Section 2112.5.

(d) The utility receiving the request for customer information may charge the requesting district attorney's office a reasonable fee for the search and release of the requested information and for the storage of the required forms.

SEC. 2. Section 2112.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

2112.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person who willfully violates the provisions of Section 588 is guilty of a misdemeanor, subject to a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars ($500), nor more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), for each offense.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 113

An act relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Cerritos Community College District desires to continue using, until construction is completed of a new business education building, portable buildings consisting of eight trailers and one restroom trailer that may not conform to the so-called Field Act.

The community college district, in an effort to accommodate the increasing number of students attending the college, initially leased these portable buildings for a 24-month period in 1990. The district has renewed this lease through July of 1994 at a reduced price. The district declares that the buildings have been improved to include a ramp to accommodate access by handicapped persons and a new electrical transformer and that the buildings conform to the Department of Housing and Community Development building standards.

The Cerritos Community College District has included the construction of a new business education building in a Capital Outlay Project Budget Proposal for its 1994-95 budget. If the project is approved, it is anticipated that construction of the building will be completed in the fall of 1996.

SEC. 2. (a) Notwithstanding Section 81162 of the Education Code, the Cerritos Community College District may use the existing portable buildings described in Section 1 for classroom and related purposes from the effective date of this act until January 1, 1997, or until the completion of the business education building specified in Section 1, whichever occurs first. During the period of use authorized by this section, the portable buildings shall not be subject to Article 7 (commencing with Section 81130) of, or Article 8 (commencing with Section 81160) of, Chapter 1 of Part 49 of the Education Code.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall become operative only upon adoption of a resolution by the governing board of the Cerritos Community College District whereby the district agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the State of California from any legal claims that may arise from the continued use of the portable buildings specified in subdivision (a).

SEC. 3. Due to the unique circumstances specified in Section 1 of this act concerning the Cerritos Community College District, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to permit the Cerritos Community College District to use portable buildings that may not satisfy Field Act standards, so that its classes may be operated without interruption or delay, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 114

An act to amend Sections 123, 143, 144, 146, 160, 170, 172, 182, 188, 189, 210, 212, 215, 223, 230, 252, 254, 255, 257, 258, 259, 262, 263, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270.01, 270.10, 270.29, 280, 289, 296, 297, 321, 322, 324, 325, 326, 342, 363, 364, 368, 372, 375, 391, 395, 395.04, 414, 416, 422, 450.1, 454, 455, 456, 463, 465, 467, 474, 513, 551, 552, 643.2, 648, 986.1, 986.3, 987.7, 987.17a, 987.60, 987.79, 1038, 1042, 1200, 1201, 1652, of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to the military and veterans.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 123 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

123. Whenever the Governor deems it necessary, he or she may order an enrollment to be made by officers designated by the Governor, of all persons liable to service in the militia. The enrollment shall include any information that the Governor may require. Three copies thereof shall be made: one copy shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the enrollment is made, and two copies in the office of the Adjutant General.

SEC. 2. Section 143 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

143. Whenever the Governor is satisfied that rebellion, insurrection, tumult or riot exists in any part of the state or that the execution of civil or criminal process has been forcibly resisted by bodies of persons, or that any conspiracy or combination exists to resist by force the execution of process, or that the officers of any county or city are unable or have failed for any reason to enforce the laws, the Governor may, by proclamation, declare any part of the State of California or the county or city or any portion thereof to be in a state of insurrection, and he or she may thereupon order into the service of the state any number and description of the active militia, or unorganized militia, as he or she deems necessary, to serve for a term and under the command of any officer as he or she directs.

SEC. 3. Section 144 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

144. The Governor may at any time revoke a proclamation of insurrection or declare that it shall terminate at a time or in the manner that he or she directs.

SEC. 4. Section 146 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

146. The Governor may call into active service any portion of the active militia as may be necessary, and if the number available be insufficient, the Governor may call into active service any portion of the unorganized militia as may be necessary, in any of the following events:

(a) In case of war, insurrection, rebellion, invasion, tumult, riot, breach of the peace, public calamity or catastrophe, or other emergency, or imminent danger thereof, or resistance to the laws of this state or the United States.

(b) Upon call or requisition of the President of the United States.

(c) Upon call of any United States marshal in California, or upon call of any officer of the United States Army commanding an army, army area, or military administrative or tactical command including generally the State of California, or upon call of any officer of the United States Air Force commanding an air force, air defense force, air defense command or air command including generally the State of California.

(d) Upon call of the chief executive officer of any city or county, or of any justice of the Supreme Court, or of any judge of the superior court, or of any sheriff, setting forth that there is an unlawful or riotous assembly with intent to commit a felony, or to offer violence to person or property, or to resist the laws of the State of California or the United States or that there has occurred a public calamity or catastrophe requiring aid to the civil authorities.

(e) Upon call of the sheriff setting forth that the civil power of the county is not sufficient to enable the sheriff to execute process delivered to him or her.

SEC. 5. Section 160 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

160. The Adjutant General is chief of staff to the Governor, subordinate only to the Governor and is the commander of all state military forces.

SEC. 6. Section 170 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

170. The seal now used in the Office of the Adjutant General is the seal of that office, and shall be delivered by the Adjutant General to his or her successor. All orders issued from the Office of the Adjutant General shall be authenticated with this seal. Any order or directive inadvertently or mistakenly made or entered in the Office of the Adjutant General may for good cause and a reasonable time be vacated and set aside by the Adjutant General and a proper and correct order or directive made and entered in lieu thereof.

SEC. 7. Section 172 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

172. The Adjutant General shall make a report to the Governor every fourth year, commencing in 1963, the report to include a statement of the moneys received and disbursed by the Adjutant General for military purposes, the number and condition of the active militia, and a history of the activities and developments of the Military Department during the preceding four years.

SEC. 8. Section 182 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

182. The Adjutant General shall keep a correct account of all expenses necessarily incurred, including pay of officers and enlisted men and women, subsistence of militia, transportation of the militia, and all military property of the state. Those expenses shall be audited and paid in the same manner as other military accounts are audited and paid.

SEC. 9. Section 188 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

188. In the event of a call to active duty in case of insurrection, invasion, tumult, riot, breach of the peace, public calamity or catastrophe, or other emergency, or imminent danger thereof, the Adjutant General, with the approval of the Governor, may secure all necessary supplies, equipment, meals, quarters, subsistence, transportation, medical, surgical, and hospital services, and dental and artificial devices for the officers and men and women called to active duty. Those purchases and services shall be exempt from the rules and regulations set forth in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10290) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code. Claims for expenses thus incurred, when approved by the Adjutant General as purchases for the emergency, shall be deemed valid claims against appropriations for military purposes.

Except as otherwise provided in this act all claims shall be subject to the laws relating to state procurement of materials, supplies, equipment, and services pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10290) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

SEC. 10. Section 189 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

189. The sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) appropriated by Chapter 467, Statutes of 1913, for a cash revolving fund to facilitate the work of the Adjutant General's office, shall be hereafter held, continued, and used by the Adjutant General for that purpose. All or any part of the money may be drawn from the state treasury without the submission of receipts, vouchers, or itemized statements and may be used by the Adjutant General in advancing cash payments for ordnance, equipment, material, labor, supplies, and incidental expenses requiring cash payments in advance, where the payments are necessary for the proper operation of the militia. Any amounts shall be repaid out of the appropriation against which they are a proper charge, upon itemized claims accompanied by proper vouchers and receipts, and the money returned to the cash revolving fund.

The Adjutant General shall be liable on his or her bond for the money so advanced to the Adjutant General and may, to protect himself or herself, require sufficient bond of the several employees under the Adjutant General in case it should be necessary to delegate any of them to disburse money from the revolving fund. The Adjutant General shall account for the money herein appropriated at any time upon demand of the Department of Finance or the Controller.

SEC. 11. Section 210 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

210. The National Guard consists of:

(a) General officers.

(b) The several staff corps and departments prescribed in tables of organization of the United States Army or United States Air Force or tables of organization for the National Guard.

(c) The officers and enlisted men and women on the retired and the reserve lists.

(d) The organizations forming the National Guard and persons enlisted or commissioned therein.

SEC. 12. Section 212 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

212. The inactive National Guard shall consist of those organizations, officers, and enlisted men and women as are authorized and prescribed by the laws of the United States and regulations issued thereunder.

SEC. 13. Section 215 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

215. For all purposes under this code, commissioned officers, warrant officers and enlisted men and women of the California National Guard, California Air National Guard and California National Guard Reserve who have heretofore or hereafter performed service in the United States Army, United States Air Force, United States Navy, or any reserve component thereof shall be entitled to credit for time so served as if that service had been rendered in the state forces. Service in the state forces shall include all full-time active duty performed heretofore or hereafter either as an enlisted man or woman, warrant officer or commissioned officer pursuant to any prior or present section or sections or provisions of this code. Federal law notwithstanding, in computing state service for retirement with pay under this authority, only full-time active service with the armed forces of the United States or any reserve component thereof shall be considered.

SEC. 14. Section 223 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

223. All officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men and women of the militia and all persons on duty with the militia shall give any bonds and security as may be required and within the time prescribed by the Adjutant General to secure the state against loss on account of misuse or misapplication of state or company property or funds or the property or funds of the United States in use by the State of California.

All bonds shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance of all duties and the accounting for all property and moneys, including organization funds, for which the obligee is responsible or accountable.

The Adjutant General may in lieu of the foregoing enter into an agreement conditioned in like terms and for the same purpose with a qualified surety company to bond all officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men and women of the militia, and all persons on duty with the militia without specifically naming them. The agreement shall also provide that the report and final action of military or naval authorities having jurisdiction for fixing responsibility for loss or damage shall be conclusive proof of the responsibility or liability of any officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man or woman in a suit brought to enforce the obligation of the bond.

The premiums on bonds shall be charged to those funds appropriated for the support of the militia as the Governor directs.

SEC. 15. Section 230 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

230. The Governor may detail, with their own consent, officers of the retired list to active duty and return them to the retired list in his or her discretion. Officers retired for age shall not be detailed to command troops but only to perform duties of staff corps or departments, or to sit on boards, except in time of war or other emergency, or imminent danger thereof, when retired officers may be detailed by the Governor, without their consent, to perform any military duty designated by the Governor.

SEC. 16. Section 252 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

252. Appointments of noncommissioned and petty officers shall conform to the tables of organization and to the rules and regulations prescribed by the United States for the government and administration of the National Guard. All noncommissioned and petty officers shall be appointed by the commanding officer of the division, brigade, regiment, separate battalion, squadron, marine division, or similar organization, upon the recommendation of the commanding officer of the unit in which they are to serve. Noncommissioned and petty officers of separate companies, troops, batteries, detachments, and similar units, not forming part of an existing higher tactical organization, shall be appointed by the Adjutant General. When an examination is required by federal laws or regulations or by state regulations, no enlisted man or woman shall be appointed until he or she has successfully passed the examination.

SEC. 17. Section 254 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

254. Enlisted men and women may be transferred to or from organizations or units. Noncommissioned officers may be reduced one or more grades upon good cause appearing therefor. In transferring or reducing an enlisted man or woman or noncommissioned officer the procedure laid down in regulations for the National Guard shall be followed.

An order discharging a member of the militia may be vacated by the Adjutant General for good cause; provided, a certificate or other evidence of discharge has not been delivered to the discharged member.

SEC. 18. Section 255 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

255. Every enlisted man and woman who enters the National Guard or who is a member of the unorganized militia when called into the service of the state, may be provided by the state with a service or dress uniform, or both, corresponding in make and general appearance to the service or dress uniform of the United States Army.

SEC. 19. Section 257 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

257. When an enlisted man or woman of the National Guard is sixty-four years of age, he or she shall be retired from active service or discharged.

SEC. 20. Section 258 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

258. In time of war or other emergency or imminent danger thereof, the Governor may detail retired enlisted men and women to active duty and on conclusion of the emergency return them to the retired list.

SEC. 21. Section 259 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

259. Separation from service of an enlisted man or woman of the National Guard or the unorganized militia called into active service is effected by death or by discharge by proper authority.

SEC. 22. Section 262 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

262. An enlisted man or woman discharged from the National Guard or the unorganized militia when called or ordered into active service of the state shall receive a discharge in writing in a form and with those qualifications as may be prescribed under the laws and regulations prescribed for the government of the National Guard by the United States and that are not inconsistent with this code. The certificates of discharge may be in the form of an honorable, a general, or undesirable discharge. Bad conduct and dishonorable discharges shall be awarded only by courts-martial as provided in this code.

SEC. 23. Section 263 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

263. When an enlisted man or woman of the National Guard or the unorganized militia called into active service is absent without leave and there is reason to believe that the enlisted man or woman does not intend to return; or quits his or her organization or place of duty with the intent to avoid hazardous duty or to shirk important service, that person is a deserter.

SEC. 24. Section 266 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

266. An enlisted man or woman who has been dropped as a deserter shall not be restored to duty without prior disposition of the charge of desertion standing against him or her. The charge shall be disposed of by trial by court-martial; by restoration to duty, desertion admitted, upon a written application of the soldier admitting the desertion; or by the setting aside of the charge of desertion in case it had been erroneously made.

SEC. 25. Section 267 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

267. A deserter shall not be restored to duty without trial except by the Governor or by an officer authorized to appoint a general court-martial. Restoration to duty without trial shall not remove the charge of desertion or relieve the enlisted man or woman from any of the forfeitures attached to that offense. Setting aside a charge of desertion as having been erroneously made shall remove the charge of desertion and all stoppages and forfeitures arising therefrom.

SEC. 26. Section 268 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

268. All time lost while absent without leave or in desertion, in excess of twenty-four hours, shall be made good unless the enlisted man or woman is sooner discharged by proper authority.

SEC. 27. Section 269 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

269. No enlisted man or woman who has been dishonorably discharged from the military or naval service of this state, or of another state, territory or district, or of the United States shall be permitted to enter again the military or naval service of this state without the approval of the Governor of this state.

SEC. 28. Section 270.01 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

270.01. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the California National Guard exists to provide a military organization in California with the capability to:

(1) Protect the lives and property of the people of the state during periods of natural disaster and civil disturbances.

(2) Perform other functions required by the California Military and Veterans Code or as directed by the Governor.

(3) Provide military units ready for federal mobilization.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that the California National Guard performs an essential public purpose in protecting the health, safety, and property of California's citizens; that in order to fulfill its objectives, it is necessary for the California National Guard to have sufficient human resources; and that the elimination of the military draft has had a negative impact on the California National Guard's ability to maintain an adequate strength level to meet its responsibilities, so that the Military Department is concerned that it may not be able to provide a sufficient number of persons to deal with natural or man-caused disasters and emergencies.

(c) It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature that, to fulfill the public program of maintaining required strength in the California National Guard, an enlistment inducement should be provided by making low-interest farm and home loans available to members who serve the state faithfully for a period of at least one year of a regular enlistment period, since incentive programs such as this have been highly successful in other states and have resulted in substantially higher enlistment rates; and that, in addition, this type of program would enhance the concept of a volunteer armed service by granting a state benefit at no anticipated cost to the taxpayer.

(d) The Legislature further finds and declares that the enactment of this article serves a substantial public purpose and that members of the California National Guard are benefited only as an incident to the general public purpose intended by this article.

SEC. 29. Section 270.10 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

270.10. The department may acquire a farm or home from the owner thereof, or may contract with a member for the construction of a dwelling house and other improvements for a farm or home, upon the terms agreed if:

(a) The department is satisfied of the desirability of the property submitted.

(b) The member has agreed with the department that the member or the member's immediate family will actually reside on the property within 60 days from the date of purchase by the department or, if the residence on the property is not complete on the date of purchase, within 60 days after the residence is completed.

(c) The sum to be expended by the department pursuant to a contract for the construction of a dwelling house and other improvements does not exceed fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000) or, for members who qualify under subdivision (d) of Section 270.05, not to exceed seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

(d) Where the department is to contract with a member for the construction of a dwelling house and other buildings, or for the purchase of a mobilehome:

(1) The member is the owner in fee of the real property on which the dwelling house and other buildings are to be constructed, or is the owner in fee of the real property or the owner of an undivided interest in common in a portion of a parcel of real property on which a mobilehome is to be situated, and agrees to convey that property to the department without cost.

(2) The member has paid a reasonable fee set by the department to cover the cost of the preliminary service of the department necessary to process the application.

(3) The member has filed with the department adequate plans and specifications for the improvements to be constructed upon the real property, together with a contract, executed by a contractor licensed by the State of California, for the construction of the improvements in accordance with the plans and specifications within eight months after the acquisition of the real property by the department, and a bond, that is executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the State of California, obtained by the contractor providing for compliance with the terms of the contract and for the payment of materialmen and labor furnishing material or labor on the jobs.

(4) The plans, specifications, contract, and bond are approved by the department.

(5) The member has placed in escrow all sums of money to be advanced by him or her where the cost is in excess of the maximum that may be expended by the department.

As used in this section, "immediate family" includes only the following:

Spouse, children, either natural or adoptive; and the parents if they are dependent upon the member for 50 percent or more of their support.

SEC. 30. Section 270.29 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

270.29. The department may, in the contract of purchase with a member provide that, in the event of default by the member and forfeiture of the member's rights under the contract and subsequent sale of the property by the department, it may pay to the member any net gain realized by the department upon the sale. The department is the sole judge of the net gain.

SEC. 31. Section 280 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

280. Except where this chapter is inconsistent therewith, Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 210) of Part 1 of Division 2 is hereby incorporated by reference in this chapter and those provisions shall apply to the Naval Militia and the officers and enlisted men and women thereof with the same force and effect as if the provisions were set out in detail in this chapter.

In applying Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 210) of Part 1 of Division 2 to this chapter, the term "Naval Militia" shall be substituted for the term "National Guard" and the term "Navy Department" for the term "War Department."

SEC. 32. Section 289 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

289. The officers, chief warrant officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men or women of the Naval Militia shall be of any amount and grades prescribed by the Governor and shall be of the same number and grades as are authorized or prescribed by the laws and regulations of the United States for similar organizations of the United States Navy or as authorized or prescribed by the laws and regulations of the Navy Department for the Naval Militia.

SEC. 33. Section 296 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

296. Every enlisted man or woman who enters the Naval Militia may be provided by the state with a service or dress uniform, or both, corresponding in make and appearance to the service or dress uniform of the United States Navy.

SEC. 34. Section 297 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

297. In a locality where there are insufficient persons available to form an engineer division and there already exists an organized deck division, men and women of the artificer branch may be additionally enrolled in the deck division with those ratings as they may be qualified to fill, until there is a sufficient number of them to form a separate engineer division. Any men and women in the artificer branch may be rated in the various petty officers' ratings in the artificer branch of the naval service that they are qualified to fill. In a locality where there are insufficient persons available to form a marine company and there is already existing in that locality a deck division of the Naval Militia, a marine section may be organized with one officer and not less than twenty enlisted marines.

SEC. 35. Section 321 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

321. Enlisted men and women, while on active duty in the service of the state, shall receive the same pay and allowances as enlisted men and women of similar grade in the United States Army, United States Air Force, and United States Navy, except that enlisted men and women in the pay grade of E1 through E4 ordered to active duty pursuant to Section 143 or 146, while on active duty, shall receive not less than the minimum daily rate of pay applicable to a pay grade of E5 in the active military service of the United States. It is the intent of the Legislature that the foregoing minimum payments to enlisted men and women in the pay grade of E1 through E4 may be paid from the State Emergency Fund when, in the judgment of the Director of Finance, there is a case of actual necessity for which no appropriation has been made. All full-time active duty previously or hereafter performed in the service of the state shall be credited for purposes of determining longevity and service within the provisions of this section and Section 340.

SEC. 36. Section 322 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

322. Officers, warrant officers and enlisted men and women on active duty in the service of the State of California, except in situations described in Section 188 of this code, shall be reimbursed for their necessary traveling and other expenses in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Control.

SEC. 37. Section 324 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

324. Whenever an officer of the National Guard or Naval Militia is detailed for special duty in any matter relating to the National Guard or Naval Militia, by order of the Governor, that officer shall be allowed the same pay and allowances as officers of similar grade in the United States Army and United States Navy and actual traveling expenses. An enlisted man or woman similarly detailed shall be allowed the same pay and allowances as enlisted men and women of similar grade in the United States Army and United States Navy and actual traveling expenses, except that family allowances shall not be allowed to those enlisted men and women. An officer of the National Guard or Naval Militia may, with his or her consent, be detailed for special duty without expense to the state, except and provided, however, the officer may be paid actual traveling expenses. An officer of the National Guard or Naval Militia may, with his or her consent, be detailed for duty and may be paid compensation in a grade lower than the officer actually holds provided the officer voluntarily waives all compensation in excess of the lower grade.

If not inconsistent with the performance of required military duty, members of the National Guard may perform emergency services as defined in Section 18531 of the Government Code, and as provided in Section 19888 of the Government Code, and shall receive as compensation therefore the going wages paid for similar service at or near the place of performance.

SEC. 38. Section 325 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

325. Whenever an officer or enlisted man or woman of the United States Army or United States Navy or United States Air Force, detailed by the Department of the Army or the Department of the Navy or the Department of the Air Force for service with the National Guard or Naval Militia, is detailed by the Governor for special duty or requested to perform any duty involving travel not specially directed by the Department of the Army or the Department of the Navy or the Department of the Air Force, the officer or enlisted man or woman shall be allowed his or her actual traveling expenses, but no per diem.

SEC. 39. Section 326 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

326. Commissioned officers, warrant officers and enlisted men and women and former commissioned officers, warrant officers and enlisted men and women of the United States Army, United States Air Force, United States Navy, or any reserve component thereof, California National Guard, State Military Reserve, California National Guard Reserve, California Defense and Security Corps, California State Guard, California Reserve and Retired List or the active militia, may, with his or her consent, be detailed for active duty with a security section which the Adjutant General is hereby authorized to maintain in his or her office. A commissioned officer, warrant officer or enlisted man or woman who is detailed for duty as provided in this section may be paid compensation in any grade or rank lower than the person actually holds provided the commissioned officer, warrant officer or enlisted man or woman voluntarily waives all compensation in excess of the lower grade or rank.

SEC. 40. Section 342 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

342. The appeals board is empowered to hear and determine all issues concerning any obligation of the State of California to provide to any officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man or woman on active duty with the Office of the Adjutant General any rights or benefits provided in Section 3, Public Law 108, Chapter 225, 81st Congress, First Session, and any and all issues arising under or in connection with that law. In doing so, the appeals board shall follow the same procedures in all respects as are provided in Division 4 (commencing with Section 3200) of the Labor Code for the determination of workers' compensation claims. The orders, decisions, and awards of the appeals board issued in exercising this jurisdiction are subject to review and rehearing in the manner provided in Sections 5900 to 5956, inclusive, of the Labor Code.

SEC. 41. Section 363 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

363. Every officer and enlisted man or woman shall be responsible to the officer under whose immediate command he or she serves for prompt and unhesitating obedience to lawful orders, faithful performance of duty, and the preservation and proper use of the property in his or her possession that belongs to the United States, the State of California, or the appropriate military organization. Each officer and enlisted man or woman shall at all times, without equivocation, obey the lawful orders of his or her superior officers.

SEC. 42. Section 364 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

364. Any officer or enlisted man or woman of the National Guard or Naval Militia who willfully fails to attend any parade or encampment, or who neglects or refuses to obey the lawful command of his or her superior officer on any day of parade or encampment, or who fails to perform any military duty that may be lawfully required of him or her, or who uses disrespectful language toward his or her superior officer or commits any act of insubordination, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 43. Section 368 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

368. Each company, troop, squadron, battery, detachment, and unit shall assemble for drill and instruction, including indoor target practice, not less than forty-eight times each year unless excused by the Governor or other competent authority, and shall in addition thereto participate in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for at least fifteen consecutive days in each year unless excused by competent authority.

In addition to those drills and periods of duty above specified the commanding officer of any unit may require the officers and enlisted men and women of his or her command to meet for parade, drill, and instruction at the times and places as he or she may appoint.

SEC. 44. Section 372 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

372. Officers and enlisted men and women may be warned for duty by stating the substance of the order, by reading the order to the person warned, by delivering a copy of the order to that person, by leaving a copy of the order at the last known place of abode or business of that person with some person of the age of discretion, or by sending a copy of the order or its substance to that person by registered mail directed to the enlisted man or woman at his or her last known place of abode or business or to the post office nearest thereto.

In addition to or in lieu of the foregoing, notice may be given by posting a copy of the order at the entrance to the nearest post office to the military or naval headquarters issuing the order, at the entrances of the city hall or county courthouse of the city or county where the headquarters are located, and by causing a copy of the warning order to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in that county.

SEC. 45. Section 375 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

375. Officers and enlisted men and women of the active militia not in the service of the United States shall be subject to and governed by this code while outside this state under the order or authorization of the Governor under Section 142 in like manner and to the same extent as when on duty within this state under orders of the Governor. Military courts may be convened and held outside the state with the same jurisdiction and power of punishment as if held within the state. Offenses and delinquencies committed outside the state may be tried and punished either within or without the state after the termination of the duty.

SEC. 46. Section 391 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

391. Every member of the active militia shall be exempt from road tax and head tax of every description, from jury duty (including service on coroners' juries) except that members of the National Guard who are not on active duty shall not be exempt from jury duty in any noncriminal proceeding, and from service on any posse comitatus, if the member furnishes the certificate of his or her immediate commanding officer that the member has performed the duties required of him or her for the year immediately preceding a summons to act as juror or during the period of the member's service if less than one year.

SEC. 47. Section 395 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

395. Any public employee who is a member of the reserve corps of the armed forces of the United States or of the National Guard or the Naval Militia shall be entitled to a temporary military leave of absence as provided by federal law while engaged in military duty ordered for purposes of active military training, encampment, naval cruises, special exercises or like activity, providing that the period of ordered duty does not exceed 180 calendar days, including time involved in going to and returning from that duty, and provided that paid military leave of absence is not required for periods of inactive military duty.

The employee shall have an absolute right to be restored to the former office or position and status formerly had by him or her in the same locality and in the same office, board, commission, agency, or institution of the public agency upon the termination of temporary military duty. If the office or position has been abolished or otherwise has ceased to exist during his or her absence, he or she shall be reinstated to a position of like seniority, status, and pay if a position exists, or if no position exists the employee shall have the same rights and privileges that he or she would have had if he or she had occupied the position when it ceased to exist and had not taken temporary military leave of absence.

Any public employee who has been in the service of the public agency from which the leave is taken for a period of not less than one year immediately prior to the date upon which a temporary military leave of absence begins, shall receive the same vacation, sick leave, and holiday privileges and the same rights and privileges to promotion, continuance in office, employment, reappointment to office, or reemployment that the employee would have enjoyed had he or she not been absent therefrom; excepting that an uncompleted probationary period, if any, in the public agency, must be completed upon reinstatement as provided by law or rule of the agency. For the purposes of this section, in determining the one year of service in a public agency all service of the employee in recognized military service shall be counted as public agency service.

If this section is in conflict with a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the memorandum of understanding requires the expenditure of funds, it shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 48. Section 395.04 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

395.04. During the time that as an officer or enlisted man or woman of the California National Guard, who is on full-time active duty in the military service of the state, and is engaged, with the approval of the Adjutant General, in the military service of the state in attendance at drills, camps, or special exercises, sponsored by federal authority or by the War Department, as a member of the National Guard of the United States, he or she shall receive salary, pay, and compensation as provided in Sections 320 and 321 of this code.

SEC. 49. Section 414 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

414. Every officer and enlisted man or woman to whom public property has been issued shall be personally responsible to the state for that property. No one shall be relieved from this responsibility, unless it is shown, to the satisfaction of the Governor, that the loss or destruction of the property was unavoidable and in no way the fault of the person responsible for the loss. In all other cases the value of the property lost or destroyed, in the amount determined by a surveying officer or a board as herein provided, shall be charged against the person at fault or, with the concurrence of the appropriate commanding officer, against the command to or for which it had been issued, and if not relieved from the charge by the Governor, there shall be an indebtedness from that person or command to the state.

SEC. 50. Section 416 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

416. Where the amount determined by a board, as provided in Section 415, as the value of lost, damaged, or destroyed property is charged to a person, it shall be deducted from any pay or allowance due or to become due to him or her from the state. Money due to the state for any reason, with or without the action of a board, from a member of the active militia, a member of the unorganized militia when called for active duty, or any civilian employee of the Office of the Adjutant General shall be deducted or withheld from any money due or to become due that member or civilian employee from the state, including any pay and allowances payable pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 320) of Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 2. Where the amount is charged to a command, it shall be deducted one-half in successive calendar years from any allowance or money due or to become due to it from the state, except that on the disbandment of a command any indebtedness then existing and any indebtedness as may be charged to it upon a final settlement of property accounts shall, as soon as determined, be paid out of its military funds or unexpended appropriations.

An action may be maintained in the name of the people of the state in any court of competent jurisdiction by the Attorney General, upon request of the Adjutant General, to recover from a member of the active militia, a member of the unorganized militia when called for active duty, or any civilian employee of the Office of the Adjutant General or his sureties any indebtedness to the state remaining unpaid upon final determination of the indebtedness.

SEC. 51. Section 422 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

422. Any person other than an officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man or woman of the California National Guard, or of the unorganized militia when called into the service of the state or of the State Military Reserve or who may be appointed under Section 141 or who may be authorized by Sections 502, 502.1, or 502.2 or who may be a member of the Naval Militia of this state, or who may be a member of the military forces of another state or of the United States Army, United States Air Force, United States Navy, United States Marine Corps, United States Coast Guard Service or United States or State Forest Service, or personnel of the Department of Fish and Game, or members of the Department of the California Highway Patrol, or an inmate of any veterans' or soldiers' home, or other person authorized by the laws of the United States or of this state, who at any time wears the uniform of the United States Army, United States Air Force, or United States Navy, or of the armed forces of the United States or any organization thereof, or National Guard or Naval Militia, or any part of that uniform, or a uniform or part of a uniform similar thereto, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding 60 days, or by both.

SEC. 52. Section 450.1 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

450.1. (a) Under regulations as the Governor may prescribe, and under any additional regulations as may be prescribed by the Adjutant General, limitations may be placed on the powers granted by this section with respect to the kind and amount of punishment authorized, the categories of commanding officers and warrant officers exercising command authorized to exercise those powers, the applicability of this section to an accused who demands trial by court-martial, and the kinds of courts-martial to which the case may be referred upon that demand. Except in the case of the imposition of fines upon officers and warrant officers, punishment may not be imposed upon any member of the California National Guard under this section if the member has, before the imposition of punishment, demanded trial by court-martial in lieu of punishment. Under similar regulations, rules may be prescribed with respect to the suspension of punishments authorized hereunder. If authorized by regulations of the Adjutant General, a commanding officer who under the Uniform Code of Military Justice would exercise general court-martial jurisdiction or an officer of general rank in command may delegate his or her powers under this section to a principal assistant.

(b) Subject to subdivision (a), any commanding officer may, in addition to or in lieu of admonition or reprimand, impose one or more of the following disciplinary punishments for minor offenses without the intervention of a court-martial:

(1) Upon officers of his or her command:

(A) Restriction to certain specified limits, with or without suspension from duty, for not more than 30 consecutive days.

(B) If imposed by an officer who under the Uniform Code of Military Justice would exercise general court-martial jurisdiction or an officer of general rank in command:

(i) Arrest in quarters for not more than 30 consecutive days.

(ii) Impose a fine of not more than 15 days' pay per month for two months.

(iii) Restriction to certain specified limits with or without suspension from duty for not more than 60 consecutive days.

(iv) Detention of not more than 15 days' pay per month for three months.

(2) Upon other personnel of his or her command:

(A) Correctional custody for not more than seven consecutive days.

(B) Impose a fine of not more than seven days' pay.

(C) Reduction to the next inferior pay grade, if the grade from which demoted is within the promotion authority of the officer imposing the reduction or any officer subordinate to the one who imposes the reduction.

(D) Extra duties, including fatigue or other duties, for not more than 14 consecutive days.

(E) Restriction to certain specified limits, with or without suspension from duty, for not more than 14 consecutive days.

(F) Detention of not more than 14 days' pay.

(G) If imposed by an officer of the grade of major or above:

(i) Correctional custody for not more than 30 consecutive days.

(ii) Impose a fine of not more than 15 days' pay per month for two months.

(iii) Reduction to the lowest or any intermediate pay grade, if the grade from which demoted is within the promotion authority of the officer imposing the reduction or any officer subordinate to the one who imposes the reduction, but an enlisted member in a pay grade above E-4 may not be reduced more than two pay grades.

(iv) Extra duties, including fatigue or other duties, for not more than 45 consecutive days.

(v) Restrictions to certain specified limits, with or without suspension from duty, for not more than 60 consecutive days.

(vi) Detention of not more than 15 days' pay per month for three months.

The punishments heretofore prescribed by subdivision (b) (1) A,

B(i) and (iii) and subdivision (b) (2) A, D, E, G(i), (iv) and (v) hereof may be imposed only during annual active duty for training or active state service, except that extra duties may be imposed upon enlisted men and women while in armory drill status for two hours (to be completed not later than 2400 hours) for two consecutive drills.

Detention of pay shall be for a stated period of not more than one year but if the offender's term of service expires earlier, the detention shall terminate upon that expiration. No two or more of the punishments of arrest in quarters, correctional custody, extra duties, and restriction may be combined to run consecutively in the maximum amount imposable for each. Whenever any of those punishments are combined to run consecutively, there shall be an apportionment. In addition, forfeiture of pay may not be combined with detention of pay without an apportionment. For the purposes of this subdivision, "correctional custody" means the physical restraint of a person during duty or nonduty hours and may include extra duties, fatigue duties, or hard labor. If practicable, correctional custody shall not be served in immediate association with persons awaiting trial or held in confinement pursuant to trial by court-martial.

(c) An officer in charge may impose upon enlisted members assigned to the unit of which he or she is in charge any of the punishments authorized under subdivision (b) (2) (A) to (G), inclusive, as the Adjutant General may specifically prescribe by regulation.

(d) The officer who imposes the punishment authorized in subdivision (b), or his or her successor in command, may, at any time, suspend probationally any part or amount of the unexecuted punishment imposed and may suspend probationally a reduction in grade or a fine imposed under subdivision (b), whether or not executed. In addition, the officer may, at any time, remit or mitigate any part or amount of the unexecuted punishment imposed and may set aside in whole or in part the punishment, whether executed or unexecuted, and restore all rights, privileges, and property affected. The officer may also mitigate reduction in grade to a fine or detention of pay. When mitigating:

- (1) arrest in quarters to restriction;
- (2) correctional custody to extra duties or restriction, or both;

or

- (3) extra duties to restriction;

the mitigated punishment shall not be for a greater period than the punishment mitigated. When mitigating a fine to detention of pay, the amount of the detention shall not be greater than the amount of the fine. When mitigating reduction in grade to a fine or detention of pay, the amount of the fine or detention shall not be greater than the amount that could have been imposed initially under this article by the officer who imposed the punishment mitigated.

(e) A person punished under this section who considers his or her punishment unjust or disproportionate to the offense may, through the proper channel, appeal to the next superior authority. The appeal shall be promptly forwarded and decided, but the person punished may in the meantime be required to undergo the punishment adjudged. The superior authority may exercise the same powers with respect to the punishment imposed as may be exercised under subdivision (d) by the officer who imposed the punishment. Before acting on an appeal from a punishment of:

- (1) arrest in quarters for more than seven days;
- (2) correctional custody for more than seven days;
- (3) a fine of more than seven days' pay;
- (4) reduction of one or more pay grades from the fourth or a higher pay grade;
- (5) extra duties for more than 14 days;
- (6) restriction for more than 14 days; or
- (7) detention of more than 14 days' pay;

the authority who is to act on the appeal shall refer the case to a judge advocate of the California National Guard for consideration and advice, and may so refer the case upon appeal from any punishment imposed under subdivision (b).

(f) The imposition and enforcement of disciplinary punishment under this section for any act or omission is not a bar to trial by court-martial for a serious crime or offense growing out of the same act or omission, and not properly punishable under this section; but the fact that a disciplinary punishment has been enforced may be shown by the accused upon trial, and when so shown shall be considered in determining the measure of punishment to be adjudged in the event of a finding of guilty.

(g) The Adjutant General may, by regulation, prescribe the form of records to be kept of proceedings under this article and may also prescribe that certain categories of those proceedings shall be in writing.

SEC. 53. Section 454 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

454. Summary courts-martial may be appointed by the commanding officer of a garrison, fort, post, camp, or other place where troops are on duty, regiment, detached battalion, detached company, or other detachment; but those summary courts-martial may in any case be appointed by superior authority when by the latter deemed desirable: Except when only one officer is present with a command, he or she shall be the summary courts-martial of that command and shall hear and determine cases brought before him or her. After final action by the reviewing authority an authenticated copy of the completed charge sheet shall be filed in the office of the Adjutant General.

SEC. 54. Section 455 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

455. Courts of inquiry shall consist of at least three members and may be ordered by the Governor to examine into the nature of any transaction of or accusation or imputation against any officer or enlisted man or woman. The courts shall not be ordered except upon the request of the officer concerned or whose conduct is to be inquired into or upon the request of the enlisted man or woman concerned.

The members of the court may be officers or qualified enlisted men or women, and the court may include both officers and qualified enlisted men or women.

The practice and procedure of the court of inquiry shall be in accordance with the Articles of War and like tribunals appointed for similar purposes in the United States Army, United States Air Force, and United States Navy. The court shall, without delay, report to the officer ordering it, the evidence adduced, a statement of the facts, and, when required, an opinion thereon.

Boards for conducting investigations and investigating officers may be appointed in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted for the appointment of similar boards and officers in the United States Army, United States Air Force, and United States Navy.

SEC. 55. Section 456 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

456. General courts-martial have power:

(a) To try:

(1) Commissioned officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men and women of the National Guard.

(2) Commissioned officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men and women of the unorganized militia whenever they are called out for service of the state.

(b) To adjudge:

(1) Dismissal, in the case of a commissioned or warrant officer.

(2) Dishonorable discharge, in the case of an enlisted man or woman.

(3) Bad-conduct discharge, in the case of an enlisted man or woman.

(4) Reduction to the ranks, in the case of enlisted men and women of the fourth enlisted pay grade or below. Reduction to next inferior grade in the case of enlisted men and women above the fourth enlisted pay grade.

(5) Forfeiture of pay and allowances.

(6) Fine not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200).

(7) Confinement not exceeding 200 days.

(8) Fine and confinement, the total of the number of dollars of fine and number of days of confinement not to exceed 200.

(9) Reprimand.

SEC. 56. Section 463 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

463. Military courts may issue all process and mandates, including writs and warrants, necessary and proper to carry into full effect the powers vested in those courts. Process or mandates may be directed to the sheriff of any county, any peace officer, the police of any city and the constables and marshals of any town or city, or to any officer or enlisted man or woman appointed by the court to serve or execute process or mandates. All officers to whom process or mandates are directed shall execute the process or mandates and make return of their acts thereunder according to the requirements thereof.

SEC. 57. Section 465 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

465. Presidents of courts-martial, one-officer special courts-martial, and summary court officers shall have power to issue warrants to arrest an accused person and to bring him or her before the court for trial. A court shall be ordered for his or her trial within the time similarly prescribed by the rules and regulations of the United States Army. If a copy of the charges and specifications is not served, or a court is not ordered within the time herein limited, the arrest shall cease, but the charges and specifications may be served, a court ordered, and the officer or enlisted man or woman be brought to trial after the release from arrest within the time prescribed by the rules and regulations of the United States Army in similar circumstances. The appearance of the accused, without objection and pleading to the charges, shall be a waiver of any defect or irregularity of service of any of the papers mentioned in this section.

SEC. 58. Section 467 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

467. For the purpose of collecting fines or penalties imposed by a court-martial, the president of any general or special court-martial and the summary court officer of any summary court shall make a list of all fines and penalties and of the persons against whom they have been imposed, and may thereafter issue a warrant under his or her hand directed to any sheriff, marshal, or constable of the county, commanding him or her to levy and collect the fines and penalties, together with the costs, upon and out of the property of the person against whom the fine or penalty is imposed. The warrant shall be executed and renewed in the same manner as executions from the justices' courts.

All fines collected under this section or imposed and collected under Section 450.1 shall be paid by the officer collecting them to the commanding officer of the organization of which the person fined is or was a member and shall be deposited by the commanding officer into the General Fund.

SEC. 59. Section 474 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

474. The Adjutant General, under procedures established by him or her and approved by the Governor, and acting through a board of officers appointed by the Adjutant General, may correct any military record of a member of the California National Guard when he or she considers it necessary to correct an error or remove an injustice.

SEC. 60. Section 513 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

513. The Adjutant General may detail from the organizations of the National Guard, State Military Reserve, or Naval Militia, competent members thereof who shall perform duties on behalf of the California Cadet Corps as may be assigned to them or who shall act as training and rifle practice instructors for the California Cadet Corps. The Adjutant General may provide for compensating the persons detailed for duty and service with the California Cadet Corps and the persons detailed to instruct the cadets in drill and target practice. The expenditures therefor may be paid out of the moneys appropriated for the maintenance of the California Cadet Corps. The Adjutant General may conduct schools and conferences for the officers of the California Cadet Corps and pay the expenditures thereof out of moneys appropriated for the maintenance of the California Cadet Corps. The Adjutant General may adopt rules and regulations providing for the promotion of officers of the California Cadet Corps.

SEC. 61. Section 551 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

551. The Governor is hereby authorized to prescribe rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter governing the enlistment, organization, administration, equipment, maintenance, training, and discipline of forces. The rules and regulations, insofar as the Governor deems practicable and desirable, shall conform to existing law governing and pertaining to the National Guard and the rules and regulations adopted thereunder and shall prohibit the acceptance of gifts, donations, gratuities, or anything of value by those forces or any member of those forces from any individual, firm, association, or corporation by reason of that membership. Section 167 shall at no time apply to the forces herein authorized except that all officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men and women on active duty with the Office of the Adjutant General shall be appointed by the Governor, with consideration of the recommendation of the Adjutant General. All officers, warrant officers and enlisted men and women on active duty under Section 167 who are ordered into federal service by federal authority during the emergency or who are ordered by state authority to perform duty with the forces herein authorized shall not thereby lose the rights and privileges provided in Section 167 and shall be restored to those rights and privileges upon completion of that service or duty.

Members of the California National Guard not ordered to federal service or who are not required to perform federal service or who have been deferred from federal duty may perform service as members of the California National Guard on state active duty on behalf of the forces herein authorized and may be compensated as provided in Sections 320 and 321.

SEC. 62. Section 552 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

552. Officers and warrant officers of the forces herein authorized on active duty in the service of the state shall receive the same pay and allowances as officers of similar grade in the Army of the United States.

An officer, warrant officer or enlisted man or woman of the forces herein authorized may, with his or her consent, be detailed for duty and may be paid compensation in any grade lower than the officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man or woman actually holds; provided, the officer, warrant officer or enlisted man or woman voluntarily waives all compensation in excess of the lower grade in which he or she is detailed to duty.

Whenever an officer or warrant officer of the forces herein authorized is detailed for special duty in any matter relating to those forces, by order of the Governor, he or she shall be allowed the same pay and allowances as officers or warrant officers of similar grade in the Army of the United States and actual traveling expenses. An enlisted man or woman similarly detailed shall be allowed the same pay and allowances as enlisted men and women of similar grade in the Army of the United States and actual traveling expenses, except that family allowances shall not be allowed those enlisted men and women. An officer, warrant officer or enlisted man or woman of the forces herein authorized may, with his or her consent, be detailed for special duty without expense to the state, except and provided, however, he or she may be paid his or her actual traveling expenses.

In addition to the pay and allowances authorized in this code, personnel of the forces created herein having administrative functions connected therewith may be paid not more than twenty dollars ($20) per month for the performance of those duties according to rules and regulations adopted by the Adjutant General.

All enlistments of members of the active militia may be extended by the Adjutant General if necessary during the existence of a national emergency.

SEC. 63. Section 643.2 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

643.2. A good conduct medal may be presented to each person who, while an enlisted member of the California National Guard, State Military Reserve, or Naval Militia, has demonstrated fidelity through faithful and exact performance of duty, efficiency through capacity to produce desired results, and whose behavior has demonstrated that he or she deserves emulation.

SEC. 64. Section 648 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

648. Decorations authorized by this code and decorations, medals, badges, ribbons, and insignia authorized by the laws or regulations of the United States pertaining to the National Guard, Air National Guard, and Naval Militia may be worn by officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men and women in accordance with the code, laws, or regulations. However, decorations awarded by other states and territories of the United States may be worn, but shall be subordinated to those issued by federal and state laws or regulations. No other decorations, medals, badges, ribbons, or insignia may be worn. A violation of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor.

SEC. 65. Section 986.1 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

986.1. (a) If a veteran dies after filing an application for a farm or a home, and the application setting forth the veteran's eligibility and qualifications is subsequently approved, his or her surviving spouse may, in the discretion of the department, succeed to the veteran's rights under the application, and may be entitled to the rights, privileges, and benefits under this article that would have been the veteran's, but for his or her death. The contract of purchase that the department otherwise would have made with the veteran may be made with his or her surviving spouse.

(b) If a person was a member of the armed forces on active military duty, entered active duty while in the State of California and lived in this state for six months immediately preceding entry into active duty and was killed in line of duty while on active duty, he or she shall be considered to be a "veteran" for the purposes of this article, and his or her unremarried surviving spouse may file an application, may be entitled to the same rights, privileges and benefits and may contract with the department as provided in the case of a surviving spouse under subdivision (a).

(c) If a member of the armed forces entered active military duty while in the State of California, and lived in this state for six months immediately preceding entry into active duty, and is being held as a prisoner of war or has been designated by the armed forces as missing in action, he or she shall be considered to be a "veteran" for the purposes of this article, and his or her surviving spouse may file an application, may be entitled to the same rights, privileges, and benefits, and may contract with the department as provided in the case of a surviving spouse under subdivision (a).

SEC. 66. Section 986.3 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

986.3. The department may acquire a farm or home from the owner thereof or may contract with a veteran for the construction of a dwelling house and other improvements for a farm or home, upon the terms agreed if:

(a) The department is satisfied of the desirability of the property submitted.

(b) The veteran has agreed with the department that the veteran or members of his or her immediate family will actually reside on the property within 60 days from the day of purchase by the department, or if the residence on the property is not complete on the date of purchase, within 60 days after the residence is completed.

(c) The sum to be expended by the department pursuant to a contract for the construction of a dwelling house and other improvements does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(d) Where the department is to contract with a veteran for the construction of a dwelling house and other buildings, or for the purchase of a mobilehome:

(1) The veteran is the owner in fee of the real property on which the dwelling house and other buildings are to be constructed, or is the owner in fee of the real property or the owner of an undivided interest in common in a portion of a parcel of real property on which a mobilehome is to be situated, and agrees to convey that property to the department without cost.

(2) The veteran has paid a reasonable fee set by the department to cover the cost of any preliminary service of the department as may be necessary to process the application.

(3) The veteran has filed with the department adequate plans and specifications for the improvements to be constructed upon the real property, together with a contract, executed by a contractor licensed by the State of California for the construction of the improvements in accordance with the plans and specifications within eight months after the acquisition of the real property by the department, and a bond executed by the contractor providing for compliance with the terms of the contract and for the payment of persons furnishing material or labor on the job, executed by a surety company, authorized to do business in the State of California.

(4) The plans, specifications, contract and bond are approved by the department.

(5) The veteran has placed in escrow, all sums of money to be advanced by him or her where the cost is in excess of the maximum that may be expended by the department.

As used in this section "immediate family" includes only the following:

Spouse, children, either natural or adoptive; and the parents if they are dependent upon the veteran for 50 percent or more of their support.

SEC. 67. Section 987.7 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.7. The department may, in the contract of purchase with a veteran, provide that, in the event of default by the veteran and forfeiture of his or her rights under the contract and subsequent sale of the property by the department, it may pay to the veteran any net gain realized by the department upon the sale. The department is the sole judge of the net gain.

SEC. 68. Section 987.17a of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.17a. (a) The department shall establish the actual interest rate to be paid. To this end the department, by a two-thirds vote of California Veterans Board members and with the approval of the Veterans' Finance Committee of 1943, is empowered to establish a uniform effective rate of interest. The California Veterans Board and the Veterans' Finance Committee shall periodically, at least once each year, make a finding as to the effective rate of interest to be charged, not to exceed 5 percent per annum, taking into consideration the current value of money and the solvency of the Veterans' Farm and Home Building Fund of 1943 and the interest paid on participation contracts to which the interest of the department is subject. The California Veterans Board may raise or lower the effective rate of interest payable under those contracts for any given period as many times and as frequently as it deems to be for the best interests of the department, as well as the contractholders, if in so doing its action is made applicable alike to any and all contracts executed after the effective date of this section, and 90 days' advance notice be given of the time when the new rate of interest is to become effective.

(b) The total amount of any installment payment shall be raised or lowered to reflect a change in the effective rate of interest. The department shall, upon request of the purchaser, instead increase or decrease the period fixed by the department for amortization of the purchase price without changing the amount of the installment payment. The department shall provide the purchaser with full information as to the repayment options available to him or her under this subdivision and, upon request of the purchaser, the financial consequences of each option. The actual interest rate to be paid on the amount remaining unpaid under any veteran's purchase contract shall be a rate of interest that, when combined with the interest paid on the unpaid balance of a participation contract to which the department's interest is subject, equals the effective rate of interest.

SEC. 69. Section 987.60 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.60. (a) The department may acquire the farm or home from its owner or may contract with a veteran for the construction of a dwelling house and other improvements for a farm or home, upon the terms agreed under all of the following terms and conditions:

(1) The department is satisfied of the desirability of the property submitted.

(2) The veteran has agreed with the department that he or she, or members of his or her immediate family, will actually reside on the property within 60 days from the date of purchase by the department, or, if the residence on the property is not complete on the date of purchase, within 60 days after the residence is completed, and will continue to reside on the property until all payments due the department have been paid or the farm or home is sold, except where the occupancy requirement is waived pursuant to Section 987.62.

(3) If the department is to contract with a veteran for the construction of a dwelling house and other buildings, or for the purchase of a mobilehome, all of the following are required:

(A) The veteran shall be the owner of the real property on which the dwelling house and other buildings are to be constructed, or shall be the owner of the real property or shall be the owner of an undivided interest in common in a portion of a parcel of real property on which a mobilehome is to be situated, and agrees to convey that property to the department without cost.

(B) The veteran has paid a reasonable fee set by the department to cover the cost of any preliminary service of the department that may be necessary to process the application.

(C) The veteran has filed with the department adequate plans and specifications for the improvements to be constructed upon the real property, together with a contract, executed by a contractor licensed by the State of California for the construction of the improvements in accordance with the plans and specifications within 12 months after the acquisition of the real property by the department, and a bond executed by the contractor providing for compliance with the terms of the contract and for the payment of persons furnishing material or labor on the job, executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the State of California. The department may also require course-of-construction insurance for public liability, property damage, and workers' compensation.

(D) The plans, specifications, contract, and bond are approved by the department.

(E) The veteran has placed in escrow all sums of money to be advanced by him or her, where the cost is in excess of the maximum that may be expended by the department.

(b) As used in this section "immediate family" includes only the veteran's spouse, natural or adoptive dependent children, and parents only if the parents are dependent upon the veteran for 50 percent or more of their support.

SEC. 70. Section 987.79 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.79. The department may, in the contract of purchase with a veteran, provide that, in the event of default by the veteran and forfeiture of his or her rights under the contract and subsequent sale of the property by the department, it may pay to the veteran any net gain realized by the department upon the sale. The department is the sole judge of the net gain.

SEC. 71. Section 1038 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

1038. All money deposited with the home for a veteran shall be paid to him or her on demand, upon his discharge or voluntary departure from the home. If the money is not so demanded at the time of his or her discharge or departure or within a period of two years thereafter, if the amount does not exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000), or within a period of five years thereafter, if the amount exceeds three thousand dollars ($3,000) either by the veteran, or, in the event of the veteran's death after his or her discharge or departure, by the veteran's heirs, devisees, legatees, or qualified executor or administrator of his or her estate, the money shall be paid to the post fund.

SEC. 72. Section 1042 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

1042. All accrued interest on money turned over to the executive officer and retained by him or her under this chapter shall be accounted for by the executive office and deposited to the credit of the post fund and used for the common benefit of veterans.

SEC. 73. Section 1200 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

1200. The moneys in the several funds of the district shall be paid out by the county treasurer only upon warrants drawn by the county auditor against the appropriate district fund. The county auditor shall draw warrants against the memorial district bond retirement fund, if that fund contains sufficient moneys, and if not, then, against any other funds of the district in payment of all valid and outstanding bonds of the district at maturity and of interest coupons thereon when due, upon presentation to the county auditor of the bonds or coupons by the owners thereof.

SEC. 74. Section 1201 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

1201. The county auditor shall also draw warrants against the memorial district fund and against the memorial district bond fund, in payment of lawful claims against the district certified to the county auditor by the president of the board.

SEC. 75. Section 1652 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

1652. Any peace officer or any person employed as a security guard or in a supervisory capacity on premises posted pursuant to Section 1650 may stop any person found on the premises and may detain that person for the purpose of demanding his or her name, address, and the reason for the person's presence. If the peace officer or employee has reason to believe that the person so interrogated has no right to be on the premises, he or she may arrest the person without a warrant on the charge of violating Section 1651.

SEC. 76. Any section of any act enacted by the Legislature during the 1994 calendar year that takes effect on or before January 1, 1995, and that amends, amends and renumbers, adds, repeals and adds, or repeals a section amended by this act, shall prevail over this act, whether that act is enacted prior to, or subsequent to, this act.

CHAPTER 115

An act to amend Section 20980.5 of the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20980.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20980.5. Every state safety member shall be retired on the first day of the calendar month succeeding that in which he or she attains age 65. Every member who has attained age 65 when he or she becomes a state safety member shall be retired on the first day of the following month.

This section shall not apply to members employed as physicians, dentists, or podiatrists.

CHAPTER 116

An act to amend Section 4980.43 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to marriage, family, and child counseling.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4980.43 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4980.43. (a) For all applicants, a minimum of two calendar years of supervised experience is required, which experience shall consist of 3,000 hours obtained over a period of not less than 104 weeks. Not less than 1,500 hours of experience shall be gained subsequent to the granting of the qualifying master's or doctor's degree. For those applicants who enroll in a qualifying degree program on or after January 1, 1995, not more than 750 hours of counseling and direct supervisor contact may be obtained prior to the granting of the qualifying master's or doctor's degree, provided, however, that this limitation shall not be interpreted to include professional enrichment activities. Except for personal psychotherapy hours gained after enrollment and commencement of classes in a qualifying degree program, no hours of experience may be gained prior to becoming a trainee. All experience shall be gained within the six years immediately preceding the date the application for licensure was filed, except that up to 500 hours of clinical experience gained in the supervised practicum required by subdivision (b) of Section 4980.40 shall be exempt from this six-year requirement.

(b) All experience shall be at all times under the supervision of a supervisor who shall be responsible for ensuring that the extent, kind, and quality of counseling performed is consistent with the training and experience of the person being supervised, and who shall be responsible to the board for compliance with all laws, rules, and regulations governing the practice of marriage, family, and child counseling. Experience shall be gained by interns and trainees either as an employee or as a volunteer in any allowable work setting specified in this chapter. The requirements of this chapter regarding gaining hours of experience and supervision are applicable equally to employees and volunteers. Experience shall not be gained by interns or trainees as an independent contractor.

(c) Supervision shall include at least one hour of direct supervisor contact for each week of experience claimed. A trainee shall also receive an average of at least one hour of direct supervisor contact for every five hours of client contact in each setting in which experience is gained. An intern shall also receive an average of at least one hour of direct supervisor contact for every 10 hours of client contact in each setting in which experience is gained. For purposes of this section, "one hour of direct supervisor contact" means one hour of face-to-face contact on an individual basis or two hours of face-to-face contact in a group of not more than eight persons. The contact may be counted toward the experience requirement for licensure, up to the maximum permitted by subdivision (d). All experience gained by a trainee shall be monitored by the supervisor as specified in regulation. The 5 to 1 and 10 to 1 ratios specified in this subdivision shall be applicable to all hours gained on or after January 1, 1995.

(d) (1) The experience required by Section 4980.40 shall include supervised marriage, family, and child counseling, and up to one-third of the hours may include direct supervisor contact and other professional enrichment activities.

(2) "Professional enrichment activities," for the purposes of this section, may include group, marital or conjoint, family, or individual psychotherapy received by an applicant. This psychotherapy may include up to 100 hours taken subsequent to enrolling and commencing classes in a qualifying degree program, or as an intern, and each of those hours shall be triple-counted toward the professional experience requirement. This psychotherapy shall be performed by a licensed marriage, family, and child counselor, licensed clinical social worker, licensed psychologist, licensed physician certified in psychiatry by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, or a licensed physician who has completed a residency in psychiatry.

(e) The experience required by Section 4980.40 may be gained as a trainee in the following settings: a governmental entity, a school, college or university, a nonprofit and charitable corporation, or a licensed health facility, as defined in Sections 1250, 1250.2, and 1250.3 of the Health and Safety Code, if the experience is gained by the trainee solely as part of the position for which he or she is employed.

(f) The experience required by Section 4980.40 may be gained as an intern as specified in subdivision (e) of this section, or when employed in a private practice owned by a licensed marriage, family, and child counselor, a licensed psychologist, a licensed clinical social worker, a licensed physician and surgeon, or a professional corporation of any of those licensed professions. Employment in a private practice setting shall not commence until the applicant has been registered as an intern. When an intern is employed in a private practice setting by any licensee enumerated in this section, or by a professional corporation of any of those licensees, the intern shall be under the direct supervision of a licensee enumerated in subdivision (f) of Section 4980.40 who shall be employed by and practice at the same site as the intern's employer. An intern employed in a private practice setting shall not pay his or her employer for supervision. While an intern may be either a paid employee or a volunteer, employers are encouraged to provide fair remuneration.

(g) All interns shall register with the board in order to be credited for postdegree hours of experience gained toward licensure, regardless of the setting where those hours are to be gained. Except as provided in subdivision (h), all postdegree hours shall be gained as a registered intern.

(h) Except when employed in a private practice setting, all postdegree hours of experience shall be credited toward licensure so long as the applicant applies for the intern registration within 90 days of the granting of the qualifying master's or doctor's degree and is thereafter granted the intern registration by the board.

(i) Trainees and interns shall not receive any remuneration from patients or clients, and shall only be paid by their employer.

(j) Trainees and interns shall only perform services at the place where their employer regularly conducts business, which may include performing services at other locations, so long as the services are performed under the direction and control of their employer and supervisor, and in compliance with the laws and regulations pertaining to supervision. Trainees and interns shall have no proprietary interest in the employer's business.

(k) An intern or trainee who provides volunteered services or other services, and who receives no more than a total, from all work settings, of five hundred dollars ($500) per month as reimbursement for expenses actually incurred by that intern or trainee for services rendered in any lawful work setting other than a private practice shall be considered an employee and not an independent contractor. The board may audit applicants who receive reimbursement for expenses, and the applicant shall have the burden of demonstrating that the payments received were for reimbursement of expenses actually incurred.

(l) Each educational institution preparing applicants for licensure pursuant to this chapter shall consider requiring, and shall encourage, its students to undergo individual, marital or conjoint, family, or group counseling or psychotherapy, as appropriate. Each supervisor shall consider, advise, and encourage his or her interns and trainees regarding the advisability of undertaking individual, marital or conjoint, family, or group counseling or psychotherapy as appropriate. Insofar as it is deemed appropriate and is desired by the applicant, the educational institution and supervisors are encouraged to assist the applicant in locating that counseling or psychotherapy at a reasonable cost.

CHAPTER 117

An act to amend Section 39670 of, and to add Section 35021.5 to, the Education Code, and to amend Sections 830.6 and 832.2 of the Penal Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The safety and security of public school children and youth, while on campus and when traveling between home and school, is increasingly at risk.

(b) School district personnel face increasing risks of violence while performing their official duties.

(c) Incidents of burglary, theft, arson, and vandalism to school property, buildings, and equipment are escalating.

(d) Costs of police protection and crime prevention on school campuses often are prohibitive. Those costs frequently detract from the ability of school districts to pay for the education of children, the primary purpose of the public schools. The only alternative is for a school district to operate without adequate police protection.

(e) In the community surrounding each school district, there are adults with time, desire, and untapped skills who, with proper training, could augment school police services on an unpaid volunteer basis.

SEC. 2. Section 35021.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

35021.5. (a) The governing board of a school district may establish an unpaid volunteer school police reserve officer corps to supplement a police department established pursuant to Section 39670. Any person deputized by a school district as a school police reserve officer shall complete the training prescribed by Section 832.2 of the Penal Code.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature to allow school districts to use volunteer school police reserve officers to the extent necessary to provide a safe and secure school environment.

SEC. 3. Section 39670 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39670. (a) The governing board of any school district may establish a security department under the supervision of a chief of security or a police department under the supervision of a chief of police, as designated by, and under the direction of, the superintendent of the school district. In accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 45100) of Part 25, the governing board may employ personnel to ensure the safety of school district personnel and pupils and the security of the real and personal property of the school district. In addition, a school district may assign a school police reserve officer who is deputized pursuant to Section 35021.5 to a schoolsite to supplement the duties of school police personnel pursuant to this section. It is the intention of the Legislature in enacting this section that a school district police or security department is supplementary to city and county law enforcement agencies and is not vested with general police powers.

(b) The governing board of a school district that establishes a security department or a police department shall set minimum qualifications of employment for the chief of security or chief of police, respectively, including, but not limited to, prior employment as a peace officer or completion of any peace officer training course approved by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training. A chief of security or chief of police shall comply with the prior employment or training requirement set forth in this subdivision as of January 1, 1993, or a date one year subsequent to the initial employment of the chief of security or chief of police by the school district, whichever occurs later. This subdivision shall not be construed to require the employment by a school district of any additional personnel.

SEC. 4. Section 830.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.6. (a) (1) Whenever any qualified person is deputized or appointed by the proper authority as a reserve or auxiliary sheriff or city police officer, a reserve deputy sheriff, a reserve deputy marshal, a reserve police officer of a regional park district or of a transit district, a reserve harbor or port police officer of a county, city, or district as specified in Section 663.5 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, a reserve deputy of the Department of Fish and Game, a reserve special agent of the Department of Justice, a reserve officer of a community service district which is authorized under subdivision (h) of Section 61600 of the Government Code to maintain a police department or other police protection, a reserve officer of a school district police department under Section 35021.5 of the Education Code, or a reserve officer of a police protection district formed under Part 1 (commencing with Section 20000) of Division 14 of the Health and Safety Code, and is assigned specific police functions by that authority, the person is a peace officer, if the person qualifies as set forth in Section 832.6. The authority of a person designated as a peace officer pursuant to this paragraph extends only for the duration of the person's specific assignment. A transit, harbor, or port district reserve officer may carry firearms only if authorized by, and under those terms and conditions as are specified by, his or her employing agency.

(2) Whenever any qualified person is deputized or appointed by the proper authority as a reserve or auxiliary sheriff or city police officer, a reserve deputy sheriff, a reserve deputy marshal, a reserve police officer of a regional park district, transit district, or a school district, or a reserve harbor or port police officer of a county, city, or district as specified in Section 663.5 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, and is so designated by local ordinance or, if the local agency is not authorized to act by ordinance, by resolution, either individually or by class, and is assigned to the prevention and detection of crime and the general enforcement of the laws of this state by that authority, the person is a peace officer, if the person qualifies as set forth in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 832.6. The authority of a person designated as a peace officer pursuant to this paragraph includes the full powers and duties of a peace officer as provided by Section 830.1. A transit, harbor, or port district reserve police officer, or a city or county reserve peace officer who is not provided with the powers and duties authorized by Section 830.1, has the powers and duties authorized in Section 830.33, and a school district reserve police officer has the powers and duties authorized in Section 830.32.

(b) Whenever any person is summoned to the aid of any uniformed peace officer, the summoned person is vested with the powers of a peace officer that are expressly delegated to him or her by the summoning officer or that are otherwise reasonably necessary to properly assist the officer.

SEC. 5. Section 832.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

832.2. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure the safety of pupils, staff, and the public on or near California's public schools, by providing school peace officers with training that will enable them to deal with the increasingly diverse and dangerous situations they encounter.

(b) Every school peace officer, including a school police reserve officer, as described in Sections 39670 and 72330 of the Education Code, shall complete a course of training approved by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training relating directly to the role of school peace officers. Any person employed as a school peace officer prior to the date that the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training approves the course of training shall complete the course of instruction by January 1, 1996. Any person who is not employed as a school peace officer by the date that the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training approves the course of training shall complete the course of instruction within one year from the date his or her employment commences.

The school peace officer training course shall address guidelines and procedures for reporting offenses to other law enforcement agencies that deal with violence on campus and other school related matters, as determined by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training. The Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training shall develop and approve the course of training no later than January 1, 1991, and shall consult with school peace officers regarding the content and hourly requirement for this course.

(c) This section does not apply to any school peace officer whose employer requires its school peace officers to possess the basic certificate that is awarded by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training or to any school peace officer who possesses the basic certificate that is awarded by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training.

SEC. 6. No provision of this act shall cause the displacement of any classified employee of any school district.

CHAPTER 118

An act to add Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 47620) to Part 26.8 of the Education Code, relating to charter schools.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 47620) is added to Part 26.8 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5. UNIVERSITY CHARTER SCHOOLS

47620. An elementary school that has been operated by the University of California at the Los Angeles campus prior to January 1, 1994, may apply to become a charter school under this chapter. The school may apply under either Section 47621 or Section 47622. If a charter is granted under this chapter, the resulting charter school shall be part of the public school system.

47621. An elementary school that meets the requirements of Section 47620 may apply to become a charter school by petitioning the governing board of the local school district and otherwise following the procedures and requirements contained in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 47605) and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 47610).

47622. As an alternative to Section 47621, an elementary school that meets the requirements of Section 47620 may apply to become a charter school by petitioning the State Board of Education. Under this section, the petition shall be signed by not less than 50 percent of the school's currently employed teachers. All other procedures and requirements, other than those prescribed in subdivision (a) of Section 47605, that are contained in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 47605) and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 47610) are applicable to a petition filed pursuant to this section except that references to "governing board" shall mean the State Board of Education.

47623. If an elementary school petitions either the governing board of the local school district or the State Board of Education to become a charter school, as specified in Section 47621 or 47622, that school shall receive state apportionments equal to the statewide average revenue limit for elementary schools plus funding as specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 47612.

47624. If a charter is granted under this chapter, the University of California shall continue to own and be liable for the resulting charter school to the same extent as before the granting of the charter.

47625. A charter granted pursuant to Section 47620 shall not become operative before July 1, 1995.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 119

An act to amend Section 798.39 of the Civil Code, relating to mobilehome parks.

[Approved by Governor June 24, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 27, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 798.39 of the Civil Code is amended to read:
798.39. (a) The management may only demand a security deposit on or before initial occupancy and the security deposit may not be in an amount or value in excess of an amount equal to two months' rent that is charged at the inception of the occupancy, in addition to any rent for the first month. In no event shall additional security deposits be demanded of a homeowner following the initial occupancy.

(b) As to all security deposits collected on or after January 1, 1989, after the homeowner has promptly paid to the management within five days of the date the amount is due, all of the rent, utilities, and reasonable service charges for any 12-consecutive-month period subsequent to the collection of the security deposit by the management, or upon resale of the mobilehome, whichever occurs earlier, the management shall, upon the receipt of a written request from the homeowner, refund to the homeowner the amount of the security deposit within 30 days following the end of the 12-consecutive-month period of the prompt payment or the date of the resale of the mobilehome.

(c) As to all security deposits collected prior to January 1, 1989, in the event that the mobilehome park is sold or transferred to any other party or entity, the selling park owner shall deposit in escrow an amount equal to all security deposits that the park owner holds. The seller's escrow instructions shall direct that, upon close of escrow, the security deposits therein that were held by the selling park owner (including the period in escrow) for 12 months or more, shall be disbursed to the persons who paid the deposits to the selling park owner and promptly paid, within five days of the date the amount is due, all rent, utilities, and reasonable service charges for the 12-month period preceding the close of escrow.

(d) Any and all security deposits in escrow that were held by the selling park owner that are not required to be disbursed pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) shall be disbursed to the successors in interest to the selling or transferring park owner, who shall have the same obligations of the park's management and ownership specified in this section with respect to security deposits. The disbursement may be made in escrow by a debit against the selling park owner and a credit to the successors in interest to the selling park owner.

(e) The management shall not be required to place any security deposit collected in an interest-bearing account or to provide a homeowner with any interest on the security deposit collected.

(f) Nothing in this section shall affect the validity of title to real property transferred in violation of this section.

CHAPTER 120

An act to amend Sections 14105.98 and 14163 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 29, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 29, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that statutory amendments in 1991 and 1993 to the federal medicaid program, together with federal regulations regarding medicaid payment matters, suggest that modifications to the Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Program are appropriate to align the timing of the program more closely to the federal fiscal year, and to incorporate an element suggested by the federal government to ensure that the program achieves full federal funding for the 1993-94 state fiscal year and subsequent fiscal years.

SEC. 2. Section 14105.98 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14105.98. (a) The following definitions shall apply for purposes of this section:

(1) "Disproportionate share list" means an annual list of disproportionate share hospitals that provide acute inpatient services issued by the department for purposes of this section.

(2) "Fund" means the Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund, created pursuant to Section 14163.

(3) "Eligible hospital" means a hospital included on a disproportionate share list, which is eligible to receive payment adjustments under this section with respect to a particular state fiscal year.

(4) "Hospital" means a health facility that is licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code to provide acute inpatient hospital services, and includes all components of the facility.

(5) "Payment adjustment" or "payment adjustment amount" means an amount paid under this section for acute inpatient hospital services provided by a disproportionate share hospital.

(6) "Payment adjustment year" means the particular state fiscal year with respect to which payments are to be made to eligible hospitals under this section.

(7) "Payment adjustment program" means the system of Medi-Cal payment adjustments for acute inpatient hospital services established by this section.

(8) "Annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days" means the total number of Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital days, regardless of dates of service, for which payment was made by or on behalf of the department to a hospital, under present or previous ownership, during the most recent calendar year ending prior to the beginning of a particular payment adjustment year, including all Medi-Cal acute inpatient covered days of care for hospitals which are paid on a different basis than per diem payments.

(9) "Low-income utilization rate" means a percentage rate determined by the department in accordance with the requirements of Section 1396r-4(b)(3) of Title 42 of the United States Code, and included on a disproportionate share list.

(10) "Low-income number" means a hospital's low-income utilization rate rounded down to the nearest whole number, and included on a disproportionate share list.

(11) "1991 Peer Grouping Report" means the final report issued by the department dated May 1991, entitled "Hospital Peer Grouping."

(12) "Major teaching hospital" means a hospital that meets the definition of a university teaching hospital, major nonuniversity teaching hospital, or large teaching emphasis hospital as set forth on page 51 of the 1991 Peer Grouping Report.

(13) "Children's hospital" means a hospital that meets the definition of a children's hospital-state defined, as set forth on page 53 of the 1991 Peer Grouping Report, or which is listed in subdivision (a), or subdivisions (c) to (g), inclusive, of Section 16996.

(14) "Acute psychiatric hospital" means a hospital that meets the definition of an acute psychiatric hospital, a combination psychiatric/alcohol-drug rehabilitation hospital, or a psychiatric health facility, to the extent the facility is licensed to provide acute inpatient hospital service, as set forth on page 52 of the 1991 Peer Grouping Report.

(15) "Alcohol-drug rehabilitation hospital" means a hospital that meets the definition of an alcohol-drug rehabilitation hospital as set forth on page 52 of the 1991 Peer Grouping Report.

(16) "Emergency services hospital" means a hospital that is a licensed provider of basic emergency services as described in Sections 70411 to 70419, inclusive, of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, or that is a licensed provider of comprehensive emergency medical services as described in Sections 70451 to 70459, inclusive, of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(17) "Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service" means any acute inpatient day of service attributable to patients who, for those days, were eligible for medical assistance under the California state plan, including any day of service that is reimbursed on a basis other than per diem payments.

(18) "Total per diem composite amount" means, for each eligible hospital for a particular payment adjustment year, the total of the various per diem payment adjustment amounts to be paid to the hospital for each eligible day as calculated under subdivision (g), (h), (i), or (j).

(19) "Supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment" means a lump-sum amount paid under this section for acute inpatient hospital services provided by a disproportionate share hospital.

(20) "Projected total payment adjustment amount" means, for each eligible hospital for a particular payment adjustment year, the amount calculated by the department as the projected maximum total amount the hospital is expected to receive under the payment adjustment program for the particular payment adjustment year (including all per diem payment adjustment amounts and any applicable supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments).

(21) "To align the program with the federal allotment" means to modify the size of the payment adjustment program to be as close as reasonably feasible to, but not to exceed, the estimated or actual maximum state disproportionate share hospital allotment for the particular federal fiscal year for California under Section 1396r-4(f) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(22) "Descending pro rata basis" means an allocation methodology under which a pool of funds is distributed to hospitals on a pro rata basis until one of the recipient hospitals reaches its maximum payment limit, after which all remaining amounts in the pool are distributed on a pro rata basis to the recipient hospitals that have not reached their maximum payment limits, until another hospital reaches its maximum payment limit, and which process is repeated until the entire pool of funds has been distributed among the recipient hospitals.

(b) For each fiscal year commencing with 1991-92, there shall be Medi-Cal payment adjustment amounts paid to hospitals pursuant to this section. The amount of payments made and the eligible hospitals for each payment adjustment year shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this section. The payments are intended to support health care services rendered by disproportionate share hospitals.

(c) For each fiscal year commencing with 1991-92, the department shall issue a disproportionate share list. The list shall be developed in accordance with subdivisions (e) and (f), and shall serve as a basis for payments under this section for the particular payment adjustment year. In developing the list, the department may, to the extent practicable, utilize applicable data which is consistent with analysis compiled or developed by the California Medical Assistance Commission.

(d) (1) Except as otherwise provided by this section, the payment adjustment amounts under this section shall be distributed as a supplement to, and concurrent with, payments on all billings for Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital services that are paid through Medi-Cal claims payment systems on or after July 1, 1991. In connection with those billings, the department shall pay payment adjustment amounts in accordance with subdivision (g), (h), (i), or (j), as applicable, to any hospital qualifying under subdivision (e). In addition, the department shall pay to each of those hospitals any supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amounts payable under subdivisions (u), (v), (w), and (y), and shall adjust payment amounts in accordance with other applicable provisions of this section. The nonfederal share of all payment adjustment amounts shall be funded by amounts from the fund. The department shall obtain federal matching funds for the payment adjustment program through customary Medi-Cal accounting procedures.

(2) As a limitation to paragraph (1), all payment adjustment amounts under this section, which are due with respect to billings paid through Medi-Cal claims payment systems on or after July 1, 1991, shall be suspended until the time federal approval is first obtained for the payment adjustment program as part of the Medi-Cal program. For purposes of this paragraph, federal approval requires both (i) approval by appropriate federal agencies of an amendment to the Medi-Cal State Plan, as referred to in subdivision (o), and (ii) confirmation by appropriate federal agencies regarding the availability of federal financial participation for the payment adjustment program at a level of at least 40 percent of the percentage of federal financial participation that is normally applicable for Medi-Cal expenditures for acute inpatient hospital services. At the time federal approval is first obtained, the department shall proceed pursuant to subparagraphs (A) and (B) in connection with the suspended payment adjustment amounts.

(A) Except as provided by subdivision (l), or by any other subdivision of this section, any payment adjustment amounts which were suspended shall, within 60 days, be paid for all those billings paid through Medi-Cal claims payment systems during periods of time, on or after July 1, 1991, for which federal approval is first effective for the payment adjustment program.

(B) Payment adjustment amounts shall not be paid in connection with any Medi-Cal billings which were paid through Medi-Cal claims payment systems during any period of time for which federal approval is not effective for the payment adjustment program.

(3) As a limitation to paragraph (1), the amendments to this section enacted during calendar year 1993 shall not be implemented until the department has obtained any approvals that are necessary under federal law. Until such time as all necessary federal approvals are obtained, the payment adjustment program shall continue as though no amendments had been enacted during calendar year 1993. At such time as all necessary federal approvals have been obtained, the amendments enacted during calendar year 1993, shall be implemented effective as of the earliest effective date permissible under federal law.

(4) As a limitation to paragraph (1), amendments to this section enacted during calendar year 1994 shall not be implemented until the department has obtained any approvals that are necessary under federal law. Until all necessary federal approvals are obtained, the payment adjustment program shall continue as though no amendments had been enacted during calendar year 1994. When all necessary federal approvals have been obtained, the amendments enacted during calendar year 1994 shall be implemented on the earliest effective date permissible under federal law. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, on or after the date that federal approval is obtained, the payments made prior to that date with respect to the 1993-94 payment adjustment year or subsequent payment adjustment years, shall be deemed nonfinal payments for purposes of this section and Section 14163. Any of those amounts paid or payable prior to that date shall then be compared to the payments that would have been made pursuant to the program changes as approved by the federal government for all periods of time permissible under federal law, and the difference, if any, shall be paid or recouped by the department, as appropriate.

(e) To qualify for payment adjustment amounts under this section, a hospital shall have been included on the disproportionate share list for the particular payment adjustment year. The list shall consist of those hospitals which satisfy both of the following requirements:

(1) The hospital shall meet the federal requirements for disproportionate share status set forth in subsection (d) of Section 1396r-4 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(2) Either of the following shall apply:

(A) The hospital's medicaid inpatient utilization rate, as defined in Section 1396r-4(b)(2) of Title 42 of the United States Code, shall be at least one standard deviation above the mean medicaid inpatient utilization rate for hospitals receiving medicaid payments in the state.

(B) The hospital's low-income utilization rate shall exceed 25 percent.

(f) (1) For the 1991-92 payment adjustment year, a disproportionate share list shall be issued by the department no later than 65 days after the enactment of this section. For subsequent payment adjustment years, a tentative listing shall be prepared by the department at least 60 days before the beginning of the particular payment adjustment year, and a disproportionate share list shall be issued no later than five days after the beginning of the particular payment adjustment year. All state agencies shall take all necessary steps to supply the most recent data available to the department to meet these deadlines. The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide to the department quarterly access to the edited and unedited confidential patient discharge data files for all Medi-Cal eligible patients. The department shall maintain the confidentiality of that data to the same extent as is required of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. In addition, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide to the department no later than March 1 of each year, the data specified by the department, as the data existed on the statewide data base file as of February 1 of each year (except that for the 1991-92 payment adjustment year, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide data as it existed on the statewide data base file as of August 30, 1991), from all of the following:

(A) Hospital annual disclosure reports, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code, for hospital fiscal years which ended during the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(B) Annual reports of hospitals, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 439.2 of the Health and Safety Code, for the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(C) Hospital patient discharge data reports, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code, for the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(D) Any other materials on file with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(2) The disproportionate share list shall show all of the following:

(A) The name and license number of the hospital.

(B) Expressed as a percentage, the hospital's Medi-Cal utilization rate and low-income utilization rate as referred to in paragraph (2) of subdivision (e). The department shall determine these rates in accordance with paragraph (4).

(C) Based on the hospital's low-income utilization rate, the hospital's low-income number.

(3) The department shall determine a hospital's satisfaction of paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) based on the most recent annual data available, as it existed on the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development statewide data base file as of February 1 of each year, and August 30 for the 1991-92 payment adjustment year, whether the data relates to operations under present or previous ownership.

(4) To determine a hospital's Medi-Cal inpatient utilization rate and low-income utilization rate for purposes of disproportionate share lists, the department shall utilize the same methodology, formulae, and data sources as set forth in connection with interim determinations in Attachment 4.19-A of the Medi-Cal State Plan (effective on or about July 1, 1990), except that the following shall apply:

(A) The calculations shall not be interim, but shall be final for purposes of this section.

(B) To the extent permitted by federal law, the payment adjustment amounts provided to hospitals pursuant to this section shall not be included for any purpose in the calculations and determinations made pursuant to this section.

(C) Any other variation otherwise required by this section or by federal law.

(D) The data utilized by the department shall relate to the hospital under present and previous ownership. When there has been a change of ownership, a change in the location of the main hospital facility, or a material change in patient admission patterns during the twenty-four months immediately prior to the payment adjustment year, and the change has resulted in a diminution of access for Medi-Cal inpatients at the hospital, all as determined by the department, the department shall, to the extent permitted by federal law, utilize current data that are reflective of the diminution of access, even if the data are not annual data.

(E) Unless expressly provided otherwise by this section, the hospital's low-income utilization rate shall be based on the most recent annual data available from annual hospital reports existing on the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development data base file as of February 1 of each year.

(F) (i) If, for the 1994-95 payment adjustment year or subsequent payment adjustment years, some or all of the annual data elements available to the department from hospital reports filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development for purposes of computing hospital low-income utilization rates are different than in prior years due to changes in data reporting requirements of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development or changes in other state health care programs, the department shall take such steps as are necessary to obtain from hospitals appropriate data in order to clarify the annual data filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. This shall be done by the department in order to ensure that low-income utilization rates are determined in a manner as equivalent as possible to the approach and methodology used for the 1991-92 payment adjustment year.

(ii) The efforts of the department to obtain and apply data for the purposes described in clause (i) shall include a survey to collect, from one or more hospitals, any data necessary to calculate the low-income utilization rates in accordance with clause (i). The purpose for the survey shall be to clarify the data already included by hospitals in their annual reports submitted to the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. The data requested by the department in the survey may include, among other things, information regarding the manner in which payments made to hospitals under this section were reported by the hospitals to the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. The data requested may also include information regarding the manner in which hospitals reported figures relating to charity care, bad debts, and amounts received in connection with state or local indigent care programs.

(iii) In connection with any survey conducted under clause (ii), the department may require that hospitals submit responses in accordance with a deadline established by the department, and that the responses be supported by a verification of a hospital representative. Should any hospital not respond on a timely basis in accordance with protocols established by the department, the department shall utilize prior year data, adjusted by the department in its discretion, to calculate the hospital's low-income utilization rate.

(G) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all payment adjustment amounts, including per diem payment adjustment amounts and supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments, paid or payable to a hospital under this section, shall be recorded on an accrual basis of accounting in reports filed by the hospital with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development or the department.

(5) For purposes of payment adjustment amounts under this section, each disproportionate share list shall be considered complete when issued by the department pursuant to paragraph (1). Nothing on a disproportionate share list, once issued by the department, shall be modified for any reason, other than mathematical or typographical errors or omissions on the part of the department or the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development in preparation of the list.

(g) For each Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department during a payment adjustment year, regardless of dates of service, to a hospital on the applicable disproportionate share list, where that hospital, on the first day of the payment adjustment year, is a major teaching hospital, the hospital shall be paid the sum of all of the following amounts, except as limited by other applicable provisions of this section:

(1) A minimum payment adjustment of three hundred dollars ($300).

(2) The sum of the following amounts, minus three hundred dollars ($300):

(A) A ninety dollar ($90) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 25 percent to 29 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(B) A seventy dollar ($70) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 30 percent to 34 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(C) A fifty dollar ($50) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 35 percent to 44 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(D) A thirty dollar ($30) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 45 percent to 64 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(E) A ten dollar ($10) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 65 percent to 80 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(3) If the sum calculated under paragraph (2) is less than zero, it shall be disregarded for payment purposes.

(h) For each Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department during a payment adjustment year, regardless of dates of service, to a hospital on the applicable disproportionate share list, where that hospital, on the first day of the payment adjustment year, is a children's hospital, the hospital shall be paid the sum of four hundred fifty dollars ($450), except as limited by other applicable provisions of this section.

(i) For each Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department during a payment adjustment year, regardless of dates of service, to a hospital on the applicable disproportionate share list, where that hospital, on the first day of the payment adjustment year, is an acute psychiatric hospital or an alcohol-drug rehabilitation hospital, the hospital shall be paid the sum of all of the following amounts, except as limited by other applicable provisions of this section:

(1) A minimum payment adjustment of fifty dollars ($50).

(2) The sum of the following amounts, minus fifty dollars ($50):

(A) A ten dollar ($10) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 25 to 29 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(B) A seven dollar ($7) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 30 to 34 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(C) A five dollar ($5) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 35 to 44 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(D) A two dollar ($2) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 45 to 64 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(E) A one dollar ($1) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 65 to 80 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(3) If the sum calculated under paragraph (2) is less than zero, it shall be disregarded for payment purposes.

(j) For each Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department during a payment adjustment year, regardless of dates of service, to a hospital on the applicable disproportionate share list, where that hospital does not meet the criteria for receiving payments under subdivision (g), (h), or (i) above, the hospital shall be paid the sum of all of the following amounts, except as limited by other applicable provisions of this section:

(1) A minimum payment adjustment of one hundred dollars ($100).

(2) If the hospital is an emergency services hospital at the time the payment adjustment is paid, a two hundred dollar ($200) payment adjustment.

(3) The sum of the following amounts minus one hundred dollars ($100), and minus an additional two hundred dollars ($200) if the hospital is an emergency services hospital at the time the payment adjustment is paid:

(A) A forty dollar ($40) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 25 percent to 29 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(B) A thirty-five dollar ($35) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 30 percent to 34 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(C) A thirty dollar ($30) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 35 percent to 44 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(D) A twenty dollar ($20) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 45 percent to 64 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(E) A fifteen dollar ($15) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 65 percent to 80 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(4) If the sum calculated under paragraph (3) is less than zero, it shall be disregarded for payment purposes.

(k) (1) For any particular payment adjustment year, no hospital may qualify for payments under more than one subdivision among subdivisions (g), (h), (i), and (j). If any hospital qualifies under more than one subdivision, the department shall determine which subdivision shall apply for payments.

(2) For each payment adjustment year beginning with 1992-93, the total applicable per diem payment adjustment amount calculated for each eligible hospital pursuant to subdivision (g), (h), (i), or (j) shall be adjusted by a percentage identical to the percentage increase in transfer amounts that the department has authorized for use pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the particular fiscal year.

(3) If an eligible hospital ordinarily is paid by or on behalf of the department for Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital services based on a payment methodology other than per diem payments, the eligible hospital shall receive payment adjustment amounts under subdivision (g), (h), (i), or (j) of this section based on its approved Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital care, in the same fashion as all other eligible hospitals under this section.

(l) (1) (A) In determining Medi-Cal days of service for purposes of payment adjustments under this section, the department shall recognize all acute inpatient hospital days of service required to be taken into account under federal law.

(B) For the 1992-93 payment year, the department may consider the Medi-Cal days of service provided by the qualifying hospitals for Medi-Cal patients covered by the prepaid health plans contracting directly with the Medi-Cal program in achieving their maximum payments.

(C) For 1993-94 and subsequent payment years, the department may consider the Medi-Cal days of service provided by hospitals for Medi-Cal patients covered by the prepaid health plans contracting directly with the Medi-Cal program in determining the Medi-Cal utilization rate and the maximum days of payment. Additionally, the department may consider the days of service provided by the qualifying hospitals for Medi-Cal patients covered by the prepaid health plans contracting directly with the Medi-Cal program in achieving their maximum payments in those payment years.

(D) In order to meet the requirements of subparagraph (C), the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide to the department quarterly access to all data elements on the edited and unedited confidential patient discharge data files, including Social Security account numbers. The department shall match data with the department's Medi-Cal Eligibility Data System files to extract any data necessary to meet the requirements of subparagraph (C). The department shall maintain the confidentiality of all patient discharge data to the same extent as is required of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), there shall be, for each eligible hospital, a maximum limit on the number of Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital days for which payment adjustment amounts may be paid under this section with respect to each payment adjustment year. The maximum limit shall be that number of days that equals 80 percent of the eligible hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days, as determined from all Medi-Cal paid claims records available through April 1 preceding the beginning of the payment adjustment year.

(m) No payment rate for any service rendered by any hospital under the Medi-Cal selective provider contracting program shall be reduced as a result of this section.

(n) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, to the extent consistent with federal law, and except as provided by this section, no maximum payment limit shall be placed on the amount of Medi-Cal payment adjustments which may be made to disproportionate share hospitals. The payments made to disproportionate share hospitals pursuant to this section and Section 14105.99 shall not cause any other amounts paid or payable to a hospital to be deemed in excess of any applicable maximum payment limit.

(o) The department shall promptly seek any necessary federal approvals in order to implement this section, including any amendments. Pursuant to Section 1396r-4 of Title 42 of the United States Code, and related federal medicaid statutes and regulations, payment adjustment systems for inpatient hospital services rendered by disproportionate share hospitals shall be included in a state's medicaid plan. Therefore, the department shall, prior to the end of the calendar quarter during which this section is enacted or amended, submit for federal approval an amendment to the Medi-Cal State Plan in connection with the payment adjustment program.

(p) (1) The department shall compute, prior to the beginning of each payment adjustment year, the projected size of the payment adjustment program for the particular payment adjustment year. To do so, the department shall determine the projected total payment adjustment amount for each eligible hospital, and shall add these amounts together to determine the projected total size of the program. To the extent this projected total figure for the program exceeds the portion of the maximum state disproportionate share hospital allotment for California under federal law that the department anticipates will be available for the period in question, the department shall reduce the total per diem composite amounts of the various eligible hospitals in the fashion described below so that the allotment in question will not be exceeded.

(2) As an initial step, all total per diem composite amounts for the entire payment adjustment year shall be reduced proportionately not to exceed 2 percent of each total per diem composite amount.

(3) If the reductions authorized by paragraph (2) are insufficient to align the program with the federal allotment for California, then, to the extent permitted by federal law, the following shall apply:

(A) The adjusted total per diem composite amounts, as calculated under paragraph (2), shall remain in effect for each eligible hospital whose low-income number is 30 percent or more.

(B) The adjusted total per diem composite amounts, as calculated under paragraph (2), for all other eligible hospitals shall be further reduced proportionately to align the program with the federal allotment, but in no event to a level that is less than 65 percent of the total per diem composite amount that would have been payable to the eligible hospital had no reductions taken place.

(4) If the steps set forth in paragraph (3) are not permissible under federal law, or are not adequate to align the program with the federal allotment, the adjusted total per diem composite amounts for all eligible hospitals for the entire payment adjustment year shall be further reduced proportionately to align the program with the federal allotment, but in no event to a level that would result in adjusted total per diem composite amounts that are less than 65 percent of the total per diem composite amounts that would have been payable had no reductions taken place.

(5) When all eligible hospitals have been reduced to the 65-percent level set forth in paragraphs (3) and (4), the adjusted total per diem composite amounts for all eligible hospitals shall be further reduced proportionately as necessary to align the program with the federal allotment.

(6) This subdivision shall not apply to the 1995-96 payment adjustment year.

(q) (1) If it is necessary to apply the provisions of paragraph (3) of subdivision (p) at any time, the department shall, as soon as practicable, evaluate why the insufficiency arose and identify the projected occurrence and duration of any future insufficiencies.

(2) If the department determines as a result of the evaluations under paragraph (1) that (A) implementation of paragraph (3) of subdivision (p) will likely be necessary to resolve additional insufficiencies for the current payment adjustment year or the next payment adjustment year; and (B) that the level of federal financial participation realized by the payment adjustment program, for the current payment adjustment year as a whole, will be less than 30 percent of the percentage of federal financial participation that normally is applicable for Medi-Cal expenditures for acute inpatient hospital services, and that the level of federal financial participation for the payment adjustment program is expected to continue to remain below that 30 percent level for the next payment adjustment year as a whole, the department shall, as soon as practicable, implement paragraphs (3) and (4).

(3) If the department determines that the circumstances described in paragraph (2) are present, the payment adjustment program shall be terminated, effective as of the earliest date permissible under federal law. In that event, all installment payments to the fund which are already due pursuant to Section 14163 at the time of the department's determination shall remain due, and shall be collected by the Controller. However, installment payments which are not yet due at that time shall not become due.

(4) Within 90 days after the termination of the payment adjustment program, as referred to in paragraph (3), or as soon as practicable, the department shall determine whether any amounts remain in the fund which are not needed to pay prior payment adjustment amounts under this section. If remaining amounts exist in the fund, they shall be refunded to transferor entities on a pro rata basis, within 45 days after the date of the department's determination.

(r) (1) The state shall be held harmless from any federal disallowance resulting from payments made under this section, and from payments made to hospitals based on transfers accepted by the department under Section 14164. Any hospital that has received payments under this section, or based on transfers accepted by the department under Section 14164, shall be liable for any audit exception or federal disallowance only with respect to the payments made to that hospital. The department shall recoup from a hospital the amount of any audit exception or federal disallowance in the manner authorized by applicable laws and regulations.

(2) If any payment adjustment that has been paid, or that is otherwise payable under this section, exceeds the federal hospital-specific limitation under Section 1396r-4(g) of Title 42 of the United States Code, the department shall withhold or recoup the payment adjustment amount that exceeds the limitation. The nonfederal component of the amount withheld or recouped shall be redeposited in, or shall remain in, the fund, as applicable, until used for the purposes described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (j) of Section 14163.

(s) (1) The department may utilize existing administrative appeal procedures for purposes of any appealable matter that arises under the payment adjustment program. The matters that may be appealed shall be limited to those related to the following:

(A) Paragraph (5) of subdivision (f).

(B) State audit disallowances of amounts paid to hospitals under the payment adjustment program.

(2) Calculations which are final pursuant to paragraph (4) or (5) of subdivision (f) or the procedures or data on which those calculations are based, shall not be appealed.

(t) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the department shall take all appropriate steps permitted by law and the Medi-Cal State Plan to ensure the following for all years of the payment adjustment program:

(A) That well baby (nursery) days and acute administrative days are included in the payment adjustment program in the same fashion as all other Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital service.

(B) That, to the same extent as any other Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital service, well baby (nursery) days and acute administrative days are included as payable days under the payment adjustment program and in the total of annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days.

(C) That, if pursuant to paragraph (2), any well baby (nursery) days or acute administrative days are not included in the payment adjustment program for payment purposes for any parts of the 1992-93 or 1993-94 payment adjustment years, all such days are nevertheless included in the total of annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days for all purposes under the payment adjustment program, unless otherwise barred by paragraph (2).

(2) In no event shall paragraph (1) be implemented in a fashion that is inconsistent with federal medicaid law or the Medi-Cal State Plan.

(u) (1) For the 1993-94 payment adjustment year, each eligible hospital shall also be eligible to receive a supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment, which shall be payable as a result of the hospital being included on the disproportionate share list as of September 30, 1993. For purposes of federal medicaid rules, including Section 447.297(d) of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the supplemental payment adjustments shall be applicable to the federal fiscal year that ends on September 30, 1993.

(2) The availability of supplemental payment adjustments under this subdivision shall be determined as follows:

(A) The final maximum state disproportionate share hospital allotment for California under the provisions of applicable federal medicaid rules shall be identified for the 1993 federal fiscal year. This final allotment is two billion one hundred ninety-one million four hundred fifty-one thousand dollars ($2,191,451,000), as specified at page 43186 of Volume 58 of the Federal Register.

(B) The total amount of all per diem payment adjustment amounts under this section, whether paid or payable, that are applicable to the 1993 federal fiscal year shall be determined. The applicability of the per diem payment adjustment amounts to the 1993 federal fiscal year shall be determined in accordance with federal medicaid rules, including Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(C) The figure determined under subparagraph (B) shall be subtracted from the figure identified under subparagraph (A). If the remainder is a positive figure, supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments shall be made under this subdivision in accordance with paragraph (3).

(3) The amount of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment to each eligible hospital shall be computed as follows:

(A) The projected total of all per diem payment adjustment amounts payable to each particular eligible hospital under this section for the 1993-94 payment adjustment year shall be determined. For each hospital, this figure shall be identical to the figure used for the same hospital in the calculations regarding transfer amounts under subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the 1993-94 state fiscal year.

(B) The projected totals for all eligible hospitals determined under subparagraph (A) shall be added together to determine an aggregate total of all projected per diem payment adjustments for 1993-94 payment adjustment year. This figure shall be identical to the aggregate figure for all hospitals used in the calculations regarding transfer amounts under subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the 1993-94 state fiscal year.

(C) The figure determined for each eligible hospital under subparagraph (A) shall be divided by the aggregate figure determined under subparagraph (B), yielding a percentage figure for each hospital.

(D) The percentage figure determined for each hospital under subparagraph (C) shall be multiplied by the positive remainder calculated under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2).

(E) The product as so determined for each eligible hospital under subparagraph (D) shall be the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amount payable to the particular hospital.

(4) The department shall make partial payments of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments to eligible hospitals on or before January 1, 1994. The department shall make final calculations regarding the supplemental lump-sum payments based on data available as of March 1, 1994, and shall distribute the final payments promptly thereafter.

(5) The department shall implement this subdivision only to the extent consistent with federal medicaid law and the Medi-Cal State

Plan, and only to the extent that the department determines that federal financial participation is available. In doing so, the department shall comply with any procedures instituted by the Health Care Financing Administration in connection with Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(v) (1) For the 1993-94 payment adjustment year, each eligible hospital that remains in operation as of June 30, 1994, shall also be eligible to receive a supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment, which shall be payable as a result of the hospital being a disproportionate share hospital in operation as of that date.

(2) The availability of supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments under this subdivision shall be determined by the department as follows:

(A) The final maximum state disproportionate share hospital allotment for California under the provisions of applicable federal medicaid rules shall be identified for the 1994 federal fiscal year. This final allotment is two billion one hundred ninety-one million four hundred fifty-one thousand dollars ($2,191,451,000), as specified on page 22676 of Volume 59 of the Federal Register.

(B) The total amount of all per diem payment adjustment amounts under this section, whether paid or payable, that are applicable to the period October 1, 1993, through June 30, 1994, shall be determined. The applicability of the per diem payment adjustment amounts to this period of time shall be determined in accordance with federal medicaid rules, including Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(C) The figure determined under subparagraph (B) shall be subtracted from the figure identified under subparagraph (A). If the remainder is a positive figure, supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments shall be made under this subdivision in accordance with paragraph (3).

(3) The amount of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment to each hospital shall be computed as follows:

(A) The projected total of all other payment adjustment amounts payable to each particular hospital under this section applicable to the 1993-94 payment adjustment year shall be determined. For each hospital, this figure shall be identical to the sum of the figures used for the same hospital in the calculations regarding transfer amounts under subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the 1993-94 state fiscal year, not including the supplemental lump-sum payments described in this subdivision.

(B) The projected totals for all hospitals determined under subparagraph (A) shall be added together to determine an aggregate total. This aggregate total shall be identical to the aggregate figure for all hospitals used in the calculations regarding transfer amounts under subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the 1993-94 state fiscal year, not including the supplemental lump-sum payments described in this subdivision.

(C) The figure determined for each hospital under subparagraph (A) shall be divided by the aggregate figure determined under subparagraph (B), yielding a percentage figure for each hospital.

(D) The percentage figure determined for each hospital under subparagraph (C) shall be multiplied by the positive remainder calculated under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2).

(E) The product determined under subparagraph (D) for each hospital shall be the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amount payable to the particular hospital, which shall be payable because the facility is a disproportionate share hospital in operation as of June 30, 1994.

(4) The department shall make interim and final payments of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments to hospitals on or before October 31, 1994.

(5) The department shall implement this subdivision only to the extent consistent with federal medicaid law and the Medi-Cal State Plan, and only to the extent that the department determines that federal financial participation is available. In doing so, the department shall comply with any procedures instituted by the Health Care Financing Administration in connection with Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(w) (1) For the 1994-95 payment adjustment year, each eligible hospital that remains in operation as of June 30, 1995, shall also be eligible to receive a supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment, which shall be payable as a result of the hospital being a disproportionate share hospital in operation as of that date.

(2) The availability of supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments under this subdivision shall be determined by the department as follows:

(A) The final maximum state disproportionate share hospital allotment for California under the provisions of applicable federal medicaid rules shall be identified for the 1995 federal fiscal year.

(B) The total amount of all per diem payment adjustment amounts under this section, whether paid or payable, that are applicable to the period October 1, 1994, through June 30, 1995, shall be determined. The applicability of the per diem payment adjustment amounts to this period of time shall be determined in accordance with federal medicaid rules, including Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(C) The figure determined under subparagraph (B) shall be subtracted from the figure identified under subparagraph (A). If the remainder is a positive figure, supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments shall be made under this subdivision in accordance with paragraph (3).

(3) The amount of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment to each hospital shall be computed as follows:

(A) The projected total of all other payment adjustment amounts payable to each particular hospital under this section applicable to the 1994-95 payment adjustment year shall be determined. For each hospital, this figure shall be identical to the sum of the figures used for the same hospital in the calculations regarding transfer amounts under subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the 1994-95 state fiscal year, not including the supplemental lump-sum payments described in this subdivision.

(B) The projected totals for all hospitals determined under subparagraph (A) shall be added together to determine an aggregate total. This aggregate total shall be identical to the aggregate figure for all hospitals used in the calculations regarding transfer amounts under subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the 1994-95 state fiscal year, not including the supplemental lump-sum payments described in this subdivision.

(C) The figure determined for each hospital under subparagraph (A) shall be divided by the aggregate figure determined under subparagraph (B), yielding a percentage figure for each hospital.

(D) The percentage figure determined for each hospital under subparagraph (C) shall be multiplied by the positive remainder calculated under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2).

(E) The product as so determined under subparagraph (D) for each hospital shall be the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amount payable to the particular hospital, which shall be payable because the facility is a disproportionate share hospital in operation as of June 30, 1995.

(4) The department shall make interim and final payments of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments to hospitals on or before October 31, 1995.

(5) The department shall implement this subdivision only to the extent consistent with federal medicaid law and the Medi-Cal State Plan, and only to the extent that the department determines that federal financial participation is available. In doing so, the department shall comply with any procedures instituted by the Health Care Financing Administration in connection with Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(x) (1) With respect to per diem payment adjustments otherwise payable in connection with the period of July 1 through September 30 of the 1994-95 payment adjustment year, payment adjustment amounts shall be adjusted as described in paragraph (2).

(2) No per diem payment adjustment amounts shall be payable in connection with the period of July 1 through September 30 of the 1994-95 payment adjustment year. The Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department that otherwise would have given rise to payment adjustment amounts with respect to this period of time shall not count toward the maximum limit set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (1).

(y) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except subdivision (z), the payment adjustment program for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year shall be structured as set forth below.

(1) (A) The department shall, in the manner used for prior years, compute the projected total payment adjustment amounts for all eligible hospitals, by determining for each eligible hospital its total per diem composite amount and multiplying that figure by 80 percent of the hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days.

(B) The products of the calculations under subparagraph (A) for all eligible hospitals shall be added together. The sum of all these figures shall be the unadjusted projected total payment adjustment program for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year.

(2) The remaining amount available as part of the state disproportionate share hospital allotment for California under applicable federal rules for July 1995 through September 1995 (as part of the 1995 federal fiscal year) shall be recognized as being zero.

(3) The department shall estimate what the state disproportionate share hospital allotment for California will be for the 1996 federal fiscal year under applicable federal rules. The estimate shall not exceed the allotment that was applicable for California for the 1995 federal fiscal year.

(4) The estimate identified by the department under paragraph (3) shall be reduced by subtracting the total amount of the supplemental lump-sum payments paid or payable under subdivisions (v) and (w).

(5) The remainder determined under paragraph (4) shall be added to the amount determined under paragraph (2). The total of those two amounts shall be the maximum size of the payment adjustment program for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year.

(6) The total per diem composite amount computed for each eligible hospital under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) shall be reduced so the payment adjustment program for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year does not exceed the amount computed under paragraph (5). The reductions shall occur as follows:

(A) The department shall reduce the total per diem composite amount for each eligible hospital by multiplying the amount by an identical percentage. The percentage figure to be used for this purpose shall be that percentage that is derived by dividing the amount determined under paragraph (5) by the unadjusted projected total payment adjustment program amount determined under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1).

(B) The percentage figure derived under subparagraph (A) shall be applied to the total per diem composite amount for each eligible hospital, yielding an adjusted total per diem composite amount for each hospital for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year.

(C) The adjusted total per diem composite amount determined under subparagraph (B) for each eligible hospital shall be multiplied by 80 percent of the hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days, yielding an adjusted projected total payment adjustment amount for the hospital for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year.

(D) The adjusted figures computed for all eligible hospitals under subparagraph (C) shall be added together, yielding the adjusted maximum size of the payment adjustment program for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year, which shall equal the figure computed under paragraph (5).

(7) The adjusted maximum amount of the payment adjustment program for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year as determined under subparagraph (D) of paragraph (6), and the adjusted projected total payment adjustment amount for each eligible hospital, as determined under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (6), shall be distributed as follows:

(A) No per diem payment adjustment amounts shall be payable in connection with the period of July 1 through September 30 of the 1995-96 payment adjustment year. The Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department that otherwise would have given rise to payment adjustment amounts with respect to this period of time shall not count toward the maximum limit set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (I).

(B) For all eligible hospitals, the adjusted per diem composite amounts (as determined under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (6)) shall be the amounts payable with respect to the period of October 1 through June 30 of the 1995-96 payment adjustment year, subject to the applicable provisions of subdivision (z).

(8) For the 1995-96 payment adjustment year, each eligible hospital that remains in operation as of June 30, 1996, shall also be eligible to receive a supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment, which shall be payable as a result of the facility being a disproportionate share hospital in operation as of that date. The availability of supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments under this paragraph shall be determined by the department as follows:

(A) The adjusted projected total payment adjustment amount for each hospital, as determined under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (6), shall be identified.

(B) The total amount of all per diem payment adjustment amounts under this section, whether paid or payable, that are applicable to the period July 1, 1995, through June 30, 1996, shall be determined for each hospital, taking into account subparagraph (A) of paragraph (7). The applicability of the per diem payment adjustment amounts to this period of time shall be determined in accordance with federal medicaid rules, including Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(C) The amount determined under subparagraph (B) for each hospital shall be subtracted from the amount identified under subparagraph (A) for each hospital. If the remainder is a positive figure for the particular hospital, the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment for the hospital shall be the positive remainder amount, which shall be payable because the facility is a disproportionate share hospital in operation as of June 30, 1996.

(D) The department shall make interim and final payments of the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustments to hospitals on or before September 30, 1996.

(E) The department shall implement this subdivision only to the extent consistent with federal medicaid law and the Medi-Cal State Plan, and only to the extent that the department determines that federal financial participation is available. In doing so, the department shall comply with any procedures instituted by the Health Care Financing Administration in connection with Sections 447.297(d)(3) and 447.298 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(z) (1) (A) Notwithstanding any other provision of law (except for subparagraph (B)), all Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department that give rise to payment adjustment amounts with respect to the period October 1, 1994, through June 30, 1995, shall be treated as involving 1.4 days for purposes of this section. As a result, each per diem payment adjustment amount otherwise payable to the hospital in connection with these days shall be increased by 40 percent. The Medi-Cal days in question shall be treated as involving 1.4 days toward the maximum limit set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (l).

(B) For the 1994-95 payment adjustment year, no eligible hospital shall receive total payment adjustments, including per diem payment adjustment amounts and any supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amounts, in excess of the projected total payment adjustment amounts that were computed or recomputed, as applicable, for the hospital by the department with respect to the 1994-95 payment adjustment year. For each hospital, this maximum figure shall not exceed the sum of the following two components:

(i) The final figure computed by the department as the hospital's total per diem composite amount (including any applicable adjustments under subdivision (p)), multiplied by 80 percent of the hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days.

(ii) The amount calculated by the department as the hospital's pro rata share (based on the figures for all hospitals computed under clause (i)) of the remainder determined by subtracting (I) the sum of the figures computed for all hospitals under clause (i) from (II) the final maximum state disproportionate share hospital allotment for California under applicable federal rules for the 1995 federal fiscal year.

(C) Any payment adjustment amount that otherwise would be payable to a hospital, but that is barred by subparagraph (B), shall be withheld or recouped by the department and distributed on a descending pro rata basis as part of the supplemental lump-sum distribution described in subdivision (w) to those hospitals that have not reached their maximum figures as described in subparagraph (B).

(2) (A) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except for subparagraph (B), all Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department that give rise to payment adjustment amounts with respect to the period October 1, 1995, through June 30, 1996, shall be treated as involving 1.4 days for purposes of this section. As a result, each per diem payment adjustment amount otherwise payable to the hospital in connection with these days shall be increased by 40 percent. The Medi-Cal days in question shall be treated as involving 1.4 days toward the maximum limit set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (l).

(B) For the 1995-96 payment adjustment year, no eligible hospital shall receive total payment adjustments, including per diem payment adjustment amounts and any supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amounts, in excess of the adjusted projected total payment adjustment amount that was computed for the hospital for the 1995-96 payment adjustment year under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (6) of subdivision (y).

(C) Any payment adjustment amount that otherwise would be payable to a hospital, but that is barred by subparagraph (A), shall be withheld or recouped by the department and distributed on a descending pro rata basis as part of the supplemental lump-sum distribution described in paragraph (8) of subdivision (y) to those hospitals that have not reached their maximum figures as described in subparagraph (B).

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, to the extent necessary or appropriate to implement and administer the amendments to this section enacted during the 1994 calendar year, the department may utilize an approach involving interim payments, with reconciliation to final payments within a reasonable time.

SEC. 3. Section 14163 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14163. (a) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Public entity" means a county, a city, a city and county, the University of California, a local hospital district, a local health authority, or any other political subdivision of the state.

(2) "Hospital" means a health facility that is licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code to provide acute inpatient hospital services, and includes all components of the facility.

(3) "Disproportionate share hospital" means a hospital providing acute inpatient services to Medi-Cal beneficiaries that meets the criteria for disproportionate share status relating to acute inpatient services set forth in Section 14105.98.

(4) "Disproportionate share list" means the annual list of disproportionate share hospitals for acute inpatient services issued by the department pursuant to Section 14105.98.

(5) "Fund" means the Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund.

(6) "Eligible hospital" means, for a particular state fiscal year, a hospital on the disproportionate share list that is eligible to receive payment adjustment amounts under Section 14105.98 with respect to that state fiscal year.

(7) "Transfer year" means the particular state fiscal year during which, or with respect to which, public entities are required by this section to make an intergovernmental transfer of funds to the Controller.

(8) "Transferor entity" means a public entity that, with respect to a particular transfer year, is required by this section to make an intergovernmental transfer of funds to the Controller.

(9) "Transfer amount" means an amount of intergovernmental transfer of funds that this section requires for a particular transferor entity with respect to a particular transfer year.

(10) "Intergovernmental transfer" means a transfer of funds from a public entity to the state, that is local government financial participation in Medi-Cal pursuant to the terms of this section.

(11) "Licensee" means an entity that has been issued a license to operate a hospital by the department.

(12) "Annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days" means the total number of Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital days, regardless of dates of service, for which payment was made by or on behalf of the department to a hospital, under present or previous ownership, during the most recent calendar year ending prior to the beginning of a particular transfer year, including all Medi-Cal acute inpatient covered days of care for hospitals that are paid on a different basis than per diem payments.

(13) "Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital day" means any acute inpatient day of service attributable to patients who, for those days, were eligible for medical assistance under the California state plan, including any day of service that is reimbursed on a basis other than per diem payments.

(b) The Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the fund shall be continuously appropriated to, and under the administrative control of, the department for the purposes specified in subdivision (d). The fund shall consist of the following:

(1) Transfer amounts collected by the Controller under this section, whether submitted by transferor entities pursuant to subdivision (i) or obtained by offset pursuant to subdivision (j).

(2) Any other intergovernmental transfers deposited in the fund, as permitted by Section 14164.

(3) Any interest that accrues with respect to amounts in the fund.

(c) Moneys in the fund, which shall not consist of any state general funds, shall be used as the source for the nonfederal share of payments to hospitals pursuant to Section 14105.98. Moneys shall be allocated from the fund by the department and matched by federal funds in accordance with customary Medi-Cal accounting procedures, and used to make payments pursuant to Section

14105.98.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in Section 14105.98 or in any provision of law appropriating a specified sum of money to the department for administering this section and Section 14105.98, moneys in the fund shall be used only for the following:

(1) Payments to hospitals pursuant to Section 14105.98.

(2) Except for the amount transferred pursuant to paragraph (3), transfers to the Health Care Deposit Fund in the amount of one hundred fifty-four million seven hundred fifty-seven thousand six hundred ninety dollars ($154,757,690), beginning in the 1993-94 fiscal year. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the amount specified in this paragraph shall be in addition to any amounts transferred to the Health Care Deposit Fund arising from changes of any kind attributable to payment adjustment years prior to the 1993-94 payment adjustment year. These transfers from the fund shall be made in six equal monthly installments to the Medi-Cal local assistance appropriation item (Item 4260-101-001 of the annual Budget Act) in support of Medi-Cal expenditures. The first installment shall accrue in October of each transfer year, and all other installments shall accrue monthly thereafter from November through March.

(3) In the 1993-94 fiscal year, in addition to the amount transferred as specified in paragraph (2), fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) shall also be transferred to the Medi-Cal local assistance appropriation item (Item 4260-101-001) of the Budget Act of 1993.

(e) For the 1991-92 state fiscal year, the department shall determine, no later than 70 days after the enactment of this section, the transferor entities for the 1991-92 transfer year. To make this determination, the department shall utilize the disproportionate share list for the 1991-92 fiscal year, which shall be issued by the department no later than 65 days after the enactment of this section, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 14105.98. The department shall identify each eligible hospital on the list for which a public entity is the licensee as of July 1, 1991. The public entity that is the licensee of each identified eligible hospital shall be a transferor entity for the 1991-92 transfer year.

(f) The department shall determine, no later than 70 days after the enactment of this section, the transfer amounts for the 1991-92 transfer year. The transfer amounts shall be determined as follows:

(1) The eligible hospitals for 1991-92 shall be identified. For each hospital, the applicable total per diem payment adjustment amount under Section 14105.98 for the 1991-92 transfer year shall be computed. This amount shall be multiplied by 80 percent of the eligible hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days as determined from all Medi-Cal paid claims records available through April 1, 1991. The products of these calculations for all eligible hospitals shall be added together to determine an aggregate sum for the 1991-92 transfer year.

(2) The eligible hospitals for 1991-92 involving transferor entities as licensees shall be identified. For each hospital, the applicable total per diem payment adjustment amount under Section 14105.98 for the 1991-92 transfer year shall be computed. This amount shall be multiplied by 80 percent of the eligible hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days as determined from all Medi-Cal paid claims records available through April 1, 1991. The products of these calculations for all eligible hospitals with transferor entities as licensees shall be added together to determine an aggregate sum for the 1991-92 transfer year.

(3) The aggregate sum determined under paragraph (1) shall be divided by the aggregate sum determined under paragraph (2), yielding a factor to be utilized in paragraph (4).

(4) The factor determined in paragraph (3) shall be multiplied by the amount determined for each hospital under paragraph (2). The product of this calculation for each hospital in paragraph (2) shall be divided by 1.771, yielding a transfer amount for the particular transferor entity for the transfer year, except as provided by paragraph (5).

(5) Only for the transfer year with respect to which the payment adjustment program set forth in Section 14105.98 first gains federal approval, a reduction in the transfer amount determined pursuant to paragraph (4) shall be applicable under the following circumstances:

(A) To determine any such reduction, the transfer amount determined pursuant to paragraph (4) shall first be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of the transfer year for which federal approval is effective and the denominator of which is 365.

(B) If the product of the calculation under subparagraph (A) is 80 percent or more of the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4), no reduction of the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4) shall apply.

(C) If the product of the calculation under subparagraph (A) is less than 80 percent of the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4), a reduction shall apply to the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4). The reduction shall be that particular amount which is equal to the difference between (i) the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4) and (ii) the amount calculated under subparagraph (A) divided by 80 percent.

(D) Any reduction of a transfer amount applicable under subparagraph (C) shall be spread equally among the installments referred to in subdivision (i).

(g) For the 1991-92 transfer year, the department shall notify each transferor entity in writing of its applicable transfer amount or amounts no later than 70 days after the enactment of this section, which amount or amounts shall be subject to adjustment pursuant to subdivisions (f) and (i).

(h) For the 1992-93 transfer year and subsequent transfer years, transfer amounts shall be determined in the same procedural manner as set forth in subdivision (f), except:

(1) The department shall use all of the following:

(A) The disproportionate share list applicable to the particular transfer year to determine the eligible hospitals.

(B) The payment adjustment amounts calculated under Section 14105.98 for the particular transfer year. These amounts shall take into account any projected or actual increases or decreases in the size of the payment adjustment program as are required under Section 14105.98 for the particular year in question. Subject to the installment schedule in paragraph (5) of subdivision (i) regarding transfer amounts, the department may issue interim, revised, and supplemental transfer requests as necessary and appropriate to address changes in payment adjustment levels that occur under Section 14105.98. All transfer requests, or adjustments thereto, issued to transferor entities by the department shall meet the requirements set forth in subparagraph (E) of paragraph (5) of subdivision (i).

(C) Data regarding annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days for the most recent calendar year ending prior to the beginning of the particular transfer year, as determined from all Medi-Cal paid claims records available through April 1 preceding the particular transfer year.

(D) The status of public entities as licensees of eligible hospitals as of July 1 of the particular transfer year.

(E) The transfer amounts calculated by the department may be increased or decreased by a percentage amount consistent with the Medi-Cal State Plan.

(2) For the 1993-94 transfer year and subsequent transfer years, transfer amounts shall be increased on a pro rata basis for each transferor entity for the particular transfer year in the amounts necessary to fund the nonfederal share of the total supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amounts that arise under Section 14105.98. For purposes of this paragraph, the supplemental lump-sum payment adjustment amounts shall be deemed to arise for the particular transfer year as of the date specified in Section 14105.98. Transfer amounts to fund the nonfederal share of the payments shall be paid by the transferor entities for the particular transfer year within 20 days after the department notifies the transferor entity in writing of the additional transfer amount to be paid.

(3) The department shall prepare preliminary analyses and calculations regarding potential transfer amounts, and potential transferor entities shall be notified by the department of estimated transfer amounts as soon as reasonably feasible regarding any particular transfer year. Written notices of transfer amounts shall be issued by the department as soon as possible with respect to each transfer year. All state agencies shall take all necessary steps in order to supply applicable data to the department to accomplish these tasks. The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide to the department quarterly access to the edited and unedited confidential patient discharge data files for all Medi-Cal eligible patients. The department shall maintain the confidentiality of that data to the same extent as is required of the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. In addition, OSHPD shall provide to the department, not later than March 1 of each year, the data specified by the department, as the data existed on the statewide data base file as of February 1 of each year, from all of the following:

(A) Hospital annual disclosure reports, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code, for hospital fiscal years that ended during the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(B) Annual reports of hospitals, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 439.2 of the Health and Safety Code, for the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(C) Hospital patient discharge data reports, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code, for the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(D) Any other materials on file with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(4) For the 1993-94 transfer year and subsequent transfer years, the divisor to be used for purposes of the calculation referred to in paragraph (4) of subdivision (f) shall be determined by the department. The divisor shall be calculated to ensure that the appropriate amount of transfers from transferor entities are received into the fund to satisfy the requirements of Section 14105.98 for the particular transfer year. For the 1993-94 transfer year, the divisor shall be 1.742.

(5) For the 1993-94 fiscal year, the transfer amount that would otherwise be required from the University of California shall be increased by fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the total amount of transfers required from the transferor entities for any particular transfer year shall not exceed the sum of the following:

(A) The amount needed to fund the nonfederal share of all payment adjustment amounts applicable to the particular payment adjustment year as calculated under Section 14105.98. Included in the calculations for this purpose shall be any decreases in the program as a whole, and for individual hospitals, that arise due to the provisions of Section 1396r-4 (f) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(B) The amount needed to fund the transfers to the Health Care Deposit Fund, as referred to in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (d).

(7) Except as provided in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (j), any amounts in the fund that are not expended, or estimated to be required for expenditure, under Section 14105.98 with respect to a particular transfer year shall be returned on a pro rata basis to the transferor entities for the particular transfer year within 120 days after the department determines that the funds are not needed for an expenditure in connection with the particular transfer year.

(i) (1) For the 1991-92 transfer year, each transferor entity shall pay its transfer amount or amounts to the Controller, for deposit in the fund, in eight equal installments. Except as provided below, the first installment shall accrue on July 25, 1991, and all other installments shall accrue on the 5th day of each month thereafter from August through February.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), no installment shall be payable to the Controller until that date which is 20 days after the department notifies the transferor entity in writing that the payment adjustment program set forth in Section 14105.98 has first gained federal approval as part of the Medi-Cal program. For purposes of this paragraph, federal approval requires both (i) approval by appropriate federal agencies of an amendment to the Medi-Cal State Plan, as referred to in subdivision (o) of Section 14105.98, and (ii) confirmation by appropriate federal agencies regarding the availability of federal financial participation for the payment adjustment program set forth in Section 14105.98 at a level of at least 40 percent of the percentage of federal financial participation that is normally applicable for Medi-Cal expenditures for acute inpatient hospital services.

(3) If any installment that would otherwise be payable under paragraph (1) is not paid because of the provisions of paragraph (2), then subparagraphs (A) and (B) shall be followed when federal approval is gained.

(A) All installments that were deferred based on the provisions of paragraph (2) shall be paid no later than 20 days after the department notifies the transferor entity in writing that federal approval has been gained, in an amount consistent with subparagraph (B).

(B) The installments paid pursuant to subparagraph (A) shall be paid in full, subject to an adjustment in amount pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (f).

(4) All installments for the 1991-92 transfer year that arise in months after federal approval is gained shall be paid by the 5th day of the month or 20 days after the department notifies the transferor entity in writing that federal approval has been gained, whichever is later. These installments shall be subject to an adjustment in amount pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (f).

(5) (A) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C), for the 1992-93 transfer year and subsequent transfer years, each transferor entity shall pay its transfer amount or amounts to the Controller, for deposit in the fund, in eight equal installments. The first installment shall be payable on July 10 of each transfer year. All other installments shall be payable on the 5th day of each month thereafter from August through February.

(B) For the 1994–95 transfer year, each transferor entity shall pay its transfer amount or amounts to the Controller, for deposit in the fund, in five equal installments. The first installment shall be payable on October 5, 1994. The next four installments shall be payable on the fifth day of each month thereafter from November through February.

(C) For the 1995–96 transfer year, each transferor entity shall pay its transfer amount or amounts to the Controller, for deposit in the fund, in five equal installments. The first installment shall be payable on October 5, 1995. The next four installments shall be payable on the fifth day of each month thereafter from November through February.

(D) Except as otherwise specifically provided, subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, shall not apply to increases in transfer amounts described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) or to additional transfer amounts described in subdivision (o).

(E) All requests for transfer payments, or adjustments thereto, issued by the department shall be in writing and shall include (i) an explanation of the basis for the particular transfer request or transfer activity, (ii) a summary description of program funding status for the particular transfer year, and (iii) the general calculations used by the department in connection with the particular transfer request or transfer activity.

(6) A transferor entity may use any of the following funds for purposes of meeting its transfer obligations under this section:

(A) General funds of the transferor entity.

(B) Any other funds permitted by law to be used for these purposes, except that a transferor entity shall not submit to the Controller any federal funds unless those federal funds are authorized by federal law to be used to match other federal funds. In addition, no private donated funds from any health care provider, or from any person or organization affiliated with such a health care provider, shall be channeled through a transferor entity or any other public entity to the fund. The transferor entity shall be responsible for determining that funds transferred meet the requirements of this subparagraph.

(j) (1) If a transferor entity does not submit any transfer amount within the time period specified in this section, the Controller shall offset immediately the amount owed against any funds which otherwise would be payable by the state to the transferor entity. The Controller, however, shall not impose an offset against any particular funds payable to the transferor entity where the offset would violate state or federal law.

(2) Where a withhold or a recoupment occurs pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (r) of Section 14105.98, the nonfederal portion of the amount in question shall remain in the fund, or shall be redeposited in the fund by the department, as applicable. The department shall then proceed as follows:

(A) If the withhold or recoupment was imposed with respect to a hospital whose licensee was a transferor entity for the particular state fiscal year to which the withhold or recoupment related, the nonfederal portion of the amount withheld or recouped shall serve as a credit for the particular transferor entity against an equal amount of transfer obligations under this section, to be applied whenever the transfer obligations next arise. Should no such transfer obligation arise within 180 days, the department shall return the funds in question to the particular transferor entity within 30 days thereafter.

(B) For other situations, the withheld or recouped nonfederal portion shall be subject to paragraph (7) of subdivision (h).

(k) All amounts received by the Controller pursuant to subdivision (i), paragraph (2) of subdivision (h), or subdivision (o), or offset by the Controller pursuant to subdivision (j), shall immediately be deposited in the fund.

(l) For purposes of this section, the disproportionate share list utilized by the department for a particular transfer year shall be identical to the disproportionate share list utilized by the department for the same state fiscal year for purposes of Section 14105.98. Nothing on a disproportionate share list, once issued by the department, shall be modified for any reason other than mathematical or typographical errors or omissions on the part of the department or the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development in preparation of the list.

(m) Neither the intergovernmental transfers required by this section, nor any elective transfer made pursuant to Section 14164, shall create, lead to, or expand the health care funding or service obligations for current or future years for any transferor entity, except as required of the state by this section or as may be required by federal law, in which case the state shall be held harmless by the transferor entities on a pro rata basis.

(n) No amount submitted to the Controller pursuant to subdivision (i), paragraph (2) of subdivision (h), or subdivision (o), or offset by the Controller pursuant to subdivision (j), shall be claimed or recognized as an allowable element of cost in Medi-Cal cost reports submitted to the department.

(o) Whenever additional transfer amounts are required to fund the nonfederal share of payment adjustment amounts under Section 14105.98 that are distributed after the close of the particular payment adjustment year to which the payment adjustment amounts apply, the additional transfer amounts shall be paid by the parties who were the transferor entities for the particular transfer year that was concurrent with the particular payment adjustment year. The additional transfer amounts shall be calculated under the formula that was in effect during the particular transfer year. For transfer years prior to the 1993-94 transfer year, the percentage of the additional transfer amounts available for transfer to the Health Care Deposit Fund under subdivision (d) shall be the percentage that was in effect during the particular transfer year. These additional transfer amounts shall be paid by transferor entities within 20 days after the department notifies the transferor entity in writing of the additional transfer amount to be paid.

(p) (1) Ten million dollars ($10,000,000) of the amount transferred from the Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund to the Health Care Deposit Fund due to amounts transferred attributable to years prior to the 1993–94 fiscal year is hereby appropriated without regard to fiscal years to the State Department of Health Services to be used to support the development of managed care programs under the department's plan to expand Medi-Cal managed care.

(2) These funds shall be used by the department for both of the following purposes: (A) distributions to counties or other local entities that contract with the department to receive those funds to offset a portion of the costs of forming the local initiative entity, and (B) distributions to local initiative entities that contract with the department to receive those funds to offset a portion of the costs of developing the local initiative health delivery system in accordance with the department's plan to expand Medi-Cal managed care.

(3) Entities contracting with the department for any portion of the ten million dollars ($10,000,000) shall meet the objectives of the department's plan to expand Medi-Cal managed care with regard to traditional and safety net providers.

(4) Entities contracting with the department for any portion of the ten million dollars ($10,000,000) may be authorized under those contracts to utilize their funds to provide for reimbursement of the costs of local organizations and entities incurred in participating in the development and operation of a local initiative.

(5) To the full extent permitted by state and federal law, these funds shall be distributed by the department for expenditure at the local level in a manner that qualifies for federal financial participation under the medicaid program.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the amendments to Section 14105.98 of the Welfare and Institutions Code made by this act are not successful in achieving the maximum possible federal financial participation for the Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Program for the 1993–94 federal fiscal year, as tested against the final disproportionate share hospital allotment for California under applicable federal medicaid law for the 1993–94 federal fiscal year, the State Department of Health Services shall adopt an amendment to the Medi-Cal State Plan to provide for the allocation and distribution of any remaining portion of the federal allotment. Any amendment to the Medi-Cal State Plan shall be structured to be as consistent as possible with Section 14105.98 of the Welfare and Institution Code, as amended by this act.

SEC. 5. The State Department of Health Services shall take steps as are necessary to have published, on or before June 28, 1994, any public notices that are appropriate or required under federal or California law in order to ensure a federal medicaid effective date prior to July 1, 1994, for the provisions of this act. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the State Department of Health Services may arrange for the publication of any notice through a private vendor, on a bid or nonbid basis, on an exclusive or nonexclusive basis, without review or approval by any other department, agency, or instrumentality of the state. The costs of publishing any notice through a private vendor shall be recovered by the State Department of Health Services from the Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure sufficient funding for disproportionate share providers in the Medi-Cal program to enable them to provide sufficient access to Medi-Cal benefits as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 121

An act to amend Section 1202.1 of the Penal Code, relating to sex offenders, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1202.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1202.1. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 199.20 and 199.22 of the Health and Safety Code, the court shall order every person who is convicted of, or adjudged by the court to be a person described by Section 601 or 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as provided in Section 725 of the Welfare and Institutions Code by reason of a violation of, a sexual offense listed in subdivision (e), whether or not a sentence or fine is imposed or probation is granted, to submit to a blood test for evidence of antibodies to the probable causative agent of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS). Each person tested under this section shall be informed of the results of the blood test.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 199.21 of the Health and Safety Code, the results of the blood test to detect antibodies to the probable causative agent of AIDS shall be transmitted by the clerk of the court to the Department of Justice and the local health officer.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 199.21 of the Health and Safety Code, the Department of Justice shall provide the results of a test or tests as to persons under investigation or being prosecuted under Section 647f or 12022.85, if the results are on file with the department, to the defense attorney upon request; and the results also shall be available to the prosecuting attorney upon request for the purpose of either preparing counts for a subsequent offense under Section 647f or sentence enhancement under Section 12022.85 or complying with subdivision (d).

(d) (1) In every case in which a person is convicted of a sexual offense listed in subdivision (e) or adjudged by the court to be a person described by Section 601 or 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as provided in Section 725 of the Welfare and Institutions Code by reason of the commission of a sexual offense listed in subdivision (e), the prosecutor or the prosecutor's victim-witness assistance bureau shall advise the victim of his or her right to receive the results of the blood test performed pursuant to subdivision (a). The prosecutor or the prosecutor's victim-witness assistance bureau shall refer the victim to the local health officer for counseling to assist him or her in understanding the extent to which the particular circumstances of the crime may or may not have placed the victim at risk of transmission of human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) from the accused, to ensure that the victim understands the limitations and benefits of current tests for HIV, and to assist the victim in determining whether he or she should make the request.

(2) Notwithstanding any other law, upon the victim's request, the local health officer shall be responsible for disclosing test results to the victim who requested the test and the person who was tested. However, as specified in subdivision (g), positive test results shall not be disclosed to the victim or the person who was tested without offering or providing professional counseling appropriate to the circumstances as follows:

(A) To help the victim understand the extent to which the particular circumstances of the crime may or may not have put the victim at risk of transmission of HIV from the perpetrator.

(B) To ensure that the victim understands both the benefits and limitations of the current tests for HIV.

(C) To obtain referrals to appropriate health care and support services.

(e) For purposes of this section, "sexual offense" includes any of the following:

(1) Rape in violation of Section 261.

(2) Unlawful intercourse with a female under age 18 in violation of Section 261.5.

(3) Rape of a spouse in violation of Section 262.

(4) Sodomy in violation of Section 286.

(5) Oral copulation in violation of Section 288a.

(f) Any blood tested pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be subjected to appropriate confirmatory tests to ensure accuracy of the first test results, and under no circumstances shall test results be transmitted to the victim or the person who is tested unless any initially reactive test result has been confirmed by appropriate confirmatory tests for positive reactors.

(g) The local health officer shall be responsible for disclosing test results to the victim who requested the test and the person who was tested. However, positive test results shall not be disclosed to the victim or the person who was tested without offering or providing professional counseling appropriate to the circumstances.

(h) The local health officer and the victim shall comply with all laws and policies relating to medical confidentiality, subject to the disclosure authorized by subdivisions (g) and (i).

(i) Any victim who receives information from the local health officer pursuant to subdivision (g) may disclose the information as he or she deems necessary to protect his or her health and safety or the health and safety of his or her family or sexual partner.

(j) Any person who transmits test results or discloses information pursuant to this section shall be immune from civil liability for any action taken in compliance with this section.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure the continued receipt of federal anti-drug funds by the State of California, and to assure that crime victims have the ability to obtain the results of HIV testing, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 122

An act to make an appropriation in augmentation of Items 9840-001-001, 9840-001-494, and 9840-001-988 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1993, relating to contingencies or emergencies, to take effect immediately as an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1994.]

I am reducing the General Fund appropriation in Assembly Bill 670 by $3,738,000. This reduction reflects funding already provided in Chapter 102, 1994 for the Secretary of State to cover actual expenses related to printing and mailing the November 1993 special statewide ballot.

With this reduction, I hereby approve Assembly Bill No. 670.

PETE WILSON, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (A) The sum of three hundred seventeen million nine hundred forty-one thousand dollars ($317,941,000) is hereby appropriated for expenditure in the 1993-94 fiscal year in augmentation of, and for the purposes of, contingencies and emergencies as provided in Items 9840-001-001, 9840-001-494, and 9840-001-988 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1993 (Ch. 55, Stats. 1993), in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) Two hundred twenty-four million eight hundred sixty-nine thousand dollars ($224,869,000) from the General Fund to the Reserve for Contingencies or Emergencies in Item 9840-001-001.

(2) Eighty million eight hundred twenty-six thousand dollars ($80,826,000) from unallocated special funds to the Reserve for Contingencies or Emergencies in Item 9840-001-494.

(3) Twelve million two hundred forty-six thousand dollars ($12,246,000) from unallocated nongovernmental cost funds to the Reserve for Contingencies or Emergencies in Item 9840-001-988.

(b) The Director of Finance may withhold authorization for the expenditure of funds provided in this section until such time as, and to the extent that, preliminary estimates of potential deficiencies are verified.

SEC. 2. This act makes an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 123

An act to amend Section 24045 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 24045 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

24045. (a) All licenses, except on-sale general licenses for seasonal businesses and daily on-sale general licenses issued pursuant to Section 24045.1, shall be issued on an annual basis. However, the department may issue special licenses for the sale of beer or wine on a temporary basis for premises temporarily occupied by the licensee for a picnic, social gathering, or similar occasion at a fee equal to the actual cost of issuing the license, but not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) per day.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a license transferred pursuant to Section 24071 or 24071.1 shall be issued for the unexpired term remaining on the license of the transferor.

(c) The director may assign or reassign dates for the expiration of licenses issued pursuant to this section. The director may establish a registration year for any license issued pursuant to subdivision (a) consisting of any period from six months to 18 months, inclusive, and shall prorate related annual fees to the extent the registration year is greater or less than 12 months, with subsequent renewals being required at yearly intervals.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Chapter 838 of the Statutes of 1992 inadvertently mandated the payment of duplicate annual renewal fees by licensees whose businesses are ongoing, but who are required to transfer their licenses as a result of changes in ownership occasioned by the death of a spouse, removal of a partner, reorganization or incorporation of a business, or similar circumstances. In order to alleviate the severe financial hardship to many retail businesses in this state caused by this inadvertent duplicate assessment of license fees, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 124

An act to amend Sections 101, 102, 202, 301, and 304 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992), relating to water, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 101 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 101. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) It is the policy of the state to assist localities, districts, and regions in developing interurban waste water transportation and disposal systems, nonpoint source collection, treatment, and disposal systems, water reclamation and reuse systems, and refuse sludge transfer and disposal systems within the various metropolitan areas of the state for the benefit of its residents.

(b) Under existing law, there are no special provisions for waste water management in San Diego County.

(c) It is critically important that waste water collection, treatment, storage, disposal, and reuse systems be constructed within San Diego County in order to address inadequate sewage capacity and to achieve compliance with the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. Sec. 1251 et seq.).

(d) Because of the many separate cities and unincorporated areas in San Diego County, only a specially created district can effectively and economically coordinate the transportation, treatment, disposal, and reuse of waste water and its related byproducts.

(e) The formation of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District, which includes the City of San Diego, the City of Chula Vista, the City of Coronado, the City of Del Mar, the City of El Cajon, the City of Imperial Beach, the City of La Mesa, the Lemon Grove Sanitation District, the City of National City, the City of Poway, the County of San Diego, the Otay Water District, the Padre Dam Municipal Water District, and the San Diego County Water Authority, will bring together the necessary financial resources to construct regional waste water projects, and will result in lower financing costs related to the construction of those projects.

(f) It is the intent of the Legislature to create the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District to provide increased decisionmaking authority to the 14 member agencies with respect to the implementation of policies and procedures relating to the regional management of waste water and its byproducts.

SEC. 2. Section 102 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 102. The following definitions govern the construction of this act:

(a) "Board" or "board of directors" means the board of directors of the district.

(b) "Board of supervisors" means the board of supervisors of the county.

(c) "Chairperson" means the chairperson of the board of directors of the district.

(d) "County" means the County of San Diego.

(e) "District" means the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District.

(f) "Member agency" means the City of San Diego, the City of Chula Vista, the City of Coronado, the City of Del Mar, the City of El Cajon, the City of Imperial Beach, the City of La Mesa, the Lemon Grove Sanitation District, the City of National City, the City of Poway, the County of San Diego, the Otay Water District, the Padre Dam Municipal Water District, and the San Diego County Water Authority.

(g) "Refuse" means materials specifically suitable for composting sludge.

(h) "United States" means the United States or a department or agency of the United States.

SEC. 2.5. Section 102 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 102. The following definitions govern the construction of this act:

(a) "Board" or "board of directors" means the board of directors of the district.

(b) "Board of supervisors" means the board of supervisors of the county.

(c) "Chairperson" means the chairperson of the board of directors of the district.

(d) "County" means the County of San Diego.

(e) "District" means the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District.

(f) "Member agency" means the City of San Diego, the City of Chula Vista, the City of Coronado, the City of Del Mar, the City of El Cajon, the City of Imperial Beach, the City of La Mesa, the Lemon Grove Sanitation District, the City of National City, the City of Poway, the County of San Diego, the Otay Water District, and the Padre Dam Municipal Water District.

(g) "Refuse" means materials specifically suitable for composting sludge.

(h) "Special status member agency" means the San Diego County Water Authority.

(i) "United States" means the United States or a department or agency of the United States.

SEC. 3. Section 202 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 202. The district includes all of the corporate areas of the City of San Diego, City of Chula Vista, City of Coronado, City of Del Mar, City of El Cajon, City of Imperial Beach, City of La Mesa, Lemon Grove Sanitation District, City of National City, City of Poway, Lakeside Sanitation District, Alpine Sanitation District, Spring Valley Sanitation District, Wintergardens Sewer Maintenance District, Improvement Districts A and B of the Padre Dam Municipal Water District, and Assessment District 4, Improvement Districts 14 and 18, and the Willow Glen Drive Trunk Service Area of the Otay Water District, as described on the map dated March 12, 1984, on file with the Otay Water District.

SEC. 4. Section 301 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 301. The district shall be governed by a board. The board shall be composed of 19 members of which three shall be appointed by the City of San Diego, two each by the City of Chula Vista, the City of El Cajon, and the County of San Diego, and one each shall be appointed by each of the remaining member agencies. Each of the members appointed by the City of San Diego shall have two votes.

SEC. 4.5. Section 301 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 301. The district shall be governed by a board. The board shall be composed of 19 members of which three shall be appointed by the City of San Diego, two each by the City of Chula Vista, the City of El Cajon, and the County of San Diego, and one each shall be appointed by each of the remaining member agencies, including the special status member agency. Each of the members appointed by the City of San Diego shall have two votes. The special status member agency has no vote.

SEC. 5. Section 304 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 304. (a) The term of each board member shall be for four years, except that the initial term shall be two years for one of the board members initially appointed by the City of San Diego, the City of Chula Vista, the City of El Cajon, and the County of San Diego, and for one-half of the remaining board members as determined by lot at the first meeting of the board.

(b) Any vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the governing body of the member agency from which the vacancy occurred. Any appointment to fill a vacancy during the term of a board member shall be for the unexpired term.

(c) Each board member, before undertaking the duties of his or her office, shall take and subscribe the oath as provided in Section 1360 of the Government Code, and a certificate of the subscribed oath shall be filed with the clerk of the member agency from which the board member has been appointed. A copy of the certificate shall be filed with the district.

(d) A board member may be removed from the board by the governing body of the member agency which appointed that board member.

SEC. 5.5. Section 304 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act (Chapter 803 of the Statutes of 1992) is amended to read:

Sec. 304. (a) The term of each board member shall be for four years, except that the initial term shall be two years for one of the board members initially appointed by the City of San Diego, City of Chula Vista, the City of El Cajon, and the County of San Diego, and for one-half of the remaining board members as determined by lot at the first meeting of the board.

(b) Any vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the governing body of the member agency or special status member agency from which the vacancy occurred. Any appointment to fill a vacancy during the term of a board member shall be for the unexpired term.

(c) Each board member, before undertaking the duties of his or her office, shall take and subscribe the oath as provided in Section 1360 of the Government Code, and a certificate of the subscribed oath shall be filed with the clerk of the member agency from which the board member has been appointed. A copy of the certificate shall be filed with the district.

(d) A board member may be removed from the board by the governing body of the member agency or special status member agency which appointed that board member.

SEC. 6. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 102 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act proposed by this bill and AB 842. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 102 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 842, in which case Section 102 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act, as amended by AB 842, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 2.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 7. Section 4.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 301 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act proposed by this bill and AB 842. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 301 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 842, in which case Section 301 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act as amended by AB 842, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 4.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 8. Section 5.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 304 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act proposed by this bill and AB 842. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1995, (2) each bill amends Section 304 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 842, in which case Section 304 of the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District Act, as amended by AB 842, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 5.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 5 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 9. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to allow the City of El Cajon to participate, as soon as possible, in the San Diego Area Wastewater Management District, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 125

An act to amend Sections 704, 704.1, 708, and 708.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment compensation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State June 30, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 704 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

704. The director shall not approve an election under Section 701, 702, 702.1, 702.5, 703, 708, or 708.5 if he or she finds that any of the following conditions exist:

(a) The self-employed individual is currently unable to perform his or her regular and customary work due to injury or illness.

(b) The employing unit or self-employed individual is not normally and continuously engaged in a regular trade, business, or occupation.

(c) The employing unit or self-employed individual intends to discontinue the regular trade, business or occupation within eight calendar quarters.

(d) The regular trade, business, or occupation of the employing unit or self-employed individual is seasonal in its operations.

(e) The major portion of the self-employed individual's remuneration is not derived from his or her trade, business, or occupation.

(f) The self-employed individual is unable to provide a copy of his or her Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE as reported on or before April 15 of the preceding year showing a net profit of at least four thousand six hundred dollars ($4,600) or to certify to an average net profit of at least one thousand one hundred fifty dollars ($1,150) per quarter since becoming self-employed or for the preceding four quarters, whichever period is less.

(g) The employing unit or self-employed individual has failed to make a return or to pay contributions within the time required by this division and there is an unpaid amount of contributions owing by the employing unit or self-employed individual.

(h) (1) A prior elective coverage agreement entered into pursuant to Section 708 or 708.5 has been terminated by the department under Section 704.1 or by means of a written application for termination as required by this division, and the individual has not completed a waiting period of 18 consecutive months from the date of termination.

(2) The waiting period for reinstatement to the elective coverage program may be waived for any individual who becomes eligible for coverage after being terminated under paragraph (1), (2), (4), or (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 704.1, upon receipt by the department of an application for coverage to be effective the first day of the quarter in which the application is received.

(i) The employing unit or any officer or agent of or person having charge of the affairs of the employing unit, or the self-employed individual has been convicted within the preceding eight consecutive calendar quarters of any violation under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 2101). For the purposes of this subdivision, a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere is deemed to be a conviction irrespective of whether an order granting probation or other order is made suspending the imposition of the sentence or whether sentence is imposed but execution thereof is suspended.

(j) For purposes of this section, Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE is defined as Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 Schedule SE, or in the case of statutory employees under the Internal Revenue Code, it shall be defined as Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 Schedule C, or the California Income Tax Return, when accompanied by Internal Revenue Service Form W-2.

SEC. 2. Section 704.1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

704.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, the director may terminate any elective coverage agreement under this article if he or she finds that any of the following conditions exist:

(1) The employing unit or self-employed individual is not normally and continuously engaged in a regular trade, business, or occupation.

(2) The employing unit or self-employed individual has discontinued the regular trade, business, or occupation.

(3) The regular trade, business, or occupation of the employing unit or self-employed individual is seasonal in its operations.

This paragraph shall not apply to any public entity.

(4) The major portion of the self-employed individual's remuneration is not derived from his or her trade, business, or occupation.

(5) The self-employed individual reports a net profit of less than four thousand six hundred dollars ($4,600) on his or her Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE for a third consecutive year.

(6) The employing unit or self-employed individual has failed to make a return or to pay contributions within the time required by this division and there is an unpaid amount of contributions owing by the employing unit or self-employed individual, except when the elective coverage agreement has been in effect for less than two complete calendar years.

(7) The employing unit or self-employed individual, or a representative thereof, is found by the director to have filed a false statement in order to be considered eligible for elective coverage.

(8) The employing unit or any officer or agent of or person having charge of the affairs of the employing unit, or the self-employed individual is convicted of any violation pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 2101). For the purposes of this paragraph, a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere is deemed to be a conviction irrespective of whether an order granting probation or other order is made suspending the imposition of the sentence or whether sentence is imposed but execution thereof is suspended.

(b) The director shall give to the employing unit, or to the self-employed individual, a written notice pursuant to Section 1206 of the director's termination of the elective coverage agreement under this section. The date of termination may be the end of the calendar quarter immediately preceding the existence of any condition specified in subdivision (a), or the end of any subsequent calendar quarter thereafter, as determined by the director.

Any termination of elective coverage shall not affect the liability of the employing unit or self-employed individual for any contributions due, owing, and unpaid to the department.

(c) Sections 1222, 1223, and 1224 shall apply to matters arising under this section.

(d) For purposes of this section, Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE is defined as Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 Schedule SE, or in the case of statutory employees under the Internal Revenue Code, it shall be defined as Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 Schedule C, or the California Income Tax Return, when accompanied by Internal Revenue Service Form W-2.

SEC. 3. Section 708 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

708. (a) Any individual who is an employer under this division or any two or more individuals who have so qualified may file with the director a written election that their services shall be deemed to be services performed by individuals in employment for an employer for all the purposes of this division. Upon the approval of the election by the director the services of those individuals shall be deemed to constitute employment for an employer for all the purposes of this division. Regardless of their actual earnings, for the purposes of computing benefit rights and contributions under this division, they shall be deemed to have received the following remuneration for each calendar quarter:

(1) For purposes of unemployment insurance, the highest amount of wages required to be entitled to the maximum benefit amount provided in Section 1280.

(2) For purposes of disability insurance, the highest amount of wages required to be entitled to the maximum benefit amount provided in Section 2655.

(A) For disability insurance contributions on or after July 1, 1994, the quarterly contribution shall be the product of one-fourth of the amount of net profit, but not less than one thousand one hundred fifty dollars ($1,150) except when subparagraph (B) applies, reported on or before April 15 of the preceding year as declared on the Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE filed by an individual who is an employer under this division and the contribution rate established pursuant to Section 984.5, except as provided by Section 985. On January 1, 1995, quarterly income credits for the period from July 1, 1993, to June 30, 1994, inclusive, shall be changed to one-fourth of the amount of the net profit or four thousand six hundred dollars ($4,600), whichever is greater, reported on or before April 15, 1993, as declared on the Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE for the 1992 taxable year filed by each individual having an elective coverage agreement in effect for that period or any portion thereof. If no Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE was filed, the individual shall be assigned a quarterly income credit of one thousand one hundred fifty dollars ($1,150). Quarterly income credits for this period shall not exceed seven thousand nine hundred forty-two dollars ($7,942). If any quarterly income credit for the period from July 1, 1993, to June 30, 1994, inclusive, was reduced prior to January 1, 1995, the amended income credit shall be reduced proportionately.

Benefits payable for periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1995, shall be based on Section 2655. For purposes of this division, income credits shall be included in the term "wages."

(B) The self-employed individual shall not pay contributions for periods of any disability, including periods for which some services are performed while disabled. The self-employed individual shall file a quarterly report of wages and certify as to the period of disability in order to maintain eligibility for elective disability insurance coverage and benefits. During periods of disability, the self-employed individual shall reduce his or her quarterly contributions by dividing the quarterly contribution amount by 91 to compute the daily contribution amount, and the daily contribution amount shall be multiplied by the number of days disabled to compute the amount by which the quarterly contributions shall be reduced. The department shall reduce income credits utilizing the same calculation method.

(b) Any individual who is an employer under this division or any two or more individuals who have so qualified may file with the director a written election that their services shall be deemed to be services performed by individuals in employment for an employer for the purposes of Part 2 (commencing with Section 2601) only. Upon the approval of the election by the director the services of those individuals shall be deemed to constitute employment for an employer for the purposes of Part 2 (commencing with Section 2601) only. Regardless of their actual earnings, for the purposes of computing disability benefit rights and worker contributions, they shall be deemed to have received remuneration for each calendar quarter the highest amount of wages required to be entitled to the maximum benefit award provided in Section 2655. For contributions on or after July 1, 1994, the quarterly contribution shall be the product of one-fourth of the amount of net profit, but not less than one thousand one hundred fifty dollars ($1,150), except when subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) applies, reported on or before April 15 of the preceding year as declared on the Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE filed by an individual who is an employer under this division and the contribution rate established pursuant to Section 984.5, except as provided by Section 985. The quarterly contribution shall be reduced as set forth in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) if a disability occurred during the quarter for which payment is being made. On January 1, 1995, quarterly income credits for the period from July 1, 1993, to June 30, 1994, inclusive, shall be changed to one-fourth of the amount of the net profit or four thousand six hundred dollars ($4,600), whichever is greater, reported on or before April 15, 1993, as declared on the Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE for the 1992 taxable year filed by each individual having an elective coverage agreement in effect for that period or any portion thereof. If no Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE was filed, the individual shall be assigned a quarterly income credit of one thousand one hundred fifty dollars ($1,150). Quarterly income credits for this period shall not exceed seven thousand nine hundred forty-two dollars ($7,942). If quarterly income credits were reduced prior to January 1, 1995, the amended income credits shall be reduced proportionately. Benefits payable for periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1995, shall be based on Section 2655. For purposes of this division, income credits shall be included in the term "wages."

(c) (1) Any individual applying for or continuing elective coverage under this section shall be requested to sign an annual statement authorizing the department to verify the net profit declared on his or her Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE. Failure of the individual to sign a statement authorizing the department to verify income shall result in the individual being assigned an annual income level of four thousand six hundred dollars ($4,600) for contribution and benefit purposes.

(2) Any individual applying for elective coverage shall submit a copy of his or her Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE filed on or before April 15 of the preceding year with his or her application for elective coverage in order to establish first-year contributions and benefits in excess of the minimum required to qualify for elective coverage.

(d) Any self-employed individual continuing elective coverage who fails to file an Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE by April 15 of each calendar year is required to remit contributions based upon the last year the self-employed individual filed an Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE.

(e) Any self-employed individual who has not yet filed an Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE shall be assigned an annual income level of four thousand six hundred dollars ($4,600) for contribution and benefit purposes.

(f) Contributions required under this division are payable on and after the date stated in the approval of the director. The director may levy assessments under this division for any amount due when an elective coverage agreement has been in effect for less than two complete calendar years. Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1701), relating to the collection of amount due, shall apply to this section.

(g) No benefits shall be paid to any individual based upon remuneration deemed to have been received pursuant to this section unless all contributions due with respect to all remuneration deemed to have been received by such individual pursuant to this section have been paid to the department.

(h) No benefits shall be paid to any individual based on elective coverage income credits in his or her base period if his or her elective coverage agreement has been terminated under paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 704.1.

(i) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 2627 and Sections 2627.3, 2627.5, and 2627.7, no benefits shall be paid to any individual covered under this section, with respect to periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1994, until he or she has been unemployed and disabled for a waiting period of seven consecutive days during each disability benefit period.

(j) Notwithstanding Section 2653, with respect to periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1994, the maximum amount of benefits payable to an individual covered under this section during any one disability benefit period shall be 39 times his or her weekly benefit amount, but in no case shall the total amount of benefits payable be more than the total wages credited to the individual during his or her disability base period. If the benefit is not a multiple of one dollar ($1), it shall be computed to the next higher multiple of one dollar ($1).

(k) For purposes of this section, Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE is defined as Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 Schedule SE, or in the case of statutory employees under the Internal Revenue Code, it shall be defined as Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 Schedule C, or the California Income Tax Return, when accompanied by Internal Revenue Service Form W-2.

SEC. 4. Section 708.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

708.5. (a) Any individual who is self-employed, who is not an employer as defined in any provision of Article 3 (commencing with Section 675), of Chapter 3 of this part, and who receives the major part of his or her remuneration from the trade, business, or occupation in which he or she is self-employed, may file with the director a written election that his or her services in connection with his or her trade, business, or occupation shall be deemed to be services performed by an individual in employment for an employer for the purposes of Part 2 (commencing with Section 2601) only. Upon the approval of the election by the director, the services of that self-employed individual in connection with his or her trade, business, or occupation shall be deemed to constitute employment for an employer for the purposes of Part 2 only of this division. Regardless of his or her actual earnings, for the purpose of computing disability benefit rights and worker contributions, he or she shall be deemed to have received remuneration for each calendar quarter the highest amount of wages required to be entitled to the maximum benefit award provided in Section 2655. For contributions on or after July 1, 1994, the quarterly contribution shall be the product of one-fourth of the amount of net profit, but not less than one thousand one hundred fifty dollars ($1,150), except when subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 708 applies, reported on or before April 15 of the preceding year as declared on the Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE filed by an individual who is an employer under this division and the contribution rate established pursuant to Section 984.5, except as provided by Section 985. The quarterly contribution shall be reduced as set forth in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 708 if a disability occurred during the quarter for which payment is being made. On January 1, 1995, quarterly income credits for the period from July 1, 1993, to June 30, 1994, inclusive, shall be changed to one-fourth of the net profit or four thousand six hundred dollars ($4,600), whichever is greater, reported on or before April 15, 1993, as declared on the Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE for the 1992 taxable year filed by each individual having an elective coverage agreement in effect for that period or any portion thereof. If no Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE was filed, the individual shall be assigned a quarterly income credit of one thousand one hundred fifty dollars ($1,150). Quarterly income credits for this period shall not exceed seven thousand nine hundred forty-two dollars ($7,942). If quarterly income credits for the period from July 1, 1993, to June 30, 1994, inclusive, were reduced prior to January 1, 1995, the amended income credits shall be reduced proportionately. Benefits payable for periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1995, shall be based on the provisions of Section 2655. For purposes of this division, income credits shall be included in the term "wages."

(b) (1) Any individual applying for or continuing elective coverage under this section shall be requested to sign an annual statement authorizing the department to verify the net profit declared on his or her Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE. Failure of the individual to sign a statement authorizing the department to verify income shall result in the individual being assigned an annual income level of four thousand six hundred dollars ($4,600) for contribution and benefit purposes.

(2) Any individual applying for elective coverage shall submit a copy of his or her Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE filed on or before April 15 of the preceding year with his or her application for elective coverage in order to establish first-year contributions and benefits in excess of the minimum required to qualify for elective coverage.

(c) Any self-employed individual continuing elective coverage who fails to file an Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE by April 15 of each calendar year is required to remit contributions based upon the last year the self-employed individual filed an Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE.

(d) Any self-employed individual who has not yet filed an Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE shall be assigned an annual income level of four thousand six hundred dollars ($4,600) for contribution and benefit purposes.

(e) Worker contributions required under this division are payable on and after the date stated in the approval of the director. The director may levy assessments under this division for any amount due when an elective coverage agreement has been in effect for less than two complete calendar years. Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1701), relating to the collection of amounts due, shall apply to this section.

(f) No benefits shall be paid to any individual based on elective coverage income credits in his or her base period if his or her elective coverage agreement has been terminated under paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 704.1.

(g) No benefits shall be paid to any individual based upon remuneration deemed to have been received pursuant to this section unless all contributions due with respect to all remuneration deemed to have been received by that individual pursuant to this section have been paid to the department.

(h) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 2627 and Sections 2627.3, 2627.5, and 2627.7, no benefits shall be paid to any individual covered under this section, with respect to periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1994, until he or she has been unemployed and disabled for a waiting period of seven consecutive days during each disability benefit period.

(i) Notwithstanding Section 2653, with respect to periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1994, the maximum amount of benefits payable to an individual covered under this section during any one disability benefit period shall be 39 times his or her weekly benefit amount, but in no case shall the total amount of benefits payable be more than the total wages credited to the individual during his or her disability base period. If the benefit is not a multiple of one dollar ($1), it shall be computed to the next higher multiple of one dollar ($1).

(j) For purposes of this section, Internal Revenue Service Schedule SE is defined as Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 Schedule SE, or in the case of statutory employees under the Internal Revenue Code, it shall be defined as Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 Schedule C, or the California Income Tax Return, when accompanied by Internal Revenue Service Form W-2.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the California Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

It is necessary that this act be effective for the 1994 tax year. Accordingly the act must take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

CHAPTER 126

An act to amend Sections 33050 and 37220 of the Education Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor July 1, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State July 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33050 of the Education Code is amended to read:

33050. (a) The governing board of a school district or a county board of education may, on a districtwide or countywide basis or on behalf of one or more of its schools or programs, after a public hearing on the matter, request the State Board of Education to waive all or part of any section of this code or any regulation adopted by the State Board of Education that implements a provision of this code that may be waived, except:

(1) Article 1 (commencing with Section 15700) and Article 2 (commencing with Section 15780) of Chapter 6 of Part 10.

(2) Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 16000) and Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 16400) of Part 10.

(3) Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 17700), Chapter 23 (commencing with Section 17760), and Chapter 25 (commencing with Section 17785) of Part 10.

(4) Part 13 (commencing with Section 22000).

(5) Paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) of Section 37220.

(6) The following provisions of Part 23:

(A) Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 39000).

(B) Article 1 (commencing with Section 39100) to Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210), inclusive, of Chapter 2.

(C) Section 39248; Sections 39313 to 39325, inclusive; Sections 39360.5 and 39363 and subdivision (a) of Section 39363.5; and Sections 39618 to 39621, inclusive.

(7) Sections 52163, 52165, 52166, and 52178.

(8) Article 3 (commencing with Section 52850) of Chapter 12 of Part 28.

(9) The identification and assessment criteria relating to any categorical aid program, including Sections 52164.1 and 52164.6.

(10) Sections 41000 to 41360, inclusive; Sections 41420 to 41423, inclusive; Sections 41600 to 41866, inclusive; Sections 41920 to 42911, inclusive; Article 3 (commencing with Section 44930) of Chapter 4 of Part 25 ; Part 26 (commencing with Section 46000) and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 48900) and Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 49060) of Part 27 ; or regulations in Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations adopted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 44930) of Chapter 4 of Part 25.

(b) Any waiver of provisions related to the programs identified in Section 52851 shall be granted only pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 52850) of Chapter 12 of Part 28.

(c) The waiver of an advisory committee required by law shall be granted only pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 52870) of Chapter 12 of Part 28.

(d) Any request for a waiver submitted by the governing board of a school district or a county board of education pursuant to subdivision (a) shall include a written statement as to (1) whether the exclusive representative of employees, if any, as provided in Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, participated in the development of the waiver and (2) the exclusive representative's position regarding the waiver.

(e) Any request for a waiver submitted pursuant to subdivision (a) relating to a regional occupational center or program established pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 52300) of Chapter 9 of Part 28, which is operated by a joint powers entity established pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, shall be submitted as a joint waiver request for each participating school district and shall meet both of the following conditions:

(1) Each joint waiver request shall comply with all of the requirements of this article.

(2) The submission of a joint waiver request shall be approved by a unanimous vote of the governing board of the joint powers agency.

(f) The governing board of any school district requesting a waiver under this section of any provision of Article 5 (commencing with Section 39390) of Chapter 3 of Part 23 shall provide written notice of any public hearing it conducted pursuant to subdivision (a), at least 30 days prior to the hearing, to each public agency identified under Section 39394.

SEC. 2. Section 37220 of the Education Code is amended to read:

37220. (a) Except as otherwise provided, the public schools shall close on the following holidays:

(1) January 1.

(2) The third Monday in January or Monday or Friday in the week in which January 15 occurs, known as "Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day." On the Friday preceding which day the schools are closed, schools shall include exercises commemorating and directing attention to the history of the civil rights movement in the United States and particularly the role therein of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

(3) The Monday or Friday of the week in which February 12 occurs, known as "Lincoln Day." On the day that school is in session prior to the day on which schools are closed for that purpose, all public schools and educational institutions throughout the state shall hold exercises in memory of Abraham Lincoln.

(4) The third Monday in February, known as "Washington Day." On the Friday preceding, all public schools and educational institutions throughout the state shall hold exercises in memory of George Washington.

(5) The last Monday in May, known as "Memorial Day."

(6) July 4.

(7) The first Monday in September, known as "Labor Day."

(8) November 11, known as "Veterans Day."

(9) That Thursday in November proclaimed by the President as "Thanksgiving Day."

(10) December 25.

(11) All days appointed by the Governor for a public fast, thanksgiving, or holiday, and all special or limited holidays on which the Governor provides that the schools shall close.

(12) All days appointed by the President as a public fast, thanksgiving, or holiday, unless it is a special or limited holiday.

(13) Any other day designated as a holiday by the governing board of the school district.

(b) When any of the holidays on which the schools would be closed falls on Sunday, the public schools shall close on the Monday following.

(c) When any of the holidays on which the schools would be closed falls on Saturday, the public schools shall close on the preceding Friday, and that Friday shall be declared a state holiday.

(d) If any holiday on which the public schools are required to close pursuant to subdivision (a) occurs under federal law on a date different from the date specified in subdivision (a), the governing board of any school district may close the public schools of the district on the date recognized by federal law and maintain classes on the date specified in subdivision (a).

(e) Except for Veterans Day, as designated in paragraph (8) of subdivision (a), the governing board of a school district, by adoption of a resolution, may revise the date upon which the schools of the district close in observance of any of the holidays identified in subdivision (a).

(f) The governing board of a school district may not request a waiver of paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) from the State Board of Education.

CHAPTER 127

An act to amend Section 16430 of the Government Code, relating to state funds.

[Approved by Governor July 1, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State July 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature that investment in the state's exporting industry be facilitated through the investment of state surplus moneys. This investment is most fully utilized through investment in programs such as bank loans and obligations guaranteed by the Export-Import Bank of the United States. These guaranteed loans can provide significant advantages to the export of this state's goods and services and should be encouraged and promoted by the state's exporting programs.

SEC. 2. Section 16430 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16430. Eligible securities for the investment of surplus moneys shall be:

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds or interest-bearing notes on obligations that are guaranteed as to principal and interest by a federal agency of the United States.

(c) Bonds and notes of this state, or those for which the faith and credit of this state are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(d) Bonds or warrants, including, but not limited to, revenue warrants, of any county, city, metropolitan water district, California water district, California water storage district, irrigation district in the State of California, municipal utility district, or school district of this state.

(e) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, in bonds or debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, in stock, bonds, debentures and other obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association established under the National Housing Act as amended, and in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act, obligations of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, in bonds, notes, and other obligations issued by the Tennessee Valley Authority under the Tennessee Valley Authority Act as amended, and bonds, notes, and other obligations guaranteed by the Commodity Credit Corporation for the export of California agricultural products under the Commodity Credit Corporation Charter Act as amended.

(f) Commercial paper of "prime" quality as defined by a nationally recognized organization which rates these securities. Eligible paper is further limited to issuing corporations: (1) organized and operating within the United States; (2) having total assets in excess of five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000); and (3) approved by the Pooled Money Investment Board. Purchases of eligible commercial paper may not exceed 180 days' maturity, represent more than 10 percent of the outstanding paper of an issuing corporation, nor exceed 30 percent of the resources of an investment program. At the request of the Pooled Money Investment Board, this investment shall be secured by the issuer by depositing with the Treasurer securities authorized by Section 53651 of a market value at least 10 percent in excess of the amount of the state's investment.

(g) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank, otherwise known as bankers acceptances, which are eligible for purchase by the Federal Reserve System.

(h) Negotiable certificates of deposits issued by a nationally or state-chartered bank or savings and loan association or by a state-licensed branch of a foreign bank. For the purposes of this section, negotiable certificates of deposits do not come within the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16500) and Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 16600).

(i) The portion of bank loans and obligations guaranteed by the United States Small Business Administration or the United States Farmers Home Administration.

(j) Bank loans and obligations guaranteed by the Export-Import Bank of the United States.

(k) Student loan notes insured under the Guaranteed Student Loan Program established pursuant to the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1001, et seq.) and eligible for resale to the Student Loan Marketing Association established pursuant to Section 133 of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended (20 U.S.C. 1087-2).

(l) Obligations issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the Inter-American Development Bank, the Asian Development Bank, the African Development Bank, the International Finance Corporation, or the Government Development Bank of Puerto Rico.

(m) Bonds, debentures, and notes issued by corporations organized and operating within the United States. Securities eligible for investment under this subdivision shall be within the top three ratings of a nationally recognized rating service.

CHAPTER 128

An act to add Section 2031.5 to the Code of Civil Procedure, and to add Section 523 to the Evidence Code, relating to real property.

[Approved by Governor July 1, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State July 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2031.5 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

2031.5. In any action, regardless of who is the moving party, where (a) the boundary of land patented or otherwise granted by the state is in dispute, or (b) the validity of any state patent or grant dated prior to 1950 is in dispute, all parties shall have the duty to disclose to all opposing parties all nonprivileged relevant written evidence then known and available, including evidence against interest, relating to the above issues. This evidence shall be disclosed within 120 days after the filing with the court of proof of service upon all named defendants. Thereafter, the parties shall have the continuing duty to make all subsequently discovered relevant and nonprivileged written evidence available to the opposing parties.

SEC. 2. Section 523 is added to the Evidence Code, to read:

523. In any action where the state is a party, regardless of who is the moving party, where (a) the boundary of land patented or otherwise granted by the state is in dispute, or (b) the validity of any state patent or grant dated prior to 1950 is in dispute, the state shall have the burden of proof on all issues relating to the historic locations of rivers, streams, and other water bodies and the authority of the state in issuing the patent or grant.

This section is not intended to nor shall it be construed to supersede existing statutes governing disputes where the state is a party and regarding title to real property.

CHAPTER 129

An act to amend Section 18321 of, and to add Section 18003.6 to, the Financial Code, relating to industrial loan companies.

[Approved by Governor July 1, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State July 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18003.6 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18003.6. "Certificate of deposit" as that term is used by an industrial loan company licensed under this division means an investment certificate representing the obligation of an industrial loan company to repay a nondemand deposit as deposit is defined in Section 3(1) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act.

SEC. 2. Section 18321 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18321. (a) Nothing in this division authorizes an industrial loan company to receive deposits.

(b) Subject to Section 18315, an industrial loan company that is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation pursuant to Section 18521.5 may use the term "certificate of deposit" as defined in Section 18003.6 with respect to an investment certificate that does not authorize either of the following:

(1) Redemption prior to its maturity.

(2) Reduction of the interest rate payable thereon other than a variable interest rate.

CHAPTER 130

An act to amend Sections 400, 401, 403, and 405 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor July 1, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State July 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 400 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

400. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this article, commencing May 1, 1992, no policy or endorsement insuring a private passenger automobile as defined in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 660 shall be issued or amended by an insurer in this state to provide collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, to a person not formerly an insured of the insurer or to an insured not formerly insured by the insurer for those coverages unless the insurer or its designated authorized representative has inspected the automobile.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this article, automobile collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, shall not be effective on an additional or replacement private passenger automobile until the insurer or its designated authorized representative has inspected the automobile.

(c) The inspection required by subdivision (a) shall be recorded on an inspection report adopted by the commissioner, however, an application for insurance which incorporates the provisions promulgated by the commissioner shall be deemed in compliance with this requirement. Two color photographs, taken as directed on the inspection report at angles which show the front, back, and sides of the vehicle, shall be attached thereto. In addition, a color photograph shall be attached showing a closeup of the Safety Certification Label otherwise known as "49 CFR Part 567 Certification Label" containing the vehicle identification number (VIN), located on the driver's side door jamb. Where the Safety Certification Label is missing or where the photograph does not produce a legible reproduction of the VIN, the inspector shall include the required photograph and a photocopy or a close-up photograph of the current vehicle registration, showing the VIN and certifying on the inspection report that the VIN on the vehicle registration and the VIN on the Safety Certification Label, if not missing, are the same. The inspector shall indicate the circumstances of the missing Safety Certification Label or illegible reproduction of the VIN in the appropriate place on the inspection form. The inspector may take additional photographs showing any damaged areas, which shall also be attached to the report; however, no more than three photographs are required to be taken for each automobile inspected. A copy of the report, without photographs, shall be provided to the insured by the insurer.

(d) For purposes of this section, "color photograph" means any legally accepted technology which produces a retrievable visual image including, but not limited to, a photograph, videotape, digital or visual imagery, or other technology approved by the commissioner. Nothing in this article shall preclude an insurer from electronically storing photographs mandated by this section.

(e) The insurer shall retain a copy of the preinsurance inspection report and accompanying color photographs for a period of not less than two years from the date of the inspection and may thereafter discard or destroy the report and photographs.

SEC. 2. Section 401 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

401. An insurer may waive or dispense with the mandatory inspection required by this article under any of the following circumstances:

- (a) The insured vehicle is a temporary substitute vehicle.
- (b) The insured vehicle is leased for less than six months, provided the insurer receives the lease or rental agreement containing a description of the vehicle, including its condition.
- (c) The vehicle is over seven model-years old.
- (d) The vehicle is a new and unused automobile purchased or leased from a dealer licensed under the Vehicle Code, and the insurer is provided with either a copy of the bill of sale or purchase order or conditional sales contract, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 2981 of the Civil Code, that contains a full description of the automobile, including all options and accessories, or a copy of the federally mandated window sticker or the dealer invoice showing the itemized manufacturer-installed options and equipment in addition to the total retail price of the vehicle on which will be added together with a due bill or other descriptive evidence of any dealer-installed options purchased by the customer at the time of sale. The collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, on the vehicle shall not be suspended during the term of the policy due to the insured's failure to provide the required document or documents, but payment of a claim shall be conditioned upon receipt by the insurer of the documents, and no collision or comprehensive loss occurring after the effective date of coverage shall be payable until the documents are provided to the insurer.

(e) The named insured provides evidence of insurance for comprehensive and collision coverage that has been in effect for a period of at least 12 months and is in force up to the effective date of transfer of insurance coverage with an admitted insurer.

(f) The vehicle is an additional or a replacement vehicle, and the named insured has been continuously insured for one or more policy years for automobile insurance with the same insurer, affiliate of that insurer, or through the same agency or brokerage.

(g) Where the insured's coverage is being transferred to a new insurer within an existing agency or production facility, or to a new agent or broker within the existing insurer or insurer group, and either: (1) the new insurer or agent or broker is provided with a copy of the inspection report completed on behalf of the previous insurer, or its designated representative provided the insured vehicle was inspected by the previous insurer within the last 12 months; or, (2) where the transfer is accompanied by evidence of insurance for comprehensive and collision coverage that has been in effect for a period of at least 12 months and is in force up to the effective date of transfer of insurance coverage. If the new insurer does not receive a copy of the inspection report within 60 days of the effective date of coverage, the new insurer shall cause an inspection to be performed within 30 days of notice to the insured.

(h) The insured vehicle is insured under a commercially rated policy that insures five or more vehicles.

(i) Whenever, with respect to the use of a nonowned vehicle by an insured where the insurer or its agent is notified of the use, the insurer or its agent determines it is reasonable to do so because the likelihood of a fraudulent physical damage claim is remote, including, but not limited to, when it is determined that the nonowned vehicle is insured under a policy providing automobile collision or comprehensive insurance and the vehicle has otherwise been inspected in accordance with this article.

(j) A buyer, borrower, or lessee of the vehicle is obligated under the terms of a conditional sale contract, loan agreement, note, or lease to maintain insurance on the vehicle and fails to procure or maintain the required coverage and the creditor or lessor procures the insurance in accordance with the conditional sale contract, loan agreement, note, or lease.

SEC. 3. Section 403 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

403. (a) Inspections required or permitted by this article shall be made by a designated authorized representative or inspection service of the insurer at times and places reasonably convenient to the insured, except that the insurer is not required to send an agent to the insured's home or place of business.

(b) An insurer shall utilize authorized representatives or inspection services who shall do all of the following:

(1) Be responsible for the accuracy, completeness, and signature of the inspector for each inspection report in writing.

(2) Utilize sequentially numbered inspection reports, by location, and maintain a control system on those reports. Alternatively, an insurer may utilize an internal system of distinctive identification which permits, by location, maintenance of a control system designed to prevent backdating or other fraudulent activity concerning the reports.

(3) For one year after the date of the inspection, retain and supply to the insurer, upon request, a copy of any inspection report.

(c) The insurer shall bear the cost of the inspection. Where the inspection is performed by an agent or broker, the insurer shall not be required to reimburse the agent or broker for the labor costs of those inspections but shall reimburse the agent or broker for the cost of film and developing associated with conducting the inspection. The cost of the inspection may be included as an administrative expense for ratemaking purposes.

(d) The inspection report shall be used by the insurer to document previous damage, prior condition, optional equipment and accessories, and mileage of the vehicle. Optional equipment and accessories listed shall include, but are not limited to, alarm systems, radar detectors, custom tires and wheels, and sound and communication systems, such as radios, stereos, tape decks, compact disks, and CB radios. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to require the inspection to be used for the purpose of certifying the current registration of an automobile or the safety or function of the automobile or any of its optional equipment.

(e) The inspection report information and photographs as necessary shall be used by the insurer in the settlement of all collision or comprehensive claims, or both, in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000), except that when the inspection reveals no prior damage to the vehicle, the requirement to use the inspection report information and photographs in the settlement of the claim is satisfied if the insurer indicates the lack of prior damage in the records of the policy and those records are used in the settlement of the claim. The inspection report information and photographs as necessary shall be used and made part of the claim file in the settlement of all unrecovered theft claims or total loss claims. The inspection report shall be part of the claim file regardless of whether or not the loss payment is reduced based on the information contained in the report. The commissioner shall periodically increase the amount of damages for which it is necessary to utilize the inspection report to settle a collision or comprehensive claim to account for inflation.

(f) The commissioner shall adopt regulations as may be necessary, including the promulgation of necessary forms to implement this section. In adopting forms to implement this section, the commissioner shall provide insurers with the option of using preapproved forms or incorporating standardized provisions into the application for coverage.

SEC. 4. Section 405 of the Insurance Code is amended to read: 405. As used in this article:

(a) "Temporary substitute vehicle" means any private passenger vehicle, not owned by the insured, while temporarily used with the permission of the owner as a substitute for the vehicle, owned or leased by the insured, while the latter is withdrawn from normal use because of a breakdown, repair, servicing, loss, or destruction.

(b) "Additional vehicle" means any new or used vehicle covered by this article that an insured requests be added to the insured's preexisting policy providing automobile collision or comprehensive coverage, or both.

(c) "Replacement vehicle" means any new or used vehicle covered by this article that an insured requests be added to the insured's preexisting policy providing automobile collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, in lieu of another vehicle covered by that policy. "Replacement vehicle" also includes a new or used vehicle covered by this article for which an insured requests coverage under a new policy issued to the insured providing automobile collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, that covers that vehicle and is issued by the insurer in lieu of another policy that provided coverage for the replaced vehicle.

CHAPTER 131

An act to add Section 12400.1 to the Insurance Code, relating to title insurance.

[Approved by Governor July 1, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State July 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12400.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

12400.1. Article 5.6 (commencing with Section 1875.20) of Chapter 12 of Part 2 of Division 1 does not apply to title insurers.

CHAPTER 132

An act to add Title 12.3 (commencing with Section 93100) to the Government Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor July 1, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State July 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 12.3 (commencing with Section 93100) is added to the Government Code, to read:

TITLE 12.3. SISKIYOU RAILROAD AUTHORITY

93100. This title shall be known and may be cited as the Siskiyou Railroad Authority Act.

93102. As used in this title, "authority" means the Siskiyou Railroad Authority.

93103. The authority is hereby created within the County of Siskiyou.

93104. The authority shall be governed by a board of five directors, three appointed by the board of supervisors of the County of Siskiyou, one of whom shall be a resident of the City of McCloud, and two appointed by the City Council of the City of Mount Shasta. Members of the board of supervisors and the city council may be appointed to and serve on the board of directors of the authority.

93105. The authority may do any of the following:

(a) Acquire, own, operate, and lease real and personal property directly related to the operation and maintenance of railroads.

(b) Acquire property by purchase, lease, or gift.

(c) Operate railroads.

(d) Accept grants or loans from state or federal agencies.

(e) Select a franchisee, which may be a public or private entity, to acquire or operate a rail transportation system within the area of the authority's jurisdiction.

93107. The authority may prepare a plan for the acquisition and operation of a railroad line, at no expense to the state.

93108. After preparation of a plan pursuant to Section 93107, the authority may do any of the following:

(a) Conduct engineering and other studies related to the acquisition of any railroad line.

(b) Evaluate alternative plans from the private sector to acquire, finance, and operate a railroad system.

(c) Establish criteria for the award of a franchise.

(d) Select a franchisee to acquire, finance, and operate the railroad system.

(e) Accept grants, gifts, fees, or allocations from other entities, including private and public sources.

(f) Employ an executive officer, other staff, and consultants deemed appropriate for support of the activities of the authority.

93110. The state is not liable for any contracts, debts, or other obligations of the authority.

CHAPTER 133

An act to amend and renumber Section 97.036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor July 1, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State July 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 97.036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 1 of Chapter 901 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended and renumbered to read:

97.034. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the amount of the revenue reduction resulting from the application of subdivision (c) of Section 97.03 to an amount equal to the amount of the water quality control compliance costs of a qualified special district for the 1992-93 fiscal year shall, for purposes of property tax revenue allocations for the 1993-94 fiscal year, be added to the amount of property tax revenue deemed allocated to that district in the 1992-93 fiscal year. The water quality control compliance costs of a qualified special district for the relevant fiscal year shall also be deducted from the amount of property tax revenue subject to reduction with respect to that district under Section 97.035 for the 1993-94 fiscal year, and under any statute with respect to any subsequent fiscal year that would reduce the amount of property tax revenue deemed allocated in the prior fiscal year to that district for purposes of increasing the amount of property tax revenue to be allocated to another jurisdiction.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) A "qualified special district" means any special district that is required to comply with Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 13950) of Division 7 of the Water Code.

(2) "Water quality control compliance costs" mean those costs, including, but not limited to, reserves for nongrowth facility augmentation and replacement and environmental protection, that are determined by the county auditor in accordance with subdivision (a) to have been incurred by a qualified special district in complying with Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 13950) of Division 7 of the Water Code.

(c) The auditor may assess each qualified special district its share of the auditor's actual and reasonable costs of complying with this section. For purposes of this subdivision, each share of costs shall be determined in accordance with that district's proportional share of the total amount of water quality control compliance costs determined by the auditor for purposes of this section for each fiscal year.

CHAPTER 134

An act to amend Section 48205 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor July 1, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State July 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 48205 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48205. (a) Notwithstanding Section 48200, a pupil shall be excused from school for justifiable personal reasons, including, but not limited to, an appearance in court, attendance at a funeral service, observance of a holiday or ceremony of his or her religion, attendance at religious retreats, or attendance at an employment conference, when the pupil's absence has been requested in writing by the parent or guardian and approved by the principal or a designated representative pursuant to uniform standards established by the governing board. A pupil shall also be excused from school when he or she is the custodial parent of a child who is ill or has a medical appointment during school hours.

(b) A pupil absent from school under this section shall be allowed to complete all assignments and tests missed during the absence that can be reasonably provided and, upon satisfactory completion, shall be given full credit therefor. The teacher of any class from which a pupil is absent shall determine, pursuant to the regulations of the governing board of the school district, what assignments the pupil shall make up and in what period of time the pupil shall complete those assignments. The tests and assignments shall be reasonably equivalent to, but not necessarily identical to, the tests and assignments that the pupil missed during the absence.

(c) For purposes of this section, attendance at religious retreats shall not exceed four hours per semester.

(d) Absences pursuant to this section are deemed to be absences in computing average daily attendance and shall not generate state apportionment payments, except as otherwise provided by Article 1 (commencing with Section 46000) of Chapter 1 of Part 26, including, but not limited to, an absence for the purpose of attending the funeral services of a member of a pupil's immediate family.

CHAPTER 135

An act to amend Sections 5921, 17070, and 17205 of, and to add Sections 12467, 17211, and 17212 to, the Government Code, relating to state finances.

[Approved by Governor July 1, 1994. Filed with Secretary of State July 1, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5921 of the Government Code is amended to read:

5921. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply, unless the context otherwise indicates or requires another or different meaning or intent:

(a) "Bonds" mean bonds, notes, bond anticipation notes, commercial paper, or other evidences of indebtedness, or reimbursement warrants or refunding warrants, or lease, installment purchase, or other agreements or certificates of participation therein.

(b) "State or local government" means the state, any department, agency, board, commission, or authority of the state, or any city, city and county, county, public district, public corporation, authority, agency, board, commission, or other public entity.

SEC. 2. Section 12467 is added to the Government Code, to read:

12467. (a) (1) The Legislature finds and declares that the General Fund has experienced significant deficits in recent years due to economic factors and extraordinary demand for public services supported by the General Fund. In order to meet the cash needs of the state it has been necessary to obtain external loans. The Legislature desires to provide a specific mechanism to eliminate chronic General Fund cash deficits, provide fiscal stability and facilitate temporary, short-term borrowing.

(2) For purposes of this section, "unused borrowable resources," as of any date, means total available borrowable resources on that date less total cumulative loan balances on that date.

(b) On November 15, 1994, the Controller shall provide a detailed report to the Legislature and the Governor of the estimated cash condition of the General Fund for the 1994-95 fiscal year. The Legislative Analyst shall prepare an analysis of General Fund revenues and expenditures for the 1994-95 fiscal year for use by the Controller in the estimate of the 1994-95 General Fund cash condition. The Legislative Analyst shall review the Controller's estimate of the General Fund cash condition and within five working days shall advise the Controller, the Treasurer, the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, and the Director of Finance whether that estimate reasonably reflects anticipated expenditures and revenues during the fiscal year. The Controller's report shall identify the amount of any 1995 cash shortfall, as set forth in this subdivision. To that end, the Controller shall identify the projected amount by which the unused borrowable resources on June 30, 1995, will differ from the unused borrowable resources on June 30, 1995, as indicated in the cash-flow analysis included in the official statement accompanying the sale of the July 1994 revenue anticipation warrants. If the Controller's report identifies a decrease in the unused borrowable resources on June 30, 1995, of more than four hundred thirty million dollars ($430,000,000), then the 1995 cash shortfall shall be the amount of the difference that exceeds four hundred thirty million dollars ($430,000,000). On or before January 10, 1995, the Governor shall propose legislation providing for sufficient General Fund expenditure reductions, revenue increases, or both, to offset the amount of the estimated 1995 cash shortfall as reported by the Controller. This legislation, or legislation providing equivalent expenditure reductions, revenue increases, or both, shall be enacted on or before February 15, 1995.

(c) The Director of Finance shall include updated cash-flow statements for the 1994-95 and 1995-96 fiscal years in the May revision to the budget proposal for the 1995-96 fiscal year submitted to the Legislature pursuant to Section 13308. The revised budget proposal for the 1995-96 fiscal year shall not result in any projected negative amount of unused borrowable resources as of June 30, 1996. By June 1, 1995, the Controller shall concur with those updated statements or provide a report to the Governor and the Legislature identifying specific corrections, objections, or concerns and the Controller's estimate of the cash condition of the General Fund for the 1994-95 and 1995-96 fiscal years. If the Controller identifies any projected negative amount of unused borrowable resources as of June 30, 1996, then the Governor shall propose additional General Fund expenditure reductions, revenue increases, or both, to eliminate that cash shortfall. The enacted budget shall not result in any projected negative unused borrowable resources as of June 30, 1996.

(d) On October 15, 1995, the Controller shall provide a detailed report to the Legislature and the Governor of the estimated cash condition of the General Fund for the 1995-96 fiscal year. The Legislative Analyst shall prepare an analysis of General Fund revenues and expenditures for the 1995-96 fiscal year for use by the Controller in the estimate of the 1995-96 General Fund cash condition. The Legislative Analyst shall review the Controller's estimate of the General Fund cash condition and within five working days shall advise the Controller, the Treasurer, the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, and the Director of Finance whether that estimate reasonably reflects anticipated expenditures and revenues during the fiscal year. The Controller's report shall identify the amount of any 1996 cash shortfall, as set forth in this subdivision. The Controller shall identify the projected amount of unused borrowable resources as of June 30, 1996. If the Controller's report identifies a negative amount of unused borrowable resources as of June 30, 1996, then the 1996 cash shortfall shall be the amount necessary to bring the balance of unused borrowable resources on June 30, 1996, to zero. Within 10 days of the Legislative Analyst's review, the Governor shall propose legislation providing for sufficient General Fund expenditure reductions, revenue increases, or both, to offset the estimated 1996 cash shortfall as reported by the Controller. This legislation, or legislation providing equivalent expenditure reductions, revenue increases, or both, shall be enacted on or before December 1, 1995.

(e) (1) If the legislation required by subdivision (b) is not enacted, within five days the Director of Finance shall reduce all General Fund appropriations for the 1994-95 fiscal year, except those required by subdivision (b) of Section 8 of Article XVI, Section 25 of Article XIII, Section 6 of Article XIII B, or any other provision of the California Constitution, and general obligation debt service, or law of the United States, by the percentage equal to the ratio of the 1995 cash shortfall to total remaining General Fund appropriations for the 1994-95 fiscal year, after excluding the appropriations that are not subject to reduction.

(2) If the legislation required by subdivision (d) is not enacted, within five days the Director of Finance shall reduce all General Fund appropriations for the 1995-96 fiscal year, except those required by subdivision (b) of Section 8 of Article XVI, Section 25 of Article XIII, Section 6 of Article XIII B, or any other provision of the California Constitution, and General Obligation debt service, or law of the United States, by the percentage equal to the ratio of the 1996 cash shortfall to total remaining General Fund appropriations for the 1995-96 fiscal year, after excluding the appropriations that are not subject to reduction.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the event a General Fund appropriation that is reduced pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) is for a program under which individuals other than an officer or employee of the state receive an amount determined pursuant to statute, whether that amount is an entitlement or not, that amount shall be reduced by the same percentage as the General Fund appropriation from which that payment is made is reduced.

(f) The State of California hereby pledges to and agrees with the holders of any registered reimbursement warrants and any revenue anticipation notes issued in July 1994, and any banking institutions that provide credit support for these warrants or notes, that the state will not limit or alter the obligation hereby required of the state by this section until the registered reimbursement warrants and revenue anticipation notes, together with interest thereon, are fully met and discharged.

SEC. 3. Section 17070 of the Government Code is amended to read:

17070. Whenever any warrant issued by the Controller is unpaid for four years after it becomes payable, sufficient unapplied moneys having been available for the payment of the warrant and for the payment of all senior obligations, the Controller shall cancel it.

SEC. 4. Section 17205 of the Government Code is amended to read:

17205. Notwithstanding any provision of the Uniform Commercial Code, all registered warrants are negotiable instruments.

SEC. 5. Section 17211 is added to the Government Code, to read:

17211. Warrants issued and registered for the purpose of paying any and all obligations owed by the state under or in connection with any credit enhancement or liquidity agreement (including in the form of a letter of credit, standby purchase agreement, liquidity facility, or other similar arrangement) entered into by the state to secure or support any reimbursement warrants or refunding warrants issued pursuant to this chapter shall be based upon the same claims, and shall have the same priority as to payment from unapplied money in the General Fund, as the reimbursement warrants or refunding warrants paid with funds disbursed under or in connection with the credit enhancement or liquidity agreement. These warrants shall be issued and registered in the amounts requested by the provider of the credit enhancement or liquidity agreement.

SEC. 6. Section 17212 is added to the Government Code, to read:

17212. If at any time it is necessary to register warrants pursuant to this chapter for the payment of principal of or interest on notes issued pursuant to Section 17302 or for the payment of any obligations of the state under any credit enhancement or liquidity agreement (including in the form of a letter of credit, standby purchase agreement, reimbursement agreement, liquidity facility, or other similar arrangement) authorized pursuant to Section 5922, notwithstanding Section 17222, the warrants shall bear interest at the rate specified in the notes or the credit enhancement or liquidity agreement, as the case may be.

CHAPTER 136

An act to add Section 5924 to, and to add and repeal Article 6 (commencing with Section 17296) of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 4 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, and to amend Sections 7102 and 30125 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to state finances, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 4, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State July 5, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5924 is added to the Government Code, to read:

5924. Notwithstanding Section 13340, there is hereby continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal years, from the General Fund in the State Treasury for the purpose of this chapter, an amount that will equal the sum annually as will be necessary to pay all obligations, including principal, interest, fees, costs, indemnities, and all other amounts, incurred by the state under or in connection with any credit enhancement or liquidity agreement (including in the form of a letter of credit, standby purchase agreement, reimbursement agreement, liquidity facility, or other similar arrangement) entered into by the state pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 2. Article 6 (commencing with Section 17296) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 6. Warrant Payment Fund

17296. It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this article, to provide assurances to the persons who invest in the state's registered reimbursement warrants that funds will be set aside in the Warrant Payment Fund and will be used to retire the registered reimbursement warrants at maturity.

17296.1. (a) The Warrant Payment Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury for the purpose of setting aside unapplied moneys in the General Fund for the payment and redemption of registered reimbursement warrants issued during the 1994-95 fiscal year and maturing in the 1995-96 fiscal year. The Warrant Payment Fund shall consist of all funds deposited therein pursuant to this article. Except as provided in Section 17296.4, the moneys in the Warrant Payment Fund shall only be available for transfer to the General Fund to redeem registered reimbursement warrants.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 13340, the Warrant Payment Fund is continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, for the purposes specified in this article.

17296.2. The Controller shall transfer from unapplied moneys in the General Fund to the Warrant Payment Fund the total amount of four billion dollars ($4,000,000,000) plus interest necessary to redeem the warrants identified in subdivision (a) of Section 17296.1, to be transferred in four equal installments on or before each of the following dates: September 30, 1995, November 30, 1995, January 31, 1996, and April 24, 1996.

17296.3. The Controller shall transfer funds from the Warrant

Payment Fund to the General Fund to pay and redeem registered reimbursement warrants at maturity.

17296.4. Moneys in the Warrant Payment Fund shall be available for transfer to the General Fund pursuant to Section 16310.

17296.5. Unless registered reimbursement warrants remain outstanding, this article shall be in effect only until July 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed. If registered reimbursement warrants remain outstanding July 1, 1996, this article shall continue in effect until the warrants are paid. Any balance in the Warrant Payment Fund as of the date of repeal of this article shall be transferred to the General Fund.

SEC. 3. Section 7102 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

7102. The money in the fund shall, upon order of the Controller, be drawn therefrom for refunds under this part, and pursuant to Section 1793.25 of the Civil Code, or be transferred in the following manner:

(a) (1) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part at the $4\frac{3}{4}$ -percent rate, including the imposition of sales and use taxes with respect to the sale, storage, use, or other consumption of motor vehicle fuel which would not have been received if the sales and use tax rate had been 5 percent and if motor vehicle fuel, as defined for purposes of the Motor Vehicle Fuel License Tax Law (Part 2 (commencing with Section 7301)), had been exempt from sales and use taxes, shall be estimated by the State Board of Equalization, with the concurrence of the Department of Finance, and shall be transferred quarterly to the Transportation Planning and Development Account, a trust fund in the State Transportation Fund.

(2) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part at the $4\frac{3}{4}$ -percent rate, resulting from increasing after December 31, 1989, the rate of tax imposed pursuant to the Motor Vehicle Fuel License Tax Law on motor vehicle fuel, as defined for purposes of that law, shall be transferred quarterly to the Transportation Planning and Development Account, a trust fund in the State Transportation Fund.

(3) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part at the $4\frac{3}{4}$ -percent rate from the imposition of sales and use taxes on fuel, as defined for purposes of the Use Fuel Tax Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 8601)), shall be estimated by the State Board of Equalization, with the concurrence of the Department of Finance, and shall be transferred quarterly to the Transportation Planning and Development Account, a trust fund in the State Transportation Fund.

(4) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part from a rate of more than $4\frac{3}{4}$ percent pursuant to Sections 6051.1 and 6201.1 for the period December 1, 1989, to June 5, 1990, inclusive, shall be transferred to the Disaster Relief Fund created by Section 16419 of the Government Code.

(5) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part from a rate of more than $4\frac{3}{4}$ percent pursuant to Sections 6051.1 and 6201.1 for the period June 6, 1990, to December 31, 1990, inclusive, which is attributable to the imposition of sales and use taxes with respect to the sale, storage, use, or other consumption of tangible personal property other than fuel, as defined for purposes of the Use Fuel Tax Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 8601)), shall be transferred to the Disaster Relief Fund created by Section 16419 of the Government Code.

(6) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part from a rate of more than $4\frac{3}{4}$ percent pursuant to Sections 6051.1 and 6201.1 for the period June 6, 1990, to December 31, 1990, inclusive, which is attributable to the imposition of sales and use taxes with respect to the sale, storage, use, or other consumption of fuel, as defined for purposes of the Use Fuel Tax Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 8601)), shall be transferred to the Disaster Relief Fund created by Section 16419 of the Government Code.

(7) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part from the taxes imposed pursuant to Sections 6051.2 and 6201.2 shall be transferred to the Sales Tax Account of the Local Revenue Fund for allocation to cities and counties as prescribed by statute.

(8) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part from the taxes imposed pursuant to Sections 6051.6 and 6201.6 shall be transferred to the Interim Public Safety Account in the Local Public Safety Fund created in Section 30051 of the Government Code for allocation to counties as prescribed by statute.

(9) All revenues, less refunds, derived from the taxes imposed pursuant to Section 35 of Article XIII of the California Constitution shall be transferred to the Public Safety Account in the Local Public Safety Fund created in Section 30051 of the Government Code for allocation to counties as prescribed by statute.

(10) An amount equal to all revenues, less refunds, derived under this part at a $4\frac{3}{4}$ -percent rate for the period between January 1, 1994, and July 1, 1994, from the increase in sales and use tax revenue attributable to the increase in the rate of the federal motor vehicle fuel tax between January 1, 1993, and the rate in effect on January 1, 1994, shall be estimated by the State Board of Equalization, with the concurrence of the Department of Finance, and an amount equal to that amount, but not exceeding seven million five hundred thousand dollars (\$7,500,000) shall be transferred from the Retail Sales Tax Fund to the Small Business Expansion Fund created by Article 5 (commencing with Section 14030) of Chapter 1 of Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(b) The balance shall be transferred to the General Fund.

(c) The estimates required by subdivision (a) shall be based on taxable transactions occurring during a calendar year, and the transfers required by subdivision (a) shall be made during the fiscal year that commences during that same calendar year. Transfers required by paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subdivision (a) shall be made quarterly.

(d) Notwithstanding the designation of the Transportation Planning and Development Account as a trust fund pursuant to subdivision (a), the Controller may use the Transportation Planning and Development Account for loans to the General Fund as provided in Sections 16310 and 16381 of the Government Code. The loans shall be repaid with interest from the General Fund at the Pooled Money Investment Account rate.

(e) The Legislature may amend this section, by statute passed in each house of the Legislature by rollcall vote entered in the journal, two-thirds of the membership concurring, if the statute is consistent with, and furthers the purposes of this section.

SEC. 4. Section 30125 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

30125. Funds expended pursuant to this article shall be used only for the purposes expressed in this article and shall be used to supplement existing levels of service and not to fund existing levels of service. The fund and accounts in the fund may be used for loans to the General Fund as provided in Sections 16310 and 16381 of the Government Code. The loans shall be repaid with interest from the General Fund at the Pooled Money Investment Account rate.

SEC. 5. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the amendment to Section 7102 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by this act is consistent with and furthers the purpose of Proposition 116, which was enacted at the June 5, 1990, statewide election.

SEC. 6. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the amendment to Section 30125 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by this act is consistent with the purposes of the Tobacco Tax and Health Protection Act of 1988.

SEC. 7. (a) For purposes of this section, "unused borrowable resources," as of any date, means total available borrowable resources on that date less total cumulative loan balances on that date.

(b) On November 15, 1994, the Controller shall provide a detailed report to the Legislature and the Governor of the estimated cash condition of the General Fund for the 1994-95 fiscal year. The Legislative Analyst shall prepare an analysis of General Fund revenues and expenditures for the 1994-95 fiscal year for use by the Controller in the estimate of the 1994-95 General Fund cash condition. The Legislative Analyst shall review the Controller's estimate of the General Fund cash condition and within five working days shall advise the Controller, the Treasurer, the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, and the Director of Finance whether that estimate reasonably reflects anticipated expenditures and revenues during the fiscal year. The Controller's report shall identify the amount of any 1995 cash shortfall, as set forth in this section. To that end, the Controller shall identify the projected amount by which the unused borrowable resources on June 30, 1995, will differ from the unused borrowable resources on June 30, 1995, as indicated in the cash-flow analysis included in the official statement accompanying the sale of the July 1994 revenue anticipation warrants. If the Controller's report identifies a decrease in the unused borrowable resources on June 30, 1995, of more than four hundred thirty million dollars ($430,000,000), then the 1995 cash shortfall shall be the amount of the difference that exceeds four hundred thirty million dollars ($430,000,000).

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The state is facing a serious cash shortfall that requires immediate action. In order to facilitate the issuance of revenue anticipation notes and reimbursement warrants, make available additional internal borrowable resources to assist the state in meeting its cash needs, and avoid disruption of essential government services, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 137

An act to amend Section 68 of Chapter 1226 of the Statutes of 1991, relating to local government finance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 7, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State July 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 68 of Chapter 1226 of the Statutes of 1991 is amended to read:

Sec. 68. In the case of the City of Marina in the County of Monterey, the Controller shall determine that the population of the city is the population certified by the Demographic Research Unit of the Department of Finance plus the population within the Frederick Park and Schoonover Park subdivisions of Fort Ord, as determined by the Demographic Research Unit, as if those subdivisions were within the City of Marina. The Controller shall use the population for the City of Marina as determined pursuant to this section when disbursing money pursuant to Sections 8352.6 and 11005 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and Sections 2105, 2106, 2107, and 2107.5 of the Streets and Highways Code. The Controller shall use the population for the City of Marina as determined pursuant to this section until the subdivisions are annexed to the City of Marina or until a nongovernmental entity acquires the subdivisions from government, whichever comes first.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

There will be a transfer of the property that is the subject of Section 1 of this act prior to January 1, 1995. In order for the residents of the state to have the benefit of this bill at the earliest possible time, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 138

An act to amend Sections 7093.5 and 19442 of, and to repeal Section 7093 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 7, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State July 7, 1994.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7093 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 7093.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

7093.5. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that the State Board of Equalization, its staff, and the Attorney General pursue settlements as authorized under this section with respect to civil tax matters in dispute that are the subject of protests, appeals, or refund claims, consistent with a reasonable evaluation of the costs and risks associated with litigation of these matters.

(b) (1) Subject to paragraph (2), the executive director or chief counsel, if authorized by the executive director, of the board may recommend to the State Board of Equalization, itself, a settlement of any civil tax matter in dispute.

(2) No recommendation of settlement shall be submitted to the board unless and until that recommendation has been submitted by the executive director or chief counsel to the Attorney General. Within 30 days of receiving that recommendation, the Attorney General shall review the recommendation and advise in writing the executive director or chief counsel of the board of his or her conclusions as to whether the recommendation is reasonable from an overall perspective. The executive director or chief counsel shall, with each recommendation of settlement submitted to the board, also submit the Attorney General's written conclusions obtained pursuant to this paragraph.

(c) Whenever a reduction of tax in settlement in excess of five hundred dollars ($500) is approved pursuant to this section, there shall be placed on file in the office of the executive director of the board a public record with respect to that settlement. The public record shall include all of the following information:

(1) The name or names of the taxpayers who are parties to the settlement.

(2) The total amount in dispute.

(3) The amount agreed to pursuant to the settlement.

(4) A summary of the reasons why the settlement is in the best interests of the State of California.

(5) The Attorney General's conclusion as to whether the recommendation of settlement was reasonable from an overall perspective.

The public record shall not include any information that relates to any trade secret, patent, process, style of work, apparatus, business secret, or organizational structure that, if disclosed, would adversely affect the taxpayer or the national defense.

(d) The members of the State Board of Equalization shall not participate in the settlement of tax matters pursuant to this section, except as provided in subdivision (e).

(e) (1) Any recommendation for settlement shall be approved or disapproved by the board, itself, within 45 days of the submission of that recommendation to the board. Any recommendation for settlement that is not either approved or disapproved by the board within 45 days of the submission of that recommendation shall be deemed approved. Upon approval of a recommendation for settlement, the matter shall be referred back to the executive director or chief counsel in accordance with the decision of the board.

(2) Disapproval of a recommendation for settlement shall be made only by a majority vote of the board. Where the board disapproves a recommendation for settlement, the matter shall be remanded to board staff for further negotiation, and may be resubmitted to the board, in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as the initial submission, at the discretion of the executive director or chief counsel.

(f) All settlements entered into pursuant to this section shall be final and nonappealable, except upon a showing of fraud or misrepresentation with respect to a material fact.

(g) Any proceedings undertaken by the board itself pursuant to a settlement as described in this section shall be conducted in a closed session or sessions. Except as provided in subdivision (c), any settlement entered into pursuant to this section shall constitute confidential tax information for purposes of Section 7056.

(h) This section shall apply only to civil tax matters in dispute on or after the effective date of the act adding this subdivision.

(i) The Legislature finds that it is essential for fiscal purposes that the settlement program authorized by this section be expeditiously implemented. Accordingly, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall not apply to any determination, rule, notice, or guideline established or issued by the board in implementing and administering the settlement program authorized by this section.

SEC. 3. Section 19442 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19442. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Franchise Tax Board, its staff, and the Attorney General pursue settlements as authorized under this section with respect to civil tax matters in dispute that are the subject of protests, appeals, or refund claims, consistent with a reasonable evaluation of the costs and risks associated with litigation of these matters.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (3) and subject to paragraph (2), the executive officer or chief counsel, if authorized by the executive officer, of the Franchise Tax Board may recommend to the Franchise Tax Board, itself, a settlement of any civil tax matter in dispute.

(2) No recommendation of settlement shall be submitted to the Franchise Tax Board, itself, unless and until that recommendation has been submitted by the executive officer or chief counsel to the Attorney General. Within 30 days of receiving that recommendation, the Attorney General shall review the recommendation and advise in writing the executive officer or chief counsel of the Franchise Tax Board of his or her conclusions as to whether the recommendation is reasonable from an overall perspective. The executive officer or chief counsel shall, with each recommendation of settlement submitted to the Franchise Tax Board, itself, also submit the Attorney General's written conclusions obtained pursuant to this paragraph.

(3) A settlement of any civil tax matter in dispute involving a reduction of tax or penalties in settlement, the total of which reduction of tax and penalties in settlement does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), may be approved by the executive officer and chief counsel, jointly. The executive officer shall notify the Franchise Tax Board, itself, of any settlement approved pursuant to this paragraph.

(c) Whenever a reduction of tax or penalties or total tax and penalties in settlement in excess of five hundred dollars ($500) is approved pursuant to this section, there shall be placed on file in the office of the executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board a public record with respect to that settlement. The public record shall include all of the following information:

(1) The name or names of the taxpayers who are parties to the settlement.

(2) The total amount in dispute.

(3) The amount agreed to pursuant to the settlement.

(4) A summary of the reasons why the settlement is in the best interests of the State of California.

(5) For any settlement approved by the Franchise Tax Board, itself, the Attorney General's conclusion as to whether the recommendation of settlement was reasonable from an overall perspective.

The public record shall not include any information that relates to any trade secret, patent, process, style of work, apparatus, business secret, or organizational structure, that if disclosed, would adversely affect the taxpayer or the national defense.

(d) The members of the Franchise Tax Board shall not participate in the settlement of tax matters pursuant to this section, except as provided in subdivision (e).

(e) (1) Any recommendation for settlement shall be approved or disapproved by the Franchise Tax Board, itself, within 45 days of the submission of that recommendation. Any recommendation for settlement that is not either approved or disapproved by the Franchise Tax Board, itself, within 45 days of the submission of that recommendation shall be deemed approved. Upon approval of a recommendation for settlement, the matter shall be referred back to the executive officer or chief counsel in accordance with the decision of the Franchise Tax Board.

(2) Disapproval of a recommendation for settlement shall be made only by a majority vote of the Franchise Tax Board. Where the Franchise Tax Board disapproves a recommendation for settlement, the matter shall be remanded to Franchise Tax Board staff for further negotiation, and may be resubmitted to the Franchise Tax Board, in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as the initial submission, at the discretion of the executive officer or chief counsel.

(f) All settlements entered into pursuant to this section shall be final and nonappealable, except upon a showing of fraud or misrepresentation with respect to a material fact.

(g) Any proceedings undertaken by the Franchise Tax Board itself pursuant to a settlement as described in this section shall be conducted in a closed session or sessions. Except as provided in subdivision (c), any settlement entered into pursuant to this section shall constitute confidential tax information for purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 19542) of Chapter 7.

(h) This section shall apply only to civil tax matters in dispute existing on or after the effective date of the act adding this subdivision.

(i) The Legislature finds that it is essential for fiscal purposes that the settlement program authorized by this section be expeditiously implemented. Accordingly, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall not apply to any determination, rule, notice, or guideline established or issued by the Franchise Tax Board in implementing and administering the settlement program authorized by this section.

SEC. 4. The State Auditor shall, on or before January 1, 1999, report to the Legislature on the merits of the settlement program established pursuant to Sections 2 and 3 of this act.

SEC. 5. The sum of two million four hundred eighty-nine thousand dollars ($2,489,000) is hereby appropriated for the 1994-95 fiscal year from the General Fund to the Department of Finance for allocation to the following agencies to reimburse them for costs incurred in implementing this act:

(a) To the Franchise Tax Board, in an amount equal to one million eight hundred forty-seven thousand dollars ($1,847,000).

(b) To the State Board of Equalization, in an amount equal to five hundred twenty-two thousand dollars ($522,000).

(c) To the Department of Justice, in an amount equal to one hundred twenty thousand dollars ($120,000).

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide essential state revenues and reduce unnecessary program disruption, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 139

An act making appropriations for the support of the government of the State of California and for several public purposes in accordance with the provisions of Section 12 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 8, 1994. Filed with
Secretary of State July 8, 1994.]

I object to the following appropriations contained in Senate Bill 2120:

Item 0974-001-918—For support of the California Pollution Control Financing Authority, payable from the Small Business Expansion Fund. I delete this item.

The $750,000 augmentation would result in a reduction in the amount of funds that would otherwise be available to provide assistance to small businesses through the Small Business Loan Guarantee Program and the Surety Bond Program. These programs have a proven track record in creating jobs and investment in California.

Item 1760-001-666—For support of the Department of General Services. I am deleting Provision 3.

I am deleting Provision 3 which would require that any balance in the Building Rental Account on June 30, 1994 and on June 30, 1995 be used to complete high-priority deferred maintenance projects, rather than be transferred to the General Fund pursuant to existing provisions of law. Although there may be a backlog of such projects, given the state's current fiscal situation, I am concerned about establishing a precedent of diverting any potential revenues to the General Fund for other purposes.

Item 1760-001-768—For support of the Department of General Services. I delete Provision 1.

I am deleting Provision 1, which specifies that the Department shall limit the use of Earthquake Safety and Public Buildings Rehabilitation Bond Act of 1990 funds to the structural retrofit of seismic deficiencies only. This language is unnecessarily restrictive and is not consistent with the State's plan to retrofit, reconstruct, repair or relocate State buildings depending on which is the most economical option. This language would also preclude making certain types of repairs authorized by the Act and would prohibit the use of funds for building replacement in cases where building replacement is found to be more cost-effective than seismic retrofit.

Item 1880-001-001—For support of State Personnel Board. I revise this item by reducing:

(a) 10-Merit System Administration from $11,565,000 to $11,550,000, and

(e) Reimbursements from —$8,666,000 to —$8,651,000,

and by deleting Provision 2.

I am deleting the $15,000 legislative augmentation to the State Personnel Board's (SPB) reimbursement authority for the production of an Affirmative Action and Annual Census Report. The Legislature authorized SPB to charge departments for the cost of producing the report. However, Chapter 710, Statutes of 1992 (AB 2824), was enacted to reduce the costs to the State of producing reports by deferring various report requirements until 1995. Chapter 710 resulted in deferring the requirement for preparation of the Affirmative Action and Annual Census Report until the 1995-96 fiscal year. Therefore, my veto of this augmentation is consistent with existing law and with the intent and actions of the Legislature in enacting Chapter 710.

I am deleting Provision 2 to conform to this action.

Item 2180-001-067—For support of Department of Corporations. I revise this item by deleting Provision 1.

This language would require the Department of Corporations to submit a plan, by December 1, 1994, to consolidate the Office of Savings and Loan, State Banking Department, and Department of Corporations into a single financial regulatory agency during the 1995–96 fiscal year.

This is a policy decision that should precede any requirement to submit or implement a plan of action. Several legislative proposals to consolidate state financial services have been considered in recent years but not enacted.

Item 2290-401—For support of the administrative costs for operating the Conservation and Liquidation Division of the Department of Insurance. I am revising this item by deleting Provision 2.

I am deleting Provision 2, which would require that beginning with the 1995–96 fiscal year, the Governor's Budget shall include specific information regarding all costs for each conserved estate, including both the administrative and direct costs, attributable to the operation of companies under conservation by the Division. This language hinders the Administration's ability to reflect a level of detail in the budget that is informative, but not overly burdensome. In addition, it is not necessary to include such detailed information in the budget because interested parties can obtain this information on an as-needed basis through the normal information request process. I recognize, however, that some information of this type may be useful and, therefore, I have requested the Director of Finance to include an appropriate level and amount of information on conserved insurance companies in the 1995–96 Governor's Budget.

Item 2640-101-046—For local assistance, Special Transportation Programs. I reduce this item from $68,396,000 to $61,650,000.

I am deleting the $6,746,000 legislative augmentation for the State Transportation Assistance program. This augmentation was made in anticipation of savings in the 1993–94 fiscal year due to postponement of the construction phase of a maintenance station in San Jose and delays in the delivery schedule of the new California rail cars. The Legislature also adopted a reduction I proposed in May to this item which was made necessary by a significant reduction in projected revenues to the Transportation Planning and Development Account. In adopting my recommended reduction, the same savings was applied equally to mitigate the reductions to this program and the Transit Capital Improvement Program funded in Item 2660-101-046. It is, therefore, prudent to eliminate this augmentation to avoid over appropriating the Transportation Planning and Development Account.

Item 2660-001-042—For support of Department of Transportation. I am revising this item by deleting Provisions 5 and 6 of this item.

I am deleting Provision 5, which would restrict the average daily number of vehicles authorized to be taken home by Caltrans employees to 1,939 vehicles because the department is already in the process of auditing and justifying the use of each vehicle and because this Provision may interfere with the department's ability to respond to emergencies and perform essential field work.

I am deleting Provision 6, which would require the department to fund a study, conducted by the Bureau of State Audits, of the department's fleet management practices. The department is already conducting such a review; therefore, this study is unnecessary.

Item 2660-011-042—For transfer by the Controller from the State Highway Account, State Transportation Fund, to the Seismic Safety Retrofit Account, State Transportation Fund. I reduce this item from ($41,500,000) to ($15,500,000).

I am reducing the transfer made by this item for the purposes of funding capital outlay related to seismic retrofit by $26,000,000. The source of funding for this transfer is the result of legislative reductions to the department's support budget. These reductions and other reductions made by the Legislature to the support operations of the department have the cumulative effect of jeopardizing the department's ability to keep funded projects on schedule and adequately maintain the State's existing transportation investment. Furthermore, the reductions in the Department's support budget could result in a shortage of funds to do the preliminary planning and design of phase II of the seismic retrofit projects. Through my veto action, I am setting aside the $26.0 million for future appropriation to provide the department with the appropriate resources in fiscal year 1994-95 to perform the seismic retrofit design and engineering work and other high-priority work necessary to ensure that transportation project delivery schedules can be met. I am taking conforming action in Item 2660-325-056.

Item 2660-126-042—For local assistance, Department of Transportation. I delete this item and Provision 1.

I am deleting this item and Provision 1, which appropriates $500,000 of State Highway Account funds to finance the preliminary engineering and environmental work for the transportation system necessary to support the conversion of the Mare Island Naval Shipyard to civilian use. I am vetoing this item because it would constitute project-specific budgeting of State Highway Account funds and it is not an appropriate use of State Highway Account funds, since the project is not on the State Highway system. Additionally, the Trade and Commerce Agency's Economic Development Grant and Loan Program has already provided the City of Vallejo with an $80,000 Military Base Reuse Planning Grant, which will be used to match federal dollars to prepare a Mare Island general reuse plan.

Item 2660-325-042—For capital outlay, Department of Transportation. I am revising this item by deleting Provision 6.

I am deleting Provision 6, which would prohibit the use of toll bridge revenues to finance the seismic retrofit of toll bridges until all projects authorized by Regional Measure 1 are completed. I am however committed to ensuring that the Measure 1 projects are completed without delay. Furthermore, I have directed the Department of Transportation in keeping with the intent of the language to not use toll bridge funds for seismic retrofit purposes during fiscal year 1994-95.

Item 2660-325-056—For capital outlay, Department of Transportation. I reduce this item from $41,500,000 to $15,500,000, and delete Provision 1.

I am reducing this item by $26,000,000 to conform to my action on Item 2660-011-042. Additionally, I am deleting Provision 1, which specifies that the funds appropriated in this item shall be allocated by the California Transportation Commission to accelerate the repair, replacement, and retrofitting of the I-280 Freeway because this language would constitute project-specific budgeting for State Highway Account funds. I have been advised by the department that no additional state funds are needed in order to complete the I-280 projects. The inclusion of this provision would prevent the $15.5 million remaining in this item after my veto from being expended on other high-priority seismic retrofit projects.

Item 2740-001-044—For support of Department of Motor Vehicles. I am revising this item by deleting Provision 3.

This language would restrict the use of any of the funds appropriated to the department on any database redevelopment expenditures. I have requested the Director of the Department of Motor Vehicles to contract for a study of all of the department's data processing needs, including any need to redevelop the core database systems. This language unnecessarily restricts the options of both the Legislative and Executive Branch once the evaluation I am proposing has been completed.

Item 2740-005-044—For support of Department of Motor Vehicles. I reduce this item from $3,044,000 to $2,701,000 by reducing:

- (a) 11-Vehicle/Vessel Identification and Compliance from $2,148,000 to $1,906,000,
- (b) 22-Driver Licensing and Personal Identification from $1,515,000 to $1,345,000,
- (c) 25-Driver Safety from $559,000 to $496,000,
- (d) 32-Occupational Licensing and Investigative Services from $221,000 to $196,000,
- (e) 41.01-Administration from $507,000 to $450,000,
- (f) 41.02-Distributed Administration from —$507,000 to —$450,000, and
- (g) Amount payable from the Motor Vehicle License Fee Account, Transportation Tax Fund (Item 2740-005-064) from —$1,399,000 to —$1,242,000, and by deleting Provisions 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5.

I am deleting $343,000 in this item and $157,000 in Item 2740-005-064 and the associated budget control language added by the Legislature for the purpose of contracting for a legislative study of the Department of Motor Vehicle's Database Redevelopment Project and overall data processing needs. This language includes provisions that place the decisions for the design and implementation of a new database system for the department in the hands of an outside contractor with the review and consent only of the Legislature. As such, the language would effectively eliminate Executive Branch participation in the decisions regarding the system design, its costs, and its appropriateness to the department's business plan.

I am deleting this language because it improperly limits and interferes with the authority of the Executive Branch to manage the department and constitutes an infringement on the separation of powers.

An evaluation of the Department of Motor Vehicle's total data processing needs, including an evaluation of the Database Redevelopment Project, should be performed before the state proceeds any further with this project. For that reason, I have requested the Director of the Department of Motor Vehicles to immediately contract with an outside consultant, through the competitive bid process, to perform this evaluation.

Item 2740-005-064—For support of Department of Motor Vehicles. I reduce this item from $1,399,000 to $1,242,000.

I reduce this item by $157,000 to conform to the action I have taken in Item 2740-005-042.

Item 2780-001-683—For support of Stephen P. Teale Data Center. I revise this item by deleting Provision 4.

I am deleting Provision 4, which authorizes the Department of Finance to augment this item by up to $13,300,000 if the Teale Data Center renegotiates its contract with the Department of Motor Vehicles for network services. This action is being taken as a technical adjustment to reflect intended legislative action and the fact this amount was restored to the Teale Data Center budget.

Item 2920-011-001—For support of Trade and Commerce Agency. I revise this item by deleting Provision 1.

I am deleting Provision 1, which would specify that $76,000 transferred to the Small Business Expansion Fund be used to continue funding the San Bernardino Regional Development Corporation, which was established and provided with $76,000 from the General Fund to fund support costs pursuant to Chapter 1273, Statutes of 1993 (AB 579).

This language would provide support funding for a Regional Development Corporation in San Bernardino. Support costs for the Small Business Development Corporations are normally funded from interest that accrues on the individual trust funds used to guarantee loans to businesses. There are insufficient funds available from this source to sustain another office on an ongoing basis, and any redirection of these funds would have the effect of reducing the number of loans that could be guaranteed in the future.

Item 2920-101-001—For local assistance, Trade and Commerce Agency. I reduce this item from $9,947,000 to $7,947,000 by deleting:

(e) For the Northern California Supercomputer Center ($2,000,000), and by deleting Provision 7.

I am reducing this item by $2,000,000 to delete the augmentation to provide funding for a Northern California Supercomputer Center. This redirection of Strategic Technology Program funds prevents their use as a match for federal funds allocated to the state for defense conversion projects, potentially resulting in a loss of federal funds. The need for a second Supercomputer center has not been demonstrated.

I am deleting Provision 7, which would specify that $100,000 of Strategic Technology Program funds be used for a planning grant for a Bay Area Regional Technology Conversion Coordinating Center. This action is premature. The Bay Area Regional Technology Conversion Coordinating Center has not yet been established. Once established, this center could compete for available funds through the normal application process. Additionally, this would reduce the Administration's flexibility to administer the Strategic Technology Program and would reduce funding available for other high-priority projects.

Item 3540-001-001—For support of Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (CDF). I revise this item by reducing:

(a) 100000-Personal services from $268,944,833 to $268,844,833, and

(e) Amount payable from the California Environmental License Plate Fund (Item 3540-001-140) from -$4,296,000 to -$4,196,000, and by deleting Provision 5.

This language redirects $1,283,000 saved by a CDF reorganization and intended to be used for critical seasonal fire fighter training, helitask staffing and fire prevention, in order to permanently hire additional seasonal fire fighters. Each year, CDF analyzes conditions regarding the severity of the upcoming fire season. If conditions warrant, one-time-only augmentations of varying amounts are made to CDF's budget. For 1994-95, as in seven of the last eight years, CDF's budget is augmented. The 1994-95 augmentation of $5,008,000 is being made in anticipation of a severe fire season. This will provide approximately 500 additional seasonal fire fighters during the peak 1994 Fire Season.

Consequently, the legislative language provides for duplicate funding, permanently adds additional seasonal fire fighters instead of those staff deemed more critical to fire protection by CDF management, and prevents CDF from implementing its reorganization and most effectively managing its resources. Therefore, I am vetoing this language which infringes upon the Administration's ability to manage fire protection programs in a manner which is in the best interest of the public's safety.

I am revising this item to conform to the actions taken in Item 3540-001-140.

Item 3540-001-140—For support of California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection. I reduce this item from $4,296,000 to $4,196,000.

I am deleting the $100,000 legislative augmentation and one position from the California Environmental License Plate Fund for the Ben Lomond Nursery. The department is preparing to close this state nursery because it is neither cost effective, nor self-supporting, as required by law. Further, other state nurseries have the ability to produce the same coastal forest species as the Ben Lomond Nursery would have produced.

Item 3600-001-200—For support of Department of Fish and Game. I revise this item by deleting Provisions 4, 5, 7 and 8.

I am deleting Provision 4, which requires that funds appropriated in this item be redirected if necessary to operate the Mad River Hatchery at full capacity. The Department of Fish and Game intends to continue to operate the hatchery but at a level which is lower than full capacity. This will provide sufficient returning steelhead to continue an acceptable quality fishery in the Mad River. This provision interferes with the Administration's ability to manage its programs, and restricts my authority to administer a budget which reflects my spending priorities within available resources.

I am deleting Provision 5, which requires that of the funds appropriated by this item, $240,000 for the operation of the "Broadbill" Patrol Boat, should be redirected to other marine enforcement activities on the North Coast. This provision interferes with the ability of the department to manage its programs.

I am deleting Provision 7, which restricts expenditures for legal services to the amount scheduled in the Legal Services Program. This provision constitutes an infringement on the separation of powers provision concerning Executive Branch authority and interferes with the ability of the department to manage its programs.

I am deleting Provision 8, which requires that of the appropriation to the Department of Fish and Game for external consultant and professional services, $45,000 shall be for the development of a strategic plan. This provision interferes with the ability of the department to manage its programs.

Item 3640-301-262—For capital outlay, Wildlife Conservation Board. I revise this item by deleting Provisions 14 and 15.

I am deleting Provision 14, which requires that $1,600,000 of the funds appropriated in this item be used for the acquisition of wetlands and adjacent uplands in the Grasslands area of Merced County, and Provision 15, which requires that $800,000 of the funds appropriated in this item be used for acquisition of the Tonner and Sandstone Canyons, riparian and wetlands habitat in Napa and Sonoma Counties, and for marsh restoration in Lomita Park. These projects have not been reviewed or evaluated in the context of competing demands for these funds.

Item 3680-301-516—For capital outlay, Department of Boating and Waterways. I reduce this item from $5,087,000 to $2,828,000.

I am reducing this item by $2,259,000, to conform with Legislative intent to provide an overall local assistance and capital outlay program of $22,459,000 and a transfer of $18,260,000 from the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund to the General Fund at the end of the 1994-95 fiscal year.

Item 3680-401—For local assistance, Department of Boating and Waterways. I delete this item.

I am deleting this item, which would waive the existing requirements of the loan agreements between the Department of Boating & Waterways and Sonoma County relating to loans totaling $6,000,000 from the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund for the development of Spud Point Marina. These agreements have been the subject of ongoing, good-faith negotiations between the County and the Department. This legislative proposal would abandon this process and dictate the terms of the agreement, potentially costing the State an estimated $440,000 per year in foregone loan repayments. Approving this item would not only be fiscally irresponsible, but more importantly would establish bad precedent regarding other public marina loans.

Item 3760-001-140—For support of the State Coastal Conservancy. I delete this item.

I am deleting the $65,000 legislative augmentation for a public health study of Lake Earl in Del Norte County. This project has not been reviewed or evaluated in the context of competing needs for Environmental License Plate Funds. In addition, the fund has only a small reserve, and further appropriations would reduce the balance below the level which is prudent.

Item 3760-001-235—For support of the State Coastal Conservancy. I delete this item.

I am deleting the $50,000 legislative augmentation for a study for the restoration, environmental enhancement, and public access alternatives along the Napa River. This project has not been reviewed or evaluated in the context of competing needs for Public Resources Account funds.

Item 3790-101-140—For Local Assistance, Department of Parks and Recreation. I delete this item.

I am deleting the $35,000 legislative augmentation for a local assistance grant to the City of Riverbank. It is necessary to delete this item to ensure the financing of other high-priority appropriations from the Environmental License Plate Fund, while still maintaining a prudent reserve in the fund. In addition, projects should be submitted for consideration during the normal budget development process, so they may be reviewed and evaluated in the context of competing needs for available fund sources.

Item 3790-101-235—For local assistance, Department of Parks and Recreation. I delete this item.

I am deleting the $603,000 legislative augmentation for several local assistance grants. It is necessary to delete this item to ensure the financing of other high-priority appropriations from the Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund while still maintaining a prudent reserve in the fund. In addition, these projects should be submitted for consideration during the normal budget development process, so they may be reviewed and evaluated in the context of competing needs for available fund sources.

Item 3790-101-262—For local assistance, Department of Parks and Recreation. I revise this item by deleting Provisions 3 and 4.

Schedule (1) provides $2,000,000 for local grants payable from the Habitat Conservation Fund. Provision 3 specifies that $286,000 shall be granted to the County of Monterey to acquire property adjacent to Pfeiffer-Big Sur State Historic Park. This acquisition would be the sole property of Monterey County. Provision 4 specifies that $150,000 shall be spent for the acquisition of properties at Mt. Baldy, adjacent to the County of Marin, Municipal Water District. I am deleting both provisions, as these projects should be submitted for consideration during the normal budget development process so they may be reviewed and evaluated in the context of competing needs for available fund sources.

Item 3790-101-721—For local assistance, Department of Parks and Recreation. I delete this item.

I am deleting the $422,000 legislative augmentation for several local assistance grants. These projects should be submitted for consideration during the normal budget development process, so they may be reviewed and evaluated in the context of competing needs for available fund sources.

Item 3790-101-722—For local assistance, Department of Parks and Recreation. I delete this item.

I am deleting the $21,000 legislative augmentation for a local assistance grant to the City of Riverbank. This project should be submitted for consideration during the normal budget development process, so it may be reviewed and evaluated in the context of competing needs for available fund sources.

Item 3790-101-733—For local assistance, Department of Parks and Recreation. I reduce this item from $986,000 to $985,000.

I am deleting the $1,000 legislative augmentation for a local assistance grant to the City of Riverbank. This project should be submitted for consideration during the normal budget development process, so it may be reviewed and evaluated in the context of competing needs for available fund sources.

Item 3790-301-140—For Capital Outlay, Department of Parks and Recreation. I reduce this item from $346,000 to $246,000 by deleting:

(3) 90.JH.400-Anderson Marsh SHP: Acquisition ($100,000).

I am deleting the $100,000 legislative augmentation for the acquisition of additional property for Anderson Marsh State Historic Park. This deletion is necessary to ensure the financing of other high-priority appropriations from the Environmental License Plate Fund, while still maintaining a prudent reserve in the fund. In addition, projects should be submitted for consideration during the normal budget development process, so they may be reviewed and evaluated in the context of competing needs for available fund sources.

Item 3790-301-235—For capital outlay, Department of Parks and Recreation. I delete this item.

I am deleting the $295,000 legislative augmentation for this project. This deletion is necessary to ensure the financing of other high-priority appropriations from the Public Resources Account, Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund, while still maintaining a prudent reserve in the fund. In addition, this project should be submitted for consideration during the normal budget development process, so it may be reviewed and evaluated in the context of competing needs for available fund sources.

Item 3790-301-262—For capital outlay, Department of Parks and Recreation. I delete Provision 4.

Schedule (a) provides $1,000,000 from the Habitat Conservation Fund. Provision 4 specifies that $100,000 shall spent for acquisition of properties adjacent to and to be added to Anderson Marsh State Historic Park. I am deleting Provision 4. This project should be submitted for consideration during the normal budget development process, so it may be reviewed and evaluated in the context of competing needs for available fund sources.

Item 3790-301-786—For capital outlay, Department of Parks and Recreation. I reduce this item from $6,402,000 to $6,354,000 by deleting:

(15) 90.AN.610-Empire Mine SHP: Mine Shaft Adit—Working Drawings ($96,000), and

(16) Reimbursements (—$48,000).

This project should be submitted for consideration during the normal budget development process, so it may be reviewed and evaluated in the context of competing needs for available fund sources.

Item 3790-492—For reappropriation, Department of Parks and Recreation. I delete this item.

I am deleting this legislative augmentation, which reappropriates $10,000 from Item 3790-101-722(a) (42), Budget Act of 1986, County of Sierra, RV Disposal Station, to be used for the development of a community park in Downieville. This project should be submitted for consideration during the normal budget development process, so it may be reviewed and evaluated in the context of competing needs for available fund sources.

Item 3810-301-262—For capital outlay and grants, Santa Monica Mountains Conservancy. I am revising this item by deleting Provisions 1, 2, 3 and 4.

I am deleting Provision 1, which dedicates $3,700,000 in grants for two projects: $1,700,000 for a University of California Natural Reserve System project and $2,000,000 for a Whittier/Puente Hills Conservation Authority project, and specifies that if any reduction is made to the former project, an identical reduction must be made to the latter project.

I am deleting Provision 3, which specifies that $1,700,000 be used by the Conservancy for the acquisition and minor improvements of a site suitable for conservation and research on valley-blue oak savanna and coastal sage habitat by the University of California Natural Reserve System.

I am deleting Provision 4, which specifies that $2,000,000 be granted by the conservancy to the Whittier/Puente Hills Conservation Authority for acquisition of oak savanna and riparian habitat near the Chino Hills State Park.

The Conservancy was established to acquire open space in the Santa Monica Mountains for conservation and public access purposes. The limitation in Provision 1 is an infringement upon my constitutional authority as a violation of the separation of powers. Provisions 1, 3, and 4 collectively constitute a change in existing law by requiring purchases of land outside of the Santa Monica Mountains Zone as defined by Public Resources Code Section 33105. Furthermore, these provisions would unduly restrict the Conservancy's ability to administer its land acquisition program in a manner which reflects its spending priorities within available resources, and its ability to manage those resources effectively because these provisions would require the purchase of specifically identified properties.

I am deleting Provision 2, which requires the Director of the Conservancy to transfer the Stunt Ranch property to the Regents of the University of California. In addition, this provision requires the Executive Director to offer the Red Rock Canyon property to the Regents for use by the University of California Natural Reserve System for conservation, scientific, and educational purposes in exchange for a mutually agreed upon portion of the Stunt Ranch to include the Kay Spensely Nature Center.

This provision constitutes a change in existing law through the Budget Bill. Public Resources Code Section 33205.5 gives specific direction for the Conservancy's acquisition and disposition of the Stunt Ranch property. This provision would constitute a substantive change to this statute by revising its specific intent and direction. Any changes to this statute should be pursued through the normal legislative process.

Item 3930-001-001—For support of Department of Pesticide Regulation. I revise this item by reducing:

- (b) 17-Enforcement, Environmental Monitoring and Data Management from $23,549,000 to $23,249,000, and
- (g) Amount payable from the Environmental License Plate Fund (Item 3930-001-140) from —$839,000 to —$539,000.

I am revising this item to conform to the action taken on Item 3930-001-140.

Item 3930-001-140—For support of Department of Pesticide Regulation. I reduce this item from $839,000 to $539,000.

I am deleting the $300,000 legislative augmentation for a sustainable agricultural research contract with the University of California. I question the appropriateness of using the Environmental License Plate Fund for the contract, as this augmentation would reduce the Fund's small reserve to less than a prudent level.

Item 3960-001-014—For support of Department of Toxic Substances Control. I delete Provisions 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8.

Provisions 4, 5, 6, and 7 earmark funds for the conversion of interim status hazardous waste treatment or disposal facilities to permitted facilities, and specify completion and reporting dates for permit determinations. These provisions would put the department in a position of having to redirect funds from other high-priority workload to interim status workload, which would reduce the department's ability to manage resources effectively.

I am also deleting Provision 8, which restricts the use of State funds appropriated to the Hazardous Waste Management Program unless the department establishes a CEQA function. The department has established a CEQA unit in the legal office; therefore, the purpose of the CEQA language has already been accomplished.

Item 4260-001-001—For support of the Department of Health Services. I reduce this item from $155,545,000 to $155,393,000 by reducing:

- (1) 10-Public and Environmental Health from $169,107,000 to $168,955,000.

I am deleting the $152,000 legislative augmentation intended to reinstate a dental consultant position. This position was reduced under the Department of Health Services' 1993-94 General Fund reduction plan, and the services provided by the consultant have been absorbed within remaining resources. Therefore, additional General Fund resources are not necessary.

Item 4260-101-001—For local assistance, Department of Health Services. I reduce this item from $5,959,747,000 to $5,959,201,000 by reducing:

- (a) 20.10.030-Benefits (Medical Care and Services) from $14,155,521,000 to $14,153,589,000, and
- (f) Amount payable from the Federal Trust Fund (Item 4260-101-890) —$9,390,896,000 to —$9,389,510,000, and by deleting Provision 16.

I am deleting the $105,000 legislative augmentation to increase the Medi-Cal reimbursement rate for Norplant insertions and taking a corresponding action in Item 4260-101-890. I believe that this augmentation is unnecessary. Use of Norplant by Medi-Cal beneficiaries is a matter of choice, and there is no evidence that the current reimbursement rate is a barrier to its use.

I am deleting the $441,000 legislative augmentation for health benefits for Department of Developmental Services contracted janitorial employees. This action conforms to my actions in Item 4260-101-890 and Item 4300-003-001.

I am deleting Provision 16, which would require the California Medical Assistance Commission (CMAC) to monitor the Geographic Managed Care (GMC) program for adequacy of quality of care and access to providers, and to report its conclusions. It further would require the Department of Health Services to permit "free choice of provider" to beneficiaries enrolled in the GMC program if CMAC found quality and access were not adequate.

I am taking this action because this language is unnecessary. The California Medical Assistance Commission and the Department of Health Services have been and will continue to be collaborators and partners in the implementation of the Geographic Managed Care Project in Sacramento County.

DHS and CMAC share GMC's goal of improved quality of care and access. Assessment of quality of care and access are two of the most important aspects of DHS's oversight responsibilities. DHS will continue to have full authority to take action to resolve any contractor deficiencies in these and other areas, including contract cancellation if warranted. It is also important to note that Medi-Cal enrollees are not prohibited from changing health plans if they so desire.

Item 4260-101-890—For local assistance, Department of Health Services. I reduce this item from $9,390,896,000 to $9,389,510,000.

I am reducing this item by $1,386,000 to conform to the action I have taken in Item 4260-101-001.

Item 4260-111-001—For local assistance, Department of Health Services. I revise this item by reducing:

- (g) 20.40-Primary Care and Family Health from $789,841,000 to $789,791,000, and
- (m) Amount payable from the Federal Trust Fund (Item 426-111-890) from —$526,988,000 to —$526,938,000.

I am deleting the $50,000 legislative augmentation of federal Maternal and Child Health (MCH) funds to establish a new Pediatric Resident Training Project in Mendocino County. While there is a need for more primary care providers, the University of California has primary responsibility for physician training and residency programs and funding for this purpose should be considered through the University. Also, the accompanying language is for a specific county and it is inappropriate to set aside funds for this purpose without assessing the pediatric residency needs of other rural communities.

I am deleting Provision 2 in Item 4260-111-890 to conform to this action.

Item 4260-111-890—For local assistance, Department of Health Services. I reduce this item from $526,988,000 to $526,938,000 and delete Provision 2.

I am reducing this item by $50,000 and deleting Provision 2 to conform to action taken in Item 4260-111-001.

Item 4300-003-001—For support of Department of Developmental Services, for Developmental Centers. I reduce this item from $17,245,000 to $17,177,000 by reducing:

- (a) 20-Developmental Centers Program from $563,162,000 to $562,212,000, and
- (b) Reimbursements from -$544,349,000 to -$543,467,000.

I am deleting the $950,000 legislative augmentation ($68,000 General Fund and $882,000 reimbursements) which was intended to fund health benefits for janitorial staff at the Developmental Centers. The Developmental Centers have contracted for janitorial staff since January 1987. The contracts for these services have been awarded in accordance with existing State contract guidelines and policies which place responsibility for the provision of health benefits with the contractor. In view of these facts, and the ongoing fiscal crisis facing the State, I cannot approve this augmentation.

I also have taken conforming action in Items 4260-101-001 and 4260-101-890.

Item 5160-101-001—For local assistance, Department of Rehabilitation. I delete Provision 4.

I am deleting Provision 4, which would require the Department to use funds appropriated in this item to explore options to provide relief to work activity program providers from the rate reductions imposed by the Budget Act of 1992. I am aware of the financial pressures which providers in many programs are facing. Under such circumstances, I expect both state departments and the providers to investigate all possible options for achieving program efficiencies. In light of this, specific language requiring the Department of Rehabilitation to spend local assistance funds for this purpose is unnecessary.

Item 5180-001-001—For support of the Department of Social Services (DSS). I delete Provision 6.

I am deleting Provision 6 because it requires the department to obtain legislative approval to implement the Greater Avenues for Independence (GAIN) performance demonstration project.

This provision conflicts with existing law, which authorizes the department to conduct and administer experimental projects and to waive the enforcement of specific statutory requirements, regulations, and standards in one or more counties, or statewide in order to test methods and procedures of administering assistance and services to recipients and applicants for public social services.

Adding this provision represents an infringement of the department's existing statutory authority, and would limit the authority necessary to test a more efficient program model.

I am deleting Provision 10 of Item 5180-151-001 to conform to this action.

Item 5180-002-001—For support of the Department of Social Services (DSS). I delete Provision 3.

I am deleting Provision 3, which would prohibit the Department of Social Services from creating a specialized unit within the Administrative Adjudications Division to conduct hearings on intentional program violations. This prohibition interferes with the Administration's ability to manage its programs, and would delay implementation of this program resulting in lost savings to the General Fund.

A specialized unit would have the expertise to conduct hearings on intentional program violations expeditiously and with the expertise that will assure fairness to both taxpayers and recipients, thereby minimizing the cost of unnecessary appeals. Precluding an organization based on specialization would require all personnel in the Administrative Adjudications Division to be trained at additional cost, as well as requiring more time to complete the training. This would delay the implementation of sanctions for intentional program violations, thereby reducing the savings to the General Fund.

Item 5180-151-001—For local assistance, Department of Social Services. I delete Provision 10.

I am deleting Provision 10 to conform to my action in Item 5180-001-001.

Item 5430-001-001—For support of Board of Corrections. I reduce this item from $784,000 to $409,000 by reducing:

(a) 11-Corrections Standards and Services from $2,416,000 to $2,041,000.

The Legislature augmented this item to provide funding for the Board of Corrections to (1) develop a system for data collection and information exchange and for the dissemination of statewide data on probation workloads, programs, and outcomes, and (2) inspect local juvenile detention facilities and review, assess, and adopt standards for local juvenile detention facilities.

While the proposed probation data system may have merit, the system's success and effectiveness would be dependent upon the level of county participation and resources available for the development of innovative programs identified by the system. With respect to the inspections of the local juvenile detention facilities, we have not received any information which indicates that the existing self-certification is not working or causing the counties to lose any federal funds.

I am reducing this item by $375,000 due to limited State resources in the General Fund.

Item 5460-001-001—For support of the Department of Youth Authority. I am revising this item by deleting Provisions 2 and 3.

In order to correct a technical error in the Budget Bill, I am deleting Provisions 2 and 3, which would specify how savings attributable to the transfer of "M" cases to the Department of Corrections are to be expended, and specify that funding appropriated to any department for delinquency prevention and intervention programs shall be expended through a memorandum of understanding with the Department of Youth Authority, respectively. These provisions were inadvertently left in the final version of the Budget Bill. A transfer of "M" cases from the Youth Authority was considered by the Legislature and rejected. Therefore, Provision 2 is not needed. Provision 3 was also considered by the Legislature and rejected. This technical veto will conform the Budget Act to the action taken by the Legislature.

Item 5460-101-890—For local assistance, Department of the Youth Authority. I am deleting this item to make a technical correction to the Budget Bill. This technical veto will conform with the Legislature's intent, and is consistent with the legislative action taken in Item 5460-101-001, which removed federal funds payable to that item as part of the restoration of the funding for the Office of Criminal Justice Planning.

Item 6110-001-001—For support of Department of Education. I reduce this item from $28,895,000 to $26,695,000 by reducing:

(b) 20-Instructional Support from $34,466,366 to $32,266,366, and by revising Provisions 1 and 13.

I am revising Provision 1 to delete the specification that no funds shall be made available to the State Board of Education if any Department of Education positions are transferred to the Board, other than those positions that were assigned to the Board in 1992-93. This language could prevent such position transfers which may be mutually desired by the Board and the Department and, in addition, could inappropriately prevent the Board from performing its constitutionally mandated activities.

"1. Of the funds appropriated in this item, an amount of not less than $94,000 shall be available only for reimbursement of in-state travel expenses of the State Board of Education. ~~No positions assigned to the State Department of Education; other than those positions that were assigned to the State Board of Education for the 1992-93 fiscal year, shall be administratively transferred, redirected, or otherwise assigned to the State Board of Education.~~"

In addition, I am reducing support for the pupil testing program by $2,200,000 and 14.5 personnel years with the intention that these funds be set aside for legislation. While I am supportive of a statewide testing program, it is imperative that the current program be reformed through legislation before any further commitment of the State's limited resources.

I am revising Provision 13 to conform to this action:

"13. Of the funds appropriated in this item ~~$2,193,000~~ $993,000 is for the purposes of a pupil testing program."

Item 6110-113-001—For local assistance, Department of Education (Proposition 98), Program 20.70—for purposes of a pupil testing program. I reduce this item from $30,504,000 to $6,304,000.

I am reducing this item by $24,200,000 with the intention that these funds be set aside for legislation. The funds remaining in the item are for testing programs other than the California Learning Assessments System (CLAS), renamed in the Budget Bill to California Comprehensive Testing Program (CCTP). While I am supportive of a statewide testing program, I intend to work with the Legislature during the balance of the legislative session to develop the appropriate reforms. It is imperative that the current program be reformed.

I am revising Provision 2 to conform to this reduction.

"2. The superintendent of Public Instruction shall allocate the 1994-95 budget increase of ~~$8,000,000~~ $2,142,000 to augment pupil testing programs in accordance with the allocation plan shown below. To revise any allocations, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall first receive the approval of the Department of Finance. Approval of the Department of Finance may not be effective sooner than 30 days after notification to the Chair of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee.

- a. $1,142,000 for the Golden State Examination Program pursuant to Section 60701.
- b. $500,000 for development of end-of-course examinations in vocational education pursuant to Sections 60602.5 (a) (4) and 60604.8.
- c. $500,000 for review and approval of other pupil tests pursuant to Section 60602.5 (d).
- d. ~~$5,458,000 for expansion in the 1994-95 fiscal year of the statewide California Comprehensive Testing Program (CCTP); pursuant to the 1994-95 expenditure plan in the document "CCTP—Long-term Implementation," to include valid, reliable individual pupil scores in reading, writing, and mathematics in grades 4 and 8; valid reliable school-level scores in history/social sciences and science in grade 5; and in reading, writing, and mathematics in grade 10; and field testing in history/social sciences and science in grades 8 and 10.~~
- e. ~~$400,000 for continued development of CCTP Spanish language exams.~~

Item 6110-123-001—For local assistance, Department of Education (Proposition 98). I delete this item and Provision 1.

I am deleting the legislative augmentation for the Focus Schools Program of $500,000, which would have provided local assistance grants to schools having been identified as "low performing". While I am supportive of this program, it is my understanding that the criteria for identifying low-performing schools has not yet been perfected. This augmentation, therefore, is premature.

It is my understanding that the Department of Education would still be able to continue piloting procedures through the federal Chapter I Program Improvement Initiative, which provides intensive coaching and support to over 40 low-performing Chapter 1 schools.

I am deleting Provision 1 to conform to this action.

Item 6110-196-890—For local assistance, Department of Education. I delete Provision 4.

Provision 4 of this item would require that a particular child care center be awarded a specified amount of funds by the Department of Education. This provision constitutes an item of appropriation which I cannot support. State law and regulations and the State Plan for Administration of the Federal Child Care and Development Block Grant create a process for child care agencies to apply for and receive contracts from the Department of Education to provide child care services to low-income families. Circumventing this process by appropriating funds for a specific child care provider is not consistent with current law.

Item 6110-230-001—For local assistance, Department of Education (Proposition 98). I delete Provision 17.

Provision 17 would require the Department of Education to renew the contract of a particular child care agency, the Foundation Center for Phenomenological Research, for the provision of child care services during the 1994-95 fiscal year.

Current state law authorizes the Department of Education to grant or renew contracts and Title V of the California Code of Regulations specifies procedures for the department to decline renewal of a contract. This provision would circumvent current law and regulations by requiring funding for a particular child care provider.

The circumstances surrounding the non-renewal of this contract are currently being disputed in court, which is the remedy provided in the Constitution for disagreements regarding the administration of laws. Therefore, the courts should decide this matter based on an objective analysis of the facts and the law.

Until such time as the court resolves this issue, the Department of Education has the authority and obligation to administer the Child Care and Development program in a manner which insures the fiscal integrity of that program. The language contained in Provision 17 could preclude the department from achieving this purpose, and may result in additional costs to the State.

For all the above reasons, I am deleting Provision 17.

Item 6110-490—Reappropriation, Department of Education. I delete Provision 2.

I am deleting this provision, which would reappropriate funds for the California Learning Assessments System (CLAS), renamed in the Budget Bill to California Comprehensive Testing Program (CTP), with the intention that these funds be set aside for legislation. While I am supportive of a statewide testing system, it is imperative that the current program be reformed. I intend to work with the Legislature during the remainder of the session to develop the appropriate reforms.

Item 6420-001-001—For support of the California Postsecondary Education Commission. I reduce this item from $3,512,000 to $2,412,000 by reducing:

(a) 100000-Personal Services from $2,609,000 to $2,362,000, and

(b) 300000-Operating Expenses and Equipment from $1,648,000 to $795,000, and by deleting Provision 1.

I am deleting the $1,100,000 legislative augmentation and 4.6 personnel years for a Comprehensive Student Information System. The benefits of this system have not been demonstrated to justify its cost, and unresolved technical matters make its success problematic. This project is not of sufficiently high priority to justify the use of limited state resources.

I am deleting Provision 1, which would make this augmentation contingent upon enactment of Assembly Bill 3696, to conform to this action.

Item 6440-001-001—For support of the University of California. I delete Provision 9.

I am deleting Provision 9, which would allow the upward adjustment of budgeted amounts if actual enrollments exceed the targeted enrollment level by more than 2 percent, and would require the downward adjustment of budgeted amounts if actual enrollments fall short of the targeted enrollment level by more than 2 percent. Any adjustment to the funding level for the University of California should be addressed through additional legislative action when compared to other essential financial needs.

Item 6600-001-001—For support of Hastings College of the Law. I reduce this item from $11,854,000 to $11,804,000 and delete Provision 3.

I am deleting the $50,000 legislative augmentation for the Public Interest Career Assistance Program. Given the current fiscal situation, I am unable to support this augmentation.

I am deleting Provision 3 to conform to this action.

Item 6610-001-001—For support of the California State University. I reduce this item from $1,508,902,000 to $1,508,652,000 by reducing:

(a) Support from $2,139,222,000 to $2,138,972,000, and by deleting Provision 10.

I am deleting the $250,000 legislative augmentation and 3.0 personnel years for the Edward R. Roybal Institute for Applied Gerontology. This project is not of sufficiently high priority to justify the use of limited State resources.

I am deleting Provision 10, which would allow the upward adjustment of budgeted amounts if actual enrollments exceed the targeted enrollment level by more than 2 percent, and would require the downward adjustment of budgeted amounts if actual enrollments fall short of the targeted enrollment level by more than 2 percent. Any adjustment to the funding level for the California State University should be addressed through additional legislative action when compared to other essential financial needs.

Item 6870-001-001—For support of Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges. I reduce this item from $8,252,000 to $8,251,000 by reducing:

(b) 20-Special Services and Operations from $11,289,000 to $11,288,000, and by deleting Provision 2.

I am reducing this item by $1,000 and deleting Provision 2, which authorizes the redirection of up to $125,000 from the Board of Governors of California Community Colleges' support budget to fund planning for participation by the State under the Federal Reemployment Act, including planning for the development of one-stop career centers. While one-stop career centers may ultimately have merit in the context of the state's workforce training and employment service programs, it would be premature to budget funds for this new program because neither State nor Federal legislation has yet been enacted and, in its current form, the Federal legislation contains provisions detrimental to the State of California.

I am reducing $1,000 from this item to reflect savings that will be achieved based on deletion of Provision 2.

Item 6870-002-001—For support of Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges. I delete Provision 1.

I am deleting this provision because it restricts the Executive Branch's ability to administer and oversee a multitude of programs within available resources, and potentially restricts expenditures toward those purposes on the basis of subjective determinations by a third party. While I am also concerned with adequate oversight of categorical program expenditures, I am concerned that the Chancellor should retain flexibility to determine how to best manage programs and conduct oversight activities in the most cost-effective manner.

Item 6870-101-001—For local assistance, Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges (Proposition 98). I am reducing this item from $1,085,300,000 to $1,085,299,000 by reducing:

(b) 10.10.020-Basic Skills, GAIN, Apprenticeship from $33,999,000 to $33,998,000, and by deleting Provision 18.

I am reducing this item by $1,000 and deleting Provision 18, which authorizes the redirection of up to $125,000 from the Board of Governors of California Community Colleges' local assistance budget to fund planning for participation by the State under the Federal Reemployment Act, including planning for the development of one-stop career centers. While one-stop career centers may ultimately have merit in context of the state's workforce training and employment service programs, it would be premature to budget funds for this new program because neither State nor Federal legislation has yet been enacted and, in its current form, the Federal legislation contains provisions detrimental to the State of California.

I am reducing $1,000 from this item to reflect savings that will be achieved based on deletion of Provision 18.

I am revising Provision 2.5 to conform to this action.

"2.5 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, ~~$22,000,000~~ $21,999,000 of the funds appropriated in Schedule (b) shall be for allocation to community college districts in the 1994-95 fiscal year for the purposes of funding FTES in courses in basic skills, including English-as-a-second-language courses and workforce preparation courses for newly legalized immigrants, to the extent the total FTES claimed by a district for the 1994-95 fiscal year exceeds the level of total FTES funded for that district in the 1994-95 fiscal year. The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall develop criteria for allocating these funds."

Item 6870-301-660—For capital outlay, Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges. I reduce this item from $14,921,000 to $14,324,000 by reducing:
Los Angeles Community College District
East Los Angeles College

(3) 40.26.101-Vocational Building—Equipment from $910,000 to $313,000.

I am reducing this legislative augmentation of $597,000 because it represents funding for equipment above established cost standards. The state policy is to fund equipment only up to the established standards.

Item 6870-301-842—For capital outlay, Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges. I reduce this item from $186,878,000 to $180,322,000 by reducing:

Chabot-Las Positas Community College District

Chabot College

(10) 40.62.104-Humanities Building Remodel—Equipment from $2,351,000 to $351,000,

(11) 40.62.107-Engineering Remodel/Addition—Equipment from $1,904,000 to $331,000,

(13) 40.62.110-Music Skills Center—Equipment from $318,000 to $163,000,

Las Positas College

(16) 40.62.205-Science Center, Phase I—Equipment from $1,632,000 to $938,000,

El Camino Community College District

El Camino College

(22) 40.14.106-Library Renovation, Phase II—Preliminary plans, working drawings, and construction from $2,528,000 to $1,978,000, and

Sierra Joint Community College District

Sierra College

(89) 40.58.103-Home Economics Remodel/Addition—Equipment from $128,000 to $50,000, and by deleting:

Palomar Community College District

Palomar College

(57.1) 40.38.108-Communications Facility Remodel—Equipment ($916,000), and West Valley-Mission Community College District

Mission College

(102.1) 40.69.205-Learning Resource Center—Preliminary plans and working drawings ($590,000).

I am deleting these nine legislative augmentations in the amount of $6,556,000 because they circumvent the established procedures for prioritizing the California Community College's capital outlay projects and the standard level of funding for projects.

In order to develop and maintain a rational approach to a capital outlay program, all projects should be considered in relationship to competing needs for available resources. The circumvention of the established prioritization process undermines this approach. In addition, it is the state's policy to fund equipment only up to the established standards. It is also the state's policy, as stated in my message in the 1993 Budget Act, that costs for replacement equipment are a support cost rather than a capital outlay cost. Further, the state's policy continues to be that funding for replacement equipment for space remodeled for the same program should be provided by the support budgets of the institution, rather than through the capital outlay budget.

Item 7980-001-001—For support of the Student Aid Commission. I reduce this item from $3,343,000 to $3,218,000 by reducing:

(a) 15-Financial Aid Grants Program from $3,404,000 to $3,279,000.

I am deleting the $125,000 legislative augmentation for the Student Expenses and Resources Survey. I believe that the higher education segments, which all benefit from this survey, should agree to contribute the necessary funding.

Item 8300-001-001—For support of Agricultural Labor Relations Board. I reduce this item from $4,301,000 to $4,300,000 by reducing:

(b) 20-General Counsel Administration from $2,609,000 to $2,608,000,

and by deleting Provisions 1, 2 and 3.

I am deleting Provision 1, which would have redirected $879,000 appropriated in this item to address the existing and new workload anticipated in the General Counsel's Administration. This provision would restrict the flexibility of the Board to effectively and most efficiently administer the funding appropriated to the Agricultural Labor Relations Board. This proposal would require the redirection of two existing positions and $179,000 from the Board Administration to the General Counsel Administration, as well as significant restructuring of the General Counsel's resources to establish additional new positions, including a new field office (location unspecified), and a new field office unit that is able to be deployed to existing and new workload on a priority basis. Information has not been provided to substantiate the anticipated workload increase.

With respect to this issue, however, it is my intention to propose pursuant to the provisions of Section 6.50 of the Budget Act of 1994, the reestablishment of the Board Administration's two positions and the $179,000 which were redirected to the General Counsel's Administration.

I am also deleting Provisions 2 and 3 because the language is unnecessary. Provision 2 requires the Agricultural Labor Relations Board to advertise and conduct examinations to establish a qualified pool of candidates to fill its field examiner and field counsel positions, which the Board would do during the normal course of business. Provision 3 prohibits the Agricultural Labor Relations Board from approving regulations which are contrary to statutory policy, as set forth in Section 1140.2 of the Labor Code, with regard to agricultural workers and their rights. The Agricultural Labor Relations Board already complies with existing statutes to approve, amend and rescind rules and regulations in order to carry out the state's policy. Therefore, this language is unnecessary.

I am reducing this item by $1,000 to reflect savings that will be achieved based on vetoing language contained in Provisions 1, 2 and 3 of this item.

Item 8940-001-001—For support of Military Department. I reduce this item from $18,961,000 to $18,609,000 by deleting:

(j) 71-California Innovative Military Projects and Career Training ($352,000), and by deleting Provision 3.

I am deleting the $352,000 General Fund and 2.7 personnel years which was redirected from existing funds by the Legislature to fund the existing Innovative Military Projects and Career Training (IMPACT) Program in Oakland. Federal funds have become available to the California National Guard to operate a number of youth-oriented programs, one of which will be conducted in the Oakland area.

I am deleting Provision 3 to conform to this action.

Item 9800-001-001—For Augmentation for Employee Compensation. I revise this item by making technical revisions to Provision 2.

I am revising Provision 2 to delete erroneous language references, and to clarify that this item provides funds for compensation increases for 14 specified public safety, twenty-four-hour care, and revenue-producing agencies only.

2. The funds appropriated in this item are for compensation increases and increases in benefits related thereto, to be allocated by executive order by the Department of Finance to specified public safety, twenty-four hour care and revenue producing agencies as determined by the Department of Finance, in augmentation of their respective appropriations or allocations for support or for other purposes, in such amounts as will make sufficient money available for each state officer or employee in the state service, whose compensation, or portion thereof, is chargeable to the General Fund, and each officer or employee of either house of the Legislature or joint committee thereof, to receive any such increases provided on or after July 1, 1994, by the Department of Personnel Administration; or any committee of the Legislature responsible for establishing salaries for officers and employees of the Legislature, as the case may be.

SEC. 8.50—Related to the reporting of reduction of federal funds. I delete provisions (b) and (c) of this Control Section.

I am deleting these provisions because it is unreasonable to expect State agencies to increase their reporting requirements when budget reductions severely impact their ability to meet their statutory requirements. Section 28.00 of the Budget Act already requires the reporting of federal fund shortfalls to the Legislature. Further, the Governor's Budget, May Revision, Section 27.00 Letters, and Finance Letters can provide the Legislature with updates on significant changes to federal funding.

SEC. 9.10—Supplemental Report of the Committee on Conference on the Budget Bill. I delete this Control Section.

I am deleting this section because to do otherwise would imply that I concur with the contents of this report. It is unreasonable to expect State agencies to respond to special requests during a year when budget reductions severely impact their ability to perform required statutory duties.

SEC. 11.50—Transfers pursuant to Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code. I am revising Section 11.50 by reducing the amount of Tidelands Oil Revenue to be allocated to the General Fund from $61,154,000 to $58,414,000, as follows:

“(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the sum of up to ~~thirty-nine million dollars ($39,000,000)~~ thirty-seven million five hundred fifty-nine thousand dollars ($37,559,000) shall be allocated to the General Fund for the 1994–95 fiscal year from tidelands oil revenue otherwise subject to Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code.”

“(e) Section 11.50(d), Budget Act of 1993, is amended to read as follows: “(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the sum of ~~twenty-two million one hundred fifty-four thousand dollars ($22,154,000)~~ Twenty million eight hundred fifty-five thousand dollars ($20,855,000) shall be allocated to the General Fund for the 1993–94 fiscal year from tidelands oil revenue otherwise subject to Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code.”

This reduction will provide for a prudent reserve to meet any unanticipated cost increases for capital outlay projects funded from this fund source, and will eliminate the need to provide General Fund monies for this purpose.

SEC. 12.32—Proposition 98 Guarantee. I am revising subsection (b) of Section 12.32 to correspond to the calculated Proposition 98 guarantee level.

(b) Pursuant to the Proposition 98 funding requirements established in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 41200) of Part 24 of the Education Code, the total appropriations for Proposition 98 for the 1994–95 fiscal year are ~~$14,383,369,000~~ fourteen billion three hundred sixty-five million five hundred seven thousand dollars ($14,365,507,000), or ~~35.630~~ 35.587 percent of total General Fund revenues and transfers subject to the state appropriations limit. General Fund revenues set aside for school districts are ~~$13,176,915,000~~ thirteen billion one hundred seventy-seven million five hundred sixty-five thousand dollars ($13,177,565,000), or ~~32.641~~ 32.645 percent of total General Fund revenues and transfers subject to the state appropriations limit. General Fund revenues set aside for California Community Colleges are ~~$1,124,314,000~~ one billion one hundred four million one hundred thirty-two thousand dollars ($1,104,132,000), or ~~2.785~~ 2.735 percent of total General Fund revenues and transfers subject to the state appropriations limit. General Fund revenues set aside for other state agencies which provide direct elementary and secondary level education, as defined in Section 41302.5 of the Education Code, are ~~$82,140,000~~ eighty-three million eight hundred ten thousand dollars ($83,810,000), or ~~0.204~~ .208 percent of total General Fund revenues and transfers subject to the state appropriations limit.

SEC. 31.50—Related to the elimination of General Fund positions vacant from July 1, 1993 to March 15, 1994. I delete this Control Section.

I am deleting this section, as there could be legal consequences if a department made a hiring commitment or filled one of the vacant positions subsequent to March 15, 1994. Further, existing statute already provides for elimination of positions which are continuously vacant for the last nine months of a fiscal year.

With the above deletions, revisions and reductions, I hereby approve Senate Bill 2120.

PETE WILSON, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1.00. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Budget Act of 1994."

SEC. 1.25. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including, but not limited to, Section 13308 of the Government Code or any other provision of Chapter 458 of the Statutes of 1990, no further reductions shall be made to General Fund appropriations on July 1, 1994, pursuant to Chapter 458 of the Statutes of 1990.

SEC. 1.50. (a) In accordance with Section 13338 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 1284, Statutes of 1978 (AB 3322), and as amended by Chapter 1286, Statutes of 1984 (AB 3372), it is the intent of the Legislature that this act utilize a coding scheme compatible with the Governor's Budget and the records of the State Controller, and provide for the appropriation of federal funds received by the state and deposited in the State Treasury.

(b) Essentially, the format and style are as follows:

(1) Appropriation item numbers have a code which is common to all the state's fiscal systems. The meaning of this common coded item number is as follows:

2720—Organization Code (this code represents the California Highway Patrol)

001—Reference Code (first appropriation for a particular fund for support of each department)

044—Fund Code (Motor Vehicle Account, State Transportation Fund)

(2) Appropriation items are organized in organization code order as reflected in the Governor's Budget.

(3) All the appropriation items, reappropriation items, and reversion items, if any, for each department or entity are adjacent to one another.

(4) Federal funds received by the state and deposited in the State Treasury are appropriated in separate items.

(c) The Department of Finance may authorize revisions to the codes used in this act in order to provide compatibility between the codes used in this act and those used in the Governor's Budget and in the records of the State Controller.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, the Department of Finance may revise the schedule of any appropriation made in this act where the revision is of a technical nature and is consistent with legislative intent. These revisions may include, but shall not be limited to, the substitution of category for program or program for category limitations, the proper categorization of allocated administration costs and cost recoveries, the distribution of any unallocated amounts within an appropriation and the adjustment of schedules to facilitate departmental accounting operations including the elimination of categories providing for amounts payable from other items or other appropriations and the distribution of unscheduled amounts to programs or categories. These revisions shall include a certification that the revisions comply with the intent and limitation of expenditures as appropriated by the Legislature.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, when the Department of Finance, pursuant to subdivision (d), approves the schedule or revision of any appropriation relating to the elimination of amounts payable, the language authorizing the transfer shall also be eliminated.

SEC. 2.00. (a) The following sums of money, or so much thereof as may be necessary unless otherwise provided herein, are hereby appropriated for the use and support of the State of California for the 1994-95 fiscal year beginning July 1, 1994, and ending June 30, 1995. All of these appropriations, unless otherwise provided herein, shall be paid out of the General Fund in the State Treasury.

(b) Appropriations and reappropriations for capital outlay, unless otherwise provided herein, shall be available for expenditure during the 1994-95, 1995-96, and 1996-97 fiscal years, except that appropriations and reappropriations for studies, planning, working drawings, or minor capital outlay, except as provided herein, shall be available for expenditure only during the 1994-95 fiscal year. In addition, the balance of every appropriation made in this act which contains funding for construction that has not been allocated, through fund transfer or approval to proceed to bid, by the Department of Finance on or before June 30, 1995, except as provided herein, shall revert as of that date to the fund from which the appropriation was made.

(c) Whenever by constitutional or statutory provision the revenues or receipts of any institution, department, board, bureau, commission, officer, employee, or other agency, or any moneys in any special fund created by law therefor, are to be used for salaries, support or any proper purpose, expenditures shall be made therefrom for any such purposes, to the extent only of the amount therein appropriated, unless otherwise stated herein, or authorized pursuant to Section 11006 of the Government Code.

(d) Appropriations for purposes not otherwise provided for herein which have been heretofore made by any existing constitutional or statutory provision shall continue to be governed thereby.

Provisions:

1. The State Board of Equalization shall contract with a private consultant to provide supplemental project management expertise in support of its ongoing efforts to redesign and relocate its central data processing systems. This consultant shall be experienced in the successful management of large-scale computer-based projects. The board may, at its discretion, contract for any services it deems necessary to oversee the management contract, including the development of contract specifications and verification of contract deliverables.
3. It is the intent of the Legislature that the State Board of Equalization resolve tax controversies without litigation, on a basis that is fair to both the state and the taxpayer and in a manner that will enhance voluntary compliance and public confidence in the integrity and efficiency of the board.
4. It is the intent of the Legislature that the State Board of Equalization, Franchise Tax Board, and Employment Development Department shall develop an Integration Master Plan for integrating tax information systems. This plan shall include, at a minimum, all of the following:
 - (a) An identification of common functions, operations, or processes and vision of what in-

Item

Amount

- tegrated revenue operations should do for the state and for taxpayers.
- (b) A description of how the three revenue agencies can work cooperatively to create an overall revenue system that will increase tax compliance, reduce the reporting burden on taxpayers, and provide greater taxpayer convenience.
 - (c) A strategic plan that addresses how and when current proposed systems should be integrated.
 - (d) Protocols to ensure that telecommunications and data processing systems developed after the plan is adopted contribute to the achievement of the joint vision.
 - (e) Standards, structures, and processes to ensure that the ability to exchange information between systems is a feature of any automated systems developed after the plan is adopted and that data can be shared in a way that helps to implement the plan.
 - (f) Certifications from each department, upon preparing feasibility study reports, that the proposed project is consistent with the master plan.
 - (g) A requirement that the Department of Finance approve each proposal by a tax agency to modify an existing information system or develop a new system as consistent with the strategic plan prior to approval of the feasibility study report for each project.
 - (h) Submittal of the master plan to the Department of Finance for review and approval. The Department of Finance shall transmit the approved master plan to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, the fiscal committees, and the revenue committees of the Legislature for review and comment at least 30 days prior to approval.
5. The Director of the Department of Finance may authorize the augmentation of the amount authorized in this item by up to $3,400,000 if he or she determines that the State Board of Equalization has complied with the Legislature's intent regarding the applicability of the Sales and Use Tax Law, as set forth in Part 1 (commencing

Item	Amount
with Section 6001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to transactions involving the sale of ostriches. Any augmentation authorized pursuant to this provision may not be authorized sooner than 30 days after notification in writing of the necessity therefor to the chairperson of the committee in each house which considers appropriations and the chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or not sooner than whatever lesser time the chairperson of the joint committee, or his or her designee, may determine. The notification required pursuant to this section shall contain a statement as to the basis for the director's determination. Any authorization for augmentation pursuant to this section shall be immediately terminated by the director in the event that the basis for the director's determination of compliance is invalidated by events occurring subsequent to the determination.
6. Of the funds appropriated by this item, the State Board of Equalization shall allocate sufficient resources to initiate a strategic planning effort to consolidate the state's tax administration activities, which shall be jointly conducted by the State Board of Equalization and the Franchise Tax Board. Up to $150,000 may be expended to pay the State Board of Equalization's share of costs for consulting services needed in connection with the strategic planning effort. It is the intent of the Legislature that the jointly conducted strategic planning efforts produce a plan to facilitate orderly consolidation of the state's tax administration activities, including the identification of how critical issues such as the consolidation of computer systems, telecommunications, and office space will be resolved, and the identification of other critical issues that may need to be resolved through legislation. The State Board of Equalization and the Franchise Tax Board shall provide a progress report regarding the strategic planning effort to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the fiscal committees of each house no later than April 1, 1995. This provision shall be operative only upon the enactment of legislation authorizing the

The funds transferred from Items 1111-001-166, 1111-001-325, 1111-001-406, 1111-001-421, 1111-001-752, 1111-001-769, or 1111-001-859 shall be used only for the purposes authorized under current law. In no case shall the total transfers exceed the total appropriation in this item. 3. Of the amount transferred pursuant to Item 1111-001-859, no more than $1,027,000 shall be expended for the design, implementation, and administration of the high-polluting-vehicle repair and replacement program. The remaining balance shall be used to purchase or repair high-polluting vehicles pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 44090) of Chapter 5 of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 28 of the Statutes of 1994. 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs, or his or her designee, in lieu of the Director of Finance, is authorized to carry out the provisions of Section 31.00 of this act as it pertains to the positions funded by this item. 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs, or his or her designee, in lieu of the Director of Finance, is authorized to carry out the provisions of Section 6.50 of this act as it pertains to category transfers related to this item. 6. The Legislature finds and declares the following: (a) The state's fiscal situation remains difficult and state resources continue to be limited. Fiscal relief might be provided in part by encouraging innovation at the Department of Consumer Affairs. The department should also be mission-driven and results-oriented. (b) Performance budgeting, as described in Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 11800) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, can be used to encourage innovation and reward departments that are mission-driven and results-oriented.

7. The following shall apply to the Department of Consumer Affairs and its bureaus:
 - (a) The budgeting system used in prior fiscal years does not appropriately measure results or outcomes.
 - (b) The success of performance budgeting assumes all of the following:
 - (1) The department has developed a strategic plan that can be implemented.
 - (2) Meaningful outcome measures are available, and are the primary focus of management accountability.
 - (3) The department develops productivity benchmarks that accurately measure progress toward strategic goals.
 - (4) Managers have sufficient operational flexibility that the Legislature has determined to be necessary to achieve strategic goals.
 - (5) Legislative approval of policy objectives, performance measures, and desired outcomes.
 - (6) Successful innovation is rewarded.
 - (c) The Legislature, in conjunction with the Department of Consumer Affairs, hereby initiates a pilot project for the 1994-95 fiscal year that holds the department accountable for results rather than process. The pilot shall include the following:
 - (1) The establishment of a single "800" number with multilanguage capability by May 31, 1994. The single "800" number shall accommodate the bureaus' consumer transactions.
 - (2) The development of a five-year educational plan for consumers, licensees, and industry by July 1, 1994. The department shall report the plan to the Legislature no later than July 1, 1994.
 - (3) The streamlining of the administrative/adjudicative process by creating, no later than December 31, 1994, a joint process improvement team with the department's Enforcement Division, the Attorney General, and the Office of Administrative Hearings. The department shall report the protocols for the - new process to the Legislature by January 15, 1995.

- (4) The establishment, no later than June 30, 1995, of a market condition index (a composite measure to determine the real and perceived illegal, incompetent, or unethical activity in a specific market), as described in the department's strategic plan, for each of the five programs under the director's authority.
 - (5) The development of an annual enforcement plan that targets areas and practices within industries for improvement beginning June 30, 1995. The department shall report its enforcement plan to the Legislature no later than February 1, 1995.
 - (6) The establishment, by June 30, 1996, of a one-stop, one-step procedure for licensing application and processing for participating programs.
 - (7) Regulatory reviews of the five programs under the director's authority to determine whether the regulatory activities are appropriate and necessary, and whether they should be eliminated, modified, or continued. This assessment shall be based on the department's evaluation of the public benefit of the regulatory activity, the program's success in attaining those benefits, and the data gathered as part of the market condition index. The department shall report its review of two programs to the Legislature no later than January 1, 1996. The department shall report its reviews of the remaining programs to the Legislature no later than January 1, 1997.
- (d) The performance measures developed by the department for the pilot project shall include those elements necessary to appropriately measure results and outcomes. Those elements shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

Item

Amount

- (1) Strategic outcome measure: Implement a market condition index (MCI) for each of the five participating programs by June 30, 1995.
- (2) Intermediate outcome measures:
 - (A) Conduct customer satisfaction surveys to measure licensing, complaint intake, mediation, and enforcement outcomes. The surveys shall provide the basis for evaluating the bureaus' performance.
 - (B) Measure times taken to process license applications, mediate complaints, investigate and adjudicate cases, and respond to consumer inquiries. The department shall report this data in quartiles or smaller increments. Averages or means do not provide sufficient information for evaluating performance.
 - (C) Identify the percentage of complaints resulting in some form of compensation to consumers.
- (3) Input measures:
 - (A) Log the total costs of licensing, intake, mediation, and enforcement activities.
 - (B) Log the total number of telephone inquiries answered.
- (4) Output measures:
 - (A) Log the total numbers of licenses and registrations issued or renewed, and complaints received and closed.
 - (B) Identify the usage of language lines and compute the number of complaints by caller type.
 - (C) Identify the percentage of licensees and registrants who violate the same statute.
- (5) Efficiency measures: Calculate the costs of licenses and registrations issued or renewed, examinations administered, complaint inquiries received, complaints mediated, and cases investigated. The data shall provide the basis for statistical evaluation beyond averages and means. For these purposes,

- average or median costs do not provide sufficient analytical information.
- (e) In addition to the commitments included in its strategic business and information systems plans and performance measures, the department has agreed to the following:
- (1) The department shall submit to the Legislature: (A) a strategic plan and performance measures by July 1, 1994; (B) baseline performance measures by November 1, 1994; (C) performance targets by March 1, 1995; and (D) a status report by May 31, 1995.
 - (2) The department may adopt the strategic plan, performance measures, baseline performance measures, and performance targets unless the Joint Legislative Budget Committee notifies the department within 60 days after submittal that the proposal is insufficient. The department shall hold regular meetings with legislators and their representatives to discuss changes to those elements of the proposal.
 - (3) Commencing on January 1, 1995, the department shall report semiannually to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, the appropriate fiscal committees, and the Department of Finance regarding the status of the implementation of its strategic business and information systems plans, the status of meeting its performance targets, and the status of implementation and impact of the administrative flexibilities provided.
 - (4) The department shall not modify its strategic business and information systems plans or performance measures sooner than 30 days after notification, in writing, to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the appropriate fiscal committees and the Department of Finance.

4. Notwithstanding Section 11003 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, funding is appropriated under this item to the Franchise Tax Board from Vehicle License Fee (VLF) collections for the 1994-95 fiscal year to fund the board's enforcement of Part 5 (commencing with Section 10701) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.
6. It is the intent of the Legislature that the State Board of Equalization, the Franchise Tax Board, and the Employment Development Department shall develop an Integration Master Plan for integrating tax information systems. This plan shall include, at a minimum, all of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li data-bbox="246 621 832 743">(a) An identification of common functions, operations, or processes, and a vision of what integrated revenue operations should do for the state and for taxpayers.<li data-bbox="246 743 832 916">(b) A description of how the three revenue agencies can work cooperatively together to create an overall revenue system that will increase tax compliance, reduce the reporting burden on taxpayers, and provide greater taxpayer convenience.<li data-bbox="246 916 832 1003">(c) A strategic plan that addresses how and when current proposed systems should be integrated.<li data-bbox="246 1003 832 1124">(d) Protocols to ensure that telecommunications and data processing systems developed after the plan is adopted contribute to the achievement of the joint vision.<li data-bbox="246 1124 832 1298">(e) Standards, structures, and processes to ensure that the ability to exchange information between systems is a feature of any automated systems developed after the plan is adopted and that data can be shared in a way that helps to implement the plan.<li data-bbox="246 1298 832 1420">(f) The certification by each department, upon preparing feasibility study reports, that the proposed project is consistent with the master plan.<li data-bbox="246 1420 832 1529">(g) The assurance by the Department of Finance that each proposal by a tax agency to modify an existing information system or develop a new system is consistent with the strategic plan prior to approval of the feasibility study report for each project.

The master plan shall be submitted to the Department of Finance for review and approval. The Department of Finance shall transmit the approved master plan to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, the fiscal committees, and the revenue committees of the Legislature for review and comment at least 30 days prior to approval.

- 7. Of the funds appropriated by this item, the Franchise Tax Board shall allocate sufficient resources to initiate a strategic planning effort to consolidate the state's tax administration activities, which shall be jointly conducted by the State Board of Equalization and the Franchise Tax Board. Up to $150,000 of those funds may be expended to pay the Franchise Tax Board's share of costs for consulting services needed in connection with the strategic planning effort. It is the intent of the Legislature that the jointly conducted strategic planning efforts produce a plan to facilitate orderly consolidation of the state's tax administration activities, including the identification of how critical issues such as the consolidation of computer systems, telecommunications, and office space will be resolved, and the identification of other critical issues that may need to be resolved through legislation. The State Board of Equalization and the Franchise Tax Board shall provide a progress report regarding the strategic planning effort to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the fiscal committees of each house no later than April 1, 1995. This provision shall be operative only upon the enactment of legislation authorizing the consolidation of the state's tax administration activities.

Provisions:

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Item 9840-001-988, Item 9840-001-494 and Section 27.00 of this act, the Director of General Services may augment this item and Items 1760-001-002, 1760-001-003, 1760-001-006, 1760-001-026, 1760-001-602, and 1760-011-602 by up to an aggregate of 10% in cases where the Legislature has approved funds for a client department for services or the purchase of equipment by the Department of General Services and the corresponding expenditure authority has not been provided in this item. In the event the Director of General Services augments this item or Item 1760-001-002, 1760-001-003, 1760-001-006, 1760-001-026, 1760-001-602, or 1760-011-602, the Department of General Services shall notify the Department of Finance within 15 days after that augmentation is made as to the amount, justification, and the program that has been augmented. Any augmentation made in accordance with this provision shall not result in an increase in any rate charged to other departments for services or the purchase of goods without prior written approval by the Department of Finance. The Department of General Services shall not use this authority to increase the number of positions in the Division of the State Architect, Office of Design Services, for architectural or engineering services.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Item 9840-001-988, item 9840-001-494 and Section 27 of this act, if this item or Item 1760-001-002, 1760-001-003, 1760-001-006, 1760-001-026, 1760-001-602, or 1760-011-602, is augmented pursuant to Provision 1 by the maximum allowed under that provision, the Director of Finance may further augment these items in cases where the Legislature has approved funds for a client department for services or the purchase of equipment by the Department of General Services and the corresponding expenditure authority has not been provided in these items. The Department of General Services shall not use this authority to increase the number of positions in the Division of the State Architect, Office of Design Services, for architectural or engineering services.
3. Notwithstanding Section 16422 of the Government Code, the balance of any rental receipts paid into the Building Rental Account of the Service Revolving Fund as of June 30, 1994, after accounting for all receipts and the 1993-94 fiscal year costs of maintaining, operating, and insuring buildings included within the account, shall be reported to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee no later than September 30, 1994, and shall be used to complete high priority projects as identified in the department's "Maintenance and Deferred Maintenance Plan" of December 1993. Notwithstanding Section 16422 of the Government Code, the balance of any rental receipts paid into the Building Rental Account of the Service Revolving Fund as of June 30, 1995, after accounting for all receipts and the 1994-95 fiscal year costs of maintaining, operating, and insuring buildings included within the account, shall be reported to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee no later than September 30, 1995, and shall be used to complete high priority projects as identified in the department's "Maintenance and Deferred Maintenance Plan" of December 1993.
4. The Department of General Services is authorized to collect rent from the tenants of the buildings at 1020 N Street and 1021 O Street in Sacramento. These rents shall be deposited in the Building Rental Account and shall be available for maintenance and operation of the buildings by the Office of Buildings and Grounds.

5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, revenues from the sale of legislative bills and publications received by the bill room shall be deposited in the Service Revolving Fund.
6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the Director of the Department of General Services determines in writing that there is insufficient cash in a special fund under his authority to make one or more payments currently due and payable, he or she may order the transfer of moneys to that special fund in the amount necessary to make the payment or payments, as a loan from the Service Revolving Fund. That loan shall be subject to all of the following conditions:
(a) No loan shall be made that would interfere with the carrying out of the object for which the Service Revolving Fund was created.
(b) The loan shall be repaid as soon as there is sufficient money in the recipient fund to repay the amount loaned, but no later than 18 months after the date of the loan. The amount loaned shall not exceed the amount that the fund or program is authorized at the time of the loan to expend during the 1994-95 fiscal year from the recipient fund except as otherwise provided in Provisions 1 and 2 of this item.
(c) The terms and conditions of the loan are approved, prior to the transfer of funds, by the Department of Finance pursuant to appropriate fiscal standards.
7. Any augmentation made pursuant to Provisions 1 and 2 of this item shall be reported in writing to the chairpersons of the fiscal committees of each house and the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee within 30 days after the date the augmentation is approved. This notification shall identify the amount of, and justification for, the augmentation, and the program that has been augmented.

8. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, by December 31, 1994, the Director of General Services shall lease the 4,700-square-foot, fire-damaged structure known as Residence #3, located at 510 Magnolia Street, Stockton, San Joaquin County, to the San Joaquin County Child Abuse Prevention Council for the sum of $1 per year for a period of 30 years.
9. Public notification of any Department of General Services request for proposal or other invitation to bid on a contract having mandatory bidding requirements shall be published in the first issue of the State Contracts Register following completion of that request for proposal or other invitation to bid, and shall identify all mandatory bidding requirements relating to that contract.
10. If the Department of General Services contracts for maintenance and janitorial services for the Capitol Square Building, 28.5 personnel years associated with this work immediately shall be eliminated. If the department contracts for maintenance and janitorial services for the State Library Annex Building, 7.2 personnel years associated with this work immediately shall be eliminated. If the department contracts for maintenance and janitorial services for the Secretary of State/State Archives Building, 12.3 personnel years associated with this work immediately shall be eliminated. The amounts appropriated for janitorial and maintenance services for these three buildings shall be reduced by the amount of savings realized if the department contracts for these services.
11. Notwithstanding Section 10115.5 of the Public Contract Code, the Department of General Services shall compile an annual report, to be submitted to the Governor and the Legislature, on minority, women, and disabled veteran business enterprise participation in state contracting for all state departments, boards, and commissions that are subject to Section 10115.5 of the Public Contract Code. Each such agency shall submit annually to the Department of General Services statistical data on the participation of minority, women, and disabled veteran business enterprises in the contracting

Each such agency shall report to the Department of General Services in a format and within a time period prescribed by the Director of the Department of General Services so that the department may report to the Governor and the Legislature by March 1 of each year. The Department of General Services shall compile the information it receives and transmit a report to the Governor and Legislature for those agencies submitting data to the Department of General Services by the prescribed date. The report shall contain only statistical data for those agencies that submitted data as required. The report also shall indicate which agencies did not submit participation data as required.
12. Of funds appropriated in this item or from other sources, the department's base level of special repair expenditures for the 1994-95 fiscal year shall be $2.2 million.
 13. During the 1994-95 fiscal year, and with respect to the participation by the Department of General Services in the performance budgeting pilot program administered by the Department of Finance, the Director of General Services shall ensure that the Department of General Services adheres to the following schedule relating to the submittal of performance measures and related information to the Legislature: (a) by July 31, 1994, draft performance measures that shall be adopted as the performance measures for the 1994-95 fiscal year, and (b) by August 15, 1994, draft baseline data from which performance shall be measured and performance goals for each performance measure, which shall be adopted as the goals for the 1994-95 fiscal year. The Department of General Services shall not adopt the draft performance measures or draft baseline data sooner than 60 days after the date that the drafts are submitted to the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee. The Joint Legislative Budget Committee shall have 60 days to review the draft performance measures and draft baseline data. The Department of

(1) 50.10.120-Sacramento Department of Justice Building—Acquisition.....	61,230,500
Provisions:
1. The funds appropriated in this item shall be available for the purchase by the Department of General Services of the state office facility that is to be leased by the department pursuant to Section 14669.65 of the Government Code for the Department of Justice and other state entities. The Director of General Services may exercise the option to purchase that state office facility, and may expend the funds appropriated in this item for that purpose, only upon his or her finding that the facility and the site conform to the criteria set forth in Resolution Chapter 131 of the Statutes of 1991. Notwithstanding Section 13332.11 of the Government Code, no augmentation shall be allowed for this acquisition.
2. The State Public Works Board may issue revenue bonds, negotiable notes, or negotiable bond anticipation notes pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 15830) of Part 10b of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code in the total amount necessary for the acquisition described in Provision 1, to pay financing costs, and to provide a reasonable reserve fund if required by the State Treasurer.
1760-490—Reappropriation, Department of General Services. The balance of the appropriation provided in Chapter 984, Statutes of 1989, Section 1, is reappropriated for the purpose of completing the construction of the Secretary of State/Archives Complex and Parking Garage on Site 7, and shall be available for encumbrance and expenditure through June 30, 1997.

Provisions:
1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the State Personnel Board may bill, and departments shall pay, up to $1,560,000 of the board's costs for one year to provide appeals processing services to address the caseload backlog in the 1994-95 fiscal year, and up to $653,000 beginning in the 1994-95 fiscal year to address the ongoing caseload in the Hearing Office, for a total of $2,213,000. The billings shall be based on the proportion of appeals filed by employees in the affected departments for the prior three fiscal years. The timing and manner of these payments shall be determined by the board, to be consistent with the needs of the Hearing Office.
2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the State Personnel Board may bill, and departments shall pay, up to $15,000 for reimbursement of the costs incurred by the board for the production of the annual affirmative action and employee census report to be provided to the Legislature during the 1994-95 fiscal year. The Department of Finance shall determine an appropriate method for billing departments for this purpose.

Provisions:

1. For purposes of the funds appropriated in Schedule (b), Program 20—Highway Transportation. Upon approval of the California Transportation Commission and the Department of Finance, the department shall notify the chairpersons of the fiscal committees and the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee at least 20 days prior to spending funds to expand activities above budgeted levels or to implement a new activity not identified in this act, including any such expenditures to be funded through a transfer of money from other expenditure categories or programs, except in the case of emergency work increases caused by snow or storm damage.
2. From funds appropriated by this item, the Department of Transportation may enter into interagency agreements with the Department of the California Highway Patrol to compensate that department for the cost of work performed by patrol officers at or near state highway construction projects so as to reduce the risk of occurrence of serious motor vehicle accidents.
3. For purposes of the funds appropriated in Schedule (b), Program 20—Highway Transportation. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any amount of the funds appropriated in Schedule (a) may be transferred to Item 2660-025-042 to allow the proper recording of expenditures as they relate to Proposition 111 funding. This transfer shall require the prior approval of the Department of Finance.
4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, whenever the cash balance in the State Highway Account is or will be exhausted, and upon the approval of a quarterly plan of transfers by the Department of Finance, the Director of the Department of Transportation may authorize the Controller to direct the transfer of all or any part of the cash balance not needed in the other accounts under the control of the Department of Transportation to the State Highway Account. The Department of Transportation shall prepare a quarterly plan which forecasts the amounts, sources and timing of funds to be transferred during the quarter, and request the approval of the Department of Finance for the plan. The Department of Finance shall have 5 working days to approve or deny the plan, otherwise the plan shall be deemed to have been approved. All money so transferred shall be returned to the funds or accounts from which it was transferred as soon as there is sufficient money in the State Highway Account to return it, but in no circumstances shall the loan exceed 30 days. No transfers shall be made to the State Highway Account under this provision if such transfers shall impede the ability of the transferring account to meet statutory or contractual commitments. Interest shall be paid from the State Highway Account to the transferring account for any transfer authorized by this provision at the Pooled Money Investment Account rate.

5. From the funds appropriated in this item, the department may allocate an amount sufficient to maintain a fleet of vehicles. The fleet may be made available to employees for the purpose of meeting the department's responsibilities in the most cost-effective manner. The number of department vehicles taken home by employees for this purpose is limited to an average of 1,939 vehicles per day, beginning on January 1, 1995.
6. From the funds appropriated by this item the Department of Transportation shall fund a study, which shall be conducted by the Bureau of State Audits, of the department's fleet management. The bureau shall provide a report of the study to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee by December 30, 1994. The report shall specify possible methods to improve the cost-effectiveness of the department's vehicle fleet and recommend ways to implement those improvements. The report shall specifically address, but not be limited to, (a) methods for expanding competition by allowing consideration of additional vehicle manufacturers, (b) consideration of manufacturing quality records in evaluating bids, and (c) acquisition of subcompact vehicles.

Provisions:

1. Of the funds appropriated by this item, up to $500,000 shall be used only to reimburse the Bureau of State Audits for its costs to contract with an independent consultant to evaluate the Department of Motor Vehicles' (DMV) database redevelopment project and needs, and to propose a solution, consistent with the stated intent of the Legislature. Of the funds appropriated by this item, up to $3,900,000 shall be used only to make required payments to the Stephen P. Teale Data Center for the purchase, maintenance, and support of the Tandem computer system that was procured for the DMV's database redevelopment project. The DMV shall minimize these costs by eliminating or postponing tasks or payments that are not necessary during the consultant review period. Any funds not required for either of these purposes shall revert on June 30, 1995.

2. The independent consultant shall evaluate the database redevelopment project and recommend the most appropriate course of action. The Bureau of State Audits (BSA) shall select the consultant, and let and manage the consultant contract. The BSA shall be assisted by a procurement advisory committee that includes participants from the DMV, the Office of Information Technology (OIT), the Legislative Counsel Bureau, and the Legislative Analyst's Office. The consultant's analysis shall encompass, at a minimum, the following:
 - (a) Review the DMV's Strategic Information Technology Plan (SITP) and comment on its value as a long-range planning and policy document, in order to ensure that database redevelopment is consistent with the appropriate elements of the SITP.
 - (b) Evaluate the need to replace the Series/1 computers in the DMV field offices, in order to ensure that database redevelopment will be consistent with a reasonable replacement schedule and will provide appropriate flexibility for future changes in field office computing.
 - (c) Consider the DMV's need to adapt to new responsibilities, business practices, and customers, including those represented in the DMV's Strategic Business Plan and state and federal legislative mandates, in order to ensure that database redevelopment will facilitate efficient and responsive operation of the department.
 - (d) Determine how urgent the need is to redevelop the department's database system, what the appropriate timetable is for redevelopment, and what the risks are of a shorter or longer schedule.
 - (e) Evaluate all available options, including the initial plan utilizing relational technology, consider the department's long-range information technology strategy and business needs, and determine the most cost-effective option for database redevelopment. If the recommended plan differs from the initial plan or does not utilize relational technology, the independent consultant's analysis shall explain why the recommended plan is preferable. In developing the recommended option, the consultant shall evaluate whether the cost-effectiveness of the project can be improved by utilizing previous project investments. The primary goal of the consultant's analysis shall be to develop and recommend a database redevelopment plan; this effort should represent the largest share of the consultant's work.

(f) Review and determine the extent and nature of the appropriate involvement by DMV staff and private-sector contractors in the procurement, management, and implementation of the database redevelopment project.
3. No later than March 1, 1995, the consultant shall complete its review, analysis, and recommendation, and shall provide a final report, including (a) an overview of the department's short- and long-term information technology needs and strategies, (b) a detailed plan and cost estimate for the recommended database redevelopment plan, and (c) a request for proposal (RFP) to procure one or more outside contractors to implement the recommended database project. The consultant shall include, in the project plan and the RFP, substantial performance guarantees and financial penalties to ensure the timely and cost-effective performance of the contractor. The RFP shall identify project milestones and deliverables and shall indicate the respective responsibility and authority of the contractor and of the DMV, in order to provide clear accountability and responsibility for successful project implementation. The BSA shall transmit the consultant's final report to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the appropriate fiscal and policy committees of the Legislature no later than March 7, 1995.
4. One or more contractors to implement the database redevelopment project shall be solicited

through the RFP, which may allow for award based on other factors to be determined by the BSA in addition to cost, including value-effectiveness factors as defined in Chapter 1106 of the Statutes of 1993. The RFP shall be put to bid by March 1, 1995. The contract shall be awarded on a competitive basis to the bidder submitting the most value-effective proposal, as recommended by the consultant to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee. The RFP shall permit, but not require, a bidder to submit a proposal that utilizes prior project investment, and the cost of that prior investment shall not be considered as costs of the bid. The consultant shall participate in the evaluation and selection of bids and, at each significant milestone in the selection of contractors, shall certify to the Legislature whether the intent of the Legislature and the best judgment of the consultant are being met.
5. After vendor proposals have been evaluated, the DMV shall prepare a business plan for the recommended database redevelopment project. The business plan shall contain the proposed conceptual system design, the estimated costs and benefits of the project, and an implementation schedule for the major deliverables of the project. The business plan shall be submitted to the OIT.

Provisions:

1. The funds appropriated in this item may be increased with the approval of, and under the conditions set by, the Department of Finance to meet current obligations proposed to be funded in Schedules (i) and (t). The funds appropriated by this item shall not be increased until the Department of Fish and Game has a valid contract, signed by the client agency, that provides sufficient funds to finance the increased authorization. This increased authorization may not be used to expand services or create new obligations.

Reimbursements received under Schedules (i) and (t) shall be used in repayment of any funds utilized to meet current obligations pursuant to this provision.

2. Notwithstanding Section 6 of Chapter 732 of the Statutes of 1991, one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) shall be repaid from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to the Off-Highway Vehicle Fund on or before June 30, 1996, and the remaining balance shall be repaid on or before June 30, 1997.
4. Funds appropriated in this item for expenditure on administration shall be redirected, if necessary, to keep the annual production of yearling steelhead and other fish at Mad River Hatchery at full capacity.
5. Of the funds appropriated by this item, $240,000 for the operation of the "Broadbill" Patrol Boat shall be redirected to other marine enforcement of commercial and sports fishing on the North Coast. The Department of Fish and Game shall retain the staff currently operating the "Broad-

- 25200.11 of the Health and Safety Code, and (4) that are not eligible for interim status under Section 25201.6 of the Health and Safety Code.
- (b) The department shall proceed as rapidly as feasible to process the permit applications for the facilities identified in (a) above, including, where possible, entering into memoranda of understanding to accomplish all milestones described in the department's 1994-95 workplan necessary to reach permit determinations.
 - (c) The department shall conduct comprehensive inspections of facilities identified in subdivision (a) above which have not been inspected since July 1, 1993, and shall identify all operations and activities at these facilities that are not in compliance with the initial and subsequent grants of interim status authorization granted to each facility by the department and the applicable provisions of Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25200) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code and any applicable regulations adopted pursuant to that chapter.
 - (d) The department shall issue a report of violation or initiate other enforcement action on all violations found in subdivision (c) above.
 - (e) The department shall make the information relating to subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d) above available to the public, except to the extent that the information is confidential under the California Public Records Act.
5. In addition to the redirection in Provision 4 above, a transfer to Schedule (b) of this item only for the activities listed in Provision 4 above shall be made from a 10 percent reduction in all other programs within the Department of Toxic Substances Control.
 6. The redirection and transfer of funds in Provisions 4 and 5 shall be nullified if the activities listed in Provision 4 have been accomplished and a report acknowledging the completion of those activities is made to the Chair of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, the chairs of the Otherwise, the Department of Toxic Substances Control shall notify the chairs of those committees 30 days before any redirection or transfer is made concerning the reasons for not completing the activities listed in Provision 4, the date by which the activities will be accomplished, and the sources and amounts of the redirected and transferred funds.

7. The Department of Toxic Substances Control shall complete the following activities by June 30, 1995:
 - (a) The department shall notice its intent to issue or deny permits for currently operating multiuser offsite hazardous waste treatment facilities that are identified in subdivision (a) of Provision 4.
 - (b) For each facility noticed for permit action, the department shall make available for public review information describing whether or not the facility is operating in substantial compliance with Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25200) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code and any regulations adopted pursuant to that chapter, including those requirements pertaining to waste analysis plans, closure cost estimates, remedial investigation and remedial action, and tank integrity and secondary containment.
 - (c) The department shall make a final determination to issue or deny permits for currently operating multiuser offsite hazardous waste treatment facilities identified in subdivision (a) of Provision 4.
 - (d) By January 1, 1995, the department shall report to the Chair of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, the chairs of the budget subcommittees of both houses, the Chair of the Senate Toxic and Public Safety Management Committee, and the Chair of the Assembly Environmental Safety and Toxic Materials Committee on the depart-

Provisions:

1. Of the total amount of reimbursements in this item, $1,200,000 shall be available for administration, research, and training projects with other state departments as submitted with the 1994-95 Governor's Budget. The Department of Health Services shall process a budget revision for each project through the Department of Finance prior to any expenditure of funds and shall provide notification pursuant to Section 28.00 of this act for any new project or any increase in excess of $200,000 of an identified project.

Item	Amount
2. Except as otherwise prohibited by law, the department shall promulgate emergency regulations to adjust the public health fees set by regulation to an amount, such that if the new fees were effective throughout the 1994-95 fiscal year, the estimated revenues would be sufficient to offset at least 95% of the approved program level intended to be supported by such fees. This provision shall not apply to the fees for shellfish certificates. For radioactive materials licenses, the approved program level shall be calculated based on the total approved program level less the portion of the total approved program level attributable to fee-exempt facilities. 3. Effective July 1, 1994, the annual fee for a general acute care hospital, acute psychiatric hospital, special hospital, general acute care rehabilitation hospital and chemical dependency recovery hospital shall be $59.89 per bed. Effective July 1, 1994, the annual fee for a skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, or intermediate care facility for the developmentally disabled is $155.26 per bed. Department of Health Services' fees subject to the annual fee adjustment pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 115 of the Health and Safety Code, shall remain the same as those that were in effect during the 1993-94 fiscal year. Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 116 of the Health and Safety Code, departmental fees subject to the annual fee adjustment pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 116 of the Health and Safety Code, shall remain the same as those which were in effect during the 1993-94 fiscal year. Departmental fees subject to the annual fee increase provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 113 and subdivision (a) of Section 114 of the Health and Safety Code shall be increased 0.5 percent. 4. The Department of Health Services shall establish a system of fees for various services and programs including any voluntary or mandatory population-based screening programs provided by the Genetic Disease Branch. The fee shall be sufficient to cover the total costs of providing all such genetic disease or population-based screen- ing services and programs provided by the Genetic Disease Branch.

5. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Office of the State Registrar be fully supported by fees.
7. In the expenditure of the $5,756,000 augmentation for licensing and certification activities, the department shall give priority to the following activities: (a) expanding the department's ability to monitor compliance with state licensure requirements, (b) resolving the staffing, application processing, and workload issues that exist in the Nurse Aide Certification Unit, and (c) developing a plan, to be provided to the Legislature by March 1, 1995, to address the fee methodology and subsidy issues described in the performance audit conducted by the State Auditor (report number 93020, issues two and three).
8. All fee revenues collected for the purposes of providing licensing and certification review and assistance shall only be used to pay for expenditures incurred in providing these services.
9. The Education Now And Babies Later Program shall include some discussion of postponing sex until marriage.

Provisions:

1. In allocating to the counties funds for mental health services to pupils who are specified in accordance with Section 7570, et seq. of the Government Code and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Section 602(a) Amendments of 1990, as defined in Section 300.5 of Title 34 of the Code of Federal Regulations and who meet the requirements of Section 56026 of the Education Code and Sections 3030 and 3031 of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, the Department of Mental Health may allocate the funds based on the individual county's needs, in lieu of Section 5701 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
2. Notwithstanding Section 7587 of the Government Code, the emergency regulations developed to implement Chapter 26.5 (commencing with Section 7570) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code shall not be subject to automatic repeal until the final regulations take effect on or before June 30, 1995.

4440-490—Reappropriation, Department of Mental Health. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, as of June 30, 1994, the balance of the appropriation provided in the following citation is reappropriated on the effective date of this act for the purpose (and subject to the limitation, unless otherwise specified) provided for in this appropriation and shall be available for expenditure until June 30, 1995.

001-General Fund

- (1) Item 4440-011-001, Budget Act of 1993, up to $300,000 for the support of the state hospitals to reimburse counties for costs associated with services provided to mental health patients pursuant to Section 4117 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Use of these reappropriated funds is limited to claims submitted for Fiscal Year 1993-94 that could not be paid because of limitation on total expenditures provided for in language of the Budget Act of 1993.

If the Department of Finance does not approve or modify in writing the assumptions underlying all estimates within 15 working days of receipt, the Employment Development Department shall consider the assumptions and calculations approved as submitted. If the Department of Finance determines that the estimate of benefit expenditures differs from the amount appropriated by this item, the Director of Finance shall so report to the Legislature. At the time the report is made, the amount of this appropriation shall be adjusted by the difference between this Budget Act appropriation and the approved estimate of the Department of Finance. Revisions reported pursuant to this provision are not subject to the provisions of Section 28.00 of this act.
